DATE OF ACCEPTANCE FOR FILING: _____

(SEE SPECIAL RISK SECTION OF THE PLAN.) THIS OFFERING PLAN IS THE ENTIRE OFFER TO SELL THESE CONDOMINIUM UNITS. NEW YORK LAW REQUIRES THE SPONSOR TO DISCLOSE ALL MATERIAL INFORMATION IN THIS PLAN AND TO FILE THIS PLAN WITH THE NEW YORK STATE DEPARTMENT OF LAW PRIOR TO SELLING OR OFFERING TO SELL ANY CONDOMINIUM UNIT. City and State of New York

PART I

A. SPECIAL RISKS TO BE CONSIDERED BY PURCHASERS

Purchase of a Condominium Unit

1. (a) THE PURCHASE OF A CONDOMINIUM UNIT HAS MANY SIGNIFICANT LEGAL AND FINANCIAL CONSEQUENCES. THE ATTORNEY GENERAL STRONGLY URGES YOU TO READ THESE OFFERING MATERIALS CAREFULLY AND TO CONSULT WITH AN ATTORNEY BEFORE SIGNING THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT CONTAINED IN THIS PLAN. ALL INITIALLY CAPITALIZED WORDS NOT SEPARATELY DEFINED SHALL HAVE THE MEANINGS GIVEN TO SUCH WORDS IN THE DEFINITIONS SECTION, THE BY-LAWS OR IN THE DECLARATION HEREINAFTER.

(b) 311 Eastern Parkway Condominium (the "Condominium") contains five (5) Units (and their appurtenant interests in the Common Elements) that are being offered for sale under this Plan. The Units may be used only for residential purposes, and subject to compliance with the Declaration and the By-Laws, for lawful home occupation as defined in the New York City zoning resolution. (See the Sections of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners" and the Declaration in Part II of the Plan for further details.)

(c) Purchasers should note that in the current real estate market, banks and other lenders are imposing various restrictions on purchase financing. Such restrictions include requiring that a certain percentage of Units in a building or group of buildings be sold before a lender will consider making a loan. Thus, it may be possible for a purchaser to experience difficulty obtaining a loan in a building or group of buildings where the Sponsor or a holder of unsold shares has not sold a substantial percentage of the Units in the building or group of buildings, which in some cases may be as high as seventy percent (70%) of the total units. Moreover, some lenders will not provide financing in a building or group of buildings where an investor other than the original Sponsor has an ownership interest of ten percent (10%) or more of the total units. It may also be difficult for a purchaser to resell a Unit if prospective Purchasers are unable to obtain a loan due to the same minimum sales and investor ownership restrictions. (See the Sections of the Plan entitled "Procedure to Purchase" and "Financing for Qualified Purchases" for further details.)

(d) TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE as to all of a Purchaser's obligations to Sponsor under the Purchase Agreement, including, without limitation, Purchaser's obligation to Close Title on the Closing Date and to pay, perform or observe all of Purchaser's other obligations under the Purchase Agreement and to cure any default under the Purchase Agreement within thirty (30) days after Sponsor gives notice to Purchaser of the default. According to Black's Law Dictionary (Revised Fifth Edition), "time is of the essence of contract" means generally that punctual performance by one party at one precise time named or within a period specified in the contract is essential to enable the party to require performance by the other party. A Purchaser who defaults under the Purchase Agreement and fails to cure the default within such thirty (30) day period may not be permitted additional time to cure the default. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Procedure to Purchase" for further details.)

(e) In the event that a Purchaser (i) defaults in paying the balance of the Purchase Price on the date scheduled by Sponsor for the Closing of Title to his/her Unit; or (ii) defaults in performing some other obligation under the Purchase Agreement and fails to cure such default within thirty (30) days after Sponsor sends written notice to Purchaser specifying the nature of the default, WITH TIME BEING OF THE ESSENCE, then Sponsor's sole remedy shall be to cancel the Purchaser Agreement by sending thirty (30) days' written notice to such Purchaser and, if such Purchaser shall fail to cure such default within the said thirty (30) day period, to retain, as and for liquidated damages the full amount of the Deposit as well as the actual cost incurred by Sponsor for any special work or upgrades ordered by Purchaser if Purchaser has deposited funds for upgrades with Sponsor's escrow agent. Any payments received by Sponsor in excess of the Deposit plus the actual cost incurred by Sponsor for any special work or upgrades together with any interest earned on such excess payments, if any, shall be refunded to the Purchaser with reasonable promptness after cancellation. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Procedure to Purchase for details.)

(f) If a Purchaser has entered into Purchase Agreements to purchase more than one Unit, all such Units must close simultaneously and a default by Purchaser in the payment or performance of any obligations under any of such Purchase Agreements, beyond any applicable grace periods, shall be deemed a default under the other Purchase Agreements. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Procedure to Purchase for details.)

(g) When a Purchaser makes a Deposit, it is placed in the Sponsor's escrow account (the "Escrow Bank") to hold escrowed funds. Under current law, if a Purchaser makes a Deposit in excess of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00) for the purchase of a Unit, the amount in excess of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00) will not be federally insured. If a Purchaser maintains accounts at the Escrow Bank, the funds in such accounts, together with the Deposit, may be aggregated by the Escrow Bank for purposes of determining the Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00) federally insured limit. Additionally, until such time as Purchaser delivers either an executed W-9 or W-8 Form to Sponsor, the Deposit under the Purchase Agreement shall remain in the non-interest-bearing portion of the Master Escrow Account. While the Deposit is in the non-interest-bearing portion of the Master Escrow Account, the Deposit under the Purchase Agreement may not be federally insured even if the Deposit does not exceed Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00). No representation is made with respect to any further changes in law concerning such accounts. Purchasers should consult with their accountants or financial advisors for further information. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Escrow and Trust Fund Requirements" for further details.)

(h) Sponsor has obtained construction financing from USC 311 Eastern LLC, 233 Broadway, Suite 1470, New York, New York (the "Construction Lender") to construct the Building. Sponsor will pay, satisfy and otherwise comply with the terms of the loan documents. Before the First Closing, the Construction Lender has agreed to subordinate its liens to the Declaration, will consent to the formation of the Condominium and acknowledge that its mortgage liens will be limited to Unsold Units. In addition, the Unit and each subsequent Unit being conveyed, and its appurtenant Common Interest will be released therefrom by partial release upon payment of the relevant payment as provided in the loan documents. Sponsor has no obligation to market the Units pursuant to the loan documents and there is no minimum number of or percentage of Units which must be under contract before this Plan can be declared effective pursuant to the loan documents. The Construction Lender has set no limits or requirements for

Sponsor to rent rather than sell Units. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligation of Sponsor" for further details.)

(i) A Purchaser's obligation to purchase a Unit pursuant to the Purchase Agreement shall not be contingent on such Purchaser obtaining financing for the purchase of the Unit, so that a Purchaser will remain obligated under the Purchase Agreement whether or not Purchaser has been able to obtain financing. Neither Sponsor, Sponsor's Representatives (as hereinafter defined), or Selling Agent, hereby makes any representations as to the terms or availability of any mortgage financing (including, without limitation, the availability of financing conforming to FHA or FNMA requirements). Prospective purchasers may want to finalize their financing arrangements before signing a Purchase Agreement and should be aware that even if a loan commitment is obtained, its term may be limited, and the interest rate lock and or the commitment itself could expire before the Closing Date. Neither Sponsor, Sponsor's Representatives, nor Selling Agent shall have any liability as a result of any scheduling or adjournment of Closing beyond the expiration of an interest rate lock or any loan commitment. The obligations of a Purchaser under a Purchase Agreement are not conditioned on obtaining financing. Any prospective purchaser who executes a Purchase Agreement and does not obtain financing may lose his/her Deposit if he/she is unable to otherwise raise the monies for the balance of the Purchase Price. Prospective purchasers who require financing are advised to consult with a lending institution before execution of a Purchase Agreement. No representation is made by the Sponsor as to the availability or cost of such financing. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Procedure to Purchase" for further details.)

(j) The Sponsor may, at its sole option, consent to permit a mortgage contingency. Factors that the Sponsor considers when deciding whether to offer a mortgage contingency including but are not limited to a Purchaser's pre-approval letter. Purchasers should note, however, that even in the event a pre-approval letter is obtained, Sponsor is not obligated to sell a Unit with a mortgage contingency. In determine whether to permit a mortgage contingency; Sponsor may not discriminate against any person on the basis of race, creed, color, nationality, sex, age or other grounds prohibited by law. In addition, Purchaser will not be required to incur the expense of a mortgage application until it has received a fully executed Purchase Agreement from Sponsor. A Purchaser requesting such contingency may condition her or her purchase agreement on obtaining a loan from an institutional lender doing business in New York of not more than seventy five percent (75%) of the Purchase Price. Note that under New York law, when a mortgage contingency is not fulfilled through no fault of purchaser, performance is excused. Sponsor may not condition purchaser's obligations upon obtaining a commitment. If Purchaser acts in good faith and lender revokes commitment after contingency period expires, performance is excused. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Procedure to Purchase" for further details.)

(k) If a Purchaser fails for any reason to Close Title to the Unit on the Originally Scheduled Closing Date (as hereinafter defined) other than due to Sponsor's failure or inability to Close Title to the Unit: (a) the closing apportionments to be made when the Closing does subsequently occur shall be made as of midnight of the calendar day preceding the original Scheduled Closing Date regardless of when the actual Closing occurs ("Actual Closing Date"), and (b) Purchaser shall be required to pay to Sponsor, as a reimbursement of Sponsor's increased carrying costs for the Unit by virtue of the delay, and in addition to the other payments to be made to Sponsor under the Purchase Agreement and the Plan, an amount equal to 0.04% of the Purchase Price for each day starting from (and including) the Originally Scheduled Closing Date to (and including) the Actual Closing Date. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Procedure to Purchase" for further details.)

(l) All funds received by Sponsor for upgrades or extras must initially be placed in the escrow account. Purchasers should note that such funds may be released from the escrow account by the escrow agent as long as Sponsor uses said funds for such upgrades or extras. As a result, if the event a Purchaser is entitled to a rescission, the Purchaser may not receive a refund of any funds used for upgrades or extras. If, however, the Plan is abandoned, unit upgrade funds will be returned to Purchasers. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Procedure to Purchase for further details.)

2. Closing Fees and Costs

(a) Transfer Taxes: Purchasers shall be obligated to pay the NYC Real Property Transfer Tax and NYS Real Property Transfer Tax which by law are a seller's statutory obligation, however the burden of paying such charges may be modified by contract, as it is in the Purchase Agreement and in many other purchaser agreements for condominium units in New York City. Be advised that when a Purchaser sells their Unit, they will be obligated to pay the NYC Real Property Transfer Tax and NYS Real Property Transfer Tax as the seller. If the Purchase Price of the Unit is at least One Million and 00/100 Dollars ($1,000,000.00), Purchaser shall also be obligated to pay the New York State Additional Tax pursuant to Article 31 of the Tax Law (commonly referred to as the "Mansion Tax") which is calculated as a percentage of the Purchase Price. The Mansion Tax tax rate increases as the Purchase Price increases. When the Purchase Price is between One Million and 00/100 ($1,000,000.00) and Two Million and 00/100 ($2,000,000.00), the tax rate is one (1%) percent of the Purchase Price, which by law is the primary obligation of the Purchaser. For purposes of calculating the NYC Real Property Transfer Tax payable, the NYC Real Property Transfer Tax and the NYS Real Property Transfer Tax due (not the Mansion Tax) are added to the taxable consideration. Regarding the Mansion Tax, the Purchase Price is the same as the taxable consideration. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Unit Closing Costs and Adjustments" for further details.)

New York State Tax Law Section 1404(a). The Transfer Tax section has been amended effective as of July 1, 2021. Under the revised law, if the conveyance is of residential real property and the grantee pays the NYS transfer tax, the NYS transfer tax is no longer included as a part of the taxable consideration, and the ultimate NYS transfer tax to be paid by the grantee is no longer "grossed up."

The requirement to "gross up" the taxable consideration has now been eliminated when calculating New York State Real Estate Transfer Tax (RETT) and Mansion Taxes on the conveyancing of a one- to three-family residential dwelling, an individual residential condominium and an individual residential cooperative unit, or interests therein, when the contract of sale places the burden of such transfer tax upon the grantee.

Additionally, Amended Tax Law Section 1404(a) now provides the grantee "a cause of action against the grantor for recovery of payment of such tax, interest and penalties" in the event the grantor fails to pay said RETT.

(b) Other Closing Costs

i. Each Purchaser shall be obligated to pay (a) Three Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($3,000.00) to the law firm of Vallely Mitola Ryan PLLC, Sponsor's attorney, to defray legal fees incurred in connection with the Closing; (b) if the Purchaser obtains financing and the lender is unwilling to close at the offices of Sponsor's attorney, the Closing may be held elsewhere in the County of New York, provided that an additional travel fee is paid to Sponsor attorney in the sum of Seven Hundred Fifty and 00/100 Dollars ($750.00); if the Closing takes place in a County other than New York the sum of One Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($1,000.00); (c) if the Closing is adjourned through no fault of Sponsor, the Purchaser shall be required to pay to Sponsor's attorney an additional fee of Seven Hundred Fifty and 00/100 Dollars ($750.00) to help defray the cost of preparing for and coordinating the new Closing; and (d) if Sponsor sent a notice of default to Purchaser, a fee of One Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($1,000.00) to Sponsor's attorney. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Unit Closing Costs and Adjustments" for further details.)

ii. Purchasers shall be required to pay at the Closing of Title a sum equal to two (2) months of Common Charges as a contribution to the Condominium Working Capital Fund. The Working Capital Fund is not a line item on Schedule B, the Projected Budget for First Year of Operation, and Sponsor may not use the Working Capital Fund to lower Common Charges (See Schedule B, the Projected Budget for First Year of Operation and the Schedule B footnotes immediately following thereto and the Section of the Plan entitled "Working Capital Fund" for further details.)

iii. At Closing, the Sponsor will collect each Purchaser's pro-rated share in the first year's insurance premium from the date of the closing until the end of the first year of condominium operation. This amount will be calculated in proportion to each Purchaser's common interest and will be used to reimburse the Sponsor for payment of the first year's premium. Insurance premiums paid as part of Common Charges from closing until the end of the budget year will be retained by the Board to pay toward the premium for next year. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Unit Closing Costs and Adjustments.")

Sponsor Control of the Condominium Board

3. (a) The Condominium will have a Condominium Board, which is elected by the owners of Units. Sponsor, as the owner of Unsold Units, will have voting control of the Condominium Board during the period which continues until the earlier to occur of (i) the sale by the Sponsor of more than ninety-five percent (95%) of the aggregate Common Interests of the Units or (ii) five (5) years after the First Closing (the "Initial Control period"). During the period that Sponsor controls the Condominium Board, Sponsor will have control of maintenance, facilities and services to the provided to the Unit Owners and will determine the Common Charges to be paid by all Unit Owners. At all meetings, each Unit Owner (or his/her proxy) entitled to vote thereat (including Sponsor with respect to Unsold Units) shall be entitled to cast one vote for each percentage of Common Interests pertaining to the Unit Owner's Unit. Purchasers are advised that as a result, owner-occupants may never gain of the Board of the Condominium. (See the Sections of the Plan entitled "Control by the Sponsor" and "Condominium Board" for further details.)

(b) Until such time as the Unsold Units constitute less than twenty five percent (25%) of the Common Interest, or five (5) years from the First Closing (whichever is sooner), the Condominium Board may not, without the Sponsor's prior written consent: (a) make any addition, alteration or improvement to the Common Elements or to any Unit, or (b) assess any Common Charges, including Common Charges for the creation of, addition to or replacement of all or part of a the Working Capital Fund, reserve, reserve contribution or surplus fund, except to the extent that the aggregate fund does not exceed five percent (5%) of the budgeted expenses of the Property or (c) increase or decrease the number, or change the kind of, employees referred to in the Plan, or (d) enter into any service or maintenance contract for work not covered by contracts in existence on the date of the First Closing or otherwise provide services in excess of those referred to in the Plan, except as required to reflect normal annual increases in operation services, or (e) borrower money on behalf of the Condominium, or (f) exercise a right of first refusal to lease or purchase a Unit; provided, however, that Sponsor's written consent is not necessary and Sponsor may not exercise veto power to perform any function or take any action described in clauses (a) through (f) above or any other expense, if, the expenses are required to enable the Condominium Board to (i) comply with Laws, rules or regulations or (ii) remedy any notice of violation or (iii) to remedy any work order of an insurer (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Control by the Sponsor" for further details.)

(c) As long as the Sponsor shall continue to own a Unit, the Condominium Board may not, without the Sponsor's prior written consent: (i) amend the Declaration or the By-Laws so as to in any way Adversely Affects the Sponsor; or (ii) interfere with the offer and sale or leasing of Units, operation of general or sales and leasing offices at the Property or any actions necessary for construction, renovation, repair or correction at the Property required by Sponsor. The Sponsor shall have the right to withhold its consent to any of the foregoing actions. However, notwithstanding the foregoing restrictions, the Sponsor shall not have the right to veto expenses detailed in Schedule B, or expenditures for the making of capital repairs to the Common Elements, or expenditures in connection with any repair or replacement necessary for the preservation or safety of the Condominium or the safety of its residents, or assessment of any Common Charge for expenses required to remedy any notice of violation, comply with applicable Law, or cure a work order of an insurance carrier. Any provisions that give the Sponsor control of the enforcement of the Sponsor's obligations are not lawful. In addition, if there are non-Sponsor members of the Condominium Board, and there is a vote on whether to sue the Sponsor, the Sponsor's board representatives cannot lawfully vote on that issue. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Control by the Sponsor" for further details.)

(d) During the Initial Control period, the Condominium Board shall consist of three (3) persons designated by Sponsor. During the Initial Control Period, Sponsor reserves the right to designate fewer than three (3), but not less than two (2) persons to the Condominium Board. Commencing the First Annual Meeting, the Condominium Board shall consist of three (3) persons. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Control by the Sponsor" for further details.)

(e) The Condominium Board shall have the powers and duties necessary and incidental to the administration of the affairs of the Condominium. As more fully set forth (and except as may otherwise be provided) in the Condominium By-Laws, all determinations required to be made by the Condominium Board shall be by majority of the votes cast at any meeting at which a quorum is present. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Control by the Sponsor" for further details.)

(f) The Condominium will be initially be managed by the Sponsor, and all amenities of the Condominium will be fully operational at the time of the First Closing. (See the Sections of the Plan entitled "Condominium Board" for further details.)

(g) So long as the Sponsor shall continue to own at least one Unit, the Sponsor shall have the right to designate one of the members of the Condominium Board. While the Sponsor owns a Unit, the Sponsor will have the right to, and intends to, vote the percentage of Common Interest allocated to all of its Units for all seats on the Condominium Board. However, after the Initial Control Period has expired, not more than one less than a majority of the members of the Condominium Board (equal to one member) will be affiliated with the Sponsor. The balance of the Condominium Board will then be elected by all of the Unit Owners of the Condominium, including the Sponsor. Therefore, the Sponsor cannot regain control of the Condominium Board after the Initial Control Period has expired. So long as the Sponsor owns at least one (1) Unit, the Sponsor shall have the right to designate one of the members of the Condominium Board. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Control by the Sponsor" for further details.)

Right of First Refusal

4. (a) The sale or lease of Units is subject to a right of first refusal by the Condominium Board. Leases of Units, other than Unsold Units, may not be for terms shorter than one year. The Condominium Board has the right to reject sales and leases to Purchasers and tenants who themselves (or residents of their Units) have diplomatic immunity or have been convicted of violent crimes or child molestation without being required to exercise the right of first refusal. Sponsor shall not discriminate on the basis of the following: actual or perceived age, alienage or citizenship status, color, creed/religion, disability, family status, gender, gender identity or gender expression, lawful occupation, lawful source of income, marital status, national origin, partnership status, race or sexual orientation or other grounds prohibited by law. (See the Sections of the Plan entitled "Condominium Board" and the Section of the Condominium By-Laws in Part II of the Plan entitled "Selling, Leasing and Mortgaging of the Units" for further details.)

(b) Condominium Board shall be required to exercise any right of first refusal, if at all, within thirty (30) days of its receipt of the later of (a) written notice from a Unit Owner of the Unit Owner's intention to sell the Unit to a bona fide grantee or lessee, including all fees, documents and information required by the Board, or (b) all other information reasonably required by the Board following review of the Unit Owner's request. In the event the Condominium Board does exercise the right of first refusal made from working capital and Common Charges or, if such funds are insufficient, the Condominium Board may assess each Unit Owner, other than the offering Unit Owner, in proportion to each Unit Owner's percentage of Common Interest or may borrow money to finance such acquisition. In the event any Units are acquired by the Condominium Board, the title shall be held by the Board on behalf of all Unit Owners in proportion to their percentage of Common Interest. Any sale of such Unit shall be made by the Board on behalf of all Unit Owners in proportion to their percentage of Common Interest. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Condominium Board" for further details.)

No Adverse Changes to Condominium Documents

5. For as long as Sponsor owns any unsold Units in the Condominium, no amendment, modification, addition or deletion of the Declaration, By-Laws or Rules and Regulations shall be effective in any way, without the prior written consent of Sponsor or the owner of any Unsold Units, as the case may be, with respect to any amendment, modification, addition or deletion of or to the By-Laws, the Declaration or the Rules and Regulations modifying the permitted uses of the Building or any portion thereof or affecting the rights, privileges, easements, licenses or exemptions granted to Sponsor or the owner of any Unsold Units, as the case may be, or otherwise adversely affecting Sponsor or the owner of any Unsold Units, as the case may be. The rights set forth herein shall terminate on the date Sponsor ceases to own any Unsold Units in the Condominium (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners and the Condominium Board" for further details.)

Effectiveness of the Plan

6. Sponsor's offer to sell the Units under this Plan is contingent upon the Plan being declared effective pursuant to Section 20.3(q) of Title 13 NYCRR (i.e., Purchase Agreements signed by bona fide Purchasers for one (1) unit, which represents a minimum of at least fifteen percent (15%) of the Units being offered under this Plan). Sponsor may declare the Plan effective after selling a minimum of one (1) Unit, which represents a minimum of at least fifteen percent (15%) of the Units being offered under this Plan. Even if the Plan is declared effective with a minimum number of sales, it is possible that Sponsor may be able to submit the Property to a condominium regime and convey Units with fewer than a minimum number of sales if purchasers counter toward effectiveness do not ultimately purchase a Unit. If all Purchasers used for the purposes of declaring this Plan effective fail to close, Sponsor must re-declare this Plan effective in order to consummate the Offering Plan in accordance with 13 N.Y.C.R.R Section 20.1(c)(6). If all Purchase Agreements are either rescinded or terminated prior to the Closing of Title on the first Unit, regardless of whether the Declaration has been recorded, Sponsor must re-declare the Plan effective. See Section entitled "Effective Date" in Part I of the Plan for further details. After consummation of this Plan, Sponsor will endeavor in good faith to sell all of the Units in a reasonably timely manner, however, there is no certainty as to the period of time required to sell all of the Units. Sponsor's Lender does not impose upon Sponsor any limitations before Sponsor may rent Units, and there is no restriction by Sponsor's Lender as to the number of Units that must be in contract for the lien on a Unit to be released. (See the Sections of the Plan entitled "Effective Date" and "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" for further details.)

No Bond or Other Security Posted by Sponsor

7. To the best of Sponsor's knowledge, as of the Filing Date of the Plan, Sponsor will have sufficient resources to fund all of its obligations under the Plan. However, no bond or other security has been posted by Sponsor to secure Sponsor's obligation to pay Common Charges, special assessments and real estate taxes with respect to Unsold Units. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" for further details.)

Financing

8. (a) This Plan does not contain any financing arrangements for purchasers. Prospective purchasers who are interested in such financing should contact lending institutions, such as mutual savings banks and commercial banks, many of which have advertised that they offer financing to purchasers of condominium units. Any applications for such financing with lending institutions must be done on an individual basis by prospective Purchasers and will involve negotiations exclusively between the lending institution and the applicant. The Sponsor should not be construed hereunder as offering any such financing or representing the availability or terms of such financing. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Financing for Qualified Purchasers" for further details.)

(b) The obligations of a purchaser under a Purchase Agreement are not conditioned on obtaining financing. Any prospective purchaser who executes a Purchase Agreement and does not obtain financing may lose his or her Deposit plus the cost of any upgrades or extras paid by Purchasers as liquidated damages which upgrades or extras have been installed by Sponsor, paid for but not installed by Sponsor or which have been ordered but not installed by Sponsor and for which Sponsor is obligated to pay if he or she is unable to otherwise raise the monies for the balance of the Purchase Price. Prospective purchasers who require financing are advised to consult with a lending institution before execution of a Purchase Agreement. No representation is made by the sponsor as to the availability or cost of such financing. Notwithstanding the above, in the event the Plan is abandoned a Purchaser will be entitled to a return of all funds paid for upgrades or extras. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Procedure to Purchase" for further details.)

Purchaser's Right to Rescind

9. (a) A Purchaser will be afforded the right to rescind his or her Purchase Agreement if the First Closing does not take place within twelve (12) months of the date the First Year of Condominium Operation is projected to begin (currently January 1, 2026) or one year from the date of the Purchase Agreement, whichever is later. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Procedure to Purchase" for further details.)

(b) Purchasers should note that even if the First Closing occurs on or before January 1, 2026 (or such other date projected as the date of the commencement of condominium operation at the time the Purchase Agreement was entered into) or within the twelve (12) month period thereafter, the closing of subsequent Units may be substantially delayed beyond such dates if a Temporary Certificate of Occupancy ("TCO") has not been issued for such Units or for the floor on which such Units are located. In such case, provided that Sponsor is diligently pursuing completion of construction and the issuance of a certificate of occupancy and is otherwise in compliance with its obligations under the Plan, Purchaser will not be entitled to a right of recession or to make claims against the Sponsor for damages or losses as a result of such delays and will not be excused from paying the full Purchase Price for the Unit. PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS SHOULD THEREFORE CAREFULLY CONSIDER THE POSSABILITY OF SUCH DELAYS IN THEIR DETERMINATION AS TO WHETHER TO PURCHASE A UNIT. In the event, however, Sponsor cannot convey title to the Unit on or before twelve (12) months from the date of the Purchase Agreement, affected Purchasers will be afforded the right of recession. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" for further details.)

Sponsor anticipates that the first closing of a unit will occur by January 1, 2026. Purchasers will be offered a right of rescission if: (i) the actual date of closing of title to the first unit; or (ii) the projected date of closing of title to the first unit occurs later than March 1, 2026, twelve months after the projected date for the first closing. If the Plan is amended to provide for a later projected date for the first closing, purchasers will be entitled to an offer of rescission if the first closing occurs more than 12 months beyond that amended, later date.

However, if the first unit closing occurs before January 1, 2026, the Sponsor may schedule the closings of title to other units significantly later than such date. Unless your Purchase Agreement contains an outside closing date, the Sponsor is not obligated to schedule your closing within any specified time frame or to ensure that closing of title to your Unit will occur by any date certain. PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS SHOULD THEREFORE CAREFULLY CONSIDER SUCH RISKS IN THEIR DETERMINATION AS TO WHETHER TO PURCHASE A UNIT.

Sponsor's Rights: Excess Development Rights

10. The unused floor area development rights that are now owned, subsequently acquired or that may become available under the New York City Zoning Resolution (the "Development Air Rights") shall be retained by Sponsor or any entity to whom Sponsor conveys said Development Air Rights for the sole purpose of being merged into a zoning lot pursuant to a zoning lot development agreement ("ZLDA") or similar and related agreements. Sponsor or any entity to whom Sponsor conveys Development Air Rights shall have the right to amend the Declaration and any ZLDA that exists pertaining to the Building, in order to convey Development Air Rights (the "Air Rights Amendment"). Sponsor or an entity to whom Sponsor conveys the Development Rights shall have the right to complete and file the Air Rights Amendment with the City of New York without the consent of the Units Owners or the Condominium Board or any parties in interest to the Common Elements. The Units Owners, the Board of the Managers and/or any parties in interest to the Common Elements shall be deemed to have consented to the transfer of Development of Air Rights as described in the Air Rights Amendment and shall execute any documents evidencing said consent as are reasonably requested by Sponsor. In the event the Development Air Rights are transferred to an adjoining premises, the light, air and views from the Building may be negatively impacted. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither Sponsor nor any entity to whom Sponsor conveys the Development Air Rights to may utilize the Development Air Rights to increase the size, height, bulk or density of any portion of the Building or the Property. See the Special Risks and Rights and Obligations of the Sponsor sections of the Plan in Part I and the Declaration in Part II. There are currently no development air rights attached to the Property. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Reservation of Air and Development Rights", and the Declaration in Part II of the Plan for further details.)

Principals of Sponsor Have Executed the Certification of Sponsor and Principals Solely for Martin Act Purposes.

11. Consistent with a recent First Department decision, the principals of Sponsor expressly disclaim the existence of a private right of action for contract claims by individual unit owners (or a board on their behalf) in connection with or arising solely from such principals' execution of the Certification of Sponsor and Principals, absent liability under another statute or under an alter-ego or other veil-piercing theory. See Board of Managers of 184 Thompson Street Condominium v. 184 Thompson Street Owner LLC. et al, 106 A.D. 3rd 542 (1st Dept. May 16, 2013) (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Identity of the Parties" for further details.)

Sponsor's Unconditional Right to Lease Unsold Units

12. In accordance with the terms of this Plan Sponsor reserves the unconditional right to lease Unsold Units to a prospective purchaser or to any other party after consummation of this Plan, exercisable in Sponsor's sole discretion. Sponsor's Lender does not impose upon Sponsor any limitations before Sponsor may rent Units, and there is no restriction by the Sponsor's Lender as to the number of Units that must be in contract for the lien on a Unit to be released. As a result, Purchasers may be acquiring a Unit which has been previously occupied, but such Unit will be delivered at Closing vacant and free and clear of all leases, tenancies, and rights of occupancy except as may otherwise be agreed to in writing by the parties. Because Sponsor is not limiting the conditions under which it will lease rather than sell Units, there is no commitment to sell more than one (1) Unit, which represents a minimum of at least fifteen percent (15%) of the Units being offered under this Plan, which is necessary to declare the Plan effective. Accordingly, residents of the Condominium may be comprised of both Unit Owners and tenants leasing from Sponsor or other Unit Owners. Purchasers are advised that as a result, owner-occupants may never gain control of the Board of the Condominium. The By-Laws do not include a provision that after the Initial Control Period a majority of the Condominium Board must be owner-occupants or members of an owner-occupant's household who are unrelated to Sponsor and its principals. Owner-occupants and non-resident owners, including Sponsor, may have inherent conflicts on how the Condominium should be managed because of their difficult reasons for purchasing, i.e., purchasing as a home as opposed to an investment. (See the Sections of the Plan entitled "Introduction", "Interim Leases, and "Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners" for further details.)

Restriction on Advertising or Selling Units Within One Year of Sponsor Sale

13. A Unit Owner who acquired title to the Unit from Sponsor ("Sponsor Sale") is prohibited under the Purchase Agreement and this Plan for a period of twelve (12) months from the Sponsor Sale from taking any of the following actions without Sponsor's prior written consent, which consent may be withheld, conditioned, or delayed, in Sponsor's sole and absolute discretion: (i) listing such Unit for sale or rental, (ii) placing or authorizing any listing in any broker's listing system or other listing service, (iii) advertising or otherwise offering, promoting or publicizing the availability of such Unit for sale or rental, or (iv) selling or otherwise conveying the Unit, except for a deed in lieu of foreclosure. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Procedure to Purchase" for further details.)

Prohibition Against Advertising Units Prior to Closing

14. Purchasers are prohibited from listing their Units for resale with any broker or otherwise advertising, promoting or publicizing the availability of their Unit for Sale prior to the Closing of Title to such Unit, provided however, that such limited shall not apply from and after the date that Sponsor has conveyed title to all of the Units. Any such listing of a Unit or form of advertising of a Unit by a Purchaser or its agents prior to the Closing of Title shall be an event of default under the Purchaser Agreement, entitling Sponsor to the remedies set forth therein. (See the Purchase Agreement in Part II of the Plan and the Section of the Plan entitled "Procedure to Purchase" for further details).

Unit Owner's Power of Attorney

15. Each Purchaser will be required to execute and deliver at the closing a Unit Owner's Power of Attorney to the Condominium Board and Sponsor. The form Unit Owner's Power of Attorney, set forth in Part II of the Plan, grants broad powers to the Condominium Board, to enter into agreements affecting the Common Elements. The Unit Owner's Power of Attorney also grants to Sponsor the right to amend the Condominium Declaration with respect to any Unsold Unit. Failure by any Purchaser to deliver such document at closing shall constitute an Event of Default under the Purchaser's Agreement, entitling Sponsor to all remedies set forth in such Purchase Agreement. (See the form Unit Owner's Power of Attorney set forth in its entirety in Part II of the Plan.)

Window Guards

16. Unit Owners must notify the Condominium Board in writing when a child or children under the age of eleven (11) years lives or resides (even temporarily) in their Unit(s). Each such Unit Owner shall install at the Unit Owner's own cost and expense, the required window guards in all windows of the Unit and shall not remove them until permitted by law in any event, without the full knowledge of the Condominium Board. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Terms of Sale" and the Section of the Condominium By-Laws in Part II of the Plan entitled "Operation of the Property" for further details.)

Sales and Leasing Activity By Sponsor

17. (a) Sponsor reserves the right, without prior notice or amendment to the Plan, to use any Unsold Units as sales, rental offices and model units and in any other manner in compliance with Law. In the event Sponsor thereafter elects to sell any such Unsold Unit, Sponsor may require Purchaser to purchase all or any of the furniture, furnishings, finishes, equipment or decorations (including wall coverings, built-in cabinetry and carpeting ("FFE") therein and pay, in addition to the Purchaser Price for the Unit, such amounts as Sponsor may determine. In no event shall the presence of any FFE in any Unsold Unit or any model unit imply or represent that any Unit will contain such FFE upon delivery of the Unit to Purchaser. The presence of FFE in an Unsold Unit or any model unit and the location, size, and quantity of such FFE therein are only illustrative and will not be installed by Sponsor in any Unit. The layout, size and dimensions of any model Unit are only illustrative of the style and fee of the Units in the Building that will be renovated by Sponsor and may not correspond to the exact layout, size or dimensions of any specific Unit. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Interim Leases to Purchasers" for further details.)

(b) Marketing materials may designate or label or use nomenclature to describe certain areas or rooms within Units that differs from the designations utilized on the Floor Plans of the Units set forth in Part II of the Plan, including, without limitation, closets, hallways, dens and powder rooms. The use of such designations, labels or nomenclature is for marketing purposes only and does not obligated Sponsor to deliver such areas or rooms designed or fitted out in a manner depicted or implied in the marketing materials. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Description of the Property and Improvements" for further details.)

(c) While Unsold Units are being offered for sale or lease by Sponsor, there may be a greater number of visitors to the Building than would otherwise be the case. No representation or warranty is made, and no assurance is given as to when such selling or leasing activity will terminate. Sponsor shall not be liable or responsible for any personal injury or for any loss or damage to personal property which may result from the failure of the Building's or Condominium's procedures, including, without limitation, those procedures with regard to visitors and any delivery of packages, provided that any such failure is not caused by the negligence of Sponsor or its respective agents. No representation or warranty is made, and no assurance is given that the security systems and procedures in the Building are adequate and will prevent personal injury or damage to or loss of personal property. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Description of the Property and Improvements" for further details.)

Warranties

18. Unless caused by a violation of the sound transmission code, noise code or other applicable code, there is no warranty as to sound transmission. Unless cause by a failure of Sponsor to comply with applicable code provisions and DOB Plans and Specifications, Sponsor is not responsible for, nor can it make any guarantees regarding odors, levels of noise or vibrations resulting from the operation of the Building or the Units or the degree of privacy which will be afforded to Unit Owners in their Units. Unless caused by a code violation or a violation of Law, there is no warranty with respect to mold, mildew, spores, fungi or other toxins. There is no warranty as to air, view or light quality. Sponsor's obligation, regardless of any limitations in the warranty, is to construct the premises in accordance with all applicable laws and codes and DOB Plans and Specifications, and any conflict between (a) the disclaimers and (b) Sponsor's obligation to construct the Premises in accordance with all applicable laws and codes and DOB Plans and Specifications, shall be resolved in favor of the law. In no event will Sponsor be liable for incidental, special or consequential damages. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" for further details.)

Certificates of Occupancy

19. (a) Purchasers are advised that in New York City, newly constructed and newly renovated building are sometimes offered as condominium projects without a final certificate of occupancy ("FCO") covering the entire building but with only a temporary certificate of occupancy ("TCO"), and sometimes with several successive TCOs. Certificates of occupancy are generally governed by Section 301 of the New York Multiple Dwelling Law and local Building Codes and rules. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" for further details.)

(b) Both TCOs and FCOs are issued by the DOB. A TCO is intended to indicate that the Property conforms substantially to the DOB approved plans and specifications, and to the requirements of all applicable laws, rules, and regulations for uses and occupancies specified in the TCO. No change of use or occupancy shall be made unless a new certificate of occupancy is issued. All TCOs have an expiration date. A TCO typically expires ninety (90) days after the date of issuance. When a TCO expires and is not renewed, it may be difficult or impossible to buy insurance, refinance or sell units. In New York City, it is common for sponsors to commence unit closings when some or all of the units are covered by a TCO rather than an FCO. Sponsor anticipates that this scenario may occur. Sponsor and its principals will undertake the responsibility for extending each TCO received prior to the expiration thereof and ultimately for obtaining an FCO covering the entire building. However, Sponsor and its principals make no representation or guarantee that DOB will issue the FCO within two years, which is the timeframe anticipated by the Multiple Dwelling Law for issuance of an FCO. NOTWITHSTANDING THE FOREGOING, SPONSOR AND ITS PRINCIPALS ARE OBLIGATED TO PROCURE THE FCO FOR THE ENTIRE BUILDING AND SHALL EXERCISE BEST EFFORTS TO OBTAIN THE FCO WITHIN SUCH TWO-YEAR PERIOD WHILE KEEPING THE TCO CURRENT. Unit Owners and the Condominium Board shall be obligated to cooperate with and refrain from obstructing Sponsor in these undertakings. Purchasers should be advised that because Sponsor and the By-Laws of the Condominium may permit Unit Owners to undertake renovations to individual Units prior the procurement of an FOC, such renovations may cause additional delays in the issuance thereof. Purchasers are advised to visit the DOB website for further recommendations when purchasing a Unit in a building that does not have an FCO. All construction shall be completed within the first year of operation and such construction shall not render the Condominium uninhabitable nor interfere with the use of the Units. A Factsheet on Certificates of Occupancy is available on the DOB website at: http://www.nyc.gov/html/dob/downloads/pdf/co factsheet.pdf. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" for further details.)

(c) Purchasers should be aware that they may be living in an active construction site after they close on their Unit. During this period of construction there may be dirt and debris and construction material on site, construction vehicular traffic, construction noises, unfinished areas of the Building and other inconveniences which are normal in a Building undergoing construction. Purchasers are advised to visit the DOB website for further recommendations when purchasing a Unit in a building that does not have a FCO. A Factsheet on Certificates of Occupancy is available on the DOB website at: http://www.nyc.gov/html/dob/downloads/pdf/co factsheet.pdf. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" for further details.).

Purchase Agreement Subject to Lien of Mortgage

20. Purchaser agrees that the provisions of a Purchase Agreement are and shall continue to be subject and subordinate to Construction Lender's lien on the Property. The existence of Construction Lender's lien encumbering the Property, or portions thereof, other than the Unit and its undivided interest in the Common Elements, shall not constitute an objection to title or excuse Purchaser from completing payment of the Purchase Price or performing all of Purchaser's other obligations hereunder to the basis of any claim against, or liability of, Sponsor provided that such mortgage is subordinated to the Declaration, or the Unit is released from, or not subject to the lien of such mortgage at Closing. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Terms of Sale" and the Purchase Agreement in Part II of the Plan.)

Purchaser agrees that the provisions of a Purchase Agreement are and shall continue to be subject and subordinate to Construction Lender's lien on the Property. The existence of Construction Lender's lien encumbering the Property, or portions thereof, other than the Unit and its undivided interest in the Common Elements, shall not constitute an objection to title or excuse Purchaser from completing payment of the Purchase Price or performing all of Purchaser's other obligations hereunder to the basis of any claim against, or liability of, Sponsor provided that such mortgage is subordinated to the Declaration, or the Unit is released from, or not subject to the lien of such mortgage at Closing. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Terms of Sale" and the Purchase Agreement in Part II of the Plan.)

Foreign Government Purchaser

21. Any Purchaser that is a foreign government, a resident representative of a foreign government or other person or entity otherwise entitled to the immunities from suit enjoyed by a foreign government (i.e. diplomatic or sovereign immunity) ("Foreign Government Purchaser") shall be required to expressly and voluntarily waive such immunity and consent ("Waiver and Consent") to any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to the Purchase Agreement or the Condominium Documents being brought in any State or Federal suit, action or proceeding in the State of New York based on, arising out of or connected with the Purchase Agreement of the Condominium Documents, pursuant to a Waiver and Consent Form that Purchaser will be required to sign at Closing. At Closing, a Foreign Government Purchaser shall designate ("Designation") and authorize a lawful agent to received process for an on behalf of the Foreign Government Purchaser in any State or Federal suit, action or proceeding in the State of New York based on, arising out of or connected with the Purchase Agreement or the Condominium Documents, pursuant to the Designation form that Purchaser will be required to sign at closing. A Foreign Government Purchaser will also be required at Closing to deposit with the Condominium an amount equal to two (2) years' Common Charges ("Security") in effect for the Unit which will be in addition to the required contribution to the Working Capital Fund, pursuant to a Security Agreement that Purchaser will be required to sign at Closing. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Procedure to Purchase" for further details.)

Reserve Fund

22. The Condominium Budget for the First Year of Operation does not include funding for a separate Reserve Fund. A Reserve Fund is normally used for accruing funds for major capital improvements which may need repair or replacement whereas the contingency line item for any unforeseen expense. As the Condominium is a newly constructed building, it is not anticipated that there will be any major capital repairs or replacements within the first five (5) years of the Condominium operations. This does not comply with Federal National Mortgage Association (FNMA) requirements and certain banks may not be willing to grant a mortgage on a Unit in the Condominium because they are unable to sell the mortgage to the Federal National Mortgage Association ("FNMA") or have it guaranteed. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Reserve Fund" for further details.)

Contingency Fund

23. Condominium Budget does contain a Contingency Fund of Two Thousand Five Hundred and 00/100 Dollars ($2,500.00). The Contingency Fund is intended to provide a fund for unanticipated expenses not included in the Condominium Budget and for possible increases in operating expenses above the amounts projected if the Working Capital Fund is not sufficient to cover such costs. The Contingency Fund is not intended and may not be sufficient to meet the cost of any major capital repairs or replacements which may be required. If additional funds are required to meet such costs, it may be necessary for the Condominium Board to increase Common Charges or impose Special Assessments. No assurance can be given that the Contingency Fund will be adequate to pay for the replacement of capital items, and if additional monies are required over and above the Contingency Fund, it may be necessary to increase Common Charges or levy a Special Assessment against Unit Owners. (See Schedule B, the Projected Budget for First Year of Operation and the Schedule B footnotes immediately following thereto.)

Budget for First Year of Operation.

24. The Projected Budget for First Year of Operation set forth in Schedule B of this Plan, for the first year of Condominium operation contains estimates only. Actual expenses may vary from the amounts shown. If the actual or anticipated date of commencement of condominium operation is to be delayed more than six months from the budget year projected in the offering plan, the plan must be amended to include a revised budget disclosing current projections. If such amended projections exceed the original projections by 25 percent or more, the sponsor must offer all purchasers the right to rescind and a reasonable period of time that is not less than 15 days after the date of presentation to exercise the right, whether or not sponsor offers to guarantee the previous budget projection. Sponsor must return any deposit or downpayment to purchasers who rescind within a reasonable period of time. Sponsor may not declare a plan effective where there are any material changes to the budget if these changes have not been disclosed by a duly filed amendment to the offering plan.

Purchasers should further note that premiums for insurance have been extremely volatile and have increased substantially in recent years. Sponsor cannot predict whether the insurance rates will continue to increase or stabilize. Sponsor makes no representation that the premium costs for the insurance reflected in the Projected Budget for First Year of Operation will be applicable at the time of the first Closing of a Unit in the Condominium. The Sponsor will update the Project Budget for First Year of Operation to disclose any material rate changes (See Schedule B, the Projected Budget for First Year of Operation and the Schedule B footnotes immediately following thereto for further details.)

Superintendent

25. The Projected Budget for First Year of Operation set forth in Schedule B of this Plan, for the first year of Condominium operation provides for the hiring of a building superintendent. No representation is made as to the ultimate cost, terms or availability of a managing agent or superintendent; however, the prevailing rate is six percent (6%) of the Common Charges. The level of staffing set forth above complies with housing and labor and minimum wage laws presently applicable to the property and meets state minimum wage standards. If, however, any of these laws are changed in the future to require additional building staff, the amount allocated for the first year of operation will be greater than that shown above. It is not possible to predict whether any such laws will be changed, or to anticipate the amount of any increase in expense. (See the Sections of the Plan entitled “Condominium Board” and “Schedule B, the Projected Budget for First Year of Operation” and the footnotes to “Schedule B” immediately following thereto for further details.)

Self-Management

26. (a) During the Initial Control Period, Sponsor shall manage the Condominium in the manner set forth herein. Sponsor has no prior experience managing condominiums. After the expiration of the Initial Control Period, the Condominium shall be self-managed by the Condominium Board. Accordingly, individual Unit Owners and the Condominium Board shall be responsible for performing the duties usually performed by a managing agent such as billing and collecting Common Charges, purchasing supplies and contracting for services. In the future, if the Condominium Board decides to hire a managing agent, the prevailing rate is six percent (6%) of the Common Charges, which projection is comparable to other similar condominiums in the City of New York. (See "Schedule B, the Projected Budget for First Year of Operation" and the footnotes to "Schedule B" immediately following thereto for further details.)

(b) The Condominium Board shall bear the responsibility to assure that all assessments have been paid, that each Unit Owner adheres to the rules and regulations of the Declaration & By-Laws and to collect any amounts payable to the Condominium. (See the Section of the By-Laws in Part II of the Plan for further details.)

(c) The Condominium Board will cause the Building and Common Elements to be maintained, repaired and altered in the condition deemed advisable by the Condominium Board and contract for necessary services for the Building and Common Elements, such as electricity, gas, window cleaning, exterminator service, elevator maintenance and cleaning service. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" for further details.) The potential expenses to unit owners for these services is addressed in the budget. See Schedule B and B-1 of the Plan.

Special Rights of Sponsor

27. (a) For as long as Sponsor continues to own an Unsold Unit in the Condominium, Sponsor shall have an exclusive right and easement (i) to erect, use, lease, license, maintain, repair, replace and operate pipes, risers, ducts, flues and equipment necessary or desirable to provide heart, air-conditioning, exhaust, or ventilation as required or, as permitted by Law, on any part of the roof and/or façade of the Building and elsewhere on the Common Elements (excluding Terraces appurtenant to Units), to utilize any risers, conduits, piping, cables, ducts and electrical panels and rooms, telephone/cable panels and rooms in connection therewith; and (ii) to erect, maintain, replace and/or repair any sign and/or lighting permitted by Law on the Property for the purposes of advertising the sale of any Unit, the leasing of space in any Unit. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" for further details.)

(b) Sponsor reserves the right to make any changes in the proposed Condominium Documents and modifications to the Plans and Specifications as may be necessary in Sponsor's sole discretion to conform to Law or to expedite the sale of the Units, or due to structural, architectural or mechanical considerations provided, however, no change will be made in the size or number of Units and/or their respective percentages of Common Interest, and no material change will be made in the size or quality of Common Elements, except by amendment to the Plan and, when applicable, to the Declaration. Unless an affected Purchaser consents, no material change will be made in Unit size, layout, or percentage of Common Interest if a Purchase Agreement has been executed and delivered to the Sponsor for that Unit and the Purchaser is not in default. Unless all Purchasers consent, no material change will be made in the size and no material adverse change will be made in the quality of Common Elements. (See the Sections of the Plan entitled "Changes in Prices and Units" and "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" for further details.)

(c) For as long as Sponsor owns at least one or more Units in the Condominium, no amendment, modification, addition or deletion of the Declaration, By-Laws or any Residential Rules and Regulations (other than those required by Law) shall be effective against Sponsor unless Sponsor has given its written consent thereto. (See the Sections of the Plan entitled "Changes in Prices and Units" and "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" for further details.)

Delay in the Collection of Common Charges

28. Sponsor is reserving the right to delay the collection of Common Charges until such time into the future. During any such period of delay, the Sponsor will timely pay all expenses of the Condominium, including, but not limited to, insurance premiums. Such expenses shall not include individual unit owner expenses such as real estate taxes, utility charge etc. Upon commencement of collection of Common Charges, there will not be an assessment for any item in the approved budget for the Condominium. Regardless of the delay in collection of Common Charges, Sponsor shall remain obligated to update the budget for the Condominium as required by the Department of Law governing regulations. In the event Sponsor elects to delay the collection of Common Charges, Sponsor shall disclose such fact in the closing notice or statement to Purchasers. Thereafter, Sponsor shall also disclose such fact in the post-closing amendment to the Plan as a benefit to subsequent purchasers. Such amendment shall also disclose the anticipated period of delay. Prior to commencing the collection of Common Charges, Sponsor will notify all Unit Owners of the expiration of the delay period by written notice. Notice shall be given to Unit Owners in writing at least thirty (30) days prior the commencement of collection of Common Charges. Thereafter Sponsor will disclose such fact in the next substantive amendment to the Plan as a benefit to subsequent purchaser. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" and the By-Laws in Part II of the Plan for further details).

Costs of Enforcing and Defending Purchase Agreement

29. Purchaser shall be obligated to reimburse Sponsor for any legal fees and disbursements incurred by Sponsor, as prevailing party, in successfully defending Sponsor's rights under the Purchase Agreement or, in the event Purchaser defaults under the Purchase Agreement beyond any applicable grace period, in cancelling this Agreement or otherwise enforcing Purchaser's obligations thereunder. (See the Purchase Agreement in Section II of the Plan.)

Unit Measurements

30. Each Unit is measured horizontally from the exterior face of the exterior wall and or window system (columns, mechanical pipe shafts, shaft ways, chases, chase ways and conduits are not deducted) to the corridor face of common corridors, to the shaft face of shear-walls of stairs, elevators and to the mechanical side face of walls of other mechanical equipment spaces or any Common Elements not within a Unit or to the exterior face of the opposite exterior wall and/or window system. Each Unit is measured vertically from the top of the concrete floor to the underside of the concreate slab or dropped ceiling. Common Elements located within a Unit shall not be considered part of such Unit. Each Terrace is measured from the exterior face of the exterior wall to the outside face of the parapet wall. This method of measurement is applicable to all Units. All dimensions of rooms and other interior areas shown on the floor plans were calculated from the interior faces of walls exclusive of structural and mechanical enclosures projecting into the space. Accordingly, as is customary in New York, the square foot areas of each Unit as set forth in Schedule A and the Declaration significantly exceeds the useable floor areas of each Unit. (See Footnotes to Schedule A in Part I of the Plan and the "Description of Property and Specifications" set forth in Part II of the Plan for further details.)

Interim Leases To Purchasers

31. (a) In the event Purchaser enters into an Interim lease and Purchaser defaults on the Purchase Agreement and fails to Close, and after notice from Sponsor to vacate Purchaser fails to vacate, Purchaser will pay Sponsor Two Hundred Fifty and 00/100 Dollars ($250.00) per day for each day he/she remains in possession beyond the thirtieth (30th) day following mailing of the notice to vacate. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Interim Leases" and the form Lease Agreement in Part II of the Plan.)

(b) If a Purchaser becomes a tenant or actually occupies a Unit before the Closing of Title and, before such Closing, the Unit is damaged by casualty or otherwise, such Purchaser shall assume the risk of loss and the obligation to repair the damage to his or her personal belongings and any other property not covered by the insurance for the Condominium, unless the cause thereof originated outside of the Unit and did not result from the acts of such Purchaser or other occupants of the Unit or such Purchaser's guests, invitees or workmen. (See the form Purchase Agreement in Part II of the Plan for further details.)

(c) An uncured Event of Default under the Purchase Agreement shall be an Event of Default under an interim lease and an uncured Event of Default under an interim lease shall be an Event of Default under the Purchase Agreement. If Sponsor desires to declare an Event of Default of the Purchase Agreement as a result of the uncured Event of Default under the interim lease Sponsor must either obtain an order of eviction, or other judgment or order from a court or agency of competent jurisdiction against the lessee. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Interim Leases" for and the form Purchase Agreement in Part II of the Plan for further details.)

Waiver of Jury Trial

32. Except as prohibited by law, the parties to the Purchase Agreement shall expressly waive trial by jury in any litigation arising out of, connected with, or relating to the Purchase Agreement or the relationships created hereby or in the Plan. With respect to a matter for which a jury trial cannot be waived, the parties agree not to assert any such claim as a counterclaim in, nor move to consolidate such claim with, any action or proceeding in which a jury trial is waived. (See the Purchase Agreement in Part II of the Plan for further details.)

Terraces

33. Terraces must remain open as built and may not be used for any type of use that is classified as habitable space as defined in the New York City Building Code, such uses include but are not limited to using a Terrace or Balcony as a living room, bedroom or kitchen. To do so may result in a violation being issued against the building by the Buildings Department. Unit Owners shall not have any right to install structures or perform any construction on private balconies, terraces, or roof areas without approval of a third-party architect retained by the Condominium Board. Plants maintained on any Terrace or Balcony shall be contained on boxes of wood lined with metal or other material impervious to dampness and standing on supports of at least two (2") inches from the terrace surface. Suitable weep holes will be provided in the boxes to draw off water. It will be the responsibility of the Unit Owner to maintain the containers in good condition, and weep holes in operating condition. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Introduction" for further details.)

Refuse Removal

34. Each Unit Owner will be responsible for his or her own refuse removal and for keeping common areas clear of all objects. Refuse must not be placed on the sidewalk except on the days of collection under penalty of fine. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Description of Property and Improvements" for further details.)

Accessory Rooms

35. Accessory rooms in the cellar may not be used for bedroom, dining rooms or any other use considered being a "habitable space" as defined by the New York State Building Code. A Purchaser should note that the cellar space has less light and air and is more susceptible to dampness. Additionally, spaces in the cellar may not be rented independently. Rental or use of the cellar as a living or sleeping quarter may result in an Environmental Control Board (ECB) violation being issued by the New York City Department of Buildings against the Condominium but which would be the responsibility of the Unit Owner to cure (See the Footnotes to Schedule A in Part I of the Plan and the "Floor Plans" in Part II of the Plan for further details).

Wood Floors

36. The Sponsor is installing oak hardwood flooring strips in each Unit including in the kitchens. It is not a solid, continuous piece of wood, and the flooring strips may vary in appearance within the same room, or between rooms or in different Units. It is subject to expansion and contraction and to changes in color and is affected by humidity and water conditions. Sponsor makes no representation or warranty that the wood floors will maintain their appearance after they are subject to wear and tear. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Description of Property and Improvements" for further details.)

Windows

37. The windows in the development are UPVC framed triple pane windows manufactured by Wythe Windows. The front façade has operable casement windows at each floor as well as glazed swing doors to balconies at 5th and 6th floor mezzanines. The rear façade has fixed windows and operable casement windows at each floor as well as glazed swing doors to backyard and the cellar areaway on levels 1 and the cellar. There are fixed lot line windows with sprinklers at level 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6.

Noise

38. The development is located in a densely populated area. Exterior noise levels are consistent with that of an urban area and may be audible inside the Units. Some Units may install amplified loudspeakers and television monitors on walls within their Unit which share a common wall with another Unit and this may result in vibration and sound transmission to adjoining Units. Units which are adjacent to equipment on the roof of the Building may also experience high noise levels. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Description of Property and Improvements" for further details.)

Mold

39. Purchasers are advised that the prevention of the growth of mold in a Unit is the responsibility of each Unit Owner. Construction is not, and cannot be, designed to exclude mold spores. Whether a Unit Owner experiences mold growth depends largely on how such Unit Owner manages and maintains his/her Unit. Unit Owners will need to take actions to prevent conditions which cause mold or mildew, and it is the responsibility of each Unit Owner to ensure that he/she has taken the necessary precautions to prevent mold from becoming a problem in such Unit Owner's Unit. Unless the existence of mold occurs within one (1) month or earlier of Closing (unless there is a latent defect due to faulty construction by Sponsor so that mold could not be discovered within one (1) month of Closing), and is caused by faulty construction by Sponsor, Sponsor will not be liable to Purchaser with respect to the presence and/or existence of molds, mildew and/or microscopic spores.

Smoking Policy

40. New York City law prohibits smoking and using e-cigarettes of any kind in indoor common areas, including but not limited to, lobbies, hallways, stairwells, mailrooms, fitness areas, storage areas, garages and laundry rooms in any building with three (3) or more residential units. (See New York City Admin. Code, § 17-505 for further details.) Purchasers are advised that Smoking shall be prohibited in (i) the Common Elements including but not limited to (all to the extent that they are utilized or service the Units), hallways, stairs, corridors, lobby, mail room, package room, laundry room, electrical and air-conditioning room, trash compactor room, emergency generator, exhaust and fan room, fire staircases, landings and stairs, fire safety systems servicing the Units, (ii) inside of Units, (iii) inside of Limited Common Elements, including gardens, areas under the stoop, or the roof deck patios, (iv) and outdoor areas within 15 feet of entrances, exits, windows, and air intake units of the Building (the "Smoking Policy"). The term "Smoking" shall mean inhaling, exhaling, burning or carrying any lighted or heated cigar, cigarette, Electronic Cigarette, little cigar, pipe, water pipe or hookah, herbal cigarette, non-tobacco smoking product (e.g., marijuana or non-tobacco shisha), or any similar form of lighted object or device designed for people to use to inhale smoke. The term "Electronic Cigarette (e-cigarette)" shall mean a battery-operated device that heats a liquid, gel, herb or other substance and produces vapor for people to inhale. The Smoking Policy shall be conspicuously posted in the Building and shall be included in all Unit leases and/or Interim Leases. The Smoking Policy is incorporated into the Rules and Regulations of the Condominium (See section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners and the Condominium Board" for further details.)

Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017

41. On January 1, 2018, the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 went into effect. This federal law significantly changed the previously existing Internal Revenue Code, including the taxes and deductions related to homeownership. With respect to deductions related to ownership of a Unit at the Condominium, please see the tax opinion of Vallely Mitola Ryan PLLC ("Sponsor's Attorney"), set forth in the Section of Part I of this Plan titled "Counsel's Income Tax Opinion Letter." As set forth therein, it is the opinion of Sponsor's Attorney that a Unit Owner who itemized his deductions and whose unit is used by him for residential purposes, will for Federal income tax purposes be entitled to a deduction limited to Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) (Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) in the case of a married individual filing a separate return) for real estate taxes incurred with respect to his or her Unit in the year paid under Section 164 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended. The Federal limitation on the deduction for real estate taxes applies in the aggregate to state and local income taxes paid as well. Thus, the maximum amount a Unit Owner may deduct for real estate taxes and state and local income taxes combined is Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) (Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) in the case of a married individual filing a separate return). Though the foregoing limitation is in effect as of the date of filing of this Plan, neither Sponsor nor Sponsor's Attorney make any representations as to whether the same will be in effect, or what the Internal Revenue Code or state or local code will provide, at any time in the future, as such applicable law is subject to change without notice. (See Section of the Plan entitled "Income Tax Deductions to Unit Owners and Tax Status of the Condominium" for further details).

Geographic Targeting Order

42. On November 15, 2018, the U.S. Financial Crimes Enforcement Network ("FinCen") issued an updated order (superseding the order issued on January 13, 2016 as later supplemented on July 22, 2016, February 21, 2017 and August 22, 2017; as superseded and supplemented, the "Order") requiring title companies to collect and report certain information about persons involved in residential real estate transactions in the Boroughs of Bronx, Brooklyn, Queens, Manhattan and Staten Island for closings occurring until the expiration of the effective period for such Order. See https://www.fincen.gov/sites/default/files/shared/Real%20Estate%20GTO%20GENERIC_11151 8_FINAL.pdf

Pursuant to the Order, title companies are required to disclose the identities of the beneficial owner(s) or holder(s) of twenty five percent (25%) or more of the direct or indirect equity or beneficial interests in a purchasing entity in residential real estate transactions where (a) Purchaser is a legal entity as defined in the Order; (b) the total Purchase Price is Three Hundred Thousand Dollars ($300,000.00) or more; (c) Purchaser does not obtain a bank loan or other similar form of external financing; (d) the purchase is made, at least in part, using currency or a cashier's check, a certified check, a traveler's check, a personal check, a business check, a money order in any form, a funds transfer, or virtual currency.

Purchasers and their attorneys should confer with the Purchaser's title company immediately to determine the applicability of these new requirements to this transaction, and to the extent the same are applicable, make arrangements with the title company to provide it in advance of closing with any necessary information in order to permit the title company to insure title and comply with the title company's closing and reporting requirements under the Order. Sponsor shall have no obligation whatsoever in connection with satisfying any requirements of purchaser's title insurer or otherwise with respect to the FinCEN Order; and Purchaser will be fully liable for any additional costs or delays to Closing relating thereto.

For as long as the Order remains in effect, its reporting requirements apply to all residential real property closings meeting the above criteria and occurring on or after November 17, 2018 (the revised Order's effective date)

As of the date of filing of this Offering Plan, "legal entity" is defined in the Order means as a corporation, limited liability company, partnership or other similar business entity, whether formed under the laws of a state, or of the United States, or a foreign jurisdiction

(See section of the Plan entitled "Terms of Sale" for further details).

Architectural and Engineering Special Risks

43. There are two cast iron drains at the main roof with controlled flow. Drains discharge through internal leaders into the building storm systems. The Bulkhead Roof and Terraces with internal drains over Units have an emergency secondary drain as required by the NYC Building Dept. and plumbing codes. The 6th floor mezzanine terrace has one cast iron drain and one overfloor drain. The covered 5th Floor terrace has one cast iron drain. The overflow drains are located so that they are at least 2 inches but not more than 4 inches above the low point of the roof surface. Typical systems include secondary overflow drains, scuppers and gutters. Leak management is the responsibility of the Unit Owner who owns the roof that is leaking. The Condominium Board shall be responsible for maintaining the drains. The expense of any reconstruction associated with leaks will be borne by the Unit Owner of the Unit where the leak occurred. (See the Section entitled "Description of Property and Specifications" in Part II of the Plan for further detail).

44. Lot Line Windows. All Lot line windows were excluded from the light and air calculation in the approved DOB filing, and the spaces have adequate light and air from other windows. The percentage of lot line windows per floor is less than the 10% maximum allowed by NYC building code. A restrictive declaration was filed and recorded by NYC indicating that the windows will need to be removed in the event that a neighboring building expands vertically and blocks a side-facing window. The opening will need to be filled in with a one-hour rated wall at the Unit Owner's expense (approximately $2,000). Each lot line window is equipped with a dedicated sprinkler head at the head of the window. There are fixed lot line windows with sprinklers at levels 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6. The windows have a 5-year limited warranty provided by Wythe Windows.

45. Mezzanine Units. Units 4 and 5 are on the 5th and 6th floors, respectively, and each unit contains a mezzanine level. The mezzanine levels are the same height as all other floors of the building. Therefore, the living room, dining room and kitchen areas of Units 4 and 5 are of double height and must remain open as built. They may not be in-filled to create additional floor area.

46. Estimated Date of Completion of Construction. The Building and Units are presently under construction. The Sponsor projects that the building and Units will be completed by January 1, 2026. However, Sponsor makes no warranty or guarantee that the Building and Units will be completed by said date.

B. INTRODUCTION

Purpose of the Offering Plan

The purpose of the Plan is to set forth all the material terms of the offer to sell condominium Units. The Plan may be amended from time to time to reflect changes which materially affect the offering. All amendments will be filed with the New York State Department of Law and will thereafter be served upon purchasers who have executed and delivered Purchase Agreements to the Sponsor or Selling Agent, Unit Owners and any other person entitled to service pursuant to 13 N.Y.C.R.R. § 20.1(d).

The Offer

The Sponsor presents this Offering Plan (the "Plan") for the establishment of condominium ownership of the Property (as hereinafter defined) pursuant to and in compliance with the New York State Condominium Act (New York Real Property Law, Article 9-B, Sections 339-d to 339-kk) by Sponsor's recording of a Declaration of Condominium Ownership in the Office of the Register of the City of New York, County of Kings. From and after the recording of the Declaration, Sponsor will be the owner of each Unit until such time as such Unit is conveyed to a Purchaser. The Condominium will comply with all statutes and regulations applicable to condominiums in the State of New York. The Declaration and By-Laws of the Condominium are set forth in Part II of the Plan. The condominium shall be known as 311 Eastern Parkway Condominium (the "Condominium").

This Offering Plan encompasses the land, the structures and all appurtenances thereto at the following address: 311 Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn, New York (the "Building"). The Sponsor is 311 Eastern Parkway LLC, a limited liability company, with an address at 1140 Avenue of the Americas, 9th Floor, New York, New York (the "Sponsor"). The Sponsor acquired title to the Property by deed dated May 29, 2020. The Property was previously used for residential purposes. The Sponsor is in the process of constructing the Building on the Property with plans filed with and approved by the Department of Buildings of the City of New York.

Sponsor hereby offers five (5) residential Units for sale pursuant to the Plan. The Purchase Prices for each of the Units are listed in the Section of the Plan entitled "Schedule A – Purchase Prices and Related Information" ("Schedule A"). THESE PRICES HAVE BEEN SET BY SPONSOR AND ARE NOT SUBJECT TO APPROVAL BY THE DEPARTMENT OF LAW OR ANY OTHER GOVERNMENTAL AGENCY. Schedule A also contains a listing of the approximate square footage of each Unit. (See the Floor Plans in Section II of the Plan for further details.)

This Offering Plan including all Exhibits constitutes the entire Offer of the Sponsor.

Sponsor intends to sell all the Units offered for sale in the plan. However, Sponsor reserves the unconditional right to rent Units rather than sell Units after consummation of the plan. Purchasers for their own occupancy may never gain control of condominium board. Owner occupants and non-resident owners, such as the Sponsor, may have inherent conflicts on management of the condominium.

The Offering Plan

The Plan is presented in two parts (in one volume) which together constitute the entire Plan. Part I sets forth the general description of the Plan and Part II contains all of the material terms of the transaction and the basic documents necessary to create the Condominium and to otherwise effectuate the provisions of the Plan. Also included in Part II is a detailed physical description of the Property, certifications of Sponsor and Sponsor's architect, certifications of an expert selected by Sponsor concerning the adequacy of the budget for the first year of Condominium operation and certain agreements to which the Condominium will be bound. The Plan, including all Schedules and Exhibits set forth herein, constitutes the entire offering of the Sponsor to sell Units at the Condominium. Sponsor shall not make, and has not authorized any other party to make, any oral representations or statements concerning this Plan, and no such representations or statements shall be considered part of this Plan. No information, data or representations other than those contained herein or in the documents annexed hereto as exhibits in Part II of this Plan may be relied upon. Copies of the Plan and the exhibits will be available for inspection by prospective Copies of the Plan and the exhibits will be available for inspection by prospective Purchasers without charge by appointment and for copying at reasonable fees at Sponsor's office and the offices of the Department of Law, 28 Liberty Street, New York, New York 10005. All of these documents are important and should be carefully read by prospective Purchasers. Prospective Purchasers are also advised to consult with their owner attorneys and other advisors before agreeing to purchase. All capitalized terms used in the Plan shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Section entitled "Certain Definitions", unless otherwise indicated.

Basic Aspects of Condominium Ownership

The ownership of a Unit is similar in many respects to the ownership of a private home. Each Unit Owner owns fee title to the Unit and is entitled to exclusive possession and use thereof and is obligated to comply with the terms of the Condominium Documents and any other requirements implemented by the Condominium Board. Each Unit Owner also owns, in common with the owners of all other Units, an undivided interest in (and right to use) the Common Elements (as defined in the Definitions hereinafter). The Common Elements are comprised of: (i) portions of the Property serving and benefiting all Units, generally including, for example the Land upon which the Building stands and foundations and supports of the Building, the Common Elements being more specifically designated as "General Common Elements," and (ii) portions of the Building exclusively serving or benefiting one Unit such as a Terrace, these Common Elements being more specifically designated as "Limited Common Elements."

A Unit may be used only as a residence and, subject to compliance with the By-Laws and applicable Laws, for a lawful home occupation and use.

Each Unit Owner may mortgage their Unit with such lender and in such amount as the Unit Owner chooses, provided only that the Unit Owner notifies the Board of the name and address of the lender, files a copy of the note and mortgage with the Board and satisfies all unpaid liens against his/her Unit prior to making such mortgage. However, Sponsor makes no representations about the financeability of any Unit. Each Unit is separate and will not be subject to the lien of any mortgage placed by other Unit Owners on their respective Units.

The operation of the Condominium will be vested in a Condominium Board, the members of which will be elected by all Unit Owners, subject to the rights of Sponsor to designate members of the Condominium Board, as set forth in the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners and the Condominium Board." When voting for members of the Condominium Board, each Unit Owner shall be entitled to cast one vote for each 0.01% of Common Interest attributable to their Unit, per member to be elected.

A Unit Owner may decorate and construct the interior of the Unit in any way the Unit Owner desires, subject to compliance with the Condominium Documents and Law, and will be solely responsible for the cost and maintenance and interior repairs to the Unit after Closing. In addition, in the event a Unit Owner performs alterations in the Unit, among other requirements (including the execution of an alteration agreement and the payment of certain fees), such Unit Owner's contractors must maintain certain types and amounts of insurance during the performance of the work, as set forth in the By-Laws.

Each Unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes and may be separately mortgaged by the Unit Owner thereof. A Unit Owner will not be responsible for, nor will the Unit be subjected to any lien arising from, the non-payment of real estate taxes assessed against other Units. In the opinion of tax counsel to Sponsor, which opinion is set forth in Part II of the Plan, a Unit Owner who itemizes deductions may be eligible, under current Law, to deduct from income for income tax purposes, real estate taxes and interest paid on the Unit Owner's mortgage, subject to certain exceptions and limitations discussed in the "Attorney's Income Tax Opinion" set forth in Part II of the Plan. (See the Section entitled "Income Taxes – Deductions to Unit Owners and Tax Status of the Condominium" set forth in Part I of the Plan for further details.)

The cost of operating the Condominium will be borne entirely by the Unit Owners in accordance with the Condominium Budget. As more particularly set forth in the By-Laws, the Board will determine the amount of Common Expenses. On a monthly basis or at such other times as the Board determines, the Board will assess Unit Owners for Common Charges to meet Common Expenses. Common Charges will be assessed against Unit Owners in the same proportion that the Common Interest allocated to their respective Unit bears to the aggregate Common Interests of all Units. The estimated Common Charges for each Unit for the First Year of Condominium Operation, projected to being as of January 1, 2026, are set forth in Schedule A. Purchasers are obligated to pay Common Charges monthly and otherwise in accordance with Sections 339(i) and (m) of the New York Condominium Act.

While the costs and expenses of ordinary maintenance to the Terraces including the obligation to keep drains free and clear of snow, ice and debris and maintenance of pavers and/or decking, are borne by the individual Unit Owners, the costs and expenses of any structural, capital or extraordinary repairs or replacements to any terrace (with the exception of certain specified elements on the Terrace) will be charged to all Unit Owners as a Common Expense unless caused by the responsible Unit Owner.

The Common Interest of each Unit in the Common Elements has been allocated pursuant to the method set forth in the Real Property Law Section 339-i(l) based upon floor space, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Unit, the availability of Common Elements for exclusive or shared use, and the overall dimensions of the particular Unit in accordance with subsection (iv).

On initial sales of Units by Sponsor, each purchaser of a Unit will be required to make a non-refundable contribution to the Working Capital Fund. Such contribution, to be made at the time of Closing Title of the Unit, shall be in an amount equal to two (2) months' Common Charges in effect at the time of such Closing assessed against such Unit, for each Unit purchase. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Working Capital Fund" for further details.)

With certain exceptions set forth in the By-Laws, any sale or lease of a Unit will be subject to a right by the Board to acquire or lease such Unit or to produce a third party to acquire or lease such Unit on the same terms as were offered by the owner of such Unit. Sponsor may sell or lease any of their respective Units without any restriction or limitation.

In addition to the payment of Common Charges, each Unit Owner will be responsible for the payment of real estate taxes which will be separately assessed against the Unit, interest and amortization payments on any mortgage and charges for electricity consumed in the Unit.

The Sponsor will obtain at least a TCO for residential use of a Unit prior to Closing Title to the Unit. The Sponsor and its principals will complete the renovation of the Building and obtain an FCO for the entire project (i.e., not on a per Unit basis) and will extend, renew or replace the applicable TCO as necessary until the FCO has been obtained. This period may extend longer than two years from the First Closing. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" for further details.)

The Units are intended to be sold as Condominium Units in accordance with the Plan at the prices noted in Schedule A. These prices have been established by the Sponsor and are not subject to approval by the Department of Law or any other governmental agency. However, Schedule A is subject to the review of the Department of Law. The offering prices are conditioned upon the use of the standard finishes, fixtures and appliances as described in Part II of the Plan.

Construction Financing

The Sponsor has secured construction financing from USC 311 Eastern LLC, having an office at 233 Broadway, Suite 1470, New York, New York (the "Construction Lender") to construct the Building. Sponsor will pay, satisfy and otherwise comply with the terms of the loan documents. Before the First Closing, the Construction Lender has agreed to subordinate its liens to the Declaration, will consent to the formation of the Condominium and acknowledge that its mortgage liens will be limited to Unsold Units. In addition, the Unit and each subsequent Unit being conveyed, and its appurtenant Common Interest will be released therefrom by partial release upon payment of the relevant payment as provided in the loan documents. Sponsor has no obligation to market the Units pursuant to the loan documents and there is no minimum number of or percentage of Units which must be under contract before this Plan can be declared effective pursuant to the loan documents. There is no limit or requirement imposed by the Construction Lender for Sponsor to rent rather than sell under specified market conditions. Construction Lender has set no limits or requirements for Sponsor to rent rather than sell Units after consummation of this Plan and there is no restriction by Construction Lender as to the number of Units that must be in contract for the lien on a Unit to be released. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligation of Sponsor" for further details.)

Terms of Offer

Sponsor hereby reserves the right at any time and from time to time for any reason whatsoever, without the consent of the Condominium Board, any Unit Owner or mortgagee, to refuse to approve or execute a Purchase Agreement for any Unit; provided, however, that Sponsor shall not discriminate against any person because of race, creed, color, sex, disability, marital status or national origin, or as otherwise prohibited by applicable law.

All Deposits received by Sponsor directly or through its agent or employees will be held in accordance with the Section of the Plan entitled "Escrow and Trust Fund Requirements."

A copy of the form of Purchase Agreement that will be used by Sponsor in connection with the sale of the Units is set forth in Part II of the Plan. Sponsor reserves the right to revise the form of Purchase Agreement from time to time by amendment to the Plan. All material and adverse changes in the terms of a signed Purchase Agreement will entitle the affected Purchaser to recession.

No binding obligation shall arise for the sale of a Unit unless and until a Purchase Agreement, executed by both Purchaser and Sponsor has been exchanged, and Sponsor has collected the Deposit. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Procedure to Purchase" for further details.)

For further details concerning the Closing of Title to Units, the costs and adjustments with respect thereto and the time periods which must elapse before closings may occur, see the Sections of the Plan entitled "Effective Date," "Unit Closing Costs and Adjustments" and "Terms of Sale."

Sponsor's Unconditional Right to Lease Unsold Units

In accordance with the terms of this Plan Sponsor reserves the unconditional right to lease Unsold Units to a prospective purchaser or to any other party after consummation of this Plan, exercisable in Sponsor's sole discretion. Sponsor's Construction Lender does not impose upon Sponsor any limitations before Sponsor may rent Units, and there is no restriction by the Sponsor's Construction Lender as to the number of Units that must be in contract for the lien on a Unit to be released. As a result, Purchasers may be acquiring a Unit which has been previously occupied, but such Unit will be delivered at Closing vacant and free and clear of all leases, tenancies, and rights of occupancy except as may otherwise be agreed to in writing by the parties. Because Sponsor is not limiting the conditions under which it will lease rather than sell Units, there is no commitment to sell more than one (1) Unit, which represents a minimum of at least fifteen percent (15%) of the Units being offered under this Plan, which is necessary to declare the Plan effective. Accordingly, residents of the Condominium may be comprised of both Unit Owners and tenants leasing from Sponsor or other Unit Owners. Purchasers are advised that as a result, owner-occupants may never gain control of the Board of the Condominium. The By-Laws do not include a provision that after the Initial Control Period a majority of the Condominium Board must be owner-occupants or members of an owner-occupant's household who are unrelated to Sponsor and its principals. Owner-occupants and non-resident owners, including Sponsor, may have inherent conflicts on how the Condominium should be managed because of their difficult reasons for purchasing, i.e., purchasing as a home as opposed to an investment.

Prospective purchasers should be aware that they may be living alongside non-purchasing occupants residing in some of the Units for an indefinite period, depending on market conditions. Such non-purchasing occupants may have no investment in their occupied Units and, therefore, may not share the same economic interests as owner-occupants in the maintenance and care of the Building's Facilities and amenities.

Residents of the Condominium may be comprised of both Unit Owners and tenants leasing from Sponsor or other Unit Owners. Individuals leasing Units from Sponsor will not, except as expressly provided in their respective leases, have any special rights to purchase such Units. In addition, a Purchaser may be acquiring a Unit which has been previously occupied, but such Unit will be delivered at Closing free and clear of all leases and tenancies, except as may otherwise be agreed to in writing by the parties (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" for further details.)

Income Taxes

In the opinion of Sponsor's Attorney, under present income tax laws, certain Unit Owners who are United States citizens or permanent residents of the United Sates and who itemize their deductions may deduct from income for income tax purposes the real estate taxes paid in connection with an owned Unit, and any interest paid to a lender with respect to a mortgage on such Unit, provided the Unit Owner uses the Unit as a principal residence or a secondary residence and the mortgage indebtedness does not exceed the Unit Owner's cost of the residence plus the cost of any improvements thereto. Purchasers are advised to consult with their own tax counsel regarding the availability or non-availability of such deduction on a case-by-case basis. A copy of Attorney's Income Tax Opinion is set forth in Part II of the Plan.

On January 1, 2018, the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 went into effect. This federal law significantly changed the previously existing Internal Revenue Code, including the taxes and deductions related to homeownership. With respect to deductions related to ownership of a Unit at the Condominium, please see the tax opinion of Vallely Mitola Ryan PLLC ("Sponsor's Attorney"), set forth in the Section of Part I of this Plan titled "Counsel's Income Tax Opinion Letter." As set forth therein, it is the opinion of Sponsor's Attorney that a Unit Owner who itemized his deductions and whose unit is used by him for residential purposes, will for Federal income tax purposes be entitled to a deduction limited to Ten Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($10,000.00) (Five Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($5,000.00) in the case of a married individual filing a separate return) for real estate taxes incurred with respect to his or her Unit in the year paid under Section 164 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended. The Federal limitation on the deduction for real estate taxes applies in the aggregate to state and local income taxes paid as well. Thus, the maximum amount a Unit Owner may deduct for real estate taxes and state and local income taxes combined is Ten Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($10,000.00) (Five Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($5,000.00) in the case of a married individual filing a separate return). Though the foregoing limitation is in effect as of the date of filing of this Plan, neither Sponsor nor Sponsor's Attorney make any representations as to whether the same will be in effect, or what the Internal Revenue Code or state or local code will provide, at any time in the future, as such applicable Law is subject to change without notice. (See section of the Plan entitled "Income Tax Deductions to Unit Owners and Tax Status of the Condominium" for further details).

Bulk Sales

If Sponsor makes a Bulk Sale of all or some of its unsold Units, the transferee successor Sponsor shall be bound by the obligations set forth in this Offering Plan.

CPS-1 Application

On August 4, 2025 Sponsor received acceptance from the New York Department of Law of an Application to Test the Market ("CPS-1 Application") for the Property pursuant to Cooperative Policy Statement No. 1. The CPS-1 Application is effective until August 3, 2026.

General

Under the Condominium Act, a Unit may be owned by an individual, or entity and used for any legal purpose, subject to the provisions of the Declaration, this Plan, By-Laws and any and all Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder. Sponsor will not accept an offer of purchase from an individual younger than eighteen (18) years old or incompetent under Law.

THE PURCHASE OF A CONDOMINIUM UNIT HAS MANY SIGNIFICANT LEGAL AND FINANCIAL CONSEQUENCES. THE ATTORNEY GENERAL STRONGLY URGES YOU TO READ THIS OFFERING PLAN CAREFULLY AND TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY BEFORE SIGNING A PURCHASE AGREEMENT.

NOTES:

The Cellar space may not be used for bedroom, living room and any other use considered to be habitable space as defined by the New York City Building Code.

Unit 1 is a multi-story unit (triplex) located on the cellar, first floor and second floor.

Units 4 and 5 are multi-story units (duplexes) with mezzanines located on the fifth floor and sixth floor with mezzanines for each respective unit.

General Common Elements are the parts of the Property for use by all of the Units or necessary for (or convenient to) the existence, maintenance or safety of the Property.

At Closing, each purchaser shall make a contribution to the "Working Capital Fund" equal to two (2) months estimated monthly common charges for the unit. (See section entitled "Working Capital Fund".)

Floor plans for all units are included in Part II, Exhibit 6 of the Plan.

Sponsor is transferring its statutory obligation to pay New York City and New York State Transfer Taxes to Purchasers. (See Section entitled "Unit Closing Costs and Adjustments" for further details.)

The projected real estate taxes for the First Year of Condominium Operation contained on Schedule A are based on comparable buildings in the area.

Purchasers are advised that the Real Estate taxes may increase materially when the Building is reassessed after construction is complete.

Estimated assessments and property taxes are based upon good faith estimates. Such assessments when actually made by the New York City Department of Finance may be significantly less or more than as estimated herein.

FOOTNOTES TO SCHEDULE A

1. No change in the maximum sales price will be made other than pursuant to a duly filed amendment, except that the Sponsor reserves the right to decrease the sale prices below the offering prices without filing an amendment to the Plan at any time during the offering where a reduction in sales price does not constitute a general offering but is rather the result of an individually negotiated Purchase Agreement.

2. Any floor plan or sketch shown to a prospective Purchaser is only an approximation of the square foot area and layout of the Unit in question. The measurements are approximate within reasonable tolerances. Each Unit is measured horizontally from the exterior face of the exterior wall and or window system (columns, mechanical pipe shafts, shaft ways, chases, chase ways and conduits are not deducted) to the centerline of the partition separating one Unit from another Unit, or the centerline of a shear-wall separating one Unit from another Unit to the corridor face of common corridors, to the shaft face of shear-walls of stairs, elevators and to the mechanical side face of walls of other mechanical equipment spaces or any Common Elements not within a Unit or to the exterior face of the opposite exterior wall and/or window system. Each Unit is measured vertically from the top of the concrete floor to the underside of the concreate slab or dropped ceiling. Common Elements located within a Unit shall not be considered part of such Unit. Each Terrace is measured from the exterior face of the exterior wall to the outside face of the parapet wall. This method of measurement is applicable to all Units. All dimensions of rooms and other interior areas shown on the floor plans were calculated from the interior faces of walls exclusive of structural and mechanical enclosures projecting into the space. Accordingly, as the measurements are not measured from the interior to interior, the square foot areas of each Unit as set forth in Schedule A and the Declaration significantly exceed the useable floor areas of each Unit. The type of the exterior space appurtenant to each of such Units, as Limited Common Elements, as shown in this Schedule is designated as follows: "(M)" Mezzanine Area; "(R)" Roof Space; and "(G)" Garden (or Rear Yard).

   The measurements are not based upon the measurements from interior surfaces of interior walls and, thus, the actual area compromising the unit is less than the area listed in Schedule A. Any floor plan or sketch contained in this Plan or shown to a prospective Purchaser is accurate within reasonable tolerances. Each Unit should be inspected prior to signing a Purchase Agreement in order to determine such Unit's actual dimensions, layout and physical condition. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Description of the Property and Improvements" for further details.)

3. Certain Units have amenities that are appurtenant to the particular Unit, such as a specific access space, rear yard, mezzanine area, and designated roof space; these amenities are Limited Common Elements. The Condominium Board will have the right to enter any Limited Common Element for the purpose of inspecting or making repairs to the General Common Elements. The Unit Owner will be responsible for removing all personal property or improvements to a Unit in order to provide such access, at his/her expense. Repairs in or to the Limited Common Elements (as defined in the Declaration) will be performed by, and at the expense of, the following persons under the following circumstances: (a) the Condominium Board at the expense of the Unit Owner having direct and exclusive access, if the repair involves structural or extraordinary maintenance, repairs or replacements (including, but not limited to, the repair of leaks) or (b) the Unit Owner having direct and exclusive access to the Limited Common Element, at his sole cost and expense, if involving nonstructural or ordinary repairs. The Condominium will also have the right, but not the obligation, to require a Unit Owner to make a repair to a Limited Common Element (also at the expense of the Unit Owner) in the discretion of the Condominium Board.

4. Sponsor reserves the right to make any changes in the proposed Condominium Documents and modifications to the plans and specifications as may be necessary in Sponsor's sole discretion to conform to Law or to expedite the sale of the Units, or due to structural, architectural or mechanical considerations provided, however, no change will be made in the size or number of Units and/or their respective percentages of Common Interest, and no material change will be made in the size or quality of Common Elements, except by amendment to the Plan and, when applicable, to the Declaration. Unless an affected Purchaser consents, no material change will be made in Unit size, layout, or percentage of Common Interest if a Purchase Agreement has been executed and delivered to the Sponsor for that Unit and the Purchaser is not in default. Unless all Purchasers consent, no material change will be made in the size and no material adverse change will be made in the quality of Common Elements.

5. The percentage Common Interest of each Unit in the Common Elements has been allocated pursuant to the method set forth in Real Property Law Section 339-i(l)(iv) based upon floor space, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to the other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Unit, the availability of the Common Elements for exclusive or shared use, and the overall dimensions of the particular Unit. A Unit Owner shall have such percentage interest in the Common Elements as set forth on Schedule A attached hereto and shall bear such percentage of the Common Expenses of the Condominium. Each Unit Owner shall have one vote for each 0.001% of interest in the Common Elements as set forth in Schedule two hereto, in person or by proxy, for all voting purposes at any meeting of the Unit Owners, unless otherwise mandated by law or expressly provided for herein.

6. The aggregate Common Elements of all the Units equal one hundred percent (100%).

7. After the Condominium is divided into individual tax lots, each Unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes and the Unit Owner will not be responsible for the payment of, nor will the Unit be subject to, any lien arising from the non-payment of taxes on other Units. In addition, pursuant to the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, the real estate taxes payable by a Unit Owner which are assessed against his Unit by any governmental taxing authority, are a proper deduction in connection with the Federal and State Income Taxes payable by such Unit Owner. Tax deductions in future years may vary due to changes in real estate taxes. The projection for the real estate taxes that will be payable for each of the Units, during the first year of condominium ownership is based on the estimate of Sponsor's tax expert.

No representation or warranty is made that the actual taxes or assessed valuation will be as projected above, or that the projected tax rate will not change. In no event will Sponsor, Sponsor's Attorney, or any offeror hereunder be liable to any Purchaser under this Plan, nor will any Purchaser have the right to rescind his Purchase Agreement, in the event the actual taxes differ from those projected. Actual taxes may vary depending on such factors as purchase price, optional extra ordered, premium location, end units, type of building cluster, etc.

8. In addition to the payment of Common Charges, each Unit Owner will incur additional expenses for: mortgage payments under any loan or loans obtained to finance the purchase of the Unit; the cost of electricity supplied to the Unit, which will be separately sub-metered and payable as and when billed; the cost of interior repairs to, and the maintenance, painting and decoration of, the Unit, including, without limitation, the equipment and appliances contained in same, and any appurtenant Limited Common Elements; the cost of insurance that the Unit Owner may desire to carry covering the furniture belongings, equipment and other personal property in the Unit, as well as his or her liability to others for personal injury or property damage as a result of occurrences in the Unit; telephone and cable television and real estate taxes.

9. The Sponsor is not offering and has not procured mortgage financing for purchasers. As a result, the projected monthly carrying charges for financing have not been included in Schedule A. in the event a Purchaser obtains a mortgage, his monthly carrying charges will increase. Any Purchaser who applies for a mortgage from a lending institute should check with that institution as to the monthly mortgage costs as well as any closing costs that the Purchaser will be obligated to pay the lending institution.

PURCHASERS ARE ADVISED THAT THE FOREGOING INFORMATION IS NOT INTENDED AND SHOULD NOT BE TAKEN AS A GUARANTY BY ANYONE THAT THE ANNUAL CARRYING CHARGES OR EXPENSES FOR THE FIRST OR ANY SUBSEQUENT YEAR OF OPERATION OF THE CONDOMINIUM WILL BE, OR THAT SUCH CARRYING CHARGES OR EXPENSES WILL NOT VARY FROM THE AMOUNTS SHOWN IN SCHEDULE A.

5. Repairs, Maintenance and Supplies $ 6,000.00

The budgeted figure for these items includes normal repairs, maintenance and supplies, and is based upon the expenditures of comparable buildings, with an inflation allowance, taking into account the fact that the Building is newly constructed. This figure does not include maintenance and repairs within specific Units, which are the obligation of the Unit Owner, but is designed to cover the cost of maintaining the Common Elements only. No provision has been made to cover the cost of any major capital expenditure. Although no such expenditures are expected because the Building is newly constructed, each Unit Owner will be obligated to pay his pro-rata share of such expenditures in the event that any such expenditures are required.

6. Labor $ 6,000.00

The Condominium will not have any employees. This figure is based on the cost of the building super at a monthly expense of $500.00, or $6,000/year on a part-time basis to perform the common area cleaning, sidewalk cleaning, trash management and recycling. Snow removal is to be billed separately at a projected cost of $2,000.00 per season. The foregoing complies with all applicable housing and labor laws. It should be noted, however, that the super hired to perform the foregoing services will not be able to perform more than minor maintenance and that more substantial repairs such as repair of plumbing leaks, will be performed by other outside contractors at additional cost.

7. Insurance $15,900.00

This expense pertains to the insurance policy that will cover the Condominium based on the actual quote of JB RISK SERVICES, 100 East Thousand Oaks Boulevard, Suite 145, Thousand Oaks, CA 91360. The actual cost is for the following coverages:

Directors and Officers Liability	$ 3,500.00
TOTAL	$ 15,900.00

Deductible for the foregoing coverages are $10,000.00

The coverage limits for the building are based upon the current replacement cost for the Building (excluding excavation and foundation) estimated by a licensed insurance broker, which in his opinion is adequate so that the insured shall not be a co-insurer. In order to safeguard the investment of its Unit Owners in the event of a substantial or total destruction of the Building, the Condominium Board should periodically review the amount of casualty insurance for the Building to ensure that the amount of coverage equals the Building's replacement cost. The insurance coverage will meet the requirements of the Sponsor or any mortgage lender procured by the Sponsor.

8. Management Fees $ 0

The Condominium will be initially be managed by the Sponsor.

9. Legal and Audit Fees $ 6,000.00

The main component of this budget item is auditing fees in connection with the preparation of the certified financial statement for the Condominium's first year of operation and is based on a fee quotation of $2,800.00 from Frendel, Brown & Weissman LLP, Certified Public Accountants, 655 Third Avenue, Suite 1400, New York, NY 10017. A small allowance is provided for miscellaneous legal services in the event the Board of Managers decides to engage an attorney.

10. Service Contract $ 3,080.00

It is projected that the Condominium will enter into maintenance agreements for virtual doorman, elevator and fire sprinkler system. For the first year of Condominium operation, the elevator system will be maintained and repaired under an agreement with the vendor/installer at no cost to the Condominium. The budget item is only for a virtual doorman monitoring plan to be provided by ButterflyMX as well as the building sprinkler system. After the first year, the Condominium will enter into an elevator inspection and maintenance contract at a cost of approximately $3,000.00/year and fire sprinkler system maintenance contract at an estimated cost of $800.00/year. It is at the Board of Managers' decision whether to engage extermination service at a regular basis which will be at additional cost to Unit Owners.

Year 1 budget for all maintenance contract are as follows:

Butterfly MX (Intercom System)	$1,500.00
Fire Sprinkler System	$ 800.00
Internet	$ 780.00

11. Contingency $2,500.00

This budget item is to provide a fund for unanticipated expenses not included in the budget or unanticipated increases in one or more items of operating expense above the amounts projected including any unplanned/planned capital expenditure. The budget may be modified from time to time prior to commencement of, or during, condominium operation to add new items or increase one or more items of operating expense.

This item is to be used as a yearly reserve fund to be set aside and used for periodic major capital repairs or replacement, or necessary repairs of common elements. The basis of the figure projected for this item is approximately ten percent (10%) of the entire budget. At this time the Sponsor has no knowledge of any capital improvements that may have to be made during the first five years of condominium operation.

IN THE OPINION OF PRO REALTY TEAM LLC, 233 MONITOR ST, BROOKLYN, NY 11222, A LICENSED REAL ESTATE MANAGER, THE PROJECTED RECEIPTS ARE ADEQUATE TO MEET THE ESTIMATED EXPENSES FOR THE CONDOMINIUM BOARD'S FIRST YEAR OF OPERATION, ASSUMING SUCH FIRST YEAR TO BE THE FISCAL YEAR COMMENCING JANUARY 1, 2026. THE FOREGOING SCHEDULE, HOWEVER, IS NOT INTENDED AND SHOULD NOT BE TAKEN AS A GUARANTEE BY ANYONE THAT THE ANNUAL COMMON CHARGES OR EXPENSES FOR THE FIRST YEAR OR ANY SUBSEQUENT YEAR OF OPERATION OF THE BUILDING BY THE CONDOMINIUM BOARD WILL BE AS SET FORTH IN SAID SCHEDULE AND IT IS LIKELY THAT THE ACTUAL ANNUAL COMMON CHARGES OR EXPENSES WILL VARY FROM THE ACTUAL AMOUNTS SHOWN IN THE SCHEDULE. THE AMOUNTS SHOWN ARE THE SPONSOR'S PROJECTION OF WHAT THE COMMON CHARGES WILL BE DURING THE FIRST YEAR OF CONDO OPERATIONS.

THE SPONSOR HAS RESERVED THE RIGHT TO MODIFY, RENEW AND REPLACE EXISTING SERVICE, MAINTENANCE, EMPLOYMENT CONCESSIONAIRE AND OTHER AGREEMENTS AND INSURANCE POLICIES, AND TO ENTER INTO NEW AGREEMENTS AND POLICIES THAT WILL BE BINDING ON THE CONDOMINIUM BOARD ON THE CLOSING DATE. ANY SUCH NEW AGREEMENT WHICH HAS THE EFFECT OF MATERIALLY INCREASING COMMON CHARGES OR IS BINDING ON THE CONDOMINIUM BOARD FOR MORE THAN TWO YEARS WILL BE DISCLOSED BY A DULY FILED AMENDMENT TO THIS PLAN.

IN THE EVENT THAT THE ACTUAL OR ANTICIPATED DATE OF THE COMMENCEMENT OF CONDOMINIUM OPERATION DIFFERS FROM THE BUDGET YEAR PROJECTED HEREIN BY MORE THAN SIX (6) MONTHS FROM THE ANTICIPATED DATE OF THE CLOSING OF THE FIRST UNIT, THIS PLAN WILL BE AMENDED TO INCLUDE A REVISED BUDGET WHICH WILL DISCLOSE NEW PROJECTION. IF SUCH NEW PROJECTIONS EXCEED THE PROJECTIONS CONTAINED HEREIN BY TWENTY-FIVE PERCENT (25%) OR MORE, THE SPONSOR WILL OFFER ALL PURCHASERS THE RIGHT FOR NOT LESS THAN FIFTEEN (15) DAYS FOLLOWING THE PRESENTATION OF SUCH AMENDMENT TO RESCIND THEIR OFFER TO PURCHASE AND HAVE THEIR DOWN PAYMENTS REFUNDED.

IN THE EVENT THAT THE ACTUAL OR ANTICIPATED DATE OF THE COMMENCEMENT OF CONDOMINIUM OPERATION IS DELAYED BY TWELVE (12) MONTHS OR MORE FROM THE ANTICIPATED DATE OF CLOSING, THE SPONSOR WILL AMEND THE PLAN TO OFFER ALL

PURCHASERS THE RIGHT FOR NOT LESS THAN FIFTEEN (15) DAYS FOLLOWING THE PRESENTATION OF SUCH AMENDMENT TO RESCIND THEIR OFFER TO PURCHASE AND TO HAVE THEIR DOWN PAYMENTS REFUNDED. IF SUCH RIGHT TO RESCIND IS EXERCISED, THE DOWN PAYMENT WILL BE REFUNDED WITHIN TEN (10) DAYS OF THE SPONSOR'S RECEIPT OF THE NOTICE OF RESCISSION.

Re: 311 Eastern Parkway LLC (the "Condominium")
311 Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn, New York 11238

To Whom It May Concern:

You have requested our opinion regarding the allocation of common interests to the Units at the Condominium as required by 13 NYCRR Section 20.3(y)(5). Except where otherwise indicated, the terms used in this opinion shall have the same meaning as set forth in the Offering Plan (the "Plan") for the Condominium.

In connection with the rendering of this opinion we have reviewed the allocation of Common Interests as shown on Schedule A of the Plan. We have also considered relevant sections of the New York State Condominium Act and such other materials as we have deemed relevant. Our opinion is based upon the factual determinations made by David Berk as set forth in his opinion contained in the Plan as required by NYCRR Section 20.3(i). We have made no independent investigation of the truth or accuracy of the factual determinations of David Berk.

Based upon our review of the foregoing, we have determined the Common Interests were allocated pursuant to the method set forth in Real Property Law ("RPL") Section 339-i(1)(iv), i.e. based upon floor space, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Unit, the availability of Common Elements for exclusive or shared use and the overall dimensions of the particular Unit.

Accordingly, based on the foregoing it is our opinion that RPL Section 339-I has been complied with in assigning Common Interests to the Units. This opinion, while based upon existing rules of law applied to the facts and documents referred to above is not a guarantee to Purchasers. In no event will the Sponsor, Vallely Mitola Ryan PLLC or the Condominium Board be liable if there are changes in the facts on which we have relied in issuing this opinion or if there are changes in RPL Section 339 or other applicable law.

Sincerely,

Vallely Mitola Ryan PLLC

I. CHANGES IN PRICES AND UNITS

Sponsor reserves the right to change the Purchase Price, the manner of payment thereof and any other term of sale of any Unit, at any time and from time to time, both before and after the recording of the Declaration, without any prior notice and without the prior consent of the Managing Agent, if any, the Condominium Board, if any, and Unit Owner, any mortgagee or any other party.

The Purchase Prices set forth in Schedule A may be changed only by a duly filed amendment to the plan when the change in price is an across the board increase or decrease affecting one or more lines of units or unit models, or is to be advertised, or is a price increase for an individual purchaser. Prices and specified terms of sale are negotiable, and the Sponsor may enter into an agreement with an individual Purchaser to sell one or more units at prices lower than those set forth in Schedule A without filing an amendment.

After the Plan is declared effective, subject to the requirements set forth above, Sponsor reserves the right to enter into a negotiated Purchase Agreement with an individual Purchaser to sell one or more Units at prices lower than and terms different than those in effect from time to time without filing an amendment to the Plan. Sponsor reserves the right to negotiate with each Purchaser of an Unsold Unit the following terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement: Purchase Price; the amount of the Deposit; financing and other contingencies; the availability of financing; the payment of Purchaser's financing fees and other closing costs; the availability of Common Charge rebates, Purchase Price rebates and subsidies payable as a credit against the Purchase Price or on a periodic basis; and extensions of time periods within which to perform obligations under the Purchase Agreement. Sponsor reserves the right from time to time to add and/or delete negotiable terms from the list set forth above for all or some Purchasers. No Purchaser will benefit from any terms and conditions negotiated with any other Purchaser, and a Purchaser's failure to so benefit will not give rise to any right of recession under a Purchase Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any terms conditions for which disclosure is required pursuant to Department of Law regulations must be disclosed in an amendment to the Plan.

The location of the Building, size, layout and approximate square footages of the Units are shown on the Plans of the Building and the Units set forth in Part II of the Plan. In order to meet the possible varying demand for number and type of Units, or to meet particular requirements of prospective Purchasers, or for any other reason, Sponsor reserves the right (except to the extent prohibited by Law) at any time and from time to time, without giving prior notice and without the consent of any member of the Condominium Board, the Condominium its agent or any Unit Owner or mortgagee (unless directly affected by such change), to (a) change the layout of, or number of rooms in, any Unsold Unit, (b) change the size and/or number of Units by dividing one or more such Units into two or more separate Units, combining separate Units (including those resulting from such subdivision or otherwise) into one or more Units, altering any boundary walls between one or more Units, or otherwise, including incorporating Common Elements (such as a portion of a hallways) which exclusively benefit an Unsold Unit into such Unsold Unit without changing the percentage of Common Interest of such Unit, (c) designate a Common Element as part of a newly created Unit or designate all of part of a Unit as a newly created Unit or Common Element, (d) incorporate and enclose Limited Common Elements within a Unit, (e) if appropriate, reapportion among the Units affected by such change, their aggregate Common Interests, and (f) make non-material change in the size or quality of the Common Elements. In the event of any change pursuant to either (b), (c), (d), (e) above, such change shall be disclosed in a duly filed amendment to the Plan and to the Declaration, if applicable. No material change will be made in Unit size, layout or percentage of Common Interests without the consent of the Purchaser with respect to any Unit for which a Purchase Agreement is then in effect the Purchaser is not in default. No material change will be made in the size, and no material adverse change will be made in the quality of Common Elements unless Purchasers not in default received a right to consent and a reasonable period of time that is not less than fifteen (15) days after the presentation date to exercise the right. Sponsor will return any Deposit promptly to Purchasers who consent. Provided Purchaser's consent is not required, a Purchaser will not be excused from purchasing the Unit and will not have a claim against Sponsor as a result of any such change and will not affect a Purchaser's obligations under the Purchase Agreement or the Plan. If Purchaser's consent is required as a result of such change and Purchaser refuses to consent, then in such event, Sponsor's sole obligation shall be to refund to Purchaser the Deposit made under the Purchase Agreement and any interest earned thereon.

J. INTERIM LEASES TO PURCHASERS

Prior to consummation of this Plan, once a Purchase Agreement for a Unit is fully executed and for so long as the Purchase Agreement is in effect, such Unit may only be leased to its Purchaser. No Purchaser shall have the right to occupy or use any Unit prior to the closing unless Sponsor agrees to permit such occupancy under an interim lease or other written rental agreement.

Interim leases will not be subject to the New York City Rent Law (rent control), the Emergency tenant Protection Act of 1974, the New York City Rent Stabilization Law, the New York City Rent Stabilization Code, any rent regulatory scheme or code, rule or regulation promulgated under any of the foregoing, or any other rental protection laws.

Prior to consummation of this Offering Plan, if Sponsor agrees to give an interim lease to Purchaser, such interim lease will provide that an uncured Event of Default by the Purchaser under the Purchase Agreement will constitute an Event of Default under the interim lease entitling the Sponsor, at its sole option, to immediately terminate such interim lease whereupon the lessee must vacate the Unit within ten (10) days thereafter. The Purchase Agreement will contain a similar provision entitling Sponsor to terminate the Purchase Agreement and retain the Deposit (and any interest thereon) as liquidated damages, and not as a penalty, in the event that the Purchaser fails to cure an Event of Default under such Purchaser's interim lease, if any, within the applicable grace and cure period (if any) and either: (a) Sponsor has obtained an order of eviction or other judgment or order from a court or agency of competent jurisdiction against the Purchaser or (b) the Purchaser has vacated the Unit. No portion of the rent paid under any interim lease will be credited towards the Purchase Price of a Unit unless the interim lease and the Purchase Agreement therefor expressly so provide.

Prior to the first closing, the entire building will be insured by the Sponsor. After the first closing, the entire building will be insured by the condominium. Someone in possession of a Unit who is not a Unit Owner cannot insure their Unit since they have no ownership interest, and a Unit cannot be doubly insured. Therefore, someone who takes possession prior to closing assumes the risk of losses not covered by insurance.

In the event of any amendment to the Plan which discloses a material adverse change to the Plan and offers the Purchaser a right to rescind, if a Purchaser who is a tenant under an interim lease duly elects to rescind, the Purchaser's Deposit will be returned subject to the terms of the Plan and the interim lease made with such Purchaser shall be cancelled and possession of the Unit must be surrendered within sixty (60) days thereafter free of all occupants and in broom clean condition. A Purchaser shall be liable to Sponsor for any and all damages, costs and expenses incurred by Sponsor by reason of any failure to vacate within a sixty (60) day period. If such failure to timely vacate occurs prior to the First Closing, the Purchaser shall be liable for use and occupancy in an amount equal to twice the rent under the interim lease. If such failure to vacate occurs after the First Closing, the Purchaser shall be liable for twice the costs of carrying the Unit (such as Common Charges, real estate taxes and the allocable portion, based on such Unit's Common Interest, of debt services on any loan covering the Unsold Units) as calculated by the Sponsor. In addition, irrespective of when failure to timely vacate occurs, such Purchaser shall be liable to Sponsor for loss of profit and all costs and expenses incurred by Sponsor to obtain possession of the Unit, including the cost of litigation and reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses.

Sponsor reserves the right, without prior notice or amendment to the Plan to use Unsold Units on any floor of the Building as sales and rental offices and model apartments for the Building. In the event Sponsor thereafter elects to sell any such Unsold Units, Sponsor may require the purchaser thereof to purchase all or any of the furnishings, equipment or decorations therein and pay, in addition to the Purchase Price for such Unit, such amounts as Sponsor may determine. In no event shall the presence of any furniture, furnishings, equipment or decorations in any model apartment imply or represent that any Unit will contain such furniture, furnishings, equipment or decorations upon delivery of the Unit to the Purchaser of the Unit unless such Purchaser agrees to pay Sponsor an amount as determined by Sponsor in addition to the Purchase Price for such Unit and such items to be included are specifically stated to be included in an addendum to the Purchase Agreement for such Unit.

New York City law prohibits smoking and using e-cigarettes of any kind in indoor common areas, including but not limited to, lobbies, hallways, stairwells, mailrooms, fitness areas, storage areas, garages and laundry rooms in any building with three (3) or more Units. (See New York City Admin. Code, § 17-505 for further details.) Purchasers are advised that Smoking shall be prohibited in (i) the Common Elements including but not limited to (all to the extent that they are utilized or service the Units), hallways, stairs, corridors, lobby, mail room, package room, laundry room, electrical and air-conditioning room, trash compactor room, emergency generator, exhaust and fan room, fire staircases, landings and stairs, fire safety systems servicing the Units, (ii) inside of Units, (iii) inside of Limited Common Elements, including gardens, areas under the stoop, or the roof deck patios, (iv) and outdoor areas within 15 feet of entrances, exits, windows, and air intake units of the Building (the "Smoking Policy"). The term "Smoking" shall mean inhaling, exhaling, burning or carrying any lighted or heated cigar, cigarette, Electronic Cigarette, little cigar, pipe, water pipe or hookah, herbal cigarette, non-tobacco smoking product (e.g., marijuana or non-tobacco shisha), or any similar form of lighted object or device designed for people to use to inhale smoke. The term "Electronic Cigarette (e-cigarette)" shall mean a battery-operated device that heats a liquid, gel, herb or other substance and produces vapor for people to inhale. The Smoking Policy shall be conspicuously posted in the Building and shall be included in all Unit leases and/or Interim Leases. The Smoking Policy is incorporated into the Residential Rules and Regulations of the Condominium. (See section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners and the Condominium Board" for further details.)

For a further description, see the form of Interim Lease set forth in Part II of the Plan.

K. PROCEDURE TO PURCHASE

Execution of Documents

A prospective Purchaser desiring to purchase a Unit will be required to execute a Purchase Agreement in quadruplicate (i.e., four (4) original complete copies), which will be in the form set forth in Part II of the Plan and may not be amended, revised or altered by the Purchaser in any way. Any conflict between the Plan and the Purchase Agreement will be resolved in favor of the Plan.

Sponsor will have thirty (30) days after delivery by Purchaser of an executed Purchase Agreement and the required Deposit (as hereinafter defined), within which to accept or reject the Purchase Agreement. If a Purchase Agreement is not accepted by Sponsor within the thirty (30) day period, the Purchase Agreement shall be deemed to have been rejected and cancelled and the Deposit shall be returned to Purchaser within thirty (30) days thereafter. Sponsor hereby reserves the right at any time and from time to time for any reason whatsoever, to refuse to approve and execute (a) a Purchase Agreement for any Unit, except as prohibited by Law, and (b) a Purchase Agreement(s) for more than one Unit to anyone Person.

The Purchase Agreement shall not contain, and shall in no event be modified to contain, a provision waiving the Purchaser's rights or abrogating Sponsor's obligations under the Plan or under Article 23-A of the General Business Law of the State of New York. Any conflict between the plan and the purchase agreement will be resolved according to the terms of the Plan. The Purchase Agreement may only be assigned in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the Section of the Plan entitled “Assignment of Purchase Agreements.”

A prospective Purchaser must submit to Sponsor’s Attorney: (i) four (4) fully completed, executed and unaltered original counterpart Purchase Agreements, (ii) a completed and executed form W-9 or form W-8 as applicable, and (iii) and an official bank check for the Deposit in an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of the Purchase Price for the Unit to be purchased.

Purchaser must either acknowledge having received and read a copy of the Plan including all amendments thereto, if any, filed prior to the date hereof with the Department of Law, at least three (3) business days before submitting the Purchase Agreement. If, however, Purchaser did not receive a copy of the Plan at least three (3) business days before submitting the Purchase Agreement, Purchaser may rescind the Purchase Agreement, by sending written notice of same to Sponsor by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, or by personal delivery, in either case within seven (7) days of Purchaser’s submission of the Purchase Agreement.

All checks in payment of the Deposit must be drawn on or issued by a New York Bank or trust company which is a member of the New York Clearinghouse Association. All Deposits must be made payable to the direct order of “Vallely Mitola Ryan PLLC, as escrow agent” All checks delivered in payment of the Deposit shall be accepted by Sponsor subject to collection, and if any such check is returned for insufficient funds or any other reason, Sponsor shall have the right, among other things, to deem such Purchase Agreement to be void ab initio and of no further force or effect.

All Deposits made pursuant to Purchase Agreements are subject to the requirements of 352-e(2-b) and 352-h of the General Business Law of the State of New York and all funds paid by Purchasers shall be handled in accordance with these statutes and regulations. Pursuant to this law, Sponsor will cause all Deposits received by it directly or by its agents or employees to be promptly deposited and held in accordance with the procedures set forth in the section below entitled "Escrow and Trust Fund Requirements."

The Balance of the Purchase Price shall be payable simultaneously with the delivery of the deed to the Unit by official bank check drawn on or issued by a New York bank or trust company which is a member of The New York Clearinghouse Association or, at Sponsor's sole discretion, a wire transfer and shall be payable to the direct order of Sponsor, or otherwise if Sponsor should so notify Purchaser. The deed will be substantially in the form set forth in Part II of the Plan. Interest, if any, on the Deposit will be credited or paid to Purchaser at Closing or released to Sponsor if the Purchaser defaults and the Plan is consummated.

Each Purchaser will be required to execute and deliver at the closing a Unit Owner's Power of Attorney to the Condominium Board and Sponsor. The form Unit Owner's Power of Attorney, set forth in Part II of the Plan, grants broad powers to the Condominium Board, to enter into agreements affecting the Common Elements. The Unit Owner's Power of Attorney also grants to Sponsor the right to amend the Condominium Declaration with respect to any Unsold Unit. Failure by any Purchaser to deliver such document at closing shall constitute an event of default under a Purchaser's Agreement, entitling Sponsor to all remedies set forth in such Agreement. (Please refer to the form Unit Owner's Power of Attorney set forth in its entirety in Part II of the Plan.)

TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE AS TO PURCHASER'S OBLIGATIONS PURSUANT TO THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, FOR THE PAYMENT OF ALL DEPOSITS AND THE BALANCE OF THE PURCHASE PRICE. FUNDS DRAWN ON OUT-OF-STATE OR FOREIGN BANKS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED IN PAYMENT OF THE PURCHASE PRICE.

According to Black's Law Dictionary (Revised Fifth Edition), "time is of the essence of contract" means generally that punctual performance by one party at one precise time named or within a period specified in the Purchase Agreement is essential to enable the party to require performance by the other party.

In the event of any default by Purchaser under the Purchase Agreement, which default is not cured within thirty (30) days after Sponsor gives written notice to Purchaser of default, with time being of the essence, Sponsor may, at its option, cancel the Purchase Agreement and retain the Deposit together with any interest earned thereon, as liquidated damages, in which event all rights, obligations and liabilities of Sponsor and Purchaser shall wholly cease and terminate. In addition to the Deposit and interest thereon, Sponsor also will be entitled to retain and/or recover (i) any amount spent by Sponsor for special work requested by Purchaser and (ii) the reasonable cost to restore the Unit to its condition prior to such special work being performed.

After the Plan has been declared effective, Sponsor will fix dates for closing title to all Units for which Purchase Agreements have been executed by serving notice upon each Purchaser setting the Closing Date for the Unit (the "Originally Scheduled Closing Date"). Such notice will be served no less than thirty (30) days prior to the date set for the Closing of the Unit.

Sponsor, in its sole discretion, may permit Purchaser to waive this thirty (30) day notice provision.

If a Purchaser fails for any reason to close title to the Unit on the Originally Scheduled Closing Date, as to which date time is of the essence, Purchaser will have a thirty (30) day period within which to cure such default. The closing apportionments described in the Section of the Plan entitled "Closing Costs and Adjustments" will be made as of midnight of the day preceding the originally scheduled closing date, regardless of when the actual Closing of Title occurs ("Actual Closing Date") and Purchaser will be required to pay to Sponsor, as a reimbursement of Sponsor's higher carrying costs for the Unit by virtue of the delay, and in addition to the other payments to be made to Sponsor under the Purchase Agreement and the Plan, an amount equal to .04% of the Purchase Price of the Unit for each day starting from (and including) the originally scheduled Closing Date to (and including) the day before the Actual Closing Date.

The Sponsor anticipates that the First Closing of a Unit will occur by January 1, 2026. Purchasers will be offered a right of rescission if: (i) the actual date of Closing of Title to the first Unit; or (ii) the projected date of Closing of Title to the first Unit occurs later than January 1, 2026, twelve (12) months after the projected date for the First Closing. If the Plan is amended to provide for a later projected date for the First Closing, Purchasers will be entitled to an offer of rescission if the First Closing occurs more than twelve (12) months beyond that amended, later date. However, if the First Closing occurs before January 1, 2026, the Sponsor may schedule the Closings of Title to other Units significantly later than such date. Unless a Purchase Agreement contains an outside closing date, the Sponsor is not obligated to schedule a closing within any specified time frame or to ensure that closing of title to a closing within any specified time frame or to ensure that Closing of Title to a Unit will occur by any date certain. PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS SHOULD THEREFORE CAREFULLY CONSIDER SUCH RISKS IN THEIR DETERMINATION AS TO WHETHER TO PURCHASE A UNIT.

If a Purchaser has entered into Purchase Agreements to purchase more than one Unit, all such Units must close simultaneously and an Event of Default by Purchaser in the payment or performance of any obligations under any of such Purchase Agreements, beyond any applicable grace and cure periods, shall be deemed an Event of Default under the other Purchase Agreements. If an Event of a Default occurs, Sponsor may, at its option, cancel such Purchase Agreements and retain, as liquidated damages, each of the Deposits made by such Purchaser, together with any interest earned thereon, if any, under such Purchase Agreements.

Any Purchaser that is a foreign government, a resident representative of a foreign government or other person or entity otherwise entitled to the immunities from suit enjoyed by a foreign government (i.e., diplomatic or sovereign immunity) ("Foreign Government Purchaser") shall be required to expressly and voluntarily waive such immunity and consent ("Waiver and Consent") to any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to the Purchase Agreement or the Condominium Documents being brought in any State or Federal suit, action or proceeding in the State of New York based on, arising out of or connected with the Purchase Agreement or the Condominium Documents, pursuant to a Waiver and Consent Form that Purchaser will be required to sign at closing. At Closing, a Foreign Government Purchaser shall designate ("Designation") and authorize a lawful agent to receive process for and on behalf of the Foreign Government Purchaser in any State or Federal suit, action or proceeding in the State of New York based on, arising out of or connected with the Purchase Agreement or the Condominium

Documents, pursuant to a Designation Form that Purchaser will be required to sign at closing. A Foreign Government Purchaser will also be required at Closing to deposit with the Condominium an amount equal to two (2) years' Common Charges ("Security") in effect for the Unit which will be in addition to the required contribution to the Working Capital Fund, pursuant to a Security Agreement that Purchaser will be required to sign at closing.

A Unit Owner who acquired title to the Unit from Sponsor ("Sponsor Sale") is prohibited under the Purchase Agreement and this Plan for a period of twelve (12) months from the Sponsor Sale from taking any of the following actions without Sponsor's prior written consent, which consent may be withheld, conditioned, or delayed, in Sponsor's sole and absolute discretion: (i) listing such Unit for sale or rental, (ii) placing or authorizing any listing in any broker's listing system or other listing service, (iii) advertising or otherwise offering, promoting or publicizing the availability of such Unit for sale or rental, or (iv) selling or otherwise conveying the Unit, except for a deed in lieu of foreclosure.

Purchasers are prohibited from listing their Units for resale with any broker or otherwise advertising, promoting or publicizing the availability of their Unit for Sale prior to the Closing of Title to such Unit, provided however, that such limited shall not apply from and after the date that Sponsor has conveyed title to all of the Units. Any such listing of a Unit or form of advertising of a Unit by a Purchaser or its agents prior to the Closing of Title shall be an event of default under the Purchaser Agreement, entitling Sponsor to the remedies set forth therein.

If the Plan is withdrawn or abandoned, the Deposit previously paid to and actually collected by Sponsor together with any interest earned thereon, shall be returned to Purchaser in accordance with the provisions herein set forth. In the event a Purchaser is entitled to a rescission, the Purchaser may not receive a refund of any funds used for upgrades or extras. If, however, the Plan is abandoned, unit upgrade funds will be returned to Purchasers.

From and after the Closing of each Unit, Purchaser will become obligated for the payment of Common Charges, real estate taxes and assessments whether or not separately assessed (including water charges and sewer rents, if separately assessed) and all other expenses with respect to the Unit, whether or not Purchaser has taken possession of the Unit, and whether or not all work required to be performed by anyone in or to the Unit has been completed.

A Purchaser may obtain financing from a lending institution or other source, but such Purchaser's obligation to purchase a Unit pursuant to a Purchase Agreement shall not be contingent on such Purchaser obtaining such financing, so that a Purchaser will remain obligated under the Purchase Agreement whether or not Purchaser has been able to obtain financing. Neither Sponsor nor its principal, managers, members, agents' designees, employees or affiliates, nor Selling Agent, makes any representations as to the terms or availability of any mortgage financing (including, without limitation, the availability of financing conforming to FHA or FNMA requirements). Prospective Purchasers may want to finalize their financing arrangements before signing a Purchase Agreement and should be aware that even if a loan commitment is obtained, its terms may be limited, and it could expire before the Closing Date. Neither Sponsor, Sponsor Representatives nor Selling Agent shall have any liability as a result of any scheduling or adjournment of closing beyond the expiration of a loan commitment.

The obligations of a Purchaser under a Purchase Agreement are not conditioned on obtaining financing. Any prospective Purchaser who executes a Purchase Agreement and does not obtain financing may lose his or her Deposit plus the cost of any upgrades or extras paid by Purchasers as liquidated damages which upgrades or extras have been installed by Sponsor, paid for but not installed by Sponsor or which have been ordered but not installed by Sponsor and for which Sponsor is obligated to pay if he or she is unable to otherwise raise the monies for the balance of the Purchase Price. Prospective purchasers who require financing are advised to consult with a lending institution before execution of a Purchase Agreement. No representation is made by the Sponsor as to the availability or cost of such financing. Notwithstanding the above, in the event the Plan is abandoned a Purchaser will be entitled to a return of all funds paid for upgrades or extras.

NO REPRESENTATION IS MADE BY THE SPONSOR AS TO WHETHER ANY PURCHASER WILL QUALIFY FOR FINANCING OR AS TO THE TERMS, COST OR AVAILABILITY OF SUCH FINANCING. THE SPONSOR SHALL HAVE NO LIABILITY OR RESPONSIBILITY TO ANY PURCHASER IF HIS/HER APPLICATION FOR FINANCING IS NOT ACCEPTED.

Purchasers should note that in the current real estate market, banks and other lenders are imposing various restrictions on purchase financing. Such restrictions include requiring that a certain percentage of Units in a building or group of buildings be sold before a lender will consider making a loan. Thus, it may be possible for a purchaser to experience difficulty obtaining a loan in a building or group of buildings where the Sponsor or a holder of unsold shares has not sold a substantial percentage of the Units in the building or group of buildings, which in some cases may be as high as seventy percent (70%) of the total units. Moreover, some lenders will not provide financing in a building or group of buildings where an investor other than the original Sponsor has an ownership interest of ten percent (10%) or more of the total units. It may also be difficult for a purchaser to resell a Unit if prospective purchasers are unable to obtain a loan due to the same minimum sales and investor ownership restrictions.

The risk of loss to any Unit by fire or other casualty until the closing for such Unit is assumed by Sponsor but without any obligation or liability by Sponsor to repair or restore any damage to any Unit. In the event of damage or destruction of a Unit due to fire or other casualty prior to the Closing, but subsequent to the signing of a Purchase Agreement, the cause of which originated outside the Unit and did not result from the acts or omissions of Purchaser or other occupants, guests, invitees, agents or workers, provided Sponsor elects, in its sole discretion, to repair or restore the Unit, the Purchase Agreement shall continue in full force and effect, and, thereafter, Purchaser shall not have the right to reject title or receive a credit against, or abatement in, the Purchase Price for the Unit. In such event, Sponsor shall be entitled to a reasonable period of time within which to complete the repair or restoration, and any proceeds received from insurance or in satisfaction of any claim or action in connection with such loss shall, subject to the rights of the Condominium Board and other Unit Owners, belong entirely to Sponsor. In the event of damage or destruction to any Unit by fire or other casualty prior to the Closing, but subsequent to the signing of a Purchase Agreement, if Sponsor notifies Purchaser that it does not elect (which election shall be in its sole discretion) to repair or restore the Unit or if the Unit Owners do not resolve to make such repair or restoration pursuant to the By-Laws, the Purchase Agreement shall be deemed canceled and of no further force or effect and Sponsor shall return the Deposit, together with any interest earned thereon, to Purchaser, whereupon Sponsor and Purchaser shall be released and discharged from all obligations and liability under the Purchase Agreement and the Plan; provided, however, if Purchaser is then in default under the Purchase Agreement (beyond any applicable grace period), Sponsor shall retain all such sums as and for liquidated damages.

Each prospective Purchaser shall be given an opportunity to examine the Unit prior to the Closing during normal business hours and in the company of Sponsor's representative and is urged to make a careful inspection thereof, as more fully set forth in the Purchase Agreement set forth in Part II of the Plan. At the Closing, each prospective Purchaser of a Unit shall be required to sign and deliver to Sponsor an Inspection Statement in substantially the form set forth in Part II of the Plan wherein Purchaser acknowledges the condition in which Purchaser has inspected the Unit. Under no circumstances shall any item included on an Inspection Statement (i) constitute grounds for a Purchaser to postpone or otherwise delay the date scheduled for the Closing nor (ii) obligate Sponsor to deposit any monies in escrow at Closing.

SPONSOR SHALL IN NO WAY BE OBLIGATED TO PERFORM ANY SPECIAL OR ADDITIONAL WORK TO A UNIT OTHER THAN AS REQUIRED BY THE TERMS OF THE PLAN AND THE DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY AND BUILDING SPECFICATIONS SET FORTH IN PART II OF THE PLAN.

Any conflict between the Offering Plan and the Purchase Agreement will be resolved according to the terms of the Offering Plan.

Escrow and Trust Fund Provisions:

All deposits, down payments, advances and payments made by Purchasers prior to the Closing ("Deposits") will be held in escrow in conformity with the disclosure contained in this Section of the Plan and in accordance with the escrow provisions contained in the Purchase Agreement and the Escrow Agreement between Sponsor, Escrow Agent and Purchaser as set forth in Part II of the Plan.

If Sponsor elects to change the Escrow Bank and/or Escrow Agent, such change will be disclosed in a duly filed amendment to the Plan prior to transferring any Deposits.

Sponsor will comply with the escrow and trust fund requirements of General Business Law Sections 352-e(2-b) and 352-h and the Attorney General's regulations promulgated pursuant thereto. The Department of Law may perform random reviews and audits of any records involving escrow accounts to determine compliance with statute and regulation.

Any provision of any contract or agreement, whether oral or in writing, by which a Purchaser purports to waive or indemnify any obligation of Escrow Agent holding trust funds is absolutely void. The provisions of the Attorney General's regulations concerning escrow/trust funds shall prevail over any conflicting or inconsistent provision in the Plan or the Purchase Agreement. Purchasers shall not be obligated to pay any legal or other expense of Sponsor in connection with the establishment, maintenance or defense of obligations arising from the handling or disposition of trust funds. However, notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or anywhere else in the Plan, in the Event of Default by Purchaser, as that term is defined in the Purchase Agreement, Purchaser shall be obligated to reimburse Sponsor for any legal fees, expenses and disbursements incurred by Sponsor in successfully defending Sponsor's rights under the Purchase Agreement or otherwise successfully enforcing Sponsor's obligations thereunder.

The law firm of Vallely Mitola Ryan PLLC, with an address at 6851 Jericho Turnpike, Suite 165, Syosset, NY 11791, telephone number is (516) 386-3900, shall serve as escrow agent ("Escrow Agent"). Escrow Agent has designated the following attorneys to serve as signatories: Leah M. Bloomberg. All designated signatories are admitted to practice law in the State of New York. Neither the Escrow Agent nor any authorized signatories on the account are the Sponsor, Selling Agent, managing agent, or any principal thereof, or have any beneficial interest in any of the foregoing.

The Escrow Agent has established the escrow account at Webster Bank, located at One Jericho Plaza, Jericho, New York 11753 ("Escrow Bank"), a bank authorized to do business in the State of New York. The escrow account is entitled 311 Eastern Parkway Condominium Escrow Account ("Escrow Account"). The Escrow Account is federally insured by the FDIC at the maximum amount of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00) per deposit. Any deposit in excess of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00) will not be insured, unless Escrow Agent has established multiple accounts on behalf of Purchaser at various institutions.

All Deposits received from Purchaser shall be in the form of checks, money orders, wire transfers, or other instruments, and shall be made payable to or endorsed by the Purchaser to the order of Vallely Mitola Ryan PLLC, as Escrow Agent.

The interest rate for all Deposits made into the Escrow Account shall be the prevailing rate for such accounts. Interest shall begin to accrue upon placing the Deposit into the Escrow Account. All interest earned thereon shall be paid to or credited to the Purchaser at closing. No fees of any kind may be deducted from the Escrow Account, and the Sponsor shall bear all costs associated with the maintenance of the Escrow Account.

The Escrow Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 13 in Part II of the Plan. The Escrow Agreement must be executed by the Sponsor, Purchaser, and Escrow Agent.

Within five (5) business days after the Purchase Agreement has been tendered to Escrow Agent along with the Deposit, the Escrow Agent shall sign the Purchase Agreement and place the Deposit into the Escrow Account. Within ten (10) business days of placing the deposit in the Escrow Account, Escrow Agent shall provide written notice to Purchaser and Sponsor, confirming the Deposit. The notice shall provide the account number and the initial interest rate to be earned on the Deposit. Any Deposits made for upgrades, extras, or custom work shall be initially deposited into the Escrow Account and released in accordance to the terms of the Escrow Agreement.

The Escrow Agent is obligated to send notice to the Purchaser once the Deposit is placed in the Escrow Account. If the Purchaser does not receive notice of such deposit within fifteen (15) business days after tender of the Deposit, he or she may cancel the Purchase Agreement within ninety (90) days after tender of the Purchase Agreement and Deposit to Escrow Agent. Complaints concerning the failure to honor such cancellation requests may be referred to the

New York State Department of Law, Real Estate Finance Bureau, 28 Liberty Street, New York, New York 10271. Rescission shall not be afforded where proof satisfactory to the Attorney General is submitted establishing that the Deposit was timely placed in the Escrow Account in accordance with the New York State Department of Law's regulations concerning Deposits and requisite notice was timely mailed to the Purchaser.

All Deposits, except for advances made for upgrades, extras, or custom work received in connection with the Purchase Agreement, are and shall continue to be the Purchaser's money, and may not be comingled with any other money or pledged or hypothecated by Sponsor, as per GBL § 352-h.

Under no circumstances shall Sponsor seek or accept release of the Deposit of a defaulting Purchaser until after consummation of the Plan, as evidenced by the acceptance of a post-closing amendment by the New York State Department of Law. Consummation of the Plan does not relieve the Sponsor of its obligations pursuant to GBL §§ 352-e(2-b) and 352-h.

The Escrow Agent shall release the Deposit if so directed:

(a) pursuant to terms and conditions set forth in the Escrow Agreement upon Closing of Title to the Unit; or

(b) in a subsequent writing signed by both Sponsor and Purchaser; or

(c) by a final, non-appealable order or judgment of a court.

If the Escrow Agent is not directed to release the Deposit pursuant to paragraphs (a) through (c) above, and the Escrow Agent receives a request by either party to release the Deposit, then the Escrow Agent must give both the Purchaser and Sponsor prior written notice of not fewer than thirty (30) days before releasing the Deposit. If the Escrow Agent has not received notice of objection to the release of the Deposit prior to the expiration of the thirty (30) day period, the Deposit shall be released, and the Escrow Agent shall provide further written notice to both parties informing them of said release. If the Escrow Agent receives a written notice from either party objecting to the release of the Deposit within said thirty (30) day period, the Escrow Agent shall continue to hold the Deposit until otherwise directed pursuant to paragraphs (a) through (c) above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Escrow Agent shall have the right at any time to deposit the Deposit contained in the Escrow Account with the clerk of the county where the Unit is located and shall give written notice to both parties of such deposit.

The Sponsor shall not object to the release of the Deposit to:

(a) a Purchaser who timely rescinds in accordance with an offer of rescission contained in the Plan or an Amendment to the Plan; or

(b) all Purchasers after an Amendment abandoning the Plan is accepted for filing by the Department of Law.

The Department of Law may perform random reviews and audits of any records involving the Escrow Account to determine compliance with all applicable statutes and regulations.

The Purchase Agreement is set forth in Part II of the Plan. The relevant escrow and trust fund provisions are included in the Escrow Agreement set forth in Part II of the Plan which must be executed by the Escrow Agent.

The Purchase Agreement provides that Purchaser will not object and will be deemed to have agreed, without the need for a further written agreement, to the release of the Deposit to Sponsor in the event Sponsor and Purchaser close title under the Purchase Agreement.

Escrow Agent shall be permitted to act as counsel to Sponsor in any dispute as to the disbursement of the Deposit or any other dispute between Sponsor and a Purchaser whether or not Escrow Agent is in possession of the Deposit and continues to act as Escrow Agent. Any provision in the Escrow Agreement or separate agreement, whether oral or in writing, by which a Purchaser purports to waive or indemnify any obligation of the Escrow Agent holding any Deposit in trust is absolutely void. The provisions of the Attorney General's regulations and GBL §§ 352-e(2-b) and 352-h concerning escrow trust funds shall prevail over any conflicting or inconsistent provisions in the Purchase Agreement, Plan, or any amendment thereto. Nothing contained herein shall diminish or impair the Sponsor’s statutory obligation to each purchaser pursuant to GBL §§ 352-h to hold in trust all deposits, advances or payments made in connection with the offer until consummation of the transaction with such purchaser. Consummation of the plan does not relieve sponsor of its obligations pursuant to GBL §§ 352-h. Funds from the escrow account remain the property of the purchaser until employed in connection with the consummation of the transaction. Such funds shall not be a part of the estate of the sponsor or the escrow agent upon any bankruptcy, incapacity or death.

Sponsor has agreed to indemnify Escrow Agent from all claims, losses, judgments, costs, expenses and damages, including those brought by third-parties, including purchasers, incurred in connection with or arising out of the escrow agreement or the performance or non-performance of Escrow Agent's duties under the Escrow Agreement, except with respect to actions or omissions taken or suffered by Escrow Agent in bad faith or in willful disregard of the Escrow Agreement or involving gross negligence of Escrow Agent. This indemnity includes, without limitation, professional fees, including attorneys' fees, court costs and disbursements, either paid to retain attorneys or representing the value of all legal services rendered by Escrow Agent to itself and any and all attorneys' and professional fees, court costs, expenses and disbursements incurred by Escrow Agent in connection with a bankruptcy case filed by Sponsor for protection under the United States Bankruptcy Code, the enforcement of any rights, or defense of any claims against Escrow Agent in any bankruptcy proceeding, or any other matter arising in or in connection with Sponsor's bankruptcy case.

Upon the dissolution of the law firm which was the Escrow Agent, the former partners or members of the law firm shall make appropriate arrangements for the maintenance of the Escrow Account records by one of them or by the successor law firm and shall notify the Department of Law of such transfer.

Escrow Agent may rely upon any document which may be submitted to it in connection with its duties under this Section and which is believed by Escrow Agent to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties and shall have no liability or responsibility with respect to the form, execution or validity thereof. Escrow Agent and all Authorized Signatories submit to the jurisdiction of the State of New York and its Courts for any cause of action arising out of their obligations with respect to this Section or otherwise concerning the maintenance of or release of the Deposits from escrow. Escrow Agent will maintain all records concerning the Master Escrow Account for seven (7) years after the release of the Deposits.

L. FINANCING FOR QUALIFIED PURCHASERS

THIS PLAN DOES NOT CONTAIN ANY FINANCING ARRANGEMENTS FOR PURCHASERS. PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS WHO ARE INTERESTED IN SUCH FINANCING SHOULD CONTACT LENDING INSTITUTIONS, SUCH AS MUTUAL SAVINGS BANKS AND COMMERCIAL BANKS, MANY OF WHICH HAVE ADVERTISED THAT THEY OFFER FINANCING TO PURCHASERS OF CONDOMINIUM UNITS.

M. ASSIGNMENT OF PURCHASE AGREEMENT

A Purchase Agreement may not be assigned by the Purchaser thereunder. If a Purchase desires to assign its rights under a Purchase Agreement or to take title in the name of an affiliate of, or entity related to, or controlled by, the Purchaser that differs from the name on the Purchase Agreement, or to add, delete or substitute the name of a member of the Purchaser's family, then, if such assignment, alteration, addition, deletion or substitution is permitted by Sponsor (in Sponsor's sole discretion, however, Sponsor shall not discriminate against any person because of race, creed, color, sex, disability, marital status or national origin, or as otherwise Prohibited by applicable law), the Purchaser will be required to deliver to Selling Agent or Sponsor's Attorney, four (4) signed assignments of the Purchaser Agreement (to be prepared by Sponsor's Attorney at Purchaser's expense and in form and content acceptable to Sponsor, in its sole discretion), as well as two (2) completed and signed copies of either Form W-9 (Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification) or Form W-8BEN, as applicable, which must be delivered to the Selling Agent or Sponsor's Attorney, together with a personal certified check, or an official bank or cashier's check, in the amount of One Thousand Dollars and 00/100 ($1,000.00) made payable to "Vallely Mitola Ryan PLLC" (for services rendered in connection with the assignment), not less than seven (7) days prior to the date schedule for the Purchaser's closing. In the event such fee is not collected prior to the Closing, it is payable at the Closing. In no event will the Purchaser (or its assignee or any added or substituted party) have the right to adjourn or postpone the closing as a result of such change or assignment. Furthermore, if Purchaser is requesting to assign the Purchase Agreement to an entity, then the Purchaser shall furnish to Sponsor's Attorney, all organizational documents containing proof that the proposed entity is authorized to assume the Purchase Agreement and close on the Unit. Sponsor is not obligated to consent to any such change or assignment and, if Sponsor refuses to consent, the Purchaser will not be excused from his or her obligations under the Agreement; and the prohibition against advertising or listing any Unit(s) for sale or resale with any broker or otherwise advertising, promotion or publicizing the availability of such Unit(s) for sale shall remain in effect.

In connection with the foregoing, if Purchaser is a corporation, any sale, assignment, transfer, pledge, encumbrance or other disposition of any of the stock of Purchaser, or if Purchaser is a partnership, a limited liability company or other entity, any sale, assignment, transfer, pledge, encumbrance or other disposition of any interest in such partnership, limited liability company or other entity shall be considered an assignment and shall be subject to provisions, prohibitions and terms of the Plan concerning assignment, except that a sale of less than fifty percent (50%) of the stock, or in the case of a partnership, limited liability company or other entity, less than fifty percent (50%) of the ownership interests, of Purchaser which does not result in a change in control of Purchaser shall not be considered an assignment. For purposes of the preceding sentence only, "control" shall mean the ownership of fifty one percent (51%) or more of the interests in such entity or possession of the power to direct the management and policies of such entity and distribution of its profits.

N. EFFECTIVE DATE

All Purchase Agreements signed by Sponsor shall be contingent upon Sponsor declaring the Offering Plan effective pursuant to the requirements and terms of the Plan. These requirements, stated below, must be satisfied within one (1) year of the date the Plan is accepted for filing unless the Plan is amended to extend this period. However, any amendment to the Plan is hereby deemed to extend this time to the same extent that the Plan is extended by such amendment. The closing of title to any Unit may not occur until after the Plan has been declared effective and an amendment has been accepted for filing by the Department of Law, as required under NYCRR Section 20.5(e), substantiating same, and the Condominium Declaration and By-Laws have been duly recorded.

Sponsor's offer to sell the Units is contingent upon the Plan being declared effective and compliance with the relevant conditions and time periods set forth in this Plan and no Closing to a Unit will be held until the Plan is declared effective.

This Plan may be declared effective bona fide Purchasers have executed Purchase Agreements which have been accepted by Sponsor for at least one (1) Unit, which represents a minimum of at least fifteen percent (15%) of the Units being offered under this Plan. However, if after Sponsor declares this Plan effective, all Purchase Agreements are rescinded and/or terminated prior to the date of the first Unit Closing, the Sponsor shall re-declare this Plan effective, regardless of whether the Declaration of Condominium has been recorded, prior to Closing any Units.

This Plan will be declared effective by (i) an amendment to the Plan or (ii) by personal service of notice on every Purchaser or by commencement of service by mail in the manner required by 13 NYCRR Section 20.1(d) stating that the Plan is declared effective and submitting an amendment conforming to Section 20.5(e) to the Department of Law within five (5) days confirming that the Plan was declared effective on a specified date. Closing of the first Unit shall not occur until the Plan is declared effective and an effectiveness amendment is accepted for filing by the Department of Law.

The Plan will not be declared effective based on: (i) Purchase Agreements signed by Purchasers who have been granted a right of rescission that has not yet expired or been waived; or (ii) Purchase Agreements where the Purchaser was not afforded the seven (7) days period to rescind the Purchase Agreement or the three (3) business day period to review the Plan and all filed amendments in accordance with the provisions set forth above in the section of the Plan entitled "Procedure to Purchase;" or (iii) Purchase Agreements with any Purchaser who is the Sponsor, the Selling Agent, the managing agent or is a principal of the Sponsor, the Selling Agent, the managing agent or is related to the Sponsor, the Selling Agent, the managing agent or to any principal of the Sponsor or the managing agent by blood, marriage or adoption or as a business associate, an employee, a member, a shareholder or a limited partner; except that such a Purchaser other than the Sponsor or a principal of the Sponsor may be included if the Sponsor has submitted proof satisfactory to the Department of Law establishing that the Purchaser is bona fide.

The Plan must be declared effective when executed Purchase Agreements are accepted by Sponsor for four (4) Units, which represents a minimum of at least eighty percent (80%) of the Units under this Plan.

The Plan may be abandoned by Sponsor, at its sole option, at any time before it is declared effective. If the Plan is to be abandoned after filing and the Sponsor has accepted Purchase Agreements, the Sponsor shall promptly submit an amendment to the Department of Law together with form RS-3 as promulgated by the Department of Law. If payments under Purchase Agreements have been received, the amount of such funds shall be returned to the Purchasers by the Escrow Agent within five (5) business days after the amendment abandoning the Plan has been accepted for filing. If there are no outstanding Purchase Agreements, the Sponsor need not submit an amendment but shall submit a form RS-3 to the Department of Law.

Once the Plan has been declared effective or executed Purchase Agreements for eighty percent (80%) of the Units have been accepted by Sponsor, the Plan may not be abandoned unless (i) there is a title defect which cannot be cured without litigation or cannot be cured for less than a stated amount which shall not be less than one-half (1/2) of one percent (1%) of the total offering amount; (ii) substantial damage or destruction of the Building by fire or other casualty which cannot be cured for less than a stated amount which shall not be less than one-half (1/2) of one percent (1%) of the total offering amount, or (iii) the taking of any material proportion of the Property by condemnation or eminent domain. In calculating such amount Sponsor shall not include attorney's fees or title defects or determinations of any authority or regulatory association existing on the date of presentation of the Plan and are either known to the Sponsor or are a matter of public record.

Notwithstanding the fact that not all Purchasers used for purposes of declaring the Plan effective may close, Sponsor will re-declare the Plan effective if all purchase agreements are either rescinded or terminated prior to the date of First Closing, regardless of whether the condominium declaration has been recorded.

O. TERMS OF SALE

Preconditions for Closing

The terms "Closing of Title" or "Closing" refers to the conveyance of title to a Unit from Sponsor to Purchaser by the delivery to Purchaser of a deed upon payment by Purchaser to Sponsor of the balance of the Purchase Price for such Unit. The Closing to each Unit shall be held at the offices of Vallely Mitola Ryan PLLC, 6851 Jericho Turnpike, Suite 165, Syosset, New York 11791 or at such other place as Sponsor may designate on not less than two (2) business days' notice prior to the Closing. A date for the closing of title will be set by the Sponsor in accordance with the Purchase Agreement upon at least thirty (30) days' written notice to the Purchaser. Said notice will also include notice of the obligation to pay the balance of the purchase price. The Closing to each Unit shall take place only after or concurrently with the following events:

(a) the Plan has been declared effective in accordance with its terms and amendments to the Plan disclosing same has been accepted;

(b) the issuance of a temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy to the Unit or Building in which the Unit is located and any other necessary permits;

(c) the recording or filing of the Declaration, By-Laws, Floor Plans and engineer's and tax authority certifications required by Section 339-p of the New York Condominium Act or other applicable Law and such other documents as may be required by Law in the Offices of the City Register, Kings County;

(d) either (i) the release of the Unit and its appurtenant interest in the Common Elements from the lien of all mortgages, if any, or (ii) if the Purchaser is obtaining financing on such Unit, the assignment to the Purchasers mortgagee of any existing mortgage(s) encumbering such Unit and its appurtenant interest in the Common Elements;

(e) a bargain and sale Unit Deed with covenants against grantor's acts, substantially in the form set forth in Part II of the Plan, conveying title to the Unit and its appurtenant Common Interest, free and clear of all liens, encumbrances and other title exceptions other than those described in this Plan and the proposed Unit Deed;

(f) the delivery to Purchaser of written notice referenced above of the time and place of the Closing to the Unit at least thirty (30) days prior to the Closing Date specified therein, unless such notice if waived by Purchaser, including a reasonable opportunity, upon written request of Purchaser, for Purchaser to examine the Unit and the Property, during normal business hours and in the company of Selling Agent, prior to Closing;

(g) if Purchaser has requested title insurance, the issuance to Purchaser (at Purchaser's sole cost and expense) of a policy of title insurance in at least the amount of the purchase price of the Unit, insuring that (i) Purchaser has fee title to his or her Unit free and clear of all lien and encumbrances except for (1) Permitted Encumbrances and standard printed exceptions, (2) liens and encumbrances (other than Permitted Encumbrances) to which his or her Unit's title is subject, which has been expressly accepted by Purchaser, and (3) any mortgage and related security documents that Purchaser executed in connection with the financing of the Purchase Price of his or her Unit and (ii) the Condominium has been validly created pursuant to the Condominium Act.

At the closing of title to each Unit, each Purchaser shall execute and deliver:

(a) a Unit Owner's Power of Attorney substantially in the form of which is set forth in Part II of the Plan;

(b) a notice to the Condominium Board indicating whether a child under the age of eleven (11) will be living or residing (even temporarily) in the Unit or if the Purchaser wants to have window guards or legally compliant window stops installed on the windows of the Unit even though no child under the age of eleven (11) will be living in the Unit. In the event that window guards or legally compliant window stops are to be installed in the Unit, such installation shall be performed by the Purchaser and the cost thereof (for the window guards or legally compliant window stops) and installation and any additional equipment required by Law shall be charged to and paid by the Purchaser of the Unit;

(c) the transfer taxes set forth herein are generally a seller's obligation; however, such obligation is transferred to the purchaser, the New York City Real Property Transfer Tax Return and the New York State Transfer Tax Return (along with applicable payments) and such other forms as may be required or requested;

(d) If Purchaser obtains a mortgage loan, Purchaser will pay Sponsor a sum equal to the partial mortgage tax credit to which Purchaser may be entitled pursuant to Section 339-ee(2) of the Condominium Act, which sum will be paid as a reimbursement for the mortgage recording tax previously paid by Sponsor in connection with any existing mortgage(s);

(e) The delivery by Purchaser of evidence of insurance as set forth in the By-Laws and in the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners and the Condominium Board" subsection "Insurance."

Title to the Unit will be subject to the following:

(a) State of facts of the Property as shown on a survey to be made prior to the closing of title provided such facts would not render title unmarketable and any state of facts and accurate survey of the Unit would show provided such state of facts would not render title unmarketable.

(b) Any sewer, water, gas, electric, drainage, telephone, cable television or utility easements granted or to be granted hereafter.

(c) All of the terms, covenants and conditions of the Declaration, the By-Laws of the Condominium and the Building Plans, as they are subsequently filed or recorded, the Offering Plan and any amendment thereto.

(d) All easements set forth in the By-Laws and Declaration of the Condominium as they are subsequently recorded in the Offering Plan and Purchase Agreement; including:

(1) Easements in favor of the Owners of other Units to use the pipes, wires, conduits, cable television, and public utility lines located in the common elements or in the Unit itself servicing such other Units and/or the common elements;

(2) Easements in favor of the Condominium Board, its agents, contractors or employees to have a right of access to the Unit and to the common elements, to inspect, maintain or repair or to make repairs to the Unit to prevent damage to the common elements or any other Units, to make repairs to the common elements, to any wires, pipes, conduits or cable television system servicing any of the Units or to make repairs to any other Unit;

(3) Easements in favor of those Units having restricted use to portions of the common elements; and

(4) Easements for the continuance of encroachments on the Unit and on the common elements by other Units or portions of the common elements, now existing by reason of the construction of the Units, or hereafter occurring by reason of the settling or shifting of the Units, or by reason of the repair and/or restoration by the Condominium Board of the Units or such other Units or such common elements, after damage by fire or other casualty or after taking in condemnation or eminent domain proceedings, or by reason of any alteration to the common elements made by the Condominium Board, so that any such encroachments may remain as long as the Units stand.

(e) Any additional declarations, covenants, restrictions, reservations, exceptions, easements and agreements which have been recorded, or appear in recorded documents, or are yet to be recorded provided they do not prevent use of the Unit as a one (1) family residence.

The existence of mortgages, liens and encumbrances other than Permitted Encumbrances shall not be objections to title, provided bonds or properly executed instruments in form for recording necessary to satisfy or release Units from such impermissible liens or encumbrances or otherwise enable the Title Company to omit such title exceptions from Purchaser's title insurance policy are delivered at Closing and proper adjustments are made for the cost of recording or filing such instruments. Sponsor will bear the responsibility and cost of recording or filing such instruments. Sponsor has no obligation to institute any action or proceeding or to expend any sum of money to make title marketable or to eliminate any encumbrances or title defects.

In the event that there are title encumbrances (other than Permitted Encumbrances and mortgages) affecting the Property at the time of the First Closing, Sponsor shall cause such encumbrances to be cured, remedied and removed, at its sole cost and expense, by the First Closing or within a reasonable time thereafter, except that Sponsor shall have no obligation to cure, remedy, or remove any such encumbrances if the same cannot be accomplished at an aggregate cost of up to 0.5% of the total purchase price of the Units. The existence of any such encumbrances will not constitute an objection to title nor excuse any Purchaser from completing payment of the balance due under the Purchase Agreement (without provision for escrow), provided that Sponsor furnishes adequate proof to the Title Company that such encumbrance has been remedied or deposits a reasonable sum to secure Sponsor's obligation to cure and remedy such encumbrance subsequent to the First Closing as determined by the Title Company. At Sponsor's request, the sums so deposited shall be applied towards payment of the cost of curing or remedying the title defect.

The Purchaser shall inspect such Unit prior to the Closing Date and shall execute at such time an inspection statement acknowledging Purchaser's acceptance of the Unit in good condition and in accordance with the terms of the Plan, provided that if Purchaser finds that Sponsor's improvements have not been completed as described in the Plan then Sponsor and the Purchaser in question will agree to include on the inspection statement a list of incomplete work of a material nature to be completed in the Unit by Sponsor following the Closing Date, but all such obligations to complete work in the Unit shall cease once the work has been completed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor's obligations to perform work in any Unit shall not survive beyond one year after the Closing Date. Sponsor shall have no obligation to complete any work described herein which is not specifically designated by the Purchaser on the inspection statement. A Purchaser shall provide written notice that such Purchaser wishes to inspect the Unit pursuant to this paragraph at least ten (10) days prior to Closing and Sponsor shall respond prior to Closing. A Purchaser who fails to inspect such Unit prior to Closing shall be deemed to have accepted the Unit in good condition and in accordance with the terms of the Plan.

Before the First Closing, Sponsor's Construction Lender has agreed to subordinate its liens to the Declaration, will consent to the formation of the Condominium and acknowledge that its mortgage liens will be limited to Unsold Units. In addition, the Unit and each subsequent Unit being conveyed, and its appurtenant Common Interest will be released therefrom by partial release upon payment of the relevant payment as provided in the loan documents. Sponsor has no obligation to market the Units pursuant to the loan documents and there is no minimum number of or percentage of Units which must be under contract before this Plan can be declared effective pursuant to the loan documents. Sponsor's Construction Lender has set no limits or requirements for Sponsor to rent rather than sell Units after consummation of this Plan and there is no restriction by Sponsor's Lender as to the number of Units that must be in contract for the lien on a Unit to be released.

The Declaration, By-Laws and Floor Plans for the Condominium and such other documents, as required by law, will be recorded or filed in the Office of the City Register, Kings County, as the same may be amended from time to time, prior to the first conveyance of title to a unit in accordance with the New York Condominium Act or applicable State and local law.

From and after the Closing of Title to a Unit, a Purchaser will thereupon become obligated for the payment of Common Charges, Special Assessments, taxes and other charges against the Unit to the Condominium or the City of New York, as the case may be, and all other expenses (whether or not such Purchaser has taken possession of the Unit, whether or not all work required to be performed by Sponsor or anyone else in or to the Unit or the Building has been completed and whether or not the tenant in possession, if there be one, pays the rent required to be paid by such tenant).

Purchase Agreement Subject to Lien of Mortgage

Purchaser agrees that the provisions of a Purchase Agreement are and shall continue to be subject and subordinate to Construction Lender's lien on the Property. The existence of Construction Lender's lien encumbering the Property, or portions thereof, other than the Unit and its undivided interest in the Common Elements, shall not constitute an objection to title or excuse Purchaser from completing payment of the Purchase Price or performing all of Purchaser's other obligations hereunder to the basis of any claim against, or liability of, Sponsor provided that such mortgage is subordinated to the Declaration, or the Unit is released from, or not subject to the lien of such mortgage at Closing.

Purchase Agreement Subject to Plan Being Effective

The performance by Sponsor of its obligations under the Purchase Agreement is contingent upon the Plan having been declared effective in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Plan (as the same may be amended from time to time). The Plan may be withdrawn or abandoned by Sponsor only under certain conditions and at certain times, as set forth in the Plan. If the Plan is abandoned or does not become effective, or after being declared effective, the Plan is not consummated for any reason and Purchaser is not in default under the Purchase Agreement beyond any applicable grace and cure period, the Purchase Agreement shall be deemed cancelled and the Deposit, together with interest, if any, earned thereon, shall be returned to Purchaser within five (5) days after the amendment abandoning the Plan has been accepted for filing. Upon such return, neither party shall have any further rights, obligations or liability to or against the other and the parties shall be released and discharged from all obligations and liability under the Purchase Agreement and the Plan.

Mortgage Tax Credit

In the event a mortgage recording tax credit becomes available pursuant to Section 339-ee(2) of the New York Condominium Act, it is specifically understood that such credit shall endure to the benefit of Sponsor. Accordingly, at Closing, a Purchaser who elects mortgage financing will be responsible to pay the full amount (but not in excess thereof) of the mortgage recording tax chargeable on the entire amount being financed. At the Closing of Title, Sponsor will be reimbursed by Purchaser to the extent of any mortgage tax credit allowed.

Sponsor's Inability to Convey Unit

In the event Sponsor is unable to deliver title to the Unit to Purchaser in accordance with the provisions of the Purchase Agreement and the Plan by reason of a defect in title, substantial damage or destruction of the Building by fire or other casualty, or the taking of any material portion of the Property by condemnation or eminent domain, Sponsor shall not be obligated to bring any action or proceeding or otherwise incur any cost or expense of any nature whatsoever in excess of its obligations set forth in the Plan in order to cure such inability. If Sponsor is not so obligated under the Plan and notifies Purchaser of its election or inability to cure such title defect, and Purchaser is not in default hereunder, Purchaser's sole remedy shall be to either (a) take title to the Unit subject to such title defect (without any abatement in or credit against the Purchase Price, or any claim or right of action against Sponsor for damages or otherwise) or (b) terminate the Purchase Agreement. If Purchaser so elects to terminate the Purchase Agreement, Sponsor shall, within thirty (30) days after receipt of notice of termination from Purchaser, return the Deposit to Purchaser, together with interest, if any, earned thereon. Upon making such payment, the Purchase Agreement shall be terminated and neither party hereto shall have any further rights, obligations or liability to or against the other under the Purchase Agreement or Plan. The foregoing remedy must be exercised by written notice sent by Purchaser to Sponsor within fifteen (15) days after the giving of Sponsor's notice of election not to cure such inability, failing which it shall be conclusively deemed that Purchaser elected the first remedy described in clause (a) above (i.e., to acquire title subject to such inability).

Fixtures, Appliances and Personal Property

At Closing, the Unit will contain only those fixtures, appliances, equipment, countertops, sinks, cabinets, hardware and items of personal property that are described in the Plan as being included in the Unit, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances except the lien of the mortgage applied for by Purchasers herein. No portion of the Purchase Price shall be attributable to such items. Any decorative fixtures, furniture, furnishings, wall coverings, decorations, mirrors, shelves, wall and window treatments, built-ins, electric fixtures and the like, in or about any model unit are for display purposes only and are not included in this sale. Any floor plans or sketches shown to Purchaser or included in the Plan are for approximations of the Unit's dimensions and layout, and Purchaser should not rely thereon.

Tax-Deferred Exchanges

Sponsor makes no representation or warranty as to whether a Unit will qualify as part of a tax-deferred exchange and Purchasers should rely on their own tax attorney or accountant for that determination. However, the form of Purchase Agreement (Exhibit 2 in Part II of the Plan) provides that in the event a Unit is being acquired by a Purchaser as part of a tax-deferred exchange under §1031 of the Internal Revenue Code, Sponsor shall reasonably assist and cooperate in such tax-deferred exchange, provided, however, that: (i) any action taken in connection with such tax-deferred exchange or requested of Sponsor shall not result in any cost, expense or liability on the part of Sponsor or increased risk to Sponsor relating to the transaction (and, among other things, Purchasers acknowledges that a fee may be payable to Sponsor's Attorney in connection with the review of any documentation related to such tax-deferred exchange); (ii) no action or failure on the part of Purchaser (or any other party to such tax-deferred exchange) or cooperation on the part of Sponsor in connection with or related to the tax-deferred exchange will frustrate the purpose of the Purchase Agreement or otherwise result in a reduction of Sponsor's rights, remedies and privileges under the Purchase Agreement or increase any of Sponsor's obligations or dues under the Purchase Agreement or other; and (iii) Sponsor shall not be obligated, as part of such tax-deferred exchange, to convey any property (other than the applicable Unit), acquire any property, or accept any form of payment in respect of any of the amounts due under the Purchase Agreement other than as set forth therein or in the Plan. Purchaser shall indemnify, defend and hold Sponsor harmless from and against any and all costs, expenses, fees (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) or liabilities incurred by Sponsor in connection with or resulting from the tax-deferred exchange, and such indemnity shall survive the closing of title to the Unit. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor makes no representation and expresses no opinion with respect to the applicability of §1031 of the Internal Revenue Code to the purchase or acquisition of any Unit.

Geographic Targeting Order

On November 15, 2018, the U.S. Financial Crimes Enforcement Network ("FinCen") issued an updated order (superseding the order issued on January 13, 2016 as later supplemented on July 22, 2016, February 21, 2017 and August 22, 2017; as superseded and supplemented, the "Order") requiring title companies to collect and report certain information about persons involved in residential real estate transactions in the Boroughs of Bronx, Brooklyn, Queens, Manhattan and Staten Island for closings occurring until the expiration of the effective period for such Order.

Pursuant to the Order, title companies are required to disclose the identities of the beneficial owner(s) or holder(s) of twenty five percent (25%) or more of the direct or indirect equity or beneficial interests in a purchasing entity in residential real estate transactions where (a) Purchaser is a legal entity as defined in the Order; (b) the total Purchase Price is Three Hundred Thousand Dollars ($300,000.00) or more; (c) Purchaser does not obtain a bank loan or other similar form of external financing; (d) the purchase is made, at least in part, using currency or a cashier's check, a certified check, a traveler's check, a personal check, a business check, a money order in any form, a funds transfer, or virtual currency.

Purchasers and their attorneys should confer with the purchaser's title company immediately to determine the applicability of these new requirements to this transaction, and to the extent the same are applicable, make arrangements with the title company to provide it in advance of closing with any necessary information in order to permit the title company to insure title and comply with the title company's closing and reporting requirements under the Order. Sponsor shall have no obligation whatsoever in connection with satisfying any requirements of purchaser's title insurer or otherwise with respect to the FinCEN Order; and Purchaser will be fully liable for any additional costs or delays to Closing relating thereto.

For as long as the Order remains in effect, its reporting requirements apply to all residential real property closings meeting the above criteria and occurring on or after November 17, 2018 (the revised Order's effective date)

As of the date of filing of this Offering Plan, "legal entity" is defined in the Order means as a corporation, limited liability company, partnership or other similar business entity, whether formed under the laws of a state, or of the United States, or a foreign jurisdiction.

Risk of Loss

All risk of loss or damage prior to Closing is assumed by Sponsor, but Sponsor shall have no obligation or liability to repair the same. If Sponsor or (in the event the Declaration is filed) the Condominium Board does not elect to repair the damage, the Purchase Agreement will be canceled and be of no further force or effect, unless the Purchaser agrees to accept such Unit without such repair (in which case Purchaser shall not receive a credit toward, or an abatement in, the Purchase Price). Thereafter, the Deposit will be refunded to Purchaser unless Purchaser is then in default (beyond the applicable grace period, if any), in which event the Deposit will be retained by Sponsor as and for liquidated damages. If Sponsor elects to repair the damage, the Purchase Agreement shall continue in full force and effect, the Purchaser shall not have the right to reject title to the Unit or to receive a credit against, or abatement in, the Purchase Price, and Sponsor shall be entitled to a reasonable period of time to complete such repair. A Purchaser electing to proceed with the purchase of a Unit (rather than rescind such Purchase Agreement within fifteen (15) days of notice) will not be entitled to any credit against, or abatement of, the Purchase Price set forth in the Purchase Agreement and will have no claim or right of action against Sponsor by reason thereof.

P. UNIT CLOSING COSTS AND ADJUSTMENTS

Closing Costs

As more particularly set forth in the Purchase Agreement, in addition to Purchaser's own legal fees, Purchaser will pay the following estimated closing costs and expenses at the time of the Closing of Title. Recording charges, fees, title costs and taxes set forth below pertain to Units only and are based on rates in effect on the date of the Plan and are subject to change without notice.

The estimated closing costs and expenses to be paid by each Purchaser are as follows:

1) Fee title insurance is available from GlobalServe Title Agency, at standard rates charged in the State of New York.

If Purchaser elects to obtain mortgage title insurance simultaneously with a policy for fee title insurance, the premium for the mortgage policy will be at a "simultaneous rate." The simultaneous fee rate is based on the full rate of the fee title insurance and a reduced rate of thirty (30%) of the mortgage premium.

If Purchaser elects to obtain fee title insurance, Purchaser will pay the premium therefor, which will vary depending upon the amount requested. PURCHASERS ARE FREE TO USE A TITLE COMPANY OF THEIR CHOICE WITHOUT ANY PENALTY. GlobalServe Title Agency, as an agent for First American Title Insurance Agency, having an office at 1981 Marcus Avenue, Suite C114, Lake Success, New York 11042 (telephone: (516) 327-4500, facsimile: 516-706-1084) ("Title Company"), has (i) reviewed the Plan and the Condominium Documents and has issued a letter to Sponsor that it is committed to insure that a valid Condominium will be created pursuant to the Condominium Act, (ii) issued the Specimen Title Policy set forth in Part II of the Plan, and (iii) provided Sponsor with the standard fee policy rates as set forth below. Sponsor makes no representation regarding insurance available from insurers other than GlobalServe Title Agency.

2) Fees for the recordation of the Deed, Unit Owner's Power of Attorney and any 339-ee Affidavit which are each approximately Four Hundred and 00/100 Dollars (400.00) per document.

3) In the event the Purchaser shall obtain a purchase money first mortgage, the Purchaser shall pay recording fees for the mortgage of approximately Two Hundred and 00/100 Dollars ($200.00) and a mortgage tax of 2.05% of the full amount of the mortgage requested by the Purchaser, if less than Five Hundred Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($500,000.00) and 2.175% if Five Hundred Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($500,000.00) or greater, and lending institution's attorney's fees. In addition, the Purchaser will be required to pay any mortgage origination fees, bank credit and appraisal fees and other expenses that the lending institution may charge incident to the making of the first mortgage. A portion of the mortgage recording tax set forth above will be computed in accordance with Section 339-ee subsection 2, of the New York State Condominium Act, and shall be paid to the Sponsor in reimbursement of mortgage recording taxes which the Sponsor will have previously paid in connection with the existing mortgage on the Condominium. There will be no mortgage closing costs pursuant to this Section three on Units which are not covered by mortgages.

4) New York State Transfer Tax of .04% of the Purchase Price for sales below Three Million and 00/100 Dollars ($3,000,000.00) and 0.65% if the Purchase Price is Three Million and 00/100 Dollars ($3,000,000.00) or more which is a seller's statutory obligation, however, such obligation shall be transferred to the Purchaser. The burden of paying such charges may be modified by contract, as it is in the Purchase Agreement and in many other purchase agreements for condominium units in New York City.

New York State Tax Law Section 1404(a). The Transfer Tax section has been amended effective as of July 1, 2021. Under the revised law, if the conveyance is of residential real property and the grantee pays the NYS transfer tax, the NYS transfer tax is no longer included as a part of the taxable consideration, and the ultimate NYS transfer tax to be paid by the grantee is no longer "grossed up."

The requirement to "gross up" the taxable consideration has now been eliminated when calculating New York State Real Estate Transfer Tax (RETT) and Mansion Taxes on the conveyancing of a one- to three-family residential dwelling, an individual residential condominium and an individual residential cooperative unit, or interests therein, when the contract of sale places the burden of such transfer tax upon the grantee.

Additionally, Amended Tax Law Section 1404(a) now provides the grantee "a cause of action against the grantor for recovery of payment of such tax, interest and penalties" in the event the grantor fails to pay said RETT.

5) New York City Real Property Transfer Tax of 1% of the Purchase Price for sales up to Five Hundred Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($500,000.00) and 1.425% if the Purchase Price is above Five Hundred Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($500,000.00), which are a seller's statutory obligation, however, such obligation shall be transferred to the Purchase. The burden of paying such charges may be modified by contract, as it is in the Purchase Agreement and in many other purchaser agreements for condominium units in New York City. For purposes of calculating the amount of New York City Real Property Transfer Tax payable, the amount of such taxes paid by Purchaser will be included in the consideration subject to such tax.

6) If the Purchase Price of the Unit is at least One Million and 00/100 Dollars ($1,000,000.00) but less than Two Million and 00/100 Dollars ($2,000,000.00), Purchaser shall also be obligated to pay the New York State Additional Tax pursuant to Article 31 of the Tax Law (commonly referred to as the "Mansion Tax") which is currently one percent (1%) of the Purchase Price, which by law is the primary obligation of the Purchaser.

7) A non-refundable contribution to the Working Capital Fund of the Condominium in an amount equal to two (2) months' Common Charges in effect at the time of such Closing assessed against the Unit.

8) Each Purchaser shall be obligated to pay (a) Three Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($3,000.00) to the law firm of Vallely Mitola Ryan PLLC, Sponsor's attorney, to defray legal fees incurred in connection with the Closing; (b) if the Purchaser obtains financing and the lender is unwilling to close at the offices of Sponsor's attorney, the Closing may be held elsewhere in the County of New York, provided that an additional travel fee is paid to Sponsor attorney in the sum of Seven Hundred Fifty and 00/100 Dollars ($750.00); if the Closing takes place in a County other than New York the sum of One Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($1,000.00); (c) if the Closing is adjourned through no fault of Sponsor, the Purchaser shall be required to pay to Sponsor's attorney an additional fee of Seven Hundred Fifty and 00/100 Dollars ($750.00) to help defray the cost of preparing for and coordinating the new Closing; and (d) if Sponsor sent a notice of default to Purchaser, a fee of One Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($1,000.00) to Sponsor's attorney.

9) Purchaser shall pay Two Hundred and 00/100 Dollars ($200.00) to Sponsor or Sponsor's Attorney as reimbursement of the cost of preparing the New York City "ACRIS" transfer documents.

10) Purchaser shall pay its pro-rata share of the total insurance premium for the Condominium's first year of operation to Sponsor based upon the Unit's percentage of common interest.

11) If Purchaser obtains a mortgage loan, Purchaser will pay Sponsor a sum equal to the partial mortgage tax credit to which Purchaser may be entitled pursuant to Section 336-ee(2) of the Condominium Act, which sum will be paid as a reimbursement for the mortgage recording tax previously paid by Sponsor in connection with any existing mortgage(s).

12) If Purchaser is a Foreign Government Purchaser, Purchaser will be required to deposit with the Condominium an amount equal to two (2) years Common Charges.

13) Purchaser shall pay its pro-rata share of the total insurance premium for the Condominium's first year of operation to Sponsor based upon the Unit's percentage of common interest.

Example of Typical Closing Costs:

The following schedule illustrates the projected amounts of the costs set forth in this section Seven of the Offering Plan for a Unit purchased by a Purchaser in the amount of One Million Seven Hundred and Eighty Thousand Dollars ($1,780,000.00) and a mortgage in the amount of One Million Four Hundred and Twenty-Four Thousand Dollars ($1,424,000.00) (which represents eighty percent (80%) of the Purchase Price). The Purchase Agreement is not contingent on Purchaser obtaining financing for the Purchase of the Unit. All tax rates, title insurance premiums and recording rates are subject to change:

ITEM	COST
Fee Title Insurance Premium for $1,780,000.00 of owner's insurance	$ 6,996.00
Mortgage Insurance Premium for $1,424,000 of lender's insurance	$ 1,442.00

New York State Transfer Tax	$ 7,120.00
Mansion Tax	$ 17,800.00
Estimated Lender's Title Endorsements	$ 200.00

TOTAL ESTIMATED CLOSING COSTS	$ 94,271.54

At Closing, adjustments will be made between Sponsor and Purchaser with respect to (a) real estate taxes and assessments, if any (including water charges and sewer charges if separately assessed) on the basis of the period for which assessed, (b) Common Charges for the month in which title closes, and (c) accrued rent and any other charges pursuant to any interim lease or occupancy or other rental agreement, if any, affecting the Unit, if Purchaser was allowed to lease, occupy or rent such Unit prior to Closing.

If real estate taxes have been separately assessed to each Unit as of the Closing, then the adjustment shall be based on the Unit's actual taxes for such period. If the real estate taxes have not been separately assessed against each Unit as of the closing date, then the adjustment shall be determined by allocating to the Unit a prorated portion of the actual taxes for the entire Property for such period. Further, Sponsor shall place in escrow in the name of the Condominium Board, an amount equal to the unpaid real estate taxes, which will be levied against the parcel for a six-month period following the first closing. The amount deposited by Sponsor into escrow allocable to a unit will be an adjustment between the Sponsor and Purchaser on the closing date of the Unit. The Condominium Board will pay the real estate taxes when due and the funder of the escrow account will be entitled to reimbursement from Unit Owners to the extent of the actual assessment. The initial post-closing amendment will disclose the Tax Security delivered into escrow as of the First Closing.

Sponsor shall deliver to Purchaser notice of the closing date by giving at least thirty (30) days' written notice ("Notice for Closing").

If through no fault of Sponsor, Purchaser fails for any reason to Close Title within seven days after the date originally scheduled in Sponsor's Notice of Closing or such later date (if applicable) to which Sponsor in a subsequent Notice for Closing adjourned the Closing, all of the aforementioned apportionments shall be made as of midnight of the day preceding (i) the date originally scheduled for Closing or (ii) Sponsor's adjourned Closing Date (as the case may be). In addition, Purchaser shall pay to Sponsor at or prior to the actual Closing an amount equal to 0.04% of the Purchase Price for the Unit for each day beyond such originally scheduled or Sponsor adjourned Closing date to and including the date of actual Closing, for reimbursement and defrayal of Sponsor's carrying costs.

Q. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF SPONSOR

No bond or security has been furnished to secure performance of the following obligations. All obligations pertaining to the Common Elements shall be enforceable only by the Condominium Board on behalf of the Unit Owners and not by any individual Unit Owner. If there are non-Sponsor members of the Condominium Board, and there is a vote on whether to sue the Sponsor, the Sponsor's representatives on the Condominium Board cannot lawfully vote on that issue (see Park River Owners Corp. v. Bangser Klein Rocca & Blum, 269 A.D.2d 313, 703 N.Y.S.2d 465 (1st Dept. 2000); McKinney's Consolidated Laws of the State of New York, General Business Law, Volume 19, pocket part, page 193; and BCL § 713(a)(1). Also of interest is Board of Managers of Fairways at North Hills v. Fairways at North Hills, 193 A.D.2d 322, 603 N.Y.S.2d 867 (2d Dept. 1993), discussed in McKinney's Consolidated Laws of the State of New York, General Business Law, Volume 19, page 160). Sponsor is obligated to perform the following:

1. After consummation of this Plan, Sponsor will endeavor in good faith to market and sell the Units in the Condominium. Because Sponsor is retaining the unlimited right to rent rather than sell Units this Plan may not result in the creation of a Condominium in which a majority of the Units are owned by owner-occupants or investors unrelated to the Sponsor. However, Sponsor retains the unlimited right to rent rather than sell Units. Due to the fact that Sponsor is not limiting the conditions under which it will rent rather than sell Units, there is no commitment to sell more Units than one (1) Unit. One (1) Unit represents twenty-five percent (25%) of the Units being offered under this Plan. The sale of a minimum of at least fifteen percent (15%) of the Units being offered under this Plan is necessary to declare this Plan effective and owner-occupants may never gain effective control of the Condominium.

2. The Sponsor has no obligation to defend any suits or to indemnify the Condominium Board or Unit Owners arising out of any act or occurrence occurring prior to the recording of the Declaration of Condominium except claims arising out of the acts, omissions or representations of the Sponsor.

3. All representations under the Plan, all obligations pursuant to the General Business Law and such additional obligations under the Plan that are to be performed subsequent to the Closing Date will survive delivery of the deed.

4. The Sponsor is obligated to repair any damage from any casualty or other cause that occurs before the closing of a Purchaser's Unit.

5. Until title to a Unit has passed to a Purchaser, the Sponsor will pay such Common Charges, special assessments and real estate taxes, as are assessed by the Condominium Board with respect to Unsold Units. Once title is passed to a Purchaser, the Purchaser shall be solely responsible for all common charges, special assessments, real estate taxes and other costs applicable to the Unit, as are assessed by the Condominium Board. No bond or other security has been posted to secure such obligations. Sponsor will fund its financial obligations to the Condominium from the income derived from the sale of Units and Sponsor's assets. Sponsor presently has the resources to fund such obligations.

6. Sponsor shall initially procure on behalf of the Condominium fire and casualty insurance, the cost of such insurance on the terms set forth in the Budget of the First Year of Operation located on Schedule B. In the event there are insufficient funds in the Condominium to pay for such insurance, Sponsor may lend the Condominium such funds and will be repaid out of subsequent common charges collected.

7. In the event of the dissolution or liquidation of the Sponsor or the transfer of two (2) or more Units or twenty percent (20%) or more of the total number of Units in the Condominium, the principals of Sponsor will provide financially responsible entities or individuals who will assume the status and all of the obligations of the Sponsor for those Units under the Offering Plan, applicable laws or regulations.

8. The Sponsor has secured construction financing from USC 311 Eastern LLC, having an office at 233 Broadway, Suite 1470, New York, New York (the "Construction Lender") to construct the Building. Sponsor will pay, satisfy and otherwise comply with the terms of the loan documents. Before the First Closing, the Construction Lender has agreed to subordinate its liens to the Declaration, will consent to the formation of the Condominium and acknowledge that its mortgage liens will be limited to Unsold Units. In addition, the Unit and each subsequent Unit being conveyed, and its appurtenant Common Interest will be released therefrom by partial release upon payment of the relevant payment as provided in the loan documents. Sponsor has no obligation to market the Units pursuant to the loan documents and there is no minimum number of or percentage of Units which must be under contract before this Plan can be declared effective pursuant to the loan documents. The Construction Lender has set no limits or requirements for Sponsor to rent rather than sell Units.

9. Sponsor will diligently, expeditiously and at its own cost, complete construction of the Building in accordance with the plans and specifications described herein and will diligently perform all of its obligations set forth in this Plan and will deliver to the Board a copy of the "as-built" plans filed with the recording of the Declaration or any amendment thereto and in addition will provide the Board with a full set of building plans filled with the local municipality together with any "field changes" made during the course of construction. Although the Sponsor intends to use the material, appliances, fixtures and equipment described herein and in the building plans, the Sponsor reserves the right to substitute materials, appliances, fixtures and equipment for any of those set forth so long as such substitution is of comparable or better quality as recognized by industry standards for performance, efficiency, longevity and/or classifications, as applicable. Sponsor reserves the right to make any changes in the proposed Condominium Documents and modifications to the plans and specifications as may be necessary in Sponsor's sole discretion to conform to Law or to expedite the sale of the Units, or due to structural, architectural or mechanical considerations provided, however, no change will be made in the size or number of Units and/or their respective percentages of Common Interest, and no material change will be made in the size or quality of Common Elements, except by amendment to the Plan and, when applicable, to the Declaration. Unless an affected Purchaser consents, no material change will be made in Unit size, layout, or percentage of Common Interest if a Purchase Agreement has been executed and delivered to the Sponsor for that Unit and the Purchaser is not in default. Unless all Purchasers consent, no material change will be made in the size and no material adverse change will be made in the quality of Common Elements.

10. Sponsor's obligation is to construct the premises in accordance with all applicable codes and filed plans and specifications, regardless of any limitations in the warranty or anywhere in this Offering Plan. If there is any conflict between any disclaimers and the Sponsor's obligation to construct the Premises in accordance with all applicable codes and filed plans/specifications shall be resolved in favor of the filed plans/specifications.

11. Purchasers are advised that in New York City, newly constructed and newly renovated buildings are sometimes offered as Condominium projects without a final certificate of occupancy ("FCO") covering the entire building but with only a temporary certificate of occupancy ("TCO"), and sometimes with several successive temporary certificates of occupancy. Certificates of occupancy are generally governed by Section 301 of the New York Multiple Dwelling Law and local building codes and rules. Both TCO's and FCO's are issued by the New York City Department of Buildings ("DOB"). A TCO is intended to indicate that the property "Conforms Substantially to the DOB approved plans and specifications, and to the requirements of all applicable laws, rules and regulations for the uses and occupancies specified in the TCO. No change of use or occupancy shall be made unless a new certificate of occupancy is issued." All TCO's have an expiration date. A TCO typically expires ninety (90) days after the date of issuance. When a TCO expires and it is not renewed, it may be difficult or impossible to buy insurance, refinance or sell units. In New York City, it is common for sponsors to commence unit closings when some or all units are covered by a TCO rather than an FCO. Sponsor anticipates this scenario may occur. Sponsor and its principals will undertake the responsibility for extending each TCO received prior to expiration thereof and ultimately for obtaining an FCO covering the entire building within two years from the date of the issuance of the last TCO. However, Sponsor and its principals make no representation or guarantee that the DOB will issue the FCO within such two-year period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor and its principals are obligated to procure the final certificate of occupancy for the entire Building and shall exercise best efforts to obtain the FCO within such two-year period while keeping the TCO current. Unit Owners and the Board shall be obligated to cooperate with and refrain from obstructing Sponsor in these undertakings.

12. If the First Closing takes place prior to the issuance of an FCO for the Property, Sponsor shall maintain all deposits and funds in any special escrow account required by General Business Law, section 352-e(2-b) ("Special Escrow Account") unless the Sponsor's engineer, architect or other qualified expert certifies that a lesser amount will be reasonably necessary to complete the work needed to obtain an FCO, in which case the sum exceeding the amount so certified by the Sponsor's engineer, architect or other qualified expert may be released from any Special Escrow Account. Alternatively, Sponsor shall deposit with the Escrow Agent an unconditional, irrevocable letter of credit, post a surety bond in the amount so certified, or provide other collateral acceptable to the Department of Law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Plan is subject to the provisions of GBL, Section 352-ee, Sponsor is required to maintain all deposits and funds in any special escrow account required by GBL, Section 352-e(2-b) unless Sponsor's engineer or architect certifies that a lesser amount will be reasonably necessary to complete all alterations and improvements to the public portions and Common Elements of the Building. In such case the sum exceeding the amount so certified by Sponsor's engineer or architect may be released from any special escrow account. Alternatively, Sponsor must deposit with an escrow agent an unconditional, irrevocable letter of credit, post a surety bond in the amount so certified, or provide other collateral acceptable to the Department of Law.

13. Sponsor will bear all costs and expenses to be incurred in connection with the creation of the Condominium and the preparation, filing and distribution of this Plan. Sponsor will pay all contractors, subcontractors, materialmen and all others involved in the construction of the Building for work performed and fixtures, material and equipment supplied or installed in the construction of the Building and will cause all mechanics' liens arising out of the construction of the Building or the furnishing or installation of fixtures or equipment, to be promptly discharged or bonded promptly after the liens are filed.

14. Sponsor will pay all selling expenses, including but not limited to, advertising, and printing costs, architects' fees, and costs of filing this Plan and any amendments thereto and brokerage commissions of Selling Agent or other broker engaged by Sponsor.

15. SPONSOR REPRESENTS THAT IT HAS SUFFICIENT FINANCIAL RESOURCES TO COMPLETE CONSTRUCTION AND TO MEET ITS OBLIGATIONS WITH RESPECT TO UNSOLD UNITS AND WILL NOT REQUIRE ADDITIONAL FINANCING OR THE SALE OF ANY OF THE UNITS TO PAY FOR SAME. SPONSOR WILL FUND ITS OBLIGATIONS TO THE CONDOMINIUM FOR UNSOLD UNITS FROM ITS PRINCIPALS' MONETARY CONTRIBUTIONS TO SPONSOR AND FROM PROCEEDS OF THE LOAN GIVEN TO IT BY LENDER. AS PROVIDED IN THE BY-LAWS, NO BOND WILL BE POSTED BY SPONSOR TO INSURE COMPLETION. IF THE SPONSOR IS MORE THAN THIRTY (30) DAYS IN ARREARS ON COMMON CHARGES FOR ANY UNSOLD UNIT DURING THE TIME THAT THE SPONSOR IS IN CONTROL OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS, SPONSOR WILL CAUSE THE BOARD OF MANAGERS TO FILE A LIEN AS PROVIDED FOR IN SECTION 339-AA OF THE REAL PROPERTY LAW.

16. The Sponsor reserves the easements, licenses, rights and privileges of a right-of-way in, through, over, under and across the common elements of the Condominium for the purpose of completing construction and the sale of Units and facilities in the Condominium and towards this end, reserves, the right to grant and reserve easements and rights-of-way in, through, under, over and across the common elements for the installation, maintenance and inspection of lines and appurtenances for public or private water, sewer, drainage, cable television, and other utilities and for any other materials or services necessary for the completion of the work. Sponsor also reserves the right to connect with and make use of the utility lines, wires, pipes, conduits, cable television, sewers and drainage lines which may from time to time be in or along the streets and roads or other areas in the common elements. Sponsor will be obligated to pay for the cost of any utilities it uses as a result of its use of the easements, licenses, rights and privileges of right-of-way. Finally, the Sponsor reserves the right to continue to use the common elements and any facilities, model Units and any signs located on the common elements, in its efforts to market Units constructed in the Condominium. Sponsor will be obligated to repair any damages to the common elements and Units caused as a result of its use of the easements, licensed, rights and privileges of a right-of-way to complete the Condominium.

17. In accordance with Section 339-p of the Real Property Law, a registered architect or licensed professional shall certify within reasonable tolerances that the Floor Plans filed with the recording of the declaration are an accurate copy of the portion Building as filed with the appropriate governmental authorities having jurisdiction over the issuance of permits for the construction of the Building.

18. Sponsor is reserving the right to delay the collection of Common Charges until such time into the future. During any such period of delay, the Sponsor will timely pay all expenses of the Condominium, including, but not limited to, insurance premiums. Such expenses shall not include individual unit owner expenses such as real estate taxes, utility charge etc. Upon commencement of collection of Common Charges, there will not be an assessment for any item in the approved budget for the Condominium. Regardless of the delay in collection of Common Charges, Sponsor shall remain obligated to update the budget for the Condominium as required by the Department of Law governing regulations. In the event Sponsor elects to delay the collection of Common Charges, Sponsor shall disclose such fact in the closing notice or statement to Purchasers. Thereafter, Sponsor shall also disclose such fact in the post-closing amendment to the Plan as a benefit to subsequent purchasers. Such amendment shall also disclose the anticipated period of delay. Prior to commencing the collection of Common Charges, Sponsor will notify all Unit Owners of the expiration of the delay period by written notice. Notice shall be given to Unit Owners in writing at least thirty (30) days prior the commencement of collection of Common Charges. Thereafter Sponsor will disclose such fact in the next substantive amendment to the Plan as a benefit to subsequent purchaser.

R. CONTROL BY THE SPONSOR

The Sponsor as the Owner of Unsold Units shall have absolute voting control of the Condominium Board until the expiration of the Initial Control Period which continues until the earlier to occur of (i) the transfer of title to Units, the percentage Common Interest of which, in the aggregate, equals at least ninety-five percent (95%) or (ii) five (5) years after the First Closing. During the Initial Control Period, the Sponsor will have control of maintenance, facilities and services to be provided, as well as determining the Common Charges to be paid by Unit Owners. The Condominium Board shall consist of three (3) persons designated by the Sponsor. The Sponsor will cause the Condominium to hold a meeting of Unit Owners within thirty (30) days after the expiration of the Initial Control Period to elect new Board members unaffiliated with the Sponsor, except as set forth herein.

So long as the Sponsor shall continue to own at least one (1) Unit, the Sponsor shall have the right to designate one (1) member of the Condominium Board. While the Sponsor owns a Unit, the Sponsor will have the right to, and intends to, vote the percentage of Common Interest allocated to all of its Units for all seats on the Board. However, after the Initial Control Period has expired, not more than one less than a majority of the members of the Board will be affiliated with the Sponsor. The balance of the Board will then be elected by all of the Unit Owners of the Condominium, including the Sponsor.

Until such time as thirty (30) days after the date when Units representing ninety-five percent (95%) of the Common Interest in the Condominium have been transferred from the Sponsor to a Purchaser, or five (5) years from the First Closing (whichever is sooner), the Condominium Board may not, without the Sponsor's prior written consent: (a) make any addition, alteration or improvement to the Common Elements or to any Unit, or (b) assess any Common Charges, including Common Charges for the creation of, addition to or replacement of all or part of a working capital, reserve, Reserve Contribution or surplus fund, except to the extent that the aggregate fund does not exceed five percent (5%) of the budgeted expenses of the Property or (c) increase or decrease the number, or change the kind of, employees referred to in the Plan, or (d) enter into any service or maintenance contract for work not covered by contracts in existence on the date of the First Closing or otherwise provide services in excess of those referred to in the Plan, except as required to reflect normal annual increases in operation services, or (e) borrower money on behalf of the Condominium, or (f) exercise a right of first refusal to lease or purchase a Unit; provided, however, that Sponsor's written consent is not necessary to perform any function or take any action described in clauses (a) through (f) above, if, and only if, the performance of such function or the carrying out of such an action is necessary (and no other alternative is available) to enable the Condominium Board to (i) comply with laws, rules or regulations of any governmental authority having jurisdiction over the Condominium, or (ii) remedy any notice of violation or (iii) to remedy any work order of an insurer or (iv) to ensure the health and safety of the occupants of the Building.

As long as the Sponsor shall continue to own a Unit, the Condominium Board may not, without the Sponsor's or Sponsor-designee's prior written consent: (i) amend the Declaration or the By-Laws so as to in any way adversely affect the Sponsor or its designee; or (ii) interfere with the offer and sale or leasing of Units, operation of general or sales and leasing offices at the Property or any actions necessary for construction, renovation, repair or correction at the Property required by Sponsor. The Sponsor or Sponsor-designee shall have the right to withhold its consent to any of the foregoing actions. However, notwithstanding the foregoing restrictions, the Sponsor or Sponsor-designee shall not (i) limit its financial obligations to the budget in so far as every Unit owner, including the Sponsor, is obligated to pay their portion of the budget, or (ii) have the right to veto expenses detailed in Schedule B, or expenditures for the making of capital repairs to the Common Elements, or expenditures in connection with any repair or replacement necessary for the preservation or safety of the Condominium or the health or safety of its residents, or assessment of any Common Charge for expenses required to remedy any notice of violation, comply with applicable law, or cure a work order of an insurance carrier. Any provisions that give the Sponsor control of the enforcement of the Sponsor's obligations are not lawful. In addition, if there are non-Sponsor members of the board, and there is a vote on whether to sue the Sponsor, the Sponsor's board representatives cannot lawfully vote on that issue.

All determinations with respect to the continuance or discontinuance of any of the services in the Building, if initially made available, will be made by the Condominium Board, which will be controlled by Sponsor until the expiration of the Initial Control Period. Please refer to the Description for the Property set forth in its entirety in Part II of the Plan for further details regarding service and facilities at the Property. Neither Sponsor nor the Condominium Board will in any event be liable for the availability, interruption, discontinuance or quality of any services in the Building, including, but not limited to any services provided by any outside company or person, or for any injury to person or damage to property resulting from any act or omission of such company or person or their employees or agents, except to the extent that any such injury to person or damage to property occurs as a result of the negligence of Sponsor, the managing agent or the Condominium Board, as the case may be.

S. CONDOMINIUM BOARD

Principal provisions of the By-Laws are summarized in this Section. It is suggested that Purchasers make reference to the full By-Laws, a copy of which is set forth in Part II of the Plan.

The Condominium Board

Under the By-Laws, the affairs of the Condominium will be managed by the Sponsor. The initial Condominium Board will consist initially of three (3) persons: Omar Slowe, Je Carr, and Andrew Wallach. Messrs. Carr and Wallach are limited partners of Harpia NYC RE OZ Fund II, LP, the parent company of the Sponsor. They are non-majority investors of the parent company, but do not have any control or decision making power over Harpia NYC RE OZ Fund II, nor do they have any control or decision-making power over the Sponsor. The Unit Owners shall hold annual meetings and at each such meeting they shall elect members of the Condominium Board. Each Unit Owner, including the Sponsor or its designee, shall be entitled to cast one vote for each 0.01% of interest in the Common Elements attributable to their Unit(s) on all matters put to a vote at all meetings of the Unit Owners except that when voting for the election of members of the Condominium Board, each Unit Owner: (i) shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each 0.01% of Common Interest attributable to his Unit per member to be elected, and (ii) shall not have the right to cumulate his votes in favor of any one or more members to be elected. If Units are owned by more than one person or entity as joint tenants, tenants by the entirety or as tenants in common, the persons or entities owning that Unit shall agree among themselves and cast the votes for their Unit.

Unit Owner meetings to elect Board members shall be held on an annual basis. In addition, special meetings of Unit Owners may be held from time to time pursuant to the By-Laws at the direction of the Condominium Board or upon receipt by the Secretary of a petition signed by more than one-third (1/3) of the Unit Owners. The Sponsor shall relinquish voting control of the Condominium Board after the expiration of the Initial Control Period. Until the Initial Control Period expires, the Condominium Board shall be designated by the Sponsor and shall consist of three (3) members designated by the Sponsor. Subject to the foregoing limitations, the Sponsor will cause the Condominium to hold a meeting of Unit Owners within thirty (30) days after the expiration of the Initial Control Period to elect new Board members unaffiliated with the Sponsor.

The Sponsor will have absolute voting control of the Condominium Board until the expiration of the Initial Control Period, and will thus have control of maintenance, facilities and services to be provided, as well as determining the Common Charges to be paid by Unit Owners.

While the Sponsor owns any Unsold Unit, the Sponsor will have the right to, and intends to, vote the percentage of Common Interest allocated to its Unsold Units for all the available seats on the Condominium Board, including unaffiliated Unit Owners. However, after the Initial Control Period has expired, not more than one less than a majority of the members of the Condominium Board will be affiliated with the Sponsor. So long as the Sponsor or Sponsor-designee owns at least one (1) Unit, the Sponsor or Sponsor-designee shall have the right to designate one of the members of the Condominium Board.

After the Initial Control Period expires, the number of members may be changed by a vote of the Unit Owners at their annual meetings prior to the election of the next Board of the Unit Owners. The Members of the Condominium Board shall be elected at each annual meeting of the members and shall serve staggered terms, as set forth in the By-Laws.

To be eligible for election, members of the Condominium Board, except for those members elected or designated by the Sponsor, must be either a Unit Owner, the principal or officer of a Unit Owner, or the spouse, son, daughter, or parent of a Unit Owner.

After the Sponsor's voting Initial Control Period expires, the Condominium Board may be comprised of both owner-occupants and non-resident Unit Owner (or members of their households unrelated to the Sponsor and its principal). Owner-occupants and non-resident Unit Owner, including the Sponsor, may have inherent conflicts on how the Condominium should be managed because of their different reasons for purchasing. For example, an owner-occupant who is purchasing a Unit as a home may have views on repairs and capital expenditures which differ from a non-resident Unit Owner who has purchased for purposes of an investment.

Except for a member of the Condominium Board designated by Sponsor, a member of the Condominium Board may be removed from office, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of Unit Owners owning, in the aggregate, a percentage of Common Interest in excess of fifty percent (50%) of the Common Interest of the Condominium. A member of the Condominium Board designated by the Sponsor may be removed for cause by an affirmative vote of Unit Owners owning in the aggregate a percentage of Common Interest in excess of fifty percent (50%) of the Common Interest of the Condominium. A member of the Condominium Board designated by the Sponsor may be removed without cause only by the Sponsor and only the Sponsor shall have the right to designate a replacement, provided Sponsor's right to replace the Sponsor- designee occurs during the period Sponsor is entitled to designate a member of the Condominium Board.

The Unit Owners may transact such other business at such meetings as may properly come before them. All members of the Condominium Board shall serve without compensation, and the Sponsor represents that for as long as it or any of its designees are members of the Condominium Board, neither it nor any of its designees will vote for remuneration for either members of the Condominium Board or officers of the Condominium.

The Condominium Board shall have the powers and duties necessary for the administration of the affairs of the Condominium, including, but not limited to: determination of the Common Charges, adoption of rules and regulations covering the details of the Property, opening of bank accounts, purchasing, leasing or otherwise acquiring Units, selling, leasing, or mortgaging of Units owned by the Condominium Board and generally managing or supervising the Condominium as provided in the Declaration and By-Laws. The Common Expenses shall include such amounts as the Condominium Board deem proper for the operation and maintenance of the Property, including, without limitation, an amount for working capital of the Condominium, for a general operating reserve, for a reserve fund for capital replacements and to make up any deficit in the Common Expenses for any prior year. The Condominium Board, in its discretion, may delegate such managerial powers as it sees fit to the officers of the Condominium. The Condominium Board is authorized to employ a managing agent for the Condominium, on such terms as the Condominium Board may deem proper.

In order to limit the liability of the Unit Owners, the members of the Condominium Board, the managing agent, if any, and any officers of the Condominium, any contract or other commitment shall be made by the Condominium Board or the managing agent or an officer of the Condominium, as the case may be, only as agent for the Unit Owners. The members of the Condominium Board, the managing agent or the officer, as the case may be, shall have no personal liability on any such contract or commitment (except as Unit Owners), and the liability of any Unit Owner on any such contract or commitment shall be limited to such proportionate share of the total liability thereunder as the Common Interest of such Unit Owner bears to the aggregate Common Interest of all Unit Owners. The Condominium Board and the officers of the Condominium shall have no liability to the Unit Owners for errors of judgment, negligence, or otherwise, except for willful misconduct or bad faith. The Unit Owners shall severally indemnify the members of the Condominium Board and the officers of the Condominium against any liability or claims except those arising out of the bad faith or willful misconduct of the members of the Condominium Board or the officers of the Condominium, but the liability of any Unit Owner on account of such indemnification shall be limited to such proportionate share thereof as the Common Interest of such Unit Owner bears to the aggregate Common Interest of all Unit Owners.

Upon the transfer of title to any Unit, the Unit Owners will be required to execute a Unit Owner's Power of Attorney in favor of the Condominium Board and the Sponsor to exercise certain rights on behalf of the Condominium, such as: (i) exercising or waiving a right of first refusal to purchase a Unit (to the extent applicable)(and taking such steps as may be needed to implement such action); (ii) borrowing funds to repair the Common Elements pursuant to Real Property Law Section 339 (iii) protesting the Condominium's real estate tax valuations with the City of New York; and (iv) file applications and protests (or employ persons to do same) with respect to the assessed valuation of one or more Units and to execute all documents and pay all costs in connection therewith. The form of Unit Owner's Power of Attorney appears in Part II of the Plan.

Officers

The principal officers of the Condominium shall be: the President, the Vice President, the Secretary and the Treasurer, all of whom shall be elected by the Condominium Board. The President must be a member of the Condominium Board and either a Unit Owner, the principal or officer of a Unit Owner, or the spouse, son, daughter, or parent of a Unit Owner. Other officers need not be a Unit Owner, principal or officer or a Unit Owner or the relative of a Unit Owner or a member of the Condominium Board. The President and Treasurer may not be the same person. The Condominium Board may appoint an Assistant Treasurer and an Assistant Secretary, and such other officers as in its judgment may be necessary. All officers shall serve without compensation from the Condominium. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Condominium and shall preside at all meetings of the Condominium Board and of Unit Owners. The Vice President shall take the place of the President in his or her absence. The Secretary shall be empowered to take and keep minutes of all meetings and to keep the books and records of the Condominium. The Treasurer shall be responsible for the funds of the Condominium and for accurately keeping the financial records and books of the Condominium. The Condominium Board, in its discretion, shall delegate such powers to the officers as it deems necessary or appropriate in order to, among other things, execute agreements, contracts, deeds, leases and checks on behalf of the Condominium.

Notice of Meetings; Reports to Unit Owners

Notice of the annual meeting of Unit Owners or of any special meetings of Unit Owners shall be given by the Secretary, as directed by the Condominium Board, to Unit Owners not less than ten (10) days or more than fifty (50) days before such meeting. Minutes of all meetings of Unit Owners and of all meetings of the Condominium Board shall be kept by the Board, together with records of all actions taken by the Board and the financial records of the Condominium. The Board shall retain an independent certified public accountant to prepare an annual report of the receipts and expenditures of the Condominium, which report shall be promptly sent to each Unit Owner.

Review of Real Estate Tax Assessments

The Condominium Board reserves the right, on behalf of all Unit Owners, to challenge any assessment at the expense of the Condominium. However, if the Condominium Board fails to do so, it shall be the responsibility of the individual Unit Owners, at their sole cost and expense, to review the real estate tax assessments of their Units and, if they so desire, to take any steps necessary to review and challenge such assessments.

Amendments to Condominium Declaration and By-Laws

The Declaration may be amended upon a vote of sixty-six and two thirds percent (66 2/3%) of the Unit Owners in number and whose percentage of Common Interest in the aggregate exceeds sixty-six and two thirds percent (66 2/3%) held at a duly called meeting of Unit Owners, provided however, that:

1. No amendment shall change the boundaries of any Condominium parcel, nor a Unit Owner's proportionate share of the Common Charges, nor the voting rights appurtenant to any Unit, unless all record Unit Owners affected thereby and the first mortgagees, if any, of each of these same Units agree to such amendment by recorded instrument.

2. No amendment shall be passed which shall impair or prejudice the rights and priorities of the Sponsor without the consent of the Sponsor.

The By-Laws may be amended at any duly called Unit Owners meeting; provided: (1) that the notice of the meeting shall contain a full statement of the proposed amendment; (2) that the amendment shall be approved by sixty-six and two thirds percent (66 2/3%) of the Unit Owners in number and Common Interest (or such lesser amount as may be required by law); and (3) said amendment shall be set forth in a duly recorded amendment to the Declaration. However, no amendment will affect or impair the validity or priority of the Unit Owner's interest and the interests of holders of a mortgage encumbering a Unit or Units. No amendment shall adversely affect the Sponsor or its designee without the prior written consent of Sponsor or such designee.

Voting Rights

The Common Interest of each Unit in the Common Elements has been allocated pursuant to the method set forth in Real Property Law Section 339-i(l) based upon floor space, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to the other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Unit, the availability of the Common Elements for exclusive or shared use, and the overall dimensions of the particular Unit. A Unit Owner shall have such percentage interest in the Common Elements as set forth on Schedule two attached hereto and shall bear such percentage of the Common Expenses of the Condominium. Each Unit Owner shall have one vote for each 0.001% of interest in the Common Elements as set forth in Schedule two hereto, in person or by proxy, for all voting purposes at any meeting of the Unit Owners, unless otherwise mandated by law or expressly provided for herein.

T. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF UNITS OWNERS AND THE CONDOMINIUM BOARD

Sale and Lease of Units and Right of First Refusal

Each Unit Owner may freely sell or lease his/her Unit provided he/she first gives the Condominium Board, on behalf of all Unit Owners, an opportunity to purchase such Unit at the same price and on the same terms as were offered in good faith by a prospective Purchaser as more specifically provided for in the By-Laws. The Unit Owner will indicate whether or not the prospective Purchaser will be an owner-occupant. After receipt of the initial notice, the Condominium Board reserves the right to request additional information regarding the proposed Purchaser and the transaction, and to request a personal interview. If the Condominium Board fails to notify the Unit Owner of its election to purchase or lease the Unit within thirty (30) days after receipt of the offering Unit Owner's notice (or, if additional information has been requested after reviewing the submissions of the Unit Owner, within thirty (30) days after receipt of all additional information reasonably required by the Board), the Unit Owner will have sixty (60) days to accept the outside offer of the prospective Purchaser or tenant, failing which the Unit Owner will be required to again first offer same to the Board. The Condominium Board, on behalf of all Unit Owners, shall not have a right of first refusal with respect to Units owned by the Sponsor.

All leases must be for a minimum period of one (1) year (with each such lease being for a specific named tenant and with no right to substitute any other tenant during the term of the lease). All leases shall be consistent with the By-Laws and shall contain such reasonable conditions as the Condominium Board may impose in order to protect the physical and financial security and continuity of the Condominium, including (but not limited to) provisions that a lease may not be modified, amended, extended or assigned, without the prior consent in writing of the Condominium Board ; that the tenant shall not sublet the Property, or any part thereof, without the prior consent in writing of the Condominium Board ; that the Condominium Board shall have the right to terminate the lease on not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice upon foreclosure of the lien granted by Section 339-z of the New York State Real Property Law; and that the Condominium Board may establish other reasonable regulations governing leases of Units from time to time. Except as set forth above, the form of any such lease shall be substantially the then current form of apartment lease recommended by The Real Estate Board of New York, Inc., with such modifications as may be approved in writing by the Condominium Board.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Condominium Board will have the right to impose restrictions on the leasing of Units if, in their good faith judgment, further leasing will impair the ability of Unit Owners to finance or refinance or impair the ability of prospective purchasers of Units to obtain financing. Such restrictions may remain in effect for so long as such impairment exists. The provisions of this Section shall not apply with respect to (a) any sale, conveyance or lease by a Unit Owner of his/her Unit to his/her spouse or to any of his/her children over the age of 18 years or to his/her parent or parents or to his/her brothers or sisters, or any one or more of them, or to a trust established for the benefit of any of them; or (b) a sale or lease of a Unit owned by the Sponsor or any principal thereof (as defined in the Offering Plan pursuant to which the Condominium was established); or (c) the sale or lease of a Unit to the controlling principal of any non-individual entity owning the Unit or members of his/her immediate family; or (d) the acquisition, sale or lease of a Unit by a mortgagee who shall acquire title to such Unit by foreclosure or by deed in lieu of foreclosure; or (e) a conveyance or transfer by gift during a Unit Owner's lifetime; or (f) the devise of a Unit by will or intestacy. However, the Condominium Board must be given written notice of every sale or lease of a Unit.

Failure to comply with the above provisions shall be deemed an automatic violation of the By-Laws of the Condominium. Rental of a Unit in the Condominium is not currently subject to any local or state regulation.

The Condominium Board may not discriminate against any person on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, marital status or other grounds prohibited by law.

Occupancy of Units Owned by Entity other than a Natural Person

If a Unit is acquired by an entity (as opposed to one or more individual persons), ownership and occupancy of the Unit will be subject to the following:

(i) The Unit Owner will specify in writing to the Condominium those persons who will be entitled to occupy the Unit. The Unit may be used for residential occupancy only by those specified persons and members of their immediate family (individually and collectively, the "Permitted Occupants"). Any change in the Permitted Occupants other than in accordance with the By-laws will be considered a lease of the Unit and will be subject to the applicable provisions of the By-laws in regard to leases.

(ii) The Unit Owner will specify in writing those persons who control the Unit Owner ("Principals"). A transfer of equitable or beneficial interests in the Unit Owner to other natural persons such that the Principals (individually or collectively) no longer control the Unit Owner shall be deemed to be a transfer subject to the Condominium's right of first refusal under the Condominium Documents. However, a change in Principals will not result in a change in the Permitted Occupants without compliance with the balance of this subsection. The Condominium may also require an entity acquiring an equitable or beneficial interest in the Unit Owner to comply with the requirements of this section, including the obligation to designate an authorized representative of such entity.

(iii) The Condominium may require that the Unit Owner designate a single person who is authorized to act on behalf of the Unit Owner and on whom the Condominium may rely in connection with any dealings with the Unit Owner.

(iv) All rights granted to natural Unit Owners under the Condominium Documents, including (without limitation) all rights to use and occupy the Unit, shall inure to The Permitted Occupants as if the Permitted Occupants in his/her/their individual capacity were the Unit Owner rather than named Unit Owner, and all liabilities and duties of natural Unit Owners under the Condominium Documents shall be liabilities and duties of the Permitted Occupants as if the Permitted Occupants in his/her/their individual capacity were the Unit Owner rather than the named Unit Owner. The right to occupy the Unit granted to the Permitted Occupants is neither assignable, delegable, nor transferable without the consent of the Condominium. Except as without such occupancy being deemed to be a lease or other such unauthorized occupancy, and otherwise expressly permitted under the By-Laws, no one other than the Permitted Occupants may occupy the Unit without the express written consent of the Condominium (which consent may be given or withheld in the sole discretion of the Condominium). However, nothing in the foregoing shall bar Unit Owner from leasing or conveying the Unit in accordance with the Condominium Documents and the Regulations of the Condominium.

(v) A violation of the Declaration, By-laws or Rules and Regulations of the Condominium by any Permitted Occupant shall entitle the Condominium to exercise all of its rights and remedies against the Unit Owner in its capacity as Unit Owner.

(vi) Nothing described above shall be deemed to constitute a release of the Unit Owner from any of its obligations as nor a waiver of any of its rights as a condominium unit owner. All Unit Owners and occupants shall remain fully liable for the performance of all their respective obligations under the Condominium Documents and applicable law.

(vii) The Unit Owner and all Permitted Occupants shall be deemed to have consented to personal jurisdiction in the State of New York and venue in Kings County in any action commenced by the Condominium. The Unit Owner and the Permitted Occupants shall be deemed to have agreed that personal or substituted service may be made upon it in any legal manner at the Unit.

Payment of Common Charges

No Unit Owner shall be permitted to convey, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, sell or lease his Unit unless and until he shall have (previously or simultaneously) paid in full to the Condominium Board all unpaid Common Charges and assessments and expenses theretofore assessed by the Condominium Board against his Unit and until he shall have satisfied all unpaid liens against such Unit, except permitted mortgages.

Conveyance Includes all Interests

Each conveyance of a Unit by a Unit Owner shall include as part of the property to be conveyed such Unit Owner's (i) undivided interest in the Common Elements; (ii) interest in any Unit or Units acquired by the Board from Unit Owners (or the proceeds received at a foreclosure or other judicial sale of a Unit); and (iii) interest in any other assets of the Condominium.

Mortgage of Units

Each Unit Owner is free to mortgage his Unit. Prior to or simultaneously with the closing of any mortgage transaction, the Unit Owner must satisfy any arrearage for any unpaid Common Charges and assessments owed by such Unit Owner and discharge any liens therefore. The By-Laws provide that the Condominium Board may request that it be notified by each Unit mortgagee of any default of a mortgage on a Unit.

Easements and Right of Access.

Each Unit Owner shall have an easement in common with the Owners of other Units to use and maintain all pipes, ducts, cables, wires, conduits, air conditioning condensers (if any), public utility lines or other Common Elements located in the other's Unit and serving his or her own Unit, if any. In addition, each Unit Owner shall have an easement for the continuance of any encroachment by the Unit on any adjoining Unit or on any Common Element, now existing or which may come into existence hereafter as a result of the settling or shifting of the Building, or as a result of restoration of the Building or a Unit after damage by fire or other casualty, or as a result of condemnation or eminent domain proceedings, or by reason of any alteration made by the Condominium Board to the Common Elements so that any such encroachment may remain undisturbed so long as the Building stands. This easement includes, but is not limited to, an easement of access to the basement of a Unit to have such pipes, wires, ducts, conduits, cables, and public utilities inspected, maintained, repaired and if applicable, metered and read by the appropriate authority. The Condominium Board, through a designated manager, managing agent, or their employees or other designee, shall have a right of access, upon reasonable notice and at reasonable times (except in an emergency, in which case no notice shall be required), to such Unit to inspect and make repairs to the Unit to prevent damage to the Common Elements, Limited Common Elements or any other Unit.

Use and Occupancy of Units.

The Units may be used only for private residential use, or any home occupation use permitted under applicable zoning law and ordinances, Building Code or other rules and regulations of governmental authorities having jurisdiction.

No Unit may be used, leased or subleased for any of the following purposes: (a) leasing for a term of less than one year by any so-called “executive stay” or “short term stay” company or person engaged in the business of renting or leasing units; or (b) hotel, dormitory, employee residence or facility, fraternity or sorority house, resort housing or similar type of nonpermanent housing.

Except as set forth above, no industry, business, trade, occupation or profession of any kind, commercial, religious, educational or otherwise, designed for profit, altruism, or otherwise, shall be conducted, maintained or permitted in any part of the Units, nor shall any “For Sale”, “For Rent” or “For Lease” signs or other window displays or advertising be maintained or permitted in any Unit therein or adjoining Common Elements, nor shall any Unit be rented for transient, hotel or motel purposes. The foregoing restrictions on use in this Section do not apply to any Unit owned by The Sponsor. The right is also reserved by the Sponsor, its designee and the Condominium Board, or its agent, to place “For Sale”, “For Rent”, or “For Lease” or similar signs on any Unsold or unoccupied Units. Sponsor and its designee shall have the right to place “For Sale”, “For Rent” or “For Lease” signs or similar signs on or in the vicinity of the Building without regard to size provided any such sign is not an eyesore.

No Unit shall be used or be occupied in such manner as to obstruct or interfere with the enjoyment of occupants or owners of the other Units; nor shall any nuisance or Immoral or illegal activity be committed or permitted to occur in or about any Unit or upon any part of the Common Elements.

Smoking cigarettes, cigars, pipes, water pipes, hookahs and electronic cigarettes shall not be permitted within the Building, or within fifteen (15) feet of any entrance or exit of the Building including those Limited Common Elements appurtenant to the applicable Units (the "Smoking Policy"). The Smoking Policy shall be conspicuously posted in the Building and shall be included in all Unit leases and/or Interim Leases. The Smoking Policy is incorporated into the Rules and Regulations of the Condominium.

Certain parts of the Common Elements are intended for use for the purpose of affording pedestrian movement within the Condominium and for providing access to the Units. No part of the Common Elements shall be obstructed as to interfere with its use for the purposes hereinabove recited; nor shall any part of the Common Elements be used for general storage purposes, except maintenance storage or where specifically designated as such; nor shall anything be done thereon in any manner which shall increase the rate of hazard and liability insurance covering said area and improvements situated thereon.

No Immoral or unlawful use shall be made of the Property or any part thereof, and all valid laws, zoning ordinances and regulations of all governmental bodies having jurisdiction thereof shall be observed. Violations of laws, orders, rules, regulations or requirements of any governmental agency having jurisdiction thereof, relating to any portion of the Property, shall be eliminated, by and at the sole expense of the Unit Owners, or the Condominium Board, whichever shall have the obligation to maintain or repair such portion of the Property.

No portion of a Unit other than the entire Unit may be leased.

Determination of Common Charges and Liens for Nonpayment of Common Charges.

Each Unit Owner shall have an obligation to pay Common Charges and assessments or other expenses when due. Common Charges for each Unit shall be determined by multiplying that Unit's percentage of Common Interest by the total annual net expenses incurred or anticipated to be incurred for those items listed in Schedule B in the Plan, together with the expense of any special repairs, major capital improvements or other expenses deemed by the Condominium Board to be part of the Common Expenses and to be paid as Common Charges, all in accordance with the By-Laws. Common Charges will be established on an annual basis and paid in equal monthly installments, due and payable on the first day of each month. In accordance with the By-Laws, the Condominium Board may also impose special assessments as it deems necessary to meet unanticipated or extraordinary expenses, including, but not limited to, expenses incurred for major capital improvements. Any such special assessment to be paid by each Unit Owner shall also be determined in accordance with the Unit Owner's percentage of Common Interest. Common Charges also include late payment charges, fees and expenses of collection or enforcement of the Condominium Documents (including attorneys' fees), accrued interest, and fines charged to a Unit Owner. Common Charges which remain unpaid for more than thirty (30) days shall bear interest at the maximum rate permitted by law.

Under the provisions of Section 339-z and 339-aa of the Condominium Act and the By-Laws, the Condominium Board on behalf of the Unit Owners will have a lien against each Unit for unpaid Common Charges assessed by the Condominium Board. Such lien will be subordinate only to liens for real estate taxes on the Unit and to any sums unpaid on a first mortgage of record thereon in excess of six (6) months' Common Charges and attorneys' fees for collection thereof. Any lien for unpaid Common Charges against a Unit shall be effective from and after the filing of notice thereof in the office of the Register of the City of New York, County of Kings and until all sums secured thereby with the interest thereon shall have been fully paid or until six (6) years from the date of filing (unless foreclosure of such lien is started within such six (6) year period), whichever may be earlier. Such lien may be foreclosed by a suit brought in the name of the Condominium Board acting on behalf of the Unit Owners in like manner as the foreclosure of a mortgage on real property, or an action may be brought by the Condominium Board to recover the unpaid Common Charges without foreclosing the lien.

Upon the failure of a Unit Owner to pay any portion of Common Charges for the Unit within fifteen (15) days of the same becoming due and payable, the Condominium Board shall have the right to place a lien against the Unit Owner's Unit for the unpaid Common Charges as set forth above, and to impose late charges and administrative fees of up to six percent (6%) of the unpaid amount or One Hundred and 00/100 Dollars ($100.00) (whichever is greater) per violation as additional Common Charges with respect to each new violation to cover the additional costs of administration. The Sponsor will cause the Condominium Board to file a lien as provided in Real Property Law Section 339-aa on Units in which the Sponsor is more than thirty (30) days in arrears of Common Charges while the Sponsor controls the Condominium Board. Failure of the Condominium Board to place such a lien or impose such charges shall not constitute a waiver of the right to do so at a later date or with respect to a subsequent failure to pay within the designated time.

Under the provisions of Section 339-kk of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, the Condominium Board also shall be entitled to collect all rental payments due from a tenant to a non-resident Unit Owner if the non-resident Unit Owner fails to make payments to the Condominium Board for Common Charges, assessments or late fees when due, and if such nonpayment shall continue for a period of sixty (60) days after the expiration of any grace period for payment provided for in the Declaration and By-Laws.

No Unit Owner shall be liable for the payment of any part of the Common Charges assessed against his Unit subsequent to a sale, transfer, or other conveyance made by him of his Unit, with appurtenant Common Elements, in accordance with the Declaration and By-Laws. All Unit Owners shall be required to comply with the Declaration, By-Laws, Regulations of the Condominium and with any other requirements duly imposed by the Condominium Board pursuant to the authority granted to them. The Condominium Board shall have the power to impose appropriate sanctions where a Unit Owner is in default. Such sanctions include placing a lien against the Unit Owner's Unit, instituting foreclosure proceedings and filing suit against a Unit Owner.

The Condominium Board may also impose fines on Unit Owners who violate the Condominium Documents. The amount and administration of such fines shall be established in the Condominium Board's reasonable discretion. Such fines shall be deemed additional Common Charges.

Repairs.

All maintenance, repairs and replacements to any Unit, ordinary or extraordinary, and to the doors, windows, electrical (except Common Elements), plumbing (except Common Elements) and heating fixtures and air conditioning Units (if any) within the Unit or belonging to the Unit Owner shall be made at the Unit Owner's expense, except as otherwise specifically provided in the By-Laws.

All maintenance, repairs and replacements (individually and collectively "Repairs") to the General Common Elements (as defined in the Declaration) shall be made by or on behalf of the Condominium Board and be charged to Unit Owners as a Common Expense, except to the extent that the Repairs are necessitated by the negligence, misuse or neglect of a Unit Owner, in which case the expense shall be charged to such Unit Owner.

Repairs in or to the Limited Common Elements (as defined in the Declaration) will be performed by, and at the expense of, the following persons under the following circumstances: (a) the Condominium Board at the expense of the Unit Owner, if it is a Limited Common Element and the Repair involves structural or extraordinary maintenance, repairs or replacements (including, but not limited to, the Repair of leaks) or (b) by the Unit Owner having direct and exclusive access the Limited Common Element at his sole cost and expense, if involving nonstructural or ordinary Repairs. The Condominium will also have the right, but not the obligation, to require a Unit Owner to make a repair to a Limited Common Element (also at the expense of the Unit Owner) in the discretion of the Condominium Board.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Condominium will have the right to enter any Unit upon reasonable notice for the purpose of making Repairs in an emergency, or if the Condominium determines (in its sole discretion) that it is necessary or appropriate for the Condominium to make the Repair, whether or not for the account of the Unit Owner, and to charge the cost thereof to the appropriate person under the Condominium Documents. The Condominium Board and the managing agent (if any) shall have the right of access, upon reasonable notice and at reasonable times (except in an emergency, in which case no notice shall be required), to any Unit for the purpose of inspecting any repair, replacement or maintenance to a Limited Common Element.

Additions, Alterations, Decorations and Improvements.

1. Until a permanent certificate of occupancy for the Building has been issued following completion of the construction of the Building as described in the Plan, no Unit Owner other than Sponsor and its designees, shall make any alterations or improvements to his Unit or make application to any governmental authority therefor without the prior written consent of Sponsor (the "Temporary Work Restriction"). Such consent may be granted or withheld in the sole and absolute discretion of Sponsor.

2. After a permanent Certificate of Occupancy has been obtained, for so long as Sponsor shall own at least one Unsold Unit, a Unit Owner wishing to make alterations, additions or improvements shall obtain Sponsor's prior written consent. Sponsor shall have the right to grant or withhold or condition its consent to one or more alterations, additions or improvements to be made by the Unit Owner, provided that Sponsor shall not withhold or condition its consent unreasonably.

3. In addition, and without limiting the right of Sponsor as provided above, pursuant to the By-Laws, each Unit Owner (other than Sponsor, its designees and Unsold Unit Owners) shall at all times be required to obtain the consent of the Condominium Board for any alterations, additions or improvements to his Unit which consent shall not be withheld unreasonably. If Sponsor shall grant consent to an alteration, such consent, at the option of Sponsor, shall be binding on the Condominium Board.

4. After the issuance of a permanent certificate of occupancy, subject to obtaining the consent of the Condominium Board, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, a Unit Owner shall have the right to combine their respective Units with other adjacent Units and to change the use of such Unit, provided that such use is then permitted under applicable zoning regulations and is not prohibited by the Declaration and By-Laws. In exercising such right, the Unit Owner shall obtain the consent of Sponsor (if Sponsor owns any Unsold Units) and the Condominium Board for any alterations that may be required to effectuate such change, to the extent that such consent is required pursuant to Paragraphs 1-4 above. Further, the Condominium Board shall, at the expense of the Unit Owner requesting same, promptly execute, acknowledge and deliver such amendments to the Declaration and Floor Plans as may be reasonably required to reflect the combination of one or more Units with another Unit. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Condominium Board shall execute such documents as may be requested by Sponsor to reflect the combination of Units without cost to Sponsor. For the avoidance of all doubt, neither Sponsor nor any Unsold Unit Owner shall be required to obtain the consent of the Condominium Board for any alteration, addition or improvement.

5. Any approval, if granted, shall provide that such alteration shall be at the Unit Owner's sole cost and expense, that work shall be done in accordance with all governmental or quasi-governmental laws, rules, regulations, codes and ordinances, that all work shall be done by reputable contractors with adequate liability, property damage and workmen's compensation insurances, (certificates for which shall be delivered to the Condominium Board prior to the commencement of construction), that any additions shall be maintained in their entirety by said Unit Owner (who shall also be responsible for any repairs, including structural repairs, to such addition under all circumstances, and to the Unit and any Common Elements where such repairs become necessary due to additional stresses caused by the structural alteration or due to improper design or construction of the structural alteration). Such approval shall further provide that the Unit Owner shall reimburse the Condominium Board for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Condominium Board in connection with the granting of such approval and in connection with any services provided to such alteration. The Unit Owner shall sign an alteration agreement to the effect of the foregoing and incorporating such other terms as the Condominium may require.

6. No Unit Owner may alter or improve a Limited Common Element without the consent of the Condominium Board.

7. The Condominium Board and managing agent (if any) shall have a right of access, upon reasonable notice and at reasonable times (except in an emergency, in which case no notice shall be required), to any Unit for the purpose of inspection, making any repairs or replacements to any of the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements contained in such

Unit or elsewhere in the Building, remedying any condition which would result in damage to any other Unit or to the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements or which would violate the provisions of any mortgage encumbering another Unit, or for the purpose of complying with any laws, orders, rules or regulations of any governmental body having jurisdiction thereof, or to cure any defaults by a Unit Owner or for any other purpose permitted by the By-Laws.

8. All alterations are subject to the Regulations of the Condominium regarding the time and manner of performance, security, insurance, responsibility for interruption of services, and liability for future repairs. Unit Owners may be required to execute an Alteration Agreement incorporating such terms, which agreement may be recorded and will bind future owners of the Unit.

9. The consent of the Condominium Board is not required in order for the Sponsor to make alterations or additions to Unsold Units, whether or not such alterations are structural or nonstructural, ordinary or extraordinary, so long as they do not materially Adversely Affect the structure or utility systems of the Building. The Condominium hereby appoints the Sponsor as its attorney-in-fact, coupled with an interest, to execute such documents on behalf of the Condominium as may be required in order to obtain any necessary licenses or permits to make or complete an alteration, and grants to the Sponsor an easement of access, ingress and egress to make any such alterations.

Use of Limited Common Elements.

Certain Units have yards, gardens or terraces adjacent to and appurtenant to them. These areas are deemed Limited Common Elements and the use thereof is reserved for the exclusive use of the respective Unit Owner. The Condominium Board may set reasonable rules and regulations which govern the use of all Limited Common Elements. The location and dimensions of such areas are detailed on the floor plans attached in Part II of the Plan.

The use of the Limited Common Elements by Unit Owners is governed by the terms of the Declaration and By-Laws, including the following:

No alteration or improvement may be made to the Limited Common Elements without the consent of the Condominium Board, including alterations (such as decking) which do not require the consent of the Building Department or other City agency. Certain improvements may also require the consent of the Building Department. The Condominium Board must approve any application to such agencies.

All alterations are subject to the Regulations of the Condominium regarding the time and manner of performance, security, insurance, responsibility for interruption of services, and liability for future repairs. Unit Owners may be required to execute an Alteration Agreement incorporating such terms, which agreement may be recorded and will bind future owners of the Unit.

The Condominium Board will have the right to enter any Limited Common Element for the purpose of inspecting or making repairs to the Common Elements. The Unit Owner will be responsible for removing all personal property or improvements to a Unit in order to provide such access, at his or her expense.

Repairs in or to the Limited Common Elements (as defined in the Declaration) will be performed by, and at the expense of, the following persons under the following circumstances: (a) the Condominium Board at the expense of the Unit Owner having direct and exclusive access, if the Repair involves structural or extraordinary maintenance, repairs or replacements (including, but not limited to, the repair of leaks) or (b) the Unit Owner having direct and exclusive access to the Limited Common Element, at his sole cost and expense, if involving nonstructural or ordinary Repairs. The Condominium will also have the right, but not the obligation, to require a Unit Owner to make a Repair to a Limited Common Element (also at the expense of the Unit Owner) in the discretion of the Board.

Insurance

1. The Condominium Board shall obtain and maintain, to the extent obtainable, the following insurance: fidelity insurance covering all officers, Board members, employees and the managing agent or agents who handle funds of the Condominium; fire insurance with extended coverage, water damage, vandalism, and malicious mischief endorsements, insuring the common elements of the Condominium and personal property owned by the condominium association, and the sheet-rocked boundary walls and ceilings of individual units (but not including floors, subfloors, interior or partition walls, improvements and betterments to individual Units, appliances, built-ins (such as kitchen cabinets), fixtures to the point that they connect to the building systems within the walls, furniture, furnishings, or other personal property of Unit Owners), together with all heating, central air conditioning and other service machinery contained therein (except for any such machinery supplied or installed by individual Unit Owners), covering the interests of the Condominium, Condominium Board , and all Unit Owners and their mortgagees, as their interests may appear, in an amount equal to the full replacement value of the Building. Each of such policies shall contain a New York standard mortgagee clause in favor of each mortgagee of a Unit which shall provide that the loss, if any, thereunder shall be payable to such mortgagee as its interest may appear, subject, however, to such loss payment provisions in favor of the Condominium as the Condominium Board may determine. All such policies shall provide that adjustment of loss shall be made by the Condominium Board. The specific amounts of coverage are noted in footnote eight of Schedule B.

All policies of physical damage insurance shall contain waivers of subrogation and of any reduction pro rata liability of the insurer as a result of any insurance carried by Unit Owners or of the invalidity arising from any acts of the insured or any Unit Owners and shall provide that such policies may not be cancelled or substantially modified without at least ten (10) days prior written notice to all of the insureds, including all mortgagees of Units.

The Condominium Board shall also be required to obtain and maintain, to the extent obtainable, comprehensive public liability insurance in such limits as the Condominium Board may determine from time to time, insuring the Condominium, the Condominium Board , the managing agent, and each Unit Owner (to the extent any such person is acting on behalf of the Condominium) against claims for bodily injury, personal injury and property damage by any other person. To the extent obtainable at commercially reasonable rates, such public liability coverage shall also cover cross-liability claims of one insured against another. Such coverage will not apply to occurrences within a Unit except to the extent due to the negligence of the Condominium or an agent thereof, and except to the extent not otherwise covered by a Unit Owner's own insurance.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contain herein, for as long as the Sponsor controls the Condominium Board, the insurance obtained by the Condominium must at minimum conform to the requirements of the Department of Law set forth in 13 NYCRR 20.3(h)(4)(viii).

2. All Unit Owners shall carry insurance commonly known as "condominium homeowners insurance" insuring the Unit Owner against damage to those portions of their Units not covered by the Condominium's insurance, including floors, subfloors, interior or partition walls, improvements and betterments to individual Units, appliances, built - ins (such as kitchen cabinets), fixtures to the point that they connect to the building systems within the walls, furniture, furnishings, or other personal property of Unit Owners), and against liability for claims for personal injury or property damage arising out of their acts or omissions. All such insurance shall be carried by a company licensed to do business in the State of New York and shall contain waivers of subrogation for property damage claims against the Condominium, its agents or employees. To the extent obtainable, such insurance shall name the Condominium and its managing agent as additional insureds. The Condominium Board may establish minimum amounts and maximum deductibles for all such insurance from time to time. Unit Owners shall provide a certificate evidencing such insurance when they take title to their Units and thereafter upon request by the Condominium. To the fullest extent permitted by the law, each Unit Owner releases the Condominium from liability for damage to those portions of his/her Unit not expressly covered by the Condominium's insurance, and to his/her personal property, for any reason. If any such damage would be covered by insurance maintained by the Unit Owner under this Section, and if for any reason the Unit Owner is not carrying such insurance, the Unit Owner shall be deemed to have breached the By-laws of the Condominium and the Condominium shall have all legal rights at law or in equity against the Unit Owner to be defended, held harmless and indemnified against loss (including reasonable attorneys' fees) as a result of such failure.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, so long as Sponsor controls the Condominium Board, the insurance obtained by the Condominium must at minimum conform to the requirements of the Department of Law.

Termination

The Condominium may be terminated by withdrawing the Property from the provisions of the New York Condominium Act, by an affirmative vote of not less than eighty percent (80%) of Unit Owners in number and whose percent of Common Interest equals in the aggregate, not less than eighty percent (80%). The Sponsor shall not cast the votes of any Unsold Units it holds for such withdrawal unless votes equaling eighty percent (80%) in number and of the Common Interest have been so cast or unless at least eighty percent (80%) in number and in Common Interest of all other Unit Owners have voted to terminate. If the Unit Owners vote to terminate the Condominium, the Property shall be subject to an action for partition by any Unit Owner or lienor and the net proceeds of sale shall be divided among all the Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interest, provided that no Unit Owner shall receive any payment until there has first been paid out of such Unit Owner's share of the net proceeds all liens on his/her Unit.

Miscellaneous.

The Sponsor is not required to obtain the approval of the Condominium Board or meet requirements imposed upon the Unit Owners in order to exercise a number of rights described in the By-Laws, including, but not limited to: (i) the right to use a Unit as a model and display "For Sale", "For Rent", or "For Lease" signs, or similar signs provided any such sign is not an eyesore; (ii) the right to alter a Unit without obtaining the prior consent of the Condominium Board (but only in accordance with the other terms of this Plan); and (iii) the right to amend the Declaration without a vote for the sole purpose of filing the floor plans as required by Section 339-p of the Real Property Law of the State of New York and (iv) the right to transfer a Unit without offering the Unit Owners the right of first refusal. For as long as the Sponsor or its designee own title to one or more Units, the Regulations of the Condominium, By-Laws or Declaration may not be amended in a manner which would, in the sole discretion of Sponsor or its designee, adversely affect the Sponsor or its designee in any way, unless the Sponsor or its designee give their written consent to such an amendment.

PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS OR THEIR ATTORNEYS OR ADVISORS SHOULD REVIEW THE BY-LAWS, DECLARATION AND OTHER IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS SET FORTH IN PART II OF THE PLAN.

U. REAL ESTATE TAXES

In accordance with the New York State Condominium Act, real estate taxes applicable to each Unit will be separately assessed. The estimated monthly costs and charges to be incurred by the owner of each Unit in the first year in which the property will be fully subject to real estate taxes together with the estimated insurance costs for the fire and liability insurance on each Unit and the monthly mortgage and other carrying costs are set forth on Schedule A. Once Units are separately assessed for real estate taxes, each Unit Owner will be responsible only for payment of the tax bill attributable to each Unit Owner's Unit and will not be responsible for paying the tax bill attributable to any other Unit. Likewise, with separate assessments, one Unit cannot be subject to a tax lien arising out of another Unit Owner's failure to pay taxes due on that other Unit Owner's Unit.

If separate tax assessments have not been made for individual Units prior to the Closing of Title to a Unit, Sponsor will collect from each Purchaser at closing, and will place in escrow in a separate account established by the Sponsor for that purpose, an amount equal to the Unit's estimate proportionate share (based on the Unit's percentage of common interest allocated to the Unit) of the real estate taxes projected to be due for the entire Property for the half of the tax year next commencing after the closing of said Unit (i.e. for either the first half of second half, depending on when the Unit closes), based on the method of allocation described above. If the tax assessor indicates that more than one half of a tax year may elapse before the Units are individually assessed, Sponsor shall collect at closing Purchaser's proportionate share of taxes for the upcoming half and shall deposit the same in the account described above. With respect to the balance of the estimated taxes due for the next applicable tax period, the Condominium Board is authorized by the By-Laws and shall be obligated to collect monthly escrows from Unit Owners with their Common Charges based upon the estimated tax bill for the entire Property and the then current tax rate and deposit same in the tax escrow account. At the time taxes are due and payable, Sponsor shall pay out of Sponsor's own funds, Sponsor's proportionate share of the Property tax bill allocable to the Unit(s) Sponsor then owns, based on the allocation method described above, and the Condominium Board shall be obligated to cause the release to Sponsor of the appropriate amount of escrowed tax funds in the tax escrow account for Sponsor's use in paying the share of taxes attributable to Units that have been sold and closed to other Unit Owners.

If the actual taxes due for any period for which Sponsor collected escrows are higher than the amount collected and held in escrow, the Condominium Board shall pay the difference and shall bill Unit Owners for their proportionate share of any necessary reimbursement, as a Special Assessment. Sponsor will remain liable for all real estate taxes attributable to Sponsor's Units until Sponsor sells and conveys those Units. If any Unit Owner fails to pay a Unit's pro rata share of real estate taxes when due, by Common Charge billing, special assessment billing, or both, the Condominium Board will have a lien on such Unit for non-payment thereof, as if such charges were Common Charges.

The assessment for 2025/26 does not represent a final post-construction assessment, and property taxes will be higher than the estimates set forth herein for the first year of condominium operation for subsequent fiscal years since we cannot predict with certainty the date of completion of construction and/or when a Temporary or Final Certificate of Occupancy will be issued.

SPONSOR MAKES NO REPRESENTATION THAT THE ASSESSED VALUE OF THE PROPERTY, THE ESTIMATED ALLOCATIONS OR THE TAX RATE WILL NOT BE CHANGED.

There is no assurance the taxing authority will allocate taxes based on relative apartment size, apartment height, and unit-specific features, as provided in the accompanying analysis. It is therefore possible that owners of Units having the same percentage of Common Interest will pay different amounts of real estate taxes.

No representation or warranty can be made as to (a) whether there will be (i) further increases in the actual valuation of the Property during the projected budget year or (ii) an increase in the assessed valuation of the Property by reason of the condominium conversion or otherwise, or (b) the method of determining the assessed valuation, or (c) the amount of any increase in the assessed valuation of the Property.

The Condominium Board shall have the right accorded to condominium boards of managers in Section 339-y of the Condominium Act, on behalf of and as agent for any Unit Owner who has given written authorization to the Condominium Board, to commence, pursue and settle certiorari proceedings to obtain reduced real estate tax assessments with respect to the Unit, as set forth in the By-Laws. All Unit Owners will share the costs in connection therewith and the benefits derived therefrom. The Condominium Board may retain legal counsel on behalf of Unit Owners for which it is acting as agent and charge all such Unit Owners a pro-rata share of expenses, disbursements, and legal fees, for which charges the Condominium Board shall have a lien as if for Common Charges, pursuant to Section 339-z of the Condominium Act. If any Unit Owners seeks individually to have the assessed value of said Owner's Unit reduced, by bringing a separate tax certiorari proceeding, the Condominium Board, if necessary for such proceeding, will execute any documents or other papers required for, and otherwise cooperate with such Unit Owner in pursuing such reduction, provided such Unit Owner indemnifies the Condominium Board and all other Unit Owners from all costs, claims and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and expenses), resulting from such proceedings.

As of April 1, 2024, no tax certiorari proceedings are pending on the premises.

Re: 311 Eastern Parkway
Block: 1181 Lot: 60
Borough of Brooklyn

Dear Sir/Madame:

You have requested that we project the real estate tax liability for a new six (6) story building to be constructed at 311 Eastern Parkway (the "Project"), which is being converted from a 1901 vintage mid-block single family home to a five (5) unit residential condominium upon completion of construction at that location.

You have asked us to estimate the real estate tax liability applicable to the development project, consisting of five (5) individually assessed residential condominium units, with the first year of condominium operation commencing July 1, 2025 through June 30, 2026, and without regard to any real estate tax exemption or abatement benefits that may apply or for which individual unit owners may be eligible.

Since tax year 1982/83, Real Property Tax Law §1805 has mandated that increases in assessed valuation must be phased in over a five-year period, resulting in a Transitional Assessed Value. However, the statute requires the New York City Department of Finance ("DOF") to include all physical (new construction, renovation, rehabilitation, or additions of square footage to existing structures) changes directly into the Taxable Assessed Valuation without the five-year phase-in. The Actual Assessed Value is the target value which will be reached at the end of the five-year period, assuming the assessment is not increased in the interim. Taxes are payable based upon the lower of the Actual and Transitional Assessed Values.

Another factor that affects the calculation of assessed value for Tax Class 2 residential buildings with ten (10) units or fewer is that State Law limits how much the assessed value of a smaller Class 2 building (Class 2A, 2B or 2C) in New York City can increase each year. Tax Class 2A, 2B and 2C properties do not have a Transitional Assessment. A Tax Class 2C residential property, typically a cooperative or condominium will, therefore, not have a Transitional Assessment upon completion of construction.

For Tax Class 2 residential buildings with ten (10) residential units or fewer, the assessed value cannot increase by more than 8 % from the year before or by more than 30% over five years. Please note that physical assessment increases caused by construction, i.e., physical changes to the property, however, are not capped the same way. The physical changes to a Class 2A, 2B or 2C property are applied in full to the market value of the property and then generally assessed at 15% of the increased market value.

The Project will be exclusively residential containing five (5) residential apartments. The Real Property Tax Law provides that such property should be classified as Tax Class 2C. However, as a practical matter, DOF typically assesses such properties as Tax Class 2.

DOF utilizes different valuation methods for Tax Class 2C properties. Tax Class 2C properties are typically valued on the gross income multiplier method, while Tax Class 2 properties are typically valued on capitalization of income and expenses. For purposes of this letter, we assume that DOF will continue to assess and classify the Project as Tax Class 2 until such time as the Condominium Declaration has been filed with the City Register and the lot is subdivided into five (5) separate tax lots, at which time DOF will re-classify the property to Tax Class 2C.

You have advised us of the following facts regarding the project:

1. 311 Eastern Parkway LLC will construct a new residential building to be held in the condominium form of ownership. Upon completion, there will be five (5) separately assessed residential condominium dwelling units.

2. The parcel size is 2,240 square feet and the gross building area is 8,900 square feet.

3. The site which comprises the subject property currently consists of the tax lot designated on DOF records as block 1181 lot 60 in Brooklyn, which was classified in Tax Class 1 as a single family home for tax year 2024/25 and was recently re-classified to Tax Class 2A as a residential apartment building with five (5) dwelling units for tax year 2025/26.

4. Construction commenced in September 2021 and is expected to be completed sometime in 2025. As there is currently no Certificate of Occupancy or Temporary Certificate of Occupancy for the subject property, the anticipated completion of construction will be subsequent to the January 5, 2025 taxable status date and closing of the City's books for tax year 2025/26. Therefore, we estimate that the City's assessment roll for 2025/26 tax year will not fully reflect the post construction value of the newly constructed building.

5. Once construction has been completed, the property will consist of a single condominium with five (5) separately assessed residential condominium tax lots for each residential dwelling unit. It is anticipated that DOF will again reclassify the property to Tax Class 2C subsequent to approval of the condominium regime of ownership, subdivision of lot 60 into five (5) separate tax lots, and filing of the Condominium Declaration in the City Register.

6. The first year of condominium operation is scheduled to extend from July 1, 2025 through June 30, 2026. As this period corresponds with the City's 2025/26 fiscal tax year, real estate taxes due for the first year of condominium operation will, therefore, be based upon the assessed value of the tax lot for tax year 2025/26. However, as set forth above, real estate taxes due for the first year of condominium operation will not be based upon an assessment roll that fully reflects the full market value of the newly constructed and completed building.

The assessment for 2025/26 does not represent a final post-construction assessment, and property taxes will be higher than the estimates set forth herein for the first year of condominium operation for subsequent fiscal years since, as of this date, we cannot predict with certainty the date of completion of construction and/or when a Temporary or Final Certificate of Occupancy will be issued.

Real property tax assessments are subjective determinations made by individual assessors within DOF. Accordingly, it is impossible to predict what the assessed value of the above- referenced property will be. However, it is possible to estimate an approximate assessed value of a property based upon an analysis of a number of factors that influence market value, such as location, construction cost, neighborhood quality, and economic and market trends. These factors also include hypothetical valuation of the condominium as if it were a rental property, as required pursuant to Section 581 of the New York Real Property Tax Law. Other factors include assessments and income performance of comparable buildings as well as the policies of DOF and that agency's Assessment Guidelines. All of these factors have been examined in our analysis.

There are three recognized appraisal methods which are employed by DOF to determine the full market value of real property. These methods are the original cost method, capitalization of income approach and the sales price comparison method.

The original cost method is based upon the theory that the value of a given property is reflected by its cost of construction plus the acquisition cost of the underlying land. This method of valuation is considered a significant indicator of value with respect to newly constructed buildings. Relevant data used in the cost method includes material and labor ("hard") costs, and financing, engineering, architectural, testing and professional fees and construction period taxes ("soft") costs.

The capitalization of income method is based upon the proposition that the annual net income or imputed net income generated by a property, when divided by the rate of return an investor at a given time would accept for his money in a competing investment, yields a close estimate of the market value of property. DOF has also used gross income multipliers to value residential property.

The sales price comparison method is founded upon the belief that value can be ascertained by surveying market prices of comparable properties. Market value has been defined as that price which a property would bring in a competitive and open market, wherein both buyer and seller are acting prudently, knowledgeably and assuming the price is not affected by undue stimulus. However, the addition of sale prices of individual condominium units may not be the basis for arriving at the assessed valuation of a residential condominium or cooperative housing corporation.

With regard to the Project, Section 581 of the Real Property Tax Law requires that DOF assess residential condominiums without regard to their form of ownership. This requirement has been interpreted to mean that cooperatives and condominiums are to be assessed as if they were rental properties, thus requiring a valuation based upon the capitalization of imputed income utilizing market rents imputed from the subject and comparable rental properties.

In estimating the assessed valuations herein, we examined comparable market rents from other apartment buildings throughout Brooklyn. In addition, we have also studied the assessed values of comparable residential condominium buildings throughout Brooklyn. These comparable assessment studies have enabled us to ascertain the current assessing policies of DOF with regard to condominium residential buildings. However, there are no assurances that these policies will remain unchanged, or that the indicators of market value will not be adjusted prior to the completion of the referenced project, resulting in an assessment differing from the estimates contained herein. Comparable assessment studies generally indicate that the City's assessment of converted or newly constructed residential condominiums is often lower than what would normally be indicated by actual market rents and the capitalization of income method. All prospective purchasers are, therefore, advised that, although our estimate of the property's assessed valuation upon completion is a good faith estimate, the assessment when actually made, may be higher or lower than as estimated herein. In the event DOF imputes market rents for the building, the resultant assessed values may be significantly greater than as projected herein.

In arriving at the assessed valuation for each unit in the condominium, the building is first assessed in its entirety. This overall assessment is then apportioned among the respective units, each of which will be assigned a tax lot designation once the Condominium Declaration has been recorded with the City Register.

In the past, it had been the general practice and procedure of DOF to apportion the residential assessments within a condominium based upon their relative sales price as set forth in the initial Offering Plan, i.e., the proportion of the projected selling price presented in the Offering Plan that each residential unit bears to the gross sellout price for all residential units. However, more recently DOF has revised the prior practice and is currently allocating assessed value for the residential units within a condominium based upon each unit's undivided percentage interest in the common elements ("common interest"). We make no representations that DOF will use any particular method to apportion the building's total assessed valuation among the units.

After the units are separately assessed, each unit will be taxed as a separate lot for real estate tax purposes by DOF. A unit owner will not be responsible for unpaid taxes on any other units, nor will any unit owner be subjected to any lien arising from the non-payment of taxes on any other units.

There is no assurance that the taxing authority will allocate taxes based upon relative apartment size, apartment height, and unit-specific features. It is, therefore, possible that owners of units having the same percentage of common interest could pay different amounts of real estate taxes.

Schedule A allocates the estimated real estate taxes payable by unit owners according to each unit's percentage of common interest for the fiscal period designated. However, it is possible that DOF may allocate assessments on a basis that differs from each unit's percentage of common interest.

Due to the fact that the building is nearing the end of construction, DOF, pursuant to the "Progress Law", reflected a temporary progress assessment removal reducing the assessment of the subject property to a land only assessment of 28,547 on the final 2025/26 assessment roll. DOF may temporarily remove a building assessment contingent on factors such as estimated completion date and property type.

The Assessed Valuation for the subject property on the 2025/26 Final Assessment roll is set forth below:

Tax Year	Assessment
2025/26 (7-1-25 to 6-30-26)	28,547 (land only)

New York City assesses property on an annual basis and is required by law to assess properties for each upcoming fiscal tax year, which runs from July 1 through June 30, based upon its use and condition as of the preceding taxable status date, January 5, of each fiscal year. Annual increases or decreases in assessed value resulting from demolition, construction or other physical changes to the property, i.e., "physical" or "alteration" changes, are taxable the year they are levied with no phase-in. For Tax Class 2 residential properties with ten (10) or fewer units, annual assessment increases not resulting from physical changes, i.e., construction, are limited to 8% per year or 30% over a five (5) year period. These are referred to as "equalization" changes. Real property taxes for unit owners are calculated based upon the assessments of each unit multiplied by the applicable tax rate for any given fiscal year.

As of January 5, 2025, which is the basis for the property's 2025/26 assessed value (July 1, 2025 - June 30, 2026), you have advised that a Certificate of Occupancy or Temporary Certificate of Occupancy has not been issued. As a result, the taxes due for the first year of condominium operation will not reflect real estate taxes for the fully completed building. However, although we cannot predict with any degree of certainty the impact on the assessment based upon the current construction schedule or the exact date on which the building will be ready for occupancy, the taxable assessed value for 2025/26 is currently 28,547.

Since it is impossible to predict with certainty that construction will remain on schedule as of this date, we recommend that prospective purchasers read this opinion in conjunction with any updated Amendments to the Offering Plan and real estate tax opinion(s) based upon new assessments or DOF increases by Notice when they are issued. We also recommend that prospective purchasers consult with their independent counsel and review the public record, assessment roll and property tax history for this property online by visiting:

For residential condominium properties with less than ten (10) units, separately assessed residential condominium units are treated as Tax Class 2C. The current tax rate for Tax Class 2C is 12.500%. Since tax rates can and have changed annually, both increasing and decreasing based upon a number of factors, for purposes of our projection, we have used the current tax rate for Tax Class 2C. The assessment for each unit is multiplied by the tax rate to derive the real estate tax for each unit.

Set forth below are the estimated real estate taxes for fiscal years 2025/26 and 2026/27 (without regard to any potential real estate tax exemptions or abatement benefits that may apply or for which prospective purchasers may be eligible) and utilizing the current tax rate, allocated based upon the percentage of common elements set forth on Schedule A:

2025/26	Unit	Percentage of Common Interest	Estimated Tax Liability
	1	24%	$ 856
	3	17%	$ 607
	4	21%	$ 749
	5	21%	$ 749
		100%	$3,568

2026/27	Unit	Percentage of Common Interest	Estimated Tax Liability
	1	24%	$32,191
	2	17%	$ 22,801
	3	17%	$22,801
	4	21%	$28,166
	5	21%	$28,166
		100%	$134,125

Estimated Real Estate Taxes for Tax Year 2025/26
During which Completion of Construction is Anticipated

For purposes of our analysis, we estimate that, based upon the January 5, 2025 taxable status date governing the 2025/26 assessment roll, and based upon the fact that a Certificate of Occupancy or Temporary Certificate of Occupancy has not been issued prior to the final 2025/26 assessment roll, the subject property has not been assessed as a completed building reflecting full market value. The property is assessed as a Tax Class 2A residential building still under construction. The Taxable Assessed Value is 28,547 based upon the 2025/26 Final Assessment roll. The 2025/26 Taxable Assessed Value is multiplied by the estimated residential Tax Class 2 tax rate of 12.5% to arrive at the 2025/26 tax liability of $3,568 for the first year of condominium operation.

Estimated Real Estate Taxes for Tax Year 2026/27

Post Completion of Construction

For purposes of our analysis; we have estimated that as of the January 5, 2026 taxable status date governing the 2026/27 assessment roll, the building will likely be assessed as a completed building reflecting full market value. We estimate that the 2026/27 Taxable Assessment of 311 Eastern Parkway inclusive of the five (5) residential condominium units will be 1,073,000. The estimated 2026/27 Taxable Assessed Value will be multiplied by the estimated residential Tax Class 2 tax rate of 12.5% to arrive at the estimated 2026/27 tax liability of $134,125, which falls within the second year of condominium operation, July 1, 2026 - June 30, 2027.

Tax Year	Estimated Taxable Assessment	Estimated Tax Rate	Estimated Fiscal Year Taxes	First Year of Condo Operation Est. Taxes	Second Year of Condo Operation Est. Taxes

2026/27	1,073,000	12.5%	$134,125	$134,125

For our projections, we have placed greatest weight on the comparable assessment study method. The comparable assessment studies generally indicated that DOF's assessment of newly constructed condominiums is often lower than what would normally be indicated by the capitalization of income method based upon market rents. These comparable assessment studies have enabled us to ascertain the current assessing policies of DOF with regard to newly constructed residential buildings. There are no assurances, however, that these policies will remain unchanged, or that the indicators of market value will not be adjusted prior to completion of the Project, resulting in an assessment differing substantially from the estimates contained herein. There are wide variations in valuation estimates made by DOF for similar and comparable buildings. Accordingly, the assessments and taxes actually imposed on the Project may be significantly greater or less than as estimated herein. All prospective purchasers are further advised that although the estimate of assessed valuation upon completion of construction is a good faith estimate, such assessed valuation, when actually made by DOF, may be significantly more or less than as estimated herein. We have not undertaken to advise you if we become aware of changes in DOF's assessments, assessment policies and practices or changes in the relevant statutes, law, rules or judicial precedents.

The above estimates do not take into account any uptrends in value and/or future increases in the level of assessed value applied to residential property or any increase in real estate tax rates, and Jeffrey Golkin Partners make no representations that the assessed value of the property, the estimated allocations or the tax rates will not be changed. Prospective purchasers are advised that while there are formulas which have been utilized by DOF in assessing properties in the past, such approaches by DOF have not been employed consistently and it is, therefore, not possible to estimate or determine the post-construction assessed valuation of the subject property with any degree of certainty. All prospective purchasers are, therefore, advised that, although the estimates of assessed valuation upon completion of construction are good faith estimates, such assessed valuations when actually made by DOF may be higher or lower than as estimated herein.

The above projections are based upon our understanding of the policies, procedures, and practices of DOF and are not intended to be a guarantee or assurance that the tax assessments estimated herein will be derived by DOF. Actual real estate taxes may be higher or lower. While we believe our projections are well founded, they are not intended, nor should they be construed as representations or warranties that the assessments and taxes will be determined by DOF as set forth herein. The foregoing analysis is based upon interpretation of the New York State Real Property Tax Law, the Administrative Code of the City of New York, and our experience with DOF and the New York City Tax Commission, and their assessment practices and policies regarding newly constructed residential condominium projects. Application of a particular approach to valuation by an individual assessor and DOF may yield a significantly different result. The above opinion is not intended to be a guarantee or assurance that the actual tax assessments and actual real estate taxes will be as estimated herein.

No representation is made that the current policies and practices of DOF will apply at the time the building is completed. You should be aware that the laws, regulations, policies and practices of DOF upon which our projections are predicated may in the future be revised in a manner adverse to the interests of prospective purchasers, and that there could be an adverse interpretation of the law or regulations by one or more agencies of the City of New York, or courts of competent jurisdiction.

This letter was prepared at the request of the Sponsor, 311 Eastern Parkway LLC. The figures set forth herein are approximations derived from information and material submitted to us by Sponsor and are subject to variation. No government agency reviewed or approved these figures or the estimates contained in the Offering Plan, and we offer no warranties on real estate taxes for any period.

We hereby consent to the inclusion of this letter in the Offering Plan.

W. INCOME TAX DEDUCTIONS TO UNIT OWNERS AND TAX STATUS OF THE CONDOMINIUM

The Sponsor has been advised by its attorneys, Vallely Mitola Ryan PLLC, 6851 Jericho Turnpike, Suite 165, Syosset, NY 11791 that for Federal income tax purposes, under Sections 163 and 164 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, a Unit Owner will be entitled to a deduction for interest paid or accrued with respect to any mortgage indebtedness encumbering the Unit(s) and for real estate taxes paid or accrued with respect to the Unit. It is also the opinion of Sponsor's Attorney that each Unit Owner for New York State and New York City income tax purposes, will be entitled to a deduction equivalent to that which is allowed for Federal income tax purposes for such mortgage interest and real estate taxes paid or accrued during the taxable year.

It should be noted, however, that such deductions may be limited if (among other events): (i) the Unit is not occupied by the Unit Owner as his or her first or second home; (ii) mortgage indebtedness exceeds the purchase price of the Unit (plus the costs of any improvements thereto); (iii) the Unit is utilized for professional or business use or for the production of income; and/or (iv) the Unit Owner is subject to Alternative Minimum Tax.

Specific exemptions from real estate taxes may be available for veterans, senior citizens, or government rebate programs. Purchasers are advised to consult their attorneys to determine if this or any other exemption may be available to them. All Purchasers are advised to consult with their counsel to determine their tax liability for the particular circumstances.

It is the opinion of Sponsor's Attorney that a Unit Owner who itemizes his/her deductions and whose Unit is used by him/her for residential purposes will, for Federal income tax purposes, be entitled to a deduction limited to $10,000.00 ($5,000.00 in the case of a married individual filing a separate return) for real estate taxes incurred with respect to his/her Unit in the year paid under Section 164 of the Code. The Federal limitation on the deduction for real estate taxes applies in the aggregate to state and local income taxes paid as well. Thus, the maximum amount a Unit owner may deduct for real estate taxes and state and local income taxes combined is $10,000.00 ($5,000.00 in the case of a married individual filing a separate return). Though the foregoing limitation is in effect as of the date of filing of the Plan, neither the Sponsor nor Sponsor's Attorney make any representation as to whether the same will be in effect, or what the Internal Revenue Code or state or local tax code will provide, at any time in the future, as such applicable law is subject to change without notice.

Each Unit Owner's proportionate share of the income received by the Condominium Board will either be includable by the Unit Owner as taxable income for Federal and New York State income tax purposes or taxed on the Condominium itself. If the Condominium is required to pay taxes, the amount thereof will be levied as an additional Common Charge. In such event this additional Common Charge may also be subject to tax.

Under Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code, a Condominium may be eligible to be exempt from taxation on Common Charges collected from the Unit Owners, provided the requirements of Section 528 are met. One of the requirements to be met is that at least eighty-five percent (85%) of the total square footage of the Units must be used by individuals as residences or (if unoccupied) zoned for individuals as residences. As currently used, the Condominium meets this criterion and therefore, the Condominium may elect to be taxed as a homeowners association under Section 528.

The Sponsor remains obligated to revise and/or update the Plan by amendment to disclose any new law, regulation, or policy that may be new or revised while sales activity is being conducted.

The opinion of Sponsor's Attorney is not a guarantee. It is based upon existing rules of law applied to the facts and documents referred to above. No assurances can be given that the tax laws upon which Sponsor's Attorney based this opinion will not change. In no event will the Sponsor, the Sponsor's Attorney, the Condominium Board, the selling agent, managing agent (if any) or any other person be liable if the Unit Owners cease to meet the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the New York State tax law, as amended, if there are changes in the facts on which Sponsor's Attorney relied in issuing its opinion, or if there are changes in the applicable statutes or regulations. Purchasers are advised to consult with a tax expert regarding whether the new law will affect the purchaser's taxes. Purchasers should not rely on any representations in this Plan addressing taxes without first consulting a tax expert.

X. COUNSEL'S INCOME TAX OPINION LETTER

September 15, 2025

311 Eastern Parkway LLC
1140 Avenue of the Americas, 9th Floor
New York, NY 10036

Re: Offering Plan for 311 Eastern Parkway Condominium
311 Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn, NY 11238

Gentleman:

You have requested our opinion concerning (i) the availability of certain deductions for Federal, New York State and New York City income tax purposes to persons who purchase Units for private residential use ("Unit Owners") under the Plan and (ii) proper treatment by the Condominium Board for such income tax purposes of the Common Charges paid or borne by all Unit Owners. Except where otherwise indicated herein, the terms used in this opinion has the same meanings as in the Plan.

The condominium units of 311 Eastern Parkway Condominium will be organized under the laws of the State of New York for the purpose of providing for the management, maintenance and care of a multistory residential building at 311 Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn, New York. The building will contain five (5) residential units. The By-Laws provide that in addition to the status conferred upon the Condominium Board pursuant to the provisions of the New York Condominium Act, to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Condominium Board is deemed to constitute an unincorporated association for all purposes under the provisions of the General Association Law of the State of New York.

In this connection, we have reviewed the Plan, relevant sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Code"), the New York State Tax Law, the New York City Administrative Code ('Tax Law"), the regulations ("Regulations") promulgated thereunder and such other materials as we have deemed relevant as they exist as of the date hereof, and we have assumed that the closing under the Plan will occur in 2019 pursuant to said Code, Tax Law and Regulations as they currently exist.

I. Deductions for Mortgage Interest and Real Estate Taxes

A Unit Owner will own his/her Unit and its Appurtenant Interest in the Common Elements in fee simple. Accordingly, each Unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes and the Unit Owner will be individually liable for the payment of such real estate taxes. A Unit Owner, pursuant to the terms of the Offering Plan, may also mortgage such Unit(s) and become individually liable for the payment of any finance charges or interest on such mortgage indebtedness.

In our opinion, a non-corporate Residential Unit Owner who itemizes his/her deductions will be entitled to a deduction in computing his/her taxable income for Federal income tax purposes for bona fide mortgage interest incurred with respect to his/her Unit in the year paid provided that (a) the indebtedness is incurred in acquiring, constructing or improving the Unit, (b) the indebtedness is secured by the Unit, (c) the indebtedness does not exceed $750,000.00, or $375,000.00 in case of a married individual filing a separate return, and (d) the Unit is a "qualified residence." Interest paid on indebtedness that refinances indebtedness incurred to acquire, construct or improve a Unit is similarly deductible. A Unit will be "qualified residence" if it is either (i) the Owner's "principal residence" within the meaning of Code Section 121 or (ii) a residence as defined by Code Section 280A(d)(1) that the Owner selects as a qualified residence. Thus, a single taxpayer or a married couple filing a joint return may have two, and only two, qualified residences. In the case of a married couple filing separate returns, each taxpayer may take into account a single "qualified residence," unless by written agreement they consent to one of them taking into account a principal residence and one other residence. Under Section 461(g) of the Code, no deduction will be allowed to a cash basis taxpayer in the year of payment for prepaid interest (other than points paid in certain cases).

In our opinion, a Residential Unit Owner who itemizes his/her deductions and whose Unit is used by him/her for residential purposes will, for Federal income tax purposes, be entitled to a deduction limited to $10,000.00 ($5,00.00 in the case of a married individual filing a separate return) for real estate taxes incurred with respect to his/her Unit in the year paid under Section 164 of the Code. The Federal limitation on the deduction for real estate taxes applies in the aggregate to state and local income taxes paid as well. Thus, the maximum amount a Residential Unit owner may deduct for real estate taxes and state and local income taxes combined is $10,000.00 ($5,00.00 in the case of a married individual filing a separate return).

It is also our opinion that each Unit Owner whose Unit is used in an active profession and/or trade or business, other than the rental of such Unit, in which the Unit Owner materially participates, will, for Federal income tax purposes, be entitled to a deduction for the full amount of real estate taxes incurred with respect to his/her Unit in the year paid under Section 164 of the Code.

Other rules are applicable to a Unit Owner if the Unit is to be used in a trade or business or is to be held for rental. In these cases, the Tax Reform Act of 1986 will have broad impact, and no opinion is offered as to the consequences to such Residential Unit Owner.

It is also our opinion that each Residential Unit Owner will, for New York State and New York City income tax purposes, be entitled to the same deduction which is allowed for Federal income tax purposes, be entitled to the same deduction which is allowed for the taxable year. Section 615 of the New York State Tax Law; Section 11.1715 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York. However, in the case of a Residential Unit Owner whose New York State of New York City adjusted gross income exceeds $100,000.00, the amount of such deduction may be reduced by up to Twenty-Five (25%) of such deduction.

In addition to the Federal limitations on itemized deductions noted above, the benefit of a Unit Owner's deductions for interest and real estate taxes may be further reduced if the Unit Owner is subject to the Federal alternative minimum tax. Section 55 of the Code. It should also be noted that state and local taxes, including real estate taxes, are not deductible for purposes of calculating an individual's federal alternative minimum taxable income.

It should be noted that our opinion as to the availability of deductions to a Unit Owner with respect to mortgage interest and real estate taxes in connection with his/her Unit used in an active profession and/or trade or business, other than the rental of such unit, is based on the assumption that such owner will have "at risk" within the meaning of Section 465 of the Code, in such profession, trade or business, an amount equal to, or in excess of his/her losses in connection with said profession, trade or business, including such deduction.

II. Common Charges

Common Charges will be borne by the Unit Owners and assessed and collected by the Condominium Board.

Under Section 528, added to the Code by the Tax Reform Act of 1976, some Condominium Boards may be eligible to be exempt from tax on Common Charges collected from the Unit Owner's, provided the requirements of Section 528 are met. These requirements are further discussed below.

If the Condominium qualifies as a condominium management association within the meaning of Section 528 of the Code, it may elect not be subject to Federal income tax on amounts received as membership dues, common charges, fees or assessments from Residential Owners. However, even if the election is made, the Condominium will remain liable for Federal income tax on any taxable income it may have from other sources such as interest earned on any reserve funds (less expenses directly connected with the production of such income).

To qualify as a condominium management association, the Condominium must meet all of the following conditions: (1) it must be organized and operated to provide for the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance and care of association property, (2) at least Sixty (60%) of its gross income for each taxable year must consist solely of amounts received as membership dues, fees or assessments from Residential Unit Owners, (3) Ninety (90%) or more of its expenditures for each taxable year must be made for the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance and care of association property, (4) no part of its net earnings can inure to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual (other than by acquiring, constructing, or providing management, maintenance, and care of association property, and other than by rebate of excess membership dues, fees, or assessments), (5) the Condominium must annually elect to be treated as a condominium management association, and (6) at least Eight-Five (85%) of the total square footage of all Units within the Condominium must be used by individuals for residential purposes. See Treasury Regulation Section 1.528-4(b). The qualification of an organization under the provisions of Section 528 is to be determined annually at the close of each taxable year and it is possible, therefore, that if the Condominium does not qualify in one year, it may nevertheless, qualify in one or more future years.

Based upon the information contained in Schedule A, the Description of the Property and Improvements and Floor Plans to the Plan, we can affirmatively opine that the Property will qualify as a condominium management association under Section 528 of the Code and therefore the Condominium will be eligible to elect to be treated as a condominium management association under Section 528 of the Code.

Even if the Condominium Board is eligible to make Section 528 election, it would still be subject to tax on any income not received as assessments or other such payment from Unit Owners; thus, if the Condominium Board realized interest prior to the enactment of Section 528 ("existing law").

Under existing law, the tax status of the Condominium Board is uncertain. The By-Laws provide that the Condominium Board will act as the agent of the Unit Owners. Thus, the Condominium Board may take the position that it is simply a conduit for receipts and payments of the Unit Owners for whom it acts as an agent and not a separate entity. In such case, the Unit Owners would themselves be taxable on any interest or similar income which is earned from investments of the amounts which are assessed and collected from the Unit Owners and/or held as reserve funds.

However, the Internal Revenue Service may contend that for purposes of those matters administered through the Condominium Board, constitute an association taxable as a corporation. In such event, such association may be deemed subject to Federal corporate income tax (and also New York State and New York City corporate taxes) on the portion of the Common Charges which is deemed to constitute gross income of such association, to the extent that such portion (together with any income earned from other sources, such as interim investments of funds by such association) exceeds the current expenses paid or incurred through the Condominium Board which are deductible for Federal income tax purposes.

In this connection, published rulings indicate that Common Charges which are assessed by the Condominium Board and designated for use solely to make specified capital improvements and which are maintained in a separate bank account should not constitute gross income to such Condominium Board, either because it is deemed to receive and hold such Common Charges as agent for the Unit Owners from whom the assessments were collected, Rev. Rul. 75-370, 1975-2 Cum. Bull. 25, or because the assessed Common Charges are deemed to be nontaxable contributions to the capital of the association. Rev. Rul. 75-370, 1975-2 Cum. Bull. 25, or because the assessed Common Charges are deemed to be nontaxable contributions to the capital of the association. Rev. Rul. 75-371, 1975-2 Cum. Bull. 52 Cf. Concord Village, Inc., 65 T.C. 142 (1975). However, if treated as contributions to the capital of the association, if should be noted that when such amounts (together with any funds accumulated by the association) are expended for capital improvements, the Internal Revenue Service may contend that the capital expenditures benefit the Unit Owners, and that each Unit Owner should therefore be treated as receiving a distribution equal to the fair market value of that benefit; under the usual rule applicable to distributions of associations, a distribution is first treated as ordinary income to the extent of the distributee's proportionate share of the associations earnings and profits, then as a tax-free recovery of basis to the extent thereof, and the balance, if any, as capital gain.

In this connection, it should be noted that if the Condominium Board is determined to be a separate taxable entity for Federal income tax purposes, it is possible that the limitations of Section 277 may be found to apply. If this were the case, the Condominium Board's income from sources other than Unit Owner's, if any, could not be offset by the Condominium Board's expenses incurred in the provision of services to Unit Owners. It is unclear how interest or other income earned on the investment of a required reserve fund would be treated for this purpose; if such income were treated as not derived from the Unit Owner's in consideration of services rendered to them by the Condominium Board, then such income may not be reduced by the Condominium Board's operating expenses with respect to the property and may result in a liability for taxes.

In the event that the Condominium Board is required to pay any Federal, New York State or New York City income tax, and the Condominium Board makes an additional assessment in order to meet this tax liability, it should be noted that the additional amount collected through such assessment may itself be subject to tax. See, Old Colony Trust Co. v. Commission, 279 U.S. 716 (1929); Rev. Rul. 74-75. Cum. Bull. 19; Rev. Rul. 86-14 I.R.B. 1986-5, 33.

We express no views as to any Federal, New York State and/or New York City tax consequences or as to any aspects of the Plan other than those consequences and aspects explicitly discussed in this opinion, or as to any tax status of the Plan or Unit under the laws of any other U.S. or foreign jurisdiction.

Thus, this opinion does not deal with tax consequences which may result from ownership of a Unit in connection with the Unit Owner's trade or business, other than as set forth herein, or for purposes of investment or the production of income, or which may impact a foreign Unit Owner by reason of his/her foreign status. This opinion also does not deal with the tax consequences which may arise if Units or Limited Common Elements are acquired and/or leased by the Condominium Board. It is also to be noted that under certain circumstances an owner of any residential Unit, by virtue of such ownership, may be deemed to become a resident of New York City and that this opinion does not deal with the circumstances that may arise therefrom. Thus, each person contemplating the purchase of a Unit is strongly advised to consult his/her own tax advisor as to all such tax matters (as well as with respect to the tax matters discussed in this opinion).

In our opinion, Unit Owners will be entitled to income tax deductions. However, this opinion is not a guarantee; it is based on existing rules of law applied to the facts and documents referred to above. No assurances can be given that the tax laws upon which counsel base this opinion will not change. In no event will the Sponsor, the Sponsor's counsel, the Condominium Board or any other person be liable if there are changes in the facts on which counsel relied in issuing this opinion or if there are any changes in the applicable statutes, regulations, decisional law or Internal Revenue Service rulings on which counsel relied which cause Unit Owners not to be entitled to income tax deductions.

This opinion has been prepared with knowledge that it will be incorporated into the Plan.

Very truly yours,

Vallely Mitola Ryan PLLC

Y. RESERVE FUND

The Condominium Budget for the First Year of Operation does not include funding for a separate Reserve Fund. A Reserve Fund is normally used for accruing funds for major capital improvements which may need repair or replacement whereas the contingency line item for any unforeseen expense. As the Condominium is a newly constructed building, it is not anticipated that there will be any major capital repairs or replacements within the first five (5) years of the Condominium operations. This does not comply with Federal National Mortgage Association (FNMA) requirements and certain banks may not be willing to grant a mortgage on a Unit in the Condominium because they are unable to sell the mortgage to FNMA or have it guaranteed.

NEITHER THE DEPARTMENT OF LAW NOR ANY OTHER GOVERNMENT AGENCY HAS PASSED UPON THE ADEQUACY OF THE RESERVE FUND.

Z. WORKING CAPITAL FUND

The Sponsor, as agent of the Condominium Board, will collect from each original Purchaser at the time of the Closing an "Initial Capital Payment" equal to two (2) months' estimated common charges for each unit. The Sponsor will deliver the funds so collected to the Condominium Board to provide the necessary working capital for the Condominium.

The Sponsor will not be obligated to make any contribution to the Working Capital Fund, except to the extent it is funded by payment of Common Charges. Such funds may be used for certain prepaid items, organizational costs, and for such other purposes as the Condominium Board may determine and may be replenished as the Board sees fit. While Sponsor is in control of the Condominium Board, the Working Capital Fund will not be used to reduce Common Chargers. The Condominium Board will be able to utilize the money in the Working Capital Fund at any time and accordingly, no representation or warranty can be made and no assurance can be given as to the exact amount of funds available at any specific time; provided however, that in no event shall any portion of the Working Capital Fund be used to pay any Common Charges attributed to Unsold Units.

NO REPRESENTATION IS MADE THAT THE INITIAL WORKING CAPITAL FUND WILL BE ADEQUATE TO COVER CURRENT OR FUTURE EXPENSES, INCLUDING REPAIRS OR REPLACEMENTS, AND IF ADDITIONAL FUNDS ARE REQUIRED OVER AND ABOVE THE INITIAL CAPITAL FUND, IT MAY BE NECESSARY FOR THE CONDOMINIUM BOARD TO INCREASE THE CHARGES.

NEITHER THE DEPARTMENT OF LAW NOR ANY OTHER GOVERNMENT AGENCY HAS PASSED UPON THE ADEQUACY OF THE INITIAL WORKING CAPITAL FUND.

Upon the cancellation of this Agreement, Purchaser and

In the event any sums due hereunder are delivered to Escrow Agent by wire transfer, all fees charged by the initiating bank and the receiving bank shall be paid by Purchaser.

4. DEPOSIT TO BE HELD IN TRUST

The Deposit and all other deposits or advances made by Purchaser prior to Closing shall be held in a segregated Escrow Account held by Vallely Mitola Ryan PLLC, as Escrow Agent pursuant to an Escrow Agreement between Sponsor, Escrow Agent and Purchaser, in the form set forth in Part II Section D of the Plan in accordance with the escrow and trust provisions of Sections 352(h) and 352- e(2)(b) of the New York General Business Law and the escrow regulations promulgated thereunder by the Department of Law of the State of New York as disclosed in Section IX of the Offering Plan.

All monies received by Sponsor through its agents or employees pursuant to this Agreement will be deposited in an account of Escrow Agent at Esquire Bank, located at 20 Old Country Road, #102, Garden City, New York 11530, in the State of New York, in an account or accounts entitled "311 Eastern Parkway Condominium Escrow Account" or similar name, which account or accounts shall be interest-bearing for the benefit of the Purchaser in accordance with Section 71-a(3) of the Lien Law. Such funds will be disbursed only upon the signature of Counsel for the Sponsor as follows: (i) to Sponsor if the Plan is declared effective and title closes hereunder or if Purchaser defaults hereunder; or (ii) to Purchaser if the plan is abandoned or withdrawn or title does not close because of Sponsor's default, or this Agreement is canceled (without default by either party) in accordance with its terms. The Deposit, with any accumulated interest, shall remain the property of the Purchaser except as provided by law.

The Deposit will be retained in the Escrow Account as set forth above until: (i) Sponsor performs under the terms of the Purchase Agreement; (ii) Purchaser rescinds or defaults in performance, thereby excusing performance by Sponsor; (iii) release or discharge of Sponsor's liability to refund such Deposit (iv) upon transfer of title to the Unit to the Purchaser; or (v) by mutual consent of Sponsor and Purchaser.

The parties acknowledge that the Escrow Agent for the Deposit is also counsel for the Sponsor. Purchaser agrees that in case of any dispute relating to the disposition of the Deposit, counsel for the Sponsor may continue to represent the Sponsor. The provisions of Exhibit 13 of Part II of the Plan are incorporated herein.

5. CLOSING DATE AND PLACE

5.1 The Closing of Title shall be held at the offices of Vallely Mitola Ryan PLLC, 6851 Jericho Turnpike, Suite 165, Syosset, NY 11791 (or such other place in the City and State of New York as Sponsor may designate to Purchaser) and on such date and hour as Sponsor may designate to Purchaser on not less than thirty (30) days' prior notice ("Initial Closing Notice"). After the Initial Closing Notice, Sponsor may, from time to time, adjourn such date and hour for Closing at any time on notice to Purchaser, which notice shall fix a new date (and hour and place, if appropriate) for the Closing of Title. The rescheduled Closing shall not be earlier than (a) the date set forth in the Initial Closing Notice, or (b) 5 days from the date of Sponsor's Closing adjournment notice. Only the Initial Closing Notice shall require 30 days' prior written notice. These notice provisions may be modified or waived by an agreement signed by Sponsor and Purchaser.

5.2 Sponsor anticipates that the first closing of a unit will occur by January 1, 2026. Purchasers will be offered a right of rescission if: (i) the actual date of closing of title to the first unit; or (ii) the projected date of closing of title to the first unit occurs later than November 1, 2025, twelve months after the projected date for the first closing. If the Plan is amended to provide for a later projected date for the first closing, purchasers will be entitled to an offer of rescission if the first closing occurs more than 12 months beyond that amended, later date.

However, if the first unit closing occurs before January 1, 2026, the Sponsor may schedule the closings of title to other units significantly later than such date. Unless your Purchase Agreement contains an outside closing date, the Sponsor is not obligated to schedule your closing within any specified time frame or to ensure that closing of title to your Unit will occur by any date certain.

5.3 The term "Closing Date", "Closing", "Closing of Title", or words of similar import, whenever used herein, shall mean the date on which the deed to the Unit is delivered to Purchaser.

5.4 The Closing of Title shall occur only concurrently with or after compliance with the prerequisites to Closing in the Section of the Plan entitled "Terms of Sale."

6. CLOSING DOCUMENTS

6.1 At the Closing of Title, Sponsor shall deliver to Purchaser a bargain and sale deed with covenants against grantor's acts conveying fee simple title to the Unit to Purchaser, which deed shall be in substantially the form contained in Part II of the Plan, and Sponsor and Purchaser shall execute the deed and have the same acknowledged, in form for recording. Purchaser shall pay all New York State and New York City real property transfer taxes (including, without limitation, if applicable, the New York State Additional Tax pursuant to Article 31 of the Tax Law, commonly referred to as the "Mansion Tax") and Sponsor and Purchaser shall duly complete and execute before a notary public the New York City and New York State Transfer Tax Return Forms and any other forms then required by law, all of which shall be prepared by the Sponsor.

6.2 At the closing of title, Purchaser shall execute and acknowledge a power of attorney to the Board and Sponsor, prepared by Sponsor and in substantially the form contained in Part II of the Plan.

6.3 At the Closing of Title, Sponsor and Purchaser shall deliver to Purchaser a certification stating that Sponsor is not a foreign person in compliance with IRS Section 6045(e) as amended, or any successor provision or regulation promulgated pursuant thereto.

6.4 At the Closing of Title, Sponsor and Purchaser shall execute and acknowledge in form for recording such other documents that are reasonably necessary or customary in connection with the conveyance of a condominium unit, including, but not limited to, title affidavits, transfer tax forms, reporting of information in respect to real estate transactions, smoke detector affidavit and window guard notice.

6.5 The executed deed and power of attorney shall be delivered to the representative of the Title Company insuring Purchaser's title (or if no representative is present, then to Sponsor's Attorney) for recording in the Register's Office, which recording shall be at Purchaser's expense. After being recorded: (i) the deed shall be returned to Purchaser; and (ii) the power of attorney in favor of the Board shall be returned to the Board (or as the Board shall direct).

6.6 Purchaser's payment of the Balance of the Purchase Price and acceptance of the deed to the Unit shall constitute Purchaser's recognition that Sponsor has fully and satisfactorily performed those obligations stated in the Plan and/or this Agreement to be performed by Sponsor prior to Closing. However, nothing herein contained shall excuse Sponsor from performing those obligations (if any) expressly stated herein or in the Plan to be performed subsequent to the closing, and nothing herein shall be in derogation of the rights and purchasers under Article 23-A of the General Business Law, the Plan or Part 20 of the Regulations issued by the Department of Law.

7. STATUS OF TITLE

7.1 At the Closing of Title, Sponsor shall convey to Purchaser and Purchaser shall accept such fee simple title to the Unit as the Title Company will approve and insure without additional premium subject only to the Permitted Exceptions contained in the Plan. Any lien, encumbrance or condition which is not set forth in Schedule A annexed hereto shall not be an objection to title if: (a) the instrument required to remove it of record is delivered at or prior to the Closing of Title to the proper party or to the Title Company (or such other title company as Purchaser may utilize), together with the recording or filing fee, if any, or (b) The Title Company (or such other title company as Purchaser may utilize) will insure Purchaser, at the company's regular rates and without additional premium, that it will not be collected out of, or enforced against, the Unit.

7.2 Sponsor has obtained construction financing from USC 311 Eastern LLC, 233 Broadway, Suite 1470, New York, New York (the "Construction Lender") to construct the Building. Sponsor will pay, satisfy and otherwise comply with the terms of the loan documents. Before the First Closing, the Construction Lender has agreed to subordinate its liens to the Declaration, will consent to the formation of the Condominium and acknowledge that its mortgage liens will be limited to Unsold Units. In addition, the Unit and each subsequent Unit being conveyed, and its appurtenant Common Interest will be released therefrom by partial release upon payment of the relevant payment as provided in the loan documents. Sponsor has no obligation to market the Units pursuant to the loan documents and there is no minimum number of or percentage of Units which must be under contract before this Plan can be declared effective pursuant to the loan documents. The Construction Lender has set no limits or requirements for Sponsor to rent rather than sell Units. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligation of Sponsor" for further details.)

7.3 Sponsor shall be entitled to adjourn the closing to remove or correct any defect in title which is not set forth in Schedule A. However, if such defect existed at least ten (10) days prior to the Closing and Purchaser, or Purchaser's attorney failed to send Sponsor's Attorney written notice of such defect in title at least ten (10) days prior to the Closing, then, for purposes of Article 11 below, Purchaser shall be deemed at fault for not having sent timely notice and the Closing Adjournment to allow Sponsor to correct or remove such title defect shall be considered as being at the request of Purchaser.

7.4 The covenants in the deed will be solely for the personal benefit of Purchaser and will not inure to the benefit of Purchaser's successors or subrogees. In the event of a claimed breach of any covenant of the grantor contained in the deed, Purchaser must first seek recovery against the Title Company before proceeding against Sponsor, it being agreed that the liability of Sponsor will be limited to any loss or damage not covered by Purchaser's title insurance. In the event that Purchaser elects not to purchase title insurance at Closing, for purposes of this subparagraph, the liability of Sponsor shall be limited to any loss or damage that would not have been covered by the title insurance that was available to Purchaser at the Closing. The terms of any marked-up title binder of any title insurance company authorized to do business in New York State issued in connection with any Unit shall be conclusive evidence of title insurance coverage that was available to Purchaser. The provisions of this Section 6.10 shall survive the Closing of Title or the termination of this Agreement.

8. CLOSING ADJUSTMENTS:

8.1 The following costs with respect to the Unit shall be apportioned between Sponsor and Purchaser as of midnight of the day preceding the Closing Date:

(a) Real estate taxes and assessments, if any (including water charges and sewer rents, if separately assessed), on the basis of the period for which assessed;

(b) Common Charges and assessments for the month in which title closes; and

(c) accrued fees and any other charges pursuant to an interim license or use and occupancy agreement, if any, covering the Unit.

8.2 If the Unit has been separately assessed but the Closing of Title occurs before the tax rate is fixed, adjustment of taxes shall be based upon the latest tax rate applied to the most recent applicable assessed valuation. Installments for real estate tax assessments due after the Closing, if any, shall be paid by Purchaser and shall not be considered a defect of title. If the Unit has not been separately assessed for real estate taxes as of the Closing Date for the then current tax period, the adjustment hereof shall be based upon the assessment for the Property and the percentage interest in the Common Elements appurtenant to the Unit. In addition, Purchaser shall pay the Unit's proportionate share of real estate taxes for the next ensuing tax period and Sponsor will pay such real estate taxes directly to the City of New York. Sponsor will not be obligated to reimburse any Purchaser after Closing on account of any difference between the amount of real estate taxes for the then current period paid by Purchaser at Closing calculated according to the above formula and the actual amount of real estate taxes subsequently billed by the City of New York to such Purchaser (as Unit Owner).

8.3 Purchaser agrees that, if Sponsor obtains a refund for real estate taxes paid (or a credit for such real estate taxes to be paid) on Purchaser's Unit, Purchaser and Sponsor will apportion the refund (as well as the costs and/or fees for obtaining the refund or credit) based on the percentage of time for which the refund or credit is obtained during which each party hereto owned the Unit in question. The provisions of this subsection shall survive the Closing of Title.

8.4 Provided Sponsor is ready, willing and able to close title in accordance with this Agreement, in the event that Purchaser fails to close title to the Unit on the date originally scheduled for the Closing of Title (a) the Closing apportionments described above will be made as of midnight of the day preceding the originally scheduled Closing Date, regardless of when the actual Closing of Title occurs ("Actual Closing Date") and (b) Purchaser will be required to pay to Sponsor, as a reimbursement of Sponsor's increased carrying costs for the Unit by virtue of the delay, and in addition to the other payments to be made to Sponsor under this Agreement and the Plan, (i) an amount equal to .04% of the Purchase Price for each day starting from (and including) the originally scheduled Closing Date to (and including) the Actual Closing Date and (ii) if the Closing is adjourned through no fault of Sponsor, the Purchaser shall be required to pay to Sponsor's Attorney an additional fee of Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars ($750.00) to help defray the cost of preparing for and coordinating the new Closing. Nothing herein shall be construed to mean that the Sponsor must grant an adjournment of title when requested to do so. If, through no fault of Purchaser, Sponsor postpones the originally scheduled Closing Date, these provisions shall apply to the rescheduled Closing Date if Purchaser fails for any reason to close title to the Unit on the rescheduled Closing Date.

8.5 Adjustments and apportionments shall be calculated on the basis of the actual number of days in the period for which payments were made or are due, as the case may be. The "Customs in Respect to Title Closings" recommended by the Real Estate Board of New York, Inc., as amended to date, shall apply to adjustments and other matters therein mentioned, except as aforesaid and as otherwise provided herein or in the Plan.

8.6 Any errors or omissions in calculating apportionments at closing shall be corrected, and payment shall be made to the proper party promptly after discovery. This subsection shall survive the Closing of Title.

9. CLOSING COSTS

In addition to those costs and adjustments described herein, Purchaser shall be required to pay the other closing costs which are Purchaser's responsibility as more particularly described in the Section of the Plan entitled "Closing Costs and Adjustments." All such Closing Costs shall be paid by Purchaser, at Closing, by Purchaser's unendorsed personal certified check or by official bank check, in either event drawn upon a bank that is a member of the New York Clearing House Association.

10. PURCHASER BOUND BY OFFERING PLAN

Purchaser acknowledges having received and read a copy of the Plan including all amendments thereto, if any, filed prior to the date hereof with the Department of Law of the State of New York, at least three (3) business days before submitting this Agreement. If, however, Purchaser did not receive a copy of the Plan at least three (3) business days before submitting this Agreement, Purchaser may rescind this Agreement, by sending written notice of same to Sponsor by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, or by personal delivery, in either case within seven (7) days of Purchaser's submission of this Agreement. The Plan is incorporated herein by reference and made a part hereof with the same force and effect as if set forth herein at length. In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of this Agreement and the Plan, the Plan shall govern, except with respect to express modifications to the terms of the Plan included in this Agreement and agreed to by Sponsor and Purchaser, in which case such modifications will govern. Purchaser hereby adopts, accepts and approves the Plan (including, without limitation, the Declaration, By-Laws and Rules and Regulations contained therein) and agrees to abide and be bound by the terms and conditions thereof, as well as all amendments to the Plan duly filed by Sponsor.

11. DEFAULT BY PURCHASER

11.1 Any of the following shall constitute an "Event of Default" hereunder:

(a) Purchaser's failure to close title to the Unit on the scheduled Closing Date; or

(b) Purchaser's failure to pay the Balance of the Purchase price, or any closing adjustment or closing cost or fee, without limitation, attorney's fees, required to be paid by Purchaser as set forth in the Plan or this Agreement on the Closing Date or the dishonor of any check given by Purchaser to Sponsor; or

(c) Purchaser's failure to pay, perform or observe any of Purchaser's other obligations under this Agreement or the Plan; or

(d) If Purchaser is or becomes the tenant of record of the Unit, Purchaser's failure to pay rent or to otherwise comply with Purchaser's lease or tenancy obligations; or

(e) If Purchaser is or becomes the tenant of record of the Unit and Purchaser vacates or abandons the Unit; or

(f) Purchaser's assignment of any of Purchaser's property for the benefit of creditors, or Purchaser's filing a voluntary petition in bankruptcy; or

(g) If a non-bankruptcy trustee or receiver is appointed over Purchaser or Purchaser's property, or an involuntary petition in bankruptcy is filed against Purchaser; or

(h) Purchaser's assignment or transfer of this Agreement without the prior written consent of Sponsor; or

(i) Purchaser's listing the Unit for sale or rental with any broker or placing or authorizing any listing in any broker's listing system or any other listing service or advertising or otherwise offering, promoting or publicizing the availability of the Unit for sale or rental without Sponsor's prior written consent; or

(j) An Event of Default by Purchaser beyond any applicable grace period under a Purchase Agreement between Purchaser and Sponsor for another Unit at the Property; or

(k) If a judgment or tax lien is filed against Purchaser and Purchaser does not pay or bond the same within thirty (30) days.

11.2 TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE with respect to Purchaser's obligations to pay the Balance of the Purchase Price and to pay, perform or observe Purchaser's other obligations under this Agreement. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default, Sponsor in its sole discretion, may elect by written notice to cancel this Agreement. If Sponsor elects to cancel this Agreement, Purchaser shall have thirty (30) days from the giving of the termination notice within which the Purchaser must cure the specified default. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE to cure such default within said thirty (30) days period. If the default is not cured within such thirty (30) days, then this Agreement shall be deemed automatically cancelled and Sponsor shall have the right to retain, as and for liquidated damages, the Deposit plus the costs incurred by Sponsor for any special work, if any, in the Unit ordered by the Purchaser, together with any interest earned thereon. Upon termination of this Agreement, Purchaser and Sponsor will be released and discharged of all further liability and obligations hereunder and under the Plan, and the Unit may be sold to another as though this Agreement had never been made, and without any obligation to account to Purchaser for any of the proceeds for such sale.

11.3 Sponsor and Purchaser each hereby agree and acknowledge that it would be impractical and/or extremely difficult to fix or establish the actual damage sustained by Sponsor as a result of a default by Purchaser hereunder, and that the Deposit (including all interest, if any) shall constitute and be deemed to be the reasonable and agreed upon liquidated damages of Sponsor in respect of the possible loss of a timely closing, the possible fluctuation of values, additional carrying costs of the Unit and other expenses that may be incurred, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, shall be paid by Purchaser to Sponsor as Sponsor's sole and exclusive remedy. The payment of the Deposit (including all interest, if any) as liquidated damages is not intended to be a forfeiture or penalty but is intended to constitute liquidated damages to Sponsor.

11.4 NEITHER SPONSOR NOR PURCHASER SHALL CHALLENGE THE VALIDITY OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT OR THE PLAN WITH RESPECT TO LIQUIDATED DAMAGES OR ANY RIGHT OF SPONSOR SET FORTH HEREIN OR THEREIN TO RETAIN THE DEPOSIT IN THE EVENT OF A PURCHASER DEFAULT. SUCH PROVISIONS HAVE BEEN AGREED TO VOLUNTARILY, AFTER NEGOTIATION, WITHOUT DURESS OR COERCION BY

ANY PARTY UPON ANY OTHER PARTY, AND WITH EACH PARTY HAVING BEEN (OR HAVING HAD FULL AND ADEQUATE OPPORTUNITY TO BE) REPRESENTED AND ADVISED BY COUNSEL, ACCOUNTANTS, BROKERS, APPRAISERS AND OTHER EXPERTS AND ADVISORS OF ITS OWN CHOOSING.

12. AGREEMENT SUBJECT TO LIEN OF MORTGAGE

Purchaser agrees that the provisions of this Agreement are and shall continue to be subject and subordinate to the lien of any mortgages on the Condominium property heretofore or hereafter made and any payments or expenses already made or incurred or which hereafter may be made or incurred pursuant to the terms thereof, or incidental thereto, or to protect the security thereof, to the fullest extent thereof, without the execution of any further legal documents by Purchaser. Sponsor shall, at its option, either satisfy such mortgages or obtain a release of the Unit and its undivided interest in the Common Elements from the lien of such mortgages on or prior to the Closing Date, unless, if Purchaser is obtaining financing on the Unit, Purchaser assumes such mortgages (at Sponsor's discretion). The existence of any mortgage or mortgages encumbering the Property, or portions thereof, other than the Unit and its undivided interest in the Common Elements, shall not constitute an objection to title or excuse Purchaser from completing payment of the Purchase Price or performing all of Purchaser's other obligations hereunder to the basis of any claim against, or liability of, Sponsor provided that any such mortgage is subordinated to the Declaration, or the Unit is released from, or not subject to the lien of such mortgage at Closing (unless Purchaser has assumed the continuation of a mortgage lien encumbering such Unit as hereinabove described).

13. AGREEMENT SUBJECT TO PLAN BEING EFFECTIVE

The performance by Sponsor of its obligations under this Agreement is contingent upon the Plan having been declared effective in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Plan (as the same may be amended from time to time). The plan may be withdrawn or abandoned by Sponsor only under certain conditions and at certain times, as set forth in the Plan. If the Plan is abandoned or does not become effective, or after being declared effective, the Plan is not consummated for any reason and Purchaser is not in default under this Agreement beyond any applicable grace period, this Agreement shall be deemed cancelled and the Deposit, together with interest, if any, earned thereon, shall be returned to Purchaser. Upon such return, neither party shall have any further rights, obligations or liability to or against the other and the parties shall be released and discharged from all obligations and liability under this Agreement and the Plan.

14. MORTGAGE TAX CREDIT

In the event a mortgage recording tax credit becomes available pursuant to Section 339-ee(2) of the New York Condominium Act, it is specifically understood that such credit shall endure to the benefit of Sponsor. Accordingly, at Closing, a Purchaser who elects mortgage financing will be responsible to pay the full amount (but not in excess thereof) of the mortgage recording tax chargeable on the entire amount being financed. At the Closing of Title, Sponsor will be reimbursed by Purchaser to the extent of any mortgage tax credit allowed.

15. SPONSOR'S INABILITY TO CONVEY UNIT

If Sponsor is unable to deliver title to the Unit to Purchaser in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and the Plan by reason of a defect in title, substantial damage or destruction of the Building by fire or other casualty, or the taking of any material portion of the Property by condemnation or eminent domain, Sponsor shall not be obligated to bring any action or proceeding or otherwise incur any cost or expense of any nature whatsoever in excess of its obligations set forth in the Plan in order to cure such inability. If Sponsor is not so obligated under the Plan and notifies Purchaser of its election or inability to cure such title defect, and Purchaser is not in default hereunder, Purchaser's sole remedy shall be to either (a) take title to the Unit subject to such title defect (without any abatement in or credit against the Purchase Price, or any claim or right of action against Sponsor for damages or otherwise) or (b) terminate this Agreement. If Purchaser so elects to terminate this Agreement, Sponsor shall, within thirty (30) days after receipt of notice of termination from Purchaser, return the Deposit to Purchaser, together with interest, if any, earned thereon. Upon making such payment, this Agreement shall be terminated and neither party hereto shall have any further rights, obligations or liability to or against the other under this Agreement or Plan. The foregoing remedy must be exercised by written notice sent by Purchaser to Sponsor within fifteen (15) days after the giving of Sponsor's notice of election not to cure such inability, failing which it shall be conclusively deemed that Purchaser elected the first remedy described in clause (a) above (i.e., to acquire title subject to such inability).

16. FIXTURES, APPLIANCES AND PERSONAL PROPERTY

At Closing, the Unit will contain only those fixtures, appliances, equipment, countertops, sinks, cabinets, hardware and items of personal property that are described in the Plan as being included in the Unit, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances except the lien of the mortgage applied for by Purchasers herein. No portion of the Purchase Price shall be attributable to such items. Any decorative fixtures, furniture, furnishings, wall coverings, decorations, mirrors, shelves, wall and window treatments, built-ins, electric fixtures and the like, in or about any model unit are for display purposes only and are not included in this sale. Any floor plans or sketches shown to Purchaser or included in the Plan are for approximations of the Unit's dimensions and layout, and Purchaser should not rely thereon.

17. CONSTRUCTION

(a) The construction of the Building and the Unit, including the materials, equipment and fixtures to be installed therein, shall be in accordance with the Plan and the Plans and Specifications (as defined in the Plan), subject to the right of Sponsor to amend the Plan and the Plans and Specifications in order to substitute materials, equipment or fixtures of equal or better quality, provided that the approval of any governmental authorities having jurisdiction is first obtained (if required). The issuance of a temporary or permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Building shall be deemed presumptive evidence that the Building and the Unit have been fully completed in accordance with the Plan and the Plans and Specifications. However, nothing herein contained shall excuse Sponsor from its obligation to correct any defects in construction in accordance with the conditions set forth in the Plan in the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor."

(b) The construction of the Building and the Unit and the correction of any defects in the construction thereof to the extent required under the Plan are the sole responsibility of Sponsor. Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that Sponsor will not be liable for, and will have no obligation to correct, certain immaterial variations from the Plan and Plans and Specifications as indicated in the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" and will only be responsible to correct any construction defects to the extent, and on the terms and conditions, set forth in such Section.

(c) Sponsor is obligated to construct the Building in accordance with all applicable codes and filed building plans and specifications as well as the provisions of the Plan.

18. LIMITED WARRANTY

The Housing Merchant Implied Warranty, as contained in Section 777-a of the New York General Business Law, generally applied to any single-for-sale unit in a multi-unit residential structure of six (6) stories or less transferred under a condominium regime. HOWEVER, AS PERMITTED BY LAW, SPONSOR HAS LIMITED SUCH WARRANTY TO THE TERMS OF THE LIMITED WARRANTY ATTACHED TO THIS CONTRACT AS EXHIBIT 1. PURCHASER WILL BE REQUIRED TO EXECUTE THIS LIMITED WARRANTY AT CLOSING. NO OTHER WARRANTY, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, IS MADE IN CONNECTION WITH THIS PURCHASE AGREEMENT OR UNIT.

PURCHASER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT A WRITTEN COPY OF THE TERMS OF THE LIMITED WARRANTY ATTACHED HERETO HAS BEEN PROVIDED FOR THE PURCHASER'S EXAMINATION PRIOR TO THE EXECUTION OF THIS PURCHASE AGREEMENT.

19. INSPECTION OF UNIT

Upon receipt of the closing notice, Purchaser shall promptly arrange an appointment with a representative of Sponsor to inspect the interior of the Unit within seven (7) days prior to the Closing Date fixed by the Closing Notice. Purchaser or his or her duly authorized representative shall attend such inspection, shall carefully inspect the Unit, and shall complete, date and sign the Inspection Statement (in the form set forth as Schedule A to this Agreement) and deliver same to Sponsor's representative at the conclusion of the inspection. Failure of Purchaser either to arrange such appointment or to inspect the interior of the Unit within seven (7) days prior to the Closing Date or to so sign and deliver the completed Inspection Statement shall not excuse Purchaser from paying the Balance of the Purchase Price when due and shall constitute Purchaser's full acceptance of the Unit as is. However, nothing herein shall relieve Sponsor of its obligations as set forth in the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor."

20. DAMAGE TO THE UNIT

20.1 If between the date of this Agreement and the Closing of Title, the Unit is damaged by fire or other casualty, the following shall apply:

(a) The risk of loss to the Unit by fire or other casualty, until the earlier of Closing of Title or the taking of possession of the Unit by Purchaser, is assumed by Sponsor; provided that Sponsor shall have no obligation or liability to repair or restore the Unit. In the event of damage or destruction of the Unit due to fire or other casualty prior to the Closing of Title and Sponsor elects to repair or restore the Unit, this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect, Purchaser shall not have the right to reject title or receive a credit against, or abatement in, the Purchase Price and Sponsor shall be entitled to a reasonable period of time within which to complete the repair or restoration, or to permit the Condominium Board to complete such repairs or replacements. Purchaser shall not be required to pay the Balance of the Purchase Price unless and until (i) the Unit has been substantially repaired to as near as reasonably possible to its condition immediately prior to the casualty and (ii) its essential services and a reasonable means of ingress and egress to the street have been restored. Any proceeds received from insurance or in satisfaction of any claim or action in connection with such loss, shall belong entirely to Sponsor (subject to the rights, if any, of the Condominium Board or other Unit Owners), and if such proceeds are paid to Purchaser, Purchaser shall promptly upon receipt turn them over to Sponsor. The provisions of the preceding sentence shall survive the closing of title or the termination of the Agreement.

(b) In the event Sponsor notifies Purchaser that it does not elect to repair or restore the Unit or if the Condominium Board does not do so and Purchaser declines to accept the Unit without such repairs, this Agreement shall be deemed canceled and of no further effect and Sponsor shall return to Purchaser all sums deposited hereunder, whereupon the parties shall be released and discharged from all obligations and liability hereunder and under the Plan, except that if Purchaser is then in default hereunder (beyond the applicable grace period, if any), Sponsor shall be entitled to retain the Deposit pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

(c) Notwithstanding Section 19(b) above, in the event that Purchaser, or one claiming by or through Purchaser, enters into possession of the Unit prior to the Closing of Title through an Interim Lease, then Purchaser shall bear the risk of loss or other casualty with respect to the Unit, except as otherwise provided in the Plan. Additionally, Purchaser shall be solely responsible for any damage to, or loss or other condition in the Unit and Sponsor shall not be obligated to repair any damages to the Unit or his appliances, fixtures and equipment, except as otherwise provided in the Plan. However, Purchaser does not assume the risk of loss to the Unit if the cause of such loss originated outside his Unit and did not result from the acts of Purchaser or the other occupants of the Unit or Purchaser's guests, invitees or workmen. If Purchaser is obligated to repair the damage in accordance with the foregoing, then his failure to repair the damage shall not excuse him from paying the Balance of the Purchase Price due under this Purchase Agreement and accepting delivery of the deed.

21. PROHIBITION AGAINST ADVERTISING

Purchaser hereby covenants and agrees that it shall not list the Unit for sale or resale with any broker or otherwise advertise, promote or publicize the availability of the Unit for sale prior to the Closing of Title and for not less than one (1) year thereafter. Any such listing of the Unit or form of advertising, promotion or publicizing of the Unit by Purchaser or its agents or representatives prior to the closing of title shall be an Event of Default hereunder, entitling Sponsor to the remedies set forth in Section 11 hereof. The provisions of this Section 20 shall survive the closing of title or the termination of this Agreement.

22. BROKER

Purchaser represents to Sponsor that Purchaser has not dealt with any broker in connection with this transaction other than Selling Agent and any Co-Broker named in this Agreement, whose commissions shall be paid by Sponsor. Purchaser shall pay the commission of any broker with whom Purchaser may have dealt, other than Selling Agent and such named Co-Broker. Purchaser agrees that should any claim be made against Sponsor for commissions by any broker other than Selling Agent and such named Co-Broker, on account of any acts of Purchaser or Purchaser's representatives, Purchaser will indemnify and hold Sponsor free and harmless from and against any and all liabilities and expenses in connection therewith, including attorneys' fees and disbursements. The provisions of this section shall survive the Closing of Title or the termination of this Agreement and are not made for the benefit of any third parties.

23. AGREEMENT MAY NOT BE ASSIGNED

Purchaser does not have the right to assign this Agreement without the prior written consent of Sponsor, in Sponsor's sole discretion, which consent may be withheld, conditioned or delayed. Any purported assignment by Purchaser in violation of this Agreement will be voidable at the option of Sponsor. Sponsor's refusal to consent to an assignment will not entitle Purchaser to cancel this Agreement or give rise to any claim for damages against Sponsor.

24. BINDING EFFECT

The submission of this Agreement to Purchaser does not create a binding obligation on the part of Sponsor. This Agreement shall not be binding on Purchaser or Sponsor until Purchaser has signed this Agreement and delivered the signed Agreement and the Deposit to Sponsor, and a counterpart hereof executed by Sponsor has been delivered to Purchaser. Prior to Sponsor's countersigning and returning this Agreement to Purchaser, and at any time thereafter, Purchaser agrees upon request to provide Sponsor with written reasonable information about Purchaser's employment, financial and rental/ownership history. Such information obtained prior to countersignature may be used to determine Purchaser's qualification to purchase and own the Unit, but does not constitute a reservation or binding obligation on either the applicant or Sponsor. Sponsor has the right, without incurring any liability, to reject this Agreement without cause or explanation to Purchaser. This Agreement may not be rejected due to Purchaser's sex, sexual orientation, race, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, disability, marital status or other grounds proscribed by law.

If the actual or anticipated date of commencement of condominium operation is to be delayed more than six months from the budget year projected in the offering plan, the plan must be amended to include a revised budget disclosing current projections. If such amended projections exceed the original projections by 25 percent or more, the sponsor must offer all purchasers the right to rescind and a reasonable period of time that is not less than 15 days after the date of presentation to exercise the right, whether or not sponsor offers to guarantee the previous budget projection. Sponsor must return any deposit or downpayment to purchasers who rescind within a reasonable period of time. Sponsor may not declare a plan effective where there are any material changes to the budget if these changes have not been disclosed by a duly filed amendment to the offering plan.

25.1 Any notice, election, demand, consent, request or other communication hereunder or under the Plan shall be in writing and either delivered in person or sent, postage prepaid, by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested or by Federal Express or other reputable overnight courier, with receipt confirmed to the Attorney for Purchaser at the address given at the beginning of this Agreement with a copy to the Purchaser by regular mail and to Sponsor at the address given at the beginning of this Agreement, with a copy to the Attorney for Sponsor in the same manner as notice is given to Sponsor. Acknowledged receipt of facsimile transmission shall be deemed satisfactory notice hereunder. Either party may hereafter designate to the other in writing a change in the address to which notices are to be sent. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, a notice shall be deemed given when personal delivery or delivery by overnight courier is effected or, in the case of mailing, three (3) days after the date of mailing, except that the date of actual receipt shall be deemed to be the date of the giving of any notice of change of address. Any notice either of the parties hereto receives from the other party's attorneys shall be deemed to be notice from such party itself.

25.2 Sponsor hereby designates and empowers both Selling Agent and Sponsor's Attorney Vallely Mitola Ryan PLLC, as Sponsor's agents to give any notice to Purchaser under this Agreement (including, without limitation, a notice of default) in Sponsor's name, which notice so given shall have the same force and effect as if given by Sponsor itself. Purchaser hereby designates Purchaser's Attorney as Purchaser's agent to give any notice to Sponsor hereunder in Purchaser's name.

26. NO REPRESENTATIONS

Purchaser acknowledges that Purchaser has not relied upon any architect's plans, sales plans, selling brochures, advertisements, representations, warranties, statements or estimates of any nature whatsoever, whether written or oral, made by Sponsor, Selling Agent, or otherwise, including, but not limited to, any relating to the description or physical condition of the Property, the Building or the Unit, or the size or the dimensions of the Unit or the rooms therein contained or any other physical characteristics thereof, the services to be provided to Unit Owners, if any, the estimated Common Charges allocable to the Unit, the estimated real estate taxes on the Unit, the right to any income tax deduction for any real estate taxes or mortgage interest paid by Purchaser, the right to any income tax credit with respect to the purchase of a Unit, the ability to rent the Unit and/or the rental income therefor or any other data, except as herein or in the Plan specifically represented. Purchaser has relied solely on Purchaser's own judgment and investigation in deciding to enter into this Agreement and purchase the Unit. No person has been authorized to make any representations on behalf of the Sponsor except as herein or in the Plan specifically set forth. No oral representations or statements shall be considered part of this Agreement. Sponsor makes no representation or warranty as to the work, materials, appliances, equipment or fixtures in the Unit, the Common Elements or any other part of the Property other than as set forth herein or in the Plan. Except as otherwise set forth in the Plan, Purchaser agrees (a) to purchase the Unit, without offset or any claim against, or liability of, Sponsor, whether or not any layout or dimension of the Unit or any part thereof, or of the Common Elements, as shown on the Plans of the Building and the Units set forth in the Plan is accurate or correct, and (b) that Purchaser shall not be relieved of any Purchaser's obligations hereunder by reason of any immaterial or insubstantial inaccuracy or error. The provisions of this Section shall survive the Closing of Title.

27. JOINT PURCHASERS

The term "Purchaser" shall read as "Purchasers" if the Unit is being purchased by more than one person, in which case their obligations shall be joint and several.

28. LIABILITY OF SPONSOR

Sponsor shall be excused from performing any obligation or undertaking provided for in this Agreement for so long as such performance is prevented, delayed or hindered by an act of God, fire, flood, explosion, war, riot, sabotage, inability to procure or general shortage of energy, labor, equipment, facilities, materials or supplies in the open market, failure of transportation, strike, lockout, action of labor unions, or any other cause (whether similar or dissimilar to the foregoing) not within the reasonable control of Sponsor. Sponsor's time to perform such obligation or undertaking shall be tolled for the length of the period during which such performance was excused.

29. FURTHER ASSURANCES

Either party shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the other party such instruments and take such other actions, in addition to the instruments and actions specifically provided herein, as such other party may reasonably request in order to effectuate the provisions of this Agreement or of any transaction contemplated herein or to confirm or perfect any right to be created or transferred hereunder or pursuant to any such transaction. Additionally, either party shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the other party such instruments and take such other actions, in addition to the instruments and actions specifically provided for herein, as such other party may reasonably request in order to correct any error and/or omissions that may have occurred at Closing of Title. The Provisions of this Section shall survive Closing of Title and delivery of the deed.

30. AGREEMENT NOT CONTINGENT UPON FINANCING

The terms and provisions of this Agreement and Purchaser's obligations hereunder are not contingent upon Purchaser securing financing of the Purchase Price (or any portion thereof), and Purchaser understands and agrees that Purchaser's failure to obtain such financing will not relieve Purchaser of Purchaser's obligations hereunder. Purchaser further understands and agrees that if Purchaser chooses to finance the purchase of the Unit through a lending institution and obtain a commitment therefrom, neither a subsequent change in the terms of such commitment, any change in the interest rate terms or rate lock or the expiration or other termination of such commitment, the imposition by the Lender of any additional fees or charges nor any change in Purchaser's financial status or condition shall release or relive Purchaser of Purchaser's obligations pursuant to this Agreement, and Sponsor shall have no liability as a result of any scheduling or adjournment of the Closing beyond the expiration of any interest rate lock or the expiration of any loan commitment. Sponsor makes no representation concerning the availability of the financing for the purchase of the Unit, including without limitation, the availability of conforming to FHA or FNMA requirements.

31. SEVERABILITY

If any provision of this Agreement or the Plan is invalid or unenforceable as against any person or under certain circumstances, the remainder of this Agreement or the Plan and the applicability of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby. Each provision of this Agreement or the Plan, except as otherwise herein or therein provided, shall be valid and enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.

32. STRICT COMPLIANCE

Any failure by either party hereto to insist upon the strict performance by the other party of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of any of the provisions hereof, and each party, notwithstanding any such failure, shall have the right thereafter to insist upon the strict performance by the other party of any and all of the provisions of this Agreement to be performed by such other party.

33. NO LIEN.

Neither this Agreement nor any monies deposited hereunder or expended by Purchaser in connection herewith shall constitute a lien against the Unit, any other Units, or any other portion of the Building or the Land upon which it is situated, and Purchaser may not record this Agreement or a memorandum thereof. If Purchaser attempts to record this Agreement, Purchaser will be held in default.

34. COSTS OF ENFORCING AND DEFENDING AGREEMENT

Purchaser shall be obligated to reimburse Sponsor for any legal fees and disbursements incurred by Sponsor in successfully defending Sponsor's rights under this Agreement or, in the event Purchaser defaults under this Agreement beyond any applicable grace period, in canceling this Agreement or otherwise enforcing Purchaser's obligations hereunder. The provisions of this Article shall survive Closing of Title or the termination of this Agreement.

35. GOVERNING LAW

The provisions of this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of New York applicable to agreements made and to be performed wholly in the State of New York, without regard to principles of conflicts of law.

36. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL

Except as prohibited by law, the parties shall, and they hereby do, expressly waive trial by jury in any litigation arising out of, connected with, or relating to this Agreement or the relationships created hereby or in the Plan. With respect to a matter for which a jury trial cannot be waived, the parties agree not to assert any such claim as a counterclaim in, nor move to consolidate such claim with, any action or proceeding in which a jury trial is waived. The provisions of this Section shall survive the Closing of Title or the termination of this Agreement.

37. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement, together with the Plan, supersedes any and all understandings and agreements between the parties and constitutes the entire agreement between them with respect to the subject matter hereof.

38. CERTAIN REFERENCES

A reference in this Agreement to any one gender, masculine, feminine or neuter, includes the other two, and the singular includes the plural, and vice versa, unless the context otherwise requires. The term "herein," "hereof" or "hereunder," or similar terms used in this Agreement, refer to this entire Agreement and not to the particular provision in which the term is used. Unless otherwise stated, all references herein to Articles, Sections or other provisions are references to Articles, Sections or other provisions of this Agreement.

39. CAPTIONS

The captions in this Agreement are for convenience and reference only and in no way define, limit or describe the scope of this Agreement or the intent of any provisions hereof.

40. SUCCESSSORS AND ASSIGNS

The provisions of this Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of Purchaser and Purchaser's heirs, legal representatives, successors and permitted assigns and shall bind and inure to the benefit of Sponsor and its successors and assigns.

41. NO ORAL CHANGES

This Agreement or provision hereof, cannot be orally changed, terminated or waived. ANY CHANGES OR ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS MUST BE SET FORTH IN A RIDER ATTACHED HERETO OR IN A SEPARATE WRITTEN AGREEMENT SIGNED BY THE PARTIES AND WHICH REFERS TO THIS AGREEMENT.

42. COUNTERPARTS

This Agreement and any Rider(s) which may be annexed hereto may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original and all of which shall constitute one and the same document. A facsimile signature on this Agreement (or any such Rider(s)) shall be acceptable and be deemed binding. The party tendering such facsimile signature shall provide the other party with original counterparts of the signature page promptly after delivery of the facsimile signature page, although the failure to do so shall not invalidate the effectiveness of the facsimile signature.

43. PERFORMANCE

Where this Agreement by its terms requires the payment or the performance of a condition on a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday, such payment may be made or condition performed on the next business day succeeding such Saturday, Sunday or such public holiday, with the same force and effect as if made or performance in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

44. PURCHASER'S REPRESENTATIONS

44.1 Purchaser represents that Purchaser has full right and authority to execute this Agreement and perform Purchaser's obligations hereunder. If Purchaser is not a natural person, Purchaser agrees to deliver to Closing, such documents evidencing Purchaser's authority as may be required by Purchaser's title company. Purchaser further represents that the Deposit represents Purchaser's own funds and that no other party (other than Purchaser or Sponsor, as provided herein) has any right or claim to all or any portion of the Deposit.

44.2 Purchaser is not now, nor shall it be at any time prior to or at the closing of title, an individual, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, trustee, limited liability company, unincorporated organization, real estate investment trust or any other form of entity (collectively, a "Person") with whom a United States citizen, entity organized under the laws of the United States or its territories or entity having its principal place of business within the United States or any of its territories (collectively, a "U.S. Person"), is prohibited from transacting business of the type contemplated by this Agreement, whether such prohibition arises under United States law, regulation, executive orders and lists published by the Office of Foreign Assets Control, Department of Treasury ("OFAC") (including those executive orders and lists published by OFAC with respect to Persons that have been designated by executive order or by the sanction regulations of OFAC as Persons with whom U.S. Persons may not transact business or must limit their interactions to types approved by OFAC or otherwise). Neither Purchaser nor any Person who owns an interest in Purchaser is now nor shall be at any time prior to or at the closing of title a Person whom a U.S. Person, including a "financial institution" as defined in 31 U.S.C. 5312 (a)(z), as periodically amended, is prohibited from transacting business of the type contemplated by this Agreement, whether such prohibition arises under United States law, regulation, executive orders and lists published by the OFAC or otherwise.

44.3 Purchaser has taken, and shall continue to take until the Closing of Title, such measures as are required by applicable law to assure that the funds used to pay to Sponsor the Purchase Price are derived: (i) from transactions that do not violate United States law nor, to the extent such funds originate outside the United States, do not violate the laws of the jurisdiction in which they originated; and (ii) from permissible sources under United States law and to the extent such funds originate outside the United States, under the laws of the jurisdiction in which they originated. Purchaser is, and will at closing be, in compliance with any and all applicable provisions of the USA PATRIOT Act of 2001, Pub. L. No. 107-56, the Bank Secrecy Act of 1970, as amended, 31 U.S.C. Section 5311 et. Seq., the Trading with the Enemy Act, 50 U.S.C. App. Section 1 et. seq., and the International Emergency Economic Powers Act, 50 U.S.C. Section 1701 et. seq., and the sanction regulations promulgated pursuant thereto by OFAC, as well as laws relating to prevention and detection of money laundering in 18 U.S.C. Sections 1956 and 1957.

44.4 The provisions of this section shall survive the Closing of Title to the Unit or termination of this Agreement.

45. WAIVER OF DIPLOMATIC OR SOVEREIGN UMMUNITY

45.1 Purchaser hereby waives any and all immunity from suit or other actions or proceedings and agrees that, should Sponsor or any of its successors or assigns bring any suit, action or proceeding in New York or any other jurisdiction to enforce any obligation or liability of Purchaser arising, directly or indirectly, out of or relating to this Agreement, no immunity from such suit, action or proceeding will be claimed by or on behalf of Purchaser.

45.2 As of the execution of this Agreement, Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that all disputes arising, directly or indirectly, out of or relating to this Agreement may be dealt with and adjudicated in the state courts of New York or the federal courts sitting in New York, and hereby expressly and irrevocably submits the person of Purchaser to the jurisdiction of such courts in any suit, action or proceeding arising, directly or indirectly, out of or relating to this Agreement. So far as is permitted under the applicable law, this consent to personal jurisdiction shall be self-operative and no further instrument or action shall be necessary in order to confer jurisdiction upon the person of Purchaser in any such court.

45.3 Purchaser irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, and agrees not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense or otherwise in any suit, action or proceeding arising, directly or indirectly, out of relating to this Agreement, brought in the state courts in New York or the federal courts sitting in New York: (i) any objection which it may have or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such suit, action or proceeding in any such court; (ii) any claim that any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum; or (iii) any claim that it is not personally subject to the jurisdiction of such courts. Purchaser agrees that final judgment from which Purchaser has not or may not appeal or further appeal in any such suit, action or proceeding brought in such a court shall be conclusive and binding upon Purchaser and, may so far as is permitted under the applicable law, be enforced in the courts of any state or any federal court and in any other courts to the jurisdiction of which Purchaser is subject, by a suit upon such judgment and that Purchaser will not assert any defense, counterclaim, or set off in any such suit upon such judgment.

45.4 Purchaser agrees to execute, deliver and file all such further instruments as may be necessary under the laws of the State of New York, in order to make effective the consent of Purchaser to jurisdiction of the state courts of New York and the federal courts sitting in New York and any other provisions of this Section 46.

45.5 Nothing in this Section 46 shall affect the right of Sponsor to bring proceedings against Purchaser in the courts of any jurisdiction or jurisdictions.

45.6 The provisions of this Section 46 shall survive the Closing of Title or the termination of this Agreement for the purpose of any suit, action, or proceeding arising directly or indirectly, out of or relating to this Agreement.

45.7 In the event Purchaser is a foreign government, a resident representative of a foreign government or such other person or entity otherwise entitled to the immunities from suit enjoyed by a foreign government (i.e., diplomatic or sovereign immunity), such Purchaser hereby designates a duly authorized and lawful agent to receive process for and on behalf of the Purchaser in any state or federal suit, action or proceeding in the State of New York based on, arising out of or connected with this Agreement.

45.8 If Purchaser is a foreign mission, as such term is defined under the Foreign Missions Act, 22 U.S.C. 4305, Purchaser shall notify the United States Department of State prior to purchasing a Unit and provide a copy of such notice to Sponsor. Sponsor shall not be bound under this Agreement unless and until the earlier to occur of: (i) a notification of approval is received from the Department of State; or (ii) sixty (60) days after Purchaser's notice is received by the Department of State.

Purchasers are advised that the prevention of the growth of mold in a Unit is the responsibility of each Unit Owner. Construction is not, and cannot be, designed to exclude mold spores. Whether a Unit Owner experiences mold growth depends largely on how such Unit Owner manages and maintains his/her Unit. Unit Owners will need to take actions to prevent conditions which cause the mold or mildew, and it is the responsibility of each Unit Owner to ensure that he/she has taken the necessary precautions to prevent mold from becoming a problem in such Unit Owner's Unit. Sponsor will not be liable for and Purchaser hereby waives any claim for any actual, special, incidental or consequential damages based on any legal theory whatsoever, including, but not limited to, strict liability, breach of express or implied warranty, negligence or any other legal theory with respect to the presence and/or existence of molds, mildew and/or microscopic spores unless caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Sponsor. The provisions of this Article shall survive Closing of Title or the termination of this Agreement.

47. CONFLICT WITH OFFERING PLAN

Any conflict between the Offering Plan and this Purchase Agreement shall be resolved in favor of the Offering Plan.

48. SMOKING POLICY

New York City law prohibits smoking and using e-cigarettes of any kind in indoor common areas, including but not limited to, lobbies, hallways, stairwells, mailrooms, fitness areas, storage areas, garages and laundry rooms in any building with three (3) or more residential units. (See New York City Admin. Code, § 17-505 for further details.) Purchasers are advised that Smoking shall be prohibited in (i) the Common Elements including but not limited to (all to the extent that they are utilized or service the Units), hallways, stairs, corridors, lobby, mail room, package room, laundry room, electrical and air-conditioning room, trash compactor room, emergency generator, exhaust and fan room, fire staircases, landings and stairs, fire safety systems servicing the Units, (ii) inside of Units, (iii) inside of Limited Common Elements, including gardens, areas under the stoop, or the roof deck patios, (iv) and outdoor areas within 15 feet of entrances, exits, windows, and air intake units of the Building (the "Smoking Policy"). The term "Smoking" shall mean inhaling, exhaling, burning or carrying any lighted or heated cigar, cigarette, Electronic Cigarette, little cigar, pipe, water pipe or hookah, herbal cigarette, non-tobacco smoking product (e.g., marijuana or non-tobacco shisha), or any similar form of lighted object or device designed for people to use to inhale smoke. The term "Electronic Cigarette (e-cigarette)" shall mean a battery-operated device that heats a liquid, gel, herb or other substance and produces vapor for people to inhale. LIMITED WARRANTY

RIDER TO PURCHASE AGREEMENT DATED _____, 20__ BY AND BETWEEN 311 EASTERN PARKWAY LLC AS SPONSOR, AND _____ AS PURCHASER(S).

PROPERTY:	311 Eastern Parkway Condominium 311 Eastern Parkway Brooklyn, New York
UNIT:	_____
PURCHASER:	_____
SPONSOR:	311 Eastern Parkway LLC
WARRANTY DATE:	The date that Purchaser or its family shall first occupy the Unit warranted or the date of the delivery of the deed to the Unit to Purchaser, whichever occurs first.
TOTAL LIABILITY:	50% of the purchase price of the Unit set forth in the Purchase Agreement to which this Limited Warranty is annexed as a rider less any insurance proceeds received by Purchaser.

THIS LIMITED WARRANTY EXCLUDES AND PRECLUDES ALL CONSEQUENTIAL AND INCIDENTAL DAMAGES, EXCEPT AS REQUIRED BY NEW YORK STATE LAW.

THIS LIMITED WARRANTY IS IN LIEU OF AND REPLACES ALL OTHER WARRANTIES ON THE CONSTRUCTION AND SALE OF THE UNIT AND ITS COMPONENTS, BOTH EXPRESS AND IMPLIED (INCLUDING ANY WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE). THERE ARE NO WARRANTIES WHICH EXTEND BEYOND THE FACE HEREOF. THE PURPOSE OF THIS LIMITED WARRANTY IS TO IDENTIFY SPONSOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR CONSTRUCTION DEFECTS OF A LATENT OR HIDDEN NATURE THAT COULD NOT HAVE BEEN FOUND OR DISCLOSED ON INITIAL INSPECTION OF THE UNIT.

1. To Whom Given. This Limited Warranty is given to Purchaser named on Page 1, while Purchaser owns the Unit. IT DOES NOT EXTEND TO SUBSEQUENT OWNERS, HEIRS, TENANTS OR MORTGAGEES IN POSSESSION OF THE UNIT, ANY ONE WHO MAY SUCEED TO THE RIGHTS OF PURCHASER OR ANY OTHER PERSONS.

2. By Whom Made. This Limited Warranty is made exclusively by Sponsor whose name and address appear on page 1.

3. Final Inspection of the Unit. Before Purchaser moves into the Unit or accepts the deed, Sponsor will schedule an appointment for a final inspection of the Unit with Purchaser. The purpose of this final inspection is to discover any defects of a visible, obvious or patent nature, or any other unfinished work that may have occurred during the final stages of finishing the Unit, or any unfinished work caused by back-orders beyond Sponsor's control. Sponsor may also point out other defects known to have occurred during the construction process that remain uncorrected at the time of the inspection.

All defects found on final inspection of the Unit will be itemized on a Punchlist, which will be signed by Purchaser and Sponsor before occupancy of the Unit or delivery of the deed.

4. Limited Warranty. This Limited Warranty is in lieu and replaces all other warranties on the construction and sale of the Unit and its components, both express and implied (including any warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose). There are no warranties which extend beyond the face hereof.

5. Warranty Coverage and Periods. The Warranty Period for all of the following coverages begins on the Warranty Date shown on page 1 of this Limited Warranty.

FIRST YEAR BASIC COVERAGE: for one year from and after the Warranty Date, the Unit will be free from latent defects that constitute:

(i) defective workmanship by Sponsor; or an agent, employee or subcontractor of Sponsor;

(ii) defective materials furnished by Sponsor, or an agent, employee or subcontractor of Sponsor;

(iii) defective design, provided by an architect, engineer, surveyor, or other-design professional retained exclusively by Sponsor; or

(iv) defective installation of appliances sold as part of the Unit by Sponsor, or an agent, employee or subcontractor of Sponsor.

Sponsor under this coverage is not responsible for any defects in any work or materials ordered directly by Purchaser from Sponsor's subcontractors or suppliers or other outside suppliers or subcontractors or for incidental or consequential damages resulting from such work or materials.

TWO YEAR MAJOR SYSTEM COVERAGE: for two years from and after the Warranty Date, the Plumbing, Electrical, Heating, Cooling and Ventilation Systems of the Unit which has been installed by Sponsor or an agent, employee or subcontractor of Sponsor are warranted to be free from latent defects resulting from defective installation by Sponsor or an agent, employee or subcontractor of Sponsor.

(i) The Plumbing System refers to water supply, waste and vent pipes and their fittings; water, sewer service piping, and their extensions to the tie-in of a public utility connection, or on-site well and sewage disposal system, if applicable.

(ii) The Electrical System refers to all wiring, electrical boxes, switches, outlets and connections up to a public utility connection.

(iii) The Heating, Cooling and Ventilation System refers to all duct work, steam, water and refrigerant lines, registers, convectors, radiation elements and dampers.

Except by reason of a defect in installation by Sponsor or an agent, employee or subcontractor of Sponsor, this major system coverage does not include defects in appliances, fixtures and items of equipment.

Sponsor under this coverage is not responsible for any defects in any work or materials ordered directly by Purchaser from Sponsor's subcontractors or suppliers or other outside suppliers or subcontractors or for incidental or consequential damages resulting from such work or materials.

SIX YEAR MAJOR STRUCTURAL DEFECT COVERAGE: for six years from and after the Warranty Date, the Unit will be free from latent Major Structural Defects that result from:

(i) defective workmanship by Sponsor, or an agent, employee or subcontractor of Sponsor;

(ii) defective materials furnished by Sponsor or an agent, employee or subcontractor of Sponsor; or

(iii) defective design, provided by an architect, engineer, surveyor, or other design professional retained exclusively by Sponsor.

A Major Structural Defect is a defect resulting in actual physical damage to the following load-bearing portions caused by the failure of such load-bearing portions which affects their load-bearing functions to the extent the Unit becomes unsafe, unsanitary or otherwise unlivable: foundation systems and footings, beams, girders, lintels, columns, walls and partitions, floor systems, and roof framing systems.

Damage to the non-load bearing portions of the Unit are not covered by this six-year coverage including: drywall and plaster; floor covering materials; wall tile and other wall coverings; non-load bearing walls and partitions, electrical, plumbing, heating, cooling and ventilation systems; appliances, fixtures and items of equipment; paint; doors and windows; trim; cabinets; hardware; and insulation.

Sponsor under this coverage is not responsible for any defects in any work or materials ordered directly by Purchaser from Sponsor's subcontractors or suppliers or other outside suppliers or subcontractors or for incidental or consequential damages resulting from such work or materials.

In all coverages under this Section 5, workmanship, materials, design and installation will be considered to be defective if they fail to meet or exceed the relevant standards and specifications of the applicable building code of the municipality in which the Unit is located, in effect on the date that the building permit for the Unit was issued, as supplemented by the annexed locally accepted building standards and practices.

ALL TIME PERIODS FOR THESE COVERAGES ARE OF THE ESSENCE AND WILL NOT BE EXTENDED.

(vi) In addition, the following items are not covered by the Sponsor's Limited Warranty:

(a) Negligence, improper maintenance, or improper operation by anyone other than Sponsor, its employees, agents or subcontractors, or

(b) Failure by Purchaser or anyone other than Sponsor, its employees, agents or subcontractors, to comply with the warranty requirements of manufacturers or suppliers of appliances, fixtures, plumbing, heating, cooling and ventilation systems of the Unit, if any, or items of equipment; or

(vii) Any condition which does not result in actual physical damage to the Unit.

(viii) Loss or damage caused by or resulting from accidents, riot and civil commotion, fire, explosions, smoke, water escape, falling objects, aircraft, vehicles, acts of God, lightening, windstorm, hail, flood, mudslide, earthquake, volcanic eruption, wind-driven water, and not reasonably foreseeable change in the underground water table.

(ix) Loss or damage caused by a seepage of water unless such loss or damage is the direct result of a construction defect.

(x) Any damage caused by soil movement for which compensation is provided by legislation or which is covered by other insurance.

(xi) Any damages which purchaser had not taken timely and reasonable action to minimize.

(xii) Any condition resulting from normal wear and tear or natural deterioration or from the normal shifting or settling of the building, or defects of an insubstantial nature, including but not limited to, partial or total death of landscape improvements, nail pops, riding on drywall walls, lumber shrinkage, door sticking due to weather, door warpage, bath tile grouting, slight separation in joints or kitchen title or wood flooring, floor levels, ceiling imperfections, painting defects, alignment of bathroom finishes, air infiltration from windows, any consequential damage resulting from settlement or normal plumbing, heating and air conditioning noises, or carpet discoloration and stretching.

(xiii) Paint touch-ups, or chips, mars, breaks or other defects in window sashes, electric fixtures, interior painted surfaces, sinks, tubs, bowls, bidets, shower doors, kitchen cabinets, countertops, vanity tops, and bases, medicine cabinets, doors, mirrors, hardware, flooring and appliance cabinets, lights and light bulbs, except as agreed to in the Punchlist.

(xx) Consequential or incidental damages (except where required by law).

(xxi) Any claim not filed as set forth in this Limited Warranty.

(xxii) Defects in construction, installation or operation of mechanical equipment, appliances, and/or other items covered by warranties assigned to Purchaser.

(xxiii) Damage caused by the misuse, abuse, or interference by Purchase or anyone other than Sponsor, its employees, agents, or subcontractors with Sponsor's original construction and installations.

7. What Sponsor Will Do in the Event of a Defect Covered by This Limited Warranty.

If a defect occurs in an item covered by this Limited Warranty, about, which Sponsor receives notice as set forth in Section 8 of this Limited Warranty, Sponsor will repair, replace, or pay Purchaser the reasonable cost (in Sponsor's sole estimate) of repairing or replacing the defective item(s), within sixty (60) days after Sponsor's inspection or testing discloses the problem, subject to weather conditions, acts of God, availability of materials, and other events beyond Sponsor's control. On at least two (2) days' notice from Sponsor, Purchaser must allow Sponsor and/or Sponsor's agents, employees or subcontractors access to the Unit for the purposes of repairing or replacing the defective item(s). The choice among repair, replacement or payment is solely that of Sponsor. In making repairs or replacements, Sponsor shall have the right to select the method and materials to be used in performing such repairs or replacements.

Sponsor's liability under this Limited Warranty is limited to the Total Liability amount listed on page 1.

Repair of damage to the load-bearing portions of the Unit will be limited to that which is necessary to restore their load-bearing function. Repair of other Major Structural Defects will be limited to repair of those defects which made the Unit unsafe, unsanitary or otherwise unlivable.

Before Sponsor commences to repair or replace the defect or to pay Purchaser the reasonable cost of doing so, a full release in recordable form of all legal obligations with respect to the defect must be negotiated between Sponsor and Purchaser, or their respective agents. When Sponsor finishing repairing or replacing the defect, or has paid Purchaser, the release must be delivered by Purchaser to Sponsor.

8. Step by Step Claim Procedures. Written notice of any warranty claim must be made on the attached "Notice of Warranty Claim Form" and must be received by Sponsor no later than the tenth (10th) day after the expiration of the applicable warranty period. Such notice must be sent by Purchaser to Sponsor at the address listed on page 1 by certified mail, return receipt requested or an overnight delivery service (such as Federal Express). If the Notice of Warranty Claim Form shall not be properly completed and received by Sponsor by that deadline, Sponsor will have no duty to respond to any complaint or demand contained in such form, and any or all claims may be rejected. COMPLETION AND DELIVERY OF SUCH NOTICE OF WARRANTY CLAIM FORM IS NECESSARY TO PROTECT THE RIGHTS OF WARRANTY PERFORMANCE UNDER THIS LIMITED WARRANTY.

No steps taken by Sponsor, Purchaser or any other person to inspect, test or correct defects will extend any time period under this Limited Warranty. No steps taken by Sponsor in response to an improperly completed or untimely notice of a warranty claim will give rise to any liability of Sponsor to Purchaser in connection with such claim.

In response to the receipt of a Notice of Warranty Claim Form, or any other complaint or request of Purchaser, Sponsor and Sponsor's agents will have the right to inspect and test the portion of the Unit to which the claim, complaint or request relates. Purchaser and the occupants of the Unit must provide reasonable access, to Sponsor and Sponsor's agents during normal business hours, Monday through Friday, to complete inspection, testing and repair or replacement, on at least two (2) days' prior written notice from Sponsor. Failure by Purchaser to provide such access shall invalidate this Limited Warranty with respect to the defect(s) set forth on the Notice of Warranty Claim Form.

Sponsor will complete inspection and testing within a reasonable time under the circumstances after receipt of a timely and properly completed Notice of Warranty Claim Form. Upon completion of inspection and testing, Sponsor will determine whether to accept or reject the claim. If Sponsor rejects the claim, Sponsor will give written notice of that decision to Purchaser at the address shown on the Notice of Warranty Claim Form. Sponsor will use good faith efforts to process and handle claims in a timely manner, but all time periods for repair or replacement of defects are subject to weather conditions, acts of God, availability of materials, and other events beyond Sponsor's control.

9. Legal Actions. No claim under this Limited Warranty may be commenced or asserted against Sponsor in any suit, action or other proceeding unless a properly completed Notice of Warranty Claim Form has been received by Sponsor in the time period set forth in Section 8 of this Limited Warranty.

No Suit, action and other proceeding against Sponsor under this Limited Warranty may be commenced after the later of more than thirty (30) days after the expiration date of the applicable warranty coverage, or thirty (30) days after Sponsor has given written notice of its rejection of Purchaser's claim with respect to such claim, or thirty (30) days after Sponsor has substantially completed corrective action for a defect with respect to such defect.

10. Miscellaneous Provisions. To the extent any coverage under this Limited Warranty applies to common elements of the Condominium, such coverage shall be deemed given to the Condominium Board of the Condominium.

This Limited Warranty may not be amended in any way without Sponsor's prior written consent in each instance.

If any provision of this Limited Warranty will not be enforced by any appropriate court, the determination will not affect the enforceability of the remaining provisions.

Use of one gender in the Limited Warranty includes the other gender, and use of the plural includes the singular, as may be appropriate.

This Limited Warranty shall be governed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York.

The Land is owned by Sponsor in fee simple absolute.

ARTICLE 4

Included in the Property is a building (the "Building") that the Sponsor renovated, to be converted to a Condominium according to the floor plans of the Building (the "Floor Plans") certified by Dan Craven, Registered Architect and intended to be filed simultaneously with the recording of this Declaration in the Kings County Office of the Register of The City of New York (the "Register's Office"), which plans set forth a description of the Building, stating the number of stories, the number of Units and the layout of the Units, Common Elements and Limited Common Elements. The street address of the Property is 311 Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn, New York 11238.

THE BUILDING

The Building contains, besides a lobby, hallways, corridors and other service, utility and mechanical areas, five (5) Units, located in the cellar, floors one through six, and a bulkhead roof (collectively, the "Units" and individually a "Unit"). The principal materials of which it is constructed are block, brick, concrete, wood and steel. For the purposes of describing the location of the Building, approximate area, type and number of rooms of each Unit and the Common Elements to which each Unit has immediate access, the Units are described on Exhibit B hereto. Each Unit will be sold to one or more Owners, each Owner obtaining fee ownership in, and exclusive right of occupancy and possession of the Unit, together with an undivided interest in the Common Elements of the Condominium, as hereinafter set forth in this Declaration, and referred to as the "Common Elements" all in accordance with Article 9-B of the Real Property Law of the State of New York.

THE UNITS

"Exhibit B" annexed hereto and made a part hereof sets forth the following data with approximate location in the Building and with respect to each Unit necessary for the proper identification thereof: Unit designation; tax lot number, approximate square foot area, approximate location in the Building and number of bedrooms and baths; the appurtenant Common Elements (as hereinafter defined) to which such Unit has immediate access and/or exclusive use; and the Common Elements appurtenant to such Unit. The precise location of each Unit is shown on the Floor Plans.

Each shall consist of the structural elements enclosing or supporting the Unit that are not designated as Common Elements in this Declaration. Each Unit Owner shall be responsible for any personal property, furniture, furnishings in the Unit and the following items in, on or affixed to the Unit (which shall not be insured by the Condominium Board), whether existing in the Unit as of the date of the Unit Owner's acquisition of the Unit thereafter, which list is not intended to be all-inclusive: the front entrance door and any other entrance doors to such Unit (including all locks, peep holes and hardware), interior doors and hardware, hallways serving a Unit exclusively, the interior walls, partitions, wood or other floors (including all underlayerments above the concrete slab) and floor coverings, and ceilings affixed, attached or appurtenant to such Unit, smoke and carbon monoxide detectors, window blinds or draperies, and associated hardware, all plumbing, gas and heating fixtures, equipment and appliances such as refrigerators, microwaves, dishwashers, washers and dryers, heating, ventilating and air conditioning units, heating equipment, ranges and other appliances, electrical panel boxes, lighting and electrical fixtures and switches to any special equipment, fixtures or facilities affixed, attached or appurtenant to the Unit, to the extent located within a Unit from the electrical panel box (including electrical branch wiring but excluding electrical service risers) and serving or benefiting only that Unit, sinks, bathtubs, water closets, built-in cabinetry of any type, kitchen cabinets, countertops in kitchens and bathrooms and all other facilities as may be affixed, attached or appurtenant to such Unit or to a Terrace appurtenant to such Unit and serving such Unit and/or Terrace exclusively. Plumbing, gas and heating fixtures and equipment as used in this paragraph shall include fireplace, fireboxes and dampers, exposed gas and water pipes from branch or fixture shut-off valves attached to fixtures, appliances and equipment and the fixtures, appliances and equipment to which they are attached, and any special pipes or equipment which a Unit Owner or prior owner of the Unit may have installed within a wall or ceiling, or under the floor, but shall not include gas, water or other pipes, conduits, flutes or ductwork within the walls, ceiling or floors.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article to the contrary, each Unit Owner will have the right, exercisable at any time but subject to the provisions of the By-Laws, to install, at such Unit Owner's sole cost and expense, decorations, fixtures and coverings (including, without limitation, painting, furnishing, wall to wall carpeting, pictures, mirrors, shelving and lighting fixtures) on the surfaces of the walls, ceilings and floors that face the interior of such Unit Owner's Unit and to a depth of one inch behind such surfaces for the purposes of installing nails, screws, bolts and the like, provided that no such installation shall impair the structural integrity, sound integrity and mechanical and electrical systems of such Unit or of the Building or violate Law, or the Rules and Regulations of the Condominium.

As of the date of the filing of this Declaration with the Register's Office, fee simple absolute title shall automatically vest in Sponsor in all Units without the need to execute specific and particular deeds or indentures for each and every Unit.

DIMENSIONS OF UNITS

The square feet area of the Units as set forth in the floor plans and in Exhibit B to the Declaration are approximate and were obtained by using the method customarily used in New York City to measure rental and condominium apartments. Each Unit is measured horizontally from the exterior face of the exterior wall and or window system (columns, mechanical pipe shafts, shaft ways, chases, chase ways and conduits are not deducted) to the centerline of the partition separating one Unit from another Unit, or the centerline of a shear-wall separating one Unit from another Unit to the corridor face of common corridors, to the shaft face of shear-walls of stairs, and to the mechanical side face of walls of other mechanical equipment spaces or any Common Elements not within a Unit or to the exterior face of the opposite exterior wall and/or window system. Each Unit is measured vertically from the top of the concrete floor to the underside of the concreate slab or dropped ceiling. Common Elements located within a Unit shall not be considered part of such Unit. Each Terrace is measured from the exterior face of the exterior wall to the outside face of the parapet wall. This method of measurement is applicable to all Units. All dimensions of rooms and other interior areas shown on the floor plans were calculated from the interior faces of walls exclusive of structural and mechanical enclosures projecting into the space. Accordingly, as the measurements are not measured from the interior to interior, the square foot areas of each Unit as set forth in Schedule A and the Declaration may significantly exceed the useable floor areas of each Unit. The measurements referenced herein are each within reasonable tolerances.

THE COMMON ELEMENTS

The Common Elements of the Condominium (the "Common Elements") consist of the entire Property, including the Land and all parts of the Building and improvements thereon other than the Units. The Common Elements include but are not limited to, those rooms, areas, corridors, spaces and other parts of the Building and all facilities therein for the common use of Units and the Unit Owners or which are necessary or convenient for the existence, maintenance or safety of the Property. Any member of the Condominium Board or any Unit Owner or any Member of the Board for the Condominium who receives service of process from the Secretary of State shall promptly deliver copies of the same to other members of the Condominium Board and any Member of the Board or managing agent of the Condominium, if applicable.

ARTICLE 13
DETERMINATION OF COMMON INTEREST IN COMMON ELEMENTS

ARTICLE 14
ENCROACHMENTS

EASEMENTS

All pipes, wires, conduits and public utility lines located within each Unit shall be owned by such Unit Owner. 311 EASTERN PARKWAY CONDOMINIUM

PLAN OF CONDOMINIUM OWNERSHIP

Section 1.1 Purpose. The Purpose of these By-Laws is to set forth the rules and procedures concerning the conduct of the affairs of the Condominium known as 311 Eastern Parkway Condominium. The Condominium covers the Property, which consists of: (i) the Land, which is more particularly described in Exhibit A to the Declaration; (ii) the Building, which includes, without limitation, the Units, the Common Elements, and all easements, rights, and appurtenances belonging thereto, and all other property, real, personal or mixed, intended for use in connection therewith; and (iii) all other property, real, personal or mixed, intended for use in connection therewith. The Property has been submitted to the provisions of the Condominium Act by the recording of the Declaration in the Register's Office, of which Declaration these By-Laws form a part. The purpose of the Condominium is to carry on the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance and care of the Common Elements and to perform related functions with respect to other portions of the Property.

Section 1.2. Definitions. All capitalized terms used in these By-Laws that are otherwise not defined in any of the Articles hereof shall have the meanings set forth in the Declaration, unless the context in which the same are defined any of the Articles hereof shall have the meanings ascribed to them in such Articles, unless the context in which the same are used shall otherwise require.

Section 1.3. Applicability of By-Laws. The Provisions of these By-Laws are applicable to the Property and to the use and occupancy thereof. All present and future Unit Owners, mortgagees, lessees, sublessees and occupants of Units and their respective employees, invitees, and guests, as well as other persons who may use the facilities located on, or forming a part of, the Condominium, are and shall be subject to the Declaration, these By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations (as hereinafter defined). Failure to comply with any of the same shall be grounds for an action to recover sums due, for damages or injunctive relief, or both, by the Board (as herein defined) or in a proper case, an aggrieved Unit Owner. In the case of flagrant or repeated violations, the Board may ask the offending Unit Owner for sufficient surety for future compliance. The acceptance of a deed or conveyance, or the succeeding to title to, or the execution of a lease or sublease for, or the act of occupancy of, a Unit shall constitute an agreement that the provisions of these By-Laws, the Rules and Regulations and the Declaration, as the same may be amended from time to time, are accepted, ratified, and will be complied with.

Section 1.4. Personal Application. All present or future Unit Owners, mortgagees and lessees, or their employees, guests or any other person that might use the facilities of the Condominium in any manner are subject to these By-Laws, the Declaration and any rules and regulations established by the Condominium Board ("Condominium Board" or "Board"). The mere acquisition or rental of any of the Units or the mere act of occupancy of any of said Units will signify that these By-Laws, the Declaration and the Rules and Regulations are accepted, ratified, and will be complied with.

Section 1.5. Principal Office of Condominium. The principal office of the Condominium shall be located within the Property or at such other place reasonably convenient thereto, as may be designated from time to time by the Board.

(xxi) to prepare, execute, acknowledge and record on behalf of all Unit Owners, as their attorney in fact, coupled with an interest, a restatement of the Declaration or these By-Laws, whenever, in the Condominium Board's estimation, it is advisable to consolidate and restate all amendments, modifications, additions and deletions theretofore made to the same;

(B) The Condominium Board shall be responsible for carrying out the duties imposed upon it under the Condominium Documents regardless of whether a Unit is vacant or occupied by the owner thereof or by a permitted lessee or other permitted occupant.

Section 2.5 Certain Limitations on the Powers of the Condominium Board Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these By-Laws, so long as the Sponsor or its designee shall continue to own twenty-five percent (25%) of the Units, but in no event later than five years from the closing of title to the first Unit, the Condominium Board may not, without the Sponsor's prior written consent:

The provisions of this paragraph may not be amended without the written consent of Sponsor.

The written consent of the Sponsor shall not be necessary to perform any function or take any action described in clauses (i) through (vi) if and only if, the performance of such action or the carrying out of such action is deemed necessary (and no other reasonable alternative is available) to enable to the Condominium to: (i) comply with Law; or (ii) remedy any notice of violation; or (iii) remedy any work order of the Condominium's insurer or (iv) to ensure the health and safety of the occupants of the Building. In no event will the limitations imposed herein continue for more than five years from the First Closing.

In no event may more than one individual owner of a designated Unit serve on the Condominium Board or as an officer of the Condominium Board at the same time during the term of office.

Section 2.8 Term of Office of Members. The term of office of the three members of the Condominium Board designated by Sponsor prior to the First Annual Meeting of the Unit Owners shall expire when the individuals to be elected at such meeting are so elected and qualified or designated, as the case may be. In connection therewith, the Condominium Board shall execute applications to any departments of the City of New York, or to any other governmental agencies having jurisdiction thereof, for any and all permits required in connection with the making of alterations, additions, improvements, or repairs in or to a Unit, provided that, with respect to all such work of a structural nature to a Unit or its appurtenant Limited Common Elements (but other than that of the nature described in paragraph (B) hereof related to Sponsor's rights with respect to Unsold Units), the same was approved by the Condominium Board pursuant to the terms of paragraph (A) hereof.

(D) Neither the Condominium Board nor any Unit Owner (other than the Unit Owner(s) making any alterations, improvements, additions, or repairs, or causing any of the same to be made, in or to his or her or their Unit(s) and/or appurtenant Limited Common Elements) shall incur any liability, cost, or expense either (i) in connection with the preparation, execution, or submission of the applications referred to in paragraph (C) hereof; (ii) to any contractor, subcontractor, materialman, architect, or engineer on account of any alterations, improvements, additions, or repairs made or caused to be made by any Unit Owner; or (iii) to any Person asserting any claim for personal injury or property damage arising therefrom. Any Unit Owner(s) making any alterations, improvements, additions, or repairs, or causing any of the same to be made, in or to his, her or their Unit(s) and/or appurtenant Limited Common Elements, shall agree (in a writing executed and delivered to the Condominium Board, if the Condominium Board shall so request), and shall be deemed to agree (in the absence of such writing), to indemnify and hold the Condominium Board, the members of the Condominium Board, the officers of the Condominium, the Managing Agent and all other Unit Owners harmless from and against any such liability, cost and expense.

(E) Any contractor engaged by a Unit Owner to perform any alterations in the Unit shall be required to obtain and maintain in full force and effect during the course of such alteration until final completion thereof, the following policies of insurance, written by companies with an A.M. Best Company rating of at least A-VII, with provision that the coverage afforded under such policies shall apply on a primary and not an excess or contributory basis with any policies that may be available to the Condominium Board, or the Managing Agent: (i) Commercial general liability insurance in the minimum amount of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) per occurrence and Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000.00) in the aggregate, which includes contractual coverage for liability assumed by the contractor, naming the Condominium Board, the Unit Owner and Managing Agent as additional insured and (ii) workers compensation insurance meeting the statutory limits of New York State.

Section 5.3 Alterations, Additions, or Improvements to the Common Elements. Except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws, all necessary or desirable alterations, additions, or improvements in or to any of the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements shall be made by the Condominium Board, and the cost and expense thereof shall constitute a Common Expense attributable to the Unit Owners.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, and with the sole exception of alterations, additions or improvements to the Common Elements required by Law, whenever the cost and expense of such alterations, additions, or improvements would, in the judgment of the Condominium Board, equal or exceed ten percent (10%) of the Condominium's operating budget in such fiscal year, with respect to the Common Elements, for any particular project or in any fiscal year, such proposed alterations, additions or improvements shall not be made unless first approved by a Majority of Unit Owners if relating to the Common Elements (in either event, including Sponsor if Sponsor then owns any Unsold Unit) present in person or by proxy, at a duly constituted meeting of the Unit Owners, or by means of such other procedure as approved by the Condominium Board. Except as otherwise provided in the Declaration and in these By-Laws, in any fiscal year, all such alterations, additions, or improvements costing less than ten percent (10%) of the Condominium's operating budget in such fiscal year, or for any particular project, may be made as aforesaid without the approval of the Unit Owners but only with the affirmative consent of a majority of the members of the Condominium Board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for so long as Sponsor owns Units representing at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the Common Interest attributable to all Units, but in no event beyond the second anniversary of the First Closing, no additions, alterations, or improvements shall be made to any of the Common Elements, regardless of the cost thereof, unless the prior written consent of Sponsor is first obtained. Sponsor will not withhold consent to any addition, alteration, or improvement to the Common Elements, if such addition, alteration or improvement is deemed required to comply with Law (and no other reasonable alternative is available), or to remedy any notice of violation or to remedy any work order by an insurer.

Section 5.4 Insurance.

(A) To the extent commercially reasonable, the Condominium Board shall obtain, and shall maintain in full force and effect, fire insurance policies with all risk extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief endorsements, insuring the Building (including all Units and the bathroom and kitchen fixtures installed therein on the date of recording the Declaration and all service machinery contained therein, but not including appliances or any furniture, furnishings, decorations, belongings, or other personal property supplied or installed by Unit Owners or the tenants of Unit Owners) and covering the interest of the Condominium, the Condominium Board, all of the Unit Owners and all Permitted Mortgagees, as their interests may appear. Each of the said policies shall contain:

(i) waivers of (a) subrogation, (b) any defense based upon coinsurance or other insurance, (c) invalidity arising out of any acts of the insured and (d) pro-rata reduction of liability;

(ii) a provision that any adjustment of loss will be made by the Condominium Board and that all proceeds thereof shall be paid to either the Condominium Board or the Insurance Trustee, as provided in Section 5.5 hereof;

(iii) a New York standard mortgagee clause in favor of each Permitted Mortgagee, which shall provide that the proceeds thereof shall be paid to such Permitted Mortgagee as its interest may appear, subject, however, to the loss payment provisions in favor of the Condominium Board and the Insurance Trustee set forth in subparagraph (ii) above and in Section 5.5 hereof; and

(iv) a provision that such policy may not be either cancelled or substantially modified except upon at least ten (10) days' prior written notice to the Condominium Board and all of the insureds, including all Permitted Mortgagees.

(B) The Condominium Board shall also obtain and maintain, to the extent commercially reasonable:

(i) comprehensive general liability insurance, covering all claims for personal injury or property damage arising out of any occurrence on the Property and listing as co-insureds (a) the Condominium Board and each member thereof, (b) the Managing Agent or manger (if any), (c) each officer and employee of the Condominium and (d) each Unit Owner (except, however, that such insurance shall not cover any liability of a Unit Owner arising from occurrences within his/her own Unit or its Limited Common Elements, if any) with such coverage to be primary and not on an excess or contributory basis with any other policy which may be available to the Condominium Board of Managing Agent;

(ii) rent insurance;

(iii) workmen's compensation and New York State disability benefits insurance;

(iv) boiler and machinery insurance;

(v) water damage level liability insurance; and

(vi) such other insurance as the Condominium Board shall from time to time determine.

(C) All policies of insurance to be maintained by the Condominium Board shall contain such limits as the Condominium Board shall from time to time determine, provided, however, that:

(i) with respect to insurance policies maintained by the Condominium Board pursuant to paragraph (A) hereof, the coverage shall in an amount equal to not less than eighty percent of the full replacement cost of the Building, exclusive of excavation and foundations, without deduction for depreciation, as approved by a fire insurance company, a qualified insurance broker, or another qualified source (and, until the first regular meeting of the first nine-member Condominium Board elected by the Unit Owners, such coverage shall be at least in the amount of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00));

(ii) with respect to insurance policies maintained by the Condominium Board pursuant to subparagraph (i) of paragraph (B) hereof, such policies shall contain single limits of not less than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00) in the aggregate until the first regular meeting of the first nine-member Condominium Board elected by the Unit Owners; and

(iii) with respect to insurance policies maintained by the Condominium Board pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (B) hereof, the coverage shall be in an amount equal to the aggregate of all of the Unit Owners' Common Charges for one year.

Any insurance policies maintained by the Condominium Board may also provide for such deductible amounts as the Condominium Board shall determine. The Condominium Board shall review the limits of each insurance policy, as well as the amount of any deductible sum thereunder, at least once each year.

(D) The cost of all insurance maintained by the Condominium Board pursuant to this Section 5.4, together with the fees and disbursements of any Insurance Trustee appointed by the Condominium Board pursuant to the terms of these By-Laws, shall be borne by the Condominium Board as a Common Expense.

(E) For so long as Sponsor owns at least one Unsold Unit, unless Sponsor's prior written consent is obtained, the Condominium Board must maintain, at a minimum, the types of coverage amounts set forth in the First Year's Budget in the Plan.

Section 5.5 Casualty or Condemnation.

(A) in the event that either (i) the Building or any part thereof is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty (hereinafter referred to as a "Casualty Loss") or (ii) the Common Elements or any part thereof is taken in condemnation or by eminent domain (hereinafter referred to as a "Taking"), the net insurance proceeds payable under the insurance policies maintained by the Condominium Board pursuant to the terms of Section 5.4 hereof by reason of such Casualty Loss or the net condemnation awards receivable by reason of such Taking, as the case may be, shall be payable either to the Condominium Board, if the same shall exceed One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) in the aggregate. In either instance, all such monies actually received (hereinafter referred to as the "Trust Funds") shall be held in trust for the benefit of all Unit Owners and their Permitted Mortgagees and shall be disbursed pursuant to the terms of this Section 5.5. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained either in the paragraph (A) or elsewhere in this Section 5.5, however, no Unit Owner whose Unit, or any portion thereof, is taken in condemnation or by eminent domain (whether or not all or a part of the Common Elements are contemporaneously taken) shall be deemed to have waived whatever rights that he/she may have to pursue a separate claim against the condemning authority by reason thereof.

(B) subject to the terms of paragraph (D) hereof, the Condominium Board shall arrange for the prompt repair or restoration (hereinafter referred to as the "Work") of: (i) in the event of a Casualty Loss, the portion(s) of the Building (including all Units and the bathroom and kitchen fixtures installed therein on the date of recording the Declaration and all service machinery contained therein, but not including appliances or any furniture, furnishings, decorations, belongings, or other personal property supplied or installed by either Unit Owners or the tenants of Unit Owners) affected by such Casualty Loss or (ii) in the event of a Taking, the portion(s) of the Common Elements affected by such Taking. If, pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence, Work is to be performed in or to Units, Common Elements that service or enclose Units and other Common Elements, or any combination of the foregoing, the Work shall be performed, to the extent practicable, first in or to the Units, next in or to the Common Elements that service or enclose Units and then in or to the balance of the Common Elements. In addition, each Unit Owner whose Unit, or any portion thereof, shall be the subject to all or part of any Work shall have the right, subject to the terms of Section 5.2 hereof, to supervise any redecorating of his/her Unit.

(C) In the event that Work shall be performed pursuant to the terms of paragraphs (B) and (D) of this Section 5.5, the Condominium Board or the Insurance Trustee, as the case may be, shall disburse the Trust Funds to the contractors engaged in the Work in appropriate progress payments. If the Trust Funds shall be less than sufficient to discharge the cost and expense of performing the Work, the Condominium Board shall levy a Special Assessment against all Unit Owners for the amount of such deficiency in proportion to their respective Common Interests, and all proceeds of such Special assessment shall become part of the Trust Funds. If, conversely, the Trust Funds shall prove to be more than sufficient to discharge the cost and expense of performing the Work, such excess shall be paid to all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests, except that no payment shall be made to a Unit Owner until there has first been paid, out of such Unit Owner's share of such excess, such amounts as may be necessary to reduce unpaid liens on the Unit Owner's Unit (other than mortgages that are not Permitted Mortgages) in the order of priority of such liens. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, in the event that the Unit Owners are assessed pursuant to the terms of the second sentence of this paragraph (C) for any projected deficiency in the amount of the Trust Funds available to the Condominium Board and, after the payment of all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Work, any portion of the Trust Funds remains unspent, such excess Trust Funds shall, to the extent of such Special Assessment, be deemed to be, and shall constitute, an unspent Special assessment and shall be paid to the Unit Owners so assessed in proportion to their respective Common Interests, free of any claim of any lienor (including, without limitation, any Permitted Mortgagee).

(D) If either seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the Building is destroyed or substantially damaged by fire or other casualty or seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the Common Elements are taken in a Taking, the Work shall not be performed unless seventy-five percent (75%) of more of all Unit Owners (including Sponsor or is designee, if Sponsor or such designee shall then own any Units), both in number and in aggregate Common Interest, shall promptly resolve to proceed with the same. In the event that a sufficient number of Unit Owners shall so resolve, the Work shall be performed pursuant to the terms of paragraphs (B) and (C) hereof. Conversely, in the event that a sufficient number of Unit Owners shall either fail or refuse to so resolve, the Work shall not be performed and the Property shall be subject to an action for partition by any Unit Owner or lienor, as if owned in common, in which event the net proceeds of the resulting sale, together with any Trust Funds, shall be paid to all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests, except that no payment shall be made to a Unit Owner until there first has been paid, out of such Unit Owner's share of such funds, such amounts as may be necessary to reduce unpaid liens on the Unit Owner's Unit (other than mortgages that are not Permitted Mortgages) in the order of priority of such liens.

(E) In the event that the damage resulting from a Casualty Loss shall (i) render one or more Units wholly or partially unusable for the purposes permitted herein and in the Declaration or (ii) destroy the means of access to one or more Units, the installments of Common Charges otherwise payable by the owner of any Unit so affected thereby shall proportionately abate until such Unit shall again be rendered usable for such purposes and/or until the means of access thereto shall be restored, as the case may be. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, if such Casualty Loss shall be caused by the act, the omission to act, or the negligence of the owner of a Unit so affected thereby, by a Family Member of such Unit Owner, or by a tenant or other occupant of such Unit, such installments of Common Charges shall abate only to the extent of any proceeds of rent insurance actually collected by the Condominium Board with respect to such Unit.

(F) If (i) a portion of any Unit shall be taken in condemnation or by eminent domain and (ii) the Condominium shall not be terminated by reason of a simultaneous Taking pursuant to the terms of paragraph (D) hereof, the Common Interest appurtenant to such Unit shall be adjusted in the proportion that the total floor area of such Unit after such Taking bears to the total floor area of such Unit prior to such Taking. The Condominium Board shall promptly prepare and record an amendment to the Declaration reflecting the new Common Interest appurtenant to such Unit, which amendment shall be executed by the owner of such Unit together with the holders of record of any liens thereon (or, in lieu of execution by such Unit Owner and lienors, the same may execute a consent to such amendment in recordable form). Following the taking of a portion of a Unit and the recording of the aforementioned amendment to the Declaration, the votes appurtenant to such Unit shall be based upon the new Common Interest of such Unit, and, in the event of a Taking of an entire Unit, the right to vote appurtenant to such Unit shall wholly terminate. In either event, the Common Interests of the other or remaining Units shall be adjusted accordingly and reflected in an amendment to the Declaration duly executed and acknowledged by the Condominium Board and the owners of, together with the holders of record of all liens upon, all of the other or remaining Units.

(G) As used in this Section 5.5, the terms:

(i) "prompt repair or restoration" shall mean that the Work is to be commenced not more than either: (a) sixty (60) days after the date upon which the Insurance Trustee notifies the Condominium Board and the Unit Owners that it has received Trust Funds sufficient to discharge the estimated cost and expense of the Work, or (b) ninety (90) days after the date upon which the Insurance Trustee notifies the Condominium Board and the Unit Owners that it has received trust Funds insufficient to discharge the estimated cost and expense of the Work, or (c) in the event that the Trust funds are payable to the Condominium Board pursuant to the terms of paragraph (A) of this Section 5.5, sixty (60) days after the date upon which the Condominium Board notifies the Unit Owners that it has received the Trust Funds, whether or not the same are sufficient to discharge the cost and expense of the Work; and

(ii) "promptly resolve" shall mean that a resolution shall be duly made not more than sixty (60) days after the date upon which the Condominium Board or the Insurance Trustee, as the case may be, notifies the Unit Owners that it has received the Trust Funds and that the same are or are not sufficient to discharge the estimated cost and expense of the Work, as the case may be.

(H) Any dispute that may arise under this Section 5.5 between Unit Owners or between any Unit Owner(s) and the Condominium Board shall be resolved by arbitration pursuant to the terms of Article 10 hereof.

Section 5.6 Use of The Property.

(A) No nuisance shall be allowed on the Property, nor shall any use or practice be allowed that either is a source of annoyance to its residents or interferes with the peaceful possession or proper use of the Property by its residents or occupants. No Immoral or unlawful use shall be made of the Property or any portion thereof, and all valid Laws relating to any portion of the Property shall be complied with at the full cost and expense of the respective Unit Owners or the Condominium Board, whoever shall have the obligation to maintain or repair such part of the Property.

(B) Nothing shall be done or kept in any Unit or in any of the Common Elements that would increase the rate of insurance for the Property, except upon a prior written consent of the Condominium Board. No Unit Owner shall permit anything to be done or kept in a Unit or in the Common Elements that will result in the cancellation of insurance on the Property or the contents thereof, or that would be in violation of any Law. No waste shall be committed in the Common Elements.

(C) Nothing shall be done in any Unit or in, on or to the Common Elements that will impair the structural integrity of the Property or that will structurally change the Building, except as is otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws. In no event shall interior partitions contributing to the support of any Unit or the Common Elements be altered or removed.

Section 5.7 Use of the Units.

(A) In order to provide for congenial occupancy of the Property and for the protection of the values of the Units, the use of Units shall be restricted to, and shall be in accordance with the terms contained in the balance of this Section 5.7.

(B) Each Unit shall be used only as a residence and not more than one family may occupy a Unit at any one time. Except as to Unsold Units, no transient occupant may be accommodated in a Unit. A Unit owned or leased by an individual, corporation, partnership, fiduciary, or any other entity may be occupied only by said individual, or by an officer, director, stockholder, or employee of such corporation, or by a partner or employee of such partnership, or by said fiduciary (including directors, officers, stockholders, or employees of corporate fiduciaries and partners and employees of partnership fiduciaries), or by the beneficiary of said fiduciary, or by a principal or employee of such other entity, respectively, or by the Family Members and guests of any of the foregoing (and nothing herein contained shall be deemed to prohibit the exclusive occupancy of any Unit by such Family Members or guests).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Condominium Board may in its sole discretion, permit Persons other than those set forth above to occupy a Unit. In no event, however, shall a portion of a Unit (as opposed to the entire Unit) be sold, conveyed, leased, or subleased, and no transient occupant other than a guest permitted under this paragraph (B)) may be accommodated therein.

(C) The Condominium Board may, in its sole discretion, consent to the use of a Unit as a professional or business office or for any purpose other than that set forth in paragraph (B) hereof, provided that the nature and manner of such use complies with Law and does not violate the then existing Certificate of Occupancy covering such Unit. Any such consent shall be in writing and shall be personal to such Unit Owner. Any lessee of, or successor in title to, such Unit Owner shall be required to obtain the prior written consent of the Condominium Board before using such Unit for any purpose other than that set forth in paragraph (B) hereof.

(D) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 5.7, Sponsor may, without the consent of either the Condominium Board or the Unit Owners (i) grant permission for the use of any Unsold Unit as a professional or business office or for any other purpose, provided that the nature and manner of such use complies with Law and does not violate the then existing Certificate of Occupancy covering such Unsold Unit; (ii) use any one or more Unsold Units as model units and offices for the sale, promotion, rental, management and operation of the Unsold Units or for any other purposes, subject only to compliance with Law and (iii) sell or lease Unsold Units to third parties.

Section 5.8 Use of the Common Elements.

(A) Subject to the terms of paragraph (B) of this Section 5.8, the Common Elements (including, without limitation, the electrical, heating, gas, plumbing and other mechanical systems and equipment of the Building and the Facilities) may be used only for the furnishing of the services and facilities, and for the other uses, for which they are reasonably suited and capable. In addition, no furniture, packages, or objects of any kind shall be placed in the lobbies, vestibules, public halls, stairways, public elevators, or any other part of the Common Elements (except for those areas designated as storage areas) without the prior written consent of the Condominium Board. The lobbies, vestibules, public halls, stairways and public elevators shall be used only for normal passage through them. Accordingly, all Unit Owners shall require their tradesmen to utilize exclusively the entrance designated by the Condominium Board for transporting packages, merchandise, or other objects.

(B) Sponsor or its designee shall have the right, without charge or limitation, to: (i) erect and maintain signs, of any size or content determined by Sponsor or such designee, on or about any portion of the Common Elements chosen by Sponsor or such designee, including, without limitation, on the exterior walls of the Building or adjacent to the main entrance thereof; (ii) have its employees, contractors, subcontractors and sales agents present on the Property; and (iii) do all things necessary or appropriate, including the use of the Common Elements, to sell, lease, manage, or operate Unsold Units, to complete any work or repairs to the Building expressly undertaken by Sponsor and to comply with Sponsor's obligations under the Plan and the Condominium Documents. In no event, however, shall Sponsor or such designee be entitled to use any Common Elements in such a manner as will unreasonably interfere with the use of any Unit for its permitted purposes.

Section 5.9 Rights of Access.

(A) Each Unit Owner shall grant to the Condominium Board, to the Managing Agent or manager (if any), to the superintendent and/or to any other Person authorized by any of the foregoing a right of access to his/her Unit for the purpose of:

(i) making inspections of, or removing violations noted or issued by any governmental authority against, the Common Elements or any other part of the Property;

(ii) curing defaults thereunder or under the Declaration or violations of the rules and Regulations committed by such Unit and threatening another Unit or all or a portion of the Common Elements;

(iii) performing maintenance, installations, alterations, repairs, or replacements to the mechanical or electrical services, or other portions of the Common Elements located within his/her Unit or elsewhere in the Building;

(iv) reading, maintaining, or replacing utility meters relating to the Common Elements, to his/her Unit, or to any other Unit; or

(v) correcting any condition that violates the provisions of any Permitted Mortgage encumbering another Unit.

Except in cases of emergency (that is, a condition requiring repairs or replacements immediately necessary for the preservation or safety of the Building or for the safety of the occupants of the Building or other individuals, or required to avoid the suspension of any necessary service in the Building), the foregoing rights of access shall be exercised only upon not less than one (1) day's advance notice and only in such a manner as will not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Units and their appurtenant Limited Common Elements for their permitted purposes. In cases of emergency, however, such rights of access may be exercised immediately, without advance notice and whether or not the Unit Owner is present.

(B) Each Unit Owner shall grant a right of access to his/her Unit and the Condominium Board shall grant rights of access to the Common Elements, to Sponsor and its contractors, subcontractors, agents and employees for the purpose of fulfilling Sponsor's obligations as set forth in the Plan or in any amendment thereto, provided that access thereto shall not be exercised, with respect to any Unit in such a manner as will unreasonably interfere with the use of such Unit for its permitted purposes.

Section 5.10 Modification of the Rules and Regulations. The Condominium Board shall have the right to amend, modify, add to or delete any of the Rules and Regulations from time to time, provided, however, that any such amendment, modification, addition, or deletion may be overruled by a vote of Unit Owners owning at least sixty-six and two thirds percent (66

2/3%) of the Unit Owners, in both number and Common Interest, at a meeting of Unit Owners called for that purpose and no such amendment, modification, addition or deletion which modifies the permitted users of the Building or any portion thereof or affecting the rights and obligations of Sponsor, or the holder or any mortgage, pledge or other lien or security interest covering any Unsold Unit, as the case may be, shall be effective without the prior written consent of Sponsor. Copies of the text of any amendments, modifications, additions, or deletions to the Rules and regulations shall be furnished to all Unit Owners not less than thirty (30) days prior to the effective date thereof.

Section 5.11 Real Estate Taxes, Water Charges and Sewer Rents. Water for the Building shall be supplied by the City of New York. Unless and until real estate taxes, water charges and sewer rents are billed directly to Unit Owners by the City of New York, the Condominium Board shall promptly pay such taxes, charges and rents as a Common Expense. In the event of a proposed sale of any Unit, the Condominium Board (for so long as the Condominium Board is still paying such real estate taxes, water changes and sewer rents) shall, upon the written request of the selling Unit Owner, execute and deliver to the purchaser of such Unit or to such purchaser's title company a letter agreeing to promptly pay all such taxes, charges and rents affecting such owner's Unit to the date of the closing of title to such Unit.

Section 5.12 Gas and Electricity. Gas and electricity shall be supplied to each Unit through a separate meter for such Unit, and each Unit Owner shall be required to pay all charges for gas and electricity consumed or used in his/her Unit directly to the utility company servicing the Building as and when billed therefor. However, the Condominium Board shall have the right, exercisable in its sole discretion, to require that gas and electricity be supplied to the Condominium through one or more common meters. In such an event, the cost thereof shall be borne by each Unit Owner based upon the consumption or usage of gas and electricity in his/her Unit, as determined by submetering, survey, or any other reasonable method prescribed by the Condominium Board and permitted by Law, and shall be payable either to the Condominium Board or to the utility company servicing the Building, as directed by the Condominium Board.

Section 5.13 Utilities Serving the Common Elements. The cost and expense of water, steam, electricity and gas serving or benefitting any Common Element, as applicable, shall be (i) considered part of the expense of maintaining such Common Elements, (ii) determined by the Board and (iii) charged to the Unit Owners as a Common Expense.

Section 5.14 Records and Audits.

(A) The Treasurer of the Condominium, or the Managing Agent under the supervision of such Treasurer, shall keep full, detailed and accurate records and books of account shall include, without limitation, (i) a listing of all receipts of and expenditures by the Condominium Board and the Managing Agent and (ii) a separate listing for each Unit, setting forth, among other things, the amount of each assessment of Common Charges and Special Assessments levied against such Unit, the date when due, the amounts paid thereon and the balance, if any, remaining unpaid.

(B) Within four months after the end of each fiscal year of the Condominium, the Condominium Board shall submit to each Unit Owner, and, if so requested, to any Permitted Mortgagee, an annual report of the receipts and expenditures of the Condominium prepared and certified by an independent certified public accountant. The cost of preparing and distributing each such report shall be borne by the Condominium Board as a Common Expense.

COMMON CHARGES

Section 6.1 Determination of Common Expenses and Fixing of Common Charge.

(A) From time to time, but not less frequently than once a year, the Condominium Board shall: (i) prepare and adopt and budget for the Condominium, subject, in all respects, to the strictures set forth in Section 2.5 hereof; (ii) determine the aggregate amount of Common Charges necessary to be charged to the Unit Owners in order to meet the Common Expenses; and (iii) allocate and assess such Common Charges amongst the Unit Owners pro-rata, in accordance with their respective Common Interests (except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or in these By-Laws). The Condominium Board shall advise all Unit Owners promptly thereafter in writing of the amount of Common Charges payable by each of them and, not later than ten (10) days next preceding the date upon which the first installment of newly determined Common Charges is due, shall furnish copies of the budget (in a reasonably itemized form) upon which such Common Charges are based to all Unit Owners and to their respective Permitted Mortgages whenever requested in writing by such Permitted Mortgagee. The Condominium Board may, subject to the provisions set forth herein, at its sole discretion from time to time increase or decrease the amount of Common Charges allocated to the Units and payable by the Unit Owners and may modify its prior determination of the Common Expenses for any fiscal year so as to increase or decrease the amount of Common Charges payable for such fiscal year or portion thereof, however, no such revised determination of Common Expenses shall have a retroactive effect on the amount of Common Charges payable by Unit Owners for any period prior to the date of such new determination. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, the Condominium Board shall not reduce the Common Charges payable during any fiscal year occurring within the Initial Control Period. All Unit Owners will be given a copy of the proposed annual budget of the Condominium at least ten (10) days prior to the date set for adoption thereof by the Condominium Board.

(B) The failure or delay of the Condominium Board to prepare or adopt a budget or to determine the Common Expenses for any fiscal year or portion thereof shall not be deemed a waiver or modification in any respect of the covenants and provisions hereof or a release of any Unit Owner from the obligation to pay Common Charges. In such event, the Common Charges that were computed on the basis of the Common Expenses last determined for any fiscal year or portion thereof shall continue thereafter to be the Common Charges payable by the Unit Owners until a new determination of the Common Expenses shall be made.

(C) In addition to the foregoing duty to determine the amount of and assess Common Charges, the Condominium Board shall have the right, subject, in all respect, to the strictures contained in Section 2.5 hereof, to levy Special Assessments to meet the Common Expenses (including, without limitation, the acquisition or leasing of a Unit). All Special Assessments relative to the Common Elements shall be levied against all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests and all Special Assessments relative to the Limited Common Elements shall be levied against all Unit Owners in proportion to the Common Interest. Special Assessments may be payable either in one lump sum or in installments, as the Condominium Board shall determine, provided, however, that the Condominium Board shall give each Unit Owner not less than fifteen (15) days' written notice prior to the date upon which such Special Assessment, or the first installment thereof, shall be due and payable, which notice shall set forth, in reasonable detail, the nature and purpose thereof. The Condominium Board shall have all rights and remedies for the collection of Special Assessments as are provided herein for the collection of Common Charges (including, without limitation, the provisions of Section 6.4 hereof).

(D) The excess of all rents, profits and revenues derived from the rental or use of any space forming a part of, or included in, any Common Element remaining after deduction of all expenses incurred in connection with generating the same shall constitute income of the Unit Owners, as applicable, and shall be collected on behalf of the Unit Owners by the Condominium Board and applied against the Common Expenses attributable to the Common Elements for the fiscal year in which collected. In the event that such net rents, profits and revenues, together with the Common Charges and any Special Assessments collected from the Unit Owners, for any year of operation shall exceed the Common Expenses for such year, then such excess shall be applied by the Condominium Board against the Common Expenses attributable to the Common Elements for the next succeeding year(s) of operation. No Unit Owner shall be entitled to a distribution of any portion of such excess unless the Condominium Board shall determine to distribute all or part of such excess to all Unit Owners pro-rata, in proportion to their respective Common Interests.

Section 6.2 Payment of Common Charges.

(A) All Unit Owners (including Sponsor or its designee with respect to Unsold Units for so long as the same are owned thereby) shall be obligated to pay Common Charges and Special Assessments by the Condominium Board pursuant to the terms of Section 6.1 hereof at such time or times (but not less than annually) as the Condominium Board shall determine. Unless otherwise determined by the Condominium Board, Common Charges shall be payable in installments on the first day of every month in advance. To the extent permitted by Law, the Condominium Board shall have a lien on each Unit, on behalf of all Unit Owners, for unpaid Common Charges and Special Assessments assessed against such Unit. Such lien, however, shall be subordinate, to the extent required by Law, to any liens for real estate taxes assessed against such Unit and any sums unpaid on a Permitted Mortgage recorded against the Unit.

(B) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in paragraph (A) above, during the Initial Control Period, the Condominium Board shall have the right, in its sole discretion, to waive Unit Owners obligations to pay Common Charges from and after the First Closing for a period to be determined by the Condominium Board, provided all expenses of the Condominium including, but not limited to, insurance premiums and any reserve fund payments required by Sponsor's lender are paid by Sponsor. Upon commencement of the collection of Common Charges from all Unit Owners, no assessment will be imposed for any item set forth in the approved budget for the Condominium for the Condominium for which Common Charges were not collected. The Condominium Board shall remain obligated to update the budget for the Condominium in accordance with law. All Unit Owners shall be provided with at least thirty (30) days prior written notice of the expiration of such waiver period and the commencement of payment of Common Charges.

(C) No Unit Owner shall be liable for the payment of any part of the Common Charges and any Special Assessments assessed against his/her Unit subsequent to a sale, transfer, or other conveyance by him/her of such Unit, together with its Appurtenant Interests, made in compliance with the terms of Article seven hereof. A purchaser or other successor in title to the owner of a Unit shall be liable for the payment of all Common Charges and any Special Assessments accrued and unpaid against such Unit prior to his/her acquisition thereof, except that, to the extent permitted by Law, a Permitted Mortgagee acquiring title to a mortgaged Unit or a purchaser at a mortgage foreclosure sale held with respect to a Permitted Mortgage shall not be liable, and such mortgaged Unit shall not be subject to a lien, for the payment of any Common Charges and Special Assessments assessed subsequent to the recording of such Permitted Mortgage and prior to the acquisition of title to such Unit by the Permitted Mortgagee or by such purchaser. However, in the event of a foreclosure of a Permitted Mortgage (whether by sale, deed in lieu of foreclosure, or otherwise), the defaulting Unit Owner shall remain fully liable for the payment of all unpaid Common Charges and Special Assessments that accrued prior to such foreclosure. Any excess proceeds from such foreclosure or sale shall be paid directly to the Condominium Board in payment of all unpaid Common Charges and Special Assessments. Any remaining unpaid Common Charges and Special Assessments that are not collected from such foreclosure sale or from the defaulting Unit Owner shall be deemed a Common Expense, collectible from all those who are Unit Owners at the time same is levied.

(D) No Unit Owner shall be exempted from liability for the payment of Common Charges or Special Assessments by waiving the use or enjoyment of any or all of the Common Elements or by abandoning his/her Unit (except with respect to a conveyance of the same to the Condominium Board, without compensation, pursuant to the terms of paragraph (C) hereof. Except as expressly provided to the contrary in paragraph (E) of Section 5.5 hereof, no Unit Owner shall be entitled to a diminution or abatement in the Common Charges or Special Assessments payable thereby for any inconvenience or discomfort arising from: (i) the failure or interruption of any utility or other services; (ii) the making of repairs or improvements to the Common Elements or any Unit (including, without limitation, such Unit Owner's Unit) pursuant to the terms of Section 5.1 5.2 or 5.3 hereof; or (iii) any action taken by the Condominium Board or the officers of the Condominium to comply with Law.

Section 6.3 Statement of Common Charges. The Condominium Board shall promptly provide a written statement of all unpaid Common Charges due from any Unit Owner upon its receipt of a written request therefor from such Unit Owner. In addition, each Unit Owner shall be permitted to examine the books of account the Condominium at reasonable times on business days, but not more frequently than once a month.

Section 6.4 Common Charge Deposit for Foreign Owners. Any Unit Owner that is a foreign government, a resident representative of a foreign government or such other person or entity otherwise entitled to the immunities from suit enjoyed by a foreign government (i.e., diplomatic or sovereign immunity) shall deposit at the Closing of such Unit with the Condominium Board an amount equal to two (2) times the then current annual Common for such Unit, subject to increase from time to time as such Common Charges increase, together with the full amount of any Special Assessment levied against, or allocable to, such Unit, as security for the faithful observance by such Unit Owner of the terms, provisions and conditions of these By-Laws. In the event that such Unit Owner defaults in respect of the terms, provisions and conditions of these By-Laws, the Condominium Board may use, apply or retain the whole or any part of the security so deposited, to the extent required for the payment of any Common Charges or other sum to which such Unit Owner is in default. If the Condominium Board applies or retains any part of said security the Unit Owner in question, within ten (10) days after notice from the Condominium Board, shall deposit with the Condominium Board, the amount so applied or retained so that such Condominium Board has the full amount of said security on hand at all times.

Section 6.5 Default in Payment of Common Charges.

(A) The Condominium Board shall take prompt action to collect any Common Charges due to the Condominium Board that remains unpaid for more than thirty (30) days after the due date for the payment thereof. In connection therewith, the Condominium Board shall have the right and obligation to cause liens for all sums due and owing to the Condominium Board to be filed in the Register's Office pursuant to the terms of Section 399-z of the Condominium Act, to cause such liens to be foreclosed in the manner provided in Section 399-aa of the Condominium Act and/or to institute all other proceedings deemed necessary or desirable by the Condominium Board to recover all such unpaid Common Charges or Special Assessments, together with all additional sums of money collectable by the Condominium Board by reason of such nonpayment pursuant to the terms of paragraph (B) hereof. A suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid Common Charges or Special Assessments, however, shall be maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing such charges.

(B) In the event that any Unit Owner shall fail to make prompt payment of Common Charges or Special Assessments, such Unit Owner shall be obligated to pay interest thereon at the highest rate chargeable to individuals pursuant to Law, to be computed from the due date thereof until paid in full, together with all costs and expenses paid or incurred by the Condominium Board, the Managing Agent, or the manager (if any) in connection with collecting such aforementioned lien, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements and court costs. In addition, if the Condominium Board shall bring an action to foreclose the aforementioned lien, the defaulting Unit Owner shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the use of his/her Unit, and the plaintiff in such foreclosure action shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the same. All such interest, costs and expenses and rentals shall be added to and shall constitute Common Charges payable by such Unit Owner.

(C) In any action brought by the Condominium Board to foreclose a lien on a Unit because of unpaid Common Charges, the Condominium Board shall have, on behalf of all Unit Owners, the power to purchase such Unit at the foreclosure sale thereof and to acquire, hold, lease, mortgage, convey, or otherwise deal with such Unit (but not to vote the votes appurtenant to the same). In the event that the net proceeds received on such foreclosure (after deduction of all legal fees and disbursements, advertising costs, brokerage commissions, court costs and other costs and expenses paid or incurred in connection therewith) shall be insufficient to satisfy the defaulting Unit Owner's obligations to the Condominium, such Unit Owner shall remain liable for the deficit. Any surplus on such foreclosure sale shall be paid to the defaulting Unit Owner after first paying all liens on such Unit Owner's in the order of priority of such liens

SELLING, LEASING AND MORTGAGING OF UNITS

Section 7.1. Sales and Leases. Subject to the terms of this Section 7.1, no Unit Owner may sell his/her Unit or any interest therein except by complying with the following provisions:

(A) A Unit Owner who acquired title to the Unit from Sponsor ("Sponsor Sale") is prohibited for a period of twelve (12) months from the Sponsor Sale from taking any of the following actions without Sponsor's prior written consent, which consent may be withheld, conditioned or delayed, in Sponsor's sole and absolute discretion (i) listing such Unit for sale or rental with any broker, (ii) placing or authorizing any listing in any broker's listing system or other listing service, (iii) advertising or otherwise offering, promoting or publicizing the availability of such Unit for sale or rental, or (iv) sell or otherwise convey the Unit, except for a deed in lieu of foreclosure.

(B) Any Unit Owner who receives a bona fide offer which he/she intends to accept (hereinafter called an "Outside Offer") for the sale of his/her Unit together with: (i) the undivided interest in the common elements appurtenant thereto; (ii) the interest of such Unit Owner in any Units previously acquired by the Condominium Board, or its designee, on behalf of all Unit Owners, or the proceeds of the sale or lease thereof, if any, and (iii) the interest of such Unit Owner in any other assets of the Condominium (the interests in subsections (i), (ii) and (iii) are hereinafter collectively called the "Appurtenant Interests"), shall give notice to the Condominium Board of such offer and of such intention, the name and address of the proposed purchaser, the terms of the proposed transaction and such other information as the Condominium Board may reasonably require, and shall offer to sell such Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, to the Condominium Board or its designee, on behalf of the owners of all other Units, on the same terms and conditions as contained in such Outside Offer. The giving of such notice shall constitute a warranty and representation by the Unit Owner who has received such offer to the Condominium Board, on behalf of the other Unit Owners, that such Unit Owner believes the Outside Offer to be bona fide in all respects. The Condominium Board may request reasonable additional information relating to the Outside Offer at any time after reviewing the initial notice and any additional information previously supplied by the Unit Owner and may schedule a personal interview to obtain additional information regarding a prospective purchaser. Within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice and all additional information that had been reasonably requested by the Condominium Board, the Condominium Board may elect by notice to such Unit Owner, either (a) to purchase such Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests (or to cause the same to be purchased by its assignee or designee, corporate or otherwise), on behalf of all other Unit Owners on the same terms and conditions as contained in the Outside Offer and as stated in the notice from the offering Unit Owner or (b) to produce a purchaser who will purchase such Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, on the same terms and conditions as contained in the Outside Offer and as stated in the notice from the offering Unit Owner. The Condominium Board may assign their right to purchase the Unit, on behalf of all Unit Owners at any time without liability, to the offering Unit Owner. If the Condominium Board shall elect to purchase such Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, or to cause the Unit to be purchased by its designee, title shall close at the office of the attorneys for the Condominium in accordance with the terms of the offer, but not less than forty-five (45) days after the giving of notice by the Condominium Board of its election to accept such offer. At the closing, the Unit Owner shall convey the Unit (and Appurtenant Interests) to the Condominium Board or to its designee on behalf of all other Unit Owners, by deed in the form required by Section 339-o of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, with all transfer stamps affixed, and shall pay all other taxes arising out of such sale. Real estate taxes, mortgage interest and Common Charges and expenses shall be apportioned between the Unit Owner and the Condominium Board or its designee as of the closing date. If the Condominium Board or its designee shall fail to accept such offer or to produce a purchaser within thirty (30) days as aforesaid or fails to act within the Thirty (30) day period, the offering Unit Owner shall be free to contract to sell the Unit to the Outside Offeror, together with the Appurtenant Interests, within ninety (90) days after the expiration of the period in which the Condominium Board or its designee might have accepted such offer, on the terms and conditions set forth in the notice of such Outside Offer from the offering Unit Owner to the Condominium Board. Any such deed to an Outside Offeror shall provide that the acceptance thereof by the grantee shall constitute an assumption of the provisions of the Declaration, the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations, as the same may be amended from time to time. If the offering Unit Owner shall not convey such Unit within such 90-day period to the Outside Offeror, on the terms and conditions contained in the Outside Offer, then should the offering Unit Owner thereafter elect to sell the Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, to the same or to another Outside Offeror, on the same or other terms and conditions, the offering Unit Owner shall be required to again comply with all of the terms and provisions of this Section 7.1 herein.

Any purported sale of a Unit in violation of this Section shall be voidable at the election of the Condominium Board by notice given to the person claiming to be the Unit Owner and the Condominium Board's right of first refusal shall be deemed reinstated.

(C) Except as set forth in Section 8, no Unit Owner may lease his/her Unit except by complying with the following provisions:

(i) Any Unit Owner who receives a bona fide offer for a lease of his/her unit which he/she intends to accept ("Lease Offer") shall give notice to the Condominium Board of such offer and of such intention, the name and address of the proposed lessee, the terms of the proposed lease, references and such other information as the Condominium Board may reasonably require, and shall offer to lease such unit to the Condominium Board or its designee on the same terms. The giving of such notice shall constitute a warranty and representation by the unit owner who has received such offer to the Condominium Board on behalf of the other unit owners that such Unit owner believes the Lease Offer to be bona fide in all respects. The Condominium Board may request reasonable additional information relating to the Lease Offer at any time after reviewing the initial notice and any additional information previously supplied by the Unit Owner and may schedule a personal interview to obtain additional information regarding a prospective tenant. Within forty-five (45) days after receipt of such notice and all additional information that had been reasonably requested by the Condominium Board, the Condominium Board may elect by notice to such unit owner, either (a) to lease such unit on behalf of all other unit owners (or to cause the same to be leased by its assignee or designee, corporate or otherwise), on the same terms and conditions as contained in the Lease Offer and as stated in the notice from the offering unit owners the notice offering unit owner or (b) to produce a tenant who will lease such unit on the same terms and conditions as contained in the Lease Offer and as stated in the notice from the offering unit owner. If the Board does not elect to exercise the above rights within the 45-day period, the Unit Owner may enter into the lease, but if the proposed tenant fails to take occupancy within sixty (60) days after the consent of the Board has been given or the right of first refusal waived, the Lease Offer shall be deemed void and the unit owner will be required to repeat the above proceedings with respect to approval of the proposed lease. The waiver of the Condominium Board of its right to lease the unit shall not in any way be construed to relieve the unit owner from offering the lease to the Condominium Board and a unit owner who subsequently desires to lease such apartment unit shall be required again to comply with all the terms and provisions of this subsection (c).

(ii) All leases must be for a minimum period of one year (with each such lease being to a specific named tenant and with no right to substitute any other tenant during the term of the lease). No Unit may be used, leased or subleased by any so-called "executive stay" or "short term stay" company or person engaged in the business of renting or leasing units, or for hotel, dormitory, employee residence or facility, fraternity or sorority house, resort housing or similar type of non-permanent housing. All leases shall be consistent with these By-Laws and shall contain such reasonable conditions as the Condominium Board may impose in order to protect the physical and financial security and continuity of the Condominium, including (but not limited to) provisions that a lease may not be modified, amended, extended or assigned, without the prior consent in writing of the Condominium Board; that the tenant shall not sublet the demised premises, or any part thereof, without the prior consent in writing of the Condominium Board; that the Condominium Board shall have power to terminate such lease and to bring summary proceedings to evict the tenant in the name of the landlord thereunder, in the event of default by the tenant in the performance of such lease; that in case of default by the Unit Owner, the Condominium Board shall have the right to require the tenant to pay its rent to and attom to the Condominium Board on demand; that the Unit Owner or tenant will maintain liability insurance naming the Condominium as an additional insured party, if available; that the tenant consents to personal jurisdiction in New York State; that the tenant waives diplomatic immunity; and that the Condominium Board shall have the right to terminate the lease on not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice upon foreclosure of the lien granted by Section 339-z of the Real Property Law of the State of New York. Except as set forth above, the form of any such lease shall be in substantially the then current form of apartment lease recommended by The Real Estate Board of New York, Inc. with such modifications as may be approved in writing by the Condominium Board. The Condominium Board may establish other reasonable regulations governing leases of Units from time to time.

(iii) Any purported lease of a Unit in violation of this Section shall be voidable at the election of the Condominium Board, and if the Condominium Board shall so elect, the Unit Owner shall be deemed to have authorized and empowered the Condominium Board to institute legal proceedings to evict the purported tenant in the name of the said Unit Owner as the purported landlord at the expense of the Unit Owner.

(iv) The Unit Owner shall execute an assignment of lease in favor of the Condominium as security for the payment of Common Charges, special assessments and all sums due from the Unit Owner to the Condominium or the Condominium Board.

(v) Any purported lease of a Unit in violation of this Section shall be voidable at the election of the Condominium Board, and if the Board shall so elect, the Unit Owner shall be deemed to have authorized and empowered the Condominium Board to institute legal proceedings to evict the purported tenant in the name of the said Unit Owner as the purported landlord at the expense of the Unit Owner.

(vi) Except for a Unit owned by Sponsor, or a Unit owned by a mortgagee who took title in foreclosure or by deed in lieu of foreclosure, any lease for a Unit must be for a minimum period of one year (with each such lease being to a specific named tenant and with no right to substitute any other tenant during the term of the lease).

Section 7.2. No Severance of Ownership. No Unit Owner shall execute any deed, mortgage, or other instrument conveying or mortgaging title to his/her Unit without including therein the Appurtenant Interests, it being the intention hereof to prevent any severance of such combined ownership. Any such deed, mortgage, or other instrument purporting to affect one or more of such interests, without including all such interests, shall be deemed and taken to include the interest or interests so omitted, even though the latter shall not be expressly mentioned or described therein. No part of the Appurtenant Interests of any Unit may be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of, except as part of a sale, transfer or other disposition of the Unit to which such interests are appurtenant, or as part of a sale, transfer or other disposition of such part of the Appurtenant Interests of all Units.

Section 7.3 Release by Condominium Board of Right of First Refusal. The right of first refusal contained in Section 7.1 may be released or waived by the Condominium Board, in which event, the Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, may be leased, sold or conveyed, free and clear of the provisions of such Section.

Section 7.4. Certificate of Termination of Rights of First Refusal. A certificate, executed and acknowledged by the Secretary of the Condominium, stating that the provisions of Section one of this Article X have been met by a Unit Owner, or have been duly waived by the Condominium Board, and that the rights of the Condominium Board thereunder have terminated, shall be conclusive upon the Condominium Board and the Unit Owners in favor of all persons who rely thereon in good faith. Such certificate shall be furnished to any Unit Owner who has in fact complied with the provisions of Section one of this Article X or with respect to whom the provisions of such Section have been waived, upon request.

Section 7.5. Financing of Purchase of Units by Condominium Board. Acquisition of Units by the Condominium Board or its designee, on behalf of all Unit Owners, may be made from working capital and Common Charges in the hands of the Condominium Board, or if such funds are insufficient, the Condominium Board may levy an assessment against each Unit Owner in proportion to his/her ownership in the common elements, as a Common Charge, which assessment shall be enforceable in the same manner as provided in Article VI, or the Condominium Board, in its sole discretion, may borrow money to finance the acquisition of such Unit, provided, however, that no financing, may be secured by an encumbrance or hypothecation of any property, other than the Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, to be acquired by the Condominium Board.

Section 7.6. Payment of Common Charges and Assessments. No Unit Owner shall be permitted to convey, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, sell or lease his/her Unit, unless and until he/she shall have paid in full to the Condominium Board all unpaid Common Charges and assessments and expenses theretofore assessed by the Condominium Board against his/her Unit, and until he/she shall have satisfied all unpaid liens against such Unit, except permitted mortgages.

Section 7.7. Exceptions to Restrictions on Sales and Leases. The provisions of Section one of this Article X shall not apply with respect to (a) any sale, conveyance or lease by a Unit Owner of his/her Unit and Appurtenant Interests to his/her spouse or to any of his/her children over the age of eighteen (18) years, or to his/her parent or parents or to his/her brothers or sisters, or to any one or more of them, or to a trust established for the benefit of any of them; or (b) a sale or lease of a Unit and Appurtenant Interests owned by the Sponsor or any principal thereof (as defined in the Plan); or (c) the acquisition, sale or lease of a Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, by a mortgagee who shall acquire title to such Unit by foreclosure or by deed in lieu of foreclosure; or (d) a conveyance or transfer by gift during a Unit Owner's lifetime; or (e) the devise of a Unit by will or intestacy. However, the Condominium Board must be given written notice of every sale or lease of a Unit.

Section 7.8. Waiver of Partition Rights. The Unit Owners waive all of their voting rights concerning partition with respect to any Unit acquired by the Condominium Board in accordance with this Article.

Section 7.9 Consent to Jurisdiction and Venue in Lease. By virtue of acquiring title to a Unit or executing a lease, all Unit Owners, tenants and occupants irrevocably submit to personal jurisdiction in the State of New York and venue in New York County in any action commenced by the Condominium Board.

Section 7.10 Mortgages of Units. Each Unit Owner is free to mortgage his/her Unit. Prior to or simultaneously with the closing of any mortgage transaction, the Unit Owner must satisfy all arrearage for any unpaid Common Charges and assessments owed by such Unit Owner and discharge any liens therefor.

ARTICLE 8

Section 8.1 Self Help. If any Unit Owner shall violate or breach any of the provisions of the Condominium Documents on Unit Owner's part to be observed or performed, including, without limitation, any breach of Unit Owner's obligation to paint, decorate, maintain, repair, or replace the Unit or its appurtenant Limited Common Elements, if any, pursuant to the terms herein, and shall fail to cure such violation or breach within five days after receipt of written notice of the same from the Condominium Board, Managing Agent, or any Member of the Board (or, with respect to any violation or breach of the same not reasonably susceptible to cure within such period, to commence such cure within such five day period and, thereafter, to prosecute such cure with due diligence to completion), the Condominium Board shall have the right to enter such Unit Owner's Unit and/or its appurtenant Limited Common Elements, if any, and summarily to abate, remove, or cure such violation or breach without thereby being deemed guilty or liable in any manner of trespass. In addition, in the event that the Condominium Board shall determine that the abatement, removal, or cure of any such violation or breach is immediately necessary for the preservation or safety of the Building or for the safety of the occupants of the Building or other individuals or is required to avoid the suspension of any necessary service in the Building, the Condominium Board may take such action immediately, without prior notice and without allowing the said Unit Owner any period of time within which to cure or to commence to cure such violation or breach.

Section 8.2 Abatement and Enjoinment

(A) In the event that any Unit Owner shall violate or breach any of the provisions of the Condominium Documents on such Unit Owner's part to be observed or performed, the Condominium Board shall have the right (i) to enter any Unit or Common Elements in which, or as to which, such violation or breach exists and to summarily abate and remove, at the expense of the defaulting Unit Owner, any structure, thing or condition resulting in such violation or breach and the Condominium Board shall not thereby be deemed guilty or liable in any matter of trespass, and/or (ii) to enjoin, abate, or remedy the continuance or repetition of any such violation or breach by appropriate proceedings brought either at law or in equity, provided that the Condominium Board gives the Unit Owner notice (which may be by telephone or in writing) that such violation exists, that repairs or replacements are necessary and that the Condominium Board will complete such repairs or replacements in the event the Unit Owner does not promptly act or complete the repairs or replacements, and/or (iii) to levy such fines and penalties as the Condominium Board may deem appropriate and the Condominium Board shall have the same remedies for non-payment of such fines and penalties as for non-payment of Common Charges.

(B) The violation or breach of any of the terms of the Condominium Documents with respect to any rights, easements, privileges, or licenses granted to Sponsor shall give Sponsor the right to enjoin, abate, or remedy the continuation or repetition of any such violation or breach by appropriate proceedings brought either at law or in equity.

Section 8.3 Remedies Cumulative. The remedies specifically granted to the Condominium Board or to Sponsor in this Article 8 or elsewhere in the Condominium Documents shall be cumulative, shall be in addition to all other remedies obtainable at law or in equity and may be exercised at one time or at different times, concurrently or in any order, in the sole discretion of the Condominium Board or Sponsor, as the case may be. Further, the exercise of any remedy shall not operate as a waiver, or preclude the exercise, of any other remedy.

Section 8.4 Costs and Expenses. All sums of money expended, and all costs and expenses incurred, by (i) the Condominium Board is connection with the abatement, enjoinment, removal, or cure of any violation, breach, or default committed by a Unit Owner pursuant to the terms of Section 8.1 or Paragraph (A) of Section 8.2 hereof or (ii) Sponsor in connection or with any abatement, enjoinment or remedy of any violation or breach of the Condominium Documents pursuant to the terms of Paragraph (B) of Section 8.2 hereof, shall be immediately payable by (a) in the event set forth in subsection (i) hereof, such Unit Owner to the Condominium Board or (b) in the event set forth in subsection (ii) hereof, the offending party (i.e., the Condominium Board or the Unit Owner) to Sponsor which amount shall, in either event, bear interest (to be computed from the date expended) at the rate of two percent (2%) per month (but in no event in excess of the maximum rate chargeable to such Unit Owner pursuant to Law). All sums payable by a Unit Owner to the Condominium Board pursuant to the terms of this Section 8.4 shall, for all purposes hereunder, constitute additional Common Charges payable by such Unit Owner.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. See also What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and, generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

General Instructions

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

What's New

Line 3a has been modified to clarify how a disregarded entity completes this line. An LLC that is a disregarded entity should check the appropriate box for the tax classification of its owner. Otherwise, it should check the "LLC" box and enter its appropriate tax classification.

New line 3b has been added to this form. A flow-through entity is required to complete this line to indicate that it has direct or indirect foreign partners, owners, or beneficiaries when it provides the Form W-9 to another flow-through entity in which it has an ownership interest. This change is intended to provide a flow-through entity with information regarding the status of its indirect foreign partners, owners, or beneficiaries, so that it can satisfy any applicable reporting requirements. For example, a partnership that has any indirect foreign partners may be required to complete Schedules K-2 and K-3. See the Partnership Instructions for Schedules K-2 and K-3 (Form 1065).

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS is giving you this form because they must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN), which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid).
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds).
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds).
- Form 1099-NEC (nonemployee compensation).
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers).
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions).
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third-party network transactions).
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), and 1098-T (tuition).
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt).
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property).

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

Caution: If you don't return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued);
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding; or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee; and
4. Certify to your non-foreign status for purposes of withholding under chapter 3 or 4 of the Code (if applicable); and
5. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting is correct. See What Is FATCA Reporting, later, for further information.

Note: If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Establishing U.S. status for purposes of chapter 3 and chapter 4 withholding. Payments made to foreign persons, including certain distributions, allocations of income, or transfers of sales proceeds, may be subject to withholding under chapter 3 or chapter 4 of the Code (sections 1441–1474). Under those rules, if a Form W-9 or other certification of non-foreign status has not been received, a withholding agent, transferee, or partnership (payor) generally applies presumption rules that may require the payor to withhold applicable tax from the recipient, owner, transferor, or partner (payee). See Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities.

The following persons must provide Form W-9 to the payor for purposes of establishing its non-foreign status.

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the disregarded entity.
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the grantor trust.
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

See Pub. 515 for more information on providing a Form W-9 or a certification of non-foreign status to avoid withholding.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person (under Regulations section 1.1441-1(b)(2)(iv) or other applicable section for chapter 3 or 4 purposes), do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Pub. 515). If you are a qualified foreign pension fund under Regulations section 1.897(l)-1(d), or a partnership that is wholly owned by qualified foreign pension funds, that is treated as a non-foreign person for purposes of section 1445 withholding, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use Form W-8EXP (or other certification of non-foreign status).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a saving clause. Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items.

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if their stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first Protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on their scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 24% of such payments. This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include, but are not limited to, interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third-party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester;
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the instructions for Part II for details);
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN;
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only); or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding, as described in item 4 under "By signing the filled-out form" above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code, later, and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

See also Establishing U.S. status for purposes of chapter 3 and chapter 4 withholding, earlier.

What Is FATCA Reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all U.S. account holders that are specified U.S. persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code, later, and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you are no longer tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account, for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Line 1

You must enter one of the following on this line; do not leave this line blank. The name should match the name on your tax return.

If this Form W-9 is for a joint account (other than an account maintained by a foreign financial institution (FFI)), list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of Form W-9. If you are providing Form W-9 to an FFI to document a joint account, each holder of the account that is a U.S. person must provide a Form W-9.

• Individual. Generally, enter the name shown on your tax return. If you have changed your last name without informing the Social Security Administration (SSA) of the name change, enter your first name, the last name as shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

Note for ITIN applicant: Enter your individual name as it was entered on your Form W-7 application, line 1a. This should also be the same as the name you entered on the Form 1040 you filed with your application.

• Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your Form 1040 on line 1. Enter your business, trade, or "doing business as" (DBA) name on line 2.

• Partnership, C corporation, S corporation, or LLC, other than a disregarded entity. Enter the entity's name as shown on the entity's tax return on line 1 and any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

• Other entities. Enter your name as shown on required U.S. federal tax documents on line 1. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. Enter any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

• Disregarded entity. In general, a business entity that has a single owner, including an LLC, and is not a corporation, is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (a disregarded entity). See Regulations section 301.7701-2(c)(2). A disregarded entity should check the appropriate box for the tax classification of its owner. Enter the owner's name on line 1. The name of the owner entered on line 1 should never be a disregarded entity. The name on line 1 should be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner's name is required to be provided on line 1. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on line 2. If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Line 2

If you have a business name, trade name, DBA name, or disregarded entity name, enter it on line 2.

Line 3a

Check the appropriate box on line 3a for the U.S. federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on line 1. Check only one box on line 3a.

IF the entity/individual on line 1 is a(n) . . .	THEN check the box for . . .
• Corporation	Corporation.
• Individual or • Sole proprietorship	Individual/sole proprietor.
• LLC classified as a partnership for U.S. federal tax purposes or • LLC that has filed Form 8832 or 2553 electing to be taxed as a corporation	Limited liability company and enter the appropriate tax classification: P = Partnership, C = C corporation, or S = S corporation.
• Partnership	Partnership.
• Trust/estate	Trust/estate.

Check this box if you are a partnership (including an LLC classified as a partnership for U.S. federal tax purposes), trust, or estate that has any foreign partners, owners, or beneficiaries, and you are providing this form to a partnership, trust, or estate, in which you have an ownership interest. You must check the box on line 3b if you receive a Form W-8 (or documentary evidence) from any partner, owner, or beneficiary establishing foreign status or if you receive a Form W-9 from any partner, owner, or beneficiary that has checked the box on line 3b.

Note: A partnership that provides a Form W-9 and checks box 3b may be required to complete Schedules K-2 and K-3 (Form 1065). For more information, see the Partnership Instructions for Schedules K-2 and K-3 (Form 1065).

If you are required to complete line 3b but fail to do so, you may not receive the information necessary to file a correct information return with the IRS or furnish a correct payee statement to your partners or beneficiaries. See, for example, sections 6698, 6722, and 6724 for penalties that may apply.

Exemption from FATCA reporting code. The following codes identify payees that are exempt from reporting under FATCA. These codes apply to persons submitting this form for accounts maintained outside of the United States by certain foreign financial institutions. Therefore, if you are only submitting this form for an account you hold in the United States, you may leave this field blank. Consult with the person requesting this form if you are uncertain if the financial institution is subject to these requirements. A requester may indicate that a code is not required by providing you with a Form W-9 with "Not Applicable" (or any similar indication) entered on the line for a FATCA exemption code.

K—A broker.

L—A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947(a)(1).

M—A tax-exempt trust under a section 403(b) plan or section 457(g) plan.

Note: You may wish to consult with the financial institution requesting this form to determine whether the FATCA code and/or exempt payee code should be completed.

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns. If this address differs from the one the requester already has on file, enter "NEW" at the top. If a new address is provided, there is still a chance the old address will be used until the payor changes your address in their records.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have, and are not eligible to get, an SSN, your TIN is your IRS ITIN. Enter it in the entry space for the Social security number. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note: See What Name and Number To Give the Requester, later, for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.SSA.gov. You may also get this form by calling 800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/EIN. Go to www.irs.gov/Forms to view, download, or print Form W-7 and/or Form SS-4. Or, you can go to www.irs.gov/OrderForms to place an order and have Form W-7 and/or Form SS-4 mailed to you within 15 business days.

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and enter "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, you will generally have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note: Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon. See also Establishing U.S. status for purposes of chapter 3 and chapter 4 withholding, earlier, for when you may instead be subject to withholding under chapter 3 or 4 of the Code.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, 4, or 5 below indicates otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code, earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third-party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), ABLE accounts (under section 529A), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records From Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information, such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax return preparer.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 800-366-4484. SECTION 339-KK OF THE REAL PROPERTY LAW

The Real Property Law is amended by adding a new Section 339-kk to read as follows:

"Rents. (a) For the purposes of this section, "non-occupying owner" shall mean a unit owner in a condominium association who does not occupy the dwelling unit.

(b) If a non-occupying owner rents any dwelling unit to a rental tenant and then fails to make payments due for common charges, assessments or late fees for such unit within sixty days of the expiration of any grace period after they are due, upon notice in accordance with subdivision (c) of this section, all rental payments from the tenant shall be directly payable to the condominium association.

(c) If the common charges, assessments or late fees due for any unit have not been paid in full, within sixty days after the expiration of any grace period of the earliest due date, the Condominium Board shall provide written notice to the tenant and the non-occupying owner providing that, commencing immediately and until such time as all payments for common charges, assessments or late fees are made current, all rental payments due subsequent to the issuance of such notice are to be made payable to the condominium association at the address listed on the notice. Where a majority of the Condominium Board has been elected by and from among the unit owners who are in occupancy, the board may elect not to require that rental payments be made payable to the condominium association. At such time as payments for common charges, assessments and late fees from the non-occupying owner are once again current, notice of such fact shall be given within three business days to the rental tenant and non-occupying owner. Thereafter all rental payments shall be made payable to the non-occupying owner or a designated agent. A non-occupying owner who disputes the association's claim to rental payments pursuant to this section shall be entitled to present facts supporting such owner's position at the next scheduled meeting of the Condominium Board, which must be held thirty days of the date that such board receives notice that such owner seeks to dispute such claim.

(d) Nothing in this section shall limit any rights of unit owners or of the Condominium Board existing under any other law or agreement.

(e) Payment by a rental tenant to the condominium association made in connection with this section shall relieve that rental tenant from the obligation to pay such rent to the non-occupying owner and shall be an absolute defense in any non-payment proceeding commenced by such non-occupying owner against such tenant for such rent."

This act may be enforced by any party by means of a special proceeding brought pursuant to Article 4 of the Civil Practice Law and Rules.
