THE DATE OF ACCEPTANCE FOR FILING IS _____. THE OFFERING PLAN MAY NOT BE USED AFTER _____ UNLESS EXTENDED BY AMENDMENT.

THIS OFFERING PLAN CONTAINS SPECIAL RISKS TO PURCHASERS. SEE PAGE (iii).

BECAUSE SPONSOR IS RETAINING THE UNCONDITIONAL RIGHT TO RENT RATHER THAN SELL THE RESIDENTIAL UNITS, AFTER CONSUMMATION OF THE OFFERING PLAN, THIS OFFERING PLAN MAY RESULT IN THE CREATION OF A CONDOMINIUM IN WHICH A MAJORITY OF THE RESIDENTIAL UNITS ARE NOT OWNED BY OWNER-OCCUPANTS OR INVESTORS WHO ARE UNRELATED TO THE SPONSOR. (SEE THE SPECIAL RISK SECTION OF THE OFFERING PLAN.) PURCHASERS FOR THEIR OWN OCCUPANCY MAY NEVER GAIN CONTROL OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE CONDOMINIUM UNDER THE TERMS OF THIS OFFERING PLAN.

THIS OFFERING PLAN IS THE SPONSOR'S ENTIRE OFFER TO SELL THESE CONDOMINIUM RESIDENTIAL UNITS. NEW YORK LAW REQUIRES THE SPONSOR TO DISCLOSE ALL MATERIAL INFORMATION IN THIS OFFERING PLAN AND TO FILE THIS PLAN WITH THE NEW YORK STATE DEPARTMENT OF LAW PRIOR TO SELLING OR OFFERING TO SELL ANY CONDOMINIUM RESIDENTIAL UNIT. FILING WITH THE DEPARTMENT OF LAW DOES NOT MEAN THAT THE DEPARTMENT OR ANY OTHER GOVERNMENT AGENCY HAS APPROVED THIS OFFERING.

SPECIAL RISKS

1. The Sponsor has the right to designate all of the Board of Managers of the Condominium until all of the Residential Units in the Condominium have been sold or transferred to Residential Unit Owners other than the Sponsor, its Principals, Sponsor Affiliates, successors, assignees and/or designees ("Sponsor Control Period"). The Members of the Board of Managers that are designated by the Sponsor may only be removed by the Sponsor. There is no limit on the period of time it may take Sponsor to convey all the Residential Units in the Condominium and as a result the Sponsor may control the Board of Managers indefinitely. The First Annual Meeting of the Residential Unit Owners will be held within two (2) years of the Closing of Title to the first Residential Unit.

Notwithstanding the Sponsor Control Period, the Board of Managers has a fiduciary duty to the Residential Unit Owners to enforce Sponsor's obligations. Sponsor's intentional refusal to allow the Board of Managers to pursue litigation against the Sponsor may constitute a breach of fiduciary duty to the Board of Managers. In addition, the Residential Unit Owners may commence a lawsuit in the nature of a derivative action. In the event a Sponsor controlled Board does not undertake the enforcement of the Sponsor's obligations, the Residential Unit Owners may have to independently raise funds to pursue such enforcement and any other causes of action against the Sponsor. Notwithstanding said fact, Sponsor has the right to voluntarily relinquish a majority of the Board of Managers before the last Residential Unit is closed. If Sponsor relinquishes control of the Board of Managers, there is no provision in the By-Laws that requires that a majority of the Board of Managers be owner occupants who are unrelated to the Sponsor or its principals. Owner-occupants and non-resident owners, including Sponsor, may have inherent conflicts on how the Condominium should be managed as a result of their different reasons for purchasing, i.e., purchasing as a Residential Unit to live in as opposed to purchasing as an investment. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, any provision that purports to give the Sponsor control of the enforcement of the Sponsor's obligations is not lawful. If there are non-Sponsor Members of the Board of Managers and there is a vote on whether to sue the Sponsor, the Sponsor's Board representatives cannot lawfully vote on that issue. See Sections XVII and XVIII of the Offering Plan.

2. The Sponsor has the right to retain control over certain expenditures and fiscal actions of the Board of Managers of the Condominium for a period ending not more than five (5) years after the Closing of the first Residential Unit or whenever the unsold Residential Units constitute less than twenty-five (25%) percent of the Percentage of Common Interest, whichever is sooner. During this period, the Sponsor will have control of maintenance, facilities, and services to be provided to the Condominium and will determine the Common Charges to be paid by all Residential Unit Owners, including those paid by the Sponsor. During this period, the Sponsor will also have control over the enforcement of the Sponsor's obligations and will also have the right to control all decisions including but not limited to the determination of Common Expenses, management of the Condominium, the hiring and termination of employees of the Condominium, the placing of easements on the property and making improvements to the Common Elements. Notwithstanding the above, the Board of Managers has a fiduciary duty to the Residential Unit Owners to enforce Sponsor's obligations. Sponsor's intentional refusal to allow the Board of Managers to pursue litigation against the Sponsor entity may constitute a breach of fiduciary duty to the Board of Managers. In addition, the Residential Unit Owners may commence a lawsuit in the nature of a derivative action. In the event a Sponsor-controlled Board does not undertake the enforcement of the Sponsor's obligations, the Residential Unit Owners may have to independently raise funds to pursue such enforcement and any other causes of action against the Sponsor. At no time may Sponsor exercise veto power over expenses described in Schedule B or over expenses required to (i) comply with applicable laws or regulations, (ii) to remedy any notice of violation, (iii) to remedy any work order by an insurer or (iv) necessary for the preservation or safety of the Building or for the health and safety of Condominium residents or required to avoid the suspension of any necessary service to the Building. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, any provision that purports to give the Sponsor control of the enforcement of the Sponsor's obligations is not lawful. If there are non-Sponsor Members of the Board of Managers and there is a vote on whether to sue the Sponsor, the Sponsor's Board representatives cannot lawfully vote on that issue. See Section XVII of the Offering Plan and Schedule B.

3. Sponsor will endeavor in good faith to sell the Residential Units in the Condominium. However, Sponsor is retaining the unconditional right to rent rather than sell the Residential Units, and Sponsor is not limiting its right to rent rather than sell based on any objective articulable criteria. Because Sponsor is retaining the unconditional right to rent rather than sell the Residential Units after the consummation of the Offering Plan, this Offering Plan may result in the creation of a condominium in which a majority of the Residential Units are not owned by owner-occupants or investors who are unrelated to the Sponsor. In addition, because Sponsor is retaining the unconditional right to rent rather than sell the Residential Units after the consummation of the Offering Plan, Purchasers for their own occupancy may never gain effective control of the Board of Managers, nor management of Condominium, under the terms of the Offering Plan. Due to the fact Sponsor is not limiting the conditions under which it will rent rather than sell the Residential Units, there is no commitment to sell more Residential Units than the fifteen (15%) percent of the Residential Units being offered for sale excluding Residential Units of an ancillary nature (15% x 3 = 1 Residential Unit) necessary to declare the Offering Plan effective and owner-occupants may never gain effective control and management of the Condominium. Sponsor shall not rent a Residential Unit in the Condominium prior to Consummation of the Offering Plan as defined in Title 13 NYCRR § 20.1(c)(6). See Section XIII of the Offering Plan.

4. Purchasers will be obligated to pay the New York City Real Property Transfer Tax and New York State Real Estate Transfer Tax, which by law are the primary obligation of the Sponsor but have been transferred to a Purchaser under the terms of the Purchase Agreement. The New York State Real Estate Transfer Taxes are at the rate of $2.00 per $500 of consideration where the consideration is less than $3,000,000 and $3.25 per $500 where the consideration is $3,000,000 or more. New York City Real Property Transfer Tax is at the rate of one (1%) percent of the Purchase Price for Residential Units where the consideration is less than $500,000 and 1.4259 percent where the consideration is $500,000 or greater. Pursuant to Section 1404(a) of the Tax Law, effective July 1, 2021, where New York State Real Estate Transfer Tax is paid by the Purchaser pursuant to contractual agreement, such tax will be excluded from the total calculation of consideration. However, the amount of New York City Real Property Transfer Tax will be included in the consideration subject to such tax.

In addition, pursuant to Sections 1402-a and 1402-b of the Tax Law of the State of New York, a Purchaser will be required to pay an Additional Tax for a Residential Unit where the consideration is $1,000,000 or more (the "Mansion Tax"). The following are the rates applicable to the Mansion Tax in New York City effective as of July 1, 2019:

Total Consideration	Mansion Tax (as of July 1, 2019)
Less than $1,000,000	Not subject to tax
$1,000,000 to $1,999,999.99	1%
$2,000,000 to $2,999,999.99	1.25%
$3,000,000 to $4,999,999.99	1.5%
$5,000,000 to $9,999,999.99	2.25%
$10,000,000 to $14,999,999.99	3.25%
$15,000,000 to $19,999,999.99	3.5%
$20,000,000 to $24,999,999.99	3.75
$25,000,000 or more	3.9%

Pursuant to the provisions of the statute, the obligation to pay the Mansion Tax is upon the Purchasers. The New York City Real Property Transfer Tax amount will be included in the consideration to determine the Mansion Tax. Therefore, the purchase price and City transfer taxes payable by Purchaser are added together to arrive at a total consideration for Mansion Tax purposes. As a result, a Residential Unit priced at $980,000 or more, where Purchaser pays the transfer taxes and legal fees of Sponsor, could subject Purchaser to liability for the Mansion Tax, as the aggregate price plus tax would exceed $1,000,000.

See Section XV of the Offering Plan as to how the above taxes are calculated. See the Purchase Agreement set forth as Schedule D.

5. Sponsor has not been required to post a completion bond with the City of New York covering the Common Elements. In addition, no bond has been posted to secure Sponsor's obligations under the Offering Plan. Sponsor has the financial resources to fulfill its unsecured obligations under the Offering Plan. See page Section XVI.

6. Although all funds received by Sponsor from Purchaser for upgrades, options, extras, special work, or custom work ("Extras") not included in the base price of a Residential Unit will initially be placed in the Escrow Account as described in Section XII of the Offering Plan, such funds may be released from the Escrow Account as long as the Sponsor uses the funds for such Extras. As a result, in the event a Purchaser is entitled to rescission, the Purchaser will not receive a refund of any funds paid to the Sponsor for Extras which (i) have been installed by Sponsor, (ii) not installed, but paid for by Sponsor or (iii) not installed, but which have been ordered but not installed by Sponsor and for which Sponsor is obligated to pay for unless the Offering Plan has been abandoned. In the event the Offering Plan is abandoned the Purchaser shall be entitled to receive a refund of all funds paid to the Sponsor for such Extras. See Section XI of the Offering Plan.

7. The Turnover Meeting, at which the Residential Unit Owners will elect the Board of Managers, will be within thirty (30) days after the expiration of the Sponsor Control Period, which may occur later than one (1) year after the date of the Closing of Title to the first Residential Unit in the Condominium. See Section XVIII of the Offering Plan.

8. No Residential Unit Owner shall make any addition, alteration or improvement (of either a temporary or permanent nature) of a structural nature in or to the Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit, or any Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Element, without the prior written approval of the Board of Managers. Said provision requiring the written consent of the Board of Managers does not apply to the Sponsor. See Article Twenty-First of Schedule I and Article VIII of Schedule J.

9. A Purchaser may not interfere with Sponsor's ability to construct the Residential Unit or other unit(s) or facilities, including, without limitation, interference with work performed on the Property by Sponsor's staff, contractors and/or sub-contractors in connection with the construction and/or renovation of the Residential Unit or any other Residential Unit(s), attempts to hire any of Sponsor's staff, contractors or subcontractors, and/or attempts to bring contractors, materialman, sub-contractors or workers onto the Property for work on the Residential Unit prior to Closing, unless otherwise agreed to by Sponsor in writing. Sponsor shall have the right to remove or replace (and discard) any unauthorized installations, constructions and/or other materials installed or situated in or on any Residential Unit or any portion of the Property by or at the direction of any Purchaser prior to Closing without Sponsor's prior written consent. See Section XIV of the Offering Plan.

10. The Purchase Agreement is not contingent upon a Purchaser securing satisfactory mortgage financing. Obtaining a mortgage shall be the sole responsibility of each Purchaser. In no event will the Sponsor be obligated to return a Purchaser's Deposit in the event a Purchaser is unable to obtain a mortgage. The Purchase Agreement will remain in full force and effect and Purchaser will be obligated to pay the balance of the purchase price at Closing regardless of the availability of financing. In the event a Purchaser does not Close Title to a Residential Unit as a result of Purchaser's inability to obtain a mortgage Sponsor will have the right to retain the Deposit as liquidated damages, including the cost of any Extras paid by Purchasers, which have been installed by Sponsor, paid for but not installed by Sponsor or which have been ordered but not installed by Sponsor and for which Sponsor is obligated to pay. The obligations of a Purchaser under a Purchase Agreement are not conditioned on obtaining financing. Any prospective Purchaser who executes a Purchase Agreement and does not obtain financing may lose Purchaser's Deposit if the Purchaser is unable to otherwise raise the monies for the balance of the purchase price. Prospective Purchasers who require financing are advised to consult with a lending institution before execution of a Purchase Agreement. No representation is made by the Sponsor as to the availability or cost of such financing. Notwithstanding the above, in the event the Offering Plan is abandoned a Purchaser will be entitled to a return of Purchaser's Deposit including any monies paid for Extras. See Section XII of the Offering Plan.

In addition, Purchasers should be aware that, pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, Purchasers will indemnify and hold the Sponsor harmless from and against any claim brought by any broker for brokerage commission based upon Purchaser's acts. In the event Purchaser is represented or has consulted with an outside broker, Purchaser will be responsible for all costs, expenses and commissions associated therewith and the Sponsor will not be responsible for any broker or co-broker commission. This Paragraph will survive Closing and delivery of the deed. See the Purchase Agreement set forth as Schedule D.

11. Pursuant to existing regulation, the Sponsor may declare the Offering Plan effective by selling a minimum of fifteen (15%) percent of the Residential Units being offered for sale excluding Residential Units of an ancillary nature (15% x 3 Residential Units being offered for sale = 1 Residential Unit). Even if the Offering Plan is declared effective with a minimum number of sales, it is possible that the Sponsor may be able to close Residential Units with fewer than the minimum number of sales, if Purchasers counted towards effectiveness do not ultimately purchase a Residential Unit. Purchasers should note that in the event all Purchase Agreements are either rescinded or terminated prior to the date of the closing of title to the first Residential Unit the Sponsor will be obligated to re-declare the Offering Plan effective prior to closing title to the first Residential Unit.

Purchasers should note that in the current real estate market, banks and other lenders are imposing various restrictions on purchase financing. Such restrictions include requiring that a certain percentage of the Residential Units in a building or group of buildings be sold before a lender will consider making a loan. Thus, it may be possible for a Purchaser to experience difficulty obtaining a loan in a building or group of buildings where the Sponsor has not sold a substantial percentage of the Residential Units in the building or group of buildings, which in some cases may be as high as seventy percent (70%). Moreover, some lenders will not provide financing in a building or group of buildings where an investor other than the original Sponsor has an ownership interest of ten percent (10%) or more. It may also be difficult for a Purchaser to resell a Residential Unit if prospective buyers are unable to obtain a loan due to the same minimum sales and investor ownership restrictions.

Even after Residential Units have closed, lenders may still impose minimum sales requirements before granting a loan. It then may be difficult for a Purchaser to resell if prospective buyers are unable to obtain a loan due to such minimum sales requirements. See Section XII of the Offering Plan.

12. Sponsor anticipates that the first Closing of Title to a Residential Unit will occur by April 1, 2024. Purchasers will be offered a right of rescission if: (i) the actual date of Closing of Title to the first Residential Unit; or (ii) the projected date of Closing of Title to the first Residential Unit occurs later than March 31, 2025, twelve (12) months after the projected date for the first Closing contained in this Offering Plan. If the Offering Plan is amended to provide for a later projected date of the first Closing, Purchasers who have entered into a Purchase Agreement subsequent to the date of the Amendment will be entitled to an offer of rescission if the first Closing occurs more than twelve (12) months beyond that amended, later date. However, if the first Residential Unit Closing occurs before April 1, 2025, the Sponsor may schedule the Closing of Title to other Residential Units significantly later than such date. Unless a Purchaser's Purchase Agreement contains an outside Closing Date, the Sponsor is not obligated to schedule a Closing within any specified time frame or to ensure that Closing of Title to the Residential Unit will occur by any date certain.

In addition, each Purchase Agreement provides that in the event Sponsor is unable to convey title to a Purchaser's Residential Unit twelve (12) months after the proposed date of delivery set forth in the Purchase Agreement a Purchaser shall have the option to cancel the Purchase Agreement and have the Deposit advanced by Purchaser returned to Purchaser. Purchaser shall be obligated to notify the Sponsor in writing of its intent to exercise said option no later than thirty (30) days after the twelve (12) month period of the proposed date of delivery set forth in the Purchase Agreement. Purchaser's failure to so notify Sponsor of Purchaser's intent to cancel Purchaser's Purchase Agreement due to Sponsor being unable to convey title to the Purchaser's Residential Unit within the twelve (12) month period shall be deemed a waiver of said provision, and Purchaser shall continue to be bound by the terms of the Purchase Agreement. In the event, Sponsor shall be unable to convey title to the Residential Unit within twenty-four (24) months of the proposed date of delivery through no fault of the Purchaser, the Purchase Agreement shall be deemed null and void and Sponsor shall return all monies being held in escrow within thirty (30) days thereafter. See Paragraph 5 of the Purchase Agreement in Part II of the Offering Plan.

PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS SHOULD THEREFORE CAREFULLY CONSIDER SUCH RISKS IN THEIR DETERMINATION AS TO WHETHER TO PURCHASE A RESIDENTIAL UNIT. See Section XI.

13. All Deposits received from Purchaser will initially be deposited into an escrow account of the law firm of Romanick & Skolnick, PLLC, 142 Joralemon Street, Suite 5C, Brooklyn, New York 11201 (the "Escrow Agent"), at JPMorgan Chase Bank, 2631 Merrick Road, Bellmore, New York 11710, as described in Section XI of the Offering Plan. The escrow account is an IOLA account consistent with Section 487 of the Judiciary Law of the State of New York. The maximum deposit insurance amount will be $250,000. If an individual makes a deposit in excess of said amount for the purchase of a Residential Unit, it is a Special Risk of this offer that such Deposit will not be federally insured in excess of said amount. Purchasers should further note that in the event a Purchaser has an account at JPMorgan Chase Bank, the funds in Purchaser's account are factored into the maximum insured amount of $250,000. See Section XI.

14. The projections for the first year of operation of the Condominium contained in the budget are only estimates. Actual expenses may vary from the amounts shown. Purchasers should further note that premiums for insurance have been extremely volatile in recent years. Sponsor cannot predict whether or not the insurance rates will increase or stabilize at the commencement of the first year of operation of the Condominium. Sponsor makes no representation that the premium costs for the insurance reflected in the proposed first year budget will be applicable at the time of the first Closing of a Residential Unit in the Condominium. Sponsor will amend the Offering Plan to disclose any changes in Schedule B at the time the Plan is declared effective and prior to the first Closing of a Residential Unit at the Condominium. See Schedule B, the proposed first year budget and the footnotes immediately following thereto.

15. At Closing, each Purchaser shall be required to pay certain costs and expenses (i.e., Purchaser's Closing Costs), which Closing Costs are listed in Article XV of this Offering Plan. As an example, a Purchaser of a Residential Unit in which the purchase price is $2,850,000, who procures a first mortgage in the amount of $2,280,000, and who has a Percentage of Common Interest of 41%, may anticipate Purchaser's Closing Costs of approximately $158,232.00. It shall be the responsibility of each Purchaser to pay all such Purchaser's Closing Costs, which include, if applicable: (a) an initial non-reimbursable contribution to the Working Capital Fund in an amount equal to two (2) months Common Charges for the Residential Unit to the Condominium; (b) reimbursement to the Sponsor based on each Residential Unit's percentage of Common Interest for Sponsor's advancement for the cost of the Condominium's insurance for the first year of operation; and (c) $3,000 to Sponsor's attorney, Romanick & Skolnick, PLLC, for the preparation of the Closing documents. Purchaser shall also pay, or reimburse to Sponsor, if Sponsor has already made payment, the following charges, if applicable, as Closing Costs: (a) inspections, (b) appraisals, (c) surveying services, (d) water and sewer tap and connection fees, water meter deposit, water vault, water meter reading equipment and water and sewer test fees and (e) advance sewer use payments. See Section XV of the Offering Plan.

16. If through no fault of Sponsor, Purchaser fails for any reason to Close Title after the date originally scheduled in Sponsor's Notice of Closing or such later date (if applicable) to which Sponsor in a subsequent Notice for Closing adjourned the Closing, all of the apportionments shall be made as of midnight of the day preceding (i) the date originally scheduled for Closing or (ii) Sponsor's adjourned Closing Date (as the case may be).

In addition, Purchaser shall pay to Sponsor at or prior to the actual Closing an amount equal to .0438% per day (which equals an annual rate of 16%) of the purchase price for the Residential Unit for each day beyond such originally scheduled or Sponsor adjourned Closing Date, to and including the date of actual Closing, for reimbursement and defrayal of Sponsor's carrying costs and other charges. See Section XV of the Offering Plan.

17. Purchasers should be aware that water pipes and electric wires may run throughout the walls and/or in the ceiling cavities of the Building. Water pipes and electric wires will be situated in accordance with all applicable laws and will be constructed using appropriate material(s) and/or encased in a protective housing to prevent or minimize damage that may be caused by nails and screws. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Purchasers should be careful when placing any items on the walls or ceilings and when drilling into the walls or ceilings of their Residential Unit. See Section XIX of the Offering Plan.

18. Purchasers of a Residential Unit should refer to the floor plans in Schedule G-2 of Part II of the Offering Plan for details of each type of Residential Unit. The approximate (within reasonable tolerances) physical dimensions of each Residential Unit consist of the area measured horizontally from the exterior face of the exterior walls to the centerline of walls separating one Residential Unit from corridors, stairs, and other mechanical spaces or any common elements (as herein defined). Each Residential Unit will consist of the area measured vertically from the top of the structural slab to the underside (of any fire protection) of the structural members above. As such the areas are not based upon measurements from interior surfaces of interior walls, and the actual living area comprising the Residential Unit may be significantly less than the area listed in Schedule A. Purchasers should note that a decrease in a Residential Unit's area of five (5%) percent or less will not affect a Purchaser's obligations unless such decrease is determined to be a material change. There is a rebuttable presumption that an area that is diminished by five (5%) percent or less is not material.

19. The cellar is for accessory use only, and may not be used for sleeping, cooking and/or living purposes, and may not be rented independently. In addition, the rear yard, roof decks, cellar, terraces and balconies may not be used as a bedroom or living room. To do so may result in a violation against the Building being issued by the Building Department. See Section XIX and Schedule A of the Offering Plan.

20. All Residential Unit Owners are required to keep their thermostats at a minimum of sixty (60) degrees Fahrenheit to prevent freezing of pipes. In the event the Residential Unit Owner fails to adhere to this requirement the Residential Unit Owner shall be responsible for any damage done to the Common Elements of the Condominium and/or any other Residential Unit. See the By-Laws contained in Part II of the Offering Plan as Schedule J.

21. Sponsor must either return a fully executed Purchase Agreement within thirty (30) days to the Purchaser or reject the Purchase Agreement and refund the Deposit monies. In the event the Sponsor does not act within said thirty (30) day period the Purchase Agreement will be deemed rejected by the Sponsor. See Section XI of the Offering Plan.

22. Each Purchase Agreement will contain an outside delivery date, as provided in the following paragraph. In the event Sponsor is unable to close title to a Residential Unit within said time frame a Purchaser will be entitled to the applicable provisions therein to rescind Sponsor is not obligated to schedule a Closing within any specified time frame or to ensure that Closing of Title to a Residential Unit will occur by any date certain. However, if Purchaser fails to appear and Close Title in accordance with the Purchase Agreement on the date and at the time and place stated in Sponsor's Notice for Closing, or if Purchaser fails to observe or perform any other thing to be observed or performed by Purchaser under the Purchase Agreement, Sponsor may send Purchaser a written notice of default giving Purchaser thirty (30) days from the date of such notice to cure any such default. Time is of the Essence for Purchaser to cure such default within such thirty (30) day period, and the thirtieth (30th) day of such period will constitute the last date to comply with the terms of the Purchase Agreement. As used herein, the phrase "time is of the essence" means that a Purchaser's failure to strictly comply with Purchaser's obligations within the applicable time period will constitute a material breach of the Purchase Agreement, entitling the Sponsor to declare the Purchaser in default of the Purchase Agreement, deem the Purchase Agreement terminated and of no further force or effect, and retain Purchaser's Deposit and other amounts paid in connection with the Purchase Agreement as liquidated damages. In the event of such uncured default, the Sponsor, in its sole discretion may thereupon terminate the Purchase Agreement. If Sponsor so elects to terminate the Purchase Agreement Sponsor shall have the right to retain, as and for liquidated damages, the Deposit (and any interest earned of the Deposit, if any) plus the costs incurred by Sponsor for any Extras, if any, in the Residential Unit ordered by the Purchaser. Upon the termination of the Purchase Agreement, Purchaser and Sponsor will be released and discharged of all further liability and obligations under the Offering Plan. See Paragraph 22 of the Purchase Agreement contained in Part II of the Offering Plan.

23. Purchasers should note that pursuant to the terms of the Offering Plan as long as the Sponsor retains control of the Board of Managers, the Board of Managers of the Condominium retains the right to delay commencement of the collection of Common Charges. During any such delay period, the Sponsor will timely pay all expenses of the Condominium, including but not limited to insurance premiums and any reserve funds reflected in the Budget. Upon the commencement of the collection of Common Charges, there will be no assessment of Residential Unit Owners for prior expenses of the budget during the period Sponsor was paying the Common Expenses of the Condominium. Sponsor shall remain obligated to update the budget for the Condominium as provided for in the governing regulations. In the event Sponsor elects to delay collection of Condominium Common Charges, it will disclose such fact in the closing notice to Purchasers and will further disclose such fact in the Post-Closing Amendment to the Offering Plan. Such Amendment will also disclose the anticipated period of delay. Sponsor will notify all Residential Unit Owners in writing of the expiration of the delay period at least thirty (30) days prior to commencing collection of Common Charges and will disclose such fact in the following Amendment to the Offering Plan.

See Section I of the Offering Plan.

24. Purchasers should note that the Residential Unit Owners shall indemnify and hold harmless each of the Board of Managers of the Condominium against all contractual liability to others arising out of contracts made by the Board of Managers on behalf of the Condominium unless any such contract shall have been made in bad faith or contrary to the provision of the Declaration of Condominium or of the By-Laws. It is intended that the Members of the Board of Managers shall have no personal liability with respect to any contract made by them on behalf of the Condominium (except as Residential Unit Owners). It is understood and permissible for the original Board of Managers, who may be affiliated with or be employed by the Sponsor, to contract with the Sponsor and affiliated corporations and entities without incurring any liability for self-dealing. It is also intended that the liability of any Residential Unit Owner arising out of any contract made by the Board or out of the aforesaid indemnity in favor of the Board of Managers shall be limited to such proportion of the total liability thereunder as the Purchaser's Percentage of Common Interest in the Common Elements bears to the Percentage of Common Interest of all the Residential Unit Owners in the Common Elements. Every agreement made by the Board of Managers or by the managing agent or by a Member on behalf of the Condominium, shall provide that the Members of the Board of Managers, or the managing agent, or the Member, as the case may be, are acting only as agent for the Residential Unit Owners and shall have no personal liability thereunder (except as Residential Unit Owners). Notwithstanding the foregoing, Board Members have a fiduciary duty to the Condominium. See Section XVIII of the Offering Plan and Article III, Section 14 of the By-Laws of the Condominium.

25. The Percentage of Common Interest of each of the Residential Units has been determined pursuant to Section 339-i(1)(iv) of the Condominium Act, based on floor space, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Residential Unit, the availability of Common Elements for exclusive or shared use, and the overall dimensions of the particular Residential Unit. Based upon final specifications, construction conditions and/or "as-built" plans for the Building reflecting relative measurements, areas and uses of portions of the Building, application of such method of allocation the Percentage of Common Interest may justify a minor increase or decrease in the aggregate Percentage of Common Interest appurtenant to Residential Units. In such event, the Percentage of Common Interest appurtenant to each individual Residential Unit would be adjusted pro rata. Sponsor expressly reserves the right, from time to time, prior to the first Closing, to affect any change in the Percentages of Common Interest that is not a material change and to amend the Plan so as to reflect the same. Notwithstanding, unless an affected Purchaser consents, no material change will be made in the Percentages of Common Interest if a Purchase Agreement has been executed and delivered to the Sponsor for that Residential Unit and the Purchaser is not in default. See Section XIX of the Offering Plan.

26. Purchasers are advised that in New York, newly constructed and newly renovated buildings are sometimes offered as condominium projects without a permanent Certificate of Occupancy ("PCO") covering the entire building but with only a temporary Certificate of Occupancy ("TCO"), and sometimes with several successive temporary Certificates of Occupancy. Certificates of Occupancy are generally governed by section 301 of the New York Multiple Dwelling Law and local building codes and rules. The TCOs and PCOs are issued by the New York City Department of Buildings ("Building Department)". A TCO is intended to indicate that the property is safe for occupancy but means that not all of the construction work and/or inspections have been performed, or that not all of the required documents have been submitted to the Building Department. All TCOs have an expiration date. A TCO typically expires 90 days after the date of issuance. When a TCO expires and is not renewed, it may be difficult or impossible to buy insurance, refinance, or sell Residential Units. In New York City, it is common for sponsors to commence Residential Unit closings when some or all Residential Units are covered by a TCO rather than a PCO. Sponsor anticipates this scenario may occur. Sponsor and its principals will undertake the responsibility for extending each TCO received prior to expiration thereof and ultimately for obtaining a PCO covering the entire building within two years from the date of issuance of the first TCO. However, Sponsor and its principals make no representation or guarantee that the Building Department will issue the PCO within such two (2) year period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor and its principals are obligated to procure the PCO for the entire building and shall exercise its best efforts to obtain the PCO within such two (2) year period while keeping the TCO current. Residential Unit Owners and the Board of Managers shall be obligated to cooperate with and refrain from obstructing Sponsor in these undertakings. Residential Unit Owners will not be permitted to make any changes, additions or alterations to their Residential Unit requiring Building Department approval prior to the issuance of a Permanent Certificate of Occupancy or renewal of a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. See Section III of the Offering Plan.

27. Residential Unit Owners will not be permitted to make any changes, additions, or alterations to their Residential Unit prior to the issuance of a Permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Residential Unit and/or Building. Residential Unit Owners will be permitted to make standard improvements to their Residential Units such as painting, installation of flooring, cabinetry, fixtures etc. as long as the improvements do not affect the ability of the Sponsor and its principals to obtain a Permanent Certificate of Occupancy or extension or renewal of a Temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Residential Unit Owners are responsible for obtaining all necessary permits from the City of New York and any other required municipal agencies for any changes the Residential Unit Owner makes to their Residential Unit subsequent to the Closing of Title with the Sponsor. Sponsor and its principals will not be liable for nor responsible to a Residential Unit Owner in the event an inspection by the Department of Buildings of the City of New York prevents the issuance of a renewal and/or extension of a Temporary Certificate of Occupancy or Permanent Certificate of Occupancy as a result of changes made to the Residential Unit by a Residential Unit Owner. In the event a Residential Unit Owner makes any changes, additions or alterations to their Residential Unit prior to the issuance of a Permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Residential Unit and/or Building, the Residential Unit Owner shall reimburse Sponsor within ten (10) days following Sponsor's demand therefor, for any and all costs incurred by Sponsor with respect to the Residential Unit Owner's changes to the Residential Unit that prevent the extension or renewal of a Temporary Certificate of Occupancy or the issuance of a final Certificate of Occupancy by the Department of Buildings of the City of New York. Sponsor's demand shall include documentation substantiating the assertion that the Residential Unit Owner's changes prevented the extension or renewal of a Temporary Certificate of Occupancy or the issuance of a final Certificate of Occupancy. Any such alteration by a Residential Unit Owner that affects the extension of a Temporary Certificate of Occupancy or the issuance of a Permanent Certificate of Occupancy shall not affect the Sponsor's and its principals' obligation to obtain a Permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building. See Section XVI of the Offering Plan.

28. Common Charges are generally levied in proportion to each Residential Unit's Percentage of Common Interest in the Common Elements. However, as provided for in Section 339-m of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, the Board of Managers may also make allocations and assessments of Common Charges to the General Common Elements and any Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Element that is the Condominium's obligation to repair and maintain, in accordance with sub-metering, contract allocations and usage (both projected and actual) so long as such allocations are reasonable under the circumstances and are based on intensive, special or exclusive use or availability or exclusive control of particular Residential Units or Common Elements by particular Residential Unit Owners. See Section I of the Offering Plan.

29. The Smoke-Free Air Act of New York City prohibits Smoking and using E-cigarettes of any kind in indoor common areas, including but not limited to, lobbies, hallways, stairwells, mailrooms, fitness areas, storage areas, garages, and laundry rooms in any building with three or more Residential Units. NYC Admin. Code, § 17-505. Effective as of August 28, 2018, Local Law 147 of the City of New York became effective. Local Law 147 amends the Administrative Code of the City of New York to require that all class A multiple dwellings (i.e., buildings with 3 or more residential dwelling Residential Units) adopt a written smoking policy (the "Smoking Policy"). In accordance with Article VIII, Section 2 of the By-Laws and Local Law 147 the following is the smoking policy that will apply to this Condominium:

(a) Definitions:

(i) Smoking: Inhaling, exhaling, burning or carrying any lighted or heated cigar, cigarette, little cigar, pipe, water pipe or hookah, herbal cigarette, non-tobacco smoking product (e.g., marijuana or non-tobacco shisha), or any similar form of lighted object or device designated for people to use to inhale smoke.

(ii) Electronic Cigarette (E-cigarette): A battery-operated device that heats a liquid, gel, herb or other substance and produces a vapor for people to inhale.

(b) Policy:

(i) All types of Smoking and use of Electronic Cigarettes as defined above are prohibited from all general common areas of the Condominium, including but not limited to any lobby, hallway, stairwell, mailroom, fitness room or other recreational facility, meeting room, laundry room, storage area, mechanical room, equipment room, cellar, basement, elevator, garage, rooftop, play areas, parking areas, shared balconies, shared courtyards, shared patios, shared porches, shared yards and/or any outdoor common area within 15 feet of entrances, exits, windows, and air intake Residential Units on property grounds.

(ii) All types of Smoking and Electronic Cigarette use are prohibited from any balcony and/or terrace or any space designated as an Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Element appurtenant to the Residential Unit.

(iii) All legal Smoking and Electronic Cigarette use is permitted within the interior area of a Residential Unit.

(iv) The Smoking Policy shall be applicable to all Residential Unit Owners, residents, tenants, guests, licensees, employees and all persons that may be in or on any portion of the Condominium.

(v) Any Residential Unit Owner who leases their Residential Unit shall incorporate the provisions of the Smoking Policy into the lease with the Residential Unit Owner's tenant.

(c) Complaints:

Complaints about smoke drifting into a Residential Unit or common area should be made promptly to the Managing Agent. Complaints should be made in writing and should be as specific as possible, including the date, approximate time, location where smoke was observed, building address, description of incident and apparent source of smoke.

The Smoking Policy shall be applicable to all Residential Unit Owners, residents, tenants, guests, licensees, employees, and all persons that may be in or on any portion of the Property and any Building located thereon constituting the Condominium. Pursuant to the requirements of Article VIII, Section 2 of the By-Laws and Local Law 147 all tenants in the Building are required to receive a copy of the Building's Smoking Policy and the Smoking Policy must be incorporated into all leases or interim leases. The provisions of Local Law 147 of the City of New York shall take precedent in the event of any conflict with the Smoking Policy contained herein. The Smoking Policy is contained in Article VIII (the "Rules and Regulations"), Section 2 of the By-Laws. Purchasers should also refer to Section XIX of the Offering Plan and Paragraph 38 of the Purchase Agreement.

30. No representation is made that the reserve fund line item will be adequate for future expenses including repairs or replacements of Common Elements during the first five (5) years of the Condominium. If additional funds are required over and above said funds, it may be necessary to increase the Common Charges payable by the Residential Unit Owners, collect a Special Assessment from each Residential Unit Owner or borrow money for such repairs or replacements. See Section XXIII of the Offering Plan.

31. This Development is subject to the Housing Merchant Implied Warranty Law of the State of New York, Article 36-B of the General Business Law, which pertains to warranties on the sale of certain new Residential Units. This law is applicable to all Residential Units offered for sale under this Offering Plan. Pursuant to Section 777-b of said statute the Sponsor is permitted to provide its own Limited Warranty ("Limited Warranty") and as such, the Sponsor is providing its own Limited Warranty to Purchasers of Residential Units in the Condominium. As a result, Sponsor excludes the warranty provisions set forth in Article 36-B of the General Business Law and all other warranties except the Limited Warranty. The Limited Warranty provides for a Limited Warranty to Purchasers on certain items. Certain of the limitations contained in the Limited Warranty are noted as follows: the Limited Warranty provides coverage for the first Residential Unit Buyer only; Sponsor's liability is limited to seventy-five thousand ($75,000) dollars, less any insurance proceeds received by Purchaser but including any deductible paid by Purchasers; incidental, special, indirect consequential or other similar damages are excluded; and detailed procedures must be followed for giving notice of a warranty claim to Sponsor as well as detailed procedures for commencing a lawsuit against Sponsor. See the complete terms of the Limited Warranty contained in the Rider to the Purchase Agreement set forth in Schedule D-5. NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING STATED ABOVE, SPONSOR HAS AN ABSOLUTE DUTY TO MAKE ANY IMPROVEMENTS TO THE PREMISES IN ACCORDANCE WITH ALL APPLICABLE CODES AND FILED PLANS AND SPECIFICATIONS SUBJECT TO FIELD CHANGES THAT MEET APPLICABLE CODE. Any conflict with the terms of the Limited Warranty and the obligations of the Sponsor to construct the Condominium in accordance with all applicable laws and the terms of the Plan shall be resolved in favor of the latter. For details see Section XVI of the Offering Plan and the full text of the law set forth in Schedule K of the Offering Plan.

32. The Sponsor has not entered into any management agreement to provide for management of the Condominium for the first year of operation and there is no fee for a managing agent in the proposed budget for the first year of operation of the Condominium. During the Sponsor Control Period, the Sponsor will be in control of the Board of Managers and will de facto manage the Condominium. The Sponsor will not charge a fee for managing the Condominium for the first year of operation. However, in the event that Sponsor is still in control of the Condominium after the first year of operation, Sponsor reserves the right to charge a fee of not more than $8,000 per year in total for its services in managing the Condominium. No representation is made as to the ultimate cost, terms, or availability of a third-party managing agent for the Condominium. Notwithstanding said fact, a Condominium of this size may ultimately determine there is a need to hire a managing agent. The current cost of a managing agent to manage a Condominium of this size may vary from approximately $1,000 per annum per Residential Unit to approximately $1,500 per annum per Residential Unit.

The Board of Managers of the Condominium will be responsible for the management of the Condominium during the first year of operation. The duties of a managing agent usually include the following: bill and collect the annual Common Charges, hire and fire employees, supervise alterations and repairs, maintain the Condominium's books and records, advise the Board of Managers of its proposed annual budget, provide each Residential Unit Owner annually with a financial statement prepared and certified by an independent public accountant while Sponsor retains a majority of the Board of Managers, purchase supplies for the Condominium and generally perform the duties of a managing agent for residential property. In performing its duties, the Board of Managers or a managing agent employed by it, may engage contractors for the purpose of carrying out the maintenance and repair of the Common Elements. No representation is made as to the costs, terms or availability of a managing agent in the event the Board decides to hire one in the future, however, Common Charges will increase in the event a managing agent is hired in the second or any subsequent year of operation of the Condominium. See Section XXV of the Offering Plan.

33. At each Closing the Sponsor will collect the equivalent of two (2) months Common Charges from each Purchaser to be paid to the Condominium as initial Working Capital. While Sponsor is in control of the Board of Managers of the Condominium the Working Capital funds may be used to reduce the Common Charges. The Working Capital fund may also be utilized to reimburse Sponsor for prepaid expenses of the Condominium. The only budgetary item that might require a substantial credit to the Sponsor would be the insurance disclosed in the first-year budget contained in Schedule B. At such time as the Sponsor relinquishes control of the Board of Managers any remaining balance of the Working Capital fund will be turned over to the Board of Managers. See Section XXIV of the Offering Plan.

34. Purchasers should note that pursuant to the Federal Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 (the "Tax Act"), which went into effect on January 1, 2018, the maximum mortgage in which an individual can deduct the interest on is $750,000. In addition, the Act placed a maximum of $10,000 on the amount an individual can deduct for the combined amount of real estate taxes and State income taxes. The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 is scheduled to expire on December 31, 2025. Purchasers are advised to seek the advice of their tax consultant to ascertain the income tax ramifications to the Purchaser pursuant to the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017. See Section XXI of the Offering Plan.

35. Any failure by Sponsor to insist upon strict performance by Purchaser of any of Purchaser's obligations under the Purchase Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of such obligations, and Sponsor may at any time insist upon strict performance by Purchaser of any and all obligations to be performed by Purchaser under the Purchase Agreement irrespective of the number of times Purchaser failed to strictly comply with such obligations in the past.

36. Purchaser and Sponsor waive trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim arising out of the Purchase Agreement, provided such waiver is not prohibited by any laws of the State of New York. Any action or proceeding brought by either party hereto against the other, directly, or indirectly, arising out of the Purchase Agreement, shall be instituted in a court in the County of Kings, State of New York and all motions in any such action shall be made in the County of Kings, State of New York. Purchaser agrees to pay and shall be liable for any and all court fees, including, without limitation, Seller's reasonable attorney fees, should Purchaser bring an action against Seller in any court of proper jurisdiction (including, without limitation, small claims court) and Seller is deemed the prevailing party in such dispute or action. Purchaser agrees to waive the right to file a lis pendens if not filed within sixty (60) days of the cancellation of the Purchase Agreement. See Paragraph 35 of the Purchase Agreement and Section XI of the Offering Plan.

37. Purchasers should note that any dispute as to the allocation of the Common Charges to Residential Unit Owners would require arbitration pursuant to the terms of the Offering Plan and Article XII of the By-Laws. See Section XIX of the Offering Plan regarding Rights and Obligations of Residential Unit Owners and Board of Managers. Purchasers should be aware that any matter required or permitted to be determined by arbitration pursuant to the terms of the Condominium Documents must be submitted for resolution by a single arbitrator in a proceeding held in the local jurisdiction of the Condominium in accordance with the then-existing rules of the American Arbitration Association or any successor organization thereto. The arbitrator will be an independent 3rd party who is not related to any of the parties to the dispute. In the event that the American Arbitration Association is not then in existence and has no successor organization, any such arbitration will be held in New York City before one arbitrator appointed, upon the application of any party by the Real Estate Board of New York. The decision in any arbitration will be binding upon all of the parties thereto and may be entered in any court of appropriate jurisdiction. The fees, costs and expenses of the arbitrator will be borne by the losing party in the arbitration or, if the position of neither party to the dispute is substantially upheld by the arbitrator, such fees, costs, and expenses will be borne equally by the disputants. Each disputant will also bear the fees and expenses of his counsel and expert witnesses. All costs and expenses paid or incurred by the Condominium Board of Managers in connection with any such arbitration, including, without limitation, the fees and expenses of counsel and expert witnesses will constitute Common Expenses. See Article XII of the By-Laws.

38. The Board of Managers shall have the right to require that a Residential Unit Owner utilize a contractor or sub-contractor of the Board of Manager's choosing for any repairs, maintenance and/or replacement of an Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Element that is a Residential Unit Owner's obligation at the Residential Unit Owner's sole cost and expense. See Section I of the Offering Plan.

39. Regarding the Common Elements of the Condominium not covered by any Limited Warranty, the Sponsor will correct any defects in the renovation or construction of the Common Elements, or in the installation or operation of any mechanical equipment therein, due to improper workmanship or material substantially at variance with this Offering Plan as may be changed by Sponsor from time to time provided and on condition that Sponsor is notified of or becomes aware of such defect(s) within twelve (12) months from the issuance of a temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy, whichever is then applicable upon the Closing of Title to the first Residential Unit. In no event will Sponsor be liable for consequential damages (whether based on negligence, breach of contract, warranty, or otherwise), it being intended that Sponsor's sole obligations under the Offering Plan will be to repair or, at Sponsor's option, replace (or cause to be repaired or replaced) any defective item of construction (whether arising as a result of defects in material or improper workmanship or material substantially at variance with the Plans and Specifications), subject to the terms and conditions (and within the time limits) set forth in this paragraph. The quality of renovation shall be comparable to local standards customary in the particular trade and in accordance with the plans and specifications. See Section XVI of the Offering Plan.

40. The projected real estate taxes applicable to the Residential Units during the first year of operation contained in Schedule A are based on an assessment of the Building after the gut renovation is complete. Notwithstanding, in view of the fact the Department of Finance of the City of New York ("DOF") has not issued a final post renovation assessment, real estate taxes may increase materially after DOF issues its final post construction assessment. See footnote number 5 to Schedule A for more information regarding the projected assessed valuation after completion of renovation and Section XXII of the Offering Plan and the Opinion of Counsel contained in Section XXIV of the Offering Plan.

41. Purchasers should note that the Board of Managers and its contractors will have an easement in and through Residential Unit #1 for access to the utility meters and other equipment and installations located in the cellar of the Building, as well as the rear yard appurtenant to Residential Unit #1. The Board of Managers and its contractors will also have an easement in and through Residential Unit #3 for access to the roof and/or the rooftop decks appurtenant to Residential Unit #3 for maintenance or repair of adjacent installations, including, without limitation, drains and condensers, and for any other reason the Board of Managers may need access to same. The Board of Managers will provide the applicable Residential Unit Owner(s) with a minimum of three (3) days' notice in the event such access is necessary unless access is required for an emergency or to protect the health and safety of the residents. In such an event, no notice is required. In addition, Purchasers should be aware that the Unit Owners of Residential Unit #1 and Residential Unit #2, and their respective contractors, will have an easement in and through Residential Unit #3 to access, maintain, repair, and replace, the air conditioning condenser located on the roof of the Building that is the responsibility of such Unit Owner. It is a Special Risk of this offering that Residential Unit Owners other than the Residential Unit Owner of Residential Unit #3, and their respective contractors, will have an easement in and through areas comprising Residential Unit #3 to access the mechanical equipment located on the roof of the Building for purposes of maintenance, repair and replacement of such mechanical equipment, which equipment includes, without limitation, the air conditioning condenser. A Residential Unit Owner seeking to exercise this easement shall provide the Residential Unit Owner of Unit #3 with a minimum of three (3) days' notice in the event access to the roof or the rooftop decks is necessary, unless access is required for an emergency or to protect the health and safety of the residents. In such an event, no notice is required.

42. The Board of Managers will have a Right of First Refusal on the sale or lease of a Residential Unit. The purchase of a Residential Unit by the Board of Managers or its designee, on behalf of all Residential Unit Owners, may be made from funds deposited in the capital and or expense account of the Condominium. If the funds in such accounts are insufficient to effectuate any such purchase, the Board of Managers may levy an assessment against each Residential Unit Owner, in proportion to each Residential Unit's Percentage of Common Interest as a Special Assessment, and/or the Board of Managers may in its discretion finance the acquisition of the Residential Unit; provided, however, that no such financing may be secured by an encumbrance, or an hypothecation of any portion of the Property other than the Residential Unit to be purchased. If financed. all costs of the financing and any debt service on the financing shall be paid solely by the Residential Unit Owners in proportion to each Residential Unit's Percentage of Common Interest as a Special Assessment of just the Residential Units. See Section XIX of the Offering Plan.

43. The Sponsor will not enter into interim leases with Purchasers for Residential Units prior to Closing. In no event shall Purchaser take possession of the Residential Unit prior to the time of the delivery of the deed, nor shall Purchaser enter the Residential Unit or have the Residential Unit Owner's contractors or agents enter the Residential Unit to perform work prior to Closing without the written authorization of the Sponsor. Should the Purchaser violate this provision, Sponsor will have the right to remove Purchaser from the Residential Unit as a squatter and intruder by summary proceedings. Upon the Purchaser's unauthorized possession, the Purchaser shall be deemed in default of the Purchase Agreement and Sponsor may retain as liquidated damages the funds being held in escrow as to a maximum of ten (10%) percent of the sales price plus the cost of Extras paid for by Purchaser which Extras have been installed by Sponsor, paid for but not installed by Sponsor or which have been ordered but not installed by Sponsor and for which Sponsor is obligated to pay for such Extras unless the Offering Plan has been abandoned. In the event the Offering Plan is abandoned the Purchaser shall be entitled to receive all funds paid to the Sponsor for such extras. See Section X of the Offering Plan.

44. Any Residential Unit Owner who receives a bona fide offer to purchase the Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit and intends to accept such offer, must give notice by certified or registered mail to the Board of Managers of the receipt of such bona fide offer within ten (10) days of such offer. The giving of such notice shall constitute an offer by such Residential Unit Owner to sell the Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit to the Board of Managers or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all other Residential Unit Owners, upon the same terms and conditions as contained in such bona fide offer. No later than ten (10) days after the receipt of such notice, the Board of Managers may elect, by sending written notice to such Residential Unit Owner before expiration of said ten (10) day period, by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to purchase such Residential Unit as the case may be. In such event, title shall close at the office of the attorneys for the Condominium, in accordance with the terms of the bona fide offer, within forty-five (45) days after the giving of notice by the Board of Managers of its election to accept such offer. See Article XI, Sections 2 through 6 of the By-Laws.

The purchase of a Residential Unit by the Board of Managers or its designee, on behalf of all Residential Unit Owners, may be made from funds deposited in the capital and or expense account of the Condominium. If the funds in such accounts are insufficient to effectuate any such purchase, the Board of Managers may levy an assessment against each Residential Unit Owner, in proportion to each Residential Unit's Percentage of Common Interest as a Special Assessment, and/or the Board of Managers may in its discretion finance the acquisition of the Residential Unit; provided, however, that no such financing may be secured by an encumbrance, or an hypothecation of any portion of the Property other than the Residential Unit to be purchased. If financed, all costs of the financing and any debt service on the financing shall be paid solely by the Residential

Unit Owners in proportion to each Residential Unit's Percentage of Common Interest as a Special Assessment of just the Residential Units.

45. If Sponsor relinquishes control of the Board of Managers, there is no provision in the By-Laws that requires that a majority of the Board of Managers be owner occupants who are unrelated to the Sponsor or its principals. Owner-occupants and non-resident owners, including Sponsor, may have inherent conflicts on how the Condominium should be managed as a result of their different reasons for purchasing, i.e., purchasing as a Residential Unit to live in as opposed to purchasing as an investment. See Sections XVII and XVIII of the Offering Plan.

46. Purchasers should note that, pursuant to the projected first-year budget, the Condominium will not have any employees. Individual Residential Unit Owners will be responsible for the following janitorial services: taking out household refuse for removal by the New York City Department of Sanitation and sweeping, vacuuming, mopping and/or dusting the Common Elements immediately in front of their Residential Unit. All other services of the Condominium will be contracted for and performed by independent contractors who are not employees of the Condominium on an as needed basis. The level of staffing complies with all applicable housing or labor laws for this Condominium, given the Condominium contains a total of three (3) Residential Units and on-site or proximately located janitorial/superintendent services are required for New York City buildings containing nine (9) or more units. The projected budget at Schedule B contains a line item for repairs and maintenance that may be required on an as needed basis. After the first year of Condominium operation, general repairs and/or maintenance will likely be required, and Homeowners should expect this budgetary line item to increase in the future. See Section XVI of the Offering Plan and Schedule B.

47. Sponsor entered into loan agreements with S3 RE Funding III LLC to acquire and construct the Property. Such loans will remain as a lien on the Property up until the time of Closing of the First Residential Unit. Pursuant to the terms of Sponsor's loan agreements with S3 RE Funding III LLC, at or prior to the Closing of Title to the First Residential Unit, the Sponsor will satisfy the mortgage loans with S3 RE Funding III LLC or the Residential Unit being conveyed and its appurtenant Common Interest shall be released therefrom by partial release duly recorded. S3 RE Funding III LLC has not imposed any sales restrictions in connection with Sponsor's loans. In the event Sponsor obtains a subsequent construction loan, Sponsor will amend the Offering Plan to disclose such loan. In the event Sponsor obtains a subsequent construction loan, the Sponsor will be obligated to pay off and otherwise comply with the terms of any mortgage on the entire Condominium. After the recording of the Declaration and before the Closing of Title to the first Residential Unit the lender of any mortgage that encumbers the Property at the time of conveyance of the first Residential Unit will either: (i) consent to the formation of a condominium and acknowledge that its lien will be limited to unsold condominium Residential Units; (ii) subordinate the lien of its mortgage to the Declaration of Condominium; or (iii) release its lien on the condominium Residential Unit being conveyed and its interest in the Common Elements. The Sponsor's Principal, Vadem Brodsky, is also the principal of 1206 Eastern LLC, a New York State limited liability company that owns the premises located at 1206 Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn, New York 11213. The Sponsor's loan with S3 RE Funding III LLC is partially secured by collateral of 1206 Eastern LLC. See Section I and Section XVI of the Offering Plan.

48. Purchasers should be aware that Residential Unit Owners will be permitted to keep dogs, cats or other common household pets in their Residential Unit subject to all the following provisions: No breed or mix of dog, such as American Pit Bulls, Terriers or Rottweilers, deemed to be dangerous to the health and safety of the residents of the Condominium shall be permitted to be kept or harbored in the Condominium or any Residential Unit. No exceptions will be permitted unless the same in each instance be expressly permitted in writing by the Board of Managers of the Condominium or unless the dog is a qualified service dog under the American Disabilities Act required for a qualified resident, tenant and/or guest. No animals may be kept or maintained in a Residential Unit for any commercial purposes. Any pet causing or creating a nuisance or unreasonable disturbance, or noise shall be permanently removed from the Property upon fifteen (15) days written notice from the Board of Managers. All Residential Unit Owners shall advise the Board of Managers of any household pet intended to be kept in their Residential Unit prior to the household pet residing therein. In addition to the above restrictions, the Board of Managers shall have the right to further adopt additional rules and regulations regarding pets including, but not limited to, limiting the number, size and type of pet, including, but not limited to, the type of breed of such pet permitted to be kept in a Residential Unit. In no event shall any animal be permitted in any of the public corridors or lobbies of the Condominium unless carried or on a leash and in compliance with the local and municipal rules and regulations regarding pets. All Residential Unit Owners shall be responsible for picking up and disposing of their pets' waste and for any damage caused by their pets to any Common Elements of the Condominium. See Section XIX of this Offering Plan.

49. The Sponsor has not participated in any prior public offering of cooperative interests in realty including condominiums, cooperatives or homeowner associations, and the Sponsor has no prior experience as a selling agent, except that the Sponsor's Principal has acted as a principal for the sponsor and/or selling agent under separate and unrelated offering plans, as disclosed in section of this Offering Plan, entitled "Identity of Parties." See Section XXVI.

50. The subject premises are designated as a landmark by the New York City Landmarks Preservation Commission (LPC), as provided in the Notice of Landmark Designation recorded in the New York City Register's Office at CRFN 2020000354624. Specifically, the premises have been designated as part of the Park Slope Historical District Extension. The premises are accordingly subject to the restrictions contained in Chapter 74, Section 3020 of the New York City Charter and Chapter 3, Title 25 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York. Certain types of construction on the building that affect its historic façade must receive a permit from the LPC prior to the start of construction. Prior to commencement of construction that may alter the outward appearance of the building, building owners are required to apply to the LPC for permission to perform such construction, and must provide detailed construction plans and information regarding the contractor, including, but not limited to, the contractor's contract and insurance information. See Section I and Section XIV of this Offering Plan.

577 10TH STREET CONDOMINIUM

PLAN OF CONDOMINIUM OWNERSHIP

I. INTRODUCTION

This is an Offering Plan (the "Offering Plan") for the sale of three (3) Residential Units ("Residential Units") to Residential Unit Owners in a Condominium consisting of a Building with Common Elements to be known as the 577 10th Street Condominium located at 577 10th Street, Brooklyn, New York 11215.

The purpose of the Offering Plan is to set forth all material terms of the offer for the benefit of Prospective Purchasers.

The Offering Plan may be amended at any time and from time to time provided that the amendment is duly filed with the Department of Law of the State of New York and is served on Purchasers and Residential Unit Owners.

A Declaration of Condominium submitting the property to Article 9-B of the Real Property Law of the State of New York (hereinafter referred to as the "Condominium Act") and By-Laws will be recorded prior to conveyance of title to the first Residential Unit by the Sponsor. The property will be subject to the Condominium Act. The Declaration of Condominium and By-Laws will be substantially similar to those set forth in this Offering Plan and will not be changed so as to adversely affect the Purchaser. This Offering Plan and the accompanying documentation should be carefully studied by Prospective Purchasers and their attorneys prior to the purchase of a Residential Unit.

The Sponsor of the Offering Plan is 577 Ventures LLC, with an address at 222 Park Place, Suite MM, Brooklyn, New York 11238, a New York limited liability company. Sponsor is the owner of the property having acquired it by deed dated October 4, 2022.

The Condominium will consist of three (3) Residential Units with Common Elements located in a 3-story (1st, 2nd, 3rd) walk-up Building with a cellar and a rooftop. The prior use of the property was for residential purposes as a three-family residence and not an apartment building. The development will comprise a gut renovation of the previously existing structure.

The purpose of the Offering Plan is to set forth all the terms of the offer for the benefit of Prospective Purchasers.

All portions of the Condominium, excluding the Residential Units, are Common Elements of the Condominium. The Common Elements of the Condominium are described as follows:

B. Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Elements - Certain portions of the Common Elements are irrevocably restricted in use to specified Residential Units subject to the right of the Board of Managers of the Condominium to enter upon any restricted area for maintenance, repair or improvement of a Residential Unit or Common Elements and subject to the Rules and Regulations of the Board of Managers (see By-Laws, Article VIII). Said irrevocably restricted Common Elements are also referred to as an Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Element. Any portion of the Common Elements which is not restricted in use may be used by any Residential Unit Owner. Following are descriptions of the Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Elements:

1. Any hot water tank, boiler, air conditioning condenser, fireplace, heat pumps and any other heating, cooling or other mechanical system exclusively servicing an individual Residential Unit that is located in or on the Common Elements;

See Schedule A of this Offering Plan and Article Fifth, Section 2 of the Declaration of Condominium regarding the Limited Common Elements.

C. Provisions Applicable to All Common Elements –

1. The Common Elements shall remain undivided, and no Residential Unit Owner shall bring any action for partition or division unless otherwise provided by law.

2. The Common Elements are not subject to partition nor are they severable from the Residential Units except in accordance with the Real Property Law.

3. The Percentage of Common Interest in the Common Elements established herein shall not be changed except with the consent of all of the Residential Unit Owners affected as expressed in a duly recorded amendment to the Declaration of Condominium.

4. The Percentage of Common Interest in the Common Elements shall not be separated from the Residential Units to which it appertains and shall be deemed conveyed or encumbered with the Residential Units even though such interest is not expressly mentioned or described in the conveyance or other instrument.

The Board of Managers shall have the right to require that a Residential Unit Owner utilize a contractor or sub-contractor of the Board of Manager's choosing for any repairs, maintenance and/or replacement of an Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Element that is a Residential Unit Owner's obligation at the Residential Unit Owner's sole cost and expense.

The Common Expenses associated with the Condominium, General Common Elements, and Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Elements, that are the obligation of the Condominium to repair maintain and replace, as necessary and other costs designated as a Condominium obligation or Common Expense shall be paid for by all Residential Unit Owners based upon their Percentage of Common Interest in the Condominium as reflected in Schedule A of the Offering Plan, except as provided in Section 339-m of the Real Property Law. See Special Risk No. 29.

Each Residential Unit has a different floor plan. See Schedule G-2 in Part II of the Offering Plan for a detailed description of each Residential Unit. The land and all improvements to be erected thereon are hereinafter referred to as the "Development" or the "Condominium".

Sponsor will endeavor in good faith to market and sell the Residential Units in the Condominium. However, Sponsor is retaining the unconditional right to rent rather than sell the Residential Units after consummation of the Offering Plan. Because Sponsor is retaining the unconditional right to rent rather than sell the Residential Units this Offering Plan may result in the creation of a condominium in which a majority of the Residential Units are not owned by owner-occupants or investors unrelated to the Sponsor. As a result, Purchasers for their own occupancy may never gain control of the Board of Managers under the terms of the Offering Plan. Due to the fact Sponsor is not limiting the conditions under which it will rent rather than sell Residential Units, there is no commitment to sell more Residential Units than the fifteen (15%) percent necessary to declare the Offering Plan effective and owner-occupants may never gain effective control and management of the Condominium. In the event Sponsor makes a bulk sale of all or some of its unsold Residential Units, the transferee successor Sponsor will be bound by Sponsor's representations regarding its commitment to sell Residential Units. A bulk sale consists of the transfer of twenty (20%) percent or more of the total number of Residential Units in the Condominium.

Sponsor entered into loan agreements with S3 RE Funding III LLC to acquire and construct the Property. Such loans will remain as a lien on the Property up until the time of Closing of the First Residential Unit. Pursuant to the terms of Sponsor's loan agreements with S3 RE Funding III LLC, at or prior to the Closing of Title to the First Residential Unit, the Sponsor will satisfy the mortgage loans with S3 RE Funding III LLC or the Residential Unit being conveyed and its appurtenant Common Interest shall be released therefrom by partial release duly recorded. S3 RE Funding III LLC has not imposed any sales restrictions in connection with Sponsor's loans. The Sponsor's Principal, Vadem Brodsky, is also the principal of 1206 Eastern LLC, a New York State limited liability company that owns the premises located at 1206 Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn, New York 11213. The Sponsor's loan with S3 RE Funding III LLC is partially secured by collateral of 1206 Eastern LLC. In the event Sponsor obtains a subsequent construction loan, Sponsor will amend the Offering Plan to disclose such loan. In the event Sponsor obtains a subsequent construction loan, the Sponsor will be obligated to pay off and otherwise comply with the terms of any mortgage on the entire Condominium. After the recording of the Declaration and before the Closing of Title to the first Residential Unit the lender of any mortgage that encumbers the Property at the time of conveyance of the first Residential Unit will either: (i) consent to the formation of a condominium and acknowledge that its lien will be limited to unsold condominium Residential Units; (ii) subordinate the lien of its mortgage to the Declaration of Condominium; or (iii) release its lien on the condominium Residential Unit being conveyed and its interest in the Common Elements. In addition, before the Closing of Title to the first Residential Unit all liens and mortgages affecting the Condominium shall be paid and satisfied on the Residential Unit being conveyed and its appurtenant interest in the Common Elements shall be released therefrom by partial release duly recorded.

The Purchaser of a Residential Unit in a Condominium (the "Residential Unit Owner") owns their Residential Unit in fee simple absolute and is entitled to exclusive possession of their Residential Unit. Each Purchaser of a Residential Unit will also own an undivided interest in and right to use the General Common Elements and a right to use the Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Elements that pertain to an individual Residential Unit for the Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Elements. A full description of the General and applicable Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Elements is described above.

The approximate (within reasonable tolerances) physical dimensions of each Residential Unit consists of the area measured horizontally from the exterior face of the exterior walls to the centerline of walls separating one Residential Unit from corridors, stairs, and other mechanical spaces or any common elements (as herein defined). Each Residential Unit will consist of the area measured vertically from the top of the structural slab to the underside (of any fire protection) of the structural members above. As such the areas are not based upon measurements from interior surfaces of interior walls, and the actual living area comprising the Residential Unit may be significantly less than the area listed in Schedule A. A decrease in a Residential Unit's area of five (5%) percent or less will not affect a Purchaser's obligations unless such decrease is determined to be a material change. There is a rebuttable presumption that an area that is diminished by five (5%) percent or less in not material.

A Residential Unit Owner is required to pay monthly Common Charges assessed by the Board of Managers for the operation and maintenance of the Condominium pursuant to Sections 339(i) and (m) of the New York Condominium Act. Monthly Common Charges may commence with the Closing of the first Residential Unit which is expected to be on or about April 1, 2024. Purchasers should refer to Section XIX as to the right of the first Board of Managers to commence the collection of Common Charges at a subsequent date. Purchasers should note that pursuant to the terms of the Offering Plan as long as the Sponsor retains control of the Board of Managers, the Board of Managers retains the right to delay the commencement of the collection of Common Charges. During any such delay period, the Sponsor will timely pay all expenses of the Condominium, including but not limited to insurance premiums and any reserve funds reflected in the Budget. Upon the commencement of the collection of Common Charges, there will be no assessment of Residential Unit Owners for prior expense of the budget during the period Sponsor was paying the Common Expenses of the Condominium. Sponsor shall remain obligated to update the budget for the Condominium as provided for in the governing regulations. In the event Sponsor elects to delay collection of Condominium Common Charges, it will disclose such fact in the closing notice to Purchasers and will further disclose such fact in the post-closing Amendment to the Offering Plan. Such Amendment will also disclose the anticipated period of delay. Sponsor will notify all Residential Unit Owners in writing of the expiration of the delay period at least thirty (30) days prior to commencing collection of Common Charges and will disclose such fact in the following Amendment to the Offering Plan.

Until title to a Residential Unit has passed to a Purchaser, the Sponsor will pay such Common Charges and Special Assessments as are assessed by the Board of Managers on the Residential Units to which title has not passed. Once title has passed to a Purchaser, the Purchaser will be responsible for all costs, including all Common Charges, in the event the collection of Common Charges has commenced, and individual expenses associated with the Residential Unit, as well as any costs associated with the Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Elements that pertain to the Purchasers' Residential Unit.

A Residential Unit Owner, upon acquiring title to their Residential Unit, will be obligated to comply with the Declaration of Condominium, Condominium By-Laws and its Rules and Regulations and any other requirements of the Board of Managers of the Condominium.

There is no restriction upon ownership of a Residential Unit. Occupancy of a Residential Unit, however, may only be for residential purposes as described in Section XIX of the Offering Plan. The Board of Managers will have a Right of First Refusal on the sale or rental of a Residential Unit as provided in Section XIX of the Offering Plan. Residential Units can be sold by a Residential Unit Owner, subject to said Right of First Refusal and provided that the Residential Unit Owner is not in arrears on the payment of Common Charges (except where the payment of such unpaid Common Charges is paid by the Grantee or provided for out of the proceeds of the sale) and subject to restrictions contained in the mortgage, if any, covering their Residential Unit. A Purchaser is free to make a gift of their Residential Unit to anyone during their lifetime or to devise their Residential Unit by will, or to have it pass by intestacy without any restriction. No Residential Unit can be sold without a simultaneous sale of the undivided interest in the Limited Common Elements that pertain to the Residential Unit.

Each Residential Unit Owner can sell their Residential Unit to whomever they desire and the Board of Managers does not have the right to approve or disapprove Purchasers. However, no Residential Unit Owner may sell their Residential Unit unless and until all unpaid Common Charges, Special Assessments and any other fees or charges owed the Condominium have been paid. However, unpaid Common Charges can be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of a Residential Unit. In addition, all sales are subject to the Right of First Refusal of the Board of Managers as provided for in Article XI, Section 2 of the By-Laws. Residential Unit Owners may lease their Residential Units subject to the conditions contained in Section XIX of the Offering Plan. There is no limit on the number of Residential Unit Owners who may purchase for investment rather than for personal occupancy. As a result, that there may always be a substantial percentage of Residential Unit Owners who are non-residents.

The Residential Units can be purchased for all cash or may be purchased partly for cash and partly by mortgage. The Purchase Agreement is not conditioned upon a Purchaser securing satisfactory mortgage financing. Obtaining a mortgage shall be the sole responsibility of each Purchaser. In no event will the Sponsor be obligated to return a Purchaser's Deposit in the event a Purchaser is unable to obtain a mortgage. In addition, the Purchase Agreement will remain in full force and effect and Purchaser will be obligated to pay the balance of the purchase price at Closing regardless of the availability of financing. In the event a Purchaser does not Close Title to the Residential Unit as a result of Purchaser's inability to obtain a mortgage Purchaser will be deemed in default of the Purchase Agreement and after Sponsor complies with the required notices may, at its option, retain as liquidated damages all or any part of the monies paid on account of the Purchase Agreement plus Extras paid by Purchaser which Extras have been installed by Sponsor, paid for but not installed by Sponsor or which have been ordered but not installed by Sponsor and for which Sponsor is obligated to pay, unless the Offering Plan has been abandoned. In the event the Offering Plan is abandoned a Purchaser will be entitled to a return of all funds paid for Extras.

A Residential Unit Owner may mortgage their Residential Unit at any time after they acquire title to the Residential Unit in whatever amount and under whatever terms they can obtain. Any Residential Unit Owner may also, upon the resale of their Residential Unit, grant a purchase money mortgage to a Purchaser of their Residential Unit. A "purchase money mortgage" is a voluntary lien recorded against real property to secure the seller's financing of the purchase price for the real property (i.e., the seller, as opposed to a traditional mortgage lender, provides some or all of purchaser's financing to acquire the real property). A Residential Unit Owner may mortgage their Residential Unit only if all arrears for Common Charges and/or Special Assessments, if any, are provided for at the closing of the mortgage.

The subject premises are designated as a landmark by the New York City Landmarks Preservation Commission (LPC), as provided in the Notice of Landmark Designation recorded in the New York City Register's Office at CRFN 2020000354624. Specifically, the premises have been designated as part of the Park Slope Historical District Extension. The premises are accordingly subject to the restrictions contained in Chapter 74, Section 3020 of the New York City Charter and Chapter 3, Title 25 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York. Certain types of construction on the building that affect its historic façade must receive a permit from the LPC prior to the start of construction. Prior to commencement of construction that may alter the outward appearance of the building, building owners are required to apply to the LPC for permission to perform such construction, and must provide detailed construction plans and information regarding the contractor, including, but not limited to, the contractor's contract and insurance information.

Primary responsibility for operating the Condominium rests with the Board of Managers who are elected by the Residential Unit Owners. See the By-Laws contained in Part II of the Offering Plan. The Sponsor has the right to designate all of the Board of Managers of the Condominium until all of the Residential Units in the Condominium have been sold or transferred to Residential Unit Owners other than the Sponsor, its Principals, Sponsor Affiliates, successors, assignees and/or designees ("Sponsor Control Period"). There is no limit on the period of time it may take Sponsor to convey all the Residential Units in the Condominium and as a result the Sponsor may control the Board of Managers indefinitely. For information concerning Sponsor's initial control of the Board of Managers, see Section XVII of the Offering Plan.

Each Residential Unit Owner, upon obtaining title, will automatically have one (1) vote at all meetings of Residential Unit Owners for each of the Residential Units owned by such Residential Unit Owner.

Each Residential Unit will be taxed separately for real estate tax purposes and may be separately mortgaged. Therefore, no Residential Unit Owner is liable for the payment of real estate taxes or mortgage payments on any other Residential Unit. In the opinion of counsel, a Residential Unit Owner is presently entitled to deductions for federal income tax purposes for payments for state and local income taxes and real estate taxes applicable to their Residential Unit to a maximum of $10,000 as currently permitted by law under the Federal Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 (the "Tax Act"). In addition, provided the Residential Unit will be the Purchaser's principal residence, a Residential Unit Owner may also deduct the interest on a mortgage, up to a maximum mortgage of $750,000, they procure to finance the purchase of their Residential Unit for income tax purposes pursuant to the Tax Act. The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 is scheduled to expire on December 31, 2025. See Section XXI of the Offering Plan.

Fire and liability insurance covering the General Common Elements and Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Elements are included with other items as part of Common Charges, but fire and liability insurance for the Purchaser's personal effects, the interior of the Residential Unit and the Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Elements for an Individual Residential Unit Owner's exclusive use should be carried by the individual Purchaser. Common Charges are levied in proportion to the Percentage of Common Interest in the "Common Elements" appurtenant to each Residential Unit. However, Purchasers should see Special Risk No. 29 which provides that as permitted in Section 339-m of the Real Property law of the State of New York, the Board of Managers may also make allocations and assessments of Common Charges to the General Common Elements and in accordance with sub-metering, contract allocations and usage (both projected and actual) so long as such allocations are reasonable under the circumstances and are based on special or exclusive use or availability or exclusive control of particular Residential Units or common areas by particular Residential Unit Owners. For possible increases in Common Charges upon default in payment by a Residential Unit Owner see Section XIX of the Offering Plan. Each Residential Unit Owner is responsible for the cost of their own interior repairs and decoration in their Residential Unit after Closing.

The price of the Residential Units will include only the appliances and fixtures detailed in the Description of Property Report contained in Part II of the Offering Plan. Installation and the cost of any extras, upgraded appliances, upgraded fixtures or appliances or fixtures not provided is the sole responsibility of each Residential Unit Owner. The Sponsor reserves the right to provide fixtures and appliances by different manufacturers which are of Equal or Better Quality than noted in the Description of Property found in Part II of the Offering Plan.

The prices for the Residential Units are set forth in Schedule A. THESE PRICES HAVE BEEN SET BY THE SPONSOR ALONE AND ARE NOT SUBJECT TO APPROVAL BY THE DEPARTMENT OF LAW OR ANY OTHER GOVERNMENTAL AGENCY.

This Offering Plan contains all of the material terms of this transaction. Parts I and II along with Parts A, B, C and D of the Schedules submitted along with the Offering Plan together constitute the entire Offering Plan. Copies of the Offering Plan and Parts A, B, C and D of the Schedules will be available for inspection by Prospective Purchasers and their attorneys without charge and for copying at a reasonable charge at the Condominium site whenever the on-site sales office is open, at the office of the Sponsor or any Selling Agent engaged by Sponsor and at the New York State Department of Law, 28 Liberty Street, 21st Floor, New York, New York 10005.

III. DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY AND IMPROVEMENTS

Location, Acreage and Zoning

The Condominium is located at 577 10th Street, Brooklyn, New York 11215. The Condominium is zoned R6B Residence District of the City of New York, which permits residential dwelling units. The NYC Department of City Planning describes R6B zoning as follows: "R6B districts are often traditional row house districts, which preserve the scale and harmonious streetscape of neighborhoods of three-story attached buildings developed during the 19th century. Many of these houses are set back from the street with stoops and small front yards that are typical of Brooklyn's 'brownstone' neighborhoods, such as Park Slope, Boerum Hill and Bedford Stuyvesant."

The overall zoning lot size of the Condominium is approximately 1,784.7 square feet. The prior use of the property was for residential purposes as a three-family residence and not an apartment building. The development will comprise a gut renovation of the previously existing structure.

Topographical Features

The site consists of a building over gently sloped land.

Improvements - General Description

The Building is in the process of being renovated and it is anticipated that the Closing to the first Residential Unit will occur on or about April 1, 2024, subject to factors beyond Sponsor's control such as weather conditions, strikes, material shortages, acts of God and sales conditions. The Building will contain (3) Residential Units and Common Elements located in a 3-story (1st, 2nd, 3rd) walk-up Building with a cellar and a rooftop.

The Building Plans have been filed with the Building Department of the City of New York and are available for inspection at the Sponsor's Office.

There are no lot line windows in the Building. The Residential Units, the Building containing them and all other improvements will be constructed in accordance with all applicable rules, regulations, laws, and other requirements of all governmental authorities having jurisdiction thereof, including those governing zoning and construction, and the Sponsor and all other persons engaged by the Sponsor in connection with this Offering Plan have complied and will comply with all applicable laws, rules and regulations and other governmental requirements pertaining thereto, including without limitation the laws and rules of the City of New York and the New York Codes, Rules and Regulations ("NYCRR"). Renovation and construction of the Condominium will comply with the Building Code of the City of New York. Before the Closing of Title to a Residential Unit, a temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy will be issued for such Residential Unit or the Building in which it is located. At the time of the first Closing of Title to a Residential Unit all Residential Units in that Building will have been partially or substantially completed. The Sponsor reserves the right to provide fixtures and appliances by different manufacturers which are of an Equal or Better Quality than noted in the Description of Property Report found in Part II of the Offering Plan.

Purchasers are advised that in New York, newly constructed and newly renovated buildings are sometimes offered as condominium projects without a permanent Certificate of Occupancy ("PCO") covering the entire building but with only a temporary Certificate of Occupancy ("TCO"), and sometimes with several successive temporary certificates of occupancy. Certificates of Occupancy are generally governed by section 301 of the New York Multiple Dwelling Law and local building codes and rules. Both TCOs and PCOs are issued by the New York City Department of Buildings ("Building Department"). A TCO is intended to indicate that the property is safe for occupancy but means that not all of the construction work and/or inspections have been performed, or that not all of the required documents have been submitted to the Building Department. All TCOs have an expiration date. A TCO typically expires 90 days after the date of issuance. When a TCO expires and is not renewed, it may be difficult or impossible to buy insurance, refinance, or sell Residential Units. In New York City, it is common for sponsors to commence Residential Unit closings when some or all Residential Units are covered by a TCO rather than a PCO. Sponsor anticipates this scenario may occur. Sponsor and its principals will undertake the responsibility for extending each TCO received prior to expiration thereof and ultimately for obtaining a FCO covering the entire Building within two years from the date of issuance of the first TCO. However, Sponsor and its principals make no representation or guarantee that the Building Department will issue the PCO within such two (2) year period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor and its principals are obligated to procure the PCO for the entire Building and shall exercise its best efforts to obtain the PCO within such two-year period while keeping the TCO current. Residential Unit Owners and the Board of Managers shall be obligated to cooperate with and refrain from obstructing Sponsor in these undertakings. Residential Unit Owners will not be permitted to make any changes, additions or alterations to their Residential Unit requiring Building Department approval prior to the issuance of a Permanent Certificate of Occupancy or renewal of a temporary Certificate of Occupancy.

Construction Data for Residential Units, Common Elements and Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Elements

The Building, the Residential Units and Common Elements will be renovated and/or constructed in the manner set forth in the Building Plans filed with the City of New York, which Plans will not be changed so as to adversely affect the Residential Unit Owners. For a detailed description of such data see the Description of Property Report in Part II of the Offering Plan. Renovation and/or construction of the Building has commenced and Closing of Title to the first Residential Unit is expected to take place on or about April 1, 2024, barring any unforeseen delays beyond the control of the Sponsor such as weather conditions, strikes, material shortages, acts of God and sales conditions.

Allocation of Common Interest

The Common Interest of the Condominium establishes the Residential Unit Owners' percentage of ownership in the Common Elements and percentage of liability for the payment of Common Charges subject to the provisions of Section 339-m. See Special Risk No. 29. Each Residential Unit Owner has the Percentage of Common Interest in the Condominium set forth on Schedule A. The Percentage of Common Interest of each of the Residential Units has been determined pursuant to Section 339-i(1)(iv) of the Condominium Act, based on floor space, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Residential Unit, the availability of Common Elements for exclusive or shared use, and the overall dimensions of the particular Residential Unit. See Special Risk No. 25 as to Sponsor's right to adjust the Percentages of Common Interest by an amount not to exceed a five (5%) percent change so that the total Percentages of Common Interest equal 100%.

The cellar, deck, terrace, roof top and rear yard areas are not permitted to be used for a bedroom or livingroom. Use of this space improperly may result in a building code violation being issued.

*The projected real estate taxes contained in Schedule A are based on an assessment of the building after rehabilitation is complete.

See Footnote 5 to Schedule A for actual projected real estate taxes for the first year of operation, which are lower than those projected in Schedule A.

Purchasers are advised that real estate taxes may increase materially when the building is reassessed after rehabilitation is complete. See Footnote 5 to Schedule A and Section XX of the Offering Plan for more information regarding the projected assessed valuation after completion of rehabilitation.

FOOTNOTES TO SCHEDULE A

1. No change in the sales prices will be made other than pursuant to a duly filed amendment, except that the Sponsor reserves the right to decrease the sales prices below the Offering Plan prices without filing an amendment to the Offering Plan at any time during the offering where a reduction in sales price does not constitute a general offering but is rather the result of an individually negotiated Residential Unit purchase. See Section IX of the Offering Plan as to other terms of the offering which are negotiable. See Section XV of the Offering Plan for estimated Closing Costs and Adjustments, which costs are in addition to the sale prices set forth herein.

2. Purchasers should refer to the floor plans in Schedule G-2 of Part II of the Offering Plan for details of each type of Residential Unit. The room count has been made in accordance with the standards set forth by the New York City Department of Buildings as reflected in the Description of Property Report set forth in Part II of this Offering Plan. The approximate floor area, within reasonable tolerances, of each Residential Unit consists of the exterior face of the exterior walls to the centerline of walls separating one Residential Unit from corridors, stairs, and other mechanical spaces or any common elements (as herein defined). Each Residential Unit will consist of the area measured vertically from the top of the structural slab to the underside (of any fire protection) of the structural members above. As such the areas are not based upon measurements from interior surfaces of interior walls, and the actual living area comprising the Residential Unit may be significantly less than the area listed in Schedule A. The areas displayed in Schedule A consist of habitable and uninhabitable space. Any uninhabitable space appurtenant to a Residential Unit may not be legally used as a bedroom or living room and to do so may result in the issuance of a building code violation by the New York City Department of Buildings. In addition, the cellar and rooftop deck are for accessory uses only and may not be used for sleeping, cooking and/or living purposes, nor may the cellar or rooftop deck be rented independently. Purchasers should refer to the Description of Property Report and the floor plans of the various model types in Schedule G and G-3 respectively, as to the description and location of the Residential Units.

3. The Percentage of Common Interest of each of the Residential Units has been determined pursuant to Section 339-i(1)(iv) of the Condominium Act, based on floor space, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Residential Unit, the availability of Common Elements for exclusive or shared use, and the overall dimensions of the particular Residential Unit. Based upon final specifications, construction conditions and/or “as-built” plans for the Building reflecting relative measurements, areas and uses of portions of the Building, application of such method of allocation the Percentage of Common Interest may justify a minor increase or decrease in the aggregate Percentage of Common Interest appurtenant to Residential Units. In such event, the Percentage of Common Interest appurtenant to each individual Residential Unit would be adjusted pro rata. Sponsor expressly reserves the right, from time to time, prior to the first Closing, to affect change of not more than five (5%) percent in the Percentages of Common Interest and to amend the Plan so as to reflect the same. Notwithstanding, unless an affected Purchaser consents, no material change will be made in the Percentage of Common Interest if a Purchase Agreement has been executed and delivered to the Sponsor for that Residential Unit and the Purchaser is not in default.

4. Common Charges have been estimated by the Sponsor and include fire and liability insurance for the Residential Units and Common Elements and maintenance and operation of the General Common Elements and Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Elements that are the obligation of the Condominium to repair, maintain and replace, as necessary. Common Charges exclude repair and decoration to the inside of a Residential Unit, utilities for each Residential Unit and insurance for personal belongings. See Schedule C for estimated heating and electrical costs for the Residential Units.

5. Real estate tax estimates are based upon information received from Metropolitan Realty Exemptions, Inc., 381 South 5th Street, Brooklyn, New York 11211. A tax opinion letter dated April 17, 2023, provided by Metropolitan Realty Exemptions, Inc., is contained in Section XXII of the Offering Plan. The projected figures in the opinion letter assume the applicability of a 2023/2024 residential class 1 tax rate of $20.309 per $100 of assessed valuation for the Residential Units for a total tax of $10,129.00 for tax year 2023/2024 and a total tax of $19,875.00 for tax year 2024/2025. The tax opinion letter assumes that the 2023/2024 residential class 1 tax rate of $20.309 per $100 of assessed valuation will remain consistent and that the same tax rate will apply in tax year 2024/2025.

   Sponsor anticipates that the gut renovation of the Condominium will be completed by March 31, 2024, and per the opinion letter of Metropolitan Realty Exemptions, Inc., it is anticipated that the New York City Department of Finance ("Department of Finance") will reassess the value of the Property on the taxable status date of January 5, 2025. The Department of Finance releases tentative assessments of property value in New York City every January and issues final assessments every May, prior to the beginning of each tax year, which commences on July 1st.

   The first year of Condominium operation is scheduled to commence on April 1, 2024, and end on March 31, 2025. As such, it is anticipated that taxes for the first year of operation will be assessed partly (approximately 25%) based on the Property's pre-completion valuation and partly (approximately 75%) based on its post-completion valuation.

   The blended total projected real estate taxes for the first year of operation is $17,439.00, which was calculated by Metropolitan Realty Exemptions, Inc., as follows:

Estimated Blended Taxes for First Year of Condominium Operation
	Assessed Value	Tax Rate	Real Estate Tax
25% of 2023/2024	$12,468.00	20.309%	$2,532.00
75% of 2024/2025	$73,398.00	20.309%	$14,906.00
TOTAL	$85,866.00		$17,439.00

The projected real estate taxes applicable to the Residential Units during the first year of operation contained in Schedule A are based on an assessment of the Building after the gut renovation is complete. Therefore, the real estate tax projection in Schedule A is intended to disclose the taxes projected to be applicable post completion of construction/renovation and reassessment. Notwithstanding, in view of the fact the Department of Finance of the City of New York ("DOF") has not issued a final post construction assessment, real estate taxes may increase materially after DOF issues its final post renovation assessment. See Section XX of the Offering Plan and below for more information regarding the projected assessed valuation after completion of rehabilitation.

The total estimated post completion of renovation valuation for the entire Condominium for the 2024/2025 tax year is estimated to be $97,864.00 and total taxes for all the Residential Units for said period is estimated to be $19,875.00. Sponsor has been advised by its consultant that it is the policy and practice of the New York City Department of Finance ("Finance") to apportion the assessed valuation of a condominium among the various units based upon the percentage of common interest contained in the Declaration of Condominium. Estimated real property taxes by unit once fully assessed after renovation is complete (i.e., fiscal 2024/2025) based on relative percentages of Common Interest set forth in Schedule A in the Offering Plan are as follows:

Unit	% of Common Interest	Estimated Assessed Value	Estimated Annual 2024/2025 Taxes
1	41%	$40,124.24	$8,148.75
2	25%	$24,466.00	$4,968.75
3	34%	$33,273.76	$6,757.50

It should be noted that, although it is currently Finance's stated policy to apportion the assessed values of condominium properties among the various units on this basis, Finance has used different methodologies in the past. No warranty or guarantee is made herein that assessed values will not be apportioned based on a different method.

The figures set forth above are approximations derived from material submitted by the Sponsor and publicly available tax records and are subject to amendment. No government agency has passed upon these figures or the estimates of assessed valuation and taxes above. Neither the Sponsor nor its counsel have passed on the accuracy of any figures or estimates contained in the Offering Plan, and offer no warranties on real estate assessments, tax classifications, taxes or tax rates for any period. All prospective Purchasers are advised that, although the estimates of assessed valuations upon conversion are good faith estimates, such assessed valuations when actually made may be less or greater than as estimated above.

The above estimates do not take into account any future increases in the level of assessed valuation applied to residential property or any increase in the real estate tax rates. The above estimates are based upon interpretations of The New York State Real Property Tax Law and The Administrative Code of the City of New York and are not intended to be a guarantee or assurance that the actual or transitional tax assessments, tax rates, or actual taxes will be as estimated.

No representation is made that the provisions of law or New York City Department of Finance policies and practices will apply at the time the property's conversion is complete. Purchasers should be aware that the laws, regulations and practices of the Department of Finance upon which the above estimates are predicted may in the future be revised in a manner adverse to a Purchaser's interests, or that there may be an adverse interpretation of the law or regulation by one or more agencies of the City of New York, or Courts of competent jurisdiction. In no event will Sponsor, Sponsor's Counsel, or any offeror hereunder be liable to any Purchaser under this Plan, nor will any Purchaser have the right to rescind the Purchaser's Purchase Agreement, in the event the actual taxes differ from those projected.

The above estimates are not intended and should not be construed as representations or warranties that assessments, tax rates, and taxes will not be determined in a different amount. The foregoing analysis is based upon the knowledge of the making and review of assessments by the Real Property Assessment Department and the Tax Commission of the City of New York with respect to "class 1" residential properties held in the condominium form of ownership. Application of a particular approach to valuation by an individual assessor may yield a different result.

Each Residential Unit will be given a separate block and lot designation.

Although the aforesaid estimate of Actual Assessed Valuation is a good faith estimate, it is not possible to estimate the same with any degree of certainty. Assessed valuations, when actually made, may be lesser or greater based on interpretation of the administrative code and the applicable rules and regulations of the City of New York. The estimates are not intended and should not be construed as warranties as to future assessed valuations of the Property.

See Section XX for a full discussion of the real estate taxes applicable to the Residential Units. A copy of the opinion letter from Metropolitan Realty Exemptions, Inc. is contained in Section XXII of the Offering Plan.

After the Condominium is divided into individual tax lots, each Residential Unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes and the Residential Unit Owner will not be responsible for the payment of, nor will the Residential Unit be subject to, any lien arising from the non-payment of taxes on other Residential Units. In the opinion of counsel, a Residential Unit Owner is presently entitled to deductions for federal income tax purposes for payments for state and local income taxes and real estate taxes applicable to their Residential Unit to a maximum of $10,000 as is currently permitted by law under the Federal Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 (the "Tax Act"). In addition, provided the Residential Unit will be the Purchaser's principal residence, a Residential Unit Owner may also deduct the interest on a mortgage, up to a maximum mortgage of $750,000, they procure to finance the purchase of their Residential Unit for income tax purposes pursuant to the Tax Act. The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 is scheduled to expire on December 31, 2025. See Section XXI of the Offering Plan. Any projected tax deduction (where applicable) may vary in future years due to changes in the interest rate on the Residential Unit Owner's mortgage (if any) or from changes in the allocation of constant debt service payments to interest and principal, or due to changes in real property taxes resulting from the expiration of real estate tax benefits, or from changes in the assessed value, the tax rate, or the method of assessing real property.

6. The Sponsor is not offering and has not procured mortgage financing. As a result, the projected monthly carrying charges for financing have not been included in Schedule A. In the event a Purchaser obtains a mortgage, a Purchaser's monthly carrying charges will increase. Any Purchaser who applies for a mortgage from a lending institution should check with that institution as to the monthly mortgage costs as well as any Closing Costs that the Purchaser will be obligated to pay the lending institution.

If amended budget exceeds this budget by twenty-five (25%) percent or more, the Sponsor will offer all Purchasers the right to rescind their Purchase Agreement and have their Deposits returned, with interest, if any within a reasonable period of time that is not less than fifteen (15) days. In addition, in the event the estimated commencement date of the first year of operation of the Condominium is delayed by twelve (12) months or more, Purchasers will be offered a right of rescission unless Purchaser enters into a Purchase Agreement subsequent to an amendment disclosing a revised estimated date of the first Closing. In such an event the Purchaser will be offered a right of rescission by an amendment to the Offering Plan if the estimated date of the Closing of the first Residential Unit is delayed by twelve (12) months or more from the estimated date disclosed in the amendment. An amendment to the Offering Plan does not negate the right of rescission for a Purchaser who entered into a Purchase Agreement prior the amendment, if the Closing of the first Residential Unit is delayed by twelve (12) months or more.

FOOTNOTES TO PROJECTED BUDGET

1. COMMON CHARGES

The estimate of the Annual Common Charges to be collected during the first year of Condominium operation is based upon a projection of the total amount of Common Charges that will be levied against the Residential Units and is based upon full occupancy of the Condominium.

2. LABOR

The Condominium will not have any employees. All services of the Condominium will be contracted for and performed by independent contractors who are not employees of the Condominium on an as needed basis. The level of staffing complies with all applicable housing or labor laws for this Condominium, given the Condominium contains a total of three (3) Residential Units and on-site or proximately located janitorial/superintendent services are required for New York City buildings containing nine (9) or more units. Individual Residential Unit Owners will be responsible for the following janitorial services: taking out household refuse for removal by the New York City Department of Sanitation and sweeping, vacuuming, mopping and/or dusting the Common Elements immediately in front of their Residential Unit. The projected budget contains a line item to pay independent contractors for repairs and maintenance that may be required on an as needed basis.

3. COMMON ELECTRIC

Based on the letter from R & W / Engineers, P.C., 380 Townline Road, Suite 150, Hauppauge, New York, as follows:

Common Area Electric Costs

Building Exterior Entrance, Vestibule, Lobby, Cellar, Hallways & Stairways Lighting (LED): 0.25 Watt/sf x 360 sf x 24 hrs/day x 365 days x $0.28/KWH/1,000 x 1.065 = $235.10/year

Exterior Lighting: 4 Fixtures (assumed) x 0.025 KW/fixture x 10 hrs/dy x 365 dy/yr x $0.28/KWH x 1.065 = $108.84/year

Common Area Heating (assumed electric): 5 Watts/SF x 525 SF x 4 hrs/dy x 210 dys/yr x $0.28/KWH/1,000 x 1.065 = $450.88/year

Common Area Cooling (assumed electric): 1.5 KWH x 6 hrs/dy x 120 dys/yr x $0.28/KWH x 1.065 = $322.06/year

The cost factor of 6.5% added to each item in the estimate is based on a utility sales tax rate of 2.5% (simplified average) and an inflation factor of 4.0% over the next year. All Residential Units have their own individual electric meter, as well as there being a separate electric meter for the common area. The budget is for the cost of the electricity in the common area only and does not include the cost for each Residential Unit, which shall be separately metered and billed directly to each Residential Unit Owner.

It is not possible to predict whether the budgeted figure will reflect the actual cost to be incurred during the first year of Condominium operation due to the level of consumption being an estimate. Many factors affect the cost of electricity and water, and rates may increase as a result.

Purchasers should refer to Schedule C as to individual utility costs.

4. WATER CHARGES/SEWER RENTS

Based on the letter of R & W/Engineers, P.C., 380 Townline Road, Hauppauge, New York as follows:

Water Consumption: (Does not include sewer charge)
New York City charge = $4.30/100 cubic feet or $4.30/748 gallons

Water Usage: 300 gpd/Unit > 2,001 sf (incl. outside area)
225 gpd/Unit between 601 and 2,000 sf
0.04 gpd/sf common use area
Common Area = 360 sf

Residential Water Use = {(300 gpd/unit x 1 units) + (225 gpd/unit x 2 unit) + (0.04 gpd/sf x 360 sf)} x 365 dys/yr x $4.30/748 gal x 1.065 = $1,708.17/year

Sewage Charge:
New York City charge = $6.82/100 cubic feet or $6.82/748 gallons

Sewage Charge Based on Water Usage: 300 gpd/Unit > 2,001 sf (including outside area)
225 gpd/Unit between 601 and 2,000 sf
0.04 gpd/sf common use area
Common Area = 360 sf

Sewer Charge = {(300 gpd/unit x 1 units) + (225 gpd/unit x 2 unit) + (0.04 gpd/sf x 360 sf)} x 365 dys/yr x $6.82/748 gal x 1.065 = $2,709.23/year

The City of New York will provide water and sewer services to the Building. Water and sewer charges will be commonly metered and the costs thereof will be a Common Expense of all Residential Unit Owners in the Condominium. The rates projected above are not guaranteed, and it must be expected that these rates may increase with the passage of time and could be affected by many factors, which are beyond the control of the Sponsor. Actual consumption will be metered and will vary based on factors beyond the Sponsor's control, including, without limitation, the personal needs of the occupants and weather conditions.

5. BUILDING REPAIRS, MAINTENANCE

It is estimated that no general repairs or maintenance will be required to maintain the public areas for the first year of Condominium operation, with the only foreseen expenses at this time consisting of cleaning, painting of public halls and ceiling, waxing floors and polish. Individual Residential Unit Owners will be responsible for the following janitorial services: taking out household refuse for removal by the New York City Department of Sanitation and sweeping, vacuuming, mopping and/or dusting the Common Elements immediately in front of their Residential Unit (i.e., the entranceway, etc.). The Board of Managers shall be responsible for all other routine maintenance. Such services will be contracted for and performed by independent contractors who are not employees of the Condominium on an as needed basis. The level of staffing complies with all applicable housing or labor laws for this Condominium, given the Condominium contains a total of three (3) Residential Units and on-site or proximately located janitorial/superintendent services are required for New York City buildings containing nine (9) or more units. After the first year of Condominium operation, general repairs and/or maintenance will likely be required, and Homeowners should expect this budgetary line item to increase in the future.

The budgeted figure does not include improvements and repairs to, maintenance of, or supplies for individual Residential Units. Each individual Residential Unit Owner is responsible for improvements and repairs to, maintenance of, and supplies for their Residential Unit and any Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Elements that are not the obligation of the Condominium, restricted to their use and subject to the requirements contained in the Declaration of Condominium and By-Laws. This line item of the budget does not include the costs of repairs, hardware supplies, painting, or extermination for the interior of Residential Units, which are the sole responsibility of the Residential Unit Owner.

6. INSURANCE

The budget figure for insurance is based on an estimate provided by Brooklyn Brokerage, Corp., 383 Kingston Avenue, Suite 165, Brooklyn, New York 11213, as follows:

The information provided by Brooklyn Brokerage, Corp. is based on current rates and estimated replacement cost of $307 per square foot and includes an estimated inflation rider of 2%.

The coverage amount limit stated above for casualty insurance is based on full replacement value and should be sufficient to avoid the effects of co-insurance. The Condominium Board of Managers should review said amount annually. The above quotation does not include excess liability, workers compensation and auto liability which may be obtained at additional expense to the Condominium. The insurance policies will provide that (i) each Residential Unit Owner is an additional insured against General Liability only with respect to the General Common Elements); (ii) there will be no cancellation without notice to the Condominium Board and/or their legal representatives; (iii) the right to subrogation against Residential Unit Owners is waived; (iv) the defense of invalidity because of acts of the insured and Residential Unit Owners is waived; and (v) policy will follow perimeters set forth by Declaration of Condominium and By-Laws of Condominium.

The above coverage will be in place prior to or simultaneously with the closing of the first Residential Unit in the Condominium.

No coverage is provided for fire and casualty losses to the contents of each Residential Unit nor does the coverage take into account any future replacements or additions to the Residential Units or the fixtures and improvements contained therein. In addition, no liability coverage for an individual Residential Unit Owner is included in the coverage provided above for occurrences not within the Common Elements. Prospective Purchasers should consult their attorney or insurance agent to determine the advisability of obtaining insurance of their own risk of liability and fire and casualty losses.

Inflationary increases in property values and other changes in the exposures of property make it necessary to periodically review and update the coverage detailed above.

IN RECENT YEARS, PREMIUMS FOR INSURANCE (ESPECIALLY FIRE AND LIABILITY INSURANCE) HAVE INCREASED SUBSTANTIALLY. IT IS NOT POSSIBLE TO PREDICT WHETHER FUTURE PREMIUMS WILL CONTINUE TO INCREASE OR WILL LEVEL OFF. NO REPRESENTATION IS MADE REGARDING THE ACTUAL COST OF INSURANCE AT THE TIME OF CLOSING. PURCHASERS ARE ADVISED TO PROCURE THEIR OWN FIRE AND LIABILITY COVERAGE FOR THE INTERIOR OF THE RESIDENTIAL UNIT AND THE PURCHASER'S PERSONAL AFFECTS.

7. MANAGEMENT FEE

The Condominium will initially be self-managed by the Board of Managers. The Board of Managers will be responsible for bookkeeping, billing, contracting for essential services, maintaining insurance on the premises, procuring a financial statement yearly and other services normally performed by a Managing Agent. In the event the Board of Managers hires a Managing Agent at the end of the first year of operation, the budget will increase accordingly. No representation is made as to the cost, terms or availability of a third-party Managing Agent. Notwithstanding said fact, a Condominium of this size may ultimately determine there is a need to hire a Managing Agent. The current costs of a Managing Agent to manage a Condominium of this size may vary from approximately $1,000 per annum per Residential Unit to approximately $1,500 per annum per Residential Unit. The Sponsor has not entered into any management agreement to provide for management of the Condominium for the first year of operation and there is no fee for a managing agent in the proposed budget for the first year of operation of the Condominium. During the Sponsor Control Period, the Sponsor will be in control of the Board of Managers and will de facto manage the Condominium. The Sponsor will not charge a fee for managing the Condominium for the first year of operation. However, in the event that Sponsor is still in control of the Condominium after the first year of operation, Sponsor reserves the right to charge a fee of not more than $8,000 per year in total for its services in managing the Condominium.

8. ACCOUNTING/LEGAL

The budgeted accounting costs are based on an estimate of $2,000 provided by Kahan, CPA with offices located at 500 Dekalb Avenue, Suite 407, Brooklyn, New York 11205, for the preparation of tax returns and the certification of yearly financial statements.

Based on an estimate of $750 from Certilman Balin Adler & Hyman, LLP, Sponsor has budgeted a small expense for legal fees for the first year of operation, to be used by the Board of Managers elected by the Residential Unit Owners when consulting with an attorney of their selection to review contracts and collect delinquent charges. The cost of litigation and other legal services, if any, would be additional.

9. CONTINGENCY

The budgeted figure is allocated for contingent costs or expenses that may exceed the estimated operating budget.

10. RESERVES

The Sponsor has estimated reserves for major capital improvements at approximately ten percent (10%) of the estimated operating budget. Said amount is sufficient to comply with Fannie Mae and FHA guidelines but Sponsor makes no representation regarding the Condominium's compliance with any other requirements of Fannie Mae and FHA. It shall be the obligation of the Board of Managers to collect and utilize this Reserve fund strictly and solely for capital expenditures for the Common Elements of this Condominium regime. In view of the fact this Condominium contain a completely renovated Building, the annual Reserve Fund should be sufficient to cover the anticipated costs of any capital replacement within the first five (5) years after the first closing.

IN THE OPINION OF FAIRWAY REALTY GROUP, INC. (SET FORTH IN "CERTIFICATION OF SPONSOR'S EXPERT CONCERNING ADEQUACY OF BUDGET," IN PART II OF THIS OFFERING PLAN), THE PROJECTED RECEIPTS APPEAR REASONABLE AND ADEQUATE BASED ON PRESENT PRICES (ADJUSTED TO REFLECT CONTINUED INFLATION AND PRESENT LEVELS OF CONSUMPTION FOR COMPARABLE RESIDENTIAL UNITS SIMILARLY SITUATED) TO MEET THE ESTIMATED EXPENSES FOR THEIR FIRST YEAR OF CONDOMINIUM OPERATION, ASSUMING SUCH FIRST YEAR TO BE THE YEAR COMMENCING APRIL OF 2024. THE FOREGOING BUDGET, HOWEVER, IS NOT INTENDED AND SHOULD NOT BE TAKEN AS A WARRANTY THAT THE ANNUAL COMMON CHARGES OR COMMON EXPENSES FOR THE FIRST OR ANY SUBSEQUENT YEAR OF OPERATION OF THE PROPERTY BY THE CONDOMINIUM BOARD WILL BE AS SET FORTH IN SAID BUDGET. IT IS LIKELY THAT THE ACTUAL COMMON EXPENSES FOR THE FIRST YEAR OF CONDOMINIUM OPERATION WILL VARY FROM THE AMOUNTS SHOWN IN THE BUDGET.

VII. SCHEDULE C

The projected energy costs for the individual Residential Units have been provided by R & W / Engineers, P.C., 380 Townline Road, Suite 150, Hauppauge, New York 11788 as per the attached projections. Con Edison Electric costs are based on a rate of $0.28/KWH (Simplified Delivery & Supply), as projected by R & W / Engineers, P.C.

Actual costs may vary depending upon the hours of use, thermostat settings and proper maintenance. These cost figures are estimates and are not intended as guarantees.

In view of the fact that these averages may include the use of energy by persons of varying need with different standards of comfort or with families of different sizes, the amount of energy used by the Purchaser may vary substantially from the average estimates herein provided. In addition, the effect of inflation, fuel shortages and other factors may raise the cost of electricity substantially higher than the current or projected rate.

Although the Sponsor is under obligation to provide accurate information to Prospective Purchasers, factors beyond its control may substantially affect the cost of electricity after the purchase of a Residential Unit or in subsequent years. Sponsor represents however, that it has followed the plans and specifications provided by the manufacturer of the appliances together with the recommendation of the manufacturer and other experts to enable these items of equipment to operate at optimum efficiency at the lowest cost. Further, that it has not been induced to select the appliances etc., described herein on the basis of any financial inducement other than the cooperative advertising and price of the system made to it by the manufacturer or distributor of the system or by the supplier of energy to be used in connection therewith or by any of their agents or employees. Although Sponsor is of the opinion the amounts set forth in Schedule B-1 appear reasonable and adequate under existing circumstances to meet the reasonably anticipated costs to provide utility services to the Residential Units, no item is warranted as to its accuracy, sufficiency or otherwise.

Re: 577 10th Street, Brooklyn, NY
Water, Sewer, Natural Gas and Electric Utility Budgets

Dear Mr. Brodsky:

Per your request, we prepared the following annual individual unit and common utility consumption (electric, sewer and water) estimates and anticipated present day costs. The cost factor of 6.5% added to each item is based on a utility sales tax rate of 2.5% (simplified average) and an inflation factor of 4.0% over the next year. The project Sponsor indicates that the New York City Water Board is the water purveyor and Consolidated Edison will provide electric. The NYC DEP provides the sanitary connection. The sewerage charge is based on the water use. The building contains three (3) residential units.

The building consists of a cellar and three (3) stories above grade. The cellar has utility closets and a common hallway. The majority of the cellar is an accessory use for Unit 1 that has bed rooms, kitchen and other uses on the first floor. Each of the three above grade stories contains a residential unit and common stairs. The roof does not contain an accessory use for Unit #3. There is a common porch on the first floor at the front. The rear of the building has an outdoor accessory use for Unit #1.

The three residential units are as follows:

Unit 1: 2 Bedroom, 2 & 1/2 Baths	2,368 sq. ft.	385 sq. ft. Outside Recreation
Unit 2: 3 Bedroom, 2 Full Bath	1,201 sq. ft.
Unit 3: 3 Bedroom, 2 Full Bath	1,330 sq. ft.	1,121 sq. ft. Outside Recreation
Common Area (inside Building):	360 sq. ft.

This letter report is based on information contained on building plans for the proposed construction prepared by Paul Chistakos Architecture PLLC. Utility rates, in simplified format, are based on recent utility bills for similar type construction. It is assumed that the utilities will be metered as follow:

Electric:
Residential units will be separately metered for electricity. An electric meter will be provided for common area uses. Electricity is provided by Consolidated Edison Company.

Water and Sewer:
The City of New York will provide water and sewer services to the building. Water and sewer charges will be commonly metered.

Water Consumption: (Does not include sewer charge)
New York City charge = $4.30/100 cubic feet or $4.30/748 gallons

Water Usage: 300 gpd/Unit > 2,001 sf
225 gpd/Unit between 601 and 2,000 sf
0.04 gpd/sf common use area

Residential Water Use = {(300 gpd/unit x 1 unit) + (225 gpd/unit x 2 units) + (0.04 gpd/sf x 360 sf)} x 365 dys/yr x $4.30/748 gal x 1.065 = $1,708.17/year

Sewage Charge:
New York City charge = $6.82/100 cubic feet or $6.82/748 gallons

Sewage Charge Based on Water Usage: 300 gpd/Unit > 2,001 sf
225 gpd/Unit between 601 and 2,000 sf
0.04 gpd/sf common use area

Sewer Charge = {(300 gpd/unit x 1 unit) + (225 gpd/unit x 2 units) + (0.04 gpd/sf x 360 sf)} x 365 dys/yr x $6.82/748 gal x 1.065 = $2,709.23/year

Common Area Cooling (assumed electric): 1.5 KWH x 6 hrs/dy x 120 dys/yr x $0.28/KWH x 1.065 = $322.06/year

Combined utility purveyor commodity and delivery costs with several averaging assumptions were applied to derive at the single unit cost for each utility. The calculations include many assumptions on the amount of appliances and common rooms use. It is not possible to predict how closely the estimated costs will reflect the actual costs for providing water, sewer and electricity to the individual and common spaces during the first year of operation, in part because such costs will vary with the levels of consumption, the unit price for water and electric, weather and any conservation measures adopted by the owners, residents and staff. It is believed that the projected figures should be sufficient to cover the cost of water, sewer and electricity during the first year of operation. However, the unit prices for water and electricity have been highly volatile and unpredictable. No budgeted item is warranted.

Should you have any questions, please call my office. Trusting that the above is as requested, I remain

Very truly yours,

VIII. COMPLIANCE WITH REAL PROPERTY LAW SECTION 339-i

October 16, 2023

State of New York
Department of Law
28 Liberty Street, 21st Floor
New York, New York 10005

Re: 577 10TH STREET CONDOMINIUM

Gentlepeople:

The Sponsor of the Condominium Offering Plan for the captioned property has retained this office to review the Percentage of Common Interest applied to the Residential Units contained in Schedule A of the Offering Plan.

Our experience includes the preparation of hundreds of Condominium Offering Plans and legal representation of numerous Condominium Boards of Managers in the State of New York for over thirty (30) years.

In reviewing said Schedule A, the Percentage of Common Interest for each Residential Unit as contained therein has been determined based upon the floor space, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the Condominium the uniqueness of the Residential Unit, the availability of Common Elements for exclusive or shared use, and the overall dimensions of the particular Residential Unit. Said method of determining the percentage of Common Interest in a Condominium complies with and is pursuant to Section 339-i(1)(iv) of the Real Property Law of the State of New York.

I hereby authorize inclusion of this opinion in the Offering Plan for this Condominium to be filed with the Department of Law.

Very truly yours,

CERTILMAN BALIN ADLER & HYMAN, LLP

IX. CHANGES IN PRICES AND UNITS

The prices for these Condominium interests may be changed from those set forth in this Offering Plan so that Purchasers may pay different prices for similar interests. No such change will be made other than pursuant to a duly filed amendment, except that the Sponsor reserves the right to decrease the sales prices below the Offering Plan prices without filing an amendment to the Offering Plan at any time during the offering where a reduction in sales prices does not constitute a general offering but is rather the result of an individually negotiated Residential Unit purchase. All changes in prices which are an across the board increase or decrease affecting one (1) or more lines of Residential Units or models or is to be advertised or is a price increase for an individual Purchaser will be done by a duly filed amendment to the Offering Plan.

The Sponsor further reserves the right, but not the obligation, to negotiate with a Purchaser on an individual basis in connection with all aspects of the purchase price, including but not limited to: upgrades to the Residential Unit or the fixtures or equipment contained therein or credits or allowances for fixtures or equipment; maintenance subsidies, rebates or other costs associated with maintaining a Residential Unit as a credit against the purchase price or payable on a periodic basis or any other manner as is negotiated between the parties; promotional gifts on purchase of a Residential Unit and application of rent toward the purchase price. As a result, a Purchaser may receive different terms as other Purchasers for a similar Residential Unit. Furthermore, the Sponsor reserves the right to amend the Offering Plan from time to time to add and/or delete negotiable terms or at its sole option to expand the applicability of such negotiable terms to some or all Purchasers pursuant to Section 352-e of the General Business Law.

Sponsor will not make any changes in the size or number of Residential Units and/or their respective Percentages of Common Interest and no material change will be made in the size or quality of Common Elements, except by amendment to the Offering Plan and to the Declaration of Condominium (if the Declaration of Condominium was filed prior to such change).

Unless an affected Purchaser consents, no material change will be made in Residential Unit size, layout, or Percentage of Common Interest if a Purchase Agreement has been executed and delivered to the Sponsor for that Residential Unit.

The Percentage of Common Interest of each of the Residential Units has been determined pursuant to Section 339-i(1)(iv) of the Condominium Act, based on floor space, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Residential Unit, the availability of Common Elements for exclusive or shared use, and the overall dimensions of the particular Residential Unit. Based upon final specifications, construction conditions and/or “as-built” plans for the Building reflecting relative measurements, areas and uses of portions of the Building, application of such method of allocation the Percentage of Common Interest may justify a minor increase or decrease in the aggregate Percentage of Common Interest appurtenant to Residential Units. In such event, the Percentage of Common Interest appurtenant to each individual Residential Unit would be adjusted pro rata. Sponsor expressly reserves the right, from time to time, prior to the first Closing, to affect any change in the Percentages of Common Interest that is not a material change and to amend the Plan so as to reflect the same. Notwithstanding, unless an affected Purchaser consents, no material change will be made in the Percentages of Common Interest if a Purchase Agreement has been executed and delivered to the Sponsor for that Residential Unit and the Purchaser is not in default.

Unless all Purchasers consent, no material change will be made in the size and no material adverse change will be made in the quality of Common Elements.

X. INTERIM LEASES

The Sponsor will not enter into interim leases with Purchasers for Residential Units prior to Closing. In no event shall Purchaser take possession of the Residential Unit prior to the time of the delivery of the deed, nor shall Purchaser enter the Residential Unit or have the Residential Unit Owner's contractors or agents enter the Residential Unit to perform work prior to Closing without the written authorization of the Sponsor. Should the Purchaser violate this provision, Sponsor will have the right to remove Purchaser from the Residential Unit as a squatter and intruder by summary proceedings. Upon the Purchaser's unauthorized possession, the Purchaser shall be deemed in default of the Purchase Agreement and Sponsor may retain as liquidated damages the funds being held in escrow as to a maximum of ten (10%) percent of the sales price plus the cost of Extras paid for by Purchaser which Extras have been installed by Sponsor, paid for but not installed by Sponsor or which have been ordered but not installed by Sponsor and for which Sponsor is obligated to pay for such Extras unless the Offering Plan has been abandoned. In the event the Offering Plan is abandoned the Purchaser shall be entitled to receive all funds paid to the Sponsor for such Extras.

XI. PROCEDURE TO PURCHASE

The Sponsor hereby offers for sale the Residential Units in the Condominium for occupancy in accordance with applicable municipal zoning regulations. Occupancy of the Residential Units or portion of a Residential Unit by a lessee or lessees of the Residential Unit Owner for the purposes set forth in this paragraph conform with the zoning regulations permitting renovation and/or construction of this Condominium.

The sales prices at which the Residential Units are being offered for sale are shown in detail in Schedule A. The Sponsor reserves the right to lower the sales prices and to negotiate other terms on an individual basis. All changes in prices which are an across the board increase or decrease affecting one or more lines of Residential Units or models or are to be advertised or is a price increase for an individual Purchaser will be done by a duly filed amendment to the Offering Plan. See Section IX of the Offering Plan. Any such change will not affect the common interest of the Residential Unit; however, some Purchasers may pay less or more for the same model Residential Unit or receive different terms.

Any person may accept Sponsor's offer to sell a Residential Unit by entering into a Purchase Agreement with the Sponsor. The Agreement provides that the Purchaser will purchase from the Sponsor a designated Residential Unit in the Condominium as described in the Declaration of Condominium creating such Condominium. A Purchaser will be afforded a minimum of three (3) business days to review the Offering Plan and all filed amendments prior to executing a Purchase Agreement. To the extent there are any inconsistencies between the terms of the Purchase Agreement and the Offering Plan, the terms of the Offering Plan will govern.

Purchaser and Sponsor shall execute four (4) originals of the Purchase Agreement. Upon signing the Purchase Agreement, the Purchaser shall make a Deposit of up to ten percent (10%) of the purchase price of a Residential Unit but not less than $1,000, plus the cost of any Extras ordered by the Purchaser. Upon full payment of the balance of the purchase price and the balance of the cost of any Extras ordered and payable at the Closing, in cash or by mortgage proceeds, Purchaser will receive a bargain and sale deed with covenant against grantor's acts and containing the provisions set forth in Section 13 Subdivision 5 of the Lien Law, which will convey good and marketable title to the ownership of fee ownership in the Residential Unit and such Percentage of Common Interest in the Common Elements as is set forth on Schedule A, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances other than those set forth in Section XIV of the Offering Plan. The Purchase Agreement may be modified with the consent of Purchaser and Sponsor in a manner not inconsistent with law, subject to the terms of this Offering Plan. After Purchaser delivers a fully executed Purchase Agreement with the required Deposit Sponsor must either return a fully executed Purchase Agreement within thirty (30) days to the Purchaser or reject the Purchase Agreement and refund the Deposit monies. In the event the Sponsor does not act within said thirty (30) day period the Purchase Agreement will be deemed rejected by the Sponsor.

The Power of Attorney attached to the Purchase Agreement must be executed by Purchaser at the Closing of Title. Failure to execute the Power of Attorney will result in a default under the Purchase Agreement.

The Sponsor anticipates that Closing of the first Residential Unit will occur by April 1, 2024. Purchasers will be offered a right of rescission if: (i) the actual date of Closing of Title to the first Residential Unit; or (ii) the projected date of Closing of Title to the first Residential Unit occurs later than March 31, 2025, twelve (12) months after the projected date of the first Closing. If the Offering Plan is amended to provide for a later projected date of the first Closing, Purchasers who enter into a Purchase Agreement subsequent to the acceptance date of the Amendment will be entitled to an offer of rescission if the first Closing occurs more than twelve (12) months beyond that amended, later date. Purchasers must advise the Sponsor no later than the date provided in an Amendment to the Offering Plan disclosing the later date but not less than fifteen (15) days from the date of the notice. However, if the first Residential Unit Closing occurs before April 1, 2025, the Sponsor may schedule the Closings of Title to other Residential Units significantly later than such date. Each Purchaser's Purchase Agreement will also contain an outside delivery date, as provided in the following paragraph. In the event Sponsor is unable to close title to a Residential Unit within said time frame a Purchaser will be entitled to the applicable provisions therein to rescind Sponsor is not obligated to schedule a Closing within any specified time frame or to ensure that Closing of Title to a Residential Unit will occur by any date certain. PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS SHOULD THEREFORE CAREFULLY CONSIDER SUCH RISKS IN THEIR DETERMINATION AS TO WHETHER TO PURCHASE A RESIDENTIAL UNIT.

In addition, each Purchase Agreement provides that in the event Sponsor is unable to convey title to a Purchaser's Residential Unit twelve (12) months after the proposed date of delivery set forth in the Purchase Agreement a Purchaser shall have the option to cancel the Purchase Agreement and have the Deposit advanced by Purchaser returned to Purchaser. Purchaser shall be obligated to notify the Sponsor in writing of its intent to exercise said option no later than thirty (30) days after the twelve (12) month period of the proposed date of delivery set forth in the Purchase Agreement. Purchaser's failure to so notify Sponsor of Purchaser's intent to cancel Purchaser's Purchase Agreement due to Sponsor being unable to convey title to the Purchaser's Residential Unit within the twelve (12) month period shall be deemed a waiver of said provision, and Purchaser shall continue to be bound by the terms of the Purchase Agreement. In the event, Sponsor shall be unable to convey title to the Residential Unit within twenty-four (24) months of the proposed date of delivery through no fault of the Purchaser, the Purchase Agreement shall be deemed null and void and Sponsor shall return all monies being held in escrow within thirty (30) days thereafter. See Paragraph 5 of the Purchase Agreement in Part II of the Offering Plan.

After the Offering Plan is declared effective, the Sponsor will give each Purchaser who enters into a Purchase Agreement not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice of the date, time and place for the transfer of title to the Residential Unit unless a Purchaser waives such thirty (30) day notice. A form for such waiver is contained as Schedule D- 3 to the Offering Plan.

The Purchase Agreement may not be assigned by Purchaser without the written consent of Sponsor.

The risk of loss or damage to the Residential Unit by fire or any other cause until delivery of the deed is assumed by the Sponsor. In the event a substantial portion of the Residential Unit or Condominium shall be destroyed or damaged prior to Closing, Sponsor shall be entitled to cancel the Purchase Agreement by written notice to the Purchaser, together with a check in the amount of the Deposit paid by Purchaser, with interest, if any and any Extras paid by Purchaser. The parties shall thereafter be released from any further liability. In the event a Purchaser takes actual possession prior to Closing, said Purchaser will assume the risk of losses not covered by insurance upon production of the policy by the Sponsor to the Purchaser which provides that actions of interim lessees are not covered under the then existing policy. If Purchaser is or becomes the occupant or tenant of the Residential Unit prior to Closing, then, as of the date of Purchaser's occupancy, Purchaser shall be responsible for any and all damage caused by any acts or omissions of Purchaser, or Purchaser's agents, employees, invitees or family members.

If any part of the Residential Unit is damaged or destroyed by any casualty prior to Closing, Sponsor will have the option to restore the Residential Unit to its previous condition as soon as reasonably possible. In the event Sponsor elects to restore the Residential Unit then the Closing Date and any other applicable date or deadline will be extended in a reasonable manner by Sponsor. The additional time required to restore a damaged Residential Unit will not affect the outside date provided in the Purchase Agreement unless agreed to by both the Sponsor and Purchaser. Sponsor agrees to notify Purchaser of Sponsor's decision within ten (10) business days of the date of such casualty. In the event Sponsor elects not to restore the Residential Unit, then the Purchase Agreement will terminate, and the Sponsor will return Purchaser's Deposit and any Extras within ten (10) days of the notice to the Purchaser. The Purchaser and Sponsor shall thereafter be released from any further liability. Subsequent to the Closing of Title to a Residential Unit the Purchaser assumes all risk of loss to the Residential Unit.

A Purchaser will inspect Purchaser's Residential Unit with a representative of the Sponsor during normal business hours three (3) days prior to the Closing Date and will sign and deliver to Sponsor on or before the Closing Date a Pre-Title Inspection Statement supplied by Sponsor, acknowledging the condition in which Purchaser has received Purchaser's Residential Unit. Sponsor shall agree to complete any open items within six (6) months after Closing, weather and circumstances permitting.

Unsupervised visits to the Property may present a dangerous circumstance and could incur liability to Sponsor. Unless specifically agreed to by Sponsor in writing and escorted by a representative of Sponsor in each instance, Purchaser shall not visit the Unit or any other portion of the Property and shall only have the right to visit the sales office prior to Closing. Pursuant to Paragraph 13 of the Purchase Agreement, Purchaser will agree to release and indemnify, defend and hold Sponsor harmless from and against any and all claims and liabilities incurred by Sponsor resulting from the unauthorized presence of Purchaser or Purchaser's family members, agents, licensees or invitees on the Property prior to Closing. Purchaser will also be required to execute the Express Assumption of Risk Form included as Schedule D-4 to the Offering Plan.

The Purchase Agreement may not contain, or be modified to contain, a provision waiving purchaser's rights or abrogating Sponsor's obligations under the Offering Plan or under Article 23-A of the General Business Law. Any conflict between the Purchase Agreement and the Offering Plan will be resolved in favor of the Offering Plan. The Purchase Agreement and Offering Plan comply with Section 71.a(3) of the New York Lien Law. Said statute provides that the initial advance of the Purchase Agreement be deposited in an escrow account in a bank, trust company, savings bank, state or federal savings and loan association, located in New York State. The escrow and trust fund provisions disclosed below complies with said statute.

The Residential Units can be purchased for all cash or may be purchased partly for cash and partly by mortgage. The Purchase Agreement is not conditioned upon a Purchaser securing satisfactory mortgage financing. Obtaining a mortgage shall be the sole responsibility of each Purchaser. In no event will the Sponsor be obligated to return a Purchaser's Deposit in the event a Purchaser is unable to obtain a mortgage. In addition, the Purchase Agreement will remain in full force and effect and Purchaser will be obligated to pay the balance of the purchase price at Closing regardless of the availability of financing. In the event a Purchaser does not Close Title to the Residential Unit as a result of their inability to obtain a mortgage, the Purchaser shall be deemed in default of the Purchase Agreement and Sponsor may retain as liquidated damages the funds being held in escrow to a maximum of ten (10%) percent of the sales price plus the cost of Extras paid for by Purchaser which Extras have been installed by Sponsor, paid for but not installed by Sponsor or which have been ordered but not installed by Sponsor and for which Sponsor is obligated to pay for such Extras unless the Offering Plan has been abandoned. In the event the Offering Plan is abandoned the Purchaser shall be entitled to receive all funds paid to the Sponsor for such Extras.

Neither the Purchase Agreement nor the Deposit or any payment given for Extras is a lien against the Property or the Residential Unit. Purchaser may not record the Purchase Agreement and will be in default if Purchaser records the Purchase Agreement.

Neither the Purchase Agreement nor any provisions thereof, can be orally changed, terminated or waived.

Pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement, upon the occurrence of a Default to pay the balance of the Purchase Price or other obligations pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, Purchaser shall have thirty (30) days from the giving of written notice of such default to cure the specified default. If the default is not cured within such thirty (30) days, TIME BEING OF THE ESSENCE, the Sponsor, in its sole discretion may thereupon terminate the Purchase Agreement. If Sponsor so elects to terminate, the Purchase Agreement shall be deemed terminated, and Sponsor shall have the right to retain, as and for liquidated damages, the Deposit (and any interest earned of the Deposit, if any) plus the costs incurred by Sponsor for any Extras, if any, in the Residential Unit ordered by the Purchaser. Upon the termination of the Purchase Agreement, Purchaser and Sponsor will be released and discharged of all further liability and obligations under the Offering Plan and the Purchase Agreement, and the Residential Unit may be sold to another as though the Purchase Agreement had never been made, and without accounting to the Purchaser for any of the proceeds for such sale.

Each Purchase Agreement will contain an outside delivery date, as provided in the following paragraph. In the event Sponsor is unable to close title to a Residential Unit within said time frame a Purchaser will be entitled to the applicable provisions therein to rescind Sponsor is not obligated to schedule a Closing within any specified time frame or to ensure that Closing of Title to a Residential Unit will occur by any date certain. However, Purchasers should be aware that, if a Purchaser fails to appear and Close Title in accordance with the Purchase Agreement on the date and at the time and place stated in Sponsor's Notice for Closing, or if a Purchaser fails to observe or perform any other thing to be observed or performed by Purchaser under the Purchase Agreement, Sponsor may send Purchaser a written notice of default giving Purchaser thirty (30) days from the date of such notice to cure any such default. Time is of the Essence for Purchaser to cure such default within such thirty (30) day period, and the thirtieth (30th) day of such period will constitute the last date to comply with the terms of the Purchase Agreement. As used herein, the phrase "time is of the essence" means that a Purchaser's failure to strictly comply with Purchaser's obligations within the applicable time period will constitute a material breach of the Purchase Agreement, entitling the Sponsor to declare the Purchaser in default of the Purchase Agreement, deem the Purchase Agreement terminated and of no further force or effect, and retain Purchaser's Deposit and other amounts paid in connection with the Purchase Agreement as liquidated damages. In the event of such uncured default, the Sponsor, in its sole discretion may thereupon terminate the Purchase Agreement. If Sponsor so elects to terminate the Purchase Agreement Sponsor shall have the right to retain, as and for liquidated damages, the Deposit (and any interest earned of the Deposit, if any) plus the costs incurred by Sponsor for any Extras, if any, in the Residential Unit ordered by the Purchaser. Upon the termination of the Purchase Agreement, Purchaser and Sponsor will be released and discharged of all further liability and obligations under the Offering Plan.

Paragraph 35 of the Purchase Agreement provides that any failure by the Sponsor to insist upon strict performance by Purchaser of any of Purchaser's obligations under the Purchase Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of such obligations, and the Sponsor may at any time insist upon strict performance by Purchaser of any and all obligations to be performed by Purchaser under the Purchase Agreement, irrespective of the number of times Purchaser failed to strictly comply with such obligations in the past.

Additionally, Paragraph 35 of the Purchase Agreement provides that Purchaser waives all rights to trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim in any way arising out of or relating to the Purchase Agreement or this Offering Plan, provided such waiver is not prohibited by any laws of the State of New York. Purchaser agrees to pay any and all court fees, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney fees, should Purchaser bring an action against the Sponsor in any court of proper jurisdiction (including, without limitation, small claims court) and be unsuccessful. Purchaser also agrees to waive the right to file a lis pendens if not filed within sixty (60) days of the cancellation of the Purchase Agreement. Any action or proceeding brought by either party to the Purchase Agreement against the other, directly or indirectly, arising out of the Purchase Agreement, shall be instituted in a court in Kings County, City and State of New York and all motions in any such action shall be made in Kings County, City and State of New York.

The delivery of the deed for the applicable Residential Unit to Purchaser or Purchaser's representative at Closing shall be deemed to mean that all things required to be done by the Sponsor under the Purchase Agreement have been done and that Purchaser shall not claim otherwise except as to those things, if any, which are specifically stated in the Purchase Agreement or in a separate writing signed by the Sponsor to survive or continue beyond Closing and delivery of the deed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Sponsor shall comply with each and all of its obligations under this Offering Plan and applicable law, including without limitation, Article 23-A of the General Business Law.

The Offering Plan and the Purchase Agreement provide that any conflict between the Offering Plan and the Purchase Agreement will be resolved in favor of the Offering Plan.

A complete copy of the Purchase Agreement is contained in Part II of the Offering Plan.

All Deposits, except for advances made for Extras received in connection with the Purchase Agreement, are and shall continue to be the Purchaser's money, and may not be commingled with any other money or pledged or hypothecated by Sponsor, as per GBL § 352-(h).

Under no circumstances shall Sponsor seek or accept release of the Deposit of a defaulting Purchaser until consummation of the Offering Plan as defined in Section 20.1 (c) (6) of the Department of Law regulations which defines consummation of the Offering Plan, as the filing of the Declaration of Condominium and the first transfer of title to a Residential Unit to at least one Purchaser under the Offering Plan following a declaration of effectiveness by the Sponsor and acceptance of the amendment of the declaration of effectiveness by the Attorney General's Office. Consummation of the Offering Plan does not relieve the Sponsor of its obligations pursuant to GBL §§ 352-e(2-b) and 352-h.

The Escrow Agent shall release the Deposit Funds in escrow if so directed:

(a) pursuant to terms and conditions set forth in the Purchase Agreement upon Closing of Title to the Residential Unit; or

(b) in a subsequent writing signed by both Sponsor and Purchaser; or

(c) by a final, non-appealable order or judgment of a court.

If the Escrow Agent is not directed to release the Deposit pursuant to paragraphs (a) through (c) above, and the Escrow Agent receives a request by either party to release the Deposit, then the Escrow Agent must give both the Purchaser and Sponsor prior written notice of not fewer than thirty (30) days before releasing the Deposit. If the Escrow Agent has not received notice of objection to the release of the Deposit prior to the expiration of the thirty (30) day period, the Deposit shall be released, and the Escrow Agent shall provide further written notice to both parties informing them of said release. Purchasers should note that it shall be an express condition of Closing of Title that the Purchaser sign the form contained in Part II as Schedule D-2 which will enable the Escrow Agent to release the escrow funds, if not previously released as provided above.

The Department of Law may perform random reviews and audits of any records involving the Escrow Account to determine compliance with all applicable statutes and regulations.

Waiver Void:

Any provision of any contract or agreement, whether oral or in writing, by which a Purchaser purports to waive or indemnify any obligation of the Escrow Agent holding any Deposit is absolutely void. The provisions of the Attorney General's regulations and GBL §§ 352-e(2-b) and 352-h concerning escrow/trust funds shall prevail over any conflicting or inconsistent provision in the Purchase Agreement, Offering Plan or any amendments.

General:

Nothing contained herein shall diminish or impair the Sponsor's statutory obligation to each Purchaser pursuant to GBL § 352-h to hold in trust all Deposits, advances or payments made in connection with the offer until consummation of the transaction with such Purchaser. Consummation of the Offering Plan does not relieve Sponsor of its obligations pursuant to GBL § 352-h. Funds from any Escrow Account remain the property of the Purchaser until employed in connection with the consummation of the transaction. Such funds shall not be a part of the estate of the Sponsor or the Escrow Agent upon any bankruptcy, incapacity or death.

Upon the dissolution of the law firm which was the Escrow Agent, the former partners or members of the firm shall make appropriate arrangements for the maintenance of the Escrow Account records by one of them or by the successor firm and shall notify the Department of Law of such transfer.

THIS OFFERING PLAN DOES NOT CONTAIN ANY FINANCING ARRANGEMENTS FOR PURCHASERS. PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS WHO ARE INTERESTED IN SUCH FINANCING SHOULD CONTACT LENDING INSTITUTIONS, SUCH AS MUTUAL SAVINGS BANKS AND COMMERCIAL BANKS, MANY OF WHICH HAVE ADVERTISED THAT THEY OFFER FINANCING TO PURCHASERS OF CONDOMINIUM RESIDENTIAL UNITS.

Any applications for such financing with lending institutions must be done on an individual basis by prospective Purchasers and will involve negotiations exclusively between the lending institution and the applicant. The Sponsor should not be construed hereunder as offering any such financing or representing the availability or terms of such financing.

The Purchase Agreement is not conditioned upon a Purchaser securing satisfactory mortgage financing. Obtaining a mortgage shall be the sole responsibility of each Purchaser. In no event will the Sponsor be obligated to return a Purchaser's Deposit in the event a Purchaser is unable to obtain a mortgage. In addition, the Purchase Agreement will remain in full force and effect and Purchaser will be obligated to pay the balance of the purchase price at Closing regardless of the availability of financing. In the event a Purchaser does not Close Title to the Residential Unit as a result of their inability to obtain a mortgage, the Purchaser shall be deemed in default of the Purchase Agreement and Sponsor may retain a liquidated damages the funds being held in escrow to a maximum of ten (10%) percent of the sales price plus the cost of Extras paid for by Purchaser which Extras have been installed by Sponsor, paid for but not installed by Sponsor or which have been ordered but not installed by Sponsor and for which Sponsor is obligated to pay for such Extras unless the Offering Plan has been abandoned. In the event the Offering Plan is abandoned the Purchaser shall be entitled to receive all funds paid to the Sponsor for such Extras.

NO REPRESENTATION IS MADE BY THE SPONSOR AS TO WHETHER ANY PURCHASER WILL QUALIFY FOR FINANCING OR AS TO THE TERMS, COST OR AVAILABILITY OF SUCH FINANCING. THE SPONSOR SHALL HAVE NO LIABILITY OR RESPONSIBILITY TO ANY APPLICANT IF THEIR APPLICATION FOR FINANCING IS NOT ACCEPTED.

The Closing of Title to a Residential Unit where the Purchaser has obtained financing will take place simultaneously with the Closing of the mortgage loan and the proceeds will be applied towards the then balance of the purchase price.

XIII. EFFECTIVE DATE OF THE OFFERING PLAN

Sponsor's offer to sell the Residential Units is contingent upon the Offering Plan being declared effective and no Closing to a Residential Unit will be held until the Offering Plan is declared effective. This Offering Plan will not become effective until bona fide Purchasers, including investors, have executed Purchase Agreements which have been accepted by Sponsor for at least fifteen (15%) percent in number of the Residential Units offered for sale under the Offering Plan excluding Residential Units of an ancillary nature (15% x 3 Residential Units = 1 Residential Unit). The Sponsor will declare the Offering Plan effective by personal service of notice on every Purchaser or commencement of service by mail stating that the Offering Plan has been declared effective. Sponsor will, within five (5) business days of said notice, submit for filing an amendment to the Offering Plan disclosing the Offering Plan's effectiveness and will file an affidavit of service of the notice on all Purchasers. Sponsor will not close title to the first Residential Unit until the amendment disclosing the effectiveness of the Condominium has been accepted for filing by the Attorney General. In the event all Purchase Agreements are either rescinded or terminated prior to the date of the closing of title to the first Residential Unit, regardless of whether the Declaration of Condominium has been recorded, the Sponsor must re-declare the Offering Plan effective prior to closing title to a Residential Unit. The Offering Plan will not be declared effective based on Purchase Agreements:

(i) signed by Purchasers who have been granted a right of rescission that has not yet expired or been waived; or

(ii) based on Purchase Agreements where the Purchaser has not had at least three (3) business days to review the Offering Plan and all filed amendments; or

(iii) with any Purchaser who is the Sponsor, the Selling Agent, or the Managing Agent or is a Principal of the Sponsor, the Selling Agent or the Managing Agent or is related to the Sponsor, the Selling Agent or the Managing Agent or to any Principal of the Sponsor or the Selling Agent or the Managing Agent by blood, marriage or adoption or as a business associate, an employee, a shareholder or a limited partner; except that such a Purchaser other than the Sponsor or a Principal of the Sponsor may be included if the Sponsor has submitted proof satisfactory to the Department of Law establishing that the Purchaser is bona fide.

Further, prior to declaring the Offering Plan effective, the Sponsor has the option not to close title to the Residential Units and to abandon the Offering Plan at any time, if less than eighty (80%) percent in number of Residential Units offered hereby are sold and title to any Residential Unit has not been conveyed (80% x 3 Residential Units being offered for sale = 3 Residential Units). In the event Sponsor exercises such option, it shall forthwith return to the Purchaser all monies paid with interest, if any, within ten (10) days of the abandonment of the Offering Plan. When Purchase Agreements for eighty (80%) percent of the Residential Units have been entered into the Sponsor must declare the Offering Plan effective.

Once the Offering Plan has been declared effective, it may not be abandoned except for (i) a defect in title which cannot be cured for less than one-half percent (½%) of the total amount of the offering or (ii) substantial damage or destruction of the Building by fire or other casualty which cannot be cured for less than one-half percent (½%) of the total offering, or (iii) the taking of any material portion of the property by condemnation or eminent domain. Any stated dollar amount relied upon as basis for abandonment after effectiveness will exclude all attorneys' fees as well as any such title defects or determinations of any authority or regulatory association which exist on the date of presentation of the Offering Plan and are either known to the Sponsor or are a matter of public record. In addition, said amount will exclude any judgments and liens against the property resulting from acts of the Sponsor or any of its Principals which are known to the Sponsor on the acceptance date of the Offering Plan. In the event Sponsor abandons the Offering Plan, it shall do so by means of a filed amendment to the Offering Plan. As of the date of the acceptance for filing of the Offering Plan, ½% of the total offering is equal to $35,975. All monies advanced by Purchasers will be returned to them within ten (10) days of the abandonment of the Offering Plan. If Sponsor decides to abandon the Offering Plan before declaring the Offering Plan effective, Sponsor will file an amendment disclosing such abandonment and file a RS-3 Form with the Department of Law. In such event, Sponsor shall return any Deposit paid by Purchaser within five (5) days of acceptance of the amendment abandoning the Offering Plan.

XIV. TERMS OF SALE

Said notice will also include notice of the obligation to pay the balance of the purchase price.

Such notice will be served no less than thirty (30) days before the date set for the Closing of the Residential Units for those Purchasers who entered into a Purchase Agreement before the Offering Plan was declared effective. The insurance rates and fees for recording documents are uniform and will be the same regardless of the title company used.

Any Purchaser who enters into a Purchase Agreement after the Offering Plan is declared effective will also receive not less than thirty (30) days' written notice of the date, time and place for the

3. All of the terms, covenants and conditions of the Declaration of Condominium, the By-Laws of the Condominium and the Building Plans, as they are subsequently filed or recorded, the Offering Plan and any amendment thereto.

4. All easements set forth in the By-Laws and Declaration of Condominium of the Condominium as they are subsequently recorded in the Offering Plan and Purchase Agreement, including:

   (a) Easements in favor of the Residential Unit Owners of other Residential Units to use, access and maintain the condensers, pipes, wires, conduits, cable television, and public utility lines located in the Common Elements or in the Residential Unit itself servicing such other Residential Units and/or the Common Elements.

(b) Easements in favor of the Board of Managers, its agents, contractors or employees to have a right of access to any Residential Unit and to the Common Elements to inspect, maintain or repair or to make repairs to any Residential Unit to prevent damage to the Common Elements or any other Residential Units, to make repairs to the Common Elements, to any wires, pipes, conduits or cable television system servicing any of the Residential Units or to make repairs to any other Residential Unit, regardless of the nature of the Common Element.

(c) Easements in favor of those Residential Units having restricted use to portions of the Common Elements.

(d) Easements for the continuance of encroachments on any Residential Unit and on the Common Elements by other Residential Units or portions of the Common Elements, now existing by reason of the renovation or construction of the Residential Units, or hereafter occurring by reason of the settling or shifting of the Residential Units, or by reason of the repair and/or restoration by the Board of Managers of the Residential Units or such other Residential Units or such Common Elements, after damage by fire or other casualty or after taking in condemnation or eminent domain proceedings, or by reason of an alteration to the Common Elements made by the Board of Managers, so that any such encroachments may remain as long as the Residential Units stand.

(e) The following covenants and restrictions:

1. Rights of tenants or persons in possession, if any.

2. Taxes, tax liens, tax sales, water rates, sewer rates, sewer rents and assessments set forth herein.

3. Mortgages returned herein.

4. Any state of facts which a guaranteed survey of current date would disclose.

5. Terms, restrictions, conditions, and easements set forth in the Declaration of Condominium and By-Laws of the 577 10th Street Condominium, to be recorded in the New York City Register's Office.

(f) Any covenants, restrictions, easements, charges or liens of record.

5. Any and all of the following conditions at the premises, as identified in a title report of the premises conducted by Cornerstone Land Abstract, LLC, including, without limitation:

(a) Notice of Landmark Designation in CRFN 2020000354624. With regards thereto: Premises have been designated as part of the Park Slope Historical District Extension. The premises are accordingly subject to the restricted use(s) as provided for in Chapter 74, Section 3020 of the New York City Charter and Chapter 3, Title 25 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York.

6. Any additional declarations, covenants, restrictions, reservations, exceptions, easements and agreements which have been recorded or appear in recorded documents, or are yet to be recorded, provided they do not prevent use of the Residential Unit as a one (1) family residence permitted by applicable law Any additional declarations, covenants, restrictions, reservations, exceptions, easements and agreements which have been recorded or appear in recorded documents, or are yet to be recorded, provided they do not prevent use of the Residential Unit as a one (1) family residence permitted by applicable law and the Common Elements for their intended use and purpose and do not constitute a lien against the Residential Unit or any of the Common Elements.

If any existing mortgages or construction loans will not be satisfied at or prior to the Closing of the first Residential Unit then at the time of conveyance of the first Residential Unit each mortgagee will either:

(i) consent to the formation of a condominium and acknowledge that its lien will be limited to unsold Condominium Residential Units;

(ii) subordinate the lien of its mortgage to the Declaration of Condominium; or

(iii) release its lien on the Condominium Residential Unit being conveyed and its interest in the Common Elements.

The Sponsor has been advised by its counsel that in counsel's opinion, none of the exceptions to title herein above set forth are contrary to the terms of the Purchase Agreement nor will they interfere with the quiet use or enjoyment of the Purchaser's Residential Unit or the Common Elements of the Condominium.

The risk of loss or damage to the Residential Unit by fire or any other cause until delivery of the deed is assumed by the Sponsor. In the event a substantial portion of the Residential Unit or Condominium shall be destroyed or damaged prior to Closing,

Sponsor shall be entitled to cancel the Purchase Agreement by written notice to the Purchaser, together with a check in the amount of the Deposit paid by Purchaser, with interest, if any and any Extras paid by Purchaser. The parties shall thereafter be released from any further liability. In the event a Purchaser takes actual possession prior to Closing, said Purchaser will assume the risk of losses not covered by insurance upon production of the policy by the Sponsor to the Purchaser which provides that actions of interim lessees are not covered under the then existing policy. If Purchaser is or becomes the occupant or tenant of the Residential Unit prior to Closing, then, as of the date of Purchaser's occupancy, Purchaser shall be responsible for any and all damage caused by any acts or omissions of Purchaser, or Purchaser's agents, employees, invitees or family members.

If any part of the Residential Unit is damaged or destroyed by any casualty prior to Closing, Sponsor will have the option to restore the Residential Unit to its previous condition as soon as reasonably possible. In the event Sponsor elects to restore the Residential Unit then the Closing Date and any other applicable date or deadline will be extended in a reasonable manner by Sponsor. The additional time required to restore a damaged Residential Unit will not affect the outside date provided in the Purchase Agreement unless agreed to by both the Sponsor and Purchaser. Sponsor agrees to notify Purchaser of Sponsor's decision within ten (10) business days of the date of such casualty. In the event Sponsor elects not to restore the Residential Unit, then the Purchase Agreement will terminate, and the Sponsor will return Purchaser's Deposit and any Extras within ten (10) days of the notice to the Purchaser. The Purchaser and Sponsor shall thereafter be released from any further liability.

XV. CLOSING COSTS AND ADJUSTMENTS

At Closing, each Purchaser shall be required to pay certain costs and expenses. The following is a list of the types and amounts of costs and expenses Purchasers should expect to pay and are based on current rates and charges which are subject to change without prior notice.

1. If a Purchaser elects to obtain fee title insurance and for mortgage title insurance, the Purchaser will pay the premium therefor which will vary depending upon the purchase price and whether or not a mortgage title policy is obtained simultaneously with the fee title policy. Title insurance rates are set by the New York Board of Title Underwriters and filed with the New York State Insurance Department. The Purchaser is free to obtain title insurance from any company of their choice without incurring a penalty.

2. Purchasers should anticipate additional fees for Endorsements to the Owner and Mortgage Title Insurance, as applicable, and fees for municipal and other searches. These fees can be estimated at approximately $2,386.

3. Fees for the recording of the mortgage, deed, power of attorney and any affidavit required in connection with the mortgage tax credit available under RPL §339-ee which total approximately $725.

4. In the event the Purchaser shall obtain a purchase money first mortgage, Purchaser shall pay recording fees for the mortgage of approximately $100. A “purchase money mortgage” is a voluntary lien recorded against real property to secure the seller’s financing of the purchase price for the real property (i.e., the seller, as opposed to a traditional mortgage lender, provides some or all of purchaser’s financing to acquire the real property). For first mortgages in an amount less than $500,000, Purchaser shall be required to pay a mortgage tax of 2.05% of the amount of the mortgage less $25 and for first mortgages in an amount in excess of $500,000, Purchaser shall pay mortgage tax of 2.175% of the amount of the mortgage less $25. In addition, the Purchaser will be required to pay the lending institution’s attorney’s fees, any mortgage origination fees, bank credit and appraisal fees and other expenses that the lending institution may charge incident to the making of the permanent loan. If applicable, a portion of the mortgage recording tax set forth above will be computed in accordance with Section 339-ee subsection 2, of the New York Condominium Act, and shall be paid to the Sponsor in reimbursement of mortgage recording taxes which the Sponsor may have previously paid in connection with existing mortgage on the Condominium. There will be no mortgage closing costs pursuant to this paragraph 7 on Residential Units which are not covered by mortgages.

5. As of July 1, 2019, New York State Transfer Tax will be $2.00 per $500 of the purchase price where the purchase price is under $3,000,000 and $3.25 per $500 where the consideration is $3,000,000 or greater and New York City Real Property Transfer Taxes of one (1%) percent of the Purchase Price where the consideration is less than $500,000 and 1.4259% where the consideration is $500,000 or greater. These taxes are normally an expense of the Sponsor; however, by contractual arrangement they will be paid by Purchaser. As a result, when a Purchaser assumes the obligation to pay these taxes, the amount of New York City Real Property Transfer Tax will be included in the consideration subject to such tax. Pursuant to Section 1404(a) of the Tax Law, effective July 1, 2021, where New York State Real Estate Transfer Tax is paid by the Purchaser pursuant to contractual agreement, such tax will be excluded from the total calculation of consideration subject to New York State Real Estate Transfer Tax. The steps to compute the taxes are:

   (a) Multiply the purchase price by the State Tax Rate to compute the total New York State Transfer Tax due.

   (b) Multiply the purchase price by the City Tax Rate to compute a tentative amount.

   (c) Add the tentative amount to the purchase price.

(d) Multiply the tentative amount by the City Rate to compute the total New York City Transfer Tax due.

EXAMPLE: Purchase Price = $2,850,000

(1) $2,850,000 x .004 = $11,610 = State Transfer Tax.

(2) $2,850,000 x .014259 = $40,638 (tentative amount)

(3) $2,850,000 + $40,638 = $2,890,638 (amount subject to City Tax)

(4) $2,890,638 x .014259 = $41,354 = City Transfer Tax.

6. Residential Units that are being offered for sale for $1,000,000 or more are also subject to the provisions of Section 1402-a and 1402-b of the Tax Law of the State of New York which requires a New York State Tax (Mansion Tax) of the Purchase Price as follows based on the following total consideration:

Total Consideration	Mansion Tax (as of July 1, 2019)
Less than $1,000,0000	Not subject to tax
$1,000,000 to $1,999,999.99	1%
$2,000,000 to $2,999,999.99	1.25%
$3,000,000 to $4,999,999.99	1.5%
$5,000,000 to $9,999,999.99	2.25%
$10,000,000 to $14,999,999.99	3.25%
$15,000,000 to $19,999,999.99	3.5%
$20,000,000 to $24,999,999.99	3.75%
$25,000,000 or more	3.9%

Pursuant to the provisions of the statute, the obligation to pay the Mansion Tax is upon the Purchasers. The New York City Real Property Transfer Tax amount will be included in the consideration to determine the Mansion Tax. Therefore, the purchase price and City transfer taxes payable by Purchaser are added together to arrive at a total consideration for Mansion Tax purposes. As a result, a Residential Unit priced at $980,000 or more, where Purchaser pays the transfer taxes and legal fees of Sponsor, could subject Purchaser to liability for the Mansion Tax, as the aggregate price plus tax would exceed $1,000,000.

7. Working capital equal to two (2) months Common Charges to be paid to the Condominium. While Sponsor is in control of the Board of Managers, the working capital fund may be used to reduce the Common Charges of the Condominium.

8. Each Purchaser shall pay $3,000 to Sponsor's counsel, Romanick & Skolnick, PLLC, representing a fee for services in connection with preparing the Residential Unit Deed and transfer documents, the Residential Unit Owner's Power of Attorney and for coordinating and attending the Closing. Such fee shall be payable at or prior to the Closing by Purchaser's certified or attorney escrow check made payable directly to the order of Sponsor's attorney.

9. Any mortgage tax credit received pursuant to Section 339-ee of the Real Property Law will inure to the benefit of Sponsor.

10. Reimbursement to the Sponsor based on each Residential Unit's percentage of Common Interest for Sponsor's advancement for the cost of the Condominium's insurance for the first year of operation.

As an example, a Purchaser of a Residential Unit in which the purchase price is $2,850,000, who procures a first mortgage in the amount of $2,280,000 and who has a Percentage of Common Interest of 41% will pay the following approximated Closing Costs:

Purchasers obtaining mortgage loans are also advised that they will be responsible for the payment of all closing costs and expenses in connection therewith in amounts determined by the lender. These costs customarily include origination fees (or "points"), commitment fees, fees for credit checks, mortgage title insurance, lender's attorneys' fees and appraisal fees. Also, a Purchaser obtaining a mortgage may be required by the lending institution to deposit monthly with the lending institution, commencing with the Closing Date, an escrow for the payment of annual real estate taxes and insurance premiums. The amount of such escrow deposit to be made at Closing will depend on the number of months remaining between the Closing of Title and the date these amounts are next due to be paid and the estimated amounts then payable, as well as the custom and practice of the particular lender involved.

To the extent that the Purchaser is entitled to any credit against the mortgage recording tax by reason of any prior mortgage against the Residential Unit or the Property, the Purchaser shall pay to Sponsor at the Closing for such Residential Unit the amount of any such credit, if applicable, which may be available pursuant to Section 339-ee(2) of the New York State Condominium Act. If a Purchaser's Lender assumes or consents to the assignment of a mortgage lien encumbering only such Purchaser's Residential Unit and as a result is entitled to an exemption of all or a portion of the mortgage tax which would have been available to the Purchasers and shall pay to Sponsor the amount of such exemption.

In addition, if a Closing takes place, at the request of Purchaser, at any location other than Sponsor's attorney's office, Romanick & Skolnick, PLLC, 142 Joralemon Street, Suite 5C, Brooklyn, New York 11201, Purchaser shall pay to Sponsor's attorney a travel fee in the sum of $450.

In the event a Closing is adjourned with Sponsor's consent, at the request of Purchaser or Purchaser's attorney within forty-eight (48) hours of the scheduled time of Closing, Purchaser shall also pay Sponsor's attorney an adjournment fee in the sum of $350.

In the event the Residential Units have not been separately assessed for real estate tax purposes prior to the Closing of Title to the first Residential Unit, Sponsor may place in escrow, in the name of the Board of Managers, an amount equal to the unpaid real estate taxes which will be levied against the Residential Units in the Condominium for the six (6) month period following the first Closing. Thereafter, at each Closing during said period, each Purchaser will reimburse the Sponsor for the pro-rata amount paid on behalf of said Residential Unit. Alternatively, the Sponsor may place in escrow, in the name of Board of Managers, an amount equal to the real estate taxes attributable to the unsold Residential Units for such six (6) month period and may collect at each Closing the estimated amount of taxes attributable to such Residential Unit for the balance of the six (6) month period. The Board of Managers will pay the real estate taxes from the escrow account when taxes are due and payable. After the Residential Units are separately assessed, the funder of the escrow account and the Residential Unit Owner will be reimbursed for any overpayment of taxes or assessed for an underpayment.

Purchaser shall also pay, or reimburse to Sponsor, if Sponsor has already made payment, the following charges: (a) inspections and (b) appraisals.

If through no fault of Sponsor, Purchaser fails for any reason to Close Title after the date originally scheduled in Sponsor's Notice of Closing or such later date (if applicable) to which Sponsor in a subsequent Notice for Closing adjourned the Closing, all of the aforementioned apportionments shall be made as of midnight of the day preceding (i) the date originally scheduled for Closing or (ii) Sponsor's adjourned Closing Date (as the case may be). In addition, Purchaser shall pay to Sponsor at or prior to the actual Closing an amount equal to .0438% per day (which equals an annual rate of 16%) of the purchase price for the Residential Unit for each day beyond such originally scheduled or Sponsor adjourned Closing Date, to and including the date of actual Closing, for reimbursement and defrayal of Sponsor's carrying costs and other charges.

The fee title policy premiums and the recording charges set forth above are estimates based on the rates in effect as of the date of this Offering Plan. If said premiums, charges or rates are subsequently revised by the title company, the State, or Municipality, each Purchaser shall be required to pay the title policy premiums, recording charges and Closing Costs in effect as of the date of the Closing of Title to their Residential Unit.

The Sponsor anticipates that the only items which will be apportioned at the Closing of Title to the Residential Units will be real estate taxes and sewer charges, if any, and Common Charges, if they have been declared by the Board of Managers. The adjustments will be made as of 11:59 P.M. on the day preceding the Closing Date. In the event there are any other items which are to be apportioned at Closing, said items will be adjusted at the Closing. The Sponsor will advise the Purchaser of the Closing Date by giving Purchaser written notice at least thirty (30) days prior to the Closing Date.

XVI. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE SPONSOR

No bond or other security has been furnished to secure performance of the following obligations. All obligations pertaining to the Common Elements shall be enforceable only by the Board of Managers on behalf of the Residential Unit Owners and not by the individual Residential Unit Owners. During the time the principals of the Sponsor control the Board of Managers, it is within their sole power to enforce the obligations of the Sponsor pertaining to the Common Elements. The following shall pertain to the Sponsor:

1. Sponsor will endeavor in good faith to market and sell the Residential Units in the Condominium. Notwithstanding, Sponsor retains the unconditional right to rent rather than sell the Residential Units after consummation of the Offering Plan. Because Sponsor is retaining the unconditional right to rent rather than sell Residential Units after consummation of the Offering Plan, this Offering Plan may result in the creation of a condominium in which a majority of the Residential Units are not owned by owner-occupants or investors unrelated to the Sponsor. As a result, Purchasers for their own occupancy may never gain control of the Board of Managers under the terms of the Offering Plan. Due to the fact Sponsor is not limiting the conditions under which it will rent rather than sell Residential Units, there is no commitment to sell more Residential Units than the fifteen (15%) percent necessary to declare the Offering Plan effective and owner-occupants may never gain effective control and management of the Condominium Sponsor shall not rent a Residential Unit in the Condominium prior to consummation of the Offering Plan as defined in Title 13 NYCRR § 20.1(c)(6).

2. The Sponsor has the obligation to defend any suits or proceedings arising out of Sponsor's acts or omissions under applicable law and regulations and the obligations in the Offering Plan, and to indemnify the Board of Managers and the Residential Unit Owners.

3. All representations under the Offering Plan, all obligations pursuant to the General Business Law, and such additional obligations under the Offering Plan which are to be performed subsequent to the Closing Date will survive delivery of the deed.

4. Until title to a Residential Unit is passed to a Purchaser, the Sponsor will pay such Common Charges, Special Assessments and real estate taxes, as are assessed by the Board of Managers of the Condominium, and the City of New York on the Residential Units to which title has not passed. Once title is passed to a Purchaser the Purchaser shall be solely responsible for all Common Charges, Special Assessments, real estate taxes and all other costs applicable to the Residential Unit, as are assessed by the Board of Managers of the Condominium and the City of New York. No bond or other security has been posted to secure such obligations. Sponsor will fund its financial obligations to the Condominium from the income derived from the sale of the Residential Units and Sponsor's assets. Sponsor currently has the resources necessary to meet its obligations under the Offering Plan.

As long as the Sponsor retains control of the Board of Managers, the Board of Managers retains the right to delay the commencement of the collection of Common Charges. During any such delay period, the Sponsor will timely pay all expenses of the Condominium, including but not limited to insurance premiums and any reserve funds reflected in the Budget. Upon the commencement of the collection of Common Charges, there will be no assessment of Residential Unit Owners for prior expense of the budget during the period Sponsor was paying the Common Expenses of the Condominium. Sponsor shall remain obligated to update the budget for the Condominium as provided for in the governing regulations. In the event Sponsor elects to delay collection of Condominium Common Charges, it will disclose such fact in the closing notice to Purchasers and will further disclose such fact in the post-closing Amendment to the Offering Plan. Such Amendment will also disclose the anticipated period of delay. Sponsor will notify all Residential Unit Owners in writing of the expiration of the delay period at least thirty (30) days prior to commencing collection of Common Charges and will disclose such fact in the following Amendment to the Offering Plan.

5. The Sponsor has the option to repair any damage from a casualty or other cause that occurs before the Closing of a Purchaser's Residential Unit.

6. Sponsor will initially procure fire and casualty insurance for the Condominium on the terms set forth in the budget. The fire and casualty insurance will either be for an agreed amount replacement value or in an amount sufficient to avoid co-insurance. Each Purchaser will be required to pay a pro-rata portion of the first year Condominium insurance based on each Residential Unit's percentage of common interest.

7. In the event of the dissolution or liquidation of the Sponsor or the transfer of ten (10) or more Residential Units or twenty percent (20%) or more of the total number of Residential Units in the Condominium, whichever is less, the Principals of the Sponsor will provide financially responsible entities or individuals who will assume the status and all the obligations of the Sponsor for those Residential Units under the Offering Plan, applicable laws or regulations.

8. Sponsor entered into loan agreements with S3 RE Funding III LLC to acquire and construct the Property. Such loans will remain as a lien on the Property up until the time of Closing of the First Residential Unit. Pursuant to the terms of Sponsor's loan agreements with S3 RE Funding III LLC, at or prior to the Closing of Title to the First Residential Unit, the Sponsor will satisfy the mortgage loans with S3 RE Funding III LLC or the Residential Unit being conveyed and its appurtenant Common Interest shall be released therefrom by partial release duly recorded. S3 RE Funding III LLC has not imposed any sales restrictions in connection with Sponsor's loans. In the event Sponsor obtains a subsequent construction loan, Sponsor will amend the Offering Plan to disclose such loan. In the event Sponsor obtains a subsequent construction loan, the Sponsor will be obligated to pay off and otherwise comply with the terms of any mortgage on the entire Condominium. After the recording of the Declaration and before the Closing of Title to the first Residential Unit the lender of any mortgage that encumbers the Property at the time of conveyance of the first Residential Unit will either: (i) consent to the formation of a condominium and acknowledge that its lien will be limited to unsold condominium Residential Units; (ii) subordinate the lien of its mortgage to the Declaration of Condominium; or (iii) release its lien on the condominium Residential Unit being conveyed and its interest in the Common Elements. In addition, before the Closing of Title to the first Residential Unit all liens and mortgages affecting the Condominium shall be paid and satisfied on the Residential Unit being conveyed and its appurtenant interest in the Common Elements shall be released therefrom by partial release duly recorded.

9. The Sponsor will diligently and expeditiously complete renovation of the Condominium substantially in accordance with the plans and specifications described herein and will diligently perform all of its obligations set forth in this Offering Plan and will deliver to the Board of Managers a copy of the "as built" plans filed with the recording of the Declaration of Condominium or any amendment thereto and in addition will provide the Board of Managers with a full set of building plans filed with the City of New York together with any "field changes" made during the course of construction and renovation. Although the Sponsor intends to use the materials, fixtures, appliances and equipment described herein and in the building plans, the Sponsor reserves the right to substitute materials, fixtures, appliances and equipment of Equal or Better Quality or design for any of those set forth. Sponsor reserves the right to change the size, number and location of the improvements or Common Elements, provided such changes do not change or adversely affect the Percentage of Common Interest of any Residential Unit to which title has closed or for which a Purchase Agreement has been executed and is in effect unless all affected Residential Unit Owners and Purchasers consent in writing to such a change. Sponsor further reserves the right to determine the location of electric and water meters, electric transformers, air conditioning compressors, other Building wide equipment, mailboxes, and to make any other changes required by the City of New York.

10. The Sponsor and its principals will obtain a permanent or temporary Certificate of Occupancy and any other certificate or permit required by law for the Building or Residential Unit before the Closing of Title to a Residential Unit and will, at its own cost, perform any work and supply any materials necessary to obtain the Certificates or permits. In the event a permanent Certificate of Occupancy is not issued as of the Date of Closing of a Residential Unit, Sponsor and its principals anticipate obtaining the permanent Certificate of Occupancy within two (2) years of the Closing of the Residential Unit. However, Sponsor and its principals make no representation or guarantee that the New York City Department of Buildings will issue the permanent Certificate of Occupancy within such two (2) year period. The Sponsor and its principals will renew any temporary Certificate of Occupancy until a permanent Certificate of Occupancy is issued for the Building. Sponsor and its principals have the right to Close Title with a temporary Certificate of Occupancy.

    In the event a permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building or Residential Unit has not been issued as of the Date of Closing for said Residential Unit, the Sponsor will continue to hold all deposits and funds in the special escrow account required pursuant to Section 352-e (2-b) and 352-h as described in Section XI of the Offering Plan unless Sponsor's engineer or architect certifies that a lesser amount will be reasonably necessary to complete the work needed to obtain a permanent Certificate of Occupancy. Any sum of money exceeding the amount certified by the Sponsor's engineer or architect will be released to the Sponsor and its principals. Upon the issuance of the permanent Certificate of Occupancy, such escrow deposit will be released to Sponsor and its principals without the consent of any other party. Alternatively, Sponsor may deposit with an escrow agent an unconditional, irrevocable letter of credit or post a surety bond in the amount certified by Sponsor's engineer or architect. In such event, it will disclose such fact by duly filed amendment to the Plan prior to releasing any of the funds from the escrow account.

    Residential Unit Owners will not be permitted to make any changes, additions or alterations to their Residential Unit that will prevent the issuance of a permanent Certificate of Occupancy or extension or renewal of a temporary Certificate of Occupancy for the Residential Unit and/or Building. Residential Unit Owners will be permitted to make standard improvements to their Residential Units such as painting, installation of flooring, cabinetry, fixtures etc. as long as the improvements do not affect the ability of the Sponsor and its principals to obtain a permanent Certificate of Occupancy or extension or renewal of a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Residential Unit Owners are responsible for obtaining all necessary permits from the City of New York and any other required municipal agencies for any changes the Residential Unit Owner makes to their Residential Unit subsequent to the Closing of Title with the Sponsor. Sponsor will not be liable for nor responsible to a Residential Unit Owner in the event an inspection by the Department of Buildings of the City of New York prevents the issuance of a renewal and/or extension of a temporary Certificate of Occupancy or permanent Certificate of Occupancy as a result of changes made to the Residential Unit by a Residential Unit Owner. In the event a Residential Unit Owner makes any changes, additions or alterations to their Residential Unit prior to the issuance of a Permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Residential Unit and/or Building, the Residential Unit Owner shall reimburse Sponsor within ten (10) days following Sponsor's demand therefore, for any and all costs incurred by Sponsor with respect to Residential Unit Owner's changes to the Residential Unit that prevent the extension or renewal of a Temporary Certificate of Occupancy or the issuance of a final Certificate of Occupancy by the Department of Buildings of the City of New York. Sponsor's demand shall include documentation substantiating the assertion that the Residential Unit Owner's changes prevented the extension or renewal of a Temporary Certificate of Occupancy or the issuance of a final Certificate of Occupancy.

11. At the Closing of Title, the Sponsor will deliver the certificates and warranties delivered to it and transferable to Purchaser. Sponsor's liability pursuant to any manufacturers' warranties covering heating, appliances, electricity, plumbing and roofing are limited solely to the extent that such warranties are delivered to Sponsor, transferable to the Purchaser or to the Condominium Board of Managers and then only as against such manufacturer.

12. The acceptance of a deed by a Purchaser will be deemed an acknowledgment that Sponsor has performed and discharged every agreement and obligation on the part of Sponsor to be performed under the Offering Plan except those (if any) which may be expressly stated in the Offering Plan, in the Purchase Agreement, in 13 NYCRR, Part 20 (the regulations of the Attorney General of the State of New York governing the acceptance for filing of this Offering Plan), and in General Business Law Section 352-e to survive delivery of the deed. The Purchaser of a Residential Unit will inspect such Residential Unit three (3) days prior to the Closing Date and will execute at such time an inspection statement acknowledging Purchaser's acceptance of the Residential Unit in good condition and in accordance with the terms of the Offering Plan, provided that if Purchaser finds that Sponsor's improvements have not been completed as described in the Offering Plan then Sponsor and the Purchaser in question will agree to include on the inspection statement a list of incomplete work of a material nature to be completed in the Residential Unit by Sponsor as provided in the Purchase Agreement. Sponsor will have no obligation to complete any work which is not specifically designated by the Purchaser on the inspection statement. A Purchaser will receive prior notice that a Residential Unit is available for inspection pursuant to this Paragraph, as more particularly set forth in the Purchase Agreement in Part II of the Offering Plan. A Purchaser who fails to inspect such Residential Unit will be deemed to have accepted the Residential Unit in good condition and in accordance with the terms of the Offering Plan. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Purchaser will retain the right to pursue any remedy available under their individual Limited Warranty. After Closing of Title to each Residential Unit the Purchaser thereof must comply with the procedures established by the Managing Agent or the Board of Managers regarding such Purchaser's move in and out of the Residential Unit. This may include "move in" and/or "move out" fees which will be refunded to the Purchaser unless the Purchaser or the Purchaser's agents cause damage to the Building during the move in or move out of the Residential Unit. In such an event the move in or move out fees will be used to repair said damage. In the event the move in and move out fees paid are less than any damage caused, the Purchaser will be responsible for the additional amount of the damage. In the event the move in or move out fees paid are greater than the damage caused, the Purchaser will be refunded the excess amount.

13. This Development is subject to the New York State Housing Merchant Implied Warranty Law, Article 36-B of the General Business Law, which pertains to warranties on the sale of certain new Residential Units. This law is applicable to all Residential Units offered for sale under this Offering Plan. Pursuant to the terms of this law, the Sponsor is giving a Limited Warranty to Purchasers which provides for a Limited Warranty on certain items. The limitations contained in the Limited Warranty are noted as follows: the Limited Warranty provides coverage for the first Residential Unit Buyer only; Sponsor's liability is limited to seventy-five thousand ($75,000) dollars exclusive of options and less any insurance proceeds received by Purchaser but including any deductible paid by Purchaser; incidental, special, indirect consequential or other similar damages are excluded; and detailed procedures must be followed for giving notice of a warranty claim to Sponsor, and for commencing a lawsuit against Sponsor. The Limited Warranty provides the following coverages for the Residential Units:

FIRST YEAR BASIC COVERAGE: for one year from the Effective Date of the Warranty (as shown on page 1 thereon), the Residential Unit will be free from latent defects that constitute:

(a) defective workmanship by the Sponsor, or an agent, employee or subcontractor of the Sponsor;

(b) defective materials furnished by the Sponsor, or an agent, employee or subcontractor of the Sponsor;

(c) defective design, provided by an architect, engineer, surveyor, or other design professional retained exclusively by the Sponsor; or

(d) defective installation of appliances sold as part of the Residential Unit by the Sponsor or an agent, employee or subcontractor of the Sponsor.

TWO YEAR MAJOR SYSTEM COVERAGE: for two years from the Effective Date of the Warranty, the plumbing, electrical, heating, cooling and ventilation systems of the Residential Unit which have been installed by the Sponsor are warranted to be free from latent defects resulting from defective installation by the Sponsor.

SIX YEAR MAJOR STRUCTURAL DEFECT COVERAGE: for six (6) years from the Effective Date of the Warranty, the Residential Unit will be free from latent major structural Defects that result from:

(a) defective workmanship by the Sponsor, or an agent, employee or subcontractor of the Sponsor;

(b) defective materials furnished by the Sponsor, or an agent, employee or subcontractor of the Sponsor; or

(c) defective design, provided by an architect, engineer, surveyor, or other design professional retained exclusively by the Sponsor.

As permitted in Article 36-B of the General Business Law, the Sponsor excludes the specific warranties set forth in Article 36-B of the General Business Law, and all other warranties, express or implied, and instead is providing each Purchaser with the Limited Warranty. See the complete terms of the Limited Warranty contained in the Rider to the Purchase Agreement set forth in Schedule D-5 and Article 36-B of the General Business Law set forth in Schedule K.

To the extent any coverage under this warranty applies to Common Elements of the Condominium, such coverage shall be deemed given to the Board of Managers of the Condominium.

Regarding the Common Elements of the Condominium not covered by any Limited Warranty, the Sponsor will correct any defects in the renovation or construction of the Common Elements, or in the installation or operation of any mechanical equipment therein, due to improper workmanship or material substantially at variance with this Offering Plan as may be changed by Sponsor from time to time provided and on condition that Sponsor is notified of or becomes aware of such defect(s) within twelve (12) months from the issuance of a temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy, whichever is then applicable upon the Closing of Title to the first Residential Unit. In no event will Sponsor be liable for consequential damages (whether based on negligence, breach of contract, warranty, or otherwise), it being intended that Sponsor's sole obligations under the Offering Plan will be to repair or, at Sponsor's option, replace (or cause to be repaired or replaced) any defective item of construction (whether arising as a result of defects in material or improper workmanship or material substantially at variance with the Plans and Specifications), subject to the terms and conditions (and within the time limits) set forth in this paragraph. The quality of renovation shall be comparable to local standards customary in the particular trade and in accordance with the plans and specifications.

In no event will Sponsor be responsible for any condition in the Residential Unit or the Common Elements resulting from (i) normal wear and tear or natural deterioration or from the normal movement, settlement and/or shrinkage of the Building and/or Building materials; (ii) defects of an immaterial nature, such as, without limitation, partial or total loss of any trees, shrubs, bushes or other landscape improvements that may abut the Building, nail pops, protruding dry wall fastenings, ridging on gypsum board, lumber shrinkage, door or window sticking, door warpage including, without limitation, warpage of the main entrance door within reasonable tolerances of doors of similar size and weight, scratches in plastic laminate, vitreous china, natural stone, wood, stainless steel or porcelain surfaces; bathroom finish grouting; adjustment of doors; walls not square; electrical plates not straight; discoloration or shrinkage; slight separation between base and floors; (iii) normal settlement and deflection or any consequential damage resulting therefrom including, without limitation, cracks in roof ballast, or concrete cracks which do not reduce the structural integrity of the Building; (iv) immaterial deviations in the level of ceilings, and imperfections in ceiling finishes; (v) imperfections in painting finishes; (vi) immaterial deviations in the level of a floor or failure of finished floors and walls to be straight or on plane or at less than 90º from each other; (vii) alignment of bathroom finishes and variation in grouting thickness; (viii) air infiltration and water infiltration from windows in accordance with customary practice and professional standards; (ix) noise from normal plumbing and the HVAC system; (x) normal floor noises and creaking; (xi) carpet or floor discoloring or stretching; (xii) scratches and imperfections or variations in width, length, thickness, finish or color range of wood floor strips or other flooring or floor finishes, also, normal shrinkage or expansion of wood flooring due to changes in moisture content of wood; (xiii) repair of chips, scratches, mars, breaks, dents, cracks or other defects in: exterior stone; windows, window glass, frames and hardware; insulation attached to the curtain wall; sliding glass doors, frames, door glass and hardware; louvers; shower doors; lighting fixtures, lenses, baffles and globes; all painted surfaces; all sinks, tubs, basins, water closets; kitchen cabinets, back splashes and countertops; vanity tops and cabinets; all tile or natural stone floors and walls; saddles; all appliances; woodwork, millwork and doors; mirrors and after the Residential Unit Closing, paint touch-ups, repair of dented appliances, or replacement of light bulbs; (xiv) cracks or variations in tone or color of natural stone or variations in tone or color of vanity tops or variations in veining of any natural stone surfaces; (xv) leaching or color variation in color mortar and colored brick, and dimensional variations in brick joints, and mortar droppings on bricks; (xvi) ponding and/or controlled drainage on the roof surface; (xvii) cracks in pressure-treated lumber used or intended for use outside the Building; (xviii) cracks or discoloration in concrete and/or paving; (xix) discoloration to hardware and plumbing finishes; (xx) stains, runs, lumps, shags or imperfections in weave in fabric panels; (xxi) scratched, dirty or cracked lenses in light fixtures; or (xxii) terrace or balcony tiles not laid flat, or color variation in tiles or mortar, or stained tiles; (xxiii) subsequent to the Residential Unit Closing, paint touch-ups, repairs of dented appliances or replacement of fluorescent light ballasts, or (xxiv) salting or color variation in exterior colored mortar and deep colored brick; (xxv) remove mold from the Building or any Residential Unit therein, or (xxvi) or normal water penetration in frameless shower doors. Sponsor will be obligated to repair only abnormally chipped stone, formica and porcelain surfaces, which repair will be made by filling the stone or formica or refinishing the porcelain, but Sponsor will not be obligated to replace such stone, formica or porcelain surfaces. THE ITEMS AND CONDITIONS DESCRIBED IN THIS PARAGRAPH ARE NOT DEFECTS AND MAY BE FOUND IN ANY NEWLY CONSTRUCTED OR RENOVATED BUILDING OR RESIDENTIAL UNIT. PURCHASERS WHO PURCHASE A RESIDENTIAL UNIT IN THE BUILDING OR IN ANY OTHER NEWLY CONSTRUCTED OR RENOVATED BUILDING MAY EXPERIENCE SOME OR ALL OF THESE ITEMS AND CONDITIONS IN THEIR RESIDENTIAL UNIT, THE COMMON ELEMENTS OR ELSEWHERE IN THE BUILDING OR RESIDENTIAL UNIT. SPONSOR HAS NO OBLIGATION TO CORRECT OR REPAIR ANY OF THESE ITEMS AND CONDITIONS AND WILL NOT BE LIABLE TO ANY PURCHASER OR THE BOARD OF MANAGERS THEREOF. IF PURCHASERS OR ANY BOARD OF MANAGERS DESIRES TO CORRECT OR REPAIR ANY OF THESE ITEMS OR CONDITIONS, TO THE EXTENT THEY CAN BE CORRECTED OR REPAIRED, THEY WILL HAVE TO PROCEED AT THEIR SOLE COST AND EXPENSE BY THEMSELVES AND/OR UNDER ANY WARRANTIES OR UNDERTAKINGS ASSIGNED TO THEM BY SPONSOR.

The Sponsor has no obligation to make any repair to the Common Elements except as expressly set forth in the Offering Plan.

Sponsor will not be obligated to correct and will not be liable to any Purchaser as a result of (i) any immaterial variations from the plans and specifications or the description of any portion of the Building or a Residential Unit set forth in the Offering Plan or (ii) immaterial variations from the Plans and Specifications or the description of any portion of the Building or a Residential Unit set forth in the Offering Plan which are neither in violation of applicable building codes, nor require the approval of any governmental authority having jurisdiction, provided such variations are of equal or better quality than as set forth in the Plans and Specifications or description in this Offering Plan as solely determined by Sponsor's architect. Any such variation affecting the Building or a Residential Unit which is material will be disclosed in a duly filed amendment to the Offering Plan. Notwithstanding the above, regardless of any limitations in a warranty offered under the Offering Plan or in the Offering Plan, the Sponsor's obligation is to construct the premises in accordance with all applicable codes and filed plans and specifications, and any conflict between the disclaimers and the Sponsor's obligation to construct the premises in accordance with all applicable codes and filed plans and specifications shall be resolved in favor of the latter.

All personal property located within the Residential Unit on the date the Purchase Agreement is executed or that is located within an Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Element for the exclusive use of the Residential Unit on the date the Declaration of Condominium is filed, that is owned by the Sponsor or anyone else, will be included in the conveyance to Purchaser of their Residential Unit unless specifically accepted in the Offering Plan or Purchase Agreement.

14. The Sponsor will deliver to the Purchaser and/or the Board of Managers upon the recording of the Declaration of Condominium all manufacturers' and sub-contractors heating, electrical, plumbing, roofing and appliance warranties and bonds relating to the Purchaser's Residential Unit or the Common Elements respectively, if any, to the extent made by such manufacturers and subcontractors and to the extent such warranties and bonds are assignable.

15. The Sponsor will pay all contractors, subcontractors and material men and all others involved in the construction and renovation of the Building containing the Residential Units in the Condominium for work performed and fixtures, material and equipment supplied or installed in the renovation and construction of the Building containing the Residential Units in the Condominium and will cause all mechanics' liens arising out of the renovation and construction of the Building containing the Condominium or the furnishing or installation of fixtures or equipment, to be discharged or bonded promptly after the liens are filed.

The Sponsor will pay all expenses incurred prior to the establishment of the Condominium and will bear and pay all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the creation of the Condominium whenever such costs or expenses are incurred or in connection with the sale of all of the Residential Units held or owned by the Sponsor and will pay all selling expenses including, but not limited to, advertising and printing costs, architectural and engineering fees, and costs of filing this Offering Plan and amendments thereto.

The Sponsor has the financial resources to complete the renovation of the Condominium and Sponsor's obligations under the Offering Plan.

16. No bond or other security has been posted to secure Sponsor's obligations. The Sponsor has the financial resources to complete the Condominium and fulfill its obligations under the Offering Plan.

17. The Sponsor reserves the easements, licenses, rights and privileges of a right-of-way in, through, over, under and across the Common Elements of the Condominium for the purpose of completing its renovation, construction and sale or rental of Residential Units and facilities in the Condominium and, towards this end, reserves the right to grant and reserve easements and rights-of-way in, through, under, over and across the Common Elements for the installation, maintenance and inspection of lines and appurtenances for public or private water, sewer, drainage, cable television, and other utilities and for any other materials or services necessary for the completion of the work. Sponsor also reserves the right to connect with and make use of the utility lines, wires, pipes, conduits, cable television, sewers and drainage lines which may from time to time be in or along the Common Elements. Sponsor will be obligated to pay for the cost of any utilities it uses as a result of its use of the easements, licenses, rights and privileges of a right-of-way. The Sponsor reserves the right to continue to use the Common Elements and any facilities, sales offices, model or unsold Residential Units and signs located on the Common Elements, in its efforts to market or lease the Residential Units in the Condominium. Sponsor will be obligated to repair any damage to the Common Elements and Residential Units caused as a result of its use of the easements, licenses, rights and privileges of a right-of-way to complete the renovation of the Building containing the Residential Units in the Condominium. Upon reasonable notice to a Residential Unit Owner, Sponsor shall have a right of access to any Residential Unit for the purpose of carrying out any of the above easements, licenses, rights and privileges. During the construction and renovation period some obstructions, detours, storage of materials and equipment will likely be necessary. Patience and understanding of these conditions will be required of Residential Unit Owners. Sponsor shall not unreasonably interfere with the use of an Owner's Residential Unit during the construction and renovation period.

18. Pursuant to Section 352-e (9) of the General Business Law, copies of all documents mentioned in this Offering Plan, including without limitation the following, are and will be kept on file at the office of Sponsor set forth on the cover page of this Offering Plan for six (6) years from the date the Declaration of Condominium is recorded for examination by any person who has purchased a condominium interest offered by this Offering Plan or otherwise has participated in this offering: This Offering Plan; the proposed Declaration of Condominium and By-Laws of the Condominium; public liability, fire and casualty policy, and Schedules submitted to the Department of Law in conjunction with this Offering Plan. A copy of the form of Residential Unit Owner's Purchase Agreement is submitted with this Offering Plan as Schedule D in Part II of the Offering Plan.

19. In accordance with Section 339-p of the Real Property Law, a registered architect or licensed professional engineer shall certify within reasonable tolerances that the floor plans filed with the recording of the Declaration of Condominium are an accurate copy of portions of the plans of the Building as filed with and approved by the municipal or other governmental subdivision having jurisdiction over the issuance of permits for the construction of buildings.

XVII. CONTROL BY THE SPONSOR

Prior to the First Annual Meeting the First Board of Managers will consist of three (3) Sponsor-appointed Members. At the First Annual Meeting of the Residential Unit Owners, and thereafter, the Board of Managers shall consist of a total of three (3) elected and/or Sponsor designated Members to the Board of Managers. The Sponsor, as the owner of Unsold Residential Units, will be entitled to designate all of the Board of Managers of the Condominium until all of the Residential Units in the Condominium have been sold or transferred to Residential Unit Owners other than the Sponsor, its Principals, successors, assignees and/or designees. There is no limit on the period of time it may take Sponsor to convey all the Residential Units in the Condominium and as a result the Sponsor may control the board indefinitely. A meeting (the "Turnover Meeting") will be held to elect the new members of the Board of Managers unrelated to Sponsor within thirty (30) days after the expiration of the Sponsor Control Period. Notwithstanding, the Sponsor shall have the right but not the obligation to voluntarily relinquish control before said date.

As a result of the above the Sponsor will have voting control of the Board of Managers during this period. As a result of the fact Sponsor may retain all of the Board of Managers for said period, purchasers for their own occupancy may never gain control of the Board of Managers under the terms of this Offering Plan. Purchasers individually, or as a group, may take legal or administrative action to enforce the Sponsor's obligations to the Condominium. However, they will be unable to do so in the name of the Condominium. In addition, the funds utilized for such actions will either have to be obtained by a Special Assessment of all Residential Unit Owners excluding the Sponsor or obtained through independent funds of the Residential Unit Owners. The Sponsor will also, during this indeterminate period, have control of maintenance, facilities and services to be provided to the Condominium and will determine the Common Expenses to be paid by all Residential Unit Owners, including the Sponsor and will also be responsible for the enforcement of the Sponsor's obligations through the Board of Managers. Although the Sponsor has the right to retain control over certain expenditures and fiscal actions of the Board of Managers, Sponsor may not exercise veto power over expenses described in Schedule B (the proposed first year budget), or over expenses required:

(i) to comply with applicable laws or regulations; or

(ii) to remedy any notice of violation; or

(iii) to remedy any work order by an insurer; or

(iv) necessary for the preservation or safety of the Condominium or for the health and safety of Condominium residents or required to avoid the suspension of any necessary service to the Condominium.

Purchasers should further note that the By-Laws do not contain any provision that provides that after the Sponsor relinquishes control of the Board a majority of the Board of Managers must be owner occupants who are unrelated to the Sponsor or its principals. Owner-occupants and non-resident owners, including Sponsor, may have inherent conflicts on how the Condominium should be managed as a result of their different reasons for purchasing, i.e., purchasing as a Residential Unit to live in as opposed to purchasing as an investment. Notwithstanding, the Board of Managers has a fiduciary duty to the Condominium and the Residential Unit Owners to act in the best interest of the Condominium and the Residential Unit Owners during the period the Sponsor retains control of the Board of Managers. In the event there is a vote to enforce Sponsor's obligations to the Condominium, the Sponsor will be required to abstain from the vote. Additionally, any provision that purports to give the Sponsor control of the enforcement of the Sponsor's obligations is not lawful. If there are non-Sponsor Members of the Board of Managers and there is a vote on whether to sue the Sponsor, the Sponsor's Board representatives cannot lawfully vote on that issue.

The First Board of Managers of the Condominium will consist of Vadem Brodsky, Elizabeth Arias and Aran Scott. Mr. Brodsky is the principal of the Sponsor. Elizabeth Arias is Mr. Brodsky's spouse and Mr. Scott is a business affiliate of Mr. Brodsky. The Sponsor shall retain the right to substitute other persons in the place of the above-named individuals until the resignation of the first Board as set forth below. Thereafter the Sponsor shall have the right to substitute Members of the Board it has appointed as Sponsor so determines. The Turnover Meeting will be held within thirty (30) days after expiration of the Sponsor Control Period, which may occur later than one (1) year after the date of the Closing of Title to the first Residential Unit in the Condominium. At the Turnover Meeting, the Residential Unit Owners will elect a new Board of Managers. Said Board of Managers will consist of three (3) Members. Until such time as the Sponsor relinquishes control of the Board of Managers, the Sponsor shall appoint the three (3) Members of the Board of Managers for one (1) year terms and shall continue to appoint the three (3) Members of the Board of Managers until the Sponsor is required to hold the Turnover Meeting. The Sponsor, as the owner of Unsold Residential Units, will be entitled to designate all of the Board of Managers of the Condominium until all of the Residential Units in the Condominium have been sold or transferred to Residential Unit Owners other than the Sponsor, its Principals, successors, assignees and/or designees.

At such time as all of the Residential Units are Closed, Sponsor will not be entitled to any representation on the Board of Managers. Upon the election and designation of the new Board of Managers at the Turnover Meeting, the Members of the Board designated by the Sponsor will resign. Members of the Board of Managers, other than Sponsor designees, may be removed for cause by an affirmative vote of sixty-six and two thirds percent (66⅔rds) of the Residential Unit Owners. Sponsor designees can only be removed by the Sponsor. Officers of the Condominium may be removed with or without cause, at any time, by the affirmative vote of the Board of Managers.

As long as the Sponsor retains at least one (1) Unsold Residential Unit in the Condominium, the Board of Managers may not, without the Sponsor's prior written consent (i) make any additions, alterations or improvements to the General Common Elements, Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Elements of the Condominium that is not a Residential Unit Owner's obligation and/or to any Residential Unit costing cumulatively more than $50,000, the foregoing not to include necessary repairs and maintenance work; or (ii) assess any Common Charges for the creation of, addition to or replacement of all or part of a reserve, contingency or surplus fund in excess of the reserve for contingencies provided in Schedule B; or (iii) hire any employee in addition to the employees referred to in the Offering Plan; or (iv) enter into any contracts not in existence on the date of the first Closing of Title to a Residential Unit; or (v) borrow money on behalf of the Condominium; or (vi) reduce the services or maintenance set forth in Schedule B; (vii) charge any Special Assessment for a non-budgeted item unless required by law, municipal agency, emergency or for the health and safety of the Condominium or Condominium residents; or (viii) increase the Common Charges of the Condominium more than ten (10%) from the prior year's budget, unless documentation is provided to the Sponsor in the nature of a financial statement, bids from contractors or verified increases in utility rates evidencing the need for an increase greater than ten (10%) percent, or (ix) utilize Condominium funds or assess the Sponsor for the purpose of commencing a lawsuit against the Sponsor or any of its principals.

As noted above, the Sponsor has the right to retain control over certain expenditures and fiscal actions of the Board of Managers. Notwithstanding said fact, Sponsor may not exercise veto power over expenses described in Schedule B (the proposed first year budget), or over expenses required:

(i) to comply with applicable laws or regulations; or

(ii) to remedy any notice of violation; or

(iii) to remedy any work order by an insurer; or

(iv) necessary for the preservation or safety of the Condominium or for the health and safety of Condominium residents or required to avoid the suspension of any necessary service to the Condominium.

The above provisions provide that during said period, significant financial decisions of the Board of Managers will be decided by the Sponsor. Examples of such decisions are, in part, the ability to borrow money, as provided in The Condominium Act (Article 9-B of the Real Property Law, §339-jj), for a capital improvement all Residential Unit Owners are in favor of, or the ability to enter into a contract with a lawyer and fund legal fees if the Sponsor fails to comply with provisions in the offering.

Notwithstanding the above the Members of the Board of Managers have a fiduciary obligation to act within the best interests of the Condominium. Residential Unit Owners are entitled to pursue all available remedies if Members of the Board of Managers (including without limitation Sponsor designated Members of the Board of Managers) breach such obligations.

The detailed provisions for the management of the Condominium are set forth in the attached By-Laws. The By-Laws contain provisions, among others, dealing with the election of the Board of Managers, and Condominium officers, powers of the Board of Managers, voting rights of Residential Unit Owners, assessment of Common Charges, foreclosure of liens for non-payment of Common Charges, management of the Condominium and the use of the Residential Units. The By-Laws provide that the Condominium shall be governed by the Board of Managers, but that the Board of Managers shall have the right to designate Committees or a Managing Agent to carry out such function.

Members and officers of the Board of Managers serve without compensation.

XVIII. BOARD OF MANAGERS

The form of the By-Laws and the Declaration of Condominium referred to in the Offering Plan appear in Part II as Schedules I and J.

The following is a summary of certain provisions of the By-Laws and Declaration of Condominium.

Board of Managers

The affairs of the Condominium shall be governed by a Board of Managers. The First Board of Managers shall consist of three (3) Members designated by the Sponsor who shall hold office and exercise all powers of the Board of Managers until the expiration of the Sponsor Control Period. A meeting shall be held within thirty (30) days after the Sponsor Control Period ("Turnover Meeting") to elect a replacement Board of Managers. The First Board of Managers of the Condominium will consist of Vadem Brodsky, Elizabeth Arias and Aran Scott. Mr. Brodsky is the principal of the Sponsor. Elizabeth Arias is Mr. Brodsky's spouse and Mr. Scott is a business affiliate of Mr. Brodsky. Until succeeded by the Members elected at the Turnover Meeting of Residential Unit Owners, Members need not be Residential Unit Owners; thereafter, all Members, other than designees or nominees of the Sponsor, shall be Residential Unit Owners. The Members shall be elected or designated at the Annual Meeting of the Residential Unit Owners.

At the First Annual Meeting of Residential Unit Owners a total of three (3) Members shall be elected or designated. All Members, other than those the Sponsor can designate, shall be elected by the Residential Unit Owners. The term of office of all Members shall be fixed for one (1) year term.

Each Residential Unit Owner shall be entitled to cast one vote for each Member to be elected to the Board of Managers. At the expiration of the initial term of office of each respective Member, their successor shall be elected to serve a term of one (1) year. The Members shall hold office until their successors have been elected and hold their first meeting.

Any Residential Unit Owner in default of the payment of Common Charges, Special Assessments, late fees, interest and/or penalties shall be ineligible to be elected to the Board of Managers and/or vote at any general, Annual or Special Meeting.

The Sponsor shall have the right to designate the initial Members of the Board of Managers until the Turnover Meeting or the closing of title to all Residential Units in the Condominium whichever occurs last. This Section may not be amended without the written consent of Sponsor.

In addition to the Members designated by the Sponsor, as long as Sponsor retains an unsold Residential Unit in the Condominium, Sponsor may vote as Sponsor so determines for any other Members, so long as the Members are not on Sponsor's slate of Members for the Board of Managers, Sponsor's payroll or as long as they did not receive other financial backing from the Sponsor other than any mortgage that may be held by the Sponsor or affiliated entity of the Sponsor, if applicable.

Sponsor is entitled to designate the Members to the First Board of Managers and shall be entitled to retain control of the Board of Managers until the closing of title to all Residential Units in the Condominium. Members designated by the Sponsor may only be removed by the Sponsor. Sponsor Members shall be appointed for one (1) year terms. At the expiration of the Sponsor Member terms, if Sponsor is still entitled to nominate Members to the Board of Managers, the Sponsor Members shall thereafter continue to be appointed as Members for one (1) year terms until the Sponsor is required to relinquish the position or Sponsor voluntarily resigns the position. When the designated Members of the Sponsor are required to relinquish their position on the Board of Managers, the Sponsor will call for the Turnover Meeting of the Residential Unit Owners within thirty (30) days thereafter. In the event the Sponsor voluntarily relinquishes a position on the Board of Managers the Board of Managers will either (a) call for a Special Meeting of the Residential Unit Owners pursuant to the provisions of Article II, Section 10 of the By-Laws to elect a Residential Unit Owner for the balance of the Sponsor Member term or (b) the remaining Members of the Board of Managers will appoint a Residential Unit Owner to the Board of Managers for the balance of the Sponsor Member term. At the expiration of the term, the Residential Unit Owners shall have a meeting to elect a Residential Unit Owner to a full one (1) year term. Notwithstanding the aforementioned, in the event the Sponsor voluntarily relinquishes a position on the Board of Mangers before the Sponsor is obligated to do so, upon notice from the Sponsor to the Board of Managers that the Sponsor desires to reclaim said position the Member appointed or elected to said position shall resign and the Sponsor shall reappoint a Member to the Board of Managers.

Compensation

Members of the Board of Managers and Officers of the Condominium will serve without compensation.

Removal/Suspension of Members of the Board of Managers

Members, other than Sponsor designees, may be removed with or without cause by an affirmative vote of sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66⅔rds) in number of the Residential Unit Owners entitled to vote at a special meeting called pursuant to Article II, Section 10 of the By-Laws. Members designated by the Sponsor may only be removed by the Sponsor. No Member other than a Member designated by the Sponsor shall continue to serve on the Board of Managers if, during their term of office, they shall cease to be a Residential Unit Owner. In the event a Sponsor designee Member is removed, the Sponsor shall have the sole right to designate the Sponsor Member replacement.

Any Member of the Board of Managers in default of the payment of Common Charges, Special Assessments, late fees, penalties and/or interest shall be suspended from the Board of Managers until such time as all Common Charges, Special Assessments, late fees, penalties and/or interest are paid in full to the Condominium.

Powers and Duties of Board of Managers

(a) The property and business of the Condominium shall be managed by its Board of Managers, which may exercise all such powers of the Condominium and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by Statute or by the Declaration of Condominium or by the By-Laws, directed or required to be exercised or done by the Residential Unit Owners personally. These powers shall specifically include, but not be limited to, the following items:

1. To determine and levy monthly assessments (“Common Charges”) to cover the cost of Common Expenses. The Common Charges are payable in advance as determined by the Board of Managers. The Board of Managers may increase the monthly Common Charges or vote a Special Assessment in excess of the Common Charges, if required, to meet any additional necessary Common Expenses, but said increases can only be assessed among the Residential Unit Owners pro-rata according to their respective Percentage of Common Interest as reflected in Schedule B of the Declaration of Condominium or in such other manner as provided in Article VI, Section 9 of the By-Laws.

2. To determine and impose penalties, late fees and interest against Residential Unit Owners delinquent in the payment of their Common Charges and to revise the amount of such fees as the Board of Managers so determines.

3. To determine and impose move in and move out fees and to revise said fees in its good faith discretion.

4. To collect, use, and expend the Common Charges collected to maintain, care for and preserve the General Common Elements, and Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Elements that have been designated to the Condominium to repair, replace and maintain and any other Common Expenses of the Condominium.

5. To make repairs, restore or alter any Residential Unit or the Common Elements after damage or destruction by fire or other casualty or as a result of condemnation or eminent domain proceedings.

6. To enter in and upon the Residential Units when necessary and at as little inconvenience to the Residential Unit Owners as possible in connection with the maintenance, care, and preservation of the property, including any inspection or repairs necessitated by mold. No prior notice shall be required in the event the Board of Managers shall determine that action is immediately necessary for the preservation or safety of the Condominium or its property, or the Residential Units, or for the health and safety of Condominium residents or other persons or required to avoid the suspension of any necessary service to the Condominium. Any repairs required as the result of negligence of a Residential Unit Owner will be at the expense of the Residential Unit Owner.

7. To open bank accounts on behalf of the Condominium and to designate the signatories to such bank accounts.

8. To insure and keep insured the Common Elements and Residential Units in accordance with Article VII of the By-Laws.

9. To collect delinquent Common Charges, Special Assessments, late fees, penalties and/or interest by suit or otherwise, to abate nuisances and to enjoin or seek damages from the Residential Unit Owners of the Condominium for violations of the Declaration of Condominium, By-Laws or the Rules and Regulations of the Condominium.

10. To make reasonable Rules and Regulations applicable to all Residential Units and all Residential Unit Owners and to amend the same from time to time, and such Rules and Regulations and amendments shall be binding upon all the Residential Unit Owners when the Board of Managers has approved them in writing. A copy of such Rules and Regulations and all amendments shall be delivered to each Residential Unit Owner.

11. To employ and terminate the employment of employees and independent contractors and to purchase supplies and equipment, to enter into contracts, and generally to have the powers of a manager in connection with the matters herein above set forth.

12. To bring and defend actions by or against one (1) or more Residential Unit Owners that are pertinent to the operation of the Condominium and to levy Special Assessments to pay for the cost of such litigation, subject to the provisions regarding the Sponsor as contained in Article III, section 7 (c) of the By-Laws.

13. To acquire a Residential Unit in foreclosure or as a result of abandonment and to take any or all steps necessary to repair or renovate any Residential Unit so acquired and to vote as a Residential Unit Owner subject to any restrictions contained in the By-Laws, offer such Residential Unit for sale or lease or take any other steps regarding such Residential Unit as shall be deemed proper by the Board of Managers.

14. To make additions, alterations, or improvements to the General Common Elements and Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Elements that have been delegated to the Condominium to maintain, repair and/or replace as provided in the Declaration of Condominium and/or the By-Laws.

15. To borrow money on behalf of the Condominium when required in connection with the operation, care, upkeep and maintenance of the Common Elements, or for capital expenditures such as repair or replacement of Building components or systems or to remedy a major Building defect, provided, however, that no lien to secure repayment of any sum borrowed may be created on any Residential Unit or its appurtenant interest in the Common Elements without the written consent of the Owners of said Residential Unit.

16. To act as an agent for one (1) or more Residential Unit Owners to file a single complaint and bring a special proceeding on behalf of Residential Unit Owners who wish to contest the real estate tax assessments of their Residential Unit pursuant to Section 339-y(4) of the New York Real Property Law. In such an event, the Board of Managers could retain counsel on behalf of such Residential Unit Owners and charge each Residential Unit Owner for whom it is acting a pro-rata share of expenses, disbursements and legal fees, based upon the Residential Unit's Percentage of Common Interest as reflected in Schedule B of the Declaration of Condominium, the payment for which would be secured by a lien on each Residential Unit. The Board of Managers is not obligated to perform such services and it is necessary to obtain the written authorization of the Residential Unit Owners it will perform such service for.

17. In connection therewith, each Residential Unit Owner upon becoming a Residential Unit Owner shall be deemed to grant an irrevocable power of attorney, coupled with an interest to the Board of Managers of the Condominium and to the Sponsor to amend the Declaration of Condominium for said purposes.

f. In addition, in the case of material changes, approval must be obtained from first mortgage holders representing at least fifty-one (51%) percent of the votes of Residential Units that are subject to first mortgages. A change to any of the following would be considered as material: voting rights; assessments, assessment liens, or subordination of assessment liens; reserves for maintenance, repair and replacement of Common Elements; responsibility for maintenance and repairs; reallocation of interests in the General Common Elements or Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Elements, or rights to their use; boundaries of any Residential Unit; convertibility of Residential Units into Common Elements or vice versa; expansion or contraction of the project, or the addition, annexation or withdrawal of property to or from the project; insurance or fidelity bonds; revisions to the selling and leasing provisions of Residential Units contained in Article XI of the By-Laws; imposition of any restrictions on a Residential Unit Owner's right to sell or transfer the Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit; a decision by the Condominium to establish self-management when professional management had been required previously by an eligible mortgage holder; restoration or repair of the project (after a hazard damage or partial condemnation) in a manner other than that specified in the documents; any action to terminate the legal status of the project after substantial destruction or condemnation occurs; or any provisions that expressly benefit mortgage holders, insurers or guarantors. Any eligible mortgage holder who received a written request by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to approve amendments who does not deliver to the Condominium a negative written response within sixty (60) days of the receipt of the request shall be deemed to have approved such amendment.

There shall be a presumption for a period of eight (8) days subsequent to the recording of the amendment that the vote of the Residential Unit Owners was made at a duly called meeting and that the requisite voting percentage was obtained. After the eight (8) day period such presumption will be deemed conclusive.

The Sponsor, its successors, assigns and purchasers of undeveloped or unsold Residential Units shall have the right without vote or consent of the Residential Unit Owners, the Board of Managers or the holders of Residential Unit mortgages to execute or (on its request) to require the Board of Managers to execute and record in the Register's Office of the City of New York, and elsewhere, if required by law, an amendment or amendments to the Declaration of Condominium (together with such other documents, plans and maps as may be required to effectuate the same) to reflect (i) the certification by a registered architect or professional engineer, certifying that the floor plans and/or amended As-Built Floor Plans, Condominium or Residential Unit Designation Map filed as part of an amended Declaration of Condominium are an accurate copy of portions of the Building Plans and fully and fairly depict the layout, location, designation and approximate dimensions of the Residential Units as built, or (ii) utility easements, or (iii) technical corrections to the Declaration of Condominium and By-

In connection thereof, each Residential Unit Owner upon becoming a Residential Unit Owner shall be deemed to grant an irrevocable power of attorney, coupled with an interest, to the Sponsor, its successors, assigns and purchasers of undeveloped or unsold Residential Units to amend the Declaration of Condominium for the above purposes.

Any amendment to the Declaration of Condominium shall not take effect until it is recorded in the New York City Register's Office.

Regardless of any other provision of the Declaration of Condominium, no action for partition or division of the Common Elements shall be brought nor shall this Offering Plan of condominium ownership be terminated where such partition, division or termination will result in a violation of the then existing local zoning and building laws and codes.

However, such unpaid Common Charges can be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of a Residential Unit. In addition, all sales are subject to the Right of First Refusal of the Board of Managers as provided for in Article XI, Section 2 of the By-Laws.

Right of First Refusal

Any Residential Unit Owner who receives a bona fide offer to purchase the Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit and intends to accept such offer, must give notice by certified or registered mail to the Board of Managers of the receipt of such bona fide offer within ten (10) days of such offer. The giving of such notice shall constitute an offer by such Residential Unit Owner to sell the Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit to the Board of Managers or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all other Residential Unit Owners, upon the same terms and conditions as contained in such bona fide offer. No later than ten (10) days after the receipt of such notice, the Board of Managers may elect, by sending written notice to such Residential Unit Owner before expiration of said ten (10) day period, by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to purchase such Residential Unit as the case may be. to effectuate any such purchase, the Board of Managers may levy an assessment against each Residential Unit Owner, in proportion to each Residential Unit's Percentage of Common Interest as a Special Assessment, and/or the Board of Managers may in its discretion finance the acquisition of the Residential Unit; provided, however, that no such financing may be secured by an encumbrance, or an hypothecation of any portion of the Property other than the Residential Unit to be purchased. If financed. all costs of the financing and any debt service on the financing shall be paid solely by the Residential Unit Owners in proportion to each Residential Unit's Percentage of Common Interest as a Special Assessment of just the Residential Units.

Permissible Use

During the period a Residential Unit is owned by the Condominium it may be rented or used for any other permissible use under the applicable zoning laws. Any Residential Unit owned by the Condominium may be sold or leased. All proceeds of any sale or lease will become income to the Condominium to be used towards Common Expenses or other Condominium purposes.

No Discrimination

The Board of Managers may not discriminate against any person on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, age, disability, marital status or other grounds prohibited by law if it rents or sells a Residential Unit acquired through its Right of First Refusal. See the By-Laws in Part II of the Plan.

In the event the Board of Managers of the Condominium, in its sole discretion, determines that the prospective tenant of the Residential Unit does not meet its criteria for tenancy of a Residential Unit as provided herein and in Sections 1 and 7 of Article XI of the By-Laws, the Board of Managers shall issue a denial to the Residential Unit Owner within ten (10) days of such determination. The Residential Unit Owner shall thereafter have the right to procure a second prospective tenant for the Board of Managers' Right of First Refusal, review and approval pursuant to all of the terms of Article XI of the By-Laws.

Mortgage of Residential Units by Residential Unit Owners

A Residential Unit Owner may mortgage the Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit at any time after the Residential Unit Owner acquires title to the Residential Unit in whatever amount and under whatever terms the Residential Unit Owner can obtain provided the Residential Unit Owner first notifies the Board of Managers. Any Residential Unit Owner may, upon the resale of their Residential Unit, grant a purchase money mortgage to a purchaser of their Residential Unit. Said assessments shall be known as Special Assessments. The Board of Managers shall be entitled to charge a Special Assessment as a single sum or over a period of time as it may determine. Residential Unit Owners shall pay their portion of any Special Assessments in accordance with Section 9 of Article VI of the By-Laws.

The Residential Unit Owner agrees to pay promptly when due the monthly Common Charges and all Special Assessments assessed against the Residential Unit. In the event any Residential Unit Owner fails to make payment of the Residential Unit Owner's Common Charge payment, the Residential Unit Owner who owns such Residential Unit shall be obligated to pay (a) a "late fee" of $.15 for each $1.00 of such amounts which remain unpaid for more than ten (10) days from their due date (although nothing herein shall be deemed to extend the period within which such amounts are to be paid) and (b) all expenses, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees paid or incurred by the Board of Managers or by any Managing Agent in any proceeding brought to collect such unpaid Common Charges and/or Special Assessments or in an action to foreclose the lien on such Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit arising from said unpaid Common Charges and/or Special Assessments in the manner permitted by applicable law. All such "late fees," interest and expenses shall be cumulative and shall be added to and shall constitute Common Charges payable by such Residential Unit Owner.

In addition, in the event of a default in payment of Common Charges by any Residential Unit Owner, the Board of Managers, at its sole option, may declare the Common Charge assessment on said Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit for the balance of the fiscal year immediately due and payable. Prior to making any such declaration following a default the Board of Managers shall send notice to the delinquent Residential Unit Owner and the mortgagee, if any, of such Residential Unit giving the Residential Unit Owner a five (5) day grace period in which to make the late payment.

The Board of Managers may place a lien and take action to collect any past due Common Charges from any Residential Unit Owner which remains unpaid as provided in Article IX of the By-Laws from its due date by way of foreclosure of the lien on such Residential Unit in accordance with Section 339-aa of the Real Property Law or otherwise.

No Residential Unit Owner shall be liable for any Common Charges, Special Assessments or other charges against a Residential Unit which accrue against the Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit subsequent to a sale, transfer or other conveyance of the Residential Unit Owner in accordance with the By-Laws and the Declaration of Condominium. A Residential Unit Owner shall be liable for the payment of all Common Charges. Special Assessments or other charges assessed by the Board of Managers against the Residential Unit after acquiring title to the Residential Unit, as well as any unpaid Common Charges, Special Assessments or other charges assessed against the Residential Unit by the Board of Managers at the time the Residential Unit is conveyed by means of a deed or other legal means of the conveyance, except for a mortgagee of an Institutional Mortgage whom shall be exempt for a portion of the Common Charges as provided below.

Notwithstanding any other provision in the Declaration of Condominium or the By-Laws any mortgagee of an Institutional Mortgage as defined in the Declaration of Condominium of Condominium who obtains title to a Residential Unit pursuant to the remedies in the mortgage or through foreclosure will not be liable for more than six (6) months of the Residential Unit's unpaid Common Charges accrued before acquisition of the title to the Residential Unit by the mortgagee unless otherwise required by law. If the Condominium's lien priority includes costs of collecting unpaid Common Charges and/or Special Assessments, the mortgagee of the Institutional Mortgage will be liable for any fees or costs related to the collection of unpaid Common Charges and/or Special Assessments. The unpaid balance of such Common Charges and/or Special Assessments that may be waived will be charged to all other Residential Unit Owners as a Common Expense. Upon acquisition of title the Institutional Mortgagee shall be responsible for all Common Charges, Special Assessments and/or any other costs and expenses of the Condominium thereafter due and payable.

The estimate of Condominium expenditures in Schedules A and B were made by the Sponsor and passed upon by Fairway Realty Group, Inc. Although the Sponsor is of the opinion that such estimates are accurate and reasonable, they are not intended and cannot be construed as an assurance of the actual expenses and are merely based upon information available at this time. Actual costs may be lesser or greater than as set forth herein.

It is presently anticipated that the Common Charges are to be used primarily to pay for the expenses detailed in Schedule B of the Offering Plan. The Common Charges and Common Expenses do not include maintenance, repairs or decoration of interior of the Residential Units or portions thereof, payments required pursuant to the terms of Residential Unit Owners' mortgages or real estate taxes covering the individual Residential Units.

The Common Charges which may be collected monthly by the Board of Managers and other costs of maintenance of the Residential Units are set forth on Schedule A. However, additional services which the Residential Unit Owners may desire, or other factors can increase these charges. Purchasers should refer to Schedule C for estimated utility costs applicable to an individual Residential Unit.

As long as the Sponsor retains control of the Board of Managers, the Board of Managers retains the right to delay the commencement of the collection of Common Charges. During any such delay period, the Sponsor will timely pay all expenses of the Condominium, including but not limited to insurance premiums and any reserve fund payments required by lenders. Upon the commencement of the collection of Common Charges, there will be no assessment of Residential Unit Owners for prior expenses of the budget during the period Sponsor was paying the Common Expenses of the Condominium. Sponsor shall remain obligated to update the budget for the Condominium as provided for in the governing regulations. In the event Sponsor elects to delay collection of Condominium Common Charges, it will disclose such fact in the closing notice to Purchasers and will further disclose such fact in the Post-Closing Amendment to the Offering Plan. Such Amendment will also disclose the anticipated period of delay. Sponsor will notify all Residential Unit Owners in writing of the expiration of the delay period at least 30 days prior to commencing collection of Common Charges and will disclose such fact in the following Amendment to the Offering Plan.

Where a Residential Unit is damaged by casualty and the proceeds of insurance are not sufficient to cover the repair of the damage, the amount necessary to restore the Residential Unit over and above the proceeds from any fire insurance on the Residential Units will be a Common Charge to all Residential Unit Owners. In order to protect the Residential Unit Owner against the possibility of such Common Charges, the Board of Managers determines the amount of blanket casualty insurance covering all Residential Units (the cost of such insurance is part of the Common Charges) and reviews the amount of such coverage annually.

Once title has passed to a Purchaser, the Purchaser will be responsible for all costs, including all Common Charges, in the event the collection of Common Charges has commenced, and all individual expenses associated with the Residential Unit, as well as any costs associated with Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Elements that are the Residential Unit Owner's responsibility and pertain to the Purchaser's Residential Unit.

Liens for the Non-Payment of Common Charges

Under Section 339-z of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, the Board of Managers shall have a lien against each Residential Unit for its unpaid Common Charges and legal interest thereon prior to all other liens except liens for the payment of taxes and all sums unpaid on a first mortgage of record. The lien shall continue in force even after resale of a Residential Unit except that the Board of Managers shall, in accordance with the Declaration of Condominium, release the lien and right to collect unpaid Common Charges against any Purchaser of a Residential Unit where such purchase arises out of a foreclosure of a first institutional mortgage when the Board of Managers has been made a party to the foreclosure action.

The Board of Managers may foreclose the lien in the same manner as a mortgage on real property or bring a separate action to collect the unpaid Common Charges and Special Assessments and in doing so shall be entitled to recover all costs incurred including reasonable attorney's fees. The liability of each Residential Unit Owner for the payment of Common Charges and Special Assessments thereafter assessed against the Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit shall terminate upon a sale, transfer or conveyance of such Residential Unit in accordance with the provisions of the Condominium Declaration of Condominium and By-Laws. Further, any Residential Unit Owner may convey their Residential Unit to the Board of Managers or its nominee, on behalf of all other Residential Unit Owners, without any compensation and in accordance with the Declaration of Condominium and By-Laws, and in such event the Residential Unit Owner shall be exempt from any Common Charges and Special Assessments thereafter assessed, but not relieved of their obligation to pay the Residential Unit Owner's mortgage. However, a Residential Unit Owner may not be exempt from liability for the Residential Unit Owner's Common Charges and Special Assessments by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any of the Common Elements or by abandonment of the Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit.

Upon a resale, the Purchaser of a Residential Unit shall be liable for the payment of unpaid Common Charges and Special Assessments assessed against such Residential Unit prior to the acquisition of such Residential Unit by the Purchaser. Notwithstanding any other provision in the Declaration of Condominium or the By-Laws any mortgagee of an Institutional Mortgage who obtains title to a Residential Unit pursuant to the remedies in the mortgage or through foreclosure will not be liable for more than six (6) months of the Residential Unit's unpaid Common Charges accrued before acquisition of the title to the Residential Unit by the mortgagee unless otherwise required by law. If the Condominium's lien priority includes costs of collecting unpaid Common Charges the mortgagee of the Institutional Mortgage will be liable for any fees or costs related to the collection of unpaid Common Charges. The unpaid balance of such Common Charges and/or Special Assessments that may be waived will be charged to all other Residential Unit Owners as a Common Expense. Upon acquisition of title the Institutional Mortgagee shall be responsible for all Common Charges, Special Assessments and/or any other costs and expenses of the Condominium thereafter due and payable.

During the period of time the Sponsor retains a majority of the seats of the Board of Managers, the Sponsor will cause the Board of Managers to file a lien as provided for in Section 339-aa of the Real Property Law on Residential Units in which Sponsor is more than thirty (30) days in arrears of Common Charges and Special Assessments.

Said method of determining the percentage of Common Interest in a Condominium complies with and is pursuant to the provisions of Section 339-i(1)(iv) of the Real Property Law of the State of New York.

The Percentage of Common Interest of each of the Residential Units has been determined pursuant to Section 339-i(1)(iv) of the Condominium Act, based on floor space, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Residential Unit, the availability of Common Elements for exclusive or shared use, and the overall dimensions of the particular Residential Unit. Based upon final specifications, construction conditions and/or "as-built" plans for the Building reflecting relative measurements, areas and uses of portions of the Building, application of such method of allocation the Percentage of Common Interest may justify a minor increase or decrease in the aggregate Percentage of Common Interest appurtenant to Residential Units. In such event, the Percentage of Common Interest appurtenant to each individual Residential Unit would be adjusted pro rata. Sponsor expressly reserves the right, from time to time, prior to the first Closing, to affect any change in the Percentages of Common Interest that is not a material change and to amend the Plan so as to reflect the same. Notwithstanding, unless an affected Purchaser consents, no material change will be made in the Percentages of Common Interest if a Purchase Agreement has been executed and delivered to the Sponsor for that Residential Unit and the Purchaser is not in default.

Copies of both the Declaration of Condominium and By-Laws are contained in Part II of the Offering Plan.

XX. REAL ESTATE TAXES

In accordance with the New York State Condominium Act, real estate taxes applicable to each Residential Unit will be separately assessed. The estimated monthly costs and charges to be incurred by the owner of each Residential Unit in the first year in which the property will be fully subject to real estate taxes together with estimated Common Charges on each Residential Unit and other carrying costs are set forth on Schedule A.

Real estate tax estimates are based upon information received from Metropolitan Realty Exemptions, Inc., 381 South 5th Street, Brooklyn, New York 11211. A tax opinion letter dated April 17, 2023, provided by Metropolitan Realty Exemptions, Inc., is contained in Section XXII of the Offering Plan. The projected figures in the opinion letter assume the applicability of a 2023/2024 residential class 1 tax rate of $20.309 per $100 of assessed valuation for the Residential Units for a total tax of $10,129.00 for tax year 2023/2024 and a total tax of $19,875.00 for tax year 2024/2025. The tax opinion letter assumes that the 2023/2024 residential class 1 tax rate of $20.309 per $100 of assessed valuation will remain consistent and that the same tax rate will apply in tax year 2024/2025.

Sponsor anticipates that the gut renovation of the Condominium will be completed by March 31, 2024, and per the opinion letter of Metropolitan Realty Exemptions, Inc., it is anticipated that the New York City Department of Finance ("Department of Finance") will reassess the value of the Property on the taxable status date of January 5, 2025. The Department of Finance releases tentative assessments of property value in New York City every January and issues final assessments every May, prior to the beginning of each tax year, which commences on July 1st.

The first year of Condominium operation is scheduled to commence on April 1, 2024, and end on March 31, 2025. As such, it is anticipated that taxes for the first year of operation will be assessed partly (approximately 25%) based on the Property's pre-completion valuation and partly (approximately 75%) based on its post-completion valuation. The blended total projected real estate taxes for the first year of operation is $17,439.00, which was calculated by Metropolitan Realty Exemptions, Inc., as follows:

Estimated Blended Taxes for First Year of Condominium Operation
	Assessed Value	Tax Rate	Real Estate Tax
25% of 2023/2024	$12,468.00	20.309%	$2,532.00
75% of 2024/2025	$73,398.00	20.309%	$14,906.00
TOTAL	$85,866.00		$17,439.00

The projected real estate taxes applicable to the Residential Units during the first year of operation contained in Schedule A are based on an assessment of the Building after the gut renovation is complete. Therefore, the real estate tax projection in Schedule A is intended to disclose the taxes projected to be applicable post completion of construction/renovation and reassessment. Notwithstanding, in view of the fact the Department of Finance of the City of New York ("DOF") has not issued a final post construction assessment, real estate taxes may increase materially after DOF issues its final post renovation assessment. See Section XX of the Offering Plan and below for more information regarding the projected assessed valuation after completion of rehabilitation.

The total estimated post completion of renovation valuation for the entire Condominium for the 2024/2025 tax year is estimated to be $97,864.00 and total taxes for all the Residential Units for said period is estimated to be $19,875.00. Sponsor has been advised by its consultant that it is the policy and practice of the New York City Department of Finance ("Finance") to apportion the assessed valuation of a condominium among the various units based upon the percentage of common interest contained in the Declaration of Condominium. Estimated real property taxes by unit once fully assessed after renovation is complete (i.e., fiscal 2024/2025) based on relative percentages of Common Interest set forth in Schedule A in the Offering Plan are as follows:

1	41%	$40,124.24	$8,148.75
2	25%	$24,466.00	$4,968.75
3	34%	$33,273.76	$6,757.50

It should be noted that, although it is currently Finance's stated policy to apportion the assessed values of condominium properties among the various units on this basis, Finance has used different methodologies in the past. No warranty or guarantee is made herein that assessed values will not be apportioned based on a different method.

The figures set forth above are approximations derived from material submitted by the Sponsor and publicly available tax records and are subject to amendment. No government agency has passed upon these figures or the estimates of assessed valuation and taxes above. Neither the Sponsor nor its counsel have passed on the accuracy of any figures or estimates contained in the Offering Plan, and offer no warranties on real estate assessments, tax classifications, taxes or tax rates for any period. All prospective Purchasers are advised that, although the estimates of assessed valuations upon conversion are good faith estimates, such assessed valuations when actually made may be less or greater than as estimated above.

The above estimates do not take into account any future increases in the level of assessed valuation applied to residential property or any increase in the real estate tax rates. The above estimates are based upon interpretations of The New York State Real Property Tax Law and The Administrative Code of the City of New York and are not intended to be a guarantee or assurance that the actual or transitional tax assessments, tax rates, or actual taxes will be as estimated.

No representation is made that the provisions of law or New York City Department of Finance policies and practices will apply at the time the property's conversion is complete. Purchasers should be aware that the laws, regulations and practices of the Department of Finance upon which the above estimates are predicted may in the future be revised in a manner adverse to a Purchaser's interests, or that there may be an adverse interpretation of the law or regulation by one or more agencies of the City of New York, or Courts of competent jurisdiction.

The above estimates are not intended and should not be construed as representations or warranties that assessments, tax rates, and taxes will not be determined in a different amount. The foregoing analysis is based upon the knowledge of the making and review of assessments by the Real Property Assessment Department and the Tax Commission of the City of New York with respect to "class 1" residential properties held in the condominium form of ownership. Application of a particular approach to valuation by an individual assessor may yield a different result.

Each Residential Unit will be given a separate block and lot designation.

Although the aforesaid estimate of Actual Assessed Valuation is a good faith estimate, it is not possible to estimate the same with any degree of certainty. Assessed valuations, when actually made, may be lesser or greater based on interpretation of the administrative code and the applicable rules and regulations of the City of New York. The estimates are not intended and should not be construed as warranties as to future assessed valuations of the Property.

Although in the Sponsor's opinion this method of calculating the real estate taxes applicable to each Residential Unit is reasonable, there can be no assurance that final exemption will be granted or that this method of calculation of real estate taxes applicable to each Residential Unit will be the final method used by the New York City taxing authorities in establishing the real estate tax assessment for each Residential Unit. If for any reason a different method of calculation is used, or a different assessment is placed upon any of the Residential Units by such authorities, or the tax rates change, real estate taxes may increase or decrease, depending upon the final decision of such taxing authorities.

Since the New York State Condominium Act provides that real estate taxes will be separately assessed against each individual Residential Unit Owner, the result of the tax exemption program will be to give each individual Residential Unit Owner the applicable benefit of the tax exemption program.

In the event the Residential Units have not been separately assessed for real estate tax purposes prior to the Closing of Title to the first Residential Unit, Sponsor may place in escrow, in the name of the Board of Managers, an amount equal to the unpaid real estate taxes which will be levied against the Residential Units in the Condominium for the six (6) month period following the first Closing. Thereafter, at each Closing during said period, each Purchaser will reimburse the Sponsor for the pro-rata amount paid on behalf of said Residential Unit. Alternatively, the Sponsor may place in escrow, in the name of Board of Managers, an amount equal to the real estate taxes attributable to the unsold Residential Units for such six (6) month period and may collect at each Closing the estimated amount of taxes attributable to such Residential Unit for the balance of the six (6) month period. The Board of Managers will pay the real estate taxes from the escrow account when taxes are due and payable. After the Residential Units are separately assessed, the funder of the escrow account or the Residential Unit Owner will be reimbursed for any overpayment of taxes or assessed for an underpayment.

After the Residential Units are separately assessed Residential Unit Owners will not be responsible for the payment of or subject to any lien arising from the non-payment of real estate taxes on any other Residential Unit.

There are no tax certiorari proceedings currently pending for the property. The By-Laws empower the Board of Managers to bring such proceedings on behalf of the Residential Unit Owners. Specifically, the By-Laws provide that the Board of Managers has the right to act as an agent for one (1) or more Residential Unit Owners to file a single complaint and bring a special proceeding on behalf of Residential Unit Owners who wish to contest the real estate tax assessments of their Residential Unit if applicable, pursuant to Section 339-y(4) of the New York Property Law. In such event, the Board of Managers on behalf of the Condominium could retain counsel on behalf of such Residential Unit Owners and charge each Residential Unit Owner for whom it is acting a pro rata share of expenses, disbursements and legal fees, the payment for which would be secured by a lien on each Residential Unit. The Board of Managers on behalf of the Condominium is not obligated to perform such services and it is necessary to obtain the written authorization of the Residential Unit Owners. See Article III, Section 7(a)(16) of the By-Laws.

The Sponsor anticipates that the real estate tax rate will vary in future years rather than remain constant. The estimates of projected real estate taxes in this Offering Plan have been prepared by the Sponsor and cannot be construed as an assurance of the final tax costs but are merely estimates based upon information available to the Sponsor at this time. As such, the estimated real estate taxes are not a guarantee. No assurances can be given that the real estate taxes applicable to a Residential Unit will not change. In no event will the Sponsor, the Sponsor's counsel, any selling agent or any other person be liable if there are changes in the facts on which the real estate taxes were relied upon. All Purchasers are advised to consult with their attorney or real estate tax consultant as to the real estate taxes that may be applicable in purchasing and owning a Residential Unit in the Condominium.

A copy of the opinion letter from Metropolitan Realty Exemptions, Inc. is contained in Section XII of the Offering Plan.

XXI. INCOME TAX DEDUCTIONS TO RESIDENTIAL UNIT OWNERS AND TAX STATUS OF THE CONDOMINIUM

The Sponsor has been advised by its counsel, Certilman Balin Adler & Hyman, LLP that each Residential Unit Owner will be entitled under present law to a deduction for Federal, New York State and New York City income tax purposes for the real estate taxes paid by each Residential Unit Owner covering their Residential Unit and, provided the Residential Unit is used as the Residential Unit Owner's primary residence or one (l) other residence that the Residential Unit Owner selects pursuant to Section 163(h) of the Internal Revenue code of 1986, for the interest paid by the Residential Unit Owner on any mortgage, covering the Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit. Purchasers should note that pursuant to the Federal Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 (the "Tax Act"), which went into effect on January 1, 2018, the maximum mortgage in which an individual can deduct the interest on is $750,000. In addition, the Tax Act placed a maximum of $10,000 on the amount an individual can deduct for the combined amount of real estate taxes and State income taxes. The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 is scheduled to expire on December 31, 2025. Purchasers are advised to seek the advice of their tax consultant to ascertain the income tax ramifications to the Purchaser pursuant to the Tax Act. See the Opinion of Counsel in Section XXII of the Offering Plan. Similarly, the Sponsor has been advised by counsel that certain Residential Unit Owners who are veterans of the Residential United States Armed Forces may be entitled to deductions covering part of the real estate taxes applicable to their respective Residential Units.

Purchasers are advised to seek the advice of their tax consultant to ascertain the income tax ramifications to the Purchaser pursuant to the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017.

The Sponsor has been advised by its counsel that the Condominium will be taxed on any excess of income over expenses from unrelated sources. Examples of unrelated source income include interest earned on reserve and other invested funds, income from concessions and income from dues or fees received from persons other than the Residential Unit Owners. If the Condominium is required to pay taxes, the amount thereof will be levied as an additional Common Charge.

Sponsor has also been advised that pursuant to Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code, certain Condominiums, substantially all of whose Residential Units are used for residences, are afforded the opportunity to elect to be treated as tax exempt organizations. In order to qualify, sixty (60%) percent or more of the gross income of each must consist of amounts received as membership dues, fees or assessments from the Residential Unit Owners and ninety (90%) percent or more of the expenditures of each must be for the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance and care of the Condominium Properties, which properties, as defined in Section 528 of said Code, include property held by the Condominium, property commonly held by the Residential Unit Owners of the Condominium, or property within the Condominium held by the Residential Unit Owners of the Condominium. This Condominium has been structured so that it will meet the requirements of Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code and as a result the Condominium will be eligible to be treated as a tax-exempt organization under Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code. Purchasers should refer to the Opinion of Counsel in Section XXII of the Offering Plan.

Re: 577 10TH STREET CONDOMINIUM

Gentlepeople:

We note that the Offering Plan for the above-captioned Condominium states that it is believed that the monthly payments of interest on any mortgage, up to a maximum mortgage of $750,000, which becomes a lien on a condominium Residential Unit and real estate taxes payable by a Residential Unit Owner, which are assessed against the Residential Unit by any governmental taxing authority, are a proper deduction in connection with Federal, New York State and New York City Income Taxes payable by the owner of such Condominium Residential Unit to the aforesaid maximum amount currently allowed by law pursuant to the Federal Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 (the "Tax Act"), which went into effect on January 1, 2018. In addition, the Tax Act placed a maximum of $10,000 on the amount an individual can deduct for Federal income taxes for the combined amount of real estate taxes and State income taxes. The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 is scheduled to expire on December 31, 2025.

We have given this matter careful study, and it is our opinion that, pursuant to the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") the provision of the New York State Law (See Section 615 of the Tax Law), such interest payments and the aforesaid real estate payments are proper deductions by the owner of a Condominium Residential Unit, in connection with their Federal income taxes to the maximum amount currently allowed by the Act and New York State and City income taxes to maximum allowed in each jurisdiction. Similarly, we are of the opinion that each Condominium Residential Unit Owner whose Residential Unit is their principal residence will be entitled, under the Code and Section 615 (a) of the State Law, to deduct interest paid or accrued by the Residential Unit Owner on any mortgage which becomes a lien on a Condominium Residential Unit to the maximum amount allowed by applicable law.

Pursuant to Section 528 of the Code, certain Condominiums, substantially all of whose Residential Units are used for residences, have the opportunity to elect to be treated as tax exempt organizations. In order to qualify, sixty (60%) percent or more of the gross income of each must consist of amounts received as membership dues, fees or assessments from the Residential Unit Owners and ninety (90%) percent or more of the expenditures of each must be for the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance and care of the Condominium properties, which properties, as defined in 528 of the Code, include property held by the Condominium, or property within the Condominium. Based upon our examination of the Offering Plan and subject to the Condominium, actually satisfying the minimum percentage income and expenditure criteria set forth above, it is our opinion that the Condominium will be eligible to be treated as a tax-exempt organization under Section 528 of the Code.

Such an election will exempt from Federal, New York State and New York City Income Taxation all amounts received by the Condominium from the Residential Unit Owners as membership dues, fees or assessments. The Condominium will be taxed, however, on any excess of income over expenses from unrelated sources. Examples of unrelated sources income include interest earned on reserve funds, income from concessions and income from dues or fees received from persons other than the Residential Unit Owners. In the event the Condominium fails to qualify for and elect Section 528 taxation status in any year, it may, to the extent it has any income from unrelated sources or from accumulated revenues received by virtue of dues, fees and assessments received from Residential Unit Owners not expended in any taxable year, be subject to Federal, New York State and New York City Income Taxation (see Rev. Ruling 74-99, 1974-1 C.B. 131).

We have considered the relevant cases and rulings on the tax status of the Condominium including Revenue Rulings 74-17, 74-99, 75-370 and 75-371. These rulings, under certain circumstances, permit assessments for capital replacements and new or replacement equipment to be excluded from the Condominium's income and be treated for tax purposes as additional capital contributions. In such case each Residential Unit Owner's assessment for such purposes would add to their tax basis. Although the Condominium described in the Offering Plan may be deemed a taxable entity under such Rulings, assuming that all expenses are designated and accounted for, and that certain other special purpose assessments are properly treated as trust funds, the Condominium should not realize any significant amount of taxable income, other that with respect to incidental investment income, such as interest earned on reserve funds deposited in bank accounts.

We have examined the exceptions to title set forth in Section XIV of the Offering Plan, and we are of the opinion that none of such exceptions of title are contrary to the terms of the Purchase Agreement nor do they interfere with the quiet use or enjoyment of the Purchaser's Residential Unit as set forth in the Offering Plan.

We have examined the Declaration of Condominium and By-Laws pertaining to the proposed Condominium. It is our opinion that the Declaration of Condominium and By-Laws, when recorded, will validly create a Condominium in accordance with Article 9-B of the Real Property Law of the State of New York.

In addition, we note that the Percentage of Common Interest for each Residential Unit as contained in Schedule A has been determined based upon floor space, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Residential Unit, the availability of Common Elements for exclusive or shared use, and overall dimensions of the particular Residential Unit. In our opinion, this is a proper method of determining the percentage of common interest in a Condominium and complies with Section 339-i(1)(iv) of the Real Property Law.

In our opinion, the Condominium will be eligible for tax exempt status, if it so elects, and Residential Unit Owners will be entitled to the above-mentioned income tax deductions. However, this opinion is not a guarantee; it is based on existing rules of law applied to the given facts and documents referred to above. No assurances can be given that the tax laws upon which counsel bases this opinion will not change. In no event will the Sponsor, the Sponsor's counsel, the Board of Managers of the Condominium, any selling agent or any other person be liable if there are changes in the facts on which counsel relied in issuing this opinion or if there are changes in the applicable statues, regulations, decisional law or Internal Revenue Service rulings on which counsel relied which cause the Condominium to cease to meet the requirements of Section 528 of the Code or the New York State tax law as amended or New York City tax law and Residential Unit Owners not to be entitled to income tax deductions. All Purchasers are advised to consult with their personal tax consultant as to purchasing and owning a Residential Unit in the Condominium.

Letter of Opinion Regarding Real Estate Tax Liabilities
Three (3) Residential Condominium Units

Dear Sir,

You have requested us to advise you with our opinion in respect to determining the projected Annual Assessment and tax liabilities regarding the above captioned real property according to our experiences.

The New York City Department of Finance assesses the values of all New York City residential and commercial properties annually. Based on the assessor's determination of the assessment on taxable status date January 5th, the Department of Finance releases tentative assessments of the property value in January of every year and final assessments every May, prior to the beginning of each tax year, which commences July 1st.

Real Property tax rates set each year by the City Council are applied to these property values, to determine each homeowner's annual tax liability.

The property tax assessment process commences when the city's assessors determine the market value of the property. For one-, two- and three-family homes (tax class 1), Finance estimates market values based on comparable sales. Finance's records indicate that the assessor's assessment on market values, only deviate from actual sales prices by 15 percent or less.

In rendering this opinion, we have relied upon the following facts and information that you have provided us with:

- The subject property is located at 577 10 Street Brooklyn, NY, and is known as Block: 1092, Lot: 56, with the NYC Department of Finance ("DOF").
- The proposed is to convert an existing 3-family house into 3 condominium units.
- There will be separate condominium tax lots filed with the DOF for each residential unit.
- The property is currently classed as Tax Class 1 with the DOF.
- Based on the explanation below, the DOF Surveyor's Office shall class the structure as a tax class one (1) and thus levy the assessed value on a 6% rate of the market value.

Tax Class 1 CAP
Per New York Real Property Tax Law Section 1805, tax class one (1) properties are subject to an assessment cap of 6%. Specifically, the law states that an assessor of any special assessing unit "shall not increase the assessed value of any tax class 1 property" in a single year by more than 6% of the previous year's assessed value, as listed on the assessment roll. Additionally, the assessor may not increase the tax class one (1) property's assessed value by more than 20% within any five-year period. The assessment cap does not apply to increases in assessed value due to physical alterations or the expiration of any tax exemptions or abatements.

We believe there will be a substantial increase in value for 2024/25 as a result of the new construction, and that such increase will be placed on the assessment roll immediately and not subject to the limitation on increases described above.
In future years increases in assessed value cannot exceed 6% annually and 20% over any five-year period.

In the event if the Department of Finance will change the classification to a Tax Class 2, the assessed value and property taxes will differ the amounts listed below.

Proposed Real Estate Tax Liabilities
We have taken the following factors in account when formulating our opinion: (a) the recent tax assessment history on the property; (b) the potential income for the new residential building; (c) comparable rental projects in Brooklyn (specifically, in the Gowanus neighborhood) which have been recently altered; (d) market conditions in the general area; (e) proposed estimate of the cost of construction; and (f) calculation of the gross floor area mentioned above.

2023/24 Mid-Construction Assessed Value and Tax Liability
As per the Tentative Assessment from the Taxable Status Date of January 5, 2023, the DOF has set the 2023/24 Tentative Taxable Assessed Value at $49,872.

Using the 2023 tax rate of 20.309% for tax class 1 (i.e., $20.309 per $100 of AV), the annual tax liability is $10,129. This amount will be the tax liability for tax year starting July 1, 2023 and ending June 30, 2024.

Upon completion of construction, it is anticipated that the first tax year during which full valuation (with the above-estimated amounts) will be reflected will be tax year 2024/25.

2024/25 Post-Completion Projected Assessed Value and Tax Liability
Considering the aforementioned factors, we are estimating that for the post-completion tax year of 2024/25, the DOF will set the Taxable Assessed Value at approximately $97,864.

Assuming the 2023 tax rate of 20.309% for tax class 1 (i.e., $20.309 per $100 of AV), the Projected Tax Liability will be approximately $19,875.

In determining the assessed values for the individual units, the Department of Finance may use the common interest percentages set forth in the condominium declaration if such percentages are rationally and fairly determined.

Blended Taxes for First Year of Condo Operation
The first year of condominium operation will begin on April 1, 2024 and end on March 31, 2025. Taxes for the first year of condominium operation will be as follows:

Estimated Full Tax Liability 2023/24 and 2024/25 Tax Years

	Assessed Value	Tax Rate	Real Estate Tax
2023/24 TAX YEAR	$49,872	20.309%	$10,129

Estimated Taxes First Year of Condominium Operation

	Assessed Value	Tax Rate	Real Estate Tax
25% of year 2023/24	$12,468	20.309%	$2,532
75% of year 2024/25	$73,398	20.309%	$14,906
First Year of Condominium Operation	$85,866		$17,439

Taxes for the first year of condominium operation will be comprised of 25% of the taxes due for the 2023/24 tax year and 75% of the taxes due for the 2024/25 tax year.

Disclaimer
Though the aforesaid estimate of the Actual Assessed Valuation is a good-faith estimate, it is not possible to estimate same with any degree of certainty. Assessed valuations, when made, may be lesser or greater based on the interpretation of the administrative code and the applicable rules and regulations of the City of New York.

Although we believe our opinions are well-founded, they are not intended, and should not be construed as warranties or guaranties or representations as to future assessed valuations of the property under discussion and we accept no responsibility or liability in the event that the figures or projections set forth herein are incorrect or inaccurate. In no event will this firm, the Sponsor, the Sponsor's counsel or any other person be liable if the assessed valuation, when actually made, is lesser or greater that that estimated above, or if the administrative code and the applicable rules and regulations of the City of New York are changed in the future, or if the facts as represented prove to be untrue.

Sincerely yours,

Martin Joseph
Metropolitan Realty Exemptions, Inc.

XXIII. RESERVE FUND

The Condominium budget includes a reserve fund line item to be used for future major capital improvements of the Condominium. In view of the fact the Condominium will be a gut renovation, it is not anticipated that there should be any major capital repairs or replacements during the first five (5) years of operation of the Condominium.

No representation is made that the reserve fund line item will be adequate for future expenses including repairs or replacements of Common Elements during the first five (5) years of the Condominium. If additional funds are required over and above said funds, it may be necessary to increase the Common Charges payable by the Residential Unit Owners, collect a Special Assessment from each Residential Unit Owner or borrow money.

During the period Sponsor is in control of the Board of Managers, the reserve fund will not be used to reduce the estimated Common Charges.

Neither the Department of Law nor any other Governmental Agency has passed upon the adequacy of the reserve fund.

Article VI, Section 3 of the By-Laws authorizes the establishment of a reserve fund.

Article III, Section 3 of the By-Laws authorizes the Board of Managers to borrow money on behalf of the Condominium when required in connection with needed capital expenditures such as repair or replacement of Building components or systems or to remedy major Building defects, provided, however, that no lien to secure repayment of any sum borrowed may be created on any Residential Unit or its appurtenant interest in the Common Elements without the written consent of the Owners of said Residential Unit. No representation is made by the Sponsor as to the availability or cost of such financing. In the event the Condominium is unable to borrow the money, the Board of Managers may be required to assess each Residential Unit Owner for its applicable pro-rata share of the cost of the needed capital expenditure.

XXIV. WORKING CAPITAL FUND

At Closing the Sponsor will collect the equivalent of two (2) months Common Charges from each Purchaser to be paid to the Condominium as initial Working Capital. While Sponsor is in control of the Board of Managers of the Condominium the Working Capital funds may be used to reduce the Common Charges. The Working Capital fund may also be utilized to reimburse Sponsor for prepaid expenses of the Condominium. The only budgetary item that might require a substantial credit to the Sponsor would be the insurance disclosed in Schedule B. At such time as the Sponsor relinquishes control of the Board of Managers any remaining balance of the Working Capital fund will be turned over to the Board of Managers.

Neither the Department of Law nor any other Governmental Agency has passed upon the adequacy of the Working Capital funds.

XXV. MANAGEMENT AGREEMENT, CONTRACTS AND LEASES

The Sponsor has not entered into any management agreement to provide for management of the Condominium for the first year of operation and there is no fee for a managing agent in the proposed budget for the first year of operation of the Condominium. During the Sponsor Control Period, the Sponsor will be in control of the Board of Managers and will de facto manage the Condominium. The Sponsor will not charge a fee for managing the Condominium for the first year of operation. However, in the event that Sponsor is still in control of the Condominium after the first year of operation, Sponsor reserves the right to charge a fee of not more than $8,000 per year in total for its services in managing the Condominium.

The Board of Managers of the Condominium will be responsible for the management of the Condominium, and may perform this function itself or hire a managing agent to bill and collect the Common Charges, hire and fire employees, supervise alterations and repairs, maintain the Condominium's books and records, advise the Board of Managers of its proposed annual budget, provide each Residential Unit Owner annually with a Financial Statement prepared by an independent public accountant, purchase supplies for the Condominium and generally perform the duties of a managing agent for a Condominium. During the period Sponsor maintains a majority of the Board of Managers, the financial statement will be certified. In performing its duties, the Board of Managers or a managing agent employed by it, may engage contractors for the purpose of carrying out the maintenance and repair of the Condominium. No representation is made as to the costs, terms, or availability of a third-party managing agent in the event the Board decides to hire one in the future. Notwithstanding said fact, a Condominium of this size may ultimately determine there is a need to hire a managing agent. The current cost of a managing agent to manage a Condominium of this size may vary from approximately $1,000 per annum per Residential Unit to approximately $1,500 per annum per Residential Unit. Prospective Purchasers should see the footnotes to Schedule B regarding other contractual arrangements the Condominium may be subject to.

Other than as described in the Footnotes to Schedule B, the Sponsor has not entered into any service agreements that will be binding on the Condominium. In the event the Sponsor enters into any such agreement(s), the Sponsor will amend the Offering Plan to disclose the name of the contractor, the services rendered or received, the annual income or cost, and the expiration date of the agreement.

Purchaser agrees to be bound by the Offering Plan, including all amendments thereto now or hereafter filed by Seller (collectively, the "Plan"). Seller may freely amend the Plan in any respect from time to time, without Purchaser's approval or consent, subject to the provisions of applicable law and the terms of the Plan, including without limitation, Section IX thereof respecting Changes in Prices and Units. Purchaser acknowledges having received and read the Plan at least three (3) business days prior to signing this Purchase Agreement and having had full opportunity to examine all papers and documents and investigate all matters set forth in the Plan. Any defined term set forth in this Purchase Agreement which is not specifically defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Plan.

Purchaser shall deliver all documents to Seller and perform all acts required by Seller to carry out the provisions of the Plan, establish the Condominium and conform to all applicable laws and regulations. This Paragraph shall survive Closing and delivery of the deed.

4) MORTGAGE FINANCING - This Purchase Agreement is not conditioned upon Purchaser obtaining mortgage financing. In the event Purchaser is unable to obtain a mortgage, this Purchase Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Purchaser shall have an ongoing obligation to consummate the transaction contemplated by this Agreement. If Purchaser does not consummate this transaction and close title to the Unit as a result of Purchaser's inability to obtain a mortgage, Purchaser will be in default under this Purchase Agreement and Seller may retain all monies as provided for in Paragraph 22 herein.

5) CLOSING - The act of transferring ownership of the Unit in return for payment in full of the Purchase Price and all other sums due from Purchaser under this Purchase Agreement is known as the "Closing". The date of the transfer of title on the Unit to Purchaser is the Closing Date. The closing date set forth on the first page of this Purchase Agreement is an approximate date (the "Anticipated Closing Date") and Seller cannot make any guarantees that such date will be the actual Closing Date. Seller shall have the right to adjourn or advance the Closing Date as provided herein. The Closing shall take place at such time and place and on such date as Seller shall designate by prior written notice (the "Notice for Closing") delivered in accordance with Paragraph 30 herein, which shall be given no less than thirty (30) days before the date set for Closing. Purchaser may waive the thirty (30) day notice period by execution and delivery of a waiver in the form set forth as Schedule D-3 to this Purchase Agreement.

Should Seller be unable to convey title to Purchaser in accordance with the Notice for Closing, Seller shall have the right, from time to time, to adjourn the date and time for Closing on written notice to Purchaser. In such event, Seller shall, by a new Notice for Closing, fix a new date and time for Closing, which shall be no less than ten (10) days before the new scheduled date and time for Closing. The Closing shall take place at the office of the Seller's attorney.

If the Closing takes place, at the request of Purchaser or Purchaser's Lender, at any location other than the office of Seller's attorney, Purchaser shall pay to Seller's attorney a travel fee in the sum of $450.00. The Closing may not take place in any location other than the office of Seller's attorney without Seller's prior written consent.

In the event the Closing is adjourned at the request of Purchaser, Purchaser's attorney, or Purchaser's lender (or lender's attorney), if any, within forty-eight (48) hours of the scheduled time of Closing, Purchaser shall pay Seller's attorney an adjournment fee in the sum of $350.00.

If Purchaser is not in default under this Purchase Agreement and the Closing has not taken place within twelve (12) months after the Anticipated Closing Date, either Seller or Purchaser may cancel this Purchase Agreement by forwarding written notice of cancellation ("Notice of Cancellation") to the other no later than ten (10) days after expiration of such twelve (12) month period. Failure to timely and properly notify Seller shall be deemed a waiver of this provision, and Purchaser shall continue to be bound by the terms of this Purchase Agreement. Upon receipt of the Notice of Cancellation, Escrow Agent shall refund to Purchaser, subject to the escrow provisions as disclosed in Section XII of the Plan and Paragraph 29 of this Purchase Agreement, all Deposits, other than Extras which have been (i) installed by Seller, (ii) not installed but paid for by Seller or (iii) not installed but which have been ordered by Seller and for which Seller is obligated to pay, unless the Plan has been abandoned. In the event the Plan is abandoned Purchaser shall be entitled to receive a refund of all funds paid to Seller for such Extras. Thereafter, neither party shall have any further liability or obligation to the other in connection with this Purchase Agreement. In the event Seller shall be unable to convey title to the Unit within twenty-four (24) months of the Anticipated Closing Date through no fault of Purchaser, this Purchase Agreement shall be deemed null and void and Escrow Agent shall return all monies being held in escrow within thirty (30) days thereafter.

6) CLOSING COSTS - In addition to all other sums payable or reimbursable elsewhere under this Purchase Agreement, at Closing Purchaser shall pay, or reimburse to Seller if Seller has already made payment, or pay to any lender, all applicable charges for:

(a) any lender's charges for inspections, appraisals, title examination and policy insuring the lender's interest, lender's attorneys' fees for preparation of all loan documents, all commitment fees, points, origination fees and other fees and charges (however characterized) imposed or exacted by the lender or incurred by Seller or Purchaser in connection with Purchaser's mortgage loan;

(b) any mortgage recording taxes on Purchaser's mortgage;

(c) governmental charges which may be assessed on account of any mortgage loan;

(d) mortgage insurance, if required, on Purchaser's mortgage;

(e) New York State Real Estate Transfer Tax on the deed;

(f) New York City Real Property Transfer Tax on the deed;

(g) Mansion Tax pursuant to Section 1402-a and 1402-b of the Tax Law of the State of New York, if applicable;

(h) all recording and filing charges payable on account of the transfer of title and the recording of all documents in connection with this transaction, including, without limitation, any mortgage, the deed, any power of attorney (including the condominium unit power of attorney), affidavits required pursuant to Section 339-ee of the New York State Real Property Law, any documents required to be recorded in connection with this Purchase Agreement and any mortgage releases, terminations (including terminations of assignments of leases and rents) and UCC-3 partial terminations and any mortgage pick-up fee or similar fee that shall be imposed by Purchaser's title company in connection with the payoff and/or release of Seller's mortgages;

(i) in the event that any mortgage of Seller shall be assigned to Purchaser's lender and/or assumed by Purchaser at Closing, a sum equal to the partial mortgage tax credit to which Purchaser may be entitled under any applicable law by reason of mortgage taxes having been previously paid by Seller;

(j) an initial non-reimbursable capital contribution equal to the equivalent of two (2) months Common Charges to the Condominium;

(k) a pro-rata reimbursement of the Condominium's current year's insurance premium;

(l) $150 fee for the completion of any lender's mortgage questionnaire;

(m) any other municipal and/or utility company fees applicable to the Unit;

(n) $3000 to Seller's attorney for the preparation of the closing documents;

(o) $450 travel fee for Seller's attorney to travel to and from the Closing, if closing occurs at any location other than the office of Seller's attorney; and

(p) $350 adjournment fee in the event the Closing is adjourned within forty-eight (48) hours of the actual Closing Date;

(q) $1,000 water tap fee;

(r) $1,000 sewer tap fee; and

(s) $1,000 survey fee.

Seller shall also be entitled to any other costs referenced to in Section XV of the Plan if not specifically contained herein.

Purchaser shall also apportion with Seller as of the end of the day prior to Closing, and pay to Seller at Closing, the apportioned amount due for taxes, Condominium Common Charges, one (1) month advanced additional Common Charge, sewer use (if applicable), water use, fuel oil, electricity, gas, and any other utility costs. Purchaser shall also pay the deposits required by Purchaser's lender to establish the estimated or escrow fund for future payment of taxes, Condominium Common Charges, sewer use and insurance premiums (if applicable).

If through no fault of Seller, Purchaser fails for any reason to close title on the date originally scheduled in the Notice for Closing, or such later date (if applicable) to which Seller in a subsequent Notice for Closing adjourned the Closing, all of the aforementioned apportionments shall be made as of the end of the day preceding (i) the date originally scheduled for Closing or (ii) Seller's adjourned Closing Date, as the case may be.

If Purchaser fails to close title to the Unit on or before the date set forth in the Notice for Closing, Purchaser shall pay to Seller at or prior to the date of the actual adjourned Closing, an amount equal to .0438% per diem (which equals an annual rate of 16%) of the Purchase Price for each day beyond such originally scheduled or Seller adjourned Closing Date, to and including the date of actual Closing, for reimbursement and defrayal of Seller's carrying costs and other charges, which amount Purchaser acknowledges to be reasonable and proper.

Any errors or omissions in computing apportionments or any other sums payable under this Purchase Agreement which are communicated to the other party within six (6) months after the Closing Date shall be corrected and payment made to the proper party promptly after such communication. This Paragraph shall survive Closing and delivery of the deed.

7) SEVERANCE OF MORTGAGE - Purchaser shall use its best efforts to direct Purchaser's lender (i) to accept an assignment of the existing mortgage(s) encumbering the Property, as severed, to encumber only the Unit and its appurtenant percentage of Common Interest in the Common Elements, and (ii) to cooperate with Seller and Seller's existing lender as necessary to effectuate such assignment. At Closing, Purchaser shall execute the affidavits required pursuant to Section 255 of the Tax Law of the State of New York. It is agreed and understood that Seller shall receive, as a credit from Purchaser at Closing, a sum equal to the full mortgage tax credit which Purchaser may be entitled under any applicable law by reason of mortgage taxes having been previously paid by Seller on the amount of Purchaser's mortgage. The foregoing credit shall be paid by Purchaser regardless of whether Purchaser's lender accepts the assignment of Seller's existing mortgage, as severed.

8) MORTGAGE(S) - All terms and provisions of this Purchase Agreement and all payments made hereunder are and shall be subject and subordinate to the lien of any acquisition, improvement, interim or building loan mortgage heretofore or hereafter made and any advances heretofore or hereafter made thereon, to the full extent thereof without the execution of any further documents by Purchaser. This subordination shall apply whether such advances are voluntary or involuntary and whether made in accordance with the loan schedule of payments or accelerated thereunder by virtue of the lender's right to make advances before they become due in accordance with the schedule of payments. Seller shall satisfy all such mortgages or obtain a release of the Unit and its appurtenant percentage of Common Interest in the Common Elements from the liens of such mortgage(s) at or prior to Closing, unless Purchaser shall be required to take title subject to the existing mortgage(s), as severed and converted to Purchaser's individual mortgage encumbering the Unit.

9) DEED AND ENCUMBRANCES UPON OWNERSHIP - The deed to be given by Seller to Purchaser at Closing shall be a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, but subject, nevertheless, to the matters set forth in sub-paragraphs (a) through (f) below and any additional exceptions stated in Section XV of the Plan, as it may be amended, which need not be recited in the deed given at Closing, but shall survive Closing, and Seller's covenant in the deed against encumbrances shall be deemed modified accordingly. The deed shall be duly executed and acknowledged by Seller in proper statutory form for recording (except for payment of the New York State and New York City transfer and Mansion taxes, which is the obligation of Purchaser) so as to convey to Purchaser fee simple title to the Unit, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, except as herein stated. The deed shall also contain the covenant required by subdivision 5 of Section 13 of the Lien Law of the State of New York. Purchaser shall accept such title to the Unit subject to the liens, encumbrances and other matters set forth in this Purchase Agreement, as Cornerstone Land Abstract, LLC, as agent for a title company authorized to do business in the State of New York (the "Title Company") with an address at: 248-52 Jericho Turnpike, Bellerose Village, New York 11001, telephone number (516) 327-5400, is willing to approve and insure without additional premium. Purchaser may obtain title insurance from any other title insurance company or abstract company, or Purchaser may decline to obtain any title insurance at all.

Purchaser shall be responsible for payment to the title insurance company or abstract company, as the case may be, of the entire premium for Purchaser's title insurance, and shall also pay the applicable New York State Real Estate Transfer Tax, New York City Real Property Transfer Tax, and Additional (Mansion) Tax, if applicable.

Purchaser will be obligated to pay the New York City Real Property Transfer Tax and New York State Real Estate Transfer Tax, which by law are the primary obligation of the Sponsor but have been transferred to a Purchaser under the terms of this Purchase Agreement. The New York State Real Estate Transfer Taxes are at the rate of $2.00 per $500 of consideration where the consideration is less than $3,000,000 and $3.25 per $500 where the consideration is $3,000,000 or more. New York City Real Property Transfer Tax is at the rate of one (1%) percent of the Purchase Price for Residential Units where the consideration is less than $500,000 and 1.4259 percent where the consideration is $500,000 or greater. Pursuant to Section 1404(a) of the Tax Law, effective July 1, 2021, where New York State Real Estate Transfer Tax is paid by the Purchaser pursuant to contractual agreement, such tax will be excluded from the total calculation of consideration. However, the amount of New York City Real Property Transfer Tax will be included in the consideration subject to such tax.

In addition, pursuant to Sections 1402-a and 1402-b of the Tax Law of the State of New York, Purchaser is required to pay an Additional Tax for any Residential Unit where the consideration is $1,000,000 or more (the "Mansion Tax"). The following are the rates applicable to the Mansion Tax in New York City effective as of July 1, 2019:

Total Consideration	Mansion Tax (as of July 1, 2019)
Less than $1,000,000	Not subject to tax
$1,000,000 to $1,999,999.99	1%
$2,000,000 to $2,999,999.99	1.25%
$3,000,000 to $4,999,999.99	1.5%
$5,000,000 to $9,999,999.99	2.25%
$10,000,000 to $14,999,999.99	3.25%
$15,000,000 to $19,999,999.99	3.5%
$20,000,000 to $24,999,999.99	3.75
$25,000,000 or more	3.9%

Pursuant to the provisions of the statute, the obligation to pay the Mansion Tax is upon the Purchasers. The New York City Real Property Transfer Tax amount will be included in the consideration to determine the Mansion Tax. Therefore, the purchase price and City transfer taxes payable by Purchaser are added together to arrive at a total consideration for Mansion Tax purposes. As a result, a Residential Unit priced at $980,000 or more, where Purchaser pays the transfer taxes and legal fees of Sponsor, could subject Purchaser to liability for the Mansion Tax, as the aggregate price plus tax would exceed $1,000,000.

Purchaser shall also be responsible for payment to the title company or abstract company, as the case may be, of the entire cost of the premium for Purchaser's lender, if any, and any and all recording charges in connection with Purchaser's mortgage loan, if any, title insurance and title charges.

The sale and transfer of ownership of the Unit to Purchaser shall, even though not stated in the deed, be subject to:

(a) Ordinances, rules, regulations, requirements, and approvals of applicable governmental authorities provided not violated by the Unit to be renovated.

(b) Rights for installation, use and/or maintenance of easements and rights of way for utilities, sewer, cable television, drainage, scenic purposes, screening and planting which have already been granted or may be granted after this Purchase Agreement is signed or after Closing, provided they do not prevent use of the Unit or the Common Elements for their intended purposes.

(c) Declarations, covenants, restrictions, reservations, exceptions, easements, and agreements which have been recorded, or appear in recorded documents, or are yet to be recorded, provided they do not prevent use of the Unit or the Common Elements for their intended purposes.

(d) Unpaid taxes and any liens provided the title insurance company shall insure against collection of same out of the Unit.

(e) The filed Condominium Map and all matters reflected thereon.

(f) The Declaration and By-Laws of the Condominium and any amendments or supplements thereto.

(g) All exceptions listed in Section XIV of Part I of the Plan.

Purchaser shall deliver to Seller's attorney within thirty (30) days of Purchaser's attorney's receipt of a fully executed copy of this Purchase Agreement, a written notice setting forth each objection to title, if any (other than those specifically set forth herein subject to which the Unit is being sold), and a copy of Purchaser's title report. Seller shall have the right to a reasonable adjournment of Closing, not to exceed sixty (60) days, for the purpose of curing any title defect; however, no such action taken by Seller shall be deemed an admission by Seller that such defect is one that would entitle Purchaser to cancel this Purchase Agreement.

10) PERSONAL PROPERTY INCLUDED IN SALE - All articles of personal property, fixtures and equipment for the Unit which are included in this sale will be delivered free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, except as stated in Paragraph 9 herein, if applicable.

11) POWER OF ATTORNEY - At Closing, Purchaser shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to Seller in recordable form, a power of attorney in the form set forth as Schedule E to the Plan ("Power of Attorney"), in favor of the Board of Managers of the Condominium relative to leasing and purchasing of units in the Condominium under certain circumstances and to foreclose upon units in the Condominium for which the payment of Common Charges is delinquent, and in favor of Seller relative to amending the Condominium documents to the extent provided for in the Plan, the Declaration and By-Laws of the Condominium. Purchaser further agrees to execute and pay for any recording fees in the event the form required to be used for a Power of Attorney is revised subsequent to the date of the Closing. This Paragraph shall survive Closing and delivery of the deed.

12) ENCUMBRANCES/LIENS EXISTING AT CLOSING - The existence of anything affecting the transfer of title of the Unit at Closing, including unpaid taxes or liens of any kind, shall not constitute an objection to title provided the Title Company or another title or abstract company licensed to do business in the State of New York selected by Purchaser is willing to insure Purchaser's title clear of the matter or is willing to insure against enforcement or collection out of the Unit upon Seller's doing whatever acts as may be reasonably required by said company and/or the depositing of money not to exceed the net Purchase Price due Seller after payment of Seller's closing expenses and mortgage release amount.

13) EXTRA WORK AND EXTRA ITEMS ORDERED BY PURCHASER - Any Extras ordered from Seller by Purchaser which are not included in the plans or standard model of the Unit shall, except as may otherwise be provided in this Purchase Agreement or in a writing signed by Seller, be paid for in full by Purchaser at the time they are ordered. The failure of Seller to perform or supply and install such Extras shall not entitle Purchaser to cancel this Purchase Agreement even if Purchaser has already paid for such Extras. Purchaser's only right, in the event of Seller's failure to perform the work required to install or actually install such Extras, is to receive a refund or credit at Closing equal to the total payments made to Seller for such Extras. All Extras must be ordered prior to commencement of construction/renovation and must not delay construction/renovation. In the event Purchaser orders Extras, other than the standard Extras offered by Seller, if any, Seller or Seller's contractors shall not be responsible or liable for any defects in quality of materials or workmanship in installation. Failure to make any payments due in accordance with the payment schedule of Seller, Seller's contractors or sub-contractors, as applicable, shall constitute a breach in accordance with Paragraph 22 herein. All funds received by Seller for Extras will initially be placed in the Escrow Account (as provided in Paragraph 29 herein). Such funds may be released from the Escrow Account as long as Seller uses the funds for such Extras. As noted as a Special Risk in the Plan, in the event Purchaser is entitled to rescission, Purchaser will not receive a refund of any funds paid for Extras which have been (i) installed by Seller, (ii) not installed but paid for by Seller or (iii) not installed but which have been ordered by Seller and for which Seller is obligated to pay unless the Plan has been abandoned. In the event the Plan is abandoned, Purchaser shall be entitled to receive a refund of all funds paid to Seller for such Extras. Seller shall have no responsibility for any work, fixtures, appliances, equipment or materials not ordered directly from Seller by Purchaser. Any orders which Purchaser places directly with Seller's contractors, sub-contractors or suppliers shall not be deemed to have been ordered directly from Seller and Seller shall not be responsible or liable with respect to same.

14) OPTIONS AND COLOR SELECTIONS – Any options offered by Seller to Purchaser with respect to colors, products, materials, design, features and similar matters shall be made by Purchaser in writing at Seller's office or the sales office, within ten (10) days after notification to Purchaser to select such options. If Purchaser fails to inform Seller of Purchaser's final selections within such ten (10) day period, Seller shall make the selection on Purchaser's behalf and Purchaser shall accept such selection. No claim or objection to Closing shall be made by Purchaser because of any selection made by Seller in the event Purchaser failed to give Seller timely notice of Purchaser's final selections.

15) NO INSPECTIONS DURING RENOVATION - Purchaser acknowledges that unsupervised visits to the Property present a dangerous circumstance and could incur liability to Seller. Unless specifically agreed to by Seller in writing, Purchaser shall not visit the Unit or any other portion of the Property and shall only have the right to visit the sales office. Purchaser hereby releases and indemnifies, defends, and holds Seller harmless from and against any and all claims and liabilities incurred by Seller resulting from the unauthorized presence of Purchaser or Purchaser's family members, agents, licensees or invitees on the Property prior to Closing. Purchaser further agrees to execute the Express Assumption of Risk Form as Schedule D-4 to the Plan annexed hereto and made a part hereof together with Purchaser's execution of this Purchase Agreement.

16) PURCHASERS' INTERFERENCE - Purchaser acknowledges that it may not interfere with Seller's ability to renovate the Unit or other unit(s) or facilities, including, without limitation, interference with work performed on the Property by Seller's staff, contractors and/or sub-contractors in connection with the construction/renovation of the Unit or any other unit(s), attempts to hire any of Seller's staff, contractors or subcontractors, and/or attempts to bring contractors, materialman, sub-contractors or workers onto the Property for work on the Unit prior to Closing, unless otherwise agreed to in writing by Seller.

17) POSSESSION OF THE UNIT PRIOR TO CLOSING - Neither Purchaser nor anyone acting on Purchaser's behalf may enter or take possession of all or any part of the Unit nor have any work performed or materials supplied or installed at the Unit prior to Closing without the prior written consent of Seller.

Seller will not accept any liability whatsoever for any property belonging to Purchaser, their agents, employees, licensees, invitees, family, or belonging to any party other than Seller which is placed on the Property and/or in the Unit prior to Closing. No act of Seller, whatever its nature, shall constitute a waiver of this Paragraph.

18) CHANGES BY SELLER - In improving and renovating the Unit and performing any other work on the Property, Seller reserves the right to: (a) make changes or substitutions of materials or construction/renovation from those shown in the model or building plans, provided any such changes or substitutions are of substantially similar or better quality; (b) determine the exterior color and design of the Building; (c) change the location and type of units to be constructed in the Condominium; (d) change appliances as long as they are equal to or better than originally offered; and (e) make any other changes required by the City of New York or any other municipal or governmental agency having jurisdiction over the Property.

19) COMPLETION OF CONSTRUCTION/RENOVATION; PURCHASER'S INSPECTION - Purchaser shall accept title (without abatement or credit against the Purchase Price or provision for escrow) notwithstanding that construction or renovation of (a) minor details of the Unit or the Building, or (b) other unit(s) in the Condominium, or (c) any landscaped areas of the Property, or (d) other portions of the Common Elements have not been completed. Purchaser shall inspect the Unit with a representative of Seller during normal business hours approximately three (3) days prior to Closing and will sign and deliver to Seller on or before Closing, a Pre-Title Inspection Statement supplied by Seller, acknowledging the condition of the Unit. Purchaser agrees to accept the Pre-Title Inspection Statement wherein Seller shall agree to complete all unfinished items within six (6) months from the date of Closing, weather and other circumstances permitting. Any such incomplete items shall not constitute an objection to Closing. Purchaser shall allow Seller, its agents, servants and/or employees the right to enter the Unit and shall provide reasonable access thereto subsequent to Closing to complete any incomplete items. In the event Seller is required to make any repair or complete any item of work to be performed by Seller after Closing, the limit of Seller's liability shall be to make said repair and/or to complete such item. This Paragraph shall survive Closing and delivery of the deed.

20) CERTIFICATE OF OCCUPANCY - In New York, newly constructed and newly renovated buildings are sometimes offered as condominium projects without a permanent Certificate of Occupancy ("PCO") covering the entire building but with only a temporary Certificate of Occupancy ("TCO"), and sometimes with several successive temporary Certificates of Occupancy. Certificates of Occupancy are generally governed by section 301 of the New York Multiple Dwelling Law and local building codes and rules. The TCOs and PCOs are issued by the New York City Department of Buildings ("Building Department)". A TCO is intended to indicate that the property is safe for occupancy but means that not all of the construction work and/or inspections have been performed, or that not all of the required documents have been submitted to the Building Department. All TCOs have an expiration date. A TCO typically expires 90 days after the date of issuance. When a TCO expires and is not renewed, it may be difficult or impossible to buy insurance, refinance, or sell Residential Units. In New York City, it is common for sponsors to commence Residential Unit closings when some or all Residential Units are covered by a TCO rather than a PCO. Sponsor anticipates this scenario may occur. Sponsor and its principals will undertake the responsibility for extending each TCO received prior to expiration thereof and ultimately for obtaining a PCO covering the entire building within two years from the date of issuance of the first TCO. However, Sponsor and its principals make no representation or guarantee that the Building Department will issue the PCO within such two (2) year period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor and its principals are obligated to procure the PCO for the entire building and shall exercise its best efforts to obtain the PCO within such two (2) year period while keeping the TCO current. Residential Unit Owners and the Board of Managers shall be obligated to cooperate with and refrain from obstructing Sponsor in these undertakings. Residential Unit Owners will not be permitted to make any changes, additions or alterations to their Residential Unit requiring Building Department approval prior to the issuance of a Permanent Certificate of Occupancy or renewal of a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. This Paragraph shall survive Closing and delivery of the deed.

21) UNIT PART OF DEVELOPMENT - Purchaser acknowledges that they may be living in an active construction site after Closing on the Unit. During the period of construction/renovation, there may be dirt and debris and construction material on the Property, construction vehicular traffic, construction noises, unfinished areas of the Condominium and other inconveniences which are normal in a community undergoing construction/renovation. Purchaser further acknowledges that other units and infrastructure may presently be in construction at the Property and that Seller anticipates that such construction shall continue until the Condominium is completed in accordance with the Plan. Accordingly, Purchaser agrees that such continuing construction shall not be deemed a nuisance nor an interference with Purchaser's quiet enjoyment of the Unit after Closing. This Paragraph shall survive Closing and the delivery of the deed.

22) PURCHASER'S DEFAULT - If Purchaser fails to appear and close title in accordance with this Purchase Agreement on the date and at the time and place stated in the Notice for Closing, or if Purchaser fails to observe or perform any other obligation on the part of Purchaser to be observed or performed under this Purchase Agreement, Seller may send Purchaser a written notice of default giving Purchaser thirty (30) days from the date of such notice to cure any such default. Upon Purchaser's failure to cure such default within such thirty (30) day period, this Purchase Agreement shall, at Seller's option, be deemed canceled and Seller shall have the right to retain, as and for liquidated damages, all sums paid by Purchaser to Seller on account of the Purchase Price plus all additional sums paid and/or payable by Purchaser for all Extras in accordance with Paragraph 13 of this Purchase Agreement. Purchaser acknowledges said amount to be fair and reasonable.

Prior to such funds being released to Seller, Escrow Agent shall send a notice to Purchaser of Escrow Agent's intent to release the funds being held in escrow on behalf of Purchaser pursuant to the escrow regulations as set forth in Section XII of the Plan and Paragraph 29 of this Purchase Agreement.

TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE FOR PURCHASER TO CURE SUCH DEFAULT WITHIN SUCH THIRTY (30) DAY PERIOD.

Upon cancellation of this Purchase Agreement for Purchaser's failure to timely cure any default, Seller shall be released and discharged of any and all further liability and obligations to Purchaser under this Purchase Agreement. Thereafter, the Unit may be sold or disposed of as though this Purchase Agreement had never existed and without any accounting to Purchaser for the proceeds of any subsequent sale. The foregoing remedy shall be in addition to any and all other remedies available to Seller under this Purchase Agreement, at law or in equity for any default by Purchaser under this Purchase Agreement.

23) SELLER'S RIGHT TO CANCEL - Seller may cancel this Purchase Agreement by forwarding a full refund of the Deposit and the funds paid for Extras to Purchaser, together with written notice of cancellation, in the event of the occurrence of any of the following:

(a) any governmental authority imposes a ban on the construction/renovation or completion of the Building and/or the Unit or imposes restrictions on the manufacture, sale, distribution and/or use of materials from Seller's regular suppliers or from using same in the construction, renovation and/or completion of the Unit and/or the Building; or

(b) Seller is unable to obtain materials from its usual sources due to labor troubles, lockouts, war, military operations and requirements, civil unrest, act of God, force majeure, or national emergencies; or

(c) the installation of public utilities is restricted or curtailed; or

(d) zoning and/or building restrictions and/or regulations, imposed by any governmental body having jurisdiction over the construction/renovation of residential housing and appurtenances and/or the non-residential units of the Condominium, either presently in effect or as enacted or promulgated in the future, which create or impose requirements upon Seller which are not presently contemplated; or

(e) the Plan is abandoned, withdrawn or not consummated for any reason.

Upon such cancellation and refund, this Purchase Agreement shall be terminated and neither party shall have any further rights, obligations or liability to or against the other and the parties shall be released and discharged from all obligations and liability under this Purchase Agreement and the Plan.

24) INABILITY OF SELLER TO TRANSFER OWNERSHIP - Except for Seller's willful default, if Seller is unable to transfer ownership of the Unit in accordance with this Purchase Agreement, Seller shall only be liable to Purchaser for the return to Purchaser of the Deposit. Thereafter, this Purchase Agreement shall be deemed canceled and neither party shall have any further liability to the other in connection with this Purchase Agreement or transaction. Seller shall not be required to commence any action or proceeding or incur any expense in order to remove the condition which prevents Seller from transferring ownership of the Unit in accordance with this Purchase Agreement.

25) PROHIBITION AGAINST ASSIGNMENT OR RECORDING OF PURCHASE AGREEMENT- Neither this Purchase Agreement nor Purchaser's interest hereunder may be assigned by Purchaser without the prior written consent of Seller, which consent may be withheld in Seller's sole and absolute discretion. In addition, neither shall this Purchase Agreement nor any memorandum thereof be recorded in the Office of the Register of the City of New York, by Purchaser or on behalf of Purchaser. Should Purchaser violate the provisions of the foregoing sentence, this Purchase Agreement, at Seller's option, shall become null and void, whereupon all rights of Purchaser shall cease and terminate and Seller shall have the right to retain, as liquidated damages, the Deposit and all amounts paid by Purchaser for Extras which have been (i) installed by Seller, (ii) not installed, but paid for by Seller or (iii) not installed, but which have been ordered by Seller and for which Seller is obligated to pay, pursuant to the default provisions of Paragraph 22 of this Purchase Agreement. Seller shall have the right to assign this Purchase Agreement to a successor and/or designee of Seller.

26) PROHIBITION AGAINST SIGNS ON THE UNIT - Purchaser shall not place any sign on the Unit or Property until Seller has closed title to all of the units in the Condominium. This paragraph shall survive Closing and delivery of the deed.

27) PROHIBITION AGAINST ADVERTISING OF THE UNIT FOR SALE - From and after the date hereof through Closing, Purchaser shall not place an advertisement for the sale of the Unit in any newspaper or other publication or media or list the Unit with any real estate broker. Such action shall constitute a material breach of this Purchase Agreement entitling Seller to retain all monies paid on account of this Purchase Agreement as liquidated damages pursuant to the provisions of Paragraph 22 of this Purchase Agreement.

28) BROKER – Purchaser represents that no broker brought about this sale. Purchaser hereby indemnifies and shall hold Seller harmless from and against any claim brought by any broker for brokerage commission based upon Purchaser's acts. In the event Purchaser is represented or has consulted with an outside, Purchaser shall be responsible for all costs, expenses and commissions associated therewith and Seller shall not be responsible for any broker or co-broker commission. This Paragraph shall survive Closing and delivery of the deed.

29) TRUST FUNDS/ESCROW PROVISIONS - The Deposit and all other deposits or advances (collectively "Deposits") made by Purchaser prior to Closing shall initially be held in a segregated escrow account held by Escrow Agent (as hereinafter defined) pursuant to the following:

(a) The law firm of Romanick & Skolnick, PLLC, 142 Joralemon Street, Suite 5C, Brooklyn, New York 11201, telephone number (718) 624-2240, shall serve as an escrow agent ("Escrow Agent") for Seller and Purchaser. Escrow Agent has designated the members of the firm to serve as signatories. All designated signatories are admitted to practice law in the State of New York. Neither Escrow Agent nor its authorized signatories on the account are Seller, Selling Agent, Managing Agent, or any principal thereof, or have any beneficial interest in any of the foregoing.

(b) Escrow Agent and all authorized signatories hereby submit to the jurisdiction of the State of New York and its courts for any cause of action arising out of this Purchase Agreement or otherwise concerning the maintenance or release of the Deposit from escrow.

(c) The Escrow Agent has established the escrow account at JPMorgan Chase Bank, 2631 Merrick Road, Bellmore, New York 11710 ("Bank"), a bank authorized to do business in the State of New York. The escrow account is entitled “Romanick & Skolnick, PLLC - IOLA” (“Escrow Account”). The Escrow Account is an IOLA account pursuant to Judiciary Law § 497. The Escrow Account is federally insured by the FDIC at the maximum amount of $250,000 per Deposit. Any Deposit in excess of $250,000 will not be insured.

(d) All monies received from Purchaser shall be in the form of checks, money orders, wire transfers, or other instruments approved by Seller, and shall be made payable to or endorsed by Purchaser to the order of Romanick & Skolnick as Escrow Agent.

(e) Pursuant to Section 497 of the Judiciary Law of the State of New York, all interest earned on the IOLA account will be paid to the State of New York. No fees of any kind may be deducted from the Escrow Account, and Seller shall bear all costs associated with the maintenance of the Escrow Account.

(f) Within five (5) business days after this Purchase Agreement has been tendered to Escrow Agent along with the Deposit, Escrow Agent shall sign this Purchase Agreement and place the Deposit into the Escrow Account. Within ten (10) business days of placing the Deposit in the Escrow Account, Escrow Agent shall provide written notice to Purchaser and Seller, confirming that the Deposit has been deposited into the Escrow Account. The notice shall provide the account number. Any deposits made for Extras shall initially be deposited into the Escrow Account and released, as long as Seller uses the funds for such work as per Paragraph 13 of this Purchase Agreement.

(g) Escrow Agent is obligated to send notice to Purchaser once the Deposit is placed in the Escrow Account. If Purchaser does not receive notice of such Deposit within fifteen (15) business days after tender of the Deposit, Purchaser may cancel this Purchase Agreement within ninety (90) days after tender of this Purchase Agreement and the Deposit to Escrow Agent. Complaints concerning the failure to honor such cancellation requests may be referred to the New York State Department of Law, Real Estate Finance Bureau, 28 Liberty Street, 21st Floor, New York, New York 10005. Rescission shall not be afforded where proof satisfactory to the Office of the Attorney General of the State of New York is submitted establishing that the Deposit was timely placed in the Escrow Account in accordance with the New York State Department of Law’s regulations concerning Deposits and requisite notice was timely mailed to Purchaser.

(h) All Deposits, except for advances made for Extras, received in connection with this Purchase Agreement are and shall continue to be Purchaser’s money, and may not be comingled with any other money or pledged or hypothecated by Seller, as per Section 352-h of the General Business Law of the State of New York.

(i) Under no circumstances shall Seller seek or accept release of the Deposit of a defaulting Purchaser until consummation of the Plan as defined in Section 20.1 (c) (6) of the Department of Law regulations, which defines consummation of the Plan as the filing of the Declaration of Condominium and the first transfer of title to a unit to at least one (1) purchaser under the Plan following a declaration of effectiveness by Seller and acceptance of the amendment of the declaration of effectiveness by the Office of the Attorney General of the State of New York. Consummation of the Plan does not relieve Seller of its obligations pursuant to Sections 352-e(2-b) and 352-h of the General Business Law of the State of New York.

(j) Escrow Agent shall release the Deposit if so directed:

(i) pursuant to terms and conditions set forth in this Purchase Agreement, upon closing of title to the Unit; or

(ii) in a subsequent writing signed by both Seller and Purchaser; or

(iii) by a final, non-appealable order or judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

If Escrow Agent is not directed to release the Deposit pursuant to paragraphs (i) through (iii) above, and Escrow Agent receives a request by either party to release the Deposit, then Escrow Agent must give both Purchaser and Seller prior written notice of not fewer than thirty (30) days before releasing the Deposit. If Escrow Agent has not received notice of objection to the release of the Deposit prior to the expiration of such thirty (30) day period, the Deposit shall be released, and Escrow Agent shall provide further written notice to both parties informing them of said release. If Escrow Agent receives a written notice from either party objecting to the release of the Deposit within said thirty (30) day period, Escrow Agent shall continue to hold the Deposit until otherwise directed pursuant to paragraphs (i) through (iii) above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Escrow Agent shall have the right at any time to deposit the Deposit with the clerk of the county where the Unit is located and shall give written notice to both parties of such Deposit. Escrow Agent shall disburse Purchaser's Deposit(s) escrowed under this Purchase Agreement within twenty (20) business days after the escrowed funds are permitted to be released in accordance with this Purchase Agreement.

Seller shall not object to the release of the Deposit to:

(i) a purchaser who timely rescinds in accordance with an offer of rescission contained in the Plan or an Amendment to the Plan; or

(ii) all purchasers after an amendment to the Plan abandoning the Plan is accepted for filing by the Department of Law.

The Department of Law may perform random reviews and audits of any records involving the Escrow Account to determine compliance with all applicable statutes and regulations.

(k) Any provision of any purchase agreement or separate agreement, whether oral or in writing, by which a purchaser purports to waive or indemnify any obligation of Escrow Agent holding any Deposit in trust is absolutely void. The provisions of the Attorney General's regulations and GBL §§ 352-e(2-b) and 352-h concerning escrow trust funds shall prevail over any conflicting or inconsistent provisions in this Purchase Agreement, the Plan, or any amendment(s) thereto.

(l) Escrow Agent shall maintain the Escrow Account under its direct supervision and control.

(m) A fiduciary relationship shall exist between Escrow Agent and Purchaser, and Escrow Agent acknowledges its fiduciary and statutory obligations pursuant to GBL §§ 352(e)(2-b) and 352(h).

(n) Escrow Agent may rely upon any paper or document which may be submitted to it in connection with its duties under this Purchase Agreement and which is believed by Escrow Agent to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties and shall have no liability or responsibility with respect to the form, execution, or validity thereof.

(o) No disbursement will be made by Escrow Agent until the Deposit has actually and finally cleared Escrow Agent’s account.

(p) Escrow Agent shall only be responsible for monies actually received and cleared, and monies earned thereon, if any.

(q) Escrow Agent undertakes to perform only such duties as are expressly set forth in this Purchase Agreement and the Escrow Regulations, as amended on November 14, 2012, promulgated by the Office of the Attorney General of the State of New York, and no implied duties or obligations shall be read into this Purchase Agreement against Escrow Agent.

(r) Seller agrees that Seller and its agents, including any selling agents, shall deliver the Deposit received by them prior to closing of the Unit to a designated attorney who is a member of or employed by Escrow Agent within five (5) business days of tender of the Deposit by Purchaser.

(s) Seller agrees that it shall not interfere with Escrow Agent's performance of its fiduciary duties and statutory obligations as set forth in GBL §§ 352-

(e)(2-b) and 352-(h) and the New York State Department of Law's regulations.

(t) The following record keeping provisions shall apply:

(i) Escrow Agent shall maintain all records concerning the Escrow Account for seven (7) years after the release of the funds.

(ii) Upon dissolution of a law firm which was Escrow Agent, the former partners or members of the firm shall make appropriate arrangements for the maintenance of these records by one of the partners or members of the firm or by the successor firm and shall notify the Department of Law of such transfer.

(u) Prior to release of the Deposit, Escrow Agent's fees and disbursements shall neither be paid by Seller from the Deposit nor deducted from the Deposit by any financial institution under any circumstance.

(v) Seller agrees to defend, indemnify and hold Escrow Agent harmless from and against any and all costs, claims, expenses, demands, causes of action, liability, judgments and damages incurred in connection with or arising out of Escrow Agent's responsibilities in connection with this Purchase Agreement or the performance or non-performance of Escrow Agent's duties under this Purchase Agreement, except with respect to actions or omissions taken or suffered by Escrow Agent in bad faith or in willful disregard of the obligations set forth in this Purchase Agreement or involving gross negligence of Escrow Agent. This indemnity includes, without limitation, disbursements and attorneys' fees either paid to retain attorneys or representing the hourly billing rates with respect to legal services rendered by Escrow Agent to itself.

(w) Escrow Agent shall not be liable for Seller's failure to tender Purchaser's funds to Escrow Agent within five (5) business days, for any mistakes of fact or errors of judgment, or for any acts or omissions of any kind unless caused by Escrow Agent's willful misconduct or gross negligence.

(x) Escrow Agent shall not be liable in any manner for the sufficiency or correctness as to form, manner or execution, or validity of any written instructions delivered to it, nor as to the identity, authority, or rights of any person executing the same.

(y) The duties of Escrow Agent shall be limited to the safekeeping of the Deposits and for disbursements of same in accordance with the written instructions described in this Purchase Agreement.

(z) This Paragraph 29 shall remain in effect unless and until the following:

(i) Written notice given by Seller to Escrow Agent of cancellation of designation of Escrow Agent to act in said capacity, which cancellation shall take effect only upon the filing of an amendment with the Department of Law providing for a successor escrow agent; or

(ii) The resignation of Escrow Agent upon giving notice to Seller of its desire to so resign, which resignation shall take effect only upon the filing of an amendment with the Department of Law providing for a successor escrow agent; or

(iii) All units offered pursuant to the Plan have been sold and all sales transactions have been consummated.

Escrow Agent shall have no responsibility to verify qualifications of any successor escrow agent.

(aa) Upon termination of the duties of Escrow Agent as described in sub-paragraph 29(z) above, Escrow Agent shall deliver any and all funds held by it in the Escrow Account and any and all contracts or documents maintained by Escrow Agent to the successor escrow agent designated in the duly filed amendment related thereto.

(bb) Upon delivery of all funds held by Escrow Agent to the successor escrow agent pursuant to sub-paragraph 29(aa) above, this Paragraph 29 shall be terminated, and Escrow Agent shall be released from all liability hereunder.

(cc) Upon Escrow Agent disbursing the Deposit in accordance with the provisions of this Paragraph 29, Escrow Agent's obligations shall terminate as regards to the Deposit, and Escrow Agent shall thereafter be released of all liability in connection with Purchaser.

(dd) In the event of a good faith disagreement about the interpretation of this Paragraph 29, or about the rights and obligations, or the propriety, of any action contemplated by Escrow Agent hereunder, Escrow Agent may, in its sole discretion, retain the Deposit and payments in escrow and file an action and deposit any applicable funds in a court of competent jurisdiction to resolve said disagreement. Escrow Agent shall be indemnified by Seller for any and all costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees or reasonable value of services rendered by Escrow Agent's litigation attorneys representing Escrow Agent pro se in connection with the aforesaid action. No such action shall be filed where Escrow Agent's required course of action is clearly dictated within this Paragraph 29.

(ee) Any provision of any contract or agreement, whether oral or in writing, by which Purchaser purports to waive or indemnify any obligation of Escrow Agent holding trust funds is absolutely void. The provisions of the regulations pertaining to escrow funds, as amended on November 14, 2012, shall prevail over any conflicting or inconsistent provision in the Plan, an amendment to the Plan or in this Purchase Agreement.

(ff) This Paragraph 29 shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the State of New York without giving affect to its conflict of law provisions.

30) NOTICES - Any notices, statements, certificates, requests or demands required or permitted to be given or delivered under this Purchase Agreement shall be in writing and may be sent by mail, nationally recognized overnight courier or personal delivery, addressed to Purchaser or to Seller, as the case may be, at their respective addresses shown at the beginning of this Purchase Agreement, or to such other address as Purchaser or Seller may designate in the manner herein provided, or to their respective attorneys. Such notice, statement, certificate, request or demand shall be deemed to have been given:

(a) upon personal delivery actually being made, and

(d) upon receipt, notice of first refusal of delivery or when returned as undeliverable if delivered by: (i) the United States Post Office with proper postage prepaid, if sent by regular mail, registered, or certified mail return receipt requested; or (ii) nationally recognized overnight courier service.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, any notice of default must be delivered only by nationally recognized overnight courier service, personal delivery, or certified mail return receipt requested. Notice given by an attorney for a party shall be deemed effective notice as if given by such party.

31) PURCHASER GENERAL REPRESENTATIONS - Purchaser represents that Purchaser has not relied upon any architect's plans, sales plans, selling brochures, advertisements, representations, warranties or statements, written or oral, of any nature, including, but not limited to, any of the above relating to the description or physical condition of the Building or the Unit or the Property, the size or the dimensions of the Unit or the rooms therein contained or any physical characteristics thereof, the services offered by the Condominium, the estimated Common Charges for the Unit or any other matter or estimate not set forth herein and/or in the Plan. Purchaser further represents that Purchaser has not relied on any verbal or written representations made by Broker or any other agent of Seller. Purchaser further acknowledges having had full opportunity to examine all documents and investigate all facts referred to and stated herein and/or in the Plan. Purchaser agrees that Seller shall have no liability or responsibility to Purchaser and that Purchaser shall not be relieved from Purchaser's obligations hereunder, by reason of any inaccuracy or error in the layout or dimensions of the Unit so long as the layout and specifications as they may be changed or amended are in accordance with the provisions of the Plan. Seller cannot guarantee a firm completion and availability date for the Unit and Purchaser agrees that Seller shall not be obligated to make, provide or compensate for any accommodations or costs to Purchaser as a result of construction or renovation delays nor shall such delays serve to cancel, amend or diminish any of Purchaser's renovation obligations hereunder.

32) ACKNOWLEDGMENT THAT THERE ARE NO OTHER UNDERSTANDINGS - All prior understandings and agreements are hereby superseded and merged into this Purchase Agreement, which alone contains the final and entire understanding and agreement between Seller and Purchaser. Neither Seller nor Purchaser shall be bound by any terms, conditions, statements, or representations, oral or written, not set forth in this Purchase Agreement or in the Plan. Purchaser acknowledges that Purchaser is buying a unit in a condominium development which may not yet have been formed at the time this Purchase Agreement is signed, and that, except as stated in this Purchase Agreement, the Declarations, By-Laws, Exhibits, Schedules and Plan, Purchaser has not relied on any representations or other statements of any kind or nature made by Seller or anyone else except as set forth in the Plan or any amendment thereto and this Purchase Agreement, including but not limited to, the description, size or dimensions of the Unit or rooms therein, or the estimated common charges, or other expenses relative thereto.

Purchaser also acknowledges that none of Seller's representatives has the authority to modify this Purchase Agreement or to make any oral promise, agreement, or representation inconsistent or contrary to the terms of this Purchase Agreement. This Purchase Agreement may be changed only by a written document signed by both Purchaser and Seller. The invalidity or unenforceability of any particular provision of this Purchase Agreement will not affect the other provisions, and this Purchase Agreement will be interpreted in all respects as if such unenforceable provisions were omitted.

33) RISK OF LOSS - The risk of loss or damage to the Unit by fire or any other cause until delivery of the deed is assumed by Seller. In the event a substantial portion of the Unit or the Building shall be destroyed or damaged prior to Closing, Seller shall be entitled to cancel this Purchase Agreement by written notice to Purchaser, together with a check in the amount of the Deposit and all Extras paid by Purchaser. The parties shall thereafter be released from any further liability hereunder.

In the event Purchaser takes actual possession of the Unit prior to Closing, Purchaser shall assume the risk of any loss not covered by insurance upon production of the policy by Seller to Purchaser which provides that actions of interim lessees are not covered under the then-existing policy. If Purchaser is or becomes the occupant or tenant of the Unit prior to Closing, then, as of the date of Purchaser's occupancy, Purchaser shall be responsible for any and all damage caused by any acts or omissions of Purchaser, or Purchaser's agents, employees, invitees and/or family members.

If any part of the Unit is damaged or destroyed by any casualty prior to Closing, Seller shall have the option to restore the Unit to its previous condition as soon as reasonably possible. In the event Seller elects to restore the Unit, then the Closing Date and any other applicable date or deadline will be extended in a reasonable manner by Seller. Seller shall notify Purchaser of Seller's decision within ten (10) business days of the date of such casualty. In the event Seller elects not to restore the Unit, then this Purchase Agreement will terminate, and Purchaser shall receive a refund of all monies paid to Seller. The parties shall thereafter be released from any further liability hereunder.

34) DAMAGE TO PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS, AMENITIES AND COMMON ELEMENTS - Purchaser shall repair and/or restore to their original condition and standards any public improvement, amenity or Common Elements on the Property damaged by Purchaser or Purchaser's agents, employees, contractors or licensees. Upon failure of Purchaser to complete such repair and/or restoration work within thirty (30) days after written notice from Seller, then and in that event, Seller may complete same at the sole cost and expense of Purchaser who shall reimburse Seller for the cost thereof immediately upon demand. This Paragraph shall survive Closing and delivery of the deed.

35) STRICT COMPLIANCE; WAIVER OF TRIAL BY JURY - Any failure by Seller to insist upon strict performance by Purchaser of any of Purchaser's obligations under this Purchase Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of such obligations, and Seller may at any time insist upon strict performance by Purchaser of any and all obligations to be performed by Purchaser under this Purchase Agreement irrespective of the number of times Purchaser failed to strictly comply with such obligations in the past.

Purchaser waives all rights to trial by jury in any action, proceeding or counterclaim in any way arising out of or relating to this Purchase Agreement or the Plan provided such waiver is not prohibited by any laws of the State of New York. Purchaser agrees to pay and shall be liable for any and all court fees, including, without limitation, Seller's reasonable attorney fees, should Purchaser bring an action against Seller in any court of proper jurisdiction (including, without limitation, small claims court) and Seller is deemed the prevailing party in such dispute or action. Purchaser hereby agrees to waive the right to file a lis pendens if not filed within sixty (60) days of the cancellation of this Purchase Agreement. Any action or proceeding brought by either party hereto against the other, directly or indirectly, arising out of this Purchase Agreement, shall be instituted in a court in Kings County, City and State of New York and all motions in any such action shall be made in Kings County, City and State of New York.

This Paragraph shall survive Closing and delivery of the Deed.

(b) The personal property referred to in this Purchase Agreement shall be deemed conveyed by the deed, and no part of the Purchase Price shall be deemed allocated to such personal property.

(c) The attorneys representing Seller, or any lender represent such parties only and not Purchaser. Purchaser may retain independent counsel, at Purchaser's sole cost and expense, in order to protect Purchaser's interest.

(e) Purchaser acknowledges that Seller has the right to lower and/or increase the price paid for a similar unit and/or change the terms applicable to similar units. As a result, Purchaser may pay more or less and may receive better or worse terms than another purchaser for a similar unit.

(f) The delivery of the deed for the Unit to Purchaser or Purchaser's representative at Closing shall be deemed to mean that all things required to be done by Seller under this Purchase Agreement have been done and that Purchaser shall not claim otherwise except as to those things, if any, which are specifically stated in this Purchase Agreement or in a separate writing signed by Seller or Seller's attorney on Seller's behalf, to survive or continue beyond Closing and delivery of the deed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Sponsor shall comply with each and all of its obligations under the Offering Plan and applicable law, including without limitation, Article 23-A of the General Business Law.

The act, assent, election, or approval by one shall conclusively constitute the act, assent, election, and approval by all.

(l) The provisions of this Purchase Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of Purchaser and Purchaser's heirs, legal representatives, successors, and permitted assigns and shall bind and inure to the benefit of Seller and its successors and assigns.

DESIGNATION OF RESIDENTIAL UNIT WARRANTED: _____

NAME OF SELLER:	577 Ventures LLC
ADDRESS OF SELLER:	222 Park Place, Suite MM Brooklyn, New York 11238
EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS LIMITED WARRANTY:	The date that Purchaser or its family shall first occupy the Residential Unit warranted or the date of delivery of the deed to such Residential Unit to Purchaser, whichever occurs first.
SELLER'S LIMIT OF TOTAL LIABILITY:	In no event shall the Seller's total liability to Purchaser under this Limited Warranty exceed seventy-five thousand ($75,000) dollars less, any insurance proceeds received by Purchaser (the "Maximum Liability of Seller").

THIS LIMITED WARRANTY EXCLUDES AND PRECLUDES ALL CONSEQUENTIAL, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, AND INDIRECT DAMAGES.

THIS LIMITED WARRANTY IS IN LIEU OF AND REPLACES ALL OTHER WARRANTIES ON THE CONSTRUCTION AND SALE OF THE RESIDENTIAL UNIT AND ITS COMPONENTS, BOTH EXPRESS AND IMPLIED (INCLUDING ANY WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE). THERE ARE NO WARRANTIES WHICH EXTEND BEYOND THE FACE HEREOF. THE PURPOSE OF THIS LIMITED WARRANTY IS TO IDENTIFY THE SELLER'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR CONSTRUCTION DEFECTS OF A LATENT OR HIDDEN NATURE THAT COULD NOT HAVE BEEN FOUND OR DISCLOSED ON FINAL INSPECTION OF THE RESIDENTIAL UNIT.

1. To Whom Given. This Limited Warranty is given to the Purchaser named on page l while the Purchaser owns the Residential Unit. The choice among repair, replacement or payment is solely that of the Seller. In making any repairs or replacements, Seller shall have the right to select the method and materials to be used in performing such repairs or replacements.

Seller's liability under this warranty is limited in the aggregate to the amount listed on page 1 of the warranty.

Repair of damage to the load-bearing portions of the Residential Unit will be limited to that which is necessary to restore their load-bearing function. 7. Step by Step Claims Procedures. (a) Written notice of any warranty claim must be made on the attached "Notice of Warranty Claim Form" and must be received by the Seller no later than the tenth (l0th) day after the expiration of the applicable warranty period. PERFORMANCE STANDARDS

The following performance standards are the accepted standards for the construction of all homes to be built.

While these performance standards define the builder's responsibility, these performance standards shall not apply, and the builder shall not be responsible to items installed or modified by the owner, or their agents, or to items subject to neglect or abnormal or improper use. Unnecessary service calls or service calls caused by misuse, modification, abuse or changes from original installation and construction shall result in a service call charge to the homeowner of a minimum of $50.00.

In no event shall the builder be responsible for the partial or total death of any trees, shrubs, bushes, or any other landscape improvements. Healthy stock is planted initially.

In no event shall the builder be responsible for normal lumber shrinkage and any ramifications caused by same, i.e. ridging of floor over "built-up" double, or triple, etc. floor beams, or shrinkage of floor or ceiling beams.

ACCEPTED STANDARDS

The performance standards list specific items (defect) within each separate area of coverage. The first section covers workmanship and materials; the second section covers systems. The standards are expressed in terms of performance criteria. For easy comprehension, the format is designed as follows:

Possible Deficiency:
A brief statement, in simple terms, of problems that may be encountered.

Performance Standard:
A performance standard relating to a specific deficiency.

Responsibility:
A statement of the corrective action required of the builder to repair the deficiency or a statement of the Home Owner's maintenance responsibilities.

Workmanship and Materials, First Year Only:

1. Site Work
2. Concrete
3. Masonry

4. Wood and Plastic
5. Thermal and Moisture Protection
6. Doors and Windows
7. Finishes
8. Specialties
9. Equipment
10. Plumbing
11. Heating and Cooling
12. Ventilation
13. Electrical
14. Roofing

Systems, First and Second Year:
Plumbing, electrical, heating, cooling and ventilation systems shall mean:

a. In the case of plumbing systems: gas supply lines and fittings; water supply, waste and vent pipes and their fittings; septic tanks and their drain fields; water, gas and sewer service piping, and their extensions to the tie-in of a public utility connection, or on-site well and sewage disposal system;

b. In the case of electrical systems: all wiring electrical boxes, switches, outlets and connections up to the public utility connection; and

c. In the case of heating, cooling, and ventilation systems: all duct work, steam, water, and refrigerant lines, registers, convectors, radiation elements and dampers.

Major Structural Material Defects:

"Material Defect" means actual physical damage to the following load-bearing portions of the home caused by failure of such load-bearing portions which affects their load-bearing functions to the extent that the home becomes unsafe, unsanitary or otherwise unlivable: foundation systems and footings, beams, girders, lintels, columns, walls and partitions, floor systems, and roof framing systems.

PART I

GENERAL ELECTRICAL, PLUMBING, MECHANICAL AND STRUCTURAL STANDARDS

A. Mechanical, plumbing, structural and electrical standard should be governed by the N.Y.C. building code.

The warranty period for appliances, fixtures and equipment (including their fittings, attachments, controls and appurtenances) for which there is no written manufacturer's warranty shall be one year. The initial warranty period for appliances, fixtures and equipment on those items where a manufacturer's warranty is provided by the manufacturer is the builder's warranty under these performance standards and shall be limited to the duration of the manufacturer's warranty but in no event shall the builder's responsibility under these performance standards exceed one year. (This does not, however, limit to one year the stated period of the applicable manufacturer's warranty where such warranty exceeds one year).

PART II

QUALITY STANDARDS

General workmanship and material defects are guaranteed under the initial warranty period. The following quality standards are intended to define the specific limits of permissible defects in materials and general workmanship. These performance standards have been developed after careful analysis of building custom and practices within this jurisdiction. These performance standards may be periodically supplemented; However, if a buyer complaint on a warrantable item should arise which is not governed by any specific performance standard, then determination of builder responsibility through conciliation and arbitration shall be made on the basis of good industry practice within jurisdiction where the home is situated.

These performance standards represent the basis for determining the validity of all home buyer complaints relating to defective materials and workmanship during the initial one-year warranty program. If any specific performance standard listed below conflicts with any of the general standards set forth in Part I, then that standard which requires a greater quality of performance shall govern.

f. In addition, in the case of material changes, approval must be obtained from first mortgage holders representing at least fifty-one (51%) percent of the votes of Residential Units that are subject to first mortgages. A change to any of the following would be considered as material: voting rights; assessments, assessment liens, or subordination of assessment liens; reserves for maintenance, repair and replacement of Common Elements; responsibility for maintenance and repairs; reallocation of interests in the General Common Elements or Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Elements, or rights to their use; boundaries of any Residential Unit; convertibility of Residential Units into Common Elements or vice versa; expansion or contraction of the project, or the addition, annexation or withdrawal of property to or from the project; insurance or fidelity bonds; revisions to the leasing provisions of Residential Units contained in Article XI of the By-Laws; imposition of any restrictions on a Residential Unit Owner's right to sell or transfer the Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit; a decision by the Condominium to establish self-management when professional management had been required previously by an eligible mortgage holder; restoration or repair of the project (after a hazard damage or partial condemnation) in a manner other than that specified in the documents; any action to terminate the legal status of the project after substantial destruction or condemnation occurs; or any provisions that expressly benefit mortgage holders, insurers or guarantors. An addition or amendment to the Declaration shall not be considered material if it is for the purpose of correcting technical errors, or for clarification only. Any eligible mortgage holder who received a written request by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to approve amendments who does not deliver to the Condominium a negative written response within sixty (60) days of the receipt of the request shall be deemed to have approved such amendment. In order to comply with this provision of the Declaration all Residential Unit Owners are required to provide the Board of Managers with their current mortgage holder when requested by the Board of Managers and whenever a Residential Unit Owner obtains a new mortgage.

There shall be a presumption for a period of eight (8) days subsequent to the recording of the amendment that the vote of the Residential Unit Owners was made at a duly called meeting and that the requisite voting percentage was obtained. After the eight (8) day period such presumption will be deemed conclusive.

3. The Sponsor, its successors, assigns and purchasers of undeveloped or unsold Residential Units shall have the right without vote or consent of the Residential Unit Owners, the Board of Managers or the holders of Residential Unit mortgages to execute or (on its request) to require the Board of Managers to execute and record in the Register's Office of the City of New York, and elsewhere, if required by law, an amendment or amendments to this Declaration (together with such other documents, plan and maps as may be required to effectuate the same) to reflect (i) the certification by a registered architect or professional engineer, certifying that the floor plans and/or amended As-Built Floor Plans, Condominium or Unit Designation Map filed as part of an amended Declaration are an accurate copy of portions of the plans of the Building and fully and fairly depict the layout, location, designation and approximate dimensions of the Residential Units as built, or (ii) utility easements, or (iii) technical corrections to the Declaration and By-Laws to conform to other documents including but not limited to the Offering Plan or as-built plans (iv) to amend Schedule B of this Declaration to conform the model type, square footage and type and number of rooms and any other required information for a specified Residential Unit, so long as the appurtenant Percentage of Common Interest does not change for said Residential Unit subject to the rights provided in subsections 3 (v), (vii) and (viii) hereof or (v) to amend Schedule B prior to the first closing, to effect a change in the Percentage of Common Interest of all or specific Residential Units and revise Schedule B accordingly or (vi) to amend Schedule B of this Declaration to assign or revise a Residential Unit's Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Elements appurtenant to another Residential Unit or (vii) to amend Schedule B of this Declaration to consolidate or subdivide Residential Units subject to all necessary approvals by the Building Department of the City of New York, or other municipality or administrative agency, to revise the square footage and type and number of rooms and any other required information for a specified Residential Unit and to change the appurtenant Percentage of Common Interest so long as the new Percentage of Common Interest equals the Percentage of Common Interest of the Residential Units that were consolidated or subdivided, or (viii) to effectuate permissible changes in unsold Residential Units including the Percentage of Common Interest of one (1) or more of the Unsold Residential Units as long as it does not change the Percentage of Common Interest of a sold Residential Unit and to amend Schedule B accordingly, or (ix) to amend Schedule B to make technical corrections to said Schedule including, but not limited to, square footage of Residential Units, assign or revise Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Elements appurtenant to a Residential Unit or to revise the number and description of rooms contained in a Residential Unit or (x) to make changes or revisions to comply with the requests, guidelines and/or requirements of any major participant in the secondary market for mortgages, including but not limited to, the Federal National Mortgage Association ("Fannie Mae"), the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation ("Freddie Mac"), the Federal Housing Association ("FHA") of the Housing and Urban Development ("HUD"), the Veterans Administration ("VA") and/or any State or Local Funding Agencies, or (xi) to make corrections that are patent errors, inconsistencies, scrivener's errors and technical errors, or (xii) to comply with any federal, state or city law or regulation that may affect the Condominium; or (xiii) the carrying out of other provisions of the Offering Plan of the Condominium. Each Residential Unit Owner upon becoming a Residential Unit Owner shall be deemed to grant an irrevocable power of attorney, coupled with an interest, to the Sponsor, its successors, assigns and purchasers of undeveloped or unsold Residential Units to amend the Declaration of Condominium for the above purposes.

4. Any amendment to this Declaration shall not take effect until it is recorded in the New York City Register's Office.

Regardless of any other provision of this Declaration, no action for partition or division of the Common Elements shall be brought nor shall this plan of condominium ownership be terminated where such partition, division or termination will result in a violation of the then existing local zoning and building laws and codes.

ELEVENTH: SUBJECT TO DECLARATION, BY-LAWS, ETC.

All present or future Residential Unit Owners, tenants, future tenants, or any other person that might use the facilities of the Condominium in any manner, are subject to the provisions of this Declaration, the By-Laws and Rules and Regulations of the Condominium and the mere acquisition or rental of any of the Residential Units of the Condominium or the mere act of occupancy of any of said Residential Units shall signify that the provisions of this Declaration and the By-Laws and Rules and Regulations of the Condominium are accepted and ratified and all of such provisions shall be deemed and taken to be covenants running with the land and shall bind any person having at any time any interest or estate in such Residential Unit, as though such provisions were recited and stipulated at length in each and every deed, conveyance or lease thereof. Any and all leases and agreements for rental or use of a Residential Unit shall contain a provision that the tenant or individual and/or entity entering into the lease and/or any other agreement for use of a Residential Unit shall accept and abide by the provisions of the Declaration, By-Laws and Rules and Regulations of the Condominium.

TWELFTH: COMMON CHARGES.

Common Expenses of the Condominium shall be determined by the Board of Managers of the Condominium. The Common Expenses of the Condominium shall be assessed to and paid by the Residential Unit Owners of the Residential Units based upon each Residential Unit's Percentage of Common Interest as reflected in Schedule B of this Declaration, except as provided below pursuant to Section 339-m of the Condominium Act. The assessments paid by the Residential Unit Owners towards the Common Expenses of the Condominium shall be referred to as "Common Charges". All sums assessed as Common Charges by the Board of Managers of the Condominium but unpaid together with the maximum interest permitted in New York thereon, chargeable to any Residential Unit Owner shall constitute a lien on the Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit prior to all other liens except: (a) tax or assessment liens on the Residential Unit by the taxing subdivisions of any governmental authority, including but not limited to State and City taxing agencies; and (b) all sums unpaid on any first mortgage of record encumbering any Residential Unit. Such lien may be foreclosed when past due in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, by the Condominium, in like manner as a mortgage on real property, and the Condominium shall also have the right to recover all costs incurred including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of collection (but such right shall not be a lien against the Residential Unit). In the event the proceeds of the foreclosure sale are not sufficient to pay such unpaid Common Charges, the unpaid balance shall be charged to all Residential Unit Owners as a Common Expense. Each Residential Unit Owner shall be personally liable for all unpaid Common Charges and any Special Assessments.

Notwithstanding the above, pursuant to Section 339-m of the Condominium Act, Common Charges, no matter how classified, may be adjusted based on allocations in accordance with sub-metering, contract allocations and usage (both projected and actual) for the Common Expenses based on special or exclusive use or availability or exclusive control of particular Residential Units or Common Elements by particular Residential Unit Owners. In the event of any dispute as to the allocation of Common Charges such dispute shall be submitted for arbitration pursuant to the provisions of Article XII of the By-Laws of the Condominium.

In addition to the Board's right to bring an action to foreclose a lien on a Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit, the Board (on behalf of the Residential Unit Owners) shall have the right to bring suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid Common Charges at the option of the Board, without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing such charges. In such an event, the Condominium shall be entitled to recover all costs of suit including reasonable attorneys' fees.

In addition to the Board's right to bring an action to foreclose a lien on a Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit, the Board (on behalf of the Residential Unit Owners) shall have the right to bring suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid Common Charges at the option of the Board, without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing such charges. In such an event, the Condominium shall be entitled to recover all costs of suit including reasonable attorneys' fees.

Every Residential Unit Owner shall pay the Common Charges assessed against the Residential Unit Owner when due as determined by the Board of Managers and no Residential Unit Owner may be exempt from liability for the payment of the Common Charges assessed against the Residential Unit Owner by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any of the Common Elements or by the abandonment of a Residential Unit. No person or entity who is a Residential Unit Owner shall be liable for the payment of any Common Charges accruing subsequent to a sale, transfer or other conveyance by the Residential Unit Owner of such Residential Unit made in accordance with Section 339-x of the Real Property Law or in accordance with the provisions of this Declaration and the By-Laws.

Notwithstanding any other provision in this Declaration or the By-Laws any mortgagee of an Institutional Mortgage as defined herein who obtains title to a Residential Unit pursuant to the remedies in the mortgage or through foreclosure will not be liable for more than six (6) months of the Residential Unit's unpaid Common Charges accrued before acquisition of the title to the Residential Unit by the mortgagee unless otherwise required by law. If the Condominium's lien priority includes costs of collecting unpaid Common Charges, the mortgagee of the Institutional Mortgage will be liable for any fees or costs related to the collection of unpaid Common Charges. The unpaid balance of such Common Charges and/or Special Assessments that may be waived will be charged to all other Residential Unit Owners as a Common Expense. Upon acquisition of title the Institutional Mortgagee shall be responsible for all Common Charges, Special Assessments and/or any other costs and expenses of the Condominium thereafter due and payable.

THIRTEENTH: RESIDENTIAL UNITS ACQUIRED BY THE BOARD.

In the event any Residential Unit Owner shall convey their Residential Unit to the Board of Managers in accordance with Section 339-x of the Real Property Law or in the event the Board of Managers shall purchase any Residential Unit at a foreclosure sale in accordance with Article IX of the By-Laws, title to such Residential Unit or the rights to the lease of such Residential Unit shall be held by the Board of Managers or its designee on behalf of all of the other Residential Unit Owners.

FOURTEENTH: POWER OF ATTORNEY.

1. In order to carry out the provisions of Article Thirteenth of the Declaration and Article XI of the By-Laws, each Residential Unit Owner shall, upon becoming such, grant an irrevocable power of attorney, coupled with an interest to the Board of Managers and their successors to acquire title or lease any such Residential Unit acquired by the Board of Managers under whatever terms the Board of Managers may in its sole discretion deem proper and to sell, lease, sublease, mortgage, vote or otherwise deal with such Residential Unit under such terms as the Board of Managers, in its sole discretion, shall deem proper.

2. Each Residential Unit Owner shall upon becoming a Residential Unit Owner shall further grant an irrevocable power of attorney, coupled with an interest to the Board of Managers to nominate, designate, constitute and appoint the Members of the Board of Managers of the Condominium and their successors, jointly, their true and lawful attorneys-in-fact, coupled with an interest, with power of substitution, in their name and on their behalf, the right to act in the Residential Unit Owner's behalf to take any and all action necessary against any tenant(s) that may be residing in a Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit including but not limited to, the right to seek an eviction in a court of law for failure to adhere to any of the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium, By-Laws and/or Rules and Regulations of the Condominium.

3. Each Residential Unit Owner shall, upon becoming such, shall be deemed to have granted an irrevocable power of attorney, coupled with an interest to the Board of Managers, the Sponsor and their successors, designees and/or assigns to amend the Declaration and the By-Laws for the purposes set forth in Article Tenth, Section 2 (e) of the Declaration and Article X, Sections (c) and (f) of the By-Laws for the purposes set forth therein.

FIFTEENTH: ENCROACHMENTS.

The Residential Unit Owners agree that if any portion of a Residential Unit or the Common Elements (no matter how classified) encroaches upon another or shall hereinafter encroach upon another as a result of original construction or settling of the Building, a valid easement for the encroachment and the maintenance of the same, so long as it stands, shall and does exist. In the event the Building is partially or totally destroyed as a result of fire or other casualty or as a result of condemnation or eminent domain proceedings and is rebuilt the Residential Unit Owners agree that encroachments of any portion of the Residential Unit or the Common Elements shall be permitted and that a valid easement for said encroachment and the maintenance thereof shall exist so long as the Building or reconstructed Building shall stand.

SIXTEENTH: RESIDENTIAL UNIT OWNERSHIP.

Upon the conveyance of title, via deed or otherwise, to a Residential Unit, a Purchaser shall automatically become a Residential Unit Owner in the Condominium and shall remain such until such time as the Residential Unit Owner ceases to own the Residential Unit for any reason.

SEVENTEENTH: USE OF RESIDENTIAL UNITS.

Residential Units shall be restricted to Residential Occupancy in accordance with the applicable zoning and use regulations and requirements of the City of New York.

EIGHTEENTH: CONVEYANCE OF A RESIDENTIAL UNIT.

In any conveyance of a Residential Unit, either by voluntary instrument, operation of law or judicial proceeding in accordance with this Declaration or the By-Laws, the Grantee of the Residential Unit shall be jointly and severally liable with the Grantor for any unpaid Common Charges and any Special Assessments against the latter assessed and due up to the time of the grant or conveyance without prejudice to the Grantee's right to recover from the Grantor the amounts paid by the Grantee therefore. Any such Grantee shall be entitled to a statement from the Board of Managers setting forth the amount of the unpaid Common Charge against the Grantor and such Grantee shall not be liable for, nor shall the Residential Unit conveyed be subject to a lien for any unpaid Common Charge against the Grantor in excess of the amount set forth in such statement. Grantee as used herein shall not include the holder of an Institutional Mortgage as provided in Article Twelfth of this Declaration.

NINETEENTH: COVENANT OF FURTHER ASSURANCES.

If any Residential Unit Owner or any other party subject to the terms of this Declaration fails to execute, acknowledge or deliver any instrument, or fails or refuses, within a reasonable period of time to be determined by the Board of Managers after request thereof, to take any action which the Residential Unit Owner or such other party is required to take pursuant to this Declaration, then the Board of Managers is hereby authorized as attorney-in-fact for such Residential Unit Owner or other party, coupled with an interest, to execute, acknowledge and deliver such instrument, or to take such action, in the name of such Residential Unit Owner, or other party and such document or action shall be binding on such Residential Unit Owner or other party.

If any Residential Unit Owner or the Board of Managers or any other party who is subject to the terms of this Declaration fails or refuses to execute, acknowledge or deliver any instrument, or fails or refuses within a reasonable period of time to be determined by the Board of Managers after request therefor, to take any action that the Board of Managers, any Residential Unit Owner, or other party is required to take pursuant to this Declaration at the request of Sponsor or Sponsor's designee, then Sponsor or Sponsor's designee, as the case may be, is hereby authorized as attorney-in-fact for the Board of Managers, such Residential Unit Owner, or other party, which power shall be deemed to be coupled with an interest, to execute, acknowledge and deliver such instrument, or to take such action, in the name of the Board of Managers, such Residential Unit Owner, or other party, and such document or action shall be binding on the Board of Managers, such Residential Unit Owner, or other party, as the case may be.

Each Residential Unit Owner will have the affirmative duty to maintain its respective Residential Unit in such a manner so as to reasonably prevent and avoid inflicting harm to other Residential Units, the Common Elements (no matter how classified) or the Building. In addition to any other remedies and/or rights the Board of Managers may have in this Declaration, the By-Laws and/or the Rules and Regulations of the Condominium, in the event any Residential Unit Owner causes or permits any condition, or fails to take any action to prevent a condition, that has a deleterious effect on another Residential Unit, any Common Element (no matter how classified) or the Building, the Condominium Board will give written notice to such Residential Unit Owner including a request that the Residential Unit Owner take specific steps to ameliorate such a condition ("Remedy Notice"). If the Residential Unit Owner fails to remedy the condition within a reasonable period of time as provided in such Remedy Notice, the Board of Managers may, upon additional notice to the Residential Unit Owner within a reasonable period of time to be determined by the Board of Managers, enter into the Residential Unit and effect a reasonable remedy, at the Residential Unit Owner's sole cost and expense.

TWENTIETH: RULES AND REGULATIONS.

The use of the Residential Unit by the Residential Unit Owner or other occupant shall be subject to the rules, regulations and provisions of this Declaration, the By-Laws and Rules and Regulations of the Board of Managers contained in Article VIII of the By-Laws as they may be amended, rescinded, modified, altered, waived or repealed pursuant to the provisions of Article VIII of the By-Laws.

TWENTY-FIRST: FIRST LIEN HOLDER'S RIGHTS.

1. Notices of Action. A holder, insurer, or guarantor of a first mortgage, upon written request to the Condominium, (such request to state the name and address or such holder, insurer or guarantor and the Residential Unit number), shall be entitled to timely written notice of:

    a. Any proposed amendment of the Condominium instruments effecting a change in (i) the boundaries of any Residential Unit or the exclusive easement rights appertaining thereto, (ii) the interest in the General Common Elements, Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Elements appertaining to any Residential Unit, Residential Units or the liability for Common Expenses appertaining thereto, (iii) the number of votes in the Condominium appertaining to any Residential Unit or (iv) the purposes to which any Residential Unit or the Common Elements are restricted;

    b. Any proposed termination of the Condominium regime;

c. Any condemnation loss or any casualty loss which affects a material portion of the Condominium or which affects any Residential Unit on which there is a first mortgage held, insured or guaranteed by such eligible holder;

d. Any delinquency in the payment of assessments or charges owed by a Residential Unit Owner of a Residential Unit subject to the mortgage of such eligible holder, insurer, or guarantor, which such delinquency has continued for a period of eight (8) days;

e. Any lapse, cancellation or material modification of any insurance policy maintained by the Condominium; and

f. Any proposed action that requires the consent of a specified percentage of mortgagees.

2. Other Provisions for First Lien Holders. To the extent permitted under applicable law, the following protections for the benefit of first mortgage holders will be legally binding with respect to the Condominium:

a. Any restoration or repair of the Condominium after a partial condemnation or damage due to an insurable hazard shall be substantially in accordance with the Declaration and the original plans and specifications unless the approval of the eligible holders of first mortgages on Residential Units to which at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the votes of Residential Units eligible to vote that are subject to mortgages held by such eligible holders are allocated, is obtained;

b. Any election to terminate the Condominium regime after substantial destruction or a substantial taking in condemnation of the Property must require the approval of the eligible holders of first mortgages on Residential Units to which at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the votes of Residential Units eligible to vote that are subject to mortgages held by such eligible holders are allocated; and

c. Unless the formula for reallocation of interests in the Common Elements after a partial condemnation or partial destruction of the Condominium project is fixed in advance by the Declaration or by applicable law, no reallocation of interests in the Common Elements resulting from a partial condemnation or partial destruction of the Condominium project may be effected without the approval of the eligible holders of first mortgages on Residential Units to which at least eighty (80%) percent of the votes of Residential Units eligible to vote that are subject to mortgages held by such eligible holders are allocated.

As used in this section, the term “eligible holder, insurer or guarantor” shall mean a holder, insurer or guarantor of a first mortgage on a Residential Unit in a Condominium which has requested notice in accordance with the provisions of (a) above.

TWENTY-SECOND: SPECIAL RIGHTS OF SPONSOR.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, Sponsor, its successors, assignees and/or designees shall have, in addition to any rights granted elsewhere contained in the Declaration, By-Laws and/or Rules and Regulations, shall have the right, without requiring the consent of either the Condominium or Board of Managers, and without charge or limitation, the following rights:

1. The right to have its employees, contractors, subcontractors, and sales agents present on the properties and to make improvements to the Condominium.

2. The right to erect and maintain signs and other promotional materials (including, without limitation, “For Sale”, and “For Rent” signs), in connection with the promotion, sale, leasing, management, or operation of the Residential Units or any other property, development or community the Sponsor, its successors, assigns or designees so prescribe for the life of the Condominium.

3. The right to use any one (1) or more Residential Units as:

    a. model Residential Units,

    b. offices for the promotion, sale, rental, management and/or operation of any unsold Residential Units,

    c. offices in connection with any installation, construction, modification, alteration, renovation, maintenance, repair, restoration, replacement, or change being performed, or to be performed, by, or on behalf of, Sponsor with respect to the Common Elements and/or the Residential Units; or any unsold Residential Units; and/or

    d. for any other purpose.

4. The right to use any office in the Condominium for its exclusive use until such time as Sponsor no longer owns any Residential Units in the Condominium.

5. The right to do and cause to be done all of the things that are necessary, desirable, or appropriate (including, without limitation, the use of the Common Elements, including any recreation facilities, the Residential Units, and any unsold Residential Units) for the purpose of:

a. the promotion, sale, rental, management and/or operation of any unsold Residential Units,

b. the performance and completion of installation, construction, modification, alteration, renovation, maintenance, repair, restoration, replacement, or change being performed, or to be performed, by, or on behalf of, Sponsor with respect to the Common Elements, and/or

c. the exercise performance and discharge of Sponsor's other rights and obligations under this Declaration, the By-Laws and/or the Rules and Regulations.

6. The right to make any other changes required by the Building Department of the City of New York or any other agency of the City of New York or other municipal or administrative agency.

In no event, however, shall Sponsor or such designee be entitled to use any portion of the Common Elements in such a manner as will unreasonably interfere with the use of the same or of any Residential Unit for its permitted purposes.

The provisions of this Article Twenty-Second cannot be amended without the written consent of the Sponsor, or its designees, successors or assigns.

TWENTY-THIRD: INVALIDITY

Invalidation of any of the covenants, limitations or provisions of the Declaration by judgment or court order shall in no wise affect any of the remaining part or parts hereof, and the same shall continue in full force and effect.

TWENTY-FOURTH: WAIVER

No provision contained in this Declaration shall be deemed to have been abrogated or waived by reason of any failure to enforce the same, irrespective of the number of violations or breaches which may occur.

TWENTY-FIFTH: CAPTIONS

The captions herein are inserted only as a matter of convenience and for reference, and in no way define, limit or describe the scope of this Declaration or the intent of any provision hereof.

TWENTY-SIXTH: CERTAIN REFERENCES

A reference in this Declaration to any one gender, masculine, feminine or neuter, includes the other two, and the singular includes the plural and vice versa, unless the context otherwise requires.

The terms “herein”, “hereof”, or “hereunder” or similar terms in this Declaration refer to this entire Declaration and not to the particular provision in which the terms are used, unless the context otherwise requires.

Unless otherwise stated, all references herein to Articles, Sections or other provisions are references to Articles, Sections or other provisions of this Declaration or the By-Laws.

TWENTY-SEVENTH: SEVERABILITY

If any provision of this Declaration or the application thereof to any person, entity or circumstance, is determined to be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Declaration, and the application of such provision to persons, entities or circumstances other than those as to which it is specifically determined to be invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each provision of this Declaration shall be valid and enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law, provided that under all circumstances, the provisions hereof are required to be interpreted and applied so that there will be no adverse effect on Declarant or any other person governed by or otherwise affected by this Declaration in any material respect as a result of any invalidity or unenforceability referred to above in this Article Twenty-Seventh.

TWENTY-EIGHTH: SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS

Except as set forth in the Declaration or in the By-Laws to the contrary, the rights and/or obligations of Sponsor, its successor, assignee or its designee as set forth herein shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon any successor, assignee or designee of Sponsor with the consent of Sponsor or its successor, assignee or designee, any transferee of some or all of the Unsold Residential Units then owned by Sponsor or its successor, assignee or designee, as the case may be. Subject to the foregoing, Sponsor, its successor, assignee and its designee shall have the right, at any time, in their sole discretion, to assign or otherwise transfer their respective interests herein, whether by sale, merger, consolidation, lease, assignment or otherwise.

Section 4. Definitions.

The definitions contained in the Declaration of Condominium shall be applicable to these By-Laws unless otherwise stated.

ARTICLE II. CONDOMINIUM, VOTING, QUORUM, PROXIES AND WAIVERS

Section 1. Condominium.

The Condominium shall consist of the Residential Units and Common Elements. The Declaration, By-Laws and Rules and Regulations shall be applicable to the Residential Unit Owners. "Residential Unit Owner" as referred to herein shall mean the owner of a Residential Unit. The owners of the Residential Units shall hereinafter be referred to as Residential Unit Owners.

Section 2. Voting.

Each Residential Unit Owner (including the Sponsor and the Board of Managers, if the Sponsor or the Board of Managers shall then own or hold title to one or more Residential Units), shall be entitled to cast one vote at all Residential Unit Owners' meetings for each Residential Unit owned by such Residential Unit Owner subject to the restrictions contained herein, including the provisions regarding the election of the Board of Managers as provided in Article III, Section 1 of these By-Laws. In the event the Board of Managers acquires a Residential Unit on behalf of the Condominium it shall not cast any of its votes appurtenant to such Residential Unit, for the election of any individual to the Board of Managers. Any Residential Unit Owner in default of their Common Charges, Special Assessments, late fees or any other penalties imposed by the Board of Managers applicable to said Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit shall be prohibited from voting at any annual, general or Special Meeting of the Residential Unit Owners.

Section 3. Quorum.

So many Residential Unit Owners as shall represent at least fifty-one (51%) percent of the total authorized votes of all Residential Unit Owners present in person or represented by written proxy shall constitute a quorum at all meetings of the Residential Unit Owners for the transaction of business, except as otherwise provided by Statute, by the Declaration, or by these By-Laws. If, however, such quorum shall not be present or represented at any meeting of the Residential Unit Owners, the Residential Unit Owners entitled to vote thereat, present in person or represented by written proxy, shall have the power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting.

Section 4. Vote Required to Transact Business.

Section 5. Right to Vote.

At any meeting of Residential Unit Owners, every Residential Unit Owner having the right to vote shall be entitled to vote in person, or by proxy. Such proxy shall only be valid for such meeting or subsequent adjourned meetings thereof. Any Residential Unit Owner in default of their Common Charges, Special Assessments, late fees or any Section 8. Place of Meetings.

Meetings shall be held at any suitable place convenient to the Members as may be designated by the Board of Managers and designated in the notices of such meetings. Meetings may be held by electronic communication including telephone, video or web conference and need not occur in person. Residential Unit Owners may attend and participate in any "in-person" meeting by attending by telephone, video or web conference. If the meeting is held by electronic communication, the electronic service and/or platform by which the meeting is held shall constitute the place of the meeting. All meetings held by electronic communication shall provide for the following:

(a) The Board shall verify that each person participating electronically is a Residential Unit Owner or a proxy of a Residential Unit Owner;

(b) All Residential Unit Owners participating electronically at a meeting shall have a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting, including an opportunity to propose, object to, and vote upon a specific action to be taken by the Residential Unit Owners, and to see, read, or hear the proceedings of the meeting substantially concurrently with those proceedings; and

(c) The Board shall record and maintain a record of any votes or other actions taken by electronic communication at the meeting.

In the event New York State does not permit meetings of Residential Unit Owners to be held by electronic communication, then all meetings are required to be held in person and Residential Unit Owners shall attend either in person or by proxy.

Section 9. Annual Meetings/Control of Board of Managers by Sponsor.

The Sponsor will have voting control and may designate all the Managers on the Board of Managers of the Condominium until all of the Residential Units in the Condominium have been sold or transferred to Residential Unit Owners other than the Sponsor, its Principals, successors, assignees and/or designees ("Sponsor Control Period"). At Annual Meetings subsequent to the Turnover Meeting, there shall be elected by ballot of the Residential Unit Owners a Board of Managers in accordance with the requirements of Article III of these By-Laws. The Residential Unit Owners may also transact such other business of the Condominium as may properly come before them.

Within thirty (30) days after the expiration of the Sponsor Control Period, a meeting (the "Turnover Meeting") will be held to elect the new Members of the Board of Managers unrelated to Sponsor. Within two (2) years of the Closing of Title to the first Residential Unit, the First Annual Meeting of the Residential Unit Owners will be held.

Until succeeded by the Managers elected at the Turnover Meeting of Residential Unit Owners, Managers need not be Residential Unit Owners; thereafter, all Managers, other than designees or nominees of the Sponsor, shall be Residential Unit Owners.

At the First Annual Meeting of Residential Unit Owners called pursuant to Section 9 of Article II a total of three (3) Managers shall be elected or designated to the Board of Managers. All Managers, other than those the Sponsor can designate, shall be elected by the Residential Unit Owners. The term of office of each Manager shall be fixed at one (1) year.

Each Residential Unit Owner shall be entitled to cast one vote for each individual to be elected to the Board of Managers. At the expiration of the initial term of office of each respective Manager, their successor shall be elected to serve a term of one (1) year. The Managers shall hold office until their successors have been elected and hold their first meeting.

When the designated Board of Managers of the Sponsor are required to relinquish their position on the Board of Managers the Sponsor will call for the Turnover Meeting of the Residential Unit Owners as per the provisions of Article II, Section 9 of these By-Laws. The Sponsor shall have the right to voluntarily resign a position on the Board of Managers prior thereto. In such an event the Board of Managers will either (a) call for a Special Meeting of the Residential Unit Owners pursuant to the provisions of Article II, Section 10 of these By-Laws to elect a Residential Unit Owner for the balance of the Sponsor Manager term or (b) the remaining individuals on the Board of Managers will appoint a Residential Unit Owner to the Board of Managers for the balance of the Sponsor Manager term. At the expiration of the term, the Residential Unit Owners shall have a meeting to elect a Residential Unit Owner to a one (1) year term. Notwithstanding the aforementioned, in the event the Sponsor voluntarily relinquishes a position on the Board of Mangers before the Sponsor is obligated to do so, upon notice from the Sponsor to the Board of Managers that the Sponsor desires to reclaim said position the Manager appointed or elected to said position shall resign and the Sponsor shall reappoint a Manager to the Board.

Section 2. Vacancy and Replacement.

If the office of any Manager or Managers becomes vacant by reasons of death, resignation, retirements, disqualification, removal from office or otherwise, a majority of the remaining individuals on the Board of Managers, though less than a quorum, at a Special Meeting of the Board of Managers duly called for this purpose, shall choose a successor or successors, who shall hold office for the unexpired term in respect to which such vacancy occurred. At such meeting the remaining Managers of the Board of Managers shall be entitled to vote for said Manager's successor or successors. In the event of the failure to hold any election of the Board of Managers at the time designated for the annual election of the Board of Managers or in the event that the Board of Managers shall not have filled any such vacancy, a Special Meeting of the Residential Unit Owners to elect new Managers to the Board of Managers or to fill such vacancy or vacancies may be called in the manner generally provided for the calling of Special Meetings of the Residential Unit Owners in Article II, Section 10 of these By-Laws. If the vacancy occurs with respect to any of the Board of Managers who has been designated by the Sponsor, only the Sponsor shall have the right to choose such Manager's successor to fill the unexpired portion of the term. In addition, the Sponsor shall have the right to substitute the individuals it has designated the Board of Managers at Sponsor's discretion.

The Board of Managers shall also have the right to call for a Special Meeting in accordance with Article II, Section 10 to elect a Manager's successor to fill the unexpired portion of the term of office.

Managers designated by the Sponsor may only be removed without cause by the Sponsor. No Manager other than a Manager designated by the Sponsor shall continue to serve on the Board of Managers if, during their term of office, they shall cease to be a Residential Unit Owner. In the event a Sponsor designee Manager is removed, the Sponsor shall have the sole right to designate the Sponsor Manager replacement.

Any individual on the Board of Managers in default of the payment of Common Charges, Special Assessments, late fees, penalties and/or interest shall be suspended from the Board of Managers until all Common Charges, Special Assessments, late fees, penalties and/or interest are paid in full to the Condominium.

Section 7. Powers.

(a) The property and business of the Condominium shall be managed by its Board of Managers, which may exercise all such powers of the Condominium and do all such lawful acts and things as are not by Statute or by the Declaration or by these By-Laws, directed or required to be exercised or done by the Residential Unit Owners personally. These powers shall specifically include, but not be limited to, the following items:

1. Determine and levy monthly assessments ("Common Charges") to cover the cost of Common Expenses. The Common Charges are payable in advance as determined by the Board of Managers. The Board of Managers may increase the monthly Common Charges or vote a Special Assessment in excess of the Common Charges, if required, to meet any additional necessary Common Expenses, but said increases can only be assessed among the Residential Unit Owners pro-rata according to their respective Percentage of Common Interest as reflected in Schedule B of the Declaration of Condominium or in such other manner as provided in Article VI, Section 9 of these By-Laws.

2. Determine and impose penalties, late fees and interest against Residential Unit Owners delinquent in the payment of their Common Charges and to revise the amount of such fees as the Board of Managers so determines.

3. Determine and impose move in and move out fees and to revise said fees in its good faith discretion.

Any repairs required as the result of negligence of a Residential Unit Owner will be at the expense of the Residential Unit Owner.

7. Open bank accounts on behalf of the Condominium and to designate the signatories to such bank accounts.

8. Insure and keep insured the Common Elements and Residential Units in accordance with Article VII of these By-Laws.

9. Make reasonable Rules and Regulations applicable to all Residential Units and all Residential Unit Owners and to amend the same from time to time, and such Rules and Regulations and amendments shall be binding upon all the Residential Unit Owners when the Board of Managers has approved them in writing. A copy of such Rules and Regulations and all amendments shall be delivered to each Residential Unit Owner.

(b) The Board of Managers may, by resolution or resolutions passed by a majority of the whole Board of Managers, designate one or more committees, each of such committees to consist of at least one (1) of the Board of Managers, which, to the extent provided in said resolution or resolutions, shall have and may exercise the powers of the Board of Managers in the management of the business affairs of the Condominium and may have power to sign all papers which may be required, provided said resolutions shall specifically so provide. Such committee or committees shall have such name or names as may be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the Board of Managers. Committees established by resolution of the Board of Managers shall keep regular minutes of their proceedings and shall report the same to the Board of Managers as required.

All leases for a Residential Unit shall contain a provision that permits the Board of Managers to levy a fine against the Residential Unit Owner's tenant and provides that the Residential Unit Owner shall be jointly and severally liable with the Residential Unit Owner's tenant for the payment of same.

In the event the Board of Managers institutes legal action for the collection of any fines for the enforcement of any of the provisions of the Declaration, By-Laws and/or Rules and Regulations of the Condominium, then the Defendant shall be responsible for payment of reasonable attorney's fees of the Condominium, plus interest and costs of suit.

In any such foreclosure the Residential Unit Owner shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the Residential Unit for any period prior to sale pursuant to judgment of foreclosure and sale and the plaintiff in such foreclosure shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the same.

more than thirty (30) days in arrears of Common Charges, Special Assessments, or any other sums, charges or assessments required to be paid.

The Board of Managers (on behalf of the Residential Unit Owners), at the Board of Managers option, shall have the right to bring suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid Common Charges Special Assessments, fines, late fees or any other sums, charges or assessments as determined by the Board of Managers without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing such unpaid Common Charges Special Assessments, fines, late fees or other sums, charges or assessments. In such an event the Residential Unit Owner shall be liable for the reasonable costs and reasonable attorney's fee incurred by it incident to the collection of the unpaid Common Charges Special Assessments, fines, late fees or any other sums, charges or assessments as determined by the Board of Managers.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein regarding the Common Charges, Special Assessments, fines, late fees or any other sums, charges or assessments as determined by the Board of Managers, any foreclosure by a holder of an Institutional Mortgage shall be subject to the provisions of Article VI, Section 2 of these By-Laws.

In addition, the following shall apply to amendments to the By-Laws:

(a) No amendment shall be passed which will affect or impair the validity of the Residential Unit Owners' interest in a Residential Unit.

(b) No amendment, modification, addition, or deletion of, to or from the By-Laws or any Rules and Regulations shall be effective in any way against Sponsor or its designee, assignee or successor or any Unsold Residential Unit, as long as the Sponsor, its designee, assignee, or successor owns an Unsold Residential Unit in the Condominium unless Sponsor, its designee, assignee, or successor has given its prior written consent thereto. This provision is not subject to amendment.

(c) The Board of Managers shall have the right to amend these By-Laws without the consent of the Residential Unit Owners to make corrections to the By-Laws that are patent errors, inconsistencies, scrivener's errors and technical errors. In connection therewith, each Residential Unit Owner upon becoming a Residential Unit Owner shall be deemed to grant an irrevocable power of attorney, coupled with an interest, to the Board of Managers to amend these By-Laws for said purposes.

(d) No amendment to the By-Laws shall be passed which shall impair or prejudice the validity, interest, rights, and priorities of a mortgagee.

(e) The Sponsor shall have the right to amend the By-Laws without the consent of the Residential Unit Owners or the Board of Managers to (a) make corrections that are patent errors, inconsistencies, scrivener's errors or technical errors, to conform to other documents, or (b) to make changes or revisions to comply with the requests, guidelines and/or requirements of any major participant in the secondary market for mortgages, including but not limited to the Federal National Mortgage Association ("Fannie Mae"), the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation ("Freddie Mac"), the Federal Housing Association ("FHA") of the Housing and Urban Development ("HUD"), the Veterans Administration ("VA") and/or any State or Local Funding Agencies, or (c) to reduce the Sponsor control period of the Board of Managers, or (d) to comply with any federal, state, city or local law or regulation that may affect the Condominium. An addition or amendment to these By-Laws shall not be considered material if it is for the purpose of correcting technical errors, or for clarification only. Any eligible mortgage holder who received a written request by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to approve amendments who does not deliver to the Condominium a negative written response within sixty (60) days of the receipt of the request shall be deemed to have approved such amendment.

ARTICLE XI. SELLING, MORTGAGING AND LEASING RESIDENTIAL UNIT

Section 1. Selling and Leasing Residential Units.

Any Residential Unit may be conveyed subject to the Right of First Refusal of the Board of Managers as provided for in Section 2 hereof and subject to local zoning ordinances, by its Residential Unit Owner free of any restrictions except that no Residential Unit Owner shall convey, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate or sell their Residential Unit unless and until all unpaid Common Charges, Special Assessments and any other fees or charges owed the Condominium that have been assessed against the Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit shall have been paid to the Board of Managers of the Condominium. However, such unpaid Common Charges can be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of a Residential Unit.

Any Residential Unit Owner may convey the Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit and Percentage of Common Interest appurtenant thereto, to the Board of Managers on behalf of all Residential Unit Owners free of any cost to the Board of Managers or the Residential Unit Owners and upon such conveyance such Residential Unit Owner shall not be liable for any Common Charges thereafter accruing against such Residential Unit.

Any Residential Unit may be leased subject to the leasing requirements contained in Section 7 of this Article XI and subject to the Board of Managers' Right of First Refusal as provided in Section 2 of this Article XI. In addition, any Residential Unit Owner who wishes to enter into a lease for the Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit shall be required to provide the Board of Managers of the Condominium with a copy of the lease at least thirty (30) days prior to its execution. All Residential Unit Owners who wish to enter into a new lease for the Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit shall be required to submit all documentation required by the Board of Managers as set forth in Section 7 below to the Managing Agent or the Board of Managers in the absence of a Managing Agent. All leases must comply with all the requirements contained in Section 7 below. Failure to comply will be deemed an automatic violation of the By-Laws of the Condominium.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to the acquisition or sale of a Residential Unit by a mortgagee who shall acquire title to such Residential Unit by foreclosure or by deed in lieu of foreclosure. Such provisions shall, however, apply to any purchaser from such mortgagees.

Whenever the term “Residential Unit” is referred to in this section, it shall include the Residential Unit, the Residential Unit Owner’s undivided Percentage of Common Interest in the Common Elements and the Residential Unit Owners’ interest in any Residential Units acquired by the Board of Managers.

Any sale or lease of any Residential Unit in violation of this section shall be voidable at the election of the Board of Managers.

Section 2. Right of First Refusal

No Residential Unit Owner other than Sponsor, its successors, assigns or designees, may sell or lease their Residential Unit except by complying with the following provisions:

Any Residential Unit Owner who receives a bona fide offer to (a) purchase the Residential Unit Owner’s Residential Unit together with (i) the undivided interest in the Common Elements appurtenant thereto, and (ii) the interest of such Residential Unit Owner in any Residential Unit theretofore acquired by the Board of Managers or the Board of Manager’s designee on behalf of all Residential Unit Owners, or Residential Unit Owner’s interest in the proceeds of sale or lease of such Residential Unit, if any, or (b) lease the Residential Unit Owner’s Residential Unit, such an offer to purchase or lease a Residential Unit, as the case may be, is called an “Outside Offer”, the party making any such Outside Offer is called an “Outside Offeror” and the Residential Unit Owner to whom the Outside Offer is made is called the “Offeree Residential Unit Owner”. In the event the Residential Unit Owner intends to accept the Outside Offer, the Residential Unit Owner must give notice by certified or registered mail or by courier service, such as Federal Express, evidencing receipt by the Board or any Managing Agent of the receipt of such Outside Offer within ten (10) days of such Outside Offer. Said notice shall state the name and address of the Outside Offeror, the terms of the proposed transaction and such other information as the Board of Managers may reasonably require. The giving of such notice to the Board of Managers shall constitute an offer by such Residential Unit Owner to sell the Residential Unit Owner’s Residential Unit or Lease the Residential Unit Owner’s Residential Unit to the Board of Managers or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all other Residential Unit Owners, upon the same terms and conditions as contained in such Outside Offer and shall also constitute a warranty and representation by the Offeree Residential Unit Owner who has received such Outside Offer to the Board of Managers, on behalf of all Residential Unit Owners, that such Residential Unit Owner believes the Outside Offer to be bona fide in all respects. The Offeree Residential Unit Owner shall submit in writing such further information with respect thereto as the Board of Managers may reasonably request. Not later than ten (10) days after the later of the receipt of such notice or such further information as may have been requested by the Board of Managers, the Board of Managers may elect, by sending written notice to such Offeree Residential Unit Owner before the expiration of said ten (10) day period, by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to purchase such Residential Unit or to lease such Residential Unit, as the case may be, or to cause the same to be purchased or leased by its designee (corporate or otherwise), on behalf of all Residential Unit Owners on the same terms and conditions as contained in the Outside Offer and stated in the notice from the Offeree Residential Unit Owner.

In the event the Board of Managers shall timely elect to purchase any such Residential Unit or to Lease such Residential Unit, or to cause the same to be purchased or leased by its designee, corporate or otherwise, title shall close, or lease shall be executed at the office of the attorneys for the Condominium, in accordance with the terms of the Outside Offer, within forty-five (45) days after the giving of notice by the Board of Managers of its election to accept such offer. If, pursuant to such Outside Offer to purchase such Residential Unit, the Outside Offeror was to assume or take title to the Residential Unit subject to the Offeree Residential Unit Owner's existing mortgage or mortgages, the Board of Managers may purchase the Residential Unit and assume to take title to the Residential Unit subject to said existing mortgage or mortgages, as the case may be. At the closing, the Offeree Residential Unit Owner, if such Residential Unit is to be sold, shall convey the same to the Board of Managers, or to its designee, on behalf of all other Residential Unit Owners, by deed in the form required by Section 339-o of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, with all tax and other documents and/or documentary stamps affixed at the expense of such Residential Unit Owner, who shall also pay all the taxes arising out of such sale. Real estate taxes (including water charges and sewer rents if separately assessed), mortgage interests, if any, and the Common Charges shall be apportioned between the Offeree Residential Unit Owner and the Board of Managers, or its designee (corporate or otherwise), as of the closing date. In the event such Residential Unit is to be leased, the Offeree Residential Unit Owner shall execute and deliver to the Board of Managers, or to its designee (corporate or otherwise), a lease between the Offeree Residential Unit Owner, as Landlord, and the Board of Managers, or its designee (corporate or otherwise), as Tenant, covering such Residential Unit for the rental and terms contained in such Outside Offer.

In the event the Board of Managers or its designee shall fail to accept such offer within twenty (20) days after receipt of such notice, as aforesaid, or in the event the Board of Managers shall, prior thereto, waive such Right of First Refusal in accordance with Sections 3 and 4 of this Article, the Offeree Residential Unit Owner shall be free to accept the Outside Offer within a sixty (60) day period after (i) notice of refusal is sent or (ii) the expiration of the period in which the Board of Managers or its designee might have accepted such offer, as the case may be. In the event the Offeree Residential Unit Owner shall not, within such sixty (60) day period, accept in writing the Outside Offer, or if the Offeree Residential Unit Owner shall accept the Outside Offer within such sixty (60) day period, but such sale or lease, as the case may be, shall not be consummated, then should such Offeree Residential Unit Owner thereafter elect to sell such Residential Unit or lease such Residential Unit, as the case may be, the Offeree Residential Unit Owner shall be required to again comply with all the terms and conditions of this Section.

Any deed to an Outside Offeror shall provide that the acceptance thereof by the Outside Offeror shall constitute an assumption of the provisions of the Declaration, the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations, as the same may be amended from time to time.

Any lease executed in connection with the acceptance of an Outside Offer to lease a Residential Unit shall be consistent with these By-Laws and shall provide that it may not be modified, amended, extended, or assigned without the prior written consent of the Board of Managers; the tenant shall not assign the tenant's interest in such Lease or sublet the demised premises or any part thereof without the prior written consent of the Board of Managers; and the Board of Managers shall have the power to terminate such lease and/or to bring summary proceedings to evict the tenant in the name of the landlord thereunder in the event of (i) a default by the tenant to perform its obligations under such lease or (ii) a foreclosure of the lien granted by Section 339-z of the Real Property Law of the State of New York.

Except as herein above set forth, the form of any such lease executed by the Board of Managers, or an Outside Offeror, shall be the then current form of apartment lease recommended by the Real Estate Board of New York, Inc., and shall contain such other modifications as provide in Section 7 of this Article XI and as shall be required and approved in writing by the Board of Managers. Any lease executed by the Board of Managers, as tenant, shall provide that the Board of Managers may enter into a sublease of the premises without the consent of the landlord.

Any purported sale or lease of a Residential Unit in violation of this section shall be voidable at the election of the Board of Managers and, if the Board of Managers shall so elect, the Residential Unit Owner shall be deemed to have authorized and empowered the Board of Managers to commence legal proceedings to evict the purported tenant (in the case of an unauthorized leasing) in the name of the said Residential Unit Owner as the purported landlord. Said Residential Unit Owner shall reimburse the Board of Managers for all expenses (including attorneys' fees and disbursements) incurred in connection with such proceedings.

The foregoing restrictions of Section 2 of this Article XI shall not apply to Sponsor-owned Residential Units or any mortgagee acquiring title to a Residential Unit, in a foreclosure or otherwise. The Sponsor, its successors, assignees or designees or any mortgagee acquiring title to a Residential Unit in a foreclosure or otherwise shall have the right to freely sell their Residential Unit or to freely lease all or any part thereof without first having to offer the same for sale or lease to the Board of Managers.

Section 3. Release or Waiver by Board of Managers of the Right of First Refusal.

The Right of First Refusal contained in Section 2 of this Article XI may be released or waived by the Board of Managers only in the manner provided in this Section 3 of Article XI. In the event the Board of Managers shall release or waive its Right of First Refusal as to any Residential Unit, such Residential Unit may be sold, conveyed or leased free and clear of the provisions of said Sections 1 and 2 and all other restrictions, except that no Residential Unit Owner shall convey, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, sell or lease the Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit unless and until all unpaid Common Charges and/or Special Assessments assessed against the Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit shall have been paid to the Board of Managers and all provisions regarding rentals as provided for in Section 7 of this Article XI are met. However, such unpaid Common Charges and/or Special Assessments can be paid out of the proceeds from the sale of a Residential Unit or by the Purchaser of the Residential Unit. Further, a Residential Unit Owner may convey the Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit and the Residential Unit Owner, the Residential Unit Owner's Common Interest appurtenant thereto to the Board of Managers on behalf of all Residential Unit Owners free of any cost to the Board of Managers or the Residential Unit Owners, and upon such conveyance such Residential Unit Owner shall not be liable for any Common Charges and/or Special Assessments thereafter accruing against such Residential Unit. Any sale or lease of any Residential Unit in violation of this section shall be voidable at the election of the Board of Managers.

A certificate executed and acknowledged by the Secretary of the Condominium, stating that the provisions of Section 2 of this Article XI have been met by a Residential Unit Owner or stating that the Right of First Refusal contained therein has been duly released or waived by the Board of Managers, and that as a result thereof the rights of the Board of Managers thereunder shall terminate, shall be conclusive upon the Board of Managers and the Residential Unit Owners in favor of all persons who rely upon such certificate in good faith. The Board of Managers shall furnish, without charge, such certificate upon request to any Residential Unit Owner with respect to whom the provisions of such section have, in fact, terminated.

Section 5. Financing of Purchase of Residential Unit by Board of Managers.

The purchase of a Residential Unit by the Board of Managers or its designee, on behalf of all Residential Unit Owners, may be made from funds deposited in the capital and or operating account of the Condominium. If the funds in such accounts are insufficient to effectuate any such purchase, the Board of Managers may levy an assessment against each Residential Unit Owner, in proportion to each Residential Unit's percentage of common interest as reflected in Schedule B of the Declaration, as a Special Assessment, and/or the Board of Managers may in its discretion finance the acquisition of the Residential Unit; provided, however, that no such financing may be secured by an encumbrance, or an hypothecation of any portion of the Property other than the Residential Unit to be purchased. If financed all costs of the financing and any debt service on the financing shall be paid as a Special Assessment or become an ongoing Common Expense of the Condominium until the debt is satisfied.

Section 6. Exceptions.

The provisions of Section 2 of this Article XI shall not apply with respect to any lease, sale or conveyance of a Residential Unit by (a) the Residential Unit Owner thereof to the Residential Unit Owner's spouse, adult children, parents, parents-in-law, adult siblings, or any one or more of them, (b) to any devisee or beneficiary as a result of the death of the Residential Unit Owner, pursuant to a Will or by operation of law, should the Residential Unit Owner die Intestate or (c) the Sponsor, its successor, assignee or its designee, (d) the Board of Managers, or (e) any proper officer conducting the sale of the Residential Unit in connection with the foreclosure of a mortgage or other lien covering such Residential Unit, or delivering a deed in lieu of such foreclosure; provided, however, that the new Residential Unit Owner shall be bound by, and the Residential Unit Owner's Residential Unit subject to, the provisions of this Article.

Section 7. Leasing Requirements for Residential Units.

In addition to the Right of First Refusal detailed in Section 2 above, every lease on every Residential Unit in the Condominium is subject to the following rules and regulations, regardless of whether stated in the lease:

(a) No later than thirty (30) days prior to execution of a lease or a renewal lease, the Residential Unit Owner must provide the Board of Managers of the Condominium with a copy of the lease, name of the proposed tenant and terms of the lease, credit and background check (including criminal background), a minimum of two (2) referrals and any other information that may be requested by the Board of Managers;

(b) the lease must be in writing;

(c) the lease must be for the entire Residential Unit;

(d) the lease must have a minimum term of twelve (12) months. Renewal terms shall also have a minimum term of twelve (12) months.

(e) the form of the lease and any renewal lease must contain a provision that the tenant has thoroughly read and agrees to be subject to the Declaration, the By-Laws and Rules and Regulations of the Condominium and agrees to accept the power of attorney of the Condominium to evict the tenant for any violation by the tenant of the Declaration, the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations of the Condominium and agrees to be jointly and severally liable with the Residential Unit Owner for any and all fines and costs levied against the tenant for any violation of the provisions of the Rules and Regulations, By-Laws and/or Declaration of Condominium;

(f) the use of the premises is subject to the Declaration, the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations of the entire Condominium;

(g) within thirty (30) days of occupancy by the tenant or renewal of any lease, the name and telephone number of the tenant, together with a clear and complete copy of the executed lease, must be furnished to the Managing Agent or if no Managing Agent to the Board of Managers of the Condominium;

(h) the Residential Unit cannot be used as a youth hostel, Airbnb, bed and breakfast, motel, hotel and/or for any other transient type of use;

(i) no Residential Unit Owner, Resident or tenant shall be permitted to place any signs for rent in or on the Residential Unit or the Common Elements of the Condominium;

(j) all leases and tenants are subject to all municipal requirements applicable to rentals, if any;

(k) all leases of a Residential Unit shall contain the following language: "This agreement and the rights and obligations of the parties hereunder are hereby made expressly subject to the right if any, of the Board of Managers of the Condominium with respect to the transaction embodied herein pursuant to the terms of the By-Laws of the Condominium, as the same may have been amended;

(l) the lease must contain the Smoking Policy provisions contained in Article VIII, Section 2 of these By-Laws; and

(m) if any Residential Unit Owner (landlord) or tenant is in violation of any of the provisions of the Declaration or By-Laws, or both, including any Rules and Regulations, the Board of Managers of the Condominium may bring an action in its own name or in the name of the Residential Unit Owner, or both, to have the tenant evicted or to recover damages, or both.

The Board of Managers, in its sole discretion, may add or change any of the criteria in this Section 7 with respect to the requirements of leasing Residential Units.

The Board of Managers reserves the right to deny a prospective tenant of a Residential Unit's application if the Board of Managers determines that the prospective tenant may constitute a threat to the health, safety and/or protection of the Residential Unit Owners or may result in substantial physical damage to the Common Elements of the Condominium without having to exercise the Board of Managers' Right of First Refusal. In the event the Board of Managers of the Condominium, in its sole discretion, determines that the prospective tenant of the Residential Unit does not meet its criteria for tenancy of a Residential Unit as provided herein and in Sections 1 and 7 of Article XI of the By-Laws, the Board of Managers shall issue a denial to the Residential Unit Owner within ten (10) days of such determination. The Residential Unit Owner shall thereafter have the right to procure a second prospective tenant for the Board of Managers' Right of First Refusal, review, and approval pursuant to all of the terms of Article XI of the By-Laws.

In order to carry out the provisions of this Article XI and pursuant to the provisions of Article XIV of the Declaration of Condominium each Residential Unit Owner shall upon becoming a Residential Unit Owner grant an irrevocable power of attorney, to nominate, designate, constitute and appoint the Board of Managers of the Condominium and their successors, jointly, their true and lawful attorneys-in-fact, coupled with an interest, with power of substitution, in their name and on their behalf, the right to act in their behalf to take any and all action necessary against any tenant(s) that may be residing in a Residential Unit Owner's Condominium Residential Unit including but not limited to, the right to seek an eviction in a court of law for failure to adhere to any of the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium, By-Laws and/or Rules and Regulations of the Condominium. The remedy provided by this subsection is not exclusive and is in addition to any other remedy or remedies available to the Board of Managers of the Condominium. If permitted by present or future law, the Condominium may recover all of its costs, including court costs and reasonable attorney's fees, and these costs shall be a continuing lien on the Residential Unit that shall bind the Residential Unit in the hands of the then Residential Unit Owner and the Residential Unit Owner's successors and assigns. The Board of Managers of the Condominium shall give the tenant and the Residential Unit Owner written notice of the nature of the violation of the Rule and Regulation, and thirty (30) days from the mailing of the notice in which to cure the violation before the Board of Managers of the Condominium may file for eviction.

The foregoing restrictions of Sections 1, 2 and 7 of this Article XI shall not apply to Sponsor owned Residential Units or any mortgagee acquiring title to a Residential Unit, in a foreclosure or otherwise. The Sponsor, its successors, assignees or designees or any mortgagee acquiring title to a Residential Unit in a foreclosure or otherwise shall have the right to freely sell their Residential Unit or to freely lease all or any part thereof as long as the lease and use by a tenant, is in compliance with the permitted use of the Residential Unit under applicable zoning and occupancy requirements.

Section 8. Waiver of Partition Rights.

The Residential Unit Owners waive all of their voting rights concerning partition respecting any Residential Unit acquired by the Board of Managers in accordance with this Article.

Section 9. Gifts, etc.

Any Residential Unit Owner may convey or transfer their Residential Unit by gift during the Residential Unit Owner's lifetime or devise their Residential Unit by will or pass the same by intestacy, without restriction.

Section 10. Tenant Bound by Declaration.

By becoming a tenant, each tenant agrees to be bound by the Declaration, the By-Laws and the other Rules and Regulations of the Condominium and recognizes and accepts the right and the power of the Condominium to evict the tenant for any violation by the tenant of the Declaration, the By-Laws and the other Rules and Regulations of the Condominium.

Section 11. Lenders.

To protect first mortgage lenders and to encourage first mortgage lenders to make loans on Residential Units in the Condominium, only subsections (c), (e), (f), (g), (h), (i), (j) and (k) of Section 7 of this Article XI shall apply to a first mortgage lender who has title to the Residential Unit through (a) foreclosure of its first mortgage on the Residential Unit; or (b) a deed in lieu of foreclosure of its first mortgage on the Residential Unit. Any subsequent purchaser from the first mortgage lender is subject to all the terms of this Article XI. In addition, the provisions of Article XII of the Declaration of Condominium regarding an Institutional Mortgage shall be applicable regarding unpaid Common Charges accrued before acquisition of title of a Unit by the mortgagee.

Section 12. Sponsor.

The foregoing restrictions of Sections 1, 2 and 7 of this Article XI shall not apply to Sponsor owned Residential Units. The Sponsor, its successors, assignees, or designees shall have the right to freely sell their Residential Unit or to freely lease all or any part thereof without any interference or any restrictions by the Board of Managers as long as the lease and use by a tenant is in compliance with the permitted use of the Residential Unit under applicable zoning and occupancy requirements.

Section 13. Section 339-kk of the Real Property Law.

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 339-kk of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, any non-occupying Residential Unit Owner who rents any Residential Unit in the Condominium to a rental tenant and then fails to make payments due for Common Charges, assessments or late fees for such Residential Unit within sixty (60) days of the expiration of any grace period after they are due is subject to the following: Upon notice in accordance with the statute, all rental payments from the tenants shall thereafter be directly payable to the condominium association. The provisions of Section 339-kk of the Real Property Law shall control any dispute pursuant to this provision of the By-Laws.

ARTICLE XII. ARBITRATION

Section 1. Procedure.

Any matter required or permitted to be determined by arbitration pursuant to the terms of the Condominium Documents shall be submitted for resolution by a single arbitrator in a proceeding held in the local jurisdiction of the Condominium in accordance with the then existing rules of the American Arbitration Association or any successor organization thereto. The arbitrator shall be an independent 3rd party who is not related to any of the parties to the dispute. In the event that the American Arbitration Association shall not then be in existence and has no successor organization, any such arbitration shall be held in New York City before one arbitrator appointed, upon the application of any party by the Real Estate Board of New York.

Section 2. Variation by Agreement.

The parties to any dispute required or permitted to be resolved by arbitration pursuant to the terms of the Condominium Documents may, by written agreement, vary any of the terms of Section 1 hereof with respect to the arbitration of such dispute or may agree to resolve their dispute in any manner, including, without limitation, the manner set forth in Section 3031 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules and known as "New York Simplified Procedure for Court Determination of Disputes".

Section 3. Binding Effect.

The decision in any arbitration conducted pursuant to the terms of Section 1 and 2 hereof shall be binding upon all of the parties thereto and may be entered in any court of appropriate jurisdiction.

Section 4. Costs and Expenses.

The fees, costs and expenses of the arbitrator shall be borne by the losing party in the arbitration or, if the position of neither party to the dispute shall be substantially upheld by the arbitrator, such fees, costs, and expenses shall be borne equally by the disputants. Each disputant shall also bear the fees and expenses of his counsel and expert witnesses.

All costs and expenses paid or incurred by the Condominium Board of Managers in connection with any arbitration held hereunder, including, without limitation, the fees and expenses of counsel and expert witnesses shall constitute Common Expenses.

ARTICLE XIII. CONDEMNATION

In the event all or part of the Common Elements are taken in condemnation or eminent domain proceedings, the award from such proceedings shall be paid to the Insurance Trustee if the award is more than $50,000 and to the Board of Managers if the award is $50,000 or less, to be distributed in accordance with Section 3 of Article VII but in the following amounts:

(a) So much of the award as is applicable to the General Common Elements, to the Residential Unit Owners pro rata according to the respective Percentage of Common Interest appurtenant to the Residential Unit owned by such Residential Unit Owners.

(b) So much of the award as is applicable to the Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Elements, to the Residential Unit Owner having general use of such Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Element.

In such eminent domain or condemnation proceeding the Board of Managers shall request that the award set forth the amount allocated to General Common Elements, and to each Individual Residential Unit's Limited Common Element. In the event the award does not set forth such allocation then the question of such allocation shall be submitted to the arbitration in accordance with Article XII of these By-Laws. Any condemnation or eminent domain award shall require that any proceeds applicable to a Residential Unit be applied first to a first mortgagee of a Residential Unit as its interest may appear.

ARTICLE XIV. SPONSOR RIGHTS

Section 1. Sales/Rentals.

The Sponsor, its nominees and agents, shall have the right and privilege to maintain general and local sales and rental offices in and about the Condominium, including any Unsold Residential Units located within the Condominium Building or elsewhere throughout the project, and shall have the right and privilege to have their representatives, employees and agents present on the Condominium premises to show the Residential Units to prospective purchasers or tenants, to utilize the Common Elements, no matter how classified, and without limitation, to do any and all things necessary incident to the sale or rental of the Residential Units, without charge or contribution other than in the form of Common Charge payments as otherwise provided for herein.

Section 2. Signs/Ingress/Egress.

The Sponsor shall have the right to continue to employ signs of its choice upon the Condominium premises in its efforts to construct, sell and lease the Residential Units, or any other property, development, or community the Sponsor, its successors, assigns or designees so prescribe. Incident to the rights and privileges provided for herein, the officers, employees, agents, contractors, guests and invitees of the Sponsor, its successors and assigns, shall have the right of ingress and egress to and throughout the Common Elements of the Condominium no matter how classified.

Section 3. Additional Rights.

The Sponsor, its successor, assignees, designees, nominees, and agents shall, in addition to the above, have any additional rights afforded to the Sponsor, its successors, assignees, designees, nominees and agents in these By-Laws, Rules and Regulations and the Declaration of Condominium.

Section 4. Amendment

This Article XV may not be modified or amended without the written consent of the Sponsor so long as the Sponsor continues to own one (1) or more unsold Residential Units.

ARTICLE XV. MISCELLANEOUS

Section 1. Insurance.

Under no circumstances shall a Residential Unit Owner permit or suffer anything to be done or left in a Residential Unit which will increase the insurance rates on the Residential Unit or any other Residential Unit or on the Common Elements.

Section 2. Severability.

Should any of the covenants, terms or provisions herein imposed be void or be or become unenforceable at law in equity, the remaining provisions of these By-Laws shall, nevertheless, be and remain in full force and effect.

Section 3. Notice to Condominium.

A Residential Unit Owner, who mortgages the Residential Unit, shall notify the Condominium through the management agent, if any, or the Board of Managers in the event there is no management agent, of the name and address of the Residential Unit Owner's mortgagee; and the Board of Managers shall maintain such information in a book entitled "Mortgagees of Residential Units".

Section 4. Notice of Unpaid Assessments.

The Board of Managers shall at the request of a mortgagee of a Residential Unit, report any unpaid Common Charges due from the Residential Unit Owner of such Residential Unit.

Section 5. Examination of Books and Records.

Every Residential Unit Owner or the Residential Unit Owner's representative and mortgagee shall be entitled to examine the books and records of the Condominium on reasonable notice to the Board of Managers at convenient hours on weekdays (except legal holidays) but not more often than once a month. Said hours are to be determined by the Board of Managers or Managing Agent.

Section 6. Costs of Legal Action

In the event the Board of Managers institutes any legal action for the enforcement of any of the provisions of the Declaration of the Condominium, By-Laws and/or Rules and Regulations of the Condominium, then the Defendant shall be responsible for payment of reasonable attorney's fees of the Board of Managers on behalf of the Condominium, plus interest and costs of suit.

Section 7. Reports to Residential Unit Owners

It is the obligation of the Board of Managers of the Condominium to give all Residential Unit Owners annually:

(a) a financial statement of the Condominium prepared by a certified public accountant or public accountant by a specific date; such statement shall be certified while the Sponsor retains a majority of the Board of Managers and such statement shall be provided within four (4) months of the end of each fiscal year;

(b) notice of at least ten (10) but not more than thirty (30) days' prior to the Annual Meeting; and

(c) a copy of the proposed annual budget of the Condominium within thirty (30) days of the date set for adoption by the Board of Managers. While Sponsor is in control of the Board of Managers such budget will be certified in accordance with the regulations of the Department of Law.

During the period Sponsor retains control of the Board of Managers of the Condominium, the Sponsor shall be required to provide certified financial statements for the Condominium. The cost of such reports shall be a Condominium Common Expense. In addition, during said period the Sponsor will be required to provide a Certification of Adequacy of the budget for the Condominium from a Managing Agent or other expert who is unaffiliated with the Sponsor for any amendments including the budget to the Offering Plan.

Section 8. Construction.

Wherever the masculine singular form of the pronoun is used in these By-Laws, it shall be construed to mean the masculine, feminine or neuter; singular or plural; wherever the context so requires.

Section 9. Compliance with Article 9-B.

These By-Laws are set forth to comply with the requirements of Article 9-B of the Real Property Laws of the State of New York. In case any of these By-Laws conflict with the provisions of said Statute or of the Declaration, the provisions of the Statute or of the Declaration, whichever the case may be, shall control.

HOUSING MERCHANT IMPLIED WARRANTY LAW

WARRANTIES ON SALE OF NEW HOMES

Section 777. Definitions.
777-a. Housing Merchant Implied Warranty.
777-b. Exclusion or Modification of Warranties.

Section 777. Definitions. As used in this article, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

1. "Builder" means any person, corporation, partnership or other entity contracting with an owner for the construction or sale of a new home.

2. "Building code" means the uniform fire prevention and building code promulgated under section three hundred seventy-seven of the executive law, local building code standards approved by the uniform fire prevention and building code council under section three hundred seventy-nine of the executive law, and the building code of the city of New York, as defined in titled twenty-seven of the administrative code of the city of New York.

3. "Constructed in a skillful manner" means that workmanship and materials meet or exceed the specific standards of the applicable building code. When the applicable building code does not provide a relevant specific standard, such term means that workmanship and materials meet or exceed the standards of locally accepted building practices.

4. "Material defect" means actual physical damage to the following load-bearing portions of the home caused by failure of such load-bearing portions which affects their load-bearing functions to the extent that the home becomes unsafe, unsanitary or otherwise unlivable: foundation systems and footings, beams, girders, lintels, columns, walls and partitions, floor systems, and roof framing systems.

5. "New home" or "home" means any single-family house or for-sale unit in a multi-unit residential structure of five stories or less in which title to the individual units is transferred to owners under a condominium or cooperative regime. Such terms do not include dwellings constructed solely for lease, mobile homes as defined in section seven hundred twenty-one of this chapter, or any house or unit in which the builder has resided in or leased continuously for three years or more following the date of completion of construction, as evidenced by a certificate of occupancy.

6. "Owner" means the first person to whom the home is sold and, during the unexpired portion of the warranty period, each successor in title to the home and any mortgagee in possession. Owner does not include the builder of the home or any firm under common control of the builder.

7. "Plumbing, electrical, heating, cooling and ventilation systems" shall mean:

a. in the case of plumbing systems: gas supply lines and fittings; water supply, waste and vent pipes and their fittings; septic tanks and their drain fields; water, gas and sewer service piping, and their extensions to the tie-in of a public utility connection, or on-site well and sewage disposal system;

b. in the case of electrical systems: all wiring, electrical boxes, switches, outlets and connections up to the public utility connection; and

c. in the case of heating, cooling and ventilation systems: all duct work, steam, water and refrigerant lines, registers, convectors, radiation elements and dampers.

8. "Warranty date" means the date of the passing of title to the first owner for occupancy by such owner or such owner's family as a residence, or the date of first occupancy of the home as a residence, whichever first occurs.

Section 777-a. Housing merchant implied warranty.

1. Notwithstanding the provisions of section two hundred fifty-one of the real property law, a housing merchant implied warranty is implied in the contract or agreement for the sale of a new home and shall survive the passing of title. A housing merchant implied warranty shall mean that:

a. one year from and after the warranty date the home will be free from defects due to a failure to have been constructed in a skillful manner;

b. two years from and after the warranty date the plumbing, electrical, heating, cooling and ventilation systems of the home will be free from defects due to a failure by the builder to have installed such systems in a skillful manner; and

c. six years from and after the warranty date the home will be free from material defects.

2. Unless the contract or agreement by its terms clearly evidences a different intention of the seller, a housing merchant implied warranty does not extend to:

a. any defect that does not constitute (i) defective workmanship by the builder or by an agent, employee or subcontractor of the builder, (ii) defective materials supplied by the builder or by an agent, employee or subcontractor of the builder, or (iii) defective design provided by a design professional retained exclusively by the builder; or

b. any patent defect which an examination ought in the circumstances to have revealed when the buyer before taking title or accepting construction as complete has examined the home as fully as the buyer desired or has refused to examine the home.

3. In the case of goods sold incidentally with or included in the sale of the new home, such as stoves, refrigerators, freezers, room air conditioners, dishwashers, clothes washers and dryers, a housing merchant implied warranty shall mean that such goods shall be free from defects due to failure by the builder or any agent, employee, or subcontractor of the builder to have installed such systems in a skillful manner. Merchantability, fitness, and all other implied warranties with respect to goods shall be governed by part three of article two of the uniform commercial code and other applicable statutes.

4. a. Written notice of a warranty claim for breach of a housing merchant implied warranty must be received by the builder prior to the commencement of any action under paragraph b of this subdivision and no later than thirty days after the expiration of the applicable warranty period, as described in subdivision one of this section. The owner and occupant of the home shall afford the builder reasonable opportunity to inspect, test and repair the portion of the home to which the warranty claim relates.

b. An action for damages or other relief caused by the breach of a housing merchant implied warranty may be commenced prior to the expiration of one year after the applicable warranty period, as described in subdivision one of this section, or within four years after the warranty date, whichever is later. In addition to the foregoing, if the builder makes repairs in response to a warranty claim under paragraph a of this subdivision, an action with respect to such claim may be commenced within one year after the last date on which such repairs are performed. The measure of damages shall be the reasonable cost of repair or replacement and property damage to the home proximately caused by the breach of warranty, not to exceed the replacement cost of the home exclusive of the value of the land, unless the court finds that, under the circumstances, the diminution in value of the home caused by the defect is a more equitable measure of damages.

c. In addition to any other period for the commencement of an action permitted by law, an action for contribution or indemnification may be commenced at any time prior to the expiration of one year after the entry of judgment in an action for damages under paragraph b of this subdivision.

5. Except as otherwise provided in section seven hundred seventy-seven-b of this article, any provision of a contract or agreement for the sale of a new home which excludes or modifies a housing merchant implied warranty shall be void as contrary to public policy.

6. Except as otherwise provided in section seven hundred seventy-seven-b of this article, other implied warranties may arise from the terms of the contract or agreement or from course of dealing or usage of trade.

777-b. Exclusion or modification of warranties.

1. Except in the case of a housing merchant implied warranty, the builder or seller of a new home may exclude or modify all warranties by any clear and conspicuous terms contained in the written contract or agreement of sale which call the buyer's attention to the exclusion or modification of warranties and make the exclusion or modification plain.

2. Except in the case of a housing merchant implied warranty, the builder or seller of a new home may exclude or modify warranties with respect to particular defects by any clear and conspicuous terms contained in the written contract or agreement of sale which identify such defects, call the buyer's attention to the exclusion or modification of warranties and make the exclusion or modification plain.

3. A housing merchant implied warranty may be excluded or modified by the builder or seller of a new home only if the buyer is offered a limited warranty in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision.

a. A copy of the express terms of the limited warranty shall be provided in writing to the buyer for examination prior to the time of the buyer's execution of the contract or agreement to purchase the home.

b. A copy of the express terms of the limited warranty shall be included in, or annexed to and incorporated in, the contract or agreement.

c. The language of the contract or agreement for sale of the home must conspicuously mention the housing merchant implied warranty and provide that the limited warranty excludes or modifies the implied warranty. Language to exclude all implied warranties is sufficient if it states, for example, that "There are no warranties which extend beyond the face hereof."

d. The limited warranty shall meet or exceed the standards provided in subdivisions four and five of this section.

4. A limited warranty sufficient to exclude or modify a housing merchant implied warranty must be written in plain English and must clearly disclose:

a. that the warranty is a limited warranty which limits implied warranties on the sale of the home; the words "limited warranty" must be clearly and conspicuously captioned at the beginning of the warranty document;

b. the identification of the names and addresses of all warrantors;

c. the identification of the party or parties to whom the warranty is extended and whether it is extended to subsequent owners; the limited warranty must be extended to the first owner of the home and survive the passing of title but may exclude any or all subsequent owners;

d. a statement of the products or parts covered by the limited warranty;

e. the clear and conspicuous identification of any parts or portions of the home or premises that are excepted or excluded from warranty coverage, and the standards that will be used to determine whether a defect has occurred; provided, however, that:

i. any exception, exclusion or standard which does not meet or exceed a relevant specific standard of the applicable building code, or in the absence of such relevant specific standard a locally accepted building practice, shall be void as contrary to public policy and shall be deemed to establish the applicable building code standard or locally accepted building practice as the warranty standard; and

ii. any exception, exclusion or standard that fails to ensure that the home is habitable, by permitting conditions to exist which render the home unsafe, shall be void as contrary to public policy.

f. what the builder and any other warrantor will do when a defect covered by the warranty does arise, and the time within which the builder and any other warrantor will act;

g. the term of the warranty coverage and when the term begins, provided, however, that such term shall be equal to or exceed the warranty periods of a housing merchant implied warranty, as defined in subdivision one of section seven hundred seventy-seven-a of this article;

h. step-by-step claims procedures required to be undertaken by the owner, if any, including directions for notification of the builder and any other warrantor; an owner shall not be required to submit to binding arbitration or to pay any fee or charge for participation in nonbinding arbitration or any mediation process;

i. any limitations on or exclusions of consequential or incidental damages, and any limitations on the builder's and other warrantor's total liability, conspicuously expressed on the first page of the warranty. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a limited warranty shall not be construed to permit any limitation on or exclusion of property damage to the home proximately caused by a breach of the limited warranty, where the court finds that such limitation or exclusion would cause the limited warranty to fail of its essential purpose, except that such property damage may be limited by an express limitation on the builder's or other warrantor's total liability in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph.

5. a. This article shall not be construed to authorize or validate any covenant, promise, agreement or understanding which is void and unenforceable under Section 5-322.1 of the general obligations law.

b. This article shall preempt any local law inconsistent with the provisions of this article. This article shall not preempt any builder subject to its provisions from complying with any local law with respect to the regulation of home builders except as expressly provided herein.

c. Nothing in this article shall be construed to repeal, invalidate, supersede or restrict any right, liability or remedy provided by any other statute of the state, except where such construction would, as a matter of law, be unreasonable.

SECTION 339-KK OF THE REAL PROPERTY LAW

The Real Property Law is amended by adding a new Section 339-kk to read as follows:

"§ 339-kk. Rents. (a) For the purposes of this section, "non-occupying owner" shall mean a unit owner in a condominium association who does not occupy the dwelling unit.

(b) If a non-occupying owner rents any dwelling unit to a rental tenant and then fails to make payments due for common charges, assessments or late fees for such unit within sixty days of the expiration of any grace period after they are due, upon notice in accordance with subdivision (c) of this section, all rental payments from the tenant shall be directly payable to the condominium association.

(c) If the common charges, assessments or late fees due for any unit have not been paid in full, within sixty days after the expiration of any grace period of the earliest due date, the board of managers shall provide written notice to the tenant and the non-occupying owner providing that, commencing immediately and until such time as all payments for common charges, assessments or late fees are made current, all rental payments due subsequent to the issuance of such notice are to be made payable to the condominium association at the address listed on the notice. Where a majority of the board of managers has been elected by and from among the unit owners who are in occupancy, the board may elect not to require that rental payments be made payable to the condominium association. At such time as payments for common charges, assessments and late fees from the non-occupying owner are once again current, notice of such fact shall be given within three business days to the rental tenant and non-occupying owner. Thereafter all rental payments shall be made payable to the non-occupying owner or a designated agent. A non-occupying owner who disputes the association's claim to rental payments pursuant to this section shall be entitled to present facts supporting such owner's position at the next scheduled meeting of the board of managers, which must be held within thirty days of the date that such board receives notice that such owner seeks to dispute such claim.

(d) Nothing in this section shall limit any rights of unit owners or of the board of managers existing under any other law or agreement.

(e) Payment by a rental tenant to the condominium association made in connection with this section shall relieve that rental tenant from the obligation to pay such rent to the non-occupying owner and shall be an absolute defense in any non-payment proceeding commenced by such non-occupying owner against such tenant for such rent."

This act may be enforced by any party by means of a special proceeding brought pursuant to Article 4 of the Civil Practice Law and Rules.
