334 UNION STREET LLC 334 Union Street, Unit 2 Brooklyn, NY 11231	COMPASS 1320 Fulton Street Brooklyn, NY 10065

The term of the initial offering of this Plan commenced on _____, 2024 and expires on _____, 2025 unless the said date is extended in a duly filed amendment.

THIS OFFERING PLAN IS THE SPONSOR'S ENTIRE OFFER TO SELL THESE CONDOMINIUM UNITS. NEW YORK LAW REQUIRES THE SPONSOR TO DISCLOSE ALL MATERIAL INFORMATION IN THIS PLAN AND TO FILE THIS PLAN WITH THE NEW YORK STATE DEPARTMENT OF LAW PRIOR TO SELLING OR OFFERING TO SELL ANY CONDOMINIUM UNIT. FILING WITH THE DEPARTMENT OF LAW DOES NOT MEAN THAT THE DEPARTMENT OR ANY OTHER GOVERNMENT AGENCY HAS APPROVED THIS OFFERING.

BECAUSE SPONSOR IS RETAINING THE UNCONDITIONAL RIGHT TO RENT RATHER THAN SELL UNITS AFTER THE PLAN HAS BEEN CONSUMMATED AND IS WITHHOLDING UNITS FROM THE INITIAL OFFER, THIS PLAN MAY NOT RESULT IN THE CREATION OF A CONDOMINIUM IN WHICH A MAJORITY OF THE UNITS ARE OWNED BY THE OWNERS-OCCUPANTS OR INVESTORS UNRELATED TO SPONSOR. AS A RESULT, PURCHASERS PURCHASING FOR THEIR OWN OCCUPANCY MAY NEVER GAIN CONTROL OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS UNDER THE TERMS OF THE PLAN (SEE SPECIAL RISKS SECTION OF THE PLAN)

THIS PLAN CONTAINS SPECIAL RISKS TO PURCHASERS. SEE PAGE (i).

SPECIAL RISKS TO BE CONSIDERED BY PURCHASERS

1. SPONSOR MAY CONTROL THE BOARD INDEFINITELY The Sponsor is able to make decisions for the condominium whether the sole purchaser is in favor or not. There is no limit on the length of time that Sponsor may control the Board. Sponsor has the right to appoint a majority of the members of the Board, and therefore control the Condominium, for a period ending on the earlier to occur of (a) the transfer of two (2) Units in the Building and (b) five years from the First Closing (the "Sponsor Control Period"). Purchasers are advised that because Sponsor has retained the unconditional right to rent rather than sell Units, Sponsor control may never end and as such, Purchasers may never gain control of the Board under the terms of this Plan. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor may voluntarily relinquish such right to control the Board prior to the expiration of the Sponsor Control Period. The Board whether or not controlled by the Sponsor assumes a fiduciary duty to act in the best interests of the Condominium and its Unit Owners. Any litigation against the Sponsor may require significant additional costs, time, and resources but does not guaranty resolution in the Unit Owner's favor.

2. Sponsor will determine the number of contracted-for-units required to declare the offering plan effective based upon the total number of anticipated units in the condominium, rather than the number of units Sponsor initially offers. Sponsor will endeavor in good faith to sell Units 1 and 3 in a reasonably timely manner to third party purchasers unrelated to Sponsor. Sponsor may not, however, rent Units until the Plan is consummated. The term consummated, as used herein, shall mean "Consummation of the Plan", which will occur after both the filing of the Declaration of Condominium and the First Closing under the Plan following a declaration of effectiveness by the Sponsor and acceptance of the amendment to the Plan confirming or declaring that the Plan is effective. Sponsor will at all times offer at least 15% of the total number of anticipated units to the public prior to effectiveness. In this instance, the sale of one unit will meet this threshold.

BECAUSE SPONSOR IS RETAINING THE UNCONDITIONAL RIGHT TO RENT RATHER THAN SELL UNITS AFTER THE PLAN HAS BEEN CONSUMMATED AND IS WITHHOLDING UNITS FROM THE INITIAL OFFER, AND THERE IS NO COMMITMENT TO SELL MORE THAN THE 15% OF THE TOTAL UNITS IN THE CONDOMINIUM NECESSARY TO DECLARE THE PLAN EFFECTIVE, THIS PLAN MAY NOT RESULT IN THE CREATION OF A CONDOMINIUM IN WHICH A MAJORITY OF THE UNITS ARE OWNED BY OWNER-OCCUPANTS OR INVESTORS UNRELATED TO THE SPONSOR. AS A RESULT, PURCHASERS FOR THEIR OWN OCCUPANCY MAY NEVER GAIN EFFECTIVE CONTROL OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS UNDER THE TERMS OF THIS PLAN

Advertising material that contains percentages of units sold must calculate the percentage of units sold using the total number of anticipated units in the Condominium rather than the number of units offered at that time. Sponsor will not rent the withheld units before consummation of the offering plan. Sponsor will amend the offering plan when it begins to offer withheld units. Sponsor's withholding of units will not affect the timetable for the projected completion of the condominium's amenities and services. Units 1 and 3 are being offered at this time. There is no current timeline for the release of Unit 2 onto the market.

See Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" for further detail.

3. The Building is located in a residential zoning district R6B and commercial zoning district C2-4. See Section of the Plan entitled "Location and Area Information" for further details.

4. None of the appliances are new and are being delivered in working condition only. THIS IS NOT NEW CONSTRUCTION AND THEREFORE THE HOUSING MERCHANT IMPLIED WARRANTY DOES NOT APPLY.

5. If a Purchaser sells a Unit without occupying it for at least three (3) of any five (5) year period from the date of acquiring ownership, the Purchaser will pay a Flip Tax of three (3%) of the sales price of the Unit.

6. The purchase of a condominium unit has many significant legal and financial consequences and may be one of the most important financial transactions of your life. The Attorney General of the State of New York strongly urges you to read this offering plan carefully and to consult with an attorney before signing an agreement to purchase a condominium unit.

7. At the time a Purchase Agreement is executed, a Purchaser is required to make a down payment in an amount equal to ten (10%) percent of the Purchase Price (the "Down Payment"). Additionally, if a Purchaser fails for any reason to close title to his or her Unit on the originally scheduled Closing Date and Sponsor elects not to cancel the Purchaser's Purchase Agreement as a result of the same, (a) the closing apportionments to be made at the Closing will be made as of midnight of the date preceding the originally scheduled Closing Date, and (b) the Purchaser will be required to pay to Sponsor an amount equal to 0.03% (or such lower rate per day which is the highest legal rate) of the purchase price of his or her Unit for each day that the Closing is adjourned. Said check will be drawn to the order of "Paley Group, P.C. as Escrow Agent", and deposited in the Escrow Account. Nothing herein shall be construed to mean that the Sponsor must grant an adjournment of title when requested to do so. See Section of the Plan Entitled "Procedure to Purchase" for further detail.

8. After the Plan is declared effective, Purchasers will receive at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice of the originally scheduled Closing Date and, in the event Purchaser fails to close on the designated date, then Purchaser will be given a thirty (30) day TIME BEING OF THE ESSENCE hard deadline notice within which to cure such default, following which a default will have occurred and Sponsor shall have the remedies set forth below. Time is of the essence as to Purchaser's obligations pursuant to the purchase agreement, including without limitation, the payment of the balance of the purchase price. In the event of any default by Purchaser under his or her Purchase Agreement, and if Purchaser does not cure such default within thirty (30) days after Sponsor gives written notice to the Purchaser of default, Sponsor may, at its option, cancel such Purchase Agreement and retain the Down Payment made by Purchaser, together with any interest earned thereon, as liquidated damages, in which event all rights, obligations and liabilities of Sponsor and Purchaser shall wholly cease and terminate. A Purchaser, however, may waive notice of such Purchaser's Closing Date.

FUNDS DRAWN ON OUT-OF-STATE OR FOREIGN BANKS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED IN PAYMENT OF THE PURCHASE PRICE FOR A UNIT UNLESS OTHERWISE AGREED BY SPONSOR.

See the Section of the Plan Entitled "Procedure to Purchase" for further details.

9. Escrow Agent has established a master escrow account at Flagstar Bank ("Escrow Bank") at Escrow Bank's branch located at 1400 Broadway, 25th Floor, New York, New York 10018. Purchasers are further advised that if a Purchaser makes a Down Payment in excess of $250,000 for the purchase of a unit, (i) such Down Payment will not be federally insured in excess of the current Federal Deposit Insurance Company ("FDIC") insured limit of $250,000; and (ii) while the Down Payment is in the interest bearing checking portion of the Master Escrow Account, the Down Payment may not be fully federally insured even if the Down Payment does not exceed $250,000. Sponsor is advised that the FDIC takes the position that for purposes of computing insurance coverage, all deposits in a party's name in a banking institution are added together and insured to a maximum of $250,000 aggregate. Thus, if a Purchaser already has or opens an account at Escrow Bank in the name in which the Down Payment is deposited, and should FDIC insurance be called upon, the funds in that account will be aggregated with the Down Payment and insured to a maximum of $250,000. Under the current law, the current $250,000 amount referred to herein as the amount of FDIC insurance is subject to change by the FDIC at any time. Funds drawn on out-of-state or foreign banks will not be accepted as payment of the purchase for a Unit unless otherwise agreed by Sponsor. (See the Section of the Plan entitled "Procedure to Purchase" for the further discussion of the foregoing.)

10. The Purchase Agreement is not contingent upon the Purchaser obtaining financing. The obligations of a Purchaser under a Purchase Agreement are not conditioned on obtaining financing. Any prospective purchaser who executes a Purchase Agreement and does not obtain financing may lose his or her deposit if he or she is unable to otherwise raise the monies for the balance of the purchase price. Prospective purchasers who require financing are advised to consult with a lending institution before execution of a Purchase Agreement. No representation is made by the Sponsor, its designees, representative or Selling Agent as to the availability or cost of such financing. (See the Section entitled "Procedure to Purchase" for the further discussion of the foregoing.)

11. Purchaser should note in the current real estate market, banks and other lenders are imposing various restrictions on financing. Such restrictions include requiring that a certain percentage of units in a building be sold before a lender will consider making a loan. Thus, it may be possible for a Purchaser to experience difficulty obtaining a loan in a building where the Sponsor, or holder of unsold units, has not sold a substantial percentage of the units in the building, that in some cases Sponsor's unsold units may be as high as seventy (70%) percent. Moreover, some lenders will not provide financing in a building where an investor other than the original sponsor has an ownership interest of ten (10%) percent or more. It also may be difficult for a purchaser to resell an apartment if prospective purchasers are unable to obtain a loan due to the same minimum sales and investor ownership restrictions. (See the Section entitled "Procedure to Purchase" for the further discussion of the foregoing.)

12. The Reserve Fund provided for in the Projected Budget for the First Year of Condominium Operation (Schedule B) is a common expense and is intended to provide a fund for unanticipated expenses not included in the budget and may only be used for capital expenditures. The Reserve Fund may not be used to cover increases in general operating expenses. No other reserve fund for capital expenditures has been established. The Reserve Fund is not intended and may not be sufficient to meet the cost of any major capital repairs or replacements which may be required. The Reserve Fund is not estimated to be sufficient to provide for needed capital expenditures within the five (5) years following the first closing. If funds are required to meet such costs, it may be necessary to increase Common Charges or institute a special assessment. See the Section of the Plan entitled "Reserve Fund" and "Working Capital Fund" for further discussion.

13. Neither Sponsor, Selling Agent nor any of their principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates shall be obligated to correct, repair, or replace any and all defects relating to construction of the Units, the Common Elements and the Limited Common Elements, or in the installation or operation of any appliances, fixtures, or equipment therein, except as expressly provided in this Plan and provided under applicable law. Neither Sponsor, Selling Agent nor any of their principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates will warrant the materials or workmanship of any Unit or any of the Common Elements. To the extent Sponsor has obtained same, Sponsor shall deliver to Purchaser any manufacturer's warranties obtained with respect to equipment and appliances installed in the Unit, and upon receipt by the Sponsor of the applicable warranty shall deliver to the Condominium Board any written warranties with respect to equipment and appliances installed in Common Elements. If any warrantor or guarantor is unable to perform under its warranty or guaranty due to inability, unwillingness, bankruptcy, failure to continue as a viable enterprise or any other reason whatsoever, neither Sponsor, Selling Agent nor any of their principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates shall under any circumstances be considered or deemed a successor warrantor or guarantor under said warranty or guaranty or be required to perform such work. Neither Sponsor, Selling Agent nor any of their principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates has obligations or responsibilities with respect to such warranties, or the work or item warrantied, even if the warrantor goes out of business, declares bankruptcy or simply fails to fulfill the conditions of the warranty. Recourse is only to the warrantor or guarantor and not to Sponsor or any of its principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor must comply with all obligations imposed by the Offering Plan, approved building plans and specifications, applicable statutes and regulations, building codes and locally accepted building practices. Sponsor remains obligated to have built the Condominium in accordance with the plans and specifications identified in the Offering Plan. See the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" for further discussion.

14. In order to meet the possible varying demand for number and type of Units, or to meet particular requirements of prospective purchasers, or for any other reason, Sponsor or its designee reserves the right (except to the extent prohibited by law) at any time and from time to time, before and after the recording of the Declaration, without giving prior notice and without the consent of any Board, Unit Owner or mortgagee, to (a) change the layout of, or number of rooms in any Unsold Unit, (b) change the size and/or number of Unsold Units by dividing one or more such Units into two or more separate Unsold Units, combining separate Unsold Units (including those resulting from such subdivision or otherwise) into one or more Unsold Units, altering the boundary walls between one or more Unsold Units, or otherwise, including incorporating Common Elements (such as a portion of a hallway) which exclusively benefit an Unsold Unit in such Unsold Unit, and (c) if appropriate, reapportion among the Unsold Units affected by any such change, their aggregate Common Interests. A decrease in a Unit's area of 5% or less will not affect a purchaser's obligations unless such decrease is determined to be a material change. There is a rebuttable presumption that an area that is diminished by 5% or less is not material. In the event that there is a material change in the Unit or an materially adverse change in the common elements, the Sponsor shall offer the purchaser the right of rescission. The purchaser shall have thirty (30) days from receipt of written notice from Sponsor to rescind the Purchase Agreement (the "Notice Period"). If purchaser fails to rescind by written notice to the Sponsor by the end of the Notice Period, purchaser shall have waived its right to rescind and shall proceed to closing. If the Purchaser provides the proper notice during the Notice Period, the Sponsor shall return the initial down payment to the purchaser and the Purchase Agreement will be rendered void. Please see the Section of the Plan entitled "Changes in Prices and Units" for further details.

15. The Rear Yard space appurtenant to certain Units and the Storage Area appurtenant to Unit 1, as described in Schedule A and the Floor Plans set forth in Part II of the Plan, will be Limited Common Elements available for the exclusive use of the Unit Owners of such Units. A Unit Owner who has a Rear Yard or Storage Area appurtenant to his or her Unit shall have the exclusive use of same, subject to the right of the Condominium Board to regulate its use and to use it for making repairs to the exterior of the Building, and such Unit Owner shall be responsible for all normal maintenance, repairs and replacements thereto, including resurfacing and waterproofing. However, the costs and expenses of any structural repairs or repairs or replacements caused by the need for such structural repairs to any Rear Yard or Storage Area shall be charged to all Unit Owners as a Common Expense (unless the need for the repair is caused by its Unit Owner, in which case that Unit Owner shall be responsible for the cost). No structures of any kind may be built in the Rear Yards, except for a removable one such as a tool shed. The Unit Owner shall be responsible for maintenance of said yard including landscaping, cleaning, and maintenance of any structures in the yard including any fences. Mechanical equipment necessary for the maintenance and operation of the Building and the Units will be located on the Cellar Floor of Unit 1. The Condominium Board will have a right of access to all areas of the Cellar Floor for necessary inspection, maintenance or repairs upon at least two (2) days' prior notice, except that, only in an emergency situation, there is a 24-hour unlimited access period to these aforementioned areas without prior notification. See the "Description of Property" and "Floor Plans" in Part II of the Plan for further details. The Condominium Board will be responsible for ensuring that the mechanical equipment is operated in accordance with Law, including requirements governing acceptable levels of noise and odor emissions. Neither Sponsor, Selling Agent nor any of their principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates are responsible for or are they making any guarantees regarding the level or noise or odors resulting from the operation of the Building or the Units.

16. The Rear Yard appurtenant to a Unit may be used for recreation and dining but may not be used for any type of occupancy, including but not limited to sleeping, living room or office use. To do so may result in a violation against the Building being issued by the Department of Buildings. Please refer to the By-Laws in Section Part II of the Plan.

17. There is a provision for a reserve fund for the Condominium for the purpose of paying a portion of the cost of future capital repairs, replacements or improvements to the Premises by way of (a) a line item included in Schedule B - Budget for the First Year of Condominium Operation which provides for an annual amount designated for the Reserve Fund, and (b) each Purchaser of a Unit shall pay into the Working Capital of the Condominium a sum equal to two (2) months of Common Charges for the Unit being purchased at closing. The By-Laws also provide that upon the initial sale of a Unit, a purchaser will be required to contribute two (2) months of the Common Charges to the Condominium's Working Capital. Unit Owners shall be obligated to pay their share of the cost of repair, replacements and improvements to the Common Elements as the need for the same arises, unless there is sufficient Working Capital or other funds available. Sponsor does not anticipate the imminent need for such capital repairs, replacements or improvements; however, no assurance or guaranty is given by the Sponsor or any of its principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates that such needs shall not arise in the future. This fund may be used to pay for items in the budget which will be payable prior to the time that sufficient monthly Common Charges have accrued in the Condominium spending account to pay for these items. See "Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners and the Board of Managers."

18. Prior to the closing of title to a Unit, the Purchase Agreement prohibits a Purchaser from advertising or otherwise offering, promoting or publicizing the availability of the Unit for sale or lease. Any such conveyances in violation of the foregoing will be voidable by Sponsor. Purchasers are referred to the Purchase Agreement set forth in Part II of the Plan.

19. PURCHASER SHALL BE OBLIGATED TO REIMBURSE SPONSOR FOR ANY LEGAL FEES AND DISBURSEMENTS INCURRED BY SPONSOR IN DEFENDING SPONSOR'S RIGHTS AND ENFORCING PURCHASER'S OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT PROVIDED SPONSOR IS DEEMED THE PREVAILING PARTY IN ANY SUCH DISPUTE.

Please see the Section entitled "Procedure to Purchase" in Part I of this Plan and the form of Purchase Agreement in Part II of this Plan.

20. The Budget will be consistent with the disclosures set forth in Schedule B, and B-1 of the Offering Plan. Unit Owners will be assessed common charges to meet the Units' allocated share of Common Expenses and the Common Charges payable by each Unit Owner will be in proportion to such Unit's percentage Common Interest compared to the total of all Units. See the Projected Budget for the First Year of Condominium Operation of the Units (Schedule B), and Section 6.1 of the By-Laws. See the Section Entitled "Control By Sponsor".

21. During the Sponsor Control Period, Sponsor will have control of the maintenance and operation of the Condominium and will, as controlling party on the Condominium Board, determine the Common Charges to be paid for all Unit Owners (including Sponsor); provided, however, Sponsor shall vote to authorize the expenditures set forth in Schedule B of this Offering Plan or any other expenditure required: (i) to comply with applicable laws or regulations, (ii) to remedy any notice or violations, or (iii) to remedy any work order by an insurer. The By-Laws of the Condominium do not include a provision that after the Sponsor Control Period, a majority of the Board of Managers must be owner-occupants or members of an owner-occupant's household who are unrelated to Sponsor and its principals. Owner-occupants and non-resident owners, including Sponsor, may have inherent conflicts on how the Condominium should be managed because of their different reasons for purchasing, i.e., purchasing a home as opposed to an investment. A board member designated or appointed by the Sponsor, whether or not a principal of Sponsor, Any board member designated or appointed by the Sponsor, whether or not a principal of Sponsor, shall not have any personal liability based upon the actions and decisions of the Condominium Board made in the due course of business at such time as such person is serving on the Board. It is possible that a board member may act dishonestly and/or commit fraud or funds transfer fraud with regard to the Condominium's funds. To protect other board members who uphold the law, such board members, whether or not a principal of Sponsor, shall not have any personal liability based upon the actions and decisions of the Condominium Board made in the due course of business at such time as such person is serving on the Board. The Board shall procure Directors and Officers Liability Insurance also known as Fidelity Bond Coverage as a means to protect these individual board members from personal liability as a result of such fraud. See the Section Entitled "Control By Sponsor".

22. Until Sponsor or its designee has conveyed title to two (2) units, the Condominium Board may not take any of the following actions without Sponsor's prior written consent (notwithstanding the number of votes Sponsor controls): (a) make any addition, alteration or improvement to the Common Elements or to any Unit, or (b) assess any Common Charges or Limited Common Charges for the creation of, addition to or replacement of all or part of a working capital, reserve, contingency or surplus fund, or (c) increase or decrease the number, or change the kind of, employees referred to in the Plan, or (d) enter into any service or maintenance contract for work not covered by contracts in existence on the date of the First Closing or otherwise provide services in excess of those referred to in the Plan, except as if required to reflect normal annual increases in operating services, or (e) borrow money on behalf of the Condominium, or (f) exercise a right of first refusal to lease or purchase a Unit; provided, however, that Sponsor's written consent is not necessary to perform any function or take any action described in clauses (a) through (f) above, if, and only if, the performance of such function or the carrying out of such an action is necessary (and no other alternative is available) to enable the Condominium Board to comply with laws, rules or regulations of any governmental authority having jurisdiction over the Condominium (see the Section entitled "Control By Sponsor" for further details).

23. No amendment, modification, addition or deletion of the Declaration, By-Laws or Rules and Regulations shall be effective in any way without the prior written consent of Sponsor or its designee with respect to any amendment, modification, addition or deletion of or to the By-Laws, the Declaration or the Rules and Regulations modifying the permitted uses of the Building or any portion thereof or affecting the rights, privileges, easements, licenses or exemptions granted to Sponsor or its designee, or otherwise adversely affecting Sponsor. Sponsor's right to consent shall terminate upon the date Sponsor ceases to own any unsold units in the condominium (See the Section entitled “Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners and the Boards of Managers”).

24. At Closing, each Purchaser will execute a Power of Attorney in the form provided in Part II of the Offering Plan (and deliver said instrument to the Purchaser’s title company for recording), designating the Board of Managers as his or her Attorney in fact, coupled with an interest for, but not limited to, the purpose of managing, selling, mortgaging, leasing, voting or otherwise dealing with any Unit acquired by the Board of Managers in accordance with any of the provisions of the By-Laws and for purposes consistent with the implementation of the Offering Plan. The power of attorney also grants to Sponsor the right to amend the Condominium Declaration with respect to any Unsold Unit. The execution of a Power of Attorney is required to effectuate the Closing. The failure of Purchaser to execute a Power of Attorney at Closing shall constitute a default under the Purchase Agreement.

25. Although the estimate of the real estate taxes is a good faith estimate, it is not possible to estimate same with any degree of certainty. Assessed valuations or taxes, when actually made or determined by the City of New York, may be lesser or greater. Accordingly, these estimates of assessed valuation are to be considered well-founded opinions and are not intended and should not be construed as warranties as to future assessed valuations. The real estate tax estimates for each Unit were calculated on the assumption that the real estate taxes payable with respect to each Unit for the first year of Condominium operation will be allocated in proportion to each Unit’s percentage interest in the Common Elements. The real estate taxes payable for the first year of the Condominium’s operation is based on its post-completion valuation in accordance with the real estate tax analysis set forth in the Opinion of Metropolitan Realty Exemptions dated March 18, 2024. Purchasers should review the foregoing opinion and consult with their own tax advisor to determine the real estate taxes after the First Year of Condominium Operation. Neither the Sponsor nor its principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees, affiliates or the Selling Agent make any representation that the Real Estate Taxes set forth in Schedule A will be the actual Real Estate Taxes finally determined by the City of New York. Please refer to the Section of the Plan entitled “Real Estate Taxes” and to the Opinion of Metropolitan Realty Exemptions contained in Part I of the Plan for further details.

26. The By-Laws do not include a provision limiting the number of Unit Owners who may purchase for investment rather than for personal occupancy, and as a result, there may always be a substantial percentage of Owners who are non-residents. Owner-occupants and non-resident Owners may have inherent conflicts on how the Condominium should be managed because of their different reasons for owning. Please refer to “Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners and the Board of Managers”.

27. No bond or other security has been posted by Sponsor to secure its obligation to pay Common Charges, special assessments and real estate taxes with respect to the Unsold Units; however, Sponsor represents that it has the financial resources to meet all such obligations with respect to the offering for the Condominium. Sponsor will fund its financial obligations from proceeds from the sales of offered Units, rental income from Unsold Units, and financing. Please refer to the Section of the Plan entitled “Rights and Obligations of Sponsor” in Part I of the Plan for further details.

28. The interior and exterior glass surfaces of all windows located in any Unit shall not be colored or painted and are to be washed and cleaned by the Unit Owner at such Unit Owner's sole cost and expense. The exterior glass surfaces of all windows may, at the option of the Condominium Board, be washed and cleaned by the Condominium Board and the cost thereof shall be a Common Expense; otherwise Unit Owners shall be obligated to clean such windows at their own cost and expense. Window cleaning is currently not included in the Schedule B as a Common Expense. Please refer to the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners and the Board of Managers" under the subsection entitled "Repairs to and Maintenance of Units and Common Elements" in Part I of the Plan for further details.

29. Purchasers shall be obligated to pay the New York City Real Property Transfer Tax and New York State Real Property Tax (Deed Stamps) which by law are the primary obligation of the Seller. If the purchase price of the Unit is $1,000,000 or more, Purchaser shall also be obligated to pay the New York State Additional Tax pursuant to Article 31 of the Tax Law, commonly referred to as the "Mansion Tax", which by law is the primary obligation of the Purchaser. The New York State 2019/2020 Budget (the "2020 Budget") includes legislation which revises the rates of the New York State real estate transfer tax (the "NYSTRTT") and a new "supplemental tax" (the "ST"). Prior to the 2020 Budget, the NYSTRTT was charged at the rate of $2.00 for each $500.00 of consideration (or 0.4%). Pursuant to the 2020 Budget, the existing rate of the NYSTRTT shall remain for conveyances of residential real property for consideration of less than $3 million, however an additional 0.25% (for a total of 0.65%) shall be added for conveyances of residential real property for consideration of $3 million or more. Prior to the 2020 Budget, the "mansion tax" ("MT") was charged at a rate of 1% of the total consideration for the conveyance of residential real property. Pursuant to the 2020 Budget, and as per the below table, there is now a MT and ST. The ST rate is a supplementary "progressive" tax, ranging from 0.25% on transfers of residential real property for $2 million or more of consideration to 3.9% on transfers for $25 million or more of consideration (conveyances of residential real property for consideration of less than $1 million are not subject to the MT and conveyances of residential real property for consideration of at least $1 million and less than $2 million shall be subject to a rate of 1% of the consideration).

Consideration Amount	Total NYS Mansion Tax Rate	Supplemental Tax	Total Percentage
Under $1 Million	Not subject to tax	0%	0%
At least $1 Million, but less than $2 Million	1%	0%	1%
At least $2 Million, but less than $3 Million	1%	0.25%	1.25%

For purposes of calculating the taxes payable, the amounts of such taxes (other than the Mansion Tax) will be included in the consideration subject to such tax. Therefore, the purchase price and transfer taxes payable by purchaser are added together by NYS Department to arrive at total consideration. Therefore, a Unit priced at $985,000, where purchaser pays the transfer taxes, would subject purchaser to liability for Mansion Tax as the aggregate of price plus tax would exceed $1,000,000. (See the Section entitled "Closing Costs and Adjustments" for further details).

Although the costs of New York City Real Property Transfer Tax ("NYC RPT") and New York State Real Estate Transfer Tax ("NYS RET Tax") are customarily paid by the seller in covered transactions, the responsibility for paying these taxes may be shifted to the purchaser. The Purchase Agreement expressly notes that purchasers are obligated to pay said taxes at the Closing as a closing cost. Notwithstanding anything stated in the Plan to the contrary, in accordance with the New York State Tax Law Section 1404 (a), which was recently amended, effective as of July 1, 2021, no gross-up shall apply to the NYS RET Tax paid by purchasers. All such references shall be amended to reflect that a gross-up applicable to the NYS RET Tax shall not longer apply to purchasers of Unsold Units.

30. All legal costs, fees and expenses charged by the Purchaser's attorney shall be the sole responsibility of each Purchaser. In addition, Purchaser shall also be responsible for payment of the following fees to Sponsor's attorneys, Paley Group, P.C., in connection with the closing of title to Purchaser's Unit: (i) the sum of $3,250.00 to reimburse Sponsor for its legal fees in handling the closing, (ii) if the closing is adjourned through no fault of Sponsor, an additional fee of $500.00 for each such adjournment to help defray the cost of preparing for and coordinating the new closing; (iii) if the Purchaser requests the Closing to occur other than at the offices of Paley Group, P.C. or such other place as Sponsor may designate in its closing notice and Sponsor consents to such change, an attendance fee of $350.00 for each Closing, (iv) if Sponsor, in its sole discretion, consents to a Purchaser's request for an assignment of the Purchase Agreement, or for the addition, deletion or substitution of names on the Purchase Agreement, Purchaser shall pay an additional fee of $500.00 to Sponsor's attorneys for the preparation of each such assignment agreement; (iv) if Purchaser obtains mortgage financing, an additional fee of $350.00 to Sponsor's attorneys to defray the additional costs associated therewith; and (v) ACRIS transfer tax forms will be prepared by Sponsor's attorney for an additional fee of $250. Purchaser may be required to pay more than one fee pursuant to the preceding provisions of this paragraph with respect to a single Unit. At Sponsor's option (in its sole discretion), any one or more of the foregoing fees to be paid to Sponsor's attorneys shall be paid by Purchaser prior to closing upon notice to Purchaser. Please refer to the Section of the Plan entitled "Closing Costs and Adjustments" for further details.

31. Purchasers should note that pursuant to the existing law and regulations governing the conversion of newly constructed property to condominium ownership, Sponsor may declare the Plan effective after selling a minimum of one (1) Unit offered for sale in the Building. Even if the Plan is declared effective with a minimum number of sales, it is possible that Sponsor may be able to submit the Property to a condominium regime and convey Units with fewer than a minimum number of sales if purchasers counted towards effectiveness do not ultimately purchase a Unit. Notwithstanding the fact that not all purchasers used for purposes of declaring the plan effective may actually close, Sponsor will re-declare the plan effective if all purchase agreements are either rescinded or terminated prior to the date of the first unit closing, regardless of whether the condominium declaration has been recorded. Please refer to the Section entitled "Effective Date" in Part I of the Plan for further details.

32. Each Unit Owner shall notify the Condominium Board in writing when a child or children under the age of ten (10) years lives or resides (even temporarily) in the Unit. Each Unit Owner shall, at such Unit Owner's expense and responsibility, install the required window guards in all windows of the Unit. The Unit Owner shall maintain all window guards installed in the Unit and shall not remove same until permitted by applicable law in any event, without full knowledge of the Condominium Board. Please see the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners and the Boards of Managers" for further details. Neither Sponsor, Selling Agent nor any of their principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates shall be responsible for supplying Unit Owners with window guards for the windows of the Unit nor shall any of the foregoing assume liability in any manner whatsoever if a Unit Owner fails to install window guards. Each Purchaser hereby agrees that upon acceptance of its deed to the Unit, he or she shall be deemed to expressly ratify this provision.

33. Sponsor anticipates that the Condominium will qualify as a "homeowners association" under Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, pursuant to counsel's tax opinion dated August 7, 2024, a copy of which is in Part I of this Plan. Based on counsel's opinion, the condominium will be eligible for tax exempt status if it elects such status, and unit owners will be entitled to income tax deductions (or the Unit Owners will be eligible for real estate tax benefits). However, this opinion is not a guarantee; it is based on existing rules of law applied to the facts and documents referred to above. No assurances can be given that the tax laws upon which counsel base this opinion will not change. In no event will Sponsor, its principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees, affiliates, Paley Group, P.C., the Selling Agent, or any other person connected with this offering be liable if there are changes in the facts on which counsel relied in issuing such opinion or if there any changes in the applicable statutes, regulations, decisional law or Internal Revenue Service rulings on which counsel relied which cause the condominium to cease to meet the requirements of Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended or the New York State tax law, as amended and cause the Unit Owner not to be entitled to such income tax deductions (or real estate tax benefits or the level or duration of such benefits). Assuming the Condominium does not qualify as a homeowners association, or if it does but chooses not to make the election noted above, the present state of the law is uncertain as to the tax treatment of any income of the Condominium in excess of appropriate deductions and credits. As discussed in the Attorney's Income Tax Opinion included in Part I of the Plan, the tax authorities may take the position that the Condominium is a separate taxable entity and that some or all of such income (including the non-membership, and possibly membership, income described above less expenses related to such income) is subject to Federal corporate income tax, New York State Corporation Franchise Tax and New York City Corporate Franchise or Unincorporated Business Tax. The Budget for the First Year of Condominium Operation included as Schedule B in Part I of the Plan, does not contemplate any income which might be taxable and accordingly does not budget any amounts for taxes for non-membership or membership income. Alternatively, it is possible that some or all of such income might be reportable directly by the Unit Owners or otherwise treated. The tax treatment of the Condominium may be affected by regulations relating to entity classification, which were adopted by the United States Treasury Department on December 17, 1996. No warranties are given that the Internal Revenue Service, the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance or the Finance Administration of the City of New York will allow the aforementioned deductions for mortgage interest and real estate taxes. There is also no assurance that the tax laws or the regulations or rulings issued thereunder, or any judicial interpretation thereof, upon which Paley Group, P.C., as counsel to Sponsor, bases its opinion, will not change. In addition, none of the aforesaid give any warranties with respect to the tax consequences of this Plan or the tax consequences of ownership of any Units offered under this Plan, and no one has been authorized to give any warranties. Please refer to the Attorney's Income Tax Opinion and the Section entitled "Taxes-Deductions to Unit Owners and Tax Status of Condominium" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.

34. No representation or warranty is made and no assurance is given by Sponsor, its principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates that the procedures of the Condominium will prevent personal injury or damage to or loss of personal property. While Unsold Units are being offered for sale or lease by Sponsor or its designees and during the period in which Purchasers are commencing occupancy of Units, they purchase there will be a greater number of visitors to the Condominium than would otherwise be the case. No representation or warranty is made, and no assurance is given as to when such selling or leasing activity will terminate. Neither Sponsor, its principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees, agents, Selling Agent, its principals and agents, shall be liable or responsible, except for gross negligence, for any personal injury or for any loss or damage to personal property which may result from the failure of the Condominium's procedures, if any, including, without limitation, those procedures with regard to any delivery of packages or repairs or modifications to systems or work within the Units. Please refer to the Section of the Plan entitled "Description of Property and Improvements" under the subsection entitled "General" for further details.

35. Purchasers are advised that all Unit apartments may be subject to noise, fumes, odors, and vibration from normal plumbing, heating, air-conditioning, ventilating, including boiler, water heaters, and other equipment and floor noises and creaking, and/or the transmission of sound from one Unit to another Unit in the Building, as it is generally recognized by the courts (a) that "apartment-house living in a metropolitan area is attended with certain well-known inconveniences and discomforts and one cannot expect a noise-free environment," and (b) that "if one lives in the city one must expect to suffer the dirt, smoke, noise, odors and confusion incident to city life." Neither Sponsor, Selling Agent nor any of their principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates make any representation or warranty (express or implied) that any noise, heat, odors, fumes or vibrations, if any, emanating from any plumbing, electrical, mechanical equipment, mechanical systems or roof elements belonging to the Condominium located on any basement or roof, in the cellar or in other Common Elements of the Condominium, or emanating from any neighboring buildings will or will not disturb occupants of the Units, and neither Sponsor, its principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates shall have any liability whatsoever for any such disturbance to any Unit Owner or occupant. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor must comply with all obligations imposed by the Offering Plan, approved building plans and specifications, applicable statutes, regulations, and building codes. Please refer to the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" for further discussion.

36. Unit Plans depicting layouts of Units appear in Part II of the Plan ("Floor Plans"). Purchasers are advised that Floor Plans contained in Part II of the Plan depict the marketing floor designations and not the construction floor designations of each Unit. Purchasers should note that the square footage of each Unit as reflected in Schedule A and the Floor Plans set forth in Part II of the Plan is approximate within reasonable tolerances and may change due to field conditions and construction variances and tolerances. The estimated square foot area of the Condominium Units are approximate and based upon the following method of tabulation: All dimensions are approximate and subject to normal construction variance and tolerances. Square Footage (SF) is calculated from (i) exterior face of any exterior walls directly enclosing the unit (perimeter and mechanical pipes are not deducted); (ii) centerline of any wall or partition separating the unit from another unit; and (iii) centerline of any demising wall or partition separating the unit from any common areas, mechanical areas, egress stairs or trash rooms where those elements do not exclusively serve the unit. Each Unit consists of the area measured vertically from the top of the finished floor below to the underside of the finished ceiling. Since the area calculations are not based upon measurements from interior surfaces of interior walls, the usable floor area of the Units is significantly less than the area listed in Schedule A. Measurements are approximate and are within reasonable tolerances. All dimensions shown on Unit Floor Plans are approximate, within reasonable tolerances, and subject to square footage and construction variations, including alterations necessitated by structural or mechanical changes performed during renovation, in the Sponsor's sole and absolute discretion; however, no material change to a Unit Floor Plan will be made to a Unit which is the subject of a purchase agreement without the purchaser's consent. Square footage as calculated in Schedule A and on the Unit Floor Plans in Part II is described in the "Footnotes to Schedule A" and is not based upon measurements from interior surfaces of interior walls, and the actual area comprising the unit is significantly less than the area listed in Schedule A. Purchaser should note that there is a rebuttable presumption that a reduction in unit area of five (5%) percent or less is not material. Sponsor will have no liability to any Purchaser nor will any Purchaser be entitled to a credit, offset or reduction in the Purchase Price for Purchaser's unit or otherwise be relieved from any obligations under the Purchase Agreement, by virtue of an immaterial inaccuracy or immaterial error in the Floor Plans, subject to the requirements of applicable law and the representations set forth in this Offering Plan. Notwithstanding anything in this Offering Plan to the contrary, if Sponsor must make material changes to size, dimension, Common Interest, floor space or layout of Units or to size, dimension, layout, quantity or quality of Common Elements, due to site conditions, governmental requirements or other unforeseen circumstances, Sponsor will amend the Plan accordingly to disclose the changes. Any Purchaser under contract to purchase a Unit whose purchase would be substantially adversely affected by such changes, will be given the right to rescind the Purchase Agreement and at least fifteen (15) days within which to exercise this right, and if rescission is exercised, will receive back the Down payment made thereunder together with interest earned thereon. Sponsor has no obligation to refund any additional fees incurred by Purchaser, including but not limited to any fees imposed by Purchaser's lender or attorneys' fees. Please refer to the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" and "Procedure to Purchase" for further discussion.

37. Unit Owners may not commence any alteration, addition, or improvement which would require a construction, alteration or building permit issued by the NYC Department of Buildings, including but not limited to, the combination of two or more Units, or the finishing of any space in a Unit, nor may any work be undertaken by a Purchaser (as Unit Owner) which will alter the layouts, electrical, structural, mechanical or plumbing systems of a Unit from the original configuration as completed by the Sponsor without Sponsor's prior written consent. Please refer to the Section of the Plan entitled "Description of Property" in Part I of the Plan for further details.

38. If purchaser fails to appear to close title in accordance with the purchase agreement on the date and the time and place stated in the sponsor's notice for closing, or if purchaser fails to observe or perform any other thing under the Agreement, Sponsor may send purchaser a written notice of default giving Purchaser thirty (30) days from the date of such notice to cure any such default. Time is of the essence for purchaser to cure such default within such thirty (30) day period. In such event, Sponsor may retain the funds being held in escrow as liquidated damages to a maximum of ten (10%) percent of the sales price. Please refer to the Section of the Plan entitled "Procedure to Purchase" in Part I of the Plan for further details.

39. Purchasers shall not be permitted to perform any work in the Unit or arrange for any deliveries to the Unit prior to Closing. Please refer to the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor".

40. If the actual or anticipated date of commencement of the operation of the Condominium is to be delayed by more than six (6) months from the budget year projected herein, the Offering Plan will be amended to include a revised budget disclosing the then current projections. If such amended projections exceed the original aggregate projections by twenty-five (25%) percent or more, Sponsor will offer all Purchasers, the right, for a period of time of not less than fifteen (15) days, to rescind their Agreements and have their downpayments refunded.

At each Closing, Sponsor will deliver a bargain and sale deed with covenants against grantor's acts (which deed shall be substantially in the form set forth in Part II of the Plan) conveying title to the Unit and its appurtenant Common Interest, free and clear of all liens, encumbrances and other title exceptions other than the Permitted Encumbrances.

The Sponsor anticipates that the first closing of a Unit will occur by April 1, 2025. Purchasers will be offered a right of rescission if (i) the actual date of closing of title to the first unit; or (ii) the projected date of closing of title to the first unit occurs later than March 31, 2026, twelve months after the projected date for the first closing. If the Plan is amended to provide for a later projected date for the first closing, purchasers will be entitled to an offer of rescission if the first closing occurs more than 12 months beyond that amended, later date.

However, if the first unit closing occurs before March 31, 2026, the Sponsor may schedule the closings of title to other units significantly later than such date. Unless your Purchase Agreement contains an outside closing date, the Sponsor is not obligated to schedule your closing within any specified time frame or to ensure that closing of title to your unit will occur by any date certain. PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS SHOULD THEREFORE CAREFULLY CONSIDER SUCH RISKS IN THEIR DETERMINATION AS TO WHETHER TO PURCHASE A UNIT.

41. Purchasers are advised that the Director of the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network ("FinCEN"), U.S. Department of the Treasury, has issued a Geographic Targeting Order (the "Order") requiring title insurance companies to collect and report information about the persons involved in certain real estate transactions, as further described in the Order, annexed hereto as Exhibit "15".

Specifically, and with respect to the Unit, real estate transactions which satisfy all of the below criteria shall be subject to the Order:

A. The Purchaser is a trust, corporation, limited liability company, partnership or other similar business entity;

B. The real estate transaction involves the purchase of residential real property in the county, city and state of New York;

C. The total purchase price is $300,000.00 or more; and

D. The purchase is completed without any financing (whether from a financial lending institution or other source of external financing) and the Purchase Price is paid, at least in part, by a cashier's check, certified check, traveler's check, personal check, business check, money order in any form, a funds transfer, or virtual currency.

Title companies are required to comply with the Order with respect to any purchase of residential real property which satisfies all of the above referenced criteria and occurs on or after May 16, 2019. The collection and reporting by title companies of the information about persons involved in the referenced real estate transactions shall not create the right for affected Purchasers to rescind the Purchase Agreement or receive any type of credit or concession in connection with a title company's compliance with the Order.

42. Sponsor reserves the right to delay the commencement of collection of Common Charges. During any such delay, the Sponsor will timely pay all expenses of the Condominium including but not limited to insurance premiums and any reserve funds payment. During any such delay, Sponsor shall also be obligated to provide certified financial statements for the Condominium. Upon commencement of collection of Common Charges, there will not be an assessment for any item set forth in the approved budget for the Condominium. Sponsor shall remain obligated to update the budget for the Condominium as provided for in governing regulations. In the event Sponsor elects to delay the collection of Common Charges, it will disclose such fact in the Post-Closing Amendment to the Offering Plan. Such Amendment will also disclose the anticipated period of delay. Sponsor will notify all Unit Owners in writing of the expiration of the delay period at least thirty (30) days prior to the commencement of collection of Common Charges and will disclose such fact in the following Amendment to the Offering Plan.

43. In accordance with New York City Local Law 147 the Sponsor is providing notice of the Condominium's smoking policy. The Condominium shall be operated as a smoke free building. The inhaling, exhaling, burning or carrying of any lighted cigar, cigarette, pipe, or any form of lighted object or device which contains tobacco or cloves, including all kinds of e-cigarettes and vape pens (collectively, "Smoking") shall be prohibited in the Condominium Premises, including within all Units, in the Rear Yards, and in all common areas of the Building. Outside of the Building, Smoking shall only be permitted within designated smoking areas, which may be located 25 feet or more from entries, outdoor air intakes and operable windows. The Board shall have the right to seek and obtain a court order enjoining the occupant of a Unit from smoking within their Unit or appurtenant Rear Yard. In addition to all other remedies available to the Board, violation of this policy by an occupant of a Unit shall subject the Unit Owner to (i) a fine in an amount to be determined from time to time by the Board, and (ii) reimbursement of any fees or expenses incurred by the Board (including legal fees) in enforcing this provision. See the "By-Laws" in Part II of the Plan.

44. All Unit owners are required to keep their thermostats at a minimum of sixty (60°) degrees Fahrenheit to prevent freezing of pipes. In the event the Unit Owner fails to adhere to this requirement, the Unit Owner shall be responsible for any damage done to the Common Elements of the Condominium and/or any other Unit. Please refer to the "Description of Property" regarding heating.

45. The Cellar Space of Unit 1 is non-habitable, and consists of both an area which is not to be used for sleeping, dining, or cooking and will not be rented independently (261 sf) as well as a storage area which is for accessory storage use only (367 sf). The Cellar Space has less light and air than ordinary living space and is susceptible to dampness. The Condominium Board shall have the right to access Unit 1 to gain access to the Cellar Space to make repairs to the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements that are located on the Cellar Floor.

46. The Building has lead paint encapsulated in Units 1, 2 and 3. Unit 2 will be occupied by the principal of the Sponsor and is not for sale at this time. Please refer to the Section of the Plan entitled "Description of Property" in Part I of the Plan for further details.

47. Buildings constructed prior to 1979 may contain lead paint, and buildings constructed before 1960 are presumed to contain lead paint. The ingestion of lead paint poses serious health risks, especially in young children. Purchasers are advised to familiarize themselves with New York City Local Law 1 of 2004, a copy of which is included as an exhibit to this plan. Purchasers for investment are advised that there are certain occupancy and turnover requirements contained therein. Purchasers of a unit for their own occupancy, particularly those with young children, are additionally advised to consult with a professional to determine the existence of, and any appropriate remediation for lead paint.

48. With certain exceptions (for example, Sponsor and its designee and any successor or transferee sponsor are not required to give the Condominium Board a right of first refusal with respect to any Unsold Units), any sale or lease of a Unit will be subject to a right by the Condominium Board to acquire or lease such Unit or to produce a third party to acquire or lease such Unit on the same terms as were offered to the owner of such Unit. For a more complete discussion of the foregoing, see the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners and the Board of Managers – Sales and Leases of Units".

49. Insurance- Unit Owners shall carry their own insurance for contents, personal injury and property damage within their individual units and shall submit such proof of insurance at the time of Closing.

50. Any Interim Lease for a Unit entered into with a Purchaser will provide, among other things, (i) that an uncured default by Purchaser under the Interim Lease will constitute a default under the Purchase Agreement and (ii) that an uncured default by Purchaser under the Purchase Agreement will constitute a default under the Interim Lease. Before Sponsor may utilize the default under the Interim Lease to declare a default under the Purchase Agreement, the Sponsor must either obtain an order of eviction or other judgment or order from a court or agency of competent jurisdiction against the lessee unless the lessee has vacated the Unit. See the section of the Plan entitled "Interim Leases" and the form of Interim Lease included as Exhibit B in Part II of the Plan for further details.

51. The following existing elements or equipment are nearing the end of their useful life and should be included as a special risk: (a) Roofing membrane, (b) Hot Water Heater, (c) Boiler, and (d) Air Conditioning systems for Unit 2 (which is approximately 20 years old).

52. The following materials within the building are unknown and should be included as a special risk: (a) it is not known if there is exterior insulation in the walls and the roof, (b) it is not known if there is insulation on hot water pipes where pipes are within walls or ceilings, (c) it is not known if there is insulation on ducts where ducts are within walls or ceilings, (d) if insulation is present, the R-value of the insulation is not known.

53. The egress staircase from the 1st floor to the 3rd floor, as well as the Unit 2 interior unit staircase, contain winder treads which converge to a point and which may pose a stumbling or falling hazard, and do not meet current code requirements for minimum 6" (six inch) tread depth at the narrowest point of winder treads.

54. Asbestos. The most recent work for the 3rd floor indicated the presence of asbestos containing material in the caulk of a window which was replaced. The windows in the other locations have not been tested but are presumed to contain asbestos containing material. For all units, any alterations or maintenance which may disturb the window caulk (sealant) will require that a licensed asbestos contractor be retained and an abatement performed. See the Description of Property Report contained in Part II of the Plan for further discussion.

INTRODUCTION

334 Union Street LLC, a New York limited liability company ("Sponsor"), hereby presents this offering plan (the "Plan") for the establishment of condominium ownership of certain real estate consisting of approximately 2,000 square feet between Court Street and Smith Street (the "Land") together with the building to be erected thereon (the "Building") known as and having a street address of 334 Union Street, Brooklyn, New York, in the Borough of Kings, known as Block 435 Tax Lot 30 containing three (3) residential units (the "Units"). Sponsor will at all times offer at least 15% of the total number of anticipated units to the public prior to effectiveness. In this instance the sale of one unit will meet this threshold. Sponsor will endeavor in good faith to sell Units 1 and 3 in a reasonably timely manner to third party purchasers unrelated to Sponsor. In the event Sponsor makes a bulk sale of all or some of the Unsold Units, the transferee successor "Sponsor" shall be bound by Sponsor's representation regarding its commitment to sell Units. Please refer to Schedule A for a list of prices of the Units offered for sale.

The condominium will be known as the "334 Union Street Condominium" and is called the "Condominium" in this Plan. The Building, including the individual units therein, has been constructed in accordance with the Plans and Specifications and all applicable zoning and building laws, regulations, codes and other government requirements. This will be a conversion from a previously existing house.

The purpose of the Plan is to set forth in detail all material facts relating to the offering by Sponsor of the three (3) Units. Sponsor will construct or cause to be constructed upon and within the Property a building consisting of one Class I-A structure comprised of one (1) below-grade level (the Cellar), four (4) stories above grade, and a roof (the "Building"). Unit 1 will be located on a portion of the Cellar Floor and the Basement Floor. Unit 2 will be located on the 1st Floor and 2nd Floor. Unit 3 will be located on the 3rd Floor. Please refer to the Introduction, Terms of Sale and Rights and Obligations of Sponsor in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.

The Plan is presented in two parts (in one volume) which together constitute the entire Plan. Part I sets forth a general description of the Plan and Part II contains the basic documents necessary to create the Condominium and to otherwise effectuate the provisions of the Plan. Also included in Part II is a detailed physical description of the Property, a sample Purchase Agreement, certifications of Sponsor and Sponsor's architect, certifications of an expert selected by Sponsor concerning the adequacy of the budget for the first year of Condominium operation and certain agreements to which the Condominium will be bound. In addition, Sponsor has filed exhibits to the Plan with the Department of Law, which are presented as Parts A (Certifications), B (General), C (Engineering) and D (Other Information). The Plan, including all Schedules and Exhibits set forth herein and in Parts A, B, C and D of the exhibits, contains all of the material terms of the transaction and constitutes the entire offer of Sponsor. Copies of the Plan and the exhibits are available for inspection by prospective purchasers and their attorneys, without charge, or at the offices of the Sponsor, or may be borrowed upon payment of a one hundred fifty ($150) dollar deposit, which amount will be fully refunded after either (i) the prompt return of all borrowed materials in good condition, or (ii) the execution by a Purchaser of a Purchase Agreement subsequently accepted by Sponsor. Copies of the Plan and exhibits will also be available for inspection and copying at a reasonable fee at the Department of Law, 28 Liberty Street, New York, New York. All of these documents are important and should be carefully read by prospective purchaser. Prospective Purchasers are also advised to consult with their own attorneys or other advisers before agreeing to purchase. All capitalized terms used in the Plan shall have the meanings ascribed thereto in the Section entitled "Certain Definitions", unless otherwise indicated.

Sponsor will determine the number of contracted-for-units required to declare the offering plan effective based upon the total number of anticipated units in the condominium, rather than the number of units Sponsor initially offers. Sponsor will endeavor in good faith to sell Units 1 and 3 in a reasonably timely manner to third party purchasers unrelated to Sponsor. Sponsor may not, however, rent the withheld units until the Plan is consummated. The term consummated, as used herein, shall mean "Consummation of the Plan", which will occur after both the filing of the Declaration of Condominium and the First Closing under the Plan following a declaration of effectiveness by the Sponsor and acceptance of the amendment to the Plan confirming or declaring that the Plan is effective. Sponsor will at all times offer at least 15% of the total number of anticipated units to the public prior to effectiveness. In this instance, the sale of one unit will meet this threshold.

BECAUSE SPONSOR IS RETAINING THE UNCONDITIONAL RIGHT TO RENT RATHER THAN SELL UNITS AFTER THE PLAN HAS BEEN CONSUMMATED AND IS WITHHOLDING UNITS FROM THE INITIAL OFFER, AND THERE IS NO COMMITMENT TO SELL MORE THAN THE 15% OF THE TOTAL UNITS IN THE CONDOMINIUM NECESSARY TO DECLARE THE PLAN EFFECTIVE, THIS PLAN MAY NOT RESULT IN THE CREATION OF A CONDOMINIUM IN WHICH A MAJORITY OF THE UNITS ARE OWNED BY OWNER-OCCUPANTS OR INVESTORS UNRELATED TO THE SPONSOR. AS A RESULT, PURCHASERS FOR THEIR OWN OCCUPANCY MAY NEVER GAIN EFFECTIVE CONTROL OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS UNDER THE TERMS OF THIS PLAN

Advertising material that contains percentages of units sold must calculate the percentage of units sold using the total number of anticipated units in the Condominium rather than the number of units offered at that time. Sponsor will amend the offering plan when it begins to offer withheld units. Units 1 and 3 are being offered at this time. There is no current timeline for the release of Unit 2 onto the market since the principal of the Sponsor is currently residing there.

The Condominium

On July 12, 2024, Sponsor acquired fee title to the Land and related structures thereon. A permanent Certificate of Occupancy was obtained on August 15, 2006. The Offering Plan is a conversion of an existing three family house into a condominium. No renovations were performed. The Building contains four (4) stories above grade. The floors in the Building are named (from bottom to top): Cellar, Basement and Floors 1-3. The floor below grade is labeled Cellar Floor.

As more particularly described herein, the Building will include Units, Common Elements and Limited Common Elements.

Features of Condominium Ownership

The ownership of a Unit is similar in many respects to the ownership of a private home. Each Unit Owner owns fee title to his or her Unit and is entitled to the exclusive possession thereof and the exclusive use of the Limited Common Elements, if any, appurtenant to his or her Unit. He or she also owns, in common with the owners of all other Units, an undivided interest in (and right to use) the Common Elements, and, in common with the owners of all other units, an undivided interest in (and right to use) the General Common Elements.

Certain Unit Owners have the exclusive use of the Rear Yards and Storage Area appurtenant to their Units, and such Unit Owners are responsible for all normal maintenance, repairs and replacements thereto. Rear Yards and Storage Area appurtenant to Units are shown on the Unit Floor Plans included in Part II of the Plan. However, the costs and expenses of any structural or extraordinary repairs or replacements to any Rear Yard or Storage Area (unless caused by a Unit Owner in which case that Owner shall be responsible for such repairs) shall be charged to all Unit Owners as a Common Expense. The type, size, height, weight and quantity of plantings and other installations to be placed on any Rear Yard and the rights of Unit Owners to decorate shall be subject to the prior written approval of the Condominium Board and applicable law. Any planting or other installations to be placed on the Rear Yards shall be subject to the rules and regulations promulgated by any New York City and Department of Buildings regulations, including, but not limited to, any applicable weight restrictions. In no event shall any plantings exceed three (3) feet in height. Since there are mechanical equipment in Units 1 and 2, the Condominium Board will have the right of access to such units for necessary inspection, maintenance or repairs upon at least two (2) days' prior notice, except that, only in an emergency situation, there is a 24-hour unlimited access period to these aforementioned areas without prior notification. The Condominium Board may establish or alter such other rules and regulations it deems necessary to protect the Common Elements and the Units and to ensure the integrity of the Building and the health and safety of the occupants.

The Condominium Board does not have the right to approve or disapprove purchasers. Inasmuch as there is no limit on the number of owners who may purchase for investment rather than for personal occupancy, there is a possibility that there may always be a substantial percentage of owners who are non-residents.

Each Unit Owner is obligated to comply with the Declaration and By-Laws, rules and regulations, and any other requirements of the Condominium Board. The Condominium Board has the authority to manage the Condominium and the Units. Subject to the provisions in the By-Laws providing the Sponsor with the right to designate members of the Board, the Unit Owners have the right to vote for members of the Condominium Board.

Subject to certain conditions contained in the By-Laws, each Unit Owner may mortgage his or her Unit(s) with such lender and in such amount as he or she chooses. However, neither Sponsor, Selling Agent nor any of their principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates make any representations about whether a Purchaser will be able to finance the purchase of any Unit. Each Unit is separate and is not subject to the lien of any mortgage placed by other Unit Owners on their respective Units.

A Unit Owner may decorate the interior of his or her Unit in any way desired except as otherwise provided in the By-Laws and Rules and Regulations and law, and will be solely responsible for the cost of maintenance and interior repairs to his Unit after Closing.

Each Unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes, and no Unit Owner will be responsible for the payment of, nor will his or her Unit be subject to, any lien arising from the non-payment of real estate taxes on other Units. Please refer to the opinion of Paley Group, PC., counsel to Sponsor, set forth in full in Part I of the Plan, for a discussion regarding the deductibility for United States, New York State and New York City income tax purposes, of real estate taxes and the interest paid on a mortgage encumbering a Unit, if any. Neither Sponsor, its principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees, affiliates, Sponsor's counsel, Sponsor's tax counsel, the Selling Agent, its principals and agents shall have any liability to any Purchaser in the event the United States Treasury Department amends its regulations relating to entity classification and such amendment(s) have a materially adverse impact upon the tax treatment of the Condominium.

With certain exceptions (for example, Sponsor and its designee and any successor or transferee sponsor are not required to give the Condominium Board a right of first refusal with respect to any Unsold Units), any sale or lease of a Unit will be subject to a right by the Condominium Board to acquire or lease such Unit or to produce a third party to acquire or lease such Unit on the same terms as were offered to the owner of such Unit. For a more complete discussion of the foregoing, see the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners and the Board of Managers, Sales and Leases of Units".

The statute concerning condominiums in effect in the State of New York pursuant to which the Condominium will be organized, is Article 9-B of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, as amended, commonly known, and hereinafter referred to as the "Condominium Act". The Property will be submitted to the provisions of the Condominium Act by Sponsor's recording of the Declaration in the City Register's Office. From and after the date of recording the Declaration, Sponsor will be the owner of the Units until each is sold or conveyed. The Condominium will comply with all statutes and regulations applicable to condominiums in the State of New York.

Common charges are currently allocated based upon each unit owner's percent of common interest and are not specially allocated. The cost of operating the Common Elements will be borne by the Unit Owners in proportion to their respective common interest. The costs and expenses of operating and maintaining the Common Elements including, but not limited to, the cost of snow removal, will be shared by all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interest as provided in Schedule B "Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation" in Part I of the Plan or in accordance with the terms of the By-Laws. The Condominium Board may make allocations of Common Expenses in accordance with sub-metering, contract allocations and usage (both projected and actual) so long as such allocations are reasonable under the circumstances and are in accordance with applicable law.

Matters affecting the Condominium or the Common Elements will be decided by the Condominium Board, which shall be comprised of three (3) persons. Sponsor shall not hold a majority of seats on the Condominium Board after the date upon which the Sponsor or its principals own one Unit. Please refer to the Section of entitled "Control by Sponsor" in Part I of the Plan for further details.

As more particularly set forth in the By-Laws, the Condominium Board will determine the amount of Common Expenses. On a monthly basis or at such other times as the Condominium Board determines, the Condominium Board will assess Unit Owners for Common Charges to meet Common Expenses and the Condominium Board's pro rata share of Common Charges. Such charges will be assessed against Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests except as otherwise determined by the Condominium Board in accordance with the Condominium Act, Sections 339-(i) and (m).

The cost of improvements, repairs, alterations and additions to the Condominium ("Common Expenses") will be determined by the Condominium Board and assessed against all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests. The estimated Common Charges for each Unit for the first year of condominium operation are set forth in Schedule A.

The prices of the Units are not subject to approval by the Department of Law or any other government agency.

After the closing of title to a Unit, a Unit Owner will be solely responsible for maintaining casualty insurance with respect to the fixtures, equipment and personal property situated within his Unit, as well as liability insurance with respect to occurrences in or about his Unit. The Sponsor, its principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees and affiliates shall not be liable for Unit Owners' personal property within each Unit under any circumstances. The By-Laws require that each Unit Owner maintain such insurance coverage. The Condominium Board will be solely responsible for maintaining casualty and liability insurance with respect to the Common Elements, in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws. See the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners and the Boards of Managers" for a more complete discussion of the foregoing.

There are no limitations on who may purchase Units. Under the New York Real Property Law, a condominium unit may be owned by an individual, a corporation, a partnership, a limited liability company, an association, a trust or any other entity which is permitted to take title pursuant to New York law. The Sponsor or its designee may refuse to approve and execute (a) a Purchase Agreement for any Unit, and (b) a Purchase Agreement or Purchase Agreements, as the case may be, for more than one Unit to any one person or entity; provided, however, that, in either event, neither Sponsor nor its designee may discriminate against any person because of his or her race, creed, color, sex, disability, material status, age, ancestry, national origin or other ground proscribed by law. No binding obligation will arise for the sale of a Unit unless and until a Purchase Agreement executed by both Purchaser and Sponsor, has been exchanged and Sponsor has collected the funds constituting Purchaser's required Down Payment thereunder (see the Section entitled "Procedure to Purchase" for more details). Sponsor will not accept an offer of purchase from an individual younger than eighteen (18) years of age or an incompetent under law.

THE PURCHASE OF A CONDOMINIUM UNIT HAS MANY SIGNIFICANT LEGAL AND FINANCIAL CONSEQUENCES. THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

STRONGLY URGES YOU TO READ THIS OFFERING PLAN CAREFULLY AND TO CONSULT WITH AN ATTORNEY BEFORE SIGNING A PURCHASE AGREEMENT.

Offering of Units for Sale

The estimated Common Charges for each Unit for the first year of operation of the Property as a condominium are also set forth in Schedule A. In the event Sponsor makes a bulk sale of all or some of the Unsold Units, the transferee successor "Sponsor" shall be bound by Sponsor's representation regarding its commitment to sell Units See Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor" for further detail.

Each Purchaser of a Unit will be required to make a contribution to the Working Capital Fund. Such contribution by a Purchaser of a Unit shall be made at the time of Closing of the Unit, shall be in an amount equal to two (2) months' Common Charges in effect at the time of closing for each Unit purchased (See the Section entitled "Working Capital Fund and Apportionments").

In addition to the payment of Common Charges, each Unit Owner will be responsible for the payment of the real estate taxes which will be separately assessed against his or her Unit, interest and amortization payments on the mortgage, if any, which such Purchaser may, at his or her option, obtain, and charges for electricity consumed in his Unit.

The charges for electricity consumed by each Unit Owner individually will be separately metered and billed to each Unit Owner. Water charges and sewer rents, assessed by The City of New York, will be billed to the Condominium as a Common Expense. The costs and expenses of gas with respect to the Condominium will also be included in Common Charges. Unit Owners will be required to pay charges for electricity consumed by the incremental HVAC Unit(s) or condenser for each Unit which provides air conditioning and heating. Schedule A sets forth estimates of the amounts of real estate taxes which will be payable with respect to each Unit. See the Notes to Schedule A with respect to the bases of such estimates.

DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY AND IMPROVEMENTS

Construction of the Building

The Building will contain a Condominium consisting of the three (3) Units, the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements.

The Building, including the individual Units therein, has been constructed in accordance with the Plans and Specifications and all applicable zoning and building laws, regulations, codes and other government requirements. It is a conversion of a previously existing three family house that was used for residential purposes. A permanent Certificate of Occupancy for the Units and the Building has been issued by the Department of Buildings of the City of New York and copies of the Plans and Specifications for the Building will be filed with the Department of Buildings of the City of New York.

Sponsor engaged, Alexander Compagno as the architect to prepare the Description of Property section of the Offering Plan as well as the floor plans listed in the Plan. Engineering Solutions are the mechanical engineers who prepared Exhibit B-1 to the Offering Plan. Sander Williams Architect prepared the approved Building Plans for the renovation of the Cellar Floor and 3rd Floor.

Sponsor and its principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees and affiliates reserve the right to amend or modify the Plans and Specifications in any way or manner not material to this offering or in a manner disclosed in this offering, including, without limitation, changing materials, appliances, equipment, fixtures and other construction and design details set forth therein or in the "Description of Property" set forth in Part II of the Plan and to substitute in their place similar materials, appliances, equipment and/or fixtures of "Equal or Better Quality", provided that any necessary approval of any governmental authority having jurisdiction thereof is timely obtained. Any or all of the foregoing shall not give rise to a right of rescission on the part of any Purchaser and may be made without prior notice or amendment to the Plan. None of the appliances are new and are being delivered in working condition only.

Residential Units

Subject to the rights of Sponsor and its designee to change the number of Units, there will be a total of three (3) Units situated in the Building. Detailed descriptions of the Units including a finish schedule are set forth in the "Description of Property" in Part II of the Plan. See also the Section entitled "Changes in Prices and Units." Please refer to Schedule A, "Prices of Units and Related Information" for further details.

Except as otherwise agreed by the parties, the Units will be delivered to Purchasers with a primer plus one finish coat of paint. Each Purchaser will be obligated to do all other painting and decorating of his or her Unit at his or her own cost and expense.

Included in the sale of each Unit are the following: refrigerator/freezer, kitchen cabinets, gas range, hood, dishwasher and washer/dryer. None of these appliances are new and are being delivered in working condition only. Units 1 and 2 have individually controlled HVAC units.

Unit 3 has a ductless heating and cooling system. The manufacturer and size for the foregoing appliances and equipment are set forth in the "Description of Property" Section of the Offering Plan, subject to substitution by Sponsor of comparable equipment. As more fully set forth under the Section entitled "Description of Property and Improvement – Construction of the Building," these fixtures, appliances and equipment are subject to change by Sponsor.

Sponsor and its designee or successor reserve the right, without prior notice or amendments to the Plan, to use Unsold Units on any floor of the Building as sales and leasing offices and model apartments and/or host open houses and events in an effort to sell remaining units. In the event Sponsor or its designee or successor, thereafter, elects to sell such Unsold Units, Sponsor or its designee or successor may offer the purchaser the right to purchase all or any of the furniture, furnishings, equipment or decorations therein and pay, in addition to the purchase price for such Unsold Unit, such amounts as Sponsor determines.

A Unit Owner may only use his or her Unit for a purpose consistent with the local zoning ordinance, as amended from time to time, any other applicable ordinance or statute, and any regulation of a governmental authority with jurisdiction over the Condominium, including, but not limited to, local building codes and the Multiple Dwelling Law, as such statutes, ordinances and regulations may be amended from time to time, but in no event may a Unit Owner use his Unit for a use violative of the By Laws or the Deed Restrictions which are described in the Section of the Plan entitled "Residential Unit".

As described in the Description of Property and Building Condition, the surface finish of the roof has no finished decking to protect the roof membrane from normal use. The current maximum load for the Roof is 40 pounds per square foot, which in accordance with the Description of Property, is not adequate to support a roof deck or normal use and is not approved for daily foot traffic.

Rear Yards and Storage Area

As indicated in Schedule A, the Rear Yards for Units 1 and 2 and the Storage Area for Unit 1 are appurtenant to their respective Units and are included in the purchase prices therefor. A Unit Owner who has a Rear Yard or Storage Area appurtenant to his or her Unit shall have the exclusive use of same, subject to the right of the Condominium Board to regulate its use, and shall be responsible for all normal maintenance, repairs and replacements thereto. However, the costs and expenses of any structural repairs or repairs or replacements caused by the need for such structural repairs to any Rear Yard or Storage Area, which are Limited Common Elements, (unless caused by its Unit Owner) shall be charged to all Unit Owners as a Common Expense. The Condominium Board will have right of access to any Rear Yard or Storage Area for necessary inspection, maintenance or repairs upon at least two (2) days' prior notice, except that, only in an emergency situation, there is a 24-hour unlimited access period to these aforementioned areas without prior notification.

Any plantings, structures or other improvements installed by Unit Owners on the Rear Yards must be approved by the Condominium Board and shall be subject to any applicable New York City Department of Buildings rules and regulations, including, but not limited to, any applicable weight restrictions. The Condominium Board shall have the right, even if same was previously approved, to require a Unit Owner to remove plantings and other installations which have been placed on the Rear Yards if the Condominium Board determines, in its reasonable discretion, that such plantings or other installations adversely affect the integrity of the structural or mechanical systems of the Building.

The Condominium Board may establish such other rules and regulations it deems necessary to protect the Common Elements and the Units and to ensure the integrity of the Building and the health and safety of the occupants. Neither the Sponsor nor its principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees, or affiliates make any representation as to what may or may not be legally placed on the Rear Yards by any Unit Owner.

At the present time, the Limited Common Elements consist of the Rear Yards appurtenant to certain Units and the Storage Area on the Cellar Floor. A detailed description of the Limited Common Elements is contained in the Declaration.

c. Electrical Systems

Electrical service for Units will be provided by Con Edison to the Building. There will be separate meters for each Unit measuring electric use so the Unit Owners will be receiving bills for their electric usage.

d. Mail

All incoming mail will be delivered by the United States Postal Service and placed in the Unit Owner's mailbox.

e. Laundry

Each Unit contains a washer and dryer that will be delivered in working condition only. They are not new appliances.

(See the Section entitled "Control by Sponsor"). The Board, whether or not controlled by the Sponsor assumes a fiduciary duty to act in the best interests of the Condominium and its Unit Owners. Please refer to the Description of the Property set forth in its entirety in Part II of the Plan for further details regarding services and facilities at the Property.

Neither Sponsor, the Managing Agent, Selling Agent nor any of their principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees, affiliates, nor the Board will in any event be liable for the availability, interruption, discontinuance or quality of any of the foregoing services, including, but not limited to, any services provided by any outside company or person other than Building personnel, or for any injury to person or damage to property resulting from any act or omission of such company or persons or their employees or agents, except to the extent that any such injury to person or damage to property occurs as a result of the gross negligence of Sponsor, Managing Agent or the Board, as the case may be.

Security Procedures

Such procedures may be adopted and from time to time changed by the Condominium Board as such Condominium Board, in its discretion, determines to be appropriate to secure the Condominium. It is anticipated that the security procedures will be as follows:

- a. Intercom System There will be a virtual doorman system by SmartPlus.
- b. Smoke Detectors and Carbon Monoxide Detectors

Sponsor or its principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates shall have no responsibility, nor liability in the event such Unit Owners fail to test and maintain the detectors.

No representation or warranty is made and no assurance is given by Sponsor or its principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates that the security systems and procedures of the Condominium will prevent personal injury or damage to or loss of personal property. While Unsold Units are being offered for sale or lease by Sponsor or its designees there will be a greater number of visitors to the Condominium than would otherwise be the case. No representation or warranty is made, and no assurance is given as to when such selling or leasing activity will terminate. Neither Sponsor, Managing Agent, Selling Agent nor any of its designee, members or principals shall be liable or responsible for any personal injury or for any loss or damage to personal property which may result from the failure of the Condominium's security systems and procedures, including, without limitation, those procedures with regard to any delivery of packages. LOCATION AND AREA INFORMATION

Location and Services

The Building is located at 334 Union Street, in the Borough of Brooklyn, City of New York, on the southwest corner of Union Street and Smith Street. Access will be located on Union Street. The Building is in the heart of the historic Carroll Gardens neighborhood of Brooklyn. This neighborhood has evolved into a prominent and wealthy urban area.

Brooklyn is a Borough of New York City located on the western most end of Long Island, it is coextensive with Kings County in the US, state of New York with 2,736,000 residence as of the 2020 United States census. Kings County is the most populous of the five boroughs of New York City and the most populous county in the state of New York. The population density of Brooklyn was 37,339 inhabitants per square mile in 2022, making it the second most densely populated county in the United States behind Manhattan, and it has the ninth highest population of any county nationwide. Were Brooklyn an independence city, it would be the fourth most populous in the United States after New York City, Los Angeles, and Chicago.

Brooklyn was founded by the Dutch in the 17th century as a port city. It became part of the city of New York in the 1890s. In the first decades of the 21st-century, Brooklyn experienced a renaissance as a destination for hipsters, with concomitant gentrification, dramatic house price increases and a decrease in housing affordability. Since the 2010s parts of Brooklyn have evolved into a hub of entrepreneurship, high technology, start-up firms, post-modernist art, and design.

Originally settled by the Lenape, Indian tribe, the Dutch established various settlements in the 1640s and named the grouping of establishments after a town in Holland: Breukelen. The port attracted first Dutch, the Norwegian workers. Later Italian immigrants came spurring huge development done in a style in which the neighborhood is best known: Italianate Row Housing. The tradition of European immigration into this neighborhood continued with an influx of French immigrants. One of the local schools has a bilingual French English program. The English captured this Dutch colony in 1664 but chose to keep the Dutch name of Brooklyn. On August 27, 1776 the battle of Long Island was fought in the American revolutionary war. The largest portion of this battle occurred near the modern site of Greenwood cemetery, Prospect Park, and Grand Army Plaza all of which are within 2 miles of the Building. There was particularly fierce fighting at the Gowanus Creek, now known as the Gowanus Canal, which is located three blocks East of the Building.

Brooklyn is also known as being the original home of the Brooklyn Dodgers. Sports teams are a major driver of the economy. Opposition to slavery was very strong in Brooklyn, and when the Civil War broke out, Brooklyn provided the best known regiment, the only regiment to be named after a city, called the 14th Brooklyn. Their uniform was unique from any other Regiment in the war. It was inspired by the French Chasseurs, a light infantry used for quick assaults. Largely an agrarian region, economic growth continued and was fueled by immigration and industrialization in the 19th Century. Ship building along with many other industries thrived here.

In 1873 Fredrick Law Olmstead completed Prospect Park which is located one mile east of the Building. This park spurred development of various village-like areas of Brooklyn, including Carroll Gardens.

Brooklyn has many museums and a rich, cultural history all its own. Most notably, the Brooklyn Museum of Art launches major shows and boasts an impressive archival system of rare and precious items. Likewise, the Brooklyn Botanical Gardens are world famous providing both respite and education. The transit museum along with the two previously mentioned sites are within a mile of the Building.

Neighborhood

334 Union Street Condominium is located in an area of Brooklyn known as Carroll Gardens which encompasses approximately 40 city blocks. The Neighborhoods that surrounded it are Cobble Hill to the northwest, Boerum Hill to the northeast, Gowanus to the east, Red Hook to the south and southwest and the Columbia Street Waterfront District to the west. The gardens in Carroll Gardens come from the large front gardens in the historic district and elsewhere in the neighborhood. The Carroll Gardens historic district was created by the New York City landmarks preservation commission in 1973. The Building is one block from the designated historic district, allowing the enjoyment of the historic district without all of the restrictions. This district include some of the finest examples of brownstones in the city with large front gardens.

Originally considered to be part of the area once known as South Brooklyn or Red Hook, the area started to have its own identity in the 1960s. The area was named after Charles Carroll, the oldest living signer of the Declaration of Independence. Carroll Park already carried his name (this park is one block South of the Building). Carroll Park was the first officially designated park in New York City and boasts large sports fields, a water feature and play equipment for children. It also has more than 17 species of deciduous trees and multiple varieties of evergreens. Amongst the tree varieties, perhaps the most impressive are some of the oldest living elm trees in the United States. These trees survived because of their urban setting, which isolated them from the Dutch Elm disease that wiped out virtually all other elm trees in the United States. The importance of Carroll Park cannot be understated to our neighborhood. Not only is it a beautiful and useful park it is part of what makes living in Carroll gardens so attractive to families.

Notes to Schedule A

1. The estimated square foot area of the Condominium Units are approximate and based upon the following method of tabulation: All dimensions are approximate and subject to normal construction variance and tolerances. Square Footage (SF) is calculated from (i) exterior face of any exterior walls directly enclosing the unit (perimeter and mechanical pipes are not deducted); (ii) centerline of any wall or partition separating the unit from another unit; and (iii) centerline of any demising wall or partition separating the unit from any common areas, mechanical areas, egress stairs or trash rooms where those elements do not exclusively serve the unit. Each Unit consists of the area measured vertically from the top of the finished floor below to the underside of the finished ceiling. Since the area calculations are not based upon measurements from interior surfaces of interior walls, the usable floor area of the Units is significantly less than the area listed in Schedule A. Measurements are approximate and are within reasonable tolerances. All dimensions shown on Unit Floor Plans are approximate, within reasonable tolerances, and subject to square footage and construction variations, including alterations necessitated by structural or mechanical changes performed during renovation, in the Sponsor's sole and absolute discretion; however, no material change to a Unit Floor Plan will be made to a Unit which is the subject of a purchase agreement without the purchaser's consent. Square footage as calculated in Schedule A and on the Unit Floor Plans in Part II is described in the "Footnotes to Schedule A" and is not based upon measurements from interior surfaces of interior walls, and the actual area comprising the unit is significantly less than the area listed in Schedule A. Purchaser should note that there is a rebuttable presumption that a reduction in unit area of five (5%) percent or less is not material. Sponsor will have no liability to any Purchaser nor will any Purchaser be entitled to a credit, offset or reduction in the Purchase Price for Purchaser's unit or otherwise be relieved from any obligations under the Purchase Agreement, by virtue of a immaterial inaccuracy or immaterial error in the Floor Plans, subject to the requirements of applicable law. Notwithstanding anything in this Offering Plan to the contrary, if Sponsor must make material changes to size, dimension, Common Interest, floor space or layout of Units or to size, dimension, layout, quantity or quality of Common Elements, due to site conditions, governmental requirements or other unforeseen circumstances, Sponsor will amend the Plan accordingly to disclose the changes. Any Purchaser under contract to purchase a Unit whose purchase would be materially adversely affected by such changes, will be given the right to rescind the Purchase Agreement and at least fifteen (15) days within which to exercise this right, and if rescission is exercised, will receive back the Down payment made thereunder together with interest earned thereon. Sponsor has no obligation to refund any additional fees incurred by Purchaser, including but not limited to any fees imposed by Purchaser's lender or attorneys' fees.

2. The purchase prices and other terms of sale of all Units may be negotiated by Sponsor and, therefore, may be changed. The offering prices set forth in Schedule A must be changed by a duly filed amendment to the plan when the change in price is an across the board increase or decrease affecting one or more lines of units, or is to be advertised, or is a price increase for an individual purchaser. Prices and specified terms of sale are negotiable and the Sponsor may enter into an agreement with an individual purchaser to sell one or more units at prices lower than those set forth in Schedule A without filing an amendment. In addition to the purchase price, Purchaser will be responsible at Closing for certain closing costs as explained in the Section entitled "Closing Costs and Adjustments" in Part I of the Plan including, without limitation, the obligation to contribute two (2) months common charges to the Working Capital Fund of the Condominium. Purchasers are advised to consult with their attorneys as to the exact closing costs they will incur in purchasing their Units. Please also refer to the Section of the Plan entitled "Change in Prices and Units" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.

3. (a) The respective Percentage Interest of each Unit in the Common Elements, in accordance with the provisions of Section 339-i(1)(iv) of the New York Condominium Act, is based upon floor space, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Unit, the availability of Common Elements for exclusive or shared use and the overall dimensions of the particular Unit. If Purchase Agreements have been entered into and there is a material change in the size and or a material adverse change to the quality of the common elements, the Sponsor must obtain consent from all of the purchasers to effect the change. Please also refer to the Section of the Plan entitled "Change in Prices and Units" in Part I of the Plan for further discussion.

(b) The percent interest of each Unit in the Common Elements is apportioned in the same proportion that the Common Interest of such Unit bears to the aggregate Common Interests of all Units.

(c) All equipment and materials installed will require maintenance and cleaning at least twice per year from the date of the First Closing and in accordance with the manufacturers' specifications at the cost of the Unit Owners. Purchasers should note that each HVAC unit will need to be cleaned and its filters changed on a regular basis at Purchaser's sole cost and expense.

4. The estimates contained in this schedule were computed by Sponsor's Condominium Budget Expert on the assumption that the first year of Condominium operation will be the year from April 1, 2025 through March 31, 2026, and are based on such Condominium Budget Expert's estimate of the receipts and expenses of the Condominium for the projected year. The actual first year of Condominium operation may be earlier or later than such year. If the actual or anticipated date of commencement of condominium operation is delayed by more than six (6) months from the commencement of the projected first year of condominium operation, Sponsor will amend the Plan to include a revised budget disclosing current projections. If such amended projections in the aggregate exceed original projections by twenty-five (25%) percent or more, Sponsor will offer all purchasers the right to rescind for a period of fifteen (15) days after the date of the presentation of the amendment setting forth the right to rescind.

The estimated monthly Common Charges for each Unit are based on the Schedule B - Projected Budget for First Year of Condominium Operation prepared by Sponsor's Condominium Budget Expert. Each individual Unit is provided with either incremental HVAC heating/air conditioning units or air condenser Units which should be cleaned and maintained at least twice per year by the individual Unit Owner. The maintenance and operating cost of the HVAC units are borne by the individual Unit Owners. Please refer to Schedule B-1 "Energy Costs Projection" from Engineering Solutions for further information regarding estimated energy costs. The actual first year of operation may be earlier or later than the projected annual period. In addition to these estimated payments, each Unit Owner will be responsible for real estate taxes for such Unit, mortgage payments under a loan or loans, if any, obtained to finance the purchase of the Unit, the cost of electricity supplied to the Unit which will be separately metered and payable by the Unit Owner to the Condominium Board, the insurance which must be carried by each Unit Owner with respect to liability and casualty to the contents of the Unit and the cost of interior repairs and decorations to the Unit and cable television service all of which are not included in the projected monthly carrying charges. Until the Units are separately assessed, real estate taxes shall be part of Common Expenses, as provided in the Condominium By-Laws. In addition, capital repairs, additions, improvements, alterations and restorations to Condominium are Common Expenses which will be borne solely by the Unit Owners.

5. After the Condominium is divided into individual tax lots, each Unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes and the Unit Owner will not be responsible for the payment of, or subject to, any lien arising from the non-payment of, nor will the Unit be subject to, any lien arising from non-payment of taxes on other units. In the event that the Units have not been separately assessed for real estate tax purposes prior to the closing of title to the first unit, Sponsor may place in escrow, in the name of the Board of Managers, an amount equal to the unpaid real estate taxes which will be levied against the parcel for the six (6) month period following the first closing. Alternatively, the Sponsor may place in escrow, in the name of the Board of Managers, an amount equal to the real estate taxes attributable to the unsold units for such six month period and may collect at each unit closing the estimated amount of taxes attributable to such unit for the balance of the six month period. The Board of Managers will pay the real estate taxes from any escrow account when taxes are due and payable, and the funder of any escrow account will be entitled to reimbursement from unit owners to the extent of the actual assessment. No escrow will be required if the condominium by-laws include as part of the common expenses, real estate taxes on the property until units are separately assessed and after assessment unit owners will be reimbursed for any overpayment of taxes or assessed for an underpayment.

The estimate of aggregate real estate taxes attributable to all Unit Owners for the first year of Condominium operation is $18,101, based on an opinion prepared by Metropolitan Realty Exemptions dated March 18, 2024 which assumes (a) a projected actual assessed valuation attributable to the property of $90,120 for the period April 1, 2025 – March 31, 2026 and (b) a projected tax rate of 20.085% per $100 of assessed valuation for the tax period. All of these numbers and information are post-construction valuations. The opinion prepared by Metropolitan Realty Exemptions included in the Plan sets forth the projection for real estate taxes in the first year of operation. Please refer to the Section of the Offering Plan entitled Real Estate Taxes for further discussion.

Prior to the issuance of separate tax lots, the real estate tax estimates for each Unit will be determined by multiplying the total taxes due with respect to the Units by a percentage derived by dividing the Common Interest of each Unit by the total Common Interests of all Units. The opinion prepared by Metropolitan Realty Exemptions included in the Plan sets forth the calculation for Unit assessments.

PURCHASERS ARE ADVISED THAT THE FOREGOING INFORMATION IS NOT A GUARANTEE OR WARRANTY that the New York City tax assessor will allocate individual Unit assessments on the basis of each Unit's percentage interest in the Common Element. Neither Sponsor, Selling Agent, nor any of their principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates make any warranties or guaranties of any real estate taxes to be assessed against the Unit as they have relied on the opinion of its counsel in making such estimates.

Under the circumstances described, the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") has ruled that the owner of a residential condominium unit may deduct the real estate taxes assessed and paid on his or her interest in the property. Accordingly, an owner of a Unit who itemizes his or her deductions will be entitled under current law to deduct from his or her gross income for Federal income tax purposes, subject to (i) a $10,000 ($5,000 in the case of a married individual filing a separate return) annual limitation for state and local real property taxes (for taxable years beginning after December 31, 2017, and before January 1, 2026), assessed against his or her Unit and paid to the local tax authority. However, no deduction for real estate taxes is permitted for purposes of the Federal alternative minimum tax. Owners of the Units should consult with their tax advisers regarding the applicability of the overall limitation on the deductibility of real estate taxes.

Sponsor anticipates that the Condominium will qualify as a "homeowners association" under Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, pursuant to counsel's tax opinion dated June 30, 2020, a copy of which is in Part I of this Plan. Based on our counsel's opinion, the condominium will be eligible for tax exempt status if it elects such status, and unit owners will be entitled to income tax deductions (or the Unit Owners will be eligible for real estate tax benefits). See the Section entitled the Tax Opinion of Paley Group, P.C. in Part I of the Plan for a more detailed discussion concerning the deductibility of real estate taxes paid with respect to a Unit.

The projected tax deduction (where applicable) may vary in future years due to changes in the interest rate on the Unit Owner's mortgage (if any) or from changes in the allocation of constant debt service payments to interest and principal, or due to changes in real property taxes resulting from the expiration of real estate tax benefits, or from changes in the assessed value, the tax rate or the method of assessing real property.

NEITHER SPONSOR, SELLING AGENT NOR ANY OF THEIR PRINCIPALS, MANAGERS, MEMBERS, AGENTS, DESIGNEES, EMPLOYEES OR AFFILIATES NOR THE SELLING AGENT OR ITS PRINCIPALS, MANAGERS, MEMBERS, AGENTS, DESIGNEES, EMPLOYEES OR AFFILIATES MAKE ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, THAT THE ASSESSED VALUE OF THE PROPERTY, THE ESTIMATED ALLOCATIONS, THE TAX RATE, OR THE ACTUAL ASSESSED TAXES WILL NOT BE CHANGED.

Unit 1 will have Cellar space which is uninhabitable space appurtenant to the Unit and this space may not be legally used as a bedroom or living room and to do so may result in a building code violation being issued for the building.

The Sponsor is imposing the fees of the NYC and NY State transfer taxes on the Purchaser which by statute is an obligation of the Seller pursuant to 13 NYCRR Section 20.3 (s)(1).

FOOTNOTES FOR SCHEDULE B

First Year of Condominium Operation:

Amounts are projected on the assumption that the first year of Condominium operation will be the year from April 1, 2025 to March 31, 2026. The actual first year of Condominium operation may be earlier or later that year. If the date of commencement as planned of Condominium operation is to be delayed by six (6) months or more from the projected budget year in the Offering Plan, the Plan will be amended to include a revised budget disclosing the current projections. If such amended projections exceed the original projections by twenty-five (25%) percent or more, the sponsor will offer all Purchasers (other than Purchasers who are then in default beyond any applicable grace period, if the Plan has been declared effective) the right, within a reasonably defined period of time of not less than fifteen (15) days, to rescind their Purchase Agreements and have their deposits refunded. Sponsor may not declare the Plan effective where there are any material changes to the budget if these changes have not been disclosed by a duly filed amendment to the Plan. If the date of the first closing of a Unit is delayed by twelve (12) months or more from the projected first closing date, Sponsor will offer all Purchasers the right to rescind their Purchase Agreements by notice given to the Sponsor after the offer of rescission is made.

(1) Common Charges: $48,817

These amounts represent the total Common Charges to be levied against and collected from the Units during the projected first year of Condominium operation. The Common Charges will be utilized by the Board to defray the operational expenses of the Condominium. Common Expenses have been allocated among the Unit Owners on the basis of percentage of Common Interest allocated to each Unit.

(2) Labor: $3,000

Contracted Superintendent Services will be provided by the managing agent of the building at a monthly rate of $250. The Superintendent Service will clean and maintain the sidewalks and trash areas in front of the building and handle all snow removal. Such level of staffing complies with all applicable housing labor laws. Such level of staffing complies with all applicable housing labor laws. The Labor cost is not included in the Management Fee and is listed separately here.

(3) Gas: $5,313

This estimate is based on an estimate made as of July 30th, 2024, by Engineering Solutions located at 150 West 30th Street, Suite 402, New York, NY 10001, that gas for the domestic hot water heating equipment, cooking appliances, and space heating will be approximately 3,001 Therms/YR at an annual cost of $1.54/Therm, a 10% inflation allowance and a 4.5% sales tax.

It is believed that the budgeted figure will be sufficient to cover any reasonable increase in the cost of electricity during the first year of operation. However, no budget item is warranted as to its accuracy, sufficiency or otherwise.

See Schedule B-1 for the projected costs associated with individual gas consumption.

(4) Electricity: $1,277

This estimate is based on an estimate made as of July 30th, 2024, by Engineering Solutions located at 150 West 30th Street, Suite 402, New York, NY 10001, that light and power for the Common Areas as well as the mechanical equipment will be approximately 4,629 KW/HR/YR at an annual cost of $.24KW/HR, a 10% inflation allowance and a 4.5% sales tax.

The amount set forth is the estimate for the electricity consumed only by the Common Elements, since the electricity for each Unit will be individually metered by Coned.

It is believed that the budgeted figure will be sufficient to cover any reasonable increase in the cost of electricity during the first year of operation. However, no budget item is warranted as to its accuracy, sufficiency or otherwise.

See Schedule B-1 for the projected costs associated with individual electric consumption.

(5) Water and Sewer Charges: $2,348

This estimate is based on an estimate made as of July 30th, 2024, by Engineering Solutions located at 150 West 30th Street, Suite 402, New York, NY 10001, with water and sewer annual consumption of 17,545 Cu. Ft. at a rate of $.1163 per CCF.

The budgeted amount constitutes a projection of the water charges and sewer rents that will be payable with respect to the Building.

It is believed that the budgeted figure will be sufficient to cover any reasonable increase in the cost of water and sewer charges during the first year of operation. However, no budget item is warranted as to its accuracy, sufficiency or otherwise.

(6) Service Contracts: $5,241

This estimate includes the cost of various services used in or for the Common Elements.

Exterminating	$1,241

The budgeted amounts are based on estimates received from contractors and the experience of Sponsor's budget expert, MD Squared Property Group, LLC, in operating comparable buildings. While this Schedule B includes a reasonable allowance for possible increases in cost, which may occur prior to and during the First Year of Condominium Operation, no warranty is made that the actual cost for these or other services will be in accordance with this projection.

(7) Repairs, Maintenance and Supplies: $4,500

This estimate includes painting, maintenance and repair costs of Common Elements only. Unit Owners will be responsible for the cost of repairs and painting in the interiors of their Units. No provision has been made to cover the cost of any capital expenditure. This estimate also includes the estimated annual cost of services and supplies (excluding service contracts) provided to and for the benefit of the Units.

The above is the insurance required for the Condominium located at 334 Union Street, Brooklyn, NY 11231. The insurance provided for in the budget must provide and the Condominium must have at closing, the coverage pursuant to 13 NYCRR 20.3(h)(4)(viii). The insurance provided for in the budget must provide and the Condominium must have public liability insurance at closing and such coverage meets the requirements of any mortgage lender procured by the Sponsor.

This is a 3-story joisted masonry building of approximately 3,200 square feet. It is understood the property upon completion will contain 3 residential units and no commercial occupancy.

By carrying a $1,600,000 Building Limit, the hazard insurance company will include a provision known as "Agreed Value & Replacement Cost" endorsement. The carrier agrees to reimburse the insured for property losses up to the full amount of the policy regardless of the actual "replacement value" of the Building. This clause has the effect of "waiving" any co-insurance penalty that the insurer might otherwise invoke. This clause does not mean that the Condominium Association would receive sufficient proceeds to actually rebuild the entire building in the event of a substantial loss or total destruction. The Condominium Association should periodically review the amount of insurance they carry for building coverage and common charges to insure that the amount of coverage carried is sufficient.

Based on the offering information, the building value of $1,600,000 is based on approximately 3,200 square feet of space for full repair and replacement without deduction for depreciation.

The Condominium's Insurance will (1) provide that each Unit Owner be included as an additional insured as respects common areas; (2) provide that there will no cancellation without notice to the Board of Managers as long as they are first named insured; (3) permit the Condominium to waive subrogation in accordance with the Condominium Offering Plan.

Each individual Unit Owner should consider the desirability of obtaining additional insurance at his own cost as per the by-laws for the following coverage. Coverage for the "unit owner" is not included in the above Letter of Adequacy:

1. Fire or casualty losses to the contents of his Unit including replacements, additions, fixtures and improvements therein; and
2. Liability for personal injury or property damage as a result of occurrences in their Unit, including water damage legal liability to cover damage arising from leaks or other conditions within the unit.

The annual estimated premium for the condominium's insurance for 2024-25 is $11,500. This is a non-binding indication and would be subject to market and rate changes, and a favorable insurance company inspection.

No representation is made that terrorism insurance will be available, or if available, at what cost, at the time the insurance policy is written for the Condominium Association.

Statutory coverage (Workers Compensation & NY Disability) is not included in the estimated insurance cost and is based on payroll and rates in effect at time of closing.

The Condominium should purchase Environmental Protection Liability. The cost is subject to a completed application and rates in effect at the time of closing.

(9) Management Fee: $7,200

Based on the management agreement to be entered into with Industry Property Management at or before the First Closing, it is expected that the Managing Agent will receive an annual fee of $7,200 for the First Year of Condominium Operations. Reference should be made to the Section of the Plan entitled "Management Agreement" in the Offering Plan for further details of the Management Agreement.

(10) Legal Fees and Auditing Fees: $3,000

Based upon the estimate of Lesley Mozeson, located at 16 Sugar Hill Drive, Pawling, NY 12564, $2,000 has been budgeted for fees to be incurred in connection with the preparation of the financial statements for the Condominium's first year of Condominium operation and its Federal, New York

State and New York City income tax returns. The financial statements will be certified by the accountants for the Condominium every year as long as the Sponsor is in control of the Board of Managers. The balance of the budgeted amount ($1,000) has been estimated to provide for minor legal services to be rendered in connection with the operation of the Building such as attendance at Board meetings, preparation of Board minutes and negotiation of minor agreements

(11) Administrative and Other Expenses: $1,000

This amount includes telephone expenses, city permits, license fees, inspection fees and filing fees, and miscellaneous expenses. It also includes fees for copying costs, postage and other administrative expenses.

(12) Reserve Fund: $4,438

There is a provision in the budget for a Reserve Fund, in the approximate amount of 10% of the annual budget set forth in Schedule B. The Reserve Fund may only be used for capital expenditures. No representation is made that the Reserve Fund will be, or is intended to be adequate to cover all future capital expenditures for any subsequent year of Condominium operation, including, without limitation, the cost of any necessary repairs or replacements. If additional funds are required over and above the Reserve Fund, it may be necessary to increase the Common Charges.

IN THE OPINION OF MD SQUARED PROPERTY GROUP, LLC, THE PROJECTED INCOME IS ADEQUATE TO MEET THE PROJECTED COMMON EXPENSES FOR THE FIRST YEAR OF CONDOMINIUM OPERATION, ASSUMING SUCH FIRST YEAR TO BE THE 12-MONTH PERIOD COMMENCING APRIL 1, 2025. THE FOREGOING SCHEDULE, HOWEVER, IS NOT INTENDED AND SHOULD NOT BE TAKEN AS A GUARANTEE OR WARRANTY BY ANYONE THAT THE ANNUAL COMMON CHARGES OR OTHER INCOME AND EXPENSES FOR SUCH FISCAL YEAR OR ANY SUBSEQUENT YEAR OF OPERATION OF THE PROPERTY WILL BE AS SET FORTH IN SAID SCHEDULE, SINCE THE ANNUAL COMMON CHARGES AND OTHER ITEMS OF INCOME AND EXPENSE MAY VARY FROM AMOUNTS SHOWN IN THE SCHEDULE.

Sponsor reserves the right to enter into additional or other service, maintenance, employment, concessionaire and other agreements that will be binding on the Condominium upon commencement of condominium operation. Sponsor shall not, however, enter into any binding service, maintenance, employment, concessionaire or other agreements that will materially increase the first year's projected Common Charges or that will be binding on the Condominium for a period of more than two (2) years, unless the Plan is amended.

CHANGES IN PRICES AND UNITS

Changes in the Condominium

Purchase prices for all Units are negotiable and Sponsor reserves the right, at any time and from time to time before and after the recording of the Declaration, without giving prior notice (except as otherwise provided herein) and without the consent of the Board, Unit Owner or mortgagee, to change the price, including, without limitation, the manner of payment thereof and other terms of sale of any Unit, except that no such change with respect to any Unit for which a Purchase Agreement is then in effect may be made without the consent of the Purchaser. No such change will be made other than pursuant to a duly filed amendment to the Plan filed in advance of any such change, except that Sponsor reserves the right to decrease purchase prices or modify other terms of sale without filing an amendment to the Plan at any time during the offering period if such a decrease in the purchase price or modification of such other terms of sale does not constitute a general offering or an advertised price but is rather the result of an individually negotiated transaction. If any such change is made, a Purchaser of a Unit affected thereby may pay more or less than other Purchasers under the Plan for similar Units, but this will not affect any prior or subsequent sale of Units which are not the subject of such change. Neither the Sponsor, Selling Agent, nor any of their principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees, or affiliates shall be held liable in the event such change is made.

Sponsor reserves the right to negotiate with each Purchaser, the terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement, including but not limited to: purchase price; the amount of the Down Payment; financing and other contingencies; the availability of financing; the payment of Purchaser's financing fees and other closing costs; Sponsor reserves the right from time to time to add and/or delete negotiable terms from the list set forth above for all or some Purchasers without further amendment to this Offering Plan. No Purchaser will benefit from any terms and conditions negotiated with any other Purchaser, and a Purchaser's failure to so benefit will not give rise to any rights of rescission under a Purchase Agreement.

In order to meet the possible varying demand for number and type of Units, or to meet particular requirements of prospective purchasers, or for any other reason, Sponsor reserves the right (except to the extent prohibited by law) at any time and from time to time, before and after the recording of the Declaration, without giving prior notice and without the consent of the Board, Unit Owner or mortgagee, to (a) change the layout of, or number of rooms in, any Unsold Unit, (b) change the size and/or number of Unsold Units by dividing one or more such Units into two or more separate Unsold Units, combining separate Unsold Units (including those resulting from such subdivision or otherwise) into one or more Unsold Units, altering any boundary walls between one or more Unsold Units, or otherwise, including incorporating Common Elements (such as a portion of a hallway) which exclusively benefit an Unsold Unit into such Unsold Unit, and (c) if appropriate, reapportion among the Unsold Units affected by any such change, their aggregate Common Interests. In the event of any change pursuant to either (b) or (c) above, such change shall be disclosed in a duly filed amendment to the Plan. No material change will be made in the size or quality of the Common Elements except by amendment to the Plan and, when applicable, by amendment to the Declaration. Unless all Purchasers consent, no material change will be made in the size and no material adverse change will be made in the quality of the Common Elements. Sponsor remains obligated to build the Condominium in accordance with the plans and specifications identified in the Offering Plan and the aforementioned provision is subject to the requirements of applicable law and the representations set forth in this Offering Plan.

Sponsor shall have the power to execute any documents on behalf of the Condominium required in connection with any amendment to the Declaration or By-Laws permitted or required above or to any application or other documents required in connection with any such amendment by any administrative agencies asserting jurisdiction there over, including, without limitation, any application or documents required by the Building Department and/or the Real Estate Assessment Bureau in connection with designations of separate tax lots for the affected Units or otherwise. Nonetheless, the Unit Owners not involved in any such change and the Board of Managers shall execute promptly and without charge any documents or applications necessary or convenient in connection with the effectuation of the provisions hereof, and by accepting the deed for his or her Unit a Unit Owner grants to the Sponsor and its designees an irrevocable power of attorney coupled with an interest to execute, deliver and/or record any amendment to the Declaration and the By-Laws and any and all documents and applications necessary or convenient to effectuate the foregoing. The form of said Power of Attorney is contained in Part II of the Plan.

Once the Declaration is recorded, no change may be made in the number of Units or number of rooms within a Unit, nor may the size of any Unit be changed by subdivision or combination or alteration of boundary walls as aforesaid or otherwise, nor may the Common Interest of any Unit be changed, unless, in each such event, the Declaration and Floor Plans and this Plan are amended with the consent of each Unit Owner whose Unit is so changed. Sponsor will have the right to amend or to cause the Condominium Board to amend the Declaration to reflect any such change and to file such amendment and any necessary plans and specifications in connection therewith.

It should be noted that as long as the layout and dimensions of a Unit conform substantially to the Unit Plans, a Purchaser will not be excused from purchasing its Unit and will not have any claim against Sponsor as a result of any immaterial change. No such variation will affect a Purchaser's obligations under a Purchase Agreement or the Plan unless any such change, if material (note that there is a rebuttable presumption that a reduction in unit area of 5% or less is not material) is determined. In the event that there is a material change in the Unit or an materially adverse change in the common elements, the Sponsor shall offer the purchaser the right of rescission. The purchaser shall have thirty (30) days from receipt of written notice from Sponsor to rescind the Purchase Agreement (the "Notice Period"). If purchaser fails to rescind by written notice to the Sponsor by the end of the Notice Period, purchaser shall have waived its right to rescind and shall proceed to closing. If the Purchaser provides the proper notice during the Notice Period, the Sponsor shall return the initial down payment to the purchaser and the Purchase Agreement will be rendered void.

INTERIM USE AND OCCUPANCY AGREEMENTS

Sponsor and the owner of any Unsold Unit reserves the right with respect to any Unsold Unit under contract, prior to the date of closing thereto, to rent or lease such contracted for Unsold Unit on an interim basis only to the Purchaser in contract, for such rent and term and on such other conditions as may be agreed to between Sponsor or such owner and a Purchaser in contract. Sponsor may only rent units after Consummation of the Plan and will not rent any withheld units prior to consummation of the Plan. Purchasers are advised that the tenancy under such interim lease is not subject to governmental regulation as to amount of rent or terms.

Prior to the First Closing the entire building will be insured by the Sponsor. After the First Closing, Sponsor will initially procure on behalf of the Condominium Board the insurance relating to the Condominium which is required to be maintained by the Condominium Board in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws (see the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of Boards of Managers"). Purchasers who rent or lease such contracted for Unsold Unit on an interim basis shall be responsible for obtaining renter's insurance for their Unit at such Purchaser's sole cost and expense. A person who takes possession prior to the first closing assumes the risk of losses not covered by insurance.

Interim leases will not be subject to the New York City Rent Law (rent control), the Emergency Tenant Protection Act of 1974, the New York City Rent Stabilization Law, or the New York City Rent Stabilization Code, as such laws are presently in effect. The term of each such Interim Lease shall expire on the earliest to occur of (i) the date of Closing of Title to the Unit covered by such Interim Lease, (ii) the date fixed in the Interim Lease for the expiration of the term, (iii) the date upon which the Interim Lease is terminated at the option of Sponsor by reason of a default by the Purchaser-tenant under the Interim Lease or a casualty or condemnation affecting the Unit or (iv) the date upon which the Interim Lease is terminated by the Purchaser-tenant or Sponsor as provided below. The rent payable under the Interim Lease shall be negotiated by the parties but shall in no event exceed the maximum legal rent, if any, permitted under Applicable Laws.

The interim lease will provide, however, among other things, that an uncured default under the Purchase Agreement is a default under the interim lease and an uncured default under an interim lease is a default under the Purchase Agreement. If an uncured default under the interim lease can result in a default under the Purchase Agreement, before the Sponsor may utilize the default under the interim lease to declare a default under the Purchase Agreement, the Sponsor must either obtain an order of eviction or other judgment or order from a court or agency of competent jurisdiction against the Lessee unless the Lessee has vacated the Unit. Sponsor shall provide written notice to Purchaser of default under the Agreement and Purchaser shall have thirty (30) days within which to cure such default before forfeiture of the deposit may be declared. In addition, each Agreement may provide that an uncured default by the Purchaser under any lease or use and occupancy agreement with respect to the Unsold Unit which is the subject of the Agreement will constitute a default under the Agreement entitling Sponsor or such owner, at its option, to terminate such Agreement and to exercise any remedies therein provided; A Purchaser will have thirty (30) days to vacate an Unsold Unit after a default under the Agreement or the exercise of a right of rescission.

In the event that the Purchaser-tenant should exercise any right to terminate or rescind the Purchase Agreement or Interim Lease, such termination or rescission will be contingent upon surrendering possession of his/her Unit and leaving the same vacant, in good condition and broom clean within thirty (30) days after he elects to terminate or rescind. He/she must also pay any rent due and payable under his/her Interim Lease. Nothing contained herein shall relieve any Purchaser of liability for damage to his/her Unit or of any other liability under the Purchase Agreement or Interim Lease.

Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, Sponsor will be under no obligation to enter into any interim lease and no portion of the rent paid under an interim lease will be credited towards the Purchase Price of a Unit unless the interim lease expressly provides.

If the Plan is abandoned, a Unit occupied pursuant to an Interim Lease shall be subject to the provisions of any Applicable Rent Laws that may be in effect with respect to such Unit at the time of such abandonment. If there are any inconsistencies between the Interim Lease and the Plan, the terms of the Plan shall govern.

PROCEDURE TO PURCHASE

A person desiring to purchase a Unit will be required to execute a Purchase Agreement which will be in the form set forth in Part II of the Plan.

Prospective Purchasers shall be afforded not less than three (3) business days to review the Plan and all amendments thereto prior to executing a Purchase Agreement. A Purchaser shall have the right to rescind the Purchase Agreement within seven (7) days following the date the Purchaser executes the Purchase Agreement. The Purchase Agreement sets forth in detail the terms of sale with respect to each Unit and should be read carefully by each prospective Purchaser. Prospective Purchasers should be aware that if any conflict exists between the Plan and the Purchase Agreement, the provisions of the Plan shall in all events control, except where such provisions were requested by Purchaser and agreed to by Sponsor.

Although a Purchaser may obtain financing from a lending institution or any other source, Purchaser's obligation to purchase a Unit pursuant to the Purchase Agreement shall not be contingent on Purchaser obtaining financing for such purchase.

If a Purchase Agreement is not accepted by Sponsor within the aforesaid thirty (30) day period, the Purchase Agreement shall be deemed to have been rejected and canceled and all sums theretofore deposited thereunder, without interest, shall be promptly returned to the prospective Purchaser. Sponsor hereby reserves the right at any time and from time to time for any reason whatsoever, without prior notice or prior amendment to the Plan and without the consent of any Board, to refuse to approve and execute (a) a Purchase Agreement for any Unit, except as prohibited by law, and (b) a Purchase Agreement(s) for more than one Unit to any one person or entity.

The Purchase Agreement shall not contain, and shall in no event be modified to contain, a provision waiving the Purchaser's rights or abrogating Sponsor's obligations under the Plan or under Article 23A of the General Business Law of the State of New York.

At the time a Purchase Agreement is executed, a Purchaser is required to make a down payment in an amount equal to ten (10%) percent of the Purchase Price (the "Down Payment"). In the event the Purchaser defaults, the Sponsor shall have the right to retain the entire Down Payment. All Down Payment checks must be made payable to the direct order of Paley Group, P.C. All checks delivered in payment of the Down Payment shall be accepted by Sponsor subject to collection, and if any such check is returned for insufficient funds or any other reason, Sponsor shall have the right, among other things, to deem such Purchase Agreement to be canceled and of no further force or effect.

Each prospective Purchaser should note that Sponsor is only obligated to provide the equipment and fixtures described in the "Description of Property" set forth in Part II of this Plan. Sponsor is not required or obligated to perform any special or custom work, upgrades or extras in Units (collectively, "Specialty Work") whatsoever.

In no event shall the presence of any furniture, furnishings, equipment or decorations in any model unit imply or represent that any Unit will contain such furniture, furnishings, equipment or decorations upon delivery of the Unit to Purchaser unless Purchaser agrees to pay Sponsor an amount solely determined by Sponsor in addition to the purchase price for such Unit.

The balance of the purchase price shall be payable simultaneously with the delivery of the deed to the Unit by an official bank check or an unendorsed certified check drawn on or issued by a New York bank or trust company which is a member of The New York Clearinghouse Association and shall be payable to the direct order of Sponsor, or otherwise if Sponsor should so notify Purchaser. The deed will be substantially in the form set forth in Part II of the Plan. Interest, if any, on Purchaser's Down Payment will be credited or paid to Purchaser at Closing.

TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE TO PURCHASER AS TO PURCHASER'S OBLIGATIONS PURSUANT TO THE PURCHASE AGREEMENT, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, FOR THE PAYMENT OF THE BALANCE OF THE PURCHASE PRICE. FUNDS DRAWN ON OUT-OF-STATE OR FOREIGN BANKS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED IN PAYMENT OF THE PURCHASE PRICE FOR A UNIT UNLESS OTHERWISE AGREED BY SPONSOR.

After the Plan is declared effective, Purchasers will receive at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice of the originally scheduled Closing Date and, in the event Purchaser fails to close on the designated date, then Purchaser will have a thirty (30) day period after notice within which to cure, time being of the essence, such default, following which Sponsor shall have the remedies set forth below. A Purchaser may waive notice of such Purchaser's Closing Date. In the event of any default by Purchaser under his or her Purchase Agreement, and if Purchaser does not cure such default within thirty (30) days after Sponsor gives written notice to the Purchaser of default, Sponsor may, at its option, cancel such Purchase Agreement and retain the Down Payment made by Purchaser, together with any interest earned thereon, as liquidated damages, in which event all rights, obligations and liabilities of Sponsor and Purchaser shall wholly cease and terminate. In addition, Sponsor shall also be entitled to retain any amount spent by Sponsor for special work actually expended and requested by Purchaser. Sponsor will fix dates for closing title to all Unsold Units for which Purchase Agreements have been executed by serving notice upon each Purchaser stating the date of the First Closing and setting such Purchaser's Closing Date. The obligations of a Purchaser under a Purchase agreement are not conditioned on obtaining financing. Any prospective purchaser who executes a Purchase Agreement and does not obtain financing may lose his or her downpayment if he or she is unable to otherwise raise the monies for the balance of the purchase price. Prospective purchasers who require financing are advised to consult with a lending institution before execution of a Purchase Agreement. No representation is made by the Sponsor as to the availability or cost of such financing.

If a Purchaser fails for any reason to close title to his or her Unit on the originally scheduled Closing Date (a) the closing apportionments described in the Section entitled "Closing Costs and Adjustments" will be made as of midnight of the day preceding the originally scheduled Closing Date, regardless of when the actual Closing occurs, and (b) Purchaser will be required to pay to Sponsor, as a reimbursement of Sponsor's higher carrying costs for the Unit by virtue of the delay, and in addition to the other payments to be made to Sponsor under the Purchase Agreement and this Plan, an amount equal to 0.03% (or such lower rate per day which is the highest legal rate) of the purchase price of his Unit for each day starting from (and including) the originally scheduled Closing Date to (and including) the day before the actual Closing Date; and (c) Purchaser shall pay Sponsor's counsel $250.00 for each adjournment. If, through no fault of Purchaser, Sponsor postpones the originally scheduled Closing Date, these provisions shall apply to the rescheduled Closing Date if Purchaser fails for any reason to close title to his Unit on the rescheduled Closing Date.

If a Purchaser has entered into Purchase Agreements to purchase more than one Unit, a default by Purchaser in the payment or performance of any obligations under any of such Purchase Agreements, beyond any applicable grace periods, shall be deemed a default under the other Purchase Agreement(s). In the event of a such a default, Sponsor may, at its option, cancel each such Purchase Agreement(s) and retain, as liquidated damages, all downpayment(s) made by Purchaser, together with any interest earned thereon, if any, under each of such Purchase Agreement(s).

Prior to the closing of title to a Unit, Purchaser shall not list the Unit for resale or rent with any broker or to advertise or otherwise offer, promote or publicize the availability of the Unit for sale or lease, without Sponsor's prior written consent

The Sponsor anticipates that the first closing of a Unit will occur by April 1, 2025. Purchasers will be offered a right of rescission if (i) the actual date of closing of title to the first unit; or (ii) the projected date of closing of title to the first unit occurs later than March 31, 2026, twelve months after the projected date for the first closing. If the Plan is amended to provide for a later projected date for the first closing, purchasers will be entitled to an offer of rescission if the first closing occurs more than 12 months beyond that amended, later date.

However, if the first unit closing occurs before March 31, 2026, the Sponsor may schedule the closings of title to other units significantly later than such date. Unless your Purchase Agreement contains an outside closing date, the Sponsor is not obligated to schedule your closing within any specified time frame or to ensure that closing of title to your Unit will occur by any date certain. PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS SHOULD THEREFORE CAREFULLY CONSIDER THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DELAYS IN THEIR DETERMINATION AS TO WHETHER TO PURCHASE A UNIT.

In the event that the project commencement date of operation of the Units is six (6) months later than the anticipated date of the First Closing, the Plan will be amended to include a revised Budget disclosing the then current budget projections. If the aggregate Common Charges in the revised Budget increase by twenty-five (25%) percent or more, Sponsor will offer all Purchasers the right to rescind their Purchase Agreements and have their Down Payments refunded to them. Any Purchaser electing rescission will have their Down Payments and any interest earned thereon returned. Sponsor shall comply with the escrow and trust fund requirements of General Business Law Sections 352-e (2-b) and 352-h and the Attorney General's regulations promulgated pursuant thereto and all funds paid by purchasers shall be handled in accordance with these statutes and regulations as described in the subsection of the Plan entitled "Escrow and Trust Fund Requirements" in this Section of the Plan.

From and after the Closing of each Unit, Purchaser will become obligated for the payment of Common Charges in proportion to the Purchaser's Common Interest, real estate taxes and assessments (including water charges and sewer rents, if separately assessed) and all other expenses with respect to his Unit, whether or not he has taken possession of his Unit, and whether or not all work required to be performed by Sponsor or anyone else in or to his Unit or the Building has been completed. At such time, the Unit must be habitable and there must be a valid certificate of occupancy for the Building.

The risk of loss to any Unit by fire or other casualty until the Closing for such Unit (or an earlier taking of possession by the Purchaser) is assumed by Sponsor, but without any obligation or liability by Sponsor, its principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates to a Purchaser to repair or restore any Unit. In the event of damage or destruction of a Unit due to fire or other casualty prior to the Closing, but subsequent to the signing of a Purchase Agreement, provided Sponsor elects (which election shall be in its sole discretion) to repair or restore the Unit, the Purchase Agreement shall continue in full force and effect, and, thereafter, Purchaser shall not have the right to reject title or receive a credit against, or abatement in, the purchase price for the subject Unit. Sponsor shall provide Purchaser with notice of such election within thirty (30) days following the date of the occurrence of the casualty or risk of loss. In such event Sponsor shall be entitled to a reasonable period of time within which to complete the repair or restoration, and any proceeds received from insurance or in satisfaction of any claim or action in connection with such loss shall, subject to the rights of the respective Boards and other Unit Owners, belong entirely to Sponsor. In the event of damage or destruction to any Unit by fire or other casualty prior to the Closing, but subsequent to the signing of a Purchase Agreement, if Sponsor or its designee notifies Purchaser that it does not elect (which election shall be in its sole discretion) to repair or restore the Unit, or, if the casualty occurs after the First Closing and the Unit Owners do not resolve to make such repair or restoration pursuant to the By-Laws (see the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners and Boards of Managers"), the Purchase Agreement shall be deemed canceled and of no further force or effect and Sponsor shall return to Purchaser all sums deposited thereunder, together with interest earned thereon, if any, whereupon the parties to the Purchase Agreement shall be released and discharged from all obligations and liability thereunder and under this Plan; provided, however, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if Purchaser is then in default under the Purchase Agreement (beyond any applicable grace period), Sponsor shall retain all such sums as and for liquidated damages.

Purchase Agreements are not assignable without the prior written consent of Sponsor, which consent may be granted or denied by Sponsor in its sole discretion. With respect to the assignment of a Purchase Agreement, Sponsor, its principal managers, members, agents, designees, employees and affiliates shall not discriminate against any person on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, marital status or other grounds prohibited by law.

Escrow and Trust Fund Requirements

All Down Payments received by Sponsor under a Purchase Agreement will be held in escrow in conformity with the provisions set forth below. The Purchase Agreement is annexed hereto as Exhibit 1 in Part II of the Plan. The relevant escrow trust fund provision are included in Paragraph 43 of the Purchase Agreement, which must be executed by Paley Group, P.C. as escrow agent (the "Escrow Agent"), with an office located at 801 Second Avenue, Suite 2100,

New York, New York 10017 and whose telephone number is (212) 603-9899. The attorneys who are signatories on this account authorized to withdraw funds are: Marc Paley, Esq. All designated signatories are admitted to practice law in the State of New York. None of the designated signatories on the account are the Sponsor, Selling Agent, or a principal thereof, or have any beneficial interest in any of the foregoing.

All Down Payments made pursuant to a Purchase Agreement are subject to the escrow and trust fund requirements the State of New York Lien Law Section 71a(3), the General Business Law of the State of New York Sections 352-e(2-b) and 352-h and the Attorney General's regulations promulgated pursuant thereto. Funds must be placed in a bank doing business in the State of New York which account(s) is/are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC").

Escrow Agent has established a master escrow account at Flagstar Bank at its branch located at 1400 Broadway, 25th Floor, New York, New York 10018, entitled Paley Group, P.C. Attorney Trust Account (the "Master Escrow Account"). Each Purchaser is required to deliver a completed and signed Form W-9 (Request for Taxpayer Identification Number) in the form set forth in Part II of the Plan or a Form W-8 (Certificate of Foreign Status) in the form set forth in Part II of the Plan, as applicable, to Sponsor or Selling Agent at the time Purchaser tenders the Down Payment and the Purchase Agreement. If a Down Payment is accompanied by a completed and signed Form W-9 or Form W-8, the Down Payment will thereafter be promptly transferred to an individual interest-bearing sub-escrow savings account in the name of Purchaser. If a Purchaser does not deliver the Form W-9 or Form W-8, the Down Payment will remain in the non-interest-bearing checking portion of the Master Escrow Account. At such time as the Down Payment is released, the Down Payment will be transferred from the individual sub-escrow savings account to the non-interest-bearing checking portion of the Master Escrow Account so that checks may be drawn thereon. Signature Bank is covered by the current FDIC insurance limit of $250,000 per individual deposit. The following are special risks of this offer: (i) if a Purchaser makes a Down Payment in excess of $250,000 for the purchase of a Unit, such Down Payment will not be federally insured in excess of $250,000; and (ii) while the Down Payment is in the non-interest bearing checking portion of the Master Escrow Account, the Down Payment may not be fully federally insured even if the Down Payment does not exceed $250,000. Sponsor is advised that the FDIC takes the position that for purposes of computing insurance coverage, all deposits in a party's name in a banking institution are added together and insured to a maximum of $250,000 aggregate. Thus, if Purchaser already has or opens an account at Signature Bank in the name in which the Down Payment is deposited, and should FDIC insurance be called upon, the funds in that account will be aggregated with the Down Payment and insured to a maximum of $250,000. Under the current law, the current $250,000 amount referred to herein as the amount of FDIC insurance is subject to change by the Federal Deposit Insurance Company at any time. Funds drawn on out-of-state or foreign banks will not be accepted as payment of the purchase for a Unit unless otherwise agreed by Sponsor.

The Down Payment may be tendered by Purchaser to Sponsor or Selling Agent by either personal delivery, delivery by messenger or courier service or mailed by certified mail, return receipt requested, overnight courier or express mail service. The Down Payment shall be deemed tendered by Purchaser on the date it is actually received by Sponsor or Selling Agent.

Acceptance of the Down Payment by Sponsor or Selling Agent and the Down Payment thereof by Escrow Agent shall not be deemed a binding agreement by Sponsor to sell to Purchaser unless and until Purchaser executes a Purchase Agreement and Sponsor or Selling Agent executes a duplicate thereof and delivers the Purchase Agreement to Purchaser in accordance with the terms of the Plan.

The checking account portion of the Master Escrow Account will not be interest-bearing. The sub-escrow savings account portion of the Master Escrow Account will be interest-bearing. All interest will be credited to Purchaser at such time as: (i) there is a closing under the Purchase Agreement, or (ii) Purchaser is entitled to a return of the Down Payment. All interest will be credited to Sponsor only in the event Purchaser defaults. The interest rate to be earned will be the prevailing rate for these accounts which varies. Currently, the rate is approximately 0.3%. Interest will begin to accrue after deposit within: (i) one (1) business day, if the Down Payment is cash or cash equivalent, or (ii) three (3) business days, if the Down Payment is other than cash or cash equivalent, of the transfer of the Down Payment from the checking account portion of the Master Escrow Account into the sub-escrow savings account portion of the Master Escrow Account.

All instruments shall be made payable directly to the order of "Paley Group, P.C., as Escrow Agent." Endorsed instruments will not be accepted.

Notification to Purchaser

In the event a check delivered by a Purchaser fails of collection, the Purchase Agreement will be deemed void ab initio (as if the Purchase Agreement had never been executed) at the option of Sponsor, who reserves the right to exercise this option in its discretion by written notice to Purchaser given within five (5) business days of Sponsor receiving notice from Escrow Agent of such failure of collection.

Within five (5) business days after the Purchase Agreement has been tendered to Escrow Agent along with the Down Payment, the Escrow Agent shall sign the Purchase Agreement and place the Down Payment into the Escrow Account. Within ten (10) business days of depositing the Down Payment into the Escrow Account, Escrow Agent will notify Purchaser that such funds have been deposited into escrow and will provide the account number and the initial interest rate, if any. Escrow Agent is obligated to send notice to Purchase once the Down Payment is placed in the Escrow Account. If Purchaser does not receive notice of such deposit within fifteen (15) business days after tender of the Down Payment, Purchaser may cancel the Purchase Agreement and rescind so long as the right to rescind is exercised within ninety (90) days after tender of the Purchase Agreement and Down Payment to Escrow Agent. Complaints concerning the failure to honor such cancellation request may be referred to the New York State Department of Law, Real Estate Finance Bureau, 28 Liberty Street, New York, New York 10005. Rescission may not be afforded where proof satisfactory to the Attorney General is submitted establishing that the Down Payment was timely deposited and requisite notice was timely mailed to Purchaser in conformity with the Attorney General's regulations.

Before the funds are transferred to a new escrow account, or if the Escrow Agent is replaced, the Plan must be amended to provide the same full disclosure with respect to the new account and new escrow agent.

Release of Funds

All Down Payments, except for advances made for upgrades, extras or custom work received in connection with the Purchase Agreement, are and shall continue to be the Purchaser's money, and may not be comingled with any other money or pledged or hypothecated by Sponsor, as per GBL §352-h. Under no circumstances shall Sponsor seek or accept the release of the Down Payment of a defaulting Purchaser until after Consummation of the Plan, as evidenced by the acceptance of a post-closing amendment by the Department of Law. Consummation of the Plan does not relieve the Sponsor of its obligation pursuant to GBL §§ 352-e(2-b) and 352-h.

The Escrow Agent shall hold the Down Payment in escrow until otherwise directed in:

- (a) a subsequent writing signed by both Sponsor and Purchaser; or
- (b) pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the Purchase Agreement upon closing of title to the Unit; or
- (c) by a final non-appealable order or judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction;

If the Escrow Agent is not directed to release the Downpayment pursuant to paragraphs (a) through (c) above, and the Escrow Agent receives a request by either party to release the Downpayment, then the Escrow Agent must give both the Purchaser and Sponsor prior written notice of not fewer than thirty (30) days before releasing the Downpayment. If the Escrow agent has not received notice of objection to the release of the Downpayment prior to the expiration of the thirty (30) day period, the Downpayment shall be released and the Escrow Agent shall provide further written notice to both parties informing them of said release. If the Escrow agent receives a written notice from either party objecting to the release of the Downpayment within said thirty (30) day period, the Escrow Agent shall continue to hold the Downpayment until otherwise directed pursuant to paragraphs (a) through (d) above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Escrow Agent shall have the right at any time to deposit the Downpayment contained in the Escrow Account with the clerk of the county where the Building is located and shall give written notice to both parties of such deposit.

The Sponsor shall not object to the release of the Down Payment to:

- (a) a Purchaser who timely rescinds in accordance with an offer of rescission contained in the Plan or an Amendment to the Plan; or
- (b) all Purchasers after an Amendment abandoning the Plan is accepted for filing by the Department of Law.

The Department of Law may perform random reviews and audits of all records involving the Escrow Account to determine compliance with all applicable statutes and regulations.

Waiver Void

Purchaser will not object and will be deemed to have agreed, without the need for a written agreement, to the release of the Down Payment to Sponsor in the event Sponsor and Purchaser close title under the Purchase Agreement.

Any provision in the Purchase Agreement or separate agreement, whether oral or in writing, by which a Purchaser purports to waive or indemnify any obligation of the Escrow Agent holding any Down Payment in trust is absolutely void. The provisions of the Attorney General regulations and GBL §§ 352-e(2-b) and 352-h concerning escrow trust funds shall prevail over any conflicting or inconsistent provisions in the Purchase Agreement, Plan or any amendment thereto.

Escrow Agent shall be permitted to act as counsel to Sponsor in any dispute as to the disbursement of the Down Payment or any other dispute between Sponsor and a Purchaser whether or not Escrow Agent is in possession of the Down Payment and continues to act as Escrow Agent.

Sponsor has agreed to indemnify Escrow Agent from all costs, claims, expenses and damages incurred in connection with or arising out of the escrow agreement or the performance or non-performance of Escrow Agent's duties under the escrow agreement, except with respect to actions or omissions taken or suffered by Escrow Agent in bad faith or in willful disregard of the escrow agreement or involving gross negligence of Escrow Agent.

Sponsor has agreed to compensate Escrow Agent for services rendered in connection with Escrow Agent's duties under the Escrow Agreement, if any. Escrow Agent's fees and disbursements will neither be paid by Sponsor from the Down Payment nor deducted from the Down Payment by any financial institution under any circumstance. Escrow Agent will maintain all records concerning the Master Escrow Account for seven (7) years after the release of funds.

At each closing, the Purchaser will be required to sign a power of attorney to the Board of Managers of the Condominium that will be recorded and will be collected by the Sponsor and delivered to the managing agent within five (5) days of the closing. If the power of attorney is not executed by the Purchaser the closing cannot be completed.

Set forth in Exhibit 1 of Part II of the Plan is a copy of the form of Purchase Agreement which incorporates the escrow terms described herein.

EFFECTIVE DATE

Sponsor must go into contract for at least one Unit before declaring the Offering Plan effective. This is based upon the three (3) units in the condominium rather than the two (2) units Sponsor has initially offered for sale. Sponsor's offer to sell the Units under this Plan is contingent upon the Plan being declared effective pursuant to Section 20.3(q) of Title 13 NYCRR (i.e., when purchase agreements have been executed by bona fide purchasers for one (1) unit offered under the Plan). The Plan must be declared effective when Purchase Agreements have been executed by prospective purchasers and accepted by Sponsor with respect to all three (3) Units. The Plan may be declared effective at an earlier date, at Sponsor's sole election, when bona fide Purchase Agreements (including those executed by investors) have been executed and accepted by Sponsor with respect to one (1) Unit being offered for sale under the Plan.

The Plan will not be declared effective based on Purchase Agreements: (i) signed by purchasers who have been granted a right of rescission that has not yet expired or been waived; (ii) if the purchaser was not afforded the protections regarding a time of the essence provision concerning purchaser's obligations which must be explained in easily understandable terms and must be highlighted as a special risk; or (iii) signed by purchasers who have not been afforded at least three (3) business days to review this Plan and all filed amendments prior to executing a Purchase Agreement or at least seven (7) days to rescind; or (iv) signed by any purchaser who is the Sponsor, the Selling Agent, managing agent, or a principal of the Sponsor, Selling Agent, or managing agent, or is related to the Sponsor, selling agent or the managing agent or to any principal of the Sponsor, selling agent or managing agent by blood, marriage or adoption or as a business associate, an employee, a shareholder or a limited partner, except that such a purchaser other than Sponsor or a principal of the Sponsor may be included only if Sponsor has submitted proof satisfactory to the Department of Law establishing that the purchaser is bona fide.

This Plan will be declared effective either by: (a) personal service of written notice to all purchasers and, within five (5) business days following such notice, an amendment to this Plan confirming that this Plan was declared effective as of the date of such notice will be submitted to the Department of Law, which amendment, upon acceptance for filing, will be delivered to all purchasers; or (b) by duly filed amendment to this Plan. The notice must contain the date the plan was declared effective, the percentage of units used to declare the plan effective, and a list of the Units being counted to meet the minimum percentage under the terms of the Plan to declare it effective. The closing of title with respect to any Unit shall in no event take place prior to the acceptance for filing of such amendment to this Plan.

Notwithstanding the fact that not all purchasers used for purposes of declaring the plan effective may actually close, Sponsor will re-declare the plan effective if all purchase agreements are either rescinded or terminated prior to the date of the first unit closing, regardless of whether the condominium declaration has been recorded.

After the Plan is declared effective, it may not be abandoned by Sponsor for any other reason than: (1) the existence of one or more title defects (including violations of record or work orders of a mortgagee or insurance carrier) affecting any one or more Units or the Property that cannot be removed, cured or complied with without litigation or for less than one-half of one percent of the total offering amount; (2) a substantial damage to or destruction of the Building

(or any portion thereof) by fire or other casualty that cannot be repaired for less than one-half of one percent of the total offering amount; or (3) a taking of any material portion of the Property in condemnation proceedings or by eminent domain. The stated dollar amount relied upon as a basis for abandonment after effectiveness must exclude attorney's fees or any such title defects or determinations of any authority or regulatory association which Sponsor relies upon as a basis for the abandonment of the Plan and may not include those which existed on the date of presentation of the Plan and are either known to the Sponsor or are a matter of public record.

The Plan may be abandoned by Sponsor, at its option, before it is declared effective. Sponsor shall promptly file an amendment together with form RS-3 as required by 13NYCRR section 20.1(1)(2). In the event the Plan is abandoned, it will be by duly filed amendment and all Down Payments, together with interest earned thereon, if any, will be returned to Purchasers within ten (10) days following such withdrawal or abandonment. Upon the return of the Down Payments together with any interest earned thereon, the Purchase Agreements will be null and void and Sponsor will have no further obligation or liability to Purchasers under the Plan or the Purchase Agreements. Sponsor, its principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees and affiliates shall not be liable for any additional costs incurred by Purchaser, including but not limited to Purchaser's title and financing fees and charges. Sponsor shall promptly submit an amendment to the Department of Law confirming such abandonment and shall file a notice of abandonment on form RS-3 or such other form as the Department of Law may require and explain the reason for the abandonment and disposition of all funds received.

TERMS OF SALE

The term "Closing" as used herein refers to the conveyance of title to a Unit from Sponsor to Purchaser by the delivery to Purchaser of a deed upon payment by Purchaser to Sponsor of the balance of the purchase price for such Unit. After the Plan has been declared effective, Sponsor shall provide Purchasers with at least thirty (30) days' notice of the scheduled Closing Date. The Closing to each Unit shall be held at the offices of Sponsor's attorneys, Paley Group P.C, 801 Second Avenue, Suite 2100, New York, N.Y. 10017 or at such other place as Sponsor may designate on not less than two (2) business days' notice prior to the Closing. The Closing to each Unit shall take place only after or concurrently with the following events:

- a. The plan has been declared effective in accordance with its terms and the amendment to the Plan disclosing same has been accepted;
- b. a temporary or permanent certificate of occupancy for the Unit is in effect;
- c. prior to the first conveyance of title to a Unit, the recording or filing in Kings County, of the Declaration, By-Laws, Floor Plans and engineer's and tax authority certifications required by Section 339-p of the New York Condominium Act or other applicable law and such other documents as may be required by law;
- d. either (i) the release of the Unit and its appurtenant interest in the Common Elements from the lien of all mortgages, if any, or (ii) if the Purchaser is obtaining financing on such Unit, the assignment to the Purchaser's mortgagee of any existing mortgage(s) encumbering such Unit and its appurtenant interest in the Common Elements; if the Sponsor's mortgage is assigned to the Purchaser's mortgagee, such severance and assignment of the mortgage would not result in any additional risk or cost to the Purchaser. Any severance or assignment transaction will be initiated only after financing has been procured by the Purchaser; and should this transaction fail to take place and result in the loss of Purchaser's financing commitment, then Purchaser will be entitled to an opportunity to obtain new financing, if Purchaser so elects.
- e. the delivery to Purchaser of written notice of the time and place of the Closing to the Unit at least thirty (30) days prior to the Closing Date specified therein, including a reasonable opportunity, upon written request of Purchaser, for Purchaser to examine the Unit and the Property, during normal business hours and in the company of Sponsor's agent, prior to Closing;
- f. the execution and delivery by Sponsor of a bargain and sale deed with covenants against grantor's acts (which deed shall be substantially in the form set forth in Part II of the Plan) conveying title to the Unit and its appurtenant Common Interest, free and clear of all liens, encumbrances and other title exceptions other than the Permitted Encumbrances which are itemized as follows:

1. State of facts shown on survey and any additional state of facts which an accurate survey would show since that date provided such additional state of facts does not prohibit the use of the Unit for residential use as the case may be.

2. Zoning and building laws, ordinances, resolutions, restrictions and regulations of municipal authorities having jurisdiction and any amendments thereto, now or hereafter adopted, providing same will not be violated by the Building.

3. The Declaration and By-Laws, Maps and Floor Plans to be recorded and filed in The Kings County office of the Register of the City of New York, as the same may be amended from time to time and the terms, covenants and conditions of the Offering Plan and amendments thereto.

4. Power of Attorney from Purchaser to the Condominium Board of Managers.

5. Easement in favor of adjoining Units and in favor of the Common Elements for the continuance of all encroachments of such adjoining Units or Common Elements on the Unit, existing as a result of construction or renovation of the Building, or which may come into existence as a result of settling or shifting of the Building, or as a result of repair or restoration of the Building or any adjoining Unit or of the Common Elements made by or with the consent of the Sponsor or the Board of Managers after damage or destruction by fire or other casualty after a taking in condemnation or eminent domain proceedings, or by reason of an alteration or repair to the Common Elements, made by or with the consent of the Sponsor or the Board of Managers, so that any such encroachments may remain so long as the Building shall stand and so long as same does not affect the use of the Unit for its intended purpose.

6. Any easement or right of use required by Sponsor, its designees and their assigns, invitees, licensees, contractors and employees in, over, above and across all areas of the Property for construction, installation, maintenance, ingress to and egress from and the right to use all areas and facilities in, on, appurtenant to or servicing the Property, and to obtain temporary, permanent or amended certificate(s) of occupancy for the Building or any part thereof and to erect and maintain signs on the Property for the purpose of advertising the sale and/or leasing of Units (see also "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor").

7. Encroachments of trim, copings, retaining walls, bay windows, balconies, sidewalk elevators, fences, fire escapes, cornices, foundations, footings, chutes, fuel oil lines, drainage and standpipes, and similar projections, if any, on, over or under the Property or the streets, sidewalks or premises abutting the Property, and the rights of governmental authorities to require the removal of any such projections, and variations between record lines of the Property and retaining walls and the like, if any, so long as same do not interfere with the use and occupancy of the Unit.

8. Leases and service, maintenance, employment, concessionaire and license agreements contemplated by this Plan.

9. The lien of any unpaid Common Charges, real estate tax, water charge or sewer rent, provided that apportionment of same is adjusted as provided in this Plan.

10. Easements in favor of the other Unit Owners to access and use the pipes, wires, ducts, conduits, cables, public utilities and other Common Elements located in the Unit or elsewhere on the Property and serving such other Units, easements in favor of the Board of Managers and Sponsor for access to Units and Common Elements, and any other easements described in the Offering Plan, as it may be amended.

11. Any easement or right of use created in favor of any public utility company for electricity, steam, gas, telephone, water or other service, and the right to use, maintain and repair wires, cables, terminal boxes, lines, service connections, poles, mains, facilities and the like upon, under and across the Property.

12. Franchise taxes, if any, provided the Title Company will insure that such taxes cannot be collected from the Unit.

13. Standard printed exceptions to the NYBTU or ATLA policies of title insurance.

14. Any Certificate of Occupancy for the Building, so long as the same permits or does not prohibit the use of the Unit for its stated purposes.

15. Any lease or other occupancy agreement for the Unit made by Sponsor and Purchaser.

16. Any violations against the Property which are not specific to only the Unit.

17. Variations between tax map and premises described in Purchaser's title report.

18. Any other covenants, restrictions, easements, or other encumbrances (other than for the payment of money) provided same do not prohibit the existence and use of the Unit for residential or commercial purposes, as the case may be.

19. Rights, if any, to maintain vaults and chutes under the sidewalk.

20. Any lien, encumbrance, or condition not included in the liens and encumbrances listed above either (i) for which the instrument required to remove it of record has been delivered to the Title Company for recording in the proper office, together with the requisite recording or filing fees or delivered to the representative of Purchaser's title insurance company (or, if none, to Purchaser's attorney); or (ii) as to which the Title Company will to insure (without additional premium) that such lien or encumbrance will not be collected out of or enforced against the Unit; or (iii) as to which the Sponsor, at its sole option, pays and discharges from monies paid by Purchaser at closing.

g. the delivery by Sponsor to Purchaser of any existing warranties actually received by Sponsor its agents, affiliates, employees or contractors, covering appliances, equipment or fixtures installed in his Unit, and not otherwise expired, and the delivery by Sponsor to the Condominium Board after the First Closing of any existing warranties actually received by Sponsor and not otherwise expired covering appliances, equipment or fixtures installed in the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements, as the case may be. Purchasers should be aware that warranties vary in length, depending partly on when the appliances, equipment and fixtures covered by such warranties are first installed. Neither Sponsor, Selling Agent nor any of their principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates make any representation as to which, if any, of the warranties will continue to remain in force upon the Closing Date of any particular Unit. If any warrantor is unable to perform under its warranty due to inability, unwillingness, dissolution, bankruptcy or for any other reason, Neither Sponsor, Selling Agent nor any of their principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates shall under any circumstances be considered or deemed a successor warrantor. Neither Sponsor, Selling Agent nor any of their principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates have any obligations or responsibilities with respect to such warranties, or the work or item warrantied, even if the warrantor goes out of business, declares bankruptcy or simply fails to fulfill the conditions of the warranty. Recourse is only to the warrantor and not to Sponsor, its principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates;

h. the execution and delivery by Purchaser of the Unit Power of Attorney, the form of which is set forth in Part II of the Plan;

i. if Purchaser has requested title insurance, the issuance to Purchaser (at Purchaser's sole expense) of a policy of title insurance in at least the amount of the purchase price of the Unit, insuring that (i) Purchaser has fee title to his or her Unit free and clear of all liens, encumbrances and title exceptions other than those described in the Plan and the proposed Unit Deed (title exceptions may include the state of facts shown on a stated survey and any additional state of facts a subsequent survey would show, provided that such additional state of facts does not render title unmarketable) except for (1) Permitted Encumbrances and standard printed exceptions, (2) liens and encumbrances (other than Permitted Encumbrances) to which his Unit's title is subject, which have been expressly accepted by Purchaser, and (3) any mortgage and related security documents that Purchaser executes in connection with the financing of the purchase price of his Unit and (ii) the Condominium has been validly created pursuant to the Condominium Act.

Neither Sponsor, Selling Agent nor any of their principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates are obligated to repair any damage from a casualty or other cause that occurs before the closing of a Purchaser's Unit. If Sponsor, its principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates elect to repair any such damage, Purchaser's Purchase Agreement will remain in full force and effect, Purchaser shall not have the right to reject title or receive a credit against or an abatement in, the Purchase Price. Sponsor shall be entitled to ninety (90) days within which to complete the repair or restoration. If Sponsor notifies Purchaser that it does not elect to repair or restore the Unit, the Purchase Agreement shall be deemed canceled and Sponsor shall return to Purchaser all sums deposited by Purchaser under the Purchase Agreement, together with interest earned thereon, if any, except if Purchaser is in default under the Purchase Agreement, Sponsor shall retain any such sums as and for liquidated damages.

Sponsor is selling the units in their "as is" condition and without any warranties. Sponsor reserves to itself, its successors, assigns, designees, invitees, contractors, agents, employees and tenants, any and all easements and rights of access, in and to Units and Common Elements, to ensure Sponsor's rights and obligations hereunder. Sponsor's reservation and rights shall include, but not be limited to the right to maintain general, sales and leasing office(s) and personnel on the Premises, to post signs, and to conduct other activities connected with promotion, sales or leasing, such as inspection and display of vacant or licensed Units, as well as all Common Elements, to prospective Purchasers or lessees;

The Sponsor, its affiliates and its contractors, subcontractors, agents and employees will have a right of access to each Unit and to all of the Common Elements for the purpose of fulfilling Sponsor's obligations under the Plan and performing certain alterations and repairs in or about the Unsold Units. Sponsor its principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates shall have no responsibility for any condition in any Unit that is resold by a Purchaser from the Sponsor. No Unit Owner may make any structural alterations, addition, improvement or repair to such Unit Owner's Unit or the Building without the prior written approval of the Condominium Board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sponsor is required to complete all work as required in accordance with the Offering Plan.

All personal property located within the Unit on the date the Purchase Agreement is signed or located within the common elements on the date the declaration is filed, that is owned by the Sponsor or the owner of the property is included in the conveyance unless specifically excepted in the Offering Plan.

If applicable, prior to Closing, the Sponsor will procure the Real Property Transfer Gains Tax Tentative Assessment and Return (or Statement of No Tax Due) and will at Closing, pay all Real Property Transfer Gains Tax and all other transfer taxes due and comply with the requirements of the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance.

STATUS OF TITLE AT CLOSING

The deed conveying the Unit to the Purchaser will contain the provisions set forth in subdivision 5 of Section 13 of the Lien Law, and will convey title free and clear of all liens, encumbrances and title exceptions other than those described in the proposed Unit deed included in Part II of this Plan and the title exceptions and other matters set forth below (collectively the "Permitted Encumbrances"):

1. State of facts shown on survey made by _____, dated _____, and any additional state of facts which an accurate survey would show since that date provided such additional state of facts does not prohibit the use of the Unit for residential use.
2. Zoning and building laws, ordinances, resolutions, restrictions and regulations of municipal authorities having jurisdiction and any amendments thereto, now or hereafter adopted, providing same will not be violated by the Building.
3. The Declaration and By-Laws, Maps and Floor Plans to be recorded and filed in the New York County office of the Register of the City of New York, as the same may be amended from time to time and the terms, covenants and conditions of the Offering Plan and amendments thereto.
4. Power of Attorney from Purchaser to the Condominium Board of Managers.
5. Easement in favor of adjoining Units and in favor of the Common Elements for the continuance of all encroachments of such adjoining Units or Common Elements on the Unit, existing as a result of construction or renovation of the Building, or which may come into existence as a result of settling or shifting of the Building, or as a result of repair or restoration of the Building or any adjoining Unit or of the Common Elements made by or with the consent of the Sponsor or the Board of Managers after damage or destruction by fire or other casualty after a taking in condemnation or eminent domain proceedings, or by reason of an alteration or repair to the Common Elements, made by or with the consent of the Sponsor or the Board of Managers, so that any such encroachments may remain so long as the Building shall stand and so long as same does not affect the use of the Unit for its intended purpose.
6. Any easement or right of use required by Sponsor, its designees and their assigns, invitees, licensees, contractors and employees in, over, above and across all areas of the Property for construction, installation, maintenance, ingress to and egress from and the right to use all areas and facilities in, on, appurtenant to or servicing the Property, and to obtain temporary, permanent or amended certificate(s) of occupancy for the Building or any part thereof and to erect and maintain signs on the Property for the purpose of advertising the sale and/or leasing of Units (see also "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor").
7. Encroachments of trim, copings, retaining walls, bay windows, balconies, sidewalk elevators, fences, fire escapes, cornices, foundations, footings, chutes, fuel oil lines, drainage and standpipes, and similar projections, if any, on, over or under the Property or the streets, sidewalks or premises abutting the Property, and the rights of governmental authorities to require the removal of any such projections, and variations between record lines of the Property and retaining walls and the like, if any, so long as same do not interfere with the use and occupancy of the Unit.

8. Leases and service, maintenance, employment, concessionaire and license agreements contemplated by this Plan.

9. The lien of any unpaid Common Charges, real estate tax, water charge or sewer rent, provided that apportionment of same is adjusted as provided in this Plan.

10. Easements in favor of the other Unit Owners to access and use the pipes, wires, ducts, conduits, cables, public utilities and other Common Elements located in the Unit or elsewhere on the Property and serving such other Units, easements in favor of the Board of Managers and Sponsor for access to Units and Common Elements, and any other easements described in the Offering Plan, as it may be amended.

11. Any easement or right of use created in favor of any public utility company for electricity, steam, gas, telephone, water or other service, and the right to use, maintain and repair wires, cables, terminal boxes, lines, service connections, poles, mains, facilities and the like upon, under and across the Property.

12. Franchise taxes, if any, provided the Title Company will insure that such taxes cannot be collected from the Unit.

13. Standard printed exceptions to the NYBTU or ATLA policies of title insurance.

14. Any Certificate of Occupancy for the Building, so long as the same permits or does not prohibit the use of the Unit for its stated purposes.

15. Any lease or other occupancy agreement for the Unit made by Sponsor and Purchaser.

16. Any violations against the Property which are not specific to only the Unit.

17. Variations between tax map and premises described in Purchaser's title report.

18. Any other covenants, restrictions, easements, or other encumbrances (other than for the payment of money) provided same do not prohibit the existence and use of the Unit for residential purposes.

19. Rights, if any, to maintain vaults and chutes under the sidewalk.

20. Any lien, encumbrance, or condition not included in the liens and encumbrances listed above either (i) for which the instrument required to remove it of record has been delivered to the Title Company for recording in the proper office, together with the requisite recording or filing fees or delivered to the representative of Purchaser's title insurance company (or, if none, to Purchaser's attorney); or (ii) as to which the Title Company will to insure (without additional premium) that such lien or encumbrance will not be collected out of or enforced against the Unit; or (iii) as to which the Sponsor, at its sole option, pays and discharges from monies paid by Purchaser at closing.

Sponsor shall be entitled to adjourn the closing to remove or correct any title exception that cannot be dealt with as set forth above.

If requested by the Purchaser, the Title Company will agree to insure upon Purchaser's payment of the premium for such insurance (see estimate of such cost described in "Closing Costs and Adjustments"), (i) that Purchaser has fee title to the Unit, free and clear of liens and encumbrances except those set forth in the Plan, as amended, and subject to the terms of the Declaration and By-Laws, and any mortgage or other encumbrance created by the Purchaser and (ii) that the Unit is part of a validly created condominium. As a result, Sponsor is not obligated to cause Purchaser's title company to omit any exception if the Title Company is willing to insure, without additional premium, Purchaser's title with such exception. Purchaser will be responsible to pay to the title company the entire premium for Purchaser's title insurance. Purchaser may obtain title insurance from any title insurance company or abstract company or not obtain any title insurance at all, at Purchaser's sole discretion (unless Purchaser's lender shall require Purchaser to purchase title insurance covering such lender).

CLOSING COSTS AND ADJUSTMENTS

In addition to Purchaser's own legal fees, Purchaser will pay the closing costs set forth below at the time of the closing of title of the Purchaser's Units. The insurance rates and City Register fees for recording documents are uniform and will be the same regardless of the Title Company used by Purchaser. Recording charges, fees and taxes are based on rates in effect on the date of the Plan and are subject to change without notice:

(a) A contribution to the Working Capital Fund of the Condominium in an amount equal to two (2) months Common Charges then applicable to each Unit being purchased.

(c) Purchaser will pay the premium for title insurance, which will vary depending upon the purchase price of the Unit. Purchasers are free to use a title company of their choice without any penalty. The premium insurance rate or fees for recording documents are uniform and will be the same regardless of the title company used. Gotham Abstract, having an office at 622 Third Avenue, Suite 600, New York, NY 10017 telephone: (305) 336-2852, ("Title Company"), has provided Sponsor with the standard fee policy rates as set forth below.

As of the date of this plan the premiums for fee title insurance is $342 for the first $63,000 of fee insurance plus $3.30 for each $1,000 of additional fee insurance up to $100,000. For additional rates for purchase prices up to $999,999.99, please refer to the schedule below.

FEE AMOUNT	PREMIUM
$ 50,001.00	$351 + $3.80 per thousand up to $100,000.00
$100,001.00	$541 + $3.05 per thousand up to $500,000.00
$500,001.00	$1,762 + $2.79 per thousand up to $1,000,000.00
$1,000,001.00	$3,155 + $2.57 per thousand up to $5,000,000.00

$5,000,001.00 $13,406 + $2.30 per thousand up to $10,000,000.00

(d) The fees charged by the City Register's office for recording a Unit Deed, Unit Owner Power of Attorney and mortgage (if any), in the amount of $42.00 for each document, plus $5.00 per page (including the cover page), shall be payable by Purchaser, plus the filing fee, if any, for the RP-5217 form shall be payable by the Purchaser. In addition, a Purchaser's title company establishes its own additional service fees and service surcharges in this regard, that are payable by Purchaser;

(e) If Purchaser obtains a mortgage loan, the Purchaser will pay Sponsor a sum equal to the partial mortgage tax credit to which Purchaser may be entitled pursuant to Section 339-ee(2) of the Condominium Act, which sum will be paid as a reimbursement for the mortgage recording tax previously paid by Sponsor in connection with any existing mortgage(s);

(f) The New York City Real Property Transfer Tax ("RPT Tax"), which currently, for the purchase of a single Unit is one (1%) percent of the purchase price of a Unit $500,000 or less (1.425% of the purchase price if over $500,000), and the New York State Documentary Stamp Tax ("NYS Tax") is calculated as follows:

Consideration Amount	NYS Transfer Tax Rate
Under $2 Million	0.4%
$2 Million- $3 Million	0.4%

For purposes of calculating the taxes payable, the amounts of such taxes will be included in the consideration subject to tax. Therefore, the steps to compute the tax are:

- (i) Multiply the purchase price by the RPT Tax rate to compute the City tentative tax.
- (ii) Multiply the purchase price by the NYS Tax rate to compute the tentative NYS Tax.
- (iii) Add the tentative taxes to the purchase price.
- (iv) Multiply (iii) by the RPT Tax rate to determine the RPT Tax payable.
- (v) Multiply (iii) by the NYS Tax rate to determine the NYS Tax payable.

Example:

Purchase price = $600,000.00

- | | | | |
|-----|-------------------------------|------|--|
| (1) | $$600,000.00 \times 1.425\%$ | = $ | 8,550.00 |
| (2) | $$600,000.00 \times .4\%$ | = $ | 2,400.00 |
| (3) | $$600,000.00 + $10,950$ | = $ | 610,950.00 ("Adjusted Purchase Price") |
| (4) | $$610,950.00 \times 1.425\%$ | = $ | 8,706.00 |
| (5) | $$610,950.00 \times .4\%$ | = $ | 2,443.80 |
| | (rounded up to nearest $500) | | |

Where a purchaser purchases two or more Units the NYC RPT Tax rate where the consideration is $500,000 or less will be 1.425%, while the tax rate where the consideration is in excess of $500,000 will be 2.625%. The City of New York Department of Finance has recently taken the position that the consideration for the transfer of each Unit is not aggregated for purposes of determining total consideration. There is no guarantee that The City of New York will not change its positions with respect to the purchase of multiple Units by the same purchaser.

Although the costs of New York City Real Property Transfer Tax ("NYC RPT") and New York State Real Estate Transfer Tax ("NYS RET Tax") are customarily paid by the seller in covered transactions, the responsibility for paying these taxes may be shifted to the purchaser. The Purchase Agreement expressly notes that purchasers are obligated to pay said taxes at the Closing as a closing cost. Notwithstanding anything stated in the Plan to the contrary, in accordance with the New York State Tax Law Section 1404 (a), which was recently amended, effective as of July 1, 2021, no gross-up shall apply to the NYS RET Tax paid by purchasers. All such references shall be amended to reflect that a gross-up applicable to the NYS RET Tax shall not longer apply to purchasers of Unsold Units.

(g) If the purchase price of the Unit is $1,000,000 or more, the New York State Additional Tax pursuant to Article 31 of the Tax Law, commonly referred to as the "Mansion Tax", currently one (1%) percent of the purchase price. If the purchase price of the Unit is $1,000,000 or more, Purchaser shall also be obligated to pay the New York State Additional Tax pursuant to Article 31 of the Tax Law, commonly referred to as the "Mansion Tax", which by law is the primary obligation of the Purchaser. The New York State 2019/2020 Budget (the "2020 Budget") includes legislation which revises the rates of the New York State real estate transfer tax (the "NYSRETT") and a new "supplemental tax" (the "ST"). Prior to the 2020 Budget, the NYSRETT was charged at the rate of $2.00 for each $500.00 of consideration (or about 0.4%). Pursuant to the 2020 Budget, the existing rate of the NYSRETT shall remain for conveyances of residential real property for consideration of less than $3 million. Prior to the 2020 Budget, the "mansion tax" ("MT") was charged at a rate of 1% of the total consideration for the conveyance of residential real property. Pursuant to the 2020 Budget, and as per the below table, there is now a MT and ST. The ST rate is a supplementary "progressive" tax, ranging from 0.25% on transfers of residential real property for $2 million or more of consideration to 3.9% on transfers for $25 million or more of consideration (conveyances of residential real property for consideration of less than $1 million are not subject to the MT and conveyances of residential real property for consideration of at least $1 million and less than $2 million shall be subject to a rate of 1% of the consideration).

Consideration Amount	Total NYS Mansion Tax Rate	Supplemental Tax	Total Percentage
Under $1 Million	Not subject to tax	0%	0%
At least $1 Million, but less than $2 Million	1%	0%	1%
At least $2 Million, but less than $3 Million	1%	0.25%	1.25%

For purposes of calculating the taxes payable, the amounts of such taxes (other than the Mansion Tax) will be included in the consideration subject to such tax. Therefore, the purchase price and transfer taxes payable by purchaser are added together by NYS Department to arrive at total consideration. Therefore, a Unit priced at $985,000, where purchaser pays the transfer taxes, would subject purchaser to liability for Mansion Tax as the aggregate of price plus tax would exceed $1,000,000. Purchase price and transfer taxes payable by purchaser are added together by NYS Department to arrive at total consideration. Therefore, a Unit priced at $985,000, where purchaser pays transfer tax, would subject purchaser to liability for Mansion Tax as the aggregate of price plus tax would exceed $1,000,000. If purchaser pays any additional fees on behalf of Sponsor that are ordinarily a seller expense, those fees will be included in the calculation of the total consideration for the unit.

(h) Purchaser shall have sole responsibility for payment of all professionals, including attorney(s), employed or retained by Purchaser including fees and expenses charged by the Purchaser's attorney and/or the professionals. In addition, Purchaser shall also be responsible for payment of the following fees to Sponsor's attorneys, Paley Group, P.C., in connection with the closing of title to Purchaser's Unit: (i) the sum of $3,250.00 for Sponsor's legal fees in handling the closing, (ii) if the closing is adjourned through no fault of Sponsor, an additional fee of $500 for each such adjournment to help defray the cost of preparing for and coordinating the new closing; (iii) if the Purchaser requests the Closing to occur other than at the offices of Paley Group, P.C. or such other place as Sponsor may designate in its closing notice and Sponsor consents to such change, an attendance fee of $500 for each Closing held within Manhattan and $750 for each Closing held in any borough outside Manhattan, and (iv) if Purchaser obtains mortgage financing, an additional fee of $500 to Sponsor's attorneys to defray the additional costs associated therewith; Purchaser may be required to pay more than one fee pursuant to the preceding provisions of this paragraph with respect to a single Unit.

Other additional charges may apply. Purchaser shall also pay a $250 ACRIS fee to the Sponsor for preparing the ACRIS documents.

(i) If Purchaser obtains a mortgage loan, Purchaser will be responsible for the payment of all mortgage recording tax, origination, appraisal and closing costs and other expenses in connection therewith (including legal fees) in amounts determined by governmental authorities and such lender. Currently, the mortgage recording tax for mortgages under $500,000 is $2.05 for each $100 of principal and such tax for mortgages in the amount of $500,000 or greater is $2.175 for each $100 of principal. This tax is reduced for Units in both instances by $30.00 if the mortgage principal exceeds $10,000. No representation or warranty is made with respect to the amounts of such closing costs and expenses or the availability or cost of mortgage loans from any sources. As previously stated in paragraph (e) above, if a mortgage tax credit becomes available pursuant to Section 339-ee (2) of the Condominium Act, such credit will inure solely to the benefit of Sponsor. Accordingly, at Closing, each Purchaser utilizing mortgage financing will pay the full amount (but not in excess thereof) of the mortgage recording tax chargeable on the entire amount being financed and Sponsor will be reimbursed by Purchaser to the extent of any mortgage tax credit allowed.

In addition to the above-specified costs and expenses, a mortgage on a Unit may provide that the Unit Owner deposit monthly with the lender one-twelfth (1/12) of the estimated annual real estate taxes and tax assessments which are assessed or to be assessed against the Unit, together with one-twelfth (1/12) of the annual fire and casualty insurance policy premiums for the Unit, or other amounts, and, at Closing, Purchaser may be required to deposit with the lender a multiple of the aggregate of such one month's real estate taxes, tax assessments and insurance premiums, or other amounts, in order that sufficient funds will be available for the lender to pay the same when due.

Example The following table illustrates the projected amounts of the costs set forth in this section of the Offering Plan for a hypothetical apartment with a purchase price of $800,000 and a mortgage of $640,000 (80% financing). Tax, insurance and recording rates are subject to change.

Purchaser's mortgage recording tax (not including any payment to the Sponsor pertaining to mortgage tax credit)	$12,290.00
Recording costs for Unit Deed, Power of Attorney and Mortgage	$ 525.00
New York City Real Property Transfer Tax	$11,400.00
New York State Transfer Taxes (deed stamps)	$3,200.00
RPT File Fee	$125.00
Working Capital Contribution	$ 1,800.00
Fee Title Insurance	$2,996.00
Mortgage Title Insurance	$734.00

Sponsor's Closing Fee (assuming the closing occurs at the offices of Sponsor's Closing Counsel) and, other than in respect of a loan, Purchaser has not incurred any additional fees as set forth above)	$4,000.00
TOTAL:	$ 37,070.00

Other fees, which are not included in the example listed above (and which cannot be estimated because they pertain to events outside of the Sponsor's control, and/or statutory requirements) include, but are not limited to, the real estate tax escrow (and/or reimbursement of real estate taxes paid by the Sponsor), Purchaser's attorney's fee, lender's attorney's fee, possible commitment fee or loan origination fee, appraisal fee, application fee, credit check fee and monthly Common Charges prospectively from the Closing Date.

It is recommended that the prospective Purchaser consult with his or her lender and title company with respect to the nature and amounts of all Closing costs and/or other expenses to be paid in connection with any loan, and Sponsor makes no warranty with respect thereto. Purchasers are free to use a title company of their choosing without incurring a penalty.

Purchaser's actual Closing costs will be based upon the applicable governmental and title company rates in effect on the Unit Closing Date and may be higher or lower than those projected.

All legal costs, fees and expenses of Sponsor's attorneys, other than those specifically set forth above, will be the sole responsibility of Sponsor.

At Closing, adjustments will be made as of midnight of the day preceding the Closing Date between Sponsor and each Purchaser with respect to (a) real estate taxes and assessments, if any (including water charges and sewer rents, if separately assessed) on the basis of the period for which assessed, (b) Common Charges for the month in which title closes and (c) accrued rent and any other charges pursuant to an interim lease or use and occupancy agreement, if any, covering Purchaser's Unit. In the event the Units have not been separately assessed for real estate tax purposes prior to the First Closing, Sponsor may place in escrow, in the name of the board of managers, an amount equal to the unpaid real estate taxes which will be levied against the parcel for the six (6) month period following the first closing. Alternatively, the Sponsor may place in escrow, in the name of the Board of Managers, an amount equal to the real estate taxes attributable to the unsold units for such six (6) month period and may collect at each unit closing the estimated amount of taxes attributable to such unit for the balance of the six (6) month period. The Board of Managers will pay the real estate taxes from any escrow account when taxes are due and payable and the funder of any escrow account will be entitled to reimbursement from unit owners to the extent of the actual assessment. No escrow will be required if the condominium by-laws include as part of the common expenses, real estate taxes on the property until the units are separately assessed and after assessment unit owners will be reimbursed for any overpayment of taxes or assessed for an underpayment. Each Unit Owner will pay a pro rata share (in the proportion that such Unit's Common Interest bears to the aggregate Common Interest of all Units) of all real estate taxes with respect to the Property to the Condominium Board as Common Charges (please refer to Schedule A for an estimate of real estate taxes payable during the first year of Condominium operation). The Condominium Board will pay such taxes either to the Finance Administration of The City of New York or directly to Sponsor if Sponsor has already paid such real estate taxes. If any Unit Owner fails to pay his pro rata share as set forth above, the Condominium Board will have a lien on such Unit for non-payment of Common Charges. (See the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners and the Board of Managers--Common Charges: Collection and Lien for Non-Payment" for further discussion.) At such time as a Unit is separately assessed and separately billed, its Unit Owner will pay such taxes directly to the taxing authority.

If a Purchaser fails for any reason to close title to his or her Unit on the originally scheduled Closing Date, (a) the closing apportionments described above will be made as of midnight of the day preceding the originally scheduled Closing Date, regardless of when the actual Closing occurs, and (b) Purchaser will be required to pay to Sponsor, as a reimbursement of Sponsor's higher carrying costs for the Unit by virtue of the delay, and in addition to the other payments to be made to Sponsor under the Purchase Agreement and this Plan, an amount equal to 0.03% (or such lower rate per day which is the highest legal rate) of the purchase price of his or her Unit for each day starting from (and including) the originally scheduled Closing Date to (and including) the day before the actual Closing Date.

Except as specifically set out in this Plan, Sponsor must pay all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the promulgation and Consummation of this Plan, the creation of the Condominium and the initial sale of Units, including, but not limited to, all selling expenses and commissions payable to Selling Agent for the initial sale of Units pursuant to this Plan, advertising, printing and architects' fees, the fees of Sponsor's attorneys, engineering and appraisal costs and governmental filing fees, whether incurred prior or subsequent to the effective date of the Plan, in connection with the obligations of Sponsor (see the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of Sponsor.")

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF SPONSOR

Sponsor's Obligations with Respect to the Building

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan, Sponsor shall have the following obligations and all Purchasers upon execution of their respective Purchase Agreements will be deemed to have accepted, approved and agreed to abide and be bound by the following:

(a) Sponsor will diligently, expeditiously and at its sole cost and expense, perform or cause to be performed such work, and will supply or cause to be supplied all materials, necessary to complete construction of the Building substantially in accordance with the Plans and Specifications. Sponsor, its principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates shall not be obligated to correct and will not be liable to any Purchaser as a result of any immaterial variations from the Plans and Specifications or the description of the Building or a Unit set forth in the Plan. Sponsor, in its sole and absolute discretion, reserves the right to amend or modify, in any way, the Plans and Specifications (including, without limitation, changing materials, appliances, equipment, fixtures and other construction details), provided, however, that:

- (i) any materials, appliances, equipment and fixtures which Sponsor may substitute shall be similar products of Equal or Better Quality or design; and
- (ii) Sponsor may not (1) change the size or location of the Units, other improvements or Common Elements or (2) make any changes that affect the percentage of common interests or adversely affect the value of any Unit to which title has closed or for which a Purchase Agreement has been executed and is in effect, unless all affected Unit Owners and contract vendees consent in writing to such change.

(b) Each Unit and the fixtures and personal property contained therein are being sold and delivered as described in the Plan, at the time of transfer of title to such Unit. Sponsor will maintain each Unit, and the fixtures and personalty contained therein, up to the time of the transfer of title to the Unit in question.

(c) Following the recording of the Declaration, Sponsor will deliver, assign or otherwise grant to the Condominium Board, on behalf of all Unit Owners the right to proceed under any assignable warranties and other undertakings received by Sponsor from contractors, materialmen or others in connection with the construction and equipping of the Building, except that warranties and undertakings received by Sponsor which relate to appliances, equipment or fixtures located in the Unit of a Purchaser shall be assigned to such Purchaser on the date of closing of title to his Unit. Purchasers should be aware that warranties vary in length, depending partly on when the appliances, equipment and fixtures covered by such warranties are first installed. Sponsor makes no representation as to which, if any, of the warranties will continue to remain in force upon the Closing Date of any particular Unit.

(d) As more fully set forth in this Section of the Plan, Sponsor is obligated to construct the Building in accordance with all applicable codes and filed building plans and specifications as well as the provisions of the Plan. Sponsor shall not be obligated to correct, repair, or replace any imperfections or flaws that are immaterial in nature relating to construction of the Units, the Common Elements, and the Limited Common Elements, or in the installation or operation of any appliances, fixtures, or equipment therein, except as expressly provided in this Plan. Sponsor will not warrant the materials or workmanship of any Units or any of the Common Elements. The Housing Merchant Implied Warranty Law (GBL Article 36-B) is not applicable to this offering because such law is only applicable for new construction and this is not new construction having been renovated in 1999, nor is the Building being renovated at this time but rather a conversion of a previously existing structure.

(e) Prior to the Closing of title for each Unit, Sponsor will cause such Unit and its appurtenant Common Interest, benefits, rights and easements as described in the Declaration and By-Laws to be released from the lien of any mortgages or security agreements encumbering the Unit (other than any mortgage or security agreements obtained by the Purchaser).

(f) Sponsor will bear all costs and expenses incurred by it in connection with the creation of the Condominium and the preparation of the Plan and all selling expenses and compensation payable to sales or other personnel of Sponsor.

(g) Sponsor will pay or cause to be paid all contractors, subcontractors and materialmen and all others involved in the construction and equipping of the Building in accordance with the New York Lien Law, for work performed and fixtures, material and equipment supplied or installed during construction thereof. Sponsor agrees to pay for the authorized and proper work involved in the construction and establishment and sale of the condominium that Sponsor is obligated to complete under the Plan and will cause any and all mechanics' liens arising out of such construction and equipping, if any, to be discharged by bonding, or otherwise, promptly after the filing of any such liens.

(h) Sponsor shall have the obligation to defend any suits or proceedings arising out of Sponsor's acts or omissions and to indemnify the Condominium Board and the Unit Owners in any such action or proceeding as is required by law.

(i) Sponsor will deliver to the Condominium Board a complete set of mechanical, electrical and plumbing drawings for the entire Building as well as set of "as built" plans.

(j) In accordance with Section 339-p of the Condominium Act, a registered architect or licensed professional engineer shall certify within reasonable tolerances that the Floor Plans are an accurate copy of portions of the plans of the Building as filed with and approved by the municipal or other governmental authority having jurisdiction over the issuance of permits for the construction of the Building.

(k) Sponsor will pay all Common Charges, special assessments and real estate taxes allocated to any Unsold Units in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws. Sponsor represents that it has the financial resources to meet such obligations with respect to Unsold Units. Sponsor will fund its financial obligations from proceeds from the sales of offered Units, rental income from Unsold Units, and financing. No bond or other security will be posted by Sponsor with respect to this obligation.

(l) Sponsor will initially procure on behalf of the Condominium Board the insurance relating to the Condominium which is required to be maintained by the Condominium Board in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws (see the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of Condominium Board") the cost of which insurance has been reflected in the Projected Budget set forth in Schedule B. Sponsor shall procure fire and casualty insurance in an amount sufficient to avoid co-insurance, as reflected in Schedule B.

(m) Pursuant to the provisions of Section 352-e of the New York General Business Law, copies of the Plan and all exhibits or documents referred to herein shall be available for inspection, by prospective Purchasers and by any person who shall have purchased a Unit offered by the Plan or shall have participated in the offering of such Unit, at Sponsor's office and shall remain available for such inspection for a period of six years from the date of the recording of the Declaration. In addition, a set of Floor Plans showing the layout, location and approximate dimensions of each Unit and its unit number designation and tax lot number, certified by the appropriate governmental authority of The City of New York as conforming to the official tax lot number for each such Unit, will be filed in the City Register's office when the Declaration is recorded, and an additional set will be furnished to the Condominium Board.

(n) Sponsor is obligated to deliver to the Condominium Board all books of account and records pertaining to the Building's operation which are in Sponsor's possession on the First Closing.

(o) Sponsor may dissolve or liquidate at any time. In the event of such an occurrence or the transfer to an investor of twenty (20%) percent of the Units in the Condominium, the principals of Sponsor will provide financially responsible entities or individuals who will assume the status and all of the obligations of Sponsor for those Units under this Plan, applicable law or regulations.

(p) All representations under the Plan, all obligations pursuant to the GBL and such additional obligations under the Plan which are to be performed subsequent to the closing of each Unit will survive delivery of the deed.

(q) The risk of loss to any Unit by fire or other casualty until the Closing for such Unit is assumed by Sponsor (unless and until a Purchaser takes possession of such Unit, at which time Purchaser shall assume the risk of losses not covered by existing insurance coverage), but without any obligation or liability by Sponsor to repair or restore any Unit. In the event of damage or destruction of a Unit due to fire or other casualty prior to the Closing, but subsequent to the signing of a Purchase Agreement, provided Sponsor elects (which election shall be in its sole discretion) to repair or restore the Unit, the Purchase Agreement shall continue in full force and effect, and, thereafter, Purchaser shall not have the right to reject title or receive a credit against, or abatement in, the purchase price for the subject Unit. In such event Sponsor shall be entitled to ninety (90) days within which to complete the repair or restoration, and any proceeds received from insurance or in satisfaction of any claim or action in connection with such loss shall, subject to the rights of the Condominium Board and other Unit Owners, belong entirely to Sponsor. In the event of damage or destruction to any Unit by fire or other casualty prior to the Closing, but subsequent to the signing of a Purchase Agreement, if Sponsor notifies Purchaser that it does not elect (which election shall be in its sole discretion) to repair or restore the Unit, or, if the casualty occurs after the first closing and the Unit Owners do not resolve to make such repair or restoration pursuant to the By-Laws (see the Section entitled "Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners and Board of Managers"), the Purchase Agreement shall be deemed canceled and of no further force or effect and Sponsor shall return to Purchaser all sums deposited thereunder, together with interest earned thereon, if any, whereupon the parties to the Purchase Agreement shall be released and discharged from all obligations and liability thereunder and under this Plan; provided, however, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if Purchaser is then in default under the Purchase Agreement (beyond any applicable grace period), Sponsor shall retain all such sums as and for liquidated damages.

(r) New York City Local Law 7 of 2004 requires the installation of carbon monoxide detectors by owners of multiple dwellings, including owners of units in residential condominiums. Sponsor intends to provide carbon monoxide detectors in each Unit in accordance with New York City Local Law 7 of 2004. Each Unit Owner will be responsible to keep and maintain the carbon monoxide detectors in good repair and to replace any carbon monoxide detectors which has been stolen, removed, found missing or rendered inoperable. Sponsor makes no representations whether Unit Owners will comply with the foregoing obligations.

(s) Section 131.15 of the New York City Health Code requires owners of condominium units in which children 10 year of age or younger reside, to install approved window guards on all unit windows. Each Unit Owner will be responsible for ensuring that his or her Unit is in compliance with Section 131.15 of the New York City Health Code.

Sponsor currently resides in Unit 2. Sponsor currently intends to sell Units 1 and 3 under the terms of the Plan. However, Sponsor and the owners of any Unsold Units have retained the unconditional right to rent or lease any of the Unsold Units prior to closing the sale thereof to the Purchaser or any other party, to cease marketing Units for sale at any time, in Sponsor's sole discretion or to use or offer the Unsold Units for any lawful purpose.

Except where otherwise prohibited by Law, certain Units may be occupied under short-term leases. Accordingly, residents of the Condominium may be comprised of both Unit Owners and tenants leasing from Sponsor or other Unit Owners. Accordingly it is possible that a significant proportion of Unit Owners will not be residents of the Building and that a significant portion of tenants in the Building may not be Unit Owners. As a consequence of the foregoing, a Unit Owner seeking to resell or refinance a Unit may experience difficulty. In addition, residents of the Condominium may not share the same economic interests as Unit Owners in the maintenance and care of the Building's facilities and amenities and owner-occupants and non-resident Unit Owners including Sponsor, may have inherent conflicts on how the Condominium should be managed because of their different reasons for purchasing (i.e., purchase as a home as opposed to as an investment). In the event that Sponsor abandons the Plan, any amounts deposited by Purchasers for unit upgrades shall promptly be refunded. If Sponsor makes a bulk sale of all or some of its Unsold Units, the transferee successor sponsor shall be bound by Sponsor's representations regarding its commitment to sell Units. In the event of the dissolution or liquidation of Sponsor or the transfer of 20% or more of the total number of units in the condominium, the principals of the Sponsor will provide financially responsible entities or individuals who will assume the status and all of the obligations of the Sponsor for those units under the Offering Plan, applicable laws or regulations.

Sponsor and its contractors, subcontractors, agents and employees will have a right of access to each Unit and to all of the Common Elements for the purpose of fulfilling Sponsor's obligations under the Plan and performing certain alterations and repairs in or about the Unsold Units. Sponsor will use reasonable efforts in order to exercise such access in such a manner as will not unreasonably interfere with the use of any Unit for its permitted purposes. If reasonable care under the circumstances is exercised to safeguard the Unit Owner's property, such entry shall not render Sponsor or its authorized agents liable for any damage to the Unit or to the personality or fixtures contained therein.

This Offering Plan sets forth the entire obligations of Sponsor hereunder and no others shall be implied, except that nothing contained herein shall be deemed to limit the rights of Unit Owners under their respective Purchase Agreements and applicable law or to include any financial limitation on Sponsor's liability for failure to perform its obligations under the Plan. Sponsor makes no representation or warranty as to the work, materials, appliances, equipment or fixtures other than as set forth in the Plan. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, nothing contained in the Plan shall be construed as to render Sponsor liable for consequential damages (whether based upon negligence, breach of contract, breach of warranty or otherwise) it being intended that Sponsor's sole obligation shall be to perform its obligations as expressly provided in the Plan.

Sponsor shall have no obligation to any Purchaser of a Unit other than the Purchasers to whom Sponsor sold Units. Obligations of Sponsor hereunder with respect to the Condominium and the Common Elements shall be enforceable by the Condominium Board on behalf of Unit Owners. Sponsor shall have no obligation to any Purchaser of a Unit other than the Purchasers to whom Sponsor sold Units.

There are no warranties offered for the construction of the Units and the Common Elements. Notwithstanding anything stated above, Sponsor has an absolute duty to construct the Premises in accordance with the Plans and Specifications and applicable law.

A permanent Certificate of Occupancy was obtained for the Building on August 15, 2006. There is a mortgage on the base lot which will be paid in full upon the first closing. Because this is a conversion of a previously existing structure and no construction is taking place, no bond or other security other than those required by this Part has been furnished to security sponsor's obligations to complete construction of the condominium.

Leasing and Use of Unsold Units

Sponsor will at all times offer at least 15% of the total number of anticipated units to the public prior to effectiveness. In this instance the sale of one unit will meet this threshold. Sponsor will endeavor in good faith to sell Units 1 and 3 in a reasonably timely manner to third party purchasers unrelated to Sponsor. Sponsor, has also reserved the unconditional right to rent Units after consummation of the Plan. The Board, whether or not controlled by the Sponsor assumes a fiduciary duty to act in the best interests of the Condominium and its Unit Owners.

Sponsor is NOT providing any warranties for the materials or workmanship of the Units and the common charges. The Housing Merchant Implied Warranty Law does not apply to this offering since this is not new construction.

In addition to the right to rent set forth above, Sponsor and its designee also reserve the right to use or occupy itself or to rent or lease to a tenant who is not a Purchaser (for such rent and term and on such other conditions as may be agreed to between such parties) any Unit not conveyed or with respect to which a Purchase Agreement is not then outstanding and residents of the Condominium may be comprised of both Unit Owners and tenants. Accordingly, a Purchaser may be acquiring a Unit that has been previously occupied, but such Unit will be delivered at Closing free and clear of all leases, tenancies and rights of occupancy.

Sponsor and its designee reserve the right, without prior notice or amendment to the Plan, to use Unsold Units on any floor of the Building as sales and rental offices and model apartments for the Building. In the event Sponsor or its designee thereafter elects to sell any such Unsold Units, Sponsor or its designee may require the purchaser thereof to purchase all or any of the equipment or decorations therein and pay, in addition to the purchase price for such Unit, such amounts as Sponsor may determine. In no event shall the presence of any furniture, furnishings, equipment or decorations in any model apartment imply or represent that any Unit will contain such furniture, furnishings, equipment or decorations upon delivery of the Unit to the Purchaser of the Unit unless such Purchaser agrees to pay Sponsor an amount as determined by Sponsor in addition to the purchase price for such Unit.

CONTROL BY SPONSOR

Sponsor has the right to appoint a majority of the members of the Board, and therefore control the Condominium for a period ending on the earlier to occur of (a) the sale or transfer of two (2) Units in the Building or (b) five years from the date of the First Closing (the "Sponsor Control Period"). Sponsor may voluntarily relinquish such right to control the Board prior to the expiration of the Sponsor Control Period. During the Sponsor Control Period of the Condominium Board, Sponsor would be able to control maintenance, facilities and services to be provided to Unit Owners and would determine the Common Charges to be paid by all Unit Owners and the enforcement of Sponsor's obligations by the Board. The Board, whether or not controlled by the Sponsor assumes a fiduciary duty to act in the best interests of the Condominium and its Unit Owners.

After the end of the Sponsor Control Period, a majority of the Condominium Board must be Unit Owners who are unrelated to Sponsor and its principals; however, Sponsor, after the end of the Sponsor Control Period, may vote its interests for Unit Owners of its choice who are not affiliated with Sponsor. Within thirty (30) days after the end of the Sponsor Control Period, the Sponsor will call a special meeting of the Unit Owners at which time the Unit Owners will elect members to the Condominium Board to replace the positions the Sponsor is relinquishing. After the Sponsor Control Period, a board member, whether or not a principal of Sponsor, shall not have any personal liability based upon the actions and decisions of the Condominium Board made in the due course of business at such time as such person is serving on the Board.

Prior to the First Annual Meeting, the Condominium Board shall initially consist of three (3) members.

Whether or not Sponsor continues to control the Board, the Condominium Board will call for a special meeting of the Unit Owners to elect a new Condominium Board (the "First Annual Meeting") on the earlier of: (a) the second anniversary of the First Closing and (b) thirty (30) days following the transfer of two (2) of the Units.

During the Sponsor Control Period, Sponsor will elect a majority of the Condominium Board members. At the First Annual Meeting and at all times thereafter, Sponsor may be able to elect members of the Condominium Board as a result of its ownership of or interest in Unsold Units. Sponsor shall retain voting control of the Condominium Board if Sponsor and its designees are able to cast sufficient votes at such meetings to establish such control.

In addition, for so long as the Sponsor owns at least one (1) Unit, Sponsor shall have the right to designate at least one (1) member of the Condominium Board.

Until Sponsor or its designee has conveyed title to two (2) units but not later than five years from the date of the First Closing, the Condominium Board may not take any of the following actions without Sponsor's prior written consent (notwithstanding the number of votes Sponsor controls): (a) make any addition, alteration or improvement to the Common Elements or to any Unit, (b) assess any Common Charges for the creation of, addition to or replacement of all or part of a reserve, contingency or surplus fund, (c) increase or decrease the number, or change the kind of, employees referred to in the Plan, (d) enter into any service or maintenance contract for work not covered by contracts in existence on the date of the First Closing or otherwise provide services in excess of those referred to in the Plan, except as is required to reflect normal annual increases in operating services, (e) borrow money on behalf of the Condominium or on behalf of the Condominium, or (f) exercise a right of first refusal to lease or purchase a Unit; provided however, Sponsor's written consent is not necessary to perform any function or take any action described in items (a) through (f) above, if and only if, the performance of such function or the carrying out of such an action is necessary, and no other alternative is available, to enable the Condominium Board to (i) comply with laws, rules or regulations of any governmental authority having jurisdiction over the Condominium, (ii) remedy any notice of violation; or (iii) remedy any work order by an insurer of the Condominium. Sponsor may not exercise veto power over any expenses described in Schedule B of the Plan or expenses required for items (i) through (iii) above.

CONDOMINIUM BOARD

The affairs of the Condominium shall be governed by the Condominium Board, which shall initially be comprised of three (3) persons designated by Sponsor. On or before the date which is the earlier of: (a) the second anniversary of the First Closing and (b) thirty (30) days following the transfer of two of the Units in the Building, the Condominium Board will call for the First Annual Meeting of Unit Owners. At the First Annual Meeting, the incumbent Condominium Board shall resign and the Unit Owners shall elect a new Condominium Board consisting of three (3) members. (See the Section entitled "Control by Sponsor.") Thereafter, at each annual meeting, members of the Condominium Board shall be elected and shall serve until the next annual meeting thereof and until a successor has been elected and qualified.

After the end of the Sponsor Control Period, a majority of the Condominium Board may or may not be owner-occupants or members of an owner-occupant's household who are unrelated to Sponsor and its principals; however, Sponsor, after the end of the Sponsor Control Period, may vote its interests for Unit Owners of its choice who are not affiliated with Sponsor. Except for Board members designated by Sponsor or its designee, all members of the Condominium Board must be either Unit Owners or certain interested parties (e.g. directors or shareholders of Unit Owners) as described in the By-Laws. No member of the Condominium Board shall continue to serve on the Condominium Board if, during his term of office, said member shall cease to be a Unit Owner or an interested party. All Board members shall serve without compensation.

The Board shall have the powers and duties necessary for or incidental to the administration of the affairs of the Condominium. Generally, all other determinations with respect to the administration of the affairs of the Condominium including those which (i) relate to the Condominium or (ii) relate to or affect the Common Elements, shall be made by the Condominium Board. For so long as Sponsor is entitled to designate members to the Board, any committee appointed by the Board shall have as at least one (1) of its members, a member of the Board appointed by Sponsor.

As more fully set forth in the By-Laws, all determinations required to be made by the Condominium Board shall be by majority of the votes cast at any meeting at which a quorum is present.

Annual meetings of Unit Owners shall be held within approximately thirty (30) days of each anniversary of the First Annual Meeting. At such meetings, a new Board shall be elected and/or designated consisting of three (3) persons, subject to any rights of Sponsor to designate Board members, and there shall also be transacted such other business as may properly come before such meetings. In addition, special meetings may be held from time to time pursuant to the By -Laws. The Secretary of the Condominium Board shall mail a notice of each annual or special meeting of the Condominium to all Unit Owners of record. The notice, which will generally be given at least ten (10) days prior to any such meeting, shall state the purpose of the meeting as well as the time and place where it is to be held. Except as otherwise provided in the By-Laws or Declaration, at all meetings of Unit Owners, the presence in person or by proxy of Unit Owners owning more than fifty (50%) percent of the Common Interests attributable to all Units shall constitute a quorum and a majority of the votes cast at any such meeting at which a quorum is present shall be binding upon all Unit Owners.

At all meetings, each Unit Owner (or his proxy) entitled to vote thereat (including Sponsor or its designees with respect to Unsold Units) shall be entitled to cast one vote based upon the percentage of Common Interests that he or she owns.

The principal officers of the Condominium Board shall be a President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, all of whom shall be elected by the Condominium Board. The initial members of the Condominium Board shall be Barbara Dahl (principal of Sponsor), Alexander Williams (Sponsor's Architect) and Marc Paley, Esq. (Sponsor's attorney) who shall serve as President, Vice President, and Secretary/Treasurer of the Condominium Board respectively. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the foregoing individuals shall have no personal liability whatsoever for any action taken by them as members of the Condominium. The Condominium Board may appoint additional officers. Except as otherwise provided by the Board, no officer shall receive any compensation for acting as such. The By-Laws provide that all instruments of the Condominium Board are to be executed by any officer thereof or by such other person or persons as may be designated by the Board. However, any significant expenditure by the Condominium Board must be countersigned by two members of the Condominium Board.

The Bylaws provide that to the extent permitted by applicable law, no member of the Condominium Board shall have any personal liability with respect to any contract, act or omission of the Condominium Board or of any managing agent or manager in connection with the affairs or operation of the Condominium or any Limited Common Element (except in their capacities as Unit Owners). Board members, including a board member designated or appointed by the Sponsor, whether or not a principal of Sponsor, shall have no liability to Unit Owners except that a Board member shall be liable for his own bad faith or willful misconduct. All Unit Owners shall severally, to the extent of their respective interests in their Units and their appurtenant Common Interests, indemnify each Condominium Board member against any liability or claim except those arising out of such member's own bad faith or willful misconduct.

The term of office of the members of the Condominium Board shall be for one year or until their successors are elected. Members of the Condominium Board shall serve without compensation. Any member of the Condominium Board may resign at any time by written notice hand delivered or sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the President or Secretary of the Condominium Board. Notwithstanding the term of such member's office, such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein.

A member of the Condominium Board designated or elected by the Unit Owners may be removed with or without cause by an affirmative vote of a majority of Unit Owners (as defined in the By-Laws) who are present at a meeting containing a quorum of Unit Owners; provided, however, that Condominium Board members designated by Sponsor may only be removed with cause and replaced by another Sponsor designee. No member of the Condominium Board shall continue to serve on the Condominium Board if, during his term of office, said member shall cease to be a Unit Owner or an interested party as described in Section 2.1 of the By-Laws; provided, however, that this provision respecting Unit ownership and Condominium Board membership shall not apply to members of the Condominium Board designated by Sponsor or its designee.

Upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Condominium Board, any officer may be removed with or without cause. A successor officer may be elected at any regular Board meeting or at any special Board meeting called for such purpose.

At the option of the Board, all officers, Board members and employees of the Condominium will be bonded at all times from and after the First Closing under Directors and Officers liability bonds in favor of the Condominium. The amount and cost of the bonds has been provided for in the projected budget for the first year of Condominium operation contained in Schedule B.

Generally, subject to certain exceptions concerning, among other things, Sponsor or the provision regarding the leasing of the Units, and provided that required consents of the Mortgage Representatives, if any, are obtained, any provision of the Declaration, By-Laws or Rules and Regulations may be amended, modified, added to or deleted by affirmative vote of at least 66 2/3% in number and in Common Interest of all Unit Owners; provided, however, that the Common Interest appurtenant to each Unit may not be altered without the written consent of all Unit Owners directly affected thereby.

Notwithstanding any provision contained in the By-Laws to the contrary, no amendment, modification, addition or deletion of or to the By-Laws, the Declaration or the Rules and Regulations shall be effective in any way (a) without the prior written consent of Sponsor or its designee or the owner of any Unsold Unit with respect to any amendment, modification, addition or deletion of or to the By-Laws, the Declaration or the Rules and Regulations modifying the permitted uses of the Building or any portion thereof or affecting the rights, privileges, easements, licenses or exemptions granted to Sponsor or its designee or the owner of any Unsold Unit, or otherwise adversely affecting Sponsor or its designee or the owner of any Unsold Unit or (b) without the prior written consent of the holder of any present or future mortgage, pledge, or other lien or security interest covering any Unsold Unit with respect to any amendment, modification, addition or deletion of or to the By-Laws, the Declaration, or the Rules and Regulations modifying the permitted uses of such Unsold Unit or affecting the rights, privileges, easements, licenses or exemptions granted to the owner of such Unsold Unit.

Any provisions that provide Sponsor control of the enforcement of Sponsor's obligations are not enforceable. Further, in the event that there are non-Sponsor members of the Board, and there is a vote on whether to sue Sponsor in connection with Sponsor's obligations or otherwise, the current state of the law is that Sponsor representatives to the Board may not lawfully vote on the issue.

RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF UNIT OWNERS AND THE BOARD OF MANAGERS

Sales and Leases of Units

Each Unit Owner may sell or lease his or her Unit provided such Unit Owner (the "Transferor") first gives the Condominium Board, on behalf of all Unit Owners, notice of his or her intention to sell or lease such Unit and an opportunity to purchase or lease such Unit at the same price or rental and on the same terms as were offered in good faith by a prospective purchaser or lessee, as more specifically provided in Article 8 of the By-Laws. If the Condominium Board does not elect to purchase or lease the Unit within twenty (20) days after receipt of the offering Unit Owner's notice, the Transferor will have an additional sixty (60) days to enter into a written agreement with the prospective purchaser or lessee, as the case may be, embodying the terms set forth in said notice. In the event such written agreement is not executed by the Transferor within said sixty (60) day period or such sale or lease is not consummated within an additional sixty (60) days following the expiration of said sixty (60) day period, the Transferor will be required to again first offer the same to the Condominium Board, provided that the Condominium Board shall be entitled to waive, or to permit an extension of, either or both of such sixty (60) day periods. The Condominium Board may not exercise its option to purchase or lease any Unit without prior approval of a majority in interest of Unit Owners present in person or by proxy and voting at a meeting at which a quorum is present. The Board may use funds in any of the Condominium's reserves towards the purchase and maintenance of the Unit or may impose a special assessment on all Unit Owners to cover such costs. In any vote of all the Unit Owners, the Transferor shall have the right to vote in any vote conducted by the Condominium Board for the purpose of determining whether the Condominium Board shall exercise its right of first refusal to purchase or lease the Transferor's Unit. Any such deed given by a Transferor shall provide that the acceptance thereof by the grantee shall constitute an assumption of the provisions of the Declaration, the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations, as the same may be amended from time to time. The Condominium Board shall have the right to utilize the powers and duties outlined in Article 2 of the By-laws with respect to raising the necessary funds for the acquisition and maintenance of a Unit(s) by the Board of Managers on behalf of the Unit Owners. Any Unit owned or leased by the Board of Managers shall be used and occupied in accordance with the Condominium Declaration and By-laws. All proceeds from the sale or lease of such Unit shall be deposited in the name of the Board of Managers (or in the name of the managing agent, if any, appointed by the Board of Managers) in such depositories as may from time to time be designated by such Board and held on behalf of the Condominium.

The Board of Managers may not discriminate against any person on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, sex age, disability, marital status or other grounds prohibited by law.

All leases shall be consistent with the By-Laws and subject to state and law. All leases shall provide that it may not be materially modified, amended, or extended without the prior consent in writing of the Condominium Board, that the tenant shall not assign the lease or sublet the demised premises or any part thereof without the prior consent in writing of the Condominium Board, and that the Condominium Board, if permitted by applicable law, shall have the power to terminate such lease and/or to bring summary proceedings to evict the tenant in the name of the landlord thereunder, in the event of default by the tenant in the performance of such lease. The form of any such lease shall be a printed, reasonably applicable form of residential lease which is generally accepted in New York City such as an appropriate Real Estate Board of New York, Inc. or Blumberg form, except for such changes therein as provided in the By-Laws.

Any purported sale or lease of a Unit in violation of this section shall be voidable at the election of the Condominium Board.

A Unit Owner may lease, sell or convey the Unit to a spouse, adult child or grandchild, parent, grandparent or adult sibling, may convey his Unit by gift, may devise his Unit by will, or have it pass by intestacy, without complying with the foregoing restrictions; provided, however, that each succeeding Unit Owner shall be bound by, and his Unit shall be subject to, the preceding restrictions. In addition, any Unit Owner may lease, sell or convey the Unit to a related or controlled individual or entity, as more particularly set forth in the By-Laws.

The restrictions upon the sale and lease of Units shall not apply to Sponsor or its designee or any Holder of Unsold Units with respect to any Unsold Units or to Units acquired by a mortgagee in foreclosure or by deed in lieu of foreclosure, and they shall be free to sell or lease without first offering to sell or lease for any period whatsoever to the Condominium Board.

A Unit Owner may only sell or lease such Unit Owner's entire Unit. In addition, each conveyance of a Unit by a Unit Owner shall include, as part of the property to be conveyed, such Unit Owner's undivided interest in (a) the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements, (b) any Unit or Units acquired by the Condominium Board on behalf of all Unit Owners, or any proceeds of the sale or lease thereof and (c) any other assets of the Condominium. No part of the Unit Owner's interest in the Common Elements may be sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of, except as part of a sale, transfer or other disposition of the Unit or as part of a sale, transfer or other disposition of the specific interest in the Common Elements by all affected Unit Owners.

A Unit may not be conveyed unless all unpaid Common Charges and liens against such Unit (other than Permitted Mortgages) are paid and/or satisfied at or prior to closing. In addition, the Condominium Board may establish reasonable fees for the processing of sale and lease notices, which shall be payable by the selling or leasing Unit Owner, as the case may be, to the Condominium Board or Managing Agent.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, prior to the closing of title to a Unit, the Purchase Agreement prohibits a Purchaser from listing such Unit for resale or rental with any broker or from advertising or otherwise offering, promoting or publicizing the availability of the Unit for sale or lease, without Sponsor's prior written consent. Any such conveyances in violation of the foregoing will be voidable by Sponsor. Purchasers are referred to the Purchase Agreement set forth in Part II of the Plan.

Use of Units

Units may be used as a residence or for any lawful purpose, provided such use is permitted by law, does not violate the then existing Certificate of Occupancy or the Deed Restrictions covering such Unit and complies with all applicable governmental regulations.

Each Unit Owner shall notify the Condominium Board in writing when a child or children under the age of ten (10) years lives or resides (even temporarily) in the Unit. Each Unit Owner shall, at such Unit Owner's expense, install the required window guards in all windows of the Unit. The Unit Owner shall maintain all window guards installed in the Unit and shall not remove same until permitted by applicable law and in any event, without full knowledge of the Condominium Board. Neither Sponsor, Selling Agent nor any of their principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates shall be responsible for supplying Unit Owners with window guards for the windows of the Unit nor shall any of the foregoing assume liability in any manner whatsoever if a Unit Owner fails to install window guards. Each Purchaser hereby agrees that upon acceptance of its deed to the Unit, he or she shall be deemed to expressly ratify this provision.

Sponsor or its designee may, without the permission of the Condominium Board (a) use or grant permission for the use of any Unsold Unit as a professional office or for any other purpose, provided such use is permitted by law, does not violate the then existing Certificate of Occupancy covering such Unit and the user of such Unit complies with all applicable governmental regulations and (b) retain ownership of one or more Units for use as models and sales, rental and/or promotion offices in connection with the sale or rental of other Units in the Condominium.

The current zoning law permits a person who resides in a Unit to use up to 25% of the floor area of his Unit (but in no event to exceed 500 square feet) for certain home occupations including a fine arts studio, professional offices (e.g., lawyer, doctor or dentist) and teaching of not more than four persons. No transient tenant may be accommodated in a Unit, except in Unsold Units, as permitted by law.

No nuisance, immoral, improper, offensive or unlawful use shall be allowed in the Condominium or any portion thereof. All valid laws, zoning ordinances and regulations of governmental bodies having jurisdiction thereof relating to any portion of the Property shall be complied with at the sole expense of the respective Unit Owners or the Board, whoever or whichever shall have the obligation to maintain or repair such portion of the Property.

No "For Sale", "For Rent", "For Lease" sign, or any other sign evidencing a similar purpose, or other window display or advertising shall be maintained or permitted in any Unit, except that these sign restrictions shall not apply with respect to Unsold Units.

Such provision shall not apply to such installations or modifications performed by Sponsor or Sponsor's designees. No radio or television aerial, satellites or other similar device shall be erected by Unit Owners on the roof or exterior walls, windows or terraces of the Building or on the Property, without obtaining in each instance the written consent of the Condominium Board.

No more than two (2) pets, which do not exceed 75 pounds per pet, may be kept in a Unit without the consent of the Condominium Board. Each Unit Owner who keeps any type of pet in his or her Unit will be required to: (a) indemnify and hold harmless the Condominium, all Unit Owners from all claims and expenses resulting from acts of such pet; and (b) abide by any and all reasonable Rules and Regulations of the Condominium Board adopted with respect thereto; and, (c) clean up after their pet.

Each Unit Owner shall keep his or her Unit in a good state of preservation and cleanliness and each Unit Owner shall be obligated to maintain and keep in good order and repair his or her own Unit in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws and the rules and regulations of municipal departments or agencies having jurisdiction thereof. The Rules and Regulations concerning the use of Units may be amended from time to time by the Condominium Board provided that copies thereof are furnished to each Unit Owner prior to the time that they become effective. Further restrictions on the use and leasing of Units are set forth in the By-Laws and Rules and Regulations.

In accordance with New York City Local Law 147, the Condominium shall be operated as a smoke free building. The inhaling, exhaling, burning or carrying of any lighted cigar, cigarette, pipe, or any form of lighted object or device which contains tobacco or cloves, including all kinds of e-cigarettes and vape pens shall be prohibited in the Condominium Premises, including within all Units, on Rear Yards, and in all common areas of the Building. Outside of the Building, smoking shall only be permitted within designated smoking areas, which may be located 25 feet or more from entries, outdoor air intakes and operable windows. The Board shall have the right to seek and obtain a court order enjoining the occupant of a Unit from smoking within their Unit or appurtenant Rear Yard. In addition to all other remedies available to the Board, violation of this policy by an occupant of a Unit shall subject the Unit Owner to (i) a fine in an amount to be determined from time to time by the Board, and (ii) reimbursement of any fees or expenses incurred by the Board (including legal fees) in enforcing this provision.

Mortgage of Units by Unit Owners

Each Unit Owner may mortgage his or her Unit, provided that the conditions with respect thereto set forth in the By-Laws are first complied with by him or her. As more fully set forth in the By-Laws, these conditions include the requirements that (a) the mortgage be substantially in the form of the New York Board of Title Underwriters form of mortgage, except for such changes or additions as may be required to permit a lender to make the loan, (b) the Condominium Board is notified in writing of the making of such mortgage and receives a conformed copy of the note and mortgage and (c) the owner making such mortgage first satisfies all unpaid liens against his Unit, other than Permitted Mortgages.

As more particularly set forth in the Section entitled "Amendments to Condominium Documents", in certain instances the consent of the Mortgage Representative is necessary in order to amend the Declaration, By-Laws or Rules and Regulations. The By-Laws provide that no more than three Mortgage Representatives shall be designated by the holders of mortgages (a) which satisfy the conditions set forth in the By-Laws (as described above) and (b) which holders of such mortgages are (i) Sponsor or its designee, (ii) a bank, trust company, insurance company, real estate investment or mortgage trust or (iii) a governmental or union employee, welfare, pension or retirement fund or system.

Common Charges: Determination and Assessment

Common Expenses, which are payable only by Unit Owners and are included in their Common Charges, are allocated among Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests. In addition, the Common Charges include the Unit Owner's allocable portion of the Common Expenses. The respective Common Interests of each Unit, as estimated by Sponsor, are based upon floor space, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Unit, the availability of Common Elements for exclusive or shared use and the overall dimensions of the particular Unit. Common Expenses include, among other things, all costs and expenses (including the payment of wages) in connection with the repair, maintenance, replacement, restoration and operation of, and any alteration, addition or improvement to, the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements. Common Expenses may include amounts for certain other items as the Condominium Board may deem proper, such as amounts for reserves or in connection with the purchase or lease by the Condominium Board of any Unit.

Common Expenses which include, among other things, the costs and expenses (including the payment of wages) in connection with the repair, maintenance, replacement, restoration and operation of, and any alteration, addition or improvement to, the Common Elements and certain other expenses common to all Unit Owners, such as premiums for insurance covering the Building, managing agent fees and legal and accounting fees will be determined by the Condominium Board.

At least annually (a) the Condominium Board will prepare a budget for Common Expenses and allocate, as aforesaid, and assess Common Charges to the Unit Owners. The Condominium Board will furnish copies of each budget on which Common Charges are based to all Unit Owners and advise such Unit Owners of the amount of Common Charges payable by them. Unless otherwise determined by the Board to which they are payable, Common Charges will be payable monthly in advance on the first day of each month.

Common Charges: Collection and Lien for Non-Payment

Under the provisions of the By-Laws and pursuant to Section 339-z of the Real Property Law, the Condominium Board, on behalf of all Unit Owners, will have a lien on each Unit for unpaid Common Charges together with interest thereon, assessed against such Unit. All such liens, however, to the extent permitted by applicable law, will be subordinate to the lien of any first Permitted Mortgage of record and to liens for real estate taxes on the particular Unit. Any lien for unpaid Common Charges, against a Unit will be effective from and after filing of a verified notice thereof in the City Register's Office until all sums secured thereby with interest accrued thereon shall have been fully paid, or until six years from the date of filing (unless foreclosure of such lien is started within such six-year period), whichever shall occur sooner. The By-Laws provide that such liens may be foreclosed by a suit brought in the name of the appropriate Board (acting on behalf of all Unit Owners or all Unit Owners, as the case may be) in like manner as the foreclosure of a mortgage on real property or an action may be brought by the Condominium Board to recover unpaid Common Charges without foreclosing such lien.

The Condominium Board may make any lien against a Unit Owner effective pursuant to Real Property Law §339-aa. The Sponsor will cause the Board to file a lien as provided in RPL §339-aa on a Unit owned by Sponsor if the Sponsor is more than thirty (30) days in arrears in paying Common Charges while Sponsor controls the Board.

No Unit Owner may exempt himself or herself from liability for his or her Common Charges by waiving use of any of Common Elements or by abandonment of his or her Unit. No Unit Owner, however, will be liable for the payment of any part of the Common Charges assessed against his or her Unit subsequent to a permissible sale, transfer or other conveyance by him or her of such Unit. In addition, as more specifically set forth in the By-Laws, (a) a Unit Owner may, by conveying his Unit without consideration to the Condominium Board and complying with certain conditions in connection therewith, exempt himself from Common Charges thereafter accruing.

On a resale of a Unit, the seller thereof will be liable for the payment of Common Charges accrued and unpaid against such Unit prior to his or her acquisition. Prior to the permissible sale, transfer or other conveyance of a Unit, any seller or purchaser of a Unit shall be entitled to a statement (an "Estoppel Letter") from the Condominium Board, setting forth the amount of the unpaid Common Charges accrued against the Unit and neither such seller nor purchaser shall be liable for, nor shall the Unit be conveyed subject to a lien for, any unpaid Common Charges against such Unit accrued prior to such conveyance in excess of the amount set forth in such statement. In the event of a foreclosure by the Board of its lien on any Unit for unpaid Common Charges, if the net proceeds of the foreclosure sale shall be insufficient for the payment of such unpaid charges or if a Unit is acquired by a mortgagee or purchaser in foreclosure, the Unit Owner will remain liable for the unpaid balance. Neither (a) a Permitted Mortgagee (as defined in the Condominium Declaration) acquiring title to a Unit at foreclosure sale nor (b) a purchaser at a foreclosure sale shall be liable, and the Unit shall not be subject to a lien, for the payment of the Common Charges assessed prior to the acquisition of title to such Unit by such Permitted Mortgagee or purchaser. However, such Permitted Mortgagee or purchaser at a foreclosure sale shall be liable for payment of all Common Charges after the acquisition of title to such Unit. The Condominium Board will have the right to assess such unpaid balance as a Common Charge among all Unit Owners.

Repairs to and Maintenance of Units and Common Elements

Generally, all painting, decorating, and routine maintenance, repairs and replacements, (a) in or to any Unit (other than to Common Elements or Limited Common Elements included therein), including the individual heating and cooling systems and the interior side of entrance doors thereto, will be made by the owner of such Unit at such Unit Owner's sole cost and expense, (b) in or to the Common Elements will be made by the Condominium Board and the cost and expense thereof will be charged to the Condominium Board as a Common Expense, (c) in or to the Limited Common Elements be made by the Condominium Board and the cost and expense thereof will be charged to all Unit Owners as a Common Expense.

Notwithstanding the above, all normal maintenance, repairs and replacements of any Rear Yard shall be made by the Unit Owner having access to same, at his or her own cost and expense, but any structural repairs to such Rear Yard will be made by the Condominium Board and the cost and expense thereof will be charged to all Unit Owners as a Common Expense. The interior and exterior glass surfaces of all windows located in any Unit shall not be colored or painted and are to be washed and cleaned by the Unit Owner at such Unit Owner's sole cost and expense. The exterior glass surfaces of all Condominium windows may, at the option of the Condominium Board, be washed and cleaned by the Condominium Board and the cost thereof shall be a Common Expense; otherwise Unit Owners shall be obligated to clean such windows at their own cost and expense. Any replacement of glass windows in any Unit because of breakage or otherwise shall be made by the Condominium Board at the sole cost and expense of the owner of such Unit (unless such breakage is caused by the Condominium Board or the negligence of any other Unit Owner, in which event such replacement of glass windows will be at the sole cost and expense of the Condominium Board or such Unit Owner). The portion of all curtains, drapes, blinds or other window treatments visible from the exterior of the Building must be white in order to give the Building a uniform exterior appearance.

The By-Laws provide that each Unit and all portions of the Common Elements shall be kept in first-class condition (and with respect to any roof or other part of the Property exposed to the elements, free of snow, ice and accumulation of water) by the Unit Owner or appropriate Board, whichever is responsible for the maintenance thereof. In the event any Unit Owner fails to keep his Unit in such condition, the Board may, at the expense of such Unit Owner, enter such Unit and perform such acts as are necessary to cure such default. (See the Section entitled "Rights of Access.")

The By-Laws further require that those public or other areas of the Building exposed to public view that are required to be maintained by each Unit Owner or each Board, be kept in good appearance in conformity with the dignity and character of the Building by such Unit Owner or the Board.

In addition, the Rules and Regulations require that at least eighty (80%) percent of the floor area of Units (except for kitchens, bathrooms, closets and foyers) be covered with rugs, carpeting or equally effective noise-reducing material.

Alterations and Improvements of Units and Common Elements

No Unit Owner may make any structural alteration, addition, improvement or repair in or to his or her Unit without the prior written approval of the Condominium Board and until Sponsor has obtained a permanent certificate of occupancy for the Building, but, as more fully set forth in the By-Laws, this provision does not apply to an Unsold Unit. Except as otherwise permitted in the By-Laws, no Unit Owner may make any alteration, addition, improvement or repair in or to the Common Elements without the prior written approval of the Board. The Condominium Board may impose fees upon such Unit Owner to reimburse the Condominium for costs incurred in connection with the review or supervision of such Unit Owner's work.

Prior to, and as a condition of, the granting of its consent to the making of a structural alteration, addition, improvement or repair in or to a Unit, the Condominium Board shall have the right to reasonably approve the Unit Owner's contractors and suppliers and may, at its option, require the Unit Owner to execute an agreement in form and substance satisfactory to the Board setting forth the terms and conditions under which such alteration, addition, improvement or repair may be made, including, without limitation, the days and hours during which any work may be done.

A Unit Owner shall, at the Unit Owner's own cost and expense, obtain and keep in full force and effect (a) comprehensive personal liability insurance against any and all claims for personal injury, death or property damage (including, but not limited to, loss due to water damage) occurring in, upon, or from the Unit or any part thereof, with minimum coverage as established by the Condominium Board from time to time and (b) tenant's "all-risk" property insurance in respect of property damage occurring in, upon, or from the unit or any part thereof (including, but not limited to appropriate coverage for additions, alterations improvements and betterments and loss due to water damage). The limits of liability set forth in (a) and (b) above may be increased by the Condominium Board from time to time. The insurance required above shall be written in form reasonably satisfactory to the Condominium Board by good and solvent insurance companies of recognized standing, admitted to do business in the State of New York. Upon ten (10) days' written notice from the Condominium Board, the Unit Owner shall deliver to the Condominium Board a duplicate original of the aforesaid policies, certificates evidencing such insurance or such other confirmation satisfactory to the Condominium Board. The Condominium Board shall not be responsible for ensuring that Unit Owners as insured and shall have no liability for the failure of a Unit Owner to have insurance. To the extent either party is insured for loss or damage to property, each party will look to their own insurance policies for recovery.

Any contractor performing work shall not employ any personnel or means that may cause labor disturbances or stoppage in the work of Building employees or other contractors or subcontractors employed in the Building.

No application or other document shall be filed with any governmental authority for a permit covering any addition, alteration or improvement to be made in a Unit, unless approved and executed, if necessary, by the Condominium Board. The Condominium Board will not unreasonably refuse to approve and execute, if necessary, any application or other document required to be filed in connection with approved structural alterations, additions, improvements or repairs, provided that the Condominium Board and the Unit Owners shall not be subject to any expense or liability by reason of such approval and execution or, by reason of such addition, alteration or improvement, including, without limitation, liability to any contractor, subcontractor, materialman, architect or engineer, or to any person having any claim for injury to person or damage to property arising therefrom. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to an Unsold Unit, provided any alteration to such Unit shall be in accordance with, and only as permitted by, the Condominium Act and all governmental regulations. Under the terms of the By-Laws, Sponsor is authorized on behalf of the Board to execute such applications, permits or other documents as may be required to undertake, perform and complete such work to the Unsold Units and Common Elements as Sponsor is entitled to perform in accordance with the terms of the Declaration and the By-Laws and to obtain such certificates of completion as may then be required by Law (collectively the "Required Documentation") and, the Board, if requested by Sponsor is obligated to execute the Required Documentation. In addition, the power of attorney to be executed by each Unit Owner upon acquisition of the Unit further grants to Sponsor a power of attorney to execute the Required Documentation.

In the event that any alterations, additions, improvements or repairs made by any Unit Owner materially delay, prevent or adversely affect, or create a significant risk of materially delaying, preventing or adversely affecting, whether directly or indirectly, the issuance of a temporary or permanent certificate of occupancy for such Unit, other Units or the Building, then upon the written request of Sponsor or the Condominium Board, the Unit Owner shall restore the Unit, at such Unit Owner's sole cost and expense, to its original condition. If such Unit Owner fails to commence diligently and continuously restoring the Unit within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the written request, then the party requesting such restoration shall be entitled to enter and restore the Unit at the expense of the Unit Owner and to exercise any remedies provided in the By-Laws.

Generally, all alterations or improvements in or to the Common Elements will be made by the Condominium Board and the cost and expense thereof will be charged as a Common Expense. Repairs, maintenance replacements, restorations, improvements, alterations and additions in or to the Common Elements will be made by the Condominium Board and the cost and expense thereof will be charged to all Unit Owners as a Common Expense.

Rights of Access

As more fully set forth in the By-Laws, the Board and any managing agents, managers, superintendents and other persons authorized by the Board, will have a right of access to any Unit for the purposes of performing installations, alterations or repairs to the mechanical or electrical services or other Common Elements in the Unit or elsewhere in the Building, to remove violations, cure defaults by a Unit Owner, correct any condition originating in any Unit and threatening another Unit or any Common Element, and for any other purposes provided in the Plan, Declaration or as may be required by law or governmental regulation, provided that requests for entry (except in emergency situations) are made in advance and that any such entry (except in emergency situations) is at a time reasonably convenient to the Unit Owner and the tenants of any Unit. Sponsor will have a right of access to any Unit to further purposes set forth in the Plan. In case of an emergency, such right of entry shall be immediate, whether the Unit Owner is present at the time or not. Provided reasonable care is exercised to safeguard the Unit Owner's property, any entry described herein shall not render the Board or its authorized agents liable for damage incurred in connection with the exercise of such right of entry. Sponsor shall have a right of access to any Unit for the purpose of performing punch-list work or for the purpose of performing or completing construction in the Building.

Compliance with Terms of Declaration, By-Laws and Rules and Regulations

Each Unit Owner must strictly comply with the provisions of the Declaration, the By-Laws, and the Rules and Regulations. Pursuant to Section 339(j) of the Condominium Act, failure to comply is grounds for an action for damages or injunctive relief, or both, but such forms of relief shall not be exclusive of other remedies provided by law. The By-Laws, together with the Rules and Regulations, will be recorded with the Declaration in the City Register's Office.

Examination of Books and Records

Each Unit Owner and each mortgagee of a Unit shall be permitted, upon prior request, to examine the books of account of the Condominium and other records of the Condominium during normal business hours on business days at the office of the Condominium.

Repair or Reconstruction after Fire or Other Casualty

In the event that the Building or any part thereof is damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty, the Condominium Board will, except as set forth below, arrange for the prompt repair and restoration thereof (including each Unit, but excluding fixtures, furniture, furnishings or other personal property not constituting a part of such Unit).

Notwithstanding anything in this paragraph to the contrary, no payment of surplus insurance proceeds shall be made to a Unit Owner until there has first been paid out of his share of such funds such amounts as may be necessary to reduce unpaid liens on his Unit, other than mortgages which are not Permitted Mortgages, in the order of priority of such liens. The provisions of this paragraph are subject to the next paragraph.

If three-fourths or more of the Building is destroyed or substantially damaged and if 75% or more in Common Interest of all Unit Owners do not promptly resolve to proceed with the repair or restoration thereof, the Building will not be repaired and the Property shall be subject to an action for partition instituted by any Unit Owner or lienor, as if owned in common, in which case the net proceeds of sale, together with the net proceeds of insurance policies, shall be divided among all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests, provided, however, that no payment shall be made to a Unit Owner until there has first been paid out of his share of such funds such amounts as may be necessary to discharge all unpaid liens on his Unit (other than mortgages which are not Permitted Mortgages) in the order of the priority of such liens.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the proceeds of all policies of physical damage insurance maintained by the Condominium Board shall be payable to the Board entitled to adjust such loss in the event of a loss amounting to $1,000,000 or less. In the event that such proceeds are in excess of $1,000,000, such proceeds shall be payable to a New York City bank or trust company designated by the Condominium Board as insurance trustee pursuant to the provisions of the By-Laws. The insurance trustee shall hold all such proceeds in accordance with Section 254-(4) of the New York Real Property Law.

Insurance

The Condominium Board is required to obtain and maintain, in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws, to the extent obtainable and to the extent determined by the Condominium Board to be appropriate, the following insurance: (a) comprehensive general liability insurance against claims for personal injury, death or property damage occurring upon, in or about the Property, in such limits as the Board may from time to time determine covering the Board, each Board member, and each officer and employee of the Condominium, and each Unit Owner, except that such policy will not cover liability of a Unit Owner arising from occurrences within his own Unit or within the Limited Common Elements, if any, exclusive to his Unit; (b) fire insurance with all risk extended coverage, vandalism and malicious mischief endorsements, insuring the entire Building (including each Unit, but excluding fixtures, furniture, furnishings or other personal property not constituting a part of such Unit), together with all service machinery contained therein and covering the interests of the Condominium, each of the Boards and all Unit Owners and Permitted Mortgagees, as their respective interests may appear, in an amount equal to the full replacement value of the Building (exclusive of foundation and footings); (c) rent insurance in an amount equal Common Charges for one year; (d) worker's compensation and New York State disability benefits insurance; (e) boiler and machinery insurance; (f) plate glass insurance to the extent, if any, determined by the Condominium Board; (g) water damage insurance to the extent, if any, determined by the Condominium Board; (h) fidelity insurance covering all Boards and all officers, directors and employees of the Condominium, (i) directors and officers liability coverage; and (j) such other insurance as the Condominium Board may determine. Each Unit Owner shall be an additional insured as well as the Sponsor, its principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees, and affiliates.

The fire insurance policies shall contain a New York standard mortgagee clause in favor of each Permitted Mortgagee which shall provide that the loss, if any, thereunder shall be payable to such Permitted Mortgagee as its interest may appear, subject, however, to the loss payment provisions described in the By-Laws.

The amount of fire insurance and all risk extended coverage to be maintained until the first Condominium Board meeting following the First Annual Meeting of the Unit Owners shall be in at least the sum set forth in Schedule B.

All policies of physical damage insurance shall contain, to the extent obtainable, waivers of subrogation and waivers of any defense based on (i) co-insurance, (ii) other insurance, (iii) invalidity arising from any acts of the insured or (iv) pro rata reduction of liability, and shall provide that such policies may not be canceled or substantially modified without at least ten days' prior written notice to all of the insureds, including all Unit Owners and Permitted Mortgagees. Duplicate originals or certificates of insurance of all policies of physical damage insurance and of all renewals thereof, together with proof of payment of premiums, shall be delivered to all Unit Owners and Permitted Mortgagees at least ten days prior to the expiration of the then current policies.

The Condominium Board shall also be required to obtain and maintain, to the extent obtainable, comprehensive general liability insurance against claims for personal injury, death or property damage occurring upon, in or about the Property, in such limits as the Board may from time to time determine, covering (1) the Board, each Board member and each officer and employee of the Condominium, and (2) each Unit Owner, except that such policy will not cover liability of a Unit Owner arising from occurrences within his or her own Unit or within the Limited Common Elements, if any, exclusive to his or her Unit. The Condominium Board shall review such limits not less than once each year. Until the first meeting of the Condominium Board following the First Annual Meeting of Unit Owners, such liability insurance shall be in at least the sum set forth in Schedule B with respect to bodily injury and property damage, combined single limit. The insurance discussed above shall also include cross-liability claims of one insured against another.

Any insurance maintained by the Condominium Board may provide for such deductible amounts as such Board determines. The premiums for all insurance referred to above shall be a Common Expense and shall be borne by the Condominium Board, with due consideration to their respective risks, liabilities and replacement values, as are equitable (as determined by the respective insurance carriers thereof or their agents, brokers or such other parties designated by the Condominium Board). If any such insurance carrier, agent, broker or other party fails to make such determination and the Condominium Board fails to agree on a determination or disagrees with any such determination made by such insurance carrier, agent, broker or other party, the matter shall be determined by arbitration pursuant to the By-Laws.

The Condominium Board is not required to obtain or maintain any insurance with respect to any personal property contained in a Unit. A Unit Owner shall, at the Unit Owner's own cost and expense, obtain and keep in full force and effect (a) comprehensive personal liability insurance against any and all claims for personal injury, death or property damage (including, but not limited to, loss due to water damage) occurring in, upon, or from the Unit or any part thereof, with minimum coverage as established by the Condominium Board from time to time and (b) tenant's "all-risk" property insurance in respect of property damage occurring in, upon, or from the Unit or any part thereof (including, but not limited to appropriate coverage for additions, alterations improvements and betterments and loss due to water damage). The limits of liability set forth in (a) and (b) above may be increased by the Condominium Board from time to time. The insurance required above shall be written in form reasonably satisfactory to the Condominium Board by good and solvent insurance companies of recognized standing, admitted to do business in the State of New York. Upon ten (10) days' written notice from the Condominium Board, the Unit Owner shall deliver to the Condominium Board a duplicate original of the aforesaid policies, certificates evidencing such insurance or such other confirmation satisfactory to the Condominium Board. The Condominium Board shall not be responsible for ensuring that Unit Owners as insured and shall have no liability for the failure of a Unit Owner to have insurance. To the extent either party is insured for loss or damage to property, each party will look to their own insurance policies for recovery.

Liability of Boards of Managers and Unit Owners

Every contract made by the Condominium Board or by any managing agent or manager thereof shall state that (a) it is made only as agent for all Unit Owners or Unit Owners, respectively, and the Board members or managing agent or manager shall have no personal liability thereon (except in their capacities as Unit Owners) and (b) the liability of any Unit Owner with respect to such contract shall be limited to (i) such proportionate share of the total liability as the Common Interest of such Unit Owner bears to the aggregate Common Interests of all Unit Owners or Unit Owners, as the case may be, and (ii) to the extent permitted by law, unless otherwise determined by the Board in its sole and absolute discretion, such Unit Owner's interest in his Unit and its appurtenant Common Interest. To the extent permitted by applicable law, Board members shall have no liability to Unit Owners except that a Board member shall be liable for his own bad faith or willful misconduct. All Unit Owners shall severally, to the extent of their respective interests in their Units and their appurtenant Common Interests, indemnify each Condominium Board member against any liability or claim except those arising out of such member's own bad faith or willful misconduct. The Board may contract or effect any transaction with any Board member, any Unit Owner, Sponsor or its designee, or any affiliate of any of them without incurring any liability for self-dealing except in cases of bad faith or willful misconduct.

Reports to Unit Owners

An annual report of the receipts and expenditures of the Condominium, certified by an independent certified public accountant, shall be submitted by the Board to all Unit Owners within four months after the end of each fiscal year.

Termination of Condominium

The Condominium shall continue and the Property shall not be subject to an action for partition until (a) terminated by casualty loss, condemnation or eminent domain as provided in the By-Laws or (b) until such time, if any, as the Property shall be withdrawn from the provisions of the New York Condominium Act as a result of the vote to do so of at least eighty percent (80%) in both number and aggregate Common Interests of all Unit Owners. No such vote under clause (b) in the preceding sentence shall be effective without the written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) of the Mortgagee Representative, if any. Sponsor will not vote its interests appurtenant to Unsold Units in favor of such withdrawal unless at least eighty percent (80%) in number and aggregate Common Interests of all other Unit Owners, as a group, elect to withdraw, at which time Sponsor may choose to vote its Common Interests either in favor of or against withdrawal from condominium ownership, as it sees fit.

Procedure to Review Real Estate Tax Assessments

The Condominium Board, on behalf of and as agent for all Unit Owners, will be authorized to commence, pursue and settle certiorari proceedings to obtain reduced real estate tax assessments with respect to Units. All Unit Owners will share the costs in connection therewith and the benefits derived therefrom based on their respective Common Interests. In the event any Unit Owner individually seeks to have the assessed valuation of his Unit reduced by bringing a separate certiorari proceeding, the Condominium Board, if necessary for such proceeding, will execute any documents or other papers required for, and otherwise cooperate with such Unit Owner in pursuing, such reduction, provided that such Unit Owner indemnifies the Condominium Board from all claims, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees) resulting from such proceedings. The Sponsor, its principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees, and affiliates have no affirmative obligation to commence, pursue or settle certiorari proceedings to obtain reduced real estate tax assessments with respect to the Units. At this time, there are no tax certiorari proceedings pending.

Mechanics' Liens

Under the provisions of the Condominium Act, no lien of any nature may arise or be created against the Common Elements except with the unanimous consent of all Unit Owners affected thereby. Liens may arise or be created against only the several Units and their respective Common Interests. Labor performed on, or materials supplied to, a Unit may not be the basis for a mechanic's lien against the Unit of a Unit Owner not expressly consenting to or requesting such work, except in the case of emergency repairs. No labor performed on, or materials furnished to, the Common Elements shall be the basis for a lien thereon but (a) all Common Charges received by the Condominium Board shall constitute trust funds for the purpose of paying the cost of labor performed or materials furnished at the request or with the consent of the Condominium Board and (b) all Common Charges received by the Condominium Board shall constitute trust funds for the purposes of paying the cost of labor performed or materials furnished at the request or with the consent of the Condominium Board.

Easements and Name of Condominium

In order to facilitate the operation and maintenance of the Building and the sale or leasing of Units therein, each of the Units will be subject to certain easements including easements in favor of Sponsor, other Unit Owners and the Boards and the adjacent property owners. These easements, which are more particularly set forth in the Declaration, include an easement of support and necessity in favor of all other Units and the Common Elements, and an easement in favor of each Unit Owner to use, operate, maintain, repair, alter, rebuild, restore and replace the Limited Common Elements provided that such easements shall be exercised in such a manner as will not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Units for their permitted purposes. Sponsor shall have an easement to erect, maintain, repair and replace utility and other lines through the Unit. In addition, Sponsor and its designees shall have an easement to erect, maintain, repair and replace any sign permitted by law on the Property for the purposes of advertising the sale of any Unit, the leasing of space in any Unit and the operation of any business of a tenant or occupant of any Unit.

The Declaration and By-Laws

A copy of the Declaration and a copy of the By-Laws are set forth in Part II of the Plan. A prospective purchaser should read the Plan in its entirety including the Declaration and By-Laws.

REAL ESTATE TAXES

Each Unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes, and no Unit Owner will be responsible for payment of, nor will the Unit be subjected to, any lien arising from the non-payment of real estate taxes on other Units. Generally, Units may not be separately assessed until the tax year following the tax year in which the Declaration of Condominium is recorded. Until the Units are separately assessed and billed, each Unit Owner shall pay his pro rata share (in the proportion that his Unit's Common Interest bears to the aggregate Common Interest of all Units) of all real estate taxes with respect to the Property to the Condominium Board as Common Charges.

Purchasers are advised, however, that due to the City's schedule in assessing real property generally, it is possible that separate assessments of Units may not be made for six to twelve months after separate tax lots legally are established. That is, separate tax lots may be established (thereby enabling Sponsor to convey Units to Purchasers), but separate assessments may follow some months later. Thus, for a period of time following establishment of separate tax lots, one tax bill may still be rendered for the entire Property. Details of how the tax bill will be paid under these circumstances and Purchasers' responsibilities for contributing their proportionate share of same, are included in Part I of this Plan entitled "Closing Costs and Adjustments."

After the Condominium is divided into individual tax lots, each Unit will be taxed as a separate tax lot for real estate tax purposes and the Unit Owner will not be responsible for the payment of, or subject to, any lien arising from the non-payment of, nor will the Unit be subject to, any lien arising from non-payment of taxes on other units. The estimate of aggregate real estate taxes attributable to all Unit Owners for the first year of Condominium operation is $18,101, based on an opinion prepared by Metropolitan Realty Exemptions dated March 18, 2024 which assumes (a) a projected actual assessed valuation attributable to the property of $90,120 for the period January 1, 2025-December 31, 2025 and (b) a projected tax rate of 20.085% per $100 of assessed valuation for the tax period. The Sponsor has included projected real estate taxes based on its post-completion valuation. The taxes during the second year of operation, and subsequent years may be higher than the taxes during the first year of operation. The opinion prepared by Metropolitan Realty Exemptions included in the Plan sets forth the projection for real estate taxes in the first year of operation.

Under the circumstances described, the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") has ruled that the owner of a residential condominium unit may deduct the real estate taxes assessed and paid on his or her interest in the property. Accordingly, an owner of a Unit who itemizes his or her deductions will be entitled under current law to deduct from his or her gross income for Federal income tax purposes, subject to (i) a $10,000 ($5,000 in the case of a married individual filing a separate return) annual limitation for state and local real property taxes (for taxable years beginning after December 31, 2017, and before January 1, 2026), assessed against his or her Unit and paid to the local tax authority. However, no deduction for real estate taxes is permitted for purposes of the Federal alternative minimum tax. Owners of the Units should consult with their tax advisers regarding the applicability of the overall limitation on the deductibility of real estate taxes.

Please refer to the Section of the Plan entitled "Real Estate Taxes" and the opinion of Metropolitan Realty Exemptions as set for in Part I of the Plan for further discussion regarding real estate taxes for the Property.

Neither Sponsor, its principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates nor Selling Agent, its principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees or affiliates shall have any liability to a Purchaser in the event such Purchaser's mortgagee requires the Purchaser to pay real estate taxes in escrow at Closing.

No representation or warranty can be made as to (a) whether there will be (i) a further increase in the actual valuation of the Property during the projected budget year or (ii) an increase in the assessed valuation of the Property by reason of the condominium conversion or otherwise, or (b) the method of determining the assessed valuation (whether on a rent roll, market or other basis) or (c) the amount of any increase in the assessed valuation of the Property.

NEITHER SPONSOR, ITS PRINCIPALS, MANAGERS, MEMBERS, AGENTS, DESIGNEES, EMPLOYEES, OR AFFILIATES NOR SELLING AGENT, ITS PRINCIPALS, MANAGERS, MEMBERS, AGENTS, DESIGNEES, EMPLOYEES, OR AFFILIATES MAKE ANY REPRESENTATION THAT THE ASSESSED VALUE OF THE PROPERTY, THE ESTIMATED ALLOCATIONS, THE TAX RATE OR THE ACTUAL ASSESSED TAXES WILL NOT BE CHANGED.

Prior to the issuance of separate tax lots, the real estate tax estimates for each Unit will be determined by multiplying the total taxes due with respect to the Units by a percentage derived by dividing the Common Interest of each Unit by the total Common Interests of all Units. Please refer to the Section of the Plan entitled "Real Estate Taxes" and the opinions of Paley Group, P.C. and Metropolitan Realty Exemptions as set for in Part I of the Plan for further discussion regarding real estate taxes for the Property. There are no tax certiorari proceedings pending.

The By-Laws provide that the Condominium Board is entitled to execute and deliver documents necessary in connection with proceedings to obtain reduced real estate tax assessments with respect to Unit Owners, for the benefit and on behalf of (i) all Unit Owners, or (ii) for individual Unit Owners, provided that each such Unit Owner indemnifies the Condominium Board from and against all claims, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees) resulting from such proceedings.

Prospective purchasers should note that increases in a property's assessed valuation resulting from changes in its market value (other than changes resulting from new construction or alteration of an existing improvement) are phased in over five fiscal tax years in annual increments of twenty percent each. Any further increase in assessed valuation during such five-year period resulting from a still higher market value is similarly phased in over an additional five-year period from the date of such increase. The full increased assessed valuation targeted to be in effect after the end of the five-year period is called the "actual" assessed valuation, and the amount of the incremental assessed valuation upon which taxes are actually computed for each fiscal tax year during such five-year period is called the "transitional" assessed valuation.

TAXES -- DEDUCTIONS TO UNIT OWNERS AND TAX STATUS OF CONDOMINIUM

The following discussion of certain income tax consequences of the ownership of Units by purchasers who use such Units as a personal residence was prepared by Sponsor based, in part, upon the income tax opinion of Paley Group, P.C., counsel to Sponsor, a copy of which is set forth in Part I of this Plan.

PALEY GROUP, P.C. IS COUNSEL TO SPONSOR AND NOT THE UNIT OWNERS. EACH PURCHASER SHOULD CONSULT HIS OR HER OWN TAX COUNSEL AS TO THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF UNIT OWNERSHIP UNDER THIS PLAN.

Deductibility of Mortgage Interest and Real Estate Taxes

Each Unit Owner will own his or her Unit and its appurtenant interest in the Common Elements in fee simple and each Unit will be a separate tax lot for purposes of New York City real estate taxes and assessments. Since each Unit Owner will own his Unit in fee simple, the owner may mortgage such Unit and become individually liable for the payment of the principal and any finance charges or interest on such mortgage indebtedness.

Under the circumstances described, the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") has ruled that the owner of a residential condominium unit may deduct the real estate taxes assessed and paid on his or her interest in the property. Accordingly, an owner of a Unit who itemizes his or her deductions will be entitled under current law to deduct from his or her gross income for Federal income tax purposes, subject to (i) a $10,000 ($5,000 in the case of a married individual filing a separate return) annual limitation for state and local real property taxes (for taxable years beginning after December 31, 2017, and before January 1, 2026), assessed against his or her Unit and paid to the local tax authority. However, no deduction for real estate taxes is permitted for purposes of the Federal alternative minimum tax. Owners of the Units should consult with their tax advisers regarding the applicability of the overall limitation on the deductibility of real estate taxes.

It is the opinion of Paley Group, P.C. that a Unit Owner who uses his or her Unit as a personal residence and itemizes his or her deductions will, under present law, for Federal, New York State and New York City income tax purposes, be entitled to a deduction for mortgage interest and real estate taxes in the year paid in the case of cash basis taxpayers or accrued in the case of other taxpayers, subject to certain exceptions and limitations which are more particularly discussed in the Attorney's Income Tax Opinion. Purchasers should note that mortgage interest is deductible generally only with respect to secured debt used to acquire or substantially improve a principal or second residence (up to a total indebtedness of $750,000), plus (2) other debt (not in excess of $100,000) secured by a principal or second residence. Interest on home mortgage debt in excess of those limitations would not be deductible. Special limitations also apply with respect to the deductibility of points and other prepaid interest, if any, on the mortgage debt and to the overall allowance of itemized deductions.

Taxation of the Condominium

If the Condominium meets the requirements for qualification as a "homeowners association," under Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which requirements are discussed in the Attorney's Income Tax Opinion, it may elect not to be subject to Federal income tax on amounts received as membership dues, fees or assessments from Unit Owners. If such an election is made, the Condominium will remain liable for Federal income tax on any taxable income it may have from other sources and interest earned on any reserve funds (less expenses directly connected with the production of such income).

Sponsor anticipates that the Condominium will qualify as a "homeowners association" under Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Assuming the Condominium does not qualify as a homeowners association, or if it does but chooses not to make the election noted above, the present state of the law is uncertain as to the tax treatment of any income of the Condominium in excess of appropriate deductions and credits. As discussed in the Attorney's Income Tax Opinion, the tax authorities may take the position that the Condominium is a separate taxable entity and that some or all of such income (including the non-membership, and possibly membership, income described above less expenses related to such income) is subject to Federal corporate income tax, New York State Corporation Franchise Tax and New York City Corporate Franchise or Unincorporated Business Tax. Schedule B, Budget for the First Year of Condominium Operation, does not contemplate any income which might be taxable and accordingly does not budget any amounts for taxes for non-membership or membership income. Alternatively, it is possible that some or all of such income might be reportable directly by the Unit Owners or otherwise treated. The tax treatment of the Condominium may be affected by regulations relating to entity classification, which were adopted by the United States Treasury Department on December 17, 1996.

The qualification of an organization as a homeowner's association is determined annually at the close of each taxable year, and it is possible that if the Condominium does not qualify in one year it may nevertheless qualify in one or more future years.

No warranties are given that the Internal Revenue Service, the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance or the Finance Administration of the City of New York will allow the aforementioned deductions for mortgage interest and real estate taxes. There is also no assurance that the tax laws or the regulations or rulings issued thereunder, or any judicial interpretation thereof, upon which, Paley Group, P.C., as counsel to Sponsor, bases its opinion, will not change. In addition, none of the aforesaid give any warranties with respect to the tax consequences of this Plan or the tax consequences of ownership of any Units offered under this Plan, and no one has been authorized to give any warranties. This opinion is not a guarantee; it is based on existing rules of law applied to the facts and documents referred to above. No assurances can be given that the tax laws upon which counsel base this opinion will not change. In no event will Sponsor, its principals, managers, members, agents, designees, employees, affiliates, Paley Group, P.C., the Selling Agent, or any other person connected with this offering be liable if there are changes in the facts on which counsel relied in issuing such opinion or if there any changes in the applicable statutes, regulations, decisional law or Internal Revenue Service rulings on which counsel relied which cause the condominium to cease to meet the requirements of Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended or the New York

State tax law, as amended and cause the Unit Owner not to be entitled to such income tax deductions (or real estate tax benefits or the level or duration of such benefits).

Re: Condominium Offering Plan, 333 Union Street Condominium
 334 Union Street, Brooklyn, New York (the "Condominium")

Ladies and Gentlemen:

You have requested our opinion concerning (i) the deductibility, for Federal, New York State and New York City income tax purposes, of mortgage interest and real estate taxes paid by residents of New York who purchase the Units for residential use pursuant to the above-referenced Condominium Offering Plan (the "Plan"), and (ii) the qualification of the Condominium as a "homeowners association" under Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). This opinion does not address the tax consequences of the ownership of Units by corporations, other entities or foreign persons. Furthermore, this opinion does not address the tax consequences of any rebates or other payments that may be made, or benefits provided, to owners of Units. Except where otherwise indicated, the terms used in this opinion have the same meanings as in the Plan.

BACKGROUND

Factual Matters/Plan Documents

In connection with rendering this opinion, we have reviewed the Plan and have examined the schedules, exhibits and documents accompanying the Plan, including the declaration establishing, and the By-Laws governing, the operations of the Condominium (the "Plan Documents"). We have also considered the relevant sections of the Code, the New York State Tax Law, the New York City Administrative Code, the regulations promulgated thereunder and such other materials as we deemed relevant.

Pursuant to the Plan, the purchaser of a Unit will receive legal title in fee simple to his or her Unit, coupled with ownership of an undivided interest in the appurtenant Common Elements held in common with other Unit Owners. Such purchaser will have the right to place an individual mortgage on his or her separate Unit and will be liable to the local tax authority for the tax assessment with respect to his or her interest in the Property.

Assumptions

In rendering this opinion, we have assumed that the Plan is the document pursuant to which owners of the Units will acquire their Units and that the relevant facts are as set forth therein. More specifically, as discussed below, in considering whether the Condominium qualifies as a homeowners association, we have assumed that (i) the Units are used by individuals for residential purposes, (ii) the actual gross income and expenditures of the Condominium will be as estimated for the Condominium's first year of operations, as set forth in Schedule B to the Plan, (iii) the Condominium otherwise operates in accordance with the terms of the Plan and the Plan Documents, and (iv) there are no changes in the facts and/or the relevant provisions of current law.

DEDUCTIBILITY OF REAL ESTATE TAXES AND MORTGAGE INTEREST

Federal Income Tax

Under the circumstances described, the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") has ruled that the owner of a residential condominium unit may deduct interest paid on his or her mortgage indebtedness and the real estate taxes assessed and paid on his or her interest in the property. Rev. Rul. 64-31, 1964-1 (Part I) C.B. 300.

Accordingly, it is our opinion that an owner of a Unit who itemizes his or her deductions will be entitled under current law to deduct from his or her gross income for Federal income tax purposes, subject to (i) a $10,000 ($5,000 in the case of a married individual filing a separate return) annual limitation for state and local taxes, including income and real property taxes, as set forth in Section 164 of the Code (for taxable years beginning after December 31, 2017, and before January 1, 2026), and (ii) an overall limitation on itemized deductions as set forth in Section 68 of the Code, real estate taxes assessed against his or her Unit and (assuming a cash basis taxpayer) paid to the local tax authority. However, no deduction for real estate taxes is permitted for purposes of the Federal alternative minimum tax. Owners of the Units should consult with their tax advisers regarding the applicability of the overall limitation on itemized deductions to the deductibility of real estate taxes.

A taxpayer generally is entitled to a deduction for Federal income tax purposes for interest paid with respect to a principal and one secondary residence (a "qualified residence") to the extent that the interest is attributable to indebtedness that is incurred in acquiring a principal or secondary personal residence and, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 2017 and before January 1, 2026, only up to an aggregate indebtedness of $750,000 (or $375,000 in the case of a married individual filing a separate return). Interest on mortgage indebtedness that does not satisfy these requirements, such as home equity indebtedness, or is in excess of these limitations, is not deductible. In addition, special limitations also apply to the deductibility of points and other prepaid interest, if any, on their mortgage loans and to the overall allowance of itemized deductions. Purchasers should further note that, for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 2017 and before January 1, 2026, (This limitation was added to the Code by the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017. In July 2018, several states, including New York, filed a lawsuit in the Southern District of New York against the Federal government alleging, among other things, that this limitation is an unconstitutional restriction of the sovereign tax authority of the States. We express no opinion as to the merits of this lawsuit or its possible outcome) the aggregate deduction for state and local real property taxes, state and local personal property taxes, state and local, and foreign, income, war profits, excess profits taxes, and general sales taxes (if elected) for any tax year is limited to $10,000 ($5,000 in the case of a married individual filing a separate return).

Accordingly, it is our opinion that an owner of a Unit who itemizes deductions and uses his or her Unit as a qualified residence will be entitled under current law to deduct from his or her gross income for Federal income tax purposes, subject to an overall limitation on itemized deductions as set forth in Section 68 of the Code, interest paid (assuming a cash basis taxpayer) by him or her on (i) acquisition indebtedness incurred with respect to his or her Unit to the extent that such indebtedness, when added to the amount of acquisition indebtedness incurred with respect to a second qualified residence (if any), does not exceed $750,000 ($375,000 in the case of a married individual filing a separate return) and (ii) home equity indebtedness with respect to his or her Unit to the extent that such indebtedness, when added to the amount of home equity indebtedness incurred with respect to a second qualified residence (if any), does not exceed $100,000 ($50,000 in the case of a married individual filing a separate return). Since the rules and limitations regarding the deductibility of home mortgage interest are complex, purchasers are urged to consult their tax advisers regarding the application of such rules and limitations to them, as well as regarding the deductibility of interest with respect to their Units for Federal alternative minimum tax purposes (which at present is subject to rules different than those described above for regular tax purposes). In addition, owners of Units should consult with their tax advisers regarding potential limitations on the deductibility of points and prepaid interest, if any, on their mortgage loans and on the overall limitation on the allowance of itemized deductions.

New York State and City Income Tax

Each owner of a Unit who uses his or her Unit as a residence will generally be entitled to the same deduction for mortgage interest and real estate taxes paid or accrued with respect to his or her Unit for New York State and New York City income tax purposes as is allowed for Federal (regular) income tax purposes. However, under New York State and New York City income tax law, itemized deductions, such as interest and real estate tax deductions, are subject to reduction by as much as 50% in the case of individuals having income exceeding certain prescribed levels. Furthermore, purchasers should consult with their tax advisers to determine the application, if any, of the New York State and New York City minimum taxes to the deduction for mortgage interest and real estate taxes with respect to their Units.

Exemption

With respect to the real property taxes payable by a Unit Owner that gives rise to an entitlement to a deduction, section 458 of the Real Property Tax Law of the State of New York provides that certain Unit Owners who are veterans of the United States armed forces, or certain relatives of such veterans, may be entitled to exemptions with respect to part of such real property taxes otherwise assessed against their Units.

QUALIFICATION AS A HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION

Application of Section 528 of the Code

It is our opinion that under present circumstances the Board of Managers will be eligible to elect to be exempt from Federal income tax on Common Charges collected from the Unit Owners pursuant to Code Section 528, an exemption that would exist for a condominium association that qualifies as a "homeowners association" under such Section.

To qualify as a homeowners association, the Condominium must meet all of the following conditions: (1) it must be organized and operated to provide for the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance and care of association property, (2) at least 60% of its gross income for each taxable year must consist solely of amounts received as membership dues, fees or assessments from Unit Owners, (3) 90% or more of its expenditures for each taxable year must be made for the acquisition, construction, management, maintenance and care of association property, (4) no part of its net earnings can inure to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual (other than by acquiring, constructing, or providing management, maintenance, and care of association property, and other than by rebate of excess membership dues, fees, or assessments), (5) the Condominium must elect to be treated as a homeowners association, and (6) at least 85% of the total square footage of all Units within the Condominium must be used by individuals for residential purposes. See Treasury Regulation § 1.528-4(b). The qualification of an organization under the provisions of Section 528 is to be determined annually at the close of each taxable year and it is possible, therefore, that, if the Condominium does not qualify in one year, it may nevertheless qualify in one or more future years.

Based on the information contained in Schedule A to the Plan, at least eighty-five (85%) percent of the total square footage of all Units will be used by individuals for residential purposes. Accordingly, the Condominium can qualify as a homeowners association.

Alternatives to Section 528 of the Code

Absent the application of Code Section 528, the present state of federal law is unclear as to the precise tax status of the Condominium. An entity classification regime was adopted in regulations issued by the United States Treasury Department on December 17, 1996 and there is no authority addressing the application of those entity classification regulations to condominiums. Because the By-Laws of the Condominium provide that the Condominium Board will act as the agent of the Unit Owners, the Condominium Board may take the position that the Condominium is not a separate entity and accordingly is not subject to the classification regime. In such case, the Unit Owners would, in the aggregate, include in their gross income and be taxed on all income earned by the Condominium (which income may include interest or similar income earned from interim investments of the amounts assessed and collected from the Unit Owners), reduced by the expenses incurred in earning such income. For this purpose, the Common Charges would not be considered income earned by the Condominium through the Board collecting such charges. If, however, the Condominium is considered a separate entity it is unclear whether the Condominium would be taxable as a corporation or treated as a partnership for Federal income tax purposes. If the Condominium is taxable as a corporation, it would be considered a separate taxpayer with respect to income and deductions and return filing requirements and would be subject to Federal corporate income tax. If the Condominium is treated as a partnership, the partnership would not be subject to an entity level tax, the items of income and deduction of the partnership would generally be passed through to the Unit Owners in accordance with the provisions of Subchapter K of the Code, and the partnership would be required to file information returns.

Status for New York State and New York City Tax Purposes

The precise tax status of the Condominium for New York State and New York City tax purposes is also unclear. The relevant New York State and New York City laws incorporate by reference federal entity classification provisions which, as discussed above, do not specifically address the treatment of condominiums. If the Condominium is properly treated as a separate entity that is an association taxable as a corporation for Federal income tax purposes, it appears likely that the Condominium would be subject to the New York State Corporation Franchise Tax and the New York City General Corporation Tax. If the Condominium does not constitute an association that is taxable as a corporation for Federal income tax purposes, it is still possible, although not certain, that the Condominium might be subject to the New York State Franchise Tax. Further, in such event, it likely would be subject to the New York City Unincorporated Business Tax, unless the Condominium was eligible for and elected treatment under Code Section 528 as a homeowner's association.

Purchasers should be advised to consult with a tax expert regarding whether the new law will affect the purchaser's taxes. Purchasers should not rely on any representations in Plan addressing taxes without first consulting a tax expert.

We express no views as to any Federal, New York State or New York City tax consequences other than those explicitly discussed in this opinion, or as to the tax status or tax consequences of the Plan under the laws of any other U.S. or foreign jurisdiction. Moreover, this opinion, while based on existing rules of law applied to the facts and documents referred to above, is not binding on the IRS or any court. No assurances can be given that the tax laws upon which we base this opinion will not change. In no event will the Sponsor, Paley Group, P.C., the Condominium Board, the Selling Agent or any other person be liable if there are changes in the facts on which we have relied in issuing this opinion or if there are changes in the applicable statutes, regulations, decisional law or IRS rulings on which we have relied which cause the owners of Units not to be entitled to the income tax deductions described herein, or which would affect the tax treatment of the Condominium as described herein.

This opinion was written to support the promotion or marketing of the transaction(s) or matter(s) addressed in this opinion. Each purchaser should seek advice based on his or her particular circumstances from an independent tax advisor. We hereby authorize the use of this opinion, or a reproduction thereof, in the Plan and references to our name in the Plan.

Very truly yours,

PALEY GROUP, P.C.

Re: 334 Union Street Condominium
Premises: 334 Union Street

Gentlemen/Mesdames:

This letter is with respect to the Plan of Condominium Organization of the Premises at the above address and the allocation of the Percentage of Common Interest to the respective Units therein.

The Sponsor has used method (iv) contained in Section 339-i(1) of the New York Condominium Act, that is upon floor space, subject to relative value to the other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Unit, the availability of the common elements for exclusive or shared use, and the overall dimensions of the particular Unit.

The allocation of the percentages of Common Interest as set forth in the said "Schedule A" is based on the following: size of Unit, layout of Unit, location of the Unit in the Building and its status as a Residential Unit.

In the firm's opinion, within the framework of Real Property Law Section 339-i(1)(iv), this method of determining Common Interest is reasonable and equitable.

MD Squared Property Group, LLC has been in the real estate management business for a period in excess of seven (7) years. RE: 334 Union Street

Block & Lot: 435 - 30

Letter of Opinion regarding proposed real estate tax liabilities for the project located at 334 Union Street, Brooklyn, NY

Project Details: Three (3) Residential Condominium Units

Dear Ms. Dahl,

You have requested an opinion concerning the real property assessment to be levied upon the above property for the first full tax year after completion of construction, to be included in the Condominium Offering Plan.

In order to prepare this letter and the opinion set forth herein, you have supplied us with the following information upon which we have relied:

1. The subject property is located at 334 Union Street, Brooklyn, NY 11231, and is known as Block: 435, Lot 30 with the New York City Department of Finance ("DOF").
2. The property is currently categorized by the NYC Department of Finance as a 3-family house and is classed as a Tax Class 1.
3. The proposed is to convert the project into three (3) residential condominium units.
4. The approximate gross square footage of the entire building will be 3,200 SF.

METROPOLITAN Realty Exemptions, Inc.

5. There will be separate condominium tax lots filed with the DOF for each residential unit.
6. Since the 4-unit building was converted to 3 condominium units, the DOF has classed the condominium units as a tax class 1 and will thus levy the assessed value on a 6% rate of the market value.

DOF Assessment Guidelines

The New York City Department of Finance assesses the values in regard to all New York City residential and commercial properties annually. Based on the assessor's determination of the assessment on taxable status date January 5th, the Department of Finance releases tentative assessments of the property value in January of every year and final assessments every May, prior to the beginning of each tax year. Assessments in New York City are made on a fiscal year basis, beginning on July 1st of each year and ending on June 30th the following year.

The property tax assessment process commences when the city's assessors determine the market value of the property. Property tax is only levied on a portion of the market value. This portion is called the assessed value. Regarding 1-3 family homes and condominiums with no more than three (3) stories, provided such property was previous classified as class one (1), the assessed values are levied on 6% of the market value. Regarding all other properties, taxes are levied on 45% of the market value.

Real Property Tax Law Section 581 provides that cooperative and condominium apartments shall be assessed for tax purposes as if the building was a comparable rental property. Thus, the Department of Finance is prohibited from utilizing the sales prices of the individual condominium units in determining the assessed valuation. Therefore, the prices that you set in your offering plan and any subsequent sales or re-sales are not relevant in determining the assessed value of the property or of the individual condominium units. Upon conversion to a condominium and after an application is submitted by you, the New York City Department of Finance shall assign individual tax lot numbers to each of the condominium units. The residential units will be designated as tax class 1 property and will pay on the class 1 tax rate. Real Property tax rates set each year by the City Council are applied to these property values, to determine each homeowner's annual tax liability. The current 2024 class 1 tax rate is 20.085%.

We believe there will be an increase in value for 2025/26 because of the alteration/conversion, and that such increase will be placed on the assessment roll immediately and not subject to the limitation on increases described above. In future tax years, increases in assessed value cannot exceed 6% annually and 20% over any five-year period.

Proposed Real Estate Tax Liabilities

We have taken the following factors in account when formulating our opinion: (a) the recent tax assessment history on the property; (b) the potential income for the new structure (if operated as a rental); (c) comparable condominium projects in Brooklyn (specifically, in the Carroll Gardens neighborhood) which have been recently constructed; (d) market conditions in the general area; (e) proposed estimate of the cost of construction; and (f) calculation of the gross floor area mentioned above.

Post construction Projected Assessed Value and Tax Liability

METROPOLITAN Realty Exemptions, Inc.

Considering the aforementioned factors, we are estimating that for the post construction tax year, the DOF will set the Taxable Assessed Value at approximately $90,120.

Assuming the 2024 tax rate of 20.085% for tax class 1 (i.e., $20.085 per $100 of AV), the Projected Tax Liability will be approximately $18,101.

In determining the assessed values for the individual units, the Department of Finance may use the common interest percentages set forth in the condominium declaration if such percentages are rationally and fairly determined.

Disclaimer

Though the aforesaid estimate of the Actual Assessed Valuation is a good-faith estimate, it is not possible to estimate same with any degree of certainty. Assessed valuations, when made, may be lesser or greater based on the interpretation of the administrative code and the applicable rules and regulations of the City of New York.

Although we believe our opinions are well-founded, they are not intended, and should not be construed as warranties or guaranties or representations as to future assessed valuations of the property under discussion and we accept no responsibility or liability in the event that the figures or projections set forth herein are incorrect or inaccurate. In no event will this firm, the Sponsor, the Sponsor's counsel or any other person be liable if the assessed valuation, when actually made, is lesser or greater than that estimated above, or if the administrative code and the applicable rules and regulations of the City of New York are changed in the future, or if the facts as represented prove to be untrue.

Sincerely yours,

Martin Joseph

WORKING CAPITAL FUND AND APPORTIONMENTS

The Purchaser of each Unit shall be required to make a contribution at the Closing of his Unit(s) to the working capital fund of the Condominium (the "Working Capital Fund"). Such contribution shall be in an amount equal to two (2) month's Common Charges in effect for such Unit(s).

At the First Closing, Sponsor will apportion with the Board the following items as of midnight of the date preceding said Closing:

- (1) employees' wages, vacation and severance pay, pension and welfare benefits and accruals and all other payments or obligations relative to the employees of the Building;
- (2) deposits with utility companies, if any, and fees for assignable permits and licenses, if any;
- (3) charges for electricity and other utilities for the General and Limited Common Elements;
- (4) cost of fuel on hand (plus sales tax), if any;
- (5) charges and receipts in connection with service, maintenance and concession contracts;
- (6) water charges and sewer rents on the basis of the fiscal or calendar year for which assessed (unless separately assessed to individual Units);
- (7) cost of Building supplies on hand at Sponsor's cost (including sales tax);
- (8) premiums for transferable insurance policies, if any;
- (9) management fees;
- (10) service contracts; and
- (11) other customary adjustments.

If any of the foregoing items to be apportioned cannot be adjusted at the First Closing because they are not fully ascertainable, they shall be apportioned and adjusted to the extent reasonably possible at the First Closing, and final adjustment will be made as soon thereafter as the undetermined amounts are ascertained. Except as herein otherwise expressly provided, the customs in respect to title closings adopted by the Real Estate Board of New York, Inc., as amended, shall apply to apportionments and other matters herein mentioned. If the result of the closing adjustments is a net credit in favor of Sponsor, the payment of any net credit shall be evidenced by an unsecured, negotiable promissory note without interest, to be executed by the Condominium Board and delivered to the Sponsor at the first Closing to be repaid on the first anniversary of the first Closing.

The Working Capital Fund will be held and used for working capital, or for such other appropriate purposes as will be determined by the Condominium Board and may be augmented by allocations from the monthly Common Charges collected from each Unit. While Sponsor controls the Condominium Board (see the Section entitled "Control By Sponsor"), the Working Capital Fund will not be used to reduce estimated Common Charges. The Board, whether or not controlled by the Sponsor assumes a fiduciary duty to act in the best interests of the Condominium and its Unit Owners.

The Condominium Board will be able to utilize the money in the Working Capital Fund at any time and, accordingly, no representation or warranty can be made and no assurance can be given as to the exact amount of funds available at any specific time. However, in no event shall any portion of the Working Capital Fund be used to pay any Common Charges or Common Charges attributable to Unsold Units.

In the event that capital expenditures for renewal or replacement of building components or systems or to remedy major building defects are needed, it may be necessary to increase Common Charges or make special assessments payable by Unit Owners who are responsible for the repair and replacement of the Common Element in need of such renewal, replacement or remedy. Alternatively, the Board may determine to seek financing from a bank or other lending institution for such expenditures in accordance with the terms of the By-Laws and subject, in certain instances, to Unit Owner approval. In addition, pursuant to the By-Laws each Board is entitled to determine amounts for a reserve for replacements in establishing the annual budgets. No representation or warranty is made that the Working Capital Fund will be, or is intended to be, adequate to cover current or future expenses, for the first or any subsequent year of Condominium operation. Neither the Department of Law nor any other government agency has passed upon the adequacy of the Working Capital Fund.

RESERVE FUND

There is a provision in the budget for a Reserve Fund, in the approximate amount of 10% of the annual budget set forth in Schedule B. The Reserve Fund may only be used for capital expenditures. No representation is made that the Reserve Fund will be, or is intended to be, adequate to cover expenses for the first or any subsequent year of Condominium operation, including, without limitation, the cost of any necessary repairs or replacements. The Reserve Fund is not estimated to be sufficient to provide for needed capital expenditures within the five (5) years following the first closing. If additional funds are required over and above the Reserve Fund, it may be necessary to increase the Common Charges.

While Sponsor is in control of the Board of Managers, Sponsor will not use the Working Capital Fund or the Reserve Fund for the purpose of reducing the Common Charges.

NEITHER THE DEPARTMENT OF LAW NOR ANY OTHER GOVERNMENTAL AGENCY HAS PASSED UPON THE ADEQUACY OF THE RESERVE FUND.

- (11) generally, doing all things deemed reasonably necessary or desirable by the Condominium Board for the proper management of the Building.

The Condominium Board is also required to indemnify the Managing Agent against liability for claims arising from the Managing Agent's management of the Building provided the Managing Agent was acting pursuant to the terms of the Management Agreement and was not guilty of gross negligence or willful misconduct. The Management Agreement is assignable by the Managing Agent only with the prior written consent of the Condominium Board.

1. THE PLAN. The Plan is incorporated herein by reference and made a part hereof with the same force and effect as if set forth at length. In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of this Agreement and the Plan, the provisions of the Plan will govern and be binding.

5. AGREEMENT NOT CONTINGENT UPON FINANCING. The terms and provisions of this Agreement and Purchaser's obligations hereunder are not contingent upon Purchaser securing financing of the Purchase Price (or any portion thereof) stated in Section 4 of this Agreement, and Purchaser understands and agrees that his failure to obtain such financing will not relieve him of his obligations hereunder. Prospective purchasers who require financing are advised to consult with a lending institution before execution of a Purchase Agreement. No representation is made by the Sponsor, its designees, representative or Selling Agent as to the availability or cost of such financing. Purchaser further understands and agrees that if he chooses to finance his purchase of the Unit through a lending institution and obtain a commitment therefrom, neither a subsequent change in the terms of such commitment, the expiration or other termination of such commitment, nor any change in his financial status or condition shall release or relieve him of his obligations pursuant to this Agreement.

6. CLOSING OF TITLE.

The closing of title shall be held at such place in the City and State of New York and on such date and hour as Sponsor may designate to Purchaser on not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice. In the event the Purchase Agreement is executed prior to the Plan being declared effective, the Closing shall not occur until at least thirty (30) days after the Plan is declared effective. If Sponsor consents to close at any other location as an accommodation to Purchaser, Purchaser shall pay to Sponsor's attorneys at closing an extra fee as set forth in the Plan. Sponsor, from time to time, may adjourn the date and hour for closing on written notice to Purchaser, which notice shall fix a new date, hour and place for the closing of title and will be given not less than two (2) business days prior to the new scheduled date and time for closing.

The closing of title shall occur only after or concurrently with the compliance with the prerequisites as set forth under "Terms of Sale" in Part I of the Plan.

The term "Closing Date" or "closing of title" or words of similar import, whenever used herein, shall mean the date designated by Sponsor on which the deed to the Unit is delivered to Purchaser, or any adjourned date fixed by Sponsor pursuant to subsection 6.1 hereof.

7. DELIVERY OF THE DEED AND UNIT POWER OF ATTORNEY.

At the closing of title, Sponsor shall deliver to Purchaser a bargain and sale deed with covenants against grantor's acts conveying title to the Unit to Purchaser. The deed shall be prepared by Sponsor in substantially the form set forth in Part II of the Plan and shall be executed and acknowledged by Sponsor in form for recording. Purchaser shall pay all New York State and New York City real property transfer taxes, and Sponsor and Purchaser shall duly execute a New York City Real Property Transfer Tax return and any other forms then required by law, all of which shall be prepared by Sponsor.

At the closing of title and simultaneously with the delivery of the deed conveying the Unit to Purchaser, Purchaser shall execute and acknowledge a power of attorney to the Condominium Board and Sponsor substantially in the form set forth in Part II of the Plan.

The deed and power of attorney to the Condominium Board and Sponsor shall be delivered to the representative of the title company insuring Purchaser's title (or, if no such representative is present, then to Sponsor's attorney) for recording in the City Register's Office, which recording shall be at Purchaser's expense. After being recorded, the deed shall be returned to Purchaser and the power of attorney shall be sent to the Managing Agent.

Sponsor shall deliver to Purchaser a certification stating that Sponsor is not a foreign person in the form then required by the Code Withholding Section and (ii) each party shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the other party such instruments, and take such other actions, as such other party may reasonably request in order to comply with IRS §6045(e), as amended, or any successor provision or any regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, insofar as the same requires reporting of information in respect of real estate transactions.

8. MARKETABLE TITLE. At the closing of title, Sponsor shall convey to Purchaser fee simple title to the Unit and its appurtenant interest in the common elements, free and clear of all liens, encumbrances and title exceptions other than those described in the Plan and the proposed unit deed. Any encumbrance or lien to which title is not to be subject shall not be an objection to title if (a) the instrument required to remove it of record is delivered at or prior to the closing of title to the proper party or to Purchaser's title insurance company, together with the attendant recording or filing fee, if any, or (b) Gotham Abstract having an address at 622 Third Avenue, Suite 600, New York, New York 10017, Tel: (212) 767-0707; Fax: (844) 466-0560; (or such other title insurance company as Purchaser may utilize), is or would be willing, in a fee policy issued by it to the Purchaser, to insure Purchaser that it will not be collected out of the Unit if it is a lien, or will not be enforced against the Unit if it is not a lien at its regular rates without additional premium.

Sponsor shall be entitled to adjourn the Closing to remove or correct any defect in title which is not set forth in the Permitted Exceptions. However, if such defect existed at least ten (10) days prior to the Closing and Purchaser, or Purchaser's attorney, failed to send Sponsor's attorney written notice of such defect in title at least ten (10) days prior to Closing, then, for purposes of Article 15 below, Purchaser shall be deemed at fault for not having sent timely notice, and the Closing adjournment to all Sponsor to correct or remove such title defect shall be considered as being at the request of Purchaser.

The covenants in the deed will be solely for the personal benefit of Purchaser and will not inure to the benefit of Purchaser's successors. In the event of a claimed breach of any covenant of the grantor contained in the deed, Purchaser must first seek recovery against Purchaser's title insurance company before proceeding against Sponsor, it being agreed that the liability of Sponsor will be limited to any loss or damage not covered by such title insurance. In the event that Purchaser elects not to purchase title insurance, then the liability of Sponsor shall be limited to any loss or damage that would not have been covered by the title insurance that was available to Purchaser at closing. The terms of any marked-up title binder of any title insurance company authorized to do business in New York State issued in connection with any Unit shall be conclusive evidence of the title insurance coverage that was available to Purchaser. The provisions of this Article 8 shall survive the Closing.

9 CLOSING ADJUSTMENTS.

Subject to Paragraph 15 hereof, the following adjustments shall be made as of midnight, of the day preceding the Closing Date with respect to the Unit:

- (a) real estate taxes and assessments, if any (including water charges and sewer rents, if separately assessed), on the basis of the period for which assessed;
- (b) Common Charges for the month in which title closes; and
- (c) accrued rent and any other charges pursuant to an interim lease or use and occupancy agreement, if any, covering the Unit.

If a Unit has been separately assessed but the closing of title occurs before the tax rate is fixed, adjustment of taxes shall be based upon the latest tax rate applied to the most recent applicable assessed valuation. Installments for tax assessments due after the delivery of the deed, if any, shall be paid by Purchaser and shall not be considered a defect in title. If a Unit has not been separately assessed as of the Closing Date for the then current tax period, the adjustment under subsection 8.1(a) hereof shall be based upon the assessment for the Property and the percentage interest in the Common Elements appurtenant to the Unit.

Purchaser hereby agrees that, if Sponsor obtains a refund for real estate taxes paid (or a credit for such taxes to be paid) on Purchaser's Unit, Purchaser and Sponsor will apportion the refund (as well as the costs and/or fees for obtaining the refund or credit) based on the percentage of time for which the refund or credit is obtained during which each party hereto owned the Unit in question. The provisions of this subsection shall survive the closing of title.

The "Customs in Respect of Title Closings" recommended by The Real Estate Board of New York, Inc., as amended to date, shall apply to the adjustments and other matters therein mentioned except as otherwise provided herein.

10 INTENTIONALLY DELETED

11 CLOSING COSTS. In addition to those costs and adjustments described in Article 9 herein, Purchaser shall be required to pay the other closing costs which are Purchaser's responsibility as more particularly described in Part I of the Plan entitled "Closing Costs and Adjustments." The Closing Costs and Adjustments include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (i) The New York City Real Property Transfer Tax;
- (ii) The New York State Transfer Tax;
- (iii) The New York State Additional Transfer Tax (commonly referred to as the "Mansion Tax");
- (iv) A working capital contribution equal to two (2) month's Common Charges; and
- (v) The legal fees of Sponsor.

12 DOWN PAYMENT. The Down Payment made pursuant to this Agreement is subject to the requirements of Section 71-a (3) of the State of New York Lien Law and Sections 352-e(2)(b) and 352-h of the General Business Law of the State of New York. Any Down Payment received from Purchaser will be held in accordance with the provisions of the Subsection entitled "Escrow and Trust Fund Requirements" under the Section entitled "Procedure to Purchase" set forth in Part I of the Plan. By signing this Agreement, Purchaser will not object and will be deemed to have agreed, without the need for a further written agreement, to the release of the Down Payment to Seller in the event Seller and Purchaser close title under this Agreement. Sponsor is required by law to submit a Form 1099 to the Internal Revenue Service reporting interest earned on Purchaser's Down Payment, if any. Purchaser will be taxed accordingly on such interest, whether or not Purchaser ultimately receives the interest in accordance with the terms of this paragraph.

13 BINDING EFFECT OF DECLARATION, BY-LAWS AND RULES AND REGULATIONS. Purchaser hereby accepts and approves the Plan (including the Declaration, By-Laws and Rules and Regulations contained therein) and agrees to abide and be bound by the terms and conditions thereof

14 AGREEMENT SUBJECT TO MORTGAGE. No encumbrance shall arise against the Property as a result of this Agreement or any monies deposited hereunder. In furtherance and not in limitation of the provisions of the preceding sentence, Purchaser agrees that the provisions of this Agreement are and shall be subject and subordinate to the lien of any mortgage, including, but not limited to, any construction or building loan mortgage, heretofore or hereafter made any advances heretofore or hereafter made thereon and any payments or expenses made or incurred or which hereafter may be made or incurred, pursuant to the terms thereof, or incidental thereto, or to protect the security thereof, to the full extent thereof without the execution of any further legal documents by Purchaser. This subordination shall apply in all cases, regardless of the timing of, or cause for, the making of advances of money or the incurring of expenses. Sponsor shall, at its option, either satisfy such mortgages or obtain a release of each Unit and its undivided interest in the Common Elements from the lien of such mortgages on or prior to the Closing Date, unless Purchaser voluntarily assumes such mortgage or consents to the continuation of the lien thereof. The existence of any mortgage or mortgages encumbering the Property, or portions thereof, other than the Unit and its (their) undivided interest in the Common Elements, shall not constitute an objection to title or excuse Purchaser from completing payment of the Purchase Price or performing all of its other obligations hereunder or be the basis of any claim against, or liability of, Sponsor, provided that any such mortgage(s) is subordinated to the Declaration.

15 DEFAULT BY PURCHASER.

The following shall constitute "Events of Default" hereunder:

- (a) Purchaser's failure to pay the Down Payment (or any portion thereof) or the balance of the Purchase Price on the Closing Date designated by Sponsor; or
- (b) Purchaser's failure to duly complete and sign before a notary public and deliver at closing the Power of Attorney or the New York State and City transfer tax returns; or
- (c) If Purchaser is or becomes the tenant of record of the Unit, Purchaser's failure to pay rent or to otherwise comply with Purchaser's lease or tenancy obligations; or
- (d) If Purchaser is or becomes the tenant of record of the Unit and Purchaser vacates or abandons the Unit; or
- (e) Purchaser's failure to pay any closing costs set forth in this Agreement or Plan, on the Closing Date designated by Sponsor; or

The failure to pay, perform or observe any of Purchaser's other obligations hereunder.

TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE with regard to Purchaser's obligations to pay the balance of the Purchase Price and to perform Purchaser's other obligations under this Agreement. If Purchaser fails to make such payment when required as herein provided or fails to perform any of Purchaser's other obligations hereunder, Sponsor shall give written notice to Purchaser of such default. If such default shall not be cured within thirty (30) days thereafter, Sponsor may, at its option, cancel this Agreement by notice of cancellation to Purchaser. If Sponsor elects to cancel this Agreement, (a) Sponsor may retain all sums deposited by Purchaser hereunder (including any amounts paid by Purchaser for additional work in the Unit), together with interest earned thereon, as liquidated damages (Sponsor's actual damages being difficult or impossible to ascertain) and, upon retaining such sum, this Agreement shall be terminated and neither party hereto shall have any further rights, obligations or liability to or against the other under this Agreement or the Plan and (b) Sponsor may sell the Unit to any third party as though this Agreement had never been made (without any obligation to account to Purchaser for any part of the proceeds of such sale).

If Purchaser fails for any reason to close title to his Unit on the originally scheduled Closing Date (a) the closing apportionments described in Section 9.1 of this Agreement will be made as of midnight of the day preceding the originally scheduled Closing Date, regardless of when the actual closing of title occurs; (b) Purchaser will be required to pay to Sponsor, as a reimbursement of Sponsor's higher carrying costs for the Unit by virtue of the delay, and in addition to the other payments to be made to Sponsor under this Agreement and the Plan, an amount equal to 0.03% (or such lower rate per day which is the highest legal rate) of the Purchase Price for each day starting from (and including) the originally scheduled Closing Date to (and including) the day before the actual Closing Date; and (c) Purchaser shall pay Sponsor's counsel $250.00 for each adjournment. If, through no fault of Purchaser, Sponsor postpones the originally scheduled Closing Date, these provisions shall apply to the rescheduled Closing Date if Purchaser fails for any reason to close title to his Unit on the rescheduled Closing Date.

NEITHER SPONSOR NOR PURCHASER SHALL CHALLENGE THE VALIDITY OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT OR THE PLAN WITH RESPECT TO LIQUIDATED DAMAGES OR ANY RIGHT OF SPONSOR SET FORTH HEREIN OR THEREIN TO RETAIN THE DEPOSIT IN THE EVENT OF A PURCHASER DEFAULT. SUCH PROVISIONS HAVE BEEN AGREED TO VOLUNTARILY, AFTER NEGOTIATION, WITHOUT DURESS OR COERCION BY ANY PARTY UPON ANY OTHER PARTY, AND EACH PARTY HAVING BEEN (OR HAVING HAD FULL AND ADEQUATE OPPORTUNITY TO BE) REPRESENTED AND ADVISED BY COUNSEL, ACCOUNTANTS, BROKERS, APPRAISERS AND OTHER EXPERTS AND ADVISORS OF ITS OWN CHOOSING.

16 WITHDRAWAL OR ABANDONMENT OF PLAN. The Plan may be withdrawn or abandoned by Sponsor only under certain conditions and at certain times, as set forth in Part I of the Plan. Provided Purchaser is not then in default under this Agreement beyond any applicable grace period, if the Plan is withdrawn or abandoned, this Agreement shall be deemed canceled and, not later than ten (10) days thereafter, Sponsor shall return to Purchaser all sums deposited by Purchaser hereunder, together with interest earned thereon, if any, and, upon making such payment, neither party hereto shall have any further rights, obligations or liability to or against the other under this Agreement or the Plan.

17 SPONSOR'S INABILITY TO CONVEY THE UNITS. If Sponsor is unable to deliver title to the Unit to Purchaser in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and the Plan, Sponsor shall not be obligated to bring any action or proceeding or otherwise incur any cost or expense of any nature whatsoever in excess of its obligations set forth in the Plan in order to cure such inability, and, in such case, if Sponsor notifies Purchaser of its refusal to cure such inability and if Purchaser is not in default hereunder, Purchaser's sole remedy shall be to either (a) take title to the Unit subject to such inability (without any abatement in, or credit against, the Purchase Price, or any claim or right of action against Sponsor for damages or otherwise) or (b) terminate this Agreement. If Purchaser so elects to terminate this Agreement, Sponsor shall, within thirty (30) days after receipt of notice of termination from Purchaser, return to Purchaser all sums deposited by Purchaser hereunder, together with interest earned thereon, if any, and, upon making such payment, this Agreement shall be terminated and neither party hereto shall have any further rights, obligations or liability to or against the other under this Agreement or the Plan. The foregoing remedy must be exercised by notice of Purchaser in writing to Sponsor within fifteen (15) days after the giving of Sponsor's notice of refusal to cure such inability, failing which it shall be conclusively deemed that Purchaser elected the remedy described in clause (a) above (i.e., to acquire title subject to such inability).

18 FIXTURES, APPLIANCES AND PERSONAL PROPERTY.

APPLIANCES ARE NOT NEW. Only those fixtures, appliances and items of personal property which are described in the Description of the Property in Part II of the Plan as being part of the Unit are included in the sale of the Unit pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement. At the Closing, Sponsor shall transfer to Purchaser any assignable warranties and undertakings received by Sponsor which relate to appliances, equipment or fixtures located in the Unit.

19 ACCEPTANCE OF CONDITION OF PROPERTY.

Purchaser shall accept title (without abatement in, or credit against, the Purchase Price or any provision for escrow deposits at the closing of title) notwithstanding the failure to complete construction of (a) minor details of the Unit or the Property, (b) other Units or (c) the Common Elements of the Property which do not prevent Purchaser's use of the Unit. Purchaser acknowledges that the Units were completed in 2004 and as such is taking the Unit in its AS-IS CONDITION. Sponsor shall have no obligation to complete any work to the Unit except for work necessary to cure violations. Sponsor shall have no obligation to repair or improve the Unit, any portion of the Property, or the appliances, equipment or fixtures attached to or used in connection with the Unit or the Property.

20 DAMAGE TO THE UNIT. If between the date of this Agreement and the closing of title the Unit is damaged by fire or other casualty, the following shall apply:

The risk of loss to the Unit by fire or other casualty is assumed by Sponsor until the earlier of closing of title or possession of the Unit by Purchaser, but without any obligation or liability by Sponsor to repair or restore the Unit. If Sponsor elects to repair or restore the Unit, this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect, Purchaser shall not have the right to reject title or receive a credit against, or abatement in, the Purchase Price and Sponsor shall be entitled to a reasonable period of time within which to complete the repair or restoration. Any proceeds received from insurance or in satisfaction of any claim or action in connection with such loss shall, subject to the rights of the respective Board and other Unit Owners if the Declaration has theretofore been recorded, belong entirely to Sponsor and, if such proceeds are paid to Purchaser, Purchaser shall promptly upon receipt thereof turn them over to Sponsor. The provisions of the preceding sentence shall survive the closing of title.

In the event Sponsor notifies Purchaser that it does not elect to repair or restore the Unit, or, if the Declaration has been recorded prior thereto, the Unit Owners do not resolve to make such repairs or restoration pursuant to the By-Laws, this Agreement shall be deemed canceled and of no further force and effect and Sponsor shall return to Purchaser all sums deposited by Purchaser hereunder, together with interest earned thereon, if any, and neither party hereto shall have any further rights, obligations or liability to or against the other hereunder or under the Plan, except that if Purchaser is then in default hereunder (beyond any applicable grace period), Sponsor shall retain all such sums deposited by Purchaser hereunder, together with any interest earned thereon, as and for liquidated damages.

21 SPECIALTY WORK ORDERED BY PURCHASER. Builder upgrades, extras, and/or custom or specialty work (collectively "Specialty Work"), if any of same are offered by Sponsor, shall be paid in full by Purchaser upon selection thereof, but in no event later than fifteen (15) days after Purchaser's selection of such Specialty Work. Purchaser's selection of Specialty Work, if any of same are offered by Sponsor, shall be made in writing at Sponsor's office or the sales office within ten (10) days after notification to Purchaser that such Specialty Work must be ordered prior to commencement of construction and must not delay construction. If, for any reason, Purchaser fails: (a) to select any offered Specialty Work within ten (10) days after notification that same are available; or (b) to make payment in full for any Specialty Work selected by Purchaser as required herein, Sponsor shall have no obligation whatsoever to install Purchaser's desired Specialty Work. No claim or objection to Closing shall be made by Purchaser on account of Sponsor's failure to install any Specialty Work.

Purchaser's failure to make any payments in accordance with the payment schedule of Sponsor, Sponsor's contractors or sub-contractors (as applicable) shall constitute an Event of Default in accordance with Section 15 of this Agreement.

As noted as a Special Risk in the Plan, in the event Purchaser is entitled to rescission, Purchaser will not receive a refund of any funds paid for Specialty Work which have been: (i) installed Sponsor; (ii) not installed but paid for by Sponsor; or (iii) not installed but which have been ordered by Sponsor and for which Sponsor is obligated to pay unless the Plan has been abandoned. In the event the Plan is abandoned, Purchaser shall be entitled to a refund of all funds paid to Sponsor for such Specialty Work.

The failure of Sponsor to perform or supply and install any Specialty Work shall not entitle Purchaser to cancel this Agreement, even if Purchaser has already paid for such Specialty Work. Purchaser's only right, in the event the of Sponsor's failure to perform the work required to install any Specialty Work, is to refund or credit at Closing equal to the total payments made to Sponsor for such Specialty Work.

22 NO REPRESENTATIONS. Purchaser acknowledges that Purchaser has not relied upon any architect's plans, sales plans, selling brochures, advertisements, representations, warranties, statements or estimates of any nature whatsoever, whether written or oral, made by Sponsor, Selling Agent or otherwise, including, but not limited to, any relating to the description or physical condition of the Property, the Building or the Unit, or the size or the dimensions of the Unit or the rooms therein contained or any other physical characteristics thereof, the services to be provided to Unit Owners, the estimated Common Charges allocable to the Unit, the estimated real estate taxes on the Unit, the right to any income tax deduction for any real estate taxes or mortgage interest paid by Purchaser, the right to any income tax credit with respect to the purchase of the Unit, or any other data, except as herein or in the Plan specifically represented, Purchaser having relied solely on his own judgment and investigation in deciding to enter into this Agreement and purchase the Unit. No person has been authorized to make any representations on behalf of Sponsor except as herein or in the Plan specifically set forth. No oral representations or statements shall be considered a part of this Agreement. Sponsor makes no representation or warranty as to the work, materials, appliances, equipment or fixtures in the Unit, the Common Elements or any other part of the Property other than as set forth herein or in the Plan.

23 PROHIBITION AGAINST ADVERTISING. Prior to the closing of title to a Unit, Purchaser shall not to list the Unit for resale or rent with any broker or to advertise or otherwise offer, promote or publicize the availability of the Unit for sale or lease, without Sponsor's prior written consent. If any Purchaser or Unit Owner engages in any of the foregoing activities, it shall be considered an Event of Default under the terms of this Agreement, thereby entitling Sponsor to any remedies under the terms of this Agreement. The provisions of this Section shall survive the closing of title to the Unit or earlier termination of this Agreement.

24 BROKER. Purchaser represents to Sponsor that Sponsor, Sponsor's Selling Agent and _____ are the only brokers or sales agents with whom Purchaser has dealt in connection with this transaction, and Sponsor agrees to pay the commission earned by said broker pursuant to a separate agreement. Purchaser agrees that should any claim be made against Sponsor for commissions by any broker, other than the aforementioned broker, on account of any acts of Purchaser or Purchaser's representatives, Purchaser will indemnify and hold Sponsor free and harmless from and against any and all liabilities and expenses in connection therewith, including reasonable legal fees. The provisions of this Article 24 shall survive the closing of title.

25 AGREEMENT MAY NOT BE ASSIGNED. Purchaser does not have the right to assign this Agreement without the prior written consent of Sponsor. Any purported assignment by Purchaser in violation of this Agreement will be voidable at the option of Sponsor. Sponsor's refusal to consent to an assignment will not entitle Purchaser to cancel this Agreement or give rise to any claim for damages against Sponsor. If Sponsor, in its sole discretion, consents to a Purchaser's request for an assignment of this Agreement, or for the addition, deletion or substitution of names on this Agreement, then Purchaser shall be required to pay Sponsor's reasonable attorneys' fees in advance, for preparation of an assignment agreement.

26 BINDING EFFECT. This Agreement shall not be binding on Sponsor until a fully executed counterpart hereof has been delivered to Purchaser. If this Agreement is not accepted within thirty (30) days from the date hereof by the delivery to Purchaser of a fully executed counterpart, this Agreement shall be deemed to have been rejected and canceled and the deposit paid on the execution hereof shall be promptly returned to Purchaser. If Purchaser has not received the Plan and all amendments thereto at least three full (3) days prior to Purchaser's signing this Agreement, the Purchaser shall have the right to rescind this Agreement within seven (7) days from the date of this Agreement.

27 NOTICES. Any notice, request, letter, consent or other communication hereunder or under the Plan shall be in writing and hand delivered or sent, postage prepaid, by registered or certified mail, to Purchaser at the address given at the beginning of this Agreement, and to Sponsor at the address given at the beginning of this Agreement, with a copy to Marc Paley, Esq., Paley Group, P.C., 801 Second Avenue, Suite 2100, New York, NY 10017 in the same manner as notice is given to Sponsor, or to such other address as either party may hereafter designate to the other in writing. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, the date of hand delivery or mailing shall be deemed to be the date of the giving of notice, except that the date of actual receipt shall be deemed to be the date of the giving of any notice of change of address. Any notice either of the parties hereto receives from the other party's attorneys shall be deemed to be notice from such party itself.

28 JOINT PURCHASERS. The term "Purchaser" shall be read as "Purchasers" if more than one person are purchasers, in which case their obligations shall be joint and several.

30 FURTHER ASSURANCES. Either party shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the other party such instruments, and take such other actions, in addition to the instruments and actions specifically provided for herein, as such other party may reasonably request in order to effectuate the provisions of this Agreement or of any transaction contemplated herein or to confirm or perfect any right to be created or transferred hereunder or pursuant to any such transaction.

31 COSTS OF ENFORCING AND DEFENDING AGREEMENT. Purchaser shall be obligated to reimburse Sponsor for any legal fees and disbursements incurred by Sponsor in defending Sponsor's rights under this Agreement or, in the event Purchaser defaults under this Agreement beyond any applicable grace period, in canceling this Agreement or otherwise enforcing Purchaser's obligations hereunder provided Sponsor is deemed the prevailing party in any such dispute.

32 SEVERABILITY. If any provision of this Agreement or the Plan is invalid or unenforceable as against any person or under certain circumstances, the remainder of this Agreement or the Plan and the applicability of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby. Each provision of this Agreement or the Plan, except as otherwise herein or therein provided, shall be valid and enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.

33 STRICT COMPLIANCE. Any failure by Sponsor to insist upon the strict performance by Purchaser of any of the provisions of this Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of any of the provisions hereof, and Sponsor, notwithstanding any such failure, shall have the right thereafter to insist upon the strict performance by Purchaser of any and all of the provisions of this Agreement to be performed by Purchaser.

34 GOVERNING LAW. The provisions of this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of New York applicable to agreements made and to be performed wholly in the State of New York, without regard to principles of conflicts of law.

35 WAIVER OF JURY. Except as prohibited by law, the parties shall, and they hereby do, expressly waive trial by jury in any litigation arising out of, or connected with, or relating to, this Agreement or the relationship created hereby.

36 ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement supersedes any and all understandings and agreements between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof.

37 CERTAIN REFERENCES. A reference in this Agreement to any one gender, masculine, feminine or neuter, includes the other two, and the singular includes the plural, and vice versa, unless the context otherwise requires. The terms "herein," "hereof" or "hereunder" or similar terms used in this Agreement refer to this entire Agreement and not to the particular provision in which the term is used, unless the context otherwise requires. Unless otherwise stated, all references herein to Articles, Sections, subsections or other provisions are references to Articles, Sections, subsections or other provisions of this Agreement.

38 CAPTIONS. The captions in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and in no way, define, limit or describe the scope of this Agreement or the intent of any provision hereof

39 RULE OF CONSTRUCTION. There shall be no presumption against the draftsman of this Agreement.

40 SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS. The provisions of this Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of Purchaser and his heirs, legal representatives, successors and permitted assigns and shall bind and inure to the benefit of Sponsor and its successors and assigns.

41 NO ORAL CHANGES. This Agreement cannot be changed or terminated orally. ANY CHANGES OR ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS MUST BE SET FORTH IN A RIDER ATTACHED HERETO OR IN A SEPARATE WRITTEN AGREEMENT SIGNED BY THE PARTIES HERETO OR BY AN AMENDMENT TO THE PLAN.

42 AMENDMENTS TO THE PLAN. Subject to any provision of the Plan to the contrary, if there is a substantial amendment to the Plan that materially and adversely affects Purchaser, Purchaser will have a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of presentation of said amendment within which to rescind this Agreement and, if Purchaser exercises such right of rescission, Sponsor shall return the Down Payment, together with any interest thereon, pursuant to this Agreement within thirty (30) days.

43 ESCROW FUND REGULATIONS.

43.1 The law firm of Paley Group, P.C., with an address at 801 Second Avenue, Suite 2100, New York, New York 10017, telephone number (212) 603-9899, shall serve as escrow agent ("Escrow Agent") for Sponsor and Purchaser. Escrow Agent has designated Marc Paley, Esq. to serve as the signatory. The designated signatory is admitted to practice law in the State of New York. Neither the Escrow Agent nor any authorized signatories on the account are the Sponsor, Selling Agent, or any principal thereof, or have any beneficial interest in any of the foregoing.

43.2 Escrow Agent and all authorized signatories hereby submit to the jurisdiction of the State of New York and its Courts for any cause of action arising out of the Purchase Agreement or otherwise concerning the maintenance of release of the Deposit from escrow.

43.3 The Escrow Agent has established the escrow account at Flagstar Bank, N.A., located at 1400 Broadway, 25th Floor, New York, New York 10018 ("Bank"), a bank authorized to do business in the State of New York. The escrow account is entitled Paley Group, P.C. Trust Account ("Escrow Account"). The Escrow Account is federally insured by the FDIC at the maximum amount of $250,000 per deposit. Any deposit in excess of $250,000 will not be insured, unless Escrow Agent has established multiple accounts on behalf of Purchaser at various institutions.

43.4 All Deposits received from Purchaser shall be in the form of checks, money orders, wire transfers, or other instruments and shall be made payable to or endorsed by the Purchaser to the order of Paley Group, PC. as Escrow Agent.

43.5 The interest rate for all Deposits made into the Escrow Account shall be the prevailing rate for such accounts. Interest shall begin to accrue upon placing the Deposit into the Escrow Account. All interest earned thereon shall be paid to or credited to the Purchaser at closing. No fees of any kind may be deducted from the Escrow Account, and the Sponsor shall bear all costs associated with the maintenance of the Escrow Account.

43.6 Within five (5) business days after the Purchase Agreement has been tendered to Escrow Agent along with the Deposit, the Escrow Agent shall sign the Purchase Agreement and place the Deposit into the Escrow Account. Within ten (10) business days of the placing the deposit in the Escrow Account, Escrow Agent shall provide written notice to Purchaser and Sponsor, confirming the Deposit. The notice shall provide the account number and the initial interest rate to be earned on the Deposit. Any Deposits made for upgrades, extras, or custom work shall be initially deposited into the Escrow Account and released in accordance to the terms of the Purchase Agreement.

43.7 The Escrow Agent is obligated to send notice to the Purchaser once the Deposit is placed in the Escrow Account. If the Purchaser does not receive notice of such deposit within fifteen (15) business days after tender of the Deposit, he or she may cancel the Purchase Agreement within ninety (90) days after tender of the Purchase Agreement and Deposit to Escrow Agent. Complaints concerning the failure to honor such cancellation requests may be referred to the New York State Department of Law, Real Estate Finance Bureau, 28 Liberty Street, 22nd Floor, New York, N.Y. 10005. Rescission shall not be afforded where proof satisfactory to the Attorney General is submitted establishing that the Deposit was timely placed in the Escrow Account in accordance with the New York State Department of Law's regulations concerning Deposits and requisite notice was timely mailed to the Purchaser.

43.8 All Deposits, except for advances made for upgrades, extras, or custom work received in connection with the Purchase Agreement, are and shall continue to be the Purchaser's money, and may not be comingled with any other money or pledged or hypothecated by Sponsor, as per GBL § 352-h.

43.9 Under no circumstances shall Sponsor seek or accept release of the Deposit of a defaulting Purchaser until after consummation of the Plan, as evidenced by the acceptance of a post-closing amendment by the New York State Department of Law. Consummation of the Plan does not relieve the Sponsor of its obligations pursuant to GBL §§ 352-e(2-b) and 352-h.

43.10 The Escrow Agent shall release the Deposit if so directed:

(a) pursuant to terms and conditions set forth in the Purchase Agreement in Paragraph/Section 42 upon closing of title to the Unit; or

(b) in a subsequent writing signed by both Sponsor and Purchaser; or

(c) by a final, non-appealable order or judgment of a court.

43.11 If the Escrow Agent is not directed to release the Deposit pursuant to paragraphs (a) through (c) above, and the Escrow Agent receives a request by either party to release the Deposit, then the Escrow Agent must give both the Purchaser and Sponsor prior written notice of not fewer than thirty (30) days before releasing the Deposit. If the Escrow Agent has not received notice of objection to the release of the Deposit prior to the expiration of the thirty (30) day period, the Deposit shall be released, and the Escrow Agent shall provide further written notice to both parties informing them of said release. If the Escrow Agent receives a written notice from either party objecting to the release of the Deposit within said thirty (30) day period, the Escrow Agent shall continue to hold the Deposit until otherwise directed pursuant to paragraphs (a) through (c) above. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Escrow Agent shall have the right at any time to deposit the Deposit contained in the Escrow Account with the clerk of the county where the [unit/building] is located and shall give written notice to both parties of such deposit.

43.12 The Sponsor shall not object to the release of the Deposit to:

(a) a Purchaser who timely rescinds in accordance with an offer of rescission contained in the Plan or an Amendment to the Plan; or

(b) all Purchasers after an Amendment abandoning the Plan is accepted for filing by the Department of Law.

43.13 The Department of Law may perform random reviews and audits of any records involving the Escrow Account to determine compliance with all applicable statutes and regulations.

43.14 Any provision of the Purchase Agreement or separate agreement, whether oral or in writing, by which a Purchaser purports to waive or indemnify any obligation of the Escrow Agent holding any Deposit in trust is absolutely void. The provisions of the Attorney General's regulations and GBL §§ 352-e(2-b) and 352-h concerning escrow trust funds shall prevail over any conflicting or inconsistent provisions in the Purchase Agreement, Plan, or any amendment thereto.

43.15 Escrow Agent shall maintain the Escrow Account under its direct supervision and control.

43.16 A fiduciary relationship shall exist between Escrow Agent and Purchaser, and Escrow Agent acknowledges its fiduciary and statutory obligations pursuant to GBL §§ 352-e(2-b) and 352(h).

43.17 Escrow Agent may rely upon any paper or document which may be submitted to it in connection with its duties under this Purchase Agreement and which is believed by Escrow Agent to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties and shall have no liability or responsibility with respect to the form, execution, or validity thereof.

43.18 Sponsor agrees that it shall not interfere with Escrow Agent's performance of its fiduciary duties and statutory obligations as set forth in GBL §§ 352-e(2-b) and 352-(h) and the New York State Department of Law's regulations.

43.19 Sponsor shall obtain or cause the selling agent under the Plan to obtain a completed and signed Form W-9 or W-8, as applicable, from Purchaser and deliver such form to Escrow Agent together with the Deposit and this Purchase Agreement.

43.20 Prior to release of the Deposit, Escrow Agent's fees and disbursements shall neither be paid by Sponsor from the Deposit nor deducted from the Deposit by any financial institution under any circumstance.

43.21 Sponsor agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold Escrow Agent harmless from and against all costs, claims, expenses and damages incurred in connection with or arising out of Escrow Agent's responsibilities arising in connection with this Purchase Agreement or the performance or non-performance of Escrow Agent's duties under this Purchase Agreement, except with respect to actions or omissions taken or suffered by Escrow Agent in bad faith or in willful disregard of the obligations set forth in this Purchase Agreement or involving gross negligence of Escrow Agent. This indemnity includes, without limitation, disbursements and attorneys' fees either paid to retain attorneys or representing the hourly billing rates with respect to legal services rendered by Escrow Agent to itself.

44 SMOKING POLICY.

In accordance with New York City Local Law 147 the Sponsor is providing notice of the Condominium's smoking policy. The Condominium shall be operated as a smoke free building. The inhaling, exhaling, burning or carrying of any lighted cigar, cigarette, pipe, or any form of lighted object or device which contains tobacco or cloves, including all kinds of e-cigarettes and vape pens (collectively, "Smoking") shall be prohibited in the Condominium Premises, including within all Units, in a Rear Yard, Storage Area and in all common areas of the Building. Outside of the Building, smoking shall only be permitted within designated smoking areas, which may be located 25 feet or more from entries, outdoor air intakes and operable windows. The Board shall have the right to seek and obtain a court order enjoining the occupant of a Unit from smoking within their Unit or appurtenant Rear Yard or Storage Area. In addition to all other remedies available to the Board, violation of this policy by an occupant of a Unit shall subject the Unit Owner to (i) a fine in an amount to be determined from time to time by the Board, and (ii) reimbursement of any fees or expenses incurred by the Board (including legal fees) in enforcing this provision.

45. SPECIALTY WORK.

Sponsor is not required or obligated to perform any special or custom work, upgrades or extras in Units (collectively, "Specialty Work") whatsoever. However, in the event that Sponsor agrees in writing to perform any Specialty Work, payments made for such Specialty Work ordered by Purchasers, if any, must be paid for in full at the time an agreement is entered into and deposited into the Escrow Account. Any deposits made for Specialty Work shall be initially deposited into the Escrow Account and released in accordance to the terms of a written agreement between Purchaser and Sponsor. Such work, if agreed to, will be performed based upon the standards set forth in this Plan. In the event the offering plan is not consummated, and the property is not subjected to condominium ownership, (i.e. is abandoned by Sponsor) a full refund, including all of the funds for the Specialty Work will be made to the Purchaser. Purchasers are expressly prohibited from assigning any agreement with Sponsor for the performance of Specialty Work and any and all punchlist agreements with Sponsor. The failure of Sponsor to perform or supply and install any Specialty Work shall not entitle Purchaser to cancel the Purchase Agreement, even if Purchaser has already paid for such Specialty Work. Purchaser's only right, in the event of Sponsor's failure to perform the work required to install any Specialty Work, is to refund or credit at Closing equal to the total payments made to Sponsor for such Specialty Work. Each Purchaser should consult his or her own counsel as to the consequences of this provision.

By signing below, I affirm that I have read this Agreement and fully understand the terms. I also understand that the Lead Paint Rider attached hereto as Rider 1 is to be executed by the undersigned.

RIDER TO PURCHASE AGREEMENT

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency ("EPA") and the Department of Housing and Urban Development have promulgated Federal regulations under 24 CFR Part 35 and 40 CFR Part 745 ("Regulations") pursuant to the Residential Lead-Based paint and/or lead based paint hazards to prospective purchasers of Unsold Units. In accordance with the provisions of the Regulations, there is attached to this Rider a "Lead Warning Statement" and "Disclosure of Information on Lead-Based Paint and/or Lead Based Paint Hazards" to be signed by Seller, Purchaser and Agent, as applicable, simultaneously with the Purchase Agreement to which this Rider is attached. The Regulations do not require any testing or removal of lead based paint by sellers.

This Agreement is contingent upon a risk assessment or inspection of the Property ("Inspection") for the presence of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards at the Purchaser's expense. Intact lead-based paint that is in good condition is not necessarily a hazard. Such Inspection shall be performed within ten (10) calendar days after a countersigned Purchase Agreement has been returned to Purchaser or Purchaser's attorney on the following terms and conditions:

(a) Purchaser and Purchaser's consultant, if any ("Consultant") will be given reasonable access to the Unit and the public areas of the Building.

(b) The Inspection shall be held at a mutually convenient time and date.

(c) The Inspection shall be performed in a reasonable manner so as not to disturb or interfere with the use, operation, security or occupancy of the Unit or the Building.

(d) Purchaser hereby indemnifies and holds Seller harmless from, and agrees to be liable for any damages to the Unit or the Building, injuries and all claims and lawsuits caused by the Purchaser or the Consultant during or from the Inspection.

(e) Purchaser or the Consultant will not prove, penetrate or disturb any painted or covered surface during the Inspection without Seller's prior approval.

This Inspection contingency will terminate at the end of such ten-day period without further notification by Seller unless the Purchaser (or Purchaser's agent) delivers to Seller or Seller's agent, a proposed Purchase Agreement Addendum listing the specific existing deficiencies and corrections needed, together with a copy of the inspection and/or risk assessment report (the "Report"). The Seller may, at the Seller's sole option, within five (5) business days after delivery of the Addendum and Report, elect in writing whether to correct the condition(s) prior to Closing. If the Seller will correct the condition, the Seller shall furnish the Purchaser with a certification from the Consultant or from the Seller's risk assessor or inspector, confirming that the condition has been remedied before the Closing date, as such date may be extended or adjourned, as provided in the Purchase Agreement. If the Seller does not elect to make the repairs or if, within three (3) days, Seller does not make a counteroffer to remove this contingency and sell the Unit in "as is" condition, then this Purchase Agreement shall become void and the Contract Deposit will be refunded to the Purchaser. The Purchaser may remove this contingency at any time without cause.

PURCHASER AGREES THAT IT IS PURCHASING THE UNIT 'AS IS' WITHOUT ANY PREREPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES WHATSOEVER AS TO THE CONDITION OF THE UNIT AND THE BUILDING, EXCEPT AS MAY BE OTHERWISE PROVIDED IN THE PLAN. PURCHASER FURTHER AGREES THAT SELLER HAS NO RESPONSIBILITY OR LIABILITY FOR, AND PURCHASER HERBY UNCONDITIONALLY RELEASES SELLER FROM, ANY AND ALL LIABILITY, BOTH KNOWN AND UNKNOWN, PRESENT AND FUTURE, THAT IS BASED UPON OR RELATED TO, THE EXISTENCE OF LEAD OR LEAD-BASED PAINT OR OTHER SOURCES OF LEAD ON OR ABOUT THE UNIT AND THE BUILDING.

The Common Elements are appurtenant to, serve and benefit each Unit to the extent of such Unit's percentage share of the Common Elements. The Common Elements are for the common use of all Unit Owners.

7.1.2 As used in this Declaration, the word "Facility" or "Facilities" includes, but is not limited to, the following items (grouped more or less functionally) which are set forth only for purposes of illustrating the broad scope of that term: system, equipment, apparatus, convertor, radiator, heater, heat exchanger, mechanism, device, machinery, motor, pump, control, tank or tank assembly, insulation, induction unit, condenser, compressor, fan, damper, blower, thermostat, thermometer, coil, vent, sensor, shut-off valve or other valve, gong, panel, receptacle, outlet, relay, alarm, sprinkler head, electric distribution facility, wiring, wireway, switch, switchboard, circuit breaker, transformer, fitting, siamese connection, hose, plumbing fixture, lighting fixture, other fixture, bulb, sign, telephone, meter, meter assembly, scaffolding, piping, line, duct, conduit, cable, riser, main shaft, pit, flue, lock or other hardware, rack, screen, strainer, trap, drain, catch basin, leader, filter, canopy, incinerator, closet, cabinet, door, railing, coping, step, furniture, mirror, furnishing, appurtenance, urn, basket, mail box, carpeting, tile or other floor covering, drapery, shade or other window covering, wallpaper or other wall covering, tree, shrubbery, flower or other planting and horticulture tub or box. The word "Facility" or "Facilities" is meant to include all mechanical, electrical and plumbing equipment that service the Building but does not include any portion of the Building that is specifically listed as a Unit or a Limited Common Element.

7.2 The Common Elements will remain undivided and no Unit Owner or other person will bring or will have the right to bring any action for partition or division thereof except as may be specifically provided for herein and in the By-Laws.

7.3 The Common Elements consist of the following:

7.3.1 The Land (except for the Rear Yards which are limited common elements), as more particularly described in Exhibit A attached to this Declaration, together with all easements, rights and privileges appurtenant thereto.

7.3.2 Any of the following: all foundations, footings, columns, girders, floor slabs and ceilings, beams, and supports and interior load bearing walls, (except to the extent included in Sections 7.4 or 7.5), together with those portions of the exterior walls of the Building.

7.3.12 Intentionally Deleted

7.3.14 Fire staircases and their landings and stairs from the landing.

7.3.15 All other facilities of the Property (including but not limited to shafts, pipes, wires, ducts, vents, cables, conduits and lines) which serve or benefit or are necessary or convenient for the existence, maintenance, operation or safety of the Condominium.

7.3.16 Intentionally Deleted

7.3.17 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Article 7, if a Common Element benefits only certain Unit Owners, then the costs of alteration, addition, repair, replacement and restoration thereto shall be borne solely by those Unit Owners who benefit from the Common Element in the proportion that the Common Interest of each benefiting Unit Owner bears to the Common Interests of all benefiting Unit Owners.

7.4 The Limited Common Elements consist of the following:

7.4.1 Certain portions of the Common Elements are limited and further restricted in use to the owners of Units to which such Limited Common Elements are appurtenant, subject to the right of the Board of Managers to enter upon any such Limited Common Element to make structural repairs or structural replacements to said Limited Common Element or any Common Element contained therein, and subject to the Rules and Regulations of the Condominium.

7.4.2 The Limited Common Elements include, without limitation, the Rear Yards appurtenant to a specified Unit, including any planter installed thereon and fences and rails, if any, enclosing said rear yard and Storage Area. Any portion of the Limited Common Elements which is not restricted in use may be used by any Unit Owner.

7.4.3 All normal and ordinary maintenance, repair and replacement of Limited Common Elements (i.e., cleaning surface areas, patching chipped concrete or pavers, repairing and/or replacing fencing or railing enclosures, etc.) shall be tended to and paid for by the Unit Owner having the exclusive use thereof. Washing exteriors of windows will be borne by the Unit Owners as a Common Expense. Structural or extraordinary repairs of the Limited Common Elements, including such items as complete replacement of concrete in rear yards will be borne by the Unit Owners as a Common Expense.

7.4.4 Unit Owners shall be responsible for washing the interior side of any and all windows in their Unit and replacing broken window glass in their Unit unless the glass was broken through the negligence of the Condominium Board or its agents, in which case the cost or replacement shall be borne by the Unit Owners as a Common Expense.

7.4.5 That portion of equipment, fixtures or Facilities serving or benefiting one Unit, to the extent located within another Unit or within a Common Element to which there is direct and exclusive access from the interior of a Unit. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the By-Laws or this Declaration, the Unit Owner who is so served or benefited by such Limited Common Element shall have the exclusive right to use such Limited Common Element and shall be responsible for its normal operation, maintenance and repair at such Unit Owner's sole cost and expense.

ARTICLE 8 USE OF BUILDING AND UNITS

8.1 As more particularly set forth in the By-Laws, a Unit may be used for any lawful purposes, subject, however, to (1) the terms and conditions of the then existing certificate of occupancy for such Unit, (2) applicable governmental laws and regulations, (3) the use of such Unit not adversely affecting the use and enjoyment of neighboring or adjacent Units for residential purposes, and (4) the Restrictions as defined in Section 6.14 of the By-Laws. Units may only be leased in accordance with the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations.

8.2 Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything contained in the By-Laws or the Rules and Regulations to the contrary, Declarant may without the permission of the Condominium Board, (1) grant permission for the use of any Unsold Unit (as defined in Exhibit C) owned by it as a professional office or for any other purpose, provided such use is permitted by law, and does not violate the then existing certificate of occupancy for such Unit or any other governmental regulations and (2) use any Unsold Units owned by it as models and sales and/or promotion offices in connection with the sale or rental of the Units, subject only to compliance with applicable governmental laws and regulations.

ARTICLE 9 CHANGES IN THE CONDOMINIUM

Except to the extent prohibited by law, Declarant or its designee shall have the right, without the vote or consent of the Board, other Unit Owners or the Mortgage Representatives, if any, to: (a) make alterations, additions or improvements to any Unsold Units; (b) change the use (subject to Section 8.2 above) or layout of, or number of rooms in, any Unsold Units from time to time; (c) change the size and/or number of Unsold Units by subdividing one or more Unsold Units into two or more separate Units, combining separate Unsold Units (including those resulting from such subdivision or otherwise) into one or more Units, converting a Unit or any portion thereof to a Common Element or a Limited Common Element, altering the boundary walls between any Unsold Units, or otherwise, including incorporating Common Elements (such as a portion of a hallway used exclusively by the occupant(s) of such Unsold Unit) which exclusively benefit an Unsold Unit into such Unit; (d) designate a Common Element as part of a newly created Unit or Limited Common Element, or designate all or part of a Unit as a newly created Common Element or Limited Common Element; and (e) if appropriate, reapportion among the Unsold Units affected by such change in size, use or number pursuant to the preceding clauses (b) and (c) their percentage interests in the Common Elements; provided, however, that (i) the percentage interest in the Common Elements of any other Units (other than Unsold Units) shall not be changed by reason thereof unless the owners of such Units shall consent thereto; (ii) Declarant or its designee, as the case may be, shall comply with all laws, ordinances and regulations of all governmental authorities having jurisdiction and shall agree to hold each Board and all other Unit Owners harmless from any liability arising therefrom. The provisions of this Article 9 may not be added to, amended, modified or deleted without the prior written consent of Declarant or its designee. By written permission of the Condominium Board, which permission, shall not be unreasonably withheld, any other Unit Owner may be given, with respect to his or her Unit, the same rights and be subject to the same limitations and conditions as are set forth in this Article 9 with respect to Unsold Units. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Article 9, no reapportionment of the interests in the Common Elements appurtenant to any Unit shall be made unless there is first delivered to the Condominium Board a written certification stating that the percentage interests of the respective Units in the Common Elements, immediately after such reapportionment, will be based upon floor space, subject to the location of such space and the additional factors of relative value to other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Unit, the availability of Common Elements for exclusive or shared use and the overall dimensions of the particular Unit. The certification referred to in the preceding sentence shall be delivered (i) at Declarant's election, by Declarant, the managing agent of the Condominium or any other person reasonably acceptable to the Condominium Board in the case of any Unsold Unit, and (ii) by either the managing agent of the Condominium or any other person reasonably acceptable to the Condominium Board in the case of any other Unit.

ARTICLE 10 PERSON TO RECEIVE SERVICE

The Secretary of State of the State of New York is hereby designated to receive service of process in any action which may be brought against the Condominium.

ARTICLE 11 DETERMINATION OF PERCENTAGE INTERESTS IN COMMON ELEMENTS

11.1 Determination of Percentage of Interest in Common Elements. The percentage of interest in the Common Elements applicable to each Unit, as shown on Schedule C, was determined pursuant to Section 339-i(i)(iv) of the Condominium Act, and is based upon floor space, subject to the location of such space and additional factors of relative value to other space in the Condominium, the uniqueness of the Unit, the availability of Common Elements for exclusive or shared use and the overall dimensions of a particular Unit. The aggregate Common Interest for all Units is 100%.

11.2 The percentage interest of each Unit in the Common Elements is apportioned in the same proportion that the Unit bears to the Common Interests of all Units.

ARTICLE 12 ENCROACHMENTS

If (a) any portion of the Common Elements encroaches upon any Unit or upon any other Common Element, (b) any Unit encroaches upon any other Unit or upon any portion of the Common Elements or (c) any such encroachments shall hereafter occur as a result of (i) settling or shifting of the Building, (ii) any alteration, repair or restoration of the Common Elements made by or with the consent (when required by the By-Laws) of the Condominium Board, or made by Declarant or its designee, or (iii) any alteration, repair or restoration of the Building (or any portion thereof) or of any Unit or Common Element after damage by fire or other casualty or any taking by condemnation or eminent domain proceedings of all or any portion of any Unit or the Common Elements; then, in any such event, a valid easement shall exist for such encroachment and for the maintenance of the same as long as the Building shall stand.

ACCESS TO COMMON ELEMENTS

Each Unit Owner shall have an easement in common with all other Unit Owners to use, maintain, repair, alter and replace all Common Elements located in any of the other Units or elsewhere on the Property which serve his or her Unit including an easement to connect to existing utilities including, but not limited to utilities for gas, electricity, steam and ventilation. Each Unit shall be subject to an easement in favor of all Unit Owners to use, maintain, repair, alter and replace all Common Elements located in such Unit or elsewhere on the Property which serve other Units. In addition, the Condominium Board, or their agents, to the extent the Board is permitted to act by the By-Laws for such purposes, shall have a right of access to each Unit to inspect the same, to remove violations therefrom and to maintain, repair or replace the Common Elements contained therein or elsewhere in the Property. All easements and rights of access described in this Article 13 shall be exercised in such a manner as will not unreasonably interfere with use of the Units for their permitted purposes. Such entries shall be permitted on not less than one day's notice, except that no notice will be necessary in the case of an "emergency" (i.e., a condition requiring repair or replacement immediately necessary for the preservation or safety of the Building or for the safety of occupants of the Building, or other persons, or required to avoid the suspension of any necessary service in the Building).

ARTICLE 14

EASEMENTS AND NAME OF CONDOMINIUM

14.1 Except as set forth in this Declaration, each Unit Owner shall have, in common with all other Unit Owners, an easement for the use of the Common Elements.

14.2 Each Unit Owner shall have, in common with all other Unit Owners, an easement for ingress and egress through the Condominium and for the use of any Common Element, to the extent necessitated by an emergency.

14.3 Each Unit Owner shall have, in common with all other Unit Owners, and each Unit shall be subject to, an easement (a) to install, utilize, operate, maintain, repair, alter, rebuild, restore and replace the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements located in, over, under, through or upon any Unit, or any other Common Elements or elsewhere on the Property and (b) to maintain any encroachment on any Unit or Common Elements resulting from the repair, alteration, rebuilding, restoration or replacement of the Units, the Common Elements or the Limited Common Elements; provided that access to any Unit or the Common Elements in furtherance of such easement shall be exercised in such a manner as will not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Units for their permitted purposes.

14.4 Each Unit shall have an easement of support and of necessity and shall be subject to an easement of support and necessity in favor of all other Units and the Common Elements.

14.5 Declarant or its designee and their successors and assigns shall, to the extent permitted by law, have an easement to erect, maintain, repair and replace, from time to time, one or more signs on the Property (other than on the exterior walls of the Building surrounding Units not owned by the party erecting the sign) for the purposes of advertising the sale or lease of any Unsold Unit.

14.6 Declarant or its designee and the Condominium Board with respect to the Property, shall have the right to grant such additional electric, gas, steam, ventilation or other easements for utilities or otherwise or relocate any easements in any portion of the Property, as the case may be, as Declarant or its designee or the Condominium Board, as the case may be, shall deem necessary or desirable for the proper operation and maintenance of the Building or any portion thereof, or to complete the Building as described in the Plan or for the general health or welfare of the owners, tenants and occupants of the appropriate Units, provided that such additional utilities or the relocation of existing utilities will not prevent or unreasonably interfere with the use of the Units for their permitted purposes, and shall not result in the imposition of any mechanic's lien against any of the Units. Any utility company and its employees and agents shall have the right of access to any Unit or the Common Elements in furtherance of such easement, provided such right of access shall be exercised in such manner as shall not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Units for their permitted purposes.

14.7 Declarant shall have, and the Units and Common Elements shall be subject to, an easement, (a) to install, utilize, operate, maintain, repair, alter, rebuild, restore and replace satellite dishes and similar equipment on the roof of the Building and the conduit and other Facilities relating thereto, other than those portions of the roof which constitute Common Elements or Limited Common Elements, and (b) to maintain any encroachment on any Unit, or any Common Elements or elsewhere on the Property resulting from the installation, operation, maintenance, repair, alteration, rebuilding, restoration or replacement thereof; provided that access to any Unit or Common Element in furtherance of such easement shall be exercised in a manner as will not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Units for their permitted purposes. Such entry shall be permitted on not less than one day's notice, except that no notice will be necessary in the case of an emergency.

14.8 The Condominium and the Building shall be designated and known as the "334 UNION STREET CONDOMINIUM". Declarant shall own and control all rights and interests, and shall be responsible for all obligations and liabilities, appurtenant to the name of the Condominium and/or the Building. For so long as Declarant owns any Units in the Building, only Declarant shall have the right to change or assign the name of the Condominium and/or the Building, subject to the consent of the Condominium Board.

14.9 Declarant for so long as it shall own any Unsold Unit and the Condominium Board, on behalf of all Unit Owners, shall have the right to grant such additional electric, gas, steam, cable television, telephone, water, storm drainage, sewer and other utility easements in, or to relocate any existing utility easements to, any portion of the Property as Declarant or the Condominium Board, as the case may be, shall deem necessary or desirable for the proper operation and maintenance of the Building or any portion thereof, or for the general health or welfare of the owners, tenants and occupants of the appropriate Units, provided that the granting of such additional utility easements or the relocation of existing utilities will not prevent or unreasonably interfere with the use of the Units for their permitted purposes, and shall not result in the imposition of any mechanic's lien against any of the Units. Any utility company and its employees and agents shall have the right of access to each Unit or the Common Elements in furtherance of such easement, provided such right of access shall be exercised in such manner as shall not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Units for their permitted purposes. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Declaration, the By-Laws or the Rules and Regulations, any alterations carried out in connection with the easements granted hereinabove shall be such that neither the configuration nor the usable area of the affected Unit shall be materially adversely affected.

14.10 Declarant and its contractors, employees and agents for so long as Declarant shall own any Unsold Unit, shall have an easement for ingress and egress through all of the Common Elements in order to make alterations, additions, or improvements, whether structural or non-structural, interior or exterior, ordinary or extraordinary, in, to and upon Unsold Units.

POWER OF ATTORNEY TO THE CONDOMINIUM BOARD

15.1 Each Unit Owner shall grant to the persons who shall from time to time constitute the Condominium Board an irrevocable power of attorney, coupled with an interest (in such form and content as the Condominium Board shall determine) following due authorization (if required) from the Unit Owners (a) to acquire or lease any Unit, together with its Appurtenant Interests (as defined hereinafter), whose owner desires to sell, convey, transfer, assign, lease or surrender the same, or which becomes the subject of a foreclosure or other similar sale, on such terms and at such price or rental, as the case may be, as the attorneys-in-fact deem proper, in the name of the Condominium Board or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Unit Owners, and after any such acquisition or leasing, to convey, sell, lease, sublease, mortgage or otherwise deal with (but not vote the interest appurtenant thereto) any such Units so acquired, or to sublease any Unit so leased, without the necessity of further authorization by the Unit Owners, on such terms as the attorneys-in-fact may determine, (b) to commence, pursue, appeal, settle and/or terminate administrative and certiorari proceedings to obtain reduced real estate tax assessments with respect to Units, including retaining counsel and taking any other actions which the Condominium Board deems necessary or appropriate and (c) to execute, acknowledge and deliver any declaration or other instrument affecting the entire Property which the Condominium Board deems necessary or appropriate to comply with any law, ordinance, regulation, zoning resolution or requirement of the Department of Buildings, the City Planning Commission, the Board of Standards and Appeals, or any other public authority, applicable to the maintenance, demolition, construction, alteration, repair or restoration of the entire Property or any consent, covenant, restriction, easement or declaration, or any amendment thereto, affecting the entire Property or the Common Elements which the Condominium Board deems necessary or appropriate.

ACQUISITION OF UNITS BY THE BOARD

If (a) any Unit Owner surrenders his or her Unit, together with (i) the undivided interest in the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements appurtenant thereto, (ii) the interest of such Unit Owner in any other Units theretofore acquired by the Condominium Board or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Unit Owners or the proceeds of the sale or lease thereof, if any, and (iii) the interest of such Unit Owner in any other assets of the Condominium (such interests in (i), (ii) and (iii) being hereinafter collectively called the "Appurtenant Interests"), pursuant to the provisions of Section 339-x of the Condominium Act, (b) the Condominium Board, pursuant to Article 8 of the By-Laws, acquires or leases a Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, or (c) the Condominium Board purchases, at a foreclosure or other similar sale, a Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, then, in any such event, title to any such Unit, together with the Appurtenant Interests, shall be held by the Condominium Board or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Unit Owners, in proportion to their respective interests in the Common Elements. The lease or sublease covering any Unit leased or subleased by the Condominium Board or its designee shall be held by the Condominium Board or its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Unit Owners, in proportion to their respective interest in the Common Elements.

COVENANTS RUNNING WITH THE LAND

17.1 All provisions of this Declaration, the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations which are annexed hereto and made a part hereof, including, without limitation, the provisions of this Article 17, shall to the extent applicable and unless otherwise expressly herein or therein provided to the contrary, be perpetual and be construed to be covenants running with the Land and with every part thereof and interest therein, and all of the provisions hereof and thereof shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the owner of all or any part thereof, or interest therein, and his or her heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns, but the same are not intended to create, nor shall they be construed as creating, any rights in or for the benefit of the general public. All present and future owners, tenants, subtenants, licensees, and other occupants of Units shall be subject to and shall comply with the provisions of this Declaration, the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations, as they may be amended from time to time. The acceptance of a deed or conveyance or the entering into of a lease or the entering into occupancy of any Unit shall constitute an agreement that the provisions of this Declaration, the By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations, as they may be amended from time to time, are accepted and ratified by such owner, tenant or occupant, and all of such provisions shall be deemed and taken to be covenants running with the Land and shall bind any person having at any time any interest or estate in such Unit, as though such provisions were recited and stipulated at length in each and every deed or conveyance or lease or use and occupancy agreement thereof.

17.2 If any provision of this Declaration or the By-Laws is invalid under, or would cause this Declaration and the By-Laws to be insufficient to submit the Property to the provisions of, the Condominium Act, such provision shall be deemed deleted from this Declaration or the By-Laws, as the case may be, for the purpose of submitting the Property to the provisions of the Condominium Act but shall nevertheless be valid and binding upon and inure to the benefit of the owners of the Property and their heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns, as covenants running with the Land and with every part thereof and interest therein under other applicable law to the extent permitted under such applicable law with the same force and effect as if, immediately after the recording of this Declaration and the By-Laws, all Unit Owners had signed and recorded an instrument agreeing to each such provision as a covenant running with the Land. If any provision which is necessary to cause this Declaration and the By-Laws to be sufficient to submit the Property to the provisions of the Condominium Act is missing from this Declaration or the By-Laws, then such provision shall be deemed included as part of this Declaration or the By-Laws, as the case may be, for the purposes of submitting the Property to the provisions of the Condominium Act.

17.3 Subject to Section 17.2, if this Declaration and the By-Laws are insufficient to submit the Property to the provisions of the Condominium Act, the provisions of this Declaration and the By-Laws shall nevertheless be valid and binding upon and inure to the benefit of the owners of the Property, and their heirs, executors, administrators, legal representatives, successors and assigns, as covenants running with the Land and with every part thereof and interest therein under applicable law to the extent permitted under such applicable law with the same force and effect as if, immediately after the recording of this Declaration and the By-Laws, all Unit Owners had signed and recorded an instrument agreeing to each such provision as a covenant running with the Land.

ARTICLE 18 AMENDMENTS OF DECLARATION

18.1 Subject to the provisions contained herein or in the By-Laws with respect to amendments, modifications, additions or deletions affecting Declarant or its designee, or any Unsold Units any provision of this Declaration may be added to, amended, modified or deleted by the vote of at least 66-2/3% in number and in Common Interest of all Unit Owners taken in accordance with the provisions of the By-Laws. Subject to the provisions contained herein or in the By-Laws with respect to amendments, modifications, additions or deletions affecting Declarant or its designee, or any Unsold Units, no amendment, modification, addition or deletion pursuant to the provisions of clause (a) above shall be effective without the written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) of the Mortgage Representatives (as defined in the By-Laws), if any. No such amendment, modification, addition or deletion shall be effective until recorded in the City Register's Office. Subject to the provisions contained herein or in the By-Laws with respect to amendments, modifications, additions or deletions affecting Declarant or its designee, or any Unsold Units, any such amendment, modification, addition or deletion shall be executed by the Condominium Board as attorney-in-fact for the Unit Owners, coupled with an interest, which Condominium Board is hereby authorized by such Unit Owners so to act as their attorney-in-fact. Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Section 18.1 and the rights of Declarant or its designee, under Articles 8, 9 and 10 of this Declaration, Articles 7 and 8 of this Declaration may not be amended, modified, added to or deleted unless (in addition to the consent, if required, of the Mortgage Representatives, as set forth above) 80% in number and in Common Interest of all Unit Owners affected thereby, approve such amendment, modification, addition or deletion in the manner set forth above.

18.2 If the number of rooms in an Unsold Unit is changed, or the use, size and/or number of Unsold Units is changed (whether as a result of a subdivision or combination of Unsold Units or alteration of boundary walls between Unsold Units, or otherwise) and the appurtenant percentage interests of Units in the Common Elements are reapportioned as a result thereof, all in accordance with Article 9 hereof, then Declarant or its designee causing such changes shall have the right to execute, or (upon its request) to require any other Unit Owner or the Board to execute, and record in the City Register's Office and elsewhere, if required by law, an amendment to this Declaration (together with such other documents as Declarant or its designee causing such changes deems appropriate to effectuate the same) reflecting such change in the number of rooms in an Unsold Unit or in the use, size and/or number of Unsold Units (whether as a result of said subdivision, combination, alteration or otherwise) and the reapportionment of the percentage interests of Units in the Common Elements resulting therefrom, all without the approval of the Board, the Unit Owners or the Mortgage Representatives, if any. In addition, if any Unit Owner other than Declarant or its designee causing such changes is given the right by the Condominium Board to make the changes described in this Section 18.2 with respect to such Unit Owner's Unit or Units, all in accordance with Article 9 hereof, then such Unit Owner shall have the right to require the Condominium Board to execute, and record in the City Register's Office and elsewhere, if required by law, any amendment to this Declaration and other documents which are necessary or appropriate (in the reasonable judgment of the Condominium Board) to reflect the changes made by the Unit Owner, all without the approval of the Board, other Unit Owners or the Mortgage Representatives, if any. Nothing contained in this Section shall be construed to mean that the Common Interest appurtenant to any Unit not subject to any change may be reapportioned without the written consent of the Owner of such Unit.

TERMINATION OF CONDOMINIUM

The Condominium shall continue and the Property shall not be subject to an action for partition (unless terminated by casualty, loss, condemnation or eminent domain, as more particularly provided in the By-Laws) until such time as withdrawal of the Property from the provisions of the Condominium Act is authorized by a vote of a least 80% in number and in Common Interest of all Unit Owners. No such vote shall be effective, however, (a) without the written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) of at least sixty-seven percent (67%) of the Mortgage Representatives, if any, and (b) without the written consent of Declarant, until such time as Declarant and its designees have conveyed title to all Units, provided that in no event shall Declarant's consent be required more than five (5) years after the date fee title to a Unit is first conveyed to a purchaser by Declarant or its designees pursuant to an offering plan. In the event said withdrawal is authorized as aforesaid, the Property shall be subject to an action for partition by any Unit Owner or lienor as if owned in common, in which event the net proceeds of sale shall be divided among all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interests; provided, however, that no payment shall be made to a Unit Owner until there has first been paid from out of such Unit Owner's share of such net proceeds, all liens on such Unit Owner's Unit (other than mortgages which are not Permitted Mortgages), in the order of priority of such liens.

ARTICLE 20 WAIVER

No provision contained in this Declaration shall be deemed to have been abrogated or waived by reason of any failure to enforce the same, irrespective of the number of violations or breaches which may occur.

ARTICLE 21 CAPTIONS

The captions herein are inserted only as a matter of convenience and for reference, and in no way define, limit or describe the scope of this Declaration or the intent of any provision hereof.

ARTICLE 22 CERTAIN REFERENCES

22.1 A reference in this Declaration to any one gender, masculine, feminine or neuter, includes the other two, and the singular includes the plural and vice versa, unless the context otherwise requires.

22.2 The terms "herein," "hereof" or "hereunder" or similar terms used in this Declaration refer to this entire Declaration and not to the particular provision in which the terms are used, unless the context otherwise requires.

Subject to the provisions of Articles 17.2 and 17.3, if any provision of this Declaration is invalid or unenforceable as against any person or under certain circumstances, the remainder of this Declaration and the applicability of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby. Each provision of this Declaration shall, except as otherwise herein provided, be valid and enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.

COVENANT OF FURTHER ASSURANCES

24.1 Any party which is subject to the terms of this Declaration, whether such party is a Unit Owner, a lessee or sublessee of a Unit Owner, an occupant of a Unit, a member or officer of the Board or otherwise, shall, upon prior reasonable written request at the expense of any such other party requesting the same, execute, acknowledge and deliver to such other party such instruments, in addition to those specifically provided for herein, and take such other action as such other party may reasonably request to effectuate the provisions of this Declaration or of any transaction contemplated herein or to confirm or perfect any right to be created or transferred hereunder or pursuant to any such transaction.

24.2 If any Unit Owner, the Board or any other party which is subject to the terms of this Declaration fails, within ten days after request therefor, to execute, acknowledge or deliver any instrument, or to take any action which the Board, Unit Owner or party is required to execute, acknowledge and deliver or to take pursuant to this Declaration, then the Board is hereby authorized as attorney-in-fact for such Unit Owner, the Board or other party, coupled with an interest, to execute, acknowledge and deliver such instrument, or to take such action in the name of such Unit Owner, the Board or other party and such document or action shall be binding on such Unit Owner, the Board or other party.

ELEVEN THIRD STREET CONDOMINIUM

ARTICLE 1 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose. The purpose of these By-Laws is to set forth the rules and procedures concerning the conduct of the affairs of the 334 Union Street Condominium (the "Condominium"). The Condominium covers the property (the "Property") consisting of approximately 2,000 square feet which forms former Lot No. 30 of Block 435 on the Tax Map of the Borough of Kings and County of New York, City and State of New York, the building and other improvements now or hereafter to be constructed thereon or therein, as the case may be (hereinafter collectively called the "Building"), including, without limitation, the Units and the Common Elements, all easements, rights and appurtenances belonging thereto, and all other property, real, personal or mixed, intended for use in connection therewith, all of which have been submitted to the provisions of Article 9-B of the Real Property Law of the State of New York by the recording of a Declaration (which, as the same may be amended from time to time, is herein called the "Declaration") in the New York County Office of the Register of The City of New York ("City Register's Office"), together with these By-Laws. All terms used herein including, but not limited to, "Declarant or its designee" and "Declarant or a designee of Declarant," which are not separately defined herein, shall have the meanings given to those terms in the Declaration.

1.2 Applicability of By-Laws. These By-Laws are applicable to the Property and to the use and occupancy thereof. All present and future Unit Owners, mortgagees, lessees, sublessees and other occupants of Units and employees and guests of Unit Owners, as well as all other persons who may use the facilities of the Property, are and shall be subject to the Declaration, these By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations (as hereinafter defined). The acceptance of a deed or conveyance, or the succeeding to title to, or the execution of a lease or sublease for, or the act of occupancy of, a Unit shall constitute an agreement that the provisions of these By-Laws, the Rules and Regulations and the Declaration are accepted, ratified, and will be complied with.

1.3 Principal Office of Condominium. The principal office of the Condominium shall be located within the Property or at such other place within the Borough of Kings reasonably convenient thereto, as may be designated from time to time by the Condominium Board (as hereinafter defined).

BOARD OF MANAGERS

(a) Number, Term and Qualification.

2.1.1 As more particularly set forth in 2.2, the affairs of the Condominium shall be governed by a board of managers of the Condominium (the "Condominium Board"). From and after the first annual meeting of Unit Owners as provided in Section 3.1, the Condominium Board shall consist of three persons elected by the Unit Owners, subject to Declarant's 3.9.3 rights. The Condominium Board is herein sometimes referred to collectively as the "Board".

2.1.2 Each member of the Condominium except for the first Board as provided in 2.4 and except as otherwise provided herein, shall be elected at the annual meetings of Unit Owners and shall serve until the next annual meeting thereof and until successors have been elected and qualified. There shall be no limit on the number of successive terms a Board member may serve.

2.1.3 Except for Board members elected or designated by Declarant or its designee (a) all members of the Condominium Board shall be either Unit Owners or officers, directors, shareholders, partners, principals, employees or beneficiaries of corporations, partnerships, fiduciaries or any other entities which own Units, Permitted Mortgagees, or family members of any of the foregoing. Other than Board members elected or designated by Declarant or its designee no Board member shall continue to serve after he ceases to be qualified as set forth above. As used herein the term "Permitted Mortgagee" means the holder of any mortgage ("Permitted Mortgage") of a Unit or Units which is permitted to be placed thereon pursuant to these By-Laws.

1.2 Powers and Duties.

2.2.1 The Board shall have the powers and duties necessary for or incidental to the administration of the affairs of the Condominium (except such powers and duties which by law, the Declaration or these By-Laws may not be delegated to the Board by the Unit Owners). All other determinations with respect to the administration of the affairs of the Condominium shall be made by the Condominium Board.

2.2.2 Subject to the provisions of 2.2.1 and without limiting the generality thereof:

2.2.2.1 The Condominium Board shall be entitled to make determinations with respect to the following matters:

Borrowing money on behalf of the Condominium, when required in connection with the operation, care, upkeep and maintenance of, or the making of repairs, replacements, restorations or additions to or alterations of, the Common Elements; provided, however, that (i) the consent of at least 51% in Common Interest of all Unit Owners shall be required for any borrowings in excess of the aggregate amount of $100,000 in any one fiscal year (regardless of the balance of any loans outstanding from previous years), and (ii) no lien to secure repayment of any sum borrowed may be created on any Unit or its appurtenant interest in the Common Elements without the consent of the owner of such Unit. If any sum borrowed by the Condominium Board pursuant to the authority contained in this subparagraph 2.2.2.1(k) is not repaid by said Board, a Unit Owner who pays to the creditor such proportion thereof as his interest in the Common Elements bears to the interest of all the Unit Owners in the Common Elements shall be entitled to obtain from the creditor a release of any judgment or other lien which said creditor has filed or has the right to file against such Unit Owner's Unit.

2.2.2.2.l. Organizing corporations to act as designees of the Condominium Board with respect to such matters as the Board may determine.

2.2.2.2.n. Prepare, execute and record, on behalf of all Unit Owners, as their attorney-in-fact, coupled with an interest, a restatement of the Declaration and/or these By-Laws whenever, in the Condominium Board's estimation, it is advisable to consolidate and restate all amendments, modifications, additions and deletions theretofore made to the Declaration and/or these By-Laws.

2.2.2.2.o. Obtaining and reviewing insurance for the Property, including the Units, pursuant to the provisions of 6.2.

2.2.2.2.s. Operation, maintenance and supervision of all Common Elements and the Limited Common Elements.

2.2.2.1.t To establish reasonable rules for the use of other portions of the Building.

2.2.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these By-Laws, so long as Declarant or its designee shall continue to own at least two (2) Unsold Units but in no event later than five years from the First Closing of a sale made under an Offering Plan, the Condominium Board may, without Declarant's prior written approval: (i) make any addition, alteration or improvement to the Common Elements or to the Limited Common Elements or to any Unit; (ii) increase or decrease the number, or change the kind of employees initially hired for the Condominium; (iii) enter into any service or maintenance contract for work not covered in the initial projected budget for the Condominium or otherwise provide services in excess of those contemplated by such projected budget, except as is required to reflect normal annual increases in operating services; (iv) borrow money on behalf of the Condominium; (v) assess any Common Charges for the creation of, addition to or replacement of all or part of a reserve, contingency or surplus fund; or (vi) exercise a right of first refusal to lease or purchase a Unit; provided that Declarant's written consent is not necessary to perform any function or take any action described in items (i) through (vi) above if and only if the performance of such function or the carrying out of such an action is necessary and no other alternative is available to enable the Condominium Board to comply with laws, rules or regulations of any governmental authority having jurisdiction over the Condominium.

2.3 Managing Agents and Managers. With respect to matters the determinations concerning which the Board is entitled to make, the Board may employ a managing agent and/or a manager at a compensation established by the Board to perform such duties and services as the Board shall authorize. The Board may delegate to such managing agent or manager other powers granted to the Board by these By-Laws, except the powers set forth in 2.2.2.1(b), (e), (g), (h), (l), (m), (n) and (o).

2.4 First Board. The Condominium Board shall initially consist of the three (3) persons designated by Declarant to initially comprise the Condominium Board. The various Board members shall be deemed to have been "elected" as members of the Board for the purposes of these By-Laws. Within thirty (30) days after the later to occur of (i) the second anniversary of the First Closing; or (ii) the Closing of title with Purchasers under the Plan to two (2) units held by the Sponsor or its principals of the three Units in the Building, the Condominium Board will call for the first annual meeting of Unit Owners for the purpose of electing a new Board in accordance with the provisions of 3.1. The terms of each such member of the Board shall expire annually. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for as long as Declarant has the voting power to elect all members of the Board, the Board shall have three (3) members.

2.5 Resignation and Removal. The Board member may resign at any time by written notice delivered or sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the Board. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein and, unless specifically requested, acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. Subject to the provisions of 3.9.3, any Board member may be removed, with or without cause, by a majority vote of Unit Owners present in person or by proxy at a regular or special meeting of Unit Owners at which a quorum is present. The Board member whose removal has been proposed shall be given an opportunity to be heard at the meeting. Notwithstanding the above, Board members designated by Declarant or its designee may only be removed with cause and replaced as described in 2.6. In addition, any member of the Board who is designated as such by Declarant or its designee, may be removed by such designating party at any time, with or without cause, and the party making such removal shall have the right to designate the replacement for such member.

2.6 Vacancies. Subject to the provisions of 3.9.3, any vacancy on the Board for whatever reason shall be filled by the members of the Board then in office, at a special meeting of the Board held for that purpose promptly after the occurrence of any such vacancy even though the members present at such meeting may constitute less than a quorum, and any person so elected shall be a member of the Board until the next annual meeting of the Unit Owners, when a successor shall be elected for the remainder of the term of the member creating such vacancy. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these By-Laws, in the case of a vacancy on the Board, created by the resignation, removal or any other cause which results in the Board member designated by Declarant or its designee, ceasing to be a member of any the Board, Declarant or its designee, as the case may be, shall have the sole right to designate a replacement for such member.

2.7 Organizational Meetings of the Board. The first meetings of the Condominium Board following each annual meeting of the Unit Owners shall be held immediately following each such annual meeting.

However, in the event of a foreclosure sale of a Unit by a Permitted Mortgagee, the owner of such Unit prior to the foreclosure sale shall remain liable for the payment of all unpaid Common Charges which accrued prior to such sale. Except to the extent prohibited by law, the Condominium Board, on behalf of all Unit Owners, shall have a lien on each Unit for unpaid Common Charges, together with interest thereon, assessed against such Unit. All liens provided for in 6.4.2, to the extent permitted by applicable law, shall be subordinate to the lien of any first Permitted Mortgage of record and to liens for real estate taxes on the Unit.

6.4.3 Notwithstanding 6.4.2, neither the seller nor the purchaser of a Unit shall be liable for, nor shall the Unit be conveyed subject to a lien for, any unpaid Common Charges against such Unit accrued prior to such conveyance in excess of the amount set forth in a written statement from the Condominium Board.

6.4.4 In the event that prior to the Units being separately assessed for real estate tax purposes, a Board pays real estate taxes on behalf of a Unit Owner, the amount of such real estate taxes shall be deemed to be Common Charges, and the Board shall have a lien (as provided in Section 6.4.2) for any such accrued and unpaid amounts.

6.5 Collection of Common Charges. The Board shall take prompt action to collect any Common Charges due to the Board which remain unpaid for more than thirty days after the due date for payment thereof.

6.6 Default in Payment of Common Charges. In the event any Unit Owner fails to make payment of Common Charges when due, such Unit Owner shall be obligated to pay (a) a "late charge" equal to the greater of $150.00 or one (1%) percent of such amounts which remain unpaid for more than ten days from their due date (although nothing herein shall be deemed to extend the period within which such amounts are to be paid), and (b) interest at the rate of 1.5% per month (but in no event in excess of the maximum rate permitted by law) on such unpaid amounts computed from the due date, thereof, together with all expenses, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees paid or incurred by the Board or by any managing agent in any proceeding brought to collect such unpaid Common Charges or in any action to foreclose the lien on such Unit arising from said unpaid Common Charges as provided in Section 339-z of the New York Condominium Act, in the manner provided in Section 339-aa thereof or in any other manner permitted by law. All such "late charges", interest and expenses shall be added to and shall constitute Common Charges payable by such Unit Owner. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board may establish its own alternate fees for late payments, whether such fees are more or less than the charges set forth herein.

6.7 Foreclosure of Liens for Unpaid Common Charges. In any action brought by the Board to foreclose a lien on a Unit because of unpaid Common Charges, the Unit Owner shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the use and occupancy of his Unit and the plaintiff in such foreclosure action shall be entitled to the appointment, without notice, of a receiver to collect the same. The Condominium Board, acting on behalf of all Unit Owners, shall have the power to purchase any such Unit at the foreclosure sale thereof and to acquire, hold, lease, mortgage, convey or otherwise deal with such Unit or portion thereof (but not to vote the votes appurtenant to such Unit or portion thereof). A suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid Common Charges shall be maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing such charges. In the event the net proceeds received on such foreclosure sale (after deduction of all legal fees, advertising costs, brokerage commissions and other costs and expenses incurred in connection therewith) are insufficient to satisfy the defaulting Unit Owner's obligations, such Unit Owner shall remain liable for the deficit.

6.8 Statement of Common Charges. The Board shall promptly provide any Unit Owner who so requests, with a written statement of all unpaid Common Charges due to it from Unit Owners.

6.9 Maintenance and Repairs.

6.9.1 Except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or these By-Laws, all painting, decorating, maintenance, repairs and replacements, whether structural or nonstructural, ordinary or extraordinary, (a) in or to any Unit (excluding Common Elements included therein except as otherwise provided in these By-Laws and the entrance doors thereto) shall be made by the owner of such Unit at such Unit Owner's sole cost and expense, or (b) in or to the Common Elements shall be made by the Condominium Board and the cost and expense thereof shall be charged to the Unit Owners as a Common Expense.

6.9.2 Notwithstanding the provisions of 6.9.1:

6.9.2.1 In the event that any painting, decorating, maintenance, repairs or replacements to the Property or any part thereof is necessitated by the negligence, misuse or neglect of (a) any Unit Owner, the entire cost thereof shall be borne by such Unit Owner, (b) the Condominium Board, the entire cost thereof shall be charged to the Unit Owners as a Common Expense, except in all such cases to the extent such cost is covered by the proceeds of any insurance maintained pursuant to the provisions hereof

6.9.2.2 The interior and exterior glass surfaces of all windows located in any Unit shall not be colored or painted and the windows may not be modified, altered or replaced without the consent of the Board. The rear yard and storage area are Limited Common Elements. All normal maintenance, repairs and replacements of the rear yard and storage area shall be made by the Unit Owner having access to such rear yard or storage area at his or her own cost and expense, but any structural or extraordinary repairs or replacements to such rear yard and storage area (including any leaks which are not caused by the negligence of the Unit Owner having access to the same) shall be made by the Condominium Board and the cost and expense thereof shall be charged to all Unit Owners as a Common Expense. No plantings, structures or installations may be placed on a rear yard without the prior written approval of the Condominium Board. The Condominium Board may require a Unit Owner to remove plantings and other installations placed on a rear yard by said Unit Owners if the Condominium Board determines, in its reasonable discretion, that such plantings and other installations adversely affect the integrity of the surface beneath the rear yard. The Condominium Board may establish such other rules and regulations it deems necessary to protect the Common Elements and the Units and to insure the integrity of the Building and the health and safety of the occupants.

6.9.2.3 The repair, replacement and maintenance of all windows in a Unit is a Unit Owner responsibility. The exterior surface of all windows in the Condominium if so determined by the Condominium Board, shall be washed and cleaned by the Board and the cost and expense thereof shall be a Common Expense. Otherwise, the exterior of all windows in the Condominium shall be washed or cleaned at the cost and expense of the Unit Owner. The interior glass surfaces of all windows located in any Unit and the exterior glass surfaces of all windows located in the Unit shall be washed and cleaned by the Unit Owner or occupant thereof at its sole cost and expense.

6.9.2.4 The exterior of all front doors of Units shall not be painted or decorated other than in accordance with the standard for the Condominium.

6.9.3 Each Unit and all portions of the Common Elements shall be kept in first-class condition (and with respect to any rear yard or other part of the Property exposed to the elements, free of snow, ice and accumulation of water) by the Unit Owner or Board, whichever is responsible for the maintenance thereof as set forth herein, and such Unit Owner or Board, as the case may be, shall promptly make or perform, or cause to be made or performed, all maintenance work, repairs and replacements necessary in connection therewith. In addition, the public areas of the Building and those areas exposed to public view shall be kept in good, clean and neat appearance, in conformity with the dignity and character of the Building, by (a) the Board with respect to such parts of the Building required to be maintained by it, and (b) each Unit Owner with respect to the windows and shades, venetian or other blinds, drapes, curtains or other window decorations in or appurtenant to his Unit.

6.10 Violations of Maintenance Obligations.

6.10.1 In the event that any Unit Owner, within a reasonable time after receipt of written notice from the Condominium Board, fails to perform any of its obligations with respect to the painting, decorating, maintenance, repair or replacement of its Unit as provided in this Article 6 or of any Limited Common Element for which such Unit Owner is responsible under the Declaration or these By-Laws, the Condominium Board may, but shall not be obligated to, perform or cause to be performed such painting, decorating, maintenance, repair or replacement unless such Unit Owner, within thirty (30) days after receiving notice of such default from the Condominium Board, cures such default, or in the case of a default not reasonably susceptible to cure within such period, commences and thereafter prosecutes to completion, with due diligence, the curing of such default. All sums expended and all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the making of any such painting, decorating, maintenance, repair or replacement by the Condominium Board, together with interest thereon at the rate of 2% per month from the date on which the Board first incurs any cost or expense (but in no event in excess of the maximum rate permitted by law), shall be immediately payable by such Unit Owner to the Board and shall, for all purposes hereunder, constitute Common Charges payable by such Unit Owner.

6.11 Structural Alterations, Additions, Improvements and Repairs of Units.

6.11.1 Except as otherwise provided in the Declaration, no Unit Owner shall make any structural alteration, addition, improvement or repair in or to his or her Unit without the prior written approval of the Condominium. The Board shall have the obligation to answer any written request by their respective Unit Owners for approval of a proposed structural alteration, addition, improvement or repair in or to such Unit Owner's Unit within 30 days after such request is received, and the failure to do so within the stipulated time shall constitute the Board's consent to the proposed alteration, addition, improvement or repair. Prior to, and as a condition of, the granting of its consent to the making of a structural alteration, addition, improvement or repair in or to a Unit, the Board may exercise the right to reasonably approve the Unit Owner's contractors and suppliers, and may, at its option, require the Unit Owner to execute an agreement in form and substance satisfactory to the Board setting forth the terms and conditions under which such alteration, addition, improvement or repair may be made, including, without limitation, the days and hours during which any work may be done. The Board may impose fees upon a Unit Owner to reimburse the Condominium for its costs incurred in reviewing or supervising the aforesaid work. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this 6.11.1, neither Declarant or its designee nor a Permitted Mortgagee (or its designee) of Declarant or its assignee shall be required to obtain the approval of the Board for any structural alteration, addition, improvement or repair in or to Unsold Units or enter into any alteration agreement with respect thereto.

6.11.2 All structural alterations, additions, improvements and repairs by Unit Owners shall be made in compliance with all laws, rules, ordinances and regulations of all governmental authorities having jurisdiction thereof. A Unit Owner making or causing to be made any structural alteration, addition, improvement or repair shall agree, and shall be deemed to have agreed, to hold the Board and all other Unit Owners harmless from any costs or liability arising therefrom.

6.11.3 Any application to any department of The City of New York or to any other governmental authority having jurisdiction thereof for a permit to make a structural alteration, addition, improvement or repair in or to any Unit so approved by the Board shall, if required by law or such department or authority, be executed by the Board or, provided that the Board shall incur any liability, cost or expense in connection with such application or to any contractor, subcontractor, materialman, architect or engineer on account of such alteration, addition, improvement or repair or to any person having any claim for injury to person or damage to property arising therefrom. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth above, Declarant is hereby authorized on behalf of the Board to execute such applications, permits or other documents as may be required to undertake, perform and complete such work to the Unsold Units and Common Elements as Declarant is entitled to perform in accordance with the terms of the Declaration and these By-Laws and to obtain such certificates of completion as may then be required by Law (collectively the "Required Documentation") and, the Board, if requested by Declarant, shall execute the Required Documentation.

6.11.4 In the event that any alterations, additions, improvements or repairs made by any Unit Owner materially delay, prevent or adversely affect, or create a significant risk of materially delaying, preventing or adversely affecting, whether directly or indirectly, the issuance or reissuance of a temporary or permanent certificate of occupancy for other Units or the building, then upon the written request of Declarant, the Condominium Board whose Unit Owners are affected, the Unit Owner shall restore the Unit, at such Unit Owner's sole cost and expense, to its original condition. If such Unit Owner fails to commence diligently and continuously restoring the Unit within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the written request, then the Declarant or the Board, as the case may be, requesting such restoration shall be entitled to enter and restore the Unit at the expense of the Unit Owner and to exercise any other remedies provided in these By-Laws.

6.11.5 Until such time as the initial construction of the building is complete, including the completion of "punch list" work, neither the Board nor the Unit Owner shall use or suffer to be used in any part of the Buildings any labor forces incompatible with the labor forces which are completing the construction of the building on behalf of Declarant. In addition, the prosecution of the work necessary to complete initial construction of the building, including the completion of "punch list" work by or on behalf of Declarant, shall take precedence over the prosecution of any other work at the Buildings.

6.12 Alterations, Additions, Improvements or Repairs to Common Elements. Except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or these By-Laws, all alterations, additions, improvements or repairs in or to any Common Element or Limited Common Element shall be made by the Board or Unit Owner(s) required to maintain such Common Element or Limited Common Element and the cost and expense thereof shall be charged to the Unit Owners as a Common Expense. Whenever in the judgment of the Condominium Board, the cost of any alteration, addition, or improvement would exceed $50,000 in the aggregate in any calendar year (except if such alteration, addition, or improvement is provided for in a duly approved budget), then such proposed alteration, addition, or improvement shall not be made unless first approved by a Majority of Unit Owners, who shall be required to bear the cost and expense thereof as aforesaid with respect to alterations, additions, or improvements made by the Board. Except as otherwise provided in the Declaration or these By-Laws, all such alterations, additions, or improvements costing in the aggregate $50,000 or less in any calendar year may be made as aforesaid without the approval of the Unit Owners. Required repairs to the Common Elements including replacement of existing elements of the Buildings shall be made by the Board in its own discretion regardless of the cost.

6.13 Alterations of Certain Common Elements.

6.13.1 In the event that pursuant to any of the provisions of these By-Laws, any consent by the Board or Unit Owner is required as a condition precedent to any alteration, addition or improvement to any Common Element (sometimes collectively referred to in this Section 6.13 as an "Alteration"), proposed to be made by Declarant or its designee, Unit Owners or the Board (sometimes collectively referred to herein as the "Proponent"), such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed by the Board or Unit Owner (referred to in this Section 6.13 as the "Opposing Party") whose consent is so required. The Proponent shall give to the Opposing Party notice setting forth in reasonable detail the material aspects of such proposed Alteration. If the Opposing Party does not give notice of any objection to the Proponent within 30 days after the Proponent gives its notice, then the Opposing Party shall be deemed to have consented to the making of the proposed Alteration. If the Opposing Party does give notice of objection (which notice of objection shall set forth in reasonable detail the specific objections of the Opposing Party) within such 30-day period and the Proponent considers such objection unreasonable, then the Proponent may submit to Arbitration the question of whether or not the Opposing Party unreasonably withheld its consent. If in such Arbitration it is determined that the Opposing Party unreasonably withheld its consent, the Proponent, as its sole remedy, may make the proposed Alteration. In no event shall any arbitrator in such Arbitration determine that the Opposing Party reasonably withheld its consent to such proposal if (a) the Proponent makes or causes to be made reasonable provisions providing (i) for the costs and expenses of the Alteration to be paid by it, and (ii) that all costs and expenses for maintaining and repairing such Alteration after its completion will not be charged to Unit Owners represented by the Opposing Party as Common Expenses (b) the proposed Alteration would not materially interfere with the use and enjoyment of the owners, tenants and occupants of those Units represented by the Opposing Party; and (c) the proposed Alteration would not materially weaken the structure of the building.

6.13.2 Nothing contained in 6.13.1 shall in any way be deemed to limit (a) the Proponent's right to modify any proposal made by it thereunder in such a manner as such Proponent believes will meet the objections of the Opposing Party or of any arbitrator, or (b) any party's right, pursuant to the other applicable provisions of these By-Laws or the Declaration, to make any Alteration to a Common Element without the Opposing Party's approval.

6.14 Restrictions on Use of Units.

6.14.1 In order to provide for congenial occupancy of the Property and for the protection of the values of the Units, each Unit shall be used as described below.

6.14.1.1 A Unit may be used for any purpose permitted by law, provided such use (1) does not violate the then existing certificate of occupancy for such Unit, (2) does not adversely affect the use and enjoyment of neighboring or adjacent Units for residential purposes, and (3) complies with all applicable governmental regulations.

6.14.1.2 No portion of a Unit (other than the entire Unit) may be sold, conveyed, leased or subleased, and no transient occupant (other than a guest permitted under this Subsection 6.14.1) may be accommodated therein.

6.14.1.3 Each Unit Owner shall notify the Managing Agent in writing when a child or children under the age of ten (10) years lives or resides (even temporarily) in the Unit. Each Unit Owner shall install at such Unit Owner's expense, the required window guards in all windows of the Unit. The Unit Owner shall maintain all window guards installed in the Unit and shall not remove same until permitted by applicable law and in any event, without full knowledge of the Managing Agent. Please see the Section of the Plan entitled "Rights and Obligations of Unit Owners and the Board of Managers" for further details.

6.14.2 Notwithstanding the provisions of 6.14.1, Declarant or its designee may, without the permission of the Condominium Board, (a) grant permission for the use of any Unsold Unit as a professional office or for any purpose, provided such use is permitted by law, does not violate the Deed Restrictions, does not violate the then existing certificate of occupancy for such Unit and the user of such Unit complies with all applicable governmental regulations. and (b) use any Unsold Units as models and sales and/or promotion offices in connection with the sale or rental of the Units or for any other purpose, subject only to the provisions of the Declaration and these By-laws and in compliance with applicable governmental laws and regulations.

6.14.3 The Condominium Board may, in its sole discretion, consent to the use of a Unit as a professional or business office or for any purpose provided that the nature and manner of such use complies with Law and does not violate the then existing Certificate of Occupancy covering the Building. Any such consent shall be in writing and shall be personal to such Unit Owner. Any lessee of, or successor in title to, such Unit Owner shall be required to obtain the prior written consent of the Condominium Board before using such Unit for any purpose other than that set forth in paragraph 6.14.1.

6.15 Use of Common Elements.

6.15.1 Common Elements may be used only for the furnishing of the services and facilities and for the other uses for which they are reasonably suited.

6.15.2 No furniture, packages or objects of any kind shall be placed in the lobbies, vestibules, public halls, stairways, public elevators or any other parts of the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements other than in (a) Limited Common Elements for the exclusive use of a particular Unit Owner or (b) in the areas designated as storage areas, without the prior consent of the Condominium Board as to the Common Elements. The lobbies, vestibules, public halls, stairways and public elevators shall be used only for normal passage through them.

6.15.3 Unit Owners shall require their tradesmen to utilize exclusively the elevator and entrance designated by the Condominium Board for transporting packages, merchandise or other objects.

6.15.4 The owner of any two or more Units, which Units are serviced or benefited by any Common Element adjacent or appurtenant to such Units (for example, that portion at the end of any residential hallway which is directly adjacent to any such Units located on opposite sides of such hallway) shall, to the extent permitted by law and with the consent of the Condominium Board (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed), have the exclusive right of use of such Common Element as if it were a part of such Units (including the right, in the above example of a portion of a hallway, to enclose such portion) and no amendment to the Declaration nor reallocation of Common Interests shall be made, provided such owner agrees, at its sole cost and expense, to (a) be responsible for the operation, maintenance and repair of such Common Element for so long as such owner exercises such exclusive right of use, and (b) restore such Common Element to its original condition, reasonable wear and tear excepted, after such owner ceases to exercise such exclusive right of use. The owner of any such Units which are Unsold Units shall have the rights set forth in the preceding sentence without the necessity for obtaining the consent of the Board. Notwithstanding the above, if an owner transfers or conveys his or her Unit to a successor owner, the transferor need not comply with (b) above provided that the transferee agrees to abide by (a) and (b) above.

6.16 Other Provisions as to Use. No nuisance shall be allowed in the Condominium nor shall any use or practice be allowed in the Condominium which is a source of annoyance to the residents or occupants of the Property or which interferes with the peaceful possession or proper use of the Property by its residents or occupants. No immoral, improper, offensive or unlawful use shall be made of the Condominium or any portion thereof. All valid laws, zoning ordinances and regulations of governmental bodies having jurisdiction thereof, relating to any portion of the Property shall be complied with at the full expense of the respective Unit Owners or the Board, whoever shall have the obligation to maintain or repair such part of the Property.

6.17.1 A Unit Owner shall grant a right of access to his or her Unit to the Declarant for the completion of the Building including but not limited to any punch list work in such Unit Owner's Unit, and to the Board, the managing agents, managers, and/or any other person authorized by any of the foregoing. A Unit Owner shall grant a right of access to his or her Unit, and the Board shall grant rights of access to the Common Elements and the respective Limited Common Elements to Declarant and its contractors, subcontractors, agents and employees, for the completion of punch list work, provided that access thereto shall be exercised upon reasonable notice during reasonable hours in such a manner as will not unreasonably interfere with the use of the Units for their permitted purposes.

6.18 Rules and Regulations. Annexed hereto as Schedule A and made a part hereof are rules and regulations (the "Rules and Regulations") concerning the use of the Common Elements and Limited Common Elements. The Condominium Board may from time to time, modify, amend or add to the Rules and Regulations except that a Majority of Unit Owners may overrule the Board with respect to any such modification, amendment or addition. The Condominium Board shall also have the authority to promulgate special rules and regulations concerning the use of storage space, if any, for the personal property of the Unit Owners.

6.19 Real Estate Taxes, Water Charges and Sewer Rents. Water and sewer services shall be supplied to and for all of the Units and the Limited Common Elements through one or more building systems by the City of New York. Except to the extent Unit Owners are billed directly by the City Collector, the Condominium Board shall pay all such charges, together with all related sewer rents arising therefrom, promptly after the bills for the same shall have been rendered. Until the Units are separately assessed for real estate tax purposes, the Unit Owners shall pay their respective pro rata share of all real estate taxes with respect to the Property (in the proportion that the Common Interest bears to the Common Interests of all Units) to the Condominium Board as Common Charges, which will in turn pay such taxes to the proper authorities of The City of New York. In the event of a proposed sale of any Unit, the Residential Board, on request of the selling Unit Owner, shall execute and deliver to the purchaser of such Unit or to such purchaser's title insurance company, a letter agreeing to pay all charges for water, sewer rents and real estate taxes (so long as such Board is still collecting and paying such charges) affecting such owner's Unit to the date of the closing of title to such Unit, promptly after such charges have been billed by the proper authorities.

6.20 Flip Tax. If a Unit Owner sells a Unit without occupying it for at least three (3) of any five (5) year period from the date of acquiring ownership, the Unit Owner will pay a Flip Tax of three (3%) percent of the sales price of the Unit.

6.21 Heat. Heat for the Building shall be supplied by a boiler powered by electricity supplied by the Con Edison gas distribution system and the charges thereof shall be paid by the Unit Owners as a common charge expense.

6.22 Gas. Gas for the Building (including all Units) will be supplied from the Con Edison gas distribution system and charges therefor shall be paid by the Unit Owners as a common charge expense.

6.23 Electricity.

6.23.1 Electricity for each Unit shall be supplied through a separate electric meter for each Unit (or portion thereof). Each Unit Owner shall be required to pay the bills for electricity consumed or used in its Unit (or portion thereof) directly to the utility company. In addition, there will be a house electric meter to serve the common facilities.

6.23.2 Nothing contained herein shall preclude the Condominium Board, on behalf of Unit Owners, from filing a complaint concerning electricity provided to the Property with the Public Service Commission.

6.23.3 The violation or breach of any of the provisions of these By-Laws, any of the Rules and Regulations or the Declaration with respect to any rights, easements, privileges or licenses granted to Declarant or its designee shall give to Declarant and its designee the right, in addition to any other rights set forth in these By-Laws or the Declaration, to enjoin, abate or remedy by appropriate legal proceedings, either at law or in equity, the continuance of any such violation or breach.

MORTGAGES

7.1 Notice to the Board. A Unit Owner who mortgages his or her Unit, or the holder of any mortgage encumbering such Unit, shall notify the Condominium Board of the name and address of the mortgagee and shall file a conformed copy of the note and mortgage with the Board. Such Unit Owner shall, prior to making such mortgage, satisfy all unpaid liens against his or her Unit other than Permitted Mortgages. A Unit Owner who satisfies a mortgage covering his or her Unit shall so notify the Board and shall file a conformed copy of the satisfaction of mortgage with the Board. The Board shall maintain such information in a book entitled "Mortgages of Units."

7.2 Notice of Default and Unpaid Common Charges. Whenever so requested in writing by a Permitted Mortgagee, the Condominium Board shall promptly report to such Permitted Mortgagee any default in the payment Common or any other default by the Unit Owner of such Unit under the provisions of the Declaration or these By-Laws which may to the Board's knowledge then exist. The Board, when giving notice to a Unit Owner of any such default, shall, if requested, also send a copy of such notice to any Permitted Mortgagee thereof.

7.3 Performance by Permitted Mortgagees. The Board shall accept, by any Permitted Mortgagee of a Unit Owner, payment of any sum or performance of any act required to be paid or performed by such Unit Owner pursuant to the provisions of the Declaration, these By-Laws or the Rules and Regulations, with the same force and effect as though paid or performed by such Unit Owner.

7.4 Examination of Books. Each Unit Owner and Permitted Mortgagee shall be permitted to examine the books of account of the Condominium at reasonable times, on business days, but not more than twice a year.

7.5 Representatives of Mortgagees.

7.5.1 In the manner more particularly set forth in 7.5.2, the holders of Institutional Mortgages (as hereinafter defined) may, at their election, designate one or more (but not more than three) representatives ("Mortgage Representatives") who shall be empowered to act on behalf of all holders of Institutional Mortgages, with respect to any matter requiring their consent or approval under the Declaration or these By-Laws. If any Mortgage Representatives are so designated and notice thereof is given to the Board, as appropriate, the act of any such Representative (or a majority of such Representatives if more than one is so designated) shall be deemed binding upon the holders of all Institutional Mortgages. As used herein, the term and "Institutional Mortgage" means an Institutional Mortgage (defined below) covering a Unit or Units. As used herein the terms "Permitted Mortgage" and "Institutional Mortgage" means any first mortgage covering a Unit or Units, the initial holder of which is (i) Declarant or its designee, (ii) a savings bank, savings and loan association, bank or trust company, insurance company, real estate investment trust or mortgage trust, or (iii) a federal, state, municipal, teacher's or union employee, welfare, pension or retirement fund or system.

7.5.2 Any designation of a Mortgage Representative made by the holders of Institutional Mortgages, constituting at least sixty-seven percent (67%) in principal amount of all Institutional Mortgages, shall be binding upon the holders of all Institutional Mortgages. Any such designation of any Mortgage Representative shall remain effective until (a) any subsequent designation thereof is made pursuant to the provisions hereof, and (b) notice of such subsequent designation is given to the Board. Unless otherwise required by law, all Permitted Mortgagees other than holders of an Institutional Mortgage, shall have no right to participate in the selection of Mortgage Representatives, but such Permitted Mortgagees shall be subject to all determinations made by such Mortgage Representatives, pursuant to the Declaration or these By-Laws.

7.6 Consent of Mortgagees. Except as otherwise expressly provided for herein or in the Declaration, no consent or approval by any mortgagee shall be required with respect to any determination or act of the Board, officer or Unit Owner; provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall be deemed to limit or affect the rights of any mortgagee against his mortgagor. In the event the Condominium has a written proposal to amend the Declaration or By-Laws or consent of the Mortgage Representatives is required under the Declaration or the By-Laws, such consent will be deemed given if the Mortgage Representatives fail to respond after sixty (60) days written notice of any request of consent, provided such notice was delivered by certified or registered mail with a return receipt requested. Permitted Mortgagees shall also be given written notice of the following events: (a) condemnation; (b) casualty loss; (c) sixty (60) day delinquency for unpaid common charges of a Unit Owner; (d) lapse, cancellation, or material changes to the master insurance policy of the Condominium; and (e) any action that requires the consent of a specified percentage of Permitted Mortgagees.

SELLING, LEASING AND MORTGAGING OF UNITS

8.1 Selling and Leasing. No Unit Owner, other than Declarant or its designee may sell or lease his or her Unit except by complying with the following provisions:

8.1.1 Any Unit Owner who receives a bona fide offer to (a) purchase his or her Unit together with its appurtenant Common Interest, or (b) lease his or her Unit (such offer to purchase or lease a Unit, as the case may be, is called an "Outside Offer", the party making any such Outside Offer is called an "Outside Offeror" and the Unit Owner to whom the Outside Offer is made is called an "Offeree Unit Owner"), which he or she intends to accept, shall give notice by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to the Condominium Board of the receipt of such Outside Offer. Said notice shall include the name and address of the Outside Offeror, the terms of the proposed transaction (including, but not limited to, the intended closing date in the event of a purchase or intended occupancy date in the event of a lease) and such other information as the Board may reasonably require. The giving of such notice to the Condominium Board, on behalf of all the Unit Owners represented by the Board, shall constitute an offer by such Unit Owner to sell his or her Unit together with its appurtenant Common Interest or to lease his or her Unit to the Board, or its designee, corporate or otherwise, upon the same terms and conditions as contained in such Outside Offer and shall also constitute a representation and warranty by the Unit Owner who has received such Outside Offer to the Board acting on behalf of all Unit Owners that such Unit Owner believes the Outside Offer to be bona fide in all respects. The Offeree Unit Owner shall submit in writing such further information with respect thereto as the Board may reasonably request. Not later than twenty (20) days after receipt of such notice together with such information as may have been requested, the Board may elect, by sending written notice to such Offeree Unit Owner before the expiration of said twenty (20) day period, by hand delivery or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to purchase such Unit together with its appurtenant Common Interest or to lease such Unit, as the case may be (or to cause the same to be purchased or leased by its designee, corporate or otherwise), on behalf of all Unit Owners represented by the Board, upon the same terms and conditions as contained in the Outside Offer and as stated in the notice from the Offeree Unit Owner. The Board may use funds from any of the Condominium's reserves towards the purchase and maintenance of the Unit or may impose a special assessment on all Unit Owners to cover such costs.

8.1.2 In the event the Condominium Board shall timely elect to purchase a Unit together with its appurtenant Common Interest or to lease such Unit or to cause the same to be purchased or leased by its designee, corporate or otherwise, then (a) with respect to a purchase, title shall close at the office of the attorneys for the Board, in accordance with the terms of the Outside Offer, within 45 days after the giving of notice by the Board of its election to accept such offer and (b) with respect to a lease, the lease, upon the terms set forth in the Outside Offer, shall be executed and deemed effective on the date the Board elects to accept such offer. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the closing date with respect to a purchase or the commencement date of the term of the lease, as the case may be, set forth in the Outside Offer, shall be later than 45 days after the giving of notice by the Board of its election to accept the aforesaid offer, the Board shall be required to perform or cause to be performed all of the terms of the Outside Offer (except as otherwise expressly set forth in this Article 8) including, but not limited to, payment of a downpayment or advance rentals and security deposits, as the case may be, and such closing of title or the commencement of the term of the lease shall be the date set forth in the notice to the Board referred to in 8.1.1 as the intended closing date or commencement date, as the case may be. If pursuant to such Outside Offer, the Outside Offeror was to assume or take title to the Unit subject to the Offeree Unit Owner's existing mortgage or mortgages, the Board may purchase the Unit and assume or take title to the Unit subject to said existing mortgage or mortgages, as the case may be. At the closing, the Offeree Unit Owner, if such Unit together with its appurtenant Common Interest is to be sold, shall convey the same to the Condominium Board, or to its designee, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Unit Owners, by deed in the form required by Section 339-o of the Real Property Law of the State of New York, with all tax and/or documentary stamps affixed at the expense of such Offeree Unit Owner, who shall also pay all other taxes arising out of such sale. Real estate taxes (including water charges and sewer rents if separately assessed), mortgage interest, if any, and Common Charges shall be apportioned between the Offeree Unit Owner and the Board, or its designee, corporate or otherwise, as of the closing date. In the event such Unit is to be leased, the Offeree Unit Owner shall execute and deliver to the Board, or to its designee, corporate or otherwise, a lease between the Offeree Unit Owner, as landlord, and the Board, or its designee, corporate or otherwise, as tenant, covering such Unit, for the rental and term contained in such Outside Offer.

8.1.3 In the event the Board or its designee shall fail to accept such offer within 20 days after receipt of notice, as aforesaid, the Offeree Unit Owner shall have an additional 60 days to accept the Outside Offer by executing and delivering a contract or lease, as the case may be. In the event the Offeree Unit Owner shall not, within such 60-day period, accept in writing the Outside Offer, or if the Offeree Unit Owner shall accept the Outside Offer within such 60-day period but such sale or lease, as the case may be, shall not be consummated within an additional 60 days following the expiration of such 60-day period, then, should such Offeree Unit Owner thereafter elect to sell such Unit together with its appurtenant Common Interest or to lease such Unit, as the case may be, the Offeree Unit Owner shall be required to again comply with all the terms and provisions of this Section 8.1. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Condominium Board, in its discretion, may waive the Offeree Unit Owner's obligation to comply with either or both of the 60 day periods described herein or may extend either or both such periods, provided that such waiver or extension shall only be effective if in writing.

8.1.4 Any deed to an Outside Offeror shall be deemed to provide that the acceptance thereof by the grantee shall constitute an assumption of the provisions of the Declaration, these By-Laws and the Rules and Regulations, as the same may be amended from time to time.

8.1.5 Any lease executed in connection with the acceptance of any Outside Offer to lease a Unit shall be consistent with these By-Laws and shall provide that the lease may not be materially modified, amended or extended without the prior consent in writing of the Condominium Board, that the tenant shall not assign his interest in such lease or sublet the demised premises or any part thereof without the prior consent in writing of the Board and that the Board, if permitted by applicable law, shall have power to terminate such lease and/or to bring summary proceedings to evict the tenant in the name of the landlord thereunder, in the event of (i) a default by the tenant in the performance of its obligations under such lease, or (ii) a foreclosure of the lien granted by Section 339-z of the Real Property Law of the State of New York.

8.1.6 Except as hereinbefore set forth, the form of any such lease executed by the Condominium Board or an Outside Offeror shall be a printed, reasonably applicable form of residential lease which is generally approved by the Board which governs the Unit to be leased and is accepted in New York City, such as an appropriate Real Estate Board of New York, Inc. or Blumberg form, and shall contain such modifications as shall be approved in writing by the Board. Any lease executed by the Condominium Board as tenant shall provide that the Board may enter into a sublease of the premises without the consent of the landlord.

8.1.7 The foregoing restrictions of this Section 8.1 shall not apply to Unsold Units (including the lease of a Unit to Declarant or its designee). Declarant or its designee shall have the right to freely sell their respective Units, or to freely lease all or any part of the Unsold Units, as the case may be, without having to first offer the same for sale or lease to the Board.

8.1.8 On the closing of the sale of each Unit, the purchaser shall make a non-refundable contribution to the Condominium Reserve Fund equal to two (2) months common charges.

8.1.9 Every lease for every Unit in the Condominium is subject to the following rules and regulations, regardless of whether stated as such in the lease: (a) the lease must be in writing; (b) the lease must be for the entire Residential Unit; (c) the lease must be for a minimum and maximum of twelve (12) months and renewals shall be for a one (1) year term and are subject to review by the Board of Managers of the Condominium; (d) the use of the premises is subject to the Declaration and By-Laws of the Condominium and the rules and regulations of the entire Condominium; (e) within thirty (30) days of occupancy by the tenant, the name and telephone number of the tenant, together with a clean and clear copy of the lease, must be furnished to the Managing Agent; (f) within forty-five (45) days of any renewal of a lease of a tenant, the name and telephone number of the tenant, together with a clear and complete copy of the renewal lease, must be furnished to the Managing Agent; (g) the Unit cannot be used as a motel or hotel or otherwise for transient tenants; (h) if any Unit Owner or tenant is in violation of any of the provisions of the Declaration or By-Laws, or both, including any rules and regulations, the Board of Managers of the Condominium may bring an action in its own name or in the name of the Unit Owner, or both, to have the tenant evicted or to recover damages, or both.

If the court finds that the tenant is or has violated any of the provisions of the Declaration or By-Laws or both, or the rules and regulations of the Condominium, the court may find the tenant guilty of forcible detainer despite the fact that the Unit Owner is not a party to the action and/or that the tenant is not otherwise in violation of tenant's lease or other rental agreement with the Unit Owner. For purposes of granting the forcible detainer against the tenant, the court may consider the Unit Owner a person in whose name a contract was made for the benefit of another. The remedy provided by this subsection is not exclusive and is in addition to any other remedy or remedies available to the Condominium.

The foregoing restrictions shall not apply to Sponsor-owned Units or any mortgagee acquiring title to a Unit, in a foreclosure or otherwise.

8.2 Consent of Unit Owners to Purchase or Lease of Units by Condominium Board. The Condominium Board shall not exercise any option hereinabove set forth to purchase or lease any Unit without the prior approval of a Majority of Unit Owners. However, the Condominium Board shall have the right to release or waive such option without the prior approval of a Majority of Unit Owners. The proceeds from the sale or lease of a Unit owned by the Condominium may (at the discretion of the Board) be used to reduce the Common Charges payable by Unit Owners, be applied to the Working Capital Fund or other reserve or contingency fund, or be divided among all Unit Owners in proportion to their respective Common Interest, provided, however, that no payment shall be made to a Unit Owner until there has first been paid out of such Unit Owner's share of net proceeds, all liens on the Unit Owner's Unit, in the order of priority of such liens.

8.3 No Severance of Ownership. No Unit Owner shall execute any deed, mortgage or other instrument conveying or mortgaging title to his Unit without including therein its appurtenant Common Interest, it being the intention to prevent any severance of such combined ownership. Any such deed, mortgage or other instrument purporting to affect one or more of such interests without including all such interests shall be deemed and taken to include the interest or interests so omitted even though the latter shall not be expressly mentioned or described therein. No part of the Common Interest appurtenant to any Unit may be sold, conveyed or otherwise disposed of, except as part of a sale, conveyance or other disposition of the Unit to which such interest is appurtenant or as part of a sale, conveyance or other disposition of such part of the appurtenant Common Interests of all Units. Nothing in this Section 8.3 shall permit the lease of any Unit without the simultaneous lease of its appurtenant Common Interest.

8.4 Release by Condominium Board of Right of First Refusal. The right of first refusal contained in 8.1 may be released or waived by the Condominium Board only in the manner provided in 8.5. In the event the Condominium Board shall release or waive its right of first refusal as to any Unit, such Unit together with its appurtenant Common Interest may be sold, conveyed or leased, free and clear of the provisions of 8.1.1 and 8.1.2, provided that such sale, conveyance or lease occurs within any applicable time periods required pursuant to 8.1.3.

8.5 Certificate of Termination of Right of First Refusal. A certificate executed by an officer of the Condominium stating that the provisions of 8.1.1 have been met by a Unit Owner or stating that the right of first refusal contained therein has been duly released or waived by the Condominium Board, and that as a result thereof the rights of the Board thereunder have terminated (provided that any sale, conveyance or lease occurs within any applicable time periods required pursuant to 8.1.3), shall be conclusive upon the Board and the Unit Owners in favor of all persons who rely on such certificate in good faith. The Condominium Board shall furnish such certificate upon request to any Unit Owner with respect to whom the provisions of 8.1 .1 have, in fact, terminated.

8.6 Financing of Purchase of Units by Condominium Board. The purchase of any Unit by the Condominium Board or its designee, on behalf of all Unit Owners, may be made from the funds deposited in the capital and/or expense accounts of the Board. If the funds in such accounts are insufficient to effectuate any such purchase, the Condominium Board may levy an assessment against each Unit Owner in proportion to his respective Common Interest, as a Common Charge, and/or the Board may, in its discretion, finance the acquisition of such Unit; provided, however, that no such financing may be secured by an encumbrance or hypothecation of any portion of the Property other than the Unit to be purchased together with its (their) appurtenant Common Interest(s).

8.7 Exceptions. The provisions of 8.1 shall not apply with respect to any lease, sale or conveyance of any Unit together with its appurtenant Common Interest by (a) the Unit Owner thereof to his or her spouse, adult children or grandchildren, parents, grandparents, adult siblings or to any one or more of them or to any affiliate of the Unit Owner thereof, (b) Declarant or its designee, (c) the Condominium Board, (d) any proper officer conducting the sale of a Unit in connection with the foreclosure of a mortgage or other lien covering such Unit or delivering a deed in lieu of such foreclosure, or (e) a Permitted Mortgagee or his nominee, who has acquired title to any Unit at any foreclosure sale of his Permitted Mortgage or by deed in lieu thereof delivered in a bona fide transaction; provided, however, that each succeeding Unit Owner shall be bound by, and his Unit subject to, the provisions of this Article 8. In addition, the provisions of 8.1 shall not apply to any lease, sale or conveyance of the Non-Unit or any part thereof. The term "affiliate" shall be deemed to be an individual or entity which owns more than 50% of the legal and beneficial interest of such Unit Owner, or an entity with respect to which such Unit Owner owns more than 50% of the legal and beneficial interest.

8.8 Gifts and Devises, etc. Any Unit Owner shall be free to convey or transfer his or her Unit by gift, or may devise his or her Unit by will or have his or her Unit pass by intestacy, without being subject to the restrictions of Section 8.1; provided, however, that each succeeding Unit Owner shall be bound by, and his or her Unit subject to, the provisions of this Article 8.

8.9 Unauthorized Sales or Leases of Units. Any purported sale or lease of a Unit consummated in violation of Section 8.1 or 8.3 shall be voidable at the election of the Condominium Board and if the Board shall so elect, the Unit Owner shall be deemed to have authorized and empowered the Board to institute legal proceedings to eject the purported purchaser (in case of an unauthorized sale) or to evict the purported tenant (in case of an unauthorized leasing), in the name of the said Unit Owner as the owner or landlord, as the case may be. Said Unit Owner shall reimburse the Board for all expenses (including attorneys' fees and disbursements) incurred in connection with such proceedings.

8.10 Charges Imposed on Sale or Lease of Units. The Condominium Board shall be entitled to fix by resolution and collect, before any sale or lease of a Unit is consummated, a reasonable charge to cover its expenses, and any fees due the Managing Agent or any attorney retained by the Board, in connection with the sale or lease. If such charge is adopted, it shall be added to, and constitute a portion of, Common Charges payable by the selling or leasing Unit

Owner. The aforementioned charge shall not apply to the lease of a Unit to Declarant or its designee, to the sale or lease of Unsold Units by Declarant or its designee, or to the sale or lease of Unsold Units by a Permitted Mortgagee of Declarant that acquires title to Unsold Units. Upon the acquisition of a Unit, Purchasers of Units shall also pay to the Condominium Board two months common charges as a non-refundable contribution to working capital.

8.11 Power of Attorney. At the time of acquiring title to a Unit and as a condition thereof, the new Unit Owner shall duly execute, acknowledge and make arrangements for recording in the New York City register's office, the Unit Power of Attorney required by Article 15 of the Declaration, in the form set forth as Exhibit E to the Declaration.

8.12 Notices Concerning Unit Occupancy. Within five (5) days following acquisition of a Unit or the commencement of a lease relating thereto, the new Unit Owner or lessor, as the case may be, shall notify the Managing Agent of the Unit involved, the name of the purchaser or lessee and the names of the individuals, as permitted by the By-Laws, who will be using or occupying the Unit. The individuals so designated may be changed by the purchaser or lessor, from time to time, by further notice to the Managing Agent.

8.13 Waiver of Right of Partition with Respect to Units Acquired on Behalf of Unit Owners as Tenants-in-Common. In the event that any Unit shall be acquired by the Condominium Board, or its respective designees, corporate or otherwise, on behalf of all Unit Owners, as tenants-in-common, all such Unit Owners shall be deemed to have waived all rights of partition with respect to such acquired Unit as herein provided.

8.14 Payment of Assessments. No Unit Owner shall be permitted to convey, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate or lease his Unit unless and until he shall have paid in full to the Board all unpaid Common Charges theretofore assessed by the Board against such Unit and until such Unit Owner shall have satisfied all unpaid liens against his Unit other than Permitted Mortgages.

8.15 Mortgage of Units. Subject to Article 7 and Section 8.14, each Unit Owner shall have the right to mortgage his Unit without restriction, provided that, with respect to any mortgage covering a Unit, the Unit Owner making such mortgage shall notify in writing the Condominium Board of the making of such mortgage.

8.16 First Lien Holders' Rights.

8.16.1 Notices of Action. A holder, insurer or guarantor of a first mortgage encumbering a Unit, will be entitled to timely notice of:

- (i) Any proposed amendment of the Declaration or By-laws effecting a change in (1) the boundaries of any Unit or the exclusive easement rights appertaining thereto, (2) the Common Interests or the liability for common expenses appertaining thereto, (3) the number of votes appertaining to any Unit, or (4) the purposes to which any Unit or the Common Elements are restricted;
- (ii) Any proposed termination of the condominium regime;

(iii) Any condemnation loss or any casualty loss which affects a material portion of the Condominium or which affects any Unit on which there is a first mortgage held, insured or guaranteed by such eligible holder;

(iv) Any delinquency in the payment of Common Charges or assessments owed by the Unit Owner such to the mortgage of such eligible holder, insurer or guarantor, where such delinquency has continued for a period of sixty (60) days; and

(v) Any lapse, cancellation or material modification of any insurance policy maintained by the Condominium pursuant to the terms of these By-laws.

(vi) Any proposed action that requires the consent of a specified percentage of mortgagees.

8.16.2 Rights of First Lien Holders. To the extent allowable by law:

(i) Any restoration or repair of the Building after a partial condemnation or damage due to an insurable casualty shall be substantially in accordance with the Declaration and the original plans and specifications of the Building unless the approval of eligible holders of first mortgages encumbering the Units to which at least 51% of the Common Interests are allocated, is obtained;

(ii) Any election to terminate the Condominium regime after substantial destruction or a substantial taking in condemnation of the Property shall require the approval of eligible holders of first mortgages encumbering the Units to which at least 67% of the Common Interests are allocated; and

(iii) No reallocation of Common Interests resulting from a partial taking in condemnation or a partial destruction of the Property shall be effected without the approval of eligible holders of first mortgages encumbering the Units to which at least 51% of the Common Interests are allocated.

CONDEMNATION

In the event of the taking in condemnation or by eminent domain of all or any part of the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements, the Board, subject to the provisions set forth below, will arrange for the prompt repair and restoration of such part of the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements so taken which, pursuant to the provisions of these By-Laws, are required to be maintained by the Board. The award made for any such taking shall be payable to the Board responsible for the repair and restoration thereof, as aforesaid; provided, however, that if any such award exceeds $1,000,000, such award shall be payable to the Insurance Trustee and shall be disbursed to the contractors engaged in such repair and restoration, if any, in appropriate progress payments. If the net proceeds of any such award are insufficient to cover, or if such net proceeds exceed the cost of any repairs and restorations, the deficit or surplus, as the case may be, will be (a) borne and shared by all Unit Owners with respect to any taking of the Common Elements pro rata, as follows: first, to the Unit Owners in accordance with their respective Common Interests; thereafter, the Board shall allocate such deficit or surplus, as the case may be, pro rata, to the Unit Owners, in accordance with their respective Common Interests; (b) borne and shared by all Unit Owners with respect to any taking of the Common Elements pro rata in accordance with their Common Interests; and (c) borne and shared by all Unit Owners having exclusive access to the Limited Common Elements pro rata in accordance with their respective interest in such Limited Common Interests. Notwithstanding any provisions contained herein to the contrary, in the event that 75% or more in Common Interest of all Unit Owners do not duly and promptly resolve to proceed with such repair or restoration of their respective Common Elements, then such repairs or restorations of the Common Elements shall not be made and the net proceeds of any such award with respect thereto shall be divided among the Unit Owners pro rata in the same manner as is set forth in (a), (b) and (c) above, after first paying out of the share of each Unit Owner the amount of any unpaid liens on such Units other than mortgages which are not Permitted Mortgages. As used in this Article 9 the words "promptly resolve" shall mean not more than 60 days from the date of such taking. No party is given priority over a Permitted Mortgagee regarding the distribution of condemnation awards.

RECORDS AND AUDITS

10.1 Records. The Board or the managing agent for the Board, if any, shall keep detailed records of the actions of the Board, minutes of the meetings of the Board, minutes of the meetings of the Unit Owners and financial records and books of account with respect to the activities of the Board, including a listing of all receipts and expenditures. In addition, the Condominium Board shall keep a separate account for each Unit, which, among other things, shall contain the amount of each assessment of Common Charges made by the Condominium Board against each such Unit, the date when due, the amounts paid thereon and the balance, if any, remaining unpaid.

10.2 Audits. Within four months after the end of each fiscal year, an annual report of receipts and expenditures prepared and certified by an independent certified public accountant shall be submitted by the Condominium Board to all Unit Owners and, if so requested, to any Permitted Mortgagee, as the case may be. The cost of such report submitted by the Board as a Common Expense.

10.3 Availability of Documents. Copies of the Declaration, these By-laws, the Rules and Regulations and the Floor Plans, as the same may be amended from time to time, shall be maintained at the office of the Board and shall be available for inspection by Unit Owners, Unit Owner lenders and the holders and insurers of the first mortgage on any Unit and their authorized agents during reasonable business hours.

ARBITRATION

11.1 General Procedure. Except as may otherwise be expressly provided in these By-Laws or the Declaration, any arbitration provided for in these By-Laws shall be conducted before one arbitrator in New York City by the American Arbitration Association or any successor organization thereof, in accordance with its rules then in effect and the decision rendered in such arbitration shall be binding upon the parties and may be entered in any court having jurisdiction. In the event that the American Arbitration Association is not then in existence and has no successor, any arbitration hereunder shall be conducted in New York City before one arbitrator appointed, on application of any party, by any justice of the highest court of appellate jurisdiction located in the County of New York. The decision of the arbitrator so chosen shall be given within 10 days after his appointment. Any arbitrator appointed or selected in connection with any arbitration hereunder shall be a member of a law firm whose principal office is in the Borough of Kings and which has at least five members.

11.2 Costs and Expenses. The fees, costs and expenses of the arbitrator will be borne by the losing party in the arbitration or, if the position of neither party to the dispute will be substantially upheld by the arbitrator, such fees, costs and expenses will be borne equally by the disputants. Each disputant will also bear the fees and expenses of his counsel and expert witnesses. All costs and expenses paid or incurred by the Condominium Board in connection with any arbitration held hereunder, including, without limitation, the fees and expenses of counsel and expert witnesses, will constitute Common Expenses.

11.3 Agreement by Parties. The parties to any dispute required or permitted to be submitted to arbitration hereunder may, by mutual agreement between them, vary any of the provisions of 11.1 with respect to the arbitration of such dispute, or may agree to resolve their dispute in any other manner, including, without limitation, the manner set forth in Section 3031 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules and known as the "New York Simplified Procedure for Court Determination of Disputes."

12.1 Waiver. No provision contained in these By-Laws or the Rules and Regulations shall be deemed to have been abrogated or waived by reason of any failure to enforce the same, irrespective of the number of violations or breaches which may occur.

12.2 Captions. The captions herein are inserted only as a matter of convenience and for reference, and in no way define, limit or describe the scope of these By-Laws nor the intent of any provision hereof.

12.3 Certain References.

12.3.1 A reference in these By-Laws to any one gender, masculine, feminine or neuter, includes the other two, and the singular includes the plural, and vice versa, unless the context otherwise requires.

12.4 Severability. Subject to the provisions of the Declaration, if any provision of these By-Laws is invalid or unenforceable as against any person, party or under certain circumstances, the remainder of these By-Laws and the applicability of such provision to other persons, parties or circumstances shall not be affected thereby. Each provision of these By-Laws shall, except as otherwise herein provided, be valid and enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law. In the event any provision of these By-Laws or the Rules and Regulations conflicts with the provisions of the Declaration, the provisions of the Declaration shall control.

12.5 Insurance Trustee. The Insurance Trustee shall be a bank or trust company in The City of New York, designated by the Condominium Board and having a capital surplus and undivided profits of $500,000,000 or more. In the event the Insurance Trustee resigns or the Condominium Board wishes to replace it, the Condominium Board shall promptly appoint a new Insurance Trustee. The Condominium Board shall pay the fees and disbursements of any Insurance Trustee and such fees and disbursements shall constitute a Common Expense. The Insurance Trustee shall hold all such proceeds in accordance with Section 254(4) of the Real Property Law of the State of New York. If required by Declarant's construction or permanent lender, such lender shall be the Insurance Trustee until its release of all Units from the lien of its mortgage.

12.6 Successors and Assigns. Except as set forth herein or in the Declaration to the contrary, the rights and/or obligations of Declarant or its designee as set forth herein shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon any successor or assign of Declarant or its designee or, with the consent of Declarant or its designee, any transferee of some or all then Unsold Units then owned by Declarant or its designee, as the case may be. Subject to the foregoing, Declarant, and/or its designee, as the case may be, shall have the right, at any time in their sole discretion, to assign or otherwise transfer their respective interests herein, whether by sale, merger, consolidation, lease, assignment or otherwise.

12.7 Covenant of Further Assurances.

12.7.1 Any party which is subject to the terms of these By-Laws, whether such party is a Unit Owner, a lessee or sublessee of a Unit Owner, an occupant of a Unit, a member or officer of the Board, or otherwise, shall, upon prior reasonable written request at the expense of any such other party requesting the same, execute, acknowledge and deliver to such other party such instruments, in addition to those specifically provided for herein, and take such other action, as such other party may reasonably request to effectuate the provisions of these By-Laws or of any transaction contemplated herein or to confirm or perfect any right to be created or transferred hereunder or pursuant to any such transaction.

12.7.2 If any Unit Owner, the Board or other party which is subject to the terms of these By-Laws fails, within ten days after request therefor, either (i) to execute, acknowledge or deliver any instrument, or to take any action which such Unit Owner, the Board or party is required to execute, acknowledge and deliver or to take pursuant to these By-Laws, or (ii) to deliver a written notice to the party requesting such execution, acknowledgment or delivery, and to the Board, stating the reasons why such Unit Owner, the Board or other party refuses to execute, acknowledge or deliver such instrument or take such action, then the Board or other party is hereby authorized, as attorney-in-fact for such Unit Owner, Board or other party, coupled with an interest, to execute, acknowledge and deliver such instrument, or to take such action in the name of such Unit Owner, the Board or other party and such document or action shall be binding on such Unit Owner, Board or other party.

12.7.3 If any Unit Owner, the Board or other party which is subject to the terms of these By-Laws fails, within ten days after request therefor, either (i) to execute, acknowledge or deliver any instrument, or to take any action which such Unit Owner, the Board or party is required to execute, acknowledge and deliver or to take pursuant to these By-Laws at the request of Declarant or its designee, or (ii) to deliver a written notice to Declarant or its designee, as applicable, and to the Board representing such Unit Owners stating the reasons why such Unit Owner, the Board or other party refuses to execute, acknowledge or deliver such instrument or take such action, then Declarant or its designee is hereby authorized, as attorney-in-fact for such Unit Owner, the Board or other party, coupled with an interest, to execute, acknowledge and deliver such instrument, or to take such action, in the name of such Unit Owner, the Board or other party and such document or action shall be binding on such Unit Owner, the Board or other party, as the case may be.

AMENDMENT TO BY-LAWS

Amendments by Unit Owners. Except as specifically provided herein or in the Declaration with respect to amendments, modifications, additions or deletions affecting Declarant or its designee or any Unsold Units, any provision of these By-Laws may be added to, amended, modified or deleted by the vote of at least 66-2/3% in number and in Common Interest of all Unit Owners taken in accordance with the provisions of these by-laws, provided, however, that the Common Interest appurtenant to each Unit as expressed in the Declaration shall not be altered without the written consent of all Unit Owners directly affected. Subject to the provisions contained herein or in the Declaration with respect to amendments, modifications, additions or deletions affecting Declarant or its designee, Permitted Mortgagees, or any Unsold Units, any such amendment, modification, addition or deletion shall be executed by the Condominium Board, as attorney-in-fact for all Unit Owners, coupled with an interest, which Condominium Board is hereby authorized by such Unit Owners so to act as their attorney-in-fact. Notwithstanding the foregoing and subject to the provisions contained herein or in the Declaration with respect to amendments affecting Declarant or its designee, any Unsold Units, no amendment, modification, addition or deletion pursuant to the provisions of clause (a) above shall be effective without the written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) of the Mortgage Representatives, if any.

CERTAIN DAMAGES

14.1 Self Help. If any Unit Owner shall violate or breach any of the provisions of the Condominium Documents on his part to be observed or performed, including, without limitation, any breach of his obligation to paint, decorate, maintain, repair, or replace his or her Unit or its appurtenant Limited Common Elements, if any, pursuant to the terms of Article 5 hereof, and shall fail to cure such violation or breach within 5 days after receipt of written notice of the same from the Condominium Board, the Managing Agent, or any manager (or, with respect to any violation or breach of the same not reasonably susceptible to cure within such period, to commence such cure within such five day period and, thereafter, to prosecute such cure with due diligence to completion), the Condominium Board shall have the right to enter such Unit Owner's Unit and/or its appurtenant Limited Common Elements, if any, and summarily to abate, remove, or cure such violation or breach without thereby being deemed guilty or liable in any manner of trespass. In addition, in the event that the Condominium Board shall determine that the abatement, removal, or cure of any such violation or breach is immediately necessary for the preservation or safety of the Building or for the safety of the occupants of the Building or other individuals or is required to avoid the suspension of any necessary service in the Building, the Condominium Board may take such action immediately, without prior notice and without allowing the said Unit Owner any period of time within which to cure or to commence to cure such violation or breach.

14.2 Abatement and Enjoinment.

(A) In the event that any Unit Owner shall violate or breach any of the provisions of the Condominium Documents on his part to be observed or performed, the Condominium Board shall have the right (i) to enter any Unit or Common Elements in which, or as to which, such violation or breach exists and to summarily abate and remove, at the expense of the defaulting Unit Owner, any structure, thing or condition resulting in such violation or breach and the Condominium Board shall not thereby be deemed guilty or liable in any matter of trespass, and/or (ii) to enjoin, abate, or remedy the continuance or repetition of any such violation or breach by appropriate proceedings brought either at law or in equity, provided that the Condominium Board gives the Unit Owner notice (which may be by telephone or in writing) that such violation exists, that repairs or replacements are necessary and that the Condominium Board will complete such repairs or replacements in the event the Unit Owner does not promptly act or complete the repairs or replacements, and/or (iii) to levy such fines and penalties as the Condominium Board may deem appropriate, and the Condominium Board shall have the same remedies for non-payment of such fines and penalties as for non-payment of Common Charges.

(B) The violation or breach of any of the terms of the By-Laws with respect to any rights, easements, privileges, or licenses granted to Declarant shall give to Declarant the right to enjoin, abate, or remedy the continuation or repetition of any such violation or breach by appropriate proceedings brought either at law or in equity.

14.3 Remedies Cumulative. The remedies specifically granted to the Condominium Board or to Sponsor in this Article 14 or elsewhere in the By-Laws shall be cumulative, shall be in addition to all other remedies obtainable at law or in equity and may be exercised at one time or at different times, concurrently or in any order, in the sole discretion of the Condominium Board or Declarant as the case may be. Further, the exercise of any remedy shall not operate as a waiver, or preclude the exercise, of any other remedy.

14.4 Costs and Expenses. All sums of money expended, and all costs and expenses incurred, by (i) the Condominium Board in connection with the abatement, enjoinment, removal, or cure of any violation, breach, or default committed by a Unit Owner pursuant to the terms of Section 14.1 or paragraph (A) of Section 14.2 hereof or (ii) Declarant in connection with any abatement, enjoinder, or remedy of any violation or breach of the Condominium Documents pursuant to the terms of paragraph (B) of Section 14.2 hereof, shall be immediately payable by (a) in the event set forth in subparagraph (i) hereof, such Unit Owner to the Condominium Board or (b) in the event set forth in subparagraph (ii) hereof, the offending party (i.e., the Condominium Board or the Unit Owner) to Sponsor, as the case may be, which amount shall, in either event, bear interest (to be computed from the date expended) at the rate of two percent per month (but in no event in excess of the maximum rate chargeable to such Unit Owner pursuant to Law). (5) Each Unit Owner shall keep his or her Unit and any Limited Common Elements appurtenant thereto in a good state of preservation and cleanliness, and shall not sweep or throw or permit to be swept or thrown therefrom, or from the doors or windows thereof, any dirt or other substance. Any determination as to what constitutes a good state of preservation and cleanliness shall be within the sole but reasonable discretion of the Condominium Board.

(6) No window guards or window decorations shall be used in or about any Unit, unless otherwise required by law, except such as shall have been approved in writing by the Condominium Board or the managing agent of the Condominium, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

(7) No radio, television aerial, satellite or similar device shall be attached to or hung from the exterior of the Condominium and no sign, notice, advertisement or illumination shall be inscribed or exposed on or at any door or window or other part of the Condominium except such as are permitted pursuant to the Declaration or the By-Laws or shall have been approved in writing by the Condominium Board or the managing agent of the Condominium, nor shall anything be projected from any door or window of the Condominium without similar approval.

(8) No ventilator or air conditioning device shall be installed in any Unit without the prior written approval of the Condominium Board, which approval may be granted or refused in the sole discretion of the Condominium Board.

(9) All radio, television or other electrical equipment of any kind or nature installed or used in each Unit shall fully comply with all rules, regulations, requirements or recommendations of the New York Board of Fire Underwriters and the public authorities having jurisdiction and the Unit Owner alone shall be liable for any damage or injury caused by any radio, television or other electrical equipment in such Unit Owner's Unit.

No Unit Owner shall play or suffer to be played any musical instrument, or practice or suffer to be practiced vocal music, or operate or permit to be operated a phonograph or radio or television set or other loud speaker in such Unit Owner's Unit between 11:00 P.M. and the following 9:00 A.M., if the same shall disturb or annoy other occupants of the Building, unless the same shall have the prior written consent of the Condominium Board. No construction or repair work or other installation involving noise shall be conducted in any Unit except on weekdays (not including legal holidays) and only between the hours of 9:00 A.M. and 5:00 P.M., unless such construction or repair work is necessitated by an emergency or unless such work is performed by Declarant.

Dogs may not be walked on the Property and all Unit Owners must clean-up after their pets. In no event shall any bird, reptile, or animal be permitted in any public elevator in the Condominium, other than the elevators designated by the Condominium Board or the managing agent of the Condominium for that purpose, or in any of the public portions of the Condominium, unless carried or on a leash. (13) All packages, whenever feasible, will be required to be delivered by outside personnel to the package room in the lobby where such packages will be held for pick-up by Unit Owners. Deliveries, if made, will be made from the package room to individual Units only by building personnel. Such deliveries will be made only at such times as a Unit is occupied by the resident thereof or an authorized person and said resident or authorized person is willing to accept delivery. If the Unit is not so occupied or delivery is declined, the package will be held in the package room until the resident or authorized person returns or requests delivery.

(14) Trunks and heavy baggage shall be taken in or out of the Condominium by the elevator designated by the Condominium Board or the managing agent of the Condominium for that purpose, and through a designated entrance only.

(17) No occupant of the Condominium shall send any employee of the Condominium or of the managing agent thereof out of the Building on any private business.

(18) The agents of the Condominium Board or the managing agent, and any contractor or worker authorized by the Condominium Board or the managing agent of the Condominium, may enter any room or Unit at any reasonable hour of the day, on at least one day's prior written notice to the Unit Owner, for the purpose of inspecting such Unit for the presence of any vermin, insects or other pests and for the purpose of taking such measures as may be necessary to control or exterminate any such vermin, insects or other pests; however, such entry, inspection and extermination shall be done in a manner so as not to unreasonably interfere with the use of such Condominium Unit for its permitted purposes.

(19) Corridor doors shall be kept closed at all times except when in actual use for ingress or egress to and from public corridors.

(20) The Condominium Board or the managing agent of the Condominium may retain a passkey to each Unit that has locks. If any lock is altered or a new lock is installed, the Condominium Board or the managing agent of the Condominium shall be provided with a key thereto immediately upon such alteration or installation. If the Unit Owner is not personally present to open and permit an entry to his Unit at any time when an entry therein is necessary or permissible under these Rules and Regulations or under the By-Laws and has not furnished a key to the Board or such managing agent, then the Condominium Board or such managing agent or their agents (but, except in an emergency, only when specifically authorized by an officer of the Board or an officer of the managing agent) may forcibly enter such Unit without liability for damages or trespass by reason thereof (if during such entry reasonable care under the circumstances is given to such Unit Owner's property).

(21) No vehicle belonging to a Unit Owner or to a member of the family or guest, tenant or employee of a Unit Owner shall be parked in such manner as to impede or prevent ready access to any entrance to or exit from the Building by another vehicle.

(22) Complaints regarding the services of the Condominium shall be made in writing to the Condominium Board or to the managing agent of the Condominium.

(23) Any consent or approval given under these Rules and Regulations may be granted, refused, added to, amended or repealed, in the sole discretion of the Condominium Board, at any time by resolution of the Condominium Board. Further, any such consent or approval may, in the discretion of the Condominium Board, be conditional in nature.

(24) Unit Owners will faithfully observe the following procedures with respect to the use of the compactor: (a) wrap dust, floor and powdered waste in compact packages before depositing the same; (b) thoroughly drain and wrap in paper all garbage before depositing the same; (c) refrain from forcing large bundles into the chute; (d) crush into tight bundles all loose papers before placing the same in the hopper door; (e) deposit all bundles of waste into the hopper; and (f) refrain from depositing waste of an explosive nature therein.

(25) Except as permitted under the Declaration and By-Laws, Unit Owners, their families, guests, servants, employees, agents, visitors, tenants, sublessees or licensees shall not at any time or for any reason whatsoever enter upon or attempt to enter upon the roof of the Building.

(26) Unit Owners, their guests, servants, employees, agents, visitors, tenants, sublessees or licensees shall not cause or permit any unusual or objectionable noise or odors to be produced upon or to emanate from their Units.

(27) No Unit Owner or any of his agents, servants, employees, licensees, tenants, sublessees or visitors shall at any time bring into or keep in his Unit any inflammable, combustible or explosive fluid, material, chemical or substance, except as shall be necessary and appropriate for the permitted uses of such Unit.

(28) If any key or keys are entrusted by a Unit Owner or by any member of his family or by his agent, servant, employee, tenant, sublessee, licensee or visitor to an employee of the Condominium Board or the managing agent of the Condominium, whether for such Unit Owner's Unit or an automobile, trunk or other item of personal property, the acceptance of the key shall be at the sole risk of such Unit Owner, and neither the Condominium Board nor the managing agent of the Condominium shall (except as provided in paragraph 20 above) be liable for injury, loss or damage of any nature whatsoever, directly or indirectly resulting therefrom or connected therewith.

(29) Nothing shall be done or kept in any Unit or in the General or Limited Common Elements which will increase the rate of insurance of the Building or contents thereof without the prior written consent of the Condominium Board. No Unit Owner shall permit anything to be done or kept in his Unit or in the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements which will result in the cancellation of insurance on the Building or which would be in violation of any law. No waste shall be committed in the Common Elements or Limited Common Elements.

(30) The Board shall have the right from time to time to relocate any portion of the Common Elements devoted to storage or service purposes.

(31) No group tour or exhibition of any Unit or its contents shall be conducted, nor shall any auction sale be held in any Unit, without the prior consent of the Condominium Board or the managing agent of the Condominium.

(32) In the event that any Unit is used for home occupation purposes which are permitted by law and the by-laws, in no event shall any patients, clients or other invitees be permitted to wait in any lobby, public hallway or vestibule.

(33) Unless expressly authorized by the Condominium Board in each case, at least 80% of the floor area of each Unit (excepting only kitchens, pantries, bathrooms and closets) must be covered with rugs, carpeting or equally effective noise-reducing material.

(34) There will be no barbecuing in the Units, in their Limited Common Elements (including a rear yard), or the Common Elements, except for those areas (if any) specifically designated for barbecuing by the Condominium Board.

(35) The Condominium Board reserves the right to rescind, alter, waive or add, as to one or more or all occupants, any rule or regulation at any time prescribed for the Condominium when, in the reasonable judgment of the Condominium Board, the Condominium Board deems it necessary or desirable for the reputation, safety, character, security, care, appearance or interests of the Condominium, or the preservation of good order therein, or the operation or maintenance of the Condominium, or the equipment thereof, or the comfort of Unit Owners, occupants or others in the Condominium. No rescission, alteration, waiver or addition of any rule or regulation in respect of one Unit Owner or other occupant shall operate as a rescission, alteration or waiver in respect of any other Unit Owner or other occupant.

(36) No article, including, but not limited to, bicycles and similar vehicles, shall be stored or allowed to stand on a Rear Yard other than furniture of the kind usually maintained in outdoor areas. No plantings, structures or installations may be placed on the Rear Yard without the prior written approval of the Condominium Board.

(37) No children may be left unattended in any Common Area of the Building, including but not limited to the hallways and lobby.

(38) In accordance with New York City Local Law 147, the Condominium shall be operated as a smoke free building. The inhaling, exhaling, burning or carrying of any lighted cigar, cigarette, pipe, or any form of lighted object or device which contains tobacco or cloves, including all kinds of e-cigarettes and vape pens shall be prohibited in the Condominium Premises, including within all Units, storage area, on a Rear Yard, and in all common areas of the Building. Outside of the Building, smoking shall only be permitted within designated smoking areas, which may be located 25 feet or more from entries, outdoor air intakes and operable windows. The Board shall have the right to seek and obtain a court order enjoining the occupant of a Unit from smoking within their Unit or appurtenant Storage Area or Rear Yard. In addition to all other remedies available to the Board, violation of this policy by an occupant of a Unit shall subject the Unit Owner to (i) a fine in an amount to be determined from time to time by the Board, and (ii) reimbursement of any fees or expenses incurred by the Board (including legal fees) in enforcing this provision.

INTERIM LEASE

INTERIM LEASE

This Agreement of INTERIM LEASE (the "Lease"), made as of the ____ day of _____, between 334 UNION STREET LLC, a New York limited liability company ("Sponsor") and _____ (the "Purchaser").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, Seller and Purchaser have entered into a Purchase Agreement ("Contract") for the sale of Unit ____ ("Unit") in the building located at 334 Union Street, Brooklyn, New York ("Building"), commonly known as the 334 UNION STREET CONDOMINIUM; and

WHEREAS, the Unit is ready for occupancy; and

WHEREAS, Purchaser is in need of housing and Seller has offered to permit Purchaser to enter into possession of the Unit in the Building prior to the closing of title on the Unit; and

WHEREAS, Purchaser desires to occupy the Unit prior to closing of title on the Unit.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is mutually consented and agreed as follows:

1. Letting of Premises. Seller hereby leases to Purchaser, and Purchaser hereby rents the Unit from Seller upon and subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.

2. Term. The term ("Term") of this Lease shall commence upon the date hereof and shall be a month to month lease which shall terminate on the date of closing of title to the Unit under the Contract or upon the default of the Purchaser as hereinafter set forth, whichever occurs first. Purchaser acknowledges and understands that this Lease may not be renewed or extended and that if Purchaser does not purchase the Unit as provided in the Contract, Purchaser must vacate the Unit upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease. In the event that Purchaser does not vacate the Unit on or before said date, Purchaser shall pay to Seller the sum of $1,000.00 per day for each day Purchaser remains in possession of the Unit beyond said date, as and for liquidated damages and that such sum may be taken out of the downpayment in the Contract.

3. Rent. The rent to be paid by Purchaser to Seller shall be the unabated real estate taxes and common charges for the Unit in the amount of $_____ per month, payable by Purchaser on the date the Lease is executed and on the first calendar day of each month thereafter.

4. Additional Rental. Purchaser shall be responsible, at Purchaser's sole cost and expense, for providing to the Unit all electricity, telephone, and other utilities desired by Purchaser throughout the Term, and Purchaser shall make payment therefor directly to the third party suppliers thereof as and when bills are rendered. If Seller is required to pay any charges for such utilities, Seller may bill Purchaser therefor, and the charges shall be payable by Purchaser to Seller within three (3) business days after receipt by Purchaser from Seller of a bill therefor. All such sums shall be deemed to be additional rent under this Lease. Purchaser agrees to reimburse Seller for any such sums billed after the expiration of the Term of this Lease.

5. Seller shall allow buyer to occupy the Unit, such early possession and occupation is in no way intended to constitute a tenancy of any kind and is simply at the will of the Seller for the personal convenience of the Purchaser.

6. Use of Premises. The Unit shall be used by Purchaser only for purposes permitted under the Certificate of Occupancy and for no other purpose. The sole occupants of the Unit shall be the Purchaser and its immediate family.

7. Condition of Premises. Purchaser represents that it has made a thorough examination and inspection of the Unit and is familiar with the condition thereof. Purchaser agrees that it enters into this lease without any representations or warranties by Seller or its agents, representatives, brokers or any other person as to the present or future condition of the Unit, the appurtenances thereto or any improvements therein. Purchaser agrees to accept the Unit "as is" in its condition at the time possession is given to Purchaser, and Seller shall not be required to do any work or make any repairs, replacements or alterations therein whatsoever.

8. Indemnity. Purchaser agrees to indemnify and save Seller and its successors and assigns harmless from and against any and all claims, demands, judgments, actions, damages, expenses and costs whatever (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising from any work or thing done in the Unit or from any act or negligence of Purchaser or any of Purchaser's agents, contractors, employees, licensees or invitees of Purchaser, or arising from any accident, injury or damage whatsoever to any person or property occurring in the Unit from and after the date hereof. Purchaser shall resist or defend any action or proceeding brought against Seller by reason of any of the above by counsel reasonably satisfactory to Seller at the sole cost and expense of Purchaser. If Purchaser fails to resist or defend the same, Seller may do so or, upon not less than five (5) days' notice to Purchaser, may settle or compromise the same, and, in such event, Purchaser shall pay Seller as additional rent hereunder all payments made by, and expenses and reasonable counsel fees of Seller.

9. Assignment and Subletting. Purchaser, for itself and its successors and assigns, expressly covenants that it shall not assign, mortgage or encumber this Lease, nor sublet the Unit or any part thereof. Any attempted assignment or sublease shall be void as against Seller and shall be a default under this Lease.

10. Alteration, Surrender. (a) Purchaser shall not make any alterations or enclosures in the Unit or the Building, or any alterations or additions to the water, gas, heating, air conditioning or electrical systems or any other installment or facility in the Unit or the Building.

(b) If the floors are carpeted, Purchaser shall keep the carpet clean. If the floors are made of wood or other non-carpeted material, Purchaser shall repair any scratches or nicks in the floor promptly after they have been made. Purchaser may not hammer into the walls unless Purchaser removes the insertion and repairs the damage (including spackling and repainting) before vacating the Unit.

(c) If Purchaser does not purchase the Unit for any reason, Purchaser shall surrender the Unit on the expiration date in good condition, broom clean and free of all of Purchaser's furniture, fixtures and personal belongings. Purchaser shall repair all damage caused by removal of Purchaser's property from the Unit.

11. Default. Purchaser shall be in default under this Lease if Purchaser fails to perform any obligation under this Lease within ten (10) days after Purchaser becomes aware (or should have become aware) that the obligation has arisen. If Purchaser shall default under the Contract, Purchaser shall also be in default under this Lease.

If Purchaser is in default, Seller may take any or all of the following actions: (i) Seller may retain the full amount of the Down Payment under the Contract as liquidated damages; (ii) Seller may cure Purchaser's default on Purchaser's behalf and add the cost of cure to the next installment of Rent; (iii) Seller may terminate this Lease on thirty (30) days' notice and remove Purchaser, by force or otherwise, from the Unit, and (iv) Seller may take any other action at law or in equity in order to enforce Seller's rights and cure Purchaser's default under this Lease. All costs of enforcing Seller's rights under this section, including reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements, shall be deemed additional rent. Notwithstanding any action taken by Seller, Purchaser will remain liable for the performance of its obligations under this Lease. In the event of a default by Purchaser hereunder, Purchaser shall be considered in default under the Contract as well and Seller is entitled to such remedies as are provided for under the Contract.

12. Quiet Enjoyment. Upon paying the rent and all other sums and charges as herein provided, and observing all covenants, agreements and conditions of this Lease on its part to be observed, Purchaser shall quietly have and enjoy the Unit subject to the provisions of this Lease, the Declaration of Condominium, the By-Laws and House Rules.

13. Broker. Purchaser represents and warrants to Seller that it dealt with no broker, finder or similar agent in connection with this Lease. Purchaser agrees to indemnify and hold Seller harmless from any cost or expense, including without limitation reasonable attorney's fees, arising out of the claim of any broker, finder or similar agent alleging to have dealt with Purchaser in connection with this Interim Lease.

14. Intentionally Omitted.

15. Insurance, Damage. (a) At all times during the Term hereof, Purchaser shall carry such hazard insurance and liability insurance naming Seller as an additional insured as Seller may reasonably require and shall furnish Seller with certificates thereof. Purchaser shall obtain casualty insurance policies covering Seller's (and, at Purchaser's option), Purchaser's property on the Unit. All policies shall provide that all claims other than those relating to Purchaser's property shall be adjusted by and payable to Seller. All policies shall provide that they cannot be canceled except on thirty (30) days' notice to Seller and shall contain a waiver of the insurer's right of subrogation against Seller. Purchaser waives any right against Seller arising out of any loss or damage to Purchaser's property.

(b) Purchaser shall notify Seller promptly if the Unit is damaged. All insurance proceeds shall be paid to Seller and shall be disbursed by Seller. Any balance remaining shall be Seller's property. If the Unit is damaged materially, Seller shall have the right to cancel this Lease on thirty (30) days' notice. Upon cancellation, the parties will be released from all further liability under this Lease. Purchaser waives all rights to any damage award in connection with the Unit other than for Purchaser's property.

16. Personal Property. Purchaser covenants and agrees to take good care of all of fixtures, appliances and any other personal property contained in the Unit and if Purchaser fails to close, to surrender them at the expiration of this Lease in the same condition they are in on the date hereof.

17. No Rent Stabilization. Neither this Lease nor the Unit is or shall become subject to the Rent, Eviction and Rehabilitation Regulations, Rent Stabilization Law, Emergency Purchaser Protection Act of the City of New York, Interim Multiple Dwelling Law or any other rent or eviction regulations pertaining to apartments and lofts in the City of New York, and Purchaser expressly acknowledges the same and waives any application thereof.

18. Access. If Purchaser fails to close, Seller may have access to inspect the Unit, or to show it for sale.

19. General Provisions. (a) No Waiver. No waiver by Seller or Purchaser of any breach of any agreement or provision herein contained shall be deemed a waiver of any other breach thereof or of any other agreement or provision herein contained.

(b) Notices. All notices, demands or other communications given under this Lease shall be in writing and delivered in person or mailed by hand delivery or reputable overnight courier, and shall be deemed given when delivered to Seller or Purchaser, respectively, at the address shown above or to such other addresses as may be designated by the respective parties by like notice.

(c) Merger. This Lease, including any exhibits (or riders containing additional provisions and initialed for identification) annexed hereto and made a part hereof, contains the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior understandings, if any, with respect thereto. This Lease may not be modified except by written instrument signed by the party to be charged. This Lease may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original.

(d) Successor and Assigns. This Lease shall be binding on Seller and Purchaser, their successors and assigns, except that this Lease will be deemed canceled immediately upon the death of Purchaser.

(e) Counterparts; Facsimile Signatures. This Lease may be executed in counterparts which, when taken together, shall constitute one document. Signatures transmitted by facsimile or PDF shall be considered originals and shall be binding upon the parties hereto.

(f) Interpretation. As used in this agreement, the following terms have the following meaning: (i) "including" means "including but not limited to"; (ii) "or" means "and/or"; and (iii) anything permitting or requiring a party to take action shall permit or require the party to cause the action to be taken, and anything permitting or requiring a party to forbear from taking an action, shall also permit or require the party to cause the action to be forborne.

(g) Waiver of Jury Trial. Purchaser hereby waives the right to trial by jury of any matter or dispute arising from, through, or under this Lease.

(h) Subordination. This Lease is subject and subordinate to all mortgages which may now or hereafter affect this Lease or the real property of which the Unit is a part and to all renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements and extensions thereof. This paragraph shall be self-operative, and no further instrument of subordination shall be required by any mortgagee affecting any lease or the real property of which the Unit is a part. In confirmation of such subordination, Purchaser shall execute promptly any certificate that Seller may request.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Seller and Purchaser have respectively signed and sealed this Lease as of the day and year first above written.

NEW YORK REAL PROPERTY LAW § 339-kk

§ 339-kk. Rents.

- (a) For the purposes of this section, “non-occupying owner” shall mean a unit owner in a condominium association who does not occupy the dwelling unit.
- (b) If a non-occupying owner rents any dwelling unit to a rental tenant and then fails to make payments due for Common Charges, assessments or late fees for such unit within sixty days of the expiration of any grace period after they are due, upon notice in accordance with subdivision (c) of this section, all rental payments from the tenant shall be directly payable to the condominium association.
- (c) If the Common Charges, assessments or late fees due for any unit have not been paid in full, within sixty days after the expiration of any grace period of the earliest due date, the board of managers shall provide written notice to the tenant and the non-occupying owner providing that, commencing immediately and until such time as all payments for Common Charges, assessments or late fees are made current, all rental payments due subsequent to the issuance of such notice are to be made payable to the condominium association at the address listed on the notice. Where a majority of the board of managers have been elected by and from among the unit owners who are in occupancy, the board may elect not to require that rental payments be made payable to the condominium association. At such time as payments for Common Charges, assessments and late fees from the non-occupying owner are once again current, notice of such fact shall be given within three business days to the rental tenant and non-occupying owner. Thereafter all rental payments shall be made payable to the non-occupying owner or a designated agent. A non-occupying owner who disputes the association’s claim to rental payments pursuant to this section shall be entitled to present facts supporting such owner’s position at the next scheduled meeting of the board of managers, which must be held within thirty days of the date that such board receives notice that such owner seeks to dispute such claim.
- (d) Nothing in this section shall limit any rights of unit owners or of the board of managers existing under any other law or agreement.
- (e) Payment by a rental tenant to the condominium association made in connection with this section shall relieve that rental tenant from the obligation to pay such rent to the non-occupying owner and shall be an absolute defense in any non-payment proceeding commenced by such non-occupying owner against such tenant for such rent.

Local Law 1 - NYC Lead Poisoning Prevention Law Information for Tenants

The text below is a printer-friendly version of the New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (DOHMH) brochure for tenants entitled, "Fix Lead Paint". For additional information on lead poisoning, go to www.nyc/lead or call 311.

Fix Lead Paint Hazards:

What Landlords Must Do and Every Tenant Should Know

Lead Can Cause Learning Problems

Lead is a poison often found in old paint. Peeling lead paint is the most common cause of lead poisoning in young children. Lead dust from peeling paint can land on window sills, floors, and toys. When children play on the floor and put their hands and toys in their mouths, they can swallow lead dust.

Preventing Lead Poisoning: What the Law Requires

In New York City, Local Law 1 of 2004 requires landlords to identify and fix lead paint hazards in the apartments of young children. This law applies to your apartment if:

- The building was built before 1960 (or between 1960 and 1978 if the owner knows that the building has lead paint), and
- The building has 3 or more apartments, and
- A child under the age of 6 lives in your apartment.

What Are Lead Paint Hazards?

- Dust from lead paint.
- Peeling or damaged lead paint.
- Lead paint on:
 - Crumbling plaster or rotted wood.
 - Doors and windows that stick or rub together.
 - Window sills and any other surfaces that have been chewed on by children.

Things Landlords Must Do

- In buildings covered by Local Law 1, landlords must find out if any children younger than 6 years live in the building and inspect those apartments for lead paint hazards every year.
- Landlords must use safe work practices and trained workers when fixing lead paint hazards and when doing general repair work that disturbs lead paint.
- Local Law 1 requires landlords to use firms certified by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency when disturbing more than 100 square feet of lead paint, replacing windows, or fixing violations issued by the New York City Department of Housing Preservation and Development (HPD).
- Landlords must repair lead paint hazards before a new tenant moves into an apartment.
- Landlords must keep records of all notices, inspections, repairs of lead paint hazards, and other matters related to the law. HPD may ask the landlord for copies of this paperwork.

Before repair work begins, landlords must make sure that trained workers:

Local Law 1 - NYC Lead Poisoning Prevention Law Information for Tenants

- Post warning signs outside the work area.
- Tell tenants to stay out of the work area.
- Clean the work area with wet mops or HEPA vacuums.
- Remove all items that can be moved from the work area.
- Cover furniture that cannot be moved.
- Seal floors, doors, and other openings with plastic and waterproof tape.

While repair work is going on, landlords must make sure trained workers clean the work area every day with wet mops and HEPA vacuums.

Landlords and contractors must NEVER dry-scrape or dry-sand lead paint.

After repair work is finished, landlords must:

- Hire only trained workers to clean the work area with wet mops and HEPA vacuums.
- Hire a company or individual trained to take "clearance dust wipes" to make sure lead dust levels are below: 40 mcg/sf for floors, 250 mcg/sf for window sills, and 400 mcg/sf for window wells (mcg/sf = micrograms of lead per square foot). If levels are higher, clean-up must be repeated and the dust wipes taken again.
- Give a copy of clearance dust wipe results to the tenant.

Things Tenants Must Do

- Tenants must fill out and return the ANNUAL NOTICE form they receive each year from their landlord. This form tells your landlord if any children younger than 6 years live in your apartment.
- Wash floors, window sills, hands, toys, and pacifiers often.
- Remind your doctor to test your child for lead poisoning at ages 1 and 2. Ask the doctor about testing older children.
- If a child younger than 6 comes to live with you during the year or if you have a baby, you must notify your landlord in writing.

Tenants should also:

- Report peeling paint in your apartment to your landlord.

Owners of multiple dwellings (3 or more apartments) must give this brochure to tenants when they sign a lease or move into an apartment if the multiple dwelling was built before 1960, or was built between 1960 and 1978 if the owner knows that the building has lead paint. This brochure contains basic information about Local Law 1 of 2004 and is provided for your convenience only. For a copy of the law and applicable rules go to nyc.gov/hpd.

The City of New York – Local Law No. 1

Local Law 1 of 2004 ("Local Law 1") is a comprehensive law concerning the prevention of childhood lead poisoning through the remediation of lead paint hazards in housing, which became effective on August 2, 2004. This Bill replaced Local Law 1 of 1982 and Local Law 38 of 1999 – both of which provided inadequate protection to children and was ultimately struck down by New York's high court.

The Council declared that the city government must focus on primary prevention as the essential tool to combat childhood lead poisoning and to achieve the goal of preventing children from suffering the adverse health and other effects of exposure to lead-based paint. The pursuit of primary prevention has been recommended by the United States Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and promoted by leading experts in the field as a critical course of action to protect the health of children. Therefore, the Council declared that resources must be directed to primary prevention, including identifying children who are most at risk.

The Council recognized that it cannot legislate a single maintenance standard for all dwellings to eliminate this hazard. Instead, the council by enacting this article makes it the responsibility of every owner of a multiple dwelling to investigate dwelling units for lead-based paint hazards and to address such hazards on a case-by-case basis as the conditions may warrant, taking such actions as are necessary to prevent a child from becoming lead poisoned.

When a child is identified with environmental intervention blood lead levels, the city is obligated to investigate potential sources of the lead poisoning, incurring the expense of an environmental investigation and often also incurring the expense of medical treatment and remedial education, if necessary. Additionally, the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene reported for the year 2001 that only 20 percent of children in New York City were tested both at ages one and two for disease of lead poisoning, even though the testing of all children at ages one and two is mandatory under state law.

The Council wanted improved screening among these children since they are at greatest risk for lead poisoning. Finding it is reasonable and necessary to increase the rate of blood-lead testing, the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene is required to report to the Council on progress toward increasing screening rates and reducing the incidence rates of children newly identified with elevated blood lead levels.

Target Housing. The law covers all pre-1960 buildings with three or more residential units. The law also places certain responsibilities on owners in post-1960 to pre-1978 buildings with three or more residential units where the owner knows there is lead-based paint. The provisions of Local Law 1 do not apply to owner-occupied units in a cooperative or condominium. The law does however apply to cooperative or condominium units occupied by a tenant or subtenant.

Definitions.

Chewable Surface – a protruding interior window sill in a dwelling unit in a multiple dwelling where a child under age six resides and which is readily accessible to such child. "Chewable surface" shall also mean any other type of interior edge or protrusion in a dwelling unit in a multiple dwelling, such as a rail or stair, where there is evidence that such other edge or protrusion has been chewed or where an occupant has notified the owner that a child of applicable age who resides in that multiple dwelling has mouthed or chewed such edge or protrusion.

Deteriorated Subsurface – an unstable or unsound painted subsurface, an indication of which can be observed through a visual inspection, including rotted or decayed wood, or wood or plaster that has been subject to moisture or disturbance.

Friction Surface – any painted surface that touches or is in contact with another surface, such that the two surfaces are capable of relative motion and abrade, scrape, or bind when in relative motion. Friction surface shall include window frames and jambs, doors, and hinges.

Impact Surface – any interior painted surface that shows evidence, such as marking, denting, or chipping, that is subject to damage by repeated sudden force, such as certain parts of door frames, moldings, or baseboards.

Remediation or Remediate – the reduction or elimination of a lead-based paint hazard through the wet scraping and repainting, removal, encapsulation, enclosure, or replacement of lead-based paint, or other method approved by the commissioner of health and mental hygiene.

Turnover – the occupancy of a dwelling unit subsequent to the termination of a tenancy and the vacating by a prior tenant of such a dwelling unit.

Owner Responsibility to Remediate.

Owners must prevent the reasonably foreseeable occurrence of lead hazards and remediate them, and the underlying defects that may cause lead hazards, using safe work practices.

Owner's Responsibility to Notify Occupants and to Investigate.

- Owners of pre-1960 multiple dwellings, and owners of post-1960 to pre-1978 buildings where the owner knows that there is lead-based paint, have the responsibility to investigate dwelling units where children under age six reside, and common areas, to find peeling paint, chewable surfaces, deteriorated subsurfaces, and friction and impact surfaces. The investigation must be conducted annually and more often if the owner knows of a condition that may cause a lead hazard, or the occupant complains about such a condition.
- Occupants must inform the owner about the presence of a child and provide access.
- Leases must contain a notice setting forth the owner's responsibilities, and owners must provide a pamphlet informing occupants about lead paint hazards.
- Upon lease-up, lease renewal, agreement to lease, or commencement of occupancy, the owner must provide a notice to the occupant inquiring if a child under age six will reside in the unit.
 - If the occupant states that there is no child and the occupant subsequently, during that one-year period, fails to inform the owner that a child has come to live in the unit, the presumption of lead paint does not apply in any personal injury action brought for lead exposure.
 - This notice must be provided annually to each dwelling unit no later than January 16th. Occupants must respond by February 15th. If the owner does not receive a response, and does not otherwise actually know if a child resides in the unit, he must physically inspect to ascertain if a child lives there, between February 16th and March 1st. If, in that period, he is unable to access the unit, the owner must notify the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (DOHMH) that he was unable to determine if a child lives in the unit. The same limitation on liability, where occupant has responded that no child lives in the unit, also applies here.
- Owners must inform the occupant of the results of the investigation and provide copies of any reports received. Copies must be retained for 10 years.

- Failure to comply is a misdemeanor punishable by a $500 fine and/or six months in prison. Civil penalty is not more than $1,500 per violation.
- Department of Housing Preservation and Development (DHPD) is authorized to perform sample audits to determine compliance.

Presumption.

- Paint is presumed to contain lead in any pre-1960 multiple dwelling where a child under age six resides, and in common areas. This presumption may be rebutted by the owner submitting a sworn written statement supported by lead-based paint testing or sampling results to the DHPD.
- Testing performed to rebut the presumption may only be done by a certified inspector or risk assessor. The final determination as to whether adequate proof was submitted to rebut the presumption is made by the DHPD.
- Owners may apply for an exemption from the presumption for the entire dwelling or for a dwelling unit in one of two ways:
 1. An inspection for lead-based paint has determined that there is no lead-based paint present.
 2. Substantial alterations have been made resulting in the removal or permanent covering of all lead-based paint in that dwelling.

Violation in a Dwelling Unit.

Peeling lead paint or lead paint on deteriorated subsurface in a multiple dwelling unit with a child under age six is a class C violation.

Audit and Inspection by Department Following Commissioner's Order to Abate.

- When DOHMH issues a Commissioner's Order to Abate for a lead-poisoned child in a multiple-dwelling unit, DHPD must, within 15 days, notify the owner that he must submit to DHPD all records required to be maintained under the law within 45 days. DHPD will then determine if there may be lead hazards in other units with children under age six and will attempt to inspect all such units within 10 days of such determination.
- If the owner does not provide the records, DHPD must inspect child-occupied units in 45 days to determine if there are any lead violations.
- The actions required of DHPD are not applicable if DHPD has inspected the building within the 12 months preceding the issuance of the Commissioner's Order to Abate.
- Owner noncompliance is a class C violation and carries a $1,000 penalty.

Violation in a Dwelling Unit upon Turnover.

- These requirements apply to all pre-1960 dwelling units and to pre-1960 private dwelling units that are not owner-occupied. Upon turnover in such units, the owner must:
 1. Remediate all lead-based paint hazards and any underlying defects;
 2. Make all bare floors, window sills, and window wells in the dwelling unit smooth and cleanable;
 3. Provide for the removal or permanent covering of all lead-based paint on all friction surfaces on all doors and door frames; and
 4. Provide for the removal or permanent covering of all lead-based paint on all friction surfaces on all windows, or provide for the installation of replacement window channels or slides on all lead-based painted friction surfaces on all windows.

- Noncompliance is a class C violation.

Inspections by the Department of Housing Preservation and Development (DHPD).

- When making line of sight inspections in a pre-1960 multiple-dwelling unit, DHPD must ascertain the presence of a child under age six, including asking the occupant for an acknowledgement whether such a child resides in the unit. If a child lives there, DHPD must perform a room-by-room inspection and record whether the paint or other similar surface-coating material in each room is peeling or intact.
 - Where peeling paint is found, DHPD must also inspect for an underlying defect and indicate on the inspection report the location of the peeling paint, the condition of the subsurface, and the location of any underlying defect.
 - The inspector specifically need not move furniture unless there is visible evidence that causes the inspector to believe that there is peeling paint behind the furniture.
 - Where the inspector determines that there is a violation, the notice of violation must be served within 10 days.
- For lead complaints describing peeling paint or a deteriorated subsurface or underlying defect in the dwelling unit, DHPD must inspect pre-1960 child-occupied units within 10 days.
 - If DHPD cannot gain access to the dwelling, it must reattempt the inspection within five days.
 - If still unable to gain access to that dwelling unit during this additional time period, DHPD must provide written notice to the occupant that no further attempts will be made unless a new complaint is submitted.
- For lead complaints, DHPD inspectors must use XRF machines to determine whether lead paint is present. If, for reasons "beyond the control" of DHPD, an XRF cannot be used, then DHPD may rely on the presumption to issue a violation.
- For line of sight inspections, if DHPD inspectors do not XRF test peeling paint on the initial inspection, they must return within 10 days thereafter to XRF inspect. Upon determination that lead hazards exist, the notice of violation must be issued in 10 additional days. DHPD must leave the lead pamphlet at all premises that it inspects.
- DHPD must develop a work practices pamphlet to be delivered with the notice of violation. Failure to include the pamphlet or to comply with time periods does not render any notice of violation void and does not provide an owner with a defense against liability.

Work Practices.

- DHPD must promulgate rules establishing the following lead-safe work practices:
 1. For work done to comply with a notice of violation or an order to correct:
 - a. Work practices must be no less stringent than those required by DOHMH when it issues a violation for a lead-poisoned child.
 - b. Owner will provide temporary relocation of the occupants if necessary.
 - c. All work must be performed by an EPA-certified firm.
 - d. Lead-contaminated dust clearance testing must be performed at the completion of work.
 - e. All lead-contaminated dust clearance results shall be filed with DHPD and a copy provided to the occupant of the dwelling unit.
 2. For any non-violation work done:

- a. Work that will disturb lead-based paint or paint of unknown lead content in a dwelling unit or the common area where a child under six years resides;
 - b. Work where the owner has actual knowledge of the presence of lead-based paint; or
 - c. Work that will disturb more than one hundred square feet of lead-based paint or paint of unknown lead content in a room in a multiple dwelling, or will involve the removal of two or more windows with lead-based paint or paint of unknown lead content must comply with the following:
 - i. Lead-contaminated dust clearance testing must be performed at the completion of work, and a copy of the results provided to the occupant of the dwelling unit.
 - ii. The work must be done by a person who has successfully completed a course on lead-safe work practices by an entity authorized to give such a course.
 - iii. Owner will provide temporary relocation of the occupants if necessary.
3. For any non-violation work done in such multiple-dwelling unit where the work will disturb more than 100 square feet (question as to whether this applies to private dwellings – the statute is unclear) of lead-based paint or paint of unknown lead content, or involves the removal of two or more windows with such paint, work practices must be no less protective than those in the Health Code and require dust testing.
- a. All work must be performed by an EPA-certified firm.
 - b. Owner will provide temporary relocation of the occupants if necessary.
 - c. At least 10 days prior to the commencement of such work, owners must file a notice of commencement with DOHMH, and DOHMH is authorized to perform sample audits to determine if workers are certified.
4. Work practices do not apply to work that disturbs less than two square feet of peeling paint per room, or 10 percent of the surface area of a component.
5. Where an owner is performing work on tenant turnover.
- a. Lead-contaminated dust clearance testing must be performed at the completion of work, and a copy of the results must be provided to the occupant of the dwelling unit.
- Lead-contaminated dust clearance testing may be performed only by a third party who is independent of both the owner and anyone who is performing the work. Dust testers must be trained in an approved program.
 - All lead-contaminated dust clearance tests submitted to a laboratory for analysis must include a sworn certification that such test was performed in compliance with all applicable rules and regulations.
 - For work performed to correct violations, all lead-contaminated dust clearance results must be submitted to DHPD, and a copy must be provided to the occupant of the dwelling unit.

Reporting.

- DHPD is responsible for providing a report every fiscal year on its implementation of the law. At the very least, it must contain an analysis of the program, a detailed statement of revenue and expenditures, and statistical section designed to provide a detailed explanation of DHPD's enforcement including:
 - The number of complaints for peeling paint in pre-1960 dwelling units where a child under age six resides;
 - The number of inspections made and violations issued by DHPD;
 - The number of violations issued that were certified as corrected by the owner;

- The number of jobs performed; and
- A statistical profile with geographic indexing, such as by community district, council district, and/or zip code, of multiple dwellings where violations are placed, indicating the age of the building and other factors relevant to the "prevalence of lead based paint hazards."
- DOHMH must prepare an annual report on progress towards increasing lead screening rates and reducing new cases of lead poisoning, to be used by DHPD in implementing the law.

Transmittal of Violations to the DOHMH.

DHPD must send a notice that includes DOHMH's telephone number to any unit where it issues a lead violation. DHPD must also refer to DOHMH the address of all units for which violations were issued, along with the name and number of the complainant, if any. DOHMH must then refer to medical providers any person who requests such assistance.

Request from DOHMH to DHPD to Execute an Order.

- DOHMH must investigate any reported blood lead level of a child under 18 years of age that is in excess of 15 µg/dL.
- DOHMH must also notify DHPD of each unit where it has issued a Commissioner's Order to Abate (COTA). If the owner fails to comply with the COTA, DOHMH must certify the unit to DHPD within 16 days of the report of the elevated blood lead level.
- DHPD must correct the violations within 18 days of such certification.

Waiver.

- No owner can seek to have an occupant waive any provision of the lead law; the agreement is considered void. Any owner who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of up to $500 or imprisonment for up to six months or both.
- Validates agreements made between coop tenant shareholders and condo owners and coop and condo boards regarding allocation of responsibility for compliance with the lead law.
- The lead law does not apply to multiple dwelling units where title is held by a coop or condo and the unit is occupied by the shareholder of record or his or her family.

Exemption for Emergency Conditions.

The law specifically exempts from coverage work immediately necessary to safeguard against imminent danger to life, health, or safety.

Record Keeping Requirements.

Owners of multiple dwellings or dwellings that perform work pursuant to the new lead law must retain all records relating to such work for 10 years from the completion of the work. The records are to be made available to DHPD and must be transferred to the owner's successor in title.

Department of Housing Preservation and Development Enforcement.

- Owners have 21 days to correct a lead violation in accordance with specified work practices. Owners may request a 14-day postponement, and then an additional 14-day postponement in circumstances where paint has been stabilized. DHPD may promulgate rules for longer postponements in situations where an owner is making substantial capital improvements that will reduce lead paint in the multiple-dwelling or dwelling unit. DHPD must provide written reasons for its postponement determinations to both owner and occupant.

- Certifications must be submitted within five days of the correction date, and include a dust test result. DHPD must mail a copy to the complainant within 12 days of receipt.
- DHPD must reinspect all violations within 14 days after the date set for correction. If not corrected, DHPD must do the work within 45 days of such reinspection.
- DHPD may not remove any violations from its records unless it has conducted a final inspection verifying remediation, and has copies of relevant dust tests. DHPD must mail a copy of the final inspection report and status to the occupant and owner.
- The penalty for false certification is $1,000 to $3,000 and a possible misdemeanor charge.
- The penalty for failure to correct a lead violation is $250 per day. Owners may assert various defenses to mitigate fines.
- Failure to comply with the time periods by DHPD does not void any violations or provide a basis for defense by the owner.

Department of Health and Mental Hygiene Provisions.

- Department screening, diagnosis and treatment.
 - DOHMH must refer to medical providers any child who needs lead screening or other services, upon request.
 - DOHMH must develop a lead pamphlet to be used by DHPD on inspections and made available to the public.
- Lead-based paint, dry scraping, and sanding prohibited.
 - The law prohibits dry scraping and sanding of lead paint or paint of unknown content in any dwelling, day care center, or school. DOHMH is authorized to promulgate rules regarding this.
- Inspection by DOHMH of unsafe work practices.
 - DOHMH must promulgate rules requiring the agency to respond to complaints of unsafe lead paint work practices.
- Lead poisoning prevention in children.
 - DOHMH must develop a brochure advising medical providers of the law on screening and testing children for lead. It must be distributed annually to such providers.
 - DOHMH must develop a pamphlet regarding lead poisoning prevention that must, at a minimum, be distributed with each birth certificate given to a parent of a child. The pamphlet must also be available to the public.

The purpose of Local Law 1 is to administer and enforce New York City's lead poisoning prevention programs better by coordinating the actions of DHPD and DOHMH. While it is intended that the Department of Housing Preservation and Development remain the agency responsible for the implementation and enforcement of this article, it is also intended that the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene shall have a significant role in the promulgation and interpretation of rules and in the development of necessary procedures pursuant to this article.

Lead-Based Paint

Lead-Based Paint

Lead is a harmful metal that can poison people, especially children, when it is ingested. In young children, lead can cause behavioral and learning problems that cannot be cured. Although there are other sources of lead poisoning, lead is often found in paint (it was used to make the paint stronger) used in apartments and residential buildings in New York City built before 1960. When damaged, wet or scraped, old paint turns into dust or chips on the floor. It is possible that young children can get dust or paint chip flakes onto their hands and it can go straight into their mouths. This can lead to young children getting lead into their bodies.

Because of this danger, property owners of buildings built before 1960 (or built between January 1, 1960, and January 1, 1978, if the owner knows there is lead-based paint) must presume that the paint is lead-based paint and follow the instructions under the law for doing any types of work that could disturb a lead-based paint surface and cause dust or debris from the paint. The only exception to this rule is for a building where the property owner has had the painted surfaces tested properly and received results indicating that all paint has less than 0.5 mg/cm^2 of lead in the paint, which means it is not lead-based paint under the law (the paint is negative). The owner must maintain these records.

If there is lead-based paint or the paint has not been tested, the property owner must:

- Monitor painted surfaces and repair the paint properly if it is peeling in apartments with children under six or in common areas of the building.
 - This monitoring includes a process of annual notices and investigations.
 - Repairs must be done following federal and city regulations, including hiring certified firms/workers who follow prescribed safe work practices. These requirements differ depending on whether general repair work is being done, the work is being done specifically to remove lead-based paint or the work is being done pursuant to violations issued by either HPD or the New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (DOHMH).

- Remove lead-based paint from doors and windows (as well as make other repairs as described below) when apartments become vacant.
- Test all painted surfaces by 2025 so that they know where the lead-based paint is located.
- Maintain records related to all of the above activities for at least 10 years.

Penalties may be significant for failing to conduct any of the above activities or keeping records about that compliance. The owner's section below provides more detail about how to comply with these requirements.

If the owner has the appropriate certified firm test the surfaces throughout an apartment or common area and all of the surfaces test negative, or some test positive and the owner follows the proper processes for removing the paint with lead, the owner should file for an Exemption (see below section).

What Are Lead-Based Paint Hazards?

A lead-based paint hazard exists when there is peeling or disturbed paint on a surface in a building built before 1960 in an apartment where a child under six routinely spends 10 or more hours ("resides") unless the surfaces have all been tested and there is less than 0.5 mg/cms² of lead in the paint. Lead-based paint hazards include:

- Dust from paint, including dust created when doors and windows stick or rub together
- Peeling or damaged paint
- Painted surfaces, such as windowsills, that have been chewed on by children

As a result of the annual notice or anytime the tenant reports a peeling paint condition, a landlord is responsible to properly repair the lead-based paint hazard. If the landlord does not fix peeling paint or if the work is not being done safely (creating dust that is not contained), the tenant should file a complaint online or call 311.

For a general overview of what landlords must do and what every tenant should know, download the Lead Paint Hazards in the Home (Peligros de la Pintura con Plomo en el Hogar) pamphlet. Click on specific topics below and continue reading this page for more detailed information.

2024 and 2025 Changes to the Law:

New requirements regarding lead-based paint testing, lead-based paint recordkeeping and lead-based paint audits are now mandated as a result of recently passed legislation. Please review the below requirements carefully. HPD will be updating this webpage as the deadlines approach to provide more detailed information about violation compliance.

Owners will be required to:

- Local Law 122 of 2023
 - Provide annual notice and investigation records whenever lead-based paint hazard or turnover violations are issued. The requirement becomes effective on September 1, 2024. More information on what annual notice and investigation records can be found by watching HPD's webinar Lead-Based Paint Annual Notice and Recordkeeping: An Owner's Guide to Compliance in NYC – YouTube or by registering for webinars as they are announced by HPD or by reviewing the Owner's Annual Notice section below.

- Provide XRF testing records, which an owner is required to have, whenever a lead-based paint hazard or turnover violation is issued beginning August 2025.
- Local Law 111 of 2023
 - Conduct XRF testing of common areas by August 2025. Records of this testing must be maintained and submitted to HPD upon request. Note that owners are already obligated to have all apartments tested by August 2025. HPD recommends that owners apply for an Exemption for all apartments and common areas that test negative or for which the property owner abates all lead-based paint surfaces.
- Local Law 123 of 2023
 - If a child under six resides in a unit with presumed lead-based paint in a multiple dwelling built prior to 1960 or a dwelling unit in a private dwelling erected prior to January 1, 1960 where each dwelling unit is to be occupied by persons other than the owner or the owner's family, on January 1, 2025, the property owner must abate the lead-based paint on door and window friction surfaces, and remediate lead paint hazards, including making all floors smooth and cleanable, by July 2027
 - If a child under six comes to reside in a unit with presumed lead-based paint, after January 1, 2025, the property owner must abate the lead-based paint on door and window friction surfaces, and remediate lead paint hazards, including making all floors smooth and cleanable within three years of the date that the child comes to reside there.

- Local Law 111 of 2023
 - Conduct a visual inspection of paint conditions in a common area observed in the inspector's line of travel when the inspector is in the building to complete a complaint-based lead paint inspection in a dwelling unit. This requirement becomes effective in June 2024.
- Local Law 127 of 2023
 - Add violations for failure to comply with turnover requirements (see below Owner's Section labelled Turnover for details) as a criterion for selecting buildings for audit. Also, as part of the selection criteria for audits, consider the number of violations and data on the prevalence of elevated blood lead levels in certain geographic areas identified by the NYC Department of Health & Mental Hygiene (DOHMH). This requirement becomes effective in September 2024.
- Local Law 122 of 2023
 - Dismiss a record-keeping violation as corrected if the owner submits:
 - an appropriate request form for such violation with the required consecutive 10 years of records, including such records for the year in which the owner is submitting the dismissal request; OR
 - the appropriate request form for such violation with documentation demonstrating that the owner has kept the required records for a period of at least three consecutive years, including such records for the year in which the owner is submitting the dismissal request, and upon notification from HPD that such submitted documentation is sufficient, a payment of $1,000 for each year of the 10 years that the owner does not submit documentation. This requirement becomes effective in September 2024.
