CERTIFICATION OF SPONSOR'S EXPERT ON ADEQUACY OF COMMON CHARGES PAYABLE BY THE COMMERCIAL UNIT OWNER PURSUANT TO SECTION 20 OF THE REGULATIONS ISSUED PURSUANT TO GENERAL BUSINESS LAW, ARTICLE
23-A, AS AMENDED

RE: 42-52 Broadway, Brooklyn, New York

The Sponsor of the condominium offering plan for the above captioned property retained me to review SCHEDULE B, which includes projections of common charges payable by the owners of the commercial unit. Our experience in the field includes being a licensed real estate broker for over fifteen (15) years; the management of approximately eight (8) buildings; and, the sale of numerous condominium and rental properties. We are familiar with prices, practices, and procedures in the area of this condominium.

We understand that we are responsible for complying with Article 23-A of the General Business Law and the regulations promulgated by the Attorney General, Part 20 thereof, insofar as they are applicable to the commercial unit listed in SCHEDULE B. We have reviewed the SCHEDULE as it impacts upon the commercial unit, and investigated the facts underlying it, with due diligence in order to form a basis for this certification. We also have relied on our experience in managing residential buildings.

We certify that the projections in SCHEDULE B for common charges payable by the owners of the commercial unit appear reasonable and adequate under existing circumstances to meet the anticipated operating expenses fairly attributable to such commercial unit for the projected first year of condominium operation, and that the allocation of common charges attributable to the commercial unit also reflects special or exclusive use or availability, or exclusive control of particular common areas.

We certify that the estimates in SCHEDULE B for common charges payable by the owner of the commercial unit(s) does:

1. Set forth in detail the projected common charges for the commercial unit for the first year of condominium operation ;
2. Afford potential investors, purchasers and participants an adequate basis on which to found their judgment concerning the common charges payable by the owners of commercial units;
3. Not omit any material fact;
4. Not contain any untrue statements of a material fact;
5. Not contain any fraud, deception, concealments, or suppression;
6. Not contain any promise or representation as to the future which is beyond reasonable expectation or unwarranted by existing circumstances;
7. Not contain any statement or representation which is false where we:
 - a) knew the truth;
 - b) with reasonable effort, could have known the truth;
 - c) made no reasonable effort to ascertain the truth; or,
 - d) did not have knowledge concerning the representations or statements made.

We further certify that we are not owned or controlled by the Sponsor. We understand that a copy of this certification is intended to be incorporated in the offering plan. This statement is not intended as a guarantee or warranty of the common charges fairly attributable to the commercial unit for the first year of condominium operation. This certification is made under the penalty of perjury for the benefit of all persons to whom this offering is made. We understand that violations are subject to the civil and criminal penalties of the General Business Law and Penal Law.

SPECIAL RISKS

1) Closing will not take place, and no individual condominium apartment will be sold until a permanent or temporary Certificate of Occupancy has been obtained for the premises. In the event closing occurs after the issuance of a temporary Certificate of Occupancy, but prior to the issuance of permanent Certificate of Occupancy, then it will remain the obligation of the Sponsor to, at its own cost and expense, obtain such permanent Certificate, and the Certificate must be obtained within two (2) years from date of closing. Prior to obtaining the permanent Certificate of Occupancy, the Sponsor is required to either: a) maintain all deposits and funds in a special escrow account required by GBL-352e(2)(b) unless the Sponsor's engineer or architect certifies that a lesser amount will be reasonably necessary to complete the work needed to obtain the permanent Certificate of Occupancy, in which case the sum exceeding the amount so certified may be released; or, b) deposit with an escrow agent an unconditional, irrevocable letter of credit, or post a surety bond, in the aforesaid specified amount, in accord with the regulations of the New York State Department of Law.

2) There are numerous time constraints imposed in the Purchase Agreement set forth in Part II of this Offering Plan. Time is of the essence as to all such time constraints. This means that if the Purchaser fails to perform within the applicable time frame, he may waive substantive rights, or incur a forfeiture of substantial sums of money. Purchasers are advised to consult with their attorney concerning all terms of this offering. Please see section of this Plan entitled PROCEDURE TO PURCHASE, and the PURCHASE AGREEMENT, set forth in Part II, for a statement of all applicable time limitations.

3) The terms of this Offering Plan transfer the statutory obligation to pay New York City Real Property transfer taxes (1% of purchase price for residential units, and New York State Documentary Stamp Taxes ($4.00 per thousand) to the Purchaser, so that the cost of such taxes represent an additional closing cost to the Purchaser. Additionally, the Purchaser is responsible for paying to the Sponsor's attorney a document preparation fee of $550.00, and may be responsible for certain other fees such as travel fees and default fees. See section of the Offering Plan entitled UNIT CLOSING COSTS AND ADJUSTMENTS.

4) While all residential apartments will be equipped for installation of washers, dryers, stoves, refrigerators, and dishwashers no appliances will be provided by the Sponsor as part of the sale; except that a stove will be included. To the extent the Purchaser elects to install any of such appliances in his/her apartment, same will represent an additional cost of purchasing the apartment. See DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY section in Part II of this Offering Plan.

5) At the earlier of the second anniversary of the first closing date, or such time as less than fifty percent of the units of the Condominium constitute unsold units, control of the Condominium shall be transferred to a Board of Managers elected by unit owners other than Sponsor. Prior to that time, the Condominium will be controlled by a Board of Managers elected by the Sponsor. Certain amendments or modifications of the By-Laws, Declaration, or House Rules, may be barred, and any certain expenditures may be vetoed.

Until the earlier of five (5) years from the date of closing, or at the time at which the Sponsor or other Holder of Unsold Units owns units consisting of less than 25% of the common interest of the Condominium, Sponsor may exercise veto power over any expenses other than those described in Item 3 of the section entitled CONTROL BY SPONSOR in the offering plan. Additionally, so long as the sponsor retains ownership of at least one unit in the building, the By-Laws, Declaration, and Rules and Regulations of the Condominium, may not be amended or modified in any way so as to adversely affect the Sponsor without written consent by the Sponsor.

See section of the Offering Plan entitled CONTROL BY SPONSOR for a more complete explanation.

6) Sponsor is liable for all common charges, special assessments, and real estate taxes with respect to unsold units, and represents that Sponsor has financial resources to meet these obligations. However, no bond or other security has been furnished to secure the Sponsor's obligations. Please see section of the Offering Plan entitled SPONSOR'S OBLIGATIONS for a more detailed explanation.

7) Pursuant to existing law and regulation, the Sponsor may declare the plan effective by selling a minimum of fifteen (15%) percent of the apartments in the building. Even if the plan is declared effective with a minimum number of sales, it is possible that the Sponsor may be able to convert the building with fewer than the minimum number of sales, if purchasers counted towards effectiveness do not ultimately purchase an apartment. See EFFECTIVE DATE section of this Offering Plan

8) Purchasers should note that in the current real estate market, banks and other lenders are imposing various restrictions on loans. Such restrictions include requiring that a certain percentage (such as 35% or 50%) of the apartments in a building be sold before the lender will consider making a loan. Thus, it may be possible for a Purchaser to experience difficulty obtaining a loan in a building where the percentage of units purchased is lower than a lender's particular sales minimum.

Even after a building undergoes conversion, lenders may still impose minimum sales requirements before granting a loan. It then may be difficult for a Purchaser to resell an apartment if prospective buyers are unable to obtain a loan due to such minimum sales requirements.

9) All funds received by the Sponsor for upgrades or extras must initially be placed in the escrow account set forth herein. However, Purchaser should not that such funds may be released from the escrow account by the escrow agent as long as the Sponsor uses the funds for such upgrades or extras. As a result, in the event the Purchaser is entitled to a rescission, the Purchaser will not receive a refund of any funds used for upgrades or extras. See PURCHASE AGREEMENT set forth in Part II of this Offering plan.

10) The cost of providing heat and hot water for individual units is not included in the monthly Common Charges. Heat and hot water are separately provided to each unit by its own heat and hot water facility; and the cost of fuel for providing such heat and hot water will be separately billed for each unit. Thus, the cost of heat and hot water represent additional costs in addition to the monthly maintenance (see FOOTNOTES TO SCHEDULE B and SECTION B1).

11) The first floor and basement of the subject premises will contain a commercial unit currently projected to be used as a community facility. While it is currently anticipated that the unit will be used as a medical facility, the unit owner has the right to change the use in accord with the building certificate of occupancy and applicable zoning laws. Moreover, the unit owner retains the right to subdivide the unit. Please see section of the Offering Plan entitled COMMERCIAL UNIT and DECLARATION set forth in Part II of this Offering Plan.

12) Sponsor shall only be obligated to cure title exceptions raised in a title report prepared by First American Title Company. Purchaser will take subject to exceptions raised in a title report prepared by any other title company or abstract company, unless Sponsor, at Sponsor's sole discretion, elects to cure same. See TERMS OF SALE and PURCHASE AGREEMENT set forth in PART II of this Offering Plan.

13) Sponsor bases his projection of tax due for individual units on the anticipated real estate tax exemption and abatement benefits. Sponsor has made, and will pursue this application and shall make all filings necessary to obtain such benefits. Upon closing, the Sponsor will make all tax benefit documents available to the Condominium for inspection and copying for the life of the benefits. The Sponsor will timely file all applications and timely comply with all procedures required to properly process and maintain the benefits. The Sponsor has also included projections in the event tax benefits are not obtained. Sponsor will make the initial application at his own cost and expense; however purchaser shall reimburse the Sponsor for this cost by paying to the Sponsor a $1,000.00 reimbursement on closing.

The Sponsor's projection of tax due for the first year of operation is based on the figures and assumptions in the accompanying expert's opinion as to real estate tax benefits. However, it is not possible to accurately determine what the increase and actual assessed valuation will be. Moreover, it is equally impossible to predict any future increases in real estate tax rates which may affect the amount of tax due on the property.

NO WARRANTY IS OR CAN BE MADE THAT THE BENEFITS SET FORTH THEREIN WILL BE OBTAINED IN THE EVENT THE BENEFITS ARE NOT OBTAINED, OR IN THE EVENT THERE ARE INCREASES IN THE TAX RATE OR THE PROPERTY'S ASSESSED VALUATION OR IN THE STATUTES GOVERNING THE TAX BENEFITS, REAL ESTATE TAXES MAY HIGHER THAN SET FORTH ABOVE FOR THE FIRST YEAR OF OPERATION AND IN FUTURE YEARS HENCE INDIVIDUAL CARRYING COSTS FOR ALL UNITS WOULD ALSO BE HIGHER.

Prospective purchasers are urged most strongly to read the section entitled REAL ESTATE TAX BENEFITS OPINION included herein.

14) Due to the proportion of this condominium building occupied by a commercial unit, it is anticipated that the project will not qualify for the exemption provided to residential condominiums pursuant to Section 528 of the IRS Code; and that, therefore, any income earned by the condominium association in excess of actual operating costs will be taxed as ordinary income. It is not anticipated that there will be any such taxable income, and therefore, no such figure is included in the budget set forth in SCHEDULE B however, in future years, any income in excess of actual operating costs (such as interest income on condominium reserve fund) may be taxable to the condominium and may result in increased common charges. See sections in the Plan entitled DEDUCTIONS TO UNIT OWNERS and COUNSEL'S TAX OPINION.

15) The commercial unit owners will remain only and solely responsible for reimbursing the condominium for any insurance cost over and above that which the condominium would incur if all units in the building were residential units; which cost is to be determined via a letter delivered by the insurance carrier, or agent thereof, supplying insurance coverage for the building. Insofar as the exact usage of the space has not been determined, it is not possible to estimate such cost at this time; however, such information will be provided to the prospective commercial unit purchaser prior to executing a Contract of Sale therefor. See section of the Plan entitled COMMERCIAL UNIT.

16) All downpayments will be placed in an IOLA account and will be federally insured up to $100,000.00. To the extent that the contract deposit exceeds $100,000.00, it will not be federally insured.

INTRODUCTION

This is an Offering Plan for the sale of condominium apartments at 42 ad 52 Broadway, Brooklyn, New York. The purpose of this plan is to fully set forth all material terms of the offer. This plan may be amended from time to time, if such amendment is filed with the New York State Department of Law. Any such amendments will be served on all prospective Purchasers who have executed a Purchase Agreement for any apartment unit, all unit owners, any commercial or professional tenant, and all other persons entitled to service pursuant to local law or statute.

The sponsor of this offering is Waterview Condo LLC, a New York limited liability company. The Sponsor acquired the property on March 18, 1999. Units will be conveyed free and clear of any mortgages, liens, or other encumbrances. Units will be conveyed by delivery of a UNIT DEED set forth in Part II of this Offering Plan.

The prices contained in this offering, as set forth in SCHEDULE A, are set by the Sponsors, and are not subject to approval by the New York State Department of Law, or any other governmental agency.

This Condominium will be subject to, and in compliance with, the New York State Condominium Act, Article 9-B of the New York Real Property Law.

This plan, including all schedules and exhibits submitted herewith, constitutes the entire offering plan. Copies of the plan and Parts A, B, C and D of the exhibits will be available for inspection to potential purchasers and their attorneys at the office of the Sponsor indicated on the front cover of this offering plan.

The premises consists of a single building, containing six stories and a cellar, and located in the Williamsburgh section of Brooklyn. There are separate entrances to the building for residential and commercial units. The building will contain thirty residential units and one commercial unit. The Certificate of Occupancy will provide that the commercial unit may be used as a community facility which includes public gathering and assembly, religious uses and medical facility uses. The current anticipated use is as a medical facility. There will be 36 underground parking spaces available. 20 will be allocated to the community facility and 16 will be allocated to residential units. However such parking spaces will not be assigned to any individual unit but will be available for general use by all unit owners. There are no on premises recreational or laundry facilities; however individual apartments will have laundry hookup.

This offering is made only to individuals over the age of 18.

In accordance with the provisions of the Laws of the City of New York, the Sponsor represents that neither the Sponsor, nor the Condominium nor the Selling Agent will discriminate against any person because of his race, creed, color, sex, national origin, ancestry, or any other reason prohibited by civil rights law in the sale of apartments offered by this Plan, or in the leasing of any apartment in the Building. Unit owners have an unrestricted right to lease or sell units.

This is a newly constructed building. Excavation for foundation work has been commenced. Work on the building is scheduled for completion in September, 2000.

Ownership of a Condominium Unit resembles in many ways ownership of a private home. Basic aspects of condominium ownership include:

(1) Each purchaser owns his unit outright and is entitled to exclusive possession of his unit. Each purchaser also has an interest, and a right to use common elements and limited common elements of the building.

(2) Common elements are parts of the Property, in addition to his/her own Unit, which a Unit Owner owns in common with the owners of all other Units in the Condominium such as entry ways, stairways, hallways, utility areas, and similar elements of the building which may serve and benefit all Unit Owners. A Unit Owner will share the non-exclusive right to use the Common Elements, with all other unit owners.

Limited Common Elements are those areas appurtenant to a particular Unit or Units, the use of which is restricted to the owner(s) of such Unit or Units, but which are not owned by that unit owner. In this project the Limited Common Elements will consist of a separate enclosed storage unit in the cellar for each Residential Unit, and a recreation area on the roof of the subject premises which is allocated to the exclusive use and possession of the Nonresidential Unit.

(3) Each unit may be separately taxed and mortgaged; each unit owner may deduct from adjusted gross income for income tax purposes real estate taxes and mortgage interest;

(4) Each Unit Owner may vote for the members of the Board of Managers, which is the group elected by unit owners to operate the Condominium. The Board of Managers will set common charges based on cash needs of building operation, decide on special assessments, and, in general, make all decisions necessary to run the building.

(5) Each unit owner must pay common charges in accordance with the New York Condominium Act, Sections 339(i) and (m), and any applicable state or local law. The common charges payable under the By-Laws will be based strictly on the projected cash requirements of ownership and operation of the Property and may include an allowance for contingencies, replacements, and/or repairs. Furthermore, the Board of Managers may impose special assessments in order to meet emergencies, contingencies, or other unforeseen events, which will become the financial obligation of each purchaser of a Condominium Apartment. These assessments will be levied in accordance with the percentage of common interest allocated to each apartment .

(6) Prior to closing the Sponsor will obtain fire and casualty insurance for the building and liability insurance for the common areas, as set forth in FOOTNOTES TO SCHEDULE B in this Offering Plan. Said insurance will be maintained by the Board of Managers after closing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, individual purchasers should explore obtaining insurance coverage, which would be at their own cost and expense, to insure them for such risks as fire and casualty losses in their apartments to their personal contents therein, as well as liability insurance for each occurrence which might occur within their respective apartments. Unit owners are responsible for maintenance and repairs to their individual units.

The estimated Common Charges for the first year of Condominium operation are set forth below in SCHEDULE A. The projected budget for the first year of Condominium operation is set forth below in SCHEDULE B.

THE PURCHASE OF A CONDOMINIUM APARTMENT HAS MANY SIGNIFICANT LEGAL AND FINANCIAL CONSEQUENCES AND MAY BE ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT FINANCIAL TRANSACTIONS OF YOUR LIFE. THE ATTORNEY GENERAL STRONGLY URGES YOU TO READ THIS OFFERING PLAN CAREFULLY AND CONSULT WITH AN ATTORNEY BEFORE SIGNING AN AGREEMENT TO PURCHASE A CONDOMINIUM.

DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY AND IMPROVEMENTS

The structure which is the subject of this offering plan consists of a single building containing a cellar and six stories above, laid out as per the attached floor plans and containing in total thirty residential units and one commercial unit. There will be 36 underground parking spaces available, 20 which are allocated to the community facility, and 16 of which are allocated to the residential units; however no spaces will be assigned to any individual residential units but will be available for general use by the condominium. There are no on premises recreational or laundry facilities for residential units. However residential apartments will be equipped for installation of laundry appliances. It is anticipated that construction will be completed in June of 2000.

The Sponsor will complete the work set forth in this plan relating to the buildings, and the apartments contained therein, in conformity with all applicable New York City Administrative Code requirements, and subject to procurement of all applicable and proper permits which are required, if any. Sponsor will continue to maintain and operate the buildings in their present condition as described herein, subject to reasonable wear and tear, until closing. The Sponsor may make changes in design, layout, and arrangement of apartments, and substitute equipment and materials, except that the Sponsor may not (i) substitute materials or equipment of lesser quality or design; or, (ii) change the size, location, or value of any units, or of other improvements or public areas, if such changes adversely affect the public areas, or adversely affect the value of any unit to which title has been closed, or for which a Purchase Agreement has been fully executed and is in effect, unless all affected contract vendees, unless any affected unit owners, and the Board of Managers (if applicable) consent to such changes.

The Sponsor hereby adopts the detailed description of property and building condition set forth in the section entitled DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY, SPECIFICATIONS, and BUILDING CONDITION of this offering plan. With reference to such material, a licensed architect prepared the description of property and building condition contained therein. Prospective purchasers are urged to refer to said section for a more complete understanding of the physical condition of the subject property and building.

LOCATION AND AREA INFORMATION

The premises are located in the Williamsburgh section of Brooklyn. This is a highly developed area essentially residential in character, but served by a rich and diverse assortment of shopping, recreational, medical, religious, and educational facilities, as well as a network both of streets and roads, and urban transportation. Police, Fire, Water, Sanitation, snow removal, and road maintenance are provided by the City of New York. Both the Police Precincts and local fire station are located less than 1/2 mile from the subject premises at the intersection of Union Avenue and Broadway. The local Medical center is Woodhull Hospital at Flushing Avenue. Students living in the premises will be eligible to attend either the Public School on Rutledge Street between Marcy and Harrison Avenue or any of the local religiously oriented schools.

Zoning of the site is mixed use. There is no landmark designation of the site. There are no adjoining undeveloped areas of the site. Neither the Sponsor, nor any principals of the Sponsor, own in whole or in part, or have an optional right to acquire in whole or in part, any adjacent areas which are not fully developed.

Notes:

- 1) Minor differences in the above calculations may be caused by "rounding off".
- 2) All residential units will have a balcony area.
- 3) The approximate area of each unit and the limited common elements appurtenant thereto are set forth in Schedule B to the Declaration in Part II of this Offering Plan. Floor Plans for the units are also included in Part II of the Offering Plan.

FOOTNOTES TO SCHEDULE A

1. The room count is based on the method suggested by the Real Estate Board of New York. See the section entitled DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY AND BUILDING CONDITION for a more complete description of each apartment.

2. The determination of percentages of Common Interest allocated to each unit is in the approximate proportion that the estimated fair market value of the unit as of the date of conversion to condominium status will bear to the then aggregate fair market value of all condominium units, as per Section 339-i(1)(i) of the New York State Real Property Law (see the opinion of sponsor's expert with regards to compliance with RPL section 339-i(1)(i) commencing on page 21 of this Offering Plan. The aforementioned fair market value were determined by a combination of factors as enumerated in the aforementioned section of the real property law including, but not limited to, floor space, uniqueness of each unit, overall dimensions of a particular unit, condition and amenities in each apartment, layout, location in the building, and any other factors which would have affected the relative desirability and marketability of each apartment.

3. Across-the-board changes in unit prices, advertised price changes, and increase in individual unit prices may be made by duly-filed amendments only; however, individually negotiated reductions in the purchase price of a unit may be made without prior amendment. Purchasers will also incur certain closing costs in connection with the purchase of their unit. See CHANGES IN PRICES AND UNITS and CLOSING COSTS AND ADJUSTMENTS sections of this Offering plan.

4. Projected Common Charges for the first year of operation include only those expenses which are enumerated in SCHEDULE B. Maintenance charges do not include such expenses as repairs to the interior of the owner's unit, and the owner's individual gas, electricity, and telephone expenses. Moreover, if the purchaser should obtain financing for the purchase, the debt service on that loan will be an additional expense not covered by the Common Charges. Common Charges are arrived at by allocating to each unit a share of the Monthly Charges proportionate to the Common Interest which that unit bears in the condominium.

5. Each unit will be separately taxed for New York City real property tax purposes. Sponsor, is applying for Real Estate Tax Benefits. This will result in a exemption of the building from increase in actual assessed valuation due to improvements to the premises for a period of eleven (11) years, with the full assessment thereafter being phased in over a four (4) year period. Sponsor has obtained an opinion from Moseson and Associates as to the likely effects of Sponsor's application for Real Estate Tax Benefits; Purchasers are directed to the section of this Offering Plan entitled REAL ESTATE TAX BENEFITS OPINION assessed valuation upon completion of construction, and a current tax rate of $10.739 per $100.00 of the assessed value. Estimates of real estate taxes in the event benefits are obtained are based on the preconstruction assessed valuation of the premises of $82,000.00.

6. Monthly carrying charges are composed of the monthly common charges and the monthly real estate taxes projected against each unit. Thus, this figure is composed of columns 4 and 5 on Schedule A.

7. While Sponsor is applying for real estate tax benefits, and the expert's opinion included in this Offering Plan projects that such benefits are available and will be granted, no guarantee can be, or is made, that said benefits will be obtained, or will continue to be available. Therefore Sponsor has projected in Schedule A the real estate taxes in the event no such benefits are obtained.

8. Monthly carrying charges in the event real estate tax benefits are not obtained are composed of the monthly common charges and the monthly real estate taxes projected based on the post construction assessed value of the building. Thus, this figure is composed of columns 4 and 7 on Schedule A.

9. The square footage of each unit is determined based on the FLOOR PLANS which are included in part II of this Offering Plan.

Note: All figures are rounded to the nearest dollar.

IF THE ACTUAL OR ANTICIPATED DATE OF COMMENCEMENT OF CONDOMINIUM OPERATION IS TO BE DELAYED MORE THAN SIX (6) MONTHS BEYOND THE BUDGET YEAR PROJECTED IN THE OFFERING PLAN, THE PLAN WILL BE AMENDED TO INCLUDE A REVISED BUDGET DISCLOSING CURRENT PROJECTIONS. IF SUCH AMENDED PROJECTION EXCEEDS ORIGINAL PROJECTIONS BY 25% OR MORE, THE SPONSOR MUST OFFER ALL PURCHASERS THE RIGHT TO RESCIND IN A REASONABLE PERIOD OF TIME THAT IS NOT LESS THAN 15 DAYS AFTER THE DATE OF PRESENTATION OF SAID AMENDED BUDGET, TO EXERCISE SAID RIGHT, WHETHER OR NOT SPONSOR OFFERS TO GUARANTEE THE PREVIOUS BUDGET PROJECTION. SPONSOR MUST RETURN ANY DEPOSIT OR DOWN-PAYMENT PROMPTLY TO SUBSCRIBER WHO RESCIND.

FOOTNOTES TO SCHEDULE B

1. Heat and hot water for each unit is provided by separate facilities serving each unit. Each Purchaser will pay separately for the heat and hot water supplied to their unit. No heat is provided to the common areas of the building.

2. The Sponsor's estimate common area electrical usage for the first year of condominium operation is based on an estimate received from Irwold Electric Corp., 57-12 58 Drive, Queens, New York, of a total of 90,000 kilowatt hours per year of electrical usage for the common areas at a combined winter/summer rate of approximately $.18 per kilowatt hour. The projected figure includes a 10% inflation allowance and the cost of all applicable sales taxes.

3. Projected water and sewer costs based upon a current New York City estimate of 350 gallons, or 560 cubic feet, per day per residential unit, current charges of $1.01 per 1000 cubic feet of water consumed, and sewer charges of $1.37 per 1000 cubic feet of water consumed. Projected figure also includes a 10% allowance for inflation.

4. Repairs and maintenance to building: The budgeted figure is based on normal maintenance and repairs to the common elements of the building and its systems and equipment. The budgeted figure includes such items of regular maintenance as extermination, snow removal, cleaning, painting and minor mechanical, carpentry, or electrical work. Individual unit owners will be responsible for the cost of interior repairs, and decorations, and painting of their respective apartments, including appliances.

5. Services and supplies: These include items expected to be consumed in the normal course of building operation, including light bulbs, cleaning supplies, paints, and hardware items.

6. Insurance: At closing, the Sponsor will deliver to the Condominium a special multi-peril insurance policy issued through Oscar Z. Rand, 1445 44th Street, Brooklyn, NY in the following coverage amount:

Building.....$4,250,000 "All Risk" agreed amount
Replacement Value

Liability.....$1,000,000 B.I. and P.D. per occurrence
$2,000,000 total

Legal Liability.....$100,000 Rent Loss(1 year)

Deductible.....$2,500

The insurance broker has advised the Sponsor that in its opinion, the amount of coverage is adequate to rebuild the building structure if totally destroyed by any insured peril; however, the policy does not guaranty the replacement of individual fixture and improvements installed by individual unit owners. This policy waives a standard co-insurance clause, so that no insured thereunder shall be a co-insurer. The policy will provide that:

- (i) each unit owner will be an additional insured;
- (ii) there will be no cancellation without notice to the board of managers and individual unit owners;
- (iii) will waive subrogation;
- (iv) will waive invalidity because of the acts of the insured and individual unit owners;
- (v) and, will waive pro rata reduction if individual unit owners obtain additional individual coverage.

The policy does not include officers and directors liability, umbrella coverage, boiler coverage, or blanket fidelity, which can be provided at extra cost. Purchasers are advised of the desirability of obtaining additional insurance, at their own cost and expense, to cover such risk as fire and casualty losses to unit contents, replacements, additions, up-graded fixtures and improvements, and liability coverage for occurrences within the unit or, where applicable, on the limited common elements appurtenant to the units.

7. Legal and Accounting Fees: This figure is based on the estimate received from Jacob I. Rosenberg, 691 Dahill Road, Brooklyn, NY 11218, a certified public accountant for preparation of a certified financial statement for the first year of operation and City, State and Federal tax returns, which estimate was $1,000.00. The balance of the budgeted figure anticipates $500.00 in legal fees for minor legal services during the first year of operation, but would be insufficient to cover any substantial litigation.

8. This projection is based on the applicable New York State and New York City tax rates as follows:

New York State Franchise Tax	$100
New York City Business Tax	$325
New York State MTA Surcharge	$96

9. The figure is based on new York State department of Labor estimates for superintendent personnel and includes applicable social security, disability, worker's compensation, and other payroll taxes, and are in compliance with all applicable state and federal minimum wage requirements.

The insurance broker has advised the Sponsor that in its opinion, the amount of coverage is adequate to rebuild the building structure if totally destroyed by any insured peril; however, the policy does not guaranty the replacement of individual fixture and improvements installed by individual unit owners. This policy waives a standard co-insurance clause, so that no insured thereunder shall be a co-insurer. The policy will provide that:

8. This projection is based on the applicable New York State and New York City tax rates as follows:

New York State Franchise Tax	$100
New York City Business Tax	$325
New York State MTA Surcharge	$96

9. The figure is based on new York State department of Labor estimates for superintendent personnel and includes applicable social security, disability, worker's compensation, and other payroll taxes.

10. It is anticipated that the building will be self-managing. Should the Board of Managers at any time elect to employ the services of a managing agent, this will represent an additional cost of approximately 6% to 10% of the annual operating budget, which would require a concomitant increase in the common charges.

11. The miscellaneous budgeted item is intended to provide a cushion for unforeseen costs and an opportunity for the condominium to accrue a reserve for future expenses.

SCHEDULE B1

Sponsor has obtained an estimate from Bradford Mechanical Contractors, Inc., 6921 Fort Hamilton Parkway, Brooklyn, NY, of approximately $1,600 per year for providing heat to the subject apartments based on an average thermostat setting of 70 degrees for 16 hours a day and 60 degrees for 8 hours per night resulting in approximately 1,798 "therms" of usage per annum. At the current rate of $.89 per "therm" and allowing 10% for inflation the estimated annual cost, including applicable sales taxes, for heating each premises, will be approximately $1,892.

Sponsor has similarly obtained an estimate of $600 per year for providing domestic hot water based on approximately 674 "therms" of usage. Estimated annual cost including tax would be $797. The estimate is based on normal usage by a family of five but will vary considerably depending on the usage patterns of the occupants.

Both of the above figures are estimates and will vary with the usage and personal requirements of the parties occupying the subject apartments.

Thus the total estimated cost for heat and hot water for an individual apartment for the first year of condominium operation is projected to be approximately $2689.

CHANGES IN PRICES AND UNITS

The offering prices, as set forth in SCHEDULE A, may only be increased or decreased by a duly filed amendment to the plan when the change in price is an across-the-board change affecting one or more lines of units, or unit models, or is to be advertised. However, prices are negotiable. Sponsor may enter into an agreement with a purchaser to sell one or more units at prices below those set forth in SCHEDULE A without filing an amendment prior to entering such agreement; however, Sponsor may not negotiate higher prices than those set forth in SCHEDULE A without filing an amendment to the Offering plan.

No change will be made in the size, number of units or percentage of common interest, or in the size and quality of public areas, except by amendment to the plan, and to the Declaration, with the consent of all unit owners directly affected, if the Declaration was filed prior to such change. If a purchase agreement has been executed for any individual units, and if the purchaser has delivered that purchase agreement to the Sponsor and is not in default thereon, no change will be made in the size, layout percentage of common interest of, or quality, or amount of common elements directly affecting, or servicing, that unit without the consent of the affected purchaser. No change will be made in the total number of units or in the size or quality of the public areas, unless purchasers who have executed purchase agreement to the Sponsor, and who are not in default thereon, are given a reasonable opportunity to rescind their purchase agreements and obtain return of their down-payments. The Sponsor will notify any such purchasers who have executed and delivered purchase agreements by Certified Mail Return Receipt Requested, within ten (10) days of any such changes. Any such purchasers will thereafter have fifteen (15) days in which to notify the Sponsor, by Certified Mail Return Receipt Requested, of their intent to rescind a purchase agreement as provided above.

COMPLIANCE WITH REAL PROPERTY LAW 339-i(1)(i)

March 9, 2000

The Waterview Condos LLC
40 Fulton Street
New York, New York 10038

Gentlemen:

You have requested an opinion from us with regards to your allocation of common interest to units in your proposed condominium at 42-52 Broadway, Brooklyn, New York, with Section 339-i(1)(i) of the New York Real Property Law. You have informed us that the method of allocation chosen is to evaluate the approximate fair market value of the individual unit in proportion to the anticipated aggregate fair value of all units on the day the condominium Declaration will be filed. You have further informed us that, the factual basis of calculating the percentage of common interest consists of the size, layout, and location within the premises of each individual unit; and, the anticipated selling price of each unit. Based on our review of the foregoing factors, we have concluded that the proposed allocation of common interest to individual units is in compliance with Section 339-i(1)(i) of the New York State Real Property Law.

I have been a licensed real estate broker for in excess of 15 years and have managed approximately 8 buildings in this area with extensive experience in the sale, management, and rental of cooperative and condominium units in Kings County. We have been licensed real estate brokers in excess of 15 years, and have managed approximately 8 buildings in this area. We have previously participated in the preparation of individual unit value appraisals for the purpose of inclusion in offering plans for the sales thereof. We are not, in any way, associated with you or any other participant in the project, and have no beneficial interest in your business, or in profitability of the project. This is an opinion only as to the relative value of each unit in relation to the value of the project as a whole; is strictly based on the information provided to us in such reasonable inquiries as to the validity thereof as we deemed appropriate under the circumstances; and, is not intended as a guarantee of the actual value of any individual unit. We consent to the inclusion of this letter in your offering plan.

Sincerely,

RITA KNOX

PROCEDURE TO PURCHASE

Persons desiring to purchase condominium units will be required to execute a Purchase Agreement and Transferee Affidavit in the form contained in Part II of this Plan and return it to the selling agent, together with a check in the amount of 10% of the purchase price, as a down-payment, drawn to the order of HAROLD GRUBER, ESQ., AS ATTORNEY. In the event Purchaser has not had said Offering Plan in his possession for at least three (3) business days prior to execution, Purchaser may rescind the Purchase Agreement by mailing Notice of Rescission to Sponsor or hand delivering notice within seven (7) days after executing same. Notice by mail will be effective if it is postmarked within 7 days of executing the Purchase Agreement. Purchase Agreement shall not be binding on any party until accepted by the Sponsor. Within twenty (20) days after the prospective purchaser has delivered to the selling agent a signed Purchase Agreement, together with the required downpayment, the Sponsor must either accept the Purchase Agreement and return a fully executed counterpart, or reject the Purchase Agreement and refund in full any downpayment taken. The Plan will expire twelve (12) months from the date of acceptance unless extended by a duly filed amendment.

All downpayments will be place in an account in conformity with the disclosure contained in this Plan.

The Sponsor will comply with the escrow and trust fund requirements of General Business Law Sections 352-3(2-b) and 352-h, Lien Law Section 71-a(3), and the Attorney General's regulations promulgated pursuant thereto.

Any provision of any contract or agreement, whether oral or in writing, by which a purchaser purports to waive or indemnify any obligation of the escrow agent holding trust funds is absolutely void. The provisions of the Attorney General's regulations concerning escrow/trust funds shall prevail over any purchase. Purchasers shall not be obligated to pay any legal or other expense of the Sponsor in connection with the establishment, maintenance, or defense of obligations arising from the handling or disposition of trust funds.

All deposits, downpayments, or advances, made by purchasers prior to closing of each individual transaction, whether received before or after the date of consummation of the Plan, will be placed, within five (5) business days after the agreement is signed by all necessary parties, in a segregated special escrow account of HAROLD L. GRUBER, P.C., whose address is 563 10th Street, Brooklyn, New York 11215, and whose telephone number is (718) 788-7722. The signatory on this account authorized to withdraw funds is: HAROLD L. GRUBER, 563 10th Street, Brooklyn, New York 11215. The name of the account is HLG ESCROW - 51-63, located in Citibank, N.A. at 114 Seventh Avenue, Brooklyn, New York 11215. To the extent deposits in the account exceed $100,000.00, they will not be federally insured. If the escrow agents are replaced, or funds are transferred to a new account, the Plan will be amended to reflect same.

This account will be an IOLA account with no interest accrued to the benefit of either the purchaser or the Sponsor.

All instruments shall be made payable to or endorsed to the order of HAROLD L. GRUBER, ESQ., as escrow agent.

Within ten (10) business days after tender of the deposit submitted with the Purchase Agreement, the escrow agent will notify the purchaser that such funds have been deposited into the escrow account and will provide the account number and the initial interest rate, if applicable. If the purchaser does not receive notice of such deposit within fifteen (15) business days after tender of the deposit, the purchaser may cancel the purchase and rescind so long as the right to rescind is exercised within ninety (90) days after tender of the deposit. Rescission may not be afforded where proof satisfactory to the Attorney General is submitted establishing that the escrowed funds were timely deposited, and requisite notice was timely mailed to the purchaser, in conformity with the Attorney General's regulations.

Since all contracts are contingent upon the Plan becoming effective, under no circumstances shall Sponsor apply for release of the escrowed funds of a defaulting purchaser until after consummation of the Plan.

The escrow agent will hold funds in escrow until other directed in:

- (i) a writing signed by both sponsor and purchaser; or,
- (ii) a determination of the Attorney General pursuant to the dispute resolution procedures contained in the Attorney General's regulations; or,
- (iii) a judgment or order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

If there is no written agreement between the parties to release the escrowed funds, the escrow agent will not pay the funds to the Sponsor until the escrow agent has given the purchaser written notice of not fewer than ten (10) business days. Thereafter, the funds may be paid to the Sponsor unless the purchaser has already made application to the Department of Law pursuant to the dispute resolution provisions of the Attorney General regulations and has so notified the escrow agent in accordance with such provisions.

The Sponsor will not object to the release of the escrowed funds to:

- (i) a purchaser who timely rescinds in accordance with an offer of rescission contained in the Plan, or an amendment to the Plan;
- (ii) all purchasers after an amendment abandoning the plan is accepted for filing by the Department of Law.

Purchasers and escrow agent may apply to the Attorney General in the event of a dispute for a determination on the disposition of the downpayment and any interest thereon. The Sponsor must avail itself of this procedure if there is a dispute which needs to be resolved. A form for this purpose is included in Part II of this Offering Plan, and is also available at the New York State Department of Law, 120 Broadway, New York, New York 10271. The party applying for a determination must send all other parties a copy of the application.

Pending the determination of the Attorney General to grant or deny the application, the Sponsor, the purchaser, and the escrow agent shall abide by any interim directive issued by the Attorney General. If the application permitting release of funds is granted, the deposit and interest earned thereon shall be disposed of in accordance with the determination of the Attorney General, subject to any court action from which preliminary relief is granted. The Attorney General shall act on the application within 30 days after a submission to the Department of Law for either making a determination or notifying the parties that an extension of time in which to do so. If the application seeking release of funds is denied the escrow agent shall continue to hold the deposit and any interest earned thereon until: i) both the Sponsor and Purchaser direct payment to a specified party in accordance with the written direction signed by both Sponsor and Purchaser; or ii) judgement or order of a court of competent jurisdiction is served on the escrow agent; or iii) escrow agent deposits the disputed amount with the court.

In no event shall the escrow agent release funds in dispute, other than a payment of such funds with the court, until such dispute is finally resolved either by determination of the Attorney General, or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction, or by written agreement with the Sponsor and Purchaser.

Set forth in Part II of this Offering Plan is a copy of the escrow agreement between the Sponsor and the Escrowee which incorporates the terms of the Attorney General's regulations.

The escrow agent will maintain all records concerning the escrow account for seven years after the release of funds. The Department of Law may perform random reviews and audits of all such records involving escrow accounts to determine compliance with the statute and regulation.

The Sponsor may apply to the Attorney General to use security in the form of surety bonds or a letter of credit, in accordance with the regulations of New York State Department of Law, in lieu of escrow of such funds. In the event the Sponsor elects to use such alternative security, an amendment to that effect will be filed in the Offering Plan fully complying with all provisions of the Department of Law for proof of satisfactory insurance of said funds.

Risk of loss from fire or other casualty remains with the Sponsor until title has passed unless and until the purchaser is given the right of possession of that unit pursuant to a written agreement with the Sponsor.

Certain provisions of the Purchase Agreement are "time of the essence". This means that failure to strictly comply with the time requirements of said provisions, may result in the Purchaser losing his right to complete the purchase, and forfeiting his downpayment hereunder. Thus, a purchaser who fails to cure a default within thirty (30) days after notice of said default, will both have the Contract canceled, and lose his downpayment; however Sponsor must make written demand for payment after default at least 30 days before forfeiture of the deposit may be declared. Similarly, a purchaser who fails to notify the Sponsor in the event he has failed to obtain mortgage financing within forty (40) days after executing the Purchase Agreement, will be required to proceed to closing, notwithstanding the fact that purchaser has failed to obtain mortgage financing; and, if such purchaser fails to proceed to closing, the down payment may be retained by the Sponsor.

After the Plan has been declared effective, the Sponsor will fix dates for closing title to all units for which Purchase Agreements have been executed by serving notice on each Purchaser stating the date of the first closing and setting such purchaser's closing date. Such notice will be served in compliance with the Attorney General's rules no less than 30 days prior to the closing date set therein. Purchasers may waive this 30 day provision by including such waiver in the Plan or in an amendment thereto.

The first closing of a Unit is expected to occur on or about July 1, 2000. If such closing is delayed more than twelve (12) months beyond the originally scheduled date, purchaser will be offered the right to rescind this contract. On closing, purchaser will be required to sign a Power of Attorney in favor of the Board of Managers as otherwise set forth in this Offering Plan.

The Purchase Agreement may not contain, or be modified to contain, a provision waiving purchaser's rights or abrogating Sponsor's obligations under the Offering Plan or Article 23-A of the General Business Law. Any conflict between the Purchase Agreement and the Offering Plan shall be resolved in favor of the Offering Plan. Sponsor will not permit the assignment or transfer of Purchase Agreements.

COMMERCIAL UNIT

The basement of the building shall contain a single Commercial Unit. The Certificate of Occupancy allows use of the space as a medical facility. Zoning would allow use as a related community facility such as an out-patient clinic, synagogue or other religious gathering place, or community meeting room. It is currently anticipated that the commercial space will be utilized as a non-custodial medical care facility. However, there are no restrictions on the use of the Commercial Unit other than that such use must conform to applicable zoning regulations or any variance granted thereof, and the Certificate of Occupancy for the premises or any amendment thereto. The Unit Owner of a Commercial Unit shall have the right to seek such amendment to the Certificate of Occupancy or variance in the zoning regulations without permission of the Board of Managers but at such Unit Owner's sole cost and expense.

The Common Charges payable by the Commercial Unit Owner is sufficient to cover the expenses attributable to said Unit. Heat, hot water, cold water, and utility services are all separately metered and will, therefore, not consume any portion of the Condominium budget. Moreover, since the Commercial Unit Owner is responsible for all internal repairs and maintenance, heavier wear and tear attributable to commercial use should not impact on the budget for the Condominium. While it is anticipated that commercial use of the premises will increase the cost of insuring same, the Commercial Unit Owner will remain only and solely responsible for reimbursing the Condominium for any insurance cost over and above that which the Condominium would incur if all units in the building were residential units; which cost is to be determined via letter delivered by the insurance carrier or agent thereof supplying insurance coverage for the building. Insofar as the exact usage of the space has not been determined, it is not possible to estimate such cost at this time; however, such information will be provided to a prospective commercial unit purchaser prior to executing a contract of sale therefor.

The Commercial Unit Owner has rights and obligations which differ substantially from that of the residential units. A Commercial Unit Owner may subdivide and sublet any or all of the Commercial Unit. A Commercial Unit may be divided into any number of smaller condominium units, provided that the net Common Interest of such newly created units shall not exceed the original Common Interest allocated to the Commercial Unit. It is not anticipated that such differences in rights and obligations will have a materially adverse impact upon the Condominium.

EFFECTIVE DATE

The offer to sell embodied in this offering plan is contingent upon the Plan being declared effective in accord with its terms and conditions, and the terms and conditions imposed by law.

The Plan will only be declared effective by a duly filed amendment, or by notice to all Purchasers. If declared effective by notice, an amendment to that effect will be filed within five (5) days with the New York State Department of Law. No closing on any individual unit will be held prior to the acceptance for filing of such amendment by the New York State Department of Law.

The Plan may be declared effective upon sale of 15% of the Residential Units in the building to bona fide purchasers. A minimum of five of the residential units must be sold to declare the Plan effective. The count of Purchase Agreements towards the minimum number for effectiveness shall not include those: signed by Purchasers granted a right of rescission which has neither expired nor been waived; executed by Purchasers who have had fewer than three business days to review the Offering Plan and all filed amendments; assigned or transferred without compliance with the terms of this Plan; conditioned upon an amendment to the Plan which has not been duly filed; from a Sponsor or Sponsor's principal, selling agent, or any party related in any way thereto, except that a party related to the Sponsor, or related to a principal of the Sponsor, may be included, if the Sponsor has submitted proof satisfactory to the Department of Law establishing that the Purchaser is bona fide.

The Plan must be declared effective upon sale of 80% of the Units, which, in the case of this Plan means twenty four Units(24). Prior to the sale of 80% of such Units, or prior to being declared effective, the Plan may be abandoned by the Sponsor at his option. In such case, the Sponsor will return all monies paid by Purchasers, together with interest earned, if any, within ten business days. The Sponsor will also file with the New York State Department of Law an amendment abandoning the Plan and a form RS-3, detailing why the Plan was abandoned, and explaining all disbursements of funds.

The Sponsor may not abandon the Plan after it has been declared effective for any reason other than: a defect in title which cannot be cured without substantial litigation, or expenditure of an amount in excess of one-half (1/2) of one percent (1%) of the total offering price, or work orders of a mortgagee, or violations, or substantial casualty damage, which cannot be cured for less than one-half (1/2) of one percent (1%) of the total offering price, or the taking of any material portion of the property by condemnation or eminent domain; however, such title defects, violations, work orders, or casualty losses, as are known to the Sponsor at time of presentation, shall be excluded from calculations under this section.

TERMS OF SALE

On closing, Sponsor will deliver to Purchaser a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenants Against Grantor's Acts in the proper form for recording as set forth in Part II of this Offering Plan. Title, together with the appurtenant interest in the Common Elements will be conveyed at closing, free and clear of all liens, encumbrances, and title exceptions other than the easement set forth in the aforementioned Deed, the Condominium Declaration, and any state of facts an accurate survey may show, provided same does not render title unmarketable. Sponsor shall only be obligated to cure title exceptions raised in a title report prepared by First American Title Co. Purchaser will take subject to exceptions raised in a title report prepared by any other title company or abstract company.

Risk of loss from fire or other casualty remains with the Sponsor until title is passed, unless and until the Purchaser is given the right of possession of that unit pursuant to a written agreement with the Sponsor. Upon Purchaser acquiring right of possession of the unit, all risk of loss passes to Purchaser, and Sponsor shall not thereafter be responsible to repair any damage, which occurs before closing. No closing will occur unless and until a partial temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the unit to be closed has been issued.

All personal property located within the unit on the date the Purchase Agreement is signed, or located within the Common Elements on the date the Declaration is filed, which property is owned by the Sponsor or the Owner of the property, is included in the conveyance unless specifically excepted elsewhere in this Offering Plan.

The Declaration, By-Laws, and Floor Plans for the Condominium, and such other documents as are required by law, will be recorded with the New York City Register for the County of Kings in accordance with the New York Condominium Act prior to the first conveyance of title to a unit.

If existing mortgages or constructions loans encumbering the property will be not satisfied at or prior to closing of the first unit, each mortgagee will, at the time of the conveyance of the first unit, either consent to the formation of a Condominium, and acknowledge that its lien will be limited to Unsold Condominium Units; or subordinate the lien of its mortgage to the Declaration of the Condominium; or, release its lien upon the Condominium Unit being conveyed, and its interest in the Common Elements.

CLOSING COSTS AND ADJUSTMENTS

As set forth in the Purchase Agreement, the purchaser will pay the following estimated closing costs at the time of Closing of Title for the purchaser's Unit. These estimates are based on current costs and charges, which are subject to change:

(a) If a purchaser elects to obtain fee title insurance, the purchaser will pay the premium thereof which will vary depending upon the Purchase Price of the Unit. Rates set by the New York Board of Title Underwriters are currently $1,017.00 on a Purchase Price up to $200,000.00 and approximately $4.00 for each additional thousand dollars or fraction thereof; or alternatively, where a mortgage title policy is simultaneously issued, the reduced rate set by the title company. Title insurance will be provided through First American Title Co.

(b) Fees for recording the Deed are $21.00 per document plus $4.00 per page and a $10.00 service charge per instrument. Additionally, there is a $25.00 charge for recording the Real Property Transfer Tax Return along with the deed;

(c) If the purchaser obtains a mortgage loan, the purchaser will pay a mortgage tax of 1.75% of the principal of the mortgage. If a mortgage tax credit is or becomes available pursuant to Section 339-ee(2) of the Condominium Act, such credit will inure to the benefit of the Sponsor. Accordingly, at closing, the Purchaser will reimburse the Sponsor for any mortgage tax credit allowed; and will pay the balance of the mortgage recording tax as provided by law.

(d) All legal costs, fees and expenses charged by the purchaser's attorney will be the sole responsibility of each purchaser;

(e) New York City Real Property Transfer taxes, currently one (1%) percent of the Purchase Price of a Unit, will be the sole responsibility of the purchaser.

(f) New York State Documentary Stamp taxes presently $4.00 per $1,000.00 of the Purchase Price of a Unit less existing and continuing mortgage, will be the sole responsibility of the purchaser;

(g) Each purchaser will be required to make a contribution to the Working Capital Fund of $200.00

(h) All costs with regard to any mortgage that the purchaser will place on his/her Unit (i.e. loan origination, application fees, appraisal fees, etc.) will be his own and sole responsibility.

ALL COSTS FOR RECORDING CHARGES, MORTGAGE, TRANSFER, AND OTHER TAXES, ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE. THESE CHARGES ARE NOT SET BY THE SPONSOR, AND SPONSOR SHALL NOT BE LIABLE ON ACCOUNT OF ANY INCREASE IN SUCH CHARGES.

Purchasers shall pay to the Sponsor's Attorney at closing a fee of $550.00 for the preparation of closing documents. If a purchaser fails to close on the date set for first closing, or adjourns a scheduled closing date on less than three (3) days notice, there shall be a late closing adjournment fee of $150.00 added to the above. If purchaser obtains a title report from any agency other than First American Title Co., a charge of $500.00 will be imposed for additional expenses incurred in coordinating with said title company. If closing, at the request of the purchaser, is held outside the office of the sponsor's attorney, there shall be an additional attendance fee of $250.00 for the closings within New York City, and $350.00 for closings outside New York City. In the event Purchaser fails to fulfill their terms of the Purchase Agreement and Sponsor's Attorney mails a Notice of Default, there will be a $100.00 charge for such notice. Purchasers will pay to the Sponsor an administrative cost reimbursement fee of $1,00.00. The above closing fees are cumulative to the extent applicable to an individual closing.

If the Units have not been separately assessed for real estate tax purposes prior to the Closing of Title to the first Unit, the Sponsor will place in escrow, in the name of the Board of Managers, an amount equal to the unpaid real estate taxes (or estimates thereof based on current assessments) due for the next ensuing six months (or until the Units are separately assessed, whichever is shorter), provided, however, that as closings occur, the portion of such funds held in escrow which represent the portion allocable to the Unit being sold shall be released; and interest accrued on such escrow, if any, shall inure to the benefit of, and belong to, the Sponsor. The Sponsor will pay the real estate taxes from the escrow account when taxes are due and payable and is entitled to reimbursement from Unit Owners.

Except as specifically set forth in herein, the Sponsor will pay all costs and expenses incurred in connections with this Plan, the creation of the Condominium and the initial sale of units.

OBLIGATIONS OF SPONSOR

The Sponsor is using its own capital to complete the construction of the building as set forth herein.

The Sponsor will complete the work set forth in this Plan relating to the building and the apartments contained therein in conformity with and in accordance with the Building Plans and Specifications and all applicable New York City Administrative Code requirements, and subject to procurement of all applicable and proper permits which are required, if any. Sponsor will continue to maintain and operate the building in its present condition as described herein until closing of shares hereunder. All housing, building, or fire department violations, if any, will be cured prior to closing. The Sponsor may make changes in design, layout, and arrangement of apartments, and substitute equipment and materials, except that the Sponsor may not (i) substitute materials or equipment of lesser quality or design, or (ii) change the size, location, or value of any units, or of other improvements or public areas, if such changes adversely affect the public areas, or adversely affect the value of any unit to which title has been closed, or for which a Purchase Agreement has been fully executed and is in effect, unless all affected purchasers consent in writing to such change, and all affected contract vendees are given the opportunity to rescind their contracts and receive a refund of the deposit or downpayment given to the Sponsor. All representations under the Offering Plan, and all obligations pursuant to the GBL, and any additional obligations under the Offering Plan which are to be performed subsequent to the closing date, will survive delivery of the Deed.

Closing will not take place, and no individual condominium apartment will be sold until a permanent or temporary Certificate of Occupancy has been obtained for the premises. In the event closing occurs after the issuance of a temporary Certificate of Occupancy, but prior to the issuance of permanent Certificate of Occupancy, then it will remain the obligation of the Sponsor to, at its own cost and expense, obtain such permanent Certificate, and the Certificate must be obtained within two (2) years from date of closing. Prior to obtaining the permanent Certificate of Occupancy, the Sponsor is required to either: (a) maintain all deposits and funds in a special escrow account required by GBL-352e(2)(b) unless the Sponsor's engineer or architect certifies that a lesser amount will be reasonably necessary to complete the work needed to obtain the permanent Certificate of Occupancy, in which case the sum exceeding the amount so certified may be released; or (b) deposit with an escrow agent an unconditional, irrevocable letter of credit, or post a surety bond, in the aforesaid specified amount. In the event option "(b)" is employed, posting of the surety bond or letter of credit must be in compliance with the applicable laws and rules of the New York State Department of Law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, alterations or improvements to the common areas and public portions of the building will be completed before the closing of the first unit.

The Sponsor gives no warranty as to materials or workmanship that shall survive sale of a unit. Each prospective purchaser may have the building and apartments therein inspected by an architect or engineer of their own choosing, and at their own expense, to determine the quality of materials and workmanship.

The Sponsor will pay for the authorized and proper work involved in the conversion of the property that the Sponsor is obligated to complete under the Plan. All mechanic's liens that are lodged against the property by virtue of work done by the Sponsor, or in the Sponsor's behalf, will be promptly discharged or appropriately bonded. Sponsor guarantees payment of all common charges and assessments with respect to unsold units. Such guarantees will remain in effect until all units are sold. Sponsor warrants and represents that he has adequate financial resources to meet its obligations with respect to any unsold unit.

The Sponsor agrees to pay all common charges, special assessments, and real estate taxes with regards to unsold units, and has financial resources to meet its obligations with respect to such unsold units, which source of funding includes both proceeds of the sale of units and existing financial resources of the Sponsor. No bond or other security has been furnished to secure Sponsor's obligations. In the event of dissolution or liquidation of the Sponsor, or transfer of 20% or more of the total number of residential units in the condominium the principals of the Sponsor will provide financially responsible entities or individuals who will assume the status and all of the obligations of the Sponsor for those units under the Offering Plan, applicable laws, or regulations.

Any suits or proceedings instituted against the Sponsor, which may result in a lien against the property and any suits or proceedings against the condominium arising from the Sponsor's acts or omissions, which acts or omissions occurred prior to closing of title, will be defended by the Sponsor, and the Sponsor does hereby indemnify the condominium therefore. Nothing contained herein shall limit the rights of the condominium which are granted pursuant to law and statute.

In the event the work on the building as set forth herein is not fully completed at the time the building becomes occupied, the Sponsor will have the right to enter the premises to complete its obligations under this Plan. Such entry shall be conducted in such a manner so as to produce a minimum of discomfort to those purchasers already in possession.

In the event the Sponsor finds it necessary to enter the property after closing of title to complete work, then such work will be performed between 8 A.M. and 6 P.M. on weekdays and non-holiday weekends. Damage caused by such work will be repaired in a good and workmanlike manner.

Sponsor will secure, and provide at closing, an agreed amount replacement value multi-peril hazard policy which will prevent the Condominium from being a co-insurer. The cost of such policy will be paid by the Condominium, and is provided for in SCHEDULE B. Sponsor also agrees to deliver a set of "as built" plans to the Board of Managers upon election of the first Board of Managers after closing of the first unit. Sponsor will assign any manufacturer's warranties with respective equipment and appliances installed in any individual unit to the unit owner, and with respect to equipment and appliances installed in the common elements, same will be assigned to the Board of Managers.

The property will be conveyed free and clear of all liens. The Sponsor will not dissolve or liquidate for a minimum of six (6) years. No bond or other security has been furnished to secure Sponsor's obligations hereunder. The Sponsor will maintain and operate the building in its present condition, as described in this offering, until the first closing.

In the event of the dissolution or liquidation of the Sponsor, or the transfer of ten (10) or more Units, or 20% or more of the total number of Units in the Condominium, whichever is less, the principals of the Sponsor will provide financially responsible entities, or individuals who will assume the status and all of the obligations of the Sponsor for those Units under the offering plan, applicable laws, or regulations, and will repair any damage occurring to the building prior to closing.

CONTROL BY THE SPONSOR

The Sponsor's Control of the Board of Managers of the Condominium will be subject to the following:

The By-Laws are reproduced in Part II, beginning on page BL-1. A summary of certain pertinent provisions of these By-Laws is set forth below. The By-Laws limit the number of Board of Managers (hereinafter called "Managers") to not less than three (3). The first Board of Managers to be elected by the Unit Owners shall consist of three (3) members.

At the time of the First Closing there will be three Managers designated by the Sponsor. However, the Managers will resign in favor of Managers who will be elected by the purchasers at a meeting to be convened within 60 days after First Closing; they may, however, be re-elected at such time.

The By-Laws provide that at such time as the Unsold Units constitute less than Fifty (50%) percent of the Condominium, but in no event later than the second anniversary of the Closing Date, not less than a majority of Managers to be elected at all subsequent annual meetings of Unit Owners shall be elected by Unit Owners other than the Sponsor. A meeting to elect a new Board of Managers will be held within thirty (30) days of 50% of the units being sold, or within thirty (30) days of the second anniversary of the Closing Date, whichever is sooner.

So long as a majority of the Board of Managers consists of managers elected by the sponsor or holders of unsold units, the board:

1. Shall not eliminate or reduce the number of employees, insurance coverages or any service to a level less than that provided in Schedule B unless a majority of board members elected by bona fide unit purchasers vote in favor thereof.

3. Shall not veto expenditures required to comply with applicable laws or regulations and/or expenses necessary to remedy notice of violations of law or of an insurance carrier.

Until the earlier of five years from the date of closing, or at the time at which the Sponsor or other Holder of Unsold Units owns units consisting of less than 25% of the common interest of the Condominium, Sponsor may exercise veto power over any expenses other than those described in Item 3 above. Additionally, so long as the Sponsor retains ownership of at least one unit in the building, the By-Laws, Declaration, and Rules and Regulations of the Condominium, may not be amended or modified in any way so as to adversely affect the Sponsor without written consent by the Sponsor.

All Board Members shall serve without compensation. Any member of the Board of Managers, who is a designee of the Sponsor, may contract or deal with Sponsor, or a partner, affiliate or entity controlled by the Sponsor, and no other member of the Board of Managers, or any Unit Owner may claim that such designee is self-dealing.

BOARD OF MANAGERS

The Condominium shall be governed according to the By-Laws in Part II, beginning on page BL-1.

The By-Laws limit the number of Managers to not less than three (3) members. The first Board of Managers shall consist of three (3) members designated by the Sponsor. However, these Officers and Managers will resign in favor of Officers and Managers which will be elected by the Unit Owners at a meeting to be convened within 60 days after the First Closing; they may however, be re-elected at such time.

Managers shall be elected by a majority of the votes at a meeting at which a quorum shall be present. When voting for Managers, each Unit Owner shall be entitled to cast, for each Manager to be elected, one vote for each .001% of common interest allocated to his/her Unit. The Holder(s) of Unsold Units shall be entitled to vote all the votes held by them for the number of Directors listed below. At such time as the Unsold Units constitute less than fifty percent of the Condominium, but in no event later than the second anniversary of the Closing Date, not less than a majority of Managers shall be residents of the Building and unrelated to the Sponsor. Members of the Board of Managers shall serve without compensation, except for reimbursement for expenses actually incurred in the course of any furtherance of business for the Board of Managers.

The Board of Managers shall meet at least annually, and at such regularly scheduled times as shall be adopted by resolution by the Board. Emergency meetings may be called on five (5) days written notice by any two Managers.

The Board Managers will be responsible for the operations of the affairs of the Condominium including, but not limited to, the fiscal operation, repairs and maintenance of the common areas of the Property, replacement and capital improvements to the common areas of the Property; the hiring, supervisions and discharging of employees and Managing Agent (if any), and the enforcement of the provisions of the By-Laws, and shall have the powers and duties necessary for the administration of such affairs. The Managers shall serve without compensation or remuneration.

Any Manager may be removed from office at any time with or without cause upon the affirmative vote of the Unit Owners whose aggregate votes are at least 51% of the votes of the Condominium at a Unit Owner's meeting duly called for the purpose; provided, however, that the Manager(s) elected by the Holder(s) of Unsold Units can be removed only for cause by vote of a majority of the Unit Owners or without cause by the Holders of the Unsold Units.

The members of the Board of Managers shall not be liable to the Unit Owners for any mistake of judgment, negligence, or otherwise, except for willful misconduct or bad faith. The Unit Owners shall severally indemnify the members of the Board of Managers against any liability or claims except those arising out of the bad faith or willful misconduct of a member of members of the Board of Managers. It is intended that the members of the Board of Managers shall have no personal liability with respect to any contract made by them on behalf of the Condominium. The original Board of Managers, who are designated by the Sponsor, may contract with the Sponsor and affiliated corporations without being charged with self-dealing. It is also intended that the liability of any Unit Owner arising out of any contract made by the Board of Managers, or out of the aforesaid indemnity in favor of the members of the Board of Managers, shall be limited to such proportion of the total liability thereunder as his/her interest in the Common Elements of all Unit Owners.

The principal officers of the Condominium shall be the President and the Vice President, who are automatically Board Members, the Secretary and the Treasurer, all of whom shall be elected by the Board of Managers. The President and Vice-President, but no other officers, need be members of the Board of Managers. All officers shall serve without compensation or remuneration. The officers shall be elected annually by the Board of Managers; and, each officer shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Managers or until succession, resignation, or death. Upon the vote of a majority of the Board of Managers, any officer may be removed, with or without cause.

The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Condominium, and shall have all of the general powers and duties which are incident to the office of a president of a stock corporation organized under the Business Corporation Law of the State of New York.

The Vice-President shall take the place of the President and perform his/her duties whenever the President shall be absent or unable to act. The Vice President shall also perform such other duties as shall from time to time be imposed upon his/her by the Board of Managers or by the President.

The Secretary shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Unit Owners and of the Board of Managers, and shall have charge of such books and papers as the Board of Managers may direct; and shall, in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of a secretary of a stock corporation organized under the Business Corporation Law of the State of New York.

The Treasurer shall have the responsibility for Condominium funds and securities and shall be responsible for: keeping full and accurate financial records and books of account; and, deposit of all moneys and other valuable effects in the name of the Board of Managers, or the Managing Agent, in such depositories as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Managers. He shall, in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of treasurer of a stock corporation organized under the Business Corporation Law of the State of New York.

The Board of Managers, or the Secretary, shall keep detailed records of the actions and minutes of the meetings of the Board of Managers, minutes of the meetings of the Unit Owners, and, financial records and books of account of the Condominium. In addition, an annual audited financial statement of the Condominium, and an income tax deduction statement certified by an independent Certified Public Accountant, shall be rendered by the Board of Managers to all Unit Owners March 1 of each calendar year.

The Secretary shall mail a notice of each annual or special meeting to all Unit Owners of record. The notice shall state the purpose of the meeting as well as the time and place where it is to be held, and the notice will be given at least ten (10), but not more than forty (40) days prior to such meeting.

Each Unit Owner and each mortgagee of a Unit shall, upon prior request, be permitted to examine the books of account of the Condominium and other records of the Condominium during normal business hours on business days at the office of the Condominium.

The By-Laws may be modified or amended by the vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the Unit Owners, as that term is defined in Article II, Section 8 of the By-Laws, at a meeting of Unit Owners duly held for such purpose. Anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding, so long as the Sponsor is the owner of one or more unsold units, the By-Laws may not be altered, amended, repealed, or added to, without the consent of the Sponsor.

The Condominium shall continue, unless terminated by reason of casualty, loss, or by condemnation, until such time as the Condominium shall be legally abandoned and terminated as a result of the vote of Unit Owners owning at least eighty (80%) percent of the total votes of the Condominium, at which time the Property shall be subject to an action for partition by any Unit Owner, or any lienor, as if owned in common, and the net proceeds of the sale resulting therefrom shall be divided among all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective interests in the Common Elements, after first applying the share of the net proceeds of such sale otherwise payable to each Unit Owner to the payment of any liens on his/her Unit in the order of the priority of such liens.

Copies of the Declaration and By-Laws are set forth in Part II of the Plan.

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF UNIT OWNERS

Unit Owners will have the right to sell, lease, or mortgage units, without restriction, except as set forth herein, subject to the requirements that all Common Charges are current. A Unit Owner may only sell or lease the entire Unit. A Unit Owner may not sell or rent only a portion of a Unit.

The By-Laws provide that the use of the Units shall be restricted to and be in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) A Unit Owner may only use his/her Unit for a purpose consistent with any applicable ordinance or statute, or regulation of a government authority that has jurisdiction over the Condominium, but in no event for a use that violates the By-Laws of the Condominium.

(b) The Common Elements shall be used for the furnishing of services and facilities for which they are reasonably suited and capable, and which are incident to the use and occupancy of Units.

(c) No nuisances shall be allowed on the Property, nor shall any use or practice be allowed which interferes with the peaceful possession, or use of the Property, by its residents or occupants.

(d) No improper, offensive, or unlawful use shall be made of the Property nor any part thereof. Violations of laws, orders, rules, regulations, or requirements, of any governmental agency having jurisdiction thereof, relating to any portion of the Property, shall be eliminated by, and at the sole expense of, the respective Unit Owners or by the Board of Managers, whichever shall have the obligation to maintain or repair such portion of the Property, or comply with such laws.

(e) Each Unit Owner shall keep his Unit in a good state of cleanliness and repair in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws, and the rules and regulations of municipal departments or agencies having jurisdiction thereof.

Each Unit Owner will have an undivided interest in the Common Elements in the respective percentages set forth in SCHEDULE A in Part I. Subject to the provisions of the By-Laws and Rules and Regulations the Common Elements are appurtenant to, serve and benefit each Unit to the extent of such Unit's percentage share of the Common Elements, and the Common Elements are for the common use of all Unit Owners.

Further restrictions on the use of Units are set forth in the By-Laws Rules and Regulations made in accordance with the By-Laws, which are set forth in Part II of the Plan. Rules and Regulations concerning the use of the Units may be promulgated and amended from time to time by the Board of Managers as provided in the By-Laws. Such restrictions include a restriction that the unit shall be used for private residents only, or any home occupation use permitted under applicable zoning law, ordinances, building codes or other governmental regulations. Units may also be used as a profession office by a resident thereof provided such professional use does not violate zoning regulations and that consent of Board of Managers has been obtained. Units may not be used for any unlawful purpose and any use which amounts to a violation of law or to rules, regulations or requirements of any governmental agency having jurisdiction thereover shall be eliminated at the sole expense of the unit owner.

The Board of Managers shall from time to time, but at least annually, prepare a budget for the Condominium determining the amount of the Common Charges payable by the Unit Owners. Common charges will be established by determining the operating budget for the coming year of condominium operation and allocating to each unit owner a percentage of that budget in accordance with their percentage of ownership for common interest in the condominium. The Common expenses include, among other things, the cost of all insurance premiums on all policies of insurance required to be, or which have been, obtained by the Board of Managers. The Common Expenses may also include such amounts as the Board of Managers may deem proper for the operation and maintenance of the Property including, without limitation, an amount of working capital and a general operating reserve. The Board of Managers shall advise all Unit Owners promptly, in writing, of the amount of Common Charges payable by each of them, and shall furnish copies of each budget on which such Common Charges are based to all Unit Owners and to their mortgagees of record, if requested.

Under the provisions of Section 339-z of the Condominium Act, the Board of Managers on behalf of the Unit Owners shall have a lien on each Unit for unpaid Common Charges assessed against such Unit by the Board of Managers, together with interest thereon. Such lien shall be subordinate only to liens for real estate taxes on the Unit and to any sums unpaid on the first mortgage or record of such Unit. Any lien for unpaid Common Charges against a Unit shall be effective from and after the filing of a notice thereof in the Kings County Office of the City Register, and until all sums secured thereby with the interest thereon shall have been fully paid, or until six years from the date of filing (unless foreclosure of such lien is started within such six year period), whichever may be earlier. Such lien may be foreclosed by a suit brought in the name of the Board of Managers acting on behalf of the Unit Owners in like manner as the foreclosure of a mortgage on real property, or an action may be brought by the Board of Managers to recover the Unpaid Common Charges without foreclosing the lien. In the event the Sponsor is more than thirty (30) days in arrears on Common Charges for any unsold Unit during the time the Sponsor is in control of the Board of Managers, Sponsor will cause the Board of Managers to file a lien as provided for in section 339-aa of the Real Property law.

Under section 339-kk of the Real Property Law, the board of managers has the right to require the tenant in an apartment owned by a non-occupying owner to make rental payments directly to the board of managers where such non-occupying owner is in default on payments of common charges, assessments or late fees for such unit for a period of 60 days after the expiration of any grace period after they are due. Payments by such rental tenant to the condominium pursuant to this statute relieves such rental tenant from the obligation to pay such rent to such non-occupying owner, and is an absolute defense in any nonpayment proceeding commenced by such non-occupying owner. The procedures by which the board of managers may enforce this right, including required notice, means of protest, and termination are set forth in the aforementioned section which is recited at page RE1 of this Offering Plan.

No Unit Owner may exempt himself from liability for Common Charges or Expenses by waiver of the use, or enjoyment of any of the Common Elements, or by abandonment of his Unit. The liability of each Unit Owner for the payment of the Common Charges and Expenses thereafter assessed or becoming due against the Unit shall terminate upon a permissible sale, transfer or other conveyance of such Unit, and the appurtenant interests in the Common Elements. In addition, any Unit Owner may, subject to the terms and conditions specified in the By-Laws, convey his/her Unit together with the said appurtenant interests to the Board of Managers or its nominee on behalf of all other Unit Owners, and in such event be exempt from all Common Charges and Expenses thereafter assessed.

All maintenance or any repair to any Unit, ordinary or extraordinary, and to the doors and windows (except the painting and decoration of the side of the elevator doors and stairwell doors which do not face into a Unit, and the exterior side of windows), electrical (except Common Elements) within the Unit or belonging to the Unit Owner, shall be at the Unit Owner's expense, except for structural elements as specifically required herein. All maintenance, repairs, and replacements to the Common Elements (including the exterior walls of the Building and exterior sides of the windows) and the painting and decorating of the side of the elevator doors and stairwell doors which do not face into a Unit shall be made at the direction of the Board of Managers, and be proportionately charged to all the Unit Owners as a Common Expense, except to the extent that the same are necessitated by the negligence, misuse or neglect of a Unit Owner, in which case such expense shall be charged to such Unit Owner.

No Unit Owner may make any structural addition, alteration or improvement in his Unit, or do any work which would jeopardize the soundness or safety of the Building, reduce the value thereof, or impair any easement or hereditament of the Property, without the prior written approval of the Board of Managers. As a condition of the granting of its consent to the above acts, the Board of Managers may require the Unit Owner to execute an agreement in form and substance satisfactory to the Board of Managers setting forth the terms and conditions under which such alteration, addition, improvement, or repair, may be made, including without limitation, the days and hours during which any work may be done. No application shall be filed with any governmental authority for a permit covering an addition, alteration, or improvement to be made in a Unit, unless approved and executed by the Board of Managers; such approval, however, shall not result in liability on the part of the Board of Managers or any of them, to a contractor, subcontractor, materialman, architect or engineer, by reason of such addition, alteration, or improvement, or to any person having any claim for injury to person, or damage to property arising therefrom. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to an Unsold Unit, provided that any alterations to such Unsold Units shall be in accordance with, and only as permitted, by the Condominium Act and all governmental regulations. Non-structural alterations and improvements to Residential Units that do not affect the exterior of the Building, or the value of other Units, may be made without prior approval of the Board of Managers.

Unit owners may perform all standard repair and maintenance items within their apartment and standard home improvements items without permission of the Board of Managers. Thus unit owners may repair or replace fixtures, equipment, cabinetry, flooring, sheetrock, etc.. without permission of the Board of Managers. However, unit owners may not relocate plumbing, heating, electric or other service lines effecting other units in the building during the course of such repairs or improvements without receiving Board permission.

The Board of Managers shall obtain and maintain, to the extent determined by them to be appropriate; (1) hazard insurance, with extended coverage, insuring the Building and Units (but not including furniture, furnishings or other personal property supplied to, or installed by, Unit Owners), together with all service machinery contained therein covering the interests of the Condominium, The Board of Managers, and all Unit Owners and their mortgagees, as their interest may appear, in an amount equal to the full replacement value of the insured property without deduction for depreciation;; (2) machinery insurance; (3) water damage legal liability insurance; (4) liability insurance for personal injury or property damage in an amount not less than one million dollars; (5) officer's and director's insurance covering the board of managers; and (6) such other insurance as the Board of Managers may determine. Each of the policies shall contain a New York standard mortgage clause in favor of each mortgagee of a Unit which shall provide that the loss, if any, thereunder shall be payable to such mortgagee as its interests may appear, subject, however, to the loss payment provisions in favor of the Board of Managers in the event of casualty or condemnation. Unit Owners shall be entitled to carry casualty insurance protection for their furniture and the interior of their Units and for personal liability coverage for their own benefit at their own expense, provided that such policies contain waivers of subrogation, and further provided that the liability of the carriers issuing insurance procured by the Board of Managers shall not be affected or diminished by reason of any other insurance carried by a Unit Owner.

A Unit Owner by acceptance of a Deed for a Unit shall have granted a right of access to the Unit and storage areas and terrace, if any, to the Managing Agent and/or any other person authorized by the Board of Managers of the Managing Agent, for the purposed of performing installations, alterations or repairs to the mechanical or electrical services of other Common Elements in his/her Unit or elsewhere in the Building in which the Unit is located, to remove violations, cure defaults by a Unit Owner, and for any other purpose provided in the Plan, Declaration, or as may be required by law or governmental regulation, provided that requests for entry (except in emergency situations) is at a time reasonably convenient to the Unit Owner. In case of emergency, such right of entry shall be immediate, whether the Unit Owner is present at the time or not. Provided reasonable care is exercised to safeguard the Unit Owner's property, such entry shall not render the Board of Managers or its authorized agents liable for damage incurred in connection with the exercise of such right of entry. Each Unit Owner will deposit with the President of the Board of Managers a key to his/her Unit to allow for entry in an emergency. The Board of Managers may designate responsible individual(s) to hold such keys.

The Purchaser of each Unit will execute a Power of Attorney in favor of the Board of Managers, which authorizing the Board of Managers of the condominium to act on behalf of the shareholder with regards to reacquisition of defaulted or foreclosed units, amendment to the condominium Declaration, appeal of tax assessments, and in many other ways. Please see the Power of Attorney set forth in part II of this Offering Plan for a more complete explanation.

Each Unit Owner shall be required to pay the Common Charges and Expenses levied by the Board of Managers. All Unit Owners, mortgagees, lessees and occupants of Units and their employees, and any other persons who may use the facilities of the Property in any manner, are subject to the By-Laws, the Declaration and the Rules and Regulations. A copy of the Declaration and By-Laws and Rules and Regulations appear in Part II of this Plan. The violation of any of the Rules and Regulations or the breach of any By-Laws or provision of the Declaration shall give the Board of Managers, in addition to other rights set forth in specific provisions of the By-Laws, the right to: (i) enter any Unit in which, or as to which, such violations or breach exists and to abate and/or remove same summarily, at the expense of the defaulting Unit Owner. The Board of Managers shall not thereby be deemed guilty or liable for trespass nor be liable for any damage to the Unit, nuisances or fixtures incurred in connection with such rights unless such damage is caused by negligence on the part of the Board of Managers; or (ii) enjoin, abate or remedy by appropriate legal proceedings, the continuance of any such violation or breach. The costs incurred by the Board by virtue of the exercise of its rights to correct such breaches or violations, including attorney's fees, shall be due upon demand from the Unit Owner in question, and shall constitute a Common Expense against his/her Unit.

REAL ESTATE TAX BENEFITS

Each Unit Owner will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes, and no Unit Owner will be responsible for the payment of, nor subject to, any lien for non-payment of taxes on any other unit. Units will not be separately assessed for the first year of condominium operation. On closing, Sponsor shall deposit with the Board of Managers a sum sufficient to pay all taxes due for the balance of 1999/2000 tax year. The Board of Managers shall be authorized to pay such taxes as and when due from such escrow fund. As each subsequent individual condominium Unit is sold, the purchasers thereof, as a standard closing adjustment, shall reimburse the Sponsor for the portion of their tax liability paid by the Sponsor from the date of closing through the end of the 1999/2000 tax year. It is anticipated that Units will be separately assessed for the 2000/2001 tax year, and that individual Unit Owners (whether purchasers, holders of unsold shares, or the Sponsor) will pay the taxes thereof as set forth in the attached SCHEDULE A.

The Property is taxed by the City of New York which, through the Department of Finance, has assessed the property at a pre-construction value of $82,000.00 for the 1999/2000 tax year, and imposes a tax rate of 10.739%. The real estate taxes payable in SCHEDULE A are determined by applying the applicable tax rate to the non-exempt portion of the assessment as set forth in the attached letter from Moseson and Associates, and then allocating the amount due in conformity with the allocation of Common Interests. The City of New York is not bound by the allocation of Common Interests, and may allocate on a different basis. All figures are estimates.

There are no tax certiorari proceedings currently pending. Individual owners may challenge the assessment of their property by filing a tax protest in accord with the rules of the New York City Tax Commission. The Board of Managers may also file a protest on behalf of all Unit Owners. The Building benefits from the limitations imposed by Sections 581 and 1805 of the Real Property Tax Law.

Units which are rented, rather than owner occupied, will be subject to rent stabilization to the extent that the rules governing 421-A real estate tax exemption benefits impose same on such units.

REAL ESTATE TAX BENEFITS

Each Unit Owner will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes, and no Unit Owner will be responsible for the payment of, nor subject to, any lien for non-payment of taxes on any other unit. Units will not be separately assessed for the first year of condominium operation. On closing, Sponsor shall deposit with the Board of Managers a sum sufficient to pay all taxes due for the balance of 1999/2000 tax year. The Board of Managers shall be authorized to pay such taxes as and when due from such escrow fund. As each subsequent individual condominium Unit is sold, the purchasers thereof, as a standard closing adjustment, shall reimburse the Sponsor for the portion of their tax liability paid by the Sponsor from the date of closing through the end of the 1999/2000 tax year. It is anticipated that Units will be separately assessed for the 2000/2001 tax year, and that individual Unit Owners (whether purchasers, holders of unsold shares, or the Sponsor) will pay the taxes thereof as set forth in the attached SCHEDULE A.

The Property is taxed by the City of New York which, through the Department of Finance, has assessed the property at a pre-construction value of $82,000.00 for the 1999/2000 tax year, and imposes a tax rate of 10.739%. The real estate taxes payable in SCHEDULE A are determined by applying the applicable tax rate to the non-exempt portion of the assessment as set forth in the attached letter from Moseson and Associates, and then allocating the amount due in conformity with the allocation of Common Interests. The City of New York is not bound by the allocation of Common Interests, and may allocate on a different basis. All figures are estimates.

There are no tax certiorari proceedings currently pending. Individual owners may challenge the assessment of their property by filing a tax protest in accord with the rules of the New York City Tax Commission. The Board of Managers may also file a protest on behalf of all Unit Owners. The Building benefits from the limitations imposed by Sections 581 and 1805 of the Real Property Tax Law.

The Sponsor has applied for Real Estate Tax Exemption Benefits pursuant to Section 421-A of the Real Property Tax Law of the State of New York. The benefits provided pursuant to this section are stated in more particularity in the letter, included in this offering plan from Moseson and Associates, who have filed an application on behalf of the Sponsor. Briefly stated, however, the program provides an exemption from any increase in assessed value of the property for real estate tax purposes, to the extent that such increase results from the reasonable cost of alteration or improvement to the building, for a period of eleven (11) years after granting of the exemption. Thereafter, the exemption declines by 20% per year until, after the fifteenth (15th) year, real estate taxes will be based on the full assessed value of the property. Sponsor has obtained an estimate from Moseson and Associates of a post-completion assessed value of $1,500,000.00. SCHEDULE A includes the estimated tax payments in the event 421-A Tax Benefits are not obtained. The effect of the tax exemption, and the "phase in" of the full assessed value will be as follows:

YEAR	ASSESSED VALUATION
1-10	$82,000
11	$365,600
12	$649,200
13	$932,800
14	$1,216,400
15	$1,500,000
16	$1,783,600

Sponsor has made, and will pursue this application, and will make all filings necessary to obtain such benefits, including a timely filing of all applications, and timely compliance with all procedures required to properly process and maintain the benefits. Upon closing, the Sponsor will make all documents available to the Board of Managers for inspection and copying for the life of the benefits.

The explanation and projection prepared by the Sponsor's tax abatement expert, who prepared the 421-A application, is expressly adopted by the Sponsor and included as part of this offering plan.

RE: 30 units at 42 & 52 Broadway, Brooklyn
Block: 2129 Lot: 21

Dear Sir:

You have requested me to advise you with respect to the applicability of The City of New York's program for partial real estate tax exemption under Section 421-A of the Real Property Tax Law and the procedure therefore.

You and your architect have represented to us that:

1. You will commence construction on the site of the three buildings based on approved new buildings permits issued by the Department of Buildings of the City of New York before January 1, 2000.
2. Upon completion of construction, the Buildings will be classified as multiple dwellings pursuant to the Multiple Dwelling Law.
3. The Site was unimproved 36 months prior to the commencement of construction (as defined in the site requirements of section 2.5(1) (a) of the Regulations).
4. These buildings will be substantially used for dwelling purposes for a period of at least fifteen years following its completion.
5. Construction of the building will be completed on or before Dec. 31, 2002.
6. An application for Preliminary Certificate of Eligibility will be filed with HPD upon start of construction.
7. Upon completion, the project will consist of a condominium consisting of thirty residential units.

CONCLUSION

Based solely on these representations, and if (i) the buildings are constructed substantially in accordance with the plans and specifications approved by the New York City Department of Buildings and comply with the requirements of section 421-A, the Regulations and HPD, and HPD is notified of any modifications to the plans for the building or the "sell-out" price; (ii) HPD determines that the property was "underutilized" (pursuant to the provisions of Section 421-A) 36 months prior to commencement of construction; (iii) a preliminary Certificate of Eligibility is issued by HPD after commencement of construction and prior to the issuance of a temporary Certificate of Occupancy; (iv) temporary Certificates of Occupancy for all of the residential areas of the buildings or permanent Certificates of Occupancy for the three buildings are issued and filed with HPD no later than six months after an application for a Final Certificate of Eligibility is filed with HPD, or prior to December 31, 2002 which ever is earlier; (v) a copy of such Final Certification and of the temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the residential units is filed with the New York City Department of Finance succeeding the issuance of such Final Certificate of Eligibility; and (vi) there is no change in Section 421-A, the Regulations and decisional law, the Building would appear to be eligible for the partial real estate tax exemption prided under Section 421-A.

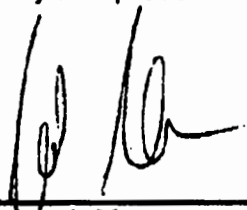

The units of the condominium should be entitled to Section 421-A tax benefits under present law. Generally, for predominantly residential buildings, under section 421-A, 100% of the increased assessed value of the property resulting from the improvement thereon (i.e., the assessed value above the pre-construction assessed value) is exempt from taxation during construction and during the ten (10) years following the first taxable status date immediately following completion of construction. The exemption declines to 80% of the increased assessed value for the eleventh (11) year and is further reduced by an additional 20% for each of the succeeding years. Following the 15-year period, the Unit Owners will pay real state taxes based on the full assessed valuation of their Units and the tax rate then in effect, without the benefit of any exemption.

The total assessed value of the property (i.e., the aggregate assessment of all units) following completion of construction is estimated to be approximately 1,500,000. Using the foregoing estimate of assessed value upon completion, assuming completion to be on or before December 31, 2002 and assuming the tax rate remains the same as the current rate (i.e., $10.739 per $100 of assessed value) during the 15 year abatement period and upon completion of construction, and using a pre-construction assessed value of the property of 82,000.00, then upon completion of the 15 year tax abatement the real estate taxes will be approximately $161,085.00. You are advised that this projection is an estimate as it is unlikely that the post-construction assessed value or tax rate will remain constant for the 15- year Section 421-A exemption period. Thus, the actual assessment and real estate tax for each Unit may be more or less than the Unit's proportionate share of the total assessment and tax amount shown. If any of the foregoing requirements or conditions, however, should not be met to the satisfaction of HPD, or if any of the foregoing representations should prove to be inaccurate, then, unless the Regulations are modified to remove or change any requirement or condition that is not met, the building would not qualify for the partial real estate tax exemption provided under Section 421-A.

We have retained by you to undertake the procedures outlined in this letter an consent to the inclusion of this letter in any offering plan with respect to the project. We make no representations and express no opinion as to whether or not any or all of the requirements and conditions set forth herein will be fulfilled.

Although the estimate of the 1999/2000 Actual Assessed Valuation is a good faith estimate, it is not possible to estimate it with any degree of certainty, and thus such assessed valuation when actually made, may be lesser or greater than as estimated. In no event will my firm, the Sponsor, the Sponsors' counsel, the Condominium Board or any other person be liable if the assessed valuation when actually made, is lesser or greater than predicted or if the Administrative Code and the applicable rules and regulations of the City of New York are in the future changed or if the facts as represented to my firm prove to be untrue.

DEDUCTIONS TO UNIT OWNERS, AND TAX STATUS OF CONDOMINIUM

Unit Owners who itemize their deductions should, for Federal Income Tax purposes, be entitled to a deduction for mortgage interest and real estate taxes in the year paid, or accrued, under Sections 163 and 164 of the IRS Code. These deductions are subject, however, to certain exceptions and limitations that are more particularly discussed in the COUNSEL'S TAX OPINION LETTER. Each individual Unit Owner should, for New York State and New York City Income Tax purposes, be entitled to similar deductions for the mortgage interest and real estate taxes paid, or accrued, during the taxable year.

The Condominium will be governed by a Board of Managers. The Board of Managers will assess and collect Common Charges from the Unit Owners, and will have certain discretionary powers over the operating expenses and the application of the assessments. While there is presently no direct authority as to the tax status of the Condominium for Federal Income Tax purposes, Sponsor's counsel is of the opinion that the condominium will be treated as an association taxable as a corporation due to the fact that it will not qualify as an exempt Homeowner's Association under section 2528 of the IRS Code. As a result to the extent the condominium has income in excess of its actual expenses it will pay federal corporate income tax on such income.

The statements set forth herein are based upon an analysis of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), New York State Tax Law, the Administrative Code of the City of New York, the applicable regulations promulgated or proposed thereunder, the current position of applicable administrative agency, in particular, the position of the IRS stated in published Revenue Rulings and Revenue Procedures, and judicial decisions. It is emphasized, however, that legislative, judicial or administrative changes may be made which would require modification of such statements, or that, the IRS or other applicable administrative agency may disagree with Counsel's interpretations and conclusions. A more detailed statement of the tax factors involved may be found in the COUNSEL'S TAX OPINION; however, each purchaser should consult with his or her own attorney with regard to tax consequences of this transaction.

COUNSEL'S TAX OPINION LETTER

March 9, 2000

Waterview Condo LLC
40. Fulton Street
New York, NY 10038

Re: Offering Plan for the Conversion to Condominium Ownership of Premises:
42 and 52 Broadway, Brooklyn, New York

Gentlemen:

You have requested my opinion concerning (i) the availability of certain deductions for Federal, New York State, and New York City Income Tax purposes to persons who purchase units for residential use ("Unit Owners") under the Offering Plan for the WATERVIEW II CONDOMINIUM (the "Plan"), and (ii) the Federal Income Tax Treatment of the Common Charges received by the condominium association of the condominium (the "Condominium").

In connection with rendering this opinion, I have reviewed the Plan, the Schedules and Exhibits thereto, the Declaration of the Condominium Plan (the "Declaration"), the By-Laws of the Condominium (the "By-Laws"), the relevant sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), the Regulations promulgated thereunder by the Treasury Department (the "Treas. Regs."), the New York State Tax Law, the Administrative Code of the City of New York, revenue rulings, relevant case law and such other materials as I have deemed relevant.

FACTS

You have advised me that, to the best of your knowledge, the following statements are an accurate summary of the relevant facts, and my opinion is conditioned upon the accuracy of such facts.

The Sponsor will apply to the Department of Law of the State of New York to establish the premises located at 42 and 52 Broadway, Brooklyn, New York, as a condominium pursuant to the provisions of New York's Condominium Act. (See Article 9-B of the Real Property Law of the State of New York.)

This condominium shall consist of thirty one (31) Units. Thirty Units will be allocated for residential use; and one Unit will be allocated as a Commercial Unit. Each holder of a Unit will own his own Unit plus an interest in the elements common to all Units (the "Common Elements"). Each unit owner will be entitled to the exclusive ownership and possession of his unit and will receive a separate deed to the Unit.

The Condominium will be operated by a Board of Managers which, pursuant to the By-Laws, will act only as an agent of all Unit Owners. The Board of Managers will be comprised of at least three members, who shall each be elected by the Unit Owners. The primary function of the Board of Managers will be to supervise the maintenance and operation of the Common Elements, and collect charges (the "Common Charges") necessary to maintain and operate the Common Elements.

DISCUSSION

I. Deductibility of Mortgage Interest and Real Estate Taxes

Under the Condominium Act, each Unit Owner will own his/her Unit and its appurtenant interest in the Common Elements in fee simple, and each Unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes. Each Unit Owner may mortgage his Unit and become individually liable for the payment of the principal and any finance charges or interest on such mortgage indebtedness. Failure to pay his or her share of the Common Charges will result in the Board of Managers having a lien on the Unit for the unpaid Common Charges.

The deductibility of the mortgage interest and real estate taxes paid or accrued by the Unit Owner during his or her taxable year will be governed by sections 163 and 164 of the I.R.S. Code. Section 163 of the Code allows a taxpayer to deduct all interest paid or accrued during the taxable year on Bona Fide indebtedness. Section 164 of the Code allows a taxpayer to deduct real estate taxes paid or accrued during the taxable year.

Since Sections 339-g and 339-y of the Condominium Act provide that each Unit and its common interest shall be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate purposes, Unit Owners shall be entitled to deduct real estates tax paid or incurred on their Units during the taxable year.

The deduction under Section 163 of the Code for interest is subject to certain other provisions of the Code which may limit the amount of the deduction in any one taxable year. For example under Section 461(g) of the code, prepaid interest is not deductible by a cash basis taxpayer in the year of payment but must be allocated to the taxable year or years to which it is chargeable. However, the payment of "points" (bank origination fee) is deductible under certain circumstances in the year of payment, provided that the indebtedness was incurred by the taxpayer in connection with the purchase or improvement of his principal residence, and the other requirements of Code Section 461 (g) (2) are complied with.

I note that a taxpayer who purchases a Unit for investment may find his interest deduction limited by Code Section 163(d). Under this Section a taxpayer other than a corporation will be subject to a ceiling on his deduction for investment interest. Investment interest is defined as interest paid or accrued on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry property for investment. To the extent that the taxpayer has investment income (defined as the gross income from interest, dividends, rents, royalties, net short term capital gains and recapture income), he or she increases his or her ceiling on the deduction for investment interest. See generally Code Section 163(d).

I also note that Code Section 265(2) may impact on the interest deduction otherwise allowable to a taxpayer in the event that he/she incurs debt to finance his/her purchase of a Unit rather than liquidate his or her portfolio of tax exempt securities. Under these circumstances Code Section 265(2) may disallow the taxpayer's interest deduction since he or she would be deemed to have incurred the debt to "continue to carry" the tax exempt obligations. However, revenue rulings have made an exception for debt incurred to purchase the taxpayer's principal residence.

In Revenue Ruling 64-31, 1964-1 C.B. 300, the Internal Revenue Service (the "Service") considered the deductibility of mortgage interest and real estate taxes incurred by the owner of a condominium unit. The Service ruled the Sections 163 and 164 of the Code, respectively, permitted these deductions by the Condominium Unit Owner provided that he or she itemized his or her deductions in filing his or her Federal income tax returns.

In my opinion, under Code Sections 163 and 164 respectively, a Unit Owner will, for Federal Income Tax purposes, be entitled to a deduction for interest paid or accrued with respect to mortgage indebtedness and for real estate taxes paid or accrued with respect to his or her method of accounting.

It is also my opinion that each Unit Owner will, for New York State and New York City Income Tax purposes, be entitled to the same deduction which is allowed for Federal Income Tax purposes for the mortgage interest and real estate taxes paid or accrued during the taxable year. See Section 615 of the New York State Tax Law. It should be noted, however, that for New York City Income Tax purposes, the benefit of such deduction may be reduced if the Unit Owner has more than the specified amount of tax preference items. See Section 615, 622 and 623 of the New York State Tax Law; Section T46-115.00, T46-122.0 and T46-123.0 of the City Code.

The foregoing discussion applies primarily to residential unit owners. Referenced sections of the IRS code are not applicable to owners of commercial units. However, insofar as the owners of the commercial units will be using the unit for business purposes, other sections of the code may allow such deductions. Purchasers of commercial units are strongly urged to consult with their own accountants with regards to the deductibility of the mortgage interest and real estate taxes.

II. Common Charges-Federal Income Taxation of the Condominium:

A condominium under New York law is not a corporation but an un-incorporated association.

The Treasury Regulations in Section 301.7701-2(a)(i) set forth six factors to be considered in determining whether an association will be treated as an un-incorporated association for Federal Income Tax purposes. Of these factors, the Condominium possesses five (an objective to carry on business, divide the gains, centralization of management, continuity of life, free transferability of interest). Since an un-incorporated organization will be treated as a corporation if it has more corporate characteristics than non-corporate characteristics, (see Treas. Regs. Section 301.7701-2(a)(3), Philip G. Larson, 66 T.C. 159 (1976) acq., Rev. Rul. 79-106, 1979-1 C.B. 448), it is my opinion that, although there exists no direct authority on this point, the condominium will be treated as an association taxable as a corporation for Federal Income tax purposes. In such event, and in the absence of any specific exception, the Condominium would be subject to Federal Corporate Income Tax.

Assuming that the Condominium is treated as an association taxable as a corporation, the receipt of substantially all of Common Charges, may be excluded from the income of the Condominium in the event that (i) the Condominium is acting as agent of the Unit Owners as to collection and receipt of such funds; or (ii) the Condominium is not acting as agent and receives the Common Charges as non-taxable contributions of capital, or receives the Common Charges as service income which is fully offset by the Condominium's service expenses; or (iii) the Condominium elects to be taxed under Code Section 528 and the Condominium has only "exempt function income" within the meaning of such Section.

In Revenue Ruling 75-370, 1975-2 C.B. 257 the shareholders of a condominium management corporation approved special accounts which were not commingled with the general funds of the condominium management association. The assessments could be used only to replace the roof and the elevators located in the common elements of the condominium property. The I.R.S. ruled that these special assessments were not includable in the Condominium's gross income since they did not benefit the condominium which had a fiduciary obligation to expend the funds collected in the manner approved by its unit owner-stockholders. The I.R.S. found that there was an agent and principal relationship between the condominium and its unit owner-stockholders insofar as the special assessments were concerned. However Rev. Rul. 75-370 specifically exempted funds collected by a condominium management corporation to provide services for which it was formed such as the maintenance of the common elements. Thus, funds collected by the Board for painting, general repairs, gardening and janitorial services would constitute gross income to the Condominium.

The By-Laws provide that the Board of Managers will act as the agent of the Unit Owners. If Common Charges for special capital improvements are specifically designated for capital improvements, deposited in special accounts and not commingled with the general funds, then such Common Charges should not be included in the income of the Condominium, according to Revenue Ruling 75-370, supra. Common Charges for operational expenditures would not be excluded from the income of the Condominium, because the Board of Managers does not have mere ministerial powers with respect to the operations of the Condominium.

Under certain circumstances, special assessments for specific capital improvements may be considered non-taxable contributions to the capital of the association, pursuant to Code Section 118.

In Revenue Ruling 75-371, 1975-2 C.B. 52, the condominium management collected special assessments which were assessed pro-rata upon each unit owner to replace outdoor furniture. The By-Laws required that any assessment had to be approved at a stockholder meeting by a majority vote of the unit owner-stockholders. The special assessment was approved and the proceeds were deposited in a special account and were not commingled with the general assessment funds. The assessment could only be used for the specific purpose intended. The Service held that the Special Assessment was a non-taxable contribution to the capital of the condominium management corporation. Id.; See also Rev. Rul. 74-563, 1974-2 C.B. 38 (special assessments to pave a parking lot of the homeowners association are contributions to the capital of the associations).

Under this Plan the Unit Owners must approve all special improvements. Therefore, as to such amounts of Common Charges which are specifically designated for capital improvements, deposited in special accounts and not commingled with the general funds, such Common Charges should not be characterized as income of the condominium, according to Revenue Ruling 75-371, supra, but would constitute contributions to the capital of the Condominium. Even if a special capital assessment is not specifically voted upon and approved by the Unit Owners of the Condominium, there is judicial authority which would support the characterization of such assessment as capital contribution. See, Concord Village, Inc., 65 T.C. 142 (1975).

It should be noted that if the special assessment are treated as contributions to the capital of the Condominium, the subsequent expenditure of these funds (together with any other funds accumulated by the Condominium) may be viewed by the Service as a distribution to the Unit Owners, taxable under Section 301 of the Code. Each Unit Owner may therefore be subject to tax on his pro-rata share of the amounts expended. Rev. Rul. 75-371 went on to distinguish special assessments from assessments collected for the purpose of normal operating expenses and excess assessments, which could be returned directly to the individual unit owner-stockholders. These general assessments and the excess assessments which are not credited to subsequent taxable years or returned to the unit-owners, were held to constitute gross income to the condominium under Section 61 of the Code. I note, however, that to the extent to which the Condominium will be deemed to have service income by virtue of its performance of its management functions, it will be entitled to deduct as business expenses its expenditures required to provide such services from its gross income. See Concord Village, Inc., 65 T.C. 142, 157 (1975); Park Place, 57 T.C. 767, 778 (1972). Thus, it will have taxable income only in the amount of the excess of its income from all sources over its allowable deductions.

Any net income attributable to over-assessments might constitute taxable income of the Condominium for the year of receipt, even if such excess is distributed or applied to the subsequent year's assessments. In effect, a management association will not earn income when it has no discretion as to the application of the excess, and, conversely, will have income where it does have such discretion. Since the Board of Managers will have discretion as to application of excess Common Charges, and does not intend to return excess Common Charges, if any, but intends to apply such excess to the next year's expenditures, it is possible that any excess Common Charges will constitute taxable income to the Condominium.

Code Section 528 provides a tax exemption for an organization that qualifies as a "homeowners association" which term includes a "condominium management association". A "condominium management association" is defined as an organization organized and operated to provide for the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance, and care of a condominium, provided substantially all of the units are used by individuals for residences. See Code Sections 528(c)(1)(A), and 528.(c)(2). "Substantially all" the units will be considered used by individuals for residences if at least 85% of the total square footage of all units within the project is used, or is intended to be used, by individuals for residential purposes or purposes auxiliary to residential use, such as storage rooms, laundry and maintenance areas. See Treas. Regulations, Section 1.528-4(b). The organization itself will be considered "organized and operated" for the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance, and care of such condominium, if the facts and circumstances indicate such to be the case. See Treas. Regs. Section 1.528-2. However if the articles of the Condominium reflect that is the purpose of the association, then the condominium management association will be presumed to be operated for such purpose. See Treas. Regs. Section 1.528-2(a).

In addition to the organization and operation test, the tests set forth below must be satisfied under code Section 528(c)(1) in order for a condominium to qualify as a "homeowner's association".

(1) Sixty percent (60%) or more of the gross income of the organization must be "exempt function income," that is, income derived from the payment of dues or fees from the residential unit owners in their capacity as owner-members rather than in the capacity as customers for services. Code Section 528(c)(1)(A) and Treas. Regs. Section 1.528-5 and 1.528.9. "Exempt function income" includes income which is attributable to assessments that arise as a result of the members' ownership interest, either based on value or size of their units, and used for the purpose of enhancing or maintaining the value of the residences. See Treas. Regs., Section 1.528-9(a). For example, the regulations indicate that assessments for the purpose of paying real estate taxes, removing garbage, or removing snow is "exempt function income". See Treas. Regs. Section 1.528-9(b). Income attributable to the use of laundry machines and interest earned on sinking funds is not exempt function income; See Treas. Regs. Section 1.528-9(c). Any assessments attributable to special capital improvements, which are treated as capital contributions, are not included in gross income, and therefore, are not part of the calculation of the gross income test. See Treas. Regs. Section 1.528-9(a).

(2) Ninety percent (90%) or more of the expenditures of the organization for the taxable year must be used for the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance and care of the organization's property. See Code Section 528(c)(1)(C). These expenditures include operating and capital expenditures during the taxable year. Investments in reserve funds for future expenditures are not included in this calculation.

(3) No part of the net earnings of the organization may inure to the benefit of any individual. See Code Section 528(c)(1)(D). The Code expressly excludes benefits received by a unit owner attributable to the homeowners association performing its exempt function, such as the benefit from the homeowners association acquiring, constructing, managing, maintaining and taking care of the association property.

(4) The organization must properly and timely elect to have Code Section 528 apply for the taxable year. See Code Section 528(c)(1)(E).

Based upon my understanding of the matter it appears that the Condominium will not be eligible to qualify as a homeowners association within the meaning of Code Section 528(c)(1) and that, to the extent the condominium has income in excess of its expenses, that income will be subject to federal income taxation.

III. REAL ESTATE TAX BENEFITS:

I have reviewed the letter (heretofore set forth in this Offering Plan) from the sponsor's expert concerning the availability of real estate tax abatement and exemption benefits for this project. Based on existing statutes and practices, the opinions expressed therein appear to be correct, and I hereby adopt said opinion as my own. This adoption is, of course, subject to the accuracy of the facts supplied to said expert in rendering his determination and also subject to any change in existing statutes which may affect my evaluation and interpretation of the availability of such benefits. This is not a warranty that such benefits will be obtained but only an opinion based on the existing laws, regulations, and facts, this condominium project will qualify for such benefits.

IV. Compliance With RPL Section 339 (i):

I have received and reviewed the letters heretofore set forth from the sponsor's expert concerning allocation of the common interest to the units in the premises. The allocation appears to have been made based on the fair market value each of the units bear to the fair market value of all units, pursuant to section 1(i) of Section 339-i of the RPL. While analysis of the fair market value of the units is beyond the scope of this letter or the expertise of this letter writer, assuming the factors set forth in the aforementioned expert's opinion letter to be accurate, the method employed is permissible pursuant to the RPL and is in compliance therewith.

CONCLUSION

I express no views as to any Federal, New York State and/or New York City tax consequences or as to any aspects of the Plan other than those tax consequences and aspects explicitly discussed in this opinion, or as to the tax consequences of the Plan under the laws of any other State or foreign jurisdiction. This opinion does not discuss the tax consequences which may result from the ownership or the leasing of a Unit to another, in connection with a Unit Owner's trade or business, for purposes of investment, or for the production of income, or tax consequences which may result to a foreign Unit Owner by reason of his foreign status. This opinion also does not consider the tax consequences which may arise if Units are acquired and/or leased by the Board of Managers, or the issue of whether a Unit Owner may be deemed to be a resident of New York State due to ownership of a Unit. I, therefore, advise each person contemplating the purchase of a Unit to consult his/her own tax advisor as to all such tax matters, as well as with respect to the tax matters discussed in this opinion.

The opinions expressed herein are based solely upon my current understanding and interpretation of the existing law, regulations, decided cases and rulings of administrative agencies and upon information set forth herein. If there has been any misstatement of a fact or omission of any fact which may be material, or any amendment or exchange in the By-Laws or the Plan, we should be notified, since any such omission, misstatement or change may require modification of part or all of this opinion. Moreover, it should be specifically noted that this opinion is not binding on the Service, the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance, or the New York City Department of Taxation, and that such entities may not agree with any or all of the views stated above. Further, the Federal and State Tax Laws and Regulations and the rulings and decisions thereunder may change and thereby effect the views stated above in whole or in part.

NO WARRANTIES ARE MADE THAT THE INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE, THE DEPARTMENT OF TAXATION AND FINANCE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK OR THE DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK WILL ALLOW INCOME TAX DEDUCTIONS. FURTHER, NO WARRANTIES OR REPRESENTATIONS ARE MADE THAT THE TAX LAWS UNDERLYING THIS BASE THEIR OPINION WILL NOT CHANGE AND IN NO SUCH EVENT WILL THE SPONSOR-SELLER, THE SPONSOR-SELLER'S COUNSEL, THE CONDOMINIUM BOARD, THE SELLING AGENT OR ANY OTHER PERSON CONNECTED WITH THIS OFFERING BE LIABLE IF FOR ANY REASON IT SHALL BE DETERMINED THAT UNIT OWNERS DO NOT MEET OR AT ANY FUTURE TIME CEASE TO MEET THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF 1986, THE NEW YORK TAX LAW OR THE NEW YORK CITY ADMINISTRATIVE CODE OR ANY AMENDMENT OF ANY THEREOF. MOREOVER, NONE OF THE AFORESAID MAKES ANY WARRANTIES WITH RESPECT TO THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE OWNERSHIP OF ANY UNITS OFFERED UNDER THE PLAN EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH HEREIN, AND NO ONE ELSE HAS BEEN AUTHORIZED TO MAKE ANY REPRESENTATIONS OTHER THAN THOSE CONTAINED HEREIN.

I hereby authorize the use of this opinion, or a reproduction thereof, in the Plan.

Very truly yours,

Harold L. Gruber

RESERVE FUND

No fund will be created on closing as a reserve for capital expenditures. In the event a need arises for capital expenditures such as renewal or replacement of building components or systems, or to remedy major building defects, it will be necessary to raise needed capital either by assessing individual unit/owners for the cost of such expenditures. However, in the Sponsor's estimation, and in view of the fact that all building systems and components are new, it is anticipated that there will be no needed capital expenditures within the five (5) years immediately following the first closing of a condominium unit under the offering plan.

WORKING CAPITAL FUND

At closing of title to each Unit, the Unit Owner for such Unit will contribute the amount of $200.00 to the capital of the Condominium as a Working Capital Fund (see CLOSING COSTS AND ADJUSTMENTS). Thus, there will be a $6,200.00 working capital fund created on closing. Sponsor will make the required contribution for all unsold units at the time of the closing of the first unit, and will be reimbursed therefor on each subsequent closing of a unit by the unit purchaser. This Working Capital Fund will be used to make repairs and improvements, and for other appropriate purposes as determined by the Board of Managers, particularly to meet emergencies not budgeted for in SCHEDULE A. While the Sponsor controls the Board of Managers (see CONTROL BY SPONSOR), the Working Capital Fund will not be used to reduce estimated Common Charges.

There will be no closing adjustments between the Sponsor and the Board of Managers, and no deduction from the Working Capital Fund to be created on closing.

No representation is made that the Working Capital Fund will be adequate to cover current or future expenses. If additional funds are required over and above the Working Capital Fund, it may be necessary to increase Common Charges or separately assess all Unit Owners. Neither the Department of Law nor any other government agency has passed upon the adequacy of the Working Capital Fund.

IDENTITY OF PARTIES

The Sponsor hereby adopts the DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY set forth in Part II of this offering plan. With reference to such material, a licensed architect prepared the description of property and building condition contained therein.

The Sponsor represents that it does not know of any defect or need for major repairs except as hereinafter set forth, and that, to the best of the Sponsor's knowledge, the following description accurately states the condition of the building and its equipment (see DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY AND BUILDING CONDITION in Part II of the Plan).

The Property will be offered in its present condition as described in this plan. Neither the Sponsor nor the Condominium will have any obligation to make repairs or improvements except as set forth in this plan. The Sponsor will cure, or cause to be cured, all violations of record against the Property on the closing date and eliminate all known dangerous or hazardous conditions, and comply with all work orders from mortgagees.

notice of default is hereby deemed a notice to vacate as well if I occupy the apartment under the terms of an Interim Lease. 23. AGREEMENT SUBJECT TO MORTGAGES. I agree that all terms and provisions of this Agreement are and shall be subject and subordinate to the lien of any building loan mortgage or development loan mortgage heretofore or hereafter made and any advances heretofore or hereafter made thereon and any payments or expenses already made or incurred or which may hereafter be made or incurred, pursuant to the terms thereof, incidental thereto, or to protect the security thereof, to the full extent hereof without the execution of any further legal documents by me. The subordination shall apply whether such advances are voluntary or involuntary and whether made in accordance with the building loan schedule of payments or accelerated thereunder by virtue of lender's right to make advances before they become due in accordance with the schedule of payments. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this paragraph, however, on the Closing Date the only mortgage to which the Unit will be subject will be the mortgage(s) obtained by me.

24. MORTGAGE FINANCING. Purchaser's failure to provide information to the lender promptly upon request therefor, or failure to accept a commitment offered, shall be a default for which the Seller shall have the right to cancel this Purchase Agreement and retain the down payment. Once a bank commitment is issued, Purchaser will be required to use due diligence in obtaining any and all extensions necessary to maintain such commitment in force, notwithstanding that such extension may be at a higher interest rate or require payment of additional fees, or include other changes. Failure to maintain such commitment will constitute a default under the Purchase Agreement, except that if the bank refuses to extend such commitment on any rates or terms, Purchaser may cancel the Contract, and receive return of his down payment hereunder.

Purchaser has the right to apply to other lending institutions for financing, that this Contract shall not be contingent upon Purchaser obtaining such financing.

25. AMENDMENTS. After acceptance of my Purchase Agreement and so long as I am not in default hereunder, there shall be no change in the amount of the Cash Purchase Price, size or layout of the apartment I intend to purchase, without my written consent first being obtained. If there is a material change in the size or quality of common areas, I shall be given written notice thereof by certified mail, return receipt requested, and I shall have fifteen (15) days therefrom to rescind my Purchase Agreement and obtain return of my Down Payment by so notifying the Sponsor or Selling Agent in writing by certified mail, return receipt requested..

39. Invalidity or unenforceability of any portion or portions of this Agreement shall not effect the validity or enforceability of the other portions, which shall all be deemed valid and enforceable to the fullest extent of the law.

40. STRICT COMPLIANCE. Any failure by Sponsor to insist upon strict performance by Purchaser of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of any of the provisions hereof, irrespective of the number of violations or breaches which may occur, and Sponsor, notwithstanding any failure, shall have the right thereafter to insist upon strict performance by Purchaser of any and all of the provisions of this Agreement to be performed by Purchaser.

Section 1. Number: The number of Managers of the Corporation shall not be less than three (3) nor more than seven (7), as may from time to time be herein provided and, in the absence of such provision shall be three (3). Commencing with the first election of Managers by Unit Owners of the Condominium, and until changed by amendment of this By-Law provision, and hereinafter provided, the number of Managers shall be three (3). The number of Managers shall not be decreased to a number less than the number of Managers then in office except at any Annual Meeting of Unit Owners. However, during the period the Sponsor, its Successor Offeror(s) or Designees(s) continue to own 50% or more of the Condominium the number of Managers shall remain fixed at three (3).

Section 2. Powers and Duties: The Board of Managers shall have the powers and duties necessary for the administration of the affairs of the Condominium, as agent of all Unit Owners.

Section 3. Nomination and Election: The Managers shall be elected for a term of one year at the Annual Meeting of Unit Owners or at a Special Meeting called for that purpose as provided by law. Each Condominium Unit shall be entitled to cast one vote for each .01% of Common Interest in the Condominium appurtenant to the Unit, which be cast all for one nominated Manager, or divided among any number of candidates. Their term of office shall be until their respective successors are elected and qualify.

Section 4. Quorum: A majority of the Managers then authorized by these By-Laws shall constitute a quorum.

Section 5. Vacancies: Vacancies in the Board of Managers resulting from death, resignation or otherwise may be filled without notice to any of the Unit Owners by a vote of a majority of the remaining Managers present at the meeting at which such election is held for that purpose promptly after the occurrence of any such vacancy even though no quorum is present. Each person so elected shall be a member of the Board of Managers until a successor shall be elected at the next annual meeting of Unit Owners to serve the remaining term. In the event of the failure to hold any election of Managers at the time designated for the annual election of Managers or in the event that the Board of Managers shall not have filled any such vacancy, a Special Meeting of Unit Owners shall be called to elect a new Board of Managers. Any vacancy created by amendment of these By-Laws shall be filled in the manner provided in the resolution adopting such amendment. In case of a reduction of the authorized number of Managers by amendment of these By-Laws, the Manager, if any, whose term of office shall cease, shall be determined in the manner provided in the resolution adopting such amendment.

Section 6. Meetings: The Board of Managers shall meet immediately after the Annual Meeting of Unit Owners without notice and also whenever called together by any Manager of the Condominium or upon the written request of any three Managers then holding office, upon notice given to each Manager, by delivering personally, mailing or telegraphing the same to him at least two days prior to such meeting at the last address furnished by him to the Condominium. Regular meetings may be held without notice at such times and places as the Board of Manager may determine. Any meeting of the Board at which all the Managers shall be present, or of which notice shall be duly waived by all absentees, either before or after the holding of such meeting, shall be valid for all purposes provided a quorum be present. Meetings of Managers may be held either at the principal office of the Condominium or elsewhere within the State of New York as provided in the notice calling the meeting, unless the Board of Managers by resolution adopt some further limitation in regard thereto. At all meetings of the Board of Managers, each Manager shall be entitled to one vote. The vote of a majority of the Board of Managers present at the time of a vote of a duly constituted meeting shall be the act of the Board of Managers.

Section 7. Resignation and Removal: Any Manager may resign at any time by written notice delivered in person or sent by certified registered mail to the President or Secretary of the Condominium. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, and unless specifically requested acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. Any Manager may be removed from office at any time with or without cause upon the affirmative vote of the Unit Owners whose aggregate vote is at least 51% of the votes of the Condominium at a Unit Owners' meeting duly called for the purpose; provided, however, that the Manager(s) elected by the Holders of "Unsold Units" can be removed only for cause by a vote of a majority of the Unit Owners or without cause by the Holders of Unsold Units.

Section 8. Annual Cash Requirements: The Board of Managers shall, from time to time determine the cash requirements as defined in the Condominium's By-Laws, and fix the terms and manner of payment of Common Charges as more specifically set forth in Article VI. The Board of Manager shall have discretionary power to prescribe the manner of maintaining and operating the Building, to be paid as aforesaid by the Unit Owners. Every such determination by the Board of Managers shall be final and conclusive as to all Unit Owners and any expenditures made by the Condominium's officers or its agent under authority of, or with the approval of, the Board of Managers of the Condominium shall, as against the Unit Owners, be deemed necessarily and properly made for such purpose. Until the earlier of (i) the second anniversary of the First Closing or (ii) such time as the Holders of Unsold Units hold less than 50% of the outstanding votes of the Residential Units, the Board of Managers of the Condominium will not take any of the following actions unless Unit Owners owning at least 51% of the votes of Residential Units of the Condominium approve in writing or by vote, in person or by proxy, at a duly constituted meeting called for such purpose:

a) Increase the number or change the type of employees from that described in the NOTES TO SCHEDULE B of the offering plan;

b) Provide for new or additional services from indicated in the NOTES TO SCHEDULE B, unless the annual cost of such new or additional services, when added to the annual cost of all other services, being provided, is no greater than that provided in said notes;

c) Establish any reserve other than the Reserve and/or Working Capital Funds set forth in the offering plan.

However, notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the Sponsor, as Holder of Unsold Units, or other Holder(s) of Unsold Units, shall not veto the expenses set forth in SCHEDULE B of the offering plan, or expenditures required to comply with applicable laws or regulations.

Section 9. Rules and Regulations: The Board of Managers may from time to time adopt and amend such rules and regulations as it may deem necessary in respect to the Building of the Condominium for the health, safety and convenience of the Unit Owners. Copies thereof and of changes therein shall be furnished to each Unit Owner.

Section 10. Compensation: No Member of the Board of Managers shall receive any compensation from the Condominium for acting as such.

Section 11. Liability of the Board of Managers: The Members of the Board of Managers shall not be liable to the Unit Owners for any mistake of judgment, negligence, or otherwise, except for their own individual willful misconduct or bad faith. The Unit Owners shall indemnify and hold harmless each of the members of the Board of Managers against all contractual liability to others arising out of contracts made by the Board of Managers on behalf of the Condominium unless any such contract shall have been made in bad faith or contrary to the provisions of the Declaration or of these By-Laws. It is intended that the members of the Board of Managers shall have no personal liability with respect to any contract made by them on behalf of the Condominium within the scope of their authority. It is understood and permissible for the original Board of Managers, who are designated by the Sponsor, to contract with the Sponsor and affiliated corporations without fear of being charged with self-dealing. It is also intended that the liability of any Unit Owner arising out of any contract made by the Board of Managers shall be limited to such proportion of the total liability thereunder as his interest in the Common Elements bears to the interest of all the Unit Owners in the Common Elements. Every agreement made by the Board of Managers, or the Managing Agent, or the Manager, on behalf of the Condominium shall provide that the members of the Board of Managers, or the Managing Agent, or the Manager as the case may be, are acting only as agent for the Unit Owners in the Common Elements. Every agreement made by the Board of Managers or by the Managing Agent or by the Manager on behalf of the Condominium shall provide that the members of the Board of Managers, or the Managing Agent, or the Manager, as the case may be, are acting only as agent for the Unit Owners and shall have no personal liability thereunder (except as Unit Owners), and that each Unit Owner's liability thereunder shall be limited to such proportion of the total liability thereunder as his interest in the Common Elements bears to the interest of all Unit Owners in the Common Elements.

OPERATION OF THE PROPERTY

Section 1. Determination of Common Expenses and Fixing of Common Charges: The Board of Managers shall from time to time, and at least annually, prepare a budget for the operation of the Condominium, determine the amount of the Common Charges payable by the Unit Owners to meet the Common Expenses, and allocate and assess such Common Charges and Expenses among the Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests. The Common Expenses shall include, among other things, the cost of all insurance premiums on all policies of insurance required to be or which have been obtained by the Board of Managers pursuant to the provisions of these By-Laws and the fees and disbursements of the Insurance Trustee. The Common Expenses may also include such amount as the Board of Managers may deem proper for the operation and maintenance of the Common Elements including, without limitation, an amount for working capital of the Condominium, for a general operating reserve, for a reserve fund for replacements, and to make up any deficit in the common expenses for any prior year. The Common Expenses may also include such amounts as may be required for the purchase or lease of any Unit whose Owner has elected to sell or lease such Unit, or any Unit which is to be sold at a foreclosure or other judicial sale. The Board of Managers shall advise all Unit Owners promptly, in writing, of the amount of Common Charges and Expenses payable by each of them, respectively, as determined by the Board of Managers, as aforesaid, and shall furnish copies of each budget on which such Common Charges and Expenses are based, to all Unit Owners. Any dispute relating to the expenses to be borne by the Unit Owners shall be submitted to arbitration in accordance with these By-Laws.

The Sponsor or Sponsor-designee shall be responsible for the Common Charges assessed against a Unit owned by it from the date of the First Unit Closing until such Unit is sold to a bona fide purchaser.

Section 2. Insurance: The Board of Managers shall be required to obtain and maintain, to the extent obtainable, the following insurance: (1) fire insurance with extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief endorsements, insuring the Buildings containing the Units (including all of the Units and the fixtures initially installed therein by the Sponsor or by prior construction and any other property usual to the servicing and general occupancy, but not including furniture, furnishings, or other personal property supplied or installed by Unit Owners) together with all service machinery and equipment contained therein and covering the interests of the Condominium, the Board of Managers and all Unit Owners and their mortgagees with certificates of insurance, as their interests may appear, in an amount to be determined by the Board of Managers.

Section 3. Payment of Common Charges: All Unit Owners shall be obligated to pay the Common Charges assessed by the Board of Managers pursuant to the provisions of Section 1 of Article VI at such time or times as the Board of Managers shall determine.

No Unit Owner shall be liable for the payment of any part of the Common Charges assessed against his Unit subsequent to a sale, transfer or other conveyance by him.

Section 4. Collection of Common Charges and Assessments: The Board of Managers shall assess Common Charges against Unit Owners from time to time at least annually and shall take prompt action to collect any Common Charge due from any Unit Owner which remains unpaid for more than thirty (30) days from the due date for payment thereof. The Board of Managers shall also take prompt action to collect any assessment due from any Unit Owner which remains unpaid for more than thirty (30) days from the due date thereof.

Section 5. Default in Payment of Common Charges or Assessments: In the event of default by any Unit Owner in paying to the Board of Managers the Common Charges or any assessment as determined by the Board of Managers, such Unit Owners shall be obligated to pay interest at the highest legal rate on such Common Charges or assessments from the due date thereof, together with all expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by the Board of Managers in any proceeding brought to collect such unpaid Common Charges or assessments. The Board of Managers shall have the right and duty to attempt to recover such Common Charges or assessments, together with interest thereon, and the expenses of the proceeding, including attorney's fees, in an action to recover the same brought against such Unit Owner, or by foreclosure of the lien on such Unit granted by Section 339-z of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, in the manner provided in Section 339-aa thereof. A Unit Owner defaulting in payment of Common Charges or assessments shall not be permitted to vote at any regular or special meeting of Unit Owners.

Section 6. Foreclosure of Liens for Unpaid Common Charges: In any action brought by the Board of Managers to foreclose a lien on a Unit because of unpaid Common Charges, the Unit Owner shall be required to a reasonable rental for the use of his Unit and the plaintiff in such foreclosure action shall be entitled the appointment of a receiver to collect the same. The Board of Managers, acting on behalf of all Unit Owners, shall have the power to purchase such Unit at foreclosure sale and to acquire, hold, lease, mortgage (but not to vote the votes appurtenant to), convey, or otherwise deal with same. A suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid Common Charges shall be maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing the same. The proceeds from the sale of any Unit pursuant to this Section shall be used first to pay the unpaid Common Charges and/or assessments, plus reasonable attorney's fees and administrative costs and any other lawful liens on the defaulting Unit. Amounts above this, if any, will be the property of the defaulting Unit Owner. If after the sale of Unit for the nonpayment of Common Charges and/or assessments, the sale does not recover the full amount due and owing, the Board of Managers has the right to assess all the Unit Owners as a Common Expense for the difference between the amount received by the Condominium from the sale of the Unit and the amount owed to the Condominium.

Section 7. Statement of Common Charges and Assessment: The Board of Managers shall promptly provide any Unit Owner so requesting the same in writing, with a written statement of all unpaid Common Charges due from such Unit Owner.

Section 8. Abatement and Enjoinment of Violations by Unit Owners: The violation of any rule or regulation adopted by the Board of Managers, or the breach of any provision of the Declaration, shall give the Board of Managers the right, in addition to any other right set forth in these By-Laws; (a) upon reasonable notice to the Unit Owner, to enter the Unit in which, or as to which, such violation or breach exists and to summarily abate and remove, at the expense of the defaulting Unit Owner, any structure, thing or condition that may exist therein contrary to the intent and meaning of the provisions hereof (provided, however, that no prior notice shall be required in the event the Board of Managers shall determine that action is immediately necessary for the preservation or safety of the Property of the Condominium or for the safety of residents of the Condominium or other persons or required to avoid the suspension of any necessary service to the Condominium); or (b) to enjoin, abate or remedy by appropriate legal proceedings, either at law or in equity, the continuance of any such breach.

Section 9. Maintenance and Repairs:

a) All maintenance of and repairs to any Unit, ordinary or extraordinary, and to the doors (except painting exterior side of Unit entrance door), windows (except painting exterior side of windows), electrical (except Common Elements), plumbing (except Common Elements) and heating fixtures and air conditioning units within the Unit or belonging to the Unit Owner shall be at the Unit Owner's expense, excepting as otherwise specifically provided herein.

b) All maintenance, repairs and replacements to the General Common Elements as defined in the Declaration, and the painting and decorating of the exterior side of Unit entrance doors and windows shall be made by the Board of Managers as a Common Expense, excepting to the extent that the same are necessitated by the negligence, misuse or neglect of a Unit Owner, in which case such expense shall be charged to such Unit Owner. Maintenance, repair and replacements in or to the Limited Common Elements as defined in the Declaration will be performed as per the Declaration.

Section 10. Restrictions on Use of Units: In order to provide for congenial occupancy of the Property and for the protection of the values of the Units, the use of the Property shall be restricted to and shall be in accordance with the following:

a) The Units shall be used for private residences only, except that a Unit Owner may use his Unit for any home occupation use permitted under applicable zoning law and ordinances, building code or other rules and regulations of governmental authorities having jurisdiction. Any Unit may also be used as a professional office by a resident thereof provided such professional use does not violate zoning regulations and provided further that the prior consent of the Board of Managers to such professional use is obtained. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Sponsor or Sponsor-Designee shall have the right, without charge, (i) to maintain general and sales offices in one or more Units or elsewhere on the Property, to use one or more Units as models and for other promotional purposes and to erect and maintain signs on the Property; (ii) to have its employees, contractors and sales agents present on the Property; (iii) to do all things necessary or appropriate, including the use of the Common Elements, to sell or lease Units and to complete construction of the Building and to comply with its obligations.

b) The Common Elements shall be used only for the furnishing of the services and facilities for which they are reasonably suited and which are incident to the use and occupancy of Units.

c) No nuisances shall be allowed on the Property nor shall any use or practice be allowed which is a source of annoyance to its residents or which interferes with the peaceful possession or proper use of the Property by its residents.

d) No unlawful use shall be made of the Property of any part thereof, and all valid laws, zoning ordinances and regulations of all governmental bodies having jurisdiction thereof shall be observed. Violations of laws, orders, rules, regulations or requirements of any governmental agency having jurisdiction thereof, relating to any portion of the Property, shall be eliminated, by and at the sole expense of the Unit Owners, or the Board of Managers, whichever shall have the obligation to maintain or repair such portion of the Property.

e) No portion of a Unit or other Limited Common Elements appurtenant thereto (other than the entire Unit including the Limited Common Elements appurtenant thereto), may be separately rented.

Section 11. Additions, Alterations or Improvements by Unit Owners:

No Unit Owner shall make any structural addition, alteration or improvement in or to his Unit, or which affects the exterior of the Building's Units, without prior written consent thereto of the Board of Managers. The Board of Managers shall have the obligation to answer in writing any written request by a Unit Owner for approval of a proposed structural addition, alteration or improvement in such Unit Owner's Unit, within thirty (30) days after such request, and failure to do so within the stipulated time shall constitute a consent by the Board of Managers to the proposed addition, alteration, or improvement. An application to any department of the City of New York or to any other governmental authority for a permit to make an addition, alteration or improvement in or to any Unit shall be executed by the Board of Managers only, without however, incurring any liability on the part of the Board of Managers or any of them to any contractor, subcontractor, or material man on account of such addition, alteration or improvement, or to any person having any claim for injury to person or damage to property arising therefrom.

In the event the Board of Managers grants its consent, either affirmatively or by its inaction, to any structural addition, alteration or improvement to be made by a Unit Owner, the consent shall provide that any such work shall be at the Unit Owner's sole cost and expense, that work shall be done in accordance with all governmental or quasi-governmental laws, rules, regulations, codes and ordinances, that all work shall be done by reputable contractors with adequate liability, property damage and worker's compensation insurances (certificates for which shall be delivered to the Board of Managers prior to the commencement of construction), that any additions, alterations or improvements, shall be maintained in their entirety by said Unit Owner who shall also be responsible for any repairs, including structural repairs, to such area in any event, and to the Unit and any Common Elements where such repairs become necessary due to additional stresses caused by the structural alteration, addition or improvement, or due to improper design or construction of the structural alteration, addition or improvement, and such approval shall further provide that the Unit Owner shall reimburse the Board of Managers any out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Board of Managers in connection with the granting of such approval and in connection with any services provided to such alteration, addition or improvement; such expenses may include, but shall not be limited to, any fees of an attorney and/or fees of an architect consulted in connection with any request by a Unit Owner for approval of such work.

The provisions of this Section 11 which requires the consent of the Board of Managers in connection with a structural addition, alteration or improvement shall not apply to Units owned by the Sponsor or its designee. All other provisions of this Section 11 shall apply to all Units.

Section 12. Use of Common Elements and Facilities: A Unit Owner shall not place or cause to be placed in the lobby, public halls, stairways or other common areas or common facilities, any furniture, packages or objects of any kind. The public halls and stairways shall be used for no purpose other than for normal transit through them. The Sponsor and any Sponsor-Designee shall have the right to use of the Common Elements, without charge, for the purpose set forth in Section II of this Article VI.

Section 13. Right of Access: A Unit Owner shall grant a right of access to his Unit, to the Manager and/or any other person authorized by the Board of Managers, the Manager or the Managing Agent, for the purpose of making inspections or for the purpose of correcting any condition originating in his Unit and threatening another Unit or a Common Element, or for the purpose of performing installations, alterations or repairs to the mechanical or electrical services or other Common Elements in his Unit or elsewhere in the Building in which the Unit is located, provided that requests for entry are made in advance and that any such entry is at a time reasonably convenient to the Unit Owner. In case of an emergency, such right of entry shall be immediate, whether the Unit Owner is present at the time or not. In the event of the exercise of the right of access provided in this Section 13, any costs for repairs shall be borne in accordance with the provisions of Section 10 of this Article VI. Each Unit Owner will be required to give a copy of his/her keys to his/her Unit to the President of the Board of Managers who shall designate an authorized person or persons to keep the keys and use them in case of an emergency.

Section 14. Rules of Conduct: Rules and Regulations concerning the use of the Units and the Common Elements may be promulgated and amended by the Board of Managers. A majority vote of Unit Owners at a meeting may overrule the Board. Copies of such rules and regulations shall be furnished by the Board of Managers to each Unit Owner prior to the time when the same shall become effective. Initial rules and regulations, which shall be effective until amended by the Board of Managers are annexed hereto and made a part hereof as Schedule A.

Section 15. Water Charges and Sewer Rents: Water shall be supplied to all of the Units and the Common Elements through one or more building meters or pursuant to a frontage charge and, the Board of Managers shall pay, as a Common Expense except for the Commercial Unit which shall be separately metered and billed, all charges for water consumed on the Property and in the Units, together with all related sewer rents arising therefrom, promptly after the bills for the same shall have been rendered. In the event of a proposed sale of a Unit by the Owner thereof, the Board of Managers, on request of the selling Unit Owner, shall execute and deliver to the purchaser of such Unit or to the purchaser's title insurance company, a letter agreeing to pay all charges for water and sewer rents affecting the Property as of the date of closing of title to such Unit promptly after such charges shall have been billed. The Commercial Unit or Units shall be entitled to a credit against common charges for the portion of such common charges allocable to water/sewer charges for residential Units.

Section 4. Examination of Books: Each Unit Owner and each mortgagee of a Unit shall be permitted to examine the books of account of the Condominium at reasonable times, on business days.

ARTICLE VIII

Section 1. Condemnation: In the event of a taking in condemnation or by eminent domain of part or all of the Common Elements, the award made for such taking shall be payable to the Board of Managers, if such award amounts to $50,000.00 or less, and to the Insurance Trustee if such award amounts to more than $50,000.00. If seventy-five (75%) percent or more of the Unit Owners duly and promptly approve the repair and restoration of such Common Elements, the Board of Managers or the Insurance Trustee, as the case may be, shall arrange for the repair and restoration of such Common Elements, and the Board of Managers or the Insurance Trustee, as the case may be, shall disburse the proceeds of such award to the contractors engaged in such repair and restoration in appropriate progress payments. In the event that seventy-five (75%) percent or more of the Unit Owners do not duly and promptly approve the repair and restoration of such Common Element, the Board of Managers shall disburse the net proceeds of such award in the same manner as they are required to distribute insurance proceeds where there is no repair or restoration of the damage, as provided in Section 3 of Article VI of these By-Laws. Sponsor or its designees will not vote its interests appurtenant to any Unsold Units for such withdrawal unless at least eighty (80%) percent in number and in Common Interest of all other Unit Owners have elected for such withdrawal, in which event the Sponsor may choose to vote in favor of or against such withdrawal. In the event said withdrawal is authorized as aforesaid, the Property shall be subject to an action for partition by any Unit Owner or lienor as if owned in common, in which event the net proceeds of sale shall be divided among all the Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests. However, no payment shall be made to a Unit Owner until all liens to which his/her Unit are subject are paid off.

RE: 42 and 52 Broadway
Brooklyn, New York

The sponsor of the offering plan to convert the captioned property to condominium ownership has retained our firm to prepare a report describing the construction and/or renovation of the property (hereinafter "the Report"). I visually inspected existing portions of the renovated property, if any. In addition to preparing the Building Plans and Specifications dated November 9, 1998, we also prepared a report dated November 18, 1999, a copy of which is intended to be incorporated into the offering plan so that prospective purchasers may rely thereupon. I am a registered architect in the State in which the property is located.

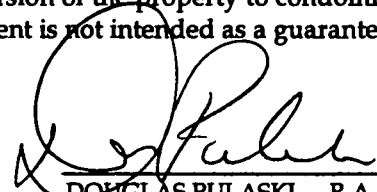

I understand that I am responsible for complying with Article 23-A of the General Business Law, and the regulations promulgated by the Department of Law in Part 20, insofar as they are applicable to this report.

I have read the entire report and investigated the facts set forth therein and the facts underlying it with due diligence in order to form a basis for this certification. This certification is made for the benefit of all persons to whom this offer is made. I certify that the Report does:

- (i) set forth in narrative form the description and/or physical condition of the entire property as it will exist upon completion of construction, provided that construction is in accordance with the Plans and specifications which I examined.
- (ii) in our professional opinion, afford potential investors, purchasers, and participants an adequate basis upon which to found their judgment concerning the description and/or physical condition of the property as it will exist upon completion of construction, provided that construction is in accord with the Plans and specifications which I examined.
- (iii) not omit any material fact;
- (iv) not contain any untrue statement of material fact;
- (v) does not contain any fraud, deception, concealment or suppression;

- (vi) not contain any promise or representation as to the future which is beyond reasonable expectation or unwarranted by existing circumstances.
- (vii) does not contain any statement or representation as to the future which is false, where I:
 - (a) knew the truth;
 - (b) with reasonable effort could have known the truth;
 - (c) made no reasonable effort to ascertain the truth;
or
 - (d) did not have knowledge concerning the representation or statements made.

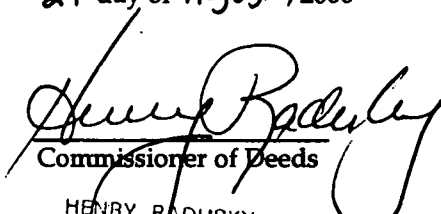

I further certify that I am not owned or controlled by, and have no beneficial interest, in the Sponsors, and that my compensation for preparing the Report is not contingent on the conversion of the property to condominium ownership, or on the profitability or price of the Offering. This statement is not intended as a guarantee or warranty of the physical condition of the property.
