PURCHASERS FOR THEIR OWN OCCUPANCY MAY NEVER GAIN CONTROL OF THE CONDOMINIUM BOARD OR THE TOWER BOARD UNDER THE TERMS OF THIS PLAN. (SEE SPECIAL RISKS SECTION OF THE PLAN.)

THIS OFFERING PLAN IS THE ENTIRE OFFER TO SELL THE TOWER UNITS AND STORAGE LICENSES. SPECIAL RISKS TO BE CONSIDERED BY PURCHASERS

1. Riverside South and Riverside South Property Owners Association

The Property is part of a development area on the west side of Manhattan, referred to as "Riverside South", that includes nineteen (19) parcels (each, a "Development Parcel"). The Property is referred to as "Parcel K-1"; the Development Parcel adjacent to the Property directly to the east is referred to as "Parcel K-2"; the Development Parcel adjacent to the Property directly to the north is referred to as "Parcel J-1"; and the Development Parcel adjacent to the Property to the northeast is referred to as "Parcel J-2". All owners of Development Parcels (each, a "Development Parcel Owner") are members of the Riverside South Property Owners Association, Inc. (the "RSPOA"). The RSPOA was formed at the start of development of Riverside South, primarily to assess its members for the cost of maintaining and insuring the various park areas (the "Park Areas") contained within Riverside South and to own certain public access areas (the "Public Access Areas") as more particularly described below. Assessments collected from members of the RSPOA to maintain the Park Areas are paid to the City of New York Department of Parks and Recreation, which is under contract to perform the physical maintenance of the Park Areas, or to another entity holding such maintenance contract. The RSPOA operates pursuant to the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions of the Riverside South Property Owners Association, Inc. made by the then Development Parcel Owners in Riverside South, dated as of August 26, 1997 and recorded in the City Register's Office on March 16, 1998 in Reel 2554, Page 552 (as same may be amended from time to time, the "RSPO Declaration"). The specific purposes and responsibilities of the RSPOA are set forth in the RSPO Declaration. The RSPOA was created and the RSPO Declaration was prepared in accordance with the Restrictive Declaration (as defined herein). The RSPOA is a membership organization, with membership limited to Development Parcel Owners. Sponsor is presently the Development Parcel Owner for the Property and a member of the RSPOA for purposes of the RSPO Declaration. Upon recording of the Declaration, such statuses will be transferred to the Condominium Board. At such time, the Condominium Board shall appoint a member of the Tower Board (the "Vice President for RSPOA Liaison") to attend and represent it at meetings of the RSPOA and to vote on behalf of the Condominium at such meetings. There is no expiration date of the RSPOA; provided, however, that the RSPO Declaration expressly provides that it shall continue with full force and effect perpetually unless and until terminated by the affirmative vote of Development Parcel Owners whose Parcels represent in the aggregate at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the aggregate class votes attributable to all Parcels at a duly called meeting of such Development Parcel Owners. If the Condominium Board fails to pay its membership assessment to the RSPOA, the RSPOA may take action against the Condominium Board generally, or against individual Unit Owners specifically, for their proportionate share of the assessment.

(See the Sections entitled "Introduction", "Rights and Obligations of the Unit Owners and the Boards of Managers" and "Agreements Binding on the Condominium" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

2. Use Provisions

The Condominium will initially consist of 219 Tower Units; the Rental Unit, comprised of approximately fifty-five (55) rental apartments; the Retail Unit; two (2) Community Facility Units (referred to as "Community Facility Unit A" and "Community Facility Unit B"); the Garage Unit and the Common Elements. Only the Tower Units (and their appurtenant interest in the Common Elements) and Storage Licenses (hereinafter described) are offered pursuant to this offering plan.

A Tower Unit (anticipated to be Unit 3U) located on Floor 3 of the Building will be used as an apartment by the Resident Manager (hereinafter, the "Resident Manager's Unit"). Sponsor reserves the right to use a different Tower Unit as the Resident Manager's Unit, and in such case the purchase price of such different Tower Unit will not increase by more than fifteen percent (15%) of the purchase price of Unit 3U.

The Tower Units may generally be used only for residential purposes and, subject to compliance with the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws and the Tower By-Laws, for a lawful home occupation as defined in the Zoning Resolution (a New York City zoning resolution affecting use and occupancy). Tower Unit Owners may, subject to the Tower Board's right of first refusal, rent their Tower Unit pursuant to a lease with a minimum term of one (1) year, in each case. No transient tenant or short-term paying guest (i.e., a tenant or paying guest in occupancy for a period of less than twelve (12) consecutive months) may be accommodated in any Tower Unit, and only an entire Tower Unit may be leased. Residents of the Tower Units thus may be comprised of Tower Unit Owners who reside in the Building, as well as tenants leasing Tower Units from other Tower Unit Owners.

The Storage Closets (as hereinafter defined) may only be used for storage purposes, and in no event may a Storage Closet be used as a dwelling space or for the storage of toxic or inflammable items or Combustibles (as such term is defined in the New York City Building Code). No materials which pose a health or safety threat or which otherwise create a nuisance may be stored in the Storage Closets. To do so may result in a violation placed against the Building by the Department of Buildings that will be the obligation of the licensee to remove. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor or its designee shall have the right to use without charge any unlicensed Storage Closets (collectively, the "Unlicensed Storage Closets", and individually, an "Unlicensed Storage Closet") for any lawful purpose or to change the permitted use of any Unlicensed Storage Closets, subject, however, to the provisions of Article 6 of the Tower By-Laws which provide, among other things, that no use shall be allowed in the Condominium which interferes with the peaceful possession and proper use of the Condominium by its occupants. The Storage Closets will be located on the Subcellar Level of the Building, subject to the right of Sponsor to create new/additional Storage Closets.

The Commercial Units in the Building are divided into the following categories: (i) the Rental Unit, comprised of approximately fifty-five (55) rental apartments; (ii) the Retail Unit; (iii) two (2) Community Facility Units; and (iv) the Garage Unit. Sponsor makes no representation whatsoever with respect to the uses to which all or any portion of the Commercial Units or any public spaces within the Building may be put at any time; nor does Sponsor make any representation with respect to the identity of the owners or users or future owners or users of any of such Units at any time. The Condominium's board of managers (the "Condominium Board") will have no right to restrict or limit any of the uses of, or alterations in or to, the Commercial Units (including the portions thereof facing the street or public area) which are permitted by law and applicable zoning ordinances, except as otherwise set forth in the Declaration and the Condominium By-Laws.

Subject to compliance with all Legal Requirements, including, without limitation, the certificate of occupancy for such Unit and any applicable zoning regulations, and except as otherwise provided herein and in the Condominium By-Laws, each Commercial Unit may be used and operated for any legally permitted purpose. It is currently anticipated that the Rental Unit will be used for affordable housing purposes (and ancillary uses) (as more particularly described herein), the Retail Unit will be used for retail purposes (and ancillary uses), the Community Facility Units will be used as community facilities (e.g., without limitation, a daycare center) and/or professional office space, and the Garage Unit will be used as public parking (and ancillary uses). If, as anticipated (but not represented or warranted), Section 421-a benefits are awarded to the Condominium, the Rental Apartments will be rent-stabilized apartments under the Rent Stabilization Law and Code.

(See the Sections entitled "Description of the Property and Improvements" and "Rights and Obligations of the Unit Owners and the Boards of Managers" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

3. Interim Service Period

Prospective Purchasers are advised that until the later of: (i) twelve months after the First Closing; or (ii) the closing of title to and occupancy of at least fifty percent (50%) of the Tower Units, some of the services and facilities described in the Plan (specifically, some of the elevators, the Courtyard, Function Room, the Tower Gym, the Children's Playroom, the Screening Room and the Screening Room Lounge, the Resident Lounge, the Bicycle Storage Room, Storage Closets, a full staff of residential service personnel and access to parking in the Garage Unit) may not be available. However, it is anticipated that at all times after the First Closing, the Tower Lobby (as defined herein) will be attended twenty-four (24) hours a day, seven (7) days a week, and there will be at least one (1) elevator servicing every floor on which there are occupied Tower Units. The interim level of staffing will at all times during this period be commensurate with the levels of occupancy from time to time and adequate to properly maintain the Building. During such interim service period when full services and/or facilities are not available, the Tower Common Charges payable by the Tower Unit Owners may be reduced accordingly to reflect the corresponding diminished expenses of the Tower Section. IN LIGHT OF SPONSOR'S UNCONDITIONAL RIGHT TO RENT OR LEASE, RATHER THAN SELL, THE UNITS OFFERED HEREUNDER, THE FOREGOING FIFTY PERCENT (50%) CLOSING THRESHOLD MIGHT NEVER BE REACHED AND SUCH SERVICES AND FACILITIES MAY NEVER BECOME AVAILABLE. (See the Section entitled "Description of Property and Improvements" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

4. Purchaser Deposits; Defaults by Purchasers

At the time an option agreement for the purchase of a Tower Unit (an "Option Agreement") is executed, the Purchaser thereunder is required to make a payment in an amount equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the purchase price set forth therein (the "Initial Deposit"); and an additional payment equal to ten percent (10%) of such purchase price (the "Additional Deposit") shall be due and payable no later than the earlier to occur of: (x) four (4) months after the date of the Option Agreement; or (y) fifteen (15) days after Sponsor serves Purchaser with written notice of an amendment to the Offering Plan declaring the same effective, but in no event later than the closing of title to the Unit; provided, however, that with respect to Option Agreements entered into after the Offering Plan has been declared effective, Sponsor reserves the right to require both the Initial Deposit and the Additional Deposit due and payable upon execution of the Option Agreement. The Deposit for the purchase of a Storage License is twenty-five percent (25%) of the gross purchase price of the Storage License. The term "Deposit" as used herein refers to both the Initial Deposit and, if the same has been paid at the time in question, the Additional Deposit, as well as in connection with the purchase of a Storage License. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a Purchaser is a foreign government, a resident representative of a foreign government or other person or entity otherwise entitled to the immunities from suit enjoyed by a foreign government (i.e., diplomatic or sovereign immunity), such Purchaser will be required to make an Initial Deposit equal to fifty percent (50%) of the applicable purchase price and will not be required to make an Additional Deposit. The Escrow Account (as defined herein) is federally insured by the FDIC at the maximum amount of $250,000 per deposit (the FDIC limit in effect as of the filing date hereof). Any deposit in excess of $250,000 (or the FDIC limit in effect from time to time) will not be insured. Purchasers are also advised that if a Purchaser has any additional accounts at the Bank (as defined herein), the funds in said accounts will be added together with the Deposit held in escrow and the aggregate of all the funds held by the Bank will only be insured up to the $250,000 FDIC maximum coverage.

In the event that a Purchaser fails to close title on the date set for closing or otherwise fails to perform any other obligation under his or her Option Agreement, and such default is not cured within thirty (30) days after Sponsor gives written notice to such Purchaser of the default, Sponsor, at its option, may: (i) cancel such Option Agreement and retain as liquidated damages the Deposit made by the Purchaser and any interest earned on the Deposit, as well as any amounts paid by Purchaser for additional work in the Tower Unit, together with interest earned thereon, if any; or (ii) exercise all other rights and remedies under the Option Agreement, at law or equity, in the case of such a default. For the avoidance of doubt, no statutory interest will accrue during any period of time during which there is a dispute over the Deposit being held in escrow. Additionally, if a Purchaser fails for any reason to close title on the originally scheduled closing date and Sponsor elects not to cancel the Option Agreement: (a) the closing apportionments to be made at the closing will be made as of midnight of the day preceding the originally scheduled closing date; and (b) the Purchaser will be required to pay to Sponsor an amount equal to 0.03% of the purchase price of the Tower Unit(s) in question for each day that the closing is adjourned.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if an Option Agreement is not exempt under ILSA and if a Purchaser loses rights and interest in its Unit as a result of a default or breach of its Option Agreement which occurs after Purchaser has paid fifteen percent (15%) of the purchase price of its Unit, excluding any interest owed under such Option Agreement, Sponsor (or Sponsor's successor) shall refund to Purchaser any amount which remains after subtracting (A) fifteen percent (15%) of the purchase price, excluding any interest owed under and disposed of in accordance with such Option Agreement, or the amount of damages incurred by Sponsor (or Sponsor's successor) as a result of such breach, whichever is greater, from (B) the amount paid by Purchaser with respect to the purchase price of its Unit, excluding any interest paid under such Option Agreement (which interest shall be disposed of as set forth in the Option Agreement).

(See the Section entitled "Procedure to Purchase" and "Terms of Sale" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

5. No Financing Contingency

A Purchaser may obtain financing from any lending institution or other source, but the Purchaser's obligation to purchase a Unit pursuant to an Option Agreement shall not be contingent on the Purchaser obtaining such financing, so that a Purchaser will remain obligated under the Option Agreement whether or not such Purchaser has been able to obtain financing. Neither Sponsor nor Selling Agent makes any representation whatsoever as to the terms or availability of any mortgage or other financing. Prospective Purchasers should be aware that even if a loan commitment is obtained, its term may be limited and it could expire before the closing date, and Sponsor shall have no liability as a result of any scheduling, rescheduling or adjournment of closing beyond the expiration of a loan commitment.

Purchasers should further note that in the current real estate market, banks and other lenders are imposing various restrictions on purchase financing. Such restrictions include requiring that a certain percentage of apartments in a building or group of buildings be sold before a lender will consider making a loan. Thus, it may be possible for a Purchaser of a Tower Unit to experience difficulty obtaining a loan in the event Sponsor is the owner of a substantial percentage of the Tower Units (e.g., more than fifty percent (50%) or seventy percent (70%)). Moreover, some lenders will not provide financing in a building or group of buildings where an investor other than the original sponsor has an ownership interest of ten percent (10%) or more. Further, in the event a Tower Unit Owner seeks to sell its Tower Unit, prospective purchasers may be unable to obtain institutional financing for such purchase as a result of the scenario described herein, regardless of the creditworthiness of the prospective purchaser.

(See the Sections entitled "Procedure to Purchase" and "Terms of Sale" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

6. Control by Sponsor; First Annual Tower Meeting

As used herein, the term "Initial Control Period" refers to the period ending on the later to occur of: (i) the fifth anniversary of the first closing of title to a Tower Unit by Sponsor pursuant to an Option Agreement (the "First Closing"); or (ii) the closing of title to Tower Units representing more than ninety percent (90%), both in number and in aggregate Common Interests, of all Tower Units. IN LIGHT OF SPONSOR'S UNCONDITIONAL RIGHT TO RENT OR LEASE, RATHER THAN SELL, THE UNITS OFFERED HEREUNDER, THE FOREGOING NINETY PERCENT (90%) CLOSING THRESHOLD MIGHT NEVER BE REACHED AND THE INITIAL CONTROL PERIOD MAY NEVER EXPIRE. AS A RESULT, TOWER UNIT OWNERS MAY NEVER GAIN CONTROL OF THE CONDOMINIUM BOARD OR THE TOWER BOARD.

As more particularly set forth in the Declaration, Condominium By-Laws and Tower By-Laws, a board of managers for the Tower Section (the "Tower Board") shall generally have the power and authority to govern the affairs of the Tower Section of the Condominium. During the Initial Control Period, Sponsor will be entitled to designate a majority of the members of the Tower Board (and therefore control such Board).

Until the First Annual Meeting of the Tower Unit Owners (the "First Annual Tower Meeting"), the Tower Board shall generally consist of five (5) persons designated by Sponsor from time to time. Until the First Annual Tower Meeting, Sponsor reserves the right to designate fewer than five (5) persons to the Tower Board. The First Annual Tower Meeting shall be held not later than thirty (30) days following the later to occur of: (a) the second anniversary of the First Closing; or (b) the closing of title to Tower Units representing at least fifty percent (50%) both in number and aggregate Common Interests of all Tower Units to Purchasers; and at such meeting, the incumbent five (5) member Tower Board designated by Sponsor will resign and a new Tower Board, consisting of five (5) members, will be installed, as described below. At meetings of the Tower Unit Owners, Sponsor will have the right to vote all of the Common Interests appurtenant to the Tower Units owned by Sponsor as it sees fit. IN LIGHT OF SPONSOR'S UNCONDITIONAL RIGHT TO RENT OR LEASE, RATHER THAN SELL, THE UNITS OFFERED HEREUNDER, THE FOREGOING FIFTY PERCENT (50%) CLOSING THRESHOLD MIGHT NEVER BE REACHED AND THE FIRST ANNUAL TOWER MEETING MAY NEVER OCCUR.

At elections of members to the Tower Board held at and after the First Annual Tower Meeting, but before the expiration of the Initial Control Period, Sponsor and/or its designee shall have the right to designate four (4) of the five (5) members of the Tower Board, who may be persons related to and/or affiliated with Sponsor, such designee or other Unsold Tower Unit Owners; and Sponsor, such designee and all other Tower Unit Owners shall have the right to elect the remaining one (1) member of the Tower Board who shall not be related to or affiliated with Sponsor, such designee or other Unsold Tower Unit Owners.

At elections of members to the Tower Board held after the expiration of the Initial Control Period, but while Sponsor and/or its designee still owns at least one (1) Tower Unit, Sponsor and/or its designee shall have the right to designate at least one (1) of the five (5) members of the Tower Board, who may be a person related to and/or affiliated with Sponsor, such designee or other Unsold Tower Unit Owners; and Sponsor, such designee and all other Tower Unit Owners shall have the right to elect the remaining members of the Tower Board who shall not be related to or affiliated with Sponsor, such designee or other Unsold Tower Unit Owners. Accordingly, from and after the expiration of the Initial Control Period, at least four (4) of the five (5) members of the Tower Board shall not be designated by or related to or affiliated with Sponsor, its designee or other Unsold Tower Unit Owners; and subject to the foregoing shall be elected by all Tower Unit Owners (including Sponsor, its designee or other Unsold Tower Unit Owner).

Moreover, during the Initial Control Period, the Tower Board may not, without the prior written consent of Sponsor: (i) make any addition, alteration or improvement to the Tower Limited Common Elements or any Tower Unit (unless required by any applicable Legal Requirements); (ii) assess any Tower Common Charges for the creation of, addition to or replacement of all or any reserve, contingency or surplus fund in respect of the Tower Section; (iii) increase or decrease the number of, or change the kind of, employees initially hired for the Tower Section, as provided for in Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation" set forth in the Plan; (iv) enter into any service or maintenance contract for work not covered by contracts in existence on the date of the First Closing or otherwise provide services in excess of those referred to in the Offering Plan, except as is required to reflect normal annual increases in operating services; (v) borrow money on behalf of the Tower Section, unless any such borrowing is approved by the owners of Tower Units representing at least seventy-five percent (75%) both in number and aggregate Common Interests of all Tower Units; or (vi) exercise any right of first refusal to lease or purchase a Tower Unit. However, the Tower Board may perform any function or take any action enumerated in subsections (i) through (v) hereinabove without the consent of Sponsor if, and only if, the performance of such function or the carrying out of such action is necessary, and no other alternative is available, either to enable the Tower Board to comply with any Legal Requirements, or to remedy any notice of violation entered against the Tower Section, or to comply with any proper work order by an insurer of the Tower Section, or for the health and safety (but not the general comfort or welfare) of the occupants of the Tower Section.

The Tower By-Laws do not include a provision that after the expiration of the Initial Control Period a majority of the Tower Board must be Tower Unit Owner-occupants or members of a Tower Unit Owner-occupant's household who are unrelated to Sponsor and its principals. Tower Unit Owner-occupants and non-resident Tower Unit Owners, including Sponsor, may have inherent conflicts on how the Tower Section should be managed because of their different reasons for purchasing, i.e., purchase as a home as opposed to as an investment.

In addition, because Sponsor reserves the unconditional right to rent or lease Units, there is no commitment to sell more Tower Units than the fifteen percent (15%) of such Units necessary to declare the Plan effective and, accordingly, Tower Unit Owners may never gain effective control and management of the Condominium and/or Tower Section, and the First Annual Tower Meeting may never occur.

The powers and duties necessary for or incidental to the administration of the affairs of the Condominium will be vested in the Condominium Board. All five (5) of the members of the Tower Board shall also serve as the Tower Section's five (5) designees to the seven (7) member Condominium Board. The Commercial Unit Owners shall have the right to designate the remaining two (2) of the seven (7) members of the Condominium Board, as more particularly described herein. Thus, during the Initial Control Period, Sponsor will also control the Condominium Board. In the event that prior to the First Annual Tower Meeting Sponsor designates fewer than five (5) persons to the Tower Board, such designees shall collectively hold five (5) of the seven (7) votes on the Condominium Board (in addition to the votes of any representatives of the Commercial Unit Owners serving on the Condominium Board who were designated by Sponsor as the owner of a Commercial Unit, as applicable).

Therefore, during this Initial Control Period Sponsor will be able to control the maintenance and operation of, and services to be provided to, the Condominium and the Tower Section; provided, however, that any changes made by Sponsor to Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation" set forth in the Plan must provide for the same level of services disclosed in Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation". Sponsor will also be able to control the determination of the Common Charges to be paid by all Unit Owners.

(See the Sections of the Plan entitled "Control By Sponsor", "The Tower Board" and "The Condominium Board" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

7. Delay in Collection of Common Charges

Sponsor shall have the right, in its sole and absolute discretion, to cause the Tower Board to waive the collection of some or all of the Tower Common Charges from Tower Unit Owners for a period of time prior to full occupancy of the Building (the "Waiver Period"); provided, however, that Sponsor shall be solely responsible for payment of all remaining expenses to operate the Tower Section during the Waiver Period (the "Operating Expenses"). In connection with the Waiver Period, (i) Sponsor will disclose the implementation of such Waiver Period in the amendment to the Plan disclosing the occurrence of the First Closing; (ii) Sponsor shall file an amendment to the Plan disclosing the expiration of the Waiver Period at least thirty (30) days prior to such expiration; (iii) that during any such Waiver Period, Sponsor will timely pay all expenses of the Condominium, including but not limited to insurance premiums and any reserve fund payments required by lenders to the extent otherwise included in Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation"; (iv) upon the commencement of the collection of Common Charges, there will not be an assessment for any item set forth in the approved budget for the Condominium; and (v) Sponsor shall remain obligated to update the budget for the Condominium, as provided in the Condominium Documents.

8. Condominium Board

The Condominium Board shall have the powers and duties necessary for or incidental to the administration of the affairs of the Condominium. Subject to such authority of the Condominium Board, generally, but subject to the Declaration, Condominium By-Laws and Tower By-Laws provisions governing the same, all determinations which affect only the Tower Section and do not adversely affect any of the Commercial Units, Commercial Unit Owners or the General Common Elements shall be made by the Tower Board. Any dispute between the Tower Board and the Condominium Board as to which entity shall be entitled to make any determination shall be settled by arbitration in the manner provided in the Condominium By-Laws. As more fully set forth (and except as may otherwise be provided) in the Condominium By-Laws, all determinations required to be made by the Condominium Board shall be by majority of the votes cast at any meeting at which a quorum is present.

The Condominium Board shall be comprised of seven (7) members: five (5) members designated by the Tower Board; one (1) member designated by the Rental Unit Owner; and one (1) member designated by the Commercial Unit Owners other than the Rental Unit Owner pursuant to the Condominium By-Laws. As a result, the members of the Condominium Board representing the Commercial Units will never control a majority vote thereon, and the Tower Section (which will initially and may thereafter be controlled by Sponsor or affiliates of Sponsor) will control a majority of the votes on the Condominium Board. Moreover, it is initially intended that Sponsor may own one (1) or more Commercial Units and may, in such capacity, have the right to designate additional members to the Condominium Board in addition to the rights reserved to Sponsor with respect to the election and/or designation of members of the Tower Board. Tower Unit Owners shall not be entitled to vote in their individual capacities as Unit Owners at any meeting of the Condominium Board. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "The Condominium Board" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

9. Additional Building Work

Construction in general is a complicated process which requires the coordination of numerous concurrent tasks, contractors and suppliers and the balancing of complex mechanical and architectural systems, all of which is subject to unanticipated delays and difficulties and necessarily involves noise, disruption and inconvenience. Thus, for a period of time following the First Closing (through, including and beyond the closing of title to any particular Purchaser's Tower Unit), work should be expected to be undertaken and continue by or on behalf of: (i) Sponsor to complete the balance of the Building; (ii) individual Tower Unit Owners within their Tower Units (to perform custom renovations, etc.); and (iii) the Commercial Unit Owners to complete construction, build-out, furnishing and equipping their Units. During at least the First Year of Condominium Operation, construction workers and related personnel of Sponsor and others will be at the Property from time to time performing construction work, making adjustments and performing various other tasks related to the completion of construction, fitting out of, and moving into, the Tower Units and other portions of the Building from time to time. Various systems, including, but not limited to, water supply, air conditioning, heating, cooling, gas, electric, ventilating and other systems, and elevators, may require more than a year after any particular Tower Unit closing to complete and may be disrupted temporarily and from time to time (systems constituting Common Elements may require more than a year after any particular Tower Unit closing to complete, but all systems within a Tower Unit that must be completed as a requirement for the issuance of a temporary Certificate of Occupancy covering such Tower Unit will be functioning at the time of closing). Elevators and personnel may be taken out of service and diverted to facilitate construction and exterior hoists may be in place during at least the year following the First Closing, and from time to time thereafter, as needed, in connection with construction being performed in Units by the Unit Owners thereof, Sponsor and/or tenants of such Units. Various other adjustments, to windows and elevators and other systems, may require eighteen (18) months or more after the First Closing to complete. Sponsor may not fully complete the decoration or finishing of the lobby, corridors, elevator finishes and other portions of the Building, including, but not limited to, installing light fixtures, painting, hanging wall coverings or laying carpeting, until that particular floor is fully occupied by Unit Owners or, if additional construction within a Unit is anticipated, for some period thereafter. All of the foregoing work and conditions will create a noisy and otherwise disruptive condition in the Building during the period such work is being performed. Certain portions of the Common Elements may be completed before or after completion of any particular Purchaser's Unit. As a result, certain amenities and benefits anticipated to be available to Tower Unit Owners may not be available until such other portions of the Building are completed and fully operational. Sponsor shall have no liability whatsoever in the event these services are delayed, not made available, or discontinued or disrupted. Further, the Boards and/or Sponsor may refuse to permit a Tower Unit Owner to perform alterations in a Tower Unit until such time as the Building has been completed and permanent certificate(s) of occupancy have been obtained therefor. Even where such alterations are permitted, the Boards and/or Sponsor may impose conditions and deadlines upon the planning, performing and completion of such work. No assurance can be given with regard to the accuracy of any projected schedules or completion dates set forth herein or with respect to the duration of any interim service period or periods of potential disruption to the Unit Owners and their tenants or occupants, all such dates and timetables, to the extent provided, being only good faith estimates.

Based upon the current construction schedule, Sponsor presently contemplates that, unless delayed by weather, casualty, labor difficulties (including work stoppages and strikes), late delivery and/or the inability to obtain on a timely basis or otherwise, materials or equipment, governmental restrictions, acts of god or other events beyond its reasonable control construction of the Building will be sufficiently completed to permit closings of title to Tower Units to begin on or about July 1, 2015. Prospective Purchasers should note, however, that the Units will be completed at differing times over a period that may begin prior to and/or extend significantly beyond such date. Sponsor will have no liability to any Purchaser, nor will a Purchaser be entitled to any credit, offset or reduction in the purchase price for his or her Tower Unit or otherwise be relieved from any obligations under the Option Agreement, in the event that the First Closing occurs earlier or later than the targeted date or the time to complete or to close title to such Purchaser's Unit is accelerated, delayed or postponed by Sponsor; provided, however, that in the event the actual or anticipated commencement date of the projected First Year of Condominium Operation is to be delayed by six (6) months or more, Sponsor will amend the Plan to include a revised Condominium budget with current projections and if: (i) such amended budget exceeds the projected Condominium budget set forth herein by twenty-five percent (25%) or more; or (ii) the First Closing does not occur within twelve (12) months after July 1, 2015, the date set forth in Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation" as the commencement date for the projected First Year of Condominium Operation, then in either case Sponsor will offer all Purchasers (other than Purchasers who are then in default beyond any applicable grace period under their Option Agreements, if the Plan has been declared effective) the right to rescind their Option Agreements within not less than fifteen (15) days after the presentation date of the amendment containing such revised budget or after such twelve (12) month period, as the case may be, and any Purchasers electing rescission pursuant to such offer will have their Deposit and any interest accrued thereon returned. Purchasers' rights as described in the preceding sentence are in lieu of any other rights or remedies which may be available pursuant to any applicable law, regulation, statute or otherwise, all of which shall be deemed to have been waived by all Purchasers. As set forth in the Section entitled "Effective Date" in Part I of the Plan, no closing of title to any Unit offered hereunder will take place prior to the Plan being declared effective.

10. Rental Unit; Rental Apartments; Rent Stabilization; Inclusionary Housing

The Rental Unit, located principally on portions of the Subcellar Level through Floor 7, is anticipated to be operated as a rental apartment building with fifty-five (55) apartments located on portions of Floors 3 through 7 of the Building (each, a "Rental Apartment" and collectively, the "Rental Apartments").

All Units in the Condominium are located within the Building. However, the Rental Unit, which contains the Rental Apartments that Sponsor intends to develop pursuant to the requirements of the City's Inclusionary Housing Program and which are intended to be affordable in perpetuity, is considered by the Zoning Resolution to be located in a separate "building segment". To qualify as a "building segment", Section 12-10 et. seq. of the Zoning Resolution requires that a separate entrance serving only the dwellings within that segment be provided. Accordingly, the Rental Unit has its own entrance, which will be located on the Ground Floor (the "Rental Lobby") on West 62nd Street to be used by occupants of the Rental Unit. The Rental Lobby will provide access to the elevators (and surrounding area) servicing the Rental Unit.

Occupants of the Rental Apartments will have access to a laundry room and community room located within the Rental Unit on the Cellar Level and Ground Floor of the Building, respectively, as well as storage rooms throughout the Rental Unit, which facilities are for the sole use of the Rental Unit. The remaining amenities in the Building (including, without limitation, the Courtyard, Function Room, the Tower Gym, the Children's Playroom, the Screening Room and the Screening Room Lounge, the Resident Lounge and the Bicycle Storage Room) are for the sole and exclusive use of the Tower Unit Owners and their guests. Purchasers are further advised that the Rental Unit Owner has the right to use any portion of the Rental Unit as a sales or rental office or model apartment consistent with the first-class residential nature of the Building.

If, as anticipated (but not represented or warranted), Section 421-a benefits are awarded to the Condominium, the Rental Apartments will be rent-stabilized under the Rent Stabilization Law and Code. Purchasers are advised that during any period in which a Rental Apartment is governed by the Rent Stabilization Law and Code (any such period, a "Rent Stabilization Period"), absent the prior written consent of the Rental Unit Owner, which consent may be withheld by the Rental Unit Owner in its sole discretion, neither the Condominium Board nor the Tower Board may make any determination or take any action that constitutes a Decrease in Service, as same may be finally determined by New York State Homes and Community Renewal or any successor agency thereof ("HCR"), the New York State Division of Housing and Community Renewal or any successor agency thereof ("DHCR") or a court of competent jurisdiction. As used in this Plan, "Decrease in Service" means, during any Rent Stabilization Period, the failure to maintain any essential or required service in the Building (whether a Building-wide service or a service provided to the Rental Unit and/or the Rental Apartments), which results, or could potentially result, in the issuance by HCR or DHCR under the Rent Stabilization Law and Code, of a rent reduction order with respect to a Rental Apartment. The foregoing shall not include a de minimis decrease in service as listed in any policy statement issued by HCR or DHCR from time to time.

Sponsor intends to develop the Rental Apartments pursuant to the requirements of the City's Inclusionary Housing Program as set forth in Section 23-90 et. seq. of the New York City Zoning Resolution. In connection therewith, Sponsor will be required to submit an application to the New York City Department of Housing Preservation and Development ("HPD") and, if the application is approved by HPD, enter into a regulatory agreement with such agency which regulatory agreement will govern the use and occupancy of the Rental Apartments. Such regulatory agreement will include provisions requiring that the Rental Apartments remain affordable for the life of the Building.

(See the Special Risk entitled "Partial Exemption from Real Estate Taxes" and the Sections of the Plan entitled "Notes to Schedule A" and "Partial Real Estate Tax Exemption (Section 421-a)" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

11. Partial Exemption from Real Estate Taxes

Sponsor intends to apply to the City of New York for real estate tax benefits for the Property pursuant to NYS Real Property Tax Law ("RPTL") Section 421-a ("Section 421-a"). As the Property is located in the Geographic Exclusion Area (as defined under RPTL), Sponsor intends to obtain such real estate tax benefits by setting aside twenty percent (20%) of the apartments in the Condominium for low income households (i.e., the Rental Apartments). As required by HPD, Sponsor will be required to enter into a restrictive declaration pursuant to which it will agree, inter alia, that the Rental Apartments will be registered as rent stabilized apartments with the DHCR and remain affordable to low income households permanently.

NEITHER SPONSOR, SPONSOR'S COUNSEL, SPONSOR'S 421-a TAX COUNSEL, SELLING AGENT, MANAGING AGENT NOR ANY OTHER PERSON MAKES ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY THAT A PARTIAL TAX EXEMPTION FROM REAL ESTATE TAXES UNDER SECTION 421-A WILL BE GRANTED OR, AS TO THE AMOUNT, IF ANY, OF THE MINIMUM TAX WHICH WILL BE ASSESSED AGAINST THE TOWER UNITS OR THE AMOUNT OF REAL ESTATE TAXES PAYABLE AT ANY TIME BY ANY TOWER UNIT OWNER. There is no guaranty or assurance that the criteria for Section 421-a benefits will be satisfied and neither Sponsor nor Sponsor's Counsel, Sponsor's 421-a Tax Counsel offers any opinion with respect to the eligibility of the Tower Units for Section 421-a benefits. If, for any reason the application is not approved by HPD, the Tower Units will be subject to full taxation and will receive no benefits under Section 421-a. In such case Purchasers will not be entitled to any right of rescission, reduction in price or other credit or concession.

(See the Special Risk entitled "Rental Unit; Rental Apartments; Rent Stabilization; Inclusionary Housing" and the Sections of the Plan entitled "Notes to Schedule A" and "Partial Real Estate Tax Exemption (Section 421-a)" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

12. Recreational Facility

Tower Unit Owners will be entitled to use the health club and ancillary improvements (collectively, and as the same may exist from time to time, the "Recreational Facility") located on certain connected and integrated portions of the cellar levels of the buildings located on

Parcel J-1 and Parcel J-2 (respectively, "Building J-1" (also known as "The Aldyn") and "Building J-2" (also known as "The Ashley")). Tower Unit Owners will be able to access the Recreational Facility through a hallway located on the Cellar Level of the Building. Tower Unit Owners will share use and maintenance of the Recreational Facility with the residents of Building J-1 and Building J-2, and such residents will access the Recreational Facility from their respective Buildings. Purchasers are advised that the Recreational Facility may be crowded during periods of peak usage. The Recreational Facility includes, among other things, separate men's and women's locker rooms (each with a sauna and steam room), a main exercise room with related equipment, an indoor lap pool, hot tub, treatment rooms, a yoga studio, a basketball court, a Pilates studio, a bowling alley, a squash court, a golf simulator, billiards, rock climbing wall and ping pong. The foregoing amenities are regularly available Monday through Friday from approximately 6:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. and from approximately 4:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m., and Saturday and Sunday from approximately 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m, as such hours may be changed from time to time by the SFOA Board.

The Recreational Facility will be operated by the Shared Facilities Operating Association ("SFOA") as described below. Notwithstanding the foregoing, pursuant to the Shared Facilities Declaration (as defined herein) the SFOA will be authorized and, at the direction of the board of managers of The Aldyn Condominium (the "Aldyn Board"), in its capacity as SFOA Administrator (as defined in the Shared Facilities Declaration), the SFOA will be obligated, to enter into license agreements with Sponsor for any purpose (including, without limitation, for sales or marketing purposes) or any other party in order to provide for the exclusive use of all or any portion of the Recreational Facility (including during scheduled hours of operation) by schools, community groups or any other person or entity the SFOA (or the Aldyn Board, as Administrator of the SFOA) shall designate. Each such license agreement shall be on such terms and conditions as the SFOA (or, if applicable, the Aldyn Board, as Administrator of the SFOA) shall determine.

The Aldyn Board, the Owner of Parcel J-2 and Sponsor have entered into a contract with LPMG LLC (d/b/a La Palestra; hereinafter, "La Palestra"), as Recreational Facility Manager, to provide management of the Recreational Facility (including, without limitation, cleaning, lifeguards and pool supplies) (such contract, the "Recreational Facility Management Agreement"). La Palestra is not affiliated with Sponsor, the Aldyn Board, or the Owner of Parcel J-2. Sponsor, the Aldyn Board, and the Owner of Parcel J-2 have each assigned their respective interests in the Recreational Facility Management Agreement to the SFOA. The costs owed to La Palestra pursuant to the Recreational Facility Management Agreement are anticipated to be shared by the Aldyn Board, the Owner of Parcel J-2 and the Condominium Board upon commencement of residential occupancy at the Condominium (i.e., the First Closing). The sharing of this cost will be based on the respective Recreational Facility Allocation Percentages of the Condominium, Building J-1 and Building J-2, as determined from time to time by the SFOA Board. As defined in the Shared Facilities Declaration, the "Recreational Facility Allocation Percentage" of the Condominium means, as of the First Closing, 40.8%, which is subject to adjustment from time to time by the SFOA Board.

The Tower Units will pay the entirety of the Condominium's Recreational Facility expense based on each Tower Unit's respective percentage of Common Interest.

Sponsor makes no representation or warranty that La Palestra will continue be the Recreational Facility Manager during the First Year of Condominium Operation, or at any time thereafter. Purchasers are advised that the SFOA has the sole authority to make determinations with respect to the terms of the Recreational Facility Management Agreement and the replacement and/or retention of the Recreational Facility Manager.

A copy of the executed Recreational Facility Management Agreement is available for review at no charge, and copying, at Purchaser's expense, in the Sales Office.

(See the Sections entitled "Introduction", "Schedules and Notes – Schedule B" and "Agreements Binding on the Condominium" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

13. Shared Facilities Declaration

Sponsor, the Aldyn Board and the Owner of Parcel J-2 have entered into a Declaration of Covenants, Restrictions, Conditions and Reciprocal Easements, dated June 7, 2011 and recorded on June 21, 2011 in the Office of the City Register, New York County as CRFN 2011000221138 (the "Shared Facilities Declaration"), providing for operation of the Recreational Facility by the SFOA. The Shared Facilities Declaration also provides for operation of a courtyard located on Parcels J-1 and J-2, which the Condominium does not have access to and is not responsible for the cost to maintain or operate.

Sponsor, the Aldyn Board and the Owner of Parcel J-2 (in such capacities, collectively, the "Recreational Facility Members") are responsible for the costs to operate and maintain the Recreational Facility. Sponsor is presently the Recreational Facility Member for the Property for purposes of the Shared Facilities Declaration. Upon recording of the Condominium Declaration, such status will be transferred to the Condominium Board, and the Condominium Board (acting through the Tower Board) will be the Recreational Facility Member for the Condominium. At such time, the Condominium Board shall appoint a member of the Tower Board (the "Vice President for SFOA Liaison") to attend and represent it at meetings of the SFOA and to vote on behalf of the Condominium at such meetings.

The SFOA will assess each Recreational Facility Member assessments ("Recreational Facility Assessments") for its share of the cost of operating and maintaining the Recreational Facility. The entire amount of the Condominium's Recreational Facility Assessments will be borne by the Tower Section. The Tower Board will be obligated to assess and collect from each Tower Unit Owner, as part of such Owner's Tower Common Charges, such Tower Unit Owner's respective proportionate share of the Recreational Facility Assessments assessed to the Condominium by the SFOA and to remit those fees to the SFOA to pay Recreational Facility Permitted Costs. If the Condominium Board, as a Recreational Facility Member, fails to pay any Recreational Facility Assessment, the SFOA may take action against the Condominium Board for such assessment, or against individual Tower Unit Owners for their proportionate share of such assessment. In addition, if any Recreational Facility Assessment payable by the Condominium to the SFOA shall remain unpaid for sixty (60) days after the due date thereof, the right of residents of the Tower Units to use the Recreational Facility shall be suspended (by such means as the SFOA Board shall elect, in its discretion) until such amounts plus any accrued late charges are paid in full.

(See the Sections entitled "Introduction" and "Rights and Obligations of the Unit Owners and the Boards of Managers" and "Agreements Binding on the Condominium" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

14. Resident Manager's Unit

Unit 3U is anticipated to be used as an apartment by the Resident Manager (the "Resident Manager's Unit"). On or prior to the closing of title to fifty-one percent (51%) of the Tower Units offered hereunder, Sponsor will sell the Resident Manager's Unit to the Tower Board. Based on a total expense of $1,758,928.36 (a Purchase Price of $1,700,000 plus $58,928.36 in closing costs), in respect of such Resident Manager's Unit, at the Closing to each Tower Unit, the Purchaser thereof, as a closing cost of such Purchaser's Tower Unit, will be required to make a payment (each such payment, an "RMU Payment", and collectively, the "RMU Payments") to the Tower Board in an amount equal to such Purchaser's prorata share of the Purchase Price of the Resident Manager's Unit plus closing costs as aforesaid determined in proportion to their respective Common Interests, as set forth on Schedule A – "Purchase Prices and Related Information." The RMU Payment must be paid by bank check or Purchaser's personal certified check payable to the Tower Board and the same shall be separate from the Working Capital Fund contribution otherwise required of each Purchaser. Sponsor reserves the right to use a different Tower Unit as the Resident Manager's Unit, and in such case the purchase price of such different Tower Unit will not increase by more than fifteen percent (15%) of the purchase price of Unit 3U. Closing costs incurred in connection with the transfer of the Resident Manager's Unit will be paid from the Working Capital Fund.

ALTHOUGH THE CLOSING OF TITLE TO THE RESIDENT MANAGER'S UNIT IS ANTICIPATED TO OCCUR ON OR PRIOR TO THE CLOSING OF TITLE TO FIFTY-ONE PERCENT (51%) OF THE TOWER UNITS OFFERED HEREUNDER, AT CLOSING EACH PURCHASER OF A TOWER UNIT WILL BE REQUIRED TO MAKE THE RMU PAYMENT TO THE TOWER BOARD. Sponsor shall file an amendment to the Plan disclosing the sale of the Resident Manager's Unit promptly after the same has occurred.

The RMU Payments shall be held in the Working Capital Fund. At the Closing of title to the Resident Manager's Unit, the Tower Board shall use the RMU Payments to pay for a portion of the Purchase Price thereof. If insufficient working capital exists at such time in the Tower Board's account, the portion of the Purchase Price not covered by the RMU Payments (the "RMU Balance") will be payable by a promissory note (the "RMU Note") which will mature three (3) years after the closing on such Resident Manager's Unit. The Tower Board will not be responsible for payment of interest in connection with the RMU Note. The principal balance shall be payable in full to Sponsor by the Tower Board out of the Working Capital Fund at the time of maturity (i.e., three (3) years after the closing on the Resident Manager's Unit). In the event that a Closing occurs after maturity, Purchasers shall continue to make RMU Payments to the Tower Board at their respective Closings, which amounts shall be used to replenish the Working Capital Fund. Payment of the RMU Note will be secured by a first lien on the Resident Manager's Unit. Sponsor does not intend to refinance or extend the RMU Note and related loan at maturity. Purchasers are advised that refinancing by another lender may not be available and that the Tower Board, in order to repay the purchase money note, may be required to assess all Tower Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests.

In the event the Tower Board defaults under the note, including, but not limited to a default as the result of the Tower Board's failure to pay the balance of the purchase money note due at maturity, Sponsor may foreclose on the Resident Manager's Unit and if the proceeds from the sale of such Unit are insufficient to satisfy the outstanding mortgage balance and other fees incurred, the Tower Unit Owners could be liable for the deficiency. In the event of such a foreclosure, the Tower Board will be without a Resident Manager's Unit and, accordingly, alternate arrangements will be necessary to shelter the Resident Manager in the Building or within such distance of the Building as is then required by law.

Sponsor shall enter into a lease agreement (the "RMU Lease") with the Tower Board for the Resident Manager's Unit, for a term beginning on or about the First Closing and extending to the date that the Resident Manager's Unit is transferred to the Tower Board. The monthly rent shall be in an amount equal to the sum of Common Charges and real estate taxes (plus any additional expenses) attributable to the Resident Manager's Unit. The Tower Board shall pay all expenses of the Resident Manager's Unit from and after the First Closing regardless of when the closing of title to such Unit occurs as aforesaid.

There is also no guaranty that the Resident Manager will be residing in the Building at the time of closing of any particular Tower Unit although all Legal Requirements with respect thereto will be complied with, including the Administrative Code of the City of New York, Section 27-2052, et seq. All costs and expenses of the Resident Manager's Unit and repairs thereto, as well as all utilities serving same, shall be expenses of the Tower Board at all times.

(See the Sections entitled "Introduction" and "Schedules and Notes" – Schedule B in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

15. Riverside Boulevard and 61st Street

Pursuant to the Restrictive Declaration (as defined herein) and the Mapping Agreement (as defined herein), Sponsor, together with other Development Parcel Owners, is obligated to construct certain streets in Riverside South. It is anticipated, but not represented or guaranteed, that the City of New York will accept dedication of these streets, sections of which are adjacent to the Building (i.e., Riverside Boulevard and 61st Street), after the streets are constructed. If the City of New York does not accept dedication of Riverside Boulevard and 61st Street, they will continue to be owned by Hudson Waterfront Associates, L.P. ("HWA"), or an affiliate thereof, which will be responsible for maintenance and repair of, and removal of snow from, such streets. Purchasers are advised that HWA may, at its option, charge the Condominium for its pro-rata share of the real estate taxes, if any, payable with respect to Riverside Boulevard and 61st Street, based on the percentage interest of the Condominium in HWA, and until such time that the City of New York accepts dedication of Riverside Boulevard and 61st Street, the Condominium reserves the right to charge Unit Owners for any such costs in proportion to their respective Common Interests. However, inasmuch as the City is obligated under the Mapping Agreement to accept dedication of the streets once they are substantially completed, Sponsor believes, but does not warrant or represent, that the City's failure to accept dedication of the streets is only a remote possibility.

16. Riverside South Park Areas

The Riverside South project anticipates development of an approximately 24 acre riverfront park, extending the existing Riverside Park from 72nd Street to 59th Street ("Riverside Park South"), as well as including additional park area in the "Southern Open Space", the park area at the southern end of Riverside South to the east of Freedom Place South.

Riverside Park South and the Southern Open Space are Park Areas. The Park Areas are being developed in phases. The Southern Open Space, Phase I, Phase II, Phase III, Phase IV and the playground included in Phase V have been completed. The balance of Phase V, as well as proposed Phases VI and VII, of the Park Areas remain to be built. Each Development Parcel Owner in Riverside South is obligated pursuant to the Restrictive Declaration and Operating Agreement to pay a defined portion of the cost of construction of the Park Areas in conjunction with the development of that Development Parcel Owner's Development Parcel to a designated party responsible for building the Park Areas. As Sponsor owns only the Property, Sponsor makes no representation as to any future development of Development Parcels in Riverside South and the requisite appurtenant Park Areas other than to confirm that Sponsor intends to contribute all payments required to be contributed by the Development Parcel Owner of Parcel K-1 toward construction of the Park Areas.

As of the date of this Plan, there are discussions occurring with the City of New York to modify the Restrictive Declaration to revise the design and phasing of the Park Areas and to provide that the New York City Department of Parks and Recreation will assume responsibility for building the next phase of the Park Area. Sponsor makes no representation regarding the likelihood that these discussions will result in a modification to the Restrictive Declaration. Any proposed modification to the Restrictive Declaration will require the approval of the New York City Planning Commission. Until these discussions are concluded, the City has suspended development of the Park Areas and has not indicated when it will recommence development of the Park Areas. Accordingly, Sponsor does not represent or warrant that all or any portion of the remaining Park Areas will be built, or if built, when construction will commence or be completed.

Purchasers are advised that costs incurred by the Condominium for maintenance, operating and insuring the Park Areas will be borne solely by the Tower Units Owners in accordance with their proportionate share of such assessment.

(See the Sections entitled "Introduction" and Note 15 in the "Notes to Schedule B") in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

17. 62nd Street Public Access Area

The portion of West 62nd Street located between Freedom Place and Riverside Boulevard is a "Public Access Area" (as defined in the Mapping Agreement and Restrictive Declaration) rather than a public street (the "62nd Street Public Access Area"), and thus will not be dedicated to the City of New York. In connection with the construction of the Building, Sponsor is constructing an approximately five- (5) foot wide extension of the sidewalk adjacent to the 62nd Street Public Access Area. The 62nd Street Public Access Area, as contemplated by the Mapping Agreement, is to be conveyed to the RSPOA. The 62nd Street Public Access Area thus is not part of the Property and will not be part of the Condominium.

Pursuant to the Restrictive Declaration, Mapping Agreement and the RSPO Declaration, a "Public Access Easement" must be granted over the 62nd Street Public Access Area. This will be a permanent surface level (and above) easement for use by the City of New York and the general public for vehicular and pedestrian access. The rules and regulations of the Department of Transportation shall apply to the Public Access Easement in the same manner as if the Public Access Easement were a public street. Thus, the Department of Transportation may place traffic signs within the easement area for regulation of traffic and parking, and all laws pertaining to vehicular and pedestrian traffic and parking shall apply and shall be enforceable by the City of New York, in the same manner as if the Public Access Easement were a public street.

Once the 62nd Street Public Access Area is conveyed to the RSPOA, even if the easement to the City of New York has not yet been granted, it will be the obligation of the "Dominant Owner" (as such term is defined in the RSPO Declaration) of the 62nd Street Public Access Area (and, once granted, the Public Access Easement thereon), to implement and oversee the maintenance and repair (and to procure and maintain insurance) of same, including any structural supports, in accordance with the standards of the Department of Transportation for maintenance of public streets. The cost of such physical maintenance and repair will be shared proportionately by the Owner of Parcel J-2, the Aldyn Board, the Owner of Parcel K-2, and the Condominium Board, in accordance with the proportions provided for in the RSPO Declaration and the K-2 ZLDA (as defined herein). The Dominant Owner shall bill the other owners for their respective proportionate shares of this expense, which may include, without limitation, the eventual creation of a reserve fund for future repair and maintenance work, as the Dominant Owner shall in its discretion determine, and each of the other owners shall pay its respective share to the Dominant Owner. The costs allocated to the Condominium will be charged to Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests. As the owner, RSPOA is responsible for payment of real estate taxes for the 62nd Street Public Access Area as well as the other Public Access Areas created under the Mapping Agreement and will charge the Sponsor, or the Condominium Board, as applicable, in accordance with the RSPO Declaration.

Purchasers are further advised that until such time that the 62nd Street Public Access Area is conveyed to the RSPOA, the Owner of Parcel J-2, the Aldyn Board and Sponsor (or the Condominium Board following the First Closing) are responsible for maintenance, procuring and maintaining insurance and payment of real estate taxes to the City of New York with respect to the 62nd Street Public Access Area. Sponsor, or the Condominium Board, as applicable, reserves the right to charge Unit Owners for such amounts owed by the Condominium in proportion to their respective Common Interests.

(See the Section entitled "Agreements Binding on the Condominium" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

18. Miller Highway (a/k/a West Side Highway)

The West Side Highway (the elevated portion of which between 59th Street and 72nd Street is also known as the Miller Highway) is located between the Property and the Hudson River. Under the Restrictive Declaration and other applicable documents as currently written, the West Side Highway may be relocated by the City of New York, subject to federal, state and local government approvals, to a point closer to the Property, but such relocation may be underground (i.e., a covered roadway) under Riverside Boulevard and portions of the future Park Areas. Sponsor makes no representation or warranty as to if or when the City of New York will exercise its right to cause the relocation of the Miller Highway, or whether the necessary approvals will be granted, or how close to the Property the Miller Highway will be if it is relocated. (See the Section entitled "Agreements Binding on the Condominium" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

19. 59th Street Generating Station

A steam and power generating facility is operated by Consolidated Edison Company of New York, Inc. (the "59th Street Generating Station") on the block bounded by 11th and 12th Avenues and West 58th and West 59th Streets. An environmental consultant who has studied that site has advised Sponsor that no significant air quality impacts would be predicted on the Property from the 59th Street Generating Station, using New York City Environmental Quality Review evaluation criteria. (See the Section entitled "Introduction" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

20. Conveyance and Development of Parcel K-2

Purchasers are advised that Sponsor, in its capacity as Development Parcel Owner of Parcel K-2, has entered into that certain Purchase and Sale Agreement (the "K-2 PSA"), dated February 4, 2013, with Collegiate School, Inc. ("Collegiate School"). The K-2 PSA contemplates, among other things, fee title to Parcel K-2 will be conveyed by Sponsor to Collegiate School, and in connection with such conveyance, Sponsor and Collegiate School will enter into: (i) an easement for light and air for the benefit of Parcel K-1, and (ii) a zoning lot development agreement that will govern the use of Parcel K-2 for the benefit of Parcel K-1 (the "K-2 ZLDA"). A school is anticipated to be constructed on Parcel K-2 subsequent to such conveyance. Sponsor makes no representation that Parcel K-2 will ultimately be conveyed to Collegiate School. (See the Section entitled "Agreements Binding on the Condominium" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

21. Prohibition Against Advertising

Purchasers are prohibited from listing their Tower Units for resale with any broker or otherwise advertising, promoting or publicizing the availability of their Tower Units for sale prior to the closing of title thereto. Any such listing of its Tower Unit or form of advertising, promotion or publicizing of the Tower Unit by a Purchaser or its agents or representatives prior to such Closing date shall be an Event of Default (as defined in the Option Agreement) under such Purchaser's Option Agreement, entitling Sponsor to remedies set forth therein. In addition, Purchaser may not and shall not advertise, list or sell its Tower Unit for twelve (12) months after acquisition of the Tower Unit (i.e., the transfer of title by Sponsor to Purchaser). Any such conveyance in violation of the foregoing will be voidable by Sponsor, and shall be an Event of Default under such Purchaser's Option Agreement.

22. No Bond or Other Security

No bond or other security has been posted by Sponsor to secure its obligation to pay Common Charges, special assessments or real estate taxes with respect to the Unsold Tower Units. Sponsor represents that it has the financial resources to pay such amounts with respect to the Unsold Tower Units and agrees to pay such amounts. (See the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

23. Sponsor's Right to Lease Unsold Tower Units

Sponsor will endeavor in good faith to sell, but nevertheless reserves the unconditional right to rent or lease, rather than sell, the Units offered hereunder. As a result, a Purchaser may be acquiring a Unit that has been previously occupied, but unless otherwise specifically agreed to in writing by Sponsor and such Purchaser, such Unit will be delivered at closing free and clear of all leases and tenancies. In addition, because Sponsor reserves the unconditional right to rent or lease Units, there is no commitment to sell more Tower Units than the fifteen percent (15%) of such Units necessary to declare the Plan effective and, accordingly, Tower Unit Owners may never gain effective control and management of the Condominium and/or Tower Section, and the First Annual Tower Meeting may never occur. (See the Sections entitled "Introduction", "Procedure to Purchase" and "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

24. Changes in the Commercial Units

Sponsor and any successor Commercial Unit Owner will have the right to alter, divide, subdivide and combine portions of its Units subject to the provisions of all applicable Legal Requirements, the Declaration and Condominium By-Laws. Sponsor and any successor Commercial Unit Owner will have the right to use such Unit for a purpose other than its currently planned use. (See the Section entitled "Commercial Units" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

25. Transfer Taxes; Mansion Taxes; Closing Costs

Purchasers shall be obligated (as is customary in condominium offerings) to pay at the closing of title to their Unit(s) the New York City Real Property Transfer Tax and New York State Real Estate Transfer Tax, notwithstanding the fact that these taxes are, by law the primary obligation of the seller. For purposes of calculating the transfer taxes payable, the amounts of such taxes will be included in the consideration subject to such tax. Currently, for the purchase of a single Residential Unit, the New York City Real Property Transfer Tax is one percent (1%) of the consideration paid for a Unit if such consideration is $500,000 or less and 1.425% of the consideration if such consideration is more than $500,000; and the New York State Real Estate Transfer Tax is presently $2 for each $500 (or fractional part thereof) of the consideration paid for a Residential Unit. Purchasers shall also be obligated to pay the New York State Additional Tax pursuant to Article 31 of the New York State Tax Law, commonly referred to as the "Mansion Tax," currently (as of the date of the filing of this Plan) one percent (1%) of the total consideration paid when such consideration is $1,000,000 or more, which tax by law is the primary obligation of the Purchaser. Additionally, Purchasers shall be required to pay various other additional closing costs, fees and adjustments.

The purchase price, together with transfer taxes and any other amounts payable by Purchasers which are the obligation of Sponsor, will be added together by the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance and the New York City Department of Finance or, collectively, the "taxing authorities" to arrive at total consideration for transfer tax and Mansion Tax purposes. However, Sponsor makes no representation regarding the calculation of such taxes or of the "consideration" upon which the taxing authorities may base such taxes and shall have no liability with respect thereto. Purchasers should consult with their own counsel and/or tax advisors. (See the Sections entitled "Procedure to Purchase" and "Unit Closing Costs and Adjustments" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

26. No Reserve Fund/Working Capital Fund

Other than as set forth in Schedule B, no reserve fund is being established for the Condominium. Sponsor has elected not to provide for such a reserve fund for capital replacements or repairs, because the Building will be newly constructed. The Boards, each in its discretion, and subject to certain restrictions contained in the Condominium By-Laws, may decide in the future to create a reserve fund by special assessment or by increases in Common Charges. A Working Capital Fund will be established through payments made therefor by each Tower Unit Purchaser to the Tower Board at Closing to be held or used for working capital and for such other appropriate purposes as the Tower Board may determine. (See the Section entitled "Working Capital Fund" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

27. Real Estate Taxes

The estimated real estate taxes payable in respect of each Tower Unit were calculated based on estimates provided by Sponsor's real estate tax attorney with respect to anticipated assessed values and applicable tax rates for the projected First Year of Condominium Operation for the Tower Units in the aggregate, and then among the Tower Units on the basis of their Tower Common Interest. Upon determination of individual tax lots and individual assessments for the Units, the New York City tax authorities may allocate taxes among the Units on some other basis or some other basis as among groupings of such Units other than relative Common Interest, and, if so, Units having the same or similar Common Interest may pay different real estate taxes and/or taxes may differ from those set forth on Schedule A. In addition, the New York City tax authorities may assess taxes against the Building in a different manner and in a different amount than that assumed by Sponsor's real estate tax attorney and, if so, Unit Owners may pay significantly different real estate taxes than those set forth on Schedule A. Sponsor can only estimate, based on reasonable, professional third party expert assumptions, what the real estate taxes for each Unit will be. Only the New York City tax authorities will make this determination upon the filing of tax lots. (See the Sections entitled "Schedules and Notes" – Schedule A and "Real Estate Taxes" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

Until the Units are separately assessed, each Tower Unit Owner will pay a share of the Property's real estate taxes for the period in question calculated on the basis of such Unit's Common Interest. The Tower Board will pay (or cause to be paid) such real estate taxes timely to the Department of Finance of The City of New York, or directly to Sponsor if Sponsor has paid such taxes, so that no lien will be placed on any portion of the Tower Section or on any Tower Unit. If Sponsor fails to pay real estate taxes attributable to any Unsold Tower Unit in a timely manner and as a result of such failure a lien is placed on the Tower Section and/or any other Unit, Sponsor will immediately cause such lien to be removed at its sole cost and expense. If Tower Unit Owners fail to pay their pro rata share of real estate taxes as set forth above, the Tower Board will be entitled to assess late charges and/or place a lien on their Units as if such unpaid share were Tower Common Charges. (See the subsection entitled "Collection and Lien for Non-Payment of Common Charges" in the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of the Unit Owners and the Board of Managers" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.) A Unit Owner will not be responsible for the payment of, and will not be subject to any lien arising from the non-payment of real estate taxes assessed against any other Units. At such time as a Unit is separately assessed and separate tax bills are issued, the Unit Owner will pay such taxes directly to the taxing authority.

There is no assurance that the proration of taxes described in the paragraph above will equal the actual amount of real estate taxes which will be assessed against the Units, and the actual amounts may vary considerably from the method set forth above.

28. Closing Fees and Costs

All legal costs, fees and expenses charged by each Purchaser's attorney shall be the sole responsibility of such Purchaser. In addition, each Purchaser shall also be responsible for payment of the following fees to office of Extell Legal Department ("Sponsor's Closing Counsel"), in connection with the closing of title to such Purchaser's Unit: (i) the sum of $4,000 per Unit as a closing fee in connection with the closing of title to the Purchaser's Unit, and for each issuance of a Storage License, the sum of $500 as a fee in connection with processing the issuance of such Storage License; (ii) if the Purchaser requests the closing to occur other than at the offices of Sponsor's Closing Counsel (or such other place as Sponsor may designate in its closing notice) and Sponsor consents to such change (in its sole discretion), an attendance fee of $500 (closings may not be scheduled to occur outside Manhattan); (iii) if the closing is adjourned through no fault of Sponsor, an additional fee of $300 for each such adjournment to help defray the cost of preparing for and coordinating the new closing; (iv) if Sponsor, in its sole discretion, consents to a Purchaser's request for an assignment of the Option Agreement, or for the addition, deletion or substitution of names on the Option Agreement, a fee of $1,500, payable in advance, for preparation of an assignment agreement; (v) $250 for the preparation of ACRIS transfer documents required by the City of New York; (vi) if Purchaser obtains mortgage financing, an additional fee of $700 to Sponsor's Closing Counsel to defray the additional costs associated therewith. Purchaser may be required to pay more than one fee pursuant to the preceding provisions of this paragraph with respect to a single Unit; and (vii) Purchaser shall pay Sponsor's Closing Counsel the sum of $600 in connection with the consideration, review and processing of any agreement of exchange or the like which Sponsor is requested to execute in connection with any tax deferred exchange under §1031 of the Internal Revenue Code. Other additional charges may apply. At Sponsor's option (in its sole discretion), any one or more of the foregoing fees to be paid to Sponsor's Closing Counsel shall be paid by Purchaser prior to closing upon notice to Purchaser. (See the Section entitled "Unit Closing Costs and Adjustments" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

29. No Warranty

Sponsor shall not be obligated to correct, repair or replace any defects relating to construction of the Units or the Common Elements or in the installation or operation of any appliances, fixtures, or equipment therein, except as expressly provided in this Plan. Sponsor will not warrant the materials or workmanship of any Unit or any of the Common Elements. The Housing Merchant Implied Warranty Law (General Business Law Article 36-B) is not applicable to this offering. Unless caused by a violation of an applicable code with regard to the ventilation system or other applicable code, there is no warranty as to odors. Unless caused by a code violation, there is no warranty with respect to mold, mildew, spores, fungi or other toxins.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor is obligated to complete construction of the Building substantially in accordance with the provisions of this Plan, all applicable Legal Requirements, and the Description of Property and Specifications as set forth as Exhibit 4 in Part II of the Plan. Any conflict between the disclaimer in this Special Risk and Sponsor's obligations described herein shall be resolved in favor of the latter. (See the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

30. Insurance

Neither the Condominium Board, nor the Tower Board, as the case may be, is required to obtain or maintain any insurance with respect to any property contained in any Unit or any liability with respect to occurrences in or about each Unit or the Common Elements, if any, exclusive and/or appurtenant thereto. Consequently, all Tower Unit Owners are required to obtain and maintain: (i) a personal liability policy if such Unit Owner is an individual, or (ii) commercial general liability insurance if such Unit Owner is a corporate entity, against claims for personal injury, death or property damage occurring in, on or about such Unit Owner's Unit and the Limited Common Elements, if any, exclusive and/or appurtenant to his or her Unit affording protection of at least $1,000,000 per occurrence. Further requirements with respect to such insurance are more particularly set forth in the Tower By-Laws. In addition, all Tower Unit Owners are urged to obtain casualty insurance with respect to any and all additions, alterations, improvements and betterments located within their respective Units (including, without limitation, fixtures, equipment, furniture, furnishings and any other personal property). Purchasers are also advised that the insurance policies to be maintained by or on behalf of the Condominium Board and/or Tower Board, as the case may be will be on a "replacement cost" basis and will not cover losses to the extent that "market value" of a Unit may exceed its insured replacement cost. Further, as a result of current fluctuations in the insurance market, the Boards will not be required to obtain or maintain terrorism coverage but may do so, and in such event, the cost thereof shall be a Common Expense as described in the applicable By-Laws. (See the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of the Unit Owners and the Boards of Managers" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

31. Waiver of Diplomatic or Sovereign Immunity

Purchasers will be required to waive expressly any and all immunity from suit by Sponsor, the Condominium Board and/or the Tower Board, as applicable. In addition, any Purchaser that is a foreign government, a resident representative of a foreign government or other person or entity otherwise entitled to the immunities from suit enjoyed by a foreign government (i.e., diplomatic or sovereign immunity) will be required at the time of closing of title to such Purchaser's Unit, to deposit with the Tower Board an amount equal to two (2) years' estimated Common Charges. (See the Sections entitled "Procedure to Purchase" and "Unit Closing Costs and Adjustments" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

32. Certificate of Occupancy

If, as of the First Closing, only a temporary Certificate of Occupancy has been issued for the Building, Sponsor will use all reasonable diligence to cause the New York City Department of Buildings to continuously renew the temporary Certificate of Occupancy until a permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building has been issued. Sponsor will, at its sole expense, do and perform, or cause to be done and performed, all such work (subject to events and circumstances beyond Sponsor's reasonable control, e.g., casualty, strikes, governmental restrictions, acts of god, etc.), and will supply, or cause to be supplied, all such materials, and will submit or cause to be submitted all such documentation, and shall pay all applicable fees required by the New York City Department of Buildings that shall be necessary in order to cause the temporary Certificate of Occupancy to be continuously renewed until a new permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building has been issued. Prospective Purchasers are advised that a permanent Certificate of Occupancy is required for permanent use of the Building, and that a temporary Certificate of Occupancy may be renewed only for a total of two (2) years from the first date of issuance.

A temporary Certificate of Occupancy indicates that a property is safe for occupancy, but has an expiration date. Temporary Certificates of Occupancy typically expire ninety (90) days after they are issued. When a Certificate of Occupancy expires and is not renewed, it may be difficult or impossible to buy insurance or sell or refinance a Unit. Purchasers should seriously consider negotiating a closing based on a permanent Certificate of Occupancy, not a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. If purchasing a Unit covered by a temporary Certificate of Occupancy, Purchasers should consult a licensed architect or engineer to determine what work has to be done in order for the Building to receive a permanent Certificate of Occupancy. Purchasers are advised to visit the Department of Buildings website for further recommendations when purchasing a Unit that does not have a permanent Certificate of Occupancy.

The Building will be occupied before a permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building is issued. Accordingly, a "Tenant Protection Plan" will be implemented. A copy of the "Tenant Protection Plan" will be distributed to each tenant of a Rental Apartment and/or Tower Unit Owner.

(See the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

33. Terraces and Swimming Pools

Terraces are appurtenant to certain Tower Units, as identified in Schedule A and the Floor Plans (Exhibit 5 in Part II of the Plan). The Terraces are Tower Limited Common Elements available for the exclusive use of the Tower Unit Owner of the Tower Unit to which such Terrace is appurtenant, subject to and in accordance with the Declaration, Condominium By-Laws, Tower By-Laws and Tower Rules and Regulations as in effect from time to time. Each Tower Unit Owner shall be responsible for all ordinary maintenance and cleaning of each Terrace and/or Swimming Pool appurtenant to its Unit, subject to the rights of the Boards to regulate its use (including, without limitation, pursuant to the Tower Rules and Regulations regarding the opening, closing, cleaning and maintenance of Swimming Pools), and to enter the Tower Unit to access the Terrace and to access any Limited Common Elements for maintenance, repair and replacement and other uses (including, without limitation, to access any Building mechanical equipment or other Common Elements located on any roof setback adjacent to any Terrace, or to use any Terrace as a platform for window washing equipment). Sponsor is not responsible for, can make no guarantees regarding and shall have no liability to Tower Unit Owners with respect to, the level of noise or vibrations or odors resulting from the operation of the Building or the Units or the degree of privacy which will be afforded to Unit Owners on their Terraces. The costs and expenses of any repairs or replacements to a Terrace, structural or otherwise (unless caused by or attributable to the Tower Unit Owner), shall be charged to all Tower Unit Owners as a Common Expense.

The Tower Board shall have the right to require a Tower Unit Owner to remove plantings, roof surfaces and other installations which have been placed on the Terraces if the Tower Board determines, in its sole discretion, that such plantings or other installations may adversely affect the integrity of the roof or other portion of the Building or is otherwise unsafe. In addition, the Tower Board shall have the right, in connection with any construction, repair or maintenance work in the Building, to erect scaffolding temporarily on any Terrace. In no event shall any Tower Unit Owner of a Tower Unit having a Terrace be permitted to enclose or erect any structure on such Terrace. The Tower Board may establish such other rules and regulations it deems necessary to protect the Common Elements and the Units and to insure the integrity of the Building and the health and safety of the occupants.

Moreover, Terraces, Swimming Pools and any other areas that are exposed to the elements (e.g., Terraces and Swimming Pools) must be kept free of snow, ice and accumulation of water to the extent failure to do so could cause damage to the Building and/or other Units therein. In particular, each Owner of a Tower Unit with a Swimming Pool (as shown on Schedule A) is responsible for maintaining such Swimming Pool and must contract with a pool maintenance company, reasonably acceptable to the Tower Board, to provide ongoing cleaning and maintenance of the Swimming Pool. In the event a Tower Unit Owner fails to comply with any of its maintenance obligations, the Tower Board may, at the expense of the Unit Owner and without liability to the Tower Board, enter the Unit and perform such acts as are necessary to cure the Unit Owner's default. All Swimming Pools must be drained, closed (i.e., winterized) and covered by October 1st of each year, and may refilled commencing on May 1st of each year.

(See the Section entitled "Description of the Property and Improvements" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

34. Lot Line Windows

The windows on the Building base's east façade are located on the tax lot boundary between the Property and Parcel K-2. It is anticipated that Sponsor will enter into an easement for perpetual light and air for the benefit of the Property. Such agreement will be between Sponsor and either Sponsor in its capacity as Development Parcel Owner of Parcel K-2, or Collegiate School in accordance with the terms of the K-2 PSA. No zoning lot line windows exist. (See "Description of Property and Specifications" as set forth as Exhibit 4 in Part II of the Plan for further discussion.)

35. Views from Tower Units

Purchasers are advised that due to the unique shape of the Building, the view from Tower Units located on the Courtyard of the Building may look into other Tower Units or be otherwise compromised. In addition, no representation is made that future construction in the neighborhood surrounding the Property will not result in obstruction of the views from any windows in the Building. Sponsor shall have no liability to any Tower Unit Owner on account of the view from any Tower Unit.

36. Flood Zone

The Property at its existing elevation falls within a 100-year flood hazard area of type AE in the Federal Emergency Management Agency ("FEMA") Special Flood Hazard Mapping Area. A "100-year flood" does not mean that an area is likely to be flooded every 100 years, but refers to an elevation level that has a one percent (1%) chance of being flooded each year. It is determined by detailed methods dictated by FEMA. Thus, a 100-year flood could occur more than once in a relatively short period of time.

A 350 kW diesel generator is located on the Cellar Level to operate all emergency systems for the Building. The generator has been located above the lowest level of the Building (e.g. the Subcellar Level) to avoid any potential flooding issues that may occur at that level.

(See "Description of Property and Specifications" as set forth as Exhibit 4 in Part II of the Plan for further discussion.)

37. Increase or Decrease in Common Interest

The Common Interest of each of the Units has been determined pursuant to Section 339-i(1)(iv) of the Condominium Act and accordingly based upon a comparison of the floor space, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Unit, the availability of common elements for exclusive or shared use and the overall dimensions of the particular Unit. Based upon final specifications, construction conditions and/or "as-built" plans for the Building reflecting relative measurements, areas and uses of portions of the Building, application of such method of allocation of Common Interest may justify a minor increase or decrease in the aggregate Common Interest appurtenant to the Tower Units and a corresponding decrease or increase in the Common Interest appurtenant to the Commercial Units. In such event, the Common Interest appurtenant to each individual Tower Unit would be adjusted (by a minimal amount) pro rata. Sponsor expressly reserves the right, from time to time, to effect such a change in the Common Interests and to amend the Plan so as to reflect the same. Notwithstanding the foregoing, after the recording of the Declaration, no change in any Tower Unit's Common Interest will be made without obtaining the prior consent of all Unit Owners affected by such change. (See the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of the Unit Owners and the Boards of Managers" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

38. Window Washing and Window Treatments

The Tower will feature a window washing rig for the cleaning of the exterior glass surfaces of windows. The washing and cleaning of interior glass surfaces of windows in the Tower Units shall be the responsibility of the respective Tower Unit Owners. The Condominium Board with respect to all Units, and the Tower Board with respect to Tower Units, may from time to time enforce the responsibility of Unit Owners to wash and clean the interior surfaces of windows located in their respective Units and charge the defaulting Unit Owner therefor. As more particularly set forth in the Condominium By-Laws, the exterior glass surfaces will be washed and cleaned and replaced at the direction of the Condominium Board and the cost thereof charged as a General Common Expense; provided, however, that with respect to Commercial Units, the cost of any window replaced by the Condominium Board shall be allocated to the Commercial Unit Owner of such Commercial Unit, and with respect to the Tower Units, the cost of any window replaced by the Condominium Board shall be allocated to the Tower Board, who shall further allocate such cost in accordance with the Tower By-Laws. Unit Owners are prohibited from cleaning or allowing to be cleaned any window from the outside in violation of Section 202 of the New York State Labor Law, any other applicable Legal Requirements, any insurance policy or requirement or otherwise.

As set forth in the Tower Rules and Regulations, to promote a consistent appearance of the Tower from the outside, each Tower Unit Owner will be required to install and maintain window treatments having a white-colored backing on the sides facing and nearest to the windows in its Tower Unit, which window treatments and backings must conform to any specifications (including a new color) established from time to time by the Tower Board.

(See the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of the Unit Owners and the Boards of Managers" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

39. Additional Units, Storage Closets

Sponsor reserves the right to change the number and size of the Units by, among other things, subdividing and reconfiguring the Units and, as the case may be, in connection with such subdivision and reconfiguration, redesignating in an amendment to the Declaration, among other things, a portion of a subdivided Unit of one type (e.g., a Commercial Unit) as a Unit of another type (e.g., Tower). In such event, the Common Interest appurtenant to any diminished Unit will decrease and such reduced Common Interest will be allocated to and/or among the newly created and/or configured Units. Sponsor expressly reserves the right, from time to time prior to the First Closing, to effect such changes and to amend the Plan so as to reflect the same. In the event the Common Interest appurtenant to a Unit is increased in excess of five percent (5%) or there is a reduction in square footage of a Unit in excess of five percent (5%), Sponsor shall offer the materially adversely affected Purchaser(s) the right, for at least fifteen (15) days, to rescind their Option Agreements and receive a refund of their Deposit, together with all interest earned thereon. There is a rebuttable presumption that a Unit size that is diminished by five percent (5%) or less is not material.

Sponsor also reserves the right to create new Storage Closets in areas formerly not dedicated as Storage Closet areas and sell licenses therefor, and to change the number and size of the Storage Closets by, among other things, subdividing and reconfiguring the Storage Closets and, in connection with such subdivision and reconfiguration, redesignating in an amendment to the Declaration, among other things, a portion of a subdivided Storage Closet's space. Sponsor expressly reserves the right, from time to time, to effect such changes and to amend the Plan so as to reflect the same.

(See the Sections entitled "Commercial Units" and "Changes in Prices and Units: Tower Units and Storage Licenses" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

40. Sponsor's Use of the Building for Promotional Functions

Sponsor and its designee(s) shall have the right, until the tenth anniversary of the First Closing, to use, without charge, portions of the Building, including the Common Elements, for exhibitions, events, promotional functions (e.g., with respect to any sales programs for Unsold Units or otherwise). (See the Section entitled "Description of the Property and Improvements" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

41. Method for Measuring Units

Each Unit has been measured horizontally from the exterior face of the exterior walls (perimeter mechanical pipes are not deducted) to the midpoint of the interior walls and the midpoint of partitions separating one Unit from another Unit, public corridors, stairs, elevators and other mechanical equipment spaces or any Common Elements or Limited Common Elements. Measured vertically, each Unit will consist of the volume from the top of the concrete floor slab below (located under the finished flooring and sub-floor materials) comprising the lowest floor of the Unit to the underside of the concrete slab forming the ceiling of the highest floor of the Unit. The method of measurement is applicable to all Units. Any Common Elements located within a Unit shall not be considered a part of such Unit. As is customary in New York City, these square foot areas exceed the useable floor area of each Unit.

The clearance between the top of the concrete floor slab and the bottom of the finish ceiling in the Units will generally be approximately 9'-0" in major areas. Certain Units and areas within other Units will have clearances of less than this to accommodate facilities located above the ceiling or otherwise to respond to field conditions. The maximum ceiling height on Floors 7, 8, 16 and PH5 is approximately 10'-11-1/2". The maximum ceiling height on Floor 20 is approximately 10'-4". The maximum ceiling height on Floor 21 floor is approximately 9'-6 1/2". The maximum ceiling height on Floor PH#1 through PH#3 is approximately 10'-2". The maximum ceiling height on Floor PH#4 is approximately 10'-1 1/2".

42. Reservation of Air/Development Rights

Sponsor has retained and expressly reserves all excess air or developmental rights (collectively, the "Air Rights") otherwise appurtenant to the Property and not used in connection with the original construction of the Building as described in this Plan. As a result, unless Air Rights are separately acquired therefor on behalf of the Condominium or a Unit Owner, as the case may be, any future expansion of the Building by the Condominium Board or of a Unit by any Unit Owner as may otherwise be permitted pursuant to any applicable Legal Requirements, may not be possible or may be limited. Further, as a result of such reservation by Sponsor, Sponsor may transfer or sell such Air Rights to the owner(s) of adjoining properties and in such case such properties may be increased as a result of such transfer or sale.

The Air Rights reserved by Sponsor will not be used to add additional floors to the top of the Building. Except in the case of a sale or transfer for use in connection with other properties, the reserved Air Rights will be used in the Property solely for the purpose of reconfiguring certain areas (e.g., adding mezzanine space, converting mechanical space to space used for other purposes) which, pursuant to the applicable provision of the Zoning Resolution, will require the use of Air Rights in excess of those used in connection with the initial construction of the Building in accordance with the Plan. In the event such excess Air Rights are transferred to the owner(s) of adjoining properties, a Unit Owner's views and exposure to light may be affected. (See the Sections entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" and "Reservation of Air and Development Rights" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

43. Parking

It is currently anticipated that the Garage Unit will initially contain parking garage facilities with an entrance drive on West 62nd Street. The entrance drive will connect a vehicular ramp that will lead vehicles to and from the Cellar Level and Subcellar Level where the Garage Unit is located. While Sponsor or an affiliate of Sponsor may own the Garage Unit (although no such representation is made), to the extent such Garage Unit is leased to a garage operator, the operator of such facility will determine and collect fees based upon rates to be set solely by such operator (subject to any applicable laws) and will establish such rules and regulations governing the availability and priority of spaces and the general operation of the garage facilities as such operator may deem appropriate. The Garage Unit is anticipated to serve the Tower Unit Owners, occupants of the Rental Unit, and the general public. The Garage Unit is anticipated to contain parking for 142 passenger vehicles. Such parking spaces shall be available on a first come first served basis. The Garage Unit will be valet attended.

Sponsor makes no representation whatsoever regarding the rates to be charged to Tower Unit Owners or the availability of such parking spaces on a monthly, reserved or any other basis. In addition, even to the extent available, no representation is made with respect to the expected date of completion or opening of such facility and as a result, parking may not be available at and for a period of time following the closing of title to any Tower Unit.

44. Interstate Land Sales Full Disclosure Act

Pursuant to the Interstate Land Sales Full Disclosure Act ("ILSA "), 15 U.S.C.A. § 1701 et seq., Sponsor has submitted a proposed statement of record ("Statement of Record") to the U.S. Consumer Financial Protection Bureau ("CFPB") disclosing the offering of the Tower Units and Storage Licenses in the Condominium. The Statement of Record has been assigned OILSR 32696-09-2013. Sponsor believes it will be in compliance with its ILSA filing obligations upon CFPB's approval of the Statement of Record. The Attorney General has not verified or approved the content of the Statement of Record.

The Statement of Record includes a "Property Report," which discloses information regarding the Condominium. Pursuant to ILSA, the form of Option Agreement as set forth as Exhibit 1 in Part II of the Plan includes a provision that if a Purchaser does not receive a Property Report in advance of signing the Option Agreement, the Option Agreement may be cancelled at such Purchaser's option for two (2) years from the date of signing; however, under ILSA, certain circumstances may cause some transactions to be exempt from such requirement and Sponsor makes no representation with respect the applicability of the foregoing matters to any individual Unit or contract.

45. Special Allocation of Certain Common Expenses

Each Unit Owner must pay Common Charges to cover the costs of operation and maintenance of the Condominium in accordance with Sections 339(i)(1)(iv) and 339(m) of the New York Condominium Act. The costs of operation and maintenance of the Condominium, including both those directly attributable to the Units and an allocated share of expenses attributable to the Condominium as a whole (such as expenses for insurance, repairs and maintenance of the General Common Elements and various service contracts), will generally be borne by the Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests. The Commercial Unit Owners, who will receive in certain instances greater or fewer services from the Condominium, will bear an allocated share of the expenses of the Condominium, all as described in Schedule A and Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation" of the Plan and Article 6 of the Condominium By-Laws. Such allocated share of expenses will result in the Tower Unit Owners having to pay either higher (if fewer services are being provided to the Commercial Unit Owners) or lower (if greater services are being provided to the Commercial Unit Owners) shared expenses of the Condominium. The requirements for amending Article 6 of the Condominium By-Laws do not differ from those otherwise provided in the Condominium By-Laws.

In addition, in accordance with Section 339(m) of the New York Real Property Law, the allocation and apportionment of Common Charges to the Rental Unit (the "Rental Unit Common Charge Allocation") may be less than the allocation and apportionment of Common Charges to the other Units where such lesser Common Charges are necessary to ensure that the Common Charges paid by the Rental Unit do not exceed the Rental Unit Revenues (as defined below). The Rental Unit Common Charge Allocation shall be implemented by either: (i) imposing Common Charges for the Rental Unit that are not proportional to the Common Charges for the other Units, or (ii) limiting the amount of Common Charges imposed on the Rental Unit. In the event a Rental Unit Common Charge Allocation is implemented, the Common Charges payable by all other Unit Owners shall be increased by the amount of such reduction in the Common Charges otherwise payable by the Rental Unit Owner on a pro rata basis in accordance with their relative proportional Common Interest, or otherwise in accordance with the allocation methodology set forth in the Condominium By-Laws. For purposes hereof, "Rental Unit Revenues" means the aggregate of (A) the annual rents paid by the Rental Apartments within the Rental Unit to the Rental Unit Owner, and (B) any other annual revenues obtained from the Rental Unit by the Rental Unit Owner. (See Section 6.1.9 in the Condominium By-Laws as set forth as Exhibit 7 in Part II of the Plan for further discussion.)

46. Windows Feature Childproof Stops

All operable windows will have a childproof stop limiting the opening of the windows to a maximum of 4 inches. The operable portion will be located in the lower part of the window behind fixed louvers.

47. Restriction on Hanging Electronic Equipment

Televisions, audio speakers and other noise generating equipment may not be hung on demising walls separating Tower Units as this could transmit noise from one Tower Unit to the next.

48. Model Tower Unit

Purchasers are advised that there may be certain design elements included in a model Tower Unit that are not offered for sale and not included in the Tower Units being sold. Specifically, the furniture, furnishings, materials, equipment, hardware, installations, lighting or decorations displayed in a model Tower Unit should not be deemed to be included in the sale of a Tower Unit, except as otherwise described in this Plan. The materials, appliances and finishes, etc. in the Building and/or Tower Units are described in this Plan and are subject to modification as provided herein, and may vary from those displayed in a model Tower Unit. All dimensions in a model Tower Unit are approximate and subject to normal construction variances and tolerances. Purchasers should consult the Floor Plans appearing as Exhibit 5 in Part II of the Plan and consult Sponsor with any questions as to precisely what design elements their Tower Unit will include.

49. Wood Floors

Purchasers are advised that Tower Units will feature engineered wood flooring with solid oak veneer. Sponsor makes no representation as to the number of times such floors can be sanded, if at all. Sponsor is not responsible for: (i) variations in floor level and slight separation between base and floor; (ii) variations in width, length or tone of wood floor strips or normal shrinking or expansion of wood flooring due to changes in moisture content of wood; or (iii) scratches and dents in flooring. (See the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

50. Distinctive Sidewalk Improvements

The sidewalks adjacent to the Building are being constructed with tinted rather than white concrete. This tinting qualifies the sidewalks as "distinctive sidewalk improvements" within the parlance of the Department of Buildings. Accordingly, as with any building in the City constructed with similarly tinted sidewalks, the Department of Buildings will require that a "Distinctive Sidewalk Improvement Maintenance Agreement" be entered into with respect to maintenance of the sidewalks. (See the Section entitled "Agreements Binding on the Condominium" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

51. Security

During the period of time that the Building is being constructed and the Tower Units (and Storage Closet Licenses) are being offered for sale and/or rent there will be a greater number of visitors to and pedestrian and vehicular traffic through the Building and Tower Section than is expected to be the case once the construction and sales and/or leasing are completed. No representation or warranty is made as to the length of time the construction, sales or leasing period, if applicable, will continue.

52. Condominium Management Association

Sponsor's Counsel has not opined whether the Tower Board or the Condominium Board will or will not qualify as a "Condominium Management Association" under section 528(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") and, for purposes of the Plan, Sponsor's Counsel has assumed that the Condominium Board will not qualify. Therefore, it is possible that if the Condominium Board (or the Tower Board) does not so qualify, there could be federal, state, and local income taxes payable by the Condominium and the Tower Unit owners, which are not included as a projected expense in Schedule B of the Plan. Based on the projected income and expenses anticipated, any such income tax would likely not be material. For further details regarding Code section 528(c), see Income Tax Opinion of Sponsor's Counsel, which is located in Part I of the Plan.

53. Certification by Sponsor and Sponsor's Principal

Exhibit 9A in Part II of this Plan includes a certification by Sponsor and Sponsor's principal (the "Sponsor Certification") pursuant to Section 20.4(b) of the regulations issued pursuant to General Business Law, Article 23-A, as amended (the "Martin Act"). Sponsor's principals have executed the Sponsor Certification for compliance with the Martin Act and governing regulations. Sponsor's principals expressly disclaim the existence of any private right of action for contract claims by individual Unit Owners (or the Condominium Board, on their behalf) in connection with or arising solely from their execution of the Sponsor Certification, absent liability under another statute or under an alter-ego or other veil-piercing theory. See Board of Managers of 184 Thompson Street Condominium v. 184 Thompson Street Owner LLC, et. al, 2013 N.Y. Slip Op 03574 (1st Dept. May 16, 2013).

PART I

A. INTRODUCTION

The land and the building to be situated on the east side of Riverside Boulevard between West 61th Street and West 62nd Street and to be known by the street address 50 Riverside Boulevard, New York, New York 10069, together with the appurtenances thereto, will constitute and be known as "One Riverside Park Condominium" (hereinafter, the "Condominium").*

As described more fully in this Plan, the Building constituting the Condominium will initially contain the following mixed-use components: (i) 219 Tower Units; (ii) 189 Storage Closets; (iii) the Rental Unit, comprised of approximately fifty-five (55) rental apartments; (iv) the Retail Unit; (v) two (2) Community Facility Units (referred to as "Community Facility Unit A" and "Community Facility Unit B"); and (vi) the Garage Unit. The commercial units in the Building refer to the Rental Unit; the Retail Unit; the two (2) Community Facility Units; and the Garage Unit (collectively the "Commercial Units"). (See the Section entitled "Description of Property and Improvements" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

50 Riverside Blvd LLC ("Sponsor"), a limited liability company organized and existing under the law of the State of Delaware and duly authorized to do business in the State of New York, hereby presents this Offering Plan (the "Plan") for the sale of the Tower Units and Storage Licenses for the Storage Closets at the Condominium, which, together with the Tower Limited Common Elements, constitute the "Tower Section".

No other portion of the Condominium is offered for sale hereunder at this time, including, without limitation, the Rental Unit, the Retail Unit, the two (2) Community Facility Units and the Garage Unit (all hereinafter described) to be included in the Condominium.

The purpose of the Plan is to set forth in detail all material terms of the offering by Sponsor of the Tower Units and Storage Licenses for the Storage Closets offered hereby. Sponsor may amend the Plan from time to time by filing an amendment with the Department of Law, a copy of which amendment will be served on all Purchasers of Units pursuant to executed Option Agreements who are not in default, and to all Unit Owners and any other Offerees as may be required by applicable law or regulation.

The Plan is presented in two (2) parts (in one volume) which together constitute the entire Plan. Part I of the Plan sets forth a general description of the offering and the rights and obligations of Sponsor and the Unit Owners. Part II contains the basic documents necessary to create the Condominium and to otherwise effectuate the provisions of the Plan. Also included in Part II is a detailed physical description of the Property and certifications by Sponsor, Sponsor's architect and Sponsor's financial experts. In addition to the Plan, Sponsor has filed separately with the Department of Law certain exhibits to the Plan which are presented as Parts A (Certifications), B (General), C (Engineering) and D (Other Information).

* Each capitalized term used in Part I of the Plan shall have the meaning ascribed thereto in the section of the Plan entitled "Certain Definitions", unless otherwise clearly indicated or defined elsewhere.

The Plan, including all Schedules set forth herein, and Parts A, B, C and D of the exhibits, together constitute the entire offer of Sponsor to sell the Tower Units and Storage Licenses for the Storage Closets at the Condominium which are the subject of this Plan. Sponsor shall not make, and has not authorized any other party to make, any oral representations or statements concerning this Plan, and no such representations or statements shall be considered part of this Plan. No information, data or representations other than those contained herein or in the documents annexed hereto as exhibits in Part II of this Plan may be relied upon. Prospective Purchasers must apply at the Sales Office for an Offering Plan which may be obtained for a non-refundable fee of $300. Copies of the exhibits will be available for inspection by prospective Purchasers without charge, and for copying at a reasonable charge, at the Sales Office by appointment.

The Condominium will be organized pursuant to Article 9-B of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, as amended, commonly known as and hereinafter referred to as the "Condominium Act". The Condominium is subject to and will comply with all statutes and regulations applicable to condominiums in the State of New York.

THE PURCHASE OF A CONDOMINIUM UNIT HAS MANY SIGNIFICANT LEGAL AND FINANCIAL CONSEQUENCES. THE ATTORNEY GENERAL OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK STRONGLY URGES YOU TO READ THIS OFFERING PLAN CAREFULLY AND TO CONSULT WITH AN ATTORNEY BEFORE SIGNING AN AGREEMENT TO PURCHASE A CONDOMINIUM UNIT.

1. The Property

On November 3, 2005, Sponsor acquired title to an approximately 44,767 square foot parcel located at 50 Riverside Boulevard, New York, New York 10069 and known as Tax Lot 150 of Block 1171 (the "Land" or "Parcel K-1"). At the time of acquisition, the Land was vacant. Sponsor is constructing a new building thereon (the "Building"), and together with the Land, the "Property"), which, as more specifically described herein, upon completion of construction will constitute the Condominium and include:

(a) 219 Tower Units, consisting of: (i) 218 Tower Units located on portions of Floors 3 through PH5; and (ii) a Tower Unit (anticipated to be Unit 3U) located on Floor 3 of the Building which will be used as an apartment by the Resident Manager (hereinafter, the "Resident Manager's Unit"), together with the Tower Lobby on the Ground Floor (and entrances thereto from Riverside Boulevard and certain other Common Elements, which will be operated as a luxury condominium apartment building;

(b) 189 storage closets ("Storage Closets") located on the Subcellar Level, Storage Licenses to which are being sold by Sponsor hereunder (subject to the Sponsor's right to create, pursuant to a duly filed amendment, additional Storage Closets and to offer Storage Licenses to which for sale);

(c) The Rental Unit, located principally on portions of the Subcellar Level through Floor 7, consisting of approximately fifty-five (55) rental apartments located on portions of Floors 3 through 7 of the Building, together with the Rental Lobby on the Ground Floor (and entrance thereto from West 62nd Street) and certain other Common Elements, which will be used for affordable housing purposes (and ancillary uses) (as more particularly described herein);

(d) The Retail Unit, located principally on a portion of the Ground Floor of the Building with frontage on West 61st Street, which Sponsor currently anticipates will initially be used for retail purposes (and ancillary uses), although no representation or warranty is made with respect to such initial or any subsequent uses of the Retail Unit or with respect to who the owner or tenant(s) of the Retail Unit may be at any time;

(e) Community Facility Unit A, located principally on a portion of the Ground Floor of the Building with frontage on Riverside Boulevard and West 62st Street, which Sponsor currently anticipates will be used as community facilities (e.g., without limitation, a daycare center) and/or professional office space, although no representation or warranty is made with respect to such initial or any subsequent uses of Community Facility Unit A or with respect to who the owner or tenant(s) of Community Facility Unit A may be at any time;

(f) Community Facility Unit B, located principally on a portion of the Ground Floor of the Building with frontage on Riverside Boulevard and West 61st Street, which Sponsor currently anticipates will be used as community facilities (e.g., without limitation, a daycare center) and/or professional office space, although no representation or warranty is made with respect to such initial or any subsequent uses of Community Facility Unit B or with respect to who the owner or tenant(s) of Community Facility Unit B may be at any time;

(g) The Garage Unit, located at the Subcellar Level and Cellar Level of the Building, which Sponsor currently anticipates will initially be used as public parking (and ancillary uses). No representation or warranty is made with respect to such initial or any subsequent uses of the Garage Unit or with respect to who the owner or tenant(s) of the Garage Unit may be at any time;

(h) Facilities will include the Courtyard, the Function Room (featuring a bar and pantry), the Tower Gym, the Children's Playroom, the Screening Room and the Screening Room Lounge, the Resident Lounge, the Bicycle Storage Room, Storage Closets, all of which are for the exclusive use of occupants of the Tower Section and their guests;

(i) Tower Unit Owners will also have access to the Recreational Facility, which is located beneath Building J-1 and Building J-2 and accessed through the Cellar Level of the Building (use of the Recreational Facility is shared with the occupants of Building J-1 and Building J-2, as more particularly described herein); and

(j) Various utility and service areas located throughout the Building.

Based upon the current construction schedule, Sponsor presently contemplates that, unless delayed by weather, casualty, labor difficulties (including work stoppages and strikes), late delivery and/or the inability to obtain on a timely basis or otherwise, materials or equipment, governmental restrictions, acts of god or other events beyond its reasonable control construction of the Building will be sufficiently completed to permit closings of title to Tower Units to begin on or about July 1, 2015. Prospective Purchasers should note, however, that the Units will be completed at differing times over a period that may begin prior to and/or extend significantly beyond such date. Sponsor will have no liability to any Purchaser, nor will a Purchaser be entitled to any credit, offset or reduction in the purchase price for his or her Tower Unit or otherwise be relieved from any obligations under the Option Agreement, in the event that the First Closing occurs earlier or later than the targeted date or the time to complete or to close title to such Purchaser's Unit is accelerated, delayed or postponed by Sponsor; provided, however, that in the event the actual or anticipated commencement date of the projected First Year of Condominium Operation is to be delayed by six (6) months or more, Sponsor will amend the Plan to include a revised Condominium budget with current projections and if: (i) such amended budget exceeds the projected Condominium budget set forth herein by twenty-five percent (25%) or more; or (ii) the First Closing does not occur within twelve (12) months after July 1, 2015, the date set forth in Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation" as the commencement date for the projected First Year of Condominium Operation, then in either case Sponsor will offer all Purchasers (other than Purchasers who are then in default beyond any applicable grace period under their Option Agreements, if the Plan has been declared effective) the right to rescind their Option Agreements within not less than fifteen (15) days after the presentation date of the amendment containing such revised budget or after such twelve (12) month period, as the case may be, and any Purchasers electing rescission pursuant to such offer will have their Deposit and any interest accrued thereon returned. Purchasers' rights as described in the preceding sentence are in lieu of any other rights or remedies which may be available pursuant to any applicable law, regulation, statute or otherwise, all of which shall be deemed to have been waived by all Purchasers. As set forth in the Section entitled "Effective Date" in Part I of the Plan, no closing of title to any Unit offered hereunder will take place prior to the Plan being declared effective.

As set forth in more detail in the Section entitled "Changes in Prices and Units: Tower Units and Storage Licenses" in Part I of the Plan, Sponsor reserves the right to change the number of Tower Units and Storage Closets from time to time by subdividing and/or combining Tower Units and Storage Closets or otherwise, even after the Condominium is created, except with respect to a Tower Unit (or Storage Closet) as to which a binding Option Agreement (or Storage License) has been entered into and remains in effect unless the Purchaser (or licensee) thereof consents in writing to such change.

(See the Section entitled "Description of Property and Improvements" in Part I of the Plan for further a detailed description of the Property.)

On July 31, 2013, Sponsor obtained a construction mortgage loan pursuant to: (i) that certain Building Loan Agreement (the "Building Loan Agreement") as between Sponsor, as borrower, and Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch as Agent for Lenders with Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. as Book Running Manager and Co-Lead Arranger and Capital One, National Association as Co-Lead Arranger and Syndication Agent and the lenders party thereto (collectively, "Lender"), as lender, and (ii) that certain Project Loan Agreement (the "Project Loan Agreement" and, together with the Building Loan Agreement, the "Loan Agreement") as between Sponsor, as borrower, and Lender, as lender.

The Loan Agreement does not set any minimum number or percentage of Units which must be under contract before the Plan can be declared effective. It does provide a minimum release price set by the lender for each Unit. All of the Units are hereinafter covered by such mortgage, subject to the terms of the Plan. The Loan Agreement requires Sponsor to obtain the consent of Lender prior to Sponsor renting or leasing, rather than selling, the Units offered under the Plan. However, such requirement does not modify Sponsor's reservation of rights, as between Sponsor and Purchasers or Unit Owners, to rent or lease, rather than sell, the Units offered under the Plan.

All Units in the Condominium are located within the Building. However, the Rental Unit, which contains the Rental Apartments that Sponsor intends to develop pursuant to the requirements of the City's Inclusionary Housing Program and which are intended to be affordable in perpetuity, is considered by the Zoning Resolution to be located in a separate "building segment". To qualify as a "building segment", Section 12-10 et. seq. of the Zoning Resolution requires that a separate entrance serving only the dwellings within that segment be provided. Accordingly, the Rental Unit has its own entrance (i.e., the Rental Lobby) on West 62nd Street to be used by occupants of the Rental Unit.

2. Riverside South

The Property is located in a privately owned large scale development on the Upper West Side of Manhattan known as "Riverside South". Riverside South comprises approximately seventy-five (75) acres, encompassing thirteen (13) blocks with views of the Hudson River, and is bound by 72nd Street on the north, 59th Street on the south, Freedom Place and West End Avenue on the east and the Hudson River on the west.

Riverside South was implemented through the City's Uniform Land Use Review Procedure ("ULURP") and is described in detail in the Restrictive Declaration, made as of December 17, 1992, by Penn Yards Associates and recorded in the City Register's Office in Reel 1934, Page 0001 on January 6, 1993, as same has been amended by that certain: (i) First Modification to the Restrictive Declaration dated October 4, 1994, made by Hudson Waterfront Associates, L.P. as Declarant ("RD Declarant"), recorded December 2, 1994 in Reel 2159, Page 1096, (ii) Second Modification to the Restrictive Declaration dated January 9, 1997, made by RD Declarant, recorded February 13, 1997 in Reel 2922, Page 0424, (iii) Third Modification to Restrictive Declaration dated as of September 13, 1999, made by RD Declarant, recorded January 7, 2000 in Reel 3026, Page 1983, (iv) Fourth Modification to Restrictive Declaration dated as of November 9, 2001, made by RD Declarant and recorded January 25, 2002 in Reel 3436, Page 1992, and as restated by that certain Restated Fourth Modification to Restrictive Declaration made as of November 9, 2001 by RD Declarant and recorded March 15, 2002 in Reel 3470, Page 1813, and (v) Fifth Modification to Restrictive Declaration dated as of September 1, 2011, made by RD Declarant, recorded December 14, 2011 as CRFN 2011000434593 (as same may be further amended from time to time, the "Restrictive Declaration"). Authorized zoning for Riverside South allows for flexible development of a total of approximately eight million square feet within nineteen (19) distinct development parcels (each, a "Development Parcel") on eight zoning lots. Additionally, zoning authorization for Riverside South permits parking garages within each building (providing parking for an aggregate of approximately 3,500 vehicles), development of community facility space (approximately 336,000 square feet), local retail, theatre and studio space (approximately 138,000 square feet), professional office space (approximately 163,000 square feet), and on Parcels L/M/N, up to 1,800,000 square feet of photographic or motion picture studios, or radio and television studios. On December 20, 2010, the New York City Council approved modifications to the general large scale plan proposed by entities related to Sponsor with respect to Parcels L/M/N to: (i) increase the density of development permitted on said Development Parcels and thereby increase the permitted number of residential units in Riverside South to 7,737 units; (ii) increase the number of permitted parking spaces to 4,257 spaces; and (iii) as applicable, change the permitted use of said Development Parcels from commercial to commercial, community facility and residential use. The Restrictive Declaration expressly describes the future development of the Development Parcels and allows for further annexation and conveyance of real estate in order to effectuate the development of the Development Parcels in accordance with the Restrictive Declaration.

A steam and power generating facility is operated by Consolidated Edison Company of New York, Inc. (the "59th Street Generating Station") on the block bounded by 11th and 12th Avenues and West 58th and West 59th Streets. An environmental consultant who has studied that site has advised Sponsor that no significant air quality impacts would be predicted on the Property from the 59th Street Generating Station, using New York City Environmental Quality Review evaluation criteria.

The Riverside South project anticipates development of an approximately 24 acre riverfront park, extending the existing Riverside Park from 72nd Street to 59th Street ("Riverside Park South"), as well as including additional park area in the "Southern Open Space", the park area at the southern end of Riverside South to the east of Freedom Place South.

Riverside Park South and the Southern Open Space are Park Areas. The Park Areas are being developed in phases. The Southern Open Space, Phase I, Phase II, Phase III, Phase IV and the playground included in Phase V have been completed. The balance of Phase V, as well as proposed Phases VI and VII, of the Park Areas remain to be built. Each Development Parcel Owner in Riverside South is obligated pursuant to the Restrictive Declaration and Operating Agreement to pay a defined portion of the cost of construction of the Park Areas in conjunction with the development of that Development Parcel Owner's Development Parcel to a designated party responsible for building the Park Areas. As Sponsor owns only the Property, Sponsor makes no representation as to any future development of Development Parcels in Riverside South and the requisite appurtenant Park Areas other than to confirm that Sponsor intends to contribute all payments required to be contributed by the Development Parcel Owner of Parcel K-1 toward construction of the Park Areas.

As of the date of this Plan, there are discussions occurring with the City of New York to modify the Restrictive Declaration to revise the design and phasing of the Park Areas and to provide that the New York City Department of Parks and Recreation will assume responsibility for building the next phase of the Park Area. Sponsor makes no representation regarding the likelihood that these discussions will result in a modification to the Restrictive Declaration. Any proposed modification to the Restrictive Declaration will require the approval of the New York City Planning Commission. Until these discussions are concluded, the City has suspended development of the Park Areas and has not indicated when it will recommence development of the Park Areas. Accordingly, Sponsor does not represent or warrant that all or any portion of the remaining Park Areas will be built, or if built, when construction will commence or be completed.

3. Riverside South Property Owners Association

All owners of Development Parcels (each, a "Development Parcel Owner") are members of the Riverside South Property Owners Association, Inc. (the "RSPOA"). The RSPOA was formed at the start of development of Riverside South, primarily to assess its members for the cost of maintaining and insuring the various park areas (the "Park Areas") contained within Riverside South and to own certain public access areas (the "Public Access Areas") as more particularly described below. Assessments collected from members of the RSPOA to maintain the Park Areas are paid to the City of New York Department of Parks and Recreation, which is under contract to perform the physical maintenance of the Park Areas, or to another entity holding such maintenance contract. The RSPOA operates pursuant to the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions of the Riverside South Property Owners Association, Inc. made by the then Development Parcel Owners in Riverside South, dated as of August 26, 1997 and recorded in the City Register's Office on March 16, 1998 in Reel 2554, Page 552 (as same may be amended from time to time, the "RSPO Declaration"). The specific purposes and responsibilities of the RSPOA are set forth in the RSPO Declaration. The RSPOA was created and the RSPO Declaration was prepared in accordance with the Restrictive Declaration (as defined herein). The RSPOA is a membership organization, with membership limited to Development Parcel Owners. Sponsor is presently the Development Parcel Owner for the Property and a member of the RSPOA for purposes of the RSPO Declaration. Upon recording of the Declaration, such statuses will be transferred to the Condominium Board. At such time, the Condominium Board shall appoint a member of the Tower Board (the "Vice President for RSPOA Liaison") to attend and represent it at meetings of the RSPOA and to vote on behalf of the Condominium at such meetings. There is no expiration date of the RSPOA; provided, however, that the RSPO Declaration expressly provides that it shall continue with full force and effect perpetually unless and until terminated by the affirmative vote of Development Parcel Owners whose Parcels represent in the aggregate at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the aggregate class votes attributable to all Parcels at a duly called meeting of such Development Parcel Owners. If the Condominium Board fails to pay its membership assessment to the RSPOA, the RSPOA may take action against the Condominium Board generally, or against individual Unit Owners specifically, for their proportionate share of the assessment.

4. Recreational Facility and Shared Facilities Operating Agreement

Tower Unit Owners will be entitled to use the health club and ancillary improvements (collectively, and as the same may exist from time to time, the "Recreational Facility") located on certain connected and integrated portions of the cellar levels of the buildings located on Parcel J-1 and Parcel J-2 (respectively, "Building J-1" (also known as "The Aldyn") and "Building J-2" (also known as "The Ashley")). Tower Unit Owners will share use and maintenance of the Recreational Facility with the residents of Building J-1 and Building J-2, and such residents will access the Recreational Facility from their respective Buildings. Purchasers are advised that the Recreational Facility may be crowded during periods of peak usage. The Recreational Facility includes, among other things, separate men's and women's locker rooms (each with a sauna and steam room), a main exercise room with related equipment, an indoor lap pool, hot tub, treatment rooms, a yoga studio, a basketball court, a Pilates studio, a bowling alley, a squash court, a golf simulator, billiards, rock climbing wall and ping pong. The foregoing amenities are regularly available Monday through Friday from approximately 6:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. and from approximately 4:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m., and Saturday and Sunday from approximately 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

The Recreational Facility will be operated by the Shared Facilities Operating Association ("SFOA") as described below. Notwithstanding the foregoing, pursuant to the Shared Facilities Declaration (as defined herein) the SFOA will be authorized and, at the direction of the board of managers of The Aldyn Condominium (the "Aldyn Board"), in its capacity as SFOA Administrator (as defined in the Shared Facilities Declaration), the SFOA will be obligated, to enter into license agreements with Sponsor for any purpose (including, without limitation, for sales or marketing purposes) or any other party in order to provide for the exclusive use of all or any portion of the Recreational Facility (including during scheduled hours of operation) by schools, community groups or any other person or entity the SFOA (or the Aldyn Board, as Administrator of the SFOA) shall designate. Each such license agreement shall be on such terms and conditions as the SFOA (or, if applicable, the Aldyn Board, as Administrator of the SFOA) shall determine.

Sponsor, the Aldyn Board and the Owner of Parcel J-2 have entered into a Declaration of Covenants, Restrictions, Conditions and Reciprocal Easements, dated June 7, 2011 and recorded on June 21, 2011 in the Office of the City Register, New York County as CRFN 2011000221138 (the "Shared Facilities Declaration"), providing for operation of the Recreational Facility the SFOA. The Shared Facilities Declaration also provides for operation of a courtyard located on Parcels J-1 and J-2, which the Condominium does not have access to and is not responsible for the maintenance and operation of.

Sponsor, the Aldyn Board and the Owner of Parcel J-2 (in such capacities, collectively, the "Recreational Facility Members") are responsible for the costs to operate and maintain the Recreational Facility. Sponsor is presently the Recreational Facility Member for the Property for purposes of the Shared Facilities Declaration. Upon recording of the Condominium Declaration, such status will be transferred to the Condominium Board, and the Condominium Board (acting through the Tower Board) will be the Recreational Facility Member for the Condominium. At such time, the Condominium Board shall appoint a member of the Tower Board (the "Vice President for SFOA Liaison") to attend and represent it at meetings of the SFOA and to vote on behalf of the Condominium at such meetings.

The SFOA will assess each Recreational Facility Member assessments ("Recreational Facility Assessments") for its share of the cost of operating and maintaining the Recreational Facility. The entire amount of the Condominium's Recreational Facility Assessments will be borne by the Tower Section. The Tower Board will be obligated to assess and collect from each Tower Unit Owner, as part of such Owner's Tower Common Charges, such Tower Unit Owner's respective proportionate share of the Recreational Facility Assessments assessed to the Condominium by the SFOA and to remit those fees to the SFOA to pay Recreational Facility Permitted Costs. If the Condominium Board, as a Recreational Facility Member, fails to pay any Recreational Facility Assessment, the SFOA may take action against the Condominium Board for such assessment, or against individual Tower Unit Owners for their proportionate share of such assessment. In addition, if any Recreational Facility Assessment payable by the Condominium to the SFOA shall remain unpaid for sixty (60) days after the due date thereof, the right of residents of the Tower Units to use the Recreational Facility shall be suspended (by such means as the SFOA Board shall elect, in its discretion) until such amounts plus any accrued late charges are paid in full.

5. Features of Condominium Ownership

The ownership of a Unit is similar in many respects to the ownership of a private home. Each Unit Owner is the fee owner of his or her Unit outright and is entitled to exclusive possession of that Unit. Each such Unit Owner also owns, in common with the owners of all other Units, an undivided interest in the General Common Elements which, as more particularly set forth herein and in the Declaration, include all parts of the Property other than the Units themselves (and the Limited Common Elements), including, without limitation, the Land and the roofs, foundations and supports of the Building, and all areas, equipment or facilities for the common use of the Units or the Unit Owners. Each Tower Unit Owner will also have certain rights with respect to certain Common Elements (i.e., the Tower Limited Common Elements) which may be exclusive of all other Unit Owners or of Unit Owners who are not Tower Unit Owners (e.g., the common hallways exclusively serving the Tower Units), as the case may be.

Use and occupancy of all Units is governed by the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws and applicable Legal Requirements, and with respect to the Tower Units, also by the Tower By-Laws, Tower Rules and Regulations and the provisions of this Plan. Use of other portions of the Building may be subject to additional by-laws and/or rules and regulations applicable thereto.

As more particularly set forth in the Declaration, Condominium By-Laws and Tower By-Laws, a Tower Unit may generally be used only for residential purposes and, subject to compliance with the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws and the Tower By-Laws, for a lawful home occupation as defined in the Zoning Resolution (a New York City zoning resolution affecting use and occupancy). Tower Unit Owners may, subject to the Tower Board's right of first refusal, rent their Tower Unit pursuant to a lease with a minimum term of one (1) year, in each case. No transient tenant or short-term paying guest (i.e., a tenant or paying guest in occupancy for a period of less than twelve (12) consecutive months) may be accommodated in any Tower Unit, and only an entire Tower Unit may be leased. Residents of the Tower Units thus may be comprised of Tower Unit Owners who reside in the Tower, as well as tenants leasing Tower Units from other Tower Unit Owners.

The Storage Closets may only be used for storage purposes, and in no event may be used as a dwelling space or for the storage of toxic or inflammable items or Combustibles (as such term is defined in the New York City Building Code). No materials which pose a health or safety threat or which otherwise create a nuisance may be stored in the Storage Closets. To do so may result in a violation placed against the Building by the Department of Buildings that will be the obligation of the licensee to remove. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor or its designee shall have the right to use without charge any Unlicensed Storage Closets for any lawful purpose or to change the permitted use of any Unlicensed Storage Closets, subject, however, to the provisions of Article 6 of the Tower By-Laws which provide, among other things, that no use shall be allowed in the Condominium which interferes with the peaceful possession and proper use of the Condominium by its occupants. The Storage Closets will be located on the Subcellar Level of the Building, subject to the right of Sponsor to create new/additional Storage Closets.

The Commercial Units in the Building are divided into the following categories: (i) the Rental Unit, comprised of approximately fifty-five (55) rental apartments; (ii) the Retail Unit; (iii) two (2) Community Facility Units; and (iv) the Garage Unit. Sponsor makes no representation whatsoever with respect to the uses to which all or any portion of the Commercial Units or any public spaces within the Building may be put at any time; nor does Sponsor make any representation with respect to the identity of the owners or users or future owners or users of any of such Units at any time. As more particularly set forth in the Declaration and Condominium By-Laws, the Commercial Units may be used for any legally permitted purpose, including, without limitation, for retail, hotel, restaurant, banking, commercial, office, storage, garage, residential (to the extent the certificate of occupancy is amended to permit such use with respect to Commercial Units other than the Rental Unit), fitness facility and utility purposes (and ancillary uses of any of the foregoing). Neither the Condominium Board, nor the Tower Board, will have no right to restrict or limit any of the uses of, or alterations in or to, the Commercial Units (including the portions thereof facing the street or public area) which are permitted by law and applicable zoning ordinances, except as otherwise set forth in the Declaration and the Condominium By-Laws.

Subject to compliance with all Legal Requirements, including, without limitation, the certificate of occupancy for such Unit and any applicable zoning regulations, and except as otherwise provided herein and in the Condominium By-Laws, each Commercial Unit may be used and operated for any legally permitted purpose. It is currently anticipated that the Rental Unit will be used for affordable housing purposes (and ancillary uses) (as more particularly described herein), the Retail Unit will be used for retail purposes (and ancillary uses), the Community Facility Units will be used as community facilities (e.g., without limitation, a daycare center) and/or professional office space, and the Garage Unit will be used as public parking (and ancillary uses). If, as anticipated (but not represented or warranted), Section 421-a benefits are awarded to the Condominium, the Rental Apartments will be rent-stabilized apartments under the Rent Stabilization Law and Code.

The Tower Board does not have the right to approve or disapprove Purchasers. Subject to certain exceptions, the Tower Board has a right of first refusal with respect to sales or leases of Tower Units. There is no limit on the number of Tower Unit Owners who may purchase a Tower Unit for investment, rather than personal occupancy, purposes. As such there may always be a substantial percentage of Tower Unit Owners who are non-residents of the Condominium. Neither the sale of the Rental Unit, nor the lease of any Rental Apartment, shall be subject to a right of first refusal held by or other approval of the Tower Board.

In addition, because Sponsor reserves the unconditional right to rent or lease Units, there is no commitment to sell more Tower Units than the fifteen percent (15%) of such Units necessary to declare the Plan effective and, accordingly, Tower Unit Owners may never gain effective control and management of the Condominium and/or Tower Section, and the First Annual Tower Meeting may never occur.

Each Unit Owner must pay Common Charges to cover the costs of operation and maintenance of the Condominium in accordance with Sections 339(i)(1)(iv) and 339(m) of the New York Condominium Act. The costs of operation and maintenance of the Condominium, including both those directly attributable to the Units and an allocated share of expenses attributable to the Condominium as a whole (such as expenses for insurance, repairs and maintenance of the General Common Elements and various service contracts), will generally be borne by the Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests. The Commercial Unit Owners, who will receive in certain instances greater or fewer services from the Condominium, will bear an allocated share of the expenses of the Condominium, all as described in Schedule A and Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation" of the Plan and Article 6 of the Condominium By-Laws. The estimated Common Charges for each Tower Unit for the projected First Year of Condominium are set forth in Schedule A.

Operation of the Condominium overall will be vested in the Condominium Board which will be elected by or on behalf of the Unit Owners and/or designated by Sponsor or otherwise as described in the Plan and the Condominium By-Laws and Tower By-Laws. As more particularly set forth in the Condominium By-Laws, the Condominium Board will determine the amounts of General Common Expenses for the Condominium as a whole, and the allocation of General Common Expenses among the Tower Section and the Commercial Units. Each of the Commercial Unit Owners will be obligated to pay to the Condominium Board its share of the expenses that are incurred by the Condominium Board in furnishing services, and operating, maintaining and repairing General Common Elements, only to the extent the same are utilized by or benefit such Commercial Unit Owner. As more fully set forth in the "Notes to Schedule B" above, each of the Commercial Unit Owners will therefore pay only allocated percentages of only certain expenses, which percentages may be less (or more) than in proportion to their Common Interest. As more particularly set forth in the Tower By-Laws, the Tower Board will determine the amounts of Tower Common Expenses for the Tower Section (which will include that portion of the Condominium's General Common Expenses allocated by the Condominium Board to the Tower Section as well as additional Common Expenses arising solely out of the operation of the Tower Section as determined by the Tower Board) and the allocation of Tower Common Expenses among the Tower Units in the Tower Section. Tower Unit Owners will pay Common Charges to the Tower Board only. The Tower Board will be required to pay to the Condominium Board those portions of General Common Charges allocated by the Condominium Board to the Tower Section, before application for any other purpose.

Tower Unit Owners may decorate the interior of their Units in any way that they desire, subject to compliance with the Declaration, Condominium By-Laws, Tower By-Laws, Tower Rules and Regulations and applicable Legal Requirements and will be responsible for maintaining, repairing and painting their Units and for complying with Legal Requirements applicable to their Units, all at their own expense.

As set forth in the Tower Rules and Regulations, to promote a consistent appearance of the Tower from the outside, each Tower Unit Owner will be required to install and maintain window treatments having a white-colored backing on the sides facing and nearest to the windows in its Tower Unit, which window treatments and backings must conform to any specifications (including a new color) established from time to time by the Tower Board.

Tower Unit Owners must obtain the consent of the Tower Board before altering their Tower Units in any way, subject to the further applicable provisions of the Tower By-Laws and Condominium By-Laws. The rights of the Commercial Unit Owners to decorate or alter their Units are provided in the Declaration and Condominium By-Laws and in any event are subject to applicable Legal Requirements.

After the City of New York assesses as a separate tax lot each Unit and bills each Unit Owner, the Unit Owner will be responsible for paying the real estate taxes and assessments imposed against such Unit, and no Unit Owner will be responsible for the payment of, nor will his or her Unit be subjected to any lien arising from the non-payment of, taxes and assessments imposed on other Units.

In the opinion of Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP, Sponsor's Counsel, an individual Tower Unit Owner who is a resident of New York City for tax purposes and who itemizes his or her deductions generally will, under the income tax laws and regulations in effect as of the date of this Plan and subject to certain limitations and qualifications, be entitled to deduct from his or her Federal, New York State and New York City income:

(a) the state and local real property taxes assessed against his or her Tower Unit and paid by such Tower Unit Owner; and

(b) "qualified residence interest" paid by such Tower Unit owner with respect to such Tower Unit.

Sponsor's Counsel expresses no opinion regarding any deductions with respect to Storage Licenses or the Commercial Units. Prospective Purchasers should refer to the Section entitled "Income Tax Deductions to Unit Owners and Tax Status of Condominium" and "Opinions of Counsel" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.

The Condominium Board will be responsible for maintaining casualty and liability insurance (excluding terrorism and mold coverage), with respect to the entire Building (including each Unit but excluding fixtures, furniture, furnishings, decorations, appliances and other personal property not constituting part of the Unit), together with all service machinery contained therein, in accordance with the provisions of the Condominium By-Laws. (See the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of the Unit Owners and the Boards of Managers" in Part I of the Plan for a more complete discussion.) Neither the Condominium Board, nor the Tower Board, as the case may be, is required to obtain or maintain any insurance with respect to any property contained in any Unit or any liability with respect to occurrences in or about each Unit or the Common Elements, if any, exclusive and/or appurtenant thereto. Consequently, all Tower Unit Owners are required to obtain and maintain: (i) a personal liability policy if such Unit Owner is an individual, or (ii) commercial general liability insurance if such Unit Owner is a corporate entity, against claims for personal injury, death or property damage occurring in, on or about such Unit Owner's Unit and the Limited Common Elements, if any, exclusive and/or appurtenant to his or her Unit affording protection of at least $1,000,000 per occurrence. Further requirements with respect to such insurance are more particularly set forth in the Tower By-Laws. In addition, all Tower Unit Owners are urged to obtain casualty insurance with respect to any and all additions, alterations, improvements and betterments located within their respective Units (including, without limitation, fixtures, equipment, furniture, furnishings and any other personal property). Purchasers are also advised that the insurance policies to be maintained by or on behalf of the Condominium Board and/or Tower Board, as the case may be will be on a "replacement cost" basis and will not cover losses to the extent that "market value" of a Unit may exceed its insured replacement cost. Further, as a result of current fluctuations in the insurance market, the Boards will not be required to obtain or maintain terrorism coverage but may do so, and in such event, the cost thereof shall be a Common Expense as described in the applicable By-Laws.

6. Offering of Tower Units for Sale

Sponsor hereby offers the 219 Tower Units for sale under the Plan. The Rental Unit, the Retail Unit, the two (2) Community Facility Units and the Garage Unit to be included in the Condominium are not being offered for sale hereunder at this time. No representation or warranty (other than as expressly set forth in this Plan) is made as to who the owner or tenant(s) of such Units may be or the uses to which such Units may be put at any time; and no income derived from any use of such Commercial Units will constitute income to any Board or any Unit Owner (except as may be expressly provided in the Condominium By-Laws to the contrary or pursuant to separate written agreement by or among the applicable parties).

There are no limitations on who may purchase the Tower Units offered for sale hereunder, except that Storage Licenses may only be purchased by Tower Unit Owners and may thereafter be licensed only to Tower Unit Owners. However, Sponsor hereby reserves the right at any time and from time to time for any reason whatsoever, without the consent of any Board, any Unit Owner or mortgagee, to refuse to approve and execute an Option Agreement for any Unit; provided, however, that Sponsor shall not discriminate against any person because of race, creed, color, gender, sexual orientation, disability, age, marital status or national origin, or as otherwise prohibited by applicable Legal Requirements.

The prices for the Tower Units and Storage Licenses offered under the Plan are listed on Schedule A, entitled "Schedule of Offering Prices and Related Information for the Anticipated First Year of Condominium Operation – July 1, 2015 – June 30, 2016." THESE PRICES HAVE BEEN SET BY SPONSOR AND ARE NOT SUBJECT TO REVIEW OR APPROVAL BY THE DEPARTMENT OF LAW OR ANY OTHER GOVERNMENTAL AGENCY.

Sponsor will endeavor in good faith to sell, but nevertheless reserves the unconditional right, to rent or lease, rather than sell, the Units offered hereunder. As a result, Purchaser may be acquiring a Unit that has been previously occupied, but, unless otherwise specifically agreed to in writing by Sponsor and such Purchaser, such Unit will be delivered at closing free and clear of all leases and tenancies. In addition, because Sponsor reserves the unconditional right to rent or lease Units, there is no commitment to sell more Tower Units than the fifteen percent (15%) of such Units necessary to declare the Plan effective and, accordingly, Tower Unit Owners may never gain effective control and management of the Condominium and/or Tower Section, and the First Annual Tower Meeting may never occur.

In the event Sponsor makes a bulk sale of the Tower Units, the transferee is entitled to and bound by those additional rights and obligations (including the aforementioned representation regarding good faith efforts to sell Units) applicable to a "sponsor" as more fully described in the Plan, and subject to applicable regulations of the Department of Law.

The estimated Common Charges for each Unit for the projected First Year of Condominium Operation are also set forth in said Schedule A. In addition to the payment of Common Charges, each Unit Owner will be responsible for the payment of the real estate taxes which will be separately assessed against such Unit (although the Condominium By-Laws and Tower By-Laws provide for a limited period of time following the recording of the Declaration when the Units may not be separately assessed), and interest and amortization payments on the mortgage, if any, which such Purchaser may obtain. Further, Unit Owners may be responsible for additional charges for services which they choose to use at their option. (See the Section entitled "Description of the Property and Improvements" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

The estimated amount of real estate taxes which will be payable with respect to each Tower Unit in respect of the projected First Year of Condominium Operation are also set forth in said Schedule A. The Property is anticipated to be fully constructed at such time.

Sponsor hereby expressly reserves any rights or transferable development rights benefitting the Property. (See the Section entitled "Reservation of Air and Development Rights" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

7. Offering of Storage Licenses

Sponsor hereby offers Purchasers of Tower Units the opportunity to purchase license rights to one (1) of the 189 Storage Closets pursuant to a license agreement (each such license being a "Storage License"). The form of Storage License to be used for licensing the use of such Storage Closets to individual Tower Unit Owners is set forth as Exhibit 11 in Part II of the Plan. The Storage Closets will be located on the Subcellar Level of the Building, subject to the right of Sponsor to create new/additional Storage Closets.

The price for each Storage License is listed on Schedule A. THESE PRICES HAVE BEEN SET BY SPONSOR AND ARE NOT SUBJECT TO REVIEW OR APPROVAL BY THE DEPARTMENT OF LAW OR ANY OTHER GOVERNMENTAL AGENCY.

If at any time the licensee of a Storage Closet sells its Tower Unit, it shall simultaneously assign its license of the Storage Closet to the purchaser of such Tower Unit or to another owner of a Tower Unit, failing which, the Tower Board shall have the right to terminate the license of the Storage Closet and take possession of the same, without compensation to the licensee.

Sponsor shall offer the Storage Licenses to Purchasers of Tower Units on a first-come, first-served basis until such time as all of the Storage Licenses have been purchased. Sponsor reserves the right to limit Purchasers to one (1) Storage License per Tower Unit purchased. Storage Licenses will only be sold by Sponsor to Purchasers of Tower Units. Prospective Purchasers shall be required to deliver a deposit in the amount of twenty-five percent (25%) of the purchase price of the Storage License upon execution of an Option Agreement.

Holders of Storage Licenses, excluding Sponsor with respect to Unlicensed Storage Closets, will be required to pay a monthly license maintenance fee to the Tower Board in an amount equal to $1 per month per square foot of such Storage Closet, which amount shall, following the First Closing, be subject to biannual increases based upon the CPI Increase Factor in effect on the date of the First Closing. Further, the license fees are otherwise also subject to change from time to time as the Tower Board deems necessary or appropriate.

8. Units Not Offered For Sale Hereunder

The Rental Unit, the Retail Unit, the two (2) Community Facility Units and the Garage Unit to be included in the Condominium are not being offered for sale hereunder at this time. Sponsor will not be permitted to sell any other Unit(s) not being offered hereunder to the general public without either amending the Plan, filing a separate offering plan for such Unit(s) or having issued a no-action letter from the Department of Law in respect of such Unit(s).

Tower Common Expenses: Those costs and expenses in connection with the repair, maintenance, replacement, restoration, care, upkeep and operation of, and any alteration, addition or improvement to, the Tower Limited Common Elements and the business and affairs of the Tower Section as determined by the Tower Board, plus a portion of the General Common Expenses of the Condominium as allocated to the Tower Section by the Condominium Board in accordance with the Condominium By-Laws. Costs assessed against the Condominium as a Recreational Facility Member of the SFOA shall also be deemed Tower Common Expenses.

Tower Limited Common Elements: Those Common Elements which serve or benefit exclusively one (1) or more of the Tower Units or the Tower Unit Owners as more particularly described in the Declaration.

Tower Rules and Regulations: The rules and regulations of the Tower Section, the initial form of which is annexed to the Tower By-Laws (Exhibit 8 in Part II of the Plan), as the same may be amended in accordance with the Tower By-Laws from time to time.

Unsold Tower Units: Any Tower Unit owned or retained, by way of lease or any other arrangement by which management and/or financial responsibility is retained, by Sponsor or any of its designees as the holder of one (1) or more Unsold Tower Units; any Tower Unit that is acquired, individually or collectively, by a principal of Sponsor or a group of which Sponsor or one or more of its principals is a member; or a Tower Unit that is acquired, individually or collectively, by either the holder of a Permitted Mortgage given by Sponsor or the designee of a holder of such a Permitted Mortgage. All or any of such Tower Units are collectively referred to as the "Unsold Tower Units."

Unsold Units: Unsold Tower Units.

All other capitalized terms used in Part I of the Plan which are not separately defined in Part I shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Declaration, Condominium By-Laws or Tower By-Laws, as the case may be. B. DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPERTY AND IMPROVEMENTS

The following is a general description of the Property, including the Land, Building, Units and Common Elements, as well as certain facilities and services anticipated to be provided at the Condominium. For a more detailed physical description of the Property, see "Description of Property and Specifications" as set forth as Exhibit 4 in Part II of the Plan.

1. The Building

The Building is located on the Land, situated on the east side of Riverside Boulevard between West 61st Street and West 62nd Street, and consists of Block 1171, Lot 150 on the Tax Map of the Borough of Manhattan.

The Building will contain 219 Tower Units; 189 Storage Closets; the Rental Unit, comprised of approximately fifty-five (55) rental apartments; the Retail Unit; two (2) Community Facility Units; and the Garage Unit, along with areas currently anticipated to include the Courtyard, Function Room (featuring a bar and pantry), the Tower Gym, the Children's Playroom, the Screening Room and the Screening Room Lounge, the Resident Lounge, and the Bicycle Storage Room. In addition, Tower Unit Owners will have access to the Recreational Facility located beneath Building J-1 and Building J-2 (use of the Recreational Facility is shared with the occupants of Building J-1 and Building J-2, as more particularly described herein). The main lobby for the Tower Section will be located on the Ground Floor (the "Tower Lobby") with entrances thereto from Riverside Boulevard. The Tower Lobby will provide access to: (i) the elevators (and surrounding area) servicing the Tower Section, the mail room, and a concierge, and (ii) corridors leading to certain of the amenity spaces. The Rental Lobby servicing the Rental Unit will be located on the Ground Floor on West 62nd Street.

The various Commercial Units, and anticipated locations and initial uses of each are as follows:

(a) the Rental Unit, located principally on portions of the Subcellar Level through Floor 7, is anticipated to be operated as a rental apartment building (and ancillary uses) with fifty-five (55) apartments located on portions of Floors 3 through 7 of the Building;

(b) the Retail Unit, located principally on a portion of the Ground Floor of the Building with frontage on West 61st Street, which Sponsor currently anticipates will initially be used for retail purposes (and ancillary uses);

(c) Community Facility Unit A, located principally on a portion of the Ground Floor of the Building with frontage on Riverside Boulevard and West 62st Street, which Sponsor currently anticipates will be used as community facilities (e.g., without limitation, a daycare center) and/or professional office space;

(d) Community Facility Unit B, located principally on a portion of the Ground Floor of the Building with frontage on Riverside Boulevard and West 61st Street, which Sponsor currently anticipates will be used as community facilities (e.g., without limitation, a daycare center) and/or professional office space; and

(e) the Garage Unit, located at the Subcellar Level and Cellar Level of the Building, which Sponsor currently anticipates will initially be used as public parking (and ancillary uses).

The Community Facility Units and the Retail Unit will be accessible only from the exterior of the Building. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, no representation or warranty is made with respect to such initial or any subsequent uses of any Commercial Unit or with respect to who the owner or tenant(s) of any Commercial Unit may be at any time.

The Building, which as of the initial filing date of this Plan is under construction, will feature thirty-three (33) stories above grade (not including the Mezzanine Level between the Ground Floor and Floor 3), with a Subcellar Level and Cellar Level below grade. The Building is anticipated to be approximately 375 feet in height from the highest average curb elevation to the top of the highest bulkhead, and 407 feet above the Tower Lobby. The highest five (5) Floors in the Tower are referred to as Floors PH1, PH2, PH3, PH4 and PH5 (with Floor PH5 being the highest). For the purposes of marketing, no floor has been designated "2" or "13", though construction necessitates a consecutive numbering of floors. Therefore, two different methods of numbering floors exist. Purchasers should refer to the Description of Property and Specifications set forth as Exhibit 4 in Part II of the Plan for further details.

The Building structural system is comprised primarily of reinforced concrete, flat plates, beams and columns. A portion of the exterior wall will be pre-cast panel, metal studs with fiberglass insulation and gypsum wallboard finish, while the rest will be a window wall system. The Ground Floor of the Building will feature a custom aluminum storefront system. All exterior wall assemblies, roofs and terraces shall have insulation values in compliance with the New York State Energy Code and fire resistance ratings in compliance with the New York City Building Code.

Construction of the Building, including the individual Units, will be completed substantially in accordance with the Plans and Specifications, and otherwise in accordance with the Zoning Resolution and the Building Code of The City of New York. However, Sponsor reserves the right to amend or modify, in any way, the Plans and Specifications (including, without limitation, changing materials, appliances, equipment, fixtures and other construction details) and substitute in place of any materials, appliances, equipment and fixtures set forth therein or in Exhibit 4 in Part II of the Plan, items of substantially equal or better quality, provided, however, that any material change affecting the Tower Section shall be set forth in an amendment to the Plan, that any necessary approval of any governmental authority having jurisdiction is first obtained, and that no such amendments, modifications or substitutions may be made if the same would materially adversely affect any Purchaser under an Option Agreement which has been countersigned by Sponsor and returned to the Purchaser unless the same is dictated by construction conditions at the Property (such as coordination of Building systems, conflicts with structural members or elements, conforming with Legal Requirements, unforeseen events, etc. and, in all cases, in good faith, reasonably necessary due to factors not within Sponsor's reasonable control, and where no practicable alternative (in the exercise of sound construction management practices) exists), and in such event, Sponsor will, in the amendment disclosing such change and delivered to the Purchasers, offer any materially adversely affected Purchaser(s) the right, for at least fifteen (15) days, to rescind their Option Agreements and receive a refund of their Deposit, together with all interest earned thereon. (Any such changes that are not both material and adverse will not give rise to a right of rescission.)

The location in the Building, and the size, layout and approximate square footages of the Tower Units offered hereunder are shown on the Floor Plans set forth as Exhibit 5 in Part II of the Plan. Such Floor Plans are subject to the rights of Sponsor or its designee to combine two (2) or more Unsold Units, to add additional Units by subdividing Unsold Units or to change the number of rooms in, as well as the size, layout and square foot area of, any Unsold Units, as further described in the Section of entitled "Changes in Prices and Units: Tower Units and Storage Licenses" in Part I of the Plan; provided, however, that any material change (for example, a reduction in square footage in excess of five percent (5%)) shall be set forth in an amendment to the Plan, and no material adverse change will be made in the size (i.e., decrease), configuration or layout of a Unit for which an Option Agreement which has been countersigned by Sponsor and returned to the Purchaser unless the same is dictated by construction conditions at the Property (such as coordination of Building systems, conflicts with structural members or elements, conforming with Legal Requirements, unforeseen events, etc. and, in all cases, in good faith, reasonably necessary due to factors not within Sponsor's reasonable control, and where no practicable alternative (in the exercise of sound construction management practices) exists), and in such event, Sponsor will, in the amendment disclosing such change and delivered to the Purchasers, offer the materially adversely affected Purchaser(s) the right, for at least fifteen (15) days, to rescind their Option Agreements and receive a refund of their Deposit, together with all interest earned thereon. There is a rebuttable presumption that a Unit size that is diminished by five percent (5%) or less is not material.

Sponsor will have no liability to any Purchaser, nor will any Purchaser be entitled to a credit, offset or reduction in the purchase price for his or her Tower Unit or otherwise be relieved of any obligations under the Option Agreement, by virtue of a minor inaccuracy or error in the floor plans. With regard to size, such minor error would mean a decrease of five percent (5%) or less or any increase in the size of any Tower Unit or room contained in a Tower Unit.

The Building incorporates mechanical equipment designed to provide for the physical comfort and convenience of the Building's occupants. During normal operation of this equipment, some occupants of Units adjacent to or in the vicinity of the equipment floors and equipment areas of the Building may perceive noise and/or vibration from the equipment. The sole obligation of Sponsor and the Boards with respect to such noise and/or vibration shall be to install and operate such equipment in a manner consistent with commercially reasonable practices in typical luxury high-rise residential or mixed-use buildings and in compliance with applicable Legal Requirements, including the New York City Building Code.

Based upon the current construction schedule, Sponsor presently contemplates that, unless delayed by weather, casualty, labor difficulties (including work stoppages and strikes), late delivery and/or the inability to obtain on a timely basis or otherwise, materials or equipment, governmental restrictions, acts of god or other events beyond its reasonable control construction of the Building will be sufficiently completed to permit closings of title to Tower Units to begin on or about July 1, 2015. Prospective Purchasers should note, however, that the Units will be completed at differing times over a period that may begin prior to and/or extend significantly beyond such date. Sponsor will have no liability to any Purchaser, nor will a Purchaser be entitled to any credit, offset or reduction in the purchase price for his or her Tower Unit or otherwise be relieved from any obligations under the Option Agreement, in the event that the First Closing occurs earlier or later than the targeted date or the time to complete or to close title to such Purchaser's Unit is accelerated, delayed or postponed by Sponsor; provided, however, that in the event the actual or anticipated commencement date of the projected First Year of Condominium Operation is to be delayed by six (6) months or more, Sponsor will amend the Plan to include a revised Condominium budget with current projections and if: (i) such amended budget exceeds the projected Condominium budget set forth herein by twenty-five percent (25%) or more; or (ii) the First Closing does not occur within twelve (12) months after July 1, 2015, the date set forth in Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation" as the commencement date for the projected First Year of Condominium Operation, then in either case Sponsor will offer all Purchasers (other than Purchasers who are then in default beyond any applicable grace period under their Option Agreements, if the Plan has been declared effective) the right to rescind their Option Agreements within not less than fifteen (15) days after the presentation date of the amendment containing such revised budget or after such twelve (12) month period, as the case may be, and any Purchasers electing rescission pursuant to such offer will have their Deposit and any interest accrued thereon returned. Purchasers' rights as described in the preceding sentence are in lieu of any other rights or remedies which may be available pursuant to any applicable law, regulation, statute or otherwise, all of which shall be deemed to have been waived by all Purchasers. As set forth in the Section entitled "Effective Date" in Part I of the Plan, no closing of title to any Unit offered hereunder will take place prior to the Plan being declared effective.

2. Tower Units

The Tower will include a total of 219 Tower Units, consisting of: (i) 218 Tower Units located on portions of Floors 3 through PH5; and (ii) a Tower Unit (anticipated to be Unit 3U) located on Floor 3 of the Building which will be used as the Resident Manager's Unit. Sponsor reserves the right to use a different Tower Unit as the Resident Manager's Unit, and in such case the purchase price of such different Tower Unit will not increase by more than fifteen percent (15%) of the purchase price of Unit 3U.

The Tower Units vary in size from one-bedroom apartments with approximately 836 square feet to seven-bedroom apartments with approximately 6,168 square feet. Detailed descriptions of the Tower Units are set forth in Part II of the Plan as Exhibit 4 (Description of Property), Exhibit 5 (Floor Plans), and Exhibit 6 (Declaration). Exhibit 4 also includes a detailed description of the fixtures, finishes, appliances and equipment included in each Tower Unit.

There will be no modifications, special work performed or items of personal property included for any Tower Unit unless set forth in the Option Agreement for such Tower Unit. Moreover, Sponsor shall not be obligated to correct and shall have no liability or responsibility to any Purchaser for, and no Purchaser shall be entitled to any reduction in or credit against the purchase price of his or her Tower Unit or be otherwise relieved from performing his or her obligations under the Option Agreement as a result of minor or insubstantial inaccuracy or error in the floor plans for such Tower Unit as set forth in Part II of the Plan as Exhibit 5.

On or prior to the closing of title to fifty-one percent (51%) of the Tower Units offered hereunder, Sponsor will sell the Resident Manager's Unit to the Tower Board. Based on a total expense of $1,758,928.36 (a Purchase Price of $1,700,000 plus $58,928.36 in closing costs), in respect of such Resident Manager's Unit, at the Closing to each Tower Unit, the Purchaser thereof, as a closing cost of such Purchaser's Tower Unit, will be required to make a payment (each such payment, an "RMU Payment", and collectively, the "RMU Payments") to the Tower Board in an amount equal to such Purchaser's prorata share of the Purchase Price of the Resident Manager's Unit plus closing costs as aforesaid determined in proportion to their respective Common Interests, as set forth on Schedule A – "Purchase Prices and Related Information." The RMU Payment must be paid by bank check or Purchaser's personal certified check payable to the Tower Board and the same shall be separate from the Working Capital Fund contribution otherwise required of each Purchaser. Closing costs incurred in connection with the transfer of the Resident Manager's Unit will be paid from the Working Capital Fund.

ALTHOUGH THE CLOSING OF TITLE TO THE RESIDENT MANAGER'S UNIT IS ANTICIPATED TO OCCUR ON OR PRIOR TO THE CLOSING OF TITLE TO FIFTY-ONE PERCENT (51%) OF THE TOWER UNITS OFFERED HEREUNDER, AT CLOSING EACH PURCHASER OF A TOWER UNIT WILL BE REQUIRED TO MAKE THE RMU PAYMENT TO THE TOWER BOARD. Sponsor shall file an amendment to the Plan disclosing the sale of the Resident Manager's Unit promptly after the same has occurred.

The RMU Payments shall be held in the Working Capital Fund. At the Closing of title to the Resident Manager's Unit, the Tower Board shall use the RMU Payments to pay for a portion of the Purchase Price thereof. If insufficient working capital exists at such time in the Tower Board's account, the portion of the Purchase Price not covered by the RMU Payments (the "RMU Balance") will be payable by a promissory note (the "RMU Note") which will mature three (3) years after the closing on such Resident Manager's Unit. The Tower Board will not be responsible for payment of interest in connection with the RMU Note. The principal balance shall be payable in full to Sponsor by the Tower Board out of the Working Capital Fund at the time of maturity (i.e., three (3) years after the closing on the Resident Manager's Unit). In the event that a Closing occurs after maturity, Purchasers shall continue to make RMU Payments to the Tower Board at their respective Closings, which amounts shall be used to replenish the Working Capital Fund. Payment of the RMU Note will be secured by a first lien on the Resident Manager's Unit. Sponsor does not intend to refinance or extend the RMU Note and related loan at maturity. Purchasers are advised that refinancing by another lender may not be available and that the Tower Board, in order to repay the purchase money note, may be required to assess all Tower Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests.

In the event the Tower Board defaults under the note, including, but not limited to a default as the result of the Tower Board's failure to pay the balance of the purchase money note due at maturity, Sponsor may foreclose on the Resident Manager's Unit and if the proceeds from the sale of such Unit are insufficient to satisfy the outstanding mortgage balance and other fees incurred, the Tower Unit Owners could be liable for the deficiency. In the event of such a foreclosure, the Tower Board will be without a Resident Manager's Unit and, accordingly, alternate arrangements will be necessary to shelter the Resident Manager in the Building or within such distance of the Building as is then required by law.

Sponsor shall enter into a lease agreement (the "RMU Lease") with the Tower Board for the Resident Manager's Unit, for a term beginning on or about the First Closing and extending to the date that the Resident Manager's Unit is transferred to the Tower Board. The monthly rent shall be in an amount equal to the sum of Common Charges and real estate taxes (plus any additional expenses) attributable to the Resident Manager's Unit. The Tower Board shall pay all expenses of the Resident Manager's Unit from and after the First Closing regardless of when the closing of title to such Unit occurs as aforesaid.

There is also no guaranty that the Resident Manager will be residing in the Building at the time of closing of any particular Tower Unit although all Legal Requirements with respect thereto will be complied with, including the Administrative Code of the City of New York, Section 27-2052, et seq. All costs and expenses of the Resident Manager's Unit and repairs thereto, as well as all utilities serving same, shall be expenses of the Tower Board at all times.

3. Commercial Units

In addition to the Tower Units, the Condominium will initially include the following Commercial Units: (i) the Rental Unit, comprised of approximately fifty-five (55) rental apartments; (ii) the Retail Unit; (iii) two (2) Community Facility Units (referred to as "Community Facility Unit A" and "Community Facility Unit B"); and (iv) the Garage Unit.

No income derived from any use of such Commercial Units will constitute income to any Board or any Unit Owner (except as may be expressly provided in the Condominium By-Laws to the contrary or pursuant to separate written agreement by or among the applicable parties). In addition, subject to all applicable zoning regulations and the Declaration or Condominium By-Laws, the Commercial Units may be sold, leased or subleased by the Unit Owners thereof, or subdivided by such Unit Owners into two (2) or more separate units and such subdivided units sold or leased. The Commercial Units may be used for any legally permitted purpose, including, without limitation, for retail, hotel, restaurant, banking, commercial, office, storage, garage, residential (to the extent the certificate of occupancy is amended to permit such use with respect to Commercial Units other than the Rental Unit), fitness facility and utility purposes (and ancillary uses of any of the foregoing). Neither the Condominium Board, nor the Tower Board, will have no right to restrict or limit any of the uses of, or alterations in or to, the Commercial Units (including the portions thereof facing the street or public area) which are permitted by law and applicable zoning ordinances, except as otherwise set forth in the Declaration and the Condominium By-Laws.

Subject to compliance with all Legal Requirements, including, without limitation, the certificate of occupancy for such Unit and any applicable zoning regulations, and except as otherwise provided herein and in the Condominium By-Laws, each Commercial Unit may be used and operated for any legally permitted purpose. It is currently anticipated that the Rental Unit will be used for affordable housing purposes (and ancillary uses) (as more particularly described herein), the Retail Unit will be used for retail purposes (and ancillary uses), the Community Facility Units will be used as community facilities (e.g., without limitation, a daycare center) and/or professional office space, and the Garage Unit will be used as public parking (and ancillary uses). If, as anticipated (but not represented or warranted), Section 421-a benefits are awarded to the Condominium, the Rental Apartments will be rent-stabilized apartments under the Rent Stabilization Law and Code.

Although the Rental Unit, like the Tower Units, contains residential apartments, the Rental Unit Owner nonetheless has certain rights that differ from the rights of the Tower Unit Owners. The rights of the Rental Unit Owner are like those of any other Commercial Unit Owners. For instance, but without limitation, the Rental Unit Owner will not be subject to a right of first refusal by the Tower Board upon the sale, lease or license of all or any part of such Owner's Unit. In addition, the Rental Unit Owner may: (i) make structural additions, alterations or improvements to the Rental Unit, (ii) change the layout of the Rental Unit, and (iii) subdivide the Rental Unit and reapportion Common Interest previously allocated to such Unit among the newly created Units, on prior notice to, but without the consent of, the Condominium Board.

All Units in the Condominium are located within the Building. However, the Rental Unit, which contains the Rental Apartments that Sponsor intends to develop pursuant to the requirements of the City's Inclusionary Housing Program and which are intended to be affordable in perpetuity, is considered by the Zoning Resolution to be located in a separate "building segment". To qualify as a "building segment", Section 12-10 et. seq. of the Zoning Resolution requires that a separate entrance serving only the dwellings within that segment be provided. Accordingly, the Rental Unit has its own entrance (i.e., the Rental Lobby) on West 62nd Street to be used by occupants of the Rental Unit.

(See the Section entitled "Commercial Units" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

4. Storage Closets

There will be a total of 189 Storage Closets located on the Subcellar Level of the Building, subject to the right of Sponsor to create new/additional Storage Closets. The Storage Closets vary in size from sixteen (16) square feet to fifty-two (52) square feet. Sponsor reserves the right to change the number and size of the Storage Closets by, among other things, subdividing and reconfiguring the Storage Closets and, in connection with such subdivision and reconfiguration, redesignating in an amendment to the Declaration, among other things, a portion of a subdivided Storage Closet's space. Sponsor expressly reserves the right, from time to time, to effect such changes and to amend the Plan so as to reflect the same.

Purchasers of Tower Units will have the opportunity to purchase from Sponsor the rights to a Storage Closet pursuant to a Storage License (please refer to Exhibit 11 of Part II of the Plan for the form of Storage License). Storage Licenses may only be purchased by and sold only to Tower Unit Owners. If at any time the licensee of a Storage Closet sells its Tower Unit, it shall simultaneously assign its license of the Storage Closet to the purchaser of such Tower Unit or to another owner of a Tower Unit, failing which, the Tower Board shall have the right to terminate the license of the Storage Closet and take possession of the same, without compensation to the licensee.

The Storage Closets may only be used for storage purposes, and in no event may be used as a dwelling space or for the storage of toxic or inflammable items or Combustibles (as such term is defined in the New York City Building Code). No materials which pose a health or safety threat or which otherwise create a nuisance may be stored in the Storage Closets. To do so may result in a violation placed against the Building by the Department of Buildings that will be the obligation of the licensee to remove. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor or its designee shall have the right to use without charge any Unlicensed Storage Closets for any lawful purpose or to change the permitted use of any Unlicensed Storage Closets, subject, however, to the provisions of Article 6 of the Tower By-Laws which provide, among other things, that no use shall be allowed in the Condominium which interferes with the peaceful possession and proper use of the Condominium by its occupants.

Each licensee shall be liable for all damage arising out of such licensee's use or misuse of its Storage Closet. Neither the Sponsor, nor its respective agents or employees shall be liable for any theft or damage to any property stored in the Storage Closets. Each licensee shall indemnify and hold Sponsor and its respective directors, officers, partners, parent and subsidiary and affiliated companies, agents and employees, harmless from and against any and all liabilities, claims, causes of action, damages, lawsuits, penalties, judgments, and liens, together with any related costs and expenses, including but not limited to reasonable legal fees, asserted against or sustained by any of them in connection with any act, omission, or negligence of a licensee or a licensee's family, servants, employees, agents, guests and invitees in connection with the purchase of a Storage License.

5. Terraces and Swimming Pools

As indicated in Schedule A, Terraces are appurtenant to certain Tower Units. Each Terrace is a Tower Limited Common Element. The Tower Unit Owner of a Unit having a Terrace shall have the exclusive use of the Terrace appurtenant thereto, subject to the right of the Tower Board to regulate its use in accordance with the Tower By-Laws and the Tower Rules and Regulations. Each Tower Unit Owner shall be responsible for all ordinary maintenance and cleaning of each Terrace and/or Swimming Pool appurtenant to its Unit, subject to the rights of the Boards to regulate its use (including, without limitation, pursuant to the Tower Rules and Regulations regarding the opening, closing, cleaning and maintenance of Swimming Pools), and to enter the Tower Unit to access the Terrace and to access any Limited Common Elements for maintenance, repair and replacement and other uses (including, without limitation, to access any Building mechanical equipment or other Common Elements located on any roof setback adjacent to any Terrace, or to use any Terrace as a platform for window washing equipment). Sponsor is not responsible for, can make no guarantees regarding and shall have no liability to Tower Unit Owners with respect to, the level of noise or vibrations or odors resulting from the operation of the Building or the Units or the degree of privacy which will be afforded to Unit Owners on their Terraces. The costs and expenses of any repairs or replacements to a Terrace, structural or otherwise (unless caused by or attributable to the Tower Unit Owner), shall be charged to all Tower Unit Owners as a Common Expense.

The Tower Board shall have the right to require a Tower Unit Owner to remove plantings, roof surfaces and other installations which have been placed on the Terraces if the Tower Board determines, in its sole discretion, that such plantings or other installations may adversely affect the integrity of the roof or other portion of the Building or is otherwise unsafe. In addition, the Tower Board shall have the right, in connection with any construction, repair or maintenance work in the Building, to erect scaffolding temporarily on any Terrace. In no event shall any Tower Unit Owner of a Tower Unit having a Terrace be permitted to enclose or erect any structure on such Terrace. The Tower Board may establish such other rules and regulations it deems necessary to protect the Common Elements and the Units and to insure the integrity of the Building and the health and safety of the occupants.

Moreover, Terraces, Swimming Pools and any other areas that are exposed to the elements must be kept free of snow, ice and accumulation of water to the extent failure to do so could cause damage to the Building and/or other Units therein. In particular, each Owner of a Tower Unit with a Swimming Pool (as shown on Schedule A) is responsible for maintaining such Swimming Pool and must contract with a pool maintenance company, reasonably acceptable to the Tower Board, to provide ongoing cleaning and maintenance of the Swimming Pool. In the event a Tower Unit Owner fails to comply with any of its maintenance obligations, the Tower Board may, at the expense of the Unit Owner and without liability to the Tower Board, enter the Unit and perform such acts as are necessary to cure the Unit Owner's default. All Swimming Pools must be drained, closed (i.e., winterized) and covered by October 1st of each year, and may refilled commencing on May 1st of each year.

(See the Section entitled "Description of the Property and Improvements" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

6. Common Elements

As is set forth in more detail in the Declaration, the Common Elements consist of the Land, together with all easements, rights and privileges appurtenant thereto (except as otherwise expressly provided in the Declaration) and all parts of the Building other than the Units themselves, including, generally, the foundations, roofs and supports of the Building and all other parts of the Building and all apparatus, installations, systems, equipment and facilities therein for the common use of the Units and Unit Owners or which are necessary or convenient for the existence, maintenance or safety of the Property. The Common Elements are divided into the following separate categories: (a) the General Common Elements, which are, generally, those Common Elements which serve or benefit all the Units or Unit Owners; and (b) the Tower Limited Common Elements, which are, generally, those Common Elements which serve or benefit exclusively the Tower Units or the Tower Unit Owners. The Common Elements cannot be divided or partitioned, except as provided in the New York Condominium Act. A Unit Owner's interest in the Common Elements shall not be separated from the Unit to which it appertains. For a detailed description of the Common Elements, see Article 7 of the Declaration (Exhibit 6 in Part II of the Plan) and the Description of Property and Specifications (Exhibit 4 in Part II of the Plan).

a. General Common Elements

The General Common Elements consist of all Common Elements other than the Tower Limited Common Elements, and include, among other things, the following: (i) the Land, together with all easements, rights and privileges appurtenant thereto (except as otherwise expressly provided in the Declaration); (ii) all structural elements, foundations, foundation walls, roofs (except as otherwise expressly provided in this Declaration or shown on the Floor Plans), footings, columns, girders, beams, supports, interior load-bearing walls, floor slabs (but not

7. Available Services and Facilities

Generally, all services normally associated with the operation and maintenance of a luxury residential condominium will be provided to Tower Unit Owners at no cost other than Common Charges; these are described below in the Section entitled "Building Standard Services and Facilities". Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, the Board shall at all times maintain, operate and staff the Building in compliance with, and subject to, all applicable Legal Requirements.

a. Building Standard Services and Facilities (provided to all Tower Unit Owners at no cost other than the Common Charges payable by Tower Unit Owners):

(1) Doorman: A doorman will be on duty in the Tower Lobby twenty-four (24) hours per day, seven (7) days per week.

(2) Concierge: There will be a concierge on duty in the Tower Lobby and available twenty-four (24) hours per day, seven (7) days per week to assist residents with day-to-day services. Purchasers are advised that not all of these services may be offered and those that are offered may not be available at all times.

(3) Elevator Service:

(a) Residential Elevators: There will be three (3) automatic passenger elevators servicing the Subcellar Level through PH5.

(b) Service/Passenger Elevator: The service/passenger elevator will be available to Tower Unit Owners by key fob access and otherwise in accordance with established policies.

(4) Courtyard: The Courtyard will be located at the Ground Floor of the Building and will be for the use of residents of the Tower Units. Costs incurred in connection with the operation and maintenance of the Courtyard will be borne by the Tower Unit Owners as a Tower Common Expense.

(5) Children's Playroom: The Children's Playroom will be located on the Ground Floor of the Building for the exclusive use of the Tower Unit residents. The room will be outfitted with play and activity equipment for use under parental supervision.

(8) Tower Gym: In addition to the Recreational Facility (described below), there will be a gym located on the Cellar Level of the Building available twenty-four (24) hours per day, seven (7) days per week for the exclusive use of the Tower Unit residents. The Tower Gym is anticipated to include aerobic equipment, such as treadmills, exercise bicycles, and elliptical/cross trainer machines, as well as multi-station strength equipment. Sponsor makes no representation that the Tower Gym will ultimately include the foregoing machines/equipment.

(9) Screening Room and Screening Lounge: The Screening Room and Screening Lounge will be located on the Ground Floor of the Building for the exclusive use of the Tower Unit residents.

(10) Resident Lounge: The Resident Lounge will be located on the Ground Floor of the Building for the exclusive use of the Tower Unit residents.

(11) Package Room: There will be a package room located at the south side of the Tower Lobby and will have a refrigerated storage area.

(12) Bicycle Storage: There will be bicycle storage in the Cellar Level of the Building that can accommodate approximately seventy-one (71) bicycles, and on the Ground Floor of the Building that can accommodate approximately forty-four (44) bicycles. Bicycle storage will be available to Tower Unit Owners on a first come first served basis, although the Tower Board may implement additions to the Tower Rules and Regulations with respect thereto.

(13) Shuttle Service to Subway: Sponsor anticipates that there will be a shuttle bus that will transport residents of the Tower Units from the Building to the 72nd Street subway station.

(14) Communications: Tower Units will be equipped with an intercom system that will permit occupants of the Tower Units to communicate with the concierge desk in the Tower Lobby, the attendant in the Garage Unit and other areas of the Building. Occupants of each Tower Unit will be able to communicate directly with the concierge and/or Tower Lobby regarding the admission of guests and visitors. Further, the Building will be wired for cable and/or fiber optic television and Internet service.

(15) Building Staff: It is anticipated that the Tower Section will initially be staffed with, in addition to the Resident Manager, various service employees. See Notes to Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation" for more detail.

(16) Refuse Disposal: There will be access to at least one (1) refuse chute and recycling bins in the service area of each residential floor of the Building. (See "Description of Property and Specifications" as set forth as Exhibit 4 in Part II of the Plan for further discussion.)

(17) Laundry: Each Tower Unit will contain a washer and dryer. Further, there will be a laundry facility located in the Cellar Level of the Building for the exclusive use of Tower Unit Owners. Sponsor reserves the right to lease to itself or an affiliate or designee the laundry facility located in the Cellar Level of the Building (or cause the Tower Board to do so) at a rental amount of $10 per year, and to engage for its own account a third-party vendor to operate such facility. If such right is exercised, all revenues generated from the laundry facility will be for the account of Sponsor or such lessee.

(18) Smoke and Carbon Monoxide Detectors/Sprinklers: A combination smoke and carbon monoxide detector will be provided in each Tower Unit in compliance with Law. Additionally, the Building will be fully sprinklered in compliance with Law.

(19) Mail: All incoming mail will be delivered to the Building by the United States Postal Service and deposited by its personnel in locked mail boxes in the mailroom located in the Tower Lobby. Sponsor reserves the right to eliminate mailboxes from the design of the Building and to have mail delivered to Unit Owners by building staff.

b. Recreational Facility

Tower Unit Owners will be entitled to use the Recreational Facility located on certain connected and integrated portions of the cellar levels of Building J-1 and Building J-2. Tower Unit Owners will be able to access the Recreational Facility through a hallway located on the Cellar Level of the Building. Tower Unit Owners will share use and maintenance of the Recreational Facility with the residents of Building J-1 and Building J-2, and such residents will access the Recreational Facility from their respective Buildings. Purchasers are advised that the Recreational Facility may be crowded during periods of peak usage. The Recreational Facility includes, among other things, separate men's and women's locker rooms (each with a sauna and steam room), a main exercise room with related equipment, an indoor lap pool, hot tub, treatment rooms, a yoga studio, a basketball court, a Pilates studio, a bowling alley, a squash court, a golf simulator, billiards, rock climbing wall and ping pong. The foregoing amenities are regularly available Monday through Friday from approximately 6:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. and from approximately 4:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m., and Saturday and Sunday from approximately 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

The Recreational Facility will be operated by the SFOA. Notwithstanding the foregoing, pursuant to the Shared Facilities Declaration (as defined herein) the SFOA will be authorized and, at the direction of the Aldyn Board, in its capacity as SFOA Administrator (as defined in the Shared Facilities Declaration), the SFOA will be obligated, to enter into license agreements with Sponsor for any purpose (including, without limitation, for sales or marketing purposes) or any other party in order to provide for the exclusive use of all or any portion of the Recreational Facility (including during scheduled hours of operation) by schools, community groups or any other person or entity the SFOA (or the Aldyn Board, as Administrator of the SFOA) shall designate. Each such license agreement shall be on such terms and conditions as the SFOA (or, if applicable, the Aldyn Board, as Administrator of the SFOA) shall determine.

The Aldyn Board, the Owner of Parcel J-2 and Sponsor have entered into the Recreational Facility Management Agreement with La Palestra as Recreational Facility Manager, to provide management of the Recreational Facility (including, without limitation, cleaning, lifeguards and pool supplies). La Palestra is not affiliated with Sponsor, the Aldyn Board, or the Owner of Parcel J-2. Sponsor, the Aldyn Board, and the Owner of Parcel J-2 have each assigned their respective interests in the Recreational Facility Management Agreement to the SFOA. The costs owed to La Palestra pursuant to the Recreational Facility Management Agreement are anticipated to be shared by the Aldyn Board, the Owner of Parcel J-2 and the Condominium Board upon commencement of residential occupancy at the Condominium (i.e., the First Closing). The sharing of this cost will be based on the respective Recreational Facility Allocation Percentages of the Condominium, Building J-1 and Building J-2, as determined from time to time by the SFOA Board. The Tower Units will pay the entirety of the Condominium's Recreational Facility expense based on each Tower Unit's respective percentage of Common Interest.

(See the Sections entitled "Introduction", "Schedules and Notes – Schedule B" and "Agreements Binding on the Condominium" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

c. General Provisions Concerning Services and Facilities

No representation or warranty is made as to the continued operation or existence of any of the foregoing services or facilities to the extent the same are provided or controlled by the Tower Board or Condominium Board once Sponsor is not in control of such Board. Neither Sponsor nor any Board, shall have any liability with respect to the amount of the fees charged therefor.

In all likelihood, the nature of the services listed above, the hours during which they are provided and the rates charged for same will change from time to time, in the discretion of the Condominium Board, the Tower Board, the Managing Agent or other party providing the service. However, all services required by law will be provided at all times. Neither Sponsor, the Managing Agent, the Selling Agent, nor any Board will in any event be liable for the availability, interruption, discontinuance or quality of any of such services, including, but not limited to, any services provided by any outside company or person, other than Building personnel, or for any injury to person or damage to property resulting from any act or omission of such company or persons or their employees or agents, except to the extent that any such injury or damage occurs as a result of the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Sponsor, the Managing Agent, the Selling Agent, or the applicable Board, as the case may be.

The Tower Board has complete discretion in determining how the Tower Limited Common Element facilities will be operated, maintained or modified, whether facilities should be added or discontinued, and the rates to be charged for their use. No representation or warranty is made as to the continued operation or existence of any of such facilities, or the amount of the fees charged therefor.

Although Sponsor anticipates that many of the services described above will be available at the time of the First Closing, prospective Purchasers should note that some of these services may not be available until the later of: (i) twelve months after the First Closing; or (ii) the closing of title to and occupancy of at least fifty percent (50%) of the Tower Units (specifically, some of the elevators, the Courtyard, Function Room, the Tower Gym, the Children's Playroom, the Screening Room and the Screening Room Lounge, the Resident Lounge, the Bicycle Storage Room, Storage Closets, a full staff of residential service personnel and access to parking in the Garage Unit). In addition, certain of the amenities described in the Plan may not be arranged or available until after such interim period. However, it is anticipated that at all times after the First Closing, the Tower Lobby will be attended twenty-four (24) hours per day, seven (7) days per week, and there will be at least one (1) elevator servicing every floor on which there are occupied Tower Units. The interim level of staffing will at all times during this period be commensurate with the levels of occupancy from time to time and adequate to properly maintain the Building. Purchasers are also advised that during such period and beyond, various systems, including, but not limited to, water supply, air conditioning, heating, cooling, ventilating and elevators, may be incomplete and may be disrupted temporarily and from time to time. (See the Special Risks above entitled "Interim Service Period" and "Additional Building Work" for further discussion.)

Purchasers are further advised to note that construction in general is a complicated process which requires the coordination of numerous concurrent tasks, contractors and suppliers and the balancing of complex mechanical and architectural systems, all of which is subject to unanticipated delays and difficulties and necessarily involves noise, disruption and inconvenience. Thus, for a period of time following the First Closing (through, including and beyond the closing of title to any particular Purchaser's Tower Unit), work should be expected to be undertaken and continue by or on behalf of: (i) Sponsor to complete the balance of the Building; (ii) individual Tower Unit Owners within their Tower Units (to perform custom renovations, etc.); and (iii) the Commercial Unit Owners to complete construction, build-out, furnishing and equipping their Units. During at least the First Year of Condominium Operation, construction workers and related personnel of Sponsor and others will be at the Property from time to time performing construction work, making adjustments and performing various other tasks related to the completion of construction, fitting out of, and moving into, the Tower Units and other portions of the Building from time to time. Various systems, including, but not limited to, water supply, air conditioning, heating, cooling, gas, electric, ventilating and other systems, and elevators, may require more than a year after any particular Tower Unit closing to complete and may be disrupted temporarily and from time to time (systems constituting Common Elements may require more than a year after any particular Tower Unit closing to complete, but all systems within a Tower Unit that must be completed as a requirement for the issuance of a temporary Certificate of Occupancy covering such Tower Unit will be functioning at the time of closing). Elevators and personnel may be taken out of service and diverted to facilitate construction and exterior hoists may be in place during at least the year following the First Closing, and from time to time thereafter, as needed, in connection with construction being performed in Units by the Unit Owners thereof, Sponsor and/or tenants of such Units. Various other adjustments, to windows and elevators and other systems, may require eighteen (18) months or more after the First Closing to complete. Sponsor may not fully complete the decoration or finishing of the lobby, corridors, elevator finishes and other portions of the Building, including, but not limited to, installing light fixtures, painting, hanging wall coverings or laying carpeting, until that particular floor is fully occupied by Unit Owners or, if additional construction within a Unit is anticipated, for some period thereafter. All of the foregoing work and conditions will create a noisy and otherwise disruptive condition in the Building during the period such work is being performed. Certain portions of the Common Elements may be completed before or after completion of any particular Purchaser's Unit. As a result, certain amenities and benefits anticipated to be available to Tower Unit Owners may not be available until such other portions of the Building are completed and fully operational. Sponsor shall have no liability whatsoever in the event these services are delayed, not made available, or discontinued or disrupted. Further, the Boards and/or Sponsor may refuse to permit a Tower Unit Owner to perform alterations in a Tower Unit until such time as the Building has been completed and permanent certificate(s) of occupancy have been obtained therefor. Even where such alterations are permitted, the Boards and/or Sponsor may impose conditions and deadlines upon the planning, performing and completion of such work. No assurance can be given with regard to the accuracy of any projected schedules or completion dates set forth herein or with respect to the duration of any interim service period or periods of potential disruption to the Unit Owners and their tenants or occupants, all such dates and timetables, to the extent provided, being only good faith estimates.

Sponsor and its designee(s) shall have the right, until the tenth anniversary of the First Closing, to use, without charge, portions of the Building, including the Common Elements, for exhibitions, events, promotional functions (e.g., with respect to any sales programs for Unsold Units or otherwise).

C. LOCATION AND AREA INFORMATION

1. Location and Services

The Condominium is situated at 50 Riverside Boulevard, New York, New York, on the east side of Riverside Boulevard between West 61th Street and West 62nd Street.

In the immediate vicinity of the Property exists an array of luxury condominiums and cooperative buildings, as well as many shopping and dining options and cultural attractions. Cultural institutions include Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts, home of the Metropolitan Opera, New York City Opera, New York City Ballet, American Ballet Theatre, the New York Philharmonic and the Vivian Beaumont Theatre.

Riverside South is situated on a waterfront location, featuring thirteen (13) blocks directly along the Hudson River. Open parkland is the only permitted use for the land between the buildings being constructed in Riverside South and the Hudson River. The Park Area within Riverside South, as well as piers along the Hudson River, are being developed as the Development Parcels of Riverside South are developed.

The Building is close to Central Park and Riverside Park and all the amenities they have to offer, including the Central Park Zoo, the Shakespeare Garden, Belvedere Castle and The Great Lawn. Central Park is also home to baseball fields, tennis courts, ice rinks, theaters, lakes and bridges. In addition, the area of Riverside South has a unique waterfront location, including thirteen (13) blocks directly along the Hudson River, that feature extensive park space.

The Building is nearby many of the Manhattan's high-end retailers and restaurants. Major shopping institutions nearby include Barney's Co-Op, Steven Alan, Club Monaco, Searle, Barnes and Noble, Banana Republic, Gracious Home, Zabar's, Fairway, and Renaissance Fine Wines. Nearby dining options include top Zagat-rated restaurants such as Per Se, Picholine, Restaurant 222, Gabriel's, Isabella's, La Mirabelle, Cesca, Café Luxembourg, and Jean Georges.

Transportation to and from the Building, and throughout New York City, is readily available by taxi, limousine, private automobile, subway or bus. Sponsor anticipates that there will be a shuttle bus that will transport residents of the Tower Units from the Building to the 72nd Street subway station during morning and evening rush hours.

In addition to the Garage Unit in the Building, a number of commercial parking garages are located nearby.

In addition to the universities located in the New York City area, noted schools in the neighborhood or nearby include several preparatory schools such as Manhattan Day School, Trinity, Calhoun, West Side Montessori, Columbia Grammar, Rodeph Sholom, Abraham Heschel and Collegiate High School. The Building is located in Public School District No. 3, although Sponsor makes no guarantee or representation as to which school a child residing at the Building may actually attend.

There are a variety of houses of worship in the immediate area that serve various religious denominations.

The Building is nearby to several major medical facilities including St. Luke's/Roosevelt Hospital (West 59th Street and Ninth Avenue), St. Luke's Hospital (West 114th Street and Amsterdam) and Mount Sinai Medical Center (100th Street and Fifth Avenue).

The Property is located in the 20th Police Precinct. Precinct headquarters are at 120 West 82nd Street. Fire protection is provided by Engine 40, Ladder 35, located at the firehouse situated at 131 Amsterdam Avenue at West 66th Street. The zip code for the Property is 10069, which is the Ansonia Postal Office, located at 178 Columbus Avenue, New York, New York.

2. Streets

The portion of Riverside Boulevard abutting the Property will be constructed by Sponsor simultaneously with construction of the Building. It is anticipated, but not represented or guaranteed, that the City of New York will accept dedication of these streets, sections of which are adjacent to the Building (i.e., Riverside Boulevard and 61st Street), after the streets are constructed. If the City of New York does not accept dedication of Riverside Boulevard and 61st Street, they will continue to be owned by HWA, or an affiliate thereof, which will be responsible for maintenance and repair of, and removal of snow from, such streets. Purchasers are advised that HWA may, at its option, charge the Condominium for its pro-rata share of the real estate taxes, if any, payable with respect to Riverside Boulevard and 61st Street and until such time that the City of New York accepts dedication of Riverside Boulevard and 61st Street, the Condominium reserves the right to charge Unit Owners for any such costs in proportion to their respective Common Interests. However, inasmuch as the City is obligated under the Mapping Agreement to accept dedication of the streets once they are substantially completed, Sponsor believes, but does not warrant or represent, that the City's failure to accept dedication of the streets is only a remote possibility.

Adjacent to the Property on the north is the 62nd Street Public Access Area. The 62nd Street Public Access Area is the extension of West 62nd Street into Riverside South. The 62nd Street Public Access Area, unlike Riverside Boulevard, will not be dedicated to the City of New York and thus will not be a public street. Instead, it will be conveyed to the RSPOA and will have a Public Access Easement granted across it. This will be a permanent surface level (and above) easement for use by the City of New York and the general public for vehicular and pedestrian access. The rules and regulations of the Department of Transportation shall apply to the Public Access Easement in the same manner as if the Public Access Easement were a public street. Thus, the Department of Transportation may place traffic signs within the easement area for regulation of traffic and parking, and all laws pertaining to vehicular and pedestrian traffic and parking shall apply and shall be enforceable by the City of New York, in the same manner as if the Public Access Easement were a public street.

Once the 62nd Street Public Access Area is conveyed to the RSPOA, even if the easement to the City of New York has not yet been granted, it will be the obligation of the "Dominant Owner" (as such term is defined in the RSPO Declaration) of the 62nd Street Public Access Area (and, once granted, the Public Access Easement thereon), to implement and oversee the maintenance and repair (and to procure and maintain insurance) of same, including any structural supports, in accordance with the standards of the Department of Transportation for maintenance of public streets. The cost of such physical maintenance and repair will be shared proportionately by the Owner of Parcel J-2, the Aldyn Board, the Owner of Parcel K-2, and the Condominium Board, in accordance with the proportions provided for in the RSPO Declaration and the K-2 ZLDA (as defined herein). The Dominant Owner shall bill the other owners for their respective proportionate shares of this expense, which may include, without limitation, the eventual creation of a reserve fund for future repair and maintenance work, as the Dominant Owner shall in its discretion determine, and each of the other owners shall pay its respective share to the Dominant Owner. The costs allocated to the Condominium will be charged to Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests. As the owner, RSPOA is responsible for payment of real estate taxes for the 62nd Street Public Access Area as well as the other Public Access Areas created under the Mapping Agreement and will charge the Sponsor, or the Condominium Board, as applicable, in accordance with the RSPO Declaration.

Purchasers are further advised that until such time that the 62nd Street Public Access Area is conveyed to the RSPOA, the Owner of Parcel J-2, the Aldyn Board and Sponsor (or the Condominium Board following the First Closing) are responsible for maintenance, procuring and maintaining insurance and payment of real estate taxes to the City of New York with respect to the 62nd Street Public Access Area. Sponsor, or the Condominium Board, as applicable, reserves the right to charge Unit Owners for such amounts owed by the Condominium in proportion to their respective Common Interests.

3. Zoning

The Condominium is located in an area zoned C2-5 (R10 equivalent), which permits residential, professional office and commercial uses. The intended use of the Building as described in accordance with the provisions of this Plan will be in compliance with the current requirements of the Zoning Resolution. A copy of the zoning regulations and variances with respect to the Project is on file at the Sponsor's office.

NOTES TO SCHEDULE A

* Amounts are projected on the assumption that the First Year of Condominium Operation will be the year from July 1, 2015 – June 30, 2016. The actual First Year of Condominium Operation may begin earlier or later than that year.

(1) Any floor plan or sketch or schedule shown to a prospective Purchaser is only an approximation of the square foot area and layout of the Unit in question. However, any material change (for example, a reduction in square footage in excess of five percent (5%)) will be set forth in an amendment to the Plan, and no material adverse change will be made in the size (i.e., decrease), configuration, or layout of a Unit for which an Option Agreement which has been countersigned by Sponsor and returned to the Purchaser, unless the same is dictated by construction conditions at the Property (such as coordination of Building systems, conflicts with structural members or elements, conforming with Legal Requirements, unforeseen events, etc. and, in all cases, in good faith, reasonably necessary due to factors not within Sponsor's reasonable control, and where no practicable alternative (in the exercise of sound construction management practices) exists). In such event, Sponsor will, in the amendment disclosing such change and delivered to the Purchasers, offer the materially adversely affected Purchaser(s) the right, for at least fifteen (15) days, to rescind their Option Agreements and receive a refund of their Deposits, together with all interest earned thereon. An increase in the size of a room or Tower Unit will not on its own give rise to a right of rescission. There is a rebuttable presumption that a Unit size that is diminished by five percent (5%) or less is not material. (See the Section entitled "Changes in Prices and Units: Tower Units and Storage Licenses" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion concerning and certain limitations applicable to Sponsor's rights with respect to changes in the construction of the Units, Storage Closets and the Common Elements.)

Any Common Elements located within or appurtenant to any Tower Unit shall not be considered as part of that Unit.*

(2) Each Unit has been measured horizontally from the exterior face of the exterior walls (perimeter mechanical pipes are not deducted) to the midpoint of the interior walls and the midpoint of partitions separating one Unit from another Unit, public corridors, stairs, elevators and other mechanical equipment spaces or any Common Elements or Limited

* Each Unit includes, and each Unit Owner shall be responsible for (maintaining, insuring, repairing, replacing, etc.), all fixtures, equipment and other items of personalty, including, without limitation, front entrance door and any other entrance doors to such Unit, flooring and subflooring, wallcoverings, non-load bearing interior walls and partitions and sheet rock and plaster wall covering, smoke detectors, all plumbing, gas and heating fixtures and equipment such as heating, ventilating and air conditioning units (including the fans inside the units), as may be affixed, attached or appurtenant to such Unit and serving such Unit exclusively. Plumbing, gas and heating fixtures and equipment as used in the preceding sentence shall include exposed gas and water pipes from branch or fixture shut-off valves attached to fixtures, appliances and equipment and the fixtures, appliances and equipment to which they are attached, and any special pipes or equipment which a Unit Owner may install within a wall or ceiling, or under the floor, but shall not include gas, water or other pipes, conduits, wiring or ductwork within the walls, ceilings or floors. Each Unit shall also include (i) all lighting and electrical fixtures, cabinets, including, without limitation kitchen and bathroom cabinetry, countertops, and appliances and appliances within the Unit, and (ii) any equipment, fixtures or facilities (as defined in the Declaration) affixed, attached or appurtenant to the Unit, to the extent located within a Unit and serving or benefiting only that Unit.

Common Elements. Measured vertically, each Unit will consist of the volume from the top of the concrete floor slab below (located under the finished flooring and sub-floor materials) comprising the lowest floor of the Unit to the underside of the concrete slab forming the ceiling of the highest floor of the Unit. The method of measurement is applicable to all Units. Any Common Elements located within a Unit shall not be considered a part of such Unit. As is customary in New York City, these square foot areas exceed the useable floor area of each Unit.

Each Storage Closet is measured horizontally from the outside of each cage.

The square foot areas determined using the methodology set forth above, as shown in Schedule A in Part I of the Plan, would be different from that derived by using an alternative methodology of measuring from interior surfaces to interior surfaces (which would yield lesser actual useable floor area for each Unit than the methodology set forth above). The stated method of measurement used is applicable to all Units. The room count for each Tower Unit was determined by Sponsor's architect in accordance with industry practice for new construction condominiums and does not necessarily conform to the zoning room count or the method utilized by the Real Estate Board of New York.

The clearance between the top of the concrete floor slab and the bottom of the finish ceiling in the Units will generally be approximately 9'-0" in major areas. Certain Units and areas within other Units will have clearances of less than this to accommodate facilities located above the ceiling or otherwise to respond to field conditions. The maximum ceiling height on Floors 7, 8, 16 and PH5 is approximately 10'-11-1/2". The maximum ceiling height on Floor 20 is approximately 10'-4". The maximum ceiling height on Floor 21 floor is approximately 9'-6 1/2". The maximum ceiling height on Floor PH#1 through PH#3 is approximately 10'-2". The maximum ceiling height on Floor PH#4 is approximately 10'-1 1/2".

Each Tower Unit listed below has a Swimming Pool as a Tower Limited Common Element appurtenant to its Unit. The square footage of each Swimming Pool and surrounding Terrace is set forth above in Schedule A. The mechanical space on the Floor immediately below each Swimming Pool is also designated as Tower Limited Common Element; however, the square footage set forth above in Schedule A does not take such space into account.

Tower Unit 17E: 1,757 square feet of Swimming Pool mechanical space
Tower Unit 21/22A: 2,453 square feet of Swimming Pool mechanical space
Tower Unit 21/22B: 2,453 square feet of Swimming Pool mechanical space

(3) Sponsor has reserved the right to change the purchase prices (as well as other terms of sale) of Tower Units (and Storage Licenses) not subject to executed Option Agreements, so Purchasers may pay different prices for similar Tower Units (and Storage Licenses). (See the Section entitled "Changes in Prices and Units: Tower Units and Storage Licenses" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.) In addition to paying the purchase prices of their Units, Purchasers will be responsible for paying certain closing adjustments and closing costs, including, without limitation, the obligation of Purchasers of Tower Units to contribute to the Working Capital Fund. Purchasers are advised to consult with their attorneys as to the exact closing costs they will incur in purchasing their Units. Whether or not included in an amendment, no price change will be effective with respect to any Unit (as against the applicable Purchaser) for which an Option Agreement is in effect without the consent of the applicable Purchaser. (See the Section entitled "Unit Closing Costs and Adjustments" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

(4) The Common Interest of each Unit has been determined, pursuant to Section 339-i(1)(iv) of the Condominium Act. In accordance with such method of calculation, the Common Interests have been determined based primarily upon a comparison of the floor areas of the Units, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Unit, the availability of the Common Elements for exclusive or shared use and the overall dimensions of the particular Unit. The aggregate Common Interests of all of the Units equals 100%.

The Proportionate Share of Aggregate Tower Section Common Interest is the ratio of the Common Interest appurtenant to each Tower Unit compared to the aggregate Common Interest appurtenant to all Tower Units, expressed as a percentage.

(5) This is the amount each Purchaser will be required to pay for such Purchaser's share of the purchase price of the Resident Manager's Unit. (See the Special Risk entitled "Resident Manager's Unit" and the Section entitled "Unit Closing Costs and Adjustments" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

(6) These projections have been based upon the projections contained in "Schedule B – Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation", which were made based on the assumption that the First Year of Condominium Operation will be from July 1, 2015 – June 30, 2016. The actual first year of operation may be earlier or later. In the event the actual or anticipated commencement date of the First Year of Condominium Operation is to be delayed by six (6) months or more, Sponsor will amend the Plan to include a revised budget with current projections. If the amended budget exceeds this projected budget by twenty-five percent (25%) or more, Sponsor will offer all Purchasers (other than Purchasers who are then in default beyond any applicable grace period, if the Plan has been declared effective) the right to rescind their Option Agreements within not less than fifteen (15) days after the presentation date of the amendment containing such revised budget, and any Purchasers electing rescission pursuant to such offer will have their Deposit and any interest accrued thereon returned.

As discussed above in the Section entitled "Available Services and Facilities" and in the Special Risk entitled "Interim Service Period", the full range of services and facilities described in this Plan may not be provided until move-ins are finished and construction work within and on the Building is completed.

The amount of the Common Charges necessary to defray the cost of the interim services and facilities described in the preceding paragraph, as well as the manner of allocating such Common Charges among any Tower Unit Owners who are exclusively benefited by any of the same, will be determined by the Tower Board, which will be controlled by Sponsor during such period. However, such allocation will be made in compliance with Section 339-m of the New York State Real Property Law, and in no event will Purchasers be assessed Common Charges during such interim period that are more than the Common Charges listed in Schedule A as the same may theretofore have been amended.

As discussed below in the Section entitled "Control by Sponsor" and in the Special Risk entitled "Control by Sponsor; First Annual Tower Meeting", Sponsor shall have the right, in its sole and absolute discretion, to cause the Tower Board to waive the collection of some or all of the Tower Common Charges from Tower Unit Owners for a period of time prior to full occupancy of the Building (the "Waiver Period"); provided, however, that Sponsor shall be solely responsible for payment of all remaining expenses to operate the Tower Section during the Waiver Period (the "Operating Expenses"). In connection with the Waiver Period, (i) Sponsor will disclose the implementation of such Waiver Period in the amendment to the Plan disclosing the occurrence of the First Closing; (ii) Sponsor shall file an amendment to the Plan disclosing the expiration of the Waiver Period at least thirty (30) days prior to such expiration; (iii) that during any such Waiver Period, Sponsor will timely pay all expenses of the Condominium, including but not limited to insurance premiums and any reserve fund payments required by lenders to the extent otherwise included in Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation"; (iv) upon the commencement of the collection of Common Charges, there will not be an assessment for any item set forth in the approved budget for the Condominium; and (v) Sponsor shall remain obligated to update the budget for the Condominium, as provided in the Condominium Documents.

In addition to the payment of Common Charges, each Unit Owner will incur additional expenses for, among other things:

(a) mortgage payments under any loan or loans obtained to finance the purchase of the Unit;

(b) the cost of electricity and any other utility supplied to the Unit, which will be separately metered and payable as and when billed;

(c) the cost of interior repairs, compliance with Legal Requirements and maintenance, painting and decoration in, to or of, the Unit, including, without limitation, the equipment and appliances contained in the same, and any appurtenant Tower Limited Common Elements;

(d) the cost of any insurance that the Unit Owner may be required to (or desire to) carry covering the furniture, belongings, equipment and other personal property in the Unit, as well as the cost of any insurance the Unit Owner may be required to carry covering liability to others for personal injury or property damage as a result of occurrences in the Unit;

(e) telephone, internet access and cable television charges; and

(f) real estate taxes (see note 7 below).

Holders of Storage Licenses, excluding Sponsor with respect to Unlicensed Storage Closets, will be required to pay a monthly license maintenance fee to the Tower Board in an amount equal to $1 per month per square foot of such Storage Closet, which amount shall, following the First Closing, be subject to biannual increases based upon the CPI Increase Factor in effect on the date of the First Closing. Further, the license fees are otherwise also subject to change from time to time as the Tower Board deems necessary or appropriate.

In accordance with Section 339(m) of the New York Real Property Law, Rental Unit Common Charge Allocation may be less than the allocation and apportionment of Common Charges to the other Units where such lesser Common Charges are necessary to ensure that the Common Charges paid by the Rental Unit do not exceed the Rental Unit Revenues (as defined below). The Rental Unit Common Charge Allocation shall be implemented by either: (i) imposing Common Charges for the Rental Unit that are not proportional to the Common Charges for the other Units, or (ii) limiting the amount of Common Charges imposed on the Rental Unit. In the event a Rental Unit Common Charge Allocation is implemented, the Common Charges payable by all other Unit Owners shall be increased by the amount of such reduction in the Common Charges otherwise payable by the Rental Unit Owner on a pro rata basis in accordance with their relative proportional Common Interest, or otherwise in accordance with the allocation methodology set forth in the Condominium By-Laws. (See Section 6.1.9 in the Condominium By-Laws as set forth as Exhibit 7 in Part II of the Plan for further discussion.)

(7) Sponsor intends to apply for partial exemption from real estate taxes with respect to the Building pursuant to Section 421-a of the New York State Real Property Tax Law. Pursuant to Section 421-a, the real estate tax estimate for the First Year of Condominium Operations will be based upon the assessed valuation of the Property in the tax year prior to the commencement of construction. During the tax year prior to the commencement of construction (2011/2012), the estimated allocated total taxable assessed value of the Land is $2,825,808, of which 83.59% is estimated to be applicable to the Tower Units in the Building, which, results in a "mini-tax" assessment of $2,362,093 for the Tower Units.

NEITHER SPONSOR, SPONSOR'S COUNSEL, SPONSOR'S 421-a TAX COUNSEL, SELLING AGENT, MANAGING AGENT NOR ANY OTHER PERSON MAKES ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY THAT A PARTIAL TAX EXEMPTION FROM REAL ESTATE TAXES UNDER SECTION 421-A WILL BE GRANTED OR, AS TO THE AMOUNT, IF ANY, OF THE MINIMUM TAX WHICH WILL BE ASSESSED AGAINST THE TOWER UNITS OR THE AMOUNT OF REAL ESTATE TAXES PAYABLE AT ANY TIME BY ANY TOWER UNIT OWNER. There is no guaranty or assurance that the criteria for Section 421-a benefits will be satisfied and neither Sponsor nor Sponsor's Counsel, Sponsor's 421-a Tax Counsel offers any opinion with respect to the eligibility of the Tower Units for Section 421-a benefits. If, for any reason, the application is not approved by HPD, the Tower Units will be subject to full taxation and will receive no benefits under Section 421-a. In such case Purchasers will not be entitled to any right of rescission, reduction in price or other credit or concession.

(See the Section entitled "Partial Real Estate Tax Exemption (Section 421-a)" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

(8) The projection of the real estate taxes that will be payable for each of the Tower Units during the projected First Year of Condominium Operation is based upon an opinion of counsel letter prepared by Marcus & Pollack LLP, Sponsor's real estate tax attorney and reproduced the Section entitled "Opinions of Counsel" in Part I of the Plan (the "Real Estate Tax Opinion"). As per the Real Estate Tax Opinion, by applying the estimated rate of 13.181% to the estimated transitional assessed value of $61,200,000, it is estimated that the real estate taxes for the Tower Units will be approximately $8,066,772 for the First Year of Condominium Operation (without an exemption pursuant to Section 421-a). SPONSOR MAKES NO REPRESENTATION THAT THE ASSESSED VALUE OF THE PROPERTY, THE ESTIMATED ALLOCATIONS OR THE TAX RATE WILL NOT BE CHANGED.

After the City of New York assesses each Unit as a separate tax lot and bills each Unit Owner, the Unit Owner will be responsible for paying the real estate taxes and assessments imposed against his or her Unit, and no Unit Owner will be responsible for the payment of, nor will his or her Unit be subjected to any lien arising from the non-payment of, taxes and assessments imposed on other Units.

No warranty, guaranty or assurance is given that:

(i) any projected or estimated amount set forth above (including, without limitation, the estimates of the Property's assessed valuations during the First Year of Condominium Operation, the estimates of the portions of such assessed valuations that will be allocable to the Units and the projection of the average real estate tax rate that will be in effect during such First Year of Condominium Operation and the date of completion of construction of the Building, which will determine the real estate tax rate between July 1, 2015 – June 30, 2016) will approximate the actual amount;

(ii) the New York City Real Estate Tax Assessment Bureau will allocate the Property's aggregate assessed valuation between the Units in accordance with the proportionate Common Interests of the Units, or that such bureau will allocate the aggregate assessed valuation attributable to the Units among the different Units as described above; or

(iii) any of the projections or estimates made above and in Schedule A are accurate.

Until the Units are separately assessed, each Tower Unit Owner will pay a share of the Property's real estate taxes for the period in question calculated on the basis of such Unit's Common Interest. The Tower Board will pay (or cause to be paid) such real estate taxes timely to the Department of Finance of The City of New York, or directly to Sponsor if Sponsor has paid such taxes, so that no lien will be placed on any portion of the Tower Section or on any Tower Unit. If Sponsor fails to pay real estate taxes attributable to any Unsold Tower Unit in a timely manner and as a result of such failure a lien is placed on the Tower Section and/or any other Unit, Sponsor will immediately cause such lien to be removed at its sole cost and expense. If Tower Unit Owners fail to pay their pro rata share of real estate taxes as set forth above, the Tower Board will be entitled to assess late charges and/or place a lien on their Units as if such unpaid share were Tower Common Charges. (See the subsection entitled "Collection and Lien for Non-Payment of Common Charges" in the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of the Unit Owners and the Boards of Managers" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

Upon determination of individual tax lots and individual assessments for such Unit, the New York City tax authorities may allocate taxes among the Units on some other basis rather than its relative Common Interest, and, if so, Units having the same or similar Common Interest may pay different real estate taxes and/or taxes may differ from those set forth on Schedule A. In addition, the New York City tax authorities may assess taxes against the Building in a different manner and in a different amount than that assumed by Sponsor's real estate tax attorney and, if so, Unit Owners may pay significantly different real estate taxes than those set forth on Schedule A.

There is no assurance that the proration of taxes described in the paragraph above will equal the actual amount or allocation of real estate taxes which will be assessed against the Units, and the actual amounts may vary considerably from the method set forth above. Sponsor will amend the Plan to disclose the actual amount of real estate taxes assessed against the Units promptly after the same are assessed.

In the opinion of Sponsor's Counsel, an individual Tower Unit Owner who is a resident of New York City for tax purposes and who itemizes his or her deductions generally will, under the income tax laws and regulations in effect as of the date of this Plan and subject to certain limitations and qualifications, be entitled to deduct from his or her Federal, New York State and New York City income, the state and local real property taxes assessed against his or her Tower Unit and paid by such Tower Unit Owner. However, the amount of such deductions may vary from year to year due to changes in the amount of the real estate taxes payable by the Tower Unit Owner (which might result from changes in the assessed valuation of the Tower Unit, in the tax rate and/or in the manner of assessing real property). Prospective Purchasers should refer to the Sections entitled "Income Tax Deductions to Tower Unit Owners and Tax Status of Condominium" and "Opinions of Counsel" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.

COMMON CHARGES - (Budget - $5,893,511)

The estimated Common Charges to be collected from Unit Owners during the first year of Condominium operation are based upon the assumption that the first year of Condominium operation will be the twelve months commencing July 1, 2015. The actual first year of operation may be earlier or later.

The allocation for the General Common Expenses to be borne by Tower Unit, Rental Unit, Retail Unit, Community Facility Unit 1, Community Facility Unit 2, and Parking Unit have been allocated on the basis of their respective Percentage of Common Interest, 83.5919%; 8.3082%; 2.0042%; .3086%; .2610% and 5.5261%. Any expenses solely shared by the Tower Unit and the Rental Unit will be proportioned based on each Unit's allocable share which is 90.9596% and 9.0404% respectively.

In the event the projected commencement date of the first year of Condominium operation is to be delayed more than six (6) months from the anticipated date of the First Closing, the Plan will be amended to include a revised budget disclosing the then current budget projections. Sponsor will not declare the plan effective if any material changes to the budget are not yet disclosed in an amendment to the plan.

If the Common Charges in the revised budget projections exceed the earlier budget projections by twenty-five percent (25%) or more, the Sponsor will offer all purchasers the right to rescind their Purchase Agreements and have their Deposits refunded to them, whether or not the Sponsor offers to guarantee the earlier budget projections.

(1) SALARIES, WAGES, PAYROLL TAXES & BENEFITS - (Budget - $1,947,278)

The budgeted amount includes base wages, worker's compensation and disability insurance, welfare and pension costs, payroll taxes, and the cost of sick days, holidays and vacation pay for a projected building staff of One Resident Manager, 2 Handyman, 4.2 Concierge, 4.2 Doormen, 2.8 hallmen and 6 Porters. The full staff may not be employed until certain building occupancy levels are achieved. The projected level of staffing for the building complies with all applicable housing and labor laws. It is anticipated that such employees will be union members. Accordingly, the labor costs discussed below are computed in accordance with the current contract rate of Local 32B-32J of the Service Employees International Union, AFL-CIO expiring April 20, 2014. A 4% wage increase has been assumed for the period April 21, 2014 through April 20, 2015, April 21, 2015 through April 20, 2016 and April 21, 2016 through June 30, 2016.

(1) Resident Manager	$160,000, plus apartment and free gas, electricity and telephone.
(3) Handyman	$1,019.55 for 42 weeks $1,060.33 for 10 weeks
(17.2) 4.2 Concierge, 4.2 Doorman, 2.8 Hallmen, and 7 Porters	$923.29 for 42 weeks $960.22 for 10 weeks

The projections allow for 28 sick days, holidays and vacation pay and miscellaneous payroll expenses.

Total Base Wages	$1,183,530
FICA @7.65% of Base Wages	$ 90,540
Worker's Compensation @ 5.5% of Total Wages	$ 65,094
FUI & FUTA-NYS Unemployment @ $425 Per Employee	$ 8,925
NYS Disability @ $60 per employee	$ 1,260
Union Welfare (health) @ $15,416 per employee	$ 308,320
Union Pension @ $99.82 per employee per week	$ 103,813
Legal Fund/Training School Fund @ $369.12 per employee	$ 7,382
Union Annuity Plan @ $10 per employee per week	$ 10,400
Total Benefit	$ 595,734
Total Wages, Taxes, & Benefits	$1,779,264

It is anticipated that a small portion of the Resident Manager's, 1 handyman, and one porter's time (estimated at 10% (4 hours per week, per man) will be devoted to those General Common Elements that service or benefit all the Units and accordingly such portion ($38,511) has been allocated among all Units based upon their respective Percentage of Common Interest.

The Rental Unit will also share in the remaining cost of the Resident Manager, 1 handymen and 2 porters since they are residential unit's that will need the services provided by these employees. The Rental Unit will pay its allocable share of the cost of these maintenance personnel. The Concierge, Doormen, Hallmen, 1 handyman and 4 of the 6 Porter's payroll will be solely borne by the Tower Unit since these employees will be exclusively used to service the Tower Unit Owners.

(3) HEAT AND HOT WATER- (Budget - $651,633)

Heat and hot water for the building will be provided by Con Edison Gas. The budgeted amount is based upon a letter from Flack & Kurtz Consulting Engineers, 512 Seventh Avenue, New York, NY, Sponsor's Consulting Engineer dated April 10, 2013. It is anticipated that the annual consumption of gas for heat and domestic hot water will be 354,729 therms of gas per year at $1.50 per therm for an annual cost of $532,094 for the Tower Units and 40,200 therms of gas at $1.50 per therm for the Rental Units for an annual cost of $60,300. A 10% inflation factor has been added. The Retail Unit, Community Facility Units and Garage Unit will be separately metered for heat and hot water.

It is not possible to predict how closely the budgeted figure will reflect the actual cost of gas for heat and hot water during the first year of Condominium Operation, because such costs will vary with the level of consumption and price of gas. Consumption will be affected by the severity of the weather and by any conservation measure adopted by the Condominium Board or individual unit owners.

(4) COOKING GAS - (Budget - $55,102)

The Tower Units will not be separately metered for gas to be used for cooking. Based on a letter dated April 10, 2013 from Flack & Kurtz Consulting Engineers, 512 Seventh Avenue, New York, NY it is estimated that the gas cost for apartment cooking based on 33,395 therms of gas @ $1.50 per therm is $50,092. A 10% inflation factor has been added for cooking gas service. Gas, if any, will be separately metered for the Retail Unit, Community Facility Units, the Rental Unit and Garage Unit.

(5) ELECTRICITY - (Budget – $806,485)

The electricity consumption for the first year of Condominium Operation for the Common Areas was estimated by Flack & Kurtz Consulting Engineers, 512 Seventh Avenue, New York, NY in a letter dated September 4, 2013. The estimated cost for Common Area electricity is based on an assumed consumption of 3,332,583 KWHRS per year at an average cost of $.22 per KWHR for a total annual cost of $733,168 for the Tower Units.

This estimate includes costs for common area lighting, air conditioning, distribution pumps, and elevators for the Tower Unit. A 10% inflation factor has been added. However, approximately 10% of this electricity cost will be used for the General Common Elements and the Rental Unit, Retail Unit, Community Facility Units and Garage Unit will each pay its pro rata share of this cost based on its respective Percentage of Common Interest.

Electricity will be separately metered for the Rental Unit, Retail Unit, Community Facility Units and Garage Unit.

Each unit will be individually metered or submetered for consumption of electricity within their own units.

(6) WATER AND SEWER - (BUDGET - $204,526)

The Tower Units will have a main water meter which will measure actual water usage. Based upon a letter from Flack & Kurtz Consulting Engineers, dated September 4, 2013, the estimated cost for water and sewer is based on a combined charge of $9.27 CCF and usage of 15,957 CCF. The annual cost for water and sewer charges during the first year of Condominium Operation is estimated at $147,917.

Based on the September 4, 2013 letter from Flack & Kurtz Consulting Engineers, 512 Seventh Avenue, New York, NY it is anticipated that 8701 CCF of water will be utilized for cooling tower makeup at a cost of $3.44 per CCF for a total cost of $29,931. A 15% inflation factor has been added to all water and sewer usage.

Water and Sewer charges will be separately metered or sub-metered for the Rental Unit and Non Residential Units and these Units will pay the cost of water and sewer usage directly to the Condominium Board or the taxing authority.

(7) REPAIRS AND MAINTENANCE - (Budget - $50,000)

Since the Building will be newly constructed, it has no operating history upon which to project future cost of repairs and maintenance. No major capital repairs are included in the Budget since all major construction and mechanical systems will be new. Future capital repairs to the General Common Elements will be borne by all Unit Owners. The budgeted figure for this item includes the cost of normal maintenance and repairs to the General Common Elements of the Building that are the responsibility of the Condominium Board. Unit Owners will be responsible for the cost of the interior maintenance, repair, decorating, and painting of their respective Units, including the appliances, and heating/air conditioning units. The budgeted amount for repairs and maintenance has been allocated to all Units based upon their respective Percentage of Common Interest.

(8) SERVICE AND SUPPLIES - (Budget - $519,420)

The budgeted amount includes the cost of shared cleaning equipment and miscellaneous supplies for the General Common Elements as well as the anticipated cost of service contracts to be entered into by the Condominium Board during the first year of Condominium Operation.

All of the mechanical systems within the building will be new, and some will be under a full service maintenance contract for the first year of Condominium Operation from the contractors who will install the system. No maintenance or service contracts have been entered into as of the date of the plan. The budgeted amounts are based upon the experience of the Sponsor's budget expert in operating similar buildings. While this Schedule B includes a reasonable allowance for possible increases in cost that may occur prior to and during the first year of Condominium operation, no warranty is made that the actual cost for these or other services will be in accordance with these projections.

It is projected that the Condominium Board will enter into maintenance agreements and/or for the following services:

Metal Marble Wood Maintenance	$40,000
Heating and Cooling System	$40,000
Elevator Maintenance	$64,420
Sprinkler System/Fire Protective Alarm System	$20,000
Landscaping	$25,000
Exterminator	$10,000
Uniform Cleaning and Maintenance	$15,000

Water Treatment	$10,000
Miscellaneous Supplies	$80,000
Lobby Flowers	$10,000
Building Maintenance System	$50,000
Concierge Services	$15,000
Window Washing	$130,000
Shuttle Service	$10,000

The shared building staff will be responsible for the cleaning and maintenance of the General Common Elements. The estimated budgeted cost for Sprinkler System/Fire Protective Alarm System, the Exterminator, Building Maintenance System, water treatment and $20,000 of the estimated $80,000 budgeted for Miscellaneous Supplies have been allocated between all Units based upon their respective Percentage of Common Interest. The Rental Units elevator maintenance cost of $16,355 for two passenger elevators will be solely borne by the Rental Unit and the cost of window washing will be borne by the Tower Unit and Rental Unit based on their allocable share.

The annual premium for the above mentioned insurance portfolio is estimated to be $325,600.

The insurance costs are for the entire Condominium and have been allocated among all Units based upon each unit's respective Percentage of Common Interest.

The fire, casualty and general liability insurance carried by the Condominium will provide that each Unit Owner is an additional insured party; that there will be no cancellation without notice to the Condominium Board and Permitted Mortgagees; a waiver of subrogation; a waiver of invalidity because of the acts of the insured and unit owners and a waiver of pro rata reduction if unit owners obtain additional coverage.

To the extent required by the Condominium By-Laws and/or the Tower By-Laws, each individual Unit Owner may also need to obtain additional insurance at such Unit Owner's own cost for the following coverage, which is not included in the above coverage:

- fire or casualty losses to the contents of the Unit and any replacements, additions, upgraded fixtures and improvements therein; and

- liability for personal injury or property damage as a result of occurrences in the Unit, including water damage legal liability to cover damage arising from leaks or other conditions within the Unit.

(10) MANAGEMENT FEE - (Budget - $175,000)

At or prior to the first closing the Condominium Board is expected to enter into a management agreement with Extell Management Services Inc., having a principal office at 805 Third Avenue, 7th Floor, New York, New York 10022. The managing agent will receive an annual fee of $175,000 payable in equal monthly installments of $14,583.33. The managing agent's fee for the first year of Condominium Operation is comparable to the "going rate" for similar services in comparable buildings.

This budgeted item will be allocated to all Units within the Condominium based upon each Unit's respective Percentage of Common Interest.

See the section of the plan entitled "Agreements Binding on the Condominium" for further details.

(11) AMENITIES FACILITY – (Budget - $318,570)

The Aldyn Board, the Owner of Parcel J-2 and Sponsor have entered into a contract with La Palestra, as Recreational Facility Manager, to provide management of the Recreational Facility (including, without limitation, cleaning, lifeguards and pool supplies) (such contract, the "Recreational Facility Management Agreement"). The costs owed to La Palestra pursuant to the Recreational Facility Management Agreement are anticipated to be shared by the Aldyn Board, the Owner of Parcel J-2 and the Condominium Board upon commencement of residential occupancy at the Condominium (i.e., the First Closing). The sharing of this cost will be based on the respective Recreational Facility Allocation Percentages of the Condominium, Building J-1 and Building J-2, as determined from time to time by the SFOA Board. As defined in the Shared Facilities Declaration, the "Recreational Facility Allocation Percentage" of the Condominium means a fraction (expressed as a percentage), the numerator of which is equal to the net residential square footage of the Building, and the denominator of which is equal to the aggregate net residential square footage of the Building, Building J-1 and Building J-2, as calculated from time to time by the SFOA Board. Based on Recreational Facility Management Agreement and an estimate of anticipated maintenance costs, the cost for operating the health club will be approximately $777,000. This cost will be shared between the 3 condominiums, The Aldyn condominium, Ashley and One Riverside Park based on each building's net residential area. The health club expense for One Riverside Park for the first year of Condominium operation based on its net residential area is anticipated to be 41% of the total and an annual cost of $318,570.

(12) LEGAL & AUDIT FEES - (Budget - $24,000)

The Condominium Board will engage a law firm to act as the attorney for the Condominium. The estimated cost for these minor legal services for the Condominium's First Year, which do not include special collection matters or litigation, is $5,500. It is anticipated that the Condominium Board will enter into an agreement with Hyman and Associates, 580 Sylvan Avenue, Englewood Cliffs, NJ 07632, to provide auditing, tax return preparation and financial statement services for the Condominium. It is estimated that the first year cost for these services will be $18,500.

This budgeted item will be shared by all Units based upon each Unit's Common Interest Percentage.

(13) RESIDENT MANAGERS UNIT COSTS - (Budget - $30,000)

Residential Unit 3U shall be designated as the Resident Manager's Unit and will be occupied by the Resident Manager of the Building and owned by the Condominium.

The Condominium will be responsible for the Real Estate Taxes on the unit. The estimated Real Estate Taxes for the first year of operation of the Condominium for Unit 3U will be approximately $20,000. The Condominium will also be responsible for the cost of the electricity and basic telephone service for the Resident Manager's Unit as well as basic repairs. It is estimated that the cost of these items will be approximately $10,000 in the first year of Condominium operation. The estimated costs for the Resident Manager's Unit for the Condominium's first year of operation is $30,000 and will be allocated to all units in the same manner as the Resident Manager's salary and benefits in note 2.

(14) ADMINISTRATION – (Budget - $50,000)

The budgeted amount includes anticipated expenses for telephone, beepers, postage, printing, miscellaneous office supplies, payroll processing costs, permits and fees and local telephone usage in the Resident Manager's office and other administrative costs associated with the Condominium.

This budgeted item will be allocated to all Units based upon each Unit's respective Common Interest.

(15) PARK MAINTENANCE AND INSURANCE (Budget - $238,664)

As described elsewhere in this Offering Plan, each Development Parcel is obligated to contribute its proportionate share of the cost of maintaining, operating and insuring the Park Areas by making payments to the Property Owners Association which in turn will pay these sums to the City of New York. The aggregate cost of Park Area Maintenance and operation projected for the first year of Condominiums operation is $238,664.

a. Maintenance and Operation	$211,681
b. Insurance	$26,983
Total	$238,664

This budgeted item will be borne solely by the Tower Unit Owners.

(16) RESERVE FUND – (Budget - $565,247)

This reserve fund will be used towards future capital repairs, replacements and improvements of certain Common Elements and facilities of the Building. No representation is made as to the actual or anticipated cost, or timing or nature of any such capital work or the adequacy of any such reserve.

This reserve fund will be solely allocated to The Tower Unit Owners.

(17) CONTINGENCY – (Budget - $100,000)

This item is included in the budget to provide funds for unforeseen increases in Residential Common Expenses and General Common Expenses before or after the First Closing or to cover expenses not included in this budget.

The budgeted item will be shared by all units based upon each unit's respective Common Interest.

(18) TOTAL PROJECTED EXPENSES – (Budget - $5,893,511)

The projections set forth in this budget assume that the first year of Condominium operation will cover the period from July 1, 2015 through June 30, 2016.

IN THE OPINION OF HALSTEAD MANAGEMENT COMPANY, THE PROJECTED INCOME IS ADEQUATE TO MEET THE ESTIMATED GENERAL COMMON EXPENSES FOR THE FIRST YEAR OF CONDOMINIUM OPERATION. THE BUDGET, HOWEVER, IS NOT INTENDED AND SHOULD NOT BE TAKEN AS A GUARANTEE OR WARRANTY BY ANYONE THAT THE ANNUAL GENERAL COMMON CHARGES OR GENERAL COMMON EXPENSES FOR THE FIRST OR ANY SUBSEQUENT YEAR OF OPERATION OF THE PROPERTY BY THE CONDOMINIUM BOARD WILL BE AS SET FORTH IN THE BUDGET. IN FACT, IT IS LIKELY THAT THE ACTUAL INCOME AND EXPENSES FOR THE FIRST YEAR OF CONDOMINIUM OPERATION WILL VARY FROM THE AMOUNTS SHOWN IN THE BUDGET.

The estimate of kilowatt hour ("KWH") per year per square foot and annual cost of electricity per square foot utilized by individual apartments 13.8 KWH per Sq. Ft. per Year and $3.04 per Sq. Ft. per Year, based on Con Edison rate of $0.22 per KWH for calendar year 2013. The following table sets forth the estimated annual costs of electricity for typical Units:

APARTMENT SIZE	ANNUAL KWH	TOTAL ANNUAL COST
900 sq. ft.	12,420 KWH	$ 2,732
1,500 sq. ft.	20,700 KWH	$ 4,554
2,000 sq. ft.	27,600 KWH	$ 6,072
4,500 sq. ft.	62,100 KWH	$ 13,662

The projected rates were made using Con Edison rates for calendar year 2013 increased by an estimated three percent (3%) annual inflation. The projected rates are not guaranteed and it must be expected that these rates will increase with the passage of time and may be affected by many factors which are beyond the control of the Sponsor. Purchasers are advised that the projections are only estimates and actual consumption will be metered and will vary based on the personal needs of occupants and weather conditions.

Re: ONE RIVERSIDE PARK CONDOMINIUM
50 Riverside Boulevard, New York, New York 10069

Dear Sir or Madam:

The undersigned, Penmark Management, LLC, is a licensed real estate brokerage firm in the State of New York. Penmark Management, LLC has been involved in the management of real estate for many years, and manages all types of residential buildings, with a total of approximately 6,000 units currently under management. Of these, eighty-five (85) are cooperatives or condominium buildings. The undersigned has no beneficial interest in Sponsor or the profitability of the subject project.

The undersigned has reviewed the allocation of common interests as shown on the Schedule A to be included in the Condominium described in the offering plan for the subject project.

The common interests among the Units have been allocated to each based upon floor space, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Unit, the availability of Common Elements for exclusive or shared use, and the overall dimensions of the particular Unit, in accordance with Section 339-i(1)(iv) of the New York State Real Property Law. This allocation utilizes measurements and calculations of net square footage made by GHW Architects, LLP, Sponsor's Architect.

Very truly yours,

F. COMMERCIAL UNITS

The Condominium will initially include the following Commercial Units: (i) the Rental Unit, comprised of approximately fifty-five (55) rental apartments; (ii) the Retail Unit; (iii) two (2) Community Facility Units (referred to as "Community Facility Unit A" and "Community Facility Unit B"); and (iv) the Garage Unit. As more particularly set forth in the Declaration and Condominium By-Laws, the Condominium Board shall generally have the power and authority to govern the affairs of the Commercial Units.

Each of the Commercial Unit Owners will be obligated to pay its share of the expenses that are incurred by the Condominium Board in furnishing services, and operating, maintaining and repairing General Common Elements, only to the extent the same are utilized by or benefit such Commercial Unit Owner. As more fully set forth in the "Notes to Schedule B" above, each of the Commercial Unit Owners will therefore pay only allocated percentages of only certain expenses, which percentages may be less (or more) than in proportion to their Common Interest. The allocated percentages represent a projection of the proportionate usage of the services and facilities in question by each of the Commercial Unit Owners, as estimated by Halstead Management Company, an independent expert retained by Sponsor. It is the opinion of Halstead Management Company, as set forth as Exhibit 9D in Part II of the Plan, that the aforementioned Common Charges payable by each of the Commercial Unit Owners are sufficient to cover the General Common Expenses fairly attributable to such Unit Owner's Commercial Unit.

No unlawful use by any of the Commercial Unit Owners may be made of the Property or any portion thereof and all valid Legal Requirements relating to any portion of the Property shall be complied with at the sole cost and expense of the applicable Unit Owner or the applicable Board(s), whichever party has the obligation to maintain or repair such part of the Property, as set forth in the Declaration or the Condominium By-Laws.

The Rental Unit, located principally on portions of the Subcellar Level through Floor 7, is anticipated to be operated as a rental apartment building (and ancillary uses) with fifty-five (55) apartments located on portions of Floors 3 through 7 of the Building; the Retail Unit, located principally on a portion of the Ground Floor of the Building with frontage on West 61st Street, which Sponsor currently anticipates will initially be used for retail purposes (and ancillary uses); Community Facility Unit A, located principally on a portion of the Ground Floor of the Building with frontage on Riverside Boulevard and West 62st Street, which Sponsor currently anticipates will be used as community facilities (e.g., without limitation, a daycare center) and/or professional office space; Community Facility Unit B, located principally on a portion of the Ground Floor of the Building with frontage on Riverside Boulevard and West 61st Street, which Sponsor currently anticipates will be used as community facilities (e.g., without limitation, a daycare center) and/or professional office space; and the Garage Unit, located at the Subcellar Level and Cellar Level of the Building, which Sponsor currently anticipates will initially be used as public parking (and ancillary uses). The Community Facility Units and the Retail Unit will be accessible only from the exterior of the Building.

Subject to certain restrictions set forth in the Declaration and Condominium By-Laws, each Commercial Unit may be used and operated for any legally permitted purpose (subject to compliance with all Legal Requirements, including, without limitation, the certificate of occupancy for such Unit and any applicable zoning regulations). The Unit Owner of any such Unit may lease or license all or any portion of its Unit to one or more lessees (or may permit occupants or permittees to use all or any portion of its Unit) so long as the uses thereof are in conformance with all Legal Requirements, the Declaration and the Condominium By-Laws.

If, as anticipated (but not represented or warranted), Section 421-a benefits are awarded to the Condominium, the Rental Apartments will be rent-stabilized under the Rent Stabilization Law and Code. During any period in which a Rental Apartment is subject to the Rent Stabilization Law and Code, absent the prior written consent of the Rental Unit Owner, which consent may be withheld by the Rental Unit Owner in its sole discretion, neither the Condominium Board, nor the Tower Board, may make any determination or take any action that constitutes a Decrease in Service, as same may be finally determined by HCR, DHCR or a court of competent jurisdiction.

Sponsor intends to develop the Rental Apartments pursuant to the requirements of the City's Inclusionary Housing Program as set forth in Section 23-90 et. seq. of the New York City Zoning Resolution. In connection therewith, Sponsor will be required to submit an application to HPD and, if the application is approved by HPD, enter into a regulatory agreement with such agency which regulatory agreement will govern the use and occupancy of the Rental Apartments. Such regulatory agreement will include provisions requiring that the Rental Apartments remain affordable for the life of the Building.

Although the Rental Unit, like the Tower Units, contains residential apartments, the Rental Unit Owner nonetheless has certain rights that differ from the rights of the Tower Unit Owners. The rights of the Rental Unit Owner are like those of any other Commercial Unit Owners (as described below). For instance, but without limitation, the Rental Unit Owner will not be subject to a right of first refusal by the Tower Board upon the sale, lease or license of all or any part of such Owner's Unit. In addition, the Rental Unit Owner may: (i) make structural additions, alterations or improvements to the Rental Unit, (ii) change the layout of the Rental Unit, and (iii) subdivide the Rental Unit and reapportion Common Interest previously allocated to such Unit among the newly created Units, on prior notice to, but without the consent of, the Condominium Board.

To the extent permitted by law, and subject to certain restrictions set forth in the Declaration and Condominium By-Laws, each Commercial Unit Owner will have the right with regard to its respective Unit, without the vote or consent of the Boards, Managing Agent, other Unit Owners, or any other party, to mortgage or otherwise hypothecate its Unit, to decorate or make alterations, additions or improvements to its Unit (except that alterations, additions or improvements which would either in the course of performance or upon completion have a material adverse effect on: (i) the structural, mechanical, electrical or plumbing elements of the Building or would increase insurance premiums or maintenance costs for any other Unit or the Common Elements shall be subject to the approval, not to be unreasonably withheld, of the Condominium Board, or (ii) any other Unit Owner's Unit, or the Tower Section, or the use thereof or access thereto, shall be subject to the approval, not to be unreasonably withheld, of the affected Unit Owner or the Tower Board, as applicable), to change the size of its Unit by subdividing it into any desired number of condominium units (or by combining any units resulting from such subdivision), and to reapportion among the newly created condominium units resulting from any subdivision (or combination) their appurtenant Common Interests, provided that any such changes are in compliance with Article 9-B, Section 339 of the New York Condominium Act. As more particularly provided in Article 10 of the Declaration, the Commercial Unit Owners will each have the right with regard to its Unit to amend the Declaration in order to reflect such changes, or to cause the Condominium Board to do so. If any of the Commercial Units is subdivided or combined, the owner of each Unit resulting from a subdivision or combination will generally have all of the rights (without the consent of the Boards or other Unit Owners), set forth above in this paragraph and in the Declaration, described as pertaining to the Unit Owner of the original Unit or Units in question.

All normal maintenance and repairs of the roof of the Building will be made by the Condominium Board and chargeable to all Unit Owners as a General Common Expense. Capital repairs and replacements to the roof, other than normal maintenance and repairs, will be charged to all Unit Owners as a General Common Expense.

G. CHANGES IN PRICES AND UNITS: TOWER UNITS AND STORAGE LICENSES

The purchase prices set forth in Schedule A and other terms of payment (but not other terms of sale) with respect to a particular Tower Unit or Storage License are negotiable and may be changed by Sponsor at any time and from time to time, both before and after the recording of the Declaration, without prior notice and without the consent of the Boards, any Unit Owner or mortgagee. However, no such change with respect to any Unit (as against the applicable Purchaser) for which an Option Agreement or Storage License is then in effect may be made without the consent of the Purchaser thereunder, and no Option Agreement will be modified to waive any of the Purchaser's rights or abrogating any of Sponsor's obligations, under this Plan or Article 23-A of the New York General Business Law.

The Plan will be amended to disclose: (a) any increase (but not any decrease) in the purchase price of an offered Unit; (b) any changes in either purchase prices (whether increases or decreases) or other financial terms of sale that are across-the-board changes affecting one (1) or more lines or types of Units; or (c) any changes in either purchase prices or other financial terms of sale that are to be advertised. Other than the changes described in (a) through (c) above, purchase prices and other terms of sale of one (1) or more Units which are not subject to executed Option Agreements may be changed without either notice or amendment of the Plan.

If Sponsor changes the purchase price of a Tower Unit or Storage License, the Purchaser affected thereby may pay more or less than other Purchasers under the Plan for similar Tower Units or Storage Licenses, but this will not affect any prior or subsequent sales, nor will the Common Interest of any Tower Unit be altered as a result of a price change for such Tower Unit.

In order to meet the possible varying demand for number and type of different Tower Units, or to meet particular requirements of prospective Purchasers, or for any other reason, Sponsor and its designees reserve the right (except to the extent prohibited by applicable Legal Requirements) at any time and from time to time, before and after the recording of the Declaration, without prior notice and without the consent of the Boards, any Unit Owner or mortgagee, to: (i) make alterations, additions or improvements, whether structural or non-structural, interior or exterior, ordinary or extraordinary, in, to and upon any Unsold Tower Unit; (ii) change the layout of, or number of rooms in, any Unsold Tower Unit; (iii) change the size and/or number of Unsold Tower Units by subdividing one (1) or more such Tower Units into two (2) or more separate Tower Units, combining separate Unsold Tower Units (including those resulting from a subdivision or combination or otherwise) into one (1) or more Tower Units, altering any boundary walls between any Unsold Tower Units, and/or incorporating within any Unsold Tower Unit the use of any portion of the Common Elements adjacent thereto (but only to the extent that such Common Elements are not required by law to be maintained as Common Elements based upon such alterations); (iv) if appropriate, reapportion among the Unsold Tower Units affected by such change, their Common Interests, provided, however, that after the recording of the Declaration, no change in any Unit's Common Interest will be made without obtaining the prior consent of all Unit Owners affected by such change; (v) change the permitted use of some or all of the Unsold Units; (vi) increase the number of Tower Units contained within the Building; and (vii) reclassify a Common Element as a Unit and vice versa. Sponsor also reserves the right to convert all or any portion of a Commercial Unit to Unsold Tower Units and vice versa and to create additional Storage Closets and to sell additional Storage Licenses therefor. Any such change described in subsections (ii) through (v) in the immediately preceding paragraph and additionally any material adverse change in the size or quality of any of the Tower Limited Common Elements shall be disclosed by Sponsor in a duly filed amendment to the Plan and, when applicable, to the Declaration. In the event of any such change after the Declaration is recorded, the Declaration and Floor Plans shall each be amended and such amendments duly recorded and disclosed in a duly filed amendment to the Plan. As more particularly provided in the Declaration, Sponsor or its designee will have the right to (or to cause the Condominium Board to) so amend the Declaration and Floor Plans, to the extent required, in order to reflect any such change affecting Unsold Tower Units. None of the foregoing changes will be made if the same would materially and adversely affect any Tower Unit for which an Option Agreement has been countersigned by Sponsor and returned to Purchaser unless: (a) the applicable Purchaser consents or is in default; (b) such change has been dictated by construction conditions at the Property (such as coordination of Building systems, conflicts with structural members or elements, conforming with Legal Requirements, unforeseen events, etc.) and, in all cases, in good faith, reasonably necessary due to factors not within Sponsor's reasonable control, and where no practicable alternative (in the exercise of sound construction management practices) exists, and in such event, Sponsor will, in the amendment disclosing such material adverse change, offer the affected Purchaser(s) the right for at least fifteen (15) days to rescind their Option Agreement(s) and receive a refund of their Deposit(s), together with all interest earned thereon, and the Purchaser elects not to exercise such right of rescission. Notwithstanding the foregoing, so long as the layout and dimensions of a Tower Unit conforms substantially to the Plans and Specifications, a Purchaser will not be excused from purchasing such Tower Unit by reason of such minor, non-material deviation or change and will not have any claim against Sponsor as a result thereof.

Sponsor will have no liability to any Purchaser, nor will any Purchaser be entitled to a credit, offset or reduction in the purchase price for his or her Tower Unit or otherwise be relieved of any obligations under the Option Agreement, by virtue of a minor inaccuracy or error in the Floor Plans. With regard to size, such minor error would mean a decrease of five percent (5%) or less or any increase in the size of any Unit or room contained in a Unit. Purchasers should note that notwithstanding that a five percent (5%) or less increase or decrease is not deemed a material and adverse change by Sponsor, a Purchaser may consider such a reduction in the smaller sections of the Tower Unit (i.e., a closet, foyer or bathroom) to be a material and adverse change. In such instance, a Purchaser may not have a lawful basis to seek recourse from Sponsor or an abatement in the purchase price as a result of such reduction. PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS SHOULD THEREFORE CAREFULLY CONSIDER SUCH RISKS IN THEIR DETERMINATION AS TO WHETHER TO PURCHASE A TOWER UNIT. There is a rebuttable presumption that a Unit size that is diminished by five percent (5%) or less is not material.

Sponsor shall have the same rights with respect to changes in Storage Closets and the prices for licenses thereto as are set forth in Schedule A above with respect to the Storage Licenses offered under this Plan.

H. INTERIM LEASES

Sponsor will endeavor in good faith to sell, but nevertheless reserves the unconditional right, prior to the date of closing title to a Unit, to rent or lease, rather than sell, such Unit to Purchasers and others. As a result, a Purchaser of a Tower Unit may be acquiring a Unit that has been previously occupied or used, but, unless otherwise specifically agreed to in writing by Sponsor and such Purchaser, such Unit will be delivered at the closing vacant and free and clear of all leases, tenancies and rights of occupancy. However, once an Option Agreement for a Unit is fully executed and for so long as the Option Agreement is in effect, such Unit may only be leased to its Purchaser. No Purchaser shall have the right to occupy or use any Unit prior to the closing unless Sponsor agrees to permit such occupancy under an interim lease or other written rental agreement.

Interim leases will not be subject to the New York City Rent Law (rent control), the Emergency Tenant Protection Act of 1974, the New York City Rent Stabilization Law, the New York City Rent Stabilization Code, any rent regulatory scheme or code, rule or regulation promulgated under any of the foregoing, or any other rental protection laws.

If Sponsor agrees to lease a vacant Tower Unit, the lease will be for a rent and upon such other terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by Sponsor and the tenant; provided, however, that in the case of an interim lease to a Purchaser, such lease will provide that an uncured default by the Purchaser under the Option Agreement (that is, a default not cured within thirty (30) days after the sending of written notice thereof) will constitute a default under the lease entitling the landlord (i.e., Sponsor), at its sole option, to immediately terminate such lease, whereupon the lessee must vacate the Unit within ten (10) days thereafter. The Option Agreement will contain a similar provision entitling Sponsor to terminate the Option Agreement and retain the Deposit (and any interest thereon) as liquidated damages, and not as a penalty, in the event the Purchaser fails to cure a default under such Purchaser's lease, if any, within the applicable grace period (if any) and either: (a) Sponsor has obtained an order of eviction or other judgment or order from a court or agency of competent jurisdiction against the Purchaser; or (b) the Purchaser has vacated the Tower Unit.

No portion of the rental paid under any lease will be credited towards the purchase price of a Tower Unit unless the lease and the Option Agreement therefor expressly so provide.

In the event of any amendment to the Plan which discloses a material adverse change to the Plan and offers the Purchaser a right to rescind, if a Purchaser who is a tenant under an interim lease duly elects to rescind, the Purchaser's Deposit will be returned subject to the terms of the Plan and the interim lease made with such Purchaser shall be cancelled and possession of the Tower Unit must be surrendered within sixty (60) days thereafter free of all occupants and in broom clean condition. A Purchaser shall be liable to Sponsor for any and all damages, costs and expenses incurred by Sponsor by reason of any failure to vacate within said sixty- (60) day period. If such failure to timely vacate occurs prior to the First Closing, the Purchaser shall be liable for use and occupancy in an amount equal to twice the rent under the interim lease. If such failure to timely vacate occurs after the First Closing, the Purchaser shall be liable for twice the costs of carrying the Tower Unit (such as Common Charges, real estate taxes and the allocable portion, based on such Tower Unit's Common Interest, of debt service on any loan covering the Unsold Tower Units) as calculated by Sponsor. In addition, irrespective of when such failure to timely vacate occurs, such Purchaser shall be liable to Sponsor for loss of profit and all costs and expenses incurred by Sponsor to obtain possession of the Tower Unit, including the cost of litigation and reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses.

In the event the Plan is abandoned, a Purchaser who has entered into an interim lease will have no right to remain in occupancy as a tenant after the abandonment of the Plan.

I. PROCEDURE TO PURCHASE

1. Execution of Documents

Any party desiring to purchase a Tower Unit will be required to execute four (4) original counterparts of an Option Agreement, in the form set forth as Exhibit 1 in Part II of the Plan, for each such Tower Unit desired. The Option Agreement sets forth in detail the terms of sale with respect to the Units offered hereunder and should be read carefully by each prospective Purchaser. In the event of any conflict or ambiguity between the Plan and the Option Agreement, the provisions of the Plan shall control.

No signed Option Agreement will be accepted from a prospective Purchaser for three (3) business days following such Purchaser's receipt of a copy of the Plan, including all amendments thereto. For the convenience of some Purchasers, however, Sponsor will have the right, at its sole option, to accept an Option Agreement prior to the expiration of such period of three (3) business days; and in such event, and only in such instance, such Purchaser will have the right to rescind such Option Agreement by written notice sent to Sponsor by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, or by personal delivery within seven (7) days of such Purchaser's submission of the Option Agreement, whereupon Sponsor will refund, without interest (notwithstanding any provision of this Plan regarding interest to the contrary), the Deposit received by Sponsor from such Purchaser in connection with such Option Agreement.

A Purchaser shall deliver to Selling Agent, together with the four (4) signed original counterparts of the completed Option Agreement, the following: three (3) completed and signed copies of either Form W-9 (Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification) or Form W-8BEN (Certificate of Foreign Status of Beneficial Owner for United States Tax Withholding), as applicable, in the form required by law (the forms currently required by law are reproduced as Exhibits 1A and 1B in Part II of this Plan); and a payment as set forth below.

Option Agreements will not be binding on Sponsor until approved and executed by Sponsor. Sponsor will have thirty (30) days after delivery by the Purchaser of an executed Option Agreement, together with the amounts and other items described below within which to accept or reject such Option Agreement. Sponsor reserves the right to request thorough identification and financial information concerning any prospective Purchaser, subject to any limitations and requirements imposed by law. Each Purchaser shall in all events be deemed to represent and warrant that the Deposit and all sums deposited by Purchaser pursuant to the Option Agreement are such Purchaser's own funds and that no other party has any right thereto. If an Option Agreement is not accepted by Sponsor within such thirty- (30) day period, the Option Agreement shall be deemed to have been rejected and cancelled and all sums deposited by such prospective Purchaser in connection therewith shall be promptly returned, together with any accrued interest. Sponsor reserves the right to reject any prospective Purchaser without cause or explanation, provided that such rejection is not based on race, creed, color, age, gender, sexual orientation, disability, marital status, national origin, ancestry, or any other ground proscribed by law, and to refuse to execute an Option Agreement for any Unit, or an Option Agreement or Option Agreements, as the case may be, for more than one Unit to any one person or entity.

2. Deposits/Escrow

(a) General

At the time an agreement for the purchase of either a Tower Unit (a "Option Agreement") is executed, the Purchaser thereunder is required to make a payment in an amount equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the purchase price set forth therein (the "Initial Deposit"); and an additional payment equal to ten percent (10%) of such purchase price (the "Additional Deposit") due and payable no later than the earlier to occur of: (x) four (4) months after the date of the Option Agreement; or (y) fifteen (15) days after Sponsor serves Purchaser with written notice of an amendment to the Offering Plan declaring the same effective, but in no event later than the closing of title to the Unit; provided, however, that with respect to Option Agreements entered into after the Offering Plan has been declared effective, Sponsor reserves the right to require both the Initial Deposit and the Additional Deposit due and payable upon execution of the Option Agreement. The Deposit for the purchase of a Storage License is twenty-five percent (25%) of the gross purchase price of the Storage License. The term "Deposit" as used herein refers to both the Initial Deposit and, if the same has been paid at the time in question, the Additional Deposit, as well as in connection with the purchase of a Storage License. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a Purchaser is a foreign government, a resident representative of a foreign government or other person or entity otherwise entitled to the immunities from suit enjoyed by a foreign government (i.e., diplomatic or sovereign immunity), such Purchaser will be required to make an Initial Deposit equal to fifty percent (50%) of the applicable purchase price and will not be required to make an Additional Deposit. All such payments shall be made by unendorsed check drawn only on a member bank of the New York Clearing House Association made payable to "Polsinelli PC, as escrow agent." All such checks shall be subject to collection and if any such check is returned for insufficient funds or for any other reason, Sponsor shall have the right, among other things, to deem such Option Agreement to be cancelled and of no further force or effect, and to retain any Deposit and other amounts previously deposited.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if an Option Agreement is not exempt under ILSA and if a Purchaser loses rights and interest in its Unit as a result of a default or breach of its Option Agreement which occurs after Purchaser has paid fifteen percent (15%) of the purchase price of its Unit, excluding any interest owed under such Option Agreement, Sponsor (or Sponsor's successor) shall refund to Purchaser any amount which remains after subtracting (A) fifteen percent (15%) of the purchase price, excluding any interest owed under and disposed of in accordance with such Option Agreement, or the amount of damages incurred by Sponsor (or Sponsor's successor) as a result of such breach, whichever is greater, from (B) the Deposit paid by Purchaser, excluding any interest paid under such Option Agreement (which interest shall be disposed of as set forth in the Option Agreement).

With respect to any check or other instrument that is dishonored or fails on collection, the Escrow Agent is authorized to deliver to Sponsor the dishonored or uncollected instrument and Sponsor will have the choice of remedies set forth in the Plan and in the Option Agreement with respect to an Event of Default (which includes suing on such dishonored or uncollected instrument or (at Sponsor's option) canceling the Option Agreement and returning the instrument to Purchaser without affording Purchaser a grace period to cure such default). Notwithstanding the foregoing, Purchasers are advised that, in the event any check or other instrument with respect to the Initial Deposit is dishonored or fails on collection, and Purchaser cures within any afforded grace period, Purchaser shall not be afforded a grace period with respect to payment of the Additional Deposit.

All deposits, Deposits or advances received by Sponsor will be held in by Escrow Agent (as hereinafter defined) and placed in the Escrow Account (as hereinafter defined) in conformity with the procedure set forth herein. Sponsor will comply with the escrow and trust fund requirements of New York General Business Law Sections 352-e(2-b), 352-h, and the provisions of Lien Law Section 71-a(3), as applicable.

(b) The Escrow Agent

The law firm of Polsinelli PC, with an address at 900 Third Avenue, Suite 2100, New York, New York 10022, telephone number (212) 684-0199, shall serve as escrow agent ("Escrow Agent") for Sponsor and Purchaser. Escrow Agent has designated the following attorneys to serve as signatories: Daniel J. Flanigan, Kraig M. Kohring, Ingrid F. VanBiber, Brett D. Anders, Robert J. Edwards, and David D. Ferguson. All designated signatories are admitted to practice law in the State of New York. Neither the Escrow Agent nor any authorized signatories on the account are the Sponsor, Selling Agent, Managing Agent, or any principal thereof, or have any beneficial interest in any of the foregoing.

(c) The Escrow Account

The Escrow Agent has established the escrow account at Capital One, N.A., 424 Madison Avenue, New York, New York (the "Bank"), a bank authorized to do business in the State of New York. The name of the Escrow Account will be "One Riverside Park Condominium Attorney Escrow Account" or similar name (the "Escrow Account"). The Escrow Account is federally insured by the FDIC at the maximum amount of $250,000 per deposit (the FDIC limit in effect as of the filing date hereof). Any deposit in excess of $250,000 (or the FDIC limit in effect from time to time) will not be insured. Purchasers are also advised that if a Purchaser has any additional accounts at the Bank (as defined herein), the funds in said accounts will be added together with the Deposit held in escrow and the aggregate of all the funds held by the Bank will only be insured up to the $250,000 FDIC maximum coverage.

Any deposits or payments made for upgrades, extras, or custom work shall be initially deposited into the Escrow Account, and released in accordance to the terms of a written agreement between Purchaser and Sponsor.

The interest rate for all Deposits made into the Escrow Account shall be the prevailing rate for such accounts, which is fixed by the Bank (as defined above) and which will vary from time to time. As of July 1, 2013, such rate was .25%. The actual initial interest rate for the Escrow Account with respect to any particular Purchaser's Deposit shall be set forth in the notice to be sent to Purchaser (as described below). As noted, the interest rate on such accounts will fluctuate and neither Sponsor nor Escrow Agent makes any representation regarding the rates that will be in effect from time to time or the actual rate of interest on, or the interest that may accrue for any particular account or for any particular Purchaser, from time to time. Interest, if any, shall begin to accrue upon placing the Deposit into the Escrow Account, however, no interest will be earned until the Deposit check is deposited with and collected by the Bank and provided that the Purchaser has delivered the required number of completed and signed Form W-9 (Request for Taxpayer Identification Number) in the form reproduced as Exhibit 1A in Part II of the Plan or Form W-8BEN (Certificate of Foreign Status of Beneficial Owner for United States Tax Withholding) in the form reproduced as Exhibit 1B in Part II of the Plan, as applicable, to Sponsor or Selling Agent at the time Purchaser tenders the Deposit and the Option Agreement. If a Purchaser does not deliver the Form W-9 or Form W-8BEN, as applicable, the Deposit will be deposited in a non-interest-bearing escrow account at the aforesaid bank until the Form W-9 or Form W-8BEN has been delivered, and neither Sponsor, Selling Agent, the Escrow Agent nor the Bank shall be liable for interest for the period prior to the delivery of such form. Interest will not be earned after a withdrawal is made from the Escrow Account in anticipation of the closing. All interest earned on a Purchaser's Deposit shall be paid to or credited to the Purchaser at closing unless Purchaser has defaulted and Sponsor is entitled to retain the Deposit. No fees of any kind may be deducted from the Escrow Account, and Sponsor shall bear all costs associated with the maintenance of the Escrow Account.

(d) The Option Agreement

The Option Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 1 in Part II of the Plan. The relevant escrow trust fund provisions are included in a Rider to the Option Agreement, which must be executed by the Escrow Agent. Purchaser and Sponsor must also each execute such Rider which when fully executed shall constitute a tri-party agreement related to the Deposit.

(e) Notification to Purchaser

Within five (5) business days after the Agreement has been tendered to Escrow Agent along with the Deposit, Escrow Agent shall sign the Agreement and place the Deposit into the Escrow Account. Within ten (10) business days of placing the Deposit into the Escrow Account, Escrow Agent shall provide written notice to Purchaser and Sponsor, confirming the Deposit. The notice shall provide the account number and the initial interest rate to be earned on the Deposit. Any Deposits made for upgrades, extras, or custom work shall be initially deposited into the Escrow Account, and released in accordance to the terms of a written agreement between Purchaser and Sponsor.

Escrow Agent is obligated to send notice to the Purchaser once the Deposit is placed in the Escrow Account. If the Purchaser does not receive notice of such deposit within fifteen (15) business days after tender of the Deposit and execution of the Option Agreement by Sponsor, Purchaser and Escrow Agent, then Purchaser may cancel the Option Agreement within ninety (90) days after tender of the Option Agreement and Deposit to Escrow Agent. Complaints concerning the failure to honor such cancellation requests may be referred to the New York State Department of Law, Real Estate Finance Bureau, 120 Broadway, 23rd Floor, New York, N.Y. 10271. Rescission shall not be afforded where proof satisfactory to the Attorney General is submitted establishing that the Deposit was timely placed in the Escrow Account in accordance with the New York State Department of Law's regulations concerning Deposits and requisite notice was timely mailed to the Purchaser.

(f) Release of Funds

All Deposits, except for advances made for upgrades, extras, or custom work received in connection with the Option Agreement, are and shall continue to be the Purchaser's money, and may not be comingled with any other money or pledged or hypothecated by Sponsor, as per GBL § 352-h.

Under no circumstances shall Sponsor seek or accept release of the Deposit of a defaulting Purchaser until after consummation of the Plan, as evidenced by the acceptance of an amendment following the First Closing by the New York State Department of Law. Consummation of the Plan does not relieve the Sponsor of its obligations pursuant to GBL §§ 352-e(2-b) and 352-h.

The Escrow Agent shall release the Deposit if so directed:

(a) pursuant to terms and conditions set forth in the Option Agreement upon closing of title to the Unit; or

(b) in a subsequent writing signed by both Sponsor and Purchaser; or

(c) by a final, non-appealable order or judgment of a court.

If the Escrow Agent is not directed to release the Deposit pursuant to paragraphs (a) through (c) immediately above, and Escrow Agent receives a request by either party to release the Deposit, then the Escrow Agent must give both the Purchaser and Sponsor prior written notice of not fewer than thirty (30) days before releasing the Deposit. If Escrow Agent has not received notice of objection to the release of the Deposit prior to the expiration of the thirty (30) day period, the Deposit shall be released and Escrow Agent shall provide further written notice to both parties informing them of said release. If Escrow Agent receives a written notice from either party objecting to the release of the Deposit within said thirty (30) day period, Escrow Agent shall continue to hold the Deposit until otherwise directed pursuant to paragraphs (a) through (c) immediately above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Escrow Agent shall have the right at any time to deposit the Deposit contained in the Escrow Account with the clerk of the county where the Building is located and shall give written notice to both parties of such deposit.

Sponsor shall not object to the release of the Deposit to:

(a) a Purchaser who timely rescinds in accordance with an offer of rescission contained in the Plan or an amendment to the Plan; or

(b) all Purchasers after an amendment abandoning the Plan is accepted for filing by the Department of Law.

The Department of Law may perform random reviews and audits of any records involving the Escrow Account to determine compliance with all applicable statutes and regulations.

(g) Waiver Void

Any provision of any Option Agreement or separate agreement, whether oral or in writing, by which a Purchaser purports to waive or indemnify any obligation of Escrow Agent holding any Deposit in trust is absolutely void. The provisions of the Attorney General's regulations and GBL §§ 352-e(2-b) and 352-h concerning escrow trust funds shall prevail over any conflicting or inconsistent provisions in the Option Agreement, Plan, or any amendment thereto.

(h) Other

Sponsor or Escrow Agent will submit a Form 1099-INT to the Internal Revenue Service reporting interest earned on the Deposit, if any. Purchaser will be taxed accordingly on such interest, whether or not Purchaser ultimately receives the interest in accordance with the terms of its Option Agreement or the Plan. Before funds are transferred to a new Escrow Account, or if the Escrow Agent is replaced, the Plan must be amended to provide the same full disclosure with respect to the new account, the escrow agent and the applicable escrow agreement as was originally provided. A bond, letter of credit or other security may be substituted for the Escrow Account only after the Attorney General approves in writing the use of such alternate form of security.

Sponsor has agreed to indemnify and hold Escrow Agent harmless from any and all losses, damages, claims, liabilities, judgments and other costs and expenses which may be claimed against or incurred by Escrow Agent by reason of its acceptance of, and/or its performance under, the escrow agreement and/or Option Agreement (other than those ultimately determined to have arisen out of the willful misconduct or gross negligence of Escrow Agent), including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees either paid to retained attorneys or amounts representing the fair value of legal services rendered to itself.

Escrow Agent will maintain all records concerning the Escrow for seven (7) years after the release of funds.

Purchasers are advised that Escrow Agent is also acting as counsel to Sponsor; and Escrow Agent shall be permitted to act as counsel to Sponsor in any dispute as to the disbursement of the Deposit or any other dispute between Sponsor and a Purchaser whether or not the Escrow Agent is in possession of the Deposit and continues to act as the Escrow Agent, provided that Escrow Agent shall not violate its obligations with respect to the maintenance or release of the Deposit under the Option Agreement while it continue to hold such Deposit.

3. Date of the First Closing

In the event the actual or anticipated commencement date of the projected First Year of Condominium Operation is to be delayed by six (6) months or more, Sponsor will amend the Plan to include a revised Condominium budget with current projections therefor, and if: (i) such amended budget exceeds the projected budget set forth herein by twenty-five percent (25%) or more; or (ii) the First Closing does not occur within twelve (12) months after July 1, 2015, the date set forth in Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation" as the commencement date for the projected First Year of Condominium Operation, then in either case Sponsor will offer all Purchasers (other than Purchasers who are then in default under their Option Agreements, if the Plan has been declared effective) the right to rescind their Option Agreements within not less than fifteen (15) days after the presentation date of the amendment containing such revised budget or such twelve (12) month period, as the case may be, and any Purchasers electing rescission pursuant to such offer will have their Deposits and any interest accrued thereon returned. Purchasers' rights as described in the preceding sentence are in lieu of any other rights or remedies which may be available pursuant to any applicable law, regulation, statute or otherwise, all of which shall be deemed to have been waived by all Purchasers.

4. Default

In the event that a Purchaser fails to close title on the date set for closing or otherwise fails to perform any other obligation under Purchaser's Option Agreement, and such default is not cured within thirty (30) days after Sponsor gives written notice to such Purchaser of the default, Sponsor, at its option, may: (i) cancel such Option Agreement and retain as liquidated damages the Deposit made by the Purchaser, together with all interest earned thereon, if any; or (ii) exercise all other rights and remedies under the Option Agreement, at law or equity, in the case of such a default. With regard to Sponsor's right to retain the Deposit as liquidated damages, it is acknowledged and agreed by Sponsor and each Purchaser that it would be impractical and/or extremely difficult to fix or establish the actual damage sustained by Sponsor as a result of such a default by a prospective Purchaser, and that the Deposit (including all interest) shall constitute and be deemed to be the reasonable and agreed upon liquidated damages of Sponsor in respect of the possible loss of a timely closing, the possible fluctuation of values, additional carrying costs of the Unit and other expenses that may be incurred, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, and shall be paid by Purchaser to Sponsor as Sponsor's sole and exclusive remedy. In such case, all rights, obligations and liabilities of Sponsor and the Purchaser to each other shall cease and terminate and Purchaser shall have no further liability to Sponsor in respect of the Option Agreement (except for those matters expressly specified therein or herein to survive the termination thereof); however, such Purchaser shall not have any right whatsoever to the return of all or any portion of its Deposit (or any interest thereon). The payment of the deposit (including all interest) as liquidated damages is not intended to be a forfeiture or penalty, but is intended to constitute liquidated damages to Sponsor. For the avoidance of doubt, no statutory interest will accrue during any period of time during which there is a dispute over the Deposit being held in escrow. (See the subsection entitled "Deposits/Escrow" above within this Section of the Plan for further discussion.)

Purchasers are advised that notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall be deemed to grant Purchaser any right of rescission and/or right to the return of all or any portion of a Deposit except as expressly set forth in the Plan. In the event Sponsor elects not to cancel the Option Agreement as a result of the failure of the Purchaser to close on the date specified by Sponsor, or if Sponsor approves a request from the Purchaser to adjourn the closing date, then Sponsor may require that: (a) the Purchaser pay Sponsor interest at a rate of 0.03% per day (or such lower daily rate which is the legal limit, if 0.03% per day exceeds the legal limit) on the total purchase price, computed from the original closing date until the transaction is actually closed; and (b) all apportionments between Sponsor and the Purchaser be made as of the original closing date; in addition, the Purchaser shall reimburse Sponsor for any additional costs incurred by Sponsor as a result of the Purchaser's delay.

TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE with respect to the Purchaser's obligation to close title on the date set for closing and to pay, perform or observe all of his or her other obligations under the Option Agreement, and to cure a default within thirty (30) days after Sponsor gives notice to the Purchaser of such default. Therefore, a Purchaser who defaults under his or her Option Agreement and who does not cure such default within such thirty (30) day period may not be permitted any additional time to cure such default.

As provided in the form of Option Agreement, which is set forth as Exhibit 1 in Part II of the Plan, the following occurrences, without limitation of any other term or provision thereof or of the Plan, shall constitute an event of default under a Purchaser's Option Agreement: (a) Purchaser's assignment of any of Purchaser's property for the benefit of creditors, or Purchaser's filing a voluntary petition in bankruptcy; (b) the appointment of a non-bankruptcy trustee or receiver over Purchaser or Purchaser's property, or the filing of an involuntary petition in bankruptcy against Purchaser; or (c) the filing of a judgment or tax lien against Purchaser which Purchaser does not pay or bond within thirty (30) days after the filing thereof.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if an Option Agreement is not exempt under ILSA and if a Purchaser loses rights and interest in its Unit as a result of a default or breach of its Option Agreement which occurs after Purchaser has paid fifteen percent (15%) of the purchase price of its Unit, excluding any interest owed under such Option Agreement, Sponsor (or Sponsor's successor) shall refund to Purchaser any amount which remains after subtracting (A) fifteen percent (15%) of the purchase price, excluding any interest owed under and disposed of in accordance with such Option Agreement, or the amount of damages incurred by Sponsor (or Sponsor's successor) as a result of such breach, whichever is greater, from (B) the Deposit paid by Purchaser, excluding any interest paid under such Option Agreement (which interest shall be disposed of as set forth in the Option Agreement).

5. Risk of Loss

The risk of loss to any Purchaser's Unit by fire or other casualty until the closing of title to such Unit (or an earlier taking of possession by the Purchaser) is assumed by Sponsor, but Sponsor has no obligation or liability to repair or restore any Unit. If a Unit is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty prior to the closing of title, but after the signing of an Option Agreement, and Sponsor gives written notice to the Purchaser of Sponsor's election to repair or restore the Unit, then the Option Agreement shall continue in full force and effect, and the Purchaser shall not have the right to reject title or receive a credit against, or abatement in, the purchase price. Sponsor shall be entitled to a reasonable period of time within which to complete the repair or restoration, and any proceeds received from insurance or in satisfaction of any claim or action in connection with such loss shall, subject to the rights, if any, of the applicable Board(s) and other Unit Owners, belong entirely to Sponsor.

However, if Sponsor notifies the Purchaser in writing that it does not elect to repair or restore the Unit, or if the Unit Owners entitled to make such determination do not resolve to make such repair or restoration pursuant to the Condominium By-Laws or the Tower By-Laws, the Option Agreement shall be deemed terminated, Sponsor shall return to the Purchaser the entire Deposit, together with interest earned thereon, and the parties shall be released and discharged from all rights, obligations and liability under the Option Agreement and this Plan, except that if the Purchaser is then in default under the Option Agreement beyond any applicable grace period, Sponsor may retain such Purchaser's Deposit, together with interest earned thereon. (See the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of the Unit Owners and the Boards of Managers" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

6. Financing

Although a Purchaser may obtain financing from any lending institution or any other source, the Purchaser's obligation pursuant to an Option Agreement to purchase a Unit shall not be contingent on the Purchaser obtaining a commitment for financing or actually obtaining financing for such purchase. In other words, a Purchaser shall remain obligated under an Option Agreement to purchase his or her Unit whether or not he or she is able to obtain financing. Neither Sponsor nor Selling Agent makes any representations as to the terms or availability of any mortgage financing. Prospective Purchasers are, therefore, advised to finalize their financing arrangements before signing an Option Agreement. However, prospective Purchasers should be aware that even if a loan commitment is obtained, its term may be limited, and it could expire before the closing date, and Sponsor shall have no liability as a result of any scheduling or adjournment of closing beyond the expiration of a loan commitment. Purchasers should further note that in the current real estate market, banks and other lenders are imposing various restrictions on loans. Such restrictions include requiring that a certain percentage of the apartments in a building be sold before the lender will consider making a loan. Therefore it may be possible for a Purchaser to experience difficulty obtaining a loan if the percentage of Units purchased is lower than a lender's particular sales minimum.

7. Transfer (and Mansion) Taxes

As described more fully in the Section entitled "Terms of Sale" in Part I below, Purchasers shall be responsible (as is customary in condominium offerings) for the payment at closing of all New York City Real Property Transfer Tax and New York State Real Estate Transfer Tax, notwithstanding that these taxes are by law primarily the obligation of the seller. For purposes of calculating the taxes payable, the amounts of such taxes will be included in the consideration subject to such tax. Purchasers shall also be obligated to pay the New York State Additional Tax pursuant to Article 31 of the New York State Tax Law, commonly referred to as the "Mansion Tax," currently (as of the date of the filing of this Plan) one percent (1%) of the consideration paid when the consideration is $1,000,000 or more, which tax by law is the primary obligation of the Purchaser.

The purchase price, together with transfer taxes and any other amounts payable by Purchasers which are the obligation of Sponsor, will be added together by the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance and the New York City Department of Finance or, collectively, the "taxing authorities" to arrive at total consideration for transfer tax and Mansion Tax purposes. However, Sponsor makes no representation regarding the calculation of such taxes or of the "consideration" upon which the taxing authorities may base such taxes and shall have no liability with respect thereto. Purchasers should consult with their own counsel and/or tax advisors.

8. Foreign Missions; Required Notification and Waiver of Diplomatic or Sovereign Immunity

Any Purchaser that is a foreign mission, as such term is defined under the Foreign Missions Act, 22 U.S.C. 4305, must notify the United States Department of State prior to purchasing a Unit and provide a copy of such notice to Sponsor. Sponsor will not be bound under any Option Agreement with a foreign mission unless and until the earlier to occur of: (i) receipt of a notification of approval from the Department of State; or (ii) sixty (60) days after receipt of such Purchaser's notice by the Department of State.

Any Purchaser that is a foreign government, a resident representative of a foreign government or other person or entity otherwise entitled to the immunities from suit enjoyed by a foreign government (i.e., diplomatic or sovereign immunity) shall expressly and voluntarily waive such immunity and consent to any suit action or proceeding arising out of or relating to the Option Agreement being brought in any state or Federal court in the State of New York. Any such Purchaser shall designate C.T. Corporation System, having its offices, at the date hereof, at 111 Eighth Avenue, 13th Floor, New York, New York 10011 as its duly authorized and lawful agent to receive process for and on behalf of Purchaser in any state or Federal suit, action or proceeding in the State of New York based on, arising out of or connected with the Option Agreement.

9. Notice of Effectiveness

After the Plan has been declared effective, Sponsor will from time to time set the date for closing for all Units as to which Option Agreements have been executed by serving thirty (30) days written notice to said Purchaser(s) of said closing. Sponsor, in its sole discretion, may permit Purchasers to waive said thirty (30) day notice.

10. Compliance with Interstate Land Sales Full Disclosure Act

Pursuant to the Interstate Land Sales Full Disclosure Act ("ILSA "), 15 U.S.C.A. § 1701 et seq., Sponsor has submitted a proposed statement of record ("Statement of Record") to the U.S. Consumer Financial Protection Bureau ("CFPB") disclosing the offering of the Tower Units and Storage Licenses in the Condominium. The Statement of Record has been assigned OILSR 32696-09-2013. Sponsor believes it will be in compliance with its ILSA filing obligations upon CFPB's approval of the Statement of Record. The Attorney General has not verified or approved the content of the Statement of Record.

The Statement of Record includes a "Property Report," which discloses information regarding the Condominium. Pursuant to ILSA, the form of Option Agreement as set forth as Exhibit 1 in Part II of the Plan includes a provision that if a Purchaser does not receive a Property Report in advance of signing the Option Agreement, the Option Agreement may be cancelled at such Purchaser's option for two (2) years from the date of signing; however, under ILSA, certain circumstances may cause some transactions to be exempt from such requirement and Sponsor makes no representation with respect the applicability of the foregoing matters to any individual Unit or contract.

J. ASSIGNMENT OF AGREEMENTS

An Option Agreement may not be assigned by the Purchaser thereunder. If a Purchaser desires to assign its rights under an Option Agreement or to take title in the name of an affiliate of, or entity related to, or controlled by, the Purchaser that differs from the name on the Option Agreement, or to add, delete or substitute the name of a member of the Purchaser's family, then, if such assignment, alteration, addition, deletion or substitution is permitted by Sponsor (in Sponsor's sole discretion), the Purchaser will be required to deliver to Selling Agent or Sponsor's Closing Counsel, four (4) signed assignments of the Option Agreement (to be prepared by Sponsor's Counsel at Purchaser's expense and in form and content acceptable to Sponsor, in its sole discretion), as well as three (3) completed and signed copies of either Form W-9 (Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification) or Form W-8BEN (Certificate of Foreign Status of Beneficial Owner for United States Tax Withholding), as applicable, in the form required by law. Upon each assignment or other change permitted by Sponsor (in its sole discretion), the assignments and Forms W-9 or Forms W-8BEN, as applicable, must be delivered to the Selling Agent or Sponsor's Closing Counsel, together with a personal certified check, or an official bank or cashier's check, in the amount of $1,500 made payable to "Extell Development Company" (for services rendered in connection with the assignment), not less than twenty (20) days prior to the date scheduled for the Purchaser's closing. In no event will the Purchaser (or its assignee or any added or substituted party) have the right to adjourn or postpone the closing as a result of such change or assignment. Sponsor is not obligated to consent to any such change or assignment and, if Sponsor refuses to consent, the Purchaser will not be excused from his or her obligations under the Option Agreement; and the prohibition against advertising or listing any Tower Unit(s) for sale or resale with any broker or otherwise advertising, promoting or publicizing the availability of such Tower Unit(s) for sale shall remain in effect.

In connection with the foregoing, if Purchaser is a corporation, any sale, assignment, transfer, pledge, encumbrance or other disposition of any of the stock of Purchaser, or if Purchaser is a partnership, a limited liability company or other entity, any sale, assignment, transfer, pledge, encumbrance or other disposition of any interest in such partnership, limited liability company or other entity shall be considered an assignment and shall be subject to the provisions, prohibitions and terms of the Plan concerning assignment, except that a sale of less than fifty percent (50%) of the stock, or in the case of a partnership, limited liability company or other entity, less than fifty percent (50%) of the ownership interests, of Purchaser which does not result in a change in control of Purchaser shall not be considered an assignment. For purposes of the preceding sentence only, "control" shall mean the ownership of fifty-one percent (51%) or more of the interests in such entity or possession of the power to direct the management and policies of such entity and the distribution of its profits.

K. EFFECTIVE DATE

The offering by Sponsor of the Tower Units is contingent upon the Plan being declared effective and upon compliance with the relevant conditions and time periods set forth in the Plan.

The Plan may be declared effective, at Sponsor's option, when bona fide Option Agreements (including those executed by investors) have been executed and are in effect with respect to not less than thirty-three (33) Tower Units, representing fifteen percent (15%) of the Tower Units offered hereby. The Plan must, however, be declared effective when bona fide Option Agreements have been executed and are in effect with respect to at least 176 Tower Units, representing eighty percent (80%) or more of such Units.

The Plan will not be declared effective based on an Option Agreement: (i) signed by a Purchaser who has been granted a right of rescission that has not yet expired or been waived; (ii) subject to the immediately preceding clause "(i)", signed by a Purchaser not afforded the three (3) business day period to review the Plan (prior to executing an Option Agreement) provided for in the Section entitled "Procedure to Purchase" above in Part I of the Plan; or (iii) entered into with a Purchaser who is Sponsor, Selling Agent or the Managing Agent, or who is a principal of any of the foregoing or who is related to any of the foregoing or any principal thereof by blood, marriage or adoption or as a business associate, employee, shareholder or limited partner, except that such a Purchaser (other than Sponsor or a principal of Sponsor) may be included if Sponsor submits proof satisfactory to the Department of Law establishing that such Purchaser is bona fide. Except as otherwise limited by this Section of the Plan, all 219 Tower Units shall be counted toward declaring the Plan effective.

The Plan will be declared effective either by: (i) an amendment to the Plan; or (ii) mailing or delivering personally to each Offeree a written notice to such effect, in which event Sponsor will submit an amendment to the Plan to the Department of Law confirming that the Plan was declared effective on a specified date within five (5) days after such mailing or delivery. The First Closing will not occur until the Plan is declared effective and the effectiveness amendment is accepted for filing by the Department of Law.

The Plan may be withdrawn or abandoned by Sponsor, at its option, for any reason whatsoever at any time prior to its being declared effective. Once the Plan has been declared effective, it may not be abandoned or withdrawn, except that prior to the First Closing, the Plan may be abandoned at the option of Sponsor in the event of: (i) the existence of one or more defects in title (including violations of record or work orders of an insurance carrier) affecting any one or more Units and/or the Common Elements which cannot be cured, removed or complied with except through litigation or the expenditure of more than one-half of one percent (0.5%) of the total initial offering amount; (ii) substantial damage to or destruction of the Building (or any portion thereof) by fire or other casualty which cannot be cured or repaired for an amount which is less than one-half of one percent (0.5%) of the total initial offering amount; or (iii) a taking of all or a material portion of the Property by condemnation or eminent domain. In calculating the costs referred to in clauses (i) and (ii) above, any defects in title (including violations or work orders) that existed on the date the Units were initially offered for sale under the Plan, and were either known to Sponsor or were a matter of public record, and attorneys' fees, shall be excluded.

In the event of a withdrawal or abandonment of the Plan, Sponsor will promptly submit an amendment to the Department of Law to such effect, together with such forms as may be required by law. Purchasers will be notified in writing of a withdrawal or abandonment of the Plan. All Deposits, together with any interest earned thereon, will be returned to Purchasers within twenty (20) days following such withdrawal or abandonment, except that after the Plan has been declared effective, Sponsor may retain the Deposit, together with interest earned thereon, of any Purchaser who is then in default under his or her Option Agreement beyond the applicable grace period or whose Option Agreement has been cancelled due to such Purchaser's default, provided, however, that any requisite notice has been given to the Purchaser and any dispute with respect to the disposition of the Deposit has been determined in favor of Sponsor pursuant to the dispute resolution procedures provided by the regulations promulgated by the Department of Law. Upon the return or retention of the Deposit, together with interest earned thereon, the Option Agreement pursuant to which such Deposit was given will be null and void and Sponsor will have no further obligation or liability to the Purchaser under the Plan or such Option Agreement.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if an Option Agreement is not exempt under ILSA and if a Purchaser loses rights and interest in its Unit as a result of a default or breach of its Option Agreement which occurs after Purchaser has paid fifteen percent (15%) of the purchase price of its Unit, excluding any interest owed under such Option Agreement, Sponsor (or Sponsor's successor) shall refund to Purchaser any amount which remains after subtracting (A) fifteen percent (15%) of the purchase price, excluding any interest owed under and disposed of in accordance with such Option Agreement, or the amount of damages incurred by Sponsor (or Sponsor's successor) as a result of such breach, whichever is greater, from (B) the amount paid by Purchaser with respect to the purchase price of its Unit, excluding any interest paid under such Option Agreement (which interest shall be disposed of as set forth in the Option Agreement).

L. TERMS OF SALE

1. Prerequisites to Closing of Title

The terms "closing" or "closing of title" as used in this Plan refer to Sponsor's conveyance of title to a Unit to a Purchaser by the delivery of a deed, upon payment by the Purchaser to Sponsor of the balance of the purchase price for such Unit. The closing of title to each Unit shall take place only after or concurrently with the satisfaction of the following prerequisites:

(a) the Plan has been declared effective in accordance with its terms and the amendment to the Plan disclosing same has been accepted;

(b) a temporary or permanent certificate of occupancy for the Unit is in effect (unless Sponsor and such Purchaser otherwise agree in writing or Sponsor is unable to obtain such temporary or permanent certificate of occupancy for the Unit as a result of special work being done in the Unit at the request of the Purchaser);

(c) the Declaration, By-Laws, Floor Plans and such other documents as may be required by law have been filed or recorded, as the case may be, or have been submitted to Sponsor's title insurance company for filing or recording;

(d) at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice of the initial time and place of the closing of title has been given to the Purchaser (unless a Purchaser chooses to waive such thirty-(30) day notice);

(e) the Purchaser or Purchaser's designee has been given an opportunity to examine the Unit within the week prior to the closing; and

(f) the Unit and its appurtenant interest in the Common Elements have been released from the lien of all mortgages encumbering the Property.

2. Closing of Title; Payment of Balance of Purchase Price

At the closing of title to each Tower Unit, Sponsor shall execute and deliver to the Purchaser a bargain and sale deed with covenant against grantor's acts, substantially in the form of the Tower Unit Deed set forth as Exhibit 3 in Part II of the Plan, conveying title to the Tower Unit and its appurtenant Common Interest, free and clear of all liens, encumbrances and other title exceptions other than the Permitted Encumbrances. The Purchaser shall also sign the Tower Unit Deed.

Simultaneously with the delivery of the Tower Unit Deed, the Purchaser shall pay the balance of the purchase price and the closing apportionments and costs described below in the Section entitled "Unit Closing Costs and Adjustments." Payments shall be by official bank or cashier's check or unendorsed certified check drawn on or issued by a bank or trust company which is a member of the New York Clearing House Association, payable to the direct order of Sponsor or to such other party or parties as Sponsor notifies the Purchaser prior to the closing. Purchasers are advised that uncertified attorney escrow checks and other non-conforming checks may not be accepted by Sponsor. Any delay in closing occasioned by the presentation of such checks shall be deemed to have been caused by Purchaser and may, at the option of Sponsor, constitute a default under the Option Agreement and/or give rise to additional costs or expenses to be borne by Purchaser.

3. Tax Returns, Unit Owner Power of Attorney

Each Purchaser of a Tower Unit will also be required to execute and deliver at the closing: (i) a New York City Real Property Transfer Tax Return and New York State Real Estate Transfer Tax Return and Credit Line Mortgage Certificate, in the forms required to be filed by law; (ii) a Tower Unit Owner Power of Attorney substantially in the form set forth as Exhibit 2 in Part II of the Plan in favor of: (1) the persons who shall from time to time constitute the Tower Board, designating the Tower Board as the Purchaser's attorney-in-fact, for the purpose of acquiring or leasing in the name of the Tower Board or its designee on behalf of all Tower Unit Owners any Tower Unit and to otherwise deal with the Tower Section and the Tower Limited Common Elements, all in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws and the Tower By-Laws; and after any such acquisition or leasing of any Tower Unit, to manage, convey, sell, lease, sublease, mortgage or otherwise deal with any such Tower Unit so acquired or leased, as the case may be; (2) the persons who shall from time to time constitute the Condominium Board, designating such Board as the Purchaser's attorney in fact, for the purpose of acquiring or leasing in the name of the Condominium or its designee on behalf of all Unit Owners any Unit and to otherwise deal with the Common Elements all in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws and the Tower By-Laws; and after any such acquisition or leasing of said Unit, to manage, convey, sell, lease, sublease, mortgage or otherwise deal with the Unit so acquired or leased, as the case may be, all in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws and the Tower By-Laws, as the case may be; and (3) Sponsor, for the purpose of executing an amendment to any of the Condominium Documents or acquiring any permits, applications or documents required to undertake, perform or complete work to Unsold Tower Units or Common Elements by Sponsor or obtaining an amended certificate of occupancy therefor. Failure by any Purchaser to deliver such documents at closing shall constitute an event of default under a Purchaser's Option Agreement, entitling Sponsor to all remedies set forth in such Option Agreement.

4. Tax-Deferred Exchanges

The form of Option Agreement (as set forth as Exhibit 1 in Part II of the Plan) provides that in the event a Unit is being acquired by a Purchaser as part of a tax-deferred exchange under §1031 of the Internal Revenue Code, Sponsor shall reasonably assist and cooperate in such tax-deferred exchange, provided, however, that: (i) any action taken in connection with such tax-deferred exchange or requested of Sponsor shall not result in any cost, expense or liability on the part of Sponsor or increased risk to Sponsor relating to the transaction (and, among other things, Purchaser acknowledges that a fee may be payable to Sponsor's Closing Counsel in connection with the review of any documentation related to such tax-deferred exchange); (ii) no action or failure on the part of the Purchaser (or any other party to such tax-deferred exchange) or cooperation on the part of Sponsor in connection with or related to the tax-deferred exchange will frustrate the purpose of the Option Agreement or otherwise result in a reduction of Sponsor's rights, remedies and privileges under the Option Agreement or increase any of Sponsor's obligations or duties under the Option Agreement or otherwise; and (iii) Sponsor shall not be obligated, as part of such tax-deferred exchange, to convey any property (other than the applicable Unit), acquire any property, or accept any form of payment in respect of any of the amounts due under the Option Agreement other than as set forth therein or in the Plan. Purchaser shall indemnify, defend and hold Sponsor harmless from and against any and all costs, expenses, fees (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) or liabilities incurred by Sponsor in connection with or resulting from the tax-deferred exchange, and such indemnity shall survive the closing of title to the Unit. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor makes no representation and expresses no opinion with respect to the applicability of §1031 of the Internal Revenue Code to the purchase or acquisition of a Unit.

5. Risk of Loss

The risk of loss to any Purchaser's Unit by fire or other casualty until the closing of title to such Unit (or an earlier taking of possession by the Purchaser) is assumed by Sponsor, but Sponsor has no obligation or liability to repair or restore any such Unit. If a Unit is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty prior to the closing of title, but after the signing of an Option Agreement, and Sponsor gives written notice to the Purchaser within forty-five (45) days of Sponsor's election to repair or restore the Unit, then the Option Agreement shall continue in full force and effect, and the Purchaser shall not have the right to reject title or receive a credit against, or abatement in, the purchase price. Sponsor shall be entitled to a reasonable period of time (not to exceed 180 days) within which to complete the repair or restoration, and any proceeds received from insurance or in satisfaction of any claim or action in connection with such loss shall, subject to the rights, if any, of any applicable Boards and other Unit Owners, belong entirely to Sponsor.

However, if Sponsor notifies the Purchaser in writing that it does not elect to repair or restore the Unit, or if the Unit Owners entitled to make such determination do not resolve to make such repair or restoration pursuant to the Condominium By-Laws and Tower By-Laws (see the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of the Unit Owners and the Boards of Managers" in Part I of the Plan), the Option Agreement shall be deemed terminated, Sponsor shall return to the Purchaser the entire Deposit, together with interest earned thereon, and the parties shall be released and discharged from all rights, obligations and liability under the Option Agreement and this Plan, except that if the Purchaser is then in default under the Option Agreement beyond any applicable grace period, Sponsor may retain such Purchaser's Deposit, together with interest earned thereon.

M. UNIT CLOSING COSTS AND ADJUSTMENTS

As more particularly set forth in the Option Agreement, in addition to the Purchaser's own legal fees, the Purchaser will pay the following closing costs at the time of the closing of title of such Purchaser's Unit:

1. Title Insurance: If the Purchaser elects to obtain fee title insurance, the Purchaser will pay the premium therefor, which premium will vary depending upon the amount of insurance purchased. Purchasers may obtain title insurance from the Title Company or, without incurring additional fees from Sponsor, from any other title company of Purchaser's choosing. As of the filing of this Plan, the rates for fee title insurance from the Title Company will be $342 for the first $35,000.00 of fee insurance plus $5.67 for each $1,000.00 of additional fee insurance up to $50,000.00. For additional rates for purchase prices under $1,000,000, please refer to the schedule below. Please note that these and any rates are subject to change from time to time.

Purchasers are advised that Purchasers may be entitled to a seventy percent (70%) rate (bulk rate) on the fee owner's title insurance since the Condominium has ten (10) or more units.

As of the filing of this Plan, if Purchaser elects to simultaneously obtain both fee title insurance and mortgage title insurance from the Title Company, the premium for the mortgage title insurance will be at a simultaneous rate.

Sponsor makes no representation or warranty regarding the terms of any such insurance.

2. Recording Charges: The fees charged by the City Register's Office for recording the Unit Deed, Unit Owner Power of Attorney and mortgage (if any), in the amount of $37.00 for each document, plus $5.00 per page (including the cover page), shall be payable by Purchaser, plus the $125.00 filing fee for the RP-5217 form. In addition, a Purchaser's title insurance company may charge various fees and service charges in connection with such recordings and filings, which shall be payable by Purchaser.

3. Transfer Taxes and Mansion Tax: The New York City Real Property Transfer Tax ("RPT Tax") is currently, for the purchase of a single Unit, one percent (1%) of the consideration paid for a Unit if such consideration is $500,000 or less and 1.425% of the consideration if such consideration is more than $500,000; and the New York State Real Estate Transfer Tax ("NYS Tax") is currently $2 for each $500 (or fractional part thereof) of the consideration. For purposes of calculating the taxes payable, the amounts of such taxes which are the primary obligation of the seller but are paid by Purchaser will be included in the consideration subject to tax. Therefore, the steps to compute the taxes payable are:

(i) compute the tentative RPT Tax by multiplying the purchase price (and any amounts paid by Purchaser which are the obligation of Sponsor) by the RPT Tax rate;

(ii) compute the tentative NYS Tax by multiplying the purchase price (and any amounts paid by Purchaser which are the obligation of Sponsor) by the NYS Tax rate;

(iii) compute the taxable consideration by adding (i), the tentative RPT Tax and (ii), the tentative NYS Tax to the consideration;

(iv) multiply (iii), the taxable consideration, by the RPT Tax rate to determine the actual RPT Tax payable; and

(v) (y) multiply (iii), the taxable consideration, by the NYS Tax rate to determine the actual NYS Tax payable.

As an example, in respect of Tower Unit 20E, purchased with the consideration in the amount of $7,400,000 (which, in addition to the purchase price, would include any other amounts paid by Purchaser which are the obligation of Sponsor), the transfer tax calculation is as follows: (i) $7,400,000 x 1.425% = $105,450; (ii) $7,400,000/$500 x $2 = $29,600; (iii) $105,450 + $29,600 + $7,400,000 = $7,535,050; (iv) $7,535,050 x 1.425% = $107,374.46; (v) $7,535,050/$500 x $2 = $30,142. Mansion Tax (described below) in the amount of $75,350.50 would also be payable. All the foregoing is subject to increase in respect of additional "consideration," including, without limitation, the fee paid to Sponsor's Closing Counsel, as described below.

Under the current policies of the New York City Department of Finance, where a Purchaser purchases two (2) or more Tower Units that have not been physically combined into a single residence before the transfer, the RPT Tax rate will be imposed at non-residential rates, i.e., where the consideration is $500,000 or less, the rate will be 1.425%, and where the consideration is in excess of $500,000, the rate will be 2.625%. This may be the case even if the Tower Units are transferred to the Purchaser pursuant to separate sales contracts with separate closing dates. The New York City Department of Finance has taken the position that the consideration for the transfer of a Tower Unit under a deed is not aggregated with the consideration for the transfer of other Tower Units under separate deeds for purposes of determining total consideration. There is no guarantee that The City of New York will not change its position with respect to the foregoing.

If the purchase price together with other consideration paid for a Tower Unit is $1,000,000 or more, Purchaser will also pay the New York State Additional Tax pursuant to Article 31 of the Tax Law, commonly referred to as the "Mansion Tax," which is currently (as of the filing of this Plan) one percent (1%) of the purchase price (the computation of which shall include the RPT Tax and NYS Tax as described above). It is likely that the purchase price, together with transfer taxes (the amount of which shall be computed as described above) and any other amounts payable by Purchasers which are the obligation of Sponsor, will be added together by the taxing authorities to arrive at total consideration for Mansion Tax purposes. For example, the Purchaser of a Residential Unit with a purchase price of $990,000, with respect to which Purchaser pays the NYS Tax and RPT Tax and other consideration, would be liable for the Mansion Tax because the aggregate consideration would be $1,000,000 or more. However, Sponsor makes no representation regarding the calculation of the Mansion Tax or the "consideration" upon which the New York State taxing authorities may base the Mansion Tax and shall have no liability with respect thereto. Purchasers should consult with their own counsel and/or tax advisors.

4. Mortgage Tax Credit. In order to reimburse Sponsor for the mortgage recording tax previously paid in connection with any existing mortgage(s), if the Purchaser: (a) obtains a mortgage loan, the Purchaser will pay to Sponsor an amount equal to the partial mortgage tax credit which may be available pursuant to Section 339-ee(2) of the New York State Condominium Act; or (b) assumes or consents to the continuation of a mortgage lien encumbering only such Purchaser's Unit and as a result is entitled to an exemption of all or a portion of the mortgage tax otherwise payable, the Purchaser will pay to Sponsor an amount equal to such exemption, but in no event will the amount payable by the Purchaser to Sponsor exceed the amount of mortgage tax which would have been payable by the Purchaser to the taxing authority if such mortgage tax credit or exemption had not been available to the Purchaser.

5. Mortgage and Related Costs: If the Purchaser obtains a mortgage loan, the Purchaser will be responsible for the payment of all mortgage recording taxes (taking into account however any payments made pursuant to subparagraph (4) above) and closing costs and expenses in connection therewith, in amounts determined by Purchaser's lender, which closing costs may include, but are not limited to, the fees of such lender's counsel, recording charges and mortgage title insurance. Currently, the New York State and New York City mortgage recording tax levied on individual residential condominium Units located in New York City is $2.05 for each $100 (and each remaining major fraction thereof) with respect to mortgages of less than $500,000, and $2.175 for each $100 (and each remaining major fraction thereof) with respect to mortgages in the amount of $500,000 or more (less, in each case, a $30.00 credit). The two mortgage recording tax rates described in the previous sentence are comprised of the New York City mortgage recording tax ($1.00, or $1.125 in the case of individual residential condominium Unit mortgages in the amount of $500,000 or more); and the New York State Basic ($.50), Additional ($.30); and Special Additional ($.25) mortgage recording taxes. Mortgage lenders may require borrowers to pay mortgage recording taxes. However, with respect to individual residential condominium Units, mortgage lenders may not require borrowers to pay, subject to certain statutory exceptions, the special additional mortgage recording tax, which accounts for $.25 of the New York State rate (as previously described in this paragraph 5). Mortgage lenders also may require borrowers to pay deposits for Common Charges, real estate taxes, fire and casualty insurance premiums, assessments and water charges and sewer rents. No representation or warranty is made with respect to the amounts of such closing costs and expenses or the availability or cost of mortgage financing from any sources. As previously stated in subparagraph 4 above, if a mortgage tax credit becomes available pursuant to Section 339-ee(2) of the Condominium Act, such credit will inure solely to the benefit of Sponsor and such Purchaser will cooperate with Sponsor in obtaining such credit. Accordingly, at Closing, each Purchaser utilizing mortgage financing will pay the full amount (but not in excess thereof) of the mortgage recording tax chargeable on the entire amount being financed and Sponsor will be reimbursed by Purchaser to the extent of any mortgage tax credit allowed.

6. Closing Fees: Purchaser shall also be responsible for payment of the following fees to office of Extell Legal Department ("Sponsor's Closing Counsel"), in connection with the closing of title to such Purchaser's Unit: (i) the sum of $4,000 per Unit as a closing fee in connection with the closing of title to the Purchaser's Unit, and for each issuance of a Storage License, the sum of $500 as a fee in connection with processing the issuance of such Storage License; (ii) if the Purchaser requests the closing to occur other than at the offices of Sponsor's Closing Counsel (or such other place as Sponsor may designate in its closing notice) and Sponsor consents to such change (in its sole discretion), an attendance fee of $500 (closings may not be scheduled to occur outside Manhattan); (iii) if the closing is adjourned through no fault of Sponsor, an additional fee of $300 for each such adjournment to help defray the cost of preparing for and coordinating the new closing; (iv) if Sponsor, in its sole discretion, consents to a Purchaser's request for an assignment of the Option Agreement, or for the addition, deletion or substitution of names on the Option Agreement, a fee of $1,500, payable in advance, for preparation of an assignment agreement; (v) $250 for the preparation of ACRIS transfer documents required by the City of New York; (vi) if Purchaser obtains mortgage financing, an additional fee of $700 to Sponsor's Closing Counsel to defray the additional costs associated therewith. Purchaser may be required to pay more than one fee pursuant to the preceding provisions of this paragraph with respect to a single Unit; and (vii) Purchaser shall pay Sponsor's Closing Counsel the sum of $600 in connection with the consideration, review and processing of any agreement of exchange or the like which Sponsor is requested to execute in connection with any tax deferred exchange under §1031 of the Internal Revenue Code. Other additional charges may apply. At Sponsor's option

(in its sole discretion), any one or more of the foregoing fees to be paid to Sponsor's Closing Counsel shall be paid by Purchaser prior to closing upon notice to Purchaser.

7. Working Capital: A contribution to the Working Capital Fund in an amount equal to two (2) months' Common Charges then in effect for the Tower Unit pursuant to the budget in accordance with Schedule A hereto, as the same may be amended from time to time.

8. Common Charges: In addition to the contribution to the Working Capital Fund by the Purchaser of a Tower Unit as described in paragraph (7) above, Purchaser will pay to the Tower Board the Tower Common Charges for the Tower Unit for the first full month following the month in which title closes. If Purchaser is a foreign government, a resident representative of a foreign government or other person or entity otherwise entitled to the immunities from suit enjoyed by a foreign government (i.e., diplomatic or sovereign immunity), Purchaser shall pay to the Tower Board an amount equal to the Common Charges for such Unit for a period of two (2) years as security for the faithful observance by such Unit Owner of the terms, provisions and conditions of the Tower By-Laws. In the event that such Unit Owner defaults in respect of the terms, provisions and conditions of the Tower By-Laws, the Tower Board may use, apply, or retain the whole or any part of the security so paid in advance to the extent required for the payment of any Common Charges or any other sum as to which such Unit Owner is in default; and such Unit Owner shall, within thirty (30) days after notice from the Tower Board, deposit with the Tower Board the amount so applied or retained so that at the option of the Tower Board, the applicable Board shall have the full amount of said security on hand at all times.

9. Resident Manager's Unit: At the Closing to each Tower Unit, the Purchaser thereof, as a closing cost of such Purchaser's Tower Unit, will be required to make the RMU Payment to the Tower Board in an amount equal to such Purchaser's prorata share of the Purchase Price of the Resident Manager's Unit determined in proportion to their respective Common Interests, as set forth on Schedule A – "Purchase Prices and Related Information."

The following table illustrates the projected amounts of the costs set forth in this section of the Offering Plan for Tower Unit 20E, purchased by a Purchaser for a purchase price of $7,400,000, assuming such Purchaser finances fifty percent (50%) (i.e., $3,700,000) of the purchase price:

Fee Title Insurance (if purchased simultaneously with mortgage title insurance)	$ 18,863.00
Fee for recording Tower Unit Deed (7 pages), Tower Unit Owner Power of Attorney (5 pages), and form RP-5217	$ 259.00
Mortgage Loan Closing Costs:
- recording mortgage (assuming 20 pages)	$ 137.00
- Purchaser's mortgage recording tax (at 2.175% of $3,700,000) (Purchaser may be required to pay a portion of such tax directly to Sponsor)	$ 80,475.00

- mortgage title insurance (if purchased simultaneously with fee insurance)	$	2,520.00
- other bank charges (an appraisal fee of $400 and legal fees of $700 and assuming further that the lender does not require Purchaser to deposit funds to establish any escrow)	$	1,100.00
New York City and New York State Real Property Transfer Tax	$	137,516.46
New York State Mansion Tax	$	75,350.50
Working Capital Payment	$	6,534.00
RMU Payment	$	12,307.00
Closing Fee (assuming the closing occurs at the offices of Sponsor's Closing Counsel), including costs for ACRIS preparation and Purchaser's financing (and otherwise assuming Purchaser has not incurred any additional fees as set forth above)	$	4,950.00
TOTAL:	$	340,011.96

The projected closing costs referred to above are approximate and are not guaranteed. The mortgage loan closing costs vary widely among different lenders and also will vary depending on the loan program chosen.

At the closing, adjustments will be made between Sponsor and the Purchaser with respect to: (a) real estate taxes and assessments, if any (including water charges and sewer rents if separately assessed) on the basis of the period for which assessed; (b) Common Charges for the month in which title closes; and (c) accrued rent and any other charges pursuant to any interim lease or occupancy or other rental agreement affecting the Unit, if the Purchaser had been allowed to lease, occupy or rent such Unit prior to the closing. Real estate taxes will be adjusted at closing between Sponsor and each Purchaser based on the period for which real estate taxes have been prepaid by Sponsor either directly to the taxing authority or as part of the Common Charges to the applicable Board. If real estate taxes have been separately assessed to each Unit as of the closing, then the adjustment shall be based on the Unit's actual taxes for such period. If the real estate taxes have not been separately assessed against each Unit as of the closing, then the adjustment shall be determined by allocating to the Unit a prorated portion of the actual taxes for the entire Property for such period calculated on the basis of the Common Interest.

N. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF SPONSOR

1. Sponsor's Obligations

a. Construction

Sponsor will perform such work and supply such materials, or will cause the same to be performed and supplied, as is necessary in order to complete the construction of the Building with a quality of construction comparable to the currently prevailing local standards and substantially in accordance with the Plans and Specifications for the work filed with the Department of Buildings of The City of New York and other appropriate governmental authorities.

Based upon the current construction schedule, Sponsor presently contemplates that, unless delayed by weather, casualty, labor difficulties (including work stoppages and strikes), late delivery and/or the inability to obtain on a timely basis or otherwise, materials or equipment, governmental restrictions, acts of god or other events beyond its reasonable control construction of the Building will be sufficiently completed to permit closings of title to Tower Units to begin on or about July 1, 2015. Prospective Purchasers should note, however, that the Units will be completed at differing times over a period that may begin prior to and/or extend significantly beyond such date. Sponsor will have no liability to any Purchaser, nor will a Purchaser be entitled to any credit, offset or reduction in the purchase price for his or her Tower Unit or otherwise be relieved from any obligations under the Option Agreement, in the event that the First Closing occurs earlier or later than the targeted date or the time to complete or to close title to such Purchaser's Unit is accelerated, delayed or postponed by Sponsor; provided, however, that in the event the actual or anticipated commencement date of the projected First Year of Condominium Operation is to be delayed by six (6) months or more, Sponsor will amend the Plan to include a revised Condominium budget with current projections and if: (i) such amended budget exceeds the projected Condominium budget set forth herein by twenty-five percent (25%) or more; or (ii) the First Closing does not occur within twelve (12) months after July 1, 2015, the date set forth in Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation" as the commencement date for the projected First Year of Condominium Operation, then in either case Sponsor will offer all Purchasers (other than Purchasers who are then in default beyond any applicable grace period under their Option Agreements, if the Plan has been declared effective) the right to rescind their Option Agreements within not less than fifteen (15) days after the presentation date of the amendment containing such revised budget or after such twelve (12) month period, as the case may be, and any Purchasers electing rescission pursuant to such offer will have their Deposit and any interest accrued thereon returned. Purchasers' rights as described in the preceding sentence are in lieu of any other rights or remedies which may be available pursuant to any applicable law, regulation, statute or otherwise, all of which shall be deemed to have been waived by all Purchasers. As set forth in the Section entitled "Effective Date" in Part I of the Plan, no closing of title to any Unit offered hereunder will take place prior to the Plan being declared effective.

Sponsor reserves the right, without prior notice to Purchasers or amendment of this Plan (but subject to obtaining any required approval(s) of any governmental authorities having jurisdiction), to: (a) amend from time to time any of the Plans and Specifications (including changes in layouts and designs and changes affecting the materials, appliances, equipment, fixtures and other construction details); and/or (b) substitute materials, appliances, equipment and fixtures that are of equivalent or better quality and design in place of those described in the Plans and Specifications. Any such change, if material (for example, variations in square footage in excess of five percent (5%)), shall be disclosed by Sponsor in a duly filed amendment to the Plan and, when applicable, to the Declaration. There is a rebuttable presumption that a Unit size that is diminished by five percent (5%) or less is not material. No such change will be made if the same would materially adversely affect any Purchaser under an Option Agreement which has been countersigned by Sponsor and returned to the Purchaser unless the same is dictated by construction conditions at the Property (such as coordination of Building systems, conflicts with structural members or elements, conforming with Legal Requirements, unforeseen events, etc. and, in all cases, in good faith, reasonably necessary due to factors not within Sponsor's reasonable control, and where no practicable alternative (in the exercise of sound construction management practices) exists, and in such event, Sponsor will, in the amendment disclosing such material adverse change, offer the affected Purchaser(s) the right, for at least fifteen (15) days from the presentation date of such amendment, to rescind their Option Agreement(s) and receive a refund of their Deposit(s), together with all interest earned thereon. However, as long as the layout and dimensions of a Tower Unit conform substantially to the Plans and Specifications, a Purchaser will not be excused from purchasing a Tower Unit by reason of a minor, non-material deviation or change and will not have any claim against Sponsor as a result thereof.

The issuance of a temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy for all or any portion of the Building shall be deemed presumptive evidence that the construction of the Building or such portion and its appurtenances and all of the Units has been substantially completed in accordance with this Plan and the Plans and Specifications. However, notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor or its representatives will correct, repair or replace all defects in the construction of the Building and its appurtenances and the Units offered hereby, or in the installation or operation of any appliances, fixtures or equipment in the same, or will cause the same to be corrected, repaired or replaced, but only if such defects are due to improper workmanship or material substantially at variance with the Plans and Specifications, and Sponsor is notified by the Condominium Board or the affected Unit Owner in writing of such defect: (i) as to the Common Elements, within one (1) year from the earlier of the issuance of a temporary Certificate of Occupancy for the portion of the Building subject to such defect or the date of substantial completion of the portion(s) of the Common Elements which is claimed to be defective; or (ii) as to any Unit, on or prior to the date of closing for such Unit, except that if any such defect in a Unit can be detected only by occupancy of the Unit, Sponsor will correct such defect if notified in writing by the Unit Owner within one (1) year from the earlier of the closing of title to such Unit or the commencement date of an interim lease for such Unit. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor will not be responsible for correcting any defects in construction or installation or operation of any appliances, equipment or fixtures with respect to which assignable warranties or other undertakings (however denoted) from contractors, materialmen or others are assigned to the Condominium Board, Tower Board or Unit Owners; or for any condition resulting from normal wear and tear or natural deterioration or from normal settling or shifting of the Building, or for defects of an insubstantial nature, such as, without limitation, partial or total demise of any landscape improvements, nail pops, ridging on gypsum board or sheet rock walls, lumber shrinkage, doors or windows sticking due to weather, door warpage, grouting cracks, scratches in formica or porcelain surfaces, bath and kitchen tile grouting cracks, adjustment of any bi-fold doors, walls not square, electrical plates not straight, discolorations or shrinkages, normal settlement and deflection or any consequential damage resulting therefrom including, without limitation, cracks in any concrete roof pavers, or concrete cracks which do not impair the structural soundness of the Building, ceiling imperfections, slight separation in joints of kitchen tile or wood flooring, warping, cupping or creaking of wood flooring or any nicks, scratches, gouges, imperfections or discolorations thereof, floors out of level, variations in width, length or tone of wood floor strips or other flooring or floor finishes, also, normal shrinkage or expansion of wood flooring due to changes in moisture content of wood, ceiling imperfections, painting defects, alignment of bathroom finishes, air infiltration from windows, any consequential damage resulting from settling (including, without limitation, concrete or drywall cracks which do not impair the structural soundness of the Building), existence of mold (as more particularly described above in the subsection entitled "Features of Condominium Ownership" in the Section entitled "Introduction"), normal plumbing, heating and air conditioning noises, or carpet discoloring and stretching; or for paint touch-ups or for repair of chips, mars, breaks or other defects in windows, and window sashes, sliding glass doors, lighting fixtures and globes, interior painted surfaces, sinks, tubs, bowls, shower doors, kitchen cabinets, counter tops, vanity tops and bases, medicine cabinets, doors, mirrors, saddles, appliances, woodwork, doors, hardware, flooring and appliance cabinets, salting, or color variation in exterior colored mortar and deep colored brick, ponding and/or controlled drainage on the roof surface, or cracks in any pressure treated wood or redwood used or intended for use outside the Building. Sponsor shall be obligated to repair only abnormally chipped stone, formica and porcelain surfaces, which repair shall be made by filling the stone or formica or refinishing the porcelain, but Sponsor shall not be obligated to replace such stone, formica or porcelain surfaces. Except as expressly set forth herein, Sponsor has no obligation to make any repairs of any kind. In no event shall Sponsor be liable for special or consequential damages (whether based on negligence, breach of contract, warranty, or otherwise), it being intended that Sponsor's sole obligations under the Plan shall be to repair or, at Sponsor's option, replace any defective item of construction (whether arising as a result of defects in material or improper workmanship or material substantially at variance with the Plans and Specifications), subject to the terms and conditions set forth in this paragraph, provided, however, that nothing contained herein is intended to relieve Sponsor of liability for actual damages resulting from property damage or personal injury arising as a result of negligence of Sponsor or its authorized agents or employees in connection with the transactions contemplated in the Plan.

Sponsor shall not be obligated to correct and will not be liable to any Purchaser as a result of: (i) any insubstantial variations from the Plans and Specifications or the description of the Building or a Unit set forth in the Plan; or (ii) variations from the Plans and Specifications or the description of the Building or a Unit set forth in the Plan which are neither in violation of applicable building codes, nor require the approval of any governmental authority having jurisdiction, provided such variations are of substantially similar or better quality than as set forth in the Plans and Specifications or description in this Plan. Any such variation which is material will be disclosed in a duly filed amendment to the Plan. Sponsor is obligated to complete construction in accordance with all applicable laws and codes and substantially in accordance with filed building Plans and Specifications.

Each Unit offered hereby and the fixtures and personal property contained therein, are being sold and delivered "AS IS," as described in the Plan at the time of transfer of title to such Unit, unless Sponsor and the Purchaser of such Unit otherwise agree in writing. The Purchaser of a Unit shall inspect such Unit prior to the closing date and shall execute at such time an inspection statement acknowledging the Purchaser's acceptance of the Unit in good condition and in accordance with the terms of the Plan. However, if a Purchaser finds that Sponsor's improvements as described in the Plan or in the Option Agreement for such Unit or other writing duly executed and delivered by Sponsor, have not been fully completed, although such improvements have been substantially completed, then Sponsor or its designated representative and the Purchaser will at the time of such execution agree upon and set forth in the inspection statement a list of the incomplete work to be completed in the Unit by Sponsor following the closing for such Unit. Sponsor reserves the right to limit the number of individuals who may accompany Purchaser(s) in its inspection of the Unit.

The Housing Merchant Implied Warranty Law (New York State General Business Law Article 36-B) does not apply to this offering.

b. Real Property Law §339-kk

Section 339-kk of the Real Property Law ("RPL"), a copy of which is set forth as Exhibit 11 in Part II of the Plan, applies to all condominiums in the State of New York, and provides additional financial protection for a condominium association if the sponsor or other non-occupant Unit Owner of a Unit fails to make monthly payments for common charges, assessments and late fees due in connection with such owner's Unit.

With respect to Unsold Tower Units of a condominium owned by a sponsor or by any other non-occupant Unit owner and occupied by a tenant, RPL §339-kk provides as follows:

(a) If payment of common charges, assessments or late fees by any non-occupant Unit Owner is more than sixty (60) days late after the expiration of any grace period within which they are due, payments from a tenant of such Unit may become directly payable to the Condominium upon written notice by the Condominium to the tenant and the non-occupant Unit Owner. Where a majority of the Condominium Board has been elected by Unit Owners who are in occupancy of their respective Units, the Condominium Board may elect not to require that the rental payments be paid to the Condominium. Once the common charges, assessments and late fees of the non-occupant Unit Owner have been brought current, the Condominium Board must notify the non-occupant Unit Owners and tenant within three (3) business days and thereafter the rental payments will be payable to the non-occupant Unit Owner or a designated agent.

(b) Payment by a tenant of rent or the amount required pursuant to the tenant's lease or statutory tenancy to the condominium pursuant to the RPL §339-kk, relieves the tenant from the obligation to pay rent to the non-occupying Unit Owner.

(c) Any rights existing under any other laws are not limited by RPL §339-kk.

(d) A non-occupant Unit Owner who disputes a condominium's claim to rental payments is entitled to present facts supporting such owner's position at the next scheduled meeting of the Condominium Board, which must be held within thirty (30) days after receipt of notice that the Unit Owner seeks to dispute the Condominium's claim.

Sponsor makes no representation or guarantee that any Unit Owner (other than Sponsor), any tenant, or the Condominium, will in fact comply with RPL §339-kk, and Sponsor shall have no liability for their failure to do so.

In addition, Sponsor makes no representation as to (i) RPL §339-kk's effect on the lien priority of a loan heretofore or hereafter made to a non-occupant Owner and secured by a Unit, or whether RPL §339-kk's enactment or compliance therewith by a tenant constitutes a default by the Unit Owner under said loan, (ii) RPL 339-kk's effect on assignments of leases and rents given by a non-occupant Owner to mortgagee in connection with purchase-money financing or otherwise, (iii) the Condominium's remedies if a tenant fails or refuses to make rental payments to the Tower Board after notice from the Tower Board (in accordance with RPL §339-kk) to do so, (iv) the consequence of the Tower Board's failure to give notice to a tenant, or (v) who is responsible for designating an agent to whom rental payments are to be made after the non-occupant Tower Unit Owner is brought current in payment of Common Charges, assessments and late fees.

No representation is made about the tax effects of RPL §339-kk.

Prospective Purchasers should review RPL §339-kk to determine its effect on their own situation.

c. Payment of Expenses

All costs and expenses in connection with the construction of the Building and its appurtenances (including all sums properly due to contractors, subcontractors, suppliers and all others involved in such construction for work performed and fixtures, material and equipment supplied or installed) will be paid by Sponsor. Sponsor will cause all mechanics' liens arising out of the construction of the Building to be bonded or discharged promptly after Sponsor receives notice of the filing of the same. Alternatively, Sponsor will cause the Title Company or the title insurance company insuring a Purchaser's title to a Unit to affirmatively insure against collection of such liens out of, or enforcement of the same against, such Unit by posting a bond or bonds or escrowing a sum of money. However, if a Purchaser's title insurance company refuses to grant such affirmative insurance and the Title Company or any other title or abstract company which is a member of the New York State Land Title Association, Inc. would have been willing to grant the same at its regular rates without additional premium, neither such lack of affirmative insurance nor the existence of the liens in question will constitute a valid objection to title.

Sponsor will bear all costs and expenses incurred by it in connection with the creation of the Condominium and the preparation of the Plan and all selling expenses and compensation payable to sales or other personnel of Sponsor.

d. Assignment of Warranties

Upon the recording of the Declaration, Sponsor will deliver, assign or otherwise grant to the Condominium Board, on behalf of all Unit Owners with respect to the General Common Elements, and to the Tower Board, with respect to the Tower Limited Common Elements, the right to proceed under any assignable warranties and other undertakings received by Sponsor from its contractors, suppliers or others in connection with the construction of the Building, except that warranties and undertakings received by Sponsor which relate to appliances, equipment or fixtures located in any Tower Unit shall be assigned to the Purchaser of such Unit on the date of closing of title thereto.

e. Certificate of Occupancy

If, as of the First Closing, only a temporary Certificate of Occupancy has been issued for the Building, Sponsor will use all reasonable diligence to cause the New York City Department of Buildings to continuously renew the temporary Certificate of Occupancy until a permanent Certificate of Occupancy for all of the Units has been issued. Sponsor will, at its sole expense, do and perform, or cause to be done and performed, all such work (subject to events and circumstances beyond Sponsor's reasonable control, e.g., casualty, strikes, governmental restrictions, acts of god, etc.), and will supply, or cause to be supplied, all such materials, and will submit or cause to be submitted all such documentation, and shall pay all applicable fees required by the New York City Department of Buildings that shall be necessary in order to cause the temporary Certificate of Occupancy to be continuously renewed until a permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building has been issued, as well as to obtain any requisite certificates or permits relative to the electrical work, plumbing, heating and air-conditioning facilities and elevators at the Building. Prospective Purchasers are advised that permanent Certificates of Occupancy are required for permanent use of the Building, and that a temporary Certificate of Occupancy may be renewed only for a total of two (2) years from the first date of issuance. Sponsor projects, but cannot assure, that a permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building will be obtained within two (2) years after the First Closing.

In the event that a permanent Certificate of Occupancy has not been issued for the Building as of the First Closing, Sponsor is required to maintain all Deposits and funds paid on account of purchase prices (but not any payments given for special work ordered by Purchasers) in the special escrow account required by General Business Law Section 352-e(2)(b), unless Sponsor's engineer, architect, construction manager or other qualified expert certifies that a lesser amount will be reasonably necessary to complete the work remaining to be done by Sponsor in order to obtain such permanent Certificate of Occupancy, in which case the sum exceeding the amount so certified by Sponsor's engineer, architect, construction manager or other qualified expert may be released from the special escrow account. Alternatively, Sponsor may place in escrow with Escrow Agent an unconditional irrevocable letter of credit, a surety bond from an institutional lender or recognized bonding company acceptable to the Department of Law, or cash, in each case in an amount that when added to the Deposits being maintained in the special escrow account, will equal not less than the amount so certified. Sponsor may also use as collateral to similarly secure its obligation to obtain a permanent Certificate of Occupancy, the unfunded portion of a construction loan (if any) or other collateral acceptable to the Department of Law and disclosed in an Amendment to this Plan. If Sponsor has placed cash in escrow, such funds will be held by Sponsor's Counsel in escrow in a separate bank account. All interest and income on such escrowed funds will be paid to Sponsor, as and when earned and collected.

As the work progresses, Deposits held for Units conveyed to Purchasers may be released to Sponsor by Sponsor's Counsel or Escrow Agent, as the case may be, from time to time, provided the remaining Deposits maintained in the special escrow account, together with said unfunded construction loan (if any) or other acceptable collateral, shall be not less than the amount then so certified to be reasonably necessary to complete all remaining work in order to obtain a permanent Certificate of Occupancy. Sponsor's Counsel or Escrow Agent, as the case may be, will rely entirely upon such certificate in releasing such funds or other collateral and will not make any independent inquiry or evaluation. Any remaining balance of the escrow funds and/or other collateral will be released to Sponsor upon the issuance of a permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building. If Sponsor has deposited a letter of credit or surety bond, it will be subject to periodic reduction in amount upon the same terms as described above for the reduction and release of a cash deposit.

Following the issuance of a permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building, Sponsor will deliver to the Board a complete set of architectural drawings and a complete set of mechanical, electrical, plumbing and sprinkler "as-built" drawings for the entire Building.

f. Architect's Certification

In accordance with Section 339-p of the New York Condominium Act, a registered architect or licensed professional engineer shall, simultaneously with the recording of the Declaration, certify within reasonable tolerances that the Floor Plans are an accurate copy of portions of the plans of the Building as filed with appropriate governmental authorities.

g. Payment of Common Charges and Real Estate Taxes

Sponsor will pay all Tower Common Charges, real estate taxes and special assessments attributable to the Unsold Tower Units in accordance with the provisions of the Condominium By-Laws and the Tower By-Laws. Sponsor expects to have the financial resources to meet the aforesaid obligations with respect to Unsold Tower Units and fund same from income from projected sales, the rental or leasing of Unsold Tower Units and Sponsor's other financial resources. No bond or other security has been posted by Sponsor to secure its obligation to pay Tower Common Charges, special assessments or real estate taxes with respect to Unsold Tower Units.

h. Insurance

Sponsor will initially cause the Condominium Board and/or the Tower Board to procure, to take effect on or before the date of the First Closing, the insurance relating to the Condominium and the Tower Section, as applicable, which is required to be maintained in accordance with the provisions of the Condominium By-Laws and/or the Tower By-Laws (see the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of the Unit Owners and the Boards of Managers" in Part I of the Plan). Such required coverage(s) may be satisfied by any so-called builder's risk policy obtained in connection with the construction of the Building, provided the limits and terms of coverage set forth in such budget(s) are provided under such policy/ies. To the extent any such policy/ies obtained and paid for by Sponsor shall satisfy the insurance requirements of the Condominium Board or Tower Board in respect of any period following the First Closing, the Condominium Board or Tower Board, as applicable, shall reimburse Sponsor for its prorated share of the cost of such coverage. (See the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of the Unit Owners and the Boards of Managers" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

For the avoidance of doubt, each Unit includes, and each Unit Owner shall be responsible for (maintaining, insuring, repairing, replacing, etc.), all fixtures, equipment and other items of personalty, including, without limitation, front entrance door and any other entrance doors to such Unit, flooring and subflooring, wallcoverings, non-load bearing interior walls and partitions and sheet rock and plaster wall covering, smoke detectors, all plumbing, gas and heating fixtures and equipment such as heating, ventilating and air conditioning units (including the fans inside the units), as may be affixed, attached or appurtenant to such Unit and serving such Unit exclusively. Plumbing, gas and heating fixtures and equipment as used in the preceding sentence shall include exposed gas and water pipes from branch or fixture shut-off valves attached to fixtures, appliances and equipment and the fixtures, appliances and equipment to which they are attached, and any special pipes or equipment which a Unit Owner may install within a wall or ceiling, or under the floor, but shall not include gas, water or other pipes, conduits, wiring or ductwork within the walls, ceilings or floors. Each Unit shall also include (i) all lighting and electrical fixtures, cabinets, including, without limitation kitchen and bathroom cabinetry, countertops, and appliances and appliances within the Unit, and (ii) any equipment, fixtures or facilities (as defined in the Declaration) affixed, attached or appurtenant to the Unit, to the extent located within a Unit and serving or benefiting only that Unit.

i. Right of Access

Sponsor and its contractors, subcontractors, agents and employees will have a right of access to each Unit and to the Common Elements for the purpose of fulfilling Sponsor's obligations under the Plan, performing certain alterations and repairs in or about the Unsold Units and exercising its other rights or performing its other obligations under the Plan. Sponsor will repair any damage caused as a result of such access and will use reasonable efforts to exercise such access in such a manner as will not unreasonably interfere with the use of any Unit for its permitted purposes.

j. Dissolution

In the event of the dissolution or liquidation of Sponsor, or the transfer of ten (10) or more Tower Units or twenty percent (20%) or more of the total number of Tower Units in the Condominium, whichever is less, to a single Purchaser, the principals of Sponsor will provide financially responsible entities or individuals who will assume the status and all of the obligations of Sponsor for those Units under the Plan and applicable Legal Requirements (including, without limitation, Sponsor's representation that will endeavor in good faith to sell the Units offered hereunder but subject to the reservation of the unconditional right to rent or lease, rather than sell, such Units).

k. General

Sponsor's representations, warranties and covenants under this Section of the Plan will survive the delivery of the deeds to the respective Units only for the time periods set forth in this Plan. The obligations of Sponsor to pay Common Charges and to perform its other duties as a Unit Owner with respect to any Unsold Units will survive for as long as Sponsor owns the same.

Sponsor agrees to indemnify the Tower Board and the Tower Unit Owners against, hold them harmless from and defend on their behalf any suits, proceedings, or claims arising out of any default by Sponsor in performing its obligations under this Plan or any breach of any representation expressly made by Sponsor in this Plan and resulting: (a) as to any Tower Unit, from any occurrence taking place prior to the closing of title to such Tower Unit; or (b) as to the Common Elements, from any occurrence taking place prior to the First Closing. However, Sponsor will not be liable for, or obligated to defend, any suits, proceedings or claims arising out of any occurrence taking place from and after the respective dates set forth in this Plan, except those arising out of any negligence or violation of Article 23A of the New York State General Business Law by Sponsor or as explicitly stated in this Plan.

The obligations of Sponsor hereunder shall be enforceable by the Tower Board on behalf of all Tower Unit Owners. Obligations of Sponsor shall be enforceable by individual Tower Unit Owners if either: (i) the Board fails to take reasonable action to enforce such obligations within ninety (90) days following the giving of notice of such claim by any Tower Unit Owner to the Tower Board; or (ii) the applicable statute of limitations with respect to any claim by a Tower Unit Owner which would otherwise be enforceable by the Tower Board will expire during the aforesaid ninety (90) day period.

Sponsor has not furnished any bond or other security for the performance of the obligations of Sponsor under the Plan. Sponsor's ability to perform its obligations under the Plan will depend on its financial condition from time to time. No warranty is made that Sponsor will be financially able to perform all or any of such obligations.

l. Use of Unsold Units

Sponsor and its designee reserve the right to use or occupy or to rent, hire or lease any Unsold Unit to any Purchaser or non-Purchasers at any time, both before and after the First Closing (provided that a permanent or temporary Certificate of Occupancy covering each such Unit has been obtained). Sponsor will endeavor in good faith to sell, but nevertheless, reserves the unconditional right, to rent or lease such Unit to Purchasers and others. As a result, Purchaser may be acquiring a Unit that has been previously occupied, but, unless otherwise specifically agreed to in writing by Sponsor and such Purchaser, such Unit will be delivered at closing free and clear of all leases and tenancies and rights of occupancy. Moreover, once an Option Agreement is signed for a Unit, and for so long as such Option Agreement is in effect, such Unit may be leased only to the Purchaser listed on the Option Agreement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything contained herein, in the Declaration, By-Laws or the Rules and Regulations to the contrary, Sponsor or its designee may, without the permission of the Boards use or grant permission for the use of any Unsold Unit for any purpose, including, but not limited to, the use of any Unsold Units as models and sales and/or promotion offices in connection with the sale or rental of the Units or for any other purpose, subject only to compliance with applicable governmental laws and regulations as to any such use.

m. Alterations of Unsold Units

Sponsor shall have the right, pursuant (and subject) to the terms of the Declaration, and the By-Laws, as the same may be amended from time to time, without the approval of any Board or any other Unit Owner or any Mortgagee, to make any alterations, additions, improvements or repairs in or to any Unsold Units, whether structural or non-structural, interior or exterior, ordinary or extraordinary (including, without limitation, the right to combine two (2) or more Unsold Units, or to add more Units by subdividing Unsold Units or to change the number of rooms in, as well as the size, layout and square foot area of any Unsold Unit). An initial Purchaser of an Unsold Unit shall have the right, without the approval of the Board(s), but subject to the applicable By-Laws provisions regarding the same, to make any alterations, additions, improvements or repairs in or to such Unit, provided that such Purchaser obtains all necessary approvals required by law and that Sponsor has consented to the same in writing at or prior to the closing of title to such Unit, which consent Sponsor may withhold or condition in its sole and absolute discretion. Absent Sponsor's consent thereto, Purchasers shall have rights in respect of alterations as are set forth in Article 8 of the Condominium By-Laws and Article 6 of the Tower By-Laws and described generally below in the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners and the Boards."

n. Successors to Sponsor

Sponsor reserves the right to sell two (2) or more Units and to designate the Purchaser of such block(s) of Units as a "sponsor" under this Plan. The party so designated as a "sponsor" will have those additional rights and obligations (including the obligation to comply with all applicable Legal Requirements) applicable to a "sponsor" as more fully described in the Plan.

o. Reservation of Air and Development Rights

Sponsor has retained and expressly reserves all excess Air Rights otherwise appurtenant to the Property and not used in connection with the original construction of the Building as described in this Plan. As a result, unless Air Rights are separately acquired therefor on behalf of the Condominium or a Unit Owner, as the case may be, any future expansion of the Building by the Condominium Board or of a Unit by any Unit Owner as may otherwise be permitted pursuant to any applicable Legal Requirements, may not be possible or may be limited. Further, as a result of such reservation by Sponsor, Sponsor may transfer or sell such Air Rights to the owner(s) of adjoining properties and in such case such properties may be increased as a result of such transfer or sale.

The Air Rights reserved by Sponsor will not be used to add additional floors to the top of the Building. Except in the case of a sale or transfer for use in connection with other properties, the reserved Air Rights will be used in the Property solely for the purpose of reconfiguring certain areas (e.g., adding mezzanine space, converting mechanical space to space used for other purposes) which, pursuant to the applicable provision of the Zoning Resolution, will require the use of Air Rights in excess of those used in connection with the initial construction of the Building in accordance with the Plan. In the event such excess Air Rights are transferred to the owner(s) of adjoining properties, a Unit Owner's views and exposure to light may be affected.

p. Miscellaneous

Sponsor and its designee(s) shall have the right, until the tenth anniversary of the First Closing, to use, without charge, portions of the Building, including the Common Elements, for exhibitions, events, promotional functions (e.g., with respect to any sales programs for Unsold Units or otherwise).

q. Sponsor's Right to Issue Storage Licenses

Sponsor (or its designee), in its own name or in the name of the Tower Board, shall have the exclusive right to issue initial Storage Licenses for Storage Closets.

O. CONTROL BY SPONSOR

Until the First Annual Meeting of the Tower Unit Owners (the "First Annual Tower Meeting"), the Tower Board shall generally consist of five (5) persons designated by Sponsor from time to time. Until the First Annual Tower Meeting, Sponsor reserves the right to designate fewer than five (5) persons to the Tower Board. Sponsor anticipates designating the following persons as the initial Tower Board members (all of whom are experienced in real estate matters, familiar with the Property, and who are affiliated with Sponsor): Donna Gargano, Katherine Kelman, Ahuva Genack, Joe Montano and Shawn Kirk. Sponsor will amend the Plan prior to the First Closing in the event such five (5) persons shall not constitute the initial Tower Board members. The First Annual Tower Meeting shall be held not later than thirty (30) days following the later to occur of: (a) the second anniversary of the First Closing; or (b) the closing of title to Tower Units representing at least fifty percent (50%) both in number and aggregate Common Interests of all Tower Units to Purchasers; and at such meeting, the incumbent five (5) member Tower Board designated by Sponsor will resign and a new Tower Board, consisting of five (5) members, will be installed, as described below. At meetings of the Tower Unit Owners, Sponsor will have the right to vote all of the Common Interests appurtenant to the Tower Units owned by Sponsor as it sees fit.

At elections of members to the Tower Board held at and after the First Annual Tower Meeting, but before the expiration of the Initial Control Period, Sponsor and/or its designee shall have the right to designate four (4) of the five (5) members of the Tower Board, who may be persons related to and/or affiliated with Sponsor, such designee or other Unsold Tower Unit Owners; and Sponsor, such designee and all other Tower Unit Owners shall have the right to elect the remaining one (1) member of the Tower Board who shall not be related to or affiliated with Sponsor, such designee or other Unsold Tower Unit Owners. From and after the First Annual Tower Meeting, until such time as none of Sponsor, its designee or any other Unsold Tower Unit Owner owns any Tower Units: (i) of the five (5) Tower Board members also serving as the Tower Section's representatives to the Condominium Board, at least one (1) of such members shall at all times be a Tower Board member designated by Sponsor, its designee or any Unsold Tower Unit Owner, and (ii) the Tower Board cannot be expanded to more than five (5) members without the prior written consent of Sponsor.

At elections of members to the Tower Board held after the expiration of the Initial Control Period, but while Sponsor and/or its designee still owns at least one (1) Tower Unit, Sponsor and/or its designee shall have the right to designate at least one (1) of the five (5) members of the Tower Board, who may be a person related to and/or affiliated with Sponsor, such designee or other Unsold Tower Unit Owners; and Sponsor, such designee and all other Tower Unit Owners shall have the right to elect the remaining members of the Tower Board who shall not be related to or affiliated with Sponsor, such designee or other Unsold Tower Unit Owners. Accordingly, from and after the expiration of the Initial Control Period, at least four (4) of the five (5) members of the Tower Board shall not be designated by or related to or affiliated with Sponsor, its designee or other Unsold Tower Unit Owners; and subject to the foregoing shall be elected by all Tower Unit Owners (including Sponsor, its designee or other Unsold Tower Unit Owner). There is no restriction on the right of the Unsold Tower Unit Owners (including Sponsor) to vote for members of the Tower Board who are not related to or affiliated with Sponsor, its designee or other Unsold Tower Unit Owners. However, after the expiration of the Initial Control Period, neither the Sponsor nor its designee will designate all the members to the Tower Board at the annual meeting of Tower Unit Owners. The number of members of the Tower Board may not be increased without the consent of the owner(s) of the Unsold Tower Units, for so long as there remains at least one (1) Unsold Tower Unit.

Moreover, during the Initial Control Period, the Tower Board may not, without the prior written consent of Sponsor: (i) make any addition, alteration or improvement to the Tower Limited Common Elements or any Tower Unit (unless required by any applicable Legal Requirements); (ii) assess any Tower Common Charges for the creation of, addition to or replacement of all or any reserve, contingency or surplus fund in respect of the Tower Section; (iii) increase or decrease the number of, or change the kind of, employees initially hired for the Tower Section, as provided for in Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation" set forth in the Plan; (iv) enter into any service or maintenance contract for work not covered by contracts in existence on the date of the First Closing or otherwise provide services in excess of those referred to in the Offering Plan, except as is required to reflect normal annual increases in operating services; (v) borrow money on behalf of the Tower Section, unless any such borrowing is approved by the owners of Tower Units representing at least seventy-five percent (75%) both in number and aggregate Common Interests of all Tower Units; or (vi) exercise any right of first refusal to lease or purchase a Tower Unit. However, the Tower Board may perform any function or take any action enumerated in subsections (i) through (v) hereinabove without the consent of Sponsor if, and only if, the performance of such function or the carrying out of such action is necessary, and no other alternative is available, either to enable the Tower Board to comply with any Legal Requirements, or to remedy any notice of violation entered against the Tower Section, or to comply with any proper work order by an insurer of the Tower Section, or for the health and safety (but not the general comfort or welfare) of the occupants of the Tower Section.

Sponsor may not exercise veto power over expenses described in Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation", or over expenses required to comply with any Legal Requirements applicable to the Tower Section, or to remedy any notice of violation entered against the Tower Section or to comply with any proper work order by an insurer of the Tower Section. Sponsor may, however, exercise veto power over expenses other than those described in the preceding sentence, to the extent provided in the Plan, for a period ending not more than five (5) years after the First Closing or whenever the Unsold Tower Units constitute less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the Common Interest, whichever is sooner.

The Tower By-Laws do not include a provision that after the expiration of the Initial Control Period a majority of the Tower Board must be Tower Unit Owner-occupants or members of a Tower Unit Owner-occupant's household who are unrelated to Sponsor and its principals. Tower Unit Owner-occupants and non-resident Tower Unit Owners, including Sponsor, may have inherent conflicts on how the Tower Section should be managed because of their different reasons for purchasing, i.e., purchase as a home as opposed to as an investment.

In addition, because Sponsor reserves the unconditional right to rent or lease Units, there is no commitment to sell more Tower Units than the fifteen percent (15%) of such Units necessary to declare the Plan effective and, accordingly, Tower Unit Owners may never gain effective control and management of the Condominium and/or Tower Section, and the First Annual Tower Meeting may never occur.

Prospective Purchasers should be advised that Tower Unit Owners, Tower Unit occupants and non-resident Tower Unit Owners, including Sponsor, may have inherent conflicts on how the Tower Section should be managed because of their different reasons for purchasing, i.e., for use as a home as opposed to as an investment.

Sponsor shall have the right, in its sole and absolute discretion, to cause the Tower Board to waive the collection of some or all of the Tower Common Charges from Tower Unit Owners for a period of time prior to full occupancy of the Building (the "Waiver Period"); provided, however, that Sponsor shall be solely responsible for payment of all remaining expenses to operate the Tower Section during the Waiver Period (the "Operating Expenses"). In connection with the Waiver Period, (i) Sponsor will disclose the implementation of such Waiver Period in the amendment to the Plan disclosing the occurrence of the First Closing; (ii) Sponsor shall file an amendment to the Plan disclosing the expiration of the Waiver Period at least thirty (30) days prior to such expiration; (iii) that during any such Waiver Period, Sponsor will timely pay all expenses of the Condominium, including but not limited to insurance premiums and any reserve fund payments required by lenders to the extent otherwise included in Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation"; (iv) upon the commencement of the collection of Common Charges, there will be not be an assessment for any item set forth in the approved budget for the Condominium; and (v) Sponsor shall remain obligated to update the budget for the Condominium, as provided in the Condominium Documents.

All Operating Expenses paid by Sponsor during the Waiver Period are based on the actual cost of operating the Building and not on estimates set forth in Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation". Purchasers should note that Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation" will not be in effect until the expiration of the Waiver Period. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth above, the Operating Expenses shall not include real estate taxes regardless of whether the Unit has been separately assessed. In all instances the Unit Owners will remain responsible for the payment of the real estate taxes. In addition, each Purchaser shall be responsible for payment of its allocable share of the property insurance premium attributable to its respective Unit during the Waiver Period, which expenses shall be separately assessed to each Purchaser in proportion to their respective Common Interest, as more particularly set forth in Schedule A. Sponsor, in its sole and absolute discretion, may upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to Unit Owners terminate the Waiver Period.

The powers and duties necessary for or incidental to the administration of the affairs of the Condominium will be vested in the Condominium Board. All five (5) of the members of the Tower Board shall also serve as the Tower Section's five (5) designees to the seven (7) member Condominium Board. The Commercial Unit Owners shall have the right to designate the remaining two (2) of the seven (7) members of the Condominium Board. Thus, during the Initial Control Period, Sponsor will also control the Condominium Board. In the event that prior to the First Annual Tower Meeting Sponsor designates fewer than five (5) persons to the Tower Board, such designees shall collectively hold five (5) of the seven (7) votes on the Condominium Board (in addition to the votes of any representatives of the Commercial Unit Owners serving on the Condominium Board who were designated by Sponsor as the owner of a Commercial Unit, as applicable).

Therefore, during this Initial Control Period Sponsor will be able to control the maintenance and operation of, and services to be provided to, the Condominium and the Tower Section; provided, however, that any changes made by Sponsor to Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation" set forth in the Plan must provide for the same level of services disclosed in Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation". Sponsor will also be able to control the determination of the Common Charges to be paid by all Unit Owners.

P. THE TOWER BOARD

1. General

The affairs of the Tower Section shall be governed by the Tower Board, subject to any matters and authority vested in the Condominium Board as described in the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws and the Tower By-Laws.

Until the First Annual Tower Meeting, the Tower Board shall generally consist of five (5) persons designated by Sponsor, at which time the incumbent Tower Board designated by Sponsor will resign and a new Tower Board, consisting of five (5) members, will be elected and/or designated by the Tower Unit Owners and Sponsor, as described below. Until the First Annual Tower Meeting, Sponsor reserves the right to designate fewer than five (5) persons to the Tower Board. Sponsor anticipates designating the following persons as the initial Tower Board members (all of whom are experienced in real estate matters, familiar with the Property, and who are affiliated with Sponsor): Donna Gargano, Katherine Kelman, Ahuva Genack, Joe Montano and Shawn Kirk. Sponsor will amend the Plan prior to the First Closing in the event such five (5) persons shall not constitute the initial Tower Board members. The First Annual Tower Meeting shall be held not later than thirty (30) days following the later to occur of: (a) the second anniversary of the First Closing; or (b) the closing of title to Tower Units representing at least fifty percent (50%) both in number and aggregate Common Interests of all Tower Units to Purchasers; and at such meeting, the incumbent five (5) member Tower Board designated by Sponsor will resign and a new Tower Board, consisting of five (5) members, will be installed, as described below. At meetings of the Tower Unit Owners, Sponsor will have the right to vote all of the Common Interests appurtenant to the Tower Units owned by Sponsor as it sees fit.

At elections of members to the Tower Board held at and after the First Annual Tower Meeting, but before the expiration of the Initial Control Period, Sponsor and/or its designee shall have the right to designate four (4) of the five (5) members of the Tower Board, who may be persons related to and/or affiliated with Sponsor, such designee or other Unsold Tower Unit Owners; and Sponsor, such designee and all other Tower Unit Owners shall have the right to elect the remaining one (1) member of the Tower Board who shall not be related to or affiliated with Sponsor, such designee or other Unsold Tower Unit Owners. Following the Initial Control Period but while Sponsor owns at least one (1) Tower Unit, Sponsor shall be entitled to designate at least one (1) Tower Board Member. (See the subsection entitled "Meetings and Votes of Tower Unit Owners" in this Section below and the Section entitled "Control by Sponsor" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

The term of office of each of the five (5) members comprising the Tower Board elected or designated at the First Annual Tower Meeting shall be fixed at such meeting as follows: (a) two (2) of such members will serve for a term of approximately three (3) years; (b) two (2) of such members will serve for a term of approximately two (2) years; and (c) one (1) of such members will serve for a term of approximately one (1) year. Those members of the first five (5) member Tower Board who receive the highest number of votes will serve for the longest terms of office, but except as set forth in the Tower By-Laws, any members designated by Sponsor or its designee as the owner of Unsold Tower Units shall serve for the shortest terms of office. At each annual meeting of Tower Unit Owners subsequent to the first such meeting, the Tower Unit Owners shall elect (and/or Sponsor shall designate, as the case may be) Tower Board members to replace the Tower Board members whose terms of office are then expiring, each to serve a term of office fixed at three (3) years. Notwithstanding the expiration of the term of office of a member of the Tower Board or anything contained herein to the contrary, such member of the Tower Board (including any member designated by Sponsor) shall serve until his or her successor shall be elected (or designated) and qualified. Subject to the requirements described in the Section of the Plan entitled "Control by Sponsor", there shall be no limit on the number of terms of office, successive or otherwise, that a Tower Board member (including any member of the Tower Board designated by Sponsor) may serve.

Except for Tower Board members designated by Sponsor or its designee, all members of the Tower Board shall be: (i) individual Tower Unit Owners or Permitted Mortgagees of Tower Units; (ii) partners or employees of a partnership owning, or holding a mortgage encumbering, a Tower Unit; (iii) officers, directors, stockholders or employees of corporate owners or corporate Permitted Mortgagees of Tower Units; (iv) members or employees of a limited liability company owning, or holding a Permitted Mortgage encumbering, a Tower Unit; (v) fiduciaries or their beneficiaries who are owners or Permitted Mortgagees of Tower Units (or officers, directors or stockholders of corporate fiduciaries or partners or employees of partnership fiduciaries); (vi) adult family members or spouses of any of the foregoing individuals; or (vii) individuals designated by a sovereign government, consulate or other similar entity that is a Tower Unit Owner or a mortgagee of a Tower Unit. Other than Tower Board members designated by Sponsor or its designee, no Tower Board member shall continue to serve after he or she ceases to be qualified as set forth above.

Prospective Purchasers are advised that Tower Unit Owners, Tower Unit occupants and non-resident Tower Unit Owners, including Sponsor, may have inherent conflicts on how the Tower Section should be managed because of their different reasons for purchasing, i.e., for use as a home as opposed to as an investment.

In no event shall any Tower Unit Owner (or its proxy) or another interested party be eligible for election to the Tower Board, and any such Unit Owner (or its proxy) or other party may be removed as a Tower Board member by a majority vote of the other Tower Board members, if such Tower Unit Owner is then in arrears, beyond any applicable grace period, in the payment of Tower Common Charges or any other amounts required by the Tower Board. In addition, no member of the Tower Board (or his or her proxy) may continue to participate as a member thereof after the Tower Board has perfected a lien against its Unit, for so long as such lien remains unsatisfied.

Members of the Tower Board shall serve without compensation. All Tower Board members and employees of the Tower Section will be covered by crime insurance or fidelity bonds (or similar insurance or bonds) at all times from and after the First Closing in favor of the Tower Section. The cost of same has been provided for in the estimate of the Tower Common Charges contained in Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation" herein.

2. Powers and Duties of and Determinations by the Tower Board

Subject to any matters and authority vested in the Condominium Board as described in the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws and the Tower By-Laws, the Tower Board shall have the powers and duties necessary for or incidental to the administration of the affairs of the Tower Section. As more fully set forth (and except as may otherwise be provided) in the Tower By-Laws, all determinations required to be made by the Tower Board shall be by majority of the votes cast at any meeting at which a quorum is present.

The Tower Board shall make reports to the Tower Unit Owners on a regular basis, but at least annually, regarding the actions taken and matters coming before the Tower Board.

3. Meetings and Votes of Tower Unit Owners

After the First Annual Tower Meeting as described above, annual meetings of Tower Unit Owners will be held within approximately four (4) weeks of the anniversary of the First Annual Tower Meeting, on a date to be set by the Tower Board. At each such meeting, the Tower Unit Owners shall elect (or designate, as applicable) members to replace those members, if any, of the Tower Board whose terms have expired. In addition, special meetings may be held from time to time pursuant to the Tower By-Laws. At all meetings of Tower Unit Owners, the presence in person or by proxy of more than thirty percent (30%) of the Common Interests attributable to all Tower Units shall constitute a quorum and, except as otherwise provided in the Tower By-Laws or Declaration, a majority of votes cast at any such meeting at which a quorum is present or is not required shall be binding on all Tower Unit Owners.

Each Tower Unit Owner, upon obtaining title, will in accordance with Section 339-e of the Real Property Law, automatically have the right to vote at all meetings of the Tower Unit Owners, based upon the Common Interest appurtenant to each of the Tower Unit(s) owned by such Unit Owner, and at all such meetings, each such Unit Owner (or his or her proxy) entitled to vote thereat (including Sponsor or its designee with respect to Unsold Tower Units) shall be entitled to cast one vote for each .0001% of interest in the Common Elements (proportionate among the Common Interest attributable to all Tower Units) appurtenant to his or her Tower Unit(s).

4. Officers

The principal officers of the Tower Board will be the President, Vice-President and Secretary/Treasurer, all of whom shall be elected by the Board. The Board may also appoint additional officers as the Tower Board in its judgment may deem advisable.

The officers of the Tower Board are required to be Tower Unit Owners or have any interest therein and be members of the Tower Board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any officer elected by Sponsor by virtue of its control of the Tower Board does not need to be a Tower Unit Owner or have any interest therein or be a member of the Tower Board; except that, from and after the first organizational meeting of the Tower Board after the First Annual Tower Meeting, the President of the Tower Board must be a member of the Tower Board.

Upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Tower Board, present in person or by proxy at a regular meeting of such Board, or at a special meeting of such Tower Board called for such purpose, at which a quorum is present or is otherwise not required, any officer may be removed, either with or without cause, and his or her successor shall be elected.

5. Designation of Members to the Condominium Board

All five (5) of the members of the Tower Board shall also serve as the Tower Board's representatives on the Condominium Board. Until the First Annual Tower Meeting, such five (5) members shall be the five (5) Tower Board members designated by Sponsor. During this time, Sponsor reserves the right to designate fewer than five (5) persons to the Tower Board; however, in such case, such designees shall collectively hold five (5) of the seven (7) votes on the Condominium Board (in addition to the votes of any representatives of the Commercial Unit Owners serving on the Condominium Board who were designated by Sponsor as the owner of a Commercial Unit, as applicable). From and after the First Annual Tower Meeting, until such time as none of Sponsor, its designee or any other Unsold Tower Unit Owner owns any Tower Units: (i) of the five (5) Tower Board members also serving as the Tower Section's representatives to the Condominium Board, at least one (1) of such members shall at all times be a Tower Board member designated by Sponsor, its designee or any Unsold Tower Unit Owner, and (ii) the Tower Board cannot be expanded to more than five (5) members without the prior written consent of Sponsor.

Q. THE CONDOMINIUM BOARD

1. General

While the exclusive affairs of the Tower Section will be governed by the Tower Board (as described more fully above and in the Tower By-Laws and Condominium By-Laws), such governance is subject and subordinate to the governance of the Condominium overall which is vested in the board of managers of the Condominium (the "Condominium Board").

The Condominium Board shall generally consist of seven (7) members: (i) five (5) members designated by or on behalf of the Tower Board (see the subsection entitled "Designation of Members to the Condominium Board" in the Section entitled "The Tower Board" in Part I of the Plan); one (1) member designated by the Rental Unit Owner; and one (1) member designated by the Commercial Unit Owners other than the Rental Unit Owner pursuant to the Condominium By-Laws. Moreover, it is initially intended that Sponsor may own one (1) or more Commercial Units and may, in such capacity, have the right to designate additional members to the Condominium Board in addition to the rights reserved to Sponsor with respect to the election and/or designation of members of the Tower Board.

The initial Condominium Board will be comprised of the following five (5) members designated by Sponsor as the initial Tower Board members, and the members designated by the Commercial Unit Owners (which may be designees of Sponsor if Sponsor is permitted to designate such members pursuant to the Condominium By-Laws), the names of which members will be included in the First Closing amendment to the Offering Plan if such members have not been previously identified at that time. Until the First Annual Tower Meeting, Sponsor reserves the right to designate fewer than five (5) persons to the Tower Board; however, in such case, Sponsor's designees shall collectively hold five (5) of the seven (7) votes on the Condominium Board (in addition to the votes of any representatives of the Commercial Unit Owners serving on the Condominium Board who were designated by Sponsor as the owner of a Commercial Unit, as applicable).

The term of office of each of the seven (7) members of the Condominium Board will expire annually and, in general, the replacement of such member, which may be the same person, will be made by the Board or Unit Owner which designated such member. Notwithstanding the expiration of the term of office of a member of the Condominium Board, such member shall serve until a successor has been elected and qualified.

Members of the Condominium Board shall serve without compensation. All officers, Condominium Board members and employees of the Condominium will be covered by crime insurance or fidelity bonds (or similar insurance or bonds) at all times in favor of the Condominium in amounts deemed appropriate by the Condominium Board. The cost of same has been provided for in the estimate of the Common Charges allocated to all Unit Owners contained in Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation".

With respect to the Condominium Board members: (i) the qualifications set forth in the Tower By-Laws (and described in the Section entitled "The Tower Board" in Part I of the Plan) for members of the Tower Board shall apply to the Condominium Board members (other than those designated by Sponsor) representing the Tower Section; and (ii) no restrictions shall apply as to which persons the Commercial Unit Owner may designate from time to time to the Condominium Board except that each Condominium Board member (and any proxy) must be a natural person and not an entity.

In no event shall any Unit Owner (or its proxy) be eligible for election to the Condominium Board if such Unit Owner is then in default, beyond any applicable grace period, in the payment of Common Charges or any other amounts required by the Condominium Board to be paid. In addition, no member of the Condominium Board (or his or her proxy) may continue to participate as a member thereof after the Condominium Board has perfected a lien against its Unit, for so long as such lien remains unsatisfied.

Prospective Purchasers are advised that Tower Unit Owners, Tower Unit occupants and non-resident Tower Unit Owners, including Sponsor and the Commercial Unit Owners may have inherent conflicts on how the Condominium should be managed because of their different reasons for purchasing, i.e., for use as a home vs. investment vs. for business/commercial purposes.

The Tower Section and the Commercial Units will be represented on the Condominium Board, with the Tower Section having the right to appoint five (5) of the seven (7) members of the Condominium Board, and certain of the Commercial Unit Owners having the right to designate the remaining two (2) of the seven (7) members of the Condominium Board as previously described. As a result, the members of the Condominium Board representing the Commercial Units will never control a majority vote thereon, and the Tower Section (which will initially and may thereafter be controlled by Sponsor or affiliates of Sponsor) will control a majority of the votes on the Condominium Board. Moreover, it is initially intended that Sponsor may own one (1) or more Commercial Units and may, in such capacity, have the right to designate additional members to the Condominium Board in addition to the rights reserved to Sponsor with respect to the election and/or designation of members of the Tower Board.

2. Powers and Duties of and Determinations by the Condominium Board

The Condominium Board shall have the powers and duties necessary for or incidental to the administration of the affairs of the Condominium. Subject to such authority of the Condominium Board, generally, but subject to the Declaration and Condominium By-Laws provisions governing the same, all determinations, which do not (to more than an immaterial extent) relate to or affect or involve the Condominium generally or the General Common Elements, and do not affect (to more than an immaterial extent) any portion of the Building other than the Tower Section, shall be made by the Tower Board. Any dispute between or among one or more of the Tower Board and the Condominium Board as to which Board shall be entitled to make a particular determination shall be settled by arbitration in the manner provided in the Condominium By-Laws. As more fully set forth (and except as may otherwise be provided) in the Condominium By-Laws, all determinations required to be made by the Condominium Board shall be by majority of the votes cast at any meeting at which a quorum is present.

For convenience of operation of the Condominium, the Tower Board may (with the Condominium Board's consent) designate the Condominium Board to act as its agent with respect to any matters the determination of which is entitled to be made by the Tower Board.

3. Meetings and Votes of Unit Owners

No joint annual meetings of the Tower Unit Owners and all other Unit Owners will be held unless required by law, in which event such joint annual meeting will be held on the date specified by the Condominium Board. Special meetings may be called from time to time pursuant to the Condominium By-Laws. At all such joint meetings of Unit Owners, if any, the presence in person or by proxy of Unit Owners representing not less than thirty percent (30%) (in Common Interest) of all Unit Owners shall constitute a quorum; provided that the members of the Condominium Board designated by the Commercial Unit Owners shall have the absolute right (except in the case of an Emergency (as defined in the Condominium By-Laws)) to require an adjournment of any such Unit Owners Meeting (notwithstanding the presence of a quorum) for a period not longer than thirty (30) days; and, except as otherwise provided in the Condominium By-Laws or Declaration, a majority of votes cast at any such meeting at which a quorum is present or is not required shall be binding on all Unit Owners.

Each Unit Owner, upon obtaining title, will in accordance with Section 339-e of the Real Property Law, automatically have the right to vote at all joint meetings of the Unit Owners, if any, based upon the Common Interest appurtenant to each of the Unit or Units owned by such Unit Owner, and at all such meetings, each Unit Owner (or his or her proxy) entitled to vote thereat (including Sponsor or its designee with respect to Unsold Units) shall be entitled to cast one (1) vote for each .0001% of interest in the Common Elements attributable to its, his or her Unit(s).

4. Officers

The principal officers of the Condominium will be the President, Vice President, a Secretary and a Treasurer, all of whom shall be elected by the Condominium Board. The Condominium Board may also appoint additional officers as the Condominium Board in its judgment may deem advisable.

The officers of the Condominium Board are required to be Unit Owners or have any interest therein and be members of the Condominium Board or the Tower Board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any officer elected by Sponsor by virtue of its control of the Condominium Board does not need to be a Unit Owner or have any interest therein or be a member of the Condominium Board or Tower Board.

Except as otherwise determined by the Condominium Board, no officer shall receive any compensation for acting as such. Upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Condominium Board, any officer of the Condominium Board may be removed, either with or without cause, and his or her successor shall be elected, at any regular meeting of the Condominium Board or at any special meeting of the Condominium Board called for such purpose.

5. Liability of Condominium Board and Unit Owners

To the extent permitted by applicable law, Condominium Board members shall have no liability to the Unit Owners, except that a Condominium Board member shall be liable for his or her own bad faith, gross negligence or willful misconduct. The Condominium Board may contract or effect any other transaction with any Condominium Board member, any member of the Tower Board, any Unit Owner, Sponsor or its designee, or any affiliate of any of them without incurring any liability for self-dealing, except in cases of bad faith, gross negligence or willful misconduct. All Unit Owners shall severally, to the extent of their respective interests in their Units and their appurtenant Common Interests, indemnify each Condominium Board member against any liability or claim except those arising out of the bad faith, gross negligence or willful misconduct of such member.

R. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE UNIT OWNERS AND THE BOARDS OF MANAGERS

1. Sales and Leases of Tower Units

Each Tower Unit Owner may sell his or her Tower Unit, or lease his or her Tower Unit for a minimum term of one (1) year, in each case, provided, in each case, such Tower Unit Owner first gives the Tower Board notice of intention to sell or lease such Tower Unit, accompanied by a fully executed copy of the contract of sale or lease, as the case may be. The Tower Board shall then have the right to purchase or lease the Tower Unit at the same price or rental and on the same terms as were offered in good faith by a prospective Purchaser or lessee, as more specifically set forth in Article 8 of the Tower By-Laws. If the Tower Board does not elect to purchase or lease the Tower Unit within twenty (20) days after receipt of the notice, or waives such election in writing, the Tower Unit Owner will have sixty (60) days thereafter to consummate the transaction set forth in the contract of sale or lease with the prospective Purchaser or lessee, as the case may be, as more particularly set forth in Section 8.1 of the Tower By-Laws. In the event that such sale or lease is not consummated, or if such contract or lease is renegotiated or modified in any way (whether orally, in writing or by a side agreement) to be on terms less favorable to the Tower Unit Owner, the Tower Unit Owner will be required again to offer the same first to the Tower Board. The Tower Board may not exercise its option to purchase or lease any Tower Unit without prior approval of a majority in interest of Tower Unit Owners present in person or by proxy and voting at a meeting at which a quorum is present. Any such lease shall be in the form and substance then approved by the Tower Board (as the same may be changed from time to time), including provisions such as a prohibition on assignment or subletting. The Tower Board shall have the right to release or waive such option without the prior approval or a vote of the Tower Unit Owners.

In connection with the foregoing, the Tower Board may not discriminate against any person on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, age, disability, marital status or other grounds prohibited by law.

If a Tower Unit Owner is a corporation, any sale, assignment, transfer or other disposition of any of its stock, or if a Tower Unit Owner is a partnership, limited liability company or other entity, any sale, assignment, transfer or other disposition of any interest in such partnership, company or other entity, in each case other than through any recognized national securities exchange or "over-the-counter" market, which results in a change in the majority beneficial or legal ownership of such entity, shall also subject the Tower Unit owned by such entity to the requirement that the Tower Unit first be offered to the Tower Board for purchase or lease, as described above.

Further, in the event that title to a Tower Unit is taken by a corporation, partnership, limited liability company or other entity, the name of a principal of said entity shall be identified to Sponsor.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, without complying with the foregoing restrictions, a Tower Unit Owner may sell, lease or convey his or her Tower Unit, and the owner of any interest in a Tower Unit Owner which is a corporation, partnership, limited liability company or other entity, may sell, lease or convey such interest, to an affiliate or one (1) or more family members, as hereinafter defined, or convey a Unit or interest in a Tower Unit Owner, as the case may be, by gift, or devise it by will, or have it pass by intestacy. (An "affiliate" is defined for purposes hereof as a person or entity that owns fifty percent (50%) or more of the legal and beneficial interest of such Tower Unit Owner or owner of an interest in a Tower Unit Owner, as the case may be, or an entity with respect to which such Tower Unit Owner or owner of an interest in a Tower Unit Owner owns fifty percent (50%) or more of the legal and beneficial interest, and "family member" is defined for purposes hereof as a spouse, domestic partner, adult child, parent or adult sibling, or a trust for the benefit of any one or more of the foregoing and/or one or more minor children of any of the foregoing.) Article 8 of the Tower By-Laws more specifically describes the right of first refusal and those situations in which a Tower Unit Owner may sell or convey his or her Tower Unit to a related or controlled individual or entity.

The restrictions upon the sale or lease of Tower Units shall not apply to Sponsor or its designee with respect to any Unsold Tower Units, to the Tower Board or to any Tower Units acquired by a mortgagee in foreclosure or by deed in lieu of foreclosure; such Tower Units may be sold to anyone without first being offered for sale to the Tower Board.

Each conveyance of a Tower Unit by the Owner thereof shall include as part of the property to be conveyed, such Tower Unit Owner's: (i) undivided interest in the Common Elements; (ii) undivided interest in any Tower Unit or Tower Units acquired by the Tower Board from Unit Owners (or the proceeds received at a foreclosure or other judicial sale of a Tower Unit); and (iii) undivided interest in any other assets of the Tower Board or assets of the Condominium (including, without limitation, in the Resident Manager's Unit). No part of a Tower Unit Owner's interest in the Common Elements may be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of, except as part of a sale, transfer or other disposition of the Tower Unit to which such interest appertains or as part of a sale, transfer or other disposition of the specific interest in the Tower Limited Common Elements or the General Common Elements by all affected Tower Unit Owners.

A Tower Unit may not be conveyed unless all unpaid Tower Common Charges and liens against such Tower Unit (other than Permitted Mortgages) are paid and satisfied at or prior to closing. The Tower Board may establish reasonable fees for the processing of such offers for sale or lease, which shall be payable by the selling or leasing Tower Unit Owner to the Residential Managing Agent. In addition, the Tower Board shall have the right to impose a fee in connection with any waiver of its right of first refusal pursuant to Section 8.1 of the Tower By-Laws, either with respect to a sale or a lease of a Tower Unit; provided, however, that no fee shall be assessed in connection with: (i) a renewal of a lease of a Tower Unit, as to which lease the Tower Board previously waived its right of first refusal in accordance with the Tower By-Laws; and (ii) sales or leases of Unsold Tower Units by Sponsor. Neither the sale of the Rental Unit, nor the lease of any Rental Apartment, shall be subject to a right of first refusal held by or other approval of the Tower Board.

2. Assignment of Storage Licenses

To help protect the security of the Building, the holder of a Storage License (other than Sponsor) must at all times be a Unit Owner; provided, however, that the foregoing restriction shall not apply: (i) to Sponsor or its designee; or (ii) to the Tower Board or its designees. If the Tower Board terminates a Storage License or a Unit Owner surrenders a Storage License without assigning such license to another Unit Owner, the Tower Board shall have the right to issue a new Storage License for the corresponding Storage Closet upon terms and conditions determined in its sole discretion. If at any time the licensee of a Storage Closet sells its Tower Unit, it shall simultaneously assign its license of the Storage Closet to the purchaser of such Tower Unit or to another owner of a Tower Unit, failing which, the Tower Board shall have the right to terminate the license of the Storage Closet and take possession of the same, without compensation to the licensee.

Upon the issuance of a Storage License to a Unit Owner, such Unit Owner may freely assign such license without the consent of the Tower Board provided such assignee is also a Unit Owner; and provided further that the Tower Board is provided written notice of such assignment. Neither Sponsor nor the Tower Board shall have any liability or obligation with respect to a private assignment of a Storage License.

3. Use of Tower Units and Storage Closets

A Tower Unit may be used only as a residence and, subject to compliance with the Condominium By-Laws and Tower By-Laws, for a lawful home occupation. Each such Tower Unit may only be occupied by: (i) any individual who is a Tower Unit Owner or permitted lessee; (ii) any officer, director, shareholder or employee of any corporation which is a Tower Unit Owner or permitted lessee; (iii) any partner or employee of any partnership which is a Tower Unit Owner or permitted lessee; (iv) any member or employee of any limited liability company which is a Tower Unit Owner or permitted lessee; (v) the fiduciary or beneficiary or employee of any fiduciary which is a Tower Unit Owner or permitted lessee; (vi) any principal or employee of any other entity (including, but not limited to, embassies and consulates of foreign governments) which is a Tower Unit Owner or permitted lessee; provided that in each instance in clauses (i) through (vi) above: (A) the individual, designated officer, director, shareholder, partner, member, fiduciary, beneficiary, principal or employee is designated as the primary occupant of the Tower Unit and is not being designated to use the Tower Unit on a transient basis or as other than the primary occupant; and (B) such use is not, in fact or in effect, part of or in furtherance of an Occupancy Plan; and (vii) family members, domestic partners, domestic employees and/or non-paying guests of any of the foregoing. Subject to the foregoing, Tower Units may only be leased in accordance with the Tower By-Laws and the Tower Rules and Regulations. An "Occupancy Plan" means a program, plan, agreement or other arrangement for the use, occupancy, marketing, advertising or promotion of one (1) or more Tower Units under short-term, timeshare, fractional or shared ownership, interval exchange (whether the program is based on direct exchange of occupancy rights, cash payments, reward programs or other point or accrual systems) or other membership plans or arrangements through which a participant in the plan or arrangement acquires a direct or indirect ownership interest in the Tower Unit(s) in question with attendant rights of periodic use and occupancy or acquires contract rights to such periodic use and occupancy of such Tower Unit(s) or a portfolio of accommodations including such Tower Unit(s).

There is no limit on the number of Tower Unit Owners who may purchase a Tower Unit for investment, rather than for personal occupancy, purposes. As such, there may always be a substantial percentage of Tower Unit Owners who are non-residents of the Condominium.

The Storage Closets may only be used for storage purposes and in no event may be used as a dwelling space or for the storage of toxic or inflammable items or Combustibles (as such term is defined in the New York City Building Code). No materials which pose a health or safety threat or which otherwise create a nuisance may be stored in the Storage Closets. To do so may result in a violation placed against the Building by the Department of Buildings that will be the obligation of the licensee to remove. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor or its designee shall have the right to use without charge any Unlicensed Storage Closets for any lawful purpose or to change the permitted use of any Unlicensed Storage, subject, however, to the provisions of Article 6 of the Tower By-Laws which provide, among other things, that no use shall be allowed in the Condominium which interferes with the peaceful possession and proper use of the Condominium by its occupants.

Each licensee shall be liable for all damage arising out of such licensee's use or misuse of its Storage Closet. Neither the Sponsor, nor its respective agents or employees shall be liable for any theft or damage to any property stored in the Storage Closets. Each licensee shall indemnify and hold Sponsor and its respective directors, officers, partners, parent and subsidiary and affiliated companies, agents and employees, harmless from and against any and all liabilities, claims, causes of action, damages, lawsuits, penalties, judgments, and liens, together with any related costs and expenses, including but not limited to reasonable legal fees, asserted against or sustained by any of them in connection with any act, omission, or negligence of a licensee or a licensee's family, servants, employees, agents, guests and invitees in connection with the purchase of a Storage License.

Holders of Storage Licenses, excluding Sponsor with respect to Unlicensed Storage Closets, will be required to pay a monthly license maintenance fee to the Tower Board in an amount equal to $1 per month per square foot of such Storage Closet, which amount shall, following the First Closing, be subject to biannual increases based upon the CPI Increase Factor in effect on the date of the First Closing. Further, the license fees are otherwise also subject to change from time to time as the Tower Board deems necessary or appropriate.

The form of Storage License to be used for licensing the use of such Storage Closets to individual Tower Unit Owners is set forth as Exhibit 11 in Part II of the Plan.

4. General Provisions with Respect to Use

No portion of a Tower Unit, other than the entire Tower Unit, may be leased. No nuisance or offensive or unlawful use shall be allowed in the Tower Section or any portion thereof. All Legal Requirements relating to any portion of the Property, shall be complied with at the sole expense of whichever Unit Owners or Board shall, pursuant to the Declaration or By-Laws, have the obligation to maintain or repair such portion of the Property.

The Tower Rules and Regulations concerning the use of the Tower Units may be amended from time to time by the Tower Board, provided that copies thereof are furnished to each Tower Unit Owner prior to the time that they become effective. Further provisions with respect to the use of the Tower Units are set forth in the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws, the Tower By-Laws, the General Rules and Regulations and the Tower Rules and Regulations. However, no amendment of the Tower Rules and Regulations will apply to Sponsor or the Unsold Tower Units, unless agreed to by all the owners of same who are affected by such amendment.

5. Mortgage of Tower Units by Tower Unit Owners

Each Tower Unit Owner may mortgage his or her Tower Unit, in accordance with the provisions of Article 7 of the Tower By-Laws, which requires that the Tower Board be notified in writing of the making of such mortgage and receive a conformed copy of the note and mortgage and that the Tower Unit Owner first satisfy all unpaid liens against the Tower Unit, other than Permitted Mortgages. Each Commercial Unit Owner shall have the right to mortgage or otherwise encumber its Commercial Unit in accordance with the terms of the Condominium By-Laws.

6. Common Charges: Determination and Assessment

As described in the Condominium By-Laws, the Condominium Board shall from time to time, but at least annually, prepare a budget setting forth its projections of General Common Expenses and will assess against the Tower Board, in the manner described in the Condominium By-Laws, the General Common Charges necessary to meet the Tower Section's allocated share of General Common Expenses. As described in the Tower By-Laws, the Tower Board shall from time to time, but at least annually, prepare or cause to be prepared a budget setting forth its projections of the Tower Common Expenses for the next fiscal year of the Tower Section, including, the Tower Section's allocated share of the General Common Charges, and will allocate and assess to each Tower Unit Owner in proportion to such Tower Unit's percentage Common Interest compared to the total for all Tower Unit Owners, Tower Common Charges to meet the Tower Common Expenses. (Under the Condominium By-Laws, the Tower Common Charges collected by the Tower Board shall, in all instances, first be payable by the Tower Board to the Condominium Board in payment of the Tower Section's allocated share of General Common Charges and before application for any other purpose. If such priority of payment fails to occur, the Condominium Board shall have the right, without limitation, and in addition to all other remedies available at law, to avail itself of the remedy of specific performance with respect to the obligations of the Tower Board.) Generally, any Common Expenses incurred and related exclusively to the Tower Limited Common Elements will be allocated and assessed to the Tower Unit Owners. The respective Common Interests of the Units, as estimated by Sponsor, have been allocated to each Unit based upon floor space subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Unit, the availability of Common Elements for exclusive or shared use and the overall dimensions of the particular Unit, in accordance with Section 339-i(1)(iv) of the New York State Real Property Law.

The Tower Board will furnish copies of the Condominium budget to all Tower Unit Owners and advise each Tower Unit Owner of the amount of Tower Common Charges payable.

Unless otherwise determined by the Tower Board, Tower Common Charges will be payable in monthly installments, in advance, on the first day of each month.

7. Collection and Lien for Non-Payment of Common Charges

Tower Unit Owners may not exempt themselves from liability for Tower Common Charges by waiving use of any of the Common Elements or by abandoning their Units. No Tower Unit Owner, however, will be liable for the payment of any part of the Tower Common Charges assessed against his or her Unit subsequent to a permissible sale, transfer or other conveyance by him or her of such Unit. In addition, as more specifically set forth in Section 6.2 of the Tower By-Laws, a Tower Unit Owner, by conveying his or her Unit (without consideration) to the Tower Board and provided that such Unit is free and clear of liens and encumbrances other than the statutory lien for unpaid Tower Common Charges (provided no amounts are owing under any such lien) and that no violation of the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws, the Tower By-Laws, the General Rules and Regulations or the Tower Rules and Regulations then exists with respect to such Unit, may be exempt from Tower Common Charges thereafter accruing.

On a resale of any Tower Unit, the Purchaser will be liable for the payment of any unpaid Tower Common Charges against such Unit; except that, to the extent then permitted by law, a Permitted Mortgagee acquiring a Tower Unit at a foreclosure sale will not be liable for a lien for the payment of Tower Common Charges assessed against such Unit for the period following the recording of the Permitted Mortgage and prior to such Unit's acquisition by the Permitted Mortgagee (which provision may change in the event of statutory modification). In the event of a foreclosure by the Tower Board of its lien on any Unit for unpaid Tower Common Charges, or otherwise, if the net proceeds of the foreclosure sale are insufficient for the payment of such unpaid charges, or if a Unit is acquired by a mortgagee or Purchaser in foreclosure, the previous Unit Owner can be sued for the unpaid balance. The Tower Board will also have the right to assess such unpaid balance as a Common Charge among all Tower Unit Owners.

Pursuant to Section 339-z of the Real Property Law and under the provisions of the Tower By-Laws, the Tower Board, on behalf of all Tower Unit Owners will have a lien on each Tower Unit for unpaid Tower Common Charges together with interest thereon, assessed against such Unit. All such liens, however, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, will be subordinate to the lien of any first Permitted Mortgage of record and to liens for real estate taxes on the particular Unit. Pursuant to Section 339-aa of the Real Property Law, any lien for unpaid Tower Common Charges against a Tower Unit will be effective from and after filing of a verified notice thereof in the City Register's Office and until all sums secured thereby with interest accrued thereon shall have been fully paid, or until six (6) years from the date of filing (unless foreclosure of such lien is started within such six (6)-year period), whichever shall occur sooner. Such liens may be foreclosed by a suit brought in the name of the Tower Board (acting on behalf of all Tower Unit Owners) in the same manner as the foreclosure of a mortgage on real property, or an action may be brought by the Tower Board to recover unpaid Tower Common Charges without foreclosing such lien. In addition, the Tower Board may assess Tower Unit Owners a late charge of $250 per month if any such amount remains unpaid for more than ten (10) days from their due date (although nothing herein shall be deemed to extend the period within which such amounts are to be paid), which amount shall be subject to increase by the Tower Board, and interest at the rate of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month on such unpaid amounts (plus any "late charges" theretofore collected), plus all expenses of collection. Sponsor obligates itself to cause any members of the Tower Board related to or affiliated with Sponsor to vote in favor of filing a lien against any Unsold Tower Units owned by Sponsor with respect to which payments of Tower Common Charges have not been made within thirty (30) days after the date when due.

As provided in the Tower By-Laws, the Tower Board shall take prompt action to collect any Tower Common Charges which remain unpaid for more than thirty (30) days after the due date for payment thereof, including, without limitation, the institution of such actions and the recovery of interest and expenses. In the event the Tower Board fails to take such action against a Unit Owner, then the Condominium Board may do so, in its own name or, if necessary, in the name of the Tower Board.

8. Obligations to Condominium Board for General Common Charges and Special Assessments

As described in the Condominium By-Laws and in Article 6 of the Tower By-Laws, under the Condominium By-Laws, and to the extent permitted by law, the Tower Common Charges collected by the Tower Board shall, in all instances, first be payable to the Condominium Board in payment of the Tower Section's allocated share of General Common Charges, and before application for any other purpose. If such priority of payment fails to occur, the Condominium Board shall have the right, without limitation, and in addition to all other remedies available at law, to avail itself of the remedy of specific performance with respect to the obligations of the Tower Board.

In addition, in the event the Condominium Board levies a special assessment, a portion of which is allocated to the Tower Section, the Tower Board may levy a special assessment to meet the Tower Section's allocated share of any such special assessment levied by the Condominium Board.

9. Borrowing by the Condominium Board

Subject to the terms of the Condominium By-Laws, the Condominium Board shall have the power to borrow money on behalf of the Condominium when required in connection with the operation, care, upkeep and maintenance of, or the making of Repairs or Alterations (each as defined in the Condominium By-Laws) of, the General Common Elements or otherwise in connection with any permitted action or activity of the Condominium Board, provided, however, that: (i) a sixty-six and two-thirds (66-2/3%) vote of the members of the Condominium Board shall be required for any borrowings for such purposes if such borrowings are in excess of $3,000,000 (subject to increase by the CPI Increase Factor) in total in any one fiscal year; and (ii) no lien to secure repayment of any sum borrowed may be created on any Unit or its appurtenant Common Interest without the prior written consent of the owner of such Unit, or on the General Common Elements without the consent of all Unit Owners; and the power and right of the Tower Board to borrow money pursuant to the provisions of the Tower By-Laws is not limited or impaired by the foregoing.

10. Borrowing by the Tower Board

The Tower Board may, at any time, borrow money on behalf of the Tower Section when required in connection with: (i) the operation, care, upkeep and maintenance of, or the making of repairs, restorations and replacements of, and alterations, additions, or improvements to the Tower Limited Common Elements, or (ii) any permitted action or activity of the Tower Board; provided, however, that: (A) except as otherwise provided in the Tower By-Laws, the consent of at least sixty-six and two-thirds (66-2/3%) in Common Interest of all Tower Unit Owners shall be required for any borrowings for such purposes with respect to the Tower Limited Common Elements, if such borrowings are in excess of $3,000,000 (subject to increase by the CPI Increase Factor) in total any one (1) fiscal year (in each case excluding the pro-rata share of the Tower Section with respect to any borrowing made by the Condominium Board pursuant to the Condominium By-Laws); (B) no lien to secure repayment of any sum borrowed may be created on any Unit or its appurtenant interest in the Common Elements (except to the extent permitted by applicable law) without the prior written consent of the owner of such Unit; and (C) no Unit Owner other than the Tower Unit Owners shall be liable for the repayment of any such borrowing with respect to the Tower Limited Common Elements exclusively, and the loan documentation in such case shall so provide. Any such debt may be secured by future income and Tower Common Charges in which event the Tower Common Charges shall be deemed trust funds for the purpose of paying such debt. The Tower Board cannot secure such debt by a lien on the Common Elements without the consent of all affected Unit Owners.

In addition to the debt described above, the Tower Board, without approval of the Unit Owners may, at any time, incur, or refinance, debt from time to time secured by a lien on the Resident Manager's Unit or any other Unit acquired by the Tower Board pursuant to the Declaration and/or Tower By-Laws; provided, however, that no such financing or refinancing may be secured by an encumbrance or hypothecation of any portion of the Property other than the Unit (together with its appurtenant interest in the Common Elements) or other property acquired. If any sum borrowed by the Tower Board is not repaid by the Tower Board, a Unit Owner who pays to the creditor such proportion thereof as his or her interest in the Common Elements bears to the interest of all Tower Unit Owners in the Common Elements shall be entitled to obtain from the creditor a release of any judgment or other lien which said creditor has filed or has the right to file against such Unit Owner's Unit, and all loan documentation entered into by or on behalf of the Tower Board shall specifically so provide. The dollar amounts set forth above and all other dollar amounts referenced elsewhere in the Tower By-Laws, shall be adjusted to reflect any increase in the cost of living, as reflected by an increase in the CPI Increase Factor (as described in the Tower By-Laws).

11. Repairs to and Maintenance of Tower Units and Common Elements

Except as may otherwise be provided in the Condominium By-Laws and/or Tower By-Laws, generally, all painting, decorating, maintenance, repairs and replacements, whether structural or non-structural, or ordinary or extraordinary: (a) in or to any Tower Unit (other than any Common Elements included therein) will be made by the Owner of such Unit at his or her expense, (b) in or to the General Common Elements will be made by the Condominium Board and the expense thereof will be charged to the Unit Owners as a General Common Expense, and (c) in or to the Tower Limited Common Elements will be made by the Tower Board and the expense thereof will be charged to the Tower Unit Owners in the proportion that their respective Common Interests bear to the aggregate Common Interests of all Tower Unit Owners. Without limiting the foregoing, Tower Unit Owners shall be responsible for all maintenance, repairs and replacements of all plumbing, appliances and lighting fixtures, and heating and air conditioning units in their respective Units. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Tower Unit Owner shall be responsible for all ordinary maintenance and cleaning of each Terrace appurtenant to its Tower Unit; however, the costs and expenses of any repairs or replacements, structural or otherwise with respect to each such Terrace (unless caused by or attributable to the applicable Unit Owner), shall be charged to all Tower Unit Owners as a Common Expense. Each Tower Unit Owner shall promptly comply with all Legal Requirements applicable to his or her Tower Unit. No Tower Unit Owner shall use or permit the use of Hazardous Materials (as defined in the Condominium By-Laws) on, about, under, or in his or her Tower Unit or the Property. Each Tower Unit Owner agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Condominium Board, the Tower Board and each other Unit Owner from and against any and all claims or demands, including any action or proceeding brought thereon, and all costs, losses, expenses and liabilities of any kind relating thereto, including, but not limited to, costs of investigation, remedial response, and reasonable attorneys' fees and cost of suit, arising out of or resulting from any Hazardous Material used or permitted to be used by such Tower Unit Owner on, about, under or in his or her Tower Unit or the Property.

The Tower will feature a window washing rig for the cleaning of the exterior glass surfaces of windows. The washing and cleaning of interior glass surfaces of windows in the Tower Units shall be the responsibility of the respective Tower Unit Owners. The Condominium Board and the Tower Board may from time to time enforce the responsibility of Unit Owners to wash and clean the interior surfaces of windows located in their respective Units and charge the defaulting Unit Owner therefor. As more particularly set forth in the Condominium By-Laws, the exterior glass surfaces will be washed and cleaned and replaced at the direction of the Condominium Board and the cost thereof charged as a General Common Expense; provided, however, that with respect to Commercial Units, the cost of any window replaced by the Condominium Board shall be allocated to the Commercial Unit Owner of such Commercial Unit, and with respect to the Tower Units, the cost of any window replaced by the Condominium Board shall be allocated to the Tower Board, who shall further allocate such cost in accordance with the Tower By-Laws.

All normal maintenance and repairs of any Tower Limited Common Element exclusively appurtenant to a particular Tower Unit shall be made by the Tower Unit Owner having access thereto, at its own cost and expense; any structural or extraordinary repairs or replacements thereto (including leaks) shall be made by or for the Tower Board and the cost and expense thereof shall be charged to all Tower Unit Owners as a Tower Common Expense, unless due to the negligence, misuse, neglect or abuse of such Tower Unit Owner or its tenant, agent, invitee, licensee or guest, in which event such Tower Unit Owner shall bear the entire cost thereof, and the same shall, for all purposes hereunder, constitute part of the Tower Common Charges payable by such Tower Unit Owner.

As indicated in Schedule A, Terraces are appurtenant to certain Tower Units. Each Terrace is a Tower Limited Common Element. The Tower Unit Owner of a Unit having a Terrace shall have the exclusive use of the Terrace appurtenant thereto, subject to the right of the Tower Board to regulate its use in accordance with the Tower By-Laws and the Tower Rules and Regulations. As noted above, each Tower Unit Owner shall be responsible for all ordinary maintenance and cleaning of each Terrace and/or Swimming Pool appurtenant to its Unit, subject to the rights of the Boards to regulate its use (including, without limitation, pursuant to the Tower Rules and Regulations regarding the opening, closing, cleaning and maintenance of Swimming Pools), and to enter the Tower Unit to access the Terrace and to access any Limited Common Elements for maintenance, repair and replacement and other uses (including, without limitation, to access any Building mechanical equipment or other Common Elements located on any roof setback adjacent to any Terrace, or to use any Terrace as a platform for window washing equipment). Sponsor is not responsible for, can make no guarantees regarding and shall have no liability to Tower Unit Owners with respect to, the level of noise or vibrations or odors resulting from the operation of the Building or the Units or the degree of privacy which will be afforded to Unit Owners on their Terraces. The costs and expenses of any repairs or replacements to a Terrace, structural or otherwise (unless caused by or attributable to the Tower Unit Owner), shall be charged to all Tower Unit Owners as a Common Expense.

The Tower Board shall have the right to require a Tower Unit Owner to remove plantings, roof surfaces and other installations which have been placed on the Terraces if the Tower Board determines, in its sole discretion, that such plantings or other installations may adversely affect the integrity of the roof or other portion of the Building or is otherwise unsafe. In addition, the Tower Board shall have the right, in connection with any construction, repair or maintenance work in the Building, to erect scaffolding temporarily on any Terrace. In no event shall any Tower Unit Owner of a Tower Unit having a Terrace be permitted to enclose or erect any structure on such Terrace. The Tower Board may establish such other rules and regulations it deems necessary to protect the Common Elements and the Units and to insure the integrity of the Building and the health and safety of the occupants.

If a Tower Unit contains an appurtenant Terrace (including, without limitation, a Terrace with a Swimming Pool), the fencing, railings, gates, parapets, structural, waterproofing and drainage elements in or on the Terrace and/or Swimming Pool are Tower Limited Common Elements appurtenant to such Tower Unit. Any pavers, decking, tile or other flooring installed on the Terrace and/or Swimming Pool and any faucets, hose bibs, electrical outlets and lighting installed in or on the Terrace and/or Swimming Pool, as well as the walls, liner and basin of the Swimming Pool, and all pumps, jets, motors, filters, valves, chemical feeders, timers, heaters, skimmers, control panels and alarm systems (if any) of the Swimming Pool, are part of the Unit. Doors leading from a Tower Unit to a Terrace are also part of the Unit. Pursuant to the foregoing, the structural concrete roof slab or other roof construction material, the asphalt or other roofing material thereover, the roof membrane, flashing and similar waterproofing or other roofing elements protecting the interior of the Building and located under the basin of the Swimming Pool, or under the pavers, decking, tiles or other flooring of the Terrace and/or Swimming Pool, as well as any drainage system and fencing or railing, are Tower Limited Common Elements appurtenant to the Unit. No alterations of or installations on or in a Terrace and/or Swimming Pool appurtenant to a Tower Unit may be made without the prior written consent of the Tower Board, and during the Initial Control Period, Sponsor as well. In no event may these areas be enclosed, except that as all Swimming Pools will be constructed above the applicable Terrace slab, at the closing of a Tower Unit with a Swimming Pool Sponsor shall deliver such Swimming Pool surrounded by parapets and fencing or railing in accordance with applicable law.

Moreover, Terraces, Swimming Pools and any other areas that are exposed to the elements (e.g., Terraces and Swimming Pools) must be kept free of snow, ice and accumulation of water to the extent failure to do so could cause damage to the Building and/or other Units therein. In particular, each Owner of a Tower Unit with a Swimming Pool (as shown on Schedule A) is responsible for maintaining such Swimming Pool and must contract with a pool maintenance company, reasonably acceptable to the Tower Board, to provide ongoing cleaning and maintenance of the Swimming Pool. In the event a Tower Unit Owner fails to comply with any of its maintenance obligations, the Tower Board may, at the expense of the Unit Owner and without liability to the Tower Board, enter the Unit and perform such acts as are necessary to cure the Unit Owner's default. All Swimming Pools must be drained, closed (i.e., winterized) and covered by October 1st of each year, and may refilled commencing on May 1st of each year.

In order to promote a consistent appearance of the Tower from the outside, unless waived by the Tower Board, each Tower Unit Owner will be required to install and maintain window treatments having a white-colored backing on the sides facing and nearest to the windows in its Tower Unit, which window treatments and backings must conform to any specifications (including a new color) established from time to time by the Tower Board. Neither the interior nor the exterior glass surfaces of any windows located in any Tower Unit may be altered, colored or painted.

Unless expressly authorized by the Tower Board in each case, at least eighty percent (80%) of the floor area of each Tower Unit (excepting only kitchens, pantries, bathrooms, closets and foyers) must be covered with rugs, carpeting or equally effective noise reducing material.

The Condominium By-Laws and Tower By-Laws provide that each Unit and all portions of the Common Elements shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition, and in good working order (and all portions thereof exposed to public view shall be kept in a neat appearance and in first-class condition in accordance with the high quality, character and dignity of the Building), in each case, by the Unit Owners, the Condominium Board or the Tower Board, whichever is responsible, for the maintenance thereof. In the event that any Tower Unit Owner fails to keep his or her Unit in such condition, the Tower Board, at the expense of such Unit Owner, may enter such Unit and perform such acts as are necessary to cure such default. (See subsection entitled "Rights of Access" in this Section below for further discussion.)

In the event the Tower Board fails to take action within after notice from the Condominium Board against a Tower Unit Owner who is in default beyond the expiration of any notice or cure period in or the performance of any other obligation under the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws or the Tower By-Laws, then the Condominium Board may do so, in its own name or, if necessary, in the name of the Tower Board.

Any alteration, addition, improvement or repair in or to a Unit or any Common Elements must comply with all Legal Requirements.

12. Representation on Condominium Board

As described in Articles 2 and 3 of the Tower By-Laws and in the Condominium By-Laws, Tower Unit Owners shall not be entitled to vote in their individual capacities as Unit Owners at any meeting of the Condominium Board. The entire Common Interest of such Unit Owners shall be represented on the Condominium Board by the designees of the Tower Board.

13. Alterations and Improvements of Tower Units

No Tower Unit Owner (other than Sponsor or its designee or other owner of Unsold Tower Units) may make any alteration, addition, improvement or repair in or to such Unit Owner's Unit that affects the structure of the Tower and/or the Building's systems without the prior written approval of the Tower Board and in certain circumstances, the Condominium Board, but this provision does not apply to an Unsold Tower Unit. Except as otherwise permitted in the Condominium By-Laws and/or Tower By-Laws, no Tower Unit Owner may make any alteration, addition, improvement or repair in or to the Common Elements without the prior written approval of the Condominium Board and/or the Tower Board, as applicable. The Tower Board may impose fees upon such Unit Owner to reimburse the Condominium and/or the Tower Board for costs incurred in connection with the review or supervision of such Unit Owner's work.

The Tower Board, at its option, may require a Tower Unit Owner to execute an agreement in form and substance satisfactory to the Tower Board setting forth the terms and conditions under which such alteration, addition, improvement or repair may be made. Additionally, as set forth in more detail in the Tower By-Laws, any Tower Unit Owner making or permitting an alteration, addition, improvement or repair in its Tower Unit is required by the Tower By-Laws to: (i) obtain such insurance as the Tower Board or the Residential Managing Agent may require, (ii) indemnify the Tower Board, the Condominium Board, all other Unit Owners and the Managing Agent against any liability arising from the work, (iii) reimburse the Tower Board and the Condominium Board for its architectural, engineering and legal fees incurred in connection with such work, (iv) employ such architects, engineers, contractors, workers, suppliers and other laborers who are reasonably acceptable to the Tower Board and Condominium Board and Managing Agent; and (v) perform such work in a manner which will not interfere with, or cause any labor disturbances or stoppages (which may result from, among other things, the use of non-union labor) in, the work of Sponsor, the Condominium Board, the Tower Section, the Commercial Unit Owners, or other contractors or subcontractors employed by such parties or otherwise in the Building. In addition, no work or change by or on behalf of a Tower Unit Owner will be permitted without the consent of the Tower Board and Sponsor (which consent may be withheld or conditioned in their sole discretion if such work or change would result in a delay in obtaining a temporary or new permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building, or any amendment to, or extension of, the same if theretofore issued).

The foregoing restrictions affecting Tower Units shall not apply to Sponsor or its designee in respect of the Unsold Tower Units or to the Owner(s) of the Commercial Units. There are no restrictions on the ability of Sponsor or its designee to alter or improve any Unsold Tower Unit (including, without limitation, dividing, subdividing and combining one or more Unsold Tower Units or portions of same). Additionally, to the extent permitted by law, and subject to certain restrictions set forth in the Condominium By-Laws and Declaration, the Commercial Unit Owners will each have the right with regard to its Unit, without the consent of the Condominium Board, the Tower Board, the Managing Agent, other Unit Owners, or any other party, to mortgage or otherwise hypothecate its Unit, to decorate or make alterations, additions or improvements to its Unit (except that alterations, additions or improvements which would affect the structural, mechanical, electrical or plumbing elements of the Building or the exterior appearance of the Building shall be subject to the approval, not to be unreasonably withheld, of the Condominium Board) and to combine or subdivide its Commercial Unit into one (1) or more newly constituted Commercial Units.

Furthermore, an initial Purchaser of an Unsold Tower Unit shall have the right, without the approval of the Tower Board, to make any alterations, additions, improvements or repairs in or to such Tower Unit, provided that such Purchaser obtains all necessary approvals required by law and that Sponsor has consented to the same in writing at or prior to the closing of title to such Tower Unit, which consent Sponsor may withhold or condition in its sole and absolute discretion.

Any alteration, addition, improvement or repair in or to a Unit or any Common Elements must comply with all Legal Requirements.

14. Alterations and Improvements of Common Elements

Generally, all alterations, additions or improvements in or to the Common Elements will be made by whichever Board or Unit Owner is required to maintain and repair such Common Elements. The costs of alterations, additions or improvements to the General Common Elements will be charged either to all Unit Owners as a General Common Expense; and costs attributable to the Tower Limited Common Elements will be charged to all Tower Unit Owners as a Residential Common Expense in the proportion that their respective Common Interests bear to the aggregate Common Interests of all Tower Unit Owners or the Tower Unit Owner(s) responsible therefore, as the case may be. Whenever, in the judgment of the Tower Board, the Tower Limited Common Elements for which it is responsible require additions, alterations or improvements which are capital in nature and would cost more than $1,000,000 (subject to increase by the CPI Increase Factor) in any calendar year or $3,000,000 in the aggregate (subject to increase by the CPI Increase Factor), then such additions, alterations or improvements may not be made unless first approved by a majority in number and Common Interest of Tower Unit Owners liable for the cost thereof, including Sponsor, if it then owns any Tower Unit, at a duly constituted meeting of the Tower Unit Owners, and by the Tower Mortgagee Representatives, if any, appointed pursuant to the Tower By-Laws, or unless the same is a non-capital repair or necessary to comply with applicable Legal Requirements, to remedy any violation imposed against the Property, to comply with a proper work order of an insurer of the Property, or for the health or safety (but not the general comfort or welfare) of the residents or occupants of the Property. In any such event, the Tower Board may, in its discretion, assess each Tower Unit Owner liable therefor for his or her pro-rata share of the cost of such additions, alterations, or improvements, according to his or her Common Interest, as part of the Tower Common Charges.

Any additions, alterations or improvements costing the amounts set forth above or less, in the aggregate, in any calendar year or which is a non-capital repair may be made by the Tower Board without the approval of the Tower Unit Owners or Tower Mortgagee Representatives.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, elevator landings which serve a single Tower Unit may be decorated and/or furnished by the applicable Tower Unit Owner as they desire (subject to the conditions of the Tower By-Laws), at their expense, provided that such Tower Unit Owner consents in writing thereto, and the Tower Board gives its written consent to such decoration and/or furnishing, which consent of the Tower Board may be granted or withheld in such board's sole discretion. After an elevator landing is decorated and/or furnished by the Tower Unit Owner serviced by the same, the owner of such Tower Unit, and not the Tower Board, will be responsible for keeping the decor and furnishings in a first class condition and state of repair and performing, at its own expense, all repairs and maintenance necessary or desirable in order to accomplish the same.

In addition, as set forth in the Tower By-Laws and to the extent permitted by law, the owner or owners of any one or more Tower Units, if such Tower Unit or Units are the only Tower Unit or Units serviced or benefited by any Tower Limited Common Elements adjacent or appurtenant thereto (for example, that portion at the end of a hallway that is directly adjacent to the Tower Unit or Units located at the end of such hallway) and not affecting access or service (including, without limitation, heating, ventilating and air-conditioning) to any other Unit or to any other portion of the Tower Limited Common Elements shall, with the consent of the Tower Board (which consent shall be in the Tower Board's sole discretion and shall not be required if the Tower Unit Owner or Owners shall be Sponsor or their designees), have the exclusive right of use of such portion of the Tower Limited Common Elements as if it were a part of such Tower Units (including the right, in the above example of a portion of a hallway, to enclose such portion) and no amendment to the Declaration nor reallocation of Common Interests shall be made by reason thereof; provided, however that, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6.1 hereof, such Tower Unit Owner or Owners agrees, at their sole cost and expense to: (a) be responsible for the operation, maintenance and repair of that portion of the Tower Limited Common Elements for so long as such Tower Unit Owner or Owners exercise such exclusive right of use; and (b) restore that portion of the Tower Limited Common Elements to its original condition, reasonable wear and tear excepted, after such Tower Unit Owner or Owners cease to exercise such exclusive right of use. The Owner of any such Tower Units which are Unsold Tower Units shall have the rights set forth in the preceding sentence without the necessity for obtaining the consent of the Tower Board. Notwithstanding the above, if an Owner transfers or conveys its Tower Units to a successor Owner, the transferor need not comply with (b) above provided that the transferee agrees to abide by (a) and (b) above.

15. Rights of Access

As more fully set forth in the Condominium By-Laws and the Tower By-Laws, the Tower Board, the Condominium Board and any managing agent, manager and other persons authorized by the foregoing will have a right of access to any Tower Unit for the purposes, among others, of: (a) making inspections of, or removing violations of Legal Requirements against, any part of the Property; (b) curing defaults under the Condominium By-Laws, the Tower By-Laws, Declaration, General Rules and Regulations or Tower Rules and Regulations, as applicable, by the owner of such Unit; (c) performing maintenance, installations, alterations, repairs or replacements to the mechanical, plumbing or electrical systems, or other portions of the Common Elements, located within such Unit or elsewhere in the Building; or (d) correcting any conditions originating in any Tower Unit and threatening another Unit or any Common Element. Additionally, in the case of an emergency affecting a Commercial Unit Owner or its Unit, such Unit Owner will have a right of access to any Tower Unit for the purpose of curing or abating such emergency for so long as and only so long as such emergency shall exist.

16. Compliance with Terms of Declaration, By-Laws and Rules and Regulations

Each Tower Unit Owner must strictly comply with the provisions of the Declaration, Condominium By-Laws, General Rules and Regulations, Tower By-Laws and Tower Rules and Regulations. Pursuant to Section 339(j) of the Condominium Act, failure to so comply will be grounds for an action for damages or injunctive relief, or both. The Condominium By-Laws and Tower By-Laws, together with the General Rules and Regulations and Tower Rules and Regulations, will be recorded with the Declaration or an amendment thereto in the City Register's Office.

17. Repair or Reconstruction after Fire or Other Casualty

If any portion of the Property other than solely the Tower Section is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, or if any portion of the Tower Section is damaged or destroyed together with any other portion of the Property, the provisions of the Condominium By-Laws shall control as to control over repair and restoration. In the event that solely the Tower Section or any part thereof is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty (unless, in accordance with the Condominium By-Laws, the Building is not to be repaired), the Tower Board will arrange for the prompt repair and restoration of the Tower Section (including each Tower Unit, but excluding improvements, betterments, equipment, furniture, furnishings or other personal property in any such Unit) and the Tower Board, or the Insurance Trustee, as provided in the Condominium By-Laws, shall disburse the proceeds of all applicable insurance policies to the contractors engaged in such repair and restoration in appropriate progress payments.

If the insurance proceeds are insufficient to cover the cost of repairs or restoration, Unit Owners may be assessed for such deficiency. If there is a surplus of insurance proceeds, the surplus shall be paid to Unit Owners in accordance with the following paragraph, except that no payment shall be made to a Unit Owner until there has first been paid out of his or her share, such amounts as may be necessary to reduce unpaid liens on his or her Unit, other than Permitted Mortgages, in the order of priority of such liens.

If only the Commercial Units (or a portion thereof) are destroyed or damaged by fire or other casualty and if the net insurance proceeds are insufficient to cover, or exceed, the cost of repairs and restoration, the affected Commercial Unit Owners will bear the entire amount of the deficit, or shall receive all of the excess, as the case may be, in proportion to their respective Common Interests. Similarly, if only the Tower Units and/or the Tower Limited Common Elements are damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty and the insurance proceeds are insufficient to cover, or exceed, the cost of repairs and restoration, the deficit or surplus, as the case may be, will be shared by all Tower Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests. If said damage or destruction by fire or other casualty affects the General Common Elements, or any combination of (i) the Commercial Units and (ii) the Tower Units, then any deficit or surplus in insurance proceeds shall be borne or shared by all Unit Owners, or by the Unit Owners of the affected portions of the Building, as appropriate, in proportion to their respective Common Interests.

Any surplus allocable to any Tower Unit pursuant to the applicable provision of the Tower By-Laws shall first be lessened by such amounts as may be required to discharge unpaid liens (other than mortgages which are not Permitted Mortgages) on any such Unit in the order of priority of such liens, and the remaining surplus, if any, shall then be paid to the owner of such Unit.

Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, if seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the Building is destroyed or substantially damaged and if seventy-five percent (75%) or more in Common Interest of all Unit Owners do not duly resolve to proceed with the repair or restoration thereof, the Building will not be repaired and shall be subject to an action for partition instituted by any Unit Owner or lienor, as if the Building were owned in common, in which case the net proceeds of sale, together with the net proceeds of insurance policies, shall be divided among all Unit Owners in accordance with their respective Common Interests; provided, however, that no payment shall be made to a Unit Owner until there has first been paid out of his or her share of such funds, such amounts as may be necessary to discharge all unpaid liens on his or her Unit (other than mortgages which are not Permitted Mortgages) in the order of the priority of such liens.

18. Insurance

Under Article 11 of the Condominium By-Laws, subject to the provisions of the final paragraph of the preceding section, the Condominium Board is required to obtain and maintain, to the extent obtainable and to the extent determined by the Condominium Board to be appropriate, the following insurance: (a) fire insurance with coverage for special causes of loss, including, flood earth movement and seepage from sewers and drains and vandalism and malicious mischief endorsements, insuring the entire Building (including the physical structure of each Unit, but excluding additions, alterations, fixtures, furniture, furnishings, betterments and improvements, or other personal property not constituting a part of such Unit), together with all service machinery contained therein, and covering the interests of the Condominium, each Board and all Tower Unit Owners and Permitted Mortgagees, as their respective interests may appear, in an amount equal to the full replacement value of the Building on a replacement cost basis (exclusive of foundation and footings), without deduction for depreciation; (b) business income, extra expense rent insurance in an amount equal to General Common Charges for one year; (c) workers' compensation and New York State disability benefits insurance, as required; (d) boiler and machinery insurance; (e) fidelity insurance covering all Condominium Board members, officers, directors and employees of the Condominium, the Tower Section and any managing agents; (f) directors' and officers' errors and omissions coverage; and (g) such other insurance as the Condominium Board may from time to time determine. (Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Condominium Board will at all times maintain any insurance coverage required pursuant to any mortgage or other security instrument granted by Sponsor, or any affiliate thereof, prior to the First Closing.)

The amount of fire insurance and all risk extended coverage to be maintained until the first meeting of the Tower Board following the First Annual Tower Meeting shall be equal to the full replacement cost of the Building.

All policies of physical damage insurance shall contain, to the extent obtainable, waivers of subrogation and waivers of any defense based on co-insurance, and shall provide that such policies may not be cancelled or substantially modified without at least ten (10) days' prior written notice to the Condominium Board and to all of the insureds, including all Tower Unit Owners and Permitted Mortgagees, who have requested the same from the Condominium Board (or the Tower Board, in the case of a Tower Unit Owner) in writing. Duplicate originals or certificates of insurance of all policies of insurance and of all renewals thereof, if obtainable, together with proof of payment of premiums, shall be delivered to the Tower Board, in all events, and all Unit Owners and Permitted Mortgagees who have requested the same from the Condominium Board in writing. Renewals shall be obtained at least ten (10) days prior to the expiration of the then current policies.

The Condominium Board shall also be required to obtain and maintain, to the extent obtainable, commercial general liability insurance against claims for personal injury or bodily injury occurring in, on or about the Property, in such amounts as are carried by prudent owners of comparable properties in the City of New York as the Condominium Board may from time to time determine, covering: (i) the Boards, and the managing agent(s) thereof, and each Board member and each officer and employee of the Condominium and the Tower Section, and (ii) each Unit Owner except that such policy will not cover liability of a Unit Owner arising from occurrences within his or her own Unit or within the Common Elements, if any, exclusive to its Unit. In no event shall the commercial general liability insurance afford protection to the limit of less than $1,000,000 per occurrence.

Any insurance maintained by the Condominium Board may provide for such deductible amounts as the Condominium Board may determine. The premiums for all insurance referred to above shall be a General Common Expense and shall be borne by the Unit Owners, in such proportions between them, with consideration of the respective risks, liabilities and replacement values, as are equitable (determined by the respective insurance carriers) as part of Common Charges.

Neither the Condominium Board nor the Tower Board, as the case may be, is required to obtain or maintain any insurance with respect to any property contained in any Unit or any liability with respect to occurrences or operations in or about each Unit or the Limited Common Elements appurtenant thereto. Consequently, all Tower Unit Owners are required to obtain and maintain liability insurance (a personal liability policy if the Tower Unit Owner is an individual or a commercial general public liability policy if the Tower Unit Owner is a corporate entity) against claims for personal injury, death or property damage occurring in, on or about such Unit Owner's Unit or the Common Elements, if any, exclusive to his or her Unit, affording protection of at least $1,000,000 per occurrence. In addition, all Tower Unit Owners are urged to obtain casualty insurance with respect to any and all additions, alterations, improvements and betterments located within their respective Units (including, without limitation, fixtures, equipment, furniture, furnishings and any other personal property). Purchasers are also advised that the insurance policies to be maintained by or on behalf of the Tower Board will be on a "replacement cost" and will not cover losses to the extent that market value may exceed such replacement cost.

Unit Owners may carry additional insurance, provided that any such policies shall contain waivers of subrogation, if available, and further provided that the liability of the carriers issuing insurance obtained by the Condominium Board shall not be affected or diminished by reason of any such additional insurance carried by any Unit Owner.

19. Liability of Tower Board and Tower Unit Owners

Every contract made by the Tower Board, any officer of the Tower Section, or the managing agent thereof shall state that: (a) it is being executed by such party only as agent for all Tower Unit Owners, and such Tower Board members, officer or managing agent shall have no personal liability thereon (except in their capacities, if any, as Unit Owners), and (b) the liability of any Unit Owner with respect to such contract shall be limited to (i) such proportionate share of the total liability as the Common Interest of such Unit Owner bears to the aggregate Common Interests of all Tower Unit Owners, and (ii) to the extent permitted by Legal Requirements or as otherwise determined by the Tower Board in its sole and absolute discretion, such Unit Owner's interest in his or her Unit and its appurtenant Common Interest.

To the extent permitted by applicable Legal Requirements, Tower Board members shall have no liability to the Tower Unit Owners, except that a Tower Board member shall be liable for his or her own bad faith or willful misconduct. The Tower Board may contract or effect any other transaction with any Tower Board member, any Unit Owner, Sponsor or its designee, or any affiliate of any of them without incurring any liability for self-dealing, except in cases of bad faith or willful misconduct. All Tower Unit Owners shall severally, to the extent of their respective interests in their Units and their appurtenant Common Interests, indemnify each Tower Board member against any liability or claim except those arising out of the bad faith or willful misconduct of such member.

20. Amendments to Condominium Documents

Generally, subject to certain exceptions, any provision of the Declaration, Condominium By-Laws or Tower By-Laws affecting only the Tower Units or the Tower Unit Owners (and not affecting, inter alia, the General Common Elements) may be amended, added to or deleted by affirmative vote of at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66-2/3%) in number and in Common Interest of the Tower Unit Owners; provided, however, that the use of Units or the Common Interest appurtenant to each Unit as expressed in the Declaration shall not be altered without the written consent of all Unit Owners affected thereby.

Notwithstanding any provision contained herein or the Declaration, Condominium By-Laws or Tower By-Laws to the contrary, no amendment, modification, addition to or deletion of the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws or the Tower By-Laws, or the General Rules and Regulations and Tower Rules and Regulations shall be effective in any way against: (a) Sponsor or its designee, for so long as Sponsor or its designee is the owner of one (1) or more Tower Units, or any Unsold Tower Unit, unless Sponsor or its designee, as applicable, has given its prior written consent thereto; or (b) the holder of any present or future mortgage, pledge or other lien or security interest covering any Unsold Tower Unit unless such holder has given its prior written consent thereto.

Notwithstanding the foregoing and subject to the provisions contained in the Condominium By-Laws, Tower By-Laws or in the Declaration with respect to amendments, modifications, additions or deletions affecting Sponsor or its designee, any Unsold Tower Units or Permitted Mortgagees, no amendment, modification, addition or deletion pursuant to the provisions of clause (a) or (b) above shall be effective without the written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) of the Tower Mortgagee Representative(s), if any.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in the Declaration, By-Laws, or the Rules and Regulations, if any Unit Owner is notified in writing that its consent to a proposed amendment or modification to the Declaration, the By-Laws or the Rules and Regulations is requested, then, provided that such notice contains a copy of the proposed amendment or modification (and a statement in bold capital letters to the effect that if such Unit Owner does not notify the sending party in writing within ten (10) Business Days after such Unit Owner receives such notice (together with a copy of such amendment or modification), that such Unit Owner disapproves such proposed amendment or modification, then such Unit Owner shall be deemed to have approved such amendment or modification), if such Unit Owner does not notify the sending party in writing within ten (10) Business Days after such Unit Owner receives such notice (together with a copy of such amendment or modification), that such Unit Owner disapproves such proposed amendment or modification, then such Unit Owner shall be deemed to have approved such amendment or modification. The foregoing shall not apply to notices given to Sponsor or any other holder of Unsold Tower Units requesting the Sponsor's or such holder's consent to a proposed amendment or modification.

21. Termination of Condominium

The Condominium shall continue and the Property shall not be subject to an action for partition until: (a) terminated by casualty loss, condemnation or eminent domain, as more particularly provided in the Condominium By-Laws; or (b) such time as withdrawal of the Property from the provisions of the New York Condominium Act is authorized by a vote of at least eighty percent (80%) both in number and aggregate of the Common Interests of all Unit Owners. No such vote shall be effective, however: (a) without the written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) of a majority of the Tower Mortgagee Representatives, if any; and (b) without the written consent of the Sponsor or any other owner of Unsold Tower Units for so long as any such Person owns any Unsold Tower Unit(s), provided that in no event shall any such consents in this clause (b) be required more than five (5) years after the earlier to occur of the First Closing.

To the fullest extent permissible under Legal Requirements, each Unit Owner shall be deemed to have waived any right to seek partition of the Property. In the event said withdrawal is authorized as aforesaid, and only to the extent the waiver contained in the preceding sentence shall be inapplicable or unenforceable, the Property shall be subject to an action for partition by any Unit Owner or lienor as if owned in common, in which event the net proceeds of sale, together with the net proceeds of any applicable insurance policies, shall be divided among all

Unit Owners in accordance with their respective Common Interests; provided, however, that no payment shall be made to a Unit Owner until there has first been paid out of its share of such funds, such amounts as may be necessary to discharge all unpaid liens on its Unit (other than mortgages which are not Permitted Mortgages) in the order of the priority of such liens.

22. Tower Units Acquired by the Tower Board

All Tower Units acquired or leased by the Tower Board or its designee shall be held by the Tower Board, or its designee, on behalf of all Tower Unit Owners. The rent or purchase price, closing costs and adjustments payable in connection therewith shall be assessed against all Tower Unit Owners. No Tower Units held by the Tower Board shall carry any voting rights at Tower Unit Owner meetings.

The purchase of any Tower Unit by the Tower Board or its designee, on behalf of all Tower Unit Owners, may be made from the funds deposited in the capital and/or expense accounts of the Tower Board by or on behalf of Tower Unit Owners. If the funds in such accounts are insufficient to effectuate any such purchase, the Tower Board may levy an assessment against each Tower Unit in proportion to its respective Common Interest, as a Residential Common Charge, and/or the Tower Board may, in its discretion, finance the acquisition of such Unit, subject to the limitations on borrowing otherwise set forth herein, and in the Tower By-Laws and Declaration, and provided, however, that no such financing may be secured by an encumbrance or hypothecation of any portion of the Tower Section (except to the extent permitted by law) other than the Unit to be purchased together with its appurtenant interest in the Common Elements.

23. Procedure to Review Real Estate Tax Assessments

The Tower Board, on behalf of and as agent for all Tower Unit Owners, will be authorized to commence, pursue and settle certiorari proceedings to obtain reduced real estate tax assessments with respect to the Tower Units. All Tower Unit Owners will share the costs in connection therewith and the benefits derived therefrom. In the event any Tower Unit Owner individually seeks to have the assessed valuation of his or her Unit reduced by bringing a separate certiorari proceeding, the Tower Board, if necessary for such proceeding, will execute any documents or other papers required for, and otherwise cooperate with such Unit Owner in pursuing such reduction, provided that such Unit Owner indemnifies the Tower Board from all claims, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) resulting from such proceedings. Each Commercial Unit Owner shall pursue any such proceedings separately and not as part of the proceedings described in this paragraph in respect of the Tower Units.

24. Mechanics' Liens

Under the current provisions of the New York Condominium Act, no lien of any nature may arise or be created against any of the Common Elements, except with the unanimous consent of all Unit Owners. Liens may arise or be created against only the several Units and their respective Common Interests. Labor performed on, or materials supplied to, a Unit may not be the basis for a mechanic's lien against the Unit of a Unit Owner not expressly consenting to or requesting such work, except in the case of emergency repairs. No labor performed on, or materials furnished to, the Common Elements shall be the basis for a lien thereon but all Common Charges received by the Condominium Board or the Tower Board, as the case may be, shall constitute trust funds for the purpose of paying the cost of labor performed or materials furnished at the request or with the consent of such Board or the managing agent acting on its behalf.

25. Easements

(a) General

In order to facilitate the operation and maintenance of the Tower Section and the sale or leasing of the Units therein, each of the Tower Units will be subject to certain easements, including, but not limited to, easements in favor of Sponsor. These easements, which are more particularly set forth in Article 15 of the Declaration, include an easement in favor of each Tower Unit Owner to install, operate, maintain, repair, alter, rebuild, restore and replace Common Elements and, generally, an easement of support and of necessity in favor of all Units and the Common Elements. Additionally, the Condominium Board, Sponsor and Sponsor's designee will each have an easement to install and maintain pipes, conduits, wires, ducts and other facilities in the space between the underside of each such floor slab and the top surface of each Unit's finished ceiling, without any need to obtain the consent of any Unit Owner with respect to the same. These easements shall be exercised in a manner that will not unreasonably interfere with the normal conduct of business of the tenants and occupants of the Units or with the use of such Units or Storage Closets for their permitted purposes. As is set forth in more detail in the Declaration and Condominium By-Laws, the Commercial Unit Owner shall likewise have similar easements benefiting and burdening its Unit.

Among other things, Sponsor shall also have an easement to erect, maintain, repair and replace lights and lighting fixtures and to erect maintain and replace satellite communication equipment and similar equipment, as permitted by law, on the roofs and facade of the Building and elsewhere on the Common Elements which shall entitle Sponsor to utilize such easement for its own account or the account of any licensee of Sponsor for the purpose of servicing the Condominium or any other building or area. In addition, Sponsor and the owner of any Unsold Tower Units shall have an easement to erect, maintain, repair and replace any signs, awnings, marquees, canopies, banners, flags, pennants, aerials, antennas or the like (each a "Sign") permitted by law on the Property (including, without limitation, on its roof and exterior walls) for the purposes of advertising the sale of any Unit, the leasing of space in any Unit and the operation of any business of a tenant or occupant of any Unit.

(b) Public Access Easement

The portion of West 62nd Street located between Freedom Place and Riverside Boulevard is a "Public Access Area" (as defined in the Mapping Agreement and Restrictive Declaration) rather than a public street (the "62nd Street Public Access Area"), and thus will not be dedicated to the City of New York. In connection with the construction of the Building, Sponsor is constructing an approximately five- (5) foot wide extension of the sidewalk adjacent to the 62nd Street Public Access Area. The 62nd Street Public Access Area, as contemplated by the Mapping

Agreement, is to be conveyed to the RSPOA. The 62nd Street Public Access Area thus is not part of the Property and will not be part of the Condominium.

Pursuant to the Restrictive Declaration, Mapping Agreement and the RSPO Declaration, a "Public Access Easement" must be granted over the 62nd Street Public Access Area. This will be a permanent surface level (and above) easement for use by the City of New York and the general public for vehicular and pedestrian access. The rules and regulations of the Department of Transportation shall apply to the Public Access Easement in the same manner as if the Public Access Easement were a public street. Thus, the Department of Transportation may place traffic signs within the easement area for regulation of traffic and parking, and all laws pertaining to vehicular and pedestrian traffic and parking shall apply and shall be enforceable by the City of New York, in the same manner as if the Public Access Easement were a public street.

Once the 62nd Street Public Access Area is conveyed to the RSPOA, even if the easement to the City of New York has not yet been granted, it will be the obligation of the "Dominant Owner" (as such term is defined in the RSPO Declaration) of the 62nd Street Public Access Area (and, once granted, the Public Access Easement thereon), to implement and oversee the maintenance and repair (and to procure and maintain insurance) of same, including any structural supports, in accordance with the standards of the Department of Transportation for maintenance of public streets. The cost of such physical maintenance and repair will be shared proportionately by the Owner of Parcel J-2, the Aldyn Board, the Owner of Parcel K-2, and the Condominium Board, in accordance with the proportions provided for in the RSPO Declaration and the K-2 ZLDA (as defined herein). The Dominant Owner shall bill the other owners for their respective proportionate shares of this expense, which may include, without limitation, the eventual creation of a reserve fund for future repair and maintenance work, as the Dominant Owner shall in its discretion determine, and each of the other owners shall pay its respective share to the Dominant Owner. The costs allocated to the Condominium will be charged to Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests. As the owner, RSPOA is responsible for payment of real estate taxes for the 62nd Street Public Access Area as well as the other Public Access Areas created under the Mapping Agreement and will charge the Sponsor, or the Condominium Board, as applicable, in accordance with the RSPO Declaration.

Purchasers are further advised that until such time that the 62nd Street Public Access Area is conveyed to the RSPOA, the Owner of Parcel J-2, the Aldyn Board and Sponsor (or the Condominium Board following the First Closing) are responsible for maintenance, procuring and maintaining insurance and payment of real estate taxes to the City of New York with respect to the 62nd Street Public Access Area. Sponsor, or the Condominium Board, as applicable, reserves the right to charge Unit Owners for such amounts owed by the Condominium in proportion to their respective Common Interests.

(See the Section entitled "Agreements Binding on the Condominium" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

(c) Parcel K-2

Sponsor, in its capacity as Development Parcel Owner of Parcel K-2, has entered into the K-2 PSA, dated February 4, 2013, with Collegiate School. The K-2 PSA contemplates, among other things, fee title to Parcel K-2 will be conveyed by Sponsor to Collegiate School, and in connection with such conveyance, Sponsor and Collegiate School will enter into: (i) an easement for light and air for the benefit of Parcel K-1, and (ii) the K-2 ZLDA. A school is anticipated to be constructed on Parcel K-2 subsequent to such conveyance. Sponsor makes no representation that Parcel K-2 will ultimately be conveyed to Collegiate School. (See the Section entitled "Agreements Binding on the Condominium" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

26. Lot Line Windows

The windows on the Building base's east façade are located on the tax lot boundary between the Property and Parcel K-2. It is anticipated that Sponsor will enter into an easement for perpetual light and air for the benefit of the Property. Such agreement will be between Sponsor and either Sponsor in its capacity as Development Parcel Owner of Parcel K-2, or Collegiate School in accordance with the terms of the K-2 PSA. No zoning lot line windows exist. (See "Description of Property and Specifications" as set forth as Exhibit 4 in Part II of the Plan for further discussion.)

27. Signage

There will be signs, notices, advertisements and illuminations (collectively "Signage") in various exterior portions of the Building, on or at windows and in interior public spaces of the Building, which may be affixed by the Tower Board, the Condominium Board and/or one or more of the Commercial Unit Owners, all as provided in the Condominium By-Laws. The Condominium By-Laws contain general guidelines governing Signage. Sponsor makes no representation and shall have no liability whatsoever with respect thereto. Such Signage may include, without limitation, the name of the Building and/or the Condominium, the identity of the stores occupying all or any portion of the Commercial Units. The Tower Board will have approval rights and will control any signage proposed to be placed within or upon the Tower Limited Common Elements and on the exterior windows of any Tower Unit.

28. Use of Condominium Name or Likeness Prohibited

No individual Tower Unit Owner (other than Sponsor or Declarant or its/their designee) may use the name or likeness of the Building or the Condominium to promote or in connection with any commercial venture.

The projection of the real estate taxes that will be payable for each of the Tower Units during the projected First Year of Condominium Operation, is based upon an opinion of counsel letter prepared by Marcus & Pollack LLP, Sponsor's real estate tax attorney (the "Real Estate Tax Opinion").

As per the Real Estate Tax Opinion, by applying the estimated rate of 13.181% to the estimated transitional assessed value of $61,200,000, it is estimated that the real estate taxes for the Tower Units will be approximately $8,066,772 for the First Year of Condominium Operation (without an exemption pursuant to Section 421-a). (The Real Estate Tax Opinion is reproduced in the subsection entitled "Real Estate Tax Opinion" in the Section entitled "Opinions of Counsel" in Part I of the Plan.)

Sponsor intends to apply for partial exemption from real estate taxes with respect to the Building pursuant to Section 421-a of the New York State Real Property Tax Law. Pursuant to Section 421-a, the real estate tax estimate for the First Year of Condominium Operations will be based upon the assessed valuation of the Property in the tax year prior to the commencement of construction. During the tax year prior to the commencement of construction (2011/2012), the estimated allocated total taxable assessed value of the Land is $2,825,808, of which 83.59% is estimated to be applicable to the Tower Units in the Building, which, results in a "mini-tax" assessment of $2,362,093 for the Tower Units. NEITHER SPONSOR, SPONSOR'S COUNSEL, HOLLAND & KNIGHT LLP (SPONSOR'S 421-a TAX COUNSEL), SELLING AGENT, MANAGING AGENT NOR ANY OTHER PERSON MAKES ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY THAT A PARTIAL TAX EXEMPTION FROM REAL ESTATE TAXES UNDER SECTION 421-A WILL BE GRANTED OR, AS TO THE AMOUNT, IF ANY, OF THE MINIMUM TAX WHICH WILL BE ASSESSED AGAINST THE TOWER UNITS OR THE AMOUNT OF REAL ESTATE TAXES PAYABLE AT ANY TIME BY ANY TOWER UNIT OWNER. There is no guaranty or assurance that the criteria for Section 421-a benefits will be satisfied and neither Sponsor nor Sponsor's Counsel, Sponsor's 421-a Tax Counsel offers any opinion with respect to the eligibility of the Tower Units for Section 421-a benefits. If, for any reason, the application is not approved by HPD, the Tower Units will be subject to full taxation and will receive no benefits under Section 421-a. In such case Purchasers will not be entitled to any right of rescission, reduction in price or other credit or concession. (See the Section entitled "Partial Real Estate Tax Exemption (Section 421-a)" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.)

No guaranty or assurance is given that: (i) any of the assumptions described above will be valid; (ii) any projected or estimated amount set forth above (including, without limitation, the estimates of the Property's assessed valuations during the First Year of Condominium Operation, the estimates of the portions of such assessed valuations that will be allocable to the Units and the projection of the average real estate tax rate that will be in effect during such first year) will approximate the actual amount; (iii) the estimated or actual amount of assessed value of the Property following the projected First Year of Condominium Operation and the taxes payable based upon such assessment (which may be significantly higher to the extent that a portion of the Property is not fully assessed during such First Year); or (iv) the Real Estate Tax Assessment Bureau of the New York City Department of Finance will allocate the Property's aggregate assessed valuation between the Units or classifications of Units in accordance with the values and methods used by Sponsor's real estate tax attorney for such purpose, or that such bureau will allocate the aggregate assessed valuation attributable to the Units among the different Units. Sponsor will amend the Plan promptly to disclose the same if it discovers that any of such assumptions are invalid as well as after the Units have been assessed and the applicable tax rate determined.

Until the Units are separately assessed, each Tower Unit Owner will pay a share of the Property's real estate taxes for the period in question calculated on the basis of such Unit's Common Interest. The Tower Board will pay (or cause to be paid) such real estate taxes timely to the Department of Finance of The City of New York, or directly to Sponsor if Sponsor has paid such taxes, so that no lien will be placed on any portion of the Tower Section or on any Tower Unit. If Sponsor fails to pay real estate taxes attributable to any Unsold Tower Unit in a timely manner and as a result of such failure a lien is placed on the Tower Section and/or any other Unit, Sponsor will immediately cause such lien to be removed at its sole cost and expense. If Tower Unit Owners fail to pay their pro rata share of real estate taxes as set forth above, the Tower Board will be entitled to assess late charges and/or place a lien on their Units as if such unpaid share were Tower Common Charges. (See the subsection entitled "Collection and Lien for Non-Payment of Common Charges" in the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of the Unit Owners and the Board of Managers" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.) A Unit Owner will not be responsible for the payment of, and will not be subject to any lien arising from the non-payment of real estate taxes assessed against any other Units. At such time as a Unit is separately assessed and separate tax bills are issued, the Unit Owner will pay such taxes directly to the taxing authority.

There is no assurance that the proration of taxes described in the paragraph above will equal the actual amount of real estate taxes which will be assessed against the Units, and the actual amounts may vary considerably from the method set forth above.

Real estate taxes will be adjusted between Sponsor and each Purchaser at the closing of title to each Unit based on the period for which real estate taxes have been prepaid by Sponsor either directly to the taxing authority or as part of Common Charges. If real estate taxes have been separately assessed to each Unit as of the closing, then the adjustment shall be based on the Unit's actual taxes for such period. If the real estate taxes have not been separately assessed to each Unit as of the closing, then the adjustment shall be determined by allocating to the Unit in question a prorated portion of the actual taxes for the Building for such period as described generally above and determined as provided in the By-Laws.

T. PARTIAL REAL ESTATE TAX EXEMPTION (SECTION 421-a)

Sponsor intends to apply on behalf of the Tower Unit Owners, to the New York City Department of Housing Preservation & Development ("HPD") for real estate tax exemptions under Section 421-a of the New York Real Property Tax Law ("Section 421-a"). Sponsor intends to apply under Section 421-a for a 20-year phased in, real estate tax exemption for other Tower Units (the "Exemption"). As the Property is located in the Geographic Exclusion Area (as defined under RPTL), Sponsor intends to obtain such real estate tax benefits by setting aside twenty percent (20%) of the apartments in the Condominium for low income households (i.e., the Rental Apartments). As required by HPD, Sponsor will be required to enter into a restrictive declaration pursuant to which it will agree, inter alia, that the Rental Apartments will be registered as rent stabilized apartments with the DHCR and remain affordable to low income households permanently.

NEITHER SPONSOR, SPONSOR'S COUNSEL, HOLLAND & KNIGHT LLP (SPONSOR'S 421-a TAX COUNSEL), SELLING AGENT, MANAGING AGENT NOR ANY OTHER PERSON MAKES ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY THAT A PARTIAL TAX EXEMPTION FROM REAL ESTATE TAXES UNDER SECTION 421-A WILL BE GRANTED OR, AS TO THE AMOUNT, IF ANY, OF THE MINIMUM TAX WHICH WILL BE ASSESSED AGAINST THE TOWER UNITS OR THE AMOUNT OF REAL ESTATE TAXES PAYABLE AT ANY TIME BY ANY TOWER UNIT OWNER. There is no guaranty or assurance that the criteria for Section 421-a benefits will be satisfied and neither Sponsor nor Sponsor's Counsel, Sponsor's 421-a Tax Counsel offers any opinion with respect to the eligibility of the Tower Units for Section 421-a benefits. If, for any reason, the application is not approved by HPD, the Tower Units will be subject to full taxation and will receive no benefits under Section 421-a. In such case Purchasers will not be entitled to any right of rescission, reduction in price or other credit or concession. (See Schedule A of the Plan for projected monthly real estate taxes for each Tower Unit with and without the benefits under Section 421-a).

Prospective purchasers should note that increases in a property's assessed valuation resulting from changes in its market value (other than changes resulting from new construction or alteration of an existing improvement) are phased in over five (5) fiscal tax years in annual increments of twenty percent (20%) each. Any further increase in assessed valuation during such five-(5) year period resulting from a still higher market value is similarly phased in over an additional five-(5) year period from the date of such increase. The full increased assessed valuation targeted to be in effect after the end of the five-(5) year period is called the "actual" assessed valuation, and the amount of the incremental assessed valuation upon which taxes are actually computed for each fiscal tax year during such five-(5) year period is called the "transitional" assessed valuation.

Prospective purchasers should note that the real estate taxes that will be payable by the Unit Owners for future years will vary in accordance with the amounts of the Unit's assessed valuation (transitional and actual) and of the real estate tax rate. With regard to the Exemption, prospective purchasers should note that, assuming the partial exemption from real estate taxes pursuant to Section 421-a is maintained, the real estate taxes payable by the Unit Owners will in any event increase periodically over the twenty (20) years of condominium ownership as an integral part of the Section 421-a program. Subject to a minimum required tax (the "mini-tax"), the twenty (20) year exemption from taxation consists of twelve (12) years of full exemption, followed by two (2) years of exemption from eighty percent (80%) of such taxation, followed by two (2) years of exemption from sixty percent (60%) of such taxation, followed by two (2) years of exemption from forty percent (40%) of such taxation, followed by two (2) years of exemption from twenty percent (20%) of such taxation.

20-year Exemption

Benefit Years	% of Exemption
1-12	100%
13-14	80%
15-16	60%
17-18	40%

Sponsor will keep all records required by HPD and will make them available to HPD whenever requested to do so. HPD routinely conducts audits which can result in the reduction or revocation of benefits if proper documentation is not provided. Upon recording of the Declaration, Sponsor will make all tax benefit documents available to the Condominium Board and Tower Board for inspection and copying for the life of the benefits and Sponsor will file all applications and timely comply with all procedures required to properly process and maintain the tax benefits.

U. INCOME TAX DEDUCTIONS TO TOWER UNIT OWNERS AND TAX STATUS OF CONDOMINIUM

The following discussion of certain income tax consequences of the Plan was prepared by Sponsor based, in part, upon the opinion of Sponsor's Counsel, a copy of which opinion is included herein in the Section of the Plan entitled "Opinions of Counsel." Prospective Purchasers should refer to such opinion letter itself for a more detailed discussion of the tax consequences summarized below.

Prospective Purchasers should note that the opinion letter addresses the tax consequences that would result from the ownership of a Tower Unit by an individual resident of New York City for use as a qualified residence, as further described herein. It does not address, among other things, the tax consequences that might result from the ownership of a Tower Unit by a taxpayer who is not an individual and a resident of New York City, including corporations and other entities, and foreign individuals and entities. It also does not address the tax consequences that might result from the ownership of a Tower Unit that is held by an individual taxpayer in connection with his or her trade or business, for investment, or for the production of income. Further, the opinion letter does not address the tax consequences that might result from the ownership of a Commercial Unit or a Storage License.

KRAMER LEVIN NAFTALIS & FRANKEL LLP IS COUNSEL TO SPONSOR AND NOT TO ANY PURCHASER UNDER THE PLAN. EACH PURCHASER SHOULD CONSULT WITH HIS OR HER OWN TAX COUNSEL, ACCOUNTANT OR OTHER FINANCIAL ADVISOR AS TO THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE OWNERSHIP OF A RESIDENTIAL UNIT.

1. Deductibility of Real Estate Taxes and Mortgage Interest

Each Tower Unit Owner will own legal (fee simple) title to his or her Tower Unit, together with an undivided interest in the Common Elements. Subject to certain restrictions, each Tower Unit Owner may mortgage his or her Tower Unit, and thereby become individually liable for the payment of the principal and any finance charges or interest on such mortgage indebtedness. Additionally, each Tower Unit will be a separate tax lot for purposes of New York City real property taxes and assessments. As a result, each Tower Unit Owner will be individually liable for the real property taxes and assessments levied against his or her Tower Unit.

Generally, it is the opinion of Sponsor's Counsel that each Tower Unit Owner who itemizes deductions will, under the present income tax laws and regulations, for Federal, New York State and New York City income tax purposes, subject to certain qualifications and limitations discussed below, be entitled to a deduction for:

(a) the state and local real property taxes assessed against his or her Tower Unit and paid by such Tower Unit Owner; and

(b) "qualified residence interest" paid by such Tower Unit Owner with respect to such Tower Unit.

Qualified residence interest includes interest paid by the Tower Unit Owner on: (i) debt used to acquire, construct or substantially improve any "qualified residence," as defined below, and secured by such residence, up to $1,000,000 in the aggregate ($500,000 in the case of a married individual filing a separate return); and (ii) in general, other indebtedness secured by a qualified residence, up to $100,000 in the aggregate ($50,000 in the case of a married individual filing a separate return). Interest on home mortgage indebtedness in excess of these limitations is not deductible.

A "qualified residence" generally means: (i) the "principal residence" of the Tower Unit Owner and (ii) one other residence selected by the Tower Unit Owner, provided that, if such other residence is rented at any time during the taxable year, it will not be a qualified residence unless the taxpayer uses it for personal purposes for a number of days which exceeds the greater of (i) fourteen (14) days or (ii) ten percent (10%) of the number of days during such year for which such unit is rented at a fair value.

Prospective Purchasers should note that no deduction will be allowed to a cash basis taxpayer in the year of payment for prepaid interest (except in the case of "points" paid under certain circumstances), and that the deductions for state and local real property taxes and qualified residence interest may be subject to the overall limitation on the allowance of itemized deductions for federal income tax purposes. No deduction for state and local real property taxes is permitted for purposes of the Federal alternative minimum tax and interest deductions may be limited for such purposes. New York State and New York City limitations on deductions may also apply.

No portion of the Common Charges payable by Tower Unit Owners attributable to real property taxes assessed against the Resident Manager's Unit (which will be owned by the Tower Board on behalf of all Tower Unit Owners) or interest on any mortgage indebtedness the Tower Board incurs to acquire or refinance the Resident Manager's Unit will be deductible by a Tower Unit Owner.

2. Taxation of the Condominium

In certain circumstances, a condominium board may elect to be treated as a "homeowners association" within the meaning of section 528(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") and, therefore, could elect to be exempt from Federal income tax on amounts received as membership dues, fees, or assessments from owners of condominium housing units ("exempt function income"). In order for the Condominium Board or the Tower Board to qualify to make such an election, Code section 528 and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder require, among other things, that at least eighty-five percent (85%) of the total square footage of all the units within the Tower Section, in the case of the Tower Board or the Condominium, in the case of the Condominium Board, be used by individuals for residential purposes and that the condominium board meet certain gross income and expenditure tests.

It is currently anticipated that more than eighty-five percent (85%) of the total square footage of all the Tower Units in the Tower Section will be used by individuals for residential purposes. If such residential use requirement is in fact satisfied, and provided the other requirements of Code section 528 are satisfied, the Tower Board should be eligible to make this election. For any taxable year for which the Tower Board is eligible to and does elect to be treated as a homeowners association under Code section 528, the Tower Board will be subject to a tax equal to thirty percent (30%) of its taxable income, which is defined as its non-exempt function income less the allowable deductions (computed with certain modifications) directly connected with the production of such income.

In addition, since it is currently anticipated that less than eighty-five percent (85%) of the total square footage of the Units in the Condominium will be used for residential purposes, the Condominium Board will not be eligible to elect to be treated as a homeowners association.

The status of a condominium board for Federal, New York State, and New York City income tax purposes is uncertain where (i) the condominium board is not eligible to elect to be treated as a homeowners association under Code section 528 (as will be the case with respect to the Condominium Board) or (ii) the condominium board is eligible to elect to be treated as a homeowners association under Code section 528, but does not make such an election (as could be the case with respect to the Tower Board). Absent the application of Code section 528, if the Tower Board or the Condominium Board are deemed to be merely conduits for the Tower Unit Owners and the Unit Owners, respectively, rather than as separate taxpayers, all income earned by the Tower Board or the Condominium Board, less the expenses incurred in earning such income, could be deemed to constitute income to the Tower Unit Owners and Unit Owners, respectively, and be taxable to them.

If the Tower Board or the Condominium Board were to be treated as a separate entity, it is unclear whether each Board would be taxable as a corporation or treated as a partnership. If the Tower Board or the Condominium is taxable as a corporation, such Board would be considered a separate taxpayer with respect to income and deductions and return filing requirements and would be subject to Federal corporate income tax, the New York State Corporation Franchise Tax and the New York City General Corporation Tax. If the Tower Board or the Condominium Board were treated as a partnership, the Tower Unit Owners or Unit Owners, respectively, (but not the Tower Board or the Condominium Board) would be subject to Federal and New York State income tax on the taxable income of the applicable Board. In addition, in that instance the Tower Board or the Condominium Board may be subject to the New York City Unincorporated Business Tax. In determining the taxable income of the Tower Board or the Condominium Board, the deductions attributable to furnishing services to Tower Unit Owners or Unit Owners may be limited to membership income. Certain amounts expended for the benefit of Tower Unit Owners or Unit Owners, and possibly rebates, if any, to Tower Unit Owners or Unit Owners of excess membership dues, fees or assessments, may be treated as distributions to them.

No representations or warranties are given that the Internal Revenue Service, the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance or the New York City Department of Finance will allow any of the deductions mentioned in this Section U of the Plan or that the tax laws or the regulations or rulings issued thereunder, or any judicial interpretation thereof, upon which counsel to Sponsor bases its opinion, will not change. In addition, no warranties are given by Sponsor, Sponsor's counsel, the Tower Board, the Condominium Board, the Selling Agent, the Managing Agent or any other person connected with this offering, with respect to the tax consequences of the Plan or the tax consequences of ownership of any Tower Units offered under the Plan, and no one has been authorized to give any such representations or warranties.

Internal Revenue Service Circular 230 Disclosure. This discussion was written to support the promotion or marketing of the sale of Tower Units. To ensure compliance with requirements imposed by the Internal Revenue Service, Purchasers are advised that this discussion was not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used, by any taxpayer, including Purchasers of Tower Units, for the purpose of avoiding tax-related penalties that may be imposed on the taxpayer under the Code. Purchasers of Units should seek advice based on their particular circumstances from an independent tax advisor.

Re: Condominium Offering Plan for Riverside K-1 Condominium (the "Condominium")

To Whom it May Concern:

You have requested our opinion concerning (i) the deductibility, for Federal, New York State and New York City income tax purposes, of mortgage interest and state and local real property taxes paid by individual residents of New York City who purchase Tower Units pursuant to the above-referenced Offering Plan (the "Plan"), and (ii) the income tax treatment to the Tower Board and the Condominium Board of the assessments payable by Tower Unit Owners to meet common expenses of the Tower Section and the Condominium ("Common Charges").

In connection with rendering this opinion, we have reviewed this Plan (including the exhibits thereto), relevant sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), the New York State Tax Law, the New York City Administrative Code, the Regulations promulgated thereunder and such other material as we deemed relevant. The opinions expressed herein are based upon the assumptions that (1) this Plan is accepted for filing by the New York State Department of Law and is consummated in accordance with its terms, (2) condominium ownership of Tower Units located in the Tower Section in the premises known as Riverside K-1 Condominium is established under applicable law, and (3) the legal consequences of the Plan are as described therein. Except where otherwise indicated, the terms used in this opinion have the same meaning as in the Plan.

This Plan provides for the establishment of condominium ownership of the land and building, and appurtenances thereto, comprising the Condominium, situated on the east side of Riverside Boulevard between West 61st Street and West 62nd Street to be known by the street address 40 Riverside Boulevard, New York, New York. The Condominium will be comprised of Tower Units, Storage Closets, Commercial Units (comprised of the Rental Unit; two (2) Retail Units; two (2) Community Facility Units; and the Garage Unit), and Common Elements. This opinion addresses certain Federal, New York State and New York City income tax consequences that would result from the ownership of a Tower Unit by an individual who is a resident of New York City for tax purposes and uses the Tower Unit as a qualified residence. It does not address, among other things, ownership or occupancy of Tower Units by taxpayers who are not individual residents of New York City for tax purposes, including corporations and other entities, and foreign individuals or entities; the ownership by any individual or entity of a Storage Closet or any Commercial Unit; the tax consequences which may result with respect to any Tower Units held in connection with a trade or business, for investment purposes or for the production of income; or the estate tax consequences of ownership of Tower Units.

Deductibility of Mortgage Interest and State and Local Real Property Taxes

Each Tower Unit Owner will own his or her Tower Unit and an undivided interest in certain Common Elements in fee simple and, under New York State Law, each Tower Unit (including its undivided interest in the Common Elements) will be taxed as a separate parcel for New York real property tax purposes. Each Tower Unit Owner may mortgage his or her Tower Unit and become individually liable for the payment of the principal and any finance charges or interest on such mortgage indebtedness, and will be liable to the local tax authority for the tax assessment with respect to his or her interest in the Tower Unit. Under these circumstances, the Internal Revenue Service has ruled that the owner of a residential condominium unit who itemizes deductions in filing his or her Federal income tax returns may deduct interest paid on his or her mortgage indebtedness and the state and local real property taxes assessed and paid on his or her interest in the property. Rev. Rul. 64-31, 1964-1 (Part I) C.B. 300.

Based on the foregoing, and subject to the limitations expressed herein, it is our opinion that each individual Tower Unit Owner who itemizes deductions will be entitled under current Federal income tax law to deduct from his or her gross income, the New York real property taxes assessed against his or her Tower Unit and paid by the Tower Unit Owner to the local authority, subject to the Federal overall limitation on itemized deductions as set forth in section 68 of the Code. Further, no deduction for state and local real property taxes is permitted for purposes of the Federal alternative minimum tax. Tower Unit Owners should consult their tax advisers regarding (i) the applicability of the Federal overall limitation on itemized deductions to the deductibility of state and local real property taxes and (ii) the effect of the alternative minimum tax.

A taxpayer is entitled to a deduction for Federal income tax purposes for interest paid during the taxable year on "acquisition indebtedness" or "home equity indebtedness" with respect to a "qualified residence" of the taxpayer. A "qualified residence" generally means: (i) the principal residence of the taxpayer and (ii) one other residence selected by such taxpayer, provided that, if such other residence is rented at any time during the taxable year, it will not be a qualified residence unless the taxpayer uses it for personal purposes for a number of days which exceeds the greater of (i) fourteen (14) days or (ii) ten percent (10%) of the number of days during such year for which such unit is rented at a fair value. "Acquisition indebtedness" means any indebtedness which is secured by any qualified residence of the taxpayer and which is incurred in acquiring, constructing or substantially improving the qualified residence (or which constitutes a refinancing thereof, to the extent that such indebtedness does not exceed the amount of the refinanced debt). The aggregate amount treated as acquisition indebtedness for any period cannot exceed $1,000,000 ($500,000 in the case of a married individual filing a separate return). "Home equity indebtedness" means any indebtedness (other than acquisition indebtedness) secured by a qualified residence, up to the excess of the fair market value of such qualified residence over the amount of acquisition indebtedness with respect to such residence. The aggregate amount treated as home equity indebtedness for any period cannot exceed $100,000

($50,000 in the case of a married individual filing a separate return). Accordingly, an owner of a Tower Unit who itemizes deductions and who uses such Tower Unit as a qualified residence will be entitled, under current Federal income tax law, to deduct from his or her gross income, subject to the Federal overall limitation on itemized deductions, interest paid by him or her on (i) acquisition indebtedness incurred with respect to such Tower Unit to the extent that such indebtedness, when added to the amount of acquisition indebtedness incurred with respect to a second qualified residence (if any), does not exceed $1,000,000 ($500,000 in the case of a married individual filing a separate return) and (ii) home equity indebtedness with respect to his or her Tower Unit to the extent that such indebtedness, when added to the amount of home equity indebtedness incurred with respect to a second qualified residence (if any), does not exceed $100,000 ($50,000 in the case of a married individual filing a separate return). Further, no deduction will be allowed to a cash basis taxpayer in the year of payment for prepaid interest (except in the case of "points" paid under certain circumstances). The rules and limitations regarding the deductibility of home mortgage interest are complex, and thus, Purchasers are urged to consult their tax advisers regarding the application of such rules to them, as well as regarding the deductibility of interest with respect to their Tower Units for alternative minimum tax purposes (which at present is subject to rules different from those described above for regular tax purposes). Tower Unit Owners should consult their tax advisers regarding (i) the applicability of the Federal overall limitation on itemized deductions to the deductibility of interest paid on mortgage indebtedness and (ii) the effect of the alternative minimum tax.

Each owner of a Tower Unit who uses such Tower Unit as a residence will generally be entitled to the same deduction for interest and real property taxes paid or accrued with respect to such Tower Unit for New York State and New York City income tax purposes as is allowed for Federal (regular) income tax purposes. However, under New York State and New York City income tax law, itemized deductions, such as interest and real property tax deductions, are subject to reduction by as much as 100% in the case of individuals having income exceeding certain prescribed levels. Furthermore, Purchasers should consult their tax advisers to determine the application, if any, of the New York State and New York City minimum tax to the deduction for interest and real property taxes with respect to their Tower Units.

Common Charges

Under the Plan, the Tower Board and the Condominium Board will, from time to time, assess Common Charges against the Tower Unit Owners, generally in proportion to their respective percentage interests in the Common Elements in order to pay the costs and expenses of operating, repairing, and maintaining all such Common Elements.

In certain circumstances, a condominium board may elect to be treated as a "homeowners association" within the meaning of section 528(c) of the Code and, therefore, could elect to be exempt from Federal income taxes on amounts received as membership dues, fees, or assessments from owners of condominium housing units ("exempt function income"). In order for the Tower Board or the Condominium Board to qualify to make such an election, Code section 528 and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder require, among other things, that at least eighty-five percent (85%) of the total square footage of all of the Units within the Tower Section (in the case of the Tower Board), or within the Condominium (in the case of the Condominium Board), be used by individuals for residential purposes and that the respective Board meet certain gross income and expenditure tests.

With respect to the Tower Board, it is currently anticipated that more than eighty-five percent (85%) of the total square footage of all of the Units in the Tower Section will be used by individuals for residential purposes. If such residential use requirement is in fact satisfied, and provided the other requirements of Code section 528 are satisfied, the Tower Board will be eligible to make this election. For any taxable year for which the Tower Board is eligible to and does so elect to be treated as a homeowners association under Code section 528, the Tower Board will be subject to a tax equal to thirty percent (30%) of its taxable income, which is defined as its non-exempt function income less allowable deductions (computed with certain modifications) directly connected with the production of such income.

With respect to the Condominium Board, it is currently anticipated that less than eighty-five percent (85%) of the total square footage of all of the Units in the Condominium will be used for residential purposes, and therefore, the Condominium Board will not be eligible to elect to be treated as a homeowners association.

Absent the application of Code section 528, the status of a condominium board for Federal, New York State, and New York City income tax purposes is not clear, as will be the case with respect to the Condominium Board and the Residential Board, if the Residential Board qualifies but fails to elect to be treated as a homeowners association under section 528. If the Condominium Board or the Residential Board do not qualify under section 528, the present state of the law is uncertain as to the proper reporting and tax treatment of the income of the Condominium Board and the Residential Board derived from Unit Owners ("membership income") and others ("nonmembership income") in excess of appropriate deductions and credits. It is possible that the Condominium Board and the Residential Board could be viewed as agents or conduits for Unit Owners, in which case each Residential Unit Owner would be required to report his or her proportionate share of nonmembership and possibly membership income (and the deductions attributable thereto) directly on his or her own tax return. Alternatively, the Internal Revenue Service may take the position that the Condominium Board and the Residential Board should be treated as separate entities. In that case, it is unclear whether the Condominium Board and the Residential Board would be taxable as corporations or treated as partnerships. If the Condominium Board and the Residential Board were taxable as corporations, they would be considered separate taxpayers with respect to income and deductions, and return filing requirements and would be subject to Federal corporate income tax, the New York State Corporation Franchise Tax and the New York City General Corporation Tax. If the Condominium Board and the Residential Board were treated as partnerships, the Residential Unit Owners would be subject to Federal, New York State, and New York City income tax on their proportionate share of taxable income of the Condominium Board and the Residential Board. In determining the taxable income of the Condominium Board and the Residential Board, the Condominium Board's and the Residential Board's deductions attributable to furnishing services to Unit Owners may be limited to their membership income. Certain amounts expended for the benefit of Unit Owners, and possibly rebates, if any, to Unit Owners of excess membership dues, fees or assessments, may be treated as distributions to them.

We express no opinion concerning: (a) any Federal, New York State or New York City tax consequences not explicitly discussed in this opinion, (b) any other aspects of the Plan other than those consequences and aspects explicitly discussed in this opinion, or (c) the tax status and tax consequences of this Plan, including the ownership of a Tower Unit, under the laws of any state other than New York, local jurisdiction other than New York City, or foreign jurisdiction. Except as explicitly provided, this opinion does not address: (i) the tax consequences of the ownership or occupancy of Tower Units by individuals who are not residents of New York City, including corporations and other entities, and foreign individuals and entities; (ii) the ownership by any individual or entity of a Storage Closet or any Commercial Unit; (iii) the tax consequences which may result with respect to any Tower Units held in connection with a trade or business, for investment purposes or for the production of income; or (iv) estate tax consequences of ownership of Tower Units. This opinion also does not discuss the tax consequences which may arise if Tower Units or Common Elements are acquired by the Condominium Board or Tower Board or the issue of whether a Tower Unit Owner may be deemed to be a resident of the United States, New York State, or New York City as a result of the ownership of a Tower Unit. We advise, therefore, that each person contemplating the purchase of a Tower Unit consult his or her own tax adviser concerning all such tax matters, as well as with respect to the matters discussed in this opinion.

It should be noted that this opinion is based solely on the facts and documents referred to above and is not binding on the Internal Revenue Service, the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance, or the New York City Department of Finance. Moreover, the Federal, New York State and New York City tax laws and regulations and the rulings and decisions thereunder may change and thereby affect the opinions stated above in whole or in part, possibly with retroactive effect. We undertake no obligation to update, modify or supplement this opinion in the event of any such change in applicable law, although we have advised Sponsor that it is obligated to do so.

This opinion is not a guarantee; it is based on existing rules of law applied to the facts and documents referred to above. No assurances can be given that the tax laws upon which we base this opinion will not change. In no event will we, Sponsor, the Tower Board, the Condominium Board, the Selling Agent, the Managing Agent or any other person be liable if there are changes in the facts on which we relied in issuing this opinion or if there are changes in the applicable statutes, regulations, rulings or decisions on which we relied which cause the Tower Unit Owners not to be entitled to the income tax deductions described above or which affect the tax treatment of the Tower Board or the Condominium Board as described herein.

Internal Revenue Service Circular 230 Disclosure

This opinion was written to support the promotion or marketing of the sale of Tower Units. To ensure compliance with requirements imposed by the Internal Revenue Service, we are informing you that this opinion was not intended or written by us to be used, and cannot be used, by any taxpayer, including purchasers of Tower Units, for the purpose of avoiding tax-related penalties that may be imposed on the taxpayer under the Code. Purchasers of Tower Units should seek advice based on their particular circumstances from an independent tax advisor.

Re: One Riverside Park Condominium (the "Condominium")

Ladies and Gentlemen:

You have requested our opinion regarding the allocation of common interests to the Units at the Condominium as required by NYCRR Section 20.3(y)(5). Except where otherwise indicated, the terms used in this opinion shall have the same meaning as set forth in the Offering Plan (the "Plan") for the Condominium.

In connection with rendering this opinion we have reviewed the allocation of Common Interests of the Units as shown on Schedule A of the Plan to be included in the Declaration establishing the Condominium. We have also considered the relevant sections of the New York State Condominium Act and such other materials as we deemed relevant. Our opinion is based upon the factual determinations made by Halstead Management Company as set forth in its opinion contained in the Plan as required by NYCRR Section 20.3(i). We have made no independent investigation of the truth or accuracy of the factual determinations of Halstead Management Company.

Based upon our review of the foregoing, we have determined that Common Interests were allocated to the Units pursuant to the method set forth in Real Property Law ("RPL") Section 339-i(1)(iv), i.e., based upon floor space, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Unit, the availability of Common Elements for exclusive or shared use and the overall dimensions of the particular Unit.

Accordingly, based on the foregoing it is our opinion that RPL Section 339-i has been complied with in assigning Common Interests to the Units. This opinion, while based upon existing rules of law applied to the facts and documents referred to above, is not a guarantee to Purchasers. In no event will the Sponsor, Kramer Levin Naftalis & Frankel LLP, Selling Agent, the Managing Agents or the Boards be liable if there are changes in the facts on which we have relied in issuing this opinion or if there are changes in RPL Section 339 or other applicable law.

Very truly yours,

Re: Real Estate Tax Opinion
Residential Condominium Tower
50 Riverside Boulevard
Manhattan, Block 1171, Lot 150
Condominium
Tax Lots Will Be Created

Dear Sir/Madam:

Pursuant to your request, we have reviewed the information furnished by your office regarding the above-referenced development project as a new residential condominium development.

You have requested that we project real estate tax liability for the Residential Condominium Tower section only for the above referenced premises for the first year of condominium operation, with and without regard to any section 421-a partial tax exemption benefits for which the parcel may qualify.

50 Riverside Blvd LLC an affiliate of Extell Development Company, is constructing a mixed use development that will include two (2) residential components; one (1) retail component and two (2) community facility components and a garage unit component. One of the residential components will contain 219 individual units (the "Residential Condominium Tower") and consist of approximately 510,000 gross square feet. The second residential component will contain 55 affordable units located in a separate and single condominium tax lot ("The Residential Unit"). This letter addresses only the Residential Condominium Tower which consists of 510,000 residential gross square feet.

Real property tax assessments are subjective determinations made by individual assessors within the New York City Department of Finance ("DOF"). Accordingly, it is impossible to predict what the assessed value of the above-referenced property will be. However, it is possible to estimate an approximate assessed value of a property based upon an analysis of the factors that influence market value, such as time, location, construction cost, neighborhood quality, and economic trends.

There are three recognized appraisal methods which are employed by the Real Property Assessment Department to determine the full market value of income producing real property. These methods are the original cost method, capitalization of income approach and the sales price comparison method.

The original cost method is based on the theory that the value of a given property is reflected by its cost of construction plus the acquisition cost of the underlying land. This method of valuation is considered a significant indicator of value with respect to new buildings. Relevant data used in the cost method includes material and labor ("hard") costs, and financing, engineering, architectural, testing and professional fees and construction period taxes ("soft") costs.

The capitalization of income method is based upon the proposition that the annual net income generated by a property, when divided by the rate of return an investor at a given time would accept for his money in a competing investment, yields a close estimate of the market value of the property. In the past the Department of Finance has used gross income multipliers to arrive at an assessed value for residential rental properties. However, the Department of Finance has recently indicated that they will no longer utilize this approach to value.

The sales price comparison method is founded upon the belief that value can be ascertained by surveying market prices of comparable properties. Market value has been defined as that price which a property would bring in a competitive and open market, wherein both buyer and seller are acting prudently, knowledgeably and assuming the price is not affected by undue stimulus. However, the addition of sale prices of individual units may not be the basis for arriving at the assessed valuation of a residential condominium or cooperative housing corporation.

Real Property Tax Law Section 581 requires that DOF assess residential condominiums without regard to their form of ownership. This requirement has been interpreted to mean that cooperatives and condominiums are to be assessed as if they were rental properties thus, requiring a valuation based upon the capitalization of income utilizing rents imputed from comparable rental properties.

In estimating the assessed valuations herein, we therefore examined comparable rents from other newly constructed apartment buildings in the area of the Project. In addition, we have also studied the assessed valuations of newly constructed residential buildings in the area and throughout Manhattan. These comparable assessment studies have enabled us to ascertain the current assessing policies of the City of New York with regard to newly constructed residential buildings. However, there are no assurances that these policies will remain unchanged, or that the indicators of market value will not be adjusted prior to the completion of the referenced project, resulting in an assessment differing from the estimate contained herein.

In deriving our projected valuations, we have considered both the capitalization of income based upon comparable rents, as well as, the assessed valuation studies. For our estimate we have relied primarily on the study of assessed valuation of newly constructed residential buildings. All prospective purchasers are advised that although our estimate of the property's assessed valuation upon completion is a good faith estimate; the assessment when actually made, may be significantly less or greater than estimated herein.

You have advised us of the following facts regarding the project:

1. The project will result in the construction of a new Residential Condominium Tower building consisting of approximately 510,000 gross square feet. There will be approximately 510,000 gross square feet of residential space including amenity space consisting of 219 for sale condominium units.

2. The site prior to construction comprises of a single commercial tax lot with approximately 74,406 square feet of land area known on the tax map as Block 1171 Lot 150. The existing lot 150 has been subdivided into a lot 150 and a new lot 151. The subdivided lot 150 consists of 44,767 square feet of land area and the new lot 151 consists of the remaining 29,638 square feet of land area. The Residential Condominium Tower will be constructed upon lot 150.

3. You have advised us that an application for a 20-year declining partial exemption from real estate taxes for the mixed-use development consisting of the condominium units, retail unit, community facility unit and "Parking Unit" condominium unit will be made to the Housing Preservation and Development ("HPD") pursuant to the 421-a program by the law firm of Holland & Knight. The 20-year 421-a program generally provides for a phase out of post construction exemption benefits as follows; 12 years at 100% exempt; followed by 2 years at 80% exempt; followed by 2 years at 60% exempt; followed by 2 years at 40% exempt and finally by 2 years at 20% exempt.

4. You have advised us that construction commenced December, 2012 and that construction of the project will be substantially completed by January 2015 with the first temporary Certificate of Occupancy anticipated by March 2015. You have advised us that all construction would be completed prior to March 2015. We have estimated that the property will be assessed as if completed for tax year 2015/2016 (taxable valuation date of January 5, 2015).

5. The property will be one building with separate condominium tax lots for the rental unit, the retail unit, the community facility units, the parking unit and each of the 219 residential units contained in the Residential Condominium Tower.

6. The first year of the condominium operation is planned for July 1, 2015 through June 30, 2016. Real Estate taxes due for the first year of condominium operation will be based on twelve (12) months of tax year 2015/2016, an assessed value which we consider will reflect the first year that the building will be assessed as if fully complete.

The Real Property Tax Law requires that taxes shall be paid in each tax year during which 421-a benefits are received in an amount equal to the billable assessed value of the land and any improvements thereon during the tax year immediately preceding the commencement of construction, this amount being referred to as the mini-tax assessed value, payable at the then current tax rate. The billable assessed value is equal to the lesser of the actual and transitional assessed values for each tax lot. We have assumed that the 2011/2012 transitional assessed value will be the mini-tax assessed value.

As you have informed us that construction on the project commenced in December 2012 (tax year 2012/13), the mini-tax will be based upon the total taxable billable assessed value for tax year 2011/2012 for the tax lot that will form the footprint of the project containing the condominium. The allocated total taxable assessed values for 2011/12 for the new lot 150:

Block	Lot	Lot 150 Actual Av	Lot 150 Transitional Av	Lot 150 Billable Av	83.59% Allocation of Lot 150 to Residential Condominium Tower
1171	150	$3,692,518	$2,825,808	$2,825,808	$2,362,093

Based upon our estimate of the relative common element factor of the Residential Condominium Tower constituting the entire development project of apportioned lot 150, we have allocated 83.59% or $2,362,093 as the mini tax assessed value for the Residential Condominium Tower.

Accordingly, we estimate that the real estate taxes with 421-a tax exemption benefits for the entire development project, for the construction period and for the first two years thereafter would be based on an allocated mini tax assessed value of $2,362,093.

In arriving at the assessed valuation for each unit in the condominium, the building is first assessed in its entirety. This overall assessment is then apportioned among the respective units, each of which will be assigned a tax lot designation.

The current policy of the Department of Finance is to allocate the mini-tax to the various units in a condominium in the same manner as the apportionment of the assessed valuation among the various units contained in the building. In the past it had been the general practice and procedure of the New York City Department of Finance to apportion the residential assessments within a condominium based upon their relative sales price as set forth in the initial offering plan. However, more recently the Department of Finance has revised the prior practice and is currently allocating assessed value for the residential units within a condominium based upon each unit's undivided percentage interest in the common elements ("common interests"). We make no representations that the Department of Finance will use any particular method to apportion assessed valuation among the units, for the purpose of either computing the portion of the condominium's mini-tax assessment that will be allocated to the residential units or to apportion the residential assessments among the individual residential condominium units.

Discussion

You have advised us that the first year of condominium operation is anticipated to run from July 1, 2015 through June 30, 2016 and will therefore fall within the 2015/16 tax year. The real estate taxes for the first year of condominium operation will therefore consist of real estate taxes based on twelve (12) months of the 2015/16 assessed valuation.

The current tax rate for tax year 2012/2013 for residential real property is 13.181%. For commercial property the current tax rate is 10.288%. For purposes of the following projections, these same tax rates have been utilized for the residential units and the commercial units for each of the tax years in this letter.

Estimated Real Estate Taxes Upon Completion of Construction (Tax Year 2015/2016)

We estimated that the property will be assessed as if completed for tax year 2015/2016. As construction will be substantially completed in January 2015 and completed by March 2015 and based on the January 5, 2015 taxable status date for the 2015/16 tax year, the 2015/16 assessed valuation is estimated to be the first assessment roll to reflect a completed building. After consideration of all relevant factors, we have estimated an assessed valuation of $61,200,000 for the new Residential Condominium Tower tax lots upon completion of construction. The assessed valuation was based upon an estimated $120 per gross square foot for approximately 510,000 square foot of the project consisting of all condominium units and common area.

It is our projection that by tax year 2015/2016, where the Residential Condominium Tower building is estimated to be 100% completed, the subject property's total assessment before the apportionment into separate condominiums tax lots for each of the Residential Condominium Tower unit will be as follows:

Estimated Taxes for Residential Condominium Units – Tax Year 2015/2016 Upon Completion

2015/16 Estimated Residential Condominium Tower Units Actual Total Assessed Value:	$61,200,000
2015/16 Estimated Residential Condominium Tower Units Billable Total Assessed Value:	$61,200,000
2015/16 Estimated Residential Condominium Tower Units Mini- Tax Assessment:	$ 2,362,093
2015/16 After Mini-Tax Assessment:	$58,837,907
Exemption Percent:	100%
Exemption Total Assessment:	$58,837,907
2015/16 Residential Condominium Tower Taxable Assessment:	$ 2,362,093
Assumed Tax Rate:	13.181%
2015/16 Projected Total Real Estate Taxes After 421-a Exemption – all Residential Condominium Tower Units:	$ 311,347
2015/16 Projected Total Real Estate Taxes Without 421-a Exemption – all residential units:	$ 8,066,772

(July 1, 2015 through June 30, 2016)

For the first year of condominium operation, covering the period from July 1, 2015 through June 30, 2016, we have projected the real estate taxes for the condominium building based upon twelve (12) months of the estimated projected 2015/2016 assessment for the condominium project. Thus for the first year of condominium operation covering the period from July 1, 2015 through June 30, 2016, the estimated real estate tax liability for the condominium will be as follows:

First Year Estimated Residential Condominium Tower Taxes due without 421-a Exemption:	$ 8,066,772
First Year Estimated Residential Condominium Tower Taxes due with 421-a Tax Exemption:	$ 311,347

Prospective purchasers are advised that while there is a formula which has been utilized by the Real Property Assessment Department in assessing properties in the past, it has not been employed consistently and it is therefore not possible to estimate or determine the post-construction assessed valuation of this property with any degree of certainty.

The above projections are estimates and do not take into account any future increases in the level of assessed valuation applied to residential and commercial property or any increase in the real estate tax rate. The above opinion is based upon our understanding of the policies, procedures, and practices of the DOF and is not intended to be a guarantee or assurance that the tax assessments herein listed will be attained. While we believe our opinions are well founded, they are not intended, nor should they be construed as representations or warranties that the assessment and taxes will be determined as set forth herein. The foregoing analysis is based upon our experience with DOF and the Tax Commission of the City of New York, and their assessment practices regarding newly constructed residential properties. Application of a particular approach to valuation by an individual assessor may yield a significantly different result.

No representation is made that the current policies and practices of the DOF will apply at the time the building is completed. You should be aware that the laws, regulations, policies, and practices of the DOF upon which this opinion is predicated may in the future be revised in a manner adverse to your interests, or that there may be an adverse interpretation of the law or regulations by one or more agencies of the City of New York, or courts of competent jurisdiction. We render no opinion as to the eligibility of the project to receive §421-a tax exemption benefits.

This letter was prepared at the sponsor's request. The figures set forth herein are approximations derived from material submitted by the sponsor and are subject to variation. No government agency has passed upon these figures or estimates contained in the Offering Plan, and we offer no warranties on real estate taxes for any period.

We hereby consent to the inclusion of this letter in the Offering Plan.

Very truly yours,

Re: 50 Riverside Boulevard

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have served as special counsel to 50 Riverside Blvd LLC ("Sponsor"). You have requested our opinion as to the eligibility of the new building (the "Building") which you are constructing at 40 Riverside Boulevard, New York, New York (Block 1171, Lot 150) (the "Site") for partial real estate tax exemption pursuant to Section 421-a of the New York State Real Property Tax Law (the "Act"), Sections 11-245, 11-245.1 and 11.245.1-b of the Administrative Code of the City of New York (the "City Law") and the Rules Governing Tax Exemption Pursuant to Section 421-a of the Real Property Tax Law, as codified in Title 28, Chapter 6 of the Rules of the City of New York (the "Rules")(the Act, the City Law and the Rules, collectively, the "Program").

You have advised us as follows:

(a) The Building will contain residential dwelling units, retail, community facility uses and a parking garage.

(b) The Building will be divided into multiple condominium units consisting of (i) dwelling units to be sold to buyers (the "Tower Unit"), (ii) a condominium unit containing the rental dwelling units (the "Rental Unit"), (iii) a condominium unit containing the retail, (iv) two condominium units containing community facility units and (v) a condominium unit containing the parking garage.

(c) Construction of the Building commenced on June 18, 2013 pursuant to a new building permit issued by the New York City Department of Buildings.

(e) The Building will have a total of 274 dwelling units with 10 studio apartments, 44 one-bedroom apartments, 131 two-bedroom apartments, 42 three-bedroom apartments, 36 four-bedroom apartments, four (4) five-bedroom apartment, five (5) six bedroom apartments and two (2) seven-bedroom apartments.

(f) The Rental Unit will contain 55 apartments (such apartments, the "Affordable Apartments"), all of which will be reserved for occupancy by households which upon initial occupancy have incomes that do not exceed 60% of the "area median income" as adjusted for household size and rents which upon initial occupancy do not exceed 30% of 60% of the "area median income" adjusted for family size and excluding any applicable utility allowance.

(g) 30 of the 55 Affordable Apartments will have two bedrooms and 15 will have one bedroom.

For purposes of our opinion herein, we have assumed that the foregoing advice is accurate in all respects. In rendering our opinion below, we note the following, including the advice set forth below, which, for purposes of our opinion herein, we have assumed is accurate in all respects:

1. The Building must be a multiple dwelling containing not less than three dwelling units. Based upon your advice, as noted above, that the Building will contain 274 dwelling units, this requirement will be satisfied upon completion of construction of the Building.

2. Construction of the Building must commence before June 15, 2015. Based upon your advice, as noted above, that the construction of the Building commenced on June 18, 2013, this requirement has been satisfied.

3. If, one month prior to the commencement of construction, the Site was improved with a residential building or buildings and the new building contains more than 20 Class A dwelling units (as such term is defined in the New York State Multiple Dwelling Law), then the new building must contain at least five dwelling units for each Class A dwelling unit in existence one month prior to the commencement of construction. You have advised us that on such date, the Site was vacant. Assuming the accuracy of such advice, this requirement will be satisfied.

4. The new multiple dwelling receiving partial tax exemption under the Program may not result from the conversion or rehabilitation of any building. Based on your advice, as noted above, that the Building received a new building permit, this requirement will be satisfied.

5. The new multiple dwelling may not be used as a hotel or for single room occupancy. Based on your advice, the Building will not be used as a hotel or for single room occupancy. Assuming the accuracy of such advice, this requirement will be satisfied.

6. For buildings that will contain more than 100 dwelling units, at least 15% of the dwelling units must contain at least three and one-half rooms and at least 10% of the dwelling units must contain at least four and one-half rooms. Based on your advice as set forth above, this requirement will be satisfied upon completion of the Building.

7. The Affordable Apartments must either (i) have a comparable number of bedrooms as the market rate units and a unit mix proportional to the market rate units, (ii) at least 50% of the Affordable Apartments must have two or more bedrooms and no more than 50% of the remaining units can be smaller than one bedroom or (iii) the floor area of the Affordable Apartments is no less than 20% of the total floor area of all dwelling units. Based on your advice that 30 of the 55 Affordable Apartments will have two bedrooms and that 15 of the apartments will have one bedroom, this requirement will be satisfied upon completion of the Building.

8. All Affordable Apartments must be subject to control pursuant to the provisions of the Rent Stabilization Law of 1969, the Emergency Tenant Protection Act of 1974 and the Rent Stabilization Code as set forth in Subchapter B of Chapter VIII of Subtitle S of Title 9 of the Official Compilation of Codes, Rules and Regulations of the State of New York for a period of 35 years following completion of construction. Tenants holding a lease at the expiration of the 35-year period shall have the right to remain as rent stabilized tenants for the duration of their occupancy. The Rules also sets forth several requirements for the Affordable Apartments with regard to rental and lease rider requirements. We have assumed that the Sponsor will comply with these requirements.

9. Residents of Manhattan Community Board 7 shall have a priority for the rental of fifty percent of the Affordable Apartments.

10. The Building may not be situated on land mapped as a public park or on land which was utilized for ten or more consecutive years prior to October 1, 1971 as a "private park" (as such term is defined in the Rules). You have advised us that the Site is not mapped as a public park and was not used as a private park as described above. Assuming the accuracy of such advice, this requirement will be satisfied.

11. The Building may not receive tax exemption or tax abatement concurrently under any other provision of state or local law. You have advised us that the Building will not receive tax exemption or tax abatement under any other provision of state or local law. Assuming the accuracy of such advice, this requirement will be satisfied.

12. The Building must be registered with the Department pursuant to the requirements of the New York City Housing Maintenance Code. We have assumed that the Building will be so registered.

13. Certain household appliances which are installed by the Sponsor within a dwelling unit and any boiler or furnace that provides heat or hot water for any dwelling unit must be certified as "Energy Star." We have assumed that the Sponsor will comply with this requirement.

14. The Program requires that "all building service employees" (as such term in defined in the Act) regularly employed in the Building must be paid the "applicable prevailing wage" as determined by the New York City Comptroller. We have assumed that Sponsor will comply with this requirement.

15. The Site must have been vacant, predominantly vacant, underutilized or improved with a non-conforming use as of a date 36 months prior to the commencement of construction (such date, the "Operative Date"). Assuming that construction commenced on June 18, 2013, the Operative Date is June 18, 2010. On such date, the records of the Department of Finance show that the Site was vacant. Accordingly, this requirement will be satisfied.

16. The Program provides that buildings in Manhattan located south of or adjacent to either side of 110th Street which commenced construction after December 28, 2007 are eligible for benefits under the Program if 20% of the units in the multiple dwelling are occupied by households which upon initial occupancy have incomes that do not exceed 60% of the "area median income" as adjusted for household size and rents which upon initial occupancy do not exceed 30% of 60% of the "area median income" adjusted for family size and excluding any applicable utility allowance. Based on your advice that 55 of the 274 units will be Affordable Apartments, this requirement will be satisfied.

17. The application for a Preliminary Certificate of Eligibility must be filed with the Department after the commencement of construction and prior to the issuance of either a temporary certificate of occupancy for all residential areas or a permanent certificate of occupancy. The application for a Final Certificate of Eligibility must be filed prior to occupancy of the building but no earlier than the date of the application for a Preliminary Certificate of Eligibility. In addition, in connection with the Affordable Apartments, a restrictive declaration in a form specified by the Department and executed by all parties in interest must be recorded against the property.

The Act provides that buildings in Manhattan located south of or adjacent to either side of 110th Street where 20% of the units are Affordable Apartments, shall be fully exempt, other than from assessments for local improvements, from taxation on the increase in assessed valuation resulting from construction of the multiple dwelling during the construction period or for a period of no more than three years following the commencement of construction, whichever is less, and for 20 years thereafter, as follows:

Year Following Completion of Construction	Percentage of Value Which is Exempt
13-14	80%
15-16	60%
17-18	40%

In addition to any taxes payable pursuant to the above schedule, the Act requires that real estate taxes shall be paid each year in an amount equal to the assessed valuation of the land and any improvements thereon during the tax year preceding the commencement of such construction multiplied by the tax rate in effect for the current tax year.

To the extent that the "aggregate floor area" (as such term is defined in the Rules) of commercial, community facility and accessory use (exclusive of accessory residential parking located below 23 feet above curb level) exceeds 12% of the "aggregate floor area" in the Building, the amount of the partial tax exemption under the Act is reduced by an amount equal to the percentage by which such floor area exceeds 12% of the "aggregate floor area."

Assuming that (i) the statements and information which you have provided are true and correct, (ii) all applications and supporting materials will be timely filed and prosecuted and all requisite fees paid, (iii) all other applicable requirements of the Program are satisfied, including, without limitation, the execution and recording of the restrictive declaration, and based upon such legal inquiries as we have deemed necessary or appropriate as a basis for our opinion herein and subject to the assumptions, comments, qualifications, limitations and exceptions set forth herein, it is our opinion that the Building will be eligible to receive tax exemption under the Act, as set forth above.

If any of the foregoing requirements or conditions should not be met to the satisfaction of the Department, or if any of the foregoing representations or statements should prove to be inaccurate, then the Building may not be eligible for the partial tax exemption under the Act. We make no representations and express no opinion as to whether or not any or all of the requirements and conditions set forth herein will be fulfilled.

In connection with this opinion, except as expressly set forth in this opinion letter, with your consent, we have not made an independent examination of the records of any public offices or governmental agencies or of any of your files or records nor have we made an independent investigation of the underlying facts or assumptions referred to in this opinion letter.

Our opinion herein reflects only the application of the Act, the City Law and the Rules. The opinion set forth herein is made as of the date hereof and is subject to, and may be limited by, future changes in the factual matters set forth herein, and we undertake no duty to advice you of the same. The opinion expressed herein is based on the Act, the City Law and the Rules and authoritative interpretations thereof in effect as of the date hereof (and published or otherwise generally available), and we assume no obligation to update, modify, revise or supplement this opinion should the Act, the City Law or the Rules be changed, in the event of any contrary interpretation of any provision of the Act, the City Law or the Rules by the Department, the New York City Department of Buildings or a court of competent jurisdiction, or otherwise. In rendering this opinion, we have not considered and hereby disclaim any opinion as to, the application or impact of any laws, cases, decisions, rules or regulations of any other jurisdiction, court or administrative agency.

This opinion is limited to the matters discussed herein and we do not render any opinion except as set forth above. This letter is not a guarantee and is not binding upon the Department or any other administrative agency or any other person or entity. This opinion letter is being delivered by us to you solely for your benefit in connection with your filing of an Offering Plan (the "Offering Plan") for the Building with the New York State Department of Law. By your acceptance of this opinion letter, you agree that it may not be relied upon, circulated, quoted or otherwise referred to by any other person or for any other purpose without our prior written consent in each instance, except that we hereby consent to the inclusion of this letter in the Offering Plan.

Holland & Knight LLP

HOLLAND & KNIGHT LLP,

W. WORKING CAPITAL FUND; NO RESERVE FUND

The Purchaser of each Tower Unit shall be required to make a contribution to the Tower Board at the closing of title to such Tower Unit(s) to or in respect of the working capital fund of the Tower Section (the "Working Capital Fund"). Such contribution shall be in an amount equal to two (2) months' Tower Common Charges then in effect for such Tower Unit pursuant to the budget then in effect for the Tower Section and in accordance with Schedule A hereto, as the same may be amended from time to time.

Other than as set forth in Schedule B, no reserve fund is being established for the Condominium. Sponsor has elected not to provide for such a reserve fund for capital replacements or repairs, because the Building will be newly constructed. The Condominium Board, in its discretion, and subject to certain restrictions contained in the Condominium By-Laws, may decide in the future to create a reserve fund by special assessment or by increases in Common Charges.

Other than as set forth in Schedule B, no reserve fund is being established for the Tower Section. In the Tower Board's discretion, subject to the terms of the Tower By-Laws, the Tower Board may decide in the future to establish a reserve fund or pay for necessary repairs or capital items to the Tower Limited Common Elements by special assessment or by increasing Tower Common Charges. The Condominium Board may also decide in the future to establish a reserve fund for repairing and maintaining the General Common Elements (such as the roofs and various mechanical, and building systems). In each case, each Tower Unit Owner would be individually liable for the amount of such special assessment against, or increase payable by, the Tower Board to the extent of such Tower Unit Owner's proportionate Common Interest among all Tower Unit Owners.

At the First Closing, Sponsor will apportion the following items with the Tower Board, or Condominium Board, as applicable, as of the date preceding said closing:

(1) employees' wages, vacation and severance pay, pension and welfare benefits and all other payments or obligations relative to the employees of the Condominium and/or Tower Section;

(2) fees for assignable permits and licenses, if any;

(3) charges for steam, gas, electricity and other utilities;

(4) payments under assignable service, maintenance and concession contracts;

(5) water charges and sewer rents on the basis of the fiscal year for which assessed (unless separately assessed to individual Tower Units);

(6) cost of fuel and Building supplies on hand, at Sponsor's cost (plus sales tax);

(7) premiums for transferable insurance policies; and

(8) other customary adjustments.

If any of the foregoing items to be apportioned cannot be adjusted at the First Closing because they are not fully ascertainable, they shall be apportioned and adjusted to the extent reasonably possible at the First Closing, and final adjustment will be made as soon thereafter as the undetermined amounts are ascertained. No such adjustments or apportionments are expected to be substantial. Except as herein otherwise expressly provided, the customs in respect to title closings adopted by the Real Estate Board of New York, Inc., as amended, shall apply to apportionments and other matters herein mentioned.

The Working Capital Fund may be held or used for working capital, to make repairs and/or for such other appropriate purposes permitted under the Declaration and the Tower By-Laws as will be determined by the Tower Board, in its sole discretion; and may be augmented by allocations from monthly Tower Common Charges collected by the Tower Board. Other than as provided in the preceding sentence (with respect to monthly Tower Common Charges), Sponsor will not separately contribute to the Working Capital Fund. However, while Sponsor controls the Tower Board, the Working Capital Fund will not be used to reduce estimated Tower Common Charges, and in no event shall any portion of the Working Capital Fund be used to pay any Tower Common Charges attributable to Unsold Tower Units.

No representation is made that the Working Capital Fund, together with the Tower Common Charges, will be, or is intended to be, adequate to cover expenses for the first or any subsequent year of operation, including, without limitation, the cost of any necessary repairs or replacements. If additional funds are required over and above the Working Capital Fund, it may be necessary to increase the Tower Common Charges or to impose special assessments on Tower Unit Owners.

Neither the Department of Law nor any other governmental agency has passed upon the adequacy of the Working Capital Fund.

X. AGREEMENTS BINDING ON THE CONDOMINIUM

1. Management Agreement

It is presently contemplated that at or prior to the First Closing, the Tower Board will enter into a management agreement (the "Management Agreement") with Extell Management Services Inc., having a principal office at 805 Third Avenue, 7th Floor, New York, New York 10022, to act as managing agent with respect to the Condominium (the "Managing Agent"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor reserves the right to cause the Condominium Board to engage (or to engage on behalf of the Condominium Board) a different managing agent (which may be an affiliate of Sponsor) to serve as Managing Agent. The identity of any different or substitute managing agent to serve as Managing Agent will be disclosed in a duly filed amendment to this Plan.

It is contemplated that the Management Agreement will provide for an initial term of two (2) years commencing on the First Closing and thereafter, if not otherwise terminated by either party, for a one (1) year period. The Managing Agent will receive an annual fee of $175,000 for such first year, payable in equal monthly installments. The annual fee will increase by three percent (3%) for each successive year. Either party may terminate the Management Agreement without cause at any time upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to the other party. At any time, the Agreement may be terminated "for cause" upon notice from one party to the other.

The duties and services to be rendered by the Managing Agent include, among others:

(a) Supervise, hire and discharge employees necessary for the proper maintenance and operation of the Condominium.

(b) Cause the Common Elements to be maintained, repaired, replaced and altered in the manner deemed advisable by the Condominium Board. The approval of the Condominium Board is necessary for any expenditure of over $10,000 for any one item of ordinary repairs or alterations (other than emergency repairs or repairs to comply with a governmental notice or order).

(c) Contract for necessary services and purchasing all supplies necessary to properly maintain and operate the Condominium and its Common Elements subject to the approval of the Condominium. The approval of the Condominium is necessary for any contract with a term of more than one (1) year or in excess of $10,000.

(d) Advise the Condominium Board with respect to proper insurance coverage pertaining to the Condominium, and its employees.

(e) Check all bills received in connection with the maintenance and operation of the Common Elements and causing all such bills and other expenses to be paid.

(f) If requested by the Condominium Board, list and offer for sale, lease or sublease space reserved, acquired or reacquired by the Condominium Board in the Condominium.

(g) Assist in the creation of an application package and accept applications from all prospective Tower Unit Owners, and prospective tenants of space being leased by a Tower Unit Owner or the Tower Board.

(h) Supervise and coordinate the moving in and out of Unit Owners and lessees and, as far as possible, arrange the dates thereof so that there shall be a minimum of disturbance to the operation of the Tower Section and of inconvenience to other Unit Owners.

(i) Bill and collect Common Charges payable by the Unit Owners.

(j) Consider and, when reasonable, attend to complaints of Unit Owners and lessees, providing such complaints concern a violation of the Condominium Documents, a general Building system, service, or common area.

(k) Cause to be prepared and filed the necessary forms for unemployment insurance, withholding and social security taxes and all other tax and other forms relating to employment of Condominium employees and the maintenance and operation of the Condominium as required by any Federal, State or municipal authority.

(l) Not later than the fifth (5th) day of each month, render monthly statements of receipts and disbursements to the Condominium Board or other designated entity.

(m) Maintaining accurate sets of books for the Condominium Board.

(n) Cooperate with the Condominium Board's accountants with regard to the annual audit of the books of account of the Condominium Board.

(o) When requested by Condominium Board, cooperate with the Condominium Boards' accountants in preparing and submitting annually to the Condominium Board an operating budget of the anticipated income and expenses for the ensuing year.

(p) Attend meetings of the Condominium Board and Tower Board, and annual meetings of the Unit Owner and Tower Unit Owners at the Condominium's and/or Tower Section's expense to record the minutes of such meetings.

(q) Prepare and send out all letters, notices and reports as the Condominium Board and/or Tower Board may request, including but not limited to notices of meetings, special, annual and monthly, as required by the By-Laws and the Offering Plan, as directed by the Boards.

(r) Assist the Condominium Board in preparing an operating budget for the Condominium for the ensuing year.

The management fee will be included as a Common Expenses as discussed above in Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation." The Managing Agent will be entitled to additional fees for certain special services performed by it, including, among others:

(a) Fees for discretionary services rendered pursuant to the Management Agreement:

(i) Unit Sales. In connection with the processing of an application for the sale/transfer of ownership by a Tower Unit Owner and conducting a credit check, a nonrefundable sum of $1,000.00 to be paid by the Tower Unit Owner/transferee and not by the Tower Board;

(ii) Unit Leases. In connection with the processing of a lease application on behalf of a Tower Unit Owner, a non-refundable sum of $1,000.00 to be paid by the Tower Unit Owner/sublessee and not by the Tower Board;

(iii) Lease Renewals. In connection with the renewal of a lease, a fee of $500.00 to be paid by the Tower Unit Owner/sublessee and not by the Tower Board;

(iv) Unit Mortgage Refinancing. In connection with Tower Unit Owner's application for appraisal or mortgage refinancing, a fee of $500.00 for each application, to be paid by Tower Unit Owner in advance and not by the Board; and

(v) Alteration Agreements. If a Tower Unit Owner undertakes an alteration to an apartment requiring Tower Board review and approval of architect's plans, issuance of building department permits, and the negotiation and execution of an Alteration Agreement between the Tower Board and the Tower Unit Owner, a fee in the amount of the greater of $500.00 or two percent (2%) of the alteration.

Tower Unit Owners shall be obligated to reimburse the Tower Board for all costs incurred related to the approval of the alterations and oversight by the Managing Agent (i.e., processing the application, Building access, coordination, etc.).

(c) Reimbursement for out of pocket expenses for items such as messenger service, postage, facsimile transmissions, photocopying, printing, scanning, on-line payment service fee and other administrative expenses incurred by the Managing Agent.

The Boards will indemnify the Managing Agent against liability for all claims for all acts properly performed by the Managing Agent pursuant to the Management Agreement or at the instructions of the Boards, provided, however, any such indemnification shall not cover any claims resulting from the Managing Agent's gross negligence or willful misconduct.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth above, the Managing Agent's responsibility under the management agreement shall not extend to supervising or managing major capital renovations or major capital improvements, unless specifically agreed upon in writing by the parties and unless the Managing Agent receives an additional fee therefor.

The Managing Agent, at its own expense, will maintain: (i) general and umbrella liability insurance with limits of not less than $25,000,000 per occurrence and in the aggregate, which liability insurance shall cover Managing Agent's activities at Managing Agent's offices and not at the Property and which insurance shall be secondary to the similar insurance maintained by the Condominium Board; (ii) fidelity/crime insurance in an amount of not less than $1,000,000;

(iii) workers' compensation and employer's liability insurance covering Managing Agent's employees; and (iv) professional liability insurance in an amount of not less than $1,000,000.

Sponsor reserves the right during the Initial Control Period to designate any other reputable managing agent to perform all of the duties and services to be performed by the Managing Agent under the Plan and if Sponsor does so, Sponsor will cause such other managing agent to accept employment on terms substantially similar to the terms specified above. After the Initial Control Period, upon the expiration or sooner termination of the then current agreement with the Managing Agent, the Condominium Board may designate any other managing agent to perform the duties and services to be performed by the Managing Agent under the Plan. The term "Managing Agent" when used in the Plan with respect to any time after Sponsor or the Condominium Board has designated another managing agent shall mean such other agent. The Management Agreement may not be assigned by the Managing Agent without the prior written consent of the Condominium Board. Sponsor will amend the Plan to disclose having entered into the Management Agreement promptly after execution thereof.

2. Restrictive Declaration; Miller Highway

The Restrictive Declaration governs the development of Riverside South, including, without limitation, the type of development permitted, development of the open space and Park Areas, timing of development, and affordable housing construction obligations in Riverside South. The West Side Highway (the elevated portion of which between 59th Street and 72nd Street is also known as the Miller Highway) is located between the Property and the Hudson River. Under the Restrictive Declaration and other applicable documents, the West Side Highway may be relocated by the City of New York, subject to federal, state and local government approvals, to a point closer to the Property, but such relocation may be underground (i.e., a covered roadway) under Riverside Boulevard and portions of the future Park Areas. Sponsor makes no representation or warranty as to if or when the City of New York will exercise its right to cause the relocation of the Miller Highway, or whether the necessary approvals will be granted, or how close to the Property the Miller Highway will be if it is relocated.

3. Riverside South Property Owners Declaration; 62nd Street Public Access Area

The RSPOA was formed at the start of development of Riverside South, primarily to assess its members for the cost of maintaining and insuring the Park Areas contained within Riverside South and to own Public Access Areas as more particularly described below. Assessments collected from members of the RSPOA to maintain the Park Areas are paid to the City of New York Department of Parks and Recreation, which is under contract to perform the physical maintenance of the Park Areas, or to another entity holding such maintenance contract. The RSPOA operates pursuant to the RSPO Declaration. The specific purposes and responsibilities of the RSPOA are set forth in the RSPO Declaration. The RSPOA was created and the RSPO Declaration was prepared in accordance with the Restrictive Declaration. The RSPOA is a membership organization, with membership limited to Development Parcel Owners. Sponsor is presently the Development Parcel Owner for the Property and a member of the RSPOA for purposes of the RSPO Declaration. Upon recording of the Declaration, such statuses will be transferred to the Condominium Board. At such time, the Condominium Board shall appoint the Vice President for RSPOA Liaison to attend and represent it at meetings of the RSPOA and to vote on behalf of the Condominium at such meetings.

As Sponsor owns only the Property, Sponsor makes no representation as to any future development of Development Parcels in Riverside South and the requisite appurtenant Park Areas and streets other than to confirm that Sponsor has contributed all payments required to be contributed by the Development Parcel Owner of Parcel K-1 toward construction of the Park Areas. The Park Areas are being developed in conjunction with the City of New York. As of the date of this Plan, the City has suspended development of the Park Areas and has not indicated when it will recommence development of the Park Areas. Accordingly, Sponsor does not represent or warrant that all or any portion of the Park Areas or any other components of Riverside South will be built, or if built, when construction will commence or be completed.

The RSPOA also is empowered under the RSPO Declaration to acquire, own, hold, operate, maintain and repair the Public Access Areas under the Public Access Easements, and to operate, maintain and repair the Public Access Easements themselves. However, the RSPO Declaration provides that in each instance where the Restrictive Declaration imposes on the RSPOA the obligation to maintain, repair and replace a Public Access Area (once same is conveyed to the RSPOA), and the Public Access Easement thereon (once same is conveyed to the City of New York), this obligation is deemed by the RSPO Declaration to be delegated to each Development Parcel Owner adjacent to or abutting a Public Access Area.

The RSPOA also is authorized under the RSPO Declaration to own property to the extent necessary to facilitate development of Riverside South. Pursuant to the RSPO Declaration, all costs incurred by the RSPOA are to be allocated proportionately among the Members relative to their interest in Riverside South, and paid by the members to the RSPOA as assessments. With respect to the Condominium, the costs assessed by the RSPOA will be passed to Unit Owners as General Common Expenses of the Condominium, and thus assessed to Unit Owners as General Common Charges.

The RSPO Declaration provides that since assessments are to be passed on to Unit Owners as Common Charges, each Unit Owner shall be responsible for that Unit's proportionate share of any assessment levied by the RSPOA. The Unit Owner's share of the assessment shall be a lien against the Unit. However, if a Unit Owner pays to the Condominium Board the Unit Owner's share of the assessment and the Condominium Board pays same to the RSPOA, the Unit belonging to the Unit Owner shall be deemed released from that lien. However, if the Unit Owner fails to pay its share, or if the Unit Owner pays its share and the Condominium Board neglects to pay same to the RSPOA, the RSPOA may take action against the Condominium Board or the Unit Owner to obtain payment.

The RSPOA shall be governed by a board of directors. Membership and board voting is described in the by-laws of the RSPOA.

4. Operating Agreement

The Development Parcel Owners entered into that certain Operating Agreement, dated as of June 23, 2003 (as amended, the "Operating Agreement"). The Operating Agreement governs the development and operation of Riverside South. The Operating Agreement binds all Development Parcel Owners, which, in the case of Development Parcels submitted to the Condominium Act, the Operating Agreement provides that the respective boards of managers shall be Development Parcel Owners under the Operating Agreement. Accordingly, upon creation of the Condominium the Condominium Board shall be bound as Development Parcel Owner for the Property under the Operating Agreement.

Among other obligations under the Operating Agreement, is the obligation of a Development Parcel Owner to pay its proportionate share of "Agreed Expenses" (as defined in the Operating Agreement). These are expenses that are: (i) incurred in operating, maintaining and owning the Common Areas, (ii) not duplicative of sums payable under the RSPO Declaration, and (iii) agreed by a "Majority in Interest of Non-C/O Owners" (as defined in the Operating Agreement) to be treated as "Agreed Expenses" under the Operating Agreement. Procedures for challenging this determination are included in the Operating Agreement. "Common Areas" (as defined in the Operating Agreement) refers to the Park Areas located within Riverside South.

The foregoing does not purport to be a comprehensive summary of the Operating Agreement, nor does it purport to address each item in the Operating Agreement that may be of concern to each Purchaser. Purchasers are urged and advised to read the complete Operating Agreement, a copy of which is available for review in the Sales Office.

5. Mapping Agreement

The Mapping Agreement delineates Park Areas, new streets to be developed as part of Riverside South and various required easements, and addresses, among other things, maintenance of the streets and roads comprising Riverside South. The Mapping Agreement requires that once a Development Parcel Owner completes construction of streets that such owner is required to construct pursuant to the Restrictive Declaration, the City of New York will accept dedication of these streets (unless the street is a Public Access Area, as described below). Sponsor is constructing the portions of Riverside Boulevard and West 61st Street abutting the Property. As mentioned above, it is anticipated that the City of New York will accept dedication of Riverside Boulevard.

SPONSOR MAKES NO REPRESENTATION, WARRANTY OR GUARANTEE THAT THE CITY OF NEW YORK WILL ACCEPT DEDICATION OF RIVERSIDE BOULEVARD UPON COMPLETION, IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE REQUIREMENTS IN THE MAPPING AGREEMENT. HOWEVER, IF RIVERSIDE BOULEVARD HAS NOT BEEN DEDICATED AT THE TIME OF RECORDING THE DECLARATION, SPONSOR OR AN AFFILIATE OF SPONSOR WILL RETAIN OWNERSHIP OF THE STREET, THE STREET WILL NOT BE PART OF THE LAND COMPRISING THE CONDOMINIUM, AND SPONSOR OR ITS AFFILIATE, AS APPLICABLE, WILL UNDERTAKE RESPONSIBILITY FOR REPAIR AND MAINTENANCE OF THE STREET, SUBJECT TO THE RIGHT TO CHARGE THE CONDOMINIUM FOR ITS PRO-RATA SHARE OF THE REAL ESTATE TAXES, IF ANY, PAYABLE WITH RESPECT TO RIVERSIDE BOULEVARD. HOWEVER, NO SECURITY WILL BE POSTED BY SPONSOR TO SECURE THIS UNDERTAKING.

The portion of West 62nd Street located between Freedom Place and Riverside Boulevard is a "Public Access Area" (as defined in the Mapping Agreement and Restrictive Declaration) rather than a public street (the "62nd Street Public Access Area"), and thus will not be dedicated to the City of New York. In connection with the construction of the Building, Sponsor is constructing an approximately five- (5) foot wide extension of the sidewalk adjacent to the 62nd Street Public Access Area. The 62nd Street Public Access Area, as contemplated by the Mapping Agreement, is to be conveyed to the RSPOA. The 62nd Street Public Access Area thus is not part of the Property and will not be part of the Condominium.

Pursuant to the Restrictive Declaration, Mapping Agreement and the RSPO Declaration, a "Public Access Easement" must be granted over the 62nd Street Public Access Area. This will be a permanent surface level (and above) easement for use by the City of New York and the general public for vehicular and pedestrian access. The rules and regulations of the Department of Transportation shall apply to the Public Access Easement in the same manner as if the Public Access Easement were a public street. Thus, the Department of Transportation may place traffic signs within the easement area for regulation of traffic and parking, and all laws pertaining to vehicular and pedestrian traffic and parking shall apply and shall be enforceable by the City of New York, in the same manner as if the Public Access Easement were a public street.

Once the 62nd Street Public Access Area is conveyed to the RSPOA, even if the easement to the City of New York has not yet been granted, it will be the obligation of the "Dominant Owner" (as such term is defined in the RSPO Declaration) of the 62nd Street Public Access Area (and, once granted, the Public Access Easement thereon), to implement and oversee the maintenance and repair (and to procure and maintain insurance) of same, including any structural supports, in accordance with the standards of the Department of Transportation for maintenance of public streets. The cost of such physical maintenance and repair will be shared proportionately by the Owner of Parcel J-2, the Aldyn Board, the Owner of Parcel K-2, and the Condominium Board, in accordance with the proportions provided for in the RSPO Declaration and the K-2 ZLDA (as defined herein). The Dominant Owner shall bill the other owners for their respective proportionate shares of this expense, which may include, without limitation, the eventual creation of a reserve fund for future repair and maintenance work, as the Dominant Owner shall in its discretion determine, and each of the other owners shall pay its respective share to the Dominant Owner. The costs allocated to the Condominium will be charged to Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests. As the owner, RSPOA is responsible for payment of real estate taxes for the 62nd Street Public Access Area as well as the other Public Access Areas created under the Mapping Agreement and will charge the Sponsor, or the Condominium Board, as applicable, in accordance with the RSPO Declaration.

Purchasers are further advised that until such time that the 62nd Street Public Access Area is conveyed to the RSPOA, the Owner of Parcel J-2, the Aldyn Board and Sponsor (or the Condominium Board following the First Closing) are responsible for maintenance, procuring and maintaining insurance and payment of real estate taxes to the City of New York with respect to the 62nd Street Public Access Area. Sponsor, or the Condominium Board, as applicable, reserves the right to charge Unit Owners for such amounts owed by the Condominium in proportion to their respective Common Interests.

The Mapping Agreement also requires that any deeds for property in Riverside South obligate the grantee to comply with the Mapping Agreement while grantee owns property in Riverside South. Accordingly, all Tower Unit deeds will be deemed to contain an appropriate provision.

Furthermore, pursuant to the Mapping Agreement, the Condominium Board may have the responsibility to maintain and repair the sidewalks adjacent to the Property, and the obligation to hold the City of New York harmless for failure to comply with this maintenance and repair obligation and for any tort liability arising out of failure to maintain and repair. The Mapping Agreement requires maintenance of "adequate" liability insurance protecting the Condominium Board and all Unit Owners and the City for accidents occurring on the sidewalk. Specific insurance provisions are mandated in the Mapping Agreement.

6. Shared Facilities Declaration

Sponsor, the Aldyn Board and the Owner of Parcel J-2 have entered into a Declaration of Covenants, Restrictions, Conditions and Reciprocal Easements, dated June 7, 2011 and recorded on June 21, 2011 in the Office of the City Register, New York County as CRFN 2011000221138 (the "Shared Facilities Declaration"), providing for operation of the Recreational Facility the SFOA. The Shared Facilities Declaration also provides for operation of a courtyard located on Parcels J-1 and J-2, which the Condominium does not have access to and is not responsible for the maintenance and operation of.

Sponsor, the Aldyn Board and the Owner of Parcel J-2 (in such capacities, collectively, the "Recreational Facility Members") are responsible for the costs to operate and maintain the Recreational Facility. Sponsor is presently the Recreational Facility Member for the Property for purposes of the Shared Facilities Declaration. Upon recording of the Condominium Declaration, such status will be transferred to the Condominium Board, and the Condominium Board (acting through the Tower Board) will be the Recreational Facility Member for the Condominium. At such time, the Condominium Board shall appoint the Vice President for SFOA Liaison to attend and represent it at meetings of the SFOA and to vote on behalf of the Condominium at such meetings.

The SFOA will assess each Recreational Facility Member assessments ("Recreational Facility Assessments") for its share of the cost of operating and maintaining the Recreational Facility. The entire amount of the Condominium's Recreational Facility Assessments will be borne by the Tower Section. The Tower Board will be obligated to assess and collect from each Tower Unit Owner, as part of such Owner's Tower Common Charges, such Tower Unit Owner's respective proportionate share of the Recreational Facility Assessments assessed to the Condominium by the SFOA and to remit those fees to the SFOA to pay Recreational Facility Permitted Costs. If the Condominium Board, as a Recreational Facility Member, fails to pay any Recreational Facility Assessment, the SFOA may take action against the Condominium Board for such assessment, or against individual Tower Unit Owners for their proportionate share of such assessment. In addition, if any Recreational Facility Assessment payable by the Condominium to the SFOA shall remain unpaid for sixty (60) days after the due date thereof, the right of residents of the Tower Units to use the Recreational Facility shall be suspended (by such means as the SFOA Board shall elect, in its discretion) until such amounts plus any accrued late charges are paid in full.

7. Recreational Facility Management Agreement

The Aldyn Board, the Owner of Parcel J-2 and Sponsor have entered into a contract with LPMG LLC (d/b/a La Palestra; hereinafter, "La Palestra"), as Recreational Facility Manager, to provide management of the Recreational Facility (including, without limitation, cleaning, lifeguards and pool supplies) (such contract, the "Recreational Facility Management Agreement"). La Palestra is not affiliated with Sponsor, the Aldyn Board, or the Owner of Parcel J-2. Sponsor, the Aldyn Board, and the Owner of Parcel J-2 have each assigned their respective interests in the Recreational Facility Management Agreement to the SFOA. The costs owed to La Palestra pursuant to the Recreational Facility Management Agreement are anticipated to be shared by the Aldyn Board, the Owner of Parcel J-2 and the Condominium Board upon commencement of residential occupancy at the Condominium (i.e., the First Closing). The sharing of this cost will be based on the respective Recreational Facility Allocation Percentages of the Condominium, Building J-1 and Building J-2, as determined from time to time by the SFOA Board. As defined in the Shared Facilities Declaration, the "Recreational Facility Allocation Percentage" of the Condominium means, as of the First Closing, 40.8%, which is subject to adjustment from time to time by the SFOA Board.

The Tower Units will pay the entirety of the Condominium's Recreational Facility expense based on each Tower Unit's respective percentage of Common Interest.

Sponsor makes no representation or warranty that La Palestra will continue be the Recreational Facility Manager during the First Year of Condominium Operation, or at any time thereafter. Purchasers are advised that the SFOA has the sole authority to make determinations with respect to the terms of the Recreational Facility Management Agreement and the replacement and/or retention of the Recreational Facility Manager.

A copy of the executed Recreational Facility Management Agreement is available for review and copying, at Purchaser's expense, in the Sales Office.

8. Party Wall Agreement

BB. GENERAL

Except as set forth herein, there are no lawsuits, administrative proceedings or other proceedings, the outcome of which may materially affect the offering, the Property, Sponsor's capacity to perform all of its obligations under the Plan, the Condominium or the operation of the Condominium.

Sponsor hereby represents that no contracts or agreements, written or oral, have been entered into, and no funds received, with respect to any of the Units offered in this Plan as of the date this Plan is first accepted for filing by the Department of Law.

The Plan does not knowingly omit any material fact or knowingly contain any untrue statement of any material fact. Sponsor believes that the Plan contains a fair summary of the material provisions of the documents referred to in the Plan, including those documents contained in Part II of the Plan. Exact copies are contained in Part II of the Plan of the proposed forms of Declaration, Condominium By-Laws, Tower By-Laws, Option Agreement, Tower Unit Deed, Tower Unit Owner Power of Attorney and other documents. Statements made in Part I of the Plan as to the provisions of such documents or any other document referred to herein, copies of which are on file with Sponsor, are not necessarily complete. CC. RESERVATION OF AIR AND DEVELOPMENT RIGHTS

Sponsor has retained and expressly reserves all excess Air Rights otherwise appurtenant to the Property and not used in connection with the original construction of the Building as described in this Plan. Further, as a result of such reservation by Sponsor, Sponsor may transfer or sell such Air Rights to the owner(s) of adjoining properties and in such case such properties may be increased as a result of such transfer or sale.

The Air Rights reserved by Sponsor will not be used to add additional floors to the top of the Building. Except in the case of a sale or transfer for use in connection with other properties, the reserved Air Rights will be used in the Property solely for the purpose of reconfiguring certain areas (e.g., adding mezzanine space, converting mechanical space to space used for other purposes) which, pursuant to the applicable provision of the Zoning Resolution, will require the use of Air Rights in excess of those used in connection with the initial construction of the Building in accordance with the Plan. Purchaser will be taxed accordingly on such interest, whether or not Purchaser ultimately receives the interest in accordance with the terms of this Article or Article 8.

5. Closing Date and Place.

5.1 The closing of title shall be held at the offices of Sponsor Closing Counsel (or such other place in the City and State of New York as Sponsor may designate to Purchaser) and on such date and hour as Sponsor may designate to Purchaser on not less than thirty (30) days' prior notice. Sponsor may, from time to time, adjourn such date and hour upon reasonable prior notice to Purchaser, which notice shall fix a new date (and hour and place, if appropriate) for the closing of title (but in no event may Sponsor adjourn the date originally set for a closing, once set, for more than twelve months in the aggregate without the consent of Purchaser).

5.2 Whenever used herein, the terms "Closing Date" or "closing of title" or words of similar import shall mean the date on which the deed to the Unit is delivered to Purchaser.

6. Delivery of Deed and Power of Attorney.

6.1 At the closing of title, Sponsor shall deliver to Purchaser a bargain and sale deed with covenant against grantor's acts conveying fee simple title to the Unit to Purchaser, subject only to the liens, encumbrances and title conditions set forth on Schedule B annexed hereto and made a part hereof. Sponsor shall prepare the deed, which shall be substantially in the form set forth in Exhibit 3 in Part II of the Plan, and Sponsor and Purchaser shall execute the deed and have the same acknowledged, in form for recording.

6.2 At the closing of title, Purchaser shall execute and acknowledge a power of attorney to the Condominium Board, Tower Board and Sponsor, prepared by Sponsor and substantially in the form set forth as Exhibit 2 in Part II of the Plan.

6.3 The executed deed and power of attorney shall be delivered to the representative of the title company insuring Purchaser's title (or if no such representative is present, then to Sponsor's attorney) for recording in the City Register's Office, which recording shall be at Purchaser's expense. After being recorded: (i) the deed shall be returned to Purchaser; and (ii) the power of attorney in favor of the Boards and Sponsor shall be returned to the Tower Board (or as such Board shall direct).

6.4 Purchaser's payment of the Balance and acceptance of the deed to the Unit shall constitute Purchaser's recognition that Sponsor has fully and satisfactorily performed those obligations stated in the Plan and/or this Agreement to be performed by Sponsor prior to closing. However, nothing herein contained shall excuse Sponsor from performing those obligations (if any) expressly stated herein or in the Plan to be performed subsequent to the closing, and nothing herein shall be in derogation of the rights of purchasers under Article 23-A of the General Business Law, the Plan or Part 20 of the Regulations issued by the Department of Law.

7. State of Title.

7.1 The title conveyed by Sponsor to Purchaser shall be subject only to the liens, encumbrances and title conditions set forth in Schedule B annexed hereto and made a part hereof. Any lien, encumbrance or condition to which title is not to be subject shall not be an objection to title if: (a) the instrument required to remove it of record is delivered at or prior to the closing of title to the proper party or to Commonwealth Land Title Insurance Company, 2 Grand Central Tower, 140 East 45th Street, New York, New York 10017, New York, New York, Attention: Grace S. Onaga; (212) 220-7003 (or such other title or abstract company designated by Sponsor; the "Title Company"), together with the recording or filing fee; or (b) Purchaser's title insurance company will insure Purchaser, at the company's regular rates and without additional premium, that it will not be collected out of, or enforced against, the Unit; or (c) Purchaser's title insurance company is unwilling to issue the affirmative insurance described in subsection (b) at its regular rates and without additional premium, and the Title Company would be willing to do so at its regular rates and without additional premium (as evidenced by the issuance of the same by the Title Company in connection with the closing of any other Units in the Condominium).

7.2 Sponsor shall be entitled to adjourn the closing to remove or correct any defect in title which is not set forth in Schedule B. However, if such defect existed at least ten (10) days prior to the closing and Purchaser, or Purchaser's attorney, failed to send Sponsor's attorney written notice of such defect in title at least ten (10) days prior to the closing, then, for purposes of Article 12 below, Purchaser shall be deemed at fault for not having sent timely notice, and the closing adjournment to allow Sponsor to correct or remove such title defect shall be considered as having been requested by Purchaser.

7.3 The covenants in the deed will be solely for the personal benefit of Purchaser and will not inure to the benefit of Purchaser's successors or subrogees. In the event of a claimed breach of any covenant of the grantor contained in the deed, Purchaser must first seek recovery against Purchaser's title insurance company before proceeding against Sponsor, it being agreed that the liability of Sponsor will be limited to any loss or damage not covered by such title insurance. In the event that Purchaser elects not to purchase title insurance, then the liability of Sponsor shall be limited to any loss or damage which would not have been covered by the title insurance that was available to Purchaser at the closing. The terms of any marked-up title binder of any title insurance company authorized to do business in New York State issued in connection with any Unit shall be conclusive evidence of the title insurance coverage that was available to Purchaser. The provisions of this Section 7.3 shall survive the closing of title or the termination of this Agreement.

8. Closing Adjustments.

8.1 The following costs with respect to the Unit shall be apportioned between Sponsor and Purchaser as of the Closing Date:

(a) real estate taxes and assessments, if any (including water charges and sewer rents, if separately assessed), on the basis of the period for which assessed;

(b) Common Charges for the month in which title closes; and

(c) if Purchaser is allowed to occupy the Unit prior to the closing, accrued rent and any other charges pursuant to an interim lease or occupancy or other agreement, if any, covering the Unit.

8.2 If the Unit has been separately assessed but the closing of title occurs before the tax rate is fixed, adjustment of taxes shall be based upon the latest tax rate applied to the most recent applicable assessed valuation. Installments for tax assessments due after the delivery of the deed, if any, shall be paid by Purchaser; however, the installment for the then current period shall be apportioned appropriately. If the Unit has not been separately assessed as of the Closing Date for the then current tax period, the adjustment under subsection 8.1(a) hereof shall be based upon the Property's actual taxes and assessment for such period prorated to the Unit in the manner set forth in Section 6.15 of the Tower By-Laws and in Part I of the Plan.

8.3 Sponsor shall remit or cause to be remitted to Purchaser an amount equal to interest, if any, earned on the Deposit, on or promptly after the Closing Date.

8.4 In the event that Purchaser fails to close title to the Unit on the date originally scheduled for the closing of title, postpones the closing for any reason, or is deemed at fault for not timely sending notice of a title defect as provided in Article 7 above, and title thereafter closes, then:

(a) the closing apportionments shall be made as of the originally scheduled closing date regardless of when the actual closing of title occurs; and

(b) Purchaser shall pay Sponsor interest at the rate of 0.03% per day (or such lower rate per day which is the legal limit, if 0.03% per day exceeds the legal limit) on the total purchase price, computed from the original Closing Date until this transaction is actually closed. If, through no fault of Purchaser, Sponsor postpones the originally scheduled Closing Date, the foregoing provisions shall apply to the rescheduled Closing Date if Purchaser fails for any reason to close title to the Unit on the rescheduled Closing Date.

8.5 Adjustments and apportionments shall be calculated on the basis of the actual number of days in the period for which payments were made or are due, as the case may be. The "Customs in Respect to Title Closings" recommended by The Real Estate Board of New York, Inc., as amended to date, shall apply to the adjustments and other matters therein mentioned, except as aforesaid and as otherwise provided herein or in the Plan.

8.6 Any errors or omissions in calculating apportionments at closing shall be corrected, and payment shall be made to the proper party, promptly after discovery. This provision shall survive the closing.

9. Closing Costs.

Purchaser shall be required to pay certain costs in connection with the purchase of the Unit, in addition to any net credit in favor of Sponsor that may result from the closing adjustments and any interest or late closing charge described in Article 8. Other than any such net credit in favor of Sponsor that may result from the closing adjustments (or certain other fees which may be payable prior to the closing, as described below), all such closing costs shall be paid by Purchaser, at closing, by Purchaser's unendorsed, personal certified check or by official bank check, in either event drawn only upon a bank that is a member of the New York Clearing House Association. Such closing costs will include the following, the amounts of which (where applicable) are based on rates in effect on the date hereof and are subject to change without prior notice:

9.1 If Purchaser elects to obtain fee title insurance, Purchaser will pay a premium to the title company for such insurance, which will vary depending upon the amount of insurance purchased.

9.2 Purchaser will pay a fee to the City Register for recording the deed and the power of attorney of approximately $37.00 for each instrument plus $5.00 for each page (including the cover page), plus a $125.00 filing fee for the RP-5217 form. In addition,

Purchaser's title insurance company may charge various fees and service charges in connection with such recordings and filings, all of which shall be payable by Purchaser.

9.3 If Purchaser obtains a mortgage loan, Purchaser shall pay all closing costs associated with such loan, which may include, but need not be limited to, the following:

(a) a fee and service charge for recording the mortgage at the same rates given above for recording the deed and power of attorney;

(b) a mortgage recording tax in the amount provided for by law, which on the date hereof is 2.05% of the principal amount of the mortgage for mortgages of less than $500,000 and 2.175% of the principal amount of the mortgage for mortgages equal to or greater than $500,000, and which shall have the amount (if any) payable to Sponsor under subparagraph (c) below deducted;

(c) to Sponsor, a sum equal to the full amount (but not in excess thereof) of the partial mortgage recording tax credit provided by Section 339-ee(2) of the New York Condominium Act, to the extent the same is or becomes available, as a reimbursement for the mortgage recording taxes previously paid (such credit is based, in general, on the Common Interest of the Units being purchased multiplied by a portion of the mortgage tax previously paid on account of pre-existing mortgages on the Property);

(d) the premium for mortgage title insurance, if required by Purchaser's lender;

(e) deposits for Common Charges, real estate taxes, any assessments, water charges and sewer rents (if separately assessed), if required by Purchaser's lender; and

(f) such other costs and expenses in connection with such loan as determined by Purchaser's lender.

9.4 Purchaser will be responsible for payment of the following fees to the Extell Legal Department ("Sponsor's Closing Counsel"), in connection with the closing of title to such Purchaser's Unit: (i) the sum of $4,000 per Unit as a closing fee in connection with the closing of title to the Purchaser's Unit, and for each issuance of a Storage License, the sum of $500 as a fee in connection with processing the issuance of such Storage License; (ii) if the Purchaser requests the closing to occur other than at the offices of Sponsor's Closing Counsel (or such other place as Sponsor may designate in its closing notice) and Sponsor consents to such change (in its sole discretion), an attendance fee of $500 (closings may not be scheduled to occur outside Manhattan); (iii) if the closing is adjourned through no fault of Sponsor, an additional fee of $300 for each such adjournment to help defray the cost of preparing for and coordinating the new closing; (iv) if Sponsor, in its sole discretion, consents to a Purchaser's request for an assignment of this Agreement, or for the addition, deletion or substitution of names on the Agreement, a fee of $1,500, payable in advance, for preparation of an assignment agreement; (v) $250 for the preparation of ACRIS transfer documents required by the City of New York; (vi) if Purchaser obtains mortgage financing, an additional fee of $700 to Sponsor's Closing Counsel to defray the additional costs associated therewith; and (vii) Purchaser shall pay Sponsor's Closing Counsel the sum of $600 in connection with the consideration, review and processing of any agreement of exchange or the like which Sponsor is requested to execute in connection with any tax deferred exchange under §1031 of the Internal Revenue Code. Purchaser may be required to pay more than one fee pursuant to the preceding provisions of this paragraph with respect to a single Unit.

9.5 Purchaser shall make a contribution to the Working Capital Fund of the Condominium, payable to the Tower Board, in an amount equal to two (2) months' Common Charges then in effect for each Unit pursuant to the Condominium budget and in accordance with Schedule A in the Plan, as the same may be amended from time to time.

9.6 Purchaser shall pay to the Tower Board the Tower Common Charges for the Unit for the first full month following the month in which title closes. In addition, if Purchaser is a foreign government, a resident representative of a foreign government or such other person or entity otherwise entitled to the immunities from suit enjoyed by a foreign government (i.e., diplomatic or sovereign immunity) shall pay to the Tower Board an amount equal to the Tower Common Charges for such Unit for a period of two (2) years as security for the faithful observance by such Unit Owner of the terms, provisions and conditions of the Tower By-Laws. In the event that Purchaser defaults in respect of the terms, provisions and conditions of the Tower By-Laws, the Tower Board may use, apply, or retain the whole or any part of the security so paid in advance to the extent required for the payment of any Tower Common Charges or any other sum as to which Purchaser is in default; and such Unit Owner shall, within thirty (30) days after notice from the Tower Board, deposit with such Board the amount so applied or retained so that at the option of such Board, the Board shall have the full amount of said security on hand at all times. The provisions of the preceding sentence shall survive the closing of title.

9.7 Purchaser shall pay the Real Estate Transfer Tax due to the State of New York (the so-called "deed stamps" and, if applicable, the so-called "mansion tax"), the Real Property Transfer Tax due to the City of New York and any other real property transfer tax due to the City or State of New York. Purchaser agrees to indemnify and hold Sponsor harmless from and against any and all liabilities and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable legal fees and disbursements) incurred by Sponsor by reason of the non-payment by Purchaser of any of the taxes Purchaser is obligated to pay hereunder in connection with the purchase of the Unit. Purchaser's obligations to pay the taxes described in this Section 9.7 and to indemnify Sponsor as herein provided shall survive the closing of title or the termination of this Agreement.

9.8 In connection with the purchase of a Tower Unit, Purchaser will be required to pay to the Tower Board Purchaser's share of the purchase price (and additional closing costs) of the Resident Manager's Unit determined in proportion to Purchaser's respective Common Interest in accordance with Schedule A in the Plan.

10. Transfer Tax Returns. At the closing, Purchaser shall duly complete and sign before a notary public the real property transfer tax return required to be filed with The City of New York ("RPT Form") and Purchaser shall duly complete and sign the Combined Real Estate Transfer Tax Return and Credit Line Mortgage Certificate ("Combined Tax Form") required to be filed with the Department of Taxation and Finance of the State of New York (the "Tax Department"), or such other forms as may then be required by law. The RPT Form and Combined Tax Form shall be delivered at closing to the representative of Purchaser's title insurance company (or, if none, to Sponsor's attorney) for filing with the proper governmental officer. Sponsor will similarly execute all of such forms and other documents required in connection with recording of the deed including, without limitation, smoke detector and multiple-dwelling affidavits.

11. The Plan.

11.1 Purchaser acknowledges having received and read a copy of the Plan, including all amendments thereto, if any, filed prior to the date hereof with the Department of Law of the State of New York, at least three (3) business days before submitting this Agreement. If, however, Purchaser did not receive a copy of the Plan at least three (3) business days before submitting this Agreement, Purchaser may rescind this Agreement, by sending written notice of same to Sponsor by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, or by personal delivery, in either case within seven (7) days of Purchaser's submission of this Agreement.

11.2 The Plan is incorporated herein by reference and made a part hereof with the same force and effect as if set forth herein at length. In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of this Agreement and the Plan, the Plan shall govern, except with respect to express modifications to the terms of the Plan included in this Agreement and agreed to by Sponsor and Purchaser, in which case such modifications will govern.

11.3 Purchaser hereby adopts, accepts and approves the Plan (including, without limitation, the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws, the Tower By-Laws (and Rules and Regulations contained therein) and agrees to abide and be bound by the terms and conditions thereof, as well as all amendments to the Plan duly filed by Sponsor.

12. Default by Purchaser. (a) Any of the following shall constitute an "Event of Default" hereunder:

(i) Purchaser's failure to pay the Additional Deposit on the date set forth in Article 3 hereof, Purchaser's failure to pay the Balance or any closing apportionment or closing cost required to be paid by Purchaser in Article 8 or 9 hereof on the Closing Date designated by Sponsor pursuant to Article 5 hereof, or the dishonor of any check given by Purchaser to Sponsor; or the failure to pay, perform or observe any of Purchaser's other obligations hereunder; or

(ii) the occurrence of any Events of Default under any other Agreement between Sponsor and Purchaser, or between Sponsor and any member or members of Purchaser's immediate family or between Sponsor and any parent, affiliate or subsidiary of Purchaser; or

(iii) if Purchaser is permitted to become the tenant or other occupant of the Unit, Purchaser's failure to pay rent or to perform some other lease or occupancy obligation within the period after notice, if any, set forth in the lease or occupancy or other agreement and either (x) Sponsor has obtained an order of eviction against Purchaser from a court of competent jurisdiction or (y) Purchaser has vacated the Unit; or

(iv) Purchaser's assignment of any of Purchaser's property for the benefit of creditors, or Purchaser's filing a voluntary petition in bankruptcy; or

(v) if a non-bankruptcy trustee or receiver is appointed over Purchaser or Purchaser's property, or an involuntary petition in bankruptcy is filed against Purchaser; or

(vi) if a judgment or tax lien is filed against Purchaser and Purchaser does not pay or bond the same within thirty (30) days.

(b) TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE with respect to Purchaser's obligations to pay the Balance and to pay, perform or observe Purchaser's other obligations under this Agreement. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, Purchaser shall have thirty (30) days from the giving of written notice of such default to cure the specified default. If the default is not cured within such thirty (30) days, TIME BEING OF THE ESSENCE, then Sponsor, in its sole discretion, may thereupon cancel this Agreement. If Sponsor elects to cancel, this Agreement shall be deemed cancelled, and Sponsor shall have the right to retain, as and for liquidated damages, the Deposit and any interest earned on the Deposit. Upon the cancellation of this Agreement, Purchaser and Sponsor will be released and discharged of all further liability and obligations hereunder and under the Plan, and the Unit may be sold to another as though this Agreement had never been made, and without accounting to Purchaser for any of the proceeds of such sale. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if this Agreement is not exempt under Section 1702 of the Interstate Land Sales Full Disclosure Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1701, et. seq., and if Purchaser loses rights and interest in the Unit as a result of a default or breach of this Agreement which occurs after Purchaser has paid fifteen percent (15%) of the Purchase Price of the Unit, excluding any interest owed under this Agreement, Sponsor (or Sponsor's successor) shall refund to Purchaser any amount which remains after subtracting (A) fifteen percent (15%) of the Purchase Price, excluding any interest owed under and disposed of in accordance with this Agreement, or the amount of damages incurred by Sponsor (or Sponsor's successor) as a result of such breach, whichever is greater, from (B) the Deposit paid by Purchaser, excluding any interest paid under this Agreement (which interest shall be disposed of as set forth in this Agreement).

(c) Sponsor and Purchaser each hereby agree and acknowledge that it would be impractical and/or extremely difficult to fix or establish the actual damage sustained by Sponsor as a result of a default by a Purchaser hereunder, and that the Deposit (including all interest) shall constitute and be deemed to be the reasonable and agreed upon liquidated damages of Sponsor in respect of the possible loss of a timely closing, the possible fluctuation of values, additional carrying costs of the Unit and other expenses that may be incurred, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, and shall be paid by Purchaser to Sponsor. The payment of the deposit (including all interest) as liquidated damages is not intended to be a forfeiture or penalty, but is intended to constitute liquidated damages to Sponsor. For the avoidance of doubt, no statutory interest will accrue during any period of time during which there is a dispute over the Deposit being held in escrow.

(d) NEITHER SELLER NOR PURCHASER SHALL CHALLENGE THE VALIDITY OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT OR THE PLAN WITH RESPECT TO LIQUIDATED DAMAGES OR ANY RIGHT OF SPONSOR SET FORTH HEREIN OR THEREIN TO RETAIN THE DEPOSIT IN THE EVENT OF A PURCHASER DEFAULT. SUCH PROVISIONS HAVE BEEN AGREED TO VOLUNTARILY, AFTER NEGOTIATION, WITHOUT DURESS OR COERCION BY ANY PARTY UPON ANY OTHER PARTY, AND WITH EACH PARTY HAVING BEEN (OR HAVING HAD FULL AND ADEQUATE OPPORTUNITY TO BE) REPRESENTED AND ADVISED BY COUNSEL, ACCOUNTANTS, BROKERS, APPRAISERS AND OTHER EXPERTS AND ADVISORS OF ITS OWN CHOOSING.

13. Agreement Subject to Lien of Mortgage. No lien or encumbrance shall arise against the Property or the Unit as a result of this Agreement or any money deposited hereunder, except as hereinafter set forth. In furtherance and not in limitation of the provisions of the preceding sentence, Purchaser agrees that the provisions of this Agreement are and shall continue to be subject and subordinate to the lien of any mortgage heretofore or hereafter made and any payments or expenses already made or incurred or which hereafter may be made or incurred, pursuant to the terms thereof, or incidental thereto, or to protect the security thereof, to the fullest extent thereof, without the execution of any further legal documents by Purchaser. Sponsor shall, at its option, either satisfy such mortgages or obtain a release of the Unit and its undivided interest in the Common Elements from the lien of such mortgages on or prior to the Closing Date, unless, if Purchaser is obtaining financing on the Unit, Purchaser assumes such mortgages (at Sponsor's discretion). The existence of any mortgage or mortgages encumbering the Property, or portions thereof, other than the Unit and its undivided interest in the Common Elements, shall not constitute an objection to title or excuse Purchaser from completing payment of the Purchase Price or performing all of Purchaser's other obligations hereunder or be the basis of any claim against, or liability of, Sponsor, provided that any such mortgage is subordinated to the Declaration, or the Unit is released from, or not subject to, the lien of such mortgage at closing (unless Purchaser has assumed the continuation of a mortgage lien encumbering such Unit as hereinabove described).

14. Agreement Subject to Plan Being Effective. The performance by Sponsor of its obligations under this Agreement is contingent upon the Plan having been declared effective in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Plan (as the same may be amended from time to time). The Plan may be withdrawn or abandoned by Sponsor only under certain conditions and at certain times, as set forth in the Plan. If the Plan is abandoned or if, after being declared effective, the Plan is not consummated for any reason and Purchaser is not in default under this Agreement beyond any applicable grace period, this Agreement shall be deemed cancelled and the Deposit, together with interest, if any, earned thereon, shall be returned to Purchaser. Upon such return, neither party shall have any further rights, obligations or liability to or against the other and the parties shall be released and discharged from all obligations and liability under this Agreement and the Plan.

15. Sponsor's Inability to Convey the Unit. If Sponsor is unable to deliver title to the Unit to Purchaser in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and the Plan by reason of a defect in title, substantial damage or destruction of the Building by fire or other casualty, or the taking of any material portion of the Property by condemnation or eminent domain, Sponsor shall not be obligated to bring any action or proceeding or otherwise incur any cost or expense of any nature whatsoever in excess of its obligations set forth in the Plan in order to cure such inability. If Sponsor is not so obligated under the Plan and notifies Purchaser of its election not to cure such inability, and Purchaser is not in default hereunder, Purchaser's sole remedy shall be to either (a) take title to the Unit subject to such inability (without any abatement in or credit against the Purchase Price, or any claim or right of action against Sponsor for damages or otherwise) or (b) terminate this Agreement. If Purchaser so elects to terminate this Agreement, Sponsor shall, within thirty (30) days after receipt of notice of termination from Purchaser, return the Deposit to Purchaser, together with interest, if any, earned thereon. Upon making such payment, this Agreement shall be terminated and neither party shall have any further rights, obligations or liability to or against the other and the parties shall be released and discharged from all obligations and liability under this Agreement and the Plan. The foregoing remedy must be exercised by written notice sent by Purchaser to Sponsor within ten (10) days after the giving of Sponsor's notice of election not to cure such inability, failing which it shall be conclusively deemed that Purchaser elected the first remedy above to acquire title subject to such inability.

16. Fixtures, Appliances and Personal Property. Only those fixtures, appliances and items of personal property which are described in the Plan as being included in the Unit are included in the sale of the Unit pursuant to this Agreement. No portion of the Purchase Price shall be attributable to such items.

17. Construction.

17.1 The construction of the Building and the Unit, including the materials, equipment and fixtures to be installed therein, shall be substantially in accordance with the Plan and the Plans and Specifications (as defined in the Plan), subject to the right of Sponsor to amend the Plan and the Plans and Specifications in order to substitute materials, equipment or fixtures of equal or better quality, provided that the approval of any governmental authorities having jurisdiction is first obtained (if required). The issuance of a temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building shall be deemed presumptive evidence that the Building and the Unit have been fully completed in accordance with the Plan and the Plans and Specifications. However, nothing herein contained shall excuse Sponsor from its obligation to correct any defects in construction in accordance with the conditions set forth in the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" in Part I of the Plan.

17.2 The construction of the Building and the Unit and the correction of any defects in the construction thereof to the extent required under the Plan are the sole responsibility of Sponsor. Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that Sponsor will not be liable for, and will have no obligation to correct, certain variations from the Plan and Plans and Specifications as indicated in the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" in Part I of the Plan and will only be responsible to correct any construction defects to the extent, and on the terms and conditions, set forth in such Section.

17.3 The closing of title shall occur only after, or concurrently with, compliance with the prerequisites set forth under "Prerequisites to Closing of Title" in Part I of the Plan. As a result, if all other prerequisites not involving the construction of the Unit are met, Purchaser shall be obligated to close and complete payment of the full Purchase Price (without any credit against or abatement in the Purchase Price and without any provision for escrow) once a temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy is issued for the Unit (notwithstanding any construction items noted on Purchaser's Inspection Report (as hereinafter defined) remaining for Sponsor to complete and/or correct in accordance with its obligations under the Plan, and notwithstanding the incomplete construction and/or decoration of any other portions of the Building).

17.4 Sponsor has projected that, based upon currently anticipated schedules, construction/renovation of the Building will be sufficiently completed to permit closings of Units to begin in or about July 1, 2015. The actual date for the First Closing is only an estimate and is not guaranteed or warranted, and may be earlier or later depending on the progress of construction and compliance with the other prerequisites described in the Plan. Purchaser acknowledges that construction may be delayed by weather, casualty, labor difficulties (including work stoppages and strikes), late delivery or inability to obtain on a timely basis or otherwise materials or equipment, governmental restrictions, or other events beyond Sponsor's reasonable control. Purchaser further acknowledges that the Units in the Building will be completed at varying times over a period that could extend well beyond the First Closing. The order in which the Units will be completed is in the discretion of Sponsor. Purchaser acknowledges that except as otherwise expressly provided in the Plan, Purchaser shall not be excused from paying the full Purchase Price, without credit or set-off, and shall have no claim against Sponsor for damages or losses, in the event that the First Closing occurs substantially earlier or later than the projected date or the time to complete or to close title to the Unit is accelerated, delayed or is postponed by Sponsor, Purchaser's rights as set forth in Plan in respect thereof being in lieu of any other rights or remedies which may be available pursuant to any applicable law, regulation, statute or otherwise, all of are hereby expressly waived by Purchaser.

18. Inspection of Unit. At least one (1) week prior to the Closing Date, at Sponsor's direction, Selling Agent or Sponsor's Closing Counsel shall notify Purchaser that the Unit is ready for inspection. Upon receipt of the notice, Purchaser shall promptly arrange an appointment with Selling Agent to inspect the Unit within the week prior to the Closing Date. Purchaser or his or her duly authorized agent shall attend such inspection, shall carefully inspect the Unit, and shall complete, date and sign the Inspection Statement (in the form set forth as Schedule C to this Agreement) and deliver same to Selling Agent at the conclusion of the inspection. Failure of Purchaser either to arrange such appointment or to inspect the Unit within the week prior to the Closing Date or to so sign and deliver the completed Inspection Statement shall not excuse Purchaser from paying the Balance when due and shall constitute Purchaser's full acceptance of the Unit. Sponsor reserves the right to limit the number of individuals who may accompany Purchaser in its inspection of the Unit. However, nothing herein shall relieve Sponsor of its obligations as set forth in "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" in the Plan.

19. Damage to the Unit. If between the date of this Agreement and the closing of title, the Unit is damaged by fire or other casualty, the following shall apply:

19.1 The risk of loss to the Unit by fire or other casualty, until the earlier of closing of title or possession of the Unit by Purchaser, is assumed by Sponsor; provided that Sponsor shall have no obligation or liability to repair or restore the Unit. In the event of damage or destruction of the Unit due to fire or other casualty prior to the closing of title and the election by Sponsor to repair or restore the Unit, this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect, Purchaser shall not have the right to reject title or receive a credit against, or abatement in, the Purchase Price and Sponsor shall be entitled to a reasonable period of time within which to complete the repair or restoration. Any proceeds received from insurance or in satisfaction of any claim or action in connection with such loss shall, subject to the rights of the Board and other Unit Owners if the Declaration has theretofore been recorded, belong entirely to Sponsor and if such proceeds are paid to Purchaser, Purchaser shall promptly upon receipt thereof turn them over to Sponsor. The provisions of the preceding sentence shall survive the closing of title or the termination of the Agreement.

19.2 In the event of damage to or destruction of the Unit by fire or other casualty prior to the closing of title and the election by Sponsor, with notice thereof to Purchaser, that it does not elect to repair or restore the Unit, or, if the Declaration has been recorded prior thereto, then if the Unit Owners do not resolve to make such repairs or restoration pursuant to the By-Laws, this Agreement shall be deemed cancelled and of no further force or effect and Sponsor shall return to Purchaser all sums deposited by Purchaser hereunder, together with interest, if any, earned thereon, and neither party shall have any further rights, obligations or liability to or against the other and the parties shall be released and discharged from all obligations and liability hereunder and under the Plan, except that if Purchaser is then in default hereunder (beyond the applicable grace period, if any), Sponsor shall retain all such sums deposited by Purchaser hereunder and any interest earned thereon, as and for liquidated damages.

20. No Representations. Purchaser acknowledges that Purchaser has not relied upon any architect's plans, sales plans, selling brochures, advertisements, websites, representations, warranties, statements or estimates of any nature whatsoever, whether written or oral, made by Sponsor, Selling Agent or otherwise, including, but not limited to, any relating to the description or physical condition of the Property, the Building or the Unit, or the size or the dimensions of the Unit or the rooms therein contained or any other physical characteristics thereof, the services to be provided to Unit Owners, the estimated Common Charges allocable to the Unit, the estimated real estate taxes of the Unit, the ability to rent the Unit and/or the rental income therefor, the right to any income tax deduction for any real estate taxes or mortgage interest paid by Purchaser, or any other data, except as herein or in the Plan specifically represented; Purchaser has relied solely on his or her own judgment and investigation in deciding to enter into this Agreement and purchase the Unit. No person has been authorized to make any representations on behalf of Sponsor. No oral representations or statements shall be considered a part of this Agreement. Purchaser agrees (a) to purchase the Unit, without offset or any claim against, or liability of, Sponsor, whether or not any layout or dimension of the Unit or any part thereof, or of the Common Elements, as shown on the Floor Plans on file in Sponsor's office and to be filed in the City Register's Office, is accurate or correct, and (b) that Purchaser shall not be relieved of any of Purchaser's obligations hereunder by reason of any immaterial or insubstantial inaccuracy or error. The provisions of this Article 20 shall survive the closing of title or the termination of this Agreement.

21. Prohibition Against Advertising. Purchaser hereby covenants and agrees that it shall not, prior to the closing of title hereunder, list the Unit for sale or resale with any broker or otherwise advertise, promote, or publicize the availability of the Unit for sale. Any such listing of the Unit or form of advertising, promotion or publicizing of the Unit by Purchaser or its agents or representatives prior to the closing of title shall be an Event of Default hereunder, entitling Sponsor to the remedies set forth in Article 12 hereof. In addition, Purchaser hereby covenants and agrees that, Purchaser may not and shall not advertise for sale, list for sale or sell the Unit for twelve (12) months after acquisition of the Unit (i.e., the transfer of title by Sponsor to Purchaser). Any such conveyance in violation of the foregoing will be voidable by Sponsor. The provisions of this paragraph shall survive the closing of title.

22. Broker. Purchaser represents to Sponsor that Selling Agent and [_____] (the "Broker") is [are] the only broker(s) or sales agent(s) with whom Purchaser has dealt in connection with this transaction. Purchaser shall pay the commission of any broker with whom Purchaser may have dealt, other than Selling Agent [and the Broker], and Sponsor agrees to pay the commissions earned by Selling Agent and the Broker pursuant to separate agreements. Purchaser agrees that should any claim be made against Sponsor for commissions by any broker[, other than the Selling Agent and Broker,] on account of any acts of Purchaser or Purchaser's representatives, Purchaser will indemnify and hold Sponsor free and harmless from and against any and all liabilities and expenses in connection therewith, including, but not limited to, reasonable legal fees and disbursements. The provisions of this Article 22 shall survive the closing of title or the termination of this Agreement.

23. Agreement May Not Be Assigned.

23.1 This Agreement, or any interest of Purchaser herein, shall not inure to the benefit of any successors or assigns of Purchaser and may not be assigned by Purchaser, without the prior written consent of Sponsor, which consent may be given or denied by Sponsor in its sole discretion. Any purported assignment by Purchaser in violation of this Agreement shall be an event of default by Purchaser entitling Sponsor to all remedies available at law, in equity or otherwise, including, without limitation, the remedies set forth in Article 12 hereof, and shall be voidable at the option of Sponsor.

23.2 If Purchaser is a corporation, any sale, assignment, transfer, pledge, encumbrance or other disposition of any of the stock of Purchaser, or if Purchaser is a partnership, limited liability company or other entity, any sale, assignment, transfer, pledge, encumbrance or other disposition of any interest in such partnership, limited liability company or other entity shall, for purposes of this Agreement, be considered an assignment and shall be subject to the provisions, prohibitions and terms of this Article concerning assignment of this Agreement, except that a sale of less than fifty percent (50%) of the stock, or in the case of a partnership, limited liability company or other entity, less than fifty percent (50%) of the ownership interests, of Purchaser which does not result in a change in control of Purchaser shall not be considered an assignment. For purposes of the preceding sentence only, "control" shall mean the ownership of fifty-one percent (51%) or more of the interests in such entity or possession of the power to direct the management and policies of such entity and the distribution of its profits. For purposes of this Agreement, it is the intent of the part(ies) that the individuals controlling Purchaser shall be deemed to be _____.

23.3 If a Purchaser desires to assign its rights under this Agreement or to take title in the name of an affiliate of, or entity related to, or controlled by Purchaser that differs from that reflected in this Agreement, or to add, delete or substitute the name of a member of the Purchaser's family, then, if such assignment, alteration, addition, deletion or substitution is permitted by Sponsor (in Sponsor's sole discretion), Purchaser shall deliver to Selling Agent or Sponsor's counsel, four (4) signed forms of assignment of this Agreement (to be prepared by Sponsor's counsel at Purchaser's expense and in form and content acceptable to Sponsor, in its sole discretion), as well as three (3) completed and signed copies of either Form W-9 (Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification) or Form W-8BEN (Certificate of Foreign Status of Beneficial Owner for United States Tax Withholding), as applicable, in the form required by law. Upon each assignment or other change permitted by Sponsor (in its sole discretion), the assignments and Form W-8 or Form W-9, as applicable, must be delivered to Selling Agent or Sponsor's counsel, together with a personal certified check, or an official bank or cashier's check, in the amount of $1,500 made payable to "Extell Legal Department" (for services rendered in connection with the assignment), not less than twenty (20) days prior to the date scheduled for the Purchaser's closing. In no event shall Purchaser or its assignee (or any added or substituted party) have any right to adjourn or postpone the closing as a result of any such change or assignment. Sponsor is not obligated to consent to any such change or assignment and, Sponsor's refusal to consent to an assignment or change in name will not entitle Purchaser to cancel this Agreement or excuse Purchaser from any of its obligations hereunder or give rise to any claim for damages against Sponsor; and the prohibition against advertising or publicizing the availability of Purchaser's Unit as set forth in Article 21 above and in the Plan will remain in effect.

23.4 Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 23.1 above, Sponsor will not unreasonably withhold its consent to the assignment by Purchaser, on one (1) occasion only, of all of Purchaser's rights under this Agreement to a Purchaser Affiliate or to member(s) of Purchaser's Immediate Family, provided that any such assignment is made without consideration and otherwise in accordance with the provisions and procedures set forth in Section 23.3 above. For purposes of this Section 23.4 only: (i) "Purchaser Affiliate" means an entity, as of the date of the assignment and at all times thereafter through and including the Closing, controlled by or under common control with Purchaser; (ii) "Immediate Family Members" means Purchaser's spouse, domestic partner, children, grandchildren, parents, grandparents, brothers or sisters, stepchildren and stepparents; and (iii) "control" means the ownership of fifty-one percent (51%) or more of the interests in such entity and possession of the power to direct the management and policies of such entity and the distribution of its profits.

23.5 Notwithstanding any consent by Sponsor pursuant to the terms of this Article to any such change of name or assignment, in no event shall Purchaser, as assignor, be released or relieved from any obligations, promises, covenants and liabilities under or in respect of this Agreement.

24. Binding Effect. The submission of this Agreement to Purchaser does not create a binding obligation on the part of Sponsor. This Agreement shall not be binding on Purchaser or Sponsor until Purchaser has signed this Agreement and delivered the signed Agreement and the Deposit to Sponsor, and a counterpart hereof executed by Sponsor has been delivered to Purchaser. If this Agreement is not signed by Sponsor and a fully executed counterpart delivered to Purchaser or its attorneys within thirty (30) days after the date hereof, this Agreement shall be deemed to have been rejected and the Deposit shall be promptly returned to Purchaser. Upon such refund being made, neither party shall have any further rights, obligations or liabilities hereunder with respect to the other. Prior to Sponsor's countersigning and returning this Agreement to Purchaser, and at any time thereafter, Purchaser agrees upon request to provide Sponsor with written information about Purchaser's employment, financial and rental/ownership history. Such information obtained prior to countersignature may be used to determine Purchaser's qualification to purchase and own the Unit, but does not constitute a reservation or binding obligation on either the applicant or Sponsor. Sponsor has the right, without incurring any liability, to reject this Agreement without cause or explanation to Purchaser. This Agreement may not be rejected due to Purchaser's sex, sexual orientation, race, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, disability, marital status, or other ground proscribed by law.

25.1 Any notice, election, demand, consent, request or other communication hereunder or under the Plan shall be in writing and either delivered in person or sent, postage prepaid, by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested or by Federal Express or other reputable overnight courier, with receipt confirmed: to Purchaser at the address given at the beginning of this Agreement; and to Sponsor, addressed to Selling Agent at: Extell Marketing Group LLC, c/o Extell Development Company, 805 Third Avenue, Seventh Floor, New York, New York 10022, with a copy sent simultaneously and in like manner to Legal Department of Extell Development Company, located at 805 Third Avenue, Seventh Floor, New York, New York 10022. Either party may hereafter designate to the other in writing a change in the address to which notices are to be sent. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, a notice shall be deemed given when personal delivery or delivery by overnight courier is effected or, in the case of mailing, three (3) days after the date of mailing, except that the date of actual receipt shall be deemed to be the date of the giving of any notice of change of address. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, notices regarding closing costs or ministerial matters, the rescheduling of Closing Dates or the scheduling or rescheduling of inspections may be made by facsimile, electronic mail or telephone to each party's attorneys.

25.2 Sponsor hereby designates and empowers both Selling Agent and Sponsor's counsel (Extell Legal Department) as Sponsor's agent to give any notice to Purchaser under this Agreement (including, without limitation, a notice of default) in Sponsor's name, which notice so given shall have the same force and effect as if given by Sponsor itself.

26. Joint Purchasers. The term "Purchaser" shall be read as "Purchasers" if the Unit is being purchased by more than one person, in which case their obligations shall be joint and several.

27. Liability of Sponsor. Sponsor shall be excused from performing any obligation or undertaking provided for in this Agreement for so long as such performance is prevented, delayed or hindered by an act of God, fire, flood, explosion, war, riot, sabotage, inability to procure or general shortage of energy, labor, equipment, facilities, materials or supplies in the open market, failure of transportation, strike, lockout, action of labor unions, or any other cause (whether similar or dissimilar to the foregoing) not within the reasonable control of Sponsor.

Sponsor's time to perform such obligation or undertaking shall be tolled for the length of the period during which such performance was excused.

28. Further Assurances. Either party shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the other party such instruments and take such other actions, in addition to the instruments and actions specifically provided for herein, as such other party may reasonably request in order to effectuate the provisions of this Agreement or of any transaction contemplated herein or to confirm or perfect any right to be created or transferred hereunder or pursuant to any such transaction.

29. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or the Plan is invalid or unenforceable as against any person or under certain circumstances, the remainder of this Agreement or the Plan and the applicability of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby. Each provision of this Agreement or the Plan, except as otherwise herein or therein provided, shall be valid and enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.

30. Strict Compliance. Any failure by either party hereto to insist upon the strict performance by the other party of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of any of the provisions hereof, and each party, notwithstanding any such failure, shall have the right thereafter to insist upon the strict performance by the other party of any and all of the provisions of this Agreement to be performed by such other party.

31. No Lien. Neither this Agreement nor any monies deposited hereunder or expended by Purchaser in connection herewith shall constitute a lien against the Unit, any other Units, or any other portion of the Building or the Land upon which it is situated, and Purchaser may not record this Agreement or a memorandum thereof.

32. Governing Law. The provisions of this Agreement shall be governed by, and construed and enforced in accordance with, the internal laws of the State of New York applicable to contracts made and to be performed wholly in the State of New York, without regard to principles of conflicts of law.

33. Purchaser's Representations.

33.1 Purchaser represents that Purchaser has full right and authority to execute this Agreement and perform Purchaser's obligations hereunder. If Purchaser is not a natural person, Purchaser agrees to deliver at Closing, such documents evidencing Purchaser's authority as may be required by Purchaser's title company. Purchaser further represents that the Deposit represents Purchaser's own funds and that no other party (other than Purchaser or Seller, as provided herein) has any right or claim to all or any portion of the Deposit.

33.2 Purchaser is not now, nor shall it be at any time prior to or at the closing of title, an individual, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, trustee, limited liability company, unincorporated organization, real estate investment trust or any other form of entity (collectively, a "Person") with whom a United States citizen, entity organized under the laws of the United States or its territories or entity having its principal place of business within the United States or any of its territories (collectively, a "U.S. Person"), is prohibited from transacting business of the type contemplated by this Agreement, whether such prohibition arises under United States law, regulation, executive orders and lists published by the Office of Foreign Assets Control, Department of the Treasury ("OFAC") (including those executive orders and lists published by OFAC with respect to Persons that have been designated by executive order or by the sanction regulations of OFAC as Persons with whom U.S. Persons may not transact business or must limit their interactions to types approved by OFAC or otherwise. Neither Purchaser nor any Person who owns an interest in Purchaser is now nor shall be at any time prior to or at the closing of title a Person with whom a U.S. Person, including a "financial institution" as defined in 31 U.S.C. 5312 (a)(z), as periodically amended, is prohibited from transacting business of the type contemplated by this Agreement, whether such prohibition arises under United States law, regulation, executive orders and lists published by the OFAC or otherwise.

33.3 Purchaser has taken, and shall continue to take until the closing of title, such measures as are required by applicable law to assure that the funds used to pay to Seller the Purchase Price are derived: (i) from transactions that do not violate United States law nor, to the extent such funds originate outside the United States, do not violate the laws of the jurisdiction in which they originated; and (ii) from permissible sources under United States law and to the extent such funds originate outside the United States, under the laws of the jurisdiction in which they originated. Purchaser is, and will at closing be, in compliance with any and all applicable provisions of the USA PATRIOT Act of 2001, Pub. L. No. 107-56, the Bank Secrecy Act of 1970, as amended, 31 U.S.C. Section 5311 et. seq., the Trading with the Enemy Act, 50 U.S.C. App. Section 1 et. seq., the International Emergency Economic Powers Act, 50 U.S.C. Section 1701 et. seq., and the sanction regulations promulgated pursuant thereto by the OFAC, as well as laws relating to prevention and detection of money laundering in 18 U.S.C. Sections 1956 and 1957.

33.4 The provisions of this Article shall survive the closing of title to the Unit or termination of this Agreement.

34. Agreement Not Contingent Upon Financing. The terms and provisions of this Agreement and Purchaser's obligations hereunder are not contingent upon Purchaser securing financing of the Purchase Price (or any portion thereof) stated in Article 3 of this Agreement, and Purchaser understands and agrees that Purchaser's failure to obtain such financing will not relieve Purchaser of Purchaser's obligations hereunder. Purchaser further understands and agrees that if Purchaser chooses to finance the purchase of the Unit through a lending institution and obtain a commitment therefrom, neither a subsequent change in the terms of such commitment, the expiration or other termination of such commitment, any change in Purchaser's financial status or condition, nor any delay in or adjournment of the Closing, shall release or relieve Purchaser of Purchaser's obligations pursuant to this Agreement.

35. Costs of Enforcing and Defending Agreement. Purchaser shall be obligated to reimburse Sponsor for any legal fees and disbursements incurred by Sponsor in defending Sponsor's rights under this Agreement or, in the event Purchaser defaults under this Agreement beyond any applicable grace period, in canceling this Agreement or otherwise enforcing Purchaser's obligations hereunder. The provisions of this Article shall survive closing of title or the termination of this Agreement.

36. Waiver of Jury Trial. Except as prohibited by law, the parties shall, and they hereby do, expressly waive trial by jury in any litigation arising out of, connected with, or relating to this Agreement or the relationship created hereby or in the Plan. With respect to any matter for which a jury trial cannot be waived, the parties agree not to assert any such claim as a counterclaim in, nor move to consolidate such claim with, any action or proceeding in which a jury trial is waived. The provisions of this Article shall survive closing of title or the termination of this Agreement.

37. Waiver of Diplomatic or Sovereign Immunity.

37.1 Purchaser hereby waives any and all immunity from suit or other actions or proceedings and agrees that, should Sponsor or any of its successors or assigns bring any suit, action or proceeding in New York or any other jurisdiction to enforce any obligation or liability of Purchaser arising, directly or indirectly, out of or relating to this Agreement, no immunity from such suit, action or proceeding will be claimed by or on behalf of Purchaser.

37.2 As of the execution of this Agreement, Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that all disputes arising, directly or indirectly, out of or relating to this Agreement may be dealt with and adjudicated in the state courts of New York or the federal courts sitting in New York, and hereby expressly and irrevocably submits the person of Purchaser to the jurisdiction of such courts in any suit, action or proceeding arising, directly or indirectly, out of or relating to this Agreement. So far as is permitted under the applicable law, this consent to personal jurisdiction shall be self-operative and no further instrument or action shall be necessary in order to confer jurisdiction upon the person of Purchaser in any such court.

37.3 Purchaser irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, and agrees not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense or otherwise in any suit, action or proceeding arising, directly or indirectly, out of relating to this Agreement, brought in the state courts in New York or the federal courts sitting in New York: (i) any objection which it may have or may hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such suit, action or proceeding in any such court; (ii) any claim that any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum; or (iii) any claim that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of such courts. Purchaser agrees that final judgment from which Purchaser has not or may not appeal or further appeal in any such suit, action or proceeding brought in such a court shall be conclusive and binding upon Purchaser and, may so far as is permitted under the applicable law, be enforced in the courts of any state or any federal court and in any other courts to the jurisdiction of which Purchaser is subject, by a suit upon such judgment and that Purchaser will not assert any defense, counterclaim, or set off in any such suit upon such judgment.

37.4 Purchaser agrees to execute, deliver and file all such further instruments as may be necessary under the laws of the State of New York, in order to make effective the consent of Purchaser to jurisdiction of the state courts of New York and the federal courts sitting in New York and any other provisions of this Article 37.

37.5 Nothing in this Article 37 shall affect the right of Sponsor to bring proceedings against Purchaser in the courts of any jurisdiction or jurisdictions.

37.6 The provisions of this Article 37 shall survive the closing of title or the termination of this Agreement for the purpose of any suit, action, or proceeding arising directly or indirectly, out of or relating to this Agreement.

37.7 In the event Purchaser is a foreign government, a resident representative of a foreign government or such other person or entity otherwise entitled to the immunities from suit enjoyed by a foreign government (i.e., diplomatic or sovereign immunity), such Purchaser shall hereby be deemed to have designated and hereby designates C.T. Corporation System, having its offices, at the date hereof, at 111 Eighth Avenue, New York, New York 10011 as its duly authorized and lawful agent to receive process for and on behalf of Purchaser in any state or Federal suit, action or proceeding in the State of New York based on, arising out of or connected with this Agreement.

37.8 If Purchaser is a foreign mission, as such term is defined under the Foreign Missions Act, 22 U.S.C. 4305, Purchaser shall notify the United States Department of State prior to purchasing a Unit and provide a copy of such notice to Sponsor. Sponsor shall not be bound under this Agreement unless and until the earlier to occur of: (i) a notification of approval is received from the Department of State; or (ii) sixty (60) days after Purchaser's notice is received by the Department of State.

38. Option Agreement. The parties acknowledge that, for federal income tax purposes only, this Agreement is sometimes referred to as an "option agreement." This characterization is consistent with Sponsor's intention to treat the Agreement for purposes of applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code as similar to an option and to obtain the same tax treatment that the Sponsor would be entitled to under certain proposed treasury regulations that were promulgated by the Internal Revenue Service on August 4, 2008 (the "Proposed Regulation"). If this characterization is respected, Sponsor will be able to account for the sale of the Tower Unit for federal income tax purposes in the same manner as it would be able to account for such sale if the Tower Unit had constituted a separate townhouse or other separate dwelling. Purchaser is not receiving any "options" and if the Purchaser does not close on the Agreement, Purchaser will forfeit the Deposit as liquidated damages. Purchasers should note that Sponsor's characterization of this Agreement is not binding on the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") which may challenge such characterization. However, even if the IRS were to successfully challenge Sponsor's tax characterization of this Agreement and the Deposit, as described above, there will be no adverse tax or other consequences to Purchaser.

39. Mold. Purchasers are advised that the prevention of the growth of mold in a Unit is the responsibility of each Unit Owner. Construction is not, and cannot be, designed to exclude mold spores. Whether a Unit Owner experiences mold growth depends largely on how such Unit Owner manages and maintains his/her Unit. Unit Owners will need to take actions to prevent conditions which cause the mold or mildew, and it is the responsibility of each Unit Owner to ensure that he/she has taken the necessary precautions to prevent mold from becoming a problem in such Unit Owner's Unit. Sponsor will not be liable for and Purchaser hereby waives any claim for any actual, special, incidental or consequential damages based on any legal theory whatsoever, including, but not limited to, strict liability, breach of express or implied warranty, negligence or any other legal theory with respect to the presence and/or existence of molds, mildew and/or microscopic spores unless caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Sponsor. The provisions of this Article shall survive closing of title or the termination of this Agreement.

40. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the Plan, supersedes any and all understandings and agreements between the parties and constitutes the entire agreement between them with respect to the subject matter hereof.

41. Certain References. A reference in this Agreement to any one gender, masculine, feminine or neuter, includes the other two, and the singular includes the plural, and vice versa, unless the context otherwise requires. The term "herein," "hereof" or "hereunder," or similar terms used in this Agreement, refer to this entire Agreement and not to the particular provision in which the term is used. Unless otherwise stated, all references herein to Articles, Sections or other provisions are references to Articles, Sections or other provisions of this Agreement.

42. Captions. The captions in this Agreement are for convenience and reference only and in no way define, limit or describe the scope of this Agreement or the intent of any provision hereof.

43. Successors and Assigns. Subject to the provisions of Article 23 hereof, the provisions of this Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of Purchaser and Purchaser's heirs, legal representatives, successors and permitted assigns and shall bind and inure to the benefit of Sponsor and its successors and assigns.

44. No Oral Changes. This Agreement, or any provision hereof, cannot be orally changed, terminated or waived. ANY CHANGES OR ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS MUST BE SET FORTH IN A RIDER ATTACHED HERETO OR IN A SEPARATE WRITTEN AGREEMENT SIGNED BY THE PARTIES AND WHICH REFERS TO THIS AGREEMENT.

45. Counterparts. The delivery of executed counterparts of this Agreement and any Rider(s) by a party hereto or their attorney by facsimile, PDF or other similar electronic means shall be given the same force and effect as delivery of an original executed counterpart of this Agreement or any such Rider(s). Upon written request from the other party, the party delivering a facsimile or PDF counterpart shall promptly deliver an ink-signed counterpart of the Agreement to the other party by overnight courier service; provided, however, that the failure of a party to deliver an ink-signed original counterpart shall not in any way affect the validity, enforceability or binding effect of a counterpart executed and delivered by facsimile or PDF transmission.

46. Rule of Construction. There shall be no presumption against the drafter of this Agreement or the Plan.

47. Section 1031 Exchange. Sponsor hereby acknowledges that the acquisition of the Unit hereunder may be in connection with a tax deferred exchange under §1031 of the Internal Revenue Code and that Purchaser (except as prohibited by paragraph 24 of this Agreement) may be assigning all of its rights and obligations hereunder to a qualified intermediary as part of, and in furtherance of, such tax deferred exchange. Sponsor hereby agrees to reasonably assist and cooperate in such tax deferred exchange, provided, however, that: (i) any action taken in connection with such tax deferred exchange or requested of Sponsor shall not result in any cost, expense or liability on the part of Sponsor or increased risk to Sponsor relating to the transaction contemplated by this Agreement (and, among other things, Purchaser acknowledges that a fee may be payable to Sponsor's counsel in connection with the review of any documentation related to such tax-deferred exchange); (ii) no action or failure on the part of Purchaser (or any other party to such tax deferred exchange) or cooperation on the part of Sponsor in connection with or related to said tax deferred exchange will frustrate the purpose of this Agreement or otherwise result in a reduction of Sponsor's rights, remedies and privileges under this Agreement or increase any of Sponsor's obligations or duties under this Agreement or otherwise; and (iii) Sponsor shall not be obligated, as part of any tax deferred exchange, to convey any property (other than the Unit), acquire any property, or accept any form of payment in respect of the amounts due hereunder other than as set forth herein. Purchaser shall indemnify and shall hold Sponsor harmless from and against any and all costs, expenses, fees (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees) or liabilities incurred by Sponsor in connection with or resulting from the said tax deferred exchange, and such indemnity shall survive the closing of title or the termination of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor makes no representation and expresses no opinion with respect to the applicability of §1031 of the Internal Revenue Code to the purchase or acquisition of a Unit.

ESCROW RIDER

To Agreement dated: _____ __, 201_ Covering Unit(s): _____
Sponsor: 50 Riverside Blvd LLC
Purchaser(s): _____
Escrow Agent: Polsinelli PC

This rider ("Escrow Rider") to the captioned Agreement shall constitute a written agreement among Sponsor, Purchaser and Escrow Agent with respect to the subject matter hereof. Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed thereto as set forth in the captioned Agreement and/or the Plan, as applicable.

1. The law firm of Polsinelli PC, with an address at 900 Third Avenue, Suite 2100, New York, New York 10022, telephone number (212) 684-0199, shall serve as escrow agent ("Escrow Agent") for Sponsor and Purchaser. Escrow Agent has designated the following attorneys to serve as signatories: Daniel J. Flanigan, Kraig M. Kohring, Ingrid F. VanBiber, Brett D. Anders, Robert J. Edwards, and David D. Ferguson. All designated signatories are admitted to practice law in the State of New York. Neither the Escrow Agent nor any authorized signatories on the account are the Sponsor, Selling Agent, Managing Agent, or any principal thereof, or have any beneficial interest in any of the foregoing.

2. Escrow Agent and all authorized signatories hereby submit to the jurisdiction of the State of New York and its Courts for any cause of action arising out of the Agreement or otherwise concerning the maintenance of release of the Deposit from escrow.

3. The Escrow Agent has established the escrow account at Capital One, N.A., 424 Madison Avenue, New York, New York (the "Bank"), a bank authorized to do business in the State of New York. The name of the Escrow Account will be "One Riverside Park Condominium Attorney Escrow Account" or similar name (the "Escrow Account"). The Escrow Account is federally insured by the FDIC at the maximum amount of $250,000 per deposit (the FDIC limit in effect as of the filing date hereof). Any deposit in excess of $250,000 (or the FDIC limit in effect from time to time) will not be insured. If Purchaser has any additional accounts at the Bank, the funds in said accounts will be added together with the Deposit held in escrow and the aggregate of all the funds held by the Bank will only be insured up to the $250,000 FDIC maximum coverage.

4. All Deposits received from Purchaser shall be made by unendorsed check drawn only on a member bank of the New York Clearing House Association made payable to "Polsinelli PC, as escrow agent." At the Sponsor's option, Sponsor may require that the Deposit and the Balance be made by Purchaser by wire transfer to an account designated by Sponsor.

5. The interest rate for all Deposits made into the Escrow Account shall be the prevailing rate for such accounts, which is fixed by the Bank (as defined above) and which will vary from time to time. As of July 1, 2013, such rate was .25%. The actual initial interest rate for the Escrow Account with respect to Purchaser's Deposit shall be set forth in the notice to be sent to Purchaser (as described below). As noted, the interest rate on such accounts will fluctuate and neither Sponsor nor Escrow Agent makes any representation regarding the rates that will be in effect from time to time or the actual rate of interest on, or the interest that may accrue for any particular account or for Purchaser, from time to time. Interest shall begin to accrue upon placing the Deposit into the Escrow Account, however, no interest will be earned until the Deposit check is deposited with and collected by the Bank and provided that the Purchaser has delivered the required number of completed and signed Form W-9 (Request for Taxpayer Identification Number) in the form reproduced as Exhibit 1A in Part II of the Plan or Form W-8BEN (Certificate of Foreign Status of Beneficial Owner for United States Tax Withholding) in the form reproduced as Exhibit 1B in Part II of the Plan, as applicable, to Sponsor or Selling Agent at the time Purchaser tenders the Deposit and the Agreement. If Purchaser does not deliver the Form W-9 or Form W-8BEN, as applicable, the Deposit will be deposited in a non-interest-bearing escrow account at the aforesaid bank until the Form W-9 or Form W-8BEN has been delivered, and neither Sponsor, Selling Agent, the Escrow Agent nor the Bank shall be liable for interest for the period prior to the delivery of such form. Interest, if any, will not be earned after a withdrawal is made from the Escrow Account in anticipation of the closing. All interest earned on Purchaser's Deposit shall be paid to or credited to Purchaser at closing unless Purchaser has defaulted and Sponsor is entitled to retain the Deposit. No fees of any kind may be deducted from the Escrow Account, and Sponsor shall bear all costs associated with the maintenance of the Escrow Account.

6. Within five (5) business days after the Agreement has been tendered to Escrow Agent along with the Deposit, Escrow Agent shall sign the Agreement and place the Deposit into the Escrow Account. Within ten (10) business days of placing the Deposit into the Escrow Account, Escrow Agent shall provide written notice to Purchaser and Sponsor, confirming the Deposit. The notice shall provide the account number and the initial interest rate to be earned on the Deposit. Any Deposits made for upgrades, extras, or custom work shall be initially deposited into the Escrow Account, and released in accordance to the terms of a written agreement between Purchaser and Sponsor.

7. Escrow Agent is obligated to send notice to the Purchaser once the Deposit is placed in the Escrow Account. If the Purchaser does not receive notice of such deposit within fifteen (15) business days after tender of the Deposit and execution of the Agreement by Sponsor, Purchaser and Escrow Agent, then Purchaser may cancel the Agreement within ninety (90) days after tender of the Agreement and Deposit to Escrow Agent. Complaints concerning the failure to honor such cancellation requests may be referred to the New York State Department of Law, Real Estate Finance Bureau, 120 Broadway, 23rd Floor, New York, N.Y. 10271. Rescission shall not be afforded where proof satisfactory to the Attorney General is submitted establishing that the Deposit was timely placed in the Escrow Account in accordance with the New York State Department of Law's regulations concerning Deposits and requisite notice was timely mailed to the Purchaser.

8. All Deposits, except for advances made for upgrades, extras, or custom work received in connection with the Agreement, are and shall continue to be the Purchaser's money, and may not be comingled with any other money or pledged or hypothecated by Sponsor, as per GBL § 352-h.

9. Under no circumstances shall Sponsor seek or accept release of the Deposit of a defaulting Purchaser until after consummation of the Plan, as evidenced by the acceptance of an amendment following the First Closing by the New York State Department of Law. Consummation of the Plan does not relieve the Sponsor of its obligations pursuant to GBL §§ 352-e(2-b) and 352-h.

10. The Escrow Agent shall release the Deposit if so directed:

(a) pursuant to terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement upon closing of title to the Unit; or

(b) in a subsequent writing signed by both Sponsor and Purchaser; or

(c) by a final, non-appealable order or judgment of a court.

If the Escrow Agent is not directed to release the Deposit pursuant to paragraphs (a) through (c) immediately above, and Escrow Agent receives a request by either party to release the Deposit, then the Escrow Agent must give both the Purchaser and Sponsor prior written notice of not fewer than thirty (30) days before releasing the Deposit. If Escrow Agent has not received notice of objection to the release of the Deposit prior to the expiration of the thirty (30) day period, the Deposit shall be released and Escrow Agent shall provide further written notice to both parties informing them of said release. If Escrow Agent receives a written notice from either party objecting to the release of the Deposit within said thirty (30) day period, Escrow Agent shall continue to hold the Deposit until otherwise directed pursuant to paragraphs (a) through (c) immediately above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Escrow Agent shall have the right at any time to deposit the Deposit contained in the Escrow Account with the clerk of the county where the Building is located and shall give written notice to both parties of such deposit.

Sponsor shall not object to the release of the Deposit to:

(a) a Purchaser who timely rescinds in accordance with an offer of rescission contained in the Plan or an amendment to the Plan; or

(b) all Purchasers after an amendment abandoning the Plan is accepted for filing by the Department of Law.

The Department of Law may perform random reviews and audits of any records involving the Escrow Account to determine compliance with all applicable statutes and regulations.

11. Any provision of any Agreement or separate agreement, whether oral or in writing, by which a Purchaser purports to waive or indemnify any obligation of Escrow Agent holding any Deposit in trust is absolutely void. The provisions of the Attorney General's regulations and GBL §§ 352-e(2-b) and 352-h concerning escrow trust funds shall prevail over any conflicting or inconsistent provisions in the Agreement, Plan, or any amendment thereto.

12. Escrow Agent shall maintain the Escrow Account under its direct supervision and control.

13. A fiduciary relationship shall exist between Escrow Agent, and Purchaser, and Escrow Agent acknowledges its fiduciary and statutory obligations, in each case, to the extent applicable under GBL §§ 352(e)(2-b) and 352(h).

14. Escrow Agent may rely upon any paper or document which may be submitted to it in connection with its duties under the Agreement or this Escrow Rider and which is believed by Escrow Agent to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties and shall have no liability or responsibility with respect to the form, execution or validity thereof.

15. Sponsor agrees that Sponsor and its agents, including any selling agents, shall deliver the Deposit received by them prior to closing of the Unit to a designated attorney who is a member of or employed by Escrow Agent, within two (2) business days of tender of the Deposit by Purchaser.

16. Sponsor agrees that it shall not interfere with Escrow Agent's performance of any fiduciary duties and statutory obligations as set forth in GBL §§ 352-(e)(2-b) and 352-(h) and the New York State Department of Law's regulations.

17. Sponsor shall obtain or cause the selling agent under the Plan to obtain a completed and signed Form W-9 or W-8, as applicable, from Purchaser and deliver such form to Escrow Agent together with the Deposit and this Agreement.

18. Prior to release of the Deposit, Escrow Agent's fees and disbursements shall neither be paid by Sponsor from the Deposit nor deducted from the Deposit by any financial institution under any circumstance.

19. Sponsor agrees to defend, indemnify and hold Escrow Agent harmless from and against all costs, claims, expenses and damages incurred in connection with or arising out of Escrow Agent's responsibilities arising in connection with the Agreement or this Escrow Rider or the performance or non-performance of Escrow Agent's duties under the Agreement, this Escrow Rider or the Plan, except with respect to actions or omissions taken or suffered by Escrow Agent in bad faith or in willful disregard of the obligations set forth in the Agreement or this Escrow Rider, or involving gross negligence of Escrow Agent. This indemnity includes, without limitation, disbursements and attorneys' fees either paid to retain attorneys or representing the hourly billing rates with respect to legal services rendered by Escrow Agent to itself.

(b) Upon execution of this Rider, Purchaser has delivered a check to Sponsor (subject to collection) in the amount of $_____ representing the downpayment due in connection with the purchase of the License (the "License Deposit").

(c) Upon issuance of the License, Purchaser shall pay to Sponsor the balance of the purchase price allocable to the License in the amount of $_____.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),

2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or

3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,

- The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and
- The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.

2. The treaty article addressing the income.

3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.

4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.

5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 28% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,

2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 3 for details),

3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions below and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Also see Special rules for partnerships on page 1.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited liability company (LLC) on page 2), enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). Do not enter the disregarded entity's EIN. If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.ssa.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer Identification Number (EIN) under Starting a Business. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting www.irs.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if items 1, 4, and 5 below indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). Exempt payees, see Exempt Payee on page 2.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records from Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information such as your name, social security number (SSN), or other identifying information, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax preparer.

Call the IRS at 1-800-829-1040 if you think your identity has been used inappropriately for tax purposes.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a system problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 1-877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 1-800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes. Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS personal property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration at 1-800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at: spam@uce.gov or contact them at www.consumer.gov/idtheft or 1-877-IDTHEFT(438-4338).

Visit the IRS website at www.irs.gov to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons who must file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, and certain other income paid to you, mortgage interest you paid, the acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA, or Archer MSA or HSA. The IRS uses the numbers for identification purposes and to help verify the accuracy of your tax return. The IRS may also provide this information to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation, and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. possessions to carry out their tax laws. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Payers must generally withhold 28% of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to a payer. Certain penalties may also apply.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the same unto Grantee, and the heirs or successors and assigns of Grantee, forever.

If any provision of the Declaration, or the By-Laws is invalid under, or would cause the Declaration or the By-Laws to be insufficient to submit the Property to, the provisions of the Condominium Act, or if any provision that is necessary to cause the Declaration or the By-Laws to be sufficient to submit the Property to the provisions of the Condominium Act is missing from the Declaration or the By-Laws, or if the Declaration or the By-Laws are insufficient to submit the Property to the provisions of the Condominium Act, the applicable provisions of Article 18 of the Declaration shall control.

Except as otherwise specifically permitted by the Tower Board or provided in the Declaration or the By-Laws, the Tower Unit is intended for residential use only.

Grantor covenants that the Unit is free and clear of monetary liens and that Grantor has not done or suffered anything whereby the Unit has been encumbered in any way whatever, in each case except as set forth in the Offering Plan and the Purchase Agreement (each as defined in the Condominium By-Laws), and the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws and the Tower By-Laws. This covenant is for the personal benefit of Grantee only and cannot be assigned to, exercised by, or inure to the benefit of any other person or entity, including, without limitation, any insurer of Grantee's title or successor to Grantee's interest.

In the event of a claimed breach of any covenant of Grantor contained in the preceding paragraph, Grantee shall first seek recovery against Grantee's title insurer before proceeding against Grantor for any breach of such covenants, it being agreed that the liability of Grantor shall be limited to the extent only that any loss or damage shall not be covered by such title insurance. In the event that Grantee shall elect not to purchase title insurance, then the liability of Grantor shall be limited to the extent only that any loss or damage would not have been covered by the title insurance that was available to Grantee as of the date of this conveyance. The terms of any marked-up title binder issued by any title insurer that is a member of the New York State Land Title Association, Inc. in connection with any unit in the Building shall be conclusive evidence against Grantee of the title insurance coverage that was available to Grantee as of the date of this conveyance.

Grantor, in compliance with Section 13 of the Lien Law of the State of New York, covenants that Grantor will receive the consideration for this conveyance, and will hold the right to receive such consideration, as a trust fund for the purpose of paying the cost of the improvements at the Property required to be made by Grantor and will apply the same first to the payment of the cost of such improvements before using any part of the same for any other purposes.

Grantee hereby accepts and ratifies the provisions of the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws and the Tower By-Laws (and any Rules and Regulations adopted under the Condominium By-Laws and Tower By-Laws) and agrees to comply with all the terms and provisions thereof, including, without limitation, all the terms and provisions with respect to the permitted uses of the Unit.

This conveyance is made in the regular course of business actually conducted by Grantor. The Unit is not subject to a credit line mortgage.

O. Ventilation:

Residential kitchens for the Tower Units will be ventilated with an exhaust ventilation system.

Interior residential kitchens for the rental units will be ventilated with an exhaust ventilation system. Perimeter kitchens of the rental units will be exhausted naturally via operable windows.

Residential bathrooms and powder rooms for the Tower Units will be ventilated with an exhaust ventilation system.

Residential bathrooms for the rental units will be ventilated with exhaust ventilation system.

Interior non-Tower Unit bathrooms will be ventilated with an exhaust ventilation system.

Locker rooms will be ventilated with an exhaust ventilation system.

Interior corridors are provided with heated and conditioned supply air in accordance with code requirements.

Individual washers/dryers are provided in each Tower Unit. The dryers will be electric vented type. A centralized dryer exhaust system has been provided.

Mechanical ventilation in the windowless area shall be provided at a ventilation rate of 6 air changes/hr.

P. Electrical System:

Two electric services will be provided by Con Edison at 120/208 volts, 3 phase, 4 wire to an Electric Switchboard Room located in the Cellar and distributed through various size service switches for the Community Facility, Retail, Garage and Tower and Rental Units, the automatic fire pump and the balance of the building. The 460 volt service shall be obtained from step up transformers in the Switchboard Room and will be utilized for all Building elevators and some air conditioning.

Electric service will be provided to the Tower Units and the rental units from distribution closets with Con Ed meters, located on every third floor of the building.

The Garage, Retail and Community Facility Units will be separately metered for electric service.

Circuits will be provided in each Tower Unit and rental unit with the capacity to handle all anticipated loads within the Unit.

The equipment will be rated to comply with NEC-2002 and takes into account all equipment provided in Tower Units such as washing machines, clothes dryers, dishwashers, microwaves, etc. AFCI and GFCI are to be provided as per NEC's requirements.

Capacity provided for each Tower Unit will be in accordance with Code requirements in various sizes from 100 to 200 Ampere @ 120/208V, 1 @ 3W.

Number of circuits per Tower and rental units is listed under separate cover. Service will be adequate to meet normal apartment appliance load and lighting.

A 350 kW diesel generator will be located on the Cellar floor to operate all emergency systems for the building.

Switched lighting fixtures will be provided in all bathrooms, walk-in closets, foyers, and kitchens. Switched receptacles will be provided in living rooms and bedrooms to meet National Electric Code. Ground fault receptacles will be provided in powder rooms, bathrooms & kitchens. The heat pump units in each Tower Unit will be wired directly to the Unit's electric panel. Terraces to Tower Units will include an exterior light fixture(s) and a waterproof G.F.I. (ground fault interrupted) electrical receptacle. Convenience receptacles will be provided to meet requirements of the National Electric Code 2002.

Q. Telephone, Intercom, Security Systems, and Data Transmission:

Telephone service will enter the Building via an underground conduit and be fed to a main Telephone Room located on the Cellar Level. It will then be distributed through conduits to all areas of the Building, including the communications closets servicing the Tower Units of the Building, which will generally be located on every third floor up to the 18th floor. Additionally there is a communication room on the main roof which services down to the 28th floor. Each Tower Unit and rental unit will receive telephone service through wires and Fiber running between a NID panel in the Unit and the communications closet servicing such Unit.

The Building will be provided with a video intercom system for Tower Units and an audio-only intercom system for rental units. The occupants of the Tower Units will be able to communicate using the dedicated video intercom with the Concierge's desk, and the rental units will be able to communicate with an intercom/card reader in the vestibule. The outer doors stay locked while the inner doors are access controlled. Special intercom cabling will be provided to a location in the kitchen or adjacent spaces. The manufacturer for the intercom system is BPT Model Perla Video Intercom and BPT Perla Audio Intercom or equal. The manufacturer for the Analog System is Digital Watchdog Model VMAX-16-1TB or equal.

Closed circuit security cameras will be provided in selected locations such as both main building lobbies, selected entrance corridors to the elevators, and service entrances, with viewing monitors at the Concierge. The cameras will be designed to cover the immediate area within the view of the cameras, and will not necessarily cover all of the areas involved.

The building will be provided with hard wired combination smoke and CO detector locally annunciated. This system will meet the requirements of the New York City Building Code.

Television Reception Facilities:

All Tower and Rental Units throughout the building have been pre-wired with co-axial cabling and Cat 5e or Cat6 cable. Receptacle jacks, receptacle connections, and miscellaneous equipment such as control boxes and station changers will be provided by Time Warner Cable and/or an alternate satellite service provider at the Unit Owner's expense, at receptacle locations in living rooms and bedrooms.

The building will not be equipped with a Master Television Antenna System for basic local broadcast station reception.

Unit Data Transmission:

All telephone/data receptacles in the Tower Units and rental units are wired with Category 5e or 6 copper cabling which runs to NID box located within the apartment. There are pathways and cabling from the apartment to the communication closets located on every third floor within the common areas of the building. These cables and pathways will allow the Tower and Rental Unit owners/tenants the ability to subscribe to service providers which have been granted access to the building. All charges with respect to providing this service will be paid separately by the owners/tenants of such Units.

R. Public Area Lighting:

Lighting will be furnished to the Common Areas of the building. The exterior of the building will be illuminated with fluorescent sconces mounted on the façade. The exterior fluorescent wall sconces around the building will be in compliance with the NYC Housing Maintenance Code and Multiple Dwelling Law.

S. Garage:

There will be an attended garage in the building, located on both Cellar and Sub-Cellar levels, with access on West 62nd Street. The garage will serve the Tower Unit Owners as well as the general public and will have the capacity for 142 cars, as per Section 13-12b of the New York City Zoning Resolution. The garage will be constructed of concrete with vehicular traffic coating and be mechanically ventilated. A dry sprinkler system and fire hose stations are provided throughout. Ventilation for the garage system is provided via garage exhaust fans, one for each level. The exhaust fan will draw in the ventilation air from the gravity air intake shafts ducted to louvers at the ground floor. The ventilation for the garage is based on 1.5 cfm/sq ft.

No other parking will be available on the property.

T. Storage Bins:

It is anticipated that there will be storage bins located on the Sub-Cellar level. Licenses for these storage bins will be available for sale to the Tower Unit Owners. Typically, these storage bins will be each approximately 4'-0" wide by 4'-0" deep by 7'-6" high.

U. Swimming Pool:

There is a pool located in the Recreational Facility on the Cellar floor of The Aldyn and The Ashley, to which Tower Unit residents will have access. Within the Building, there will be (3) private pools located on the terraces of Tower Units 17E, 21A & 21B. They will be flush with the terrace and have a mechanical room on the floor below to accommodate all of the required equipment. The private pools are stainless steel covered with epoxy grouted tile and their size and capacity are as follows:

Tower Unit 17E
(a) Size: 29'-0" length x 12'-0" width x 3'-6" (min. depth) to 4'-0" (max. depth.)
(b) Capacity: 9,760 gallons.

Tower Unit 21A
(a) Size: 12'-0" length x 24'-6" width x 3'-6" (min. depth) to 4'0" (max. depth.)
(b) Capacity: 8,250 gallons.

Tower Unit 21B
(a) Size: 14'-6" length x 28'-0" width x 3'-6" (min. depth) to 4'0" (max. depth.)
(b) Capacity: 11,388 gallons

Each pool has a vented gas fired heater pump and strainer, skimmer with equalizer, high rate sand filter with multiport valve, chemical feed/solution tank and indirect waste receptor. The DOB does not have a requirement for the maximum amount of people within the private pools because they are accessories to a residence. The pools are heated via their own gas-fired heaters that are individually metered; they do not use the building's hot water.

There are no DOB or zoning requirement for access by Rental Unit Residents to the Aldyn/Ashley Recreational Facility.

V. Tennis Courts, Playgrounds and Recreation Facilities:

None.

W. Non-Residential Areas and other: The Ground Floor includes space for a Retail Unit, two (2) Community Facility Units and the Garage Unit entrance. The Sub-Cellar includes space for a parking garage, storage bins and building staff locker rooms. The Cellar level contains additional building storage, access to the Aldyn/Ashley Recreational Facility, bicycle room, equipment space, laundry room, superintendent's office and shop areas, and parking garage.

X. Permits and Certificates: All required permits have been issued.

Y3. Safety and Warning Devices:

Smoke/Carbon Monoxide detectors are provided outside and inside all bedrooms in Tower Units and rental units, as required by law. Area smoke detectors are installed in all electrical and mechanical equipment rooms as required by law. Smoke detectors are installed in all elevator lobbies for activation of elevator recall to main floor level as required by law. Finally duct mounted smoke detectors are provided in all supply air handling units with a capacity in excess of 2,000 CFM which is also a New York City Building Code requirement.

Aircraft Avoidance Lights are provided on the parapet walls above the bulkhead roof.

The building will be provided with a lightning prevention system.

Y4. Additional Information Dimensions of Units:

Each Unit has been measured horizontally from the exterior face of the exterior walls (perimeter mechanical pipes are not deducted) to the midpoint of the interior walls and the midpoint of partitions separating one Unit from another Unit, public corridors, stairs, elevators and other mechanical equipment spaces or any Common Elements or Limited Common Elements. Measured vertically, each Unit will consist of the volume from the top of the concrete floor slab below (located under the finished flooring and sub-floor materials) comprising the lowest floor of the Unit to the underside of the concrete slab forming the ceiling of the highest floor of the Unit to the underside of the concrete slab above. The method of measurement is applicable to all Units. Any Common Elements located within a Unit shall not be considered a part of such Unit. As is customary in New York City, these square foot areas exceed the useable floor area of each Unit.

The clearance between the top of the concrete floor slab and the bottom of the finish ceiling in the Units will generally be approximately 9'-0" in major areas. Certain Units and areas within other Units will have clearances of less than this to accommodate facilities located above the ceiling or otherwise to respond to field conditions. The maximum ceiling height on the 7th, 8th, 16th & PH5 is approximately 10'-11-1/2". The maximum ceiling height on the 20th floor is approximately 10'-4". The maximum ceiling height on the 21st floor is approximately 9'-6 1/2". The maximum ceiling height on PH#1 through PH#3 is approximately 10'-2". The maximum ceiling height on PH#4 is approximately 10'-1 1/2". The maximum ceiling height on PH#5 is approximately 10'-11 1/2".

Z1. Documents to be Transferred to the Condominium Management:

The following documents shall be transferred to the condominium management upon transfer of the control-Operation & Maintenance (O&M) manuals for mechanical equipment; Electronic system manual; Re-commissioning manual (as applicable); equipment warranties; Roof Warranty; Major equipment Start-Up Sheets; Control System As—Built; Original Test & Balance Report for HVAC System; In-Door Air Quality report. Final As-Built drawings as maintained during construction, i.e., structural, mechanical, electrical, plumbing, shop drawings.

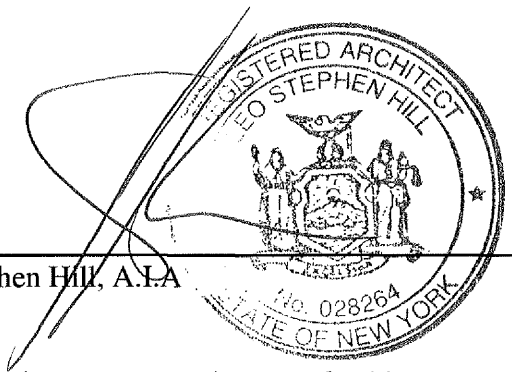

Z2. Tenant Protection Plan:

The building will be occupied before a permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building is issued. Accordingly, a "Tenant Protection Plan" will be implemented. A copy of the "Tenant Protection Plan" will be distributed to each tenant of a Rental Apartment and/or Tower Unit Owner.

Z3. Commissioning Agent:

The Architect of record has not been retained by the Sponsor to perform Controlled Inspections/Commissioning Agent on the project. MIH is the commissioning agent. 20/20, MIH and Vidaris are performing controlled inspections.

ARTICLE 8

USE OF UNITS AND COMMON ELEMENTS

8.1 Use of the Tower Units.

8.1.1 General. A Tower Unit may generally be used only for residential purposes and, subject to compliance with this Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws and the Tower By-Laws, for a lawful home occupation as defined in the Zoning Resolution and subject to such additional requirements as are set forth in the Tower By-Laws.

8.1.2 Unsold Units. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything contained herein, in the Condominium By-Laws, the Tower By-Laws or any Rules and Regulations to the contrary, subject only to compliance with all Laws, Sponsor (and its designees) may, without the permission of any Board or any other Person use or grant permission for the use of any Unsold Unit for any lawful purpose, including, but not limited to, the use of any Unsold Units as models and sales and/or promotion offices in connection with the sale or rental of the Tower (or other) Units or for any other purpose. As used in the Condominium Documents, "Unsold Unit" refers to any Unit owned or retained, by way of lease or any other arrangement by which management and/or financial responsibility is retained, by Sponsor or any of its designees as the holder of one or more Unsold Unit(s); any Unit that is acquired, individually or collectively, by a principal of Sponsor or a group of which Sponsor or one or more of its principals is a member; or a Unit that is acquired, individually or collectively, by either the holder of a Permitted Mortgage given by Sponsor or the designee of a holder of such a Permitted Mortgage. As used in the Condominium Documents, an "Unsold Tower Unit" refers to an Unsold Unit that is a Tower Unit.

8.2 Use of Commercial Units.

8.2.1 General. Subject to compliance with all Laws, including, without limitation, the certificate of occupancy for such Unit and any applicable zoning regulations, and except as otherwise provided herein and in the Condominium By-Laws, each Commercial Unit may be used and operated for any legally permitted purpose. The Unit Owner of any such Unit may lease or license all or any portion of its Unit to one or more lessees (or may permit occupants or permittees to use all or any portion of its Unit) so long as the uses thereof are in conformance with all Laws, this Declaration and the Condominium By-Laws. No Units may be used as a pornography store, massage parlor, drug treatment facility or homeless shelter.

8.2.2 Rental Unit. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything contained herein, in the Condominium By-Laws, the Tower By-Laws or any Rules and Regulations to the contrary, subject only to compliance with all Laws, during any period in which a Rental Apartment is subject to the Rent Stabilization Law and Code (such period, the "Rent Stabilization Period"), absent the prior written consent of the Rental Unit Owner, which consent may be withheld by the Rental Unit Owner in its sole discretion, neither the Condominium Board nor the Tower Board may make any determination or take any action that constitutes a Decrease in Service, as same may be finally determined by DHCR or a court of competent jurisdiction.

8.3 Use of the Common Elements.

8.3.1 Except as otherwise provided herein or in the Condominium By-Laws and/or the Tower By-Laws, the Common Elements may be used only for the furnishing of the services and facilities and for the other uses for which they are reasonably suited.

8.3.2 Subject to any easements (exclusive or otherwise) and/or rights of access or as otherwise provided in the Condominium Documents with respect to the Common Elements, none of the Boards nor any Unit Owner shall impede the exercise of or encroach upon the rights of the others of such parties or anyone claiming, by, through or under them, including, but not limited to, the occupants of the Units and their respective invitees, to use the same.

8.4 Use of the Storage Closets. The Storage Closets may only be used for storage purposes, and in no event may be used as a dwelling space or for the storage of toxic or inflammable items or Combustibles (as such term is defined in the New York City Building Code). No article or material that shall pose a threat to the health or safety of the Unit Owners or other occupants of the Building, or that shall cause the dissemination of noxious odors, dirt or other sanitary problems or otherwise create a nuisance, shall be permitted to be brought into or stored in any Storage Closet. The use of the Storage Closets shall be further subject to the provisions of the Tower By-Laws and the Tower Rules and Regulations.

8.5 Nuisance. No nuisance shall be allowed in the Property nor shall any use or practice be allowed in the Property which interferes with the peaceful possession or proper use thereof by the Unit Owners or the occupants of their respective Units. No improper, offensive or unlawful use shall be made of the Property or any portion thereof. All applicable Laws relating to any portion of the Property shall be complied with at the sole expense of whichever of the Unit Owner(s) or Board(s) shall have the obligation pursuant to the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws and, as applicable the Tower By-Laws, to maintain or repair such portion of the Property.

8.6 62nd Street Public Access Area. Though the 62nd Street Public Access Area is not part of the Condominium, the Condominium Board is responsible, together with the Aldyn Board and the owner of Parcel J-2, for the cost of insurance, maintenance, repair and replacement, and real estate taxes thereon in accordance with the Riverside South Property Owners Declaration. The Condominium's proportionate share of the foregoing costs shall be deemed General Common Expenses of the Condominium, and the Unit Owners shall pay such costs as part of their Common Charges.

8.7 Recreational Facility. Although the Recreational Facility is located within Parcel J-1, the Condominium Board (acting through the Tower Board) will be responsible, together with the Aldyn Board and the owner of Parcel J-2, for the cost of operation, maintenance, repair and replacement of the Recreational Facility in accordance with the Shared Facilities Declaration. The Condominium's proportionate share of the foregoing costs shall be deemed a Tower Common Expense of the Condominium, and the Tower Unit Owners shall pay such costs as part of their Tower Common Charges.

CHANGES IN TOWER UNITS AND STORAGE CLOSETS

9.1 Tower Units.

9.1.1 Unsold Units. Except to the extent prohibited by applicable Laws, Sponsor and its designees and any other owner of an Unsold Tower Unit shall have the right, pursuant (and subject) to the terms of the Condominium By-Laws and the Tower By-Laws, as the same may be amended from time to time, without the approval of the Condominium Board, Tower Board or any other Unit Owner or any Person to: (a) make alterations, additions or improvements, whether structural or non-structural, interior or exterior, ordinary or extraordinary, in, to and upon any Unsold Tower Unit; (b) change the layout of, or number of rooms in, any Unsold Tower Unit; (c) change the size and/or number of Unsold Tower Units by subdividing one (1) or more such Tower Units into two (2) or more separate Tower Units, combining separate Unsold Tower Units (including those resulting from a subdivision or combination or otherwise) into one (1) or more Tower Units, altering any boundary walls between any Unsold Tower Units, and/or incorporating within any Unsold Tower Unit the use of any portion of the Common Elements adjacent thereto (but only to the extent that such Common Elements are not required by law to be maintained as Common Elements based upon such alterations); (d) if appropriate, reapportion among the Unsold Units affected by such change, their Common Interests, provided, however, that after the recording of the Declaration, no change in any Tower Unit's Common Interest will be made without obtaining the prior consent of all Unit Owners affected by such change; (e) change the permitted use of some or all of the Unsold Tower Units; (f) increase the number of Tower Units contained within the Building; and (g) reclassify a Common Element as a Unit and vice versa. Sponsor also reserves the right to convert all or any portion of a Commercial Unit to Unsold Tower Units and vice versa and to create additional Storage Closets within additional areas of the Common Elements and to sell additional Storage Licenses therefor. None of the foregoing changes will be made unless: (i) such changes are in compliance with Section 339 of the New York Condominium Act, (ii) the percentage interest in the Common Elements of any other Units (other than Unsold Tower Units) shall not be changed by reason thereof unless the owners of such Units shall consent thereto in writing, and (iii) Sponsor, its designee or such other owner of an Unsold Tower Unit, as the case may be, shall comply with all applicable Laws and shall agree to defend and hold each Board and all other Unit Owners harmless from any liability arising therefrom. Sponsor or such other owner of an Unsold Tower Unit, as the case may be, shall have the right, without the consent of any Board, Unit Owner or Person to amend (and/or cause the Condominium Board and/or Tower Board to amend) the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws, the Tower By-Laws and the Floor Plans and any other documentation to reflect the foregoing changes.

9.1.2 Tower Units Generally. Subject to this Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws and the Tower By-Laws and compliance with all applicable Laws, the Unit Owner(s) of one (1) or more Tower Units (other than Unsold Tower Unit(s)), with the consent of the Tower Board and (for so long as there remain any Unsold Tower Units), Sponsor shall have such rights with respect to changing, combining and/or subdividing such Tower Unit(s) as are provided in the Tower By-Laws.

9.2 Unlicensed Storage Closets. Sponsor shall have the same rights set forth in Section 9.1 above with respect to changes in unlicensed Storage Closets.

9.3 Consents. The provisions of Article 9 of this Declaration may not be added to, amended, modified or deleted without the prior written consent of Sponsor or the owner of any Unsold Tower Unit(s), as the case may be, or the designee of any of the foregoing. Wherever the consent, approval or satisfaction of Declarant or Sponsor, is required under this Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws or the Tower By-Laws, such consent, approval or satisfaction of such party shall not be required (unless otherwise required under the Condominium Documents) when such party no longer owns any Unsold Tower Units.

9.4 Certification Regarding Common Interest Reallocation. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Article 9, no reapportionment of the interests in the Common Elements appurtenant to any Tower Unit shall be made unless there is first delivered to the Tower Board or to the Condominium Board, as applicable, a written certification stating, in each case with respect to the Unit(s) in question that the percentage interests of the affected Unit(s) in the Common Elements, immediately after such reapportionment, are consistent with the terms of this Declaration and in compliance with the terms of Section 339-i(1) of the Condominium Act. The certification referred to herein shall be delivered: (a) in the case of any Unsold Tower Unit(s), at the election of Sponsor, by Sponsor or the managing agent of the Tower Section, or any other Person reasonably acceptable to the applicable Boards; and (b) in the case of any other Tower Unit(s), by the managing agent of the Tower Section, or any other person reasonably acceptable to the applicable Board(s).

CHANGES TO THE COMMERCIAL UNITS

10.1 General. Except to the extent prohibited by Law or as otherwise provided herein or in the Condominium By-Laws, each of the Commercial Unit Owners shall have the right, without the consent of any Board, Unit Owner, or other Person to: (a) mortgage or otherwise hypothecate its Unit; (b) decorate or make Alterations and/or Repairs in, to and upon its Unit (provided, however, that such Unit Owner, if other than Sponsor or its designee, must obtain the prior consent of (i) the Condominium Board to any Alterations and/or Repairs to its Commercial Unit which would have a material adverse effect on the structure or General Common Element or mechanical, electrical or plumbing elements or systems of the Building or the exterior appearance of the Building or another Unit or which would increase insurance premiums or maintenance costs for any other Unit or Common Element, (ii) the affected Commercial Unit Owner to any Alterations and/or Repairs which would have a material adverse effect on such Commercial Unit, and (iii) the Tower Board to any Alterations and/or Repairs which would have a material adverse effect on any Tower Unit or the Tower Limited Common Elements); (c) change the layout of, or number of rooms in, its Commercial Unit from time to time; (d) change the size of its Commercial Unit by subdividing the same into any desired number of condominium units or by combining any units resulting from each such subdivision, altering the boundary walls between the Commercial Units (with the consent of the Unit Owner(s) thereof); (e) designate a Commercial Unit as part of a newly created or expanded commercial condominium unit or designate all or part of a Commercial Unit as a newly created or expanded commercial common element; and (f) if appropriate, reapportion among the Units or newly created Units affected by such changes pursuant to the preceding clauses (c), (d) and (e) their percentage interests in the Common Elements; provided, however, that: (i) such changes are in compliance with Section 339 of the New York Condominium Act; (ii) the Common Interest of any other Units (other than the Commercial Unit(s) owned by such Person) shall not be changed by reason thereof unless the owners of such other Units shall consent thereto; (iii) each Commercial Unit Owner, other than Sponsor or its designee, shall send notice of any Alterations and/or Repairs to each of the Boards and any other affected Unit Owner, whether or not consent of any of the foregoing is required for such Alterations or Repairs; and (iv) the Commercial Unit Owner(s) in question shall comply with all Laws and the applicable terms of the Condominium By-Laws, and shall agree to defend and hold each Board and all other Unit Owners harmless from any liability arising therefrom. The Commercial Unit Owners shall each have the right with regard to its Unit, without the consent of any Board, Unit Owner or other Person to amend (and/or cause the Condominium Board to amend) the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws and the Floor Plans, as applicable, and any other documentation to reflect the foregoing changes; and the Condominium Board shall upon request by the applicable Commercial Unit Owner, at the sole cost and expense of the applicable Commercial Unit Owner, reasonably cooperate as needed to effect the same. If any of the Commercial Units are subdivided or combined, the Owner of each Unit resulting from a subdivision or combination will generally have all of the rights (without the consent of any Board, Unit Owner or other Person) set forth above in this Section 10.1, described as pertaining to the Unit Owner of the original Commercial Unit or Units in question, subject to the provisions of the Condominium By-Laws with respect thereto.

10.2 Rental Unit. Subject to the HPD Regulatory Agreement and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Article 8 of the Condominium By-Laws, except to the extent prohibited by, or to the extent that the same will cause the Property or any portion thereof not to comply with, any applicable Laws and/or the HPD Regulatory Agreement (including, without limitation, any Alterations that would adversely affect any Rental Apartment (as defined in Section 3.1 hereof) within the Rental Unit that is subject to the HPD Regulatory Agreement in violation of such agreement or declaration unless the prior written consent of HPD is obtained), the Rental Unit Owner and/or its designee shall have the right, at any time and from time to time, without the vote or consent of any Board, Unit Owner or other Person, to: (a) make Alterations and/or Repairs whether structural or non-structural, interior or exterior, ordinary or extraordinary, in, to and upon its Rental Unit; (b) change the use (subject to compliance with all Laws) or layout of, or number of rooms in, the Rental Unit from time to time; (c) change the size and/or number of the Rental Unit by subdividing the Rental Unit into two or more separate Rental Units, combining separate Rental Units resulting from such subdivision or otherwise into one or more Rental Units, converting the Rental Unit or any portion thereof to a Common Element; (d) whether in respect of subdivisions or combinations of the Rental Unit or otherwise, designate all or any part of a Rental Unit or a Common Element as part of a newly created or expanded Rental Unit or Common Element; and (e) if appropriate, reapportion among the Units affected by such change in size, use or number pursuant to the preceding clauses (b), (c) and (d) their percentage interests in the Common Elements; provided, however, that: (i) such changes are in compliance with Section 339 of the New York Condominium Act; (ii) the Common Interest of any other Units (other than the Rental Unit (or other Units) owned by such person) shall not be changed by reason thereof unless the owners of such other Units shall consent thereto; and (iii) the Rental Unit Owner and/or designee, as the case may be, shall comply with all applicable Laws and shall agree to defend and hold each Board and all other Unit Owners harmless from any liability arising therefrom. The Rental Unit Owner and/or its designee, as the case may be, shall have the right, without the consent of any Board, Unit Owner or other Person to amend the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws and the Floor Plans and any other documentation to reflect the foregoing changes; and the Condominium Board shall upon request by the Rental Unit Owner, at the sole cost and expense of the Rental Owner, reasonably cooperate as needed to effect the same.

10.3 Certification Regarding Common Interest Reallocation. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Article 10, no reapportionment of the interests in the Common Elements appurtenant to any Commercial Unit(s) shall be made unless there is first delivered to the Condominium Board a written certification stating, in each case with respect to the Unit(s) in question, that the percentage interests of the affected Unit(s) in the Common Elements, immediately after such reapportionment, are consistent with the terms of this Declaration and in compliance with the terms of Section 339-i(1) of the Condominium Act. The certification referred to herein shall be executed and delivered by: (a) in the case of a Commercial Unit other than the Rental Unit, by all of the affected Commercial Unit Owners or any other Person reasonably acceptable to the Condominium Board; and (b) in the case of the Rental Unit at the election of the Rental Unit Owner in question, by the managing agent of the Rental Unit or any other Person reasonably acceptable to the Condominium Board. No such reapportionment of the Common Interest appurtenant to the Rental Unit shall adversely affect any Rental Apartment within the Rental Unit that is subject to an HPD Regulatory Agreement (i.e., cause such Unit to be in violation of such HPD Regulatory Agreement) unless the prior written consent of HPD is obtained.

PERSON TO RECEIVE SERVICE

The Secretary of State of the State of New York (the "Secretary of State") is hereby designated to receive service of process in any action which may be brought against the Condominium or any of the Boards. The Condominium and the Boards shall each, with respect to itself, notify the Secretary of State of the address to which a copy of any process received should be mailed.

DETERMINATION OF PERCENTAGE INTERESTS IN COMMON ELEMENTS

The Common Interest of each Unit has been determined, pursuant to Section 339-i(1)(iv) of the Condominium Act. In accordance with such method of calculation, the Common Interests have been determined based primarily upon a comparison of the floor areas of the Units, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Unit, the availability of the Common Elements for exclusive or shared use and the overall dimensions of the particular Unit. The aggregate Common Interests of all of the Units equals 100%.

ENCROACHMENTS

If: (a) any portion of the Common Elements encroaches upon any Unit or upon any other Common Element; (b) any Unit encroaches upon any other Unit or upon any portion of the Common Elements; or (c) any encroachment shall hereafter occur as a result of: (i) settling or shifting of the Building; (ii) any Alteration or Repair made to the Common Elements in accordance with the applicable terms of this Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws and/or the Tower By-Laws by, or with the consent (when required by the applicable by-laws), of the Condominium Board and/or the Tower Board, or made by or Sponsor or its designee, as the case may be; or (iii) any Alteration or Repair of the Building (or any portion thereof) or of any Unit or Common Element after damage by fire or other casualty or any taking by condemnation or eminent domain proceedings of all or any portion of any Unit or the Common Elements, then, in any such event, a valid easement shall exist for such encroachment and for the maintenance of the same as long as the Building shall stand (or during any period in which it is being rebuilt or restored, in accordance with the Condominium By-Laws, following any such fire or other casualty, taking or eminent domain proceeding); provided that in the case of any such encroachment described in subparagraph (c)(ii) or (iii) above, such encroachment does not unreasonably interfere with the use of any of the Units for their permitted purposes and/or the use of the Common Elements for their intended purposes.

ARTICLE 14

FACILITIES AND ALL OTHER COMMON ELEMENTS

Except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Declaration or the Condominium By-Laws (or, with respect to the Tower Units, the Tower By-Laws): (i) each Unit Owner will have, in common with all other Unit Owners and each Unit will be subject to, an easement for the use of the General Common Elements located anywhere on the Property without hindering the exercise of or encroaching upon the rights of the other Unit Owners in respect of such easement, including, but not limited to, such easement as will be necessary to maintain, such Unit Owner's Unit; and (ii) each Tower Unit Owner will have, in common with all other Tower Unit Owners, an easement for the use of the Tower Limited Common Elements and any facilities located therein (subject to any easements or other exclusive rights of use, etc. provided in the Declaration, Condominium By-Laws or Tower By-Laws), including, but not limited to, such easement as will be necessary to operate and maintain, as necessary, such Tower Unit Owner's Unit, and the Tower Board, on behalf of all Tower Unit Owners, shall have an easement to maintain, and to make Repairs and Alterations to, the Tower Limited Common Elements. Each Unit and the Common Elements shall be subject to an easement in favor of the Condominium Board, on behalf of all Unit Owners, to use, operate, maintain, Repair, Alter and rebuild all General Common Elements located in such Unit or elsewhere on the Property. In addition, Sponsor (or its designee), the Condominium Board and the Tower Board shall have the right to erect scaffolding on the Property for a temporary period of time in connection with maintenance and repairs of the Building and its Common Elements.

15.1 Operation and Maintenance of Common Elements. Each Unit Owner shall have, in common with all other Unit Owners, and each Unit shall be subject to, an easement: (a) to install, operate, maintain, Repair, Alter and rebuild the Common Elements located in, over, under, through or upon any Unit, or any other Common Elements or elsewhere on the Property; and (b) to maintain any encroachment on any Unit, the General Common Elements or any Tower Limited Common Element resulting from the Repair, Alteration or rebuilding of the Units or the Common Elements; provided that access to any Unit or the Common Elements in furtherance of such easement shall be exercised in such a manner as will not unreasonably interfere with the normal conduct of business of the tenants and occupants of the Commercial Units or with the use of the Tower Units for their permitted purposes. Such entry shall be permitted on not less than one (1) day's notice, except that no notice will be necessary in the case of an Emergency.

15.2 Ingress and Egress. Each Unit Owner shall have, to the extent reasonably necessary, in common with all other Unit Owners, an easement for ingress to and egress from its Unit and its appurtenant (shared or exclusive) Tower Limited Common Elements. Each Unit, General Common Element and Tower Limited Common Element shall be subject to such easement.

15.2.1 Stairwell E. In addition to the foregoing, Tower Unit Owners shall have, to the extent necessary and at no cost to the Tower Unit Owners, an easement for emergency egress through Stairwell E, which is a part of the Rental Unit.

15.5 Utilities. Sponsor (or its designee) and the Condominium Board with respect to the Property and the Tower Board with respect to the Tower Section shall each have the right to grant such additional electric, gas, steam or other utility easements or relocate any existing utility easements in any portion of the Property or the Tower Section, as the case may be, as Sponsor (or its designee) or the Condominium Board or the Tower Board, as the case may be, shall deem necessary or desirable for the proper operation and maintenance of the Building, or any portion thereof, or for the general health or welfare of the owners, tenants and occupants of the applicable Units, provided that such additional utilities or the relocation of existing utilities will not prevent or unreasonably interfere with the normal conduct of business of the tenants and occupants of the Commercial Units or with the use of any of the Tower Units for their permitted purposes. Any utility company and its employees and agents shall have the right of access to any Unit or the Common Elements in furtherance of such easement, provided such right of access shall be exercised in such a manner as shall not unreasonably interfere with the normal conduct of business of the tenants and occupants of the Commercial Units or with the use of any of the Tower Units for their permitted purposes.

15.6 Signage. (a) Sponsor (or its designee), shall, to the extent permitted by Law, have an easement to erect, maintain, repair and replace, from time to time, one or more signs, canopies, flags, flagpoles, lighting, lighting elements or awnings or other protrusions, devices or decorative elements on the Property (but not within a Unit without the consent of the Unit Owner thereof), including without limitation, on the exterior of the walls of the Building, for the purposes of advertising the sale or lease of any Unsold Tower Unit or any Commercial Unit; and (b) each Commercial Unit Owner (or its designee), shall, to the extent permitted by Law, have an easement to erect, maintain, repair and replace, from time to time, one or more signs, canopies, flags, flagpoles, lighting, lighting elements or awnings or other protrusions, devices or decorative elements on the exterior of the Property in those areas adjacent to or adjoining its Commercial Unit (or as otherwise approved by the Condominium Board), including without limitation, on the exterior of the walls of the Building, in connection with the operation of any business of a tenant or occupant of all or any portion of its Commercial Unit. In addition, Sponsor and its designee(s) shall have the right, until the tenth (10th) anniversary of the First Closing, to use, without charge, portions of the Building, including the Common Elements, for exhibitions, events, promotional functions (e.g., with respect to any sales programs for Unsold Tower Units) or otherwise.

15.7 Recretional Facility. Pursuant to the terms of the Shared Facilities Declaration, Tower Unit Owners will have the right to access and use the Recreational Facility for recreational use, and the Condominium Board shall have an easement to maintain pedestrian access between the Building and the Recreational Facility via certain corridors as indicated on the Floor Plans located at the cellar level of Building J-1 and Building J-2.

15.8 Contractors and Agents. Each easement and other right granted under this Article 15 shall be deemed to permit the benefited party's/ies' contractors, subcontractors, agents, representatives, occupants, employees and other designees (and, in the case of a grant to the Condominium Board or Tower Board, or such Board's managing agent), to use such easement or other right, as applicable, if such Unit Owner or such Board so elects, but solely for purposes of performing work in and to such areas.

15.9 Miscellaneous Terms. Any grant of an easement "on", "over", "across" or "through" a given area shall be deemed to mean "on, over, across, through, and upon" such area, unless the context otherwise requires.

15.10 Roof Telecom Installations. Declarant and/or its designee (and its respective successors and assigns) shall have an easement for so long as the Condominium shall remain in existence: (i) to erect, use, lease, license, maintain, repair, replace, and operate a platform and other facilities for the purpose of erecting, using, leasing, licensing, maintaining, repairing, replacing and operating antennae, satellite dishes and other communications equipment on the roof of the Building that is not occupied as of the date hereof for any other Building installations; and (ii) to erect, use, lease, maintain, repair, replace and operate related electronic and other communications equipment in any portion of any mechanical equipment room that is not occupied as of the date hereof by any other Building installations, and the right to erect partitions separating such portion from the balance of such equipment room; in each case, without the consent of, or charge by any Board, Unit Owner or other Person; provided, however, that Declarant (or its designee) shall give prior notice to the Boards of the type and location of any such equipment before installation. Any obligations of Declarant under any lease, license or other right of use granted by Declarant with respect to the roof or the aforesaid mechanical equipment room shall be the obligation solely of Declarant and not of the Condominium and any rights of the Declarant, including, without limitation, the right to receive rent or other consideration for such lease, license or other right of use, shall be the right solely of Declarant and not of the Condominium. In connection with such easements and related rights, Declarant and its designee (and their respective successors and assigns) and the respective tenants and licensees shall each have, to the extent necessary or advisable for such erection, use, lease, maintenance, repair, replacement and operation, an easement in common with all Unit Owners for ingress, egress and the use of any Common Elements. The Units and the Common Elements shall each be subject to such easement. The word "utility" or "utilities" as used in this Section shall be deemed to include fiber optic cable and other communications lines, wires, cables and conduits.

15.11 Perpetual and Irrevocable. Except as may otherwise be set forth in this Declaration, any easement created or granted hereunder shall be perpetual and irrevocable for so long as the Condominium shall remain in existence.

15.12 Right of Access for Operation, Emergency Repairs, Damage Prevention. Each of the Condominium Board, the Tower Board and each Unit Owner grants a right of access over, as applicable, the General Common Elements, its Unit and its appurtenant Limited Common Elements to, in each case, each of Sponsor (with respect to the all aspects of the Property other than the Commercial Units), and each Commercial Unit Owner (with respect to its respective Commercial Unit) as shall be necessary in each case for the purpose of performing such party's initial construction and fit-out work to their respective Unit(s). Following any material occupancy of a particular grantor Board's Common Elements or Unit Owner's Unit (or applicable Limited Common Elements), the exercise by any Person of the rights of access provided in this Section with respect to such portion(s) of the Property shall be subject to the Access Conduct Standards (defined below).

15.13 Access Conduct Standards. The right of access granted pursuant to Section 15.12 above and any easement or right of access granted pursuant to any other provisions of the Condominium Documents which expressly require compliance with the "Access Conduct Standards", i.e., the standards set forth in this Section, shall be exercised:

(a) upon at least one (1) day's prior notice, which notice shall specify, in reasonable detail, the purpose and contemplated extent, location and duration of such exercise;

ARTICLE 16

POWER OF ATTORNEY TO THE BOARD

16.1 From Tower Unit Owners. Each Tower Unit Owner shall grant to the persons who shall from time to time constitute:

(a) the Tower Board, an irrevocable power of attorney, coupled with an interest (in such form and with such content as the Tower Board shall determine) to: (i) acquire on behalf of all Tower Unit Owners any Tower Unit, together with its appurtenant Common Interest: (A) in connection with the enforcement of the Tower Board's lien for unpaid Tower Common Charges, (B) whose Tower Unit Owner elects to surrender the same pursuant to the terms of the Tower By-Laws, (C) that becomes the subject of a foreclosure or other similar sale; or (D) that is intended to be used as the residence by the resident manager of the Tower Section; (ii) acquire or lease on behalf of all Tower Unit Owners any Tower Unit, together with its appurtenant Common Interest, whose Tower Unit Owner desires to sell, convey, transfer, assign or lease the same; (iii) after any such acquisition or leasing described herein, to manage, convey, sell, lease, sublease, mortgage or otherwise deal with (but not vote the Common Interests appurtenant to) any such Tower Unit so acquired by them, or to sublease any such Tower Unit so leased by them without the necessity of further authorization by the Tower Unit Owners or any other Person, on such terms as the attorneys-in-fact may determine; and (iv) prepare, execute and administer Storage Licenses and assignments and assumptions thereof; (v) execute, acknowledge and deliver: (A) any declaration or other instrument affecting the Tower Section which the Tower Board deems necessary or appropriate to comply with any Laws applicable to the maintenance, demolition, construction, alteration, repair, or restoration of the Building or Tower Section, or (B) any consent, covenant, restriction, easement or declaration, or any amendment thereto, affecting only the Tower Section which the Tower Board, in its reasonable discretion, deems necessary or appropriate;

(b) the Condominium Board, an irrevocable power of attorney, coupled with an interest (in such form and content as the Condominium Board shall determine) to: (i) purchase or otherwise acquire in the name of the Condominium Board or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Unit Owners, title to any Unit, together with its appurtenant Common Interest that becomes the subject of a foreclosure or other similar sale; on such terms, including, without limitation, price as said attorneys-in-fact shall deem proper; (ii) convey, sell, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with (but not to vote the Common Interest appurtenant to) any Unit

so acquired or to sublease any Unit so leased by them, without the necessity of any authorization by the Unit Owners or any other Person, on such terms as said attorneys-in-fact may determine, granting to said attorneys-in-fact the power to do all things in and to said Unit which the undersigned could do if personally present; and (iii) execute, acknowledge, deliver and (if determined to be necessary or desirable by said attorneys-in-fact) cause to be recorded in the City Register's Office: (A) any declaration or other instrument affecting the Condominium that the Condominium Board deems necessary or appropriate to comply with any Laws applicable to the maintenance, demolition, construction, Alteration or Repair of the Condominium; or (B) any consent, covenant, restriction, easement or declaration, or amendment thereto, affecting the Condominium or any of the Common Elements, that the Condominium Board deems necessary or appropriate, provided that in no event shall the Condominium Board execute, acknowledge and deliver any document pursuant to clause (iii)(B) of this sentence prior to the approval thereof by any Unit Owner(s) whose Unit is affected, unless such approval is expressly not required under any of the provisions hereof or of the Condominium By-Laws or Tower By-Laws; and

(c) Declarant, an irrevocable power of attorney, coupled with an interest (in such form and content as Declarant shall determine) to: execute an amendment to any of the Condominium Documents or acquire any permits, applications or documents required to undertake, perform or complete work to the Unsold Tower Units or Common Elements by Declarant or obtain an amended certificate of occupancy therefor or for the Building or any portion thereof, or any of said documents when such amendment: (i) shall be required to reflect any changes in Unsold Tower Units and/or the reapportionment of the Common Interests of the aforesaid Units resulting therefrom made by Declarant in accordance with this Declaration; or (ii) shall be required by: (1) a Permitted Mortgagee designated by Declarant to make a mortgage loan secured by a mortgage on any Unit, (2) any governmental agency having regulatory jurisdiction over the Condominium, or (3) any title insurance company selected by Declarant to insure title to any Unit.

16.2 From Commercial Unit Owners. Each Commercial Unit Owner shall grant to the persons who shall from time to time constitute the Condominium Board, an irrevocable power of attorney, coupled with an interest (in such form and content as the Condominium Board shall determine) to: (i) purchase or otherwise acquire in the name of the Condominium Board or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Unit Owners, title to any Unit, together with its Appurtenant Interests: (A) in connection with the enforcement of the Condominium Board's lien for unpaid General Common Charges; or (B) that becomes the subject of a foreclosure or other similar sale; on such terms, including, without limitation, price (with respect to clause (B) immediately above) as said attorneys-in-fact shall deem proper; and (ii) convey, sell, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with (but not to vote the Common Interest appurtenant to) any Unit so acquired or to sublease any Unit so leased by them, without the necessity of any authorization by the Unit Owners or any other Person, on such terms as said attorneys-in-fact may determine, granting to said attorneys-in-fact the power to do all things in and to said Unit which the undersigned could do if personally present; (iii) execute, acknowledge, deliver and (if determined to be necessary or desirable by said attorneys-in-fact) cause to be recorded in the City Register's Office: (A) any declaration or other instrument affecting the Condominium that the Condominium Board deems necessary or appropriate to comply with any Laws applicable to the maintenance, demolition, construction, Alteration or Repair of the Condominium; or (B) any consent, covenant, restriction, easement or declaration, or amendment thereto, affecting the Condominium or any of the Common Elements, that the Condominium Board deems necessary or appropriate, provided that in no event shall the Condominium Board execute, acknowledge and deliver any document pursuant to clause (iii)(B) of this sentence prior to the approval thereof by any Unit Owner(s) whose Unit is affected, unless such approval is expressly not required under any of the provisions hereof or of the Condominium By-Laws.

16.3 Each Unit Owner shall grant and/or shall hereby be deemed to have granted to Declarant a power of attorney to amend this Declaration and to effectuate the rights granted to Declarant under this Declaration and the Condominium By-Laws and to consent on behalf of each Unit Owner and Board and all mortgagees, as a party in interest, to any declaration or other agreement effecting a merger or division of the zoning lot in which the Property is located, with any other tax lots to form a single zoning lot (the "Merger") for the purpose of transferring to or from Declarant, or its successors, designees or assigns, all or any portion of the Development Rights.

ACQUISITIONS OF UNITS BY THE BOARDS

17.1 If: (a) any Tower Unit Owner surrenders its Unit to the Tower Board, together with its Appurtenant Interests pursuant to the provisions of Section 339-x of the New York Condominium Act; (b) the Tower Board, pursuant to Article 8 of the Tower By-Laws or otherwise, acquires or leases a Unit, together with its Appurtenant Interests; or (c) the Tower Board purchases, at a foreclosure or other similar sale, a Unit, together with its Appurtenant Interests, then, in any such event, title to any such Unit, together with its Appurtenant Interests, shall be held by the Tower Board or its designee, on behalf of all Tower Unit Owners, in proportion to their respective interests in the Common Elements. The lease or sublease covering any Tower Unit leased or subleased by the Tower Board or its designee shall be held by the Tower Board or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Tower Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests.

17.2 If: (a) any Commercial Unit Owner surrenders its Unit to the Condominium Board, together with its Appurtenant Interests pursuant to the provisions of Section 339-x of the New York Condominium Act; (b) the Condominium Board acquires or leases a Unit, together with its Appurtenant Interests; or (c) the Condominium Board purchases, at a foreclosure or other similar sale, a Unit, together with its Appurtenant Interests, then, in any such event, title to any such Unit, together with its Appurtenant Interests, shall be held by the Condominium Board or its designee, on behalf of the Unit Owners, in proportion to their respective interests in the Common Elements. The lease or sublease covering any Condominium Unit leased or subleased by the Condominium Board or its designee shall be held by the Condominium Board or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of the Condominium Unit Owners in proportion to their respective interests in the Common Elements.

17.3 As used in this Article 17, "Appurtenant Interests" means with respect to a Tower Unit or Commercial Unit: (i) the undivided interest in the Common Elements appurtenant thereto; (ii) the interest of the Unit Owner of such Unit in any other Units owned at the time in question by the Tower Board or Condominium Board, as applicable, or such Board's designee on behalf of all Tower Unit Owner or Unit Owners, as applicable, or in any other Units then owned by the Condominium Board or its designee on behalf of all Unit Owners, or in each case the proceeds of the sale or lease of any such Units theretofore acquired; and (iii) the interest of the Unit Owner of such Unit in any other assets of the Tower Board or Condominium Board, as applicable, or the Condominium.

COVENANTS RUNNING WITH THE LAND

18.1 Applicability. All provisions of this Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws and the General Rules and Regulations (if any) (and in the case of a Tower Unit, the Tower By-Laws and Tower Rules and Regulations), as may be adopted and amended from time to time, shall, to the extent applicable and unless otherwise expressly herein or therein provided to the contrary, be perpetual and be construed to be covenants running with the Land and with every part thereof and interest therein, and all of the provisions hereof and thereof shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Unit Owners and all the occupants, and their heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns, but the same are not intended to create nor shall they be construed as creating any rights in or for the benefit of the general public. All present and future Owners, tenants and occupants of Units shall be subject to and shall comply with the provisions of this Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws and the General Rules and Regulations, if any, as they may be amended from time to time (and the Tower By-Laws and Tower Rules and Regulations, as applicable).

18.2 Deemed Acceptance of Condominium Documents. The acceptance of a deed or conveyance, or the succeeding to title to, the acquisition of any interest in, or the entering into a lease, sublease or license for, or the act of occupancy of, all or any portion of any Unit by any person shall constitute an agreement that the provisions of this Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws, the General Rules and Regulations (if any), (and in the case of a Tower Unit, the Tower By-Laws and Tower Rules and Regulations), as any of the same may be adopted and amended from time to time, are accepted, ratified and will be complied with by such Owner, tenant, or occupant or other party, and all of such provisions shall be deemed and taken to be covenants running with the Land and shall bind any person having at any time any interest or estate in such Unit or Common Element, as though such provisions were recited and stipulated at length in each and every deed or conveyance or lease or license thereof.

18.3 Unenforceability. If any provision of this Declaration or the other Condominium Documents is invalid under, or would cause this Declaration and the other Condominium Documents to be insufficient to submit the Property to the provisions of, the New York Condominium Act, such provision shall be deemed deleted from this Declaration or the other Condominium Documents, as applicable, for the purpose of submitting the Property to the provisions of the New York Condominium Act but shall nevertheless be valid and binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Unit Owners and their heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns, as covenants running with the Land and with every part thereof and interest therein under other applicable Law to the extent permitted under such applicable Law with the same force and effect as if, immediately after the recording of this Declaration, all Unit Owners had signed and recorded an instrument agreeing to each such provision as a covenant running with the Land. If any provision which is necessary to cause this Declaration and the other Condominium Documents to be sufficient to submit the Property to the provisions of the New York Condominium Act is missing herefrom or therefrom, then such provision shall be deemed included as part hereof or thereof, as the case may be, for the purposes of submitting the Property to the provisions of the New York Condominium Act.

18.4 Restrictive Declaration. Pursuant to the Restrictive Declaration, every party acquiring title to a Unit, by acceptance of a deed for the Unit, acknowledges that it shall be liable for its share of costs assessed to the Condominium under the Riverside South Property Owners Declaration, which costs shall be allocated as set forth in the Condominium Documents.

18.5 Shared Facilities Declaration. Pursuant to the Shared Facilities Declaration, every party acquiring title to a Tower Unit, and every party acquiring title to the Rental Unit, by acceptance of a deed for the applicable Unit, acknowledges that it shall be liable for its share of costs assessed to the Condominium under the Shared Facilities Declaration.

AMENDMENTS OF DECLARATION

Article 16 of the Condominium By-Laws is incorporated herein in its entirety; and, except as otherwise expressly set forth herein, the provisions thereof shall govern the amendment and/or modification of, addition to and/or deletion of any of the provisions of this Declaration.

ARTICLE 20

TERMINATION OF CONDOMINIUM

20.1 The Condominium shall continue and the Property shall not be subject to an action for partition until: (a) terminated by casualty loss, condemnation or eminent domain, as more particularly provided in the Condominium By-Laws, or (b) such time as withdrawal of the Property from the provisions of the New York Condominium Act is authorized by a vote of at least eighty percent (80%) both in number and aggregate of the Common Interests of all Unit Owners. No such vote under clause (b) in the preceding sentence shall be effective without the written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) of at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the Tower Mortgagee Representatives, if any. Sponsor or its designee will not vote its interests appurtenant to any Unsold Tower Units for such withdrawal unless at least eighty percent (80%) in number and in aggregate of the Common Interests of all other Unit Owners have voted in favor of such withdrawal, at which time Sponsor or its designee may choose to vote its Common Interests either in favor of or against withdrawal from condominium ownership, as it sees fit.

20.2 To the fullest extent permissible under Law, each Unit Owner shall be deemed to have waived any right to seek partition of the Property. In the event said withdrawal is authorized as aforesaid, and only to the extent the waiver contained in the preceding sentence shall be inapplicable or unenforceable, the Property shall be subject to an action for partition by any Unit Owner or lienor as if owned in common, in which event the net proceeds of sale, together with the net proceeds of any applicable insurance policies, shall be divided among all Unit Owners in accordance with their respective Common Interests; provided, however, that no payment shall be made to a Unit Owner until there has first been paid out of its share of such funds, such amounts as may be necessary to discharge all unpaid liens on its Unit (other than mortgages which are not Permitted Mortgages or Registered Mortgages, as applicable) in the order of the priority of such liens.

WAIVER

No provision contained in this Declaration shall be deemed to have been abrogated or waived by reason of any failure to enforce the same, irrespective of the number of violations or breaches which may occur.

CAPTIONS

The captions herein are inserted only as a matter of convenience and for reference, and in no way define, limit or describe the scope of this Declaration nor the intent of any provision hereof.

ARTICLE 23

CERTAIN REFERENCES

23.1 A reference in this Declaration to any one gender, masculine, feminine or neuter, includes the other two, and the singular includes the plural, and vice versa, unless the context otherwise requires.

23.2 The terms "herein," "hereof" or "hereunder" or similar terms used in this Declaration refer to this entire Declaration and not to the particular provision in which the terms are used.

23.3 Unless otherwise stated, all references herein to Articles, Sections or other provisions are references to Articles, Sections or other provisions of this Declaration.

SEVERABILITY

Subject to the provisions of Sections 18.2 and 18.3, if any provision of this Declaration is invalid or unenforceable as against any person or under certain circumstances, the remainder of this Declaration and the applicability of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby. Each provision of this Declaration shall, except as otherwise herein provided, be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by Law.

COVENANT OF FURTHER ASSURANCES

25.1 Any party which is subject to the terms of this Declaration, whether such party is a Unit Owner, a lessee or sublessee of a Unit Owner, an occupant of a Unit, a member or officer of a Board, or otherwise, shall, at the expense of any such other party (or the holder of a lien on its Unit) requesting the same, execute, acknowledge and deliver to such other party (or the holder of a lien on its Unit) such instruments, in addition to those specifically provided for herein, and take such other action, as such other party (or the holder of a lien on its Unit) may reasonably request to effectuate the provisions of this Declaration or of any transaction contemplated herein or to confirm or perfect any right to be created or transferred hereunder or pursuant to any such transaction. Without intending to limit the generality of the foregoing, each Board and each Unit Owner shall be required, upon the request of Declarant, to execute and deliver any documents or applications reasonably required in connection with any Merger, any declaration of zoning lot restrictions or any ZLDA.

25.2 If any Unit Owner, Board or other Person which is subject to the terms of this Declaration fails to execute, acknowledge or deliver any instrument, or fails or refuses, within ten (10) days after receipt of a written request therefor, to take any action which such Unit Owner, Board or other Person is required to take pursuant to this Declaration and/or the Condominium By-Laws, and such failure continues for an additional ten (10) day period following receipt of a second written request therefor (together with written advice that the requesting party shall be entitled to take specified action upon the recipient's failure or refusal to perform) then the Condominium Board is hereby authorized as attorney-in-fact for such Unit Owner, other Board or other Person, coupled with an interest, to execute, acknowledge and deliver such instrument, or to take such action, in the name of such Unit Owner, Board or other Person and such document or action shall be binding on such Unit Owner, Board or other Person.

25.3 If any Unit Owner, Board or other Person which is subject to the terms of this Declaration fails to execute, acknowledge or deliver any instrument, or fails or refuses, within ten (10) days after receipt of a written request therefor, to take any action which such Unit Owner, Board or other Person is required to take pursuant to this Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws or the Tower By-Laws, as the case may be, at the request of Declarant (or its designee), and such failure continues for an additional ten (10) day period following receipt of a second written request therefor (together with written advice that Declarant (or its designee) shall be entitled to take specified action upon the recipient's failure or refusal to perform), then Declarant (or its designee) is hereby authorized as attorney-in-fact for such Unit Owner, Board or other Person, coupled with an interest, to execute, acknowledge and deliver such instrument, or to take such action, in the name of such Unit Owner, Board or other Person and such document or action of Declarant (or its designee) shall be binding on such Unit Owner, Board or other Person.

NAME OF CONDOMINIUM AND BUILDING

26.1 The Condominium and the Building shall be designated and known as "One Riverside Park Condominium." Sponsor (or its designee) shall own and control all rights and interests, and shall be responsible for all obligations and liabilities, appurtenant to the name of the Condominium and/or the Building. Only Sponsor (or its designee) shall have the right to change or assign the name of the Condominium and/or the Building. In addition, Sponsor shall have the right and all necessary easements, for so long as the Property is a condominium, to maintain one or more plaque(s) identifying Sponsor (or its affiliate(s)) as the sponsor of the Condominium and/or development of the Property, together with such other information as Sponsor (or its designee) determines in its sole discretion.

26.2 Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, but subject to the rights of Sponsor, if the Tower Section, or any Commercial Unit is operated under an identifying name, the Unit Owner(s) thereof shall be free to use whatever name(s) it/they designate(s) for such Unit(s) or Section in press releases or publicly distributed materials or permitted signage. No individual Tower Unit Owner (other than Sponsor or its designee) may use the name or likeness of the Building or the Condominium to promote or in connection with any commercial venture.

SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS

Except as set forth herein or in the Condominium By-Laws to the contrary, the rights and obligations of: (i) Declarant or its designee, as set forth in the Condominium Documents, shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon any successor or assign of Declarant, its designee or, with the consent of Declarant or its designee, any transferee of some or all of the then Unsold Units then owned by Declarant or its designee; and (ii) Sponsor or its designee, as set forth herein, shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon any successor or assign of Sponsor, its designee or, with the consent of Sponsor or its designee, any transferee of some or all of the then Unsold Tower Units then owned by Sponsor or its designee. For purposes hereof, references to Declarant or its designee or Sponsor or its designee, as the case may be, shall also include any mortgagee (or its nominee or designee) or other Person taking title from such party/ies upon a foreclosure or by deed-in-lieu of foreclosure. The rights and/or obligations of the Unit Owners as set forth in the Condominium Documents shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon any successors or assigns of the respective Unit Owners.

ARTICLE 28

REGULATORY AGREEMENTS

All rights, powers, duties and obligations of the Rental Unit Owner (including any rights of the Rental Unit Owner with respect to the Condominium Board) under this Declaration and the Condominium By-Laws shall be subject to, and the Rental Unit Owner shall be bound by, the covenants, and restrictions, with respect to the Rental Unit, as are set forth in the HPD Regulatory Agreement, as long as such agreement and declaration are in full force and effect.

REAL PROPERTY LAW SECTION 339-M

As set forth in the Condominium By-Laws: (a) in the event the Rental Unit Owner determines there will be a Rental Unit Operating Shortfall (as defined in the Condominium By-Laws), the Common Charges payable by it shall be accordingly reduced to the maximum amount payable by the Rental Unit Owner in accordance with Section 339-m of the New York Real Property Law (pursuant to the procedures set forth in the Condominium By-Laws) and the Rental Unit Owner shall have no obligation for the payment of Common Charges in excess of such amount, and (b) the Common Charges, as the case may be, payable by all other Unit Owners shall be increased by the amount of such reduction in the Common Charges (pursuant to the procedures set forth in the Condominium By-Laws) otherwise payable by the Rental Unit Owner on a pro rata basis in accordance with their relative proportional Common Interest.

ARTICLE 30

CONDOMINIUM 421-A ELIGIBILITY

Notwithstanding anything contained herein or in the Condominium By-Laws or Tower By-Laws, for so long as all or any portion of the Condominium is eligible to receive tax benefits, reductions or abatements from HPD or other Governmental Authority pursuant to New York Real Property Tax Law Section 421-a, the Rental Unit Owner shall not be permitted to use or alter the Rental Unit, or any portion(s) thereof, in any way that would interfere with or diminish either Declarant's (or its designees'), the Condominium Board's, the Tower Board's, or any Tower Unit Owner's, as applicable, ability to obtain and maintain such tax benefits, reductions or abatements, as the case may be.

2.2.8 Borrowing by the Condominium Board.

(a) The Condominium Board shall have the power to borrow money on behalf of the Condominium when required in connection with the operation, care, upkeep and maintenance of, or the making of Repairs or Alterations of, the General Common Elements or otherwise in connection with any permitted action or activity of the Condominium Board, provided, however, that: (i) a sixty-six and two-thirds (66-2/3%) vote of the members of the Condominium Board shall be required for any borrowings for such purposes if such borrowings are in excess of $3,000,000 (subject to increase by the CPI Increase Factor) in total in any one fiscal year; and (ii) no lien to secure repayment of any sum borrowed may be created on any Unit or its appurtenant Common Interest without the prior written consent of the owner of such Unit, or on the General Common Elements without the consent of all Unit Owners. The powers and rights of the Tower Board to borrow money pursuant to the provisions of the Tower By-Laws is not limited or impaired by the foregoing.

(b) All such borrowing by the Condominium Board shall be by and in the name of the Condominium, and shall expressly provide that no individual Unit Owner (or shareholder, member, director or officer thereof) or Board Member shall be liable (primarily or otherwise) therefor in any respect (including, without limitation, for any fees, expenses, or other liabilities or obligations accruing or to be performed thereunder) unless specifically agreed to in writing by such Unit Owner or Board Member.

2.2.9 Insurance Requirements. The Condominium Board shall make all determinations and take all actions necessary to cause the insurance requirements set forth in Article 11 hereof with respect to the Condominium and Condominium Board to be complied with.

2.3 Number and Terms of Office of Board Members. The Condominium Board shall be comprised of seven (7) Board Members: five (5) Board Member designated by the Tower Board pursuant to the Tower By-Laws; one (1) Board Member designated by the Rental Unit Owner; and one (1) Board Member elected by or on behalf of the Commercial Unit Owners other than the Rental Unit Owner by majority vote of such Unit Owners in accordance with their relative proportionate Common Interest. Except as otherwise provided in the Condominium Documents, all designations (and substitute and further designations) which are provided for in the Declaration or these By-Laws shall be in writing and shall include an address specified for notice to such designated Board Member. Subject in all events to the provisions of Section 2.4 below, and, as applicable, the provisions of the Tower By-Laws with respect to Condominium Board Members designated by the Tower Board, the term of each Board Member designated from time to time shall expire annually on the anniversary of such Board Member's designation; and, subject to the other provisions of this Section 2.3, the replacement for each such Board Member, which may be the same person, shall be made by such Board Member's Designator. There shall be no limit on the number of terms of office, successive or otherwise, that a Board Member may serve. Notwithstanding the expiration of the term of office of a member of the Condominium Board, such member shall serve until a successor has been elected, or designated, as the case may be, and qualified.

2.3.1 Until the First Annual Tower Meeting, Sponsor reserves the right to designate fewer than five (5) persons to the Tower Board; however, in such case, Sponsor's designees shall be the only members of the Tower Board and such designees shall collectively hold five (5) of the seven (7) votes on the Condominium Board (in addition to the votes of any representatives of the Commercial Units serving on the Condominium Board who may be designated by Sponsor as the owner of a Commercial Unit, as applicable).

2.4 Resignation and Removal.

2.4.1 Any Board Member may resign at any time by notice given to the President or Secretary of the Condominium Board and to such Board Member's Designator. Any such resignation shall take effect at the time specified in such notice and, unless specifically requested, acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary for the effectiveness thereof.

2.4.2 Any Board Member may be removed from office: (i) for cause, either (x) by the Designator of such Board Member or (y) notwithstanding any protest of such Designator, by a sixty-six and two-thirds (66-2/3%) vote of the Condominium Board; and (ii) without cause, only by the Designator of such Board Member. In the event of any removal described in the immediately preceding sentence, whether with or without cause, the Designator of such Board Member shall have the sole right to designate the replacement of such member.

2.5 Vacancies on Condominium Board. The vacancy of a Board Member's seat on the Condominium Board shall be filled only by designation of the Designator of such member.

2.6 Initial Meeting of Condominium Board; Regular and Special Meetings.

2.6.1 Within no more than ten (10) days following the initial recording of the Declaration in the Register's Office, each Designator shall designate its Board Member(s) by notice given to each other Designator and the first meeting of the Condominium Board shall take place.

2.6.2 Thereafter, regular meetings of the Condominium Board may be held at such time and place in the Borough of Manhattan as shall be determined by the Condominium Board from time to time but at least quarterly. Notice of regular meetings shall be given to each Board Member by the President, Vice President or Secretary of the Condominium Board or by the Condominium's managing agent, at least thirty (30) days prior to the day fixed for such meeting which notice shall state the date, time and place (in the Borough of Manhattan) and shall include an agenda therefor.

2.6.3 Special meetings of the Condominium Board may be called by the President or Vice President of the Condominium or by any two (2) Board Members in Good Standing and having different Designators, in each case by giving at least ten (10) Business Days' prior notice to each Board Member, which notice shall state the date, time, place (in the Borough of Manhattan) and purpose (including the agenda) for the meeting. In addition, the President of the Condominium Board shall, by written notice given in accordance with the last sentence of Section 2.6.2 above, call a meeting of the Condominium Board upon the written request of any four (4) Board Members.

2.7 Principal Offices of Condominium Board. The principal office of the Condominium Board shall be located either within the Property or at such other place in the Borough of Manhattan as may be designated from time to time by the Condominium Board.

2.8 Waiver of Notice. Any Board Member (or his or her proxy) may at any time waive notice of any Condominium Board meeting in writing and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance by a Board Member (or his or her proxy) at any meeting thereof shall constitute a waiver by such member of notice of the time and place thereof. If all the Board Members (or their proxies) are present at any meeting of the Condominium Board, no notice shall be required and any business may be transacted at such meeting.

2.9 Determinations by Condominium Board; Quorum.

2.9.1 Except as otherwise set forth in Section 2.9.3, all determinations of the Condominium Board shall be made at a meeting of the Condominium Board at which a quorum thereof is Present In Person. Only Board Members in Good Standing shall have the right to vote at meetings of the Condominium Board and only such Board Members shall count for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present. Subject to the preceding sentence, the Presence in Person, at any meeting of the Condominium Board, of Board Members sufficient to cast a Majority Member Vote shall constitute a quorum. Except as may otherwise be required by any Law, these By-Laws and/or the Declaration, a Majority Member Vote, shall constitute the decision of the Condominium Board.

2.9.2 If at any Condominium Board meeting a quorum (as defined in Section 2.9.1 hereof) does not exist, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time to a time, in each case specified on at least ten (10) Business Days' notice to the Board Members not Present in Person, until a quorum shall exist. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum (determined as aforesaid) exists, any business which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called may be transacted without further notice.

2.9.3 A Board Member or Members shall be deemed "Present in Person" at a meeting of the Condominium Board if such Board Member(s) or its/their proxy (as described in this Section 2.9) is/are: (i) physically present; or (ii) participating by means of a conference telephone call or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in such meeting can hear one another's voice. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any action permitted or required to be taken at a meeting of the Condominium Board, may be taken without a meeting if all Board Members consent thereto in writing.

2.9.4 In the event the Condominium Board or its designee shall own any Unit for which the Owner of on its own would otherwise be entitled to designate a Condominium Board Member, then the Condominium Board shall not designate a Board Member to vote on behalf of (or otherwise in connection with) such Unit.

2.9.5 Board Members shall be entitled to vote by proxy at any meeting of the Condominium Board, and all references herein and in the Declaration and/or these By-Laws to votes by Board Members shall be deemed to be references to votes by Board Members or their properly designated proxies. The designation of any such proxy shall be made in a signed and dated writing to the Secretary of the Condominium and shall be revocable at any time as provided at law or by notice actually delivered to such Secretary by the Unit Owner or Board which had made the designation; provided, however, that no designation to act as a proxy shall be effective for a period in excess of twelve (12) months (except that the designation of a Board Member by a Registered Mortgagee pursuant to clause (i) of the first sentence of Section 13.4(f) hereof shall be effective until the Secretary of the Condominium shall have received written notice from such Registered Mortgagee of the first of the following events to occur: (i) the revocation of such designation by such Registered Mortgagee; (ii) the satisfaction of record of such mortgage; and (iii) the release of the encumbered Unit from the lien of such mortgage).

2.10 Compensation. No Board Member shall receive any compensation from the Condominium or the Condominium Board for acting in the capacity of a Condominium Board Member.

2.11 Liability of Condominium Board and Unit Owners.

2.11.1 (a) To the extent permitted by applicable Law, no Board Member shall have any personal liability with respect to any contract, act or omission of the Condominium, the Condominium Board or its members, or of any Managing Agent or manager, building engineer, superintendent or employee in connection with the affairs or operation of the Condominium (except to the extent arising from such Board Member's own bad faith, gross negligence or willful misconduct).

(b) Every contract made by the Condominium Board or by any managing agent or manager thereof shall state that it is made by the Condominium Board or the managing agent or manager only as agent for the Condominium, and that the Board Members or managing agent or manager shall have no personal liability thereon and may also state the applicable limitations of liability of Unit Owners provided for in Section 2.11.2 below; and the absence of such statement or statements in any such contract shall not be deemed to imply any personal liability on the part of the Condominium Board, its members, managing agent or manager, or any Unit Owner.

(c) The Condominium shall indemnify each Board Member against all Costs arising out of such Board Member's serving in such capacity except those matters arising out of such Board Member's own bad faith, gross negligence or willful misconduct.

(d) The Condominium Board may contract or effect any other transaction with any Board Member, any member of the Tower Board, any Unit Owner, Declarant, Sponsor and/or Affiliates of any of the foregoing without incurring any liability for self-dealing or otherwise (except in the case of bad faith, gross negligence or willful misconduct which shall not be deemed presumed or established by the relationship between or among any such parties), but all such contracts or transactions shall be made only in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.16 hereof.

2.11.2 No Unit Owner, in its capacity as a Unit Owner, shall be personally liable for any contract, act or omission of the Condominium. Nothing in the preceding sentence shall limit a Unit Owner's liability for the payment of Common Charges or Special Assessments.

2.12 Committees.

2.12.1 The Condominium Board may, subject to such limitations and exceptions as the Condominium Board may prescribe, appoint such committees as the Condominium Board may deem appropriate, each to consist of two (2) or more members of the Condominium Board. Each such committee, to the extent provided in the resolution which creates it, shall have and may exercise all the powers designated to it by the Condominium Board during the intervals between Condominium Board meetings insofar as may be permitted by applicable Law.

2.12.2 The SFOA Board is hereby designated and deemed to constitute a committee of the Condominium Board with such powers and authority with respect to the Recreational Facility as are vested in the SFOA Board by the Shared Facilities Declaration.

2.13 Status of Boards. In addition to the status conferred upon each of the Boards under or pursuant to the provisions of the New York Condominium Act, each independently shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, be deemed to constitute a separate unincorporated association for all purposes under and pursuant to the provisions of the General Associations Law of the State of New York, as the same may be amended from time to time. In the event of the incorporation or organization of any such Board pursuant to the applicable provisions of Section 2.14, the provisions of this Section 2.13 shall no longer be applicable to such Board.

2.14 Incorporation and Organization of Boards. To the extent and in the manner provided in the New York Condominium Act (or as may otherwise be permitted by Law), each of the Condominium Board and the Tower Board may, by action of such Board as provided in Article 2 of the Condominium By-Laws and the Tower By-Laws, respectively, be organized as a limited liability company or incorporated under the applicable statutes of the State of New York. In the event that any such Board so organizes or incorporates, it shall have, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, the status conferred upon it under such statutes in addition to the status conferred upon it under or pursuant to the provisions of the New York Condominium Act. The certificate of incorporation and by-laws of any such resulting corporation or the articles of organization and operating agreement of such resulting limited liability company, as the case may be, shall conform as closely as practicable to the provisions of the Declaration and the applicable set of By-Laws (i.e., for such purpose, the Condominium By-Laws with respect to the Condominium Board and the Tower By-Laws with respect to the Tower Board) and the provisions of the Declaration and the applicable set of By-Laws shall control in the event of any inconsistency or conflict between the provisions thereof and the provisions of such certificate of incorporation and by-laws or articles of organization and operating agreement, as applicable, and any such certificate, by-laws, articles and agreement shall in all events be subject and subordinate in all respects to the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws and, with respect to the Tower Board, the Tower By-Laws.

2.15 Condominium Board as Agent of Unit Owners. In exercising its powers and performing its duties under the Declaration and these By-Laws (and, to the extent applicable, the Tower By-Laws), the Condominium Board shall act as, and shall be, the agent of the Tower Board (itself the agent of the Tower Unit Owners) and the Commercial Unit Owners, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration and these By-Laws (and, to the extent applicable, the Tower By-Laws).

2.16 Affiliate/Prohibited Transactions. Each Condominium Board Member shall perform his or her duties, and shall exercise his or her powers, in good faith and with a view to the interests of the Condominium. To the extent permitted by Law, no contract or other transaction between the Condominium Board and either: (i) any of its members; or (ii) any corporation, partnership, fiduciary, firm, limited liability company, association or other entity in which any of the members of the Condominium Board are officers, directors, shareholders, employees, partners, fiduciaries, beneficiaries, members or principals, or are otherwise interested, pecuniarily or otherwise, shall be deemed either void or voidable because either: (a) any such Condominium Board Member was present at the meeting or meetings of the Condominium Board during which such contract or transaction was discussed, authorized, approved or ratified, or (b) the vote of any such Board Member was counted for such purpose; provided, however, that either: (A) (1) the fact thereof is disclosed to, or known by, the Condominium Board or a majority of the members thereof and noted in the minutes thereof, and the Condominium Board shall authorize, approve or ratify such contract or transaction in good faith by a vote of a majority of the entire Condominium Board, less the number of such members involved in such contract or transaction; or (2) the fact thereof is disclosed to, or known by, a majority of Unit Owners and a majority of Unit Owners, present at a duly constituted meeting, shall in good faith authorize, approve or ratify such contract or transaction less the number of such Unit Owners who are also such members involved in such contract or transaction; and (B) the contract or transaction is commercially reasonable to the Condominium Board at the time the same is authorized, approved, ratified, executed or otherwise consummated. Any such members of the Condominium Board may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum of any meeting of the Condominium Board or of the Unit Owners which authorizes, approves or ratifies any such contract or transaction, but no such member shall be entitled to vote thereat in order to authorize, approve or ratify such contract or transaction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Condominium Board shall be authorized to employ an affiliate of Declarant as managing agent for the Condominium pursuant to Section 2.2.6 of the Condominium By-Laws; initially, and then, subject to reasonable market rate increases, for subsequent renewal terms.

UNIT OWNERS

3.1 Annual Meetings. No annual meeting of all Unit Owners (a "Unit Owners Meeting") shall be required to be held unless required, in each case, by applicable Law, in which event any such meeting so required to be held shall be held on a date specified by the Condominium Board.

3.2 Place of Meetings. All Unit Owners Meetings required or permitted to be held, if any, shall be held at the principal office of the Condominium or at such other place in the Borough of Manhattan as may be designated from time to time by the Condominium Board.

3.3 Special Meetings. The President or the Vice President of the Condominium shall call a special Unit Owners Meeting if so directed by resolution of the Condominium Board or upon a petition signed and presented to the Secretary of the Condominium by Unit Owners owning Units representing not less than fifty percent (50%) of the aggregate Common Interest of all of Units. Each such resolution or petition shall state, in reasonable detail, the purposes for calling such Unit Owners Meeting.

3.4 Notice of Meetings and Actions Taken. Notice of annual or special Unit Owners Meetings (in each case, if any) shall be given by the Secretary of the Condominium to all Unit Owners of record at their address at the Condominium (or at such other address as any Unit Owner has designated by notice given to the Secretary of the Condominium at least forty-five (45) days prior to the giving of notice of the applicable meeting). Each such notice shall state the purpose(s) of the meeting and the date, time and place (in the Borough of Manhattan) where it is to be held, and no business shall be transacted at such meeting except as stated in the notice. All notices hereunder shall be given at least ten (10) Business Days prior to the date fixed for the meeting. However, if the business to be conducted at any Unit Owners Meeting shall include consideration of a proposed amendment to the Declaration or to these By-Laws which requires a vote of the Unit Owners at such a meeting, the notice of such meeting shall be given to all Unit Owners, Registered Mortgagees and Mortgagee Representatives at least thirty (30) days prior to the date fixed for such meeting and such notice shall be accompanied by a copy of the text of such proposed amendment. The Condominium Board shall have the exclusive right to vote on the matters and take the actions delegated to it by the Condominium Documents.

3.5 Quorum.

3.5.1 Except as otherwise provided in these By-Laws, the presence in person or by proxy of Unit Owners representing not less than thirty percent (30%) (in Common Interest) of all Unit Owners shall constitute a quorum; provided that the members of the Condominium Board designated by the Commercial Unit Owners shall have the absolute right (except in the case of an Emergency) to require an adjournment of any such Unit Owners Meeting (notwithstanding the presence of a quorum) for a period or periods in the aggregate of not longer than thirty (30) days.

3.5.2 Subject to Section 3.5.1, if at any Unit Owners Meeting a quorum does not exist, the Unit Owners who are present at such meeting, either in person or by proxy, may act by majority vote to adjourn the meeting and reconvene at a time (specified on at least ten (10) Business Days' notice to the absent Unit Owners). At any such adjourned and reconvened Unit Owners Meeting at which a quorum (determined as aforesaid) exists, any business which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called may be transacted without further notice.

3.6 Order of Business. The order of business at all annual Unit Owners Meetings, if any, shall be as follows:

(a) Call to order.

(b) Proof of notice of meeting.

(c) Reading of minutes of preceding meeting, if any.

(d) Reports of officers, if any.

(e) Reports of Board Members.

(f) Reports of committees, if any.

(g) Election of inspectors of election (when so required).

(h) Unfinished business.

(i) New business.

3.7 Voting at Unit Owners Meetings.

3.7.1 Each Unit Owner, or a person designated by each such Unit Owner to act as proxy on its behalf and who need not be a Unit Owner, shall be entitled to cast the votes appurtenant to such Unit Owner's Unit (determined on a Common Interest basis), as set forth herein and in the Declaration, at all Unit Owners Meetings, if any. The designation of any such proxy shall be made in a signed and dated writing to the Secretary of the Condominium and shall be revocable at any time by notice actually delivered to such Secretary by the Unit Owner which had made the designation; provided, however, that no designation to act as a proxy shall be effective for a period in excess of twelve (12) months. If a Registered Mortgagee is entitled to vote at a Unit Owners Meeting pursuant to clause (ii) of the first sentence of Section 13.4(f) hereof (which vote may be by proxy), such Registered Mortgagee shall continue to so vote until the Secretary of the Condominium shall have received written notice from such Registered Mortgagee of the first of the following events to occur: (i) the revocation of such designation by such Registered Mortgagee; (ii) the satisfaction of record of such mortgage; and (iii) the release of the encumbered Unit from the lien of such mortgage. A fiduciary shall be the voting member with respect to any Unit owned in a fiduciary capacity. Except as otherwise provided herein or in the Declaration or as otherwise required by Law, a majority of votes duly cast at any Unit Owner's Meeting at which a quorum is present or is not required shall be binding.

3.7.2 If two (2) or more Persons own a Unit, they shall designate one (1) Person amongst them to vote the Common Interest appurtenant to their Unit in a writing given to the Secretary of the Condominium, and the vote of such designee shall be binding upon such Persons. Failing such a designation, all of such Persons shall mutually vote such Common Interest under one ballot, without division, and the concurrence of such Persons shall be conclusively presumed if any one of them purports to vote such Common Interest without protest being made contemporaneously to the party presiding over the meeting at which such vote is taken. From and after the day such protest is made until the dispute with respect thereto is resolved (which dispute shall be resolved in Arbitration), the Common Interest of such Unit shall not be voted; provided, however, that (i) such Unit shall be counted solely for determining whether a quorum is present for such voting and (ii) such protest shall not nullify any vote made by any such Person on behalf of such jointly-owned Unit prior to such protest being made.

3.7.3 At Unit Owners Meetings, the Condominium Board (or its designee) shall not be entitled to vote the Common Interest appurtenant to any Unit owned by the Condominium Board (or such designee) on behalf of all Unit Owners.

3.7.4 Except as otherwise set forth herein or in the Declaration, at all Unit Owners Meetings, if any, each Unit Owner (or its proxy) entitled to vote thereat shall be entitled to cast one (1) vote for each .0001% (rounded off to the nearest .0001%) of Common Interest attributable to its Unit or Units. If a matter requires the consent of a Unit Owner prior to its being approved by the Condominium Board, then such action, if and when raised at a Unit Owners Meeting, shall require the consent of such Unit Owner. Notwithstanding any provision of these By-Laws or the Condominium Documents to the contrary, however, a Unit Owner (or his or her or its proxy) shall be entitled and authorized to vote at any Unit Owners Meeting or any other annual, regular or special meeting of any or all Unit Owners if, and only if, such Unit Owner shall be a Unit Owner in Good Standing at the time of such annual, regular or special meeting.

3.8 Voting By Certain Unit Owners or Groups of Units Owners. Whenever a particular percentage of Common Interest must be reached for voting purposes and such required percentage is described in terms of a specified group of Unit Owners (e.g., "fifty percent (50%) in Common Interest of all Tower Unit Owners") as opposed to all Unit Owners as a whole, such required percentage shall mean a percentage in terms of the total Common Interests attributable to all Unit Owners within such specified group and not the percentage of Common Interests attributable to all Unit Owners.

OFFICERS

4.1 Designation. (a) The principal officers of the Condominium shall be a President, a Vice President, a Secretary and a Treasurer thereof, all of whom shall be elected by the Condominium Board. The Condominium Board may elect one or more Assistant Vice Presidents, Assistant Treasurers and Assistant Secretaries and such other officers as in its judgment may be desirable. Nothing herein shall preclude any officer of the Tower Board from also being an officer of the Condominium or any officer of the Condominium from also being an officer of the Tower Board, if otherwise qualified under the terms of these By-Laws or the Tower By-Laws, as the case may be; and any Condominium Board Member may also be an officer of the Condominium.

(b) The officers of the Condominium Board are required to be Unit Owners or have any interest therein and be members of the Condominium Board or the Tower Board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any officer elected by Sponsor by virtue of its control of the Condominium Board does not need to be a Unit Owner or have any interest therein or be a member of the Condominium Board or Tower Board.

(c) In no event shall any Unit Owner (or its proxy) be eligible for election or designation to the Condominium Board if such Unit Owner is then in default, beyond any applicable grace period, in the payment of Common Charges or any other amounts required by the Condominium Board to be paid. In addition, no member of the Condominium Board (or his or her proxy) may continue to participate as a member thereof after the Condominium Board has perfected a lien against its Unit (or the Unit of its Designator), for so long as such lien remains unsatisfied.

4.2 Election of Officers. The officers of the Condominium shall each be elected annually by a majority vote of the Condominium Board (including at the first meeting thereof) and at any other meeting as may be required to fill a vacancy, and shall serve at the pleasure of the Condominium Board.

4.3 Resignation and Removal of Officers. Any officer may resign at any time by notice given to the Condominium Board; such resignation shall take effect at the time specified in such notice and, unless specifically requested by the resigning officer, acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make such resignation effective. Upon a majority vote at a regular meeting of the Condominium Board, or at a special meeting of the Condominium Board called for such purpose, at which a quorum is present, any officer may be removed, either with or without cause, and his or her successor shall be elected.

4.4 President. The President of the Condominium shall be the chief executive officer of the Condominium and shall preside at all Unit Owners Meetings and at all meetings of the Condominium Board. The President shall have all of the general powers and duties which are incident to the office of president of a stock corporation organized under the Business Corporation Law of the State of New York, including, but not limited to, the power to appoint (subject to the provisions of Section 2.12) committees from among the Board Members and/or Unit Owners, from time to time as such President, in his or her discretion, may decide are appropriate to assist in the conduct of the affairs of the Condominium.

4.5 Vice President. The Vice President of the Condominium shall take the place of the President under whom he or she serves and shall perform the duties of the President whenever the President shall be absent or unable to act. If both the President and the Vice President of the Condominium are unable to act, the Condominium Board shall appoint some other Condominium Board Member to act in the place of such President and Vice President on an interim basis. The Vice President shall also perform such other duties as, from time to time, shall be imposed by the Condominium Board or by the President.

4.6 Vice President for RSPOA Liaison. The Condominium Board shall appoint one Tower Board Member who shall, in addition to serving on the Condominium Board, serve as the representative of the Condominium on the board of directors of the RSPOA. The Vice President for RSPOA Liaison shall have such authority and power in this capacity as shall be authorized by the Condominium Board, but at a minimum, shall attend meetings of the board of directors of the RSPOA and meetings of the Members of the RSPOA as the Condominium's representative.

4.7 Vice President for SFOA Liaison. The Condominium Board shall appoint one Tower Board Member who shall, in addition to serving on the Condominium Board, serve as the representative of the Condominium on board of directors of the SFOA. The Vice President for SFOA Liaison shall have such authority and power in this capacity as shall be authorized by the Condominium Board, but at a minimum, shall attend meetings of the board of directors of the SFOA and meetings of the Members of the SFOA, as the Condominium's representative.

4.8 Secretary. The Secretary of the Condominium shall keep the minutes of all Unit Owners Meetings, if any, and of all meetings of the Condominium Board. The Secretary shall have charge of such books and papers as the Condominium Board shall direct and, in general, shall perform all of the duties incident to the office of secretary of a stock corporation organized under the Business Corporation Law of the State of New York.

4.9 Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of the funds and securities of the Condominium, and shall be responsible for keeping full and accurate financial records and books of account thereof showing all receipts and disbursements necessary for the preparation of all required financial data. The Treasurer shall be responsible for the deposit of all funds and other securities in the name of the Condominium Board (or in the name of the managing agent or manager appointed by the Condominium Board) in such depositories as may from time to time be designated by the Condominium Board and shall in general perform all of the duties incident to the office of treasurer of a stock corporation organized under the Business Corporation Law of the State of New York.

4.10 Execution of Documents. All agreements, contracts, deeds, leases, checks and other instruments of the Condominium shall be executed by the President or Vice-President, acting alone, or by any other two (2) officers thereof or by such other person or persons as may be designated by the Condominium Board. In addition to the foregoing, the Condominium Board may authorize the managing agent serving on its behalf to execute checks, provided that the expenditures, and the managing agent's paying for same, have been approved in advance by resolution of the Condominium Board or have been authorized by two (2) officers of the Condominium.

4.11 Compensation of Officers. Except as otherwise determined by a unanimous vote of the Condominium Board, no officer of the Condominium shall receive any compensation for acting as such.

4.12 Liability of Officers. To the extent permitted by applicable Law, no officer of the Condominium shall have any personal liability with respect to any contract, act or omission of the Condominium, the Condominium Board or its members or officers, or of any managing agent or manager, building engineer, superintendent or employee in connection with the affairs or operation of the Condominium (except to the extent arising from such officer's bad faith, gross negligence or willful misconduct) including, without limitation: (i) any failure or interruption of any utility or other services to be obtained by, or on behalf of, any such officer or to be paid for as a General Common Expense; or (ii) any injury, loss or damage to any individual or property, occurring in or upon either a Unit or any Common Element, which is either: (a) caused by the elements, by any Unit Owner or by any other individual; (b) resulting from electricity, water, snow or ice that may leak or flow from a Unit or any portion of any Common Element; or (c) arising out of theft or otherwise. The Condominium shall indemnify each officer of the Condominium against all Costs arising out of such officer's service in such capacity, except those matters arising out of such officer's bad faith, gross negligence or willful misconduct.

NOTICES

5.1 Notices. Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Declaration or these By-Laws, all requests, notices, reports, demands, approvals and other communications required or desired to be given pursuant to the Declaration and/or the Condominium By-Laws shall be in writing and shall be delivered: (a) if to any of the Boards or Commercial Unit Owners, in person or sent to the principal office of the applicable Board or such Unit Owner, as the case may be (or to such other address as: (i) the applicable Board may designate from time to time, by notice in writing to the other Boards and such other Unit Owners; and (ii) each such Unit Owner may designate from time to time, by notice in writing to each Board and to each other such Unit Owner); and a duplicate shall be sent in like manner to the managing agent of the Condominium, of the Tower Section and of each Commercial Unit having a managing agent, if any; (b) if to a Tower Unit, in person or sent to the address of such Unit Owner at the Building, or to such other address as may have been designated by such Unit Owner from time to time in writing to the Tower Board; and (if such notice is from a Person other than the Tower Board) a duplicate shall be sent in like manner to the Tower Board and managing agent, if any, of the Tower Section; (c) if to a Condominium Board Member, to the address of such Board Member as shall be specified in the written designation thereof by such individual's Designator (provided that, failing such specification, the address of such Designator shall be deemed to be the specified address for such Board Member), or to such other address as may have been designated by such Board Member from time to time in writing to the Secretary of the Condominium Board and to the other Condominium Board Members; and (d) if to the Registered Mortgagees or Mortgagee Representatives, either delivered in person or sent to their respective addresses, as designated by them from time to time in writing to the Condominium Board or the Tower Board, as the case may be. All notices delivered in person (to the extent permitted herein) shall be deemed to have been given when delivered in person. Unless other means of giving certain notices are specifically required or permitted pursuant to the Condominium Documents, all notices which are "sent" shall be sent either (x) by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, and shall be deemed to have been given three (3) days after deposit in a depository maintained by the U.S. Postal Service in a postage prepaid sealed wrapper or (y) by nationally recognized overnight courier service and shall be deemed to have been given the first Business Day (for domestic delivery) and the third Business Day (for international delivery), after deposit with an overnight courier service, provided that notices of change of address shall in all events be deemed to have been given when received.

5.2 Waiver of Service of Notice; Consent to Other Notices. Whenever any notice is required to be given by applicable Law or the Condominium Documents, a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the Person or Persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed effective as a waiver thereof and no such notice shall be required. Additionally, any Person may consent (with respect to notices given to it) to additional means of service including, without limitation, transmission by facsimile or electronic means. Such consent, if given, shall in all events be in writing and given and treated as if the same were a change of address (as described in Section 5.1 above). With respect to notices given by facsimile, the transmission shall be to a telephone number designated for such purpose. Notices sent by facsimile shall be deemed to have been given upon receipt by the sender of a signal from the equipment of the Person served confirming that the transmission was received. A Person may change or rescind a facsimile telephone number by giving notice thereof to the Condominium Board and the Tower Board. With respect to notices given by electronic transmission (e.g., e-mail), the transmission shall be in a manner authorized by the Person consenting to such transmission. The foregoing provisions of this Section 5.2 are intended to facilitate additional means of notification and shall not be construed to permit any Person to refuse receipt of any notices given in any of the manners specified in Section 5.1.

5.3 Notices by a Tower Unit Owner to the Tower Board. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article 5, all notices required or desired to be given by a Tower Unit Owner to the Tower Board or to another Unit Owner within the Tower Section shall be given in the manner prescribed in the Tower By-Laws; however, any additional or duplicate notices required thereunder to be given to any Board and/or any other Unit Owner shall be given in any of the manner herein provided.

5.4 Record of Addresses.

5.4.1 The Condominium Board shall keep and maintain correct, current and complete records containing the names and addresses of all Condominium Board Members (and their proxies, if any), the Tower Board (and its members), Registered Mortgagees and Mortgagee Representatives. The foregoing records shall be in written form or in any other form capable of being converted into written form within a reasonable time. A Condominium Board Member, a Unit Owner, the Tower Board, any Registered Mortgagee or Mortgagee Representative shall have the right to examine in person or by agent or attorney, during usual business hours on Business Days, such records and, at such Person's expense, to make extracts or copies therefrom (including electronic copies to the extent such records are in electronic form) for any purpose reasonably related to such Person's interest in the Condominium.

5.4.2 The Tower Board shall keep and maintain correct, current and complete records containing the names and addresses of all of its members, all of its applicable Unit Owners, Registered Mortgagees, as applicable, and Mortgagee Representatives, as applicable. The foregoing records shall be in written form or in any other form capable of being converted into written form within one Business Day. The Condominium Board shall have the right to examine in person or by agent or attorney, during usual business hours on Business Days, such records and, at the Condominium Board's expense, to make extracts or copies therefrom (including electronic copies to the extent such records are in electronic form) for any purpose reasonably related to the exercise and fulfillment of the Condominium Board's rights and obligations, respectively, under the Condominium Documents.

GENERAL COMMON EXPENSES AND CHARGES; BUDGETS; MAINTENANCE OBLIGATIONS AND COSTS; UTILITIES

6.1 Determination of General Common Expenses and Fixing of General Common Charges.

6.1.1 (a) The Condominium Board shall determine and allocate all costs and expenses incurred by the Condominium Board in connection with the operation, care, upkeep and maintenance of, and the making of Alterations to, and Repairs of, the General Common Elements (all such costs and expenses, together with all other items which are provided for in these By-Laws and the Declaration to be General Common Expenses, the "General Common Expenses"). From time to time, but at least once per year, the Condominium Board will prepare a budget ("Budget") for setting forth its projection of General Common Expenses and will allocate the General Common Expenses among the Commercial Units and the Tower Section (as a whole) (each, a "General Common Charge Obligor") and assess charges ("General Common Charges") accordingly to meet the General Common Expenses. General Common Charges shall also be deemed to include any Special Assessment imposed by the Condominium Board. Except as otherwise expressly set forth in the Declaration or the Condominium By-Laws, the allocation of General Common Expenses among the General Common Charge Obligors shall be made as shown in Exhibit 2 annexed hereto and made a part hereof (the "Expense Allocation Schedule"). The Condominium Board shall advise the General Common Charge Obligors promptly in writing of the amount of General Common Charges payable by each of them and shall furnish to such parties copies of each Budget on which such General Common Charges are based.

(b) The allocations methodology for the General Common Charges set forth on the Expense Allocation Schedule shall not change, except pursuant to Article 11 hereof but subject to subparagraph (d) below.

(c) Pending the resolution in Arbitration of any dispute with respect to the allocation of General Common Expenses, the allocation to the affected General Common Charge Obligors of the disputed components of the General Common Expenses shall remain as determined by the Condominium Board, provided that upon such resolution, any resulting change in the allocation of such General Common Expenses shall be effective retroactive to the effective date of the allocation or re-allocation that gave rise to the dispute.

(d) For purposes of Section 6.1.1(a), in accordance with Section 339-m of the New York Real Property Law, the allocation and apportionment of General Common Charges to the Rental Unit may be less than the allocation and apportionment of Common Charges to the other Units, where such lesser General Common Charges are necessary to ensure that the aggregate Common Charges, mortgage, if any, and other housing costs paid by the Rental Unit do not exceed the Rental Unit Common Charge Allocation (as defined in Section 6.1.9 of these By-Laws). As set forth in Section 6.1.9 below, the Rental Unit Common Charge Allocation shall be implemented by either: (i) imposing Common Charges for the Rental Unit that are not proportional to the Common Charges for the other Units, or (ii) limiting the amount of Common Charges imposed on the Rental Unit. In the event a Rental Unit Common Charge

Allocation is implemented, the Common Charges payable by all other Unit Owners shall be increased by the amount of such reduction in the Common Charges otherwise payable by the Rental Unit Owner on a pro rata basis in accordance with their relative proportional Common Interest.

6.1.2 The Condominium Board may, at its sole discretion, from time to time increase or decrease the amount of General Common Charges allocated to and payable by the General Common Charge Obligors, and may modify its prior determination of the General Common Expenses for any fiscal year so as to increase or decrease the amount of General Common Charges payable for such fiscal year or portion thereof; however, no such revised determination of General Common Expenses shall have a retroactive effect on the amount of General Common Charges payable for any period prior to the date of such new determination. However, a prior period's deficit may be included in General Common Charges for a subsequent period or paid from a Special Assessment levied against all General Common Charge Obligors.

6.1.3 The failure or delay of the Condominium Board to prepare or adopt a budget or to determine the General Common Expenses for any fiscal year or portion thereof shall not be deemed a waiver or modification in any respect of the covenants and provisions hereof or a release of any General Common Charge Obligor from the obligation to pay General Common Charges. In such event, the General Common Charges that were computed on the basis of the General Common Expenses last determined for any fiscal year or portion thereof shall continue thereafter to be the General Common Charges payable until a new determination of the General Common Expenses shall be made.

6.1.4 In addition to the foregoing duty to determine the amount of and assess General Common Charges, the Condominium Board shall have the right to levy special assessments ("Special Assessments") to meet the General Common Expenses. All Special Assessments shall be levied against all General Common Obligors equitably in proportion to: (a) their respective Common Interests, or (b) the anticipated benefit(s) to the affected Unit Owners, as determined by the Condominium Board (and in the latter case, all disputes with respect thereto shall be resolved in Arbitration). The Condominium Board shall have all rights and remedies for the collection of Special Assessments as are provided herein for the collection of General Common Charges.

6.1.5 Except as otherwise set forth to the contrary herein or in the Declaration, the excess of all rents, profits and revenues derived from the rental or use of any space or facility forming part of or included in any General Common Element remaining after the deduction of any non-capital expenses paid or incurred in connection therewith shall be collected by the Condominium Board, as agent for and on behalf of the Unit Owners, and shall constitute income of the Unit Owners. Notwithstanding any provision contained in these Condominium By-Laws or in the Declaration to the contrary, in no event shall any rent, profit or revenue derived from the rental or use of any space in the Building be deemed to be derived from the rental or use of any floor slabs, ceilings or walls delineating or enclosing such space or the incidental use of any portion of any Common Elements appurtenant to such space.

6.1.6 There shall be no right of a General Common Charge Obligor or a Unit Owner to reduce its General Common Charges by opting out of any services or waiving any benefits provided by the Condominium Board.

6.1.7 Except as otherwise provided herein, all costs and expenses in connection with the operation, care, upkeep and maintenance of, and the making of Alterations to, and Repairs of, the Tower Limited Common Elements and the Tower Section generally (the "Tower Common Expenses") shall be determined and incurred and paid by the Tower Board, and borne by the Tower Unit Owners in the manner determined by the Tower Board, but in all events in accordance with the Tower By-Laws. The Tower Board shall be the sole holder of any lien for unpaid General Common Charges, Tower Common Charges or Special Assessments that may be allocated to and/or assessed individually against Tower Unit Owners.

6.1.8 The Tower Common Charges collected by the Tower Board shall, in all instances, first be payable by the Tower Board to the Condominium Board in payment of the Tower Section's allocated share of General Common Charges and before application for any other purpose. If such priority of payment fails to occur, the Condominium Board shall have the right, without limitation, and in addition to all other remedies available at Law, to avail itself of the remedy of specific performance with respect to the obligations of the Tower Board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for administrative convenience and upon notice to the Tower Board, the Condominium Board shall have the right to collect the Tower Section's allocated share of General Common Charges directly from the Tower Unit Owners in accordance with their respective Common Interest.

6.1.9 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth above:

(a) In accordance with Section 339-m of the New York Real Property Law, the allocation and apportionment of Common Charges to the Rental Unit (the "Rental Unit Common Charge Allocation") may be less than the allocation and apportionment of Common Charges to the other Units where such lesser Common Charges are necessary to ensure that the Common Charges paid by the Rental Unit do not cause a Rental Unit Operating Shortfall (as defined below). The Rental Unit Common Charge Allocation shall be implemented by either: (i) imposing Common Charges for the Rental Unit that are not proportional to the Common Charges for the other Units, or (ii) limiting the amount of Common Charges imposed on the Rental Unit. In the event a Rental Unit Common Charge Allocation is implemented, the Common Charges payable by all other Unit Owners shall be increased by the amount of such reduction in the Common Charges otherwise payable by the Rental Unit Owner on a pro rata basis in accordance with their relative proportional Common Interest, or otherwise in accordance with the allocation methodology set forth in Section 6.1.1(a) hereof.

(b) The Rental Unit Owner, after receiving the proposed Budget for the next fiscal year (or an amended Budget for any fiscal year) setting forth the Common Charges for the Rental Unit, shall determine and notify the Condominium Board whether, based upon such Budget and Common Charges, there will be a Rental Unit Operating Shortfall in such fiscal year, supported by reasonably detailed projections and documentation, including, without limitation, the Rental Unit Budget (as defined below). In the event the Rental Unit Owner determines that there will be a Rental Unit Operating Shortfall, then, no later than ten (10) days prior to the commencement of such fiscal year or twenty (20) days after receipt of such Budget and estimated Common Charges, whichever is later, the Rental Unit Owner shall advise the Condominium Board of the same and the Rental Unit Owner's estimate of the Common Charges, supported by reasonably detailed projections and documentation, including, without limitation, the Rental Unit Budget, which would be required to be set for the Rental Unit to prevent the Rental Unit Operating Shortfall (the "Rental Unit Estimated CC Amount"). Prior to the commencement of such upcoming fiscal year the Condominium Board shall set the Common Charges for the Rental Unit at the Rental Unit Estimated CC Amount, and shall apportion any shortfall to all other Unit Owners in accordance with their relative proportional Common Interest, or otherwise in accordance with the allocation methodology set forth in Section 6.1.1(a) hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the Condominium Board fails to set the Common Charges for the Rental Unit as provided above, the Common Charges due from the Rental Unit Owner shall be equal to the Rental Unit Estimated CC Amount.

(c) (i) If, during any fiscal year in which there is a Rental Unit Operating Shortfall, the Common Charges for the Rental Unit are increased, such increase shall be borne solely the by all other Unit Owners in accordance with their relative proportional Common Interest, or otherwise in accordance with the allocation methodology set forth in Section 6.1.1(a) hereof.

(ii) Notwithstanding the foregoing, no other Unit Owner shall be obligated to make an Advance to the Rental Unit Owner for a Rental Unit Operating Shortfall that results from: (1) the Rental Unit Owner's failure to annually approve the Rental Unit Budget, or (2) the Rental Unit Owner's failure to use its best efforts to collect Rental Unit Revenues (as defined below).

(d) If, during any fiscal year, the Rental Unit Owner experiences a significant unanticipated Rental Unit Operating Shortfall, the Rental Unit Owner may present a revised Rental Unit Estimated CC Amount (the "Rental Unit Revised Estimated CC Amount") for the balance of such fiscal year along with its reasonably detailed projections and documentation, including, without limitation, the Rental Unit Budget, used to calculate such Rental Unit Revised Estimated CC Amount including a revised estimate of the Rental Unit Operating Costs. Within ten (10) days of receipt of the Rental Unit Revised Estimated CC Amount, the Condominium Board shall reset the Common Charges for the Rental Unit at an amount that, after taking into account the revised estimate of the Rental Unit Operating Costs, will eliminate the revised Rental Unit Operating Shortfall. Such Rental Unit Revised Estimated CC Amount will be subject to the annual reconciliation procedures described in subparagraph 6.1.9(e) below. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the Condominium Board fails to set the Common Charges for the Rental Unit on the basis of the unanticipated Rental Unit Operating Shortfall, the Common Charges due from the Rental Unit Owner shall be equal to the Rental Unit Revised Estimated CC Amount.

(e) Within ninety (90) days after the close of any fiscal year in which there is a Rental Unit Operating Shortfall and Common Charges for the Rental Unit are reduced pursuant to this Section as a result, the Condominium Board and the Rental Unit Owner will conduct a reconciliation with regard to the actual Rental Unit Operating Shortfall. The Rental Unit Owner will provide the Condominium Board with records pertaining to the actual Rental

Unit Revenues and the actual Rental Unit Operating Costs for such fiscal year. In the event the actual Rental Unit Operating Shortfall is less than the Rental Unit Estimated CC Amount or the Rental Unit Revised Estimated CC Amount, as applicable, the Rental Unit Owner shall pay the difference to the Condominium Board and such amount shall be distributed to all other Unit Owners in accordance to their relative proportional Common Interest (or otherwise in accordance with the allocation methodology set forth in Section 6.1.1(a) hereof), or applied as a credit in the same manner. In the event the actual Rental Unit Operating Shortfall is greater than the anticipated Rental Unit Operating Shortfall, the difference shall either be paid by the Condominium Board or, in the event the Rental Unit Owner was required to offset such projected Rental Unit Operating Shortfall, applied as a credit against the Common Charges next due from the Rental Unit Owner (in either case with such amount to be assessed to the Unit Owners other than the Rental Unit Owner). Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall the Rental Unit Owner be obligated to pay proportionally more Common Charges than a Unit Owner other than the Rental Unit Owner would have paid under the provisions of these By-Laws, and under no circumstances whatsoever shall the effect of this Section 6.1.9 ever result in any payment, reduction, adjustment, credit or other obligation from the Condominium Board or other Unit Owners to or in favor of the Rental Unit Owner in excess of the gross amount of Common Charges that would otherwise be allocable to the Rental Unit or Rental Unit Owner for any particular period before giving effect to this Section 6.1.9.

(f) Definitions. As used herein, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(i) "Rental Unit Budget" means the budget to be prepared by or on behalf of the Rental Unit Owner, which takes into account all Rental Unit Operating Costs and Rental Unit Revenues.

(ii) "Rental Unit Operating Costs" means the annual operating expenses of the Rental Unit, including, without limitation, real estate taxes levied on the Rental Unit, which expenses shall be set forth in the Rental Unit Budget.

(iii) "Rental Unit Operating Shortfall" means a deficiency of funds occurring when Rental Unit Operating Costs exceed Rental Unit Revenues, and the Rental Unit Owner has insufficient funds to pay the full Common Charges attributable to the Rental Unit.

(iv) "Rental Unit Revenues" means the aggregate of (A) the annual rents paid by the Rental Apartments within the Rental Unit to the Rental Unit Owner, and (B) any other annual revenues obtained from the Rental Unit by the Rental Unit Owner.

(g) From time to time, but at least once per year, the Rental Unit Owner will prepare the Rental Unit Budget. At least thirty (30) days prior to the adoption of any Rental Unit Budget, the Rental Unit Owner will be required to present such budget to the Condominium Board for approval, which approval will not be unreasonably withheld.

(h) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in the Declaration, the Condominium Board shall have the right to either enter into service contracts on behalf of the Rental Unit Owner or cause the Rental Unit Owner to enter into service contracts, for services to be performed with respect to the Rental Unit, including, without limitation, security, extermination and elevator maintenance. Generally, the Rental Unit Owner shall be responsible for all costs incurred in connection with the provision of any such services rendered with respect to the Rental Unit. To the extent the Condominium Board enters into any such agreement and/or contract on behalf of the Rental Unit Owner, the cost of any such agreement and/or contract shall be paid by the Condominium Board and assessed as a special assessment against the Rental Unit Owner.

(i) In no event shall the provisions of this Section 6.1.9 be modified to impair the rights of the Rental Unit hereunder without the prior written consent of HPD, so long as the HPD Regulatory Agreement remains in effect.

6.2 Payment of General Common Charges. All General Common Charge Obligors shall be obligated to pay General Common Charges assessed by the Condominium Board pursuant to the provisions of Section 6.1 at such time or times (but not less than monthly) as the Condominium Board determines. Unless otherwise determined by the Condominium Board, General Common Charges shall be payable monthly, in advance, on the first day of each month.

6.3 Default in Payment of General Common Charges. The Condominium Board shall take prompt action to collect any General Common Charges (including, with respect to the Rental Unit, the requirement that such General Common Charges comport with Section 339-m of the New York Real Property Law) which remain unpaid for more than thirty (30) days after the due date for payment thereof, including, without limitation, the institution of such actions and the recovery of interest and expenses as provided in this Article 6 and Article 12 hereof.

6.4 Maintenance Obligations; Costs of Same.

6.4.1 General. Except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or these By-Laws (including, without limitation, Section 6.4.2 and Article 8 hereof), all operation, care, upkeep, maintenance, insurance, Repairs and Alterations, painting and decorating, whether structural or non-structural, ordinary or extraordinary, including, without limitation, with respect to the building systems and other plumbing, heating, ventilating, electrical (including emergency power systems), air-conditioning and telecommunications systems, fixtures, Equipment and appliances:

(a) in or of the Tower Section (but excluding any General Common Elements that may be included therein, as and to the extent provided in these By-Laws) shall be made or performed in the manner, and by and at the sole cost and expense of the Tower Unit Owners, as is provided for, described and allocated within the Tower By-Laws;

(b) in or of and exclusively relating to a Unit (but excluding any Common Elements that may be included therein, as and to the extent provided in these By-Laws) shall be made or performed by the Unit Owner thereof at its sole cost and expense; and

(c) in or of the General Common Elements shall be made or performed by the Condominium Board and the cost and expense thereof shall be charged as a General Common Expense to the General Common Charge Obligors as and in the manner provided in these By-Laws.

6.4.2 Exceptions. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6.4.1:

(a) Negligence; Fault. In the event and to the extent that any operation, care, upkeep, maintenance, Repair and Alteration, painting and decorating, whether structural or non-structural, ordinary or extraordinary (collectively, any "Necessary Work"), is required to be made or performed, or any increase in insurance premiums is required to be paid, the entire cost thereof (the "Resulting Cost") with respect to the General Common Elements as a result of the negligence, misuse, neglect or abuse of: (i) the Tower Board or its Occupants or Permittees (including, for the purposes of this Section, the Tower Unit Owners), the Resulting Cost shall be borne by the Tower Board as an obligation of such Board (but the Tower Board may for its own purposes allocate such cost to one or more Tower Unit Owners if such cost is attributable to such Unit Owner(s), or as otherwise provided in the Tower By-Laws); or (ii) any Commercial Unit Owner or its Occupants or Permittees, the Resulting Cost shall be borne entirely by such Commercial Unit Owner; except, with respect to all of the foregoing in each case, to the extent that the Resulting Cost is covered by the proceeds of any insurance actually maintained, or would have been so covered had the insurance that was required to be maintained pursuant to the provisions of these Condominium By-Laws or the Tower By-Laws. The Resulting Cost shall not be deemed covered by insurance proceeds pursuant to the preceding sentence to the extent of any applicable deductibles. The foregoing shall not give rise to any claim on the part of any Person for consequential, special, exemplary or punitive damages.

(b) Cleaning of Windows. The washing and cleaning of interior glass surfaces of the exterior windows of the Building shall be the responsibility of the respective Unit Owner(s) (or the Tower Board, as applicable) into whose Unit(s) (or Limited Common Element(s), as applicable) such windows face. The Condominium Board may from time to time enforce the responsibility of Unit Owners (or Tower Board) to wash and clean the interior surfaces of windows as aforesaid. The exterior glass surfaces of the exterior windows of the Building will be washed and cleaned at the direction of the Condominium Board and the cost thereof charged as a General Common Expense of all General Common Charge Obligors. In connection therewith, the Condominium Board shall have an easement to access Units and any Tower Limited Common Elements appurtenant thereto to the extent necessary.

(c) Repair or Replacement of Windows. Any repair or replacement of exterior glass windows in the Building, because of breakage or otherwise, shall be made, by, subject to the provisions of the Condominium Documents (e.g., regarding consents required in connection with Alterations and/or Repairs) and at the expense of the Condominium Board (although the Tower Board may allocate and assess the cost thereof in accordance with the terms of the Tower By-Laws). With respect to Commercial Units, the cost of any window replaced by the Condominium Board shall be allocated to the Commercial Unit Owner of such Commercial Unit, and with respect to the Tower Units, the cost of any window replaced by the Condominium Board shall be allocated to the Tower Board, who shall further allocate such cost in accordance with the Tower By-Laws, in either case unless such breakage is caused by or attributable to the negligence, misuse or abuse of a Board or a Unit Owner or its Occupants or Permittees, in which event such replacement of glass windows shall be made by the Condominium Board and the cost thereof shall be allocated as described in subsection 6.4.2(a) above.

(d) Certain General Common Elements. Subject to the foregoing terms of this Section 6.3.2 and Article 8 of these By-Laws and Article 15 of the Declaration, all operation (including the cost of any utilities), care, upkeep, maintenance, Repairs and Alterations (subject to the next sentence), and painting and decorating, of any General Common Element over which any Unit Owner has exclusive control and an exclusive right to use, shall be made by the applicable Unit Owner having such control and right (as provided in Article 15 of the Declaration) at its/their sole cost and expense, but in each case subject to the reasonable approval of the Condominium Board. Subject to Sections 6.4.2(a) and 8.3 hereof, any structural or extraordinary Repairs or Alterations of or to such category of General Common Elements shall be made by the Condominium Board and charged to the General Common Charge Obligors as a General Common Expense and allocated as shown on the Expense Allocation Schedule.

(e) Roofs; Roof Telecom Platforms. Although maintenance and Repairs of the roof, as General Common Elements, shall be made by the Condominium Board and chargeable to the General Common Charge Obligors as a General Common Expense, if Declarant or its designee having such right exercises its right under Article 15 of the Declaration to install and erect, use, lease, license, maintain, repair, replace, and operate a platform and other facilities for the purpose of erecting, using, leasing, licensing, maintaining, repairing, replacing and operating antennae, satellite dishes and other communications equipment on the roof of the Building, which shall be the property of Declarant on the roof of the Condominium, then the maintenance and Repair of any such platform and other facilities, whether ordinary or extraordinary in nature, shall be the obligation of, and the expense thereof shall be borne by Declarant or its designee.

(f) Sidewalks. The Condomimium Board shall also be obligated to keep the sidewalks adjacent to the Building free and clear of snow and ice, to the extent such work is not the responsibility of or otherwise not performed by: (i) the RSPOA, or (ii) a Commercial Unit Owner (or tenant of a Commercial Unit), with respect to a Commercial Unit fronting on the sidewalk.

6.4.3 Manner of Performing Maintenance and Repairs. All maintenance and Repairs by any Unit Owner or Board shall be made in accordance with the applicable provisions of Article 8 hereof as if the references therein to Alterations were references to maintenance and Repairs.

6.4.4 Standard of Maintenance. Each Unit (and all portions thereof), each Tower Limited Common Element and the General Common Elements shall be kept and maintained in a good and proper manner, consistent with standards of maintenance and appearance as are commensurate with other similar properties in the vicinity of the Building, by whichever Person is responsible for the maintenance and Repair thereof under the Condominium Documents; and each such Unit Owner or Board shall promptly make or perform, or cause to be made or performed, all maintenance work, Repairs, Alterations, painting or decoration as are necessary in connection therewith and to ensure that such Unit, Tower Limited Common Element and General Common Element, as the case may be, meets or exceeds such standards.

6.5 Utility Services. Utilities are provided and supplied to the Property and are distributed within the Building to each Utility Service Area and to the General Common Elements, and shall be paid for, as hereinafter set forth. For purposes of this Section 6.5, a "Utility Service Area" means the Tower Section and each Commercial Unit.

6.5.1 Electricity.

(a) General. Electricity service for the Building will be provided by Consolidated Edison Company of New York, Inc. ("Con Edison") or other utility company/ies or supplier(s) from time to time serving the Property and distributed to and for each Utility Service Area. Electricity usage in the Building will be measured through one or more direct electric meters for each Unit. Each of the Unit Owners shall be required to make payment for electricity usage in its applicable portion of the Property to the utility company/ies or supplier(s) supplying such electricity.

(b) Direct Metering. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event and to the extent that any General Common Charge Obligor shall at any time have or arrange to have all or some of its electricity service supplied directly and exclusively to and for all or any portion of its Utility Service Area, by Con Edison or another utility or supplier, the cost of such electricity shall be paid by such General Common Charge Obligor directly to such supplier and the Condominium Board shall not be obligated to pay any part of any cost required for such direct electric service.

6.5.2 Gas. Gas for the Building will be supplied by Con Edison or other utility company/ies or supplier(s) from time to time serving the Property. Gas supplied to the Tower Section and Rental Unit for domestic hot water heating shall be directly billed to the Tower Board (and allocated to the Tower Unit Owners in accordance with the Tower By-Laws) and the Rental Unit Owner, respectively. Costs for cooking gas supplied to the Rental Unit shall be paid directly to the utility by the Rental Unit Owner. Gas for private Swimming Pools shall be directly billed by the utility to the applicable Tower Unit Owner. Gas for the Retail Unit shall be directly billed by the utility to the Retail Unit Owner.

6.5.3 Domestic Water; Sewer Rents. Domestic water and sewer services for the Building shall be supplied by The City of New York or other utility servicing the Property. Domestic water supplied to the Rental Unit shall be directly metered and the Rental Unit Owner shall be responsible for paying the domestic water and sewer charges to The City of New York (or other utility). Domestic water supplied to each other Utility Service Area for the benefit of the applicable General Common Charge Obligor will be sub-metered by the Condominium Board; and each General Common Charge Obligor shall be required to make payment therefor to the Condominium Board, which shall be responsible for paying the domestic water and sewer charges to The City of New York (or other utility); provided, however, that domestic water for private Swimming Pools shall be sub-metered to those Tower Units.

6.5.4 Condenser Water. Condenser water (for heating and cooling) will be provided by the Condominium Board throughout the Building. Chilled water supplied to each Utility Service Area for the benefit of the applicable General Common Charge Obligor will be sub-metered by the Condominium Board; and each General Common Charge Obligor shall be required to make payment to the Condominium Board in respect of the allocated costs and charges therefor; provided, however, that condenser water for the Retail Unit and Community Facility Units will be required to pay a flat fee per ton to the Condominium Board based upon the size of the condenser unit installed in such Units.

6.5.5 Intentionally omitted.

6.5.6 Utilities for General Common Elements. The usage and consumption of electricity, gas, domestic water, sewer service, chilled water, steam and any other utility by, for or in respect of the General Common Elements will be separately metered, submetered or otherwise determined and the costs and charges therefor will be allocated among the General Common Charge Obligors as a General Common Expense as set forth in the Expense Allocation Schedule.

6.5.7 Utility Costs Payable as General Common Charges. The Condominium Board may require each General Common Charge Obligor to pay monthly in advance to the Condominium Board the charges reasonably estimated or anticipated as being attributable to each such General Common Charge Obligor with respect to the aforementioned utilities. All such estimated charges shall be subject to periodic adjustment based upon actual usage.

6.5.8 Meter Readings.

(a) The Condominium Board shall, as necessary, engage the services of a reputable meter reading and/or billing company to act on its behalf in properly billing and accounting for each General Common Charge Obligor's share of utility costs reimbursable to the Condominium Board.

(b) All such billings to General Common Charge Obligors by or on behalf of the Condominium Board with respect to metered or submetered utilities shall be at the Building's and/or Condominium Board's cost; except that the allocable cost of reading the meters or submeters of each General Common Charge Obligor may be added to the charges payable to the Condominium Board by each such General Common Charge Obligor.

6.5.9 Further Submetering. Each General Common Charge Obligor shall have the right to sub-submeter or allocate, as applicable and as determined in its sole discretion, all or any portion of the utilities within its Utility Service Area and, to bill or otherwise collect amounts from its Occupants, Tower Unit Owners or Commercial Unit Owners, as the case may be, with respect thereto. The individual Tower Unit Owners shall pay their share of their Tower Section's utility costs to the Tower Board in the manner provided in the Tower By-Laws. No such sub-submetering or other allocations or arrangements made by a General Common Charge Obligor, however, shall affect or diminish the primary obligation of such General Common Charge Obligor to the Condominium Board with respect to any such charges, as applicable.

6.6 Riverside South Property Owners Association Lien. The Condominium Board shall be obligated to pay the Condominium's membership assessments to the RSPOA, and such assessed amounts shall be a continuing lien against the Units comprising the Condominium. If the Condominium Board fails to make such payments, the RSPOA may take action against the Condominium Board to recover the delinquent assessments. If the RSPOA obtains a judgment for the delinquent assessments against the Condominium Board and that judgment remains unpaid by the Condominium Board, the RSPOA may enforce that judgment by filing a lien against each Unit in the Condominium, in the amount of the Unit's allocated share of the judgment based on the Common Interest attributable to the Unit, and may thereafter foreclose such lien. The RSPOA's lien shall be prior to all liens, except for (i) any lien for unpaid real estate taxes assessed to the Unit, (ii) any lien for sums unpaid on a first mortgage of record against the Unit, and (iii) the Condominium Board's, or Tower Board's as applicable, lien for unpaid Common Charges. In the event, however, that a Unit Owner pays to the RSPOA the Unit's proportionate share of the judgment, the RSPOA shall be obligated to release its lien against the Unit and shall have no further liability in connection therewith.

6.7 Shared Facilities Operating Association Lien. The Condominium Board shall be obligated to pay the Condominium's membership assessments to the SFOA. The assessments assessed against the Condominium by the SFOA shall be a continuing lien against the Tower Units. If the Condominium Board fails to pay the Condominium's membership assessments to the SFOA, the SFOA may take action against the Condominium Board to recover the delinquent assessments. If the SFOA obtains a judgment for the delinquent assessments against the Condominium Board and that judgment remains unpaid by the Condominium Board, the SFOA may enforce that judgment by filing a lien against each Tower Unit, in the amount of the Tower Unit's allocated share of the judgment based on the Tower Common Interest attributable to the Unit, and may thereafter foreclose such lien. The SFOA's lien shall be prior to all liens, except for (i) any lien for unpaid real estate taxes assessed to the Unit, (ii) any lien for sums unpaid on a first mortgage of record against the Unit, (iii) the Tower Board's lien for unpaid Common Charges, and (iv) any lien for unpaid RSPOA assessments. In the event, however, that a Tower Unit Owner pays to the SFOA the Unit's proportionate share of the judgment, the SFOA shall be obligated to release its lien against the Unit and shall have no further liability in connection therewith.

REAL ESTATE TAXES; TAX CERTIORARI PROCEEDINGS

7.1 Real Estate Taxes; Impositions.

7.1.1 Until the Units are separately assessed and billed for real estate tax purposes, the Condominium Board will pay all real estate taxes with respect to the Property to the Department of Finance of The City of New York (or directly to Declarant if and to the extent Declarant has paid such taxes) and allocate the cost thereof (and all refunds thereof) among all the Units on the basis of the Common Interest. Such taxes will be paid by the Condominium Board in a timely manner so that no lien will be placed on the Property or on any Unit. A Unit Owner will not be responsible for the payment of, and will not be subject to any lien arising from, the non-payment of real estate taxes assessed against or allocated to any other Unit(s). Each Unit Owner shall be responsible for the Impositions payable in respect of its Unit.

7.2 Tax Certiorari Proceedings. The Tower Board for the benefit and on behalf of the Tower Unit Owners, shall (or shall cause the Condominium Board on its behalf to) commence, pursue and settle certiorari proceedings to obtain reduced real estate tax assessments with respect to such Unit Owners' Units as and to the extent set forth in the Tower By-Laws.

ALTERATIONS

8.1 Alterations to Units.

8.1.1 Except as otherwise provided in the Declaration, no Unit Owner (other than Declarant or its designee as the owner of Unsold Units, or Sponsor or its designee as the owner of Unsold Tower Units) shall make any Alteration or Repair in or to its Unit if the same would affect the structure or systems of the Building, without the prior written approval of the Condominium Board, which approval will not be unreasonably withheld. Prior to, and as a condition of, the granting of its consent to the making of any such Alteration or Repair in or to a Unit (to the extent such consent is required), the Condominium Board, at its option, may require the Unit Owner to execute an agreement, in form and substance satisfactory to the Condominium Board, setting forth the terms and conditions under which such Alteration may be made.

8.1.2 All Repairs which would affect the structure or systems of the Building and all Alterations to any Unit shall be made in accordance with plans and specifications, which plans and specifications shall be subject to review and approval by the Condominium Board. All Alterations shall be performed: (i) at the Unit Owner's sole cost and expense; (ii) in a manner which will not interfere with, or cause any labor disturbances or stoppages in, the work of Condominium employees or other contractors or subcontractors employed in the Units or the Building; (iii) during only such days and hours as may be specified by the Condominium Board in its reasonable judgment; (iv) only after obtaining such insurance, naming the Condominium Board and its managing agent, the Tower Board and its managing agent as additional insureds, as the Condominium Board may require; (v) employing such architects, engineers, contractors, subcontractors, suppliers and other laborers who are on the managing agent's then approved list, as such list may change from time to time, in the sole discretion of the Condominium Board; and (vi) in compliance with the Declaration, these By-Laws, the Tower By-Laws (including the Tower Rules and Regulations), as applicable, and the General Rules and Regulations, if any, the overall Building standards and all Laws.

8.1.3 The Unit Owner performing or causing, permitting or suffering such Alterations to be performed shall, if required by the Condominium Board, pay the cost of (x) any necessary amendment of the Declaration and the floor plans of the Condominium, if appropriate, to reflect any such Alterations, (y) obtaining all necessary governmental permits, authorizations, certificates and licenses for the commencement and completion of any Alterations (and copies thereof shall be delivered to the Condominium Board promptly after the issuance thereof and prior to the commencement of any Alterations or Repairs), and obtaining any amendment to the Certificate of Occupancy for such Unit, if necessary, and (z) any architectural, engineering and legal fees incurred by the Condominium Board in connection with such work. Neither the Condominium Board nor any Unit Owner (other than the Unit Owner making or causing, permitting or suffering any Alterations to be made in or to its Unit) shall incur any liability, cost, or expense either: (a) in connection with the preparation, execution, or submission of the applications referred to above; (b) to any contractor, subcontractor, supplier, architect, engineer or laborer on account of any Alterations made or caused, permitted or suffered to be made by any Unit Owner; (c) to any person or entity asserting any claim for personal injury or property damage arising therefrom; or (d) arising out of a Unit Owner's failure to obtain any permit, authorization, certificate or license, or to comply with the Declaration, these By-Laws, the Tower By-Laws (including the Tower Rules and Regulations), as applicable, and the General Rules and Regulations, if any, and all Laws insofar as the same relate to Alterations. A Unit Owner making or causing, permitting or suffering any tenant or occupant to make, any Alteration shall be deemed to have agreed to indemnify and hold the Condominium Board and its managing agent, the Tower Board and its managing agent and all other Unit Owners harmless from and against any liability, loss, cost, or expense arising therefrom, and from and against all Costs resulting from, arising out of, or in any way connected with, any of the foregoing.

8.1.4 Any application to any department of the City of New York or to any other Governmental Authority having jurisdiction thereof for a permit to make an Alteration in or to any Unit so approved by the Condominium Board shall, if required by Law or such department or authority, be executed by the Condominium Board, provided that the Condominium Board shall not incur any liability, cost or expense in connection with such application or to any contractor, subcontractor, supplier, architect or engineer on account of such Alteration or to any person having any claim for injury to person or damage to property arising therefrom.

8.1.5 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 8.1 (but subject to all Laws), however, Declarant, Sponsor and their designees shall have the right pursuant (and subject) to the terms of the Declaration, without the approval of any Board, to: (i) make any Alterations and Repairs in or to any Unsold Units, whether structural or non-structural, interior or exterior, ordinary or extraordinary; and (ii) subdivide, combine and change the boundary walls of Unsold Units, including the right to create additional Units by, among other things, subdividing and reconfiguring the Unsold Units and, in connection with such subdivision and reconfiguration, redesignating in an amendment to the Declaration, among other things, a portion of a subdivided Unsold Unit of one type as a Unit of another type. Additionally, an initial purchaser of an Unsold Unit shall have the right, without the approval of the Board, to make any Alterations in or to its Unit, provided that Declarant, Sponsor or their designee has consented to the same in writing at or prior to the initial closing of title to such Unit, and that such purchaser complies with all of the other requirements of this Article 8.

8.1.6 In addition to the requirements set forth above in this Section 8.1, until a permanent Certificate of Occupancy is obtained for the Building, no Unit Owner shall make any Alterations in or to its Unit without first notifying Declarant and Sponsor of the same in writing and complying with Declarant's and Sponsor's reasonable requirements with respect to the same. Such requirements may include, but need not be limited to, the requirements that:

(a) such work not include any change that would result in a delay in obtaining a temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building, or any amendment to, or extension of, the same if theretofore issued;

(b) the Unit Owner posts a bond or other similar security that is reasonably acceptable to the Board, Declarant or Sponsor in an amount sufficient (in Declarant or Sponsor's reasonable judgment) to insure the diligent completion of the work and the filing of any required notices or certificates with respect to such work and the completion of the same with all Governmental Authorities having jurisdiction;

(c) such work not be commenced until the Unit Owner causes all required plans, specifications, notices and/or certifications to be filed with all Governmental Authorities having jurisdiction, procures all required permits and licenses with respect to the same, and delivers copies of all such plans, specifications, notices, certifications, permits and licenses to the Board, Declarant and Sponsor;

(d) such work be diligently prosecuted to completion in compliance with all plans, specifications, notices and/or certifications and in conformity with all permits and licenses;

(e) the Board, Declarant and Sponsor and their representatives shall be given reasonable opportunity, from time to time, to inspect such work as it progresses;

(f) promptly after the completion of such work, all necessary inspections and approvals of the same shall be obtained, all necessary notices and/or certifications shall be filed with the appropriate Governmental Authorities and the Board, Declarant and Sponsor shall be given a copy of all such inspections, approvals, notices and certifications;

(g) the Unit Owner shall indemnify and hold the Board, Declarant and Sponsor harmless from any cost, expense, claim, or liability arising, directly or indirectly, from such work, including, without limitation, any cost, expense, claim, or liability incurred or suffered by the Board, Declarant and Sponsor due to any violation of a Law or due to any delay in obtaining a temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building (or any amendment to, or extension of, the same if theretofore issued) as a result of such work or the failure to make all appropriate governmental filings in connection with the same; and

(h) all contractors shall be duly licensed to the extent required by applicable Laws and, if required under any contract with any union whose members are performing services at the Building (including, without limitation, services directly or indirectly at the behest, for the benefit, or for the account of Declarant or Sponsor, any other Unit Owner, or Board), such work shall be performed solely by union members.

8.1.7 If any Unit Owner commences any such Alterations in violation of the foregoing terms and conditions, or fails to comply with the reasonable requirements of the Board, Declarant or Sponsor in connection with the same, the Board, Declarant or Sponsor, as the case may be, shall be entitled to cause such work by the Unit Owner to be halted, including, without limitation, to cause the managing agent to deny access to the Building to the Unit

Owner's workers and suppliers, until the Unit Owner complies with the same. During the period until such Unit Owner is permitted hereunder to resume its work, the Board, Declarant and Sponsor shall have the right to perform any and all work in and to such Unit Owner's Unit as shall be necessary, in the Board, Declarant or Sponsor's sole judgment, in order to avoid any delay in obtaining a temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building (or any amendment to, or extension of, the same if theretofore issued), whether or not such work shall be in compliance with the plans and specifications for the work theretofore performed by, or on behalf of, such Unit Owner. The cost and expense of any such work performed by the Board, Declarant or Sponsor, as the case may be, shall be borne by such Unit Owner and shall be paid to the Board, Declarant or Sponsor, as applicable, within fifteen (15) days of written demand therefor.

8.2 Alterations to Tower Units and Tower Limited Common Elements. Unless otherwise provided in the Tower By-Laws, the Tower Board shall have the exclusive right to make Alterations to the Tower Limited Common Elements (other than those appurtenant to a Tower Unit Owner's Unit, if any). In addition, subject in all events to the provisions hereof regarding conflicting terms, Alterations to the Tower Units and the Tower Limited Common Elements shall be further subject to such additional terms, conditions and requirements as may be contained in the Tower By-Laws from time to time or as shall be imposed by the Tower Board (including, without limitation, requiring that any approvals or consents required or permitted to be obtained by a Tower Unit Owner from the Condominium Board or a Unit Owner other than another Tower Unit Owner be obtained by the Tower Board on the Tower Unit Owner's behalf). Any of the foregoing requirements and authority of the Condominium Board set forth in Section 8.1 may be delegated by the Condominium Board to the Tower Board with the agreement of the Tower Board.

8.3 Intentionally omitted.

8.4 Alterations to General Common Elements.

8.4.1 Cost and Approval. Alterations in or to any General Common Element may be made only by the Condominium Board, authorized in accordance with the provisions hereof and the cost thereof shall be charged to the General Common Charge Obligors in accordance with Article 6 hereof.

8.4.2 Without Consent of Affected Unit Owner(s) or Board(s). Notwithstanding any other provision of the Condominium Documents, to the extent that any Alteration (including Repair) of the General Common Elements is necessary to comply with Laws or Insurance Requirements, or for the health or safety (but not the general comfort or welfare) of the Unit Owners or their Occupants or Permittees or in the case of an Emergency, the Condominium Board may make and perform the same without the consent of any Unit Owner(s) or any other Board that would, or whose Unit(s) or Limited Common Elements would, be affected thereby.

8.5 Subdivision and Combination of Commercial Units. Each of the Commercial Unit Owners will have the right to alter, divide, subdivide and combine portions of its Unit subject to the provisions of all applicable Laws, the Declaration and these By-Laws.

MECHANIC'S LIENS, VIOLATIONS; COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS AND INSURANCE REQUIREMENTS; HAZARDOUS MATERIALS

9.1 Mechanic's Liens. In the event that any mechanic's lien is filed against any Unit or other portion of the Property as a result of services provided or materials furnished to, or Alterations or Repairs or other work performed for: (a) a Commercial Unit Owner (or such Unit Owner's Occupants or Permittees) with respect to all or any portion of its Unit; or a Tower Unit Owner (or such Unit Owner's Occupants or Permittees) with respect to its Unit, or any Tower Limited Common Elements over which it exercises exclusive control pursuant to the Declaration or the Tower By-Laws (each such Unit Owner, for purposes of this Section 9.1, being referred to as the "Lien-Causing Unit Owner"); (b) the Tower Board (or its managing agent or such Board's Occupant's or Permittees) with respect to the Tower Limited Common Elements (other than those over which one or more Tower Unit Owners exercises exclusive control pursuant to the Declaration or the Tower By-Laws) or any Unit owned by the Tower Board or its designee; or (c) the Condominium Board (or its managing agent or such Board's Occupants or Permittees) with respect to the General Common Elements or any Unit owned by the Condominium Board or its designee (in each such case (b) or (c), for purposes of this Section, such Board being referred to as the "Lien-Causing Board"), or alleged to have been provided or furnished to, or performed for, any such Lien-Causing Unit Owner or Lien-Causing Board, as the case may be, then such Lien-Causing Unit Owner or Lien-Causing Board shall promptly notify the Condominium's managing agent (or, if there is no managing agent, the Condominium Board) of same, and shall cause such lien to be released and discharged of record, either by paying the indebtedness which gave rise to such lien or by posting a bond or other security as shall be required by law to obtain such release and discharge, in each case within sixty (60) days after receiving from the Tower Board or Unit Owner whose Unit (and/or Tower Limited Common Element, as applicable) has been adversely affected by such mechanic's lien, or from the Condominium Board if any General Common Elements have been adversely affected by such mechanic's lien, a notice (a "Lien Notice") identifying the lien and requesting that the same be released or discharged, failing which: (y) the Condominium Board (in the case of a Lien-Causing Unit Owner or the Tower Board), or (z) each of the Unit Owners, the Tower Board (if the Condominium Board is the Lien-Causing Board), shall have the rights set forth in Article 12 of these By-Laws. For purposes of this Section 9.1, the Tower Board or Unit Owner shall be deemed to be "adversely affected" by a mechanic's lien (which is the responsibility of a Lien-Causing Unit Owner or Lien-Causing Board to remove, as aforesaid) if: (i) in the case of the Tower Board that is affected, any of the Tower Units within its Tower Section, or any of the Commercial Units, any Tower Limited Common Elements within the Tower Section, or (ii) in the case of a Unit Owner that is affected, such Unit Owner's Unit and/or any Limited Common Elements over which such Unit Owner exercises exclusive control pursuant to the Condominium Documents, as applicable, is/are reasonably purportedly (whether or not actually) encumbered by or subjected to the mechanic's lien (provided such mechanic's lien arises from services provided or materials furnished to, or Alterations or Repairs or other work performed for or alleged to have been provided or furnished to, or performed for, the Lien-Causing Unit Owner or the Lien-Causing Board, and not by, to or for the putatively "adversely affected" Unit Owner or Board or its/their Occupants or Permittees). In all events, the Lien-Causing Unit Owner or Board shall defend, protect, indemnify and hold harmless all other Unit Owners and Boards (and their Occupants) from and against any and all Costs arising out of or resulting from the applicable mechanic's lien. Copies of all Lien Notices sent by the Tower Board or Unit Owner shall be simultaneously sent to the Condominium Board.

In all events, the contesting Unit Owner or Board shall defend, protect, indemnify and hold harmless

Each non-contesting Unit Owner and Board shall cooperate to the fullest extent necessary with any contesting Unit Owner or Board in any proceeding undertaken pursuant to this provision, including executing necessary documents or consents to such contest, provided all costs and expenses incurred with respect thereto are paid by the contesting Unit Owner or Board, as the case may be. (g) All policies of "All Risk" and Comprehensive Boiler & Machinery property coverage required to be obtained by any Person pursuant to these By-Laws shall name its Registered Mortgagee, if any, as a "mortgagee" under a standard New York State mortgagee clause or its equivalent which shall provide that the loss, if any, thereunder shall be payable to such Registered Mortgagee, as its interest may appear, subject, however, to the provisions of Sections 11.11.1 and 11.11.2 with respect to insurance maintained by the Condominium Board and subject to the provisions of Sections 11.11.4 and 11.11.5 with respect to insurance required to be maintained by the Unit Owners and the Tower Board, respectively.

(h) All policies of "All Risk" and Comprehensive Boiler & Machinery property coverage required to be obtained by the Condominium Board shall (A) provide that adjustment of loss shall be made by the Condominium Board on behalf of all Unit Owners and Registered Mortgagees, if applicable, and (B) name the Insurance Trustee (as hereinafter defined) as "loss payee" as agent for the insured in the event the proceeds payable are in excess of $2,000,000.

(i) Prior to the Condominium Board obtaining any policy of property insurance, and at three (3) year intervals thereafter (or more often, if deemed appropriate by the Condominium Board), the Condominium Board shall obtain an appraisal of the full replacement value of the General Common Elements (including the General Common Elements which are underground), without deduction for depreciation, for the purpose of determining the amount of property insurance to be obtained pursuant to Section 11.1. The cost of any such appraisal shall be borne by the General Common Charge Obligors as a General Common Charge in the same proportion as each such party bears under the Budget with respect to insurance.

(j) Except as otherwise herein provided, unless otherwise required of the Tower Unit Owners or Tower Board by the Tower By-Laws, the Boards and the Unit Owners shall not be required to obtain or maintain any insurance with respect to any personal property contained in the respective Limited Common Elements or Units, except as is mandated under any "All Risk" or Comprehensive Boiler & Machinery property coverage required under these By-Laws. The Unit Owners and the Tower Board shall not be prohibited from carrying other insurance for their own benefit in addition to the insurance required to be carried by such Unit Owners and Tower Board under these By-Laws.

(k) The amount of fire insurance and all risk extended coverage to be maintained until the first meeting of the Tower Board following the First Annual Tower Meeting shall be equal to the full replacement cost of the Building.

11.8.4 Condominium as Additional Insured. All policies required to be obtained pursuant to these By-Laws and/or the Tower By-Laws shall name the Condominium as an additional insured.

11.8.5 Evidence of Insurance. (a) Condominium Board Insurance. The Condominium Board shall deliver to the Commercial Unit Owners, the Tower Board, and all Registered Mortgagees, a certificate of insurance evidencing the insurance required to be maintained by the Condominium Board under Section 11.1 above and all renewals thereof, evidencing same, and promptly after issuance of any renewal or replacement policy, together with proof of payment of premiums. Renewals shall be obtained at least twenty (20) days prior to the expiration of the then current policies.

(b) Commercial Unit Owner Insurance. Each Commercial Unit Owner shall deliver to the Condominium Board a certificate of insurance evidencing the insurance required to be maintained by such Unit Owner under Section 11.2 above and all renewals thereof, evidencing same, and promptly after issuance of any renewal or replacement policy, together with proof of payment of premiums. Renewals shall be obtained at least twenty (20) days prior to the expiration of the then current policies.

(c) Intentionally omitted.

(d) Intentionally omitted.

(e) Tower Unit Owner Insurance. Each Tower Unit Owner shall deliver to the Tower Board a certificate of insurance evidencing the insurance required to be maintained by such Unit Owner under Section 11.4 above and all renewals thereof, evidencing same, and promptly after issuance of any renewal or replacement policy, together with proof of payment of premiums. Renewals shall be obtained at least twenty (20) days prior to the expiration of the then current policies.

(f) Tower Board Insurance. The Tower Board shall deliver to the Condominium Board and the Commercial Unit Owners a certificate of insurance evidencing the insurance required to be maintained by the Tower Board under Section 11.5 above and all renewals thereof, evidencing same, and promptly after issuance of any renewal or replacement policy, together with proof of payment of premiums. Renewals shall be obtained at least twenty (20) days prior to the expiration of the then current policies.

(g) Tower Board Monitoring of Tower Unit Owner Insurance. The Tower Board shall take commercially reasonable steps to enforce the obligations of its Tower Unit Owners under Section 11.4 and Article 12 of these By-Laws, and shall, on a semi-annual basis upon request, provide to the Condominium Board a report detailing those Tower Unit Owners that have not so complied, but the Tower Board shall have no liability for the failure of such Tower Unit Owners to so comply. Nothing contained in this Section 11.8.5(g) shall be deemed to limit the obligations of Tower Unit Owners under Section 11.4 and Article 12 of these By-Laws.

(h) Certificates of Insurance; Policies. The certificates of insurance required to be obtained by any Person pursuant to this Section 11.8.5 shall be kept at the offices of such Person at the Property or at such other reasonably proximate location(s) in The City of New York. In the event that any certificate of insurance shall fail to contain detail reasonably sufficient enough to enable the Person(s) who are entitled to a copy of such certificate to reasonably determine if the insurance covered by such certificate complies with the provisions of this Article 12, then such Person or Persons shall have the right, upon reasonable notice to the Person maintaining such insurance, to inspect the policy or policies underlying such certificate.

(i) Property Insurance, Generally. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, neither the Condominium Board, nor the Tower Board, as the case may be, is required to obtain or maintain any insurance with respect to any property contained in any Unit or any liability with respect to occurrences in or about each Unit or the Common Elements, if any, exclusive and/or appurtenant thereto.

11.9 Waiver of Subrogation. Each of the Boards and the Unit Owners (and their Occupants) (the "Releasing Party") hereby releases and waives for itself, and each Person claiming by, through or under it, each other Unit Owner and all Boards and their respective Occupants (the "Released Party") from any liability for any loss or damage to all property of such Releasing Party located upon any portion of the Property, which loss or damage is of the type covered by "All-Risk" or Comprehensive Boiler & Machinery property insurance policies required to be carried under these By-Laws, irrespective either of any negligence on the part of the Released Party which may have contributed to or caused such loss, or of the amount of such insurance required or actually carried, including any deductible. The Releasing Party agrees to obtain, if needed, appropriate language in its policies of insurance, and to the policies of insurance carried by its Occupants, with respect to the foregoing release.

11.10 Indemnification.

11.10.1 Indemnification by Unit Owners. Subject to the waiver of claims and waiver of subrogation set forth in this Article 11, each Unit Owner covenants to indemnify, defend and hold each other Unit Owner (and such other Unit Owner's Occupants) and each Board harmless (except for loss or damage resulting from the gross negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith of any such other Unit Owners or Boards, or their respective Occupants, directors, officers, agents, tenants, contractors, employees, servants, licensees (collectively, the "Related Parties")) from and against any and all claims, actions, suits, judgments, damages, liabilities and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees) in connection with bodily injury, personal injury and/or damage to property arising from or out of any occurrence in or upon the Unit (or any Limited Common Element appurtenant to such Unit) owned by such Unit Owner, or occasioned wholly, or in part, by any gross negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith of such Unit Owner, or its respective Related Parties.

11.10.2 Indemnification by Boards. Subject to the waiver of claims and waiver of subrogation set forth in this Article 11, each of the Boards covenants to indemnify, defend and hold each Unit Owner (and each Unit Owner's Occupants) and each other Board harmless (except for loss or damage resulting from the gross negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith of such Unit Owner or any such other Board, or their respective Related Parties) from and against any and all claims, actions, suits, judgments, damages, liabilities and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees) in connection with bodily injury, personal injury and/or damage to property arising from or out of any occurrence in or upon (i) with respect to the Condominium Board, the General Common Elements, and (ii) with respect to the Tower Board, the Tower Limited Common Elements or occasioned wholly or in part by any gross negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith of the Boards, or their respective Related Parties.

11.11 Casualty and Condemnation.

11.11.1 General Common Element Restoration Funds. All insurance proceeds under all policies required to be obtained by the Condominium Board with respect to any property loss (the "GCE Restoration Insurance Proceeds") and all condemnation awards, if any, with respect to the General Common Elements (such sums, together with any interest or income earned thereon, but net of the reasonable fees, compensation and expenses incurred by the Insurance Trustee hereunder, collectively, the "GCE Restoration Funds") shall be payable to the Condominium Board, except that if the GCE Restoration Funds shall exceed $2,000,000, all GCE Restoration Funds shall be payable to the Insurance Trustee.

11.11.2 Use of GCE Restoration Funds. The Condominium Board shall (i) hold in trust on behalf of all Unit Owners any GCE Restoration Funds it receives, (ii) subject to the provisions of Sections 11.11.3 and 11.11.7 of these By-Laws, use the GCE Restoration Funds only for GCE Restoration Work and (iii) not commingle the GCE Restoration Funds with other funds being held by the Condominium Board.

11.11.3 Casualty to or Condemnation of General Common Elements; Repair by Condominium Board; GCE Restoration Work.

(a) GCE Restoration Work. Except as provided herein, in the event of (i) the casualty of all or any part of the General Common Elements, (ii) the taking in condemnation or by eminent domain of all or any part of the General Common Elements, or (iii) the taking in condemnation or by eminent domain of all or any part of a Unit, then, subject to the provisions set forth below, the Condominium Board will arrange for the prompt repair and restoration of the part of the General Common Elements affected by such casualty or impaired by such taking which, pursuant to the provisions of the Declaration or By-Laws, are required to be maintained by the Condominium Board (the "GCE Restoration Work"). In the event of a casualty, such GCE Restoration Work shall restore the General Common Elements so that they are the same type and quality as existed immediately prior to such casualty; provided, however, that alterations to such General Common Elements may be made in accordance with Article 8 of these By-Laws. In the event of a taking, such GCE Restoration Work shall take into account the physical constraints imposed by such taking, and accordingly the General Common Elements may be altered (in accordance with Article 8 of these By-Laws) to account for such physical constraints; provided, however, that in no event shall the Condominium Board have the right to utilize additional space in any Unit in connection with such restoration, unless such right has otherwise been granted under these By-Laws or the Declaration or in connection with such taking. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in no event shall the Condominium Board be obligated to restore any Unit Owner's fit-out or personal property contained within such Unit Owner's Unit or any Tower Limited Common Elements contained therein.

(b) Disbursement of GCE Restoration Funds; GCE Restoration Funds Request. In the event of any GCE Restoration Funds held by the Insurance Trustee, (a) the Condominium Board shall apply to the Insurance Trustee for disbursement of the GCE Restoration Funds and (b) the Insurance Trustee shall disburse the GCE Restoration Funds to the Condominium Board in installments as the GCE Restoration Work progresses and in accordance with the provisions hereof and the provisions of the Insurance Trustee Agreement. Each request for GCE Restoration Funds (each such request, together with all supporting documentation, herein called a "GCE Restoration Funds Request") shall also be sent to the Commercial Unit Owners, the Tower Board and all Registered Mortgagees. Advances by the Insurance Trustee shall be made not more than once a month, after the Insurance Trustee's receipt of a written request therefor from the Condominium Board, addressed to the Insurance Trustee, provided that:

(i) such GCE Restoration Funds Request shall be accompanied by a certificate of a Certifying Professional (as defined below) in charge of the GCE Restoration Work (A) requesting payment of specified amounts of the GCE Restoration Funds equal to the amounts then due and owing to contractors or other parties (less any retainage amounts, if any, as determined by the Condominium Board) for performance of all or a portion of the GCE Restoration Work under specific contracts or agreements in respect of the GCE Restoration Work, or to the Condominium Board as reimbursement for a cost of the GCE Restoration Work paid by the Condominium Board, (B) describing in reasonable detail the GCE Restoration Work performed or materials provided under such contracts or agreements, for which GCE Restoration Funds are then being requested, (C) stating that such payment does not exceed the amount then due and owing (or reimbursable) in respect of the GCE Restoration Work completed to date and materials supplied under such contracts or agreements, (D) stating that all GCE Restoration Work has been performed substantially in accordance with the plans and specifications for such GCE Restoration Work, and that all such materials have theretofore been incorporated as General Common Elements into the Building (except for such materials specifically delineated as not yet being so incorporated into the Building, and with respect to such materials, stating the status of such materials (if such materials are being fabricated) or stating the location of such materials (if such materials are stored off-site)), (E) stating that the cost to complete the GCE Restoration Work does not exceed the amount of the remaining funds held by the Insurance Trustee and (F) stating that the cost of such GCE Restoration Work and materials has not been previously made the basis of any GCE Restoration Funds Request (such certificate being herein called the "Certificate"); and

(ii) the Insurance Trustee receives waivers of all mechanic's and other similar liens (or title endorsements or other satisfactory evidence) with respect to all of the GCE Restoration Work for which a GCE Restoration Funds Request has previously been made and funded (if and only to the extent that such lien waivers have not been previously provided).

Upon compliance with subsections (i) and (ii) above, the amount requisitioned for such GCE Restoration Work shall be paid to the Condominium Board or the Persons designated in the Certificate. "Certifying Professional" shall mean an architect or a licensed professional engineer or engineering or construction consulting firm retained by the Condominium Board in connection with the GCE Restoration Work, which is experienced in the design and operation in the City of New York of structures similar to the Building and has provided services comparable to those being requested hereunder within not less than three (3) of the immediately preceding ten (10) years, and which is selected by the Condominium Board.

(c) GCE Restoration Funds Deficiency. If, as part of the Certificate accompanying the GCE Restoration Funds Request, or prior to the commencement of (and also at any time during the prosecution of) the GCE Restoration Work, the Certifying Professional or the Condominium Board reasonably estimates that the cost to complete the GCE Restoration Work exceeds the GCE Restoration Funds then being held by the Insurance Trustee or the Condominium Board, as the case may be, then the Condominium Board shall be required to notify each General Common Charge Obligor of the amount of such estimated deficiency and each General Common Charge Obligor's pro rata allocation thereof (which such allocation shall be determined consistent with the Common Interest of each General Common Charge Obligor), and shall be payable by each General Common Charge Obligor as a Special Assessment (hereinafter referred to as a "Special GCE Restoration Assessment"; all such Special GCE Restoration Assessments received by the Condominium Board, the "Special GCE Restoration Assessment Proceeds"). At the election of the Condominium Board, each General Common Charge Obligor shall then pay its respective Special GCE Restoration Assessment either: (i) in a lump sum, to be paid as a Special Assessment pursuant to and in accordance with Section 6.1.4 of these By-Laws or (ii) in installments, as may be necessary, in the determination of the Condominium Board, to pay for the GCE Restoration Work. The Special GCE Restoration Assessment Proceeds shall be treated as if such monies were GCE Restoration Funds.

(d) Excess GCE Restoration Insurance Proceeds. To the extent not drawn upon and/or applied to the GCE Restoration Work, the Insurance Trustee and/or the Condominium Board, as the case may be, shall, after the completion of the GCE Restoration Work, return all excess GCE Restoration Insurance Proceeds to the General Common Charge Obligors according to the Common Interest of such General Common Charge Obligors (after deducting from the amount to be distributed to each General Common Charge Obligor the amount, if any, of any General Common Charges or Special Assessments (and other charges related thereto imposed under Section 12.1.4 of these By-Laws)) then due and owing from such General Common Charge Obligor (such deducted amount, a "Delinquency Charge").

(e) Excess Special GCE Restoration Assessment Proceeds. To the extent not drawn upon and/or applied to the GCE Restoration Work, the Insurance Trustee and/or the Condominium Board, as the case may be, shall, after the completion of the GCE Restoration Work, return all excess Special GCE Restoration Assessment Proceeds it receives to each General Common Charge Obligor according to the pro rata share of such General Common Charge Obligor's contribution to such Special GCE Restoration Assessment Proceeds, after deducting any Delinquency Charge. If any General Common Charge Obligor fails to pay its Special GCE Restoration Assessment in accordance with the provisions of Section 11.11.3(c) of these By-Laws, then the Special GCE Restoration Assessment of such General Common Charge Obligor still due and payable (the "Delinquent Special GCE Restoration Assessment") shall be subject to late charges, interest, expenses and fees, all pursuant to and in accordance with Section 12.1.4 of these By-Laws (such charges, the "Special GCE Restoration Assessment Penalties"). Upon payment to the Condominium Board of the Delinquent Special GCE Restoration Assessment, and to the extent not drawn upon and/or applied to such completed GCE Restoration Work, then the Insurance Trustee and/or the Condominium Board, as the case may be, shall distribute the Delinquent Special GCE Restoration Assessment to each General Common Charge Obligor, after deducting any Delinquency Charge, according to the pro rata share of such General Common Charge Obligor's contribution to the Special GCE Restoration Assessment Proceeds. The Special GCE Restoration Assessment Penalties shall be distributed to each General Common Charge Obligor (excluding the General Common Charge Obligor paying such Special GCE Restoration Assessment Penalties) according to the pro rata share of such General Common Charge Obligor's contribution to the Special GCE Restoration Assessment Proceeds (taking into account any prior distribution of any excess Special GCE Restoration Assessment Proceeds and after deducting any Delinquency Charge) prior to the payment of the Delinquent Special GCE Restoration Assessment.

11.11.4 Casualty to or Condemnation of Units; Repair by Unit Owners; Unit Restoration Work. Except as provided herein, in the event a Unit is damaged or destroyed by casualty or impaired by a partial taking by condemnation or eminent domain, the affected Unit Owner(s) shall immediately remove any rubble and debris resulting from such event and, within a reasonable time thereafter, shall (at its election) either repair and restore the Unit (and the appurtenant Limited Common Elements, if applicable) so damaged or destroyed by casualty, or such of the Unit (and the appurtenant Limited Common Elements, if applicable) as shall remain following the taking: (i) to a complete, independent and self-contained architectural whole; and/or (ii) to a safe and secure "core and shell" condition, with complete and sightly demising walls, doors and exterior visible surfaces separating such Unit (or any appurtenant Limited Common Elements) from any other Unit (or any appurtenant Limited Common Elements) or General Common Element visible from outside of the applicable Unit, having no adverse effect on any other Unit or the Common Elements (either of the foregoing (i) or (ii), the "Unit Restoration Work"). Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Unit Restoration Work with respect to any Tower Unit shall be performed by the Tower Board (on behalf of the Tower Unit Owner).

11.11.5 Casualty to or Condemnation of Tower Limited Common Elements; Repair by Tower Board; Tower LCE Restoration. Except as provided herein, if any portion of the Tower Limited Common Elements are damaged or destroyed by casualty or impaired by a partial taking by condemnation or eminent domain, the Tower Board (on behalf of the affected Tower Unit Owner(s)), shall immediately remove any rubble and debris resulting from such event and, within a reasonable time thereafter, shall (at its election) either repair and restore the Tower Limited Common Elements so damaged or destroyed by casualty, or such of the Tower Limited Common Elements as shall remain following the taking, (i) to a condition substantially similar to the condition of such Tower Limited Common Elements as existed immediately prior to such casualty or taking or (ii) to a safe and secure "core and shell" condition, with secure, complete and sightly demising walls, doors and exterior visible surfaces separating such Tower Limited Common Elements from any other Unit (or from any Tower Limited Common Elements, if any) or General Common Element visible from outside of the Tower Limited Common Elements, having no adverse effect on any other Unit or the Common Elements (either of the foregoing (i) or (ii), with respect to a casualty or taking of the Tower Limited Common Elements, the "Tower LCE Restoration Work").

11.11.6 Intentionally omitted.

11.11.7 Casualty to Seventy-Five Percent (75%) or More of the Building. Notwithstanding any provision of the Declaration or these By-Laws to the contrary, if seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the Building is destroyed or damaged by fire or casualty (a "Significant Casualty") and if, at any time prior to the execution and delivery of any construction contract relating to the GCE Restoration Work, Unit Restoration Work or Tower LCE Restoration Work (other than a construction contract relating solely to Safety Work (as defined below) or other minor construction work not constituting restoration work), more than seventy-five percent (75%) in Common Interest duly vote not to proceed to make the necessary GCE Restoration Work or require the necessary Unit Restoration Work or Tower LCE Restoration Work, as the case may be, then: (i) the Condominium Board shall secure and fence in the Property boundary, and shall raze the Building, if necessary, and put the Building and Property into compliance with applicable Laws, and otherwise make the Property and Building safe (all of the activities described in this clause (i), the "Safety Work"); and (ii) the GCE Restoration Insurance Proceeds, net of the costs and expenses of the Condominium Board hereunder and the cost of any Safety Work, shall be divided among all Unit Owners in accordance with their respective Common Interests; provided, however, that no payment shall be made to a Unit Owner until there has first been paid out of its share of such fund all liens of Registered Mortgagees holding mortgages against such Unit Owner's respective Unit, and all unpaid charges, liens and Delinquency Charges applicable to such Unit.

11.11.8 Partial Condemnation. Notwithstanding anything in the Declaration or these By-Laws to the contrary, if the Building is partially taken by condemnation or eminent domain (a "Partial Condemnation"), then (i) the Condominium Board shall be required to restore only those General Common Elements necessary for the Units remaining after such Partial Condemnation and (ii) any Unit Owner whose Unit has been partially taken and irrespective of any condemnation award therefor, shall contribute to the Condominium Board the cost for any applicable GCE Restoration Work relating to such Unit Owner's Unit, and such funds shall be deemed to be GCE Restoration Funds; provided, however, that any excess GCE Restoration Funds shall, after the completion of the applicable GCE Restoration Work, be returned to such Unit Owner (after deducting any Delinquency Charges).

11.11.9 Total Condemnation. Notwithstanding any provision of the Declaration or By-Laws to the contrary, if all or substantially all of the Building is taken by condemnation or eminent domain (a "Total Condemnation") (a) the Condominium Board shall perform any Safety Work which it deems appropriate, (b) any award received by a Unit Owner with respect to the taking of its Unit as part of the Total Condemnation shall be payable to the applicable Unit Owner, after deducting any Delinquency Charges and (c) the Condominium Board shall have no obligation to restore the General Common Elements.

11.11.10 Restoration Work; Plans. All GCE Restoration Work, Unit Restoration Work and Tower LCE Restoration Work hereunder shall be performed in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Declaration and these By-Laws regarding the performance of Alterations and/or Repairs, including without limitation the approval provisions of Section 8.1.1 of these By-Laws.

11.11.11 Reallocation of Percentage Interests. (a) If, as a result of a taking or casualty, the gross square footage of any Unit changes, the Condominium Board shall promptly (x) adjust, as of the date of such taking or casualty, the Unit Owner's Common Interest percentage in a manner consistent with the allocation of the Common Interests in existence immediately preceding such casualty or taking and in accordance with the then applicable Real Property Law, (y) equitably adjust, as of the date of such taking or casualty, the then effective budget to take into account the casualty or taking, and (z) subject to the provisions of Article 17 of the Declaration and Article 16 of these By-Laws, prepare and record in the Register's office an amendment to the Declaration, confirming such reallocation. If the Condominium Board shall not agree on any of the matters referred to in the foregoing clauses (x), (y) and (z) within ninety (90) days following completion of the reconstruction, they shall submit such issue to Arbitration.

(b) If a Unit Owner or Board does not (in the course of restoring its Unit or Section, including any Tower Limited Common Elements) restore the number of gross square feet existing immediately preceding the fire or other casualty, then, notwithstanding such reduction in the number of gross square feet, such Unit Owner's/s' Common Interest(s) and allocation(s) of General Common Charges shall not be diminished. Likewise, each Unit Owner's Common Interest and allocation of General Common Charges shall not be adjusted or diminished if a Unit Owner chooses to restore its Unit to a "core and shell" condition rather than to a fully operational condition (as each such condition is described in Section 11.11.4 above).

EVENTS OF DEFAULT; RIGHTS OF CURE; CONDOMINIUM BOARD'S LIEN; GRANTEES LIABLE FOR UNPAID GENERAL COMMON CHARGES

12.1 Failure to Pay General Common Charges.

12.1.1 The Condominium Board shall take prompt action to collect any General Common Charges or Special Assessments which remain unpaid following notice and the expiration of applicable grace periods, including, without limitation, the institution of such actions and the recovery of interest and expenses as are provided in this Article 12.

12.1.2 The Condominium Board shall have a lien (the "Condominium Board's Lien") for all unpaid General Common Charges, Special Assessments, other sums payable to it as if part of General Common Charges or amounts otherwise due to the Condominium Board (together with interest thereon as provided in this Article) from a Commercial Unit Owner. Such lien(s) shall be subordinate only to liens for real estate taxes and other assessments by taxing authorities and, to the extent required or permitted by applicable Law, to prior recorded Registered Mortgages on Commercial Units, which are first mortgages of record. Without limiting any of the foregoing, the Condominium Board may: (w) bring an action to foreclose the Condominium Board's Lien in accordance with Section 339-aa of the Real Property Law; (x) purchase the interest of the owner of such Unit at a foreclosure sale resulting from any such action; (y) proceed by appropriate judicial proceedings to enforce the specific performance or observance by the defaulting General Common Charge Obligor or Unit Owner of the applicable provisions of the Declaration or these By-Laws from which default arose; or (z) exercise any other remedy available at Law or in equity. Each of the remedies herein described as well as any other remedy available at Law or in equity may be exercised concurrently or sequentially. Any Registered Mortgagee may bid in a foreclosure sale of any Unit.

12.1.3 The Condominium Board shall not record any notice of any Condominium Board's Lien prior to the date on which all applicable notice and grace periods (including cure periods to which any Registered Mortgagee may be entitled) in respect of the default(s) giving rise to the Condominium Board's Lien have expired. Subject to the requirements with respect to notice, grace and cure periods set forth in the preceding sentence, the pendency of an Arbitration with respect to the obligations giving rise to any such lien shall not serve to prevent the Condominium Board from recording any Condominium Board's Lien; however, no proceedings or filings in furtherance thereof (other than as may be required in order to preserve the validity and priority of the lien so recorded) shall be had or made, as the case may be, until the resolution of the Arbitration with respect thereto, and to the extent it shall be determined in Arbitration that the Condominium Board was not entitled to record all or any portion of such Condominium Board's Lien, the Condominium Board shall, as promptly as practicable following such determination and at the Condominium Board's expense, cause its Condominium Board's Lien (or portion thereof) to be released and discharged. The Condominium Board's Lien shall be effective from and after the time of recording in the public records of New York County of a claim of lien stating the description of the Unit, the name, if any, and the address of the Unit, the City Register's File Number (or other identifying recording information) of record of the Declaration, the name of the record owner, the amount due and purpose of such amount and the date when due. Subject to the penultimate sentence of Section 12.1.4 hereof, such claim of lien shall include only sums which are due and payable when the claim of lien is recorded and shall be signed and verified by an officer or agent of the Condominium Board. Upon full payment of all sums evidenced by the lien including, without limitation, interest at the Default Rate, the party making payment shall be entitled to a recordable satisfaction of lien to be recorded at its expense. Liens for unpaid General Common Charges may also be reduced to a personal money judgment against the Unit Owner or may be foreclosed by suit brought in the name of the Condominium Board or the Unit Owner asserting the lien in the same manner as a contract or other action (and without waiving the lien securing the same); provided, however, that no Unit Owner shall be liable to the Condominium Board for any deficiency with respect to a Unit owned by such Unit Owner and upon which the Condominium Board has foreclosed its Condominium Board's Lien. In the event of the foreclosure of such lien, the Condominium Board shall have the power to bid on the Unit at foreclosure sale and to acquire, hold, lease, mortgage and convey such Unit.

12.1.4 The Condominium Board shall charge any delinquent General Common Charge Obligor (or Unit Owner who or which has any direct payment obligation to the Condominium Board): (i) a "late charge" of $250 per month if any such amount remains unpaid for more than ten (10) days from their due date (although nothing herein shall be deemed to extend the period within which such amounts are to be paid), which amount shall be subject to increase by the Condominium Board; (ii) interest at the Default Rate on such unpaid amounts (exclusive of any "late charges" theretofore collected on such amounts) computed from the due date thereof to the date payment is actually received from the delinquent General Common Charge Obligor; and (iii) if the Condominium Board institutes a suit or other proceeding to collect sums due hereunder, all expenses, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and expenses paid or incurred by the Condominium Board or by any managing agent in any proceeding brought to collect such unpaid General Common Charges or in an action to foreclose a Condominium Board's Lien with respect to such delinquent Person's Unit(s). All such late charges, interest, expenses and fees shall be added to and shall constitute General Common Charges payable by such General Common Charge Obligor (and the Condominium Board's Lien, as applicable, shall also secure the payment of such additional sums). A suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid General Common Charges shall be maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing such charges.

12.2 Other Defaults Under the Condominium Documents.

12.2.1 The violation of any of the General Rules and Regulations or the breach of any provision of these Condominium By-Laws, or the breach of any provision of the Declaration, shall give the Condominium Board the right, in addition to any other rights set forth in these By-Laws or the Declaration, (i) to enter any Unit, General Common Elements or Limited Common Elements in which, or as to which, such violation or breach exists and to summarily abate and remove, at the expense of the defaulting Unit Owner, any structure, thing or condition resulting in such violation or breach and the Condominium Board shall not thereby be deemed guilty or liable in any matter of trespass, and/or (ii) to enjoin, abate or remedy by appropriate legal proceedings, either at Law or in equity, the continuance of any such violation or breach, provided that the Condominium Board gives the Unit Owner notice (which may be by telephone) that such violation exists, that repairs or replacements are necessary and that the Condominium Board will complete such repairs or replacements in the event the Unit Owner does not promptly act or complete the repairs or replacements, and/or (iii) to levy such fines and penalties as the Condominium Board may deem appropriate, and the Condominium Board shall have the same remedies for non-payment of such fines and penalties as for non-payment of General Common Charges.

12.2.2 The violation or breach of any of the provisions of these By-Laws, any of the General Rules and Regulations or the Declaration with respect to any rights, easements, privileges or licenses granted to Declarant and Sponsor or their designees shall give to Declarant, Sponsor or their designees, as the case may be, the right, in addition to any other rights set forth in these By-Laws or the Declaration, to enjoin, abate or remedy by appropriate legal proceedings, either at Law or in equity, the continuance of any such violation or breach.

12.2.3 In the event that any Unit Owner, after receipt of written notice from the Condominium Board, fails or neglects in any way to perform any of its obligations with respect to the maintenance, repair or replacement of its Unit as provided in the Condominium Documents or of any Common Element for which such Unit Owner is responsible under the Declaration or these By-Laws, the Condominium Board may perform or cause to be performed such obligation unless such Unit Owner, within five (5) days after receiving notice of such default by the Condominium Board, cures such default, or in the case of a default not reasonably susceptible to cure within such period, commences and thereafter prosecutes to completion, with due diligence, the curing of such default. All sums expended and all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the making of any such painting, decorating, maintenance, repair or replacement in such Unit Owner's Unit or to any such Common Element for which such Unit Owner is responsible as aforesaid, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate, shall be immediately payable by such Unit Owner to the Board and shall, for all purposes hereunder, constitute General Common Charges payable by such Unit Owner.

12.2.4 Without limiting the preceding provisions of this Section 12.2:

(a) in the event a Unit Owner or the Tower Board shall fail to obtain and maintain any insurance required to be obtained and maintained by it under such of the Condominium Documents as may be applicable, or fails to effect the renewal or substitution of any such policy at least fifteen (15) days prior to the date set forth in any notice received by any such Person from its insurance company or the Condominium Board as the date (the "Insurance Termination Date") on or as of which any such policy is being terminated, is expiring or will otherwise not be renewed (unless such notice is received by such Person with fewer than fifteen (15) days remaining prior to such Insurance Termination Date, in which case such renewal or substitution shall be required in all events prior to the Insurance Termination Date of the required coverage); and any such failure continues for a period of one (1) business day following receipt by the defaulting Unit Owner or Tower Board, from the Condominium Board (and/or, in the case of a Tower Unit Owner, the Tower Board), of a notice of default with respect thereto specifying the policy and coverage amount (as applicable) required to be obtained, maintained, or renewed (as the case may be) and stating in bold print: "THIS IS YOUR FINAL NOTICE THAT YOU ARE IN DEFAULT WITH RESPECT TO THE CONDOMINIUM'S INSURANCE REQUIREMENTS AS SPECIFIED HEREIN. FAILURE TO OBTAIN, MAINTAIN OR

RENEW SUCH REQUIRED POLICY/IES OF INSURANCE WITHIN ONE (1) DAY AFTER THE DATE OF THIS NOTICE SHALL CONSTITUTE AN EVENT OF DEFAULT UNDER ARTICLE 12 OF THE CONDOMINIUM BY-LAWS AND THE PROVISIONS OF ANY OTHER APPLICABLE BY-LAWS."; or

(b) in the event a Unit Owner or the Tower Board shall fail (whether due to its action or inaction, or the action or inaction of any Permittee or Occupant of any such Unit Owner or Board) to bond or obtain the release or discharge of any mechanic's lien, or to remove of record, and cure the condition resulting in, any violation required to be released, discharged, removed or cured, as the case may be, in accordance with the provisions of (and within the time periods set forth in) Sections 9.1 and 9.2 of these By-Laws, and such failure continues after notice from the person "adversely affected" by such lien or violation (as such term is used in Section 9.1 or 9.2, as applicable), and beyond the expiration of the cure periods therein, provided that such notice shall specify and identify in reasonable detail the mechanic's lien or violation or condition in question and state in bold print: "THIS IS YOUR FIRST AND ONLY REQUIRED NOTICE THAT YOU ARE OBLIGATED TO [RELEASE OR DISCHARGE A MECHANIC'S LIEN and/or REMOVE A VIOLATION AND CURE THE CONDITION GIVING RISE THERETO] [the inapplicable phrase(s) to be deleted], AS REQUIRED BY ARTICLE 9 OF THE CONDOMINIUM BY-LAWS. FAILURE TO EFFECT SUCH [RELEASE, DISCHARGE, REMOVAL OR CURE] [the inapplicable phrase to be deleted] WITHIN [insert applicable cure period] AFTER RECEIPT OF THIS NOTICE SHALL CONSTITUTE AN EVENT OF DEFAULT UNDER ARTICLE 12 OF THE CONDOMINIUM BY-LAWS."; either of such cases (each, a "Special Non-Monetary Event of Default"), then upon such occurrence and for so long as such Special Non-Monetary Event of Default continues, the Condominium Board may (without the consent of the defaulting Board or defaulting Unit Owner (notwithstanding any other provision of the Condominium Documents which might otherwise require such consent and without notice other than as provided in this Article 12), subject to Section 12.5 below), but shall not be obligated to, pay the amount or perform or cause to be performed the obligation or otherwise cure or effect the cure of the default which is the basis for such Special Non-Monetary Event of Default (including, for example, by means of causing Repairs or Alterations, or curing violations or removing or bonding mechanic's liens or otherwise as the Condominium Board shall deem appropriate), if the defaulting Unit Owner or Board, as the case may be, shall after receiving a further notice from the Condominium Board specifying the nature of the Special Non-Monetary Event of Default, and stating "YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED THAT THE CONDOMINIUM BOARD SHALL BE ENTITLED TO EXERCISE ITS RIGHTS TO CURE THE EVENT OF DEFAULT DESCRIBED HEREIN IF YOU DO NOT CURE OR (AS APPLICABLE UNDER SECTION 9.2) COMMENCE THE CURE OF SAME, IN ACCORDANCE WITH ARTICLE 12 OF THE CONDOMINIUM BY-LAWS, WITHIN ___ DAYS [to be specified by the Condominium Board but which shall not be less than seven (7) Business Days] AFTER YOUR RECEIPT OF THIS NOTICE, WHICH MAY ENTAIL, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ENTRY BY THE CONDOMINIUM BOARD OR ITS AGENTS UPON YOUR UNIT AND/OR LIMITED COMMON ELEMENTS. AMONG OTHER THINGS, YOU WILL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL COSTS INCURRED BY OR ON BEHALF OF THE CONDOMINIUM BOARD IN CONNECTION THEREWITH." fail to cure such circumstances giving rise to such Special Non-Monetary Event of Default, or, if the condition giving rise to a Special Non-Monetary Event of Default is of a nature such that it cannot reasonably be cured within the period specified in such further notice and after so notifying the Condominium Board within such period, fail, as promptly as practicable within such period, to commence such cure and thereafter proceed with diligence and continuity to complete such cure (unless, notwithstanding the foregoing requirements, such condition giving rise to the Special Non-Monetary Event of Default constitutes an Emergency, in which event only such prior notice as is practicable under the circumstances (which may be, but shall not be presumed to be, none) shall apply and if no prior notice is given, notice shall be given promptly thereafter). Such right on behalf of the Condominium Board to cure any such matters includes, without limitation, the right: (i) to enter the Unit and/or the Limited Common Elements of the defaulting Unit Owner or Board, as the case may be, in which, or as to which, such violation or breach exists and to summarily abate and remove, at the expense of the defaulting Unit Owner or Board, any structure, thing or condition resulting in such violation or breach and the Condominium Board shall not thereby be deemed guilty or liable in any matter of trespass; and/or (ii) to enjoin, abate or remedy by appropriate legal proceedings, either at law or in equity, the continuance of any such violation or breach. Any funds expended by the Condominium Board, together with interest at the Default Rate from the date of expenditure to the date of repayment, shall be reimbursed by the defaulting Unit Owner or Board to the Condominium Board on demand and, as applicable, the same shall, for all purposes hereunder, constitute part of the General Common Charges payable by such Person.

(c) Any Repairs or Alterations performed by the Condominium Board in accordance with the terms of this Section 12.2 shall be the sole responsibility of the Condominium Board with respect to the quality and the proper completion thereof, but the responsibility thereafter for maintenance and related obligations for such item or area shall remain with the Person who had that responsibility prior to such performance by the Condominium Board.

12.3 Default by Condominium Board; Performance by Commercial Unit Owners or Tower Board. In the event that the Condominium Board fails or neglects (other than to a de minimis extent) to perform any obligations (for which appropriate provision has been made in the then applicable Budget or for which an expenditure is otherwise specifically approved by the Condominium Board) with respect to the operation, maintenance, care, upkeep, Alteration or Repair of any part of the Building required to be operated, maintained, cared for, Altered or Repaired by the Condominium Board under the Condominium Documents, any Commercial Unit Owner or the Tower Board, if adversely affected by such failure or neglect (in such case, a "Performing Party"), may, but shall not be obligated to, perform or cause to be performed, all such obligations (in accordance with any applicable provisions of the Condominium Documents with respect to consents and approvals, etc.), if the Condominium Board shall fail: (i) within a period of time not less than thirty (30) days after notice is given to the Secretary of the Condominium Board and to each Condominium Board Member specifying the precise nature and scope of such obligation and default, making demand for performance and/or cure thereof and stating in bold print: "YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED THAT THE CONDOMINIUM BOARD HAS FAILED TO FULFILL ITS OBLIGATIONS WITH RESPECT TO THE OPERATION, MAINTENANCE, CARE, UPKEEP, ALTERATION OR REPAIR OF THE BUILDING AS SET FORTH IN DETAIL IN THIS NOTICE. THE CONDOMINIUM BOARD'S FAILURE TO: (a) CURE THIS DEFAULT OR (AS APPLICABLE) TO COMMENCE THE CURE OF SAME, IN ACCORDANCE WITH ARTICLE 12 OF THE CONDOMINIUM BY-LAWS, OR (b) COMMENCE AN ARBITRATION DISPUTING THE DEFAULT HEREIN DESCRIBED, IN EACH CASE WITHIN __ DAYS [to be specified by the Person giving notice but which shall not be less than thirty (30) days] AFTER YOUR RECEIPT OF THIS NOTICE, SHALL ENTITLE US TO PERFORM SUCH OBLIGATION IN THE NAME OF THE CONDOMINIUM BOARD" (unless, notwithstanding the foregoing requirements, such alleged default constitutes an Emergency, in which case only such prior notice as is practicable under the circumstances (which may, but shall not be presumed to be, none) shall apply and if no prior notice is given, notice shall be given promptly thereafter), to either: (x) cure (or if the default is of a nature such that it cannot reasonably be cured within the stated period (except in the case of an Emergency), commence to cure and thereafter proceed with diligence and continuity to complete such cure of) the alleged default; or (y) dispute the existence of such alleged default and submit such dispute to Arbitration (and if the Condominium Board does not comply with either clause (x) or clause (y) of this sentence, it shall not have any further right to commence an Arbitration disputing the alleged default). All reasonable sums expended and costs and expenses incurred by the Performing Party in connection with the making or performing of any such operation, maintenance, care, upkeep, Alteration or Repair (to the extent within the scope of nature and scope of the work described in the notices provided to the Condominium Board as set forth above), together with interest thereon (at the Prime Rate for the first twenty (20) days after demand for payment, and at the Default Rate thereafter), shall be immediately payable upon demand by the Condominium Board to the Performing Party; and shall otherwise be allocated to the Unit Owners, as a General Common Expense in the manner set forth in these Condominium By-Laws. The Performing Party shall have a right of offset against sums due to the Condominium Board with respect to amounts due from the Condominium Board as described in the preceding sentence.

12.4 Emergencies Caused by Unit Owners or Board(s).

12.4.1 In the event that an Emergency exists as a result of: (i) the failure or neglect by a Unit Owner (or its Occupants or Permittees) or any Board to perform any obligation with respect to the operation, maintenance, care, upkeep or Repair of its Unit or Common Elements (under its control and for which it is, under the Condominium Documents, responsible), as the case may be; (ii) a condition existing or an occurrence within a Unit or a Common Element, as the case may be; or (iii) the violation by a Unit Owner or a Board (or any Occupants or Permittees of a Unit Owner or a Board) of any of the Declaration, these By-Laws, the Tower By-Laws or any Rules and Regulations, all the other Unit Owners and the Boards that are, or that have (or that have Occupants or Permittees that are or that have) Units, Common Elements, property or operations that are threatened or affected by such Emergency, shall have the right, but not the obligation, to enter that portion of the Property in or from which, or as to which, such Emergency exists and to perform or cause to be performed any such operation, maintenance, care, upkeep or Repair or otherwise take any reasonable action under the circumstances to summarily abate and remove, at the expense of the defaulting Unit Owner or Board, as the case may be, such Emergency, but in all events only to the extent reasonably and immediately necessary to do so (i.e., until the Emergency no longer exists), and the party effecting such performance shall not thereby be deemed guilty or liable in any manner of trespass, provided that such party gives the defaulting Unit Owner or Board, as the case may be, such notice as is practicable under the circumstances (which may be, but shall not be presumed to be, none), which notice, to the fullest extent possible, shall describe the Emergency and the actions the party intending to effect performance intends to take, is taking, or has taken to abate such Emergency and further provided that such actions were taken only to the extent reasonably and immediately necessary to cause the Emergency no longer to exist. The foregoing right shall be exercised only by the Tower Board or its managing agent in the case of an Emergency affecting a Tower Unit or its appurtenant Tower Limited Common Elements (or its Occupants). The reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with the making of any such maintenance, repair or replacement or the taking of any such action for which such applicable Unit Owner or Board, as the case may be, is or would be otherwise responsible, together with interest thereon (at the Prime Rate for the first twenty days after demand for payment, and at the Default Rate thereafter), shall be immediately payable upon demand by such Unit Owner or Board, as the case may be, to the Person effecting such performance (the "Curing Person"). The Condominium Board shall have a Condominium Board's Lien (hereinafter described) in respect of amounts owed pursuant to the preceding sentence as if the same were payable to the Condominium Board as part of the General Common Charges payable by such applicable Unit Owner or Board, but such lien shall be held (and enforced) by the Condominium Board for the benefit of the Curing Person.

12.4.2 Any operation, maintenance, Repair or other action taken to abate and remove any such Emergency in accordance with the terms of subsection 12.4.1, shall be the sole responsibility of the Person taking such action (including, in the case of any Repair, with respect to the quality and the proper completion thereof) and such Person shall be liable for any and all Costs or damage caused thereby or in the course thereof and shall indemnify and hold the affected Board(s), managing agents, and Unit Owner(s) harmless with respect to the same; except that, in the case of any repair or physical maintenance performed during or as the result of an Emergency, the responsibility thereafter for maintenance and related obligations for the item or area repaired or replaced shall remain with the Person who had that responsibility prior to the Emergency.

12.5 Priority of Recourse Against Tower Unit Owners.

12.5.1 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Article 12 and without limiting the rights of the Tower Board as set forth in the Tower By-Laws, the Tower Board shall in the first instance have the exclusive right of enforcement with respect to, and to exercise any remedy or recourse as against, a Tower Unit Owner as to whom or which any default under the Declaration, these By-Laws, the General Rules and Regulations, the Tower By-Laws and/or the Tower Rules and Regulations exists. The Tower Board shall, upon demand by the Condominium Board, use commercially reasonable efforts (and shall promptly, diligently and continuously attempt) to cause such defaulting Tower Unit Owner to cure such default (including, without limitation, through the exercise of all remedies available to the Tower Board under the Tower By-Laws). However, a default shall in no event be deemed to exist with respect to the Tower Board by reason of any action or inaction by, or a default existing with respect to, a Tower Unit Owner (or such Board's action or inaction with respect to the enforcement or cure of the same).

12.5.2 In the event the Tower Board fails, within forty-five (45) days after demand is made by the Condominium Board to cause the Tower Unit Owner in question to cure its non-monetary default under the Declaration or these By-Laws (or, if such default is such that the Tower Board cannot reasonably cause the Tower Unit Owner in question to cure the same within such forty-five (45) day period, the Tower Board fails, as promptly as practicable within such forty-five (45) day period, to commence, and thereafter to proceed with diligence and continuity, to cause such Tower Unit to cure its default), then the Condominium Board shall be entitled to exercise its right to cure any such default in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Declaration or these By-Laws.

12.6 Priority of Recourse Against Commercial Unit Owners.

12.6.1 The Condominium Board shall in the first instance have the exclusive right of enforcement with respect to, and to exercise any remedy or recourse as against, the Commercial Unit Owners as to whom or which any default under the Declaration, these By-Laws, the General Rules and Regulations (if any) exists. The Condominium Board shall use commercially reasonable efforts (and shall promptly, diligently and continuously attempt) to cause such defaulting Unit Owner to cure such default (including, without limitation, through the exercise of all remedies available to the Condominium Board under these By-Laws).

12.7 Grantee Liable for Unpaid General Common Charges; Statement of Defaults.

(a) To the extent applicable, upon any voluntary conveyance of any Unit, the grantee of such Unit shall (subject to the proviso clause of the penultimate sentence of Section 12.1.3 above) be liable for all unpaid General Common Charges pertaining to such Unit (which Unit shall continue to be subject to any Condominium Board's Lien existing as of the date of such conveyance), whether accrued and in respect of the period up to and including the date of such conveyance or in respect of the period following conveyance, but without prejudice to any right of the grantee to recover from the grantor any amounts paid by the grantee. To the extent permitted by law, a Permitted Mortgagee acquiring title to a Unit at a foreclosure sale shall not be liable for, and such Unit shall not be subject to, a lien by the Condominium Board for the payment of General Common Charges assessed against such Unit (or the Section of which such Unit is a part) subsequent to the recording of such Permitted Mortgage and prior to the acquisition of title of such Unit by such Permitted Mortgagee.

(b) Any General Common Charge Obligor may request from the Condominium Board for the benefit of a prospective purchaser, lender or Occupant, or otherwise, a statement: showing the amount of unpaid General Common Charges pertaining to such General Common Charge Obligor; stating whether there exists any known default under the Declaration or these By-Laws by the requesting Person, and if there are known defaults, specifying the nature thereof; stating the date and recording information of any amendments to the Declaration and these By-Laws, and stating whether the Declaration and these By-Laws are in full force and effect; and the Condominium Board shall provide such statement within ten (10) Business Days after request therefor. The Condominium Board shall be entitled to charge the requesting General Common Charge Obligor a reasonable fee for preparing and rendering said statement. Any Registered Mortgagee may request a similar statement with respect to a Unit upon which it holds a Registered Mortgage, with any reasonable charge therefor to be paid by the applicable Unit Owner. From time to time, the Condominium Board may request a statement from each General Common Charge Obligor, that, except as may be otherwise specified, the Condominium Board is not in default under any of its obligations under the Declaration or these By-Laws, and such other reasonable information as may be reasonably requested. The addressee of any such statement shall be entitled to rely thereon; and each statement delivered pursuant to this Section 12.7 shall act as a waiver of any claim between the addressee and the Condominium Board or Person furnishing such statement to the extent such claim is based upon facts contrary to those asserted in the statement and to the extent the claim is asserted against a bona fide encumbrancer or purchaser for value without knowledge of facts to the contrary of those contained in the statement, and who has acted in reasonable reliance upon the statement provided, however, that: (i) the issuance of such statement shall in no event subject the Condominium Board to any liability for the negligent or inadvertent failure of the Condominium Board to disclose correct and/or relevant information and (ii) such issuance shall not be construed to waive any rights of the issuer with respect to any audit of or adjustments to General Common Charges as provided for in the Declaration and/or these By-Laws, or to challenge acts committed by a Unit Owner for which approval by or consent of the Condominium Board was required but not sought or obtained.

12.8 Title of Condominium Board on Foreclosure. Subject to Section 13.5 of these Condominium By-Laws, in the event of the Condominium Board's purchase of any Unit at a foreclosure sale, or in the event that any Unit Owner (to the extent permitted in the Condominium Documents) shall convey its Unit to the Condominium Board in accordance with Section 339-x of the Real Property Law, title to such Unit shall be held by the Condominium Board or its designee on behalf of all Unit Owners, and the Condominium Board shall have the power to hold, lease, mortgage, sell or otherwise deal with (but not vote the Common Interest appurtenant to) such Unit.

12.9 Tower Unit Owners. The provisions of the Tower By-Laws provide for the remedies of the Tower Board in the event of a failure by a Tower Unit Owner to pay the Tower Common Charges assessed against its Tower Unit (which Tower Common Charges include a portion of the General Common Charges allocated to the Tower Section by the Condominium Board).

SALES, LEASES AND MORTGAGES OF UNITS

13.1 Sales, Leases and Mortgages of Tower Units. The provisions of the Tower By-Laws, to the extent not in conflict with the Declaration and these By-Laws, shall govern the sale, leasing and mortgaging of the Tower Units; except that, notwithstanding the foregoing, Declarant and/or Sponsor, shall have the right, at any time, in its sole discretion and without the consent of any Person, to sell, assign or otherwise transfer, lease or encumber any Unsold Tower Unit(s), whether by merger, consolidation, sale, lease, mortgage, assignment or otherwise.

13.2 Sales, Leases and Mortgages of the Commercial Units. Each Commercial Unit Owner with respect to its respective Unit may, without the prior consent of any Board, Unit Owner or any other Person but subject to compliance with all Laws, the Condominium Documents, sell, assign or otherwise transfer, lease or encumber its Unit (whether by merger, consolidation, sale, lease, mortgage, assignment or otherwise, but subject to the restrictions on use and leasing provided herein or in the Declaration); provided, however, that: (i) no lien to secure repayment of any sum borrowed may be created on any other Unit without the prior written consent of the owner of such other Unit or on any of the Common Elements (as opposed to the applicable Unit Owner's undivided interest therein) without the prior written consent of all affected Boards and Unit Owners; and (ii) no Unit Owner (other than such borrowing Unit Owner), nor any Board, will be liable for repayment of any portion of any such loan, unless all such Unit Owner(s) and Boards, as applicable, otherwise so agree in writing.

13.3 Registered Mortgages; Rights of Registered Mortgagees.

(a) The term "Registered Mortgage" as used herein shall mean a mortgage, as the same may be amended, modified or restated from time to time, given to secure the repayment of money or other obligation owed by a Commercial Unit Owner: (i) which shall comply with the provisions of this Article 13; and (ii) a true and correct copy of such mortgage has been delivered to the Secretary of the Condominium Board, together with a certification by the indebted Unit Owner or the mortgagee confirming that such copy is a true and correct copy of the mortgage in question. Such defined term shall also include the mortgages encumbering the Property as of the date of recording of the Declaration, as each mortgage may be increased, amended, restated, modified, split, severed and assigned from time to time (each, a "Construction Loan Mortgage"). In the event of any assignment of a Registered Mortgage or in the event of a change of address of a Registered Mortgagee or of an assignee of such Registered Mortgage, notice of the new or changed name and address shall be provided to the Secretary of the Condominium Board. The term "Registered Mortgagee" as used herein shall mean the record holder of a Registered Mortgage from time to time (subject to the preceding sentence). All Registered Mortgages shall be deemed to include (whether or not such mortgage in fact includes) an express provision acknowledging: (y) that the lien of such mortgage is and shall be subordinate to the Declaration and these By-Laws (and the provisions thereof and hereof) but superior to the Condominium Board's Lien to the extent set forth in Section 12.1.2 above; and (z) that the mortgagee (and its successors and assigns) will take title (whether by foreclosure, deed-in-lieu of foreclosure or otherwise) subject to the Declaration, these By-Laws, any General Rules and Regulations and the Floor Plans.

(b) If a Commercial Unit Owner or its Registered Mortgagee shall have served on the Secretary of the Condominium Board, as described in the preceding subparagraph, a notice ("RM Notice") specifying the name and address of such Registered Mortgagee, such Registered Mortgagee shall be given a copy of each and every notice of the occurrence of a default or an Event of Default (including, without limitation, all notices (including notices that the Condominium Board or another Person intends to cure an Event of Default) described in Sections 12.1, 12.2 and 12.4 hereof) required or permitted to be given to such Registered Mortgagee's mortgagor pursuant to the Declaration or these By-Laws at the same time as and whenever such notice shall thereafter be given thereunder or hereunder, at the address last furnished by the applicable Commercial Unit Owner, or Registered Mortgagee. After receipt of an RM Notice from a Commercial Unit Owner or Registered Mortgagee, no notice of the occurrence of a default or an Event of Default thereafter given with respect to such Registered Mortgagee's mortgagor under the Declaration or these By-Laws by the Condominium Board or any other party entitled to give such notice shall be effective as to such Registered Mortgagee unless and until a copy thereof shall have been so given to the Registered Mortgagee(s). If a Registered Mortgage so provides or otherwise requires, then any insurance proceeds or condemnation award payable to a Commercial Unit Owner pursuant to the provisions hereof shall, upon notice from a Registered Mortgagee of such mortgagor, be delivered instead to such Person's Registered Mortgagee but applied as provided in the applicable provisions hereof and of the Declaration.

(c) If more than one Registered Mortgagee having a lien on any Commercial Unit has exercised any of the rights afforded by this Section 13.3, only that Registered Mortgagee, to the exclusion of all other Registered Mortgagees, whose Registered Mortgage is most senior in priority of lien with respect to such Commercial Unit (the "Senior RM") shall be recognized by the other Unit Owner(s), the Tower Board and the Condominium Board as having exercised such right, for so long as such Registered Mortgagee shall be diligently exercising its rights hereunder with respect thereto; provided, however, that by written notice to the Condominium Board, such Registered Mortgagees may designate one of them which is not most senior in priority to be deemed the Senior RM for purposes of this Section 13.3(c).

(d) Each Registered Mortgagee shall have the right, but not the obligation, to cure any Event of Default by such Registered Mortgagee's mortgagor. The Condominium Board, the Tower Board and all Unit Owners shall accept performance by a Registered Mortgagee (or its designee or nominee) of any covenant, condition or agreement on the part of a Commercial Unit Owner to be performed hereunder with the same force and effect as though performed by such Registered Mortgagee's mortgagor, even if such performance is after the applicable time period set forth in clause (e) below.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of the Declaration or these By-Laws to the contrary, upon the occurrence of an Event of Default by a Commercial Unit Owner, no remedies contemplated under the Condominium Documents (other than (y) the remedies set forth in Section 12.4.1 hereof; and (z) unless clause (2) of this sentence applies and the applicable Non-Monetary Event of Default is not an Event of Default under Section 12.2.4(a) or Section 12.2.4(b) hereof, the remedies set forth in Section 12.2.4(a) hereof) shall be exercised by any Board or Unit Owner with respect thereto if a Registered Mortgagee of such Commercial Unit Owner shall (1) with respect to a Monetary Event of Default, within thirty (30) days following its receipt of any notice to the effect that a Monetary Event of Default has occurred with respect to its mortgagor, cure (or cause to be cured) such Monetary Event of Default, (2) with respect to any Non-Monetary Event of Default that is reasonably capable of being cured without owning or controlling the applicable Unit, within thirty (30) days following its receipt of any notice to the effect that such Non-Monetary Event of Default has occurred with respect to its mortgagor (a "Default Notice"), cure (or cause to be cured) such Non-Monetary Event of Default, or (3) with respect to any Non-Monetary Default in respect of which ownership or control of the applicable Unit is reasonably necessary to cure the Non-Monetary Event of Default in question, within ninety (90) days following its receipt of a Default Notice with respect thereto, commence to cure (or cause to be cured) the applicable Non-Monetary Event of Default, which cure may consist solely of exercising diligent efforts to obtain ownership or control of the applicable Units, and then diligently and continuously pursue such cure until completion.

(f) In addition, notwithstanding any provision hereof to the contrary, if one or more Events of Default have occurred with respect to a Commercial Unit Owner, but such defaulting Person's Registered Mortgagee is taking the actions described in the preceding subparagraph (e) (as and when provided therein) with respect to, and/or has cured, each such Event of Default, then: (i) the Registered Mortgagee shall be entitled to replace and designate the Condominium Board Members that such defaulting Commercial Unit Owner would otherwise have been entitled to designate, as if such Registered Mortgagee were the Designator thereof; (ii) the Registered Mortgagee shall be entitled to vote at all Unit Owners Meetings the Common Interest that the Commercial Unit Owner would otherwise have been entitled to vote thereat and to give any consent or approval that its mortgagor could have given, which shall be granted or withheld under the same terms as are applicable to its mortgagor, as if such Registered Mortgagee were its mortgagor; and (iii) the Condominium Board shall rely (and be entitled to rely) on the votes of or actions taken by the Registered Mortgagee or the Condominium Board Member designated by it in determining the appropriateness of any action to be taken. The rights of a Registered Mortgagee under the preceding sentence shall remain in effect until the Secretary of the Condominium receives the written notice described in the last sentence of Section 2.9.5 hereof and the third sentence of Section 3.7.1 hereof. Payment or performance of any obligation of a Commercial Unit Owner by a Registered Mortgagee (prior to the date on which such Registered Mortgagee or its assignee or designee or nominee shall take title to the defaulting Unit Owner's Unit) shall not give rise to any obligation on the part of the Registered Mortgagee to continue to pay or perform in the future.

13.4 No Severance of Ownership. No Commercial Unit Owner shall execute any mortgage or other instrument conveying or mortgaging title to its Commercial Unit without including therein its entire Common Interest appurtenant to such Unit. Any such mortgage or deed or other instrument purporting to affect one or more of such interests without including all such interests shall be deemed and taken to include the interest or interests so omitted even though the latter shall not be expressly mentioned or described therein. Nothing in this Section 13.4 shall prohibit the lease of all or any portion of a Commercial Unit without the simultaneous lease of its appurtenant Common Interest.

13.5 Waiver of Right of Partition with Respect to Units Acquired on Behalf of Unit Owners as Tenants-in-Common; Waiver of Right of Surrender.

(a) In the event that a Commercial Unit Owner shall convey its Unit to the Condominium Board (to the extent permitted under the Condominium Documents) in accordance with Section 339-x of the Real Property Law, or any Commercial Unit shall be acquired by the Condominium Board or its designees (either at a foreclosure sale or otherwise) on behalf of all Unit Owners as tenants-in-common, all such Unit Owners shall be deemed to have waived all rights of partition with respect to such acquired Unit as herein provided.

(b) To the extent permitted by Law, each of the Commercial Unit Owners shall be deemed to have waived any and all right to surrender its Commercial Unit (in each case, together with its Appurtenant Interests), to the Condominium Board.

13.6 Provisions Pursuant to Shared Facilities Declaration.

(a) In accordance with Section 14.7 of the Shared Facilities Declaration, it shall be the obligation of the Condominium Board to provide notices to a Registered Mortgagee who has requested same in its RM Notice, of information provided by the SFOA pursuant to Section 14.7(a) of the Shared Facilities Declaration, provided the SFOA has in fact given that information to the Condominium Board pursuant to the Shared Facilities Declaration.

(b) If a Registered Mortgagee desires to receive notice from the Condominium Board pertaining to particular actions of the SFOA (in addition to notices of other actions as discussed above), such Registered Mortgagee must provide to the Condominium Board in its RM Notice, a list of the information as to which it requests notice, consistent with the Shared Facilities Declaration and the Condominium Documents. Upon the SFOA's written request from time to time, the Condominium Board shall furnish the SFOA with a list of the names and addresses of each such Registered Mortgagee or Permitted Mortgagee of which the Condominium Board has received actual notice pursuant to the foregoing.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Sections 13.6(a) and (b), the lender of any Construction Loan Mortgage, while such Construction Loan Mortgage or any portion thereof remains outstanding, shall be entitled to receive notices from the Condominium Board of any information received by the Condominium Board from the SFOA pursuant to Section 14.7 of the Shared Facilities Declaration, without having made an express written request therefor, in accordance with the notice provisions set forth in Section 13.3 hereof.

ARBITRATION

14.1 General Procedure. (n) Borrowing money, at any time, on behalf of the Tower Section when required in connection with: (x) the operation, care, upkeep and maintenance of, or the making of Repairs and Alterations to the Tower Limited Common Elements, or (y) any permitted action or activity of the Tower Board, provided, however, that: (i) except as provided in Section 8.6, in the case of borrowings which are in excess of the amount of $3,000,000 in any one fiscal year (in each case excluding the pro-rata share of the Tower Section with respect to any borrowing made by the Condominium Board pursuant to the Condominium By-Laws), the consent of at least sixty-six and two-thirds (66-2/3%) in Common Interest of all Tower Unit Owners (determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.8 hereof) who are present, in person or by proxy, and voting at a duly constituted meeting at which a quorum is present or is not required, shall be required for any borrowings for such purposes; (ii) no lien to secure repayment of any sum borrowed may be created on any Tower Unit or its appurtenant interest in any of the Common Elements (except to the extent permitted by applicable Law) without the prior written consent of the owner of such Unit; and (iii) none of the Commercial Unit Owners or the Condominium Board will be liable for repayment of any portion of any such borrowing and all loan documentation entered into by or on behalf of the Tower Board with respect to such loans shall specifically so provide. Subject to Section 6.1.1(b) of these Tower By-Laws and Section 2.2.8 of the Condominium By-Laws, any such debt may be secured by future income and Tower Common Charges in which event the Tower Common Charges, subject to the rights of the Condominium Board with respect thereto as described in such Section, shall be deemed trust funds for the purpose of paying such debt. The Tower Board cannot secure such debt by a lien on the Tower Limited Common Elements (or any other Common Elements) without the consent of all Tower Unit Owners (or in the case of any other Common Elements, the consent of all Unit Owners). In addition to the debt described above, the Tower Board, without approval of the Unit Owners may, at any time, incur, or refinance, debt from time to time, secured by a lien on the Resident Manager's Unit or any other residence or property acquired by the Tower Board pursuant to the Declaration, Condominium By-Laws and/or these Tower By-Laws; provided, however, that no such financing or refinancing may be secured by an encumbrance or hypothecation of any portion of the Property other than the Tower Unit (together with its appurtenant interest in the Common Elements) or other property acquired. If any sum borrowed by the Tower Board pursuant to the authority contained in this subsection 2.2.2(o) is not repaid by the Tower Board, a Tower Unit Owner who pays to the creditor such proportion thereof as its interest in the Common Elements bears to the interest of all Tower Unit Owners in the Common Elements shall be entitled to obtain from the creditor a release of any judgment or other lien which said creditor has filed or has the right to file against such Tower Unit Owner's Unit, and all loan documentation entered into by or on behalf of the Tower Board shall specifically so provide.

(o) Organizing (and owning shares of or membership interests in, as the case may be) corporations, limited liability companies and/or other entities to act as designees of the Tower Board with respect to such matters as the Tower Board may determine, including, without limitation, in connection with the acquisition of title to, or the leasing or subleasing of, Tower Units acquired or leased by the Tower Board on behalf of the Tower Unit Owners.

(p) Execution, acknowledgment and delivery of, without limitation: (i) any consent, agreement, document, covenant, restriction, easement, declaration or other instrument, or any amendment thereto, affecting the Tower Section (and not relating (to more than a de minimis extent) to the General Common Elements and/or the operation and affairs of any Commercial Unit or the use of same for their permitted purposes), which the Tower Board deems necessary or appropriate to comply with the Laws applicable to the maintenance, demolition, construction, alteration, repair or restoration of the Tower Section; or (ii) any consent, agreement, document, covenant, restriction, easement, declaration or other instrument, or any amendment thereto, affecting a Tower Unit (and not relating (to more than a de minimis extent) to the General Common Elements and/or the operation and affairs of any Commercial Unit or the use of same for their permitted purposes), if the owner of such Tower Unit requests, or under the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws or these Tower By-Laws is required to request, that the Tower Board take such action, and (except as otherwise provided in the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws or these Tower By-Laws) the Tower Board determines that taking such action is appropriate.

(q) Execution, acknowledgement and delivery of any documents or other instruments necessary to commence, pursue, compromise or settle certiorari proceedings to obtain reduced real estate tax assessments, or in connection with any real estate tax exemption or abatement, with respect to any or all of the Tower Units on behalf of and as agent for the respective Tower Unit Owners thereof; but only with respect to such Tower Units as to which the respective Unit Owners thereof have in writing requested and authorized the Tower Board to do so, and indemnified the Tower Board from and against all claims, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees) resulting from such proceedings.

(r) Commencing, prosecuting and settling litigation to the extent relating to the Tower Board or the Tower Section, and not relating (to more than a de minimis extent) to the General Common Elements and/or the operation and affairs of any Commercial Unit or the use of same for their permitted purposes.

(s) Operating, maintaining and supervising the Tower Limited Common Elements in accordance with the terms of these Tower By-Laws and the Condominium By-Laws.

(t) Obtaining and reviewing insurance for the Tower Section and otherwise as provided in Section 6.4 hereof.

(u) Imposition, increase, decrease or elimination of move-in fees and charges, "flip-tax" and/or similar transfer fees payable to the Managing Agent and/or the Tower Board, in connection with the sale or lease (including lease renewals) of a Tower Unit, provided that no such fees or charges or any other conditions of transfer or lease may be imposed upon Declarant or Sponsor or its designee or any Units bought, sold or leased by the Tower Board.

(v) Establishing, changing and otherwise making determinations with respect to reserves, including, without limitation, a general operating reserve or a reserve for working capital or for replacements with respect to the Tower Limited Common Elements.

(w) If not performed by the Condominium Board pursuant to the Condominium By-Laws, appointing a Tower Board Member as Vice President for RSPOA Liaison to attend and represent the Condominium Board at meetings of the RSPOA and to vote on behalf of the Condominium at such meetings, and otherwise act for the Condominium, in connection with, the RSPOA.

(x) If not performed by the Condominium Board pursuant to the Condominium By-Laws, appointing a Tower Board Member as Vice President for SFOA Liaison to attend and represent the Condominium Board at meetings of the SFOA and to vote on behalf of the Condominium at such meetings, and otherwise act for the Condominium as: (i) an SFOA Board Member at all meetings of the SFOA Board, and (ii) a Recreational Facility Member of the SFOA at all meetings of the Recreational Facility Members.

2.2.3 Limitations on Tower Board. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these Tower By-Laws (including, without limitation, in subsection 2.2.2 above), for a period (the "Initial Control Period") which shall end upon the later to occur of: (a) the fifth anniversary of the first closing of title to a Tower Unit (the "First Tower Closing") by Sponsor, pursuant to an Agreement (as the terms "Sponsor" and "Agreement" are defined in that certain Offering Plan, dated as of _____ __, 201_, for sale of the Tower Units and Storage Licenses at the Condominium (the "Offering Plan" or "Plan")), or (b) the closing of title by Sponsor to Tower Units representing at least ninety percent (90%), both in number and in aggregate Common Interests, of all Tower Units, the Tower Board may not, without the prior written consent of Sponsor or its designee: (i) make any Alteration to the Tower Limited Common Elements or any Tower Unit (unless required by any applicable Laws); (ii) assess any Tower Common Charges for the creation of, addition to or replacement of all or any reserve, contingency or surplus fund in respect of the Tower Section; (iii) increase or decrease the number of, or change the kind of, employees initially hired for the Tower Section, as provided for in Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation" set forth in the Plan; (iv) enter into any service or maintenance contract for work not covered by contracts in existence on the date of the First Tower Closing or otherwise provide services in excess of those referred to in the Offering Plan, except as is required to reflect normal annual increases in operating services; (v) borrow money on behalf of the Tower Section, unless any such borrowing is approved by the owners of Tower Units representing at least seventy-five percent (75%) both in number and aggregate Common Interests of all Tower Units; or (vi) exercise any right of first refusal to lease or purchase a Tower Unit. However, the Tower Board may perform any function or take any action enumerated in subsections (i) through (v) hereinabove without the consent of Sponsor if, and only if, the performance of such function or the carrying out of such action is necessary, and no other alternative is available, either to enable the Tower Board to comply with any Laws, or to remedy any notice of violation entered against the Tower Section, or to comply with any proper work order by an insurer of the Tower Section, or for the health and safety (but not the general comfort or welfare) of the occupants of the Tower Section. Sponsor may not exercise veto power over expenses described in Schedule B – "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation", or over expenses required to comply with any Laws applicable to the Tower Section, or to remedy any notice of violation entered against the Tower Section or to comply with any proper work order by an insurer of the Tower Section. Sponsor may, however, exercise veto power over expenses other than those described in the preceding sentence, to the extent provided in the Plan, for a period ending not more than five (5) years after the First Tower Closing or whenever the Unsold Tower Units constitute less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the Common Interest, whichever is sooner.

2.2.4 (a) Any action required or permitted to be taken pursuant to the provisions of these Tower By-Laws or the Declaration or Condominium By-Laws by the Tower Board shall be done or performed by the Tower Board, or shall be done on behalf of the Tower Board and at its direction by the agents, employees or designees of the Tower Board, and the Tower Board may employ one or more managing agents and/or managers, at a compensation established by the Tower Board, to perform such duties and services as the Tower Board shall authorize, including, but not limited to, the duties listed in 2.2.2(a), (c), (d), (i), (l) and (t). The Tower Board may delegate to such managing agent or manager other powers granted to the Tower Board by these Tower By-Laws, except the powers set forth in subparagraphs 2.2.2(b), (e), (f), (g), (h), (j), (k), (m), (u) and (v).

(b) Subject to the limitations set forth in this subsection 2.2.4, the Tower Board may, together with any or all of the Commercial Unit Owners and the Condominium Board employ the same managing agent and/or manager to act on behalf of each.

2.2.5 For convenience of operation of the Condominium, the Tower Board and the Condominium Board may each designate one of the other entities enumerated, to act as its agent with respect to any matter the determination of which is entitled to be made by such designating party and, in connection with such designation, may execute, acknowledge and deliver any application, instrument or document, including, without limitation, any power of attorney or indemnification from liability that such designated party may request.

2.2.6 Any action required or permitted to be taken pursuant to the provisions of these Tower By-Laws, the Condominium By-Laws or the Declaration by the Tower Board may, if required by any applicable Laws, be taken by the Tower Board (upon prior written notice to the Condominium Board in accordance with the Condominium By-Laws) in the name of the Condominium Board which shall, upon request, execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all instruments, documents or applications in connection therewith; provided, however, that the Tower Board shall, subject to the provisions of Section 2.13, indemnify and hold harmless the Condominium Board and the Commercial Unit Owners from any expense or liability thereof or therefrom.

2.3 Number and Terms of Office of Members of Tower Board.

2.3.1 (a) Until the First Annual Tower Meeting held by the Tower Unit Owners pursuant to the terms of Section 3.1 hereof, the Tower Board (the "First Tower Board") shall (subject to Section 2.1.1(d)) consist of five (5) persons designated by Sponsor from time to time. Until the First Annual Tower Meeting, Sponsor reserves the right to designate fewer than five (5) persons to the Tower Board; however, in such case, Sponsor's designees shall be the only members of the Tower Board and such designees shall collectively hold five (5) of the seven (7) votes on the Condominium Board (in addition to the votes of any representatives of the Commercial Units serving on the Condominium Board who were designated by Sponsor as the owner of a Commercial Unit, as applicable). Prior to the First Annual Tower Meeting, the terms of each such member of the First Tower Board shall expire annually and, subject to the other provisions of this Section, Sponsor shall have the right to designate the replacement for each such member, even though such replacement may be the same person. In accordance with, and within the time periods set forth in, the provisions of Section 3.1, the First Tower Board shall cause the President of the Tower Section to call the First Annual Tower Meeting. The term of office of the five (5) members of the First Tower Board so designated by Sponsor prior to the First Annual Tower Meeting shall expire when the five (5) persons to be elected and/or designated at the First Annual Tower Meeting are so elected and/or designated and qualified.

(b) The term of office of each of the five (5) members comprising the Tower Board elected or designated at the First Annual Tower Meeting pursuant to Section 3.1 shall be fixed at such meeting as follows: (a) two (2) of such members will serve for a term of approximately three (3) years; (b) two (2) of such members will serve for a term of approximately two (2) years; and (c) one (1) of such members will serve for a term of approximately one (1) year. Those members of the first five (5) member Tower Board who receive the highest number of votes will serve for the longest terms of office but, except as set forth in subsection 2.4.4 hereof, any members elected or designated by Sponsor or its designee as the owner of Unsold Tower Units pursuant to the terms of subsection 2.4.3 hereof, shall serve for the shortest terms of office. At each annual meeting of Tower Unit Owners subsequent to the First Annual Tower Meeting, the Tower Unit Owners shall elect and/or designate, pursuant to the terms of Section 2.4 hereof, Tower Board members to replace the Tower Board members whose terms of office are then expiring, each to serve a term of office fixed at three years. Notwithstanding the expiration of the term of office of a member of the Tower Board or anything contained herein to the contrary, such member of the Tower Board (including any member of such Tower Board designated by Sponsor or its designee) shall serve until his or her successor shall be elected and qualified. There shall be no limit on the number of terms of office, successive or otherwise, that a Tower Board member (including any member of the Tower Board designated by Sponsor or its designee) may serve until his or her successor shall be elected and qualified.

2.4 Election of Tower Board Members; Rights of Sponsor.

2.4.1 Subject to the terms of subsections 2.4.3 and 2.4.4, all members of the Tower Board to be elected by the Tower Unit Owners shall be determined by plurality of the votes cast by those Tower Unit Owners (including Sponsor or its designee, and subject in all events to the rights of Sponsor under subsection 2.4.3 for so long as Sponsor or its designee shall own at least one (1) Tower Unit) entitled to vote for such board member(s) who are present (in person or by proxy) and voting at a meeting at which a quorum of all Tower Unit Owners is present or not required.

2.4.2 When voting for members of the Tower Board, the voting shall be by ballot and each ballot shall state the name of the Tower Unit Owner voting, the Tower Unit owned by such Tower Unit Owner and the percentage of Common Interest attributable to each Tower Unit owned by such Tower Unit Owner and, in addition, the name of the proxy if such ballot is cast by a proxy. Nothing contained in these Tower By-Laws shall be deemed to permit cumulative voting.

2.4.3 At the First Annual Tower Meeting and at all times theretofore and thereafter, Sponsor and/or its designee and/or any owner of Unsold Tower Units shall be entitled to vote in accordance with its/their ownership of Tower Units and thus may be able to elect members of the Tower Board by virtue of its/their ownership of Tower Units. In addition, at elections of members to the Tower Board held at and after the First Annual Tower Meeting, but before the expiration of the Initial Control Period, Sponsor and/or its designee shall have the right to designate four (4) of the five (5) members of the Tower Board, who may be persons related to and/or affiliated with Sponsor, such designee or other Unsold Tower Unit Owners; and Sponsor, such designee and all other Tower Unit Owners shall have the right to elect the remaining one (1) member of the Tower Board who shall not be related to or affiliated with Sponsor, such designee or other Unsold Tower Unit Owners. In addition, at elections of members to the Tower Board held after the expiration of the Initial Control Period, but while Sponsor and/or its designee still owns at least one (1) Tower Unit, Sponsor and/or its designee shall have the right to designate at least one (1) of the five (5) members of the Tower Board, who may be a person related to and/or affiliated with Sponsor, such designee or other Unsold Tower

Unit Owners; and Sponsor, such designee and all other Tower Unit Owners shall have the right to elect the remaining members of the Tower Board who shall not be related to or affiliated with Sponsor, such designee or other Unsold Tower Unit Owners. Accordingly, from and after the expiration of the Initial Control Period, at least four (4) of the five (5) members of the Tower Board shall not be designated by or related to or affiliated with Sponsor, its designee or other Unsold Tower Unit Owners; and subject to the foregoing shall be elected by all Tower Unit Owners (including Sponsor, its designee or other Unsold Tower Unit Owner). There is no restriction on the right of the Unsold Tower Unit Owners (including Sponsor) to vote for members of the Tower Board who are not related to or affiliated with Sponsor, its designee or other Unsold Tower Unit Owners. However, after the expiration of the Initial Control Period, neither the Sponsor nor its designee will designate a majority of the members to the Tower Board at the annual meeting of Tower Unit Owners. The number of members of the Tower Board may not be increased without the consent of the owner(s) of the Unsold Tower Units, for so long as there remains at least one (1) Unsold Unit. Notwithstanding anything otherwise herein contained, this provision may not be amended or modified without the consent thereto of Sponsor.

2.4.4 In the event that after notice of an annual meeting of Tower Unit Owners is given to Tower Unit Owners in the manner prescribed by Section 3.4 of these Tower By-Laws, the Tower Unit Owners present in person or by proxy at such annual meeting constitute less than a quorum, and consequently new members of the Tower Board to replace those whose terms expire as of such annual meeting cannot be elected, subject to the rights of Sponsor or its designee, or the owner of Unsold Tower Units pursuant to Section 2.4.3, the remaining members of the Tower Board shall fill any resulting vacancies at a special meeting of the Tower Board held for that purpose promptly thereafter, even though the members of the Tower Board present at such meeting may themselves constitute less than a quorum. The Tower Board shall request the Tower Unit Owners present (in person or by proxy) at the annual meeting to express their preferences for the Tower Board members to have been elected at such annual meeting, but such expression of preferences shall be non-binding on the Tower Board. Any person so elected by the Tower Board shall be a member of the Tower Board until the next annual meeting of Tower Unit Owners, when a successor shall be elected for the remainder of the term.

2.5 Resignation and Removal.

2.5.1 Any member of the Tower Board may resign at any time by written notice given in accordance with the terms of Section 5.1 of these Tower By-Laws to the President or Secretary of the Tower Section and, with respect to members of the Tower Board designated as such or elected by Sponsor (or its designee), by also giving such written notice to such party. Any such resignation shall take effect at the time specified in such notice and, unless specifically requested by the resigning member, acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary for the effectiveness thereof.

2.5.2 Subject to the provisions of Sections 2.3 and 2.4, and except as provided in the following sentence, any Tower Board member elected thereto by the Tower Unit Owners or by the Tower Board pursuant to the terms of Section 2.4 or 2.6 hereof, respectively, may be removed from office, with or without cause, by a Majority of Tower Unit Owners (as hereinafter defined). Any Tower Board member who was designated or elected as such by Sponsor (or its designee) may be removed from office: (i) for cause, by a Majority of Tower Unit Owners; and (ii) without cause, only by Sponsor or its designee. In the event of any removal described in the previous sentence, whether with or without cause, Sponsor (or its designee) shall have the sole right to designate the replacement of such member. Any Tower Board member whose removal for cause has been proposed shall be given an opportunity to be heard at the meeting of Tower Unit Owners at which such removal is to be considered.

2.6 Vacancies on Tower Board. Subject to the provisions of Sections 2.3 and 2.4, any vacancy on the Tower Board for whatever reason shall be filled by the members of the Tower Board then in office, at a special meeting of the Tower Board held for that purpose promptly after the occurrence of any such vacancy even though the members present at such meeting may constitute less than a quorum, and any person so elected shall be a member of the Tower Board until the next annual meeting of Tower Unit Owners, when a successor shall be elected for the remainder of the term of the member creating such vacancy. However, any vacancy on the Tower Board created by the resignation, removal or any other reason of any Tower Board member designated or elected as such by Sponsor or its designee shall be filled only by Sponsor or its designee as the case may be.

2.7 Organizational Meeting of Tower Board. The first meeting of the Tower Board following each annual meeting of Tower Unit Owners shall be held within twenty (20) days after such annual meeting at such time and place in the Borough of Manhattan as shall be fixed by a majority of the members thereof, and no notice shall be necessary to the Tower Board members in order to legally constitute such meeting, provided that a majority of the members of the Tower Board shall be present thereat.

2.8 Regular Meetings of Tower Board. Regular meetings of the Tower Board may be held at such time and place in the Borough of Manhattan as shall be determined from time to time by a majority of the members thereof, provided that at least one (1) such meeting shall be held every three (3) months during each fiscal year of the Tower Section. Notice of regular meetings shall be given to each member thereof at least five (5) business days prior to the day named for such meeting.

2.9 Special Meetings of Tower Board. Special meetings of the Tower Board may be called by the President or Vice President of the Tower Section by giving at least five (5) business days' prior notice to each member of the Tower Board, which notice shall state the time, place (in the Borough of Manhattan) and purpose of the meeting. In addition, the President shall call a special meeting upon the written request of two (2) or more members of the Tower Board.

2.10 Waiver of Notice. Any member of the Tower Board may at any time waive notice of any Tower Board meeting in writing and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance by a member of the Tower Board at any meeting thereof shall constitute a waiver by such member of notice of the time and place thereof. If all the members are present at any meeting of the Tower Board, no notice shall be required and any business may be transacted at such meeting.

2.11 Determinations by Tower Board; Quorums.

2.11.1 Except as otherwise set forth in subsections 2.4.4, 2.6 and 2.11.3, all determinations of the Tower Board shall be made at a meeting of the Tower Board at which a quorum thereof is present. At any Tower Board meeting, a majority of the members thereof shall constitute a quorum, except as may otherwise be provided herein, and the votes of a majority of such members present shall constitute the decision of the Tower Board.

2.11.2 If at any Tower Board meeting there is less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum exists or may reconvene the meeting to a time (specified on at least three (3) business days' notice, by personal delivery, nationally recognized overnight courier or telecopy, to the absent members) when no quorum requirement shall apply. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present or is not required, any business which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called may be transacted without further notice.

2.11.3 Members of the Tower Board may participate in a meeting thereof by means of a conference telephone call or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in such meeting can hear each other, and such participation shall constitute presence at such meeting. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, action permitted or required to be taken at a meeting of the Tower Board may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Tower Board consent thereto in writing.

2.12 Compensation. No member the Tower Board shall receive any compensation for acting as such.

2.13 Liability of Tower Board and Unit Owners.

2.13.1 To the extent permitted by applicable Law, no member of the Tower Board shall have any personal liability with respect to any contract, act or omission of the Tower Board, the Condominium Board or of any managing agent or manager, building engineer or superintendent in connection with the affairs or operation of all or any portion of the Condominium or the Tower Section (except in its or their capacities as Unit Owners) and the liability of any Tower Unit Owner with respect thereto shall be limited as hereinafter set forth. Every contract made by the Tower Board or by any managing agent or manager thereof shall state that it is made by the Tower Board or the managing agent or manager, as the case may be, only as agent for all Tower Unit Owners, and that the Tower Board members or managing agent or manager shall, as the case may be, have no personal liability thereon (except in its or their capacities as Unit Owners) and may also state the applicable limitations of liability of the Tower Unit Owners provided for in the next sentence; the absence of such statement or statements in any such contract shall not be deemed to imply any personal liability on the part of the Tower Board, the managing agent or manager or any greater liability on the part of any Tower Unit Owner than as provided in the next sentence. The liability of any Tower Unit Owner for any contract, act or omission with respect to all or any portion of the Condominium shall be limited to such Unit Owner's share of the total liability of the Tower Section with respect thereto in such proportion as the Common Interest of such Tower Unit Owner bears to the aggregate Common Interests of all Tower Unit Owners; and the liability of any Tower Unit Owner for any contract, act or omission with respect to the Tower Section shall be limited to such proportionate share of the total liability as the Common Interest of such Tower Unit Owner bears to the aggregate

Common Interests of all Tower Unit Owners; and in each case, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, shall be limited to such Tower Unit Owner's interest in its Tower Unit and its appurtenant Common Interest, so that such Tower Unit Owner shall have no personal liability for any such contract, act or omission.

2.13.2 Nothing in the preceding Section shall limit a Tower Unit Owner's liability for the payment of Tower Common Charges. To the extent permitted by applicable Law, Tower Board members shall have no liability to Tower Unit Owners except that a Tower Board member shall be liable for his or her own bad faith or willful misconduct. All Tower Unit Owners shall severally, to the extent of their respective interests in their Units and their appurtenant Common Interests, indemnify each Tower Board member against any liability or claim except those arising out of such Tower Board member's own bad faith or willful misconduct. The Tower Board, subject to the provisions of Section 2.19 hereof, may contract or effect any other transaction with any member of the Tower Board, any member of the other Boards, any Unit Owner, Sponsor, Sponsor's designees, or any Commercial Unit Owner, its designee, or any affiliate of any of them without incurring any liability for self-dealing, except in cases of bad faith or willful misconduct.

2.13.3 Neither the Tower Board nor any member thereof shall be liable for either: (i) any failure or interruption of any utility or other services to be provided or obtained by, or on behalf of, the Tower Board or Condominium Board or to be paid for as either a Tower Common Expense or General Common Expense, except when any such failure or interruption is caused by the acts of bad faith or willful misconduct of the Tower Board or such member thereof, as the case may be; or (ii) any injury, loss or damage to any individual or property, occurring in or upon either a Unit or any Common Element, which is either: (a) caused by the elements, by any Unit Owner or by any other individual, (b) resulting from electricity, water, snow or ice that may leak or flow from a Unit or any portion of any Common Element, or (c) arising out of theft or otherwise; except in each case when caused by the acts of bad faith or willful misconduct of the Tower Board or such member thereof.

2.14 Fidelity Bonds. The Tower Board shall obtain fidelity bonds (or similar bonds or insurance), in amounts deemed appropriate by it, for all of its members, officers and employees and for the managing agent or manager, if any, employed by it and the premiums on such bonds (or insurance) shall constitute Tower Common Expenses.

2.15 Committees.

2.15.1 The Tower Board may, subject to such limitations and exceptions as the Tower Board may prescribe, appoint such committees as the Tower Board may deem appropriate, each to consist of two (2) or more members of the Tower Board. Each such committee, to the extent provided in the resolution which creates it, shall have and may exercise all the powers of the Tower Board during the intervals between the meetings of the Tower Board, insofar as may be permitted by Law. For so long as Sponsor is entitled to designate members to the Tower Board, any committee appointed by the Tower Board shall have as at least one (1) of its members a member of the Tower Board appointed by Sponsor.

2.15.2 The SFOA Board is hereby designated and deemed to constitute a committee of the Tower Board with such powers and authority with respect to the Recreational Facility as are vested in the SFOA Board by the Shared Facilities Declaration.

2.16 Status of Tower Board. In addition to the status conferred upon the Tower Board under or pursuant to the provisions of the New York Condominium Act, the Tower Board shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, be deemed to constitute a separate unincorporated association for all purposes under and pursuant to the provisions of the General Associations Law of the State of New York. In the event of the incorporation or organization of the Tower Board pursuant to the provisions of Section 2.17, the provisions of this Section 2.16 shall no longer be applicable to the Tower Board.

2.17 Incorporation and Organization of Tower Board. To the extent and in the manner provided in the New York Condominium Act, the Tower Board may, by action of the Tower Board as provided in this Article 2, be organized as a limited liability company or incorporated under the applicable statutes of the State of New York. In the event that the Tower Board so incorporates or organizes, it shall have, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, the status conferred upon it under such statutes in addition to the status conferred upon the Tower Board under or pursuant to the provisions of the New York Condominium Act. The certificate of incorporation and by-laws of any such resulting corporation or the articles of organization and operating agreement of such resulting limited liability company, as the case may be, shall conform as closely as practicable to the provisions of the Declaration, these Tower By-Laws and, to the extent applicable, the Condominium By-Laws, and the provisions of the Declaration, these Tower By-Laws and, to the extent applicable, the Condominium By-Laws, shall control in the event of any inconsistency or conflict between the provisions thereof and the provisions of such certificate of incorporation and by-laws or articles of organization and operating agreement.

2.18 Tower Board as Agent of Tower Unit Owners. In exercising its powers and performing its duties under the Declaration, these Tower By-Laws and, to the extent applicable, the Condominium By-Laws, the Tower Board shall act as and in the capacity of, and shall be, the agent of the Tower Unit Owners, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration, these Tower By-Laws and, to the extent applicable, the Condominium By-Laws.

2.19 Prohibited Transactions. Each member of the Tower Board shall perform his or her duties, and shall exercise his or her powers, in good faith and with a view to the interests of the Tower Section. To the extent permitted by applicable Law, no contract or other transaction between the Tower Board and either: (i) any of its members, or (ii) any corporation, partnership, fiduciary, firm, limited liability company, association or other entity in which any of the members of the Tower Board are officers, directors, shareholders, employees, partners, fiduciaries, beneficiaries, members or principals, or are otherwise interested, pecuniarily or otherwise, shall be deemed either void or voidable because either: (a) any such member of the Tower Board was present at the meeting or meetings of the Tower Board during which such contract or transaction was discussed, authorized, approved or ratified, or (b) the vote of any such member was counted for such purpose; provided, however, that (A) either: (1) the fact thereof is disclosed to, or known by, the Tower Board or a majority of the members thereof and noted in the minutes thereof, and the Tower Board shall authorize, approve or ratify such contract or transaction in good faith by a vote of a majority of the entire Tower Board, less the number of such members involved in such contract or transaction; or (2) the fact thereof is disclosed to, or known by, a majority of Tower Unit Owners, present at a duly constituted meeting, who shall in good faith authorize, approve or ratify such contract or transaction, less the number of such Tower Unit Owners who are also such members involved in such contract or transaction; and (B) the contract or transaction is commercially reasonable to the Tower Board at the time the same is authorized, approved, ratified, executed or otherwise consummated. Any such members of the Tower Board may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum of any meeting of the Tower Board which authorizes, approves or ratifies any such contract or transaction, but no such member shall be entitled to vote thereat in order to authorize, approve or ratify such contract or transaction and a majority of members present less the number of any such Tower Board members who are also such members involved in such contract or transaction shall constitute a majority of the Tower Board for purposes of authorizing, approving or ratifying such contract or transaction. Notwithstanding the foregoing requirements, any managing agent designated and/or employed by the Tower Board and/or the Condominium Board may be an affiliate of Declarant and/or Sponsor or its designee or other owner of Unsold Tower Units.

2.20 Principal Office of Tower Board. The principal office of the Tower Board shall be located either within the Property or at such other place in the Borough of Manhattan, as may be designated from time to time by the Tower Board.

TOWER UNIT OWNERS

3.1 Annual Meetings. The first annual meeting of Tower Unit Owners (the "First Annual Tower Meeting") shall be held not later than thirty (30) days following the later to occur of: (i) the second anniversary of the First Tower Closing; or (ii) the closing of title to Tower Units representing at least fifty percent (50%) both in number and aggregate Common Interests of all Tower Units to Purchasers (as defined in the Offering Plan). At such meeting, a new Tower Board shall be elected and/or designated (as provided in Sections 2.3 and 2.4) consisting of five (5) persons and the incumbent Tower Board shall resign. Thereafter, annual meetings of Tower Unit Owners shall be held within four (4) weeks after the anniversary of such first meeting in each succeeding year on a date to be set by the Tower Board. At such meetings, the Tower Unit Owners shall elect or designate, as the case may be, successors to the members of the Tower Board whose terms of office are due to expire on or about the day of such meeting or have already expired and there shall also be transacted such other business as may properly come before such meeting.

3.2 Place of Meetings. Meetings of Tower Unit Owners shall be held at the principal office of the Tower Section or at such other place in the Borough of Manhattan as may be designated from time to time by the Tower Board.

3.3 Special Meetings. The President or the Vice President of the Tower Section shall call a special meeting of Tower Unit Owners if so directed by resolution of the Tower Board or upon a petition signed and presented to the Secretary of the Tower Section by Tower Unit Owners owning Tower Units representing not less than fifty percent (50%) of the Common Interests of all of the Tower Units. Each such resolution or petition shall state, in reasonable detail, the purposes for calling such meeting.

3.4 Notice of Meetings and Actions Taken. Notice of each annual or special meeting of Tower Unit Owners shall be given by the Secretary of the Tower Section to all Tower Unit Owners of record entitled to vote thereat, at their address at the Condominium (or at such other address as any Tower Unit Owner has designated by notice in writing to the Secretary of the Tower Section at least fifteen (15) business days prior to the giving of notice of the applicable meeting). Each such notice shall state the purposes of the meeting and the time and place where it is to be held, and no business shall be transacted at such meeting except as stated in the notice. All notices hereunder shall be given by personal delivery, mail, nationally recognized overnight courier or telecopy, at least ten (10) business days prior to the date fixed for the meeting. However, if the business to be conducted at any meeting of the Tower Unit Owners shall include consideration of a proposed amendment to the Declaration, these Tower By-Laws or the Condominium By-Laws, the notice of such meeting shall be given to all Tower Unit Owners, in the manner provided above, at least thirty (30) days prior to the date fixed for such meeting and such notice shall be accompanied by a copy of the text of such proposed amendment.

3.5 Lack of Quorum. Subject to the terms and provisions of subsection 2.4.4, if any meeting of Tower Unit Owners cannot be held because a quorum is not present, the Tower Unit Owners who are present at such meeting, either in person or by proxy, may act by majority vote to either: (a) adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum exists; or (b) reconvene the meeting to a time (specified on not less than three (3) business days' notice, by personal delivery, nationally recognized overnight courier or telecopy, to the absent Tower Unit Owners) when no quorum requirement shall apply.

3.6 Order of Business. The order of business at all regular meetings of Tower Unit Owners shall be as follows:

(a) Call to order.
(b) Roll call.
(c) Proof of notice of meeting.
(d) Reading of minutes of preceding meeting.
(e) Reports of officers.
(f) Reports of members of the Tower Board.
(g) Reports of committees.
(h) Election of inspectors of election (when so required).
(i) Election of members of the Tower Board.
(j) Unfinished business.
(k) New business.
(l) Adjournment.

3.7 Title to Tower Units. Title to Tower Units may be taken by any individual, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, association, trust, fiduciary or other entity, or any two or more of such owners as joint tenants, tenants in common or tenants by the entirety, as may be appropriate.

3.8 Voting.

3.8.1 Each Tower Unit Owner, or a person designated by such Tower Unit Owner to act as proxy on its behalf and who need not be a Unit Owner, shall be entitled to cast the votes appurtenant to such Tower Unit as set forth herein, in the Condominium By-Laws (to the extent applicable) and in the Declaration at all meetings of Tower Unit Owners and at all joint meetings of Unit Owners. The designation of any such proxy shall be made in a signed and dated writing to the Secretary of the Tower Section and shall be revocable at any time by written notice actually delivered to such Secretary by the Tower Unit Owner which had made the designation; provided, however, that no designation to act as a proxy shall be effective for a period in excess of six (6) months (except that the designation of a Permitted Mortgagee to act as the proxy of its mortgagor shall be effective until duly revoked).

3.8.2 A fiduciary shall be the voting member with respect to any Unit owned in a fiduciary capacity.

3.8.3 If two (2) or more persons or entities own a Tower Unit, they shall designate one (1) person or entity amongst them to vote the entire Common Interest appurtenant to their Unit in a writing given to the Secretary of the Tower Section, and the vote of such designee shall be binding upon such designors. Failing such a designation, all of such persons or entities shall mutually vote such Common Interest under one ballot, without division, and the concurrence of such persons or entities shall be conclusively presumed if any one of them purports to vote such Common Interest without protest being made contemporaneously to the party presiding over the meeting at which such vote is taken. If protest is made, the Common Interest appurtenant to such Tower Unit shall be counted solely for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present for such voting.

3.8.4 Neither the Tower Board nor its designee shall be entitled to vote the interest appurtenant to any Tower Unit owned by the Tower Board or such designee, and the Common Interest of such Unit shall be excluded from the total Common Interests when computing the interests of Tower Unit Owners for quorum and voting purposes.

3.8.5 Except as otherwise set forth herein, in the Condominium By-Laws (to the extent applicable) or in the Declaration, at all meetings of Tower Unit Owners, each Tower Unit Owner (or its proxy) entitled to vote thereat (including, without limitation, Sponsor or its designee or other owner of Unsold Tower Units) shall be entitled to cast one vote for each .0001% (rounded off to the nearest .0001%) of Common Interest attributable to its Tower Unit or Units (including, without limitation, for each Tower Board member to be elected) in proportion to the Common Interest of all Tower Units.

3.9 Majority of Tower Unit Owners. Except as may otherwise be provided by law, as used in these Tower By-Laws, the Condominium By-Laws (to the extent applicable) and the Declaration, the term "Majority of Tower Unit Owners" means those Tower Unit Owners having at least fifty percent (50%) of the total authorized votes of all Tower Unit Owners (determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.8), who are present in person or by proxy and voting at a duly constituted meeting at which a quorum is present or is not required.

3.10 Quorum. Except as otherwise provided in these Tower By-Laws, the presence in person or by proxy of Tower Unit Owners owning Tower Units to which appertain at least thirty percent (30%) of the aggregate Common Interests attributable to all Tower Units shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of Tower Unit Owners.

3.11 Majority Vote. Except where otherwise provided by Law, the Declaration, these Tower By-Laws, or the Condominium By-Laws, as applicable, at all meetings solely of Tower Unit Owners, the affirmative vote of a Majority of Tower Unit Owners shall be binding upon all Tower Unit Owners for all purposes.

3.12 Representation on Condominium Board. Tower Unit Owners shall not be entitled to vote in their individual capacities as Unit Owners at any meeting of the Condominium Board. All five (5) of the members of the Tower Board shall also serve as the Tower Board's representatives on the Condominium Board and shall be entitled to vote at any such meeting(s) in accordance with the terms of Section 2.1 and the provisions of the Condominium By-Laws. Until the First Annual Tower Meeting, such five (5) members shall be the five (5) Tower Board members designated by Sponsor. During this time, Sponsor reserves the right to designate fewer than five (5) persons to the Tower Board; however, in such case, Sponsor's designees shall be the only members of the Tower Board and such designees shall collectively hold five (5) of the seven (7) votes on the Condominium Board (in addition to the votes of any representatives of the Commercial Units serving on the Condominium Board who were designated by Sponsor as the owner of a Commercial Unit, as applicable).

OFFICERS

4.1 Designation. (a) The principal officers of the Tower Section shall be a President, Vice President/Treasurer and Secretary, all of whom shall be elected by the Tower Board. The Tower Board may elect more than one Vice President, or an Assistant Treasurer or Assistant Secretary and such other officers as in its judgment may be desirable. Nothing herein shall preclude any officer of the Tower Section from also being an officer of the Condominium or any officer of the Condominium from also being an officer of the Tower Section, if otherwise qualified under the terms of these Tower By-Laws and the Condominium By-Laws, as applicable. Unless prohibited by applicable Law, any two or more offices of the Tower Section may be held by the same person.

(b) The officers of the Tower Board are required to be Tower Unit Owners or have any interest therein and be members of the Tower Board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any officer elected by Sponsor by virtue of its control of the Tower Board does not need to be a Tower Unit Owner or have any interest therein or be a member of the Tower Board; except that, from and after the first organizational meeting of the Tower Board after the First Annual Tower Meeting, the President of the Tower Board must be a member of the Tower Board.

4.2 Election of Officers. The officers of the Tower Section shall each be elected annually by the Tower Board at the organizational meeting(s) thereof and at any other meeting as may be required to fill a vacancy, and shall serve at the pleasure of the Tower Board; except that the initial officers of the Tower Section shall be elected by the First Tower Board and shall hold office at the pleasure of such First Tower Board and until their successors are elected.

4.3 Resignation and Removal of Officers. Any officer may resign at any time by written notice given in accordance with the terms of Section 5.1 of these Tower By-Laws to the Tower Board; such resignation shall take effect at the time specified and, unless specifically requested by the resigning officer, acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. Except as otherwise required by these Tower By-Laws with respect to designation of the Tower Section upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Tower Board, present in person or by proxy at a regular meeting of the Tower Board, or at a special meeting of the Tower Board called for such purpose, at which a quorum is present or is not required pursuant to Section 2.11.2, any officer may be removed, either with or without cause, and his or her successor shall be elected.

4.4 President. The President of the Tower Section shall be the chief executive officer of the Tower Section and shall preside at all meetings of Tower Unit Owners and of the Tower Board. The President shall have all of the general powers and duties which are incident to the office of president of a stock corporation organized under the Business Corporation Law of the State of New York, including, but not limited to, the power to appoint committees from among Tower Unit Owners from time to time as such President, in his or her discretion, may decide are appropriate to assist in the conduct of the affairs of the Tower Section.

4.5 Vice President. The Vice President of the Tower Section shall take the place of the President under whom he or she serves and shall perform the duties of the President whenever the President shall be absent or unable to act. If both the President and the Vice President of the Tower Section are unable to act, the Tower Board shall appoint some other member of the Tower Board to act in the place of such President and Vice President on an interim basis. The Vice President shall also perform such other duties as, from time to time, shall be imposed by the Tower Board or by the President.

4.6 Secretary. The Secretary of the Tower Section shall keep the minutes of the meetings of the Tower Unit Owners and of the Tower Board. The Secretary shall have charge of such books and papers as the Tower Board shall direct and, in general, shall perform all of the duties incident to the office of secretary of a stock corporation organized under the Business Corporation Law of the State of New York.

4.7 Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of the funds and securities of the Tower Section and shall be responsible for keeping full and accurate financial records and books of account thereof showing all receipts and disbursements necessary for the preparation of all required financial data. The Treasurer shall be responsible for the deposit of all funds and other securities in the name of the Tower Board (or in the name of the managing agent or manager appointed by the Tower Board) in such depositories as may from time to time be designated by such Tower Board and shall, in general, perform all of the duties incident to the office of treasurer of a stock corporation organized under the Business Corporation Law of the State of New York.

4.8 Execution of Documents. All agreements, contracts, deeds, leases, checks and other instruments of the Tower Section shall be executed by the President or Vice-President, acting alone, or by any other two officers thereof or by such other person or persons as may be designated by the Tower Board. In addition to the foregoing, the Tower Board may authorize the managing agent serving on its behalf to execute checks, provided that the expenditures, and the managing agent's paying for same, have been approved in advance by resolution of the Tower Board or have been authorized by two officers of the Tower Section (at least one of whom shall be a Tower Board member).

4.10 Liability of Officers.

4.10.1 To the extent permitted by applicable Law, no officer of the Tower Section shall have any personal liability with respect to any contract, act or omission of the officers in connection with the affairs or operation of the Tower Section (except in their capacities as Tower Unit Owners). To the extent permitted by applicable Law, officers shall have no liability to Tower Unit Owners, except that an officer shall be liable for his or her own bad faith or willful misconduct. All Tower Unit Owners shall severally, to the extent of their respective interests in their Tower Units and their appurtenant Common Interests, indemnify, defend and hold harmless each officer of the Tower Section against any liability or claim except those arising out of such officer's own bad faith or willful misconduct.

4.10.2 None of the officers of the Tower Section shall be liable for either: (i) any failure or interruption of any utility or other services to be obtained by, or on behalf of, any such officer or to be paid for as either a Tower Common Expense or General Common Expense, except when any such failure or interruption is caused by the acts of bad faith or willful misconduct of such officer; or (ii) any injury, loss or damage to any individual or property, occurring in or upon either a Unit or any Common Element, which is either: (a) caused by the elements, by any Unit Owner or by any other individual, (b) resulting from electricity, water, snow or ice that may leak or flow from a Unit or any portion of any Common Element, or (c) arising out of theft or otherwise; except in each case when caused by the acts of bad faith or willful misconduct of such officer.

NOTICES

5.1 Notices. Except as otherwise provided in these Tower By-Laws or the Condominium By-Laws, all requests, notices, reports, demands, approvals and other communications required or desired to be given shall be in writing and shall be delivered: (a) if to the Tower Board, in person or sent to the principal office of the Tower Board (or to such other address as the Tower Board may designate from time to time by notice in writing to all Unit Owners and to all Permitted Mortgagees having requested in writing notice of same); and a duplicate shall be sent in like manner to the Managing Agent; (b) if to a Tower Unit Owner, in person or sent to the address of such Tower Unit Owner at the Building, or to such other address as may have been designated by such Tower Unit Owner from time to time in writing to the Tower Board; (c) if to Permitted Mortgagees, either delivered in person or sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, or by nationally recognized overnight courier service to their respective addresses, as may have been designated by such Permitted Mortgagees from time to time in writing to the Tower Board; and (d) if to any other Person, in the manner provided in Article 5 of the Condominium By-Laws. All notices delivered in person (to the extent permitted herein) shall be deemed to have been given when delivered in person. Unless other means of giving certain notices are specifically required or permitted pursuant to the Declaration, Condominium By-Laws and Tower By-Laws (including the Tower Rules and Regulations), all notices which are "sent" shall be sent either: (x) by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, and shall be deemed to have been given three (3) days after deposit in a depository maintained by the U.S. Postal Service in a postage prepaid sealed wrapper; or (y) by nationally recognized overnight courier service and shall be deemed to have been given the first Business Day (for domestic delivery) and the third Business Day (for international delivery), after deposit with an overnight courier service, provided that notices of change of address shall in all events be deemed to have been given when received.

5.2 Waiver of Service of Notice. Whenever any notice is required to be given by Law, the Declaration or these Tower By-Laws, a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed the equivalent thereof.

ARTICLE 6

OPERATION OF THE TOWER SECTION

6.1 Determination of Tower Common Expenses and Fixing of Tower Common Charges

6.1.1 (a) As described more fully in the Condominium By-Laws, the Condominium Board shall from time to time, but at least annually, prepare a budget setting forth the projection of General Common Expenses and will allocate to the Tower Section, in the manner described in the Condominium By-Laws, the General Common Charges necessary to meet the Tower Section's allocated share of General Common Expenses. The Tower Board will allocate and assess to each Tower Unit Owner, in such proportion as the Common Interest of each such Unit Owner's Tower Unit bears to the total aggregate Common Interests of all Tower Units, a portion of the General Common Charges allocated to the Tower Section, to be assessed against and paid by each Tower Unit Owner as part of the Tower Common Charges payable by such Tower Unit Owner, as provided in subsection 6.1.2.

(b) Under the Condominium By-Laws, and to the extent permitted by Law, the Tower Common Charges collected by the Tower Board shall, in all instances, first be payable to the Condominium Board in payment of the Tower Section's allocated share of General Common Charges, failing the occurrence of which, the Condominium Board shall have the right, without limitation, to avail itself of the remedy of specific performance with respect to the Tower Board's obligations hereunder.

6.1.2 (a) Except as otherwise provided herein, all costs and expenses in connection with the Repair, maintenance, care, upkeep and operation of, and any Alteration to, the Tower Limited Common Elements and the business and affairs of the Tower Section (the "Tower Common Expenses") shall be determined by the Tower Board and shall be borne solely by the Tower Unit Owners. Tower Common Expenses shall include, without limitation: (i) such amounts as the Tower Board may deem proper for the establishment of and/or changes to reserves, including, without limitation, a general operating reserve or a reserve for working capital or for replacements with respect to the Tower Limited Common Elements; (ii) such amounts, determined by the Tower Board, as may be required for the purchase, lease or sublease by the Tower Board or its designee, on behalf of all Tower Unit Owners, of an apartment to be used as the residence of the superintendent or resident manager of the Tower Section, if any, or of any Tower Unit whose owner has elected to sell, lease, transfer or convey such Tower Unit or which is to be sold at a foreclosure or other similar sale; and (iii) all such other items as are provided for in the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws or these Tower By-Laws to be Tower Common Expenses. The Tower Board shall from time to time, but at least annually, prepare a budget setting forth the projection of Tower Common Expenses and shall allocate and assess to the Tower Unit Owners pro rata, in accordance with their respective Common Interests (except as otherwise provided in the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws or these Tower By-Laws), charges to meet the Tower Common Expenses (which shall include each Tower Unit Owner's share of General Common Charges (such charges together with all such other amounts denominated or payable as Tower Common Charges in or under the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws or these Tower By-Laws being, collectively, the "Tower Common Charges")). In addition to basing certain elements of Tower Common Charges on proportionate Common Interests, the Tower Board may also assess the same in accordance with submetering, contract allocations, or usage (both projected and actual) so long as such allocations are reasonable, as determined by the Tower Board. The Tower Board shall advise all Tower Unit Owners promptly in writing of the amount of Tower Common Charges payable by each of them and shall furnish copies of each annual budget on which such Tower Common Charges are based to all Tower Unit Owners and, upon written request therefor, to Permitted Mortgagees thereof.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this subsection 6.1.2, the costs of Repair, maintenance, care, upkeep and operation of, and any Alteration to, the Tower Limited Common Elements described in subsection 6.6.2(c) shall be paid for in the manner described therein.

6.1.3 The Tower Board may, at its sole discretion, from time to time increase or decrease the amount of Tower Common Charges, and may modify its prior determination of the Tower Common Expenses for any fiscal year so as to increase or decrease the amount of Tower Common Charges payable for such fiscal year or portion thereof; however, no such revised determination shall have a retroactive effect on the amount of Tower Common Charges payable by Tower Unit Owners for any period prior to the date of such new determination. However, a prior period's deficit may be included in Tower Common Charges for a subsequent period or levied from a special assessment levied against all Tower Unit Owners in accordance with subsection 6.1.5.

6.1.4 The failure or delay of the Tower Board to prepare or adopt a budget or to otherwise determine the Tower Common Expenses for any fiscal year or portion thereof shall not be deemed a waiver or modification in any respect of the covenants and provisions hereof or a release of any Tower Unit Owner from the obligation to pay Tower Common Charges. In the event of such failure by the Tower Board, the Tower Common Charges that were computed on the basis of the Tower Common Expenses last determined for any fiscal year or portion thereof, together with the Tower Section's then current allocated share of General Common Charges (determined in accordance with the terms of the Condominium By-Laws), shall continue thereafter to be the Tower Common Charges payable by the Tower Unit Owners until a new determination of the Tower Common Charges is made.

6.1.5 In addition to the foregoing duty to determine the amount of and to assess Tower Common Charges, the Tower Board shall have the right to levy special assessments to meet the Tower Common Expenses (or a prior period's deficit, in accordance with subsection 6.1.3), including, without limitation, the Tower Section's allocated share of General Common Charges or any special assessment levied by the Condominium Board. The Tower Board shall have all rights and remedies for the collection of special assessments as are provided herein for the collection of Tower Common Charges (including, without limitation, perfecting a lien against the defaulting Tower Unit).

6.1.6 The excess of all rents, profits and revenues derived from the rental or use of any space or facility forming part of or included in any Tower Limited Common Element shall be collected by the Tower Board, as agent for and on behalf of the Tower Unit Owners, and shall constitute income of the Tower Unit Owners, to be applied against Tower Common Expenses next arising. Notwithstanding any provision contained in these Tower By-Laws to the contrary, in no event shall any rent, profit or revenue derived from the rental, licensing or use of any space in the Tower Section be deemed to be derived from the rental, licensing or use of any floor slabs, ceilings or walls delineating or enclosing such space or the incidental use of any portion of any Tower Limited Common Elements appurtenant to such space. In addition, none of the Tower Unit Owners, nor the Tower Board will have any interest in the rents, profits or revenues from the rental or use of any space in the Commercial Units (except for any Commercial Unit owned or leased by them/it).

6.1.7 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, until the later of: (i) twelve months after the First Tower Closing; or (ii) the closing of title to and occupancy of at least fifty percent (50%) of the Tower Units, some of the services and facilities of the Condominium may not be available. During any such interim service period when full services and/or facilities are not available, the Tower Common Charges payable by the Tower Unit Owners may be reduced accordingly to reflect the corresponding diminished expenses of the Tower Section.

6.2 Payment of Tower Common Charges.

6.2.1 All Tower Unit Owners shall be obligated to pay to the Tower Board the Tower Common Charges assessed by the Tower Board pursuant to the provision of Section 6.1, at such time or times as the Tower Board determines. Unless otherwise determined by the Tower Board, Tower Common Charges shall be payable monthly, in advance, on the first day of each month.

6.2.2 No Tower Unit Owner shall be liable for the payment of any part of the Tower Common Charges assessed against such Tower Unit Owner's Unit subsequent to a permissible sale, transfer or other conveyance by it (made in accordance with these Tower By-Laws) of such Unit, together with its appurtenant Common Interest except as expressly provided herein. Any Tower Unit Owner may, subject to the terms and conditions of these Tower By-Laws, convey its Unit, together with its appurtenant Common Interest, without consideration, to the Tower Board or its designee, on behalf of all Tower Unit Owners, and in such event (except as hereinafter set forth) be exempt from Tower Common Charges thereafter accruing, provided that such Tower Unit is free and clear of liens and encumbrances other than the statutory lien for unpaid Tower Common Charges (provided that no amounts are owing under any such lien). However, in no event may a Tower Unit Owner exempt itself from liability for Tower Common Charges by waiving use of any of the Common Elements or by abandonment of its Tower Unit. A purchaser of a Tower Unit shall be liable for the payment of Tower Common Charges accrued and unpaid against such Unit prior to its acquisition thereof, except that, to the extent permitted by Law, a Permitted Mortgagee acquiring title to a Tower Unit at a foreclosure sale shall not be liable for, and such Tower Unit shall not be subject to, a lien for the payment of Tower Common Charges assessed against such Tower Unit subsequent to the recording of such Permitted Tower Mortgage and prior to the acquisition of title of such Tower Unit by such mortgagee; the foregoing is subject to the provisions of the last sentence of subsection 6.3.2 hereof. However, in the event of a foreclosure of a Tower Unit by a Permitted Mortgagee (whether by sale, deed in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise) or by the Tower Board of its lien on any Tower Unit for unpaid Tower Common Charges, if the net proceeds of the foreclosure sale actually received (after deduction of all legal fees, advertising costs, brokerage commissions and other costs and expenses incurred by such Permitted Mortgagee in connection therewith) are insufficient to satisfy the defaulting Tower Unit Owner's obligations, such Tower Unit Owner shall remain liable for the deficit of all unpaid Tower Common Charges, as provided in these Tower By-Laws.

6.2.3 Sponsor shall have the right, in its sole and absolute discretion, to cause the Tower Board to waive the collection of some or all of the Tower Common Charges from Tower Unit Owners for a period of time prior to full occupancy of the Building (the "Waiver Period"); provided, however, that Sponsor shall be solely responsible for payment of all remaining expenses to operate the Tower Section during the Waiver Period (the "Operating Expenses"). All Operating Expenses paid by Sponsor during the Waiver Period are based on the actual cost of operating the Tower Section and not on estimates set forth in Schedule B to the Offering Plan.

6.2.4 (a) Prior to any permissible sale, transfer or other conveyance of a Tower Unit, any seller or purchaser of a Tower Unit shall be entitled, upon request for same, to a statement from the Tower Board, dated as of the date of the closing of title in connection with any such sale, transfer or other conveyance, setting forth the amount of unpaid Tower Common Charges accrued against the Unit.

(b) The Tower Board shall promptly provide any Tower Unit Owner who so requests with a written statement of all unpaid Tower Common Charges due to it from such Tower Unit Owner.

6.2.5 Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 6.2.1, any Tower Unit Owner that is a foreign government, a resident representative of a foreign government or such other person or entity otherwise entitled to the immunities from suit enjoyed by a foreign government (i.e., diplomatic or sovereign immunity) shall deposit with the Tower Board an amount equal to two (2) times the then current annual Tower Common Charges for such Unit, subject to increase from time to time as such Common Charges increase, together with the full amount of any special assessment levied against, or allocable to, such Unit, as security for the faithful observance by such Tower Unit Owner of the terms, provisions and conditions of these Tower By-Laws. In the event that such Tower Unit Owner defaults in respect of the terms, provisions and conditions of these Tower By-Laws, the Tower Board may use, apply or retain the whole or any part of the security so deposited, to the extent required for the payment of any Tower Common Charges or any other sum as to which such Tower Unit Owner is in default. If the Tower Board applies or retains any part of said security, the Tower Unit Owner in questions, within ten (10) days after notice from the Tower Board, shall deposit with the Tower Board the amount so applied or retained so that such Tower Board has the full amount of said security on hand at all times.

6.3 Default in Payment of Tower Common Charges; Lien for Unpaid Tower Common Charges; Other Remedies.

6.3.1 The Tower Board shall take prompt action to collect any Tower Common Charges which remain unpaid for more than thirty (30) days after the due date for payment thereof, including, without limitation, the institution of such actions and the recovery of interest and expenses as provided in this Article 6. Subject to the applicable terms of the Condominium By-Laws, in the event the Tower Board, after notice from the Condominium Board, fails to take such action against a Tower Unit Owner, then the Condominium Board may do so, in its own name or, if necessary, in the name of the Tower Board.

6.3.2 Except to the extent prohibited by Law, the Tower Board, on behalf of all Tower Unit Owners, shall have a lien for Tower Common Charges unpaid by any Tower Unit Owner, together with interest thereon, on all Tower Units owned by such Tower Unit Owner, in proportion to their respective Common Interest. Such lien for Tower Common Charges shall be subordinate only to liens for real estate taxes and, to the extent required by applicable Law, to prior recorded Permitted Tower Mortgages on such Tower Units, which are first mortgages of record.

6.3.3 In the event any Tower Unit Owner fails to make payment of Tower Common Charges when due, such Unit Owner shall be obligated to pay: (a) a "late charge" of $250 per month if any such amount remains unpaid for more than ten (10) days from their due date (although nothing herein shall be deemed to extend the period within which such amounts are to be paid), which amount shall be subject to increase by the Tower Board; and (b) interest at the rate of one and one half percent (1.5%) per month (but in no event in excess of the maximum rate permitted by Law) on such unpaid amounts (exclusive of any "late charges" theretofore collected on such amounts) computed from the due date thereof, together with all expenses, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and expenses paid or incurred by the Tower Board or by any managing agent in any proceeding brought to collect such unpaid Tower Common Charges or in an action to foreclose the lien on such Unit arising from said unpaid Tower

Common Charges, whether as provided in Section 339-z of the New York Condominium Act, in the manner provided in Section 339-aa thereof, or in any other manner permitted by law. In addition, if the Tower Board shall bring an action to foreclose such lien because of unpaid Tower Common Charges, the defaulting Tower Unit Owner shall be required to pay a reasonable fee for the use and occupancy of its Unit and the plaintiff in such foreclosure action shall be entitled to the appointment, without notice, of a receiver to collect the same. All such "late charges," interest, expenses and fees shall be added to and shall constitute Tower Common Charges payable by such Tower Unit Owner; and the lien for unpaid Tower Common Charges shall also secure the payment of such additional sums. A suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid Tower Common Charges shall be maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing such charges.

6.3.4 In any action brought by the Tower Board to foreclose a lien on a Tower Unit because of unpaid Tower Common Charges, the Tower Board, acting on behalf of all Tower Unit Owners, shall have the power (but shall not be obligated) to purchase any such Tower Unit at the foreclosure sale thereof and to acquire, hold, lease, mortgage, convey or otherwise deal with such Unit (but not to vote the Common Interests appurtenant thereto). In the event the net proceeds received on a foreclosure sale (after deduction of all legal fees, advertising costs, brokerage commissions and other costs and expenses incurred in connection therewith) are insufficient to satisfy the defaulting Tower Unit Owner's obligations, such Tower Unit Owner shall remain liable for the deficit, as provided in these Tower By-Laws.

6.3.5 (a) For the purposes of this subsection 6.3.5, "non-occupying owner" shall mean a Tower Unit Owner who or which does not occupy its Tower Unit.

(b) If a non-occupying owner rents any Tower Unit to a rental tenant and then fails to make payments due for Tower Common Charges or any other amounts payable by such Tower Unit Owner to the Tower Board, including, without limitation, assessments and/or late fees (all of the foregoing, collectively, "Payments") for such Tower Unit within sixty days of the expiration of any grace period after the same are due, upon notice in accordance with subdivision (c) of this subsection, all rental payments from the tenant shall be directly payable to the Tower Board.

(c) If the Payments for any Tower Unit have not been paid in full, within sixty (60) days after the expiration of any grace period of the earliest due date, the Tower Board shall provide written notice to the tenant and the non-occupying owner providing that, commencing immediately and until such time as all Payments are made current, all rental payments due subsequent to the issuance of such notice are to be made payable to the Tower Board at the address listed on the notice. Where a majority of the Tower Board has been elected by and from among the Tower Unit Owners who are in occupancy, the Tower Board may elect not to require that rental payments be made payable to the Tower Board. At such time as Payments from the non-occupying owner are once again current, notice of such fact shall be given within three business days to the rental tenant and non-occupying owner. Thereafter all rental payments shall be made payable to the non-occupying owner or a designated agent. A non-occupying owner who disputes the Tower Board's claim to rental payments pursuant to this subsection shall be entitled to present facts supporting such Tower Unit Owner's position at the next scheduled meeting of the Tower Board, which must be held within thirty days of the date that such Tower Board receives notice that such owner seeks to dispute such claim.

(d) Nothing in this subsection shall limit any rights of any Tower Unit Owner or the Tower Board existing under any other Law or agreement.

(e) Payment by a rental tenant to the Tower Board made in connection with this subsection shall relieve that rental tenant from the obligation to pay such rent to the non-occupying owner and shall be an absolute defense in any non-payment proceeding commenced by such non-occupying owner against such tenant for such rent.

6.4 Insurance.

6.4.1 The Condominium By-Laws describe those types of insurance which the Condominium Board, the Tower Board, the Commercial Unit Owners and the Tower Unit Owners are required to obtain and maintain. Neither the Condominium Board, nor the Tower Board, is required to obtain or maintain any insurance with respect to any personal property (including fixtures, improvements, furnishings, betterments and improvements, decorations, appliances and other personal property) contained in or constituting part of a Tower Unit or any liability with respect to occurrences within or about a Tower Unit or the Tower Limited Common Elements, if any, appurtenant thereto. Consequently, as specified in Section 11.4 of the Condominium By-Laws, all Tower Unit Owners are required to obtain and maintain liability insurance as specified therein. Subject to the requirements hereinafter and in subsection 6.4.2 set forth, Tower Unit Owners shall not be prohibited from carrying other insurance for their own benefit, and the Tower Board shall not be prohibited from requesting or seeking to cause the Condominium Board to carry other insurance, or from carrying insurance itself, for the benefit of the Tower Section or Tower Unit Owners. To the extent any party is insured, or is required hereunder to be insured, for loss or damage to property, each party will look to its own insurance policies for recovery.

6.4.2 All policies obtained by any Tower Unit Owner, or by the Tower Board on behalf of the Tower Section or the Tower Unit Owners, shall provide that the liability of the carriers issuing insurance obtained by the Condominium Board shall not be affected or diminished by reason of any additional insurance carried by the Tower Board or any other Unit Owner and shall contain a waiver of the insurer's right of subrogation against the Condominium Board, the Tower Board and any Unit Owner.

6.4.3 If the use of any Tower Unit causes an increase in the premium for the insurance which the Condominium Board or Tower Board is required to obtain and maintain as set forth herein or otherwise, then the owner of such Tower Unit shall be obligated to pay to the Tower Board (which, to the extent appropriate, shall in turn pay any necessary sums to the Condominium Board), as additional Tower Common Charges, a sum equal to the amount of such increase attributable to such use.

6.4.4 All insurance policies carried by or on behalf of the Tower Board shall provide that adjustment of loss shall be made exclusively by the Tower Board if the loss involves only the Tower Section; in all other instances, the provisions of the Condominium By-Laws shall control as to adjustment of loss. The Condominium By-laws shall also control as to those instances in which proceeds shall be payable to an Insurance Trustee.

6.4.5 Each Tower Unit Owner shall obtain and maintain such other insurance as set forth in the Condominium By-Laws.

6.5 Repair or Reconstruction after Fire or Other Casualty.

6.5.1 (a) If any portion of the Property other than solely the Tower Section is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, or if any portion of the Tower Section is damaged or destroyed together with any other portion of the Property, the provisions of the Condominium By-Laws shall control as to control over repair and restoration. In the event that solely the Tower Section (i.e., the Tower Units and/or Tower Limited Common Elements) or any part thereof is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty (unless, in accordance with the Condominium By-Laws or these Tower By-Laws, the Building is not to be repaired), the Tower Board will arrange for the prompt repair and restoration of the Tower Section (including each Tower Unit, excluding additions, alterations, fixtures, furniture, furnishings, betterments and improvements, or other personal property not constituting a part of such Unit) and the Tower Board, or Insurance Trustee, as provided in the Condominium By-Laws or herein, shall disburse the proceeds of all applicable insurance policies to the contractors engaged in such repair and restoration in appropriate progress payments.

(b) If only the Tower Section is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty and the insurance proceeds are less than sufficient to cover, or exceed, the cost of repairs and restoration, the deficit or surplus, as the case may be, will be borne as a Tower Common Expense or profit, respectively, and shared by all Tower Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests. Any surplus allocable to any Tower Unit pursuant to this subsection 6.5.1 shall first be lessened by such amounts as may be required to discharge unpaid liens (other than mortgages which are not Permitted Tower Mortgages) on any such Unit in the order of priority of such liens, and the remaining surplus, if any, shall then be paid to the owner of such Unit. If any portion of the Property other than solely the Tower Section is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, or if any portion of the Tower Section is damaged or destroyed together with any other portion of the Property, the provisions of the Condominium By-Laws shall control as to any deficit or surplus in insurance proceeds.

6.6 Maintenance and Repairs.

6.6.1 Except as otherwise provided in the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws or these Tower By-Laws, all painting, decorating, maintenance, repairs and replacements, whether structural or non-structural, ordinary or extraordinary, and all maintenance, repairs and replacements of all plumbing, heating and lighting fixtures, heating and air-conditioning units and appliances: (i) in or to any Tower Unit (excluding General Common Elements and Tower Limited Common Elements therein, except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or these Tower By-Laws) and the interior side of entrance doors thereto, shall be made by the owner of such Tower Unit at its sole cost and expense; provided that, except in the case of work to be done in Unsold Tower Units, the Tower Unit Owner of a Tower Unit utilizes only such contractors, workers or suppliers as are on the then approved list of the then Managing Agent, which list may change from time to time in the sole discretion of such managing agent or the Tower Board and, to the extent applicable, complies with the provisions of Section 6.7 hereof; and (ii) in or to the Tower Limited Common Elements shall be made by the Tower Board and the cost and expense thereof shall be shared by all Tower Unit Owners as a Tower Common Expense, in proportion to their respective Common Interests.

6.6.2 Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 6.6.1:

(a) In the event that any painting, decorating, maintenance, repairs or replacements to the Property or any part thereof (including, without limitation, any Unit) is necessitated by or attributable to the negligence, misuse, neglect or abuse of: (i) any one or more Tower Unit Owner(s) or its or their tenants, agents, invitees, licensees or guests, the entire cost thereof shall be borne entirely by such Tower Unit Owner(s); or (ii) the Tower Board or its tenants, agents, invitees, licensees or guests, the entire cost thereof shall be charged to all Tower Unit Owners as a Tower Common Expense, except to the extent in any case that such cost is covered by the proceeds of any insurance maintained pursuant to the provisions hereof.

(b) The washing and cleaning of interior glass surfaces of windows in the Tower Units shall be the responsibility of the respective Tower Unit Owners. The Tower Board may from time to time enforce the responsibility of Unit Owners to wash and clean the interior surfaces of windows located in their respective Units and charge the defaulting Unit Owner therefor. The exterior glass surfaces will be washed, cleaned and replaced at the direction of the Condominium Board and the cost thereof charged as a General Common Expense. Unit Owners are prohibited from cleaning or allowing to be cleaned any window from the outside in violation of Section 202 of the New York State Labor Law, any other applicable Laws, any insurance policy or requirement or otherwise. The interior and exterior glass surfaces of all windows located in any Tower Unit shall not be altered, colored or painted. In connection therewith, the Condominium Board shall have an easement to access Units and any Tower Limited Common Elements appurtenant thereto to the extent necessary.

(c) Except with respect to exterior windows in the Tower Units, all normal maintenance and repairs of any Tower Limited Common Element exclusively appurtenant to a particular Tower Unit shall be made by the Tower Unit Owner having access thereto, at its own cost and expense; any structural or extraordinary repairs or replacements thereto (including leaks) shall be made by or for the Tower Board and the cost and expense thereof shall be charged to all Tower Unit Owners as a Tower Common Expense, unless due to the negligence, misuse, neglect or abuse of such Tower Unit Owner or its tenant, agent, invitee, licensee or guest, in which event such Tower Unit Owner shall bear the entire cost thereof, and the same shall, for all purposes hereunder, constitute part of the Tower Common Charges payable by such Tower Unit Owner.

(d) No Tower Unit Owner (other than Sponsor) may install, inscribe or expose any signage on or at any window or any other part of the Common Elements.

6.6.3 Each Tower Unit and the Tower Limited Common Elements shall be kept in the condition and otherwise in such manner that appropriate standards of quality, service and appearance are maintained which are appropriate for a luxury residential condominium project

(and with respect to any roof or other part of the Property exposed to the elements, free of snow, ice and accumulation of water) by the Tower Unit Owner or the Tower Board, whichever is responsible for the maintenance thereof under the Declaration, these Tower By-Laws or the Condominium By-Laws; and such Tower Unit Owner or the Tower Board shall promptly make or perform, or cause to be made or performed, all maintenance work, repairs and replacements necessary in connection therewith. In addition, the public areas of the Tower Section and those areas which are exposed to public view shall be kept in good appearance, in conformity with the dignity and character of the Building, by: (a) the Tower Board, with respect to such parts of the Building it is required to maintain under the Declaration, these Tower By-Laws or the Condominium By-Laws; and; (b) each Tower Unit Owner, with respect to the windows and shades, Venetian or other blinds, drapes, curtains or other window decorations in or appurtenant to its Tower Unit, as well as those other areas of such Unit and its appurtenant Tower Limited Common Elements which are exposed to public view.

6.6.4 In the event that any Tower Unit Owner, within a reasonable time after receipt of written notice from the Tower Board, fails or neglects in any way to perform any of its obligations with respect to maintenance, repair or replacement in or to its Tower Unit as provided in this Article 6 or of any Common Element for which such Tower Unit Owner is responsible under the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws or these Tower By-Laws, the Tower Board may perform or cause to be performed such maintenance, repair or replacement, unless such Tower Unit Owner, within ten (10) days after receiving notice of such default by the Tower Board (except in the event of an "emergency," i.e., a condition requiring repair or replacement immediately necessary for the preservation or safety of the Building or for the safety of occupants of the Building or other persons, or required to avoid the suspension of any necessary services in the Building, in which case no notice is required), cures such default, or in the case of a default not reasonably susceptible to cure within such period, promptly commences (within such ten (10)-day period) and thereafter prosecutes to completion, with due diligence, the curing of such default. All sums expended and all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the making of any such maintenance, repair or replacement in or to such Tower Unit Owner's Unit or to any such Common Element for which such Tower Unit Owner is responsible as aforesaid, together with interest thereon at the rate of one and one half percent (1.5%) per month (but in no event in excess of the maximum rate permitted by Law), shall be immediately payable by such Tower Unit Owner to the Tower Board and shall, for all purposes hereunder, constitute part of the Tower Common Charges payable by such Tower Unit Owner.

6.6.5 Terrace and Swimming Pools. Notwithstanding anything to contrary contained in these By-Laws or the Condominium By-Laws, the following shall apply with respect to Tower Units that have Terraces and/or Swimming Pools appurtenant thereto:

(a) Each Tower Unit Owner shall be responsible for all ordinary maintenance and cleaning of each Terrace and/or Swimming Pool appurtenant to its Unit, subject to the rights of the Tower Board and/or Condominium Board to regulate its use (including, without limitation, pursuant to these Tower By-Laws or the Tower Rules and Regulations regarding the opening, closing, cleaning and maintenance of Swimming Pools), and to enter the Tower Unit to access the Terrace and to access any Tower Limited Common Elements for maintenance, repair and replacement and other uses (including, without limitation, to access any Building mechanical equipment or other Common Elements located on any roof setback adjacent to any Terrace, or to use any Terrace as a platform for window washing equipment).

(b) The costs and expenses of any repairs or replacements to a Terrace, structural or otherwise (unless caused by or attributable to the Tower Unit Owner), shall be charged to all Tower Unit Owners as a Common Expense.

(c) The Tower Board shall have the right to require a Tower Unit Owner to remove plantings, roof surfaces and other installations which have been placed on the Terraces if the Tower Board determines, in its sole discretion, that such plantings or other installations may adversely affect the integrity of the roof or other portion of the Building or is otherwise unsafe. In addition, the Tower Board shall have the right, in connection with any construction, repair or maintenance work in the Building, to erect scaffolding temporarily on any Terrace. In no event shall any Tower Unit Owner of a Tower Unit having a Terrace be permitted to enclose or erect any structure on such Terrace. The Tower Board may establish such other rules and regulations it deems necessary to protect the Common Elements and the Units and to insure the integrity of the Building and the health and safety of the occupants.

(d) Terraces, Swimming Pools and any other areas that are exposed to the elements must be kept free of snow, ice and accumulation of water to the extent failure to do so could cause damage to the Building and/or other Units therein. In particular, each Owner of a Tower Unit with a Swimming Pool is responsible for maintaining such Swimming Pool and must contract with a pool maintenance company, reasonably acceptable to the Tower Board, to provide ongoing cleaning and maintenance of the Swimming Pool. In the event a Tower Unit Owner fails to comply with any of its maintenance obligations, the Tower Board may, at the expense of the Unit Owner and without liability to the Tower Board, enter the Unit and perform such acts as are necessary to cure the Unit Owner's default. All Swimming Pools must be drained, closed (i.e., winterized) and covered by October 1st of each year, and may refilled commencing on May 1st of each year.

(e) If a Tower Unit contains an appurtenant Terrace (including, without limitation, a Terrace with a Swimming Pool), the fencing, railings, gates, parapets, structural, waterproofing and drainage elements in or on the Terrace and/or Swimming Pool are Tower Limited Common Elements appurtenant to such Tower Unit. Any pavers, decking, tile or other flooring installed on the Terrace and/or Swimming Pool and any faucets, hose bibs, electrical outlets and lighting installed in or on the Terrace and/or Swimming Pool, as well as the walls, liner and basin of the Swimming Pool, and all pumps, jets, motors, filters, valves, chemical feeders, timers, heaters, skimmers, control panels and alarm systems (if any) of the Swimming Pool, are part of the Unit. Doors leading from a Tower Unit to a Terrace are also part of the Unit. Pursuant to the foregoing, the structural concrete roof slab or other roof construction material, the asphalt or other roofing material thereover, the roof membrane, flashing and similar waterproofing or other roofing elements protecting the interior of the Building and located under the basin of the Swimming Pool, or under the pavers, decking, tiles or other flooring of the Terrace and/or Swimming Pool, as well as any drainage system and fencing or railing, are Tower Limited Common Elements appurtenant to the Unit.

(f) Neither the Tower Board, Condominium nor Sponsor is responsible for the level of noise or vibrations or odors resulting from the operation of the Building or the Units or the degree of privacy which will be afforded to Unit Owners on their Terraces.

6.7 Alterations of Tower Units.

6.7.1 Except as otherwise provided in the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws or these Tower By-Laws:

(a) (i) No Tower Unit Owner (other than Declarant and/or Sponsor or its designee or other owner of Unsold Tower Units) shall make any Alteration or Repair in or to its Tower Unit which affects the structure or systems of the Building (including, without limitation, the mechanical, electrical, plumbing, heating, ventilating and/or air-conditioning systems thereof), without obtaining the prior written consent of the Tower Board thereto. Prior to, and as a condition of, the granting of its consent to the making of any such Alteration or Repair in or to a Tower Unit, the Tower Board, at its option, may require the Tower Unit Owner to execute an agreement, in form and substance satisfactory to the Tower Board (which may, among other things, require payment of a supervisory fee to the Tower Board), setting forth the terms and conditions under which such Alteration or Repair may be made.

(ii) Notwithstanding anything otherwise herein contained to the contrary (whether in clause (i) above or otherwise), no Tower Unit Owner shall make, and the Tower Board shall not have the authority to consent to, any alteration, addition, improvement or repair to a Tower Unit which affects the structural elements or the systems (including, without limitation, the mechanical, electrical, plumbing, heating, ventilating and/or air-conditioning systems) of: (x) the Building without the Tower Board's obtaining the prior written consent thereto of the Condominium Board to the extent required under the terms of the Condominium By-Laws; and/or (y) any Commercial Unit without the Tower Board's obtaining (on behalf of such Tower Unit Owner) the prior written consent thereto of either the Condominium Board or the owner of such Commercial Unit(s) to the extent required under the terms of the Condominium By-Laws. In each of the foregoing cases, the Tower Unit Owner seeking to perform such work requiring such consent(s) shall be liable for all costs and expenses incurred by the Tower Board in obtaining such consent(s).

(b) All Repairs which would affect the structure or the systems of the Building (including, without limitation, the mechanical, electrical, plumbing, heating, ventilating and/or air-conditioning systems thereof) and all Alterations to any Tower Unit shall be made in accordance with plans and specifications, which plans and specifications shall be: (1) subject to review and approval by the Tower Board, in the case of Alterations to which the consent of the Tower Board is otherwise required under subsection 6.7.1(a); (2) subject to review and approval by the Condominium Board, in the case of Alterations to which the consent of the Condominium Board is otherwise required under Article 8 of the Condominium By-Laws; and/or (3) subject to the approval of the appropriate Commercial Unit Owner(s) in the case of Alterations to which the consent of such Commercial Unit Owner(s) is otherwise required under Article 8 of the Condominium By-Laws. Prior to, and as a condition of, the granting of its consent to the making of any such Alteration, the Tower Board, the Condominium Board or the Commercial Unit

Owner, as the case may be, may require the Tower Unit Owner to execute an alteration agreement, in form and substance satisfactory to the consenting party, setting forth the terms and conditions under which such Alteration may be made.

6.7.2 All Alterations (whether to a Unit or to any Common Element) by a Tower Unit Owner shall be performed:

(a) at the Tower Unit Owner's sole cost and expense (including, without limitation, the managing agent(s)' processing/oversight fee, a damage deposit and the reasonable costs of the Tower Board, the Condominium Board and/or the Commercial Unit Owner(s), as the case may be, incurred in reviewing and approving such Tower Unit Owner's submission for approval (if such approval is required) and in monitoring such Tower Unit Owner's compliance with the provisions of this Section 6.7);

(b) only after obtaining such insurance, naming the Condominium Board and the Tower Board, and the managing agent(s) thereof, and any affected Commercial Unit Owner(s) as additional insureds, as such Boards or such managing agent(s) or such Commercial Unit Owner(s) may reasonably require;

(c) in compliance with the Declaration, these Tower By-Laws, the Condominium By-Laws, the General Rules and Regulations, the Tower Rules and Regulations, and all Laws (including, without limitation, those regarding licensing of contractors, obtaining of all necessary governmental permits, authorizations, certificates and licenses for the commencement and completion of any Alterations and obtaining of any amendment to the Certificate of Occupancy for such Tower Unit, if necessary);

(d) in a manner which will not interfere with, or cause any labor disturbances or stoppages in, the work of Condominium, Tower Section, or Commercial Units Owners' employees or other contractors or subcontractors employed in the Units or the Building; and

(e) (i) only during such days and hours as may be specified by the Tower Board in its reasonable judgment; and (ii) employing such architects, engineers, contractors, subcontractors, suppliers and other laborers who are on the then approved list of the then Managing Agent, as such list may change from time to time, in the sole discretion of the Tower Board or its managing agent.

The Tower Unit Owner performing, permitting, suffering or causing such Alterations to be performed shall, if required either by the Condominium Board and/or the Tower Board, pay the cost of: (x) any necessary amendment of the Declaration and the floor plans of the Condominium, if appropriate, to reflect any such Alterations; (y) obtaining all necessary governmental permits, authorizations, certificates and licenses for the commencement and completion of any Alterations (copies of which shall be delivered to the Tower Board (which shall, as appropriate, also cause copies to be delivered to the Condominium Board) promptly after the issuance thereof and prior to the commencement of any Alterations), and obtaining any amendment to the Certificate of Occupancy for such Tower Unit, if necessary; and (z) any reasonable architectural, engineering and legal fees incurred by the Condominium Board or the Tower Board, as appropriate, in connection with such work. Neither the Condominium Board, the Tower Board nor any Unit Owner (other than the Tower Unit Owner making, permitting, suffering or causing any Alterations to be made in or to its Unit) shall incur any liability, cost or expense either: (1) in connection with the preparation, execution or submission of the applications referred to above; (2) to any contractor, subcontractor, supplier, architect, engineer or laborer on account of any Alterations made, or permitted or caused to be made, by any Tower Unit Owner; (3) to any person or entity asserting any claim for personal injury or property damage arising therefrom; or (4) arising out of a Tower Unit Owner's failure to obtain any permit, authorization, certificate or license, or to comply with the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws, these Tower By-Laws, the General Rules and Regulations, if any, the Tower Rules and Regulations, and the provisions of any Laws insofar as the same relates to Alterations. A Tower Unit Owner making, or causing, permitting or suffering any tenant or occupant to make, any Alteration shall be deemed to have agreed to indemnify and hold the Condominium Board, the Tower Board, the managing agents thereof and all other Unit Owners harmless from and against any liability, loss, cost, or expense arising therefrom, and from and against any and all loss, cost, expense (including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees and disbursements), damage, injury or liability, whether direct, indirect or consequential, resulting from, arising out of, or in any way connected with, any of the foregoing.

6.7.3 Any application to any department of The City of New York or to any other governmental authority having jurisdiction thereof for a permit to make an Alteration in or to any Tower Unit shall, if and to the extent required by Law or such department or authority, be executed by the Condominium Board, the Tower Board and/or any affected Commercial Unit Owner(s), in the case of an Alteration which such party has approved (or for which its approval is not required), provided that the Condominium Board, the Tower Board and the Commercial Unit Owner(s) shall not incur any liability, cost or expense in connection with or by reason of executing such application.

6.7.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 6.7 (but subject to all Laws), Declarant and Sponsor and their designees or other Unsold Tower Unit Owners shall each have the right pursuant (and subject) to the terms of the Declaration and Condominium By-Laws, without the approval of the Tower Board, the Condominium Board or any Commercial Unit Owner: (i) to make any alterations, additions, improvements and repairs in or to any Unsold Tower Units, whether structural or non-structural, interior or exterior, ordinary or extraordinary (including, without limitation, those required under any applicable development (or other) agreement affecting the Property, the Offering Plan, any Purchase Agreement or otherwise); and (ii) to subdivide, combine and change the boundary walls of Unsold Tower Units. Additionally, an initial purchaser of any Unsold Unit shall have the right, without approval of the Tower Board, to make any Alterations in or to its Tower Unit, provided that Sponsor shall have expressly consented to the same in writing at or prior to the closing of title to such Tower Unit (which consent may be withheld or conditioned in Sponsor's sole discretion) and that such purchaser complies with all of the other requirements of this Section 6.7.

6.7.5 In addition to the requirements set forth above in this Section 6.7, until a permanent Certificate of Occupancy is obtained for the Building, no Tower Unit Owner shall make any Alterations in or to its Tower Unit without first notifying the Tower Board, Declarant and Sponsor of the same in writing and complying with the requirements of Declarant and

Sponsor with respect to the same. Such requirements may include, but need not be limited to, the following:

(a) such work not include any change that would result in a delay in obtaining a temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Tower Section and/or the Building, or any amendment to, or extension of, the same if theretofore issued;

(b) such Tower Unit Owner post a bond or other similar security that is reasonably acceptable to Sponsor in an amount sufficient (in Sponsor's reasonable judgment) to insure the diligent completion of the work and the filing of any required notices or certificates with respect to such work and the completion of the same with all governmental authorities having jurisdiction;

(c) such work not be commenced until such Tower Unit Owner causes all required plans, specifications, notices and/or certifications to be filed with all governmental authorities having jurisdiction, procures all required permits and licenses with respect to the same, and delivers copies of all such plans, specifications, notices, certifications, permits and licenses to Sponsor;

(d) such work be diligently prosecuted to completion in compliance with all plans, specifications, notices and/or certifications and in conformity with all permits and licenses;

(e) the Tower Board, Declarant and Sponsor and their representatives be given reasonable opportunity, from time to time, to inspect such work as it progresses;

(f) promptly after the completion of such work, all necessary inspections and approvals of the same be obtained, all necessary notices and/or certifications be filed with the appropriate governmental authorities and the Tower Board, Declarant and Sponsor each be given a copy of all such inspections, approvals, notices and certifications;

(g) such Tower Unit Owner indemnify and hold the Tower Board, Declarant and Sponsor harmless from any cost, expense, claim, or liability arising, directly or indirectly, from such work, including, without limitation, any cost, expense, claim or liability incurred or suffered by any of them due to any delay in obtaining a temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building (or any amendment to, or extension of, the same if theretofore issued) as a result of such work or the failure to timely make all appropriate governmental filings in connection with the same; and

(h) all contractors shall be duly licensed to the extent required by applicable Laws and, if required under any contract with any union whose members are performing services at the Building (including, without limitation, services directly or indirectly at the behest, for the benefit, or for the account of Declarant, Sponsor, any other Unit Owner, the Condominium Board or the Tower Board), such work shall be performed solely by union members.

If any Tower Unit Owner commences any such Alterations in violation of the foregoing terms and conditions of this subsection 6.7.5, or fails to comply with the requirements of Declarant and/or Sponsor in connection with the same, the Tower Board, Declarant and/or Sponsor shall be entitled to cause such work by such Tower Unit Owner to be halted, including, without limitation, causing the managing agent to deny access to the Building to such Tower Unit Owner's workers and suppliers, until such Tower Unit Owner so complies. During the period until such Tower Unit Owner is permitted hereunder to resume its work, the Tower Board, Declarant and/or Sponsor shall have the right to cause to be performed (whether by the Tower Board, Declarant, Sponsor or otherwise) any and all work in and to such Tower Unit Owner's Unit as shall be necessary, in such party's sole judgment, in order to avoid any delay in obtaining a temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building (or any amendment to, or extension of, the same if theretofore issued), whether or not such work shall be in compliance with the plans and specifications for the work theretofore performed by, or on behalf of, such Tower Unit Owner. The cost and expense of any such work so performed shall be borne by such Tower Unit Owner and shall be paid to the Tower Board, Declarant and/or Sponsor, as designated by such parties, within fifteen (15) days following written demand therefor.

6.7.6 In the event that a dispute arises between any Tower Unit Owner and the Condominium Board or the Tower Board, as the case may be, regarding any Alteration subject to the approval of any such Board (including, without limitation, the determination of whether any work constitutes an Alteration subject to the approval of only such Board), or if a dispute arises between a Tower Unit Owner and Declarant and/or Sponsor in respect of subsection 6.7.5, such dispute shall be submitted to Arbitration, provided that the parties shall cause such Arbitration to proceed in an expedited manner.

6.7.7 References in this Section 6.7 to Alteration shall also include, as the context requires but otherwise subject to the Declaration, Condominium By-Law and these By-Law, any Repairs.

6.8 Alterations to Tower Limited Common Elements. Except as otherwise provided in the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws or these Tower By-Laws, all Alterations in or to any Tower Limited Common Elements shall be made by the Tower Board or by the Tower Unit Owner(s) required to maintain and repair such Tower Limited Common Element and the cost thereof shall be charged either to all Tower Unit Owners as a Tower Common Expense in the proportion that their respective Common Interests bear to the aggregate Common Interests of all Tower Unit Owners, or to the Tower Unit Owner(s) responsible therefor, as the case may be. Whenever the cost of any such Alterations chargeable to the Tower Board is capital in nature and would, in the judgment of the Tower Board, exceed $1,000,000 (subject to increase by the CPI Increase Factor) in any calendar year or $3,000,000 in the aggregate (subject to increase by the CPI Increase Factor), then such proposed Alteration shall not be made unless first approved by a majority in number and Common Interest of Tower Unit Owners, including Sponsor, required to bear the cost and expense thereof in accordance with the foregoing; provided that if the aforesaid is in the nature of a non-capital repair or is necessary to comply with Laws, or to remedy any violation imposed against the Property, or a proper work order of an insurer of the Property, or for the health or safety (but not the general comfort or welfare) of the residents or occupants of the Property, such consent shall not be required. In any such event, the Tower Board may, in its direction, assess each Tower Unit Owner liable therefor for its pro-rata share of the cost of such Alterations, according to its respective Common Interest, as part of the Tower Common Charges.

Any Alterations costing the amounts set forth above or less, in the aggregate, in any calendar year may be made by the Tower Board without the approval of the Tower Unit Owners or the Tower Mortgage Representatives.

6.9 Use of Tower Units.

6.9.1 A Tower Unit may generally be used only for residential purposes and, subject to compliance with the Declaration, Condominium By-Laws and these Tower By-Laws, for a lawful home occupation, as defined in the Zoning Resolution of the City of New York. Tower Unit Owners may, subject to the Tower Board's right of first refusal, rent their Tower Unit pursuant to a lease with a minimum term of one (1) year in each instance. No transient tenant or short-term paying guest (i.e., a tenant or paying guest in occupancy for a period of less than twelve (12) consecutive months) may be accommodated in any Tower Unit, and only an entire Tower Unit may be leased. A Tower Unit may only be occupied by: (i) any individual who is a Tower Unit Owner or permitted lessee; (ii) any officer, director, employee or shareholder of any corporation which is a Tower Unit Owner or permitted lessee; (iii) any partner or employee of any partnership which is a Tower Unit Owner or permitted lessee; (iv) any member of any limited liability company which is a Tower Unit Owner or permitted lessee; (v) the fiduciary or beneficiary or employee of any fiduciary which is a Tower Unit Owner or permitted lessee; (vi) any principal or employee of any other entity (including, but not limited to, embassies and consulates of foreign governments) which is a Tower Unit Owner or permitted lessee; provided that in each instance in clauses (ii) through (vi) above: (A) the individual, designated officer, director, shareholder, partner, member, fiduciary, beneficiary, principal or employee is designated as the primary occupant of the Tower Unit and is not being designated to use the Tower Unit on a transient basis or as other than the primary occupant; and (B) such use is not, in fact or in effect, part of or in furtherance of an Occupancy Plan; and (vii) Family Members, domestic partners, domestic employees and/or non-paying guests of any of the foregoing. An "Occupancy Plan" means a program, plan, agreement or other arrangement for the use, occupancy, marketing, advertising or promotion of one (1) or more Tower Units under short-term, timeshare, fractional or shared ownership, interval exchange (whether the program is based on direct exchange of occupancy rights, cash payments, reward programs or other point or accrual systems) or other membership plans or arrangements through which a participant in the plan or arrangement acquires a direct or indirect ownership interest in the Tower Unit(s) in question with attendant rights of periodic use and occupancy or acquires contract rights to such periodic use and occupancy of such Tower Unit(s) or a portfolio of accommodations including such Tower Unit(s).

6.10 Licensing and Use of and Alterations to Storage Closets and Related Areas.

6.10.1 Permitted Licensees; Transfer.

(a) To protect the security of the Building, any licensee of any of the storage closets ("Storage Closets") located in the Subcellar Level of the Building must also at all times be the owner (or lessee) of a Tower Unit, provided, however, that the foregoing restriction shall not apply: (i) to Sponsor or its designee; or (ii) to the Tower Board or its designees.

(b) If at any time the licensee of a Storage Closet sells its Tower Unit, it shall simultaneously assign its license of the Storage Closet to the purchaser of such Tower Unit or to another owner of a Tower Unit, and if it fails to do so, the Tower Board shall have the right to terminate the license of the Storage Closet and take possession of the same, without compensation to the licensee. The foregoing restriction (set forth in the immediately preceding sentence) requiring the assignment of Storage Closet license (a "Storage License") shall not be triggered solely by the lease of a Tower Unit. The licensee of a Storage Closet is herein called a "Storage Closet Licensee" and the licensees of all Storage Closets are herein collectively called the "Storage Closet Licensees". Except with respect to Declarant or Sponsor, no Storage Closet may be licensed independently of the ownership of a Tower Unit. No Tower Unit Owner shall be permitted to assign or convey a Storage License to any Person other than a Tower Unit Owner. Such licenses may be assigned by a Tower Unit Owner at any time (and not subject to any right of first refusal by the Tower Board) provided the assignee: (i) is a Tower Unit Owner; (ii) assumes the obligations under the Storage; (iii) notification of the assignment is promptly delivered to the Tower Board in compliance with its requirements; and (iv) all license fees, special assessments and other obligations due to the Tower Board have been paid in full. Such license shall automatically terminate at such time as the Licensee no longer owns a Tower Unit in the Condominium unless the License is assigned to and assumed by another Tower Unit Owner upon or prior to the sale of Licensee's Tower Unit.

(c) Subject to the rights of Sponsor, the Tower Board has the authority to promulgate additional rules regarding the use of and access to the Storage Closets and the procedures for assigning such Storage Licenses. If the Tower Board terminates a Storage License or a Tower Unit Owner surrenders a Storage License without assigning such license to another Tower Unit Owner, the Tower Board shall have the right to issue a new Storage License for the corresponding Storage Closet upon terms and conditions determined in its sole discretion.

6.10.2 Use.

(a) The Storage Closets may only be used for storage purposes, and in no event may be used as a dwelling space or for the storage of toxic or inflammable items or Combustibles (as such term is defined in the New York City Building Code). No materials which pose a health or safety threat or which otherwise create a nuisance may be stored in the Storage Closets. To do so may result in a violation placed against the Building by the Building Department that will be the obligation of the licensee to remove. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor or its designee shall have the right to use without charge any unlicensed Storage Closets (collectively, the "Unlicensed Storage Closets", and individually, an "Unlicensed Storage Closet") for any lawful purpose or to change the permitted use of any Unlicensed Storage Closets, subject, however, to the provisions these Tower By-Laws.

(b) Each licensee shall be liable for all damage arising out of such licensee's use or misuse of its Storage Closet. Neither the Sponsor, nor its respective agents or employees nor the Tower Board or any of its members, officers or employees, shall be liable for any theft or damage to any property stored in the Storage Closets. Each licensee shall indemnify and hold Sponsor and its respective directors, officers, partners, parent and subsidiary and affiliated companies, agents and employees, and the Tower Board, its members, officers and employees, harmless from and against any and all liabilities, claims, causes of action, damages, lawsuits, penalties, judgments, and liens, together with any related costs and expenses, including but not limited to reasonable legal fees, asserted against or sustained by any of them in connection with any act, omission, or negligence of a licensee or a licensee's family, servants, employees, agents, guests and invitees in connection with the purchase or use of a Storage Closet.

6.10.3 Alterations. Except as otherwise expressly permitted herein, no Unit Owner may make any alteration, addition, improvement of, or repair in or to the Storage Closets to it without the prior approval of the Tower Board and complying with all Laws and all applicable Rules and Regulations. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Declarant and Sponsor and their designees or any owner of Unlicensed Storage Closets shall each have the right, without the approval of the Tower Board, the Condominium Board or any Commercial Unit Owner: (i) to make any alterations, additions, improvements and repairs in or to any Unlicensed Storage Closets, whether structural or non-structural, interior or exterior, ordinary or extraordinary; and (ii) to subdivide, combine and change the boundary walls of Unlicensed Storage Closets.

6.10.4 Unlicensed Storage Closets. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 6.10, Sponsor may, without the consent of or limitation by any Board, Unit Owner or other Person, use any Storage Closets (together with adjoining Tower Limited Common Element storage related area(s)) which are not subject to license to a third-party for any purpose, provided such use is permitted by all applicable Laws; and to lease or license the same to Purchasers or otherwise. Further, the Tower Board may impose no rule or fee on Sponsor with respect to any Storage Closet for which a Storage License has not yet been issued.

6.10.5 License Fees. Holders of Storage Licenses, excluding Sponsor with respect to Unlicensed Storage Closets, will be required to pay a monthly license maintenance fee to the Tower Board in an amount equal to $1 per month per square foot of such Storage Closet, which amount shall, following the First Tower Closing, be subject to biannual increases based upon the CPI Increase Factor in effect on the date of the First Tower Closing. Further, the license fees are otherwise also subject to change from time to time as the Tower Board deems necessary or appropriate.

6.11 Use of Tower Limited Common Elements.

6.11.1 Except as otherwise provided herein, in the Condominium By-Laws or in the Declaration, Tower Limited Common Elements may be used only for the furnishing of the services and facilities and for the other uses for which they are reasonably suited.

6.11.2 In no event shall any Tower Unit Owner impair, restrict or impede the use of the Common Elements by any other Unit Owner(s) having a right thereto, or either the Condominium Board or Tower Board as set forth herein, in the Declaration or the Condominium By-Laws.

6.11.3 Notwithstanding the foregoing subsections of this Section:

(a) the owner or owners of any one or more Tower Units, which Tower Unit or Units are the only Tower Unit or Units serviced or benefited by any Tower Limited Common Element adjacent or appurtenant thereto (for example, that portion at the end of any hallway which is directly adjacent to any such Tower Units located on opposite sides of such hallway) and not affecting access or service (including, without limitation, heating, ventilating and air-conditioning) to any other Unit or to any other portion of the Common Elements shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law and subject to the consent of the Tower Board (which consent may be granted or withheld in the Tower Board's sole discretion and shall not be required if such Tower Unit Owner or Owners shall be Declarant or Sponsor or such Units shall be Unsold Tower Units), have the exclusive right of use of such portion of the Tower Limited Common Elements as if it were a part of such Tower Units (including the right, in the above example of a portion of a hallway, to enclose such portion) and no amendment to the Declaration nor reallocation of Common Interests shall be made by reason thereof; provided, however that, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 6.1 hereof, such Tower Unit Owner or Owners agrees, at their sole cost and expense to: (a) be responsible for the operation, maintenance and repair of that portion of the Tower Limited Common Elements for so long as such Tower Unit Owner or Owners exercise such exclusive right of use; and (b) restore that portion of the Tower Limited Common Elements to its original condition, reasonable wear and tear excepted, after such Tower Unit Owner or Owners cease to exercise such exclusive right of use. The Owner of any such Tower Units which are Unsold Tower Units shall have the rights set forth in the preceding sentence without the necessity for obtaining the consent of the Tower Board. Notwithstanding the above, if an Owner transfers or conveys its Tower Units to a successor Owner, the transferor need not comply with (b) above provided that the transferee agrees to abide by (a) and (b) above.

(b) Sponsor or any owner of Unsold Tower Units shall have the right, until the tenth anniversary of the First Tower Closing, to use portions of the Tower Section, without charge, for exhibitions or other promotional functions with respect to a sales program in respect of such Unsold Tower Units or otherwise; and

(c) Sponsor (or its designee), in its own name or in the name of the Tower Board, shall have the exclusive right to issue initial Storage Licenses for Storage Closets and to retain the proceeds thereof.

6.11.4 Notwithstanding the foregoing, elevator landings which serve a single Tower Unit may be decorated and/or furnished by the applicable Tower Unit Owner as they desire, at their expense, provided that such Tower Unit Owner consents in writing thereto, and the Tower Board gives its written consent to such decoration and/or furnishing, which consent of the Tower Board may be granted or withheld in such board's sole discretion. After an elevator landing is decorated and/or furnished by the Tower Unit Owner serviced by the same, the owner of such Tower Unit, and not the Tower Board, will be responsible for keeping the decor and furnishings in a first class condition and state of repair and performing, at its own expense, all repairs and maintenance necessary or desirable in order to accomplish the same.

6.12 General Provisions as to Use.

6.12.1 No nuisance shall be allowed in the Tower Section nor shall any use or practices be allowed in the Tower Section which interfere with the peaceful possession or proper use thereof by its occupants. No unlawful use shall be made of the Tower Section or any portion thereof. All Laws relating to any portion of the Tower Section shall be complied with at the sole expense of whichever of the Unit Owners or the Tower Board or the Condominium Board shall have the obligation to maintain or repair such portion. In no event may all or any portion of the Tower Section be used for any pornographic purpose or as an adult book, video or paraphernalia store, peep show or adult entertainment facility.

6.12.2 The Tower Board may, in its sole discretion, grant permission for the use of a Tower Unit for a use other than its original intended use, provided such use is permitted by Law, does not violate the then existing Certificate of Occupancy for such Unit, the Declaration, these Tower By-Laws or the Condominium By-Laws, and the Tower Unit Owner thereof complies with all applicable Laws. For so long as there remain any Unsold Tower Units, the consent of Sponsor or its designee as owner of such Unsold Tower Unit(s) shall also be required in connection with any such changed use of any Tower Unit.

6.12.3 Declarant and/or Sponsor, without the permission of the Tower Board, may: (a) use or grant permission for the use of any Unsold Unit for any purpose, provided such use is permitted by Law, does not violate the then existing Certificate of Occupancy for such Tower Unit and the user of such Tower Unit complies with all applicable Laws; (b) use any one or more Unsold Tower Units as sales and/or leasing offices in connection with the sale or rental of the Tower Units or for any other purpose, subject only to compliance with applicable Laws; and (c) lease Unsold Tower Units to any party(ies).

6.13 Right of Access.

6.13.1 Each Tower Unit Owner grants a right of access to its Tower Unit to the Tower Board and the Condominium Board, the managing agents, superintendents and/or any other person authorized by any of the foregoing, for the purposes, among others, of: making inspections of, or removing violations noted or issued by any governmental authority against, the Common Elements or any other part of the Property; curing defaults hereunder or under the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws, the Tower Rules and Regulations or the General Rules and Regulations, if any, by such Tower Unit Owner or correcting any conditions originating in its Tower Unit and having a reasonable likelihood of causing damage to another Unit or all or any part of the Common Elements; performing maintenance, installations, alterations, repairs or replacements to the mechanical, plumbing or electrical services or other portions of the Common Elements within its Tower Unit or elsewhere in the Building; reading, maintaining or replacing utility meters relating to the Common Elements, its Tower Unit or any other Unit in the Building; or correcting any condition which violates the provisions of any Permitted Tower Mortgage covering another Unit; provided that (a) requests for entry to any Tower Unit are made not less than one (1) day in advance, and (b) any such right shall be exercised in such a manner as will not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Tower Units for their permitted purposes. In case of an "emergency", as defined in subsection 6.6.4, such right of entry shall be immediate, without advance notice, whether or not the Tower Unit Owner or tenant or occupant is present.

6.13.2 Each Tower Unit Owner grants a right of access to its Tower Unit and any Tower Limited Common Elements appurtenant thereto, and the Tower Board grant rights of access to the Tower Limited Common Elements to Declarant and Sponsor, and their contractors, subcontractors, agents and employees, for the purpose of complying with and fulfilling each such party's obligations as set forth in the Offering Plan and other documents relating to the construction, development and operation of the Property, provided that access thereto shall be exercised by such party, with respect to any Tower Unit or appurtenant Tower Limited Common Element, in such a manner as will not unreasonably interfere with the use of such Tower Unit and/or Tower Limited Common Element for its or their permitted purposes.

6.14 Tower Rules and Regulations. Annexed hereto as Exhibit A and made a part hereof are rules and regulations (the "Tower Rules and Regulations") concerning the use of the Tower Units and the Tower Limited Common Elements. The Tower Board may from time to time modify, amend or add to such Tower Rules and Regulations, except that: (x) a majority vote (by Common Interest) of Tower Unit Owners may overrule the Tower Board with respect to any such modifications, amendments or additions; and (y) no adoption, modification, amendment or addition affecting Declarant or Sponsor or the Unsold Tower Units may be made unless agreed to, in writing, by Declarant and/or Sponsor, or by all the owners of such Unsold Tower Units who are affected by such adoption, modification, amendment or addition, as the case may be. Copies of any newly adopted Tower Rules and Regulations, or any modifications, amendments or additions thereto shall be furnished by the Tower Board to each Tower Unit Owner not less than thirty (30) days prior to the effective date thereof.

6.15 Water Charges, Sewer Rents and Real Estate Taxes.

6.15.1 Water and sewer services for the Tower Section shall be supplied by the City of New York or other utilities servicing the Property. Unless and until water charges and sewer rents are billed directly to Tower Unit Owners by the proper authority, the Tower Board shall promptly pay such charges to the Condominium Board (who will in turn pay the City of New York or other utilities servicing the Property), together with all related sewer rents arising therefrom, and allocated as a Tower Common Expense among the Unit Owners, or the Tower Unit Owners, as applicable, as reasonably determined by the Tower Board, based on Common Interests, and the Tower Unit Owners shall be required to reimburse the Tower Board, as a Tower Common Charge, for their share of such charges and rents.

6.15.2 Until the Units are separately assessed and billed for real estate tax purposes, the Condominium Board will pay all real estate taxes with respect to the Property to the Department of Finance of The City of New York (or directly to Declarant if Declarant has paid such taxes) and allocate the cost thereof among the Commercial Units and the Tower Section in the manner provided in the Condominium By-Laws. The Tower Board shall, no later than the later to occur of (x) fifteen (15) days after receipt of notice of such allocated amount from the Condominium Board or (y) thirty (30) days prior to the date such taxes are due to The City of New York, pro-rate the share of the Property's real estate taxes so allocated to the Tower Section among the individual Tower Units on the basis of each Tower Unit's proportionate Common Interest, and give notice to each Tower Unit Owner of the amount payable by such Unit Owner. Each Tower Unit Owner will then, no later than the later to occur of (i) fifteen (15) days after receipt of notice of such pro-rated amount from the Tower Board or (ii) fifteen (15) days prior to the date such taxes are due to The City of New York, pay to the Tower Board its pro-rated share, which amount shall for all purposes constitute part of the Tower Common Charges payable by such Unit Owner, and the Tower Board will forward all such amounts, plus any additional amount necessary so that the total shall equal the total amount allocated the Tower Section, to the Condominium Board no later than five (5) business days prior to the date such taxes are due to The City of New York or shall at the direction of the Condominium Board timely pay the same to the appropriate taxing authority on the Condominium Board's behalf. A Tower Unit Owner will not be responsible for the payment of, and will not be subject to any lien arising from, the non-payment of real estate taxes assessed against any other Units.

6.15.3 The Tower Board shall (or shall cause the Condominium Board on its behalf to) commence, pursue, compromise and settle certiorari proceedings to obtain reduced real estate tax assessments with respect to any or all of the Tower Units on behalf of and as agent for the respective Tower Unit Owners thereof; but only with respect to such Tower Units as to which the respective Unit Owners thereof have, in writing requested and authorized the Tower Board to do so, and indemnified the Tower Board from and against all claims, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees) resulting from such proceedings. All Tower Unit Owners making such request to the Tower Board will share the costs in connection therewith in proportion to the benefits derived therefrom by such Tower Unit Owners. In the event any Tower Unit Owner individually seeks to have the assessed valuation of its Unit reduced by bringing a separate certiorari proceeding, the Tower Board, if necessary for such proceeding, will execute any documents or other papers required for, and otherwise cooperate with such Tower Unit Owner in pursuing, such reduction, provided that such Tower Unit Owner indemnifies the Tower Board from all claims, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and expenses) resulting from such proceedings.

6.16 Electricity. Electricity will be provided to the Building by Con Edison or other utility company/ies or supplier(s) from time to time serving the Property and metered to each Tower Unit. Subject to Section 6.4.1 of the Condominium By-Laws, the Owner of each such Unit shall pay for such electricity directly to the utility company. Consumption with respect to the Tower Limited Common Elements will be determined by a separate meter and allocated by the Tower Board among the Tower Units, on the basis of percentage of Tower Common Interest.

6.17 Gas. Gas will be provided to the Building by Con Edison. Gas for the Tower Section will be paid for by the Tower Board. The charges for any other gas utilized at the Tower Section shall be paid by the Tower Board as a Tower Common Expense and allocated among the Tower Units on the basis of percentage of Tower Common Interests.

6.18 Intentionally omitted.

6.19 Dispute as to Utilities Charges. In the event that there is a dispute as to the accuracy of assessing the charges for a utility upon the basis of usage, and the disputing Tower Unit Owners and/or the Tower Board fail to agree on a manner to accurately allocate such costs, the matter shall be determined by Arbitration.

6.20 Remedies for Violations of By-Laws or Rules and Regulations.

6.20.1 The violation by any Tower Unit Owner of any of the Tower Rules and Regulations (or the General Rules and Regulations, if any) or the breach of any of these Tower By-Laws or the Condominium By-Laws, or the breach of any provision of the Declaration, shall give: (a) the Condominium Board with respect to matters affecting the Condominium By-Laws, the General Common Elements or the Commercial Units, and (b) the Tower Board with respect to matters affecting these Tower By-Laws or the Tower Section, the right, in addition to any other rights set forth in these Tower By-Laws, the Condominium By-Laws or the Declaration: (i) to enter any Tower Unit or Common Elements in which, or as to which, such violation or breach exists and to summarily abate and remove, at the expense of the defaulting Tower Unit Owner, any structure, thing or condition resulting in such violation or breach, provided that the Tower Unit Owner is given reasonable notice (which may be by telephone or telecopier) that such violation or breach exists and, as the case may be, that abatement, removal, Repairs or Alterations are necessary, and such entry and cure shall not constitute or give rise to any guilt or liability in any matter of trespass, and/or (ii) to enjoin, abate or remedy by appropriate legal proceedings, either at law or in equity, the continuance of any such violation or breach, provided that the Tower Unit Owner is given reasonable notice (which may be by telephone or telecopier) that such violation exists and that repairs, replacements or alterations are necessary, and/or (iii) to have its costs and expenses by reason of such breach or violation repaid to it, and/or (iv) if the party seeking to remedy a breach is the Tower Board, to levy such fines and penalties as the Tower Board may deem appropriate, and the Tower Board shall have the same remedies for non-payment of such fines and penalties as for non-payment of Tower Common Charges.

6.20.2 The violation or breach of any of the provisions of these Tower By-Laws, the Condominium By-Laws, the Tower Rules and Regulations, the General Rules and Regulations, if any, or the Declaration with respect to any rights, easements, privileges or licenses granted to Declarant and/or Sponsor shall give to such parties the right, in addition to any other rights set forth in these Tower By-Laws, the Condominium By-Laws or the Declaration, to enjoin, abate or remedy by appropriate legal proceedings, either at law or in equity, the continuance of any such violation or breach.

6.21 Utility Costs Payable as Tower Common Charges. All amounts payable to the Tower Board by the Tower Unit Owners in respect of utilities shall be considered and payable as Tower Common Charges and subject to, among other things, the Tower Board's lien for unpaid Tower Common Charges.

ARTICLE 7

SELLING, LEASING AND MORTGAGING OF RESIDENTIAL UNITS

8.1 Sales and Leases of Tower Units. No Tower Unit Owner (other than Sponsor or its designee or the owner of any Unsold Unit(s)) may sell or lease its Unit except in compliance with the provisions of this Article 8. Subject to the terms of Section 8.7 hereof, each Tower Unit Owner may sell his or her Tower Unit, or lease his or her Tower Unit for a minimum term of one (1) year in each instance (or for such other period of time as may be determined by the Tower Unit Owners pursuant to an amendment of this provision in accordance with Section 13.1), provided that no Tower Unit Owner (other than Declarant or Sponsor) may sell or lease its Tower Unit except by complying with the provisions of this Article 8 and, specifically, this Section 8.1.

8.1.1 (a) Subject to the terms of Section 8.8, any contract to sell a Tower Unit, together with its appurtenant Common Interest, or any lease of a Tower Unit (collectively, the "Sale Agreement or Lease") shall contain the following provision: "This Agreement, and the rights and obligations of the parties hereunder, are hereby expressly subject to the right of first refusal of the Tower Board of One Riverside Park Condominium in respect of the transaction described herein, pursuant to the terms of Article 8 of the Tower By-Laws of One Riverside Park Condominium." (The Tower Unit Owner who has entered into a Sale Agreement or Lease is herein referred to as the "Offeree Unit Owner" and the prospective purchaser or tenant is herein referred to as the "Outside Offeror.")

(b) Promptly after a Sale Agreement or Lease has been fully executed, the Offeree Unit Owner shall send written notice thereof to the Tower Board, by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, or by reputable courier providing overnight delivery, or by hand delivery; such notice shall be accompanied by a fully completed application package, which the Offeree Unit Owner shall obtain from the Managing Agent, together with a fully executed duplicate original of the Sale Agreement or Lease and any and all related agreements, containing all of the terms offered in good faith by the Outside Offeror. The giving of such notice to the Tower Board shall constitute an offer by the Offeree Unit Owner to sell its Tower Unit, together with its appurtenant Common Interest, or to lease its Tower Unit, as the case may be, to the Tower Board, or its designee (corporate or otherwise), on behalf of all Tower Unit Owners, upon the same terms and conditions as contained in such Sale Agreement or Lease, and shall also constitute a representation and warranty by the Offeree Unit Owner to the Tower Board, on behalf of all Tower Owners, that such Sale Agreement or Lease is bona fide in all respects and contains the complete terms of the transaction. The Offeree Unit Owner shall promptly submit in writing such further information with respect thereto as the Tower Board may reasonably request. The Tower Board may, by sending written notice, by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, or by reputable courier providing overnight delivery, to such Offeree Unit Owner not later than twenty (20) days after receipt of such notice, or if further information has been requested, then not later than twenty (20) days after receipt thereof, elect to purchase such Tower Unit, together with its appurtenant Common Interest, or elect to lease such Tower Unit, as the case may be (or to cause the same to be purchased or leased by its designee), on behalf of all Tower Unit Owners, upon the same terms and conditions as contained in the Sale Agreement or Lease, as such terms and conditions may be modified or supplemented by any additional information provided by and as stated in and supplemented or amended by the Offeree Unit Owner's response(s) to requests by the Tower Board for further information, as provided for above.

8.1.2 If the Tower Board shall timely elect to purchase such Tower Unit, together with its appurtenant Common Interest, or to lease such Tower Unit, as the case may be, or to cause the same to be purchased or leased by its designee, title shall close or a lease shall be executed at the office of the attorneys for the Tower Board, in accordance with the terms of the Sale Agreement or Lease, within sixty (60) days after the giving of notice by the Tower Board of its election to accept such offer. However, if the closing date of the purchase or the commencement date of the term of the lease, as the case may be, set forth in the Sale Agreement or Lease shall be later than sixty (60) days after the giving of notice by the Tower Board of its election to accept the aforesaid offer, the Tower Board shall be required to perform or cause to be performed all of the terms of the Sale Agreement or Lease to be performed by the Outside Offeror (except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Article 8), including, but not limited to, payment of a down payment or advance rentals and security deposits, or closing of title or acceptance of occupancy, as the case may be, and such closing of title or the commencement of the term of the Lease shall be on the date set forth in the Sale Agreement or Lease as the intended closing date or commencement date, as the case may be. If, pursuant to such Sale Agreement or Lease, the Outside Offeror was to assume or take title to the Unit subject to the Offeree Unit Owner's existing mortgage or mortgages, in the case of a sale, the Tower Board may purchase the Tower Unit and assume or take title to the Tower Unit subject to said existing mortgage or mortgages, as the case may be. At the closing, the Offeree Unit Owner, if such Tower Unit (together with its appurtenant Common Interest) is to be sold, shall convey the same to the Tower Board, or its designee, on behalf of all Tower Unit Owners, by deed in the form required by Section 339-o of the Real Property Law of the State of New York. Real estate taxes (including water charges and sewer rents, if separately assessed), mortgage interest, if applicable, Tower Common Charges and rent, if applicable, shall be apportioned between the Offeree Unit Owner and the Tower Board, or its designee, as of the closing date. In the event such Tower Unit is to be leased, the Offeree Unit Owner shall execute and deliver to the Tower Board, or its designee, a lease between the Offeree Unit Owner, as landlord, and the Tower Board, or its designee, as tenant, covering such Tower Unit, for the rental and term contained in the Lease.

8.1.3 In the event the Tower Board or its designee shall fail to accept such offer within twenty (20) days after receipt of notice and all other documents and information to be provided under this Article 8 (including any additional information requested by the Tower Board as provided in Section 8.1.1(b) above), or waives such election in writing within such twenty- (20) day period, the Offeree Unit Owner shall have an additional one hundred twenty (120) days after the earlier of the expiration of such twenty- (20) day period or waiver in writing by the Tower Board, as the case may be (or such later date for closing or occupancy provided in the Sale Agreement or Lease, as applicable) to consummate the transaction set forth in the Sale Agreement or Lease. In the event the Offeree Unit Owner shall not, within such one hundred twenty- (120) day period (or such later date for closing or occupancy provided in the Sale Agreement or Lease, as applicable), so consummate the transaction, or should the terms of the Sale Agreement or Lease be amended or modified in any way (whether orally, in writing or by a side agreement) to be on terms less favorable to the Offeree Unit Owner, then the Offeree Unit Owner shall be required to again comply with all the terms and provisions of this Section 8.1.

8.1.4 Any deed to an Outside Offeror shall expressly provide that the acceptance thereof by the grantee shall constitute an assumption of all of the provisions of the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws, these Tower By-Laws, the Tower Rules and Regulations and the General Rules and Regulations, if any, in each case as the same may be amended from time to time, and, in the absence of such express language, the same shall be conclusively deemed to have been included therein.

8.1.5 Any Lease to an Outside Offeror shall be consistent with these Tower By-Laws and shall provide that it may not be modified, amended, extended or assigned without the prior consent in writing of the Tower Board, that the tenant shall not assign its interest in such lease or sublet the demised premises or any part thereof without the prior consent in writing of the Tower Board and that the Tower Board shall have power to terminate such lease and/or to bring summary proceedings to evict the tenant in the name of the landlord thereunder, in the event of: (i) a default by the tenant in the performance of its obligations under such lease or a default by or caused by such tenant under any of the provisions of these Tower By-Laws or the Condominium By-Laws; or (ii) a foreclosure of the lien granted by Section 339-z of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, the Declaration, these Tower By-Laws, the Condominium By-Laws or otherwise. Such lease shall also provide that it is and shall be subject and subordinate to the Declaration, these Tower By-Laws, the Condominium By-Laws, the Tower Rules and Regulations and the General Rules and Regulations.

8.1.6 Except as hereinbefore set forth, the form and substance of any such lease executed by the Tower Board or an Outside Offeror shall be the then current form of lease approved by the Tower Board (as the same may be changed from time to time). Any lease executed by the Tower Board as tenant shall provide that the Tower Board may enter into a sublease of the demised premises without the consent of the landlord and without paying to the landlord any portion of the rent received from the subtenant.

8.1.7 If a Tower Unit Owner is a corporation, any sale, assignment, transfer or other disposition of any of its stock, or if a Tower Unit Owner is a partnership, limited liability company or other entity, any sale, assignment, transfer or other disposition of any interest in such partnership, company or other entity, in each case, other than through any recognized national securities exchange or "over-the-counter" market, which results in a change in the majority beneficial or legal ownership of such entity, shall also subject the Tower Unit owned by such entity to the requirement that the Tower Unit first be offered to the Tower Board, as described in this Section 8.1.

8.1.8 Any purported sale or lease of a Tower Unit in violation of this Section 8.1 shall be voidable at the election of the Tower Board and if the Tower Board shall so elect, the Tower Unit Owner shall be deemed to have authorized and empowered the Tower Board to institute legal proceedings to eject or evict the purported purchaser or tenant, as the case may be, in the name of said Tower Unit Owner as the purported seller or landlord, as the case may be. Said Tower Unit Owner shall reimburse the Tower Board for all expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses) incurred in connection with such proceedings, promptly upon demand therefor. In no event shall any purported sale or lease of a Tower Unit in violation of this Section 8.1 release the Tower Unit Owner which is the purported seller or lessor, as the case may be, from any of its obligations under the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws, these Tower By-Laws, whether or not such sale or lease is voided by the Tower Board.

8.1.9 The Tower Board shall have the right to impose a fee in connection with any waiver of its right of first refusal pursuant to this Section 8.1, either with respect to a sale or a lease of a Tower Unit; provided, however, that no fee shall assessed in connection with a renewal of a lease of a Tower Unit, which lease the Tower Board previously waived its right of first refusal pursuant to this Section 8.1.

8.2 Consent of Tower Unit Owners to Purchase or Lease of Units by Tower Board. Subject to the terms of these Tower By-Laws, the Tower Board may waive any option hereinabove set forth to purchase or lease any Tower Unit without the prior approval of the Tower Unit Owners. However, the Tower Board may not exercise any option hereinabove set forth to purchase or lease any Tower Unit without the prior approval of a majority in interest of the Tower Unit Owners.

8.3 No Severance of Ownership. No Tower Unit Owner shall execute any deed, mortgage or other instrument conveying or mortgaging title to its Tower Unit without including therein its appurtenant Common Interest, it being the intention to prevent any severance of such combined ownership. Any such deed, mortgage or other instrument purporting to affect one or more of such interests without including all such interests shall be deemed and taken to include the interest or interests so omitted even though the latter shall not be expressly mentioned or described therein. Thus, each conveyance of a Tower Unit by the Owner thereof shall include as part of the property to be conveyed, such Tower Unit Owner's: (i) undivided interest in the Common Elements; (ii) undivided interest in any Tower Unit or Tower Units acquired by the Tower Board from Unit Owners (or the proceeds received at a foreclosure or other judicial sale of a Tower Unit); and (iii) undivided interest in any other assets of the Tower Board or assets of the Condominium (including, without limitation, in the Resident Manager's Unit). No part of the appurtenant Common Interest of any Tower Unit may be sold, conveyed or otherwise disposed of, except as part of a sale, conveyance or other disposition of the Unit to which such interests are appurtenant, or as part of a sale, conveyance or other disposition of such part of the appurtenant Common Interests of all Tower Units. Nothing in this Section 8.3 shall prohibit the lease of any Tower Unit without the simultaneous lease of its appurtenant Common Interest.

8.4 Release by Tower Board of Right of First Refusal. The right of first refusal contained in Section 8.1 may be released or waived by the Tower Board only in the manner provided in Section 8.5. In the event the Tower Board shall release or waive its right of first refusal as to any Tower Unit, such Tower Unit, together with its appurtenant Common Interest, may be sold, conveyed or leased in accordance with the Sale Agreement or Lease and the other information supplied by the Offeree Unit Owner to the Tower Board pursuant to Section 8.1 hereof, subject to the provisions of subsection 8.1.3. The Tower Board may establish reasonable fees for the consideration of any right of first refusal, which fees shall be payable by the selling or leasing Tower Unit Owner (but not Declarant or Sponsor), as the case may be.

8.5 Certificate of Termination of Right of First Refusal. A certificate executed and acknowledged by the Secretary or any other officer of the Tower Section stating that the provisions of 8.1 have been satisfied by a Tower Unit Owner or stating that the right of first refusal contained therein has been duly released or waived by the Tower Board and that, as a result thereof, the rights of the Tower Board thereunder have terminated, shall be conclusive upon the Tower Board and the Tower Unit Owners in favor of all persons who rely on such certificate in good faith.

8.6 Financing of Purchase, or Refinancing, of Tower Units by Tower Board. The purchase of any Tower Unit, together with its appurtenant Common Interest, by the Tower Board or its designee, on behalf of all Tower Unit Owners, may, at the option of the Tower Board, be made from the funds deposited in the capital and/or expense accounts of the Tower Board by or on behalf of Tower Unit Owners. The Tower Board may levy an assessment against each Tower Unit Owner, in proportion to its respective Common Interest, as an additional Tower Common Charge, and/or the Tower Board, in its discretion, may finance the acquisition of such Tower Unit and subsequently refinance such Unit or refinance any loan secured by or relating to the Tower Section's superintendent's residence or such other Tower Unit (on such terms and in such amount(s) as the Tower Board determines); provided, however, that no such financing may be secured by an encumbrance or hypothecation of any portion of the Tower Section (except to the extent permitted by Law) other than the Tower Unit or other property to be purchased or refinanced, as the case may be, together with its appurtenant Common Interest, as applicable.

8.7 Exceptions. In addition to any other exceptions hereinbefore set forth, the provisions of Section 8.1 shall not apply to the sale, lease or conveyance of any Unit, together with its appurtenant Common Interest, or in the case of a Tower Unit Owner which is a corporation, partnership, limited liability company or other entity, the sale, lease or conveyance of an interest in such Tower Unit Owner, in each case: (a) to an affiliate or one or more family members (and for purposes of this Section 8.7, an "affiliate" is defined as a person or entity that owns fifty percent (50%) or more of the legal and beneficial interest of such Unit Owner or owner of an interest in a Unit Owner, as the case may be, or an entity with respect to which such Unit Owner or owner of an interest in a Unit Owner owns fifty percent (50%) or more of the legal and beneficial interest, and "family member" is defined as a spouse, domestic partner, adult child, parent or adult sibling, or a trust for the benefit of any one or more of the foregoing and/or one or more minor children of any of the foregoing.); (b) Sponsor or its designee with respect to Unsold Tower Units; (c) the Tower Board; (d) any proper officer conducting the sale of a Tower Unit in connection with the foreclosure of a mortgage or other lien covering such Unit or delivering a deed in lieu of such foreclosure; or (e) a Permitted Mortgagee, its nominee or assignee, who has acquired title to any Tower Unit at any foreclosure sale of its Permitted Tower Mortgage or by deed in lieu of such foreclosure delivered in a bona fide transaction; provided, however, that each succeeding Tower Unit Owner thereof shall be bound by, and its Tower Unit shall be subject to, all of the provisions of this Article 8. In addition, the provisions of Section 8.1 shall not apply to any lease, sale or conveyance of a Tower Unit to a Permitted Mortgagee or a purchaser at a foreclosure sale of a Permitted Tower Mortgage in connection with a foreclosure or to the acceptance of a deed or assignment in lieu of foreclosure, in the event of a default by the mortgagor under such Permitted Tower Mortgage.

8.8 Gifts and Devises, etc. Any Tower Unit Owner shall be free to convey or transfer his or her Tower Unit by gift, or may devise his or her Tower Unit by will, or have his or her Tower Unit pass by intestacy, without complying with the provisions of 8.1, provided, however, that each succeeding Tower Unit Owner shall be bound by, and his or her Tower Unit shall be subject to, the provisions of this Article 8.

8.9 Payment of Assessments. No Tower Unit Owner shall be permitted to sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate or lease its Tower Unit unless and until it shall have paid in full to the Tower Board all unpaid Tower Common Charges and other amounts required by the Tower Board to be paid and theretofore assessed against such Tower Unit and until such Tower Unit Owner shall have satisfied all unpaid liens against their Units, other than Permitted Tower Mortgages. Tower Unit Owners shall notify the Managing Agent at least five (5) business days prior to the closing of any of the aforementioned transactions for confirmation of any unpaid amounts. The provisions of this Section 8.9 shall not apply to Sponsor or its designee or other owner of Unsold Tower Units.

8.10 Waiver of Right of Partition with Respect to Units Acquired on Behalf of Tower Unit Owners as Tenants-in-Common. In the event that any Unit shall be acquired by the Tower Board or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Tower Unit Owners, as tenants-in-common, all such Unit Owners shall be deemed to have waived all rights of partition with respect to such acquired Unit and the entire Property as herein provided.

8.11 Mortgage of Tower Units. Subject to Article 7 and Section 8.9, each Tower Unit Owner shall have the right to mortgage its Unit without restriction.

CONDEMNATION

In the event of the taking in condemnation or by eminent domain of all or any part of the Tower Limited Common Elements, then, subject to the provisions set forth below and any applicable provisions of the Declaration and the Condominium By-Laws, the Tower Board will arrange for the prompt repair and restoration of the part of the Tower Limited Common Elements affected by such taking. The award made for any such taking shall be payable to the Tower Board; provided, however, that if any such award exceeds $2,500,000, such award shall be payable to the Insurance Trustee (as defined in Section 12.7 hereof) and shall be disbursed to the contractors engaged in such repair and restoration, if any, in appropriate progress payments. If the net proceeds of any such award are insufficient to cover, or if such net proceeds exceed, the cost of any repairs and restorations, the deficit or surplus, as the case may be, will be borne or shared, as the case may be, by the Tower Unit Owners pro rata in accordance with their respective Common Interests; provided, that the amount of any surplus payable to any Unit Owner shall be lessened by such amounts as may be necessary to reduce unpaid liens (other than mortgages which are not Permitted Tower Mortgages) on any such Unit in the order of the priority of such liens. Notwithstanding any provisions contained herein to the contrary, if seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the Tower Limited Common Elements are so taken, subject to any applicable provisions of the Declaration and Condominium By-Laws, such repairs or restorations shall not be made unless seventy-five percent (75%) or more of all Tower Unit Owners (and Declarant and/or Sponsor or their designees, if they shall then own any Tower Units), both in number and in aggregate Common Interests, shall promptly resolve to proceed with the same. In the event that a sufficient number of Tower Unit Owners shall so resolve, the repairs and restoration shall be performed as set forth above. Conversely, in the event that a sufficient number of Tower Unit Owners shall either fail or refuse to so resolve, subject to any applicable provisions of the Declaration and Condominium By-Laws, the repairs and restoration shall not be performed and the Tower Section shall be subject to an action for partition by any Tower Unit Owner or lienor, as if owned in common, in which event the net proceeds of the sale, and net proceeds of any applicable condemnation awards shall be divided among all Tower Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests, provided, however, that no payment shall be made to a Unit Owner until there has first been paid out of its share of such funds, such amounts as may be necessary to discharge all unpaid liens on its Unit (other than mortgages which are not Permitted Tower Mortgages) in the order of the priority of such liens. As used in this Article 9, the words "promptly resolve" shall mean not more than sixty (60) days after the date notice is given of such taking unless a longer period is provided for under the applicable provisions of the Declaration and Condominium By-Laws. Any dispute between the Tower Board and a Tower Unit Owner under this Article 9 shall be settled by Arbitration.

RECORDS AND AUDITS

10.1 Records. The Tower Board, or the managing agent therefor, shall keep detailed records of the actions of the Tower Board, minutes of the meetings of the Tower Board, minutes of the meetings of the Tower Unit Owners, and financial records and books of account with respect to the activities of the Tower Board, including a listing of all receipts and expenditures. In addition, the Tower Board shall keep a separate account for each Tower Unit which, among other things, shall contain the amount of each assessment of Tower Common Charges and other amounts required by the Tower Board to be paid in respect of each such Unit, the date when due, the amounts paid thereon and the balance, if any, remaining unpaid.

10.2 Audits. Within four months after the end of each fiscal year, an annual report of receipts and expenditures, prepared and certified by an independent certified public accountant or an independent certified public accounting firm, shall be submitted by the Tower Board to all Tower Unit Owners (and to all Permitted Mortgagees of Tower Units who have requested the same in writing). The cost of such report submitted by the Tower Board shall be paid by the Tower Unit Owners as a Tower Common Expense.

10.3 Availability of Documents. Copies of the Declaration, these Tower By-Laws, the Condominium By-Laws, the Tower Rules and Regulations, the General Rules and Regulations, if any, and the Floor Plans, as the same may be amended from time to time, shall be maintained at the office of the Tower Board and shall be available for inspection by Tower Unit Owners and their authorized agents during reasonable business hours and upon reasonable prior notice.

ARBITRATION

11.1 General Procedure. Except as may otherwise be expressly provided in these Tower By-Laws, the Condominium By-Laws or the Declaration, any Arbitration provided for in these Tower By-Laws ("Arbitration") shall be conducted before one arbitrator in New York City by the American Arbitration Association or any successor organization thereto, in accordance with its rules then in effect; the decision rendered in such Arbitration shall be binding upon the parties and may be entered in any court having jurisdiction; provided that, in the case of Arbitration of issues arising under Sections 6.4 and 6.5, any arbitrator shall be a real estate professional, having ten (10) or more years' experience in the field of Manhattan residential real property. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any Arbitration held pursuant to these Tower By-Laws with respect to a dispute which arose prior to the First Annual Tower Meeting shall be non-binding. In the event that the American Arbitration Association shall not then be in existence and has no successor, any Arbitration hereunder shall be conducted in New York City under the auspices of any other recognized arbiter panel, such as JAMS or NAMS. The decision of the arbitrator so chosen shall be given within ten (10) days after his or her appointment.

11.2 Costs and Expenses. The fees, costs and expenses of the arbitrator shall be borne by the losing party in the Arbitration or, if the position of neither party to a dispute shall be substantially upheld by the arbitrator, such fees, costs and expenses shall be borne equally by the parties to the dispute. Each disputant shall also bear the fees and expenses of its counsel and expert witnesses. Subject to the foregoing, all costs and expenses paid or incurred by the Tower Board in connection with any Arbitration held hereunder (including, without limitation, the fees and expenses of counsel and expert witnesses) shall constitute Tower Common Expenses.

11.3 Agreement by Parties. The parties to any dispute required or permitted to be submitted to Arbitration hereunder may, by mutual agreement between them, vary any of the provisions of Section 11.1 with respect to the Arbitration of such dispute, or may agree to resolve their dispute in any other manner, including, without limitation, the manner set forth in Section 3031 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules and known as the "New York Simplified Procedure for Court Determination of Disputes."

MISCELLANEOUS

12.1 Consents. Wherever the consent, approval or satisfaction of Declarant or Sponsor or its designee is required under these Tower By-Laws, such consent, approval or satisfaction shall not be required when there are no remaining Unsold Tower Units, the Building has been fully completed, a permanent certificate of occupancy therefor has been issued and neither Declarant nor Sponsor has any remaining obligations under the Offering Plan or otherwise.

12.2 Waiver. No provision contained in these Tower By-Laws or the Tower Rules and Regulations shall be deemed to have been abrogated or waived by reason of any failure to enforce the same, regardless of the number of violations or breaches thereof which may occur.

12.3 Captions. The index hereof and captions herein are inserted only as a matter of convenience and for reference, and in no way define, limit or describe the scope of these Tower By-Laws nor the intent of any provision hereof.

12.4 Conflict. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of these Tower By-Laws or the Tower Rules and Regulations, and those of the Condominium By-Laws, the provisions of the Condominium By-Laws shall control. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of these Tower By-Laws or the Tower Rules and Regulations, and those of the Declaration, the provisions of the Declaration shall control.

12.5 Certain References.

12.5.1 A reference in these Tower By-Laws to any one gender, masculine, feminine or neuter, includes the other two, and the singular includes the plural, and vice versa, unless the context otherwise requires.

12.5.2 The terms "herein," "hereof" or "hereunder" or similar terms used in these Tower By-Laws refer to these Tower By-Laws in their entirety and not to the particular provision in which the terms are used.

12.5.3 Unless otherwise stated, all references herein to Articles, Sections, subsections, subparagraphs or other provisions are references to Articles, Sections or other provisions of these Tower By-Laws.

12.5.4 Unless otherwise expressly stated herein to the contrary, all references herein to dollar amounts shall be adjusted from time to time, after the date the Declaration is entered into, to reflect any increase in the cost of living, as reflected by an increase in the CPI Increase Factor. The term "CPI Increase Factor" as used herein shall mean an increase proportionate to any increase in the cost of living from and after such date, as reflected by the change in the Consumer Price Index (CPI-U; All Items; 1982-84 = 100 standard reference base period) for New York, New York (or the smallest measured area including New York, New York), as published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, United States Department of Labor or, if the same ceases to be published, a commonly used substitute therefor reasonably selected by the Condominium Board.

12.6 Severability. Subject to the provisions of the Declaration, if any provision of these Tower By-Laws is invalid or unenforceable as against any person, party or under certain circumstances, the remainder of these Tower By-Laws and the applicability of such provision to other persons, parties or circumstances shall not be affected thereby. Each provision of these Tower By-Laws shall, except as otherwise herein provided, be valid and enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.

12.7 Insurance Trustee. The Insurance Trustee shall be a bank or trust company having an office located in the City of New York, designated by the Tower Board and having a capital surplus and undivided profits of $500,000,000 or more. In the event the Insurance Trustee resigns or is replaced by the Tower Board, the Tower Board shall appoint a new Insurance Trustee which shall be a commercial bank or trust company having an office located in the City of New York and having a capital surplus and undivided profits of $500,000,000 or more, subject to increase by the CPI Increase Factor. The Tower Board shall pay the fees and disbursements of any Insurance Trustee and such fees and disbursements shall constitute a Tower Common Expense. The Insurance Trustee shall hold all such proceeds in accordance with Section 254(4) of the Real Property Law of the State of New York.

12.8 Successors and Assigns. The rights and obligations of the Declarant and/or Sponsor with respect to the Unsold Tower Units as set forth herein shall inure to the benefit of, and be binding upon, any successor or assign of the Declarant and Sponsor or, with the consent of the Declarant and/or Sponsor, any transferee of two or more of the then Unsold Tower Units. Subject to the foregoing, the Declarant and Sponsor (or its designee or other holder of Unsold Tower Units) shall each have the right, at any time, in its sole discretion, to assign or otherwise transfer its interests in the Condominium, whether by merger, consolidation, lease, assignment or otherwise.

12.9 Covenant of Further Assurances.

12.9.1 Any party which is subject to the terms of these Tower By-Laws, whether such party is a Tower Unit Owner, a lessee or sublessee of a Tower Unit Owner, an occupant of a Unit, a Permitted Mortgagee, a member or officer of the Tower Board, or otherwise, shall, at the expense of any such other party requesting the same, execute, acknowledge and deliver to such other party such instruments, in addition to those specifically provided for herein, and take such other action, as such other party may reasonably request, to effectuate the provisions of these Tower By-Laws or any transaction contemplated herein or to confirm or perfect any right to be created or transferred hereunder or pursuant to any such transaction.

12.9.2 If any Tower Unit Owner or any other party which is subject to the terms of these Tower By-Laws fails to execute, acknowledge or deliver any instrument, or fails or refuses, within ten (10) days after request therefor, to take any action which such Tower Unit Owner or other party is required to perform pursuant to these Tower By-Laws, then the Tower Board or other party is hereby authorized, as attorney-in-fact, coupled with an interest, for such Tower Unit Owner or other party, to execute, acknowledge and deliver such instrument, or to take such action, in the name of such Tower Unit Owner or other party, and such instrument or action shall be binding on such Tower Unit Owner or other party, as the case may be.

12.9.3 If any Tower Unit Owner or any other party which is subject to the terms of these Tower By-Laws fails to execute, acknowledge or deliver any instrument, or fails or refuses, within ten (10) days after request therefor, to take any action which such Tower Unit Owner or party is required to perform pursuant to these Tower By-Laws at the request of Declarant or Sponsor, then Declarant or Sponsor, as the case may be, is hereby authorized, as attorney-in-fact, coupled with an interest, for such Tower Unit Owner or other party, to execute, acknowledge and deliver such instrument, or to take such action, in the name of such Tower Unit Owner or other party, and such document or action shall be binding on such Tower Unit Owner or other party.

12.9.4 If the Tower Board fails to execute, acknowledge or deliver any instrument, or fails or refuses, within ten (10) days after request therefor, to take any action which the Tower Board is required to perform pursuant to these Tower By-Laws or the Condominium By-Laws at the request of Declarant, Sponsor or its designee, then Declarant, Sponsor or its designee, as the case may be, is hereby authorized, as attorney-in-fact, coupled with an interest, for the Tower Board, to execute, acknowledge and deliver such instrument, or to take such action, in the name of the Tower Board, and such document or action shall be binding on the Tower Board.

AMENDMENTS TO TOWER BY-LAWS

13.1 Amendments by Tower Unit Owners. Subject to the provisions contained herein, in the Declaration or in the Condominium By-Laws with respect to amendments, modifications, additions or deletions affecting Declarant or Sponsor or its designee, or any Unsold Tower Units, the Commercial Units or the Commercial Unit Owners, any provision of these Tower By-Laws or the Tower Rules and Regulations may be amended, modified, added to or deleted by the affirmative vote of at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66-2/3%) in number and in Common Interest of all Tower Unit Owners; provided, however, that the Common Interest appurtenant to each Tower Unit shall not be altered without the written consent of all Tower Unit Owners affected thereby. Subject to the provisions contained herein, in the Declaration or in the Condominium By-Laws with respect to amendments, modifications, additions or deletions affecting Declarant or Sponsor, or its designee or any Unsold Tower Units, the Commercial Units or the Commercial Unit Owners, any such amendment, modification, addition or deletion shall be executed by the Tower Board, as attorney-in-fact, coupled with an interest, for the Tower Unit Owners, for the purpose of approving and executing any instrument effecting such amendment, modification, addition or deletion, which the Tower Board is hereby authorized by such Tower Unit Owners to do as their attorney-in-fact. Notwithstanding the foregoing and subject to the provisions contained herein, in the Declaration or in the Condominium By-Laws with respect to amendments, modifications, additions or deletions affecting Declarant or Sponsor, or its designee or any Unsold Tower Units, the Commercial Units or the Commercial Unit Owners: (i) no such amendment, modification, addition or deletion shall be effective without the written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) of a majority of the Tower Mortgagee Representative(s), if any (and, in the case of amendments having a material adverse effect on Permitted Mortgagees, without the express written consent of the Permitted Mortgagees of at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the affected Tower Units which are encumbered by Permitted Tower Mortgages); and (ii) the provisions of Sections 6.9 and 6.11 may not be amended, modified, added to or deleted unless eighty percent (80%) in Common Interest of all Tower Unit Owners affected thereby approve such amendment, modification, addition or deletion in the manner set forth above. Each duly adopted amendment, modification, addition or deletion to these Tower By-Laws shall be effectuated by an instrument recorded in the City Register's Office. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, if and to the extent the approval of the Permitted Mortgagees or Tower Mortgagee Representative(s) is required hereunder, such approval shall be deemed given when a Permitted Mortgagee or Tower Mortgagee Representative(s) fails to submit a response to any written proposal for an amendment within sixty (60) days after it receives proper notice of the proposal, provided the notice was delivered by certified or registered mail, with a "return receipt" requested.

13.2 Amendments Affecting Declarant or Sponsor. Notwithstanding any provision contained herein to the contrary, no amendment, modification, addition to or deletion of these Tower By-Laws, the Declaration or the Tower Rules and Regulations shall be effective in any way against: (a) Declarant or Sponsor, for so long as any of the foregoing is the owner of one or more Tower Units, or any Unsold Unit, unless Declarant or Sponsor, as the case may be, has given its prior written consent thereto; or (b) the holder of any present or future mortgage, pledge or other lien or security interest encumbering any Unsold Unit unless such holder has given its prior written consent thereto.

13.3 Amendments Affecting Permitted Mortgagees. Notwithstanding any provision contained herein to the contrary, no amendment, modification, addition to or deletion of Section 6.2.2 or 6.4, Article 7, or clauses (d) and (e) and the second sentence of Section 8.7, shall be effective as against the holder of any Permitted Tower Mortgage theretofore made unless such holder has given its prior written consent thereto.

13.4 Consents of Sponsor. The provisions of this Article 13 may not be modified, amended, added to or deleted, in whole or in part, without the consent of Sponsor or its designee.

13.5 Deemed Consent. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in the Declaration, Condominium By-Laws, or the Rules and Regulations, if any Tower Unit

Owner is notified in writing that its consent to a proposed amendment or modification to the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws, Tower By-Laws or the Rules and Regulations is requested, then, provided that such notice contains a copy of the proposed amendment or modification (and a statement in bold capital letters to the effect that if such Tower Unit Owner does not notify the sending party in writing within ten (10) Business Days after such Tower Unit Owner receives such notice (together with a copy of such amendment or modification), that such Tower Unit Owner disapproves such proposed amendment or modification, then such Tower Unit Owner shall be deemed to have approved such amendment or modification), if such Tower Unit Owner does not notify the sending party in writing within ten (10) Business Days after such Tower Unit Owner receives such notice (together with a copy of such amendment or modification), that such Tower Unit Owner disapproves such proposed amendment or modification, then such Tower Unit Owner shall be deemed to have approved such amendment or modification. The foregoing shall not apply to notices given to Sponsor or any other holder of Unsold Tower Units requesting the Sponsor's or such holder's consent to a proposed amendment or modification.

TOWER RULES AND REGULATIONS
ONE RIVERSIDE PARK CONDOMINIUM

No article (including, but not limited to, garbage cans, bottles or mats) shall be placed in any of the passages, public halls, vestibules, corridors, stairways or fire landings of the Building nor shall any fire exit thereof be obstructed in any manner. Nothing shall be hung or shaken from any doors, windows or roofs or placed upon the window sills of the Tower Section.

3. Neither occupants nor their guests shall play in the entrances, passages, public halls, lobbies, elevators, vestibules, corridors, stairways or fire landings of or serving the Tower Section.

4. No public hall or public elevator vestibule of the Tower Section (other than on those floors, if any, containing full-floor Tower Units, and in such case, subject to the conditions of the Tower By-Laws) shall be decorated or furnished by any Tower Unit Owner in any manner, except as otherwise expressly provided in the Tower By-Laws.

5. Each Tower Unit Owner shall keep his or her Unit (and any Tower Limited Common Element appurtenant thereto) in a good state of preservation and cleanliness, and shall not sweep or throw or permit to be swept or thrown therefrom, or from the doors or windows thereof, any dirt or other substance.

6. No window guards or other window decorations shall be used in or about any Tower Unit, unless otherwise required by applicable Laws and as approved by the Tower Board and the Condominium Board. Neither the interior nor the exterior glass surfaces of any windows located in any Tower Unit may be altered, colored or painted.

7. No radio, television or other aerial, satellite dish, disk or similar device shall be attached to or hung from the exterior of the Building and no sign, notice, advertisement or illumination shall be inscribed or exposed on or at any window or other part of the Tower Section except such as are permitted pursuant to the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws, the General Rules and Regulations (if any) or the Tower By-Laws or shall have been approved in writing by the Tower Board; nor shall anything be projected from any window of the Tower Section without similar approval.

8. No heat, ventilator or air conditioning device shall be installed in any Tower Unit without the prior written approval of the Tower Board; and no "window" air-conditioners of any kind shall be permitted.

9. All radio, television or other electrical or electronic equipment of any kind installed or used in any Tower Unit shall comply with all rules, regulations, requirements and recommendations of the New York Board of Fire Underwriters and governmental or public authorities having jurisdiction, and the Tower Unit Owner alone shall be liable for any damage or injury caused by any radio, television or other electrical or electronic equipment in such Tower Unit Owner's Tower Unit.

10. No mopeds, motorcycles, scooters or similar motorized vehicles shall be taken into or from the Tower Section. No bicycles shall be allowed in any of the elevators other than the elevators, if any, designated by the Tower Board or the Managing Agent for that purpose, and no baby carriages or any of the above-mentioned vehicles shall be allowed to stand in the passages, public halls, vestibules, corridors or other public areas of the Tower Section.

11. No Tower Unit Owner shall make or permit any disturbing or objectionable noises, odors or activity in the Tower Section, or do or permit anything to be done therein, which will interfere with the rights, comforts or conveniences of other Unit Owners or their tenants or occupants. No Tower Unit Owner shall play upon or suffer to be played upon any musical instrument, or operate or permit to be operated a stereo system, radio or television set or other loudspeaker in such Tower Unit Owner's Unit between 11:00 P.M. and the following 7:00 A.M., if the same shall disturb or annoy other occupants of the Building, and in no event shall practice or suffer to be practiced either vocal or instrumental music between the hours of 10:00 P.M. and the following 9:00 A.M. No construction or repair work or other installation involving noise shall be conducted in any Tower Unit except on weekdays (not including legal holidays) and only between the hours of 8:00 A.M. and 5:00 P.M., unless such construction or repair work is necessitated by an emergency or is being performed by or on behalf of the owner of any Unsold Tower Units, by Declarant or Sponsor.

12. No pets other than dogs, caged birds, cats and fish (which do not cause a nuisance, health hazard or unsanitary condition), shall be permitted, kept or harbored in a Tower Unit without the same in each instance having been expressly permitted in writing by the Tower Board or the Managing Agent and such consent, if given, shall be revocable by the Tower Board or Managing Agent in their sole discretion, at any time, with or without cause. Any pet constituting a nuisance shall be permanently removed from the Building within one (1) week after notice from the Managing Agent. In no event shall there be maintained in any Tower Unit more than two (2) pets without the consent of the Tower Board, which may be granted or denied in the sole discretion of the Tower Board, nor shall any bird, reptile, or animal be permitted in any public elevator in the Tower Section, other than the elevators designated by the Tower Board or the Managing Agent for that purpose, or in any of the public portions of the Tower Section, unless carried or on a leash. No pigeons or other birds or animals shall be fed from the window sills or other public portions of the Tower Section or on the sidewalk or street adjacent to the Tower Section. In addition to the foregoing, the following rules shall apply with respect to pets:

(i) Each Tower Unit Owner who keeps (or permits to be kept) any type of pet in such Unit Owner's Tower Unit shall be required to enter into an agreement with the Tower Board setting forth such other rules regarding pets as the Tower Board shall deem suitable and indemnifying and holding harmless the Tower Section, the Tower Board, all Tower

Unit Owners and the Managing Agent from all claims and expenses resulting from acts of such pet.

(ii) Pet owners must be respectful of those residents and guests who may be uncomfortable with dogs and all dog owners must wait for an empty elevator if requested to do so. A pet owner may be requested to muzzle certain pets when in public spaces or common areas.

(iii) Subject to approval by the Tower Board in each instance, the dogs weighing not more than seventy (70) pounds at maturity may be harbored in a Tower Unit (for purposes of this paragraph, combined units shall constitute a single Tower Unit).

(iv) Subject to approval by the Tower Board in each instance, no more than two (2) cats may be harbored in any Tower Unit at any time.

(v) No pet may cause conditions which are a nuisance to residents, their children, employees and guests, and the staff of the Building including, but not limited to defecation or urination in any common area of the Building, the grounds and plantings, the entrances; causing damage to property; aggressive behavior towards people and/or other pets; and, in the case of dogs, continuous barking. It is the pet owner's responsibility to clean up after their pet in the event of an "accident" and to advise the building staff immediately to prevent odors and minimize damage to the Building.

(vi) In no event shall any pet be permitted in any portion of the Common Elements unless carried, on a leash or in a container.

(vii) Subject to approval by the Tower Board in each instance, a Tower Unit Owner may install a fresh water fish tank with a capacity not to exceed fifty (50) gallons of water. For purposes of this paragraph, combined units shall constitute a single Tower Unit. No Tower Unit Owner will be permitted to install a direct hookup to the Building's water supply.

13. Service personnel, messengers and trades people with tools visiting or residing in the Tower Section may be required to use the elevators designated by the Tower Board or the Managing Agent for that purpose, for ingress and egress.

14. All service and delivery persons will be required to use the service entrance to the Tower Section as may be designated by the Tower Board or the Managing Agent. All packages, including, without limitation, those containing perishable items, delivered by outside personnel must be delivered to the area therefor designated by the Tower Board or the Managing Agent. Deliveries will be made from such area to individual Tower Units only by Tower Section personnel or as otherwise directed by Tower Section personnel. Such deliveries will be made only at such times as a Tower Unit is occupied by the resident thereof or an authorized person and said resident or authorized person is willing to accept delivery. If the Tower Unit in question is not occupied or delivery is declined, the package will be held in the designated area until the resident or authorized person returns or requests delivery, except in the case of perishable items which will be held in the designated area for no longer than twenty-four (24) hours. After said twenty-four (24)-hour period, the perishable item shall be disposed of by Tower Section personnel. Building personnel will not be responsible for packages held in the package room for more than seventy-two (72) hours. No large deliveries will be accepted for a Tower Unit Owner (or occupant of a Tower Unit) unless such Tower Unit Owner (or occupant) has made prior arrangements with the Tower Section personnel.

15. Trunks, heavy baggage, furniture, appliances and other large or heavy items shall be taken in or out of the Tower Section by the elevators designated by the Tower Board or the Managing Agent for that purpose, and/or through a designated entrance only.

16. No refuse from the Tower Units shall be sent to the below grade levels of the Tower Section except at such times and in such manner as the Tower Board or the Managing Agent may direct.

17. Water-closets and other water apparatus in the Tower Section shall not be used for any purpose other than those for which they were designed, nor shall any sweepings, rubbish, rags or any other article be thrown into the same. Any damage resulting from misuse of any water-closets or other apparatus in a Tower Unit shall be repaired and paid for by the Owner of such Tower Unit.

18. No occupant of the Tower Section shall send any employee of the Tower Section or of the Managing Agent thereof out of the Tower Section on any private business.

19. The agents of the Tower Board or the Managing Agent, and any contractor or worker authorized by the Tower Board or the Managing Agent and accompanied by an agent of the Tower Board or the Managing Agent, may enter any room or Tower Unit at any reasonable hour of the day, on at least one day's prior notice to the Tower Unit Owner, for the purpose of inspecting such Tower Unit for the presence of any vermin, insects or other pests and for the purpose of taking such measures as may be necessary to control or exterminate any such vermin, insects or other pests; however, such entry, inspection and extermination shall be done in a reasonable manner so as not to unreasonably interfere with the use of such Tower Unit for its permitted purposes.

20. Corridor doors, if any, shall be kept closed at all times except when in actual use for ingress or egress to and from public corridors.

21. The Tower Board or the Managing Agent shall retain a pass-key to each Tower Unit. If any lock is altered or a new lock is installed, the Tower Board or the Managing Agent shall be provided with a key thereto immediately upon such alteration or installation. If the Tower Unit Owner is not personally present to open and permit an entry to his or her Tower Unit at any time when an entry therein is necessary or permissible under these Tower Rules and Regulations, the Tower By-Laws, the Condominium By-Laws or the Declaration, and the Tower Unit Owner has not furnished a key to the Tower Board or the Managing Agent, then the Tower Board or the Managing Agent or their agents (but, except in an emergency, only when specifically authorized by an officer of the Tower Board or an officer of the Managing Agent) may forcibly enter such Tower Unit without liability for damages or trespass by reason thereof (provided that during such entry reasonable care is given to the Tower Unit Owner's property).

22. Complaints regarding Tower Section services shall be made in writing to the Tower Board or to the Managing Agent.

23. Tower Unit Owners shall not cause or permit any unusual or objectionable noise or odors to be produced upon or to emanate from their Tower Units or any public portions of the Tower Section.

24. No Tower Unit Owner or any of his or her agents, service personnel, employees, licensees or visitors shall at any time bring into or keep in such Tower Unit Owner's Tower Unit any inflammable, combustible or explosive fluid, material, chemical or substance except as shall be necessary or appropriate for the permitted uses thereof.

25. If any key or keys are entrusted by a Tower Unit Owner or by any member of his or her family or by his or her agent, servant, employee, licensee or visitor to an employee of the Tower Section or of the Managing Agent, whether for such Tower Unit Owner's Tower Unit, automobile, trunk or other item of personal property, the use of the key shall be at the sole risk of such Tower Unit Owner, and neither the Tower Board nor the Managing Agent shall be liable for injury, loss or damage of any nature whatsoever, directly or indirectly resulting therefrom or connected therewith.

26. Nothing shall be done or kept in any Tower Unit which would increase the rate of insurance of the Condominium, the Building, the Tower Section or any contents of any of the foregoing, without the prior written consent of the Tower Board. No Tower Unit Owner shall permit anything to be done or kept in his or her Tower Unit which will result in the cancellation of insurance on the Condominium, the Building or the Tower Section, or which would be in violation of any law. No waste shall be committed in the Common Elements.

27. Tower Unit Owners will comply with the laws, ordinances, rules and regulations of the City of New York or any other applicable governmental authority with respect to recycling of waste and refuse, including, without limitation, the separation of trash into "recyclable" and "non-recyclable" materials and/or categories of each of same. The Tower Board may designate from time to time the types of materials which must be separated for recycling, the types of containers or binding to be used by the Tower Unit Owners for the disposal of designated recyclable materials and the locations where designated recyclable materials shall be deposited. The Tower Board may also establish other rules and regulations regarding the recycling of trash. Any costs incurred by the Tower Board to enforce the Tower Rules and Regulations or the requirements of applicable law regarding the recycling of trash against a Tower Unit Owner, including, without limitation, legal fees, fines and penalties imposed by any government agency, shall be payable by the Tower Unit Owner as additional Common Charges. Tower Unit Owners will comply with the following procedures with respect to the use of the refuse chutes: (a) wrap dust, flour and powdered waste before depositing the same; (b) thoroughly drain and wrap in paper all garbage before depositing the same; (c) refrain from forcing large bundles into the chute; (d) crush into tight bundles all loose papers before placing the same in the hopper door; (e) deposit all bundles of waste into the hopper; and (f) refrain from depositing waste of an explosive or otherwise hazardous nature therein. Any refuse not disposable by depositing same in the refuse chute must be picked up directly from the Tower Unit by Tower Section personnel at such times and in such manner as the Tower Board or the Managing Agent shall determine.

28. Tower Unit Owners will comply with the laws, ordinances, rules and regulations of the City of New York or any other applicable governmental authority, including without limitation, those with respect to window guards and notices of emergency access and egress.

29. Tower Unit Owners, their families, guests, service personnel, employees, agents, visitors or licensees shall not at any time or for any reason whatsoever enter upon or attempt to enter upon the roof of the Building, except that each Tower Unit Owner of a Tower Unit with a Terrace (and such Tower Unit Owner's family) may enter upon the roof and use its Terrace for its intended purpose, in accordance with guidelines adopted by the Tower Section Board from time to time for such use.

30. The Tower Board shall have the right from time to time to relocate any portion of the Common Elements located in the Tower Section devoted to common storage (other than the Storage Closets) or service purposes of the Tower Section.

31. Unless expressly authorized by the Tower Board in each case, at least eighty percent (80%) of the floor area of each Tower Unit (excepting only kitchens, pantries, bathrooms, closets and foyers) must be covered with rugs, carpeting or equally effective noise-reducing material.

32. No Tower Unit Owner shall install any granite, ceramic tile, marble, stone or other hard-surfaced flooring in a Tower Unit without the prior written approval of the Tower Board and without compliance with the provisions of any alteration agreement then in effect. No granite, ceramic tile, marble, stone or other hard-surfaced flooring may be installed except within the original demising walls of the entry foyer, kitchen, bathrooms, pantry and laundry room and that no removals of floor slab materials may take place in those locations. The Tower Board may require installation of a sound retardant underlayment beneath such flooring and/or such other requirements as may be directed by the Tower Board's architect or engineer.

33. No Tower Unit Owner, tenant or occupant of a Tower Unit (other than the owner of any Unsold Tower Unit) shall conduct any group tour, open house, or exhibition of any Tower Unit or its contents or any auction sale in any Tower Unit, without the prior consent of the Tower Board or the Managing Agent.

34. In the event that any Tower Unit is used for home occupation purposes which are permitted by Law, in no event shall any patients, clients or other invitees be permitted to wait in any lobby, public hallway or vestibule.

35. Any consent or approval given under these Tower Rules and Regulations may be granted, refused, added to, amended or repealed, in the sole discretion of the Tower Board, at any time by resolution of the Tower Board. Further, any such consent or approval may, in the discretion of the Tower Board or the Managing Agent, be conditional in nature.

36. The Tower Board reserves the right to rescind, alter, waive or add, as to one or more or all occupants, any rule or regulation at any time prescribed for the Tower Section when, in the judgment of the Tower Board, the Tower Board deems it necessary or desirable for the reputation, safety, character, security, care, appearance or interests of the Condominium, the Building or the Tower Section, or the preservation of good order therein, or the operation or maintenance of the Condominium, the Building or the Tower Section, or the equipment thereof, or the comfort of Unit Owners, occupants or others in the Building. No rescission, alteration, waiver or addition of any rule or regulation in respect of one Tower Unit Owner or other occupant shall operate as a rescission, alteration, waiver or addition in respect of any other Tower Unit Owner or other occupant.

37. Notwithstanding any references to "Tower Unit Owner" in these Tower Rules and Regulations, these Tower Rules and Regulations shall be binding upon all Tower Unit Owners and all tenants, guests, invitees, and other occupants of the Tower Unit(s) of such Tower Unit Owner(s). Tower Unit Owners shall be responsible for enforcing compliance with, and liable for any violation of, the Declaration, Condominium By-Laws, General Rules and Regulations, if any, Tower By-Laws and these Tower Rules and Regulations by members of their families, guests, invitees, tenants, employees, agents, visitors and any other occupants of their Tower Units.

38. The public amenity and common facilities areas of the Tower Section shall be used in such manner, at such times and in accordance with such policies as the Tower Board or the Managing Agent may direct.

39. With respect to any lease (and lease renewal) which, pursuant to the Tower By-Laws, is subject to the Tower Board's review and right of first refusal, the fee for any such lease (or renewal of a lease) shall be determined by the Tower Board from time to time. Any such Tower Unit Owner that has entered into or renewed a lease with a tenant and has not submitted the lease (or lease renewal) to the Managing Agent will have thirty (30) days from the date notified by the Managing Agent to submit the lease or the renewal. In the event that any such Tower Unit Owner does not submit such lease or lease renewal to the Tower Board within such thirty- (30) day period, such Tower Unit Owner shall be subject to a $500 fine (subject to the CPI Increase Factor) and further action by the Tower Board.

40. All move-ins and move-outs as to any Tower Unit shall be scheduled with and coordinated by and through the Resident Manager for the Tower Section. Fees for Tower Section move-ins and move-outs shall be established by the Tower Board from time to time. In addition the Tower Board may require reimbursement for any expenses incurred by the Tower Board in connection with the move-in or move-out, as well as security deposits and such insurance, indemnities and/or releases on such terms as are determined by the Tower Board.

41. Any use of the Tower Section lobby, elevators, corridors and/or other Tower Limited Common Elements, outside the scope of typical and usual daily use, including without limitation for deliveries of furniture or other large items, shall be coordinated in advance with the Resident Manager and shall be subject to payment of fees, reimbursement of expenses, security deposits and such insurance, indemnities and/or releases, all as determined by the Tower Board.

42. When leaving the Tower Unit for extended periods of time Unit Owners and their respective Family Members, guests, domestic employees, agents, visitors, or licensees shall keep the Tower Unit at a maximum of 80 degrees Fahrenheit from May 15 to October 15 and shall keep the Tower Unit at a minimum of 60 degrees Fahrenheit from October 15 to May 15.

43. With respect to any Tower Unit to which there is appurtenant a Terrace, the following additional rules and regulations shall apply: All furniture must be "patio/terrace" furniture which is rust-proof; any planting/landscaping must comply with all Laws. Plants may not exceed the total weight allowance of 100 pounds. Plants maintained on Terraces shall be contained in boxes of wood lined with metal or other material impervious to dampness and standing on supports at least two (2) to three (3) inches from the adjoining wall. Suitable weep holes must be provided in the boxes to draw off water. In special locations, such as a corner abutting a parapet wall, plants may be contained in masonry or hollow tile walls which will be at least three (3) inches from the parapet and flashing, with the floor of drainage tiles and suitable weep holes at the sides to draw off water. It will be the responsibility of the Tower Unit Owner to maintain the containers in good condition, and the drainage tiles and weep holes in operating condition. Any damage caused by the Tower Unit Owner's negligence shall be at such Unit Owner's sole cost and expense. The Terrace must be kept clean and free from snow, ice, leaves and debris and all screens and drains must be kept in good repair. The Tower Unit Owner shall not remove any of the above items by putting them over the Terrace walls, but shall remove said items either through the apartment or through drainage where appropriate. No hanging of any items, including but not limited to banners, laundry, decorations, etc., from any Terrace wall, structure, railing or other temporary or permanent structure is permitted. No items, including but not limited to climbing equipment, bikes, pools, children's toys, etc., may be stored on the Terrace; any appropriate furniture including table, chair cushions and umbrellas may be left on the Terrace only if properly secured. No items can be placed on the Terrace parapet wall and/or railing. Terrace/railing may not be painted, cemented or changed in any fashion from original appearance. No carpeting may be placed on the Terrace. Lighting fixtures may only be plugged into regulation sockets. No satellite dishes may be placed on the Terrace. No animals, which include but are not limited to dogs, cats, birds, may be allowed on the Terrace.

44. Televisions, audio speakers and other noise generating equipment may not be hung on demising walls separating Tower Units as this could transmit noise from one Tower Unit to the next.

The sponsor of the condominium offering plan for the above captioned property retained us to review Schedule B (together with the notes thereto, the "Schedule") to the offering plan containing projections of common charges payable by the owners of the commercial units of the condominium for the fiscal year July 1, 2015 to June 30, 2016, the projected first year of condominium operation.

We understand we are responsible for complying with Article 23-A of the General Business Law and the regulations promulgated by the Department of Law in Part 20 insofar as they are applicable to the commercial units listed in the Schedule.

We have reviewed the Schedule as it impacts upon the commercial units and have investigated the facts underlying it with due diligence in order to form a basis for this certification. We also have relied on our experience in managing residential and commercial buildings in Manhattan.

We certify that the projections in the Schedule for common charges payable by the owners of commercial units appear reasonable and adequate under existing circumstances to meet the anticipated operating expenses fairly attributable to such commercial units for the projected first year of condominium operation, and that the allocation of common charges attributable to the commercial units also reflects the special or exclusive use or availability or exclusive control of particular common areas.

We certify that the estimates in the Schedule for the common charges payable by the owners of the commercial units:

(i) set forth in detail the projected common charges for the commercial units for the projected first year of condominium operation;

(v) do not contain any fraud, deception, concealment, or suppression;

REAL PROPERTY LAW SECTION 339-kk

§ 339-kk Real Prop. Rents.

(a) For the purposes of this section, "non-occupying owner" shall mean a unit owner in a condominium association who does not occupy the dwelling unit.

(b) If a non-occupying owner rents any dwelling unit to a rental tenant and then fails to make payments due for common charges, assessments or late fees for such unit within sixty days of the expiration of any grace period after they are due, upon notice in accordance with subdivision (c) of this section, all rental payments from the tenant shall be directly payable to the condominium association.

(c) If the common charges, assessments or late fees due for any unit have not been paid in full, within sixty (60) days after the expiration of any grace period of the earliest due date, the board of managers shall provide written notice to the tenant and the non-occupying owner providing that, commencing immediately and until such time as all payments for common charges, assessments or late fees are made current, all rental payments due subsequent to the issuance of such notice are to be made payable to the condominium association at the address listed on the notice. Where a majority of the board of managers has been elected by and from among the unit owners who are in occupancy, the board may elect not to require that rental payments be made payable to the condominium association. At such time as payments for common charges, assessments and late fees from the non-occupying owner are once again current, notice of such fact shall be given within three business days to the rental tenant and non-occupying owner. Thereafter all rental payments shall be made payable to the non-occupying owner or a designated agent. A non-occupying owner who disputes the association's claim to rental payments pursuant to this section shall be entitled to present facts supporting such owner's position at the next scheduled meeting of the board of managers, which must be held within thirty days of the date that such board receives notice that such owner seeks to dispute such claim.

(d) Nothing in this section shall limit any rights of unit owners or of the board of managers existing under any other law or agreement.

(e) Payment by a rental tenant to the condominium association made in connection with this section shall relieve that rental tenant from the obligation to pay such rent to the non-occupying owner and shall be an absolute defense in any non-payment proceeding commenced by such non-occupying owner against such tenant for such rent.

FORM OF STORAGE LICENSE AND ASSIGNMENT AND ASSUMPTION OF LICENSE

STORAGE LICENSE AGREEMENT

AGREEMENT made this ___ day of _____, 20__ (this "License Agreement") by and between 50 Riverside Blvd LLC having an office c/o Extell Development Company, 805 Third Avenue, Seventh Floor, New York, New York 10022 ("Sponsor"), the board of managers of the Tower Section of One Riverside Park Condominium on behalf of all Tower Unit Owners, having an address at 50 Riverside Boulevard, New York, New York 10069 (the "Tower Board") (together, Sponsor and the Tower Board are sometimes referred to as "Licensor"), and _____ having an address at 50 Riverside Boulevard, Unit ___, New York, New York 10069 ("Licensee");

WHEREAS, One Riverside Park Condominium ("Condominium") is governed by a certain Declaration of Condominium dated as of _____ ___, 201_, and recorded in the New York County Office of the Register of the City of New York on _____ ___, 201_ as CRFN _____, as the same has been or may be amended from time to time (the "Declaration"), the by-laws of the Condominium, as the same has been or may be amended from time to time (the "Condominium By-Laws") and the general rules and regulations of the Condominium, if any, as the same has been or may be amended from time to time (the "General Rules and Regulations"), the by-laws of the Tower Section, as the same has been or may be amended from time to time (the "Tower By-Laws") and the rules and regulations of the Tower Section, as the same has been or may be amended from time to time (the "Tower Rules and Regulations") (the Declaration, the Condominium By-Laws, the General Rules and Regulations, the Tower By-Laws and the Tower Rules and Regulations are collectively referred to as the "Condominium Documents"); and

WHEREAS, there are storage closets ("Storage Closets") that have been installed for use by permitted Tower Unit Owners, which Storage Closets are located on the Subcellar Level of the Building, which are Tower Limited Common Elements ("Licensed Area"); and

WHEREAS, Licensee, owns or simultaneously herewith is acquiring Tower Unit ___ in the Condominium; and

WHEREAS, Licensee desires the right to the exclusive (subject to the Condominium Documents) use of Storage Closet #___ for so long as Licensee owns a Tower Unit in the Condominium (the "License");

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the sum of $10.00 and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Licensor hereby grants to Licensee, its successors and assigns, a License for the exclusive use of Storage Closet #___ ("Designated Storage Closet") and Licensee hereby accepts such License from Licensor for a term commencing on the date hereof, subject to the terms and conditions of the Condominium Documents.

2. The Designated Storage Closet may only be used for storage purposes and in no event may be used as a dwelling space or for the storage of toxic or inflammable items or Combustibles (as such term is defined in the New York City Building Code). No materials which pose a health or safety threat or which otherwise create a nuisance may be stored in the Designated Storage Closet. To do so may result in a violation placed against the Building by the Building Department that will be the obligation of the Licensee to remove.

3. Licensee shall not: (a) store any property in the Licensed Area outside of the Designated Storage Closet; or (b) allow any other person to use the License except in accordance with the terms hereof.

4. Licensee will be required to pay a license fee to the Tower Board in an amount equal to $1 per month per square foot of the Designated Storage Closet, which amount shall be subject to biannual increases in accordance with the Tower By-Laws. Further, the license fee is otherwise also subject to change from time to time as the Tower Board deems necessary or appropriate.

5. The License may be assigned by Licensee at any time provided the assignee: (i) is a Tower Unit Owner at the Condominium, (ii) assumes the obligations hereunder in the form annexed hereto, (iii) notification of the assignment is delivered in writing to the Tower Board in compliance with its requirements as the same may be modified from time to time (which assignment shall require and shall be effective only upon the consent of the Tower Board but which the Tower Board shall grant provided the terms of this Paragraph 5 are otherwise complied with), and (iv) no outstanding monies are owed to the Tower Board by the Licensee and/or the assignee. This License shall automatically terminate without any action or notice by Licensor at such time as the Licensee no longer owns a Tower Unit in the Condominium unless this License Agreement is assigned to and assumed by another Tower Unit Owner upon or prior to the sale of Licensee's Tower Unit.

6. Licensee represents that it has made a thorough inspection of the Licensed Area and agrees to take the Designated Storage Closet as well as the Licensed Area in "as is" condition as of the date of this License Agreement. Licensee shall throughout the term of this License Agreement take good care of and maintain the Designated Storage Closet. All repairs and replacements to the Designated Storage Closet as well as the Licensed Area shall be performed by the Tower Board and the cost thereof shall be a Tower Common Expense (as defined in the Tower By-Laws), unless such repair or replacement is necessitated by the negligence, misuse, or abuse of a Licensee, then the entire cost and expense of such repair or replacement shall be borne by such Licensee.

7. Neither Licensor nor their respective agents or employees shall be liable for any theft or damage to any property stored in the Licensed Area and the Designated Storage Closet.

8. The terms of this License Agreement are subject to the terms of the Condominium Documents. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as limiting the rights and obligations of the parties under the Condominium Documents. Any conflict between the provisions of this License Agreement and the Condominium Documents shall be resolved in favor of the Condominium Documents.

9. If Licensee defaults in its obligations hereunder or under the Condominium Documents, the Tower Board may, in addition to the rights and remedies set forth in the Condominium Documents: (i) deny access to and use of the Designated Storage Closet until Licensee cures such default, or (ii) terminate this License Agreement upon written notice to Licensee.

10. The Tower Board or its agents shall have the right, but not the obligation, to open the Designated Storage Closet in an emergency at any time, and, at other reasonable times upon prior notice to Licensee, to inspect and examine the Designated Storage Closet and to make such repairs, replacements and improvements as the Tower Board shall deem necessary.

11. This License Agreement shall constitute a license only and shall not be construed under any circumstances to be a sale of the Designated Storage Closet or conveyance of title thereto. In no event shall a landlord/tenant relationship exist between the Licensor and the Licensee with respect to this License Agreement or otherwise.

12. Licensee shall indemnify and hold Licensor and their respective directors, officers, partners, parent and subsidiary and affiliated companies, agents and employees, harmless from and against any and all liabilities, claims, causes of action, damages, lawsuits, penalties, judgments, and liens, together with any related costs and expenses, including but not limited to reasonable legal fees, asserted against or sustained by any of them in connection with any act, omission, or negligence of Licensee or Licensee's family, servants, employees, agents, guests and invitees in connection with this License.

13. Licensee shall at all times maintain, in full force and effect, insurance covering both the property stored in the Designated Storage Closet as well as coverage for Licensee's liability with minimum limits of liability of $500,000. Licensee further agrees to a waiver of its insurer's right of subrogation against Licensor.

14. Licensee shall be obligated to reimburse Licensor for any legal fees and disbursements incurred by the Licensor in defending or enforcing the rights of the Licensor under this License Agreement or, in the event Licensee defaults under this License Agreement beyond any applicable grace period, enforcing Licensee's obligations hereunder.

15. Neither this License Agreement nor any provision hereof may be waived, amended, discharged or terminated except by an instrument in writing signed by the party against which the enforcement of such waiver, amendment, discharge or termination is sought and then only to the extent set forth in such instrument.

16. It is understood and agreed that all understandings and agreements heretofore had between the parties hereto are merged in this License Agreement, which alone fully and completely express their agreement and that this License Agreement supersedes any and all such understandings and agreements with respect to the subject matter hereof.

17. If any provision of this License Agreement is invalid or unenforceable as against any party or under certain circumstances, the remainder of this License Agreement and the applicability of such provision to other parties or circumstances shall not be affected thereby. Each provision of this License Agreement, except as otherwise herein or therein provided, shall be valid and enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.

18. Either party shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the other party such instruments and take such other actions, in addition to the instruments and actions specifically provided for herein, as such other party may reasonably request in order to effectuate the provisions of this License Agreement or of any transaction contemplated herein or to confirm or perfect any right to be created or transferred hereunder or pursuant to any such transaction.

19. Any failure by the Licensor to insist upon strict performance by Licensee of any of the provisions of this License Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of any of the provisions hereof, irrespective of the number of violations or breaches which may occur, and Licensor, notwithstanding any such failure, shall have the right thereafter to insist upon strict performance by Licensee of any and all of the provisions of this License Agreement to be performed by Licensee.

20. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or otherwise, from and after the issuance of this License: (a) Licensee shall look only to the Tower Board and not to Sponsor with respect to all obligations of Licensor, and (b) each of the Tower Board and Licensee shall have no recourse to or claim against Sponsor in connection with the License, the Designated Storage Closet or the Licensed Area.

PURCHASER:	_____ _____ _____ _____
UNIT:	Tower Unit ___ One Riverside Park Condominium 50 Riverside Boulevard New York, New York 10069
DATE:	As of _____ __, 201__

WHEREAS, Purchaser has agreed to purchase Tower Unit __ (the "Unit") at One Riverside Park Condominium, 50 Riverside Boulevard, New York, New York 10069 (the "Condominium") pursuant to an Option Agreement between Purchaser and Sponsor of even date herewith (the "Contract").

WHEREAS, Purchaser wishes to occupy the Unit prior to the closing of title to the Unit (the "Closing") and, subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, Sponsor has agreed to such occupancy.

NOW, THEREFORE, Purchaser and Sponsor hereby agree as follows:

1. Purchaser may occupy the Unit subject to the terms of this Interim Occupancy Agreement (this "Agreement") commencing as of _____ __, 201__ (the "Possession Date"); provided, however, that such occupancy shall not commence until Sponsor or Escrow Agent (as defined in the Contract) either: (a) receives a wire transfer from Purchaser in an amount equal to the Deposit (as defined in the Contract), or (b) receives a check from Purchaser in an amount equal to the Deposit and such check clears.

2. The term of this Agreement shall continue until _____ __, 201__, the presently anticipated Closing Date. Purchaser has no other interest in the Unit except as expressly set forth herein or in the Contract.

3. Purchaser shall pay Sponsor a monthly use and occupancy fee at the address set forth above, or at such other address as Sponsor may direct, in the amount of $_____, subject to the terms of Section 9 below; provided, however, that the first month's fee is due and payable as of the date hereof and shall be paid to Sponsor together with the delivery of this Agreement as executed by Purchaser, or as Sponsor may otherwise direct. Any additional monthly fee payment shall be due and payable on or before the first day of each subsequent month. At Closing, Sponsor and Purchaser shall make adjustments for fee payments on a per diem basis.

4. In the event that Purchaser defaults under the Contract, the same shall constitute a default hereunder, and Purchaser shall surrender the Unit to Sponsor in the condition s/he received same within ten (10) days after Sponsor's notice of Purchaser's default under the Contract (the "Vacate Date"), TIME BEING OF THE ESSENCE with respect to such Vacate Date.

5. In the event Purchaser remains in possession of the Unit beyond the Vacate Date, then Purchaser shall be immediately obligated to pay to Sponsor an amount equal to $1,250 per day (the "Per Diem Charge") beginning on the day after the Vacate Date through and including the date that Purchaser vacates and surrenders the Unit in the condition required herein. In no event shall any provision hereof be construed as permitting Purchaser to hold over in possession of the Unit after the Vacate Date or as limiting Sponsor's rights and remedies in respect of same, all of which are expressly reserved.

6. Without limiting any of Sponsor's rights contained herein, in the event that Purchaser shall fail to vacate the Unit on or before the Vacate Date, Sponsor shall have any and all rights at law, in equity or otherwise, to evict and/or remove Purchaser and recover possession of the Unit, and Purchaser hereby waives any and all rights to interpose any counterclaims, defenses, or offsets to such eviction action or proceeding or to seek a stay of the warrant of eviction issued therein.

7. If Sponsor brings an action or proceeding relating to this Agreement, at law or in equity, Sponsor shall be entitled to collect from Purchaser and Purchaser shall be liable to Sponsor for any and all actual third party costs and/or expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements and reasonable expert fees).

8. Purchaser shall be responsible for obtaining and paying directly for all utilities costs including, without limitation, all electric, gas, telephone and cable charges attributable to Purchaser's usage of such services in the Unit during the term, and Purchaser shall indemnify Sponsor for all such costs. The provisions of this paragraph shall survive the Closing and Vacate Date, as applicable.

9. As set forth in Paragraph 4 above, any default by Purchaser hereunder shall constitute a default by Purchaser under the Contract; provided, however, that with respect to a default in the payment of the use and occupancy fee following the initial payment, Purchaser's shall have the right to cure same within five (5) business days following the due date therefor. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, this Agreement shall automatically terminate upon the sooner to occur of: (i) the Closing or (ii) Purchaser's default hereunder (subject, with respect to a default in the payment of the use and occupancy fee following the initial rent payment, to Purchaser's right to cure same within five (5) business days following the due date therefor).

10. Purchaser shall not make any alterations, additions, installations or improvements to the Unit during the term of this Agreement, provided that the foregoing shall not be deemed to prohibit Purchaser from placing Purchaser's furniture and other personal property in the Unit during the term hereof. Upon the termination of this Agreement for any reason other than the Closing, Purchaser shall remove all such furniture and personal property, shall repair all damage caused thereby, and shall vacate the Unit in broom-clean condition. Any personal property not removed may, at Sponsor's election, be retained by Sponsor without compensation to Purchaser, or removed at Purchaser's expense. The provisions of this paragraph shall survive any termination of this Agreement.

11. Sponsor shall not be responsible for any damages arising from any bodily injury to Purchaser or Purchaser's guests or invitees or any damage to or loss of any of the property of Purchaser or of Purchaser's guests or invitees occurring in the Unit. Purchaser agrees to indemnify and to hold Sponsor harmless from and against any and all claims, suits, demands, judgments, and costs (including attorneys' fees) that may be made against Sponsor arising from or connected with Purchaser's occupancy of the Unit. The provisions of this paragraph shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

12. Purchaser agrees to maintain at Purchaser's sole expense personal liability, property and hazard insurance throughout the term hereof in amounts reasonably acceptable to Sponsor and naming Sponsor and the Condominium as an additional insured. During the term hereof, Purchaser shall comply with all laws, rules, regulations and requirements of governmental authorities and the Condominium pertaining to the Unit and Purchaser's use and occupancy thereof. Purchaser shall deliver insurance certificates evidencing such coverage to Sponsor prior to Purchaser's taking occupancy of the Unit.

13. Purchaser hereby agrees to accept possession of the Unit in its "as-is, where-is" condition for purposes of this Agreement; provided, however, that Sponsor agrees to deliver the Unit in broom-clean condition. Purchaser shall be liable for any and all damage caused to the Unit during Purchaser's possession thereof.

Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, the date of hand delivery or mailing shall be deemed to be the date of the giving of notice, except that the date of actual receipt shall be deemed to be the date of the giving of any notice of change of address. Any notice either of the parties hereto receives from the other party's attorneys shall be deemed to be notice from such party itself. A failure by Purchaser to acknowledge receipt of any notice, request, letter, consent or other communication hereunder shall not in any way invalidate such communication. Sponsor hereby designates and empowers both Selling Agent and Sponsor's counsel (Extell Legal Department) as Sponsor's agent to give any notice to Purchaser under this Agreement (including, without limitation, a notice of default) in Sponsor's name, which notice so given shall have the same force and effect as if given by Sponsor itself.

15. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as creating a landlord/tenant relationship between Purchaser and Sponsor. Moreover, this Agreement is not subject to the New York City Rent Law (rent control), the Emergency Tenant Protection Act of 1974, the New York City Rent Stabilization Law, the New York City Rent Stabilization Code, any rent regulatory scheme or code, rule or regulation promulgated under any of the foregoing, or any other rental protection laws.

16. This Agreement may not be modified or its provisions waived except by a writing signed by the parties hereto.

17. Terms used in this Agreement and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Contract.
