SPECIAL RISKS:

1. This Offering Plan provides that time is of the essence for Purchaser to cure any default under the Purchase Agreement within the applicable grace period. For further discussion, please see the section titled "Procedure to Purchase." Time is of the essence means that if any default is not cured within the applicable grace period, Sponsor may elect (but is not obligated) to cancel the Purchase Agreement and retain the Down Payment, with interest, if any, as liquidated damages. In the event that the Purchase Agreement is cancelled, the Sponsor will have the right to sell the Unit to others as though the Purchase Agreement had never been made.

2. Sponsor may have voting control of the Board of Managers if Sponsor and Sponsor-designees, as Unit Owners of Unsold Units, are able to cast more than fifty (50%) percent of the votes, or from two years from the date of the first unit closing, whichever occurs first. See Section titled "Control by Sponsor."

3. This Offering Plan provides that until Sponsor and Sponsor-designees convey title to units representing 75% of the common interest, Sponsor may exercise veto power over expenses except those expenses described in schedule "B" or over expenses required: (i) to comply with applicable laws or regulations; (ii) to remedy any notice of violation; or (iii) to remedy any work order by an insurer. Sponsor's power to veto other expenses ends 5 years after the closing of the first unit, or whenever the unsold units are less than 25% of the common interest, whichever is sooner. See Section titled "Control by Sponsor."

4. Any prospective purchaser who executes a Purchase Agreement and does not obtain financing may lose his or her deposit if he or she is unable to otherwise raise the monies for the balance of the purchase price. Prospective purchasers who require financing are advised to consult with a lending institution before execution of a Purchase Agreement. No representation is made by the sponsor as to the availability or cost of such financing. Purchaser's obligation to purchase his Unit is not contingent on securing financing, unless Purchaser and Sponsor execute a Financing Rider. Accordingly, each purchaser should inquire about the amounts, terms, costs, availability, and purchaser's eligibility for financing before signing and returning the Purchase Agreement in order to avoid the risk of losing his down payment. Any purchaser whose mortgage does not exceed 75% of the purchase price has the right to a Purchase Agreement containing a financing rider. For a further discussion, see section titled "Procedure to Purchase" and the Purchase Agreement contained in Part II of the Plan.

5. If purchasers have accounts at the same bank as the Sponsor's account that holds escrowed funds, purchaser funds at the escrow bank factor into the $250,000 insurance limit. It is a special risk that deposits in excess of $250,000.00 will not be federally insured in excess of $250,000.00. See Section titled "Procedure to Purchase."

6. Sponsor may, at any time before and/or after the Declaration is recorded, change the layout, size, or number of the Units, and reapportion, among the Units affected by any such changes, their common interest, and no material change will be made in the size or quality of common elements, except by amendment to the Plan, and when applicable to the declaration. Sponsor reserves the right at any time, except to the extent prohibited by law, before and/or after the filing of the Declaration, without prior notice and without consent of any Board, prospective Unit Owner or Mortgagee to change the layout of, the number of rooms in the use of, or the size of (by combining Units or subdividing them into two or more separate Units) Units and to reapportion the Common Interest among the Units affected by any such changes. No change will be made in the size or number of units and/or their respective percentages of common interest, and no material change will be made in the size or quality of common elements except by amendment to the plan, and when applicable, to the declaration. Unless an affected purchaser consents, no material change will be made in unit size, layout, or percentage of common interest if a purchase agreement has been executed and delivered to the Sponsor for that unit and the purchaser is not in default. Unless all purchasers consent, no material change will be made in the size, and no material adverse change will be made in the quality of the common elements. See Section titled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor."

7. The plan may not be declared effective unless bona fide purchasers (including investors) have signed purchase agreements for at least fifteen (15%) per cent of the residential units offered under the plan. Purchasers need not occupy the Units they purchase. The Sponsor must amend the Offering Plan if the Sponsor decides to offer less than the current number of Units or withhold one or more units for its own use.

Purchasers should note that in the current real estate market, banks and other lenders are imposing various restrictions on loans. It may be possible for a purchaser to experience difficulty obtaining a loan in a building or group of buildings where the Sponsor or holder of unsold shares has not sold a substantial percentage of apartments in the building or group of buildings, which in some cases may be as high as 70%. Moreover, some lenders will not provide financing in a building or group of buildings where an investor other than the original sponsor has an ownership interest of 10% or more. It also may be difficult for a purchaser to resell an apartment if prospective buyers are unable to obtain a loan due to the same minimum sales and investor ownership restrictions. See Section titled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor."

8. Owner-occupants and non-resident owners, including the Sponsor, may have inherent conflicts on how the condominium shall be managed because of their different reasons for purchasing, i.e., purchase a home as opposed to as an investment. Furthermore, if the Sponsor makes a bulk sale of all or some of its unsold units, the transferee successor sponsor is bound by sponsor's representations regarding its commitment to sell units. See Section titled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor."

9. The Sponsor has applied for partial tax exemption under section 421-a of the Real Property Tax Law. Although the Sponsor is applying for real estate tax benefits, it is possible that the Sponsor will not obtain those benefits. Sponsor will use best efforts to obtain 421-a benefits. After the eleventh year, the amount of the partial tax exemption will progressively decrease in value and after the fourteenth year, it will be eliminated. The Sponsor does not and cannot guarantee that the Condominium will actually receive tax exemption or abatement benefits. See Section titled "Real Estate Taxes."

As required by the 421-a Rules and Regulations issued by the New York City Department of Housing and Preservation ("HPD"), if the Plan has not been declared effective for filing at a time fifteen (15) months after HPD has issued the Final 421-a Certificate of Eligibility, as of such date, the Building and all Units as they become occupied shall become rent stabilized and subject to the rent stabilization laws applicable thereto for the entire period during which the Property is receiving 421-a Tax Benefits. As of such date, the Sponsor must register the Building and all Residential Units as they become occupied with the New York State Department of Housing and Community Renewal ("DHCR"). Any leases and renewals thereof to a Residential Unit that is required to be registered with DHCR shall contain a notice at least twelve (12) point type informing any such tenant that the Residential Unit shall be subject to deregulation upon the expiration of the 421-a Tax Benefit period and stating the approximate date on which such benefit period is expected to expire. If each lease and renewal thereof does not contain the aforementioned notice, then, the Unit shall remain rent stabilized after the expiration of the 421-a Tax Benefits until the Unit becomes vacant. During such rent stabilization period, the Unit shall not be subject to luxury decontrol. After any such registration of the Building and applicable Units with DHCR, the Plan shall be amended to disclose the rights of existing tenants.

A property which is granted a partial real estate tax exemption under Section 421-a of the New York Real Property Tax law and is to be converted to condominium use subject to an offering plan which is not declared effective within fifteen months of the issuance by HPD of the 421-a final certificate of eligibility becomes subject to rent regulation under the Rent Stabilizations Laws and Code ("Code"). The Code imposes registration requirements on owners and grants tenants the right to reside in the premises, provided that they abide by their lease terms, for the duration of the 421-a partial real estate tax exemption. Leases given to tenants must contain language advising of when the 421-a partial real estate tax exemption will expire. Tenant's rents cannot be increased over and above Rent Guidelines Board restrictions plus 2.2% annually. Further, an individual who takes possession pursuant to a lease with the Sponsor will have the aforementioned rights of continued possession and rent increase protection but a tenant of a unit purchaser unrelated to the Sponsor would not enjoy these protections.

Purchasers will not be entitled to rescission if the 421-a benefits are not obtained.

10. The Sponsor is transferring to the Purchaser the obligation to pay New York City and New York State Real property Transfer Taxes. For a further discussion, see the Section entitled "Closing Costs and Adjustments."

11. No bond or other security is given to secure the Sponsor's obligations under this Offering Plan. For a further discussion, see Section titled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor."

12. It is a special risk that, the square footage of the units are not based upon measurements from the interior surfaces of the interior walls of rooms and therefore, the usable area comprising the unit is significantly less than the area listed in schedule A.

13. Purchasers are advised that in New York City, newly constructed and newly renovated buildings are sometimes offered as condominium projects without a final certificate of occupancy ("FCO") covering the entire building but with only a temporary certificate of occupancy ("TCO") and sometimes with several successive temporary certificates of occupancy. Certificates of Occupancy are generally governed by Section 301 of the New York Multiple Dwelling Law and local building codes and rules. Both FCOs and TCOs are issued by the New York City Department of Buildings ("DOB"). A TCO is intended to indicate that the building is safe for occupancy, but means that not all of the construction work and/or inspections have been performed, or that not all of the required documents have been submitted to the DOB. All TCOs have an expiration date. A TCO typically expires 90 days after the date of issuance. When a TCO expires and is not renewed, it may be difficult or impossible to buy insurance, refinance or sell units. In New York City, it is common for sponsors to commence unit closings when some or all units are covered by a TCO rather than an FCO. Sponsor anticipates this scenario may occur. Sponsor and its principals will undertake the responsibility for extended each TCO received prior to the expiration thereof, and ultimately for obtaining a FCO covering the entire building within two years of the issuance of the first TCO. However, Sponsor and its principals make no representation or guarantee that DOB will issue the FCO within such two year period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, SPONSOR AND ITS PRINCIPALS ARE OBLIGATED TO PROCURE THE FCO FOR THE ENTIRE BUILDING, AND SHALL EXERCISE BEST EFFORTS TO OBTAIN THE FCO WITHIN SUCH TWO YEAR PERIOD WHILE KEEPING THE TCO CURRENT. Unit owners and the Board of Managers shall be obligated to cooperate with and refrain from obstructing sponsor in these undertakings.

Buyers are advised to visit the DOB website for further recommendations when purchasing a unit in a building that does not have a FCO. A Factsheet on Certificates of Occupancy is available on the DOB website at:http://www.nyc.gov/html/dob/downloads/pdf/co_ factsheet.pdf.

14. After the Offering Plan is consummated and the first unit closed, Sponsor retains the right to rent any residential units, which cannot be sold at least 90% of the offering price listed in schedule "A" . For a further discussion, see Section titled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor."

15. Each Unit Owner shall notify the Condominium Board or the Managing Agent, if any, in writing when a child, or children, under the age of eleven (11) years lives or resides (even temporarily) in the Unit. Each Unit Owner shall install, at such Unit Owner's expense, the required window guards (or safety "Stops" in lieu of window guards, designed specifically to prevent a child from falling out of the window) in all windows of the Unit in compliance with all applicable New York City administrative Code requirements. The Unit Owner should maintain all window guards (or stops) installed in the Unit and shall not remove same until permitted by applicable law and in any event, without prior written notice to the Managing Agent.

16. It is a Special Risk that a person who takes possession prior to closing assumes the risk of loss not covered by insurance.

17. The Sponsor is reserving the unconditional right to rent instead of sell units.

INTRODUCTION

1. The Property:

Sponsor presents this offering Plan with the intention of setting forth herein the material terms of the offering relating to the offering of condominium units at the premises located at 41-04 27th Street, Long Island City, NY 11101 (The Land, Building, and Appurtenant Interests are hereinafter sometimes referred to as the Property and/or the Condominium.) The Offering Plan may be amended from time to time to reflect changes in the terms of the offering by filing an amendment with the New York State Department of Law and serving the amendment on Purchasers and Unit Owners.

The Condominium will be organized pursuant to, is subject to and complies with Article 9B of the New York Real Property Law, as amended, commonly known as the New York Condominium Act.

The Sponsor is C.H. 41, LLC, a New York Limited Liability Company, with an address at 33-38 Farrington Street, Flushing, N.Y. 11354. The Sponsor acquired title to the property on July 16, 2013.

The Plan delivered to prospective purchasers contains all of the material terms of the transaction. Copies of the Plan and all Exhibits submitted to the Department of Law in connection with the filing of the plan will be available for inspection without charge, as for copying at a reasonable charge to prospective purchasers and their Attorneys at the site whenever the on site sales office is open and at the office of the Selling Agent or Sponsor.

2. The Building:

Sponsor is constructing the Building, which will consist of 9 floors and a cellar. Thirty-two residential units and five retail unit are being offered for sale.

The Common Areas are not offered for sale. The prices of the Units are stated in Schedule A. Sponsor shall obtain a temporary or permanent Class A residential Certificate of Occupancy, which shall cover each Unit prior to the closing of title to such unit. In the event that a permanent Certificate of Occupancy has not been obtained by such closing, Sponsor is subsequently obligated to obtain same.

The Building will be of Class 1D construction. The Building will contain a lobby vestibule, thirty-two residential units and five retail units Prices of the Units are set forth on Schedule A of the Plan. The estimated completion date is January 1, 2018.

3. The Units:

The Units are being offered as condominium units in accordance with this Offering Plan at the prices noted in the section titled "Schedule A." These prices have been established solely by Sponsor and are not subject to review or approval by the Department of Law or any other governmental agency.

It is the Sponsor's intention to sell all residential units. The Sponsor represents that it will endeavor in good faith to sell all units, rather than rent. If the Sponsor makes a bulk sale of some or all of its unsold units (twenty percent (20%) or more of the total number of units in the condominium, whichever is less), the transferee successor Sponsor is bound by Sponsor's representation regarding its commitment to sell units as well as all other obligations of the Sponsor . Sponsor is reserving the unconditional right to rent instead of sell units. _If Sponsor cannot sell a residential unit for 90% of the offering price after a period of Six (6) months, commencing on the date when the offering plan is declared effective, Sponsor may rent that residential unit. No residential unit may be occupied or rented until after the Plan is consummated and the condominium formed. The Sponsor shall at all times market the units through a licensed real estate broker, and in the event that the units cannot be sold at 90% of the initial offering price for a period of 18 months after the plan is declared effective, the Sponsor will sell the remaining units at the prevailing market price, even if lower.

The Purchaser of a Unit (Unit Owner) owns his or her Unit outright and is entitled to exclusive possession of that unit together with an interest in and right to use the common elements, and exclusive right to use limited common elements (the terraces in this offering). Each Purchaser will own his or her Unit similarly in many respects to the manner in which a private homeowner owns a home. (References to gender in the Offering Plan shall be deemed to be plural where the context so requires and shall be deemed to include any duly formed partnership, corporation, trust, estate, fiduciary, unincorporated association or any other entity permitted to own real property in State of New York.) A Unit owner is also the owner, in common with the owners of all other Units, of all remaining parts of the Property except for the Units themselves, including the Land upon which the Units are built, the exterior walls and the roofs (collectively, called Common Elements). Each Unit Owner's proportionate share (Common Interest) of the Common Elements has been determined pursuant to New York Real Property Law Sections 339-i and 339-m. Unit Owners must pay Common Charges in accordance with the New York Condominium Act, Real Property Law Sections 339(i) & (m). Any portion of the Land or Building, other than the Units themselves, which are for the use of one or more specified Units to the exclusion of all others are known as Limited Common Elements. Unit Owners have the exclusive right to use the limited Common Elements, which are appurtenant to their Unit.

Each Unit Owner must comply with the Declaration, By-Laws, Rules & Regulations, and other requirements of the Condominium Board of Managers.

The Board of Managers has authority to manage the condominium, and Unit Owners vote for the Board of Managers.

Each Unit Owner is generally permitted to mortgage his or her Unit on the terms and in such amount as he or she chooses. A Unit is not subject to the lien of any mortgage placed by any other Unit Owner on his or her Unit.

A Unit Owner can sell or lease the Unit to anyone subject only to a right of first refusal by the Board of Managers of the Condominium to purchase such Unit at the same price and on the same terms such Unit Owner has been offered. However, Unit Owner can sell or lease their interest in their Unit to their Family Members or their Affiliates, as the case may be, without being subject to the right of first refusal. In the event of a proposed sale or lease, the Unit Owner shall give the Board of Managers (i) written notice of his or her intention to sell or lease the Unit and whether the purchaser or lessee is a Family Member or Affiliate, (ii) a fully executed copy of the contract of sale or lease, and (iii) a fee to the Board of Managers and/or Managing Agent to cover reasonable legal and other expenses in connection with the sale or lease of the Unit. The sale or lease of a Unit owned by Sponsor, any Sponsor-designee, or any partner of any entity affiliated directly or indirectly with Sponsor, shall be exempt from such right of first refusal and from the notification and fee requirements. This right of first refusal is further described in the section titled "Rights and Obligations of Board of Managers and Summary of By-Laws."

A Unit can be occupied by the Purchaser of the Unit and/or any Family Member, principal, or employee of Purchaser or its Affiliates.

A Unit Owner can alter and decorate the interior of the Unit as he or she desires, subject to local codes. A Unit Owner is obligated for the cost of his or her own interior decoration, maintenance, and repair after closing.

The Condominium Board does not have the right to approve or disapprove purchasers. There is no limit on the number of owners who may purchase for investment rather than personal occupancy, and there may always be a substantial percentage of owners who are non-residents.

After each Unit has been separately assessed, each Unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes. A Unit Owner will not be responsible if any of the other Unit Owners fail to pay their real estate taxes. In the opinion of counsel for Sponsor, a Unit Owner, like a home owner, may deduct from his or her income for income tax purposes his or her real estate taxes and the interest paid on the mortgage encumbering the Unit(s) owned by him or her provided such Unit is used by the Owner as a principal or second home. Any purchaser who does not intend to use the Unit as a principal or second home should consult with his or her own tax adviser. The Board of Managers of the Condominium will assess charges (called Common Charges) against each Unit Owner for the Maintenance of the Common Elements and for the operating costs of the Property (called Common Expenses), as provided in New York Real Property Law Section 339-i and 339-m and as described in the subsection titled "Notes to Schedule B."

Gas, for heating hot water and cooking, and electricity, supplied to each Unit shall be individually metered. All charges for gas and electricity consumed or used in each unit shall be payable directly to the utility company.

As previously stated, each Unit Owner will be responsible for maintaining his or her own Unit and for making repairs within his or her own Unit. Each Unit Owner may obtain, at his or her own cost, casualty, and liability insurance in connection with his or her respective Unit subject to the terms of the By-Laws. As described in the Notes to Schedule B, the cost of maintaining and repairing the Common Elements shall be shared by all Unit Owners. Each Unit Owner shall have the same rights of access to, use of and benefit of the Common Elements. The cost of maintaining and repairing the Limited Common Elements (balconies), other than structural repairs, shall be paid by the Unit Owner or Unit Owners with exclusive access to the Limited Common Element. The Board of Managers shall have the duty of obtaining casualty and liability insurance on behalf of the Condominium.

The plan delivered to prospective purchasers contains all of the material terms of the transaction. Copies of the plan, all documents referred to in the plan and all Exhibits submitted to the Department of Law in connection with the filing of the plan will be available for inspection and copying at a reasonable charge at the Department of Law. Also, the plan will be available for copying at a reasonable charge to prospective purchasers and their attorneys at the site whenever the on site sales office is open and at the office of the selling agent or sponsor.

A Unit may be purchased by a natural person, corporation, partnership or limited liability company.

All equipment and fixtures contained in a Unit (including but not limited to stoves, refrigerators, and other appliances and fixtures disclosed in the Description of Property and Specifications) are included in the price of the Unit.

4. Board of Managers:

The Board of Managers of the Condominium shall be elected by the Unit Owners (including Sponsor and Sponsor designees as to Units owned by them) with the number of votes allocated to each Unit Owner determined by his or her percentage of Common Interest. The Board of Managers of the Condominium shall be elected by the Unit Owners (including Sponsor and Sponsor designees as to Units owned by them) with the number of votes allocated to each Unit Owner determined by his or her percentage of Common Interest. The Board of Managers shall have authority to manage and administer the affairs of the Condominium, including, without limitation, the determination of Common Charges and the adoption of Rules and Regulations covering the Condominium. Until Sponsor and Sponsor-designees convey title to all Units, but in no event later than five (5) years after the date of the First Unit Closing, Sponsor has the right to veto certain actions of the Board of Managers. Please see the section titled "Rights and Obligations of the Board of Managers/Summary of By-Laws" for further discussion.

5. Miscellaneous:

Units may be purchased either by natural persons 18 years of age or older or by a duly formed limited liability company, partnership, corporation, trust, estate, fiduciary, unincorporated association, syndicate, joint venture, organization, government or any department or agency thereof, or any other entity permitted to own real property in the State of New York.

Parts I and II of the Offering Plan, including all Schedules, and Parts A, B, C and D of the Exhibits submitted to the Department of Law, constitute the entire offering of these condominium units and are intended to disclose all the material terms of the transaction. Parts A, B, C and D of the Exhibits will be available for inspection without charge and for copying at a reasonable charge by prospective Purchasers and their attorneys at the on site sales office at all times such office is open. The Property will be improved and the building constructed in accordance with all applicable building and zoning laws and requirements, which apply. The applicable zoning resolutions are the zoning resolutions of the City of New York and the Building Code of the Building Department of the City of New York.

The entire project including all the units and the common elements will be completed on or about January 1, 2018.

The Property has a ground area of approximately 5,000 square feet. It is located on the southwest corner of 27th Street and 41st Avenue. Such escrow amount shall be released to Sponsor or its designee upon the obtaining of a permanent Class A residential Certificate of Occupancy covering such Unit and may be reduced from time to time based upon such architect's opinion of the remaining costs. There are balconies from third to ninth floors for residential units. There are terraces on the second floor for Residential Units 2A, 2B, 2C and 2D.

This space may not be legally used as a bedroom or living room and that to do so may result in a building code violation being issued for the building.

NOTES TO SCHEDULE A

1. The number of bedrooms and bathrooms is listed in column 1. This method of calculation is in accordance with the New York City Building Code. The floor plans are included in the plan in Part II. It is a Special risk that unit sizes are measured from the center line of walls separating units, and therefore, usable square footages is less than the square footages disclosed in schedule "A".

There are balconies for residential units from the 3rd through 9th floors. There are terraces for units 2A, 2B, 2C and 2D. This space may not be legally used as a bedroom or living room and that to do so may result in a building code violation being issued for the building.

2. Offering prices are negotiable and subject to change. See section titled "Changes in Prices or Units." In addition to the purchase price, Purchaser will be responsible at Closing for certain other expenses as explained in the section titled "Closing Costs and Adjustments." While general guidelines to certain expenses of Purchaser are approximated in such section, Sponsor in unable to approximate the total amounts which will be incurred by Purchasers because these will vary according to such factors an the cost and size of a particular Unit, whether mortgage financing in obtained and Purchaser's attorney's fees. Purchasers are advised to consult with their attorney as to the exact closing costs they will incur in purchasing their Unit.

3. The percentage of Common Interest allocated to each Unit is based upon the floor space and the uniqueness of each unit, which allocation is provided for in Section 339-i(1)(iv) of the Real Property Law. The aggregate Common Interest of all Units equals 100%.

4. These estimates are based upon the Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation, which was prepared for the fiscal year commencing January 1, 2018, and which appears in Schedule B of the Offering Plan. The actual first year of operation may be earlier or later than that year. These estimates do not include the cost of electricity or heat, which is consumed in each Unit. Electricity and heat used by each Unit shall be individually metered and billed to the Unit Owner by the utility company. Please see Schedule B-1 for individual utility charges.

In addition to these estimated Common Charges, each Unit Owner will be responsible for paying: (i) mortgage payments under any loan or loans obtained to finance the acquisition of his or her Unit; (ii) the cost of electricity and heat, supplied to his or her Unit; which electricity, shall be individually metered and billed by and payable to the utility company; (iii) the cost of painting and decoration of his or her Unit: (iv) the cost of interior repairs to and the maintenance of his or her Unit, including but not limited to, repairs to and maintenance of the exposed face of all walls, ceilings and floors and all kitchen and bathroom fixtures and appliances installed therein by the Sponsor pursuant to this Offering Plan; (v) the cost of any insurance that he or she obtains covering (a) furniture, belongings, equipment and other personal property and (b) liability to others for personal injury or property damage as a result of occurrences in his or her Unit; and (vi) real estate taxes. Unit Owners of Units with appurtenant Limited Common Elements are also responsible for the non-structural maintenance and repairs of such Limited Common Elements.

5. Projected Monthly Real Estate Taxes:

After the condominium is divided into separate tax lots, each unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate purposes and the unit owner will not be responsible for the payment of, nor will the unit be subject to, any lien arising from the nonpayment of taxes on other units. The projection assumes that the real estate taxes will be apportioned to the Units according to the proportion that each Unit's percentage of Common Interest bears to the aggregate Common Interest of all Units. No assurances can be given that this method of apportionment of real estate taxes will be used by the City of New York taxing authorities. The real estate taxes are based on an aggregate projected assessed valuation of the premises for the 2017/2018 tax year of $557,713. The tax liability from January 1, 2018 to December 31, 2018 is estimated at $72,000 assuming 421-a Benefits, and at $180,000 assuming that the condominium has no 421-a abatement. The tax rate used to calculate projected real estate taxes is 12.82%.

A property which is granted a partial real estate tax exemption under Section 421-a of the New York Real Property Tax law and is to be converted to condominium use subject to an offering plan which is not declared effective within fifteen months of the issuance by HPD of the 421-a final certificate of eligibility becomes subject to rent regulation under the Rent Stabilizations Laws and Code ("Code"). The Code imposes registration requirements on owners and grants tenants the right to reside in the premises, provided that they abide by their lease terms, for the duration of the 421-a partial real estate tax exemption. Leases given to tenants must contain language advising of when the 421-a partial real estate tax exemption will expire. Tenant's rents cannot be increased over and above Rent Guidelines Board restrictions plus 2.2% annually. Further, an individual who takes possession pursuant to a lease with the Sponsor will have the aforementioned rights of continued possession and rent increase protection but a tenant of a unit purchaser unrelated to the Sponsor would not enjoy these protections.

As set forth in, greater detail in the Section of the Offering Plan entitled "Tax Exemption Benefits" and in Part II, Exhibit I, Sponsor has applied for and received a Preliminary Certificate of Eligibility for a partial tax exemption under Section 421-a of the Real Property Tax Law. Sponsor anticipates that it will complete construction on or before January 1, 2018 and that the tax exemption benefits will commence January 1, 2018 and continue for up to fifteen (15) years.

The recorded valuation after completion of improvement is estimated to be $2,962,000 with a corresponding assessed value of $1,332,900.

The 421-a tax exemption would begin no earlier than January 1, 2018, and should continue for a period of fifteen (15) years, to be phased out at 20% per year for the last four years.

The projected tax deduction may vary in future years due to changes in the interest rate on the unit owner's mortgage (if any), the allocation of constant debty service payments to interest and principal, the real property taxes resulting from the expiration of real estate tax benefits, the assessed value, the tax rate or the method of assessing real property.

Please consult the sections of the Plan titled "Tax Exemption Benefits" and "Counsel's Real Estate Tax Benefits Opinion" for further discussion. As noted in the section entitled "Real Estate Taxes." See "Tax Exemption Benefits opinion" of Thomas E. Berinato.

If the Units have not been separately assessed for real estate tax purposes prior to the First Unit Closing, Sponsor will escrow with the Board of Managers an amount sufficient to pay real estate taxes for all units for six months from the first unit closing, or until the units are separately assessed, whichever is shorter. The Board of Managers will pay the real estate taxes from this escrow account as they become due and payable. At each Unit closing, real estate taxes will be adjusted between Sponsor and the Unit Purchaser through the end of the tax payment period within which the Closing occurs. If no separate Unit apportionment has yet occurred, such adjustment shall be on the basis of the percentage of Common Interest attributable to such Unit. See section titled "Closing Costs and Adjustments" for further discussion. It is a Special Risk that the Condominium may not receive real estate tax benefits.

6. Monthly Carrying Charges:

This figure is the sum of (i) projected monthly Common Charges and (ii) the projected monthly real estate taxes. In addition to the projected monthly Common Charges and any real estate taxes, the Unit Owner will be responsible for repairs to the interior of the Unit and separately metered electricity. If a Unit Owner obtains financing, the debt service on such financing will be an additional monthly expense. Under present law each Unit Owner, (if he or she itemizes deductions), will be entitled to a deduction for the interest component of any such debt service if the Unit is used as a primary or secondary home as well as for his or her real estate taxes. Any Purchaser who does not intend to use the Unit as a principal or second home should contact his or her tax advisor. See section titled "Opinion of Counsel."

7. Transfer Taxes

Purchaser is paying the Sponsor's transfer tax, a statutory obligation of the sponsor. The cost is 1.4% of the price if the price of the Residential Unit is 499,999 or less and 1,825% if the price of the Residential Unit is $500,000 or above. The tax is part of consideration on which the tax is based.

THE ACCOMPANYING NOTES, WHICH FOLLOW THIS SCHEDULE B, ARE AN INTEGRAL PART HEREOF AND SHOULD BE READ IN CONJUNCTION HEREWITH.

NOTES TO SCHEDULE B

1. Common Charges: ($167,700)

Common Charges represent each Unit's proportionate share of the Common Expenses.

2. Labor: ($40,000.00)

The condominium will have one part time super. In addition, principal of Sponsor will act as a janitor until such time as a Unit owner agrees to perform the service. This level of staffing complies with applicable housing and labor laws, which require that a multiple dwelling of nine or more dwelling units have a person who performs janitorial services that resides within one block or 200 feet from the dwelling, whichever is less, unless the owner resides in the building. (See NYC Administrative Code §27-2054) The prevailing rate for a full-time superintendent would be $48,000 per year which would require that there be an increase in the common charges to pay for the superintendent. They meet state minimal wages. The super will earn $20 an hour, he will have 12.4% Fica), 2.9% medicare, state and Federal withholding, working compensation, disability insurance in the amount of $50 a week paid by the condominium. Payroll tax rates per a week is $93.87.

3. Hot Water: ($5,600)

Electric Heat for the Units is paid for by individual unit owners. See Schedule B-1 for individual heating charges. Hot water is a common expense. It assumes usage of 3,200 therms per year at a rate of $1.75 per therm. It is based on a projection by Chang Hwa Tan, 194-02 Northern Blvd., Auburndale, NY 11358, on rates in effect on June 8, 2017. This projection includes sales taxes and a 10% inflation factor.

4. Utilities (Gas & Electric): ($13,700)

The cost of electricity and heat for the lobby and hallways, stair landings and exterior of the building will be a common expense. It assumes usage of 113,607 kilowatt hours per year at a rate of $.22 per kilowatt hour. It is based on a projection by Chang Hwa Tan, 194-02 Northern Blvd., Auburndale, NY 11358, on rates in effect on June 8, 2017. This projection includes sales taxes and a 10% inflation factor.

For projections of unit Owner's cost, see Schedule B-1 of this Offering Plan. Electricity will be supplied to the building by Con Edison.

It is not possible to predict how closely the budgeted figure or the estimated electric energy cost for each Unit will reflect the actual expenses for electricity to be incurred during the first year of condominium operation because such expenses will vary with the level of consumption and the cost of electricity. Electricity is generated by the utility company by means of fuel oil as the primary energy source. In view of fluctuations in oil production by certain nations of the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC) and unpredictable rate increases imposed from time to time by one or more members of OPEC, it is likely that the cost of fuel oil used to generate electricity will increase in the future. Consequently, it is likely that electric rates will increase, although it is not possible to forecast the amount or timing of such increase. It is believed that the projected figure should be sufficient to cover any reasonable increase in the cost of electricity resulting from the foregoing during the first year of condominium operation.

Cooking Gas and gas for Heating and Hot Water are paid for by the individual unit owners.

5. Water and Sewer: ($38,000)

This figure is based upon the water and sewer metered formula provided by the City of New York based on the rate on effect on June 8, 2017. This formula is based upon the number of families, tubs/shower stalls, toilets, and hose bibs. The charge for sewer frontage is based on 159% of the water charge. The estimate for water and sewer charges ranges for all usage is $25,500. This estimate was supplied by Chang Hwa Tan, 194-02 Northern Blvd., Auburndale, NY 11358 on rates in effect on June 8, 2017. This projection includes sales taxes and a 10% inflation factor.

6. Repairs and Maintenance: ($12,000)

The figure does not include maintenance and repair expenses within each Unit. Such expenses are the obligation of the Unit Owner. The budgeted amount is based on normal maintenance and repairs and is designed to cover normal maintenance and repair costs associated only with the Common Elements, such as interior repairs, roof repairs, repairs to exterior walls, foundations, windows, doors and locks, plumbing repairs, electrical repairs, janitor supplies and painting of common areas. The amount is based on the experience of the Managing Agent in managing a new construction Building of comparable size, quality, and amenities. The estimate is effective June 8, 2017. No provision has been made to cover the cost of any major capital expenditure. If such expenditure is required, each Unit Owner will be obligated to pay his or her pro rata share of such expenditure.

7. Legal and Accounting: ($7,000.00)

The legal and accounting expenses are for legal consultation, accounting and auditing. The accounting quotation is based on a fee quotation of $4,000.00 from Wei, Wei & Co., 133-10 39th Avenue, Flushing, N.Y. dated June 8, 2017. $3,000 is budgeted for legal services in the event the corporation desires to retain an attorney to attend the annual meeting, and for the provision of minor legal services (such as attending an annual meeting, or review of simple agreements) , taking no more than 15 hours to complete.

8. Insurance: ($20,000.00)

The Condominium must have public liability insurance at closing. The budgeted amount for insurance, provided by Prudent Insurance Brokerage, 39-01 Main Street, Flushing, N.Y. 11354 is for the following coverage's and is based upon premium costs from January 1, 2018 to December 31, 2018.

Type of Coverage	Amount of Coverage
Building, All Risk $1,000.00 deductible	$1,000,000
Comprehensive General Liability	$1,000,000 each occurrence $2,000,000 general aggregate
Fire Damage legal liability	$50,000.00
Bodily Injury/Property Damage Combined Single Limit
Directors & Officers Liability Not Included Each Occurrence

Total Premium of the above is estimated at $9,500 as of June 8, 2017. An additional $10,500 is being budgeted to cover any unanticipated increases.

The Sponsor represents that it shall initially provide on behalf of the Condominium at the Condominium's expense, to be effective at the First Unit Closing, insurance in the amounts and for the coverage as set forth above.

The following will be named insured on the afore-described property insurance: the Board of Managers, each officer thereof, each Unit Owner, each Permitted Mortgagee, Sponsor and Managing Agent. There will be no cancellation without notice to each of the named and additional insured.

Comprehensive general liability insurance includes coverage for bodily injury and property damage caused by objects falling from balconies or terraces, but does not cover Unit Owner for his or her own negligence.

Fire and casualty insurance includes coverage for damage to all Common Elements, including, without limitation, damage to all walls, ceilings and floors in the Units (other than those walls, ceilings and floors erected by a Unit Owner other than Sponsor) as finished by the Sponsor in accordance with the section titled "Description of Property and Specifications" and all kitchen and bathroom fixtures and appliances installed therein by Sponsor as described in said section. The property coverage will be written on a replacement cost agreed amount basis. This coverage will prevent the Condominium from becoming a co-insurer in the event of fire or other casualty.

Coverage for rent insurance, water damage, elevator collision, boilers and machinery, auto liability, garage keeper's liability and a fidelity bond is not included, and may be available for an extra cost.

The policy will contain a waiver of subrogation, a waiver of defense based upon the acts of the insured and Unit Owners and a waiver of any pro rata reduction if additional Unit Owners obtain coverage. Sponsor represents that the amount of insurance described above is adequate to cover the replacement of the Building in the event of loss and is adequate to avoid the Condominium association from being a co-insurer.

No coverage is provided for such risks as fire and casualty losses to the contents of each individual Unit, except stated above, nor does the coverage take into account any future replacements, improvements or additions to either the Units or the fixtures and improvements contained therein. In addition, no liability coverage for an individual Unit Owner arising from any occurrence due to his or her negligence Unit is included in the coverage described above. PURCHASERS SHOULD OBTAIN THEIR OWN INSURANCE FOR RISKS OF FIRE AND CASUALTY LOSSES.

In recent years, premiums for insurance (especially fire and liability insurance) have increased significantly. It is not possible to predict whether future premiums will continue to escalate at the sum substantial rate or will level off. Although the projection is believed to be reasonable, no budget item is warranted. For further discussion of insurance coverage, please see the section titled "Obligations of Unit Owners."

The terms of the insurance will provide that (1) each owner is an additional insured party, and (2) there will be no cancellation without notice to the Board of Managers.

9. Management Fees: ($20,000)

The building will be managed by Hong Dang Zhang, of 33-38 Farrington Street, Suite 3C, Flushing, N.Y. 11354. Mr. Zhang is a principal of the sponsor and will act as managing agent and building custodian until such time as the condominium board selects a new managing agent. For further description, please see the section titled "Management Agreement."

10. Contingency: $11,400

The contingency reserve, which is approximately seven percent (7%) of the budget, provides a fund for possible expenses not included in the projected budget or possible increases in one or more categories of operating expense beyond the projected amounts. There can be no assurance that such fund will be sufficient to pay for major capital repairs or replacement items, which may be needed within the first five years of condominium operation. If additional funds are required over and above these funds, it may be necessary to increase Common Charges or separately assess all Unit Owners. In the event of any material change in the budget, this Offering Plan will be amended.

Contingency is for additional and unexpected operating expenses. The reserve fund is for capital improvements.

At the First Unit Closing, Sponsor and the Board of Managers will apportion various items of operating income and expenses. If as a result of these apportionment's the net credit is in favor of Sponsor, such amount shall be paid by the Board of Managers, pursuant to a promissory note by the Board of Managers to Sponsor bearing no interest. The promissory note shall be paid by applying the one month's common charge paid by each Purchaser, at the closing of title to each respective Unit, as a contribution to working capital. Sponsor is hereby authorized to endorse the Working Capital Contribution checks payable to the Board of Managers over to Sponsor and to apply such payments to the promissory note without any further action of the Board of Managers. Because of this method of payment, these payments are not included in this projected budget, although they represent, in effect, payment of certain expenses reflected in this projected budget that have been prepaid by Sponsor. In the event that the funds in the contingency reserve are not sufficient to satisfy the promissory note, then the Condominium shall pay the promissory note in full no later than the first anniversary of the First Unit Closing. For further description, please see the section titled "Closing Costs and Adjustments."

IN THE OPINION OF THE BUDGET EXPERT, Shirley Yang of E Realty International Corp. (SET FORTH IN THE SECTION TITLED "CERTIFICATION OF SPONSOR'S EXPERT CONCERNING ADEQUACY OF BUDGET," IN PART II OF THIS OFFERING PLAN), THE PROJECTED RECEIPTS APPEAR REASONABLE AND ADEQUATE BASED ON PRESENT PRICES (ADJUSTED TO REFLECT CONTINUED INFLATION AND PRESENT LEVELS OF CONSUMPTION FOR COMPARABLE UNITS SIMILARLY SITUATED) TO MEET THE ESTIMATED EXPENSES FOR THE FIRST YEAR OF CONDOMINIUM OPERATION, ASSUMING SUCH FIRST YEAR TO BE THE YEAR COMMENCING January 1, 2018. THE FOREGOING BUDGET, HOWEVER, IS NOT INTENDED AND SHOULD NOT BE TAKEN AS A GUARANTEE BY ANYONE THAT THE ANNUAL COMMON CHARGES OR COMMON EXPENSES FOR THE FIRST OR ANY SUBSEQUENT YEAR OF OPERATION OF THE PROPERTY BY THE BOARD Of MANAGERS WILL BE AS SET FORTH IN THE SAID PROJECTED BUDGET. IT IS LIKELY THAT THE ACTUAL COMMON EXPENSES FOR THE FIRST YEAR OF CONDOMINIUM OPERATION WILL VARY FROM THE AMOUNTS SHOWN IN THE PROJECTED BUDGET.

SPONSOR HAS RESERVED THE RIGHT TO ENTER INTO SERVICE, MAINTENANCE, EMPLOYMENT, CONCESSIONAIRE AND OTHER AGREEMENTS THAT WILL BE BINDING ON THE BOARD OF MANAGERS ON COMMENCEMENT OF CONDOMINIUM OPERATION. HOWEVER, SPONSOR MAY NOT ENTER INTO ANY BINDING SERVICE OR MAINTENANCE CONTRACT THAT WILL MATERIALLY INCREASE THE FIRST YEAR'S ESTIMATED COMMON CHARGES.

COMPLIANCE WITH REAL PROPERTY LAW 339 (i).

The basis for projecting the share of expenses attributable to each unit is as authorized by Real Property Law Section 339(i)(1)(iv). The common element and share of expenses are based on floor space and "subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the condominium, the uniqueness of the unit, the availability of common elements for exclusive or shared use, and the overall dimensions of the particular unit"

The common charges payable by each unit owner are sufficient to cover the expenses attributable to such units.

RE: The Queens Boro Tower Condominium
41-04 27th Street
Long Island City , New York

Dear Sir/Madam:

I am a licensed real estate broker and property manager. I have been in the real estate business and been involved with all classes of real property for over 10 years.

I manage over 2,000 residential apartments and condominium units for numerous buildings located largely in Brooklyn and Queens.

In my opinion, the method used for assigning percentage of common interest to each condominium unit is provided in Section 339-i of the New York Real Property Law.

Real Property Law Section 339-i(1)(iv) authorizes the percentage of Common Interest allocated to each Unit to be based upon floor space, "subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the condominium, the uniqueness of the unit, the availability of common elements for exclusive or shared use, and the overall dimensions of the particular unit".

In my opinion, this method was properly used in determining percentage of common interest for the subject condominium.

COMMERCIAL UNITS

The common charges payable by the commercial unit owners are sufficient to cover expenses fairly attributable to such unit. The proposed uses of the Commercial Units are as retail stores. The method for projecting the share of expenses attributable to the Commercial Units are based on the ratio of the total square footage of all units divided by the square footage of the commercial units taking into consideration the location, etc. as authorized by RPL 339-i(1)(iv). The commercial Units are treated equally with Residential Units.

The commercial unit owners have certain rights or other obligations, which differ from those of residential unit owners. Commercial unit owners pay for their own water pursuant to a separate meter.

Commercial unit owners may not reside in their units, and they may only be used for the uses set forth in their certificate of occupancy. They cannot be used for other uses without the written consent of the Board of Managers. Commercial unit owners may not subdivide their units without the written consent of the Board of Managers and without compliance with all applicable laws.

The intended uses of the commercial units are as retail spaces. The pornography stores, massage parlors, drug treatment facilities, homeless shelters are not permissible. This difference in rights and obligation of the commercial unit owner will not have a material adverse impact on the Condominium.

CHANGES IN PRICES OR UNITS

1. Changes in Prices:

Sponsor reserves the right, at any time and from time to time before and after the recording of the Declaration, without prior notice and without the consent of any Board, Unit Owner or mortgagee, to change the price, including, without limitation, the manner of payment thereof and other terms of sale of any Unit, except that no such change with respect to any Unit for which a Purchase Agreement is then in effect may be made without the consent of the Purchaser. As set forth in the Notes to Schedule A, offering prices are negotiable and subject to change. The offering prices set forth in Schedule A must be changed by a duly filed amendment to this Offering Plan when the change in price is an across the board increase or decrease affecting one or more lines of Units or Unit models, or is to be advertised, or is a price increase for an individual Purchaser. Sponsor may, however, sell one or more Units to a Purchaser at prices lower than those set forth in Schedule A without filing an amendment to this Offering Plan. As a result of the negotiability of offering prices and the right to change them, certain Purchasers may pay or may have paid more or less than other Purchasers under this Offering Plan for similar Units. However, no change in price will affect the percentage of Common Interest allocated to a Unit.

2. Changes in Units:

Sponsor reserves the right (except to the extent prohibited by law) at any time and from time to time, before the recording of the Declaration, without prior notice and without the consent of any Board, Unit Owner or mortgagee, to (i) change the layout of, or number of rooms in, any Unsold Unit, (ii) change the size and/or number of Units or Unsold Units by subdividing one or more such Units into two or more separate Units, combining separate Units or Unsold Units including those resulting from such subdivision or otherwise) into one or more Units, altering any boundary walls between one or more Units or Unsold Units or otherwise and (iii) if appropriate, reapportion among the Units or unsold Units affected by any such change, their Common Interests. Notwithstanding the foregoing, unless the Purchaser consents thereto or unless such change will not alter the Common Interest of such Unit, no such change will be made with respect to any Unit for which a Purchase Agreement is then in effect and with respect to which the Purchaser is not in default provided, however, that all such changes to Units which are made shall be made only upon terms and conditions acceptable to Sponsor, in its sole discretion. The Common Interest of a Unit may change if there is a change in the ratio of the floor area of such Unit to the total floor area of all Units, reflecting, however, the substantially exclusive advantages, if any, enjoyed by one or more but not all Units in a part or parts of the Common Elements.

No changes will be made in the size or number of Units, and/or their respective percentage of Common Interest and no material change will be made in the size and quality of common elements, except by amendment to the plan, and when applicable, to the Declaration.

Unless an affected purchaser consents, no material change will be made in the size, layout or percentage of common interest if a Purchase Agreement has been executed and delivered to the Sponsor for that unit and the purchaser is not in default.

Unless all purchasers consent, no material change will be made in the size and no material adverse change will be made in the quality of the Common Elements. If there is a material amendment to the Offering Plan that adversely affects the purchasers, the sponsor must grant purchasers a right of rescission and a reasonable period of time that is not less than fifteen (15) days after the date when an amendment to the Offering Plan disclosing such material change is presented to exercise the right of rescission. The Sponsor must return any deposit or down payment to purchasers who rescind.

Before changing the size or number of Units, Sponsor or its designee or such owner or lessee of an Unsold Unit shall comply with all laws, ordinances, and regulations of all governmental authorities having jurisdiction and shall first obtain the approval of all authorities whose approval is required by law.

So long as the layout and dimensions of a Unit conform substantially to the Floor Plans, a Purchaser who is a party to a binding Purchase Agreement will not be excused from purchasing a Unit and will not have any claim therefor against the Sponsor by virtue of any insubstantial change or discrepancy in the Floor Plans.

If Sponsor agrees to provide short term purchase money financing to individual purchasers in the future, Sponsor must amend the plan to disclose the terms of the commitment and other relevant information pursuant to 13 NYCRR Section 20.3 (P).

INTERIM LEASES

The Sponsor may, if he chooses, rent units that are vacant after plan consummation before the closing.

Interim leases would not be subject to rent stabilization, rent control, or other rental protection laws. Any uncured default under the purchase agreement would constitute a default under the lease. Any uncured default under the lease would constitute a default under the purchase agreement.

Before the Sponsor may utilize the default under the lease to declare a default under the purchase agreement, the sponsor must either obtain an order of eviction or other judgment or order from a court or agency of competent jurisdiction against the lessee unless the lessee has vacated the unit.

If the interim lessee has to vacate the unit after a default under the purchase agreement or rescission of the purchase agreement by the lessee, he must do so within thirty (30) days.

No fees of any kind may be deducted from the Escrow Account, and the Sponsor shall bear all costs associated with the maintenance of the Escrow Account.

The Purchase Agreement:

The Purchase Agreement is included in Part II of the Plan. The relevant escrow trust fund provisions are included in the Escrow Rider to the Purchase Agreement, which must be executed by the Escrow Agent.

A unit purchaser shall be required to make a 10% down payment, which in the discretion of the sponsor may be reduced, but not to less than $1,000.

The Sponsor must comply with Section 71-a(3) of the New York State Lien Law, which requires that the initial advance pursuant to a contract of sale which by its terms provides for or is incidental to a contract providing for the construction on the subject real property of residential condominium unit, on property to be purchased shall, at the vendee's option, be deposited within five business days thereafter by the recipient in an interest bearing escrow account in a bank, trust company, savings bank, state or federal savings and loan association, located in this state. The sponsor may retain additional moneys paid for special work ordered by the Purchaser under the following circumstances:

a) If Purchaser did not close;
b) If Purchaser ordered some additional work;
c) If sponsor installs the additional material.

Within ten (10) days after a purchaser delivers an executed purchase agreement together with the required deposit, the sponsor must either accept the purchase agreement and return a fully executed counterpart of the purchase agreement to purchaser, or reject the purchase agreement and refund the full deposit previously tendered. If Sponsor takes no action within 10 days after delivery of the purchase agreement and deposit, the purchase agreement shall be deemed rejected.

Notification to Purchaser:

Within five (5) business days after the Purchase Agreement has been tendered to Escrow Agent along with the Deposit, the Escrow Agent shall sign the Purchase Agreement and place the Deposit into the Escrow Account. Within ten (10) business days of placing the deposit in the Escrow Account, Escrow Agent shall provide written notice to Purchaser and Sponsor, confirming the Deposit. Any Deposits made for upgrades, extras, or custom work shall be initially deposited into the Escrow Account, and released in accordance to the terms of the Purchase Agreement.

The Escrow Agent is obligated to send notice to the Purchaser once the Deposit is placed in the Escrow Account. If the Purchaser does not receive notice of such deposit within fifteen (15) business days after tender of the Deposit, he or she may cancel the Purchase Agreement within ninety (90) days after tender of the Purchase Agreement and Deposit to Escrow Agent. Complaints concerning the failure to honor such cancellation requests may be referred to the New York State Department of Law, Real Estate Finance Bureau, 120 Broadway, 23rd Floor, New York, N.Y. 10271. Rescission shall not be afforded where proof satisfactory to the Attorney General is submitted establishing that the Deposit was timely placed in the Escrow Account in accordance with the New York State Department of Law's regulations concerning Deposits and requisite notice was timely mailed to the Purchaser.

Release of Funds:

All Deposits, except for advances made for upgrades, extras, or custom work received in connection with the Purchase Agreement, are and shall continue to be the Purchaser's money, and may not be comingled with any other money or pledged or hypothecated by Sponsor, as per GBL § 352-h.

Under no circumstances shall Sponsor seek or accept release of the Deposit of a defaulting Purchaser until after consummation of the Plan, as evidenced by the acceptance of a post-closing amendment by the New York State Department of Law. Consummation of the Plan does not relieve the Sponsor of its obligations pursuant to GBL §§ 352-e(2-b) and 352-h.

The Escrow Agent shall release the Deposit if so directed:

(a) pursuant to terms and conditions set forth in the Escrow Agreement upon closing of title to the Unit; or

(b) in a subsequent writing signed by both Sponsor and Purchaser; or

(c) by a final, non-appealable order or judgment of a court.

If the Escrow Agent is not directed to release the Deposit pursuant to paragraphs (a) through (c) above, and the Escrow Agent receives a request by either party to release the Deposit, then the Escrow Agent must give both the Purchaser and Sponsor prior written notice of not fewer than thirty (30) days before releasing the Deposit. If the Escrow Agent has not received notice of objection to the release of the Deposit prior to the expiration of the thirty (30) day period, the Deposit shall be released and the Escrow Agent shall provide further written notice to both parties informing them of said release. If the Escrow Agent receives a written notice from either party objecting to the release of the Deposit within said thirty (30) day period, the Escrow Agent shall continue to hold the Deposit until otherwise directed pursuant to paragraphs (a) through (c) above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Escrow Agent shall have the right at any time to deposit the Deposit contained in the Escrow Account with the clerk of the county where the unit is located and shall give written notice to both parties of such deposit.

The Sponsor shall not object to the release of the Deposit to:

(a) a Purchaser who timely rescinds in accordance with an offer of rescission contained in the Plan or an Amendment to the Plan; or

(b) all Purchasers after an Amendment abandoning the Plan is accepted for filing by the Department of Law.

The Department of Law may perform random reviews and audits of any records involving the Escrow Account to determine compliance with all applicable statutes and regulations.

Waiver Void:

Any provision in the Purchase Agreement or separate agreement, whether oral or in writing, by which a Purchaser purports to waive or indemnify any obligation of the Escrow Agent holding any Deposit in trust is absolutely void. The provisions of the Attorney General's regulations and GBL §§ 352-e(2-b) and 352-h concerning escrow trust funds shall prevail over any conflicting or inconsistent provisions in the Purchase Agreement, Plan, or any amendment thereto.

Sponsor expects the first closing of a unit to occur on or about January 1, 2018. If such date is delayed more than 12 months or more, purchasers will be offered rescission.

3. Right of Rescission:

Purchasers will be afforded not fewer than seven days after delivery of an executed Purchase Agreement together with the required deposit to rescind the Purchase Agreement and have the deposit refunded promptly. The purchaser must either personally deliver a notice of rescission to the Sponsor or Selling Agent within the seven day period, or mail the notice of rescission to the Sponsor or Selling Agent and have the mailing postmarked within the seven day period.

Purchasers will be given an opportunity to review the Offering Plan and any filed amendments for at least three business (3) days prior to their executing a Purchase Agreement.

4. Mortgage Financing Contingency:

There is a financing contingency permitted under this Offering Plan. Thus, the failure to obtain financing will relieve Purchaser from his or her obligations under the Purchase Agreement, provided that the Purchaser complies with the terms and conditions of the Mortgage Financing Addendum. The purchaser must sign the Financing Contingency Rider in order to qualify for financing.

Under the terms of the Mortgage Financing Addendum, the Purchaser, shall have 45 days from the date of the Mortgage Financing Addendum to obtain mortgage financing (the "Commitment Date"). The maximum allowable financing is 75% of the purchase price. The Purchaser shall (i) make application within ten business days to an Institutional Lender for such mortgage loan; (ii) furnish accurate and complete information regarding Purchaser and members of Purchaser's family, as required; (iii) pay all fees, points and charges required in connection with such application and loan; (iv) pursue such application with diligence; (v) cooperate in good faith with such Institutional Lender to obtain such commitment and (vi) give Notice within ten business days to Seller of the name and address of each Institutional Lender to which Purchaser has made such application. Purchaser shall comply with all requirements of such commitment (or any other commitment accepted by Purchaser) and shall furnish Seller with a copy thereof within ten business days after receipt thereof. If such commitment is not issued on or before the Commitment Date, then, unless Purchaser has accepted a commitment that does not comply with the requirement set forth above, Purchaser may rescind the purchase agreement by giving Notice to Seller within 50 days after the date of the Mortgage Financing Addendum, in which case this contract shall be deemed cancelled and thereafter neither party shall have any further rights against, or obligations or liabilities to, the other by reason of this contract, except that the Downpayment shall be refunded to Purchaser within five business days. The purchaser assumes the risk that a commitment may expire or that the terms of the commitment may change prior to actual closing. If the purchaser's obligations are contingent upon obtaining a financing commitment, and the financing commitment lapses or expires prior to closing, and the purchaser has made a good faith effort to extend the commitment, Sponsor shall grant to such purchaser a right of rescission ten business days after expiration of the Commitment which to exercise the right. For purposes of this contract, the term "Institutional Lender" shall mean any bank, savings bank, private banker, trust company, savings and loan association, credit union or similar banking institution whether organized under the laws of this State, the United States or any other state; foreign banking corporation licensed by the Superintendent of Banks of New York or the Comptroller of the Currency to transact business in New York State; insurance company duly organized or licensed to do business in New York State; mortgage banker licensed pursuant to Article 12-D of the Banking Law; and any instrumentality created by the United States or any state with the power to make mortgage loans.

5. Notice of Closing of Title; Balance of Purchase Price:

After the Plan becomes effective Sponsor will fix dates for closing title to all units for which purchase agreements have been executed of not less than 30 days. Purchasers shall be given not less than 30 days' written notice of the closing of title to their Units. This notice period may be waived by Purchasers. The notice shall provide that the balance of the purchase price shall be due at closing of title. The notice to Purchaser shall also specify when Common Charges will be due and payable. AT THE CLOSING OF TITLE, THE BALANCE OF THE CASH PORTION OF THE PURCHASE PRICE MUST BE PAID BY (i) UNENDORSED CERTIFIED CHECK OF PURCHASER PAYABLE TO THE ORDER OF C.H. 41 LLC or (ii) UNENDORSED TELLER'S OR CASHIER'S CHECK PAYABLE TO THE ORDER OF C.H. 41, LLC FROM A BANK OR TRUST COMPANY, WHICH IS A MEMBER OF THE NEW YORK CLEARING HOUSE ASSOCIATION OR ANY SUCCESSOR ORGANIZATION. 6. Default:

If Purchaser defaults under the Purchase Agreement, Sponsor shall notify Purchaser in writing of such default and advise Purchaser that he or she has thirty days from the mailing date such notice within which to cure such default. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE

FOR PURCHASER TO CURE ANY DEFAULT UNDER THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT WITHIN THE APPLICABLE PERIOD. Time is of the essence, means that if Purchaser fails to make such payment when required under the Purchase Agreement, or fails to perform any of Purchaser's other obligations under the Purchase Agreement, than Sponsor may give notice to Purchaser of Sponsor's intention to cancel the Purchase Agreement thirty (30) days thereafter if notice is by mail. If Purchaser fails to cure such default by the expiration of said period, Sponsor may, at its option, cancel the Purchase Agreement by notice of cancellation to Purchaser. In the event of such a cancellation, the Sponsor may retain as liquidated damages all payments, including the Down Payment plus accrued interest if any, made under the Purchase Agreement.

7. Entry Prior to Closing:

Prior to the closing of title to a Unit, no Purchaser shall be permitted to enter the Unit without the prior consent of Sponsor. Purchaser shall have the right to enter and inspect such Unit within three (3) days prior to Closing but shall be obligated to make an inspection appointment with Sponsor. Under no circumstances shall Purchaser perform or cause to be performed any work in such Unit prior to the Closing.

8. Risk of Loss:

A purchaser will be responsible for losses not covered by sponsor's insurance. Prior to the first closing, the entire building will be insured by Sponsor and after the first closing the entire building will be insured by the condominium.

The risk of loss from fire or other casualty with respect to each Unit shall remain with Sponsor until the Closing for the particular Unit. A person who takes possession prior to closing assumes the risk of loss not covered by insurance.

PURCHASER SHOULD CONSULT WITH AN ATTORNEY AND/OR AN INSURANCE AGENT AS TO PURCHASER'S INSURANCE NEEDS.

9. Floor Plans:

The dimensions and layout of the Units set forth on the Floor Plans are approximate and may vary from the actual dimensions and layout of a Unit due to change in fenestration and/or other revisions deemed advisable by any governmental agency or as necessary due to job conditions. PURCHASERS ARE ADVISED TO EXAMINE AND MEASURE A UNIT PRIOR TO SIGNING A PURCHASE AGREEMENT FOR SUCH UNIT. Purchasers shall not be excused from purchasing a Unit pursuant to a Purchase Agreement so long as the dimensions and layout of such Unit substantially conform to the Floor Plans.

10. Notices:

Any notice or other communication required or permitted to be given under the Purchase Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been given if delivered personally or sent by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. All such notices and communications shall be deemed to have been received on the date of personal delivery or on the fifth day, after mailing.

11. Miscellaneous:

Any conflict between this Offering Plan and the Purchase Agreement will be resolved in favor of the Offering Plan. In no event may the Purchase Agreement contain, or be modified to contain, any provision waiving Purchaser's rights, other than the ability of Purchaser to waive his or her right to thirty (30) days' written notice prior to the Closing. In no event may the Purchase Agreement contain, or be modified to contain, any provision abrogating Sponsor's obligations under the Offering Plan or under Article 23-A of the General Business Law.

ASSIGNMENT OF PURCHASE AGREEMENTS

No Purchase Agreement is assignable without Sponsor's prior written consent.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF PLAN:

All Purchase Agreements signed by Sponsor shall be contingent upon Sponsor's declaring the Offering Plan effective pursuant to the requirements and terms of the Offering Plan. These requirements, stated below, must be satisfied within one year of the date the Offering Plan is accepted for filing unless the Offering Plan is amended so as to extend this period. The Offering Plan must be declared effective when Purchase Agreements have been executed and accepted by Sponsor for the sale of twenty (20) Units, which represents a minimum of at least eighty (80%) percent of the Units by percentage of common elements offered under the Offering Plan.

Sponsor also reserves the right to abandon the Offering Plan by duly filed amendment and by filing a notice of abandonment on Form RS-3 at any time prior to the First Unit Closing for any defect in title which cannot be cured without litigation or cannot be cured for less than one-half of one percent of the total offering amount, or for substantial damage or destruction of any portion of the Building by fire or other casualty which cannot be repaired for less than one half of one per cent of the total offering amount (as estimated by the insurance adjuster retained by Sponsor), or the taking of any material portion of the Property by condemnation or eminent domain. If abandoned, the Offering Plan shall be abandoned by amendment filed with the Department of Law in appropriate form and by filing with the Department of Law a notice of abandonment (Form RS-3). Such amendment and notice of abandonment shall explain the basis for abandonment and must state how any funds received pursuant to the Offering Plan will be distributed. (n) Violations noted or issued of record after the First Unit Closing by any governmental authority. Any violation, which Sponsor is obligated to remove, will not be an objection to closing, provided Sponsor agrees in writing with the Board of Managers to remove same of record;

(d) New York State Transfer Tax and New York City Real Property Transfer Tax computed as follows:

$$\text{Tax Liability} = \frac{\text{tax rate}}{100\% - \text{tax rate}} \times \text{Purchase Price}$$

The New York State Transfer Tax is computed at the rate of $2.00 per each $500.00 of consideration or any fraction thereof that is $100 or more and New York City Real Property Transfer Tax at the rate of 1% of the purchase price of the Unit, if the price is under $500,000 and 1.425% of the price if the price is above or equal to $500,000 plus a recording fee of $75.00 for the New York City Real Property Tax Form.

It is customary in real estate transactions, other than condominium transactions, for seller to pay these transfer taxes. In condominium transactions, either the seller or the purchaser can pay these transfer taxes. The obligation is assumed by a purchaser if such obligation is imposed on the purchaser by the terms of the sale. Under the Offering Plan and the Purchase Agreement, Purchasers are required to pay these taxes as a closing cost.

Payment of transfer tax by the Purchaser is an additional consideration on which tax is based.

(e) Contribution to working capital fund in the amount of $500.00 per Unit payable to the Board of Managers.

(f) If a mortgage loan is obtained from a lending institution, Purchaser will be responsible for the following costs, if any:

(i) Legal fees of the lending institution's attorney;

(ii) Mortgagee insurance policy costs for a mortgage title insurance policy naming lending institution as the insured, if applicable. Mortgagee insurance rates as quoted by Federal Standard Abstract as of the date of this Offering Plan are as follows: thirty (30%) per cent of the amount paid for the owners title insurance provided lenders coverage is procured simultaneous with owners coverage; if not purchased together with owners coverage, then $318 for the first $35,000 of the purchase price, plus $5.13 for each additional $1,000 or fraction thereof up to $50,000 and $4.19 for each additional $1,000 or fraction thereof of the purchase price, up to $100,000; plus $3.36 for each additional $1,000 or fraction thereof of the purchase price, up to $500,000; plus $3.06 for each additional $1,000 of purchase price up to $1,000,000; plus $2.82 for each additional $1,000 of purchase price or fraction thereof up to $5,000,000;

(iii) Mortgage recording tax of 1.8% percent of the amount of the mortgage actually executed by Purchaser if that mortgage is under $500,000 and 2.8% of the amount of the mortgage if the mortgage is equal to or exceeds $500,000. Purchaser is required to pay the above specified rate of tax less $25 and the lending institution is required to pay ¼ of the tax. Purchaser will reimburse Sponsor at closing a sum equal to the entire mortgage tax credit pursuant to Section 339-ee(2) of the New York Real Property Law;

(iv) Recording fee of approximately $200.00 for recording the mortgage;

(v) Commitment fee, origination fee, Appraisal fee, application fee, credit fee, and other closing costs and expenses, if any, charged by the lending institution;

(g) Attorney's fees; and

(h) $700 fee to the Sponsor's attorney, for preparation of closing documents and attendance at closing, with an additional $150 fee if the closing occurs outside of such attorney's office;

(1) mortgage tax credit equivalent to Sponsor equal to the amount that the Purchaser's mortgage tax, if any, is reduced by virtue of the credit Purchaser receives by virtue of the Sponsor's construction loan.

Purchaser will pay to the Board of Managers, in advance, the monthly Common Charges allocable to Purchaser's Unit. Common Charges assessed during the month in which title closes shall be adjusted with Sponsor as of midnight preceding the Closing, provided, however, that Sponsor shall be reimbursed by Purchaser for the cost of any Common Charges which Sponsor was obligated to pay to the Board of Managers as a result of any unauthorized delay in Closing by Purchaser. The amount of such Common Charges to be assessed against each Unit will be fixed by the Board of Managers. Common Charges to be initially assessed are expected to conform to those shown on Schedule A.

Purchaser will not pay water and sewer charges. Water and sewer charges will be adjusted between Sponsor and the Board of Managers as of midnight preceding the First Unit Closing.

If the Units have not been separately assessed for real estate tax purposes prior to the first Unit Closing, Sponsor shall determine the amount equal to the unpaid real estate taxes which will be levied against the Units for the period of six months from the first Unit Closing and shall place such amount in escrow with the Board of Managers for such six-month period or until the Units are separately assessed, whichever is shorter. The Board will pay the real estate taxes from this escrow account as they become due and payable. Sponsor is entitled to reimbursement from Unit Owners (i) on the basis of Common Interest attributable to their respective interests if no separate Unit apportionment has occurred or (ii) on the basis of actual apportionment if tax lots have been apportioned. When the Units are separately assessed, any balance, with interest, in the escrow account will be returned to the Board. At Unit closings each Purchaser shall adjust real estate taxes with Sponsor from midnight preceding the date of the Unit closing through the end of the tax payment period within which the closing date occurs. If no separate Unit apportionment has yet occurred, such adjustment shall be on the basis of the percentage of Common Interest attributable to such Unit. When the tax lots are apportioned, if a subsequent adjustment needs to be made to correct any discrepancy between adjustment on the basis of the percentage of Common Interest and adjustment on the basis of actual apportionment, it shall be made at that time.

The amount of the real estate taxes will be included in each post-closing amendment to the Plan.

The following is a numerical example of the closing costs for a typical unit. Assuming that the purchaser pays $616,000 for Unit 3B and obtains a $300,000 mortgage from a lender, he or she would pay the following:

Buyer's Title Insurance	$ 2,758.00

RIGHTS & OBLIGATION OF SPONSOR

It is the sponsor's obligation to defend any suits or proceedings arising out of sponsor's acts or omissions and to indemnify the board of managers and the unit owners.

All representations under the offering plan, all obligations pursuant to the General Business Law, and such additional obligations under the offering plan which are to be performed subsequent to the closing date will survive delivery of the deed.

Sponsor may not Disclaim or limit Sponsor's liability or that of its principals for failure to perform any obligation imposed by applicable statute or regulation.

Sponsor agrees to pay all common charges, special assessments and real estate taxes with respect to unsold units. Sponsor represents that it has the financial resources to meet its obligations with respect to unsold units. The means by which it will fund its financial obligations to the condominium are from the sale of units and the personal funds of the Sponsor and its principals.

No bond or other security has been posted to secure sponsor's obligations. See section titled "Special Risks".

The sponsor is obligated to completely repair any damage from a casualty or other cause that occurs before the closing of a purchaser's unit, even if that damage occurs while the purchaser is in possession pursuant to an interim lease prior to closing. If such damage is not repaired the Purchaser may rescind the Purchase agreement and receive a refund of the down payment.

The sponsor shall procure fire and casualty insurance pursuant to an agreed amount replacement value policy or in an amount sufficient to avoid co-insurance, as reflected in Schedule B.

In the event of the dissolution or liquidation of the sponsor or the transfer of ten (10) or more units or twenty percent (20%) or more of the total number of units in the condominium, whichever is less, the principals of the sponsor will provide financially responsible entities or individuals who will assume the status and all of the obligations of the sponsor for those units under the offering plan, applicable laws or regulations.

The sponsor is not using construction financing.

The sponsor must build and complete the condominium in accordance with the building plans and specifications identified in the plan. The sponsor has the right to substitute equipment or materials and make modifications of layout or design, provided however, that sponsor may not: (i) substitute equipment or materials of lesser quality or design; or (ii) change the size, location of buildings or units other improvements or common elements if such changes affect the percentage of common interests or adversely affect the value of any unit to which title has closed or for which a purchase agreement has been executed and is in effect unless all affected unit owners and contract vendees consent in writing to such change.

Prior to closing the first unit, sponsor must obtain a permanent certificate of occupancy for the property or, alternatively, obtain a temporary or partial certificate of occupancy for the unit or the building in which the unit to be closed is located. The sponsor and its principals must obtain a permanent certificate of occupancy for the property within three months after closing the first unit. Sponsor must obtain the permanent certificate of occupancy before the partial or temporary certificate of occupancy expires, unless extended.

Purchasers are advised that in New York City, newly constructed and newly renovated buildings are sometimes offered as condominium projects without a final certificate of occupancy ("FCO") covering the entire building but with only a temporary certificate of occupancy ("TCO") and sometimes with several successive temporary certificates of occupancy. Certificates of Occupancy are generally governed by Section 301 of the New York Multiple Dwelling Law and local building codes and rules. Both FCOs and TCOs are issued by the New York City Department of Buildings ("DOB"). A TCO is intended to indicate that the building is safe for occupancy, but means that not all of the construction work and/or inspections have been performed, or that not all of the required documents have been submitted to the DOB. All TCOs have an expiration date. A TCO typically expires 90 days after the date of issuance. When a TCO expires and is not renewed, it may be difficult or impossible to buy insurance, refinance or sell units. In New York City, it is common for sponsors to commence unit closings when some or all units are covered by a TCO rather than an FCO. Sponsor anticipates this scenario may occur. Sponsor and its principals will undertake the responsibility for extended each TCO received prior to the expiration thereof, and ultimately for obtaining a FCO covering the entire building within two years of the issuance of the first TCO. However, Sponsor and its principals make no representation or guarantee that DOB will issue the FCO within such two year period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, SPONSOR AND ITS PRINCIPALS ARE OBLIGATED TO PROCURE THE FCO FOR THE ENTIRE BUILDING, AND SHALL EXERCISE BEST EFFORTS TO OBTAIN THE FCO WITHIN SUCH TWO YEAR PERIOD WHILE KEEPING THE TCO CURRENT. Unit owners and the Board of Managers shall be obligated to cooperate with and refrain from obstructing sponsor in these undertakings.

Buyers are advised to visit the DOB website for further recommendations when purchasing a unit in a building that does not have a FCO. A Factsheet on Certificates of Occupancy is available on the DOB website at:http://www.nyc.gov/html/dob/downloads/pdf/co__ factsheet.pdf.

If the first closing takes place prior to the issuance of a permanent certificate of occupancy for the property;

Sponsor is required to maintain all deposits and funds in the special escrow account required by GBL Section 352-e(2-b) unless the sponsor's engineer, architect or other qualified expert certifies that a lesser amount will be reasonably necessary to complete the work needed to obtain a permanent certificate of occupancy, in which case the sum exceeding the amount so certified by the sponsor's engineer, architect or other qualified expert may be released from the special escrow account. Alternatively, sponsor must deposit with an escrow agent an unconditional, irrevocable letter of credit, post a surety bond in the amount so certified, or provide other collateral acceptable to the Office of the Attorney General. Sponsor is required to maintain all deposits and funds in the special escrow account required by GBL Section 352-e(2-b) unless the sponsor's engineer or architect certifies that a lesser amount will be reasonably necessary to complete all alterations and improvements to the public portions and common areas of the building. In such case the sum exceeding the amount so certified by the sponsor's engineer or architect may be released from the special escrow account. Alternatively, sponsor must deposit with an escrow agent an unconditional, irrevocable letter of credit, post a surety bond in the amount so certified, or provide other collateral acceptable to the Office of the Attorney General. The amount retained in escrow pending the delivery of a permanent certificate of occupancy and the architect's certification certifying such amounts will be included in each post-closing amendment to the Plan until the permanent certificate of occupancy is obtained.

The sponsor agrees to warrant the materials or workmanship of each unit (and limited common elements) or common elements. The Housing Merchant Implied Warranty Law (GBL Article 36-B) does not apply to this offering. However, the Sponsor agrees to extend to unit purchasers the same warranties as would exist pursuant to the Housing Merchant Implied Warranty as if it did apply. A copy of the Housing Merchant Implied Warranty Law is included in Part II of the Plan. The Sponsor's obligation, regardless of any limitations in the warranty or in this offering plan, cannot go below the duty to construct the premises in accordance with all applicable codes, filed plans and specifications and locally accepted building practices for items which are not covered by codes.

At or prior to the closing of the unit, sponsor must assign any manufacturer's warranties with respect to equipment and appliances installed in the unit to the unit owner and assign any warranties with respect to equipment and appliances installed in the common elements to the board of managers.

The sponsor agrees to pay for the authorized and proper work involved in the construction and establishment and sale of the condominium and sponsor is obligated to complete under the plan and will cause all mechanics liens with respect to such construction to be promptly discharged or bonded.

The sponsor agrees to deliver a set of "as-built" plans to the board of managers.

No bond or other security other than those required by this Part has been furnished to secure sponsor's obligations including sponsor's obligations to complete construction of the condominium. See section titled "Special Risks". The use of any alternate security will be previously disclosed in an amendment to the Plan.

Sponsor has a right of access to complete construction of the condominium or repair damage to the condominium at reasonable times and upon prior reasonable notice to affected unit owners. If Sponsor causes any damage to a unit while performing construction, Sponsor must fully repair that damage. Sponsor's access may interfere with the unit owner's use. Any access shall occur between the hours of 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday to Friday, and the unit owner must receive at least 72 hours prior written notice.

The Sponsor intends to sell all units. The Sponsor will endeavor in good faith to sell all units offered to sell in a reasonably timely manner. AFTER THE PLAN IS CONSUMMATED AND CONDOMINIUM IS FORMED, THE SPONSOR RESERVES THE UNCONDITIONAL RIGHT TO RENT RATHER THAN SELL UNITS. BECAUSE SPONSOR IS RETAINING THE UNCONDITIONAL RIGHT TO RENT RATHER THAN SELL UNITS AFTER PLAN CONSUMMATION,THIS PLAN MAY NOT RESULT IN THE CREATION OF A CONDOMINIUM IN WHICH A MAJORITY OF THE UNITS ARE OWNED BY OWNER OCCUPANTS OR INVESTORS UNRELATED TO THE SPONSOR. (SEE SPECIAL RISKS SECTION OF THE PLAN). PURCHASERS FOR THEIR OWN OCCUPANCY MAY NEVER GAIN CONTROL OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS UNDER THE TERMS OF THIS PLAN.

Sponsor will use its best efforts to obtain real estate tax exemption and abatement benefits pursuant to Section 421-a of the New York Real Property Tax Law. Sponsor, at its sole cost and expense, will file an application for, and make all additional necessary filings to obtain, such benefits. All documentation supplied or caused to be supplied by Sponsor is true and complete. Purchaser shall be obligated to execute any document or instrument required in connection with obtaining such tax abatement and exemption benefits.

Disclosures Regarding Tax Exemption Benefits :

(a). Sponsor has applied for benefits pursuant to Section 421-a of the Real Property Tax Law but has not received a Preliminary Certificate of Eligibility as of yet.

(b) The building was not located within the statute's geographic exclusion area at the time of application and there was no need to construct "affordable units".

(c). There is no need for restrictive declaration.

(d). The building is exempt from the prevailing wage requirement because it contains fewer than fifty residential units.

(e). Sponsor intends that the building shall be exempted from the statutory obligation to register the units as rent-stabilized by reason of its condominium status.

(f). If, prior to consummation, sponsor rents any residential unit (or portion thereof) to any person other than an interim lessee, sponsor is obligated to abandon the offering plan in accordance with the provisions of 13 N.Y.C.R.R. 20.1(1)(2) and 20.5(g).

(g) Sponsor has fifteen months from the date of issuance of a final certificate of eligibility from the New York City Department of Housing Preservation and Development ("HPD") to declare its offering plan effective. Thereafter, sponsor is obligated to register units in the building as rent-stabilized as they become occupied.

Sponsor will use its best efforts to obtain the tax benefits, whether purchasers are required to reimburse sponsor for costs associated with the tax benefit application and whether purchasers will be entitled to rescission if the benefits are not obtained.

It is anticipated that the 421-a tax benefits will be available for the first year of operation.

Sponsor shall keep copies of the Offering Plan exhibits and documents referred to in the Offering Plan on file at Sponsor's offices for six (6) years from the date the Declaration is recorded.

In accordance with Section 339-p of the New York Real Property Law, a registered architect or licensed professional engineer shall certify within reasonable tolerances that the Floor Plans filed with the recording of the Declaration are a substantially accurate copy of portions of the plans of the Buildings as filed with and approved by the municipal or other governmental subdivision having jurisdiction over the issuance of permits for the construction of the Buildings.

Sponsor has the right to make bulk sales of Units and to sell any Unit to a Purchaser who does not intend to occupy same, but intends to lease such Unit to others.

CONTROL BY SPONSOR:

Sponsor and Sponsor-designees shall not control the Board of Managers upon the earlier of (i) two (2) years from the date of the First Unit Closing, or (ii) whenever the unsold units constitute less than fifty (50%) percent of the Common Interest. (See Special Risks Section and By-Laws.)

Until the first annual meeting of the Condominium, the Board of Managers shall consist of three persons designated by Sponsor. Accordingly, until such first annual meeting, Sponsor will have voting control of the Board of Managers and will thus control maintenance, facilities and services to be provided, as well as determine the Common Charges to be paid by the Unit Owners.

At the first annual meeting of the Condominium, all Unit Owners, including Sponsor and Sponsor-designees, shall elect a new Board of Managers. Sponsor may have voting control of the Board of Managers if Sponsor and Sponsor-designees as Unit Owners of Unsold Units are able to cast sufficient votes to establish such control. Notwithstanding the foregoing Sponsor and Sponsor-designees shall not control the Board of Managers upon the earlier of (i) two (2) years from the date of the First Unit Closing, or (ii) whenever the unsold units constitute less than fifty (50%) percent of the Common Interest. A meeting shall be held to elect a new board unrelated to the Sponsor within 30 days after expiration of the control period. After two year period or the period when more than 50% of the units are sold, a majority of the board of managers must be owner occupants, or members of an owner occupant's household, who are unrelated to the Sponsor or its principals. (See Special Risks Section and By-Laws.)

In addition to the right of Sponsor and Sponsor-designees to vote the Common Interests attributable to Units owned by them, Sponsor and Sponsor-designees shall, so long as the Common Interests attributable to such Units shall constitute, in the aggregate, fifteen percent (15%) or more of the Common Interests of all Units, have the right to designate one member of the Board of Managers unless such right is waived in writing.

Sponsor may exercise veto power over expenses for a period ending not more than five (5) years after the closing of the first unit or whenever the unsold units constitute less than twenty-five per cent (25%) of the common interest, whichever is sooner, except that Sponsor may not veto any expenses described in Schedule "B" and provided further however, that Sponsor may not veto any expense if such expense that is necessary to enable the Board of Managers to comply with laws, rules or regulations of any governmental authority having jurisdiction over the Condominium to remedy any notice of violation, or to remedy any work order by an insurer.

BOARD OF MANAGERS

Principal provisions of the By-Laws are summarized below. Purchasers should refer to the full By-Laws, a copy of which is set forth in Part II of this Offering Plan.

1. Condominium Board of Managers:

The affairs of the Condominium shall be governed by the Board of Managers, which shall consist initially of three members designated by Sponsor. After the end of an initial sponsor control period, the majority of the Board must be owner-occupants or members of an owner-occupant's household who are unrelated to sponsor and its principals. The first annual meeting of the Unit Owners shall be held approximately one year after the First Unit Closing, at which meeting the incumbent three member Board of Managers shall resign and a successor five-member Board of Managers shall be elected by the Unit Owners and designated by Sponsor or its designees, as provided Section 4.1 of the By-Laws. Thereafter, annual meetings of the Unit Owners shall be held on or about the last Tuesday in June of each year, unless such data shall occur on a legal holiday, in which event the meeting will be held on or about the succeeding business day. At each such subsequent meeting, the Unit Owners shall elect or the Sponsor or its designee shall designate, as the case may be, successors to the members of the Board of Managers. (See the subsection below entitled Meetings and Votes of Unit Owners for further discussion).

Members of the Board of Managers shall be either (i) individual Unit Owners; (ii) individual Permitted Mortgagees; (iii) officers, directors, shareholders, partners, principals, employees, or beneficiaries of corporations, partnerships, fiduciaries, or any other entities that are Unit Owners or Permitted Mortgagees; or (iv) adult Family Members of any of the foregoing. However, the member designated by Sponsor and Sponsor-designees need not be a Unit Owner or interested party in a Unit Owner, as specified in the first sentence of this paragraph. Other than members designated by Sponsor and Sponsor-designees, no member shall continue to serve on the Board of Managers after he or she ceases to be a Unit Owner or an interested party in a Unit Owner, as specified in the first sentence of this paragraph.

Members of the Board of Managers are subject to removal, without cause, by vote of Unit Owners owning a majority of the Common Interest attending a meeting at which a quorum is present. Members of the Board designated by the Sponsor and Sponsor-designees may be removed by Unit Owners for cause. However, members designated by Sponsor and Sponsor-designees may be removed, without cause, only by Sponsor and Sponsor-designees, who alone will have the right to designate a replacement.

The number of members of the Board of Managers may not be increased without the consent of Sponsor and Sponsor-designees as owners of Unsold Units for so long as there remain two unsold Units.

All members of the Board of Managers shall serve without compensation.

Until Sponsor and Sponsor-designees no longer own Units with a sufficient percentage of the Common Interest attributable to such Units to elect two members of the Board of Managers, Sponsor will, through its control of the Board of Managers (by electing two members and designating one), have control of the maintenance and operation of the Condominium, including the Common Expenses described in Schedule B, capital repairs, and expenses required to comply with applicable laws or regulations. Notwithstanding the foregoing Sponsor and Sponsor-designees shall not control the Board of Managers upon the earlier of (i) two (2) years from the date of the First Unit Closing, or (ii) whenever units are sold that in the aggregate include fifty (50%) percent or more of the common Interest. A meeting shall be held to elect a new board unrelated to the Sponsor within 30 days after expiration of the control period.

Sponsor may exercise veto power over expenses (other than those described below) for a period ending not more than five years after the closing of the first unit or whenever the unsold units constitute less than 25 percent of the common interest, whichever is sooner. However, this veto power shall not be used to veto expenses described in schedule B, or over expenses required: (i) to comply with applicable laws or regulations; (ii) to remedy any notice of violation; or (iii) to remedy any work order by an insurer.

2. Powers and Duties of the Board of Managers:

The Board of Managers shall have the powers and duties necessary for administration of the affairs of the Condominium (subject to the limitations set forth in the By-Laws including Sponsor's right to veto certain actions of the Board of Managers), including, without limitation, the following: (a) operation, care upkeep and maintenance of the Common Elements; (b) determination of the Common Charges required for the affairs of the Condominium, including, without limitation, the operation and maintenance of the Property; (c) collection of the Common Charges from the Unit Owners, including charges for gas and water used or consumed in the Unit, (d) employment and dismissal of the personnel necessary for the maintenance and operation of the Common Elements; (e) adoption and amendment of the Rules and Regulations covering the details of the operation and use of the Property (subject to the right of the Unit Owners to overrule the Board of Managers as provided in the By-Laws); (f) maintaining bank accounts on behalf of the Condominium and designating the signatories required therefor; (g) purchasing, leasing, or otherwise acquiring in the name of the Board of Managers or its designees, on behalf of all Unit Owners, Units offered for sale or lease or surrendered by their owners to the Board of Managers; (h) purchasing Units at foreclosure or other judicial sales, in the name of the Board of Managers or its designee, on behalf of all Unit Owners; (i) selling, leasing, mortgaging, or otherwise dealing with (but not voting the votes appurtenant to) Units acquired by, and subleasing Units leased by, the Board of Managers or its designees on behalf of all Unit Owners; (j) obtaining and renewing insurance for the Property, including the Units; (k) making repairs, additions and improvements to, or alterations of, the Property and repairing and restoring the Property after damage or destruction by fire or other casualty, or an a result of condemnation or eminent domain proceedings; (1) enforcing obligations of the Unit Owners; (m) levying fines against the Unit Owners, excluding Sponsor and any Sponsor-designee and any partner of any entity affiliated directly or indirectly with Sponsor (so long as such Persons own one or more Units), for violations of the Rules and Regulations (no fine may exceed $25.00 for any one violation, but, for each day a violation continues after notice, it shall be considered a separate violation); (n) borrowing money on behalf of the Condominium when required in connection with the operation, care, upkeep, and maintenance of the Common Elements (provided, however, that (i) the consent of at least 66-2/3% of all Unit Owners, both in number and in Common Interests, shall be required for the borrowing of any sum in excess of $125,000 and (ii) no lien to secure repayment of any sum borrowed may be created on any Unit or its Appurtenant Interests without the consent of the Unit Owner); and (o) adjusting and settling insurance claims and executing and delivering releases in connection therewith.

The Board of Managers shall be responsible for maintaining and repairing the Common Elements as set forth in the Declaration and in the By-Laws, regardless of whether a Unit is vacant or occupied by the owner thereof or by a permitted lessee or other occupant.

Until the first meeting of the Unit Owners, the Board of Managers shall consist of the following three persons, who shall hold the offices listed next to their names:

Hang Dong Zhang President
Thomas E. Berinato Secretary

Hang Dong Zhang is the principal of the Sponsor. Mr. Berinato is the attorney for the Sponsor.

Unit owners' voting rights are computed in accordance with the percentage of common interest of their unit(s). This means that the owner of a unit with greater percentage of common elements has a greater say in the affairs of the condominium than a unit owner whose percentage is smaller.

In Order to amend the condominium's by-laws and to change the declaration of condominium after it has been filed 66 2/3% vote of unit owners must approve the amendment of change.

3. Officers of the Condominium:

The officers of the Condominium shall consist of the President, the Vice President, the Secretary and the Treasurer, all of whom shall be elected by the Board of Managers at its annual meeting. The Board of Managers may also appoint additional officers. All officers shall serve without compensation from the Condominium. None of the officers need be Unit Owners until the five member Board of Managers is elected at the first meeting of the Unit Owners. Thereafter, both the President and the Vice President must be either (i) individual Unit Owners; (ii) individual Permitted Mortgagees; (iii) officers, directors, shareholders, partners, principals, employees, or beneficiaries of corporations, partnerships, fiduciaries, or any other entities that are Unit Owners or Permitted Mortgagees; or (iv) adult Family Members of any of the foregoing. However, the member designated by Sponsor and Sponsor-designees need not be a Unit Owner or interested party in a Unit Owner. Any officer may be removed, without cause, by vote of a majority of the Board of Managers at a meeting called for such purpose.

The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Condominium and preside over meetings of the Unit Owners and Board of Managers. The Vice President shall take the place of the President when necessary and perform such other duties as may be imposed on him or her by the Board of Managers or the President. The Secretary shall keep minutes of all meetings of the Unit Owners and the Board of Managers and shall have charge of the books and papers of the Condominium. The Treasurer shall have the care and custody of the funds and securities of the Condominium and shall be responsible for keeping financial records and books of account. All agreements, contracts, deeds, leases, checks and other instruments of the Board of Managers shall be signed by any two officers or by such lessor number of officers or by such other person or persons as may be designated from time to time by the Board of Managers.

4. Amendments to the Condominium Documents:

Generally, subject to certain exceptions and provided that any required consent of the Mortgage Representatives is obtained, any provision of the Declaration, the By-Laws, or the Rules and Regulations may be amended, modified, added to, or deleted by the affirmative vote of 66-2/3% of all Unit Owners, both in number and in common Interests. However, the Declaration, the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations may not be amended or modified so as to be effective in any respect against Sponsor or any Sponsor-designee, or any Affiliate, and Unsold Unit or any mortgage, pledge, lien or security agreement covering such Units without the prior written consent of Sponsor, Sponsor-designees any partner of any entity affiliated directly or indirectly with Sponsor. In addition, the provisions of the Declaration and By-Laws relating to (i) the use of Units or each Unit's Common Interest may not be amended without the prior written consent of every Unit Owner affected by such amendment or (ii) the rights, benefits and exemptions of the Unsold Units may not be amended without the prior written consent of Sponsor.

6. Idemnification & Liability of Managers.

5. Special Meetings.

By-Laws Section 4.2 provides a procedure for Special Meetings of Unit Owners. The President of the Condominium shall call a special meeting of the Unit Owners whenever so directed by a duly adopted resolution of the Board of Managers or upon receipt by the Secretary of a petition calling for such a meeting signed by Unit Owners having, in the aggregate, not less than fifty (50%) percent of the Common Interests of all Unit Owners. Each such resolution or petition shall set forth, in reasonable detail, the purposes for calling such a meeting, and no business shall be transacted at such special meeting except business reasonably related to such stated purposes.

By Laws Section 2.20 deals with Liability of Managers. Said Section provides that the e members of the Board of Managers shall have no liability to the Unit Owners for errors of judgment, negligence, or otherwise, except that each member of the Board of Managers shall be liable thereto for his or her own bad faith or willful misconduct. In connection therewith, any member of the Board of Managers designated as such by Sponsor and Sponsor-designees shall not be deemed either to be in bad faith or to have committed willful misconduct by reason of any self-dealing in connection with any contract made, or other transaction entered into, between the Board of Managers and Sponsor or its agents, provided that any compensation paid, or to be paid, to Sponsor or its agents in connection with any such contract or transaction is disclosed in the Plan or an amendment thereto or in at competitive rates for goods sold or services rendered in Queens County.Every contract and other document executed, by or on behalf of the Board of Managers, any committee thereof, or the Managing Agent shall expressly state (if obtainable and in addition to the limitation of liability of the officers of the Condominium and the Unit Owners pursuant to the terms of Sections 3.10 and 4.12 of the By-Laws, respectively) that the same is made or executed by or on behalf of the Board of Managers, such committee, or the Managing Agent solely as agent for the Unit Owners and that the members of the Board of Managers or such committee or the Managing Agent shall have no liability thereon, except to the extent of their liability, if any, as Unit Owners pursuant to the terms of Section of the By-Laws .Neither the Board of Managers nor any member thereof shall be liable for:

(i) any failure or interruption of any services to be obtained by, or on behalf of, the Board of Managers or to be paid for as a Common Element; or

(ii) any injury, loss, or death to any individual or property, occurring in or upon either a Unit or the Common Elements, and either: (a) caused by the elements, by any Unit Owner or by any other Person; (b) resulting from electricity, water, snow, or ice that may leak or flow from a Unit or any portion of the Common Elements; or (c) arising out of theft or otherwise.

The Unit Owners shall severally indemnify and hold each of the Board of Managers harmless from and against any claim or liability to others arising from his or her acts or omissions as, or by reason of the fact that such individual is or was a member of the Board of Managers, except, however, to the extent that such claim or liability shall be due to, or shall arise out of, the bad faith or willful misconduct of such Member. The liability of each Unit Owner on account of such indemnification will be limited to the extent specified in Section 4.12 of the By-Laws.

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF UNIT OWNERS AND THE BOARD OF MANAGERS:

1. Sale or Lease of Units:

Each Unit Owner may sell or lease his or her Unit to either a Family Member or an Affiliate, without presenting to the Board of Managers an opportunity to purchase or lease such Unit except that if such sale or lease is to a non-Family Member or non-Affiliate, then such Unit owner must first give the Board of Managers, acting on behalf of all other Unit Owners, an opportunity to purchase or lease such Unit at the same price or rental and on the same terms as were offered by the proposed Purchaser or lessee as more specifically provided for in the By-laws of the Condominium. The Board will notify the Unit Owner of its intention to exercise its right of first refusal with respect to the sale and/or leasing of a Unit within 15 business days of receipt of a notice from the Unit Owner of the intended sale or lease. The Board of Managers must thereafter exercise such right of first refusal within an additional 30 days. The Board may obtain mortgage financing or use Common Charges for the acquisition and maintenance of a Unit by the Board of Managers on behalf of all Unit Owners. If common charges or mortgage financing were used in the exercise of a right of first refusal, the exercise thereof could result in a substantial increase in common charges to cover the cost of acquiring the unit. The Unit so owned or leased shall be used only for residential purposes. A Unit purchased or leased by the Board of Managers may be sold or leased in any name that the Board deems in the best interest of the Condominium. The proceeds of the disposition of any such Unit sold shall be the property of the Condominium and shall be deposited into the reserve fund and used solely for Capital improvements. The Board of Managers may not discriminate against any person based on race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, disability or other grounds prohibited by Law. The Board of Managers shall have the right to require a Unit Owner to pay a fee to the Board of Managers and/or the Managing Agent to cover reasonable legal and other expenses of the Board of Managers and the Managing Agent in connection with the sale or lease of a Unit. Any lease for a Unit shall be substantially in the form prepared by the Real Estate Board of New York, Inc., for apartment leases except as otherwise provided in the By-laws and except for such changes thereto as are recommended by counsel to the Board of Managers.

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Offering Plan, Sponsor, any Sponsor-designee, any partner of any entity affiliated directly or indirectly with Sponsor, or any mortgages acquiring title to a Unit in a foreclosure shall have the right to sell or lease any Unit owned by them without any requirement that (i) the same be offered to the Board of Managers prior to such sale or lease or (ii) a charge or fee be paid to the Board of Managers or any other entity or person.

Sponsor, Sponsor-designees and partners of any entity affiliated directly or indirectly with Sponsor hereby reserve the right to lease a Unit to the Purchaser of said Unit prior to the conveyance of title. In addition, Sponsor, Sponsor-designees and partners of any entity affiliated directly or indirectly with Sponsor reserve the right to lease Units to non-purchasers without limitation as to the rental to be charged therefor except such rents shall not be in violation of any applicable law. No amount paid as either rent or security under the lease will be credited towards the purchase price. If in fact, prior to the sale of a Unit, such Unit is leased to any person or entity who does not purchase, the initial Purchaser thereof will purchase a Unit that has been previously occupied. In all such cases, at closing such Units will be delivered free and clear of any tenancy or occupancy unless Purchaser expressly approves such tenancy. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if, prior to the sale of a Unit, Sponsor, any Sponsor-designee or any partner of any entity affiliated directly or indirectly with Sponsor leases such Unit to any person or entity claiming by, through or under the Purchaser of such Unit, than such Purchaser shall be obligated to purchase such Unit subject to such lease, or the occupancy, of such Unit.

No lease shall be entered into by Sponsor, any Sponsor-designee or any partner of any entity affiliated directly or indirectly with Sponsor having a commencement date, which is prior to the issuance of a certificate of occupancy, which permits lawful use of the leased Unit.

Every sale or lease of a Unit must include a similar sale or lease of such Unit's undivided interest in the Common Elements.

A Unit Owner may, without restriction, make a gift of his or her Unit to anyone during his or her lifetime, devise such Unit by will or pass same by intestacy.

2. Mortgage of Units:

Each Unit Owner is free to mortgage his or her Unit subject to the restrictions contained in the By-laws. Prior to or simultaneously with the closing of any mortgage transaction, the Unit Owner must satisfy all arrearages for any unpaid Common Charges and Special Assessments owed by such Unit owner and discharge any liens therefor.

3. Common Charges and Assessments:

Each Unit Owner shall have an obligation to pay Common Charges and Special Assessments when due. Except as set forth in the Notes to Schedule B and as otherwise provided in the By-Laws, Common Charges for each Unit shall be determined by multiplying that Unit's percentage of Common Interest by the total annual net expenses incurred or anticipated to be incurred for those items listed in Schedule B herein, together with the expense of any special repairs, major capital improvements or other expenses deemed by the Board of Managers to be a part of the Common Expenses and to be paid as Common Charges, all in accordance with the By-Laws of the Condominium. Common Charges will be established by the Board of Managers on an annual basis, at least, and be paid in equal monthly installments, due and payable on the first day of each mouth. The Board of Managers, in accordance with the By-Laws, impose Special Assessments an it deems necessary, to meet unanticipated or extraordinary expenses, including, but not limited to, expenses incurred for major capital improvements. The Special Assessments to be paid by each Unit Owner shall also be determined in accordance with the Unit Owner's percentage of Common Interest, as determined by the Board of Managers. Notwithstanding, the foregoing, however the Board of Managers shall not reduce the Common Charges payable during any year occurring within a period when Sponsor or Sponsor-designees own Units having more than 50% of the Common Interest of all Units solely an a result of either reducing the number of employees of the Condominium below the numbered employees for the Condominium on the date of recording the Declaration or reducing or eliminating any service or reducing the insurance coverage below that provided for the Buildings on such date, except with the concurrence of a majority of the members of the Board of Managers elected by Unit Owners other than Sponsor or Sponsor-designees.

Under the provisions of Section 339-z of the New York Real Property Law, the Board of Managers, on behalf of the Unit Owners, will have a lien on each Unit for unpaid Common Charges assessed by the Board of Managers. Such lien will be subordinate only to liens for real estate taxes on the Unit and to any sums unpaid on a first mortgage of record thereon. Any lien for unpaid Common Charges against a Unit shall be effective from and after the filing of notice thereof at the Register's Office, Queens County and until all sums secured thereby with the interest thereon shall have been fully paid or until six years from the date of filing (unless foreclosure of such lien is started within such six-year period), whichever may be earlier. Such lien may be foreclosed by a suit brought in the name of the Board of Managers acting on behalf of the Unit Owners in like manner as the foreclosure of a mortgage on real property, or an action may be brought by the Board of Managers to recover the unpaid Common Charges without foreclosing the lien.

Upon the failure of a Unit Owner to pay Common Charges for the Unit within fifteen (15) days of the same becoming due and payable, the Board of Managers shall have the right to place a lien against such Unit Owner's Unit for the unpaid Common Charges, as set forth above. Failure of the Board of Managers to place such a lien shall not constitute a waiver of the right to do so at a later date or with respect to a subsequent failure to pay within the designated time. The failure to make prompt payment of Common Charges or Special Assessments when due shall subject the Unit Owner to a late charge as described in the By-Law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Sponsor, any Sponsor-designee and any partner of any entity affiliated directly or indirectly with Sponsor shall not be subject to the late charge. The Sponsor will cause the Board of Managers to file a lien as provided for in Section 339-aa of the Real Property Law on Units in which Sponsor is more than 30 days in arrears of Common Charges while it is in control of the Board of Managers.

No Unit Owner shall be liable for the payment of any part of the Common Charges assessed against his or her Unit subsequent to a sale, transfer, or other conveyance made by him or her of his or her Unit, with appurtenant Common Elements, in accordance with the Declaration and By-Laws.

All Unit owners shall be required to comply with the Declaration, By-Laws, Rules and Regulations of the Condominium and with any other requirements duly imposed by the Board of Managers pursuant to the authority granted to them. The Board of Managers shall have the power to impose appropriate sanctions where a Unit Owner is in default. Such sanctions include, without limitation, placing a lien against the Unit Owner's Unit, instituting foreclosure proceedings and filing suit against a Unit Owner.

4. Repairs:

Except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or By-Law, all painting, decorating, maintenance, repairs and replacements, whether structural or non-structural, ordinary or extraordinary in or to any Unit and all portions of both, including, but not limited to, the interior walls, ceilings and floors in the Unit, kitchen and bathroom fixtures and appliances, windows and their frames, sills and sashes, all doors and their frames and saddles (except painting the exterior side of a Unit entrance doors and door bucks), all interior staircases exposed plumbing, gas and heating fixtures and equipment. Lighting and electrical fixtures (but excluding any Common Elements contained therein) shall be performed by the owner of such Unit at such Unit Owners cost and expense.

All painting, decorating, maintenance, repairs and replacements, whether structural or non-structural, ordinary or extraordinary, to the Common Elements, as defined in the Declaration, and the painting of the exterior side of Unit entrance doors and door backs shall be made by the Board of Managers and be charged to all the Unit Owners as a Common Expense, excepting to the extent that the same are necessitated by the negligence, misuse or neglect of a Unit Owner, in which case such expense shall be charged to such Unit Owner. All painting, decorating, maintenance, repair and replacements in or to the Limited Common Elements, as defined in the Declaration, will be performed by (a) the Board of Managers if it involves structural or extraordinary maintenance, repairs or replacements (including, without limitation, repairs that are not caused by the acts or omissions of the Unit Owner having direct and exclusive access thereto), or (b) subject to the restrictions set forth in the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations by the Unit Owner having direct and exclusive access thereto, at such Unit Owner's sole cost and expense, if it involves nonstructural, ordinary maintenance, repairs or replacements or it is as a result of the Unit Owner's acts or omissions.

Each Unit Owner shall have an easement in common with the other Unit owners to use, maintain, repair, alter and replace all pipes, ducts, cables, wires, conduits, public utility lines and other Common Elements located in other Units and serving his or her Unit. In addition, each Unit Owner shall have an easement for the continuance of any encroachment by the Unit on any adjoining Unit or on any Common Element, now existing or which may come into existence hereafter as a result of the settling or shifting of Buildings or as a result of repair or restoration of Buildings or a Unit after damage by fire or other casualty, or as a result of condemnation or eminent domain proceedings, or by reason of any alteration made by or with the consent of the Board of Managers or the Sponsor to the Common Elements so that any such encroachment may remain undisturbed so long as Buildings stand. As more fully set forth in the By-laws and the Rules and Regulations, the Sponsor, the Board of Managers and the Managing Agent, and all designees thereof, shall have a right of access to each Unit to inspect and make repairs to the Unit to prevent damage to the Common Elements or any other Unit.

A non-structural alteration to a Unit or its appurtenant Limited Common Element that does not adversely affect the structure of the Buildings or the value of other Units or the Common Elements, that cannot be sighted from the Common Elements or another Unit or from a public street, and that complies with all laws, may be made by any unit owner without consent of the Board of Managers. No Unit Owner (other than Sponsor or Sponsor-designees) may make a structural alteration in a Unit without the prior written approval of the Board of Managers. Upon such approval, the Unit Owner in question shall agree that (i) such structural alteration shall be at the Unit Owner's sole cost and expense, (ii) all work shall be done in accordance with all governmental or quasi-governmental laws, rules, regulations, codes and ordinances, (iii) all work shall be done by reputable contractors with adequate to liability, property damage and workmen's compensation insurance (certificates for which shall be delivered to the Board of Managers prior to the commencement of construction), (iv) the Unit Owner shall procure and maintain during the course of such work such other insurance as the Board of Managers may reasonably prescribe, and (v) any additions shall be maintained in their entirety by said Unit Owner who shall also be responsible for any repairs, including structural repairs, to such additions, and to the Unit and any Common Elements where such repairs become necessary due to additional stresses caused by the structural alteration or due to improper design or construction of the structural alteration. Such Unit Owner shall further agree to indemnify and held harmless the Board of Managers and its officers, the Managing Agent, Sponsor, and all other Unit Owners from and against any liability cost and cost arising from such work. Such approval shall further provide that the Unit Owner shall reimburse the Board of Managers for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Board of Managers in connection with the granting of such approval and in connection with any services provided to such alteration. Such expenses may include, without limitation, any fees of an attorney and/or fees of an architect consulted by the Board of Managers in connection with the request by a Unit Owner for approval of a structural alteration.

Sponsor, the Board of Managers and/or the Managing Agent shall have a permanent right of access to any Unit for the purpose of inspecting or making any repairs or replacements to any of the Common Elements contained in such Unit or elsewhere in the Buildings, remedying any condition which would result in damage to any other Unit or to the Common Elements, or which would violate the provisions of any mortgage encumbering another Unit, or for the purpose of complying with any laws, orders, rules or regulations of any governmental body having jurisdiction thereof, or to cure any defaults by a Unit Owner or for any other purposes permitted by the By-Laws.

Balconies and any other Limited Common Elements shall be maintained and repaired and shall be kept free and clear of snow, ice and any other accumulations, by the Unit Owner at Unit Owner's own cost and expense.

If the Trust Funds shall be less than sufficient to discharge the cost and expense of performing the Work, the Board of Managers shall levy a Special Assessment against all Unit Owners for the amount of such deficiency in proportion to their respective Common Interests and all proceeds of such Special Assessment shall become part of the Trust Funds. If, conversely, the Trust Funds shall prove to be more than sufficient to discharge the cost and expense of performing the Work, such excesses shall be paid to all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests, except that no payment shall be made to a Unit Owner until there has first been paid, out of said Unit Owner's share of such excess, such amounts as may be necessary to reduce unpaid liens on the Unit Owner's Unit (other than mortgages that are not Permitted Mortgages) in the order of priority of such liens. If a Unit Owner fails to provide the Board of Managers with all keys necessary to gain entrance to such Unit Owner's Unit promptly after such Unit Owner moves into his or her Unit, then Sponsor shall be automatically released from any obligation it may have for correcting defects in or making repairs to such Unit. If Sponsor or the Board of Managers must gain access to a Unit for emergency purposes and a Unit Owner has not furnished a key to the Board of Managers as provided in this paragraph, then the affected Unit Owner shall be liable and responsible for any damage to the Common Elements or such Unit caused by Sponsor or the Board of Managers in gaining access to such Unit. Furthermore, if the Unit Owner is not personally present to open and permit an entry to his or her Unit at any time when an entry therein is necessary or permissible under the Rules and Regulations or under the By-Laws, and has not furnished a key to the Board of Managers or the Managing Agent, then the Board of Managers or the Managing Agent or their agents (but, except in an emergency, only when specifically authorized by an officer of the Condominium or an officer of the Managing Agent) may forcibly enter such Unit without liability for damages or trespass by reason thereof (if, during such entry, reasonable care is given to such Unit Owner's property).

8. Miscellaneous:

In certain instances, Sponsor, Sponsor-designees, and any partner of any entity affiliated directly or indirectly with Sponsor, are not required to obtain the approval of the Board of Managers or meet requirements imposed upon other Unit Owners. These instances include, without limitation, the right to use a Unit as a model and display For Sale, For rent, For Lease or similar signs, the right to transfer or lease a Unit without offering the Board of Managers the right of first refusal or paying a fee therefor, the right to alter a Unit without obtaining the prior consent of the Board of Managers (but only in accordance with the other terms of this Offering Plan), and the right to amend the Declaration without a vote for the sole purpose of filing the Floor Plans as required by Section 339-p of the Real Property Law. FOR AS LONG AS SPONSOR OR ANY SPONSOR-DESIGNEE OR ANY PARTNER OF ANY ENTITY AFFILIATED DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY WITH SPONSOR OWNS TITLE TO ONE OR MORE UNITS, THE RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE CONDOMINIUM THE BY-LAWS OR DECLARATION MAY NOT BE AMENDED IN A MANNER WHICH WOULD, IN THE SOLE DISCRETION OF SPONSOR OR ANY SPONSOR-DESIGNEE, OR ANY PARTNER OF ANY ENTITY AFFILIATED DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY WITH SPONSOR IN ANY WAY, IMPOSE ANY RESTRICTION UPON THE SALE OF ANY UNIT, OR IMPOSE A RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL OR PAYING A FEE THEREFOR UNLESS SPONSOR OR EACH SPONSOR-DESIGNEE OR EACH PARTNER OF ANY ENTITY AFFILIATED DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY WITH SPONSOR GIVES ITS PRIOR WRITTEN CONSENT TO SUCH AMENDMENT.

To cover administrative expenses, any Unit Owner who fails to pay any sum, charge or assessment within ten days of its due date shall be liable for any expenses incurred by the Condominium in collecting such sum, charge or assessment, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees, plus a late charge of 5% and interest at the rate of 2% per month.

The Sponsor will cause the Board of Managers to file a lien as provided for in Section 339-aa of the Real Property Law on units in which Sponsor is more than 30 days in arrears of common charges while it is in control of the Board of Managers.

If a non-occupying owner, including the Sponsor, rents any dwelling unit to a rental tenant and then fails to make payments due for common charges, assessments or late fees for such unit within sixty days of the expiration of any grace period after they are due, upon notice in accordance with Real Property Law Section 339-kk, all rental payments from the tenant shall be directly payable to the condominium association. If the common charges, assessments or late fees due for any unit have not been paid in full, within sixty days after the expiration of any grace period of the earliest due date, the board of managers shall provide written notice to the tenant and the non-occupying owner providing that, commencing immediately and until such time as all payments for common charges, assessments or late fees are made current, all rental payments due subsequent to the issuance of such notice are to be made payable to the condominium association at the address listed on the notice. Where a majority of the board of managers has been elected by and from among the unit owners who are in occupancy, the board may elect not to require that rental payments be made payable to the condominium association. At such time as payments for common charges, assessments and late fees from the non-occupying owner are once again current, notice of such fact shall be given within three business days to the rental tenant and non-occupying owner. Thereafter all rental payments shall be made payable to the non-occupying owner or a designated agent. A non-occupying owner who disputes the association's claim to rental payments pursuant to this section shall be entitled to present facts supporting such owner's position at the next scheduled meeting of the board of managers, which must be held within thirty days of the date that such board receives notice that such owner seeks to dispute such claim. Payment by a rental tenant to the condominium association made in connection with section 339-kk shall relieve that rental tenant from the obligation to pay such rent to the non-occupying owner and shall be an absolute defense in any non-payment proceeding commenced by such non-occupying owner against such tenant for such rent.

REAL ESTATE TAXES & TAX STATUS OF CONDOMINIUM

After the units are separately assessed, each unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes, and that unit owner will not be responsible for the payment of, nor will the unit be subjected to, a lien arising from the nonpayment of taxes on other units.

If units have not been separately assessed for real estate tax purposes, prior to the closing of title to the first unit, unit owners will make payment of taxes to the Board of Managers. The amount to be paid by each unit owner shall be calculated by multiplying the percentage of the common elements by the real estate tax bill for the period in question. This money shall be paid to the Board of Managers not later than 15 days before the taxes are due to the Taxing Authority. The Board of Managers will establish a separate escrow account for this purpose.

Real estate taxes for the units will be assessed by the New York City Department of Finance. The current tax rate for residential condominiums is 12.82%. The assessed valuation for the building for the fiscal year 2017/2018 is $557,713.

It has been estimated that the recorded assessed value for the building when completed will be $2,962,000. At current rates, the tax levy for the entire building calculates to $180,000. Estimated tax obligations assuming 421-a benefits and no 421-a benefits are set forth in Schedule A. Carrying charges for Units will be higher if 421-a tax benefits are not granted.

The basis for calculating the amount payable by unit owners in the first year of condominium operation as set forth in schedule "A". The tax assessment for each unit may be allocated on a basis that differs from the allocation of common interests. The figures given in Schedule A are only estimates.

Amendments to section 421-a of the Real Property Law were enacted which reduce or restrict 421-a benefits in certain areas were construction commenced after June 30, 2008. Those amendments do not affect 421-a eligibility for this building because: (a). the building does not lie in a 421-a Geographic Exclusion Area; and (b). the building has already received a preliminary certificate of eligibility (see page 84).

No tax certiorari proceedings are currently pending.

Section 5.11 of the By-Laws provides that the Board of Managers may act as an agent of each Unit Owner who has given his or her written authorization to complain or apply to the board of assessment review or the assessing agency by filing a single complaint on behalf of all such Unit Owners and to commence and prosecute a special proceeding for the review of assessments of real property as an aggrieved person. The Board of Managers may retain legal counsel on behalf of all Unit Owners for which it is acting as agent and may charge all such Unit Owners a pro-rata share of expenses, disbursements and legal fees,

The Sponsor applied for and received a Preliminary Certificate of Eligibility for a partial tax exemption benefits under Section 421-a of the Real Property Tax Law ('421-a' Benefits). The Sponsor will use best efforts to obtain a Final Certificate of Eligibility for 421-a Benefits.

There will be a partial reduction in real property taxes for 15 years after closing. The real property tax reduction will be progressively phased out. The progressive decrease in tax benefits will take place in years 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15, at 20% per year. Carrying charges with and without 421-a benefits are disclosed in Schedule "A". Carrying charges will be 40% to 50% more in the event that 421-a benefits are not granted.

IT IS A SPECIAL RISK THAT UNIT OWNERS MAY NOT RECEIVE 421-a BENEFITS PRIOR TO CLOSING.

The Sponsor shall keep all records required by HPD and make them available to HPD whenever requested to do so.

HPD routinely conducts audits, which can result in the reduction or revocation of benefits if proper documentation is not provided.

Upon closing, the Sponsor will make all the benefit documents available to the Board of Managers for inspection and copying for the life of the benefits.

The Sponsor will file all applications and timely comply with all procedures required to properly process and maintain 421-a Benefits.

Re: The Queens Boro Tower Condominium
41-04 27th Street
Long Island City, NY 11101

Dear Mr. Zhang:

I am counsel to the C.H. 41 LLC in connection with the preparation and processing of its offering plan for the sale of the apartment units, ('units') in the building located at 41-04 27th Street, Long Island City, NY 11361 to be known as The Queens Boro Tower Condominium ("Condominium").

In so acting, we have examined the form of the Declaration of the Condominium, the By-Laws and all exhibits thereto contained in the offering plan for the Units, and such other documents as we have deemed appropriate.

Based upon such examination, I am of the opinion that:

1. The condominium regime, when created pursuant to the Declaration of Condominium, By-Laws and other related documents, will be validly formed and the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium and By-Laws will be legal and valid and the Condominium regime will comply with the rules against perpetuities and all other laws regarding the restrictions against alienation.

I have, in rendering this part of our opinion, relied upon (a) certain municipal, departmental and information search reports issued by Federal Standard Abstract as well as the opinion of Fidelity National Title Insurance Company that a valid condominium will be formed upon recordation of the floor plans, declarations and by-laws; and (b) the description of Property, dated December 16, 2015, prepared by Chang Hwa Tan, Architect.

2. Each owner of a residential Unit will be entitled under present law to deduct for Federal and New York State income tax purposes the real estate taxes assessed against his Unit and paid by him and the amount paid by him on account of interest of any mortgage indebtedness covering such Unit provided such Unit is used by the owner thereof as a principal or second home (see Rev. Rul. 64-31, 1964-1 C.B. [Part 1] 300). No opinion is rendered as to the deductibility of real estate taxes and mortgage interest with respect to Units not used by the owner as a principal or second home. The owner of a residential Unit who is a veteran of the United States Armed Forces may be entitled to a veteran's exemption covering part of the real estate taxes otherwise assessed against his Unit. N.Y. Real Property Tax Law Section 458.

3. The Condominium will not be qualified to make an election under Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code. Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code provides that a "Homeowner's Association" shall be exempt from income taxes if: (a). it is organized and operated to provide for the acquisition, construction, management maintenance and care of the association's property; and (b). 60% or more of its income comes from membership dues fees and assessments from owners of residential units of a condominium management association; (c). 90% of the expenditures of the association for the taxable year are for the acquisition, construction, maintenance management and care of the association property and (d). no part of the net earnings of the organization inures to the benefit of any private individual or shareholder; and (e). the organization make a proper election for IRC Section 528 treatment.

Section 528 (2) defines a "condominium management association" as one where "substantially all" of the units are used as residences. Section 1-528.4 of the Code of Federal Regulations states that this requirement is only satisfied when 85% or more of the condominium's square footage is devoted to residential use.

Since the Condominium is 18.69% commercial by square footage, it does not pass the "substantiality test" and the condominium is not qualified to make a Section 528 election. I am of the opinion that the Condominium's income will be taxable for Federal Income Tax purposes.

This opinion is not a guarantee; it is based on existing rules of law applied to the facts and documents referred to above. No assurances can be given that the tax laws upon which counsel base this opinion will not change. In no event will the sponsor, the sponsor's counsel, the board of managers of the condominium, the selling agent or any other person be liable if there are changes in the facts on which counsel relied in issuing this opinion or if there are changes in the applicable statutes, regulations, decisional law or Internal Revenue Service rulings on which counsel relied which cause the condominium to cease to meet the requirements of Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the New York State tax law, as amended, and cause the unit owners not to be entitled to income tax deductions (or which cause unit owners not to be or to cease to be entitled to the benefits or the level or duration of benefits described above).

Sincerely,

THOMAS E. BERINATO

Re: The Queens Boro Tower Condominium
41-04 27th Street
Long Island City, NY 11101

Dear Mr. Zhang:

As discussed in the offering plan, the sponsors will apply for Tax Exemption for the residential units under Section 421-A of the New York Real Property Tax Law ("Section 421-A") to the New York City Department of Housing Preservation and Development ("HPD"). Section 421-A and the regulations promulgated thereunder pose certain requirements for the granting of the Tax Exemption. You have represented to me that:

1. You commenced construction on the site of the Building based on approved New Building permit issued by the City of New York before December 31, 2015.
2. After completion of construction, the Building was classified as a multiple dwelling pursuant to the Multiple Dwelling Law.
3. The site was deemed "underutilized" 36 months prior to the commencement of construction as defined in the site requirements of section 2.6(1)(a) of HPD's Regulations.
4. The residential portion of the building will be substantially used for dwelling purposes as a condominium building for a period of at least ten years following its completion.
5. Construction of the building will be completed on or before December 31, 2019.
6. Upon completion, the building will consist of 32 residential condominium units and five retail units.

7. No former tenant was harassed, intimidated or required to vacate his or her apartment except by lawful Court or Administrative Order.
8. The Sponsor will make application to HPD for a Final Certificate of Eligibility for the building to indicate that the building will be used as a condominium within 90 days after issuance of a certificate of occupancy.

Based solely on the above representations then it would appear that the Building, when operated as a condominium, is eligible to participate in the 421-a partial tax exemption program as a condominium for a 15 year period after the completion of construction. Please note that the property has already received a Preliminary Certificate of Eligibility for a Partial Tax Exemption under section 421-a which is included herein at page 87.

I am of the opinion that the condominium complies with the requirement of section 421-A. Therefore, in the event that the sponsor complies with the requirements of HPD and obtains final approval from HPD, the units will be partially exempt from the payment of real estate taxes.

The percentage interest of each Unit in the common elements shown in Schedule "A" of the Offering Plan is assigned in the approximate proportion that the floor are of the Unit at the date of the Declaration bears to the aggregate floor areas of all Units. In my opinion, this method if assigning the percentage of common interest to each Unit is in compliance with Real Property Law Section 339-i(1)(iv). This opinion is based on other expert factual determinations as required by Section 20.1(i) of Part 20 of the regulations regarding Vacant, Newly Constructed and Non-Residential condominiums issued by the Attorney General. (See letter of Shirley Yang of E House International Corp. dated April 1, 2016 at p.35 herein).

Very truly yours,

Thomas E. Berinato

In the event the Seller cannot convey title to the Unit, all monies advanced by the Purchaser hereunder shall be returned to the Purchaser. 13. Agreement Subject to Mortgage. No encumbrances shall arise against the Property as a result of this Agreement or any monies deposited hereunder. In furtherance and not in limitation of the provisions of the preceding sentence, Purchaser agrees that the provisions of this Agreement are and shall be subject and subordinate to the lien of any mortgages heretofore or hereafter made and any payments or expenses already made or incurred, pursuant to the terms thereof, or incidental thereto, or to protect the security thereof, to the full extent thereof without the execution of any further legal documents by Purchaser. Sponsor shall, at its option, either satisfy such mortgages or obtain a release of the Unit and its undivided interest in the Common Elements from the lien of such mortgages on or prior to the Closing Date unless Purchaser assumes such mortgages. The existence of any mortgage or mortgages encumbering the Property, or portions thereof, other than the Unit and its undivided interest in the Common Elements, shall not constitute an objection to title or excuse Purchaser from completing payment of the Purchase Price or performing all of his other obligations hereunder or be the basis of any claim against, or liability of, Sponsor, provided that any such mortgage is subordinated to the Declaration and the Unit is released from the lien of such mortgage. Purchaser may make his obligations under the Agreement contingent upon obtaining a mortgage loan by executing the Mortgage Addendum to Purchase Agreement attached hereto and compliance with the terms therein. In the event Purchaser does not comply with the terms set forth in the Mortgage Addendum to Purchase Agreement, Seller shall be entitled to declare this Agreement in default and retain the Down Payment and interest as liquidated and agreed upon damages. Should Purchaser comply with the terms set forth in the Mortgage Addendum to Purchase Agreement and fail to obtain a mortgage loan, Seller shall return the Down Payment and interest, if any, to Purchaser and thereafter the parties shall be released from any obligation under this agreement.

14. Agreement Subject to Plan Becoming Effective; Seller's Right to Cancel.

This Purchase Agreement is contingent upon the Plan being declared effective. The Plan may be abandoned by Seller at any time prior to its being declared effective and shall be abandoned and deemed abandoned if it has not been declared effective within the time prescribed by the Plan. If the Plan is abandoned or does not become effective, this Purchase Agreement shall be deemed canceled. If, after the Plan is declared effective, title to the Unit shall not close within the time set forth herein or in the Plan for any reason other than Purchaser's default, then, at Purchaser's option upon thirty days' prior written notice, this Purchase Agreement shall be deemed canceled. If this Purchase Agreement is canceled pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph, then not later than five days thereafter, Purchaser shall receive a refund in full, of all monies paid by Purchaser hereunder, with the interest earned thereof, if any, and upon such repayment, neither party shall have any claim against the other and both shall be released from all obligations hereunder.

15. Default by Purchaser. In the event Purchaser shall fail to make any payment on the date hereinbefore provided or on such later date as the parties hereto shall agree upon, shall fail to close title on the closing date, or shall fail to perform any of the purchaser's other obligations hereunder, Sponsor may send notice to Purchaser of Sponsor's intention to cancel this Agreement if such default shall not be cured within thirty days thereafter. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE TO CURE SUCH DEFAULT WITHIN THE SAID THIRTY-DAY PERIOD. If within said thirty day period Purchaser shall fail to cure such default, Sponsor may, at its option, cancel this Agreement by notice of cancellation to Purchaser sent within 30 days after the sending of the said notice of intention to cancel, and thereupon this agreement shall be deemed canceled. In the event that Sponsor shall elect to cancel this Agreement, Sponsor shall certify to its attorney, Yeung & Wang, Esq., that Purchaser has defaulted and that Sponsor has elected to cancel this Agreement by reason thereof. If, within three days after the sending of notice of cancellation, Purchaser shall have failed to object thereto by Notice to Yeung & Wang, 136-20 38th Avenue, Flushing, N.Y. 11354 by certified mail, return receipt requested, all payments made by Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement, together with all other sums theretofore paid by Purchaser hereunder, shall be retained by Sponsor as liquidated damages. In no event shall liquidated damages exceed 10% of the purchase price plus the cost of any special work ordered. If this Agreement shall be canceled by Sponsor pursuant to the provisions of this Paragraph, Sponsor may sell the Unit to any third party and Sponsor shall be under no obligation to account to Purchaser for any part of the proceeds of such sale. If Purchaser shall have objected to Sponsor's Notice of cancellation within the aforesaid three day period, Sponsor will retain all payments made by Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement until the dispute is resolved, but Sponsor shall nevertheless have the right to sell the Unit to any third party without any obligation to account to Purchaser for any part of the proceeds of such sale. Yeung & Wang, Esqs. may rely on the truth and accuracy of the facts contained in Seller's certification and the authority of the person or persons executing the same. In the event of Purchaser's default, no funds will be released to Seller without the signature of Seller's attorney, Yeung & Wang, 136-20 38th Avenue, Flushing, N.Y. 11354.

16. Possession of Unit Prior to Closing. It is expressly understood and agreed that the Purchaser shall in no event take possession of the Unit prior to the time of the delivery of the deed and full compliance by the Purchaser with the terms of this Agreement, and should the Purchaser violate this provision, the Purchaser consents that the Seller shall have the right to remove him from the Unit as a squatter and intruder by summary proceedings. Upon the Purchaser's unauthorized possession, the Purchaser shall be deemed in default hereunder at the option of the Sponsor, and if the Sponsor so elects, the Sponsor may cancel this Agreement and the amount deposited hereunder shall belong to the Sponsor as liquidated damages deemed earned hereunder. It is fully understood and agreed that the Sponsor will not be responsible for damage or loss to any personal property before, on or after the closing if title herein.

17. Sponsor's Inability to Convey the Unit. In the event Sponsor is unable to deliver title to the Unit to Purchaser for any reason whatsoever, Seller's liability shall be limited to the return of the money deposited hereunder and upon return of said money, this Agreement shall be null and void and the parties hereto released from any and all liability hereunder. In any event, the Sponsor shall not be obligated to bring any action or proceeding or otherwise incur any cost or expense of any nature whatsoever to cure such inability, and in such case, if Sponsor notifies Purchaser of its refusal to cure such inability and if Purchaser is not in default hereunder, Purchaser shall have the option to (a) take title to the Unit subject to such inability (without any abatement in, or credit against, the Purchase Price, or any claim or right of action against Sponsor for damages or otherwise) or (b) terminate this Agreement. If Purchaser so elects to terminate this Agreement, Sponsor shall within ten (10) days after receipt of notice of termination from Purchaser, return to Purchaser all sums deposited hereunder, and upon making such payment, this Agreement shall be null and void and neither party shall have any further rights, obligations or liability to or against the other and the parties shall be released and discharged from all obligations and liabilities under this Agreement and the Plan. The foregoing option must be exercised by notice of Purchaser in writing to Sponsor within ten days after the giving of Sponsor's notice of refusal to cure such inability. If Purchaser fails to give any notice to Sponsor, it shall be conclusively deemed that Purchaser elected the second option above to terminate this Agreement.

18. Acceptance of Condition of Unit; Risk of Loss.

(i) Purchaser shall accept title (without abatement in or credit against the Purchase Price or provision of escrow) notwithstanding that construction of (a) minor details of the Unit or the Building in which it is located or (b) other Units or (c) the landscaped area or (d) other portions of the common elements have not been completed. Purchaser will examine his Unit with a representative of the Sponsor during normal business hours prior to the Closing Date and will sign and deliver to Sponsor on or before the Closing Date an Inspection Statement acknowledging the condition in which he has received his Unit.

(ii) Purchaser represents to sponsor that he has examined the Unit and agrees that his execution of this Purchase Agreement shall constitute acceptance of the Unit and the Building and all fixtures, machinery, equipment, furnishings, appliances, installations and other personal property contained therein, in their present condition on the date of this Purchase Agreement, subject to reasonable use, wear, tear and natural deterioration between the date of this Purchase Agreement and the Closing Date.

(iii). Prior to the first closing, the entire building will be insured by Sponsor and after the first closing the entire building will be insured by the condominium.

The risk of loss from fire or other casualty with respect to each Unit shall remain with Sponsor until the Closing for the particular Unit. A person who takes possession prior to closing assumes the risk of loss not covered by insurance.

Sponsor will notify a purchaser within 15 business days of whether or not sponsor will repair damage due to a casualty occurring prior to closing.

19. Broker. Purchaser represents to Sponsor that _____ is the only broker or sales agent with whom Purchaser has dealt in connection with this transaction and Sponsor agrees to pay the commission earned by said broker, if any, pursuant to a separate agreement. Purchaser agrees that should any claim be made against Sponsor for commission by any broker, other than the above-named broker on account of any acts of Purchaser or Purchaser's representatives, Purchaser will indemnify and hold free and harmless Sponsor from and against any and all liabilities and expenses in connection therewith, including reasonable legal fees. The provisions of this Article shall survive the delivery of the deed.

20. Warranties. At the closing of title, the Seller will deliver the certificates and warranties delivered to them and transferable to purchaser or to the Condominium. Seller's liability pursuant to the manufacturer's warranties covering heat, appliances, electricity, plumbing and roofing are limited solely to the extent that such warranties are delivered to Seller, transferable to the Purchaser or to the Condominium and then only as against such manufacturer. In addition, however, Seller will promptly correct any defects in the construction of the Condominium Unit or the building containing the Unit or in the installation or operation of any mechanical equipment therein due to materials or improper workmanship substantially at variance with the plans and specifications, provided that it is notified of such defects in writing by certified mail within one year from the date of the closing of title to the Unit in which the alleged defect exists.

Purchaser should note that:

a. No steps taken by Seller to correct a defect shall act to extend the warranty period.

b. Seller accepts no responsibility for any warranty obligation for incidental or consequential damage caused by any defect.

c. These warranties give Purchaser specific legal rights. Purchaser may have other rights under State law.

d. These warranties are extended to you as Purchaser and are not extended to any subsequent Purchaser and mortgage lender who takes possession of the Unit.

e. These warranties shall be void if Purchaser misuses, abuses or otherwise interferes with or changes Seller's original construction or installations.

f. Seller is not responsible for any work or material ordered directly by Purchasers from Seller's contractors or suppliers.

g. Seller will provide Purchaser with the same warranties provided under the Housing Merchant Implied Warranty, Section 777-a of the General Business Law. The provisions of this Paragraph shall survive the delivery of the deed.

21. Agreement May Not Be Assigned. Purchaser shall not have the right to assign this Agreement without the prior written consent of Sponsor and any purported assignment of this Agreement in violation hereof shall be voidable at the option of Seller.

22. Binding Effect. This Agreement shall not be binding on Purchaser or Sponsor until a fully executed copy hereof has been furnished to Purchaser. If this Agreement is not accepted within twenty days from the date hereof by the furnishing to Purchaser of a fully executed copy, this Agreement shall be deemed to have been rejected and canceled and the deposit paid on the execution hereof, with interest accrued thereon, if any, shall be returned promptly to Purchaser.

23. Notices. Any notices, request or other communication hereunder or under the Plan shall be in writing and sent, postage prepaid, by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, to Purchaser at the address given at the beginning of this Agreement, with a copy to his/her/their Counsel or to the seller at the address given at the beginning of this Agreement, with a copy to Yeung & Wang, 136-20 38th Avenue, Flushing, N.Y. 11354 or to such other address as either party may hereafter designate to the other in writing. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, the date of mailing shall be deemed to be the date of the giving of notice, except that the date of actual receipt shall be deemed to be the date of giving if any notice of change of address.

24. Captions. The captions in this Agreement are for convenience and reference only and in no way define, limit or describe the scope of this Agreement or the intent of any provision hereof.

25. No Oral Changes: This Agreement cannot be changed or terminated orally. ANY CHANGES OR ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS MUST BE SET FORTH IN A RIDER ATTACHED HERETO OR IN A SEPARATE WRITTEN AGREEMENT SIGNED BY ALL PARTIES. YOU, AS THE PURCHASER OF THIS UNIT, MAY REQUIRE THE RECIPIENT OR CONTRACTOR TO DEPOSIT THE INITIAL ADVANCE MADE BY YOU IN AN ESCROW ACCOUNT. In either instance, all such monies actually received (hereinafter referred to as the Trust Funds) shall be held in trust for the-benefit of all Unit Owners and their Permitted Mortgagees and shall be disbursed pursuant to the terms of this Section 5.5. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained either in this paragraph (k) or elsewhere in this Section 5.5, however, no Unit Owner whose Unit, its appurtenant Limited Common Elements, or any portion thereof are taken in condemnation or by eminent domain (whether or not all or a part of the Common Elements are contemporaneously taken) shall be deemed to have waived whatever rights that he or she may have to pursue a separate claim against the condemning authority by reason thereof.

(B) Subject to the terms of paragraph (D) hereof, the Board of Managers shall arrange for the prompt repair or restoration (hereinafter referred to as the Work) of: (I). In the event of a casualty loss, the portions of the Property (including all Units, the exposed face of all walls, ceilings and floors in the units, other than those walls ceilings and floors erected by a Unit owner other than the Sponsor) as finished by Sponsor in accordance with the Section of the Offering Plan entitled Description of Property and Specifications and all bathroom and kitchen fixtures installed therein by Sponsor, but not including appliances or any furniture, fixtures, furnishings, decorations, belongings, or other personal property supplied or installed by either Unit Owners or the tenants of Unit Owners) affected by such Casualty Loss or (ii) in the event of a Taking, the portion(s) of the Common Elements affected by such Taking. If, pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence, Work is to be performed in or to Units, Common Elements that service or enclosed Units and other Common Elements, or any combination of the foregoing, the Work shall be performed, to the extent practicable, first in or to the Units, next in or to the Common Elements that service or enclose Units and then in or to the balance of the Common Elements. In addition, each Unit Owner whose Unit, its appurtenant Limited Common Elements, or any portion thereof shall be the subject of all or part of any Work shall have the right, subject to the terms of Section 5.2 hereof, to supervise any reconstruction of his or her Unit and/or such Limited Common Elements.

(C) In the event that Work shall be performed pursuant to the terms of paragraphs (B) and (D) of this Section 5.5, the Board of Managers or the Insurance Trustee, as the case may be, shall disburse the Trust Funds to the contractors engaged in the Work in appropriate progress payments. If the Trust Funds shall be less than sufficient to discharge the cost and expense of performing the Work, the Board of Managers shall levy a Special Assessment against all Unit Owners for the amount of such deficiency in proportion to their respective Common Interests and all proceeds of such Special Assessment shall become part of the Trust Funds. If, conversely, the Trust Funds shall prove to be more than sufficient to discharge the cost and expense of performing the Work, such excesses shall be paid to all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests, except that no payment shall be made to a Unit Owner until there has first been paid, out of said Unit Owner's share of such excess, such amounts as may be necessary to reduce unpaid liens on the Unit Owner's Unit (other than mortgages that are not Permitted Mortgages) in the order of priority of such liens. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, in the event that the Unit Owners are assessed pursuant to the terms of the second sentence of this paragraph and for any projected deficiency in the amount of the Trust Funds available to the Board of Managers and, after the payment of all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Work, any portion of the Trust Funds remains unspent, such excess Trust Funds shall, to the extent of such Special Assessment, be deemed to be, and shall constitute, an unspent Special Assessment and shall be paid to the Unit Owners so assessed in proportion to their respective Common Interests, free of any claim of any lienor (including. without limitation, any Permitted mortgagee).

(D) If either 75% or more of the Units are destroyed or substantially damaged by fire or other casualty or 75% or more of the Common Elements are taken in a Taking, the Work shall not be performed unless 75% or more of all Unit Owners (including Sponsor or its designee, if Sponsor or such designee shall then own any Units), both in number and aggregate Common Interests, shall promptly resolve to proceed with the same. In the event that a sufficient number of Unit Owners shall so resolve, the Work shall be performed pursuant to the terms of paragraphs (B) and (C) hereof. Conversely, in the event that a sufficient number of Unit Owners shall either fail or refuse to so resolve, the Work shall not be performed and the Property shall be subject to an action for partition by any Unit Owner or lienor, as if owned in common, in which event the not proceeds of the resulting sale, together with any Trust Funds, shall be paid to all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests, except that no payment shall be made to a Unit Owner until there first has been paid, out of such Unit Owner's share of such funds, such amounts as may be necessary to reduce unpaid liens on the Unit Owner's Unit (other than mortgages that are not Permitted Mortgages) in the order of priority of such liens.

(E) In the event that the damage resulting from a Casualty Loss shall (i) render one or more Units wholly or partially unusable for the purposes permitted herein and in the Declaration or (ii) destroy the means of access to one or more Units, the installments of Common Charges otherwise payable by the owner of any Unit so affected thereby shall proportionately abate until such Unit shall again be rendered useable for such purposes and/or until the means of access thereto shall be restored, as the case may be. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, if such Casualty Loss shall be caused by the act, the Omission to act, or the negligence of the owner of a Unit so affected thereby, by a Family Member of such Unit Owner, or by a tenant or other occupant of such Unit, such installments of Common Charges shall abate Only to the extent of any proceeds of rent insurance actually collected by the Board of Managers with respect to such Unit.

(F) If (i) a portion of any Unit shall be taken in condemnation or by eminent domain and (ii) the Condominium shall not be terminated by reason of a simultaneous Taking pursuant to the terms of paragraph (D) hereof, the Common Interest appurtenant to such Unit shall be adjusted in the proportion that the total fair value of such Unit after such taking bears to the total fair value of such Unit prior to such taking. The Board of Managers shall promptly prepare and record an amendment to the Declaration reflecting the New Common Interest appurtenant to such Unit, which amendment shall be executed by the owner of such Unit together with the holders of record of any liens thereon (or, in lieu of execution by such Unit Owner and lienors, the same may execute a consent to such amendment in recordable form). Following the Taking of a portion of a Unit and the recording of the aforementioned amendment to the Declaration, the votes appurtenant to such Unit shall be based upon the new Common Interest of such Units and, in the event of a Taking of an entire Unit, the right to vote appurtenant to such Unit shall wholly terminate. In either event, the Common Interests of the other or remaining Units shall be adjusted accordingly and reflected in an amendment to the Declaration duly executed and acknowledged by the Board of Managers and the owners of, together with the holders of record of all liens upon, all of the other or remaining Units.

(G) As used in this Section 5.5, the terms:

(i) prompt repair or restoration shall mean that the Work is to be commenced not more than either: (a) 60 days after the date upon which the Insurance Trustee notifies the Board of Managers and the Unit Owners that it has received Trust Funds sufficient to discharge the estimated cost and expense of the Work, or (b) 90 days after the date upon which the Insurance Trustee notifies the Board of Managers and the Unit Owners that it has received Trust insufficient to discharge the estimated cost and expense of the Work, or (c) in the event that the Trust funds are payable to the Board of Managers pursuant to the terms of paragraph (A) of this Section 5.5, 60 days after the date upon which the Board of Managers notifies the Unit Owners that it has received the Trust Funds, whether or not the same are sufficient to discharge the cost and expense of the Work; and

(ii) promptly resolve shall mean that a resolution shall be duly made not more than 60 days after the date upon which the Board of Managers or the Insurance Trustee, as the case may be, notifies the Unit Owners that it has received the Trust funds and that the same are or are not sufficient to discharge the estimated cost and expense of the Work, as the case may be.

(H) Any dispute that may arise under this Section 5.5 between Unit Owners or between any Unit Owner(s) and the Board of Managers shall be resolved by arbitration pursuant to the terms of Article 10 hereof.

Section 5.6 Use of the Property.

(A) No nuisance or immoral activity shall be committed or permitted to occur in or about any Unit or upon any part of the Common Elements, nor shall any use or practice be allowed in a Unit that either is a source of annoyance to its residents or interferes with the peaceful possession or proper use of the Property by its residents or occupants. No unlawful use shall be made of the Property or any portion thereof, and all valid Laws relating to any portion of the Property shall be complied with at the full cost and expense of the respective Unit owners or the Board of Managers, whoever shall have the obligation to maintain or repair such part of the Property.

(B) Nothing shall be done or kept in any Unit or in any of the Common Elements that would increase the rate of insurance for the Property, except upon the prior written consent of the Board of Managers. No Unit Owner shall permit anything to be done or kept in a Unit or in the Common Elements that will result in the cancellation of insurance on the Property or the contents thereof, or that would be in violation of any law. No waste shall be committed in the Common Elements.

(C) Nothing shall be done in any Unit or in, on, or to the Common Elements that will impair the structural integrity of the Property or that will structurally change the Building, except as is otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws. In no event shall interior partitions contributing to the support of any unit or the Common Elements be altered or removed.

Section 5.7 Use of the Units.

(A) In order to provide for congenial occupancy of the Property and for the protection of the values of the Units, the use of Units shall be restricted to, and shall be in accordance with, the terms contained in the balance of this Section 5.7.

(B) Each Unit shall be used only as a residence. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, a portion of a Unit may be used for any home occupation, including as a professional office, by the resident thereof provided that the nature and manner of such use complies with Law and does not violate the then existing Certificate of Occupancy covering such Unit, applicable zoning law and ordinances, building code or other rules and regulations of governmental authorities having jurisdiction. No illuminated or other sign may be used in connection with the aforementioned use without the prior written consent of the Board of Managers.

(C) A Unit owned or leased by an individual, corporation, partnership, fiduciary, or any other entity may be occupied only by said individual, or by an officer, director, stockholder, or employee of such corporation, or by a partner or employee of such partnership, or by said fiduciary (including directors, officers, stockholders, or employees of corporate fiduciaries and partners or employees or partnership fiduciaries), or by the beneficiary of said fiduciary, or by a principal or employee of such other entity, respectively, or by Family Members or guests of any of the foregoing (however, nothing contained in this sentence shall be deemed to prohibit the exclusive occupancy of any Unit by such Family Members or guests). Additionally, in no event shall a portion of a Unit (as opposed to the entire Unit) be sold, conveyed, leased, or subleased, and no transient occupant (other than a guest permitted under this paragraph © may be accommodated therein).

(D) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 5.7, Sponsor may, without the consent of either the Board of Managers or the Unit Owners;

(i) grant Permission for the use of any residential Unsold Unit for any home occupation, including as a professional office by the resident thereof provided that the nature and manner of such use complies with Law and does not violate the then existing Certificate of Occupancy covering such residential Unsold Unit; and

(ii) use any one or more residential Unsold Units as model units and offices for the sales, promotion, rental, at and operation of the Unsold Units or for any other purpose, subject only to compliance with Law.

Section 5.8 Use of the Common Elements.

(A) Subject to the terms of paragraphs (B) and (C) of this Section 5.8, the Common Elements (including, without limitation, the electrical, heating, gas, plumbing and other mechanical systems and equipment of the Buildings) may be used only for the furnishing of the services and facilities, and for the other uses, for which they are reasonably suited and capable. In addition, no furniture, doormats, packages or objects of any kind shall be placed in or on any part of the Common Elements, including but not limited to the lobby vestibule, public hall and stairways, (except for those areas designated as storage areas, if any) without the prior written consent of the Board of Managers.

(B) The owner or owners of any two or more Units, if such Units are the only Units serviced or benefited by any Common Element adjacent or appurtenant to such Units or (for example, that portion at the end of any hallway that is directly adjacent to any such Units located on opposite sides of such hallway) shall, with the consent of the Board of Managers (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), have the right to use such Common Elements exclusively, as if it were a part of such Units (including the right, in the above example of a portion of a hallway, to enclose such portion), and no amendment to the Declaration or reallocation of Common Interests shall be made by reason thereof. In such event, however, such owner or owners shall, at his, her or their sole cost and expense, both (i) operate, maintain and repair such Common Elements for so long as such owner or owners exercise such exclusive right of use and (b) restore such Common Element to its original condition, reasonable wear and tear excepted, after such owner or owners cease to exercise such exclusive right of use.

(C) The terms of paragraph (A) of this Section 5.8 shall not apply to Sponsor or its designee for so long as there are any residential Unsold Units. So long as Sponsor any Unit, Sponsor or its designee shall have the right, without charge or limitation, to: (i) erect and maintain signs, of any size or content determined by Sponsor or such designee, on or about any portion of the Common Elements chosen by Sponsor or such designee, including, without limitation, on the exterior walls of the Buildings or adjacent to any entrance thereof; (ii) have its employees, contractors, subcontractors and sales agents present on the Property; and (iii) do all things necessary or appropriate, including the use of the Common Elements, to sell, lease, manage or operate Unsold Units, to complete any work or repairs to the Buildings expressly undertaken by Sponsor and to comply with Sponsor's obligations under the Offering Plan and the Condominium Documents. In addition, Sponsor and its designee shall be entitled to exercise the rights set forth in paragraph (B) of this Section 5.8 with respect to any residential Unsold Unit(s) without the necessity of obtaining the consent of either the Board of Managers or any other Unit Owners. In no event, however, shall Sponsor or such designee be entitled to use any Common Elements in such a manner as will unreasonably interfere with the use of any Unit for its permitted purposes.

Section 5.9 Rights of Access.

(A) subject to the rights of existing tenants and other occupants of residential Unsold Units, each Unit Owner shall grant to the Sponsor, to the Board of Managers, to the Managing Agent or manager (if any), to the superintendent and/or to any other Person authorized by any of the foregoing a permanent right of access to his or her Unit and its appurtenant Limited Common Elements for the purposes of:

(i) making inspections of, or removing violations noted or issued by any governmental authority against, the Common Elements or any other part of the Property;

(ii) curing defaults hereunder or under the Declaration or violations of the Rules and Regulations committed by such Unit Owner or correcting any conditions originating in his or her Unit and threatening another Unit or all of a portion of the Common Elements;

(iii) performing maintenance, installations, alterations, repairs, or replacements to the mechanical or electrical services, or other portions of the Common Elements located within his or her Unit or elsewhere in the Buildings;

(iv) reading, maintaining, or replacing utility motors relating to the Common Elements, to his or her Unit, or to any other Unit; or

(v) correcting any condition that violates the provisions of any Permitted Mortgage encumbering another Unit.

Except in cases of emergency (that is, a condition requiring repairs or replacements immediately necessary for the preservation or safety of the Buildings or for the safety of the occupants of the Buildings or other individuals, or required to avoid the suspension of any necessary service in the Buildings), the foregoing rights of access shall be exercised only upon not less than one day's advance notice and only in such a manner as will not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Units and their appurtenant Limited Common Elements for their permitted purposes. In cases of emergency, however, such rights of access may be exercised immediately, without advance notice and whether or not the Unit Owner is present.

(B) Each Unit Owner shall grant a right of access to his or her Unit and its appurtenant Limited Common Elements, and the Board of Managers shall grant rights of access to the Common Elements, to Sponsor and its contractors, subcontractors, agents and employees for the purpose of fulfilling Sponsor's obligations as set forth in the Offering Plan or in any amendment thereto, provided that access thereto shall not be exercised, with respect to any Unit and its appurtenant Limited Common Elements, in such a manner as will unreasonably interfere with the use of such Unit and Limited Common Elements for their permitted purposes.

Section 5.10 Modification of the Rules and Regulations. The Board of Managers shall have the right to amend, modify, add to, or delete any of the Rules and Regulations from time to time, provided, however, that any such amendment, modification, addition, or deletion may be overruled by a vote of a majority in Common interests of Unit owners. Notwithstanding the foregoing, as long as Sponsor, any Sponsor-designee or any partner of any entity affiliated directly or indirectly with Sponsor owns title to one or more Units, the Rules and Regulations may not be amended in a manner which would, in the sole discretion of Sponsor, any Sponsor-designee or any partner of any entity affiliated directly or indirectly with Sponsor, adversely affect such Persons in any way, unless each such Person gives its prior written consent to such amendment. Copies of the text of any amendments, modifications, addition, or deletions to the Rules and Regulations shall be furnished to all Unit Owners not less than thirty days prior to the effective date thereof.

Section 5.11 Real Estate Taxes, Water Charges and Sewer Rents. Water for the Buildings shall be supplied by the City of New York. Unless and until real estate taxes, water charges and sewer rents are billed directly to Unit Owners by the City Collector, (i) the Unit Owners shall pay to the Board of Managers at least 15 days before same became due and payable the cost of any such taxes, charges and rents as a Special Assessment, (ii) the cost thereof shall be allocated among the owners of the Units in proportion to each Unit's Common Interest, and (iii) the Board of Managers shall collect such monies from the Unit Owners, hold such monies in trust and promptly pay such taxes, charges and rents before they are due, all as agent for the Unit Owners. In the event of a proposed sale of any Unit, the Board of Managers (for so long as the Board of Managers is still paying such real estate taxes, water charges and sewer rents as agent for the Unit Owners) shall, upon the written request of the selling Unit Owner, execute and deliver to the purchaser of such Unit or to such purchasers title company, a letter agreeing to promptly pay all such taxes, charges and rents affecting such owner's Unit to the date of the closing of title to such Unit.

The Board of Managers may act as an agent of each Unit Owner who has given his or her written authorization to complain or apply to the board of assessment review or the assessing agency by filing a single complaint on behalf of all such Unit Owners and to commence and prosecute a special proceeding for the review of assessments of real property as an aggrieved person. The Board of Managers may retain legal counsel on behalf of all Unit Owners for which it is acting as agent and may charge all such Unit Owners a pro-rata share of expenses, disbursements and legal fees, for which charges the Board of Managers shall have a lien pursuant to the terms of these By-Laws.

Section 5.12 Utilities Serving the Common Elements. The cost and expense of water, steam, electricity and gas serving or benefiting any Common Element shall be (i) considered part of the expense of maintaining such Common Element, (ii) determined by the Board and (iii) charged to the Unit Owners as a Common Expense.

Section 5.13 Records and Audits.

(A) The Treasurer of the Condominium, or the Managing Agent under the supervision of such Treasurer, shall keep full, detailed and accurate records and books of account with respect to the financial affairs of the Condominium, which records and books of accounts shall include, without limitation, (i) a listing of all receipts of and expenditures by the Board of Managers and the Managing Agent and (ii) a separate listing for each Unit, setting forth, among other things, the amount of each assessment of Common charges and Special Assessments levied against such Unit, the date when due, the amounts paid thereon and the balance, if any, remaining unpaid.

(B) Within four months after the and of each fiscal year of the Condominium, the Board of Managers shall submit to each Unit Owner, and, if so requested, to any Permitted Mortgagee, an annual report of the receipts and expenditures of the Condominium prepared and certified by an independent certified public accountant. The cost of preparing and distributing each such report shall be borne by the Board of Managers as a Common Expense.

(C) The books of account and records of the Condominium may be examined by Unit Owners at convenient hours on weekdays.

ARTICLE 6
COMMON CHARGES

Section 6.1 Determination of Common Expenses & Fixing of Common Charges.

(A) From time to time, but not less frequently than once a year, the Board of Managers shall: (i) prepare and adopt a budget for the Condominium, subject, in all respects, to the limitations set forth in Section 2.5 hereof; (ii) determine the aggregate amount of Common Charges necessary to be charged to the Unit Owners in order to meet the Common Expenses; and (iii) allocate and assess such Common Charges among the Unit Owners pro-rata, in accordance with their respective Common Interests. This allocation and assessment of Common Charges is based upon the exclusive use of Limited Common Elements by certain Unit Owners, in a manner different from common profits and expenses and is expressly authorized hereby in accordance with Section 339-m of the Real Property Law. The Board of Managers shall advise all Unit Owners promptly thereafter in writing of the amount of Common Charges payable by each of them and, not later than 10 days next preceding the date upon which the first installment of newly-determined Common Charges is due, shall furnish copies of the budget (in a reasonably itemized form) upon which such Common Charges are based to all Unit Owners and to their respective Permitted Mortgagees. The Board of Managers may, at its sole discretion, from time to time increase or decrease the amount of Common Charges allocated to the Units and payable by the Unit Owners and may modify its prior determination of the Common Expenses for any fiscal year so as to increase or decrease the amount of Common Charges payable for such fiscal year or portion thereof; however, no such revised determination of Common Expenses shall have a retroactive effect on the amount of Common Charges payable by Unit Owners for any period prior to the date of such now determination. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, the Board of Managers shall not reduce the Common Charges payable during any year occurring within a period when Sponsor owns Units having more than 50% of the Common Interests of all Units solely as a result of either reducing the number of employees of the Condominium below the number employed for the Property on the date of recording the Declaration, or eliminating or reducing any service or reducing the insurance coverage below that provided for the Property an such date, except with the concurrence of a majority of the members of the Board of Managers elected by Unit Owners other than Sponsor or its designee.

(B) The failure or delay of the Board of Managers to prepare or adopt a budget or to determine the Common Expenses for any fiscal year or portion thereof shall not be doomed a waiver or modification in any respect of the covenants and provisions hereof or a release of any Unit Owner from the obligation to pay Common Charges. In such event, the Common Charges that were computed on the basis Of the Common Expenses last determined for any fiscal year or portion thereof shall continue thereafter to be the Common Charges Payable by the Unit Owners until a now determination of the Common Expenses shall be made.

(C) In addition to the foregoing duty to determine the amount of and assess Common Charges, the Board of Managers shall have the right, subject, in all respects, to the limitations contained in Section 2.5 hereof, to levy Special Assessments to meet the Common Expenses. All Special Assessments shall be levied against all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interest and may be payable either in one lump sum or in installments, as the Board of Managers shall determine, provided, however, that the Board of Managers shall give each Unit Owner not less than 15 days' written notice prior to the date upon which such Special Assessment, or the first installment thereof, shall be due and payable, which notice shall set forth, in reasonable detail, the nature and purposes thereof. The Board of Managers shall have all rights and remedies for the collection of Special Assessments as are provided herein for the collection of Common Charges (including, without limitation, the provisions of Section 6.4 hereof).

(D) The excess of all rents, profits and revenues derived from the rental or use of any space forming a part of, or included in, any Common Element remaining after deduction of all expenses incurred in connection with generating the same shall constitute income of the Unit Owners, and shall be collected on behalf of the Unit Owners by the Board of Managers and applied against the Common Expenses for the year in which collected. In the event that such net rents, profits and revenues, together with the Common Charges and any Special Assessments collected from the Unit Owners, for any year of operation shall exceed the Common Expenses for such year, then such excess shall be applied by the Board of Managers against the Common Expenses for the next succeeding year(s) of operation, and no Unit Owner shall be entitled to a distribution of any portion of such excess unless the Board of Managers shall determine to distribute all or part of such excess to all Unit Owners pro-rata, in proportion to their respective Common Interest. Notwithstanding any provision contained in these By-Laws or in the Declaration to the contrary, however, in no event shall any rent, profit, or revenue derived from the rental or use of any space in any Buildings be deemed to be derived from the rental or use of any floor slabs, ceilings, or walls delineating or enclosing such space or the incidental use of any portion of any Common Elements appurtenant to such space.

Section 6.2 Payment of Common Charges.

(A) All Unit Owners (including Sponsor and Sponsor-designees with respect to Unsold Units, for so long as the same are owned thereby) shall be obligated to pay Common Charges and Special Assessments assessed by the Board of Managers pursuant to the terms of Section 5.1 thereof at such time or times (but not less than annually) as the Board of Managers shall determine. Unless otherwise determined by the Board of Managers, Common Charges shall be payable in installments on the first day of every month in advance. To the extent permitted by Law, the Board of Managers shall have a lien on each Unit, on behalf of all Unit Owners, for unpaid Common Charges and Special Assessments assessed against such Unit. Such lien, however, shall be subordinate, to the extent required by Law, to any liens for real estate taxes assessed against such Unit and to any sums unpaid on a Permitted First Mortgage of record thereon.

(B) No Unit Owner shall be liable for the payment of any part of the Common Charges and any Special Assessments assessed against his or her Units subsequent to a sale, transfer, or other conveyance by his or her of such Unit, together with its Appurtenant Interests, made in compliance with the terms of Article 7 hereof. A purchaser or other successor-in-title to the owner of a Unit shall be liable for the payment of all Common Charges and any Special Assessments accrued and unpaid against such Unit prior to his or her acquisition thereof, except that, to the extent permitted by Law, a Permitted First Mortgage acquiring title to a mortgaged Unit or a purchaser at a mortgage foreclosure sale hold with respect to a Permitted First Mortgage shall not be liable. and such mortgaged Unit shall not be subject to a lien, for the payment of any Common Charges and Special Assessments assessed subsequent to the recording of such Permitted First Mortgage and prior to the acquisition of title to such Unit by the Permitted First Mortgagee or by such purchaser. However, in the event of a foreclosure of a Permitted First Mortgage (whether by sale, deed in lieu of foreclosure, or otherwise). the defaulting Unit Owner shall remain fully liable for the payment of all unpaid Common Charges and Special Assessments that accrued prior to such foreclosure. Any unpaid Common Charges and Special Assessment that are not collected from such defaulting Unit Owner shall be deemed a Common Expense, collectible from all those who are Unit Owners at the time that the same is levied.

(C) Subject to the terms and conditions contained in these By-Laws, any Unit Owner may convey his or her Unit, together with its Appurtenant Interests, to the Board of Managers or to its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Unit Owners, without being compensated therefore and, in such event, be exempt from the payment of Common Charges and Special Assessments thereafter accruing, provided, however, that: (i) all Common Charges and any Special Assessments then due and payable with respect to such Unit have been paid; (ii) such Unit is free and clear of all liens and encumbrances other than a Permitted First Mortgage and the statutory lien for unpaid Common Charges and Special Assessments; (iii) no violation of any provision of the Condominium Documents then exists with respect to such Unit and (iv) at the time of conveyance, and in the event that the Unit Owner shall deposit with the Board of Managers an amount equal to the product of the then current monthly debt service on the Permitted Mortgage multiplied by 24. However, in no event shall Sponsor or its designee be permitted to convey any Unsold Unit to the Board of Managers and thereby exempt itself from Common Charges and any Special Assessments attributable to such Unit thereafter accruing.

(D) No Unit Owner shall be exempted from liability for the payment of Common Charges or Special Assessments by waiving the use or enjoyment of any or all of the Common Elements or by abandoning his or her Unit (except with respect to a conveyance of the same to the Board of Managers, without compensation, pursuant to the terms of paragraph (c) hereof. Except as expressly provided to the contrary in paragraph (3) of Section 5.5 hereof, no Unit Owner shall be entitled to a diminution or abatement in the Common Charges or Special Assessments payable thereby for any inconvenience or discomfort arising from: (i) the failure or interruption of any utility or other services; (ii) the making of repairs or improvements to the Common Elements or any Unit (including, without limitation, such Unit Owner's Unit) pursuant to the terms of Section 5.1, 5.2 or 5.3 hereof; or (iii) any action taken by the Board of Managers or the officers of the Condominium to comply with Law.

(E) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, until such time as Sponsor has substantially completed construction of all the Units and Common Elements, Sponsor's obligation to pay Common Charges and Special Assessments with respect to Unsold Units shall not exceed the amount by which the actual operating costs of the Condominium (including reserves authorized hereunder) shall exceed the sum of the Common Charges and Special Assessments levied on Unit owners (other than Sponsor).

Section 6.3 Statement of Common Charges. The Board of Managers shall promptly provide a written statement of all unpaid Common Charges due from any Unit Owner upon its receipt of a written request therefor from such Unit Owner. In addition, each Unit Owner shall be permitted to examine books of account of the Condominium at reasonable times on weekdays.

Section 6.4 Default in Payment of Common Charges.

(A) The Board of Managers shall take prompt action to collect any Common Charges due to the Board of Managers that remains unpaid for more than fifteen (15) days after the due date for the payment thereof. In connection therewith, the Board of Managers shall have the right to cause liens for all sums due and owing to the Board of Managers to be filed with the Register's Office pursuant to the terms of Section 399-s of the Condominium Act to cause such liens to be foreclosed in the manner provided in Section 399-aa of the Condominium Act and/or to institute all other proceedings necessary or desirable by the Board of Managers to recover all such unpaid Common Charges, together with all additional sums of money collectible by the Board of Managers by reason of such nonpayment pursuant to the terms of paragraph (B) hereof. A suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid Common Charges; however, shall be maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing such charges.

(B) In the event that any Unit Owner shall fail to make prompt payment of Common Charges or Special Assessments, such Unit Owner shall be obligated to pay each month a late charge of five (5) cents for each dollar of such amounts which remain unpaid for more than five days from their due date (although nothing herein shall be deemed to extend the period within which such amounts are to be paid), together with all costs and expenses paid or incurred by the Board of Managers, the Managing Agent, or the member(if any) in connection with collecting such unpaid Common Charges or Special Assessment with interest at the rate of two (2%) percent per month (but in no event in excess of the maximum rate permitted by law) and/or in foreclosing the aforementioned lien, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements and court costs. The late charge shall be imposed for each month that the Common Charges shall remain unpaid for any portion of the month. In addition, if the Board of Managers shall bring an action to foreclose the aforementioned lien, the defaulting Unit Owner will be required to pay a reasonable rental for the use of his or her Unit, and the plaintiff in such foreclosure action shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the same. All such late charges, interest, costs and expenses and rentals shall be added to and shall constitute Common Charges or Special Assessments payable by such Unit Owner.

(C) In any action brought by the Board of Managers to foreclose a lien on a Unit because of unpaid Common Charges, the Board of Managers shall have, on behalf of all Unit Owners, the power to purchase such Unit at the foreclosure sale thereof and to acquire, hold, lease, mortgage. convey, or otherwise deal with such Unit (but not to vote the votes appurtenant to the Unit). In the event that the net proceeds received on such foreclosure (after deduction of all legal fees and disbursements, advertising costs, brokerage commissions, court costs and other costs and expenses paid or incurred in connection therewith) shall be insufficient to satisfy the defaulting Unit Owner's obligations to the Condominium such Unit Owner shall remain liable for the deficit. Any surplus on such foreclosure sale shall be paid to the defaulting Unit Owner after first paying all liens on such Unit Owner's Unit in the order of priority of such liens.

SELLING AND LEASING OF UNITS

Section 7.1 General. Subject to the terms of Section 7.5 hereof, no Unit Owner may sell or lease his or her Unit except in compliance with the applicable provisions of this Article 7. Any purported sale or lease consummated in default of the applicable terms hereof shall be voidable at the sole election of the Board of Managers, and, if the Board of Managers shall so elect, the selling or leasing Unit Owner shall be deemed to have authorized and empowered the Board of Managers to institute legal proceedings to eject the purported purchaser (in the event of an unauthorized sale) or to evict the purported tenant (in the event of an unauthorized leasing) in the name of the said Unit Owner as the owner or landlord, as the case may be. The said Unit Owner shall reimburse the Board of Managers for all costs and expenses paid or incurred in connection with such proceedings, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements and court costs.

Section 7.2 Right of First Refusal.

(A) Subject to the terms of Sections 7.5 and 7.9 hereof, any contract to sell a Unit together with its Appurtenant Interests and apportioned Limited Common Element, if any, and any lease of a Unit (hereinafter collectively referred to as a Sale or Lease Agreement) shall contain the following language: THIS AGREEMENT AND THE RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES HEREUNDER ARE HEREBY MADE EXPRESSLY SUBJECT TO THE RIGHTS, IF ANY, OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS OR THE CONDOMINIUM WITH RESPECT TO THE TRANSACTION EMBODIED HEREIN PURSUANT TO THE TERMS OF SECTIONS 7.2 and 7.3 OF THE BY-LAWS OF THE SAID CONDOMINIUM, AS THE SAME MAY HAVE BEEN AMENDED. Promptly after any such contract of sale or lease shall be fully executed, the Unit Owner executing the same (hereinafter referred to as the Offeree Unit Owner) shall send written notice thereof to the Board of Managers by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, which notice shall be accompanied by a fully executed, original counterpart of the contract of sale or the lease, as the case may be, containing all of the terms offered in good faith by the prospective purchaser or tenant (hereinafter referred to as the Outside Offeror).

(B) The sending of the notice referred to in paragraph (A) of this Section 7.2 shall constitute an offer by the Offeree Unit Owner to sell his or her Unit, together with its Appurtenant Interests and apportioned Limited Common Element, if any, and, or to lease his or her Unit, as the case may be, to the Board of Managers or to its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Unit Owners, upon the same terms and conditions as are contained in such Sale or Lease Agreement, subject, however, to any variance therefrom provided in Section 7.3 hereof. The giving of such notice shall further constitute a representation and warranty by the Offeree Unit Owner to the Board of Managers, on behalf of all Unit Owners, that such Offeree Unit Owner believes the Sale or Lease Agreement to be bona fide in all respects. Thereafter, upon the written demand of the Board of Managers, the Offeree Unit Owner shall submit to the Board of Managers, in writing, such further information with respect to the Outside Offeror and the Sale or Lease Agreement as the Board of Managers may reasonably request.

(C) The Board of Managers may elect, by sending written notice thereof to the Offeree Unit owner by certified or registered mail not later than 15 business days after receipt of the notice referred to in paragraph (A) hereof together with such further information as may have been requested pursuant to the terms of paragraph (B) hereof, to purchase such Unit together with its Appurtenant Interests and apportioned Limited Common Element, if any, or to lease such Unit, as the case may be (or to cause the same to be purchased or learned by its designee, corporate or otherwise) on behalf of all Unit Owners upon the same term and conditions as were contained in the Sale or Lease Agreement at and stated in the response(s) by the Offeree Unit Owner to any requests for additional information pursuant to the terms of paragraph (B) hereof. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, however, the Board of Managers shall not exercise any option set forth in this Section 7.2 to purchase or lease any Unit without the prior approval of a Majority in Common Interests of Unit Owners.

Section 7.3 Acceptance of Offer.

(A) In the event that the Board of Managers shall elect, within the time provided in Section 7.2 hereof, to purchase a Unit together with its Appurtenant Interests and apportioned Limited Common Element, if anyone to lease such Unit, or to cause the same to be purchased or leased by its designee, title shall close or a lease shall be executed, in either event in accordance with the terms of the Sale or Lease Agreement, at the office of the attorneys for the Condominium within 45 days after the day upon which the Board of Managers shall give notice of its election to accept such offer.

(B) If such Unit and its Appurtenant Interests and apportioned Limited Common Element, if any, are to be purchased by the Board of Managers or its designee on behalf of all Unit Owners, such purchase may be made from the funds deposited in the capital and/or expense accounts of the Condominium. If the funds in such accounts are insufficient to effectuate such purchase, the Board of Managers may levy a Special Assessment against each Unit Owner (other than the Offeree Unit Owner) in accordance with the terms of paragraph (C) of Section 6.1 hereof and/or the Board of Managers may, in its discretion, finance the acquisition of such Unit; provided, however, that no such financing may be secured by an encumbrance on or a hypothecation of any portion of the Property other than the Unit to be purchased together with its Appurtenant Interests and apportioned Limited Common Element, if any. In addition, if the Outside Offeror was to seems or to take title to the Unit subject to the Offeree Unit Owner's existing mortgage. or mortgages pursuant to the Sale or Lease Agreement, the Board of Managers may purchase the Unit and assume or take title thereto subject to such mortgage or mortgages, as the case may be. At the closing of title, the Offeree Unit Owner shall convey the Unit, together with its Appurtenant Interests and apportioned Limited Common Element, if any, to the Board of Managers or to its designee, on behalf of all Unit Owners, by deed in the form required by Section 399-0 of Condominium Act with all tax and/or documentary stamps affixed at the expense of the Offerees Unit Owner who shall also pay all other transfer taxes, gains taxes and any other taxes arising out of such sale notwithstanding any terms of the Sale or Lease Agreement to the contrary. Real estate taxes (including water charges and sewer charges, if separately assessed), mortgage interest (if applicable) and Common Charges shall be apportioned between the Offeree Unit Owner and the Board of Managers or its designee as of the closing date, notwithstanding any terms of the Sale or Lease Agreement to the contrary. Thereafter, such Unit shall be held, so long as the same is owned by the Board of Managers or its designee, on behalf of all Unit Owners, as tenants-in-common, in proportion to their respective Common Interests, and all such Unit Owners shall be deemed to have waived all rights of partition with respect to such Unit and the entire Property, as herein provided.

(C) In the event that such Unit is to be leased by the Board of Managers or its designee on behalf of all Unit Owners, the Offeree Unit Owner shall execute and deliver to the Board of managers or such designee a lease covering such Unit by and between the Offeres Unit Owner, as landlord, and the Board of Managers or such designee, as tenant. Such lease shall be in the then current form of apartment lease recommended by the Real Estate Board of New York, Inc., and shall contain all of the terms and conditions of the Sale or Lease Agreement not in conflict with such form of lease, including, without limitation, the rental and term provided for therein and shall comply with paragraph (C) of Section 7.4. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth hereinabove or in the Sale or Lease Agreement, however, such lease shall expressly provide that the Board of Managers or such designee may enter into a sublease of the premises demised thereunder without consent of the landlord.

Section 7.4 Failure to Accept Offer.

(A) In the event that the Board of Managers shall fail to accept an offer made pursuant to the terms of Section 7.2 hereof within the time set forth in paragraph (C) thereof, the Offeree Unit Owner shall be free to consummate the transaction embodied in the Sale or Lease Agreement within one hundred and twenty days after (i) notice of refusal is sent to the Offeree Unit Owner by the Board of Managers or (ii) the expiration of the period within which the Board of Managers or its designee might have accepted such offer, as the case may be. If the Offeree Unit Owner shall fail to consummate the transaction embodied in the Sale or Lease Agreement within such 120-day period, then, should the Offeree Unit Owner thereafter elect to sell such Unit together with its Appurtenant Interests and apportioned Limited Common Elements, if any or to lease such Unit, the Offeree Unit Owner shall be required again to comply with all of the terms and provisions of Sections 7.2,7.3 and 7.4 hereof.

(B) Any deed of a Unit and its Appurtenant Interests and apportioned Limited Common Elements, if any to an Outside Offeror shall expressly provide that the acceptance thereof by the grantee shall constitute an assumption of all of the terms of the Condominium Documents, and, in the absence of such express language, the same shall be conclusively deemed to have been included therein.

(C) Each lease of a Unit to an Outside Offeror shall be in the then current form of apartment lease recommended by the Real Estate Board of New York, Inc., subject to such modifications as may be approved in writing by the Board of Managers. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, each such lease shall be consistent with the Condominium Documents and shall expressly provide that:

(i) such lease may not be materially amended or modified, or extended without the prior written consent of the Board of Managers in each instance;

(ii). the tenant thereunder shall not assign his or her interest in such lease or sublet the premises demised thereunder or any part thereof without the prior written consent of the Board of Managers in each instance; and

(iii) the Board of Managers shall have the power to terminate such lease and/or to bring summary proceedings to evict the tenant in the name of the landlord thereunder in the event of (a) a default by the tenant in the performance of its obligations under such lease or (b) a foreclosure of the lien granted by Section 339-x of the Condominium Act.

Section 7.5 Termination of and Exceptions to The Right of First Refusal

The Board of Managers shall furnish or cause the Managing Agent to furnish such certificate upon written request to any Unit Owner in respect to whom the provisions of Section 7.2 hereof have, in fact, been terminated. §777-a. HOUSING MERCHANT IMPLIED WARRANTY

1. Notwithstanding the provisions of section two hundred fifty-one of the real property law, a housing merchant implied warranty is implied in the contract or agreement for the sale of a new home and shall survive the passing of title. A housing merchant implied warranty shall mean that:

a. one year from and after the warranty date the home will be free from defects due to a failure to have been constructed in a skillful manner;

b. two years from and after the warranty date the plumbing, electrical, heating, cooling and ventilation systems of the home will be free from defects due to a failure by the builder to have installed such systems in a skillful manner; and

c. six years from and after the warranty date the home will be free from material defects.

2. Unless the contract or agreement by its terms clearly evidences a different intention of the seller, a housing merchant implied warranty does not extend to:

a. any defect that does not constitute (i) defective workmanship by the builder or by an agent, employee or subcontractor of the builder, (ii) defective materials supplied by the builder or by an agent, employee or subcontractor of the builder, or (iii) defective design provided by a design professional retained exclusively by the builder; or

b. any patent defect which an examination ought in the circumstances to have revealed, when the buyer before taking title or accepting construction as complete has examined the home as fully as the buyer desired, or has refused to examine the home.

3. In the case of goods sold incidentally with or included in the sale of the new home, such as stoves, refrigerators, freezers, room air conditioners, dishwashers, clothes washers and dryers, a housing merchant implied warranty shall mean that such goods shall be free from defects due to failure by the builder or any agent, employee or subcontractor of the builder to have installed such systems in a skillful manner. Merchantability, fitness and all other implied warranties with respect to goods shall be governed by part three of article two of the uniform commercial code and other applicable statutes.

4. a. Written notice of a warranty claim for breach of a housing merchant implied warranty must be received by the builder prior to the commencement of any action under paragraph b of this subdivision and no later than thirty days after the expiration of the applicable warranty period, as described in subdivision one of this section. The owner and occupant of the home shall afford the builder reasonable opportunity to inspect, test and repair the portion of the home to which the warranty claim relates.

b. An action for damages or other relief caused by the breach of a housing merchant implied warranty may be commenced prior to the expiration of one year after the applicable warranty period, as described in subdivision one of this section, or within four years after the warranty date, whichever is later. In addition to the foregoing, if the builder makes repairs in response to a warranty claim under paragraph a of this subdivision, an action with respect to such claim may be commenced within one year after the last date on which such repairs are performed. The measure of damages shall be the reasonable cost of repair or replacement and property damage to the home proximately caused by the breach of warranty, not to exceed the replacement cost of the home exclusive of the value of the land, unless the court finds that, under the circumstances, the diminution in value of the home caused by the defect is a more equitable measure of damages.

c. In addition to any other period for the commencement of an action permitted by law, an action for contribution or indemnification may be commenced at any time prior to the expiration of one year after the entry of judgment in an action for damages under paragraph b of this subdivision.

5. Except as otherwise provided in section seven hundred seventy-seven-b of this article, any provision of a contract or agreement for the sale of a new home which excludes or modifies a housing merchant implied warranty shall be void as contrary to public policy

6. Except as otherwise provided in section seven hundred seventy-seven-b of this article, other implied warranties may arise from the terms of the contract or agreement or from course of dealing or usage of trade.

(Added L.1988, c.709, §1.)

RE: The Queens Boro Tower Condominium
41-04 27th Street
Long Island City, New York

Dear Sir/Madam:

The Sponsor of the Condominium Offering Plan for the captioned property retained our firm to review Schedule B, which includes projections of common charges payable by the owners of the commercial units. My experience in this field includes managing residential and commercial real estate in New York City since 1999 with Brooklyn and Queens being primary arrears of concentration. Since 1999 I have managed over ten properties

I understand that I am responsible for complying with Article 23-A of the General Business Law and the regulations promulgated by the Department of Law in Part 20 insofar as they are applicable to the commercial units listed in Schedule B.

I have reviewed the Schedule as it impacts upon the commercial unit and investigated the facts underlying it with due diligence in order to form a basis for this certification. I also have relied on our experience in managing residential buildings.

I certify that the projections in Schedule B for common charges payable by the owners of commercial units appear reasonable and adequate under existing circumstances to meet the anticipated operating expenses fairly attributable to such commercial units for the projected first year of the condominium operation, and that the allocation of common charges attributable to the commercial unit also reflects special or exclusive use or availability or exclusive control of particular common areas.

I certify that the estimates in Schedule B for the common charges payable by the owners of the commercial units:

I certify that the estimates in Schedule B for the common charges payable by the owners of the commercial units:

(i) set forth in detail the projected common charges for the commercial unit for the first year of condominium operation;

(ii) afford potential investors, purchasers and participants an adequate basis upon which to found their judgment concerning the common charges payable by the owners of the commercial units;

(iii) do not omit any material fact;

(iv) do not contain any untrue statement of a material fact;

(v) do not contain any fraud, deception, concealment, or suppression;

(vi) do not contain any promise or representation as to the future which is beyond reasonable expectation or unwarranted by existing circumstances.

(vii) do not contain any representation or statement which is false, where we (a) knew the truth; (b) with reasonable effort could have known the truth; (c) made no reasonable effort to ascertain the truth; or (d) did not have knowledge concerning the representations or statements made.

I further certify that we are not owned or controlled by the Sponsor. I understand that a copy of this certification is intended to be incorporated into the offering plan so that prospective purchasers may rely on it. This statement is not intended as a guarantee or warranty of the common charges fairly attributable to the commercial units for the first year of operation.

This certification is made under penalty of perjury for the benefit of all persons to whom this offer is made. We understand that violations are subject to the civil and criminal penalties of the General Business Law and Penal Law.
