The Date of Acceptance for filing of this Plan is December 10, 2004.

This Plan may not be used after December 9, 2005 unless extended by a duly filed amendment.

THIS PLAN CONTAINS SPECIAL RISKS TO THE PURCHASER. SEE PAGE i.

THIS OFFERING PLAN IS THE SPONSOR'S ENTIRE OFFER TO SELL THESE CONDOMINIUM UNITS. NEW YORK LAW REQUIRES THE SPONSOR TO DISCLOSE ALL MATERIAL INFORMATION IN THIS PLAN AND TO FILE THIS PLAN WITH THE NEW YORK STATE DEPARTMENT OF LAW PRIOR TO SELLING OR OFFERING TO SELL ANY CONDOMINIUM UNIT. FOURTH AMENDMENT TO OFFERING PLAN
CONVERSION TO CONDOMINIUM OWNERSHIP

This Amendment modifies and supplements the terms of the Offering Plan dated and accepted for filing on December 10, 2004 and should be read in conjunction with the Offering Plan. The Offering Plan, all prior amendments and this amendment are hereinafter collectively called the "Plan".

The terms of the Fourth Amendment are as follows:

1. The budget year is now expected to commence on July 1, 2006. A revised Schedule A and Schedule B are annexed hereto as Exhibit "A", showing the revised budget and revised common charges.
2. The section of the Offering Plan entitled "Commercial Unit" is hereby revised to disclose that the Sponsor will sell the Commercial Unit (Unit #1) to the current tenant Kashee Brothers, Inc., for a purchase price of $1,400,000. All references to the Sponsor retaining ownership of the Commercial Unit are hereby deleted from the Offering Plan. A revised cover page reflecting the increased price of the total offering including the Commercial Unit, is annexed hereto as Exhibit "B".
3. The Sponsor has been advised that the J-51 exemption will not be available to reduce the real estate taxes on the Condominium. Only the abatement, as set forth in the Offering Plan, will be used to reduce the real estate taxes on the Condominium. The revised real estate tax figures are set forth in Schedule A (included in Exhibit "A" hereto) and the revised tax letters are set forth in Exhibit "C", annexed hereto.

Since only the J-51 tax abatement, and not the exemption, will be available to reduce the real estate taxes, each Purchaser who executed and delivered to Sponsor a Purchase Agreement prior to the date of presentation of this Amendment is hereby offered the right, for a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of presentation of this Amendment, to cancel his/her Purchase Agreement and receive a refund of his/her Down Payment, with interest. If a Purchaser wishes to exercise the right of rescission, he/she must, within said fifteen (15)-day period, notify Sponsor of such exercise in writing, by certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to Sponsor c/o Forman & Associates, PC, 156 William Street, Suite 800, New York, New York 10038. A Purchaser's failure to so notify Sponsor will be deemed to be a reaffirmation of the Purchase Agreement. Purchasers may also waive the 15-day rescission period by sending a waiver to Sponsor's attorney in the manner set forth above.

4. The section of the Offering Plan entitled "Interim Leases" is hereby amended. The Sponsor is now offering occupancy of their respective Units to Purchasers who have executed Purchase Agreements and are not in default thereof. Any Purchaser wishing to enter into a Use and Occupancy Agreement (in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit "D") should notify Sponsor's attorney, Forman & Associates p.c., of their desire to do so, in writing. Forman & Associates p.c. shall charge a fee to Purchasers of $750 for the preparation of the Use and Occupancy Agreement.

5. Other than the above, there are no material changes in the terms of the Plan.

(9) INSURANCE

The Property will be insured with a special multi-peril insurance policy supplied by Loveman, Kornreich Co, Inc., 711 Westchester Avenue, White Plains, New York 10604. The policy will be delivered to the Condominium at the time of First Closing. The coverage is as follows:

Building - Special Form
Overall Limit	$ 1,635,000.00
Loss of Income	$ 65,000.00
Flood, Backup of Sewer and Drains	$ 500,000.00
General Liability
Bodily Injury & Property Damage
Per Occurrence	$ 1,000,000.00
General Aggregate	$ 2,000,000.00
Elevator Collision	Included
Boiler & Machinery	$ 1,635,000.00
Directors' & Officers' Liability	$ 1,000,000.00
Crime	$ 250,000.00
Umbrella Liability	$25,000,000.00
Annual Premium:	$ 14,100.00

In a letter dated July 2, 2004, Brenda Steers of Loveman, Kornreich Co., Inc. has advised the Sponsor that in her opinion the amount of coverage is adequate to rebuild the structure if totally destroyed by fire or other insured peril (replacement cost). This is an agreed amount value policy, which waives the standard co-insurance clause. Additionally, the policy provides that each Unit Owner is an additional insured; that there will be no cancellation without notice to the Board of Managers and Unit Owners; waives subrogation and, waives pro-rata reduction if additional Unit Owners obtain coverage. The amount of insurance which will be in effect at the time of the Closing Date should be sufficient to prevent the imposition of any co-insurance factor in the event of partial loss.

The Condominium at some future date may decide to increase insurance coverage to insure the equity value of Unit Owners.

IT SHOULD BE NOTED THAT IN THE EVENT THE PROPERTY IS TOTALLY DESTROYED BY FIRE OR OTHER CASUALTY, THE INSURANCE COVERAGE AS STATED HEREIN DOES NOT COVER THE FULL

INVESTMENT OF THE UNIT OWNERS.

Individual Purchasers should explore obtaining insurance coverage, which would be at their own cost and expense, to insure themselves for such risks as fire and casualty losses in their Units, their personal contents therein, as well as liability insurance for each occurrence which might occur within their respective Units.

Prior to the First Unit Closing the Property will be insured by the Sponsor.

ASSESSED VALUATION BEFORE and AFTER RENOVATION

The Sponsor has consulted with Jerome Mazursky of The Mazursky Group, Inc., 42 Broadway, Suite 1744, New York, New York 10004 and Orah Rubel of Ben Rottenstein Associates, Inc., 56 Willoughby Street, Brooklyn, New York 11201 for their respective opinions as to the assessed valuations of the Property, the projected real estate taxes and the eligibility of the building for 11-243 (also known as J-51) benefits. The Sponsor will use its best efforts to obtain J-51 benefits for the Condominium.

Jerome Mazursky has estimated the assessed valuation for the project after the rehabilitation. In his letter dated March 3, 2006, which updates his letter of September 8, 2004, Mr. Mazursky estimates that after the renovation, the 2006/2007 assessed valuation will be $1,148,184.00.

The recent history of the assessed valuation of 13 East 30th Street is as follows:

2005/06	Land	Total
Actual:	$317,250.00	$1,053,000.00
Transitional:	$252,918.00	$1,127,484.00

Mr. Mazursky has estimated the 2006/07 assessed valuation will be as follows:

2006/07	Land	Total
Actual:	$317,250.00	$1,183,600.00
Transitional:	$275,868.00	$1,148,184.00

Mr. Mazursky estimates that the Commercial Unit will be assessed at 16% and the Residential Units at 84% of the assessed valuation. Mr. Mazursky has estimated the tax liability for the first year of operation for the Residential Units beginning July 1, 2006 at $110,432.00 calculated as follows:

$$$1,148,184.00 \times 84\% \times .1145 = $110,432.00$$

The sponsor is seeking J-51 real estate tax exemption and abatement benefits for the residential units. However, the Property is not eligible for the tax exemption benefit because the average assessed value per dwelling unit, after renovation, exceeds the $38,000 maximum permitted by law in this part of Manhattan. If the J-51 tax abatement is granted, it is unlikely that the benefits will take effect before the second year of the operation beginning July 1, 2007. Assuming J-51 benefits will be granted at that time, the tax for the residential units is estimated to be $114,150. The calculations are as follows:

$$$1,170,000.00 \times 84\% \times .1250 - $8,700.00 = $114,150.00$$

In a letter dated March 22, 2006, which updated her letter of July 9, 2004, Orah Rubel of Ben Rottenstein Associates, Inc. has advised the Sponsor that it is her opinion that the Department of Housing Preservation and Development ("HPD") will consider the property eligible for real estate tax abatement benefits only under Section 11-243 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York ("NYC Administrative Code").

The opinion letter dated July 9, 2004, indicates that exemption benefits would be available for the Residential Units at this property. However, upon review of the projected increase in assessed valuation for the Residential Units after completion of construction, it would appear that the average assessed valuation per dwelling unit is greater than $38,000 and would therefore not qualify for tax exemption benefits.

This legislation and other amendments to the Section 11-243 Program include the withdrawal of benefits for the conversion of Class B dwellings to Class A dwellings, restrictions on loft conversions, reduction of the "cap" on maximum abatement benefits and the removal of benefits for "luxury" conversions among other changes. These provisions limit exemptions, in some cases, by creating a sliding scale for the exemption based on the post rehabilitation assessed valuation.

No assurances can be given that the assessed valuation and/or tax rate will remain the same during the duration of the benefits, and if either increases, the real estate taxes may increase. The ratio of exempt to non-exempt portions of the building's assessed value shall remain the same throughout the period of tax exemption, notwithstanding any subsequent increase in assessed value during this period.

It should be noted that once 11-243 benefits are granted, certain subsequent events could cause their reduction or revocation. Under Section 5-07(e) of the Regulations, the Commissioner of HPD may reduce or revoke past or future tax exemptions or abatements if he finds that the 11-243 application contained a false statement as to a material matter or omits a material fact.

All interested parties should be aware that HPD routinely conducts audits and requires that, pursuant to section 5-07(b) of the regulations, all books, records and documents be kept and retained for three years after completion of the application and made available to HPD should such documentation be requested. Failure to comply with audit requirements can result in the reduction or loss of 11-243 benefits.

Please note that, after the 11-243 application has been approved by HPD, benefits will not actually commence so long as previous real estate taxes and water and sewer charges remain unpaid. The 11-243 real estate tax abatement benefits to be awarded to this property are not retroactive. All real estate taxes which are due during the period of construction and up to the commencement of benefits must be paid in full.

In addition, once begun, tax abatement benefits can be revoked in the event that real estate taxes, water charges, or sewer charges remain unpaid for one year after they become due and payable to the City. Failure by one Condominium owner to pay the taxes and/or charges applicable to his/her unit will not jeopardize the benefits of other unit owners.

After the Units are separately assessed, each Unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes and that the Unit Owner will not be responsible for the payment of, nor will the Unit be subjected to, any lien arising from the non-payment of taxes on other Units. If the Units have not been separately assessed for real estate tax purposes prior to the closing of title to the first Unit, the Sponsor or Board of Managers may advance any real estate taxes due and the Unit Owners will make payments towards real estate taxes to the Sponsor or Board of Managers.

THE CITY OF NEW YORK MAY ASSESS EACH UNIT ON A BASIS THAT DIFFERS FROM THE ALLOCATION OF COMMON INTERESTS AND MAY BE EITHER HIGHER OR LOWER THAN REFLECTED IN SCHEDULE "A" IN FUTURE YEARS.

DUE TO POSSIBLE INCREASES IN THE TAX RATE AND/OR POSSIBLE FURTHER INCREASES IN THE PROPERTY'S ASSESSED VALUATION, REAL ESTATE TAXES MAY BE HIGHER THAN AS SET FORTH ABOVE, AFTER THE FIRST YEAR OF OPERATION AND IN FUTURE YEARS.

NO WARRANTY IS OR CAN BE MADE BY SPONSOR OR ANY OTHER PERSON THAT THE NEW YORK CITY DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING PRESERVATION AND DEVELOPMENT OR THE NEW YORK CITY REAL PROPERTY ASSESSMENT DEPARTMENT, OR ANY OTHER AGENCY WITH JURISDICTION, WILL APPROVE SPONSOR'S APPLICATION FOR 11-243 TAX BENEFITS, AND NEITHER THE SPONSOR NOR ITS COUNSEL SHALL BE LIABLE IF, BECAUSE OF A CHANGE IN LAWS AND/OR REGULATIONS OR THE INTERPRETATION OF LAWS AND/OR REGULATIONS (OR, AS TO FORMAN & ASSOCIATES, pc IF THE FACTS REPRESENTED BY SPONSOR PROVE INCORRECT) THE PROPERTY FAILS TO OBTAIN IN WHOLE OR IN PART 11-243 BENEFITS. SHOULD TAX BENEFITS BE DENIED, IN WHOLE

OR IN PART, THEN THE CONDOMINIUM WILL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL OF THE TAXES DUE AND OWING.

See section entitled "COUNSEL'S TAX OPINION" for further details.

The projected income tax deduction may vary in the future due to changes in real property taxes resulting from changes in the Assessed Valuation, the tax rate or the method of assessing real property.

There are no certiorari proceedings pending to challenge past Assessed Valuations.

The Board of Managers may make its own motion or by vote of a majority of the Unit Owners, to file a petition to challenge the real estate tax assessment in the Units. Otherwise, a Unit Owner shall have the right to individually challenge the real estate tax assessment on his/her Unit by filing the appropriate certiorari petition in a timely fashion. See Article IV Section 2.q. of the By-Laws.

Re: 13 East 30th Street, Manhattan
Block: 860 Lot: 11

Gentlemen:

Referring to our opinion letter of July 9, 2004, this letter will serve as clarification of exemption benefits for this property.

This property is located in an area of Manhattan where J-51 benefits are subject to certain limitations. If an eligible project receives a Certificate of Eligibility, then the residential units may be exempt from taxation on a percentage of the increase in assessed valuation resulting from the conversion based upon the average assessed valuation per dwelling unit after the completion of construction on the following schedule:

Average Assessment Per dwelling Unit	Percentage of Increased Assessment Exempt
$ 0 - $ 18,000	100%
$18,001 - $ 22,000	75%
$ 22,001 - $ 26,000	50%
$ 26,001 - $ 30,000	25%
$ 30,001 - $37,999	0%
$ 38,000 or more	No Exemption Granted

Although our opinion letter indicated that exemption benefits would be available for the residential units at this property, upon review of the projected increase in assessed valuation for the residential units after completion of construction, it would appear that the average assessed valuation per dwelling unit is greater than $38,000 and would therefore not qualify for tax exemption benefits.

Very truly yours,

Re: Empire/30 Condominium
13 East 30th Street, Manhattan

Gentlemen:

This letter is in response to your request that I update my September 8, 2004 Real Estate Tax Estimate for the above-captioned property. The update includes changes in taxable values, estimated tax rates, and a change in the first year of operation from July 1, 2005 to July 1, 2006.

The Class 4 tax rate for 2005/06 is $11.306 per $100 and the Class 2 rate is $12.396 per $100. I estimate the Class 4 and 2 rates for 2006/07 at $11.45 and $12.50 per $100, respectively.

My calculations for real estate taxes in the first year of operation will be based upon the Tentative 2006/07 assessed values. The 2005/06 and 2006/07 assessed values are:

2005/06	Land	Total
Actual:	$ 317,250	$ 1,053,000
Transitional:	$ 252,918	$ 1,127,484
2006/07	Land	Total
Actual:	$ 317,250	$ 1,183,600
Transitional:	$ 275,868	$ 1,148,184

Using relative values as a rental building as the criterion, I have estimated that the retail unit will be assessed at 16%, and the residential units at 84% of the total assessed valuation. The tax liability for the retail and residential units during the first year of operation is estimated at $21,035 and $110,432, respectively. The calculations are as follows:

Retail Unit

7/01/06 - 6/30/07

$$$1,148,184^1 \times .16^2 \times .1145^3 = $ 21,035$$

Residential Units

$$$1,148,184^1 \times .84^2 \times .1145^4 = $ 110,432$$

1. 2006/07 Taxable Assessed Value
 2. Portion of value attributable to this type of space.
 3. Estimated 2006/07 Class 4 Tax Rate
 4. The property has been incorrectly classified as Tax Class 4 in the tentative 2006/07 records.

It is my understanding that the sponsor is seeking J-51 real estate tax exemption and abatement benefits for the residential units. The property is not eligible for the tax exemption benefit because the average assessed value per dwelling unit, after renovation, exceeds the $38,000 maximum permitted by law in this part of Manhattan. If the J-51 tax abatement is granted, it is unlikely that the benefits will take effect before the second year of the operation beginning July 1, 2007. Assuming J-51 benefits will be granted at that time, the tax for the residential units is estimated to be $ 114,150. The calculations are as follows:

$$$1,170,000^5 \times .84^2 \times .1250^7 - $8,700^6 = $114,150$$

Please call me if you have any questions regarding this letter.

Very truly yours,

Jerome Mazursky, MAI, CAE

EXHIBIT D

Vendor: 13 East 30 Street Associates, L.P

Premises: Unit # ____, 13 East 30th Street, New York, New York

Commencing:

Use and Occupancy Fee: $2,800.00 per month

WHEREAS, _____, residing at _____, New York (hereinafter called the "Vendee") has entered into a contract (hereinafter referred to as the "Contract") to purchase premises known as Unit # ____, 13 East 30th Street, New York, New York (hereinafter referred to as the "Premises") from 13 East 30 Street Associates, L.P., with offices at 185 Bowery, New York, New York (hereinafter referred to as the "Vendor"); and

WHEREAS, the Vendor in its sole discretion as Vendor is giving the right to the Vendee to take use and occupancy of the Premises prior to the closing for the sole convenience of the Vendee; and

WHEREAS, it is understood and agreed by both Vendor and Vendee that no Landlord/Tenant relationship whatsoever is created by this Agreement; and,

WHEREAS, it is understood and agreed by both Vendor and Vendee that the Premises shall be promptly vacated by Vendee should it fail to purchase the Premises pursuant to the terms of the Contract.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the above promises, the parties hereto covenant, warrant and agree as follows:

1. The Vendee may use and occupy the Premises prior to closing upon the execution of this Agreement for the term of this Agreement and until closing unless sooner terminated as hereinafter provided.
2. The Vendee shall accept the Premises in its "AS IS" condition as of the date hereof both as Vendee hereunder and as Purchaser under the terms of the Contract between the parties. Anything contained in any other such agreement or otherwise as to the condition of the Premises is hereby merged into this Agreement and shall not survive this Agreement for the closing of the Premises.

3. The Vendee shall make all repairs that the Vendee would have been obligated to make to the Premises, its appliances, equipment and fixtures as if it were an owner of the Premises. Vendee shall also reimburse Vendor for all damages to the Premises caused by Vendee pursuant to its use of the Premises under this Agreement and pursuant to any previous Use and Occupancy Agreement.
4. The term of this Agreement shall commence on the date of execution of this Agreement and will expire six (6) months thereafter or on the date of closing to the Premises, whichever is earlier, or as sooner terminated under the terms hereinafter set forth.
5. If the Vendee fails to comply with its obligations pursuant to the Contract, this Agreement shall be deemed cancelled, null and void, at the option of the Vendor, upon the expiration of five (5) days after the mailing of notice to the defaulting Vendee by certified mail, return receipt requested, unless the default is cured within said time. In such event, the Vendee shall vacate the Premises within five (5) days after said written notice of default is mailed to the Vendee. SAID NOTICE OF DEFAULT IS DEEMED A NOTICE TO VACATE, AS WELL.
6. Furthermore any default under the terms of this Agreement which is not cured within five (5) days of receipt of written notice sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, shall be a default of and under the Contract. In such event, the Vendee shall forfeit his/her Down Payment as liquidated damages and the Contract shall be deemed canceled, null and void and of no further force and effect. The Vendee shall vacate the Premises within five (5) days after the said notice of default is mailed to the Vendee by certified mail, return receipt requested, if such default is not cured. SAID NOTICE OF DEFAULT IS DEEMED A NOTICE TO VACATE, AS WELL.
7. In the event the Vendee, after entering into possession of the Premises, rescinds or terminates its Contract in accordance with the terms of the Contract, or otherwise, the Vendee's right to use and occupy the Premises pursuant to this Agreement shall cease immediately without the obligation of the Vendor to provide any notice thereof and such Vendee shall vacate the Premises within five (5) days of giving such notice of termination or rescission. Such notice of termination or rescission shall be deemed an intent to surrender use and occupancy as well. The Vendor shall not be obligated to return such Vendee's Down Payment until the Premises is vacated by him/her and possession restored (leaving the Premises vacant and broom clean) to the Vendor.
8. In the event the Vendee fails to close title to the Premises pursuant to the Contract, the Premises must be vacated within five (5) days after written notice of default is mailed to the Vendee by certified mail return receipt requested, WHICH NOTICE OF DEFAULT IS DEEMED A NOTICE TO VACATE, AS WELL.

9. In the event Vendee fails to vacate the Premises as a result of any default by Vendee of either the Contract or this Agreement, which default is not cured within five (5) days of receipt of written notice sent by certified mail, or as a result of Vendee's failure to close title to the Premises, Vendor shall be entitled to retain the Down Payment tendered pursuant to the Contract as liquidated damages. In addition, Vendee shall be liable for the sum of $5,000.00 per month (or such pro-rata share thereof) as additional liquidated damages, until Vendee vacates the Premises.
10. Vendee's Default. The following are defaults and must be cured by the Vendee within the time stated:
 - (a) failure to comply with its obligations pursuant to the Contract;
 - (b) failure to close title to the Premises; and
 - (c) failure to comply with the terms of this Agreement;
11. This Agreement is not assignable by the Vendee without written consent of the Vendor.
12. The Vendee and Vendor agree to waive their right to a trial by jury in any action or proceeding brought by either against the other for any matter arising out of this Agreement. The Vendee further agrees not to commence any Landlord/Tenant litigation against Vendor to extend the term of this Agreement or continue its use and occupancy after this Agreement is terminated.
13. The Vendor's failure to enforce any term in this Agreement is not a waiver of Vendor's rights. If a term of this Agreement is illegal, the rest of this Agreement remains in full force and effect.
14. Interpretations and enforcement of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of New York.
15. The Vendee hereby indemnifies and holds Vendor harmless from any claims, loss, cost, damage, expense, liability, or litigation which may arise as a result of his/her occupancy of the Premises or arising from injury to any person or any property. The Vendee further agrees to immediately pay any fines and expenses which may occur as a result of any non-compliance with the terms or coverage of the insurance currently in effect on the Premises.

16. Furthermore, if the Vendor employs an attorney to enforce any provision hereof, the Vendor, in addition to all other costs and fees allowed according to law, shall be reimbursed by the Vendee immediately for all reasonable costs and attorneys' fees incurred by the Vendor.
17. The Vendee shall not, without the written consent of the Vendor on such conditions as Vendor may prescribe, occupy or use the Premises or permit the same or any part thereof to be occupied or used for any purpose not in conformity with the Building's Certificate of Occupancy or zoning requirements. Further occupancy by any individual other than the Vendee without the written consent of the Vendor shall be prohibited.
18. The Vendee shall at all times utilize the Premises in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph "17" hereof. The Vendee shall, at the Vendee's sole cost and expense, promptly comply with all present and future laws, orders and regulations of all governmental agencies or public officers having jurisdiction of the Premises, with respect to the Vendee's occupancy and utilization thereof and similarly comply with all orders, rules and regulations of the New York Board of Fire Underwriters or any similar body which shall impose any violation, order or duties upon the Vendee with respect to the Premises, or the Building, arising out of the Vendee's use or manner of use or occupancy thereof. The Vendee shall not do or permit any act or thing to be done in or to the Premises which is contrary to law or which shall or might subject the Vendor to any liability or responsibility by reason of Vendee's occupancy or activity with respect to the Premises. The Vendee shall pay all costs, expenses, fines, penalties or damages which may be imposed upon the Vendor by reason of the Vendee's failure to comply with the provisions of this Paragraph. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Vendee may use the Premises for any use permitted under applicable zoning law, Building Code or other rules and regulations or governmental authorities having jurisdiction.
19. The Vendee shall not permit or suffer anything to be done or kept in the Premises which will increase the rate of fire insurance on the Building or the contents thereof. If, by reason of the occupancy or use of the Premises by the Vendee, the rate of fire insurance on the Building or Premises or the contents of either shall be increased, the Vendee shall (if such occupancy or use continues for more than five (5) days after written notice from the Vendor specifying the objectionable occupancy or use) become liable for the additional insurance premiums incurred by Vendor, and the Vendor shall have the right to collect the same for its benefit as additional Use and Occupancy charges for the Premises.
20. The Vendee shall not, without first obtaining the written consent of the Vendor, make in the Premises or Building, enclosures or additions to any alteration of the water, gas or steam risers or pipes, heating or air conditioning system or units, electrical conduits, wiring or outlets, plumbing fixtures, intercommunication or alarm system or any other installation or facility in the Premises or Building or, except as hereinafter authorized, remove any additions, improvements or fixtures from the Premises. The performance by Vendee of any work in the Premises shall be in accordance with any applicable rules and regulations of the Vendor and governmental agencies having jurisdiction thereof. The Vendee shall not in any case install any appliances which will overload the existing wires or equipment in the Building.

21. The Vendor shall not be liable, for any failure or insufficiency of telephone service or for interference with light, air, view or other interest of the Vendee. Except as provided elsewhere herein, no abatement of Use and Occupancy charges or other compensation or claim of eviction shall be made or allowed because of the making or failure to make or delay in making any repairs, alterations, or decorations to the Building, or any fixtures or appurtenances therein, or for space taken to comply with any law, ordinance or governmental regulation, or to be furnished by the Vendor, due to accidents, alterations or repairs, or to difficulty or delay in securing supplies or labor or other cause beyond Vendor's control unless due to Vendor's negligence.
22. The provisions of this Agreement cannot be changed orally.

13 EAST 30TH STREET, NEW YORK, NEW YORK 10016

THIRD AMENDMENT TO OFFERING PLAN
CONVERSION TO CONDOMINIUM OWNERSHIP

This Amendment modifies and supplements the terms of the Offering Plan dated and accepted for filing on December 10, 2004, and should be read in conjunction with said Offering Plan. The Offering Plan, all prior amendments and this Amendment are hereinafter collectively called the "Plan":

The terms of the Third Amendment are as follows:

1. Certain Definitions

A. "Excess Floor Area Development Rights" shall mean all of the Floor Area Development Rights (defined below) appurtenant to the Land on the date hereof in excess of the Floor Area Development Rights utilized by the Building on the date hereof, together with all Floor Area Development Rights and all other development rights pertaining to the Land arising on or after the date hereof by any means, including without limitation, a modification of or amendment to the Zoning Resolution of the City of New York (the "Zoning Resolution") or other change in existing law.

B. "Floor Area Development Rights" shall mean certain rights, as determined by the Zoning Resolution, that are appurtenant to a zoning lot, whereby such zoning lot may be developed by erecting thereon one or more structures with (i) "floor area" (as such term is defined in the Zoning Resolution) determined by multiplying the area of the zoning lot by the allowable "floor area ratio" (as such term is defined in the Zoning Resolution) in the zoning district or districts in which such zoning lot is located, and (ii) any bulk and density rights permitted under the Zoning Resolution.

C. "Inclusionary Housing" means certain low-income housing constructed pursuant to the New York City Inclusionary Housing Program. Under such program, an owner of property upon which Inclusionary Housing is constructed is entitled to increase by up to 20% the Floor Area Development Rights of other property owned by such owner within the same Community District as, or within a one-half mile radius of, such low-income housing; and the right to such increase may be transferred by such owner to another owner of property within such area.

D. "Inclusionary Housing Bonus" means the increase of up to 20% in Floor Area Development Rights described in the definition of the term "Inclusionary Housing."

2. Excess Floor Area Development Rights

Although Sponsor was previously advised that no Excess Floor Area Development Rights were available and disclosed such information in the Second Amendment to the Plan, Sponsor has now been advised that there are approximately 7,727 square feet of Excess Floor Area Development Rights. Annexed hereto as Exhibit A is a letter from a zoning consultant upon which Sponsor has relied in making the disclosures set forth in this Amendment. Sponsor, in connection with its entering into a Purchase Agreement for Unit 7, has entered into a written agreement with the purchaser thereunder, who is not affiliated with Sponsor, to sell and assign to such purchaser all of the Excess Floor Area Development Rights; and Sponsor will not be retaining any of the Excess Floor Area Development Rights for itself. Accordingly, neither Sponsor, the Board of Managers, the Condominium, nor the purchaser or owner of any other Unit shall have any interest in the Excess Floor Area Development Rights or any portion thereof. The purchaser of Unit 7 and any subsequent owner of the Excess Floor Area Development Rights shall have the right to assign, sell, transfer, pledge or encumber the Excess Floor Area Development Rights or any portion thereof, in any manner and to any party as it shall determine, except that pursuant to the Declaration of Condominium (as set forth in paragraph 4 below), in no event shall the purchaser of Unit 7 or any subsequent owner of the Excess Floor Area Development Rights or any portion thereof be entitled to use the Excess Floor Area Development Rights to increase the size, height, bulk, configuration and/or density of Unit 7 or any other part of the Property.

The Excess Floor Area Development Rights may be transferred to the owner of another property on the same block as the Property, including a property that is contiguous with the Property, and the Excess Floor Area Development Rights may be used to increase the size, height, bulk, configuration and/or density of a structure that may be erected on an adjacent property or other property on the same block as the Property now or in the future. There are numerous configurations that may result from the use of the Excess Floor Area Development Rights and Sponsor makes no representation as to the location or manner of use of the Excess Floor Area Development Rights. The Excess Floor Area Development Rights may be combined with other excess floor area development rights that may be transferred from other parcels of land on the block in which the Property is situated, and Sponsor cannot predict and makes no representation as to the size, height, bulk, configuration or density of any structure that may ultimately be erected or enlarged with the use of the Excess Floor Area Development Rights.

Purchasers are advised that if an Inclusionary Housing Bonus is obtained by the owner of a property to whom the approximately 7,727 square feet of Excess Floor Area Development Rights are transferred, additional development rights of approximately 3,640 square feet of Excess Floor Area Development Rights will be available for use by such owner (for a total of approximately 11,367 square feet of Excess Floor Area Development Rights).

Set forth herein for information only, and not by way of limitation, are several examples of the manner in which the Excess Floor Area Development Rights may be used. These examples are based on the following assumptions: (a) that the owner of the property located at 15 East 30th Street, which abuts the Property on its westerly side, has not acquired any excess floor area development rights from other parcels of land on the block in which the Property is situated but has purchased all Inclusionary Housing Bonuses available to it (other than those included in the Excess Floor Area Development Rights); (b) that the owner of the property located at 11 East 30th Street, which abuts the Property on its easterly side, has acquired all of the excess floor area development rights appurtenant to the properties located at 7 East 30th Street and 9 East 30th Street and all Inclusionary Housing Bonuses (other than those included in the Excess Floor Area Development Rights) available to it and to the owners of the properties located at 7 East 30th Street and 9 East 30th Street; and (c) that the existing buildings on the properties located at 7 East 30th Street and 9 East 30th Street have been demolished and said properties remain unimproved.

Example No. 1: If all of the Excess Floor Area Development Rights attributable to the Property were transferred to 15 East 30th Street, it is projected that a building consisting of approximately 131,595 square feet (approximately 28 stories) could be constructed on said site, whereas without the Excess Floor Area Development Rights, the maximum size of a building that could be constructed on said site would be approximately 120,228 square feet (approximately 25 stories).

Example No. 2: If all of the Excess Floor Area Development Rights attributable to the Property were transferred to 11 East 30th Street, New York, New York, it is projected that building consisting of approximately 75,615 square feet (approximately 28 stories) could be constructed on said site, whereas without the Excess Floor Area Development Rights the maximum size of a building that could be constructed on said site would be approximately 64,248 square feet (approximately 23 stories).

Example No. 3: If the Excess Floor Area Development Rights attributable to the Property were transferred in part to 15 East 30th Street and in part to 11 East 30th Street, in equal proportions, it is projected that a building of approximately 125,911.5 square feet (approximately 27 stories) could be constructed on the site on which 15 East 30th Street is located and that a building of approximately 69,931.5 square feet (approximately 25 stories) could be constructed on the site on 11 East 30th Street is located.

Purchasers are advised that during the period of any construction in the vicinity of the Building it is possible that purchasers may be subject to inconvenience such as noise, vibrations and/or debris. Moreover, to the extent that the use of any Excess Floor Area Development Rights results in the construction of a structure that is of a size that is larger than it otherwise would have been, there may be additional persons residing or working on the block in which the Building is situated.

3. Permitted Encumbrances

The provision of the Plan regarding Permitted Encumbrances is hereby amended to add the following Permitted Encumbrance:

Waivers of Declaration of Zoning Lot Restrictions from "parties in interest" as such term is defined in Section 12-10 of the Zoning Resolution, and any zoning lot merger, declaration of zoning lot restrictions, zoning lot development agreement, easement for light and air or other document or instrument executed by any Unit Owner, the Board of Managers or any owner of Excess Floor Area Development Rights in accordance with the provisions of Section 24 of the Declaration.

The provisions of Paragraph 24 of the Declaration referred to in the preceding description of the Permitted Encumbrance added to the Plan are set forth in paragraph 4(B) below.

4. Revision to Declaration of Condominium

The Declaration is hereby revised as follows:

A. Paragraph 1 of the Declaration as set forth in the Plan is hereby deleted and replaced with the following:

SUBMISSION OF PROPERTY: Sponsor hereby submits the land hereinafter described, together with the Building and improvements thereon erected (the "Property"), to the provisions of Article 9-B of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, excepting from such submission any and all Excess Floor Area Development Rights.

"Excess Floor Area Development Rights" shall mean all of the Floor Area Development Rights (defined below) appurtenant to the Land on the date hereof in excess of the Floor Area Development Rights utilized by the Building on the date hereof, together with all Floor Area Development Rights and all other development rights pertaining to the Land arising on or after the date hereof by any means, including without limitation, a modification of or amendment to the Zoning Resolution of the City of New York (the "Zoning Resolution") or other change in existing law.

"Floor Area Development Rights" shall mean certain rights, as determined by the Zoning Resolution, that are appurtenant to a zoning lot, whereby such zoning lot may be developed by erecting thereon one or more structures with (i) "floor area" (as such term is defined in the Zoning Resolution) determined by multiplying the area of the zoning lot by the allowable "floor area ratio" (as such term is defined in the Zoning Resolution) in the zoning district or districts in which such zoning lot is located, and (ii) any bulk and density rights permitted under the Zoning Resolution.

B. Paragraph 6(A)(7) of the Declaration as set forth in the Plan is hereby deleted in its entirety.

C. Paragraph 6(B) of the Declaration as set forth in the Plan is hereby deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

Limited Common Elements. The main stairway, elevator and entrance hallway shall be deemed Limited Common Elements, and shall be exclusively used and maintained by the Owner(s) of all Residential Units, who shall be responsible for their repair and maintenance, and the main roof and the roof above Unit 7 shall be Limited Common Elements appurtenant to the owner of Unit 7; except that, anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, the use of these spaces shall be subject to the conditions and limitations set forth below.

i. The Condominium and its agents shall have the use of these spaces for the following purposes, subject to the following obligations:

- (a) Access to Common Elements for inspection, repair and maintenance purposes to the extent that same affect the repair and maintenance of the roof and other structural portions of the Building, which shall be the sole and only obligation of the Condominium with regard to these spaces;
- (b) For ingress and egress from the Building in case of fire or for other emergency;
- (c) For any purpose as required by law, appropriate governmental rule or regulation or the Building's Certificate of Occupancy.

Purchasers should note that they may be personally liable for injury to their guests, invitee(s) and/or workers in their Limited Common Elements, as well as in their Units.

D. Paragraph 24 of the Declaration as set forth in the Plan is hereby deleted and replaced with the following:

DEVELOPMENT RIGHTS: The ownership of the Excess Floor Area Development Rights has been retained by Sponsor. The Excess Floor Area Development Rights are transferable by Sponsor and any subsequent owner thereof. Each Unit Owner, by accepting a deed to his Unit, shall be deemed to have waived the right to appear in opposition before any community board or governmental or quasi-governmental authority to oppose in any manner the use or proposed use, on any other property, of any Excess Floor Area Development Rights. In no event, however, may Sponsor or any subsequent owner of the Excess Floor Area Development Rights or any portion thereof be entitled to use the Excess Floor Area Development Rights to increase the size, height, bulk, configuration and/or density of Unit 7 or any other part of the Property.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Unit Owner and the Board of Managers shall execute any zoning lot merger, declaration of zoning lot restrictions, zoning lot development agreement, easement for light and air, or other document or instrument required by the owner of all or any portion of the Excess Floor Area Development Rights to effectively utilize them, provided that such use does not violate the restrictions set forth in the immediately preceding paragraph or impose any affirmative obligation or liability upon any Unit Owner, the Board of Managers or the Condominium. In order to assure compliance with this provision, each Unit Owner, by accepting a deed or otherwise succeeding to title to a Unit, and the Board of Managers shall be deemed to have granted to each owner of the Excess Floor Area Development Rights or any portion thereof, an irrevocable power of attorney, coupled with an interest, to execute, acknowledge and deliver any such zoning lot merger, declaration of zoning lot restrictions, zoning lot development agreement, easement for light and air, or other document or instrument.

5. Right to Rescind

Each Purchaser who executed and delivered to Sponsor a Purchase Agreement prior to the date of presentation of this Amendment is hereby offered the right for a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of presentation of this Amendment to cancel his Purchase Agreement for any reason and receive a refund of his Down Payment. If a Purchaser wishes to exercise the right of rescission, he must, within said fifteen (15)-day period, notify Sponsor of such exercise in writing, by certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to Sponsor c/o Forman & Associates, PC, 156 William Street, New York, New York 10038. A Purchaser's failure to so notify Sponsor will be deemed to be a reaffirmation of the Purchase Agreement.

6. Inconsistent Provisions

All inconsistent provisions contained in the Plan or any prior amendment are deemed corrected to conform with the provisions of this Third Amendment.

7. No Material Change

Other than as set forth above, there are no other material changes in the terms of the Plan.

Re: 13 East 30th Street, New York, New York (the "Premises")

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am a partner with the law firm of Herrick, Feinstein LLP and am the head of our Land Use and Zoning Group. I have over thirty years of experience in the land use and zoning area and write this letter to you to provide information concerning the amount of excess development rights available for transfer from the Premises to properties located at 15 East 30th Street (Block 860, Lot 12) and 11 East 30th Street (Block 860, Lot 10).

The following information is based on the tax lots on which the aforesaid properties are located and the tax lot on which the Premises are located (collectively, the "Tax Lots") as presently configured and as shown on the records of the New York City Department of Finance. This letter does not consider the potential merger of the any of the Tax Lots with other adjoining tax lots, creating new or enlarged zoning lot(s), pursuant to the Zoning Resolution of the City of New York (the "Zoning Resolution"). Furthermore, the information set forth below is based solely on zoning data provided by an architect licensed in New York State who was retained by the purchaser of Unit 7 at the Premises (the "Zoning Data") and is predicated on the fact that all of the properties described below are, as of the date of this letter, located in a C5-2 Zoning District, which, according to the Zoning Resolution, permits a "floor area ratio" (or FAR) of 10. I have made no independent analysis of the Zoning Data, nor have I consulted any statutes, regulations, ordinances, codes or other governmental requirements with respect to this matter other than the Zoning Resolution.

The square footage that may be developed on a property located in a C5-2 Zoning District (i.e., the "development rights" appurtenant to such property) is the lot area of such property multiplied by 10. The owners of such properties would be entitled to purchase "inclusionary housing bonuses" entitling them to an additional 20% of development rights. It should be noted that the explanation below assumes the demolition of the buildings on the properties located at 7 and 9 East 30th Street.

(a) The use of excess development rights from 13 East 30th Street. The property located at 13 East 30th Street has a lot size of approximately 1,820 square feet, as a result of which it has appurtenant to it development rights of approximately 18,200 square feet (1,820 sq. ft. x 10). The existing building on such property uses approximately 10,473 square feet of such development rights. Thus, there are unused development rights appurtenant to 13 East 30th Street ("Excess Development Rights") of approximately 7,727 square feet (18,200 sq. ft. - 10,473 sq. ft.). In addition, as described above, approximately 3,640 square feet of development rights would be available through the purchase of an inclusionary housing bonus (18,200 sq. ft. x 20%). Thus, the total amount of Excess Development Rights and development rights obtained from an inclusionary housing bonus that are available to the property at 13 East 30th Street is approximately 11,367 square feet.

(b) The use of development rights at 15 East 30th Street. The property located at 15 East 30th Street has a lot size of approximately 10,019 square feet. If 15 East 30th Street were developed as of right, without the use of the approximately 11,367 square feet and inclusionary housing bonuses available from 13 East 30th Street, approximately 120,228 square feet (approximately 25 stories) could be developed on the site ((10,019 sq. ft. x 10 x 120%)). With the addition of the approximately 11,367 square feet of Excess Development Rights and inclusionary housing bonuses available from 13 East 30th Street, a building containing approximately 131,595 square feet (approximately 28 stories) could be built on the site of 15 East 30th Street.

(c) The use of development rights at 11 East 30th Street. The property located at 11 East 30th Street has a lot size of approximately 1,820 square feet. The properties located at 7 and 9 East 30th Street have an aggregate lot size of approximately 3,534 square feet. If 11 East 30th Street were developed as of right, without the use of the approximately 11,367 Excess Development Rights and inclusionary housing bonuses available from 13 East 30th Street (but with unused development rights appurtenant to and obtained from 7 and 9 East 30th Street and with inclusionary housing bonuses that would be available to the owners of said properties), approximately 64,248 square feet (approximately 23 stories) could be developed on the site. (1,820 sq. ft. + 3,534 sq. ft.) x 10 x 120%). With the addition of the approximately 11,367 square feet of Excess Development Rights and inclusionary housing bonuses available from 13 East 30th Street, a building containing approximately 75,615 square feet (approximately 28 stories) could be built on the site of 11 East 30th Street.

(d) The use of 50% of the development rights at 11 East 30th Street and 50% of the development rights at 11 East 30th Street. With the addition of approximately 5,683.5 square feet of development rights, which represents 50% of the approximately 11,367 square feet of Excess Development Rights and inclusionary housing bonuses available from 13 East 30th Street, a building containing approximately 125,911.5 square feet (approximately 27 stories) could be built on the site of 15 East 30th Street, and with the addition of approximately 5,683.5 square feet of development rights, a building of approximately 69,931.5 square feet (approximately 25 stories) could be built on the site of 11 East 30th Street.

The foregoing explanation is being provided to you to describe existing physical conditions and the current Zoning Resolution as applied to the Tax Lots as of the date of this letter. It does not represent an opinion as to what can be constructed on the Tax Lots or the compliance with specific requirements of the Zoning Resolution of any of the development scenarios set forth above. Real estate development in New York City is a dynamic process that is always subject to change. The Zoning Resolution is frequently amended, buildings are demolished and sites are rebuilt. We undertake no obligation to update, modify or supplement this information in the event of any change to the Zoning Resolution or any other statute, regulation, ordinance, code or other applicable governmental requirement, or in the event of any alteration in the shape, size or configuration of one or more of the Tax Lots or any change in any building or other improvement located thereon. We have relied on the lot areas, gross areas, floor areas and other zoning measurements contained in the Zoning Data.

If you require any additional information, please feel free to contact me.

Very truly yours,

Mark A. Levine

SECOND AMENDMENT TO OFFERING PLAN FOR CONVERSION TO CONDOMINIUM OWNERSHIP

This Amendment modifies and supplements the terms of the Offering Plan dated and accepted for filing on December 10, 2004 and should be read in conjunction with said Offering Plan. The Offering Plan, all prior amendments and this amendment are hereinafter collectively called the "Plan".

The terms of the Second Amendment are as follows:

1. The roof of the Building, previously a common element for the Condominium, is hereby deemed a Limited Common Element for Unit #7. The roof shall be deemed a Limited Common Element, and shall be exclusively used and maintained by the Owner(s) of Unit #7, who shall be responsible for its repair and maintenance, except that, anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, the use of the roof area shall be subject to the conditions and limitations set forth below. The Owner(s) may modify the roof by erecting a deck, (which will require a permit from the Department of Buildings), or, e.g., additional rooms, interior stairs, etc., (which will require a permit from the Department of Buildings), or an unenclosed structure (provided no zoning variance is required), at his/her own expense, if allowed by law, provided such work is done in a good and workmanlike manner in accordance with any applicable rules and regulations of the Board of Managers of the Condominium and governmental agencies having jurisdiction thereof. However, certain structures cannot be built as of right and require a variance from the Board of Standards and Appeals. An application for a variance may be opposed by the Board of Managers of the Condominium. The Board of Managers of the Condominium may regulate the following aspects with regard to construction: the time periods during which work is permitted; the manner in which construction debris will be handled, the measures which must be taken to prevent compromising the security of the building under construction and liability insurance for contractors during construction.

i. The Condominium and its agents shall have the use of this space for the following purposes, subject to the following obligations:

(a) Access to Common Elements for inspection, repair and maintenance purposes to the extent that same affect the repair and maintenance of the Building's structure, which shall be the sole and only obligation of the Condominium with regard to the roof;

(b) For ingress and egress from the Building in case of fire or for other emergency;

(c) For any purpose as required by law, appropriate governmental rule or regulation or the Building's Certificate of Occupancy.

ii. The Owner(s) of Unit #7 shall have exclusive use of and shall be solely responsible for the maintenance of the roof.

2. Schedule A, Notes to Schedule A and the Declaration are hereby revised to reflect the allocation of roof rights to Unit #7. These revised pages are annexed hereto.

3. The original Offering Plan provided for the creation of a separate tax lot for air rights based on Sponsor's contention that there was an additional 700 square feet of buildable space above the Premises. The Sponsor has been subsequently advised that because the Building has been built to the maximum limits allowed, no further construction is permitted above the Condominium. Therefore, the Sponsor will not be creating an air rights lot and all references to air rights are hereby deemed deleted from the Offering Plan.

4. Other than the above, there are no other material changes in the terms of the Plan.

(6) THIS AMOUNT DOES NOT INCLUDE INTEREST PAID BY PURCHASERS WHO FINANCE THE PURCHASE OF THEIR UNITS WHICH MAY ALSO BE TAX DEDUCTIBLE. PLEASE SEE "COUNSEL'S TAX OPINION".

a. The stairway in the entrance hallway, the elevator and entrance hallway shall be deemed Limited Common Elements, and shall be exclusively used and maintained by the Owner(s) of all Residential Units, who shall be responsible for their repair and maintenance, except that, anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, the use of these spaces shall be subject to the conditions and limitations set forth below.

i. The Condominium and its agents shall have the use of these spaces for the following purposes, subject to the following obligations:

(a) Access to Common Elements for inspection, repair and maintenance purposes to the extent that same affect the repair and maintenance of the Building's structure, which shall be the sole and only obligation of the Condominium with regard to these spaces;

(b) For ingress and egress from the Building in case of fire or for other emergency;

(c) For any purpose as required by law, appropriate governmental rule or regulation or the Building's Certificate of Occupancy.

b. The roof of the Building, previously a common element for the Condominium, is hereby deemed a Limited Common Element for Unit #7. The roof shall be deemed a Limited Common Element, and shall be exclusively used and maintained by the Owner(s) of Unit #7, who shall be responsible for its repair and maintenance, except that, anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, the use of the roof area shall be subject to the conditions and limitations set forth below. The Owner(s) may modify the roof by erecting a deck, (which will require a permit from the Department of Buildings), or, e.g., additional rooms, interior stairs, etc., (which will require a permit from the Department of Buildings), or an unenclosed structure (provided no zoning variance is required), at his/her own expense, if allowed by law, provided such work is done in a good and workmanlike manner in accordance with any applicable rules and regulations of the Board of Managers of the Condominium and governmental agencies having jurisdiction thereof. However, certain structures cannot be built as of right and require a variance from the Board of Standards and Appeals. An application for a variance may be opposed by the Board of Managers of the Condominium. The Board of Managers of the Condominium may regulate the following aspects with regard to construction: the time periods during which work is permitted; the manner in which construction debris will be handled, the measures which must be taken to prevent compromising the security of the building under construction and liability insurance for contractors during construction.

i. The Condominium and its agents shall have the use of this space for the following purposes, subject to the following obligations:

- (c) For any purpose as required by law, appropriate governmental rule or regulation or the Building's Certificate of Occupancy.

ii. The Owner(s) of Unit #7 shall have exclusive use of and shall be solely responsible for the maintenance of the roof.

unexposed faces of the dry walls dividing the Residential Units. Vertically, each Residential Unit consists of the space between the upper face of the subfloor and the upper face of the dry wall ceiling. Doors and windows which open from a Residential Unit shall be deemed part of the Unit. No residential Unit Owner shall be deemed to own the supporting columns, pipes, wires, conduits or other public lines running through the Residential Unit which are utilized for or serve more than one Residential Unit.

6. COMMON ELEMENTS: The Common Elements of the Condominium consist of the entire Property, including all parts of the Building and improvements thereon other than the Units. Common Elements are comprised of General Common Elements and Limited Common Elements. They include, without limitation, the following:

A. General Common Elements

- (1) The land on which the Building is physically erected;
- (2) All foundations, columns, girders, beams, supports, bearing walls; those portions of the exterior walls and insulation beyond the exterior face of the Building or, where applicable, those portions of the exterior walls beyond the interior face of the exterior wall; those portions of the walls and partitions dividing the Units from corridors, lobby and stairs located beyond the unexposed face of the dry walls enclosing the Unit; the subfloor and framing joists, including any framing attached to such joists from which the dry wall ceiling of the Unit below is attached; corridors, halls, stairs and stairway areas located beyond the unexposed face of the dry walls enclosing the Residential Unit; lobby; storage and utility areas located beyond the unexposed face of the dry walls enclosing the Residential Unit and the entrances to and exits from the Building;

- (6) All other apparatus and installations existing in the Building for common use or necessary or convenient to the existence, maintenance or safety of the Building;

B. Limited Common Elements.

A. The main stairway, elevator and entrance hallway shall be deemed Limited Common Elements, and shall be exclusively used and maintained by the Owner(s) of all Residential Units, who shall be responsible for their repair and maintenance, except that, anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, the use of these spaces shall be subject to the conditions and limitations set forth below.

1. The Condominium and its agents shall have the use of these spaces for the following purposes, subject to the following obligations:

(i) Access to Common Elements for inspection, repair and maintenance purposes to the extent that same affect the repair and maintenance of the Building's structure, which shall be the sole and only obligation of the Condominium with regard to these spaces;

(ii) For ingress and egress from the Building in case of fire or for other emergency;

(iii) For any purpose as required by law, appropriate governmental rule or regulation or the Building's Certificate of Occupancy.

B. The roof of the Building, previously a common element for the Condominium, is hereby deemed a Limited Common Element for Unit #7. The roof shall be deemed a Limited Common Element, and shall be exclusively used and maintained by the Owner(s) of Unit #7, who shall be responsible for its repair and maintenance, except that, anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, the use of the roof area shall be subject to the conditions and limitations set forth below. The Owner(s) may modify the roof by erecting a deck, (which will require a permit from the Department of Buildings), or, e.g., additional rooms, interior stairs, etc., (which will require a permit from the Department of Buildings), or an unenclosed structure (provided no zoning variance is required), at his/her own expense, if allowed by law, provided such work is done in a good and workmanlike manner in accordance with any applicable rules and regulations of the Board of Managers of the Condominium and governmental agencies having jurisdiction thereof. However, certain structures cannot be built as of right and require a variance from the Board of Standards and Appeals. An application for a variance may be opposed by the Board of Managers of the Condominium. The Board of Managers of the Condominium may regulate the following aspects with regard to construction: the time periods during which work is permitted; the manner in which construction debris will be handled, the measures which must be taken to prevent compromising the security of the building under construction and liability insurance for contractors during construction.

1. The Condominium and its agents shall have the use of this space for the following purposes, subject to the following obligations:

(i) Access to Common Elements for inspection, repair and maintenance purposes to the extent that same affect the repair and maintenance of the Building's structure, which shall be the sole and only obligation of the Condominium with regard to the roof;

(ii) For ingress and egress from the Building in case of fire or for other emergency;

(iii) For any purpose as required by law, appropriate governmental rule or regulation or the Building's Certificate of Occupancy.

2. The Owner(s) of Unit #7 shall have exclusive use of and shall be solely responsible for the maintenance of the roof.

Purchasers should note that they may be personally liable for injury to their guests, invitee(s) and/or workers in their Limited Common Elements, as well as in their Units.

7. USE OF UNITS:

A. Each of the Residential Units may be used for private residential use, except that a Residential Unit Owner may use his/her Residential Unit for any home occupation use permitted under applicable zoning law and ordinances, building code or other rules and regulations of governmental authorities having jurisdiction. Such Units may also be used as professional offices by a resident thereof provided such professional use does not violate any zoning law and ordinances and provided further that the prior written consent of the Board of Managers to such professional use is obtained. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Sponsor may, without the permission of the Board of Managers, retain ownership of one or more Units for use as models, sales and/or production offices in connection with the sale or rental of the Units.

SPECIAL RISKS

1. Time of the Essence

The Purchase Agreement provides that, in the event that the Cash Purchase Price is not received within the time periods specified, the Sponsor shall give the purchaser thirty (30) days written notice to cure such default. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE IN CURING A DEFAULT UNDER THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT. IF SUCH DEFAULT IS NOT CURED, THE DEPOSIT, PURSUANT TO THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT, WILL BE FORFEITED. See section entitled "PROCEDURE TO PURCHASE".

2. Purchase Agreement

If the Purchase Agreement is subject to the Purchaser obtaining a mortgage, the Purchaser shall have thirty (30) days from the signing of the Purchase Agreement to obtain the mortgage commitment. In the event that the Purchaser fails to obtain a commitment within the thirty-day period, either party may cancel the Purchase Agreement on five days written notice to the other party, and the Purchaser shall be entitled to a prompt refund of his/her Down Payment. IN THE EVENT THAT THE SPONSOR'S ATTORNEY DOES NOT RECEIVE THE NOTICE WITHIN THE SPECIFIED TIME PERIOD, THE PURCHASER SHALL BE EXPECTED TO CLOSE WHETHER OR NOT THE PURCHASER HAS RECEIVED FINANCING, UNLESS THE SELLER CANCELS THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT. See section entitled "PROCEDURE TO PURCHASE".

3. Amending By-Laws

The By-Laws may be amended, altered, repealed and added to by a vote of Unit Owners of at least 66-2/3% in number and common interest of all Unit Owners at a meeting of Unit Owners duly held for such purpose. FOR AS LONG AS THE SPONSOR REMAINS THE OWNER OF ONE OR MORE UNITS, THESE BY-LAWS INCLUDING THE RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE CONDOMINIUM MAY NOT BE AMENDED OR MODIFIED IN ANY WAY AS TO ADVERSELY AFFECT THE SPONSOR WITHOUT THE SPONSOR'S PRIOR WRITTEN CONSENT. See section entitled "RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS AND SUMMARY OF BY-LAWS AND DECLARATION".

4. No Warranty on Workmanship or Materials and No Indemnification

The Sponsor makes no representation or warranty as to the work, materials, appliances, equipment or fixtures other than as set forth in this Plan, nor will the Sponsor indemnify the Board of Managers or defend lawsuits that arise after the Adjustment Date. Each prospective Purchaser may have the Building and apartments therein inspected by an architect or engineer of his or her own choosing to determine the quality of materials and workmanship. However, nothing herein is intended to abrogate the responsibility of the Sponsor under the General Obligations Law, the General Business Law and the Regulations promulgated by the Department of Law. See section entitled "SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF BUILDING CONDITION".

5. Budget - Managing Agent and/or Superintendent

Nothing has been budgeted for a Managing Agent and/or Superintendent since the Sponsor does not anticipate that such expenditures will be necessary and the Unit Owners will assume such responsibilities themselves. Should the Board of Managers decide to hire a Managing Agent and/or Superintendent, the cost of Common Charges would increase.

6. Insurance Does Not Cover Full Investment

Although sufficient to replace the structure if totally destroyed, the fire and extended coverage is below the total purchase price of the property. In addition, pursuant to Section 254 of the Real Property Law, the holder of a mortgage encumbering the Unit has the right to retain the proceeds of the fire insurance policies in the event of damage by fire. See "NOTES TO SCHEDULE B".

7. No Common Charge Bond

The Sponsor represents and warrants that at this time it has the financial resources to enable it to meet the obligations it has under the Offering Plan. HOWEVER, NO BOND OR OTHER SECURITY HAS BEEN FURNISHED BY THE SPONSOR, AND THE SPONSOR'S ABILITY TO FULFILL ITS OBLIGATION FOR THE PAYMENT OF COMMON CHARGES, REAL ESTATE TAXES AND ASSESSMENTS ON THE UNSOLD UNITS WILL DEPEND SOLELY UPON ITS FINANCIAL CONDITION. In the event the Sponsor is unable to fulfill his obligations for the payment of common charges, the plan will be so amended and the Sponsor will be required to suspend sales of the Units. In such event, prospective Purchasers will be offered the right to rescind their Purchase Agreements. See section entitled "RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF SPONSOR".

8. Reserve Fund

Inasmuch as the building has been completely renovated, it is anticipated that the major components of the building will live out their anticipated life expectancies. Accordingly, the Board of Managers will have to make whatever arrangements they deem necessary to provide for the future replacement of these major building components at such future time as they shall need to be replaced. See section entitled "RESERVE FUND".

9. New York State Transfer Tax and New York City Real Property Transfer Tax and Mansion Tax

In addition to the Purchase Price and other closing costs, Purchasers will pay an amount equal to both the New York State Transfer Tax and the New York City Real Property Transfer Tax ("Transfer Taxes") due on the closing of title to the Unit. The New York City Real Property Tax is at the rate of 1.425% of the consideration for purchase prices in excess of $500,000.00, plus a $75.00 filing fee. The New York State Transfer Tax is at the rate of $4.00 for $1,000.00 of consideration. Purchasers should note that consideration includes both the purchase price of the Unit and the Transfer Tax being paid by the Purchaser. Accordingly, the consideration on the sale of Purchaser's Unit for transfer tax purposes is computed by adding the Purchase Price plus the New York City Real Property Transfer Tax computed at 1.425% of the consideration plus the New York State Real Property Transfer Tax computed at $4.00 for each $1,000.00 of consideration ("Consideration"). These transfer taxes are customarily paid by the Seller. However pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Offering Plan, these taxes will be the responsibility of the Purchaser(s) upon closing of title to a Unit in the premises. In addition, Purchasers will be required to pay 1% of the Consideration as the New York State Mansion Tax. See section entitled "CLOSING COSTS AND ADJUSTMENTS".

10. Minimum Sales Requirements

Pursuant to existing law and regulation the Sponsor may declare the plan effective by selling a minimum of fifteen (15%) percent of the Units in the building. Even if the plan is declared effective with a minimum number of sales, it is possible that the Sponsor may be able to convert the building with fewer than the minimum number of sales, if Purchasers counted towards effectiveness do not ultimately purchase a Unit.

Purchasers should note that banks and other lenders are imposing various restrictions on loans. Such restrictions include requiring that a certain percentage (such as 50% or more) of the Units in a building be sold before the lender will consider making a loan. Thus it may be possible for a Purchaser to experience difficulty obtaining a loan in a building where the percentage of Units purchased is lower than a lender's particular sales minimum.

Even once a building undergoes conversion, lenders may still impose minimum sales requirements before granting a loan. It then may be difficult for a Purchaser to resell a Unit if prospective buyers are unable to obtain a loan due to such minimum sales requirements.

In addition, if a Purchaser obtains a mortgage, his/her aforesaid rights to sell, sublet and surrender possession of his/her Unit will be subject to the rights of the lender set forth in the mortgage, which normally would restrict the Purchaser from exercising these rights while the mortgage is outstanding. See section entitled "FINANCING".

THAT MAY BE AVAILABLE TO PURCHASERS".

11. Special or Additional Work and Rescission of Purchase Agreement

If a Purchaser desiring to purchase a Unit requests that the Sponsor perform special work on such Unit or provide extra furnishings, including, but not limited to, any deviation from the materials or specifications described in "DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY, SPECIFICATIONS AND BUILDING CONDITION", Part II of this Plan, and the Sponsor agrees to perform such special work and/or provide such furnishings, then the Sponsor may require such person to deposit an amount greater than ten (10%) percent of the offering price of such Unit. Said deposit for such special work shall initially be deposited with the Sponsor's escrow agent as discussed in the section of the Offering Plan entitled "PROCEDURE TO PURCHASE". However, Purchasers should note that any funds for special work may be released from the escrow account by the escrow agent as long as the Sponsor uses these funds for such special work.

In the event that a Purchaser rescinds his/her Purchase Agreement in accordance with the terms and conditions contained therein, then the Down Payment shall be fully returned to the Purchaser with interest (except for the cost incurred of any additional work ordered by the Purchaser). See section entitled "PROCEDURE TO PURCHASE".

12. Attorneys' Fees

The following fees shall be imposed in the following circumstances by Forman & Associates, pc, 156 William Street, Suite 800, New York, New York 10038, attorney for the Sponsor, which will be payable by a Purchaser at the Closing of his/her Unit:

(a) It shall be the sole responsibility of the Purchaser to pay the Sponsor's attorney, Forman & Associates, pc, a fee of $1,500.00 at closing for the preparation of closing documents.

(b) If the closing is held at a place other than the office of the Sponsor's attorney, Forman & Associates, pc, or such other place as designated by the Sponsor (but within New York City) there will be an additional fee of $500.00 per Unit payable to the Sponsor's attorney, which will be the sole responsibility of the Purchaser. There will be a reasonable fee for Closings outside of New York City depending upon distance, but in no event less than $750.00.

(c) If the closing is adjourned at other than the Sponsor's request, there will be an additional fee of $350.00 per Unit, which will be the sole responsibility of the Purchaser.

(d) In the event that a purchaser defaults, a fee of $250.00 will be payable at closing to Forman & Associates, pc, for preparation of a letter of default.

(e) In the event that a Purchaser decides to use the services of a title company other than New York Title Research Corp., 550 Mamaroneck Avenue, Suite 401, Harrison, New York 10528, (914) 835-7100, the Purchaser will be obligated to pay Forman & Associates, pc a fee of $750.00 for time in coordinating and arranging for Closing with the other title company.

Furthermore, if a Purchaser requests an adjournment of closing, such purchaser shall be responsible for common charges from the originally scheduled closing date until the closing date of his/her Unit.

13. Power of Attorney

At each closing, among other documents, the Purchasers will execute and deliver a Unit Power of Attorney, in the form set forth in Part II of the Plan. The Unit Power of Attorney irrevocably designates the Board of Managers as such Unit Owner's attorney-in-fact for the sole purpose of managing, selling, mortgaging, leasing, or otherwise dealing with (but not voting the votes appurtenant thereto) any Unit acquired by the Board of Manager in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws, also set forth in Part II of the Plan.

14. Control By Sponsor

The By-Laws provide that the Sponsor will exercise voting control of the Board of Managers up to (2) years after the closing of the first Unit or until such time as the Unsold Units constitute less than 50% of the Common Interest, whichever is sooner.

The By-Laws further provide that until such time, the Board of Managers may not take certain actions unless Unit owners having at least fifty-one (51%) percent of the Common Interest appurtenant to the Residential Units of the Condominium approve in writing or by vote, in person or by proxy, at a duly constituted meeting called for such purpose. See section entitled "BY-LAWS" in Part II of the Plan.

15. Board of Managers Foreclosure for Common Charges

In the event that the Board of Managers forecloses on a Unit for unpaid Common Charges and the proceeds of the sale are not sufficient enough to pay the outstanding Common Charges, the balance of the amount due may be proportionately assessed to all Units Owners as Common Expense. See section entitled: "RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF UNIT OWNERS".

16. Lot Line Windows

Unit #6 has lot line windows facing the easterly lot line in the living room, and Unit #7 has lot line windows facing the easterly and westerly lot lines of the Premises in one of the bedrooms, the kitchen, living room and dining room. There is a special risk that additional construction of the building on the lot adjacent to the Premises would obscure the view presently available to those Units with lot line windows. In the event there is additional construction on the adjacent building, Unit Owners may, at their own cost and expense, "brick-up" affected windows. Although not required by the New York City Building Code, it is recommended. Unit Owners who choose to do so may expect to pay approximately $1,000.00 per window. In the event that these lot line windows are sealed, the Units will still comply with the New York City Building Code, since these windows do not count for the light and air provisions of the Code.

17. Loan Commitment Extensions

Purchasers should note that financing commitments for the purchase of Units may have expiration dates prior to which Closing of Title to the Unit may occur, unless the commitment is extended. If such extension is granted, or another commitment issued, no guarantee can be made that the terms will be the same as the expired commitment. Once a bank commitment is issued, the purchaser will be required to use due diligence in obtaining and maintaining any and all extensions necessary to maintain such commitment in force and effect or to obtain another commitment. Failure to do so will constitute a default under the Purchase Agreement and the loss of the Downpayment plus the cost incurred of any special work ordered by the Purchaser. If the Purchaser is unable to obtain an extension of the commitment by the Closing Date or within thirty (30) days after expiration of his/her commitment whichever is longer, the Purchaser shall notify the Sponsor within five days of the time period specified, by certified mail return receipt requested, whereupon the Purchase Agreement shall become null and void and the Down Payment, plus interest, shall be returned by the Seller.

18. Indemnification of Board of Managers

The members of the Board of Managers shall not be liable to the Unit Owners for any mistake of judgment, negligence, or otherwise, except for willful misconduct or bad faith. The Unit Owners shall severally indemnify the members of the Board of Managers against any liability or claims except those arising out of the bad faith or willful misconduct of a member or members of the Board of Managers.

19. Rental of Unsold Units

It is the Sponsor's intention in formulating and filing this Plan to offer and sell all of the Units and it will make a good faith effort to do so. However, Sponsor makes no representation that it will be able to do so and makes no covenant, inherently or by implication, that it will be able to do so. Notwithstanding its intentions, a downward shift in the real estate market that would decrease the Purchase Price of a Unit by 10% or more, at effectiveness, may preclude sales as being either virtually impossible or, at the least, economically unadvisable. In such event, the Sponsor reserves the right to rent its Unsold Units until such time as the market conditions reverse themselves and restore the economic viability of selling Units. In the event Sponsor finds itself in such a market and commences the renting of Unsold Units, Purchasers should be aware that there is therefore no representation to sell more units than the 15% needed to declare the Plan effective and Unit Owners may never gain effective control and management of the Condominium (although, by virtue of Sponsor's agreement that it will give up control of the Board of Managers once 50% of units are sold but no later than two years, the Unit Owners will have actual and legal control of the Board of Managers, which will be as effective to the extent they are prepared to control and manage the Condominium).

20. Appliances

Each apartment will have a hookup for a clothes washer and gas dryer. However, each Unit Owner will be responsible for purchasing and having the washer and dryer installed. In addition, Purchasers will be responsible for providing all appliances except a stove, which will be supplied by the Sponsor.

21. Air and Development Rights

Sponsor reserves a Development and Air Rights Lot, consisting of the space two feet above the existing roof of the Condominium, as the same hold the rights to buildable FAR. The Sponsor has agreed that it shall utilize the space itself for light and air purposes only and shall not build over the Condominium. However, the Sponsor otherwise reserves all such rights to itself, including the right to assign, transfer or convey any all aspects to and of such rights.

22. Budget - No Managing Agent and/or Superintendent

Nothing has been budgeted for a Managing Agent and/or Superintendent since the Sponsor does not anticipate that such expenditures will be necessary and the Unit Owners will assume such responsibilities themselves. Should the Board of Managers decide to hire a Managing Agent and/or Superintendent, the cost of Common Charges would increase.

IT IS RECOMMENDED THAT YOU CONSULT WITH YOUR OWN ATTORNEY OR FINANCIAL ADVISOR BEFORE PURCHASING AN APARTMENT AND PROVIDE HIM/HER WITH A COPY OF THIS OFFERING PLAN.

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this Offering Plan is to set forth all of the terms of the offer for sale of six (6) Residential Units located at 13 East 30th Street New York, New York. The Units are being sold as Condominium Units. There is one Commercial Unit, which will be retained by Sponsor. Parking is permitted on local City streets as governed by local parking laws. The property is convenient to shopping, transportation, schools and religious institutions.

All of the Units offered under the Plan are vacant. No contracts or agreements have been entered into and no deposits or advances of funds accepted as of the date the Plan is accepted for filing.

This Introduction is intended to describe many of the important highlights of this Offering Plan, but does not summarize all of the Plan's relevant and major features. Prospective Purchasers should carefully read this Introduction together with the Plan for a more complete analysis of these and other material aspects of this Offering.

The Condominium and Condominium Act

The Condominium shall be known as the "EMPIRE/30 CONDOMINIUM" (the "Condominium"). The Condominium is subject to the New York Condominium Act, New York Real Property Law Article 9-B, Sections 339-d to ii (the "Condominium Act").

The Sponsor

13 EAST 30 STREET ASSOCIATES, L.P., a New York limited partnership (the "Sponsor") hereby presents an Offering Plan (the "Plan") for the conversion to Condominium ownership of the building located at 13 East 30th Street, New York, New York (the "Building"). The Land and Building are collectively referred to herein as the "Property". 13 EAST 30 STREET ASSOCIATES, L.P. purchased the property on July 29, 2004. The Sponsor purchased the Property in its renovated condition.

The Offer

Under this Plan, six (6) Residential Units of the Condominium (herein referred to as "Units" or "Apartments") will be offered for sale by the Sponsor. Except for the Working Capital Fund to be retained by the Condominium (as discussed below), all the proceeds realized from the sale of Units under this Plan will be paid to the Sponsor. One (1) Commercial Unit will be retained by Sponsor and not offered for sale.

THE BUILDING IS VACANT AND HAS BEEN RENOVATED.

Features of Condominium Ownership Under This Plan

A. The ownership of a Condominium Unit is similar in many respects to the ownership of a private home in which each owner of a Unit ("Unit Owner") owns title to his/her Unit. These rights and benefits include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (1) the right to exclusive possession of the purchased Unit;
- (2) the right to use all parts of the Property in addition to his/her own Unit, which a Unit Owner owns in common with the owners of all other Units in the Condominium such as entryways, stairways and similar elements of the Building which Unit Owners may benefit from or use to the exclusion of none of the other owners (the "Common Elements"). A Unit Owner will share the non-exclusive right to use the Common Elements, with all other Unit Owners;
- (3) the right to exclusive use of Limited Common Elements (those areas appurtenant to a particular Unit or Units, the use of which is restricted to the owner(s) of such Unit or Units), if applicable;
- (4) the right, in the opinion of counsel set forth below, to deduct from his/her adjusted gross income for Federal, New York State and New York City income tax purposes his/her real estate taxes and mortgage interest;
- (5) the right to sell or lease his/her Unit to anyone without restriction or limitation, but any sale or lease of a Unit by a Unit Owner will be subject to a right by the Board of Managers of the Condominium to acquire or lease such Unit, or to produce a third party to acquire or lease such Unit, on the same terms as were offered to the owner of such Unit (see "RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF UNIT OWNERS"). An owner of an Unsold Unit, however, is not required to give the Board of Managers such right of first refusal;
- (6) the right to mortgage his/her Unit; and,
- (7) the right of each Unit Owner to vote for the members of the Board of Managers.
- (8) the right to use his/her Unit in any way permissible under applicable laws; if a Purchaser of a Residential Unit wants to use his or her Unit for other than residential purposes, he or she will need Board approval to change the Certificate of Occupancy. The Board may unreasonably refuse to grant approval to change the Certificate of Occupancy.

(9) the Condominium Board does not have the right to approve or disapprove Purchasers. While the Sponsor has no present intention or plan to market the units to investors, the Sponsor is not restricting itself from doing so. Therefore, there is no limit on the number of owners who may purchase for investment rather than for personal occupancy (beyond the 15% required to declare the plan effective), and there may always be a substantial percentage of owners who are non-residents.

B. As is customary in ownership of Condominium Units, each Purchaser shall be obligated to:

- (1) pay rent (customarily called "Common Charges") as provided for under the By-Laws of the Condominium, and special assessments, if any;
- (2) be responsible for the payment of real estate taxes appurtenant to his/her Unit as each Unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot;
- (3) abide by the terms of the Condominium By-Laws;
- (4) abide by the decisions of the Board of Managers; and,
- (5) manage the Building since there will be no Managing Agent; and,
- (6) be responsible for maintenance and repairs within his/her Unit.

Individual Purchasers should explore obtaining insurance coverage, which would be at their own cost and expense, to insure them for such risks such as fire and casualty losses of personal property and/or improvements added by the Unit Owner within their Units, as well as liability insurance for each occurrence which might occur within their respective Units. Individual Purchasers should note that they could be potentially liable for injury to workers, invitees and guests within their respective Units.

Obtaining Financing

Various savings and commercial banks in New York State have generally financed from 50% to 70% or more of the total cash purchase price of Units for Purchasers whose credit, income and reputation are acceptable to the bank making the loan. However, many banks have established a threshold for the number of Units in a condominium to be sold prior to their making loans. No representation is made as to the terms, conditions or availability of such financing at this time or in the future.

If a Purchaser obtains a mortgage, his/her aforesaid rights to sell, sublet and surrender possession of his/her Unit will be subject to the rights of the lender set forth in the mortgage, which normally would restrict the Purchaser from exercising these rights while the mortgage is outstanding.

Common Charges and Special Assessments

In accordance with the New York Condominium Act, Sections 339(i) and (m), similar to other Condominiums, the Common Charges payable under the By-Laws will be based strictly on the projected cash requirements of ownership and operation of the Property and may include a reserve for contingencies, replacements and/or repairs. IT IS ASSUMED THAT COMMON CHARGES WILL INCREASE AS CASH REQUIREMENTS OF THE CONDOMINIUM RISE DUE TO INFLATION AND OTHER FACTORS. Furthermore, the Board of Managers may impose special assessments in order to meet emergencies, contingencies or other unforeseen events, which will become the financial obligation of each Purchaser of a Condominium Unit. These assessments will be levied on a pro rata share basis.

The estimated Common Charges for the first year of Condominium operation and the estimated real estate taxes are set forth in Schedule A. The projected budget for the first year of Condominium operation is set forth in Schedule B.

Purchase Price

The Total Cash Purchase Price for each Condominium Unit is set forth in Schedule A. THE TOTAL CASH PURCHASE PRICE FOR EACH CONDOMINIUM UNIT IS BASED ON THE PRICE ESTABLISHED BY THE SPONSOR-SELLER WITHOUT ARMS-LENGTH NEGOTIATION. THESE PRICES ARE NOT SUBJECT TO REVIEW OR TO APPROVAL BY ANY GOVERNMENTAL AGENCY, INCLUDING THE DEPARTMENT OF LAW, STATE OF NEW YORK.

The general Common Elements of the Condominium shall include, but not be limited to those listed in the section entitled "RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF UNITS OWNERS".

Each Unit, the fixtures and personal property contained therein, and the Common Elements are being sold in their renovated condition, subject to reasonable use, wear, tear and natural deterioration between the date of the Purchase Agreement and the closing of title to the Unit as described in "DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY, SPECIFICATIONS AND BUILDING CONDITION" as set forth in Part II beginning on Page A-1 of the Plan.

Legal Documents

The agreement to purchase the Condominium Unit is called a "PURCHASE AGREEMENT" and may be found in Part II, starting on page B-1.

A detailed description of the physical condition of the Property prepared by DAVID H. TURNER, Registered Architect, of David Turner Architects, PC is set forth in Part II, beginning on page A-1 and should be carefully reviewed by each prospective Purchaser.

The form of Declaration, the recorded, written instrument by which the Property is submitted to the provisions of the New York Condominium Act is set forth on page E-1 in Part II.

The form of Unit Deed is reproduced in Part II beginning on page D-1.

The Condominium's By-Laws which govern the operation of the Condominium and the rights, powers and duties of its officers and directors are summarized in the section entitled "RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF BOARD OF MANAGERS AND SUMMARY OF BY-LAWS" and are reproduced in full in Part II beginning on page F-1.

Special Risk Factors

There are certain factors of this Offering Plan, which constitute special risks. Please see "SPECIAL RISKS" section beginning on page i.

Prior to the First Closing of a Unit, the Sponsor will enter into Purchase Agreements with the prospective Purchasers. When a specified number of Purchase Agreements have been executed, the Plan will be declared effective as stated in the Section entitled "EFFECTIVE DATE". Thereafter, closings on individually purchased Units will occur pursuant to the terms of such Purchase Agreements. By the First Closing of a Unit a temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy will be obtained for premises.

Sponsor to Pay Offering Expenses

The Sponsor will pay for all costs and expenses relative to the promulgation and consummation of this Plan, including but not limited to its legal fees and disbursements, commissions, if any, filing fees, engineers' fees, accounting fees, printing and any other fees, expenses and disbursements related to the filing and processing of this Plan, but not fees for the individual Unit Closings which are discussed in the section entitled "CLOSING COSTS AND ADJUSTMENTS".

Expenses

The expenses of the Condominium accruing to and inclusive of the First Closing of the Units (the "Adjustment Date"), shall be the financial obligation of the Sponsor, which may, at the Sponsor's option, be paid from the proceeds of the sale of Units, with the exception of those expenses which are to be apportioned at the time of closing in accordance with the Purchase Agreement including but not limited to: real estate and all other taxes; water charges and sewer rents; permit and license fees for assignable fees and licenses, if any; premiums on transferable insurance policies in effect as of the Closing of Title, if any; fuel; and utility deposits (including escrows), if any.

Amendments to the Plan

The Sponsor of this Plan may amend it from time to time by filing an amendment with the Department of Law, State of New York. In the event that there is an amendment to the Plan, said amendment shall be served upon:

- (1) Purchasers who have executed and delivered Purchase Agreements to the Sponsor or the Condominium, provided that said Purchaser is not in default pursuant to his/her Purchase Agreement; and,
- (2) any other person entitled to service pursuant to local law or regulation; (collectively known as the "Offerees").

Service shall be provided in the following manner:

- (1) personal delivery; or,

- (3) service shall be deemed complete upon completion of personal delivery to all Offerees or on the fifth day after the date of mailing to all Offerees not personally served.

Copies of the plan, as well as all amendments thereto, all documents referred to in the plan and all exhibits submitted to the Department of Law in connection with the filing of the Plan including all schedules and the exhibits, will be available for inspection upon reasonable notice without charge and for copying at a reasonable charge to prospective purchasers and their attorneys at the office of the attorneys who prepared this offering plan for the sponsor, Forman & Associates, pc, 156 William Street, Suite 800, New York New York 10038 and The New York State Department of Law, Investment Protection Bureau, 120 Broadway, New York, New York 10271.

Lawful Limitations For Purchase of Units

In accordance with the provisions of the Laws of the City of New York, the Sponsor represents that neither the Sponsor nor the Condominium will discriminate against any person because of his/her race, creed, color, sex, national origin, ancestry, or any other reason prohibited by civil rights law in the sale of Units offered by this Plan, or in the leasing of any Unit in the Building.

PART I AND PART II, INCLUDING ALL SCHEDULES AND THE EXHIBITS, TOGETHER CONSTITUTE THE ENTIRE OFFERING PLAN. THIS PLAN CONTAINS ALL OF THE DETAILED TERMS OF THIS TRANSACTION. NOTES TO SCHEDULE A

EACH CONDOMINIUM UNIT SHOULD BE INSPECTED PRIOR TO PURCHASE TO DETERMINE ITS ACTUAL DIMENSIONS, LAYOUT AND PHYSICAL CONDITION.

ACTUAL DIMENSIONS AND LAYOUTS MAY DIFFER FROM THE FLOOR PLANS.

- (1) See Sponsor's description of Units beginning on page A-1. The Room count is calculated by utilizing the method based on the New York City Zoning Resolution. The Zoning Resolution establishes the bath and kitchen facilities as one and one half rooms and each "living room" (living room, bedroom, separate dining room, etc.) as defined by the New York Building Code, as one room. Therefore, a one bedroom apartment which has two rooms (bedroom and living room) would be three and one half zoning rooms. See "DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY, SPECIFICATIONS AND BUILDING CONDITION" beginning on Page A-1 of the Plan for further details.
- (2) Subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth and the approval of the Sponsor, the Sponsor reserves the right, at any time prior to the First Closing, to change the amount of the Cash Purchase Price of any of the Units from the amount shown in Schedule A, provided that the Sponsor files an amendment to this Plan. Such change shall also include the right to change other terms of sale and the manner of payment in respect to any such Unit. Consequently, Purchasers of Units affected by such change may pay or may have paid more or less than other Purchasers under this Plan for the same percentage of Common Elements for similar Units, but this shall not affect any prior or later sale of a Unit as to which the amount of Cash Purchase Price was changed. Individually negotiated decreases in the amount of Cash Purchase Price to be paid may be made without prior notice or amendment. The Plan must be amended to reflect any increase, a general price change affecting a group, line, or other category of Units or any price change to be advertised in a newspaper or any other media.

NO CHANGE IN THE AMOUNT OF THE CASH PURCHASE PRICE OR IN THE PERCENTAGE INTEREST ALLOCATED THERETO, WILL BE MADE WITH RESPECT TO ANY UNIT FOR WHICH A PURCHASE AGREEMENT HAS BEEN ACCEPTED AND WHICH IS NOT THEN IN DEFAULT UNLESS WRITTEN CONSENT IS FIRST OBTAINED FROM THE PURCHASER OF SUCH UNIT.

See "CHANGES IN PRICES AND UNITS" for a full discussion.

Each Purchaser shall have to pay his/her attorney a legal fee in connection with the signing of a Purchase Agreement and the closing of the Unit and the cost of title insurance for the Unit. In the event that a Purchaser obtains a mortgage for a portion of the Cash Purchase Price from a lending institution, such Purchaser should expect to pay any charges imposed by the lending institution including, but not limited to, an application fee, origination fee (points) and a legal fee to the lending institution's attorneys. Each prospective Purchaser also is advised that the charges levied and interest rate charged by different lending institutions vary, and that any given lending institution may impose fees which are subject to change. Each prospective Purchaser is advised to consult with the lending institution of his/her choice regarding any charges imposed by it.

It should also be noted that the Common Charges for the Unit will be adjusted on the Closing Date for the month within which the transfer of the Unit has originally been scheduled.

Furthermore, if a Purchaser requests an adjournment of closing such Purchaser shall be responsible for Common Charges from the originally scheduled closing date until the closing date of his/her Unit.

See "CLOSING COSTS AND ADJUSTMENTS" for fuller discussing of costs.

- (3) In accordance with New York Real Property Law Article 9-B, Section 339-i(1)(ii) of the Condominium Act, the percentage interests of the respective Units in the Common Elements have been determined on the approximate proportion that the floor area of the Unit at the date of the Declaration bears to the then aggregate floor area of all the Units, but such proportion shall reflect the substantially exclusive advantages enjoyed by one or more but not all Units in a part or parts of the Common Elements
- (4) These estimates were based upon projected monthly Common Charges as set forth in "SCHEDULE B - BUDGET FOR FIRST YEAR OF CONDOMINIUM OPERATION" for the year beginning July 1, 2005. The Schedule represents an estimate not a guarantee. The actual first year of operation may begin earlier or later than July 1, 2005. If the first year of operation begins later Common Charges may be higher.

Estimated Common Charges include electricity for Common Elements, water charges, sewer rents and fees, as discussed above, and other operational expenses. They do not include the cost of real estate taxes. Nor do they include the cost of repairing and maintaining the individual Units, or gas for cooking, or electricity for the individual Units as each Unit shall be separately metered and billed and will be the responsibility of each Unit Owner. In addition, each Unit Owner will be responsible for the cost of interior repairs in, and the maintenance, painting and decoration of his or her Unit (including, without limitation, the equipment and appliances contained therein) as well as the cost of any insurance he or she may desire to obtain covering (i) his/her furniture, belongings, equipment and other personal property and (ii) liability to others for personal injury or property damage as a result of occurrence within his or her Unit.

Further, the mortgage payments of a Purchaser obtaining his or her own mortgage shall be the responsibility of such Purchaser and the same is not included in the estimated Common Charges but shall be in addition thereto. In addition, each Unit Owner shall be responsible for his/her closing costs (see "CLOSING COSTS AND ADJUSTMENTS").

- (5) Each Condominium Unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes. Each Unit Owner will be responsible for the payment of real estate taxes on his/her Unit. However no Unit Owner will be responsible for the payment of real estate taxes on a Unit not owned by him/her, nor will his/her Unit be subjected to any lien arising from the non-payment of taxes on other Units.

If the Units have not been separately assessed for real estate tax purposes prior to the closing of title to the first Unit, the Board of Managers will collect the taxes as proportioned in Schedule A. The Board of Managers will hold said amount in escrow for the payment of taxes.

In the event that the first Unit Closing does not take place and therefore the Condominium's first year of operation does not begin on the date estimated in this Plan, the real estate taxes for the Condominium's first year of operation may be higher than this amount.

DUE TO POSSIBLE INCREASES IN THE TAX RATE AND/OR POSSIBLE FURTHER INCREASES IN THE PROPERTY'S ASSESSED VALUATION, REAL ESTATE TAXES MAY BE HIGHER THAN AS SET FORTH ABOVE, IN FUTURE YEARS.

Pursuant to Section 164 of the Internal Revenue Code, real estate taxes are deductible within the limitations set by the Code. Investors should note that recent changes in the income tax laws could limit these as well as other deductions.

The Condominium's first year of operation is assumed to be July 1, 2005 through June 30, 2006. This period consists of the 2005/06 tax year.

Real estate taxes for this period for the Residential Units (84% of the total assessed valuation) have been calculated by taking the 2005/06 taxable assessment of $1,100,000.00 taxed at a rate of $12.70 (per $100.00 of assessed valuation), for a tax of $117,348.00 for the Condominium's first year of operation without 11-243 benefits. However, if the Condominium's first year of operation begins earlier or later than July 1, 2005, the real estate taxes may increase or decrease accordingly. The Sponsor estimates that taxes will be $57,848.00 with 11-243 benefits. See section entitled "REAL ESTATE TAXES FOR INDIVIDUAL UNITS" for a full discussion of the 11-243 tax benefits available to the property.

(6) THIS AMOUNT DOES NOT INCLUDE INTEREST PAID BY PURCHASERS WHO FINANCE THE PURCHASE OF THEIR UNITS WHICH MAY ALSO BE TAX DEDUCTIBLE. PLEASE SEE "COUNSEL'S TAX OPINION".

(7) Areas of the Building not set forth herein as belonging or appurtenant to a Unit are called "Common Elements". They include, but are not limited to, a portion of the cellar, meter rooms, public halls, stairways, yard, the roof and mechanical penthouse. The Common Elements are owned and are to be maintained by the Condominium. The following areas are Limited Common Elements.

a. The stairway in the entrance hallway, the elevator and entrance hallway shall be deemed Limited Common Elements, and shall be exclusively used and maintained by the Owner(s) of all Residential Units, who shall be responsible for their repair and maintenance, except that, anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, the use of these spaces shall be subject to the conditions and limitations set forth below.

i. The Condominium and its agents shall have the use of these spaces for the following purposes, subject to the following obligations:

(a) Access to Common Elements for inspection, repair and maintenance purposes to the extent that same affect the repair and maintenance of the Building's structure, which shall be the sole and only obligation of the Condominium with regard to these spaces;

(b) For ingress and egress from the Building in case of fire or for other emergency;

(c) For any purpose as required by law, appropriate governmental rule or regulation or the Building's Certificate of Occupancy.

Purchasers should note that they may be personally liable for injury to their guests, invitee(s) and/or workers in their Limited Common Elements, as well as in their Units.

IT IS RECOMMENDED THAT A PURCHASER CONSULT WITH HIS/HER OWN ATTORNEY OR FINANCIAL ADVISOR BEFORE PURCHASING A UNIT AND PROVIDE HIM/HER WITH A COPY OF THIS OFFERING PLAN.

*Note: Common Charges for the Commercial Unit have been determined by taking the Commercial Unit's Percentage of Condominium Common Interest of the budgeted items for Insurance and Audit and Legal Fees.

IN THE OPINION OF THE SPONSOR'S EXPERTS, THE PROJECTED RECEIPTS ARE ADEQUATE TO MEET THE PROJECTED EXPENSES FOR THE CONDOMINIUM'S FIRST YEAR OF OPERATION. THE FOREGOING SCHEDULE, HOWEVER, IS NOT INTENDED AND SHOULD NOT BE TAKEN AS A GUARANTEE BY ANYONE THAT THE ANNUAL RENT (COMMON CHARGES) OR EXPENSES FOR THE FIRST OR ANY SUBSEQUENT YEAR OF OPERATION OF THE BUILDING BY THE CONDOMINIUM WILL BE AS SET FORTH IN SAID SCHEDULE AND IT IS LIKELY THAT THE ACTUAL RENT (COMMON CHARGES) AND EXPENSES WILL EXCEED OR BE LESS THAN THE AMOUNT SHOWN IN THIS SCHEDULE.

THE SPONSOR HAS RESERVED THE RIGHT TO MODIFY, RENEW AND REPLACE EXISTING SERVICE, MAINTENANCE, EMPLOYMENT, CONCESSIONAIRE AND OTHER AGREEMENTS, IF ANY, AND INSURANCE POLICIES, AND TO ENTER INTO NEW AGREEMENTS AND POLICIES ON BEHALF OF THE CONDOMINIUM WHICH WILL CONTINUE IN EFFECT AFTER THE FIRST CLOSING HEREUNDER, PROVIDED ANY MATERIAL INCREASE IN THE FIRST YEAR'S ESTIMATED COMMON CHARGES RESULTING THEREFROM WILL BE (i) DISCLOSED BY AN AMENDMENT TO THE PLAN, AND (ii) APPROVED OR RATIFIED IN WRITING BY A MAJORITY OF ALL THEN-EXISTING PURCHASERS (CONTRACT VENDEES) OR BY RESOLUTION ADOPTED WITHIN NINETY (90) DAYS AFTER THE FIRST CLOSING BY A MAJORITY OF THE MEMBERS UNRELATED TO THE SPONSOR.

IN THE EVENT THAT THE PROJECTED COMMENCEMENT OF THE BUDGET YEAR DIFFERS FROM THE ANTICIPATED DATE OF CLOSING BY SIX (6) MONTHS OR LONGER, THIS PLAN WILL BE AMENDED TO INCLUDE A REVISED BUDGET DISCLOSING THE THEN CURRENT PROJECTIONS. IF SUCH AMENDED PROJECTIONS EXCEED THE ORIGINAL PROJECTIONS BY 25% OR MORE, AS BUDGETED, THE SPONSOR WILL OFFER ALL PURCHASERS THE RIGHT TO RESCIND HIS/HER PURCHASE AGREEMENT AND ANY DEPOSIT PAID THEREUNDER WILL BE RETURNED WITHIN TEN (10) DAYS OF RESCISSION, PLUS INTEREST, IF ANY. SAID RIGHT OF RESCISSION MUST BE EXERCISED WITHIN THIRTY (30) DAYS FROM THE DATE OF SERVICE OF SUCH AMENDMENT ON THE PURCHASER.

NOTES TO BUDGET FOR FIRST YEAR OF CONDOMINIUM OPERATION

(1) RECEIPTS

Total estimated receipts do not include any interest income that may be earned by the Condominium from the investment of general funds or of the Working Capital Fund to be retained by the Condominium after the First Closing to an individual Unit. Correspondingly, no income taxes have been budgeted.

(2) SALARIES AND WAGES

The Sponsor shall manage the Building and perform all janitorial and maintenance functions until the First Board of Managers meeting subsequent to the first Closing of Title to individual Units. Thereafter, subject to certain limitations set forth in the By-Laws, the Condominium shall decide whether it deems it necessary or desirable to employ any individual(s) or firm(s) for the purpose of managing, operating and maintaining the Building. The Sponsor does not anticipate that such expenditures will be necessary and that the Unit Owners will assume such responsibilities themselves.

(3)(4) HEATING AND HOT WATER

Each Unit shall have its own separate gas-fired heater and boiler to provide hot water baseboard heating.

See Schedule "B-1" a breakdown of individual gas costs for each Unit.

The Commercial Unit shall be separately metered and billed for heat and hot water.

(5) UTILITIES - ELECTRIC

The budgeted amount includes electrical charges for Common Elements including public halls and interior lighting and power for pumps, elevator, exhaust fans and intercom. In a letter dated August 5, 2004, Abraham Joselow of Abraham Joselow, PE, PC, 45 West 34th Street, New York, New York 10001, estimated the cost and consumption for electricity as follows:

Power for pumps, elevator, exhaust fans and intercom
7,315 Kw-hrs @ $0.19 per Kw-hr	$1,390.00 per year

Lighting - 120 watts for 4 hours per day, 160 watts for 10 hours per day, 760 watts for 24 hours per day

1,113 Kw-hrs @ $0.19 per Kw-hr	$ 211.00 per year
Total:	$1,601.00 per year

Unit Owners will be responsible for payment of the cost of electricity in their respective Units, which will be separately metered and billed.

The Sponsor has estimated the cost of electricity for the first year of operation at $1,761.00 or 10% higher than Mr. Joselow's estimate.

It is not possible to predict with certainty whether the budgeted amount will be in accordance with the actual cost to be incurred during the first year of Condominium operation.

Increases in electric rates will result in raising the cost of electricity. The electric rates are largely affected by increases in the price of fuel paid by the utility company, among other factors. Currently, Con Edison's rates for electricity are as follows:

Service Classification #2

General/Small Commercial - Used for Common Areas

	Winter	Summer
First 900 kwhrs	14.91 cents/kwhrs	16.41 cents/kwhrs
Next 1,100 kwhrs	13.74 cents/kwhrs	15.74 cents/kwhrs
Over 2,000 kwhrs	5.85 cents/kwhrs	7.35 cents/kwhrs

Please see "SCHEDULE B-1" for a breakdown of individual electric costs for each Unit.

The Commercial Unit shall be separately metered and billed for electricity.

(6) WATER CHARGES AND SEWER RENTS

Mr. Joselow also estimated that the water and sewer charges will be approximately $2,489.00 per year. The Sponsor has increased his estimate by 10% to $2,738.00.

Mr. Joselow's projection is based upon the following:

1. Use of water per day per person: 80 gallons;
2. 14 persons in occupancy;
3. Cost estimates are based upon the combined water & sewer rate of $4.14 per 100 cubic feet

The Commercial Unit shall be separately metered and billed for water charges and sewer rents.

(7) REPAIRS AND MAINTENANCE

This figure provides for the maintenance of and repairs to the Common Elements of the Building for the first year of Condominium operation including, but not limited to, interior and exterior repairs, as well as painting of the interior and exterior Common Elements, and general maintenance of the building (approximately $1,000.00), supplies required to operate, repair and maintain the Building (approximately $1,000.00) and exterminating costs (approximately $1,000.00). After the first year of Condominium operation, the Board of Managers of the Condominium may decide to increase the budgeted amount for repairs and maintenance. Individual Unit Owners shall be responsible for the repair and maintenance as well as the painting of their respective Units.

(8) SERVICE CONTRACTS

The Sponsor will enter into a contract for the repair and maintenance of the elevator with Pro Elevator Services, Inc., 171 West Street, Greenpoint, New York 11222. The cost, pursuant to the contract, will be $275.00 per month. The contract may be terminated at the end of the first five years or at the end of any subsequent one-year period upon thirty days prior written notice. The elevator provides access only to the Residential Units and its Limited Common Elements.

(9) INSURANCE

The Property will be insured with a special multi-peril insurance policy supplied by Loveman, Kornreich Co, Inc., 711 Westchester Avenue, White Plains, New York 10604. The policy will be delivered to the Condominium at the time of First Closing. The coverage is as follows:

Building - Special Form
Overall Limit	$ 1,200,000.00
Loss of Income	$ 65,000.00
Flood, Backup of Sewer and Drains	$ 500,000.00
General Liability
Bodily Injury & Property Damage
Per Occurrence	$ 1,000,000.00
General Aggregate	$ 2,000,000.00
Elevator Collision	Included
Boiler & Machinery	$ 1,200,000.00
Directors' & Officers' Liability	$ 1,000,000.00

Crime	$ 250,000.00
Umbrella Liability	$25,000,000.00
Annual Premium:	$ 10,490.00

In a letter dated July 2, 2004, Brenda Steers of Loveman, Kornreich Co., Inc. has advised the Sponsor that in her opinion the amount of coverage is adequate to rebuild the structure if totally destroyed by fire or other insured peril (replacement cost). This is an agreed amount value policy, which waives the standard co-insurance clause. Additionally, the policy provides that each Unit Owner is an additional insured; that there will be no cancellation without notice to the Board of Managers and Unit Owners; waives subrogation and, waives pro-rata reduction if additional Unit Owners obtain coverage. The amount of insurance which will be in effect at the time of the Closing Date should be sufficient to prevent the imposition of any co-insurance factor in the event of partial loss.

The Condominium at some future date may decide to increase insurance coverage to insure the equity value of Unit Owners.

IT SHOULD BE NOTED THAT IN THE EVENT THE PROPERTY IS TOTALLY DESTROYED BY FIRE OR OTHER CASUALTY, THE INSURANCE COVERAGE AS STATED HEREIN DOES NOT COVER THE FULL INVESTMENT OF THE UNIT OWNERS.

Individual Purchasers should explore obtaining insurance coverage, which would be at their own cost and expense, to insure themselves for such risks as fire and casualty losses in their Units, their personal contents therein, as well as liability insurance for each occurrence which might occur within their respective Units.

Prior to the First Unit Closing the Property will be insured by the Sponsor.

(10) MANAGEMENT FEES

The Sponsor shall manage the Building and perform all janitorial and maintenance functions until the First Board of Managers meeting subsequent to the first Closing of Title to individual Units. Thereafter, subject to certain limitations set forth in the By-Laws, the Condominium shall decide as to whether it deems it necessary or desirable to employ any individual(s) or firm(s) for the purpose of managing, operating and maintaining the Building. The Sponsor does not anticipate that such expenditures will be necessary and that the Unit Owners will assume such responsibilities themselves.

Management of the Building entails doing or hiring employees to perform all janitorial and maintenance functions such as cleaning, repairing, altering such items including, but not limited to, electrical, plumbing and, carpentry and complying with local building codes and regulations. Managing the Building also requires the paying or causing to be paid all bills for maintaining and operating the Building, billing for rent and other charges, setting up and keeping in good order a separate, accurate set of books for the Condominium, hiring accountants for preparation of federal, state and other income tax returns required by governmental authorities and generally doing all things reasonably deemed necessary and/or desirable for the proper management of the Property. If the Board of Managers decides to hire a Managing Agent, Common Charges will be increased.

(11) LEGAL FEES AND AUDIT FEES

The budgeted figure consists, in the main, of the accountant's fee for the preparation of the Condominium's first year's certified financial statements and its federal, state and City tax returns ($2,500.00). An additional small sum has been factored in for miscellaneous legal services ($500.00) of a minor nature, though it is not anticipated that the Board of Managers shall or have the need to engage an attorney.

(12) CONTINGENCIES

Nothing has been budgeted for contingencies. However, the Offering Plan establishes a Working Capital Fund in the sum of $3,000.00. The Working Capital Fund will be used (i) to pay the closing adjustments to the extent set forth below, and (ii) the balance thereof ($1,000.00) may be held for working capital, to make repairs and improvements, and for appropriate purposes as determined by the Board of Managers. If the net closing adjustments are in favor of the Condominium, the amount thereof will be paid or credited to the Condominium at Closing. If the net closing adjustments are in favor of the Sponsor, the Sponsor waives any net closing adjustments in its favor on the Closing Date which would reduce the Working Capital Fund below the sum of $1,000.00. It is anticipated that the Working Capital Fund will be reduced to this $1,000.00. While the Sponsor controls the Board of Managers, the Working Capital Fund will not be used to lower Common Charges. No representation is made that the Working Capital Fund will be adequate to cover current or future expenses. If additional funds are required over and above the Working Capital Fund, it may be necessary to increase Common Charges or separately assess all Unit Owners.

(13) THE SPONSOR EXPECTS THE FIRST CLOSING TO OCCUR ON OR ABOUT JULY 1, 2005. IN THE EVENT SUCH DATE IS DELAYED BY TWELVE (12) MONTHS OR MORE, THE SPONSOR WILL OFFER PURCHASERS THE RIGHT TO RESCIND HIS/HER PURCHASE AGREEMENT AND RECEIVE THE RETURN OF HIS/HER DOWN PAYMENT WITHIN TEN (10) DAYS OF THE EXERCISE OF THE RIGHT OF RESCISSION.

COMPLIANCE WITH REAL PROPERTY LAW SECTION 339(i)

13 East 30th Street
New York, New York 10017

Re: 13 East 30th Street, New York, New York

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am a licensed real estate broker that has been in the business for over twenty-three years and familiar with the sale of cooperatives and condominiums.

I am neither the Selling Agent nor the Managing Agent for the captioned property. I have no financial or other beneficial interest in the Sponsor, nor will I participate in the profits derived from this condominium conversion.

The percentage of each unit's common interest was calculated pursuant to Real Property Law 339i(1)(ii) and is based upon the approximate proportion that the floor area of the Unit at the date of the declaration bears to the then aggregate floor area of all the Units, but such proportion shall reflect the substantially exclusive advantages enjoyed by one or more but not all Units in a part or parts of the Common Elements

You have advised me of your intention to incorporate this letter in the Plan and I hereby consent to such inclusion.

Very truly yours,

By:

THE COMMERCIAL UNIT

Unit #1 of the Building is the Commercial Unit, which consists of a portion of the space in the cellar and first floors of the Building. The Commercial Unit is not being offered for sale and will be retained by Sponsor.

Subject to the restrictions set forth in the Condominium Declaration and By-Laws, the Commercial Unit may be used for any legal use permitted by the Zoning Resolution of the City of New York, as amended, or other applicable laws. The Commercial Unit Owner shall have the right to change the use of the Commercial Unit without the consent of the Board of Managers and without paying any cost or charge to the Board of Managers. The Percentage of Common Interest attributable to the Commercial Unit and the resulting Common Charges to be paid by the Commercial Unit Owner are sufficient to cover the expenses fairly attributable to such Unit. The Commercial Unit shall be separately metered for electricity and other utilities upon the obtaining of the temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy. The heating system for the Residential Units does not provide heat for the Commercial Unit and does not provide hot water to the Commercial Unit. Any gas usage by the Commercial Unit (and the installation of a separate meter or meters to measure said consumption) shall be the sole cost and responsibility of the owner of the Commercial Unit. Water consumption shall also be separately metered or sub-metered for the Commercial Unit and the cost thereof shall be the sole cost and responsibility of the owner of the Commercial Unit.

Currently, the Commercial Unit is occupied by Kashee Brothers, Inc., which utilizes the store for the sale of rugs and carpets. As stated above, the Commercial Unit may be used for any permitted use under the Zoning Resolution of the City of New York, as amended. However, any other permitted use of the Commercial Unit must comply with the Certificate of Occupancy for the Building and the Declaration and By-Laws of the Condominium. The Building is in a C5-2 zoning area which permits department stores, large office buildings and mixed buildings with residential space above office or commercial space.

With respect to the allocation of expenses, other than for the specific items of (i) gas and water consumption which are to be separately metered for the Commercial Unit and paid for by the owner or tenant(s) thereof, and (ii) the cost of refuse removal or other expenses affecting the Commercial Unit only, such as snow removal in the winter, which are also a separate cost of the Commercial Unit, and (iii) expenses which are only attributable to the Residential Units, the Commercial Unit is treated similarly to the other Units.

The owner of the Commercial Unit shall also have the right to make alterations, additions, improvements or repairs to the Unit, to subdivide the Unit or later combine a subdivided Unit without the approval of the Board of Managers and without paying any cost or charge to the Board of Managers.

The owner of the Commercial Unit and any tenant or tenants of such Unit pursuant to the terms of any lease pertaining thereto, shall have the right, subject to the consent of the Board of Managers, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed, to install, repair and maintain either within or in the immediate location of such Unit or the windows of such Units, below the level of any windows of the Residential Units, a sign or signs which may be illuminated, for advertising or identification purposes.

In the event of a dispute as to the consent by the Board of Managers as to the signage, the owner of the Commercial Unit or any tenant of the Commercial Unit and the Condominium agree to arbitrate, on an expedited basis, the dispute pursuant to the provisions of Article XIII of the By-laws of the Condominium. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding.

The owner of the Commercial Unit and any tenant of space in the Commercial Unit shall comply with all of the laws, orders, rules and regulations of the governmental authorities having jurisdiction thereof, including zoning laws, building codes and as required by insurance underwriters. The owner of the Commercial Unit or its tenant shall obtain and pay for all permits required for such signs and any necessary renewal fees.

At the request of the owner of the Commercial Unit, the Board of Managers will execute any application or other document required to be filed with any governmental agency having or asserting jurisdiction in connection with any addition, alteration, improvement, repair or subdivision of the Commercial Unit or the operation or use of the Commercial Unit, at which time, the owner of the Commercial Unit shall indemnify and hold the Board of Managers of the Condominium and the other Unit Owners harmless from any expense or liability by virtue of the execution of the application of such other documents.

The Condominium shall have a right to access, upon reasonable notice, unless such access is needed in an emergency, in which case no notice is required, to any portion of the Commercial Unit on the ground floor or cellar levels to service equipment which is necessary for the operation of the residential portion of the Building.

CHANGES IN PRICES AND UNITS

In order to meet the possible varying demands for number and type of Unit or to meet the particular requirements of prospective Purchasers or for any other reason, the Sponsor reserves the right at any time prior to the First Closing, without prior notice but by amendment to the Plan to (i) change the size, or number of Units, (ii) subdivide one or more Units into separate Units, (iii) combine separate Units into one or more Units and (iv) change the size of any Unit (by altering the boundary walls of such Units or otherwise); provided that the consent of all governmental authorities having jurisdiction (if such approval is required by law) is obtained. The Sponsor may change the layout of a Unit without prior notice or amendment to the Plan. Any reallocation of space will vary the estimated annual Common Charges for the Unit or Units affected thereby from the amount estimated in Schedule A.

However, no change will be made in the size, layout, number of Units or quality of the Common Elements except by amendment to this Plan. In the event such amendment is filed and any Purchase Agreements have previously been executed, each affected Purchaser (not in default under the terms of his or her Purchase Agreement) shall be given a right to rescind his/her Purchase Agreement and obtain the return of his/her Down Payment provided that within fifteen (15) days of the Presentation Date of the amendment, the Purchaser sends to the Sponsor written notice of such rescission by certified mail, return receipt requested.

The Sponsor reserves the right, prior to and after the First Closing, to place "For Sale" signs in, at or on the Building and to maintain and staff one or more vacant and unsold Unit(s). The Sponsor also reserves the right, prior to and after the First Closing, without prior notice or amendment to this Plan, to use vacant and Unsold Units in the Building for the purpose of storing construction materials and supplies, provided such use is in a safe, neat and workmanlike manner and does not create a nuisance to other tenants.

After the First Closing, Successor-Sponsor will have the same right as the Sponsor to change the size (either as a result of subdivision, combination, alteration of boundary walls or otherwise) and/or layout of any Unit owned by them, subject only to compliance with the By-Laws of the Condominium. Such Successor-Sponsor will also have the right to place "For Sale" signs in, at or on the Building, to maintain one or more vacant and Unsold Units in the Building as a sales office and to store construction materials and supplies. The rights of the Successor-Sponsor may be exercised without the consent or approval of the Condominium, its Unit Owners or others and without payment of any charge or fee to the Board of Managers, or others. Successor-Sponsor may resell their Unit(s) for any price established by them, provided that the Plan is amended to reflect any increase in the Cash Purchase Price as set forth in Schedule A. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Plan must be amended to reflect a general price change by the Successor-Sponsor affecting a group, line, or other category of Units or any increase or any price change to be advertised.

Subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth the Sponsor reserves the right, at any time prior to the First Closing, to change the amount of the Cash Purchase Price of any Unit from the amount shown in Schedule A, column entitled "TOTAL CASH PURCHASE PRICE". Such change shall also include the right to change other terms of sale and the manner of payment with respect to any such Units. Consequently, Purchasers of Units affected by such change may pay or may have paid more or less than other Purchasers under this Plan for the same percentage of Common Elements allocated to similar Units, but this shall not affect any prior or later sale of Units as to which the amount of Cash Purchase Price was changed. Individually negotiated decreases in the amount of Cash Purchase Price to be paid may be made without prior notice or amendment. The Plan must be amended to reflect an increase, a general price change affecting a group, line, or other category of Units or any price change to be advertised.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no changes will be made in the size or number of Units, their respective percentage of Common Elements and no material change will be made in the size or quality of Common Elements except by amendment to the Plan and to the Declaration. However, no change may be made unless it conforms with the method set forth in Section 339-i(1)(ii) of the New York Real Property Law.

NO MATERIAL CHANGE IN THE UNIT SIZE, LAYOUT OR PERCENTAGE OF COMMON INTEREST OR IN THE AMOUNT OR QUALITY OF COMMON ELEMENTS DIRECTLY AFFECTING OR SERVICING THE UNIT, WILL BE MADE WITH RESPECT TO ANY UNIT FOR WHICH A PURCHASE AGREEMENT HAS BEEN ACCEPTED AND WHICH IS NOT THEN IN DEFAULT UNLESS WRITTEN CONSENT IS FIRST OBTAINED FROM THE PURCHASER OF SUCH UNIT.

Unless all purchasers consent, no material change will be made in the size and no material change will be made in the quality of common elements. However, Sponsor reserves the right to make non-material changes to the common elements without the consent of Purchasers.

The Sponsor reserves the right, but shall not be obligated, to negotiate with purchasers, all aspects of the purchase price of the Unit, including but not limited to: renovations or improvements to the Unit or the fixtures or equipment contained therein or credits or allowances therefore; reduced down payment deposit towards purchase price (but at least $1,000.00); extension of period to secure financing; common charge subsidies or rebates as credit against the purchase price or payable on a periodic basis; application of rent toward purchase price; payment of all or part of purchaser's financing costs such as closing costs, attorneys' fees, origination fees, commitment fees, buy-down of interest rate, and any and all other costs relating to the cost of acquiring title to the Unit. Furthermore, the Sponsor reserves the right to amend the Plan from time to time to add and/or delete negotiable terms or to expand the applicability of such negotiable terms to all Purchasers following the Closing Date. In the event Sponsor decides to offer financing to Purchasers, the terms of such financing will be disclosed in an amendment to the Plan.

PROCEDURE TO PURCHASE

The Sponsor expects the first unit closing to take place on or about July 1, 2005. This is an estimate, not a guarantee. The actual first year of operation may begin earlier or later than July 1, 2005. A person desiring to purchase a Unit will be required to execute in triplicate a Purchase Agreement in the form contained in Part II of this Plan beginning on page B-1 and return it to the Sponsor, c/o Forman & Associates, pc, 156 William Street Suite 800, New York, NY 10038, together with a check for 10% of the purchase price drawn to the order of "FORMAN & ASSOCIATES, pc, SPECIAL EMPIRE ESCROW ACCOUNT".

All such funds will be handled by the Sponsor and FORMAN & ASSOCIATES, pc, in accordance with the escrow and trust fund provisions of Sections 352-e(2)(b) and 352-h of the New York General Business Law and Section 71(a)(3) of the New York Lien Law and the Attorney General's regulations promulgated pursuant thereto. FORMAN & ASSOCIATES, pc will sign for any release of Purchaser's funds.

Nothing herein contained shall diminish or impair the Sponsor's statutory obligation to each Purchaser pursuant to GBL Section 352-h to hold in trust all deposits, advances or payments made in connection with the offer until consummation of the transaction with such Purchaser. Consummation of the Plan does not relieve the Sponsor of its obligations pursuant to GBL Section 352-h. Funds from the escrow account remain the property of the Purchaser until consummation of the transaction, except in the event of a Purchaser's default or authorized release as set forth herein. Such funds shall not be part of the estate of the Sponsor or the escrow agent upon any bankruptcy, incapacity or death.

Any provision of any contract or agreement, whether oral or in writing, by which a Purchaser purports to waive or indemnify any obligation of the escrow agent holding trust funds is absolutely void. The provisions of the Attorney General's regulations concerning escrow/trust funds shall prevail over any conflicting or inconsistent provision in the Offering Plan or in a Purchase Agreement. Purchasers shall not be obligated to pay any legal or other expense of the Sponsor in connection with the establishment, maintenance or defense of obligations arising from the handling or disposition of trust funds.

All deposits, down payments, or advances made by Purchasers prior to closing of each individual transaction, whether received before or after the date of consummation of the Plan, will be placed, within five (5) business days after the agreement is signed by all necessary parties, in a special escrow account of Forman & Associates, pc, the Escrow Agent, whose address is 156 William Street, Suite 800, New York, New York 10038 and whose telephone number is 212-791-5500. The signatory on this account authorized to withdraw funds is WARREN L. FORMAN. The name of the account will be "FORMAN & ASSOCIATES, pc, SPECIAL EMPIRE ESCROW ACCOUNT", located in North Fork Bank, 90 West Broadway, New York 10007. This bank is covered by federal bank deposit insurance to a maximum of $100,000.00 per individual deposit. Each initial deposit made into this account will be segregated into a sub-account of the master account.

Each sub-account will be interest-bearing and, unless the Purchaser defaults, interest will be credited to the Purchaser at closing. The interest rate to be earned will be the prevailing rate for these accounts which is currently approximately 1%. However, this rate is periodically subject to change. Interest will begin to accrue within nine (9) business days of tender of the down payment.

All instruments shall be made payable or endorsed to the order of "FORMAN & ASSOCIATES, pc", as escrow agent.

Within ten (10) business days after tender of the deposit submitted with the Purchase Agreement, the escrow agent will notify the Purchaser that such funds have been deposited into the escrow account and will provide the account number and the initial interest rate. If the Purchaser does not receive notice of such deposit within fifteen (15) business days after tender of the deposit, the Purchaser may cancel the purchase and rescind so long as the right to rescind is exercised within ninety (90) days after tender of the deposit. Rescission may not be afforded where proof satisfactory to the Attorney General is submitted establishing that the escrowed funds were timely deposited and requisite notice was timely mailed to the Purchaser in conformity with the Attorney General's regulations.

Since all Purchase Agreements are contingent upon the Plan's becoming effective, under no circumstance shall the Sponsor apply for release of the escrowed funds of a defaulting purchaser until after consummation of the Plan.

The escrow agent will hold funds in escrow until otherwise directed in:

- (i) a writing signed by both the Sponsor and Purchaser;
- (ii) a determination of the Attorney General pursuant to the dispute resolution procedures contained in the Attorney General's regulations; or
- (iii) a judgment or order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

If there is no written agreement between the parties to release the escrowed funds, the escrow agent will not pay the funds to the Sponsor until the escrow agent has given the Purchaser written notice of not fewer than ten (10) business days. Thereafter, the funds may be paid to the Sponsor unless the Purchaser has already made application to the Department of Law pursuant to dispute resolution provisions of the Attorney General regulations and has so notified the escrow agent in accordance with such provisions.

The Sponsor will not object to the release of the escrowed funds to: (i) a Purchaser who timely rescinds in accordance with an offer of rescission contained in the Plan or an amendment to the Plan; (ii) all Purchasers after an amendment abandoning the Plan is accepted for filing by the Department of Law.

Purchasers and the escrow agent may apply to the Attorney General in the event of a dispute for a determination on the disposition of the down payment and any interest thereon. The Sponsor must avail itself of this procedure if there is a dispute which needs to be resolved. A form for this purpose is reproduced in Part II of this Plan. The party applying for a determination must send all other parties a copy of the application.

Pending the determination of the Attorney General to grant or deny the application, the Sponsor, the Purchaser and the escrow agent shall abide by any interim directive issued by the Attorney General. The Sponsor shall not object to the release of the escrowed funds to: (a) a purchaser who timely rescinds in accordance with an offer of rescission contained in the Plan or an amendment to the Plan; or (b) all purchasers after an amendment abandoning the Plan accepted for filing by the Department of Law. The Attorney General shall act upon the application within thirty (30) days after its submission to the Department of Law, by either making a determination or notifying the parties that an extension of time in which to do so is necessary for stated reasons. If the application seeking release of funds is denied, the escrow agent shall continue to hold the deposit and any interest earned thereon until: (i) both the Sponsor and Purchaser direct payment to a specified party in accordance with a written direction signed by both the Sponsor and Purchaser; or (ii) a judgment or order of a court of competent jurisdiction is served on the escrow agent; or (iii) the escrow agent deposits the disputed amount into court. In no event shall the escrow agent release funds in dispute, other than a payment of such funds into court, until such dispute is finally resolved either by determination of the Attorney General or by order or judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction or by written agreement of the Sponsor and Purchaser.

Also reproduced in Part II of this Plan is a copy of the escrow agreement which incorporates the terms of the Attorney General's regulations.

The escrow agent will maintain all records concerning the escrow account for seven (7) years after the release of funds.

At the Sponsor's option, either before or after the deposit of the Down Payment with the escrow agent, the Sponsor may post a bond or letter of credit with the Purchaser, issued by a licensed surety company or bank, in accordance with the Attorney General's regulations, guaranteeing the return of such monies to the Purchaser if the Purchase Agreement or Plan requires such return. The Sponsor will amend the Plan prior to posting such a bond or letter of credit or entering such a contract of indemnity to provide all necessary information in connection with such bond or letter of credit at which point the Down Payments will be released to the Sponsor for its own use. All interest earned on the Down Payments, if any, will be returned to the Purchaser, unless the Purchaser defaults under the Purchase Agreement.

In the event that a Purchaser rescinds his/her Purchase Agreement in accordance with the terms and conditions contained therein, then the Down Payment shall be fully returned to the Purchaser with interest, if any (except for the cost incurred for any additional work ordered by the Purchaser).

Each prospective Purchaser should note that the Sponsor is only obligated to provide the equipment, fixtures and furnishings, if any, described in Part II of this Plan in the section entitled "DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY, SPECIFICATIONS AND BUILDING CONDITION". If a person desiring to purchase a Unit requests that the Sponsor perform special work on such Unit or provide extra furnishings, including, but not limited to, any deviation from the materials or specifications described in "DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY, SPECIFICATIONS AND BUILDING CONDITION", Part II of this Plan, and the Sponsor agrees to perform such special work and/or provide such furnishings, then the Sponsor may require such person to deposit an amount greater than ten (10%) percent of the offering price of such Unit. All funds received by the Sponsor for upgrades or extras must initially be placed in the escrow account. However, purchasers should note as a special risk that such funds may be released from the escrow account by the escrow agent as long as the Sponsor uses the funds for such upgrades or extras. As a result, in the event a purchaser is entitled to rescission, the purchaser will not receive a refund of any funds used for upgrades or extras. In no event shall the presence of any furniture, furnishings, equipment or decorations in any model Unit imply or represent that any Unit will contain such furniture, furnishings, equipment or decorations upon delivery of the Unit to the Purchaser unless the Purchaser agrees to pay the Sponsor an amount as determined by the Sponsor in addition to the Purchase Price of such Unit. Each prospective Purchaser should inspect thoroughly and measure the dimensions of each Unit before executing any document in connection with the purchase of a Unit.

The actual layout and dimensions of such Unit may differ from the layout and dimensions described on the Floor Plans. If a Purchaser desires any changes in the Unit or any special or additional work or furnishings not described in Part II of this Plan, in the Section entitled "DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY, SPECIFICATIONS AND BUILDING CONDITION", the Purchaser and Sponsor must insert a description of such work or furnishings as an addition to the Purchase Agreement.

Prior to the acceptance of Purchase Agreements for 80% of the Units, in the event that insufficient funds are raised through the Offering to effectuate the purchase of the Units and the consummation of the Plan, or if a Purchaser rescinds his/her Purchase Agreement in accordance with the terms and conditions contained therein, or if the Plan is abandoned, then such monies shall be fully returned to those Purchasers under their respective Purchase Agreements, with interest earned thereon, within ten (10) days after the date of abandonment of the Plan as hereinafter provided. With respect to any Purchaser who has defaulted under his/her Purchase Agreement and who has failed to cure the default within the applicable grace period, or whose Purchase Agreement had previously been cancelled, the Sponsor shall retain as liquidated damages all payments made thereunder (but in no event to exceed ten (10%) percent of the Total Cash Purchase Price plus the cost incurred of any special work in the Unit ordered by Purchaser), together with any interest earned thereon (hereinafter collectively called the "Liquidated Sum"). Any such sums deposited in excess thereof (together with any interest earned on such excess amounts) will be refunded to the delinquent Purchaser within fifteen (15) days thereafter.

Purchasers shall be offered a right of rescission in the event the first closing to a Unit is delayed for twelve (12) months or longer beyond the anticipated date of first closing. Purchasers shall exercise the right of rescission within thirty (30) days of notice from Sponsor and shall receive the return of their down payment within ten (10) days of the exercise of the right to rescind.

Purchasers shall be given at least thirty (30) days advance written notice of the closing of title to the Unit. Purchasers may close earlier and waive such 30-day notice by signing a waiver. Purchasers shall have the right to inspect their respective Units and the Building's Common Elements at least five days prior to paying the balance of the funds and the Closing Date.

After the Plan is declared effective, each Purchaser will be given thirty (30) days written notice by regular mail, or registered mail, or certified mail, with or without return receipt requested, to the Purchaser or his/her attorney at his/her last known address, in which a closing date will be fixed within which time the Purchaser must deliver to the Sponsor, if so designated, his/her unendorsed certified check or official cashier's check, in either case drawn on a bank which is a member of the New York Clearing House, in the amount of the balance of the Cash Purchase Price.

If within the aforesaid thirty (30) day period a Purchaser fails to pay the balance of his/her Purchase Price, and any such failure is not cured within a further period of thirty (30) days after Sponsor sends written notice thereof, Sponsor's sole remedy is to cancel the Purchase Agreement and retain as and for liquidated damages all payments made thereunder (but in no event to exceed ten (10%) percent of the Purchase Price plus the cost of any special work incurred in the Unit ordered by Purchaser), together with any interest earned thereon (the "Liquidated Sum"). Any payments received in excess of the Liquidated Sum, together with any interest earned on such excess payments, shall be refunded to the Purchaser with reasonable promptness after cancellation. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE IN CURING A DEFAULT UNDER THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT. "Time is of the essence" means that no further adjournment, extension or grace period may be permitted to the Purchaser within which he/she will be permitted to consummate his/her purchase of the Unit and that the provision regarding liquidated damages shall thereupon immediately be applicable. In the event the Purchase Agreement is cancelled, the Sponsor will have the right to sell the Unit to others as though said Purchase Agreement had never been signed (and without accounting to Purchaser for the proceeds of such sale), and Purchaser, the Sponsor and the Condominium shall be relieved of all further liability and obligation thereunder and under the Plan.

All Purchasers shall be offered not less than three (3) business days to review the Offering Plan and all filed amendments prior to executing a Purchase Agreement.

No Purchase Agreement is assignable or transferable without the written consent of the Sponsor.

If the Purchase Agreement is subject to the Purchaser obtaining a loan in an amount which shall be specified, at the prevailing rate of interest, whether "fixed" or "variable", the Purchaser shall have 30 days from the signing of the Purchase Agreement to obtain the loan commitment. In the event that the Purchaser fails to obtain a commitment within the 30 day period, either party may cancel the Purchase Agreement on five (5) days written notice to the other party by personal delivery or by certified mail return receipt requested after the expiration of the thirty (30) day period. The Purchaser shall be entitled to a prompt refund of his/her Down Payment in the event of such cancellation. The Purchaser shall apply for a Mortgage and notify the Sponsor or the Sponsor's attorney within ten (10) days from the date of receipt of a fully executed Purchase Agreement as to the identity of the lending institution to which the Purchaser has applied and further the Purchaser shall immediately (within five days) notify the Sponsor or the Sponsor's attorney when a loan commitment or declination has been obtained and deliver a copy of such commitment or declination to the Sponsor's attorneys within nine (9) days receipt thereof. IN THE EVENT THAT THE SPONSOR'S ATTORNEY DOES NOT RECEIVE THE ABOVE NOTICE TO CANCEL WITHIN SAID TIME PERIOD, THE PURCHASER SHALL BE EXPECTED TO CLOSE WHETHER OR NOT THE PURCHASER HAS RECEIVED FINANCING UNLESS THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT IS CANCELLED BY THE SPONSOR.

Purchasers should note that financing commitments for the purchase of Units may have expiration dates prior to which Closing of Title to the Unit may occur, unless the commitment is extended. If such extension is granted, or another commitment issued, no guarantee can be made that the terms will be the same as the expired commitment. ONCE A BANK COMMITMENT IS ISSUED, THE PURCHASER WILL BE REQUIRED TO USE DUE DILIGENCE IN OBTAINING AND MAINTAINING ANY AND ALL EXTENSIONS NECESSARY TO MAINTAIN SUCH COMMITMENT IN FORCE AND EFFECT OR TO OBTAIN ANOTHER COMMITMENT. Failure to do so will constitute a default under the Purchase Agreement and the loss of the Downpayment plus the cost incurred of any special work ordered by the Purchaser. If the Purchaser is unable to obtain an extension of the commitment by the Closing Date or within thirty (30) days after expiration of his/her commitment whichever is longer, the Purchaser shall notify the Sponsor within five days of the time period specified by certified mail return receipt requested, whereupon the Purchase Agreement shall become null and void and the Down Payment shall be returned by the Seller.

Purchasers should also note that the Purchase Agreement will provide that failure to apply for a Mortgage as set forth herein, or provide information to the lender promptly upon request thereof, or to accept a commitment issued to the Purchaser by the lender on terms set forth in the Purchase Agreement shall constitute a default by the Purchaser under the Agreement, whereupon Sponsor shall have remedies as set forth hereinabove.

The Seller may cancel this Agreement by forwarding its check in the full amount paid by the Purchaser, with interest, together with a notice in writing, addressed to the Purchaser, at the address hereinabove set forth in the event of the occurrence of either of the following: (1) that any governmental bureau, department or subdivision thereto shall impose restrictions on the manufacture, sale, distribution and/or use of material necessary in the construction of residential housing and such restriction shall prevent the Seller from obtaining such materials from its regular suppliers or from using same in the construction and/or completion of the dwellings; or (2) that the Seller is unable to obtain materials from its usual sources due to strike, lockouts, war, military operations and requirements, national emergencies, or the installation of public utilities is restricted or curtailed.

Risk of loss to the property by fire or other casualty shall remain with the Sponsor until legal title has passed to the Unit, or, as to an affected Unit only, a Purchaser is given prior possession of a Unit pursuant to a written agreement with the Sponsor, whichever occurs first.

Any conflict between the Plan and the Purchase Agreement shall be resolved according to the terms of the Plan.

After a Purchaser executes a Purchase Agreement and tenders the Down Payment thereunder, the Condominium or the Sponsor, within 20 days thereafter, must either accept the executed Purchase Agreement and return a duly executed counterpart to the Purchaser, or reject the Purchase Agreement. In the event the Sponsor rejects the Purchase Agreement, the Sponsor shall be required to return the full contract deposit previously tendered. The failure of the Sponsor to execute a Purchase Agreement which has been duly delivered within 20 days of receipt thereof shall be deemed a rejection of the Purchase Agreement. The Down Payment, plus interest, will be returned within 15 days of such rejection.

On the Closing Date for each Unit, fee simple to the Unit, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances other than those set forth in the Plan and any mortgages obtained by the Purchaser in question, will be conveyed to the Purchaser, and the Purchaser will thereupon become obligated for the payment of Common Charges from the Closing Date, whether or not such Purchaser has taken possession of the Unit. A Deed to a Unit will be issued to Purchaser as of the Closing Date for his/her Unit and will be delivered on the applicable Closing Date or promptly thereafter.

The Purchase Agreement may not contain or be modified to contain, a provision waiving the Purchaser's rights or abrogating the Sponsor's obligations under the Offering Plan or under Article 23-A of the General Business Law.

FINANCING THAT MAY BE AVAILABLE TO PURCHASERS

Availability of Mortgages From Other Institutional Lenders

Various savings and commercial banks in New York State have generally financed from 50% to 70% or more of the total cash purchase price of Units for Purchasers whose credit, income and reputation are acceptable to the bank making the loan. However, many banks have established a threshold for the number of units in a condominium to be sold prior to their making loans. No representation is made as to the terms, conditions or availability of such financing at this time or in the future.

If a Purchaser obtains a mortgage, his/her aforesaid rights to sell, sublet and surrender possession of his/her Unit will be subject to the rights of the lender set forth in the mortgage, which normally would restrict the Purchaser from exercising these rights while the mortgage is outstanding.

In the event that a Purchaser finances a portion of the Total Cash Purchase Price from a lending institution, such Purchaser should expect to pay any charges imposed by the lending institution including, but not limited to, an application fee, title insurance, origination fee (points), appraisal fee, survey charge, credit report fee and a legal fee to the lending institution's attorneys. Each prospective Purchaser also is advised that the charges levied by different lending institutions, as well as interest rates, vary, and that any given lending institution may impose fees which are subject to change. Each prospective Purchaser is advised to consult with the lending institution of his/her choice regarding any interest rates and charges imposed by it.

Responsibility of Purchaser to Obtain Financing

The Condominium and the Sponsor are not obligated to obtain financing on behalf of any Purchaser. Consequently, each person who desires to finance the purchase of any Unit is solely responsible for obtaining a commitment for such financing from the lender of his/her choice. Accordingly, Purchasers should inquire about the availability, terms, cost, and Purchaser's eligibility for such financing before signing and returning the Purchase Agreement.

NO WARRANTY IS MADE THAT BANK FINANCING WILL BE AVAILABLE TO ANYONE WHO PURCHASES A UNIT UNDER THE PLAN OR AS TO THE TERMS, COSTS AND CONDITION UPON WHICH SUCH FINANCING MAY BE GRANTED OR THE COST OF OBTAINING SAME.

EFFECTIVE DATE

This offer to sell is contingent upon the Plan being declared effective. In order for the Plan to be declared effective, compliance with the relevant conditions described in this Offering Plan is required.

The following provisions will determine whether and when the Plan will be declared effective:

1. The Plan may not be declared effective until executed Purchase Agreements of bona fide Purchasers for occupancy have been accepted by the Sponsor for not less than fifteen (15%) percent of the Units (1 Unit) offered under the Plan.
2. The Plan must be declared effective when Purchase Agreements are executed and accepted for 80% of the Units (or 5 Units) offered under this Plan.

The Plan shall be declared effective by written notice. Said notice shall be served on (i) Purchasers who have executed and delivered Purchase Agreements to the Sponsor or to the Condominium, and are not in default thereunder; and (ii) any other person entitled to service pursuant to local law or regulation, (collectively known as "Offerees"), in the following manner:

- (1) personal delivery; or,
- (2) mailing addressed to the Offeree at the last known residence of such Offeree or if Offeree has provided written information of an alternative address for notice, addressed to the Offeree at the alternative address.

Service shall be deemed complete upon completion of personal delivery to all Offerees or on the fifth day after the date of mailing to all Offerees not personally served.

The Sponsor shall submit an amendment to the Department of Law within five business days thereafter to disclose that the Plan has been declared effective on a specific date together with an affidavit of Service. No closing of title to the Units shall occur until the amendment disclosing that the Plan has been declared effective is accepted for filing by the Department of Law, State of New York.

The Sponsor must submit to the Department of Law, if requested, copies of all Purchase Agreements (and any amendments or modifications) within nine (9) business days after the request is made.

In determining whether the Plan may or must be declared effective: the Plan will not be declared effective based upon the Purchase Agreements: (1) containing provisions requiring the filing of an amendment which has not yet been accepted for filing by the Department of Law; (2) Purchasers who have been granted a right of rescission which has not yet expired; (3) Purchasers who have not had at least three (3) days to review the Offering Plan; and (4) any Purchaser who is the Sponsor, the Selling Agent, or the Managing Agent, or is a principal of the Sponsor, the Selling Agent, or the Managing Agent, or is related to the Sponsor, the Selling Agent, or the Managing Agent, or to any principal of the Sponsor, or the Selling Agent, or the Managing Agent by blood, marriage or adoption or as a business associate, an employee, a shareholder, or limited partner, except that such Purchaser other than the Sponsor, or a principal of the Sponsor may be included if the Sponsor has submitted proof satisfactory to the New York State Department of Law that the Purchaser is bona fide.

The Plan may be abandoned by the Sponsor at its sole option before it has been declared effective and before 80% of the Units are purchased. In the event of such abandonment the Sponsor shall promptly file a notice of abandonment on form RS-3 or any such form as the Department of Law may require setting forth the reasons for such abandonment and accounting for the disposition of all funds previously received pursuant to this Offering.

Upon such abandonment all Purchase Agreements executed by Purchasers shall terminate, thus becoming null and void. Furthermore, upon such abandonment the rights of any Purchaser pursuant to this Plan shall cease. All monies paid by Purchasers shall be refunded to said parties within 15 days from the filing with the Department of Law of the notice of abandonment, with interest, if any.

The Sponsor may not abandon the Offering Plan after the Effective Amendment is accepted for filing by the Department of Law for any reason other than (i) a defect in title which cannot be cured without litigation or cannot be cured for less than one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of one (1%) percent of the total amount of the Offering, or (ii) work orders of a mortgagee or violations that cannot be cured for less than one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of one (1%) percent of the total amount of the Offering, or (iii) substantial damage or destruction of the Building by fire or other casualty which cannot be cured for less than one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of one (1%) percent of the total amount of the Offering, (iv) the taking of any material portion of the property by condemnation or eminent domain. The one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of one (1%) percent of the total amount of the Offering ("Upset Price") relied upon as the basis for abandonment after effectiveness excludes any such title defects violations, work orders, or determinations of any authority or regulatory association which exist on the date the Offering Plan is accepted for filing by the Department of Law and either are known to the Sponsor or are a matter of public record on the Effective Date.

After the Plan has been declared effective, and prior to or simultaneously with the First Closing, the Declaration and By-Laws will be recorded, and the Floor Plans will be filed in the New York County Office of the City Register (see "CLOSING OF TITLE TO UNITS").

Purchasers will not be obligated to pay the balance due under his/her Purchase Agreement until a date which is at least thirty (30) days after the amendment disclosing that the Plan has been declared effective has been accepted for filing by the Department of Law and notice thereof provided to Purchasers, unless Purchasers waive such thirty (30) day notice.

This Plan cannot be used 12 months from the Acceptance Date of the Offering Plan, unless it is extended by amendment

CLOSING OF TITLE TO UNITS

The term "Closing of Title" or "Closing", as used herein, means the time, place and procedure by which fee title to the Unit in question is conveyed to the Purchaser pursuant to such Purchaser's Purchase Agreement. Closing will take place concurrently with or after occurrence of the following events:

1. Issuance of a temporary or final Certificate of Occupancy for the Building. If a temporary Certificate of Occupancy is issued, the Sponsor agrees to obtain a permanent Certificate of Occupancy within two (2) years of closing of the first Unit (or at such sooner time as the temporary Certificate of Occupancy, as renewed, replaced or extended, expires);

6. The Sponsor has amended the Plan to disclose that it has been declared effective and to confirm that any Units to be closed have been constructed substantially in accordance with any applicable plans and specifications; and the Sponsor has complied with the applicable requirements of this section of the Plan;

 - b. Any state of facts which an accurate survey or inspection of the Unit would show provided such facts do not render title unmarketable and would not prevent the use of the Unit for dwelling purposes;
 - c. Covenants, restrictions, easements and agreements of record if any, provided the same do not prevent the use and maintenance of the structure;
 - d. Zoning regulations and ordinances which are not violated by the existing structures;
 - e. Consents by the Seller or any former owner of the premises for the erection of any structure or structures on, under or above any street or streets on which any premises may abut;

 - (ii) Consequences of the exercise and enforcement or attempted enforcement of any governmental war or police powers over the Property;
 - (iii) Any laws, regulations or ordinances (including, but not limited to zoning, building, environmental protection) as to the use, occupancy, sub-division or improvement of the premises; adopted or imposed by any governmental body, or the effect of any non-compliance with, or any violation thereof;
 - (iv) Judgments against the insured or estates, interests, defects, objections, liens or encumbrances created, suffered, assumed or agreed to by or with the privity of the insured;
 - (v) Title to any property beyond the lines of the premises or to areas within or rights or easements in any abutting streets, roads, avenues, lanes, ways or waterways, with a right to maintain train vaults, tunnels, ramps or any other structure or improvement, unless the policy specifically provides that such titles, rights or easements are insured. Notwithstanding any provision in this paragraph to the contrary, the policy, unless otherwise excepted, shall insure the ordinary rights of access and egress belonging to the abutting owners;

(vi) Title to any personal property, whether the same be attached to or used in connection with said premises or otherwise.

p. Service, maintenance and license agreements, if any, of other Units or portions of Common and Limited Common Elements;

q. The lien of any unpaid Common Charges, real estate tax, water and sewer charges provided the same are adjusted at the Closing;

r. The lien of any unpaid assessment payable in installments (other than assessments levied by the Board of Managers) except that the Sponsor shall pay all such assessments due prior to the Closing Date and the Purchaser shall pay all assessments from and after such date (however, the then current installment shall be adjusted at Closing);

s. Any other Declaration or other instrument affecting the Property which the Sponsor deems necessary or appropriate to comply with any law, ordinance, regulation, zoning, resolution or requirement of the Department of Buildings, the City Planning Commission, the Board of Standards and Appeals, or any other public authority, applicable to the demolition, construction, alteration, repair or restoration of the Building;

t. Certificate of Occupancy (temporary or permanent) to be secured by Sponsor;

u. Violations noted or issued of record after the First Closing by any governmental authority. Any violations which the Sponsor is obligated to remove will not be an objection to the closing of Units after the date of First Closing, provided Sponsor agrees in writing with Board of Managers to remove same of record.

A Purchaser is required to accept title to the Property as New York Title Research Corp., agrees to insure subject only to the provisions set out above and the standard printed exceptions contained in the form of title insurance policy promulgated exceptions by the New York Board of Title Underwriters. In the event that a Purchaser decides to use the services of a title company other than New York Title Research Corp., Purchaser will be obligated to pay FORMAN & ASSOCIATES, pc a fee of $750.00 for its time in coordinating and arranging for Closing with the other title company.

The existence of mortgages, liens and encumbrances, other than the Permitted Encumbrances, shall not be objections to title, provided that properly executed instruments, in form for recording, necessary to satisfy or release Units from such impermissible liens or encumbrances are delivered at Closing and proper adjustments made for the cost of recording or filing such instruments. The Sponsor will bear the responsibility and cost of recording or filing such instruments, other than recording of mortgages placed on the Unit by the Purchasers.

The Sponsor may abandon the Offering Plan prior to declaring the Plan effective and prior to the execution of Purchase Agreements for 80% of the Units offered under the Plan. In the event that this Offering is abandoned by the Sponsor or in the event the Sponsor is unable to convey title to the Purchaser in accordance with the Purchase Agreement, then the Purchase Agreement will be null and void and neither party will have any rights as against or obligations to the other parties.

At the Closing of Title, Sponsor will convey to the Purchaser all fixtures and articles of personal property which are attached to or used in connection with the operation of the Unit. Such fixtures and articles of personal property (including kitchen appliances, equipment and fixtures) will be conveyed by the Sponsor to the Purchaser in the condition in which they are described in the "DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY, SPECIFICATIONS AND BUILDING CONDITION", in Part II beginning at page A-1. All kitchen appliances and lighting fixtures in the Unit owned by the Sponsor at the Closing of Title will become the property of the Purchaser as of the Closing of Title. The Sponsor makes no representation or warranty as to the work, materials, appliances, equipment or fixtures other than as set forth in this Plan, nor will the Sponsor indemnify the Board of Managers or defend lawsuits that arise, which are not a result of the Sponsor's acts or omissions.

The Sponsor will assign any transferable manufacturer's warranties with respect to the equipment and appliances installed in a Unit to the Purchasers for that Unit and will assign any warranties with respect to equipment and appliances installed in Common Areas to the Condominium.

In the event that the net closing adjustments are in favor of the Purchaser, the amount thereof shall be paid or credited to the Purchaser at closing.

If any of the foregoing items to be apportioned cannot be adjusted as of the Closing of Title because they are not fully ascertainable, they shall be apportioned and adjusted at such Closing of Title to the extent reasonably possible and the balance as soon thereafter as the undetermined amounts are ascertained.

If proceedings are pending for the reduction of real estate taxes on the Unit for the tax year in which the closing occurs, the Condominium will continue such proceedings with the attorney previously employed by the Sponsor. The Sponsor shall have the sole right to negotiate and settle all claims in connection with such proceedings. The cost of such proceedings and (in the event taxes are reduced) any refund shall be apportioned between the Sponsor and the Board of Managers according to the ownership of the Property during respective portions of the tax year prior to the Closing of Title. Any refund covering a period prior to the Closing of Title and all expenses incurred in connection with obtaining such refund, shall belong to and be incurred by the Sponsor alone. There are no certiorari proceedings pending at present. If there are any changes the Plan will be amended to so state.

The Sponsor will in no event be liable to the Purchaser in the event of a delay in the Closing of Title caused by a delay in repairing damage resulting from fire or other casualty. In repairing said damage, Purchasers shall be responsible for any special work ordered by the Purchaser.

Risk of loss to the property by fire or other casualty shall remain with the Sponsor until the closing date as defined herein above. Risk of loss to the individual Unit shall stay with the Sponsor until a Purchaser is given possession, or closing of title to the Unit, whichever occurs first.

Any conflict between the Plan and the Purchase Agreement shall be resolved in favor of the Plan.

Any and all representations and obligations, which are imposed upon the Sponsor by virtue of this Offering Plan or the General Business Law, the performance of which shall occur after the transfer of title, shall survive delivery of the deed.

The Condominium shall have public liability insurance after it takes title to the Unit. This representation shall survive delivery of the deed.

The acceptance of a deed by a Purchaser shall be deemed an acknowledgment that the Sponsor has performed and discharged every agreement and obligation on the part of the Sponsor to be performed under the Plan except those (if any) to survive delivery of the deed, which may be expressly stated in the Plan, in the Purchase Agreement, in 13 NYCRR, Part 20 (the regulations of the Attorney General of the State of New York governing the acceptance for filing of the Plan) and General Business Law §352-e. If Sponsor fails to complete Sponsor's improvements as described in this Plan (see "DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY, SPECIFICATIONS AND BUILDING CONDITION", set forth beginning on page A-1) for a particular Unit, the Sponsor and the Unit Owner in question will prepare a Punch List and enter into an agreement under which the Sponsor will agree to complete the work described on the Punch List following the Closing Date for the Unit in question.

At each closing, the Purchasers will also execute and deliver a Unit Power of Attorney, coupled with an interest, in the form set forth on page C-1 in Part II of the Plan. The Unit Power of Attorney irrevocably designates the Board of Managers as such Unit Owner's attorney-in-fact for the purpose, among other things, of determining and collecting common charges, contracting for necessary services, employing and dismissing personnel, adopting and amending rules and regulations, acquiring, managing, selling, mortgaging, leasing, or otherwise dealing with (but not voting the votes appurtenant thereto) any Unit and the undivided interest in the Common Elements appurtenant thereto acquired by the Board of Managers in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws set forth on page F-1 in Part II of the Plan.

CLOSING COSTS AND ADJUSTMENTS

Closing Costs

The Purchaser will pay the following estimated Closing costs at the time of Closing of Title for the Purchaser's Unit. These estimates are based on current costs and charges, which are subject to change:

(a) If a Purchaser elects to obtain fee title insurance, the Purchaser will pay the premium therefor which will vary depending upon the Purchase Price of the Unit. Fee title insurance charges, if ordered, in accordance with the schedule of rates set by the New York Board of Title Underwriters and filed with the New York State Insurance Department are currently $463.00 on a Purchase Price up to $50,000.00 and approximately $5.02 for each additional thousand dollars or fraction thereof up to a Purchase Price of $100,000.00 and approximately $4.03 for each additional thousand dollars or fraction up to a Purchase Price of $500,000.00. If a mortgage policy is issued simultaneously with the fee policy, a Purchaser will be entitled to a reduced rate of 70% of the regularly scheduled rate for the fee policy and 21% of the regularly scheduled rate for the mortgage policy if the Condominium contains more than ten (10) Units. The reduced rates apply to initial Sponsor sales. Title insurance will be available from New York Title Research Corp. The Sponsor makes no representations regarding insurance available from other insurers, should a Purchaser choose same.

(b) Fees for recording the deed and Unit Power of Attorney in favor of the Board of Managers;

The current amount of such fees are $22.00 per document plus $5.00 per page (including cover page), plus a $15.00 company service charge per instrument;

(c) If the Purchaser obtains a mortgage loan, the Purchaser will pay a mortgage tax, which is currently (subject to certain possible adjustments) 1.75% of the principal amount of the mortgage if under $500,000.00 and 1.875% of the principal amount if the mortgage is $500,000.00 or more less $25.00. If a mortgage tax credit becomes available pursuant to Section 339-ee(2) of the Condominium Act, such credit will inure to the benefit of the Sponsor. Accordingly, at Closing, each Purchaser electing mortgage financing will pay the full amount (but not in excess thereof) of the mortgage recording tax chargeable on the entire amount being financed. The Sponsor, at Closing, will be reimbursed to the extent of any mortgage tax credit allowed;

(d) All legal costs, fees and expenses charged by the Purchaser's attorney will be the sole responsibility of each Purchaser;

(e) New York City Real Property Transfer taxes currently 1.425% of the Purchase Price of a Condominium Unit $500,000.00 or more, plus additional consideration of 1.825% of the purchase price, plus a $50.00 filing fee, will be the sole responsibility of the Purchaser. Consideration includes both the purchase price of the Unit and the Transfer Tax being paid by the Purchaser. (see "SPECIAL RISKS");

(f) New York State Documentary Stamp taxes presently $4.00 per $1,000.00 of the Purchase Price of a Unit plus additional consideration as set forth in (e) above, will be the sole responsibility of the Purchaser. Consideration includes both the purchase price of the Unit and the Transfer Tax being paid by the Purchaser. (see "SPECIAL RISKS");

(g) New York State Mansion Tax in the amount of 1% of the total consideration set forth in (e) above, will be the sole responsibility of Purchaser.

(h) Each Purchaser will be required to make a contribution to the Working Capital Fund in an amount equal to one month's estimated Common Charges for such Purchaser's Unit. See Schedule A for the estimate of such amounts;

(i) All costs with regard to any mortgage that the Purchaser will place on his/her Unit; and

(j) Purchaser's proportionate share of the insurance premium on the Condominium for the first year of operation.

For example, a Purchaser purchasing Unit #4 at $1,400,000 with a mortgage of $1,100,000 can expect to pay charges which include, but are not limited to, the following: fee insurance of $5,972; mortgage insurance of $1,221; recording fees $250-$400; mortgage tax of $20,600; mansion tax of $14,000; New York City transfer tax of $20,314; New York State transfer tax of $5,704; Sponsor's attorney fees of $1,500 plus the fee of Purchaser's attorney, one month's common charges, the fee of the attorney for Purchaser's bank and any bank charges.

ALL QUOTES FOR RECORDING CHARGES, MORTGAGE, TRANSFER AND OTHER TAXES ARE DESCRIBED GENERALLY HEREIN, ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE. PURCHASERS SHOULD DISCUSS ACTUAL CHARGES APPLICABLE TO THEM WITH THEIR OWN ATTORNEY.

Those Purchasers obtaining mortgage loans will be responsible for the payment of all Closing costs and expenses in connection therewith in amounts determined by the applicable lender. These costs and expenses will probably include an origination fee ("points"), appraisal fee, fees of lender's counsel, and a fee for mortgage title insurance, as well as other related fees. In addition to the specified costs and expenses, a mortgage on a Unit probably will provide that the Unit Owner deposit monthly with the lender one-twelfth of the estimated annual real estate taxes, water rates, sewer charges and assessments which are assessed or to be assessed against the Unit, together with one-twelfth of the annual fire and casualty insurance policy premium for the Unit, or other amounts, and at the Closing of Title the Purchaser may be required to deposit with the lender, a multiple of the aggregate of one month's real estate taxes, water rates, sewer charges, assessments and insurance premiums, or other amounts so that sufficient funds will be available for the lender to pay real estate taxes, sewer charges, water rates and insurance premiums when due. No representation or warranty is made with respect to the amount of such Closing costs and expenses or the availability or cost of mortgage loans from any source.

It shall be the sole responsibility of the Purchaser to pay the Sponsor's attorney, Forman & Associates, pc, a fee of $1,500.00 at closing for the preparation of closing documents.

If the closing is held at a place other than the office of the Sponsor's attorney, Forman & Associates, pc, or such other place as designated by the Sponsor (but within New York City) there will be an additional fee of $500.00 per Unit payable to the Sponsor's attorney, which will be the sole responsibility of the Purchaser. There will be a reasonable fee for Closings outside of New York City depending upon distance, but in no event less than $750.00.

If the closing is adjourned at other than the Sponsor's request, there will be an additional fee of $350.00 per Unit, which will be the sole responsibility of the Purchaser.

In the event that a purchaser defaults, a fee of $250.00 will be payable at closing to the attorney for the Sponsor, Forman & Associates, pc, for preparation of a letter of default.

In the event that a Purchaser decides to use the services of a title company other than New York Title Research Corp. The Purchaser will be obligated to pay Forman & Associates, pc a fee of $750.00 for time in coordinating and arranging for Closing with the other title company.

All checks for the above fees must be paid by CERTIFIED or BANK CHECK at the Closing. The above Closing fees are cumulative to the extent applicable to an individual Closing.

Common Charges assessed during the period in which Closing occurs shall be adjusted as of the originally scheduled Closing Date for each Unit. The Board of Managers will fix the amount of such Common Charges to be assessed against each Unit. It is estimated that the Common Charges for the first year of operation of the Building will not exceed the amounts for each Unit set forth in Schedule A in Part I of the Plan, but such amounts may vary to the extent that the costs of services change and/or to the extent the Board of Managers decides to provide increased services or discontinue any present services within the framework of the By-Laws (see "BY-LAWS", beginning on page F-1 in Part II of the Plan).

Real estate taxes for each Unit for the tax year in which title to a Unit closes and the estimated Common Charges and Expenses for each Unit (as shown in Schedule A in Part I of the Plan) for the month in which a Closing occurs, will be apportioned between the Sponsor and the Purchaser of each Unit as of the Closing Date. In the event that a Unit has not been separately assessed on the Closing Date for the current tax year, the apportionment of real estate taxes shall be based upon the projected assessment for the Property and such Unit's percentage interest in the Common Elements as set forth in Schedule A in Part I of the Plan.

If the Units have not been separately assessed for real estate tax purposes prior to the First Closing, the Sponsor will pay an amount equal to the unpaid real estate taxes (or estimates thereof based on current assessments) due for the next ensuing six months (or until the Units are separately assessed, whichever is shorter). Unit Owners will reimburse the Sponsor for their proportionate share of the paid real estate taxes.

The following items may be apportioned between the Sponsor and the Board of Managers on behalf of the Unit Owners as of the First Closing (hereinafter referred to as the "Adjustment Date"):

1. Water and Sewer charges;
2. Charges for electricity and other utilities, if any, for the Common Elements;
3. Charges and receipts in connection with service and maintenance and concession contracts, if any;
4. Wages and payroll expenses, if any;
5. Deposits with utility companies, if any, and fees for assignable permits and leases;
6. Cost of Building supplies on hand (plus sales tax); and,
7. Other customary adjustments.

If any of the foregoing items to be apportioned cannot be adjusted as of the Adjustment Date because they are not fully ascertainable, they shall be apportioned and adjusted on the Adjustment Date to the extent reasonably possible and the balance as soon thereafter as the undetermined amounts are ascertained.

Any Closing adjustments Sponsor owes the Board of Managers will be paid by the Sponsor into the Condominium's Working Capital Fund. Any Closing adjustments the Board of Managers owes the Sponsor will be paid by the Board of Managers from the Condominium's Working Capital Fund. However, the Closing adjustment to be paid by the Board of Managers to the Sponsor at the First Closing shall not reduce the Working Capital Fund below $1,000.00. The Sponsor hereby waives all Closing adjustments on the Adjustment Date that will reduce the Working Capital Fund below $1,000.00.

Except as specifically set forth in this Plan, the Sponsor must pay all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the promulgation and consummation of this Plan, the creation of the Condominium and the initial sale of Units including, but not limited to, all selling expenses and commissions payable for initial sale of Units pursuant to this Plan, advertising, printing, architects' and engineers' fees, the fees of Sponsor's attorney, engineering and appraisal costs and governmental filing fees, incurred prior or subsequent to the effective date of the Plan in connection with the obligations of the Sponsor.

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF SPONSOR

The Sponsor purchased the Premises in its renovated condition.

It is the Sponsor's intention in formulating and filing this Plan to offer and sell all of the Units, and it will make a good faith effort to do so. However, Sponsor makes no representation that it will be able to do so and makes no covenant, inherently or by implication, that it will be able to do so. Notwithstanding its intentions, a downward shift in the real estate market that would decrease the Purchase Price of a Unit by 10% or more, at effectiveness, may preclude sales as being either virtually impossible or, at the least, economically unadvisable. In such event, the Sponsor reserves the right to rent its Unsold Units until such time as the market conditions reverse themselves and restore the economic viability of selling Units.

The Sponsor will complete any remaining work set forth in this Offering Plan relating to the Building and the Units contained therein in accordance with the plans filed and approved by the Department of Buildings of the City of New York, and as set forth in this Offering Plan.

The Sponsor may make changes in design, layout and arrangement of Units in accordance with all required amendments to the approved building plans, and substitute equipment or material except that the Sponsor may not:

- (a) substitute equipment or materials of lesser quality or design; or,
- (b) change the size, location or value of any Units, or of other improvements or Common Elements if such changes adversely affect Common Elements or adversely affect the value of any Unit to which title has closed or for which a Purchase Agreement has been fully executed and is in effect, unless:
 - (i) all affected Purchasers consent in writing to such changes;
 - (ii) each affected Purchaser (contract-vendee) not in default of his/her Purchase Agreement, has been given the right to rescind his/her Purchase Agreement and obtain the return of his/her Down Payment (said Purchaser shall have fifteen (15) days from the Presentation Date of the Amendment to send written notice to the Sponsor of his/her rescission by certified mail, return receipt requested; and,
 - (iii) an amendment to this Plan is filed.

(See also "CHANGES IN PRICES AND UNITS" for further information regarding such changes).

At the time the Property is conveyed to the Unit Owners, the Sponsor will produce a temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy for six (6) Residential Units and one Commercial Unit. A permanent Certificate of Occupancy will be obtained within two (2) years from the Adjustment Date if not obtained by the Closing Date.

If the Sponsor fails to obtain a permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Property prior to the First Closing, the Sponsor will be obligated to: (i) hold and maintain all monies received pursuant to all Purchase Agreements in the special trust account required by the General Business Law of the State of New York, Sections 352-e(2)(b) and 352(h), originally established with the Escrow Agent for the purpose of holding such deposits, provided however, that if Sponsor's Architect certifies that a lesser amount than the amount held in the special trust account is reasonably necessary to complete the work needed to obtain a permanent Certificate of Occupancy, then the amount exceeding the sum so certified by the Sponsor's Architect shall be released from the special escrow account to the Sponsor, or (ii) the Sponsor shall deposit with Escrow Agent an unconditional, irrevocable letter of credit or post a surety bond in an amount the Sponsor's Architect, from time to time, certifies is reasonably necessary to complete the work needed to obtain the permanent Certificate of Occupancy, provided the Sponsor has amended the Plan to disclose such facts and promptly notifies all Purchasers with Purchase Agreements outstanding and not in default beyond any applicable grace period, of such amendment.

In the event the work on the Building as set forth herein is not fully completed at the time the Building becomes occupied, the Sponsor will have the right to enter the premises to complete work the Sponsor deems necessary to fulfill its obligations under this Plan. Any such entry shall be conducted in such a manner as to produce a minimum of discomfort to Unit Owner, and may do so provided:

- (a) such work is performed on Common Elements and vacant Units only between 8 A.M. and 10 P.M. on any day;
- (b) such work is performed in any occupied Unit only between 8 A.M. and 6 P.M. on non-holiday weekdays;
- (c) any damage created by virtue of such work whether to the Common Elements or any Unit is repaired in a good and workmanlike manner.

The Sponsor gives no warranty as to materials or workmanship that shall survive the transfer of the Units or of the Common Elements. The Sponsor, however, shall assign to each Unit's Purchaser all warranties, if any, in the Sponsor's possession at the closing for the Unit. All warranties, if any, in the Sponsor's possession as of the First Closing, which relate to Common Elements will be assigned to the Condominium at the First Closing. In no event shall the Sponsor be responsible for the partial or total death of any trees, or other landscape improvements; damage to walkways or other concrete areas caused by the application of salt or de-icers; nail pops, ridging, normal lumber shrinkage, normal settlement or any consequential damage resulting therefrom; water problems caused by ice dams; normal plumbing, heating and lumber noises or carpet stretching; normal settlement cracks on concrete foundations, patios, sidewalks, other flat work; leakage resulting from "ice dams" forming on roofs; scuffing on kitchen cabinets or vanity surfaces; and minor chips (nicks) to formica tops, and tubs (edges and surface or grooves). Subsequent to the conveyance of title to a Unit, the Sponsor shall not be responsible for paint touch-ups, repair of dented appliances, porcelain or formica chips and scratches, mars, breaks or other blemishes in windows, sliding glass doors, screens, electric fixtures, painted surfaces, sinks, basins, tubs, kitchen cabinets and countertops, medicine cabinets, ceramic tile, saddles, resilient flooring, woodwork, doors and appliances. The Sponsor has no obligation to make any repair to the Units or the Common Elements except as expressly set forth in the Offering Plan. The Sponsor will not indemnify the Board of Managers except as specifically stated herein, nor will it defend lawsuits that arise after the Adjustment Date, which are not a result of the Sponsor's acts or omissions. Nothing herein is intended to abrogate the responsibilities of the Sponsor under the New York State General Business Law, the Offering Plan or 13 NYCRR, Part 20 (the regulations of the Attorney General of the State of New York governing the acceptance for filing of the Plan). Each prospective Purchaser may have the Building and Units therein inspected by an architect or engineer of his or her choosing to determine the quality of materials and workmanship.

The Sponsor will pay for the authorized and proper work involved in the renovation, establishment and sale of the Units that the Sponsor is obligated to complete under this Plan. All mechanic's liens that are lodged against the Property by virtue of work done by the Sponsor or on the Sponsor's behalf will be promptly discharged or appropriately bonded.

The Sponsor will deliver a set of "As Built" plans to the Condominium thirty (30) days after the "First Closing".

The Sponsor is obligated to pay the Common Charges, real estate taxes and assessments with respect to Unsold Units. The Sponsor represents that it has the financial resources to meet its obligations with respect to Unsold Units and shall fund its financial obligations to the Condominium by means of proceeds from the projected sales of Units in the premises and from other income of the Sponsor in the event that projected sales are not made. After title to the last Unit is closed and there are no Unsold Units, the obligation of the Sponsor under the Offering Plan will cease.

The Sponsor will secure a policy covering fire and liability insurance at Closing, which will be an agreed amount value policy, thus avoiding the requirements of co-insurance. The premium for such policy shall be paid by the Condominium and the cost thereof is provided for in Schedule B (See footnote to Schedule B for further details).

The Property will be conveyed free and clear of all liens except Permitted Encumbrances.

NO BOND OR OTHER SECURITY HAS BEEN FURNISHED TO SECURE SPONSOR'S OBLIGATIONS HEREUNDER INCLUDING SPONSOR'S OBLIGATIONS TO COMPLETE THE CONSTRUCTION SET FORTH HEREIN.

Copies of this Offering Statement-Plan of Condominium Organization and all exhibits or documents referred to herein including Parts A, B and C of the Exhibits, shall be available for inspection by prospective Purchasers and by any person who shall have purchased Units under this Plan or shall have participated in the offering of such Units, at the office of the attorneys who prepared this Offering Plan for the Sponsor, FORMAN & ASSOCIATES, pc, 156 William Street, Suite 800, New York New York 10038, and shall remain available for a period of six years from the date of First Closing for such inspection. All documents may be copied at a reasonable charge after reasonable notice.

Any and all representations and obligations, which are imposed upon the Sponsor by virtue of this Offering Plan or the General Business Law, the performance of which shall occur after the transfer of title, shall survive delivery of a deed of a Unit.

The Sponsor will deliver to the Board of Managers all books of account and records pertaining to the Building's operation, which are in the Sponsor's possession on the First Closing.

The Sponsor has the right to designate the first members of the Board of Managers of the Condominium, and such members shall have voting control of the Board until the first meeting of Unit Owners. So long as the Sponsor or its designee shall continue to hold at least 50% of the Common Interest of the Condominium, but in no event later than the second anniversary of the First Closing of Units, the Board of Managers may not undertake certain actions without the Sponsor's prior written consent.

After the First Closing and until the first meeting of Unit Owners, the Board of Managers shall consist of three members designated by the Sponsor. The Sponsor shall call the first meeting of Unit Owners, at which time all the Unit Owners, including the Sponsor, or the Sponsor's designee, shall elect a new Board of Managers. However, immediately after such first annual meeting of Unit Owners, the Sponsor shall not have voting control of the Board of Managers unless Sponsor and its designees are able to cast sufficient votes (as owners of the then Unsold Units) to establish such control. The Sponsor, however, retains the right to vote on certain actions taken by the Board of Managers. Please see next section entitled "CONTROL BY SPONSOR".

The Sponsor shall indemnify the Board of Managers and Purchasers against any liability incurred before Closing. In the event that there are any judgments or liens or if litigation has been commenced, the Sponsor shall amend the Plan to so state. However, the Sponsor will not indemnify the Board of Managers or defend lawsuits that arise which are not the result of the Sponsor's acts or omissions.

The Sponsor, 13 EAST 30 STREET ASSOCIATES, L.P., a New York limited partnership, has its principal office within the State of New York. All Units owned by the Sponsor are Unsold Units. All Units which are Unsold Units retain their character as such, regardless of transfer, until (a) such Units become the property of a Purchaser for bona fide occupancy (by himself/herself or a member of his/her family), or (b) a Holder of such Units or a member of his/her family becomes a bona fide occupant of the Unit.

The Sponsor, and any Holder of Unsold Units, agrees to fulfill all its obligations pursuant to the By-Laws, including the payment of all Common Charges thereunder, and the Condominium will have a lien upon the Units to secure payment of all Common Charges by the Sponsor as Holder of Unsold Units. The Sponsor represents and warrants that at this time it has the financial resources to enable it to meet the obligations with respect to Unsold Units. HOWEVER, NO BOND OR OTHER SECURITY HAS BEEN FURNISHED BY THE SPONSOR, AND THE SPONSOR'S ABILITY TO PERFORM WILL DEPEND SOLELY UPON ITS FINANCIAL CONDITION.

The Sponsor, and any Successor-Sponsor, may sell, assign, pledge or hypothecate such Units and lease or sublet its Unit(s) without the requirement of any consents. Any Successor-Sponsor acquired subsequently shall have the right to use, lease, sublet, sell, pledge, hypothecate or transfer the Unsold Units subject only to the consent of the Sponsor, without first obtaining the consent of the Board of Managers and without being charged any fee, levy or any assessment arising from such occurrence. The Successor-Sponsor will have the same right as the Sponsor to change the size (either as a result of subdivision, combination, alteration of boundary walls, or otherwise) and/or layout of any Unit owned by them, or any of them, and to reallocate the percentages of Common Charges in connection with such changes, subject only to compliance with the Condominium By-Laws, provided that the total percentage of Common Charges reallocated to all Units will not vary as a result of such reallocation. Such Successor-Sponsor will also have the right to place "For Sale" signs in, at or on the Building, to maintain one or more vacant and Unsold Units in the Building as a sales office and to use Units to store construction materials and supplies. The rights of the Successor-Sponsor may be exercised without the consent or approval of the Board of Managers, its Unit Owners or others and without payment of any charge or fee to the Condominium, or others. In addition, such Successor-Sponsor may resell their Units for any price established by them, provided that any increase in the Cash Purchase Price as set forth in Schedule A will be made by an amendment to this Plan. Individually negotiated decreases in price will not be subject to either prior notice or amendment to this Plan. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Plan must be amended to reflect a general price change by the Successor-Sponsor affecting a group, line or other category of Units (as distinguished from an isolated price change affecting an individual Unit) or any price change to be advertised. Any subsequent individual Successor-Sponsor may elect to become the occupant of his/her Unit.

The Sponsor and the Successor-Sponsor shall comply with the trust fund and escrow provisions of General Business Law §352-h and §352-e(2-b). The Holder(s) of Unsold Units shall provide prospective Purchasers with a copy of the Offering Plan and all filed amendments, until the Units held by the Successor-Sponsor have been sold to bona fide Purchasers.

In the event of dissolution or liquidation of the Sponsor or the transfer of twenty (20%) percent or more of the total number of units in the Condominium, the principals of the Sponsor will provide financially responsible entities or individuals who will assume the status and all of the obligations of the Sponsor for those units under the Offering Plan, applicable laws and regulations.

CONTROL BY THE SPONSOR

The Sponsor's control of the Board of Managers of the Condominium will be subject to the following:

The By-Laws are reproduced in Part II, beginning on page F-1. A summary of certain pertinent provisions of these By-Laws is set forth below. The By-Laws limit the number of Board of Managers (hereinafter called "Managers") to not less than three (3) and not more than five (5) members. The first Board of Managers to be elected by the Unit Owners shall consist of three (3) members.

At the time of the First Closing there will be three (3) Managers designated by the Sponsor. However, the Managers will resign in favor of Managers who will be elected by the Purchasers at a meeting to be convened within a reasonable time after First Closing; they may, however, be re-elected at such time.

Managers shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast at a meeting at which a quorum shall be present. When voting for the Board, each Unit Holder shall be entitled to cast for each Board member to be elected the number of votes equal to the percentage of the Common Interest (each .01%) owned by him/her. The Successor-Sponsor, who will be the Sponsor or natural persons procured by the Sponsor, or both, shall be entitled to vote all of the votes appurtenant to Units held by it for the Managers. To assure that Purchasers under this Plan will be represented on the Board of Managers, the By-Laws provide that at least one less than a majority of Managers to be elected shall be unrelated to the Sponsor or principal of the Sponsor (i.e., if three (3) Managers are to be elected, at least one (1) must be unrelated to the Sponsor or principals of the Sponsor). The By-Laws further provide that the Sponsor shall not exercise voting control of the Board of Managers for more than two (2) years after the closing of the first unit or whenever the Unsold Units constitute less than 50% of the common interests, whichever is sooner. The Sponsor will hold a meeting to elect a new Board of Managers unrelated to the Sponsor within 30 days after the expiration of the control period.

After the initial Sponsor voting control period of no more than two years, a majority of the Board of Managers shall be owner-occupants or members of an owner-occupant's household who are unrelated to the Sponsor and its principals. Owner-occupants and non-resident owners, including Sponsor may have inherent conflicts on how the Condominium should be managed because of their different reasons for purchasing, i.e. purchasing as a home as opposed to an investment.

The Board of Managers will be responsible for the operation of the affairs of the Condominium, including but not limited to, the fiscal operations, repairs and maintenance of the Common Elements of the Property, replacement and capital improvements to the Common Elements of the Property, the hiring, supervision and discharging of employees and Managing Agent (if any), and the enforcement of the provisions of the By-Laws of the Condominium. The Managers shall serve without compensation or remuneration.

At the First Closing, each Holder of Unsold Units will agree, in writing, that so long as all Unsold Units constitute, in the aggregate, fifty (50%) percent of the votes appurtenant to the Condominium Units: (i) he/she will vote his/her Unsold Units for not more than a bare majority of the Board of Managers to be elected; and, (ii) at all elections held after the second anniversary of the Closing Date, he/she will vote his/her Unsold Units for not more than one less than a majority of the Board of Managers to be elected.

The Condominium will have a lien on the Units of each Unit Owner to secure payment of Common Charges and other indebtedness under the By-Laws as well as the faithful performance of all other terms, covenants and conditions of the By-Laws.

So long as a majority of the Board of Managers consists of the Successor-Sponsor or persons elected by them who do not reside in the Building, said non-resident Board of Managers members elected by the Successor-Sponsor may not exercise veto power over expenses described in Schedule B, or over expenses required (i) to comply with applicable laws or regulations; or (ii) to remedy any notices of violation; or (iii) to remedy any work order by an insurer.

Sponsor may not exercise veto power over expenses described above, for a period ending not more than five (5) years after the closing of the first Unit or whenever the Unsold Units constitute less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the common interest, whichever is sooner.

However, notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the Sponsor, as Successor-Sponsor, or other Successor-Sponsors, shall not veto the expenses set forth in Schedule B, capital repairs, or expenditures required to comply with applicable laws or regulations and/or expenses necessary to remedy notices of violations of law or of an insurance carrier.

The Condominium may take any of the actions enumerated above, if the cost of such actions, when added to all other budgeted expenses of the Condominium, shall not result in increasing the Common Charges for any year of operation by more than 5% from the previous year's Common Charges.

The by-laws may be amended, altered, repealed and added to by vote of unit owners of at least 66-2/3% in number and in common interest of all unit owners at a meeting of unit owners duly held for such purpose. For as long as the sponsor remains the owner of one or more units, the by-laws, including the rules and regulations of the condominium, may not be amended or modified in any way so as to adversely affect sponsor without sponsor's prior written consent.

All Board Members shall serve without compensation. Any member of the Board of Managers, who is a designee of the Sponsor, may contract or deal with Sponsor, or a partner, affiliate or entity controlled by the Sponsor, provided said member does not breach its fiduciary obligation.

Any Manager or Officer may be removed from office at any time with or without cause upon the affirmative vote of the Unit Owners who have at least 50% of the Common Interest of the Condominium at a Unit Owner's meeting duly called for the purpose; provided, however, that the Manager(s) elected by the Holder(s) of Unsold Units can be removed only for cause by vote of a majority of the Unit Owners or without cause by the Holders of Unsold Units.

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF UNIT OWNERS

Each Unit Owner will have the right to sell or lease his/her Unit without restriction as to price if prior to or simultaneously with the Closing he/she satisfies any arrears in the payment of Common Charges and expenses, and provided that he/she shall first give to the Board of Managers, on behalf of all other Unit Owners, an opportunity to purchase or lease such Unit, at the same price and on the same terms as were offered by the proposed Purchaser, as more specifically provided for in the By-Laws of the Condominium. The Board of Managers, however, may not exercise its right of first refusal to purchase a Unit without the approval of a majority of the Unit Owners and the unanimous consent of the Holders of Unsold Units. In any vote of all the Unit Owners, the Unit Owner desiring to sell or lease his/her Unit (the "Transferor") shall have the right to vote in any vote conducted by the Board of Managers for the purpose of determining whether the Board of Managers shall exercise its right of first refusal to purchase or lease the Transferor's Unit. In the event the Board of Managers does not have sufficient funds on hand for a purchase which has been approved by a majority of the Unit Owners, the Board of Managers may either borrow such funds or may assess the Unit Owners for the purchase price by an increase in the Common Charges and Expenses in proportion to their respective interests in the Common Elements. The Board of Managers shall have no liability (except their liability as individual Unit Owners) for payment of any such assessment. The Board of Managers may not discriminate against any person on the basis of race, creed, color, nationality, origin, sex, age, disability, marital status, or other grounds prohibited by law.

A Unit Owner may only sell or lease the entire Unit. A Unit Owner may not sell or rent only a portion of a Unit. No transient tenant may be accommodated in a Unit, except in Unsold Units.

A Unit Owner may sell or lease his/her Unit to his/her spouse or to any of his/her adult children or to his/her parent or parents or to his/her brothers or sisters, or to any one or more of them, without first offering to sell to or obtaining the consent of the Board of Managers, and may devise his/her Unit by will, or have it pass by intestacy, without any such restriction.

The restrictions upon the sale and lease of Units set forth in this Section shall not apply to Units owned or retained by the Sponsor or its designee or to the Holder of Unsold Units; each of them shall be free to sell or lease without first offering to sell or lease to, or obtaining the consent of, the Board of Managers.

The restrictions and limitations upon the sale and lease of Units set forth in this section may be amended from time to time by 66-2/3% in number in common interest of all Unit Owners as specifically provided in By-Laws of the Condominium.

In order to provide for congenial occupancy of the Building and for the protection of the values of the Units, the By-Laws provide that the use of the Units shall be restricted to and be in accordance with the following provisions:

- (a) A Unit Owner may only use his/her Unit for a purpose consistent with the local zoning ordinance, as amended from time to time, any other applicable ordinance or statute, and any regulation of a governmental authority that has jurisdiction over the Condominium, including but not limited to, local building codes and the Multiple Dwelling Law, as such statutes, ordinances and regulations may be amended from time to time, but in no event may a Unit Owner use his/her Unit for a use that violates the By-Laws of the Condominium.
- (b) The Common Elements shall be used for the furnishing of the services and facilities for which they are reasonably suited and capable and which are incident to the use and occupancy of Units.
- (c) No nuisances shall be allowed on the Property nor shall any use or practice be allowed which interferes with the peaceful possession or use of the Property by its residents or occupants.
- (d) No unlawful use shall be made of the Property nor any part thereof and all valid laws, zoning ordinances and regulations of all governmental bodies having or claiming jurisdiction thereof shall be observed. Violations of laws, orders, rules, regulations, or requirements of any governmental agency having or claiming jurisdiction thereof, relating to any portion of the Property, shall be eliminated by and at the sole expense of the respective Unit Owners or by the Board of Managers, whichever shall have the obligation to maintain or repair such portion of the Property, or comply with such law.
- (e) No "For Sale", "For Rent", "For Lease" sign, or any other sign evidencing a similar purpose, or other window display or advertising shall be maintained or permitted on any part of the Property or in any Unit therein, except that these sign restrictions shall not apply with respect to Unsold Units. Each Unit Owner shall keep his/her Unit in good state of preservation and cleanliness and each Unit Owner shall be obligated to maintain and keep in good order and repair his/her own Unit in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws and the rules and regulations of municipal departments or agencies having jurisdiction thereof.

Each Unit Owner will have an undivided interest in the Common Elements in the respective percentages set forth in Schedule A in Part I. Subject to the provisions of the By-Laws and Rules and Regulations the Common Elements are appurtenant to, serve and benefit each Unit to the extent of such Unit's percentage of the Common Elements, and the Common Elements are for the common use of all Unit Owners.

The Common Elements consist of the Land and all other parts of the Property that serve and benefit each Unit including, without limitation, the following:

- (a) The Land on which the Building is erected and all other land within the boundaries of the Condominium, together with all easements, rights and privileges appurtenant thereto;
- (b) All foundations, footings, columns, girders, beams and supports of the Building;
- (c) All exterior walls of the Building, not including the portions thereof on the Unit side of the block work or metal studs of such walls; all walls and partitions separating Units from corridors, stairs, and mechanical equipment spaces, other than the portions thereof between the Unit side of such walls and partitions and the block work or studs of such walls and partitions; the block work of all walls and partitions separating Units and containing block work; the studs used in all walls and partitions separating Units and containing studs; and concrete floor slabs;
- (d) Halls, corridors, passageways, lobbies, stairs and stairways (excepting those contained entirely within a Unit, if any), landings, and entrances to and exits from the Building;
- (e) A portion of the cellar, and other areas used in connection therewith, and all storage spaces and trash rooms except for storage rooms located within the Units;
- (f) All space devoted to the lodging or use by the superintendent, if any, if the superintendent is not a Unit Owner or other persons employed in connection with the operation of the Property;
- (g) All central and appurtenant installations for services such as power, light, telephone, television, gas, hot and cold water, heat, and heat distribution system, (including all pipes, ducts, chutes, cables, and conduits used in connection therewith) located in Common Areas and all other mechanical equipment;
- (h) All tanks, pumps, motors, fans, compressors and control equipment and their appurtenant facilities except if a part of a self-contained mechanical unit located solely within a Condominium Unit;

- (i) All sewer pipes;
- (j) All portions of common flues used by more than one Unit Owner, and all exterior chimneys connected to a fireplace, if any; and,
- (k) All other parts of the Property and all apparatus and installations existing in the Building, on the Property, or in a Unit for common use or necessary or convenient to the existence, maintenance or safety of the Property.

Further restrictions on the use of Units are set forth in the By-Laws and Rules and Regulations made in accordance with the By-Laws, which are set forth in Part II of the Plan. Rules and Regulations concerning the use of the Units may be promulgated and amended from time to time by the Board of Managers as provided in the By-Laws.

Provided that the mortgage shall be substantially in the form of the New York statutory form of mortgage (with such changes as may be necessary to enable a particular lending institution to make the loan), each Purchaser will be permitted to finance his/her purchase of a Unit by obtaining a mortgage on his/her Unit in such amount, and to such percentage of its value, as he/she chooses or is able to secure, from an institutional lender; the Sponsor makes no representations with respect to the availability, amount, rate, term or any other condition or feature of mortgage financing of the Units. However, due to the present market conditions, many banks have established a threshold for the number of units in a condominium to be sold prior to their making loans.

The percentage of interest in the Common Elements applicable to each Unit, ("Common Interest"), as shown in Schedule A was determined by the Sponsor, based upon the approximate proportion which the floor area (i.e. square foot area) of each Unit bears to the total floor area (i.e., total square foot area) of all the Units as of the date of the Declaration and taking into account the substantially exclusive advantages enjoyed by one, but not all the Units as permitted under subsection (1) (ii) of Section 339-i of the Condominium Act.

The total of all Unit Owners' Common Interests equals one hundred (100%) percent, and each percentage determines, among other things, each Unit Owner's share of any distributions of condemnation or insurance proceeds and distributions upon termination of the Condominium. The percentages are not alterable except as set out in "CHANGE IN PRICES AND UNITS" in Part I.

The Board of Managers shall from time to time, but at least annually: prepare a budget for the Condominium; determine the amount of the Common Charges payable by the Unit Owners to be paid monthly by the Unit Owners to meet the Common Expenses of the Condominium; and allocate and assess such Common Charges among the Unit Owners according to the Common Interests in the Common Elements.

The Common Expenses shall include, among other things, the cost of all insurance premiums on all policies of insurance required to be or which have been obtained by the Board of Managers. The Common Expenses may also include such amounts as the Board of Managers may deem proper for the operation and maintenance of the Property, including, without limitation, an amount for working capital of the Condominium, for a general operation reserve, for a Reserve Fund for replacements, and to make up any deficit in the Common Expenses for any prior year. The Common Expenses may also include such amounts as may be required for the purchase or lease by the Board of Managers or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Unit Owners, of any Unit whose owner has elected to sell or lease such Unit, or of any Unit which is to be sold at a foreclosure or other judicial sale. The Board of Managers shall advise all Unit Owners, promptly, in writing, of the amount of Common Charges payable by each of them, respectively, as determined by the Board of Managers, as aforesaid, and shall furnish copies of each budget on which such Common Charges are based, to all Unit Owners and to their mortgagees of record.

Under the provisions of Section 339-z of the Condominium Act, the Board of Managers on behalf of the Unit Owners shall have a lien on each Unit for unpaid Common Charges assessed against such Unit by the Board of Managers, together with interest thereon. Such lien shall be subordinate only to liens for real estate taxes on the Unit and to any sums unpaid on the first mortgage of record on such Unit.

The Sponsor will cause the Board of Managers to file a lien as provided for in Section 339-aa of the Real Property Law on Units in which the Sponsor is more than thirty (30) days in arrears, while he is in control of the Board of Managers.

Any lien for unpaid Common Charges against a Unit shall be effective from and after the filing of a notice thereof in the Kings County Office of the City Register, and until all sums secured thereby with the interest thereon shall have been fully paid or until six years from the date of filing (unless foreclosure of such lien is started within such six-year period), whichever may be earlier. Such lien may be foreclosed by a suit brought in the name of the Board of Managers acting on behalf of the Unit Owners in like manner as the foreclosure of a mortgage on real property, or an action may be brought by the Board of Managers to recover the unpaid Common Charges without foreclosing the lien.

The proceeds from the sale of any Unit pursuant to foreclosure shall be used first to pay the unpaid Common Charges, unpaid assessments, plus reasonable attorney's fees and administrative costs and other lawful liens on the defaulting Unit. Amounts above this, if any, will be the property of the defaulting Unit Owner. If after the sale of the Unit for the nonpayment of the Common Charges or assessments, the sale does not recover the full amount due and owing the Condominium, the Board of Managers has the right to assess all the Unit Owners as a Common Expense for the difference between the amount received by the Condominium from the sale of the Unit and the amount owed to the Condominium.

Prior to the permissible sale, transfer or other conveyance of a Unit, any seller or Purchaser of a Unit shall be entitled to a statement (an "Estoppel Letter") from the Board of Managers, setting forth the amount of the unpaid Common Charges accrued against the Unit and neither such seller nor Purchaser shall be liable for, nor shall the Unit be conveyed subject to a lien for, any unpaid Common Charges against such Unit accrued prior to such conveyance in excess of the amount set forth in such statement.

No Unit Owner may exempt himself/herself from liability for his/her Common Charges or Expenses by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any of the Common Elements or by abandonment of his/her Unit. The liability of each Unit Owner for the payment of the Common Charges and Expenses thereafter assessed or becoming due against his/her Unit shall terminate upon a permissible sale, transfer or other conveyance of such Unit, together with the appurtenant interests in the Common Elements (as defined in the By-Laws) in accordance with the applicable provisions of the By-Laws.

In addition, any Unit Owner may, subject to the terms and conditions specified in the By-Laws, convey his/her Unit together with the said appurtenant interests to the Board of Managers or its nominee on behalf of all other Unit Owners, and in such event be exempt from all Common Charges and Expenses thereafter assessed.

Except as set forth above pursuant to an Estoppel Letter, a Purchaser of a Unit shall be required by the Board of Managers to pay unpaid Common Charges, with interest thereon, and expenses assessed against his/her Unit prior to his/her acquisition of such Unit, except that either (i) a mortgagee acquiring title to a Unit or (ii) a Purchaser at a foreclosure sale shall not be liable and the Unit shall not be subject to a lien for the payment of the Common Charges and Expenses assessed prior to the acquisition of title to such Unit. IN THE EVENT THE BOARD OF MANAGERS FORECLOSES A STATUTORY LIEN FOR UNPAID COMMON CHARGES, AND THE PROCEEDS OF THE FORECLOSURE SALE ARE INSUFFICIENT TO PAY THE UNPAID COMMON CHARGES, THE UNPAID BALANCE MAY BE PROPORTIONATELY CHARGED TO ALL UNIT OWNERS AS A COMMON EXPENSE.

All maintenance of and repairs to any Unit, ordinary or extraordinary, and to the doors and windows (except the painting and decoration of the side of the stairwell doors which do not face into a Unit and the exterior side of windows), electrical (except Common Elements), heating (except Common Elements), and plumbing (except Common Elements) within the Unit or belonging to the Unit Owner, shall be at the Unit Owner's expense, except for structural elements as specifically required herein.

All maintenance, repairs and replacement to the Common Elements (including the exterior walls of the Building and exterior sides of the windows) and the painting and stair well doors which do not face into a Unit shall be made at the direction of the Board of Managers and be proportionately charged to all the Unit Owners as a Common Expense, except to the extent that the same are necessitated by the negligence, misuse or neglect of a Unit Owner, in which case such expense shall be charged to such Unit Owner.

No Unit Owner may make any structural addition, alteration or improvement in his/her Unit, or do any work which would jeopardize the soundness or safety of the Building, reduce the value thereof or impair any easement or hereditament of the Property, without the prior written approval of the Board of Managers. Prior to, and as a condition of, the granting of its consent to the making of a structural alteration, addition, improvement or repair in or to a Unit, the Board of Managers may, at its option, require the Unit Owner to execute an agreement in form and substance satisfactory to the Board of Managers setting forth the terms and conditions under which such alteration, addition, improvement or repair may be made, including, without limitation, the days and hours during which any work may be done. No application shall be filed with any governmental authority for a permit covering an addition, alteration or improvement to be made in a Unit, unless approved and executed by the Board of Managers; such approval, however, shall not result in liability on the part of the Board of Managers or any of them, to any contractor, subcontractor, materialman, architect or engineer, by reason of such addition, alteration or improvement or to any person having any claim for injury to person or damage to property arising therefrom. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to an Unsold Unit provided that any alteration to such Unsold Units shall be in accordance with, and only as permitted by, the Condominium Act and all governmental regulations.

Non-structural alterations and improvements to Units that do not affect the exterior of the Building or the value of other Units may be made without the prior approval of the Board of Managers.

The Board of Managers will execute any application or other document required to be filed with any governmental authority having or asserting jurisdiction in connection with any such structural addition, alteration or improvement, provided, however, that neither the Board of Managers nor the Unit Owners shall be subjected to any expense or liability by virtue of the execution of the application or such other document.

The Board of Managers shall obtain and maintain, to the extent obtainable and to the extent determined by the Board of Managers to be appropriate or relevant: (1) fire insurance, with extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief endorsements insuring the Building and Units (but not including furniture, furnishings or other personal property supplied to or installed by Unit Owners), together with all service machinery contained therein (collectively, the "Insured Property"), covering the interests of the Condominium, the Board of Managers and all Unit Owners and their mortgagees, as their interest may appear, in an amount equal to the full replacement value of the insured property without deduction for depreciation; (2) machinery insurance; (3) water damage legal liability insurance; (4) such other insurance as the Board of Managers may determine. Each of the policies shall contain a New York standard mortgagee clause in favor of each mortgagee of a Unit which shall provide that the loss, if any, thereunder shall be payable to such mortgagee as its interest may appear, subject, however, to the loss payment provisions in favor of the Board of Managers in the event of casualty or condemnation.

Unit Owners shall be entitled to carry casualty insurance protection for their furniture and any improvements added by the Owners to their Units and for personal liability coverage for their own benefit at their own expense, provided that such policies contain waivers of subrogation and further provided that the liability of the carriers issuing insurance procured by the Board of Managers shall not be affected or diminished by reason of any other insurance carried by a Unit Owner.

A Unit Owner shall grant, and by acceptance of a deed for his/her Unit shall have granted, a right of access to his/her Unit and storage areas, if any, to the Managing Agent and/or any other person authorized by the Board of Managers or the Managing Agent, for the purposes of performing installations, alterations or repairs to the mechanical or electrical services or other Common Elements in his/her Unit or elsewhere in the Building in which the Unit is located, to remove violations, cure defaults by a Unit Owner, and for any other purpose provided in the Plan, Declaration or as may be required by law or governmental regulation, provided that requests for entry (except in emergency situations) are made in advance and that any such entry (except in emergency situations) is at a time reasonably convenient to the Unit Owner. In case of an emergency, such right of entry shall be immediate, whether the Unit Owner is present at the time or not. Provided reasonable care is exercised to safeguard the Unit Owner's property, such entry shall not render the Board of Managers or its authorized agents liable for damage incurred in connection with the exercise of such right of entry. Each Unit Owner will deposit with the President of the Board of Managers a key to his/her Unit to allow for entry in any emergency. The Board of Managers may designate responsible individual(s) to hold such keys.

Each Unit Owner shall be required to pay the Common Charges and Expenses levied by the Board of Managers (see Schedules A and B in Part I). All Unit Owners, mortgagees, lessees and occupants of Units and their employees, and any other persons who may use the facilities of the Property in any manner, are subject to the By-Laws, the Declaration and the Rules and Regulations. A copy of the Declaration and By-Laws and Rules and Regulations appear in Part II of this Plan. The violation of any of the Rules and Regulations or the breach of any By-Laws or provision of the Declaration shall give the Board of Managers, in addition to other rights set forth in specific provisions of the By-Laws, the right to: (i) enter any Unit in which, or as to which, such violation or breach exists and to abate and remove summarily, at the expense of the defaulting Unit Owner, any structure, thing or condition causing such violation or breach and the Board of Managers shall not thereby be deemed guilty or liable in any matter of trespass nor be liable for any damage to the Unit, personal property or fixtures incurred in connection with such rights unless such damage is caused by negligence on the part of the Board of Managers; or (ii) enjoin, abate or remedy by appropriate legal proceedings, either at law or in equity, the continuance of any such violation or breach. The costs incurred by the Board by virtue of the exercise of its rights to correct such breaches or violations, including attorney's fees, shall be due upon demand from the Unit Owner in question, and shall constitute a Common Expense against his/her Unit.

Under the provisions of Section 339-j of the Condominium Act, the Board of Managers have the right to enforce any obligation of the Unit Owner by foreclosure of the statutory lien against the Unit for the amount of any unpaid Common Charges; by suit brought to collect same; by injunction; or by other appropriate relief (see "OBLIGATIONS TO PAY COMMON CHARGES AND EXPENSES" in Part I).

Pursuant to Section 339-kk of the Real Property Law, all rental payments from the tenant of a Unit being rented by a non-occupying Unit Owner shall be made payable to the Condominium in the event the non-occupying Unit Owner fails to make payments for common charges, assessments or late fees within sixty (60) days of the expiration of any grace period after they are due. The Board of Managers shall provide written notice to the tenant and the non-occupying Unit Owners that all subsequent rental payments are to be payable to the Condominium and delivered to the address listed on the notice. When payments are once again current, notice shall be given to the tenant and non-occupying Unit Owner within three (3) business days and all subsequent rent payments shall be payable to the non-occupying Unit Owner.

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF BOARD OF MANAGERS AND SUMMARY OF BY-LAWS AND DECLARATION

The By-Laws and Declaration of the Condominium are reproduced in Part II, beginning on page F-1 and the Declaration on page E-1. A summary of certain pertinent provisions of these By-Laws and Declaration are set forth below.

The By-Laws limit the number of Managers to not less than three (3) nor more than five (5). The first Board of Managers to be elected by Unit Owners shall consist of three (3) members.

Annual meetings shall be held each year at the time and place designated by the Board. Special meetings of Unit Owners, other than those the calling of which is regulated by statute, may be called at any time by the President or Secretary or by a majority of the Board of Managers, or whenever requested in writing by Unit Owners owning at least twenty-five percent (25%) in number and Common Interest of the Condominium.

At the time of the First Closing, the Officers and Managers shall be designated by the Sponsor and will be: Paul Vetrano, a principal of the Sponsor; Warren L. Forman, Esq., the principal of Forman & Associates, pc, Sponsor's attorney, and Karen Abrams, Esq., an associate at Forman & Associates, pc. However, these Officers and Managers will resign in favor of Officers and Managers which will be elected by the Unit Owners at a meeting to be convened within a reasonable time after the First Closing; they may however, be re-elected at such time.

Managers shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast at a meeting at which a quorum shall be present. When voting for Managers, each Unit Owner shall be entitled to cast for each Manager to be elected the number of votes appurtenant to the common interest attributed to his/her Unit (.01%). The Holder(s) of Unsold Units, who will be the Sponsor or natural persons procured by the Sponsor, or both, shall be entitled to vote all the votes held by them for the number of Managers listed below. To assure that Purchasers under this Plan will be represented on the Board of Managers, the By-Laws provide that at least one less than a majority of Managers to be elected shall be unrelated to the Sponsor and/or Holder(s) of Unsold Units; (i.e., if three (3) Managers are to be elected, at least one (1) must be unrelated to the Sponsor and/or Holder(s) of Unsold Units). The By-Laws further provide that the Sponsor shall not exercise voting control of the Board of Managers for more than two (2) years after the closing of the first unit or whenever the Unsold Units constitute less than 50% of the common interests, whichever is sooner.

The Sponsor will hold a meeting to elect a new Board of Managers unrelated to the Sponsor within 30 days after the expiration of the control period. After the initial Sponsor voting control period of no more than two years, a majority of the Board of Managers shall be owner-occupants or members of an owner-occupant's household who are unrelated to the Sponsor and its principals. Owner-occupants and non-resident owners, including Sponsor may have inherent conflicts on how the Condominium should be managed because of their different reasons for purchasing, i.e. purchasing as a home as opposed to an investment.

The Officers and Board of Managers will be responsible for the operation of the affairs of the Condominium, including but not limited to, the fiscal operation, repairs and maintenance of the Common Elements of the Property, replacement and capital improvements to the Common Elements of the Property, the hiring, supervision and discharging of employees and Managing Agent (if any), and the enforcement of the provisions of the By-Laws. The Officers and Managers shall serve without compensation or remuneration.

Any Manager may resign at any time by written notice delivered in person or sent by certified or registered mail to the President or Secretary of the Condominium. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, and unless specifically requested, acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Any Manager may be removed from office at any time with or without cause upon the affirmative vote of the Unit Owners whose aggregate interest in the Common Elements is at least 50% of the Common Interest of the Condominium (a quorum) at a Unit Owner's meeting duly called for that purpose; provided, however, that the Manager(s) elected by the Holder(s) of Unsold Units can be removed only for cause by vote of a majority of the Unit Owners or without cause by the Holders of Unsold Units.

Vacancies in the Board of Managers caused by any reason other than the removal of a member thereof by a vote of the Unit Owners, shall be filled by vote of a majority of the remaining members of the Board of Managers at a special meeting of the Board of Managers held for that purpose promptly after the occurrence of any such vacancy, even though the members present at such meeting may constitute less than a quorum (50%), and each person so elected shall be a member of the Board of Managers until a successor shall be elected at the next annual meeting of the Unit Owners to serve the remaining term. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any vacancy on the Board by a member designated or elected (in its capacity as Holder of Unsold Units) by Sponsor, whether arising from resignation, removal, death or otherwise, shall be filled only by Sponsor.

The Board of Managers shall have the powers and duties necessary for the administration of the affairs of the Condominium and may do all such acts and things except as by law or by the Declaration or by the By-Laws may not be delegated to the Board of Managers by the Unit Owners. Such powers and duties of the Board of Managers shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

- (a) Operation, care, upkeep and maintenance of the Common Elements.

- (b) Determination of the Common Expenses required for the affairs of the Condominium, including, without limitation, the operation and maintenance of the Property.
- (c) Collection of the Common Charges from the Unit Owners.
- (d) Employment and dismissal of the personnel necessary for the maintenance and operation of the Common Elements.
- (e) Adoption and amendment of the Rules and Regulations covering the details of the operation and use of the Property subject to a right of the Unit Owners to overrule the Board.
- (f) Opening of bank accounts on behalf of the Condominium and designating the signatories required therefor.
- (g) Purchasing or leasing or otherwise acquiring in the name of the Board of Managers, or its designee (corporate or otherwise), on behalf of all Unit Owners, Units offered for sale or lease or surrendered by their owners to the Board of Managers.
- (h) Purchasing of Units at foreclosure or other judicial sales in the name of the Board of Managers, or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Unit Owners.
- (i) Selling, leasing, mortgaging (but not voting the votes appurtenant to), or otherwise dealing with Units acquired by, and subleasing Units leased by, the Board of Managers or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Unit Owners.
- (j) Organizing corporations to act as designees of the Board of Managers in acquiring title to or leasing of Units on behalf of all Unit Owners.
- (k) Obtaining and reviewing of insurance for the Property, including the Units, pursuant to the By-Laws.
- (l) Making of repairs, additions and improvements to or alterations of the Property and repairs to and restoration of the Property in accordance with the other provisions of these By-Laws, after damage or destruction by fire or other casualty, or as a result of condemnation or eminent domain proceedings.
- (m) With written ratification of Unit Owners, the Board may undertake to commence proceedings to reduce real estate taxes on the Units.
- (n) Accumulate reserves for the expenditure of capital improvements as restricted by the By-Laws.

(o) Acquiring any Unit in default as provided in the By-Laws and subletting or selling same on behalf or all Unit Owners.

(p) To enter into and upon the Units when necessary and act with as little inconvenience as possible in connection with the maintenance, care and preservation of the property.

The members of the Board of Managers shall not be liable to the Unit Owners for any mistake of judgment, negligence, or otherwise, except for willful misconduct or bad faith. The Unit Owners shall severally indemnify the members of the Board of Managers against any liability or claims except those arising out of the bad faith or willful misconduct of a member or members of the Board of Managers. It is intended that the members of the Board of Managers shall have no personal liability with respect to any contract made by them on behalf of the Condominium. The original Board of Managers, who are designated by the Sponsor, may contract with the Sponsor and affiliated corporations without being charged with self-dealing. It is also intended that the liability of any Unit Owner arising out of any contract made by the Board of Managers or out of the aforesaid indemnity in favor of the members of the Board of Managers shall be limited to such proportion of the total liability thereunder as his/her interest in the Common Elements bears to the aggregate interest in the Common Elements of all the Unit Owners. Every agreement made by the Board of Managers or by the Managing Agent on behalf of the Condominium shall provide that the members of the Board of Managers, or the Managing Agent as the case may be, are acting only as agent for the Unit Owners and shall have no personal liability thereunder (except as Unit Owners or except for willful misconduct or bad faith), and that each Unit Owner's liability thereunder shall be limited to such proportion of the total liability thereunder as his/her interest in the Common Elements bears to the aggregate interest in the Common Elements of all Unit Owners.

OFFICERS

The principal officers of the Condominium shall be the President, the Vice President, who are automatically Board Members, the Secretary and the Treasurer, all of whom shall be elected by the Board of Managers. The Board of Managers may appoint an Assistant Treasurer, an Assistant Secretary, and such other officers as in its judgment may be necessary. The President and Vice President, but no other officers, need be members of the Board of Managers.

The officers of the Condominium shall be elected annually by the Board of Managers at the organization meeting of each new Board of Managers and each officer shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Managers or until his/her successor is elected or until his/her resignation or upon his/her death.

Upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Board of Managers, any officer may be removed, either with or without cause, and his/her successor may be elected at any regular meeting of the Board of Managers, or at any special meeting of the Board of Managers called for such purpose.

The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Condominium. He/she shall have all of the general powers and duties which are incident to the office of president of a stock corporation organized under the Business Corporation Law of the State of New York, including but not limited to the power to appoint committees from among the Unit Owners from time to time as he/she may in his/her discretion decide is appropriate to assist in the conduct of the affairs of the Condominium.

The Vice-President shall take the place of the President and perform his/her duties whenever the President shall be absent or unable to act. If neither the President nor the Vice President is able to act, the Board of Managers shall appoint some other member of the Board of Managers to act in the place of the President, on an interim basis. The Vice President shall also perform such other duties as shall from time to time be imposed upon him/her by the Board of Managers or by the President.

The Secretary shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Unit Owners and of the Board of Managers; he/she shall have charge of such books and papers as the Board of Managers may direct; and he/she shall in general perform all the duties incident to the office of secretary of a stock corporation organized under the Business Corporation Law of the State of New York.

The Treasurer shall have the responsibility for Condominium funds and securities and shall be responsible for keeping full and accurate financial records and books of account showing all receipts and disbursements and for the preparation of all required financial data. He/she shall be responsible for the deposit of all monies and other valuable effects in the name of the Board of Managers, or the Managing Agent, in such depositories as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Managers, and he/she shall, in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of treasurer of a stock corporation organized under the Business Corporation Law of the State of New York.

No officer shall be liable to the Unit Owners for any mistake of judgment, negligence, or otherwise, except for willful misconduct or bad faith. The Unit Owners shall severally indemnify each officer against any liability or claims except those arising out of the bad faith or willful misconduct of an officer. It is intended that each officer shall have no personal liability with respect to any contract made by him/her on behalf of the Condominium. It is and shall be permissible for each officer who is appointed by the original Board of Managers (designees of the Sponsor), to contract with the Sponsor and affiliated corporations without fear of being charged with self-dealing. It is also intended that the liability of any Unit Owner arising out of any contract made by an officer or out of the aforesaid indemnity in favor of each officer shall be limited to such proportion of the total liability thereunder as his/her interest in the Common Elements bears to the aggregate interest in the Common Elements of all the Unit Owners. Every agreement made by an officer on behalf of the Condominium shall provide that each officer is acting only as agent for the Unit Owners and shall have no personal liability thereunder (except as Unit Owners), and that each Unit Owner's liability thereunder shall be limited to such proportion of the total liability thereunder as his interest in the Common Elements bears to the aggregate interest in the Common Elements of all Unit Owners.

All maintenance of and repairs to any Unit, ordinary or extraordinary, and to the doors and windows (except the painting and decorating of the stairwell doors which do not face into a Unit and the exterior side of windows), electrical (except Common Elements), plumbing (except Common Elements) shall be at the Unit Owner's expense, excepting as otherwise specifically provided herein.

All maintenance, repairs and replacements to the Common Elements as defined in the Declaration shall be made by the Board of Managers and be charged to all the Unit Owners as a Common Expense, excepting to the extent that the same are necessitated by the negligence, misuse or neglect of a Unit Owner, in which case such expense shall be charged to such Unit Owner.

REPAIR AFTER FIRE OR OTHER CASUALTY

In the event of damage to or destruction of the Building containing the Units as a result of fire or other casualty, unless seventy-five (75%) percent or more of the Building containing the Units is destroyed or substantially damaged and eighty (80%) percent or more of the Unit Owners do not duly and promptly resolve to proceed with repair or restoration, the Board of Managers shall arrange for the prompt repair and restoration of the Building containing the Units (including any damaged Units, and any kitchen or bathroom fixtures initially installed therein on the date of recordation of the Declaration, but not including any wall, ceiling, or floor decorations or coverings or other furniture, furnishing, fixtures, appliances or equipment installed in the Units by the Unit Owners). Any cost of such repair and restoration in excess of the insurance proceeds shall constitute a Common Expense and the Board of Managers may assess all the Unit Owners for such deficit as part of the Common Charges.

If seventy-five (75%) percent or more of the Building containing the Units is destroyed or substantially damaged (as determined by the Board of Managers) and eighty (80%) percent or more of the Unit Owners do not duly and promptly resolve to proceed with repair or restoration, the Property shall be subject to an action for partition at the suit of any Unit Owner or lienor, as if owned in common, in which event the net proceeds of sale, together with the net proceeds of insurance policies (or if there shall have been a repair or restoration pursuant to the above paragraph, and the amount of insurance proceeds shall have exceeded the cost of such repairs or restoration, then the excess of such insurance proceeds) shall be divided among all the Unit Owners in proportion to their respective interests in the Common Elements, after first paying out of the share of each Unit Owner the amount of any unpaid liens on his/her Unit, in the order of the priority of such liens.

No portion of insurance proceeds shall be applied to the payment of the mortgage indebtedness of any Unit Owner unless the Unit Owners determine not to repair, restore or rebuild the Building.

INSURANCE

The Board of Managers shall be required to obtain and maintain, to the extent obtainable, the following insurance: (1) fire insurance with extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief endorsements, insuring the Building containing the Units (including all of the Units and fixtures initially installed therein by the Sponsor or by prior construction and any other property usual to the servicing and general occupancy, but not including furniture, furnishings, or other personal property supplied or installed by Unit Owners) together with other service machinery and equipment contained therein and covering the interests of the Condominium, the Board of Managers and all Unit Owners and their mortgagees with certificates of insurance, as their interests may appear, in the amount to be determined by the Board of Managers but in no event not to be less than eighty (80%) percent of the full replacement cost of the Building, including above noted items but exclusive of footings and foundations, as approved by a fire insurance company or a qualified insurance broker; each of said policies shall contain a Condominium Property Endorsement and a New York standard mortgagee clause in favor of each mortgagee of a Unit which shall provide that the loss, if any, thereunder shall be payable to such mortgagee as its interest may appear, subject however, to the loss payment provisions in favor of the Board of Managers and the Insurance Trustee, as herein provided; (2) worker's compensation insurance, if the Condominium has employees; (3) disability benefits insurance, if the Condominium has employees; and (4) such other insurance as the Board of Managers may determine. All policies of physical damage insurance shall provide that adjustment of loss shall be made by the Board of Managers (with the approval of the Insurance Trustee, if any, if more than $50,000.00), and that the total proceeds thereof, if $50,000.00 or less, shall be payable to the Board of Managers and if more than $50,000.00 shall be billed to the Insurance Trustee, if any.

All policies of physical damage insurance shall contain waivers of subrogation and the individual Unit Owners as well as the Condominium shall be primary insureds to the extent of their interests shall also appear. Such policies may not be cancelled or substantially modified without at least ten (10) days' prior written notice to all of the insureds, including all mortgagees of Units. Duplicate originals of all policies of physical damage insurance and of all renewals thereof, together with proof of payment of premiums, shall be delivered to all mortgagees of Units at least ten (10) days prior to expiration of the then current policies.

The Board of Managers shall also be required to obtain and maintain, to the extent obtainable, public liability insurance in such limits as the Board of Managers may from time to time determine, covering each member of the Board of Managers, the Managing Agent, the Manager and each Unit Owner. Such public liability coverage shall also cover cross liability claims of one insured against another.

Unit Owners shall not be prohibited from carrying other insurance for their own benefit, provided that all such policies shall contain waivers of subrogation and further provided that the liability of the carriers issuing insurance obtained by the Board of Managers shall not be affected or diminished by reason of any such additional insurance carried by any Unit Owner. Such policies shall be so endorsed as to state that they will in no way conflict with any insurance carried by the Board of Managers.

REPORTS

The Board of Managers, the Managing Agent, or the Secretary shall keep detailed records of the actions of the Board of Managers and the Managing Agent, minutes of the meetings of the Board of Managers, minutes of the meetings of the Unit Owners, and financial records and books of account of the Condominium. In addition, an annual audited financial report of the receipts and expenditures and financial condition of the Condominium, certified by an independent Certified Public Accountant, shall be rendered by the Board of Managers to all Unit Owners within three months after the end of each fiscal year. In addition, the Board of Managers shall also send to each Unit Owner an income tax deduction statement by March 1 of each calendar year.

NOTICE OF MEETING

The Secretary shall mail a notice of each annual or special meeting to all Unit Owners of record. The notice shall state the purpose of the meeting as well as the time and place where it is to be held, and the notice will be given at least ten but not more than forty days prior to such meeting.

EXAMINATION OF BOOKS AND RECORDS

Each Unit Owner and each mortgagee of a Unit shall, upon prior request, be permitted to examine the books of account of the Condominium and other records of the Condominium during normal business hours on business days at the office of the Condominium.

AMENDMENTS TO BY-LAWS

The By-Laws may be modified or amended by the vote of 66-2/3% in number and in common interest of all unit owners at a meeting of unit owners duly held for such purpose. Anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding, so long as the sponsor is the owner of one or more unsold units, the By-Laws may not be altered, amended, repealed or added to in any way that adversely affects the Sponsor without the written consent of the Sponsor.

AMENDMENT TO THE DECLARATION

The Declaration may be amended, modified, added to or deleted from by vote of at least 66-2/3% in number and in Common Interest of all Unit Owners, cast in person or by proxy at a meeting duly held in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws, or in lieu of a meeting, any amendment may be approved, in writing by 66-2/3% in numbers and in Common Interest of all Unit Owners. However Holders of Unsold Units and adversely affected mortgagees and Unit Owners must consent in writing. The Sponsor or its designees has the right to amend the Declaration at any time for the sole purpose of filing Floor Plans required by the New York Real Property Law Section 339-p.

TERMINATION OF CONDOMINIUM

The Condominium shall continue (unless terminated by reason of casualty loss or by condemnation) until such time as the Condominium shall be legally abandoned and terminated as a result of the vote of at least eighty (80%) percent in number and in common interest of the Unit Owners, at which time the Property shall be subject to an action for partition by any Unit Owner or any lienor as if owned in common, and the net proceeds of the sale resulting therefrom shall be divided among all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective interests in the Common Elements, after first applying the share of the net proceeds of such sale otherwise payable to each Unit Owner to the payment of any liens on his/her Unit in the order of the priority of such liens.

SALES, LEASES AND MORTGAGES OF UNITS

No Unit Owner other than the Sponsor or his/her designee, may sell or lease his/her Unit or any interest therein except by complying with the following provisions:

Any Unit Owner who receives a bona fide offer for the sale or lease of his/her Unit ("Outside Offer"), which he/she intends to accept, shall notify the Board of Managers of such offer and of such intention, the name and address of the proposed Purchaser or lessee, the terms of the proposed transaction and such other information as the Board of Managers may reasonably require, and shall offer ("Board Offer") to sell such Unit to the Condominium, on the same terms and conditions as contained in such Outside Offer. The giving of such notice shall constitute a warranty and representation by the Unit Owner who has received an Outside Offer to purchase such Unit or lease such Unit, as the case may be, on behalf of all other Unit Owners, on the same terms and conditions as contained in the Outside Offer and as stated in the notice from the offering Unit Owner.

In the event the Board of Managers shall elect to purchase such Unit or to lease such Unit, title shall close or the lease shall be executed in accordance with the terms of such Offer, but in no event less than 30 days after the giving of notice by the Board of Managers of its election to accept the Board Offer. If the selling Unit Owner's existing mortgage is not satisfied, the Board of Managers will purchase the Unit and assume or take title subject to said existing mortgage, if possible.

In the event the Board of Managers or its designee shall fail to accept such offer within 30 days after receipt of notice as aforesaid, the offering Unit Owner shall be free to contract to sell such Unit, or to lease such Unit, as the case may be, within 30 days after the expiration of the period in which the Board of Managers or its designee might have accepted such offer, to the person making the Outside Offer. Any such deed to an Outside Offeror shall provide that the acceptance thereof by the grantee shall constitute an assumption of the provisions of the Declaration, the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations, as the same may be amended from time to time. Any such lease shall be consistent with the By-Laws and shall provide that it may not be modified, amended, extended or assigned, without the prior consent in writing of the Board of Managers, that the tenant shall not sublet the demised premises or any part thereof without the prior consent in writing of the Board of Managers, and that the Board of Managers shall have the power to terminate such lease and/or to bring summary proceedings to evict the tenant in the name of the landlord thereunder, in the event of default by the tenant in the performance of such lease. The terms of such lease shall be approved in writing by the Board of Managers.

Any purported sale or lease of a Unit in violation of this section shall be voidable at the election of the Board of Managers.

The Board of Managers shall not exercise any option hereinabove set forth to purchase or lease any Unit without the prior approval of a majority of the Unit Owners and the unanimous consent of Owner(s) of Unsold Units. The Board of Managers may use the Unit in any manner as long as such use is in conformity with all applicable laws, regulations and provisions and the By-Laws particularly Article VI, Section 11 of the By-Laws, see pages F-17 and F-18.

Subject to the provisions described above requiring the Board of Managers to obtain the consent of unit owners and the consent of holders(s) of unsold units, acquisition of units by the board of managers may be made from the working capital and common charges in the hands of the Board of Managers, or if such funds are insufficient, the board of managers may levy an assessment against each unit owner in proportion to his/her ownership in the common elements, as a common charge, or the Board of Managers, in their discretion, may borrow money to finance the acquisition of such unit, provided, however, that no financing may be secured by an encumbrance or hypothecation of any property other than the unit to be acquired by the Board of Managers.

The provisions describing the Board of Managers' right of first refusal shall not apply with respect to any sale or conveyance by a Unit Owner of his/her Unit, to his/her spouse or to any of his/her children, grandchildren or to his/her parent or parents or to his/her brothers or sisters, or any one or more of them; and they shall not apply to a Unit owned by the Sponsor or Sponsor-designee, or the acquisition or sale of a Unit by a mortgagee who shall acquire title to such Unit by foreclosure or by deed in lieu of foreclosure. However, the provisions describing the right of first refusal shall apply with respect to any Purchaser of such Unit from such mortgagee.

NO SEVERANCE OF COMMON ELEMENTS

No Unit Owner shall execute any deed, mortgage, or other instrument conveying or mortgaging title to his/her Unit without including therein the Unit Owner's interest in the Common Elements, it being the intention hereof to prevent any severance of such combined ownership. Any such deed, mortgage, or other instrument purporting to affect one or more of such interests, without including all such interests, shall be deemed and taken to include the interest or interests so omitted, even though the latter shall not be expressly mentioned or described therein. No part of the Unit Owner's interest in the Common Elements may be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of, except as part of a sale, transfer or other disposition of the Unit or as part of a sale, transfer or other disposition of the specific interest in the Common Elements by all Unit Owners.

EASEMENTS

Each Unit Owner shall have an easement in common with the owners of all other Units over Common Elements serving such other Units and located in such other Units. The Sponsor and its designees, successors, assignees, agents and employees shall have an easement to complete construction under the Offering Plan and use of the common property for any lawful purpose including advertisement and sale of the Units.

POWER OF ATTORNEY

Each Unit Owner shall grant the Board of Managers an irrevocable power of attorney coupled with an interest to acquire title to or lease any Unit whose owner desires to surrender, sell or lease the same (but not vote the votes appurtenant thereto), to acquire the interest of a Unit Owner in any other Units theretofore acquired by the Board of Managers and to acquire the interest of a Unit Owner in all other assets of the Condominium which are subject to foreclosure or judicial sale.

TEXT OF DECLARATION AND BY-LAWS

A copy of the Declaration and a copy of the By-Laws are set forth in Part II of the Plan. A prospective Purchaser should read the Plan in its entirety.

TAXES - DEDUCTIONS TO UNIT OWNERS, AND TAX STATUS OF CONDOMINIUM

The following discussion provides a summary of certain significant Federal income tax consequences of, or relating to, the ownership of a Unit and the Federal income taxation of the Condominium. No income tax rulings will be requested from the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") or any other administrative agency with respect to any of the income tax consequences attributable to the Condominium's activities or ownership of a Unit. Although the Sponsor will receive an opinion of Forman & Associates, pc, (hereinafter referred to as the "Opinion" and "Counsel" respectively) with respect to the includability of Common Charges in the gross income of the Condominium and with respect to the deductibility of mortgage interest and real estate taxes with respect to the Units, such Opinion is not binding on the IRS. Each Purchaser should consult his/her own tax counsel as to the tax consequences of the Plan and of Unit ownership.

The statements set forth herein are based upon an analysis of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), New York State Tax Law, the Administrative Code of the City of New York, the applicable regulations promulgated or proposed thereunder, the current position of the applicable administrative agency, in particular, the position of the IRS stated in published Revenue Rulings and Revenue Procedures, and judicial decisions. It is emphasized, however, that legislative, judicial or administrative changes may be made which would require modification of such statements or that the IRS or other applicable administrative agency may disagree with Counsel's interpretations and conclusions.

Each Unit Owner will own his/her Unit and an undivided interest in the Common Elements in fee simple. Each Unit will be a separate tax lot for purposes of real estate taxes and assessments. Since each Unit Owner owns his/her Unit in fee simple, he/she may mortgage his/her Unit and become individually liable for the payment of the principal and any finance charges or interest on such mortgage indebtedness.

Unit Owners who itemize their deductions may, for Federal income tax purposes, be entitled to a deduction for mortgage interest and real estate taxes in the year paid or accrued, under Sections 163 and 164 of the Code. These deductions are subject, however, to certain exceptions and limitations that are more particularly discussed in the opinion including but not limited to limitations of interest deductions on residences to first and second homes and passive loss limitations on deductions for investors. Each individual Unit Owner may also, for New York State and New York City income tax purposes, be entitled to similar deductions for the mortgage interest and real estate taxes paid or accrued during the taxable year.

THERE ARE RECENT CHANGES IN THE TAX LAW THAT WOULD AFFECT DEDUCTIONS PARTICULARLY FOR NON-RESIDENT INVESTORS. IT IS RECOMMENDED THAT EACH PURCHASER CONSULT HIS/HER OWN TAX ADVISOR REGARDING THE PROPOSED CHANGES IN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CODE.

The Condominium will be governed by a Board of Managers. The Board of Managers will assess and collect Common Charges from the Unit Owners and will have certain discretionary powers over the operating expenses and the application of the assessments. While there is presently no direct authority as to the tax status of the Condominium for Federal income tax purposes, Sponsor's counsel is of the opinion that the Condominium will be treated as an association taxable as a corporation. As a result, the Condominium will be subject to Federal corporate income tax and New York State Corporation Franchise Tax and New York City corporate income tax to the extent of its taxable income, if any, unless subject to the exemptions under section 528 of the Code, discussed below.

The Condominium will be deemed to be a management association in the business of rendering services to the members of its organization. As such, its receipt of assessments for operating expenditures will constitute gross income. The Condominium will be entitled to offset against this income the expenses incurred in providing such services. However, it will be deemed to have taxable income to the extent that the Common Charges for operating expenditures exceed the expenses of the management association. Furthermore any interest earned from the temporary investment of the Common Charges will be taxable income to the Condominium.

Under certain circumstances, excess assessments (assessments collected by the Condominium in excess of the actual requirements for the years' operating expenditures) and special assessments may not be includable in the income of the Condominium. Excess assessments will not be included when the management association has no discretion as to the application of the excess funds. See Counsel's Tax Opinion for instances in which the IRS has determined that special assessments and excess assessments were not includable in the Condominium's taxable income.

Furthermore, if the Condominium satisfies the requirements of Section 528 of the Code and if it has filed a timely election to have this section apply, the Condominium may be exempt from Federal income taxes on the Common Charges and will be taxed on its other non-exempt income at the rate of thirty (30%) percent. The general requirements which must be met for Section 528 to apply are the following:

- (i) The Condominium management association must be organized and operated solely to provide for the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance, and care of association property;
- (ii) Sixty percent or more of the gross income of the Condominium management association must consist of assessments from residential Unit Owners;
- (iii) Ninety percent of the expenditures of the Condominium management association must be for the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance, and care of the Condominium management association's property;

(iv) No part of the net earnings can inure to the benefit of private individuals other than by the acquisition, construction, management, or maintenance of the Condominium management association's property; and,

(v) Substantially all of the Units must be used as residences.

Under the Treasury Regulations issued pursuant to Code Section 528, a Condominium management association must qualify annually for the election under Code Section 528 and make a separate election for each taxable year. Assuming a timely election is filed, it is the opinion of counsel for the Sponsor that, as presently constituted, the condominium meets the general requirements set forth above and would qualify as a homeowners association within the meaning of Code Section 528.

EACH PURCHASER SHOULD CONSULT HIS/HER OWN TAX EXPERT AS TO THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE PLAN AND OF UNIT OWNERSHIP.

NEITHER THE SPONSOR NOR COUNSEL FOR THE SPONSOR MAKE ANY WARRANTY THAT THE UNITED STATES TREASURY DEPARTMENT OR THE NEW YORK STATE DEPARTMENT OF TAXATION AND FINANCE OR THE DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK WILL ALLOW THE DEDUCTIONS, OR EXEMPTIONS OR THAT THE TAX LAW OR THE REGULATIONS OR RULINGS ISSUED THEREUNDER, OR ANY JUDICIAL INTERPRETATION THEREOF, UPON WHICH COUNSEL TO THE SPONSOR BASES ITS OPINION, WILL NOT CHANGE SO AS TO DISALLOW THE DEDUCTIONS OR EXEMPTIONS IN WHOLE OR IN PART.

See section entitled "COUNSEL'S TAX OPINION".

The Sponsor has consulted with Jerome Mazursky of The Mazursky Group, Inc., 42 Broadway, Suite 1744, New York, New York 10004 and Orah Rubel of Ben Rottenstein Associates, Inc., 56 Willoughby Street, Brooklyn, New York 11201 for their respective opinions as to the assessed valuations of the Property, the projected real estate taxes and the eligibility of the building for 11-243 (formerly known as J-51) benefits. The Sponsor will use its best efforts to obtain J-51 benefits for the Condominium.

Jerome Mazursky has estimated the assessed valuation for the project after the rehabilitation. In his letter dated September 8, 2004, Mr. Mazursky estimates that after the renovation, the 2005/2006 assessed valuation will be $1,100,000.00 of which $400,000.00 will represent the increase attributable to the renovation and will be eligible for 11-243 benefits.

The recent history of the assessed valuation of 13 East 30th Street is as follows:

2003/04	Land	Total
Actual:	$225,000.00	$508,500.00
Transitional:	$207,000.00	$427,860.00

2004/05	Land	Total
Actual:	$317,700.00	$601,200.00
Transitional:	$230,040.00	$511,380.00

Mr. Mazursky has estimated the 2005/06 assessed valuation will be as follows:

2005/06	Land	Total
Actual:	$360,000.00	$1,100,000.00
Transitional:	$360,000.00	$1,100,000.00

Mr. Mazursky estimates that the Commercial Unit will be assessed at 16% and the Residential Units at 84% of the assessed valuation. Mr. Mazursky has estimated the tax liability for the first year of operation for the Residential Units beginning July 1, 2005 at $117,348.00 calculated as follows:

7/1/05-6/30/06

$$$1,100,000.00 \times 84\% \times .1270 = $117,348.00$$

If 11-243 tax exemption benefits are granted, the real estate taxes in the first year of operation are estimated at $60,642.00. The calculations are as follows:

7/1/05-6/30/06

$$$1,100,000.00 \times 84\% - $400,000.00 \times .1270 - $8,700.00 = $57,848.00$$

In a letter dated July 9, 2004, Orah Rubel of Ben Rottenstein Associates, Inc. has advised the Sponsor that it is her opinion that the Department of Housing Preservation and Development ("HPD") will consider the property eligible for real estate exemption and tax abatement benefits under Section 11-243 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York ("NYC Administrative Code").

The J-51 program sets limits on maximum benefits based on the number of eligible Residential Units created and the number of rooms per unit. No benefits are given for work on the commercial portion of the property. Based on current limitations and the information supplied regarding the work, it is estimated that the maximum J-51 abatement will not exceed $104,400.00 to be applied at the rate of 8-1/3% per annum until 50% is granted. Given the estimated construction costs, Ms. Rubel anticipates that the Condominium would qualify for an abatement of approximately $104,40.00.

An exemption will be granted for any tax increase due to the renovations for a period of 14 years, with 100% exemption for 10 years, followed by a 20% phase-out of the exemption in each of the succeeding four (4) years.

This legislation and other amendments to the Section 11-243 Program include the withdrawal of benefits for the conversion of Class B dwellings to Class A dwellings, restrictions on loft conversions, reduction of the "cap" on maximum abatement benefits and the removal of benefits for "luxury" conversions among other changes. These provisions limit exemptions, in some cases, by creating a sliding scale for the exemption based on the post rehabilitation assessed valuation. In addition, the Certificate of Reasonable Cost would be subject to a dollar limit of $15,000.00 per dwelling unit (based on a unit of 3.5 rooms). This limitation will not apply in the case of the subject property.

No assurances can be given that the Assessed Valuation and/or tax rate will remain the same during the duration of the benefits, and if either increases, the real estate taxes may increase. The ratio of exempt to non-exempt portions of the building's assessed value shall remain the same throughout the period of tax exemption, notwithstanding any subsequent increase in assessed value during this period.

It should be noted that once 11-243 benefits are granted, certain subsequent events could cause their reduction or revocation. Under Section 5-07(e) of the Regulations, the Commissioner of HPD may reduce or revoke past or future tax exemptions or abatements if he finds that the 11-243 application contained a false statement as to a material matter or omits a material fact.

All interested parties should be aware that HPD routinely conducts audits and requires that, pursuant to section 5-07(b) of the regulations, all books, records and documents be kept and retained for three years after completion of the application and made available to HPD should such documentation be requested. Failure to comply with audit requirements can result in the reduction or loss of 11-243 benefits.

Please note that, after the 11-243 application has been approved by HPD, benefits will not actually commence so long as previous real estate taxes and water and sewer charges remain unpaid. The 11-243 real estate tax abatement and exemption benefits to be awarded to this property are not retroactive. All real estate taxes which are due during the period of construction and up to the commencement of benefits must be paid in full.

In addition, once begun, tax abatement and exemption benefits can be revoked in the event that real estate taxes, water charges, or sewer charges remain unpaid for one year after they become due and payable to the City. Failure by one Condominium owner to pay the taxes and/or charges applicable to his/her unit will not jeopardize the benefits of other unit owners.

After the Units are separately assessed, each Unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes and that the Unit Owner will not be responsible for the payment of, nor will the Unit be subjected to, any lien arising from the non-payment of taxes on other Units. If the Units have not been separately assessed for real estate tax purposes prior to the closing of title to the first Unit, the Sponsor or Board of Managers may advance any real estate taxes due and the Unit Owners will make payments towards real estate taxes to the Sponsor or Board of Managers.

THE CITY OF NEW YORK MAY ASSESS EACH UNIT ON A BASIS THAT DIFFERS FROM THE ALLOCATION OF COMMON INTERESTS AND MAY BE EITHER HIGHER OR LOWER THAN REFLECTED IN SCHEDULE "A" IN FUTURE YEARS.

DUE TO POSSIBLE INCREASES IN THE TAX RATE AND/OR POSSIBLE FURTHER INCREASES IN THE PROPERTY'S ASSESSED VALUATION, REAL ESTATE TAXES MAY BE HIGHER THAN AS SET FORTH ABOVE, AFTER THE FIRST YEAR OF OPERATION AND IN FUTURE YEARS.

NO WARRANTY IS OR CAN BE MADE BY SPONSOR OR ANY OTHER PERSON THAT THE NEW YORK CITY DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING PRESERVATION AND DEVELOPMENT OR THE NEW YORK CITY REAL PROPERTY ASSESSMENT DEPARTMENT, OR ANY OTHER AGENCY WITH JURISDICTION, WILL APPROVE SPONSOR'S APPLICATION FOR 11-243 TAX BENEFITS, AND NEITHER THE SPONSOR NOR ITS COUNSEL SHALL BE LIABLE IF, BECAUSE OF A CHANGE IN LAWS AND/OR REGULATIONS OR THE INTERPRETATION OF LAWS AND/OR REGULATIONS (OR, AS TO FORMAN & ASSOCIATES, pc IF THE FACTS REPRESENTED BY SPONSOR PROVE INCORRECT) THE PROPERTY FAILS TO OBTAIN IN WHOLE OR IN PART 11-243 BENEFITS. SHOULD TAX BENEFITS BE DENIED, IN WHOLE OR IN PART, THEN THE CONDOMINIUM WILL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL OF THE TAXES DUE AND OWING.

See section entitled "COUNSEL'S TAX OPINION" for further details.

The projected income tax deduction may vary in the future due to changes in real property taxes resulting from changes in the Assessed Valuation, the tax rate or the method of assessing real property.

There are no certiorari proceedings pending to challenge past Assessed Valuations.

The Board of Managers may make its own motion or by vote of a majority of the Unit Owners, to file a petition to challenge the real estate tax assessment in the Units. Otherwise, a Unit Owner shall have the right to individually challenge the real estate tax assessment on his/her Unit by filing the appropriate certiorari petition in a timely fashion. See Article IV Section 2.q. of the By-Laws.

I, JEROME MAZURSKY, CERTIFY:

THAT I am a real estate appraiser and have many years of experience in the assessment of real estate for tax purposes both as an Assessor in the Borough of Manhattan and as the Department of Finance's Assistant Commissioner of the Real Property Assessment Division;

THAT I have been retained by 13 East 30 Street Associates, LP to estimate for inclusion in an Offering Plan to be submitted to the Attorney General, the assessed valuation of the above-captioned property after renovation and conversion to condominium status;

THAT in estimating the assessed valuation of the property, I am aware of the renovation costs, rental values and offering prices of the units;

THAT I have consulted with personnel in the Property Division of the Department of Finance regarding the current practice in assessing newly renovated and converted condominium buildings. Specifically, discussions centered around appropriate land and building factors and income projections for properties similar to the subject in type and location.

I have discovered the following:

- 1) The subject is a seven-story commercial loft building (L8) located at 13 East 30th Street in the Borough of Manhattan. It is currently identified on the city's tax records as Block 860 Lot 11.

The site has 21' 5" frontage on the northerly side of East 30th Street and extends approximately 85' in depth. It is rectangularly-shaped and contains 1,820 square feet of ground area.

- 2) The sponsor has gut-renovated the building and intends to convert the property into a seven-unit condominium containing one retail and six residential units. The renovation was started in 2002 and completed in April 2004. On January 5, 2004, the city's taxable status date, it was approximately 90% completed. The building contains the following approximate net square foot areas and uses:

FLOOR	AREA	USE
Cellar	1,820	Boiler, Storage, Mechanical Rooms, Lower Level of the Ground Floor Retail Unit
Ground	1,820	1- Retail Unit, Residential Entry
2-7	9,640	6-2BR Apartments

- 3) The property is currently assessed in Tax Class 4. After the city recognizes the completion of construction and the establishment of a condominium, both the commercial and residential units will be assessed in Tax Class 2C under the classification system adopted by the State Legislature in its revision of the Real Property Tax Law (Section 305, Article 1802, and Section 581, applicable to the assessment of cooperative apartments and condominiums.)

Tax Class 4 includes most properties with uses other than residential. Tax Class 2C consists of primarily residential cooperatives or condominiums with no more than ten units. The City's assessment ratio policy for both tax classes is to assess each property at 45% of market value based upon the value as an income-producing property. Increased values for properties in Tax Class 4, other than for physical reasons, are unlimited, but are required to be phased-in over a five year period. Increases, in Tax Class 2C, for other than physical changes, are limited to 8% per year or 30% over a five year period.

3) cont'd. The Class 4 tax rate for 2004/05 is $11.431 per $100. The Class 2C rate is $12.62 per $100. Over the past few years, the City Council has adjusted the rates in January. I estimate the tax rates for 2004/05 and 2005/06 at $12.70 per $100 for Tax Class 2C and $11.50 per $100 for Tax Class 4.

4) The recent history of assessed valuation of 13 East 30th Street is as follows:

2002/03	Land	Total
Actual:	$ 202,500	$ 522,000
Transitional:	$ 202,500	$ 394,110

2003/04	Land	Total
Actual:	$ 225,000	$ 508,500
Transitional:	$ 207,000	$ 427,860

2004/05	Land	Total
Transitional:	$ 230,040	$ 511,380

5) The property's building values do not reflect the physical changes that occurred to the building in tax years 2003/04 and 2004/05. I estimate that there will be a substantial physical increase to the building value for 2005/06 tax period. It is my judgment that the total assessed valuation of the property will be increased $498,800, of which, an estimated $400,000 may be eligible for J51 exemption.

2005/06	Land	Total
Transitional:	$ 360,000	$ 1,100,000

6) Using relative values as a rental building as the criterion, I have estimated that the retail unit will be assessed at 16%, and the residential units at 84% of the total assessed valuation. The tax liability for the retail and residential units during the first year of operation is estimated at $22,352 and $117,348, respectively. The calculations are as follows:

$$\begin{array}{l} \text{Retail Unit} \\ \text{7/01/05 - 6/30/06} \\ $1,100,000^1 \times .16^2 \times .1270^3 = $ 22,352 \end{array}$$

$$\begin{array}{l} \text{Residential Units} \\ \text{7/01/05 - 6/30/06} \\ $1,100,000^1 \times .84^2 \times .1270^3 = $ 117,348 \end{array}$$

6) cont'd. Each unit will be given a separate tax lot number. Individual tax liability for each type of space may be estimated by apportioning the total tax among the unit owners in proportion to the relative value of their space as indicated by the Offering Plan prices.

7) It is my understanding that the sponsor is seeking J-51 real estate tax exemption benefits for the residential units. If granted, I have estimated that in the first year of operation beginning July 1, 2005, the tax, with J-51 exemption benefits will be $57,848. The calculations are as follows:

$$$1,100,000^1 \times .84^2 - $400,000^4 \times .1270^3 - $8,700^5 = $57,848$$

8) The co-op/condominium real estate tax abatement law, that over the past three years has had a favorable effect on the real estate tax burden of residential co-op and condominium unit owners, was recently renewed by the state legislature. The legislature indicated its intention in passing this law was to address the disparity between the tax burden of one to three family homeowners and that of residential co-op and condominium unit owners. If the abatement is granted, the law will allow up to a 17.5% abatement of the real estate tax bill of a unit owner who owned fewer than four units on the city's taxable status date of January 5, 2005. Properties that receive J-51 or 421a tax exemption benefits are not eligible for the tax abatement.

9) This estimate of the assessed valuation has been prepared for inclusion in the Offering Plan, and I consent to its use for this purpose.

Although the aforesaid estimate of the Actual Assessed Valuation is a good-faith estimate, it is not possible to estimate same with any degree of certainty. Assessed valuations, when actually made, may be lesser or greater based on our interpretation of the administrative code and the applicable rules and regulations of the City of New York. Although I believe my opinions are well-founded, they are not intended, and should not be construed as warranties as to future assessed valuations of the property under discussion.

In no event will this firm, the Sponsor, the Sponsor's counsel or any other person be liable if the assessed valuation, when actually made, is lesser or greater than that estimated above, or if the administrative code and the applicable rules and regulations of the City of New York are changed in the future, or if the facts as represented prove to be untrue.

Re: 13 East 30th Street, Manhattan

Gentlemen:

You have requested our opinion as to the eligibility of the above referenced property for real estate tax abatement and tax exemption benefits under Section 11-243 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York (Sec. J51) and an estimate of what those benefits would be.

The real estate tax benefits which are available to eligible properties under Section J51 are as follows:

TAX EXEMPTION

In some instances some or all of any increase in a building's assessed valuation resulting from the conversion, alteration, or improvement of such building structure performed pursuant to Section J51, except insofar as the gross cubic content of the building is increased thereby, may be exempt from taxation for a period of fourteen years. The land value shall not be exempt from any increase in assessed valuation.

TAX ABATEMENT

The taxes which are attributable to the non-exempt portion of the assessed valuation may be abated and reduced by an amount no greater than 81/3% of the Certificate of Reasonable Cost (CRC) to be issued by the Department of Housing Preservation and Development (HPD) for a period of not less than 6 years and not to exceed 20 years.

BEN ROTTENSTEIN ASSOCIATES INC.

REAL ESTATE TAX CONSULTANTS

You have advised us that you intend to rehabilitate a vacant commercial building to a total of 6 residential condominium units of two bedrooms each and a store. Your estimated construction costs are estimated to be about $396,472. You have also advised us that this conversion is as of right and no variance is required. The construction is being performed under an Alteration Type I issued by the Building Department and a new Certificate of Occupancy is expected in a timely manner within the three (3) year limitation of start to finish.

The J-51 program sets limits on maximum benefits based on the number of eligible residential units created and the number of rooms per unit. No benefits are given for work on the commercial portion of the property. Based on current limitations and the information supplied to us regarding the work, it is estimated that the maximum J-51 abatement will not exceed $104,400 to be applied at the rate of 8 1/3 % per annum until 50% is granted. Given your estimated construction costs, we would anticipate that you would qualify for an abatement of approximately $104,400.

An exemption will be granted for any tax increase due to the renovations for a period of 14 years, with 100% exemption for 10 years, followed by a 20% phase-out of the exemption in each of the succeeding four (4) years.

The above estimates are based on information you have provided to this firm. These estimates are in no way to be construed as a guarantee or warrant that the property will be eligible for J-51 benefits, or that the property will obtain these estimated benefits. This firm will not be held liable if the property does not qualify for J-51 benefits or if benefits are not granted as estimated.

Very truly yours,

BEN ROTTENSTEIN ASSOCIATES INC.

Orah Rubel

Please note J-51 and 11-243 are used interchangeably.

WORKING CAPITAL FUND

At closing of title to each Unit, the Unit Owner for such Unit will contribute an amount equal to one month of estimated Common Charges for such Unit (see Schedule A) to the capital of the Condominium as a Working Capital Fund (see "CLOSING COSTS AND ADJUSTMENTS"). The Working Capital Fund will be held and used for working capital, a reserve for repairs or for such other appropriate purposes as will be determined by the Board of Managers and will be augmented by allocations from the monthly Common Charges collected from each Unit. While the Sponsor controls the Board of Managers (see "CONTROL BY SPONSOR"), the Working Capital Fund will not be used to reduce estimated Common Charges.

The Sponsor, from the first proceeds obtained at the First Closing with a Purchaser pursuant to a Purchase Agreement, will establish a Working Capital Fund in the sum of $3,000.00. This Working Capital Fund will be used (i) to pay the closing adjustments to the extent set forth below and (ii) the balance thereof may be held for working capital, to make repairs and improvements, and for appropriate purposes as determined by the Board of Managers, particularly to meet emergencies not budgeted for in "Schedule B."

If the net closing adjustments referred to below are in favor of the Condominium, the amount thereof will be paid or credited to the Board of Managers. If the net closing adjustments are in favor of the Sponsor, the Sponsor waives any net closing adjustments in its favor on the First Closing which would reduce the Working Capital Fund below the sum of $1,000.00.

No representation is made that the Working Capital Fund will be adequate to cover current or future expenses. If additional funds are required over and above the Working Capital Fund, it may be necessary to increase Common Charges or separately assess all Unit Owners.

THE PROPERTY IS OFFERED IN ITS RENOVATED CONDITION EXCEPT AS SET FORTH IN THIS OFFERING PLAN, WITHOUT ANY OBLIGATION BY SPONSOR OR THE CONDOMINIUM TO MAKE ANY OTHER REPAIRS AND/OR IMPROVEMENTS. NEITHER THE DEPARTMENT OF LAW NOR ANY OTHER GOVERNMENT AGENCY HAS PASSED UPON OR WILL PASS UPON THE ADEQUACY OF THE WORKING CAPITAL FUND OR ON THE PHYSICAL CONDITION OF THE BUILDING.

RESERVE FUND

There is no Reserve Fund

Inasmuch as the building has been completely renovated, it is anticipated that the major components of the building will live out their anticipated life expectancies. Accordingly, the Board of Managers will have to make whatever arrangements they deem necessary to provide for the future replacement of these major building components at such time as they shall need to be replaced.

GENERAL

This Plan does not knowingly omit any material fact or knowingly contain any untrue statement of a material fact. This Plan does not contain a full summary of all the provisions of the various documents referred to herein. True copies of the Declaration, Deed, Affidavit, Purchase Agreement, By-Laws and Rules and Regulations are contained in Part II hereof. Statements made herein as to the provisions of such documents are qualified in all respects by the contents of such documents.

There are no lawsuits or other proceedings now pending, or any judgments outstanding, either against the Sponsor or the Condominium or any person or persons, which might become a lien against the Property or which, in any way, will materially or adversely affect this Plan or the operation of the Condominium.

In accordance with the provisions of the Laws of the City of New York, the Sponsor represents that the Sponsor, the Condominium, and the Sponsor as Holder(s) of Unsold Units, will not discriminate against any person because of his/her race, creed, color, sex, national origin, ancestry, disability, marital status or on any basis prohibited by civil rights laws in the sale of Units offered by this Plan, or in the leasing of any Unit in the Building.

The Sponsor reserves the right to amend this Plan at any time (a) before this Plan is declared effective provided that, if the amendment effects any material change in this Plan for uncontracted Units and is not made for the purpose of declaring this Plan effective or increases Schedule B by more than 25%, anyone who has previously submitted an executed Purchase Agreement to the Sponsor shall be given not less than 15 days in which to elect to reaffirm or to cancel the Purchase Agreement and, in the latter event, to obtain a refund, in full, of the Down Payment made therewith; or (b) after this Plan is declared effective, subject to the rights of persons who have previously submitted executed Purchase Agreements to the Sponsor unless, at the election of the Sponsor, anyone who has submitted to the Sponsor an executed Purchase Agreement is given an election to reaffirm or cancel his/her agreement as provided in the preceding clause (a) of this sentence.

Any material misrepresentation of fact or untrue statement set forth herein may be a violation of the Martin Act.

In the event any of the material representations and warranties set forth in the Plan shall be untrue or incorrect on or prior to the date of the First Closing for an individual Unit, or if the Sponsor shall fail to pay or perform any of its foregoing undertakings, then the sole contractual right or remedy of a Purchaser in good standing under the Plan shall be to rescind his/her Purchase Agreement and be refunded his/her entire Down Payment, with interest. Such rescission, as to a Purchaser who first became an occupant of the Building after the Plan was originally presented shall be conditioned on the cancellation of the Use and Occupancy Agreement, if the Plan is subsequently amended to provide for prior occupancy of the Unit and surrender of possession of his/her Unit within thirty (30) days after the exercise of such right to cancel. Those Purchasers electing to proceed, nevertheless, with the purchase of their Units will not be entitled to any credit against, or abatement in the purchase price and will have no claim or right of action against the Sponsor or the Condominium by reason thereof, except that there shall be no limitation on Purchaser's remedies as to any defaulted obligation to be paid or performed by the Sponsor subsequent to the Closing Date.

The Sponsor represents that the Property has not previously been the subject of any prior public offering.

As of the date the Offering Plan is accepted for filing, neither the Sponsor, nor any representative or agent thereof will have raised funds or made any preliminary offering or binding agreements to or with prospective Purchasers with respect to any Unit in the Building.

No person has been authorized to make any statement or representation which is not expressly contained herein. Information, data or representations not contained herein, or in the exhibits referred to herein, must not be relied upon. This Plan may not be changed or modified orally.

Any references in this Plan to any one gender, masculine, feminine, or neuter, includes the other two, and the singular includes the plural, and vice versa, unless the context otherwise requires.

The "DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPERTY, SPECIFICATIONS AND BUILDING CONDITION", prepared by DAVID H. TURNER, Registered Architect, of David Turner Architects, P.C., has been included in this Plan and all statements and representations made in this Plan with respect thereto, have been made in reliance upon the said architect in preparing same and his authority as an expert.

The Sponsor agrees to pay such interest on deposits as a court may consider just and proper as part of an order granted pursuant to Section 354 of the General Business Law.

AIR AND DEVELOPMENT RIGHTS

The Sponsor is reserving the right to transfer air or development rights to other buildings and has created a separate tax lot, which will be comprised of the development space above the limiting horizontal plane, which creates the upper limit of the property of the Condominium. The Sponsor has the right to add up to 700 square feet of area with 25-foot ceilings. The ownership of the development space above the horizontal plane and all other rights attributable to that space, including all right, title and interest in and to the air and development rights above unused floor area and other development rights of the Property, has been retained by the Sponsor (the "Development Rights"). The development space and the air and development rights retained by Sponsor are not part of the Common Elements of the Condominium.

Notwithstanding anything herein contained, the rights of the Owners of the Units, to the restoration and repair or replacement of the Building and the Units in the event of damage or destruction by fire or other casualty to substantially their respective height, size, configuration and usefulness prior to the damage shall not be affected by the fact that any unused development rights at the Property under the Zoning Regulations of the City have been retained by the Sponsor.

SPONSORS STATEMENT OF BUILDING CONDITION

The Sponsor hereby adopts the "DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPERTY AND BUILDING CONDITION" as set forth in Part II of this Plan at page A-1. With reference to the Sponsor's preparation of such material, it consulted with DAVID H. TURNER, Registered Architect of David Turner Architects, P.C., with an office at 450 Seventh Avenue, Suite 1907, New York, New York 10123. The Sponsor represents that it does not know of any material defects, or need for major repairs except as set forth in the "DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPERTY AND BUILDING CONDITION". To the best of the Sponsor's knowledge, the description accurately describes the condition of the Building and its equipment. (See "DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY AND BUILDING CONDITION" in Part II of the Plan).

The Sponsor purchased the Property in its renovated condition. Neither the Sponsor nor the Condominium shall have any obligation to make repairs or improvements of any kind to the Building or the Property except as expressly set forth in this Plan. The Sponsor makes no representation or warranty that any portion of the Building or its systems will continue to operate. However, the Sponsor represents that it will maintain and operate the Building until the First Closing in substantially the manner and condition as on the date the Plan was accepted for filing, normal wear and tear excepted.

The Sponsor represents that it, at its sole cost and expense, shall cure or cause to be cured all notices or violations, municipal ordinances, orders or requirements issued by the Department of Buildings, Department of Housing, Preservation and Development, Fire Department, Labor Department, Health Department or other municipal departments having jurisdiction against or affecting the Property on the First Closing. The Sponsor represents that it will eliminate all known dangerous and hazardous conditions of which it has received notice. The Sponsor shall comply with all work orders received from mortgagees. Except for hazardous conditions which shall be cured prior to closing, in the event that the Sponsor has not cured violations by the First Closing, the Sponsor shall cure said violations within 180 days thereafter.

If any violations are not cured prior to the First Closing, the Sponsor's attorney will hold the funds required to cure such violations, an amount to be determined by an independent Architect or Engineer in a special escrow account at North Fork Bank, 90 West Broadway, New York, New York 10007, until such violations are removed from record.

Neither the Sponsor nor the Condominium makes any representations or warranties as to the condition of the Building other than as set forth above and in the "DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPERTY AND BUILDING CONDITION" as set forth in Part II of this Offering Plan, upon which the Sponsor has relied entirely. Prospective purchasers are urged to carefully review this report particularly those sections of the report which may indicate that repairs and/or improvements to the Building or Units may be required. PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS ARE CAUTIONED TO CAREFULLY

INSPECT THE PHYSICAL CONDITION OF THE UNIT WHICH THEY INTEND TO ACQUIRE. ALL UNITS ARE TO BE CONVEYED IN THEIR RENOVATED CONDITION EXCEPT AS SPECIFICALLY SET FORTH HEREIN.

Re: Offering Plan for the Conversion to Condominium Ownership of Premises:
13 East 30th Street, New York, New York

Ladies & Gentlemen:

You have requested our opinion concerning (i) the availability of certain deductions for Federal, New York State and New York City income tax purposes to individual persons who purchase Residential Units for residential use ("Unit Owners") under the Offering Plan for the EMPIRE/30 CONDOMINIUM (the "Plan") and the Federal income tax treatment of the Common Charges received by the condominium association of the condominium (the "Condominium"). We make no opinion or representation as to possible tax benefits or obligations as they would relate to corporations or partnerships which might hold a residential unit.

In connection with rendering this opinion, we have reviewed the Plan, the schedules and exhibits thereto, the Declaration of the Condominium Plan (the "Declaration"), the By-Laws of the Condominium (the "By-Laws"), the relevant sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, (the "Code"), including the Regulations promulgated thereunder by the Treasury Department (the "Treas. Regs"), the New York State Tax Law, the Administrative Code of the City of New York, revenue rulings, case law and such other materials as we have deemed relevant.

FACTS

You have advised us that, to the best of your knowledge, the following statements are an accurate summary of the relevant facts, and our opinion is conditioned upon the accuracy of such facts.

13 EAST 30 STREET ASSOCIATES, L.P., a New York limited partnership, (the "Sponsor") will apply to the Department of Law of the State of New York to establish the Premises located at 13 East 30th Street, New York, New York as a condominium pursuant to the provisions of New York State's Condominium Act. See Article 9-B of the Real Property Law of the State of New York.

The Condominium will consist of six (6) Residential Units (the "Units") and one (1) Commercial Unit. Each holder of a Unit will own his/her own Unit plus an individual interest in the elements common to all Units (the "Common Elements"). Each Unit Owner will be entitled to the exclusive ownership and possession of his/her unit and will receive a separate deed to the Unit.

The Condominium will be operated by a Board of Managers which, pursuant to Article III, Section 2 of the By-Laws, will act only as an agent of all Unit Owners. The Board of Managers will be comprised of at least three (3) but not more than five (5) members, who shall each be elected by the Unit Owners. See Article IV, Section 1 of the By-Laws. The primary function of the Board of Managers will be to supervise the maintenance and operation of the Common Elements, and collect charges (the "Common Charges") necessary to maintain and operate the Common Elements.

In accordance with New York Real Property Law Article 9-B, Section 339-i(1)(ii) of the Condominium Act, the percentage interests of the respective Units in the Common Elements have been determined on the basis of the approximately proportion that the floor area of the Unit bears to the then aggregate floor area of all Units, but such proportion shall reflect the substantially exclusive advantages enjoyed by one or more but not all Units in a part or parts of the Common Elements..

DISCUSSION

I. Mortgage Interest and Real Estate Taxes and Other Deductions

Under the Condominium Act, each Unit Owner will own his/her Unit and its appurtenant interest in the Common Elements in fee simple, and each Unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes. See Sections 339-g and 339-y of the Condominium Act. Each Unit Owner may mortgage his/her Unit and become individually liable for the payment of the principal and any finance charges or interest on such mortgage indebtedness. See Article VIII, Section 11 of the By-Laws. Failure to pay his/her share of the Common Charges will result in the Board of Managers having a lien on the Unit for the unpaid Common Charges. See Section 339-Z of the Condominium Act.

The deductibility of the mortgage interest and real estate taxes paid or accrued by the Unit Owner during his/her taxable year will be governed by sections 163 and 164 of the Code. Section 163 of the Code allows a taxpayer to deduct all interest paid or accrued during the taxable year on qualified indebtedness. To be entitled to this deduction for interest, there is no requirement that the debt arise out of a trade or business or be profit-motivated; however, the indebtedness must be bona fide. However, if such indebtedness is not in connection with the Unit Owner's trade of business or for investment, such deductions will be limited to qualified interest. Qualified residential interest generally is interest on a debt which is secured under local law by the taxpayers primary residence or a second home. Furthermore, such interest may not be in excess of the lesser of the fair market value of the property or the taxpayer's original basis in the Unit only adjusted by improvements and qualified indebtedness increased by amounts borrowed for qualified medical expenses incurred after August 16, 1986 and qualified educational expenses incurred after August 16, 1986. However, the taxpayer's basis in the residence is determined without other adjustments in basis such as depreciation. If a Unit Owner has more than two residences he/she will not be able to deduct his/her interest on the mortgage. Furthermore, if a taxpayer refinanced or received an equity loan, interest deductions would be limited to the original basis in the Unit adjusted only by improvements and qualified education and medical expenses as discussed above. Section 164 of the Code allows a taxpayer to deduct real estate taxes paid or accrued during the taxable year. Since Sections 339-g and 339-y of the Condominium Act provide that each Unit and its common interest shall be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate purposes, Unit Owners shall be entitled to deduct real estates tax paid or incurred on their Units during the taxable year. In no event shall the aggregate of the assessment of the individual Units plus their common interests exceed the total valuation of the Property were it assessed as a single parcel. See Section 339-y of the Condominium Act.

The deduction under Section 163 of the Code for interest is subject to certain other provisions of the Code which may limit the amount of the deduction in any one taxable year. For example under Section 461(g) of the Code, prepaid interest is not deductible by a cash basis taxpayer in the year of payment but must be allocated to the taxable year or years to which it is chargeable. However, the payment of "points" (bank origination fee) is deductible under certain circumstances in the year of payment, provided that the indebtedness was incurred by the taxpayer in connection with the purchase or improvement of his/her principal residence, and the other requirements of Code Section 461(g)(2) are complied with.

FORMAN & ASSOCIATES, PC

We note that a taxpayer who purchases a Unit for investment may find his/her interest deduction limited by Code Section 163(d). Under this Section, a taxpayer other than a corporation will be subject to a ceiling on his/her deductions including interest to the total of net investment income. Investment interest is defined as interest paid or accrued on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry property for investment. Net investment income is the excess of investment income less investment expense. To the extent that the taxpayer has investment interest (defined as the gross income from interest, dividends, rents, royalties, net short term capital gains and recapture income), he/she will only be able to deduct such interest against net investment income and will not be able to use such deductions to offset earned income or income from his/her trade or business. See generally Code Section 163(d).

We also note that Code Section 265(2) may impact on the interest deduction otherwise allowable to a taxpayer in the event that he/she incurs debt to finance his/her purchase of a Unit rather than liquidate his/her portfolio of tax exempt securities. Under these circumstances Code Section 265(2) may disallow the taxpayer's interest deduction since he/she would be deemed to have incurred the debt to "continue to carry" the tax-exempt obligations. However, revenue rulings have made an exception for debt incurred to purchase the taxpayer's principal residence, so that only the taxpayer who is purchasing for investment should consider the possible impact of this section.

In Revenue Ruling 64-31, 1964-1 C.B. 300, the Internal Revenue Service (the "Service") considered the deductibility of mortgage interest and real estate taxes incurred by the owner of a condominium unit. The Service ruled that Sections 163 and 164 of the Code, respectively, permitted these deductions by the Condominium Unit Owner provided that he/she itemized his/her deductions in filing his/her Federal income tax returns.

In our opinion, under Code Sections 163 and 164 respectively, a Unit Owner will, for Federal income tax purposes, be entitled to a deduction for qualified interest paid or accrued with respect to any mortgage indebtedness and for real estate taxes paid or accrued with respect to his/her ownership of a Unit during a taxable year, in accordance with his/her method of accounting and in accordance with the limitations discussed herein.

Prospective purchasers should be aware of the possible impact of the alternative minimum tax. Section 55 of the Code provides for an alternative minimum tax to twenty-one (21%) percent of the taxpayers adjusted gross income, after certain exclusions and deductions are allowed. If the alternative minimum tax exceeds the tax otherwise payable by the taxpayer on his/her income, it becomes the tax due. The effect of the alternative minimum tax is to cut back the tax benefits of itemized deductions, which include deductions for real estate taxes and mortgage interest.

Prospective purchasers should consult with their tax professionals to determine whether they will be subject to the alternative minimum tax, and also with regard to possible recent changes in the alternative minimum tax.

Unit Owners who lease their Units to another in connection with a Unit Owner's trade or business, for the purposes of investment, or for the production of income, as well as Unit Owners who have home/office combinations are allowed deductions for depreciation. However, under the Act accelerated depreciation has been eliminated and a longer (27.5) year straight-line recovery period is now used for residential real estate. The result of this is that depreciation deductions have been reduced and it will take an investor 27.5 years to recover his/her investment in the property. Furthermore, depreciation deductions may not exceed the adjusted basis of the Unit in the taxable year in which the deduction is incurred and further deductions are limited in the case of home/office combinations to the Unit Owners net income from the business. However, any amount disallowed in a taxable year may be carried forward in succeeding taxable years subject to new income limitations in such years and provided the depreciation deduction meets the requirements of Section 167(a) of the Code.

Code Section 465 provides specific "at risk" provisions and special partnership "at risk" provisions. Section 465 provides that an investor in certain specified types of activities cannot deduct the losses incurred in such activities for a given year that are in excess of the amounts that the investor has "at risk" in such activities at the end of the year.

Further, the Act has extended the "at risk" rules to the holding of real property with an exception for qualified nonrecourse financing secured by real property used in the activity to the effect that the taxpayer is treated "at risk" with respect to such financing. Nonrecourse means that no person is personally liable for the repayment of the debt. Qualified nonrecourse financing includes financing secured by real property used in the activity and loaned by a Federal State or local government or instrumentality; or guaranteed by same or loaned by a Qualified Person. Qualified Persons are those actively engaged in the business of lending money. Such would generally, include governmentally regulated banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions, or a pension trust. Qualified Persons do not include any person from whom the property was acquired, (or a person related to such person), or who receives a fee with respect to the taxpayers' investment (or a person related to such a person). Seller or promoter financing are therefore not considered qualified nonrecourse financing.

Investors are advised that their aggregate allowable deductions and losses from an investment herein, may, for a number of reasons, be limited to the amount of their investment herein as adjusted.

FORMAN & ASSOCIATES, PC

Pursuant to the Act losses from passive activity will be limited in deductibility in any tax year, to passive investment income for that tax year. Investors are advised to seek tax council in regard to what constitutes a passive activity and passive investment income.

Deductions from passive activities, to the extent that they exceed income from all such activities (exclusive of portfolio income), generally may not be deducted against other income of the taxpayer. Similarly, credits from passive activities generally are limited to the tax allocable to the passive activities. Suspended losses and credits are carried forward and treated as deductions and credits from passive activities in the next taxable year. When the taxpayer disposes of his/her entire interest in an activity, any remaining suspended loss incurred in connection with the activity is allowed in full.

Rental activity is by definition passive income. Losses from passive activity can with one exception discussed below, only be deducted from passive income and cannot be used to offset non-passive income. However an individual who actively participates in managing rental activity may offset up to $25,000.00 of above income provided his/her adjusted gross income does not exceed $100,000.00. Starting at $100,000.00 the amount of the offset is reduced and is totally eliminated for adjusted gross incomes of $150,000.00 and above. Examples of actively participating in rental activity would include approving new tenants, deciding on the terms of such tenants leases, arranging for repairs and approving expenses and capital improvements within the Unit.

The Act requires that net passive activity loss (the excess of aggregate passive activity loss after subtraction of aggregate passive income for a taxable year), will not be allowed as a deduction in a taxable year, but instead will be "suspended" as above. Loss from a passive activity generally are deductible only against income from that or another passive activity. Disallowed passive activity loss for a taxable year will be carried over ("suspended") and treated as a deduction in the immediately subsequent year against passive activity income. A taxpayer's passive activity income must be reduced first by current and suspended passive deductions before non-passive and net operating loss may be considered in calculating his/her return, except for those actively involved in managing rental activity provided the adjusted gains income of the investor does not exceed $100,000.00.

The "At-Risk" and "Investment Interest" deduction limitations (see above) must be applied in calculation of a passive activity loss before application of the passive loss limitation.

The deferment of a deduction pursuant to the "At-Risk" of "Investment Interest" provisions for a tax year are not also deferred pursuant to that tax year's passive loss limitation. The "At-Risk" and "Investment Interest" deductions, although previously subject to suspension in later years may be subject to the passive loss limitation.

FORMAN & ASSOCIATES, PC

If several of the taxpayers passive activities produce loss in any one year, the amount carried over is calculated by taking the net loss from each activity for that taxable year and dividing it by the aggregate net loss from all activities that produced net losses that tax year.

Suspended passive activity losses may be carried forward indefinitely (but not back) and may be allowed in subsequent years against passive activity income.

Non-passive loss and net operating losses may be taken into account only after passive income is reduced by current and suspended activities (although not below zero).

Losses carried over are allowed in full upon a taxable disposition of the passive activity interest. Loss on disposition will be deducted first against gain recognized on disposition then against net income for that taxable year from passive activities, then finally against other income.

In the event of installment sales, the suspended loss will be released pro-rata as installment gain is recognized.

In the event of disposition caused by the death of an investor/taxpayer, the carried over loss will be available to the extent carry-over loss exceeds any gain from the decedent/taxpayer's interest at the time of death (or, if applicable, alternate valuation date). Passive losses carried over equal to such gain may not be utilized.

In the event of gift of an interest suspended loss is added to the basis of the interest prior to disposition. Proportionate loss is added if only a portion of the interest is given away. In either event, the donee's basis is affected by the loss. Suspended losses of the donor are eliminated when added to the donee's basis and the remainder of losses continue to be suspended in the donor's hands.

Dispositions in transactions pursuant to §351, 721 or 1031 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as amended by the Act (non taxable transactions) do not release suspended losses. See referenced I.R.C. Sections for analysis.

Credits arising from passive activity generally will be treated in the same manner as deductions so that credits from passive activity may not be used to offset tax attributable to other taxes (non-passive) of income. Generally, credit in regard to passive activities may be carried forward indefinitely (not back).

It is also our opinion that each Unit Owner will, for New York State and New York City income tax purposes, be entitled to the same deduction which is allowed for

FORMAN & ASSOCIATES, PC

Federal income tax purposes for the mortgage interest and real estate taxes paid or accrued during the taxable year. See Section 615 of the New York State Tax Law. It should be noted, however, that for New York City income tax purposes, the benefit of such deduction may be reduced if the Unit Owner has more than the specified amount of tax preference items. See Sections 615, 622 and 623 of the New York State Tax Law; Sections T46-115.00, T46-122.0 and T46-123.0 of the City Code.

II. Common Charges - Federal Income Taxation of the Condominium

A. Introduction

In accordance with the New York Condominium Act, Section 339(i) and (M), similar to other Condominiums, the Common Charges will be borne by the Unit Owners and assessed and collected by the Board of Managers. The Common Charges will be used to fund annual operational costs and capital improvements or to establish and maintain reserve funds therefor. In determining whether Common Charges will be includable in income of the Condominium or the Unit Owners and the tax effect of such assessment and collection, it is necessary to set forth our analysis with respect to the tax status of the Condominium and its exemption from Federal income taxation.

B. Tax Status of the Condominium

A condominium under New York law is not a corporation but a unincorporated association. See General Associations Law of the State of New York and Section 339-v of the Condominium Act. Such an unincorporated association may be treated as a partnership or as an association taxable as a corporation for Federal income tax purposes.

The Treasury Regulations in Section 301.7701-2(a)(i) set forth the factors to be considered in determining whether an association will be treated for Federal income tax purposes as a partnership or as a corporation. Two of the six factors enumerated therein as characteristic of a corporation having associates, an objective to carry on business and divide the gains, are shared by both partnerships and corporations and are therefore irrelevant to the inquiry. Treas. Regs. section 301.7701-2(a)(2). Of the remaining four characteristics of centralization of management, continuity of life, free transferability of interest and limited liability, the condominium possess three: centralization of management via the Board of Managers, continuity of life pursuant to Article VI, IX of the By-Laws, and a modified form of free transferability of interest. Since an unincorporated organization will be treated as a corporation if it has more corporate characteristics than non-corporate characteristics, (see Treas. Regs. Section 301.7701-2(a)(3), Phillip G. Larson, 66 T.C. 159 (1976) acq., Rev. Rul. 79-106, 1979-1 C.B. 448), it is our opinion that, although there exists no direct authority on this point, that the condominium will be treated as an association taxable as a corporation for

Federal income tax purposes.

In such event, and in the absence of any specific exception, the Condominium would be subject to Federal corporate income tax, New York State Corporation Franchise Tax and the New York City General Corporation Tax to the extent of its taxable income, if any. Additional assessments to meet this tax liability would be required. The additional amount received through this assessment may itself be subject to tax. Old Colony Trust v. Commissioner, 279 U.S. 716 (1929), cf. Revenue Ruling 74-75 1974-1 C.B. 19.

C. Taxation of Common Charges

Assuming that the Condominium is treated as an association taxable as a corporation, the receipt of Common Charges, or substantially all of such Common Charges, may be excluded from the income of the Condominium in the event that (i) the Condominium is acting as agent of the Unit Owners as to collection and receipt of such funds; (ii) the Condominium is not acting as agent and receives the Common Charges as non-taxable contributions of capital, or receives the Common Charges as service income which is fully offset by the Condominium's service expenses; or (iii) the Condominium elects to be taxed under Code Section 528 and the condominium has only "exempt function income" within the meaning of such Section.

1. Condominium as Agent of the Unit Owners. In Revenue Ruling 75-370, 1975-2 C.B. 257, the shareholders of a condominium management corporation approved special accounts which were not commingled with the general funds of the condominium management association.

The assessments could be used only to replace the roof and the elevators located in the common elements of the condominium property. The Service ruled that these special assessments were not includable in the Condominium's gross income since they did not benefit the condominium which had a fiduciary obligation to expend the funds collected in the manner approved by its Unit Owners. The Service found that there was an agent and principal relationship between the condominium and its Unit Owners insofar as the special assessments were concerned.

However Rev. Rul. 75-370 specifically exempted funds collected by a condominium management corporation to provide services for which it was formed such as the maintenance of the common elements. Thus, funds collected by the Board for painting, general repairs, gardening and janitorial services would constitute gross income to the Condominium.

Article IV, Section 2 of the By-Laws provides that the Board of Managers will act as the agent of the Unit Owners. Article VI, Section 12 of the By-Laws requires that all capital improvements in excess of $50,000.00 be approved by a vote of the Unit Owners. If Common Charges for such special capital improvements are specifically designated for capital improvements, deposited in special accounts and not commingled with the general funds, then such Common Charges should not be included in the income of the Condominium, according to Revenue Ruling 75-370, supra. Common Charges for assessments of less than $50,000.00 or operational expenditures would not be excluded from the income of the Condominium, based on the theory that the Condominium is acting as the agent of the Unit Owners as to these Common Charges, because the Board of Managers does not have mere ministerial powers with respect to the operations of the Condominium.

2. Assessments as Non-Taxable Contributions to Capital. Under certain circumstances, special assessments for specific capital improvements may be considered non-taxable contributions to the capital of the association, pursuant to Code Section 118.

In Revenue Ruling 75-371, 1975-2 C.B. 52, the condominium management corporation collected special assessments which were assessed pro-rata upon each unit owner to replace outdoor furniture. The By-Laws required that any assessments had to be approved at a stockholder meeting by a majority vote of the unit owner-stockholders. The special assessment was approved and the proceeds were deposited in a special account and were not commingled with the general assessment funds. The assessment could only be used for the specific purpose intended. The Service held that the Special Assessment was a nontaxable contribution to the capital of the condominium management corporation. Id.; See also Rev. Rul. 74-563, 1974-2 C.B. 38 (special assessments to pave a parking lot of the homeowners association are contributions to the capital of the associations).

Under the Plan the Unit Owners must approve all special improvement in excess of $50,000.00. Therefore, as to such amounts of Common Charges which are specifically designated for capital improvements, deposited in special accounts and not commingled with the general funds, such Common Charges should not be characterized as income of the condominium, according to Revenue Ruling 75-371, supra, but would constitute contributions to the capital of the Condominium. Even if a special capital assessment is not specifically voted upon and approved by the Unit Owners of the Condominium, there is judicial authority which would support the characterization of such assessment as capital contribution. See, Concord Village, Inc., 65 T.C. 142 (1975).

It should be noted that if the special assessments are treated as contributions to the capital of the Condominium, the subsequent expenditure of these funds (together with any other funds accumulated by the Condominium) may be viewed by the Service as a distribution to the Unit Owners, taxable under Section 301 of the Code. Each Unit

Owner may therefore be subject to tax on his/her pro-rata share of the amounts expended.

Rev. Rul. 75-371 went on to distinguish special assessments from assessments collected for the purpose of normal operating expenses and excess assessments, which could be returned directly to the individual unit owner-stockholders. These general assessments and the excess assessments which are not credited to subsequent taxable years or returned to the Unit Owners, were held to constitute gross income to the condominium under Section 61 of the Code.

We note however that to the extent to which the Condominium will be deemed to have service income by virtue of its performance of its management functions, it will be entitled to deduct as business expenses its expenditures required to provide such services from its gross income. See Concord Village, Inc., 65 T.C. 142, 157 (1975); Park Place, 57 T.C. 767, 778 (1972). Thus, it will have taxable income only in the amount of the excess of its income from all sources over its allowable deductions.

3. Excess Common Charges. Any amount of net income attributable to overassessments might constitute taxable income of the Condominium for the taxable year of receipt, even if such excess is distributed or applied to the subsequent year's assessments. However, in Revenue Ruling 70-604, 1970-2 C.B. 9, a condominium management corporation was held not to have taxable income where the stockholders decided at an annual meeting at the end of the year to distribute the excess pro-rata to the stockholders, or to apply such excess to reduce the assessments for the taxable year over and above the actual expenses paid and incurred for the purposes described above, since such excess, in effect, has been returned to the stockholders. Id. In Concord Village, Inc., supra, the Tax Court held that the excess reserve fund for the corporation is income of the cooperative housing corporation because the board of the corporation had discretion with respect to its disposition and the stockholders did not have the right to determine the use of such excess. In effect, a management association will not earn income when it has no discretion as to the application of the excess.

In the instant case, we understand that the Board of Managers will have discretion as to the application of the excess Common Charges, and that the Condominium does not intend to return excess Common Charges, if any, but intends to apply such excess to the next year's expenditures. Therefore, it is possible that the excess common charges will constitute taxable income to the Condominium.

A Condominium may be subject to income tax in much the same manner as a regular business corporation. Thus, to the extent that the Condominium's gross income for the year exceeds its allowable deductions, it will have taxable income. Gross income includes all income received whether received from Unit Owners as a whole as maintenance charges, or from Unit Owners in return for specific services such parking leases, laundry receipts, and vending machines, plus any income derived from non-owners as in the case of the rental of commercial space and interest on working capital funds.

To offset the Condominium's gross income, it is allowed to deduct all expenditures which it has paid or accrued for taxes, interest, insurance, management services, and other expenses attributable to the building.

The deductions for expenses incurred in providing services to its tenant-stockholders are limited, however, by Section 277 of the Code. These expenditures, called "membership expenses", may be deducted only to the extent that the Condominium has derived income from its Residential Unit Owners (called "membership income"). The excess of membership expenses over membership income is not allowable as a loss in the taxable year incurred, but must be applied against membership income in the succeeding taxable year or years. See I.R.S. §277(a); Prop. Regs. 1.277-1(d)(1)(ii).

The purpose of Section 277 is to prevent membership organizations such as Condominiums from using its losses incurred in providing services to its members to offset commercial income. The Proposed Regulations issued by the Treasury do not impose any time limits on the carryover, see Prop. Regs. 1.277-1(e)(1), but do provide that carryovers will be lost if the Condominium should fail to qualify in any taxable year. Prop. Regs. 1.277-1(e)(2).

According to Schedule B of the Plan the Condominium does not anticipate the receipt of commercial income. However, interest received from the investment of the Working Capital Fund will be "non-membership income" which will be taxable to the extent it exceeds any expenses incurred in producing this income.

Section 277 of the Code would be applicable to income received from the rental of commercial or professional space plus any income received by the Condominium from non-rental sources such as investment income from the Working Capital Fund.

If the total of the income from this source or any other source unrelated to the furnishing of services to its members exceeds the aggregate of the expenses attributable to earning such income, such excess income will be taxable to you. In such event, if the Working Capital Fund or any budgeted reserve for contingencies is insufficient to pay the resulting taxes, it may be necessary to increase the maintenance charges payable by Unit Owners to cover such tax payment.

In 1996, in a case involving a conventional cooperative, the United States Tax Court ruled that Subchapter T of the Code, not Section 277, applied to housing cooperatives that qualify under Section 216 of the Code. Subchapter T requires allocation of "patronage" and "non-patronage" source income. Since condominiums, by their nature, are "membership organizations" and do not share the dichotomy of shareholder/patron and non-shareholder/non-patron, they should be taxed under §277 as set forth above and not under Subchapter T.

4. Election to be Taxed Under Code Section 528. Code Section 528 provides a tax exemption for an organization that qualifies as a "homeowners association" which term includes a "condominium management association". A "condominium management association" is defined as an organization organized and operated to provide for the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance, and care of a condominium, provided substantially all of the units are used by individuals for residences. See Code Sections 528(c)(1)(A), and 528 (c)(2). "Substantially all" the units will be considered used by individuals for residences if at least 85% of the total square footage of all units within the project is used, or is intended to be used, by individuals for residential purposes or purposes auxiliary to residential use, such as storage rooms, laundry and maintenance areas. See Treas. Regulations, Section 1.528-4(b). The organization itself will be considered "organized and operated" for the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance, and care of such condominium, if the facts and circumstances indicate such to be the case. See Treas. Regs. Section 1.528-2. However if the articles of the Condominium reflect that is the purpose of the association, then the condominium management association will be presumed to be operated for such purpose. See Treas. Regs. Section 1.528-2(a). We also note there are is one non-residential unit under the Plan, which comprises less than 15% of the square footage of the Premises.

In addition to the organization and operation test, the tests set forth below must be satisfied under code Section 528(c)(1) in order for a condominium to qualify as a "homeowner's association".

(1) Sixty (60%) percent or more of the gross income of the organization must be "exempt function income," that is, income derived from the payment of dues or fees from the residential unit owners in their capacity as owner-members rather than in the capacity as customers for services. Code Section 528(c)(1)(A) and Treas. Regs. Sections 1.528-5, and 1.528-9. "Exempt function income" includes income which is attributable to assessments that arise as a result of the members' ownership interest, either based on value or size of their units, and used for the purpose of enhancing or maintaining the value of the residences. See Treas. Reg., Section 1.528-9(a). For example, the regulations indicate that assessments for the purpose of paying real estate taxes, removing garbage, or removing snow is "exempt function income". See Treas, Reg Section 1.528-9(b). Income attributable to the use of laundry machines and interest earned on sinking funds is not exempt function income; See Treas. Regs. Section 1.528-9(c). Any assessments attributable to special capital improvements, which are treated as capital contributions, are not included in gross income, and therefore, are not part of the calculation of the gross income test. See Treas. Regs. Section 1.528-9(a).

(2) Ninety (90%) percent or more of the expenditures of the organization for the taxable year must be used for the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance and care of the organization's property. See Code Section 528(c)(1)(C). These expenditures include operating and capital expenditures during the taxable year. Investments in a reserve fund for future expenditures are not included in this calculation.

(3) No part of the net earnings of the organization may inure to the benefit of any individual. See Code Section 528(c)(1)(D). The Code expressly excludes benefits received by a unit owner attributable to the homeowners association performing its exempt function, such as the benefit from the homeowners association acquiring, constructing, managing, maintaining and taking care of the association property.

(4) The organization must properly and timely elect to have Code Section 528 apply for the taxable year. See Code Section 528(c)(1)(E).

Based upon our understanding of the manner in which the Condominium will be operated, it is our opinion that the Condominium will be eligible to qualify as a homeowners association within the meaning of Code Section 528(c)(1) for any taxable year provided the Condominium properly and timely elects to be taxed under Section 528 for such taxable year so long as it remains as it is presently constituted. However, because of the nature of these tests, we cannot express an opinion at this time as to whether the Condominium would qualify to make such election.

The qualification as a homeowners association means that all "exempt function income" will not be included in income and subject to tax. See Code Sections 528(b) and 528(d)(1). However, as noted above, "non-exempt function income," such as interest earned on the working capital fund and the operation of certain services, reduced by expenses attributable thereto, will be subject to the corporate tax rate. See Code Section 528(b). If the Condominium should have excess Common Charges constituting "exempt function income" which would otherwise be includable in taxable income, the Condominium could elect to have Section 528 apply and realize no taxable income attributable to such excess Common Charges, provided the Condominium has satisfied all applicable requirements for the taxable year. While we can't offer an opinion as to future situations and events, it is our opinion, based upon the budget and projections of the Sponsor that the Condominium will be eligible for taxpayer status under Code Section 528 should it elect to take such exemption for its first year of operation.

III. Tax Benefits

The Sponsor has advised that it intends to apply for 11-243 tax benefits for the Condominium. Please see the section entitled "REAL ESTATE TAXES FOR INDIVIDUAL UNITS, ASSESSED VALUATION BEFORE AND AFTER RENOVATION" for a full discussion of the Condominium's eligibility for real estate tax benefits.

Based on the opinions set forth by Jerome Mazursky of The Mazursky Group and Orah Rubel of Ben Rottenstein Associates, Inc., we believe that the Condominium will qualify under the conditions as set forth in the Statute and the Regulations and that the Condominium will be eligible for tax benefits on the increase in assessed valuation attributable to the renovation.

NO WARRANTY IS OR CAN BE MADE BY THE SPONSOR OR THE SPONSOR'S COUNSEL THAT THE NEW YORK CITY DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING PRESERVATION AND DEVELOPMENT OR THE NEW YORK CITY REAL PROPERTY ASSESSMENT DEPARTMENT, OR ANY OTHER AGENCY WITH JURISDICTION WILL APPROVE THE SPONSOR'S APPLICATION FOR 11-243 TAX BENEFITS OR THAT THE PER UNIT ASSESSED VALUATIONS WILL FALL WITHIN THE PARAMETERS SET FORTH. NEITHER THE SPONSOR NOT ITS COUNSEL SHALL BE LIABLE IF, BECAUSE OF CHANGE IN LAWS AND/OR REGULATION OR THE INTERPRETATION OF LAWS AND/OR REGULATIONS (OR, AS TO FORMAN & ASSOCIATES, PC, IF THE FACTS PRESENTED BY THE SPONSOR PROVE INCORRECT) THE PROPERTY IS ASSESSED IN EXCESS OF THE PARAMETERS PROJECTED HEREIN, AND THE PROPERTY FAILS TO OBTAIN IN WHOLE OR PART 11-243 BENEFITS. SHOULD TAX ABATEMENT BE DENIED, IN WHOLE OR PART, THEN THE UNIT OWNERS WILL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL OF THE TAXES DUE AND OWING.

THE OPINIONS EXPRESSED ABOVE ARE BASED ON OUR INTERPRETATION OF THE NEW YORK REAL PROPERTY LAW AND THE APPLICABLE RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING PRESERVATION AND DEVELOPMENT, AS ALL OF SAME EXIST ON THE DATE HEREOF. WHILE WE BELIEVE OUR OPINIONS ARE WELL-FOUNDED, THEY ARE NOT INTENDED, AND SHOULD NOT BE CONSTRUED AS WARRANTIES THAT THE EXISTING REQUIREMENTS OF 11-243 OR THE REGULATIONS WILL BE SATISFIED. YOU SHOULD BE AWARE OF THE POSSIBILITY THAT THE NEW YORK REAL PROPERTY LAW UPON WHICH WE HAVE PREDICATED OUR OPINION MAY IN THE FUTURE BE REVISED IN A MANNER ADVERSE TO YOU AND THE UNIT OWNERS OF THE CONDOMINIUM. FINALLY WE HAVE NOT PASSED ON THE ACCURACY OF ANY FIGURES OR ESTIMATES AND DO NOT WARRANT THE AMOUNT OF THE REAL ESTATE TAX ABATEMENT IF ANY TO BE GRANTED.

THIS OPINION DOES NOT FULLY DISCUSS THE TAX CONSEQUENCES WHICH MAY RESULT FROM THE OWNERSHIP OR THE LEASING OF A UNIT TO ANOTHER, IN CONNECTION WITH A UNIT OWNER'S TRADE OR BUSINESS, FOR PURPOSES OF INVESTMENT, OR FOR THE PRODUCTION OF INCOME, NOR DISCUSS AT ALL THE TAX CONSEQUENCES WHICH MAY RESULT TO A FOREIGN UNIT OWNER BY REASON OF HIS FOREIGN STATUS. THIS OPINION ALSO DOES NOT CONSIDER THE TAX CONSEQUENCES WHICH MAY ARISE IF UNITS ARE ACQUIRED AND/OR LEASED BY THE BOARD OF MANAGERS OR THE ISSUE OF WHETHER A UNIT OWNER MAY BE DEEMED TO BE A RESIDENT OF NEW YORK STATE DUE TO OWNERSHIP OF A UNIT AND THE ATTENDANT INCOME, ESTATE OR OTHER TAX CONSEQUENCES. WE THEREFORE ADVISE EACH PERSON CONTEMPLATING THE PURCHASE OF A UNIT TO CONSULT HIS/HER OWN TAX ADVISOR AS TO ALL SUCH TAX MATTERS, AS WELL AS WITH RESPECT TO THE TAX MATTERS DISCUSSED IN THIS OPINION.

The opinions expressed herein are based solely upon our current understanding and interpretation of the existing law, regulations, decided cases and rulings of administrative agencies and upon information set forth herein. If there has been any misstatement of a fact or omission of any fact which may be material, or any amendment or change in the By-Laws or the Plan, we should be notified, since any such omission, misstatement or change may require modification of part or all of this opinion. Moreover, it should be specifically noted that this opinion is not binding on the Service, the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance, or the New York City Department of Taxation, and that such entities may not agree with any or all of the views stated above. Further, the Federal and State tax laws and Regulations and the rulings and decisions there under may change and thereby effect the views stated above in whole or in part.

MANAGERS OF THE CONDOMINIUM, OR ANY OTHER PERSON BE LIABLE IF THERE ARE CHANGES IN THE FACTS ON WHICH COUNSEL RELIED IN ISSUING THIS OPINION OR IF THERE ARE CHANGES IN THE APPLICABLE STATUTES, REGULATIONS, DECISIONAL LAW OR INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE RULINGS ON WHICH COUNSEL RELIED WHICH CAUSE THE CONDOMINIUM TO CEASE TO MEET THE REQUIREMENTS OF SECTION 528 OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF 1986, AS AMENDED, OR THE NEW YORK STATE TAX LAW, AS AMENDED, AND UNIT OWNERS NOT TO BE ENTITLED TO INCOME TAX DEDUCTIONS (OR WHICH CAUSE UNIT OWNERS NOT TO BE OR TO CEASE TO BE ENTITLED TO THE BENEFITS OR THE LEVEL OR DURATION OF BENEFITS DESCRIBED ABOVE.

We here by authorize the use of this opinion, or a reproduction thereof, in the Plan.

RE: Offering Plan for the Conversation to Condominium Ownership of Premises:
13 East 30th Street, New York, New York

Ladies & Gentlemen:

You have requested our opinion concerning compliance with Real Property Law §339(i) in assigning the percentage of common interest to each Unit.

It is our opinion that, based upon the information provided by Ralph Davis of ABC Realty in his letter dated July 15, 2004, the Condominium is in compliance with Real Property Law Section 339(i)(1)(ii) in assigning the percentage of common interest to each Unit based upon the approximate proportion that the floor area of the Unit at the date of the Declaration bears to the then aggregate floor area of all the units, but such proportion shall reflect the substantially exclusive advantages enjoyed by one or more but not all units in a part or parts of the common elements.

Very truly yours,
FORMAN & ASSOCIATES, pc

WHEREAS, 13 EAST 30 STREET ASSOCIATES, L.P., a New York limited partnership, having an office at 185 Bowery, New York, New York 10002 (hereinafter called the "Seller"), has prepared a Condominium Plan and desires to offer for sale, pursuant to Article 9-B of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, Condominium Residential Units to be situated on the land owned by it located at 13 East 30th Street, New York, New York, and I am desirous of purchasing a Condominium Unit in such Condominium;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and obligations set forth in this Purchase Agreement and the Offering Plan, the parties mutually agree as follows:

1. Offering Plan Read. As Purchaser, I have received and read the Offering Statement Plan of Condominium Organization (the Plan) with respect to Premises at 13 East 30th Street, New York, New York.

The Plan, including all documents set forth in Part II thereof, and any amendments thereto are incorporated herein by reference with the same effect as if set forth at length. I hereby accept the Plan (and all of said amendments thereto, if any) and agree to abide and be bound by the terms and conditions thereof. The terms used herein shall have the same meanings as ascribed thereto in the Plan.

2. Sale of Unit. I hereby agree to purchase and the Seller agrees to sell the Condominium Unit in the EMPIRE/30 CONDOMINIUM designated above as shown on the plot plan which forms a part of the Offering Plan, together with the percentage of undivided interest in the Common Elements appurtenant thereto above stated for the Total Purchase Price set forth above.

3. Delivery of Deed; Adjustments. The Closing of Title shall take place at an office to be designated by Seller pursuant to the notice provisions as set forth in Part I of the Plan. The Seller shall be entitled to a reasonable adjournment in the Closing of Title in the event of delay by reason of weather conditions, strikes or material shortages, or delays in inspections and reports thereon, or other requirements. If I am not ready to close title at the date and time fixed pursuant to the contract, any adjournment granted at my request shall be upon the condition that all adjustments, shall be made as of the date originally fixed for the closing of title. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to require Seller to grant any adjournment not reasonable in duration.

4. Payment of Unit. The Down Payment has been made on the signing of this Agreement, receipt of which (by check subject to collection) is hereby acknowledged by the Seller. The Balance Due at Closing (including the proceeds of the mortgage loan referred to herein, if any) shall be payable at the Closing of Title, as herein provided, by my certified check drawn on, or a cashier's check of, a bank or trust company which is a member of the New York Clearing House Association to the order of "FORMAN & ASSOCIATES, pc, SPECIAL EMPIRE, ESCROW ACCOUNT", or as otherwise directed by Sponsor's attorney.

5. Recording of Condominium Declaration. The Declaration and By-Laws will be recorded by Seller in the Office of the Register of the City of New York, New York County, prior to the conveyance of the first Condominium Unit as set forth in the Offering Plan. The Seller shall file with the Declaration when it is recorded, or shall amend the Declaration prior to the closing date and file at such time, a verified statement of a registered architect or licensed professional engineer certifying that the plans theretofore filed or being filed simultaneously with such amendment fully and fairly depict the layout, location, Condominium Unit designation and approximate dimensions of the Condominium Units as built. The Declaration and By-Laws when recorded by the Seller, will be substantially in the form and substance of the Declaration and By-Laws delivered to me and any changes therein will not substantially adversely affect me.

6. Seller's Failure to Convey. It is specifically understood and agreed that in the event the Seller shall be unable to deliver or cause to be delivered a deed to the premises to me in accordance with this agreement because of the inability of the Seller to complete the filing of the premises as part and parcel of a condominium plan in accordance with the Offering Plan of the EMPIRE/30 CONDOMINIUM and any amendments thereto, then the Seller shall immediately notify me and thereupon this agreement shall terminate and the sole liability between the parties shall be the return by the Seller to me of the my down payment with interest, under this agreement.

7. Construction of Condominium. The Seller has applied for a building permit from the local municipal authorities having jurisdiction over the issuance of permits for construction of the premises. Prior to the closing of title set forth herein, the Seller will declare the property and the Condominium Units erected thereon to be a Condominium pursuant to the provisions of Article 9-B of the Real Property Law of the State of New York.

8. Purchaser Bound by Offering Plan. The Seller has exhibited and delivered to me and I acknowledge receipt of the Offering Plan at least 72 hours prior to the execution of this Purchase Agreement. I have read and agree to be bound by the proposed Declaration, By-Laws and Offering Plan of the said Condominium (and the Schedules, Plans and Exhibits attached thereto) all of which are incorporated by reference and made a part of this agreement with the same force and effect as if set forth in full herein. Any conflict between the Offering Plan and the Purchase Agreement is to be resolved in favor of the Offering Plan. I acknowledge that I am purchasing a Condominium Unit in a Condominium to be formed, and that, except as stated in this agreement (and as set forth in the Declaration, By-Laws, Exhibits and Offering Plan), I have not relied on any representations or other statements of any kind or nature made by the Seller or otherwise, including but not limited to any relating to the description, size or dimensions of the Unit or rooms therein, and the estimated common charges or other expenses in connection therewith.

9. Purchase of Unit Without A Mortgage Loan. I may, at my option, pay the Purchase Price "all cash" without obtaining a mortgage. In the event I exercise this option, the provisions of this agreement which refer to the mortgage to be obtained by me shall be deemed deleted.

10. Contract Subject to Purchaser Receiving Mortgage Commitment. This contract is subject to my obtaining a loan commitment in the amount of not less than $_____ at the prevailing rate of interest with monthly payments computed on not less than a 25 year payout. I shall have thirty (30) days from the signing of this contract to obtain said mortgage commitment. I shall accept any conventional commitment offered by the lending institution of my choice, whether that be a "fixed", "roll-over", "variable rate", "adjustable", or any other form of mortgage, however designated. I represent that, to my knowledge, I should be able to qualify for such a mortgage and that I am creditworthy. In the event that I fail to obtain a commitment within said thirty (30) day period, either party may cancel this Purchase Agreement on five (5) days written notice to the other, by personal delivery or by certified mail, return receipt requested, whereupon this Purchase Agreement shall become null and void and my Down Payment shall be returned by the Seller. I shall apply for a Mortgage and notify Seller within ten (10) days from the date hereof as to the identity of the lending institution to which I have applied and further shall immediately (within five days) notify the Seller when a loan commitment or declination has been obtained or refused and deliver a copy of such commitment or declination to the Seller's attorneys within five (5) days receipt thereof. IN THE EVENT THAT THE SPONSOR'S ATTORNEY DOES NOT RECEIVE A NOTICE OF DECLINATION OR OF A FAILURE TO OBTAIN A COMMITMENT WITHIN FIVE DAYS AFTER THE EXPIRATION OF SAID 30 DAY TIME PERIOD (OR ANY EXTENSION THEREOF), I SHALL BE EXPECTED TO CLOSE WHETHER OR NOT I HAVE RECEIVED FINANCING, UNLESS THE SELLER CANCELS THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT.

My failure to apply for a Mortgage or to provide information to the Lender promptly upon request or to accept the commitment or extension thereof issued to me by the Lender on the terms set forth herein shall constitute an event of default for which Seller shall have the right to cancel this Agreement and to retain the Down Payment as provided herein as liquidated damages.

Once a bank commitment is issued, I will be required to use due diligence in obtaining and maintaining any and all extensions necessary to maintain such commitment in force and effect or to obtain another commitment. Such extension might be at a higher interest rate and I may be required to pay an additional "origination fee" or other such charges that the lending institution requires. Failure to do so will constitute a default under the Purchase Agreement. If I am unable to obtain an extension or new commitment in spite of such due diligence on or before the Closing Date or within thirty (30) days after expiration of my commitment whichever is longer, I shall notify the Seller within five days of the time period specified by certified mail, return receipt requested, whereupon this Agreement shall become null and void and the Down Payment shall be returned by the Seller.

11. Closing Costs and Adjustments. I further agree to pay at the closing of Title those costs applicable to a closing where I either obtain a mortgage or where I do not obtain a mortgage, whichever is applicable. Said costs shall include but not be limited to the actual cost of title examination; cost of mortgage insurance; bank's attorneys' fees for preparation of the documents necessary for the mortgage loan; mortgage origination fee; bank credit and appraisal fee; survey costs, if applicable; mortgage recording taxes; New York State and New York City real property transfer taxes; New York State Mansion Tax; private mortgage insurance (if applicable); and any other governmental charges assessed on a loan or the transfer of title. In addition thereto, I will contribute one month's common charges to the Condominium as an initial working capital fund contribution. I also agree to apportion with Seller such taxes, insurance premium adjustments, utility charges and common charges as may be determined to be due at the time of closing. In addition, it shall be my sole responsibility to pay the Sponsor's attorney a fee of $1,500.00 at closing for the preparation of closing documents. If the closing is held at a place other than the office of the Sponsor's attorney or such other place as designated by the Sponsor (but within New York City) there will be an additional fee of $500.00 per Unit which will be the sole responsibility of the Purchaser. Fees for closings outside of New York City will depend upon distance, but in no event shall such fee be less than $750.00. If the closing is adjourned other than by the Sponsor, there will be an additional fee of $350.00 per Unit payable to the Sponsor's attorney, which will solely be my responsibility to pay. In the event a Purchaser defaults, a fee of $250.00 will be payable at closing for preparation of a letter of default. Such fee will be my sole responsibility. In the event that I decide to use the services of a title company other than New York Title Research Corp., 550 Mamaroneck Avenue, Suite 401, Harrison, New York 10528, (914) 835-7100. I will be obligated to pay a fee of $750.00 for the time in coordinating and arranging the Closing with the other title company. The above closing fees are cumulative to the extent applicable to an individual closing.

12. Seller Right to Mortgage Tax Credit. I agree that any mortgage tax credit received pursuant to Section 339-ee of the Real Property law will inure to the benefit of the Seller.

13. Escrow of Deposits. The Offering Plan provides that the Seller will hold all monies received directly or through its agents or employees in trust until the closing of title to a Unit. Such funds will be held as trust funds pursuant to Section 352-h and 352-e(2) (b) of the General Business Law, in a special account entitled "FORMAN & ASSOCIATES, p.c., SPECIAL EMPIRE, ESCROW ACCOUNT" in NORTH FORK BANK, 90 West Broadway, New York, New York 10007. The signature of a member of the firm of FORMAN & ASSOCIATES, pc, 156 William Street, Suite 800, New York, New York, Attorneys for Seller shall be required to withdraw such funds. The funds existing in the trust account will be payable to the Seller after the closing of title to the Unit covered by this Purchase Agreement. In the event of my default under this Purchase Agreement, which default continues for thirty (30) days after notice of such default from the Seller to me, the Down Payment (to a maximum of 10% plus the actual cost of any special work ordered) will be released to the Seller from such account as liquidated damages and thereafter neither party shall have any rights or obligations against or to the other.

14. Default and Liquidated Damages. I agree that if I shall fail to pay the balance of the Cash Purchase Price when due, as herein provided, or, if I am otherwise in default hereunder as such term is defined herein, the Seller may elect to cancel this Agreement by written notice to me at my residence or at the address stated above, by certified mail, and at the expiration of 30 days after the date of mailing thereof (unless I shall have theretofore paid the balance of the Cash Purchase Price in full) said notice shall be effective and this Agreement shall be deemed cancelled and all rights of the parties thereunder shall terminate except that the amount of my Down Payment shall be paid over to the Seller as liquidated damages, such liquidated damages not to exceed 10% of the Cash Purchase Price plus the cost of any special work in the Unit ordered by me, together with any interest earned thereon. Any payments made by me in excess of said sum together with any interest earned thereon shall be refunded to me within 15 days thereof. TIME IS OF ESSENCE TO REMEDY SUCH DEFAULT WITHIN SAID THIRTY (30) DAY PERIOD. The notice of default is hereby deemed a notice to vacate as well if I occupy the unit under the terms of any use and occupancy agreement. In the event of such cancellation, the Seller shall have the right to sell the Unit to another purchaser as though this agreement had never been made and without accountability to me for the proceeds received on any sale to another.

In the event I enter into an interim lease with the Seller, any default under the interim lease by me (including, but not limited to, the payment of use and occupation charges or any other obligations under the lease) shall be deemed a default under the Purchase Agreement; any default under the Purchase Agreement shall also be deemed a default under the interim lease; and any rescission under the Purchase Agreement by me shall be deemed a default under the interim lease.

15. Subordination of Purchase Agreement to Building Loan Mortgage. I agree that all terms and provisions of this agreement are and shall be subject and subordinate to the lien of any building loan mortgage on the Condominium property made or to be made, any advances made or to be made, and any payments or expenses already made or incurred or to be made or incurred to the full extent thereof without the execution of any further legal documents by me. The subordination shall apply whether such advances are voluntary or involuntary and whether made in accordance with the building loan schedule of payments or accelerated thereunder by virtue of the lender's right to make advances before they become due in accordance with the schedule of payments. The Seller shall satisfy all such mortgages or obtain a release of the Unit from the lien of such mortgages at or prior to the closing date, except for my individual mortgage thereon, whether same be by extension, assumption, consolidation or otherwise.

16. Certificate of Occupancy. In the event the Unit is substantially completed and provided a temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building or Unit is issued, I agree to accept a letter agreement from the Seller wherein the Seller shall agree to complete all punch-list items within thirty (30) days from the date of the closing of title, weather permitting.

In the event a permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building has not been issued as of the date of closing for said Residential Unit, the Seller will continue to hold all monies previously deposited and being held in escrow pursuant to Sections 352-e(2)(b) and 352-h of the General Business Law unless Seller's engineer or architect certifies that a lesser amount will be reasonably necessary to complete the work needed to obtain a permanent Certificate of Occupancy. Any sum of money exceeding the amount certified by the Seller's engineer or architect will be released to the Seller. Upon issuance of the permanent Certificate of Occupancy, such escrow deposit will be released to the Seller without the consent of any other party. Alternatively, the Seller may deposit with an escrow agent an unconditional, irrevocable letter of credit or post a surety bond in the amount certified by Seller's engineer or architect.

17. Personal Property Included in Sale; Excluded Items. All articles of personal property, fixtures and equipment as set forth in the Offering Plan referred to herein are included in this sale, and same will be delivered free and clear of all liens and encumbrances save and except the lien of the mortgage applied for by me herein. Decorative lighting fixtures, paints, carpeting, built-ins, wallpapers, furniture, furnishings and burglar alarm system exhibited in any model Units, excepting those specifically set forth herein or in the Offering Plan, are for display purposes only and are not included in this sale.

18. Sellers Right to Make Changes in Material, etc. The Seller reserves the right to: (a) make changes or substitutions of materials or construction for items as set forth in the Offering Plan or building plan, provided any such changes are of comparable value and quality and are required and/or approved by the lending institution.

19. Closing Deed; Power of Attorney. The closing deed shall be in proper statutory form for recording, as set forth in the Offering Plan as Exhibit D; shall be a Bargain and Sale Deed with covenants against grantor's acts; shall be duly executed and acknowledged by the Seller at the Seller's expense and shall contain such a description of the premises as shall be acceptable and/or approved so as to validly convey under the Condominium Act, the Unit and the undivided interest in the common elements referred to herein. At the closing of title, I agree to execute and deliver to Seller the Power of Attorney in the form as shown in the Offering Plan, Exhibit C, beginning on page C-1.

20. Marketable Title, Subject to. The Seller shall give and I shall accept a good and marketable title (subject to the terms of the Declaration and By-Laws as filed and of the Offering Plan), free and clear of all liens and encumbrances except for the Permitted Encumbrances as described in the Offering Plan, and such title as New York

Title Research Corp., will approve and insure for mortgages and/or fee title insurance. Fee title insurance, if ordered by me, shall be purchased at my own cost and expense.

21. Seller's Failure to Convey. The Seller's liability under this agreement for failure to complete and/or deliver title for any reasons other than Seller's willful default, shall be limited to the return of the money paid hereunder, with interest, and upon the return of said money, this agreement shall be null and void and the parties hereto released from any and all liability hereunder. In any event, the Seller shall not be required to bring any action or proceeding or otherwise incur any unreasonable expense to render the title to the premises marketable or to cure any objection to title.

22. Acceptance of Deed Full Compliance by Seller; Waiver of Jury Trial. Anything to the contrary herein contained notwithstanding, it is specifically understood and agreed by the parties hereto that the acceptance of the delivery of the deed at the time of the closing of title hereunder shall constitute full compliance by the Seller with the terms of this agreement and none of the terms hereof, except as otherwise herein expressly provided, shall survive the delivery and acceptance of the deed. All representations contained in the Offering Plan shall survive delivery of the deed. The parties hereto do hereby agree that trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim arising out of or from this agreement is hereby waived.

23. Delivery of Transferable Warranties. At the Closing of Title the Seller will deliver the certificates and warranties delivered to them and transferable to me or to the Condominium and it is further agreed that title will not close until either a temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy has been issued covering the Building in which the Unit is located. Seller's liability pursuant to any manufacturers' warranties are limited solely to the extent that such warranties are delivered to Seller, transferable to me or to the Condominium and then only as against such manufacturer.

24. Lack of Labor/Materials; Seller's Right to Cancel. The parties hereto do hereby agree that the Seller may cancel this agreement by forwarding its check in the full amount paid by me, with interest, together with a notice in writing, addressed to me, at the address hereinabove set forth in the event of the occurrence of either of the following: (1) that any governmental bureau, department or subdivision thereto shall impose restrictions on the manufacture, sale, distribution and/or use of material necessary in the construction of residential housing and such restriction shall prevent the Seller from obtaining such materials from its regular suppliers or from using same in the construction and/or completion of the dwellings; or (2) that the Seller is unable to obtain materials from its usual sources due to strike, lockouts, war, military operations and requirements, national emergencies, or the installation of public utilities is restricted or curtailed.

Prior to the acceptance of the Purchase Agreement for 80% of the Units, in the event that insufficient funds are raised through the Offering to effectuate the purchase of the Units and the consummation of the Plan, or if I rescind my Purchase Agreement in accordance with the terms and conditions contained therein, or if the Plan is abandoned, then such monies shall be fully returned to me if I am in good standing under my Purchase Agreement, with interest earned thereon, within fifteen (15) days after the date of abandonment of the Plan as hereinafter provided. If I default under my Purchase Agreement and if I have failed to cure the default within the applicable grace period, or if my Purchase Agreement had previously been cancelled, the Seller shall retain as liquidated damages all payments made thereunder (but in no event to exceed ten (10%) percent of the Total Cash Purchase Price plus the cost incurred of any special work in the Unit ordered by me), together with any interest earned thereon (hereinafter collectively called the "Liquidated Sum"). Any such sums deposited in excess thereof (together with any interest earned on such excess amounts) will be refunded to me within fifteen (15) days thereafter.

The Seller has the option not to close title to the Condominium Unit described herein if less than 80% of all of the Condominium Units have not been contracted for, the Declaration has not been filed at such time, and the Offering Plan has not been declared effective. In the event Seller exercises such option, it shall forthwith return my down payment with interest.

25. Lien of Deposit; Risk of Loss. All sums paid on account of this agreement and the reasonable expense of the examination of the title to the Unit are hereby made liens hereon, but such liens shall not continue after default by me under this agreement. The risk of loss or damage to the Unit by fire or any other cause until the delivery of the deed or I take actual possession of the Unit pursuant to written agreement is assumed by the Seller.

26. Liens Satisfied at Closing. The existence of unpaid taxes or liens of any kind at the time of title closing shall not constitute an objection to title, provided the Seller shall deposit a sufficient amount with a title company so the company shall be willing to insure against collection of same from the property herein described. The parties agree that the Seller may pay and discharge any liens and encumbrances upon the premises, not provided for in this agreement, out of the monies to be paid by me at the time of closing title.

27. Possession Prior to Closing. It is expressly understood and agreed that I shall in no event take possession of the premises prior to the time of the delivery of the deed and full compliance by me with the terms of this agreement and should I violate this provision, I consent that the Seller shall have the right to remove me from the premises as a squatter and intruder by summary proceedings. Upon my unauthorized possession, I shall be deemed in default hereunder at the option of the Seller, and upon such election, the amount paid hereunder shall belong to the Seller as liquidated damages (to a maximum of 10% of the purchase price plus the actual cost of any special work ordered). It is further understood and agreed that the Seller will not be responsible for damage or loss to any property belonging to me whether same is delivered to the property on or after the closing of title herein.

28. Execution of Required Documents. I agree to deliver to Seller all documents and to perform all acts required by the Seller to carry out the provisions of the Offering Plan, establish the Condominium and conform to the provisions of all applicable laws and regulations. This paragraph shall survive delivery of the deed.

29. Options Ordered by Purchaser. Any special work ordered or changes ordered by me shall be signed by me and must be paid for in full within seven days of the order. If for any reason the Seller fails to install said special work in accordance with the work order, the limit of the Sponsors liability is a refund of the amount of the charge.

30. Default Under Purchase Agreement. Should I violate, repudiate, or fail to perform any of the terms of this agreement ("default"), which default continues for thirty (30) days (except where otherwise indicated) after written notice of such default from the Seller to me, Seller will retain all of the monies paid on account hereunder as liquidated damages to a maximum of 10% of the purchase price, plus the actual cost of any special work ordered, in which event the parties shall be discharged of all further liability hereunder. This provision shall apply whether or not renovation has commenced and regardless of any sale of the Unit subsequent to my default. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE IN CURING A DEFAULT UNDER THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT WITHIN THE FINAL THIRTY (30) DAY GRACE PERIOD. No further adjournment, extension or grace period will be granted.

31. Binding Nature of Purchase Agreement, Assignability; Notice. The parties agree that the stipulations and agreements herein contained shall be binding upon them, their respective heirs, executors, administrators and/or assigns. Any notice to be given hereunder shall be in writing and sent by certified mail to the parties at the address above given or at such address as either party may hereafter designate to the other in writing. This Purchase Agreement will not be recorded or filed in any office of public record. This Purchase Agreement may not be assigned. This Agreement is not binding on the Seller and the Seller is not obligated to me to consummate the transaction contemplated herein, unless and until such time as Seller has executed a counterpart of this Agreement and thereafter delivered such executed counterpart to me.

32. Purchasers Agents for Each Other. If two or more persons are named as the Purchaser herein, any one of them is hereby made agent for the other in all matters of any and every kind or nature affecting the premises herein or this agreement.

33. Entire Agreement. This agreement states the entire understanding of the parties and the Seller shall not be bound by any oral representations and/or agreements. Any conflict between this Purchase Agreement and the Plan as amended shall be resolved in favor of the Plan.

34. Time to Accept Purchase Agreement. If this Agreement shall not be accepted by the Seller within twenty (20) days of the date hereof by the delivery or mailing to me of such endorsed and fully signed copy, this Purchase Agreement shall be deemed to be rejected and cancelled and my deposit shall be promptly refunded to me.

Vertically, each Residential Unit consists of the space between the upper face of the subfloor and the upper face of the dry wall ceiling. Doors and windows which open from a Residential Unit shall be deemed part of the Unit. No residential Unit Owner shall be deemed to own the supporting columns, pipes, wires, conduits or other public lines running through the Residential Unit which are utilized for or serve more than one Residential Unit.

6. COMMON ELEMENTS: The Common Elements of the Condominium consist of the entire Property, including all parts of the Building and improvements thereon other than the Units. i. The Condominium and its agents shall have the use of these spaces for the following purposes, subject to the following obligations:

(a) Access to Common Elements for inspection, repair and maintenance purposes to the extent that same affect the repair and maintenance of the Building's structure, which shall be the sole and only obligation of the Condominium with regard to these spaces;

(b) For ingress and egress from the Building in case of fire or for other emergency;

(c) For any purpose as required by law, appropriate governmental rule or regulation or the Building's Certificate of Occupancy.

Purchasers should note that they may be personally liable for injury to their guests, invitee(s) and/or workers in their Limited Common Elements, as well as in their Units.

7. USE OF UNITS:

A. Each of the Residential Units may be used for private residential use, except that a Residential Unit Owner may use his/her Residential Unit for any home occupation use permitted under applicable zoning law and ordinances, building code or other rules and regulations of governmental authorities having jurisdiction. Such Units may also be used as professional offices by a resident thereof provided such professional use does not violate any zoning law and ordinances and provided further that the prior written consent of the Board of Managers to such professional use is obtained. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Sponsor may, without the permission of the Board of Managers, retain ownership of one or more Units for use as models, sales and/or production offices in connection with the sale or rental of the Units.

B. The Commercial Unit shall be used for any permitted commercial use. However, provided that the use complies with all applicable terms of the Declaration, the Board of Managers does not have the right to approve any change in the use of the Commercial Unit, or any part hereof, or to apply for or cause any amendment to the Building's Certificate of Occupancy to authorize a different use except at the request of the owner of the Commercial Unit. The owner of the Commercial Unit shall have the right, without obtaining the consent of the Board of Managers or the Residential Unit Owners or mortgagees of other Units other than the affected Unit, to subdivide the Commercial Unit into two or more Commercial Units and to reallocate the Common Interest of the Commercial Unit among the newly established Commercial Units in proportion to their respective floor areas. Such subdivision must be reflected in a duly recorded amendment to the Declaration filed by the new Unit Owners. Under no circumstances will the Percentage of Common Interest of any Residential Unit owner be changed as a result of such subdivision or will the aggregate Percentage of Common Interest for the new Units be greater than the Percentage of Common Interest for the original Units. If the Commercial Unit is so subdivided, the owner or owners thereof shall have the right, without obtaining the consent of the Board of Managers, Residential Unit owners, or mortgagees of Units other than the affected Unit, to thereafter change the size, layout, and/or number of Commercial Units under the same terms, conditions and restrictions as those imposed on the original Commercial Unit Owner.

The owner of the Commercial Unit shall have the right, without the payment of any fees or charges to the Board of Managers or the Managing Agent, to sell or lease its Unit, or any part thereof, without the Board of Managers having any right of first refusal to purchase or lease such Unit, and all sales and/or rental proceeds shall belong solely to the Commercial Unit Owner.

8. DETERMINATION OF PERCENTAGES IN COMMON ELEMENTS: The percentage of Common Interest allocated to each Unit, pursuant to Section 339-i(1)(ii) of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, is based upon the approximate proportion that the floor area of the Unit at the date of the Declaration bears to the aggregate area of all the Units, but such proportion shall reflect the substantially exclusive advantage enjoyed by one or more but not all Units in a part or parts of the Common Elements.
9. ENCROACHMENTS: If any portion of the Common Elements now encroach upon any Unit, or if any Unit now encroaches upon any other Unit or upon any portion of the Common Elements, or if any encroachment shall occur hereafter as a result of (a) settling or shifting of the Building, or (b) alteration or repair to the Common Elements made by or with the consent of the Board of Managers, or (c) as a result of repair or restoration of the Building or a Unit after damage by fire or other casualty, or (d) as a result of condemnation or eminent domain proceedings, a valid easement shall exist for such encroachment and for the maintenance of the same so long as the Building shall stand.

10. EASEMENTS

- A. Each Unit Owner shall have an easement in common with the owners of all other Units to use all pipes, wires, ducts, cables, conduits, public utility lines and other Common Elements located in any of the other Units and serving his/her Unit. Each Unit shall be subject to an easement in favor of the Owners of all other Units to use the pipes, ducts, cables, wires conduits, public utility lines and other Common Elements serving such other Units and located in such Unit. The Board of Managers shall have a right of access to each Unit and any Limited Common Elements appurtenant thereto to inspect the same, to remove violations therefrom and/or to maintain, repair or replace the Common Elements contained therein or elsewhere in the Building.
- B. The Sponsor and its designees, their successors, assigns, invitees, licensees, contractors, employees and tenants, shall have an easement in, on, over and across the Property for: (i) construction, installation and development thereon of recreation facilities, if any; (ii) for the construction and installation, ingress to and egress from, and use of (including the right to connect with) all pipes, conduits, ducts, cables, wires, storm drainage facilities, water, sewer and other utility lines for the benefit of the Condominium; (iii) construction and installation, ingress to and egress from and the right to use (in common with Unit Owners) all storm drainage facilities, water, sewer and other utility lines, pipes, conduits, flues, ducts, wires and cables; and (iv) ingress to and egress from all land areas of the Property and the use of said land areas (in common with Unit Owners) for any lawful purpose.
- C. The Sponsor, its designees and their successors, assigns, invitees, licensees, contractors, employees and tenants: (i) shall have an easement to erect, maintain, repair and replace from time to time one or more signs on the Property for the purposes of advertising the sale of Units and the leasing of space in any Unit as well as an easement in and access to Units and Common Elements consistent with the purposes of a certain Offering Plan for the Property dated _____, 200__ as same may be amended, and Sponsor's rights and obligations thereunder, including, without limitation, the right to develop, renovate, maintain, repair, refurbish, offer, sell and lease Units and Common Elements; and (ii) reserve the right to establish, grant and create easements for any additional underground electric, transformer, amplifier, gas, cable television, telephone, water, storm drainage, sewer or other utility lines and appurtenances in, under and through the Property, including, without limitation, an easement or easements for the benefit of any property adjacent to the Property, to relocate any existing utility easements in any portion of the Property and to dedicate any or all of such facilities to any governmental body, public benefit corporation or utility company if the Sponsor or designee shall deem it necessary or desirable for the proper operation and maintenance of the Property or any portion thereof, or the residents of any property adjacent to the Property, or users of the Recreation Facilities, provided that such additional utilities or the relocation of existing utilities will not prevent or unreasonably interfere with the use of the Residential Units for dwelling purposes. Any utility company or public benefit corporation furnishing services to the Property, and the employees and agents of any such company or corporation, shall have the right of access to any Unit, to the Common Elements or the Limited Common Elements in furtherance of such easements, provided such right of access is exercised in such a manner as to not unreasonably to interfere with the use of the Units.

D. The user of any easement granted by subparagraphs B and C of this Paragraph 10 shall have the responsibility of repairing any damage resulting therefrom.

11. POWER OF ATTORNEY TO BOARD OF MANAGERS: Each Residential Unit Owner shall grant to the persons who shall from time to time constitute the Board of Managers, an irrevocable power of attorney, coupled with an interest, to acquire title to or lease any Unit whose owner desires to surrender, sell or lease the same, or which may be the subject of a foreclosure or other judicial sale, in the name of the Board of Managers or its designee, corporate or otherwise on behalf of all Unit Owners, and to convey, sell, lease, mortgage (but not to vote the votes appurtenant thereto) or otherwise deal with any such Units so acquired or to sublease any Unit so leased by the Board of Managers.
12. ACQUISITION OF UNITS BY BOARD OF MANAGERS: In the event any Unit Owner shall surrender his/her Unit together with: (i) the undivided interest in the Common Elements, general and limited, appurtenant thereto; (ii) the interest of such Unit Owner in any other Units acquired by the Board of Managers or its designee on behalf of all Unit Owners or the proceeds of the sale or lease thereof, if any; and (iii) the interest of such Unit Owner in any other assets of the Condominium; (hereinafter collectively called the "Appurtenant Interests"), pursuant to the provisions of Section 339-x of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, or in the event the Board of Managers shall purchase from any Unit Owner who has elected to sell the same, a Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, pursuant to the By-Laws, or in the event the Board of Managers shall purchase at a foreclosure or other judicial sale, a Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, the Unit shall be held by the Board of Managers or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Unit Owners, in proportion to their respective Common Interests. The lease covering any Unit leased to the Board of Managers, or its designee, corporate or otherwise, shall be held by the Board of Managers, or its designee on behalf of all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests.

13. PERSON TO RECEIVE SERVICE: For the period during which the Sponsor is in control of the Board of Managers, 13 EAST 30 STREET ASSOCIATES, L.P., the Sponsor, with an office at 185 Bowery, New York, New York 10002, is hereby designated to receive notice of process in any action which may be brought against the Condominium. After the Sponsor relinquishes control of the Board of Managers, notice of process in any action which may be brought against the Condominium shall be served on the President of the Condominium at the Office of the Condominium, 13 East 30th Street, New York, New York.
14. UNITS SUBJECT TO DECLARATION, BY-LAWS AND RULES AND REGULATIONS: All present and future Owners, tenants, subtenants and occupants of Units shall be subject to and shall comply with the provisions of this Declaration, the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations, as they may be amended from time to time. The acceptance of a deed or conveyance or the entering into a lease or the entering unto occupancy of any Unit shall constitute an agreement that the provisions of this Declaration, the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations, as they may be amended from time to time, are accepted and ratified by such Owner, tenant or occupant, and all of such provisions shall be deemed and taken to be covenants running with the land and shall bind any person having at any time any interest or estate in such Unit, as though such provisions were recited and stipulated at length in each and every deed or conveyance or lease thereof.
15. AMENDMENT TO DECLARATION: This Declaration may be amended, modified, added to or deleted from by the vote of at least 66 2/3% in number and in Common Interest of all Unit Owners, cast in person or by proxy at a meeting duly held in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws, or in lieu of a meeting, any amendment may be approved, in writing by 66 2/3% in number and in Common Interest of all Unit Owners, provided however:
- (1) No amendment, modification, addition or deletion which shall adversely affect the lien or any mortgage may be made without the written consent of the mortgagee;
 - (2) No amendment which shall change the percentage of Common Interests allocated to any Unit or Unit(s) may be made without the written consent of such Owner. No amendment which shall change the percentage of Common Interests allocated to any Unit or Unit(s) may be made without the written consent of the mortgagee(s) of such Unit, or Units, if any;
 - (3) No amendment, modification, addition or deletion of or to this Declaration will be effective in any respect against the Sponsor, its designee, or any Unsold Unit until the Sponsor or such designee shall consent thereto in writing. The Sponsor hereby reserves to itself and its designee(s) the right to amend this Declaration at any time without the requirement of a vote and without the approval or consent of any Unit Owners or mortgagees for the sole purpose of reflecting the changes in the Floor Plans required by the New York Real Property Law Section 339-p for any portion or portions of the Building and appurtenances which are incomplete at the time the Declaration is recorded and the filing of the floor plans at the same time as said amendment to the Declaration and the Floor Plans, provided a verified statement of a registered architect or licensed professional engineer is also filed which certifies that the plans being filed simultaneously with such amendment, fully and fairly depicting the layout, location, unit designations and approximate dimensions of the particular Unit or Units as built, as provided in said Section 339-p of the New York Real Property Law will be filed with such amendment.

No such amendment shall be effective until recorded in the New York County Office of the Register of the City of New York.

16. CHANGES IN UNSOLD UNITS: For any Unit owned by the Sponsor or its designee(s), if not prohibited by the New York Condominium Act (as the same may be amended), the Sponsor or its designee(s) shall have the right, without the vote or consent of the Board of Managers, other Unit Owners or the holders of Unit mortgages, to (i) make alterations, additions, or improvements in, to and upon the Unit; (ii) change the layout or number of rooms in the Unit; (iii) change in the size and/or number of such Units by subdividing a Unit, combining separate Units (including those resulting from any subdivision or otherwise) into one or more Units, altering the boundary walls between any Unit or otherwise; and (iv) reapportion among such Units affected by such change in size or number, subdivision, combination or alteration, their appurtenant interests in the Common Elements; provided, however, that the Sponsor or its designee(s) shall comply with all rules, ordinances and regulations of all governmental authorities having jurisdiction and shall agree to hold the Board of Managers and all other Unit Owners harmless from any liability arising therefrom. In accordance with law, the Common Elements appurtenant to each Unit as expressed in this Declaration shall have a permanent character and shall not be altered without the consent of all Unit Owners affected. Written consents will be obtained from Unit Owners, if any, who are adversely affected as a result of the above changes. Contract vendees, if any, pursuant to Purchase Agreements with the Sponsor or its designees for a Unit adversely affected as a result of the above changes, will be given the right to rescind their Purchase Agreements and receive a refund of any deposit or Down Payment. The above changes, if made, will be disclosed in an amendment to the Offering Plan for the Property. The provisions of this paragraph 16 may not be added to, amended or deleted without the prior written consent of the Sponsor or its designee(s).

Unit Owners in the Condominium hold title to their respective Units subject to the benefits, rights, privileges, easements, burdens, covenants, and restrictions as described herein, in the By-Laws of the Condominium and any agreement of record recorded prior or subsequent to this Declaration.

17. INVALIDITY:

- A. If any provision of this Declaration or of the By-Laws is invalid under, or would cause this Declaration or the By-Laws to be insufficient to submit the Property to, the provisions of the Condominium Act, such provision shall be deemed deleted from this Declaration or the By-Laws, as the case may be, for the purpose of submitting the Property to the provisions of the Condominium Act, but shall nevertheless be valid and binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, the owners of the Property and their heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns, as covenants running with the Land and with every part thereof and interest therein under other applicable law with the same force and effect as if, immediately after the recording of this Declaration or the By-Laws, all Unit Owners had signed and recorded an instrument agreeing to each such provision as a covenant running with the Land. If any provision that is necessary to cause this Declaration or the By-Laws to be sufficient to submit the Property to the provisions of the Condominium Act is missing from this Declaration or the By-Laws, then such provision shall be deemed included as a part of this Declaration or the By-Laws, as the case may be, for the purpose of submitting the Property to the provisions of the Condominium Act.
- B. Subject to the terms of paragraph (a) of this Clause 17, if this Declaration or the By-Laws are insufficient to submit the Property to the provisions of the Condominium Act, the provisions of this Declaration or the By-Laws shall nevertheless be valid and binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, the owners of the Property and their heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns, as covenants running with the Land and with every part thereof and interest therein under other applicable law to the extent permitted under such applicable law with the same force and effect as if, immediately after the recording of this Declaration and the By-Laws, all Unit Owners had signed and recorded an instrument agreeing to each such provisions as a covenant running with the Land.

18. TERMINATION OF CONDOMINIUM: The Condominium may be terminated by casualty loss, condemnation or eminent domain, in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws, or by withdrawing the Property from the provisions of the New York Condominium Act if authorized by an affirmative vote of Unit Owners who own not less than eighty (80%) percent in number and in Common Interest of the Units. The Sponsor or its designees will not vote its interests appurtenant to any Unsold Units for such withdrawal unless at least eighty (80%) percent in number and in Common Interest of all other Unit Owners have elected for such withdrawal, in which event the Sponsor may choose to vote in favor of or against such withdrawal. In the event said withdrawal is authorized as aforesaid, the Property shall be subject to an action for partition by any Unit Owner or lienor as if owned in common, in which event the net proceeds of sale shall be divided among all the Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests, provided, however, that no payment shall be made to a Unit Owner until all lienors have first been paid off out of his/her share of such proceeds.

19. COMMON EXPENSE: Common Expenses of the Condominium mean and include all expenses of operation of the Property and all sums designated Common Expenses by or pursuant to the provisions of Article 9-B of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, the Declaration or the By-Laws.
20. DEFINITION OF "SPONSOR-DESIGNEE": The term "Sponsor-designee" as used in this Declaration shall mean any person or entity designated by the Sponsor to acquire title to a Unit. A "Sponsor-designee" shall have the right to designate a person or entity to succeed to its rights and any such designee shall also be deemed a "Sponsor-designee".
21. WAIVER: No provision contained in this Declaration shall be deemed to have been abrogated or waived by reason of any failure to enforce the same, irrespective of the number of violations or breaches which may occur.
22. CAPTIONS: The captions herein are inserted only as a matter of convenience and for reference, and in no way define, limit or describe the scope of this Declaration nor the intent of any provision thereof.
23. GENDER: The use of the masculine gender in this Declaration shall be deemed to include the feminine gender and the use of the singular shall be deemed to include the plural whenever the context so requires.
24. AIR AND DEVELOPMENT RIGHTS: The Sponsor has created a separate tax lot, which will be comprised of the development space above the limiting horizontal plane which creates the upper limit of the property of the Condominium as set forth in the description of the land in Schedule A-1. The ownership of the development space above the horizontal plane and all other rights attributable to that development space, including all right, title and interest in and to the air and development rights above unused floor area and other development rights of the Property, has been retained by the Sponsor (the "Air and Development Rights"). The development space and Air and Development rights retained by Sponsor are not part of the Common Elements of the Condominium, as hereinafter defined.

Notwithstanding anything herein contained, the rights of the Owners of the Units, to the restoration and repair or replacement of the Building and the Units in the event of damage or destruction by fire or other casualty to substantially their respective height, size, configuration and usefulness prior to the damage shall not be affected by the fact that any unused development rights at the Property under the Zoning Regulations of the City have been retained by the Sponsor.

Pursuant to the terms of the Declaration of Easement made by the Sponsor dated on even date herewith and intended to be recorded simultaneously herewith, the Condominium shall be entitled to enter upon the development space provided that the use thereof does not interfere, restrict, reduce or encumber the development rights of the Declarant in the Declaration of Easement Over and Upon Development Space for Utilization of Limited Common Elements and Common Elements.

The Declarant has conveyed the property described in Schedule A-1 consisting of all that certain part or portion of that certain plot, piece or parcel of land, situate, lying and being in the Borough of New York, County of New York, City and State of New York, which lies _____ thereby reserving and retaining unto itself such portion of the property which lies above said elevation. This retention of the Air and Development Rights is subject to the Declaration of Easement referred to above.

The Condominium Board of Managers shall execute any zoning lot merger, Declaration or other document or instrument required by the Sponsor or its assigns to effectively utilize the Development Rights.

In order to assure compliance with this provision, and limited to the execution of documents pertaining to the Air and Development Rights and its use thereof, the Condominium hereby appoints the Sponsor, its successors or assigns, as its attorney-in-fact as to any document or instrument it requires to be executed on behalf of the Board of Managers in order for it to fully utilize its rights to the Air and Development Rights, including, but not limited to, zoning lot mergers, zoning lot declarations or other documents or instruments in connection therewith with the appropriate public office and consents to such filings. This power, being coupled with an interest, shall be irrevocable so long as the Sponsor, or its successors and/or assigns, continues to hold title to the Air and Development Rights.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this Declaration to be executed by its duly authorized representatives this ____ day of _____, 200__.

The Condominium thereby created shall hereinafter be known as the EMPIRE/30 CONDOMINIUM.

Section 2. Applicability Of By-Laws: The provisions of these By-Laws are applicable to the Property of the Condominium and to the use and occupancy thereof. The term "Property" as used herein shall include the land, the Buildings and all other improvements thereon (including the Units, the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements), owned in fee simple absolute, and all easements, rights and appurtenances belonging thereto, and all other property, personal or mixed, intended for use in connection therewith, all of which are intended to be submitted to the provisions of said Article 9-B of the Real Property Law of the State of New York. The Condominium Units are hereinafter sometimes referred to as "Unit" or "Units".

The acceptance of a deed or conveyance or the entering into of a lease for a Unit or the act of occupancy of a Unit shall constitute an agreement that these By-Laws, the Rules and Regulations and the provisions of the Declaration, as they may be amended from time to time, are accepted, ratified, and will be complied with.

Section 4. Office: The office of the Condominium and of the Board of Managers shall be located at the Property.

ARTICLE II

Meetings of Unit Owner

Section 1. Annual Meeting: The Annual Meeting of the Unit Owners of the Condominium, for the election of the Board of Managers and for such other business as may properly come before such meeting, shall be held in the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York, at such time and place, each year as may be designated by the Board. The notice of the meeting shall be in writing and signed by the President or a Vice President or the Secretary or an assistant Secretary. Such notice shall state the time when and the place within the state where it is to be held, and the Secretary shall cause a copy thereof to be delivered personally or mailed to each Unit Owner of record of the Condominium entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten (10) nor more than forty (40) days before the meeting. If mailed, it shall be directed to each such Unit Owner at his/her address as it appears in the records of the Condominium, unless he/she shall have filed with the Secretary of the Condominium a written request that notices intended for him/her be mailed to some other address, in which case it shall be mailed to the address designated in such request.

Section 2. Special Meetings: Special meetings of Unit Owners, other than those the calling of which is regulated by statute, may be called at any time by the President or Secretary or by a majority of the Board of Managers. It shall also be the duty of the Secretary to call such meetings whenever requested in writing by Unit Owners owning at least twenty-five percent (25%) in number and Common Interest of the Condominium. The Secretary shall cause a notice of such Special Meeting stating the time, place and object thereof and the officer or other person or persons by whom the meeting is called, to be delivered personally or mailed as provided in Section 1 of this Article to each Unit Owner of record of the Condominium entitled to vote at such meeting not less than ten (10) nor more than forty (40) days before such meeting. No business other than that stated in such notice shall be transacted at such Special Meeting unless the holders of all the Units of the Condominium be present thereat in person or by proxy. Except that there shall be a meeting commenced within sixty days after the closing of the First Unit to be sold to elect a Board of Managers.

Section 3. Waiver of Notices: The notice provided for in the two foregoing sections is not indispensable, but any Unit Owners' meeting shall be valid for all purposes if all the Unit Owners of the Condominium are represented thereat in person or by proxy, or if a quorum is present, as provided in the next succeeding section, and waiver of notice of the time, place and objects of such meeting shall be duly executed in writing either before or after said meeting by such Unit Owners as are not so represented and were not given such notice.

Section 4. Quorum: At each meeting of Unit Owners, except where otherwise provided by law, Unit Owners representing, in person or by proxy, 51% of the percentage of Common Interest to the Units shall constitute a quorum; in case a quorum shall not be present at any meeting, the holders of a majority of the Units represented may adjourn the meeting to some future time and place. No notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting need be given other than by announcement at the meeting. Only those Unit Owners who, if present at the original meeting, would have been entitled to vote thereat, shall be entitled to vote at any such adjourned meeting.

Section 5. Voting: At each meeting of Unit Owners, each Unit Owner present in person or by proxy shall be entitled to cast the votes appurtenant to his/her Unit at the time of service of notice of such meeting or at such prior date, not more than forty days before such meeting, as may be prescribed by the Board of Managers as the date for determining which Unit Owners of record are entitled to notice of and to vote at such meeting. The proxies shall be in writing duly signed by the Unit Owner but need not be acknowledged or witnessed, and the person named as proxy by any Unit Owner need not himself be a Unit Owner of the Condominium. Voting by Unit Owners shall be viva voce unless any Unit Owner present at the meeting, in person or by proxy, demands a vote by written ballot, in which case the voting shall be by ballot, and each ballot shall state the name of the Unit Owner voting and the number of votes appurtenant to his/her Unit, and in addition, the name of the proxy of such ballot if cast by a proxy. For a period of two years, or so long as the Sponsor, its successor, offerors or designees continue to have among them 50% or more of Common Interest of the Condominium, it shall have the right to designate two of the three Directors (see Article IV, Section 1).

Section 6. Title to Units: Title to Units may be taken in the name of an individual or in the names of two (2) or more persons, as tenants in common or as joint tenants or as tenants by the entirety or in the name of a corporation or partnership, or in the name of a fiduciary or trust, estate, unincorporated association, syndicate, joint venture, organization, government or any department or agency thereof, or any other entity. The term "Unit Owner" as used in these By-Laws shall include any person, group of persons, association or entity taking title as set forth in this Section. The above shall not constitute consent or condonation of any activity not permitted under existing certificate of occupancy, zoning requirements or other applicable law or regulation.

Section 7. Number of Votes: Any or all of such Owners (including the Sponsor or Sponsor-designee, if the Sponsor or its designee shall then own one or more Units) shall be entitled to cast one vote for each .01% of interest in the Common Elements attributable to the Unit or Units owned by them on all matters put to the vote at all meetings of Unit Owners; except that, when voting for the election of members of the Board of Managers, each Unit Owner shall be entitled to one vote for each .01% of Common Interest attributable to his/her Unit per member to be elected. If Units are owned by more than one person as joint tenants, tenants by the entirety or as tenants in common or by a partnership, corporation or other entity, the persons owning said Unit shall agree among themselves and cast the votes for their Unit as a single vote. A fiduciary shall be the voting member with respect to any Unit in a fiduciary capacity. Any Unit or Units owned by the Board of Managers or its designee shall not be entitled to vote. A Unit Owner defaulting in payment of Common Charges or assessments shall not be permitted or entitled to vote at any regular or special meeting of Unit Owners.

Section 8. Majority of Unit Owners: As used in these By-Laws the term "majority of Unit Owners" shall mean those Unit Owners having greater than 51% of the percentage of Common Interest appurtenant to all Unit Owners present in person or by proxy and voting at any meeting of the Unit Owners, determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 7 of this Article II. Unless otherwise provided by these By-Laws, decisions require a majority (51%) of the Common Interest of the Condominium.

Section 9. Inspectors of Election: Inspectors of election shall not be required to be appointed at any meeting of Unit Owners unless requested by a Unit Owner present (in person or by proxy) and entitled to vote at such meeting and upon the making of such request inspectors shall be appointed or elected as provided in Section 610 of the Business Corporation Law.

Section 10. Order of Business: So far as consistent with the purpose of the meeting, the order of business of each meeting of Unit Owners shall be as follows:

Section 4. President: The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Condominium. He/she shall preside at all meetings of the Unit Owners and of the Board of Managers. He/she shall have all of the general powers and duties which are incident to the office of president of a stock corporation organized under the Business Corporation Law of the State of New York, including but not limited to the power to appoint committees from among the Unit Owners from time to time as he/she may in his/her discretion decide is appropriate to assist in the conduct of the affairs of the Condominium.

If neither the President nor the Vice President is able to act, the Board of Managers shall appoint some other member of the Board of Managers to act in the place of the President, on an interim basis. The Vice President shall also perform such other duties as shall from time to time be imposed upon him/her by the Board of Managers or by the President.

Section 10. Liability of Officers: No officer shall be liable to the Unit Owners for any mistake of judgment, negligence, or otherwise, except for willful misconduct or bad faith. The Unit Owners shall severally indemnify each officer against any liability or claims except those arising out of the bad faith or willful misconduct of an officer. It is intended that each officer shall have no personal liability with respect to any contract made by him/her on behalf of the Condominium. It is and shall be permissible for each officer who is appointed by the original Board of Managers (designees of the Sponsor), to contract with the Sponsor and affiliated corporations without fear of being charged with self-dealing. It is also intended that the liability of any Unit Owner arising out of any contract made by an officer or out of the aforesaid indemnity in favor of each officer shall be limited to such proportion of the total liability thereunder as his/her interest in the Common Elements bears to the aggregate interest in the Common Elements of all the Unit Owners. Every agreement made by an officer on behalf of the Condominium shall provide that each officer is acting only as agent for the Unit Owners and shall have no personal liability thereunder (except as Unit Owners, except for willful misconduct or bad faith), and that each Unit Owner's liability thereunder shall be limited to such proportion of the total liability thereunder as his/her interest in the Common Elements bears to the aggregate interest in the Common Elements of all Unit Owners.

ARTICLE IV

Managers

Section 1. Number: The number of Managers of the Condominium shall be not less than three (3) nor more than five (5), as may from time to time be herein provided and, in the absence of such provision shall be three (3). Commencing with the first election of Managers by Unit Owners of the Condominium, and until changed by amendment of this By-Law provision, as hereinafter provided, the number of Managers shall be three (3). The number of Managers shall not be decreased to a number less than the number of Managers then in office except at any Annual Meeting of Unit Owners. However, during the period the Sponsor, its Successor Offeror(s) or Designee(s) continue to hold 50% or more of the percentage of Common Interest of the Condominium the number of Managers shall remain fixed at three (3). There shall always be an odd number of Managers. The Managers shall hold office until their successors have been elected and hold their first meeting. But in any event, the members of the Board of Managers shall serve a term of one year each. Each Manager may be re-elected for another term however.

To assure that Purchasers under this Plan will be represented on the Board of Managers, at least one less than a majority of Managers to be elected shall be unrelated to the Sponsor or principal of the Sponsor (i.e., if three (3) Managers are to be elected, at least one (1) must be unrelated to the Sponsor or principals of the Sponsor). Furthermore, the Sponsor shall not exercise voting control of the Board of Managers for more than two (2) years after the closing of the first unit or whenever the Unsold Units constitute less than 50% of the common interests, whichever is sooner. The Sponsor will hold a meeting to elect a new Board of Managers unrelated to the Sponsor within 30 days after the expiration of the control period.

Furthermore, after the initial sponsor voting control period of no more than 2 years, a majority of the Board of Managers shall be owner-occupants or members of an owner-occupants household who are unrelated to the Sponsor and its principals. Owner-occupants and non-resident owners, including Sponsor, may have inherent conflicts on how the Condominium should be managed because of their different reasons for purchasing, i.e. purchasing as a home as opposed to an investment.

Section 2. Powers and Duties: The Board of Managers shall have the powers and duties necessary for the administration of the affairs of the Condominium, as agent of all Unit Owners and may do all such acts and things except as by law or by the Declaration or by these By-Laws may not be delegated to the Board of Managers, which shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

o. Borrowing money on behalf of the Condominium when required in connection with the operation, care, upkeep and maintenance of the Common Elements, provided, however, that (i) the consent of a majority of all Unit Owners shall be required for the borrowing of any sum in excess of $50,000 and (ii) no lien to secure repayment of any sum borrowed may be created on any Unit or its appurtenant interest in the Common Elements without the written consent of the Unit Owners. If any sum borrowed by the Board of Managers on behalf of the Condominium pursuant to the authority contained in this paragraph (o) is not repaid by the Board, a Unit Owner who pays to the creditor such proportion thereof as his/her interest in the Common Elements bears to the interest of all the Unit Owners in the Common Elements shall be entitled to obtain from the creditor a release of any judgment or other lien which said creditor shall have filed or shall have the right to file against the Unit Owner's Unit.

p. Levying fines against Unit Owners for violations of the Rules and Regulations governing the operation and use of the Property.

q. The Board may undertake to commence proceedings to reduce real estate taxes on the Units.

r. Have the right to accumulate reserve for capital expenditures within limits otherwise stated herein.

s. To enter into and upon the Units when necessary and act with as little inconvenience to the Unit Owners as possible in connection with the maintenance, care and preservation of the property.

Section 3. Election: The Managers shall be elected at the Annual Meeting of Unit Owners or at a Special Meeting called for that purpose as provided by law, by a plurality of votes cast at such meeting. Their term of office shall be until their respective successors are elected and qualify. But in any event, the members of the Board shall serve a term of one (1) year.

Section 4. Quorum: A majority of the Managers then authorized by these By-Laws shall constitute a quorum.

Section 5. Vacancies: Vacancies in the Board of Managers resulting from death, resignation or otherwise may be filled without notice to any of the Unit Owners by a vote of a majority of the remaining Managers present at the meeting at which such election is held even though no quorum is present, which may be at any regular meeting of the Board of Managers or any Special Meeting thereof called for such purpose. In the event of the failure to hold any election of Managers at the time designated for the annual election of Managers or in the event that the Board of Managers shall not have filled any such vacancy, a Special Meeting of Unit Owners to elect a new Board of Managers or fill such vacancy shall be called and the vacancy shall be filled in the manner provided in the resolution call for such meeting. In case of a reduction of the authorized number of Managers by amendment of these By-Laws, the Managers, if any, whose term of office shall cease, shall be determined in the manner provided in the resolution adopting such amendment.

Section 6. Meetings: The Board of Managers shall meet immediately after the Annual Meeting of Unit Owners without notice and also whenever called together by any Manager of the Condominium or upon the written request of any Managers then holding office, upon notice given to each Manager, by delivering personally, mailing or telegraphing the same to him/her at least two (2) days prior to such meeting at the last address furnished by him/her to the Condominium. Regular meetings may be held without notice at such times and places as the Board of Managers may determine but until otherwise determined by the Board of Managers shall be at least monthly. Any meeting of the Managers at which all the members shall be present, or of which notice shall be duly waived by all absentees, either before or after the holding of such meeting, shall be valid for all purposes provided a quorum be present. Meetings of Managers may be held either at the principal office of the Condominium or elsewhere within the State of New York as provided in the notice calling the meeting, unless the Board of Managers by resolution adopt some further limitation in regard thereto. At all meetings of the Board of Managers, each Manager shall be entitled to one vote. The vote of a majority of the Board of Managers present at the time of a vote of a duly constituted meeting shall be the act of the Board of Managers.

Section 7. Resignation and Removal: Any Manager may resign at any time by written notice delivered in person or sent by certified registered mail to the President or Secretary of the Condominium. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, and unless specifically requested acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Any Manager may be removed from office at any time with or without cause upon the affirmative vote of the Unit Owners owning at least 51% of the Common Interest of the Condominium at a Unit Owners' meeting duly called for that purpose; provided, however, that the Manager(s) elected by the Successor-Sponsor (a Unit owned or retained by the Sponsor or its designee, or a Unit for which a prospective Purchaser is in default under the terms of his/her Purchase Agreement past any applicable cure period, or a Unit the Sponsor has not sold, or a Unit that is acquired individually or collectively by one or more members of a group that consists of the Sponsor or a partner of the Sponsor, or by a group that consists of the Sponsor or a partner of the Sponsor and a person or persons joined with the Sponsor or any entity or individual(s) as designated by the Sponsor) can be removed only for cause by vote of a majority of the Unit Owners or without cause by the Successor-Sponsor.

Section 8. Annual Cash Requirements: The Board of Managers shall, from time to time, determine the cash requirements as defined in the Condominium's By-Laws and fix the terms and manner of payment of Common Charges. The Board of Managers shall have discretionary power to prescribe the manner of maintaining and operating the Building, to be paid as aforesaid by the Unit Owners. Every such determination by the Board of Managers shall be final and conclusive as to all Unit Owners and any expenditures made by the Condominium's officers or its agent under the Board of Managers or with the approval of the Board of Managers of the Condominium shall, as against the Unit Owners, be deemed necessarily and properly made for such purpose. Sponsor may not exercise veto power over expenses described in Schedule B, or over expenses required: (i) to comply with applicable laws or regulations; or (ii) to remedy any notices of violation; or (iii) to remedy any work order by an insurer.

Sponsor may exercise veto power over expenses described above, for a period ending not more than five (5) years after the closing of the first Unit or whenever the Unsold Units constitute less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the Common Interest, whichever is sooner.

However, notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the Sponsor, as Successor-Sponsor, or other Successor-Sponsors, shall not veto the expenses set forth in Schedule B, or expenditures required to comply with applicable laws or regulations.

The Condominium may take any of the actions enumerated above, if the cost of such actions, when added to all other budgeted expenses of the Condominium (excluding debt service), shall not result in increasing the Common Charges for any year of operation by more than 5% from the previous year's Common Charges.

Section 9. Rules and Regulations: The Board of Managers may from time to time adopt and amend such rules and regulations as it may deem necessary in respect to the Building of the Condominium for the health, safety and convenience of the Unit Owners. Copies thereof and of changes therein shall be furnished to each Unit Owner.

Section 10. Managing Agent and Manager: The Board of Managers may employ for the Condominium a Managing Agent and/or a Manager at a compensation established by the Board of Managers to perform such duties and services as the Board of Managers shall authorize. The Board of Managers may delegate to the Manager or Managing Agent, all of the powers granted to the Board of Managers by these By-Laws other than the powers set forth in subdivisions (b), (e), (f), (g), (h), (i), (j), (k), (n), (o) and (p) of Section 2 of this Article VI.

Section 11. Compensation: No member of the Board of Managers shall receive any compensation from the Condominium for acting as such.

Section 12. Liability of the Board of Managers: The members of the Board of Managers shall not be liable to the Unit Owners for any mistake of judgment, negligence, or otherwise, except for their own individual willful misconduct or bad faith. The Unit Owners shall indemnify and hold harmless each of the members of the Board of Managers against all contractual liability to others arising out of contracts made by the Board of Managers on behalf of the Condominium unless any such contract shall have been made in bad faith or contrary to the provisions of the Declaration or of these By-Laws. It is intended that the members of the Board of Managers shall have no personal liability with respect to any contract made by them on behalf of the Condominium within the scope of their authority. It is understood and permissible for the original Board of Managers, who are designated by the Sponsor, to contract with the Sponsor and affiliated corporations without fear of being charged with self-dealing. It is also intended that the liability of any Unit Owner arising out of any contract made by the Board of Managers shall be limited to such proportion of the total liability thereunder as his/her interest in the Common Elements bears to the interests of all the Unit Owners in the Common Elements. Every agreement made by the Board of Managers or by the Managing Agent or by the Manager on behalf of the Condominium shall provide that the members of the Board of Managers, or the Managing Agent, or the Manager, as the case may be, are acting only as agent for the Unit Owners in the Common Elements. Every agreement made by the Board of Managers or by the Managing Agent or by the Manager on behalf of the Condominium shall provide that the members of the Board of Managers, or the Managing Agent, or the Manager, as the case may be, are acting only as agent for the Unit Owners and shall have no personal liability thereunder (except as Unit Owners), and that each Unit Owner's liability thereunder shall be limited to such proportion of the total liability thereunder as his/her interest in the Common Elements bears to the interest of all Unit Owners in the Common Elements.

Section 13. Committees: The Board of Managers may by resolution create such committees as it shall deem appropriate and such committees shall have such powers and authority as the Board of Managers shall vest therein. The members of any such committee, at least one of whom shall be designated by the Sponsor or a Sponsor-designee, so long as the Sponsor or Sponsor-designee has the right to designate a member of the Board, shall be appointed by the President of the Condominium. Such committee shall not have power to do any act which the Executive Committee may not do under subsections (a) - (d) of Section 8 of Article IV.

ARTICLE V

Section 1. Definitions: Whenever under the provisions of the Declaration or of these By-Laws, notice is required to be given to the Board of Managers, any Manager, Unit Owner or mortgagee, it shall not be construed to mean personal notice; but such notice may be given in writing, by mail by depositing the same in a post office or letter box, in a postpaid sealed wrapper, addressed to the Board of Managers, such Manager or Unit Owner or mortgagee at such address as appears on the books of the Condominium.

Section 2. Service of Notice Waiver: Whenever any notice is required to be given under the provisions of the Declaration or of these By-Laws, a waiver thereof, in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed the equivalent thereof.

ARTICLE VI

Operation of the Property

Section 1. Determination of Common Expenses and Fixing of Common Charges: The Board of Managers shall from time to time, at least annually, prepare a budget for the Condominium, determine the amount of the Common Charges payable by the Unit Owners to meet the Common Expenses of the Condominium and allocate and assess such Common Charges among the Unit Owners according to their respective percentage of the Common Elements. The Common Expenses shall include, among other things, the cost of all insurance premiums on all policies of insurance required to be or which have been obtained by the Board of Managers pursuant to the provisions of Section 2 of this Article VI and the fees and disbursements of the Insurance Trustee. The Common Expenses shall also include such amounts as the Board of Managers may deem proper for the operation and maintenance of the Property, including, without limitation, an amount for working capital of the Condominium for a general operating reserve, and for a reserve fund for replacements, to make up any deficit in the Common Expenses for any prior year. The Common Expenses may also include such amounts as may be required for the purchase or lease by the Board of Managers or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Unit Owners, of any Unit whose owner has elected to sell or lease such Unit or of any Unit which is to be sold at a foreclosure or other judicial sale, together with such amounts as may be necessary to maintain such Unit(s). The Board of Managers shall also, where necessary, impose an assessment or additional Common Charge in order to meet any unanticipated Common Expense. The Board of Managers shall advise all Unit Owners, promptly, in writing, of the amount of Common Charges payable by each of them, respectively, as determined by the Board of Managers, as aforesaid, and shall furnish copies of each budget on which such charges are based, to all Unit Owners and to their mortgagees, if so required.

The Sponsor or Sponsor-designee shall be responsible for the Common Charges assessed against a Unit owned by it from the date of the First Unit Closing until such Unit is sold to a bona fide purchaser.

So long as a majority of the Board of Managers consists of the Sponsor or Successor-Sponsor or persons elected by them who do not reside in the Building, said non-resident Board of Managers members elected by the Sponsor or Successor-Sponsor may not exercise veto power over expenses described in Schedule B, or over expenses required: (i) to comply with applicable laws or regulations; or (ii) to remedy any notices of violation; or (iii) to remedy any work order by an insurer.

However, notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the Sponsor, as Successor-Sponsor, or other Successor-Sponsors, shall not veto the expenses set forth in Schedule B, entitled "PROJECTED BUDGET FOR FIRST YEAR OF OPERATION" or expenditures required to comply with applicable laws or regulations.

The Board of Managers may take any of the actions enumerated above, if the cost of such actions, when added to all other budgeted expenses of the Condominium (excluding debt service), shall not result in increasing the Common Charges for any year of operation by more than 5% from the previous year's maintenance charges.

Section 2. Insurance: The Board of Managers shall be required to obtain and maintain, to the extent obtainable, the following insurance: (1) fire insurance with extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief endorsements, insuring the Building containing the Units (including all of the Units and the fixtures initially installed therein by the Sponsor or by prior construction and any other property usual to the servicing and general occupancy, but not including furniture, furnishings, or other personal property supplied or installed by Unit Owners), together with all service machinery and equipment contained therein and covering the interests of the Condominium, the Board of Managers and all Unit Owners and their mortgagees with certificates of insurance, as their interests may appear, in an amount to be determined by the Board of Managers but in no event to be less than eighty (80%) percent of the full replacement cost of the Building, including above noted items but exclusive of footings and foundations, as approved by a fire insurance company or a qualified insurance broker; each of said policies shall contain a Condominium Property Endorsement and a New York standard mortgagee clause in favor of each mortgagee of a Unit which shall provide that the loss, if any, thereunder shall be payable to such mortgagee as its interest may appear, subject however, to the loss payment provisions in favor of the Board of Manager and the Insurance Trustee, as herein provided; (2) worker's compensation insurance, if the Condominium has employees; (3) disability benefits insurance if the Condominium has employees; and (4) such other insurance as the Board of Managers may determine. All policies of physical damage insurance shall provide that adjustment of loss shall be made by the Board of Managers (with the approval of the Insurance Trustee, if any, if more than $50,000.00), and that the total proceeds thereof, if $50,000.00 or less, shall be payable to the Board of Managers and if more than $50,000.00 shall be payable to the Insurance Trustee, if any.

All policies of physical damage insurance shall contain waivers of subrogation and the individual Unit Owners as well as the Condominium shall be primary insureds to the extent their interests shall also appear. Such policies may not be cancelled or substantially modified without at least ten (10) days prior written notice to all of the insureds, including all mortgagees of Units. Duplicate originals of all policies of physical damage insurance and of all renewals thereof, together with proof of payment of premiums, shall be delivered to all mortgagees of Units at least ten (10) days prior to expiration of the then current policies.

The Board of Managers shall also be required to obtain and maintain, to the extent obtainable, public liability insurance in such limits as the Board of Managers may from time to time determine, covering each member of the Board of Managers, the Managing Agent, the Manager and each Unit Owner. Such public liability coverage shall also cover cross liability claims of one insured against another.

Unit Owners shall not be prohibited from carrying other insurance for their own benefit, provided that all such policies shall contain waivers of subrogation and further provided that the liability of the carriers issuing insurance obtained by the Board of Managers shall not be affected or diminished by reason of any such additional insurance carried by any Unit Owner. Such policies shall be so endorsed as to state that they will in no way conflict with any insurance carried by the Board of Managers.

Section 3. Repair or Reconstruction After Fire or Other Casualty: In the event of damage to or destruction of the Building containing the Units as a result of fire or other casualty, unless seventy-five (75%) or more of the Building containing the Units is destroyed or substantially damaged and Unit Owners whose percentage of Common Interest totals eighty (80%) in the aggregate of the total Common Interest do not duly and promptly resolve to proceed with repair or restoration, the Board of Managers shall arrange for the prompt repair and restoration of the Building containing the Units (including any damaged Units, and any kitchen or bathroom fixtures initially installed therein by the Sponsor, but not including any wall, ceiling or floor decorations or coverings or other furniture, furnishings, fixtures or equipment installed in the Units by the Unit Owners), and the Board of Managers or the Insurance Trustee, as the case may be, shall disburse the proceeds of all insurance policies in appropriate progress payments for distribution to the contractors engaged in such repairs and restoration. Any cost of such repair and restoration in excess of the insurance proceeds shall constitute a Common Expense and the Board of Managers may assess all the Unit Owners for such deficit as part of the Common Charges.

If seventy-five (75%) or more of the Building containing the Units is destroyed or substantially damaged (as determined by the Board of Managers) and Unit Owners whose percentage of Common Interest totals eighty (80%) percent in the aggregate of the total Common Interest do not duly and promptly resolve to proceed with repair or restoration, the Property shall be subject to an action for partition at the suit of any Unit Owner or lienor, as if owned in common, in which event the net proceeds of sale together with the net proceeds of insurance policies (or if there shall have been a repair or restoration pursuant to the first paragraph of this Section 3, and the amount of insurance proceeds shall have exceeded the cost of such repair or restoration, then the excess of such insurance proceeds) shall be divided by the Board of Managers or the Insurance Trustee, as the case may be, among all the Unit Owners in proportion to their respective percentage of interest in the Common Elements, after first payment out of the share of each Unit Owner the amount of any unpaid liens on his/her Unit, in the order of the priority of such liens.

Whenever in this Section the words "prompt repair" are used it shall mean repairs are to begin not more than sixty days from the date the Insurance Trustee notified the Board of Managers and the Unit Owner or Unit Owners that it shall hold proceeds of insurance funds sufficient to pay the estimated costs of such work; or not more than ninety days after Insurance Trustee notified said Board of Managers and Unit Owner or Owners that such funds are insufficient to pay said estimated costs and advising them of the amount of the required completion bond, if necessary, or in the event there is no Insurance Trustee, not more than sixty days from the date of receipt of insurance funds on account of such damage or destruction and wherever the words, "promptly resolve" are used it shall also mean not more than sixty days from the date of receipt of said insurance funds.

Section 4. Payment of Common Charges: All Unit Owners shall be obligated to pay the Common Charges assessed by the Board of Managers pursuant to the provisions of Section 8 of this Article VI at such time or times as the Board of Managers shall determine. Common charges shall be allocated to the Residential Units on the basis of their Percentage of Residential Common Interest. For so long as the Commercial Unit does not utilize the electrical service or water service, and makes its own repairs and is not benefited by any service contracts for the building, it shall not share in the allocation of these expenses. It shall, however, pay its percentage of Common Interest as applied to that portion of the insurance coverage and shall pay the equivalent of the Percentage of Common Interests of an average Residential Unit for the budget items pertaining to Legal Fees and Audit Fees.

No Unit Owner shall be liable for the payment of any part of the Common Charges assessed against his/her Unit subsequent to a sale, transfer or other conveyance by him/her (made in accordance with the provisions of Section 1 of Article VIII of these By-Laws) of such Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, as defined in Section 1 of Article VIII hereof. In addition, any Unit Owner may, subject to the terms and conditions specified in these By-Laws, provided that his/her Unit is free and clear of liens and encumbrances, other than permissible encumbrances and the statutory lien for unpaid Common Charges, convey his/her Unit, together with the "Appurtenant Interests" to the Board of Managers, or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all other Unit Owners, and in such event be exempt from Common Charges thereafter assessed. A purchaser of a Unit shall be liable for the payment of Common Charges assessed and unpaid against such Unit prior to the acquisition by him/her of such Unit, except that a mortgagee or other purchaser of a Unit at a foreclosure sale of such Unit shall not be liable for and such Unit shall not be subject to a lien for the payment of Common Charges assessed prior to the foreclosure sale.

Section 5. Collection of Common Charges and Assessments: The Board of Managers shall assess Common Charges against the Unit Owners from time to time at least annually and shall take prompt action to collect any Common Charge due from any Unit Owner which remains unpaid for more than 30 days from the due date for payment thereof. The Board of Managers shall also take prompt action to collect any assessment due from any Unit Owner which remains unpaid for more than 30 days from the due date thereof.

Section 6. Default in Payment of Common Charges or Assessments: In the event of default by any Unit Owner in paying to the Board of Managers the Common Charges or any assessment as determined by the Board of Managers, such Unit Owner shall be obligated to pay interest at the highest legal rate on such Common Charges or assessments from the due date thereof, together with all expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by the Board of Managers in any proceeding brought to collect such unpaid Common Charges or assessments. The Board of Managers shall have the right and duty to attempt to recover such Common Charges or assessments, together with interest thereon, and the expenses of the proceeding, including attorneys' fees, in an action to recover the same brought against such Unit Owner, or by foreclosure of the lien on such Unit granted by Section 339-aa of the Real Property Law of the State of New York. A Unit Owner defaulting in payment of Common Charges or assessments shall not be permitted to vote at any regular or special meeting of Unit Owners.

Section 7. Foreclosure of Liens for Unpaid Common Charges: In any action brought by the Board of Managers to foreclose a lien on a Unit because of unpaid Common Charges, the Unit Owner shall be required to pay a reasonable rental after judgment of foreclosure for the use of his/her Unit and the plaintiff in such foreclosure action shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the same. The Board of Managers, acting on behalf of all Unit Owners, shall have power to purchase such Unit at foreclosure sale and to acquire, hold, lease, mortgage (but not to vote the votes appurtenant to), convey or otherwise deal with same. A suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid Common Charges shall be maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing the same. The proceeds from the sale of any Unit pursuant to this section shall be used first to pay the unpaid Common Charges and/or assessments of such defaulting Unit Owner, plus reasonable attorney's fees and administrative costs and any other lawful liens on the defaulting Unit. If after the sale of the Unit for the nonpayment of Common Charges and/or assessments, the sale does not recover the full amount due and owing, the Board of Managers has the right to assess all the Unit Owners as a Common Expense for the difference between the amount received by the Condominium from the sale of the Unit and the amount owed to the Condominium.

Section 8. Statement of Common Charges and Assessments: The Board of Managers shall promptly provide any Unit Owner so requesting the same in writing, with a written statement of all unpaid Common Charges due from such Unit Owner.

Section 9. Abatement and Enjoinment of Violations by Unit Owners: The violation of any rule or regulation adopted by the Board of Managers, or the breach of any By-Law contained herein, or the breach of any provision of the Declaration, shall give the Board of Managers the right, in addition to any other right set forth in these By-Laws: (a) upon reasonable notice to the Unit Owner, to enter the Unit in which, or as to which, such violation or breach exists and to summarily abate and remove, at the expense of the defaulting Unit Owner, any structure, thing or condition that may exist therein contrary to the intent and meaning of the provisions hereof (provided, however, that no prior notice shall be required in the event the Board of Managers shall determine that action is immediately necessary for the preservation or safety of the Property of the Condominium or for the safety of residents of the Condominium or other persons or required to avoid the suspension of any necessary service to the Condominium); or (b) to enjoin, abate or remedy by appropriate legal proceedings, either at law or in equity, the continuance of any such breach.

Section 10. Maintenance and Repairs:

a. All maintenance of and repairs to any Unit, ordinary or extraordinary, and to the doors (except painting exterior side of Unit entrance door), windows (except painting exterior side of windows), electrical (except General Common Elements), plumbing (except General Common Elements) and heating fixtures and air conditioning units within the Unit or belonging to the Unit Owner shall be at the Unit Owner's expense, excepting as otherwise specifically provided herein.

b. All maintenance, repairs and replacements to the General Common Elements as defined in the Declaration, and the painting and decorating of the exterior side of Unit entrance doors and windows shall be made by the Board of Managers and be charged to all the Unit Owners as a Common Expense, excepting to the extent that the same are necessitated by the negligence, misuse or neglect of a Unit Owner, in which case such expense shall be charged to such Unit Owner. Maintenance, repair and replacements in or to the Limited Common Elements as defined in the Declaration will be performed (a) by the Board of Managers as a Common Expense, or if it involves structural maintenance, repairs or replacements (including, but not limited to, the repair of any leaks that are not caused by the acts or omissions of the Unit Owner, having direct and exclusive access thereto), or (b) by the Unit Owner having direct and exclusive access thereto at his/her sole cost and expense, if involving nonstructural ordinary maintenance, repairs or replacements or as a result of the Unit Owner's acts or omissions.

Section 11. Restrictions on Use of Units: In order to provide for congenial occupancy of the Property and for the protection of the values of the Units, the use of the Property shall be restricted to and shall be in accordance with the following provisions:

a. The Residential Units shall be used for private residences only, except that a Unit Owner may use his/her Residential Unit for any home occupation use permitted under applicable zoning law and ordinances, building code or other rules and regulations of governmental authorities having jurisdiction. Any Residential Unit may also be used as a professional office by a resident thereof provided such professional use does not violate zoning regulations and provided further that the prior consent of the Board of Managers to such professional use is obtained. Notwithstanding the foregoing the Sponsor or Sponsor-designee shall have the right, without charge, (i) to maintain general and sales offices in one or more Units or elsewhere on the Property, to use one or more Units as models and for other promotional purposes and to erect and maintain signs on the Property; (ii) to have its employees, contractors and sales agents present on the Property; (iii) to do all things necessary or appropriate, including the use of the Common Elements, to sell or lease Units and to complete construction of the Building and to comply with its obligations.

b. The Commercial Unit shall be used for any permitted commercial use. Currently it is intended that the Commercial Unit will be used as a bar/restaurant. However, Provided that the use complies with the applicable terms of the Amended and Restated Declaration, the Board of Managers does not have the right to approve any change in the use of the Commercial Unit, or any part hereof, or to apply for or cause any amendment to the Building's Certificate of Occupancy to authorize a different use except at the request of the Unit Owner. The Commercial Unit Owner shall have the right, without obtaining the consent of the Board of Managers or the Residential Unit Owner or mortgagees of other Units other than the affected Unit, to subdivide the Commercial Unit into two or more Commercial Units and to reallocate the Common Interest of the Commercial Unit among the newly established Commercial Units in proportion to their respective floor areas. Such subdivision must be reflected in a duly recorded amendment to the Declaration filed by the new Unit Owners. Under no circumstances will the Common -Interest of any Residential Unit owner be changed as a result of such subdivision or will the aggregate Common Interest for the new Units be greater than the Common Interest for the original Units. If the Commercial Unit is so subdivided, the owner or owners thereof shall have the right, without obtaining the consent of the Board of Managers, Residential Unit owners, or mortgagees of Units other than the affected Unit, to thereafter change the size, layout, and/or number of Commercial Units under the same terms, conditions and restrictions as those imposed on the original Commercial Unit Owner.

The Commercial Unit owner shall have the right, without the payment of any fees or charges to the Board of Managers or the Managing Agent, to sell or lease its Unit, or any part thereof, without the Board of Managers having any right of first refusal to purchase or lease such Unit, and all sale and/or rental proceeds shall belong solely to the Commercial Unit Owner.

c. The Common Elements shall be used only for the furnishing of the services and facilities for which they are reasonably suited and which are incident to the use and occupancy of Units.

d. No nuisances shall be allowed on the Property nor shall any use or practice be allowed which is a source of annoyance to its residents or which interferes with the peaceful possession or proper use of the Property by its residents.

e. No unlawful use shall be made of the Property or any part thereof, and all valid laws, zoning ordinances and regulations of all governmental bodies having jurisdiction thereof shall be observed. Violations of laws, orders, rules, regulations or requirements of any governmental agency having jurisdiction thereof, relating to any portion of the Property, shall be eliminated, by and at the sole expense of the Unit Owners, or the Board of Managers, whichever shall have the obligation to maintain or repair such portion of the Property.

- f. No portion of the Unit or other Limited Common Elements appurtenant thereto (other than the entire Unit including the Limited Common Elements appurtenant thereto) may be rented.

Section 12. Additions, Alterations or Improvements by Board of Managers: Whenever in the judgment of the Board of Managers the Common Elements shall require additions, alterations or improvements (but not maintenance) costing in excess of $50,000.00, and the making of such additions, alterations or improvements shall have been approved by a majority of the Unit Owners, the Board of Managers shall proceed with such additions, alterations or improvements and shall assess all Unit Owners for the cost thereof as a Common Charge. Any additions, alterations or improvements costing $50,000.00 or less may be made by the Board of Managers without approval of the Unit Owners and the cost thereof shall constitute part of the Common Expenses.

Section 13. Additions, Alterations or Improvements by Unit Owners: No Unit Owner shall make any structural addition, alteration or improvement in or to his/her Unit, or which affects the exterior of the Building or the value of other Units, without prior written consent thereto of the Board of Managers. The Board of Managers shall have the obligation to answer in writing any written request by a Unit Owner for approval of a proposed structural addition, alteration or improvement in such Unit Owner's Unit, within thirty (30) days after such request, and failure to do so within the stipulated time shall constitute a consent by the Board of Managers to the proposed addition, alteration or improvement. Any application to any department of the City of New York or to any other governmental authority for a permit to make an addition, alteration or improvement in or to any Unit shall be executed by the Board of Managers only, without incurring any liability on the part of the Board of Managers or any of them to any contractor, subcontractor or material man on account of such addition, alteration or improvement, or to any person having any claim for injury to person or damage to property arising therefrom.

In the event the Board of Managers grants its consent, either affirmatively or by its inaction, to any structural addition, alteration or improvement to be made by a Unit Owner, the consent shall provide that any such work shall be at the Unit Owner's sole cost and expense, that work shall be done in accordance with all governmental or quasi-governmental laws, rules, regulations, codes and ordinances, that all work shall be done by reputable contractors with adequate liability, property damage and worker's compensation insurance (the certificate for which shall be delivered to the Board of Managers prior to the commencement of construction), that any additions, alterations or improvements, shall be maintained in their entirety by said Unit Owner who shall also be responsible for any repairs, including structural repairs, to such area in any event, and to the Unit and any Common Elements where such repairs become necessary due to additional stresses caused by the structural alteration, addition or improvement, or due to improper design or construction of the structural alteration, addition or improvement, and such approval shall further provide that the Unit Owner shall reimburse the Board of Managers any out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Board of Managers in connection with the granting of such approval and in connection with any services provided to such alteration, addition or improvement; such expenses may include, but shall not be limited to, any fees of an attorney and/or fees of an architect consulted in connection with any request by a Unit Owner for approval of such work.

The provisions of this Section 13 which require the consent of the Board of Managers in connection with a structural addition, alteration or improvement shall not apply to Units owned by the Sponsor or its designee. All other provisions of this Section 13 shall apply to all Units.

Non-structural alterations and improvements to Units that do not affect the exterior of the Building or the value of other Units may be made without the prior approval of the Board of Managers.

Section 14. Use of Common Elements and Facilities: A Unit Owner shall not place or cause to be placed in the lobby, public halls, stairways or other common areas or common facilities, any furniture, packages or objects of any kind. The public halls and stairways shall be used for no purpose other than for normal transit through them. The Sponsor and any Sponsor-designee shall have the right to use the Common Elements, without charge, for the purposes set forth in Section 11 of this Article VI.

Section 15. Right of Access: A Unit Owner shall grant a right of access to his/her Unit to the Manager or Managing Agent and/or any other person authorized by the Board of Managers for the purpose of making inspections or for the purpose of correcting any condition originating in his/her Unit and threatening another Unit or a Common Element, or for the purpose of performing installations, alterations or repairs to the mechanical or electrical services or other Common Elements in his/her Unit or elsewhere in the Building in which the Unit is located, provided that requests for entry are made in advance and that any such entry is at a time reasonably convenient to the Unit Owner. In case of an emergency, such right of entry shall be immediate, whether the Unit Owner is present at the time or not. In the event of the exercise of the right of access provided in this Section 15, any costs for repairs shall be borne in accordance with the provisions of Section 10 of this Article VI. Each Unit Owner will be required to give a copy of his/her keys to his/her Unit to the President of the Board of Managers who shall designate an authorized person or persons to keep the keys and use them as provided in these By-Laws.

Section 16. Rules of Conduct: Rules and regulations concerning the use of the Units and the Common Elements may be promulgated and amended by the Board of Managers. A majority vote of Unit Owners at a meeting may overrule the Board. Copies of such rules and regulations shall be furnished by the Board of Managers to each Unit Owner prior to the time when the same shall become effective. Initial rules and regulations, which shall be effective until amended by the Board of Managers are annexed hereto and made a part hereof as Schedule A.

Section 17. Water Charges and Sewer Rents: Water shall be supplied to all of the Units (except the Commercial Unit, which shall be separately metered and billed) and the Common Elements through one or more building meters or pursuant to a frontage charge and the Board of Managers shall pay, as a Common Expense, all charges for water consumed on the Property and in the Units, together with all related sewer rents arising therefrom, promptly after the bills for the same shall have been rendered. In the event of a proposed sale of a Unit by the Owner thereof, the Board of Managers, on request of the selling Unit Owner, shall execute and deliver to the purchaser of such Unit or to the purchaser's title insurance company, a letter agreeing to pay all charges for water and sewer rents affecting the Property as of the date of closing of title to such Unit promptly after such charges shall have been billed.

Section 18. Electricity: Electricity shall be supplied by the public utility company serving the area directly to each Unit through separate meters and each Unit Owner shall be required to pay the bills for electricity consumed or used in his/her Unit. The electricity serving the Common Elements shall be metered by one or more meters, and the Board of Managers shall pay the bills for such consumption as a Common Expense.

ARTICLE VII

Mortgages

Section 1. Notice to Board of Managers: A Unit Owner who mortgages his/her Unit shall notify the Board of Managers of the name and address of his/her mortgagee and shall file a conformed copy of the note and mortgage with the Board of Managers; the Board of Managers shall maintain such information in a book entitled "Mortgages of Units".

Section 2. Notice of Unpaid Common Charges: The Board of Managers, when so requested in writing by a mortgagee of a Unit, shall promptly notify any mortgagee of a Unit of such Unit Owner's default, including non-payment of Common Charges, in the obligations of such Unit Owner under the Declaration, By-Laws, Rules and Regulations, as the same are amended from time to time, or in any order of the Board of Managers issued with respect thereto.

Section 3. Notice of Default: The Board of Managers, when giving notice to a Unit Owner of a default in paying Common Charges or other default, shall send a copy of such notice to each holder of a mortgage covering such Unit whose name and address has heretofore been furnished to the Board of Managers.

Section 4. Examination of Books: Each Unit Owner and each mortgagee of a Unit shall be permitted to examine the books of account of the Condominium at reasonable times, on business days.

ARTICLE VIII

Sales, Leases and Mortgages of Units

Section 1. Sales and Leases: No Unit Owner other than the Sponsor or Sponsor-designee may sell or lease his/her Unit or any interest therein except by complying with the following provisions:

Any Unit Owner who receives a bona fide offer for the sale of his/her Unit together with: (i) the undivided interest of the Common Elements and any Limited Common Elements appurtenant thereto; (ii) the interest of such Unit Owner in any Units theretofore acquired by the Board of Managers, or its designee, on behalf of all Unit Owners, or the proceeds of the sale or lease thereof, if any; (iii) the interest of such Unit Owner in any other assets of the Condominium; as defined in the Declaration, (hereinafter collectively called the "Appurtenant Interests"), or a bona fide offer for a lease of his/her Unit; (hereinafter called an "Outside Offer"), which he/she intends to accept, shall give notice by certified or registered mail to the Board of Managers of such offer and of such intention, the name and address of the proposed purchaser or lessee, the terms of the proposed transaction and such other information as the Board of Managers may reasonably require, and shall offer to sell such Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, or to lease such Unit, to the Board of Managers, or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of the Owners of all other Units, on the same terms and conditions as contained in such Outside Offer. The giving of such notice shall constitute a warranty and representation by the Unit Owner who has received such offer, to the Board of Managers on behalf of the other Unit Owners, that such Unit Owner believes the Outside Offer to be bona fide in all respects. Within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice, the Board of Managers may elect, by notice given within five (5) days after making such election, and in any event, within said thirty (30) day period, to such Unit Owner, by certified or registered mail, to purchase such Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, or to lease such Unit, as the case may be (or to cause the same to be purchased or leased by its designee, corporate or otherwise), on behalf of all other Unit Owners, on the same terms and conditions as contained in the Outside Offer and as stated in the notice from the offering Unit Owner.

In the event the Board of Managers shall elect to purchase such Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, or to lease such Unit, or to cause the same to be purchased or leased by its designee, corporate or otherwise, title shall close or a lease shall be executed at the office of the attorneys for the Condominium in accordance with the terms of such offer but in no event less than forty-five days after the giving of notice by the Board of Managers of its election to accept such offer. At the closing, the Unit Owner of such Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests to be sold, shall convey the same to the Board of Managers, or to its designee, on behalf of all other Unit Owners, by deed in the form required by Section 339-o of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, with all transfer stamps affixed, and shall pay all other taxes arising out of such sale. In the event such Unit is to be leased, the offering Unit Owner shall execute and deliver to the Board of Managers, or to its designee, a lease between the offering Unit Owner, as landlord, and the Board of Managers, or its designee, as tenant, covering such Unit, for the rental and term contained in such Outside Offer.

In the event the Board of Managers or its designee fails to notify the offering Unit Owner of its decision to accept such offer within thirty (30) days after receipt of notice as aforesaid or fails to notify the offering Unit Owner within said period of its decision not to accept such offer, the offering Unit Owner shall be free to contract to sell such Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, or to lease such Unit, as the case may be within thirty (30) days after the expiration of the period in which the Board of Managers or its designee might have accepted such offer, to the Outside Offeror, on the terms and conditions set forth in the notice from the offering Unit Owner to the Board of Managers of such Outside Offer. Any such deed to any Outside Offeror shall provide that acceptance thereof by the grantee shall constitute an assumption of the provisions of the Declaration, the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations, as the same may be amended from time to time. Any such lease shall be consistent with these By-Laws and shall provide that it may not be modified, amended, extended or assigned, without the prior consent in writing of the Board of Managers, and that the tenant shall not sublet the demised premises, or any part thereof, without the prior consent in writing of the Board of Managers, and that the Board of Managers shall have power to terminate such lease and/or bring summary proceedings to evict the tenant in the name of the landlord thereunder, in the event of default by the tenant in the performance of such lease. Except as hereinbefore set forth, the form of any such lease for Residential Units shall be in a form approved by the Board of Managers. In the event the offering Unit Owner shall not, within such thirty (30) day period, contract to sell such Unit to the Outside Offeror on the terms and conditions contained in the Outside Offer, or if the Unit Owner shall so contract to sell or lease his/her Unit within such thirty (30) day period, but such sale or lease shall not be consummated pursuant to the material terms (including, but not limited to, length of lease, purchase price of apartment, rental of a Unit) of such contract, then should such offering Unit Owner thereafter elect to sell such Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, or to lease such Unit, as the case may be, to the same or another Outside Offeror on the same or other terms and conditions, the offering Unit Owner shall be required to again comply with all of the terms and provisions of this Section 1 of this Article VIII.

Any purported sale or lease of a Unit in violation of this section shall be voidable at the election of the Board of Managers.

Section 2. Consent of Unit Owners to Purchase or Lease of Units by Board of Managers: The Board of Managers shall not exercise any option hereinabove set forth to purchase or lease any Unit without the prior approval of Unit Owners having 51% of the Common Interest appurtenant to the Units of the Condominium and the unanimous consent of Successor-Sponsor.

Section 3. No Severance of Ownership: No Unit Owner shall execute any deed, mortgage, or other instrument conveying or mortgaging title to his/her Unit without including therein the Appurtenant Interests, it being the intention hereof to prevent any severance of such combined ownership. Any such deed, mortgage, or other instrument purporting to affect one or more of such interests, without including all such interests, shall be deemed and taken to include the interest or interests so omitted, even though the latter shall not be expressly mentioned or described therein. No part of the Appurtenant Interests of any Unit may be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of, except as part of a sale, transfer or other disposition of the Unit to which such interest or interests are appurtenant, or as part of a sale, transfer or other disposition of such part of the Appurtenant Interests of all Units.

Section 4. Release by Board of Managers of Right of First Refusal: The right of first refusal contained in Section 1 of this Article VIII may be released or waived by the Board of Managers in which event the Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, may be sold, conveyed, or leased, free and clear of the provisions of such section.

Section 5. Certificate of Termination of Right of First Refusal: A certificate, executed and acknowledged by the Secretary of the Condominium, stating that the provisions of Section 1 of this Article VIII have been met by a Unit Owner, or have been duly waived by the Board of Managers and the rights of the Board of Managers thereunder have terminated, shall be conclusive upon the Board of Managers in favor of all persons who rely thereon in good faith. Such certificates shall be furnished to any Unit Owner who has in fact complied with the provisions of Section 1 of this Article VIII or in respect to whom the provisions of such section have been waived, upon request.

Section 6. Financing of Purchase of Units by Board of Managers: Acquisition or lease of Units by the Board of Managers, or its designee, on behalf of all Unit Owners, may be made from the working capital and Common Charges in the possession of the Board of Managers, or, if such funds are insufficient, the Board of Managers may levy an assessment against each Unit Owner, other than the offering Unit Owner, in proportion to his/her ownership in the Common Elements, as a Common Charge, which assessment shall be enforceable in the same manner as provided in Section 6 and 7 of Article VI, or, the Board of Managers, in its discretion, may borrow money to finance the acquisition or lease of such Unit, provided, however, that no financing may be secured by an encumbrance or hypothecation of any property other than the Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, so to be acquired by the Board of Managers. Notwithstanding the above, no assessment may be levied under this Section 6 against any mortgagee who has acquired title to a Unit, whether by foreclosure or deed in lieu thereof.

Section 7. Exceptions: The provisions of Section 1 of this Article VIII shall not apply in respect to any sale or conveyance or lease by a Unit Owner of his/her Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, to his/her spouse or to any of his/her children or to his/her parent or parents or for his/her brothers or sisters, or any one or more of them, or to any Unit owned by the Sponsor or Sponsor-designee, or to the acquisition or sale of any Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, by a mortgagee herein authorized who shall acquire title to such Unit by foreclosure or by deed in lieu of foreclosure. However, the provisions of this section shall apply with respect to any purchaser of a Unit from a mortgagee or resale of other individuals discussed in this Section.

Section 8. Gifts and Devises, etc.: Any Unit Owner shall be free to convey or transfer his/her Unit by gift or to devise his/her Unit by will, or to pass the same by intestacy, without restriction.

Section 9. Such Units as are Acquired by the Board of Managers or its Designee, on Behalf of All Unit Owners as Tenants in Common: In the event that a Unit shall be acquired by the Board of Managers, or its designee, on behalf of all Unit Owners as tenants in common, all such Unit Owners may not partition with respect to such Unit, except as specifically provided in the New York Real Property Law.

Section 10. Payment of Common Charges and Assessments: No Unit Owner shall be permitted to convey, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, sell or lease his/her Unit unless and until he/she shall have paid in full to the Board of Managers all unpaid Common Charges and assessments theretofore assessed by the Board of Managers against his/her Unit and until he/she shall have satisfied all unpaid liens against such Unit, except permitted mortgages.

Section 11. Mortgage of Units: No Unit Owner shall mortgage his/her Unit, except by a first and/or second mortgage made to a bank, trust company, insurance company, federal savings and loan association, pension fund or other institutional lender or a purchase money mortgage made to the Sponsor, or to the seller of the Unit. Any such mortgage shall be substantially in the form on file with the Board of Managers, except for such changes or additions as may be required in order to permit the particular institutional lender to make the mortgage loan, or to the extent permitted by the Board of Managers. A mortgage may be made to a reputable private lender, other than a lender as above described, provided the same is approved in writing by either the Sponsor, prior to the Sponsor's relinquishing control of the Board of Managers, or the Board of Managers, subsequent to the release of control by the Sponsor or the Board of Managers as the case may be. However, the Sponsor or Successor-Sponsor may mortgage any of their Units to any person without the prior approval of the Board of Managers or any other person. Prior to or simultaneously with the closing of any mortgage, the Unit Owner must satisfy all arrearages for unpaid Common Charges or assessments and discharge any liens therefore.

Section 12. Proceeds from the Sale of a Unit: If the Condominium acquires a Unit pursuant to Article VIII of the By-Laws and later sells the Unit, the proceeds from the sale shall be first used to pay any debts acquired by the Condominium in connection with the acquisition and sale of the Unit. The undersigned certifies as follows:

The Sponsor of the Condominium Offering Plan for the captioned property retained me to review Schedule B, which includes projections of common charges payable by the owner of the commercial unit. As a licensed real estate broker, I have sold over 300 apartments, and managed over 50 buildings and 3,000 units over the past twenty-three years.

I understand that I am responsible for complying with Article 23-A of the General Business Law of the regulations promulgated by the Department of Law in Part 20 insofar as they are applicable to the commercial unit listed in Schedule B.

I certify that the estimates in Schedule B for the common charges payable by the owner of the commercial unit:

- (iii) do not omit any material fact;

- (iv) do not contain any untrue statement of material fact;
- (v) do not contain any fraud, deception, concealment, or suppression;
- (vi) do not contain any promise or representation as to the future which is beyond reasonable expectation or unwarranted by existing circumstances;
- (vii) do not contain any representation or statement which is false, where I: (a) knew the truth; (b) with reasonable effort could have known the truth; (c) made no reasonable effort to ascertain the truth, or (d) did not have knowledge concerning the representations or statement made.

I further certify that I am not owned or controlled by the Sponsor. I understand that a copy of this certification is intended to be incorporated into the Offering Plan. This statement is not intended as a guarantee or warranty of the common charges fairly attributable to the commercial unit for the first year of condominium operation.

This certification is made under penalty of perjury for the benefit of all persons to whom this offer is made. I understand that violations are subject to the civil and criminal penalties of the General Business Law and Penal Law.
