THIS PLAN CONTAINS SPECIAL RISKS TO PURCHASERS. SEE PAGE 1.

THIS OFFERING PLAN IS THE SPONSOR'S ENTIRE OFFER TO SELL THE CONDOMINIUM UNITS. NEW YORK LAW REQUIRES THE SPONSOR TO DISCLOSE ALL MATERIAL INFORMATION IN THIS PLAN AND TO FILE THIS PLAN WITH THE NEW YORK STATE DEPARTMENT OF LAW PRIOR TO SELLING OR OFFERING TO SELL ANY CONDOMINIUM UNIT. FILING WITH THE DEPARTMENT OF LAW DOES NOT MEAN THAT THE DEPARTMENT OR ANY OTHER GOVERNMENT AGENCY HAS APPROVED THIS OFFERING.

PURCHASERS FOR THEIR OWN OCCUPANCY MAY NEVER GAIN CONTROL OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS UNDER THE TERMS OF THIS PLAN.
(SEE SPECIAL RISKS SECTION OF THIS PLAN)

THE SPONSOR OF THIS OFFERING PLAN IS RETAINING THE UNCONDITIONAL RIGHT TO RENT AFTER CONSUMMATION OF THE PLAN, RATHER THAN SELL UP TO EIGHTY-FIVE PERCENT (85%) OF THE RESIDENTIAL UNITS. SPONSOR MAKES NO REPRESENTATION THAT IT WILL EXECUTE PURCHASE AGREEMENTS TO SELL MORE THAN FIFTEEN PERCENT (15%) OF THE RESIDENTIAL UNITS.

BECAUSE THE SPONSOR IS RETAINING THE UNCONDITIONAL RIGHT TO RENT AFTER CONSUMMATION OF THE PLAN, RATHER THAN SELL UP TO EIGHTY-FIVE PERCENT (85%) OF THE RESIDENTIAL UNITS, THIS PLAN MAY NOT RESULT IN THE CREATION OF A CONDOMINIUM IN WHICH A MAJORITY OF THE UNITS ARE OWNED BY OWNER-OCCUPANTS OR INVESTORS UNRELATED TO THE SPONSOR (SEE SPECIAL RISKS SECTION OF THE PLAN).

SPECIAL RISKS

THE PURCHASE OF A CONDOMINIUM UNIT HAS MANY SIGNIFICANT LEGAL AND FINANCIAL CONSEQUENCES. THE ATTORNEY GENERAL STRONGLY URGES YOU TO READ THESE OFFERING MATERIALS CAREFULLY AND TO CONSULT WITH AN ATTORNEY BEFORE SIGNING A PURCHASE AGREEMENT.

1. Sponsor shall control the Board of Managers until the later of (i) the date upon which Sponsor shall own Unsold Residential Units having a percent interest in the Residential Section in the aggregate of ten (10%) percent or less or (ii) five (5) years from the date of the First Unit Closing (the "Sponsor Control Period"). At the expiration of the Sponsor Control Period, Sponsor, including any designee thereof, will relinquish control of the Board of Managers and will not elect a majority of its nominees for positions on the Board of Managers, even though its total percentage of Common Interest may otherwise enable it to do so. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Sponsor conveys title to all of the Unsold Residential Units in less than five (5) years from the date of the First Unit Closing, Sponsor or its designee shall relinquish control of the Board of Managers after the conveyance of title to the last Unsold Residential Unit.

Sponsor, during the time there are Unsold Residential Units, will have the right to, and intends to, vote the percentage of Common Interests allocated to such Units, but subsequent to relinquishing voting control of the Board of Managers, Sponsor will not use such vote to elect a particular individual to the Board of Managers which would, by the election of such individual, give Sponsor voting control of the Board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor may, at its discretion, relinquish voting control of the Board prior to the end of the Sponsor Control Period.
Please refer to the Section entitled "Control By Sponsor" in Part I of this Plan.

2. Sponsor intends, in good faith, to sell rather than rent Residential Units. However, Sponsor is retaining the unconditional right after consummation of the Plan, to rent eighty-five percent (85%) of the Residential Units in the Building that are being offered under this Plan. Unless and until this Plan is abandoned, Sponsor will endeavor in good faith to sell fifteen percent (15%) of the Residential Units, but makes no representation that it will execute Purchase Agreements to sell more than fifteen percent (15%) of the Residential Units. Therefore, owner-occupants may never gain effective control and management of the Condominium.

3. As disclosed in the Notes to Schedule B, in Part I of this Plan, the Commercial Unit Owner and the Storage Unit Owners are obligated to pay some, but not all, types of Condominium expenses, contingent upon actual use. As result, the Common Charges attributed to each Residential Unit are higher than they would be if each Unit were paying Common Charges based solely upon such Unit's percentage of Common Interest. The Board is authorized to make such special allocations pursuant to Section

6.1 of the By-Laws, which are attached as an exhibit to the Declaration of Condominium, and made a part thereof. Section 13.3 of the By-Laws provides that no modification, addition, amendment or deletion of or to Section 6.1 shall be effective as against the holder of any Permitted Mortgage theretofore made unless such holder has given its prior written consent thereto, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

4. Pursuant to existing regulations of the Department of Law, Sponsor may declare this Offering Plan effective by selling a minimum of seventeen (17) Residential Units in the Building.

Purchasers should note that in the current real estate market, banks and other institutional lenders are imposing various restrictions and preconditions on purchase money financing. Such restrictions and preconditions include requiring that a certain percentage of Units in a building or group of buildings be sold before a lender will consider making a loan. Thus, it may be possible for a Purchaser to experience difficulty obtaining a loan in a building or group of buildings where the sponsor has not sold a substantial percentage of the Units, which in some cases may be as high as seventy percent (70%). Moreover, some lenders will not provide financing in a building or group of buildings where an investor other than the original sponsor has an ownership interest of ten percent (10%) or more. It may also be difficult for a Purchaser to resell an apartment if prospective buyers are unable to obtain a loan due to the same minimum sales and investor ownership restrictions. Please refer to the Section entitled "Effective Date of Plan" in Part I of this Plan.

5. Sponsor anticipates that the First Unit Closing will occur on or about to July 1, 2019. Purchasers will be offered the right to rescind their Purchase Agreements if the actual date of the First Unit Closing occurs later than June 30, 2020. However, provided that the First Unit Closing occurs on or before June 30, 2020, and unless the Purchase Agreement contains an outside Closing date, Sponsor shall not be obligated to close title to any Unit within a specified time frame. Purchasers should note that even if the First Unit Closing occurs on or before June 30, 2020, or such other date projected as the date of commencement of Condominium operation at the time the Purchase Agreement was entered into, the closing of subsequent Units may be substantially delayed beyond such dates if a Temporary Certificate of Occupancy has not been issued for such Units or for the floor on which such Units are located. In such case, provided that Sponsor is diligently pursing completion of construction and the issuance of a Certificate of Occupancy, and is otherwise in compliance with its obligations under the Plan, Purchaser will not be entitled to a right of rescission or to make claims against Sponsor for damages or losses as a result of such delays and will not be excused from paying the full Purchase Price for the Unit. PROSPECTIVE PURCHASES SHOULD THEREFORE CAREFULLY CONSIDER THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DELAYS IN THEIR DETERMINATION AS TO WHETHER TO PURCHASE A UNIT. Please refer to the Section entitled "Procedure to Purchase" in Part I of this Plan.

6. The By-Laws of the Condominium do not include a provision that, after the initial Sponsor voting control period, a majority of the Board of Managers must be owner-occupants or members of an owner-occupant's household who are unrelated to the Sponsor and its principals. Therefore, PURCHASERS FOR THEIR OWN OCCUPANCY MAY NEVER GAIN CONTROL OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS UNDER THE TERMS OF THIS PLAN. Further, Unit Owners who are owner-occupants and Unit Owners who are non-residents (including Sponsor) may have inherent conflicts on how the Condominium should be managed because of their differing reasons for purchasing (i.e. purchase of a Residential Unit as a home as opposed to an investment). Please refer to the Section entitled "Control By Sponsor" and "Board of Managers" in Part I of this Plan.

7. As long as the Sponsor or any Sponsor-designee shall continue to own a Unit, but in no event for a period in excess of five (5) years from the First Unit Closing, the Board of Managers may not, without the Sponsor's or Sponsor-designee's prior written consent, (i) make any addition, alteration or improvement to the Common Elements or to any Unit or (ii) assess any Common Charge for the creation of, addition to or replacement of all or part of a reserve, contingency or surplus fund, (iii) borrow money on behalf of the Condominium (except where necessary to perform work required by law or to correct an order issued by an insurance carrier to the extent that existing reserves are insufficient) Please refer to the Section entitled "Control By Sponsor" in Part I of this Plan.

8. As long as the Sponsor or any Sponsor-designee shall continue to own a Unit, the Board of Managers may not, without the Sponsor's or Sponsor-designee's prior written consent, (i) amend the Declaration or the Bylaws so as to in any way adversely affect the Sponsor or its designees, or (ii) interfere with: the offer, sale or leasing of Units at the Property; the operations of general or sales or leasing offices at the Property; or actions necessary for renovation, repair or correction at the Property, as required by Sponsor. Please refer to the Section entitled "Control By Sponsor" in Part I of this Plan.

9. At the time that a Purchase Agreement is executed, a Purchaser is required to make the down payment to Sponsor's attorney, Seiden & Schein P.C., as Escrow Agent, in an amount equal to ten (10%) percent of the purchase price of the Unit(s) (the "Down Payment"). In the event a Purchaser defaults under the Purchase Agreement, time shall be of the essence for Purchaser to cure such default. "Time of the essence" means that if the Purchaser does not cure such default within thirty (30) days after Sponsor gives written notice to the Purchaser of such default, Sponsor may, at its option, cancel such Agreement and retain, as liquidated damages, the Down Payment made by the Purchaser, together with interest earned thereon, if any. Additionally, if a Purchaser fails for any reason to close title to the Unit on the originally scheduled Closing Date and Sponsor elects not to cancel that Purchaser's Agreement as a result of the same, the closing apportionments to be made at the Closing will be made as of the midnight of the day of the originally scheduled Closing Date. Please refer to the Section entitled "Procedure to Purchase" in Part I of this Plan.

10. a) No Financing Contingency. The obligation of Purchaser to purchase a Unit is not contingent upon obtaining financing. As a result, Purchaser will not be excused from Purchaser's obligation to pay the full Purchase Price of the Unit on the date scheduled by Sponsor for closing title, regardless of Purchaser's ability or inability to obtain mortgage financing, and notwithstanding that any loan commitment Purchaser may have obtained expires prior to Closing of title.

b) Purchaser's Financing Risks. If Purchaser is relying upon financing, Purchaser will assume the risks of meeting all conditions and requirements of the lender to obtain and fund the loan on the date set by Sponsor for closing of title under the Purchase Agreement, including conditions and requirements that may be beyond Purchaser's control. These risks include, but are not limited to, the following: (a) meeting all requirements concerning Purchaser (for example, Purchaser's income, financial condition, employment status, sale of an existing residence, etc.) and any adverse changes in meeting these requirements that may occur between the issuance and funding of the loan commitment (notably, recently enhanced credit requirements may result in greater difficulty to qualify for a mortgage loan); (b) meeting a requirement for a certain percentage of Units to be "owner-occupied" (banks and other institutional lenders may require up to 70% of the Units to be "owner-occupied"); and (c) losing a "lock-in" interest rate because the closing of title under Purchaser's Purchase Agreement fails to occur before the expiration of the period within which the loan must close to obtain the locked-in rate. Purchaser also assumes the risk of adverse changes in the terms of the loan that may occur before the closing of the loan and paying additional amounts to extend the loan commitment period. By assuming these risks, Purchaser will not be excused from the obligation to purchase without abatement in the Purchase Price and without recourse against Sponsor or the Selling Agent. Sponsor and Selling Agent do not represent, assure or guarantee that a Purchaser will succeed in obtaining mortgage financing from a bank or other institutional lender, or from other independent sources, or (if Purchaser succeeds) the terms or costs of such financing, or whether the closing of title will occur before the loan commitment or any lock-in rate expires, or (if it expires) whether the commitment will be extended or the costs to obtain an extension or the terms and conditions thereof, which may be less favorable than the original commitment. A prospective Purchaser who is relying upon financing is advised to inquire with a proposed lender or mortgage broker as to whether he or she will qualify for a mortgage loan and the terms thereof before entering into a Purchase Agreement.

c) TBI Mortgage Application. Under the Purchase Agreement, Purchaser shall be required either: (a) to complete and submit to TBI Mortgage Company (hereafter, "TBI"), an affiliate of Sponsor, a mortgage application (the "TBI Mortgage Application"), at no cost or charge to Purchaser; or (b) to sign and return to Sponsor, together with the Purchase Agreement, a "True Cash Sale Endorsement" (see sub-paragraph "d" below).

THE TBI MORTGAGE APPLICATION IS NOT A MORTGAGE FINANCING CONTINGENCY AND DOES NOT: (a) RELIEVE PURCHASER OF THE OBLIGATION TO PAY THE FULL PURCHASE PRICE OF THE UNIT ON THE DATE SCHEDULED BY SPONSOR FOR CLOSING TITLE, WITHOUT ABATEMENT OR RECOURSE OF ANY KIND AGAINST SPONSOR, SELLING AGENT OR TBI, REGARDLESS OF PURCHASER'S ABILITY TO OBTAIN MORTGAGE FINANCING FROM TBI OR ANY OTHER LENDER; OR (b)

MINIMIZE OR AVOID ANY OF PURCHASER'S FINANCING RISKS SET FORTH IN THE PRECEDING PARAGRAPH "b".

THE TBI MORTGAGE APPLICATION: (a) DOES NOT PRECLUDE PURCHASER FROM APPLYING TO OTHER LENDERS FOR FINANCING TO PURCHASE THE UNIT; (b) DOES NOT OBLIGATE PURCHASER TO OBTAIN OR ACCEPT FINANCING FROM TBI; AND (c) DOES NOT OBLIGATE TBI TO EXTEND FINANCING TO PURCHASER.

PURCHASER SHALL BE FREE TO OBTAIN FINANCING AT ANY TIME FROM A LENDER CHOSEN BY PURCHASER. UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES WILL PURCHASER BE REQUIRED TO ACCEPT FINANCING THAT MAY BE OFFERED BY TBI.

IF PURCHASER IS RELYING UPON FINANCING TO PURCHASE THE UNIT AND IS UNABLE TO OBTAIN FINANCING FROM A LENDER CHOSEN BY PURCHASER, TBI SHALL NOT BE REQUIRED TO EXTEND FINANCING TO PURCHASER AND, IF OFFERED, PURCHASER SHALL NOT BE OBLIGATED TO ACCEPT ANY FINANCING OFFERED BY TBI. IN SUCH CASE, IF PURCHASER REJECTS FINANCING OFFERED BY TBI AND IS UNABLE TO CLOSE FOR LACK OF FUNDS OR OTHERWISE, PURCHASER WILL LOSE PURCHASER'S DOWN PAYMENT AND THE INTEREST EARNED THEREON, WHICH WILL BE PAID TO SPONSOR AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES PURSUANT THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT.

If Purchaser is not approved for a mortgage loan (i.e., given a loan commitment letter) from a lender chosen by Purchaser within sixty (60) days after the date Purchaser executes the Purchase Agreement, then Sponsor shall have the right: (a) to submit a loan application on substantially the same terms contained in the TBI Mortgage Application to one (1) additional lender chosen by Sponsor, with no additional application fee to Purchaser; or (b) to cancel the Purchase Agreement and return to Purchaser all sums paid on account of the Purchase Price and any extras, together with any interest earned thereon, whereupon neither party shall have any further rights or liabilities under the Purchase Agreement.

PURCHASER SHALL NOT BE OBLIGATED TO ACCEPT FINANCING FROM THE LENDER CHOSEN BY SPONSOR, IF OFFERED BY SUCH LENDER, AND SPONSOR SHALL NOT BE OBLIGATED TO EITHER SUBMIT A LOAN APPLICATION TO ANOTHER LENDER OR TO CANCEL THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT DUE TO THE FAILURE OF PURCHASER TO OBTAIN A LOAN COMMITMENT WITHIN SAID SIXTY (60) DAY PERIOD. THIS PROVISION ALLOWS SPONSOR TO CANCEL THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT ONLY IF PURCHASER FAILS TO OBTAIN A LOAN COMMITMENT FROM A LENDER CHOSEN BY PURCHASER WITHIN SAID SIXTY (60) DAY PERIOD. IF SPONSOR DOES NOT ELECT TO CANCEL, PURCHASER SHALL NOT BE RELIEVED FROM THE FINANCING RISKS SET FORTH IN PARAGRAPH "b" ABOVE NOR EXCUSED FROM THE OBLIGATION TO PAY THE FULL

d) True Cash Sale Endorsement. If Purchaser has no intention to seek financing from any lender, then Purchaser is required to sign the "True Cash Sale Endorsement," in the form attached to the Purchase Agreement (located in Part II of this Plan), which excuses Purchaser from the obligation to complete and return the TBI Mortgage Application. By signing the True Cash Sale Endorsement, Purchaser will lose the opportunity to seek financing from TBI and Purchaser's desire to purchase a Unit will be evaluated on Purchaser's present financial ability to complete the purchase without financing.

e) TBI Mortgage Application and True Cash Sale Subject to Governmental Requirements. The TBI Mortgage Application and the True Cash Sale Endorsement are subject to compliance with the regulations, directives, opinions and requirements of governmental authorities having jurisdiction (collectively "Governmental Requirements"). This Plan will be amended to disclose any changes to such instruments due to changes to, or the promulgation of new Governmental Requirements and any appeals or court actions involving TBI in which preliminary relief is granted with respect thereto. Further, this Plan will be amended in the event that new Governmental Requirements are issued which prohibit TBI from requiring a Purchaser to make an application for a mortgage to TBI when Purchaser applies to another lender.

Please refer to the Section entitled "Procedure to Purchase" in Part I of this Plan for further discussion.

11. No bond or other security has been furnished to secure the performance of the Sponsor's obligations. Although at the time the Offering Plan is accepted for filing the Sponsor will be financially capable of performing Sponsor's obligations, the subsequent ability of the Sponsor to perform its obligations will depend upon Sponsor's financial condition at that time. Please refer to the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" in Part I of this Plan.

12. As of the Filing Date, Sponsor has not procured financing for the construction of the Building. However, Sponsor reserves the right to obtain construction mortgage financing, provided that the mortgage lien is subordinated to the Declaration of Condominium and the mortgage lien is released as to each Unit at each Closing. Please refer to the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" in Part I of this Plan.

13. With the exception of Sponsor or its designee, Unit Owners shall be required to offer a right of first refusal or seek or obtain approval (as the case may be) from the Condominium Board of Managers for any transfer, lease of, or alterations, repairs or improvement to its Units (provided that such alterations, repairs or improvements comply with applicable laws). Please refer to the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" in Part I of this Plan.

14. Pursuant to Section 8.1.6 of the By-Laws, if the Residential Board exercises its right of first refusal to lease a Unit, any lease executed by the Residential Board, as tenant, shall provide that the Residential Board may freely assign such lease and or sublet all or part of such Residential Unit without the consent of the Unit Owner. Please also refer to the Section entitled "Introduction" in Part I of this Plan.

15. Purchasers shall be required to pay the New York City and New York State Transfer Taxes, ("Transfer Taxes") due upon their purchase of a Unit, in addition to the so-called New York State "Mansion Tax," which is due on any Unit that has a purchase price of $1,000,000.00 or more. Although Transfer Taxes are customarily paid by the seller in single-family and other covered transactions (other than condominium developments), the responsibility for payment of such taxes may be modified by contract. It is now customary in New York City for Purchasers of Units from a sponsor of condominium developments to pay Transfer Taxes. The New York City Department of Finance and New York State Department of Taxation and Finance each take the position that where the Purchaser pays Transfer Taxes, the amount thereof will be added to the taxable consideration, thereby increasing the amount of the tax due from Purchaser. In addition, where the Purchase Price of the Unit is close to, but less than, $1,000,000.00 and Purchaser pays the Transfer Taxes, the "Mansion Tax" may become due and payable to New York State as a result of such additional taxable consideration. Please refer to the Section entitled "Unit Closing Costs and Adjustments" in Part I of this Plan.

16. In accordance with the terms of this Plan, Sponsor has the right to sell Units to Purchasers for investment or resale. Accordingly, it is possible that certain Unit Owners will not be residents of the Building. Individuals leasing Units from Sponsor will not, except as expressly provided in their respective leases, have any special rights to purchase such Units. In addition, a Purchaser may be acquiring a Unit that has been previously occupied, but such Unit will be delivered at closing free and clear of all leases and tenancies except as may otherwise be agreed to in writing by the parties. Please refer to the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" in Part I of this Plan.

17. There is no limit on the number of Unit Owners who may purchase for investment rather than personal occupancy. Consequently, there may always be a substantial percentage of Unit Owners who are non-residents. Please refer to the Section entitled "Board of Managers" in Part I of this Plan.

18. Due to the size of the Building and the complex process of constructing a building in general, prospective Purchasers are advised that for a period of time following the First Unit Closing construction on and within the Building will likely be ongoing. During at least the first year of Condominium operation, construction workers will likely be on site performing construction work on various parts of the Building. As such, prospective Purchasers are advised that the Building's systems, including, but not limited to, the elevator, heating, cooling, air conditioning ventilation system, and water system may be disrupted from time to time. Prospective Purchasers are advised that all of the foregoing work may be noisy and disruptive while being performed. In addition, while Sponsor will endeavor to substantially complete all Common Elements by the First Unit Closing, Sponsor makes no guarantee that all Common Elements will, in fact, be substantially complete by the First Unit Closing. However, (i) Sponsor anticipates that all Common Elements and all amenities such as, but not limited to, the fitness room and the swimming pool, will be substantially complete within one (1) year after the First Unit Closing and (ii) even if some or all Common Elements and amenities are not available as of the date of the First Unit Closing, the Board of Managers will have the right to collect Common Charges at the level disclosed in this Plan.

19. Pursuant to the terms of this Plan Sponsor has the right (in its sole and absolute discretion), but not the obligation, to cause Common Charges not to be charged to Unit Owners for so long as Sponsor pays the actual Condominium expenses, in lieu of Common Charges, from the date of the First Unit Closing up until such time as title to fifty percent (50%) of the Residential Units have been conveyed by Sponsor to third-party Purchasers. In the event that Sponsor makes such election, Common Charges will not be assessed by the Board of Managers to any Unit Owners. At such time that Sponsor causes the Board of Managers to assess Common Charges, each Unit Owner, including Sponsor, shall pay Common Charges, as discussed in this Plan.

In the event that Sponsor delays the collection of Common Charges, during such delay Sponsor will timely pay all expenses of the Condominium, including but not limited to, insurance premiums and Sponsor's pro rata share of the contingency fund contribution. Sponsor shall remain obligated, during such delay, to update the budget for the Condominium as provided for in the By-Laws. In the event Sponsor elects to delay the collection of Common Charges, it will disclose such fact in the Closing notice to Purchasers and will further disclose such fact in the post-Closing amendment to the Offering Plan. Such amendment will also disclose the anticipated period of delay. Sponsor will notify all Unit Owners in writing of the expiration of the delay period at least thirty (30) days prior to the commencement of collection of Common Charges and will disclose such fact in the following amendment to the Offering Plan. Please refer to the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" in Part I of this Plan.

20. While Units are being offered for sale or lease by Sponsor or its designees, there will be a greater number of visitors to the Building than would otherwise be the case. No representation or warranty is made and no assurance is given as to when such selling or leasing activity will terminate. Neither Sponsor or its designee nor the Managing Agent shall be liable or responsible for any personal injury or for any loss or damage to personal property which may result from the failure of the Condominium's security systems and procedures, including, without limitation, those procedures with regard to any delivery of packages, provided that any such failure is not caused by the negligence of Sponsor or its designees, the Managing Agent or their respective agents.

21. After completion of construction, the Sponsor will apply for a Certificate of Occupancy from the New York City Department of Buildings for the Building. The Sponsor and its Principal will be responsible for obtaining a Temporary Certificate of Occupancy prior to the First Unit Closing and will seek to obtain a Final Certificate of Occupancy ("FCO") within two (2) years of the issuance of first Temporary Certificate of Occupancy for the Building. If the First Unit Closing occurs prior to the issuance of an FCO for the Building, Sponsor shall maintain in escrow an amount reasonably necessary to complete the work required to obtain an FCO, as determined and certified by Sponsor's architect. Purchasers are encouraged to review the New York City Department of Buildings Website for information on Certificates of Occupancy. Please refer to the Sections entitled "Description of Property and Improvements" and "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" in Part I of this Plan.

22. Purchasers are advised that in New York City, newly constructed and newly renovated buildings are sometimes offered as condominium projects without a Final Certificate of Occupancy ("FCO") covering the entire building but with only a Temporary Certificate of Occupancy ("TCO"), and sometimes with several successive TCOs. Certificates of Occupancy are generally governed by Section 301 of the New York Multiple Dwelling Law and local building codes and rules. Both TCOs and FCOs are issued by the New York City Department of Buildings ("DOB"). A TCO is intended to indicate that the property is safe for occupancy, but means that not all of the construction work and/or inspections have been performed, or that not all of the required documents have been submitted to the DOB. All TCOs have an expiration date. A TCO typically expires ninety (90) days after the date of its issuance. When a TCO expires and is not renewed, it may be difficult or impossible to buy insurance, refinance, or sell Units. In New York City, it is common for sponsors to commence unit closings when some or all of the units are covered by a TCO rather than an FCO. Sponsor anticipates that this scenario may occur. Sponsor and its principals will undertake the responsibility for extending each TCO received prior to expiration thereof, and make reasonable efforts to obtain a FCO which covers the entire Building within two (2) years from the date of issuance of the first TCO. However, Sponsor and its principals make no representation or guarantee that DOB will issue the FCO within such two (2) year period. Unit Owners and the Board of Managers shall be obligated to cooperate with and refrain from obstructing Sponsor in these undertakings.

As described in greater detail in this Plan and notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor and its principals are obligated to maintain sufficient funds in escrow to cover the anticipated cost of obtaining a FCO. However, the TCO may lapse for reasons outside of Sponsor's control. In the absence of a FCO or TCO it is unlawful to reside in a Unit and will be difficult for Unit Owners or Purchasers to obtain financing.

No work may be performed by a Residential Unit Owner until an FCO for the Building has been obtained, unless Sponsor has expressly agreed otherwise in writing.

Please refer to the Sections entitled "Description of Property and Improvements" and "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" in Part I of this Plan.

23. The approximate indoor floor area of each Unit has been measured from the exterior side of the façade or exterior Building walls or glass windows at the Building line and/or Property line enclosing the Unit, or from the midpoint of the interior party walls separating the Unit from another Unit, or from the of party walls separating the Unit from the public corridors or public stairs, or from the mechanical space side of interior party walls separating the Unit mechanical equipment space or any other

Common Elements, except for elevator shear walls where the thickness of the elevator shear wall is not included. Columns, mechanical pipes and chases (whether along the perimeter or within the Unit) are not deducted from the square foot area of the Unit. Mechanical vent pipes located on terraces are not deducted from the total square footage. Since the area calculations are not based upon measurements from interior surfaces of interior walls, the usable floor area of the Units is significantly less than the area listed in Schedule A. Schedule A is located in Part I of this Plan.

24. Prospective Purchasers are advised that all deposits and Down Payments will be held in the escrow account maintained at MUFG Union Bank, N.A. by Seiden & Schein, P.C., as escrow agent (the "Escrow Account"). The Escrow Account is federally insured by the FDIC to the maximum amount of $250,000. Such $250,000 coverage includes, in the aggregate, the Down Payment, plus any and all other deposits that Purchaser has on account at MUFG Union Bank, N.A. Any Purchaser deposits at MUFG Union Bank, N.A. (including the Down Payment) which, in the aggregate, exceed $250,000 will not be insured by the FDIC. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor reserves the right to amend this Plan to permit Sponsor to utilize Down Payments after such Down Payments have been secured with surety bonds or an alternative type of security. Please refer to the Sections entitled "Procedure to Purchase" in Part I of this Plan and the Purchase Agreement in Part II of this Plan.

25. The Purchase Agreement provides that all disputes including, but not limited to, disputes concerning breach of contract, express and implied warranties, personal injuries and/or illness, mold-related claims, representations and/or omissions by Sponsor, on-site and off-site conditions and all other torts and statutory causes of action ("Claims") shall be resolved by binding arbitration in New York County in accordance with the rules and procedures of Arbitration of the American Arbitration Association or its successor or an equivalent organization mutually agreed upon by the parties. In addition, the Purchase Agreement provides that Purchaser may not initiate any arbitration proceeding for any Claim(s) unless and until Purchaser has first given Sponsor specific written notice of each claim (at 250 Gibraltar Road, Horsham, PA 19044, Attn: Warranty Dispute Resolution) and given Sponsor a reasonable opportunity after such notice to cure any default, including the repair of the Unit(s), in accordance with the Offering Plan. Purchaser shall be obligated to reimburse Sponsor for any legal fees and disbursements incurred by Sponsor in defending Sponsor's rights and enforcing Purchaser's obligations under the Purchase Agreement. The arbitrator will be neutral and independent of both the Sponsor and its principals.

IN THE EVENT THAT SPONSOR PREVAILS, PURCHASER SHALL BE OBLIGATED TO REIMBURSE SPONSOR FOR ANY LEGAL FEES AND DISBURSEMENTS INCURRED BY SPONSOR IN DEFENDING SPONSOR'S RIGHTS AND ENFORCING PURCHASER'S OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT.

Arbitration is a less formal method of resolving disputes than litigation in a court, and arbitration has certain limitations, as compared to litigation in court. Such limitations include, but are not limited to, (i) giving up the right to bring a legal action against one another in court, except as may be provided by the rules of the arbitration forum in which a claim is filed; (ii) limiting the ability of the parties to obtain documents and perform discovery; (iii) arbitrators may not have to explain the reasons for their award; (iv) a notice of pendency may not be filed against a property based on ongoing arbitration proceedings. Arbitration awards are generally binding and, therefore, a party's ability to have a court reverse an arbitration award is limited (see New York Civil Practice Law and Rules §7511). As with litigation, certain time limits are imposed for bringing a claim in arbitration. For further information about arbitration, please visit www.adr.org.

26. There will be one (1) Commercial Section in the Condominium containing one (1) Commercial Unit which is being offered for sale by Sponsor. 351 Broadway Retail Partners LLC ("351"), a related entity to the party that sold a portion of the Land to Sponsor, has an option to purchase the Commercial Unit, which will be located in the cellar and first floor of the Building. In the event that 351 exercises it right to purchase the Commercial Unit, the Unit shall be sold to 351 without a warranty. Please refer to the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor".

27. The Commercial Unit Owner has rights which differ from the Residential Unit Owners' rights. While the Commercial Unit will have certain use restrictions, such as but not limited to, a bar, tavern, nightclub or cabaret; a supermarket, bodega, mini-mart or similar establishment selling or serving food unless subject to reasonable regulations pertaining to noise, odors and vermin; a restaurant, food service facility, or other cooking facility (provided that certain retailers shall be entitled to warm up and arrange food that is prepared off site), as further disclosed in the section of the Plan entitled "The Commercial Unit" and in Section 6.16.3 of the By-Laws, neither the Condominium Board, nor the Residential Board, nor any Unit Owners will have the right to approve or disapprove either any change in the use of the Commercial Unit (or any part thereof), or any amendment to the Building's Certificate of Occupancy to authorize another use for the Commercial Unit (or any part thereof). In addition, the Commercial Unit Owner has the right to freely sell or lease the Commercial Unit or any part thereof without any Board having any right of first refusal to purchase or lease, or to procure a third party to purchase or lease, the same. The Commercial Unit may be subdivided into up to three (3) Commercial Units without the consent of the Condominium Board.

28. Sponsor shall install an emergency generator to provide electrical power to certain Common Elements, and to a limited extent, to the Units. The emergency generator is not capable of running all systems in the Building. No representation is made as to the duration of time that the emergency generator will be able to provide emergency power to such facilities in the Building in the event of a power outage. Please refer to the Description of the Property and Specifications in Part II of this Plan.

29. Smoking shall be prohibited everywhere in the Building, directly outside of the Building's air intakes and on all private and common terraces. Smoking in violation of this rule shall be deemed to constitute a nuisance pursuant to the By-Laws. The term "smoke" or "smoking" shall include carrying, burning, or otherwise handling or controlling any lit or smoldering product containing tobacco or other flammable substance, including, but not limited to, cigarettes, cigars, or pipes. Please refer to the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners and the Board of Managers" in Part I of this Plan and the By-Laws in Part II of this Plan.

30. Sponsor does not intend to apply for the New York City Co-op and Condo Property Tax Abatement (the "Tax Abatement"). However the Board of Managers may, in its sole discretion, apply for the Tax Abatement if it is made available by the City of New York. If the Board of Managers applies for, and obtains, the Tax Abatement, and the Law authorizing the Tax Abatement is extended in its present form, eligible Unit Owners would be entitled to an abatement equal to 17.5% of their annual real estate tax bill. Please refer to the section of this Plan entitled "Real Estate Taxes".

31. The Common Interest of each of the Units has been determined pursuant to Section 339-i(1)(iv) of the Condominium Act and accordingly based upon a comparison of the floor space, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Unit, the availability of Common Elements for exclusive or shared use and the overall dimensions of the particular Unit. Based upon final specifications, construction conditions and/or "as-built" plans for the Building reflecting relative measurements, areas and uses of portions of the Building, application of such method of allocation of Common Interest may justify a minor increase or decrease in the aggregate Common Interest appurtenant to certain Units, or all Units. In such event, the Common Interest appurtenant to such Units would be adjusted (by a minimal amount) pro-rata. Sponsor expressly reserves the right, from time to time, to effect such a change in the Common Interests and to amend the Plan so as to reflect the same. Notwithstanding the foregoing, after the recording of the Declaration, no change in any Unit's Common Interest will be made without obtaining the prior consent of all Unit Owners affected by such change. Please refer to the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" in Part I of this Plan.

32. The Building will be located in a densely populated urban environment. Sponsor is not responsible for, makes no guarantees regarding and shall have no liability to Unit Owners with respect to the level of noise or vibrations or odors from outside the Building or resulting from the operation of the Building or the Units or the degree of privacy which will be afforded to Unit Owners on their terraces.

33. Pursuant to the building plans that have been filed with the New York City Department of Buildings, the bulkhead roof shall contain certain mechanical equipment including, but not limited to, heating, ventilation and air conditioning equipment, and the emergency power generator which will service portions of the Building. While Sponsor has taken precautions to dampen noise and vibrations generated by such rooftop mechanical equipment, Purchasers are hereby advised that noise and/or vibrations may nevertheless resonate in certain Units. Noise and/or vibrations that may be experienced in Units are not, and shall not be construed as, a construction defect. The sole obligation of Sponsor and the Boards with respect to such noise and/or vibration shall be to install and operate such equipment in a manner consistent with commercially reasonable practices in typical luxury high-rise residential or mixed-use buildings and in compliance with applicable Law, including the New York City Building Code. Please refer to the Description of the Property and Specifications in Part II of this Plan.

34. In the event that the Residential Board decides, at any time, to remove or replace any of the artwork that was installed by Sponsor in the Building lobby or in any other Common Elements (including, but not limited to, any sculptures), the Residential Board shall, prior to disposing of such artwork, offer such artwork back to Sponsor, in writing. If Sponsor desires for such artwork to be returned to it, such return shall be made expeditiously by the Residential Board at the sole cost and expense of the Residential Board and at no cost to Sponsor. If Sponsor does not desire for such artwork to be returned to it, as evidenced by Sponsor's written response to the Residential Board, or by a failure of Sponsor to respond to the Residential Board within thirty (30) days from the postmark date of such written offer, the Residential Board shall have the right to transfer such artwork to any other third party. Any artwork that is caused to be transported by the Residential Board to Sponsor shall be transported in accordance with generally accepted and commercially reasonable industry standards for transporting artwork of the size and value of the artwork being returned (including adequate insurance coverage, which shall be purchased at the Residential Board's sole cost and expense). The foregoing shall apply irrespective of whether Sponsor owns any Unsold Units at the time that the Residential Board determines to dispose of such artwork.

35. Sponsor intends to install engineered wood flooring in each Unit. Purchasers are advised to carefully follow the manufacturer's instructions for the maintenance of such flooring. Please refer to the Sections entitled "Description of Property and Improvements" and "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" in Part I of this Plan.

36. All ceiling heights disclosed in this Plan are approximate. Purchasers are advised that at beam drops and where there is concealed mechanical piping (including, but not limited to, plumbing, sprinkler, condensation and heating and cooling piping), ducts or dropped ceilings, ceiling heights may be lower that the stated heights. Such lower ceiling areas are called "Soffits." The floor plans show the approximate location of Soffits within the Units. While the Soffits most often will occur in or around bathrooms and hallways, some living areas will have Soffits. The locations of the Soffits are subject to change based on construction conditions.

INTRODUCTION

The Offering Plan

353-357 Broadway LLC ("Sponsor") is a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York. Sponsor acquired the Land by deeds from Lena Russo, Albert Russo, Clifton Russo and Lawrence Russo dated as of August 6, 2014 and from 351 Broadway Partners LLC dated as of February 26, 2015.

The Condominium will be organized pursuant to Article 9B of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, as amended, which is commonly known as the New York Condominium Act (hereinafter referred to as the "Condominium Act").

Sponsor presents this offering plan (the "Offering Plan" or "Plan") for the establishment of condominium ownership of the Land and Building (collectively, the "Property") located at 91 Leonard Street, New York, New York 10013 pursuant to the Condominium Act. The Condominium will be known as The 91 Leonard Street Condominium. Sponsor may from time to time amend the Plan by filing an amendment with the New York State Department of Law ("Department of Law"). All filed amendments will be served on (i) Purchasers who have executed and delivered Purchase Agreements to the Sponsor or the Selling Agent and whose Purchase Agreements are in effect, (ii) Unit Owners, and (iii) any other person who is required by law to receive such amendment. Service shall be by personal delivery, ordinary mail or registered mail. Service by personal delivery is deemed complete upon delivery. Service by mailing shall be presumed complete on the fifth day after the date of mailing.

The purpose of the Plan is to set forth in detail all material facts relating to the offering by Sponsor.

The Plan is presented in two parts that, together with all documents filed with the Department of Law, constitute the entire offer of Sponsor. Part I sets forth a general description of the offering and the Condominium and Part II contains the basic documents necessary to create the Condominium and otherwise effectuate the Plan. Also included in Part II is a detailed physical description of the Property and certifications as to certain matters discussed in the Plan.

In addition, Sponsor has filed exhibits to the Plan with the Department of Law which, along with the Plan, constitute the entire offer of Sponsor. Copies of the Plan and all documents referred to in the Plan and all exhibits submitted to the Department of Law in connection with the Plan shall be available for inspection by Purchasers and their attorneys without charge and for copying at a reasonable charge by any Person who shall have purchased a Unit offered by the Plan at the sales office and available for inspection and copying at the office of the Department of Law. A prospective Purchaser may borrow the Plan upon payment of a $100.00 deposit, which amount will be fully refunded upon either (i) the prompt return of the Plan in good condition or (ii) the execution by the prospective Purchaser of a Purchase Agreement subsequently accepted by Sponsor. Purchasers are also advised to consult with their own attorneys or other advisers before agreeing to purchase. All documents are important and should be read carefully by Purchasers.

All capitalized terms used in the Plan shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Section entitled "Definitions," unless otherwise defined.

The Property

The Building is being newly constructed. The Building shall consist of 188 Units: 111 Residential Units, seventy-six (76) Storage Units and one (1) Commercial Unit. Apartment 3E shall be a residence for the Resident Manager of the Building. Apartment 3E shall be a General Common Element, and not a Unit. As such, a percentage of Common Interest has not been allocated to Apartment 3E and, consequently, Common Charges and real estate taxes have not been allocated to Apartment 3E.

Sponsor shall also construct a bicycle storage room on the ground floor. Bicycle spaces shall be licensed or otherwise allocated to Unit Owners as determined by the Board in its sole discretion. Sponsor makes no representation as to the availability of bicycle storage spaces under the terms of this offering now or in the future.

Due to the size of the Building and the complex process of constructing a building in general, prospective Purchasers are advised that for a period of time following the First Unit Closing construction on, and within, the Building will likely be on going. As such, prospective Purchasers are advised that the Building's systems, including, but not limited to, the elevator, heating, cooling, air conditioning, ventilation system, and water system may be disrupted from time to time. Prospective Purchasers are advised that the foregoing work may be noisy and disruptive while being performed.

As more particularly described in this Plan, the Building will include (a) the General Common Elements, (b) the Residential Section containing the Residential Units, the Storage Units, the Residential Common Elements, the Storage Common Elements, and the Residential Limited Common Elements, (c) the Commercial Section containing the Commercial Units and the Commercial Common Elements.

In addition, while Sponsor will endeavor to substantially complete all Common Elements by the First Unit Closing, Sponsor makes no guarantee that all Common Elements will, in fact, be substantially complete by the First Unit Closing. However, (i) Sponsor anticipates that all Common Elements and all amenities such as, but not limited to, the fitness room and the swimming pool, will be substantially complete within one (1) year after the First Unit Closing and (ii) even if some or all Common Elements and amenities are not available as of the date of the First Unit Closing, the Board of Managers will have the right to collect Common Charges at the level disclosed in this Plan.

Sponsor anticipates that as of the First Unit Closing the level of staffing may be reduced from the disclosure in Schedule B. However, the Building will be fully staffed to the level disclosed in Schedule B within six (6) months after the First Unit Closing.

A detailed description of the Property is contained in the Section of the Plan entitled "Description of Property and Improvements" set forth in Part I of the Plan.

The Offering

Sponsor hereby offers the 111 Residential Units, the seventy-six (76) Storage Units and the one (1) Commercial Unit for sale.

All the Units being offered are intended to be sold as Condominium Units in accordance with this Plan at the prices noted in Schedule A. These prices have been established by the Sponsor and are not subject to review or approval by the Department of Law. All fixtures and equipment described in this Plan are included in the offering prices listed in Schedule A for the applicable Units. If Sponsor leases certain Units to tenants and such Units subsequently are offered, Sponsor shall amend the Plan accordingly.

Sponsor is retaining the unconditional right after consummation of the Plan, to rent eighty-five percent (85%) of the Residential Units in the Building that are being offered under this Plan. Sponsor will endeavor in good faith to sell fifteen percent (15%) of the Residential Units, but makes no representation that it will execute Purchase Agreements to sell more than fifteen percent (15%) of the Residential Units. Sponsor intends to sell all of the Storage Units, but reserves the right to rent some or all of the Storage Units, in its sole discretion. In the event that Sponsor makes a bulk sale of some or all of the Unsold Residential Units, the purchaser of such Units will be required to register with the Department of Law as a co-sponsor and such purchaser will be bound by Sponsor's representations regarding its commitment to sell Units.

While Units are being offered for sale or lease by Sponsor or its designees, there will be a greater number of visitors to the Building than would otherwise be the case. No representation or warranty is made and no assurance is given as to when such selling or leasing activity will terminate. Neither Sponsor or its designee nor the Managing Agent shall be liable or responsible for any personal injury or for any loss or damage to personal property which may result from the failure of the Condominium's security systems and procedures, including, without limitation, those procedures with regard to any delivery of packages, provided that any such failure is not caused by the negligence of Sponsor or its designees, the Managing Agent or their respective agents.

351 Broadway Retail Partners LLC ("351"), a related entity to the party that sold a portion of the Land to Sponsor, has an option to purchase the Commercial Unit, which will be located in the cellar and first floor of the Building. The "Commercial Unit" is synonymous with the "Retail Unit" that is referenced in the Contract of Sale and Option Agreement that was executed by 351 and Sponsor. Neither 351, nor any of its principals, are affiliated with Sponsor. In the event that 351 exercises its option to purchase the Commercial Unit, it shall execute a Purchase Agreement after the Filing Date and it shall close title to the Commercial Unit, free and clear of all leases, tenancies and occupancies, upon the issuance of a Temporary Certificate of Occupancy that covers the Commercial Unit, provided that Sponsor is otherwise ready, willing and able to close title. In the event that 351 does not timely exercise its option to purchase the Commercial Unit, Sponsor shall have the right to offer the Commercial Unit for sale to the general public at the offering price provided on Schedule A without amending this Plan. Sponsor also reserves the right to lease the Commercial Unit if 351 does not exercise its option to purchase the Commercial Unit.

Basic Aspects of Condominium Ownership

In the condominium form of ownership, each Purchaser of a Unit owns his Unit similarly in many respects to the manner in which a private home owner owns his home. (References to the masculine gender in this Plan shall be deemed to refer to the feminine gender or plural where the context so requires and shall be deemed to include any duly formed partnership, corporation, trust, estate, fiduciary, unincorporated association or any other entity permitted to own real property in the State of New York). The Unit Owner owns the Unit in fee simple absolute and is entitled to the exclusive possession thereof. The Unit Owner is also the owner, in common with the owners of all other Units, of all remaining parts of the Property except for the Units themselves, including the land upon which the Units are built, the foundations and supports of the Building, the exterior walls and the roof (hereinafter called "Common Elements").

Each Unit Owner's proportionate share (hereinafter called "Common Interest") of the Common Elements has been determined based upon floor space, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Unit, the availability of Common Elements for exclusive or shared use, and the overall dimensions of the particular Unit. These allocations are made pursuant to Section 339-i (1)(iv) of the Real Property Law, which is part of the Condominium Act. Any portion of the land or Building, other than the Residential Units themselves, which are for the use of one or more specified Residential Units to the exclusion of all others, are known as "Residential Limited Common Elements." The Plan provides that terraces which are appurtenant to certain Residential Units shall be Residential Limited Common Elements.

Each Unit Owner is privileged to mortgage his Unit generally on the terms and in such amount as he chooses. Purchasers pursuant to this Plan, however, if they seek mortgage financing, shall be required to follow procedures set forth in the Purchase Agreement in Part II of this Plan. A Unit is not subject to the lien of any mortgages placed by other Unit Owners on their Units.

A Residential Unit Owner can lease his Unit to anyone for a term of not less than one (1) year, or sell his Unit without restriction or limitation, subject only to a "right of first refusal" by the Residential Board at the same price and terms the Unit Owner has been offered. Such right of first refusal is hereinafter described in the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of the Unit Owners and the Condominium Board" in Part I of this Plan. Pursuant to Section 8.1.6 of the By-Laws, if the Residential Board exercises its right of first refusal to lease a Unit, any lease executed by the Residential Board, as tenant, shall provide that the Residential Board may freely assign such lease and or sublet all or part of such Residential Unit without the consent of the landlord.

The Board of Managers does not have the right to approve or disapprove purchasers of Units, and there is no limit on the number of Residential Unit Owners who may purchase for investment rather than for personal occupancy. Consequently, there may always be a substantial percentage of Unit Owners who are not owner-occupants.

Each Unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes, and a Unit Owner will not be responsible if any of the other Unit Owners fail to pay their real estate taxes. In the opinion of counsel for the Sponsor, a Unit Owner, like a home owner, may under most circumstances, deduct from his income for income tax purposes his real estate taxes and the interest paid on the mortgage encumbering the Unit(s) owned by him.

The Condominium Board may assess against each Unit Owner, in proportion to his respective percentage of Common Interest, or as otherwise determined by the Board, as provided in New York State Real Property Law Section 339-m, charges (hereinafter called "Common Charges") for the costs of maintenance of the Common Elements and for the operation of the Property (hereinafter called "Common Expenses"). Pursuant to the terms of this Plan, Sponsor has the right (in its sole and absolute discretion), but not the obligation, to cause Common Charges not to be charged to Unit Owners for so long as Sponsor pays the actual Condominium operating expenses, in lieu of Common Charges, from the date of the First Unit Closing up until such time as title to fifty percent (50%) of the Residential Units have been conveyed by Sponsor to third-party Purchasers. In the event that Sponsor makes such election, Common Charges will not be assessed by the Board of Managers to any Unit Owners. At such time that Sponsor causes the Board of Managers to assess Common Charges, each Unit Owner, including Sponsor, shall pay Common Charges, as discussed in this Plan.

In the event that Sponsor delays the collection of Common Charges, during such delay Sponsor will timely pay all expenses of the Condominium, including but not limited to, insurance premiums and Sponsor's pro rata share of the contingency fund contribution. Sponsor shall remain obligated, during such delay, to update the budget for the Condominium as provided for in the By-Laws. In the event Sponsor elects to delay the collection of Common Charges, it will disclose such fact in the Closing notice to Purchasers and will further disclose such fact in the post-Closing amendment to the Offering Plan. Such amendment will also disclose the anticipated period of delay. Sponsor will notify all Unit Owners in writing of the expiration of the delay period at least thirty (30) days prior to the commencement of collection of Common Charges and will disclose such fact in the following amendment to the Offering Plan.

Electricity service for the each Residential Unit and the Commercial Unit will be separately metered. Gas consumed within each Residential Unit for heating, hot water, and cooking will be master metered and charged to each Residential Unit Owner as a Residential Common Expense.

A Unit Owner can alter and decorate the interior of his Unit in any way he desires, subject to the Condominium By-Laws and local codes, and is obligated for the cost of his own interior decoration, maintenance and repair after closing.

The affairs of the Condominium shall be governed by a board of managers of the Condominium (the "Condominium Board" or "Board of Managers"). From and after the first annual meetings of Unit Owners as provided in Section 3.1 of the By-Laws, the Condominium Board shall consist of a Residential Board of six (6) persons elected or designated by the Residential Unit Owners, and a Commercial Board of one (1) person designated by the Commercial Unit Owner. The Condominium Board, the Residential Board and the Commercial Board are herein sometimes referred to collectively as the "Boards" and individually as a "Board."

The Unit Owners shall hold annual meetings and at each such meeting they shall elect members of the Board of Managers, subject to Sponsor's right to control the Board, as disclosed below. Each Unit Owner, including the Sponsor or its designee, shall be entitled to cast one vote for each .0001% of interest in the Common Elements attributable to their Unit(s) on all matters put to a vote at all meetings of the Unit Owners except that, when voting for the election of members of the Condominium Board, each Unit Owner: (i) shall be entitled to one vote for each .0001% of Common Interest attributable to its Unit per member to be elected, and (ii) shall not have the right to cumulate its votes in favor of any one or more members to be elected. If Units are owned by more than one person or entity as joint tenants, tenants by the entirety or as tenants in common, the persons or entities owning said Unit shall agree among themselves and cast the votes for their Unit.

Sponsor shall hold a majority of seats on the Board of Managers until the later to occur of (i) five (5) years from the date of the First Unit Closing or (ii) the date upon Sponsor shall own Unsold Residential Units having a Percent Interest in the Residential Section in the aggregate of ten (10%) percent or less (the "Sponsor Control Period"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Sponsor conveys title to all of the Unsold Residential Units in less than five (5) years from the date of the First Unit Closing, Sponsor or its designee shall relinquish control of the Board of Managers after the conveyance of title to the last Unsold Residential Unit. Sponsor, during the time there are Unsold Residential Units, will have the right to, and intends to, vote the percentage of Common Interests allocated to such Units, but subsequent to its relinquishing voting control of the Board of Managers Sponsor will not use such vote to elect a particular individual to the Board of Managers which would, by the election of such individual, give Sponsor voting control of the Board.

Sponsor shall maintain control of the Commercial Board until it no longer owns the Unsold Commercial Unit.

The Condominium Board shall have the authority to manage and administer the affairs of the Condominium, including, but not limited to, the determination of Common Charges and the adoption of Rules and Regulations covering the Condominium. Please see the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of the Unit Owners and the Condominium Board" in Part I of this Plan for further discussion.

Each Unit Owner is obligated to comply with the Declaration, the By-Laws, the Rules and Regulations, and any other requirements of the Condominium Board. Each Unit Owner shall also be responsible for maintaining his own Unit and for making repairs within his own Unit. The cost of maintenance and repair of the General Common Elements shall be shared by all Unit Owners as provided above. Each Residential Unit Owner shall have the same rights of access to, use of and benefit of the Residential Common Elements which are not Residential Limited Common Elements. Each Residential Unit Owner shall also be responsible for obtaining and bearing the cost of casualty and liability insurance in connection with his respective Unit. The Condominium Board shall have the duty of obtaining casualty and liability insurance on behalf of the Condominium with respect to the Building as a whole.

Units may be purchased either by natural persons over the age of 18 years or by a duly formed partnership, corporation, trust, estate, fiduciary, unincorporated association, syndicate, joint venture, organization, government or any department or agency thereof, or any other entity permitted to own real property in the State of New York.

THE PURCHASE OF A CONDOMINIUM UNIT HAS MANY SIGNIFICANT LEGAL AND FINANCIAL CONSEQUENCES.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL STRONGLY URGES YOU TO READ THIS OFFERING PLAN CAREFULLY AND TO CONSULT WITH AN ATTORNEY BEFORE SIGNING A PURCHASE AGREEMENT.

DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY AND IMPROVEMENTS

The Property has a land area of approximately 16,155 square feet. The site will contain one (1) new building (the "Building"). The Building will consist of a Commercial Section, containing one (1) Commercial Unit and a Residential Section, containing 111 Residential Units and seventy-six (76) Storage Units. The Building will contain a cellar and nineteen (19) floors above grade, plus mechanical levels, and will be a group 1-B noncombustible building. Two (2) passenger elevators shall serve the Residential Section, from the cellar to the roof, and one (1) elevator shall serve the Commercial Section, from the cellar to the first floor. One of the elevators in the Residential Section shall also be designated as a service elevator. The Building will be constructed of concrete, steel, brick, glass and metal.

Sponsor shall construct 188 Units: 111 Residential Units, seventy-six (76) Storage Units and one (1) Commercial Unit. Apartment 3E, which will be a General Common Element (and not a Unit), will be a residence for the Resident Manager of the Building. As such, a percentage of Common Interest has not been allocated to Apartment 3E and, consequently, Common Charges and real estate taxes have not been allocated to Apartment 3E.

The residential street address of the Property is 91 Leonard Street, New York, New York 10013. The entrance to the Residential Section will be through the lobby in the main entrance fronting on Leonard Street. The Commercial Unit shall have a separate entrance on Broadway.

All fixtures and equipment described in this Plan are included in the offering prices listed in Schedule A.

Improvements made to the Building will be undertaken pursuant to a new building permit, in accordance with the New York City Building Code and with all applicable zoning and building laws. After completion of construction, the Sponsor will apply for a temporary or final Certificate of Occupancy from the New York City Department of Buildings. The Sponsor and its principal will be responsible for obtaining a temporary Certificate of Occupancy prior to the First Unit Closing and will seek to obtain a final Certificate of Occupancy within two (2) years of the issuance of first temporary Certificate of Occupancy for the Building. The Building is expected to be substantially completed in or about March, 2019.

Private terraces will be constructed appurtenant to Residential Units 2C, 2D, 2E, 8F, 11F, 14A, 14B, 17C, 17D, 19A and 19B. Please refer to Schedule A for the approximate square footage areas of such terraces. Terraces are characterized in the Declaration of Condominium as Residential Limited Common Elements appurtenant to the aforementioned Residential Units. Residential Unit Owners with a terrace(s) appurtenant to their Residential Unit shall be responsible for all normal maintenance of such terrace such as, but not limited to the removal of snow and ice, at such Residential Unit Owner's sole cost and expense. The repair and replacement of the exterior surface of such terrace (e.g., pavers) shall be performed by the Board and charged to the affected Residential Unit Owner. However, any structural or extraordinary repairs (non-recurring repair which requires more than the usual annual expense for ordinary wear) or replacements to such terrace (including any leaks which are not caused by the negligence of the Residential Unit Owner having access to the same) shall be made by the Board and the cost and expense thereof shall be charged to all Unit Owners as a Common Expense.

In the event that one or more neighboring building is enlarged, the view from certain Residential Units may be blocked. Sponsor makes no representation or warranty of any kind whatsoever as to views and/or light quality from any windows and/or terraces in the Building.

Except as otherwise provided in the Declaration of Condominium and By-Laws, the maintenance, repair, and replacement of the façade and other Common Elements of the Building shall be made by the Board and charged to all Unit Owners as a Common Expense. However, notwithstanding that operational windows located in Residential Units are part of the Residential Units, in the event that an operational window is damaged the Board shall repair or replace such window and charge such Residential Unit Owner for such repair or replacement.

Sponsor shall install an emergency generator to provide electrical power to certain facilities in the Common Elements, as disclosed in the Description of Property and Improvements located in Part II of this Plan. The generator will support code required loads only, including elevators, egress lighting and fire alarms. The generator will be required to be tested monthly, and can be noisy, with a projected decibel level of approximately 76 dba at a standard 23' distance. No representation is made as to the duration of time that the emergency generator will be able to provide emergency power to such facilities in the Building in the event of a power outage.

Pursuant to the building plans that have been filed with the New York City Department of Buildings, the bulkhead roof shall contain certain mechanical equipment including, but not limited to, heating, ventilation and air conditioning equipment, and the emergency power generator which will service portions of the Building. While Sponsor has taken precautions to dampen noise and vibrations generated by such rooftop mechanical equipment, Purchasers are hereby advised that noise and/or vibrations may nevertheless resonate in certain Units. Noise and/or vibrations that may be experienced in Units are not, and shall not be construed as, a construction defect. The sole obligation of Sponsor and the Boards with respect to such noise and/or vibration shall be to install and operate such equipment in a manner consistent with commercially reasonable practices in typical luxury high-rise residential or mixed-use buildings and in compliance with applicable Law, including the New York City Building Code.

According to the records of the Federal Emergency Management Agency ("FEMA"), as of the Filing Date, the Property is not located in a flood zone.

The Building will be monitored by a closed circuit television security system, and surveillance cameras will be mounted in various public areas of the Building. Live camera footage will be periodically monitored at the concierge desk. Sponsor makes no representation or warranty about the duration of time that camera footage will be stored on the digital video recording system, or as to the clarity of any such recordings.

Sponsor has taken precautions to minimize Unit-to-Unit odor and noise transmission. However, the transmission of odor and noise is common in multi-family dwellings and shall not be construed as a construction defect.

Electric service will be provided by Con Edison and will be master metered for all Common Elements in the Building. Separate Con Edison meters will be provided for residential electrical usage and commercial electrical usage. The cost thereof will be paid by the Board and will be borne by the Unit Owner as part of the Common Charges.

Gas service for the Residential Units shall be master metered in the Building. The cost for gas utilized by the Residential Units will be paid to the Board as a Common Expense.

Sponsor intends to install engineered wood flooring in each Unit. Purchasers are advised to carefully follow the manufacturer's instructions for the maintenance of such flooring.

Services and Facilities

The services and facilities described below will be made available, the cost for which is included in the Residential Common Charges for the first year of Condominium operation (Schedule B), unless otherwise specified below. Due to the complexity of constructing the Building, some of the services and facilities may not be available until after the First Unit Closing. However, (i) Sponsor anticipates that all Common Elements and all amenities such as, but not limited to, the fitness room and the swimming pool, will be substantially complete within one (1) year after the First Unit Closing and (ii) even if some or all Common Elements and amenities are not available as of the date of the First Unit Closing, the Board of Managers will have the right to collect Common Charges at the level disclosed in this Plan.

The services and facilities shall be available only to individuals who reside in a Unit in the Building (i.e., a Residential Unit Owner or permitted tenant) and such individual's guests, provided that such Residential Unit Owner or tenant accompanies the guest during such use. In addition, use of the services and facilities are subject to such rules and regulations as may be promulgated from time to time by the Board, including, without limitation, the right to impose usage fees and restrictions on hours of access, use, and/or service, as applicable.

Sponsor anticipates that as of the First Unit Closing the level of staffing may be reduced from the disclosure in Schedule B. However, the Building will be fully staffed to the level disclosed in Schedule B within six (6) months after the First Unit Closing.

(a) Residential Lobby

There will be one residential lobby located on the first floor of the Building on Leonard Street.

(b) Residential Lobby Attendants

A concierge will be stationed in the residential lobby 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

(d) Telecommunications

The Building will be pre-wired for telephone, cable television and internet services to the Residential Units. Residents will be able to subscribe for telephone, television and internet service directly through third party providers on an individual subscription basis. Sponsor reserves the right to enter into an agreement with a service provider to provide an internet access package, the monthly cost of which will be paid by the Board and billed to each Residential Unit Owners as part of Residential Common Charges.

(e) Mail

All incoming mail will be delivered to the Building and will be placed by the United States Postal Service in mail boxes located on the first floor of the Building.

(f) Laundry Facilities

Each Residential Unit will contain a washing machine and an electric ventless dryer.

(g) Refuse Disposal

There will be access to a refuse chute in a trash room located on each floor containing Residential Units. The refuse chutes will lead directly to a compactor located in the compactor room on the cellar level.

(h) Smoke and Carbon Monoxide Detector/Sprinklers

A combination smoke and carbon monoxide detector will be provided in each Apartment in compliance with the Law. Additionally, the Building will contain a full sprinkler system in compliance with the Law.

(i) Recreation Space

On the cellar level, Sponsor will construct a fitness center, a swimming pool, a children's recreation room and a screening room. There will be a lounge on the first floor. An amenity terrace on the roof will have a grill, lounge chairs and a gas fireplace. It will be accessible by all Residential Unit Owners and their tenants.

(j) Bicycle Storage Room

A bicycle storage room will be located on the first floor. Sponsor will not collect fees for the use of the bicycle spaces. However, the Board shall determine how bicycle spaces are allocated among Residential Unit Owner, and the fees for such use, if any.

NOTES TO SCHEDULE A

1. Amounts are projected on the assumption that the first year of Condominium operation will be the year from July 1, 2019 to June 30, 2020. The actual first year of Condominium operation may be earlier or later than that year.

2. The square foot area of the Units set forth in the floor plans and in Exhibit B to the Declaration are approximate and were obtained by using the method customarily used in New York City to measure condominium apartments.

   The approximate indoor floor area of each Unit has been measured from the exterior side of the façade or exterior Building walls or glass windows at the Building line and/or Property line enclosing the Unit, or from the midpoint of the interior party walls separating the Unit from another Unit, or from the midpoint of party walls separating the Unit from the public corridors or public stairs, or from the mechanical space side of interior party walls separating the Unit mechanical equipment space or any other Common Elements, except for elevator shear walls where the thickness of the elevator shear wall is not included. Columns and mechanical pipes and chases (whether along the perimeter or within the Unit) are not deducted from the square foot area of the Unit. Mechanical vent pipes located on terraces are not deducted from the total square footage. Since the area calculations are not based upon measurements from interior surfaces of interior walls, the usable floor area of the Units is significantly less than the area listed in Schedule A.

   Storage Units were measured from the centerline of demising partitions to centerline of demising partitions.

   Outdoor floor areas of terraces appurtenant to certain Units were not included in the Unit's approximate floor areas.

3. Sponsor has reserved the right to change the offering prices (as well as other terms of sale) of Units not subject to executed Purchase Agreements, so Purchasers may pay different prices for similar Units. See the Section entitled "Changes in Prices and Units" in Part I of this Plan for further discussion. In addition to paying the purchase prices of their Units, Purchasers will be responsible for paying certain closing adjustments and Closing Costs (see the Section entitled "Unit Closing Costs and Adjustments" in Part I of this Plan for further discussion).

4. The Common Interest of each Unit has been determined, pursuant to Section 339-i(1)(iv) of the Condominium Act. The allocations took into consideration floor space, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Unit, the availability of Common Elements for exclusive or shared use, and the overall dimensions of the particular Unit.

The aggregate Common Interests of all of the Units equal one hundred percent.

5. These projections have been based upon the projections contained in "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation - Schedule B," which were made based on the assumption that the first year of condominium operation will be from July 1, 2019 to June 30, 2020. The actual first year of operation may be earlier or later. In the event the actual or anticipated commencement date of the first year of condominium operation is to be delayed by six months or more, Sponsor will amend the Plan to include a revised budget with current projections. If the amended budget exceeds this projected budget by 25% or more, Sponsor will offer all Purchasers (other than Purchasers who are then in default beyond any applicable grace period, if the Plan has been declared effective) the right to rescind their Purchase Agreements within not less than fifteen days after the presentation date of the amendment containing such revised budget, and any Purchaser electing rescission pursuant to such offer will have their Down Payments and any interest accrued thereon returned.

   In addition to the payment of Common Charges, each Unit Owner will incur additional expenses for:

   a. mortgage payments under any loan or loans obtained to finance the purchase of the Unit;

   b. the cost of electricity and gas supplied to the Unit, which will be separately metered and payable as and when billed;

   c. the cost of interior repairs to, and the maintenance, painting and decoration of, the Unit, including, without limitation, the equipment and appliances contained in the same, and any appurtenant Limited Common Elements;

   d. the cost of any insurance that the Unit Owner may desire to carry covering the furniture, belongings, equipment and other personal property in the Unit, as well as his or her liability to others for personal injury or property damage as a result of occurrences in the Unit;

   e. telephone and cable television charges; and

   f. real estate taxes (see footnote 6 below).

6. Upon substantial completion of construction, the Residential Units will be classified by the New York City Department of Finance ("Department of Finance") as tax class 2 (residential) and the Commercial Unit will be classified by the Department of Finance as tax class 4 (commercial). The policy of the Department of Finance is to apportion each Unit's real estate taxes based on its Common Interest. However, Sponsor makes no representation that the Department of Finance will actually apportion the real estate taxes for each Unit based on Common Interest. Post-construction real estate tax estimates were made by Marcus & Pollack LLP, located at 633 Third Avenue, New York, New York ("M&P"). Estimates of real estate taxes in Schedule A were made by M&P based on projections for the 2019/2020 tax year (July 1, 2019-December 31, 2019). M&P assumes, but does not guarantee, that the 2019/2020 tax year will be the first year that the Department of Finance will fully assess the Property based on the substantially completed Building. Historically, the Department of Finance has annually increased the tax rate, which, if effectuated, would result in higher actual real estate taxes. During the 2019/2020 tax year, the total real estate tax liability of the Property is estimated to be $3,605,215 based on an estimated assessed value of $28,511,280 and an estimated real estate tax rate of 12.892% for the Residential Units and 10.574% for the Commercial Unit and Storage Units. See M&P's real estate tax projection analysis, located in Part I of this Plan, for further disclosure.

No warranty, guaranty or assurance is given that:

(i) any projected or estimated amount set forth above including, without limitation, the estimates of the Property's assessed valuations during the first year of condominium operation; the estimates of the portions of such assessed valuations that will be allocable to the Units; the projection of the average real estate tax rate that will be in effect during such first year; will approximate the actual amount; or

(ii) the New York City Real Estate Tax Assessment Bureau will allocate the Property's aggregate assessed valuation between the Units in accordance with the appraised values used by Sponsor's real estate tax appraiser for such purpose, or that such bureau will allocate the aggregate assessed valuation attributable to the Units among the different Units as described above.

Until the Units are separately assessed, each Unit Owner will pay to the Board their Unit's pro rata share of the Property's real estate taxes for the period in question based upon Common Interest. This proration will be made by allocating the Property's taxes among the Unit Owners in accordance with each Unit's Common Interest. The Board will pay such real estate taxes to the Department of Finance of The City of New York or directly to Sponsor if Sponsor has paid such real estate taxes. If any Unit Owner fails to pay his pro rata share as set forth above, the Board will be entitled to assess late charges and/or place a lien on such Unit as if such unpaid share were Common Charges. At such time as a Unit is separately assessed and separate tax bills are issued, the Unit Owner will pay such taxes directly to the taxing authority.

There is no assurance that the pro-ration of taxes described in the paragraph above will equal the actual amount of real estate taxes which will be assessed against the Units, and the actual amounts may vary considerably from the method set forth above.

In the opinion of Seiden & Schein, P.C., counsel to Sponsor, the tax laws existing on the date of this Plan in general permit a Unit Owner who itemizes his deductions to deduct from income for the purposes of Federal, New York State and New York City income taxes, any real estates taxes actually paid by such Unit Owner with respect to his Unit. However, the amount of such deductions may vary from year to year due to changes in the amount of the real estate taxes payable by the Unit Owner (which might result from changes in the assessed valuation of the Unit, in the tax rate and/or in the manner of assessing real property). Prospective Purchasers should refer to the Section entitled "Income Tax Deductions to Unit Owners and Tax Status of the Condominium" in Part I of this Plan, as well as to the "Counsel's Income Tax Opinion," for further discussion.

IRS Circular 230 Disclosure: In May 2005 the U.S. Treasury Department amended the regulations known as "Circular 230," which, among other things, set forth rules and standards with respect to the rendering of Federal tax advice. In general, the amended rules require such Federal tax advice to include a certain level of detail and discussion and to satisfy certain other requirements, unless the advice meets certain exceptions or is accompanied by a disclosure of certain limitations of the advice. In compliance with Circular 230, the following disclosure sets forth these limitations. Specifically, taxpayers are hereby informed that (i) this Offering Plan was not intended or written to be used, and it cannot be used, by any taxpayer, for the purpose of avoiding penalties that may be imposed on the taxpayer by the IRS; (ii) this Offering Plan was written to support the promotion or marketing of the transactions(s) or matter(s) addressed in this Offering Plan; (iii) the taxpayer should seek advice based on taxpayer's particular circumstances from an independent tax adviser.

(2) Commercial common charges

Commercial common charges shall be allocated based on contract terms as outlined below. The allocation of expenses for the commercial common charges shall be:

• 20% of salary, wages, payroll taxes, and benefits will be devoted to the general common elements. Therefore the commercial unit will pay 8.9772% of the 20%, which equals $19,850.
• The commercial unit will be seperately metered or sub-metered for gas. Commercial Unit to provide its own hot water, heating, and HVAC systems. Per use restrictions, there will be no cooking on the premises.
• The commercial unit will be seperately metered for condenser water usage. The condenser will have installed one set of meters at the water entry point and one set at the exit point. The meters will provide actual volume of water usage in measurements of gallons or cubic feet. The cost is determined by the billable rate of water per 100 cubic feet at the time of reading multiplied by the actual usage. The condominium will then bill the commercial unit the cost monthly, and the commercial unit will pay the cost directly to the Condominium.
• The commercial unit will be seperately metered or sub-metered for consumption of electricity. In addition, estimated electricity costs for the general common elements will be allocated at 80% to the residential common elements and charged to the residential units, with the remaining 20% allocated to the general common elements within the condominium based upon each unit's respective pro-rata share of the common interest. Therefore the commercial unit will pay 8.9772% of the 20%, which equals $1,850.
• The commercial unit will be seperately sub-metered or metered for water and sewer.
• The commercial unit will pay its pro-rata share of expenses and costs for maintenance and repairs and replacement to the General Common Elements of the building based on its pro-rata share of the common interest. The commercial unit will be responsble for all maintenance and repair and replacement costs for all commercial limited common elements, if any. Therefore the commercial unit will pay 8.9772% of the total repairs, maintenance, and supply expenses, which equals $1,258.
• 20% of supplies will be devoted to the general common elements. The commercial unit will pay its 8.9772% of 20% of the supplies purchased, which equals $803. All other costs will be borne solely by the residential and storage units.

• The commercial unit shall pay 8.9772% of the following service contracts: Boiler maintenance, cooling tower maintenance, alarm/security system maintenance, water treament maintenance, snow removal, equipment maintenance (telephone, cable, etc.), landscaping, exterminating, and any other service contract which benefits the building and/or the operation, maintenance, repair, or replacement thereof as opposed to solely benefiting the residential units. Therefore the commercial unit will pay 8.9772% of the total above-listed expenses, which equals $13,040.

• Insurance costs for the entire building will be allocated to each unit based on each unit's respective percentage of the common interest with potential higher allocation for commercial unit to extent consistent with past practice and/or current practice. Therefore the commercial unit will pay 8.9772% of the total expense, which equals $10,736.

• Management fees will be allocated to each unit based upon each unit's respective percentage of common interest. Therefore the commercial unit will pay 8.9772% of the total expense, which equals $6,549.

• Legal and accounting fees will be allocated to each unit based on each unit's respective percentage of the common interest. Therefore the commercial unit will pay 8.9772% of the total expense, which equals $1,745.

Therefore the commercial unit will pay 8.9772% of the total expense, which equals $2,000.

• A contingency expense will be allocated to each unit based on each unit's respective pro-rata share of the common interest. Therefore the commercial unit will pay 8.9772% of the total expense, which equals $3,792.

• A reserve contribution expense will be allocated to each unit based on each unit's respective pro-rata share of the common interest. Therefore the commercial unit will pay 8.9772% of the total expense, which equals $3,792.

Conversely, the Storage Units Owners will not be allocated costs associated with the residential and commercial operations.

The Common Charges will be utilized by the Board of Managers to defray the operational expenses of the Condominium. Where the allocation of common expenses is not based on percentage interest in Common Elements, the expenses have been allocated only to ceertain categories of Units, an explanation of which is set forth in the notes. The Storage Units will be obligated to pay their share of expenses that are incurred by the condominium in furnishing services to the Storage Units as described herein, as well as operating, maintaining and repairing those Common Elements that are utilized by such unit owner. Except for certain limited services and common elements which the Storage Unit Owners share with the Residential Unit Owners in general, the Residential Units being offered are being constructed, equipped, and seperately metered to operate as indepenent units from the Storage Units with a minimum of common expenses or common operations.

Total

Insurance projections are based on an estimated insurance premiums provided by Arthur J. Gallagher & Co. with offices located at 250 Park Avenue, NY, NY 10177 dated April 5, 2017.

The Sponsor represents that it will deliver at the unit owner's expense, on or before the first closing of title to a Unit, a fire and liability binder of policy containing all the coverage described in this footnote and meeting the requirements of the condominium's By-Laws. This coverage does not include claims for personal injury or property damage resulting from occurrences in Units, nor does it include coverage of the furniture or personal property of the Unit Owner.

The condominium, by no later than the first closing, will have fire and casualty insurance under an agreed amount replacement cost policy so that the insured shall not be a co-insurer. The insurance will be adequate to replace the building in the event of total loss and to avoid being a co-insurer in the event of partial loss.

Unit owners are advised to obtain insurance at their own cost to cover such risks as fire and casualty losses to Unit contents, replacements, additions, upgraded fixtures, improvements, and liability coverage to protect themselves against third party liability claims.

Property coverage under a blanket policy is provided on a "All Risk" basis and includes Replacement Cost and Agreed Amount subject to a $25,000 deductible per occurrence with exception of damages resulting from an earthquake & flood, which are subject to a $100,000 deductible. Property coverage is limited to $98,000,000 based on projected construction costs which has been deemed adequate to replace the building and avoid co-insurance.

Commercial general liability (CGL) insurance covers comprehensive protection for all common areas, including all recreational facilities with $2.0-million-limit-per-occurance. An additional $100,000,000 coverage is provided under the terms of the umbrella liability policy. Electricity Rates and Energy Cost Assumptions

1. Individual Unit Energy Assumptions

   a. Lighting and receptacle loads are calculated based on average square footage – 2 w/sq. ft.; utilization of 50% of the total connected load for approximately 4 hours per day, 365 days per year.
   b. Appliance loads include TV, Computer, refrigerator, dishwasher and microwave with total load of 9.6 KW per apartment. Each apartment includes an electric washer with total load of 8.6 KW. The appliance loads are calculated based on 60% demand factor, 4 hours per day, 365 days per year. Washer is calculated based on average 10 hour usage (20 loads) monthly.

2. Utility Company Electricity Rates

   a. The estimated electrical cost is based on a current average flat residential utility rate available from the Con Edison Rates SC 9-1 as 22 cents per KWH.

Re: 91 Leonard Street Condominium
91 Leonard Street Condominium, New York, New York (the "Property")

Ladies & Gentlemen,

Century Management Services, Inc. is a licensed real estate broker in the New York Metropolitan area. We have been involved in the sale and management of multifamily residential buildings, condominiums, and cooperative for more than 45 years. We have been retained to prepare this opinion concerning compliance of the offering plan for the referenced property with section 339(i) of the New York Real Property Law.

We have reviewed the allocation of common interest as shown on Schedule A to be included in the Condominium Offering Plan for the above-referenced property.

The allocation of the percentage of Common Interest for the Condominium Units in the Offering Plan for the above-referenced property is made pursuant to Section 339(i)(1)(iv) of the Real Property Law. The allocations took into consideration the following factors: floor space, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to the space in the condominium, the uniqueness of the units; the availability of common elements for exclusive or shared use and the overall dimensions of the particular unit.

In our opinion, the Condominium Plan and the allocation of percentage interest in the Common Elements attributable to each Unit conforms to Section 339(i)(1)(iv) of the New York Real Property Law.

Century Management is not owned or controlled by Sponsor and it has no financial interest in the offering other than its fee for services rendered in connection therewith.

You have advised us of your intention to incorporate this letter in the plan, and we hereby consent to such inclusion.

Very truly yours,

Jacob P. Slotkin

THE COMMERCIAL UNIT

There will be one (1) Commercial Section in the Condominium containing one (1) Commercial Unit which is being offered for sale by Sponsor. 351 Broadway Retail Partners LLC ("351"), a related entity to the party that sold a portion of the Land to Sponsor, has an option to purchase the Commercial Unit, which will be located in the cellar and first floor of the Building. The "Commercial Unit" is synonymous with the "Retail Unit" that is referenced in the Contract of Sale and Option Agreement that was executed by 351 and Sponsor. Neither 351, nor any of its principals, are affiliated with Sponsor. In the event that 351 exercises its option to purchase the Commercial Unit, it shall execute a Purchase Agreement after the Filling Date and it shall close title to the Commercial Unit, free and clear of all leases, tenancies and occupancies, upon the issuance of a Temporary Certificate of Occupancy that covers the Commercial Unit, provided that Sponsor is otherwise ready, willing and able to close title. In the event that 351 does not timely exercise its option to purchase the Commercial Unit, Sponsor shall have the right to offer the Commercial Unit for sale to the general public at the offering price provided on Schedule A without amending this Plan. Sponsor also reserves the right to lease the Commercial Unit if 351 does not exercise its option to purchase the Commercial Unit.

All or any part of the Commercial Unit may be leased or subleased by the Commercial Unit Owner(s). No representation is made with respect to: (a) the uses to which the Commercial Unit or any part thereof may be put at any time, or (b) who, as tenant(s), will operate or occupy the Commercial Unit or any part thereof at any time, or (c) Sponsor's continued ownership of the Commercial Unit or any part thereof. The Commercial Unit may be used for any lawful purposes, except the Commercial Unit Owners shall not use the Commercial Unit or any part thereof, and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to prevent the Commercial Unit or any portion thereof to be used as or for: 1) an operation primarily used as a storage warehouse operation; provided, however, that ancillary storage uses necessary for the operation of the business in the Commercial Unit shall be permitted; 2) a "second hand" store primarily selling used goods or clothing; 3) a pawn shop; 4) a dumping, disposing, incineration or reduction of garbage (exclusive of garbage compactors located in or adjacent to the Building); 5) a fire sale or bankruptcy sale (unless pursuant to a court order) operation; 6) a central laundry, dry cleaning plant or laundromat; provided, however, this prohibition shall not be applicable to supportive facilities for on-site services oriented to pickup and delivery by the ultimate consumer; 7) an automobile, truck, trailer or recreational vehicles sales, leasing or display operation that displays more than eight (8) vehicles on the ground floor. This numerical restriction will not apply in the cellar; 8) an automobile repair shop (mechanical or otherwise) or any business servicing motor vehicles, including, without limitation, any quick lube oil change services, tire centers, or any business storing or selling gasoline or diesel fuel at retail or wholesale; 9) an animal-raising facility (except that this prohibition shall not prohibit pet shops from operating in their customary manner); 10) a mortuary or funeral home; 11) an establishment selling paraphernalia relating to the use of illegal drugs; 12) a car wash; 13) a bowling alley, skating rink, pool hall, ballroom, dance hall or auditorium (other than an auditorium ancillary to the primary use of the Commercial Unit and that are used principally for servicing unit owner's employees and invitees). However, an auditorium shall be permissible in the cellar; 14) an arcade or game room, unless such arcade or game room is located in the Building's cellar or is incidental to other business operations in the Building; 15) a business or establishment including a fortune teller or palm reader; 16) a manufacturing operation or facility; 17) a commercial or non-profit establishment of any type or nature whatsoever: (a) the primary purpose of which is to sell, afford or permit on-premises sexual stimulation or sexual liaisons including a massage parlor; (b) which permits or presents obscene, nude or semi-nude performances or modeling; (c) which sells, affords or permits body massages, whether or not of a sexual nature; (d) which sells "rubber goods" or other sexual or erotic products of a type not commonly found in high-quality, national chain pharmacies; (e) which sells, rents or permits the viewing of X rated video, photographs, books or other material; provided, however, that the Commercial Unit Owner may use or lease portions of the Commercial Unit to (x) stores or newspaper or magazine vendors who may stock "adult" magazines or books as an incidental part of such store's or vendor's business (provided such "adult" magazines or books are discreetly displayed) and/or (y) cafes or store-fronts providing computer use or internet access (provided such services are not principally geared to providing access to pornographic sites) and/or (z) stores or store-fronts offering relaxation or stress-reduction services not requiring the removal of articles of clothing (other than shoes and outerwear); 18) a gambling facility or operation; provided, however, that the Commercial Unit Owner may use or lease portions of their Units to stores or newspaper or magazine vendors who may sell "lotto"or other governmentally sponsored lottery type tickets to the general public; 19) a training facility for the general public (as opposed to on-site training of employees), including any beauty schools, barber colleges, places of instruction or other operations catering primarily to students or trainees rather than to customers. This restriction shall not apply to retail that is located in the cellar or to retail that is located more than 100 feet from Broadway on theground floor; 20) a welfare or homeless shelter, soup kitchen, food pantry or settlement house;21) an office, store, reading room, headquarters, center or other facility whose principal purpose is the promotion, advancement, representation, or opposing of (a) any political party, political movement or political candidate, (b) any religion, religious group or religious denomination, (c) foreign government, or (d) any "cause" of any type or nature whatsoever. Subject to approval by the Board, not to be unreasonably withheld; 22) a check cashing facility, other than a bank; 23) an AIDS treatment center; 24) any use whereby the Commercial Unit Owner (including a tenant or occupant thereof), or the principal thereof, is entitled to diplomatic immunity; 25) a government offices used as service centers requiring the public to appear, including, without limitation, welfare, motor vehicle, unemployment offices or courts; 26) a drug or alcohol rehabilitation center or clinic or facility for the treatment of any form of addiction; 27) a facility housing or treating persons guilty of aggravated felonies under Federal law, felonies under New York State law, or Class A misdemeanors under New York State law (hereinafter defined as an "Impermissible Offender"), for the avoidance of doubt, a juvenile offender not adjudicated to be guilty of the aforementioned felonies or a Class A Misdemeanor shall not be considered an "Impermissible Offender"); 28) a gun store or firing range; 29) a bar, tavern, nightclub or cabaret; 30) a supermarket, bodega, mini-mart or similar establishment selling or serving food unless subject to reasonable regulations pertaining to noise, odors and vermin; and 31) a restaurant, food service facility, or other cooking facility, provided that retailers on the list below shall be entitled to warm up and arrange food that is prepared off site. Except as provided herein, the Commercial Unit may be used for any lawful purpose and no sale, lease, sublease or use of all or any portion of the Commercial Unit shall be deemed to adversely affect the Residential Section.

Subject to the foregoing restrictions on the Commercial Unit, the following tenants shall be permitted retailers of coffees teas, and non-alcoholic beverages and smoothies. The list of permitted retailers does not waive any of the use restrictions, including, without limitation, the restriction on the preparation of food in the Commercial Unit: Alice's Tea Cup; Bassets Coffee & Tea Company Inc.; Au Bon Pain; Big Cup Tea & Coffee House; Blue Bottle Coffee Company; Blue Spoon Coffee Company; Brazil "Brasil" Coffee House; Choux Factory; City Perk Inc.; Coco Moka Café; Coffee Master Inc.; Dean & Deluca; Diedrich Coffee; Financiers; Gene's Coffee Shop; Gloria Jean's; Gorilla Coffee; Hagan Daaz; Jamba Juice; Juan Valdez; Kahlua's Café; Lavazza Premium Coffee; Le Pain Quotidien; Macchiato Inc. ; Maui Wow; Mocca Espresso Lounge; New World Coffee; Oren's Daily Roast; Porto Rico Importing Company; Rocky Mountain Chocolate Factory; Rohrs House of Fine Teas & Coffees; Saint's Alp Teahouse; Seattle Coffee Roasters; Sensuous Bean; Sip Café; Smoothie King; Starbuck's; Sugar Loaf Coffee; Tavalon Tea Bar; Tea & Sympathy; Timothy's Coffees of The World; Vitality; Yaffa's. The Condominium Board's approval of similar vendors shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. In the event that the Condominium Board shall fail to respond to any request for approval of a similar vendor within thirty (30) days following the Condominium Board's, or its designated managing agent's, receipt of such request along with all information reasonably requested by the Condominium Board, the Condominium Board's consent shall be deemed granted.

The Commercial Unit Owner has rights which differ from the Residential Unit Owners. Neither the Condominium Board, nor the Residential Board, nor any Unit Owners will have the right to approve or disapprove either any change in the use of the Commercial Unit (or any part thereof), or any amendment to the Building's Certificate of Occupancy to authorize another use for the Commercial Unit (or any part thereof). In addition, the Commercial Unit Owner has the right to freely sell or lease the Commercial Unit or any part thereof without any Board having any right of first refusal to purchase or lease, or to procure a third party to purchase or lease, the same (see "Rights and Obligations of the Unit Owners and the Condominium Board" for further discussion).

In accordance with the Declaration and By-Laws, Sponsor and any future Commercial Unit Owner(s) and their successors and assigns shall, unless and to the extent prohibited by Law, have an easement to erect, maintain, repair and replace, from time to time, one or more signs on the Property for the purposes of advertising (i) the sale or lease of any Unsold Residential Unit, the sale or lease of all or any portion of the Commercial Unit and (ii) the operation of any business of a tenant or occupant of all or any portion of any Commercial Unit or of any Unsold Residential Units, as the case may be. Please refer to the plan page of the Commercial Unit façade located in Part II of this Plan for the locations of permitted signage by the Commercial Unit Owner.

The Condominium Board shall consist of a Residential Board of six (6) persons elected or designated by the Residential Unit Owners and a Commercial Board of one (1) person elected or designated by the Commercial Unit Owner. The Commercial Unit may be subdivided into up to three (3) Commercial Condominium Units without the consent of the Condominium Board. However, the number of Commercial Board members shall not be increased or decreased by virtue of a subdivision.

The percentage interest of the Commercial Unit in the Common Elements is based upon floor space, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Unit, the availability of Common Elements for exclusive or shared use, and the overall dimensions of the Unit. The Commercial Unit Owner will be required to pay the expenses reasonably attributable to the cost of fire and casualty insurance to the extent that such cost exceeds the cost of comparable insurance in a building which does not contain any commerical space. The Commercial Unit Owner, however, is not required to contribute to the Common Expenses or to pay any Special Assessment to the extent same is used exclusively for the repair, maintenance, operation, renovation or decoration of the Residential Section, and no Residential Unit Owners shall be required to contribute to the Common Expenses or to pay any Special Assessment to the extent same is used exclusively for the repair, maintenance, operating, renovation or decoration of the Commercial Section. Please refer to the footnotes to Schedule B, which discloses the obligations of the Commercial Unit Owner to pay for some, but not all, line items in the Condominium's budget. As a result, Common Charges payable by Residential Unit Owners are higher than they would be if they were billed based on each Unit's percentage of Common Interest. As of the Filing Date, the Common Charges payable by the Commercial Unit Owner (as set forth in Schedule B) are believed to be sufficient to cover the expenses fairly attributable to such Commercial Unit.

The By-Laws of the Condominium expressly authorize the Condominium Board to allocate certain specific expense items and apportion Common Expenses against the Commercial Unit other than in proportion to the Commercial Unit's aggregate appurtenant interest in the Common Elements. Article 11 of the By-Laws sets forth arbitration as the method of resolving disputes between the Commercial Unit Owner(s) and the Board of Managers concerning any special allocations.

CHANGES IN PRICES AND UNITS

Subject to conditions hereinafter set forth, Sponsor has the right to change the amount of any offering prices from the amounts shown in Schedule A of the Plan. The offering prices set forth in Schedule A must be changed by a duly filed amendment to the Plan when the change of price is an across the board increase or decrease affecting one or more lines of Units, or Unit models, or is to be advertised, or is a price increase, above the then-existing offering price, for an individual Purchaser. The Sponsor may enter into a Purchase Agreement with a Purchaser to sell one or more Units at purchase prices lower than those set forth in Schedule A without filing an amendment. Sponsor reserves the right to negotiate with Purchasers the certain aspects of the purchase price of Units including, but not limited to, decorating allowances, payment of fees otherwise paid by Purchasers, payment of all or part of Purchaser's financing costs, price reductions tied to rental of Units, reduced down payment deposits (but at least $5,000.00) and extra custom work. Furthermore, Sponsor reserves the right to amend the Plan from time to time to add and/or delete negotiable terms. No party other than Sponsor will have the right to approve any changes in price, whether before or after the First Unit Closing.

If Sponsor changes the purchase price of one or more Units the Purchaser of such Unit may pay, or may have paid, more or less than other Purchasers of comparable Units having the same Common Interest. However, a price change will not alter the Common Interest of, or the amount of the Common Charges payable by, the Unit Owners.

In order to meet the possible varying demands for number and type of Units, or to meet the particular needs of prospective Purchasers, or for any other reason, Sponsor reserves the right to change: (a) the layout of, or number of rooms in, Unsold Units, and (b) the size and/or number of Unsold Units by subdividing one or more Unsold Units into two or more separate Units, by combining two or more separate Unsold Units into one or more Unsold Units, by altering the boundary walls of any Unsold Unit, or otherwise, including, without limitation, the use of any portion of the Common Elements adjacent to such Unsold Units to the extent that such portion is not required to be maintained as Common Elements pursuant to the terms of the Declaration and the By-Laws. Subject to the terms of the last three paragraphs of this Section, such right may be exercised by Sponsor from time to time, both before and after the First Unit Closing, without the consent or approval of any Selling Agent, the Managing Agent, the Condominium Board, any Unit Owner, any mortgagee or any other party. However, Sponsor will first obtain the approval of all governmental authorities having jurisdiction thereof whose approval is required by law. No change will be made by Sponsor in the size or number of Units, their respective percentages of Common Interest, or in the size or quality of Common Elements except by amendments to the Offering Plan and the Declaration. Unless the affected Purchaser provides a written consent, no material change will be made by Sponsor in Unit size, layout or percentage of Common Interest if a Purchase Agreement has been executed and delivered to the Sponsor for that Unit and such Purchaser is not in default.

If Sponsor changes the size and/or number of Unsold Units, Sponsor will increase or decrease the Common Interests appurtenant thereto accordingly. However, the aggregate amount of the Common Interests of all the Units will always remain at 100%. As a result of such reapportionment, the amount of the Common Charges and the real estate taxes and assessments payable by the owners of the Unsold Units affected thereby may be increased or decreased, but the amount of the Common Charges and the real estate taxes and assessments payable by the owners of Units unaffected thereby will not vary.

This Plan will be amended to reflect any change in the size of a Unit, number of Units, percentage of Common Interests of Unsold Units or a change in the size or quality of any Common Element. However, the layout and number of rooms in Unsold Units may be changed without prior notice.

Prior to the First Unit Closing no adverse material change will be made in the size and quality of Common Elements (as determined by the Department of Law) unless Purchasers not in default consent. After the First Unit Closing, no material adverse change (as determined by the Department of Law) will be made in the size and quality of Common Elements.

Once the Declaration is recorded, no change may be made in the number of Units or number of rooms within a Unit, nor may the size of any Unit be changed by subdivision or combination or alteration of boundary walls, or otherwise, nor may the Common Interest of any Unit be changed, unless the Declaration is amended and such amendment is duly recorded. The Plan will be amended in the event of any such changes. As more particularly provided in the Declaration, Sponsor or its designee, as the owner of an Unsold Unit, will have the right itself to so amend the Declaration to effectuate such change, without the Condominium Board, the other Unit Owners or any mortgagee consenting to, or executing, such amendment. However, no change of a Unit's Common Interest will be made without obtaining the prior written consent of the owner of such Unit.

To the extent permitted by law, if the size or configuration of a Unit is changed in compliance with the Plan, the Declaration and/or the By-Laws and, in connection therewith, a wall, space or other area forming a part of the Common Elements servicing and benefiting only such Unit is razed or incorporated in the Unit, then such Common Element shall be deemed for the exclusive use and benefit of the owner of such Unit and the Unit's Common Interest will remain unchanged.

INTERIM USE AND OCCUPANCY AGREEMENTS

Before and after the First Unit Closing, Sponsor or its designee reserves the right to rent or lease vacant Units to Purchasers who have executed Purchase Agreements, provided that at least a temporary Certificate of Occupancy has been issued for such Unit(s). Such Purchasers shall be responsible for obtaining renter's insurance for their Unit at such Purchasers' sole cost and expense.

Once a Purchase Agreement is signed for a vacant Unit, and for so long as such Purchase Agreement is in effect, such Unit may only be rented to the Purchaser thereof. Such agreement, if entered into (an "Interim Use and Occupancy Agreement") will be for such use and occupancy fee, and upon such other terms as may be mutually agreed upon. The term of such Interim Use and Occupancy Agreement shall be for a period which will expire on the earlier of the date of the Closing of such Unit or six months after the execution date of the Interim Use and Occupancy Agreement. In the event this Plan is abandoned, the Purchaser may, at any time at his or her sole option, cancel the Interim Use and Occupancy Agreement upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the Sponsor at the address set forth on the cover page of this Plan. Should Purchaser rescind his or her Purchase Agreement pursuant to any permitted rescission, the Interim Use and Occupancy Agreement shall terminate thirty (30) days thereafter and Purchaser shall be obligated to vacate the Unit no later than that time.

An Interim Use and Occupancy Agreement will provide that an uncured default by the Purchaser under the Purchase Agreement will constitute a default under the Interim Use and Occupancy Agreement, entitling the landlord (i.e., Sponsor), at its sole option, to terminate the Interim Use and Occupancy Agreement. The Purchase Agreement contains a similar cross-default provision entitling Sponsor to cancel the Purchase Agreement in the event that the Purchaser fails to cure a default under the Interim Use and Occupancy Agreement within any applicable grace period. However, before the Sponsor may utilize a default under the Interim Use and Occupancy Agreement to declare a default under the Agreement, the Sponsor must (i) obtain an order of eviction or other judgment or order from a court or agency of competent jurisdiction against the interim occupant or (ii) the interim occupant must have vacated the Unit. The interim occupant (i.e., the Purchaser) must vacate the Unit within five (5) days after any default under the Purchase Agreement which remains uncured after five (5) days.

Purchasers are advised that Interim Use and Occupancy Agreements, the rents and any rent increases upon the renewal of such Interim Use and Occupancy Agreement are not subject to the New York State Rent Stabilization Law or the New York City Rent Stabilization Code.

PROCEDURE TO PURCHASE

Purchase Agreement

A Person desiring to purchase a Unit in the Condominium, or the authorized parties thereof if the Person is other than a natural person, shall be required to execute in quadruplicate a Purchase Agreement in the form set forth in Part II of this Plan and return it to the Sponsor, together with a check in the amount of ten percent (10%) of the Purchase Price, representing the Down Payment, drawn to the order of "Seiden & Schein, P.C., as Escrow Agent." The Down Payment may be increased for special work in the Unit ordered by the Purchaser and agreed to by the Sponsor and itemized in the Purchase Agreement. Seiden & Schein, P.C. shall be the "Escrow Agent" for the Down Payment pursuant to the Purchase Agreement and Offering Plan.

Purchasers will be afforded not less than three (3) business days to review this Plan and all filed amendments prior to executing a Purchase Agreement. If a Purchaser has not been afforded at least three (3) business days prior to executing a Purchase Agreement, such Purchaser will have seven (7) days after delivering an executed Purchase Agreement together with the Down Payment to rescind the Purchase Agreement and have the Down Payment refunded promptly. Such rescinding Purchaser must either personally deliver a written notice of rescission to the Selling Agent within the 7-day period or mail the notice of rescission to the Selling Agent and have the mailing post-marked within the 7-day period.

Within twenty (20) days after delivery to Sponsor or its agent by Purchaser of the Purchase Agreement, executed by Purchaser, Sponsor will either: (a) accept the Purchase Agreement and cause to be returned to Purchaser a fully executed counterpart thereof, or (b) reject the Purchase Agreement offer and refund the Down Payment tendered by Purchaser. The Purchase Agreement shall not be binding upon the Sponsor until a duplicate thereof, executed by the Sponsor, is delivered to Purchaser. The Sponsor shall have the right to reject the Purchase Agreement without cause or explanation to Purchaser, provided such rejection is not based upon gender, race, creed, color, national origin or ancestry or other grounds proscribed by Law. In the event that Sponsor elects not to execute a Purchase Agreement, all monies paid by Purchaser shall be promptly refunded, without interest and upon such refund being made, neither party shall have any further rights or obligations hereunder with respect to the other.

After this Plan is declared effective, the Sponsor shall fix dates for closing title to all Units for which Purchase Agreements have been fully executed. Sponsor will give each Purchaser not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice of the date, time and place (in the City of New York) for the transfer of title to his Unit. Purchasers may, but are not required to, waive this thirty (30) day notice. At Closing, such Purchaser shall pay the balance of the Purchase Price stated in the Purchase Agreement with his unendorsed, personal certified check or by official cashier's check. Purchaser may apply the proceeds of any financing obtained by such Purchaser to make such payment, provided that it is made in the form stated above.

It is anticipated that the first Unit will close title on or about July 1, 2019. Purchasers will be offered the right to rescind their Purchase Agreements if the actual date of the First Unit Closing occurs later than June 30, 2020. However, provided that the First Unit Closing occurs on or before June 30, 2020, and unless the Purchase Agreement contains an outside Closing date, Sponsor shall not be obligated to close title to any Unit within a specified time frame. Purchasers should note that even if the First Unit Closing occurs on or before June 30, 2020, or such other date projected as the date of commencement of Condominium operation at the time the Purchase Agreement was entered into, the closing of subsequent Units may be substantially delayed beyond such dates if a Temporary Certificate of Occupancy has not been issued for such Units or for the floor on which such Units are located. In such case, provided that Sponsor is diligently pursing completion of construction and the issuance of a Certificate of Occupancy, and is otherwise in compliance with its obligations under the Plan, Purchaser will not be entitled to a right of rescission or to make claims against Sponsor for damages or losses as a result of such delays and will not be excused from paying the full Purchase Price for the Unit. PROSPECTIVE PURCHASES SHOULD THEREFORE CAREFULLY CONSIDER THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DELAYS IN THEIR DETERMINATION AS TO WHETHER TO PURCHASE A UNIT.

Escrow

The Escrow Agent

The law firm of Seiden & Schein, P.C., with an address at 570 Lexington Avenue, 14th Floor, New York, New York, telephone number (212) 935-1400, shall serve as escrow agent ("Escrow Agent") for Sponsor and Purchaser.

The Escrow Account

The Escrow Agent has established the escrow account at MUFG Union Bank, N.A, at its office located at 1251 Avenue of the Americas, 19th Floor, New York, New York 10020 (the "Bank"), a bank authorized to do business in the State of New York. The escrow account is entitled Seiden & Schein, P.C., Attorney Account ("Escrow Account"). The signatories on the Escrow Account authorized to withdraw funds are Jay G. Seiden, Esq., Alvin Schein, Esq., and Adam A. Levenson, Esq., each of whom has an office at 570 Lexington Avenue, 14th Floor, New York, New York 10022. All designated signatories are admitted to practice law in the State of New York. Neither the Escrow Agent nor any authorized signatories on the account are the Sponsor, Selling Agent, Managing Agent, or any principal thereof, or have any beneficial interest in the Escrow Account.

The name of Purchaser shall be added to the title of a sub-account of the Escrow Account, which shall also be at MUFG Union Bank, N.A. at its office located at 1251 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10020. The Escrow Account is federally insured by the FDIC to the maximum amount of $250,000. Such $250,000 coverage includes, in the aggregate, the Down Payment, plus any and all other deposits that Purchaser has on account at MUFG Union Bank, N.A. Any Purchaser deposits at MUFG

Union Bank, N.A. (including the Down Payment) which, in the aggregate, exceed $250,000 will not be insured by the FDIC. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor reserves the right to amend this Plan to permit Sponsor to utilize Down Payments after such Down Payments have been secured with surety bonds or an alternative type of security.

All checks constituting the "Down Payment" are to be made payable to the order of "Seiden & Schein, P.C., as Escrow Agent" and all checks in payment of the balance of the Purchase Price (due at the Closing) are to be made payable to the order of Sponsor or as otherwise directed by Sponsor, with all checks, in either case, drawn on a member bank of the New York Clearing House Association.

Any additional deposits made for upgrades, extras, or custom work ("Special Work Deposits") shall be initially deposited into the Escrow Account, and released in accordance to the terms of the Purchase Agreement between Purchaser and Sponsor.

The Down Payment and the Special Work Deposit and herein referred to collectively as the "Deposit."

The Down Payment will be held in an interest-bearing account, provided Purchaser furnishes a completed W-8 or W-9 form, and, unless the Purchaser defaults, interest will be credited to the Purchaser at Closing. The account is a variable-rate account, paying money market rates. The interest rate to be earned in the Escrow Account will fluctuate daily and, as of the Filing Date, is less than 1% per annum. Interest will begin to accrue upon placing the Down Payment into the Escrow Account. All interest earned thereon shall be paid to or credited to the Purchaser at closing. No fees of any kind may be deducted from the Escrow Account, and the Sponsor shall bear all costs associated with the maintenance of the Escrow Account.

The Purchase Agreement

A form of Purchase Agreement is located in Part II of this Plan. The relevant escrow trust fund provisions are included in Paragraph 16 of the Purchase Agreement. Escrow Agent shall execute the Purchase Agreement, solely as to Paragraph 16 of the Purchase Agreement, prior to delivering the Purchase Agreement, fully executed, to Purchaser.

Notification to Purchaser

Within five (5) business days after the Purchase Agreement has been tendered to Escrow Agent, along with the Deposit, Escrow Agent shall sign the Purchase Agreement and place the Deposit into the Escrow Account. Within ten (10) business days after the Deposit has been placed into the Escrow Account, Escrow Agent shall send written notice to the Purchaser and Sponsor, confirming the Deposit. The notice shall provide the account number and the initial interest rate to be earned on the Down Payment. Any Special Work Deposit shall be initially deposited into the Escrow Account, and released in accordance to the terms of the Purchase Agreement.

The Escrow Agent is obligated to send notice to Purchaser once the Deposit is placed in the Escrow Account. If Purchaser does not receive written notice of such deposit within fifteen (15) business days after tender of the executed Purchase Agreement and Deposit, he or she may cancel the Purchase Agreement within ninety (90) days after tender of the Purchase Agreement and Deposit to Escrow Agent. Complaints concerning the failure to honor such cancellation requests may be referred to the New York State Department of Law, Real Estate Finance Bureau, 120 Broadway, 23rd Floor, New York, New York 10271. Rescission shall not be afforded where proof satisfactory to the Attorney General is submitted establishing that the Deposit was timely placed in the Escrow Account in accordance with the New York State Department of Law's regulations concerning deposits and requisite notice was timely mailed to the Purchaser.

Default by Purchaser

Any conflict between the Plan and the Purchase Agreement shall be resolved in favor of the Plan unless otherwise provided for in a negotiated rider to the Purchase Agreement which is executed by Purchaser and Sponsor. If Purchaser shall fail to pay any portion of the Purchase Price when due, fail to close title on the date, hour and place specified by Sponsor or fail to perform any of Purchaser's other obligations, including, without limitation, the obligation to furnish any lender promptly with such information as such lender may require, and the obligation to accept a commitment on the terms set forth in the Purchase Agreement, such failure shall constitute a default by Purchaser, and Sponsor may send notice to Purchaser of Sponsor's intention to cancel the Purchase Agreement if such default is not timely cured. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE FOR PURCHASER TO CURE ANY DEFAULT UNDER THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT WITHIN THE APPLICABLE PERIOD. "Time is of the essence" means that if such default is not cured within thirty (30) days from the mailing date of such written notice, Sponsor may (but shall not be obligated to) elect to cancel the Purchase Agreement by notice of cancellation to Purchaser sent after the cure period has expired. Upon such cancellation by Sponsor, the Down Payment monies held with respect to the particular Unit, but not more than ten percent (10%) of the Purchase Price, plus any Special Work Deposit made by the Purchaser, shall be paid over to the Sponsor as and for liquidated damages, subject to certain restrictions, as disclosed in the "Release of Funds" section, below, and thereafter the Purchase Agreement shall become null and void. In the event a default is disputed in writing by notice from Purchaser to Seiden & Schein, P.C., during the time to cure period and the default, in Sponsor's opinion, is not timely cured, and Sponsor thereafter cancels the Purchase Agreement, then Seiden & Schein, P.C. shall have the right to continue to hold the Down Payment pending resolution of such dispute (judicial or otherwise) or pay the Down Payment into court. Sponsor shall not seek the remedy of specific performance in connection with Purchase Agreements as to which there has been a default by Purchaser.

Release of Funds

All Down Payments, but not Special Work Deposits made for upgrades, extras, or custom work received in connection with the Purchase Agreement, are and shall continue to be the Purchaser's money, and may not be comingled with any other money or pledged or hypothecated by Sponsor, as per GBL § 352-h.

Under no circumstances shall Sponsor seek or accept release of the Down Payment of a defaulting Purchaser until after consummation of the Plan, as evidenced by the acceptance of a post-closing amendment by the New York State Department of Law. Consummation of the Plan does not relieve the Sponsor of its obligations pursuant to GBL §§ 352-e(2-b) and 352-h.

The Escrow Agent shall release the Down Payment if so directed:

(a) pursuant to terms and conditions set forth in the Purchase Agreement upon closing of title to the Unit; or

(b) in a subsequent writing signed by both Sponsor and Purchaser;

(c) by a final, non-appealable order or judgment of a court; or

(d) pursuant to an award issued upon the completion of binding arbitration.

In the event that the Down Payment is to be released pursuant to an arbitration award pursuant to paragraph (d), above, Escrow Agent shall release such Down Payment no earlier than ninety (90) days after the delivery of such award determination to Sponsor and Purchaser.

If the Escrow Agent is not directed to release the Down Payment pursuant to paragraphs (a) through (d) above, and the Escrow Agent receives a request by either party to release the Down Payment, then the Escrow Agent must give both the Purchaser and Sponsor prior written notice of not fewer than thirty (30) days after the expiration of the thirty (30) day default cure period (time being of the essence) before releasing the Down Payment (the "30 Day Escrow Notice"). If the Escrow Agent has not received notice of objection to the release of the Down Payment prior to the expiration of the 30 Day Escrow Notice, the Down Payment shall be released to Sponsor as liquidated damages and the Escrow Agent shall provide further written notice to both parties informing them of said release. If the Escrow Agent receives a written notice from either party objecting to the release of the Down Payment within the thirty (30) day period pursuant to the 30 Day Escrow Notice, the Escrow Agent shall continue to hold the Down Payment until otherwise directed pursuant to paragraphs (a) through (d) above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Escrow Agent shall have the right at any time to deposit the Down Payment contained in the Escrow Account with the New York County Clerk and shall give written notice to both parties of such deposit.

The Sponsor shall not object to the release of the Down Payment to:

(a) a Purchaser who timely rescinds in accordance with an offer of rescission contained in the Plan or an Amendment to the Plan; or

(b) all Purchasers after an Amendment abandoning the Plan is accepted for filing by the Department of Law.

The Department of Law may perform random reviews and audits of any records involving the Escrow Account to determine compliance with all applicable statutes and regulations.

The Purchase Agreement provides that all disputes including, but not limited to, disputes concerning breach of contract, express and implied warranties, personal injuries and/or illness, mold-related claims, representations and/or omissions by Sponsor, on-site and off-site conditions and all other torts and statutory causes of action ("Claims") shall be resolved by binding arbitration in New York County in accordance with the rules and procedures of Arbitration of the American Arbitration Association or its successor or an equivalent organization mutually agreed upon by the parties. In addition, the Purchase Agreement provides that Purchaser may not initiate any arbitration proceeding for any Claim(s) unless and until Purchaser has first given Sponsor specific written notice of each claim (at 250 Gibraltar Road, Horsham, Pennsylvania 19044, Attn: Warranty Dispute Resolution) and given Sponsor a reasonable opportunity after such notice to cure any default, including the repair of the Unit(s), in accordance with the Offering Plan. IN THE EVENT THAT SPONSOR PREVAILS, PURCHASER SHALL BE OBLIGATED TO REIMBURSE SPONSOR FOR ANY LEGAL FEES AND DISBURSEMENTS INCURRED BY SPONSOR IN DEFENDING SPONSOR'S RIGHTS AND ENFORCING PURCHASER'S OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT.

Arbitration is a less formal method of resolving disputes than litigation in a court, and arbitration has certain limitations, as compared to litigation in court. Such limitations include, but are not limited to, (i) giving up the right to bring a legal action against one another in court, except as may be provided by the rules of the arbitration forum in which a claim is filed; (ii) limiting the ability of the parties to obtain documents and perform discovery; (iii) arbitrators may not have to explain the reasons for their award; (iv) a notice of pendency may not be filed against a property based on ongoing arbitration proceedings. Arbitration awards are generally binding and, therefore, a party's ability to have a court reverse an arbitration award is limited (see New York Civil Practice Law and Rules §7511). As with litigation, certain time limits are imposed for bringing a claim in arbitration. For further information about arbitration, please visit www.adr.org.

Waiver Void

Any provision of any Purchase Agreement or separate agreement, whether oral or in writing, by which a Purchaser purports to waive or indemnify any obligation of the Escrow Agent holding any Down Payment in trust is absolutely void. The provisions of the Attorney General's regulations and GBL §§ 352-e(2-b) and 352-h concerning escrow trust funds shall prevail over any conflicting or inconsistent provisions in the Purchase Agreement, Plan, or any amendment thereto.

Risk of Loss

The risk of loss from fire or other casualty with respect to the Unit shall remain with the Sponsor until the Closing of title for the Unit. The Sponsor, at its sole discretion, reserves the right to either repair or restore such Unit, whereupon Purchaser shall be obligated to close without an abatement in the purchase price, or not repair or restore and grant Purchaser the right to rescind the Purchase Agreement. Notwithstanding the above, in the event that Purchaser, or one claiming by or through Purchaser, enters into possession of the Unit prior to the Closing of title, then Purchaser shall bear the risk of loss or other casualty with respect to the Unit for damages not covered by Sponsor's insurance. Additionally, Purchaser shall be responsible for damage to, or loss or other condition in, the Unit and Sponsor shall not be obligated to repair any damages to the Unit or its appliances, fixtures and equipment in excess of what is covered by its insurance policy.

Power of Attorney

At the Closing of title to a Unit, and simultaneously with the delivery to Purchaser of the deed conveying the Unit, Purchaser shall execute and acknowledge the Power of Attorney to the Board of Managers in the form contained in Part II of this Plan. Purchaser shall deliver such executed Power of Attorney to Sponsor or as directed by Sponsor at the Closing of title for recording and Purchaser shall pay the recording fee. Failure to do so shall constitute a default by Purchaser pursuant to the Purchase Agreement.

Mortgage Financing

1.1 No Financing Contingency. The obligation of Purchaser to purchase is not contingent upon obtaining financing. As a result, Purchaser will not be excused from his or her obligation to pay the full Purchase Price of the Unit on the date scheduled by Sponsor for closing title, regardless of Purchaser's ability or inability to obtain mortgage financing and notwithstanding that any loan commitment Purchaser may have obtained expires prior to closing of title.

1.2 Purchaser's Financing Risks. If Purchaser is relying upon financing, Purchaser will assume the risks of meeting all conditions and requirements of the lender to obtain and fund the loan on the date set by Sponsor for closing of title under the Purchase Agreement, including conditions and requirements that may be beyond Purchaser's control. These risks include the following: (a) meeting all requirements concerning Purchaser (for example, Purchaser's income, financial condition, employment status, sale of an existing residence, etc.) and any adverse changes in meeting these requirements that may occur between the issuance and funding of the loan commitment (notably, recently enhanced credit requirements may result in greater difficulty to qualify for a mortgage loan); (b) meeting a requirement for a certain percentage of Units to be "owner-occupied" (banks and other institutional lenders may require up to 70% of the Units to be "owner-occupied"); and (c) losing a "lock-in" interest rate because the closing of title under Purchaser's Purchase Agreement fails to occur before the expiration of the period within which the loan must close to obtain the locked-in rate. Purchaser also assumes the risk of adverse changes in the terms of the loan that may occur before the closing of the loan and paying additional amounts to extend the loan commitment period. By assuming these risks, Purchaser will not be excused from the obligation to purchase without abatement in the Purchase Price and without recourse against Sponsor or the Selling Agent. Sponsor and Selling Agent do not represent, assure or guarantee that a Purchaser will succeed in obtaining mortgage financing from a bank or other institutional lender, or from other independent sources, or (if Purchaser succeeds) the terms or costs of such financing, or whether the closing of title will occur before the loan commitment or any lock-in rate expires, or (if it expires) whether the commitment will be extended or the costs to obtain an extension or the terms and conditions thereof, which may be less favorable than the original commitment. A prospective Purchaser who is relying upon financing is advised to inquire with a proposed lender or mortgage broker as to whether he or she will qualify for a mortgage loan and the terms thereof before entering into a Purchase Agreement.

1.3 TBI Mortgage Application. Under the Purchase Agreement, Purchaser shall be required either: (a) to complete and submit to TBI Mortgage Company (hereafter, "TBI"), an affiliate of Sponsor (see the subsection entitled "Identity of TBI Mortgage Company" below for full discussion), a mortgage application (the "TBI Mortgage Application"), at no cost or charge to Purchaser; or (b) to sign and return to Sponsor, together with the Purchase Agreement, a "True Cash Sale Endorsement" (see paragraph "1.4" below).

THE TBI MORTGAGE APPLICATION IS NOT A MORTGAGE FINANCING CONTINGENCY AND DOES NOT: (a) RELIEVE PURCHASER OF THE OBLIGATION TO PAY THE FULL PURCHASE PRICE OF THE UNIT ON THE DATE SCHEDULED BY SPONSOR FOR CLOSING TITLE, WITHOUT ABATEMENT OR RECOURSE OF ANY KIND AGAINST SPONSOR, SELLING AGENT OR TBI, REGARDLESS OF PURCHASER'S ABILITY TO OBTAIN MORTGAGE FINANCING FROM TBI OR ANY OTHER LENDER; OR (b) MINIMIZE OR AVOID ANY OF PURCHASER'S FINANCING RISKS SET FORTH IN THE PRECEDING PARAGRAPH "1.2".

THE TBI MORTGAGE APPLICATION: (a) DOES NOT PRECLUDE PURCHASER FROM APPLYING TO OTHER LENDERS FOR FINANCING TO PURCHASE THE UNIT; (b) DOES NOT OBLIGATE PURCHASER TO OBTAIN OR ACCEPT FINANCING FROM TBI; AND (c) DOES NOT OBLIGATE TBI TO EXTEND FINANCING TO PURCHASER.

PURCHASER SHALL BE FREE TO OBTAIN FINANCING AT ANY TIME FROM A LENDER CHOSEN BY PURCHASER. UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES WILL PURCHASER BE REQUIRED TO ACCEPT FINANCING THAT MAY BE OFFERED BY TBI.

IF PURCHASER IS RELYING UPON FINANCING TO PURCHASE THE UNIT AND IS UNABLE TO OBTAIN FINANCING FROM A LENDER CHOSEN BY

PURCHASER, TBI SHALL NOT BE REQUIRED TO EXTEND FINANCING TO PURCHASER AND, IF OFFERED, PURCHASER SHALL NOT BE OBLIGATED TO ACCEPT ANY FINANCING OFFERED BY TBI. IN SUCH CASE, IF PURCHASER REJECTS FINANCING OFFERED BY TBI AND IS UNABLE TO CLOSE FOR LACK OF FUNDS OR OTHERWISE, PURCHASER WILL LOSE PURCHASER'S DEPOSIT AND ANY INTEREST EARNED THEREON, WHICH WILL BE PAID TO SPONSOR AS LIQUIDATED DAMAGES PURSUANT TO THE TERMS OF THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT.

If Purchaser is not approved for a mortgage loan (i.e., given a loan commitment letter) from a lender chosen by Purchaser within sixty (60) days after the date Purchaser executes the Purchase Agreement, then Sponsor shall have the right: (a) to submit a loan application on substantially the same terms contained in the TBI Mortgage Application to one (1) additional lender chosen by Sponsor, with no additional application fee to Purchaser; or (b) to cancel the Purchase Agreement and return to Purchaser all sums paid on account of the Purchase Price and any extras, together with any interest earned thereon, whereupon neither party shall have any further rights or liabilities under the Purchase Agreement.

PURCHASER SHALL NOT BE OBLIGATED TO ACCEPT FINANCING FROM THE LENDER CHOSEN BY SPONSOR, IF OFFERED BY SUCH LENDER AND SPONSOR SHALL NOT BE OBLIGATED TO EITHER SUBMIT A LOAN APPLICATION TO ANOTHER LENDER OR TO CANCEL THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT DUE TO THE FAILURE OF PURCHASER TO OBTAIN A LOAN COMMITMENT WITHIN SAID SIXTY (60) DAY PERIOD. THIS PROVISION ALLOWS SPONSOR TO CANCEL THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT ONLY IF PURCHASER FAILS TO OBTAIN A LOAN COMMITMENT FROM A LENDER CHOSEN BY PURCHASER WITHIN SAID SIXTY (60) DAY PERIOD. IF SPONSOR DOES NOT ELECT TO CANCEL, PURCHASER SHALL NOT BE RELIEVED FROM THE FINANCING RISKS SET FORTH IN PARAGRAPH "1.2" ABOVE NOR EXCUSED FROM THE OBLIGATION TO PAY THE FULL PURCHASE PRICE OF THE UNIT ON THE DATE SCHEDULED BY SPONSOR FOR CLOSING TITLE, REGARDLESS OF PURCHASER'S ABILITY TO OBTAIN MORTGAGE FINANCING.

The type of mortgage products available from TBI for creditworthy Purchasers desiring to obtain financing from TBI are set forth below in the subsection entitled "TBI Mortgage Products".

1.4 True Cash Sale Endorsement. If Purchaser has no intention to seek financing from any lender, then Purchaser is required to sign the "True Cash Sale Endorsement," in the form attached to the Purchase Agreement, which excuses Purchaser from the obligation to complete and return the TBI Mortgage Application. By signing this True Cash Sale Endorsement, Purchaser will lose the opportunity to seek financing from TBI and Purchaser's desire to purchase a Unit will be evaluated on Purchaser's present financial ability to complete the purchase without financing.

1.5 TBI Mortgage Application and True Cash Sale Endorsement Subject to Governmental Requirements. The TBI Mortgage Application and the True Cash Sale Endorsement are subject to compliance with the regulations, directives, opinions and requirements of governmental authorities having jurisdiction (collectively, "Governmental Requirements"). The Plan will be amended to disclose any changes to such instruments due to changes to, or the promulgation of new, Governmental Requirements and any appeals or court action by TBI in which preliminary relief is granted with respect thereto. Further, TBI and Sponsor will adhere to any new Governmental Requirements that are issued which prohibit TBI or Sponsor from requiring a Purchaser to make an application to TBI when the Purchaser is applying to another lender for a mortgage and the Plan will be amended immediately to disclose any such new Governmental Requirements.

1.6 TBI Loan Fees. If Purchaser is offered and accepts TBI financing, Purchaser shall be obligated to pay the following fees at closing of the loan (amounts indicated reflect current fees, which are subject to change at any time, without prior notice or amendment to the Plan):

Underwriting Fee:	$795
Appraisal Fee:	$450
TBI Attorney's Fee:	$675 (estimated and to be based on actual attorney's fee)
Final Inspection Fee:	$125 (if required by appraiser)

Identity of TBI Mortgage Company

TBI is a mortgage lender and mortgage banker which is licensed by the State of New York. TBI is wholly owned by Toll Holdings, Inc., which is wholly owned by Toll Brothers, Inc. (hereafter "Toll Brothers").

Sponsor will not share in any compensation realized by TBI in extending financing to Purchasers under the Plan or in the assignment of its mortgage loans to other institutional lenders. The compensation realized by TBI will be reported in the consolidated financial statements of Toll Brothers.

TBI Mortgage Products

TBI provides mortgage rates and terms on a variety of mortgage products, including both fixed rate and adjustable rate mortgages, similar to those mortgage products then being offered from time to time by banks and other institutional lenders to creditworthy purchasers of condominium units in the locale of the Property. These include, at the date hereof, fixed rate terms ranging from ten (10) years to thirty (30) years, as well as adjustable rate terms ranging from one (1) year adjustable rates to ten (10) year adjustable rates. Rates typically adjust once annually, although the terms and conditions of each loan program may vary. Rates and loan programs change daily. There are no prepayment penalties attached to any TBI mortgage loan. Mortgage loans are with recourse, which means that the Purchaser will be personally liable for the loan amount and the monthly loan payment. The availability of mortgage products offered by TBI is subject to change and determined by then current market conditions. Sponsor does not represent, assure or guaranty the availability or continuation of any particular mortgage product offered by TBI during any specified period of time or the eligibility of a Purchaser for a TBI mortgage loan. For more information, please contact your licensed TBI mortgage representative or visit www.tbimortgage.com.

TBI's practice is to assign its mortgages within sixty (60) days after the loan closing (or, in limited cases, a longer period) to institutions such as, but not limited to, Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac, as well as other institutional lenders. However, the sale of any TBI mortgage product to any institution does not affect any of the terms of such mortgage.

TBI will realize compensation from the Purchaser-borrower from the underwriting fee contained above in paragraph "1.6" (the other TBI loan fees set forth therein are based on actual costs of TBI) and in connection with the assignment of the mortgage loan.

Credit Check

All Purchasers must provide the Selling Agent with necessary authorization for the Selling Agent to conduct a credit check of the Purchaser.

The Purchase Agreement and Plan do not contain, and will not be modified to contain, any provision waiving the Purchaser's rights or abrogating the Sponsor's obligations under the Offering Plan or under Article 23-A of the General Business Law, other than the ability of Purchaser to waive his right to thirty (30) days prior written notice to the closing of title to the Unit.

Commercial Unit

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that 351 Broadway Retail Partners LLC ("351") exercises its option to purchase the Commercial Unit, the Purchase Agreement for the Commercial Unit will be executed pursuant to negotiations between Sponsor and 351 and the terms thereof will vary from the terms of the form Purchase Agreement for a Residential Unit. However, Purchase Agreement for the Commercial Unit will contain the escrow provisions and the other essential terms required by the Department of Law.

ASSIGNMENT OF PURCHASE AGREEMENTS

No assignment of a Purchase Agreement of a Purchaser shall be permitted without Sponsor's prior written consent, which may be withheld or delayed for any reason or no reason.

Any purported assignment by a Purchaser in violation of the Purchase Agreement will be voidable at the option of Sponsor. Sponsor's refusal to consent to an assignment will not entitle a Purchaser to cancel the Purchase Agreement or give rise to any claim for damages against Sponsor. Under no circumstances will Sponsor consent to an assignment of the Purchase Agreement in which the Purchaser will receive consideration over and above the purchase price payable to Sponsor. If Sponsor, in its sole discretion consents to a Purchaser's request for an assignment of the Purchase Agreement, the assignee of the Purchase Agreement shall be required to close title to the Unit on the originally scheduled Closing Date set forth in the Purchase Agreement. If Sponsor, in its sole discretion, consents to a Purchaser's request for an assignment of the Purchase Agreement, then the Purchaser shall be required to pay Sponsor's attorneys a fee of $500.00, in advance, for preparation of an assignment agreement and any necessary revisions to the other Closing documents.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF PLAN

All Purchase Agreements signed by Sponsor shall be contingent upon Sponsor's declaring the Offering Plan effective pursuant to the requirements and terms of the Plan. These requirements, stated below, must be satisfied within one year of the date the Plan is accepted for filing unless the Plan is amended so as to extend this period. However, any amendment to the Plan is hereby deemed to extend this time period to the same extent that the Plan is extended by such amendment. The closing of title to any Unit may not occur until after the Plan has been declared effective and an amendment has been filed substantiating same, and the Condominium Declaration and By-Laws have been duly recorded.

Pursuant to the regulations promulgated by the Department of Law:

1. This Plan may not be declared effective until Purchase Agreements have been executed and delivered by bona fide Purchaser(s), including investors, for at least fifteen percent (15%) of the Residential Units (i.e. 17 Residential Units).

2. After the conditions in the preceding Paragraph 1 have been met, Sponsor may, at its option, declare this Plan effective.

3. When Purchase Agreements have been executed and delivered to bona fide Purchasers for the sale of at least eighty percent (80%) of the Residential Units (i.e. 89 Residential Units), Sponsor must declare this Plan effective.

The Plan will not be declared effective based on Purchase Agreements (i) signed by Purchasers who have been granted a right of rescission that has not yet expired or been waived; (ii) if the Purchaser has had no fewer than three (3) business days to review the Offering Plan and all amendments prior to executing a Purchase Agreement; or (iii) with any Purchaser who is the Sponsor, the selling agent, or the Managing Agent or is a principal of the Sponsor, the selling agent, or the Managing Agent or is related to the Sponsor, the selling agent or the Managing Agent or to any principal of the Sponsor or selling agent or the Managing Agent by blood, marriage or adoption. However, a Purchaser other than Sponsor or a principal of the Sponsor may be included if the Sponsor has submitted proof satisfactory to the Department of Law establishing the Purchaser is bona fide.

The Plan may be abandoned at any time before the amendment substantiating effectiveness is filed and before all of the Units offered hereunder have been purchased. The Plan, if abandoned, shall be abandoned by amendment, together with form RS-3, filed with the Department of Law in appropriate form. Such amendment shall explain the basis for abandonment and must state how any funds received pursuant to the Plan will be distributed. All monies paid by Purchasers pursuant to Agreements shall be refunded to them in full, with interest, if any, within five (5) days after an amendment abandoning the Plan has been accepted for filing. After the Plan is declared effective but prior to the First Unit Closing, Sponsor may not abandon the Plan for any reason other than (i) a defect in title which cannot be cured without litigation or cannot be cured for less than one-half of one percent of the total amount of the offering, or (ii) substantial damage or destruction of the Building by fire or other casualty which cannot be cured for less than one-half of one percent of the total amount of the offering, or (iii) the taking of any material portion of the Property by condemnation or eminent domain. Notwithstanding the foregoing, there will be no obligation on the part of the Sponsor to incur expense or engage in litigation to cure title defects. As of the Filing Date, one-half of one percent of the total offering is $1,614,120.50. In the event that the offering prices in this Plan are amended, the sentence immediate preceding this one shall be deemed to be amended to be one-half of one percent of the then current total offering price.

The Plan will be declared effective by the mailing or personal delivery of written notice to all Purchasers. Within three (3) business days after such notice is given, an amendment to the Plan will be submitted by Sponsor stating that the Plan has been declared effective. If requested, Sponsor will submit to the Department of Law copies of all Agreements, together with any amendments or modifications to such Agreements, within five (5) business days after the request is received.

In the event that all Purchase Agreements are either rescinded or terminated prior to the First Unit Closing, Sponsor shall re-declare this Plan effective irrespective of whether the Declaration of Condominium has been recorded.

The First Unit Closing shall not occur until either a temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy covering the Unit to be conveyed has been issued for the Building by the New York City Department of Buildings and shall not be sooner than the date that an amendment declaring the Plan effective has been accepted for filing. Please see the Sections in Part I of this Plan entitled "Description of Property and Improvements" and "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" for further information.

Closings of title shall take place concurrently with or after the following events have occurred:

(a) The issuance of a temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy which covers the Unit being closed or the Building.

(b) The recordation in the New York County Office of the Register of the City of New York of the Declaration, the By-Laws and the filing in said Register's Office of Floor Plans of the Building showing the layout, location and approximate dimensions of the Units and the Unit designations, certified by the Tax Map Unit of the City of New York as conforming to the official tax lot number for each such Unit and including an Architect's statement as required by Section 339-p of Article 9-B of the Real Property Law of the State of New York certifying that the Floor Plans fully and fairly depict the layout, location, Unit designations and approximate dimensions of the particular Unit or Units as built;

(c) The serving by personal delivery or ordinary mail to the Purchaser written notice of the Closing Date not less than thirty (30) days prior to Closing of title, unless Purchaser elects to waive the thirty (30) day requirement; and the affording to Purchaser of an opportunity to inspect the Unit in the presence of a representative of Sponsor; and

(d) The amending of the Offering Plan by Sponsor with an amendment substantiating that the Plan has been declared effective and confirming that the Units to be closed have been constructed in accordance with the applicable plans and specifications and that Sponsor has satisfied, or will satisfy prior to Closing of title, all of the requirements of this Section titled "Terms of Sale".

The risk of loss from fire or other casualty with respect to the Unit shall remain with the Sponsor until the Closing of title for the Unit. The Sponsor, at its sole discretion, reserves the right to either (i) repair or restore such Unit, whereupon Purchaser shall be obligated to close without an abatement in the purchase price and without any claim against Sponsor by reason of any damage to the Unit or the Building resulting from such fire or casualty, or (ii) not repair or restore and grant Purchaser the right to rescind the Purchase Agreement; if Purchaser does not exercise such right of rescission by written notice to Sponsor, within ten (10) days after Sponsor grants such right to Purchaser by written notice to Purchaser, then Purchaser shall be deemed to have irrevocably waived such right to rescind, and shall be obligated to close title to the Unit without any abatement of the purchase price and without any other claim against Sponsor by reason of any damage to the Unit or the Building by fire or other casualty. Notwithstanding the above, in the event that Purchaser, or one claiming by or through Purchaser, enters into possession of the Unit prior to the Closing of title, then Purchaser shall bear the risk of loss or other casualty with respect to the Unit for damages not covered by Sponsor's insurance. Additionally, Purchaser shall be responsible for damage to, or loss or other condition in, the Unit and Sponsor shall not be obligated to repair any damages to the Unit or its appliances, fixtures and equipment in excess of what is covered by its insurance policy.

All personal property located within the Unit that is owned by the Sponsor and which is described in this Plan or in the Purchase Agreement is included in the conveyance to the Purchaser, unless specifically indicated otherwise. All personal property affixed to or located within the Common Elements that is owned by the Sponsor and is used in connection with the operation of the Common Elements is included in the property transferred to the Condominium by the Declaration.

UNIT CLOSING COSTS AND ADJUSTMENTS

General

The estimated Closing costs, expenses and adjustments to be borne by each Purchaser of a Unit will be as set forth below. Such costs are only estimates and are subject to change:

(a) Payment to Fidelity National Title Insurance Company, 485 Lexington Avenue 18th Floor, New York, New York 10017, ("Fidelity") or any other title company that Purchaser selects, of the cost of fee title insurance, if Purchaser elects to obtain title insurance. Fee title insurance rates, when title insurance is underwritten by Fidelity, First American Title Insurance Company, or Stewart Title, as of the Filing Date of this Plan, are as follows:

A base rate of $ 402.00 for the first $35,000.00 in coverage; plus $6.67 per additional thousand dollars of coverage from $35,001.00 up to $50,000.00; plus $5.43 per thousand dollars of coverage in excess of $50,000.00 up to $100,000.00; plus $4.36 per thousand dollars of coverage in excess of $100,000.00 up to $500,000.00; plus $3.98 per thousand dollars of coverage in excess of $500,000.00 up to $1,000,000.00; plus $3.66 per thousand dollars of coverage in excess of $1,000,000.00 to $5,000,000.00; plus $3.25 per thousand dollars of coverage in excess of $5,000,000.00 to $10,000,000.00, plus $3.07 per thousand dollars of coverage in excess of $10,000,000.00 to $15,000,000.00; plus $2.76 per thousand dollars of coverage in excess of $15,000,000.00. These rates do not include charges for endorsements that purchasers may request. Such endorsements range in cost from $25.00 per endorsement to 20% of the amount of the fee insurance issued.

PURCHASERS MAY PURCHASE TITLE INSURANCE THROUGH ANY TITLE INSURANCE COMPANY AND ARE NOT REQUIRED TO PURCHASE TITLE INSURANCE THROUGH FIDELITY.

(b) Recording fee for recording the deed and power of attorney of approximately $330.00.

(c) If a purchase money mortgage is obtained from a lending institution, the Purchaser may expect to incur the following costs:

(i) Legal fees of the lending institution's attorney;

(ii) Mortgage title insurance policy costs for a mortgage title insurance policy naming the lending institution as the insured. Mortgage title insurance rates will cost a base rate of $344.00 for the first $35,000.00 in coverage; plus $5.55 per additional thousand dollars of coverage from $35,001.00 up to $50,000.00; plus $4.54 per thousand dollars of coverage in excess of $50,000.00 up to $100,000.00; plus $3.64 per thousand dollars of coverage in excess of $100,000.00 up to $500,000.00; plus $3.31 per thousand dollars of coverage in excess of $500,000.00 up to $1,000,000.00 plus $3.05 per thousand dollars of coverage in excess of $1,000,000.00 to $5,000,000.00, $2.71 per thousand dollars of coverage in excess of $5,000.000.00 to $10,000,000.00, $2.55 per thousand dollars of coverage in excess of $10,000,000.00 to $15,000,000.00, $2.31 per thousand dollars of coverage in excess of $15,000,000.00. Mortgage title insurance, when purchased from the Title Company simultaneously with fee title insurance, will be discounted by a rate of 70%. Purchasers who chose not to purchase fee title insurance from the Title Company will receive a 30% discount on a mortgage title insurance policy;

Lending institutions may require certain endorsements to their policies. Such endorsements range in cost from $25.00 per endorsement to 20% of the full mortgage insurance premium.

(iii) A mortgage recording tax of 2.05% of the amount of the mortgage actually executed by Purchaser for mortgages in the amount of less than $500,000.00. The mortgage recording tax for mortgages in the amount of $500,000.00 or more is 2.175% after the $30.00 deduction on the first ten thousand dollars of mortgage amount. Lenders are required to pay one quarter of one percent of the 2.05% tax or 2.175% tax, as the case may be, thereby reducing Purchaser's cost to 1.80% less $30.00 or 1.925% less $30.00, as the case may be;

(iv) Recording fee for recording of the mortgage, approximately $350.00; and

(v) Commitment fee or origination fee, appraisal fee, application fee, credit fee, and/or other fees and charges if any, charged by the lending institution.

(d) New York City Real Property Transfer Tax, currently equal to one percent (1%) of the purchase price with respect to single Units which are sold for $500,000.00 or less, and 1.425% of the purchase price where the consideration is greater than $500,000.00. Although it is often customary in real estate transactions involving sales of multi-family buildings or single family homes for the seller to pay these transfer taxes and the transfer taxes in (e) immediately below, it is now customary in condominium development projects in the New York Metropolitan area, for the Purchaser to pay such transfer taxes. Under this Offering Plan and the Purchase Agreement, Purchasers are required to pay these taxes as a Closing cost. For purposes of paying this tax with respect to this Project, consideration also includes the amount of New York City Real Property Transfer Tax and New York State Transfer Taxes (deed stamps) to be paid for the Unit, so that the effective tax rate is 1.014% of the purchase price where the purchase price is $500,000.00 or less and 1.451% where the purchase price is $500,000.00 or more.

The New York City Department of Finance has taken the position that when a Purchaser purchases two or more Units, the New York City Transfer Tax will be

1.425% where the consideration is $500,000.00 or less and 2.625% where the consideration is greater than $500,000.00.

(e) New York State Transfer Taxes (deed stamps), which are currently at the rate of $2.00 per each $500.00 of consideration or part hereof. Pursuant to the terms of this Plan, this tax is an obligation of the Purchaser. For purposes of paying this tax with respect to this Project, consideration also includes the amount of New York City Real Property Transfer Tax and New York State Transfer Taxes (deed stamps) to be paid for the Residential Unit, so that the effective rate of State Transfer Tax is $2.03 per $500.00 of consideration, where the purchase price is less than $500,000.00 and $2.038 per $500.00 where the purchase price is $500,000.00 or more.

(f) Under Section 1402-a of the Tax Law of the State of New York, a "Mansion Tax" of one percent (1%) of consideration (or part thereof attributable to the real property being conveyed) is payable by the grantee (i.e., Purchaser) on each conveyance of residential real property, including condominium units, where the consideration for the entire conveyance is $1,000,000.00 or more. For purposes of paying this tax, consideration also includes the amount of New York City Real Property Transfer Tax and New York State Transfer Taxes (deed stamps) to be paid for the Residential Unit by Purchaser. Residential real property includes a 1-3 family house, an individual condominium unit and a cooperative unit that is or may be used, in whole or in part, as a personal residence.

(g) The legal fees of Sponsor's attorneys in the amount of $2,850.00 will be payable by Purchaser to Seiden & Schein, P.C. An additional fee of $500.00 per Closing shall be due and payable to Sponsor's attorneys for any Unit Closing which occurs outside the office of Seiden & Schein, P.C. Further, an additional fee of $500.00 shall be payable by Purchaser to Sponsor's attorneys for the work involved for each assignment and/or cancellation of a Purchase Agreement or contract. Assignments are permitted only pursuant to the terms of the Offering Plan. An additional fee of $500.00 shall be due and payable to Sponsor's attorneys for any previously scheduled Unit Closing which is adjourned by Purchaser less than five (5) business days before such Unit Closing is scheduled to occur. A further additional fee of $350.00 shall be payable by Purchaser to Sponsor's attorneys for reviewing and clearing title prior to closing.

(h) At the time of the closing of title to each Unit, the Purchaser of such Unit shall pay into the Working Capital Fund of the Condominium an amount equal to two (2) month's Common Charges then in effect for the Unit being purchased.

(i) Real estate taxes from the midnight preceding the date of the Closing through the end of the tax payment period within which the Closing Date occurs, which shall be either a quarter of a year or one half of a year, provided, however, that Sponsor shall be reimbursed by Purchaser for the cost of any real estate taxes which Sponsor would not otherwise have had to pay but for an unauthorized delay in closing of title by Purchaser.

In addition to the above costs, each Purchaser of a Unit will be responsible for the fees and expenses of his own attorney, if any. As a result of the variable factors with respect to each Unit, such as purchase price, terms of a possible mortgage commitment and mortgage application and appraisal costs, fees of Purchaser's attorney and fees of the attorney representing Purchaser's lending institution, Sponsor suggests that Purchasers review their closing costs with an attorney.

The Purchaser will be required to pay to the Condominium Board the Common Charges allocable to his Unit monthly in advance. Common Charges assessed during the month in which title to the Unit closes shall be adjusted with the Sponsor as of the midnight preceding the Closing Date, provided, however, that Sponsor shall be reimbursed by Purchaser for the cost of any Common Charges which Sponsor was obligated to pay to the Board of Managers as a result of any unauthorized delay in Closing of title by Purchaser. The amount of such Common Charges to be assessed against each Unit will be fixed by the Board of Managers. Common Charges to be initially assessed are expected to conform to those shown in Schedule A contained herein.

Water and sewer charges for the Building will be adjusted between the Sponsor and the Condominium as of the midnight preceding the First Unit Closing.

If the Units have not been separately assessed for real estate tax purposes on the date of the First Unit Closing, Sponsor will have previously paid the real estate taxes through the end of such tax payment period. For example, if the First Unit Closing occurs on July 2, 2019 Sponsor will have paid the real estate taxes for the Property through December 31, 2019. At Unit Closings, individual Purchasers shall adjust real estate taxes with the Sponsor from 11:59 pm preceding the date of the Unit Closing through the end of the tax payment period within which the Closing Date occurs. However, Sponsor shall also be reimbursed by Purchaser for the cost of any real estate taxes which Sponsor would not otherwise have had to pay but for an unauthorized delay in Closing of title by Purchaser. If no separate apportionment of real estate taxes has occurred as of the Closing date, such adjustment shall be made on the basis of the percentage of Common Interest attributable to such Unit.

Sponsor shall also collect from each Purchaser, at each Unit Closing, the amount necessary, on the basis of allocations set forth in Schedule A contained herein, to cover the six (6) month tax period subsequent to the tax period in which the Unit Closing occurs. The Managing Agent, on behalf of the Board of Managers, shall hold such funds in a separate account for the purpose of paying the real estate taxes on the Property when they are actually due and payable. At the time that such real estate taxes are due and payable, Sponsor shall pay over to the Board of Managers, out of its own funds, Sponsor's proportionate share of the real estate taxes then due, pro rata, on the Unsold Units.

In the event the actual real estate taxes in the six (6) month tax period subsequent to the Unit Closing are greater than the amounts collected at Closing, each Unit Owner shall pay his pro rata share of the additional real estate taxes promptly upon demand. If any Unit Owner fails to pay such Unit Owner's pro rata share of real estate taxes upon demand, the Board of Managers shall have the right to place a lien on such Unit for the non-payment thereof, as if such charges were Common Charges. In the event the actual real estate taxes are less than collected at Closing, Sponsor will direct the Managing Agent to refund to each Unit Owner the pro rata share of such excess collections. This provision shall survive the Closing.

Until a separate assessment for each Unit has occurred, each Unit Owner shall, upon demand, on January 1st and July 1st of each year, pay over to the Board of Managers such Unit Owner's pro rata share of real estate taxes. Sponsor shall also pay over to the Board of Managers its pro rata share of the real estate taxes with respect to any Unsold Units.

Mortgage Tax Credit

Section 339-ee(2) of the New York Real Property Law provides as follows:

> "In the event the proceeds of a construction mortgage were applied to construction of a unit of a condominium submitted to the provisions of this article, or in the event that a unit submitted to the provisions of this act was subject to a blanket mortgage whose proceeds were applied exclusively to payment of the construction mortgage or to capital expenditures or expenses for the development or operation of the condominium, or to purchase land or buildings for the condominium provided that such purchase was no more than two years prior to the recording of the declaration of condominium, and a mortgage tax was duly paid on such construction or blanket mortgage in accordance with article eleven of the tax law, then, as each unit is first conveyed, there shall be allowed a credit against the mortgage taxes (except the special additional mortgage recording tax imposed by subdivision one-a of section two hundred fifty-three of the tax law) that would otherwise be payable on a purchase money mortgage, said credit to be in the amount resulting from the product of the purchaser's pro-rata percentage of interest in the common elements and the mortgage tax already paid on the construction or blanket mortgage. No credit shall be allowed under this subdivision (a) on account of the special additional mortgage recording tax imposed by subdivision one-a of section two hundred fifty-three of the tax law or (b) where the first condominium unit is sold more than two years after the construction or blanket mortgage was recorded."

If a mortgage tax credit becomes available, pursuant to the above Section of the New York Real Property Law, it is specifically understood that such credit shall inure to the benefit of the Sponsor and not to the Purchaser. Accordingly, at Closing, each Purchaser electing mortgage financing shall pay an amount equal to the full amount (but not in excess thereof) of the mortgage recording tax chargeable on the entire amount being financed. Sponsor, at Closing will be paid by such Purchaser to the extent of any mortgage tax credit allowed.

Partial Assignments of Sponsor's Construction Loan Mortgage

In the event that Sponsor is ineligible for a Mortgage Tax Credit, in whole or in part, Sponsor's intention is for its mortgage lender to assign a portion of its mortgage(s) ("Mortgage") to each Purchaser's lender, with the lender's cooperation, when and if a Purchaser obtains financing. Each Purchaser's loan would, therefore, consist of a portion of the assigned Mortgage, for mortgage tax purposes.

Mortgage assignments (as opposed to new mortgages) are exempt from mortgage recording tax. Since a portion of the Mortgage would be assigned to each Purchaser's lender as each Unit is conveyed from Sponsor to Purchaser, the Purchaser would be exempt from paying mortgage recording tax to the City and State of New York to the extent that his mortgage consists of the assigned Mortgage. At the Closing, Sponsor would receive a payment from Purchaser equal to (but not in excess thereof) the mortgage tax that would otherwise be payable to the City and State of New York on the recording of Purchaser's mortgage.

The partial mortgage assignment would have no adverse impact on the purchase price of the Unit or on Purchaser's mortgage payment. Pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement, a form of which is located in Part II of this Offering Plan, all Purchasers will be required to advise their lender of this provision in the Offering Plan and in the Purchase Agreement, and make a good faith effort to cooperate with Sponsor and Sponsor's lender in connection with the partial assignment of its Mortgage.

The entire contents of the Sections entitled "Mortgage Tax Credit," "Partial Assignments of Sponsor's Construction Loan Mortgage," as well as those in the immediately preceding section above entitled "General," as same may be revised or amended, shall be deemed to be incorporated into the Purchase Agreement for each Unit.

11. real estate tax escrow (and/or reimbursement of real estate taxes paid by Sponsor);

12. two (2) month's Common Charges as a contribution to the Condominium's Working Capital Fund.

Other fees which cannot be estimated because they pertain to events outside of Sponsor's control and/or statutory requirement include, but are not limited to, Purchaser's attorney's fee, lender's attorney's fee, possible commitment fee or loan origination fee, appraisal fee, application fee, credit check fee, and other fees and expenses payable to Purchaser's lender, and monthly Common Charges prospectively from the Closing Date.

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF SPONSOR

Sponsor has the financial resources to meet its obligations to the Condominium. However, no bond or other security has been furnished to secure the performance of such obligations.

As of the Filing Date, Sponsor has not procured financing for the construction of the Building. However, Sponsor reserves the right to obtain construction mortgage financing, provided that the mortgage lien is subordinated to the Declaration of Condominium and the mortgage lien is released as to each Unit at each Closing.

The offering by Sponsor under the Plan is contingent upon the Plan being declared effective and the First Unit Closing shall not occur until the Plan has been declared effective. The Plan may be withdrawn or abandoned by Sponsor for any reason whatsoever at any time prior to its being declared effective.

Sponsor makes the representations set forth below with respect to certain obligations under this Plan and all Purchasers upon execution of their respective Purchase Agreements will be deemed to have accepted, approved and agreed to abide and be bound by the following:

1. Prior to the First Unit Closing, Sponsor will obtain a permanent or temporary Certificate of Occupancy for the Building, or, alternatively, will obtain a temporary Certificate of Occupancy for the Unit that is being closed. If the First Unit Closing occurs prior to the issuance of a permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building, Sponsor shall maintain in escrow an amount reasonably necessary to complete the work required to obtain a permanent Certificate of Occupancy, as determined and certified by Sponsor's architect. A copy of such certification shall be attached to the post-closing amendment that is filed with the Department of Law, and to the extent that such amount changes, to future post-closing amendments, other than a price change amendment.

   The Sponsor and its principal will be responsible for obtaining a Temporary Certificate of Occupancy prior to the First Unit Closing and will seek to obtain a Final Certificate of Occupancy ("FCO") within two (2) years of the issuance of first Temporary Certificate of Occupancy for the Building.

2. Based upon its current construction schedule, Sponsor presently contemplates that, unless delayed by force majeure, the construction of the Building will be sufficiently completed to permit closings of Residential Units to begin on or about July 1, 2019. Purchasers are advised that: (i) the Residential Units will be completed at different times over a period that may likely extend significantly beyond such date, and (ii) Residential Units on higher floors generally close title later than Residential Units on lower floors. If the First Unit Closing does not occur within 12 months after July 1, 2019, as such date may be extended from time to time by amendment to the Plan, Sponsor will offer all Purchasers (provided such Purchasers are not in default) a right for 15 days, to rescind their Purchase Agreement and receive a refund of the Down Payment together with any interest earned thereon, except for funds expended by, or reimbursed to, Sponsor for upgrades or extras. In the event the actual or anticipated commencement date of the first year of Condominium operation is to be delayed by 6 months or more, Sponsor will amend the Plan to include a revised budget with updated projections. Purchasers should also note that even if the First Unit Closing occurs on or before June 30, 2020, or such other date projected as the date of commencement of Condominium operation at the time the Purchase Agreement was entered into, the closing of subsequent Units may be substantially delayed beyond such dates if a Temporary Certificate of Occupancy has not been issued for such Units or for the floor on which such Units are located. In such case, provided that Sponsor is diligently pursing completion of construction and the issuance of a Certificate of Occupancy, and is otherwise in compliance with its obligations under the Plan, Purchaser will not be entitled to a right of rescission or to make claims against Sponsor for damages or losses as a result of such delays and will not be excused from paying the full Purchase Price for the Unit.

3. Sponsor is obligated to bear all costs and expenses incurred in connection with completing construction of the Building substantially in accordance with the Plans and Specifications. During the course of construction, Sponsor reserves the right, in its sole and absolute discretion, without prior notice to Purchasers or amendment to the Plan to (i) amend from time to time the Plans and Specifications (including changes in layouts and designs in accordance with the Section of the Plan entitled "Changes in Prices and Units"); and/or (ii) substitute materials, appliances, equipment and fixtures that are of substantially equal or better quality in place of those described in the Plan and the Plans and Specifications.

4. Notwithstanding any disclosure to the contrary in this Plan, Sponsor reserves the right to cause the Condominium Board not to bill Common Charges to any Unit Owner for so long as Sponsor pays the actual Condominium expenses, in lieu of Common Charges, from the date of the First Unit Closing up until such time as title to fifty percent (50%) of the Residential Units have been conveyed by Sponsor to third-party Purchasers. In the event that Sponsor makes such election, Common Charges will not be assessed by the Board of Managers to any Unit Owners. At such time that Sponsor causes the Board of Managers to assess Common Charges, each Unit Owner, including Sponsor, shall pay Common Charges and there will not be a Special Assessment for any item in the approved budget for the Condominium.

   In the event that Sponsor delays the collection of Common Charges, during such delay Sponsor will timely pay all expenses of the Condominium, including but not limited to, insurance premiums and Sponsor's pro rata share of the contingency fund contribution. Sponsor shall remain obligated, during such delay, to update the budget for the Condominium as provided for in the By-Laws. In the event Sponsor elects to delay the collection of Common Charges, it will disclose such fact in the Closing notice to Purchasers and will further disclose such fact in the post-Closing amendment to the Offering Plan. Such amendment will also disclose the anticipated period of delay. Sponsor will notify all Unit Owners in writing of the expiration of the delay period at least thirty (30) days prior to the commencement of collection of Common Charges and will disclose such fact in the following amendment to the Offering Plan.

Sponsor will endeavor to substantially complete all Common Elements by the First Unit Closing, Sponsor makes no guarantee that all Common Elements will, in fact, be substantially complete by the First Unit Closing. However, (i) Sponsor anticipates that all Common Elements and all amenities such as, but not limited to, the fitness room and the swimming pool, will be substantially complete within one (1) year after the First Unit Closing and (ii) even if some or all Common Elements and amenities are not available as of the date of the First Unit Closing, the Board of Managers will have the right to collect Common Charges at the level disclosed in this Plan.

Irrespective of whether Sponsor pays actual Condominium expenses or Common Charges, Sponsor shall pay the real estate taxes for the Unsold Units. Sponsor represents that it has the financial resources to meet its obligations with respect to Unsold Units. Sponsor's financial obligations to the Condominium will be funded from sales proceeds, the rental or leasing of Unsold Units and/or its own funds. No bond or other security will be posted by Sponsor with respect to this obligation.

5. As a condition of closing title to any Unit any liens affecting such Unit shall be removed or otherwise remedied to the extent Sponsor is required to do so under the Purchase Agreement.

6. Within six (6) months after the First Unit Closing, Sponsor will assign to the Condominium Board, and the Condominium Board will, on behalf of all Unit Owners, assume, all assignable service and maintenance contracts and agreements relating to the Property and apportion charges thereunder, if any. The Condominium will indemnify Sponsor against all claims and liability thereunder that relate to matters and events occurring on or after the day upon which the First Unit Closing occurs. Warranties and undertakings received by Sponsor which relate to appliances, equipment or fixtures located in any Unit shall be assigned to the Purchaser on the Closing Date, including the warranties and undertakings received by Sponsor which relate to appliances, equipment, or fixtures located in the Units and the Common Elements. Sponsor makes no representation as to which, if any, of the warranties and other undertakings will continue to remain in force upon the Closing of any particular Unit. Sponsor shall have no liability or responsibility in the event a warrantor is unable, unwilling or for any reason, fails to perform under its warranty.

7. The risk of loss to any Unsold Unit by fire or other casualty until the Closing for such Unit is assumed by Sponsor (unless and until Purchaser takes possession of the Unit, at which time such risk shall be shall be assumed by Purchaser to the extent that such casualty is not covered by Sponsor's insurance), but without any obligation or liability by Sponsor to repair or restore any Unsold Unit. In the event of damage or destruction of an Unsold Unit due to fire or other casualty prior to the Closing, but subsequent to the signing of a Purchase Agreement, provided Sponsor elects (which election shall be in its sole discretion) to repair or restore the Unsold Unit, the Purchase Agreement shall continue in full force and effect, and, thereafter, Purchaser shall not have the right to reject title or receive a credit against, or abatement in, the Purchase Price for such Unit. In such event, Sponsor shall be entitled to a reasonable period of time within which to complete the repair or restoration, and any proceeds received from insurance or in satisfaction of any claim or action in connection with such loss shall, subject to the rights of the Condominium Board and other Unit Owners, belong entirely to Sponsor. In the event of damage or destruction to any Unsold Unit by fire or other casualty prior to the Closing, but subsequent to the signing of a Purchase Agreement, Sponsor notifies Purchaser that it does not elect (which election shall be in its sole discretion) to repair or restore the Unit or if the Unit Owners do not resolve to make such repair or restoration pursuant to the By-Laws, the Purchase Agreement shall be deemed cancelled and of no further force or effect and Sponsor shall return the Down Payment, together with any interest earned thereon, to Purchaser, whereupon Sponsor and Purchaser shall be released and discharged from all obligations and liability under the Purchase Agreement and the Plan.

8. Sponsor shall procure fire and casualty insurance coverage on behalf of the Condominium, at the Condominium's expense, to be effective at the First Unit Closing, in the amount set forth in to Schedule B in Part I of this Plan, which Schedule sets forth the projected budget for the first year of Condominium operation.

9. In the event of the transfer of ten (10) or more Unsold Units in the Condominium to the same purchaser, such purchaser will assume the status and the obligations of the Sponsor (as opposed to a Purchaser, as that term is used in this Plan) for those Unsold Units under the Offering Plan.

10. Sponsor shall be obligated to defend the Board of Managers against any suits or proceedings brought by third parties employed by Sponsor or with whom Sponsor contracted that arise out of Sponsor's obligations set forth in the Plan, and Sponsor shall be obligated to indemnify the Condominium Board and Unit Owners against any such action or proceeding.

11. Sponsor shall deliver a set of "as-built" plans to the Board of Managers within 180 days after the First Unit Closing.

12. Sponsor shall build and complete the Building in accordance with the Building plans and specifications identified in the Plan. However, Sponsor reserves the right to substitute equipment, appliances, or materials of equal or greater quality or design, and Sponsor reserves the right to amend the Plan to disclose modified Unit layouts and Unit combinations. No change will be made by Sponsor in the size, location or number of Units, their respective percentages of Common Interest, or in the size or quality of Common Elements except by amendments to the Offering Plan and the Declaration. Unless the affected Purchaser provides a written consent, no material change will be made by Sponsor in the size, layout or percentage of Common Interest of a Unit if a Purchase Agreement has been fully executed and delivered by the Sponsor to Purchaser for that Unit and such Purchaser is not in default..

13. Sponsor shall keep copies of the Plan, Exhibits and documents referred to in the Plan on file at Sponsor's offices for six (6) years from the date the Declaration is recorded.

14. In accordance with Section 339-p of the Real Property Law, a registered architect or licensed professional engineer shall certify within reasonable tolerances that the floor plans filed with the recording of the Declaration, and all amendments thereto, if any, are a substantially accurate copy of portions of the plans (as may be amended) of the Building as filed with and approved by the municipal or other governmental subdivision having jurisdiction over the issuance of permits for the construction of buildings.

15. During the time the principal of the Sponsor controls the Board of Managers, it is within its sole power to enforce the obligations of the Sponsor pursuant to the Plan and pertaining to the Common Elements. Therefore, Sponsor agrees that during such period it will, in its capacity as the controlling member of the Board of Managers, cause the Board of Managers to enforce such obligations when required to do so by a resolution duly passed by a majority of the Unit Owners, excluding Sponsor, at a special meeting of the Unit Owners called for such purpose.

16. Sponsor shall hold a majority of seats on the Board of Managers until the later to occur of (i) five (5) years from the date of the First Unit Closing or (ii) the date upon which Sponsor shall own Unsold Residential Units having a percent interest in the Residential Section in the aggregate of ten (10%) percent or less.

17. Sponsor shall construct the Units in accordance with the terms of the Plan. However, the existence of any incomplete or defective items of construction at Closing which do not materially affect the use and operation of the Unit shall not entitle Purchaser to any abatement of the purchase price for Purchaser's Unit or be grounds for Purchaser to (i) adjourn the Closing, or

(ii) to refuse to pay the balance of the Purchase Price of such Purchaser's Unit and close title to Purchaser's Unit.

18. The Housing Merchant Implied Warranty (General Business Law Article 36-B) does not apply to this offering because that statute applies only to new single family homes or new for-sale units in a multi-unit residential structure which is five (5) stories or less in which title is transferred to purchasers under a cooperative or condominium regime. Sponsor makes no other warranties, express or implied, in connection with this offering of the Units and all such warranties are excluded. Sponsor has the obligation, nevertheless, to construct the Building in accordance with applicable Law, codes and regulations.

Each of the obligations of the Sponsor contained in this section shall be enforceable by the Board of Managers on behalf of the Unit Owners as to Common Elements. The representations contained in paragraphs 1 through 18 of this Section shall survive delivery of the deed, as stated. All representations under the Plan, all obligations pursuant to the GBL, and such additional obligations under the Plan which are to be performed subsequent to the closing of each Unit, will survive delivery of the deed. Sponsor makes no other representation or warranties except as provided herein. However, nothing herein shall be construed to limit any rights which Purchasers may otherwise have pursuant to Article 23-A of the General Business Law, Part 20 of the Regulations promulgated by the Attorney General, and this Offering Plan which are not validly waived by Purchasers or Unit Owners pursuant to the provisions of this Plan or the Purchase Agreement with the Purchaser.

Additionally, Sponsor shall have no obligation to repair or replace any defect resulting directly or indirectly from work done by any individual or entity retained by the Board or any Unit Owner(s).

THE ITEMS AND CONDITIONS DESCRIBED ABOVE IN ARE NOT DEFECTS AND MAY BE FOUND IN ANY NEWLY CONSTRUCTED BUILDING. ADDITIONALLY, EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH ABOVE, SPONSOR WILL HAVE NO OBLIGATION TO CORRECT OR REPAIR ANY DEFECTIVE OR OTHER CONDITIONS IN THE BUILDING (INCLUDING IN THE UNSOLD UNITS AND THE COMMON ELEMENTS) OR IN, OR WITH RESPECT TO, ITS INSTALLATIONS, APPARATUSES, EQUIPMENT, FIXTURES, FINISHES, MATERIALS, AND APPURTENANCES ASIDE FROM ANY SPONSOR WARRANTIES AND UNDERTAKINGS WITH RESPECT TO THE CONSTRUCTION AND COMPLETION OF THE BUILDING CONTAINED IN THIS SECTION, AND NO OTHER WARRANTIES OR UNDERTAKINGS SHALL BE IMPLIED.

THE SPONSOR MAKES NO WARRANTY ON THE COMMERICAL UNIT.

Sponsor's Rights of Access

(a) General

As a condition of sales of Units pursuant to this Plan, Sponsor reserves to itself, its successors, assigns, designees, invitees, contractors, agents, employees and tenants, any and all easements and rights of access, in and to Units, Common Elements and Limited Common Elements consistent with the purposes of the Plan and Sponsor's rights and obligations thereunder. If reasonable care under the circumstances is exercised to safeguard the Unit Owner's property, such entry shall not render Sponsor or its authorized agents liable for any damage to the Unit or to the personal property or fixtures contained therein.

(b) Examples of Specific Easements and Rights of Access Reserved by Sponsor

Without in any way limiting the generality of rights reserved in Paragraph (a) above, such rights reserved to Sponsor and its designee(s) specifically include the following:

1) The right to maintain any vacant and Unsold Unit(s) as general and sales and leasing office(s) and/or model Unit(s) and to maintain personnel at the Property, to post signs, and to conduct other activities connected with promotion, sales or leasing, such as inspection by and display of vacant or leased Units, as well as all Common Elements and Limited Common Elements, to prospective purchasers or lessees;

2) Right of access in and to Units, Common Elements and Limited Common Elements for purposes of repair, refurbishment, correction, alterations, finishing, servicing (including but not limited to garbage collection) and similar work, as well as the marketing of Units;

3) Right to show vacant or leased Units;

4) Right to obtain unlimited front door keys upon request; and

5) Utility and other easements for the benefit of Unit Owners, Common Elements and Limited Common Elements;

Sponsor's Right to Perform Alterations

Sponsor (and its successors, assigns and designees) shall have the right to alter any Unit, Common Element or Limited Common Element consistent with the terms of this Plan, including, but not limited to, the right to combine two or more Units.

Sponsor or its designee and the Commercial Unit Owner and their successors and assigns shall, to the extent permitted by Law, have an easement to erect, maintain, repair and replace, from time to time, one or more signs on the Property, subject to the By-Laws, for the purposes of advertising (i) the sale or lease of any Unsold Residential Unit, the sale or lease of all or any portion of the Commercial Unit and (ii) the operation of any business of a tenant or occupant of all or any portion of any Commercial Unit or of any Unsold Residential Units, as the case may be. In addition, Sponsor and the Commercial Unit Owner shall have an easement and the right to alter, replace, restore, renovate, remodel and reconstruct the facade of the Building from the ground floor level through and including the bottom of the third floor of the Building with the consent of the Commercial Board but without the consent of the Residential Board or the Condominium Board; provided that any such alteration, replacement, restoration, renovation, remodeling, and/or reconstruction of the façade of the Building by the Commercial Unit Owner while Sponsor or Sponsor's designee owns any Unsold Units shall require the prior written consent of Sponsor or Sponsor's designee.

Construction is a complicated process requiring the coordination of numerous tasks, contractors and suppliers and the balancing of complex mechanical and architectural systems. No assurance can be given with regard to the accuracy of any projected completion dates set forth herein. It is anticipated that during the first five (5) years of Condominium operation, construction workers and related personnel will be at the Building from time to time, completing construction of the Building, making adjustments and corrections and performing various tasks relating to the completion of construction.

During this period various building systems, including but not limited to water supply, air conditioning, heating, cooling, ventilating and elevators, may require substantial time after any Closing to complete and may need to be shut down temporarily. Various other adjustments to windows and elevators and other systems may require substantial time after the First Unit Closing to be completed. In addition, the presence of hoists or construction elevator shafts or similar temporary construction facilities, may delay the Closing of title to certain Residential Units or lines of Residential Units until such hoists, elevators or temporary facilities are no longer needed and are removed. A Purchaser who closes title to his or her Unit during the completion of construction of Common Elements or other Units acknowledges that construction noise, vibration, fumes, odors, dust, debris and other temporary interruption of services may affect Purchaser's enjoyment of the Unit during such period. With regard to the foregoing, in executing a Purchase Agreement, Purchaser acknowledges that Sponsor shall not be liable to Purchaser whatsoever or any third party in the event of non-completion of any item of construction on any projected date, or any interruption of services in the Building. Furthermore, Sponsor makes no representation or warranty (express or implied) that any noise, odors, fumes or vibrations, if any, emanating from mechanical equipment belonging to the Condominium will not disturb occupants of the Residential Units, and Sponsor shall have no liability whatsoever for any such disturbance to any Residential Unit Owner or occupant.

Sponsor's Right to Withhold Residential Units from Sale

All the Residential Units being offered are intended to be sold as Condominium Units in accordance with this Plan at the prices noted in Schedule A, subject to Sponsor's right to change offering prices, in accordance with this Plan. These prices have been established solely by the Sponsor and are not subject to review or approval by the Department of Law or any other governmental agency.

Sponsor intends, in good faith, to sell rather than rent Residential Units. However, Sponsor is retaining the unconditional right after consummation of the Plan, to rent eighty-five percent (85%) of the Residential Units in the Building that are being offered under this Plan. Unless and until this Plan is abandoned, Sponsor will endeavor in good faith to sell fifteen percent (15%) of the Residential Units, but makes no representation that it will execute Purchase Agreements to sell more than fifteen percent (15%) of the Residential Units and, therefore, owner-occupants may never gain effective control and management of the Condominium.

Sponsor's Right to Sell Units to Investors and Enter Into Use and Occupancy Agreements

In accordance with the terms of this Plan, Sponsor has the right to sell Units to Purchasers for investment or resale. Accordingly, it is possible that certain Unit Owners will not be residents of the Building. In accordance with the terms of this Plan, Sponsor has the right to sell Units to Purchasers for investment or resale. Accordingly, it is possible that certain Unit Owners will not be residents of the Building. Individuals leasing Units from Sponsor will not, except as expressly provided in their respective leases, have any special rights to purchase such Units. In addition, a Purchaser may be acquiring a Unit that has been previously occupied, but such Unit will be delivered at closing free and clear of all leases and tenancies except as may otherwise be agreed to in writing by the parties. Sponsor's right to rent or lease any Unsold Unit will not be subject to any right of first refusal in favor of the Condominium Board to lease such Unit from Sponsor on the same terms offered to the prospective tenant or occupant. Sponsor anticipates that the Interim Use and Occupancy Agreement will not be subject to governmental regulation.

Any Use and Occupancy Agreement for a Unit entered into with a Purchaser will provide, among other things, that an uncured default by the Purchaser under the Agreement with respect to the Unit which is the subject of the Use and Occupancy Agreement will constitute a default under the lease entitling Sponsor, at its sole discretion, to terminate such Use and Occupancy Agreement in accordance with applicable law. In addition, each Agreement may provide that an uncured default by the Purchaser under any Use and Occupancy Agreement with respect to the Unit which is the subject of the Agreement will constitute a default under the Agreement entitling Sponsor, at its sole discretion, to terminate such Agreement and to exercise any remedies therein provided.

Purchasers or any other persons entering into a Use and Occupancy Agreement for a Unit shall be required to pay the legal fees of Sponsor's counsel in connection therewith upon execution of the Use and Occupancy Agreement. All other charges or other fees due under a Use and Occupancy Agreement shall be adjusted as of the Closing of the Unit. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, Sponsor shall be under no obligation to enter into any Use and Occupancy Agreement.

Use of Unsold Residential Units

Sponsor reserves the right, without prior notice or amendment to the Plan, to use any Unsold Units as sales, rental offices and model units and in any other manner in compliance with Law. In the event Sponsor thereafter elects to sell any such Unsold Residential Unit, Sponsor may require Purchaser to purchase all or any of the furniture, furnishings, finishes, equipment or decorations (including wall coverings and carpeting) ("FFE") therein and pay, in addition to the Purchase Price for the Residential Unit, such amounts as Sponsor may determine.

Sales Center/Model Units

In no event shall the presence of any FFE in any model unit imply or represent that any Residential Unit will contain such FFE upon delivery of the Residential Unit to Purchaser. The presence of FFE in such Unsold Residential Unit, Sales Center or model unit and the location, size and quantity of such FFE therein are only illustrative and will not be installed by Sponsor in any Residential Unit. The layout, size and dimensions of the model rooms located in the sales center or model unit are only illustrative of the style and feel of the Residential Units in the Building and may not correspond to the exact layout, size or dimensions of any particular Residential Unit.

Sponsor-Installed Artwork

In the event that the Residential Board decides, at any time, to remove or replace any of the artwork that was installed by Sponsor in the Building lobby or in any other Common Elements (including, but not limited to, any sculptures), the Residential Board shall, prior to disposing of such artwork, offer such artwork back to Sponsor, in writing. If Sponsor desires for such artwork to be returned to it, such return shall be made expeditiously by the Residential Board at the sole cost and expense of the Residential Board and at no cost to Sponsor. If Sponsor does not desire for such artwork to be returned to it, as evidenced by Sponsor's written response to the Residential Board, or by a failure of Sponsor to respond to the Residential Board within thirty (30) days from the postmark date of such written offer, the Residential Board shall have the right to transfer such artwork to any other third party. Any artwork that is caused to be transported by the Residential Board to Sponsor shall be transported in accordance with generally accepted and commercially reasonable industry standards for transporting artwork of the size and value of the artwork being returned (including adequate insurance coverage, which shall be purchased at the Residential Board's sole cost and expense). The foregoing shall apply irrespective of whether Sponsor owns any Unsold Units at the time that the Residential Board determines to dispose of such artwork.

CONTROL BY SPONSOR

Title to all Units which have not been sold by the time of the First Unit Closing will remain with the Sponsor or its designee(s) until such Units shall thereafter be sold to bona fide Purchasers. Such sales do not require a right of first refusal to the Board of Managers. Until the first annual meeting of the Condominium, the Residential Board will initially consist of two (2) persons designated by Sponsor, and the Commercial Board will initially consist of one (1) person designated by Sponsor. Accordingly, until such first annual meeting, Sponsor will have absolute voting control of the Board of Managers and will thus have control of maintenance, facilities and services to be provided, as well as determining the Common Charges to be paid by Unit Owners.

Sponsor shall control the Board of Managers until the later of (i) the date upon which Sponsor shall own Unsold Residential Units having a percent interest in the Residential Section in the aggregate of ten (10%) percent or less or (ii) five (5) years from the date of the First Unit Closing (the "Sponsor Control Period"). At the expiration of the Sponsor Control Period, Sponsor, including any designee thereof, will relinquish control of the Board of Managers and will not elect a majority of its nominees for positions on the Board of Managers, even though its total percentage of Common Interest may otherwise enable it to do so. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Sponsor conveys title to all of the Unsold Residential Units in less than five (5) years from the date of the First Unit Closing, Sponsor or its designee shall relinquish control of the Board of Managers after the conveyance of title to the last Unsold Residential Unit.

Sponsor, during the time there are Unsold Residential Units, will have the right to, and intends to, vote the percentage of Common Interests allocated to such Units, but subsequent to relinquishing voting control of the Board of Managers, Sponsor will not use such vote to elect a particular individual to the Board of Managers which would, by the election of such individual, give Sponsor voting control of the Board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor may, at its discretion, relinquish voting control of the Board prior to the end of the Sponsor Control Period.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, during the Sponsor Control Period Sponsor may not exercise veto power over the Board regarding expenses required (i) to comply with applicable laws or regulations; (ii) to remedy any notice of violation; or (iii) to remedy any work order by an insurer.

As long as the Sponsor or any Sponsor-designee shall continue to own a Unit, the Board of Managers may not, without the Sponsor's or Sponsor-designee's prior written consent, (i) amend the Declaration or the By-Laws so as to in any way adversely affect the Sponsor or its designees, or (ii) interfere with: the offer, sale or leasing of Units at the Property; the operations of general or sales or leasing offices at the Property; or actions necessary for renovation, repair or correction at the Property, as required by Sponsor. The Sponsor or Sponsor-designee shall have the right to withhold its consent to any of the foregoing actions. However, notwithstanding these restrictions, the Sponsor or Sponsor-designee shall not withhold its consent to the making of capital repairs to the Common Elements or assessment of any Common Charge for expenses required to comply with applicable law.

Members of the Board of Managers will serve without compensation. All officers of the Condominium shall also serve without compensation. Sponsor represents that for as long as it or any of its designees are members of the Board of Managers neither it nor any of its designees will vote for remuneration for either members of the Board of Managers or officers of the Condominium.

An officer may be removed, with or without cause, by an affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Board of Managers.

Additionally, the By-Laws of the Condominium do not include a provision that, after the initial Sponsor voting control period, a majority of the Board of Managers must be owner-occupants or members of an owner-occupant's household who are unrelated to the Sponsor and its principals. Therefore, PURCHASERS FOR THEIR OWN OCCUPANCY MAY NEVER GAIN CONTROL OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS UNDER THE TERMS OF THIS PLAN. Further, Unit Owners who are owner-occupants and Unit Owners who are non-residents (including Sponsor) may have in inherent conflicts about how the Condominium should be managed because of their differing reasons for purchasing (i.e. purchase of a Unit as a home as opposed to an investment).

BOARD OF MANAGERS

Under the By-Laws of the Condominium, the affairs of the Condominium will be managed by a Board of Managers consisting of seven (7) persons, six (6) of whom shall comprise the "Residential Board," and one (1) of whom will comprise the "Commercial Board." The Residential Board will initially consist of two (2) persons designated by Sponsor, who shall be Tom Dillon and Jason Renock, and the Commercial Board will initially consist of one (1) person designated by Sponsor who shall be Ryan Feury. Tom Dillon, Jason Renock and Ryan Feury are all employees of Toll Brothers, Inc., an entity that is affiliated with Sponsor.

From and after the first annual meeting of Unit Owners (which shall be called within 365 days after the First Unit Closing), the Board of Managers will consist of a Residential Board of six (6) persons elected or designated by the Residential Unit Owners and Storage Unit Owners, and a Commercial Board consisting of one (1) person designated by the Commercial Unit Owner. If all six (6) members of the Residential Board vote on a matter before it, and there is a deadlock, the President of the Residential Board shall decide whether or not the measure shall be adopted in his or her sole discretion.

The Commercial Board member shall be designated by Sponsor or a Sponsor-designee for so long as the Commercial Unit remains an Unsold Unit. Upon the transfer of title to the Commercial Unit to a party other than a Sponsor-designee, the member of the Commercial Board shall be designated by such Commercial Unit Owner.

The Unit Owners shall hold annual meetings and at each such meeting they shall elect members of the Board of Managers. Each Unit Owner, including the Sponsor or its designee, shall be entitled to cast one vote for each .0001% of interest in the Common Elements attributable to their Unit(s) on all matters put to a vote at all meetings of the Unit Owners except that, when voting for the election of members of the Condominium Board, each Unit Owner: (i) shall be entitled to one vote for each .0001% of Common Interest attributable to its Unit per member to be elected, and (ii) shall not have the right to cumulate its votes in favor of any one or more members to be elected. If Units are owned by more than one person or entity as joint tenants, tenants by the entirety or as tenants in common, the persons or entities owning said Unit shall agree among themselves and cast the votes for their Unit.

Sponsor shall control the Board of Managers until the later of (i) the date upon which Sponsor shall own Unsold Residential Units having a percent interest in the Residential Section in the aggregate of ten (10%) percent or less or (ii) five (5) years from the date of the First Unit Closing (the "Sponsor Control Period"). At the expiration of the Sponsor Control Period, Sponsor, including any designee thereof, will relinquish control of the Board of Managers and will not elect a majority of its nominees for positions on the Board of Managers, even though its total percentage of Common Interest may otherwise enable it to do so. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Sponsor conveys title to all of the Unsold Residential Units in less than five (5) years from the date of the First Unit Closing, Sponsor or its designee shall relinquish control of the Board of Managers after the conveyance of title to the last Unsold Residential Unit.

Sponsor, during the time there are Unsold Residential Units, will have the right to, and intends to, vote the percentage of Common Interests allocated to such Units, but subsequent to relinquishing voting control of the Board of Managers, Sponsor will not use such vote to elect a particular individual to the Board of Managers which would, by the election of such individual, give Sponsor voting control of the Board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor may, at its discretion, relinquish voting control of the Board prior to the end of the Sponsor Control Period.

Subsequent to the date when the Sponsor relinquishes control of the Board of Managers and as long as the Sponsor or a Sponsor-designee shall continue to own at least one (1) Unsold Residential Unit the Sponsor or Sponsor-designee shall have the right to elect one (1) of the members of the Board of Managers.

The By-Laws of the Condominium do not include a provision that, after the initial Sponsor voting control period, a majority of the Board of Managers must be owner-occupants or members of an owner-occupant's household who are unrelated to the Sponsor and its principals. Therefore, PURCHASERS FOR THEIR OWN OCCUPANCY MAY NEVER GAIN CONTROL OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS UNDER THE TERMS OF THIS PLAN. Further, Unit Owners who are owner-occupants and Unit Owners who are non-residents (including Sponsor) may have inherent conflicts on how the Condominium should be managed because of their differing reasons for purchasing (i.e., purchase of a Residential Unit as a home as opposed to an investment).

The Unit Owners annual meetings shall be held on or about the anniversary of the date of the first annual meeting. A special meeting of the Unit Owners shall be called by the President of the Condominium as directed by the Board of Managers or upon a petition signed by a majority of the Unit Owners having been presented to the Secretary.

Notice of the annual meeting of Unit Owners or of any special meetings of Unit Owners shall be given by the Secretary, as directed by the Board of Managers, to all Unit Owners not less than ten (10) days or more than thirty (30) days before such meeting. Minutes of all meetings of Unit Owners and of all meetings of the Board of Managers shall be kept by the Board, together with records of all actions taken by the Board and the financial records of the Condominium. The Board shall retain an independent certified public accountant to prepare an annual report of the receipts and expenditures of the Condominium, which report shall be promptly sent to each Unit Owner.

Each of the members of the seven (7) member Condominium Board will serve until the next regular annual meeting of Unit Owners and until a successor is elected and qualified. Members of the Board of Managers, except for those members elected by the Sponsor, to be eligible for election, must be either a Unit Owner, the principal or officer of a Unit Owner, or the spouse of a Unit Owner. Except for a member of the Board of Managers designated by Sponsor or a Sponsor-designee, Residential Board members may be removed from office, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of Residential

Unit Owners owning, in the aggregate, a percentage of Residential Common Interest in excess of fifty percent (50%). Residential Board members designated by the Sponsor or a Sponsor-designee may only be removed for gross negligence, willful misconduct, or fraud by the affirmative vote of Residential Unit Owners owning, in the aggregate, a percentage of Residential Common Interest in excess of fifty (50%) percent of the Residential Common Interest of the Condominium. In the event of such removal, the Sponsor or Sponsor-designee, as the case may be, shall have the exclusive right to designate a replacement for such removed member of the Board of Managers.

All members of the Board of Managers shall serve without compensation, and the Sponsor represents that, for as long as it or any of its designees are members of the Board of Managers, neither it nor any of its designees will vote for remuneration for either members of the Board of Managers or officers of the Condominium.

The Board of Managers shall have the powers and duties necessary for the administration of the affairs of the Condominium, including but not limited to: determination of the Common Charges; adoption of rules and regulations covering the details of the Property; opening of bank accounts; purchasing, leasing or otherwise acquiring Units; selling, leasing or mortgaging of Units owned by the Board of Managers; and generally managing or supervising the Condominium property as provided in the Declaration and the By-Laws. The Common Expenses shall include such amounts as the Board of Managers deems proper for the operation and maintenance of the Property, including, without limitation, an amount for working capital of the Condominium, for a general operating reserve, and to make up any deficit in the Common Expenses for any prior year. The Board, in its discretion, may delegate such managerial powers as it sees fit to the officers of the Condominium. The Board of Managers is authorized to employ a Managing Agent for the Condominium on such terms as the Board of Managers may deem proper. See the Section entitled "Management Agreement" in Part I of this Plan for further discussion.

In order to limit the liability of the Unit Owners, as members of the Board of Managers, the Managing Agent, if any, and any officers of the Condominium, any contract or other commitment shall be made by the Board of Managers or the Managing Agent or an officer of the Condominium, as the case may be, only as agent for the Unit Owners. The members of the Board of Managers, the Managing Agent or the officer, as the case may be, shall have no personal liability on any such contract or commitment (except as Unit Owners), and the liability of any Unit Owner on any such contract or commitment shall be limited to such proportionate share of the total liability thereunder as the Common Interest of such Unit Owner bears to the aggregate Common Interest of all Unit Owners. The Board of Managers and the officers of the Condominium shall have no liability to the Unit Owners for errors of judgment, or otherwise, except for willful misconduct, negligence or bad faith. The Unit Owners shall severally indemnify the members of the Board of Managers and the officers of the Condominium against any liability or claims except those arising out of the bad faith, negligence or willful misconduct of the members of the Board of Managers or the officers of the Condominium, but the liability of any Unit Owner on account of such indemnification shall be limited to such proportionate share thereof as the Common Interest of such Unit Owner bears to the aggregate Common Interest of all Unit Owners.

Officers

The principal officers of the Condominium shall be (a) for the Residential Section, a President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer thereof, all of whom shall be elected by the Residential Board, (b) for the Commercial Section, a President and Secretary/Treasurer thereof, both of whom shall be elected by the Commercial Board, and (c) for the entire Condominium, (i) a President thereof, who shall be the same person serving as President of the Residential Board, (ii) a Vice President and Treasurer thereof, who shall be the same person serving as President of the Commercial Board, and (iii) a Secretary thereof, who shall be the same person serving as Secretary of the Residential Board. The Condominium Board, the Residential Board and the Commercial Board may each appoint an Assistant Treasurer, Assistant Secretary and such other officers as in their judgment may be desirable. Any officer or director of the Residential Board may be an officer or director of the Commercial Board, and any officer or director of the Commercial Board may be an officer or director of the Residential Board. None of the officers of the Condominium Board, the Residential Board or the Commercial Board need be Unit Owners or have any interest therein or be Board members until the first organizational meeting of the Residential Board after the first annual meeting of Residential Unit Owners. Thereafter, the President and Vice President of the Residential Board must be Residential Unit Owners.

The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Condominium and shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Managers and of Unit Owners.

The Vice President shall take the place of the President of the Condominium in his or her absence.

The Secretary shall be empowered to take and keep minutes of all meetings and to keep the books and records of the Condominium.

The Treasurer shall be responsible for the funds of the Condominium and for accurately keeping the financial records and books of the Condominium.

The Board of Managers, in its discretion, shall delegate such powers to the officers as it sees fit to execute agreements, contracts, deeds, leases and checks etc. on behalf of the Condominium.

Severance of Ownership Prohibited

Each conveyance of a Unit by a Unit Owner shall include as part of the property to be conveyed, its undivided interest in the Common Elements, together with its interest in any Unit or Units acquired by the Board of Managers from Unit Owners electing to sell or lease such Unit or at a foreclosure or other judicial sale involving such Unit or Units, in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws, all of which are interests appurtenant to its Unit.

Right of First Refusal; Units Acquired or Leased by Residential Board

In administering the right of first refusal granted to the Residential Board with respect to any sale or lease of a Residential Unit, the Residential Board shall be required to exercise such rights, if at all, within twenty (20) days of its receipt of written notice from a Residential Unit Owner of the Residential Unit Owner's intention to sell or lease the Unit to a bona fide grantee or lessee. Notice of the decision to exercise or waive such right must be given to the Residential Unit Owner within five (5) days after the exercise of such decision and in any event within said twenty (20) day period by certified or registered mail. Failure of the Residential Board to either exercise such right or to give notice of the exercise of such right within the time periods provided above shall constitute a waiver of the right of first refusal. The Residential Board will also have the right of first refusal with respect to the Storage Units, but it will not have a right of first refusal with respect to the sale or lease of the Commercial Unit.

In the event the Residential Board does exercise its right of first refusal, the acquisition or lease of the Residential Unit may be made from the working capital and Common Charges, or, if such funds are insufficient, the Residential Board may assess each Residential Unit Owner, other than the offering Unit Owner, in proportion to each Residential Unit Owner's percentage of Common Interest, or may borrow money to finance such acquisition. The sole security which may be given for any funds so borrowed is the Unit to be acquired. The Residential Board may also assess each Residential Unit Owner, as provided above, for the cost of paying the Common Charges or rent and the maintenance of such Residential Unit. In the event any Residential Units are acquired or leased by the Residential Board, the title or lease shall be held by the Residential Board on behalf of all Residential Unit Owners in proportion to their percentage of Common Interest and any sale or lease of such Residential Unit shall be made by the Residential Board on behalf of all Residential Unit Owners in proportion to their percentage of Common Interests. Such Residential Unit, while owned or leased by the Residential Board, may be used for any purpose for which it could be used by an individual Residential Unit Owner. In no event, however, may the Residential Board at any meeting of Unit Owners vote the votes appurtenant thereto.

The foregoing restrictions upon the sale and lease of Units will not apply to Sponsor or its designee with respect to any Unsold Units, or to Units acquired by a Permitted Mortgagee in foreclosure or by deed in lieu of foreclosure, or to the Commercial Unit Owner, each of which will be free to sell or lease their respective units without first offering to sell or lease to any Board.

Each Unit Owner, at the Closing of title to his or her Unit, shall be required to execute an instrument in the form of that contained in Part II in the Section entitled "Power of Attorney" in Part II of this Plan designating the Board of Managers and their successors as its attorneys in fact, coupled with an interest, for the purpose of selling, conveying, mortgaging, leasing, subleasing (but not voting the votes of) or otherwise dealing with Units acquired by the Board of Managers or their designee, on behalf of all Unit Owners.

Amendments to Condominium Declaration and By-Laws

Any provision of the By-Laws which benefit, protect, or otherwise affect only the Residential Section or the Residential Unit Owners may be modified or amended by the affirmative vote of Residential Unit Owners owning not less than sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66 + 2/3rds%) of the Residential Units and whose percentage of Common Interest, in the aggregate equals or exceeds sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66 + 2/3rds%). However, for as long as Sponsor or its designee owns title to one or more Unsold Units, the Rules and Regulations of the Condominium, or the By-Laws may not be amended in a manner which would adversely affect the Sponsor or its designee in any way, in Sponsor's sole discretion, unless the Sponsor or its designee gives its written consent to such an amendment. Additionally, (i) no such amendment shall adversely affect the lien of any mortgage without the written consent of the mortgagee; (ii) no such amendment may change the percentage of Common Interests allocated to any Unit or Units without the written consent of such Unit Owner; (iii) no such amendment shall increase the percentage of Common Interests allocated to any Unit or Units without the written consent of the mortgagee(s) of such Unit, or Units, if any.

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF UNIT OWNERS AND THE BOARD OF MANAGERS

Sale and Lease of Units

Each Residential Unit Owner, other than Sponsor or its designee with respect to any Unsold Units, may sell or lease his or her Residential Unit, but only after such Residential Unit Owner first gives the Residential Board written notice of his or her intention to do so, accompanied by the terms of the offer as set forth in Article 8 of the By-Laws. The Residential Board, on behalf of all Residential Unit Owners, will have the exclusive right to elect, within twenty (20) days after receipt of the notice of sale, to purchase the Residential Unit, or to elect, within twenty (20) days after receipt of the notice of lease, to lease the Residential Unit, on the same terms set forth in the offer, as more specifically set forth in Article 8 of the By-Laws. Notice of the decision to exercise or waive such right must be given to the Residential Unit Owner within five (5) days after the exercise of such decision and in any event within said twenty (20) day period by certified or registered mail. If the Residential Board does not notify the Residential Unit Owner of its election to purchase or lease the Residential Unit within the aforementioned time periods, the Residential Unit Owner will have sixty (60) days after the expiration of the twenty (20) day period to contract to sell the Residential Unit or lease the Residential Unit in accordance with the terms stated in the offer to the Condominium Board. After the expiration of the sixty (60) day period, the Residential Unit Owner will again be required to first offer the Residential Unit to the Residential Board as provided above. In the event the Residential Board timely elects to purchase a Residential Unit or to lease such Residential Unit, or to cause it to be purchased or leased by its designee, then (a) with respect to a purchase, title shall close on the later of (i) 60 days after the giving of notice by the Residential Board of its election to accept such offer and (ii) the closing date specified in the Residential Unit Owner's bona fide offer and (b) with respect to a lease, the lease shall be executed within ten (10) days after the Residential Board elects to accept such offer.

In the event the Residential Board does exercise its right of first refusal, the acquisition or lease of the Residential Unit may be made from the working capital and Common Charges for the Residential Section, or, if such funds are insufficient, the Residential Board may assess each Residential Unit Owner, other than the offering Residential Unit Owner, in proportion to each Residential Unit Owner's percentage of Common Interest for any funds so borrowed for the Residential Unit to be acquired. The Residential Board may also assess each Residential Unit Owner, as provided above, for the cost of paying the Common Charges or rent and the maintenance of such Residential Unit. In the event that any Residential Units are acquired or leased by the Residential Board, the title or lease shall be held by the Residential Board on behalf of all Residential Unit Owners in proportion to their percentage of Common Interest, and any sale or lease of such Residential Unit shall be made by the Residential Board on behalf of all Residential Unit Owners in proportion to their percentage of Common Interests. Such Residential Unit, while owned or leased by the Residential Board, may be used for any purpose for which it could be used by an individual Residential Unit Owner.

The requirement to offer the Residential Board the right of first refusal will not apply to Sponsor or its designee with respect to the sale of any Unsold Units, or to Units acquired by a Permitted Mortgagee in foreclosure or by deed in lieu of foreclosure, or to the Commercial Unit Owner, each of which will be free to sell or lease their respective units without first offering to sell or lease to any Board.

Each Unit Owner, at the closing of title to his or her Unit, shall be required to execute an instrument in the form of that contained in Part II in the section of the Plan titled "Power of Attorney," designating the Board of Managers and their successors, as his or her attorneys in fact, coupled with an interest, for the purpose of selling, conveying, mortgaging, leasing, subleasing (but not voting the votes of) or otherwise dealing with Residential Units acquired by the Board of Managers or their designee, on behalf of all Unit Owners. The Power of Attorney also grants Sponsor the right to amend the Declaration with respect to Unsold Units.

Each conveyance of a Unit by a Unit Owner shall include, as part of the property to be conveyed, the Unit Owner's: (i) Common Interest; (ii) undivided interest in any Residential Unit or Residential Units acquired by the Condominium Board from Residential Unit Owners (or the proceeds received at a foreclosure or other judicial sale of a Residential Unit); and (iii) undivided interest in any other assets of the Condominium. In addition, title to a Unit may not be conveyed unless all unpaid Common Charges and liens against such Unit, other than mortgages placed on such Unit in compliance with the By-Laws, are paid and satisfied at or prior to closing. At the time of acquisition of a Unit and as a condition thereof, the new Unit Owner will be required to execute, acknowledge and deliver a Unit Owner's Power of Attorney in favor of the Condominium Board, in the form set forth in Part II of this Plan.

The lease for any Residential Unit (other than Unsold Units) will be in substantially the form of lease printed by Julius Blumberg, Inc., or the Real Estate Board of New York, Inc., with such modifications as shall be approved in writing by the Condominium Board. The terms of the lease, the rents and any rent increases upon the renewal of such lease are not subject to the New York State Rent Stabilization Law or the New York City Rent Stabilization Code.

A Unit Owner may, without restriction, make a gift of his or her Unit to anyone during his or her lifetime, to devise such Unit by will or to pass same by intestacy.

The Condominium Board may not discriminate against any person for a reason proscribed by the laws of the State of New York.

Mortgage of Units

Each Unit Owner, after notice to the Condominium Board, is free to mortgage his or her Unit to a "Permitted Mortgagee," provided that prior to or simultaneously with the closing of any mortgage transaction, the Unit Owner must satisfy all arrearages for any unpaid Common Charges and Special Assessments owed by such Unit Owner and discharge any liens affecting the Unit, other than Permitted Mortgages.

Determination of and Liens for Nonpayment of Common Charges

Each Unit Owner shall have an obligation to pay Common Charges and Special Assessments on other expenses when due. Unless otherwise stated in the footnotes to Schedule B, Common Charges for each Unit may be determined by multiplying that Unit's percentage of Common Interest by the total annual net expenses incurred or anticipated to be incurred for those items listed in Schedule B herein, together with the expense of any special repairs, major capital improvements or other expenses deemed by the Board of Managers to be a part of the Common Expenses and to be paid as Common Charges, all in accordance with Article 6, Section 1 of the By-Laws of the Condominium. Common Charges will be established on an annual basis and be paid in equal monthly installments, due and payable on the first day of each month. The Board of Managers may, in accordance with Article 6, Section 1 of the By-Laws, impose Special Assessments as it deems necessary, to meet unanticipated or extraordinary expenses, including, but not limited to, expenses incurred for major capital improvements. The Special Assessment to be paid by each Unit Owner shall also be determined in accordance with the Unit Owner's percentage of Common Interest.

The Condominium Board, in its discretion, and subject to certain restrictions contained in the By-Laws, may decide in the future to create a reserve fund by Special Assessment or by increases in Common Charges.

Under the provisions of Section 339-z and 339-aa of the Real Property Law of the State of New York (the "Real Property Law"), the Board of Managers on behalf of the Unit Owners will have a lien on each Unit for unpaid Common Charges assessed by the Board of Managers. Such lien will be subordinate only to liens for real estate taxes on the Unit and to any sums unpaid on a first mortgage of record thereon. Any lien for unpaid Common Charges against a Unit shall be effective from and after the filing of notice thereof in the Register of the City of New York, County of New York and until all sums secured thereby with the interest thereon shall have been fully paid or until six years from the date of filing (unless foreclosure of such lien is started within such six-year period), whichever may be earlier. Such lien may be foreclosed by a suit brought in the name of the Board of Managers acting on behalf of the Unit Owners in like manner as the foreclosure of a mortgage on real property or an action may be brought by the Board of Managers to recover the unpaid Common Charges without foreclosing the lien.

Upon the failure of a Unit Owner to pay Common Charges for the Unit within sixty (60) days of the same becoming due and payable, the Board of Managers shall have the right to place a lien against the Unit Owner's Unit for the unpaid Common Charges as set forth above. Failure of the Board of Managers to place such a lien shall not constitute a waiver of the right to do so at a later date or with respect to a subsequent failure to pay within the designated time.

The Sponsor will cause the Board of Managers to file a lien as provided in Section 339-aa of the Real Property Law on Units in which Sponsor is more than 30 days in arrears on Common Charges while it is in control of the Board of Managers.

No Unit Owner shall be liable for the payment of any part of the Common Charges assessed against his or her Unit for any period subsequent to a sale, transfer, or other conveyance made by him or her of his or her Unit, with appurtenant Common Elements, in accordance with the Declaration and By-Laws.

All Unit Owners shall be required to comply with the Declaration, By-Laws, Rules and Regulations of the Condominium and with any other requirements duly imposed by the Board of Managers pursuant to the authority granted to them. The Board of Managers shall have the power to impose appropriate sanctions where a Unit Owner is in default. Such sanctions include placing a lien against the Unit Owner's Unit, instituting foreclosure proceedings and filing suit against a Unit Owner.

Repairs

All maintenance of and repairs to any Unit, including, but not limited to, electrical (except Common Elements), plumbing (except Common Elements) as well as the washing of exterior windows shall be at the Unit Owner's expense, excepting as otherwise specifically provided in the By-Laws.

All maintenance, repairs and replacements to the "General Common Elements" (as defined in the Declaration) shall be made by the Board of Managers and be charged to all the Unit Owners as a Common Expense, except to the extent that the same are necessitated by the negligence, misuse or neglect of a Unit Owner, in which case such expense shall be charged to such Unit Owner. Maintenance, repair and replacements in or to the "Residential Common Elements" or the "Residential Limited Common Elements" (as such terms are defined in the Declaration) will be performed by (a) the Residential Board as a Residential Common Expense, if involving a Residential Common Element, or (b) by the Residential Unit Owner having direct and exclusive access thereto at his or her sole cost and expense, if involving a Residential Limited Common Element such as a roofing surface and/or a roof deck above such surface or as a result of the Unit Owner's negligence, misuse or neglect. Maintenance, repair and replacements in or to the "Commercial Common Elements" will be performed by the Commercial Board as a Commercial Common Expense. Maintenance, repair and replacements in or to the "Storage Common Elements" (as such terms are defined in the Declaration) will be performed by the Residential Board as a Storage Common Expense.

The violation of any rule or regulation adopted by the Board of Managers, or the breach of any By-Law, or the breach of any provision of the Declaration, shall give the Board of Managers the right, in addition to any other rights set forth in the By-Laws: (a) upon reasonable notice to the Unit Owner, to enter the Unit in which, or as to which, such violation or breach exists and to summarily abate and remove, at the expense of the defaulting Unit Owner, any structure, thing or condition that may exist therein contrary to the intent and meaning of the provisions of the By-Laws (provided, however, that no prior notice shall be required in the event the Board of Managers shall determine that action is immediately necessary for the preservation or safety of the Property of the Condominium or for the safety of residents of the Condominium or other persons or required to avoid the suspension of any necessary service to the Condominium); or (b) to enjoin, abate or remedy by appropriate legal proceedings, either at law or in equity, the continuance of any such breach; and (c) in any event charge the Unit Owner with the cost of reasonable legal and other fees and costs incurred in enjoining, abating or remedying such violation.

Necessary repairs and replacements to each Residential Unit's windows, doors and skylights are to be performed by the Residential Board at such Residential Unit Owner's sole cost and expense, subject to Board approval in order to ensure that uniform materials are used throughout the Building. It shall be the responsibility of the Residential Board to ensure that replacement Residential Unit windows contain safety "stops" designed specifically to prevent a child from falling out of the window.

Additions, Alterations and Improvements

Sponsor or its designee may make structural or non-structural alterations in any Unit owned by it or with respect to any Limited Common Element for which it has exclusive use without prior consent of the Board of Managers. No Residential Unit Owner, other than the Sponsor or its designee, as a holder of Unsold Units, may make a structural alteration in its Unit or with respect to any Limited Common Element for which it has exclusive use or which affects the exterior of the Building or the value of other Units without the prior written approval of the Residential Board of Managers. Any approval, if granted, shall provide that such alteration shall be at the Residential Unit Owner's sole cost and expense, that work shall be done in accordance with all governmental or quasi-governmental laws, rules, regulations, codes and ordinances, that all work shall be done by reputable contractors with adequate insurance coverage for liability, property damage and worker's compensation (certificates for which shall be delivered to the Board of Managers prior to the commencement of construction), that any additions, alterations or improvements shall be maintained in their entirety by said Residential Unit Owner who shall also be responsible for any repairs, including structural repairs, to such addition in any event, and to the Unit and any Common Elements where such repairs become necessary due to additional stresses caused by the structural alteration or due to improper design or construction of the structural alteration. Such approval shall further provide that the Residential Unit Owner shall reimburse the Board of Managers for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Board of Managers in connection with the granting of such approval and in connection with any services provided to such alteration. Such expenses may include, but shall not be limited to, any fees of an attorney and/or fees of an architect consulted in connection with the request by a Residential Unit Owner for approval of a structural alteration.

The Residential Board shall have the authority to establish rules for non-structural alterations, additions, improvements, and repairs made by any Residential Unit Owner to his Residential Unit.

The Commercial Unit Owner may make structural or non-structural alterations, additions, improvements or repairs to the Commercial Unit (including the storefront window system, but not the façade of the Building), provided that (i) such work does not and could not adversely and materially affect and/or impact the Building; (ii) the structural integrity of the Building (including, without limitation, the foundation, structural elements, load bearing walls and slabs of the Building) is and could not be materially impacted or otherwise compromised; (iii) such alteration is performed in accordance with the insurance requirements established by the Board of Managers; (iv) all alterations, additions, improvements or repairs are consistent with the aesthetics of the remainder of the Building; and (v) such work is performed in accordance with all other provision of the Declaration and the By-Laws. The Commercial Unit Owner shall use commercially reasonable efforts to abide by all reasonable restrictions of the Board of Managers with respect to odors, noise, sound, dust and vapors that may be caused by such work. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for so long as Sponsor or its designee owns at least one (1) Unsold Unit, any structural alteration, modification, addition or improvement to the Commercial Unit, and any alteration, modification, addition or improvement to the storefront of the Commercial Unit, shall require the prior written consent of Sponsor or its designee.

Finally, any approval, if granted shall be subject to regulation by the Condominium Board as to any one or more of the following aspects of construction:

(1) time periods during which work is permitted;

(2) the manner in which construction debris will be handled;

(3) measures which must be taken to prevent compromising security of the Building during construction;

(4) the interruption of services during construction; and

(5) liability insurance for contractors during construction.

The Board of Managers and/or the manager or managing agent shall have a right of access to any Unit for the purpose of inspection, making any repairs or replacements to any of the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements contained in such Unit or elsewhere in the Building, remedying any condition which would result in damage to any other Unit or to the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements, or which would violate the provisions of any mortgage encumbering another Unit, or for the purpose of complying with any laws, orders, rules or regulations of any governmental body having jurisdiction thereof, or to cure any defaults by a Unit Owner or for any other purposes permitted by the By-Laws.

Certain structures cannot be built as-of-right with respect to the City of New York Building Code and require a variance from the City Board of Standards and Appeals. If the Board does not consent to the proposed alteration, an application for a variance is moot, since the Board would not permit the proposed alteration in any event.

In the event that a variance is needed, such a variance may be approved or denied by the Board of Managers at the Condominium in the Board's sole discretion. Structures that increase the size of the Building require a variance. These structures include:

additional floors, additions to the rear of the Building above the cellar level, additional penthouses, roof mezzanines, greenhouses and gazebos.

Subject to the By-Laws and Rules and Regulations of the Condominium, which, among other requirements, assigns responsibility for negligence, misuse or neglect, a Residential Unit Owner who has an exclusive roof terrace area may, without a Department of Buildings permit, install plantings and furniture on it.

Insurance

The Board of Managers shall be required to obtain and maintain the following insurance: fire insurance with extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief endorsements, insuring the Building containing the Units, including all of the Units and all fixtures installed therein by the Sponsor and any property customary to the servicing and general occupancy, (but not including furniture, furnishings, equipment or other personal property supplied or installed by Unit Owners), together with all service machinery contained therein and covering the interests of the Condominium, the Board of Managers and all Unit Owners and their mortgagees, as their interest may appear, in an aggregate amount to be determined by the Board of Managers but in no event to be less than eighty percent (80%) of the full replacement cost of the Building, including the above noted items, but exclusive of footings and foundations, as approved by a fire insurance company or a qualified insurance broker. All such policies shall provide that adjustment of loss, if over $1,000,000.00, shall be made by the Board of Managers with approval of the "Insurance Trustee" (as defined in the By-laws), if any. The Board of Managers shall have the right to select an Insurance Trustee. Additionally, the net proceeds of such adjustment, if $1,000,000.00 or less, shall be payable to the Board of Managers, and if more than $1,000,000.00 shall be payable to the Insurance Trustee, if any, to be applied for the purpose of repairing, restoring or rebuilding the Building unless otherwise determined by the Unit Owners.

All policies of physical damage insurance shall contain waivers of subrogation and of any reduction of pro-rata liability of the insurer as a result of any insurance carried by Unit Owners or of the invalidity arising from any acts of the insured or any Unit Owners, and shall provide that each Unit Owner is an additional insured party and that such policies may not be canceled or substantially modified without at least ten (10) days prior written notice to all of the insured, including all mortgagees of Units. The standard mortgagee loss payable clause shall be attached to all policies.

The cost of all such insurance and the fees and expenses of the Insurance Trustee shall be paid by the Board of Managers and shall constitute a Common Expense.

The Board of Managers shall also obtain and maintain to the extent obtainable: (1) worker's compensation insurance for Condominium employees, if any; (2) public liability insurance covering each member of the Board of Managers and each Unit Owner in such limits as the Board of Managers may deem proper, and covering all claims for bodily injury or property damage arising out of any occurrence in the Common Elements or the Units, except that such policy will not cover liability of a Unit Owner arising from occurrences within his own Unit. The Board of Managers shall review such limits once each year. The public liability insurance will also cover cross-liability claims of one insured against another. Until the first meeting of the Board of Managers elected by the Unit Owners the public liability insurance will be in a limit of at least $1,000,000.00 covering all claims for bodily injury with respect to any one occurrence.

If, by reason of the occupancy or use of any particular Unit, the rate of fire or liability insurance for the Property shall be increased, such Unit Owner shall (if such occupancy or use continues for more than thirty (30) days after written notice from the Board of Managers specifying the occupancy or use) become liable for the additional insurance premiums incurred by the Condominium as if such additional premium constituted an assessment.

Unit Owners shall not be prohibited from carrying other insurance for their own benefit, provided that all such policies contain waivers of subrogation, and further provided that the liability of the carriers issuing insurance obtained by the Board of Managers shall not be affected or diminished by reason of any such additional insurance carried by any Unit Owner.

Use of Units

The Residential Units may be used only for private residences. However, a Residential Unit Owner may use his or her Residential Unit for any home occupation use permitted under applicable zoning law and ordinances, building code or other rules and regulations of governmental authorities having jurisdiction. Such Residential Units may also be used as professional offices by a resident thereof, provided such professional use does not violate any zoning law and ordinances and provided further that the prior written consent of the Board of Managers to such professional use is obtained. No illuminated or other sign may be used in connection with the aforementioned use.

Sponsor, so long as Sponsor owns at least one (1) Unit may, without the consent of the Board of Managers, cause the Building's amenity spaces and lobby to be filmed or photographed for sales, promotional, or any other purpose that Sponsor deems reasonable, during regular business hours, subject only to the requirements of applicable Law.

Except as set forth above, no industry, business, trade, occupation or profession of any kind, commercial, religious, educational or otherwise, designed for profit, altruism, or otherwise, shall be conducted, maintained or permitted in any part of the Residential Units or Residential Common Elements, nor shall any "For Sale", "For Rent" or "For Lease" signs or other window displays or advertising be maintained or permitted in any Residential Unit therein or adjoining Residential Common Elements, nor shall any Residential Unit be rented for transient, hotel or motel purposes. The right, however, is reserved by the Sponsor, its designee, and the Board of Managers, or its agent, to place "For Sale," "For Rent," or "For Lease" or similar signs on any Unsold Units or unoccupied Units. Sponsor and its designee shall have the right to place "For Sale", "For Rent" or "For Lease" signs or similar signs on or in the vicinity of the Building or on the facade of the Building without regard to size. Sponsor or its designee shall be responsible for installing and removing such signs. Additionally, the right is reserved by Sponsor and its designee to (i) maintain staff in one or more vacant and Unsold Units in the Building as a sales office and/or model Unit, (ii) maintain staff in the Common Elements for the purpose of marketing Unsold Units and (iii) maintain staff in all portions of the Building for the purpose of completing construction on the Building and to otherwise comply with its obligations under the Plan.

Smoking shall be prohibited everywhere in the Building, directly outside of the Building's air intakes and on all private and common terraces. Smoking in violation of this rule shall be deemed to constitute a nuisance pursuant to the By-Laws. The term "smoke" or "smoking" shall include carrying, burning, or otherwise handling or controlling any lit or smoldering product containing tobacco or other flammable substance, including, but not limited to, cigarettes, cigars, or pipes. The Board of Managers is authorized to impose a fine on Unit Owners and their tenants, if any, for one or more violations of this provision, the amount of which shall be determined in the Board's sole discretion, as well as to commence legal proceedings to enjoin any conduct that would constitute a violation of this section. In the event that the Board brings a legal action to enforce its rule prohibiting smoking in the Building, the Unit Owner shall be responsible for the payment of all of the Board's legal costs, including disbursements.

There shall be no playing or lounging in the entrances, passages, public halls, vestibules, corridors, stairways, or fire towers of the Building, except in any recreational areas, if any, or other areas designated as such in the Declaration or by the Residential Board.

Except as elsewhere provided, no exterior of any Residential Unit or the windows or doors thereof or any other portions of the Common Elements shall be painted or decorated by any Residential Unit Owner in any manner without prior written consent of the Condominium Board.

No furniture, equipment, or other personal articles shall be placed in entrances, hallways, stairways, or in other Common Elements, except with the consent of the Board of Managers.

No Unit Owner shall make or permit any noise that will disturb or annoy the occupants of any of the Units in the Building or do or permit anything to be done therein which will interfere with the rights, comfort, or convenience of other Unit Owners.

Each Unit Owner shall keep his or her Unit in a good state of preservation and cleanliness and shall not sweep or throw or permit to be swept or thrown therefrom, or from the doors or windows of a Unit, any dirt or other substances. In addition, where applicable, each Unit Owner shall keep his or her terrace(s) and terrace drain(s) free of debris.

Except as otherwise provided above, no exterior shades, awnings, window guards, ventilators, fans or air-conditioning devices shall be used on or about the Building or Common Elements except such as shall have been approved by the Board of Managers or as required by Law.

Except as provided above, no sign, notice, lettering, or advertisement shall be inscribed or exposed on or at any window, door, or other part of a Residential Unit or adjoining Common Element except such as shall have been approved in writing by the Residential Board, nor shall anything be projected out of any window of the Building without similar approval.

All garbage and refuse from the Building shall be deposited with care in plastic bags or other suitable receptacles intended for such purpose only at such times and in such manner as the Board of Managers may direct. Unit Owners shall be responsible for complying with all applicable recycling laws pertaining thereto.

No clothes, sheets, blankets, laundry, or other articles of any kind shall be hung on or out of a Unit or its appurtenant Limited Common Elements.

Water closets and other water apparatus in the Building shall not be used for any purposes other than those for which they were constructed; nor shall any sweepings, rubbish, rags, paper, ashes, or any other article be thrown into the same. Any damage resulting from misuse of any water closet or other apparatus shall be paid for by the Unit Owner causing such damage.

No Residential Unit Owner shall engage any employee of the Condominium for any private business of the Residential Unit Owner without prior written consent of the Residential Board.

No pets other than dogs, caged birds, cats and fish (which do not cause a nuisance, health hazard or unsanitary condition) shall permitted be kept or harbored in any Residential Unit unless the same in each instance be expressly permitted in writing by the Residential Board. Any such consent, if given, shall be revocable at any time by the Residential Board. In no event shall any Unit Owner maintain more than two (2) pets (other than fish) in a Residential Unit without the consent of the Residential Board and in no event shall any animal be permitted in any of the public portions of the Building unless carried or on a leash. The individual Residential Unit Owners who keep an animal in the Building shall each indemnify the Board of Managers and hold it harmless against any loss or liability of any kind or character whatsoever arising from or as a result of having any animal in the Building. No pigeons or other birds or animals shall be fed from the window sills, or other public portions of the Building or on the sidewalk or street adjacent to the Building. The Board of Managers shall have the right to prohibit an animal from residing or visiting the Building if, in the Board's judgment, such animal creates a nuisance, health hazard or an unsanitary condition.

No radio or television aerial or dish shall be attached to or hung from the exterior of the Building without written approval of the Board of Managers.

The agents of the Board of Managers, and any contractor or workman authorized by them, may enter any Unit at any reasonable hour of the day for any purpose permitted under the terms of the Declaration, By-Laws, or Rules and Regulations of the Condominium.

The Board of Managers or the Managing Agent may retain a pass-key to each Unit. If any lock is altered or a new lock is installed, the Board of Managers or the Managing Agent shall be provided with a key thereto immediately upon such alteration or installation. If the Unit Owner is not personally present to open and permit an entry to his or her Unit at any time when an entry therein is necessary or permissible under these Rules and Regulations or under the By-Laws, and has not furnished a key to the Board of Managers or the Managing Agent, then the Board of Managers or Managing Agent or their agents (but, except in an emergency, only when specifically authorized by an officer of the Condominium or an officer of the Managing Agent) may forcibly enter such Unit without liability for damages or trespass by reason thereof (if, during such entry, reasonable care is given to such Unit Owner's property).

If any key or keys are entrusted by a Unit Owner, by any family member thereof, or by his agent, servant, employee, licensee, or visitor to an employee of the Condominium or of the Managing Agent, whether for such Unit Owner's Unit or an automobile, trunk, or other item of personal property, the acceptance of the key shall be at the sole risk of such Unit Owner, and neither the Board of Managers nor the Managing Agent shall (except as provided above) be liable for injury, loss, or damage of any nature whatsoever, directly or indirectly resulting therefrom or connected therewith.

No Unit Owner or any visitor, guest, patient, employee or any client of a Unit Owner shall be allowed in the heating, electrical or mechanical equipment areas without the express permission of the Board of Managers.

All damage to the Building or Common Elements caused by the moving or carrying of any article therein shall be paid by the Unit Owner responsible for the presence of such article.

No Unit Owner shall interfere in any manner with any portion of the Common Elements which are not appurtenant to the Unit Owner's Unit.

Nothing shall be done or kept in any Unit or in the Common Elements that will increase the rate of insurance of the Building, or the contents thereof, without the prior written consent of the Condominium Board. No Unit Owner shall permit anything to be done or kept in his Unit or in the Common Elements that will result in the cancellation of insurance on the Building, or the contents thereof, or that would be in violation of any Law. No Unit Owner or any of his family members, agents, servants, employees, licensees, or visitors shall, at any time, bring into or keep in his Unit or Limited Common Elements any inflammable, combustible, or explosive fluid, material, chemical, or substance, except as shall be necessary and appropriate for the permitted uses of such Unit or Limited Common Elements.

The exterior of all front doors of Residential Units shall not be painted or decorated other than with the consent of the Residential Board.

Any damage to the Building or equipment caused by Unit Owners, their guests, visitors, clients, patients or employees shall be repaired at the expense of the said Unit Owner.

Complaints regarding the management of the Building and grounds or regarding the actions of other Unit Owners shall be made in writing to the Board of Managers.

No Unit shall be used or be occupied in such manner as to obstruct or interfere with the enjoyment of occupants or Unit Owners above, below and to each side of other Units; nor shall any nuisance or illegal activity be committed or permitted to occur in or about any Unit or upon any part of the Common Elements.

Certain parts of the Common Elements are intended for use for the purpose of affording pedestrian movement within the Condominium and for providing access to the Units. No part of the Common Elements shall be obstructed as to interfere with its use for the purposes hereinabove recited; nor shall any part of the Common Elements be used for general storage purposes, except maintenance storage or where specifically designated as such; nor shall anything be done thereon in any manner which shall increase the rate of hazard and liability insurance covering said area and improvements situated thereon.

No offensive, or unlawful use shall be made of the Property or any part thereof, and all valid laws, zoning ordinances and regulations of all governmental bodies having jurisdiction thereof shall be observed. Violations of laws, orders, rules, regulations or requirements of any governmental agency having jurisdiction thereof, relating to any portion of the Property, shall be eliminated, by and at the sole expense of the Unit Owners, or the Board of Managers, whichever shall have the obligation to maintain or repair such portion of the Property.

Smoke detectors and carbon monoxide detectors must be installed in every Residential Unit as required by New York City Building Code. It is the obligation of the Residential Unit Owner to maintain the alarms and to make certain the units are in working order at all times.

Portions of all curtains, drapes, shades or blinds ("Window Treatments") in each Unit which are visible from the exterior of the Building shall be white to give the Building a uniform exterior appearance. Such Window Treatments shall be hung from each such window within sixty (60) days of the Closing Date, unless otherwise provided by the Board in writing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, under no circumstances shall newspapers, blankets, bed sheets, clothes or other articles of any kind be hung in such windows in lieu of Window Treatments.

The cost of maintenance and repair of the sidewalks, and adjacent curbs, including keeping them free from snow, ice, dirt and rubbish, shall be the responsibility of the Condominium, to be charged to all Unit Owners as a Common Expense.

No group tour or exhibition of any part of a Unit or its contents shall be conducted nor shall any auction sale be held in any part of a Unit, without the consent of the Board of Managers or the Managing Agent in each instance.

Plantings on any terrace or balcony shall be contained in boxes of wood, lined with metal or other materials impervious to dampness and standing on supports at least two inches from the terrace or balcony surface, and, if adjoining a wall, at least three inches from such wall. Suitable weep holes shall be provided in the boxes to draw off water. In special locations, such as a corner abutting a parapet wall, plantings may be contained in masonry or hollow tile walls which shall be at least three inches from the parapet and flashing, with the floor of drainage tiles and suitable weep holes at the sides to draw off water. Such masonry planting beds shall not, however, rest directly upon the surface of such terrace or balcony, but shall stand on supports at least two inches above such surface. It shall be the responsibility of the Residential Unit Owner to maintain the containers in good condition, and the drainage tiles and weep holes in operating condition. Such Residential Unit Owner shall pay the cost of any repairs rendered necessary, or damage caused, by such plantings. No planter shall be placed on any private terrace area or balcony if it imposes a load exceeding 60 pounds per square foot, without the express written consent of the Board and, if required, the New York City Department of Buildings.

Any consent or approval given under the Rules and Regulations of the Condominium may be amended, modified, added to, or repealed at any time by resolution of the Board of Managers. Further, any such consent or approval may, in the discretion of the Board of Managers or the Managing Agent, be conditional in nature.

The Rules and Regulations of the Condominium are set forth in Part II of this Offering Plan as an addendum to the By-Laws. The Rules and Regulations govern the use of the Units and Common Elements and may be amended from time to time by the Board. However, no amendment of the Rules and Regulations shall be applicable to any Unsold Unit, unless agreed to by Sponsor or the Sponsor-designee.

Storage Units

Storage Units shall be offered, on a first-come, first-served basis, solely to Purchasers and Residential Unit Owners and their lessees. Since there will be fewer Storage Units than there will be other types of Units, Purchasers of Residential Units are not guaranteed the opportunity to purchase a Storage Unit. Sponsor reserves the right to sell more than one Storage Unit to any Purchaser. No Person shall have the right to use a Storage Unit unless he owns or leases a Residential Unit. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor reserves the right to hold certain Storage Units off of the market, in its sole discretion. The Purchase Prices of each Storage Unit are disclosed on Schedule A.

No Residential Unit Owner, other than Sponsor or its designee, shall own more than two (2) Storage Units at a time without the express written consent of the Residential Board or Sponsor.

Neither the Sponsor nor the Board will be responsible for any damage to items placed in the Storage Units. Residents who place items in the Storage Units do so at their own risk and Purchasers are advised to consult with their insurance brokers regarding appropriate coverage for such stored items. The Storage Units shall be maintained, repaired and replaced as deemed necessary by the Residential Board and the cost of such maintenance, repair or replacement shall be billed to the affected Storage Unit Owners. The Storage Units may be used in accordance with applicable Law and only for the storage of the personal effects of the Residential Unit Owner having exclusive access to such Storage Unit. No items which would constitute a threat to the health or safety of the Residential Unit Owners or other occupants of the Building or otherwise create a nuisance in the Building shall be stored in the Storage Units.

The Board shall have the right of first refusal with respect to the sale and leasing of Storage Units, except for Storage Units owned by Sponsor.

Real Property Law §339-kk

Subsection kk to Section 339 of the Real Property Law ("RPL"), a copy of which is set forth in Part II of the Plan, was enacted into law July 22, 1998. RPL §339-kk is intended to provide additional financial protection for a condominium association if a sponsor or other non-occupant owner fails to make monthly payments for Common Charges, Special Assessments and late fees due in connection with such owner's Condominium Unit(s).

RPL §339-kk provides, by its terms, among other things, that with respect to unsold units of a condominium owned by a sponsor or by any other non-occupant owner and occupied by a tenant:

(a) If payment of common charges, assessments or late fees by any non-occupant condominium unit owner is more than sixty (60) days late after the expiration of any grace period within which they are due, payments from a tenant of such condominium unit may become directly payable to the condominium upon written notice by the condominium to the tenant and the non-occupant condominium unit owner. Where a majority of the condominium board has been elected by condominium unit owners who are in occupancy of their respective condominium units, the condominium board may elect not to require that the rental payments be paid to the condominium. Once the common charges, assessments and late fees of the non-occupant condominium unit owner have been brought current, the condominium board must notify the non-occupant condominium unit owner and the tenant within three (3) business days and thereafter the rent will be payable to the non-occupant condominium unit owner or a designated agent.

(b) Payment by a tenant of rent or the amount required pursuant to the tenant's lease or statutory tenancy to the Condominium pursuant to the RPL §339-kk, relieves the tenant from the obligation to pay rent to the non-occupying condominium unit owner.

(c) Any rights existing under any other laws are not limited by RPL §339-kk.

(d) A non-occupant condominium unit owner who disputes the condominium's claim to rental payments is entitled to present facts supporting such owner's position at the next scheduled meeting of the condominium board, which must be held within thirty (30) days after receipt of notice that the non-occupant condominium unit owner seeks to dispute the condominium's claim.

Sponsor makes no representation or guarantee that any Unit Owner (other than Sponsor), any tenant, or the Condominium, will in fact comply with RPL §339-kk, and Sponsor shall have no liability for their failure to do so.

RPL §339-kk does not address a number of issues. Accordingly, Sponsor makes no representation as to (i) RPL §339-kk's effect on the lien priority of a loan heretofore or hereafter made to a non-occupant Unit Owner and secured by the Unit, or whether RPL §339-kk's enactment or compliance therewith by a tenant constitutes a default by the Unit Owner under said loan, (ii) RPL §339-kk's effect on assignments of leases and rents given by a non-occupant Unit Owner to a mortgagee in connection with purchase-money financing or otherwise, (iii) the Condominium's remedies if a tenant fails or refuses to make rental payments to the Condominium Board after notice from the Condominium Board (in accordance with RPL §339-kk) to do so, (iv) the consequence of the Condominium Board's failure to give notice to a tenant, or (v) who is responsible for designating an agent to whom rental payments are to be made after the non-occupant Unit Owner is brought current in payment of common charges, assessments and late fees.

Finally, no representation is made about the tax effects of RPL §339-kk.

All prospective Purchasers should review RPL §339-kk to determine its effect on their own situation.

REAL ESTATE TAXES

Real estate taxes are assessed and collected by the City of New York. Each Unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes and the Unit Owner will not be responsible for the payment of, nor will his Unit subjected to, any lien arising from the non-payment of taxes on other Units.

Until the Units are separately assessed, the Condominium Board will pay all real estate taxes with respect to the property and will allocate the cost thereof among all Unit Owners in proportion to each Unit's Common Interest. Such allocation shall be final; there will be no adjustment of real estate taxes subsequent to the allocation by the Condominium Board.

Real Estate Tax Projections

As disclosed in the real estate tax analysis prepared by Sponsor's real estate consultant, Marcus & Pollack LLP, located at 633 Third Avenue, 9th Floor, New York, New York 10017, which is located in Part II of this Plan (the "M&P Analysis"), the New York City Department of Finance assesses real estate taxes annually based upon the property's use and condition as of the January prior to the beginning of the following tax year (the "Taxable Status Date"). Each tax year commences on July 1 of each calendar year. According the M&P Analysis, it is estimated that tax year 2019/2020 will be the first tax year that the Property will be fully assessed for real estate tax purposes. During such tax year the total real estate tax liability of the Property is estimated to be $3,605,952 based on an estimated assessed value of $28,511,280 and an estimated real estate tax rate of 12.892% for the Residential Units and 10.574% for the Commercial Unit and Storage Units. Purchasers are advised to read the full text of the M&P Analysis for additional discussion regarding the Property's assessed value and estimated real estate tax liability during the first year of Condominium operation and during the 2019/2020 tax year.

Sponsor does not intend to apply for the New York City Co-op and Condo Property Tax Abatement (the "Tax Abatement"). However the Board of Managers or an eligible Residential Unit Owner may, in its sole discretion, apply for the Tax Abatement for the his or her Residential Unit if it is made available by the City of New York. If the Board of Managers or an eligible Residential Unit Owner applies for, and obtains, the Tax Abatement, and the Law authorizing the Tax Abatement is extended in its present form, eligible Residential Unit Owners would be entitled to an abatement equal to 17.5% of their annual real estate tax bill. In order to qualify for the Tax Abatement, the Residential Unit Owner must reside in the Unit as a primary residence. Residential Units owned by a business entity are not eligible for the Tax Abatement. Purchasers are referred to http://www1.nyc.gov/site/finance/benefits/landlords-coop-condo.page for further information.

SPONSOR MAKES NO REPRESENTATION THAT THE ASSESSED VALUE OF THE PROPERTY, THE ESTIMATED ALLOCATIONS, OR THE TAX RATE WILL NOT BE CHANGED.

There is no assurance the New York City Department of Finance will allocate taxes based each Unit's percentage of common interest, as provided in the analysis by Marcus & Pollack LLP. It is therefore possible that owners of Units having the same percentage of Common Interest will pay different amounts of real estate taxes.

Sponsor makes no representation or warranty that any Unit will receive the Tax Abatement, and no representation or warranty as to the date such benefit will take effect if it is received. Sponsor will not undertake to apply for the Tax Abatement. It shall be the responsibility of each Purchaser to timely apply for the Tax Abatement individually once title to the Unit has been conveyed from the Sponsor.

No representation or warranty can be made as to (a) whether there will be (i) a further increase in the actual valuation of the Property during the projected budget year or (ii) an increase in the assessed valuation of the Property by reason of the condominium conversion or otherwise, or (b) the method of determining the assessed valuation (whether on a rent roll, market or other basis) or (c) the amount of any increase in the assessed valuation of the Property.

Purchasers should note that if the assessed valuation of the Property for real estate tax purposes is increased at any time as result of improvements to the Property or for any other reason, then greater amounts of real estate taxes than is shown in the M&P Analysis may be due with respect to the Property.

Real estate taxes paid by Sponsor are one of the items to be adjusted between Sponsor and each Purchaser at the Closing of each Unit. In addition, at Closing, each Purchaser will be required to deposit with Sponsor a sum equal to the estimated real estate taxes attributable to his Unit for the period of six months following the next tax period. The Sponsor shall utilize such fund to pay the real estate taxes against the Property, until such time as each Unit is separately assessed. See the Section entitled "Unit Closing Costs and Adjustments" in Part I of this Plan for further discussion.

Review of Real Estate Tax Assessments

Individual Unit Owners shall have the right, at their sole cost and expense, to review the real estate tax assessments of their Units and, if they so desire, to take any steps necessary to review and/or challenge such assessments. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if proceedings are pending for the reduction of real estate taxes on the Land and Building for the tax year in which the First Unit Closing occurs, the Condominium will continue such proceedings with the attorney previously employed by the Sponsor. Sponsor shall have the sole right to negotiate and settle all claims in connection with said proceedings. The cost of such proceedings, including legal fees, and (in the event taxes are reduced) any refund shall be apportioned between the Sponsor and the respective Unit Owners according to the ownership of the Property during respective portions of the tax year. Any refund covering a period prior to the First Unit Closing and all expenses incurred in connection with the obtaining such refund, shall belong to and be incurred by the Sponsor alone.

Section 2.2.2.2(s) of the By-Laws provides that the Board is entitled to execute and deliver documents necessary in connection with proceedings to obtain reduced real estate tax assessments with respect Unit Owners, for the benefit and on behalf of (i) all Unit Owners, or (ii) for individual Unit Owners, provided that each such Unit Owner indemnifies the Board from and against all claims, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees) resulting from such proceedings.

INCOME TAX DEDUCTIONS TO UNIT OWNERS AND TAX STATUS OF THE CONDOMINIUM

A Unit Owner will own his or her Unit and its appurtenant Common Elements in fee simple absolute and each Unit will be a separate tax lot for purposes of New York City real estate taxes and assessments. Since each Unit Owner owns his or her Unit in fee simple absolute, he or she may mortgage his or her Unit and become individually liable for the payment of the principal and any finance charges or interest on such mortgage indebtedness.

As fully set forth in the tax opinion of Seiden & Schein, P.C. counsel to the Sponsor, found in Part I of this Plan (the "Tax Opinion"), under present law, a Unit Owner will, for Federal income tax purposes, be entitled to a deduction for mortgage interest and real estate taxes in the year paid or accrued under Sections 163 and 164.* These deductions are subject, however, to certain exceptions and limitations that are more particularly discussed in the Tax Opinion. These deductions may also affect an individual Unit Owner's liability for the alternative minimum Federal income tax. Each individual Unit Owner will, for New York State and New York City income tax purposes, be entitled to similar deductions for the mortgage interest and real estate taxes paid or accrued during the taxable year. Such deductions may also affect his or her New York City minimum tax liability.

Once the Building is converted to condominium ownership, the affairs of the Condominium will be governed by a Condominium Board. Common Charges will be borne by all Unit Owners and assessed and collected by the Condominium Board. Under present law, the exact tax status of the Condominium Board is uncertain and no opinion has been rendered with respect to it. The Federal income tax consequences to the Condominium Board with respect to the receipt of the Common Charges and of the expenditure of Condominium funds will depend on whether the Condominium Board:

(i) is treated as a conduit,

(ii) qualifies and elects to be taxed under Section 528, or

(iii) is treated as a corporation.

If the Condominium Board is treated as a conduit, it will not be subject to tax. Rather, items of income, expenses, credits and deductions will be attributed to each Unit Owner in proportion to his Common Charges. Thus, for example, interest earned on funds reported by the Condominium Board would be taxed to the Unit Owners. There appear to be no judicial precedents directly supporting such treatment, and the position of the Internal Revenue Service (the "Service"), which is described more fully below, appears to be that a condominium management association is an association taxable as a corporation.

* All section references are to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code") unless otherwise indicated.

If it satisfies the requirements of Section 528, the Condominium Board may elect to be exempt from Federal income tax on the Common Charges. Generally, those requirements are:

(i) The condominium management association must be organized and operated solely to provide for the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance, and care of association property;

(ii) Sixty percent (60%) or more of the gross income of the condominium management association must consist of assessments from residential unit owners ("Exempt Function Income");

(iii) Ninety percent (90%) of the expenditures of the condominium management association must be for the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance, and care of the condominium management association's property;

(iv) No part of the net earnings can inure to the benefit of private individuals other than by the acquisition, construction, management, or maintenance of the condominium management association's property or by rebates of excess assessments; and

(v) Substantially all of the units must be used as residences.

Under the Treasury regulations issued pursuant to Section 528, a condominium management association must qualify annually for the election under Section 528, and additionally, it must make a separate election for each taxable year. Accordingly, the ability of the Condominium Board to elect the benefits of Section 528 will depend on the particular facts and circumstances prevailing in the taxable year at issue. It appears that the aforementioned requirements will be met for a Section 528 election for at least the first year of operation.

A condominium management association meeting the requirements of Section 528 and electing to be exempt from Federal income tax on Exempt Function Income would be taxable at a rate of 30% on the amount by which its other income exceeds the amount of allowable deductions that are directly connected with the production of such income. Such an association, however, would not be allowed certain deductions that are available to corporations that are not taxable under Section 528.

If the Condominium Board either cannot qualify or chooses not to elect the benefits of Section 528, certain published rulings of the Service implicitly state that a condominium management association will be treated as an association taxable as a corporation. Consequently, unless a valid election pursuant to Section 528 has been made, it appears that the Condominium Board would be taxable on that portion of the Common Charges which exceeds the deductible expenses paid or incurred by the Condominium Board for the operation of the Condominium property. The Condominium would also be taxable on income derived from the interim investment of the Common Charges, on income from nonresidential leases of Common Elements, and on income from the operation of facilities that are available to outsiders, net of deductible expenses related to the production of such income.

If the Condominium is treated as a corporation for Federal income tax purposes, the Condominium Board might still contend that a portion of the Common Charges that it receives should not be included in its gross income. For example, published rulings of the Service indicate that assessments collected by a condominium management association and expressly designated for use for specified capital improvements that are owned in common, and which are not commingled with funds collected for operating expenses or as contingency reserves, should not be included in the gross income of a condominium management association. No part of such an assessment may, however, be expended by the condominium management association for the benefit of an individual owner.

In addition, in connection with assessments for ordinary operating expenses, such as the Common Charges, a condominium management association may not have any taxable income if the expenses of the condominium management association with respect to managing, operating, and replacing the common elements of the Condominium either equal the assessment or any excess amount is annually returned to unit owners or applied to the next year's assessment. Based on the facts in existence at the present time, it appears that the Condominium Board is unlikely to have a substantial amount of income other than the Common Charges.

If Section 528 is not applicable, moreover, the Service has noted that a condominium management association may be eligible for the tax treatment afforded to certain cooperatives under Subchapter T of the Code. However, there is very little guidance with respect to the applicability of these provisions to an association managing residential condominium units since generally only farming cooperatives avail themselves of these provisions.

If the Condominium Board makes additional assessments to cover the amounts of any Federal, New York State, or New York City tax liability incurred, such additional assessments may also be taxable to the Condominium.

The foregoing summary is for informational purposes only and Sponsor's counsel expresses no opinion with respect to the likelihood of which method of taxation will be applied to the Condominium.

IRS Circular 230 Disclosure: In May 2005 the U.S. Treasury Department amended the regulations known as "Circular 230," which, among other things, set forth rules and standards with respect to the rendering of Federal tax advice. In general, the amended rules require such Federal tax advice to include a certain level of detail and discussion and to satisfy certain other requirements, unless the advice meets certain exceptions or is accompanied by a disclosure of certain limitations of the advice. In compliance with Circular 230, the following disclosure sets forth these limitations. Specifically, taxpayers are hereby informed that (i) this Offering Plan was not intended or written to be used, and it cannot be used, by any taxpayer, for the purpose of avoiding penalties that may be imposed on the taxpayer by the IRS; (ii) this Offering Plan was written to support the promotion or marketing of the transactions(s) or matter(s) addressed in this Offering Plan; (iii) the taxpayer should seek advice based on taxpayer's particular circumstances from an independent tax adviser.

RE: Condominium Offering Plan ("the Plan") for 91 Leonard Street, New York, New York

Gentlemen:

You have requested our opinion concerning (i) the availability of certain deductions for Federal, New York State and New York City income tax purposes (but not for purposes of the New York City earnings tax on nonresidents) to persons who purchase Units for private residential use ("Unit Owners") under the Plan and (ii) the proper treatment by the Condominium Board for such income tax purposes of the Common Charges paid or borne by all Unit Owners. Except where otherwise indicated herein, the terms used in this opinion have the same meanings as in the Plan.

In this connection, we have reviewed the Plan, relevant sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 ("Code"), the New York State Tax Law, the New York City Administrative Code, the Regulations promulgated thereunder and such other materials as we deemed relevant, and we have assumed that the first closing under the Plan will occur in 2019.

I. Deductions for Mortgage Interest and Real Estate Taxes

A Unit Owner will own his Unit and its Appurtenant Interest in the Common Elements in fee simple absolute. Accordingly, each Unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes and the Unit Owner will be individually liable for the payment of such real estate taxes. A Unit Owner, per terms of the Offering Plan, may also mortgage such Unit(s) and become individually liable for the payment of any finance charges or interest on such mortgage indebtedness.

In our opinion, a non-corporate Unit Owner who itemizes his deductions will be entitled to a deduction in computing his taxable income for Federal income tax purposes for bona fide mortgage interest incurred with respect to his Unit in the year paid or accrued provided that, up to the aggregate amount of $1,000,000.00 for all qualifying mortgages on all qualifying Units, A) the mortgage does not exceed the lesser of (i) the Owner's original basis in his Unit plus the cost of improvements, if any, or (ii) the fair market value of the Unit and B) his Unit is a "qualified residence." A Unit will be a "qualified residence" if it is either (i) the Owner's "principal residence" as that term is defined by Section 1034 or (ii) a residence as defined by Section 280A(d)(1) and the Owner selects it as a qualified residence. Thus, a single taxpayer or a married couple filing a joint return may have two, and only two, qualified residences. In the case of a married couple filing separate returns, each taxpayer may take into account a single "qualified residence," unless by written agreement they consent to one of them taking into account a principal residence and one other residence. Under Section 461(g) of the Code, no deduction will be allowed to a cash basis taxpayer in the year of payment for prepaid interest (other than points paid in certain cases).

In our opinion, a Unit Owner whose Unit is used by him for residential purposes will, for Federal income tax purposes, be entitled to a deduction for real estate taxes incurred with respect to his Unit in the year paid or accrued under Section 164 of the Code.

It is also our opinion that each Unit Owner whose Unit is used in an active profession and/or trade or business, other than the rental of such Unit, in which the Unit Owner materially participates, will, for Federal income tax purposes, be entitled to a deduction for real estate taxes incurred with respect to his Unit in the year paid or accrued under Section 164 of the Code.

Other rules are applicable to a Unit Owner if the Unit is to be used in a trade or business or is to be held for rental. In these cases, the Tax Reform Act of 1986 will have broad impact, and no opinion is offered as to the consequences to such a Unit Owner.

It is also our opinion that each Unit Owner will, for New York State and New York City income tax purposes, be entitled to the same deduction which is allowed for Federal income tax purposes for the mortgage interest and real estate taxes paid or accrued during the taxable year. Section 615 of the New York State Tax Law.

It should be noted, however, that the benefit of a Unit Owner's deductions for interest and real estate taxes may be reduced if the Unit Owner is subject to the Federal alternative minimum tax, or the State or City minimum taxes (Section 55 of the Code; Sections 615 and 622 of the New York State Tax Law; Sections 11-1715 and 11-1722 of the New York City Code). In addition, it should be noted that state and local taxes, including real estate taxes, are not deductible for purposes of calculating an individual's federal alternative minimum taxable income, and that interest with respect to a "qualified residence" is generally deductible only to the extent incurred in acquiring, constructing or rehabilitating a "qualified residence" or in refinancing, without an increase in the principal amount thereof, such an indebtedness; the difference in the treatment of these and other items, for federal alternative minimum tax purposes may result in a taxpayer becoming subject to such tax even though he has no items of tax preference.

It should be noted that our opinion as to the availability of deductions to a Unit Owner with respect to mortgage interest and real estate taxes in connection with his or her Unit used in an active profession and/or trade or business, other than the rental of such unit, is based on the assumption that such owner will have "at risk," within the meaning of Section 465 of the Code, in such profession, trade or business, an amount equal to, or in excess of his losses in connection with said profession, trade or business, including such deduction.

II. Common Charges

Common Charges will be borne by the Unit Owners and assessed and collected by the Board of Managers ("Condominium Board").

Under Section 528 some Condominium Boards may be eligible to be exempt from tax on Common Charges collected from the Unit Owners, provided the requirements of Section 528 are met. Generally, these requirements are:

(i) The condominium management association must be organized and operated solely to provide for the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance and care of association property;

(ii) Sixty percent or more of the gross income of the condominium management association must consist of assessments from residential unit owners ("Exempt Function Income");

(iii) Ninety percent of the expenditures of the condominium management association must be for the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance, and care of the condominium management association's property;

(iv) No part of the net earnings can inure to the benefit of private individuals other than by the acquisition, construction, management, or maintenance of the condominium management association's property or by rebates of excess assessments; and

(v) Substantially all of the units must be used as residences.

Under the Treasury regulations issued pursuant to Section 528, a condominium management association must qualify annually for the election under Section 528, and additionally, it must make a separate election for each taxable year. Accordingly, the ability of the Condominium Board to elect the benefits of Section 528 will depend on the particular facts and circumstances prevailing in the taxable year at issue.

It appears, based upon your representations to us, that the requirements will be met as the Offering Plan is currently structured. With respect to requirement (v) above "Substantially all" is interpreted in Treasury Regulation 1.528-4(b) as meaning at least 85% of the total square footage of all units in the project. Since more than 85% of the total square footage of the units in the project will be used as residences, the "Substantially all" requirement is met.

Assuming the Condominium Board is eligible to make a Section 528 election, it would still be subject to tax on any income not received as assessments or other such payment from Unit Owners; thus, if the Condominium Board realized interest income from funds on deposit, such interest may be taxable to it.

If an election under Section 528 is not in effect for the taxable year, the tax status of the Condominium Board will be governed by the rules in effect prior to the enactment of Section 528 ("existing law").

Under existing law, the tax status of the Condominium Board is uncertain. The Bylaws provide that the Condominium Board will act as the agent of the Unit Owners. Thus, the Condominium Board may take the position that it is simply a conduit for receipts and payments of the Unit Owners for whom it acts as agent and not a separate entity. In such case, the Unit Owners would themselves be taxable on any interest or similar income which is earned from investments of the amounts which are assessed and collected from the Unit Owners and/or held as reserve funds.

However, the Internal Revenue Service may contend that for purposes of those matters administered through the Condominium Board, such as the assessment and expenditure of Common Charges, the Unit Owners through the Condominium Board, constitute an association taxable as a corporation. In such event, such association may be deemed subject to the Federal corporate income tax (and also to New York State and New York City corporate income taxes) on the portion of the Common Charges which is deemed to constitute gross income of such association, to the extent that such portion (together with any income earned from other sources, such as interim investments of funds by such association) exceeds the current expenses paid or incurred through the Condominium Board which are deductible for Federal income tax purposes.

In this connection, published rulings indicate that Common Charges which are assessed by the Condominium Board and designated for use solely to make specified capital improvements and which are maintained in a separate bank account should not constitute gross income to such Board, either because it is deemed to receive and hold such Common Charges as agent for the Unit Owners from whom the assessments were collected (Revenue Ruling 75-370, 1975 - 2 Cumulative Bulletin 25), or because the assessed Common Charges are deemed to be nontaxable contributions to the capital of the association (Revenue Ruling 75-371, 1975 - 2 Cumulative Bulletin 52, cf. Concord Village, Inc., 65 T.C. 142 (1975)). However, if treated as contributions to the capital of the association, it should be noted that when such amounts (together with any other funds accumulated by the association) are expended for capital improvements, the Internal Revenue Service may contend that the capital expenditures benefit the Unit Owners, and that each Unit Owner should therefore be treated as receiving a distribution equal to the fair market value of that benefit; under the usual rules applicable to distributions of associations, a distribution is first treated as taxable ordinary income to the extent of the distributee's proportionate share of the association's earnings and profits, then as a tax-free recovery of basis to the extent thereof, and the balance, if any, as capital gain.

In this connection, it should be noted that if the Condominium Board is determined to be a separate taxable entity for federal income tax purposes, it is possible that the limitations of Section 277 may be found to apply. If this were the case, the Condominium Board's income from sources other than Unit Owners, if any, could not be offset by the Condominium Board's expenses incurred in the provision of services to Unit Owners. It is unclear how interest or other income earned on the investment of a required reserve fund would be treated for this purpose; if such income were treated as not derived from the Unit Owners in consideration of services rendered them by the Condominium Board, then such income may not be reduced by the Condominium Board's operating expenses with respect to the property and may result in a liability for taxes.

In the event that the Condominium Board is required to pay any Federal, New York State or New York City income tax and the Condominium Board makes an additional assessment in order to meet this tax liability, it should be noted that the additional amount collected through such assessment may itself be subject to tax (see Old Colony Trust Co. v. Commission, 279 U.S. 716 (1929); Revenue Ruling 74-75, 1974 - 1 Cumulative Bulletin 19; Revenue Ruling 86-14 I.R.B. 1986-5, 33).

We express no views as to any Federal, New York State and/or New York City tax consequences or as to any aspects of the Plan other than those consequences and aspects explicitly discussed in this opinion, or as to any tax status of the Plan of a Unit under the laws of any other U.S. or foreign jurisdiction.

Thus, this opinion does not deal with tax consequences which may result from ownership of a Unit in connection with the Unit Owner's trade or business, other than set forth herein, or for purposes of investment or the production of income, or which may result to a foreign Unit Owner by reason of his foreign status. This opinion also does not deal with the tax consequences which may arise if Units or Limited Common Elements are acquired and/or leased by the Condominium Board. It is also to be noted that under certain circumstances an owner of any Unit, by virtue of such ownership, may be deemed to become a resident of New York City and that this opinion does not deal with the circumstances under which this may occur, or with the income, estate or other tax consequences that may arise therefrom. Thus, each person contemplating the purchase of a Unit is strongly advised to consult his own tax advisor as to all such tax matters (as well as with respect to the tax matters discussed in this opinion).

In our opinion, Unit Owners will be entitled to income tax deductions. However, this opinion is not a guarantee; it is based on existing rules of law applied to the facts and documents referred to above. No assurances can be given that the tax laws upon which counsel base this opinion will not change. In no event will the Sponsor, the Sponsor's counsel, the Board of Managers of the Condominium or any other person be liable if there are changes in the facts on which counsel relied in issuing this opinion or if there are changes in the applicable statutes, regulations, decisional law or rulings of the Internal Revenue Service on which counsel relied which cause Unit Owners not to be entitled to income tax deductions.

We hereby authorize the use of this opinion, or a reproduction thereof, in the Plan.

IRS Circular 230 Disclosure: In May 2005 the U.S. Treasury Department amended the regulations known as "Circular 230," which, among other things, set forth rules and standards with respect to the rendering of Federal tax advice. In general, the amended rules require such Federal tax advice to include a certain level of detail and discussion and to satisfy certain other requirements, unless the advice meets certain exceptions or is accompanied by a disclosure of certain limitations of the advice. In compliance with Circular 230, the following disclosure sets forth these limitations. Specifically, taxpayers are hereby informed that (i) this Offering Plan was not intended or written to be used, and it cannot be used, by any taxpayer, for the purpose of avoiding penalties that may be imposed on the taxpayer by the IRS; (ii) this Offering Plan was written to support the promotion or marketing of the transactions(s) or matter(s) addressed in this Offering Plan; (iii) the taxpayer should seek advice based on taxpayer's particular circumstances from an independent tax adviser.

Very truly yours,
SEIDEN & SCHEIN, P.C.

RESERVE FUND

A reserve fund for major capital improvements is being established for the first year of Condominium operation through the collection of Common Charges during the first year of Condominium operation. See Schedule B to this Plan. The Board of Managers, subject to certain restrictions contained in the By-Laws, may, in its discretion, decide in future years to increase, decrease or eliminate the budget line item for the reserve fund, in its sole discretion, or impose a Special Assessment for reserve fund contributions from Unit Owners.

WORKING CAPITAL FUND AND APPORTIONMENTS

Each Purchaser of a Unit shall be required at the Closing of such Unit to make a contribution to the working capital fund of the Condominium (the "Working Capital Fund"). Such contribution shall be in an amount equal to two (2) month's Common Charges in effect for such Unit(s).

At the First Unit Closing, Sponsor will apportion with the Board the following items as of midnight of the date preceding said Closing:

(1) employees' wages, vacation and severance pay, pension and welfare benefits and accruals, uniforms and all other payments or obligations relative to the employees of the Building;

(2) deposits with utility companies, if any, and fees for assignable permits and licenses, if any;

(3) charges for electricity and other utilities for the Common Elements and the Limited Common Elements;

(4) cost of fuel on hand (plus sales tax), if any;

(5) charges and receipts in connection with service, maintenance and concession contracts;

(6) water charges and sewer rents on the basis of the fiscal or calendar year for which assessed (unless separately assessed to individual Units);

(7) cost of Building supplies on hand at Sponsor's cost (including sales tax);

(8) premiums for transferable insurance policies; if any;

(9) management fees; and

(10) other customary adjustments.

If any of the foregoing items to be apportioned cannot be adjusted at the First Unit Closing because they are not fully ascertainable, they shall be apportioned and adjusted to the extent reasonably possible at the First Unit Closing, and final adjustment will be made as soon thereafter as the undetermined amounts are ascertained. Except as herein otherwise expressly provided, the customs in respect to title closings adopted by the Real Estate Board of New York, Inc., as amended, shall apply to apportionments and other matters herein mentioned.

The Working Capital Fund will be held and used for working capital, or such other appropriate purposes as will be determined by the Board and may be augmented by allocations from the monthly Common Charges collected from each Unit. While Sponsor controls the Board (see the Section entitled "Control By Sponsor" in Part I of this Plan), the Working Capital Fund will not be used to reduce estimated Common Charges attributable to Unsold Units.

The Board will be able to utilize the money in the Working Capital Fund at any time and, accordingly, no representation or warranty can be made and no assurance can be given as to the exact amount of funds available at any specific time. However, in no event shall any portion of the Working Capital Fund be used to pay any Common Charges or Common Charges attributable to Unsold Units.

In the event that capital expenditures for renewal or replacement of Building components or systems or to remedy major building defects are needed, it may be necessary to increase Common Charges or make special assessments payable by Unit Owners who are responsible for the repair and replacement of the Common Element in need of such renewal, replacement or remedy. Alternatively, the Board may determine to seek financing from a bank or other lending institution for such expenditures in accordance with the terms of the By-Laws and subject, in certain instances, to Unit Owner approval. In addition, pursuant to the By-Laws each Board is entitled to determine amounts for a reserve for replacements in establishing the annual budgets.

When the Condominium initially commences operation, it may be necessary for the Sponsor to advance funds for the purchase of certain equipment, tools and other essential items and/or to pre-pay certain expenses such as, but not limited to, insurance. In the event that Sponsor advances any monies for the initial operation of the Condominium, the Sponsor shall be reimbursed by the Condominium within twelve (12) months of the first day of Condominium operation pursuant to a note that will be signed by both Sponsor and the Board of Managers. As of the Filing Date, it is not possible to estimate the amount of the note. If the Condominium does not have sufficient funds to timely reimburse Sponsor, it may be necessary to impose a special assessment on each Unit Owner.

NO REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY IS MADE THAT THE WORKING CAPITAL FUND WILL BE, OR IS INTENDED TO BE, ADEQUATE TO COVER CURRENT OR FUTURE EXPENSES, FOR THE FIRST OR ANY SUBSEQUENT YEAR OF CONDOMINIUM OPERATION. NEITHER THE DEPARTMENT OF LAW NOR ANY OTHER GOVERNMENT AGENCY HAS PASSED UPON THE ADEQUACY OF THE WORKING CAPITAL FUND.

MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT AND CONTRACTS

Management Agreement

At or prior to the First Unit Closing, the Condominium Board will enter into a management agreement with a managing company to manage the Condominium (the "Managing Agent"). Sponsor has received a proposal from Century Management Services, Inc. located at 440 Ninth Avenue, Suite 1500, New York, New York 10001 ("Century"), to be the Managing Agent. However, Sponsor reserves the right to substitute another Managing Agent for Century prior to the First Unit Closing on substantially the same terms as proposed by Century. During the initial term of the management agreement with Century (the "Management Agreement"), the Managing Agent will receive a stated annual fee of $73,200.00, to be paid in advance in equal monthly installments on the first day of each month. After forty-five (45) days following the commencement date of the Management Agreement either the Condominium Board or the Managing Agent may cancel the Management Agreement by notice to the other party on no less than thirty (30) days in advance notice.

The Management Agreement shall be binding on the Board and the Managing Agent and their successors and assigns. The Management Agreement may be assigned by the Managing Agent and, provided assignee assumes all of the obligations of the Managing Agent, effective upon such assignment, the Century shall be relieved of all further obligations.

The Condominium Board will indemnify the Managing Agent against any claims or liabilities in connection with acts properly performed by it pursuant to the instructions of the Condominium Board or for personal injury or property damage not resulting from the Managing Agent's gross negligence or willful failure to comply with its obligations under the Management Agreement.

All expenses incurred by the Managing Agent in performance of its duties will be reimbursed by the Condominium Board and charged to the Unit Owners as a Common Expense. Any payments made by the Managing Agent shall be made out of such funds as the Managing Agent may from time to time hold for the account of the Condominium, or as may be provided by the Condominium.

The duties and services to be rendered by the Managing Agent include, among others:

1. Manage the payroll, and hire, discharge, and supervise Building employees as necessary;

2. Cause the Building to be maintained in such condition as may be advisable by the Board;

3. Procure and enter into service contracts on behalf of the Board;

4. Purchase supplies which shall be necessary to properly maintain and operate the Building;

5. Advise the Board with respect to proper insurance coverage of the Building and, if requested by the Board, cause to be procured and maintained such insurance coverage. Managing Agent shall require that any subcontractor or independent contractor brought into the Building have adequate insurance coverage as required and approved by the Board.

6. Check all bills received for services, work, and supplies ordered in connection with maintaining and operating the building, and pay or cause to be paid from funds of the Condominium, all such bills, water charges, sewer rent, assessments, and income, and other taxes assessed against the Condominium or the building as and when the same shall become due and payable;

7. If requested by the Board, list and offer for sale, lease or sublease through its own organization and, if the Board shall deem it advisable, through other brokers, space reserved, acquired, or reacquired by the Board, and use its best efforts to effect sales, leases or subleases thereof, and to renew leases and subleases of space reserved, acquired, or re-acquired by the Board, including supervision of the preparation and execution of lease and sublease documents by the Board's attorneys. For services in connection with any such transaction, Agent shall be entitled to a full commission at rates then generally prevailing in Manhattan for similar rentals or such other commission as is mutually agreed between the Board and Agent;

8. Process Unit Owner alteration applications for a charge to the Unit Owner;

9. Supervise the moving in and out of Unit Owners, tenants, and subtenants;

10. Billing and collecting of monthly Common Charges and Special Assessments from Unit Owners;

11. Consider and attend to the reasonable complaints of Unit Owners, tenants, and subtenants;

12. Cause to be rendered regular monthly statements supported by disbursement vouchers;

13. Accurately maintain the books and records of the Condominium;

14. Cooperate with the Condominium's accountants in regard to the annual audit of the books of account of the Condominium, and the preparation and filing of federal, state, and city tax returns;

15. Cooperation with the Condominium's accountants in the preparation and submission to the Board of an annual operating budget;

16. Send notices to the Board and Unit Owners, prepare agendas for, and attend meetings of the Board and Unit Owners;

17. Prepare and send out all letters and reports as the Board may reasonably request;

18. Annually, inform the Board of the tentatively assessed valuation of the Building and Land by the City of New York, and cooperate with the Board's attorneys in the preparation of an application for correction of the assessed valuation;

19. If requested, coordinate and assist in the processing of insurance claims for losses sustained to the Building;

20. Collate the utility and common bills and confirm payment on the same;

21. Do all things reasonably deemed necessary or desirable by the Board for the proper management of the Condominium.

During the time Sponsor is in control of the Board of Managers, Sponsor reserves the right to designate any other reputable managing agent to perform the duties and services to be performed by the Managing Agent on terms substantially similar to the terms specified above and will amend this Plan to disclose same.

Service Contracts

As of the Filing Date, there are no service contracts that bind the Condominium. In the event, the Board of Managers enters into any binding contracts prior to the First Unit Closing, the Offering Plan shall be amended.

DOCUMENTS ON FILE

Copies of this Plan and all exhibits or documents referred to herein shall be available for inspection for no charge, and for copying at reasonable charge, by prospective Purchasers and by any person who shall have purchased a Unit offered under this Plan, or shall have participated in the offering of such Unit, at the office of Sponsor during convenient weekday hours, and shall remain available for such inspection for a period of six years from the date of the First Unit Closing. Sponsor shall, within 180 days after the First Unit Closing, deliver to the Condominium Board a copy of all documents filed with the appropriate recording office. The Plan may also be borrowed by a prospective Purchaser from the Sponsor upon payment of a one hundred dollar ($100.00) deposit, which amount will be fully refunded upon the execution of a Purchase Agreement that has been subsequently accepted by Sponsor or upon return of the Plan in good condition.

GENERAL

This Plan does not knowingly omit any material fact or knowingly contain any untrue statement of a material fact. This Plan does not contain a full summary of all the provisions of the various documents referred to herein. Statements made as to the provisions of such documents are qualified in all respects by the contents of such documents and, in the case of any such documents executed by or with the written consent of a Purchaser pursuant to this Plan, any rider or separate agreement changing or adding provisions to such document.

As of the Filing Date, there were no lawsuits or other legal proceedings pending or any judgments outstanding that could materially affect this offering, the Purchasers of Units, the Property, the Condominium or the operation thereof, or the Sponsor's capacity to perform all its obligations under the Plan.

To the best of Sponsor's knowledge, the Property has not been the subject of any prior public offering. As of the acceptance date of this Offering, Sponsor has not entered into any preliminary binding agreements and has not collected any money from prospective Purchasers for the sale of Units in the Building. The Sponsor has previously tested the market pursuant to Cooperative Policy Statement No. 1.

In accordance with the provisions of the laws of the State and City of New York, neither Sponsor nor any Selling Agent engaged by Sponsor will discriminate against any person because of gender, sexual orientation, race, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, disability, marital status, age, religion or other ground proscribed by law in the sale of Units offered by Sponsor pursuant to this Plan, or in the leasing of any such Units or any other portion of the Building.

Sponsor reserves the right to revise, from time to time, the terms and conditions upon which Units are to be sold and to otherwise revise this Plan, including revisions affecting the rights, obligations and liabilities of Sponsor, Purchasers or prospective Purchasers, without obtaining the consent of Purchasers or others. However, Sponsor may neither unilaterally cancel an outstanding Purchase Agreement, except as therein provided (such as in case of an uncured default), nor unilaterally change the purchase price or the payment terms contained in such Purchase Agreement. All substantive or material revisions to the offering will be contained in a duly filed amendment to this Plan. In the case of a material revision adversely affecting the rights, obligations or liabilities of then existing Purchasers or reducing the undertakings or obligations of Sponsor, such Purchasers will be given, for fifteen (15) days after the presentation of the amendment, a right to rescind their Purchase Agreements by written notice to Sponsor and be refunded their deposits paid thereunder, with any interest earned thereon. However, as to a Purchaser who first became an interim tenant of the Building after the acceptance date of this Plan pursuant to a Purchase Agreement, such rescission will be conditioned on the cancellation of any interim use and occupancy agreement and surrender of possession of his Unit within thirty (30) days thereafter.

All statements and representations made in this Plan with respect to items prepared by others such as the Section entitled "Sponsor's Statement of Building Condition" in Part I of this Plan and the Floor Plans of the Building, have been made in reliance upon the respective firms and their authority as experts.

As of the date that this Offering Plan has been accepted for filing by the New York State Department of Law, no contracts or agreements were entered into and no deposits or advances of funds for the purchase of any Units were accepted by Sponsor.

Unless the context otherwise requires, words used in the singular in Part I of this Plan include the plural and vice versa, and a reference to any one gender, masculine, feminine, or neuter, includes the other two.

No person has been authorized to make any statement or representation or furnish any information not expressly contained herein. Any information, data, or representations not contained herein or in the documents and exhibits referred to herein must not be relied upon. The Plan may not be changed or modified orally.

Sponsor is not reserving the right to add floor area to the Building, except as is necessary to complete the Units being offered hereunder.

Sponsor represents that, to the best of its knowledge, the Description of Property and Specifications set forth in Part II of this Plan, prepared by K Square Designs, Architecture P.C., registered architects in the State of New York, accurately states the description of the Property and its specifications, as it will be built upon the plans that it has examined.

Statement of Seller

353-357 Broadway LLC, a New York limited liability company, having an office at 75 Broad Street, 21st Floor, New York, New York 10004 ("Seller"), has promulgated a Plan of Condominium Ownership for The 91 Leonard Street Condominium, located at 91 Leonard Street, New York, New York (the "Plan") pursuant to which the land, the appurtenances and the Units (the "Units") located in the County, City, and State of New York, will be declared to be a condominium under the provisions of Article 9-B of the Real Property Law of the State of New York on the terms and conditions more particularly set forth in the Plan.

Statement of Purchaser

Purchaser acknowledges as follows:

A. Purchaser acknowledges having received and read the Plan and all amendments thereto, if any, filed with the Department of Law of the State of New York (the Plan, together with all such filed amendments, if any, are hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Offering Plan") at least three (3) business days prior to Purchaser's signing this Agreement. Purchaser understands that if Purchaser has not been afforded at least three (3) business days prior to Purchaser's signing this Agreement to receive and read the Offering Plan, then in such event, Purchaser shall have seven (7) days after delivering this Agreement together with the Down Payment to rescind this Agreement and have the Down Payment refunded promptly by either personally delivering a written notice of rescission to Seller or Selling Agent with the seven (7) day period or mailing the notice of rescission to Seller or the Selling Agent and having the mailing postmarked within the seven (7) day period. The Offering Plan is incorporated herein by reference and made a part hereof with the same force and effect as if set forth at length. In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of this Agreement and the Offering Plan, the provisions of the Offering Plan will govern and be binding.

B. Purchaser has been given an opportunity to examine the architectural plans for the above numbered Unit and for the building in which it is located (the "Building").

C. The Offering Plan, which includes the Declaration to be made by the Seller which is to be recorded in the Office of the Register of the City of New York, County of New York, and the schedules, the By-Laws and Rules and Regulations attached thereto, are incorporated herein by reference and made part of this Purchase Agreement with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

D. Purchaser is desirous of purchasing the above-numbered Unit(s), as designated in the Declaration and on the floor plans filed or to be filed in the aforesaid Register's Office, together with an undivided interest in the Common Elements appurtenant thereto as set forth in the Offering Plan (the above-numbered Unit and the undivided interest being hereinafter collectively called the "Unit" or "Units", as the case may be).

Agreement Between Seller and Purchaser

For good and valuable consideration, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, Seller and Purchaser mutually agree as follows:

1. Payment for Unit. (a) Seller hereby agrees to sell and convey, and Purchaser hereby agrees to purchase, the Unit for the Purchase Price stated above. The Down Payment(s) stated above has been made on the signing of this Purchase Agreement, receipt of which by check subject to collection is hereby acknowledged by Seller. In the event that the Down Payment check is dishonored, this Purchase Agreement shall be deemed to be terminated, and Seller shall have the right to pursue all rights and remedies available to it by law or equity. In the event that Purchaser is purchasing a Residential Unit and a Storage Unit, or more than one Residential Unit, the term "Unit" shall be deemed to be "Units" throughout this Purchase Agreement.

(b) The Balance Due at Closing, as modified or adjusted by any rider to this Purchase Agreement, shall be payable at the Closing (as hereinafter defined in Paragraph 2) by unendorsed certified or official bank check of Purchaser, or Purchaser's lender, drawn on a bank or trust company which is a member of the New York Clearing House Association (or any successor organization) to the order of Seller or as otherwise directed by Seller.

2. Closing of Title.

2.1 The closing of title to the Unit (the "Closing") shall take place on no less than thirty (30) days prior written notice to Purchaser at such place as Seller may designate, at an hour and on a date (hereinafter called the "Closing Date") to be specified by Seller. If Seller consents to close at any other location as an accommodation to Purchaser, Purchaser shall pay an extra fee to Seller's attorney as set forth in Paragraph 6 hereof. Seller shall have the right, from time to time, to adjourn the Closing Date on written notice to Purchaser. If adjourned, Seller shall fix a new date and time for the Closing and shall give Purchaser not less than five (5) days written notice of the newly scheduled Closing Date. In addition to any other rights Seller may have by reason of Purchaser's failure to timely close title when requested, Seller shall be reimbursed by Purchaser for the cost of any real estate taxes and Common Charges which Seller would not otherwise have had to pay if there had been no unauthorized delay in closing of title by Purchaser.

2.2 The Closing shall occur only after or concurrently with the prerequisites as set forth under the Section entitled "Terms of Sale" in Part I of the Offering Plan.

2.3 At the Closing, Seller shall deliver to Purchaser, or direct the delivery to Purchaser of, a bargain and sale deed, with covenant against grantor's acts, conveying the Unit to Purchaser, such deed to be substantially in the form contained in Part II of the Offering Plan, executed and acknowledged by Seller or as directed by Seller in form for recording.

3. Power of Attorney to Board of Managers. At the Closing and simultaneously with the delivery to Purchaser of the deed conveying the Unit, Purchaser shall execute and acknowledge the power of attorney to the Board of Managers substantially in the form contained in Part II of the Offering Plan. Purchaser agrees to deliver such power of attorney to Seller or as directed by Seller at the closing of title for recording and to pay the recording fee.

4. Binding Effect of Declaration, Bylaws, Offering Plan, Rules and Regulations. Purchaser hereby agrees to be bound by the Declaration, the By-Laws, the Rules and Regulations, and the Offering Plan. The provisions of this Section 4 shall survive the Closing.

5. Condition of Title. Seller shall give and Purchaser accept such title to the Unit, as Fidelity National Title Insurance Company or any other reputable title insurance company licensed to do business in the State of New York will be willing to insure in accordance with its standard form of title policy which has been approved by the New York State Insurance Department, in fee simple, without exceptions for any liens and encumbrances other than those set forth in the Offering Plan, specifically in Part I thereof in the section entitled "Terms of Sale," and any mortgages obtained by Purchaser.

Notwithstanding the above, the existence of unpaid taxes or liens and encumbrances of any kind at the time of Closing shall not constitute an objection to title, provided that Fidelity National Title Insurance Company, as agent, or another reputable title insurer licensed to do business in the State of New York shall be willing to insure against collection of same from the Unit herein described. The parties agree that Seller may pay and discharge any liens and encumbrances upon the Property, not provided for in the Offering Plan or this Purchase Agreement, out of the monies to be paid by Purchaser at the time of closing title.

6. Expenses of Closing and Closing Adjustments.

6.1 At Closing, Purchaser will pay the Closing costs and expenses referred to in the section of the Offering Plan (as same may be amended to date) titled "Unit Closing Costs and Adjustments," which costs and expenses include, but are not limited to, the amount of any credit for mortgage recording tax as set forth in such section, payment for title insurance, if Purchaser elects or is required by its lender to obtain same, recording fees for recording the Deed and Power of Attorney, New York City Real Property Transfer Tax, New York State Transfer Tax, transfer tax on Units which are $1,000,000.00 or more in price, Seller's attorney's fees for closing the Unit, and, if Purchaser obtains a mortgage loan, the costs associated with obtaining such mortgage loan. The legal fees of Seller's attorneys in the amount of $2,850.00, will be payable by Purchaser to Seiden & Schein, P.C., provided that an additional fee of $500.00 per Closing shall be due and payable for any Unit closing which occurs in a location other than in the office of Seller's attorneys. An additional sum of $350.00 shall be payable by Purchaser to Seller's attorneys for services rendered in connection with the review and clearing of title. An additional fee of $500.00 shall be due and payable to Seller's attorneys for any previously scheduled Unit Closing which is adjourned by Purchaser less than five (5) business days before such Unit Closing is scheduled to occur. A further fee of $500.00 shall be payable by Purchaser to Seller's attorneys for the work involved for each assignment of a Purchase Agreement that is permitted by Seller. Assignments are permitted only pursuant to the terms of the Offering Plan. Any fees payable to Seller's attorney by Purchaser will be paid by certified check or official bank check drawn on a bank or trust company which is which is a member of the New York Clearing House Association or any successor organization. At Closing, Purchaser will also pay to the Board of Managers a sum equal to two (2) months of Common Charges then in effect for the Unit being purchased as a contribution toward the Working Capital Fund of the Condominium.

6.2 Except as otherwise provided in this Purchase Agreement or in the Offering Plan, real estate taxes and Common Charges and expenses shall be adjusted between Seller and Purchaser as of midnight preceding the Closing Date in accordance with the provisions of the Offering Plan. Any such expenses or adjustments payable to Seller in excess of $500.00 will be paid by unendorsed certified check or official bank check drawn on a bank or trust company which is a member of the New York Clearing House Association (or any successor organization). This paragraph shall survive the Closing.

6.3 If Seller obtains a refund for real estate taxes paid (or a credit for such taxes to be paid) on the Unit, Purchaser and Seller will apportion the refund (as well as the costs and/or fees for obtaining the refund or credit) based on the percentage of time for which the refund or credit is obtained during which each party hereto owned the Unit in question. The provisions of this subsection shall survive the Closing.

6.4 Any errors or omissions in computing apportionments at Closing shall be corrected and payment made to the proper party promptly after discovery. The provisions of this subsection shall survive the Closing.

7. Purchase Agreement Subject to Mortgages. Purchaser agrees that all terms and provisions of this Purchase Agreement are and shall be subject and subordinate to the lien of any mortgage(s) heretofore or hereafter made and any advances heretofore or hereafter made thereon and any payments or expenses already made or incurred or which may hereafter be made or incurred, pursuant to the terms thereof, or incidental thereto, or to protect the security thereof, to the full extent thereof without the execution of any further legal documents by Purchaser. This subordination shall apply whether such advances are voluntary or involuntary and whether made in accordance with the loan schedule of payments or accelerated thereunder by virtue of lender's right to make advances before they become due in accordance with the schedule of payments. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Paragraph 7, however, as of the conclusion of the Closing the only mortgage(s) to which the Unit will be subject to a title exception will be the mortgage(s) obtained by Purchaser.

8. Mortgage Application.

8.1 A Purchaser who desires mortgage financing shall in good faith make a truthful and complete loan application to TBI Mortgage Company ("TBI"), 250 Gibraltar Road, Horsham, Pennsylvania, 19044, (Telephone: 1-866-327-8173) at no cost to Purchaser within fourteen (14) days of Purchaser's execution of this Purchase Agreement ("Mortgage Application Period"), under the conditions herein stated. Purchaser may also submit an application, at Purchaser's own expense, to any mortgage lender of Purchaser's choosing within the Mortgage Application Period. If Purchaser chooses to apply to a lender other than TBI, Purchaser shall, within the Mortgage Application Period, complete and return to Seller the Request for Lender Information form attached as Exhibit A to this Purchase Agreement.

8.2 Purchaser shall furnish, within five (5) days of any request, all information required by any lender. Purchaser agrees immediately to send Seller copies of any notice from Purchaser's lender(s) rejecting Purchaser's loan application(s). If Purchaser is not approved for a mortgage within sixty (60) days after the date of Purchaser's execution of this Purchase Agreement, Seller shall have the right (but not the obligation) to extend the mortgage application approval process until such time as: (1) Seller submits a loan application on substantially the same terms described TBI loan application to one (1) additional lender chosen by Seller, with no additional application fee to Purchaser, or (2) Seller declares this Purchase Agreement null and void in which event all sums paid on account of the Purchase Price and extras shall be returned to Purchaser with interest, if any earned thereon, and neither party shall have any further rights or liabilities hereunder.

8.3 Purchaser agrees within five (5) days of receipt (i) to accept a loan commitment from the lender that Purchaser intends to use for settlement and (ii) to mail an executed copy of the commitment to Seller. Purchaser further agrees to execute all documents and pay all fees required to consummate the mortgage transaction. SPECIAL RISKS: By accepting the loan commitment, Purchaser agrees to be responsible for and bear the risk of meeting all conditions, if any, including but not limited to, the sale of other real estate presently owned by Purchaser. Purchaser's failure to fulfill any of such conditions or the termination or expiration of the mortgage commitment after it is received, for any reason, shall not release Purchaser from its obligations under this Purchase Agreement. Purchaser shall be obligated to close title to the Unit irrespective of whether Purchaser's lender funds Purchaser's mortgage loan.

8.4 If Purchaser has no intention to seek financing from any lender, then Purchaser is required to sign the "True Cash Sale Endorsement," in the form attached to the Purchase Agreement as Exhibit B, which excuses Purchaser from the obligation to complete and return the TBI Mortgage Application. Purchaser understands and acknowledges that by signing the True Cash Sale Endorsement, Purchaser will lose the opportunity to seek financing from TBI and Purchaser's desire to purchase a Unit will be evaluated on Purchaser's present financial ability to complete the purchase without financing.

9. Default by Purchaser. If Purchaser shall fail to pay any portion of the Purchase Price when due, or shall fail to close title on the date, hour and place specified by Seller pursuant to Paragraph 2 hereof, or shall fail to perform any of Purchaser's other obligations hereunder (including, without limitation, the obligation to furnish any lender promptly with such information as such lender may require), Seller may send notice to Purchaser of Seller's intention to cancel this Purchase Agreement if such default shall not be cured within thirty (30) days from the mailing date of such notice. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE FOR PURCHASER TO CURE ANY DEFAULT UNDER THIS PURCHASE AGREEMENT WITHIN SUCH THIRTY (30) DAY PERIOD. "Time is of the essence" means that if such default is not cured within thirty (30) days from the mailing date of such written notice, Seller may (but shall not be obligated to) elect to cancel this Purchase Agreement by notice of cancellation to Purchaser sent after the cure period has expired. In the event that Seller shall elect so to cancel this Purchase Agreement, Seller shall certify to its attorneys, Seiden & Schein, P.C., that title has not closed because of Purchaser's default and that Seller has elected to cancel this Purchase Agreement by reason thereof, and Seiden & Schein, P.C., pursuant to Paragraph 16 hereunder, shall cause to have paid over to Seller, as liquidated damages, the Down Payment and the interest earned thereon (if any), and upon such payment being made, each of the parties hereto shall be relieved of any further liabilities or obligations hereunder, except as to provisions in this Purchase Agreement which specifically survive the cancellation of this Purchase Agreement. If this Purchase Agreement shall be canceled by Seller pursuant to the provisions of this Paragraph 9, Seller may sell the Unit to any third party and shall be under no obligation to account to Purchaser for any part of the proceeds of such sale. Seiden & Schein, P.C. may rely upon the truth and accuracy of the facts contained in Seller's certification and the authority of the person or persons executing the same and shall have no liability as a result of such reliance.

10. No Assignment. Purchaser shall have no right to assign this Purchase Agreement without Seller's prior written consent, which consent may be withheld or denied by Seller for any reason or no reason. Any purported assignment of this Purchase Agreement in violation thereof shall be voidable at the option of Seller.

11. Notices. Any notice to be given hereunder shall be in writing and sent by registered or certified mail, a nationally recognized private courier (such as, but not limited to United Parcel Service), or personal delivery to Purchaser at the address given above with a copy to Purchaser's attorney (named on Page 1 of this Purchase Agreement) and to Seller at 75 Broad Street, 21st Floor, New York, New York 10004 (with copy to Seiden & Schein, P.C., 570 Lexington Avenue, New York, New York 10022, Attention: Alvin Schein, Esq.) or at such other address as either party may hereafter designate to the other in writing. The date of mailing shall be deemed to be the date of the giving of notice, except that the date of actual receipt shall be deemed to be the date of the giving of any notice of change of address.

12. No Representation. Except as herein or in the Offering Plan specifically set forth, Purchaser acknowledges that he has not relied upon any architect's plans, sales plans, selling brochures, advertisements, representations, warranties or statements of any nature, whether made by Seller, Seller's attorney or Selling Agent or otherwise, including, but not limited to, any relating to the description or physical condition of the Building or the Unit, the size or the dimensions of the Unit or the rooms therein contained or any other physical characteristics thereof, the Building services, the estimated Common Charges and expenses allocable to the Unit or the right to any income tax deduction on account of any real estate taxes and/or mortgage interest paid by Purchaser. Purchaser agrees that Seller shall have no liability or responsibility to Purchaser if any such estimate of Common Charges or expenses is incorrect, or any such income tax deduction is not permitted to Purchaser, or the layout or dimensions of the Unit or any part thereof or of the Common Elements as shown on the floor plans or on the architectural plans and specifications for the Building is not accurate or correct, provided such layout or dimensions conform substantially to the floor plans and the architectural plans and specifications for the Building in accordance with the Offering Plan and that Purchaser will not be relieved from its obligations hereunder by reason of any minor inaccuracy or error. Further, Seller shall not be liable for any condition to the Unit or the Common Elements of the Building which is disclosed in the section of the Offering Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor". All of the provisions of the Offering Plan which disclaim or limit any liabilities, warranties, or other obligations of Seller are incorporated by reference into this Purchase Agreement.

13. Recording of Deed and Power of Attorney. At the Closing, Purchaser will deliver the executed deed received from Seller and executed and acknowledged power of attorney to the representative of the title company, if any, or to Seller for recording in the Office of the Register of the City of New York, County of New York. Such deed and power of attorney will be substantially in the forms for such documents which are set forth in the Offering Plan.

14. Binding Effect. This Purchase Agreement shall not be effective or binding on Seller until a counterpart hereof is executed by Seller and delivered to Purchaser. Subject to the provisions hereof, this Purchase Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto, their heirs, personal representatives, successors and assigns.

15. Purchase Agreement Subject to Offering Plan Becoming Effective; Seller's Right to Cancel. This Purchase Agreement is contingent upon the Offering Plan being declared effective. The Offering Plan may be abandoned by Seller at any time for any reason or no reason prior to its being declared effective, provided Purchase Agreements for not more than 80% of the Units have been fully executed, delivered, and accepted. If the Offering Plan is abandoned prior to becoming effective, this Purchase Agreement shall be deemed canceled, and the Offering Plan terminated, and Purchaser shall receive back, not later than twenty (20) days thereafter, in full, the Down Payment, plus any interest accrued thereon, and upon such repayment each party shall be relieved of any further liabilities and shall be released from all obligations hereunder and under the Offering Plan, except those liabilities and obligations that are herein expressly provided to survive the cancellation or termination of this Agreement.

16. Monies to be Held in Trust; Down Payments to be Secured by Surety Bonds.

16.1 The law firm of Seiden & Schein, P.C., with an address at 570 Lexington Avenue, 14th Floor, New York, New York 10022, telephone number (212) 935-1400, shall serve as escrow agent (the "Escrow Agent") for Seller and Purchaser. Escrow Agent has designated Jay G. Seiden, Esq., Alvin Schein, Esq., and Adam A. Levenson, Esq., to serve as signatories on the "Escrow Account," as defined below. Each designated signatory is admitted to practice law in the State of New York. Neither the Escrow Agent nor any authorized signatories on the account are the Seller, Selling Agent, Managing Agent, or any principal thereof, or have any beneficial interest in the Escrow Account.

16.2 Subject to Paragraph 20 hereof, Escrow Agent and all authorized signatories hereby submit to the jurisdiction of the State of New York and its courts for any cause of action arising out of this Purchase Agreement or otherwise concerning the release of the Deposit from Escrow.

16.3 The required Down Payment pursuant to this Purchase Agreement will be ten percent (10%) of the Purchase Price for the Unit. All monies, including all deposits for special work ("Special Work Deposits"), the Down Payment, or advances, received by Seller (collectively, "Deposits") through its agents or employees pursuant to this Purchase Agreement either prior to or subsequent to the consummation of the Offering Plan will be deposited by Escrow Agent in a segregated, special escrow account or accounts titled "Seiden & Schein, P.C., Attorney Escrow Account", or similar name, with the name of Purchaser and Unit number added to the title of a sub-account with MUFG Union Bank, N.A. at its branch located at 1251 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York (the "Escrow Account"). Such account or accounts shall be interest bearing if so requested by Purchaser in accordance with Section 71-a(3) of the Lien Law. The Escrow Account is not an IOLA account. The Escrow Account is federally insured by the FDIC to the maximum amount of $250,000. Such $250,000 coverage includes, in the aggregate, the Down Payment, plus any and all other deposits that Purchaser has on account at MUFG Union Bank, N.A. Any Purchaser deposits at MUFG Union Bank, N.A. (including the Down Payment) which, in the aggregate, exceed $250,000 will not be insured by the FDIC. The Down Payment will be held in trust in accordance with the escrow and trust provisions of Sections 352(h) and 352-e(2-b) of the New York General Business Law, the terms and conditions of the Offering Plan, and the Regulations promulgated pursuant to said Section 352-e(2-b) by the Attorney General's Office. Down Payments, with any accumulated interest, shall remain the property of Purchaser, except as provided by law, and as provided herein. Any Federal 1099 forms or other tax forms required to be forwarded by Escrow Agent to recipients of interest will be mailed by Escrow Agent to Purchaser (or to the designated interest-earning recipient of Purchaser, if Purchaser comprises two or more parties).

16.4 All Deposits tendered by Purchaser shall be in the form of a check which identifies Purchaser, and is made payable by Purchaser to the order of Seiden & Schein, P.C., as Escrow Agent.

16.5 Within five (5) business days after this Purchase Agreement has been tendered to Escrow Agent, along with the Deposit, Escrow Agent shall sign the Purchase Agreement and place the Deposit into the Escrow Account. Within ten (10) business days after the Deposit has been placed into the Escrow Account, Escrow Agent shall send written notice to the Purchaser and Seller, confirming the Deposit. The notice shall provide the account number and the initial interest rate to be earned on the Down Payment. The interest rate for all Down Payments made into the Escrow Account shall be the prevailing rate for such accounts. Interest shall begin to accrue upon placing the Down Payment into the Escrow Account. All interest earned thereon shall be paid to or credited to the Purchaser at closing. No fees of any kind may be deducted from the Escrow Account, and Seller shall bear all costs associated with the maintenance of the Escrow Account. Any Special Work Deposit shall be initially deposited into the Escrow Account, and released in accordance to the terms of this Purchase Agreement.

16.6 Escrow Agent shall be obligated to send notice to Purchaser once the Deposit has been placed in the Escrow Account. If Purchaser does not receive written notice of such deposit within fifteen (15) business days after tender of the executed Purchase Agreement and Deposit, he or she may cancel the Purchase Agreement within ninety (90) days after tender of the executed Purchase Agreement and Deposit to Escrow Agent. Complaints concerning the failure to honor such cancellation requests may be referred to the New York State Department of Law, Real Estate Finance Bureau, 120 Broadway, 23rd Floor, New York, New York 10271. Rescission shall not be afforded where proof satisfactory to the Attorney General is submitted establishing that the Down Payment was timely placed in the Escrow Account in accordance with the New York State Department of Law's regulations concerning deposits and requisite notice was timely mailed to the Purchaser.

16.7 All Down Payments, but not Special Work Deposits made for upgrades, extras, or custom work received in connection with this Purchase Agreement, are and shall continue to be the Purchaser's money, and may not be comingled with any other money or pledged or hypothecated by Seller, as per GBL § 352-h.

16.8 Under no circumstances shall Seller seek or accept release of the Down Payment of a defaulting Purchaser until after consummation of the Plan, as evidenced by the acceptance of a post-closing amendment by the New York State Department of Law. Consummation of the Plan does not relieve the Seller of its obligations pursuant to GBL §§ 352-e(b-2) and 352-h.

16.9 The Escrow Agent shall release the Down Payment if so directed:

(a) upon closing title to the Unit pursuant to terms and conditions set forth in this Purchase Agreement; or

(b) in a subsequent writing signed by both Seller and Purchaser; or

(c) by a final, non-appealable order or judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction; or

(d) pursuant to the terms of an award issued upon the completion of binding arbitration conducted in accordance with Paragraph 27 herein.

In the event that the Down Payment is to be released pursuant to an arbitration award pursuant to paragraph (d), above, Escrow Agent shall release such Down Payment no earlier than ninety (90) days after the delivery such award determination to Seller and Purchaser.

If the Escrow Agent is not directed to release the Down Payment pursuant to paragraphs (a) through (d) above, and the Escrow Agent receives a request by either party to release the Down Payment, then the Escrow Agent must give both the Purchaser and Seller prior written notice of not fewer than thirty (30) days after the expiration of the thirty (30) day default cure period (time being of the essence), as provided in Paragraph 9 hereof, before releasing the Down Payment (the "30 Day Escrow Notice"). If the Escrow Agent has not received notice of objection to the release of the Down Payment prior to the expiration of the 30 Day Escrow Notice, the Down Payment and shall be released to Seller as liquidated damages and the Escrow Agent shall provide further written notice to both parties informing them of said release. The disposition of the Special Work Deposit shall be determined in accordance with the rider to this Purchase Agreement [delete if there is no Special Work Deposit]. If the Escrow Agent receives a written notice from either party objecting to the release of the Down Payment within the thirty (30) day period pursuant to the 30 Day Escrow Notice, the Escrow Agent shall continue to hold the Down Payment until otherwise directed pursuant to paragraphs (a) through (d) above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Escrow Agent shall have the right at any time to deposit the Down Payment contained in the Escrow Account with the New York County Clerk and shall give written notice to both parties of such deposit.

16.10 Seller shall not object to the release of the Down Payment to:

(a) a Purchaser who timely rescinds in accordance with an offer of rescission contained in the Plan or an Amendment to the Plan; or

(b) all Purchasers after an Amendment abandoning the Plan is accepted for filing by the Department of Law.

The Department of Law may perform random reviews and audits of any records involving the Escrow Account to determine compliance with all applicable statutes and regulations.

16.11 Any provision of this Purchase Agreement or separate agreement, whether oral or in writing, by which a Purchaser purports to waive or indemnify any obligation of the Escrow Agent holding any Down Payment in trust is absolutely void. The provisions of the Attorney General's regulations and GBL §§ 352-e(2-b) and 352-h concerning escrow trust funds shall prevail over any conflicting or inconsistent provisions in the Purchase Agreement, Plan, or any amendment thereto.

16.12 Escrow Agent shall maintain the Escrow Account under its direct supervision and control.

16.13 A fiduciary relationship shall exist between Escrow Agent, and Purchaser, and Escrow Agent acknowledges its fiduciary and statutory obligations pursuant to GBL §§ 352-e and 352-h

16.14 Escrow Agent may rely upon any paper or document which may be submitted to it in connection with its duties under this Purchase Agreement and which is believed by Escrow Agent to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties and shall have no liability or responsibility with respect to the form, execution or validity thereof.

16.15 Seller agrees that it shall not interfere with Escrow Agent's performance of its fiduciary duties and statutory obligations as set forth in GBL §§ 352-e and 352-h and the New York State Department of Law's regulations.

16.16 Prior to release of the Down Payment, Escrow Agent's fees and disbursements shall neither be paid by Seller from the Down Payment nor deducted from the Down Payment by any financial institution under any circumstance.

16.17 In the event of an uncured default by Purchaser in its obligations under this Purchase Agreement, the Down Payment and all other monies deposited by Purchaser with Escrow Agent or Seller pursuant to this Purchase Agreement or any amendment thereto, plus all interest earned thereon, shall be paid over to Seller as liquidated damages; provided that Purchaser shall also be liable to Seller for the actual cost incurred by Seller for any special work in the Unit ordered by Purchaser, less any monies which were deposited by Purchaser on account of special work and either paid over to or retained by Seller as liquidated damages. Seller agrees not to seek the remedy of specific performance for the payment of the Balance of the Purchase Price in connection with this Purchase Agreement as to which there has been a default by Purchaser.

17. Equipment and Furnishings. Seller shall have no obligation to provide Purchaser with any fixtures, equipment, hardware, appliances and/or furnishings other than those which are specifically referred to in the Offering Plan to be provided to Purchaser with the Unit as part of the Purchase Price. Furnishings, equipment, appliances and/or decorations in any model unit or sales office not referred to in the Offering Plan are excluded from this sale unless specifically included by a rider to this Purchase Agreement. The cost of any such items will be added to the Purchase Price of the Unit.

18. Acceptance of Condition of Unit; Risk of Loss.

18.1 The signing of this Purchase Agreement by Purchaser signifies Purchaser's acceptance of the condition of the Property as represented by Seller in the Offering Plan, including the Building, the Common Elements, and the Unit and all fixtures, machinery, equipment, furnishings, appliances, installations and other personal property contained therein (hereinafter collectively called "Installations") in their respective existing conditions, ordinary wear and tear excepted between the date Purchaser signs this Purchase Agreement and delivery of the deed to Purchaser. Purchaser acknowledges having read the Section of the Offering Plan entitled "Description of Property and Specifications" set forth in Part II of the Offering Plan, which sets forth a description of the physical condition of the Building, and acknowledged having been given the opportunity to review the reports referred to in the Section of the Offering Plan entitled "Sponsor's Statement of Building Condition." Purchaser understands that Seller has no obligation to make any repairs, improvements or decorations in or to the Property, the Building, the Unit or the Installations, except as may otherwise be set forth in the Offering Plan. In connection therewith, Purchaser acknowledges having read the Section of the Offering Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor."

18.2 Prior to the Closing of title to the Unit, no Purchaser shall be permitted to enter the Unit without the prior consent of Seller. Purchaser shall have the right to enter and inspect such Unit on one (1) occasion prior to the Closing of title in the presence of a representative of Seller, but shall be obligated to make an inspection appointment with Seller. Under no circumstances shall Purchaser perform or cause to be performed any work in such Unit prior to the Closing of title thereto. Purchaser understands that the existence of any incomplete items of construction at Closing which do not materially affect the use and operation of the Unit shall not be grounds for Purchaser to adjourn the Closing or to refuse to pay the balance of the Purchase Price of such Purchaser's Unit and close title to Purchaser's Unit.

18.3 (a) Except as set forth below, the risk of loss from fire or other casualty with respect to the Unit shall remain with Seller until the Closing of title for the Unit. Seller, at its sole discretion, reserves the right either (i) to repair or restore such Unit, whereupon Purchaser shall be obligated to close title without an abatement in the Purchase Price and without any claim against Seller by reason of any damage to the Unit or the Building resulting from such fire or casualty, or (ii) to not repair or restore, or, having commenced any such repair or restoration, to thereafter elect not to complete such repairs or restoration, and, in either case (as to subparagraph (ii)), grant Purchaser the right to rescind this Purchase Agreement. If Purchaser does not exercise such right of rescission by written notice to Seller, within ten (10) days after Seller grants such right to Purchaser by written notice to Purchaser, then Purchaser shall be deemed to have irrevocably waived such right to rescind, and shall be obligated to close title to the Unit without any abatement of the Purchase Price and without any other claim against Seller by reason of any damage to the Unit or the Building by fire or other casualty. If Purchaser timely elects to cancel this Purchase Agreement, Seller shall return Purchaser's Down Payment, plus all interest accrued thereon.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 18.3(a) above, in the event that Purchaser, or one claiming by or through Purchaser, enters into possession of the Unit prior to the Closing of title (which Purchaser shall have no right to do without the prior consent of Seller, and which Seller may withhold in its sole and absolute discretion), then Purchaser shall bear the risk of loss or other casualty with respect to the Unit, except as otherwise provided in the Offering Plan. Additionally, Purchaser shall be solely responsible for any damage to, or loss or other condition in, the Unit and Seller shall not be obligated to repair any damages to the Unit or his appliances, fixtures and equipment, except as otherwise provided in the Offering Plan. However, Purchaser does not assume the risk of loss to the Unit if the cause of such loss originated outside his Unit and did not result from the acts of Purchaser or the other occupants of the Unit or Purchaser's guests, invitees or workmen. If Purchaser is obligated to repair the damage in accordance with the foregoing, then his failure to repair the damage shall not excuse him from paying the balance due under this Purchase Agreement and accepting title to the Unit.

18.4 With respect to all risk of loss after an amendment substantiating the effectiveness of the Offering Plan has been filed, but prior to Closing, Seller is not obliged or liable to repair the damage or restore the Unit other than to repair damage or destruction from fire or other casualty to the Property in order to cure or comply with any work order from an insurer, or to cure or comply with a defect in title or hazardous or dangerous condition against the Property which did not exist on the date of acceptance of the Offering Plan. If Seller or (in the event the Declaration is filed) the Unit Owners elect to repair or replace the loss or damage (i) this Purchase Agreement shall continue in full force and effect, (ii) Purchaser will not have the right to reject title to the Unit or to receive a credit against, or abatement of, the Purchase Price, and (iii) Seller will be entitled to a reasonable period of time to complete (or to permit the Condominium Board to complete) such repairs or replacements. Purchaser will not be required to pay the balance of the Purchase Price unless and until (i) the Unit has been substantially repaired to as near as reasonably possible to its condition immediately prior to the casualty, and (ii) its essential services (such as gas, electricity and heat) and a reasonable means of ingress and egress to the street have been restored. Any proceeds received from insurance or in satisfaction of any claim or action in connection with such loss will belong entirely to Seller (subject to the rights, if any, of the Condominium Board or other Unit Owners under the provisions of the Declaration and By-Laws) and if such proceeds are paid to Purchaser, Purchaser will promptly, upon receipt, turn them over to Seller. The provisions of the preceding sentence will survive the Closing.

18.5 In the event that Seller is not obligated to restore or repair, and elects not to restore or repair, or, having commenced any such restoration or repair, elects not to complete such restoration or repair, as set forth above, and notifies Purchaser that it does not elect to repair or restore the Unit or complete any such repair or restoration that shall have commenced, or if the Unit Owners do not resolve to make such repairs or restoration pursuant to the Condominium's By-Laws, this Purchase Agreement will be deemed canceled and of no further force or effect and Purchaser shall be entitled to a return of the Down Payment (with interest, if any), whereupon the parties will be released and discharged from all obligations and liability hereunder and under the Offering Plan, except those liabilities and obligations that are herein expressly provided to survive the cancellation or termination of this Purchase Agreement. However, if Purchaser is then in default hereunder (beyond the applicable grace period, if any), Seller shall be entitled to receive and/or retain the Down Payment, and any interest accrued thereon, as liquidated damages.

19. Possession of Unit Prior to Closing. Seller may, in its discretion, grant Purchaser possession of the Unit prior to Closing under an Interim Use and Occupancy Agreement. If Purchaser is or hereafter becomes a tenant of the Unit, Purchaser's unapplied rent security deposit, if any, will be refunded to Purchaser, together with any interest thereon, within forty-five (45) days following the Closing, provided Purchaser is not in default under the Interim Use and Occupancy Agreement. If the Unit is occupied by a person other than Purchaser, then the unapplied security deposit (if any) of the tenant or occupant will be transferred at Closing to Purchaser, who will upon receipt, sign and deliver to Seller an agreement acknowledging the amount received, indemnifying Seller from all liability in connection therewith and agreeing to hold such security deposit in trust and to deposit same in an interest bearing bank account pursuant to the provisions of Section 7-103 of the New York General Obligations Law (such agreement to be in form and substance satisfactory to Seller). In either event, Seller will have the right to deduct from any tenant's security deposit the amount of any rent arrearage owing to Seller and to sue the tenant to the extent such security is insufficient.

20. Limitation of Seller's Liability. Seller's liability under this Purchase Agreement for failure to complete and/or deliver or have delivered title for any reasons whatsoever shall be limited to the return of the Down Payment deposited hereunder (with interest, if any), and upon the return of said Down Payment (and interest, if any), this Purchase Agreement shall be null and void and the parties hereto released from any and all liability hereunder and under the Offering Plan except those liabilities and obligations that are expressly provided to survive the cancellation or termination of this Purchase Agreement. In any event, Seller shall not be required to bring any action or proceeding or incur any expense to render the title to the Unit marketable or insurable, or to cure any objection to title.

21. Definitions.

21.1 The term "Purchaser" shall be read as "Purchasers" if more than one person are purchasers hereunder, in which case their obligations shall be deemed joint and several.

21.2 Except where otherwise herein defined, capitalized terms used herein shall have the same meanings as are ascribed thereto in the Offering Plan.

21.3 The "Contract Date" on page 1 of this Purchase Agreement shall be filled in by Seller only upon signing this Purchase Agreement by both Seller and Purchaser, and shall be the date that this Purchase Agreement is delivered to Purchaser or Purchaser's counsel, fully executed by all of the parties hereto.

22. Gender. The use of the masculine gender in this Purchase Agreement shall be deemed to refer to the feminine gender or to an entity whenever the context so requires.

23. Other Agreements. This Purchase Agreement supersedes any and all understandings and agreements between the parties and constitutes the entire agreement between them, and no oral representations or statements shall be considered a part hereof.

24. Amendment of Purchase Agreement. This Purchase Agreement may not be amended, altered or discharged except by agreement in writing signed by the party sought to be charged therewith or by his, her or its duly authorized agent.

25. Brokerage. Purchaser represents and warrants to Seller that Purchaser did not negotiate with any broker for the purchase of the Unit other than the Selling Agent and the Broker named on Page 1 of this Purchase Agreement. Purchaser and Seller each agree to indemnify and hold each other harmless from any and all liabilities arising from claims made against them for commissions by any broker other than the above-named on account of each other's act or the acts of each other's representatives. Seller shall pay the commission of the above named broker(s) pursuant to a separate agreement. The provisions of this Paragraph shall survive the Closing or the cancellation of this Purchase Agreement.

26. Governing Law. This Purchase Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of the State of New York.

27. Jury Waiver. Purchaser hereby waives trial by jury in any action, proceeding, or counterclaim involving any matter whatsoever arising out of, or in any way connected with this Purchase Agreement or the relationship of the parties as Purchaser and Seller, or the right of Purchaser to any statutory relief or remedy. Purchaser, on behalf of Purchaser and all permanent residents of the Unit(s), including minor children, hereby agrees that any and all disputes with Seller, Seller's parent company or its subsidiaries or affiliates arising out of the Unit(s), this Purchase Agreement, any other agreements, communications or dealings involving Purchaser, or the construction or condition of the Unit(s) including, but not limited to, disputes concerning breach of contract, express and implied warranties, personal injuries and/or illness, mold-related claims, representations and/or omissions by Seller, on-site and off-site conditions and all other torts and statutory causes of action ("Claims") shall be resolved by binding arbitration in New York County in accordance with the rules and procedures of Arbitration of the American Arbitration Association or its successor or an equivalent organization mutually agreed upon by the parties. The arbitrator will be neutral and independent of both the Seller and its principals. In addition, Purchaser agrees that Purchaser may not initiate any arbitration proceeding for any Claim(s) unless and until Purchaser has first given Seller specific written notice of each claim (at 250 Gibraltar Road, Horsham, PA 19044, Attn: Warranty Dispute Resolution) and given Seller a reasonable opportunity after such notice to cure any default, including the repair of the Unit(s), in accordance with the Offering Plan. The provisions of this paragraph shall be governed by the provisions of the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. §1, et seq. and shall survive settlement.

Arbitration is a less formal method of resolving disputes than litigation in a court, and arbitration has certain limitations, as compared to litigation in court. Such limitations include, but are not limited to, (i) giving up the right to bring a legal action against one another in court, except as may be provided by the rules of the arbitration forum in which a claim is filed; (ii) limiting the ability of the parties to obtain documents and perform discovery; (iii) arbitrators may not have to explain the reasons for their award; (iv) a notice of pendency may not be filed against a property based on ongoing arbitration proceedings.

As with litigation, certain time limits are imposed for bringing a claim in litigation.

Arbitration awards are generally binding and, therefore, a party's ability to have a court reverse an arbitration award is limited (see New York Civil Practice Law and Rules §7511). IN THE EVENT THAT SELLER PREVAILS, PURCHASER SHALL BE OBLIGATED TO REIMBURSE SPONSOR FOR ANY LEGAL FEES AND DISBURSEMENTS INCURRED BY SPONSOR IN DEFENDING SPONSOR'S RIGHTS AND ENFORCING PURCHASER'S OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT.

For further information about arbitration, please visit www.adr.org.

The provisions of this paragraph 27 shall survive the closing of title or the cancellation of this Purchase Agreement.

28. Acceptance by Seller. Within twenty (20) days after delivery to Seller or its Agent by Purchaser of this Purchase Agreement, executed by Purchaser, Seller will either:

(a) accept this Purchase Agreement and cause to be returned to Purchaser a fully executed counterpart thereof, or

(b) reject this Purchase Agreement offer and refund the Down Payment tendered by Purchaser.

THE SUBMISSION OF THIS PURCHASE AGREEMENT SHALL NOT BE DEEMED TO CONSTITUTE AN OFFER TO SELL, OR AN OPTION TO PURCHASE, AND THIS PURCHASE AGREEMENT SHALL NOT BE BINDING UPON SELLER UNLESS AND UNTIL IT IS EXECUTED AND DELIVERED BY BOTH PURCHASER AND SELLER AND, IN SUCH EVENT, SUBJECT TO ALL THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS HEREOF.

29. Transfer Tax Return. At Closing, Purchaser will duly complete and sign before a Notary Public the Real Property Transfer Tax Return required to be filed with the City of New York and the appropriate New York State Real Estate Transfer Tax Return and Credit Line Mortgage Certificate (NYS form TP-584 or its successor) required to be filed with the New York County Register's office. These transfer tax returns shall be delivered at Closing to the representative of Purchaser's title insurance company (or, if none, to Seller's attorney) for filing with the proper governmental offices. Purchaser shall also execute and deliver to Seller a W-8 or W-9 Internal Revenue Service form upon signing this Purchase Agreement.

30. Survival. The Closing of title to the Unit and the delivery of the deed thereto shall be deemed full compliance by Seller with each and every term of this Purchase Agreement, except as to any item specifically listed and excepted therefrom.

31. Conflict with Offering Plan. Any conflict between the Offering Plan and this Purchase Agreement will be resolved in favor of the Offering Plan.

32. Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act. Pursuant to the Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act (FIRPTA), upon disposition of a United States real property interest by a foreign person on or after February 16, 2016, the purchaser of such real property interest must deduct and withhold a tax, unless the seller furnishes a certificate that it is not a foreign entity or individual. The amounts to be withheld are as follows:

(a) If the property will not be used as the purchaser's primary residence, the withholding rate is 15% of the amount realized (generally the sales price), and reporting is required.

(b) If the amount realized is $300,000 or less, and the property will be used as the purchaser's primary residence, the withholding rate is 0%, and no reporting is required.

(c) If the amount realized exceeds $300,000 but does not exceed $1,000,000, and the property will be used as the purchaser's primary residence, the withholding rate is 10% of the amount realized, and reporting is required.

(d) If the amount realized exceeds $1,000,000, then the withholding rate is 15% of the amount realized, regardless of use by the purchaser, and reporting is required.

Seller will furnish to Purchaser a non-foreign certification at closing, thereby complying with FIRPTA and relieving Purchaser from any withholding obligations.

33. Prohibition Against Advertising. Prior to Closing, Purchaser shall not list the Unit for resale or rental with any broker or to advertise or otherwise offer, promote or publicize the availability of the Unit for sale or lease without Seller's prior written consent.

34. Rules of Construction. There shall be no presumption against the draftsman of this Purchase Agreement or the Offering Plan.

35. Costs of Enforcing and Defending This Purchase Agreement. Purchaser shall be obligated to reimburse Seller for any legal fees and disbursements incurred by Seller in defending Seller's rights under this Purchase Agreement or, in the event Purchaser defaults under this Purchase Agreement beyond any applicable grace period, in canceling this Purchase Agreement or otherwise enforcing Purchaser's obligations or Seller's rights hereunder. This provision shall survive the Closing or the cancellation of this Purchase Agreement.

36. Strict Compliance. Any failure by Seller to insist upon the strict performance by Purchaser of any of the provisions of this Purchase Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of any of the provisions hereof, and Seller notwithstanding any such failure, shall have the right thereafter to insist upon the strict performance by Purchaser of any and all of the provisions of this Purchase Agreement to be performed by Purchaser.

37. Performance by and Liability of Seller. Purchaser's acceptance of the deed for the Unit shall be deemed to be a full performance and discharge of each and every agreement and obligation on the part of Seller to be performed pursuant to the provisions of this Purchase Agreement, the Offering Plan, General Business Law §352-e, and applicable regulations thereunder, except those (if any) herein or therein expressly stated to survive delivery of such deed.

38. Partial Assignment of Mortgage. In the event that Purchaser applies for mortgage financing, and in the event that Seller has an outstanding mortgage loan ("Mortgage") at the time of Closing, Purchaser shall make a good faith effort to cooperate with Seller and Seller's lender to facilitate a partial assignment of Seller's Mortgage to Purchaser, as more fully described in the "Unit Closing Costs and Adjustments" section of the Offering Plan.

39. Prohibited Purchaser and Prohibition Against Money Laundering; Compliance with Geographic Target Order.

39.1 Purchaser is not now, nor shall be at any time prior to or at the Unit Closing, a Person with whom a United States citizen, entity organized under the laws of the United States or its territories or entity having its principal place of business within the United States or any of its territories (collectively, a "U.S. Person"), is prohibited from transacting business of the type contemplated by this Agreement, whether such prohibition arises under United States law, regulation, executive orders or lists published by the Office of Foreign Assets Control, Department of the Treasury ("OFAC"). Neither Purchaser nor any Person who owns an interest in Purchaser is now nor shall be at any time prior to or at the Unit Closing, a Person with whom a U.S. Person, including a "financial institution" as defined in 31 U.S.C. 5312 (a) (z), as periodically amended, is prohibited from transacting business of the type contemplated by this Agreement, whether such prohibition arises under United States law, regulation, executive orders and lists published by OFAC or otherwise.

39.2 Purchaser has taken, and shall continue to take until the Unit Closing, such measures as are required by applicable law to assure that the funds used to pay to Seller for the Purchase Price are derived: (i) from transactions that do not violate United States law nor, to the extent such funds originate outside the United States, do not violate the laws of the jurisdiction in which they originated; and (ii) from permissible sources under United States law and to the extent such funds originate outside the United States, under the laws of the jurisdiction in which they originated. Purchaser is, and will at Closing be, in compliance with any and all applicable provisions of the USA PATRIOT Act of 2001, Pub. L. No. 107-56, the Bank Secrecy Act of 1970, as amended, 31 U.S. C. Section 5311 et. Seq., the Trading with the Enemy Act, 50 U.S.C. App. Section 1 et. Seq. the International Emergency Economic Powers Act, 50 U.S.C. Section 1701 et. seq., and the sanction regulations promulgated pursuant thereto by the OFAC, as well as laws relating to prevention and detection of money laundering in 18 U.S.C. Sections 1956 and 1957.

39.3 Purchaser understands and acknowledges that pursuant to a Geographic Target Order issued by the United States Department of the Treasury's Financial Crimes Enforcement Network ("FinCEN"), the title company of purchasers of residential condominiums must collect and report information to FinCEN where: (i) the purchaser purchases residential real property located in the Borough of Manhattan, City and State of New York; (ii) the purchase price is $3,000,000 or more; (iii) the purchaser is a corporation, limited liability company, partnership or other similar business entity, whether formed under the laws of a state or of the United States or a foreign jurisdiction; (iv) the purchaser does not obtain external financing; and (v) the purchase is made, at least in part, using currency or a cashier's check, a certified check, a traveler's check, a personal check or a money order in any form or a funds transfer.

40. Captions. The captions in this Purchase Agreement are for convenience and reference only and in no way define, limit or describe the scope of this Purchase Agreement, or the intent of any provision hereof.

41. Electronic, Facsimile and PDF Signatures; Counterparts. This Purchase Agreement and all riders and Endorsements thereto may be executed in counterparts, and such executed counterparts shall together be deemed one agreement as though fully executed by the parties. Electronic, facsimile or PDF signatures on the Purchase Agreement, rider (if any) and Endorsement (if any) shall be deemed to be equivalent to and as binding as original signatures.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Seller and Purchaser have executed this Purchase Agreement as of the Contract Date.

PURCHASER:

UNIT: Unit __
The 91 Leonard Street Condominium
91 Leonard Street
New York, New York 10013

DATE: As of _____, 201_

WHEREAS, Purchaser has agreed to purchase Unit __ (the "Unit"), at The 91 Leonard Street Condominium, located at 91 Leonard Street, New York, New York 10013 (the "Condominium") pursuant to a Purchase Agreement between Purchaser and Seller dated _____ (thc "Purchase Agreement").

WHEREAS, Purchaser wishes to occupy the Unit prior to the closing of title to the Unit (the "Closing") and, subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, Seller has agreed to such occupancy.

NOW, THEREFORE, Purchaser and Seller hereby agree as follows:

1. In consideration of the down payment for the Purchase of the Unit, in the amount of $_____, Purchaser may occupy the Unit subject to the terms of this Interim Occupancy Agreement (this "IOA") commencing as of _____, 201_ (the "Possession Date") subject to the terms of this IOA in all respects.

2. The term of this IOA shall terminate on the earlier of: (a) the Closing Date; (b) an uncured default under the Purchase Agreement; or (c) an uncured default under this IOA. Purchaser has no other interest in the Unit except as expressly set forth herein or in the Purchase Agreement.

3. Purchaser shall pay Seller a monthly use and occupancy fee at the address set forth above, or at such other address as Seller may direct, in the amount of $_____, subject to the terms of Section 9 below; provided, however, that the first month's fee is due and payable as of the date hereof and shall be paid to Seller together with the delivery of this IOA as executed by Purchaser, or as Seller may otherwise direct. Any additional monthly fee payment shall be due and payable on or before the first day of each subsequent month. The first and last month of Purchaser's occupancy of the Unit, as provided for by this IOA, shall be prorated on a per diem basis. At Closing, Seller and Purchaser shall make adjustments for fee payments on a per diem basis.

4. In the event that Purchaser defaults under the Purchase Agreement, the same shall constitute a default hereunder, and Purchaser shall surrender the Unit to Seller in the condition s/he received same within ten (10) days after Seller's notice of Purchaser's default under the Purchase Agreement (the "Vacate Date"), TIME BEING OF THE ESSENCE with respect to such Vacate Date.

5. In the event Purchaser remains in possession of the Unit beyond the Vacate Date, then Purchaser shall be immediately obligated to pay to Seller an amount equal to $500 per day (the "Per Diem Charge") beginning on the day after the Vacate Date through and including the date that Purchaser vacates and surrenders the Unit in the condition required herein. In no event shall any provision hereof be construed as permitting Purchaser to hold over in possession of the Unit after the Vacate Date or as limiting Seller's rights and remedies in respect of same, all of which are expressly reserved.

6. Without limiting any of Seller's rights contained herein, in the event that Purchaser shall fail to vacate the Unit on or before the Vacate Date, Seller shall have any and all rights at law, in equity or otherwise, to evict and/or remove Purchaser and recover possession of the Unit, and Purchaser hereby waives any and all rights to interpose any counterclaims, defenses, or offsets to such eviction action or proceeding or to seek a stay of the warrant of eviction issued therein. Purchaser hereby waives trial by jury in any action, proceeding, or counterclaim involving any matter whatsoever arising out of, or in any way connected with this IOA, or the right of Purchaser to any statutory relief or remedy as it relates to this IOA. Purchaser hereby consents to the jurisdiction of the New York City Housing Court for purposes of enforcing this IOA, and agrees that an end of term holdover proceeding may be commenced promptly, without further notice, upon the termination of this IOA. Purchaser hereby designates his attorney, as specified in Paragraph 17 of this IOA, to be his agent for service of process in any such holdover proceeding.

7. If Seller brings an action or proceeding relating to this IOA, at law or in equity, Seller shall be entitled to collect from Purchaser and Purchaser shall be liable to Seller for any and all actual third party costs and/or expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements and reasonable expert fees).

8. Purchaser shall be responsible for obtaining and paying directly for all utilities costs including, without limitation, all electric, gas, telephone and cable charges attributable to Purchaser's usage of such services in the Unit during the term, and Purchaser shall indemnify Seller for all such costs. The provisions of this paragraph shall survive the Closing and Vacate Date, as applicable.

9. Any default by Purchaser hereunder shall constitute a default by Purchaser under the Purchase Agreement; provided, however, that with respect to a default in the payment of the use and occupancy fee following the initial payment, Purchaser's shall have the right to cure same within five (5) business days following the due date therefor. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, this IOA shall automatically terminate upon the sooner to occur of: (i) the Closing or (ii) Purchaser's default hereunder (subject, with respect to a default in the payment of the use and occupancy fee following the initial rent payment, to Purchaser's right to cure same within five (5) business days following the due date therefor).

10. Before Seller may utilize a default under this IOA to declare a default under the Purchase Agreement, Seller must (i) obtain an order of eviction or other judgment or order from a court or agency of competent jurisdiction against Purchaser or (ii) Purchaser must have vacated the Units.

11. In the event that the Purchase Agreement is cancelled for any reason whatsoever, Purchaser's right to receive a refund of the Down Payment shall be conditioned upon Purchaser surrendering possession of the Unit at the end of the termination of this IOA or within thirty (30) days after the right to cancellation has been exercised, whichever is sooner. When the Unit is actually surrendered to Seller, any rent and/or late charges, cleaning charges and costs associated with damage to the Unit, including but not limited to reasonable attorney's fees and disbursements, shall be deducted from the Down Payment.

12. Should Purchaser rescind the Purchase Agreement pursuant to any right of rescission granted under the Plan, the Purchase Agreement or otherwise, this IOA shall be deemed terminated thirty (30) days thereafter and Purchaser shall be obligated to vacate the Unit no later than that date.

13. Purchaser shall not make any alterations, additions, installations or improvements to the Unit during the term of this IOA, provided that the foregoing shall not be deemed to prohibit Purchaser from placing Purchaser's furniture and other personal property in the Unit during the term hereof. Upon the termination of this IOA for any reason other than the Closing, Purchaser shall remove all such furniture and personal property, shall repair all damage caused thereby, and shall vacate the Unit in broom-clean condition. Any personal property not removed may, at Seller's election, be retained by Seller without compensation to Purchaser, or removed at Purchaser's expense. The provisions of this paragraph shall survive any termination of this IOA.

14. Seller shall not be responsible for any damages arising from any bodily injury to Purchaser or Purchaser's guests or invitees or any damage to or loss of any of the property of Purchaser or of Purchaser's guests or invitees occurring in the Unit, unless caused by Seller's gross negligence or willful misconduct. Purchaser agrees to indemnify and to hold Seller harmless from and against any and all claims, suits, demands, judgments, and costs (including attorneys' fees) that may be made against Seller arising from or connected with Purchaser's occupancy of the Unit, except those arising from Seller's gross negligence or willful misconduct. The provisions of this paragraph shall survive the termination of this IOA.

15. Purchaser agrees to maintain at Purchaser's sole expense, a renter's policy of insurance covering personal liability and property damage throughout the term hereof and naming Seller as an additional insured. During the term hereof, Purchaser shall comply with all laws, rules, regulations and requirements of governmental authorities and the Condominium pertaining to the Unit and Purchaser's use and occupancy thereof. Purchaser shall deliver insurance certificates evidencing such coverage to Seller prior to Purchaser's taking occupancy of the Unit.

16. Purchaser hereby agrees to accept possession of the Unit in its "as-is, where-is" condition as of the date of this IOA subject to the Seller's obligations under the Offering Plan to complete the Unit and punch list items. Purchaser shall be liable for any and all wear and tear and damage, if any, sustained in the Unit during Purchaser's possession thereof and caused by Purchaser. Purchaser assumes the risk of loss to the Unit unless the cause of such loss (i) originates outside the Unit and did not result from the acts of Purchaser or (ii) originated from construction defects within or outside the Unit.

17. Any notice hereunder shall be in writing and hand delivered or sent, postage prepaid, by registered or certified mail, or by reputable overnight courier, with receipt confirmed, to Purchaser at the Unit's address given at the beginning of this IOA, with a copy sent in like manner to _____, in the same manner as notice is given to Purchaser, and to Seller, addressed to Selling Agent at: _____, with a copy sent simultaneously and in like manner to Seiden & Schein, P.C. located at 570 Lexington Avenue, 14th Floor, New York, New York 10022, or to such other address as either party may hereafter designate to the other in writing. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, the date of hand delivery or mailing shall be deemed to be the date of the giving of notice, except that the date of actual receipt shall be deemed to be the date of the giving of any notice of change of address. Any notice either of the parties hereto receives from the other party's attorneys shall be deemed to be notice from such party itself. A failure by Purchaser to acknowledge receipt of any notice, request, letter, consent or other communication hereunder shall not in any way invalidate such communication. Seller hereby designates and empowers both Selling Agent and Seller's counsel (Seiden & Schein, P.C.) as Seller's agent to give any notice to Purchaser under this IOA (including, without limitation, a notice of default) in Seller's name, which notice so given shall have the same force and effect as if given by Seller itself.

18. Nothing in this IOA shall be construed as creating a landlord/tenant relationship between Purchaser and Seller. Moreover, this IOA is not subject to the New York City Rent Law (rent control), the Emergency Tenant Protection Act of 1974, the New York City Rent Stabilization Law, the New York City Rent Stabilization Code, any rent regulatory scheme or code, rule or regulation promulgated under any of the foregoing, or any other rental protection laws.

19. Supplementing and amending Paragraph 1 of this IOA: (i) this IOA is automatically subordinate to the liens of any mortgages and assignment of leases to which the Unit is presently or may in the future be subject; (ii) Purchaser shall attorn to the holder of the first mortgage to which the Unit is subject to (the "Mortgagee") promptly after the giving by Mortgagee of a notice to Purchaser requiring such attornment; (iii) the Purchaser shall give a notice to Mortgagee of each material default by the Seller, simultaneously with the giving of notice of such default to Seller; and (iv) Mortgagee to have the right, but not the obligation, to cure any default by Seller within thirty (30) days after the expiration of Seller's cure period thereafter, if any.

20. This IOA may not be modified or its provisions waived except by a writing signed by the parties hereto.

a) LOCATION AND USE OF PROPERTY

1) Address: 91 Leonard Street
New York, New York
The Property is primarily located on the west side of Broadway, approximately 29'7" north of Leonard Street. The main entrance will be on Leonard Street.

2) Block and Lot Number:
Block: 174

3,4) Zoning and Permissible Use
The lot occupies portions of two different zoning districts, primarily a C6-4A (R-10A equivalent, approximately13,483 square feet) district, and a smaller, C6-2A (R-8A equivalent, approximately 2,672 square feet) district that is located on the western side of the Property that varies in width from approximately 11'7" to 23'2" wide. The zoning allows for commercial, residential and community facility uses, and the Sponsor states that all uses will comply with all zoning requirements. The Commercial Unit will be either a use group 6 or 10, or any other general retail use group available at the time that the Temporary Certificate of Occupancy or Permanent Certificate of Occupancy has been issued for the Commercial Unit. The Building will not be located in a Historical District. Project architect states that the project is filed with the New York City Department of Buildings to comply with applicable zoning regulations.

b) STATUS OF CONSTRUCTION

1) Year Built:
Construction of the proposed Building is underway, with anticipated substantial completion on or about March, 2019. As of June 7, 2017, the Building superstructure was under construction.

2) Class of Construction
The Building will be group 1-B, non-combustible, sprinkled construction, meeting New York City code requirements for new construction. The occupancy classification will be residential (R2), with mercantile (m) use at the cellar and ground floor.

A new Certificate of Occupancy for the entire Building will be secured after construction is completed. The Sponsor states that it will close on each new Unit only after securing a Temporary Certificate of Occupancy for that Unit (individually or in groups). The proposed use and occupancy will conform to the new Certificate of Occupancy.

4) Alteration Permit Numbers

New Building Permit Number 121190166 to build the prospective Building was approved by the New York City Building Department on August 29, 2016. Ancillary applications have also been filed and approved for work such as shoring, foundation work, sidewalk shed, the Building mechanical systems, plumbing, and the structural systems

A Temporary Certificate of Occupancy will be obtained before closing, on each respective Unit (individually or in groups). Various inspections and signoffs will be required as part of the construction process. These may include, but are not limited to: fire-stopping, mechanical ventilation, boring, sub-grade, underpinning, concrete, concrete design mix, concrete test cylinder, shoring and sheeting, welding, high strength bolts, masonry units and reinforced masonry, spray on fire-proofing, mechanical equipment certificate, rough and finish plumbing, and structural stability. All will be secured to the extent required by the New York City Building Department before the final Certificate of Occupancy is obtained.

The project will comply with the Americans With Disabilities Act and the NYC Building Code.

The Sponsor states that it will seek basic LEED (Leadership in Energy & Environmental Design) Certification for 91 Leonard, per the requirements of the GBC (Green Building Council), promoting "green" architecture.

1) Size

The lot is roughly rectangular, and is approximately 89'6-1/2" wide along Broadway and approximately 182'10" deep (maximum-depth varies), totaling approximately 16,155 square feet (excluding purchase of development rights from adjoining Property). A section of the lot, approximately 11' X 36', extends to Leonard Street.

The buildings on the south and west side of the Property slightly encroach onto the site (less than two inches). The Sponsor accepted these encroachments when it took title to the Property and its title company has insured title to the Property.

Project architect states that the project is filed with the New York City Department of Buildings to comply with applicable zoning regulations.

2) Number of Buildings and Use

There will be one new Building on the Property. The Plans indicate that the entire Property will be dedicated to residential use, except for portions of the cellar and first floor, which will have commercial use.

3) Streets Owned or Maintained by the Project

There is no street on the Property. The asphalt paved streets in front of the Building are owned by The City of New York and are in reasonable condition with catch basins.

4) Drives, Sidewalks, and Ramps
New sidewalks will be installed along Broadway and in front of the Property on Leonard Street. Curbs will be new, or the existing curbs will be repaired. There will be no ramps or drives.

There is a fire hydrant and bollard located on the western edge of the Property on Leonard Street. There is a handicap curb cut at the corner of Leonard Street and Broadway, with an adjacent telephone stand and mail box. There is no municipal lighting in the vicinity.

Maintenance of the sidewalk in front of the Property, in the future, will be the responsibility of the Condominium.

Each Residential Unit will have a gas line servicing the Unit's cook top. Gas will also service the rooftop common area grill and fireplace, as well as the Building boilers, which will be used for heating. Gas will be provided by Consolidated Edison, or equal, and will be a common expense for the Residential Units

Electricity will be provided by Consolidated Edison, or equal. Each Residential Unit will be separately metered, with direct billing to Residential Unit Owners. The Commercial Unit will have a direct service line. House services, including elevator, exhaust systems, cooling tower, common area lighting, etc., will be part of the house service, and this will be a common charge.

The Sponsor states that Unit Owners and/or Unit occupants will make individual arrangements for telephone and cable television services with providers with direct billing to user. Telecom provider Time Warner, or Verizon, or equal, will provide available service.

e) SUB-SOIL CONDITIONS

1) Foundations
The Building will have poured concrete foundation walls. Per the boring data, the Building will be founded on a reinforced foundation mat on soil, The reinforced concrete mat will be placed over a vibration isolation and waterproofing membrane that is laid on a mud slab. All foundation walls will be below grade and protected by the surrounding soil against freezing.

A Phase 1 Environmental Site Assessment Report was prepared by Langan Engineering, dated July, 2014, before the pre-existing buildings on the site were demolished. The survey did not find any obvious hazardous conditions except for a minor condition that was considered de minimis. The Report also references a reported oil tank spill at 359 Broadway in 2009. On March 21, 2017, Mr. Cory

Weissglass, Chief Executive Officer of Earth Efficient, environmental, services company, stated that "Based on the sampling performed by ACS and Langan's interpretation of the results, coupled and confirmed by the fact that all Non-Hazardous facilities provided acceptance letters, we are confident that no hazardous material (based on analysis only) existed. All material was legally shipped and accepted to various non-hazardous facilities while following all per local, state, and federal regulations."

2) Moisture

h) STRUCTURAL SYSTEMS

1) Exterior of buildings

(i) Walls and floors

The Building superstructure will be a conventional concrete flat plate system with interior and perimeter reinforced concrete columns. The lateral system will be composed of a dual system of shear walls and beam-column frames designed for wind and seismic resistance, as stipulated by New York City Local Law 17/95.

Peripheral walls will consist of window assemblies and terra cotta panels with concrete masonry unit (cmu) and/or heavy gage framing as backing. The terra cotta panels will be manufactured by Agrob Buchtal, with a sub-framing system manufactured by QVent, and will not be insulated or have a warranty. The facades will be articulated with vertical and horizontal terracotta "fins", and painted aluminum trim at windows and doors. Some lot line/party wall areas will have cmu infill. Rooftop bulkheads will have a generic stucco or EIFS finish,, and will not have a warranty.

The floors will be sound attenuated with an acoustic underlayment (except for tile areas), and demising walls will be provided with 2" batt insulation, but the Units will not be soundproof, and the Sponsor makes no representation as to the adequacy of sound insulation.

. The Sponsor has engaged AKRF Acoustical Consultants to assist with design and material selection. Unless expressly authorized by the Board of Managers in each instance, not less than eighty percent (80%) of the floor area of each Residential Unit (excepting only kitchens, pantries, bathrooms, closets and foyers) must be covered with rugs, carpeting, or equally effective noise reducing material. It will be the responsibility of the Condominium Board and management company to monitor compliance with carpet/rug requirements.

The Building will satisfy 2014 NYCECCC compliance requirements, per application of ASHRAE 90.1 2010. The roof insulation will have a minimum R-25 effective insulation rating. The typical wall assemblies, exclusive of the slab edges, will have a maximum U-value of 0.051 (R 9.2 cavity insulation and 13.6 C.I continuous insulation.

(ii) Windows

In-swing, aluminum and glass, insulated, casement windows will be installed, as well as fixed units. The windows will vary in height between approximately 6'7" and 9'7. The windows also will also have aluminum and glass transoms above, except for the windows on the 19th floor, and some of the windows on the 7th, 10th, 13th, 16th, floors (primarily under terraces). Windows will either be single units, varying in width from approximately 1'10" to 4'6" (including some fixed, non-operable windows up to approximately 4'7" in width), or ganged together as pairs, up to approximately 10'8" in width, including some assemblages with one of the windows being fixed and non-operable. There will also be some fixed, non-operable, triple window assemblages, approximately 15'3" wide (Units 9F and 10F). Windows will have a typical U-factor range of .362-.628, and will satisfy energy code compliance requirements.

The windows will have a thermal breaks. All exterior metal will be corrosion resistant, and the frame edges will be caulked as required.

The unused development rights of 359 Broadway, the building directly to the north of 91 Leonard Street, have been transferred to 91 Leonard Street. 91 Leonard Street also benefits from a light and air easement granted by 359

Broadway. The two buildings share a common zoning lot. For these reasons, the northern windows of 91 Leonard Street do not function as lot line windows, except for fire rating requirements on the lower floors, which the Building will satisfy. As such none of the windows in 91 Leonard Street would have to be sealed in the event that the building on 359 Broadway was razed and reconstructed. There will be metal frame, non-operable, fire-rated, windows located on the north façade, starting on the 8th floor, as well as operable casement windows (with sprinklers in the vicinity). The two window types will not match, and some are located in the same rooms.

359 Broadway has the right to repair/replace existing structures (bulkheads on its roof), and has retained the right to install a kitchen vent on the northern side of its roof, but does not have the right to build an addition on its roof. 359 Broadway has approximately 250 square feet of remaining, unused development rights.

Window operation will be controlled, obviating the requirement for child guards.

The windows will not have insect screens.

Area map is not required (urban area).

3) Floor plans
Floor plans are enclosed.

4) Floor to ceiling heights of Units

Ceiling heights may vary contingent on mechanical and plumbing layouts. Ceiling heights will be lower where there are soffits, ducts, or beams, typically in the vicinity of bathrooms and hallways and along the sides of rooms.

5) Total area for each Unit.
The following are the approximate square footages for the Units per the Sponsor's architect. The approximate indoor floor area of each Unit has been measured from the exterior side of the façade or exterior Building walls or glass windows at the Building line and/or Property line enclosing the Unit, or from the midpoint of the interior Party Walls separating the Unit from another Unit, or from the midpoint of Party Walls separating the Unit from the public corridors or public stairs, or from the mechanical space side of interior Party Walls separating the Unit mechanical equipment space or any other Common Elements, except for elevator shear walls where the thickness of the elevator shear wall is not included. Columns and mechanical pipes and chases (whether along the perimeter or within the Unit) are not deducted from the square foot area of the Unit.

Mechanical vent pipes located on terraces are not deducted from the total square footage.

The floor area occupied by any Common areas of the Buildings bordering or within a Unit (such as the Building's façade or exterior walls, vents, chase walls or areas, conduits, ducts, shafts or pipes) have been included in the computation of the floor area of the Unit, but such Common areas are not part of the Unit. As a result, the square footage shown are taken from points behind the walls enclosing the Unit and exceed the Unit's usable floor area.

See Section h) Structural systems, 4) Terraces, for a listing of the residential terraces and their method of measurement.

6) Further development

The Building Dept. gross footage (after deductions are taken for mechanical equipment and non-usable space above grade) of the proposed Building is approximately 161,639 SF. The total allowed Floor Area Ratio development rights for the site (including purchased development rights of the adjoining Building and excluding its existing size of 21,494 square feet) is approximately 172,971 SF. This leaves approximately 11, 332 SF of remaining development rights.

The unused development rights of 359 Broadway, the building directly to the north of 91 Leonard Street, have been transferred to 91 Leonard Street. 91 Leonard Street also benefits from a light and air easement granted by 359 Broadway. The two buildings share a common zoning lot. 359 Broadway has the right to repair/replace existing structures (bulkheads on its roof), and has retained the right to install a kitchen vent on the northern side of its roof, but does not have the right to build an addition on its roof. 359 Broadway has approximately 250 square feet of remaining, unused development rights.

The Sponsor states that it currently has no plans for further development. The Sponsor reserves the exclusive right to sell and transfer all unused development rights of the Property now existing and hereafter available (approximately 11,332 square feet).

7) Roof rights

There will be a residential common roof terrace at the top of the Building, as well as Residential Unit terraces (Units 19A and 19B).

8) Lead and other materials

9) Radon

According to the Phase I, Environmental Site Assessment Report, the site was not tested for the presence of radon gas prior to the demolition of the existing Buildings on the site. The USEPA characterizes Manhattan as being in a zone three, which means that elevated levels of radon gas are unlikely to be present.

aa) Asbestos

ab) Operations and Maintenance Manual

An Operations and Maintenance manual will be prepared at the completion of construction, which will include copies of available warranties and available maintenance information for major components (unless available online), and will be turned over to the Board of Managers/Condominium Association

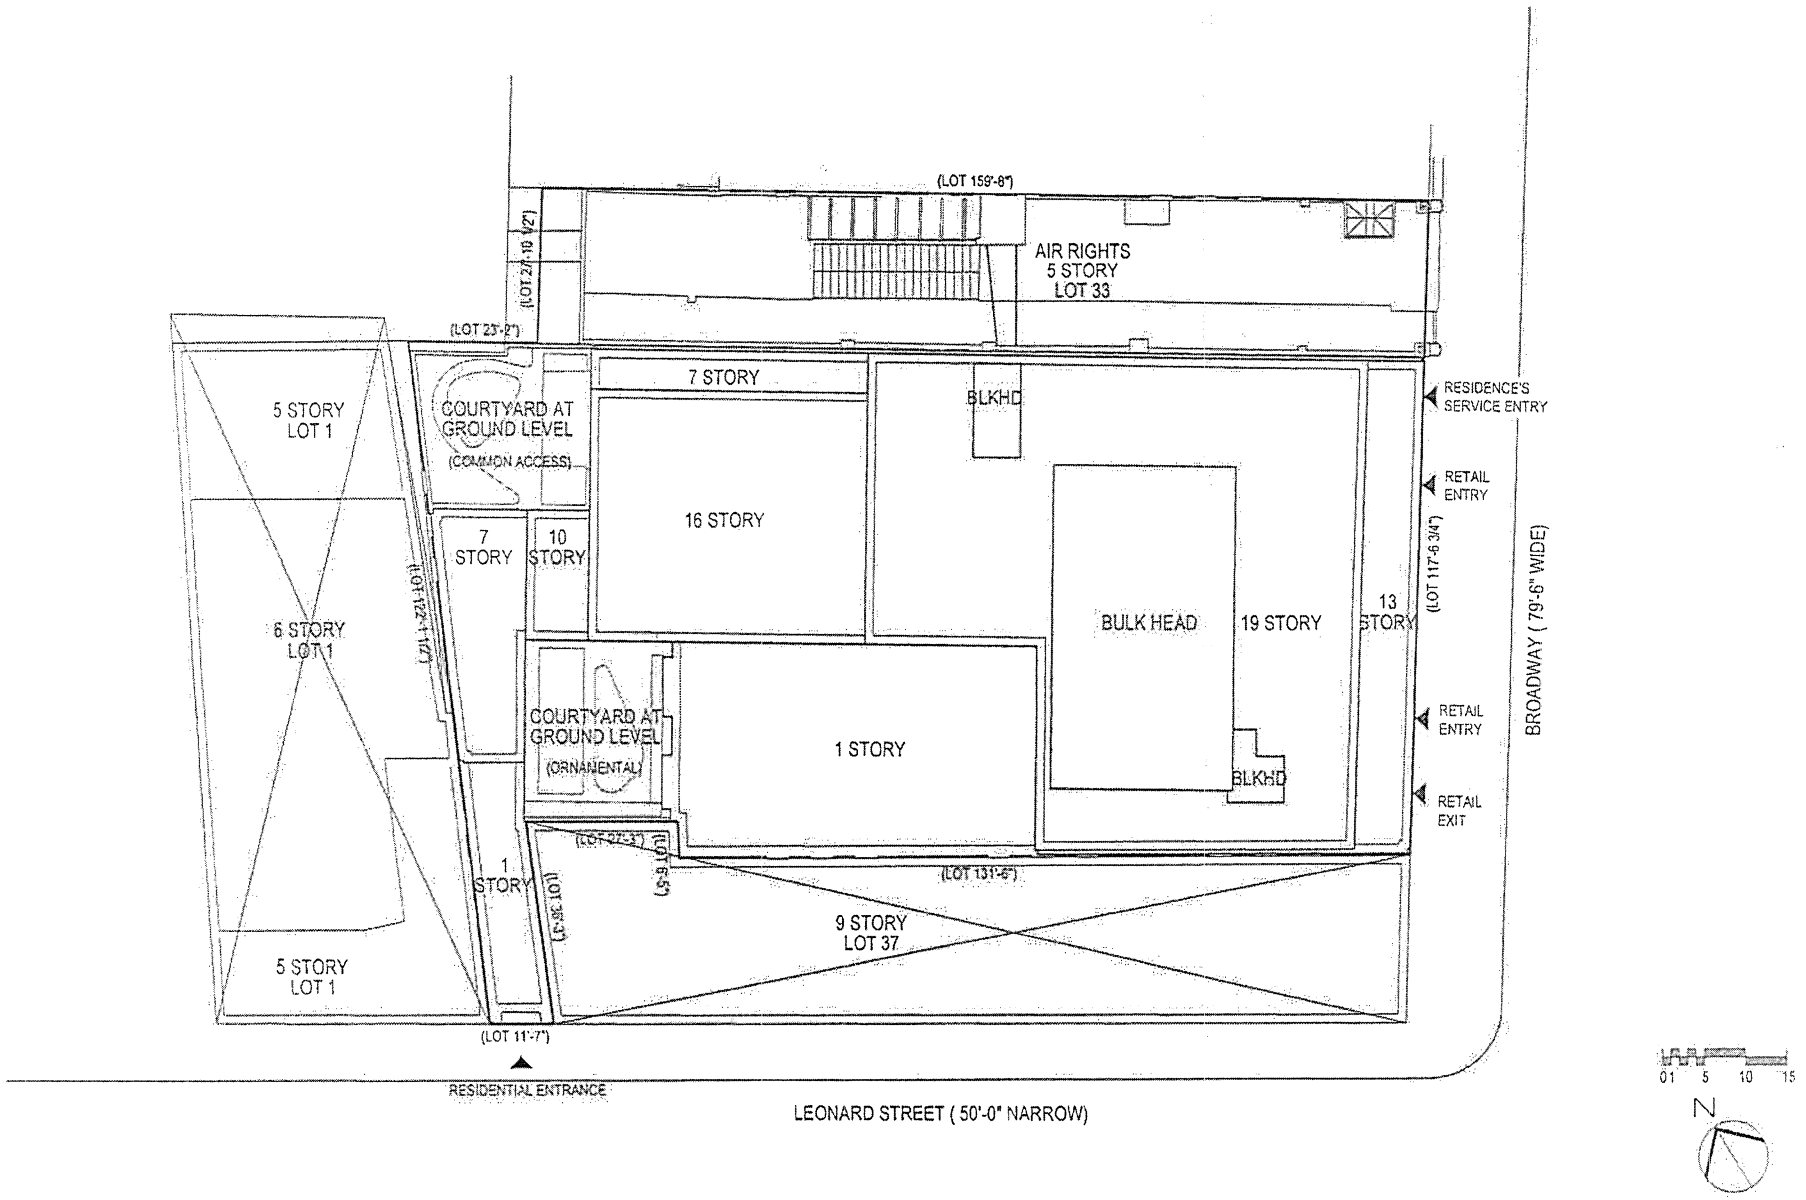

ac) Security devices

The Building will have a closed circuit camera security system with cameras located at the residential and service entrances, 1st floor lobby, elevators, mailroom, lounge, and courtyard. There will be monitors located in the concierge desk in the 1st floor lobby, and in the superintendent's office. The monitors will not be continuously viewed.

ad) Dimension variability, and equipment/fixture substitution

All references herein to dimensions, areas, heights and thicknesses of construction materials are approximate within reasonable tolerances. All make and model numbers of appliances, fixtures and equipment are subject to change, in the Sponsor's discretion and/or based upon availability at the time that the Building is substantially complete. The Sponsor reserves the right to substitute appliances, fixtures and equipment with substantially similar appliances, fixtures and equipment of comparable or better quality.

Re: 91 Leonard Street

Dear Sir/Madam:

You have requested that we project the real estate taxes for the mixed-use residential and commercial condominium building to be constructed at 91 Leonard Street aka 353-357 Broadway for which you are the Sponsor under the Offering Plan.

The Aggregate Total Actual (target) and Transitional Assessed Valuations for the existing tax lot that makes up the existing property for the most recent tax years are set forth as follows:

Tax Years	Actual Assessment	Transitional Assessment
2015/16	$3,280,347	$3,058,757
2016/17	$3,135,897	$3,041,598
2017/18	$ 943,696	$ 822,579

You have advised us of the following facts regarding this project:

1. 91 Leonard Street will be new construction held in the condominium form of ownership. Upon completion there will be 111 separately assessed residential condominium dwelling units, one commercial unit and 76 separately assessed storage units. One additional apartment will be a general common element to be used as the superintendant's apartment. The residential condominium component will contain a total of 144,700 sellable square feet. The commercial condominium component will contain 12,294 sellable square feet. The storage condominium component will contain 1,628 sellable square feet. The total gross square footage of the whole condominium building including the accessory, amenity, and mechanical areas will be approximately 203,652 square feet.

2. You have advised us that the common interest percentage factor for each condominium component, as it appears on Schedule A of the Condominium Offering Plan, is as follows: Residential Condominium Apartments 89.4504%; Commercial Unit 8.9772% and; Storage Units 1.5724%. This letter covers these three components of the condominium. The estimated assessed value for each component is allocated based upon their respective interest in the common elements percentage factor as set forth in the Declaration.

3. The site which comprises the subject property currently consists of the tax lots identified on the New York City Department of Finance ("DOF") records as Block 174 Lots 34, 35, 36 and 135 in Manhattan.

4. The construction commenced in October 2016 after the demolition of the existing structure. Construction is projected to be completed in February 2019. For purposes of this analysis, we estimate that the property will be assessed as complete on January 5, 2019, the tax status date for tax year 2019/20. As the estimated completion date would occur proximate to the tax status date for tax year 2019/20, i.e., January 5, 2019, we estimate the 2019/20 tax year to be the first tax year in which the City's assessment roll fully reflects the value of the newly constructed building.

5. Once construction has been completed, the property will consist of a single condominium building with separately assessed condominium tax lots for each residential apartment, the commercial unit, and each storage unit.

6. The first year of condominium operation is scheduled to extend from July 1, 2019 through June 30, 2020. As this period corresponds with the City's 2019/20 fiscal tax assessment year, real estate taxes due for the first year of condominium operation will therefore be based on the assessed value of the tax lot for the twelve months of tax year 2019/20.

There are three recognized appraisal methods which are employed to determine the full market value of real property. These methods are the original cost method, capitalization of income approach and the sales price comparison method.

The original cost method is based on the theory that the value of a given property is reflected by its cost of construction plus the acquisition cost of the underlying land. This method of valuation is considered a significant indicator of value with respect to new buildings. Relevant data used in the cost method includes material and labor ("hard") costs, and financing, engineering, architectural, testing and professional fees and construction period taxes ("soft") costs.

The capitalization of income method is based upon the proposition that the annual net income generated by a property, when divided by the rate of return an investor at a given time would accept for his money in a competing investment, yields an estimate of the market value of the property. In the past the DOF has also utilized gross income multipliers to value residential property.

The sales price comparison method is founded upon the belief that value can be ascertained by surveying market prices. Market value has been defined as that price which a property would bring in a competitive and open market, wherein both buyer and seller are acting prudently, knowledgeably and assuming the price is not affected by undue stimulus. However, the addition of sale prices of individual units may not be the basis for arriving at the assessed valuation of a residential condominium or cooperative housing corporation.

Real Property Tax Law §581 requires that the DOF assess residential condominiums without regard to their form of ownership. This requirement has been interpreted to mean that cooperatives and condominiums are to be assessed as if they are rental properties, thus requiring a valuation based upon the capitalization of income utilizing rents imputed from comparable rental properties.

In arriving at the assessed valuation for each unit in the Condominium, the building is first assessed in its entirety. This overall assessment is then apportioned among the respective units, each of which will be assigned a tax lot designation once the Condominium Declaration has been recorded with the City Register. In the past, the apportionment was based in part upon the proportion of the projected selling price presented in the Offering Plans for each residential unit bears to the gross sellout price for all residential units available for purchase in the project (hereinafter, "Proportionate Valuation"), and in part upon extrinsic indicia of value, including location, square footage, amenities, income producing potential and existing leases, if any, on particular units. However, more recently, the DOF had enunciated a policy which provides for an allocation of assessed values for the residential units within a condominium by utilizing each unit's respective percent interest in the common elements.

We make no representation that the DOF will use any particular method to apportion assessed valuation among the units for the purpose of computing the portion of the condominium building's total assessed valuation that will be allocated to the units within the condominium building.

Reconciliation of the three approaches to valuation discussed above, for recently constructed residential apartment buildings throughout Manhattan, justifies an estimated overall Actual Assessed Valuation for the entire condominium building (including "land" and "building") upon completion of construction of $28,511,280 or approximately $140 per square foot based on the total building area of 203,652 gross square feet and we estimate the Taxable Assessed Value to be $28,511,280. We project that the assessed value of the completed condominium building would first be reflected on the City's 2019/20 tax assessment roll.

For our projections, we have placed greatest weight on the Comparable Assessment Study. The comparable assessment studies generally indicate that the City's assessment of newly constructed condominiums is often lower than what would normally be indicated by the capitalization of income method. These comparable assessment studies have enabled us to ascertain the current assessing policies of the City of New York with regard to newly constructed residential buildings. However, there are no assurances that these policies will remain unchanged, or that the indicators of market value will not be adjusted prior to the completion of the referenced project, resulting in an assessment differing significantly from the estimates contained herein.

The most recent and currently available tax rate for residential real property is 12.892% and for commercial property it is 10.574%. For purposes of the following projections, we have assumed that these overall rates will remain in effect for the 2019/20 tax year. The estimated taxes payable during tax year 2019/20 for the residential apartments and commercial condominium unit as defined above are projected as follows:

Estimated Taxes Payable During Tax Year 2019/20 – Upon Completion:

For purposes of this analysis, we have estimated that the property will be assessed as complete on January 5, 2019, the taxable status date governing the 2019/20 assessment roll. The building is estimated to be assessed as a complete building and the total Actual assessed value, inclusive of the 111 residential condominium units, the commercial unit, and the 76 storage units is estimated to be $28,511,280 and the estimated total billable assessed value is $28,511,280.

Allocation of Assessed Value

We project that the estimated Assessed Values will be allocated among the residential, commercial, and storage components based upon the common element percentage as set forth in the declaration. For purposes of this analysis, we estimate that in tax year 2019/20 the property will be assessed with separately assessed condominium tax lots for each residential apartment, the commercial unit, and each storage unit.

The estimated allocated assessed values and real estate taxes for 2019/20 are as follows:

Compact	Estimated Percentage	Taxable Total Assessment	Tax Rate	Estimated Fiscal Year Taxes	Estimated Taxes for First Year of Condo Operation
Commercial	8.9772%	$2,559,515	10.574%	$270,643	$270,643

For tax year 2019/20, the residential component's estimated annual real estate taxes are estimated at $3,287,905which will fall within the first year of the condominium operation.

For tax year 2019/20, the commercial component's estimated annual real estate taxes are estimated at $270,643 which will fall within the first year of the condominium operation.

For tax year 2019/20, the storage component's estimated annual real estate taxes are estimated at $47,404 which will fall within the first year of the condominium operation.

Estimated Real Estate Taxes for the First Year of Condominium Operation – July 1, 2019 through June 30, 2020:

For the first year of condominium operation covering the period of July 1, 2019, through June 30, 2020, we project that the real estate taxes will be based on twelve months of tax year 2019/20. Thus, for the first year of condominium operation, the estimated real estate taxes for the condominium will be as follows:

Residential Condominium Component

Estimated Real Estate Taxes for the First Year of Condominium Operation for the Residential Component = $3,287,905

Commercial Condominium Component

$2,559,515 x 10.574% = $270,643

Estimated Real Estate Taxes for the First Year of Condominium Operation for the Commercial Component = $270,643

Storage Condominium Component

Estimated Real Estate Taxes for the First Year of Condominium Operation for the Storage Component = $47,404

The above estimates do not take into account any uptrends in value and/or future increases in the level of assessed valuation applied to the property or any increases in the real estate tax rate.

This letter was prepared at the Sponsor's request. Certain figures set forth herein are approximations derived from material submitted by the Sponsor and are subject to variation. We have not passed upon the accuracy of any figures or estimates contained in the Plan, and offer no warranties of the amount of any real estate taxes for any period. No government agency has passed upon the figures or estimates contained herein.

MARCUS & POLLACK LLP

Prospective purchasers are advised that while there is a formula which has been utilized by the DOF in assessing such properties in the past, it has not been employed consistently, and it is therefore not possible to estimate or determine the post-construction assessed valuation of this property with any degree of certainty. However, the estimates presented below are based upon our interpretation of the current policies and practices of that department. All prospective purchasers are further advised that although the estimate of assessed valuation upon completion of construction is a good-faith estimate, such assessed valuation, when actually made, may be significantly more or less than as estimated herein.

The projections expressed above are based on our interpretation of the Real Property Tax Law, Administrative Code of the City of New York, and the applicable rules and regulations, policies and practices of the DOF in effect as of the date hereof. While we believe our projections are well founded, they are not intended, and should not be construed as representations or warranties.

The laws, regulations and practices of the DOF upon which this projection is predicated may in the future be revised in a manner adverse to your interests, or there may be an adverse interpretation of the law or regulations by one or more agencies of the City of New York, or the Courts. We have not undertaken to advise you if we become aware of changes in the DOF's assessment policies and practices or changes in the relevant statutes, laws, rules or judicial precedents.

The foregoing analysis is based upon our experience with the DOF and the Tax Commission of the City of New York, and their assessment policies regarding newly constructed properties held in the condominium form of ownership. Application of a particular approach to valuation when actually made may result in assessed valuations significantly more or less than as estimated herein.

We hereby consent to the inclusion of this letter in the Offering Plan.

Very truly yours,

Covenants Running With The Land

19.1 All provisions of this Declaration, the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations which are annexed hereto and made a part hereof, including, without limitation, the provisions of this Article, shall to the extent applicable and unless otherwise expressly herein or therein provided to the contrary, be perpetual and be construed to be covenants running with the Land and with every part thereof and interest therein, and all of the provisions hereof and thereof shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the owner of all or any part thereof, or interest therein, and such Unit Owner's heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns, but the same are not intended to create, nor shall they be construed as creating, any rights in or for the benefit of the general public or any other third party. All present and future owners, tenants, subtenants, licensees, and other occupants of Units shall be subject to the provisions of this Declaration, the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations, as they may be amended from time to time. The acceptance of a deed or conveyance or the entering into of a lease or sub-lease or the entering into occupancy of any Unit shall constitute an agreement that the provisions of this Declaration, the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations, as they may be amended from time to time, are accepted and ratified by such owner, tenant, subtenant, or occupant, and all of such provisions shall be deemed and taken to be covenants running with the Land and shall bind any person having at any time any interest or estate in such Unit, as though such provisions were recited and stipulated at length in each and every deed or conveyance or lease or use and occupancy agreement thereof.

19.2 If any provision of this Declaration or the By-Laws is invalid under, or would cause this Declaration and the By-Laws to be insufficient to submit the Property to the provisions of, the Condominium Act, such provision shall be deemed deleted from this Declaration or the By-Laws, as the case may be, for the purpose of submitting the Property to the provisions of the Condominium Act but shall nevertheless be valid and binding upon and inure to the benefit of the owners of the Property and their heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns, as covenants running with the Land and with every part thereof and interest therein under other applicable Law to the extent permitted under such applicable Law with the same force and effect as if, immediately after the recording of this Declaration and the By-Laws, all Unit Owners had signed and recorded an instrument agreeing to each such provision as a covenant running with the Land. If any provision which is necessary to cause this Declaration and the By-Laws to be sufficient to submit the Property to the provisions of the Condominium Act is missing from this Declaration or the By-Laws, then such provision shall be deemed included as part of this Declaration or the By-Laws, as the case may be, for the purposes of submitting the Property to the provisions of the Condominium Act.

19.3 If this Declaration and the By-Laws are insufficient to submit the Property to the provisions of the Condominium Act, the provisions of this Declaration and the By-Laws shall nevertheless be valid and binding upon and inure to the benefit of the owners of the Property, and their heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns, as covenants running with the Land and with every part thereof and interest therein under applicable Law to the extent permitted under such applicable Law with the same force and effect as if, immediately after the recording of this Declaration and the By-Laws, all Unit Owners had signed and recorded an instrument agreeing to each such provision as a covenant running with the Land.

Subject to the provisions contained herein or in the By-Laws with respect to amendments, modifications, additions or deletions affecting Declarant or its designee, or any Unsold

Residential Units, or the Commercial Unit, or the Commercial Unit Owner, (i) (x) the written consent of the Residential Mortgage Representatives, if any, to an amendment, modification, addition or deletion with respect to clause (a) above shall not be required unless such amendment, modification, addition or deletion materially impairs the value of the security interest of one or more Permitted Mortgagees, in which case such written consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed and (y) with respect to clause (a) above, the Commercial Unit Owner may grant to any Permitted Mortgagee the right to consent to any amendment, modification, addition or deletion to this Declaration to the extent of any mortgage which encumbers the Commercial Unit for so long as such mortgage is on record; (ii) the written consent of the Residential Mortgage Representatives, if any, to an amendment, modification, addition or deletion with respect to clause (b) above shall not be required unless such amendment, modification, addition or deletion materially impairs the value of the security interest of one or more Permitted Mortgagees, in which case such written consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; and (iii) with respect to clause (c) above, the Commercial Unit Owner may grant to any Permitted Mortgagee the right to consent to any amendment, modification, addition or deletion to this Declaration which affects the Commercial Unit to the extent of any mortgage which encumbers the Commercial Unit for so long as such mortgage is on record. No such amendment, modification, addition or deletion shall be effective until recorded in the Register's Office. Subject to the provisions contained herein or in the By-Laws with respect to amendments, modifications, additions or deletions affecting Declarant or its designee, or any Unsold Residential Units, or the Commercial Unit or the Commercial Unit Owner, any such amendment, modification, addition or deletion shall be executed by either (1) the Condominium Board as attorney-in-fact for the Unit Owners, coupled with an interest, which Condominium Board is hereby authorized by such Unit Owners so to act as their attorney-in-fact or (2) the Residential Board as attorney-in-fact for the Residential Unit Owners, coupled with an interest, which Residential Board is hereby authorized by such Residential Unit Owners so to act as their attorney-in-fact or (3) the Commercial Board as attorney-in-fact for the Commercial Unit Owner, coupled with an interest, which Commercial Board is hereby authorized by the Commercial Unit Owner so to act as their attorney-in-fact, as the case may be. Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Section 20.1 and the rights of Declarant or its designee, the Commercial Unit Owner and the Commercial Board under Articles 9, 10 and 11 of this Declaration, Articles 8 and 9 of this Declaration may not be amended, modified, added to or deleted unless (in addition to the consent, if required, of the Residential Mortgage Representatives, as the case may be, as set forth above) 80% in number and in Common Interest of all Unit Owners affected thereby, or if only a Commercial Unit is affected, 100% in number and in Common Interest of such affected Commercial Unit Owner, or if only Residential Units are affected, 80% in number and in Common Interest of such Residential Unit Owners, approve such amendment, modification, addition or deletion in the manner set forth above.

with Article 10 hereof, and in accordance with applicable Law, then Declarant or its designee causing such changes shall have the right to execute, or (upon its request) to require any other Unit Owner or any Board to execute, and record in the Register's Office and elsewhere, if required by Law, an amendment to this Declaration (together with such other documents as Declarant or its designee causing such changes deems appropriate to effectuate the same) reflecting such change in the number of rooms in an Unsold Residential Unit or in the use, size and/or number of Unsold Residential Units (whether as a result of said subdivision, combination, alteration or otherwise) and the reapportionment of the percentage interests of Units in the Common Elements resulting therefrom, all without the approval of any Board, the Unit Owners or the Residential Mortgage Representatives, if any. In addition, if any Residential Unit Owner other than Declarant or its designee causing such changes is given the right by the Residential Board to make the changes described in this Section 20.2 with respect to such Unit Owner's Residential Unit or Residential Units, all in accordance with Article 10 hereof, then such Residential Unit Owner shall have the right to require the Residential (or Condominium) Board to execute, and record in the Register's Office and elsewhere, if required by Law, any amendment to this Declaration and other documents which are necessary or appropriate (in the reasonable judgment of the Residential (or Condominium) Board) to reflect the changes made by the Residential Unit Owner, all without the approval of any Board, other Unit Owners or the Residential Mortgage Representatives, if any. Nothing contained in this Section shall be construed to mean that the Common Interest appurtenant to any Unit not subject to any change may be reapportioned without the written consent of the Owner of such Unit.

20.3 If (a) the number of rooms in the Commercial Unit or the size of the Commercial Unit is changed and the percentage interest in the Common Elements appurtenant to such Commercial Unit belonging to the Owner causing such change is reapportioned among any newly created commercial condominium units resulting from any subdivision of the Commercial Unit, any combining of the Commercial Unit or of any units resulting from a subdivision, any alteration of the boundary walls between commercial condominium units, or otherwise, or (b) a Common Element is designated as part of a newly created commercial condominium unit ("Commercial Common Element") or all or part of a Commercial Unit is designated as a newly created Commercial Common Element, all in accordance with Article 11 hereof the Commercial Board (or the Commercial Unit Owner causing such changes) shall have the right to execute, or (upon request) to require any other Board or Unit Owner to execute, and record in the Register's Office, and elsewhere, if required by Law, an amendment to this Declaration (together with such other documents as (the Commercial Unit Owner or) the Commercial Board deems appropriate to effectuate the same) reflecting (i) such change in the number of rooms in or size of the Commercial Unit, the subdivision of the Commercial Unit into separate commercial condominium units, the combination of the Commercial Unit or of any newly created commercial condominium units resulting from a subdivision, the alteration of boundary walls between commercial condominium units, or otherwise, and the reapportionment of the percentage interests in the Common Elements among such newly created commercial condominium units or (ii) such designation of a Commercial Common Element as part of a newly created commercial condominium unit or such designation of part of a Commercial Unit as a newly created Commercial Common Element, all without the approval of any Board, the Unit Owners or the Residential Mortgage Representatives, if any. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Declarant or its designee shall have the right to make the foregoing changes to any Unsold Commercial Unit without the consent of any Board or Unit Owner. Nothing contained in this Section shall be construed to mean that the Common Interest appurtenant to any Unit not subject to any change may be reapportioned without the written consent of the Owner of such Unit.

20.4 Amendments, modifications, additions or deletions of or to this Declaration, the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations may be necessary, appropriate or desirable in connection with the operation of the Commercial Unit or with the subdivision, combination or alteration of the Commercial Unit, or of any newly created commercial condominium units and/or the offering for sale or lease of all or any portion of the Commercial Unit. In connection therewith, the Commercial Board, (or, when permitted, the Commercial Unit Owner) may cause this Declaration, the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations to be so amended, modified, added to or deleted from and the resulting provision thereof may be similar or dissimilar to those affecting the Residential Section and Residential Unit Owners; provided such amendment does not have an adverse effect on the Residential Section or any Residential Unit Owners. In the case of any such amendment, modification, addition or deletion which does not adversely affect the Residential Section or the Residential Unit Owners, the Commercial Board shall be the attorney-in-fact for the Residential Unit Owners, coupled with an interest for the purpose of approving and executing any instrument effecting such amendment, modification, addition or deletion. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Declarant or its designee shall have the right to make amendments, modifications, additions or deletions of or to this Declaration, the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations as may be necessary, appropriate or desirable in connection with the operation of the Unsold Commercial Unit without the consent of any Board or Unit Owner.

20.5 The provisions of Sections 20.1 and 20.2 may not be modified, amended, added to or deleted, in whole or in part, without the consent of Declarant or its designee, and the provisions of Sections 20.1, 20.3, and 20.4, may not be modified, amended, added to or deleted, in whole or in part without the consent of the Commercial Board.

20.6 Amendments, modifications, additions or deletions of or to this Declaration are subject in all respects to Section 13.2 of the By-Laws which is incorporated by reference herein.

20.7 Notwithstanding any provision contained herein to the contrary, any amendment to this Declaration of a material adverse nature to Permitted Mortgagees of Residential Units (except for Permitted Mortgagees of any Unsold Residential Unit) shall require the written consent of at least 51%, in number and in Common Interest, of such affected Permitted Mortgagees. Such consent shall be deemed granted if the affected Permitted Mortgagee fails to respond to any written proposal for an amendment to this Declaration within sixty (60) days from receipt of the notice of the proposed amendment; provided that notice of such amendment is delivered to the Permitted Mortgagee by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested.

20.8 As long as the Declarant or any Declarant-designee shall continue to own at least one (1) Unit, the Board of Managers may not, without the Declarant's or Declarant-designee's prior written consent, (i) amend the Declaration or the By-Laws so as to in any way adversely affect the Declarant or its designees, or (ii) interfere with: the offer, sale or leasing of Unsold Units at the Property; the operations of general or sales or leasing offices at the Property; or actions necessary for renovation, repair or correction at the Property, as required by Declarant.

Termination Of Condominium

The Condominium shall continue and the Property shall not be subject to an action for partition (unless terminated after a casualty loss, condemnation or eminent domain, as more particularly provided in the By-Laws) until such time as withdrawal of the Property from the provisions of the Condominium Act is authorized by a vote of at least 80% in number and in Common Interest of all Unit Owners. No such vote shall be effective, however, (a) without the written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) of Permitted Mortgagees which represent at least 51% in number and Common interest of all Units which are encumbered by a Permitted Mortgage, and (b) without the written consent of Declarant, until such time as Declarant and its designees do not hold title to any Unsold Unit. In the event said withdrawal is authorized as aforesaid, the Property shall be subject to an action for partition by any Unit Owner or lienor as if owned in common, in which event the net proceeds of sale shall be divided among all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests; provided, however, that no payments shall be made to a Unit Owner until there has first been paid from out of such Unit Owner's share of such net proceeds all liens on such Unit Owner's Unit (other than mortgages which are not Permitted Mortgages), in the order of priority of such liens.

Waiver

No provision contained in this Declaration shall be deemed to have been abrogated or waived by reason of any failure to enforce the same, irrespective of the number of violations or breaches which may occur.

RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE RESIDENTIAL SECTION

BY-LAWS OF THE 91 LEONARD STREET CONDOMINIUM

GENERAL

1.1 Purpose. The purpose of these By-Laws is to set forth the rules and procedures concerning the conduct of the affairs of The 91 Leonard Street Condominium (the "Condominium"). The Condominium covers the property (the "Property") consisting of approximately 16,155 square feet of land (the "Land") which forms a part of Block 174 on the Tax Map of the Borough of Manhattan, County, City, and State of New York, the building and other improvements now or hereafter to be constructed thereon or therein, as the case may be (hereinafter collectively called the "Building"), including, without limitation, the Units and the Common Elements, all easements, rights and appurtenances belonging thereto, and all other property, real, personal or mixed, intended for use in connection therewith, all of which have been submitted to the provisions of Article 9-B of the Real Property Law of the State of New York by the recording of a Declaration (which, as the same may be amended from time to time, is herein called the "Declaration") in the New York County Office of the Register of The City of New York ("City Register's Office"), together with these By-Laws. All terms used herein including, but not limited to, "Declarant or its designee" and "Declarant or a designee of Declarant," which are not separately defined herein, shall have the meanings given to those terms in the Declaration.

1.2 Applicability of By-Laws. These By-Laws are applicable to the Property and to the use and occupancy thereof. All present and future Unit Owners, mortgagees, lessees, sublessees and other occupants of Units and employees and guests of Unit Owners, as well as all other persons who may use the facilities of the Property, are and shall be subject to the Declaration, these By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations (as hereinafter defined). The acceptance of a deed or conveyance, or the succeeding to title to, or the execution of a lease or sublease for, or the act of occupancy of, a Unit shall constitute an agreement that the provisions of these By-Laws, the Rules and Regulations and the Declaration as they may be amended from time to time, are accepted and ratified.

1.3 Principal Office of Condominium. The principal office of the Condominium shall be located within the Property or at such other place within the Borough of Manhattan reasonably convenient thereto, as may be designated from time to time by the Condominium Board (as hereinafter defined).

BOARD OF MANAGERS

2.1 Number, Term and Qualification.

2.1.1 As more particularly set forth in Section 2.2, the affairs of the Condominium shall be governed by a board of managers of the Condominium (the "Condominium Board"). From and after the first annual meetings of Unit Owners as provided in Section 3.1, the Condominium Board shall consist of a Residential Board of six (6) persons elected or designated by the Residential Unit Owners and Storage Unit Owners, subject to Declarant's Subsection 3.9.3 rights, and a Commercial Board of one (1) person elected or designated by the Commercial Unit Owner. The Condominium Board, the Residential Board and the Commercial Board are herein sometimes referred to collectively as the "Boards" and individually as a "Board." If all six (6) members of the Residential Board vote and the result is a tie, the President of the Residential Board shall decide whether or not the measure shall be adopted in his or her sole discretion.

2.1.2 Each member of the Residential Board and the Commercial Board, except for the first Boards as provided in Section 2.4 and except as otherwise provided herein, shall be elected at the separate annual meetings of Residential Unit Owners and the Commercial Unit Owner and shall serve until the next annual meeting thereof and until successors have been elected and qualified. There shall be no limit on the number of successive terms a Board member may serve.

2.1.3 Except for Board members elected or designated by Declarant or its designee (a) all members of the Residential Board shall be either Residential Unit Owners or officers, directors, shareholders, partners, principals, members, trustees, employees or beneficiaries of corporations, partnerships, limited liability companies fiduciaries or any other entities which own Residential Units, or Permitted Mortgagees or family members of any of the foregoing, and (b) all members of the Commercial Board shall be either a Commercial Unit Owner or officers, directors, members, managers, shareholders, partners, principals, employees or beneficiaries of corporations, partnerships, fiduciaries or any other entities which may own a Commercial Unit or a managing agent for such Commercial Unit Owner or an employee thereof, Permitted Mortgagees of the Commercial Unit, lessees of the Commercial Unit or portions thereof, or family members of any of the foregoing. Other than Board members elected or designated by Declarant or its designee no Board member shall continue to serve after such member ceases to be qualified as set forth above. As used herein the term "Permitted Mortgagee" means the holder of any "Permitted Mortgage" of a Unit or Units which is permitted to be placed thereon pursuant to these By-Laws.

2.1.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the By-Laws or in the Declaration, the Commercial Unit Owner shall in no event be entitled to designate more than one (1) member of the Commercial Board.

2.2 Powers and Duties.

2.2.1 The Boards shall collectively have the powers and duties necessary for or incidental to the administration of the affairs of the Condominium (except such powers and duties which by Law, the Declaration or these By-Laws may not be delegated to the Boards by the Unit Owners). All determinations, however, which (a) affect only the Residential Section and do not adversely affect the Commercial Section or the use of the Commercial Section for its permitted purposes, shall be made by the Residential Board or (b) affect only the Commercial Section and do not adversely affect the Residential Section or the use of Residential Units for their permitted purposes, shall be made by the Commercial Board. All other determinations with respect to the administration of the affairs of the Condominium including, without limitation, determinations which (i) relate to the Residential Section and adversely affect the Commercial Section, or (ii) relate to the Commercial Section and adversely affect the Residential Section, or (iii) relate to or affect the General Common Elements, shall be made by the Condominium Board. Any dispute between the Residential Board and the Commercial Board with respect to whether the Residential Board or the Commercial Board shall be entitled to make any determination shall be settled by Arbitration (as hereinafter defined); provided, however, that no such dispute with respect to whether the determination of one adversely affects the other shall be deemed to exist unless the objecting party specifies the grounds for its objection in writing to the other party within 10 business days of receipt by it of notice of such determination. In addition, any dispute between the Residential Board and the Commercial Board with respect to whether any matter is entitled to be determined by the Condominium Board shall be settled by Arbitration, which Arbitration shall be determined on the basis of what is in the best interests of the Condominium. As used herein the term "Arbitration" means arbitration conducted in accordance with the provisions of Article 11 and the term "adversely affect" shall mean the uses prohibited by Section 6.16.

2.2.2 Subject to the provisions of Subsection 2.2.1, and without limiting the generality thereof, the Boards shall each have all powers and duties expressly set forth elsewhere in the Declaration and By-Laws and shall be entitled to make such determinations and take such actions and incur such liabilities as may be required to effectuate each Board's obligations under the Declaration and By-Laws.

2.2.2.1 The Condominium Board shall be entitled to make determinations with respect to the following matters:

2.2.2.1(a) Operating, caring for, keeping up, maintaining, repairing and replacing of the General Common Elements, including contracts for utilities, services and supplies;

2.2.2.1(b) Determining the amount of General Common Charges (as hereinafter defined) and the amount of Special Assessments for all Units;

2.2.2.1(c) Employing and dismissing personnel necessary for the maintenance and operation of the General Common Elements;

2.2.2.1(d) Adopting, amending or adding to, the rules and regulations of the Condominium;

2.2.2.1(e) Making additions and improvements to, or alterations of, the General Common Elements;

2.2.2.1(f) Making repairs and restorations of the General Common Elements or parts thereof damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty or necessitated as a result of condemnation or eminent domain proceedings;

2.2.2.1(g) Enforcing obligations of Unit Owners, the Commercial Board and the Residential Board;

2.2.2.1(h) Levying fines against Unit Owners, the Commercial Board or the Residential Board for violations of the rules and regulations of the Condominium adopted by the Board (any such fines shall constitute General Common Charges payable by the Unit Owner or Board against which they are levied);

2.2.2.1(i) Opening and maintaining bank accounts on behalf of the Condominium (with respect to matters within its jurisdiction as provided in these By-Laws) and designating signatories therefor;

2.2.2.1(j) Adjusting and settling insurance claims (and executing and delivering releases in connection therewith) if the loss involves both the Residential Section and the Commercial Section or the General Common Elements, as set forth in 6.2;

2.2.2.1(k) Borrowing money on behalf of the Condominium, when required in connection with the operation, care, upkeep and maintenance of, or the making of repairs, replacements, restorations or additions to or alterations of, the General Common Elements; provided, however, that (i) the consent of at least 66-2/3% in Common Interest of all Unit Owners shall be required for any borrowings in excess of the aggregate amount of $150,000 in any one fiscal year (regardless of the balance of any loans outstanding from previous years), and (ii) no lien to secure repayment of any sum borrowed may be created on any Unit or its appurtenant interest in the Common Elements without the consent of the owner of such Unit. If any sum borrowed by the Condominium Board pursuant to the authority contained in this subparagraph 2.2.2.1(k) is not repaid by said Board, a Unit Owner who pays to the creditor such proportion thereof as such Unit Owner's interest in the Common Elements bears to the interest of all the Unit Owners in the Common Elements shall be entitled to obtain from the creditor a release of any judgment or other lien which said creditor has filed or has the right to file against such Unit Owner's Unit;

2.2.2.1(l) Bringing actions on behalf of the Unit Owners, as their interests may appear, with respect to any cause of action relating to the General Common Elements, as the Condominium Board deems advisable;

2.2.2.1(m) Organizing corporations or limited liability companies to act as designees of the Condominium Board with respect to such matters as such Board may determine;

2.2.2.1(n) Executing, acknowledging and delivering of (i) any declaration or other instrument affecting the Property which the Condominium Board deems necessary or appropriate to comply with any Law, ordinance, regulation, zoning resolution or requirement of the Department of Buildings, the City Planning Commission, the Board of Standards and Appeals, or any other public authority, applicable to the maintenance, demolition, construction, alteration, repair or restoration of the Building, or (ii) any consent, covenant, restriction, easement or declaration affecting the Property which the Condominium Board deems necessary or appropriate;

2.2.2.1(o) Preparing, executing and recording, on behalf of all Unit Owners, as their attorney-in-fact, coupled with an interest, a restatement of the Declaration and/or these By-Laws whenever in the Condominium Board's estimation, it is advisable to consolidate and restate all amendments, modifications, additions and deletions theretofore made to the Declaration and/or these By-Laws;

2.2.2.1(p) Obtaining and reviewing insurance for the Property, including the Units, pursuant to the provisions of Section 6.2; and

2.2.2.1(q) Leasing or purchasing an apartment for use as the residence of the building superintendent, either in the Building or elsewhere (in compliance with applicable Law and regulation) and amending, modifying, extending, renewing, and otherwise dealing in any way with respect to any such apartment.

2.2.2.2 The Residential Board shall be entitled to make determinations with respect to the following matters:

2.2.2.2(a) Operating, caring for, keeping up, maintaining, repairing and replacing the Residential Section, including contracts for utilities, services and supplies;

2.2.2.2(b) Determining the amount of Residential Common Charges (as hereinafter defined), subject to the determination of the Condominium Board with respect to General Common Charges, and the amount of Special Assessments for all Residential Units;

2.2.2.2(c) Collecting Residential Common Charges from Residential Unit Owners;

2.2.2.2(d) Employing and dismissing personnel necessary for the maintenance and operation of the Residential Section, including the building superintendent;

2.2.2.2(e) Adopting, amending or adding to the Residential Rules and Regulations (as provided in Schedule A hereof); document, including, without limitation, any power of attorney or indemnification from liability that such designated party may require or request.

2.2.5 Any action required or permitted to be taken pursuant to the provisions of these By-Laws or the Declaration by either the Residential Board or the Commercial Board (including, without limitation, the billing and collection of Common Charges and Special Assessments, and the enforcement of any obligations of any Unit Owner) may be taken by either the Residential Board or the Commercial Board in the name of the Condominium Board which shall, upon request, execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all instruments, documents or applications in connection therewith; provided, however, that the party desiring to take such action shall, subject to the provisions of Section 2.15, indemnify and hold harmless the other and, in the case of action taken by the Commercial Board, the Commercial Board shall also indemnify and hold harmless the Residential Unit Owners from any expense or liability thereof or therefrom.

In so acting, the Commercial Unit Owner, if there is, or is deemed to be, only one Commercial Unit, and all Persons acting for and on behalf of the Commercial Unit Owner in such capacities shall be indemnified to the same extent as the Commercial Board and its members and officers are otherwise indemnified hereunder or otherwise, without limitation of any indemnification of such Commercial Unit Owner as an Owner.

2.3 Managing Agents and Managers. With respect to matters the determinations concerning which any Board is entitled to make, such Board may employ a managing agent and/or a manager at a compensation established by such Board to perform such duties and services as such Board shall authorize. Each Board may delegate to such managing agent or manager other powers granted to such Board by these By-Laws, except the powers set forth in Subsections 2.2.2.1(b), (e), (g), (h), (m), (n), (o) and (p); 2.2.2.2(b), (e), (f), (o), (p), (q) and (r); 2.2.2.3 (b), (e), (f), (1), (m) and (n). Subject to the limitations set forth in this Section 2.3, the Commercial Board, the Condominium Board and the Residential Board may by mutual agreement employ one managing agent and/or manager to jointly act on their respective behalves and the costs of which shall be a General Common Expense, provided, however, that notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any decision with respect to whether or not to so employ one managing agent or manager shall not be the subject of Arbitration.

2.4 First Boards. The Condominium Board shall initially consist of two (2) persons designated by Declarant to initially comprise the Residential Board and one (1) person designated by Declarant to initially comprise the Commercial Board. The various Board members shall be deemed to have been "elected" as members of such Boards for the purposes of these By-Laws. Within 365 days after the date of the First Unit Closing the Residential and Commercial Boards will call for the first annual meetings of Residential Unit Owners and the Commercial Unit Owner for the purpose of electing new Boards in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.1. The terms of each such member of the Residential Board and the Commercial Board shall expire annually.

2.5 Resignation and Removal. Any Board member may resign at any time by written notice delivered or sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the Board from which such member is resigning. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein and, unless specifically requested, acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. Subject to the provisions of Subsection 3.9.3, any Residential Board or Commercial Board member may be removed, with or without cause, by a vote of a Majority of Residential Unit Owners (as defined below) or by the Commercial Unit Owner, as the case may be, present in person or by proxy at a regular or special meeting of Residential Unit Owners or Commercial Unit Owner, as the case may be, at which a quorum is present. Any Board member whose removal has been proposed shall be given an opportunity to be heard at the meeting. Notwithstanding the above, Residential or Commercial Board members designated by Declarant or its designee may only be removed for gross negligence, willful misconduct or fraud by a vote of a Majority of Residential Unit Owners or by the Commercial Unit Owner, as the case may be, present in person or by proxy at a regular or special meeting of Residential Unit Owners or Commercial Unit Owner, as the case may be, at which a quorum is present, and replaced as described in Section 2.6. In addition, any member of either Board who is designated as such by Declarant or its designee, may be removed by such designating party at any time, with or without such cause, and the party making such removal shall have the right to designate the replacement for such member.

2.6 Vacancies. Subject to the provisions of Section 3.9.3, any vacancy on the Residential Board or Commercial Board for whatever reason shall be filled by the members of the Residential or Commercial Board then in office, at a special meeting of such Board held for that purpose promptly after the occurrence of any such vacancy even though the members present at such meeting may constitute less than a quorum, and any person so elected shall be a member of the respective Board until the next annual meeting of the Residential Unit Owners or Commercial Unit Owner, as the case may be, when a successor shall be elected for the remainder of the term of the member creating such vacancy. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these By-Laws, in the case of a vacancy on any Board, created by the resignation, removal or any other cause which results in any Board member designated by Declarant or its designee, ceasing to be a member of any such Board, Declarant or its designee, as the case may be, shall have the sole right to designate a replacement for such member.

2.7 Organizational Meetings of the Residential and Commercial Boards. The first meetings of the Residential Board and the Commercial Board following each annual meeting of each of the Residential Unit Owners and Commercial Unit Owner shall be held immediately following each such annual meeting.

2.8 Regular Meetings of Boards. Regular meetings of the Residential Board and Commercial Board may be held at such time and place in the Borough of Manhattan as shall be determined from time to time by a majority of the members thereof, provided that in the case of the Residential Board, at least four such meetings shall be held during each fiscal year. Notice of regular meetings shall be given to each member thereof, by personal delivery, mail, facsimile or email, at least five business days prior to the day named for such meeting.

2.9 Special Meetings of Boards. Special meetings of the Residential Board and the Commercial Board may be called by the respective President or Vice President of the Residential Board or Commercial Board by giving five business days' prior notice to each member of such Board by personal delivery, mail, facsimile or e-mail, which notice shall state the time, place (in the Borough of Manhattan) and purpose of the meeting. Special meetings of the Residential Board or of the Commercial Board shall be called in like manner and on like notice on the written request of at least two members of the Residential Board or one member of the Commercial Board, respectively.

2.10 Resolutions of Boards. The Residential Board and the Commercial Board shall each cause to be promptly delivered to the other copies of all resolutions adopted by it except to the extent (a) of matters privileged under applicable Law, (b) relating to the terms of the sale, leasing or subleasing of any Unit or portion of any Unit, other than the nature of the use thereof, and (c) relating to matters not related to the Property.

2.11 Meetings of Condominium Board. No organizational or regular meetings of the Condominium Board shall be held unless otherwise required by applicable Law in which event such required meetings shall be held at such time and place in the Borough of Manhattan as shall be determined by the Condominium Board, provided that notice thereof be given to Board members by personal delivery, mail, facsimile or e-mail at least five business days prior to the day named for such meeting. Special meetings of the Condominium Board may be called by the President of the Residential Board or the President of the Commercial Board by giving five business days' prior notice to each member of such Board by personal delivery, mail or telegram, which notice shall state the time, place (which shall be in the Borough of Manhattan) and purpose of the meeting.

2.12 Waiver of Notice. Any Board member may at any time waive notice of any Board meeting in writing and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance by a member of a Board at any meeting thereof shall constitute a waiver of notice by him of the time and place thereof. If all the members are present at any meeting of a Board, no notice shall be required and any business may be transacted at such meeting.

2.13 Determinations by Boards; Quorums.

2.13.1 Except as otherwise set forth in Subsection 2.13.4, all determinations by any Board shall be made at a meeting of such Board at which a quorum thereof is present. At any Commercial, Condominium, or Residential Board meeting, a majority of the members thereof shall constitute a quorum, and the votes of a majority of such members present shall constitute the decision of such Board.

2.13.2 When the Residential Board and the Commercial Board, with each acting in accordance with the provisions of this Article 2, have made the same determination as to any matter which is required or permitted to be determined by the Condominium Board, such determination shall constitute the determination of the Condominium Board. No meeting of the Condominium Board as such shall be necessary for any determination by it to be made. However, in the event any meeting of the Condominium Board is held, a majority of the members of the Condominium Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and a majority of the votes cast at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall constitute the decision of such Board.

2.13.3 If at any Board meeting there is less than a quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time. At any such adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called may be transacted without further notice.

2.13.4 Members of any Board may participate in a meeting thereof by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in such meeting can hear each other and such participation shall constitute presence at such meeting. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, action permitted or required to be taken at a meeting of any Board may be taken without a meeting if all members of such Board consent in writing to the adoption of a Resolution authorizing such action and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of such Board.

2.14 Compensation. No member of any Board shall receive any compensation for acting as such.

2.15 Liability of Boards and Unit Owners.

2.15.1 To the extent permitted by applicable Law, no member of any Board shall have any personal liability with respect to any contract, act or omission of any Board or of any managing agent or manager in connection with the affairs or operation of the Condominium, the Commercial Section, or the Residential Section or any Limited Common Element (except in their capacities as Unit Owners) and the liability of any Unit Owner with respect thereto shall be limited as hereinafter set forth. Every contract made by any Board or by any managing agent or manager thereof shall state that it is made by such Board, managing agent or manager only as agent for all Unit Owners, Residential Unit Owners, or the Commercial Unit Owner, as the case may be, that such Board members or managing agent or manager shall have no personal liability thereon (except in their capacities as Unit Owners) and shall also state the applicable limitations of liability of Unit Owners provided for in the next sentence. The liability of any Unit Owner with respect to any contract, act or omission with respect to the Condominium or the Residential or Commercial Section, as the case may be, or any Limited Common Element shall be limited to such proportionate share of the total liability as the interest of such Unit Owner bears to the aggregate Common Interests of all Unit Owners, Residential Unit Owners, or the Commercial Unit Owner, as the case may be, and, unless expressly stated to the contrary in such contract (as determined by the relevant Board in its sole and absolute discretion), to the extent permitted by applicable Law, shall be limited to such Unit Owner's interest in such Unit Owner's Unit and such Unit Owner's appurtenant Common Interest so that such Unit Owner shall have no personal liability for such contract, act or omission. Nothing in the preceding sentence shall limit a Unit Owner's liability for the payment of Common Charges. Any such contract or agreement may also provide that it covers the assets, if any, of the Board on whose behalf the contract or agreement is made. Board members shall have no liability to Unit Owners except that a Board member shall be liable to such Unit Owner for such Board Member's own bad faith or willful misconduct. All Unit Owners shall severally, to the extent of their respective interests in their Units and their appurtenant Common Interests, indemnify each Condominium Board member and each Residential or Commercial Board member, as the case may be, against any liability or claim except those arising out of such member's own bad faith or willful misconduct. Any Board may contract or effect any transaction with any Board member, any Unit Owner, Declarant, Declarant's designee or any affiliate of any of them without, except in cases of bad faith or willful misconduct, incurring any liability for self-dealing.

2.15.2 No Board or any member thereof shall be liable for either (i) any failure or interruption of any utility or other service to be obtained by, or on behalf of, such Board or to be paid for as a Common Expense, except when any such failure or interruption is caused by the acts of bad faith or willful misconduct of such Board or any member thereof or (ii) any injury, loss or damage to any individual or property, occurring in or about either a Unit or any General or Limited Common Element.

2.16 Fidelity Bonds. Each Board shall obtain or ensure maintenance of fidelity bonds or insurance, in amounts deemed appropriate by it, for all of its members, officers and employees and for the managing agent or manager, if any, employed by it and the premiums on such bonds or insurance shall constitute General Common Expenses, Commercial Common Expenses, or Residential Common Expenses, as the case may be.

2.17 Committees. Each Board may, subject to such limitations and exceptions as such Board may prescribe, appoint an Executive Committee and such other committees as such Board may deem appropriate, each to consist of as many members as such Board shall deem appropriate for the purpose of making such reports and studies as each such Board deems appropriate. Any Executive Committee of the Condominium Board shall be required to consist of at least one member of the Residential Board and one member of the Commercial Board. For so long as Declarant is entitled to designate members to any Board, any committee appointed by any such Board shall have as at least one of its members a member appointed by Declarant.

2.18 Principal Offices of Boards. The principal offices of the Boards shall each be located within the Property or at such other place in the Borough of Manhattan reasonably convenient thereto as may be designated from time to time by such Boards.

2.19 Status of Boards. In addition to the status conferred upon each of the Boards under or pursuant to the provisions of the Condominium Act, each of the Boards shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, be deemed to constitute a separate association for all purposes under and pursuant to the provisions of the General Associations Law of the State of New York. In the event of the incorporation of any of the Boards pursuant to the provisions of 2.20, the provisions of this Section 2.19 shall no longer be applicable to such Board.

2.20 Incorporation of Boards. To the extent and in the manner provided in the Condominium Act, each of the Boards may by action of such Board as provided in this Article 2, be incorporated under the applicable statutes of the State of New York. In the event that any Board so incorporates, it shall have, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, the status conferred upon it under such statutes in addition to the status conferred upon such Board under or pursuant to the provisions of the Condominium Act. The certificate of incorporation and by-laws of any such resulting corporation shall conform as closely as practicable to the provisions of the Declaration and these By-Laws and the provisions of the Declaration and these By-Laws shall control in the event of any inconsistency or conflict between the provisions hereof and the provisions of such certificate of incorporation and by-laws.

2.21 Boards as Agents of Unit Owners. In exercising their respective powers and performing their respective duties under the Declaration and these By-Laws, each Board shall act in good faith as, and shall be, the agent of the Unit Owners such Board represents, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration and these By-Laws.

At such meetings, the incumbent Board members shall resign and the members of the Residential Board shall be elected and there shall also be transacted such other business as may properly come before such meetings. The members of the Residential Board shall also serve as members of the Condominium Board. No joint annual meeting of Residential Unit Owners and the Commercial Unit Owner shall be required to be held unless otherwise required by Law, in which event each such joint annual meeting shall be held on the date above specified for the annual meeting of Residential Unit Owners.

3.2 Place of Meetings. Meetings of all or any Unit Owners, Residential Unit Owners or the Commercial Unit Owner, as the case may be, shall be held at the principal office of the Condominium or the Residential or Commercial Section, respectively, or, at such other suitable and convenient place in the Borough of Manhattan, as may be designated by the appropriate Board.

3.3 Special Meetings. The President of the Residential or Commercial Board shall call a special meeting of respective Unit Owners, if so directed by resolution of the respective Board or upon a petition signed and presented to the Secretary of the respective Section by Unit Owners holding in the aggregate not less than 25% in Common Interest of all Unit Owners in such Section. The President and the Vice President of the Condominium shall call a special joint meeting of all Unit Owners if so directed by resolution of the Condominium Board or upon a petition signed and presented to the Secretary of the Condominium by Unit Owners holding in the aggregate not less than 25% in Common Interest of Residential Unit Owners or 100% in Common Interest of Commercial Unit Owner.

3.4 Notice of Meetings and Actions Taken. Notice of each annual or special meeting shall be given by the appropriate Secretary to all Unit Owners of record entitled to vote thereat. All notices hereunder shall be given by personal delivery, mail or telegram, at least ten (10) but no more than thirty (30) business days prior to the day named for the meeting and shall be given or sent to the Unit Owners entitled to receive same at their address at the Property or at such other address at the Property or elsewhere as any Unit Owner has designated by notice in writing to the appropriate Secretary at least ten (10) days prior to the giving of notice of the applicable meeting. However, if the business to be conducted at any meeting of the Unit Owners shall include consideration of a proposed amendment to the Declaration or to these By-Laws, the notice of such meeting shall be given to all Unit Owners as provided above at least thirty (30) days prior to the day fixed for such meeting, and such notice shall be accompanied by a copy of the text of such proposed amendment.

3.5 Adjournment of Meetings. If any joint or separate meeting of Unit Owners cannot be held because a quorum is not present, a Majority of Unit Owners who are present at such meeting, either in person or by proxy, may adjourn the meeting to a time not less than 48 hours from the time fixed for the original meeting.

The designation of any such proxy shall be made in writing to the Secretary of the appropriate Board and shall be revocable at any time by written notice to such Secretary by the Unit Owner so designating; provided, however, that no designation to act as a proxy shall be effective for a period in excess of six months except a designation of a Permitted Mortgagee to act as the proxy of its mortgagor. A fiduciary shall be the voting member with respect to any Unit owned in a fiduciary capacity. No Board or its designee shall be entitled to vote the interest appurtenant to any Unit owned by such Board and the Common Interest of such Unit shall be excluded from the total Common Interests when computing the interest of Unit Owners for voting purposes.

3.8.2 Except as otherwise set forth herein or in the Declaration, at all meetings of Unit Owners, each Unit Owner (or such Unit Owner's proxy) entitled to vote thereat (including Declarant with respect to Units owned by Declarant or its designee) shall be entitled to cast one vote for each .0001% (rounded off to the nearest .0001%) of Common Interest attributable to such Unit Owner's Unit.

3.8.3 Whenever a particular percentage of Common Interest must be reached for voting purposes and such required percentage is in terms of the Residential Unit Owners, as a group, or the Commercial Unit Owner (as opposed to all Unit Owners as a whole), such required percentage shall mean a percentage in terms of total Common Interests attributable to that particular group and not the percentage of Common Interests attributable to all Unit Owners.

3.9 Election of Board Members; Rights of Declarant.

3.9.1 All elections of Board members shall be determined by plurality vote.

3.9.2 When voting for members of the Residential or Commercial Board, respectively, the voting shall be by ballot and each ballot shall state the name of the Unit Owner voting and the percentage of Common Interests owned by such Unit Owner, and in addition, the name of the proxy if such ballot is cast by a proxy. Each Unit Owner shall be entitled to cast the number of votes determined in accordance with Subsection 3.8.2 for each member to be elected by the Unit Owners. Nothing contained in these By-Laws shall be deemed to permit cumulative voting.

3.9.3 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 3.9 or any other provision of these By-Laws to the contrary, commencing with the first annual meeting of Residential Unit Owners, Declarant shall have the right to vote all of the Common Interests attributable to Unsold Residential Units owned by it until Declarant has closed title to all of the Unsold Residential Units owned by it so that none of them remain Unsold Units. Declarant shall hold a majority of seats on the Board of Managers until the later to occur of (i) five (5) years from the date of the First Unit Closing or (ii) the date upon Declarant shall own Unsold Residential Units having a percent Common Interest in the Residential Section in the aggregate of ten (10%) percent or less (the "Declarant Control Period"). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Declarant conveys title to all of the Unsold Residential Units in less than five (5) years from the date of the First Unit Closing, Declarant or its designee shall relinquish control of the Board of Managers after the conveyance of title to the last Unsold Residential Unit. In addition, even after the later of (i) and (ii), above, for so long as Declarant owns Unsold Residential Units having a percentage of Common Interest in the Residential Section in the aggregate of at least five (5%) percent Declarant shall have the right to designate two (2) members of the Residential Board, and for so long as Declarant owns at least one (1) of the Unsold Residential Units, Declarant shall have the right to designate one (1) member of the Residential Board. For so long as Declarant owns at least one (1) of the Unsold Residential Units, the number of members of the Residential Board may not be increased without the consent of Declarant.

3.9.4 Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 3.9.3 of these Bylaws, Declarant, as a controlling member of the Board, may exercise veto power over decisions with respect to Common Expenses, other than Common Expenses required to (i) to comply with applicable laws or regulations; (ii) to remedy any notice of violation; or (iii) to remedy any work order by an insurer.

3.9.5 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section 3.9 or any other provision of these By-Laws to the contrary, commencing upon the recording of these By-Laws with the Register's Office, Declarant shall have the right to vote all of the Common Interests attributable to the Unsold Commercial Unit owned by it until Declarant has conveyed title to the Unsold Commercial Unit.

3.10 Majority of Unit Owners. Except as may otherwise be provided by Law, as used in these By-Laws, the terms "Majority of Residential Unit Owners", and "Majority of Unit Owners" means either those Residential Unit Owners, or Unit Owners, as the case may be, having more than 50% of the total authorized votes of either Residential Unit Owners, or all Unit Owners, as the case may be, determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 3.8, who are present in person or by proxy and voting at any meeting at which a quorum is present.

3.11 Quorum. Except as otherwise provided in these By-Laws, the presence in person or by proxy of (a) Residential Unit Owners owning more than 50% of the Common Interests attributable to all Residential Units shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of Residential Unit Owners, (b) the Commercial Unit Owner owning 100% of the Common Interests attributable to the Commercial Unit Owner shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the Commercial Unit Owner, and (c) Unit Owners owning more than 50% of the Common Interests attributable to all Units shall constitute a quorum at all joint meetings of Unit Owners, except that the Commercial Board shall have the absolute right to require an adjournment of such joint meetings for not longer than 30 days unless an emergency exists.

3.12 Majority Vote. Except where otherwise provided by Law, the Declaration or these By-Laws, (a) at all separate meetings of Residential Unit Owners, the affirmative vote of a Majority of Residential Unit Owners shall be binding upon all Residential Unit Owners for all purposes, (b) at all separate meetings of the Commercial Unit Owner, the affirmative vote of the Commercial Unit Owner shall be binding upon the Commercial Unit Owner for all purposes, and (c) at all joint meetings of Unit Owners, the affirmative vote of a Majority of Unit Owners shall be binding upon all Unit Owners for all purposes.

3.13 Determination of Unit Owners. When the Residential Unit Owners and Commercial Unit Owner, with each acting separately in accordance with the provisions of this Article 3, have made the same determination as to any matter which is required or permitted to be determined by all Unit Owners, such determination shall constitute the determination of all Unit Owners. No joint meeting of Residential Unit Owners and the Commercial Unit Owner shall be necessary for any such determination to be made by all Unit Owners.

OPERATION OF THE PROPERTY

6.1 Determination of Common Expenses and Fixing of Common Charges.

6.1.1 Except as otherwise provided herein, all costs and expenses attributable to the repair, maintenance, replacement, restoration and operation of, and any alteration, addition or improvement to, the General Common Elements ("General Common Expenses") shall be determined by the Condominium Board as set forth below, and shall be borne by the Unit Owners. General Common Expenses shall also include all such other items provided for in the Declaration or these By-Laws to be General Common Expenses. General Common Expenses shall also include such amounts as the Condominium Board may deem proper for a general operating reserve or for a reserve for working capital or for replacements with respect to the General Common Elements. The Condominium Board shall from time to time and at least annually prepare a budget to meet General Common Expenses and shall allocate and assess to the Residential Unit Owners, Storage Unit Owners and the Commercial Unit Owner, pro rata in accordance with the aggregate respective Common Interests of the Unit Owners (except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or these By-Laws, or to the extent a different method of allocation is described in Schedule B, Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation ("Schedule B"), as set forth in the Plan, a copy of which is attached hereto and made a part hereof as Exhibit E) ("General Common Charges") to meet General Common Expenses. In addition to basing charges on Common Interests, the Condominium Board may also make allocations and assessments of General Common Expenses in accordance with submetering, contract allocations, and usage (both projected and actual) so long as such allocations are reasonable under the circumstances and are in accordance with applicable Law. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth above, the Condominium Board may not modify its method of allocations and assessments or increase the services or number of building employees servicing the Commercial Unit in such a manner as would increase the Common Charges otherwise payable by the Commercial Unit Owner, without the consent of the Commercial Unit Owner. To the extent practicable, the Condominium Board shall allocate costs based upon metered or submetered usage.

6.1.2 Except as otherwise provided herein, all costs and expenses in connection with the repair, maintenance, replacement, restoration and operation of and any alteration, addition or improvement to Residential Common Elements or the Residential Limited Common Elements ("Residential Common Expenses") shall be determined exclusively by the Residential Board and shall be borne solely by the Residential Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests, except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Subsection 6.1.2, if a Residential Common Element or Residential Limited Common Element benefits only certain Residential Unit Owners, then the costs of alteration, addition, repair, replacement and restoration thereto (except in connection with a casualty or condemnation) shall be borne solely by those Residential Unit Owners who benefit from the Residential Common Element or Residential Limited Common Element in the proportion that the Common Interest of each benefiting Residential Unit Owner bears to the Common Interest of all benefiting Residential Unit Owners, except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws. In addition, except as otherwise provided in these By-Laws, such Residential Unit Owners shall be responsible for the normal operation, maintenance and repair, including but not limited to the cost of staff necessary for such operation, maintenance and repair, of any such Residential Common Element or Residential Limited Common Element at their sole cost and expense. Residential Common Expenses shall include, without limitation, such amounts as the Residential Board may deem proper for a general operating reserve or for a reserve for working capital or for replacements with respect to the Residential Common Elements or the Residential Limited Common Elements and the rental or purchase of an apartment to be used as the residence of the Building resident manager and all costs and expenses associated therewith. Residential Common Expenses shall also include all such other items provided for in the Declaration or these By-Laws to be Residential Common Expenses. The Residential Board shall from time to time and at least annually prepare a budget to meet Residential Common Expenses and shall allocate and assess to the Residential Unit Owners, pro rata in accordance with their respective Residential Common Interests (except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or these By-Laws), charges ("Residential Common Charges") to meet (a) Residential Common Expenses and (b) the Residential Unit Owners' pro rata share of General Common Charges (except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or these By-Laws). From time to time the Residential Board may increase or decrease the amount of Residential Common Charges payable for a fiscal year or any portion thereof to meet a revised estimate or determination of Residential Common Expenses for such fiscal year or any portion thereof. During the Condominium's initial two fiscal years but not thereafter, the Residential Board's authority shall include the right to base the amount of Residential Common Charges on actual costs and expenditures and/or to make retroactive adjustments to the amount of Residential Common Charges payable by Residential Unit Owners for any period to reflect actual operating costs for such period. In addition to basing charges on Common Interests, the Residential Board may also make allocations and assessments of Residential Common Expenses in accordance with submetering, contract allocations and usage (both projected and actual) so long as such allocations are reasonable under the circumstances and are in accordance with applicable provisions of Law. The Residential Board shall advise all Residential Unit Owners promptly in writing of the amount of Residential Common Charges payable by each of them and shall furnish copies of each annual budget to all Residential Unit Owners and Permitted Mortgagees thereof. In the event that the annual receipts collected from Unit Owners during the first year of Condominium operation commencing on the date of First Unit Closing exceed the actual expenses less income from sources other than Unit Owners for that period accounted for on an accrual basis by an amount in excess of $100,000, the receipts from Unit Owners over and above such amount may be rebated to the Unit Owners by the Condominium Board in proportion to each Unit's percentage of Common Interest (except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws). Rebates, if any, attributable to Units purchased from Declarant during the first year of condominium operation will be distributed by the Condominium Board to Declarant and the Residential Unit Owner(s) in proportion to the amount of time Declarant and each Residential Unit Owner owned such Unit.

6.1.3 Except as otherwise provided herein, all costs and expenses in connection with the repair, maintenance, replacement, restoration and operation of, and any alteration, addition or improvement to, Commercial Common Elements ("Commercial Common Expenses") shall be determined by the Commercial Board and shall be borne solely by the Commercial Unit Owner. Commercial Common Expenses shall also include such amounts as the Commercial Board may deem proper for a general operating reserve or for a reserve for working capital or for replacements with respect to the Commercial Common Elements, and such amounts, determined by the Commercial Board as may be required for the purchase, lease or sublease by the Commercial Board or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of the Commercial Unit Owner, of any portion of a Commercial Unit whose owner has elected to sell, lease, transfer or convey such portion of the Unit or which is to be sold at a foreclosure or other sale. Commercial Common Expenses shall also include all such other items provided for in the Declaration or these By-Laws to be

Commercial Common Expenses. The Commercial Board shall from time to time and at least annually prepare a budget to meet Commercial Common Expenses and shall allocate and assess to the Commercial Unit Owner, pro rata in accordance with their respective Common Interests (except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or these By-Laws), charges ("Commercial Common Charges") to meet (a) Commercial Common Expenses, and (b) the Commercial Unit Owner's pro rata share of General Common Charges. Such budgets shall include such amounts for reserves as the Commercial Board deems appropriate. In addition to basing charges on Common Interests, the Commercial Board may also make allocations and assessments of Commercial Common Expenses in accordance with sub-metering, contract allocations and usage (both projected and actual) so long as such allocations are reasonable under the circumstances and are in accordance with applicable provisions of Law. The Commercial Board shall furnish copies of each budget on which such Commercial Common Charges are based to the Permitted Mortgagees thereof.

6.1.4 Except as otherwise provided herein, all costs and expenses in connection with the repair, maintenance, replacement, restoration and operation of and any alteration, addition or improvement to Storage Common Elements ("Storage Common Expenses") shall be determined exclusively by the Residential Board and shall be borne solely by the Storage Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests, except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws. The Residential Board shall from time to time and at least annually prepare a budget to meet Storage Common Expenses and shall allocate and assess to the Storage Unit Owners, pro rata in accordance with their respective Common Interests (except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or these By-Laws), charges ("Storage Common Charges") to meet (a) Storage Common Expenses and (b) the Storage Unit Owners' pro rata share of General Common Charges (except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or these By-Laws). From time to time the Residential Board may increase or decrease the amount of Storage Common Charges payable for a fiscal year or any portion thereof to meet a revised estimate or determination of Storage Common Expenses for such fiscal year or any portion thereof. During the Condominium's initial two fiscal years but not thereafter, the Residential Board's authority shall include the right to base the amount of Storage Common Charges on actual costs and expenditures and/or to make retroactive adjustments to the amount of Storage Common Charges payable by Storage Unit Owners for any period to reflect actual operating costs for such period. In addition to basing charges on Common Interests, the Residential Board may also make allocations and assessments of Storage Common Expenses in accordance with submetering, contract allocations and usage (both projected and actual) so long as such allocations are reasonable under the circumstances and are in accordance with applicable provisions of Law. The Residential Board shall advise all Storage Unit Owners promptly in writing of the amount of Storage Common Charges payable by each of them and shall furnish copies of each annual budget to all Storage Unit Owners and Permitted Mortgagees thereof. In the event that the annual receipts collected from Unit Owners during the first year of Condominium operation commencing on the date of First Unit Closing exceed the actual expenses less income from sources other than Unit Owners for that period accounted for on an accrual basis by an amount in excess of $100,000, the receipts from Unit Owners over and above such amount may be rebated to the Unit Owners by the Condominium Board in proportion to each Unit's percentage of Common Interest (except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws). Rebates, if any, attributable to Units purchased from Declarant during the first year of condominium operation will be distributed by the Condominium Board to Declarant and the Storage Unit Owner(s) in proportion to the amount of time Declarant and each Storage Unit Owner owned such Unit.

6.1.5 The excess of all rents, profits and revenues derived from the rental or use of any space or facility forming part of or included in any General Common Element remaining after the deduction of any non-capital expenses paid or incurred in connection therewith shall be collected by the Condominium Board as agent for and on behalf of the Unit Owners, or forming a part of or included in any Residential or Commercial Common Element remaining after the deduction of any non-capital expenses paid or incurred in connection therewith shall be collected by (i) the Residential Board if a Residential Common Element is involved, as agent for and on behalf of the Residential Unit Owners or (ii) the Commercial Board if a Commercial Common Element is involved, as agent for and on behalf of the Commercial Unit Owner. Notwithstanding any provision contained in these By-Laws or in the Declaration to the contrary, in no event shall any rent, profit or revenue derived from the rental or use of any space in the Building be deemed to be derived from the rental or use of any floor slabs, ceilings or walls delineating or enclosing such space or the incidental use of any portion of any Common Elements appurtenant to such space.

6.1.6 Common Expenses shall include real estate taxes and other taxes and assessments on the Property until the Units are separately assessed.

6.1.7 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no part of the net earnings of the Condominium may inure (other than by acquiring, constructing, or providing management, maintenance, and care of association property, and other than by a rebate of excess membership dues, fees, or assessments) to the benefit of any Unit Owner or individual.

6.1.8 The Board shall have the right, subject in all respects to the provisions of Section 2.2.7 hereof, to levy Special Assessments to meet Common Expenses. All Special Assessments relative to the Common Elements shall be levied against all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests (except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws). Special Assessments may be payable either in one lump sum or in installments, as the Board shall determine; provided, however, that the Board shall give each Unit Owner not less than thirty (30) days' written notice prior to the date upon which such Special Assessment, or the first installment thereof, shall be due and payable, which notice shall set forth, in reasonable detail, the nature and purpose thereof. The Board shall have all rights and remedies for the collection of Special Assessments as are provided herein for the collection of Common Charges.

6.1.9 The Board of Managers shall deliver a copy of the annual financial report for the prior fiscal year to all Unit Owners, in accordance with Article 5 of these By-Laws, by March 15 of each calendar year.

6.1.10 Real Property Law Section 339-kk shall apply in the event that Declarant or any other non-occupant Unit Owner fails to timely pay Common Charges in accordance with these By-Laws.

6.1.11 In accordance with Section 339-m of the Real Property Law and these By-Laws, the Board of Managers shall have the right to impose Common Charges based on factors other than a Unit's percentage of Common Interest.

6.2 Insurance.

6.2.1 The Condominium Board shall be required to obtain and maintain to the extent obtainable the following insurance: (a) fire insurance with all risk extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief endorsements and increased cost of construction endorsements, insuring the entire Building, together with all service machinery contained therein and covering the interests of the Condominium, each of the Boards and all Unit Owners and their Permitted Mortgagees, as their respective interests may appear, in an amount equal to the full replacement value of the Building (exclusive of foundation and footings), said policies shall contain a New York standard mortgagee clause in favor of each Permitted Mortgagee which shall provide that the loss, if any, thereunder shall be payable to such Permitted Mortgagee as its interest may appear, subject however, to the loss payment provisions hereinafter set forth; (b)rent insurance in an amount equal to Common Charges for one year; (c) worker's compensation and New York State disability benefits insurance; (d) boiler and machinery insurance; (e) plate glass insurance to the extent, if any, determined by the Condominium Board; (f) water damage insurance to the extent, if any, determined by the Condominium Board; (g) elevator liability and collision insurance; (h) fidelity insurance covering all Boards and all officers, directors, managing agents and employees of the Condominium, the Residential Section, and the Commercial Section; (i) directors and officers liability insurance; and (j) such other insurance as the Condominium Board may determine. For so long as the Unsold Residential Units and Commercial Unit are owned by Declarant, the Condominium Board shall also maintain war risk insurance, to the extent obtainable from the United States of America or any agency thereof at reasonable rates, flood insurance and insurance against loss or damages from leakage of sprinkler systems, steam boilers, air conditioning equipment, pressure vessels or similar apparatus or such other insurance as may be required by any Permitted Mortgagee holding a mortgage on the Unsold Units. The premiums for all insurance referred to above and for the liability insurance referred to below shall be a General Common Expense and shall be borne by the Residential Unit Owners, Storage Unit Owners and the Commercial Unit Owner in such proportions between them, with due consideration to their respective risks, liabilities and replacement values, as are equitable (as determined by the respective insurance carriers thereof or their agents, brokers or other such parties designated by the Condominium Board). If any such insurance carrier, agent, broker or other party fails to make such determination and the Residential Board and the Commercial Board fail to agree on a determination or if either disagrees with any such determination made by such insurance carrier, agent, broker or other party or if there is any other dispute under this Subsection 6.2.1, the matter shall be determined by Arbitration.

6.2.2 All such policies shall provide that adjustment of loss shall be made exclusively by (a) the Residential Board if the loss involves only the Residential Section, (b) the Commercial Board if the loss involves only the Commercial Section, (c) the Condominium Board if the loss involves both the Residential Section and the Commercial Section, or the General Common Elements. Insurance proceeds with respect to any loss shall be payable to the Board entitled to adjust such loss, as aforesaid, except that the proceeds of all policies of physical damage insurance, if in excess of $1,000,000, shall be payable to a New York City bank or trust company designated by the Condominium Board as Insurance Trustee (as hereinafter defined) pursuant to the provisions of Section 12.5. Any dispute between or among the Boards under this Subsection 6.2.2 shall be determined by Arbitration.

6.2.3 All policies of physical damage insurance shall contain, to the extent obtainable, waivers of subrogation and waivers of any defense based on (i) co-insurance, (ii) other insurance, (iii) invalidity arising from any acts of the insured, or (iv) pro rata reduction of liability, and shall provide that such policies may not be canceled or substantially modified without at least ten days' prior written notice to all of the insureds, including all Unit Owners and Permitted Mortgagees. The Condominium Board shall provide copies of insurance certificates to any Permitted Mortgagee upon request. Further, all Permitted Mortgagees shall be notified in writing within ten (10) days of the lapse of any insurance policy maintained by the Board of Managers.

6.2.4 The Condominium Board shall also be required to obtain and maintain, comprehensive general liability insurance against claims for personal injury, death or property damage occurring upon, in or about the Property, in such limits as such Board may from time to time determine, covering (i) each Board, the managing agent or agents thereof, each Board member, and each officer and employee of the Condominium and Residential and Commercial Section, (ii) the Commercial Unit Owner, and its managing agent or agents, (iii) Declarant and its members and the officers of its members, (iv) each Residential Unit Owner, except that such policy will not cover liability of a Residential Unit Owner arising from occurrences within such Residential Unit Owner's own Unit or within the Limited Common Elements, if any, appurtenant to such Residential Unit Owner's Unit, and (v) each Storage Unit Owner, except that such policy will not cover liability of a Storage Unit Owner arising from occurrences within such Storage Unit Owner's own Storage Unit. The Condominium Board shall review such limits once each year. The insurance required in accordance with this Subsection 6.2.4 shall also cover cross-liability claims of one insured against another.

6.2.5 Any insurance maintained by the Condominium Board may provide for such deductible amounts as such Board determines.

6.2.6 The Condominium Board is not required to obtain or maintain any insurance with respect to any personal property contained in a Unit. A Unit Owner shall, at the Unit Owner's own cost and expense, obtain and keep in full force and effect (a) comprehensive personal liability insurance against any and all claims for personal injury, death or property damage (including, but not limited to, loss due to water damage) occurring in, upon, or from the Unit or any part thereof, with minimum combined single limits of liability of $500,000 for bodily injury or death arising out of any one occurrence including $500,000 for damage to property and (b) tenant's "all-risk" property insurance in respect of property damage occurring in, upon, or from the apartment or any part thereof (including, but not limited to appropriate coverage for additions, alterations improvements and betterments and loss due to water damage). The limits of liability set forth in (a) and (b) above may be increased by the Condominium Board from time to time. The insurance required above shall be written in form reasonably satisfactory to the Condominium Board by good and solvent insurance companies of recognized standing, admitted to do business in the State of New York. Upon ten (10) days' written notice from the Condominium Board or the Managing Agent, the Unit Owner shall deliver to the Condominium Board a duplicate original of the aforesaid policies, certificates evidencing such insurance or such other confirmation satisfactory to the Condominium Board. To the extent either party is insured for loss or damage to property, each party will look to their own insurance policies for recovery.

6.3 Repair or Reconstruction after Fire or Other Casualty.

6.3.1 In the event that the Building or any part thereof is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty (unless 75% or more of the Building is destroyed or substantially damaged and 75% of all Unit Owners, as well as Permitted Mortgagees which represent at least 51% of the Units encumbered by a Permitted Mortgage, in number and Common Interest, affirmatively resolve not to proceed with repair or restoration), the Residential Board with respect to any damage to or destruction of the Residential Section, the Commercial Board with respect to any damage to or destruction of the Commercial Section, and the Condominium Board with respect to any damage to or destruction of the General Common Elements, will arrange for the prompt repair and restoration thereof and the applicable Board or the Insurance Trustee, as the case may be, shall disburse the proceeds of all insurance policies to the contractors engaged in such repair and restoration in appropriate progress payments. If only the Commercial Section (including the Commercial Common Elements) is destroyed or damaged by fire or other casualty and if the net insurance proceeds are less than sufficient to cover, or exceed, the cost of repairs and restoration, the Commercial Unit Owner, in proportion to its respective Common Interests, will bear the entire amount of the deficit as a Commercial Common Expense, or shall receive all of the surplus, as the case may be. Similarly, if only the Residential Section is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty and the insurance proceeds are less than sufficient to cover, or exceed, the cost of repairs and restoration, the deficit or surplus, as the case may be, will be borne as a Residential Common Expense or profit, respectively, and shared entirely by all Residential Unit Owners (and, as applicable Storage Unit Owners) in proportion to their respective Common Interests (except with respect to Residential Limited Common Elements, in which case such cost of repairs and restoration, the deficit or surplus, as the case may be, will be borne by the Residential Unit Owners whose Unit is appurtenant to such Residential Limited Common Element, and except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws). If said damage or destruction by fire or other casualty affects the Commercial Section, the Residential Section and the General Common Elements, or any combination of two thereof, then any deficit or surplus in insurance proceeds shall be borne or shared by all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests in the proportion that the cost of repairing the damage or destruction to the Residential Section, Commercial Section and General Common Elements, as the case may be, bears to the total cost of repairing all damage or destruction. However, the Commercial Board shall still have the right to make all arrangements for the prompt repair and restoration of the Commercial Unit to the extent they are affected by such damage or destruction (except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws). If said damage or destruction, however, affects only the General Common Elements, then any deficit or surplus in insurance proceeds shall be borne as a General Common Expense or profit, respectively, as provided in 6.1.1 or shared by all Unit Owners in proportion to their Common Interests. Any surplus payable to any Unit Owner pursuant to this Subsection 6.3.1 shall be lessened by such amounts as may be required to reduce unpaid liens (other than mortgages which are not Permitted Mortgages) on any such Unit in the order or priority of such liens. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if only the storage rooms containing Storage Units and the Storage Common Elements are damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty and the insurance proceeds are less than sufficient to cover, or exceed, the cost of repairs and restoration, the deficit or surplus, as the case may be, will be borne as a Storage Common Expense or profit, as the case may be, and shared entirely by all Storage Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests (except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws).

6.3.2 Unless the Unit Owners and Permitted Mortgagees have elected not to restore the Building as provided in Subsection 6.3.3., damage or destruction to a Unit or a Limited Common Element as a result of fire or other casualty shall be promptly repaired and reconstructed by the Owner of the affected Unit(s) where such repair or reconstruction does not involve the Common Elements for which the repair or reconstruction is the obligation of the Condominium Board, the Residential Board or the Commercial Board as provided in Subsection 6.3.1. If a Unit Owner fails to repair or reconstruct such Unit Owner's Unit, the Board of Managers may cause the Unit to be repaired or reconstructed and the costs incurred in connection therewith shall be a charged to the defaulting Unit Owner as a Special Assessment.

6.3.3 If 75% or more of the Building is destroyed or substantially damaged and if 75% of all Unit Owners, as well as Permitted Mortgagees which represent at least 51%, in number and Common Interest of Units encumbered by a Permitted Mortgage, affirmatively resolve not to proceed with the repair or restoration thereof, the Building will not be repaired and the Property shall be subject to an action for partition instituted by any Unit Owner or lienor, as if owned in common, in which case the net proceeds of sale, together with the net proceeds of insurance policies, shall be divided among all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests (except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws); provided, however, that no payment shall be made to a Unit Owner until there has first been paid out of such Unit Owner's share of such funds, such amounts as may be necessary to discharge or reduce all unpaid liens on such Unit Owner's Unit (other than mortgages which are not Permitted Mortgages) in the order of the priority of such liens. As used in this Section 6.3, the words "promptly repaired and reconstructed" mean resolve as promptly as practical under the circumstances but in any event, not more than 60 days from the date of such damage or destruction.

6.3.4 Any dispute between or among any Boards arising under this Section 6.3 shall be determined by Arbitration.

6.3.5 In the event that a material portion of the Building or a Unit which secures a Permitted Mortgage is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, the Board shall send notice to such affected Permitted Mortgagee (if the Board has been given the name and address of such Permitted Mortgagee) within thirty (30) days from the day that such damage or destruction occurred.

6.4 Payment of Common Charges.

6.4.1 The Residential Unit Owners and the Commercial Unit Owner shall be obligated to pay to the Condominium Board the General Common Charges assessed to them by the Condominium Board pursuant to the provisions of Section 6.1 at such time or times as the Condominium Board determines. All Residential Unit Owners and Commercial Unit Owner shall be obligated to pay Residential or Commercial Common Charges, as the case may be, assessed by the Residential and Commercial Boards pursuant to the provisions of Section 6 at such time or times as such Boards determine. The Boards may jointly determine to cause the Condominium Board to act as their respective agent to collect Residential Common Charges and Commercial Common Charges as applicable. Unless otherwise determined by the Board to which they are payable, Common Charges shall be payable monthly, in advance, on the first day of each month.

6.4.2 No Unit Owner shall be liable for the payment of any part of the Common Charges assessed against such Unit Owner's Unit subsequent to a sale or other conveyance by him (made in accordance with these By-Laws) of such Unit together with its appurtenant Common Interests. Any Unit Owner may, subject to the terms and conditions of these By-Laws and provided that (a) such Unit is free and clear of liens and encumbrances other than Permitted Mortgages and the statutory lien for unpaid Common Charges which have become due and payable, and (b) no violation of any provision of the Declaration, these By-Laws or the Rules and Regulations then exists with respect to such Unit, convey for no consideration such Unit together with its appurtenant Common Interests, to the Residential or Commercial Board or the Condominium Board or their designees, corporate or otherwise, and in such event (except as hereinafter set forth), be exempt from Residential or Commercial Common Charges or General Common Charges, as the case may be, thereafter accruing. A purchaser of a Unit shall be liable for the payment of Common Charges accrued and unpaid against such Unit prior to the acquisition by him of such Unit, except that, to the extent permitted by Law, a Permitted Mortgagee who purchases a Unit at a foreclosure sale of a Permitted Mortgage shall not be liable for, and such Unit shall not be subject to, a lien for the payment of more than six (6) months of unpaid Common Charges accrued and unpaid against such Unit prior to the acquisition by said purchaser of such Unit. However, in the event of a foreclosure sale of a Unit by a Permitted Mortgagee, the owner of such Unit prior to the foreclosure sale shall remain liable for the payment of all unpaid Common Charges which accrued prior to such sale. Except to the extent prohibited by Law, the Residential Board, on behalf of all Residential Unit Owners, shall have a lien on each Residential Unit for unpaid Residential Common Charges, together with interest thereon, assessed against such Unit. Except to the extent prohibited by Law, the Commercial Board, on behalf of the Commercial Unit Owner, shall have a lien on the Commercial Unit for unpaid Commercial Common Charges, together with interest thereon, assessed against such Unit. In addition, except to the extent prohibited by Law, the Condominium Board, on behalf of all Unit Owners, shall have a lien for General Common Charges unpaid to it by (i) the Residential Unit Owners, together with interest thereon, on all Residential Units, in proportion to their respective Common Interests, and (ii) the Commercial Unit Owner, together with interest thereon, on the Commercial Unit, in proportion to its respective Common Interests.

6.4.3 All liens provided for in Subsection 6.4.2, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, shall be subordinate to the lien of any first Permitted Mortgage of record and to liens for real estate taxes on the Unit.

6.4.4 Notwithstanding Subsection 6.4.2, neither the seller nor the purchaser of a Residential Unit shall be liable for, nor shall the Residential Unit be conveyed subject to a lien for, any unpaid Common Charges against such Residential Unit accrued prior to such conveyance in excess of the amount set forth in a written statement from the Residential Board.

6.4.5 In the event that prior to the Units being separately assessed for real estate tax purposes, a Board pays real estate taxes on behalf of a Unit Owner, the amount of such real estate taxes shall be deemed to be Common Charges, and such Board shall have a lien (as provided in Subsection 6.4.2) for any such accrued and unpaid amounts.

6.5 Collection of Common Charges. Each Board shall take prompt action to collect any Common Charges due to such Board which remain unpaid for more than thirty days after the due date for payment thereof. In the event that any Board fails to take such action, another Board in its own name, or, if necessary, in the name of the Board to which such charges are due, may take any action for the collection of such charges which the Board to which such charges are due may have taken, including, without limitation, the institution of such actions and the recovery of interest and expenses as provided in this Article 6.

6.6 Default in Payment of Common Charges. In the event that a Unit Owner is delinquent in the payment of Common Charges, or any other assessment or charges levied by the Board for sixty (60) days or more, the Board shall promptly notify the Unit Owner's Permitted Mortgagee of such delinquency in writing. In the event any Unit Owner fails to make payment of Common Charges when due, such Unit Owner shall be obligated to pay (a) a "late charge" equal to the greater of $150.00 or one (1%) percent of such amounts which remain unpaid for more than ten days from their due date (although nothing herein shall be deemed to extend the period within which such amounts are to be paid), and (b) interest at the rate of 1.5% per month (but in no event in excess of the maximum rate permitted by Law) on such unpaid amounts computed from the due date, thereof, together with all costs and expenses, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees paid or incurred by any Board or by any managing agent in any proceeding brought to collect such unpaid Common Charges or in any action to foreclose the lien on such Unit arising from said unpaid Common Charges as provided in Section 339-z of the New York Condominium Act, in the manner provided in Section 339-aa thereof or in any other manner permitted by Law. All such "late charges", interest, costs and expenses shall be added to and shall constitute Common Charges payable by such Unit Owner. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each Board may establish its own alternate fees or interest rate for late payments, whether such fees or interest rate are more or less than the charges set forth herein.

6.7 Foreclosure of Liens for Unpaid Common Charges. In any action brought by any Board to foreclose a lien on a Unit because of unpaid Common Charges, the Unit Owner of such Unit shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the use and occupancy of such Unit Owner's Unit and the plaintiff in such foreclosure action shall be entitled to the appointment, without notice, of a receiver to collect the same. The Board, acting on behalf of all Unit Owners represented by such Board, shall have the power to purchase any such foreclosed Unit, and to acquire, hold, lease, mortgage, convey or otherwise deal with such Unit or portion thereof (but not to vote the votes appurtenant to such Unit or portion thereof). A suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid Common Charges shall be maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing such charges. In the event the net proceeds received on such foreclosure sale (after deduction of all legal fees, advertising costs, brokerage commissions and other costs and expenses incurred in connection therewith) are insufficient to satisfy the defaulting Unit Owner's obligations, such Unit Owner shall remain liable for the deficit. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth above, the Condominium Board, the Residential Board and the Commercial Board, at the request of Declarant or a Commercial Unit Owner, will enter into a non-disturbance agreement with any tenant with which Declarant or a Commercial Unit Owner has entered into a lease for any of the Commercial Unit. Under the terms of the non-disturbance agreement, the tenant will acknowledge that the lease is subject and subordinate to the Declaration and the Boards will agree that so long as there is no event of default under said lease, as would entitle the Declarant, the Commercial Unit Owner or any successor landlord under the lease to terminate the lease or dispossess the tenant thereunder, the tenant shall not be named or joined in any action or proceeding to foreclose the Board's lien on a Commercial Unit for Common Charges or any other sums of any sort, and the Boards shall agree that the lease shall not be terminated nor shall the tenant's use, possession, or enjoyment of the Commercial Unit in question be interfered with, nor shall the leasehold estate granted by the lease be affected in any manner, nor shall any of the rights of the tenant granted under the lease be affected in any manner, in any foreclosure or other action or proceeding instituted under or in connection with such lien or in the exercise of any rights of the Boards, or, in case any Board takes possession of the Commercial Unit pursuant to any provision of the Declaration or By-Laws, or otherwise; provided however that if any Board or any other party succeeds to the interests of the Declarant or Commercial Unit Owner under the lease the tenant will agree to be bound to such Board or party under all of the terms, covenants and conditions of the lease and the tenant will attorn to such Board or party as its landlord.

6.8 Statement of Common Charges. Each Board shall promptly provide the other Boards and any Unit Owner who so requests, with a written statement of all unpaid Common Charges due to it from Unit Owners.

6.9 Maintenance and Repairs.

6.9.1 Except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or these By-Laws, all painting, decorating, maintenance, repairs and replacements, whether structural or nonstructural, ordinary or extraordinary, (a) in or to any Unit (excluding Common Elements included therein except as otherwise provided in these By-Laws) shall be made by the owner of such Unit at such Unit Owner's sole cost and expense, and shall conform to standards established by the Board of Managers, (b) in or to the General Common Elements shall be made by the Condominium Board and, except as otherwise provided herein, the cost and expense thereof shall be charged to the Residential Unit Owners and the Commercial Unit Owner as a General Common Expense, (c) in or to the Residential Common Elements or the Residential Limited Common Elements shall be made by the Residential Board and, except as otherwise provided herein, the cost and expense thereof shall be charged to all Residential Unit Owners as a Residential Common Expense, (d) in or to the Commercial Common Elements shall be made by the Commercial Board and, except as otherwise provided herein, the cost and expense thereof shall be charged to the Commercial Unit Owner as a Commercial Common Expense, and (e) in or to the Storage Common Elements shall be made by the Residential Board and, except as otherwise provided herein, the cost and expense thereof shall be charged to all Storage Unit Owners as a Storage Common Expense.

6.9.1.1 Notwithstanding that operational windows (including frames) located in Residential Units are Residential Common Elements, in the event that one or more such windows and/or window frames is damaged the Residential Board shall repair or replace such window and/or window frame and the cost of such repair or replacement shall be borne by such Residential Unit Owner. It shall be the responsibility of the Residential Board to ensure that replacement Residential Unit windows contain safety "stops" designed specifically to prevent a child from falling out of the window.

6.9.1.2 In the event that the New York City Building Code in effect requires some or all of the Lot-Line Window openings to be closed, the work to close such window openings shall be performed by the Board and the cost shall be borne by all Residential Unit Owners of the Condominium as a Residential Common Expense. However, any and all work required or desired to be undertaken inside the Unit (such as, but not limited to, drywall installation and repair, painting and woodwork) shall be performed by the Unit Owner at such Unit Owner's sole cost and expense.

6.9.2 Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection 6.9.1:

6.9.2.1 In the event that any painting, decorating, maintenance, repairs or replacements to the Property or any part thereof is necessitated by the negligence, misuse or neglect of (a) any Unit Owner or any guest, agent, licensee, tenant or invitee of a Unit Owner, the entire cost thereof shall be borne by such Unit Owner, (b) the Condominium Board, the entire cost thereof shall be charged to the Residential Unit Owners, the Storage Unit Owners and the Commercial Unit

Owner as a General Common Expense, (c) the Commercial Board, the entire cost thereof shall be charged to the Commercial Unit Owner as a Commercial Common Expense, or (d) the Residential Board, the entire cost thereof shall be charged to all Residential Unit Owners and Storage Unit Owners as a Residential Common Expense, except in all such cases to the extent such cost is covered by the proceeds of any insurance maintained pursuant to the provisions hereof.

6.9.2.2 The interior and exterior glass surfaces of all windows located in any Residential Unit shall not be colored or painted and no neon or colored lights may emanate therefrom and neither the windows, window frames nor mullions may be modified, altered or replaced without the consent of the Residential Board.

6.9.2.3 Residential Unit Owners with a terrace appurtenant to their Residential Unit shall be responsible for all normal maintenance of such terrace at such Residential Unit Owner's sole cost and expense. The repair and replacement of the exterior surface of such terrace (e.g., pavers) shall be performed by the Residential Board and charged to the Residential Unit Owner. However, any structural or extraordinary repairs (non-recurring repair which requires more than the usual annual expense for ordinary wear) or replacements to such terrace (including any leaks which are not caused by the negligence of the Residential Unit Owner having access to the same) shall be made by the Residential Board and the cost and expense thereof shall be charged to all Unit Owners as a Common Expense. Residential Unit Owners with a balcony appurtenant to their Residential Units shall be responsible for all normal maintenance of such balcony at the Residential Unit Owner's sole cost and expense. Structural and nonstructural repairs and replacements to any balcony shall be made by the Residential Board, at the Residential Board's discretion, and charged to such Residential Unit Owner. The Residential Board may require a Residential Unit Owner to remove plants and other installations placed on terraces or balconies by said Residential Unit Owners if the Residential Board determines, in its reasonable discretion, that such plants and other installations adversely affect the integrity of the terraces or balconies or any part of the Building appurtenant thereto. Further, the Residential Board may direct a Residential Unit Owner to remove all personal items from a terrace or balcony for maintenance, repairs and replacements thereto. The Residential Board may establish such other rules and regulations it deems necessary to protect the Residential Common Elements and the Residential Units and the Condominium Board may establish such rules and regulations as it deems necessary to protect the health and safety of the occupants.

6.9.2.4 The exterior surface of all windows in the Residential Section if so determined by the Residential Board, shall be washed and cleaned by such Board and the cost and expense thereof shall be a Residential Common Expense. Otherwise, the exterior of all windows in the Residential Section shall be washed or cleaned at the cost and expense of the Residential Unit Owner. The interior glass surfaces of all windows located in any Commercial Unit and the exterior glass surfaces of all windows located in the Commercial Unit shall be washed and cleaned by the Commercial Unit Owner or occupant thereof at such Commercial Unit Owner's sole cost and expense. No Unit Owner or occupant shall clean or permit to be cleaned any window or require, permit or allow it to be cleaned, from the outside, in violation of Section 202 of the Labor Law of the State of New York, or any future Law of like import, or (if applicable) in violation of the rules of the Board of Standards and Appeals of the City of New York or any other governmental authority having jurisdiction over the Land or the Building. Each Unit Owner shall indemnify the Condominium Board and the other Unit Owners, and their respect agents and employees, for all losses, damages, or fines suffered by any of them as a result of a violation of the aforesaid, Laws, ordinances, regulations or rules.

6.9.2.5 The exterior of all front doors of Residential Units shall not be painted or decorated other than with the consent of the Residential Board.

6.9.2.6 Any repairs or maintenance work performed with respect to the individual HVAC units in each Residential Unit shall only be performed by a company or individual previously approved by the Residential Board.

6.9.2.7 It shall be the obligation of the Condominium Board to clean the sidewalks surrounding the Building and to remove the snow therefrom, and to maintain, repair and replace the sidewalks per the requirements of applicable Law. The cost of maintaining, repairing and replacing the sidewalks shall be a General Common Expense. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) the cost of cleaning the sidewalks adjacent to the Commercial Unit shall be borne by the Commercial Unit Owner as a Commercial Common Expense and (ii) the cost of cleaning the sidewalks adjacent to the entrances to the Residential Section shall be borne by the Residential Unit Owners as a Residential Common Expense.

6.9.3 Each Unit and all portions of the Common Elements shall be kept in first-class condition (and with respect to any terrace, roof or other part of the Property exposed to the elements, free of snow, ice and accumulation of water) by the Unit Owner or Board, whichever is responsible for the maintenance thereof as set forth herein, and such Unit Owner or Board, as the case may be, shall promptly make or perform, or cause to be made or performed, all maintenance work, repairs and replacements necessary in connection therewith. In addition, the public areas of the Building and the Common Elements shall be kept in good, clean and neat appearance, m conformity with the dignity and character of the Building, by (a) each Board with respect to such parts of the Building required to be maintained by it, and (b) each Residential Unit Owner with respect to the windows and shades, Venetian or other blinds, drapes, curtains or other window decorations in or appurtenant to such Unit Owner's Unit. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to limit, in any way, the Commercial Unit Owner with respect to window treatments or entranceways into such Units or the use of windows and shades, Venetian or other blinds, drapes, curtains or other window decorations in their respective Commercial Unit.

6.9.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Declaration or the By-Laws, the Condominium Board shall not, without the consent of the Declarant and the Commercial Unit Owner, decrease the level of services available to the Commercial Unit as of the date of the filing of the Declaration, including, but not limited to, heat and cooling which shall be made available to the Commercial Unit 365 days a year (or 366 in a leap year), 24 hours a day.

6.9.5 In the event of an "emergency" (i.e., a condition requiring repair or replacement immediately necessary for the preservation or safety of the Building or for the safety of occupants of the Building or other persons, or required to avoid the suspension of any necessary service in the Building) (i) affecting the Residential Section, Commercial Section employees will assist Residential Section employees, and (ii) affecting the Commercial Section, Residential Section employees will assist Commercial Section employees and the costs thereof shall be appropriately allocated to the Section receiving the benefit of such assistance.

6.9.6 The Storage Units shall be maintained, repaired and replaced by the Residential Board as deemed necessary by the Residential Board. The cost of maintaining repairing and replacing the Storage Units shall be charged by the Residential Board to the affected Storage Unit Owner.

6.10 Violations of Maintenance Obligations.

6.10.1 In the event that any Residential Unit Owner fails to perform any of its obligations with respect to the painting, decorating, maintenance, repair or replacement of its Unit as provided in this Article 6 or of any Limited Common Element for which such Unit Owner is responsible under the Declaration or these By-Laws, the Residential Board may, but shall not be obligated to, perform or cause to be performed such painting, decorating, maintenance, repair or replacement unless such Residential Unit Owner, within thirty (30) days after receiving notice of such default from the Residential Board (or sooner, and without the need to give notice, in the case of emergency), cures such default, or in the case of a default not reasonably susceptible to cure within such period, commences and thereafter prosecutes to completion, with due diligence, the curing of such default. All sums expended and all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the making of any such painting, decorating, maintenance, repair or replacement by the Residential Board, together with 10% for overhead and interest thereon at the rate of 2% per month from the date on which such Board first incurs any cost or expense (but in no event in excess of the maximum rate permitted by Law), shall be immediately payable by such Residential Unit Owner to such Board and shall, for all purposes hereunder, constitute Common Charges payable by such Residential Unit Owner.

6.10.2 In the event that the Commercial Unit Owner fails or neglects in any way to perform any obligation with respect to the maintenance, repair or replacement of such Unit Owner's portion of the Commercial Unit, the Commercial Board may, but shall not be obligated to, perform or cause to be performed any such painting, decorating, maintenance, repair or replacement provided that (a) the Commercial Board gives the Commercial Unit Owner written notice that such repair or replacement is necessary (except in the case of an emergency, in which case no notice shall be required) and that the Commercial Board will complete such repair or replacement in the event the Commercial Unit Owner does not promptly act or complete the repair or replacement, and (b) the Commercial Unit Owner, within thirty (30) days after receiving such notice, fails to cure its default, or in the case of a default not reasonably susceptible to cure within such period, fails to commence and to thereafter prosecute to completion, with due diligence, the curing of such default. All sums expended and all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the making of any such painting, decorating, maintenance, repair or replacement by the Commercial Board, together with 10% for overhead, interest thereon at the rate of 2% per month from the date on which the Commercial Board first incurs any cost or expense (but in no event in excess of the maximum rate permitted by Law) shall be payable by such Commercial Unit Owner to the Commercial Board and shall, for all purposes hereunder, constitute Commercial Common Charges payable by such Commercial Unit Owner. The Commercial Board shall have the right, in the event that the Commercial Unit Owner disputes the amount of such payment or whether the Commercial Unit Owner is obligated to pay the same, to submit such dispute to Arbitration. The Commercial Unit Owner shall pay the cost of such repair or replacement only after a determination by Arbitration (or by a court) to the effect that (i) the repair or replacement was required to be performed by the Commercial Unit Owner, (ii) the Commercial Unit Owner failed to perform such repair or replacement, and (iii) the cost of such repair or replacement by the Commercial Board was reasonable. Any repair or replacement performed by the Commercial Board in accordance with the terms of this Subsection 6.10.2 shall be its sole responsibility with respect to the quality of such repair or replacement and the proper completion thereof. The Commercial Board shall indemnify the Commercial Unit Owner and hold it harmless from and against any claims, costs, expenses or liabilities whatsoever, including reasonable counsel fees, in any way incurred by the Commercial Unit Owner, in connection with the manner of completion of such painting, decorating, maintenance, repair or replacement by the Commercial Board of any defect described herein (but not for the existence of the condition requiring such repair or replacement).

6.11 Alterations, Additions, Improvements and Repairs of Units.

6.11.1 No Residential Unit Owner shall make any structural addition, improvement or repair in or to such Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit without the prior written approval of the Residential Board which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. The Residential Board shall have the obligation to answer any written request by the Residential Unit Owners for approval of a proposed structural alteration, addition, improvement or repair in or to such Residential Unit Owner's Unit within 45 days after such request is received, and the failure to do so within the stipulated time shall constitute the Residential Board's consent to the proposed alteration, addition, improvement or repair. Prior to, and as a condition of, the granting of its consent to the making of a structural alteration, addition, improvement or repair in or to a Residential Unit, the Residential Board may exercise the right to reasonably approve the Residential Unit Owner's contractors and suppliers, and may, at its option, require the Residential Unit Owner to execute an agreement in form and substance satisfactory to the Residential Board setting forth the terms and conditions under which such alteration, addition, improvement or repair may be made, including, without limitation, the days and hours during which any work may be done. The Residential Board may impose fees upon a Residential Unit Owner to reimburse the Residential Board for its costs incurred in reviewing or supervising the aforesaid work.

6.11.2 The Commercial Unit Owner may make structural or non-structural alterations, additions, improvements or repairs to the Commercial Unit (including the storefront window system, but not the façade of the Building), provided that (i) such work does not and could not adversely and materially affect and/or impact the Building; (ii) the structural integrity of the Building (including, without limitation, the foundation, structural elements, load bearing walls and slabs of the Building) is and could not be materially impacted or otherwise compromised; (iii) such alteration is performed in accordance with the insurance requirements established by the Board of Managers; (iv) all alterations, additions, improvements or repairs are consistent with the aesthetics of the remainder of the Building; and (v) such work is performed in accordance with all other provision of the Declaration and these By-Laws. The Commercial Unit Owner shall use commercially reasonable efforts to abide by all reasonable restrictions of the Board of Managers with respect to odors, noise, sound, dust and vapors that may be caused by such work. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for so long as Declarant or its designee owns at least one (1) Unsold Unit, any structural alteration, modification, addition or improvement to the Commercial Unit, and any alteration, modification, addition or improvement to the storefront of the Commercial Unit, shall require the prior written consent of Declarant or its designee.

6.11.3 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, neither Declarant or its designee nor a Permitted Mortgagee of Declarant or its designee or assignee, nor the owner of any Unsold Residential Unit shall be required to obtain the approval of any Board or any Unit Owner for any alteration, addition, improvement or repair, whether structural or non-structural, in or to Unsold Units including without limitation the installation of mezzanines in Unsold Residential Units, to the extent permitted by Law and applicable governmental regulations, or to enter into any alteration agreement with respect thereto.

6.11.4 All alterations, additions, improvements and repairs by any Board or Unit Owners shall be made in compliance with all Laws, rules, ordinances and regulations of all governmental authorities having jurisdiction thereof. A Unit Owner making or causing to be made any alteration, addition, improvement or repair shall agree, and shall be deemed to have agreed, to hold each Board and all other Unit Owners harmless from any costs or liability arising therefrom.

6.11.5 Any application to any department of The City of New York or to any other governmental authority having jurisdiction thereof for a permit to make a structural alteration, addition, improvement or repair in or to any Unit so approved by the appropriate Board (if such approval is required) shall, if required by Law or such department or authority, be executed by said Board or, if required, by the Condominium Board, provided that no Board shall incur any liability, cost or expense in connection with such application or to any contractor, subcontractor, material man, architect or engineer on account of such alteration, addition, improvement or repair or to any person having any claim for injury to person or damage to property arising therefrom. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth above, Declarant is hereby authorized on behalf of the Boards to execute such applications, permits or other documents as may be required to undertake, perform and complete such work to the Unsold Units, Commercial Unit and Common Elements as Declarant is entitled to perform in accordance with the terms of the Declaration and these By-Laws and to obtain such certificates of completion as may then be required by Law (collectively the "Required Documentation") and, the appropriate Board, if requested by Declarant, shall execute the Required Documentation.

6.11.6 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Declaration or these By-Laws, no work may be performed by a Residential Unit Owner until a permanent certificate of occupancy for the Building has been obtained, unless Declarant has expressly agreed otherwise in writing.

6.11.7 No Board or Unit Owner shall use or suffer to be used in any part of the Building any labor forces incompatible with the labor forces which are completing any construction of the Building on behalf of Declarant. In addition, the prosecution of the work necessary to obtain an amended or final Certificate of Occupancy for the Building as set forth in the Plan, including the completion of "punch list" work by or on behalf of Declarant, shall take precedence over the prosecution of any other work at the Building.

6.11.8 The Residential Board shall have the authority to establish rules for any non-structural alterations, additions, improvements or repairs made by any Residential Unit Owner to such Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit, except for Unsold Residential Units owned by Declarant, Declarant's designee, or a Permitted Mortgagee of Declarant for its designee or assignee.

6.12 Alterations, Additions, Improvements or Repairs to Common Elements. Except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or these By-Laws, all alterations, additions, improvements or repairs in or to any General or Limited Common Element shall be made by the Board or Unit Owner(s) required to maintain such General or Limited Common Element and the cost and expense thereof shall be charged to the Residential Unit Owners and the Commercial Unit Owner as a General Common Expense, to all Residential Unit Owners or the Commercial Unit Owner as Residential or Commercial Common Expense, or to the Unit Owner(s) responsible therefor, as the case may be. Whenever in the judgment of the Residential Board, the Commercial Board or the Condominium Board, as the case may be, the cost of any alteration, addition, improvement or repair would exceed $200,000 in the aggregate in any calendar year (except if such alteration, addition, improvement or repair is provided for in a duly approved budget), then such proposed alteration, addition, improvement or repair shall not be made unless first approved by a Majority of Residential Unit Owners, the Commercial Unit Owner, or a Majority of Unit Owners, as the case may be, who shall be required to bear the cost and expense thereof as aforesaid and by the Residential Mortgage Representatives (as hereinafter defined), if any, with respect to alterations, additions, improvements or repairs made by the Residential Board and, with respect to alterations made by the Commercial Board, with the consent of each Permitted Mortgagee holding a mortgage on a Commercial Unit. Except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or these By-Laws, all such alterations, additions, improvements or repairs costing in the aggregate $200,000 or less in any calendar year may be made as aforesaid without the approval of the Unit Owners or said Mortgage Representatives, or said Permitted Mortgagees.

6.13 Alterations of Certain Common Elements.

6.13.1 In the event that pursuant to any of the provisions of these By-Laws, any consent by any Board, Mortgage Representative or Unit Owner is required as a condition precedent to any alteration, addition or improvement to any Common Element (sometimes collectively referred to in this Section 6.13 as an "Alteration"), proposed to be made by Declarant or its designee, Unit Owners or any Board (sometimes collectively referred to herein as the "Proponent"), such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed by such Board, Mortgage Representative or Unit Owner (referred to in this Section 6.13 as the "Opposing Party") whose consent is so required. The Proponent shall give to the Opposing Party notice setting forth in reasonable detail the material aspects of such proposed Alteration. If the Opposing Party does not give notice of any objection to the Proponent within 30 days after the Proponent gives its notice, then the Opposing Party shall be deemed to have consented to the making of the proposed Alteration. If the Opposing Party does give notice of objection (which notice of objection shall set forth in reasonable detail the specific objection(s) of the Opposing Party) within such 30-day period and the Proponent considers such objection unreasonable, then the Proponent may submit to Arbitration the question of whether or not the Opposing Party unreasonably withheld its consent. If in such Arbitration it is determined that the Opposing Party unreasonably withheld its consent, the Proponent, as its sole remedy, may make the proposed Alteration. In no event shall any arbitrator in such Arbitration determine that the Opposing Party reasonably withheld its consent to such proposal if (a) the Proponent makes or causes to be made reasonable provisions providing (i) for the costs and expenses of the Alteration to be paid by it, and (ii) that all costs and expenses for maintaining and repairing such Alteration after its completion will not be charged to Unit Owners represented by the Opposing Party as Common Expenses (b) the proposed Alteration would not materially interfere with the use and enjoyment of the owners, tenants and occupants of those Units represented by the Opposing Party; and (c) the proposed Alteration would not materially adversely affect the structure of the Building or be in violation of the provisions of the Declaration or these By-Laws or with any Laws.

6.13.2 Nothing contained in Subsection 6.13.1 shall in any way be deemed to limit (a) the Proponent's right to modify any proposal made by it thereunder in such a manner as such Proponent believes will meet the objections of the Opposing Party or of any arbitrator, or (b) any party's right, pursuant to the other applicable provisions of these By-Laws or the Declaration, to make any Alteration to a Common Element without the Opposing Party's approval.

6.13.3 A Commercial Unit Owner shall be entitled, at its sole cost and expense, to make any alteration, addition, improvement or repair in or to the Commercial Common Elements, or the exterior facade of the Building adjacent to such Unit Owner's Unit at such Unit Owner's cost and expense, with the prior written approval of the Commercial Board, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, and, provided that Declarant or its designee owns at least one (1) Unsold Unit, with the prior written approval of Declarant or its designee.

6.14 Restrictions on Use of Units.

6.14.1 In order to provide for congenial occupancy of the Property and for the protection of the values of the Units, each Residential Unit shall be used only for residential purposes and for any home occupation uses to the extent permitted under applicable zoning Law and ordinances and other applicable governmental Laws and regulations, but in no event for commercial use and not for any use otherwise herein expressly prohibited by the Declaration or these By-Laws.

6.14.1.1 The Residential Board, may, in its discretion, grant permission for the use of a Residential Unit for any other purpose (but not for retail use), provided such use (1) is permitted by Law, (2) does not violate the then existing certificate of occupancy for such Residential Unit, (3) does not adversely affect the use and enjoyment of neighboring or adjacent Residential Units for residential purposes, and (4) complies with all applicable governmental regulations. Such permission by the Residential Board shall be in writing and shall be personal to the Residential Unit Owner to which such permission is given, and may be limited in duration and subject to such terms and conditions as the Residential Board may require. Any successor in title to such Residential Unit shall be required to obtain the prior written approval of the Residential Board before using such Residential Unit for any purpose other than stated in Subsection 6.14.1.

6.14.1.2 No portion of a Residential Unit (other than the entire Unit) may be sold, conveyed, leased or subleased, and no transient occupant (other than a guest permitted under this Subsection 6.14.1) may be accommodated therein.

6.14.2 Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection 6.14.1, Declarant or its designee may, without the permission of the Residential Board, (a) grant permission for the use of any Unsold Residential Unit for any purpose, provided such use is permitted by Law, does not violate the then existing certificate of occupancy for such Residential Unit and the user of such Unit complies with all applicable governmental regulations, (b) use any Unsold Residential Units as models and sales and/or promotion offices in connection with the sale or rental of the Units or for any other purpose, subject only to the provisions of the Declaration and these By-Laws and in compliance with applicable governmental Laws and regulations, and (c) use, or grant permission for the use of, the Common Elements, during regular business hours, for the purpose of advertising or otherwise promoting (i) the Building (ii) the sale or rental of any Unsold Units which Declarant or its designee owns and (iii) the commercial interests of Toll Brothers Inc., or any of its affiliates or subsidiaries.

6.14.3 No Unit Owner shall use, store, generate, treat, transport, handle or dispose of within its Unit or elsewhere in the Building any Hazardous Substances, other than ordinary cleaning fluids which are used, stored, generated, treated, transported, handled and disposed of by an occupant in strict compliance with applicable Law. "Hazardous Substances" means any pollutants, contaminants, toxic or hazardous substances, materials, wastes, constituents, compounds or chemicals (including, without limitation, petroleum or any by-products or fractions thereof, any form of natural gas, lead, asbestos and asbestos-containing materials, building construction materials and debris, polychlorinated biphenyls ("PCBs") and PCB-containing equipment, radon and other radioactive elements, ionizing radiation, electromagnetic field radiation and other non-ionizing radiation, infectious, carcinogenic, mutagenic, or etiologic agents, pesticides, defoliants, explosives, flammables, corrosives and urea formaldehyde foam insulation) that are regulated by, or may now or in the future form the basis of liability under, any Law.

6.14.4 Upon the transfer of title of the Commercial Unit by Declarant to a third-party, which transfer results in the Commercial Unit losing its status as an Unsold Unit, the Commercial Unit shall have installed therein a ceiling which is designed for sound attenuation and reduction.

6.14.5 Except for Storage Units Owned by Declarant or its designee, Storage Units shall only be sold by the Storage Unit Owner to a Residential Unit Owner. Storage Units shall only be leased by a Storage Unit Owner to a Residential Unit Owner or to a bona fide lessee of a Residential Unit Owner.

6.14.5.1 No Residential Unit Owner, other than Declarant, shall own more than two (2) Storage Units at a time without the express written consent of the Residential Board, or with respect to Unsold Storage Units, Declarant.

6.14.6 As more particularly set forth and described in the By-Laws, except as otherwise expressly provided herein or in the By-Laws, Storage Units shall only be used for the personal storage of Residential Unit Owners or the bona fide lessee thereof.

6.15 Use of Common Elements.

6.15.1 Common Elements may be used only for the furnishing of the services and facilities and for the other uses for which they are reasonably suited.

6.15.2 No furniture, packages or objects of any kind shall be placed in the lobbies, vestibules, public halls, stairways, public elevators or any other parts of the General or Limited Common Elements other than in (a) Residential Limited Common Elements for the exclusive use of a particular Residential Unit Owner or (b) in the areas designated as storage, without the prior consent of the Residential Board as to the Residential Common Elements, the Commercial Board as to Commercial Common Elements or the Condominium Board as to General Common Elements. The lobbies, vestibules, public halls, stairways and public elevators shall be used only for normal passage through them.

6.15.3 Residential Unit Owners shall require their tradesmen to utilize exclusively the elevator designated by the Residential Board, if any, for transporting packages, merchandise or other objects.

6.15.4 In the event that the Condominium Board erects a sidewalk bridge or other scaffolding at the Building, the Condominium Board shall give due regard to the use of the Commercial Unit at the time in question and shall use best efforts to (i) minimize any disruption to the use of and interference with the visibility of such Commercial Unit and (ii) not restrict ingress or egress through the exterior doorways to the Commercial Unit. In furtherance thereof, the Condominium Board agrees to consult with the Commercial Unit Owner prior to the installation of such sidewalk bridge or other scaffolding and to permit the Commercial Unit Owner to install, as a General Common Expense, signs upon the sidewalk bridge and scaffolding. Any sidewalk bridge or other scaffolding installed shall be a "two-story" structure with adequate lighting.

6.15.5 Except pursuant to the terms and provisions of the Declaration and these By-Laws, in no event shall the Condominium Board or Unit Owners impair, restrict or impede the use of the General Common Elements described in the Declaration, by the Commercial Unit Owner or anyone claiming by, through or under the Commercial Unit Owner including, but not limited to, the tenants and occupants of any portion of the Commercial Unit or their respective licensees or invitees.

6.15.6 The owner of any two or more Residential Units, which Units are serviced or benefited by any Common Element adjacent or appurtenant to such Units (for example, that portion at the end of any residential hallway which is directly adjacent to any such Units located on opposite sides of such hallway) shall, to the extent permitted by Law and with the consent of the Residential Board (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), have the exclusive right of use of such Common Element as if it were a part of such Units (including the right, in the above example of a portion of a hallway, to enclose such portion) and no amendment to the Declaration nor reallocation of Common Interests shall be made, provided such owner agrees, at its sole cost and expense, to (a) be responsible for the operation, maintenance and repair of such Common Element for so long as such owner exercises such exclusive right of use, and (b) restore such Common Element to its original condition, reasonable wear and tear excepted, after such owner ceases to exercise such exclusive right of use. The owner of any such Units which are Unsold Residential Units shall have the rights set forth in the preceding sentence without the necessity for obtaining the consent of the Board. Notwithstanding the above, if an owner transfers or conveys its Residential Units to a successor owner, the transferor need not comply with (b) above provided that the transferee agrees to abide by (a) and (b) above.

6.16 Other Provisions as to Use.

The Board of Managers is authorized to impose a fine on Unit Owners and their tenants, if any, for one or more violations of this provision, the amount of which shall be determined in the Board's sole discretion, as well as to commence legal proceedings to enjoin any conduct that would constitute a violation of this section. In the event that the Board brings a legal action to enforce this Section 6.16.2, the Unit Owner shall be responsible for the payment of all of the Board's legal costs, including disbursements. This Section 6.16.2 shall not be amended without Declarant's written consent for so long as Declarant owns at least one (1) Unsold Unit.

6.16.3 The Commercial Unit may be used for any lawful purposes, except the Commercial Unit Owner shall not use the Commercial Unit or any part thereof, and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to prevent the Commercial Unit or any portion thereof to be used as or for: 1) an operation primarily used as a storage warehouse operation; provided, however, that ancillary storage uses necessary for the operation of the business in the Commercial Unit shall be permitted; 2) a "second hand" store primarily selling used goods or clothing; 3) a pawn shop; 4) a dumping, disposing, incineration or reduction of garbage (exclusive of garbage compactors located in or adjacent to the Building); 5) a fire sale or bankruptcy sale (unless pursuant to a court order) operation; 6) a central laundry, dry cleaning plant or laundromat; provided, however, this prohibition shall not be applicable to supportive facilities for on-site services oriented to pickup and delivery by the ultimate consumer; 7) an automobile, truck, trailer or recreational vehicles sales, leasing or display operation that displays more than eight (8) vehicles on the ground floor. 6.16.3.2 The Commercial Unit Owner shall use commercially reasonable efforts to abide by all reasonable restrictions imposed by any Board on odors, noise, sound dust and vapors that emanate from the Commercial Unit.

6.16.4 The Commercial Unit Owner shall have the right to install signage and/or an awning ("Signage") on the fifteen (15) foot vertical portion of the Commercial Unit façade without the consent or approval of the Condominium Board, but with the reasonable consent of Declarant (or its designee) for so long as Declarant or its designee owns any Unsold Units, and subject to Sections 6.16.4.1 through 6.16.4.4. 6.17.1 Each Residential Unit Owner grants a right of access to such Unit Owner's Unit to each of the Boards, the managing agents, managers, superintendents and/or any other person authorized by any of the foregoing. The Commercial Unit Owner, upon the same terms and conditions as set forth in Subsection 6.23.1, and the Residential Unit Owners grant a right of access to their respective Units to each of the Boards, the managing agents, managers, superintendents and/or any other person authorized by any of the foregoing for the purpose of making inspections of, or for the purpose of removing violations noted or issued by any governmental authority against, the General or Limited Common Elements or any other part of the Property, or for the purpose of curing defaults hereunder or under the Declaration or Rules and Regulations by such Unit Owner or correcting any conditions originating in such Unit Owner's Unit and threatening another Unit or all or any part of the General or Limited Common Elements, or for the purpose of performing installations, alterations or repairs to the mechanical or electrical services or other portions of the General or Limited Common Elements within such Unit Owner's Unit or elsewhere in the Building, or for the purpose of reading, maintaining or replacing utility meters relating to the General or Limited Common Elements, Unit or any other Unit in the Building or to correct any condition which violates the provisions of any Permitted Mortgage covering another Unit, provided that requests for such entry are made not less than three (3) days in advance and that any such right shall be exercised in such a manner as will not unreasonably interfere with the normal conduct of business by the tenants and occupants of the Commercial Unit or with the use of the Residential Units for their permitted purposes. In case of an emergency, such right of entry shall be immediate, without advance notice, whether or not the Unit Owner is present.

6.17.2 Each Unit Owner grants a right of access to such Unit Owner's Unit, and the Boards shall grant rights of access to the General Common Elements and the respective Limited Common Elements to Declarant and its contractors, subcontractors, architects, engineers, agents and employees, for the completion of the Building and any punch list work therein, provided that access thereto shall be exercised upon reasonable notice during reasonable hours in such a manner as will not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Units for their permitted purposes.

6.18 Rules and Regulations. Annexed hereto as Schedule A and made a part hereof are rules and regulations (the "Rules and Regulations") concerning the use of the Residential Common Elements and the Residential Limited Common Elements. The Residential Board may from time to time, modify, amend or add to the Rules and Regulations except that a Majority of Residential Unit Owners may overrule such Board with respect to any such modification, amendment or addition. The Residential Board shall also have the authority to promulgate special rules and regulations concerning the use of Storage Units in the Building. The Commercial Board may adopt and from time to time, modify, amend or add to reasonable rules and regulations as they concern the use of the Commercial Unit and the Commercial Common Elements. The Condominium Board may adopt and from time to time, modify, amend or add to the Rules and Regulations concerning the use of the General Common Elements, except that a Majority of Unit Owners may overrule said Board with respect to any such adoption, modification, amendment or addition. 6.19 Real Estate Taxes, Water Charges and Sewer Rents. Water and sewer services shall be supplied to and for all of the Units and the Limited Common Elements through one or more building systems by the City of New York or such other utility servicing the Unit. Except to the extent Unit Owners are billed directly by the City Collector, the Condominium Board shall pay all such charges, together with all related sewer rents arising therefrom, promptly after the bills for the same shall have been rendered. The Commercial Board shall collect such charges from the Commercial Unit Owner which may be based on separate submetering of such Unit, and will remit such amount to the Condominium Board. The remaining costs for the Building will be paid by the Residential Unit Owners and included in Residential Common Charges. In the alternative, the Commercial Board may require the Commercial Unit Owner to install a separate water meter. Until the Units are separately assessed for real estate tax purposes, the Residential and Commercial Unit Owner shall pay their respective pro rata share of all real estate taxes with respect to the Property (in the proportion that the Common Interest that each Residential Unit or Commercial Unit, as the case may be, bears to the Common Interests of all Units) to the Condominium Board as Common Charges, which will in turn pay such taxes to the proper authorities of The City of New York. In the event of a proposed sale of any Residential Unit, the Residential Board, on request of the selling Residential Unit Owner, shall execute and deliver to the purchaser of such Unit or to such purchaser's title insurance company, a letter agreeing to pay all charges for water, sewer rents and real estate taxes (so long as such Board is still collecting and paying such charges) affecting such owner's Unit to the date of the closing of title to such Unit, promptly after such charges have been billed by the proper authorities; provided that such Unit Owner is not delinquent in the payment of Common Charges or Special Assessments.

6.20 Electricity. Electricity for each Unit shall be separately metered or sub-metered for each Unit (or portion thereof). Each Unit Owner shall be required to pay the bills for electricity consumed or used in such Unit Owner's Unit (or portion thereof) and the Limited Common Elements to which such Unit has exclusive access, directly to the utility company as directed by the Board except that in the event that the Units are sub-metered, such Unit Owner shall be required to pay bills for electricity consumed or used in such Unit Owner's Unit either to the Board or to the utility company or company engaged by the Board to perform such services as directed by the Board. The Common Expenses shall include fees for administering and servicing the sub-meters. In the event that a Unit Owner fails to pay for its sub-metered electricity, such electricity charges shall be deemed Common Charges allocable to the defaulting Unit Owner for which the Board shall have a lien as provided in Section 6.6. hereof. Electricity for the Residential Common Elements and Commercial Common Elements shall be supplied through separate master meters. The cost of master metered electricity which serves the Residential Common Elements shall be paid by the Residential Board and shall be borne by the Residential Unit Owners as Residential Common Charges. The cost of master metered electricity which serves the Commercial Common Elements shall be paid by the Commercial Board and shall be borne by the Commercial Unit Owner as Commercial Common Charges.

6.21 Gas. Gas for Residential Section heating and cooking will be supplied by the utility company servicing the gas distribution system and charges therefor shall be paid by the Residential Board and borne all Residential Unit owners as a Residential Common Expense. The Commercial Board of Managers reserves the right to install gas submeters or to require the Commercial Unit Owner to install separate gas meters.

6.22 Utilities Serving the General Common Elements. Except as otherwise provided in this Article 6, the cost and expense of water, sewer facilities, steam, electricity and gas serving or benefiting any General Common Element shall be (a) considered part of the expense of maintaining such General Common Element, (b) determined by the Condominium Board, and (c) charged to the Residential Unit Owners and the Commercial Unit Owner as a General Common Expense. Any dispute as to the amount of such cost or expense shall be determined by Arbitration.

6.23 Abatement and Enjoinment of Violations by Unit Owners.

6.23.1 The violation of any of the Rules and Regulations or the breach of any By-Law contained herein, or the breach of any provision of the Declaration, shall give (a) the Condominium Board with respect to matters affecting the General Common Elements, (b) the Residential Board with respect to matters affecting the Residential Section, and (c) the Commercial Board with respect to matters affecting the Commercial Section, the right, in addition to such other rights set forth in these By-Laws, (i) to enter any Residential Unit or Commercial Unit or General or Limited Common Element in which, or as to which, such violation or breach exists and to summarily abate and remove, at the expense of the defaulting Unit Owner, any structure, thing or condition resulting in such violation or breach and such Board shall not thereby be deemed guilty or liable in any manner of trespass, or (ii) to enjoin, abate or remedy by appropriate legal proceedings, either at Law or in equity, the continuance of any such violation or breach.

6.23.2 The violation or breach of any of the provisions of these By-Laws, any of the Rules and Regulations or the Declaration with respect to any rights, easements, privileges or licenses granted to Declarant or its designee shall give to Declarant and its designee the right, in addition to any other rights set forth in these By-Laws or the Declaration, to enjoin, abate or remedy by appropriate legal proceedings, either at Law or in equity, the continuance of any such violation or breach.

6.24 Artwork Provided by Declarant to the Residential Board. In the event that the Residential Board decides, at any time, to remove or replace any of the artwork that was installed by Declarant in the Building lobby or in any other Common Elements (including, but not limited to, any sculptures), the Residential Board shall, prior to disposing of such artwork, offer such artwork back to Declarant, in writing. If Declarant desires for such artwork to be returned to it, such return shall be made expeditiously by the Residential Board at the sole cost and expense of the Residential Board and at no cost to Declarant. If Declarant does not desire for such artwork to be returned to it, as evidenced by Declarant's written response to the Residential Board, or by a failure of Declarant to respond to the Residential Board within thirty (30) days from the postmark date of such written offer, the Residential Board shall have the right to transfer such artwork to any other third party. Any artwork that is caused to be transported by the Residential Board to Declarant shall be transported in accordance with generally accepted and commercially reasonable industry standards for transporting artwork of the size and value of the artwork being returned (including adequate insurance coverage, which shall be purchased at the Residential Board's sole cost and expense). The foregoing shall apply irrespective of whether Declarant owns any Unsold Units at the time that the Residential Board determines to dispose of such artwork and this Section 6.24 shall not be amended at any time without the prior written consent of Declarant.

A Unit Owner who mortgages such Unit Owner's Unit, or the holder of any mortgage encumbering such Unit, shall notify the Residential Board in the case of a Residential Unit or the Commercial Board in the case of all or a portion of the Commercial Unit, of the name and address of the mortgagee and shall file a conformed copy of the note and mortgage with such Board. Such Unit Owner shall, prior to making such mortgage, satisfy all unpaid liens against such Unit Owner's Unit other than Permitted Mortgages. A Unit Owner who satisfies a mortgage or causes the assignment of a mortgage covering such Unit Owner's Unit shall so notify the applicable Board and shall file a conformed copy of the satisfaction or assignment of such mortgage with such Board. Each of such Boards shall maintain such information in a book entitled "Mortgages of Units".

7.2 Notice of Default and Unpaid Common Charges. Whenever so requested in writing by a Permitted Mortgagee, the Residential Board with respect to Permitted Mortgagees of Residential Units and the Commercial Board with respect to Permitted Mortgagees of the Commercial Unit, shall promptly report to such Permitted Mortgagee any default in the payment of Residential Common Charges or Commercial Common Charges, as the case may be, or any other default by the Unit Owner of such Unit under the provisions of the Declaration or these By-Laws of which such Board may have received notice. Each Board, when giving notice to a Unit Owner of any such default, shall, if requested, also send a copy of such notice to any Permitted Mortgagee thereof. Any Permitted Mortgagee holding a mortgage on an Unsold Residential Unit or a Commercial Unit shall be deemed to have requested the notice referenced in the first sentence of this Section.

7.3 Performance by Permitted Mortgagees. The Residential Board, Commercial Board or Condominium Board, as the case may be, shall accept, by any Permitted Mortgagee of a Unit Owner, payment of any sum or performance of any act required to be paid or performed by such Unit Owner pursuant to the provisions of the Declaration, these By-Laws or the Rules and Regulations, with the same force and effect as though paid or performed by such Unit Owner, in which event the Permitted Mortgagee shall be subrogated to the rights and interests of the Condominium Board, the Residential Board or the Commercial Board as the case may be upon such payment or performance.

7.4 Examination of Books. Each Unit Owner and its Permitted Mortgagee shall be permitted to examine the books of account of the Condominium (including, in the case of Residential or the Commercial Unit Owner and Permitted Mortgagees thereof, the books of account of the Residential Section or the Commercial Section, as the case may be) at reasonable times, upon reasonable prior written notice to the applicable Board, on business days, but not more than once a month.

7.5 Representatives of Mortgagees.

7.5.1 In the manner more particularly set forth in Subsection 7.5.2, the holders of Institutional Residential Mortgages (as hereinafter defined) on any Residential Unit may, at their election, designate one or more (but not more than three) representatives ("Residential Mortgage Representatives") who shall be empowered to act on behalf of all holders of Institutional Residential Mortgages, with respect to any matter requiring their consent or approval under the Declaration or these By-Laws. If any Residential Mortgage Representatives are so designated and notice thereof is given to the Residential Board, the act of any such Representative (or a majority of such Representatives if more than one is so designated) shall be deemed binding upon the holders of all Institutional Residential Mortgages. As used herein, the term "Institutional Residential Mortgage" means an Institutional Mortgage (defined below) covering a Residential Unit or Units. As used herein the terms "Permitted Mortgage" and "Institutional Mortgage" means any first mortgage covering a Unit or Units, the initial holder of which is (i) Declarant or its designee, (ii) a savings bank, savings and loan association, bank or trust company, insurance company, real estate investment trust, investment or finance company, mortgage trust or entity which is in the business of providing loans secured by condominium units, or (iii) a federal, state, municipal, teacher's or union employee, welfare, pension or retirement fund or system.

7.5.2 Any designation of a Residential Mortgage Representative made in writing by the holders of Institutional Residential Mortgages on any Residential Unit, constituting a majority in principal amount of all Institutional Residential Mortgages shall be binding upon the holders of all Institutional Residential Mortgages. Any such designation of any Residential Mortgage Representative shall remain effective until (a) any subsequent designation thereof is made pursuant to the provisions hereof, and (b) notice of such subsequent designation is given to the appropriate Board. Unless otherwise required by Law, all Permitted Mortgagees holding mortgages on Residential Units, other than holders of Institutional Residential Mortgages, shall have no right to participate in the selection of Residential Mortgage Representatives, but such Permitted Mortgagees shall be subject to all determinations made by such Residential Mortgage Representatives pursuant to the Declaration or these By-Laws.

7.5.3 In the manner more particularly set forth in Subsection 7.5.4, the holders of Institutional Commercial Mortgages (as hereinafter defined) may, at their election, designate one or more (but not more than three) representatives ("Commercial Mortgage Representatives") who shall be empowered to act on behalf of all holders of Institutional Commercial Mortgages, with respect to any matter requiring their consent or approval under the Declaration or these By-Laws. If any Commercial Mortgage Representatives are so designated and notice thereof is given to the Commercial Board, the act of any such Representative (or a majority of such Representatives if more than one is so designated) shall be deemed binding upon the holders of all Institutional Commercial Mortgages. As used herein, the term "Institutional Commercial Mortgage" means an Institutional Mortgage (defined above) covering a Commercial Unit or Units.

7.5.4 Any designation of a Commercial Mortgage Representative made by the holders of Institutional Commercial Mortgages, constituting a majority in principal amount of all Institutional Commercial Mortgages shall be binding upon the holders of all Institutional Commercial Mortgages. Any such designation of any Commercial Mortgage Representative shall remain effective until (a) any subsequent designation thereof is made pursuant to the provisions hereof, and (b) notice of such subsequent designation is given to the appropriate Board. Unless otherwise required by Law, all Permitted Mortgagees of the Commercial Unit, other than holders of Institutional Commercial Mortgages, shall have no right to participate in the selection of Commercial Mortgage Representatives, but such Permitted Mortgagees shall be subject to all determinations made by such Commercial Mortgage Representatives pursuant to the Declaration or these By-Laws.

7.6 Consent of Mortgagees. Except as otherwise expressly provided for herein or in the Declaration, no consent or approval by any mortgagee shall be required with respect to any determination or act of any Board, officer or Unit Owner; provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall be deemed to limit or affect the rights of any mortgagee against its mortgagor.

SELLING, LEASING AND MORTGAGING OF UNITS

8.1 Selling and Leasing. No Residential Unit Owner, other than Declarant or its designee, shall sell or lease such Unit Owner's Unit except by complying with the following provisions.

8.1.1 Any Residential Unit Owner who receives a bona fide offer to (a) purchase such Unit Owner's Residential Unit together with its appurtenant Common Interest, or (b) lease such Unit Owner's Residential Unit (such offer to purchase or lease a Residential Unit, as the case may be, is called an "Outside Offer", the party making any such Outside Offer is called an "Outside Offeror", and the Residential Unit Owner to whom the Outside Offer is made is called an "Offeree Unit Owner"), which the Offeree Unit Owner intends to accept, shall give notice by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to the Residential Board of the receipt of such Outside Offer. Said notice shall include the name and address of the Outside Offeror, the terms of the proposed transaction (including, but not limited to, the intended closing date in the event of a purchase or intended occupancy date in the event of a lease) and such other information as the Residential Board may reasonably require. The giving of such notice to the Residential Board, on behalf of all the Unit Owners represented by the Residential Board, shall constitute an offer by the Offeree Unit Owner to sell such Unit Owner's Residential Unit together with its appurtenant Common Interest or to lease such Unit Owner's Residential Unit to the Residential Board, or its designee, corporate or otherwise, upon the same terms and conditions as contained in such Outside Offer and shall also constitute a representation and warranty by the Offeree Unit Owner to the Residential Board acting on behalf of all Residential Unit Owners that the Offeree Unit Owner believes the Outside Offer to be bona fide in all respects. The Offeree Unit Owner shall submit in writing such further information with respect thereto as the Residential Board may reasonably request. Not later than twenty (20) days after receipt of such notice together with such information as may have been requested by the Residential Board, the Residential Board may elect, by sending written notice to such Offeree Unit Owner before the expiration of said twenty (20) day period, by hand delivery or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to purchase such Residential Unit together with its appurtenant Common Interest or to lease such Residential Unit, as the case may be (or to cause the same to be purchased or leased by its designee, corporate or otherwise), on behalf of all Unit Owners represented by the Residential Board, upon the same terms and conditions as contained in the Outside Offer and as stated in the notice from the Offeree Unit Owner. However, if there is any inconsistency between such terms and conditions and the terms of this Article 8, the terms and conditions of this Article 8 shall prevail and shall be controlling.

8.1.2 In the event the Residential Board shall timely elect to purchase a Residential Unit together with its appurtenant Common Interest or to lease such Residential Unit or to cause the same to be purchased or leased by its designee, corporate or otherwise, then (a) with respect to a purchase, the Residential Board shall, upon the closing of title to such Unit, pay over the entire purchase price of such Residential Unit to the Offeree Unit Owner (without providing such Offeree Unit Owner with a deposit or down payment) and title shall close at the office of the attorneys for the Residential Board, in accordance with the terms of the Outside Offer, within the later of (i) 60 days after the giving of notice by the Residential Board of its election to accept such offer and (ii) the closing date specified in the Outside Offer and (b) with respect to a lease, the lease, upon the terms set forth in the Outside Offer, shall be executed within ten (10) days after the Residential Board elects to accept such offer. If pursuant to such Outside Offer, the Outside Offeror was to assume or take title to the Residential Unit subject to the Offeree

Unit Owner's existing mortgage or mortgages, the Residential Board may purchase the Residential Unit and assume or take title to the Residential Unit subject to said existing mortgage or mortgages, as the case may be and the Residential Board shall receive a credit against the purchase price for the entire principal balance of said mortgage(s). At the closing, the Offeree Unit Owner, if such Residential Unit together with its appurtenant Common Interest is to be sold, shall convey the same to the Residential Board, or to its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Residential Unit Owners, by deed in the form required by Section 339-o of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, with all tax and/or documentary stamps affixed at the expense of such Offeree Unit Owner, who shall also pay all other taxes arising out of such sale. Real estate taxes (including water charges and sewer rents if separately assessed), mortgage interest, if any, and Common Charges shall be apportioned between the Offeree Unit Owner and the Residential Board, or its designee, corporate or otherwise, as of the closing date. In the event such Residential Unit is to be leased, the Offeree Unit Owner shall execute and deliver to the Residential Board, or to its designee, corporate or otherwise, a lease between the Offeree Unit Owner, as landlord, and the Residential Board, or its designee, corporate or otherwise, as tenant, covering such Residential Unit, for the rental and term contained in such Outside Offer.

8.1.3 In the event the Residential Board or its designee shall fail to accept such offer within 20 days after receipt of notice, as aforesaid, the Offeree Unit Owner shall have an additional 60 days to accept the Outside Offer by executing and delivering a contract or lease, as the case may be. In the event the Offeree Unit Owner shall not, within such 60-day period, accept in writing the Outside Offer, or if the Offeree Unit Owner shall accept the Outside Offer within such 60-day period but such sale or lease, as the case may be, shall not be consummated within an additional 60 days following the expiration of such 60-day period, then, should such Offeree Unit Owner thereafter elect to sell such Residential Unit together with its appurtenant Common Interest or to lease such Residential Unit, as the case may be, the Offeree Unit Owner shall be required to again comply with all the terms and provisions of this Section 8.1. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Residential Board, in its discretion, may waive the Offeree Unit Owner's obligation to comply with either or both of the 60 day periods described herein or may extend either or both such periods, provided that such waiver or extension shall only be effective if in writing.

8.1.4 Any deed to an Outside Offeror shall be deemed to provide that the acceptance thereof by the grantee shall constitute an assumption of the provisions of the Declaration, these By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations, as the same may be amended from time to time.

8.1.5 Any lease executed in connection with the acceptance of any Outside Offer to lease a Residential Unit shall be consistent with these By-Laws and shall provide that it may not be materially modified, amended or extended without the prior consent in writing of the Residential Board, that the tenant shall not assign such Unit Owner's interest in such lease or sublet the demised premises or any part thereof without the prior consent in writing of the Residential Board and that the Residential Board, if permitted by applicable Law, shall have power to terminate such lease and/or to bring summary proceedings to evict the tenant in the name of the landlord thereunder, in the event of (i) a default by the tenant in the performance of its obligations under such lease, or (ii) a foreclosure of the lien granted by Section 339-z of the Real Property Law of the State of New York.

8.1.6 Except as hereinbefore set forth, the form of any such lease executed by the Residential Board or an Outside Offeror shall be a printed, reasonably applicable form of Residential lease which is generally approved by the Residential Board which governs the Unit to be leased and is accepted in New York City, such as an appropriate Real Estate Board of New York, Inc. or Blumberg form, and shall contain such modifications as shall be approved in writing by the Residential Board. Any lease executed by the Residential Board, as tenant, shall provide that the tenant thereunder may freely assign said lease or sublet all or part of the premises demised thereunder without the consent of the landlord.

8.1.7 The foregoing restrictions of this Section 8.1 shall apply to the sale or lease of Storage Units.

8.1.8 The foregoing restrictions of this Section 8.1 shall not apply to Unsold Residential Units (including the lease of or by a Residential Unit to Declarant or its designee or a lease by Declarant or its designee) or the Commercial Unit (or any commercial condominium units into which the Commercial Unit may hereafter be divided). Declarant or its designee, and the Commercial Unit Owner(s) shall have the right to freely sell their respective Units, or to freely lease all or any part of the Unsold Residential Units or the Commercial Unit as the case may be, without having to first offer the same for sale or lease to any Board.

8.2 Consent of Residential Unit Owners to Purchase or Lease of Residential Units, or Storage Units by Residential Board. The Residential Board shall not exercise any option hereinabove set forth to purchase or lease any Residential Unit and/or Storage Unit without the prior approval of a Majority of Residential Unit Owners. However, the Residential Board shall have the right to release or waive such option without the prior approval of a Majority of Residential Unit Owners.

8.3 No Severance of Ownership. No Unit Owner shall execute any deed, mortgage or other instrument conveying or mortgaging title to such Unit Owner's Unit without including therein its appurtenant Common Interest, it being the intention to prevent any severance of such combined ownership. Any such deed, mortgage or other instrument purporting to affect one or more of such interests without including all such interests shall be deemed and taken to include the interest or interests so omitted even though the latter shall not be expressly mentioned or described therein. No part of the Common Interest appurtenant to any Unit may be sold, conveyed or otherwise disposed of, except as part of a sale, conveyance or other disposition of the Unit to which such interest is appurtenant or as part of a sale, conveyance or other disposition of such part of the appurtenant Common Interests of all Units. Nothing in this Section 8.3 shall permit the lease of any Unit without the simultaneous lease of its appurtenant Common Interest.

8.4 Release by Residential Board of Right of First Refusal. The right of first refusal contained in Section 8.1 may be released or waived by the Residential Board only in the manner provided in Section 8.5. In the event the Residential Board shall release or waive its right of first refusal as to any Residential Unit, such Residential Unit together with its appurtenant Common Interest may be sold, conveyed or leased, free and clear of the provisions of Subsections 8.1 .1 and 8.1.2, provided that such sale, conveyance or lease occurs within any applicable time periods required pursuant to Subsection 8.1.3.

8.5 Certificate of Termination of Right of First Refusal. A certificate executed by an officer of the Residential Section stating that the provisions of Subsection 8.1.1 have been met by a Residential Unit Owner or stating that the right of first refusal contained therein has been duly released or waived by the Residential Board, and that as a result thereof the rights of the Residential Board thereunder have terminated (provided that any sale, conveyance or lease occurs within any applicable time periods required pursuant to Subsection 8.1.3), shall be conclusive upon the Residential Board and the Residential Unit Owners in favor of all persons who rely on such certificate in good faith. The Residential Board shall furnish such certificate upon request to any Residential Unit Owner with respect to whom the provisions of Subsection 8.1.1 have, in fact, terminated.

8.6 Financing of Purchase of Residential Units or Storage Units by Residential Board. The purchase of any Residential Unit and/or Storage Unit by the Residential Board or its designee, on behalf of all Residential Unit Owners, may be made from the funds deposited in the capital and/or expense accounts of the Residential Board. If the funds in such accounts are insufficient to effectuate any such purchase, the Residential Board may levy a Special Assessment against each Residential Unit Owner in proportion to such Unit Owner's respective Common Interest (except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws), as a Common Charge, and/or the Residential Board may, in its discretion, finance the acquisition of such Unit; provided, however, that no such financing may be secured by an encumbrance or hypothecation of any portion of the Property other than the Unit to be purchased (plus any other Units that then owned by the Residential Board together with its (their) appurtenant Common Interest(s).

8.7 Exceptions. The provisions of Section 8.1 shall not apply with respect to any lease, sale or conveyance of any Residential Unit or Storage Unit together with its appurtenant Common Interest by (a) the Unit Owner thereof to such Unit Owner's spouse, domestic partner, adult children or grandchildren, parents, grandparents, adult siblings or to any one or more of them or to any affiliate of the Unit Owner thereof, (b) Declarant or its designee, (c) the Residential Board, (d) the sale of a Residential Unit and/or Storage Unit in connection with the foreclosure of a mortgage or other lien covering such Residential Unit and/or Storage Unit or giving of a deed in lieu of such foreclosure, provided that such lien is not held by the Unit Owner or spouse, domestic partner, adult children or grandchildren, parents, grandparents, adult siblings or to any one or more of them or to any affiliate of the Unit Owner thereof, or (e) a Permitted Mortgagee or such Permitted Mortgagee's nominee, who has acquired title to any Residential Unit and/or Storage Unit at any foreclosure sale of such Unit Owner's Permitted Mortgage or by deed in lieu thereof delivered in a bona fide transaction; provided, however, that each succeeding Residential Unit Owner shall be bound by, and such Unit Owner's Residential Unit and/or Storage Unit subject to, the provisions of this Article 8. In addition, the provisions of Section 8.1 shall not apply to any lease, sale or conveyance of the Commercial Unit or any part thereof. The term "affiliate" shall be deemed to be an individual or entity which owns more than 50% of the beneficial interest of such Unit Owner, or an entity with respect to which such Unit Owner owns more than 50% of the legal and beneficial interest.

8.8 Gifts and Devises, etc. Any Residential Unit Owner shall be free to convey or transfer such Unit Owner's Residential Unit by gift, or may devise such Unit Owner's Residential Unit by will or have such Unit Owner's Residential Unit pass by intestacy, without being subject to the restrictions of Section 8.1; provided, however, that each succeeding Residential Unit Owner shall be bound by, and such Unit Owner's Residential Unit shall remain subject to, the provisions of this Article 8. Storage Units shall only be gifted, devised, or passed by intestacy by a Storage Unit Owner, to a Residential Unit Owner without being subject to the restrictions of Section 8.1 hereof; provided, however, that each succeeding Storage Unit Owner shall be bound by, and such Unit Owner's Storage Unit shall remain subject to, the provisions of this Article 8.

8.9 Unauthorized Sales or Leases of Residential or Storage Units. Any purported sale or lease of a Residential Unit or Storage Unit consummated in violation of Sections 8.1 or 8.3 shall be voidable at the election of the Residential Board and if the Residential Board shall so elect, the Residential Unit Owner or Storage Unit Owner, as the case may be, shall be deemed to have authorized and empowered the Residential Board to institute legal proceedings to eject the purported purchaser (in case of an unauthorized sale) or to evict the purported tenant (in case of an unauthorized leasing), in the name of the said Residential Unit Owner or Storage Unit Owner, as the case may be, as the owner or landlord. Said Residential Unit Owner or Storage Unit Owner, as the case may be, shall reimburse the Residential Board for all expenses (including attorneys' fees and disbursements) incurred in connection with such proceedings.

8.10 Charges Imposed on Sale or Lease of Residential Units or Storage Units. If permitted by law, the Residential Board shall be entitled to fix by resolution and collect, before any sale or lease of a Residential Unit or Storage Unit is consummated, a reasonable charge to cover its expenses, and any fees due the Managing Agent or any attorney retained by the Residential Board, in connection with the sale or lease. If such charge is adopted, it shall be added to, and constitute a portion of, Common Charges payable by the selling or leasing Unit Owner. The aforementioned charge shall not apply to the lease of a Residential Unit or Storage Unit to Declarant or its designee, to the sale or lease of Unsold Units by Declarant or its designee, or to the sale or lease of Unsold Units by a Permitted Mortgagee of Declarant that acquires title to Unsold Units.

8.11 Power of Attorney. At the time of acquiring title to a Unit and as a condition thereof, the new Unit Owner shall duly execute, acknowledge and make arrangements for recording in the City Register's Office, the Power of Attorney required by Article 17 of the Declaration.

8.12 Notices Concerning Residential Unit Occupancy. Within five (5) days following acquisition of a Residential Unit or the commencement of a lease relating thereto, the new Unit Owner or lessor, as the case may be, shall notify the Managing Agent of the Unit involved, the name of the purchaser or lessee and the names of the individuals, as permitted by the By-Laws, who will be using or occupying the Unit. The individuals so designated may be changed by the purchaser or lessor, from time to time, by further notice to the Managing Agent.

8.13 Waiver of Right of Partition with Respect to Units Acquired on Behalf of Unit Owners as Tenants-in-Common. In the event that any Unit shall be acquired by the Residential Board or the Residential Board, or their respective designees, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Residential Unit Owners or all Residential Unit Owners, as the case may be, as tenants in-common, all such Unit Owners shall be deemed to have waived all rights of partition with respect to such acquired Unit as herein provided.

8.14 Payment of Assessments. No Unit Owner shall be permitted to convey, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate or lease such Unit Owner's Unit unless and until the Unit Owner shall have paid in full to the appropriate Board all unpaid Common Charges theretofore assessed by said Board against such Unit and until such Unit Owner shall have satisfied all unpaid liens against such Unit Owner's Unit other than Permitted Mortgages.

8.15 Mortgage of Units. Subject to Article 7 and Section 8.14, each Unit Owner shall have the right to mortgage such Unit Owner's Unit to a Permitted Mortgagee, provided that, with respect to any mortgage covering a Unit, the Unit Owner making such mortgage shall notify in writing the appropriate Board of the making of such mortgage.

8.16 Lease or Purchase of Residential Unit or Other Apartment for Superintendent's Residence. The Residential Board or the Condominium Board shall have the right to lease or purchase a Residential Unit or other apartment for the residence of the superintendent and shall have the right to amend, modify, extend, renew and otherwise deal in any way with respect to any such lease all without the approval of any of the Unit Owners.

CONDEMNATION

In the event of the taking in condemnation or by eminent domain of all or any part of the General or Limited Common Elements, each Board, subject to the provisions set forth below, will arrange for the prompt repair and restoration of such part of the General or Limited Common Elements so taken which, pursuant to the provisions of these By-Laws, are required to be maintained by such Board. The award made for any such taking shall be payable to the Board responsible for the repair and restoration thereof, as aforesaid; provided, however, that if any such award exceeds $1,000,000, such award shall be payable to the Insurance Trustee and shall be disbursed to the contractors engaged in such repair and restoration, if any, in appropriate progress payments. If the net proceeds of any such award are insufficient to cover, or if such net proceeds exceed the cost of any repairs and restorations, the deficit or surplus, as the case may be, will be (a) borne and shared by all Unit Owners with respect to any taking of the General Common Elements pro rata, as follows: first, to the Residential Unit Owners and the Commercial Unit Owner in accordance with their respective Common Interests; thereafter, each Board shall allocate such deficit or surplus, as the case may be, pro rata, to the Residential Unit Owners and to the Commercial Unit Owner, respectively, in accordance with its Common Interests; (b) borne and shared by all Residential Unit Owners with respect to any taking of the Residential Common Elements pro rata in accordance with their Common Interests; and (c) borne and shared by all Residential Unit Owners having exclusive access to the Residential Limited Common Elements pro rata in accordance with their respective interest in such Residential Limited Common Interests; and (d) borne and shared by the Commercial Unit Owner with respect to any taking of the Commercial Common Elements pro rata in accordance with their Common Interests. Notwithstanding any provisions contained herein to the contrary, in the event that (1) 75% or more of all Unit Owners, as well as Permitted Mortgagees which represent at least 51%, in number and Common Interest of Units which are encumbered by a Permitted Mortgage, affirmatively resolve not to proceed with such repair or restoration of their respective Limited Common Elements, or (2) 75% or more of all Unit Owners, as well as Permitted Mortgagees which represent at least 51%, in number and Common Interest, affirmatively resolve not to proceed with such repair and restoration of the General Common Elements, then such repairs or restorations of the Limited Common Elements and/or General Common Elements shall not be made and the net proceeds of any such award with respect thereto shall be divided among the Unit Owners pro rata in the same manner as is set forth above, after first paying out of the share of each Unit Owner the amount of any unpaid liens on such Units other than mortgages which are not Permitted Mortgages. Any dispute between any Boards under this Article 9 shall be settled by Arbitration. In the event of the taking in condemnation or by eminent domain of all or any part of the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements, the Board shall notify all Permitted Mortgagees in writing within thirty (30) days from the day of such condemnation.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

The undersigned certify as follows:

The sponsor of the condominium offering plan for the captioned property retained our firm, Century Management Services, Inc., to prepare Schedule B. Century Management Services, Inc. has been in the real estate management business for forty-five (45) years, and currently manages ninety-five (95) cooperative, condominium, and rental properties throughout the City of New York.

We understand that we are responsible for complying with Article 23-A of the General Business Law and the regulations promulgated by the Department of Law in Part 20 insofar as they are applicable to the commercial unit listed in Schedule B.

We have reviewed Schedule B as it impacts upon the commercial unit and investigated the facts underlying it with due diligence in order to form a basis for this certification. We also have relied on our experience in managing residential buildings.

We certify that the projections in Schedule B for common charges payable by the owner of the commercial unit appear reasonable and adequate under existing circumstances to meet the anticipated operating expenses fairly attributable to such commercial unit for the projected first year of condominium operation, and that the allocation of common charges attributable to the commercial unit also reflects special or exclusive use or availability or exclusive control of particular common areas.

We certify that the estimates in Schedule B for the common charges payable by the owners of the commercial units:

(i) set forth in detail the projected common charges for the commercial unit for the first year of condominium operation;

(ii) afford potential investors, purchasers and participants an adequate basis upon which to found their judgment concerning the common charges payable by the owners of the commercial unit;

(iii) do not omit any material fact;

(iv) do not contain any untrue statement of a material fact;

(v) do not contain any fraud, deception, concealment, suppression;

(vi) do not contain any promise or representation as to the future which is beyond reasonable expectation or unwarranted by existing circumstances;

(vii) do not contain any representation or statement which is false, where we: (a) knew the truth; (b) with reasonable effort could have known the truth; (c) made no reasonable effort to ascertain the truth; or (d) did not have knowledge concerning the representation or statement made.

We further certify that we are not owned or controlled by the sponsor. We understand that a copy of this certification is intended to be incorporated into the offering plan. This statement is not intended as a guarantee or warranty of the common charges fairly attributable to the commercial units for the first year of condominium operation.

This certification is made under penalty of perjury for the benefit of all persons to whom this offer is made. We understand that violations are subject to the civil and criminal penalties of the General Business Law and Penal Law.

(ii) in our professional opinion, affords potential investors, purchasers and participants an adequate basis upon which to found their judgment concerning the physical condition of the Property as it will exist upon completion of construction, provided that construction is in accordance with the plans and specifications that we examined;

(iii) does not omit any material fact;

(iv) does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact;

We further certify that we are not owned or controlled by and have no beneficial interest in the Sponsor and that our compensation for preparing the Report is not contingent on the conversion of the Property to a condominium or on the profitability or price of the offering. This statement is not intended as a guarantee or warranty of the physical condition of the Property.
