SEE PAGE 1 FOR SPECIAL RISKS TO PURCHASERS.

THIS OFFERING PLAN IS THE ENTIRE OFFER TO SELL THESE CONDOMINIUM UNITS. NEW YORK LAW REQUIRES THE SPONSOR TO DISCLOSE ALL MATERIAL INFORMATION IN THIS PLAN AND TO FILE THIS PLAN WITH THE NEW YORK STATE DEPARTMENT OF LAW PRIOR TO SELLING OR OFFERING TO SELL ANY CONDOMINIUM UNIT. BECAUSE SPONSOR IS RETAINING THE UNCONDITIONAL RIGHT TO RENT RATHER THAN SELL UNITS, THE PLAN MAY NOT RESULT IN THE CREATION OF A CONDOMINIUM IN WHICH A MAJORITY OF THE UNITS ARE OWNED BY OWNER-OCCUPANTS OR INVESTORS UNRELATED TO THE SPONSOR.

PURCHASERS FOR THEIR OWN OCCUPANCY MAY NEVER GAIN CONTROL OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THIS PLAN.

PART 1
CONDOMINIUM OFFERING PLAN

FOR

ONE 1 ONE CONDOMINIUM

SPECIAL RISKS

This Offering Plan is subject to a number of special risks, which should be carefully considered by every prospective purchaser. Prospective purchasers are further urged to visit the premises of One 1 One Condominium and to consult with their attorneys and financial advisors before executing a Purchase Agreement. The special factors are as follows:

1. Right of First Refusal - All Units, which are being offered for sale and which will be sold pursuant to this Plan, will be sold subject to a right of First Refusal in favor of the Board of Managers of the Condominium incorporated in the Deed to each Unit (Exhibit "C" to Part II of this Plan) which is discussed in Part I of this Plan under the heading "Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners".

Unconditional Right to Rent - Sponsor is retaining the unconditional right to rent rather than sell Units, therefore there is no commitment to sell more than fifteen percent (15%) necessary to declare the plan effective and owner-occupants (purchasers for their own occupancy) may never gain effective control of the Board of Managers of the condominium. Sponsor is not limiting the conditions under which it will rent, rather than sell Units, although Sponsor will make every effort to sell all of the Units.

Bylaws - The Bylaws provide that after the initial sponsor voting control period, a majority of the Board of Managers must be owner-occupants, members of owner-occupant's households, or non-resident unit owners who are unrelated to the Sponsor and its principals. In addition, owner-occupants and non-resident unit owners, including Sponsor, may have inherent conflicts on how the condominium should be managed because of their different reasons for purchasing (i.e., purchase as a home as opposed to an investment). See section entitled "Board of Managers" contained in Part I of the Plan. Owner-occupants may also never gain effective control and management of the Condominium.

2. Purchaser's failure to strictly adhere to all time periods set forth in the purchase agreement or to pay the balance on the Closing Date designated by Sponsor is an event of default which entitles the Sponsor to cancel the Purchase Agreement by sending Purchaser thirty (30) days prior written notice of its intention to do so. After that time forfeiture of the down payment may be declared. See section entitled "Procedure to Purchase" contained in Part I of the Plan and paragraph eight (8) of the Purchase Agreement contained in Part II of the Plan. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE TO REMEDY SUCH DEFAULT WITHIN SAID PERIOD.

Purchasers should also be aware that Purchasers obligation to purchase a unit is not conditional or contingent upon Purchaser obtaining a mortgage or other financing, nor is any financing being offered by the Sponsor. Accordingly, if a Purchaser cannot obtain a mortgage or financing, once they have entered into a contract, they will still be obligated to close, and if they cannot close they will be in a position to forfeit their down payment. See section entitled "Procedure to Purchase" contained in Part I of the Plan.

3. Inasmuch as the Units are presently not as yet complete, prospective purchasers will be required to execute binding Purchase Agreements without having an opportunity to inspect the Unit prior to its completion, unless the Building has been completed at such time. See paragraph entitled Unit Information and section entitled "Procedure to Purchase" contained in Part I of the Plan. It is anticipated that the building will be completed in the fall of 2009.

4. The Sponsor will retain control of the Board of Managers in the following manner:

(i) So long as Sponsor owns Units representing 50% or more in Common Interest, the Sponsor shall have the right to designate two (2) of the three (3) members of the Board of Managers.

(ii) So long as Sponsor owns Units representing 30% in Common Interest, the Sponsor shall have the right to designate one (1) of the three (3) members of the Board of Managers.

(iii) In no event shall the Sponsor retain voting control after two years from the date of closing of title to the first Unit or when Sponsor's ownership of the Units constitutes less than 25%, whichever is earlier. Sponsor, after designating its representatives, may cast the remaining votes for unit owners of its choice.

Sponsor may not at any time exercise veto power over expenses described in Schedule B or over expenses required to (a) comply with applicable laws or regulations; or (b) remedy any notice of violation; or (c) remedy any work order by an insurer.

(iv) So long as the Sponsor or its designee shall continue to own Units representing 25% or more in Common Interest the Board of Managers may not: (a) increase the number or change the type of employees from that described in Schedule B, (b) provide for new or additional services from those indicated on Schedule B, (c) impose any assessment or charges against Unit Owners for improvement or additions unless required by Law, (d) establish any reserves for contingencies, repairs, improvements or replacements. See section entitled "Control by the Sponsor" contained in Part I of the Plan.

5. Residential Unit Owners will be responsible for the cost of gas and electric consumed in the Unit, which will be separately metered and invoiced directly to the Unit Owners, and these costs are not included within the common charges, although water and sewer charges are. See Schedule "B-1" contained in Part I of the Plan, which estimates individual unit energy costs.

6. The Sponsor may declare the plan effective by entering into a valid contract for sale for a minimum of fifteen percent of the apartments in the building. It should be noted however, that even though the plan may be declared effective, that not all those who enter into the purchase agreements may be able to obtain financing to purchase, thereby resulting in a Sponsor controlled condominium. See section entitled "Effective Date" contained in Part I of the Plan.

Purchasers should note that in the current real estate market, bank and other lenders are imposing various restrictions on loans. Such restrictions include requiring that a certain percentage (50% or more) of the Units in the building be sold before the lender will consider making the loan. Thus it may be possible for a purchaser to experience difficulty obtaining a loan in a building where the percentage of units purchased is lower than a lender's particular sales minimum.

Even once a building undergoes conversion, lenders may still impose minimum sales requirements before granting a loan. It then may be difficult for a purchaser to resell an apartment if prospective buyers are unable to obtain a loan due to such minimum sales requirements. See section entitled "Procedure to Purchase" contained in Part I of the Plan.

7. No bond or other security has been furnished to secure the performance of the Sponsor's obligations under this plan. See section entitled "Rights and Obligations of the Sponsor" contained in Part I of the Plan.

8. Although a Preliminary Certificate of Eligibility was received on April 8, 2008, from the Department of Housing Preservation and Development, to obtain a Certificate of Eligibility for 421A real estate tax abatement benefits for all of the Units, Purchasers must note that there is no guarantee that the building will obtain tax abatement benefits. See Schedule "A" and the section entitled "Real Estate Taxes" both contained in Part I of the Plan. Purchasers should also note that the benefits may be reduced if the New York State legislature passes changes analogous to those passed to Article 11 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York which became effective on January 8, 2008. This will result in increased real estate tax liability to all Purchasers.

9. All funds received by the Sponsor for upgrades or extras must initially be placed in the escrow account. Purchasers should note that such funds may be released from the escrow account by the escrow agent as long as the Sponsor uses the funds for such upgrades or extras. As a result, in the event a purchaser is entitled to rescission, the purchaser will not receive a refund on any funds used for upgrades or extras. See section entitled "Procedure to Purchase" contained in Part I of the Plan.

10. Purchasers are required to pay the New York City and State Real Property Transfer Taxes, currently assessed at 1% and .4% respectively, of the purchase price of the Unit, for conveyances up to $500,000, which taxes are statutorily the primary obligation of a Seller of real property. These transfer taxes are considered additional consideration in the calculation of these taxes. See section entitled "Unit Closing Costs and Adjustments" contained in Part I of the Plan.

11. Pursuant to the terms of paragraph 6 of the Purchase Agreement contained in Part II of the Plan, and the section entitled Unit Closing Costs and Adjustments contained in Part I of the Plan, the purchaser shall be obligated to pay a $750 condominium map fee, $1,000 for legal and filing fees in connection with securing tax exemption benefits, attorney's fees in the amount of $1,500 for closings at the offices of Sponsors attorney, (an additional $300 fee will be charged for closing outside of the office), attorneys' fees for preparation of the documents necessary for any mortgage loan, New York City and New York State Transfer Taxes, recording charges for the deed, power of attorney in favor of the Board of Managers, and any mortgage documents and mortgage recording taxes. In addition, each purchaser shall be responsible for the payment of fees to his own attorney, a $1,000 fee for the formation of the condominium, a $650 fee for the New York City Water Meter installation and connection, and an Automated City Register Information System fee, "ACRIS fee", of real property record information, which will be about $200. The estimated closing costs included are not limited to mortgage and fee title policy premiums and the recording charges and the mortgage and transfer tax rates set forth above are based on the rates, premiums, charges and taxes in effect as of the date of this Offer Plan. If said premiums, charges, rates or taxes subsequently revised by the title company, the State, or Municipality, each purchaser shall be required to pay the title policy premiums, recording charges and mortgage and transfer taxes in effect as of the date of the closing of title to the Unit. See section entitled "Unit Closing Costs and Adjustments" contained in Part I of the Plan.

12. Under no circumstances shall any below grade room, balcony and/or terrace, recreation room or offices, if any, be used for any type of occupancy, including but not limited to, dining, sleeping, living room, nor recreations room or office, unless specified as such. To do so may result in a violation against the building being issued by the Building Department. In addition, if applicable, storage rooms may only be used for non-combustible items as defined by the building code. No storage of clothing, furniture, books, papers, or any other combustibles are allowed See Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of the Unit Owners and the Board of Managers - Sale and Leasing of Units" contained in Part I of the Plan

13. Purchasers should be aware that any deposits for the purchase of a Unit in excess of $250,000 are not federally insured. See section entitled "Procedure to Purchase" contained in Part I of the Plan.

14. Sponsor represents since this is new construction that all of the units offered in the Plan will be vacant. Therefore no option to postpone a closing will be necessary for the initial offering of the newly constructed vacant units as Sponsor makes every effort to sell all of the units in the condominium. Over time, however, if the Sponsor is unable to sell any of the units the Sponsor has reserved the right to rent the vacant units. A Purchaser should then be aware if they enter into a purchase agreement for a tenant occupied unit that the tenant may not vacate the unit upon the expiration or termination of their lease to such unit. In this case, the closing will be postponed until such unit is vacated and the Purchaser will not be penalized in any way for postponing the closing under these circumstances. If the tenant fails to vacate as required, the Sponsor will be responsible for obtaining possession of the unit at Sponsor's expense. The Purchaser should also be aware that they are also purchasing the unit in "as is" condition.

Sponsor represents that no contracts or agreements have been entered into for the sale or transfer of any of the units nor have any deposits or advances of funds been taken. Sponsor further represents that no sales efforts will be extended prior to the acceptance of filing of the Condominium Plan by the Department of Law. See section entitled "Introduction" contained in Part I of the Plan.

15. The Sponsor will not permit the assignment or transfer of a Purchase Agreement without Sponsor's written consent in each instance in Sponsor's sole discretion. See section entitled "Procedure to Purchase" contained in Part I of the Plan.

16. Sponsor shall not permit the maintenance, keeping, boarding or raising of animals of any kind, excluding domestic pets, within the units. See section entitled "Rights and Obligations of the Unit Owners" contained in Part I of the Plan.

17. Each Unit's square footage, within reasonable tolerances, is calculated from the interior side of the wall studs. Square footage as calculated may substantially exceed usable floor space. Purchasers should note that dimensions based on measurements from exterior walls do not accurately represent the interior usable area of the unit, which may be significantly less.

18. Sponsor will not be providing hookups for laundry appliances, but will be providing a laundry room, with two coin operated washing machines and dryers, at the cellar level for the use of all of the unit owners. See sections entitled "Unit Information" contained in Part I of the Plan and Architect's Description contained in Part II of the Plan.

19. All residential unit owners' must notify the Managing Agent in writing when a child under the age of eleven (11) years lives or resides (even temporarily) in the Unit. Each unit owner will then be required to install at their own expense, window guards in all of the windows of the Unit. The guards shall not be removed until permitted by applicable law, in any event, without the full knowledge of the Managing Agent.

20. A closing will only take place after the issuance of a temporary or permanent certificate of occupancy for the building is obtained or the issuance of a partial, temporary or permanent certificate of occupancy for the unit closing is obtained. The Department of Buildings strongly recommends that a buyer negotiate a closing based on a final certificate of occupancy and not a temporary certificate. Purchasers can consult, at their own cost and expense, a licensed architect or engineer to determine what work has to be done in order for the building to receive a final certificate of occupancy. Purchases can also obtain written assurances and sufficient escrow from the sponsor to ensure that any outstanding construction work will be completed so that the final certificate of occupancy will be obtained in a timely manner. If a temporary certificate of occupancy expires and is not renewed, a purchaser may find it difficult to renew homeowners' insurance policies or to sell or refinance the unit.

21. For the first year of condominium operation, or until such time that their services are no longer needed, the Sponsor will act as managing agent in managing all of the affairs of the condominium at no charge to the unit owners. Over time the Sponsor may engage the services of an outside firm. If engaged, costs thereof will be shared by all of the unit owners as a common expense, and the operating budget may be increased up to fifteen (15%) percent. If at the first meeting of unit owners the Sponsor still is in control of the Board of Managers, the Sponsor will make the decision with regard to the managing agent on behalf of the unit owners.

22. Under the section entitled Rights and Obligations of the Sponsor, it is disclosed that a Limited Warranty will be granted to all buyers of a unit. The purpose of the Limited Warranty is to identify the Seller's responsibilities for construction defects occurring during the first six years after construction. A full text of the law appears in Exhibit E contained in Part II of this Offering Plan.

INTRODUCTION

Powerline Development LLC, herein called "Sponsor", presents this Offering Plan ("Plan") for the establishment of condominium ownership of a parcel of land, situated 175 feet east from the corner formed by the intersection of Lennox Avenue and West 113th Street located in the neighborhood of Harlem, Borough of Manhattan, County of New York, and State of New York. Sponsor acquired the land, which will constitute the condominium on January 24 2007. This Plan is to establish a condominium, which will be known as One 1 One Condominium.

The purpose of the Plan is to set forth all the material terms of the offer. The Plan is presented in two parts (in one volume) which together constitute the entire Plan. Part I sets forth a general description of the Plan and Part II contains the basic documents necessary to create the Condominium and otherwise effectuate the provisions of the Plan. Also included in Part II is a detailed physical description of the property, which will be included in the Condominium, legal opinions and certifications as to certain matters discussed in the Plan. Amendments to the Plan will be served on all offerees, i.e., purchasers who have executed and delivered purchase agreements to the Sponsor or selling agent and are not in default, unit owners, and any other person entitled to service pursuant to local law or regulation. All of these documents are important and should be carefully read by a prospective purchaser. PURCHASERS ARE ADVISED TO CONSULT WITH THEIR OWN ATTORNEYS AND OR OTHER ADVISORS AND PROVIDE THEM WITH A COPY OF THIS PLAN BEFORE AGREEING TO PURCHASE.

The Condominium

One 1 One Condominium is located at 111 West 113th Street, New York, New York. The Condominium will consist of a six (6) story masonry building with cellar containing twelve (12) residential units.

Features of Condominium Ownership

The ownership of a Unit is similar in many respects to the ownership of a private home. Each Unit Owner owns fee title to the Unit and is entitled to the exclusive possession thereof. The Unit Owner also owns, in common with the owners of all other Units, an undivided fee interest in the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements which, as more particularly set forth herein and in the Declaration, include all parts of the Property other than the Units themselves, such as the land and the roofs, foundations and supports of the Building.

Subject to certain conditions contained in the By-Laws, each Unit Owner has the right, in his own discretion, to mortgage his Unit on such terms and conditions as he desires. However, the Board of Managers of the Condominium has certain rights of first refusal as set forth in the Unit Deeds and the By-Laws.

Primary responsibility for operating the Condominium rests with the Board of Managers who are elected by the Unit Owners. The Board of Managers of the Condominium (hereinafter more particularly described) will assess against each Unit Owner, in proportion to his respective interests in the Common Elements, charges (hereinafter called Common Charges) for the maintenance of the Common Elements and for the operating costs of the Condominium (hereinafter called Common Expenses). These must be paid in accordance with the New York Condominium Act, Sections 339(i) and (m).

In addition to the payment of Common Charges, each Unit Owner will be responsible for the payment of the real estate taxes, which will be separately assessed against his Unit, and charges for electricity and gas consumed in his Unit. Water charges and sewer rents, unless separately assessed to Unit Owners by the City of New York, and the costs and expenses of electricity with respect to the Common Elements, will be paid by the Unit Owners and will be a Common Charge. See "Schedule B - Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation" in Part I of this Plan, for a more detailed discussion of Common Charges. See also "Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners" in Part I of this Plan. Each Unit Owner, upon obtaining title, will automatically have a right to vote at the first annual meeting of Unit Owners, and at all meetings thereafter, for the election of the Board of Managers. Each Unit Owner is also obligated to comply with the Declaration, the By-Laws, rules and regulations and other requirements of the Board of Managers.

A Unit Owner may decorate the interior of his Unit as he chooses, subject to compliance with the By-Laws (and any Rules and Regulations promulgated in accordance therewith), and will be solely responsible for the cost of maintenance and interior repairs and for casualty and liability insurance for the Unit after closing. The Unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes, and no Unit owner will be responsible for the payments of, nor will his Unit be subject to any lien arising from the non-payment of taxes on other Units. In the opinion of S. Seth Yavne, Esq., counsel to Sponsor, under present income tax laws, a Unit Owner, similarly to a homeowner, may deduct from his income, for Federal, New York State and New York City income tax purposes, the real estate taxes and the interest paid on the mortgage of his Unit, if any, subject to the normal limitations contained in the applicable statutes. See "Income Tax Deductions to Unit Owners and Tax Status of the Condominium", in Part I of this Plan. In accordance with applicable laws and regulations, there are no restrictions on the use, resale and leasing of Units.

The statute concerning condominiums in effect in the State of New York pursuant to which the Condominium will be organized is Article 9-B of the New York Real Property Law, as amended, commonly known as and hereinafter called the "Condominium Act". The Condominium will be subject to and will comply with the provisions of the Condominium Act. The Sponsor will record the Declaration of Condominium, the By-Laws and a Declaration of Easements, Covenants and Restrictions in the Office of the City Register, New York County, at the time the Plan is declared effective. From and after the date of recording the Declaration and By-Laws, the Sponsor will be the owner of all Units until they are sold and conveyed to the Purchasers thereof.

The prices for the Units offered for sale under this Plan are listed in Schedule A entitled "Offering Prices and Related Information" in Part I of this Plan. Such prices have been set by the Sponsor alone, and are not subject to review or approval by any governmental agency.

The estimated Common Charges for each Unit for the first year of operation of the Property as a condominium are also set forth in Schedule A. THESE PRICES HAVE BEEN SET BY THE SPONSOR AND ARE SUBJECT TO APPROVAL BY THE DEPARTMENT OF LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK OR ANY OTHER GOVERNMENTAL AGENCY.

The Plan, including all Schedules and Exhibits, constitutes the entire offer by the Sponsor and contains all of the material terms of the transaction. Copies of this Plan, all documents referred to in the Plan, and all Exhibits submitted to the Department of Law in connection with the filing of this Plan will be available for inspection without charge and for copying at a reasonable charge to prospective purchasers and their attorneys at the site whenever the on-site sales office is open and at the office of the selling agent or sponsor. The Plan will also be available for inspection and copying at a reasonable fee from the Department of Law. The Plan may be amended from time to time upon filing an amendment with the New York State Department of Law and service of such an amendment upon Purchasers and Unit Owners. Purchasers should also note that effective November 5, 2004, owners of Class A multiple dwellings in New York City, which include condominium units, must install carbon monoxide detectors. The law requires the owners of the residential condominium units to maintain the detectors.

The Sponsor has not knowingly omitted any material facts and this Plan does not contain any untrue statement of any material fact. The documents reprinted in Part II are exact copies of the originals.

As noted in the Special Risk section the Sponsor will endeavor in good faith to sell, in a reasonable timely manner, all residential units to Purchasers for personal occupancy by themselves or their families, however the Sponsor is retaining the unconditional right to rent rather than sell units. In addition if the Sponsor makes a bulk sale of all or some of its unsold units, the transferee successor sponsor is bound by Sponsor's representation regarding its commitment to sell units. The Condominium Board does not have the right to approve or disapprove purchasers, therefore owners may purchase for investment rather than for personal occupancy, and that residential unit owners should be aware that a substantial percentage of owners may always be non-residents.

THE PURCHASE OF A CONDOMINIUM UNIT HAS MANY SIGNIFICANT LEGAL AND FINANCIAL CONSEQUENCES. THE ATTORNEY GENERAL STRONGLY URGES YOU TO READ THIS OFFERING PLAN CAREFULLY AND TO CONSULT WITH AN ATTORNEY BEFORE SIGNING A PURCHASE AGREEMENT.

Sponsor represents that it has the financial resources to meet its obligations with respect to unsold units. The source of funding will be from personal assets of the Sponsor. There is no mortgage on the property, nor is there any construction funding.

For the first year of condominium operation commencing January 1, 2010 and ending December 31, 2010.

At the closing of each unit the Sponsor will collect an "Initial Capital Payment" equal to twice the estimated monthly common charges for the unit. See section entitled "Reserve Fund/Working Capital Fund" contained in Part I of the Plan.

FOOTNOTES TO SCHEDULE A

A. The number of rooms in all of the Residential Units were calculated by counting each bedroom as one room, the living/dining kitchenette area as one room, and the bathroom as 1/2 a room. There are balconies (a limited common element) for all of the units located on floors three through six. Each Unit's square footage, within reasonable tolerances, is calculated from the outside of the building exterior walls and the middle interior dividing walls. Dimensions based on measurements from exterior walls do not accurately represent the interior usable area of the unit, which may be significantly smaller. Floor plans for the Units are included in the Architect's Description contained in Part II of Plan.

B. The prices and terms of sale for these Condominium Units may be changed so that purchasers may pay different prices for similar interests. The prices are negotiable. The effect of this is set forth at Changes in Prices of Units contained in Part I. The Purchaser shall also have to pay closing costs and adjustments in an amount which is dependent on the amount of Purchaser's purchase money mortgage, if any, and the purchase price of the unit. Each Purchaser will be responsible for the New York State transfer tax currently assessed at .4% of the purchase price, and the New York City Real Property Transfer Tax, currently assessed at 1% of the purchase price, imposed on the transfer of the Unit, currently assessed at a small percentage (in the aggregate) of the purchase price for the Unit. All closing costs that a Purchaser will be responsible for are set forth in the section entitled Units Closing Costs and Adjustments contained in Part I of this Plan, which includes a payment of an additional two months common charges, which will be placed in a working capital fund for the building.

C. The percentage of interest in the Common Elements applicable to each Unit was determined by Sponsor based upon floor space, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the condominium, the uniqueness of the unit, the availability of the common elements for exclusive or shared use, and the overall dimensions of the particular unit pursuant to Real Property Law Section 339-i (1) (iv).

D. Based upon Estimate of Receipts and Expenses for first year of operation prepared by Sponsor and included in the Plan as Schedule B. If the Purchaser obtains financing in order to purchase a unit, debt services on such financing will be an additional monthly expense.

The projected Common Charges do not include housing costs for which the Unit Owner is generally responsible such as repairs to the interior of the Unit and separately metered electricity. See Schedule B-1 for the estimated consumption and costs of these items.

E. The Sponsor has received a Preliminary Certificate of Eligibility for partial real estate tax exemption benefits under Section 11-243 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York ("421A Tax Abatement Program") from the Department of Housing Preservation and Development on April 8, 2008. Sponsor's expert has issued an opinion letter indicating that all of the Units will be eligible to receive tax abatement benefits based on certain assumptions and conditions set forth therein. This opinion letter is reproduced in full in Part I of the Plan. Purchasers should also note that the benefits may be reduced if the New York State legislature passes changes analogous to those passed to Article 11 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York which became effective on January 8, 2008, which will result in increased real estate tax liability for the unit owners.

If tax abatement benefits are granted, the real estate tax assessment increase, payable by Unit Owners with respect to their Units during the first twenty five (25) years of Condominium operation will, in essence, be exempt. Reference should be made to the "Special Risk" section and "Real Estate Tax Exemption Benefits" section, for a full discussion of the effects of tax abatement benefits upon the real estate taxes payable by the Unit Owners.

No warranty is made as to whether a Final Certificate of Eligibility will be issued by HPD for tax abatement benefits or as to the amount of any tax exemption that will actually be received. In addition, no representation or warranty is made that the actual assessed valuation or the assessed valuation for the Property if tax abatement benefits are granted will be as projected above, that the projected tax rate will be in effect for all or any portion of the Property during the first year of Condominium operation or that real estate taxes will be allocated among Units in proportion to their appurtenant Common Interest. In no event will Sponsor, Sponsor's Counsel, the Selling Agent or any offeror hereunder be liable to any Purchaser under this Plan, nor will any Purchaser have the right to rescind his Purchase Agreement, in the event tax exemption benefits are not granted or, if granted, in the event the amount of such exemption and the resulting taxes differ from those projected.

The projected amount herein only consists of real estate taxes for the Units. However, if Purchaser obtains financing in order to purchase a Unit, interest paid on the sum financed is tax deductible as well. Thus, the projected amount deductible for income tax purposes may vary in subsequent years due to changes in the interest rate on the unit owners mortgage or financing obtained by purchasers, if any, refinancing the mortgage, the allocation of constant debt service payments between interest and principal or due to changes in real property taxes, resulting from the expiration of real estate tax benefits, or from changes in the assessed valuation, the tax rate, or in the method of assessing real property which result in a change in real property taxes, or such other changes as may reasonably be expected to affect deductions. Information concerning the deductibility of Real Estate Taxes for income tax purposes is fully disclosed in this Part of the plan under the section entitled "Real Estate Taxes" and in counsel's tax opinion letter.

F. If for any reason the aforesaid tax exemption under 421A is not granted, after completion of construction, anticipated to by September 2009, and prior to a 2007/2008 and 2008/2009 reassessment, it is estimated that the aggregate real estate taxes payable, with respect to all Units, for the first year of Condominium operation will total approximately $77,391 based on an aggregate assessed valuation for the condominium of $648,820. In such event and based upon such assumptions, the monthly real estate taxes for a Unit will be based on the estimated assessed valuations and prorated using each units percentage of Common Elements. These assumptions were prepared by John Pappalardo, a real estate tax-consulting firm that specializes in obtaining 421a tax abatement benefits. John Pappalardo has offices at 149-41 14th Avenue, Whitestone, New York.

G. For the projected real estate taxes after the condominium is divided into individual tax lots, each unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes and a unit owner will not be responsible for the payment of, nor will their unit be subject to, any lien arising from the non-payment of taxes on other units. The Sponsor will not pay any real estate taxes of any unit not owned or in control of the Sponsor and said payment will be the responsibility of the current unit owner. In addition the Sponsor will not pay any real estate taxes of any owned unit for the first year of condominium operation, if tax exemption benefits are not granted, and up to the date the exemption is granted, and the individual unit owners will be responsible for the full tax assessed against their unit. Accordingly, the Sponsor will be responsible for all taxes assessed on any unsold unit or unit owned or controlled by the Sponsor.

FOOTNOTES TO SCHEDULE B

1. Common Charges:

The estimate of Annual Common Charges to be collected during the first year of condominium operation is based upon a projection of the total amount of common charges that will be levied against the individual units. The budget is based on a twelve (12) month period, reflecting a reasonable projection of when condominium operation may begin. If the actual or anticipated date of commencement of condominium operation is to be delayed more than six months from the budget year projected in the offering plan, the plan will be amended to include a revised budget disclosing current projections. If such amended projections exceed the original projections by twenty five percent (25%) or more, the Sponsor will offer all purchasers the right to rescind and a reasonable period of time that is not less than fifteen (15) days after the date of presentation to exercise the right, whether or not Sponsor offers to guarantee the previous budget projection. Sponsor must return any deposit or down payment to purchasers who rescind within a reasonable period of time. Sponsor may not declare the plan effective where there are any material changes to the budget if these changes have not been disclosed by a duly filed amendment to the offering plan.

2. Salaries and Wages:

Estimates provide for one non-union, part-time, non-resident porter, to service the Condominium. The porter's salary with benefits and taxes will be approximately $10 per hour. The porter will be on site as needed. An additional contingency amount allows for any other needed repairs and services, which will be done by outside contractors, and snow removal services. Such staffing will comply with all applicable housing and labor laws. Some of the porter's duties include the cleaning of the sidewalk, front entrance, common area hallways, stairway, and the removal of rubbish. The budget complies with all minimum wage requirements and the wage meets all State minimum wage laws.

3. Electricity/Gas:

Based on the opinion of Gustavo Munoz of GM Architectural Studio, P.C., with offices at 445 Northern Boulevard, Great Neck, New York 11021, the projected yearly usage for common area electric and the elevator is 2000 KWH. The budget assumes a rate (on average) of $.25 per KWH, and includes taxes but no inflation factor. Gas for the common area is projected at $3,500 for an estimated usage of 2000 therms annually at $1.75 per therm, including taxes but no inflation factor. These estimates are for the cost of the electricity and gas in the common area only, and do not include costs for each residential unit, which shall be individually metered and billed directly to each unit owner. The estimates for both electric and gas consumed in the individual units, is estimated in schedule B-1 following this section.

4. Water/Sewer:

Water: Based on the opinion of Gustavo Munoz of GM Architectural Studio, P.C., with offices at 445 Northern Boulevard, Great Neck, New York 11021, water and sewer costs are estimated at a rate of $5.89 per 100 cubic feet of water for an annually cost of $7,774.

5. Repairs and Maintenance:

Inasmuch as the Building is new construction, it is estimated that this sum will be sufficient for expenses in connection with the general repairs and maintenance needed to maintain the public areas for the first year of condominium operation, with the only foreseen expenses at this time being for touch-up and or repaint of the common area walls and/or ceiling, if needed, after a unit owner moves in and for an annual common area floor wax and polish. The budget does not have provisions for any major capital expenditures. Although such expenditures are not expected because the building is newly constructed, each Unit Owner will be obligated to pay his or her own pro-rata share of such expenditures in the event that any such expenditures are required. Each Unit Owner will be responsible for maintaining the common area immediately in front of their Unit. The Board shall be responsible for all other routine maintenance.

6. Insurance:

Insurance coverage is estimated based upon a projection from the American Brokerage Associates, Inc., located in Armonk, New York, providing for the following coverage:

Building Limit:	$3,000,000
Fire Damage Legal Limit	$ 50,000
Deductible:	$ 500
Water Damaged - Covered
Deductible:	$ 500
Liability:	$1,000,000 Per Occurrence
	$2,000,000 General Aggregate

Annual Premium: $ 4,770

The premium has been estimated for the complete and occupied condominium based on Standard New York Policy and forms. The policy will provide that each unit owner is an additional insured; there will be no cancellations without notice to the Board of Managers and unit owners; waive subrogation; waive invalidity because of the acts of the insured and unit owners, and waive pro-rata reductions if additional unit owners obtain coverage. Any items not included may be available at extra cost (i.e., rent insurance, water damage, elevator collision, excess liability, auto liability, fidelity bond).

It is recommended that the Unit Owners obtain additional insurance, at their own individual cost, to cover such risks as:

1. fire and casualty losses to the unit contents;
2. replacements;
3. additions;
4. upgraded fixtures and improvement;
5. unit owner's liability coverage for occurrences within the unit or common areas.

7. Management Fees:

For the first year of condominium operation the Sponsor will act as managing agent in managing all of the affairs of the condominium. Over time the Sponsor may engage the services of an outside firm. If engaged costs thereof will be shared by all of the unit owners as a common expense and may increase the operating budget by 15%. At the first meeting of the Unit Owners it will be decided if Sponsor should continue as Managing Agent.

8. Legal and Audit Fees:

The budget provides for the preparation of annual financial statement and the filing of the tax return, which will be prepared for the first year of condominium operation by Leon Goldapple, CPA, with offices at 69-06 Grand Avenue, Masbeth, New York 11378, for the sum of $2,100.00 annually. A $400.00 contingency has been budgeted for the performance of legal services.

9. Services and Supplies:

The budgeted figure for these items includes the cost of cleaning supplies and materials, bulbs, fixtures, miscellaneous hardware and rubbish bags. No service contracts have been entered into as of the date of this plan. Service for both the elevator and sprinkler system will be provided free for the first year of condominium operation. However, Sponsor reserves the right, prior to the first closing, to enter into contracts which will be binding on the Condominium Board, provided that such contracts do not materially increase the estimated common charges for the first year of condominium operation.

10. Contingency:

This amount is to provide for any unanticipated expenses. It is the sponsor's opinion that the contingency fund will provide sufficient capital repairs and/or replacement likely to be needed. This budget does not include a reserve for capital repair and/or replacement.

IN THE OPINION OF THE REAL ESTATE EXPERT, THE PROJECTED RECEIPTS ARE ADEQUATE TO MEET THE ESTIMATED EXPENSE FOR THE BOARD OF MANAGERS' FIRST YEAR OF OPERATION, ASSUMING SUCH FIRST YEAR TO BE THE FISCAL YEAR COMMENCING JANUARY 1 2010. THE FOREGOING SCHEDULE, HOWEVER, IS NOT INTENDED AND SHOULD NOT BE TAKEN AS A GUARANTEE BY ANYONE THAT THE ANNUAL COMMON CHARGES OR EXPENSES

FOR THE FIRST YEAR OR ANY SUBSEQUENT YEAR OF OPERATION OF THE BUILDING BY THE BOARD OF MANAGERS WILL BE AS SET FORTH IN SAID SCHEDULE AND IT IS LIKELY THAT THE ACTUAL ANNUAL COMMON CHARGES OR EXPENSES WILL VARY FROM THE ACTUAL AMOUNTS SHOWN IN THE SCHEDULE.

THE SPONSOR HAS RESERVED THE RIGHT TO MODIFY, RENEW AND REPLACE EXISTING SERVICE, MAINTENANCE, EMPLOYMENT CONCESSIONAIRE AND OTHER AGREEMENTS AND INSURANCE POLICIES, AND TO ENTER INTO NEW AGREEMENT AND POLICIES THAT WILL BE BINDING ON THE BOARD OF MANAGERS ON THE CLOSING DATE. ANY SUCH NEW AGREEMENT WHICH HAS THE EFFECT OF MATERIALLY INCREASING COMMON CHARGES OR IS BINDING ON THE BOARD OF MANAGERS FOR MORE THAN TWO YEARS WILL BE DISCLOSED BY A DULY FILED AMENDMENT TO THIS PLAN.

SCHEDULE B-1

Proposed Electric & Gas Consumption
for Individual Units
for the First Year of Operation

Unit(s)	Electric	Gas
	Cost Annually: =====	=====
Unit 1A	$1,873	$2,048
Unit 1B	$1,938	$2,120
Unit 2A	$1,241	$1,358

Unit 5B	$1,154	$1,262
Unit 6A	$1,241	$1,358
Unit 6B	$1,154	$1,262

The above estimates of the cost of electricity and gas for general consumption, has been passed upon by Gustavo Munoz of GM Architectural Studio, P.C., by estimates in a letter dated December 5, 2008. The estimates for electricity is made on the basis of average estimated use multiplied by the estimated cost of approximately $0.25 per KWH including taxes and adjustments, and for gas a cost of $1.75 per therm plus taxes and adjustments. It must be expected that these rates may increase with the passage of time.

In view of the fact that these averages may include the use of energy by persons of varying need, with different standards of comfort, or with families of different sizes, the amount of energy used by the purchaser may vary substantially from the average estimates herein provided. In addition, the effect of inflation, fuel shortages and other factors may raise the cost of electricity or gas substantially higher than the current or projected rate.

Although the Sponsor is under obligation to provide accurate information to prospective purchasers, factors beyond its control may substantially affect the cost of electricity and/or gas after the purchase of the unit or in subsequent years. Sponsor represents however, that it has followed the plans and specifications provided by the manufacturer of the appliances together with the recommendation of the manufacturer and other experts to enable these items of equipment to operate at optimum efficiency at the lowest cost. Further, that it has not been induced to select the appliances etc., described herein on the basis of any financial inducement other than the cooperative advertising and price of the system made to it by the manufacturer or distributor of the system or by the supplier of energy to be used, in connection therewith, or by any of their agents or employees.

COMPLIANCE WITH REAL PROPERTY LAW SECTION 339-i

December 31, 2008

Real Estate Financing Bureau
Department of Law
120 Broadway
New York, New York

Re: One 1 One Condominium

Dear Sirs:

I am the attorney representing the Sponsor of this offering plan.
I am neither the selling agent nor managing agent for this property.

I have been involved in Real Estate Law and the preparation and filing of Offering Plans in the State of New York for the last seventeen years.

The method selected for calculating the percentage of common interests in the condominium pursuant to Real Property Law Section 339-i is subparagraph (1), (iv), which provides:

"(i) the interest of each of the units shall be based upon floor space, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the condominium, the uniqueness of the unit, the availability of common elements for exclusive or shared use, and the overall dimensions of the particular unit pursuant to Real Property Law Section 339 (i) (1) (iv)."

Accordingly, the common interests in this condominium have been allocated based on the above, and in my opinion complies with the above law.

I certify that I am not owned or controlled by and have no beneficial interest in the sponsor and that my compensation for preparing this letter is not contingent on the conversion of the property to a condominium or on the profitability of the offering.

I am an attorney duly admitted to practice law in the State of New York.

Very truly yours,

S. Seth Yavne

CHANGES IN PRICES AND UNITS

The prices set forth in Schedule A herein may only be changed by a duly filed amendment to the Plan when a change in prices is an across the board increase or decrease affecting one or more lines of Unit or Unit models, is to be advertised or is a price increase for an individual purchaser. However, prices are negotiable and Sponsor may enter into any agreements with any prospective purchaser to sell one or more Units at prices lower than those set forth in Schedule A without filing an amendment.

No changes will be made in the size or number of Units, and/or their respective percentages of Common Interest, or material change in the size or quality of the Common Element, except by duly filed amendment to the Plan and, when applicable, to the Declaration of Condominium. Unless an effected purchaser consents, no material change will be made in the Unit size, layout, or percentage of Common Interest, if a Purchase Agreement has been executed and delivered to the Sponsor for the Unit and the Purchaser is not in default under such agreement.

No material change will be made in the size, and no material adverse change will be made in the quality of Common Elements unless all purchasers consent.

Under no circumstances can Sponsor modify any plans or specifications if such changes affect the percentage of common interest or adversely affect the value of any unit to which title has closed, or which a Purchase Agreement is in effect, unless all affected Unit Owners or Purchasers consent in writing to such change.

INTERIM LEASES

Occupancy of Some Residential Units by Renters

The Sponsor is reserving the unilateral right to rent its unsold units.

In the event that the Sponsor does rent a unit prior to closing, such leases shall not be subject to the Rent Stabilization Laws or any other rental protection laws. In the event that the plan is abandoned, the building may become subject to the Rent Stabilization Laws.

An uncured default under the Purchase Agreement shall be considered an event of default under the lease agreement. Likewise an uncured default under the lease agreement shall be considered a default under the Purchase Agreement. However, the Sponsor may not declare the Purchase Agreement in default unless it has either (i) obtained an order of eviction or other judgment or order from a court or agency of competent jurisdiction against the lessee; or (ii) unless the lessee has vacated the unit.

In the event that an event of default has occurred under the Purchase Agreement, or if the Sponsor rescinds the Purchase Agreement, the lessee must vacate the premises within thirty (30) days.

PROCEDURE TO PURCHASE

A person desiring to purchase a Unit will be required to execute a Purchase Agreement. A Sample Purchase Agreement is contained in Exhibit A to Part II of this Plan. Purchase Agreements will not be binding upon the Sponsor until approved and accepted by the Sponsor. The Purchaser is required to make a down payment in the amount of 10% of the purchase price at the time he executes the Purchase Agreement, by check drawn to the order of "One 1 One Condominium - Escrow Account". The Sponsor shall not be bound to make any modifications or changes, perform any special work, provide any different or additional appliances, equipment, furnishings or decoration, unless agreed to by the Sponsor in a written instrument which is incorporated as an addendum to the Purchase Agreement.

THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT SET FORTH IN EXHIBIT A TO PART II OF THE PLAN SETS FORTH IN DETAIL THE TERMS OF SALE WITH RESPECT TO EACH UNIT AND SHOULD BE REVIEWED CAREFULLY BY EACH PROSPECTIVE PURCHASER AND HIS COUNSEL. ANY CONFLICT BETWEEN THE PLAN AND THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT WILL BE RESOLVED ACCORDING TO THE TERMS OF THE PLAN.

The down payments received upon the execution of the Purchase Agreements shall be placed promptly in a specially segregated special attorney's escrow I.O.L.A. account of Sponsor's attorney, S. Seth Yavne, Attorney at Law, 3407 Avenue K, New York, New York, to be known as the "One 1 One Condominium Escrow Account", and will be maintained at North Fork Bank, 404 5th Avenue, New York, New York. The phone number of the escrow agent is (718) 253-9181. The signor on the account and the escrow agent will be S. Seth Yavne. The escrow deposits will be released only at closing, or if Purchaser rescinds or defaults, or if the plan is abandoned, by signature of counsel for the Sponsor. The Sponsor is responsible for complying with the escrow and trust fund provisions of Section 352-h and 352-e (2) (b) of the New York General Business Law. Sponsor shall comply with all escrow requirements of Section 71-a(3) of the Lien Law requiring the down payment to be held in interest bearing escrow accounts, which interest is currently at 1%.

Escrow Trust Fund

All deposits, down payments, or advances made by a purchaser prior to the closing of each individual transaction, whether received before or after the date of consummation of the plan, must be placed within five (5) business days after the agreement is signed by all necessary parties, in an attorney's segregated special escrow account in a bank doing business in the State of New York which account is covered by federal bank deposit insurance. Purchasers shall be aware that deposits in excess of $100,000 will not be federally insured. Neither the Sponsor nor any principal of the Sponsor may be a signatory on the account. Funds will be placed in an interest bearing I.O.L.A. account, with all interest credited to the I.O.L.A. fund. The interest rate to be earned on the account will be the prevailing rate for such accounts. No fees of any kind may be deducted from the account principal or any interest earned thereon. Sponsor shall bear any administrative cost for the maintenance of the account. All funds received from purchasers whether in the form of checks, drafts, money orders, wire transfers, or other instruments which identify the payor, shall be made payable to or endorsed by the purchaser to the order of the attorney as escrow agent.

The escrow agent is an attorney admitted to practice in the State of New York and shall be the only signatory on the account and the only attorney authorized to release funds. The attorney is independent of Sponsor and has no interest in the condominium under this offering.

The material terms of the escrow agreement are disclosed herein, and a copy of the escrow agreement is included in Part II of the Plan. The Sponsor will indemnify, without limitation, the escrow agent and provide for discharge of the escrow agents obligations upon the payment of the deposit and interest in accordance with the Attorney General's regulations.

Any right of the escrow agent to represent the sponsor in any lawsuit, any compensation by the sponsor to the depository bank, any provision for payments by the sponsor under an indemnity in favor of the escrow agent, will be compensated for by the Sponsor.

Within ten (10) business days after tender of the deposit submitted with the purchase agreement, the escrow agent shall notify the purchaser that such funds have been deposited, and shall provide the account number and the initial interest rate.

If the purchaser does not receive notice of such deposit within fifteen (15) business days after tender of the deposit, he may cancel the purchase and rescind within ninety (90) days after tender of the deposit, or may apply to the Attorney General for relief. Rescission may not be afforded where proof satisfactory to the Attorney General is submitted establishing that the escrowed funds were timely deposited in accordance with these regulations and the requisite notice was mailed timely to the Purchaser. Before any funds can be transferred to a new escrow account, or if the escrow agent is to be replaced, the Plan must be amended to provide full disclosure with respect to the new account, the escrow and the escrow agreements as originally provided.

Under no circumstances shall sponsor apply for release of the escrowed funds of the defaulting purchaser until after consummation of the plan. Consummation of the plan does not relieve the sponsor of its obligations pursuant to GBL section 352-h. The escrow agent shall hold the funds in escrow unless otherwise directed in: a writing signed by both sponsor and purchaser, a determination of the Attorney General pursuant to a dispute settled by the Attorney General, a judgment or order of a court of competent jurisdiction, or after a determination made by the Attorney General in the settlement of a dispute discussed below.

The Sponsor shall not object to the release of the escrowed funds to a purchaser who timely rescinds in accordance with the offer of rescission contained in the plan or an amendment to the plan or, to all purchasers after an amendment abandoning the plan is accepted for filing by the Department of Law.

If there is no written agreement between the parties to release the escrowed funds, the escrow agent shall not pay the funds to the Sponsor until the escrow agent has given the purchaser written notice of not fewer than ten (10) business days.

Thereafter, the funds may be paid to the sponsor unless the purchaser has already made application to the Department of Law pursuant to the dispute resolution provisions contained in the Attorney General's regulations and has so notified the escrow agent in accordance with such provisions.

In the event of a dispute, the Sponsor shall apply and the purchaser or the escrow agent holding the down payment in escrow may apply to the Attorney General for a determination on the disposition of the down payment and any interest earned thereon. Forms for this purpose are furnished under Exhibit "L" contained in Part II of the Plan. The party applying shall contemporaneously send to all other parties a copy of such application.

Pending the determination of the Attorney General to grant or deny the application, the Sponsor, the purchaser and the escrow agent shall abide by the interim directive issued by the Attorney General. If the application permitting release of funds is granted, the deposit and any interest earned thereon shall be disposed of in accordance with the determination of the Attorney General, subject to any court action in which preliminary relief is granted.

The Attorney General shall act upon the application within thirty (30) days after its submission to the Department of Law, by either making a determination or notifying the parties that an extension of time in which to do so is necessary. If the application seeking release of funds is denied, the escrow agent shall continue to hold the deposit and any interest earned thereon until both the sponsor and the purchaser direct payment to a specified party in accordance with a written direction signed by both the sponsor and purchaser, or a judgment or order of the court of competent jurisdiction is served on the escrow agent, or the escrow agent deposits the disputed amount into court. In no event shall the escrow agent release funds in dispute, other than a payment of such funds into court, until such dispute is finally resolved either by determination of the Attorney General, or by order or judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, or by written agreement of the sponsor and the purchaser.

The escrow agent shall maintain all records concerning the escrow account for seven years after the release of the funds. Upon the dissolution of any law firm which was the escrow agent, the former partners or members of the firm shall make appropriate arrangements for the maintenance of these records by one of them or by the successor firm and shall notify the Department of Law of such transfer.

The Department of Law may perform random reviews and audits of any records involving escrow accounts to determine compliance with statute and regulation.

Any provision of any contract or agreement whether oral or in writing, by which a purchaser purports to waive or indemnify any obligation of the escrow agent holding trust fund is absolutely void.

The provisions of this section of the Attorney General's regulations shall prevail over any conflicting or inconsistent provision in the offering plan or in a purchase agreement.

Nothing contained herein shall diminish or impair the Sponsor's statutory obligation to each purchaser pursuant to GBL Section 352-h to hold in trust all deposits, advances or payments made in connection with the offer until consummation of the transaction with such purchaser.

Consummation of the Plan does not relieve the sponsor of its obligations pursuant to GBL Section 352-h. Funds from the escrow account remain the property of the purchaser until employed in connection with the consummation of the transaction. Such funds shall not be a part of the estate of the sponsor or the escrow agent upon any ~~bankruptcy~~, incapacity or death.

All funds required to be held pursuant to GBL sections 352-e(2-b) and 352-h on the effective date of this section shall be transferred into escrow accounts in compliance with this regulation within fifteen (15) days.

A sponsor may apply to the Attorney General to use security in the form of surety bonds or a letter of credit in lieu of escrow of such funds for use in new constructed or gut rehabilitated developments upon showing of adequate insurance of such funds in accordance with Attorney General Regulations. Sponsor may submit an affidavit which contains full information as to the proposed usage of such funds, the sponsor's financing of construction or rehabilitation work, expected completion date, the terms and conditions of the proposed surety bonds or letter of credit, and required undertakings and covenants.

If Purchaser fails to perform any of Purchaser's obligations thereunder, the Sponsor will make a written demand for payment after said default at least thirty (30) days before forfeiture of the deposit will be declared. Said demand will be sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, to Purchaser and will disclose Sponsor's intention to cancel the Purchase Agreement. If Purchaser fails to cure such default after the thirty (30) day period, the Sponsor may, at its option, cancel the Purchase Agreement. If Sponsor so elects to cancel the Purchase Agreement, all amounts paid pursuant to the contract, together with any interest thereon, shall all belong to Sponsor and the rights, obligations and liabilities of both parties under the agreement and the Plan shall cease and terminate, provided that liquidated damages shall in no event exceed 10% percent of the offering price plus the actual cost of work specially performed by Sponsor for the Purchaser. THE TIME FOR PERFORMANCE OF THE PURCHASER'S OBLIGATIONS, INCLUDING ATTENDANCE AT CLOSING AND DELIVERY OF THE BALANCE OF THE PURCHASE PRICE, IS OF THE ESSENCE IN THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT. This means that all deadlines and time periods must be strictly adhered to by the Purchaser.

Sponsor expects the first closing of a unit to occur by approximately January 1, 2010. If such date is delayed twelve (12) months or more, purchasers will be offered a fifteen (15) day right of rescission. Furthermore, if within six (6) months of this date there is a 25% change in the budget for first year of condominium operation purchasers will likewise be offered a fifteen (15) day right of rescission.

The purchaser is required to sign a power of attorney to the board of managers of the condominium, which power of attorney must be signed, acknowledged and returned to the Sponsor within fifteen (15) days. Failure to so return the power of attorney may result in a default under the purchase agreement. The power of attorney provides that you nominate and appoint the Board of Managers to act as your attorney in fact to acquire any abandoned units or to execute any instrument which the Board of Managers deems necessary to comply with governing laws and regulations.

Sponsor will not permit the assignment or transfer of purchase agreements, without Sponsor's written consent in each instance, in Sponsor's sole discretion.

Purchaser will be afforded at least three (3) business days to review the Plan and all filed Amendments thereto prior to executing a Purchase Agreement.

Sponsor will, within twenty (20) days after receipt of a fully executed copy of the Purchase Agreement and the required deposit, either accept such Purchase Agreement and return a fully executed counterpart to the Purchaser, or reject the Purchase Agreement and refund the full deposit previously tendered. If the Sponsor fails to act within such twenty-day period, the Purchaser will have the option, by written notice within ten (10) days thereafter, to withdraw his offer and receive a refund of the full deposit tendered.

Any conflict between the Condominium Plan and the Purchase Agreement will be resolved in favor of the Plan.

All risks of loss to the Unit by fire or other casualty prior to the conveyance of legal title to the Unit to the Purchaser are assumed by the Sponsor, without any liability or obligation by the Sponsor to repair or restore the Unit, unless and until a purchaser takes actual possession of a Unit pursuant to a written agreement with Sponsor. In such event, such purchaser is advised to obtain insurance covering any such casualty.

The agreement of any Purchaser to purchase will not be conditional or contingent upon the obtaining of a mortgage or other financing by such Purchaser, nor is any financing being offered by the Sponsor.

The Purchase Agreement shall not be amended to waive any of Purchaser's rights or abrogate any of Sponsor's obligations under the offering plan or under Article 23-A of the General Business Law.

After the plan has been declared effective, the Sponsor will fix dates for closing title to all units for which purchase agreements have been executed by serving notice on all purchasers stating the date of the first closing and setting each closing date. Such notice will be served in compliance with applicable regulations no less than thirty (30) days before the date set for the closing of the units. Sponsor will permit the purchasers to waive this thirty (30) day provision by including such waiver in the plan or in an amendment thereto.

EFFECTIVE DATE

The offer to sell is contingent upon this Plan being declared effective and upon compliance with the relevant conditions and time periods described in this Plan. This Plan will be declared effective upon the date upon which there are valid and binding Purchase Agreements for 80% of the Units under the Plan, or, at the option of Sponsor, upon execution of a valid and binding Purchase Agreements for at least 15% of the units offered under the plan which have been executed by bona fide purchasers including investors. Units of a primarily ancillary nature may not be counted toward effectiveness. For the purpose of this Plan, a Purchase Agreement shall be valid and binding if executed by both Purchaser and Sponsor. This Plan shall be declared effective by written notice to the Purchasers, served in accordance with the regulations, to be followed by duly filed amendment disclosing such fact, which amendment will be submitted to the Attorney General within five (5) days thereafter, confirming that the Plan was declared effective on a specified date. When giving notice of effectiveness to Purchasers, the percentage used to declare the plan effective and a list of units counted to meet the minimum percentages needed, will be provided. The closing of title to the first unit shall not occur until the Plan is declared effective and such effectiveness amendment is accepted for filing by the Attorney General.

This Plan will not be declared effective based on purchase agreements: (i) signed by purchasers who have been granted a right of rescission that has not yet expired or been waived; or (ii) if the purchaser was not afforded the three business days to review the offering plan and all filed amendments prior to the execution of a Purchase Agreement; or (iii) with any purchaser who is the Sponsor, the selling agent, or the managing agent or is a principal of the Sponsor, the selling agent or the managing agent or is related to the Sponsor, the selling agent or the managing agent or to any principal of the sponsor or the selling agent or the managing agent by blood, marriage or adoption or as a business associate, an employee, a shareholder or a limited partner; except that such a purchaser other than the Sponsor or a principal of the Sponsor may be included if the Sponsor has submitted proof satisfactory to the Department of Law establishing the purchaser is bona fide.

This Plan may be abandoned by the Sponsor at any time prior to being declared effective by filing an amendment to abandon this Plan with the Department of Law. If payments under purchase agreements have been received, purchaser's down payment money will be refunded within five days after the amendment abandoning the plan has been accepted for filing. If this Plan is not declared effective within twelve (12) months following its date of acceptance for filing with the Department of Law, due to Sponsor's inability to sell the units, then at the expiration of such twelve months, the Plan shall be abandoned by amendment filed with the Department of Law regardless of whether there are any outstanding Purchase Agreements. If this Plan is abandoned and there are outstanding Purchase Agreements, all purchasers will be promptly notified and all monies paid under the respective Purchase Agreements will be returned to them within ten (10) days after abandonment with interest, if any. In either case, Sponsor will promptly file an abandonment amendment to the Department of Law, regardless of whether there are any outstanding Purchase Agreements, confirming such abandonment. Sponsor will file a notice of abandonment on form RS-3 or such other form as the Department may require and explain the reason for such abandonment and the disposition of all funds received.

Once the Plan has been declared effective, it may not thereafter be withdrawn or abandoned, except that prior to conveying title to the first Unit, the Plan may, at the option of the Sponsor, ~~be withdrawn~~ in the event of (i) the existence of one or more defects in title affecting any one or more Units that cured without litigation or cannot be cured for less than $26,675; or (ii) substantial damage to or destruction of the Building or any portion thereof by fire or other casualty which cannot be cured for less than $26,675; or (iii) the taking of any material portion of the Property in condemnation proceedings or by eminent domain.

The foregoing dollar amounts shall exclude attorney's fees, or any such title defects or determination of any authority or regulatory association which exist on the date of presentation of the Plan and are either known to the Sponsor or are a matter of public record.

TERMS OF SALE

Title to each Unit and its interest in the Common Elements will be conveyed by the Sponsor at the closing thereof by bargain and sale deed with covenants against grantor's acts, free and clear of all liens, encumbrances and other title exceptions other than the exceptions set forth in the Plan and in Schedule A to the Purchase Agreement. The deed will be substantially in the form set forth in Exhibit C contained in Part II of the Plan.

All risks of loss to the Unit by fire or other casualty prior to the conveyance of legal title of the Unit to the Purchaser is assumed by the Sponsor, without any liability or obligation by the Sponsor to repair or restore the Unit, unless and until a purchaser takes actual possession of a Unit pursuant to a written agreement with Sponsor. In such event, such purchaser is advised to obtain insurance covering any such casualty.

All personal property located within the Unit on the date the purchase agreement is signed or located within the Common Elements on the date the Declaration is filed, that is owned by the Sponsor or the owner of the property, is included in the conveyance unless specifically excepted in the Plan.

A closing will only take place if concurrently with such closing the issuance of a temporary or permanent certificate of occupancy for the building is obtained or the issuance of a partial, temporary or permanent certificate of occupancy for the unit closing is obtained.

The declaration, by-laws and floor plans for the Condominium and such other documents, as required by law, will be recorded prior to or contemporaneously with the first conveyance of title to a unit in accordance with the New York Condominium Act in the Offices of the City Register, County of New York. All Transfer Taxes shall be paid at closing by the Purchaser of the Unit.

If existing mortgages or construction loans are not satisfied at or prior to the closing of the first unit, at the time of conveyance of the first unit, each mortgagee will either: (a) consent to the formation of a condominium and acknowledge that its lien will be limited to unsold condominium units; (b) subordinate the lien of its mortgage to the declaration of condominium; or (c) release its lien on the condominium Unit being conveyed and its interest in the Common Elements.

UNIT CLOSING COSTS AND ADJUSTMENTS

The estimated closing costs, expenses and adjustments to be borne by each Purchaser of the Unit and to be paid at closing are set forth in Exhibit A contained in Part II of the Plan. Fees include but are not limited to: (a) fees and expenses of Purchaser's attorney, if any); (b) mortgage recording taxes (2.05% of purchaser's mortgage, if any); (c) premiums for mortgage and/or owner's title insurance. If the Purchaser elects to obtain fee title insurance, he or she will pay a premium therefore to his or her title insurance company, which will vary depending upon the amount of insurance requested. The premium for fee title insurance should be $675.64 for the first $100,000 of fee insurance plus $3.80 for each $1,000 or fraction thereof of additional fee insurance. Each Purchaser is free to obtain title insurance from any title insurance company. The Sponsor makes no representation or warranty as to the cost, terms, or availability of such title insurance; (d) all charges of Purchaser's Lender, if any, including, without limitation, origination and appraisal fees, charges for a credit report and attorney fees (which attorney fees generally do not exceed $1,000) for the Lender; (e) Fees for recording the Deed, Mortgage (if any), Unit Power of Attorney, or other documents (approximately $150.00); (f) Real Estate Taxes and Assessments, if any, including water charges and sewer rents if separately assessed, apportioned as of date of closing; (g) Common Charges for the month in which title closes (there will be no adjustment for such charges if the Unit is conveyed on the date of recording of the Declaration); (h) an amount equal to twice the estimated monthly common charges for

(k) in addition each purchaser shall be required to pay a $750.00 condominium map fee, $1,500.00 for Sponsor's attorney's fees, $1,000.00 for legal and filing fees in connection with the application to secure 421-A tax exemption benefits, a $1,000 fee for the formation of the condominium, a $650 fee for the New York City Water Meter connection, and an ACRIS fee in an amount of approximately $200. Any mortgage tax credit received pursuant to Section 339-ee of the Real property Law or Section 225 of the Tax Law will inure to the benefit of the Sponsor. The above amounts are good faith estimates based on information currently available to the Sponsor. At the closing, Purchasers will normally be required to advance to the Purchaser's Lender, if any, escrow for the reserves for taxes, assessments, water and sewer charges and insurance premiums.

An example of the foregoing estimates is a Unit having a purchase price of $400,000.00, with respect to which the Purchaser has obtained a typical institutional mortgage in the principal sum of $320,000.00:

If Units have not been separately assessed for real estate tax purposes prior to the closing of title to the first Unit, Sponsor will place in escrow, in the name of the Board of Managers, an amount equal to the unpaid real estate taxes which will be levied against the Condominium for the six-month period following the closing of title to the first Unit or until Units are separately assessed, whichever is shorter. Sponsor will pay the real estate taxes from the escrow account when such taxes are due and payable and shall be entitled to reimbursement from Unit Owners to the extent of the actual assessment. All adjustments for taxes and other adjustable items shall be apportioned as of midnight of the day prior to the date of closing.

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE SPONSOR

Subject to the terms and conditions of this Plan, the Sponsor has the following obligations the performance for which no bond or other security will be furnished:

1. Sponsor will endeavor in good faith to sell, in a reasonable timely manner, all residential units to Purchasers for personal occupancy by themselves or their families, however the Sponsor is retaining the unconditional right to rent rather than sell units.
2. The Sponsor will, at its sole cost and expense and with reasonable diligence, perform or cause to be performed such work, and will supply or cause to be supplied all materials, necessary to complete construction of the Building, substantially in accordance with the Plans and Specifications. The Sponsor reserves the right to substitute equipment or materials and make modifications of layout or design, provided, however, that Sponsor shall not (1) substitute equipment or materials of lesser quality or design; or (2) change the size or location of Building, Units, other improvements, or Common Elements if such changes affect the percentage of Common Interests or adversely affect the value of any Unit to which title has closed or for which a Purchase Agreement has been executed and is in effect unless all affected Unit Owners consent in writing to such change and all affected contract vendees are given the right to rescind and receive any deposit or down payment.
3. If a final Certificate of Occupancy and/or any other certificate or authorization required to permit the occupancy of a Unit shall not have been issued at the date of closing of title to such Unit, the Sponsor will obtain prior to the closing of the first Unit a temporary or partial Certificate of Occupancy for the Unit or the Building in which the Unit to be closed is located. The Sponsor must secure a permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building as expeditiously as possible after the closing of title, (within an estimated 120 days but before expiration of any temporary Certificate of Occupancy, unless extended), and will, at its sole cost and expense, do and perform or cause to be done and performed all work and will supply or cause to be supplied all materials necessary therefore. The Sponsor anticipates that he will obtain the final certificate of occupancy within the first year after completion of construction.

4. If the first closing on a Unit takes place prior to the issuance of a permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building, Sponsor shall (1) maintain all deposits and funds in a specially segregated escrow account pursuant to Section 352-e (2)(b) of the General Business Law of the State of New York, unless the Sponsor's architect certifies that a lesser amount will be reasonably necessary to complete the work needed to obtain a permanent Certificate of Occupancy, in which case the sum so certified may be released from the special escrow account; or (2) deposit with an escrow agent an unconditional, irrevocable letter of credit or post a surety bond in the amount so certified, and file an Amendment to this offering Plan in connection therewith.

5. Limited Warranty: The Sponsor is providing a Limited Warranty to the Purchaser of a unit. A full text of the law appears in Exhibit E contained in Part II of this Offering Plan.

A. Coverage:

(a) For one year, the Unit must be free from defects caused by workmanship or materials that do not meet the standards of the applicable building code; for items not covered, the construction must be in accordance with locally accepted building practices.

(b) For two years, the plumbing, electrical, heating, cooling, and ventilation systems must be free from defects caused by unskillful installation.

(c) For six years, the home must be free from physical defects in the structural elements (foundation, floors, walls, roof framing) which make it unsafe or unlivable.

C. Not Covered:

(a) A defect not caused by defective workmanship, materials or design.

(b) A patent defect which was obvious or would have been obvious upon inspection.

(c) Defects in items sold with the home, such as stoves, refrigerators, air conditioners, etc. There are implied warranties from the manufacturers of such goods which are described in other laws.

D. Notice:

Buyers must give notice of defects in their home in writing no later than 30 days after the end of the warranty period.

E. Limitation of the Warranty:

The limited warranty cannot permit construction which is below code or below locally accepted building practice, and the limited warranty time periods cannot be shorter than those described above.

6. The Sponsor will deliver to the Board of Managers on behalf of Unit Owners an assignment of all assignable warranties and other undertakings received by the Sponsor from contractors, materialmen or others in connection with the construction and equipping of the Building. At or prior to the closing of a unit the Sponsor will assign any manufacturers warranties with respect to equipment and appliances installed in the unit to the unit owners and assign any warranties with respect to equipment installed in the common elements to the Board of Managers. All such warranties and will be delivered or assigned by the Sponsor promptly upon receipt by the Sponsor, if received after closing.

7. The Sponsor will pay or cause to be paid all contractors and materialmen and all others involved in the construction and equipping of the Building, for work performed and fixtures, material and equipment supplied or installed in the construction thereof and will cause any and all mechanics' liens arising out of such construction and equipping to be discharged by bonding or otherwise promptly after the filing of any such liens.

8. After the issuance of a final Certificate of Occupancy covering the Building, the Sponsor will deliver to the Board of Managers a complete set of "as built" drawings for the Condominium and a signed copy of the statement of the Sponsor's architect referred to below.

9. The Sponsor will bear all costs and expenses incurred by the Sponsor in connection with the creation of the Condominium and the preparation of this Plan and all selling expenses and compensation payable for sales or other personnel of the Sponsor. Each Purchaser will be responsible for the commission of any broker with whom such Purchaser may have dealt unless the Sponsor otherwise agrees in writing.

10. Until title to all Units is passed to bona fide purchasers, the Sponsor will pay such common charges and special assessments and real estate taxes as are assessed by the Board of Managers on Units to which title has not passed, whether built or unbuilt, once a Declaration has been recorded. Sponsors state that it has the financial resources to meet its obligations with respect to any unsold Units. The source of such funding is personal assets. No Bond or other security has been posted to secure Sponsor's obligations.

11. Sponsor will initially procure the following coverage: (a) fire insurance with all risk extended coverage for the value of the building; (b) comprehensive general liability. The cost of such policies are to be reimbursed by the Board of Managers.

12. In the event of dissolution or liquidation of the Sponsor or the transfer of twenty percent or more of the total number of units in the condominium, the principals of the sponsor will provide financially responsible entities or individuals who will assume the status and all of the obligations of the Sponsor for those units under the offering plan, applicable laws or regulations.

13. Sponsor will keep copies of the Plan, Exhibits and documents referred to in the Plan on file at Sponsor's office or at another designated place for six years from the date the Declaration is recorded.

14. The Sponsor and its contractors, subcontractors, agents and employees will have the right of access to each Unit and to all of the Common Elements for purposes of completing construction of the Building and fulfilling the Sponsor's obligations hereunder, provided that requests for entry, except in emergencies, shall be made in advance and that any such entry will be at a time reasonably convenient to the Unit Owner. In case of an emergency, such right of entry shall be immediate, whether or not the Unit Owner is present at the time. The Sponsor may require that each Unit Owner shall deliver to the Managing Agent a duplicate key to each exterior lock on such Owner's Unit and provide penalties for each Unit Owner's failure to do so. The Sponsor will be responsible for all damages to any Unit or to the Common Elements resulting from the exercise of such right of access. All repairs and replacements performed by the Sponsor as a result of any such damages will be substantially similar to the original construction and installation and will be of first-class quality. In addition the Sponsor is obligated to repair any damage from a casualty or other cause that occurs prior to the closing of the Purchaser's unit. The Sponsor is also responsible for the cost and replacement of windows.

The foregoing undertakings set forth the entire obligations of the Sponsor hereunder and none other shall be implied, except that nothing contained herein shall be deemed to limit the rights of Unit Owners under their Purchase Agreements. All representations under the offering plan, all obligations pursuant to the General Business Law, and any additional obligations under the offering plan which are to be performed subsequent to the closing date shall survive delivery of the deed. The Sponsor shall not be liable for or obligated to defend any suits or claims with respect to any Unit arising out of any occurrence taking place on or after the date of the closing of title to such Unit or, with respect to the Common Elements, arising out of any occurrence taking place on or after the date of the recording of the Declaration, except suits or claims arising out of acts of the Sponsor or representations made by the Sponsor in this Plan. Disclaimers or limitations of liability on the part of the Sponsor or its principals for failure to perform any obligation imposed by applicable statute or regulation may not be included. This plan may also not include any financial limitation on Sponsor's liability for failure to perform its obligations under the offering plan.

For all purposes under this Plan, the issuance of (a) a final Certificate of Occupancy for the entire Building by the Department of Buildings of the City of New York, and (b) a statement by the Sponsor's Architect to the Sponsor that the Building has been completed substantially in accordance with the Plans and Specifications except for (i) such work in the public portions of the Building and within Units as is customarily or necessarily left incomplete until after occupancy (which work will be completed with reasonable expedition) and (ii) special work in any Units to be done by or for the account of Purchasers or tenants thereof, shall be deemed and considered presumptive evidence that the Building has been fully completed in accordance with the Plans and Specifications. Such presumption, however, shall be without prejudice to any rights which the Board of Managers may have with respect to the Sponsor's obligation to cause defects in construction or materials to be corrected, as set forth in paragraph (4) four above. Such statement by the Sponsor's Architect shall neither constitute a representation by him to the Unit Owners or to the Board of Managers nor give rise to any claim by any Unit Owner or by the Board of Managers against the Sponsor's Architect with respect to completion of construction or defects therein.

Obligations of the Sponsor hereunder with respect to the Units or Limited Common Elements shall be enforceable only by the Board of Managers on behalf of the Unit Owners affected, and with respect to the General Common Elements, only by the Board of Managers on behalf of all Unit Owners.

Sponsor and their agents will not discriminate against any person because of race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, disability, marital status or national origin.

GENERAL

Sponsor agrees to pay Common Charges, special assessments and real estate taxes, and to perform other duties as stated above as a Unit Owner with respect to any unsold unit (for so long as Sponsor owns same). The foregoing sets forth the entire extent of the obligations of Sponsor under this Plan and none other shall be implied, except that nothing contained herein shall be deemed to limit the rights of purchasers relative to their units under their respective Purchase Agreements. Sponsor makes no warranties other than as set forth in this section. The obligations of Sponsor under this section shall survive the delivery of the deeds to the respective units, and Sponsor represents that it has the financial resources to meet its obligations with respect to unsold units. The source of funding will be from personal assets of the Sponsor. Sponsor shall not be liable for or obligated to defend any suits or claims with respect to any Unit arising out of any occurrence taking place on or after the date of the closing of title to such unit or the leasing thereof to any purchaser or, with respect to the General Common Elements of Limited Common Elements, arising out of any occurrence taking place on or after the date of the first closing, except suits or claims arising out of the acts or omissions of Sponsor or the representations made by Sponsor in this Plan.

Sponsor agrees to indemnify the Condominium Board and Unit Owners and hold them harmless from, and defend on their behalf, any suits or claims arising out of the acts or omissions of Sponsor or the representations made by Sponsor in this Plan (i) with respect to the General Common Elements or Limited Common Elements (prior to the first closing) and (ii) with respect to any Unit (prior to the closing date for such Unit).

Obligations of the Sponsor under this section with respect to the Condominium, the General Common Elements or Limited Common Elements shall be enforceable only by the Condominium Board on behalf of all Unit Owners.

CONTROL BY THE SPONSOR

The Sponsor's Control of the Board of Managers of the Condominium will be subject to the following:

(i) So long as Sponsor owns Units representing 50% or more in Common Interest, the Sponsor shall have the right to designate two (2) of the three (3) members of the Board of Managers.

(ii) So long as Sponsor owns Units representing 30% in Common Interest, the Sponsor shall have the right to designate one (1) of the three (3) members of the Board of Managers.

(iii) In no event shall the Sponsor retain voting control after two years from the date of closing of title to the first Unit or when Sponsor's ownership of Units constitutes less than 25%. Sponsor, after designating its representative, may cast the remaining votes for Unit owners of its choice.

Sponsor may not at any time exercise veto power over expenses described in Schedule B or over expenses required to (a) comply with applicable laws or regulations; or (b) remedy any notice of violation; or (c) remedy any work order by an insurer.

(iv) So long as the Sponsor or its designee shall continue to own Units representing 25% or more in Common Interest the Board of Managers may not: (a) increase the number or change the type of employees from that described in Schedule B, (b) provide for new or additional services from those indicated on Schedule B, (c) impose any assessment or charges against Unit Owners for improvement or additions unless required by Law, (d) establish any reserves for contingencies, repairs, improvements or replacements.

Subject to the provisions for control by Sponsor set forth herein, from and after the holding of the first annual meeting of Unit Owners, the Board of Managers shall consist of three persons elected by Unit Owners. After such time the Sponsor will designate as members each Purchaser as and when the title to each Unit closes. Within ninety (90) calendar days after the date on which closing of title to the first Unit, the Sponsor shall call the first annual meeting of the Unit Owners for the purpose of electing the Board of Managers. Except for Board Members initially designated by the Sponsor as the ~~first Board of~~ Managers, all subsequent members of the Board of Managers must be Unit Owners.

Because Sponsor is not limiting the conditions under which it will rent rather than sell Units, Although Sponsor will make every effort to sell all of the Units, there is no commitment to sell more than fifteen percent (15%) necessary to declare the plan effective and owner-occupants (purchasers for their own occupancy) may never gain effective control of the Board of Manages of the condominium.

All Board members shall serve without compensation. No officer who is also a member of the Board of Managers shall receive any compensation for acting as an officer. Sponsor will not retain voting control over the Board of Managers or veto power over expenditures described in Schedule B, or expenditures required to comply with applicable laws or regulations, or to remedy any notice of violation or to remedy any work order by an insurer for more than two years after closing of the first Unit or after sale of two Units, whichever is sooner.

BOARD OF MANAGERS

Board of Managers

The affairs of each Condominium shall be governed by a Board of Managers. The first members of the Board of Managers will be Anthony DiRusso and Robert Lappetito, the principals of Sponsor. Such control shall be retained by the first Board of Managers until the first annual meeting of the Unit Owners. Within one year after the date of conveyance of the first Unit, the Sponsor (or Unit Owners) shall call the first annual meeting of the Unit Owners for the purpose of electing the three members of the Board of Managers. The Bylaws include a provision that after the initial sponsor voting control period, the Board of Managers will be comprised of owner-occupants, members of owner-occupant's households, or non-resident unit owners who are unrelated to the Sponsor and its principals. Owner-occupants and non-residential owners, including Sponsor, may have inherent conflicts on how the condominium should be managed because of their different reasons for purchasing (i.e., purchasing as a home as opposed to an investment). Owner-occupants may also never gain effective control and management of the condominium. All Board members shall serve without compensation.

Any one or more of the members of the Board of Managers may be removed with or without cause by a Majority of the Unit Owners.

Upon the affirmative vote of a majority of all the members of the Board of Managers, any officer may be removed, either with or without cause, and a successor may be elected or appointed, as the case may be, at any regular meeting of the Board of Managers or at any special meeting of the Board of Managers called for such purpose.

Powers and Duties of Board of Managers

The Board of Managers has the powers and duties necessary for and incidental to the administration of the affairs of the Condominium. Such powers and duties include the operation, care and maintenance of the Common Elements, the preparation of an annual budget for the Condominium and the assessment of Common Charges. The powers and duties of the Board of Managers are more fully discussed in Article 2 of the Bylaws.

Meetings and Votes of Unit Owners.

Within thirty (30) calendar days after the date on which closing of title to all Units shall have taken place or within one year after the date of conveyance of the first Unit, whichever shall first occur, the Sponsor (or Unit Owners) shall call the first meeting of the Unit Owners. Thereafter annual meetings of the Unit Owners shall be held on such other date as the Board of Managers shall designate. At such meetings, the Unit Owners shall elect the Board of Managers. In addition, special meetings may be held from time to time and will be call in accordance with section 4.2 of the Condominium By-Laws contained in Part II of the Plan. At all meetings of the Unit Owners, the presence in person or by proxy of all the Unit Owners shall constitute a quorum and, except as noted below or as otherwise provided in the By-laws or Declaration a majority of the votes cast at any such meeting at which a quorum is present shall be binding upon all Unit Owners.

At all meetings each Unit owner (or his proxy) entitled to vote thereat (including the Sponsor with respect to Units owned by the Sponsor) shall be entitled to cast one vote. Cumulative voting shall not be permitted.

Officers. The principal officers of the Condominium shall be a President, Secretary and Treasurer, all of whom shall be elected by the Board of Managers. All of the officers shall be Unit Owners. No officer who is also a member of the Board of Managers shall receive any compensation for acting as an officer. The anticipated first officers and members of the Board shall be the principal of Sponsor.

The duties of the principal officers are as follows:

President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Condominium, preside at all meetings of the Unit Owners and of the Board of Managers.

Secretary. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Unit owners and of the Board of Managers, shall have charge of such books and papers as the Board of Manager may direct, and shall act as President in the absence of the President.

Treasurer. The Treasurer shall be responsible for Condominium funds and securities, for keeping full and accurate financial records and books of account showing all receipts and disbursements.

Insurance. The Condominium Board is required to obtain and maintain to the extent obtainable, (a) fire insurance with all risk extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief endorsements, insuring the entire Building (including each Unit, but excluding fixtures, furniture, furnishings or other personal property not constituting a part of such Unit or supplied or installed by the Unit Owner), together with all service machinery contained therein and covering the interests of the Condominium, the Board of Managers and all Unit Owners and certain of their mortgagees, as their respective interests may appear; (b) Workmen's Compensation and New York State disability benefits insurance, if and to the extent necessary to meet the requirements of law;

All policies of physical damage insurance shall contain, to the extent obtainable, waivers of subrogation and waivers of any defense based on co-insurance or other insurance or of invalidity arising from any acts of the insured and of pro rata reduction of liability, and shall provide that such policies may not be canceled or substantially modified without at least thirty (30) calendar days prior written notice to all of the insured, including all Mortgagees and the Board of Managers. Duplicate originals or certificates of insurance of all policies of physical damage insurance and all renewal thereof, together with proof of payment of premiums, shall be delivered to all Unit Owners and to any Mortgagee so requesting at least thirty (30) calendar days prior to expiration of the then current policies.

The Board of Managers shall also be required to obtain and maintain public liability insurance in such limits as such Board may from time to time determine, covering the Board of Managers, the Managing Agent, all employees of the Condominium and each Unit Owner and covering all liability to the public or to the Unit Owners (and their invitees, agents and employees) arising out of or incident to the ownership or use of the Common Elements. Each insurance shall be issued on a comprehensive liability basis and shall cover cross-liability claims of one insured against another. The Condominium Board shall review such limits once each year.

Any insurance maintained by the Board of Managers may provide for such deductible amounts as the Board determines. The premiums for all insurance referred to above shall be a Common Expense.

Unit Owners may and are advised to carry other insurance for their own benefit, provided that no Unit Owner shall be permitted to exercise the right to obtain additional insurance so as to decrease the amount which the Board of Managers, on behalf of all the Unit Owners, may realize under any insurance policy or to cause any insurance coverage maintained by the Board to be brought into contribution with such additional insurance coverage obtained by a Unit Owner. The Board may, in addition, elect to obtain other insurance in addition to that set forth herein, and in the By Laws.

Repairs of Common Elements.

The Board of Managers shall be responsible for the operation, maintenance, repair and replacement of all of the Common Elements, whether located inside or outside of the Units, the cost of which shall be charged to all Unit owners as a Common Expense; provided that each Unit owner shall perform normal maintenance on and replacement of the Limited Common Elements appurtenant only to such Owner's Unit, including keeping the same in clean and sanitary condition, free and clear of snow, ice, and any accumulation of water and shall also make all repairs thereto caused or permitted by such Owner's negligence, misuse, neglect, or otherwise except to the extent covered by insurance.

Repair or Reconstruction after Fire or Other Casualty

In the event that the Building or any part thereof is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, the Board of Managers will, except as set forth below, arrange for the prompt repair and restoration thereof (including each Unit, but excluding fixtures, furniture, furnishings or other personal property not constituting a part of such Unit or supplied or installed by the Units Owner). In such event Unit Owners may be assessed for deficits, if any, in insurance proceeds.

If three-fourths or more of the Building is destroyed or substantially damaged and if the Unit Owners do not duly and promptly resolve to proceed with repair or restoration, the Property shall become subject to an action for partition at the suit of any Unit Owner or Mortgagee pursuant to Section 339-cc of the Condominium Act, in which event the Property will not be repaired and net assets of the Condominium, together with the net proceeds of insurance policies, if any, shall be divided among all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests, provided, however, that no payment shall be made to a Unit Owner until there has first been paid out of his share of such fund, such amounts as may be necessary to discharge all unpaid liens on his Unit in the order of the priority of such liens.

Liability of Board of Managers and Unit Owners

Every contract made by the Board of Managers or by any Managing Agent shall state that (a) it is made only as agent for all Unit Owners and such Board members or Managing Agent shall have no personal liability thereon (except in their capacities as Unit Owners) and (b) the liability of any Unit Owner with respect to such contract shall be limited to (i) such proportionate share of the total liability as the Common Interest of such Unit Owner bears to the aggregate Common Interests of all Unit Owners, and (ii) except as otherwise determined by the Board of Managers in its sole and absolute discretion, such Unit Owner's interests in his Unit. Board members and officers shall have no liability to Unit Owners for errors of judgment, negligence or otherwise except that a Board member or officer shall be liable for his own bad faith or willful misconduct. All Unit Owners shall severally, to the extent of their respective interests in their Units, indemnify each Condominium Board member or officer against any liability or claim except those arising out of his own bad faith or willful misconduct. The Board of Managers may contract or effect any other transactions with any Board member, any officer, any Unit Owner or the Sponsor or any affiliate of any of them without, except in case of bad faith or willful misconduct, incurring any liability for self dealing.

Reports to Unit Owners

An annual itemized accounting of the receipts and expenditures of the Condominium Board shall be submitted by the Board of Managers to all Unit Owners within sixty (60) calendar days after the end of each fiscal year. Detailed books and records of receipts and expenditures affecting the Property and Administration of the Condominium shall be available for examination by the Unit Owners and by their respective duly authorized agents or attorneys in the office of the Managing Agent, if any, or of the Condominium during general business hours on working days at the times and in the manner set and announced by the Board of Managers for the general knowledge of the Unit Owners.

Amendments to Condominium Documents

The Declaration may be amended by the vote of at least 80% in Common Interest of all Unit Owners, cast in person or by proxy at a meeting duly held in accordance with the provisions of the Bylaws, with the following exceptions: (1) the Limited Common Interest appurtenant to each Unit shall not be altered without the approval in writing of every Unit Owner affected and their respective Mortgagees; (2) altering the use of the Building and Units for any use other than residential use only requires the approval in writing of the Unit Owner of every Unit and their respective Mortgagees.

The By-laws may be amended by the vote of 80% in Common Interest of all Unit Owners, cast in person or by proxy at a meeting duly held for such purpose, except that (1) Article 8 of the By-laws, which pertains to rights of Mortgagees, may not be amended without the written consent of each Mortgagee.

Termination of Condominium

The Condominium shall continue (unless terminated by casualty loss, condemnation or eminent domain as provided in the Bylaws) until such time as the Property shall be withdrawn from the provisions of the New York Condominium Act as a result of the vote to do so of all Unit Owners. In addition, the written consent of each Mortgagee shall be required before such vote is effective. In the event of withdrawal, the Property shall be subject to an action for partition by any Unit Owner or any lienor as if owned in common, in which event the net proceeds of the sale shall be divided among all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests after first applying the share of the net proceeds of such sale otherwise payable to any Unit Owner to the payment of any liens on his Unit in the order of priority of such liens.

Procedures to Review Real Estate Tax Assessments

Unit Owners will be assessed and taxed on their Units and their share of the Common Elements, because, pursuant to Section 339-y of the Real Property Law, each Unit and its Common Interest is deemed to be a parcel for all types of assessment and taxation. Therefore, each Unit Owner will be responsible for initiating any review of his Unit's real estate tax assessment.

Partition of Common Elements

The Common Elements cannot be divided or partitioned except as provided in the Condominium Act.

Accumulation of Reserves for Capital Replacements

The Board of Managers is authorized to adopt a budget for the Unit Owners including allocating those amounts necessary to pay the cost of maintenance, management, operation, repair, and replacement of the Common Elements and those parts of the Units which the Board of Managers is obligated to maintain, repair and replace. Such budget shall include such reasonable amounts as the Board of Managers considers necessary to provide working capital, a general operating reserve, and reserves for contingencies and replacements. Any amount accumulated in excess of the amount required for actual expenses and reserves shall, if deemed advisable to the Board of Managers, be either distributed to the Unit Owners in accordance with their Common Interests or credited to the Unit Owners' next monthly installments due, until exhausted. If reserves shall be inadequate for any reason the Board of Managers may at any time levy a further assessment, as provided in Section 6 of the By-laws.

PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS AND THEIR COUNSEL ARE ADVISED TO REVIEW CAREFULLY THE COPIES OF THE DECLARATION (EXHIBIT F contained in of Part II of the Plan) AND the BY-LAWS (EXHIBIT G also contained in Part II of the Plan).

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE UNIT OWNERS

AND THE BOARD OF MANAGERS

SALE AND LEASING OF UNITS

Normally a Unit Owner may sell, lease or mortgage his Unit without restriction except as set forth in Article 8 Section 8.2 of the Bylaws contained in Part II of the Plan. It must be noted, however, that under this plan all Units will be subject to a Right of First Refusal in favor of the Board of Managers.

Such Right of First Refusal generally allows the Board of Managers the first option to purchase or lease a Unit upon the same terms and conditions as may be offered by a third party. The Right of First Refusal is set forth at length at Article 7.2 through 7.5 of the Bylaws.

Pursuant to the By Laws, the Board of Managers will notify a Unit Owner within twenty (20) business days of the date the Unit Owner gave notice to the Board of Managers must exercise its right of first refusal within said twenty (20) business days, otherwise the Unit Owner may proceed with the intended sale within 120 days of the date of either the Board's refusal or the expiration of the twenty (20) business days. Funds raised for the acquisition and maintenance of a unit by the Board of Managers will be done through obtaining a mortgage, or through investors interested in the purchase of the unit for lease or ownership. The unit will be sold in the manner set forth above and the proceeds thereof will be returned to the investors or used to pay off the mortgage on the Unit. In exercising its right the Board may not discriminate against any person on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, age, disability, marital status or any other ground prohibited by law.

Restrictions on Use of Units and Common Elements; Rules and Regulations

(a) Each Unit and the Common Elements shall be occupied and used as follows:

(1) Nothing shall be done or kept in any Unit or in the Common Elements which will increase the rate of insurance for the Property or any part thereof without the prior written consent of the Board of Managers. No Unit Owners shall permit anything to be done or kept in such Owner's Unit or in the Common Elements which will result in the cancellation of insurance on the Property or any part thereof or which would be in violation of any law, regulation or administrative ruling. No waste shall be committed in the Common Elements.

(2) No immoral, improper, offensive or unlawful use shall be made of the Property or any part thereof, and all valid laws, zoning ordinances and regulations of all governmental agencies having jurisdiction thereof shall be observed. All laws, orders, rules regulations or requirements of any governmental agency having jurisdiction thereof relating to any portion or use of the Property shall be complied with by and at the sole expense of the Unit Owner or the Board of Managers, whichever shall have the obligation to maintain or repair such portion of the Property, and, if the latter, then the cost of such compliance shall be a Common Expense.

(3) Nothing shall be altered or constructed or removed from the Common Elements by a Unit Owner (other than a Unit Owner's personal property) except upon prior written consent of the Board of Managers.

(4) The Common Elements shall be used only for the furnishing of the services and facilities for which the same are reasonably suited and which are incident to the use and occupancy of the Units.

(5) No Condominium Unit shall be rented or leased for transient or hotel purposes or in any event for any period less than six months. No portion less than 100% of a Condominium Unit shall be leased for any period. No Unit Owner shall lease a Condominium Unit other than on a standard form of lease approved by the Board of Managers and pay a $250.00 registration fee, which standard lease shall provide that any failure of the lessee to comply with the Declaration or the Bylaws shall be a default under such lease. Each Unit Owner shall, promptly following the execution of any such lease, forward a conformed copy thereof to the Board of Managers in accordance with Article 7.2 of the Bylaws. The foregoing provisions of this subparagraph shall not apply to the Sponsor or to a Mortgagee in possession as a result of a foreclosure or other judicial sale or as a result of any proceeding or transfer in lieu of foreclosure, during the period of such Mortgagee's possession.

(6) No junk or derelict vehicle or other vehicle on which current registration plates are not displayed shall be kept upon any of the Common Elements.

(7) The maintenance, keeping, boarding or raising of animals, livestock, poultry or reptiles of any kind, including small, orderly domestic pets regardless of number, shall be and is prohibited within any Unit or upon the Common Elements.

(8) Nothing shall be affixed to the exterior of any Building, including without limitation window air conditioners, window guards or security gates, television or radio antennas or other electrical apparatus, except in such manner as may be approved or prescribed in writing by the Board of Managers.

(9) No Unit Owner shall place or cause or permit to be placed on or in the public halls, stairways or other Common Elements (other than in the areas designated as storage areas) any signs, bicycles, furniture, packages or objects of any kind. The halls and stairways shall be used for no purpose other than for normal transit.

(10) No Residential Unit shall be used other than for residential purposes for which the Property was designed. No incidental business activities which cater to the public or which will materially increase the number of visitors to the Condominium, may be conducted in any Unit or in the Common Elements.

Each Unit and the Common Elements shall be occupied and used in compliance with the Rules and Regulations which may be promulgated and amended by the Board of Managers. Copies of the Rules and Regulations shall be furnished by the Board of Managers to each Unit Owner. Amendments to the Rules and Regulations shall be conspicuously posted prior to the time when the same shall become effective and copies thereof shall be furnished to each Unit Owner upon request.

Under no circumstances can below grade rooms be used as a bedroom. To do so would be in violation of the building code.

Common Charges: Determination and Assessment

Common Expenses will be determined by the Board of Managers and will be borne solely by Unit Owners in accordance with their percentage of interest in common elements. Common Expenses include, among other things, all costs and expenses in connection with the repair, maintenance, replacement, restoration and operation of, and any alteration, addition or improvement to Common Elements (excepting, however, costs and expenses in connection—with normal maintenance of the Limited Common Elements) and may include amounts for certain other items as the Board of Managers may deem proper, such as management, legal and audit fees and amounts for reserves. Common Expenses are allocated to Unit Owners in accordance with their respective Common Interests.

At least annually the Condominium Board will prepare a budget for Common Expenses and allocate, as aforesaid, and assess Common Charges to the Unit Owners to meet such expenses. The Board of Managers shall have the right to accumulate reserves for capital expenditures and include such items in the budget. The Board of Managers will furnish copies of each budget, on which common charges are based to all Unit Owners, and advise such Owners of the amount of Common Charges payable by them. Unless otherwise determined by the Board of Managers, Common Charges will be payable monthly in advance on the first day of each month. The Sponsor has established common charges as set forth in Schedule B contained in this Plan and has divided such charges according to each Unit Owner's percentage of interest in the building. Assessments to Unit Owners will also be established based on each Unit Owner's percentage of interest set forth in Schedule A.

Common Charges: Collection and Lien for Non-Payment

No Unit Owner may exempt himself from liability for Common Charges by waiving use of any of the Common Elements or by abandonment of his Unit. No Unit Owner, however, will be liable for the payment of any part of the Common Charges assessed against his Unit subsequent to a permissible sale, transfer or other conveyance of such Unit.

On a resale of a Unit the Purchaser will be liable for the payment of Common Charges, accrued and unpaid against such Unit prior to his acquisition, except that, to the extent permitted by law, the holder of a mortgage or the purchaser of a Unit at a Mortgage foreclosure sale will not be liable for, and such Unit will not be subject to, a lien for the payment of such charges accrued prior to the foreclosure sale. In the event of a foreclosure by the Board of Managers of its lien on any Unit for unpaid Common Charges, if the net proceeds of the foreclosure sale shall be insufficient for the payment of such unpaid charges or if a Unit is acquired by a mortgagee or purchaser in foreclosure, the Unit Owner will remain liable for the unpaid balance. The Board of Managers will have the right to assess such unpaid balance as a Common Charge among all Unit Owners.

Under the provisions of Sections 339-z and 339-aa of the New York Condominium Act and Article 6.4 of the By-laws, the Board of Managers on behalf of all Unit Owners will have a lien on each Unit for unpaid Common Charges, together with interest thereon, assessed against such Unit. All such liens, however, to the extent permitted by applicable law, will be subordinate to liens for real estate taxes on the Unit and any sums unpaid on Mortgages of record on such Unit. Any lien for unpaid Common Charges against a Unit will be effective from and after filing of a verified notice thereof in the Office of the City Register of New York County, New York and until all sums secured thereby with the interest accrued thereon shall have been fully paid or until six years from the date of filing (unless foreclosure of such lien is started within such six-year period), whichever shall be sooner. Such liens may be foreclosed by a suit brought in the name of the Board of Managers (acting on behalf of all Unit Owners) in like manner as the foreclosure of a mortgage on real property or and action may be brought on the Board of Managers to recover the unpaid Common Charges without foreclosing the lien. In addition the Sponsor will cause the Board of Managers to file a lien as provided for in Section 339-aa of the Real Property Law on Units in which the Sponsor is more than thirty (30) days in arrears of common charges while it is in control of the Board of Managers.

Real Property Law Section 339-kk

Under the provisions of Real Property Law Section 339-kk, if a non-occupying owner rents any dwelling unit to a rental tenant and then fails to make payments due for common charges, assessments or late fees for such unit within sixty (60) days of the expiration of any grace period after they are due, the Board of Managers shall provide a written notice to the tenant and the non-occupying owner that rental payments from the tenant be paid directly to the condominium board. Such notice shall provide that commencing immediately and until such time that all such sums are made current, all rental payments due subsequent to the issuance of such notice are to be made to the Board of Managers. When such payments from the non-occupying owner become current, written notice shall be given within three business days to the rental tenant and non-occupying owner, and thereafter, all rental payments shall again be made payable to the non-occupying owner or a designated agent. A non-occupying owner who disputes the Board's claim to rental payment pursuant to Section 339-kk shall be entitled to present facts supporting such position at the next scheduled meeting of the Board of Managers if the Board receives prior notice that such owner seeks to dispute such claim. Payment by a rental tenant to the Board of Managers made in connection with Section 339-kk shall relieve that rental tenant from the obligation to pay such rent to the non-occupying owner and shall be an absolute defense in any non-payment proceeding commenced by such non-occupying owner against such tenant for rent.

Repairs to and Maintenance of Units and Common Elements

Generally, all painting, decorating, maintenance, repairs and replacements, whether structural or non-structural, ordinary or extraordinary, (a) in or to any Unit (other than to the Common Elements included therein) and the interior side of entrance doors thereto will be made by the Owner of such Unit at such Unit Owner's sole cost and expense, and (b) in or to the Common Elements will be made by the Condominium Board of Managers and the cost and expense thereof will be charged to the Unit Owners as a Common Expense. Normal maintenance of any Limited Common Elements will, however, be the responsibility and the expense of the Unit Owner of the Unit to which the Limited Common Elements are appurtenant. Normal maintenance includes keeping the Limited Common Elements free and clear of snow, ice and any accumulation of water.

The Bylaws provide that each Unit and its Common Elements shall be kept in first class condition (and with respect to any terrace, roof or other part of the Property exposed to the elements, free of snow, ice and accumulation of water) ~~by the~~ Unit Owner or Board of Managers, whichever is responsible for the maintenance thereof. In the event that any Unit Owner fails to keep his Unit or appurtenant Limited Common Elements in such condition the Board of Managers may, at the expense of the Unit Owner, enter his Unit or such Limited Common Elements and perform such acts as are necessary to cure such default (see "Rights of Access" at Section 5.9 of the Bylaws).

In addition, such Unit Owner shall be responsible for all damage to any other Units or to the Common Elements resulting from such Owner's failure to make any required repairs, or from such Owner's negligence or abuse.

Alterations and Improvements of Units and Common Elements

No Unit Owner may make any structural alteration, addition, improvement or repair in or to his Unit without the prior written approval of the Board of Managers. This provision does not apply to the Sponsor or its designee until a deed to the Unit affected has been delivered to the Purchaser thereof.

Generally, all alterations, additions or improvements in or to any Common Element will be made by the Board of Managers and the cost and expense thereof will be charges to all Unit Owners as a Common Expense.

Insurance Coverage

Article 5.4 of the Bylaws sets forth in full details concerning Insurance. Generally, the Board of Managers shall obtain and maintain the following insurance:

(1) A policy in an amount sufficient to avoid the effects of co-insurance covering "all risk" perils, including fire insurance with extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief endorsements. Such insurance shall include all of the Units created or to be created and the floor coverings and bathroom and kitchen fixtures and appliances initially conveyed with the Units by the Sponsor, but shall not include furniture, furnishings or other personal property or improvements supplied or installed by Unit Owners. Amounts of coverage shall be determined annually by the Board of Managers with the assistance of the insurance company affording such coverage;

(2) Workmen's Compensation insurance and New York State disability benefits insurance, if and to the extent necessary to meet the requirements of law; and

(3) Such other insurance as the Board of Managers may determine or as may be requested from time to time by a majority of the Unit Owners.

The Board of Managers shall obtain and maintain, to the extent obtainable, public liability insurance for bodily injury and property damage (including, with regard to the Board of Managers and the Managing Agent, if any, libel, slander, false arrest, wrongful eviction and invasion of privacy coverage) covering the Board of Managers, the Managing Agent, if any, and each Unit Owner. All such insurance shall be carried in such limits as the Board of Managers may from time to time determine, insuring, as appropriate, each member of the Board of Managers, each officer, the Managing Agent, if any, all employees of the Condominium and each Unit Owner against any liability to the public or to the Unit Owners (and their invitees, agents, and employees) arising out of or incident to the ownership or use of the Common Elements. Such insurance shall be issued on a comprehensive liability basis and shall contain: a cross liability endorsement under which the rights of a named insured under the policy shall not be prejudiced with respect to any action against another named insured and a "severability of interest" endorsement which shall preclude the insurer from denying liability to a Unit Owner because of negligent acts of another Unit Owner. The Board of Managers shall review policies and limits once each year.

Each of the policies shall contain a New York Standard Mortgage Clause in favor of each mortgagee of a Unit which shall provide that the loss, if any, thereunder, that the insurance proceeds shall be payable to the Board of Managers to be distributed to such mortgagee as its interest may appear, subject however, to the loss payment provisions in favor of the Board of Managers in the event casualty or condemnation.

If required by any governmental or quasi-governmental agency, the Board of Managers shall obtain flood insurance in accordance with the then applicable regulations of such agency.

The cost of all insurance purchased by the Board of Managers pursuant to Section 5.4 of the Bylaws shall be a Common Expense to be payable by the Unit Owners and included in the monthly maintenance.

Neither the Board of Managers nor the Unit Owners shall be required to obtain any coverage required by the Bylaws or be liable for any loss or damage resulting from any failure to obtain such coverage if such failure is due to the unavailability of such coverage from reputable insurance companies, or if such coverage are so available only at demonstrably unreasonable cost. Insurance coverage for contents of a Unit and Directors and officers insurance are not currently offered by Sponsor, nor are automobile or excess liability coverage offered. These, however, are available, and may be purchased by the Board of Managers, or Unit Owners, as appropriate for various types of coverage.

Separate Insurance

Each Unit Owner shall have the right, at such Owner's expense, to obtain casualty and liability insurance coverage upon personal property, and for personal liability and theft; provided that no Unit Owner shall be entitled to exercise such right so as to decrease the amount which the Board of Managers, on behalf of all Unit Owners, may realize under any insurance policy on the Property or to cause any insurance coverage maintained by the Board of Managers to be brought into contribution with such additional insurance coverage obtained by a Unit Owner.

Rights of Access

As more fully set forth in Article 5.9 of the Bylaws, the Board of Managers, any Managing Agent and other persons authorized by the Board of Managers will have a right of access to any Unit for the purposes, among other things, of making inspections of, or removing, violations of governmental laws or regulations and of curing defaults by the Owner of such Unit under the Declaration, Bylaws or Rules and Regulations enacted in accordance therewith or of correcting any conditions originating in any Unit and threatening another Unit or any Common Element.

The Sponsor and its contractors, subcontractors, agents and employees will have a right of access to each Unit and to all of the Common Elements for purposes of completing construction of the Building and fulfilling the Sponsor's obligations hereunder.

Compliance with Terms of Declaration, Bylaws and Rules and Regulations Made in Accordance Therewith

Each Unit Owner must strictly comply with the provisions of the Declaration, Bylaws and the Rules and Regulations made in accordance therewith. Failure to comply is grounds for an action for damages or injunctive relief, or both. The Bylaws will be recorded with the Declaration in the Office of the City Register, New York County.

REAL ESTATE TAXES AND

TAX STATUS OF THE CONDOMINIUM

The following discussion of the income tax consequences of purchasing and owning a Unit pursuant to the Plan was prepared by the Sponsor with the advice of its counsel, S. Seth Yavne. It is intended for the general information of prospective Purchasers only. It is the opinion of counsel that, based on the information contained in the Plan and current federal, state, and local laws, the discussion below is accurate. However, prospective Purchasers should be aware that Sponsor's Counsel is acting as counsel to the Sponsor and not to the Unit Owners. Thus, prospective Purchasers may wish to consult their own tax advisers as to the matters described below.

The Sponsor has been advised by its counsel that the Condominium will be taxed on any excess of income over expenses from unrelated sources. Examples of unrelated source income include interest earned on reserve and other invested funds, income from concessions and income from dues or fees received from persons other than the Unit Owners. If the Condominium is required to pay taxes, the amount thereof will be levied as an additional common charge.

Deductibility of Real Estate Taxes and Interest.

As described in the section of the Plan entitled "Introduction", real estate taxes will be assessed separately against each Unit. A Unit Owner who itemizes deductions for federal income tax purposes will be entitled to deduct real estate taxes paid by him or her with respect to such assessment.

Furthermore, a Unit Owner who itemizes deductions for federal purposes will also be entitled to a deduction for interest paid on any indebtedness incurred to acquire his or her Unit.

A Unit Owner who is a resident of New York State and who itemizes deductions for federal income tax purposes may choose also to itemize deductions for New York State (and, if applicable, New York City) income tax purposes. In that case, the real estate taxes and interest described in the preceding paragraph will also be deductible for New York State or City income tax purposes. Under no circumstances will any Unit Owner be responsible for payment of, or be subject to, any lien arising from non-payment of taxes assessed against any other unit.

Tax Treatment of the Condominium.

The Condominium may be subject to federal income taxes, as a separate entity, on its taxable income (if any) unless it is eligible for and elects tax exempt status under Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code. Such an election would exempt the Condominium from federal income tax on certain types of income. Whether or not the Condominium will be eligible to make the election under Section 528 depends on various factors, including the purposes for which it is formed, the sources of its income and the uses to which that income is put. Based upon the information provided by Sponsor, Sponsor's counsel is of the opinion that the Condominium will so qualify as an exempt homeowner's association.

Tax Exemption and Abatement Benefits

The Sponsor has applied for tax exemption under Sections 421A of the New York State Real Property Tax Law to the City of

New York Department of Housing, Preservation and Development and has been issued a preliminary certificate of eligibility on April 8, 2008. These exemptions provide for a twenty-five year partial tax exemption program applicable to multiple dwellings constructed in New York City under certain limited conditions for developments where construction commences after July 25, 1978. If required, a final exemption will be applied for by the Sponsor at least sixty (60) days prior to initial occupancy of a Unit. The Sponsor will in any event file all necessary papers to secure final approval and Sponsor will exercise its best efforts to obtain the tax abatement benefits. The real property tax for the first year of Condominium operation assuming exemption under Section 421-a has been calculated, based upon the New York City Department of Finance's recommendation, by taking the current tax rate of 11.928% on the assessed value of the property. The estimated amount of real estate tax for the entire condominium for the 2007/2008 tax year is $424 per year. The monthly amount ($35.30) is then multiplied by each Unit's percentage of common interest in the Condominium Property, as reflected in Schedule A. If tax exemption benefits are not received, the monthly taxes assuming no abatement have been set forth in Schedule A. The actual assessed valuation will be completed using tax rates of July 2008. Prior to declaring the Plan effective, Sponsor will obtain an opinion letter from the Department of Housing, Preservation and Development ("HPD") indicating that the condominium is eligible to receive tax abatement benefits. All documents and information required by the "HPD", in connection with securing tax abatement benefits will be made available whenever requested.

HPD which administers the tax abatement benefits program, routinely conducts audits of applicants which may result in either the revocation or reduction of benefits if proper documentation is not provided. Accordingly, Sponsor will maintain all relevant records required by HPD. Upon closing, Sponsor will make all documentation available to the Condominium Board for inspection and copying for the life of the benefits and will timely comply with all procedures to properly process and maintain tax exemption benefits. In the event tax exemption benefits are terminated, the Condominium will be required to pay the full amount of real estate taxes assessed on the property.

The Sponsor anticipates, but does not guarantee, that the Condominium will be approved for partial Real Estate Tax Exemption under this program. In the event the partial exemption is not granted or is revoked, the Unit Owners will be responsible for the entire real estate taxes assessed against their respective Units and the Sponsor shall not be liable for any portion thereof, except to the extent that it is the Owner of any unsold Unit.

The tax exemption program provides that while the taxes on the property may not be less than those assessed in prior years, real estate taxes on newly constructed buildings are exempted for the first twenty-five (25) years (plus the period of construction). After the end of the twenty-five (25) year period, the Units will be subject to regular real estate taxes in accordance with the rates then in effect in the City of New York.

The estimate of real estate taxes set forth in Schedule A is based upon the yearly taxes on the entire property as divided by the percentage of common interest each Unit has in the Condominium. The estimate assumes that 100% of the value of the improvements to the Condominium will be exempt from taxation under Section 421A the Real Property Law. Accordingly, this estimated reduction of the full tax abatement has been equally apportioned to all the units in the condominium.

Although in the Sponsor's opinion this method of calculating the real estate taxes applicable to each Unit is reasonable, there can be no assurance that final exemption will be granted or that this method of calculation or real estate taxes applicable to each Unit will be the final method used by the New York City taxing authorities in establishing the real estate tax assessment for each Unit. If for any reason a different method of calculation is used or a different assessment placed upon any of the Units by such authorities, real estate taxes may increase or decrease, depending upon the final decision of such taxing authorities.

Since the New York State Condominium Act provides that real estate taxes will be separately assessed against each individual Unit Owner, the result of the tax exemption program will be to give each individual Unit Owner the full benefit of the tax exemption program. The Sponsor will obtain individual tax lots for each Residential Unit, the Commercial Unit and the Community Facility space. After the units are separately assessed, each unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes and the unit owner will not be subjected to any lien arising from non-payment of taxes on other units. If the units have not been separately assessed for real estate tax purposes prior to the closing of title to the first unit, the sponsor will prepay the tax bill to the City of New York for the entire condominium property until the end of the tax year, and collect each unit's proportionate share from the unit owner at the time of the closing. Each Unit's proportionate share will be calculated based on the percentage of common interest allocated to the Unit.

The Sponsor anticipates that the real estate tax rate will increase in future years rather than remain constant as assumed in the example set forth below based on the current abated tax amount set forth in Schedule A. In addition, prospective purchasers are advised that the City of New York has not yet actually assessed the Units in the Condominium. The estimates of projected real estate taxes in this Offering Plan have been prepared by the Sponsor and cannot be construed as an assurance of the final tax costs, but are merely estimates based upon information available to the Sponsor at this time. In no event will the Sponsor or the Sponsor's Counsel be liable if the actual taxes assessed differ from the example provided.

Example: Current annual taxes assuming abatement are estimated at $424. This will be the tax on the property for the first twenty-one (21) years of Condominium Operation. After this period the taxes will increase by twenty percent over the remaining four (4) years. Annual taxes will be as follows:

Year	Tax Amount
22nd year	$ 508.80
23rd year	$ 610.50

24th year $ 732.60

25th year $ 879.10

Currently there are no tax certiorari proceedings pending.

The By-Laws include a provision noting that the Condominium Board may act as an agent of each Unit Owner who has given his written authorization to complain or apply to the board of assessment review of the assessing agency by filing a single complaint on behalf of all such Unit Owners and to commence and prosecute a special proceeding for the review of assessments of real estate property as an aggrieved person. The Condominium Board may retain legal counsel on behalf of all Unit Owners for which it is acting as agent and may charge all such Unit Owners a pro rata share of expenses, disbursements and legal fees.

RE: ONE 1 ONE CONDOMINIUM, New York, New York

Dear Sir:

We have prepared the Offering Plan, the proposed Declaration, the By-Laws and Rules and Regulations of the Condominium. We have also reviewed all of the schedules, attachments and supporting documents attached thereto and incorporated therein.

Accordingly, you have requested our opinion, based on our preparation and review of the foregoing and assuming that the Plan becomes effective and is consummated in accordance with its terms, as to: (1) the availability of certain deductions for Federal, New York State and New York City income tax purposes to persons who purchase Residential Units for residential use ("Residential Unit Owners") under the Plan; (2) the treatment for such income tax purposes of the receipt by the Board of Managers (the "Board") of Common Charges that are paid and/or are obligations of Residential Unit Owners and (3) Eligibility for Partial Tax Abatement. Except where otherwise noted, all capitalized terms used in this opinion letter shall have the same meaning ascribed to them in the Plan.

1. Deductibility of Mortgage Interest and Real Estate Taxes

Assuming the Condominium is validly created under Article 9-B of the Real property Law of the State of New York, the Condominium will be considered a condominium for tax purposes. A condominium is defined as an interest in real property consisting of undivided interest in common in a portion of a parcel of real property together with a separate interest in space in a building located on such property.

In general, a condominium unit owner is treated, for tax purposes, in the same manner as the owner of any other real property. Therefore, each condominium unit owner will be entitled, under present law, to deduct for Federal, New York State and New York City income tax purposes, the full amount paid by him or her for real estate taxes assessed against his or her unit. In addition, he or she will be entitled to deduct the amount of interest (if any) paid on any mortgage indebtedness covering his or her unit. These deductions are only available if the unit owner chooses to otherwise itemize deductions in a given tax year, and provided further that the interest is considered QUALIFIED RESIDENCE INTEREST. Qualified Residence Interest is defined as interest paid or accrued by a qualified residence of the taxpayer. The term qualified residence means the taxpayer's principal residence plus one other residence selected by the taxpayer.

2. Common Charges

Under the terms of the Plan the Board will from time to time assess Common Charges on all unit owners in proportion to their respective percentage interests in the Common Elements.

The Common Charges will be used to pay the costs and expenses of operating, repairing and maintaining the Common Elements of the Condominium.

Under Section 528 of the Code, the Board may elect to be exempt from federal income tax on certain Common Charges collected from Unit Owners if it meets certain tests, including, but not limited to, the requirements that (i) at least 60% of its gross income must consist of exempt function income, (ii) at least 90% of its expenditures for the taxable year must be for the acquisition, construction, maintenance and care of the Condominium, (iii) no distribution of funds are made to the Home Owners other than the rebate of excess Common Charges, and (iv) substantially all of the Units must be used by individuals for residences.

It should be noted, however, that neither New York State nor the New York City has legislation comparable to Section 528 of the Code. In addition, under Section 528(d) of the Code, any income of the Board, other than the exempt Common Charges, would be taxable.

It is therefore our opinion that based on the projected schedule of income and expense for the first year of operation, the Board of Managers of the Condominium will be entitled to avail itself of the election provided under Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code, and will qualify as an exempt homeowners association.

3. Eligibility for Partial Tax Abatement

As stated in the Offering Plan, Sponsor has or will apply for benefits under Section 421(a) of the Real Property Tax Law. I have reviewed the opinion letter of Sponsor's expert, John Pappalardo, a real estate tax consulting firm that specializes in obtaining 421a Tax Abatement Benefits, and assuming all facts and representations stated therein to be accurate, it is my opinion that the Condominium should qualify for certification of eligibility for partial real property tax exemption under Section 421(a) of the Real Property Tax Law.

However, no warranties or representations are or can be made that the United States Department of Treasury, the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance or the New York City Department will allow the deductions or exemptions from tax herein referred to; or that the tax laws and regulations referred to or the current interpretation or application thereof will not change so as to disallow the deductions or exemptions in whole or in part; or with respect to the tax consequences of the Plan or the tax consequences of ownership of any units offered under the plan. The undersigned also assumes no liability and will not be liable if any of the facts represented to be true by the Sponsor and others, and upon which the undersigned has based this opinion, should prove to be false or mistaken.

In our opinion, the condominium will be eligible for tax-exempt status, if it elects such status, and unit owners will be entitled to tax deductions and real estate tax benefits described above. However, this opinion is not a guarantee; it is based on existing rules of law applied to the facts and documents referred to above. No assurances can be given that the tax laws upon which counsel based this opinion will not change. In no event will the sponsor, the sponsor's counsel, the board of managers of the condominium, the selling agent or any other person be liable if there are changes in the facts on which counsel relied in issuing this opinion or if there are changes in the applicable statutes, regulations, decisional law or Internal Revenue Service rulings on which counsel relied which caused the condominium to cease to meet the requirements of Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the New York State tax law, as amended, and cause the unit owners not to be entitled to income tax deductions, or which cause unit owners not to be or cease to be entitled to the benefits of the level or duration of benefits described above, if any.

The undersigned also assumes no liability and will not be liable if any of the facts represented to be true by the Sponsor and others, and upon which the undersigned has based this opinion, should prove to be false or mistaken.

We are aware of your intention to reproduce this opinion for inclusion in the Offering Plan, and we consent to such reproduction and inclusion.

Very truly yours,

S. Seth Yavne

RESERVE FUND

There will be no reserve fund established by the Sponsor.

WORKING CAPITAL FUND

The Sponsor, as agent of the Board of Managers, will collect from each original Purchaser at the time of closing, an initial payment equal to twice the estimated monthly Common Charges for each Unit. The Sponsor will deliver the funds so collected to the Board of Managers to provide the necessary working capital for the Condominium and such initial payment will be used as a working capital fund. Such funds may be used for certain prepaid items, organizational equipment and supply costs, and for such other purposes as the Board of Managers may determine. NO REPRESENTATION IS MADE THAT THE INITIAL CAPITAL FUND WILL BE ADEQUATE TO COVER CURRENT OR FUTURE EXPENSES, INCLUDING REPAIRS OR REPLACEMENTS OF BUILDING COMPONENTS OR SYSTEMS OR TO REMEDY MAJOR BUILDING DEFECTS. IF ADDITIONAL FUNDS ARE REQUIRED OVER AND ABOVE THE INITIAL CAPITAL FUND, IT MAY BE NECESSARY FOR THE BOARD OF MANAGERS TO INCREASE THE CHARGES PAYABLE BY UNIT OWNERS OR TO ASSESS THE UNIT OWNERS WITH A SPECIAL ASSESSMENT.

The Board of Managers shall not use these funds to reduce the cost of common charges for any Unit under the control of Sponsor. Also while Sponsor is in control of the Board of Managers the working capital fund may not be used to reduce projected common charges.

NEITHER THE ATTORNEY GENERAL NOR ANY OTHER GOVERNMENT AGENCY HAS PASSED UPON THE ADEQUACY OF THE INITIAL CAPITAL FUND.

MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT

Initially, no Management Agreement will be entered into for the condominium, as the affairs of the condominium will be handled by the Sponsor, who will act as the managing agent, at no cost to the unit owners. The duties to be performed by the managing agent include all aspects of condominium operation including the supervision of building personnel and building operations. At any time the Sponsor may engage the services of an outside firm. If engaged, costs thereof will be shared by all of the unit owners as a common expense. At the first meeting of the Condominium Unit Owners, it will be decided if Sponsor, for a fee, should continue as managing agent. If not, an agreement will then be entered into between the Condominium and a managing agent, or the unit owners may decide to manage the condominium themselves. The Board of Managers reserves the right to cancel and agreement with the Managing Agent with or without cause on at least sixty (60) days notice. The management agreement cannot be assigned by the Managing Agent.

The Sponsor will initially act as Managing Agent for the building. The Sponsor acting as Managing Agent, or a new agent employed by the Sponsor will hire and supervise all employees; arrange for the maintenance, repair and up-keep of the building; comply with all ordinances and regulations. It will negotiate all contracts for utilities, fuel, security, if any, etc.; purchase all needed supplies and equipment; recommend proper insurance coverage; check all bills and work orders; bill and collect common charges and other charges; attend to complaints; cooperate with the Board of Managers' accountant; and in general do all things necessary for the proper management of the building. The Managing Agent will also retain a certified public accountant to maintain the Condominium's books and records and to prepare annual financial reports and tax statements for the Condominium, said statements to be furnished to Unit Owners by the Board of Managers.

GENERAL

1) In order to facilitate the operation and maintenance of the Building and the sale of Units therein, each of the Units will be subject to certain easements. These easements are set forth in detail in the "Declaration of Condominium" annexed as Exhibit D-1 to Part II of the Plan. All easements are standard.

3) Under the provisions of the New York "Condominium Act", no lien of any nature may arise or be created against the Common Elements except with the unanimous consent of all Unit Owners. Liens may arise or be created against only the several Units and their respective Common Interests. Labor performed on, or materials supplied to, a Unit may not be the basis for a mechanic's lien against the Unit of a Unit Owner not expressly consenting to or requesting such work, except in the case of emergency repairs. No labor performed on, or materials furnished to, the Common Elements shall be the basis for a lien thereon but all Common Charges received by the Board of Managers shall constitute trust funds for the purpose of paying the cost of labor performed or materials furnished at the request or with the consent of the Board of Managers or the Managing Agent.

4) The Condominium shall continue (unless terminated by casualty loss, condemnation or eminent domain as provided in the Bylaws) or until such time as the Property shall be withdrawn from the provisions of the New York Condominium Act as a result of the vote to do so of at least 67% in number and in Common Interest of all Unit Owners. In addition, the written consent of each Mortgagee shall be required before such vote is effective. There are no lawsuits or other legal proceedings now pending, or any judgments outstanding, which would materially affect this offering, the Purchasers of Unit, the Property, the condominium or the operation thereof.

In accordance with the provisions of the law of the State of New York, neither the Sponsor nor any selling agent engaged by the Sponsor will discriminate against any person because of his race, creed, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, age, marital status, disability or ancestry in the sale of Units offered by the Plan or in the Leasing of any such Unit.

The Sponsor reserves the right to amend the Plan at any time (a) before the Plan is declared effective provided that, if the amendment effects any material change in the Plan and is not made solely for the purpose of declaring it effective, anyone who has theretofore executed a Purchase Agreement shall be given not less than fifteen (15) calendar days in which to elect to cancel the Purchase Agreement and to obtain a refund, in full, of the down payment made therewith, or (b) after the Plan is declared effective, subject to the rights of persons who have theretofore executed Purchase Agreements unless, at the election of the Sponsor, anyone who has theretofore executed a Purchase Agreement is given an election to cancel his Purchase Agreement and obtain a refund, all as and in the manner provided in clause (a) of this sentence.

5. Contract Subject to My Receiving Mortgage Commitment. This Purchase Agreement is conditional upon my obtaining mortgage financing in the amount set forth herein. I agree to make all necessary applications for such financing and represent that I shall furnish all information that said institution may require within ten (10) days of the signing of this Agreement. I agree that if the application is approved, I will forward within five days of receipt of a written mortgage commitment a copy of the commitment to the Sponsor, and I will execute at title closing all papers, statements or instruments, which may be necessary to consummate the mortgage loan transaction. Failure to comply shall be deemed a material breach of this Agreement. If I am unable to obtain a mortgage commitment in the amount set forth herein above within forty-five (45) days of the date of this Agreement, and I have sent you written notice, by certified mail return receipt requested, of my inability to obtain a commitment within this forty-five (45) day period then this Agreement shall be deemed canceled and we shall be released from any liability hereunder except that I shall provide you with a copy of my mortgage application and denial letter from the lending institution. Upon your review of that information, you reserve the right but not the obligation to designate another lending institution or to grant the mortgage loan yourself on the same terms and conditions. Within ten (10) days of such notice, the down payments paid herein by me shall be returned to me with interest, if any, unless you designate another lending institution as above. In the event that written notice is not received by you of my inability to obtain such financing within the said forty-five (45) day period or the Agreed upon Application Period at the then prevailing terms, this provision shall be deemed waived by me and I shall be obligated to complete this transaction whether or not I obtain financing. I agree to furnish to you at your request with a copy of my mortgage application and the name and address of the institution to which said application has been made and a copy of the commitment when received. If such other lending institution or you do not approve me within an additional thirty (30) days, then this Agreement will be deemed canceled and all monies paid by me will be refunded with interest, if any. In addition this contract may not be assigned without the prior approval of the Sponsor. In addition Sponsor reserves the right to install ~~all~~ appliances in the Unit purchased by me up to forty-eight (48) hours after closing to which I agree to provide access to the Unit.

6. Closing Expenses and Adjustment. I further agree to pay at the closing of title, the actual cost of title examination and insurance, the $750 survey charge, $1,250 for legal and filing fees in connection with securing tax abatement benefits, provided however, that you have obtained the Preliminary Certificate of Eligibility for benefits by the time of closing, Sponsor's attorney's fees in the amount of $1,500, attorneys' fees for preparation of the documents necessary for any mortgage loan, New York City and New York State Transfer Taxes, recording charges for the deed, power of attorney in favor of the Board of Managers, and any mortgage documents and mortgage recording taxes. In addition I will pay a fee of $650 for the charge in connection with the New York City water meter installation, a $1,200 fee for the formation of the condominium, and an ACRIS fee, which will be about $250. I shall adjust with you as of 11:59 P.M. on the date preceding the day of Closing of Title all real estate taxes and any common charges assessed during the month in which title closes or established as a reserve based upon the last bill received.

7. Escrow or Bonding of Down Payment. You shall hold all Down Payment monies you receive from me, directly or through your agents or employees, in a segregated special escrow account until actually employed in consummation of the transaction. At your sole discretion, however, you may secure a bond in my favor in an amount equal to the full Down Payment monies received. If you post such a bond, you will file an amendment to the Plan with the New York State Attorney General before releasing any of my Down Payment monies from such escrow account.

If no bond is posted, such Down Payment monies shall be held as trust funds pursuant to Sections 352-3(2)(b) and 352-h of the General Business Law, in a segregated special escrow account entitled the One 1 One Condominium - Special Account at North Fork Bank, the signature of S. Seth Yavne, Attorney at Law, shall be required to withdraw any of such funds other than in consummation of this transaction. Such funds shall be payable to you upon the closing of title to the Unit covered by this Purchase Agreement or upon the posting of a bond in my favor as described above. Interest, if any, earned on such funds shall be turned over or assigned to you at the closing and shall not be a credit against the Purchase Price.

In the event of my default under this Purchase Agreement, which default continues for fifteen (15) days after notice of such default from you to me, all such funds, including interest, if any, earned thereon, shall be released to you from such account as liquidated damages and thereafter neither you nor I shall have any rights or obligations against or to the other. In no event shall such liquidated damages exceed ten (10%) percent of the total Purchase Price of the Unit, plus the cost of optional extras, if any, together with interest if any, earned on such sums.

8. Your Rights If I Fail to Keep My Promises and Agreements. All sums I pay to you on account of this Agreement and the reasonable cost of the examination of title to the Unit shall constitute liens on the Unit. Such liens shall not continue, however, after default by me under this Agreement. You shall have the right to keep my Down Payment and all interest earned on it if (a) I do not pay the Total Purchase Price of my Unit when due or (b) if when you offer to deliver to me the deed to my Unit I do not then sign any of the documents referred to in the Plan which I am required to sign or (c) if I fail to keep any other promise contained in this Agreement. Your rights shall apply whether or not construction of my Unit has begun.

However, before you shall have the right to keep my Down Payment and the interest earned on it, you must first send me a written notice stating that you intend to cancel this Agreement and describing each promise which you think I did not keep under this Agreement. If I do not cause each of these promises to be kept within fifteen (15) days after your notice is sent, and time shall be of the essence as to such date, you may keep my Down Payment and all interest earned on it. After that, neither you nor I shall have any further obligations under this Agreement; this Agreement shall be considered canceled without any further action by either of us; and you shall have the right to sell my Unit to any other person.

9. Recording of Condominium Declaration. I understand that the Declaration and By-Laws establishing the Condominium shall be recorded by you in the Office of the Register of the City of New York, Queens County, prior to the Closing of Title to the first Unit as set forth in the Offering Plan. You shall file with the Declaration when it is recorded or shall amend the Declaration prior to the closing date and file at such time a verified statement of a registered architect or licensed professional engineer certifying that the plans previously filed or being filed simultaneously with such amendment fully and fairly depict the layout, location, Unit designation and approximate dimensions of my Unit as built. The Declaration and By-Laws, when recorded by you shall be substantially in the form of the Declaration and By-Laws set forth in the Offering Plan and any changes in such documents shall not have a material adverse effect upon me. You shall not record the Declaration until you have accepted purchase agreements for at least fifteen (15%) percent in number and common interest of all of the Units. If you do not record the Declaration within eighteen (18) months of the date of the Offering Plan, all monies advanced by me shall be returned promptly thereafter together with interest, if any, earned thereon.

10. Seller's Inability to Deliver Deed - Cancellation of Purchase Agreement. It is understood and agreed that in the event you are unable to deliver to me a deed to the Unit in accordance with this Agreement because of your inability to complete the construction of the Building or my Unit, or file an amendment declaring this Plan effective in accordance with the Offering Plan and any amendments to the Plan, then you shall immediately notify me in writing and this Agreement will terminate. In such case, the sole liability between us shall be the return to me of the Down Payment together with interest, if any, earned thereon.

11. Agreement Subject to Your Mortgage(s). I understand that you may borrow money to construct the Condominium and give to your lender a construction or development loan mortgage. I recognize and agree that all terms and provisions of this Purchase Agreement are and shall be subject and subordinate to the lien of any building loan mortgage on the condominium property heretofore or hereafter made and any advances already made or incurred or which may hereafter be made or incurred, pursuant to the terms thereof, to the full extent thereof without the execution of any further legal documents by me. This subordination shall apply whether such advances are voluntary or involuntary and whether made in accordance with the building loan schedule of payments or accelerated thereunder by virtue of the lender's right to make advances before they become due in accordance schedule of payments. You shall satisfy all at or prior to the closing of title.

12. Construction of Unit by Seller. You agree, at your own cost and expense to erect and complete my Unit in accordance with the requirements as to materials and workmanship of the Buildings Department and you further agree that when it is completed it shall be in substantial accordance with the plans as filed with the Buildings Department. In the event my Unit is substantially completed and provided a temporary or final Certificate of Occupancy is issued, I agree to close title to my Unit and accept a letter agreement from you in which you promise to complete all unfinished items within sixty (60) days of the closing of title, weather permitting.

If a temporary Certificate of Occupancy is obtained, you agree to perform all work necessary and obtain a final Certificate of Occupancy within two (2) years of the closing of title or prior to the expiration of the temporary Certificate of Occupancy, or any extension thereof, whichever is sooner.

Your liability pursuant to the manufacturers' warranties covering heating, appliances, electricity, plumbing and roofing are subject to the provisions of Article 36B of the General Business Law. In addition, however, you will promptly correct any defects in the construction of the condominium Unit or the building containing such Unit or in the installation or operation of any mechanical equipment therein due to materials or improper workmanship substantially at variance with the plans and specifications, as provided in said section.

Where failure to give timely notice results in further damage, such further damage will not be covered by these warranties. If a defect occurs in an item, which is covered by your warranties, you will (a) repair, or (b) replace the defective item. The choice of repair or replacement is yours.

I AM FULLY AWARE THAT:

h. These warranties are specifically in lieu of any other guarantee or warranty, express or implied including any warranty of merchantability.

The provisions of this Paragraph shall survive the delivery of the deed.

16. Lack of Labor/Materials: Seller's Right to Cancel. I understand that you may cancel this Agreement by forwarding your good check in the full amount paid by me, together with interest, if any, earned thereon and a notice in writing, addressed to me, at my address set forth at Page One of this Agreement, in the event of the occurrence of either of the following: (1) that any governmental bureau, department or subdivision impose restrictions on the manufacture, sale, distribution and/or use of materials necessary in the construction of the Condominium or any part thereof due to strikes, lockouts, war, military operations and requirements, national emergencies, or restriction or curtailment with respect to the installation of public utilities, or any other reason beyond your reasonable control.

17. Risk of Loss. The risk of loss or damage to the Unit by fire or any other cause until the delivery of the deed or until I sooner take possession of the Unit is assumed by you.

18. Existence of Liens - No Objection to Title. The existence of unpaid taxes or liens of any kind at the time of title closing shall not constitute an objection to title, provided you shall deposit a sufficient amount of money with a title company so that said company shall be willing to insure against collection of same from my property. I agree that you may pay and discharge any liens and encumbrances upon the property, not provided for in this Agreement, out of the monies to be paid by me at the time of Closing of Title.

19. Possession Prior to Closing. It is understood and agreed that I may not take possession of my Unit prior to the time of the delivery of the deed and full compliance by me with the terms of this Agreement unless you expressly authorize me to take such possession by interim Lease or other written document signed by you. I understand that if I violate this provision you shall have the right to remove me from the premises as a squatter and intruder by summary proceedings. Upon my unauthorized possession, I shall be deemed in default of this Agreement. At your option and upon such election, all monies paid by me shall belong to you as liquidated damages. It is further understood and agreed that you shall not be responsible for damage or loss to any property belonging to me whether same is delivered to the property on or after the closing of title.

You have the option not to close title to my Unit if less than eighty (80%) percent of all of the Units in number and Common Interest to be constructed as part of the Condominium are sold and so long as title to any Unit has not been conveyed and the Declaration has not been recorded at such time. If you exercise such option, you shall promptly return my Down Payment, together with interest, if any, earned thereon.

22. Options Ordered. Any extras or changes ordered by me must be signed for by me and must be paid for in full at the time of such order. If for any reason you fail to install such extras in accordance with the work order, your sole responsibility to me is to return the monies paid by me for such extras. The purpose of this final inspection is to discover any defects or flaws of a visible or obvious nature, or any unfinished work.

All defects or flaws found on final inspection of the Home will be itemized on a Final Inspection Sheet. The Final Inspection Sheet will be signed by the Purchaser and the Seller before occupancy of the Home or transfer of the deed.

When the Purchaser moves into the Home or accepts the deed, the Seller's responsibility is limited to:

- (a) completion of items shown on the Final Inspection Sheet, as provided in the Final Inspection Sheet, and

(a) Subject to the terms of the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations, the Unit Owner (including Sponsor, as long as it owns any Unit), all other permitted tenants and occupants of the Buildings, the Managing Agent (if any has been appointed), the Condominium Board and all officers, partners, employees, agents, guests, invitees and licensees of the foregoing shall have in common with all of the others, an easement for ingress and egress through, as well as for the use and enjoyment of, all of the General Common Elements, and the General Common Elements shall be subject to such easement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, no person shall use or enjoy the General Common Elements except in accordance with the reasonable purpose for which they are intended and without encroaching upon the rights of other Permitted Persons to do so.

(b) Each Unit Owner whose Unit has one or more appurtenant Limited Common Elements shall have an exclusive easement for the use thereof.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in paragraph (a) hereof, Sponsor and its successors, assignees, invitees, licensees, contractors, employees, agents and tenants shall have an easement in, over, under, through and upon the General Common Elements to use the same, without being subject to any fee or charge, for all purposes and activities in connection with the sale or renting of Unsold Units. In addition, Sponsor shall have the right, to the extent not prohibited by Law, to use one or more portions of the Common Elements, as designated by Sponsor, in its sole discretion, for sales, rental, or display purposes, which right shall include, without limitation, the right to place "for sale", "for rent" and other signs and promotional materials, of such size and content as Sponsor shall determine, in, on, about and adjacent to the Buildings (including on the exterior walls and adjacent sidewalk thereof) and the Property.

Article 10

Other Easements

(a) Subject to the terms of the By-Laws and to the Rules and Regulations, each Unit Owner shall have, in common with all other Unit Owners, an easement to use any of the Common Elements, and all pipes, wires, ducts, cables, conduits, public utility lines, and all other utility distribution systems, whether or not Common Elements, located in, over, under, through, adjacent to, or upon any other Unit or the Common Elements to the extent that such Common Elements and utility distribution system serves, or is necessary to the service of, such Unit Owners Unit and all of the Common Elements shall be subject to such easement. In addition, the Condominium Board shall have an easement and a right of access to each Unit and to the Common Elements to inspect the same, to remove violations there from and to install, operate, maintain, repair, alter, rebuild, restore and replace any of the Common Elements located in, over, under, through, adjacent to, or upon the same, and each Unit and the Common Elements shall be subject to such easement and right of access. The easements and the rights of access granted in this paragraph shall be exercised in such a manner as will not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Units for their permitted purposes. Such entry shall be permitted on not less than one days notice, except that no such notice shall be necessary in the event of repairs or replacements immediately necessary or required for the preservation or safety of the Building, for the safety of the occupants of the Building or other persons, or to avoid the suspension of any necessary service in the Building.

(b) Sponsor (for so long as it owns any Unit) reserves for itself and to the Condominium Board, on behalf of all Unit Owners, the right to grant such additional electric, gas, steam, cable television, telephone, water, storm drainage, sewer and other utility easements in, or to relocate any existing utility easements to, any portion of the Property as Sponsor or the Condominium Board, as the case may be, shall deem necessary or desirable for the proper operation and maintenance of the Building or any portion thereof or for the general health or welfare of the owners, tenants and occupants of the appropriate Units, provided, however, that the grant of such additional utility easements, or the relocation of existing utility easements, shall not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Units for their permitted purposes. Any utility company, as well as its officers, employees and agents, shall have a right of access to each Unit and to the Common Elements in furtherance of such easement. However, such right to access shall be exercised in such manner as will not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Units for their permitted purposes.

(c) Each Unit and the Common Elements shall have easements of subjacent support and necessity, and the same shall be subject to such easements in favor of all of the other Units and the Common Elements.

(d) If (i) any portion of the Common Elements now encroaches upon any Unit or upon any other portion of the Common Elements, (ii) any Unit now encroaches upon any other Unit or upon any portion of the Common Elements, or (iii) any such encroachment shall hereinafter occur as a result of (x) the settling of the Building, (y) any repair or alteration made to the Common Elements in accordance with the terms of this Declaration and the By-Laws by, or with the consent of, the Condominium Board, by Sponsor or Sponsor's designee, or (z) any repair or restoration made to the Building or any portion thereof, to any Unit, or to the Common Elements in accordance with the terms of this Declaration and the By-Laws after damage by fire or other casualty or after any taking by condemnation or eminent domain proceedings, then, in any such event, a valid easement shall exist for such encroachment and for the maintenance of the same for so long as the Building or the affected Unit or Common Elements shall stand.

(e) In addition to the specific easements set forth in this Article 10 and in Article 9 hereof, the Property and every portion thereof shall be subject to all easements and rights of access prescribed in the Condominium Act.

(b) In confirmation of the foregoing power of attorney, each Unit Owner, upon the request of either Sponsor or the Condominium Board, shall duly execute, acknowledge and deliver to the requesting party, for recording in the Registers Office, a Unit Owners Power of Attorney in the form set forth as Exhibit D to this Declaration.

Article 14

The Condominium shall continue until terminated by (i) casualty loss, condemnation, or eminent domain, as more particularly provided in the By-Laws or (ii) withdrawal of the Property from the provisions of the Condominium Act in accordance with the provisions of Section 339-t of the Condominium Act.

Article 15

Covenant of Further Assurances

(a) Any Person who is subject to the terms of this Declaration (whether such person is a Unit Owner, a lessee or a sublessee of a Unit Owner, an occupant of a Unit, a member of the Condominium Board, an officer of the Condominium, or otherwise) shall, at the expense of Sponsor, the Condominium Board, any officer of the Condominium, or the Managing Agent, as the case may be, requesting the same, execute, acknowledge and deliver to Sponsor, the Condominium Board, any officer of the Condominium, or the Managing Agent, as the case may be, such instruments, in addition to those specifically provided for herein, and take such other action, as Sponsor, the Condominium Board, any officer of the Condominium, or the Managing Agent, as the case may be, may reasonably request to effectuate the provisions of this Declaration or of any transaction contemplated herein or to confirm or perfect any right to be created or transferred hereunder or pursuant to any such transaction.

(b) Subject to paragraph (c) below, if any Unit Owner or any other Person who is subject to the terms of this Declaration fails or refuses to execute, acknowledge, or deliver any instrument, or fails or refuses, within ten days after request therefore, to take any action that such Unit Owner or Person is required to take pursuant to this Declaration, then the Condominium Board is hereby authorized as attorney-in-fact for such Unit Owner or other Person, which power shall be deemed to be coupled with an interest, to execute, acknowledge and deliver such instrument, or to take such action, in the name of such Unit Owner or other Person, and such document or action shall be binding on such Unit Owner or other Person.

(c) If any Unit Owner or the Condominium Board or any other Person who is subject to the terms of this Declaration fails or refuses to execute, acknowledge, or deliver any instrument, or fails or refuses, within 10 days after request therefore, to take any action that the Condominium Board, Unit Owner, or other Person is required to take pursuant to this Declaration at the request of Sponsor, then Sponsor is hereby with the Land and with every part thereof and interest therein under other applicable Law to the extent permitted under such applicable Law with the same force and effect as if, immediately after the recording of this Declaration and the By-Laws, all Unit Owners had signed and recorded an instrument agreeing to each such provision as a covenant running with the Land. If any provision that is necessary to cause this Declaration and the By-Laws to be sufficient to submit the Property to the provisions of the Condominium Act is missing from this Declaration or the By-Laws, then such provision shall be deemed included as a part of this Declaration or the By-Laws, as the case may be, for the purposes of submitting the Property to the provisions of the Condominium Act.

(c) Subject to the terms of paragraph (b) of this Article 16, if this Declaration and the By-Laws are insufficient to submit the Property to the provisions of the Condominium Act, the provisions of this Declaration and the By-Laws shall nevertheless be valid and binding upon, and shall inure to the benefit of, the owners of the Property and their heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns, as covenants running with the Land and with every part thereof and interest therein under other applicable Law to the extent permitted under such applicable Law with the same force and effect as if, immediately after the recording of this Declaration and the By-Laws, all Unit Owners had signed and recorded an instrument agreeing to each such provision as a covenant running with the Land.

Amendments to This Declaration

(a) Subject to the provisions contained herein or in the By-Laws with respect to amendments, modifications, additions or deletions affecting Sponsor or its designee, any provision of this Declaration may be amended, modified, added to, or deleted by the vote of all Unit Owners, both in number and in aggregate Common Interests, taken in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws. However, no amendment, modification, addition, or deletion pursuant to the preceding sentence shall be effective without the written consent of the Mortgage Representatives (if required by the terms of the applicable mortgage), if any, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. In addition, such amendment, modification, addition, or deletion: (i) shall not be effective until recorded in the Register's Office and (ii) shall be executed by the Condominium Board as attorney-in-fact for the Unit Owners, which power shall be deemed to be coupled with an interest, and the Condominium Board is hereby authorized by the Unit Owners so to act as their attorney-in-fact. No amendment may be made which will in any way effect the rights of the Sponsor unless the Sponsor shall consent to such amendment.

(b) Sponsor or its designee shall have the right, at its sole cost and expense and without the vote or consent of any other Unit Owners, the Condominium Board, or the Mortgage Representatives (if any), to execute, acknowledge and record (or, at the Sponsor's or such designee's sole option, to require the Condominium Board or any other Unit owners to execute, acknowledge and record) in the Register's Office and elsewhere, if required by Law, one or more amendments to this Declaration (including, without limitation, to Exhibit B hereto), together with such documents, plans and maps as the Sponsor or such designee deems appropriate to effectuate the same:

(i) to reflect any changes in the Unsold Units, including any reapportionment of the Common Interest resulting therefrom made by the Sponsor in accordance with the terms of Article 11 hereof; or

(ii) required by an Institutional Lender, any governmental agency having regulatory over the Condominium, or any title insurance company selected by Sponsor to insure title to any Units; provided, however, that any amendment made pursuant to the terms of subparagraph (i) or (ii) of this paragraph shall not (1) change the Common Interest of any Unit not then owned by Sponsor, (2) require a material, physical modification of any Unit not then owned by Sponsor or of the Common Elements, or (3) adversely affect the priority or validity of the lien of any mortgage held by an institutional lender unless the owner of the affected Unit (in the event described in subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph) or the holder of such mortgage (in the event described in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph) shall consent thereto by joining in the execution of such amendment.

(c) Any amendment to this Declaration may be executed; (i) if on behalf of Sponsor pursuant to the terms of paragraph (b) hereof, by any officer of Sponsor or (ii) if on behalf of the Unit Owners or by the Condominium Board, by the President or Vice President and the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary of the Condominium. If the amendment requires the approval of a specified percentage of Unit Owners pursuant to the terms of this Declaration or the By-Laws, then there shall be attached to such amendment an original executed Secretary's Certification, certifying that the requisite number and percentage of Unit Owners approved the amendment at a duly constituted meeting or (when permitted in this Declaration or the By-Laws) in writing without a meeting, in which Certification shall be described the number and percentage of Unit Owners so consenting and, if voted upon at a meeting, the date and time of the meeting.

(d) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Condominium

Documents to the contrary, but subject to any limitation imposed by the Condominium Act, no Amendment to the Condominium Documents shall be adopted which would:

(i) (A) unreasonably interfere with the sale, lease or other disposition of an Unsold Unit;

(B) abridge, modify, suspend, eliminate or otherwise affect any right, power, easement, privilege or benefit to Sponsor or its designee; or

(C) impose any discriminatory charge or fee against Sponsor or its designee, unless Sponsor or such designee shall consent thereto, by joining in the execution of such Amendment; or

(ii) change the permitted use of any Unit or such Unit's Common Interest, unless the owner of such affected Unit shall consent thereto by joining in the execution of such Amendment.

Article 18

GENERAL

Section 1.1 Purpose. The purpose of these By-Laws is to set forth the rules and procedures concerning the conduct of the affairs of the Condominium.

Section 1.2 Definitions. All capitalized terms used in these By-Laws that are not otherwise defined in any of the Articles hereof shall have the meanings set forth in Exhibit C to the Declaration, unless the context in which the same are used shall otherwise require. All capitalized terms used in these By-Laws that are defined in any of the Articles hereof shall have the meanings ascribed to them in such Articles, unless the context in which the same are used shall otherwise require. Each of the aforescribed capitalized terms shall be applicable to singular and to plural nouns, as well as to the verbs of any tense.

Section 1.3 Applicability of By-Laws. These By-Laws are applicable to the Property and to the use and occupancy thereof.

Section 1.4 Application of By-Laws. All present and future Unit Owners, mortgagees, lessees, sublessees and occupants of Units, and employees and guests of Unit Owners, as well as all other Persons who may use the Property, are and shall be subject to the Declaration, these By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations, as each of the same may be amended from time to time. The acceptance of a deed or other instrument of conveyance, or the succeeding to title to, or the execution of a lease or sublease for, or the act of occupancy of, a Unit shall constitute an agreement that the provisions of the Declaration, these By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations, as each of the same may be amended from time to time, are accepted, ratified and will be complied with.

Section 1.5 Principal Office of the Condominium. The principal office of the Condominium shall be located either at the Property or at such other place reasonably convenient thereto as may be designated from time to time by the Condominium Board.

BOARD OF MANAGERS

Section 2.1 General. The affairs of the Condominium shall be governed by the Condominium Board. The Condominium Board will be comprised of owner-occupants, members of an owner-occupant's households, or non-resident unit owners who are unrelated to the Sponsor and its principals. Owner occupants and non-resident unit owners, including Sponsor, may have inherent conflicts on how the condominium should be managed because of their different reasons for purchasing (i.e. purchase of a home as opposed to an investment).

Section 2.2 Powers and Duties of the Condominium Board.

(A) The Condominium Board shall have all the powers and duties necessary for, or incidental to, the administration of the affairs of the Condominium, provided, however, that the Condominium Board shall not have such powers and duties that by Law, or pursuant to the terms of the Declaration and these By-Laws, may not be delegated to the Condominium Board by the Unit Owners. Without intention to limit the generality of the foregoing in any respect, the Condominium Board shall have the following specific powers and duties:

(i) to operate, maintain, repair, restore, add to, improve, alter and replace the Common Elements and/or any other portions of the Property for which the Condominium Board is responsible pursuant to the Declaration and the By-Laws, including, without limitation, as the Condominium Board shall deem necessary or proper in connection therewith: (a) the purchase and leasing of supplies, equipment and material, and (b) the employment, compensation and dismissal of personnel;

(ii) to acquire, in the name of the Condominium Board or its designee, corporate or otherwise, and on behalf of the Unit Owners, all rights, titles and interests in real and personal property deemed necessary or proper by the Condominium Board for use in connection with the ownership and operation of the Property as a residential condominium;

(iii) to maintain complete and accurate books and records with respect to the finances and the operation of the Condominium;

(iv) to prepare and adopt a budget for the Condominium for each fiscal year thereof;

(v) to determine the amount and establish the means and methods of payment of, and to collect, the Common Charges and Special Assessments from the Unit Owners;

(vi) to borrow money on behalf of the Condominium

when required in connection with the operation, maintenance, repair, restoration, improvement, alteration and replacement of the Common Elements;

(vii) to open and maintain bank accounts on behalf of the Condominium and to designate the signatories required therefore;

(viii) to use the Common Charges and Special Assessments collected from Unit owners, as well as all other funds held by the Condominium Board or received in connection with the operation of the Property, for the Administration of the Condominium, including, without limitation: (a) the payment of Common Expenses and (b) the making of restorations, additions, alterations and improvements to the Common Elements;

(ix) to obtain insurance for the Property, including the Units, pursuant to the terms of Section 5.4 hereof;

(x) to adjust and settle claims under insurance policies obtained pursuant to the terms of Section 5.4 hereof, and to execute and deliver releases upon such adjustment and settlement on behalf of: (a) all Unit owners; (b) all holders of mortgages and other liens on Units; and (c) all holders of any other interest in the Property;

(xi) to make, or to contract with others for the making of repairs, maintenance, additions and improvements to, and alterations, restorations and replacements of, the Property (whether after damage or destruction by fire or other casualty, or as a result of destruction by fire or other casualty, or as a result of eminent domain proceedings or otherwise), all in accordance with the terms of these By-Laws;

(xii) to accept the surrender of any Unit pursuant to the terms of paragraph (C) of Section 6.2 hereof, in the name of the Condominium Board or its designee, corporate or otherwise, and on behalf of all Unit Owners;

(xiii) to purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire Units offered for sale or lease by their owners, in the name of the Condominium Board or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Unit Owners;

(xiv) to purchase Units at foreclosure or other judicial sales, in the name of the Condominium Board or its designee, corporate or otherwise, and on behalf of all Unit Owners;

(xv) to sell, lease, mortgage and otherwise deal with Units acquired by, and to sublease Units leased by, the Condominium Board or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Unit Owners, provided, however, that the Condominium Board or its designees shall in no event be entitled to vote the votes appurtenant to any such Unit;

(xvi) to adopt and amend the Rules and Regulations and to levy and collect fines against Unit owners for Violations of the same;

(xvii) to enforce by legal means the terms, covenants and conditions contained in the Condominium Documents and to bring or defend against any proceedings that may be instituted on behalf of, or against, the Unit Owners;

(xviii) to incorporate, to the extent and in the manner provided in the Condominium Act;

(xix) to carry out any other duties imposed upon the Condominium Board pursuant to the Declaration and these By-Laws.

(B) The Condominium Board shall be responsible for carrying out the duties imposed upon it under the Condominium Documents regardless of whether a Unit is vacant or occupied by the owner thereof or by a Permitted Lessee or other permitted occupant.

Section 2.3 Certain Limitations on the Powers of the Condominium Board. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these By-Laws, the Condominium Board shall not take any of the following actions unless a certain percentage of all members thereof shall approve the same in writing or by vote at a duly constituted meeting called for such purpose:

(i) increase the number, or change the type, of employees from those hired at the time of recording the Declaration;

(ii) provide for new or additional services from those being provided at the time of recording the Declaration;

(iii) impose any Common Charge or Special Assessment for the purpose of making any capital or major improvement, alteration, or addition to the Common Elements or to any Unit, unless required by Law;

(iv) establish any reserves, including, without limitation, a reserve for contingencies, repairs, improvements, or replacements, other than a twelve-month reserve for contingencies not exceeding five percent of the budgeted operating expenses for the ensuing 12 months of operation; or

(v) allow for the approval of any expense of $5,000 or more. Approval must be by vote of at least 51% or more of the unit owners.

Section 2.4 Exercise and Delegation of Powers and Duties. (A) Any act within the power of the Condominium Board to perform, and deemed necessary or desirable to be performed by the Condominium Board, shall be performed by the Condominium Board or shall be performed on its behalf and at its direction by the agents, employees, or designees of the Condominium Board.

(B) The Condominium Board may, by 80% vote of the Unit Owners, employ a Managing Agent to serve at a compensation to be established by the Condominium Board and to perform such duties and services as the Condominium Board shall direct. The Condominium Board may delegate to the Managing Agent any of the powers granted to the Condominium Board in these By-Laws.

Section 2.5 Number, Election and Qualification of Members. Until the first annual meeting of the Unit Owners held pursuant to the terms of Section 4.1 hereof, the Condominium Board shall consist of three individuals to be designated from time to time by Sponsor. From and after the first annual meeting of the Unit Owners, the Condominium Board shall consist of three individuals to be elected by the Unit Owners or designated by Sponsor or its designee pursuant to the terms of Section 4.8 hereof. Except for members designated by Sponsor or its designee pursuant to the terms of this Section 2.5 or of Section 2.8 or 4.8 hereof, all members of the Condominium Board shall be either: (i) individual Unit Owners; (ii) individual Permitted Mortgagees; (iii) officers, directors, shareholders, partners, principals, employees, or beneficiaries of corporations, partnerships, fiduciaries, or any other entities that are Unit Owners or Permitted Mortgagees; or (iv) adult Family Members of any of the foregoing.

Section 2.6 Term of Office Members. The term of office of the three members of the Condominium Board designated by Sponsor prior to the first annual meeting of the Unit Owners shall expire when the three individuals to be elected or designated at such meeting are so elected or designated and qualified. The term of office of each of the three individuals elected or designated and qualified at the first annual meeting of the Unit Owners and at all subsequent annual meetings shall be one year. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 2.6, however, each member of the Condominium Board shall serve until his successor shall be elected or designated and qualified. There shall be no limit on the number of terms of office, successive or otherwise, that a member of the Condominium Board may serve.

Section 2.7 Removal and Resignation of Members. (A) Any member of the Condominium Board who was elected thereto by the Unit owners may be removed from office by a 80% vote of Unit Owners. Any member of the Condominium Board who was designated as such by Sponsor or its designee, pursuant to the terms of Section 2.5, 2.8, or 4.8 hereof, may be removed, with or without cause, only by Sponsor or said designee, by giving written notice thereof to the Condominium Board. Any member of the Condominium Board whose proposed removal is to be acted upon at a meeting of the Unit Owners shall be given prior written notice thereof and an opportunity to be present and heard thereat.

(B) Any member of the Condominium Board may resign his membership at any time by giving written notice thereof to the Condominium Board and, with respect to members of the Condominium Board designated as such by Sponsor or its designee, to Sponsor or such designee. In addition, any member of the Condominium Board who shall cease to be qualified for membership pursuant to the terms of Section 2.5 hereof shall be deemed to have resigned his membership effective as of the date upon which such qualifications shall cease.

Section 2.8 Vacancies. (A) Upon the occurrence of a vacancy on the Condominium Board that is caused by the removal, resignation, or death of a member who was elected thereto by the Unit owners, the terms of all other members of the Condominium Board elected by the Unit Owners shall promptly be held for the purpose of electing a new Condominium Board.

(B) Any vacancy on the Condominium Board that is caused by the removal, resignation, or death of a member who was designated as such by Sponsor or its designee shall be filled by an individual designated by Sponsor or such designee.

Section 2.9 Regular Meetings of the Condominium Board. Regular meetings of the Condominium Board may be held at such time and place in Borough of Manhattan as shall be determined from time to time by a majority of the members thereof, provided that at least four such meetings shall be held during each fiscal year. Written notice of all regular meetings of the Condominium Board shall be given to each member thereof by personal delivery, mail, or telegram at least five business days prior to the day named for such meeting.

Section 2.10 Special Meetings of the Condominium Board. Any member may call a special meeting of the Condominium Board whenever he deems the same to be necessary or desirable. Written notice of all special meetings shall be given to each member thereof by personal delivery, mail or telegram at least five business days prior to the day named for such meeting, which notice shall state the time, place (in the Borough of Manhattan) and purpose of the meeting.

Section 2.11 Waiver of Notices of Meeting. Any member of the Condominium Board may, at any time, waive notice of any meeting thereof in writing, and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of notice. Attendance by a member of the Condominium Board at any meeting shall constitute a waiver by him of notice of the time and place thereof. If all of the members of the Condominium Board are present at any meeting thereof, no notice of such meeting shall be required and any business may be transacted at such meeting.

Section 2.12 Quorum of the Condominium Board. For purposes of all meetings of the Condominium Board, a majority of the members thereof shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In connection therewith, one or more members of the Condominium Board may participate in any meeting thereof by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment permitting all individuals participating in the meeting to hear each other at the same time, and such participation shall constitute presence at such a meeting for all purposes. If, at any meeting of the Condominium Board, there shall be less than a quorum present, a majority of the members of the Condominium Board in attendance may adjourn the meeting from time to time. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business that might have been transacted at the meeting originally called but for lack of a quorum may be transacted without further notice.

Section 2.13 Conduct of Meetings. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Condominium Board, and the Secretary shall faithfully record the minutes thereof, which minutes shall include the full text of all resolutions duly adopted by the Condominium Board and a record of all transactions and proceedings occurring thereat. The then current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, or any other rules of procedure from time to time acceptable to a majority of the Condominium Board, shall govern the conduct of the meetings of the Condominium Board unless the same is in conflict with the terms of the Declaration, these By-Laws or the Condominium Act.

Section 2.14 Decisions of the Condominium Board. Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Declaration or these By-Laws, the vote of a majority of the members of the Condominium Board present at a meeting thereof at which a quorum is present shall constitute the decision of the Condominium Board. Alternatively, any decision that is required or permitted to be made by the Condominium Board may be made without a meeting thereof if all of the members of the Condominium Board shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such decision, and all such written consents shall be duly filed by the Secretary of the Condominium in the minutes of the Condominium Board.

Section 2.15 Compensation of Members. No member of the Condominium Board shall receive any compensation from the Condominium for acting as such.

Section 2.16 Liability of the Condominium Board. (A) All members of the Condominium Board shall have no liability to the Unit Owners for errors of judgment, negligence, or otherwise, except that each member of the Condominium Board shall be liable thereto for his own bad faith or willful misconduct.

(B) Every contract made, and other document executed, by or on behalf of the Condominium Board, any committee thereof, or the Managing Agent shall expressly provide (if such provision is reasonably obtainable and in addition to the limitation of liability of the officers of the Condominium and the Unit Owners pursuant to the terms of Section 3.9 and 4.11 hereof, respectively) that the same is made or executed by or on behalf of the Condominium Board, such committee, or the Managing Agent solely as agent for the Unit Owners and that the members of the Condominium Board or such committee or the Managing Agent shall have no liability thereon, except to the extent of their liability, if any, as Unit Owners pursuant to the terms of Section 4.11 hereof.

(C) The Unit Owners shall jointly and severally indemnify and hold each member of the Condominium Board harmless from and against any claim or liability to others arising from such member's acts or omissions as, or by reason of the fact that such individual is or was, a member of the Condominium Board, except, however, to the extent that such claim or liability shall be due to, or shall arise out of, the bad faith or willful misconduct of such member.

ARTICLE 3

All agreements, contracts, deeds, leases, checks and other instruments of the Condominium shall be executed, upon the direction of the Condominium Board, by any two officers of the Condominium or by such lesser number of officers or by such other Person or Persons as may be designated from time to time by the Condominium Board.

Section 3.2 President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Condominium and shall preside at all meetings of the Unit Owners and of the Condominium Board.

Section 3.6 Removal and Resignation of Officers. Any officer of the Condominium may be removed from office, with or without cause, by an affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Condominium Board. In addition, any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the President of the Condominium Board. Finally, if the President, Secretary, or Treasurer shall cease to be a member of the Condominium Board during his term of office, such officer shall be deemed to have resigned his office effective upon the date which his membership shall cease.

Section 3.7 Vacancies. Any vacancy in an office shall be filled by a majority vote of the Condominium Board at any regular meeting of the Condominium Board or at a special meeting thereof called for such purpose.

Section 3.8 Compensation of Officers. No officer of the Condominium shall receive any compensation from the Condominium for acting as such.

Section 3.9 Liability of the Officers of the Condominium. (A) The officers of the Condominium shall have no liability to the Unit Owners for errors of judgment, negligence, or otherwise, except that each officer of the Condominium shall be liable to Unit Owners for his or her own bad faith or willful misconduct.

(B) The Unit Owners shall jointly and severally indemnify and hold each officer of the Condominium harmless from and against any claim or liability to others arising from his acts or omissions as, or by reason of the fact that such individual is or was, an officer of the Condominium except, however, to the extent that such claim or liability shall be due to, or shall arise out of, the bad faith or willful misconduct of such officer.

Section 4.3 Place of Meetings. Meetings of the Unit Owners shall be held at the Condominium or at such other location within the Borough of Manhattan as may be designated by the Condominium Board.

Section 4.4 Notice of Meetings. (A) The Secretary or person calling the meeting shall give notice of each annual or special meeting of the Unit Owners to all Unit Owners then of record entitled to vote or designate members of the Condominium Board at such meeting, which notice shall set forth the purpose, time and place of such meeting. Such notice may be given to any Unit Owner by personal delivery, mail or telegram not later than 10 business days prior to the day fixed for the meeting; however, the mailing for such notice to any Unit Owner, addressed to his or her address at the Property, at least 15 days prior to the day fixed for the meeting shall be conclusively deemed the giving of notice to such Unit Owner of such meeting. Any Unit Owner may designate an address for the giving of notice other than such Unit Owner's address at the Property by giving written notice thereof to the Secretary of the Condominium not less than 15 days prior to the giving of notice of the applicable meeting.

(B) If the business to be conducted at any meeting of the Unit Owners shall include the consideration of a proposed amendment to the Declaration or to these By-Laws, the notice of such meeting shall be mailed to all Unit Owners at least 30 days prior to the day fixed for such meeting and shall be accompanied by a copy of the text of such proposed amendment.

Section 4.5 Quorum of the Unit Owners. Except as otherwise provided in these By-Laws, the presence, in person or by proxy, of Unit Owners owning Units to which 50% or more of the aggregate Common Interests appertain shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the Unit Owners. If, at any meeting of the Unit Owners, there shall be less than a quorum present, a majority of the Unit Owners present at such meeting, either in person or by proxy, may adjourn the meeting to a time not less than 48 hours from the time fixed for the original meeting.

Section 4.6 Conduct of Meetings. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Unit Owners, and the Secretary shall faithfully record the minutes thereof, which minutes shall include the full text of all resolutions duly adopted by the Unit Owners and a record of all transactions and proceedings occurring thereat. The then current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, or any other rules of procedure acceptable to a majority of the Unit Owners present at any meeting, in person or by proxy, shall govern the conduct of the meetings of the Unit Owners, unless the same shall be in conflict with the terms of the Declaration, these By-Laws, or the Condominium Act. All votes of the Unit Owners shall be tallied by the persons appointed by the presiding officer of the meeting.

Section 4.7 (A) Voting. Subject to the terms of Section 4.8 hereof, each Unit Owner (including Sponsor or its designee, for so long as Sponsor or such designee shall own one or more Unsold Units) shall be entitled to cast one vote at all meetings of the Unit Owners for each Unit owned.

(B) A fiduciary shall be the voting member with respect to a Unit owned in a fiduciary capacity. In addition, if two or more Persons own a Unit, they shall designate one Person amongst them to vote the Common Interest appurtenant to their Unit in a writing given to the Secretary of the Condominium, and the vote of such designee shall be binding upon all of such Persons. Failing such a designation, all of such Persons shall mutually vote such Common Interest under one ballot without division, and the concurrence of all such Persons shall be conclusively presumed if any one of them purports to vote such Common Interest without protest being contemporaneously made to the individual presiding over the meeting at which such vote is taken. If protest is made, the Common Interest appurtenant to such Unit shall be counted solely for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present for such voting.

(C) The owner(s) of any Unit may designate any Person to act as a proxy on his or her behalf. The designation of any such proxy shall be made in a writing both signed and dated by the designor and delivered to the Secretary of the Condominium at or before the appointed time for the meeting(s) during which the same is to be effective. Any such designation shall be revocable at any time upon written notice given to the Secretary of the Condominium; however, no revocation of such a designation shall be effective with respect to any votes cast by such proxy prior to the receipt of such revocation notice by the Secretary of the Condominium or, if such revocation is made at a meeting of the Unit Owners during which the Secretary of the Condominium is not in attendance, by the individual acting as the Secretary of such meeting. Except with respect to the designation of a Permitted Mortgagee to act as the proxy of its mortgagor(s), no designation to act as a proxy shall be effective for a period in excess of six months after the date thereof.

(D) Except when otherwise required by law or otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws, the affirmative vote of a Majority of Unit Owners shall be binding upon all Unit Owners for all purposes.

Section 4.8 Election of Members of Condominium Board.

(A) During the Initial Control Period, Sponsor or its designee shall have the right to designate the following number of members of the Condominium Board: (a) three members, for so long as the Common Interests attributable to any Units owned by Sponsor or its designee equals, in the aggregate, 50% or more of the Common Interests of all Units, and (b) two members, for so long as the Common Interests attributable to any Units owned by Sponsor or its designee equals, in the aggregate, less than 50% but 30% or more of the Common Interests of all Units.

(B) After the Initial Control Period, Sponsor or its designee shall not have voting control over the Condominium Board or veto power over expenditures and shall have the right to designate one member on the Condominium Board for so long as Sponsor or its designee owns at least four Unsold Units.

(C) Sponsor shall have the right to vote the Common Interests attributable to Units owned by Sponsor for members of the Condominium Board so long as Sponsor or its designee designates one or more members of the Board. From and after the time when Sponsor or its designee does not designate at least one member of the Board, Sponsor or its designee shall have the right to vote the Common Interests attributable to Units owned by Sponsor for members of the Board.

(D) Each Unit Owner entitled to vote for members of the Condominium Board pursuant to this Section 4.8 shall be entitled to cast 1 vote for each Unit owned. A Unit owner who is entitled to more than one vote may divide his votes among different candidates, or vote them all for one candidate on a cumulative basis.

(E) The three persons receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected to the Condominium Board.

Section 4.9 Action Without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Unit Owners at a duly constituted meeting may be taken without such a meeting if Unit Owners, sufficient in number (both in absolute number and in Aggregate Common Interests) to approve such an action at a duly constituted meeting of the Unit Owners pursuant to the Declaration or to these By-Laws consent in writing to the adoption of a resolution approving such action. All written consents given by Unit owners pursuant to this Section 4.9 shall be retained in the records of the Condominium together with a true copy of the resolutions to which they relate.

Section 4.10 Title to Units. Title to any Unit may be taken by any Person or by any two or more Persons as joint tenants, tenants in common, or tenants by the entirety, as may be appropriate, but not as owners in severalty.

Section 4.11 Contractual Liability of Unit Owners. Every contract made by the Condominium Board, by any officer of the Condominium, or by any Managing Agent shall provide (if such provision is reasonably obtainable and in addition to the limitation of liability of the members of the Condominium Board and the officer of the Condominium pursuant to the terms of Section 2.16 and 3.9 hereof, respectively) that the liability of any Unit Owner with respect thereof shall be limited to: (i) such proportionate shares of the total liability thereunder as the Common Interest of such Unit Owner bears to the aggregate Common Interests of all Unit Owners and (ii) such Unit Owner's Interest in his Unit and its Appurtenant Interests, unless otherwise provided by Law.

OPERATION OF THE PROPERTY

Section 5.1 Maintenance and Repairs. (A) Except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws, all painting, decorating, maintenance, repairs and replacements, whether structural or non-structural, ordinary or extraordinary:

(i) in or to any Unit and all portions thereof (including, but not limited to, kitchen, bathroom fixtures and appliances, windows and their frames, sills and sashes, all doors (entrance and balcony, if any) and their frames and saddles, exposed plumbing, gas and heating, fixtures and equipment, air conditioning units, lighting and electrical fixtures and any General Common Elements incorporated therein shall be performed by the owner of such Unit at such Unit Owner's cost and expense; and

(ii) in or to the General Common Elements shall be performed by the Condominium Board as a Common Expense; and

(iii) in or to the Limited Common Elements shall be performed (a) by the Condominium Board as a Common Expense, if involving structural or extraordinary maintenance, repairs, or replacements (including, but not limited to, the repair of any leaks that are not caused by the acts or omissions of the Unit Owner having direct and exclusive access thereto) or (b) by the Unit Owner having direct and exclusive access thereto at his sole cost and expense, if involving non-structural ordinary maintenance, repairs, or replacements (including, without limitation, individual heating and hot water equipment).

Promptly upon obtaining knowledge thereof, each Unit Owner shall report to the Condominium Board or to the Managing Agent any defect or need for repairs for which the Condominium Board is responsible pursuant to the terms hereof. All painting, decorating, maintenance, repairs and replacements performed hereunder or otherwise, whether by or at the behest of the Unit Owner of the Condominium Board, shall be performed in such a manner as shall not unreasonably disturb or interfere with any Unit Owners or the tenants and occupants of any Units.

(B) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary provided in paragraph (A) of this Section 5.1, however, the exterior glass surfaces of all windows of each Unit are to be washed and cleaned by the Owner of such Unit at such Unit Owner's sole cost and expense. In addition, if any painting, decorating, maintenance, repairs or replacements of the Property or any part thereof, whether structural or non-structural, ordinary or extraordinary, is necessitated by the negligence, misuse or abuse of (i) any Unit Owner, the entire cost and expense thereof shall be borne by such Unit Owner, or (ii) the Condominium Board, the entire cost and expense thereof shall be borne by the Condominium Board as a Common Expense, except, in all events, to the extent that such cost and expense is covered by the proceeds of any insurance maintained pursuant to the terms of these By-Laws. Similarly, each Unit Owner shall be responsible for any and all damage to any Unit or to the Common Elements resulting from such Unit Owner's failure to maintain, repair, or replace his or her Unit or any portion thereof as required herein.

(C) Each Unit and all portions of the Common Elements shall be kept in first-class condition, order and repair (and free of snow, ice and accumulation of water with respect to any balcony, roof, or other part of the Property exposed to the elements) by the Unit Owner or the Condominium Board, whichever is responsible for the maintenance thereof as set forth herein, and such Unit Owner or the Condominium Board, as the case may be, shall promptly make or perform, or cause to be made or performed, all maintenance work (including, without limitation, painting, repairs and replacements) that is necessary in connection therewith. In addition, the public areas of the Building and the Land and those areas exposed to public view shall be kept in good appearance, in conformity with the dignity and character of the Building, by (i) the Condominium Board, with respect to such parts of the Building required to be maintained by it, and (ii) each Unit Owner, with respect to the interior and exterior surfaces of balconies, windows and shades, venetian or other blinds, drapes, curtains or other window decorations in or appurtenant to his or her Unit.

Section 5.2 Alterations, Additions, or Improvements to the General Common Elements. Except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws, all necessary or desirable alterations, additions or improvements in or to any of the Common Elements shall be made by the Condominium Board, and the cost and expense thereof shall constitute a Common Expense except that any improvements or additions shall only be made after unanimous consent of the board is obtained.

Section 5.3 Alterations, Additions, Improvements, or Repairs in or to the Units and Limited Common Elements. (A) Subject to the terms of paragraph (B) of this Section 5.3 no Unit Owner shall make any structural alteration, addition, improvement, or repair in or to his Unit or its appurtenant Limited Common Elements without the prior written approval of the Condominium Board. This includes the installation of any security gates on doors and/or windows. The Condominium Board shall grant its approval provided that prior to, and as a condition of, the granting of any such approval, the Unit Owner procures and agrees to maintain during the course of such work such insurance as the Condominium Board may reasonably prescribe and executes an agreement, in form and substance satisfactory to the Condominium Board, setting forth the terms and conditions under which such alteration, addition, improvement, or repair may be made, including, without limitation, the indemnity referred to in paragraph (D) hereof and the days and hours during which any such work may be done, and further provided that the alteration does not impair the structural integrity of the building or any Unit or otherwise interfere with the use of any other Units.

(B) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in paragraph (A) of this Section 5.3 however, Sponsor or its designee shall have the right pursuant to the terms of Article 11 of the Declaration, without the approval of the Condominium Board to (i) make any alterations, additions, improvements, or repairs in or to any Unsold Units whether structural or non-structural, interior or exterior, ordinary or extraordinary, and (ii) subdivide, combine and change the boundary walls of Unsold Units.

(C) All alterations, additions, improvements and repairs by Unit Owners shall be made in compliance with Law. In connection therewith, the Condominium Board shall execute applications to any departments of the City of New York, or to any other governmental agencies having jurisdiction thereof, for any and all permits required in connection with the making of alterations, additions, improvements, or repairs in or to a Unit or its appurtenant Limited Common Elements, provided that, with respect to all such work of a structural nature (but other than that of the nature described in paragraph (B) hereof), the same was approved by the Condominium Board pursuant to the terms of paragraph (A) hereof.

(D) Neither the Condominium Board nor any Unit Owner (other than the Unit Owner(s) making any alterations, improvements, additions, or repairs, or causing any of the same to be made, in or to his, her or their Unit(s) and appurtenant Limited Common Elements) shall incur any liability, cost, or expense either (i) in connection with the preparation, execution, or submission of the applications referred to in paragraph (C) hereof; (ii) to any contractor, subcontractor, materialman, architect, or engineer on account of any alterations, improvements, additions, or repairs made or caused to be made by any Unit Owner; or (ii) to any Person asserting any claim for personal injury or property damage, arising therefrom. Any Unit Owner(s) making alterations, improvements, additions, or repairs, or causing any of the same to be made, in or to his, her or their Unit(s) and appurtenant Limited Common Elements shall agree (in a writing executed and delivered to the Condominium Board, if the Condominium Board shall request), and shall be deemed to agree (in the absence of such writing), to indemnify and hold the Condominium Board, the members of the Condominium Board, the officers of the Condominium, the Managing Agent and all other Unit Owners harmless from and against any such liability, cost and expense.

Section 5.4 Insurance. (A) If the same shall be obtainable, the Condominium Board shall obtain, and shall maintain in full force and effect, fire insurance policies with all risk extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief endorsements, insuring the Building (including all Units and the bathroom and kitchen fixtures installed therein on the date of recording the Declaration and all service machinery contained therein, but not including appliances or any furniture, furnishings, decorations, belongings, or other personal property supplied or installed by Unit Owners or the tenants of Unit Owners) and covering the interests of the Condominium, the Condominium Board, all of the Unit Owners and all Permitted Mortgagees, as their interests may appear. Each of the said policies shall contain:

(i) waivers of (a) subrogation, (b) any defense based upon co-insurance, or other insurance, (c) invalidity arising out of any acts of the insured and (d) pro-rata reduction of liability;

(ii) a provision that any adjustment of loss will be made by the Condominium Board and that all proceeds thereof shall be paid to the Condominium Board, as provided in Section 5.5 hereof;

(iii) a New York standard mortgage clause in favor of each Mortgagee, which shall provide that the proceeds thereof shall be paid to such Permitted Mortgagee as its interests may appear, subject, however, to the loss payment provisions in favor of the Condominium Board;

(iv) a provision that such policy may not be either canceled or substantially modified except upon at least 30 days prior written notice to all of the insured, including all Permitted Mortgagees.

Duplicate originals or certificates of all such policies and of all renewals thereof, together with proof of payment of premiums, shall be sent to all Unit Owners and Permitted Mortgagees at least 30 days prior to the expiration of the then current policies.

(B) The Condominium Board shall also obtain and maintain, to the extent practicable:

(i) comprehensive general liability insurance, covering all claims for personal injury or property damage arising out of any occurrence on the Property and listing as co-insured (a) the Condominium Board and each member thereof, (b) the Managing Agent if any, (c) each officer of the Condominium and (d) each Unit Owner (except, however, that such insurance shall not cover any liability of a Unit Owner arising from occurrences within his own

Unit or its balcony);

(ii) water damage legal liability insurance; and

(iii) such other insurance as the Condominium Board shall from time to time determine. Each of the aforementioned policies of insurance shall also cover cross-liability claims of one insured against another.

(C) All policies of insurance to be maintained by the Condominium Board shall contain such limits as the Condominium Board shall from time to time determine, provided, however, that:

(i) with respect to insurance policies maintained by the Condominium Board pursuant to paragraph (A) hereof, the coverage shall be in an amount sufficient to avoid the effects of co-insurance (and, until the first regular meeting of the first three-member Condominium Board elected by the Unit Owners, such coverage shall be at least in the amount of $350,000.00); and

(ii) with respect to insurance policies maintained by the Condominium Board pursuant to subparagraph (i) of paragraph (B) hereof, such policies shall contain single limits of not less than $300,000 in the aggregate until the first regular meeting of the first three-member Condominium Board elected by the Unit Owners.

Any insurance policies maintained by the Condominium Board may also provide for such deductible amounts as the Condominium Board shall determine. The Condominium Board shall review the limits of each insurance policy, as well as the amount of any deductible sum thereunder, at least once a year.

(D) The cost of all insurance maintained by the Condominium Board pursuant to this Section 5.4 shall be borne by the Condominium Board as a Common Expense.

(E) Unit Owners shall not be prohibited from carrying other insurance for their own benefit, provided that all such policies shall contain waivers of subrogation and further provided that the liability of the carriers issuing the insurance maintained by the Condominium Board shall not be affected or diminished by reason of any such additional insurance carried by any Unit Owner.

Section 5.5 Casualty or Condemnation. (A) In the event that either (i) the Building or any part thereof is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty (hereinafter referred to as a "Casualty Loss") or (ii) the General Common Elements or any part thereof is taken in condemnation or by eminent domain (hereinafter referred to as a "Taking"), the net insurance proceeds payable under the insurance policies maintained by the Condominium Board pursuant to the terms of Section 5.4 hereof by reason of such Casualty Loss or the net condemnation awards receivable by reason of such Taking, as the case may be, shall be payable to the Condominium Board. All such monies actually received (hereinafter referred to as the "Trust Funds") shall be held in trust for the benefit of all Unit Owners and their Permitted Mortgagees and shall be disbursed pursuant to the terms of this Section 5.5. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained either in this paragraph (A) or elsewhere in this Section 5.5, however, no Unit Owner whose Unit, its appurtenant Limited Common Elements, or any portion thereof are taken in condemnation or by eminent domain (whether or not all or a part of the Common Elements other than balconies are contemporaneously taken) shall be deemed to have waived whatever rights that he or she may have to pursue a separate claim against the condemning authority by reason thereof.

(B) Subject to the terms of paragraph (D) hereof, the Condominium Board shall arrange for the prompt repair or restoration (hereinafter referred to as the "Work") of the damage covered by the insurance.

(C) If either 75% or more of the Building is destroyed or substantially damaged by fire or other casualty or 75% or more of the General Common Elements are taken in a Taking, the Work shall not be performed unless 75% or more of all Unit Owners (including Sponsor or its designee, if Sponsor or such designee shall then own any Units), both in number and in aggregate Common Interests, shall promptly resolve to proceed with the same. In the event that a sufficient number of Unit Owners shall so resolve, the Work shall be performed pursuant to the terms of paragraphs (B) and (C) hereof. Conversely, in the event that a sufficient number of Unit Owners shall either fail or refuse to so resolve, the Work shall not be performed and the Property shall not be subject to an action for partition by any Unit Owner or lienor, as if owned in common, in which event the net proceeds and the resulting sale, together with any Trust Funds, shall be paid to all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests, except that no payment shall be made to a Unit Owner until there first has been paid, out of such Unit Owner's share of such funds, such amounts as may be necessary to reduce unpaid liens on the Unit Owner's Unit (other than mortgages that are not Permitted Mortgages) in the order of priority of such liens.

Section 5.6 Use of the Property. (A) No nuisance shall be allowed on the Property. No immoral, improper, offensive, or unlawful use shall be made of the Property or any portion thereof, and all valid laws relating to any portion of the Property shall be complied with at the full cost and expense of the respective Unit Owners or the Condominium Board, whoever shall have the obligation to maintain or repair such part of the Property.

(B) Nothing shall be done or kept in any Unit or in any of the Common Elements that would increase the rate of insurance for the Property, except upon the prior written consent of the Condominium Board. No Unit Owner shall permit anything to be done or kept in a Unit or in the Common Elements that will result in the cancellation of insurance on the Property or the contents thereof, or that would be in violation of any Law. No waste shall be committed in the Common Elements.

(C) Nothing shall be done in any Unit or in, on, or to the Common Elements that will impair the structural integrity of the Property or that will structurally change the Building, except as is otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws. In no event shall interior partitions contributing to the support of any Unit or the Common elements be altered or removed.

Section 5.7 Use of the Units. (A) In order to provide for congenial occupancy of the Property and for the protection of the values of the Units, the use of Units shall be restricted to, and shall be in accordance with, the terms contained in the balance of this Section 5.7.

(B) Each Unit shall be used only as a residence. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, during the Initial Control Period upon the written consent of Sponsor (or after the Initial Control Period upon the prior written consent of the Condominium Board) a Unit may be used as a professional or business office or for any other purpose other than that set forth in this paragraph (B) provided that the nature and manner of such use complies with Law and does not violate the then existing Certificate of Occupancy covering such Unit.

(C) A Unit owned or leased by an individual, corporation, partnership, fiduciary, or any other entity may be occupied only by said individual, or by an officer, director, stockholder, or employee of such corporation, or by a partner or employee of such partnership, or by said fiduciary (including directors, officers, stockholders, or employees of corporate fiduciaries and partners or employees of partnership fiduciaries), or by the beneficiary of said fiduciary, or by a principal or employee of such other entity, respectively, or by Family Members or guests of any of the foregoing. Additionally, in no event shall a portion of a Residential Unit (as opposed to the entire Unit, or the commercial unit) be sold, conveyed, leased, or subleased, and no transient occupant (other than a guest permitted under this paragraph (C) may be accommodated therein.

(D) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 5.7, Sponsor may, without the consent of either the Condominium Board or the Unit Owners:

(i) grant permission for the use of any Unsold Unit as a professional or business office or for any other purpose, provided that the nature and manner of such use complies with Law and does not violate the then existing Certificate of Occupancy covering such Unsold Unit; and

(ii) use any one or more Unsold Units as model units and offices for the sales, promotions, rental, management and operation of the unsold Units or for any other purpose, subject only to compliance with Law.

(E) Under no circumstances may more than one family occupy a Unit at one time.

Section 5.8 Use of the Common Elements. (A) Subject to the terms of paragraph (B) of this Section 5.8, the Common Elements (including without limitation, the electrical, heating, gas, plumbing and other mechanical systems and equipment of the Building and the Unit Facilities) may be used only for the furnishing of the services and facilities, and for the other uses, for which they are reasonably suited and capable. In addition, no furniture, packages, or objects of any kind shall be placed in the lobbies, vestibules, public halls, stairways, or any other part of the Common Elements (except for those areas designated as storage areas, if any) without the prior written consent of the Condominium Board. The lobbies, vestibules, public halls and stairways shall be used only for normal passage through them.

(B) Notwithstanding the terms of paragraph (A) of this Section 5.8, Sponsor or its designee shall have the right, without charge or limitation so long as there are any Unsold Units, to: (i) erect and maintain signs, of any size or content determined by Sponsor or such designee, on or about any portion of the General Common Elements chosen by Sponsor or such designee, including, without limitation, on the exterior walls of the Building or adjacent to the main entrances thereof; (ii) have its employees, contractors, subcontractors and sales agents present on the Property; and (iii) do all things necessary or appropriate, including the use of the General Common Elements, to sell, lease, manage, or operate Unsold Units, to complete any work or repairs to the Building expressly undertaken by Sponsor and to comply with Sponsor's obligations. In no event, however, shall Sponsor or such designee be entitled to use any Common Elements in such a manner as will unreasonably interfere with the use of any Unit for its permitted purposes.

Section 5.9 Right of Access. (A) Subject to the rights of existing tenants and other occupants of Unsold Units, each Unit Owner shall grant to the Condominium Board, to the Managing Agent or manager (if any), and/or to any other Person authorized by any of the foregoing a right of access to his Unit and its appurtenant Limited Common Elements for the purposes of:

(i) making inspections of, or removing violations noted or issued by any governmental authority against, the Common Elements or any other part of the Property,

(ii) curing defaults hereunder or under the Declaration or violations of the Rules and Regulations committed by such Unit

Owner or correcting any conditions originating in his or her Unit and threatening another Unit or all or a portion of the Common Elements;

(iii) performing maintenance, installations, alterations, repairs, or replacements to the mechanical or electrical services, or other portions of the Common Elements located within his Unit or elsewhere in the Building;

(iv) reading, maintaining, or replacing utility meters relating to the Common Elements, to his or her Unit, or to any other Unit; or

(v) correcting any condition that violates the provisions of any Permitted Mortgage encumbering another Unit.

Except in cases of emergency (that is, a condition requiring repairs or replacements immediately necessary for the preservation or safety of the Building or for the safety of the occupants of the Building or other individuals, or required to avoid the suspension of any necessary service in the Building), the foregoing rights of access shall be exercised only upon not less than one day's advance notice and only in such a manner as will not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Units and their appurtenant Limited Common Elements for their permitted purposes. In cases of emergency, however, such rights of access may be exercised immediately, without advance notice and whether or not the Unit Owner is present.

(B) Each Unit Owner shall grant a right of access to his Unit and its appurtenant Limited Common Elements, and the Condominium Board shall grant rights of access to the General Common Elements, to Sponsor and its contractors, subcontractors, agents and employees for the purpose of fulfilling Sponsor's obligations, provided that access thereto shall not be exercised, with respect to any Unit and its appurtenant Limited Common Elements, in such a manner as will unreasonably interfere with the use of such Unit and Limited Common Elements for their permitted purposes.

Section 5.10 Modification of the Rules and Regulations. The Condominium Board shall have the right to amend, modify, add to, or delete any of the Rules and Regulations from time to time, provided, however, that any such amendment, modification, addition, or deletion may be overruled by a vote of a majority of Unit Owners. Copies of the text of any amendments, modifications, additions or deletions to the rules and Regulations shall be furnished to all Unit Owners not less than thirty days prior to the effective date thereof.

Section 5.11 Real Estate Taxes, Water Charges and Sewer Rents. Water for the Building shall be supplied by the City of New York. Unless and until real estate taxes, water charges and sewer rents are billed directly to Unit Owners by the city collector, such taxes, charges and rents shall be payable by the Condominium Board.

The Condominium Board may act as an agent of each Unit Owner who has given his written authorization to complain or apply to the board of assessment review of the assessing agency by filing a single complaint on behalf of all such Unit Owners and to commence and prosecute a special proceeding for the review of assessments of real estate property as an aggrieved person. The Condominium Board may retain legal counsel on behalf of all Unit Owners for which it is acting as agent and may charge all such Unit Owners a pro rata share of expenses, disbursements and legal fees, for which charges the Condominium Board shall have a lien pursuant to the terms of these By-Laws.

Section 5.12 Gas. Gas shall be supplied to each Unit through a separate meter for such Unit, and each Unit Owner shall be required to pay all charges for gas consumed or used in his or her Unit directly to the utility company servicing the Building as and when billed therefore.

Section 5.13 Electricity. Electricity shall be supplied to each Unit through a separate meter for such Unit, and each Unit Owner shall be required to pay all charges for electricity consumed or used in his or her Unit directly to the utility company servicing the Building as and when billed therefore.

Section 5.14 Utilities Serving the General Common Elements. The cost and expense of water, steam and electricity serving or benefiting any Common Element other than balconies shall be (i) considered part of the expense of maintaining such Common element, (ii) determined by the Board and (iii) charged to the Unit Owners as a Common Expense.

Section 5.15 Records and Audits. (A) The Treasurer of the Condominium, or the Managing Agent under the supervision of such Treasurer, shall keep full, detailed and accurate records and books of account with respect to the financial affairs of the Condominium, which records and books of accounts shall include, without limitation, (i) a listing of all receipts of and expenditures by the Condominium Board and the Managing Agent and (ii) a separate listing for each Unit, setting forth, among other things, the amount of each assessment of Common Charges and Special Assessments levied against such Unit, the dates when due, the amounts paid thereon and the balance, if any, remaining unpaid.

(B) Within four months after the end of each fiscal year of the Condominium, the Condominium Board shall submit to each Unit Owner, and, if so requested, to any Permitted Mortgagee, an annual report of the receipts and expenditures of the Condominium prepared and certified by an independent certified public accountant. The cost of preparing and distributing each such report shall be borne by the Condominium Board as a Common Expense.

COMMON CHARGES

Section 6.1 Determination of Common Expenses and Fixing of Common Charges. (A) From time to time, but not less frequently than once a year, the Condominium Board shall: (i) prepare and adopt a budget for the Condominium, subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 2.3 hereof; (ii) determine the aggregate amount of Common Charges necessary to be charged to the Unit Owners in order to meet the Common Expenses; and (iii) allocate and assess such Common Charges among the Unit Owners pro-rata, in accordance with their respective Common Interests (except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws). The Condominium Board may, as its sole discretion, from time to time increase or decrease the amount of Common Charges allocated to the Units and payable by the Unit Owners and may modify its prior determination of the Common Expenses for any fiscal year so as to increase or decrease the amount of Common Charges payable for such fiscal year or portion thereof; however, no such revised determination of Common Expenses shall have a retroactive effect on the amount of Common Charges payable by Unit Owners for any period prior to the date of such new determination.

(B) The failure or delay of the Condominium Board to prepare or adopt a budget or to determine the Common Expenses for any fiscal year or portion thereof shall not be deemed a waiver or modification in any respect of the covenants and provisions hereof or a release of any Unit Owner from the obligation to pay Common Charges.

(C) In addition to the foregoing duty to determine the amount of and assess Common Charges, the Condominium Board shall have the right, subject, in all respects, to any restrictions contained herein, to levy Special Assessments to meet the Common Expenses.

Section 6.2 Payment of Common Charges. (A) All Unit Owners (including Sponsor or its designee with respect to Unsold Units, for so long as the same are owned thereby) shall be obligated to pay Common Charges and Special Assessments assessed by the Condominium Board pursuant to the terms of Section 6.1 hereof at such time or times (but not less than annually) as the Condominium Board shall determine. Unless otherwise determined by the Condominium Board, Common Charges shall be payable in installments on the first day of every month in advance. To the extent permitted by Law, the Condominium Board shall have a lien on each Unit, on behalf of all Unit Owners, for unpaid Common Charges and Special Assessments assessed against such Unit. Such lien, however, shall be subordinate, to the extent required by Law, to any liens for real estate taxes assessed against such Unit.

(B) No Unit Owner shall be liable for the payment of any part of the Common Charges and any Special Assessments assessed against his Unit for the period subsequent to a sale, with its Appurtenant Interests, made in compliance with the terms of Article 7 hereof. A purchaser or other successor-in-title to the owner of a Unit shall be liable for the payment of all Common Charges and any Special Assessments accrued and unpaid against such Unit prior to his acquisition thereof, except that, to the extent permitted by Law, a Permitted First Mortgagee acquiring title to a mortgaged Unit or a purchaser at a mortgage foreclosure sale held with respect to a Permitted First Mortgage shall not be liable, and such mortgaged Unit shall not be subject to a lien, for the payment of any Common Charges and Special Assessments assessed subsequent to the recording of such Permitted First Mortgage and prior to the acquisition of title to such Unit by the Permitted First Mortgagee or by such purchaser. However, in the event of a foreclosure of a Permitted First Mortgagee (whether by sale, deed in lieu of foreclosure, or otherwise), the defaulting Unit Owner shall remain fully liable for the payment of all unpaid Common Charges and Special Assessments that accrued prior to such foreclosure. Any unpaid Common Charges and Special Assessments that are not collected from such defaulting Unit Owner shall be deemed a Common Expense, collectible from all those who are Unit owners at the time that the same is levied.

(C) Subject to the terms and conditions contained in these By-Laws, any Unit Owner may convey his Unit, together with its Appurtenant Interests, to the Condominium Board or to its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Unit Owners, without being compensated therefore, and in such event, be exempt from the payment of Common Charges and Special Assessments thereafter accruing, provided, however, that: (i) all Common Charges and any Special Assessments then due and payable with respect to such Unit have been paid; (ii) such Unit is free and clear of all liens and encumbrances other than a Permitted First Mortgage and the Statutory lien for unpaid Common Charges and Special Assessments; (iii) no violation of any provision of the Condominium Documents then exists with respect to such Unit and (iv) at the time of conveyance, and in the event that the Unit is encumbered by a Permitted Mortgage, the Unit Owner shall deposit with the Condominium Board an amount equal to the product of the then currently monthly debt service on the Permitted Mortgage multiplied by 24. However, in no event shall Sponsor or its designee be permitted to convey any Unsold Unit to the Condominium Board and thereby exempt itself from Common Charges and any Special Assessments attributable to such Unit thereafter accruing.

(D) No Unit Owner shall be exempted from liability for the payment of Common Charges or Special Charges by waiving the use or enjoyment of any or all of the Common Elements or by abandoning his or her Unit (except with respect to a conveyance of the same to the Condominium Board, without compensation, pursuant to the terms of paragraph (C) hereof). No Unit Owner shall be entitled to a diminution or abatement in the Common Charges or Special Assessments payable thereby for any inconvenience or discomfort arising from: (i) the failure or interruption of any utility or other services; (ii) the making of repairs or improvements to the Common Elements or any Unit (including, without limitation, such Unit Owner's Unit) pursuant to the terms of Section 5.1, 5.2, or 5.3 hereof; or (iii) any action taken by the Condominium Board or the officers of the Condominium to comply with the Law.

Section 6.3 Statement of Common Charges. The Condominium Board shall promptly provide a written statement of all unpaid Common Charges due from any Unit Owner upon its receipt of a written request therefore from such Unit Owner. In addition, each Unit Owner shall be permitted to examine the books of account of the Condominium at reasonable times on weekdays.

Section 6.4 Default in Payment of Common Charges. (A) The Condominium Board shall take prompt action to collect any Common Charges due to the Condominium Board that remains unpaid for more than 30 days after the due date for the payment thereof. In connection therewith, the Condominium Board shall have the right and obligation to cause liens for all sums due and owing to the Condominium Board to be filed in the Register's Office pursuant to the terms of Section 339-z of the Condominium Act, to cause such liens to be foreclosed in the manner provided in Section 339-aa of the Condominium Act and/or to institute all other proceedings deemed necessary or desirable by the Condominium Board to recover all such unpaid Common Charges, together with all additional sums of money collectible by the Condominium Board by reason of such nonpayment pursuant to the terms of paragraph (B) hereof. A suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid Common Charges, however, shall be maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing such Common Charges. In addition any Unit Owner in default of two months payment of common charges will lose all voting rights after a receipt from the Condominium Board of a ten-day notice to cure.

(B) In the event that any Unit Owner shall fail to make prompt payment of Common Charges, such Unit Owner shall be obligated to pay all costs and expenses paid or incurred by the Condominium Board, the Managing Agent, (if any) in connection with collecting such unpaid Common Charges and/or in foreclosing the aforementioned lien, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and disbursements and court costs. In addition, if the Condominium Board shall bring an action to foreclose the aforementioned lien, the defaulting Unit Owner will be required to pay a reasonable rental for the use of his Unit, and the plaintiff in such foreclosure action shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the same.

(C) In any action brought by the Condominium Board to foreclose a lien on a unit because of unpaid Common Charges, the Condominium Board shall have, on behalf of all Unit Owners, the power to purchase such Unit at the foreclosure sale thereof and to acquire, hold, lease, mortgage, convey, or otherwise deal with such Unit (but not to vote the votes appurtenant to the same). In the event that the net proceeds received on such foreclosure (after deduction of all legal fees and disbursements, advertising costs, brokerage commissions, court costs and other costs and expenses paid or incurred in connection therewith) shall be insufficient to satisfy the defaulting Unit Owner's obligations to the Condominium, such Unit Owner shall remain liable for the deficit. Any surplus on such foreclosure sale shall be paid to the defaulting Unit Owner after first paying all liens on such Unit Owner's Unit in the order of priority of such liens.

SELLING AND LEASING OF UNITS

SECTION 7.1 General. Subject to the terms of Section 7.5 hereof, no Unit Owner may sell or lease his Unit except in compliance with the applicable provisions of this Article 7. Any purported sale or lease consummated in default of the applicable terms hereof shall be voidable at the sole election of the Condominium Board, and, if the Condominium Board shall so elect, the selling or leasing Unit Owner shall be deemed to have authorized and empowered the Condominium Board to institute legal proceedings to eject the purported purchaser (in the event of an unauthorized sale) or to evict the purported tenant (in the event of an unauthorized leasing) in the name of the said Unit Owner as the owner, or landlord, as the case may be. The said Unit Owner shall reimburse the Condominium Board for all costs and expenses paid or incurred in connection with such proceedings, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees, disbursements and court costs.

Section 7.2 Right of First Refusal. (A) Subject to the terms of Sections 7.5 hereof, any contract to sell a Unit together with its Appurtenant Interests and any lease of a Unit (hereinafter collectively referred to as a "Sale or Lease Agreement") shall contain the following language: "THIS AGREEMENT AND THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER ARE HEREBY MADE EXPRESSLY SUBJECT TO THE RIGHTS, IF ANY, OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE CONDOMINIUM WITH RESPECT TO THE TRANSACTION EMBODIED HEREIN PURSUANT TO THE TERMS OF SECTION 7.2 AND 7.3 OF THE BY-LAWS OF THE SAID CONDOMINIUM, AS THE SAME MAY HAVE BEEN AMENDED." Promptly after any such contract of sale or lease shall be fully executed, the Unit Owner executing the same (hereinafter referred to as the "Offeree Unit Owner") shall send written notice thereof to the Condominium Board by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, which notice shall be accompanied by a fully executed, original counterpart of the contract of sale or the lease, as the case may be, containing all of the terms offered in good faith by the prospective purchaser or tenant (hereinafter referred as the "Outside Offeror").

(B) The sending of the notice referred to in paragraph (A) of this Section 7.2 shall constitute an offer by the Offeree Unit Owner to sell his Unit, together with its Appurtenant Interests, or to lease his Unit, as the case may be, to the Condominium Board or to its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Unit Owners, upon the same terms and conditions as are outlined in such Sale or Lease Agreement, subject, however, to any variance therefrom provided in Section 7.3 hereof. The giving of such notice shall further constitute a representation and warranty by the Offeree Unit Owner to the Condominium Board, on behalf of all Unit Owners, that such Offeree Unit Owner believes the Sale or Lease Agreement to be bona fide in all respects. Thereafter, upon the written demand of the Condominium Board, the Offeree Unit Owner shall submit to the Condominium Board, in writing, such further information with respect to the Outside Offeror and the Sale or Lease Agreement as the Condominium Board may reasonably request.

(C) The Condominium Board may elect, by sending written notice thereof to the Offeree Unit Owner by certified or registered mail not later than 20 business days after receipt of the notice referred to in paragraph (A) (provided that if further information had been requested pursuant to the terms of paragraph (B) hereof, such 20 day period shall commence on the receipt of such information), to purchase such Unit together with its Appurtenant Interests or to lease such Unit, as the case may be (or to cause the same to be purchased or leased by its designee, corporate or otherwise) on behalf of all Unit Owners upon the same terms and conditions as were contained in the Sale or Lease Agreement and stated in the response(s) by the Offeree Unit Owner to any requests for additional information pursuant to the terms of paragraph (B) hereof. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, however, the Condominium Board shall not exercise any option set forth in this Section 7.2 to purchase or lease any Unit without the prior approval of a Majority of Unit Owners.

Section 7.3 Acceptance of Offer. (A) In the event that the Condominium Board shall elect, within the time and in the manner provided in Section 7.2 hereof, to purchase a Unit together with its Appurtenant Interests, to lease such Unit, or to cause the same to be purchased or leased, a lease or contract shall be executed in either event in accordance with the terms of the Sale or Lease Agreement, at the office of the attorneys for the Condominium within 45 days after the day upon which the Condominium Board shall give notice of its election to accept such offer.

(B) In the event that such Unit is to be leased by the Condominium Board or its designee on behalf of all Unit Owners, the Offeree Unit Owner shall execute and deliver to the Condominium Board or such designee a lease covering such Unit by and between the Offeree Unit Owner, as landlord, and the Condominium Board of such designee, as tenant. Such lease shall be in the then current form of apartment lease recommended by the Real Estate Board of New York, Inc., and shall contain all of the terms and conditions of the Lease Agreement not in conflict with such form or lease, including without limitation, the rental and term provided for therein. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth hereinabove or in the Lease Agreement, however, such lease shall expressly provide that the Condominium Board or such designee may enter into a sublease of the premises thereunder without consent of the landlord.

Section 7.4 Failure to Accept Offer. (A) In the event that the Condominium Board shall fail to accept an offer made pursuant to the terms of Section 7.2 hereof within the time set forth in paragraph (C) thereof, the Offeree Unit Owner shall be free to consummate the transaction embodied in the Sale or Lease Agreement within 120 days after (i) notice of refusal is sent to the Offeree Unit owner by the Condominium Board or (ii) the expiration of the period within which the Condominium Board or its designee might have accepted such offer, as the case may be.

If the Offeree Unit Owner shall fail to consummate the transaction embodied in the Sale or Lease Agreement within such 120-day period, then, should the Offeree Unit Owner thereafter elect to sell such Unit together with its Appurtenant Interests or to lease such Unit, the Offeree Unit Owner shall be required again to comply with all of the terms and provisions of Sections 7.2, 7.3, and 7.4 hereof.

(B) Any deed of a Unit and its Appurtenant Interests to an Outside Offeror shall expressly provide that the acceptance thereof by the grantee shall constitute an assumption of all of the terms of the Condominium Documents, and, in the absence of such express language, the same shall be conclusively deemed to have been included therein.

(C) Each lease of a Unit to an Outside Offeror shall be in the then current form of apartment lease recommended by the Real Estate Board of New York, Inc. subject to such modifications as may be approved in writing by the Condominium Board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, each such lease shall be consistent with the Condominium Documents and shall expressly provide that:

(i) such lease shall be for a term of not less than six months and shall not be for less than an entire Unit.

(ii) such lease may not be amended, modified, or extended without the prior written consent of the Condominium Board in each instance;

(iii) the tenant thereunder shall not assign his interest in such lease or sublet the premises demised thereunder or any part thereof without the prior written consent of the Condominium Board in each instance; and

(iv) the Condominium Board shall have the power to terminate such lease and/or to bring summary proceedings to evict the tenant in the name of the landlord thereunder in the event of (a) a default by the tenant in the performance of its obligations under such lease or (b) a foreclosure of the lien granted by Section 339-z of the Condominium Act.

Section 7.5 Termination of, and Exceptions to, the Right of First Refusal. (A) A certificate executed and acknowledged by the Secretary of the Condominium or the Managing Agent, stating that the provisions of Section 7.2 hereof have been met by a Unit Owner or that the right of first refusal therein has been duly released or waived by the Condominium Board and that, as a result thereof, the rights of the Condominium Board thereunder have terminated, shall be conclusive upon the Condominium Board and all Unit Owners in favor of all persons who rely upon such certificate in good faith. After the due issuance of such a certificate, the Unit to which the same shall relate, together with its Appurtenant Interests, may be sold, conveyed, or leased free and clear of the terms and conditions contained in Section 7.2 hereof. The Condominium Board shall furnish or cause the Managing Agent to furnish, without unreasonable charge, such certificate upon written request of any Unit Owner in respect to whom the provisions of Section 7.2 hereof have, in fact, been terminated. In no event, however, shall the Right of First Refusal described in Section 7.2 hereof be deemed released or waived by the Condominium Board (as opposed to satisfied pursuant to the express terms of Section 7.2, 7.3, and 7.4 hereof) in the absence of a certificate that has been duly executed, acknowledged and issued by the Condominium Board or the Managing Agent, (if any) as aforesaid.

(B) The terms and conditions contained in Sections 7.2, 7.3 and 7.4 hereof shall not apply with respect to any sale, lease, or conveyance of a Unit, together with its Appurtenant by:

(i) the owner of such Unit to any of his or her adult Family Members, to any combination of the same, or to a trust for the benefit of any of them or, with respect to a Unit Owner that is not an individual, to any entity or individual that owns more than 50 percent of the legal and beneficial interest of such Unit Owner or entity with respect to which such Unit Owner (individual or otherwise) owns more than 50 percent of the legal and beneficial interest thereof;

(ii) Sponsor or its designee, with respect to the Unsold Units;

(iii) the Condominium Board;

(iv) any proper officer conducting the sale of a Unit in connection with the foreclosure of a mortgage or other lien covering such Unit or delivering a deed in lieu of such foreclosure; or

(v) any Permitted Mortgagee or his nominee, who has acquired title to any Unit at any foreclosure sale of his or her Permitted Mortgage or by deed in lieu thereof delivered in a bona fide transaction; Provided, However, that each succeeding Unit Owner shall be bound by, and his Unit shall continue to be subject to, all of the terms and conditions of this Article 7.

Section 7.6 No Severance of Ownership. No Unit Owner shall execute any deed or other instrument conveying title to his or her Unit without including therein its Appurtenant Interests, it being the intention to prevent any severance of such combined ownership. Any deed or other instrument purporting to affect one or more such interests shall be taken to include the interest or interests so omitted, even though the latter shall not be expressly mentioned or described therein. No part of the Appurtenant Interests of any Unit may be sold, conveyed, or otherwise disposed of, except as part of a sale, conveyance, or other disposition of the Unit to which such interests are appurtenant or as part of a sale, conveyance, or other disposition of such part of the Appurtenant Interests of all Units. Nothing contained in this Section 7.6 however, shall prohibit the lease of any Unit without the simultaneous lease of its Appurtenant Interests.

Section 7.7 Payment of Common Charges. No Unit Owner shall be permitted to convey or lease his Unit unless he shall have paid in full to the Condominium Board all unpaid Common Charges and Special Assessments theretofore assessed against such Unit and shall have satisfied all unpaid liens, other than that of Permitted Mortgages, levied against such Unit provided that if a Unit Owner shall convey his Unit without having paid in full all such payments, the purchaser of such Unit shall be responsible for all such payments.

Section 7.8 Power of Attorney. At the time of acquiring title to a Unit and as a condition thereof, the new Unit Owner shall duly execute, acknowledge and deliver to the representative of his or her title insurance company (or, if no such representative is present, to Sponsor or its designee, or, if Sponsor or its designee is not then the owner of any Unsold Unit, to the Condominium Board) for recording in the Register's Office, the Unit Owner's Power of Attorney required in Article 14 of the Declaration, in the form set forth as on Exhibit to the Declaration and the new Unit Owner shall bear the cost of recording the Unit Owner's Power of Attorney.

Section 7.9 Devises, Etc. Any Unit Owner shall be free to devise his Unit together with its Appurtenant Interests by will or to have the same pass by intestacy, without restriction, provided, however, that each succeeding Unit Owner shall be bound by, and his or her Unit shall be subject to, the provisions of this Article 7.

MORTGAGING OF UNITS

SECTION 8.1 General. Each Unit Owner shall have the right to mortgage his Unit, subject only to the terms and conditions contained in Section 8.2 hereof. Any Unit Owner who mortgages his or her Unit, or the holder of such mortgage, shall supply the Condominium Board with the name and address of his or her mortgagee and shall file a conformed copy of the note and mortgage with the Condominium Board. Any Unit Owner who satisfies a mortgage covering his Unit shall so notify the Condominium Board and shall file a conformed copy of the satisfaction of mortgage with the Condominium Board. The Secretary of the Condominium shall maintain such information in a book entitled "Mortgages of Units."

Section 8.2 Restrictions on Mortgaging. (A) No Unit Owner shall be permitted to mortgage, pledge, or hypothecate his Unit unless and until he shall have paid in full to the Condominium Board all unpaid Common Charges and Special Assessments theretofore assessed against such Unit and shall have satisfied all unpaid liens, except the liens of Permitted Mortgages levied against such Unit.

(B) Any mortgage or other document mortgaging, pledging, or hypothecating title to a Unit shall include therein its Appurtenant Interests, it being the intention to prevent any severance of such combined ownership. Any mortgage or other instrument purporting to affect one or more of such interests without including all such interests shall be deemed and taken to include the interest or interests so omitted, even though the latter shall not be expressly mentioned or described therein.

(C) Any mortgage covering a Unit shall be substantially in the form of the New York statutory form of mortgage, except for such changes or additions thereto as may be reasonably required in order to permit a particular bank, trust company, insurance company, savings and loan association, or other institutional or noninstitutional lender to make the mortgage loan.

Section 8.3 Notice of Unpaid Common Charges and Default. Whenever requested in writing by a Permitted Mortgagee, the Condominium Board shall promptly report to such Permitted Mortgagee any default by his or her mortgagor(s) in the payment of Common Charges or Special Assessments or in the observance or performance of any of the provisions of the Condominium Documents as to which the Condominium Board has knowledge then exists. The Condominium Board shall, when giving notice to a Unit Owner of any such default, also send a copy of such notice to his Permitted Mortgagee, if so requested. However, the Condominium Board shall have no liability for any failure, through oversight or negligence, in notifying a Permitted Mortgagee of any default by his or her mortgagor under the Condominium Documents, provided that (i) the Condominium Board shall advise such Permitted Mortgagee of the default promptly after discovering such failure and (ii) if the Condominium Board shall foreclose a lien on such Mortgagor's Unit pursuant to the terms of Section 6.4 hereof by reason of such default, the Condominium Board shall pay to such Permitted Mortgagee any net proceeds of any foreclosure sale of such Unit (after retaining all sums due and owing to the Condominium Board pursuant to the Condominium Documents) or such lesser sum as shall be due and owing to such permitted Mortgagee.

Section 8.4 Performance by Permitted Mortgagees. Any sum of money to be paid or any act to be performed by a Unit Owner pursuant to the terms of the Condominium Documents may be paid or performed by his Permitted Mortgagee, and the Condominium Board shall accept such Permitted Mortgagee's payment or performance with the same force and effect as if the same were paid or performed by such Unit Owner.

ARBITRATION

Section 9.1 Procedure. Any dispute between the Unit Owners, members of the Condominium Board, or Officers of the Condominium shall be submitted to binding arbitration in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association then obtaining.

Section 9.2 Binding Effect. The decision in any arbitration conducted pursuant to the terms of Section 9.1 hereof shall be binding upon all of the parties thereto and may be entered in any court of appropriate jurisdiction.

Section 10.2 Waiver of Service. Whenever any notice is required to be given by Law or pursuant to the terms of the Condominium Documents, a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the Person or Persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed the equivalent thereof.

AMENDMENTS TO BY-LAWS

Section 11.1 General. (A) Subject to the terms of paragraph (B) hereof and subject, further, to any provisions contained in the Declaration or these By-Laws with respect to any amendments (hereinafter referred to as "Special Amendments") affecting or in favor of Sponsor or its designee, any Unsold Unit(s), and/or any permitted Mortgagee, any provision of these By-Laws may be amended, modified, added to, or deleted by the affirmative vote of not less than 80% in number and the aggregate Common Interests of all Unit Owners either taken at a duly constituted meeting thereof or given in writing without a meeting as provided in Section 4.9 hereof. Each duly adopted amendment, modification, addition, or deletion hereof or hereto shall be effectuated in an instrument executed and recorded in the Register's Office by or on behalf of the Condominium Board as attorney-in-fact of all Unit Owners, which power-of-attorney shall be deemed irrevocable and coupled with an interest. Attached to each such instrument shall be an original, executed Secretary's Certification, certifying that the requisite number and percentage of Unit Owners approved the amendment, modification, addition, or deletion set forth therein either at a duly constituted meeting of Unit Owners or in writing without a meeting pursuant to the terms of Section 4.9 hereof, in which Secretary's Certification there shall be described the number and percentage of Unit Owners approving the same and, if voted at a meeting, the date, time and place of such meeting. No such amendment, modification, addition, or deletion shall be effective unless and until such an instrument shall be duly recorded in the Register's Office.

(B) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in paragraph (A) hereof, but still subject to any provision contained in the Declaration of these By-Laws with respect to Special Amendment:

(i) the Common Interest appurtenant to any Unit, as set forth in the Declaration, shall not be altered without the consent of the Unit Owner thereof; and

(ii) no amendment, modification, addition, or deletion agreed to pursuant to the terms of paragraph (A) hereof shall be effective without the prior written consent of the Mortgage Representatives, if any, provided, however, that no such consent shall be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

Section 11.2 Special Amendments. (A) Any amendments, modification, addition, or deletion of or to any of the provisions of these By-Laws that, pursuant to the terms of the Declaration or these By-Laws, may be effected by Sponsor or its designee without the consent of the Condominium Board or the Unit Owners shall be embodied in an instrument executed and recorded in the Register's Office by Sponsor or such designee as attorney-in-fact of both the Condominium Board and all Unit Owners, which power-in-attorney shall be deemed to be irrevocable and coupled with an interest. Attached to each such instrument shall be an original, executed Certification by Sponsor or such designee, certifying that the amendment, modification, addition, or deletion set forth therein was effectuated by Sponsor or such designee pursuant to the terms of the Declaration and/or these By-Laws, in which Certification there shall be set forth the Article and/or Section of the Declaration or these By-Laws pursuant to which the same was effectuated. No such amendment, modification, addition, or deletion shall be effective unless and until such an instrument shall be duly recorded in the Register's Office.

(B) Notwithstanding any provision contained herein to the contrary, no amendment, modification, addition, or deletion of or to these By-Laws shall be effective in any respect against Sponsor or its designee, any Unsold Unit, or the holder of any present or future mortgage, pledge, lien, or security agreement covering any Unsold Unit unless and until Sponsor, such designee, and/or such holder (as the case may be) shall consent to the same in writing.

(C) Notwithstanding any provision contained herein to the contrary, no amendment, modification, addition or deletion of or to Section 5.4 or 5.5, paragraph (B) of Section 6.2, or subparagraph (iv) or (v) of paragraph (B) of Section 7.5, hereof shall be effective with respect to the holder of any Permitted Mortgage theretofore made unless and until such Permitted

Mortgagee shall have given its written consent thereto.
