CONDOMINIUM OFFERING PLAN FOR
THE AMSTERDAM CONDOMINIUM

SPECIAL RISKS

This Offering Plan is subject to a number of special factors which should be carefully considered by every prospective purchaser. Prospective purchasers are further urged to visit the premises of the Condominium and to consult with their attorneys and financial advisors before executing a Purchase Agreement. The special factors are as follows:

1. All Units, which will be sold pursuant to this Plan, will be sold subject to a right of First Refusal in favor of the Board of Managers of the Condominium incorporated in the Deed to each Unit (Exhibit "C" to Part II of this Plan) which is discussed in this Plan under the heading "Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners".

2. Purchaser's failure to strictly adhere to all time periods set forth in the purchase agreement or to pay the balance on the Closing Date designated by Sponsor is an event of default which entitles the Sponsor to cancel the Purchase Agreement by sending Purchaser 15 days prior written notice of its intention to do so. See section entitled "Procedure to Purchase" contained in Part I of the Plan. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE TO REMEDY SUCH DEFAULT WITHIN SAID

PERIOD, meaning that Purchaser must comply with all applicable time periods under the terms of the Purchase Agreement, or the Purchaser shall be held in default, unless an extension of time is agreed upon between the parties.

3. Inasmuch as the Units are presently not as yet complete, prospective purchasers will be required to execute binding Purchase Agreements without having an opportunity to inspect the Unit prior to its completion, unless the Building has been completed at such time. See paragraph entitled Unit Information and section entitled "Procedure to Purchase" contained in Part I of the Plan.

4. Purchaser's obligation to purchase a Unit contracted for is not contingent upon Purchaser's obtaining a mortgage or other financing for such Unit. Therefore, a purchaser will be obligated to close whether or not he has obtained financing. See section entitled "Procedure to Purchase" contained in Part I of the Plan.

5. The Sponsor has retained control of the Board of Managers in the following manner:

(i) So long as Sponsor owns Units representing 30% or more in Common Interest, the Sponsor shall have the right to elect two (2) of the three (3) members of the Board of Managers.

(ii) So long as Sponsor owns Units representing less than 30% in Common Interest, the Sponsor shall have the right to elect one (1) of the three (3) members of the Board of Managers.

(iii) In no event shall the Sponsor retain voting control after two years from the date of closing of title to the first Unit sold.

(iv) So long as the Sponsor or its designee shall continue to own Units representing 25% or more in Common Interest the Board of Managers may not: (a) increase the number or change the type of employees from that described in Schedule B, (b) provide for new or additional services from those indicated on Schedule B, (c) impose any assessment or charges against Unit Owners for improvement or additions unless required by Law, (d) establish any reserves for contingencies, repairs, improvements or replacements. See section entitled "Control By The Sponsor".

6. Units are being offered for sale as expressly set forth in the Description of Property and Specifications, Exhibit "D" to this Plan. Unit Owners will be responsible for the cost of electric and gas consumed in the Unit for cooking, heating, cooling and hot water and costs are not included as common charges. See Schedule "A" contained in Part I of the Plan.

7. The Sponsor may declare the plan effective by entering into a valid contract for sale for a minimum of fifteen percent of the apartments in the building. In addition, Sponsor has reserved the right to lease or sublet any unsold Unit. See section entitled "Effective Date".

Purchasers should note that in the current real estate market, bank and other lenders are imposing various restrictions on loans. Such restrictions include requiring that a certain percentage (such as 35% of 50%) of the Units in the building be sold before the lender will consider making the loan. Thus it may be possible for a purchaser to experience difficulty obtaining a loan in a building where the percentage of units purchased is lower than a lender's particular sales minimum.

Even once a building undergoes conversion, lenders may still impose minimum sales requirements before granting a loan. It then may be difficult for a purchaser to resell an apartment if prospective buyers are unable to obtain a loan due to such minimum sales requirements.

8. The Sponsor has reserved the unrestricted right to sell, assign, mortgage, lease or sublet any unsold unit at any time after the recording of the Declaration without first offering such unit to the Condominium. See section entitled "Rights and Obligations of the Sponsor".

9. No bond or other security has been furnished to secure the performance of the Sponsor's obligations under this plan. See section entitled "Rights and Obligations of the Sponsor".

10. Although Sponsor has submitted an application and on January 18, 2000 has received a Preliminary Certificate of Eligibility from the Department of Housing Preservation and Development, and the property is eligible for 421-A real estate tax abatement benefits, the Purchasers must note that there is no guarantee that the building will obtain tax abatement benefits. See Schedule "A" and Section entitled "Real Estate Taxes" both contained in Part I of the Plan.

11. All funds received by the Sponsor for upgrades or extras must initially be placed in the escrow account. Purchasers should note that such funds may be released from the escrow account by the escrow agent as long as the Sponsor uses the funds for such upgrades or extras. As a result, in the event a purchaser is entitled to rescission, the purchaser will not receive a refund on any funds used for upgrades or extras. See section entitled "Procedure to Purchase" contained in Part I of the Plan.

12. Purchasers are required to pay the New York City and State Real Property Transfer Taxes, currently assessed at 1% and .004% respectively, of the purchase price of the Unit, for conveyances up to $500,000, if any, which taxes are statutorily the primary obligation of a Seller of real property. See section entitled "Unit Closing Costs and Adjustments" contained in Part I of the Plan.

13. Pursuant to the terms of paragraph six of the Purchase Agreement, the purchaser shall be obligated to pay a $75 survey charge, and a $450.00 legal fee for the filing and securing of Section 421-A tax exemption benefits since Sponsor has obtained the Preliminary Certificate of Eligibility. Purchasers will also be obligated to pay Sponsor's attorney's fees of $450.00 for closing costs.

In addition, each purchaser shall be responsible for the payment of fees to his own attorney. The estimated closing costs including but not limited to mortgage and fee title policy premiums and the recording charges and the mortgage and transfer tax rates set forth above are based on the rates, premiums, charges and taxes in effect as of the date of this Offer Plan. If said premiums, charges, rates or taxes subsequently revised by the title company, the State, or Municipality, each purchaser shall be required to pay the title policy premiums, recording charges and mortgage and transfer taxes in effect as of the date of the closing of title to the Unit. If purchaser does not use Madison Title Agency located at 1072 Madison Avenue, Lakewood, New Jersey 08071, as the title company, they will have to pay an additional $250.00.

14. Pursuant to regulations of the City of New York, no below grade rooms (i.e., recreation rooms) for the use of the individual Unit Purchasers may be used as either bedrooms or living rooms. To do so could result in a violation being issued to the Unit Owner. See Architects Description contained in Part II of the Plan for units which contain below grade rooms.

15. The Condominium will not have any full time management of maintenance employees. This may necessitate delay and/or additional expense in the event repairs are required. Should a management firm be retained, common charges will increase proportionately. See Schedule "B" contained in Part I of the Plan.

16. The Building will have only one water meter for the Units. The Plan provides that the charges for water and sewer (which are part of the common charges) are to be divided according to the percentage of interest of each unit. See Schedule B and section entitled Budget for the First Year of Condominium Operation.

17. Purchaser should note that if they enter into a Purchase Agreement for a Unit or Units which is occupied by a tenant, and said tenant does not voluntarily move from the Unit when its lease expires or is terminated, then Purchaser shall be required to obtain possession at its own expense. See section entitled Rights and Obligations of the Unit Owners and the Board of Managers.

18. Units are being offered for sale with no kitchen appliances whatsoever and Purchasers should note that they will be responsible for the purchase of appliances for their unit. See Exhibit D to the plan which provides what Sponsor is providing.

INTRODUCTION

Better Choice Development, LLC., herein called "Sponsor", presents this Offering Plan ("Plan") for the establishment of condominium ownership of a parcel land, situated on the south east corner of Avenue S and East 14th Street, in the Borough of Brooklyn, County of Kings, City and State of New York. Sponsor acquired the land and building which will constitute the condominium on December 31, 1998. This Plan is to establish a condominium to be known as the Amsterdam Condominium.

The purpose of the Plan is to set forth all the material terms of the offer. The Plan is presented in two parts (in one volume) which together constitute the entire Plan. Part I sets forth a general description of the Plan and Part II contains the basic documents necessary to create the Condominium and otherwise effectuate the provisions of the Plan. Also included in Part II is a detailed physical description of the property which will be included in the Condominium, legal opinions and certifications as to certain matters discussed in the Plan. Amendments to the Plan will be served on all offerees, i.e., purchasers who have executed and delivered purchase agreements to the Sponsor or selling agent and are not in default, unit owners, and any other person entitled to service pursuant to local law or regulation. All of these documents are important and should be carefully read by a prospective purchaser.

PURCHASERS ARE ADVISED TO CONSULT WITH THEIR OWN ATTORNEYS AND OR OTHER ADVISORS AND PROVIDE THEM WITH A COPY OF THIS PLAN BEFORE AGREEING TO PURCHASE.

The Condominium

The Condominium is located on the south east corner of Avenue S and East 14th Street, Brooklyn, New York. The Condominium will consist of one four story brick masonry building with cellar, containing eight (8) residential units and three (3) parking spaces. There are no common recreational facilities.

Features of Condominium Ownership

The ownership of a Unit is similar in many respects to the ownership of a private home. Each Unit Owner owns fee title to the Unit and is entitled to the exclusive possession thereof. The Unit Owner also owns, in common with the owners of all other Units, an undivided fee interest in the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements which, as more particularly set forth herein and in the Declaration, include all parts of the Property other than the Units themselves, such as the land and the roofs, foundations and supports of the Building.

Subject to certain conditions contained in the By-Laws, each Unit Owner has the right, in his own discretion, to mortgage his Unit on such terms and conditions as he desires. However, the Board of Managers of the Condominium has certain rights of first refusal as set forth in the Unit Deeds and the By-Laws.

Primary responsibility for operating the Condominium rests with the Board of Managers who are elected by the Unit Owners. The Board of Managers of the Condominium (hereinafter more particularly described) will assess against each Unit Owner, in proportion to his respective interests in the Common Elements, charges (hereinafter called Common Charges) for the maintenance of the Common Elements and for the operating costs of the Condominium (hereinafter called Common Expenses). These must be paid in accordance with the New York Condominium Act, Sections 339(i) and (m).

In addition to the payment of Common Charges, each Unit Owner will be responsible for the payment of the real estate taxes which will be separately assessed against his Unit, and charges for electricity and gas consumed in his Unit. Water charges and sewer rents, unless separately assessed to Unit Owners by the City of New York, and the costs and expenses of electricity with respect to the Common Elements, will be paid by the Unit Owners and will be a Common Charge. See "Schedule B - Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation" in Part I of this Plan, for a more detailed discussion of Common Charges. See also "Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners" in Part I of this Plan. Each Unit Owner, upon obtaining title, will automatically have a right to vote at the first annual meeting of Unit Owners, and at all meetings thereafter, for the election of the Board of Managers.

A Unit Owner may decorate the interior of his Unit as he chooses, subject to compliance with the By-Laws (and any Rules and Regulations promulgated in accordance therewith), and will be solely responsible for the cost of maintenance and interior repairs and for casualty and liability insurance for the Unit after closing. The Unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes, and no Unit owner will be responsible for the payments of, nor will his Unit be subject to any lien arising from the non-payment of taxes on other Units. In the opinion of S. Seth Yanve, Esquire, counsel to Sponsor, under present income tax laws, a Unit Owner, similarly to a homeowner, may deduct from his income, for Federal, New York State and New York City income tax purposes, the real estate taxes and the interest paid on the mortgage of his Unit, if any, subject to the normal limitations contained in the applicable statutes. See "Income Tax Deductions to Unit Owners and Tax Status of the Condominium", in Part I of this Plan.

The statute concerning condominiums in effect in the State of New York pursuant to which the Condominium will be organized is Article 9-B of the New York Real Property Law, as amended, commonly known as and hereinafter called the "Condominium Act". The Condominium will be subject to and will comply with the provisions of the Condominium Act. The Sponsor will record the Declaration of Condominium, the By-Laws and a Declaration of Easements, Covenants and Restrictions in the Office of the City Register, Kings County, at the time the Plan is declared effective. From and after the date of recording the Declaration and By-Laws, the Sponsor will be the owner of all Units until they are sold and conveyed to the Purchasers thereof.

The prices for the Units offered for sale under this Plan are listed in Schedule A entitled "Offering Prices and Related Information" in Part I of this Plan. Such prices have been set by the Sponsor alone, and are not subject to review or approval by any governmental agency.

The estimated Common Charges for each Unit for the first year of operation of the Property as a condominium are also set forth in Schedule A.

THESE PRICES HAVE BEEN SET BY THE SPONSOR BUT ARE NOT SUBJECT TO APPROVAL BY THE DEPARTMENT OF LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK OR ANY OTHER GOVERNMENTAL AGENCY.

The Plan, including all Schedules and Exhibits, constitutes the entire offer by the Sponsor and contains all of the material terms of the transaction. Copies of this Plan, all documents referred to in the Plan, and all Exhibits submitted to the Department of Law in connection with the filing of this Plan will be available for inspection without charge and for copying at a reasonable charge to prospective purchasers and their attorneys at the site whenever the on-site sales office is open and at the office of the selling agent or sponsor. The Plan may be amended from time to time upon filing an amendment with the New York State Department of Law and service of such an amendment upon Purchasers and Unit Owners.

The Sponsor has not knowingly omitted any material facts and this Plan does not contain any untrue statement of any material fact. The documents reprinted in Part II are exact copies of the originals.

THE PURCHASE OF A CONDOMINIUM UNIT HAS MANY SIGNIFICANT LEGAL AND FINANCIAL CONSEQUENCES. THE ATTORNEY GENERAL STRONGLY URGES YOU TO READ THIS OFFERING PLAN CAREFULLY AND TO CONSULT WITH AN ATTORNEY BEFORE SIGNING A PURCHASE AGREEMENT.

For the first year of condominium operation:

Commencing: February 15, 2001

Ending: February 14, 2002

Units 1A and 1B contain below grade recreation space which can not be used as bedrooms or living rooms - to do so is a violation.

All other Units (floors two through four) will have assigned individual cellar storage room space.

Units 2A, 2B, 3A, 3B, 4A and 4B contain a 58 square foot balcony at the front of the building.

FOOTNOTES TO SCHEDULE A

A. The number of rooms in all of the Residential Units were calculated as follows: each bedroom is counted as a room, the kitchen area as a room and the living/dining area as a room. Floor plans for the Units, which indicate the square footage of each, are attached under Exhibit D contained in Part II of Plan. All Units have a laundry area located within the Unit and a storage area for the use of the Unit located in the basement. In addition, the two first floor Units have access to basement recreation space for the use of their Unit.

B. The prices and terms of sale for these Condominium Units may be changed so that purchasers may pay different prices for similar interests. The prices are negotiable. The effect of this is set forth at Changes In Prices of Units, Part I. The Purchaser shall also have to pay closing costs and adjustments in an amount which is dependent on the amount of Purchaser's purchase money mortgage, if any, and the purchase price of the unit. Each Purchaser will be responsible for the New York State transfer tax currently assessed at .004% of the purchase price, and the New York City Real Property Transfer Tax, currently assessed at 1% of the purchase price, imposed on the transfer of the Unit, currently assessed at a small percentage (in the aggregate) of the purchase price for the Unit. All closing costs that a Purchaser will be responsible for are set forth in the section entitled Units Closing Costs and Adjustments contained in Part I of this Plan, which includes a payment of an additional two months common charges, which will be placed in a working capital fund for the building.

C. The percentage of interest in the Common Elements applicable to each Unit was determined by Sponsor based upon the floor area of each unit in approximate proportion to the size of each unit in relationship to the building size as a whole pursuant to Real Property Law Section 339-i 1(iv).

D. Based upon Estimate of Receipts and Expenses for first year of operation prepared by Sponsor and attached to Plan as Schedule B. If the Purchaser obtains financing in order to purchase a unit, debt services on such financing will be an additional monthly expense.

The projected Common Charges do not include housing costs for which the Unit Owner is generally responsible such as repairs to the interior of the Unit and separately metered electricity and gas. See Schedule B-1 for the estimated consumption and costs of these items.

E. The Sponsor has submitted an application to the New York City Department of Housing Preservation and Development ("HPD") for a Preliminary Certificate of Eligibility for partial real estate tax exemption benefits under Section 11-243 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York ("421-A Tax Abatement Program"). Sponsor's expert, Moseson & Associates, 769 Empire Avenue, Far Rockaway, New York, has issued an opinion letter indicating that the Residential Units will be eligible to receive these benefits based on certain assumptions and conditions set forth therein. This opinion letter is reproduced in full in Part II of the Plan, Exhibit M.

If 421-A benefits are granted, the real estate tax assessment increase, payable by Residential Unit Owners with respect to their Units during the fifteen (15) years of Condominium operation will, in essence, be exempt. Please note however, that this exemption may not commence during the first year of condominium operation, the 2000/2001 tax year, if preliminary approval for 421-A status may not as of yet have been received, and Units Owners should be aware that they may be responsible for the full tax assess against the Condominium during the first year of operation. Reference should be made to the "Special Risk" section and "Real Estate Tax Exemption Benefits" section, for a full discussion of the effects of 421-A upon the real estate taxes payable by Unit Owners.

No warranty is made as to whether a Preliminary and Final Certificate of Eligibility will be issued by HPD for 421-A tax abatement benefits or as to the amount of any tax exemption that will actually be received. In addition, no representation or warranty is made that the actual assessed valuation or the assessed valuation for the Property if tax benefits are granted will be as projected above, that the projected tax rate will be in effect for all or any portion of the Property during the first year of Condominium operation or that real estate taxes will be allocated among Units in proportion to their appurtenant Common Interest. In no event will Sponsor, Sponsor's Counsel, the Selling Agent or any offeror hereunder be liable to any Purchaser under this Plan, nor will any Purchaser have the right to rescind his Purchase Agreement, in the event tax exemption benefits are not granted or, if granted, in the event the amount of such exemption and the resulting taxes differ from those projected.

The projected amount herein only consists of real estate taxes for Units. However, if Purchaser obtains financing in order to purchase a Unit, interest paid on the sum financed is tax deductible as well. Thus, the projected amount deductible for income tax purposes may vary in subsequent years due to changes in the interest rate on the financing obtained by purchasers (mortgage), if any, refinancing the mortgage, the allocation of constant debt service payments between interest and principal or due to changes in the assessed valuation, the tax rate, or in the method of assessing real property which result in a change in real property taxes, or such other changes as may reasonably be expected to affect deductions.

F. If for any reason the aforesaid tax exemption under 421-A is not granted, it is estimated that the aggregate real estate taxes payable with respect to all Units for the 2001/2002 tax year will total approximately $5,990.00 assuming (a) an aggregate assessed valuation for the Property of $200,000 for said twelve (12) month period, and (b) a tax rate of 10.851% per $100.00 of assessed valuation. In such event and based upon such assumptions, the monthly real estate taxes for a Unit will be based on the estimated assessed valuation and prorated using each units percentage of Common Elements.

E. For the projected real estate taxes after the condominium is divided into individual tax lots, each unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes and the unit owner will not be responsible for the payment of, nor will the unit be subject to, any lien arising from the non-payment of taxes on other units. In addition, the Sponsor will not pay any real estate taxes of any unit owner for the first year of condominium operation if 421-A benefits are not granted.

FOOTNOTES TO SCHEDULE B

1. Common charges:

The estimate of Annual Common Charges to be collected during the first year of condominium operation is based upon a projection of the total amount of common charges that will be levied against the individual units.

If the actual or anticipated date of commencement of condominium operation is delayed more than six (6) months from the budget year projected in the offering plan, the plan will be amended to include a revised budget disclosing current projections. If such amended projections exceed the original projections by twenty-five percent (25%) or more, the Sponsor will offer all Purchasers the right to rescind within fifteen (15) days after the date of presentation to exercise the right, whether or not Sponsor offers to guarantee the previous budget projection, and will return any deposit or downpayment to Purchasers who so rescind. Sponsor will not declare a plan effective where there are any material changes to the budget if these changes have not been disclosed by a filed amendment to the Plan.

2. Salaries and Wages - The nature and extent of the common areas do not require any specific allocation for labor, and Sponsor represents that none is required under applicable laws. A small allowance has been budgeted if work in the common areas is needed. Any help that may be required will be done on an "ad hoc" basic. Each Unit Owner will be responsible for his own refuse removal and keeping the common areas clear of objects and refuse.

3. Gas/Heating/Cooling - Each Unit will be individually heated by a separate heating unit, and gas will also be used for cooking and hot water. Air conditioning sleeves are provided for cooling. Common area heating however, has been estimated at $512.00 annually. Budgets for individual Unit costs are set forth in Schedule B-1.

4. Electric - This item includes the cost of electricity to the common areas of the building. The cost of electricity to the units is separately metered and the charges therefore will be paid directly to the utility company by the Unit Owners. A projection is set forth in Schedule B-1. The cost of electricity to the common areas is $1,828.00. This includes an inflation factor and is based on information provided to Sponsor's Architect by the Consolidated Edison Company. Electric is billed at 29.70 cents for the first 266.7 KWH, thereafter at 13.87 cents and sales tax is charged at 4%.

5. Water/Sewer - The budget estimate for this item, in the amount of $1,541 is based upon metering of the estimated water consumption of approximately 150 gallons per day per unit and 150 gallons per day in waste, as converted to cubic feet at the rate of $1.01 per 100 cubic feet. Basic water is billed at 1.31 cents for one cubic foot which is 748 gallons, sewer costs are 159% of the water charge. There is no sales tax assessed on water and sewer charges.

NOTE: THE BUILDING WILL HAVE ONLY ONE WATER METER FOR THE APARTMENTS. THE PLAN PROVIDES THAT THE CHARGES FOR WATER AND SEWER (WHICH ARE PART OF THE COMMON CHARGES) ARE TO BE DIVIDED EQUALLY FOR ALL UNITS, EVEN THOUGH ONE UNIT MAY USE MORE WATER THAN THE OTHERS.

6. Repair and Maintenance - Inasmuch as the Building is new construction, repairs and maintenance should be minimal. However, it has been estimated that the sum allocated will be sufficient for expenses in connection with the general repairs and maintenance needed to maintain the public areas. The budgeted figure is based upon an estimation of repairs to the common interior of the building, common plumbing and electric, its roof and exterior. The projected amount does not include repairs, painting, maintenance or supplies for the interior of the Units all of which are the responsibility of the individual Unit Owners. All Unit Owners will also be responsible for maintaining the common area immediately in front of their Unit. The Board shall be responsible for all other routine maintenance. No funds are being provided for future capital improvements. At the present time there are no maintenance contracts. If any services are needed (i.e., exterminating, plumbing, electrical) the Contingency Fund will be used.

7. Insurance - Insurance coverage is estimated based upon a projection in a letter from a licensed insurance broker, Ezra Hes of Freidman Associates, 350 5th Avenue, New York, New York 10118, providing for the following coverage:

DESCRIPTION AND COVERAGE:

Property:

Scope of Coverage:

Limits:

Building Replacement Cost:
Deductible Per Loss:

$1,000,000
1,000

Business Income:

50,000

Comprehensive General Liability:

Combined Single Limit: each occurrence	$1,000,000
General Aggregate:	$2,000,000
Boiler Insurance:	$1,000,000

The $1,000,000 coverage limit is based on the current replacement cost for the building (excluding excavation and foundation) which is adequate so that the insured shall not be a co-insured.

The premium has been estimated for the complete and occupied condominium based on Standard New York Policy and forms. The policy will provide: that each unit owner is an additional insured; that there will be no cancellations without notice to the Board of Managers and unit owners; a waiver of subrogation; a waiver of invalidity because of the acts of the insured and unit owners, and a waiver of pro-rata reduction if Unit Owners obtain additional coverage.

It is recommended that the Unit Owners obtain additional insurance, at their own individual cost, to cover such risks as:

1. fire and casualty losses to the unit contents; furniture or personal property;
2. replacements;
3. additions;
4. upgraded fixtures and improvement;
5. unit owner's liability coverage for occurrences within the unit or Limited Common Elements.

8. Management Fees - No management fees have been budgeted since the management of the Condominium will be done by the Unit Owners.

9. Legal and Audit Fees - Provides for the preparation of annual audited financial statement of the Condominium and the filing of its Federal, State and City tax returns. A small allowance is also allocated for minor legal services ($500.00). Sponsors accountant, Chris Theoharis, CPA, at 6917 Fort Hamilton Parkway, Brooklyn, New York 11228, will provide yearly financial statements and has prepared a fee quotation in the amount of $850.00.

10. Contingency - This item is to provide a fund for possible increase in one or more of the operating expenses or for any unanticipated expenses. This budget item does not include a reserve for capital replacements or repairs since the building is undergoing rehabilitation. At this time the Sponsor has no knowledge of any capital improvements that may have to be made during the first five (5) years of condominium operation and no amount has been provided for such purposes.

IN THE OPINION OF THE REAL ESTATE EXPERT, THE PROJECTED RECEIPTS ARE ADEQUATE TO MEET THE ESTIMATED EXPENSE FOR THE BOARD OF MANAGERS' FIRST YEAR OF OPERATION, ASSUMING SUCH FIRST YEAR TO BE THE FISCAL YEAR COMMENCING NOVEMBER 1, 2000, THE FOREGOING SCHEDULE, HOWEVER, IS NOT INTENDED AND SHOULD NOT BE TAKEN AS A GUARANTEE BY ANYONE THAT THE ANNUAL COMMON CHARGES OR EXPENSES FOR THE FIRST YEAR OR ANY SUBSEQUENT YEAR OF OPERATION OF THE BUILDING BY THE BOARD OF MANAGERS WILL BE AS SET FORTH IN SAID SCHEDULE AND IT IS LIKELY THAT THE ACTUAL ANNUAL COMMON CHARGES OR EXPENSES WILL VARY FROM THE ACTUAL AMOUNTS SHOWN IN THE SCHEDULE.

THE SPONSOR HAS RESERVED THE RIGHT TO MODIFY, RENEW AND REPLACE EXISTING SERVICE, MAINTENANCE, EMPLOYMENT CONCESSIONAIRE AND OTHER AGREEMENTS AND INSURANCE POLICIES, AND TO ENTER INTO NEW AGREEMENT AND POLICIES THAT WILL BE BINDING ON THE BOARD OF MANAGERS ON THE CLOSING DATE. ANY SUCH NEW AGREEMENT WHICH HAS THE EFFECT OF MATERIALLY INCREASING COMMON CHARGES OR IS BINDING ON THE BOARD OF MANAGERS FOR MORE THAN TWO YEARS WILL BE DISCLOSED BY A DULY FILED AMENDMENT TO THIS PLAN.

COMPLIANCE WITH REAL PROPERTY LAW SECTION 339(i)

December 22, 2000
The Amsterdam Avenue Condominium
1400 Avenue S
Brooklyn, New York 11229

Re: The Amsterdam Avenue Condominium

Dear Sirs:

I am the attorney representing the Sponsor of this offering plan. I am neither the selling agent nor managing agent for this property.

I have been involved in Real Estate Law and the preparation and filing of Offering Plans in the State of New York for the last eleven years.

The method selected for calculating the percentage of common interests in the condominium pursuant to Real Property Law Section 339-i is subparagraph 1 (iv), which provides:

"(iv) the interest of each of the units shall be aggregate to the floor area of each unit in approximate proportion to the size of each unit in relationship of the building size as a whole pursuant to Real Property Law Section 339-i 1 (iv)."

Accordingly, the common interests in this condominium have been allocated based on the above, and in my opinion complies with the above law.

I certify that I am not owned or controlled by and have no beneficial interest in the sponsor and that my compensation for preparing this letter is not contingent on the conversion of the property to a condominium or on the profitability of the offering.

I am an attorney duly admitted to practice law in the State of New York.

Very truly yours,

S. Seth Yavne

COMPLIANCE WITH REAL PROPERTY LAW 339-i

December 26th, 2000

Amsterdam Condominiums - 1400 Avenue S Brooklyn, N.Y. 11229
S. Seth Yanne
26 Court Street
Brooklyn, N.Y. 11242

Gentlemen:

You have requested an opinion from us with regards to your allocation of common interest to units in your proposed condominium at 1400 Avenue S, Brooklyn, New York, with Section 339-i 1(iv) of the New York Real Property Law. You have informed us that the method of allocation chosen is to evaluate the approximate fair market value of the individual unit in proportion to the anticipated aggregate fair value of all units on the day the condominium Declaration will be filed. You have further informed us that, the factual basis of calculating the percentage of common interest consists of the size, layout, and location within the premises of each individual unit; and, the anticipated selling price of each unit. Based on our review of the foregoing factors, we have concluded that the proposed allocation of common interest to individual units is in compliance with Section 339 - i 1(iv) of the New York State Real Property Law.

I have been a licensed real estate broker for in excess of 12 years and have managed approximately 4 buildings in this area with extensive experience in the sale, management, and rental of cooperative and condominium units in Kings County. We have previously participated in the preparation of individual unit value appraisal for the purpose of inclusion in offering plans for the sales thereof. We are not, in any way, associated with you or any other participant in the project, and have no beneficial interest in your business, or in profitability of the project. This is an opinion only as to the relative value of each unit in relation of the value of the project as a whole; is strictly based on the information provided to us in such reasonable inquiries as to the validity thereof as we deemed appropriate under the circumstances; and, is not intended as a guarantee of the actual value of any individual unit. We consent to the inclusion of this letter in your offering plan.

Sincerely,

Albert Wilk

CHANGES IN PRICES AND UNITS

The prices set forth in Schedule A herein may only be changed by a duly filed amendment to the Plan when a change in prices is an across the board increase or decrease affecting one or more lines of Unit or Unit models, is to be advertised or is a price increase for an individual purchaser. However, prices are negotiable and Sponsor may enter into any agreements with any prospective purchaser to sell one or more Units at prices lower than those set forth in Schedule A without filing an amendment.

No changes will be made in the size or number of Units, and/or their respective percentages of Common Interest, or material change in the size or quality of the Common Element, except by duly filed amendment to the Plan and, when applicable, to the Declaration of Condominium.

Unless an affected purchaser consents, no material change will be made in the Unit size, layout, or percentage of Common Interest, if a Purchase Agreement has been executed and delivered to the Sponsor for the Unit and the Purchaser is not in default under such agreement.

No material change will be made in the size, and no material adverse change will be made in the quality of Common Elements unless all purchasers consent.

PROCEDURE TO PURCHASE

A person desiring to purchase a Unit will be required to execute a Purchase Agreement. A Sample Purchase Agreement is contained in Exhibit A to Part II of this Plan. Purchase Agreements will not be binding upon the Sponsor until approved and accepted by the Sponsor.

The Purchaser is required to make a downpayment in the amount of 10% of the purchase price at the time he executes the Purchase Agreement, by check drawn to the order of "The Amsterdam Condominium -- Escrow Account". The Sponsor shall not be bound to make any modifications or changes, perform any special work, provide any different or additional appliances, equipment, furnishings or decoration, unless agreed to by the Sponsor in a written instrument which is incorporated as an addendum to the Purchase Agreement.

THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT SET FORTH IN EXHIBIT A TO PART II OF THE PLAN SETS FORTH IN DETAIL THE TERMS OF SALE WITH RESPECT TO EACH UNIT AND SHOULD BE REVIEWED CAREFULLY BY EACH PROSPECTIVE PURCHASER AND HIS COUNSEL. ANY CONFLICT BETWEEN THE PLAN AND THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT WILL BE RESOLVED ACCORDING TO THE TERMS OF THE PLAN.

The downpayments received upon the execution of the Purchase Agreements shall be placed promptly in a specially segregated special attorney's escrow I.O.L.A. account of Sponsor's attorney, S. Seth Yavne, Attorney at Law, 26 Court Street, Brooklyn, New York, to be known as "The Amsterdam Condominium Escrow Account", and will be maintained at Sterling National Bank, Brooklyn, New York. The signatory of the account will be S. Seth Yavne. The escrow deposits will be released only at closing, or if Purchaser rescinds or defaults, or if the plan is abandoned, by signature of counsel for the Sponsor. The Sponsor is responsible for complying with the escrow and trust fund provisions of Section 352-h and 352-e (2) (b) of the New York General Business Law. Sponsor shall comply with all escrow requirements of Section 71-a(3) of the Lien Law requiring the downpayment to be held in interest bearing escrow accounts, which interest is currently at 1%. See Attorney's Escrow Agreement and Escrow Account Form contained in Part II of the Plan.

Escrow Trust Fund

All deposits, downpayments, or advances made by a purchaser prior to the closing of each individual transaction, whether received before or after the date of consummation of the plan, must be placed within five (5) business days after the agreement is signed by all necessary parties, in an attorney's segregated special escrow account in a bank doing business in the State of New York which account is covered by federal bank deposit insurance. Purchasers shall be aware that deposits in excess of $100,000 will not be federally insured. Neither the Sponsor nor any principal of the Sponsor may be a signatory on the account.

Funds will be placed in an interest bearing I.O.L.A. account, with all interest credited to the I.O.L.A fund. The interest rate to be earned on the account will be the prevailing rate for such accounts. No fees of any kind may be deducted from the account principal or any interest earned thereon. Sponsor shall bear any administrative cost for the maintenance of the account. All funds received from purchasers whether in the form of checks, drafts, money orders, wire transfers, or other instruments which identify the payor, shall be made payable to or endorsed by the purchaser to the order of the attorney as escrow agent.

The escrow agent is an attorney admitted to practice in the State of New York and shall be the only signatory on the account and the only attorney authorized to release funds. The attorney is independent of Sponsor and has no interest in the condominium under this offering.

The material terms of the escrow agreement are disclosed in the plan and a copy of the escrow agreement is contained in the plan in Part II. The Sponsor will indemnify, without limitation, the escrow agent and provide for discharge of the escrow agents obligations upon the payment of the deposit and interest in accordance with the Attorney General's regulations.

Any right of the escrow agent to represent the sponsor in any lawsuit, any compensation by the sponsor to the depository bank, any provision for payments by the sponsor under an indemnity in favor of the escrow agent, will be compensated for by the Sponsor.

Within ten (10) business days after tender of the deposit submitted with the purchase agreement, the escrow agent shall notify the purchaser that such funds have been deposited, and shall provide the account number and the initial interest rate. If the purchaser does not receive notice of such deposit within fifteen (15) business days after tender of the deposit, he may cancel the purchase and recind within ninety (90) days after tender of the deposit, or may apply to the Attorney General for relief. Rescission may not be afforded where proof satisfactory to the Attorney General is submitted establishing that the escrowed funds were timely deposited in accordance with these regulations and the requisite notice was mailed timely to the Purchaser. Before any funds can be transferred to a new escrow account, or if the escrow agent is to be replaced, the Plan must be amended to provide full disclosure with respect to the new account, the escrow and the escrow agreements as originally provided.

A bond, letter of credit, or other security may be substituted for the escrow account only after the Department of Law approves in writing the use of such alternative form of security pursuant to the provisions of 13 NYCRR Section 20.3(o)(4) et seq. Under no circumstances shall sponsor apply for release of the escrowed funds of a defaulting purchaser until after consummation of the plan.

Consummation of the Plan however does not relieve the sponsor of its obligations pursuant to GBL Section 325-h.

The escrow agent shall hold the funds in escrow until otherwise directed in a writing signed by both sponsor and purchaser: or of a determination of the Attorney General, a judgment or order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

The Sponsor shall not object to the release of the escrowed funds to a purchaser who timely recinds in accordance with the offer of rescission contained in the plan or an amendment to the plan or, to all purchasers after an amendment abandoning the plan is accepted for filing by the Department of Law.

If there is no written agreement between the parties to release the escrowed funds, the escrow agent shall not pay the funds to the Sponsor until the escrow agent has given the purchaser written notice of not fewer than ten (10) business days. Thereafter, the funds may be paid to the sponsor unless the purchaser has already made application to the Department of Law pursuant to the dispute resolution provisions contained in the Attorney General's regulations and has so notified the escrow agent in accordance with such provisions.

In the event of a dispute, the Sponsor shall apply and the purchaser or the escrow agent holding the downpayment in escrow may apply to the Attorney General for a determination on the disposition of the downpayment and any interest earned thereon. Forms for this purpose are furnished under Exhibit "L" contained in Part II of the Plan. The party applying shall contemporaneously send to all other parties a copy of such application.

Pending the determination of the Attorney General to grant or deny the application, the Sponsor, the purchaser and the escrow agent shall abide by the interim directive issued by the Attorney General.

If the application permitting release of funds is granted, the deposit and any interest earned thereon shall be disposed of in accordance with the determination of the Attorney General, subject to any court action in which preliminary relief is granted.

The Attorney General shall act upon the application within thirty (30) days after its submission to the Department of Law, be either making a determination or notifying the parties that an extension of time in which to do so is necessary. If the application seeking release of funds is denied, the escrow agent shall continue to hold the deposit and any interest earned thereon until both the sponsor and the purchaser direct payment to a specified party in accordance with a written direction signed by both the sponsor and purchaser, or a judgment or order of the court of competent jurisdiction is served on the escrow agent, or the escrow agent deposits the disputed amount into court. In no event shall the escrow agent release funds in dispute, other than a payment of such funds into court, until such dispute is finally resolved either by determination of the Attorney General, or by order or judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, or by written agreement of the sponsor and the purchaser.

The escrow agent shall maintain all records concerning the escrow account for seven years after the release of the funds. Upon the dissolution of any law firm which was the escrow agent, the former partners or members of the firm shall make appropriate arrangements for the maintenance of these records by one of them or by the successor firm and shall notify the Department of Law of such transfer.

The Department of Law may perform random reviews and audits of any records involving escrow accounts to determine compliance with statute and regulation.

Any provision of any contract or agreement whether oral or in writing, by which a purchaser purports to waive or indemnify any obligation of the escrow agent holding trust fund is absolutely void.

The provisions of this section of the Attorney General's regulations shall prevail over any conflicting or inconsistent provision in the offering plan or in a purchase agreement. Nothing contained herein shall diminish or impair the Sponsor's statutory obligation to each purchaser pursuant to GBL Section 352-h to hold in trust all deposits, advances or payments made in connection with the offer until consummation of the transaction with such purchaser.

Consummation of the Plan does not relieve the sponsor of its obligations pursuant to GBL Section 352-h. Funds from the escrow account remain the property of the purchaser until employed in connection with the consummation of the transaction. Such funds shall not be a part of the estate of the sponsor or the escrow agent upon any bankruptcy, incapacity or death.

All funds required to be held pursuant to GBL sections 352-e (2-b) and 352-h on the effective date of this section shall be transferred into escrow accounts in compliance with this regulation within ten (10) days.

A sponsor may apply to the Attorney General to use security in the form of surety bonds or a letter of credit in lieu of escrow of such funds for use in new constructed or gut rehabilitated developments upon showing of adequate insurance of such funds in accordance with Attorney General Regulations. Sponsor may submit an affidavit which contains full information as to the proposed usage of such funds, the sponsor's financing of construction or rehabilitation work, expected completion date, the terms and conditions of the proposed surety bonds or letter of credit, and required undertakings and covenants.

If Purchaser fails to perform any of Purchaser's obligations thereunder, Sponsor may give written notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, to Purchaser of Sponsor's intention to cancel the Purchase Agreement if such default is not cured within thirty (30) days thereafter. If Purchaser fails to cure such default within such thirty (30) day period, Sponsor may, at its option, cancel the Purchase Agreement. If Sponsor so elects to cancel the Purchase Agreement, all amounts paid pursuant to the contract, together with any interest thereon, shall all belong to Sponsor and the rights, obligations and liabilities of both parties under the agreement and the Plan shall cease and terminate, provided that liquidated damages shall in no event exceed 10% of the offering price plus the actual cost of work specially performed by Sponsor for the Purchaser. THE TIME FOR PERFORMANCE OF THE PURCHASER'S OBLIGATIONS, INCLUDING ATTENDANCE AT CLOSING AND DELIVERY OF THE BALANCE OF THE PURCHASE PRICE, IS OF THE ESSENCE IN THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT. This means that all deadlines and time periods must be strictly adhered to by the Purchaser.

Sponsor expects the first closing of a unit to occur by approximately February 15, 2001. If such date is delayed twelve (12) months or more, purchasers will be offered a fifteen (15) day right of rescission. Furthermore, if within six (6) months of this date there is a 25% change in the budget for first year of condominium operation purchasers will likewise be offered a fifteen (15) day right of rescission.

The purchaser is required to sign a power of attorney to the board of managers of the condominium, which power of attorney must be signed, acknowledged and returned to the Sponsor within fifteen (15) days. Failure to so return the power of attorney may result in a default under the purchase agreement. The power of attorney provides that you nominate and appoint the Board of Managers to act as your attorney in fact to acquire any abandoned units or to execute any instrument which the board of managers deems necessary to comply with governing laws and regulations.

Sponsor will not permit the assignment or transfer of purchase agreements, without Sponsor's written consent in each instance, in Sponsor's sole discretion.

Purchaser will be afforded at least three business days to review the Plan and all filed Amendments thereto prior to executing a Purchase Agreement.

Sponsor will, within twenty days after receipt of a fully executed copy of the Purchase Agreement and the required deposit, either accept such Purchase Agreement and return a fully executed counterpart to the Purchaser, or reject the Purchase Agreement and refund the full deposit previously tendered. If the Sponsor fails to act within such twenty day period, the Purchaser will have the option, by written notice within ten days thereafter, to withdraw his offer and receive a refund of the full deposit tendered.

All risks of loss to the Unit by fire or other casualty prior to the conveyance of legal title to the Unit to the Purchaser are assumed by the Sponsor, without any liability or obligation by the Sponsor to repair or restore the Unit, unless and until a purchaser takes actual possession of a Unit pursuant to a written agreement with Sponsor. In such event, such purchaser is advised to obtain insurance covering any such casualty.

The agreement of any Purchaser to purchase will not be conditional or contingent upon the obtaining of a mortgage or other financing by such Purchaser, nor is any financing being offered by the Sponsor.

The Purchase Agreement shall not be amended to waive any of Purchaser's rights or abrogate any of Sponsor's obligations under the offering plan or under Article 23-A of the General Business Law.

After the plan has been declared effective, the Sponsor will fix dates for closing title to all units for which purchase agreements have been executed by serving notice on all purchasers stating the date of the first closing and setting each closing date. Such notice will be served in compliance with applicable regulations no less than thirty (30) days before the date set for the closing of the units. Sponsor may permit purchaser to waive this thirty (30) day provision by including such waiver in the plan or in an amendment thereto.

EFFECTIVE DATE

The offer to sell is contingent upon this Plan being declared effective and upon compliance with the relevant conditions and time periods described in this Plan. This Plan will be declared effective upon the date upon which there are valid and binding Purchase Agreements for 80% of the Units under the Plan, or, at the option of Sponsor, upon execution of a valid and binding Purchase Agreement for at least 15% of the units offered under the plan. Units of a primarily ancillary nature, may not be counted toward effectiveness.

For the purpose of this Plan, a Purchase Agreement shall be valid and binding if executed by both Purchaser and Sponsor. This Plan shall be declared effective by written notice to the Purchasers, served in accordance with the regulations, to be followed by duly filed amendment disclosing such fact, which amendment will be submitted to the Department of Law within five (5) days thereafter, confirming that the Plan was declared effective on a specified date.

The closing of title to the first unit shall not occur until the Plan is declared effective and such amendment is accepted for filing by the Department of Law.

This Plan will not be declared effective based on purchase agreements: (i) signed by purchasers who have been granted a right of rescission that has not yet expired or been waived; or (ii) if the purchaser was not afforded the three business days to review the offering plan and all filed amendments prior to execution a Purchase Agreement; or (iii) with any purchaser who is the Sponsor, the selling agent, or the managing agent or is a principal of the Sponsor, the selling agent or the managing agent or is related to the Sponsor, the selling agent or the managing agent or to any principal of the sponsor or the selling agent or the managing agent by blood, marriage or adoption or as a business associate, an employee, a shareholder or a limited partner; except that such a purchaser other than the Sponsor or a principal of the Sponsor may be included if the Sponsor has submitted proof satisfactory to the Department of Law establishing the purchaser is bona fide.

This Plan may be abandoned by the Sponsor at any time prior to being declared effective by filing an amendment to abandon this Plan with the Department of Law. If payments under purchase agreements have been received, purchaser's downpayment money will be refunded within 5 days after the amendment abandoning the plan has been accepted for filing. If this Plan is not declared effective within twelve (12) months following its date of acceptance for filing with the Department of Law then at the expiration of such twelve months, the Plan shall be abandoned by amendment filed with the Department of Law. If this Plan is abandoned, all purchasers will be promptly notified and all monies paid under the respective Purchase Agreements will be returned to them within ten (10) days after abandonment with interest, if any. In addition to the above, Sponsor will promptly file an amendment to the Department of Law confirming such abandonment and will file a notice of abandonment on form RS-3 or such other form as the Department may require and explain the reason for such abandonment and the disposition of all funds received. If there are no outstanding purchase agreements the Sponsor shall submit form RS-3 to the Department of Law which shall be served simultaneously by the Sponsor on all the commercial tenants.

Once the Plan has been declared effective, it may not thereafter be withdrawn or abandoned, except that prior to conveying title to the first Unit, the Plan may, at the option of the Sponsor, be withdrawn in the event of (i) the existence of one or more defects in title affecting any one or more Units that cured without litigation or cannot be cured for less than $14,108; or (ii) substantial damage to or destruction of the Building or any portion thereof by fire or other casualty which cannot be cured for less than $14,108; or (iii) the taking of any material portion of the Property in condemnation proceedings or by eminent domain.

The foregoing dollar amounts shall exclude attorneys fees, or any such title defects or determination of any authority or regulatory association which exist on the date of presentation of the Plan and are either known to the Sponsor or are a matter of public record.

TERMS OF SALE

Title to each Unit and its interest in the Common Elements will be conveyed by the Sponsor at the closing thereof by bargain and sale deed with covenants against grantor's acts, free and clear of all liens, encumbrances and other title exceptions other than the exceptions set forth in the Plan and in Schedule A to the Purchase Agreement. The deed will be substantially in the form set forth in Exhibit C to Part II of the Plan.

All risks of loss to the Unit by fire or other casualty prior to the conveyance of legal title to the Unit to the Purchaser is assumed by the Sponsor, without any liability or obligation by the Sponsor to repair or restore the Unit, unless and until a purchaser takes actual possession of a Unit pursuant to a written agreement with Sponsor. In such event, such purchaser is advised to obtain insurance covering any such casualty.

All personal property located within the Unit on the date the purchase agreement is signed or located within the Common Elements on the date the Declaration is filed, that is owned by the Sponsor or the owner of the property, is included in the conveyance unless specifically excepted in the Plan.

A closing will only take place if concurrently with such closing the issuance of a temporary or permanent certificate of occupancy for the building is obtained or the issuance of a partial, temporary or permanent certificate of occupancy for the unit closed is obtained.

The declaration, by-laws and floor plans for the Condominium and such other documents, as required by law, will be recorded prior to or contemporaneously with the first conveyance of title to a unit in accordance with the New York Condominium Act in the Offices of the City Register. All Transfer Taxes shall be paid at closing by the Purchaser of the Unit.

If existing mortgages or construction loans are not satisfied at or prior to the closing of the first unit, at the time of conveyance of the first unit, each mortgagee will either: (a) consent to the formation of a condominium and acknowledge that its lien will be limited to unsold condominium units; (b) subordinate the lien of its mortgage to the declaration of condominium; or (c) release its lien on the condominium Unit being conveyed and its interest in the Common Elements.

UNIT CLOSING COSTS AND ADJUSTMENTS

The estimated closing costs, expenses and adjustments to be borne by each Purchaser of the Unit and to be paid at closing will be: (a) fees and expenses of Purchaser's attorney, if any); (b) mortgage recording taxes (approximately 1.75% to 2% of purchaser's mortgage, if any); (c) premiums for mortgage and/or owner's title insurance. If the Purchaser elects to obtain fee title insurance, he or she will pay a premium therefor to his or her title insurance company which will vary depending upon the amount of insurance requested. The premium for fee title insurance should be $675.64 for the first $100,000 of fee insurance plus $3.80 for each $1,000 or fraction thereof of additional fee insurance. Each Purchaser is free to obtain title insurance from a title insurance company. The Sponsor makes no representation or warranty as to the cost, terms, or availability of such title insurance; (d) all charges of Purchaser's Lender, if any, including, without limitation, origination and appraisal fees, charges for a credit report and attorney fees (which attorney fees generally do not exceed $1,000) for the Lender; (e) Fees for recording the Deed, Mortgage (if any), Unit Power of Attorney, or other documents (approximately $150.00); (f) Real Estate Taxes and Assessments, if any, including water charges and sewer rents if separately assessed, apportioned as of date of closing; (g) Common Charges for the month in which title closes (there will be no adjustment for such charges if the Unit is conveyed on the date of recording of the Declaration); (h) an amount equal to twice the estimated monthly common charges for the Purchaser's Unit, if any, (see "Working Capital Fund" and "Reserve Fund" below); (i) usual and ordinary adjustments for utilities and fuel, if any; and (j) New York State and New York City Real Property Transfer Taxes (currently aggregating approximately 1.4% of purchase price for conveyances up to $500,000) which transfer taxes are statutorily the primary obligation of a Seller. (k) in addition each purchaser shall be required to pay $75.00 for survey fees, $450.00 for Sponsor's attorneys fees and $450.00 for legal and filing fees in connection with the application to secure 421-A tax exemption benefits. (l) Purchaser will also have to pay $250.00 to the Sponsor if title insurance is obtained from any other company other than Madison Title Agency. Any mortgage tax credit received pursuant to Section 339-ee of the Real property Law or Section 225 of the Tax Law will inure to the benefit of the Sponsor. The above amounts are good faith estimates based on information currently available to the Sponsor. At the closing, Purchasers will normally be required to advance to the Purchaser's Lender, if any, escrow for the reserves for taxes, assessments, water and sewer charges and insurance premiums.

An example of the foregoing estimates, in the case of a Unit having a purchase price of $225,000.00 and with respect to which the taxes and assessments, and all other expenses with respect to his Unit whether or not he has taken possession of the Unit, and whether or not all work required to be performed by the Sponsor or anyone else in or to his Unit or to the Building has been completed.

From and after the closing of title to each Unit, the Purchaser will be obligated for the payment of Common Charges, real estate

If Units have not been separately assessed for real estate tax purposes prior to the closing of title to the first Unit, Sponsor will place in escrow, in the name of the Board of Managers, an amount equal to the unpaid real estate taxes which will be levied against the Condominium for the six-month period following the closing of title to the first Unit or until Units are separately assessed, whichever is shorter. Sponsor will pay the real estate taxes from the escrow account when such taxes are due and payable and shall be entitled to reimbursement from Unit Owners to the extent of the actual assessment. All adjustments for taxes and other adjustable items shall be apportioned as of midnight of the day prior to the date of closing.

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE SPONSOR

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Plan, the Sponsor has the following obligations the performance for which no bond or other security will be furnished:

-The Sponsor will, at its sole cost and expense and with reasonable diligence, perform or cause to be performed such work, and will supply or cause to be supplied all materials, necessary to complete construction of the Building, substantially in accordance with the Plans and Specifications. Construction financing for the completion of this project is firmly committed. The Sponsor reserves the right to substitute equipment or materials and make modifications of layout or design, provided, however, that Sponsor shall not (1) substitute equipment or materials of lesser quality or design; or (2) change the size or location of Building, Units, other improvements, or Common Elements if such changes affect the percentage of Common Interests or adversely affect the value of any Unit to which title has closed or for which a Purchase Agreement has been executed and is in effect unless all affected Unit Owners consent in writing to such change and all affected contract vendees are given the right to rescind and receive any deposit or downpayment.

-If a final Certificate of Occupancy and/or any other certificate or authorization required to permit the occupancy of a Unit shall not have been issued at the date of closing of title to such Unit, the Sponsor will obtain prior to the closing of the first Unit a temporary or partial Certificate of Occupancy for the Unit or the Building in which the Unit to be closed is located, and will secure a permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building as expeditiously as possible after the closing of title, (within an estimated 120 days but before expiration of any temporary Certificate of Occupancy), and will, at its sole cost and expense, do and perform or cause to be done and performed all work and will supply or cause to be supplied all materials necessary.

-If the first closing on a Unit takes place prior to the issuance of a permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building, Sponsor shall (1) maintain all deposits and funds in a specially segregated escrow account pursuant to Section 352-e (2)(b) of the General Business Law of the State of New York, unless the Sponsor's architect certifies that a lesser amount will be reasonably necessary to complete the work needed to obtain a permanent Certificate of Occupancy, in which case the sum so certified may be released from the special escrow account; or (2) deposit with an escrow agent an unconditional, irrevocable letter of credit or post a surety bond in the amount so certified, and file an Amendment to this offering Plan in connection therewith.

-Housing Merchant Implied Warranty: A provision of the General Business Law (Article 36-B), which Sponsor must comply with, went into effect on March 1, 1989, which grants to buyers of most newly constructed units a Housing Merchant Implied Warranty. Any contract of sale signed on or after March 1, 1989 is affected by the Warranty.

The provision imposes a general warranty against building defects affecting the sale of new dwelling units that are single-family homes or cooperative or condominium units in buildings five stories or less. The following is a brief summary of that law. The full text of the law appears in Schedule K of this Offering Plan.

A. Housing affected:

Newly constructed single-family homes and cooperative and condominium units in buildings of five stories or less.

B. Coverage:

(a) For one year, the Unit must be free from defects caused by workmanship or materials that do not meet the standards of the applicable building code; for items not covered, the construction must be in accordance with locally accepted building practices.

(b) For two years, the plumbing, electrical, heating, cooling and ventilation systems must be free from defects caused by unskillful installation.

(c) For six years, the home must be free from physical defects in the structural elements (foundation, floors, walls, roof framing) which make it unsafe or unlivable.

C. Not Covered:

(a) A defect not caused by defective workmanship, materials or design.

(b) A patent defect which was obvious or would have been obvious upon inspection.

(c) Defects in items sold with the home, such as stoves, refrigerators, air conditioners, etc. There are implied warranties from the manufacturers of such goods which are described in other laws.

D. Notice:

Buyers must give notice of defects in their home in writing no later than 30 days after the end of the warranty period.

E. Limitation of the Warranty:

The Housing Merchant Implied Warranty can be limited. However, the limited warranty cannot permit construction which is below code or below locally accepted building practice, and the limited warranty time periods cannot be shorter than those described above. In this Offering Plan the Housing Merchant Implied Warranty is not limited.

-The Sponsor will deliver to the Board of Managers on behalf of Unit Owners an assignment of all assignable warranties and other undertakings received by the Sponsor from contractors, materialmen or others in connection with the construction and equipping of the Building except that warranties and undertakings which relate to equipment in individual Units will be delivered or assigned to each applicable Purchaser at or prior to the closing. All such warranties and undertakings will be delivered or assigned by the Sponsor promptly upon receipt by the Sponsor, if received after closing.

-The Sponsor will pay or cause to be paid all contractors and materialmen and all others involved in the construction and equipping of the Building, for work performed and fixtures, material and equipment supplied or installed in the construction thereof and will cause any and all mechanics' liens arising out of such construction and equipping to be discharged by bonding or otherwise promptly after the filing of any such liens.

-After the issuance of a final Certificate of Occupancy covering the Building, the Sponsor will deliver to the Board of Managers a complete set of "as built" drawings for the Condominium and a signed copy of the statement of the Sponsor's architect referred to below.

-The Sponsor will bear all costs and expenses incurred by the Sponsor in connection with the creation of the Condominium and the preparation of this Plan and all selling expenses and compensation payable for sales or other personnel of the Sponsor. Each Purchaser will be responsible for the commission of any broker with whom such Purchaser may have dealt unless the Sponsor otherwise agrees in writing.

-Until title to all Units is passed to bona fide purchasers, the Sponsor will pay such common charges and special assessments and real estate taxes as are assessed by the Board of Managers on Units to which title has not passed, whether built or unbuilt, once a Declaration has been recorded. Sponsors state that it has the financial resources to meet its obligations with respect to any unsold Units. The source of such funding is their personal assets. No Bond or other security has been posted to secure Sponsor's obligations.

-Sponsor will initially procure, as reflected in the budget for the first year of Condominium operation, the following coverage: (a) fire insurance with all risk extended coverage for the value of the building; (b) comprehensive general liability. The cost of such policies are to be reimbursed by the Board of Managers. See Note 7 to Schedule B.

-Sponsor will keep copies of the Plan, Exhibits and documents referred to in the Plan on file at Sponsor's office or at another designated place for six years from the date the Declaration is recorded.

-The Sponsors and its contractors, subcontractors, agents and employees will have the right of access to each Unit and to all of the Common Elements for purposes of completing construction of the Building and fulfilling the Sponsor's obligations hereunder, provided that requests for entry, except in emergencies, shall be made in advance and that any such entry will be at a time reasonably convenient to the Unit Owner. In case of an emergency, such right of entry shall be immediate, whether or not the Unit Owner is present at the time. The Sponsor may require that each Unit Owner shall deliver to the Managing Agent a duplicate key to each exterior lock on such Owner's Unit and provide penalties for each Unit Owner's failure to do so. The Sponsor will be responsible for all damages to any Unit or to the Common Elements resulting from the exercise of such right of access. All repairs and replacements performed by the Sponsor as a result of any such damages will be substantially similar to the original construction and installation and will be of first-class quality.

-Unsold Units - Right of Sponsor to Lease; Rights of Tenants and subsequent purchasers

The Sponsor has reserved the unrestricted right to sell, assign, mortgage, lease or sublet any Unsold Unit for any legal, purpose (subject to any use restrictions set forth in the By-Laws of the Condominium), and to mortgage, pledge or hypothecate said Unsold Units, at any time after the recording of the Condominium Declaration without first offering such Units for sale or lease to the Condominium, and to post signs on the Property for this purpose.

Sponsor may choose to complete certain Units and lease them prior to selling those Units. Tenants under such lease shall have those rights given to them in the lease. The Sponsor may accept Purchase Agreements for Units which are under lease, however, any such Purchase Agreements shall be subject to the rights of the tenants under the lease. In addition, such Units will be sold and delivered in "as is" condition notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this plan. Sponsor can not and does not guarantee the condition of the Unit under said lease at the time of sale of the Unit. If Purchaser enters into a Purchase Agreement for a Unit or Units which is occupied by a tenant, and said tenant does not voluntarily move from the Unit when its lease expires or is terminated, Purchaser shall be required to obtain possession at its own expense. A lessee of any Unit shall not be granted any special rights to purchase unless said right is specifically set forth in a written agreement between Sponsor and Lessee. In addition, Sponsor may lease a Unit or Units to a party who has entered into an agreement to purchase said Unit or Units prior to closing. The rent and other terms of such an "Interim Lease" will be determined between Sponsor and Purchaser at the time of execution of said Lease. A default by tenant under any interim lease shall, at the option of Sponsor, be a default under the Purchase Agreement executed by the tenant. Similarly, a default under a Purchase Agreement by Purchaser shall be deemed a default under an interim lease.

No payment under the interim lease will inure to the tenant's benefit should he later purchase the Unit.

The foregoing undertakings set forth the entire obligations of the Sponsor hereunder and none other shall be implied, except that nothing contained herein shall be deemed to limit the rights of Unit Owners under their Purchase Agreements. All representations under the offering plan, all obligations pursuant to the General Business Law, and any additional obligations under the offering plan which are to be performed subsequent to the closing date shall survive delivery of the deed. The Sponsor shall not be liable for or obligated to defend any suits or claims with respect to any Unit arising out of any occurrence taking place on or after the date of the closing of title to such Unit or, with respect to the Common Elements, arising out of any occurrence taking place on or after the date of the recording of the Declaration, except suits or claims arising out of acts of the Sponsor or representations made by the Sponsor in this Plan.

For all purposes under this Plan, the issuance of (a) a final Certificate of Occupancy for the entire Building by the Department of Buildings of the City of New York, and (b) a statement by the Sponsor's Architect to the Sponsor that the Building has been completed substantially in accordance with the Plans and Specifications except for (i) such work in the public portions of the Building and within Units as is customarily or necessarily left incomplete until after occupancy (which work will be completed with reasonable expedition) and (ii) special work in any Units to be done by or for the account of Purchasers or tenants thereof, shall be deemed and considered presumptive evidence that the Building has been fully completed in accordance with the Plans and Specifications. Such presumption, however, shall be without prejudice to any rights which the Board of Managers may have with respect to the Sponsor's obligation to cause defects in construction or materials to be corrected, as set forth in paragraph (4) above. Such statement by the Sponsor's Architect shall neither constitute a representation by him to the Unit Owners or to the Board of Managers nor give rise to any claim by any Unit Owner or by the Board of Managers against the Sponsor's Architect with respect to completion of construction or defects therein.

Obligations of the Sponsor hereunder with respect to the Units or Limited Common Elements shall be enforceable only by the Board of Managers on behalf of the Unit Owners affected, and with respect to the General Common Elements, only by the Board of Managers on behalf of all Unit Owners. In no event shall any obligations of the Sponsor be enforceable by individual Unit Owners.

Sponsors for their agents will not discriminate against any person because of race, creed, color, sex, disability, marital status or national origin.

GENERAL

Sponsor agrees to pay Common Charges, special assessments and real estate taxes, and to perform other duties as stated above as a Unit Owner with respect to any unsold unit (for so long as Sponsor owns same), The foregoing sets forth the entire extent of the obligations of Sponsor under this Plan and none other shall be implied, except that nothing contained herein shall be deemed to limit the rights of purchasers relative to their units under their respective Purchase Agreements. Sponsor makes no warranties other than as set forth in this section. The obligations of Sponsor under this section shall survive the delivery of the deeds to the respective units, and Sponsor represents that it has the financial resources to meet its obligations with respect to unsold units. The source of funding will be from projected sales. Sponsor shall not be liable for or obligated to defend any suits or claims with respect to any Unit arising out of any occurrence taking place on or after the date of the closing of title to such unit or the leasing thereof to any purchaser or, with respect to the General Common Elements of Limited Common Elements, arising out of any occurrence taking place on or after the date of the first closing, except suits or claims arising out of the acts or omissions of Sponsor or the representations made by Sponsor in this Plan.

Sponsor agrees to indemnify the Condominium Board and Unit Owners and hold them harmless from, and defend on their behalf, any suits or claims arising out of the acts or omissions of Sponsor or the representations made by Sponsor in this Plan (i) with respect to the General Common Elements or Limited Common Elements (prior to the first closing) and (ii) with respect to any Unit (prior to the closing date for such Unit).

Obligations of the Sponsor under this section with respect to the Condominium, the General Common Elements or Limited Common Elements shall be enforceable only by the Condominium Board on behalf of all Unit Owners. In no event shall any obligations of Sponsor be enforceable by individual Unit Owners unless the Condominium Board fails to take reasonable action to enforce such obligations within ninety (90) days following the giving of written notice of such claim by any Unit Owners to the Condominium Board.

NO BOND OR OTHER SECURITY HAS BEEN FURNISHED TO SECURE THE PERFORMANCE OF THE SPONSOR'S OBLIGATIONS SET FORTH HEREIN. THE ABILITY OF SPONSOR TO PERFORM ITS OBLIGATIONS WILL DEPEND UPON ITS FINANCIAL CONDITION, WHEN AND IF IT IS CALLED UPON TO PERFORM.

CONTROL BY THE SPONSOR

The affairs of the Condominium shall be governed by a Board of Managers. Such control shall be retained by the Board of Managers as follows:

(i) So long as Sponsor owns Units representing 30% or more in Common Interest, the Sponsor shall have the right to elect two (2) of the three (3) members of the Board of Managers.

(ii) So long as Sponsor owns Units representing less than 30% in Common Interest, the Sponsor shall have the right to elect one (1) of the three (3) members of the Board of Managers.

(iii) In no event shall the Sponsor retain voting control after two years from the date of closing of title to the first Unit sold.

(iv) So long as the Sponsor or its designee shall continue to own Units representing 25% or more in Common Interest the Board of Managers may not: (a) increase the number or change the type of employees from that described in Schedule B, (b) provide for new or additional services from those indicated on Schedule B, (c) impose any assessment or charges against Unit Owners for improvement or additions unless required by Law, (d) establish any reserves for contingencies, repairs, improvements or replacements.

Subject to the provisions for control by Sponsor set forth herein, from and after the holding of the first annual meeting of

Unit Owners, the Board of Managers shall consist of three persons elected by Unit Owners. Until such time, the Board of Managers shall consist of one person designated by the Sponsor. The Sponsor will designate as members each Purchaser as and when the title to each Unit closes. Within ninety calendar days after the date on which closing of title to the first Unit, the Sponsor shall call the first annual meeting of the Unit Owners for the purpose of electing the Board of Managers. Except for Board Members designated by the Sponsor, all members of the Board of Managers must be Unit Owners. All Board members shall serve without compensation. No officer who is also a member of the Board of Managers shall receive any compensation for acting as an officer. Sponsor will not retain voting control over the Board of Managers or veto power over expenditures described in Schedule B, or expenditures required to comply with applicable laws or regulations, or to remedy any notice of violation or to remedy any work order by an insurer for more than two years after closing of the first Unit or after sale of two Units, whichever is sooner. Within 30 days after the expiration of the two year period a meeting shall be held to elect new board members unrelated to the sponsor.

BOARD OF MANAGERS

Board of Managers/Control by Sponsor

The affairs of the Condominium shall be governed by the Board of Managers. Such control shall be retained by the Board of Managers as follows:

(i) So long as Sponsor owns Units representing 30% or more in Common Interest, the Sponsor shall have the right to elect two (2) of the three (3) members of the Board of Managers.

(ii) So long as Sponsor owns Units representing less than 30% in Common Interest, the Sponsor shall have the right to elect one (1) of the three (3) members of the Board of Managers.

(iii) In no event shall the Sponsor retain voting control after two years from the date of closing of title to the first Unit sold.

(iv) So long as the Sponsor or its designee shall continue to own Units representing 25% or more in Common Interest the Board of Managers may not: (a) increase the number or change the type of employees from that described in Schedule B, (b) provide for new or additional services from those indicated on Schedule B, (c) impose any assessment or charges against Unit Owners for improvement or additions unless required by Law, (d) establish any reserves for contingencies, repairs, improvements or replacements. In addition, subject to the provisions for control by Sponsor set forth herein, from and after the holding of the first annual meeting of Unit Owners, the Board of Managers shall consist of three persons elected by Unit Owners. Within ninety calendar days after the date on which closing of title to all Units shall have taken place or within one year after the date of conveyance of the first Unit, whichever shall first occur, the Sponsor (or Unit Owners) shall call the first annual meeting of the Unit Owners for the purpose of electing the three member Board of Managers. See "Meeting and Votes of Unit Owners" at Article 4.1 of the Bylaws. Except for Board members designated by the Sponsor, all members of the Board of Managers must be Unit Owners. All Board members shall serve without compensation.

Any one or more of the members of the Board of Managers may be removed with or without cause by a Majority of the Unit Owners.

Upon the affirmative vote of a majority of all the members of the Board of Managers, any officer may be removed, either with or without cause, and a successor may be elected or appointed, as the case may be, at any regular meeting of the Board of Managers or at any special meeting of the Board of Managers called for such purpose.

Powers and Duties of Board of Managers

The Board of Managers has the powers and duties necessary for and incidental to the administration of the affairs of the Condominium. Such powers and duties include the operation, care and maintenance of the Common Elements, the preparation of an annual budget for the Condominium and the assessment of Common Charges. The powers and duties of the Board of Managers are more fully discussed in Article 2 of the Bylaws.

Meetings and Votes of Unit Owners.

Within thirty calendar days after the date on which closing of title to all Units shall have taken place or within one year after the date of conveyance of the first Unit, whichever shall first occur, the Sponsor (or Unit Owners) shall call the first meeting of the Unit Owners. Thereafter annual meetings of the Unit Owners shall be held on such other date as the Board of Managers shall designate. At such meetings, the Unit Owners shall elect the Board of Managers. In addition, special meetings may be held from time to time pursuant to the By-laws. At all meetings of the Unit Owners, the presence in person or by proxy of all the Unit Owners shall constitute a quorum and, except as noted below or as otherwise provided in the By-laws or Declaration a majority of the votes cast at any such meeting at which a quorum is present shall be binding upon all Unit Owners.

At all meetings each Unit owner (or his proxy) entitled to vote thereat (including the Sponsor with respect to Units owned by the Sponsor) shall be entitled to cast one vote. Cumulative voting shall not be permitted.

Officers. The principal officers of the Condominium shall be a President, Secretary and Treasurer, all of who shall be elected by the Board of Managers. All of the officers shall be Unit Owners. No officer who is also a member of the Board of Managers shall receive any compensation for acting as an officer. The anticipated first officers and members of the Board shall be the principal of Sponsor.

The duties of the principal officers are as follows:

President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Condominium, preside at all meetings of the Unit Owners and of the Board of Managers.

Secretary. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Unit owners and of the Board of Managers, shall have charge of such books and papers as the Board of Manager may direct, and shall act as President in the absence of the President.

Treasurer. The Treasurer shall be responsible for Condominium funds and securities, for keeping full and accurate financial records and books of account showing all receipts and disbursements.

Insurance. The Condominium Board is required to obtain and maintain to the extent obtainable, (a) fire insurance with all risk extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief endorsements, insuring the entire Building (including each Unit, but excluding fixtures, furniture, furnishings or other personal property not constituting a part of such Unit or supplied or installed by the Unit Owner), together with all service machinery contained therein and covering the interests of the Condominium, the Board of Managers and all Unit Owners and certain of their mortgagees, as their respective interests may appear; (b) Workmen's Compensation and New York State disability benefits insurance, if and to the extent necessary to meet the requirements of law;

All policies of physical damage insurance shall contain, to the extent obtainable, waivers of subrogation and waivers of any defense based on co-insurance or other insurance or of invalidity arising from any acts of the insured and of pro rata reduction of liability, and shall provide that such policies may not be canceled or substantially modified without at least thirty calendar days prior written notice to all of the insured, including all Mortgagees and the Board of Managers. Duplicate originals or certificates of insurance of all policies of physical damage insurance and all renewal thereof, together with proof of payment of premiums, shall be delivered to all Unit Owners and to any Mortgagee so requesting at least thirty calendar days prior to expiration of the then current policies.

The Board of Managers shall also be required to obtain and maintain public liability insurance in such limits as such Board may from time to time determine, covering the Board of Managers, the Managing Agent, all employees of the Condominium and each Unit Owner and covering all liability to the public or to the Unit Owners (and their invitees, agents and employees) arising out of or incident to the ownership or use of the Common Elements. Each insurance shall be issued on a comprehensive liability basis and shall cover cross-liability claims of one insured against another. The Condominium Board shall review such limits once each year.

Any insurance maintained by the Board of Managers may provide for such deductible amounts as the Board determines. The premiums for all insurance referred to above shall be a Common Expense.

Unit Owners may and are advised to carry other insurance for their own benefit, provided that no Unit Owner shall be permitted to exercise the right to obtain additional insurance so as to decrease the amount which the Board of Managers, on behalf of all the Unit Owners, may realize under any insurance policy or to cause any insurance coverage maintained by the Board to be brought into contribution with such additional insurance coverage obtained by a Unit Owner. The Board may, in addition, elect to obtain other insurance in addition to that set forth herein, and in the By Laws.

Repairs of Common Elements.

The Board of Managers shall be responsible for the operation, maintenance, repair and replacement of all of the Common Elements, whether located inside or outside of the Units, the cost of which shall be charged to all Unit owners as a Common Expense; provided that each Unit owner shall perform normal maintenance on and replacement of the Limited Common Elements appurtenant only to such Owner's Unit, including keeping the same in clean and sanitary condition, free and clear of snow, ice, and any accumulation of water and shall also make all repairs thereto caused or permitted by such Owner's negligence, misuse, neglect, or otherwise except to the extent covered by insurance.

Repair or Reconstruction after Fire or Other Casualty

In the event that the Building or any part thereof is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, the Board of Managers will, except as set forth below, arrange for the prompt repair and restoration thereof (including each Unit, but excluding fixtures, furniture, furnishings or other personal property not constituting a part of such Unit or supplied or installed by the Units Owner). In such event Unit Owners may be assessed for deficits, if any, in insurance proceeds.

If three-fourths or more of the Building is destroyed or substantially damaged and if the Unit Owners do not duly and promptly resolve to proceed with repair or restoration, the Property shall become subject to an action for partition at the suit of any Unit Owner or Mortgagee pursuant to Section 339-cc of the Condominium Act, in which event the Property will not be repaired and net assets of the Condominium, together with the net proceeds of insurance policies, if any, shall be divided among all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests, provided, however, that no payment shall be made to a Unit Owner until there has first been paid out of his share of such fund, such amounts as may be necessary to discharge all unpaid liens on his Unit in the order of the priority of such liens.

Liability of Board of Managers and Unit Owners

Every contract made by the Board of Managers or by any Managing Agent shall state that (a) it is made only as agent for all Unit Owners and such Board members or Managing Agent shall have no personal liability thereon (except in their capacities as Unit Owners) and (b) the liability of any Unit Owner with respect to such contract shall be limited to (i) such proportionate share of the total liability as the Common Interest of such Unit Owner bears to the aggregate Common Interests of all Unit Owners, and (ii) except as otherwise determined by the Board of Managers in its sole and absolute discretion, such Unit Owner's interests in his Unit. Board members and officers shall have no liability to Unit Owners for errors of judgment, negligence or otherwise except that a Board member or officer shall be liable for his own bad faith or willful misconduct. All Unit Owners shall severally, to the extent of their respective interests in their Units, indemnify each Condominium Board Member or officer against any liability or claim except those arising out of his own bad faith or willful misconduct. The Board of Managers may contract or effect any other transactions with any Board member, any officer, any Unit Owner or the Sponsor or any affiliate of any of them without, except in case of bad faith or willful misconduct, incurring any liability for self dealing.

Reports to Unit Owners

An annual itemized accounting of the receipts and expenditures of the Condominium Board shall be submitted by the Board of Managers to all Unit Owners within 60 calendar days after the end of each fiscal year. Detailed books and records of receipts and expenditures affecting the Property and Administration of the Condominium shall be available for examination by the Unit Owners and by their respective duly authorized agents or attorneys in the office of the Managing Agent or of the Condominium during general business hours on working days at the times and in the manner set and announced by the Board of Managers for the general knowledge of the Unit Owners.

Amendments to Condominium Documents

The Declaration may be amended by the vote of at least 80% in Common Interest of all Unit Owners, cast in person or by proxy at a meeting duly held in accordance with the provisions of the Bylaws, with the following exceptions: (1) the Limited Common Interest appurtenant to each Unit shall not be altered without the approval in writing of every Unit Owner affected and their respective Mortgagees; (2) altering the use of the Building and Units for any use other than residential use only requires the approval in writing of the Unit Owner of every Unit and their respective Mortgagees.

The By-laws may be amended by the vote of 80% in Common Interest of all Unit Owners, cast in person or by proxy at a meeting duly held for such purpose, except that (1) Article 8 of the By-laws, which pertains to rights of Mortgagees, may not be amended without the written consent of each Mortgagee.

Termination of Condominium

The Condominium shall continue (unless terminated by casualty loss, condemnation or eminent domain as provided in the Bylaws) until such time as the Property shall be withdrawn from the provisions of the New York Condominium Act as a result of the vote to do so of all Unit Owners. In addition, the written consent of each Mortgagee shall be required before such vote is effective. In the event of withdrawal, the Property shall be subject to an action for partition by any Unit Owner or any lienor as if owned in common, in which event the net proceeds of the sale shall be divided among all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests after first applying the share of the net proceeds of such sale otherwise payable to any Unit Owner to the payment of any liens on his Unit in the order of priority of such liens.

Procedures to Review Real Estate Tax Assessments

Unit Owners will be assessed and taxed on their Units and their share of the Common Elements, because, pursuant to Section 339-y of the Real Property Law, each Unit and its Common Interest is deemed to be a parcel for all types of assessment and taxation. Therefore, each Unit Owner will be responsible for initiating any review of his Unit's real estate tax assessment.

Partition of Common Elements

The Common Elements cannot be divided or partitioned except as provided in the Condominium Act.

Accumulation of Reserves for Capital Replacements

The Board of Managers is authorized to adopt a budget for the Unit Owners including allocating those amounts necessary to pay the cost of maintenance, management, operation, repair, and replacement of the Common Elements and those parts of the Units which the Board of Managers is obligated to maintain, repair and replace. Such budget shall include such reasonable amounts as the Board of Managers considers necessary to provide working capital, a general operating reserve, and reserves for contingencies and replacements. Any amount accumulated in excess of the amount required for actual expenses and reserves shall, if deemed advisable to the Board of Managers, be either distributed to the Unit Owners in accordance with their Common Interests or credited to the Unit Owners' next monthly installments due, until exhausted. If reserves shall be inadequate for any reason the Board of Managers may at any time levy a further assessment, as provided in Section 6 of the By-laws.

PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS AND THEIR COUNSEL ARE ADVISED TO REVIEW CAREFULLY THE COPIES OF THE DECLARATION (EXHIBIT F) contained in of Part II of the Plan) AND the BY-LAWS (EXHIBIT G) also contained in Part II of the Plan).

Sponsor, will act as Managing Agent for the building. However, Sponsor at his option may retain a management firm.

The Managing Agent will hire and supervise all employees; arrange for the maintenance, repair and up-keep of the building; comply with all ordinances and regulations. It will negotiate all contracts for utilities, fuel, security, if any, etc.; purchase all needed supplies and equipment; recommend proper insurance coverage; check all bills and work orders; bill and collect common charges and other charges; attend to complaints; cooperate with the Board of Managers' accountant; and in general do all things necessary for the proper management of the building.

The Managing Agent will also retain a certified public accountant to maintain the Condominium's books and records and to prepare annual financial reports and tax statements for the Condominium, said statements to be furnished to Unit Owners by the Board of Managers.

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE UNIT OWNERS

AND THE BOARD OF MANAGERS

SALE AND LEASING OF UNITS

Normally a Unit Owner may sell, lease or mortgage his Unit without restriction except as set forth in the Bylaws. It must be noted, however, that under this plan all Units will be subject to a Right of First Refusal in favor of the Board of Managers. Such Right of First Refusal generally allows the Board of Managers the first option to purchase or lease a Unit upon the same terms and conditions as may be offered by a third party. The Right of First Refusal is set forth at length at Article 7.2 through 7.5 of the Bylaws.

Pursuant to the By Laws, the Board of Managers will notify a Unit Owner within 20 business days of the date the Unit Owner gave notice to the Board of Managers must exercise its right of first refusal within said 20 business days, otherwise the Unit Owner may proceed with the intended sale within 120 days of the date of either the Board's refusal or the expiration of the 20 business days. In exercising its right the Board may not discriminate against any person on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, marital status or any other ground prohibited by law.

Restrictions on Use of Units and Common Elements; Rules and Regulations

(a) Each Unit and the Common Elements shall be occupied and used as follows:

(1) Nothing shall be done or kept in any Unit or in the Common Elements which will increase the rate of insurance for the Property or any part hereof without the prior written consent of the Board of Managers. No Unit Owners shall permit anything to be done or kept in such Owner's Unit or in the Common Elements which will result in the cancellation of insurance on the Property or any part thereof or which would be in violation of any law, regulation or administrative ruling. No waste shall be committed in the Common Elements.

(2) No immoral, improper, offensive or unlawful use shall be made of the Property or any part thereof, and all valid laws, zoning ordinances and regulations of all governmental agencies having jurisdiction thereof shall be observed. All laws, orders, rules regulations or requirements of any governmental agency having jurisdiction thereof relating to any portion or use of the Property shall be complied with by and at the sole expense of the Unit Owner or the Board of Managers, whichever shall have the obligation to maintain or repair such portion of the Property, and, if the latter, then the cost of such compliance shall be a Common Expense.

(3) Nothing shall be altered or constructed or removed from the Common Elements by a Unit Owner (other than a Unit Owner's personal property) except upon prior written consent of the Board of Managers.

(4) The Common Elements shall be used only for the furnishing of the services and facilities for which the same are reasonably suited and which are incident to the use and occupancy of the Units.

(5) No Condominium Unit shall be rented or leased for transient or hotel purposes or in any event for any period less than six months. No portion less than 100% of a Condominium Unit shall be leased for any period. No Unit Owner shall lease a Condominium Unit other than on a standard form of lease approved by the Board of Managers and pay a $250.00 registration fee, which standard lease shall provide that any failure of the lessee to comply with the Declaration or the Bylaws shall be a default under such lease. Each Unit Owner shall, promptly following the execution of any such lease, forward a conformed copy thereof to the Board of Managers in accordance with Article 7.2 of the Bylaws. The foregoing provisions of this subparagraph shall not apply to the Sponsor or to a Mortgagee in possession as a result of a foreclosure or other judicial sale or as a result of any proceeding or transfer in lieu of foreclosure, during the period of such Mortgagee's possession.

(6) No junk or derelict vehicle or other vehicle on which current registration plates are not displayed shall be kept upon any of the Common Elements.

(7) The maintenance, keeping, boarding or raising of animals, livestock, poultry or reptiles of any kind, including small, orderly domestic pets regardless of number, shall be and is prohibited within any Unit or upon the Common Elements.

(8) Nothing shall be affixed to the exterior of any Building, including without limitation window air conditioners, window guards or security gates, television or radio antennas or other electrical apparatus, except in such manner as may be approved or prescribed in writing by the Board of Managers.

(9) No Unit Owner shall place or cause or permit to be placed on or in the public halls, stairways or other Common Elements (other than in the areas designated as storage areas) any signs, bicycles, furniture, packages or objects of any kind. The halls and stairways shall be used for no purpose other than for normal transit.

(10) No Unit shall be used other than for residential purposes for which the Property was designed. No incidental business activities which cater to the public or which will materially increase the number of visitors to the Condominium, may be conducted in any Unit or in the Common Elements.

(b) Each Unit and the Common Elements shall be occupied and used in compliance with the Rules and Regulations which may be promulgated and amended by the Board of Managers. Copies of the Rules and Regulations shall be furnished by the Board of Managers to each Unit Owner. Amendments to the Rules and Regulations shall be conspicuously posted prior to the time when the same shall become effective and copies thereof shall be furnished to each Unit Owner upon request.

(11) Pursuant to Real property Law Section 339-kk if a non-occupying owner rents any dwelling unit to a rental tenant and then fails to make payments due for common charges, assessments or late fees for such unit within sixty (60) days of the expiration of any grace period after they are due, the Condominium Board shall provide written notice to the tenant and the non-occupying owner that rental payments from the tenant shall be paid directly to the Condominium Board. Such notice shall provide that commencing immediately and until such time that all such sums are made current, all rental payments due subsequent to the issuance of such notice are to be made to the Board of Directors, who have been elected by Owners who are in occupancy, the Board may elect not to require that rental payments be made to the cooperative corporation. When such payments from the non-occupying owner are once again current, written notice of this fact shall be given within three business days to the rental tenant and non-occupying owner; thereafter, all rental payments shall be made payable to the non-occupying owner or a designated agent. A non-occupying owner who disputes the Board's claim to rental payments pursuant to Section 339-kk shall be entitled to present facts supporting such position at the next scheduled meeting of the Board who shall receive notice that such owner seeks to dispute such claim.

Nothing contain in Section 339-kk shall limit any rights of Unit owners of the Condominium Board existing under any other law or agreement. Payment by a rental tenant to the condominium board made in connection with Section 339-kk shall relieve the rental tenant from the obligation to pay such rent to the non-occupying owner and shall be an absolute defense in any non-payment proceeding commenced by such non-occupying owner against such tenant for such rent.

Common Charges: Determination and Assessment

Common Expenses will be determined by the Board of Managers and will be borne solely by Unit Owners in accordance with their percentage of interest in common elements. Common Expenses include, among other things, all costs and expenses in connection with the repair, maintenance, replacement, restoration and operation of, and any alteration, addition or improvement to Common Elements (excepting, however, costs and expenses in connection with normal maintenance of the Limited Common Elements) and may include amounts for certain other items as the Board of Managers may deem proper, such as management, legal and audit fees and amounts for reserves. Common Expenses are allocated to Unit Owners in accordance with their respective Common Interests.

At least annually the Condominium Board will prepare a budget for Common Expenses and allocate, as aforesaid, and assess Common Charges to the Unit Owners to meet such expenses. The Board of Managers shall have the right to accumulate reserves for capital expenditures and include such items in the budget. The Board of Managers will furnish copies of each budget on which common charges are based to all Unit Owners and advise such Owners of the amount of Common Charges payable by them. Unless otherwise determined by the Board of Managers, Common Charges will be payable monthly in advance on the first day of each month.

Common Charges: Collection and Lien for Non-Payment

No Unit Owner may exempt himself from liability for Common Charges by waiving use of any of the Common Elements or by abandonment of his Unit. No Unit Owner, however, will be liable for the payment of any part of the Common Charges assessed against his Unit subsequent to a permissible sale, transfer or other conveyance of such Unit.

On a resale of a Unit the Purchaser will be liable for the payment of Common Charges, accrued and unpaid against such Unit prior to his acquisition, except that, to the extent permitted by law, the holder of a mortgage or the purchaser of a Unit at a Mortgage foreclosure sale will not be liable for, and such Unit will not be subject to, a lien for the payment of such charges accrued prior to the foreclosure sale. In the event of a foreclosure by the Board of Managers of its lien on any Unit for unpaid Common Charges, if the net proceeds of the foreclosure sale shall be insufficient for the payment of such unpaid charges or if a Unit is acquired by a mortgagee or purchaser in foreclosure, the Unit Owner will remain liable for the unpaid balance. The Board of Managers will have the right to assess such unpaid balance as a Common Charge among all Unit Owners.

Under the provisions of Sections 339-z and 339-aa of the New York Condominium Act and Article 6.4 of the By-laws, the Board of Managers on behalf of all Unit Owners will have a lien on each Unit for unpaid Common Charges, together with interest thereon, assessed against such Unit. All such liens, however, to the extent permitted by applicable law, will be subordinate to liens for real estate taxes on the Unit and any sums unpaid on Mortgages of record on such Unit.

Any lien for unpaid Common Charges against a Unit will be effective from and after filing of a verified notice thereof in the Office of the City Register, Kings County, New York and until all sums secured thereby with the interest accrued thereon shall have been fully paid or until six years from the date of filing (unless foreclosure of such lien is started within such six-year period), whichever shall be sooner. Such liens may be foreclosed by a suit brought in the name of the Board of Managers (acting on behalf of all Unit Owners) in like manner as the foreclosure of a mortgage on real property or and action may be brought on the Board of Managers to recover the unpaid Common Charges without foreclosing the lien.

Repairs to and Maintenance of Units and Common Elements

Generally, all painting, decorating, maintenance, repairs and replacements, whether structural or non-structural, ordinary or extraordinary, (a) in or to any Unit (other than to the Common Elements included therein) and the interior side of entrance doors thereto will be made by the Owner of such Unit at such Unit Owner's sole cost and expense, and (b) in or to the Common Elements will be made by the Condominium Board of Managers and the cost and expense thereof will be charged to the Unit Owners as a Common Expense. Normal maintenance of any Limited Common Elements will, however, be the responsibility and the expense of the Unit Owner of the Unit to which the Limited Common Elements are appurtenant. Normal maintenance includes keeping the Limited Common Elements free and clear of snow, ice and any accumulation of water.

The Bylaws provide that each Unit and its Common Elements shall be kept in first class condition (and with respect to any terrace, roof or other part of the Property exposed to the elements, free of snow, ice and accumulation of water) by the Unit Owner or Board of Managers, whichever is responsible for the maintenance thereof. In the event that any Unit Owner fails to keep his Unit or appurtenant Limited Common Elements in such condition the Board of Managers may, at the expense of the Unit Owner, enter his Unit or such Limited Common Elements and perform such acts as are necessary to cure such default (see "Rights of Access" at Section 5.9 of the Bylaws).

In addition, such Unit Owner shall be responsible for all damage to any other Units or to the Common Elements resulting from such Owner's failure to make any required repairs, or from such Owner's negligence or abuse.

Alterations and Improvements of Units and Common Elements

No Unit Owner may make any structural alteration, addition, improvement or repair in or to his Unit without the prior written approval of the Board of Managers. This provision does not apply to the Sponsor or its designee until a deed to the Unit affected has been delivered to the Purchaser thereof.

Generally, all alterations, additions or improvements in or to any Common Element will be made by the Board of Managers and the cost and expense thereof will be charges to all Unit Owners as a Common Expense.

Insurance Coverage

Article 5.4 of the Bylaws sets forth in full details concerning Insurance. Generally, the Board of Managers shall obtain and maintain the following insurance:

(1) A policy in an amount sufficient to avoid the effects of co-insurance covering "all risk" perils, including fire insurance with extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief endorsements. Such insurance shall include all of the Units created or to be created and the floor coverings and bathroom and kitchen fixtures and appliances initially conveyed with the Units by the Sponsor, but shall not include furniture, furnishings or other personal property or improvements supplied or installed by Unit Owners. Amounts of coverage shall be determined annually by the Board of Managers with the assistance of the insurance company affording such coverage;

(2) Workmen's Compensation insurance and New York State disability benefits insurance, if and to the extent necessary to meet the requirements of law; and

(3) Such other insurance as the Board of Managers may determine or as may be requested from time to time by a majority of the Unit Owners.

The Board of Managers shall obtain and maintain, to the extent obtainable, public liability insurance for bodily injury and property damage (including, with regard to the Board of Managers and the Managing Agent, if any, libel, slander, false arrest, wrongful eviction and invasion of privacy coverage) covering the Board of Managers, the Managing Agent, if any, and each Unit Owner. All such insurance shall be carried in such limits as the Board of Managers may from time to time determine, insuring, as appropriate, each member of the Board of Managers, each officer, the Managing Agent, if any, all employees of the Condominium and each Unit Owner against any liability to the public or to the Unit Owners (and their invitees, agents, and employees) arising out of or incident to the ownership or use of the Common Elements. Such insurance shall be issued on a comprehensive liability basis and shall contain: a cross liability endorsement under which the rights of a named insured under the policy shall not be prejudiced with respect to any action against another named insured and a "severability of interest" endorsement which shall preclude the insurer from denying liability to a Unit Owner because of negligent acts of another Unit Owner. The Board of Managers shall review policies and limits once each year.

If required by any governmental or quasi-governmental agency, the Board of Managers shall obtain flood insurance in accordance with the then applicable regulations of such agency.

The cost of all insurance purchased by the Board of Managers pursuant to Section 5.4 of the Bylaws shall be a Common Expense.

Neither the Board of Managers nor the Unit Owners shall be required to obtain any coverage required by the Bylaws or be liable for any loss or damage resulting from any failure to obtain such coverage if such failure is due to the unavailability of such coverage from reputable insurance companies, or if such coverage are so available only at demonstrably unreasonable cost. Insurance coverage for contents of a Unit and Directors and officers insurance are not currently offered by Sponsor, nor are automobile or excess liability coverage offered. These, however, are available, and may be purchased by the Board of Managers, or Unit Owners, as appropriate for various types of coverage.

Separate Insurance

Each Unit Owner shall have the right, at such Owner's expense, to obtain casualty and liability insurance coverage upon personal property, and for personal liability and theft; provided that no Unit Owner shall be entitled to exercise such right so as to decrease the amount which the Board of Managers, on behalf of all Unit Owners, may realize under any insurance policy on the Property or to cause any insurance coverage maintained by the Board of Managers to be brought into contribution with such additional insurance coverage obtained by a Unit Owner.

Rights of Access

As more fully set forth in Article 5.9 of the Bylaws, the Board of Managers, any Managing Agent and other persons authorized by the Board of Managers will have a right of access to any Unit for the purposes, among other things, of making inspections of, or removing, violations of governmental laws or regulations and of curing defaults by the Owner of such Unit under the Declaration, Bylaws or Rules and Regulations enacted in accordance therewith or of correcting any conditions originating in any Unit and threatening another Unit or any Common Element.

The Sponsor and its contractors, subcontractors, agents and employees will have a right of access to each Unit and to all of the Common Elements for purposes of completing construction of the Building and fulfilling the Sponsor's obligations hereunder.

Compliance with Terms of the Declaration, By-Laws and Rules and Regulations Made in Accordance Therewith

Each Unit Owner must strictly comply with the provisions of the Declaration, Bylaws and the Rules and Regulations made in accordance therewith. Failure to comply is grounds for an action for damages or injunctive relief, or both. The Bylaws will be recorded with the Declaration in the Office of the City Register.

REAL ESTATE TAXES

The following discussion of the income tax consequences of purchasing and owning a Unit pursuant to the Plan was prepared by the Sponsor with the advice of its counsel. It is intended for the general information of prospective Purchasers only. It is the opinion of counsel that, based on the information contained in the Plan and current federal, state, and local laws, the discussion below is accurate. However, prospective Purchasers should be aware that Sponsor's Counsel is acting as counsel to the Sponsor and not to the Unit Owners. Thus, prospective Purchasers may wish to consult their own tax advisers as to the matters described below.

The Sponsor has been advised by its counsel that the Condominium will be taxed on any excess of income over expenses from unrelated sources. Examples of unrelated source income include interest earned on reserve and other invested funds, income from concessions and income from dues or fees received from persons other than the Unit Owners. If the Condominium is required to pay taxes, the amount thereof will be levied as an additional common charge.

Deductibility of Real Estate Taxes and Interest.

As described in the section of the Plan entitled "Introduction", real estate taxes will be assessed separately against each Unit. A Unit Owner who itemizes deductions for federal income tax purposes will be entitled to deduct real estate taxes paid by him or her with respect to such assessment. Furthermore, a Unit Owner who itemizes deductions for federal purposes will also be entitled to a deduction for interest paid on any indebtedness incurred to acquire his or her Unit.

A Unit Owner who is a resident of New York State and who itemizes deductions for federal income tax purposes may choose also to itemize deductions for New York State (and, if applicable, New York City) income tax purposes. In that case, the real estate taxes and interest described in the preceding paragraph will also be deductible for New York State or City income tax purposes.

Tax Treatment of the Condominium.

The Condominium may be subject to federal income taxes, as a separate entity, on its taxable income (if any) unless it is eligible for and elects tax exempt status under Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code. Such an election would exempt the Condominium from federal income tax on certain types of income. Whether or not the Condominium will be eligible to make the election under Section 528 depends on various factors, including the purposes for which it is formed, the sources of its income and the uses to which that income is put. It is impossible at this time to determine whether the Condominium will so qualify, although counsel's tax opinion letter states that it will, and, if it does, whether it would be advantageous for the Condominium to make the election.

Tax Exemption and Abatement Benefits

The Sponsor has applied for tax exemption under Section 421-A of the New York State Real Property Tax Law. A Preliminary Certificate of Eligibility has also been issued for the property on January 20, 2000. This section of the law provides for a fifteen year partial tax exemption program applicable to multiple dwellings constructed in New York City under certain limited conditions for developments where construction commences after July 25, 1978 and prior to January 1, 1999. If required, a final exemption will be applied for by the Sponsor at least sixty (60) days prior to initial occupancy of a Unit. The Sponsor will in any event file all necessary papers to secure final approval. Prior to declaring the Plan effective, Sponsor has or will obtain an opinion letter from the Department of Housing, Preservation and Development ("HPD") indicating that the condominium is eligible to receive 421-A tax abatement benefits. All documents and information required by the "HPD", in connection with securing 421-A tax abatement benefits will be made available whenever requested.

HPD which administers the 421-A tax abatement program, routinely conducts audits of applicants which may result in either the revocation or reduction of benefits if proper documentation is not provided. Accordingly, Sponsor will maintain all relevant records required by HPD. Upon closing, Sponsor will make all 421-A documentation available to the Condominium Board for inspection and copying for the life of the benefits and will timely comply with all procedures to properly process and maintain 421-A benefits. In the event 421-A benefits are terminated, the Condominium will be required to pay the full amount of real estate taxes assessed on the property.

The Sponsor anticipates, but does not guarantee, that the Residential Units will be approved for partial Real Estate Tax Exemption under this program. In the event the partial exemption is not granted or is revoked, the Residential Unit Owners will be responsible for the entire real estate taxes assessed against their respective Units and the Sponsor shall not be liable for any portion thereof, except to the extent that it is the Owner of any unsold Unit.

The tax exemption program provides that while the taxes on the property may not be less than those assessed in prior years, real estate taxes on newly constructed buildings are exempted under section 421-A for 100% of the increased assessed value of the property resulting from the improvement thereon (i.e., the assessed value above the pre-construction assessed value) is exempt from taxation during construction and during the ten (10) years following the first taxable status date immediately following completion of construction. The exemption declines 80% of the increased assessed value for the eleventh (11) year and is further reduced by an additional 20% for each of the succeeding years. Following the fifteen (15) year period, the Unit Owners will pay real estate taxes based on the full assessed valuation of their Units and the tax rate then in effect, without the benefit of any exemption.

The estimate of real estate taxes set forth in Schedule A is based upon the yearly taxes on the entire property as divided by the percentage of common interest each Unit has in the Condominium. The estimate assumes that 100% of the value of the residential improvements to the Condominium will be exempt from taxation under Section 421-A of the Real Property Law. Although in the Sponsor's opinion this method of calculating the real estate taxes applicable to each Unit is reasonable, there can be no assurance that final exemption will be granted or that this method of calculation or real estate taxes applicable to each Unit will be the final method used by the New York City taxing authorities in establishing the real estate tax assessment for each Unit. If for any reason a different method of calculation is used or a different assessment placed upon any of the Units by such authorities, real estate taxes may increase or decrease, depending upon the final decision of such taxing authorities.

Since the New York State Condominium Act provides that real estate taxes will be separately assessed against each individual Unit Owner, the result of the tax exemption program will be to give each individual Residential Unit Owner the full benefit of the tax exemption program.

The Sponsor anticipates that the real estate tax rate will increase in future years rather than remain constant as assumed in the example. In addition, prospective purchasers are advised that The City of New York has not yet actually assessed the Units in the Condominium. The estimates of projected real estate taxes in this Offering Plan have been prepared by the Sponsor and cannot be construed as an assurance of the final tax costs, but are merely estimates based upon information available to the Sponsor at this time. In no event will the Sponsor or the Sponsor's Counsel be liable if the actual taxes assessed differ from the above example.

RE: THE AMSTERDAM CONDOMINIUM.

Dear Sir:

We have prepared the Offering Plan, the proposed Declaration, the By-Laws and Rules and Regulations of the Condominium. We have also reviewed all of the schedules, attachments and supporting documents attached thereto and incorporated therein.

Accordingly, you have requested our opinion, based on our preparation and review of the foregoing and assuming that the Plan becomes effective and is consummated in accordance with its terms, as to: (1) the availability of certain deductions for Federal, New York State and New York City income tax purposes to persons who purchase Residential Units for residential use ("Residential Unit Owners") under the Plan; (2) the treatment for such income tax purposes of the receipt by the Board of Managers (the "Board") of Common Charges that are paid and/or are obligations of Residential Unit Owners and (3) Eligibility for Partial Tax Abatement. Except where otherwise noted, all capitalized terms used in this opinion letter shall have the same meaning ascribed to them in the Plan.

1. Deductibility of Mortgage Interest and Real Estate Taxes

Assuming the Condominium is validly created under Article 9-B of the Real property Law of the State of New York, The Amsterdam Condominium will be considered a condominium for tax purposes. A condominium is defined as an interest in real property consisting of undivided interest in common in a portion of a parcel of real property together with a separate interest in space in a building located on such property.

In general, a condominium unit owner is treated, for tax purposes, in the same manner as the owner of any other real property. Therefore, each condominium unit owner will be entitled, under present law, to deduct for Federal, New York State and New York City income tax purposes, the full amount paid by him or her for real estate taxes assessed against his or her unit. In addition, he or she will be entitled to deduct the amount of interest (if any) paid on any mortgage indebtedness covering his or her unit. These deductions are only available if the unit owner chooses to otherwise itemize deductions in a given tax year, and provided further that the interest is considered QUALIFIED RESIDENCE INTEREST. Qualified Residence

Interest is defined as interest paid or accrued by a qualified residence of the taxpayer. The term qualified residence means the taxpayer's principal residence plus one other residence selected by the taxpayer.

2. Common Charges

Under the terms of the Plan the Board will from time to time assess Common Charges on all unit owners in proportion to their respective percentage interests in the Common Elements.

The Common Charges will be used to pay the costs and expenses of operating, repairing and maintaining the Common Elements of the Condominium.

Under Section 528 of the Code, the Board may elect to be exempt from federal income tax on certain Common Charges collected from Unit Owners if it meets certain tests, including, but not limited to, the requirements that (i) at least 60% of its gross income must consist of exempt function income, (ii) at least 90% of its expenditures for the taxable year must be for the acquisition, construction, maintenance and care of the Condominium, (iii) no distribution of funds are made to the Home Owners other than the rebate of excess Common Charges, and (iv) substantially all of the Units must be used by individuals for residences.

It should be noted, however, that neither New York State nor the New York City has legislation comparable to Section 528 of the Code. In addition, under Section 528(d) of the Code, any income of the Board, other than the exempt Common Charges, would be taxable.

It is therefore our opinion that based on the projected schedule of income and expense for the first year of operation, the Board of Managers of the Condominium will be entitled to avail itself of the election provided under Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code, and will qualify as an exempt homeowners association.

3. Eligibility for Partial Tax Abatement

As stated in the Offering Plan, Sponsor has or will apply for benefits under Section 421(a) of the Real Property Tax Law. I have reviewed the opinion letter of Sponsor's expert, regarding such benefits, and assuming all facts and representations stated therein to be accurate, it is my opinion that the Condominium should qualify for certification of eligibility for partial real property tax exemption under Section 421(a) of the Real Property Tax Law.

However, no warranties or representations are or can be made that the United States Department of Treasury, the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance or the New York City Department will allow the deductions or exemptions from tax herein referred to; or that the tax laws and regulations referred to or the current interpretation or application thereof will not change so as to disallow the deductions or exemptions in whole or in part; or with respect to the tax consequences of the Plan or the tax consequences of ownership of any units offered under the plan. The undersigned also assumes no liability and will not be liable if any of the facts represented to be true by the Sponsor and others, and upon which the undersigned has based this opinion, should prove to be false or mistaken.

We are aware of your intention to reproduce this opinion for inclusion in the Offering Plan, and we consent to such reproduction and inclusion.

Very truly yours,

RESERVE FUND/WORKING CAPITAL FUND

There will be no reserve fund or working capital fund established by the Sponsor. However, the Sponsor, as agent of the Board of Managers, will collect from each original Purchaser at the time of closing, an "Initial Capital Payment" equal to twice the estimated monthly Common Charges for each Unit. The Sponsor will deliver the funds so collected to the Board of Managers to provide the necessary working capital for the Condominium. Such funds may be used for certain prepaid items, organizational, equipment and supply costs, and for such other purposes as the Board of Managers may determine. NO REPRESENTATION IS MADE THAT THE INITIAL WORKING CAPITAL FUND WILL BE ADEQUATE TO COVER CURRENT OR FUTURE EXPENSES, INCLUDING REPAIRS OR REPLACEMENTS OF BUILDING COMPONENTS OR SYSTEMS OR TO REMEDY MAJOR BUILDING DEFECTS. IF ADDITIONAL FUNDS ARE REQUIRED OVER AND ABOVE THE INITIAL CAPITAL FUND, IT MAY BE NECESSARY FOR THE BOARD OF MANAGERS TO INCREASE THE CHARGES PAYABLE BY UNIT OWNERS OR TO ASSESS THE UNIT OWNERS WITH A SPECIAL ASSESSMENT. The Board of Managers shall not use these funds to pay the cost of common charges for any Unit under the control of Sponsor.

GENERAL

No labor performed on, or materials furnished to, the Common Elements shall be the basis for a lien thereon but all Common Charges received by the Board of Managers shall constitute trust funds for the purpose of paying the cost of labor performed or materials furnished at the request or with the consent of the Board of Managers or the Managing Agent.

4) The Condominium shall continue (unless terminated by casualty loss, condemnation or eminent domain as provided in the Bylaws) or until such time as the Property shall be withdrawn from the provisions of the New York Condominium Act as a result of the vote to do so of at least 67% in number and in Common Interest of all Unit Owners. In the event of withdrawal, the Property shall be subject to an action for partition by any Unit Owner or any lienor as if owned in common, in which event the net proceeds of the sale shall be divided among all the Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests after first applying the share of the net proceeds of such sale otherwise payable to any Unit Owner to the payment of any lien on his Unit in the order of priority of such liens.

1. Receipt of Documents. You have delivered to me, at least three (3) full business days prior to my signing this Agreement, and I have read the Offering Plan of the Condominium and I agree to be bound by the proposed Declaration of Condominium (the "Declaration"), By-Laws and Rules and Regulations contained in the Offering Plan of the Condominium (collectively, the "Offering Plan" or the "Plan"), all of which are made part of this Agreement as if they were set forth in full in this Agreement. I acknowledge that I am purchasing a Unit in a Condominium to be formed, and that except as stated in this Agreement (and as set forth in the Declaration, By-Laws, and the Offering Plan), I have not relied on any representations or other statements of any kind or nature made by you or other persons, including but not limited to any representations relating to the description, size or dimensions of the Unit or rooms, and the estimated Common Charges or other expenses of the Condominium.

2. Agreement to Purchase. As Purchaser I agree to purchase from you and as Seller you agree to sell to me the Condominium Unit together with undivided interest in the common elements designated above in The Condominium in the borough of Brooklyn, County of Kings, City and State of New York for the Total Purchase Price shown above. This check is accepted by you subject to collection. When you deliver to me the deed for my Unit, I shall give you or anyone you designate my certified check or official bank check for the Balance Due at Closing shown above drawn on a New York bank which is a member of the New York Clearing House Association. Such check shall be payable directly to you without endorsement.

3. Delivery of the Deed. The Closing of Title shall take place on or about _____, _____, at the offices of your attorney, or at another date and place you select if you shall write me at least fifteen (15) days in advance to tell me the exact time and place at which you shall deliver to me the deed to my Unit. You shall be entitled to a reasonable adjournment in the Closing of Title as set forth in paragraph 21 of this Agreement. If I am not ready to close title at the date and time fixed by you, any adjournment exceeding fifteen (15) days granted at my request shall be upon the condition that all adjustments, including interest on the unpaid balance of the Purchase Price at the rate of ____% per annum, shall be made as of the date originally fixed for the closing of title. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall require you to grant any adjournment not reasonable in duration. Any request for an adjournment exceeding 30 days shall be considered unreasonable. The deed delivered to me shall be a standard type of deed known as a bargain and sale deed with covenant against grantor's acts. I shall pay the New York City and New York State transfer taxes on such deed. When you deliver the deed, I shall sign the power of attorney in favor of the Board of Managers of the Condominium in the form set forth in Part II of the Plan.

4. Marketable Title. You shall convey to me good and marketable title (subject to the terms of the Declaration and By-Laws as filed and of the Offering Plan), free and clear of all liens and encumbrances except the lien of the mortgage applied for by me and except as set forth in the Offering Plan; and such title as _____ and insure for mortgagee and/or fee title insurance. If I order title insurance, it shall be purchased at my own cost and expense.

5. Contract Subject to My Receiving Mortgage Commitment.
This Purchase Agreement is conditional upon my obtaining mortgage financing in the amount set forth herein. I agree to make all necessary applications for such financing and represent that I shall furnish all information that said institution may require within ten (10) days of the signing of this Agreement. I agree that if the application is approved, I will forward within five days of receipt of a written mortgage commitment a copy of the commitment to the Sponsor, and I will execute at title closing all papers, statements or instruments which may be necessary to consummate the mortgage loan transaction. Failure to comply shall be deemed a material breach of this Agreement. If I am unable to obtain a mortgage commitment in the amount set forth herein above within 45 days of the date of this Agreement, and I have sent you written notice, by certified mail return receipt requested, of my inability to obtain a commitment within this 45 day period then this Agreement shall be deemed canceled and we shall be released from any liability hereunder except that you reserve the right but not the obligation to designate another lending institution or to grant the mortgage loan yourself on the same terms and conditions. Within ten (10) days of such notice, the down payments paid herein by me shall be returned to me with interest, if any, unless you designate another lending institution as above. In the event that written notice is not received by you of my inability to obtain such financing within the said 45 day period or the Agreed upon Application Period at the then prevailing terms, this provision shall be deemed waived by me and I shall be obligated to complete this transaction whether or not I obtain financing. I agree to furnish to you at your request with a copy of my mortgage application and the name and address of the institution to which said application has been made and a copy of the commitment when received. If such other lending institution or you do not approve me within an additional thirty (30) days, then this Agreement will be deemed canceled and all monies paid by me will be refunded with interest, if any. In addition this contract may not be assigned without the prior approval of the Sponsor. In addition Sponsor reserves the right to install all appliances in the Unit purchased by me up to 48 hours after closing to which I agree to provide access to the Unit.

6. Closing Expenses and Adjustment. I further agree to pay at the closing of title, the actual cost of title examination and insurance, the $75 survey charge, $450 for legal and filing fees in connection with securing tax exemption benefits provided however, that you have obtained the Preliminary Certificate of Eligibility for benefits by the time of closing, Sponsor's attorney's fees in the amount of $450, attorneys' fees for preparation of the documents necessary for any mortgage loan, New York City and New York State Transfer Taxes, recording charges for the deed, power of attorney in favor of the Board of Managers, and any mortgage documents and mortgage recording taxes, including a fee of $250 to Sponsor if the title company used is other than Madison Title Agency located in Lakewood, New Jersey. In addition, I shall adjust with you as of 11:59 P.M. on the date preceding the day of Closing of Title all real estate taxes and any common charges assessed during the month in which title closes or established as a reserve based upon the last bill received.

7. Escrow or Bonding of Down Payment. You shall hold all Down Payment monies you receive from me, directly or through your agents or employees, in an segregated special escrow account until actually employed in consummation of the transaction. At your sole discretion, however, you may secure a bond in my favor in an amount equal to the full Down Payment monies received. If you post such a bond, you will file an amendment to the Plan with the New York State Attorney General before releasing any of my Down Payment monies from such escrow account.

If no bond is posted, such Down Payment monies shall be held as trust funds pursuant to Sections 352-e(2)(b) and 352-h of the General Business Law, in a segregated special escrow account entitled "The Amsterdam Condominium - Special Account" at Sterling National Bank, Brooklyn, New York. The signature of S. Seth Yavne, Attorney at Law, shall be required to withdraw any of such funds other than in consummation of this transaction. Such funds shall be payable to you upon the closing of title to the Unit covered by this Purchase Agreement or upon the posting of a bond in my favor as described above. Interest, if any, earned on such funds shall be turned over or assigned to you at the closing and shall not be a credit against the Purchase Price.

In the event of my default under this Purchase Agreement, which default continues for fifteen (15) days after notice of such default from you to me, all such funds, including interest, if any, earned thereon, shall be released to you from such account as liquidated damages and thereafter neither you nor I shall have any rights or obligations against or to the other. In no event shall such liquidated damages exceed ten (10%) percent of the total Purchase Price of the Unit, plus the cost of optional extras, if any, together with interest if any, earned on such sums.

8. Your Rights If I Fail to Keep My Promises and Agreements. All sums I pay to you on account of this Agreement and the reasonable cost of the examination of title to the Unit shall constitute liens on the Unit. Such liens shall not continue, however, after default by me under this Agreement. You shall have the right to keep my Down Payment and all interest earned on it if (a) I do not pay the Total Purchase Price of my Unit when due or (b) if when you offer to deliver to me the deed to my Unit I do not then sign any of the documents referred to in the Plan which I am required to sign or (c) if I fail to keep any other promise contained in this Agreement. Your rights shall apply whether or not construction of my Unit has begun.

However, before you shall have the right to keep my Down Payment and the interest earned on it, you must first send me a written notice stating that you intend to cancel this Agreement and describing each promise which you think I did not keep under this Agreement. If I do not cause each of these promises to be kept within fifteen (15) days after your notice is sent, and time shall be of the essence as to such date, you may keep my Down Payment and all interest earned on it. After that, neither you nor I shall have any further obligations under this Agreement; this Agreement shall be considered canceled without any further action by either of us; and you shall have the right to sell my Unit to any other person.

9. Recording of Condominium Declaration. I understand that the Declaration and By-Laws establishing the Condominium shall be recorded by you in the Office of the Register of the City of New York, Kings County, prior to the Closing of Title to the first Unit as set forth in the Offering Plan. You shall file with the Declaration when it is recorded or shall amend the Declaration prior to the closing date and file at such time a verified statement of a registered architect or licensed professional engineer certifying that the plans previously filed or being filed simultaneously with such amendment fully and fairly depict the layout, location, Unit designation and approximate dimensions of my Unit as built. The Declaration and By-Laws, when recorded by you shall be substantially in the form of the Declaration and By-Laws set forth in the Offering Plan and any changes in such documents shall not have a material adverse effect upon me. You shall not record the Declaration until you have accepted purchase agreements for at least eighty (80%) percent in number and common Interest of all of the Units. If you do not record the Declaration within eighteen (18) months of the date of the Offering Plan, all monies advanced by me shall be returned promptly thereafter together with interest, if any, earned thereon.

10. Seller's Inability to Deliver Deed - Cancellation of Purchase Agreement. It is understood and agreed that in the event you are unable to deliver to me a deed to the Unit in accordance with this Agreement because of your inability to complete the construction of the Building or my Unit, or file an amendment declaring this Plan effective in accordance with the Offering Plan and any amendments to the Plan, then you shall immediately notify me in writing and this Agreement will terminate. In such case, the sole liability between us shall be the return to me of the Down Payment together with interest, if any, earned thereon.

11. Agreement Subject to Your Mortgage(s). I understand that you may borrow money to construct the Condominium and give to your lender a construction or development loan mortgage. I recognize and agree that all terms and provisions of this Purchase Agreement are and shall be subject and subordinate to the lien of any building loan mortgage on the condominium property heretofore or hereafter made and any advances already made or incurred or which may hereafter be made or incurred, pursuant to the terms thereof, to the full extent thereof without the execution of any further legal documents by me. This subordination shall apply whether such advances are voluntary or involuntary and whether made in accordance with the building loan schedule of payments or accelerated thereunder by virtue of the lender's right to make advances before they become due in accordance schedule of payments. You shall satisfy all at or prior to the closing of title.

12. Construction of Unit by Seller. You agree, at your own cost and expense to erect and complete my Unit in accordance with the requirements as to materials and workmanship of the Buildings Department and you further agree that when it is completed it shall be in substantial accordance with the plans as filed with the Buildings Department. In the event my Unit is substantially completed and provided a temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy is issued, I agree to close title to my Unit and accept a letter agreement from you in which you promise to complete all unfinished items within sixty (60) days of the closing of title, weather permitting.

If a temporary Certificate of Occupancy is obtained, you agree to perform all work necessary and obtain a permanent Certificate of Occupancy within two (2) years of the closing of title or prior to expiration of the temporary Certificate of Occupancy, whichever is sooner. In the event a permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building containing my Unit has not been issued as of the date of Closing of Title, you will continue to hold all monies previously deposited and being held in escrow for said Unit pursuant to Section 352-e(2)(b) of the General Business Law unless your engineer or architect certifies that a lesser amount will be reasonably necessary to complete the work needed to obtain a permanent Certificate of Occupancy. Any sum of money exceeding the amount certified by your engineer or architect will be released to you. Upon the issuance of the permanent Certificate of Occupancy, such escrow deposit will be released to you without my consent or the consent of any other party.

Alternatively, you may deposit with an escrow agent an unconditional, irrevocable letter of credit or post a surety bond in the amount certified by your engineer or architect. Prior to releasing such escrow deposit, you will amend the Plan.

13. Personal Property Included in Sale: Excluded Items. All articles of personal property, fixtures and equipment described in the Offering Plan for the Condominium Unit being purchased by me are included in this sale, and they shall be delivered free and clear of all liens and encumbrances except the lien of the mortgage, if any, applied for by me. The decorative lighting fixtures, paints, carpeting, built-ins, wallpapers, furniture, furnishings and the burglar alarm system exhibited in any Model Units, except as otherwise specifically set forth in this Agreement or in the Offering Plan, are for display purposes only and are not included in this sale.

14. Seller's Right to Make Changes. I understand that you have the right: (a) to make changes or substitutions of materials or construction for items as set forth in the Offering Plan or building plans, provided any such changes are of comparable value and quality; (b) to determine the grading, elevation and design of the Building, Units, and Common Elements to fit into the general pattern of the Condominium; and (c) to determine elevation and location of foundations, walkways and streets to conform with topographical conditions.

15. Limited One Year Warranty. At the closing of title you will deliver any certificates and warranties delivered to you and transferable to me or to the Condominium, and it is further agreed that title will not close without my consent until either a temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy has been issued for the Unit. Your liability pursuant to the manufacturers' warranties covering heating, appliances, electricity, plumbing and roofing are subject to the provisions of Section 777-a of the General Business Law. In addition, however, you will promptly correct any defects in the construction of the condominium Unit or the building containing such Unit or in the installation or operation of any mechanical equipment therein due to materials or improper workmanship substantially at variance with the plans and specifications, as provided in said section.

Where failure to give timely notice results in further damage, such further damage will not be covered by these warranties. If a defect occurs in an item which is covered by your warranties, you will (a) repair, or (b) replace the defective item. The choice among repair or replacement is yours.

I AM FULLY AWARE THAT:

a. No steps taken by you to correct a defect shall act to extend the warranty period.

b. You accept no responsibility for any warranty obligation for incidental or consequential damage caused by any defect.

c. These warranties give me specific legal rights. I may have other rights under State Law.

d. These warranties are extended to me as Purchaser and are not extended to any subsequent Purchaser and mortgage lender who takes possession of the Unit.

e. These warranties shall be void if I misuse, abuse or otherwise interfere with or change your original construction or installations.

f. You are not responsible for any work or material ordered directly by me from your contractors or suppliers nor shall you be responsible for any incidental or consequential damages caused by any defects.

g. In no event shall you be responsible for the partial or total death of any trees, shrubs, bushes or other landscape improvements; damage to walkways or other concrete areas caused by the application of salt or deicers; nail pops; raised butt joints; ridging; normal lumber shrinkage; normal settlement or any consequential damage resulting therefrom; normal plumbing and heating noises or carpet stretching; normal settlement cracks on concrete foundations, patios, sidewalks and other flat work; basement leaks resulting from acts of God, or alteration of landscaping or grading; leakage resulting from "ice dams" forming on roofs; spalling or flaking of concrete surfaces if ice melting compounds have been used; scuffing on kitchen cabinets or vanities; minor chips (nicks) to formica tops, cultured marble floors, tops, tubs and showers, edges and surfaces; shading variations of the exterior siding staining (on the face surface or grooves); shading variations on fascias from staining; doors and windows sticking because of weather; door warpage less than 1/2 inch; adjustment of bi-fold doors; bath tile grouting; slight separation in joints of flooring; slight separation between base and floor in all rooms (including bathrooms); repair of chips, scratches, mars, breaks, or other blemishes in windows, sliding doors, screens, electric fixtures and globes, painted surfaces, sinks, tubs, basins, kitchen cabinets and countertops, vanity tops and cabinets, medicine cabinets, ceramic tile, saddles, resilient flooring, appliances, woodwork and doors. Subsequent to the conveyance of title to a Unit, you shall not be responsible for paint touch-ups, repair of dented appliances, porcelain or formica chips and scratches in tubs, vanities or countertops, broken windows or screens which windows or screens break subsequent to closing.

h. These warranties are specifically in lieu of any other guarantee or warranty, express or implied including any warranty of merchantability.

The provisions of this Paragraph shall survive the delivery of the deed.

16. Lack of Labor/Materials: Seller's Right to Cancel. AN ACT to amend the general business law and the civil practice law and rules, in relation to warranties on sales of new homes

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new article
2 thirty-six-B to read as follows:

ARTICLE 36-B

WARRANTIES ON SALES OF NEW HOMES

5 Section 777. Definitions.
6 777-a. Housing merchant implied warranty.
7 777-b. Exclusion or modification of warranties.
8 S 777. Definitions. As used in this article, the following terms shall 9 have the following meanings:
10 1. "Builder" means any person, corporation, partnership or other en-11 tity contracting with an owner for the construction or sale of a new 12 home.
13 2. "Building code" means the uniform fire prevention and building code
14 promulgated under section three hundred seventy-seven of the executive 15 law, local building code standards approved by the uniform fire prevention and building code council under section three hundred seventy-nine of the executive law, and the building code of the city of New York, as defined in title twenty-seven of the administrative code of the city of New York.

3. "Constructed in a skillful manner" means that workmanship and materials meet or exceed the specific standards of the applicable building code. When the applicable building code does not provide a relevant specific standard, such term means that workmanship and materials meet or exceed the standards of locally accepted building practices.

4. "Material defect" means actual physical damage to the following load-bearing portions of the home caused by failure of such load-bearing portions which affects their load-bearing functions to the extent that the home becomes unsafe, unsanitary or otherwise unliveable: foundation systems and footings, beams, girders, lintels, columns, walls and partitions, floor systems, and roof framing systems.

5. "New home" or "home" means any single family house or for-sale unit in a multi-unit residential structure of five stories or less in which title to the individual units is transferred to owners under a condominium or cooperative regime. Such terms do not include dwellings constructed solely for lease, mobile homes as defined in section seven hundred twenty-one of this chapter, or any house or unit in which the builder has resided or leased continuously for three years or more following the date of completion of construction, as evidenced by a certificate of occupancy.

6. "Owner" means the first person to whom the home is sold and, during the unexpired portion of the warranty period, each successor in title to the home and any mortgagee in possession. Owner does not include the builder of the home or any firm under common control of the builder.

7. "Plumbing, electrical, heating, cooling and ventilation systems" shall mean:

a. in the case of plumbing systems: gas supply lines and fittings; water supply, waste and vent pipes and their fittings; septic tanks and their drain fields; water, gas and sewer service piping, and their extensions to the tie-in of a public utility connection, or on-site well and sewage disposal system;

b. in the case of electrical systems: all wiring, electrical boxes, switches, outlets and connections up to the public utility connection; and

c. in the case of heating, cooling and ventilation systems: all duct work, steam, water and refrigerant lines, registers, convectors, radiation elements and dampers.

8. "Warranty date" means the date of the passing of title to the first owner for occupancy by such owner or such owner's family as a residence, or the date of first occupancy of the home as a residence, whichever first occurs.

S 777-a. Housing merchant implied warranty. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of section two hundred fifty-one of the real property law, a housing merchant implied warranty is implied in the contract or agreement for the sale of a new home and shall survive the passing of title. A housing merchant implied warranty shall mean that:

a. one year from and after the warranty date the home will be free from defects due to a failure to have been constructed in a skillful manner;

b. two years from and after the warranty date the plumbing, electrical, heating, cooling and ventilation systems of the home will be free

1 from defects due to a failure by the builder to have installed such sys-
2 tems in a skillful manner; and

3 c. six years from and after the warranty date the home will be free
4 from material defects.

5 2. Unless the contract or agreement by its terms clearly evidences a
6 different intention of the seller, a housing merchant implied warranty
7 does not extend to:

8 a. any defect that does not constitute (i) defective workmanship by 9 the builder or by an agent, employee or subcontractor of the builder;
10 (ii) defective materials supplied by the builder or by an agent, em-
11 ployee or subcontractor of the builder, or (iii) defective design
12 provided by a design professional retained exclusively by the builder;
13 or

14 b. any patent defect which an examination ought in the circumstances
15 to have revealed; when the buyer before taking title or accepting con-
16 struction as complete has examined the home as fully as the buyer
17 desired, or has refused to examine the home.

18 3. In the case of goods sold incidentally with or included in the sale
19 of the new home, such as stoves, refrigerators, freezers, room air con-
20 ditioners, dishwashers, clothes washers and dryers, a housing merchant
21 implied warranty shall mean that such goods shall be free from defects 22 due to failure by the builder or any agent, employee or subcontractor of 23 the builder to have installed such systems in a skillful manner. Mer-24 chantability, fitness and all other implied warranties with respect to 25 goods shall be governed by part three of article two of the uniform com-
26 mercial code and other applicable statutes.

27 4. a. Written notice of a warranty claim for breach of a housing mer-
28 chant implied warranty must be received by the builder prior to the com-
29 mencement of any action under paragraph b of this subdivision and no
30 later than thirty days after the expiration of the applicable warranty 31 period, as described in subdivision one of this section. The owner and 32 occupant of the home shall afford the builder reasonable opportunity to 33 inspect, test and repair the portion of the home to which the warranty 34 claim relates.

35 b. An action for damages or other relief caused by the breach of a 36 housing merchant implied warranty may be commenced prior to the expira-37 tion of one year after the applicable warranty period, as described in 38 subdivision one of this section, or within four years after the warranty
39 date, whichever is later. In addition to the foregoing, if the builder
40 makes repairs in response to a warranty claim under paragraph a of this 41 subdivision, an action with respect to such claim may be commenced
42 within one year after the last date on which such repairs are performed.
43 The measure of damages shall be the reasonable cost of repair or 44 replacement and property damage to the home proximately caused by the 45 breach of warranty, not to exceed the replacement cost of the home ex-46 clusive of the value of the land, unless the court finds that, under the 47 circumstances, the diminution in value of the home caused by the defect
48 is a more equitable measure of damages.

49 c. In addition to any other period for the commencement of an action
50 permitted by law, an action for contribution or indemnification may be 51 commenced at any time prior to the expiration of one year after the en-
52 try of judgment in an action for damages under paragraph b of this 53 subdivision.

54 5. Except as otherwise provided in section seven hundred seventy-55 seven-b of this article, any provision of a contract or agreement for

1 the sale of a new home which excludes or modifies a housing merchant im-
2 plied warranty shall be void as contrary to public policy.

3 6. Except as otherwise provided in section seven hundred seventy-4 seven-b of this article, other implied warranties may arise from the 5 terms of the contract or agreement or from course of dealing or usage of 6 trade.

7 S 777-b. Exclusion or modification of warranties. 1. Except in the 8 case of a housing merchant implied warranty, the builder or seller of a 9 new home may exclude or modify all warranties by any clear and conspi-
10 cuous terms contained in the written contract or agreement of sale which 11 call the buyer's attention to the exclusion or modification of warran-12 ties and make the exclusion or modification plain.

13 2. Except in the case of a housing merchant implied warranty, the bu-
14 ilder or seller of a new home may exclude or modify warranties with 15 respect to particular defects by any clear and conspicuous terms con-16 tained in the written contract or agreement of sale which identify such 17 defects, call the buyer's attention to the exclusion or modification of 18 warranties and make the exclusion or modification plain.

19 3. A housing merchant implied warranty may be excluded or modified by 20 the builder or seller of a new home only if the buyer is offered a lim-
21 ited warranty in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision.

22 a. A copy of the express terms of the limited warranty shall be 23 provided in writing to the buyer for examination prior to the time of 24 the buyer's execution of the contract or agreement to purchase the home.

25 b. A copy of the express terms of the limited warranty shall be in-26 cluded in, or annexed to and incorporated in, the contract or agreement.

27 c. The language of the contract or agreement for sale of the home must 28 conspicuously mention the housing merchant implied warranty and provide 29 that the limited warranty excludes or modifies the implied warranty.
30 Language to exclude all implied warranties is sufficient if it states,
31 for example, that "There are no warranties which extend beyond the face 32 hereof."

33 d. The limited warranty shall meet or exceed the standards provided in 34 subdivisions four and five of this section.

35 4. A limited warranty sufficient to exclude or modify a housing mer-
36 chant implied warranty must be written in plain English and must clearly 37 disclose:

38 a. that the warranty is a limited warranty which limits implied war-
39 ranties on the sale of the home; the words "limited warranty" must be
40 clearly and conspicuously captioned at the beginning of the warranty
41 document;

42 b. the identification of the names and addresses of all warrantors;

43 c. the identification of the party or parties to whom the warranty is 44 extended and whether it is extended to subsequent owners; the limited 45 warranty must be extended to the first owner of the home and survive the 46 passing of title but may exclude any or all subsequent owners;

47 d. a statement of the products or parts covered by the limited war-
48 ranty;

49 e. the clear and conspicuous identification of any parts or portions 50 of the home or premises that are excepted or excluded from warranty cov-
51 erage, and the standards that will be used to determine whether a defect 52 has occurred; provided, however, that:

53 1. any exception, exclusion or standard which does not meet or exceed 54 a relevant specific standard of the applicable building code, or in the 55 absence of such relevant specific standard a locally accepted building

1 practice, shall be void as contrary to public policy and shall be deemed
2 to establish the applicable building code standard or locally accepted
3 building practice as the warranty standard; and

4 ii. any exception, exclusion or standard that fails to ensure that the 5 home is habitable, by permitting conditions to exist which render the 6 home unsafe, shall be void as contrary to public policy.

7 f. what the builder and any other warrantor will do when a defect cov-
8 ered by the warranty does arise, and the time within which the builder
9 and any other warrantor will act;

10 g. the term of the warranty coverage and when the term begins ,
11 provided, however, that such term shall be equal to or exceed the war-
12 ranty periods of a housing merchant implied warranty, as defined in sub-13 division one of section seven hundred seventy-seven-a of this article;

14 h. step-by-step claims procedures required to be undertaken by the ow-15 ner, if any, including directions for notification of the builder and 16 any other warrantor; an owner shall not be required to submit to binding
17 arbitration or to pay any fee or charge for participation in nonbinding
18 arbitration or any mediation process;

19 i. any limitations on or exclusions of consequential or incidental
20 damages, and any limitations on the builder's and other warrantor's 21 total liability, conspicuously expressed on the first page of the 22 warranty. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a limited warranty shall not be 23 construed to permit any limitation on or exclusion of property damage to 24 the home proximately caused by a breach of the limited warranty, where 25 the court finds that such limitation or exclusion would cause the lim-26 ited warranty to fail of its essential purpose, except that such 27 property damage may be limited by an express limitation on the builder's
28 or other warrantor's total liability in accordance with the provisions 29 of this paragraph.

30 5. a. This article shall not be construed to authorize or validate any 31 covenant, promise, agreement or understanding which is void and unenfor-32 ceable under section 5-322.1 of the general obligations law.

33 b. This article shall preempt any local law inconsistent with the 34 provisions of this article. This article shall not preempt any builder 35 subject to its provisions from complying with any local law with 36 respect to the regulation of home builders except as expressly provided 37 herein.

38 c. Nothing in this article shall be construed to repeal, invalidate, 39 supersede or restrict any right, liability or remedy provided by any 40 other statute of the state, except where such construction would, as a 41 matter of law, be unreasonable.

42 S 2. Subdivision two of section two hundred thirteen of the civil 43 practice law and rules, as amended by chapter four hundred three of the 44 laws of nineteen hundred eighty-three, is amended to read as follows:

45 2. an action upon a contractual obligation or liability, express or 46 implied, except as provided in section two hundred thirteen-a of this 47 article or article 2 of the uniform commercial code or article 36-B of 48 the general business law;

49 S 3. This act shall take effect on the first day of March next suc-
50 ceeding the date on which it shall have become a law and shall apply to 51 new homes for which contracts of sale are entered into on and after such 52 effective date.

promotional materials, of such size and content as Sponsor shall determine, in, on, about and adjacent to the Buildings (including on the exterior walls and adjacent sidewalk thereof) and the Property.

The easements and the rights of access granted in this paragraph shall be exercised in such a manner as will not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Units for their permitted purposes.

Such entry shall be permitted on not less than one days notice, except that no such notice shall be necessary in the event of repairs or replacements immediately necessary or required for the preservation or safety of the Building, for the safety of the occupants of the Building or other persons, or to avoid the suspension of any necessary service in the Building.

Building or any portion thereof or for the general health or welfare of the owners, tenants and occupants of the appropriate Units, provided, however, that the grant of such additional utility easements, or the relocation of existing utility easements, shall not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Units for their permitted purposes. Any utility company, as well as its officers, employees and agents, shall have a right of access to each Unit and to the Common Elements in furtherance of such easement. However, such right to access shall be exercised in such manner as will not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Units for their permitted purposes.

(c) Each Unit and the Common Elements shall have easements of subjacent support and necessity, and the same shall be subject to such easements in favor of all of the other Units and the Common Elements.

(d) If (i) any portion of the Common Elements now encroaches upon any Unit or upon any other portion of the Common Elements, (ii) any Unit now encroaches upon any other Unit or upon any portion of the Common Elements, or (iii) any such encroachment shall hereinafter occur as a result of (x) the settling of the Building, (y) any repair or alteration made to the Common Elements in accordance with the terms of this Declaration and the By-Laws by, or with the consent of, the Condominium Board, by Sponsor or Sponsor's designee, or (z) any repair or restoration made to the Building or any portion thereof, to any Unit, or to the Common Elements in accordance with the terms of this Declaration and the By-Laws after damage by fire or other casualty or after any taking by condemnation or eminent domain proceedings, then, in any such event, a valid easement shall exist for such encroachment and for the maintenance of the same for so long as the Building or the affected Unit or Common Elements shall stand.

Article 15

Covenant of Further Assurances

(a) Any Person who is subject to the terms of this Declaration (whether such person is a Unit Owner, a lessee or a sublessee of a Unit Owner, an occupant of a Unit, a member of the Condominium Board, an officer of the Condominium, or otherwise) shall, at the expense of Sponsor, the Condominium Board, any officer of the Condominium, or the Managing Agent, as the case may be, requesting the same, execute, acknowledge and deliver to Sponsor, the Condominium Board, any officer of the Condominium, or the Managing Agent, as the case may be, such instruments, in addition to those specifically provided for herein, and take such other action, as Sponsor, the Condominium Board, any officer of the Condominium, or the Managing Agent, as the case may be, may reasonably request to effectuate the provisions of this Declaration or of any transaction contemplated herein or to confirm or perfect any right to be created or transferred hereunder or pursuant to any such transaction.

(b) Subject to paragraph (c) below, if any Unit Owner or any other Person who is subject to the terms of this Declaration fails or refuses to execute, acknowledge, or deliver any instrument, or fails or refuses, within ten days after request therefor, to take any action that such Unit Owner or Person is required to take pursuant to this Declaration, then the Condominium Board is hereby authorized as attorney-in-fact for such Unit Owner or other Person, which power shall be deemed to be coupled with an interest, to execute, acknowledge and deliver such instrument, or to take such action, in the name of such Unit Owner or other Person, and such document or action shall be binding on such Unit Owner or other Person.

(c) If any Unit Owner or the Condominium Board or any other Person who is subject to the terms of this Declaration fails or refuses to execute, acknowledge, or deliver any instrument, or fails or refuses, within 10 days after request therefor, to take any action that the Condominium Board, Unit Owner, or other Person is required to take pursuant to this Declaration at the request of Sponsor, then Sponsor is hereby authorized as attorney-in-fact for the Condominium Board, such Unit Owner, or other Person, which power shall be deemed to be coupled with an interest, to execute, acknowledge and deliver such instrument, or to take such action, in the name of the Condominium Board, such Unit Owner, or other Person, and such document or action shall be binding on the Condominium Board, such Unit Owner, or other Person, as the case may be.

Article 16

Covenants to Run With the Land

(a) All provisions of this Declaration, the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations, including, without limitation, the provisions of this Article 16, shall, to the extent applicable and unless otherwise expressly herein or therein provided to the contrary, be perpetual and be construed to be covenants running with the Land and with every part thereof and interest therein, and all of the provisions thereof shall be binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, the owner of all or any part thereof, or interest therein and his or her heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns, but the same are not intended to create, nor shall they be construed as creating any rights in, or for the benefit of, the general public. All present and future owners, tenants and occupants of Units shall be subject to, and shall comply with, the provisions of this Declaration, the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations, as they may be amended from time to time. The acceptance of a deed or conveyance or the succeeding to title, the entering into a lease, or the entering into occupancy of any Unit shall constitute an agreement that the provisions of this Declaration, the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations, as they may be amended from time to time, are accepted and ratified by such owner, tenant, or occupant, and all of such provisions shall be deemed and taken to be covenants running with the Land and shall bind any person having, at any time, any interest or estate in such Unit, as though such provisions were recited and stipulated at length in each and every deed, conveyance, or lease.

(b) If any provision of this Declaration or of the By-Laws is invalid under, or would cause this Declaration and the By-Laws to be insufficient to submit the Property to the provisions of the Condominium Act, such provision shall be deemed deleted from this Declaration or the By-Laws, as the case may be, for the purpose of submitting the Property to the provisions of the Condominium Act, but shall nevertheless be valid and binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, the owners of the Property and their heirs, executors, administrators, legal, representatives, successors and assigns, as covenants running with the Land and with every part thereof and interest therein under other applicable Law to the extent permitted under such applicable Law with the same force and effect as if, immediately after the recording of this Declaration and the By-Laws, all Unit Owners had signed and recorded an instrument agreeing to each such provision as a covenant running with the Land. If any provision that is necessary to cause this Declaration and the By-Laws to be sufficient to submit the Property to the provisions of the Condominium Act is missing from this Declaration or the By-Laws, then such provision shall be deemed included as a part of this Declaration or the By-Laws, as the case may be, for the purposes of submitting the Property to the provisions of the Condominium Act.

(c) Subject to the terms of paragraph (b) of this Article 16, if this Declaration and the By-Laws are insufficient to submit the Property to the provisions of the Condominium Act, the provisions of this Declaration and the By-Laws shall nevertheless be valid and binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, the owners of the Property and their heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns, as covenants running with the Land and with every part thereof and interest therein under other applicable Law to the extent permitted under such applicable Law with the same force and effect as if, immediately after the recording of this Declaration and the By-Laws, all Unit Owners had signed and recorded an instrument agreeing to each such provision as a covenant running with the Land.

Article 17 Amendments to This Declaration

(a) Subject to the provisions contained herein or in the By-Laws with respect to amendments, modifications, additions or deletions affecting Sponsor or its designee, any provision of this Declaration may be amended, modified, added to, or deleted by the vote of all Unit Owners, both in number and in aggregate Common Interests, taken in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws. However, no amendment, modification, addition, or deletion pursuant to the preceding sentence shall be effective without the written consent of the Mortgage Representatives (if required by the terms of the applicable mortgage), if any, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In addition, such amendment, modification, addition, or deletion: (i) shall not be effective until recorded in the Register's Office and (ii) shall be executed by the Condominium Board as attorney-in-fact for the Unit Owners, which power shall be deemed to be coupled with an interest, and the Condominium Board is hereby authorized by the Unit Owners so to act as their attorney-in-fact. No amendment may be made which will in any way effect the rights of the Sponsor unless the Sponsor shall consent to such amendment.

(b) Sponsor or its designee shall have the right, at its sole cost and expense and without the vote or consent of any other Unit Owners, the Condominium Board, or the Mortgage Representatives (if any), to execute, acknowledge and record (or, at the Sponsor's or such designee's sole option, to require the Condominium Board or any other Unit owners to execute, acknowledge and record) in the Register's Office and elsewhere, if required by Law, one or more amendments to this Declaration (including, without limitation, to Exhibit B hereto), together with such documents, plans and maps as the Sponsor or such designee deems appropriate to effectuate the same:

(i) to reflect any changes in the Unsold Units, including any reapportionment of the Common Interest resulting therefrom made by the Sponsor in accordance with the terms of Article 11 hereof; or

(ii) required by an Institutional Lender, any governmental agency having regulatory over the Condominium, or any title insurance company selected by Sponsor to insure title to any Units; provided, however, that any amendment made pursuant to the terms of subparagraph (i) or (ii) of this paragraph shall not (1) change the Common Interest of any Unit not then owned by Sponsor, (2) require a material, physical modification of any Unit not then owned by Sponsor or of the Common Elements, or (3) adversely affect the priority or validity of the lien of any mortgage held by an institutional lender unless the owner of the affected Unit (in the event described in subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph) or the holder of such mortgage (in the event described in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph) shall consent thereto by joining in the execution of such amendment.

(c) Any amendment to this Declaration may be executed; (i) if on behalf of Sponsor pursuant to the terms of paragraph (b) hereof, by any officer of Sponsor or (ii) if on behalf of the Unit Owners or by the Condominium Board, by the President or Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary of the Condominium. If the amendment requires the approval of a specified percentage of Unit Owners pursuant to the terms of this Declaration or the By-Laws, then there shall be attached to such amendment an original executed Secretary's Certification, certifying that the requisite number and percentage of Unit Owners approved the amendment at a duly constituted meeting or

(when permitted in this Declaration or the By-Laws) in writing without a meeting, in which Certification shall be described the number and percentage of Unit Owners so consenting and, if voted upon at a meeting, the date and time of the meeting.

(d) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Condominium Documents to the contrary, but subject to any limitation imposed by the Condominium Act, no Amendment to the Condominium Documents shall be adopted which would:

(i) (A) unreasonably interfere with the sale, lease or other disposition of an Unsold Unit;

(B) abridge, modify, suspend, eliminate or otherwise affect any right, power, easement, privilege or benefit to Sponsor or its designee; or

(C) impose any discriminatory charge or fee against Sponsor or its designee, unless Sponsor or such designee shall consent thereto, by joining in the execution of such Amendment; or

(ii) change the permitted use of any Unit or such Unit's Common Interest, unless the owner of such affected Unit shall consent thereto by joining in the execution of such Amendment.

Article 18

Each provision of the Condominium Documents shall, except as otherwise provided herein, be valid and enforced to the fullest extent permitted by Law. (xix) to carry out any other duties imposed upon the Condominium Board pursuant to the Declaration and these By-Laws.

(B) The Condominium Board shall be responsible for carrying out the duties imposed upon it under the Condominium Documents regardless of whether a Unit is vacant or occupied by the owner thereof or by a Permitted Lessee or other permitted occupant.

Section 2.3 Certain Limitations on the Powers of the Condominium Board. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these By-Laws, the Condominium Board shall not take any of the following actions unless ___% of all members thereof shall approve the same in writing or by vote at a duly constituted meeting called for such purpose:

The Condominium Board may delegate to the Managing Agent any of the powers granted to the Condominium Board in these By-Laws.

Section 2.5 Number, Election and Qualification of Members. Until the first annual meeting of the Unit Owners held pursuant to the terms of Section 4.1 hereof, the Condominium Board shall consist of three individuals to be designated from time to time by Sponsor. From and after the first annual meeting of the Unit Owners, the Condominium Board shall consist of three individuals to be elected by the Unit Owners or designated by Sponsor or its designee pursuant to the terms of Section 4.8 hereof. Except for members designated by Sponsor or its designee pursuant to the terms of this Section 2.5 or of Section 2.8 or 4.8 hereof, all members of the Condominium Board shall be either: (i) individual Unit Owners; (ii) individual Permitted Mortgagees; (iii) officers, directors, shareholders, partners, principals, employees, or beneficiaries of corporations, partnerships, fiduciaries, or any other entities that are Unit Owners or Permitted Mortgagees; or (iv) adult Family Members of any of the foregoing.

The term of office of each of the three individuals elected or designated and qualified at the first annual meeting of the Unit Owners and at all subsequent annual meetings shall be one year. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 2.6, however, each member of the Condominium Board shall serve until his successor shall be elected or designated and qualified. There shall be no limit on the number of terms of office, successive or otherwise, that a member of the Condominium Board may serve.

Section 2.7 Removal and Resignation of Members. (A) Any member of the Condominium Board who was elected thereto by the Unit owners may be removed from office by a 80% vote of Unit Owners. Any member of the Condominium Board who was designated as such by Sponsor or its designee, pursuant to the terms of Section 2.5, 2.8, or 4.8 hereof, may be removed, with or without cause, only by Sponsor or said designee, by giving written notice thereof to the Condominium Board. Any member of the Condominium Board whose proposed removal is to be acted upon at a meeting of the Unit Owners shall be given prior written notice thereof and an opportunity to be present and heard thereat.

(B) Any member of the Condominium Board may resign his membership at any time by giving written notice thereof to the Condominium Board and, with respect to members of the Condominium Board designated as such by Sponsor or its designee, to Sponsor or such designee. In addition, any member of the Condominium Board who shall cease to be qualified for membership pursuant to the terms of Section 2.5 hereof shall be deemed to have resigned his membership effective as of the date upon which such qualifications shall cease.

Section 2.8 Vacancies. (A) Upon the occurrence of a vacancy on the Condominium Board that is caused by the removal, resignation, or death of a member who was elected thereto by the Unit owners, the terms of all other members of the Condominium Board elected by the Unit Owners shall promptly be held for the purpose of electing a new Condominium Board.

(B) Any vacancy on the Condominium Board that is caused by the removal, resignation, or death of a member who was designated as such by Sponsor or its designee shall be filled by an individual designated by Sponsor or such designee.

Section 2.9 Regular Meetings of the Condominium Board. Regular meetings of the Condominium Board may be held at such time and place in the Borough of Kings as shall be determined from time to time by a majority of the members thereof, provided that at least four such meetings shall be held during each fiscal year. Written notice of all regular meetings of the Condominium Board shall be given to each member thereof by personal delivery, mail, or telegram at least five business days prior to the day named for such meeting.

Section 2.10 Special Meetings of the Condominium Board. Any member may call a special meeting of the Condominium Board whenever he deems the same to be necessary or desirable. Written notice of all special meetings shall be given to each member thereof by personal delivery, mail or telegram at least five business days prior to the day named for such meeting, which notice shall state the time, place and purpose of the meeting.

Section 2.11 Waiver of Notices of Meeting. Any member of the Condominium Board may, at any time, waive notice of any meeting thereof in writing, and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of notice. Attendance by a member of the Condominium Board at any meeting shall constitute a waiver by him of notice of the time and place thereof. If all of the members of the Condominium Board are present at any meeting thereof, no notice of such meeting shall be required and any business may be transacted at such meeting.

Section 2.12 Quorum of the Condominium Board. For purposes of all meetings of the Condominium Board, a majority of the members thereof shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In connection therewith, one or more members of the Condominium Board may participate in any meeting thereof by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment permitting all individuals participating in the meeting to hear each other at the same time, and such participation shall constitute presence at such a meeting for all purposes. If, at any meeting of the Condominium Board, there shall be less than a quorum present, a majority of the members of the Condominium Board in attendance may adjourn the meeting from time to time. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business that might have been transacted at the meeting originally called but for lack of a quorum may be transacted without further notice.

Section 2.13 Conduct of Meetings. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Condominium Board, and the Secretary shall faithfully record the minutes thereof, which minutes shall include the full text of all resolutions duly adopted by the Condominium Board and a record of all transactions and proceedings occurring thereat. The then current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, or any other rules of procedure from time to time acceptable to a majority of the Condominium Board, shall govern the conduct of the meetings of the Condominium Board unless the same be in conflict with the terms of the Declaration, these By-Laws or the Condominium Act.

Section 2.14 Decisions of the Condominium Board. Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Declaration or these By-Laws, the vote of a majority of the members of the Condominium Board present at a meeting thereof at which a quorum is present shall constitute the decision of the Condominium Board. Alternatively, any decision that is required or permitted to be made by the Condominium Board may be made without a meeting thereof if all of the members of the Condominium Board shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such decision, and all such written consents shall be duly filed by the Secretary of the Condominium in the minutes of the Condominium Board.

Section 2.15 Compensation of Members. No member of the Condominium Board shall receive any compensation from the Condominium for acting as such.

Section 2.16 Liability of the Condominium Board. (A) All members of the Condominium Board shall have no liability to the Unit Owners for errors of judgment, negligence, or otherwise, except that each member of the Condominium Board shall be liable thereto for his own bad faith or willful misconduct.

(B) Every contract made, and other document executed, by or on behalf of the Condominium Board, any committee thereof, or the Managing Agent shall expressly provide (if such provision is reasonably obtainable and in addition to the limitation of liability of the officers of the Condominium and the Unit Owners pursuant to the terms of Section 3.9 and 4.11 hereof, respectively) that the same is made or executed by or on behalf of the Condominium Board, such committee, or the Managing Agent solely as agent for the Unit Owners and that the members of the Condominium Board or such committee or the Managing Agent shall have no liability thereon, except to the extent of their liability, if any, as Unit Owners pursuant to the terms of Section 4.11 hereof.

(C) The Unit Owners shall jointly and severally indemnify and hold each member of the Condominium Board harmless from and against any claim or liability to others arising from such member's acts or omissions as, or by reason of the fact that such individual is or was, a member of the Condominium Board, except, however, to the extent that such claim or liability shall be due to, or shall arise out of, the bad faith or willful misconduct of such member.

The President, Secretary and Treasurer shall be elected from amongst the members of the Condominium Board. No person shall hold more than one office.

Section 3.6 Removal and Resignation of Officers. Any officer of the Condominium may be removed from office, with or without cause, by an affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Condominium Board. In addition, any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the President of the Condominium Board. Finally, if the President, Secretary, or Treasurer shall cease to be a member of the Condominium Board during his term of office, such officer shall be deemed to have resigned his office effective upon the date which his membership shall cease.

Section 3.7 Vacancies. Any vacancy in an office shall be filled by a majority vote of the Condominium Board at any regular meeting of the Condominium Board or at a special meeting thereof called for such purpose.

Section 3.8 Compensation of Officers. No officer of the Condominium shall receive any compensation from the Condominium for acting as such.

Section 3.9 Liability of the Officers of the Condominium. (A) The officers of the Condominium shall have no liability to the Unit Owners for errors of judgment, negligence, or otherwise, except that each officer of the Condominium shall be liable to Unit Owners for his or her own bad faith or willful misconduct.

(B) The Unit Owners shall jointly and severally indemnify and hold each officer of the Condominium harmless from and against any claim or liability to others arising from his acts or omissions as, or by reason of the fact that such individual is or was, an officer of the Condominium except, however, to the extent that such claim or liability shall be due to, or shall arise out of, the bad faith or willful misconduct of such officer.

Any Unit Owner may designate an address for the giving of notice other than such Unit Owner's address at the Property by giving written notice thereof to the Secretary of the Condominium not less than 15 days prior to the giving of notice of the applicable meeting.

(B) If the business to be conducted at any meeting of the Unit Owners shall include the consideration of a proposed amendment to the Declaration or to these By-Laws, the notice of such meeting shall be mailed to all Unit Owners at least 30 days prior to the day fixed for such meeting and shall be accompanied by a copy of the text of such proposed amendment.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the Unit Owners, and the Secretary shall faithfully record the minutes thereof, which minutes shall include the full text of all resolutions duly adopted by the Unit Owners and a record of all transactions and proceedings occurring thereat. The then current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, or any other rules of procedure acceptable to a majority of the Unit Owners present at any meeting, in person or by proxy, shall govern the conduct of the meetings of the Unit Owners, unless the same shall be in conflict with the terms of the Declaration, these By-Laws, or the Condominium Act. All votes of the Unit Owners shall be tallied by the persons appointed by the presiding officer of the meeting.

Section 4.7 (A) Voting. Subject to the terms of Section 4.8 hereof, each Unit Owner (including Sponsor or its designee, for so long as Sponsor or such designee shall own one or more Unsold Units) shall be entitled to cast one vote at all meetings of the Unit Owners for each Unit owned.

(B) A fiduciary shall be the voting member with respect to a Unit owned in a fiduciary capacity. In addition, if two or more Persons own a Unit, they shall designate one Person amongst them to vote the Common Interest appurtenant to their Unit in a writing given to the Secretary of the Condominium, and the vote of such designee shall be binding upon all of such Persons. Failing such a designation, all of such Persons shall mutually vote such Common Interest under one ballot without division, and the concurrence of all such Persons shall be conclusively presumed if any one of them purports to vote such Common Interest without protest being contemporaneously made to the individual presiding over the meeting at which such vote is taken. If protest is made, the Common Interest appurtenant to such Unit shall be counted solely for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present for such voting.

(C) The owner(s) of any Unit may designate any Person to act as a proxy on his or her behalf. The designation of any such proxy shall be made in a writing both signed and dated by the designor and delivered to the Secretary of the Condominium at or before the appointed time for the meeting(s) during which the same is to be effective. Any such designation shall be revocable at any time upon written notice given to the Secretary of the Condominium; however, no revocation of such a designation shall be effective with respect to any votes cast by such proxy prior to the receipt of such revocation notice by the Secretary of the Condominium or, if such revocation is made at a meeting of the Unit Owners during which the Secretary of the Condominium is not in attendance, by the individual acting as the Secretary of such meeting. Except with respect to the designation of a Permitted Mortgagee to act as the proxy of its mortgagor(s), no designation to act as a proxy shall be effective for a period in excess of six months after the date thereof.

(D) Except when otherwise required by law or otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws, the affirmative vote of a Majority of Unit Owners shall be binding upon all Unit Owners for all purposes.

Section 4.8 Election of Members of Condominium Board.

(A) During the Initial Control Period, Sponsor or its designee shall have the right to designate the following number of members of the Condominium Board: (a) three members, for so long as the Common Interests attributable to any Units owned by Sponsor or its designee equals, in the aggregate, 50% or more of the Common Interests of all Units, and (b) two members, for so long as the Common Interests attributable to any Units owned by Sponsor or its designee equals, in the aggregate, less than 50% but 30% or more of the Common Interests of all Units.

(B) After the Initial Control Period, Sponsor or its designee shall not have voting control over the Condominium Board or veto power over expenditures and shall have the right to designate one member on the Condominium Board for so long as Sponsor or its designee owns at least four Unsold Units.

(C) Sponsor shall have the right to vote the Common Interests attributable to Units owned by Sponsor for members of the Condominium Board so long as Sponsor or its designee designates one or more members of the Board. From and after the time when Sponsor or its designee does not designate at least one member of the Board, Sponsor or its designee shall have the right to vote the Common Interests attributable to Units owned by Sponsor for members of the Board.

(D) Each Unit Owner entitled to vote for members of the Condominium Board pursuant to this Section 4.8 shall be entitled to cast 1 vote for each Unit owned. A Unit owner who is entitled to more than one vote may divide his votes among different candidates, or vote them all for one candidate on a cumulative basis.

(E) The three persons receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected to the Condominium Board.

Section 4.9 Action Without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Unit Owners at a duly constituted meeting may be taken without such a meeting if Unit Owners, sufficient in number (both in absolute number and in Aggregate Common Interests) to approve such an action at a duly constituted meeting of the Unit Owners pursuant to the Declaration or to these By-Laws consent in writing to the adoption of a resolution approving such action. All written consents given by Unit owners pursuant to this Section 4.9 shall be retained in the records of the Condominium together with a true copy of the resolutions to which they relate.

Section 4.10 Title to Units. Title to any Unit may be taken by any Person or by any two or more Persons as joint tenants, tenants in common, or tenants by the entirety, as may be appropriate, but not as owners in severalty.

Section 4.11 Contractual Liability of Unit Owners. Every contract made by the Condominium Board, by any officer of the Condominium, or by any Managing Agent shall provide (if such provision is reasonably obtainable and in addition to the limitation of liability of the members of the Condominium Board and the officer of the Condominium pursuant to the terms of Section 2.16 and 3.9 hereof, respectively) that the liability of any Unit Owner with respect thereof shall be limited to: (i) such proportionate shares of the total liability thereunder as the Common Interest of such Unit Owner bears to the aggregate Common Interests of all Unit Owners and (ii) such Unit Owner's Interest in his Unit and its Appurtenant Interests, unless otherwise provided by Law.

OPERATION OF THE PROPERTY

Section 5.1 Maintenance and Repairs. (A) Except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws, all painting, decorating, maintenance, repairs and replacements, whether structural or non-structural, ordinary or extraordinary:

(i) in or to any Unit and all portions thereof (including, but not limited to, kitchen, bathroom fixtures and appliances, windows and their frames, sills and sashes, all doors

(entrance and balcony, if any) and their frames and saddles, exposed plumbing, gas and heating, fixtures and equipment, air conditioning units, lighting and electrical fixtures and any General Common Elements incorporated therein shall be performed by the owner of such Unit at such Unit Owner's cost and expense; and

(ii) in or to the General Common Elements shall be performed by the Condominium Board as a Common Expense; and

(iii) in or to the Limited Common Elements shall be performed (a) by the Condominium Board as a Common Expense, if involving structural or extraordinary maintenance, repairs, or replacements (including, but not limited to, the repair of any leaks that are not caused by the acts or omissions of the Unit Owner having direct and exclusive access thereto) or (b) by the Unit Owner having direct and exclusive access thereto at his sole cost and expense, if involving non-structural ordinary maintenance, repairs, or replacements (including, without limitation, individual heating and hot water equipment).

Promptly upon obtaining knowledge thereof, each Unit Owner shall report to the Condominium Board or to the Managing Agent any defect or need for repairs for which the Condominium Board is responsible pursuant to the terms hereof. All painting, decorating, maintenance, repairs and replacements performed hereunder or otherwise, whether by or at the behest of the Unit Owner of the Condominium Board, shall be performed in such a manner as shall not unreasonably disturb or interfere with any Unit Owners or the tenants and occupants of any Units.

(B) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary provided in paragraph (A) of this Section 5.1, however, the exterior glass surfaces of all windows of each Unit are to be washed and cleaned by the Owner of such Unit at such Unit Owner's sole cost and expense. In addition, if any painting, decorating, maintenance, repairs or replacements of the Property or any part thereof, whether structural or non-structural, ordinary or extraordinary, is necessitated by the negligence, misuse or abuse of (i) any Unit Owner, the entire cost and expense thereof shall be borne by such Unit Owner, or (ii) the Condominium Board, the entire cost and expense thereof shall be borne by the Condominium Board as a Common Expense, except, in all events, to the extent that such cost and expense is covered by the proceeds of any insurance maintained pursuant to the terms of these By-Laws. Similarly, each Unit Owner shall be responsible for any and all damage to any Unit or to the Common Elements resulting from such Unit Owner's failure to maintain, repair, or replace his or her Unit or any portion thereof as required herein.

(C) Each Unit and all portions of the Common Elements shall be kept in first-class condition, order and repair (and free of snow, ice and accumulation of water with respect to any balcony, roof, or other part of the Property exposed to the elements) by the Unit Owner or the Condominium Board, whichever is responsible for the maintenance thereof as set forth herein, and such Unit Owner or the Condominium Board, as the case may be, shall promptly make or perform, or cause to be made or performed, all maintenance work (including, without limitation, painting, repairs and replacements) that is necessary in connection therewith. In addition, the public areas of the Building and the Land and those areas exposed to public view shall be kept in good appearance, in conformity with the dignity and character of the Building, by (i) the Condominium Board, with respect to such parts of the Building required to be maintained by it, and (ii) each Unit Owner, with respect to the interior and exterior surfaces of balconies, windows and shades, venetian or other blinds, drapes, curtains or other window decorations in or appurtenant to his or her Unit.

Section 5.2 Alterations, Additions, or Improvements to the General Common Elements. Except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws, all necessary or desirable alterations, additions or improvements in or to any of the Common Elements shall be made by the Condominium Board, and the cost and expense thereof shall constitute a Common Expense except that any improvements or additions shall only be made after unanimous consent of the board is obtained.

Section 5.3 Alterations, Additions, Improvements, or Repairs in or to the Units and Limited Common Elements. (A) Subject to the terms of paragraph (B) of this Section 5.3 no Unit Owner shall make any structural alteration, addition, improvement, or repair in or to his Unit or its appurtenant Limited Common Elements without the prior written approval of the Condominium Board. This includes the installation of any security gates on doors and/or windows. The Condominium Board shall grant its approval provided that prior to, and as a condition of, the granting of any such approval, the Unit Owner procures and agrees to maintain during the course of such work such insurance as the Condominium Board may reasonably prescribe and executes an agreement, in form and substance satisfactory to the Condominium Board, setting forth the terms and conditions under which such alteration, addition, improvement, or repair may be made, including, without limitation, the indemnity referred to in paragraph (D) hereof and the days and hours during which any such work may be done, and further provided that the alteration does not impair the structural integrity of the building or any Unit or otherwise interfere with the use of any other Units.

(B) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in paragraph (A) of this Section 5.3 however, Sponsor or its designee shall have the right pursuant to the terms of Article 11 of the Declaration, without the approval of the Condominium Board to (i) make any alterations, additions, improvements, or repairs in or to any Unsold Units whether structural or non-structural, interior or exterior, ordinary or extraordinary, and (ii) subdivide, combine and change the boundary walls of Unsold Units.

(C) All alterations, additions, improvements and repairs by Unit Owners shall be made in compliance with Law. In connection therewith, the Condominium Board shall execute applications to any departments of the City of New York, or to any other governmental agencies having jurisdiction thereof, for any and all permits required in connection with the making of alterations, additions, improvements, or repairs in or to a Unit or its appurtenant Limited Common Elements, provided that, with respect to all such work of a structural nature (but other than that of the nature described in paragraph (B) hereof), the same was approved by the Condominium Board pursuant to the terms of paragraph (A) hereof.

(D) Neither the Condominium Board nor any Unit Owner (other than the Unit Owner(s) making any alterations, improvements, additions, or repairs, or causing any of the same to be made, in or to his, her or their Unit(s) and appurtenant Limited Common Elements) shall incur any liability, cost, or expense either (i) in connection with the preparation, execution, or submission of the applications referred to in paragraph (C) hereof; (ii) to any contractor, subcontractor, materialman, architect, or engineer on account of any alterations, improvements, additions, or repairs made or caused to be made by any Unit Owner; or (ii) to any Person asserting any claim for personal injury or property damage, arising therefrom. Any Unit Owner(s) making alterations, improvements, additions, or repairs, or causing any of the same to be made, in or to his, her or their Unit(s) and appurtenant Limited Common Elements shall agree (in a writing executed and delivered to the Condominium Board, if the Condominium Board shall request), and shall be deemed to agree (in the absence of such writing), to indemnify and hold the Condominium Board, the members of the Condominium Board, the officers of the Condominium, the Managing Agent and all other Unit Owners harmless from and against any such liability, cost and expense.

Section 5.4 Insurance. (A) If the same shall be obtainable, the Condominium Board shall obtain, and shall maintain in full force and effect, fire insurance policies with all risk extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief endorsements, insuring the Building (including all Units and the bathroom and kitchen fixtures installed therein on the date of recording the Declaration and all service machinery contained therein, but not including appliances or any furniture, furnishings, decorations, belongings, or other personal property supplied or installed by Unit Owners or the tenants of Unit Owners) and covering the interests of the Condominium, the Condominium Board, all of the Unit Owners and all Permitted Mortgagees, as their interests may appear. Each of the said policies shall contain:

(i) waivers of (a) subrogation, (b) any defense based upon co-insurance, or other insurance, (c) invalidity arising out of any acts of the insured and (d) pro-rata reduction of liability;

(ii) a provision that any adjustment of loss will be made by the Condominium Board and that all proceeds thereof shall be paid to the Condominium Board, as provided in Section 5.5 hereof;

(iii) a New York standard mortgage clause in favor of each Mortgagee, which shall provide that the proceeds thereof shall be paid to such Permitted Mortgagee as its interests may appear, subject, however, to the loss payment provisions in favor of the Condominium Board;

(iv) a provision that such policy may not be either canceled or substantially modified except upon at least 30 days prior written notice to all of the insured, including all Permitted Mortgagees.

Duplicate originals or certificates of all such policies and of all renewals thereof, together with proof of payment of premiums, shall be sent to all Unit Owners and Permitted Mortgagees at least 30 days prior to the expiration of the then current policies.

(B) The Condominium Board shall also obtain and maintain, to the extent practicable:

(i) comprehensive general liability insurance, covering all claims for personal injury or property damage arising out of any occurrence on the Property and listing as co-insured (a) the Condominium Board and each member thereof, (b) the Managing Agent if any), (c) each officer of the Condominium and (d) each Unit Owner (except, however, that such insurance shall not cover any liability of a Unit Owner arising from occurrences within his own Unit or its balcony);

(ii) water damage legal liability insurance; and

(iii) such other insurance as the Condominium Board shall from time to time determine. Each of the aforementioned policies of insurance shall also cover cross-liability claims of one insured against another.

(C) All policies of insurance to be maintained by the Condominium Board shall contain such limits as the Condominium Board shall from time to time determine, provided, however, that:

(i) with respect to insurance policies maintained by the Condominium Board pursuant to paragraph (A) hereof, the coverage shall be in an amount sufficient to avoid the effects of co-insurance (and, until the first regular meeting of the first three-member Condominium Board elected by the Unit Owners, such coverage shall be at least in the amount of $350,000.00); and

(ii) with respect to insurance policies maintained by the Condominium Board pursuant to subparagraph (i) of paragraph (B) hereof, such policies shall contain single limits of not less than $300,000 in the aggregate until the first regular meeting of the first three-member Condominium Board elected by the Unit Owners.

Any insurance policies maintained by the Condominium Board may also provide for such deductible amounts as the Condominium Board shall determine. The Condominium Board shall review the limits of each insurance policy, as well as the amount of any deductible sum thereunder, at least once a year.

(D) The cost of all insurance maintained by the Condominium Board pursuant to this Section 5.4 shall be borne by the Condominium Board as a Common Expense.

(E) Unit Owners shall not be prohibited from carrying other insurance for their own benefit, provided that all such policies shall contain waivers of subrogation and further provided that the liability of the carriers issuing the insurance maintained by the Condominium Board shall not be affected or diminished by reason of any such additional insurance carried by any Unit Owner.

Section 5.5 Casualty or Condemnation. (A) In the event that either (i) the Building or any part thereof is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty (hereinafter referred to as a "Casualty Loss") or (ii) the General Common Elements or any part thereof is taken in condemnation or by eminent domain (hereinafter referred to as a "Taking"), the net insurance proceeds payable under the insurance policies maintained by the Condominium Board pursuant to the terms of Section 5.4 hereof by reason of such Casualty Loss or the net condemnation awards receivable by reason of such Taking, as the case may be, shall be payable to the Condominium Board. All such monies actually received (hereinafter referred to as the "Trust Funds") shall be held in trust for the benefit of all Unit Owners and their Permitted Mortgagees and shall be disbursed pursuant to the terms of this Section 5.5. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained either in this paragraph (A) or elsewhere in this Section 5.5, however, no Unit Owner whose Unit, its appurtenant Limited Common Elements, or any portion thereof are taken in condemnation or by eminent domain (whether or not all or a part of the Common Elements other than balconies are contemporaneously taken) shall be deemed to have waived whatever rights that he or she may have to pursue a separate claim against the condemning authority by reason thereof.

(B) Subject to the terms of paragraph (D) hereof, the Condominium Board shall arrange for the prompt repair or restoration (hereinafter referred to as the "Work") of the damage covered by the insurance.

(C) If either 75% or more of the Building is destroyed or substantially damaged by fire or other casualty or 75% or more of the General Common Elements are taken in a Taking, the Work shall not be performed unless 75% or more of all Unit Owners (including Sponsor or its designee, if Sponsor or such designee shall then own any Units), both in number and in aggregate Common Interests, shall promptly resolve to proceed with the same. In the event that a sufficient number of Unit Owners shall so resolve, the Work shall be performed pursuant to the terms of paragraphs (B) and (C) hereof. Conversely, in the event that a sufficient number of Unit Owners shall either fail or refuse to so resolve, the Work shall not be performed and the Property shall not be subject to an action for partition by any Unit Owner or lienor, as if owned in common, in which event the net proceeds and the resulting sale, together with any Trust Funds, shall be paid to all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests, except that no payment shall be made to a Unit Owner until there first has been paid, out of such Unit Owner's share of such funds, such amounts as may be necessary to reduce unpaid liens on the Unit Owner's Unit (other than mortgages that are not Permitted Mortgages) in the order of priority of such liens.

Section 5.6 Use of the Property. (A) No nuisance shall be allowed on the Property. No immoral, improper, offensive, or unlawful use shall be made of the Property or any portion thereof, and all valid laws relating to any portion of the Property shall be complied with at the full cost and expense of the respective Unit Owners or the Condominium Board, whoever shall have the obligation to maintain or repair such part of the Property.

(B) Nothing shall be done or kept in any Unit or in any of the Common Elements that would increase the rate of insurance for the Property, except upon the prior written consent of the Condominium Board. No Unit Owner shall permit anything to be done or kept in a Unit or in the Common Elements that will result in the cancellation of insurance on the Property or the contents thereof, or that would be in violation of any Law. No waste shall be committed in the Common Elements.

(C) Nothing shall be done in any Unit or in, on, or to the Common Elements that will impair the structural integrity of the Property or that will structurally change the Building, except as is otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws. In no event shall interior partitions contributing to the support of any Unit or the Common elements be altered or removed.

Section 5.7 Use of the Units. (A) In order to provide for congenial occupancy of the Property and for the protection of the values of the Units, the use of Units shall be restricted to, and shall be in accordance with, the terms contained in the balance of this Section 5.7.

(B) Each Unit shall be used only as a residence. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, during the Initial Control Period upon the written consent of Sponsor (or after the Initial Control Period upon the prior written consent of the Condominium Board) a Unit may be used as a professional or business office or for any other purpose other than that set forth in this paragraph (B) provided that the nature and manner of such use complies with Law and does not violate the then existing Certificate of Occupancy covering such Unit.

(C) A Unit owned or leased by an individual, corporation, partnership, fiduciary, or any other entity may be occupied only by said individual, or by an officer, director, stockholder, or employee of such corporation, or by a partner or employee of such partnership, or by said fiduciary (including directors, officers, stockholders, or employees of corporate fiduciaries and partners or employees of partnership fiduciaries), or by the beneficiary of said fiduciary, or by a principal or employee of such other entity, respectively, or by Family Members or guests of any of the foregoing. Additionally, in no event shall a portion of a Unit (as opposed to the entire Unit) be sold, conveyed, leased, or subleased, and no transient occupant (other than a guest permitted under this paragraph (C) may be accommodated therein.

(D) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 5.7, Sponsor may, without the consent of either the Condominium Board of the Unit Owners:

(i) grant permission for the use of any Unsold Unit as a professional or business office or for any other purpose, provided that the nature and manner of such use complies with Law and does not violate the then existing Certificate of Occupancy covering such Unsold Unit; and

(ii) use any one or more Unsold Units as model units and offices for the sales, promotions, rental, management and operation of the unsold Units or for any other purpose, subject only to compliance with Law.

(E) Under no circumstances may more than one family occupy a Unit at one time.

Section 5.8 Use of the Common Elements. (A) Subject to the terms of paragraph (B) of this Section 5.8, the Common Elements (including without limitation, the electrical, heating, gas, plumbing and other mechanical systems and equipment of the Building and the Unit Facilities) may be used only for the furnishing of the services and facilities, and for the other uses, for which they are reasonably suited and capable. In addition, no furniture, packages, or objects of any kind shall be placed in the lobbies, vestibules, public halls, stairways, or any other part of the Common Elements (except for those areas designated as storage areas, if any) without the prior written consent of the Condominium Board. The lobbies, vestibules, public halls and stairways shall be used only for normal passage through them.

(B) Notwithstanding the terms of paragraph (A) of this Section 5.8, Sponsor or its designee shall have the right, without charge or limitation so long as there are any Unsold Units, to: (i) erect and maintain signs, of any size or content determined by Sponsor or such designee, on or about any portion of the General Common Elements chosen by Sponsor or such designee, including, without limitation, on the exterior walls of the Building or adjacent to the main entrances thereof; (ii) have its employees, contractors, subcontractors and sales agents present on the Property; and (iii) do all things necessary or appropriate, including the use of the General Common Elements, to sell, lease, manage, or operate Unsold Units, to complete any work or repairs to the Building expressly undertaken by Sponsor and to comply with Sponsor's obligations. In no event, however, shall Sponsor or such designee be entitled to use any Common Elements in such a manner as will unreasonably interfere with the use of any Unit for its permitted purposes.

Section 5.9 Right of Access. (A) Subject to the rights of existing tenants and other occupants of Unsold Units, each Unit Owner shall grant to the Condominium Board, to the Managing Agent or manager (if any), and/or to any other Person authorized by any of the foregoing a right of access to his Unit and its appurtenant Limited Common Elements for the purposes of:

(i) making inspections of, or removing violations noted or issued by any governmental authority against, the Common Elements or any other part of the Property,

(ii) curing defaults hereunder or under the Declaration or violations of the Rules and Regulations committed by such Unit Owner or correcting any conditions originating in his or her Unit and threatening another Unit or all or a portion of the Common Elements;

(iii) performing maintenance, installations, alterations, repairs, or replacements to the mechanical or electrical services, or other portions of the Common Elements located within his Unit or elsewhere in the Building;

(iv) reading, maintaining, or replacing utility meters relating to the Common Elements, to his or her Unit, or to any other Unit; or

(v) correcting any condition that violates the provisions of any Permitted Mortgage encumbering another Unit.

Except in cases of emergency (that is, a condition requiring repairs or replacements immediately necessary for the preservation or safety of the Building or for the safety of the occupants of the Building or other individuals, or required to avoid the suspension of any necessary service in the Building), the foregoing rights of access shall be exercised only upon not less than one day's advance notice and only in such a manner as will not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Units and their appurtenant Limited Common Elements for their permitted purposes. In cases of emergency, however, such rights of access may be exercised immediately, without advance notice and whether or not the Unit Owner is present.

(B) Each Unit Owner shall grant a right of access to his Unit and its appurtenant Limited Common Elements, and the Condominium Board shall grant rights of access to the General Common Elements, to Sponsor and its contractors, subcontractors, agents and employees for the purpose of fulfilling Sponsor's obligations, provided that access thereto shall not be exercised, with respect to any Unit and its appurtenant Limited Common Elements, in such a manner as will unreasonably interfere with the use of such Unit and Limited Common Elements for their permitted purposes.

Section 5.10 Modification of the Rules and Regulations.

The Condominium Board shall have the right to amend, modify, add to, or delete any of the Rules and Regulations from time to time, provided, however, that any such amendment, modification, addition, or deletion may be overruled by a vote of a majority of Unit Owners. Copies of the text of any amendments, modifications, additions or deletions to the rules and Regulations shall be furnished to all Unit Owners not less than thirty days prior to the effective date thereof.

Section 5.11 Real Estate Taxes, Water Charges and Sewer Rents. Water for the Building shall be supplied by the City of New York. Unless and until real estate taxes, water charges and sewer rents are billed directly to Unit Owners by the city collector, such taxes, charges and rents shall be payable by the Condominium Board.

The Condominium Board may act as an agent of each Unit Owner who has given his written authorization to complain or apply to the board of assessment review of the assessing agency by filing a single complaint on behalf of all such Unit Owners and to commence and prosecute a special proceeding for the review of assessments of real estate property as an aggrieved person. The Condominium Board may retain legal counsel on behalf of all Unit Owners for which it is acting as agent and may charge all such Unit Owners a pro rata share of expenses, disbursements and legal fees, for which charges the Condominium Board shall have a lien pursuant to the terms of these By-Laws.

Section 5.12 Gas. Gas shall be supplied to each Unit through a separate meter for such Unit and each Unit Owner shall be required to pay all charges for gas consumed or used in his Unit directly to the utility company servicing the Building as and when billed therefor.

Section 5.13 Electricity. Electricity shall be supplied to each Unit through a separate meter for such Unit, and each Unit Owner shall be required to pay all charges for electricity consumed or used in his or her Unit directly to the utility company servicing the Building as and when billed therefor.

Section 5.14 Utilities Serving the General Common Elements. The cost and expense of water, steam and electricity serving or benefiting any Common Element other than balconies shall be (i) considered part of the expense of maintaining such Common element, (ii) determined by the Board and (iii) charged to the Unit Owners as a Common Expense.

Section 5.15 Records and Audits. (A) The Treasurer of the Condominium, or the Managing Agent under the supervision of such Treasurer, shall keep full, detailed and accurate records and books of account with respect to the financial affairs of the Condominium, which records and books of accounts shall include, without limitation, (i) a listing of all receipts of and expenditures by the Condominium Board and the Managing Agent and (ii) a separate listing for each Unit, setting forth, among other things, the amount of each assessment of Common Charges and Special Assessments levied against such Unit, the dates when due, the amounts paid thereon and the balance, if any, remaining unpaid.

(B) Within four months after the end of each fiscal year of the Condominium, the Condominium Board shall submit to each Unit Owner, and, if so requested, to any Permitted Mortgagee, an annual report of the receipts and expenditures of the Condominium prepared and certified by an independent certified public accountant. The cost of preparing and distributing each such report shall be borne by the Condominium Board as a Common Expense.

COMMON CHARGES

Section 6.1 Determination of Common Expenses and Fixing of Common Charges. (A) From time to time, but not less frequently than once a year, the Condominium Board shall: (i) prepare and adopt a budget for the Condominium, subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 2.3 hereof; (ii) determine the aggregate amount of Common Charges necessary to be charged to the Unit Owners in order to meet the Common Expenses; and (iii) allocate and assess such Common Charges among the Unit Owners pro-rata, in accordance with their respective Common Interests (except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws). The Condominium Board may, as its sole discretion, from time to time increase or decrease the amount of Common Charges allocated to the Units and payable by the Unit Owners and may modify its prior determination of the Common Expenses for any fiscal year so as to increase or decrease the amount of Common Charges payable for such fiscal year or portion thereof; however, no such revised determination of Common Expenses shall have a retroactive effect on the amount of Common Charges payable by Unit Owners for any period prior to the date of such new determination.

(B) The failure or delay of the Condominium Board to prepare or adopt a budget or to determine the Common Expenses for any fiscal year or portion thereof shall not be deemed a waiver or modification in any respect of the covenants and provisions hereof or a release of any Unit Owner from the obligation to pay Common Charges.

(C) In addition to the foregoing duty to determine the amount of and assess Common Charges, the Condominium Board shall have the right, subject, in all respects, to any restrictions contained herein, to levy Special Assessments to meet the Common Expenses.

Section 6.2 Payment of Common Charges. (A) All Unit Owners (including Sponsor or its designee with respect to Unsold Units, for so long as the same are owned thereby) shall be obligated to pay Common Charges and Special Assessments assessed by the Condominium Board pursuant to the terms of Section 6.1 hereof at such time or times (but not less than annually) as the Condominium Board shall determine. Unless otherwise determined by the Condominium Board, Common Charges shall be payable in installments on the first day of every month in advance. To the extent permitted by Law, the Condominium Board shall have a lien on each Unit, on behalf of all Unit Owners, for unpaid Common Charges and Special Assessments assessed against such Unit. Such lien, however, shall be subordinate, to the extent required by Law, to any liens for real estate taxes assessed against such Unit.

(B) No Unit Owner shall be liable for the payment of any part of the Common Charges and any Special Assessments assessed against his Unit for the period subsequent to a sale, with its Appurtenant Interests, made in compliance with the terms of Article 7 hereof. A purchaser or other successor-in-title to the owner of a Unit shall be liable for the payment of all Common Charges and any Special Assessments accrued and unpaid against such Unit prior to his acquisition thereof, except that, to the extent permitted by Law, a Permitted First Mortgagee acquiring title to a mortgaged Unit or a purchaser at a mortgage foreclosure sale held with respect to a Permitted First Mortgage shall not be liable, and such mortgaged Unit shall not be subject to a lien, for the payment of any Common Charges and Special Assessments assessed subsequent to the recording of such Permitted First Mortgage and prior to the acquisition of title to such Unit by the Permitted First Mortgagee or by such purchaser. However, in the event of a foreclosure of a Permitted First Mortgagee (whether by sale, deed in lieu of foreclosure, or otherwise), the defaulting Unit Owner shall remain fully liable for the payment of all unpaid Common Charges and Special Assessments that accrued prior to such foreclosure. Any unpaid Common Charges and Special Assessments that are not collected from such defaulting Unit Owner shall be deemed a Common Expense, collectible from all those who are Unit owners at the time that the same is levied.

(C) Subject to the terms and conditions contained in these

By-Laws, any Unit Owner may convey his Unit, together with its Appurtenant Interests, to the Condominium Board or to its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Unit Owners, without being compensated therefor, and in such event, be exempt from the payment of Common Charges and Special Assessments thereafter accruing, provided, however, that: (i) all Common Charges and any Special Assessments then due and payable with respect to such Unit have been paid; (ii) such Unit is free and clear of all liens and encumbrances other than a Permitted First Mortgage and the Statutory lien for unpaid Common Charges and Special Assessments; (iii) no violation of any provision of the Condominium Documents then exists with respect to such Unit and (iv) at the time of conveyance, and in the event that the Unit is encumbered by a Permitted Mortgage, the Unit Owner shall deposit with the Condominium Board an amount equal to the product of the then currently monthly debt service on the Permitted Mortgage multiplied by 24. However, in no event shall Sponsor or its designee be permitted to convey any Unsold Unit to the Condominium Board and thereby exempt itself from Common Charges and any Special Assessments attributable to such Unit thereafter accruing.

(D) No Unit Owner shall be exempted from liability for the payment of Common Charges or Special Charges by waiving the use or enjoyment of any or all of the Common Elements or by abandoning his or her Unit (except with respect to a conveyance of the same to the Condominium Board, without compensation, pursuant to the terms of paragraph (C) hereof). No Unit Owner shall be entitled to a diminution or abatement in the Common Charges or Special Assessments payable thereby for any inconvenience or discomfort arising from: (i) the failure or interruption of any utility or other services; (ii) the making of repairs or improvements to the Common Elements or any Unit (including, without limitation, such Unit Owner's Unit) pursuant to the terms of Section 5.1, 5.2, or 5.3 hereof; or (iii) any action taken by the Condominium Board or the officers of the Condominium to comply with the Law.

Section 6.3 Statement of Common Charges. The Condominium Board shall promptly provide a written statement of all unpaid Common Charges due from any Unit Owner upon its receipt of a written request therefor from such Unit Owner. In addition, each Unit Owner shall be permitted to examine the books of account of the Condominium at reasonable times on weekdays.

Section 6.4 Default in Payment of Common Charges. (A) The Condominium Board shall take prompt action to collect any Common Charges due to the Condominium Board that remains unpaid for more than 30 days after the due date for the payment thereof. In connection therewith, the Condominium Board shall have the right and obligation to cause liens for all sums due and owing to the Condominium Board to be filed in the Register's Office pursuant to the terms of Section 339-z of the Condominium Act, to cause such liens to be foreclosed in the manner provided in Section 339-aa of the Condominium Act and/or to institute all other proceedings deemed necessary or desirable by the Condominium Board to recover all such unpaid Common Charges, together with all additional sums of money collectible by the Condominium Board by reason of such nonpayment pursuant to the terms of paragraph (B) hereof. A suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid Common Charges, however, shall be maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing such Common Charges. In addition any Unit Owner in default of two months payment of common charges will lose all voting rights after a receipt from the Condominium Board of a ten day notice to cure.

(B) In the event that any Unit Owner shall fail to make prompt payment of Common Charges, such Unit Owner shall be obligated to pay all costs and expenses paid or incurred by the Condominium Board, the Managing Agent, (if any) in connection with collecting such unpaid Common Charges and/or in foreclosing the aforementioned lien, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and disbursements and court costs. In addition, if the Condominium Board shall bring an action to foreclose the aforementioned lien, the defaulting Unit Owner will be required to pay a reasonable rental for the use of his Unit, and the plaintiff in such foreclosure action shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the same.

(C) In any action brought by the Condominium Board to foreclose a lien on a unit because of unpaid Common Charges, the Condominium Board shall have, on behalf of all Unit Owners, the power to purchase such Unit at the foreclosure sale thereof and to acquire, hold, lease, mortgage, convey, or otherwise deal with such Unit (but not to vote the votes appurtenant to the same).

In the event that the net proceeds received on such foreclosure (after deduction of all legal fees and disbursements, advertising costs, brokerage commissions, court costs and other costs and expenses paid or incurred in connection therewith) shall be insufficient to satisfy the defaulting Unit Owner's obligations to the Condominium, such Unit Owner shall remain liable for the deficit. Any surplus on such foreclosure sale shall be paid to the defaulting Unit Owner after first paying all liens on such Unit Owner's Unit in the order of priority of such liens.

SELLING AND LEASING OF UNITS

SECTION 7.1 General. Subject to the terms of Section 7.5 hereof, no Unit Owner may sell or lease his Unit except in compliance with the applicable provisions of this Article 7. Any purported sale or lease consummated in default of the applicable terms hereof shall be voidable at the sole election of the Condominium Board, and, if the Condominium Board shall so elect, the selling or leasing Unit Owner shall be deemed to have authorized and empowered the Condominium Board to institute legal proceedings to eject the purported purchaser (in the event of an unauthorized sale) or to evict the purported tenant (in the event of an unauthorized leasing) in the name of the said Unit Owner as the owner, or landlord, as the case may be. The said Unit Owner shall reimburse the Condominium Board for all costs and expenses paid or incurred in connection with such proceedings, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees, disbursements and court costs.

Section 7.2 Right of First Refusal. (A) Subject to the terms of Sections 7.5 hereof, any contract to sell a Unit together with its Appurtenant Interests and any lease of a Unit (hereinafter collectively referred to as a "Sale or Lease Agreement") shall contain the following language: "THIS AGREEMENT AND THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER ARE HEREBY MADE EXPRESSLY SUBJECT TO THE RIGHTS, IF ANY, OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE CONDOMINIUM WITH RESPECT TO THE TRANSACTION EMBODIED HEREIN PURSUANT TO THE TERMS OF SECTION 7.2 AND 7.3 OF THE BY-LAWS OF THE SAID CONDOMINIUM, AS THE SAME MAY HAVE BEEN AMENDED." Promptly after any such contract of sale or lease shall be fully executed, the Unit Owner executing the same (hereinafter referred to as the "Offeree Unit Owner") shall send written notice thereof to the Condominium Board by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, which notice shall be accompanied by a fully executed, original counterpart of the contract of sale or the lease, as the case may be, containing all of the terms offered in good faith by the prospective purchaser or tenant (hereinafter referred as the "Outside Offeror").

(B) The sending of the notice referred to in paragraph (A) of this Section 7.2 shall constitute an offer by the Offeree Unit Owner to sell his Unit, together with its Appurtenant Interests, or to lease his Unit, as the case may be, to the Condominium Board or to its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Unit Owners, upon the same terms and conditions as are outlined in such Sale or Lease Agreement, subject, however, to any variance therefrom provided in Section 7.3 hereof. The giving of such notice shall further constitute a representation and warranty by the Offeree Unit Owner to the Condominium Board, on behalf of all Unit Owners, that such Offeree Unit Owner believes the Sale or Lease Agreement to be bona fide in all respects. Thereafter, upon the written demand of the Condominium Board, the Offeree Unit Owner shall submit to the Condominium Board, in writing, such further information with respect to the Outside Offeror and the Sale or Lease Agreement as the Condominium Board may reasonably request.

(C) The Condominium Board may elect, by sending written notice thereof to the Offeree Unit Owner by certified or registered mail not later than 20 business days after receipt of the notice referred to in paragraph (A) (provided that if further information had been requested pursuant to the terms of paragraph (B) hereof, such 20 day period shall commence on the receipt of such information), to purchase such Unit together with its Appurtenant Interests or to lease such Unit, as the case may be (or to cause the same to be purchased or leased by its designee, corporate or otherwise) on behalf of all Unit Owners upon the same terms and conditions as were contained in the Sale or Lease Agreement and stated in the response(s) by the Offeree Unit Owner to any requests for additional information pursuant to the terms of paragraph (B) hereof. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, however, the Condominium Board shall not exercise any option set forth in this Section 7.2 to purchase or lease any Unit without the prior approval of a Majority of

Unit Owners.

Section 7.3 Acceptance of Offer. (A) In the event that the Condominium Board shall elect, within the time and in the manner provided in Section 7.2 hereof, to purchase a Unit together with its Appurtenant Interests, to lease such Unit, or to cause the same to be purchased or leased, a lease or contract shall be executed in either event in accordance with the terms of the Sale or Lease Agreement, at the office of the attorneys for the Condominium within 45 days after the day upon which the Condominium Board shall give notice of its election to accept such offer.

(B) In the event that such Unit is to be leased by the Condominium Board or its designee on behalf of all Unit Owners, the Offeree Unit Owner shall execute and deliver to the Condominium Board or such designee a lease covering such Unit by and between the Offeree Unit Owner, as landlord, and the Condominium Board or such designee, as tenant. Such lease shall be in the then current form of apartment lease recommended by the Real Estate Board of New York, Inc., and shall contain all of the terms and conditions of the Lease Agreement not in conflict with such form or lease, including without limitation, the rental and term provided for therein. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth hereinabove or in the Lease Agreement, however, such lease shall expressly provide that the Condominium Board or such designee may enter into a sublease of the premises thereunder without consent of the landlord.

Section 7.4 Failure to Accept Offer. (A) In the event that the Condominium Board shall fail to accept an offer made pursuant to the terms of Section 7.2 hereof within the time set forth in paragraph (C) thereof, the Offeree Unit Owner shall be free to consummate the transaction embodied in the Sale or Lease Agreement within 120 days after (i) notice of refusal is sent to the Offeree Unit owner by the Condominium Board or (ii) the expiration of the period within which the Condominium Board or its designee might have accepted such offer, as the case may be.

If the Offeree Unit Owner shall fail to consummate the transaction embodied in the Sale or Lease Agreement within such 120-day period, then, should the Offeree Unit Owner thereafter elect to sell such Unit together with its Appurtenant Interests or to lease such Unit, the Offeree Unit Owner shall be required again to comply with all of the terms and provisions of Sections 7.2, 7.3, and 7.4 hereof.

(B) Any deed of a Unit and its Appurtenant Interests to an Outside Offeror shall expressly provide that the acceptance thereof by the grantee shall constitute an assumption of all of the terms of the Condominium Documents, and, in the absence of such express language, the same shall be conclusively deemed to have been included therein.

(C) Each lease of a Unit to an Outside Offeror shall be in the then current form of apartment lease recommended by the Real Estate Board of New York, Inc. subject to such modifications as may be approved in writing by the Condominium Board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, each such lease shall be consistent with the Condominium Documents and shall expressly provide that:

(i) such lease shall be for a term of not less than six months and shall not be for less than an entire Unit.

(ii) such lease may not be amended, modified, or extended without the prior written consent of the Condominium Board in each instance;

(iii) the tenant thereunder shall not assign his interest in such lease or sublet the premises demised thereunder or any part thereof without the prior written consent of the Condominium Board in each instance; and

(iv) the Condominium Board shall have the power to terminate such lease and/or to bring summary proceedings to evict the tenant in the name of the landlord thereunder in the event of (a) a default by the tenant in the performance of its obligations under such lease or (b) a foreclosure of the lien granted by Section 339-z of the Condominium Act.

Section 7.5 Termination of, and Exceptions to, the Right of First Refusal. (A) A certificate executed and acknowledged by the Secretary of the Condominium or the Managing Agent, stating that the provisions of Section 7.2 hereof have been met by a Unit Owner or that the right of first refusal therein has been duly released or waived by the Condominium Board and that, as a result thereof, the rights of the Condominium Board thereunder have terminated, shall be conclusive upon the Condominium Board and all Unit Owners in favor of all persons who rely upon such certificate in good faith. After the due issuance of such a certificate, the Unit to which the same shall relate, together with its Appurtenant Interests, may be sold, conveyed, or leased free and clear of the terms and conditions contained in Section 7.2 hereof. The Condominium Board shall furnish or cause the Managing Agent to furnish, without unreasonable charge, such certificate upon written request of any Unit Owner in respect to whom the provisions of Section 7.2 hereof have, in fact, been terminated. In no event, however, shall the Right of First Refusal described in Section 7.2 hereof be deemed released or waived by the Condominium Board (as opposed to satisfied pursuant to the express terms of Section 7.2, 7.3, and 7.4 hereof) in the absence of a certificate that has been duly executed, acknowledged and issued by the Condominium Board or the Managing Agent, (if any) as aforesaid.

(B) The terms and conditions contained in Sections 7.2, 7.3 and 7.4 hereof shall not apply with respect to any sale, lease, or conveyance of a Unit, together with its Appurtenant by:

(i) the owner of such Unit to any of his or her adult Family Members, to any combination of the same, or to a trust for the benefit of any of them or, with respect to a Unit Owner that is not an individual, to any entity or individual that owns more than 50 percent of the legal and beneficial interest of such Unit Owner or entity with respect to which such Unit Owner (individual or otherwise) owns more than 50 percent of the legal and beneficial interest thereof;

(ii) Sponsor or its designee, with respect to the Unsold Units;

(iii) the Condominium Board;

(iv) any proper officer conducting the sale of a Unit in connection with the foreclosure of a mortgage or other lien covering such Unit or delivering a deed in lieu of such foreclosure; or

(v) any Permitted Mortgagee or his nominee, who has acquired title to any Unit at any foreclosure sale of his or her Permitted Mortgage or by deed in lieu thereof delivered in a bona fide transaction; Provided, However, that each succeeding Unit Owner shall be bound by, and his Unit shall continue to be subject to, all of the terms and conditions of this Article 7.

Section 7.6 No Severance of Ownership. No Unit Owner shall execute any deed or other instrument conveying title to his or her Unit without including therein its Appurtenant Interests, it being the intention to prevent any severance of such combined ownership. Any deed or other instrument purporting to affect one or more such interests shall be taken to include the interest or interests so omitted, even though the latter shall not be expressly mentioned or described therein. No part of the Appurtenant Interests of any Unit may be sold, conveyed, or otherwise disposed of, except as part of a sale, conveyance, or other disposition of the Unit to which such interests are appurtenant or as part of a sale, conveyance, or other disposition of such part of the Appurtenant Interests of all Units. Nothing contained in this Section 7.6 however, shall prohibit the lease of any Unit without the simultaneous lease of its Appurtenant Interests.

Section 7.7 Payment of Common Charges. No Unit Owner shall be permitted to convey or lease his Unit unless he shall have paid in full to the Condominium Board all unpaid Common Charges and Special Assessments theretofore assessed against such Unit and shall have satisfied all unpaid liens, other than that of Permitted Mortgages, levied against such Unit provided that if a Unit Owner shall convey his Unit without having paid in full all such payments, the purchaser of such Unit shall be responsible for all such payments.

Section 7.8 Power of Attorney. At the time of acquiring title to a Unit and as a condition thereof, the new Unit Owner shall duly execute, acknowledge and deliver to the representative of his or her title insurance company (or, if no such representative is present, to Sponsor or its designee, or, if Sponsor or its designee is not then the owner of any Unsold Unit, to the Condominium Board) for recording in the Register's Office, the Unit Owner's Power of Attorney required in Article 14 of the Declaration, in the form set forth as on Exhibit to the Declaration and the new Unit Owner shall bear the cost of recording the Unit Owner's Power of Attorney.

Section 7.9 Devises, Etc. Any Unit Owner shall be free to devise his Unit together with its Appurtenant Interests by will or to have the same pass by intestacy, without restriction, provided, however, that each succeeding Unit Owner shall be bound by, and his or her Unit shall be subject to, the provisions of this Article 7.

MORTGAGING OF UNITS

SECTION 8.1 General. Each Unit Owner shall have the right to mortgage his Unit, subject only to the terms and conditions contained in Section 8.2 hereof. Any Unit Owner who mortgages his or her Unit, or the holder of such mortgage, shall supply the Condominium Board with the name and address of his or her mortgagee and shall file a conformed copy of the note and mortgage with the Condominium Board. Any Unit Owner who satisfies a mortgage covering his Unit shall so notify the Condominium Board and shall file a conformed copy of the satisfaction of mortgage with the Condominium Board. The Secretary of the Condominium shall maintain such information in a book entitled "Mortgages of Units."

Section 8.2 Restrictions on Mortgaging. (A) No Unit Owner shall be permitted to mortgage, pledge, or hypothecate his Unit unless and until he shall have paid in full to the Condominium Board all unpaid Common Charges and Special Assessments theretofore assessed against such Unit and shall have satisfied all unpaid liens, except the liens of Permitted Mortgages levied against such Unit.

(B) Any mortgage or other document mortgaging, pledging, or hypothecating title to a Unit shall include therein its Appurtenant Interests, it being the intention to prevent any severance of such combined ownership. Any mortgage or other instrument purporting to affect one or more of such interests without including all such interests shall be deemed and taken to include the interest or interests so omitted, even though the latter shall not be expressly mentioned or described therein.

(C) Any mortgage covering a Unit shall be substantially in the form of the New York statutory form of mortgage, except for such changes or additions thereto as may be reasonably required in order to permit a particular bank, trust company, insurance company, savings and loan association, or other institutional or noninstitutional lender to make the mortgage loan.

Section 8.3 Notice of Unpaid Common Charges and Default. Whenever requested in writing by a Permitted Mortgagee, the Condominium Board shall promptly report to such Permitted Mortgagee any default by his or her mortgagor(s) in the payment of Common Charges or Special Assessments or in the observance or performance of any of the provisions of the Condominium Documents as to which the Condominium Board has knowledge then exists. The Condominium Board shall, when giving notice to a Unit Owner of any such default, also send a copy of such notice to his Permitted Mortgagee, if so requested. However, the Condominium Board shall have no liability for any failure, through oversight or negligence, in notifying a Permitted Mortgagee of any default by his or her mortgagor under the Condominium Documents, provided that (i) the Condominium Board shall advise such Permitted Mortgagee of the default promptly after discovering such failure and (ii) if the Condominium Board shall foreclose a lien on such Mortgagor's Unit pursuant to the terms of Section 6.4 hereof by reason of such default, the Condominium Board shall pay to such Permitted Mortgagee any net proceeds of any foreclosure sale of such Unit (after retaining all sums due and owing to the Condominium Board pursuant to the Condominium Documents) or such lesser sum as shall be due and owing to such permitted Mortgagee.

Section 8.4 Performance by Permitted Mortgagees. Any sum of money to be paid or any act to be performed by a Unit Owner pursuant to the terms of the Condominium Documents may be paid or performed by his Permitted Mortgagee, and the Condominium Board shall accept such Permitted Mortgagee's payment or performance with the same force and effect as if the same were paid or performed by such Unit Owner.

ARTICLE 9

ARTICLE 11

AMENDMENTS TO BY-LAWS

Section 11.1 General. (A) Subject to the terms of paragraph (B) hereof and subject, further, to any provisions contained in the Declaration or these By-Laws with respect to any amendments (hereinafter referred to as "Special Amendments") affecting or in favor of Sponsor or its designee, any Unsold Unit(s), and/or any permitted Mortgagee, any provision of these By-Laws may be amended, modified, added to, or deleted by the affirmative vote of not less than 80% in number and the aggregate Common Interests of all Unit Owners either taken at a duly constituted meeting thereof or given in writing without a meeting as provided in Section 4.9 hereof. Each duly adopted amendment, modification, addition, or deletion hereof or hereto shall be effectuated in an instrument executed and recorded in the Register's Office by or on behalf of the Condominium Board as attorney-in-fact of all Unit Owners, which power-of-attorney shall be deemed irrevocable and coupled with an interest. Attached to each such instrument shall be an original, executed Secretary's Certification, certifying that the requisite number and percentage of Unit Owners approved the amendment, modification, addition, or deletion set forth therein either at a duly constituted meeting of Unit Owners or in writing without a meeting pursuant to the terms of Section 4.9 hereof, in which Secretary's Certification there shall be described the number and percentage of Unit Owners approving the same and, if voted at a meeting, the date, time and place of such meeting. No such amendment, modification, addition, or deletion shall be effective unless and until such an instrument shall be duly recorded in the Register's Office.

(B) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in paragraph (A) hereof, but still subject to any provision contained in the Declaration of these By-Laws with respect to Special Amendment:

(i) the Common Interest appurtenant to any Unit, as set forth in the Declaration, shall not be altered without the consent of the Unit Owner thereof; and

(ii) no amendment, modification, addition, or deletion agreed to pursuant to the terms of paragraph (A) hereof shall be effective without the prior written consent of the Mortgage Representatives, if any, provided, however, that no such consent shall be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

Section 11.2 Special Amendments. (A) Any amendments, modification, addition, or deletion of or to any of the provisions of these By-Laws that, pursuant to the terms of the Declaration or these By-Laws, may be effected by Sponsor or its designee without the consent of the Condominium Board or the Unit Owners shall be embodied in an instrument executed and recorded in the Register's Office by Sponsor or such designee as attorney-in-fact of both the Condominium Board and all Unit Owners, which power-in-attorney shall be deemed to be irrevocable and coupled with an interest. Attached to each such instrument shall be an original, executed Certification by Sponsor or such designee, certifying that the amendment, modification, addition, or deletion set forth therein was effectuated by Sponsor or such designee pursuant to the terms of the Declaration and/or these By-Laws, in which Certification there shall be set forth the Article and/or Section of the Declaration or these By-Laws pursuant to which the same was effectuated. No such amendment, modification, addition, or deletion shall be effective unless and until such an instrument shall be duly recorded in the Register's Office.

(B) Notwithstanding any provision contained herein to the contrary, no amendment, modification, addition, or deletion of or to these By-Laws shall be effective in any respect against Sponsor or its designee, any Unsold Unit, or the holder of any present or future mortgage, pledge, lien, or security agreement covering any Unsold Unit unless and until Sponsor, such designee, and/or such holder (as the case may be) shall consent to the same in writing.

(C) Notwithstanding any provision contained herein to the contrary, no amendment, modification, addition or deletion of or to Section 5.4 or 5.5, paragraph (B) of Section 6.2, or subparagraph (iv) or (v) of paragraph (B) of Section 7.5, hereof shall be effective with respect to the holder of any Permitted Mortgage theretofore made unless and until such Permitted Mortgagee shall have given its written consent thereto.

I certify that the Report:

1. Sets forth in narrative form the description and physical condition of the entire property as it will exist upon completion of construction, provided that construction is in accordance with the plans and specifications that I examined;
2. In my professional opinion affords potential investors, purchasers and participants an adequate basis upon which to found their judgement concerning the description and physical condition of the property as it will exist upon completion of construction, provided that construction is in accordance with the plans and specifications that I examined;
3. Does not omit any material fact;
4. Does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact;
5. Does not contain any fraud, deception, concealment or suppression;

I further certify that I am not owned or controlled by and have no beneficial interest in the sponsor and that my compensation for preparing this Report is not contingent on the conversion of the property to a condominium or on the profitability or price of the offering. This statement is not intended as a guarantee or warranty of the physical condition of the property.

RE: eight units at 1400 Avenue S, Brooklyn
Block: 7293 Lot: 1

Dear Sir:

You have requested me to advise you with respect to the applicability of The City of New York's program for partial real estate tax exemption under Section 421-A of the Real Property Tax Law and the procedure therefore.

You and your architect have represented to us that:

1. You will commence construction on the site of the building based on approved new building permits issued by the Department of Buildings of the City of New York before January 1, 2001.
2. Upon completion of construction, the Building will be classified as multiple dwellings pursuant to the Multiple Dwelling Law.
3. The Site was unimproved 36 months prior to the commencement of construction (as defined in the site requirements of section 2.5(1) (a) of the Regulations).
4. The building will be substantially used for dwelling purposes for a period of at least fifteen years following its completion.
5. Construction of the building will be completed on or before Dec. 31, 2003.
6. An application for Preliminary Certificate of Eligibility will be filed with HPD upon start of construction.
7. Upon completion, the project will consist of a condominium consisting of eight residential units.

CONCLUSION

Based solely on these representations, and if (i) the building is constructed substantially in accordance with the plans and specifications approved by the New York City Department of Buildings and comply with the requirements of section 421-A, the Regulations and HPD, and HPD is notified of any modifications to the plans for the building or the "sell-out" price; (ii) HPD determines that the property was "underutilized" (pursuant to the provisions of Section 421-A) 36 months prior to commencement of construction; (iii) a preliminary Certificate of Eligibility is issued by HPD after commencement of construction and prior to the issuance of a temporary Certificate of Occupancy; (iv) temporary Certificates of Occupancy for all of the residential areas of the building or permanent Certificates of Occupancy for the building is issued and filed with HPD no later than six months after an application for a Final Certificate of Eligibility is filed with HPD, or prior to December 31, 2002 which ever is earlier; (v) a copy of such Final Certification and of the temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the residential units is filed with the New York City Department of Finance succeeding the issuance of such Final Certificate of Eligibility; and (vi) there is no change in Section 421-A, the Regulations and decisional law, the Building would appear to be eligible for the partial real estate tax exemption prided under Section 421-A.

The units of the condominium should be entitled to Section 421-A tax benefits under present law. Generally, for predominantly residential buildings, under section 421-A, 100% of the increased assessed value of the property resulting from the improvement thereon (i.e., the assessed value above the pre-construction assessed value) is exempt from taxation during construction and during the ten (10) years following the first taxable status date immediately following completion of construction. The exemption declines to 80% of the increased assessed value for the eleventh (11) year and is further reduced by an additional 20% for each of the succeeding years. Following the 15-year period, the Unit Owners will pay real state taxes based on the full assessed valuation of their Units and the tax rate then in effect, without the benefit of any exemption.

The total assessed value of the property (i.e., the aggregate assessment of all units) following completion of construction is estimated to be approximately 220,000. Using the foregoing estimate of assessed value upon completion, assuming completion to be on or before December 31, 2003 and assuming the tax rate remains the same as the current rate (i.e., $10.851 per $100 of assessed value) during the 15 year abatement period and upon completion of construction, and using a pre-construction assessed value of the property of 19,008 then upon completion of the 15 year tax abatement the real estate taxes will be approximately $23,872.00. You are advised that this projection is an estimate as it is unlikely that post-construction assessed value or tax rate will remain constant for the 15- year Section 421-A exemption period. Thus, the actual assessment and real estate tax for each Unit may be more or less than the Unit's proportionate share of the total assessment and tax amount shown. If any of the foregoing requirements or conditions, however, should not be met to the satisfaction of HPD, or if any of the foregoing representations should prove to be inaccurate, then, unless the Regulations are modified to remove or change any requirement or condition that is not met, the building would not qualify for the partial real estate tax exemption provided under Section 421-A.

We have been retained by you to undertake the procedures outlined in this letter and consent to the inclusion of this letter in any offering plan with respect to the project. We make no representations and express no opinion as to whether or not any or all of the requirements and conditions set forth herein will be fulfilled.

Although the estimate of the 2000/2001 Actual Assessed Valuation is a good faith estimate, it is not possible to estimate it with any degree of certainty, and thus such assessed valuation when actually made, may be lesser or greater than as estimated. In no event will my firm, the Sponsor, the Sponsors' counsel, the Condominium Board or any other person be liable if the assessed valuation when actually made, is lesser or greater than predicted or if the Administrative Code and the applicable rules and regulations of the City of New York are in the future changed or if the facts as represented to my firm prove to be untrue.

As president of Moseson & Associates a real estate tax consulting firm, I have represented homeowners, real estate developers, attorneys, and corporations since 1983 in dealings with the NYC Department of Housing Preservation and Development. I specialize primarily in obtaining Section 421a, 421b, ICIP, & J51 tax abatements for my clients.
